Introduction

Greetings all,

Welcome to the “Secret Orgasm Tips Interview” transcription. Just a short preface – this transcription may not be 100% the same as the recordings of the interview I conducted with The Master. But it’s close enough where you won’t miss anything valuable.

For the purposes of this interview, at the time, the Master and I didn’t really know what we were going to do with it. Therefore, we referred to each other by our nick-names Thundercat and Masterclass, for the sake of anonymity. So while reading this transcription, keep in mind that I (Joseph Matthews) am Thundercat and The Master is referred to as Masterclass.

Enjoy,

Joseph Matthews

Thunder Cat: Hey, what's up everyone? This is Thunder Cat here and I have the great pleasure today to sit here and interview the one, the only, Masterclass. What's up Masterclass? How's it going?

Masterclass: Oh, it's going great man. How are you?

Thunder Cat: I'm doing pretty good. Now for those of you who don't know who Masterclass is. He's-I'm gonna go through your credentials here, alright?

Masterclass: By all means.

Thunder Cat: You're a certified hypnotist.

Masterclass: That's correct.

Thunder Cat: And you're also a martial artist.

Masterclass: That's correct.

Thunder Cat: How many black belts you got?

Masterclass: Three.

Thunder Cat: Three black belts. You're a certified at handwriting analysis, right?

Masterclass: I'm not quite certified but I've been-I've it studied extensively. The only thing I never did was finish the actual written exam. I'm gonna talk to Bart about that though.

Thunder Cat: Okay. And you're also and eastern medical guy, right?

Masterclass: That is correct.

Thunder Cat: Which means that you do what?

Masterclass: I do acupuncture, and oriental medicine, and herbology, massage, body work, needling.

Thunder Cat: Are we leaving anything out here?

Masterclass: Other than the topic of this particular interview? (Laughter)

Thunder Cat: Well, we're getting to that.

Masterclass: At this particular moment, no. I think that pretty much covers it.

Thunder Cat: You also do a good Johnny Depp impersonation.

Masterclass: ____ (Laughter)

Thunder Cat: Captain Jack Sparrow.

Masterclass: Chicks love it, trust me on that.

Thunder Cat: I'll take your word.

Masterclass: Do. I can deconstruct it for you. Tell you why they love it.

Thunder Cat: We'll get to that. We'll get to that. So, on top of that big resume you got there. There was also the fact that you are pretty much an expert in sexual mastery.

Masterclass: That would be true.

Thunder Cat: Now, in your own words, what exactly is sexual mastery?

Masterclass: Sexual mastery is the ability to take any woman that you're with and take her to levels of orgasm and pleasure that she's never known and to do it in a very, very quick way and in such a way that you become pretty much the ultimate amusement park ride in her mind. When I use my techniques, and my techniques evolved basically as a natural byproduct of just my adventures in various lifestyles and things like that, but I noticed that after a certain sequence of techniques, I started to get these really, really strong responses and not only that, these people started buying me things. I mean, they'd go out of their way to please me in any way I could imagine. and that's a byproduct of being able to do the techniques that we're gonna talk about later on. But sexual mastery to me is the ability to figure out any woman's pleasure code and press it multiple times and when you do that, you raise you raise yours status or your stock in her eyes to the point where nobody can compare. I tell the women I sleep with, "Go out and sleep with other men, cause I know you'll be back."

Thunder Cat: That's pretty powerful claim.

Masterclass: Yeah, but it's one that's valid. It's verifiable. I mean, I-we'll go into story after story throughout the interview but-and I have no issues with that. I have no insecurities about it because I came from the swinging community where everybody's banging the girl you're with and you're banging theirs. And I kept-I'm the one that kept getting the return visits.

Thunder Cat: (Laughter) So, basically, let's start talking about some of the stuff that you yourself have pioneered that you're gonna start sharing with people in this upcoming book of yours. Now, let's start with the most obvious choice. Let's start with getting a girl to sleep with you. Like, let's just start with the very basics for guys out there who maybe can get it up to that point but have a hard time getting to the point where they can close the deal.

Masterclass: Okay. Well, what point are we at? Are we-I mean do we have full kinesthetics? What do we have?

Thunder Cat: Yeah, let's say that it's towards the end of the date—

Masterclass: Okay.

Thunder Cat: It's ready to start escalating.

Masterclass: Alright. Well, you usually start with a kiss goodnight. Which is usually, depending on the personality of the-I've closed women where you know, I've walked her to her car and I looked her in the eye and go, "Well, you know it's that time. It's time for the kiss. Are you ready?" And she goes, "Lay it on me." (Laughter) And I do, right then and there. You know, and-I think the first kiss is a big, big factor.

Thunder Cat: Now, do you have any tactics or secrets when it comes to kissing other than practice makes perfect or something like that?

Masterclass: The first thing is-when I go for the kiss, is-and I've seen this on a couple of other people's sex sites and things like that and I agree with it whole heartedly-it's to me the best way is when you're going for the kiss, cup her face in your hands and do the first kiss gently because what you're-this is where you deconstruct a little bit-what you're doing on the first kiss, aside from trying to make her knees buckle, which is the ultimate goal, if you can kiss a woman and make her knees buckle, you're ready. She's done. She's gonna do whatever you want her to do at that point. (Clears throat) but what you really wanna focus on when you go for the kiss is you wanna kiss her lightly. And the reason is you wanna get an idea of how she kisses because that's gonna tell you how to mirror it back to her. See, I've kissed women who are fish kisses, which I hate but-people tend to project onto their partner or the people they're around the way they view the world, which is how they view things as being right or wrong for them. And they tend to do to you what they want done to them. So by figuring out how do they kiss, and kissing them that way, you send a powerful message cause if she's kissing you she's already got report now you're taking it to a physical level. You're taking it to a deep sensual level by kissing her back the way she kisses you. And the whole palm on the face thing-the hands on the face, that's just magic. I can't tell you how many women I've done that to on the first kiss and their knees just buckled.

Thunder Cat: Now, is it both hands or just one hand?

Masterclass: I tend to use both. And I'll cup the cheek and perhaps the back of the head and I'll pull her into me. You may even do the Hitch Method, which is the 90/10 but—

Thunder Cat: 90% of the way in and then she does the other 10%.

Masterclass: Yeah.

Thunder Cat: For those of you who didn't see the film.

Masterclass: One of the things that I like to go for, if you really wanna know if she's into you, watch how big her pupils get. The more they dilate, the more she's into you.

Thunder Cat: The more they dilate, the more that she's into you.

Masterclass: Yeah. I have one girl that I'm doing right now, when she looks at me, her irises disappear. There's nothing but black.

Thunder Cat: Now, why is that?

Masterclass: Well, there's different theories on it, but you know, I was reading a book on body language not too-well, actually, it was quite a while ago and they were saying that there's a subconscious response to see more of you or desire to see more of you. From a medical perspective, it goes back to stimulation of the ocular nervous system. You know, when you get super stressed out, the eyes dilate and when you get super excited, the eyes dilate. So, really the-a lot of the response is whether you're in a flight or fight mode or whether you're in an happy and excited mode. A lot of them are the same physiological responses. It's just what emotion is driving it and I think that has a lot to with it.

- Thunder Cat:* Alright, so you got the kiss. Okay, then you what, drag her into the bedroom from there?
- Masterclass:* Sometimes, depending on what they really want. Usually once-you know, once I've gauged her responses, that's when I'll pull her in to me, that's when I'll put my arm around her waist and I'll really, you know, do the Ret Butler, you know, Scarlet type of a kiss.
- Thunder Cat:* Yeah, bend her over and kiss her—
- Masterclass:* Mm-hmm.
- Thunder Cat:* Not bend her over, but—
- Masterclass:* I'll bend her over later.
- Thunder Cat:* Yeah. Tilt her back and kiss her.
- Masterclass:* Yeah. I've done that on a couple of things and they swoon. I mean, guys, if you've never kissed a woman and had her swoon, that-there is nothing like that feeling in the world.
- Thunder Cat:* Big ego trip, I'm sure.
- Masterclass:* Oh, my God.
- Thunder Cat:* (Laughter)
- Masterclass:* Oh, my God. It's like, that makes your night right there cause-but pretty much, once you get a woman swooning, you basically write your own ticket cause she's up for anything that you wanna do at that point. As long as you don't violate her values, right off the bat.
- Thunder Cat:* You hear that guys, as long as you don't violate her values right away. That doesn't mean that you'll be able to not do it later.
- Masterclass:* Well, what happens is as she gets more and more into you and you go through some of the techniques in the order that I talk about them, her values become extraordinarily malleable and that means that a lot of things she told you she wasn't willing to do prior to your first one or two couplings, she becomes quite open to very quickly.

- Thunder Cat:* And that's some of the dark stuff we'll be getting into a little bit later.
- Masterclass:* Yeah. I was hesitant to talk about this stuff, but, you know, you kind of talked me into it
- Thunder Cat:* Yeah, we—
- Masterclass:* That's not just marketing, folks. Trust me.
- Thunder Cat:* We do have to preference this with a bit of a warning because when you guys try this stuff, you will experience some of what David's going to talk about—
- Masterclass:* Oh, my God.
- Thunder Cat:* And there are problems, but I'm sure they're gonna be problems that every guy wished he had.
- Masterclass:* There—you know, it's funny. You hear guys like Mark Cunningham talk about how women would break down his door or jump the fences to get into his house at all hours of the night. And one of the things that happens is that once you understand how to unlock—you know—if you've ever seen the Star Trek movies and you hear them talk about the prefix code. You know, go see the Wrath of Khan, you'll understand what I'm talking about. Once you understand how to do that and—you can do it, not just on a mental level which is hypnotic in a sense, but I'm not—the approach I take isn't through hypnosis in the conventional sense. It's all through sexual technique and understanding how to manage the emotions and states that she's going through.
- Thunder Cat:* And we're gonna get into that in just a little bit. So we got her kissing—
- Masterclass:* Mm-hmm.
- Thunder Cat:* We're taking her into the bedroom. Now let's start talking about some of the more specific techniques. In particular let's start with the thing every guy starts with, the clit.
- Masterclass:* The clit.
- Thunder Cat:* Why don't you talk about some of your clitoral strategery on—
- Masterclass:* The clitoral strategies.

Thunder Cat: Yeah, exactly.

Masterclass: When it comes to the clit, less is more. And what I mean by that is-first of all (clears throat) the clit is the bull's eye. We all know that. Okay? It's the panic button, but remember there's other places in the vagina that are just as sensitive. And can give her actually a stronger and different type of orgasm. David Shade talks a lot about that when he talks about the Deep Spot and when he talks about squirting but he-there were some point's that-in his seminar that he didn't quite get to because of time I think. But when we talk about the clit, the first thing is don't go for the clit directly. Never go for the clit directly. With women, it's all about build up. It's all about anticipation. It's all about teasing. You know, there's a certain guy who teaches this thing called rapid romance-

Thunder Cat: (Laughter)

Masterclass: And he talks about a certain pattern called the Blow Job Pattern.

Thunder Cat: He who shall not be named.

Masterclass: Yes. And he talks about-in that pattern how you take that first morsel and you tease your tongue with it-

Thunder Cat: Let's not do the whole pattern.

Masterclass: I'm not gonna do it, but-I'm real good at deconstructing things so you can understand the driving force underneath it. What it is women are all about the build up. They're all about us turning it up by degree, by degree by degree. And when it comes to-it comes to the clit, you can amp up a woman before you ever get to the clit by working around the areas that are very sensitive but aren't right on the clit. Because they're anticipating, "Is he gonna touch it? Is he gonna lick it? What's he gonna do next?" So the insides of the thighs, the labia, the lips the areas around the clitoris, work those. Kiss them. Nibble them. Suck them. Stroke them. Work those and what you'll-as you get closer and closer, if you're paying attention to her responses, every time you get a little bit closer to the clit, you'll feel her body tenser or stiffen because she's expecting that rush, that little, you know, that little sudden stimulation. And you back off and she's like "Oh my God." And every time you get a little closer-it's kind of like sexual fractionation. In hypnosis we talk about if you put someone in trans, bring em out and put em back in again, the next time they go into trans they go deeper. Same thing here. When you bring a woman and you start amping up her state and you back off and you bring her up again and get a little bit closer this time, she gets more and more aroused. That's how it works. So when you go-by the time you actually get to the clit, she's primed. Now that doesn't mean she's gonna come right away but you're chances of getting her off faster and harder go up substantially. Now when you actually get to the clit-this is where a technique I like to call the secret twitch comes in. Okay. Now depending on how you're gonna stimulate the clit will determine when to use this technique. You can do it orally. You can do it with your fingers, okay. The last thing I ever do is stick my dick in a woman. She's usually come three or four times, usually three.

Thunder Cat: Now I wanna take this opportunity to point that out as golden rule. One of Masterclass's big rules is always make a girl come two or three times before she even sees your dick and he swears by this rule.

Masterclass: I absolutely live by this rule.

Thunder Cat: And I tell you guys, this is a golden rule if you wanna become the kind of sexual master where you have women breaking down your door to have sex with you on this one. This one is really important. So listen to this again. Rewind it if you have to. In fact, I'll say it again so you don't have to rewind it. Make her come two to three times before she even sees your dick, not even stick your dick in her, before she even sees it. Okay. So if you gotta put a sock on that thing and keep it hidden until she's-until the pump has been primed.

Masterclass: And the psychology behind this is, okay. If you've paid any attention to what David Shade talks about-by the way, my name's David, too. I'm not gonna give my last name cause I'm just modest that way, but David talks-he gives some interesting statistics in his seminar. I think he does it in his book. He says that 30%-30% of all women have never had an orgasm, ever. None. Okay? 30%, three out of ten-three out of every ten. The other 70% have never had an orgasm during sex-during intercourse. Okay? Now think about this for a minute. If you give a woman three orgasms before she even gets your penis inside of her, what does that make you like-what's that like in her eyes?

Thunder Cat: You've basically blown out every other man she's ever been with.

- Masterclass:* Yeah. Yeah. Unless she's lucky to get with someone like me or Shade or, you know-there's guys like us out there. They're just really really rare. So when the average girl or hell, even the super hot babe-you get a woman that lit up that quickly, that completely, she can't wait to come back.
- Thunder Cat:* There are guys out there like boyfriends and husbands who have been with women for God know how many years, 10, 15 years and they've never made them experience something like what David's gonna be teaching you guys because you know, their model of how to stimulate her is-has no frame of reference. They may explore. They may experiment and stuff like that but that doesn't necessarily mean that they've ever blown her mind.
- Masterclass:* That's true.
- Thunder Cat:* And what David's gonna be talking about here is gonna be how to blow a woman's mind.
- Masterclass:* I can't tell you the looks I get-by the way, I'm also-in the book, when it comes out, I'm also gonna teach you the one orgasm women can't fake.
- Thunder Cat:* And that's a pretty messy orgasm.
- Masterclass:* That's a pretty messy one.
- Thunder Cat:* That's how you know they can't fake it.
- Masterclass:* As Thunder Cat as seen the remnants of—
- Thunder Cat:* Now now, I gotta be modest. (Laughter) Okay. Well we're getting off that. Let's go back—
- Masterclass:* Okay.
- Thunder Cat:* Your fingering technique with the clitoris—
- Masterclass:* Okay.
- Thunder Cat:* Or you can also use it with your mouth.
- Masterclass:* Yeah. Basically, it's not really a fingering technique per se. What it is and again a lot of what I do is about paying attention to how she's responding. If you can learn to pay attention to how she responds, you can write your own ticket because she's gonna tell you. She's gonna tell you in her responses, in her expressions, exactly what you need to be doing to get her off in the way that's the most powerful for her.

Thunder Cat: So, in other words, pay attention.

Masterclass: Pay fucking attention. But basically the way this technique works is when you're getting ready to go down on her-what I do is I'll take either one, depending on how small she is, or two fingers and I'll insert them in the vagina and I'll let my fingers contour the roof of her vagina so that I can feel where her G-spot is. I feel where her Deep Spot is.

Thunder Cat: What's the G-Spot feel like?

Masterclass: The G-Spot is a rough patch of skin that's just on the inside of the vagina. If you actually slide your fingers up and in, you'll feel a little rough patch of skin in there. I'm sure you've felt that.

Thunder Cat: Mm-hmm.

Masterclass: Okay. What'll happen is it's very sensitive to pressures. What'll happen is as she gets more and more aroused, as she has more and more orgasms, that area will start to swell, okay? That comes to the squirting orgasm, which we'll talk to maybe later-but at this point in time, we're not going for the squirt and in my opinion you never go for the squirting orgasm first. You're gonna be there a long fucking time and you're arm's gonna get really fucking tired. So one of the things that you wanna focus on is getting her off the directest to two to three times. All-with women, it's all about the O.

Thunder Cat: Plus a lot of guys, they tend to climax really quickly-

Masterclass: Yes.

Thunder Cat: And so if that should happen, if there are guys who just the sight of a naked girl makes them kind of mess their pants-

Masterclass: Mm-hmm.

Thunder Cat: These are tactics that they can use to get-take time to recover so you know you're not in an American Pie type situation.

Masterclass: Yeah, exactly.

- Thunder Cat:* And get the girl going. So, you got your fingers in her and you're contouring the upper roof of her vagina—
- Masterclass:* Right.
- Thunder Cat:* Trying-feeling out her G-Spot.
- Masterclass:* Right. Now the next thing you wanna do is if you're going-say you're going for oral for example, is you wanna start to gently lick the clit. Now, what's gonna be interesting here-and I'm gonna give you some things that seem counter intuitive but if you do them, you gotta a greater chance of getting her off the first time out. Okay? So the first thing you wanna do is you wanna find the clit. Now, depending on where you're at in her state of arousal, the clit may be very easy to find or it may be small. Okay? What you're gonna do is you're gonna start to use your tongue, use your lips to excite the clitoris. Now you can do this any number of ways. You can use the patented Karate Kid paint the fence mode where you go up and down up and down. Okay. You can do the circle-you know, the circular method. You can, if you're really talented, you can lick the Hebrew Alphabet. Okay or the Chinese Alphabet. Regardless of what approach you're gonna use, what you're gonna pay attention to-every so often there's gonna be a stroke that really gets to her. There's gonna be a direction or angle or a pressure or a combination that's really gonna stimulate her when it does, what you're gonna feel if you're paying attention the vaginal muscles will involuntarily contract. This is like sexual Lojack, okay, because all you have to do is pay attention to when her vaginal muscles tense. That's when she's getting the most stimulation and it's right for her. Once you find the stroke, you keep going at the same pressure, the same tempo and what'll happen is sequentially, as she gets closer and closer and closer, those muscles will get tighter and tighter and tighter. And when she's getting really close, the hips will start to shake, the back will start to arch but that grip on your two fingers is gonna get-it's like she's holding on for dear life in there but she's not even consciously aware of it. But she's basically telling you through that grip exactly what you need to do, how you need to do it. Here's where things get a little hairy. As she gets more excited, a lot of women start to get more and more vocal. They start to move around a lot. Okay? They also start to do really stupid things like harder, faster, harder faster—
- Thunder Cat:* Like screaming that?

- Masterclass:* Yeah. Don't do it. The minute you change the pressure, the minute you change the angle you change the stimulation. Which means if you're lucky and she-and you get it you can get her off but you're chances drop dram-I can't tell you how many women have come right to the brink of orgasm and I've done what they said, harder, faster-and (snaps fingers) they loose it.
- Thunder Cat:* So, as always, never listen to what the girl says.
- Masterclass:* Indeed.
- Thunder Cat:* You always wanna do what works, not what they tell you to do.
- Masterclass:* Yes. So what you do is you just keep the same pressure. You keep the same rate. You keep the same tempo and she will-she will come buckets. She will explode.
- Thunder Cat:* And you keep doing that until she orgasms—
- Masterclass:* Oh yeah.
- Thunder Cat:* Two or three times.
- Masterclass:* Yup. Well actually, what you do is after she comes the first time, it's usually real sensitive. So, you can do one of two things. You can either change the stimulation, you know, change the spot that you're going for-like a lot of people focus on the clit because it's there and it's easy to find. Not that they can do much with it but that get really really sensitive. So what I like to do is I'll give her a break and I'll go-I'll just cup my hand on her vagina and I'll just put a very gentle pressure on the labia and the area around there—
- Thunder Cat:* Kind of massage it.
- Masterclass:* Yeah. Because I want the stimulation to die down but I want it-I want the heat there. I want her to feel my hand. I want her to know there's gonna be more. And then what I'll do is-while I'm kissing her because I'll have my hand up around her neck and I'll be kissing her, maybe sucking on her breasts or whatever, and I'll slip my hand down between her legs and what I'll do now is I'll just start to slip my finger up in and on that G-Spot as I'm doing the little pressure with my palm and again, it's it's-it's keeping the fires warm while I'm letting her recover and then I can also tell by the size of her clit-by the size of her clit and how hard it is when she's ready to go again. And every now and then I'll take my middle finger or my pointer finger and I'll slide it between her lips and I'll touch the vagina and I'll gauge her clit and I'll gauge the response. And if she jumps, I'll know she's not quite ready. If she starts to, you know-if she tenses just a little bit, I'll massage it so light-I mean if-I can't really describe it on the tape, but if you were to just rub, almost not even touching it, just barely touch it. That stimulation is usually light enough that it feels good without over stimulating her to the point where she says, "Get your hands off." You know. And that's what happens a lot when you're doing oral sex with women is that, you know, she gets off and then just like it's-you're going the same pressure-it's so hard if she just pushes your head away because it's too much. So you gotta really play with pressures here. The more sensitive, the lighter you have to go. Now David talks about going really really hard, you know on their 1:00 position. Okay.

Thunder Cat: The welcome method.

Masterclass: Yeah. I don't gen-I do find that the 1:00 position is sensitive but I don't have to go real hard to get em off. I can do it really really light and they'll just come harder and harder and what happens is for some reason this is the one-the fastest ways that I've found to get women who've never had multiple orgasms to give them multiple orgasms because you just vary the pressure. Once that ball is rolling you get kind of sexual inertia going and they just start coming fast and faster with it. But you gotta learn how to gauge where the woman's at. That's the key, is paying attention to her responses. Most guys-I was, you know, I was there too the minute they get a hard-on all the blood rushes to that member and they stop paying attention to anything but that hard-on. Learn to put your hard on aside long enough to get this done and I'm telling you, you will never have a problem with day two.

Thunder Cat: Plus the hard-on will thank you because what you can pull off after she's orgasm a couple times is-it's pretty satisfying.

Masterclass: Oh, my God.

Thunder Cat: (Laughter)

Masterclass: I mean-you know when Major Mark says a satisfied woman will walk through fire, it's true.

Thunder Cat: And pretty much anything you wanna do with her at a certain point is fair game.

- Masterclass:* Yeah because, you know, all you have to do-you know-just know you've given her experience very few women have ever had. Okay? You become the ultimate pleasure object in her eyes.
- Thunder Cat:* I know this stuff is great too because when you go out to pick up women-when you go out to meet women and pick them up, you know going into the situation that you have something up on other guys that you know you're not frightened about like where it's happening-
- Masterclass:* Mm-hmm.
- Thunder Cat:* Or like where it's going or what the outcome's gonna be because you know that once you get her alone in that bedroom you're gonna be banging the-
- Masterclass:* You have her in a bedroom? No shit.
- Thunder Cat:* Well, once you get alone... or not even alone in some cases.
- Masterclass:* (Laughter) true.
- Thunder Cat:* Once you get her all to yourself-
- Masterclass:* Once you get her attention focused on you in all the right ways.
- Thunder Cat:* Exactly. Once that happens then-you know-you know where to go-
- Masterclass:* Mm-hmm.
- Thunder Cat:* So in a way it helps your confidence.
- Masterclass:* Mm-hmm.
- Thunder Cat:* Cause a lot of guys-some of them are concerned about like oh, maybe their dick is too small or maybe they think there's something wrong with their dick or maybe they're not experienced or maybe, you know, they're you know, kind of self-conscience about like how their body looks or how the girl's gonna respond to them once their naked together or whatever. You know, all those fears kind of go away once you know beyond a shadow of a doubt that you have the knowledge to make this girl orgasm multiple times. Stuff that almost no one else in her life has ever been able to make possible.

- Masterclass:* The odds are that no one ever has. And if she has and she's not with him, well, she's either lying or you know, he found-he traded up for something.
- Thunder Cat:* And that's why this stuff is so important because, you know, having that kind of confidence in your in-game really super charges, your you know, your front game—
- Masterclass:* It does.
- Thunder Cat:* The pick ups, the approaches, the attraction phase stuff like that. That's why a lot of really experienced lovers are guys really good at picking up women, stuff like that. They've had a lot of practice with women. They've had a lot of practice in the bedroom and that's why they can pick up women so well is because they have that confidence. They know once they see a girl that they want that they can pleasure her in ways no other guy can.
- Masterclass:* It comes out. It comes out in the way you walk, in the way you talk to women. Some women will tell you they can tell a good lover by the way he stands and by the way he walks.
- Thunder Cat:* Or the way he dances or—
- Masterclass:* Yup.
- Thunder Cat:* Or the way he kisses, whatever—
- Masterclass:* Mm-hmm.
- Thunder Cat:* Women have a lot of different ways of judging a guy.
- Masterclass:* The really cool thing is—one of the things that they talk in some book it's the more sex you have, the more you get offered because the body builds up these pheromones because of all the sexual responses that you're having. I remember I walked onto campus one day and I had just had sex with three different women over the course of like—I don't wanna say it was 24-hours, but it was pretty close. And I was kind of tired—
- Thunder Cat:* Obviously.
- Masterclass:* But the nonverbals and the responses I was getting from just the women who knew me on a regular basis was just huge. I mean, I was like—

- Thunder Cat:* They could smell the sex on you, I'm sure. (Laughter)
- Masterclass:* Well, I did wash. But literally they can in some respects because the body produces a tremendous amount of—
- Thunder Cat:* And not only that but women talk, too. They like to share about this guy who blew their mind to all their girlfriends.
- Masterclass:* Yeah. As a matter of fact, that's happening to me right now in one of the circles that I move in. Cause women do talk and you know everybody wants a bit of the other person's getting you know, women are very competitive that way. So, I'm getting—am I digressing? (Laughter) I'm starting to reminisce here and it's ____
- Thunder Cat:* Yeah, you're actually going there in your mind right now. Okay, now, you shared about kissing, fingering, your oral technique—
- Masterclass:* Mm-hmm.
- Thunder Cat:* And multiple—how to get a girl to orgasm a couple times before you even stick your dick in her. But right now let's talk about the coo de gra so to speak, the really messy, wet, sumptuous orgasm that women cannot possibly ever fake in their lives. And guys, this is great because when this happens, you know for a fact that you've turned this woman into a smoldering pile of love goop in your hands. So, but I've actually—
- Masterclass:* Quivering, heaving and fetal comes to mind (Laughter)
- Thunder Cat:* Actually, I didn't know about this technique even though I had read David Shade's Journal, I guess I didn't read it too closely. But I didn't know about this technique till you brought it to my attention and we both pretty much got our first glimpse of this thing through what exactly?
- Masterclass:* It was a video put out by a guy named Seymour Butts. Those of you who are porn aficionados may have heard of him—
- Thunder Cat:* It's more of an instructional—(Laughter)
- Masterclass:* It's more of an instructional video actually, and I highly recommend it. It's called Squirters 2 and in it Seymour actually walks you through the steps of giving a woman the—what I consider the coo de gra orgasm, it's called the ejaculatory orgasm.
- Thunder Cat:* The female ejaculatory orgasm.

- Masterclass:* The female ejaculatory orgasm and in that video it gets really messy, as a matter of fact, I've never seen anybody get a shower quite that way.
- Thunder Cat:* Well you know those porn girls they got their kegal muscles all built up.
- Masterclass:* Their kegal muscles are just outrageous. But, yeah, the first time I played with this I gave a-it was actually the first time the woman I was with had ever had an orgasm in her life and literally she curled up in a fetal position with this puddle the size of a small man-hole cover on the mattress and she-the look on her face, you've heard of doggie dinner bowl. This was beyond doggie dinner bowl. This was like, "You're a god," you know, type of a look.
- Thunder Cat:* And guys, before you try this thing, invest in sheets.
- Masterclass:* Yeah. (Laughter)
- Thunder Cat:* (Laughter) Preferably the kind where water just rolls off of it.
(Laughter)
- Masterclass:* Oh, my God. I—
- Thunder Cat:* Trust me, you'll thank me for that piece of advice. (Laughter)
- Masterclass:* (Laughter) It's true. Roll up the Egyptian Cotton and put them somewhere else for afterwards because it's a messy one and this actually is kind of-when I do the sexual conditioning stuff that I do where women actually start buying me things and paying for my food—
- Thunder Cat:* Which we'll get into in a little bit.
- Masterclass:* This is kind of the technique that puts them over the top. They're pretty much primed with the two or three orgasm rule prior to that. But when you do this, I guarantee you-I would say, probably 8 out of 10 women, anywhere, have never had this kind of an orgasm.
- Thunder Cat:* So, you do the two to three orgasms and then you finish her off with this one?
- Masterclass:* Yeah, exactly.

- Thunder Cat:* That's important because once this one happens, this girl is putty in your hand. She will- you know, if you have a girl who didn't wanna do anal sex or whatever like that, after this she'll let you stick it anywhere.
- Masterclass:* I can't tell you how many women who've just rolled over and said, "Do whatever you want to me." I mean, it-they just get to that point where it's like, "I hope whatever he does feels good." And I just go with it, you know.
- Thunder Cat:* Right. Let's get into the nitty-gritty technique of this stuff.
- Masterclass:* Okay. The nitty-gritty-for the ejaculatory orgasm?
- Thunder Cat:* Yes, for the squirting orgasm.
- Masterclass:* Okay, first of all-remember I mentioned earlier that when you-when you're doing the secret twitch, which is where you're licking her and you're feeling for the clenching of the muscles, that rough spot in there is a G-Spot. Now, as she comes more and more times, you're gonna notice that that particular area-
- Thunder Cat:* The G-Spot?
- Masterclass:* Yeah, it starts to swell. It starts to get more and more full.
- Thunder Cat:* And that's because the G-Spot's actually a gland, right?
- Masterclass:* Indeed, it's called a skein gland, which actually have the openings on the outside of the vagina.
- Thunder Cat:* And the skein gland is responsible for creating the fluid that lubricates the vagina.
- Masterclass:* Mm-hmm. It's very similar to the lubricant found in semen. I believe, if my medical history serves me correctly. It's a lubricant and what happens is that area gets more and more engorged, the more times she comes. Now many of you guys have had this experience where a woman-you just have finished a rigorous round of intercourse-
- Thunder Cat:* She's gotta pee.
- Masterclass:* And she's gotta pee. Okay. Well it's not that she has to pee per se, it's that gland gets so full and it puts pressure on the bladder. Well, one of the things that you wanna do is as you-as you're working her up to this fever pitch is you're gonna start putting pressure on it and it's like a back to front motion. It's almost like a come hither move. What I do is I actually go down towards the roof or the floor of the vagina then I come up and I scoop back towards that spot and what I'll do is I'll put a pressure on it. And it's gonna take a little bit of arm strength and endurance to get this—

Thunder Cat: Your forearm's gonna look like Popeye.

Masterclass: Yeah. And what I tell her—because most women have never had this kind of orgasm and you're putting more and more pressure down on that spot. What you have to tell her is, “What you're gonna feel is kinda weird. It's gonna be really good but you gotta follow my instructions.”

Thunder Cat: Yeah and what you're doing here is you're actually pacing what's going on, what's going to happen—

Masterclass: Mm-hmm.

Thunder Cat: So she doesn't start freaking out when—

Masterclass: Right.

Thunder Cat: It starts happening.

Masterclass: Cause she's—when women are in sexual mode, they're highly suggestible and they will follow a strong confident lead. So what you wanna do is you're gonna pace what you're about to do and what she's gonna feel. And what you tell her is, “Once you feel it building—when you can't hold it anymore—when you feel like you absolutely have to go, I want you to push it out as hard as you can.”

Thunder Cat: So what you saying is once you start doing the back and forth motion, the come hither, you tell her exactly what you're doing. You're saying, “I'm gonna be stimulating your G-Spot—

Masterclass: And what you're gonna feel is you're gonna feel that pressure building. It's gonna feel really good and—but you're gonna feel more like you have to pee. I want you to understand that you don't have to pee. It's something else. You're gonna ejaculate and when you feel that you can't hold it anymore—when you can't stand it anymore, I want you to push it out as hard as you can.” And from that point on you just keep—you know, going—

- Thunder Cat:* At the steady pace.
- Masterclass:* Steady pressure. And what'll happen is as she gets closer and closer-you can actually go harder here-what I'll do is I'll keep that-I'll still get my fingers towards the floor of the vagina then come up and scoop back because when you actually go towards the floor of the vagina, it actually stimulates more fluid production. When you come back-and eventually what'll happen is when she starts to push it out there'll be this explosion. Now some women will only give you a little handful, some will just wet the entire bed. I mean-I had one woman that ejaculated so hard one time-I was actually kissing her and manipulating her with my hand-my face got wet. That's how fast and how strong this stuff came out. But it's not urine, okay. It's just female lubricant. And once she gets passed that initial self-consciousness-and it's an orgasm that just rocks their world. They-every single female I've ever done this to has wound up in a fetal position on the bed just quivering. I mean, they just can't-they've never had that experience. And they want it again.
- Thunder Cat:* It totally just destroys the-they're pretty much shutdown for a few minutes.
- Masterclass:* Yeah, they're-that's when you start doing more foreplay stuff because it gives them a few minutes to recover while building the fires again and then you can go back to clitoral stimulation with your finger. You can do oral. There's other ways to do the ejaculatory orgasm. The one that I recommend is having her on her back first because you have more-you can see what's going on.
- Thunder Cat:* And the arm motion for going in and stimulating this thing, it kind of reminds me of a train, you know where they have that bar on the wheels-
- Masterclass:* Yeah.
- Thunder Cat:* And it's like chug a chug a chug a chug a-I mean it's kind of like that circular motion only like reverse where you're kind of like going down and scooping up and pulling back.
- Masterclass:* It's definitely a scooping motion. It's almost like-you know, if you were gonna make a snowball-you know how you dip your hand into the snow and you pull the snowball out and then you pat it down? Well the first part of that where you dip your hand in and you come up and out-you scoop it-but you're only using two fingers. That would be the motion I would describe it as best to get it.

Thunder Cat: And it gets tiring.

Masterclass: Yes.

Thunder Cat: It just-like this doesn't happen in a few minutes.

Masterclass: This is why you don't go for it first.

Thunder Cat: Yeah because you gotta prime the pump per se. Those two or three orgasms-it's not just to blow the woman's mind before you even start having your fun with her. It's to prime her for this moment where, you know, after she has this orgasm, you pretty much have free reign to do anything you want and for as long as you want or whatever. So-but it get tiring because this is not something that happens fast because you gotta get in there and you gotta start milking this thing.

Masterclass: Guys who go for this right off the bat are pretty much setting themselves up for disaster because usually-first of all, the thing you gotta understand about sex-generally the first time with any woman is the worst time that you're-if you're gonna be getting together. It's because you don't know each other. Okay? There's a lot of insecurities, you know, "Will he like me naked? Or "Will she like me naked?" You don't-you know, you've got this raging hard on so your brain cells are suffering from lack of oxygen. You've got all these things going on. So generally speaking, the first time you have sex-it may still be good but compared to what could happen subsequently, it's the worst because you don't know each other. Use these techniques it won't matter. But if you go for the ejaculatory orgasm first, you haven't given her enough time to build up the fluid to get the real strong powerful response that you could be getting. You may get it, depending, you know, how responsive she is to you, but I like to stack the deck. I mean, I want a guarantee-I don't like-I'm not much of a gambler. I like stuff that I can count on every single time. And this is exactly how it works and it works like that every time.

Thunder Cat: Alright. Now, you have a lot of other techniques that you do and we're gonna save that for your book-

Masterclass: Okay.

Thunder Cat: Even though I'd like you to give away-

Masterclass: (Laughter)

Thunder Cat: You're a little too smart for me on that one. But one thing I do wanna touch on is of course the back door, otherwise known as the caca method.

Masterclass: (Laughter)

Thunder Cat: Now, you know-I don't know about you, but there's something a little bit taboo about anal which is attractive to me but-with a woman anyway. And a lot of guys, you know, feel the same way. And I know that you have your own kind of style of doing it. In fact, you have a funny story that you once told me about how when you first tried it, the girl shot half way across the room-

Masterclass: That was my ex-wife actually.

Thunder Cat: Cause you didn't know what you were doing.

Masterclass: I didn't know. I had no fucking clue. To this day I still have flashbacks of legs disappearing over the edge of the bed and onto the floor. One of those things. But yeah, the simple truth is tha-

Thunder Cat: Cause you know, like a lot of guys who don't know about this stuff, they can, you know, hurt a girl. I was talking to a friend of mine the other day who had the situation where he tried it for the first time with this girl he was seeing and he kind of messed it up and the girl didn't have a very good experience with it. So I think it's important for guys to talk about this type of thing.

Masterclass: Yeah.

Thunder Cat: Course we're two heterosexual men, so-

Masterclass: In that non gay way.

Thunder Cat: In that non gay way. So, you know, who better to talk about this.

Masterclass: Mm-hmm. Absolutely. Anal sex is as Sam Kennison puts it, "Most guys don't even wanna do till you tell em they can't." (Laughter) But-

Thunder Cat: But surprisingly a lot of women really like it.

Masterclass: Mm-hmm. And the reason is because you actually hit the Deep Spot and the G-Spot from a different angle.

Thunder Cat: Now we talked about the G-Spot with David Shade.

Masterclass: Mm-hmm.

Thunder Cat: That's the spot on the floor or the roof depending on which way she is-it's on the-if she's facing towards you-

Masterclass: Yeah.

Thunder Cat: It's on the bottom of the-Masterclass: She's tits up.

Thunder Cat: Yeah, she's tits up. It's on the bottom of the vagina and it's all the way back on the roof of-what do you call it?

Masterclass: The Uterus.

Thunder Cat: Uterus, that's good. Thank you and it's called the anterior fornix, right?

Masterclass: Mm-hmm.

Thunder Cat: Medically.

Masterclass: Yup.

Thunder Cat: But the Deep Spot to us laymen. And what happens is-like you stick your finger in there and you kind of pull down on it, if you can reach it-cause some girls-every girl's built differently, but you can kind of pull down on that sucker it's very simulative. David Shade talks about it. In fact, I think we mentioned it during the other interview. So, when you're-girls who particularly like anal sex-they're built in such a way where the penis and the anal area can actually stimulate both that and the G-Spot.

Masterclass: It's kind of like, you know how some women, David talk about how some women like to have their clitoris stimulated underneath the hood of the vagina, where you take the upper lip and you pull it over the clitoris and massage that way-well, when you're coming in from the anus, you have a layer of skin between the actual-you know anus, you know region and the vagina. And there's actually that skin when your penis gets inserted in the anus that actually presses on that Deep Spot but you got that little piece of flesh-it's actually more than a little piece of flesh. I'm simplifying. But-so you get that little bit of coverage so it's a similar stimulation but that pressure-that constant pressure is what gets em. It's not-it's a vaginal orgasm rather than a clitoral one.

Thunder Cat: Or an anal one.

Masterclass: Well.

Thunder Cat: I mean, there is no way to orgasm through like the anus but it's through that stimulation the vagina through there.

Masterclass: I've discovered that there are so many ways that a woman can have an orgasm. To say that it's not an anal orgasm, I don't know that I'm-it may be true, it may be not. The simple truth is, you know, once you've got a woman's mind actively stimulated you can make any part of her come. (Laughter) It's kind of fun.

Thunder Cat: But-okay, so you don't just jam it in there and-

Masterclass: No, no, no. I actually do what I call the illusion of control. And what that means is she's doing exactly what I want her to do but she thinks she's the one in charge. So what I do is, first of all, I'll warm her up by maybe interesting my little finger in there while I'm actually stimulating her clit or vagina so that as she's coming-every time she ungulates, I inch it in a little deeper cause the anus tends to-or the sphincter tends to flex a little bit.

Thunder Cat: And do you use any lubrication for that?

Masterclass: Sometimes. Generally-sometimes I use her lubrication cause depending on how much she's really excited, there's a lot extra to play with.

Thunder Cat: And if it's after the squirting orga-you can just scoop it up-

Masterclass: Yeah, jus scoop it up, pop it in there. Usually I'll keep a lubricant handy just for that but if I'm going for like-a lot of times what I'll do is to get her used to having something in there, I'll stick my thumb in the vagina as I lick the clit and I'll use my middle finger and I'll just slowly every time, you know, she starts to twitch or whatever, that sphincter muscle's gonna release and every time it releases, I'll just inch my finger in there until it's up to like the you know the second or all the way I and I will just let it in there so she gets used to having it in there and as she gets closer and closer to coming, I'll start to move up and down and you can feel through the skin where in the vagina you are and I'll start to massage that way. So that gets her used to having something in there to begin with. The other thing I'll do-and then I'll go to something slightly wider, like maybe I'll use my thumb. And again, I'm still manipulating as massaging everything else. And then finally when I'm sure she's, you know, really excited and she's ready and willing, I'll say, "This is how you're gonna do it. You're gonna put it in." In other words, best way I found to do this is Doggie Style and what I'll do is I'll have her get on top and I'll have insert or actually I'll have her do Doggie Style or I'll have her mount me and I'll have her manually insert my penis into her anus.

Thunder Cat: Now she guides it in.

Masterclass: She guides it in. She controls the pressure. She controls the stimulation—

Thunder Cat: And the pace.

Masterclass: And the pace.

Thunder Cat: That's pretty important.

Masterclass: Yeah. Because what I tell her, I say, "You find the way it feels best." Okay. Well, that presupposed she's-it's gonna feel good and she's just gotta figure out how it feels best. Totally takes your mind off any kind of pain. Now it's gonna be some stretching involved but because she's in control because she's moving at the rate and speed that's comfortable for her, she's still doing what you want to do. The challenge is guys get so excited they wanna just start pounding away. No, the first couple of times you need to let her do it all and once you do, she becomes your regular three hole girl.

Thunder Cat: Yeah. And this is not only a way to have anal sex to start off with. This is also a way to condition a girl to give you anal sex whenever you want it.

Masterclass: Yeah. I had-you actually met a couple of girls that I was there first anal experience. I got the anal cherry. So—

Thunder Cat: Which can be quite satisfying.

Masterclass: And that's actually how I term it a lot of times, is I want the one you kept. You know, that's the one I want.

- Thunder Cat:* In fact, some girls you know, you've claimed that that's your hole and no other man shall ever you know go there. And even though they go out and fuck other guys, they'll never let another guy—
- Masterclass:* Nope.
- Thunder Cat:* Go for that hole cause you own it.
- Masterclass:* I own it. I have one girl that—oh my God. You know, even ones they swear—I have one woman I've been seeing now probably for over almost a year and a half and she never swallowed. She never did anal. She never did in the backseat of a car. I closed her in the backseat of my Jeep the first night. I just look at her and say, "I want the hole. Give me the hole." And she'll just mount up and—
- Thunder Cat:* You're like, "Give me my hole."
- Masterclass:* Yeah. You say, "Baby, you want me to come? You know what I mean. You know what I want. You know what to do." She mounts right up, you know. And it's—
- Thunder Cat:* And it's a great way cause that sense of ownership—it's like the girl feels really safe and—
- Masterclass:* Mm-hmm.
- Thunder Cat:* It's pretty exciting.
- Masterclass:* You gotta make her feel safe and excited at the same time and naughty because those are the three things that I think are the biggest turn ones for a woman in the bedroom. They like the idea of being naughty. They like the idea of being safe, but they also like that being on the edge feeling. You know?
- Thunder Cat:* Now this leads in perfectly to what I think is probably the most interesting thing you have to teach, which is your sexual conditioning. Now for guys who are kind of new at this or don't have the opportunity to meet the type of guys I do, this is incredible important because when you condition a woman, you're basically—you know, it sounds bad but you're training her to do stuff. Girls train guys to do things too—
- Masterclass:* Oh yeah.

- Thunder Cat:* But in this way it's kind of stealing the power away from them because you're training them to do what you want and it's great because you don't have to do as much work. You know out-after it's done it's easier to pick up women. It's easier to have women do stuff for you like you know the only thing they'll bitch about is when they're getting married. (Laughter) I mean that's pretty—
- Masterclass:* Women will want to marry you. You do this, that will become their long-term objective. So be warned. Okay?
- Thunder Cat:* Yeah, once they find the guy who can make them feel as wonderful as you can feel using these tactics, they're gonna wanna keep you. Now let's get into the sexual conditioning a little bit. One thing you tell me, which I thought was really interesting was that after you have sex with a girl for the first time, you don't call her.
- Masterclass:* No. No. And the reason I don't call her is because it's that scarcity frame you're setting up. Okay? You've just given her the experience of her life in most cases. You've taken her to a sexual level that no man has ever done. Okay? Then if you felt like it, you let her try and get you off. Okay? So now she wants to please you. I mean, you've just given her—all those feelings get linked to you cause she's in a hypnosis state. Pleasure's an incredibly hypnotic state and because you're the one that was present when all those feelings were being issued—they get linked to you. You must be the cause.
- Thunder Cat:* So if a woman hasn't had these mind blowing multiple orgasms before, when you trigger them all the feelings that she has when she experiences those for the first time get linked to you because she has no other frame of reference.
- Masterclass:* Right. And you start talking about the average guy does this. But you know how it is with me. You know?
- Thunder Cat:* That's why you said at the beginning, "you can go out and fuck however many guys you want—"
- Masterclass:* Yeah.
- Thunder Cat:* "Cause I know you'll be coming back."
- Masterclass:* And it's from actual real world—I've seen it. I've experienced it. More often than I care to count. I've had—I do a lot of fuck buddy. I have a lot of fuck buddy. And they just keep coming back. But every time they do, they get this more and more doggie dinner bowl look in their eye.

Thunder Cat: In fact, you're one of the only guys I know who's had so much sex, he's actually hurt himself.

Masterclass: (Laughter)

Thunder Cat: You actually threw out your back because you were banging about three girls a day, every single day for like a week. And you were put in traction for what, two weeks, three weeks?

Masterclass: A week. (Laughter) I don't wanna talk about that.

Thunder Cat: The thing is you couldn't move. You're helpless-you looked like the life was being sucked out of you little by little at that time in your life. So you definitely know a thing or two about managing women. And part of the management is the sexual conditioning.

Masterclass: Yeah.

Thunder Cat: So after you have sex with a woman for the first time, how long do you wait to get back in touch with her?

Masterclass: Generally, two or three days seems to be the magical time frame.

Thunder Cat: And during that time, they'll be thinking, "Why hasn't he called? You know. What's going on?"

Masterclass: Not only that, they're getting fucking horny.

Thunder Cat: They're wanting to have a repeat.

Masterclass: Cause think about it. What's a woman do? She goes home and reviews the date. Right.

Thunder Cat: She talks about it to all her friends. She calls up her mom or whatever.

Masterclass: Yeah. Alright. So all of a sudden she's reviewing all this hot, heavy highly orgasmic you know experiences that she's had. She's thinking about you and you're not calling. You know? Well once-there's a study-I think I've talked to you about this about how they took these wires and they wired up these rats to the pleasure centers in their brains and the rats actually died of starvation because they'd rather actually stimulate that little lever that sent the electrical jolt to their pleasure center than actually eat food.

Same process is happening here. Only you're doing it to a woman's pleasure centers. Okay? You give a woman this little pleasure-that many orgasms in that short a frame of time combined with the other things that set off her attraction mechanisms. When you do this process to a woman, you become the prize. And women will work themselves into a frenzy to get the prize and that's-and you use that. Now give her two or three days and give her the opportunity to come out with you again and you give her the same process. But what I do-there's a few other things that I actually do when I'm conditioning woman. I do a lot of-I don't do any hypnotic commands in a sense that I, you know, I try to bind them to me but everything that I do is hypnotic in the fact that I'm always pacing their ongoing experience, which-like if I'm gonna talk dirty-my whole way of talking dirty to a woman is to tell her exactly-describe with a woman exactly what I'm doing as I'm doing it. It creates a tremendous, tremendous report and incredible suggestibility and it amplifies their sexual feelings.

Thunder Cat: Plus it's linking those feelings to your voice.

Masterclass: All linked to my touch, to my feeling-I can look at-some of the women I play with, I can just look at em and they-you can just see the eyes. They the-the irises just disappear. Which is a go sign by the way. So there's a bunch of things that we do in the sexual conditioning, but the whole thing is-at any point you gotta be willing to walk away. You gotta let her know in a very nice, non-confrontational kind of way that this-what your rules are. How they work. You give her the experience of her life and you send her the fuck home. And you don't call her for two or three days and then you call her up and say, "Hey, I'm gonna go do this. You wanna come?" You know? And she'll probably jump at it. Usually, if you've done it right, she might try and play-you know give you a shit test or say, "See you later." Just walk. Cause you know-you can tell by the experience you've given her that no one's gonna be able to do that. And it may be a legitimate excuse-usually they'll just jump at it. They'll be over at your house in like 20 fucking minutes. And you give her the same process. By the time you've hit her, you've done this process to her three times, she's so hooked she can't leave. She can't leave. I've had-I've tested this stuff in ways that you cannot possible imagine. Women I was banging five years ago and told I was banging other women are still calling me. In fact, one of the women I'm banging is actually transcribing my book and she's in it. I've got-it's just-you become such a rare jewel and such a powerful source of pleasure-it's a sexual addiction.

- Thunder Cat:* And the thing is, and we were talking about this earlier before we started the interview is that once you got the girl hooked, basically on you as a drug—
- Masterclass:* Mm-hmm.
- Thunder Cat:* You know there was an audio series a while back that had this like forbidden pattern in it where like, some guy put-linked a bunch of negative notions to a door and every time she pissed him off he just pointed at the door and she wouldn't piss him off anymore. But with this you don't need that kind of stuff. You know, the thought of losing you in and of itself is a punishment on its own.
- Masterclass:* Yeah. And again, it goes back to the whole rats and the pleasure center thing. You become as Major Mark will put it, the dessert tray. You ever see these nice prim proper women in these high-class restaurants and they wheel out the dessert tray? And all decorum goes and they just get that look in their eye like, "Ooh, sweet stuff." You become that in their world. You become really the source of tremendous pleasure and they will through whatever resources they have at you to get you.
- Thunder Cat:* Resources like money.
- Masterclass:* Money, time, vehicles—
- Thunder Cat:* They will cook for you. They will clean for you. They will buy you clothes, jewelry, cars, whatever it takes.
- Masterclass:* I'm not wearing a single thing I bought. Right now I mean. Even the tie I just took off, I mean—it's the fucking dream guys. I'm telling you. It's just—
- Thunder Cat:* You got three different women buying you stuff, right?
- Masterclass:* Yeah.
- Thunder Cat:* In fact, this one girl's father just gave you a huge check, right. It's a rich guy's daughter.
- Masterclass:* Who by the way is married. By the way, married doesn't matter. There's a book by one of my mentors, Mark Cunningham. It's not a book that has techniques in it, per se. What it does have are the attitudes, beliefs, and behaviors of the man who is naturally attractive to those kinds of women. It's called, Renegade Secrets of Banging Married Women, or something like that. What he goes into are the fruits or actually dialogs he's had over 10,000 women in very private, very confidential circumstances, combined with some research on what are the attributes that women find absolutely irritable in a man. And they're derived from romantic novels. Now the reason that becomes important is because every-nearly every woman I know loves these freaking boyish ripper romance novels. But the reason is because they unleash fantasies that women keep locked away inside their minds. They play with, you know, they masturbate to these fantasies. Okay?

Thunder Cat: Now, I mean, these romance novels are to women what porn is to guys.

Masterclass: Yeah. They literally are. And they actually trade them like you and I trade baseball cards or something like that—

Thunder Cat: Or sex technique.

Masterclass: Or sex techniques. But here's the key. The reason that they eat these up is because it's what they're raised on. It's what they're taught, love, sex, compassion, fulfillment should be and they have this stereotypical ideal of what the male romantic hero is and what those attributes are. Now, when you take on those attributes and you start to display them—first of all, women become less important to you. When women become less important to you, you become more important to women. Okay? But you also, by having these, you know the sinicism and the arrogance and the confidence and that bad boy with a heart kind of approach, you automatically fire off—you tend to take on the cocky funny stuff that David D talks about. If you take on these attributes that cocky funny tends to emerge in natural byproduct. Okay? But when you start to—when these attitudes and these behaviors start to come out in who you are as a person, you become naturally attractive. You don't have to do anything anymore because it's who you are. And women respond at a very deep level to these attitude, beliefs and behaviors when they're demonstrated. Not when they're talked about but when you actually demonstrate them in who you are as a person, okay. Now the other clue to find out who's unfulfilled in their relationship is—I go to a busy medical school but if you happen to be on a college campus and you see any—not a lot of women who are very very active in, you know, school things, like maybe they're in a bunch of clubs and stuff like that. If they're married they're not having a good home life. I was the President of the National Honors Society, 80% of which was women. A lot of them were nontraditional married students and people. The vast majority of them were involved in those extra-curricular activities because home life was not satisfying and fulfilling. They got a guy who might have been a good provider, who was a good father but was not the romantic hero, did not sweep them off their feet, did not give them the exciting once in a lifetime sexual opportunity that they crave. And they do. And when you become that guy, they're drawn to you like moths to a flame. And I can't tell you how many women throw sex at me- married women because married women-when they enter that relationship, their roles change. And all of a sudden they're having to divide them self up between the kids, between the job, between their house, between the husband and at the end of the day, there's no time left for them. And so all those desires, all those dreams get squelched and put away. And a lot of patterns that come from rapid romance and you know other types of approaches, tap into that. Okay? But you don't need to do that. You don't need a pattern to do that. If you understand the behaviors, your life becomes more and then the beliefs and the attitudes and you start to take those on. You start to take those on. You start to internalize and that's what a lot of Mark's trained work and I'm trained in that-so comes in and you become that person.

Thunder Cat: And I'm a firm believer that you don't look at what someone says to get a sense of who they are. You look at what they do.

Masterclass: Absolutely.

Thunder Cat: Because people always respond more to action than they respond to words.

Masterclass: Mm-hmm.

Thunder Cat: That's why people who actually take action are so rare because so many people always talking about stuff, saying, "Oh, I'm gonna do this. Oh, I'm gonna do that." But it's the people who actually do it that always get the attention and women are very perceptive. So—

Masterclass: They're much more perceptive than we are as a whole.

Thunder Cat: And like me. I'm like the least perceptive guy there is. But the things is though, if you adopt a certain type of behavior, women pick up on that stuff. Even if guys don't women will.

Masterclass: The challenges is when you're dealing with-women are exceptionally good at reading body language. And a lot of the big seduction guys on you list, talk about the difference between being somebody and acting like somebody. Women can tell when you're putting on airs as opposed to just being that person. Because what happens is when you try to take on those behaviors, you try to act like something you're not, you have tendency to over do it and that ticks people off that you're not genuine.

Thunder Cat: And part of the thing is, you know, you're in charge of a group called Conversational Hypnosis, right?

Masterclass: Mm-hmm.

Thunder Cat: And one of your big tenants-you know I was at one of your seminars one time. You said, "If you wanna change your belief, you've gotta change your behavior and the belief will follow."

Masterclass: Well, it's actually an acting technique. For those of you who are familiar with the Stanislavsky Method-he talks about acting as if. Basically, I think the part you're refereeing to is we're talking about state control. Not necessarily the beliefs but states. One of the things that you learn-if you wanna talk about CPI is that when you get a report with somebody, there's a two-way communication going on outside of conciseness awareness and when you assume a certain physiology your mental state or your emotional state tends to follow it. Now, it's not a one-way process. It's a cyclical process. If you assume a certain mindset, your physiology tends to change too. Changing the physiology tends to be more powerful but it's a cycle. One will influence the other. So if you were to ask yourself, "Well, if I were confident with women, how would I stand?" And you stand that way. Within a very short time you'll actually start to go into that confident state. The trick to that is though you gotta maintain the physiology because we have these things called habits. You know we have a tendency to slump into our characteristic posture and of course when you do that, all those states that associated with come back.

Thunder Cat: Alright so one of-we talked a lot about the sexual techniques. We talked about the sexual conditioning—

Masterclass: Mm-hmm.

Thunder Cat: So you get them so they're crazy about you. They're addicted to you like a drug offering to buy you all sorts of stuff.

Masterclass: There's more involved to the conditioning part of it but that much right there-if you guys go out and do nothing but that will open up whole worlds to you. You won't believe.

- Thunder Cat:* Yeah. I mean in your book I'm sure you'll go into detail about—
- Masterclass:* Yeah. We'll go into the actual beliefs, the attitudes—
- Thunder Cat:* How to keep from getting married to them.
- Masterclass:* Yeah. And you do that right off the bat. You tell em-actually I even tell women after the first time I rock their world, which we discussed in general, I look em right in the eye and say, "Don't fall in love with me love. I'd only break your heart."
- Thunder Cat:* I mean, unless you wanna get married to em. That's one thing but if you wanna have multiple partners and wanna have this kind of like jiggalo lifestyle-American Jiggalo lifestyle that Masterclass here enjoys-like it's important to set the rules up front.
- Masterclass:* You've to because women will do-like I said when once you've done this to a woman, they will use every resource at their disposal-sneaky and underhanded or overt to hook you anyway they can. And one of the fastest ways they do it-if they can't get you directly is they will try to get you to make little compromises.
- Thunder Cat:* They'll start testing your rules.
- Masterclass:* Yeah. They'll start testing you. They'll start doing shit like-back when I was first pioneering this stuff, one of my first rules was, "I just want a friends with benefits type relationship and this was great and this was fun and I understand that you know, you probably want a lot more but if this is what I'm ready to give you, I'm willing to give you and as long as you're willing to accept that you know we can continue. But if you're not okay with that then it's time for us to say good-bye. You know, maybe it's just better that you move on." And I've not had one woman move on. But basically what I've told em is my rule. What I'm willing to accept. I've done it a no confrontational manner. And I do it in pretty much that kind of a tonality. I'm very open about it and I give them the opportunity to walk away right there. They don't. They never walk away right there. They don't. They never walk away.
- Thunder Cat:* And it's a commitment and consistency thing.
- Masterclass:* Yeah because you know, you start off a little bit, "There's something we should talk about but I don't know if you're ready for it." That kind of thing. And of course she wants to prove that she's ready for it and so she's opened herself a little can of worm and you go into things like—

Thunder Cat: So you say like, to preface it—so you're lying in bed with her and—

Masterclass: You've just given her the experience of her life.

Thunder Cat: And everything's lovely dovey and she thinks she's finally found the guy she thinks she's gonna marry and you say, "You know, there's something we should talk about but you're probably not ready for it."

Masterclass: Yeah, something along those lines. And of course she wants to prove it. And we talked about it in other circles, if a woman's excited about you, she'll be even more excited about you if she thinks she has to work to get you.

Thunder Cat: And right after that, that's when you go into your rule about not wanting to be in a monogamous relationship.

Masterclass: Yeah. Pretty much. I'll say, "I'm not interested in anything more than a friends with benefits relationship" That's how I phrase it. I don't say fuck buddy, unless she's really into dirty talk. You know, but usually if there that into dirty talk right off the bat, they've got a pretty wild side. But even the wild girls—most of them haven't had this kind of an experience. I can't tell you the looks I get from these women. It's just unbelievable sometimes. But—and I basically tell them, "Let's just walk away." And they never do—because you've paced it. What's a woman's ultimate weapon? She leaves.

Thunder Cat: Or she threatens to withdrawal sex.

Masterclass: Well, you've just taken that whole frame away from her by you know by giving her three sensorial orgasms and then if you've gone into this word you've just turned her into fetal public goo. Okay? And now you're sitting there, you're doing all cuddle cuddle stuff and you say, "Look, this is what I'm about. This is what I want and if you're okay with that we can continue and if you're not we should say good-bye now. I understand"

Thunder Cat: And you've got just a book load—literally a book load of tactics on how to do this sort of thing that we can't possibly cover in this interview which is unfortunate. You've given some great stuff so far—

- Masterclass:* Thank you.
- Thunder Cat:* But to accumulate all this sexual stuff it's gonna be-I wanna talk about the thing that you are pretty much the biggest expert I have ever met. I've met some really big like ladies men in my time but I've met very few guys who can honestly say they've been in the swinging scene for-how many years?
- Masterclass:* Four of five year.
- Thunder Cat:* Four or five years you've been on the swinging scene. That's pretty much a sexual free for all.
- Masterclass:* Uh-huh.
- Thunder Cat:* I'm sure that the reason you developed tactics the way you have is because your experience in the swinging scene and just the sheer amount of volume sex that you had in that scene.
- Masterclass:* Yeah. Oh, my God. I had to develop a lot of my techniques just to save myself from exhaustion. And one of the things that David-David talked in his Master Lovers about the swinging scene. He didn't go into too much depth about some of the trials and pitfalls of group sex.
- Thunder Cat:* And, you know, even his interview with you that we have up on the site he-you know, we touched on that subject. But I'm gonna ask you to share some of your insights and go into these pitfalls and stuff like that. But before we do that, let's talk about the good stuff like how do you get into it? You know, how do you get your woman into it? All this other stuff.
- Masterclass:* Well the first time I got my woman involved in something like this, she was totally hetero-not even interested in looking at another woman's vagina, nothing. And basically how I went about it was you know, I talked dirty to her. I started having-playing little fantasies in her mind. She was very suggestible so I'd play these fantasies-imagine a woman going down on you or going down on the most beautiful woman or you find someone she really thinks is pretty. Have her imagine it's that person. But one of the things that I did-I told her I was interested in this kind of stuff and I gave her a few URLs or FAQ pages for the swinging lifestyle and the rules and how it works and stuff like that. Because a lot of people have a very-misconception that swingers clubs are just these sleazy nasty, you know, trailer trash people and there are a few out there but by and large the large majority of the people in the swinging lifestyle are professionals. They're usually upper middle class. And just generally nice people who like to indulge in fantasy. The swinging lifestyle is all about fantasies. People-because of our culture, because of the jobs that we have and the lifestyles, we have to be respectable and all the roles that we have to fill. There's a huge part of our lives, our sexual natures that we have to repress. We have to you know, stuff it down. And most people are walking around just locked up inside but there's a small segment that David Shade liked to call Sexually Enlightened People. These are the people who have the strength to realize that there is a difference. They can separate love and emotion from sex. Some of my friends in the swingers community call it sport fucking, which is kind of funny. But this is where swinging will actually test the strength of your inner game and the strength of your relationship. But to get into it, the first thing I did was I got her at least curious. Now how you get a woman curious is really gonna depend a lot on the woman. That's kind of an individual kind of thing. I told her it was something I was always really really curious about and if she-and there are rules and things like that. Women like that. And it's all safe. But you get to play and you get to indulge and you can you know, pretend to be somebody else and all these other little things that go on at these Swingers Clubs. And so what I do is I gave the girl I was with a bunch of URLs of frequently asked questions. Where you can just go in and read these web pages of the most common questions people have about swinging, about how it's evolved, what the rules are. The other thing you have to do is if you're gonna get involved in the Swinging Lifestyle and you decide you wanna go and play-you wanna try things out, you have to determine with your woman what your rules are first before you set foot in a swingers club. Okay? There's different ways to enter the swinging lifestyle. You can join these newsletters that come out periodically. There's a lot of web sites. There's on premise clubs. There's off-premise clubs. And there's house parties. They're all different venue where you can try-I recommend for people just starting out in that particular venue to go to some of these off-premise clubs first or the on-premise clubs. Basically because they have an interview process. A lot of the clubs that I used to go to, you actually had to be interviewed by the club owners before they'd let you in because it's a very privacy oriented type of a-

Thunder Cat: And quality control and they don't want a bunch of single guys showing up.

Masterclass: Most of them won't let single guys in or if they do they charge such an exurbanite price to get in that most people don't even try.

They'll let single women in a heartbeat because most of the couples there, the female's bi. She's licking as much clam just as much as you are. A lot of times I was the one waiting in line after my girlfriend got * with the couple we were with or with the girl we were playing with or whatever. But a lot of couples will actually bring a third person who's curious. You know? And that's when things will get real interesting. But you walk into places like that and the first thing you see are usually these stripper poles with these housewives or these school teachers or these nurses, you know, who've always dreamed about being that sexually exotic, alluring, enticing, seductively powerful woman that they, you know, you read about without all the nasty, you know, dysfunctional stuff that goes with it. They want that fantasy. They want that eroticism and they're up there dancing-swinging on the poles and guys are sitting there, they're tongues hanging out. The girls are sitting there with their tongues hanging out.

Thunder Cat: (Laughter)

Masterclass: You know? And you have rooms with the little-you know the little toys in it, the whips, the chains, the swings, depending on the kind of clubs you go to. Honestly, and a lot of times when you go to these-you know how hard it is to hook up with you know, a woman in a club. Well, imagine trying to hook up with a couple cause now you got twice as many people that gotta like you. So a lot of times the thing you gotta do is you gotta go in and you gotta be dominant. You gotta actually go and introduce yourself which of course sets the frame. Learning how to work groups, all a mystery method. That kind of thing is really useful-

Thunder Cat: The Mystery Group Theory is excellent.

Masterclass: It's-I've actually used it in swing clubs back when I was actually going out and doing a lot of that. I haven't had the time lately or the energy. But yeah, group theory works really well in swing clubs. But it will test the strength of your relationship. The first time you see a woman or see a guy with his tongue down your girlfriend's throat or your wife's throat, really tests, you know what you find-

Thunder Cat: I know personally I could never do this cause I just get way too jealous.

Masterclass: Yeah.

- Thunder Cat:* Call it insecure. Call it what have you but that's not for me cause I'm such an attention whore to begin with. I want her—
- Masterclass:* I'm that way. I had one experience where-we had this one circle of friends that we had you know, gotten to know pretty well and they had one circle of friends that we didn't know. We had just met them that night and I took this gentlemen's wife out on the dance floor and it was getting pretty suggestive so I made her come right there on the dance floor. I just did my finger magic and she literally-just her knees buckled—
- Thunder Cat:* You fingered this guys wife on the dance floor?
- Masterclass:* Yeah, yeah. And—
- Thunder Cat:* Now this was at a swinging club?
- Masterclass:* Yeah.
- Thunder Cat:* Okay. I wasn't quite clear on that.
- Masterclass:* And she looked-she got that look in her eye and she laid a kiss on me in front of him and I thought the guy was just gonna go berserk. And they spent the rest of the night arguing and fighting, one trying to leave and the other trying to stay. Then the other would try to leave and the other would try to stay-because they got face to face with the reality that, yeah, your wife could hook up with someone or you husband could hook up with someone and when it happens and especially when a guy you know, gives your wife an orgasm—
- Thunder Cat:* Or if they get you, they blow the wife's mind.
- Masterclass:* Well, that's pretty much what happened. So I didn't get to close that deal that night but I did get her off. But it was a good thing that you found that out then and there because swinging will-it'll either make your relationship stronger or it will totally destroy it. And the reason I say that is because as you know David Shade calls them sexually enlightened people and even Susan and we've talked about it. She'll share David's cock but not his heart. That's what it's about. Okay? It's understanding how to separate the emotion from the act. Now I'm not saying there's no emotion involved. There's arousal and eroticism and all that good stuff but when it comes down to brass tacks, you're with this person and whoever you play with you go home with the person you came with or you go to sleep with the person you came with. That was the rules I lived by. And I still live by them. You know? And everybody's rules are different. You know, it's only cheating if you're breaking the rules. You know as long as you're willing to live by the rules that you set with your partner, swinging is a great way, if you'll pardon the expression, to have your cake and eat it too, because you get all the perks of being in a loving caring healthy relationship and all the variety any man or woman could want sexually, which is the thing most people crave. And I'm gonna get-I'll get all kinds of flack for saying that from the straight lace people out there. The truth is we all want some variety in our life because you know, you may have a favorite food but eating it every single fucking day gets old. You know? When you do the technique-what's funny is when you do the techniques that I talk about in the book and one-some that I've talked about here, the most common statement I get from these women is, "I can't believe it just keeps getting better." This is a year, two years later. It's just getting better. And it's because they become more and more responsive to you and you learn about-you play with new things and you build on what you've already got. And it does just keep getting better and better cause you're making love not just to her body but to her whole fucking mind, which David talks about. You see me tal-I quote a lot of these people because you know, I learn from them, they learn from me. You know? And that's-I think that's the way to go about things. No one person has all the answers. I still learn these things. And you know, people learn things from me all the time and it should be that way. I'll share one that I learned from you, which is the whole sniffing thing. I wanna give you credit for that cause prior to you talking about that, I had never heard of the whole sniffing thing. I said, well, let's go test this.--

Thunder Cat: Women loved to be smelled.

Masterclass: They do. Oh, my God. Oh, my God. She just left a puddle in her pants. It was unreal. Women-yeah, literally you don't have to-

Thunder Cat: And not smelled between their legs-

Masterclass: No, no.

Thunder Cat: I mean you smell them on their neck, shoulders-

Masterclass: Neck, around their ears behind, you know, on the nape of the neck and it's just little (sniff, sniff) you can play with the how long you do it and they just respond like gang busters. It's just so-

- Thunder Cat:* I like the long one like (sniff) (Laughter) like you're doing a line of cocaine or something like that. You know?
- Masterclass:* (Laughter) I'd wind up with a hair up my nose or something. But yeah, I'll give full props to you for sharing that one with me.
- Thunder Cat:* It's all about, you know, exchanging information. Some people get pissed at me because I charge for this stuff. This stuff's so good that if everyone started doing it, like, you know it would lose its effectiveness.
- Masterclass:* Absolutely.
- Thunder Cat:* To share this information. And it takes a lot of time and a lot of effort. Especially like with you because now you're writing a book with it and you have reason to share and stuff like that. I like to think that I was also instrumental in getting you to—
- Masterclass:* You absolutely were. And a lot of it is because one of the things that makes this so special is there's not many people who can do it. And the simple truth is even after the majority of people buy my book and read it and learn it and use it you'll still be in the minority. I mean if 1,000,000 people, which is a conservative estimate, buy the book, there's still billions and billions of men out there who are just sexually inept or who are painfully average. So there's lots of opportunities for the people who learn these techniques to go out and really have the lifestyle that they want. Now, I didn't talk a lot about picking up women. There's a lot of people teaching some great techniques and various schools I recommend you study em all cause each and every one is exceptionally good at a certain area or a certain environment. And you wanna be as functional in all of them as you can but you wanna find the ones that work best for you. Think of it as picking up or something like that but when it comes to day two-when it comes to setting up systems where, you know, a year later I can pick up the phone at any given moment and be between someone's legs in 20 minutes. You know or have them over here in 20 minutes or say, "Hey, take me out to dinner."
- Thunder Cat:* It's like ordering a pizza.
- Masterclass:* It's literally like ordering a pizza. I have a woman taking me out to dinner tomorrow who also wants to set up my budget for me. I had to turn down a car from her the other day cause she was actually getting ready to take out a loan to buy me a car. I do have limits.

Thunder Cat: Yeah, but this is the type of stuff you can condition women to do for you.

Masterclass: They-it becomes their own idea. You know, it-you know, it starts with little things-you actually condition them to start buying by say, "Well, take me to a movie or where are you taking me for dinner?" Little inquisitive things and then you let them do it.

Thunder Cat: And I know that you saved the really evil conditioning stuff for you know, your product-damn you. I wish it were here—

Masterclass: (Laughter)

Thunder Cat: But you know we gotta stop somewhere.

Masterclass: Okay.

Thunder Cat: Anyway. David, I would like to thank you very much for sharing a glimmer of your knowledge with me and—

Masterclass: It's a pleasure.

Thunder Cat: And I'm sure in the future we'll be doing another interview very soon.

Masterclass: I look forward to it.

Thunder Cat: Okay, thanks a lot.

Masterclass: Thanks a lot man.
