The Master Deceiver

Advanced Degree of Deception

The average Christian is extremely naïve concerning Satan and his tactics; not realizing he is the master deceiver who never slackens in his attack upon everyone and especially the true Christian Church. His goal is to totally destroy the church and every believer. The Devil is not anyone’s friend.

You must guard your spirit and mind from the powers of darkness. Watch where you go; what you do; what you see; what you hear and bring every thought into captivity to the Word of God. We must follow Jesus and the Bible. We cannot trust the neither denominational teachings nor traditions of men but seek for a true relationship with God. There are different kinds of false teachings which we have to avoid. Some of them are even propagated by true believers who are ignorant or deceived in certain areas of their spiritual lives. Other teachings represent a more advanced degree of deception and are only proclaimed by false prophets. The following are common categories of deception which are encountered in a large number of Christian churches and interdenominational movements. “Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves,” (Matt. 7: 15).[1]

An Angel of Light

One of Satan's greatest deceptions is the false belief that he does not exist. Still, many participate in occult religions that openly worship Satan, his demons or some manifestation of evil. Some witches and sorcerers practice deadly rituals-even to the extent of human sacrifice. But God warned ancient Israel to reject all these forms of paganism and Satanism. "When you come into the land which the LORD your God is giving you, you shall not learn to follow the abominations of those nations. There shall not be found among you anyone who makes his son or his daughter pass through the fire, or one who practices witchcraft, or a soothsayer, or one who interprets omens, or a sorcerer, or one who conjures spells, or a medium, or a spiritist, or one who calls up the dead. For all who do these things are an abomination to the LORD, and because of these abominations the LORD your God drives them out from before you. You shall be blameless before the LORD your God. For these nations which you will dispossess listened to soothsayers and diviners" (Deut. 18: 9-14). [2]

Old Testament and New Testament

The Old Testament includes about sixty different prophecies, with more than 300 references, of the coming of the Messiah. It was through the fulfillment of these prophecies that Israel was told she would be able to recognize the true Messiah when He came. The four gospels record several times when Jesus said that He was fulfilling a prophecy of the Old Testament. Lk. 24:27 records, for example…[3]

Prophecies of the Coming Christ

The following Old Testament texts either directly or indirectly point ahead in time to the coming of the promised Savior, the Messiah. These prophecies may refer to either His first coming or His second coming, or both. Reading and reflecting on these passages can greatly enrich your worship of the Savior. [4]

Gen. 3:15; 12:1-3; 22:1-18 (see Gal. 3:8);
Exod. 12
Lev. 16
Deut. 18:15-19 (see Exod. 33:17-33)
II Sam. 7:12-17
Psa. 2:1-12; 16:7-11; 22, 23; 110:1 (see Matt. 22:41-45); 118:22
Isa. 7:14; 9:1-7; 52:13--53:12
Jer. 23:1-6; 32:37-40; 33:6-9, 14-18
Dan. 2:31-45; 7:13-14; 9:24-27
Mic. 5:2-5
Zech. 9:9; 13:7; 14:1-11

How did the birth of Jesus fulfill some of the promises above?

Read through the genealogies of Matt. 1:1-17 and Lk. 3:23-38. What do you learn about Messiah from these genealogies? [5]

Faithful to the Cross of Jesus

We must remain true to our foundational faith; centered up the cross of Jesus; grounded in the scriptures and established in the power of God. When Jesus said “upon this rock I will build my church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it,” (Mk. 16: 16), He was saying that the church as an institution is here to stay; (Satan cannot destroy His church).

However, the members of the church must be vigilant and careful guardians of His Word. The Bible does not speak as much of the power of Satan as of his extreme subtlety, trickery, and deceptiveness. He uses clever wiles, devices, and stratagems. His plans are succeeding in the church only because its watchmen are asleep. On every side there are leaders of the professing Christian Church who are soft peddling the real issues of our faith. They, AND their followers are standing in tremendous danger. The children of God must now know these dangers for their own safety, especially these Christians who only play games, searching out teachers who will "tickle their ears.”

Foundations of the Bible

If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do,” (Psa. 11: 3)? Many Christians have never been taught the foundations of the Christian faith. Therefore, it’s extremely easy for the charlatan’s infiltrators to bilk them for their money. [6]

Jesus Christ himself said, “For if you believed Moses, you would believe Me; for he wrote about Me,” (Jn. 5:46). Likewise, Christ’s disciples taught that He fulfilled Old Testament prophecy (e.g., Acts 3:18; 17:2-3; I Cor.15:3-4).

Part Two

Test the Spirits

Seduction from the True Faith

Evangelist Derek Prince made this bold statement, “I suppose for every one person the devil deceives by atheism, there must be thousands persons in hell whom he deceived by religion. False religion has deceived humanity down through the ages, century by century, in untold numbers. And this situation has not changed today.” The Bible warns us very clearly that deceptions of religion are going to increase in a remarkable measure. And those that believe are going to be subjected to every kind of pressure to seduce them from their true faith. He deals with two main forms of deception in this teaching: [7]

1) Departures from Christianity - that is deceptions which claim to have their origin to being Christians, and often lay claim to the title of Christian.

2) Those type of religion or spiritual activity which lay no claim to being Christian. With reference to departures from Christianity, (I Tim 4:1:5), “You cannot depart from the faith unless you have been “in the faith”. This activity is traced directly to evil spirits or demons. They are called seducing spirits and the teachings they bring forth are called doctrines of demonism. The ultimate goal of these seducing spirits is to win people away from the Lord, Jesus Christ.

(II Pet 2:1-3), “False teachers in the church, privily bring in heresy that being damnation.”[8]

Heresy is not rejecting Scripture totally it is choosing how much of the Scriptures you will believe.

No heresy that rejected all Scripture would deceive the Christian. What are deceptive are those presentations that present Scripture but reject certain portions of it. The heresies this Scripture refers to bring damnation; they cost presentations that present Scripture but reject certain portion of it. The heresies that Scripture refers to bring damnation, they cost those who believe them the salvation of their souls. The devil does not begin with denial of the truth; he begins by calling them in question. For example: The serpent did not start with saying “You won’t die.” He did not immediately present the lie. He began by adding the question, “Yea, hath God said?” In other words, is it really necessary to believe? When Eve entertained his question, then he followed up with a direct denial of what God had said. [9]

The seduction of Christianity is often very subtle and various Christian principles are targeted. The devil has already succeeded to infiltrate evangelical and charismatic Christendom through seduction to follow after a counterfeit revival. He has also steered the Catholic and Protestant Churches away from the gospel of Jesus and the Bible. He follows the well-proved methods against which Paul warned Christians in the first century: [10]

"For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him" (II Cor. 11:2-4).

Judging Doctrines of Christian Ministers

Jesus judged and warned us to be aware of false prophets and why would we not warn the sheep? Paul said to test the spirits to see if they be of God. Their souls are in danger plus the people they are ministering to remember Jim Jones; 900 people who sat at his feet and listened to him preach that Jesus’ cross and blood sacrifice had nothing to do with their salvation; when Jones commanded them, they killed their children and committed suicide.

Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world,” (I Jn. 4:1).

Todd Bentley was judged by many ministers because he is a proven false prophet. He committed adultery, left his wife and kids and according to his own testimony was drunk on booze every time he ministered. He ministered under the power of a kundalini devil, just as Myles Monroe does. [11]

No Demons in the American Churches

How can a Christian test the spirits when they are not taught by their pastors that they have a real adversary that can attack them? Many years ago an evangelist from Brazil ministered in a Pentecostal Church that I attended. He said, “I come to American to raise money for my missionary trips to Brazil. The spiritual atmosphere is very dark and we deal with black witchcraft setting the captives free so they can serve Jesus. However, when I minister in America the pastors tell me not to mention anything about demons or witchcraft. They have this strange belief that demons only exist on the mission fields in the third world countries. Well, I am here to tell you that the Holy Spirit revealed to me because of their spiritual ignorance, demons will fill their churches and the only way they will be able to survive is if they hold all night prayer meetings.

Demonized People are Real

An hour or so in a room with a demonized person who is questioning manifesting demons will do a great deal to rearrange. Cancel our many theological theories that have no basis in fact or Scripture. There is a desperate need now to bring the local churches of Jesus into a wartime footing. Paul wrote, "lest Satan should get an advantage of us; for we are not ignorant of his devices”, (II Cor. 2-11).We are involved in warfare and victims are falling by the thousands.

E. J. Huegel says, "In the disparate conflict Christ waged, in which He lost His life, was He mistaken? Was it really 'the prince of this world' He had to face - a terrible supernatural being whose hate for God was as dark and as deep as hell? Or was He deluded? "That He believed in a personal devil whose dominion He came to shatter; That He commanded demons to come out of their victims; that He was convinced that if He were to save man He must show up the Prince of Darkness in his true light, and break his power over humans hearts; that He really believed these things, no student of the Scriptures would for a moment pretend to deny.” [12]

"Jesus went about ... healing all that were oppressed of the devil."

Owen C. Whitehouse, an avowedly advanced biblical critic concludes: That Satan exists as a personal center of evil influence, physical as well as moral (for the two are closely associated), is the undoubted teaching of the Bible. "But the devil, who is possessed with desire to imitate truth in twisting it, says to us:" I am nobody.” What are you afraid of? Are you going to tremble before the existence of Satan? Satan disappears in His successes and his triumph is his incognito. The proof that the devil exists, acts, and succeeds lies in the fact that the intelligent world does not believe in him anymore. Let me tell you, if there is a devil, there is a Jesus! If there is a devil, there is certainly a God. [13]

Dr. John Zollar: "Demons fear exposure above all else.” This explains the abuse, ridicule and hatred heaped upon the heads of the 'fanatics'-who uncover them and expose them for what they are. Satan will leave no stone unturned to smear and vilify one who attacks his kingdom of darkness with the light of the truth and deliverance." "We need believers who will throw all into the struggle to set people free of the awful bondage into which the world and even some Bible-believing churches have sunk. The call is loud and clear; many churches today are a pale, anemic imitation of the real thing, whose members often end up fighting each other instead of the deadly hosts of hell." [14]

Testimonies

The author has seen several people claim that they saw spiritual humans form appear to them of people that they personally know. They knew that these people had never practiced the witchcraft activity of soul traveling (astral projection). Since witches do soul travel, this is Satan’s counterfeit this demonic activity to accuse God’s peoples. This is why you must try the spirits to see if they be of God. Also, the human spirit appears in its spiritual form seemingly exactly like the physical person. However, the spirit appearance the person give the impression of being lifeless, dull eyes, body seems as a mannequin, the speech as a digital recorded vocal sound.

Several leaders were reported to this author as being seen in their pulpits on Sunday’s and the bar on Saturday’s. I believe that demons can take on the form of people an impersonate them. If the person is unaware of Satan’s tactic, he or she may be deceived by the supernatural counterfeit. If a person hears slander or gossip they will feel disgust for the Christian leader. Horrified, they may even tell others about the gossip of the leader, and spread the misleading and distorted information. In doing so, they will be helping the enemy's plans.

Every Christian should take authority over this evil spirit according to Matthew 18:18 and bind and forbid this activity. “Verily I say unto you, whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.”

The author was ministering in a church in a city that a known witch had a health food store. She boldly came to the church where I was preaching. I knew her because the local Christians took me by her shop. The preacher sat in front of her and prayed for me during the message. The Lord gave me a powerful salvation message. I thought this is going to be a great Elijah challenge meeting. I love to demonstrate the power of Jesus.

I gave an altar call for the people to come and be saved. The pastor and the lady handling my book table were in the foyer when the witch suddenly got up and ran out of the church. I was praying for the people when suddenly, the witch appeared in front of me. She seemed to step out of another dimension. Some people were making their way to leave the service and they stopped watching her. The Pastor stood looking very shocked.

She spoke to me in a rasping, computer sounding voice. “You are a very fascinating woman.”

I asked the witch what she wanted from Jesus. “Do you want receive Jesus to get saved?”

She replied, “I am already saved.”

I could clearly see her and her skin looked like a figure that you see at the wax museum. Her eyes appeared as snake eyes. A cold air emanated from her like a refrigerator. I asked her, “Do you want to be healed?” She replied “No.” I asked her what did she want Jesus to do for her and she replied, “I want Him to increase my power.”

I placed my hand toward her and prayed, “Lord Jesus, show her Your power.” She fell backward falling to about twelve inches to the floor, and suddenly popped back up. She had a confused look on her face and stepped back disappearing into thin air entering another spiritual realm.

Everyone in the church saw her. The preacher came running to the altar and he said, “I saw her run out of the church. I did not see her come back through door.” Everyone in the church could see what happened.

Secret Place

“He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.2 I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.3 Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.4 He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.5 Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; 6 Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday. 7 A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.8 Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked. 9 Because thou hast made the LORD, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation; 10 There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. 11 For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. 12 They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. 13 Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet. 14 Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name? 15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.16 With long life will I satisfy him and shew him my salvation," (Psa. 91).

Part Three

Global Political, Economic Religious Structure

Secret Cabal

“Some even believe we are part of a secret cabal working against the best interests of the United States, characterizing my family and me as ‘internationalists’ and of conspiring with others around the world to build a more integrated global political and economic structure – one world, if you will. If that is the charge, I stand guilty, and I am proud of it.” David Rockefeller Doublespeak is language that deliberately disguises, distorts, or reverses the meaning of words. Doublespeak may take the form of euphemisms (e.g., "downsizing" for layoffs, "servicing the target" for bombing [1]), in which case it is primarily meant to make the truth sound more palatable. It may also refer to intentional ambiguity in language or to actual inversions of meaning (for example, naming a state of war "peace"). In such cases, doublespeak disguises the nature of the truth. Doublespeak is most closely associated with political language.[2] [3]

The term "doublespeak" probably has its roots in George Orwell's book, Nineteen Eighty-Four. Who is considered to be a prophet for the globalist? Although the term is not used in the book, it is a close relative of one of the book's central concepts, "doublethink". Another variant, "doubletalk," also referring to deliberately ambiguous speech, did exist at the time Orwell wrote his book, but the usage of "doublespeak" as well as of "doubletalk" in the sense emphasizing ambiguity clearly postdates the publication of Nineteen Eighty-Four.[4] [5] Parallels have also been drawn between Doublespeak and Orwell's classic essay Politics and the English Language, which discusses the distortion of language for political purposes.[6]

Edward S. Herman, political economist and media analyst, has highlighted some examples of doublespeak and doublethink in modern society.[7] Herman describes in his book, Beyond Hypocrisy the principal characteristics of doublespeak; What is really important in the world of doublespeak is the ability to lie, whether knowingly or unconsciously, and to get away with it; and the ability to use lies and choose and shape facts selectively, blocking out those that don't fit an agenda or program.[8]

In his essay "Politics and the English Language", George Orwell observes that political language serves to distort and obfuscate reality. Orwell's description of political speech is extremely similar to the contemporary definition of doublespeak; In our time, political speech and writing are largely the defense of the indefensible… Thus political language has to consist largely of euphemism, question-begging and sheer cloudy vagueness… the great enemy of clear language is insincerity. Where there is a gap between one's real and one's declared aims, one turns as it were instinctively to long words and exhausted idioms, ...[9]

Transformation Shifts

The word transformation means a shift, or a qualitative change, a transfer from the original spiritual tenets to a switch over to a new religious belief system.

The Apostle Paul forewarned the Church to watch out for Satan's infiltrating agent's when he wrote, "For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him," (II Cor. 11: 4). [15]

Nov. 2, 1987: Mikhail Gorbachev addresses the Soviet Politburo: "In October 1917, we parted with the old world, rejecting it once and for all. We are moving toward a new world, the world of Communism. We shall never turn off that road!" He further reassures his Communist colleagues: "Comrades, do not be concerned about all that you hear about glasnost and perestroika and democracy in the coming years. These are primarily for outward consumption. There will be no significant internal change within the Soviet Union other than for cosmetic purposes. Our purpose is to disarm the Americans and let them fall asleep." 1983: "The Humanist" publishes an essay which proclaims that "the battle for humankind's future must be waged in the public school classroom ... between the rotting corpse of Christianity and the new faith of humanism ... and humanism will emerge triumphant." [16]

This book is about the new world religion coming into place. Are you ready for the return of Jesus? [17]

The Apostle Paul forewarned the Church to watch out for Satan's infiltrating agent's when he wrote, "For there shall arise false Christ's, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect…" (Matt. 24:24).

Judging Ministers Doctrines

We are supposed to judge those who minister to us that claim to be Christian Ministers by comparing their messages to the Word of God.

In the early days of the Charismatic Movement the people said, "We don't want to hear about doctrines. We just want to follow the Holy Ghost. And that's what they did… and they followed "anointed people" instead of the Word of God.

They did not want to hear about the end times because they said, "its negative." Then their "anointed teachers" led them to drop the KJV version of the Bible and they read all the various Illuminati Bibles which were only perversions of God's Word. The pastors gave the people what they wanted and the end result is that many churches have become worldly party houses.

If the pastors decide to preach the truth with Jesus at the center of their messages, they'll lose their big mega churches.

"Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved," (Acts 4:12).

There were only two groups God recognized in the Old Testament the Jews and the gentiles. Today they are called believers and unbelievers.

Another Jesus

"For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him." (II Cor. 11:4).

The Mormons, Jehovah Witness, Christian Science and many other cults claim to be Christians but they are not. What makes them not Christians is they do not teach that the one way back to the Father is through Jesus crucified; the blood sacrifice on His cross for the sins of the people in the world. Fortunately, in the past, Christian Leaders warned us that these cults were not believers and we stayed away from their churches.

However, every minister that claims to be a Christian is accepted into many Christian Churches without examining their teaching and doctrines by the church leaders and pastors! They conveniently forget the Apostle Paul's warning concerning "Doctrines of Devils."

"Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;" (I Tim. 4:1).

On the other hand, the ones that are exposing and reporting these ministers who are teaching false doctrines and spiritually abusing God's people become the outcast to the ministers that have accepted that "all pathways lead back to God." Their names are smeared and the consequences of this spiritual blindness have filled the Churches around the world with heresies and even denial of Jesus as foundation of the Christian Church!

Many Christian are in a state of confusion and sick spiritually and physically. They run from meeting to another searching for the latest spiritual fad; the only thing being promoted, in many instances, a New Age gospel of the flesh.

"Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines, for it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein," (Heb. 13:9).

False Teachers Teach Heresies

This warning is very clear. False teachers will arise who craftily teach heresies which will deny the Biblical view of Jesus. Furthermore, according to a prophecy, many will believe these errors and follow them just as we see happenings in our day! The charm and inspiration of pantheism have begun to exert its influence on the Church through unorthodox religious teachers. It has happened so subtly that few people have noticed. Many Christian teachers sincerely believe that they have found a new advanced stage of Christian thought. Really, they have drifted far from the very foundations of the Faith and have joined the great plot of Satan, The Master Strategist, to capture (1) men of science, (2) men of business and (3) men of religion.

Today there's tremendous numbers of people are caught up in this great deception, pleading that they are merely" researching" "natural mind sciences"; while these "new philosophies" should be considered spiritually dangerous, many Christian leaders have received them with open arms as the answer to life's complex problems. They have been weakening the gospel message and worse yet, causing great confusion among the brethren.

“If these people would depend on what’s in His word instead of what they dream or false prophet’s prophesizing, then they would know that God does tell us to judge everything. If we don’t judge then we will receive false prophets such as Todd Bentley, Jim Jones Myles Monroe, Kenneth Copeland George Otis and many others and we fall into the ditch. Jesus said, “If the blind leads the blind, the will both fall into the ditch,” (Matt. 15:23).

Transference through Infiltration in the Church

Under the title “Fifth Column, Disguised, Rev. Prince List Rock Music as one of the main channels, and its potential for harm is fearsome. He writes about a 33-year-old man that had become demon possessed listening to an album by Black Sabbath. [18]

This account reminded me of a young Christian man (I’ll call him Jeff). He was a Christian and his pastor had warned the youth not to listen to rock music. Jeff decided to attend a rock concert. He said he was sitting about the middle section of the arena when suddenly God opened his spiritual eyes to see into the spiritual realms. He described seeing a demonic manifestation of a giant demon who was sitting behind the band and his presence filled the platform. This demon was orchestrating the band. He would wave his hand over the audience and the people would sway in the direction of his hand. He said the other hand seemed to be controlling the band.

Jeff said that he was terrorized. His hair stood up on his arms. His heart was beating rapidly. He began to pray for Jesus to protect him. He said, “Jesus if you will protect me, I’ll never attend another Rock concert.” As he prayed, he noticed a man dressed in a white suit close to the front. This man began to more toward Jeff. However, Jeff’s eyes caught sight of the giant demon and he felt himself falling under its spell. He stopped praying. The man in white stopped moving in his direction stopped. Jeff forced himself to pray. The man in white started moving in his direction again. Finally the man in white took Jeff by the hand and led him out of the concert.

Just imagine. One giant demon was directing the band and holding the entire audience in a weird trance. The transfer of the evil spirit was successful over every person in the place! By exposing himself to the forces of satanic inspired music, Jeff was almost captured by the powers of darkness. Satan is using the spiritual ignorance of pastors and church leaders and has successfully used the fifth column to invade churches.

Witchcraft and Satanism is being spread through rock music, movies, and television. Young people and old are being enslaved by the powers of the devil.

The author has witness many cases of witches infiltrating Christian churches over the thirty years as a Christian. One Lady, (I'll call her Tessie) was a member of the local coven. She gave testimony that the way she was led into witchcraft was when she was a young girl. Her parents were attending a Baptist church. One night, after service, a young man invited her to have pizza with him. She started dating this young man. (I'll call him Jim).

One night Jim invited Tessie to go to a meeting with him. When they arrived, Jim went up to a podium and called her up. He said, "This is my princess. Tessie said that they all bowed down and worshiped them! Needless to say, this event called her into the coven where she is today. Thank God that he gave me spiritual eyes to see. Our meeting was the first one that she had been unsuccessful in infiltrating.

Today's Religious So-called Christian Cults

Jesus Only, Manifested Sons of God, the New Apostolic Prophetic Movement Third Wave, and Prophetic Movement, and hundreds of more. **. . .

"An astonishing and horrible thing has been committed in the land; the prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests rule by their own power; and my people love to have it so. But what will you do in the end," (Jer. 5:30-31)?

"For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first and also for the Greek…" (Rom. 1:16).

There are many demonic forces involved in these modern-day forces such as, magical, numerology, occult, mystical, shamanistic, religious, antichrist, and many more.

These are damnable doctrines of Devils, twisted word, witchcraft doctrines, witches, wizards, etc., are going to cause the greatest massacre in the Church of Jesus Christ has ever experienced in the History of the world.

In Matthew 24 Jesus describes the world before He returns in His Second Coming, as a world where the love of most has grown cold because of false teachers (Matt. 24:11-12); and where "the Faith" will be nearly extinct, (Lk. 18:8).

“I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom; 2 preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long suffering and doctrine. 3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; 4 and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. 5 But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry,” (II Tim. 4).

Part Four

Why We Need a Messiah

Separated Himself for God

When man sinned (Gen. 3) he separated himself from God. God is perfect, Man is not. In order for God and Man to enter into a relationship something needed to change. So God promised to send a sacrifice; a Messiah, to atone for our sins (Gen. 3:15). The sacrifice of the Messiah (which means "Anointed") would satisfy God and restore the relationship between Creator and Creation (Isa. 43:10-11).

"Ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me. 11 I, even I, am the Lord; and beside me there is no savior," (Isa. 43:10-11).

Jesus alone is the Savior

Not only this verse, but the entire Old Testament makes it very clear that God alone is the One who saves us from the judgment of sin. He alone is our Savior. [19]

"But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, though you are little among the thousands of Judah, Yet out of you shall come forth to Me the One to be Ruler in Israel, whose goings forth are from of old, from everlasting," (Mic 5.:2). [20]

The Messiah Would Be God Himself

Here we learn the Messiah is an eternal Being.

Behold, the days are coming," says the LORD, That I will raise to David a Branch of righteousness; A King shall reign and prosper, And execute judgment and righteousness in the earth. In His days Judah will be saved, And Israel will dwell safely; Now this is His name by which He will be called: THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS" (Jer. 23:5-6).

And here the Messiah is given an exalted title — "The Lord Our Righteousness" — and He execute judgment and righteousness in the earth. These are two things only God can do. “Surely He is God who judges in the earth.” (Psa. 58:11).

Complete Redemption on the Cross

The Scriptures plainly tells us that the work of redemption was completed on the cross.

The triumph of Christ over Satan is clearly said to be on the cross and Calvary resulted in the, "Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them IN IT" (Col. 2:14-15). Although there are many Scriptures about the Lord's victory on the Cross, another corresponding one is found here: "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things but with the precious blood of Christ, as lamb without a blemish and without spot…" (II Pet. 1:18-19).

In fact, the Scripture supports that Jesus arrived triumphantly into Hell after His death to preach to the captives and take the keys of life and death from Satan.

Moreover, the Second Chapter of Peter's Epistle addresses itself to the current type of heresy regarding the perversion of the Doctrine of Christ. The Apostle warned: "But, there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily (craftily) shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and brings upon them themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of,” (II Pet. 2:1-1).

Jesus Testifies that He is the Messiah

“And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.” And verse 44 notes, “And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and the prophets and the psalms, concerning me.” [21]

Jesus Christ himself said, “For if you believed Moses, you would believe Me; for he wrote about Me” (Jn. 5:46). Likewise, Christ’s disciples taught that He fulfilled Old Testament prophecy (e.g., Acts 3:18; 17:2-3; 1 Cor. 15:3-4). [22]

Anointed One

The word "Messiah" means "Anointed One," the name given to the promised Deliverer who would someday come to the people of Israel as their great Savior and Redeemer, "anointed" as Prophet, Priest, and King by God Himself. [23]

Some, of course, are still looking for the fulfillment of these Old Testament promises in the future, when the "Messiah" will come to establish a world kingdom of peace and justice centered around the chosen nation, Israel. [24]

On the other hand, the group of Jewish believers who became the first founders of Christianity was convinced that Jesus of Nazareth was their promised Messiah. The name "Christ" is the Greek equivalent of “Messiah,” so that the name Jesus Christ really means "Jesus the Messiah," or "Jesus the anointed." They preached this truth with such conviction and power that not only many Jews but, later, a still greater host of Gentiles, believed on Jesus, both as the Christ and also as the Lord and Savior of all men.[25]

And indeed they had good reason for such faith. The Old Testament Messianic prophecies were found to be uniquely fulfilled in the Lord Jesus Christ. There are hundreds of these prophecies, so that the possibility of their accidental convergence on any ordinary man is completely ruled out by the laws of probability.[26]

Damnable Heresies

Pope Francis Invokes Lucifer

“The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead [their] dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.” (Jer. 7:18).

Roman Catholics believe that Mary, the mother of Jesus, remained a virgin after the birth of Jesus and was sinless all of her life. She is worshiped in the Catholic church as the “Mother of God” and the “Queen of Heaven.” St. Bernard stated that she was crowned “Queen of Heaven” by God the Father, and that she currently sits upon a throne in Heaven making intercession for Christians.[27]

The Bible teaches otherwise. In the Bible, Mary was a sinner just like the rest of us. She said herself that she needed a “Savior” (Lk. 1:47), and she even had to offer a sacrifice for her sins in (LK. 2:24). Jesus was only her “firstborn” son, according to (Matt. 1:25), because she later had other children as well (Mt. 13:55; Gal. 1:19; Psa. 69:8). There’s only ONE mediator between God and men, and it isn’t Mary (I Tim. 2:5). The last time we hear from Mary in the Bible she is praying WITH the disciples, not being prayed to BY the disciples (Acts 1:14). The Bible never exalts Mary above anyone else. Neither should we.

Pope Francis Invokes Lucifer At Easter Vigil Mass from Now The End Begins on Vimeo.

Another thing that the Catholic Church is fond of doing is to invoke the name of Lucifer in their Easter Mass Exsultet. Yes, you read that correctly. The Catholic Church, as well as Pope Francis, makes singing a love song to the Devil part of their worship service. Don’t believe us?

Billy Graham Denies Jesus

Something very serious is happening. Even Billy Graham (openly) enters the heretical picture. And here is the content of the transcript: [29]

Dr. Schuller: "Tell me, what is the future of Christianity?"

Dr. Graham: "Well, Christianity and being a true believer, you know, I think there's the body of Christ which comes from all the Christian groups around the world, or outside the Christian groups. I think that everybody that loves Christ or knows Christ, whether they're conscious of it or not, they're members of the body of Christ. And I don't think that we're going to see a great sweeping revival that will turn the whole world to Christ at any time. What God is doing today is calling people out of the world for His name. Whether they come from the Muslim world, or the Buddhist world, or the Christian world, or the non-believing world, they are members of the body of Christ because they've been called by God. They may not even know the name of Jesus, but they know in their hearts they need something that they don't have and they turn to the only light they have and I think they're saved and they're going to be with us in heaven."

Dr. Schuller: "What I hear you saying is that it's possible for Jesus Christ to come into a human heart and soul and life even if they've been born in darkness and have never had exposure to the Bible. Is that a correct interpretation of what you're saying?"

Dr. Graham: "Yes it is because I believe that. I've met people in various parts of the world in tribal situations that they have never seen a Bible or heard about a Bible, have never heard of Jesus but they've believed in their hearts that there is a God and they tried to live a life that was quite apart from the surrounding community in which they lived."

Dr. Schuller: "This is fantastic. I'm so thrilled to hear you say that. There's a wideness in God's mercy.

Dr. Graham: There is. There definitely is."

The conversation above occurred between Billy Graham and Robert Schuller, who is the pastor of the Crystal Cathedral in Garden Grove, California and founder of the Hour of Power television program. The interview was broadcast on May 31, 1997 on the Hour of Power television program, titled "Say 'Yes' To Possibility Thinking," program #1426.[30]

The Cross of Jesus Christ

The Bible clearly teaches that Jesus died on the cross so that we would not have to suffer eternal death in Hell. God showed the absolute defeat of Satan in Genesis by the promise of the “seed of the woman,” (women do not have seeds they have eggs); however this scripture is speaking of the seed that she would bear, (the promised Messiah, Jesus).

“And the Lord God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life, 15 And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.” (Gen.3:15).

I am not afraid that God is judging me so that he can cure people of their diseases, if anyone is going to be judged it will be all those who are ministering using fallen angels and taking people through the star gates to meet strange demons instead of trusting the power of the Holy Ghost.

Denial of the Cross of Jesus

Also, ministers who preach that Jesus’ death on the cross will not save their souls. These false teachers preach that Jesus died and went to hell and the demons disfigured, tortured and beat Him and that’s why we go to heaven. They say Jesus went to hell in our place. Copeland says, “Anyone could die on the cross, even I could have died on the cross. We are not saved because of the bloody cross.” He goes on to say, “We are saved because Jesus went to hell in our place.” PURE HERESY that will take many souls to hell with his false teaching.

The Bible says, “Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry. 22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission,” (Heb. 9:21-23).

Jesus is still preached by these new spiritual leaders, but the message of the Cross is not central to their preaching. Through a reinterpretation of the meaning and significance of the Cross, Jesus is changed into another Jesus. The heart of the gospel message is twisted that the emphasis on sin and the inherent sinful nature of man is shifted to the sin of the community, the city, or nations that are ruled by Satan. The solution to this problem is not personal regeneration but spiritual warfare enforced by a united, ecumenical Christendom against the kingdom of Satan.

George Otis Denies the Cross

In 1991, Otis published the book, The Last of the Giants: Lifting the Veil on Islam and the End Time. In it, he confirms some of his previous theological fallacies and further explains them while also promoting the idea of "spiritual mapping":[31]

No sinful nature. The author continues to deny the notion of the sinful nature of man: "Because all human peoples belong to God initially by right of fatherhood, Satan has no automatic control over them; unless individuals give themselves over to the ruler ship of Satan willingly, they will remain under the tender influence of the Holy Spirit" (1991:88).

This is an outright denial of the depraved and sinful nature of man due to the fall. In our unregenerate state we are "without hope and without God in the world," (Eph. 2:12). David says: "Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, and in sin my mother conceived me," (Psa. 51:5). But according to Otis we have no sinful nature and only sin by deliberate choice and afterwards by force of habit. Small wonder that he sees no need for Christ's atonement on the cross to forgive our sins and to make provision for a new nature to all lost sinners who turn to Him for salvation. All that is needed in the Otis paradigm is spiritual warfare to liberate societies from the oppressive influence of territorial spirits. They will then turn to God in great numbers. According to Otis, the inherent sinful nature of people doesn't need to be addressed because they do not have one! They were only deceived by an external spiritual force (a territorial demonic stronghold) to sin. Remove this stronghold, and society will be free to embrace Christianity! [32]

It is evident that another spirit is manifested during such meetings. It is the spirit of the "angel of light", who gives new revelations and new interpretations of the Bible, resulting in a new concept of revival. It is the spirit of unity at all cost. This spirit operates in the sphere of feeling, especially during mass rallies where emotions are stirred and a warm, corporate feeling of love binds all people together. These experiences do not depend on any revelation of Scripture. People are not convicted of personal sin and unrighteousness, but the blame for all the problems that exist is rather shifted to communal sins and to the devil and his hierarchy of demons who are viewed as the instigators of every wrong act. [33]

The word transformation means a shift, or a qualitative change, a transfer from the original spiritual tenets to a switch over to a new religious belief system.

Truth of every kind makes free, while lies bind up in bonds. Ignorance also binds up, because it gives ground to Satan. Man's ignorance is a primary and essential condition for deception by evil spirits. The ignorance of the people of God concerning the powers of darkness has made it easy for the devil to carry out his work as deceiver. Fallen man in his pure state was not perfect in knowledge. Eve was ignorant of "good and evil," and her ignorance was a condition which lent itself to the deception of the serpent.

TRANSFORMATION HAS JOINED THE “OTHER SIDE”

Pat Holliday says these “Transformation Christians such as George Otis and Peter Wagner are among those who have joined the other side” and are actually working for a New Religious World system that is being formed to bring in the Antichrist. [34]

It is quite evident that George Otis repeatedly, totally and emphatically renounced the basic elements of the doctrine of salvation in Jesus Christ, namely Christ's substitutionary death on the Cross for the remittance of our sins. In books that he wrote since the lectures were given, these fallacies are reconfirmed.

Sin, to him, is to be in demonic bondage or deception without reference to the effect of an inherent sinful nature. As solution to this spiritual bondage and deception, demons and their strongholds in a certain area must be identified, confronted in spiritual warfare, and dispelled from the area. As a result, people will seek the Lord and a great revival will occur.

The essence of Otis' ministry is the spiritual mapping and warfare needed in the process of deliverance. As proof of for the feasibility and enormous success of this approach, he and his Sentinel Group produced the Transformations video, which is also widely distributed and shown in South Africa.

Denying the Cross of Jesus

Apart from the cross of Jesus, you cannot claim to be a Christian!

Scriptures about Christ and the Cross

“For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect,” (I Cor. 1:17).

“For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God,” (I Cor. 1:18).

“And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution, then is the offence of the cross ceased,” (Gal. 5:11)?

“As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ,” (Gal. 6:12).

“But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world,” (Gal. 6:17).

“And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby:” (Eph. 2:16).

“And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross,” (Phil. 2:8).

“(For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ,” (Phil. 3:18).

“And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven,” (Col. 1:20).

Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;” (Col. 2:14).

“Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God,” (Heb. 12:2).

Chapter Six

The Blood of the Lamb

Power of the Blood

H. A. Maxwell Whyte gives us a wonderful testimony from his book The Power of the Blood; “From 1948 to this year of 1979, I have found Jesus to be true to this promise. We speak the word of faith, coming from our hearts through the mouth, directed against Satan, and he gives way! He retreats; he runs before the blast from heaven that honors the name of Jesus, the blood of Jesus, and the Word of God, for we read a most simple statement of the early Christian martyrs: “They overcame him [Satan] by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony” (Revelation 12:11). It was the living blood of Jesus—for His life is in His blood—and the Logos Word, Jesus Himself, spoken out of their mouths that drove back Satan and his demonic cohorts. Victory after victory occurred. Jesus is Victor, and so are we in Him. Your present life of defeat can change into a life of continual victories.”[35]

John Macarthur's Heretical Teaching Regarding the Blood of Christ

For more than 30 years John Macarthur has been consistent in teaching that there is no saving power in the blood of Jesus Christ. In 1976, John Macarthur said in an article he wrote entitled, "Not His Bleeding But His Dying": [36]

"It was His death that was efficacious... not His blood ...Christ did not bleed to death. The shedding of blood has nothing to do with bleeding...it simply means death...violent sacrificial death... Nothing in His human blood saves ..." (John Macarthur and the Blood of Christ). (The 3 dots between phrases are how Macarthur was quoted and it doesn't represent something I left out.) In a letter dated August 29, 1986 Macarthur said, "The blood of Christ is precious-but as precious as it is, His physical blood could not save." (John Macarthur and the Blood of Christ).

MacArthur Minimizes the Blood The April 1986 edition of Faith For The Family quotes him as saying in a 1976 article entitled, "Not His Bleeding But His Dying:" "It was His death that was efficacious. . not His blood . . . Christ did not bleed to death. The shedding of blood had nothing to do with bleeding . . . it simply means death. ..Nothing in His human blood saves . . . It is not His blood that I love... it is Him. It is not His bleeding that saved me, but His dying." It is incredible to me, that a Christian minister would make such statements. [37]

He Does Not Like Rev. 1:5 in the KJV

In "Not His Bleeding But His Dying," MacArthur had this to say: "I may add a note on Revelation 1:5, a passage which is confusing in the King James Version. The word `washed' is not correct. The Greek work is `delivered.' "With that statement, I would like to take issue. “And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood" (Rev. 1:5). [38]

What could possibly be confusing about that? He says that "washed" is incorrect and that it should be "delivered." Like most "great" scholars today, MacArthur suffers from the Westcott and Hort syndrome. "Washed" is in the Textus Receptus, and is so rendered by George Ricker Berry in his Interlinear Greek-English New Testament. In his invaluable footnotes, Berry reveals those responsible for trying to change the reading of this verse. The word was changed by Lachmann, 1842-1850, Tischendorf, Eighth Edition. 1865-1872, and Tregelles, 1857-1872. These are three of the men that laid the groundwork for Westcott and Hort, so that they could make the alarming changes in their Revised Version. The American Standard Version, 1901, of course went along with the change, but they did put in a significant footnote. While rendering the word as "loosed," their footnote says, "Many authorities, some ancient, read washed."

I do not agree with the change as found in the ASV, when it reads "Unto him that loveth us, and loosed us from our sins by his blood." Nor do I agree with the NIV as it reads, "To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood." However, whether it is rendered "washed," "loosed," "freed," or "delivered," it is still "by" or "in" His blood that this is done. While the ASV, the NASV, and the NIV definitely weaken the verse, neither one of them will really let MacArthur off the hook. Whether washed from our sins, or delivered from our sins, it is still only by the blood. [39]

MacArthur on the Blood In his commentary on Hebrews, pages 236 to 237, I find further alarming statements as he deals with (Heb. 9:16-22). While he does say some good things, he clearly is talking in circles. When he says that "blood is a symbol of death," he sounds very much like the apostate Dr. Robert G. Bratcher, who translated the "Good News for Modern Man." This is what Bratcher believed, so he felt free to change "blood" to "death" in (Eph.1:7, Heb.10:19, and Rev.1:5). He changed "blood" to "sacrifice" in (I Pet. 1:19). He also managed to leave out "blood," or substitute another word in (Matt. 27:4,24, 25; Acts 5:28; 17:26; 20:28; Rom. 3:25; 5:9; Col. 1:20; Eph. 2:13, and Rev. 5:9). Of course Bratcher's "Good News Bible" is one of the most corrupt translations of the 20th Century. It would appear that in regard to the blood at least, that MacArthur and Bratcher are on the same wave length.[40]

What the Scriptures Says

The elders were admonished "to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood" (Acts 20:28). Redemption and remission of sins cannot be apart from "faith in his blood" (Rom. 3:24, 25). We are "justified by his blood" (Rom. 5:9). "In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins . . .” (Eph. 1:7). We "are made nigh by the blood of Christ" (Eph. 2:13). "We have redemption through his blood" (Col. 1:14), and he "made peace through the blood of his cross" (Col. 1:20).[41]

In Hebrews we are told that "by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us" (Heb. 9:12). We are told, "Without shedding of blood is no remission" (Heb. 9:22). We have "boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus" (Heb. 10:19). Jesus suffered without the camp, "that he might sanctify the people with his own blood" (Heb. 13:12).

John tells us clearly that "the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin" (I John 1:7). "Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood" (Rev. 1:5). They will sing of Christ, "thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood" (Rev. 5:9).
Even though MacArthur believes that he has dispensed with Rev. 1:5, as we previously discussed, he still must face Rev. 7:14. I think he shall find little comfort there. "These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb." Even the revised texts, and their new version offspring, such as the NIV, and the ASV, give MacArthur not one whit of aid and comfort. If the blood itself has no significance, then why do we have all of these Scriptures?

What Christ said about the Blood

MacArthur's belief cannot be reconciled with the words of my Savior, when He said, "For this is my blood of the New Testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins" (Matt. 26:28). "This cup is the new testament in my blood which is shed for you" (Lk. 22:20). These words were spoken by the Lord Jesus Christ as He instituted the Lord's Supper for His Church. In all honesty, it would seem to me that MacArthur should eliminate the drink, "the fruit of the vine," from the Lord's Supper. He only needs the unleavened bread. Of course if he were to do so, he would be in direct disobedience to the Word of God.

Paul not only Judged but he Named Names

"… of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan that they may learn not to blaspheme," (I Tim. 1:20).

"But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction,"(II Pet. 2: 1-5).

"And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. 3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.4 For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment; 5 And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly; But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction," (II Peter 2:1).

[But there were false prophets] There were not only holy men of God among the Jews, who prophesied by divine inspiration, but there were also false prophets, whose prophecies were from their own imagination, and perverted many.

[As there shall be false teachers among you] At a very early period of the Christian church many heretics sprung up; but the chief were those of the Ebionites, Cerinthians, Nicolaitans, Menandrians, and Gnostics, of whom many strange things have been spoken by the primitive fathers, and of whose opinions it is difficult to form any satisfactory view. They were, no doubt, bad enough, and their opponents in general have doubtless made them worse. By what name those were called of whom the apostle here speaks, we cannot tell. They were probably some sort of apostate Jews, or those called the Nicolaitans. See the preface.

[Damnable heresies] Hairese isapooleias: Heresies of destruction; such as, if followed, would lead a man to perdition. And these pareisaxousin, they will bring in privately-cunningly, without making much noise, and as covertly as possible. It would be better to translate destructive heresies than damnable.

[Denying the Lord that bought them] It is not certain whether God the Father be intended here, or our Lord Jesus Christ; for God is said to have purchased the Israelites, Ex 15:16, and to be the Father that had bought them, Deut 32:6, and the words may refer to these or such like passages; or they may point out Jesus Christ, who had bought them with his blood; and the heresies, or dangerous opinions, may mean such as opposed the Divinity of our Lord, or his meritorious and sacrificial death, or such opinions as bring upon those who hold them swift destruction. It seems, however, more natural to understand the Lord that bought them as applying to Christ, than otherwise; and if so, this is another proof, among many. [42]

“For there shall arise false Christ’s, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect, 25 behold, I have told you before,” (Matt 24:24-25).

“And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many,” (Matt 24:11).

“Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. 16 Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles,” (Matt 7:15-16)?

“For false Christ’s and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect. 23 But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things,” (Mk. 13:22-23).

“But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. 3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not. 2 Peter 2:1-5 2

And yes, this list is very long because we are living in the last days and Jesus is coming very soon …. Jesus said, "That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. 3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; 4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God," (II Thess. 2: 2-4).

If you believe that my ministry is getting scary because I reprove the false teachers that you are following, ask yourself this question. Am I afraid of Dr. Pat because she is revealing the false, unscriptural teachings of people that I follow or I am I afraid because maybe I am not saved!

"Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth, (Gal. 4-16)?

Mind Manipulation

The Bible shows that the mind can be manipulated by supernatural forces.

"But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth, the same veil taken away in the reading of the old testament; which veil is done away in Christ," (II Jn. 6:14).

These devils use deception to transfer spirits through the mind “Satan disguises himself as an ‘angel of light,’ (II Jn. 11:14), appearing to men as a messenger of that which is good and wholesome to indicate that truly he comes from God.

Satan uses false teaches to spread his lies capture souls.

“But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction,"(II Pet. 2: 1-5).

"And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. 3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.4 For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment; 5 And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly; "But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction," (II Peter 2:1).

[But there were false prophets] There were not only holy men of God among the Jews, who prophesied by divine inspiration, but there were also false prophets, whose prophecies were from their own imagination, and perverted many.

[As there shall be false teachers among you] At a very early period of the Christian church many heretics sprung up; but the chief were those of the Ebionites, Cerinthians, Nicolaitans, Menandrians, and Gnostics, of whom many strange things have been spoken by the primitive fathers, and of whose opinions it is difficult to form any satisfactory view. They were, no doubt, bad enough, and their opponents in general have doubtless made them worse. By what name those were called of whom the apostle here speaks, we cannot tell. They were probably some sort of apostate Jews, or those called the Nicolaitans. See the preface.

[Damnable heresies] Hairese isapooleias: Heresies of destruction; such as, if followed, would lead a man to perdition. And these pareisaxousin, they will bring in privately-cunningly, without making much noise, and as covertly as possible. It would be better to translate destructive heresies than damnable.

[Denying the Lord that bought them] It is not certain whether God the Father be intended here, or our Lord Jesus Christ; for God is said to have purchased the Israelites, Ex 15:16, and to be the Father that had bought them, Deut 32:6, and the words may refer to these or such like passages; or they may point out Jesus

Christ, who had bought them with his blood; and the heresies, or dangerous opinions, may mean such as opposed the Divinity of our Lord, or his meritorious and sacrificial death, or such opinions as bring upon those who hold them swift destruction. It seems, however, more natural to understand the Lord that bought them as applying to Christ, than otherwise; and if so, this is another proof, among many. [43]

“For there shall arise false Christ’s, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect, 25 behold, I have told you before,” (Matt 24:24-25).

“And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many,” (Matt 24:11).

“Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. 16 Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles,” (Matt 7:15-16)?

“For false Christ’s and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect. 23 But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things,” (Mk. 13:22-23).

“But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. 2 And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. 3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not. (II Pet. 2:1-5 2).

And yes, this list is very long because we are living in the last days and Jesus is coming very soon.

Part Nine

Kundalini Snake Demon

The Return of the Snake

These Kundalini demons and other spirits of eastern religions have sought to enter many revivals. In some cases the discernment of the leaders saved the people.

"The counterfeit of the Presence of God is mainly felt upon the body, and by the physical senses, in conscious 'fire,' 'thrills,' etc. The counterfeit of the 'Presence' in the atmosphere is felt by the senses of the body, as 'breathe,' 'wind,' etc., whilst the mind is passive or inactive. The person affected by this counterfeit will be moved almost automatically to actions he would not perform of his own will, and with all his faculties in operation. He may not even remember what he has done under the 'power' of this 'presence.'" [44]

"But another man had the same impulse, and fell down groaning and roaring, beating the floor with his hands and feet, and the demon entered into him as the angel of light, and got him to think that his conduct was of the Holy Ghost, and it became a regular habit in the meetings he attended." [45]

"Nothing supernatural should be felt by the senses, but by the spirit . . . Counterfeits of today are generally wrought upon the soulish - or sense life - of believers who have not learnt to distinguish between soul and spirit." [46]

Kundalini Demons

This warning is very clear. False teachers will arise who craftily teach heresies which will deny the Biblical view of Jesus. Furthermore, according to a prophecy, many will believe these errors and follow them just as we see happenings in our day! The charm and inspiration of pantheism have begun to exert its influence on the Church through unorthodox religious teachers. It has happened so subtly that few people have noticed. Many Christian teachers sincerely believe that they have found a new advanced stage of Christian thought. Really, they have drifted far from the very foundations of the Christian Faith that they have joined the great plot of Satan, The Master Strategist, to capture (1) men of science, (2) men of business and (3) men of religion. They are using bewitchments, hypnosis, and mind control. There are enormous numbers of people who are caught up in these great deceptions, pleading that they are merely" researching" "natural mind sciences," such as Christian Science.

Strange New Doctrines

While these new religious leaders who are bring into "new pagan oriented philosophies" should be considered dangerous, many Christian leaders have received them with open arms as the answer to life's complex problems. They have been weakening the gospel message and worse yet, causing great confusion among the brethren. This is a call for the Church to resist these strange forces capturing the hearts of its people and for the Church to spring to action to defeat these enemies of religious truth. During the end-time apostasy, it is prophesied that many church leaders will be led astray, those who follow false teachings will suffer an unhappy fate (Matt. 7:22, 23). We must be certain to follow Jesus, not man in these perilous days.

"Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch," (Matt. 15:14).

Dangers of Rejection of Jesus

We who would escape the great apostasy and the falling away that was prophesied for our time must get back to the Bible and prayer. We must check the Scriptures for ourselves comparing today's issues against God's Word. For instance, have we ever seen anyone bleed in the Bible for the people except Jesus? Have we ever seen God's image appear on the walls anywhere in the Bible? Have we ever seen Jesus or any of His disciples take anyone back to the womb or even beyond the womb to conjure up a dead person to heal their memories? Do you believe the Bible ever shows Jesus going into hell and the Devil with the authority to beat Jesus? Do you really believe that "we are little gods?" Of course, the answers to these questions remain forever No!

Disobedience, those who reject the teachings of our Lord were punished, (II Pet. 4-8).

Departure, take heed of the teachings and teachers we have heard. False teachers always neglect the truth of Salvation. (Vs. 1).

Destroyed, God always destroyed these careless people, how can we escape His judgment? (Rom. 6:23; Rev. 20: 11-15).

Warning, Enlightened Beings and Demonic Manifestations

Enlightened Beings are described as: Avatars, Mystics and Masters of Samadhi and not Christian-Holy Ghost manifestations.

Now let's look at the following common manifestations of the risen Kundalini in occult practices as seen in the Third Wave.

Muscle twitches, cramps or spasms.
Energy rushes or immense electricity circulating the body
Itching, vibrating, prickling, tingling, stinging or crawling sensations Intense heat or cold
Involuntary bodily movements, jerking, tremors, shaking; feeling an inner force pushing one into postures or moving one's body in unusual ways.
Alterations in eating and sleeping patterns
Episodes of extreme hyperactivity or, conversely, overwhelming fatigue Intensified or diminished sexual desires
Headaches, pressures within the skull
Racing heartbeat, pains in the chest
Digestive system problems
Numbness or pain in the limbs (particularly the left foot and leg) Pains and blockages anywhere; often in the back and neck
Emotional outbursts; rapid mood shifts; seemingly unprovoked or excessive episodes of grief, fear, rage, depression.
Spontaneous vocalizations (including laughing and weeping) -- are as unintentional and uncontrollable as hiccoughs Hearing an inner sound or sounds, classically described as a flute, drum, waterfall, birds singing, bees buzzing but which may also sound like roaring, whooshing, or thunderous noises or like ringing in the ears.
Mental confusion; difficulty concentrating
Altered states of consciousness: heightened awareness; spontaneous trance states; mystical experiences (if the individual's prior belief system is too threatened by these, they can lead to bouts of psychosis or self-grandiosity) Heat, strange activity, and/or blissful sensations in the head, particularly in the crown area.
Now let us compare it to some of the common symptoms as related on the website newchristian.org.uk "These are the effects that I have witnessed on people who have attended this movement and either has had hands laid on them or claim to have been imparted with "the spirit": They come back with this kind of childlike drunken stupor.

Descriptions of a burning sensation either in their veins, heads or stomachs.

Descriptions of being washed back and forth like the waves in the ocean; Dancing about like drunk...

Inappropriate yelling and screaming like they're at a football game; Young men whistling over and over and holding their heads and claiming that they "feel the Holy Spirit about to split them in two"; Kundalini impersonates the Holy Spirit.

One young man's back two teeth turned completely too some metallic finish People with their eyes rolled in the back of their heads and weaving around like they're lost.

Women just gyrating and pulsating like they're being ravaged from behind from some unseen force.

Drunken uncontrollable laughter in the middle of a solemn prayer time.

People being "slain in the spirit"... just falling down and being unable to move (like something's holding them down)..."

Kundalini Awakening

According to the website “enlightened beings” the most important thing to know and remain aware of, is that a Kundalini Awakening contains the most unbelievable expanded states of reality, enlightenment, and absolute ecstasy. Not to mention that you've just befriended the greatest healing energy available inside you and extremely contagious to all human beings. However, these powers come from Satan and they begin with ecstasy but will end in demonic possession which brings both eternal death and physical death; and total torment for the rest of your life. [47].

Power from Bondage Oppression and Defilement

Christians can live free from mental torture, panic, envy, hatred, pride, self-pity, addiction, gluttony and all other forms of bondage, oppression and defilement? [48]

The Christian Church is a divine institution given to us as a sanctuary for believers to gather in His name to stand together under His divine protection where they can grow in faith and gain wisdom through the power of His Word. It was never intended to be a place for the Spirit of Mammon to collect money for church leaders to live like queens and kings while millions of the lost go to hell for lack of a witness.

“Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the Lord is near in the valley of decision,” (Joel 3:14).

The Valley of Decision is a name given to the Valley of Jehoshaphat as the vale of the sentence. It was the scene of Jehovah's signal inflictions on Zion's enemies (Joel 3:14).

> “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord,” (Lk. 4:18: 19).
> “And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free,” (Jn. 8; 32).
> “If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed,” (Jn. 8: 36).[49]

What is Shaktipat?

"Shakti" is another word for kundalini and "pat" means to descend. Shaktipat is a method by which an individual's kundalini is awakened by the direct intervention of a guru. There are several varieties of shaktipat depending on the facility of the guru and the receptiveness of the disciple.[50]

There are also a variety of mechanisms for conveying shaktipat. These include: by glance, by word or mantra, by touch or simply by intention.

1. "Shaktipat" is Sanskrit for "descent of grace." That "grace" is released by "kundalini" (defined in Hinduism as "an intelligent force" coiled like a snake at the base of the spine, related to the god Shiva).

"Diksha" is "initiation" into a new path of enlightenment, which is usually the occasion for receiving Shaktipat.

2. Shaktipat is "given" by a guru, someone possessing divine powers to trigger initiation and unlock the kundalini force. It can be given any of the following ways: A touch (usually on the "third eye" - the forehead - or one of the "chakras" - top of head, throat, chest, solar plexis, base of spine).

A specially chosen word (spoken in Sanskrit)
A deep look into the eyes
Blowing on someone
By "remote" (out of body visitations from the guru) Also these days, it can be done electronically (by following instructions while watching a video.) [51]

3. Shaktipat is considered "contagious" - it can spread through a crowd as the guru passes, it can be carried and passed by touch from one disciple to another, it can be passed by objects the guru has touched, or it can be sent by "remote" through reproduced videos, trance-inducing music, etc.

4. For Shaktipat to be "received", it doesn't require conscious cooperation or agreement, only "surrender" to the influence. Kundalini is understood to take over the one receiving this experience.

5. The evidence of receiving Shaktipat is the appearance of "kriyas" - involuntary jerking, falling, laughing and/or shaking. Some have experienced retching and gagging. Other evidences known to happen, and considered normal: Visions

Animal or other inarticulate noises
Being healed of diseases
Intense positive emotions that leave them incoherent Spontaneous yoga postures (especially bowing to the floor) Spontaneous speaking in tongues (usually Sanskrit) Someone who has their kundalini awakened is regarded as "on fire," and to spread that awakening is to "ignite" others. The fire (called "tummo") is regarded as the source of healings.

Shaktipat is admitted by Hindus to be potentially harmful. Kundalini is considered a very powerful force, and if it is not properly "controlled" it can cause sickness, madness or death. Shiva (sometimes also called "Siva") is the god of destruction and is worshiped from fear.[52]

Who can give Shaktipat?

In theory "anyone on fire" can give shaktipat, i.e. anyone whose kundalini is already awakened.

Can one receive shaktipat just by being in the presence of those with awakened shakti?

There is no doubt that shakti is contagious. The mere presence of a single being whose shakti is strongly active can awaken the shakti of those around him. Similarly being in the presence of many people whose shakti is awakened to some degree can awaken one's own shakti.

The unique perspective of Siddha Mahayoga is that because kundalini is an intelligent force it will, upon awakening, naturally direct the practice of the student. All that is required is that the student completely surrenders to this force. As a result of kundalini's enfoldment spontaneous purifying movements, called kriyas will occur.[53]

What does Kriyas?

Kriyas, literally "activities", are spontaneous movements that occur after kundalini awakening. These include bodily activities such as trembling, shaking and spontaneous yoga postures; vocal activities such as yelling, or spontaneous chanting and mental activities such as visions. These kriyas eliminate the blocks to kundalini rising within the spine or central channel.[54]

"Most kriyas are simple tremors or twitches as tension held in the body, releases. However, they can be quite complex movements, breathing patterns, (pranayama) vocalizations, visions...

That is why people who may never have studied Hatha Yoga, find their bodies wanting to assume Yoga postures, or why people who do not speak a foreign language may find they spontaneously chanting in Sanskrit."

About the 'fire' of healing [from the above site]: Tummo Fire is Tibetan, also known as gtummo, the inner fire. In practice, you use the tummo fire much the same as Reiki or therapeutic touch, but no drawing symbols.

This type of tummo is specific to the process of healing and clearing the emotional blockages of karma, enhancing and smoothing the process of Kundalini, and paving the road to enlightenment.

Tummo initiation is a very powerful type of shaktipat that can smooth and accelerate the process in a very safe and easy way.

Tummo is the clear light, heat that burns away the emotional blockages, etc. that are at the root of illness. Tummo fire is related to Kundalini heat. It is based in the solar plexus, but can show up anywhere in the body, burning off karma.

When the fire is active, it reduces the need for emotional release.

Tummo fire can also be transmitted by remote.

At the end of the initiation, the power is put under the guidance of your unconscious/spirit, which directs it to where it needs to be. It can also be directed consciously. [55]

“But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves. Woe unto them! For they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core. These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever,” (Jude 10-13).

Christians should be looking for the return of Jesus Christ. They must be willing to meet him as sold out Believers. While seducing spirits are unleashed by Satan to draw the world to his Antichrist he is also working diligently to deceive Church people. In (I Cor. 10:20-21) we read, “But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God; and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils. Ye cannot drink the ‘cup of the Lord’ (Communion cup) and the ‘cup of devils’; ye cannot be partakers of the ‘Lord’s table’ and of the tables of devils (Demons).”

We must avoid the proclamation of the “doctrines of devils” (I Tim. 4:1), and the teaching of “Damnable Heresies” (II Pet. 2:1). The worldwide false revival of “Christian idols or Christian stars,” are being guided by demons and one of the “Signs of the Times.” It should be a warning to every true child of God of the approaching end of the Age.

Part Ten

Every Advantage

Tread on Serpents and Scorpion

Believers in Jesus Christ have every advantage to defeat demons. The Word says, “Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.”

[To tread on serpents] Preservation from danger; if you tread on a poisonous reptile that would otherwise injure you, I will keep you from danger. If you go between bitter and malignant enemies that would seek your life, I will preserve you. (See the notes at Mark 16:18).[56]

[Scorpions] The scorpion is an animal with eight feet, eight eyes and a long jointed tail, ending in a pointed weapon or sting. It is found in tropical climates, and seldom exceeds 4 inches in length. Its sting is extremely poisonous, and it is sometimes fatal to life. It is in Scripture the emblem of malicious and crafty men. When rolled up it has some resemblance to an egg, (Ezek. 11:12; Ezek. 2:6). The annexed cut will give an idea of its usual form and appearance.

[The enemy] Satan. The meaning of this verse is that Jesus would preserve them from the power of Satan and all his emissaries from all wicked and crafty men. This shows that he had divine power. He that can control Satan and his hosts that can be present to guard from all their machinations, see all their plans, and destroy all their designs, must be clothed with no less than almighty power.

Look at the description of these demons that were released in Revelation. (Rev 9:6 11) “And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them. (the word “them” is a supernatural being). And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men. And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions. And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle. 10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months. And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon." Revelation is describing as an army! [57]

The Name of Jesus

In addition, Jesus gives Christians power to use His name in (Matt. 28:18 20). "And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen."

"And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, all power is given unto me in heaven and in earth," (Matt. 28:18).

He gave us the legal right to use His power. His power is shown in (Eph. 1:21 22). "Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: "And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church."

His power is above all power and in prayer, we bind Satan, we do it! Not Jesus! The warfare is revealed in (Eph. 6:12), principalities, power, rulers of darkness of this world, and spiritual forces of wickedness in high places (heaven lies); and (earth), (Matt 16:19), "And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

The things too loose from the Devil's power: nation, state, cities, community, geographical areas, church, family, individual members of family relatives, professions, vocations, businesses, education, finances, physical health mental health. We war against the powers of darkness, and bind up and destroy the plans of Satan commanding him to lose all that he controls. This spiritual power is the greatest force in the universe because its source of power is God controls. This spiritual power is the greatest force in the universe because its source of power is God Himself. Psalms 62:11, "God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongeth unto God." This spiritual power can do things no other controlling influence can do.

In the King James Version of the Bible, there is often little distinction made between power and authority, that they are quite closely related is seen in the fact that authority is valueless without the power to enforce it. Power is primary to God but may be applied to any holder of power, whether human or superhuman. The powers mentioned several times in the New Testament, often referred to angelic being believed to exorcize both on earth and in the heavenly places; According to the scriptures, these have been overcome by Jesus Christ. [58]

The Day of Christ

“That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. 3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; 4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God,” (II Thess. 2:2-4).

If you believe that my ministry is getting scary because I reprove the false teachers that you are following, ask yourself this question. Am I afraid of Dr. Pat because she is revealing the false, unscriptural teachings of people that I follow or I am I afraid because maybe I am not saved!

Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth,” (Gal. 4:16)?

God’s One Way to Save Sinners

We are very close to the return of Jesus Christ. Many are in the valley of Decision and the Christians of the world must shake themselves from the spirit of Slumber and tell those who are lost that Jesus Christ loves them; He wants to save them from God’s wrath.

Jesus was a rebel in the eyes of the religious leaders of HIS day because HE totally upset their schemes and taught the spirit of the Law to ALL who would hear HIM (not to mention He claimed to be GOD, the SON of GOD and displayed undeniable supernatural power). However, the LORD’s battle was spiritual — to save souls from perishing.

“To live for Christ now and confess Him as your Lord and Savior that you might escape the eternal damnation of hell that under the reign of the Antichrist will cost you your very life. But Salvation is still promised to those who endure to the very end," (Matt. 24:13).

"Separate yourself from the world and surrender to God absolutely and seek cleansing by repenting of your sin and believing in the Blood of Christ which was spilled on Calvary for the remission of sin." (Jn. 3:16).

Study your Bible earnestly while you still have it and memorize as much as possible before it is taken from you.

"For whosoever shall call upon the Name of the Lord shall be saved," (Rom. 10:13).

"If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus (as Savior), and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved," (Rom. 10:9).

"Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us, by the washing of regeneration, in', renewing of the Holy Ghost; which He shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior." (Tit. 3:5-6).

No other Way – (Jn. 14:6).

No other foundation –(I Cor. 3:11).

No other name (Jn. 10:1).

No other atonement – (I Heb. 9:12, 28)...

No other saving power – (Rom. 1:16; Jn. 6:44).

No other Gospel to be preached – (Gal. 1:8-9).

"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved." – (Acts 16:31). [59]

PRAY

"Father be merciful to me a sinner and receive me now for Jesus Christ's sake; cleanse me from my sin by Your precious blood that was shed on the cross for me; fill me with Your Holy Spirit. Teach me to pray each day; to read Your will for my life from your word, the Bible; and help me to worship and serve You in the fellowship of your church. I thank you Lord Jesus Christ. AMEN!"

About Pat Holliday, PhD

Patricia Holliday, PhD, was called into the ministry in 1975 and has ministered worldwide. She received her PhD at Southeastern Theology Seminary, Jacksonville, Florida, 1993. She is the President of Miracle Outreach Ministry. She appears on many international television and radio shows.

Miracle Outreach Ministries is an international ministry. Miracles, signs and wonders, healing, and deliverance follow this ministry. Her latest evangelistic trips include Ghana West Africa, Italy and Jamaica where many miracles happened.

Among her many political activities, she ran for the Florida State House of Representatives in 1972. She was elected State Committee Woman for her part and is a lobbyist in Tallahassee. She was a founding member and has officiated in many women's groups; Minute women of Florida; the Ponte Vedra Woman's Club; and the Four Foundation Inc., a home for non-delinquent girls in Duval County. She helped to organize two women's interdenominational fellowships. She has ministered worldwide in foreign lands.
