

Name_____Dept._____Id. No._____

From the table, choose the type of fallacy committed. The same answer may be repeated for different questions.

Hasty Generalization	False Dichotomy	Causal Inference/Post hoc
Appeal to People/Snobbery	Begging the Question	Slippery slope
Appeal to People/Bandwagon	Complex Question	Unqualified Authority
Non Causa pro Causa	Red Herring

1. Three out of four dentists recommend organic fruits to prevent cancer. _____
2. If you let your kids play video games, they'll never pick up a book again! _____
3. The Ethiopians who believe in the truth of a curse (እርግማን) usually commit the fallacy of _____.
4. PM Abiy Ahmed wants to minimize all defense funding. Why would he want to leave us at the mercy of our enemies like that? _____
5. If a runner runs faster, he can win the race. Therefore, if all the runners run faster, they can all win the race. _____
6. Have you noticed how all young people are really bad drivers? _____
7. A successful politician has to be either a liar or just plain lucky. _____
8. Ever since our new school superintendent took office last January, crime has increased 14 percent. _____
9. Each year more than one million Ethiopians trust Ayat Real Estate to sell their homes. Shouldn't you? _____
10. None of the children in my family drink coffee; obviously, children don't like coffee. _____
11. Since both the Washington Post and the New York Times magazines endorsed the senator for reelection, she has my vote! _____