Sent On A Journey By God

The moment one becomes born of God's Spirit, as far as heaven is concerned that is the moment the spirit being has left Home for earth even though Heaven is aware the spirit has been living here many years ago or few. The moment you became born of God's Spirit, it is at that very moment you left Home. It is Truth, we all are spirit beings breathed out of God into earthen vessel [fallen mature] to be restored back to our original position in God in measure of our love for God, but this is Revelation still.

One can live for a hundred years, yet not in the family of God because of separation caused by sin. Another can live fifty years, yet according to heaven "in time" left Home just twenty years but still not known by God because although such has been born of God for twenty years, yet living completely for self and God knows only Love [Himself]. God the Son knows everyone, but God Almighty knows only Love [Himself] I.e. those whom has become Love.

“And behold, the Lord stood above it and said: "I am the Lord God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac;...”
[Genesis 28:13]

God did not identify Himself as the God of Jacob not until in the future when Jacob had Journeyed in love to become Love [fullness of God]. He never knew Jacob until He could find Himself in Jacob.

People of God, _ one born of God can live years and years, yet according to heaven as though he just gave his life to Christ few hours before departure. One might live years, yet not known by God. However, one like John the Baptist lived thirty years or less, left "Home" at a very young [born of God early], became Love and finished his Divine assignment. Another also like John the Baptist and Jesus lives thirty or less, but left Home for only five years or less and still became Love and finished his or her assignment in that space of five. And another lived years without Christ and left Home late, yet became love in less than five.

In other words; a spirit being who chose that path of love went on a journey for five years and completely fulfilled the will of the Father while another left for twenty or seventy years, became successful according to the world's standard, but returned back a complete failure before God. The difference between them all, is "Love." The one whom must become Love in a short space of journey must make greatest sacrifice and love enough to have no desire but to live [become] the Heart of God, _ seeking God in heart every second, living in obedience and repentance.

Christianity is not length of days but rather relationship with Jesus. God does not know you by your age on earth but by how much of Himself you've become

This is Revelation given from Above. Hm, For your love to become love the servant has given what He has been given. Meditate over it.

Become love
Shalom
