THE HIGHWAY OF SIN
Key verses: Proverbs 14:12, 16:25

Prayer
Heavenly Father we say thank you for what you've been doing in our midst, Lord as we are going into your, we pray that you go with us, have your way in our life, give us the grace to always follow your footsteps in Jesus name. Amen

Introduction
Please, today's study is one that is needed today in the body of Christ, it is something that the majority of preachers have refused to talk about, yet it's very essential. This is why you have to follow it carefully as the Lord speaks to us.

Key verses: Proverbs 14:12, 16:25
Proverbs 14:12 KJV "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death."

Proverbs 16:25 KJV "There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death."

Study
This portion of the scripture is so powerful that it is repeated twice in the Bible. There is a way, just a way—not many ways, only one way—that though looks right to a man, he is a man controlled by the flesh, but the end is destruction. When talking about a way, what is a way? It is an opening for passage, but when talking about a highway, it is a public way, especially a direct road. We are told that there is a way that seems right. Though it looks like it is right, it is not right; and whatever is not right is wrong, and whatever is not good is bad. Therefore, these ways seem good, pure, and all right to a man, but the end of the way is death. The main and direct road that many pass through today is the way of sin. This way seems right in the sight of many; they feel it is okay, and they are running at full speed in this way, not knowing the end point of the way that it leads to not only physical death but spiritual and eternal death. The word of God calls those who follow such ways fools. Proverbs 12:15 KJV The way of a fool is right in his own eyes: but he that hearkeneth unto counsel is wise. It is right in their own eyes, but not in the eyes of God.

In the highway of sin, there are many kinds of people who pass through:

- Those who call evil good and good evil: These are people who distort morality. They justify sinful behaviors and condemn righteousness.

- Those who believe God will not send anyone to hell: These individuals misunderstand or downplay God's justice, thinking that God's love alone will save them from the consequences of sin, regardless of their lifestyle.

- Those who love convenient Christianity: These people only serve God when it's easy or comfortable. They avoid sacrifice or commitment and follow God only when it suits them.

- Those who practice ice cream Christianity: This refers to people who desire a faith that is sweet and enjoyable but lacks depth. They avoid the tough challenges of discipleship.

- Those who are wheelbarrow Christians: These individuals need constant pushing to follow God's commands. They lack personal initiative in their faith walk and depend on others to keep them going.

- Those who hate to hear the truth: These people are resistant to correction or the hard truths of scripture. They prefer messages that tickle their ears and avoid the reality of sin and judgment.

- Those who follow modern trends and forsake the ancient path: These are people who abandon the timeless truths of God's word for what is popular or culturally acceptable at the moment.

- Those who want to be loved by the world: These individuals compromise their faith to fit in with society, valuing popularity or acceptance over God's approval.

- Those who prefer the company of others over God: These people prioritize relationships or social status above their relationship with God. They are more concerned about pleasing people than pleasing God.

- Those who see the commandments of God as bondage: These individuals feel that obeying God restricts their freedom and enjoyment of life, rather than seeing obedience as life-giving.

- Those who resist or reproach the preachers of righteousness: These people criticize or reject godly leaders and the truth they proclaim, often because they don't want to be confronted with their sins.

Of the truth, the highway of sin leads to death. Romans 6:23 KJV For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. The wages of sin is death. Walking in sin is dangerous to the soul of anyone, no matter the level the person has attained in his or her walk with God. We must not spoil sin because it can finish a man. There are two major highways a man can tread on, and it's one at a time; these are the highway of sin and the highway of holiness. Isaiah 35:8 KJV And a highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein. It says the unclean shall not pass through the highway of holiness.

It is not possible to walk through the highway of sin and also walk on the highway of holiness at the same time. This is why the Lord Jesus Christ made it clear that it would be good to walk in the highway of holiness, or do it. It is not easy, but very difficult, but it's good; it eventually leads to eternal life. Matthew 7:13 KJV Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: It is an instruction: "enter." It says you must enter; you must key yourself into the way of holiness. No one would do that for you. Failure to do this keeps you in the way of sin, which would eventually lead to death.The highway of sin is very easy and accommodating to every sinner.

There are characteristics of the highway of sin.

1. It promises/gives false liberty: The highway or expressway of sin gives the assurance of false liberty, which would accept all forms of lust, characters, passions, behaviors, etc. It does not caution one from sin; it gives freedom to sin and does not tame one's selfish desires. When you feel like having liberty or freedom from God's laws because you feel they do not make you breathe well but restrain you, and you want to enjoy what others are enjoying, you're on the highway of sin. 2 Peter 2:19 KJV While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage. They promise them liberty; why?

They themselves are servants of sin. Many follow preachers who look promising but deviate from God's commandments. Even as they are corrupt, they are overcome in their sins and are under bondage; yet they say they give freedom, and those who love the highway of sin join them on the way to destruction. Check your ways: are you not also on the highway of sin?

2. It gives one a worldly company: It is easy to have many friends when one is on the highway of sin. The ways of the multitude are always evil; this is why we are told not to join the multitude to do evil. Those on the broad way have many people to keep them company on that way because many love the way of sin. The way of righteousness is narrow, and such they have their friends who live with untamed, uncontrolled appetites with them. Going with the crowd means choosing to go into perdition. You may go along with the company of your simple lifestyles in this way; those angry, prideful, hateful, ungodly dressing, lustful, sexual immoralities, etc., can accompany you in this way that leads to death because many pass through it. Matthew 7:13 KJV Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

These two characteristics are more common on the highway of sin. The fact that this highway will lead to hellfire is why anyone must quickly leave the path.

The endpoint and facts about the highway of sin are as follows:
- It leads to physical, spiritual, and eternal death.
- It leads to hellfire.
- It is a way whose consequences of its endpoint are irreversible.
- It is a way that makes one enjoy at first and stings at last.
- Many pass through it, yet many will perish because of it.

- It leads to eternal regrets.
- It makes one an object of mockery.

If you are still following me, kindly declare this into your life by typing it out: "May I Not Crash and Die on The Highway of Sin!"

Unfortunately, many are running at full speed on the highway of sin, and they are crashing into hellfire. God is calling all those who are on this way to turn back. A U-turn needs to be made because we cannot choose to remain that way and believe that we would make heaven. It is not possible for a man to be walking on the highway of sin expecting to arrive at the bus stop of heaven; it is not possible! Are you walking on the highway of sin, which is the broadway the Lord Jesus Christ talked about? Although the way might seem right to you, it is not right. The way to heaven is difficult, and it takes determination and focus to get there. You must strive to enter in, and striving is not something easy; it has to deal with struggling. Just imagine 1,000 people struggling to pass through a door that can hardly accommodate the passage of just one person at a time. How would it be easy for a person to scale through? It is not something easy at all, refusing to let go of things that can keep you on that highway of sin. To walk in the highway of holiness, conversion and regeneration are needed. You must receive a new heart and a new spirit, and all things must pass away in your life.

You must change the things you crave for, such as your corrupt habits and strange customs, which must be broken off. Those evil things you did in the past must not be done again. These things can be done away with by seeking Christ with reckless abandonment in prayers, fasting, and studying the word of God.
It is easier to set a man against the world than against himself; yet this must be done at conversion. As you choose to be converted, you must be ready to set yourself against yourself; your old carnal nature must be done away with. Who is that man that would not look into his life and correct that which should be corrected? Then he has chosen to remain on the highway of sin, which leads to eternal destruction. We will not be destroyed at last in Jesus Christ's name. Amen.

Invitation

If you know that you are still living in sin and you are ready to repent and begin to live your life in strict obedience to God so that you can overcome every sin in your life to make heaven, please place your right hand on your chest and say this prayer with your mouth.

Say,

"Lord Jesus, I accept You as my personal Lord and Savior. I believe that You died for me and took away my sins so that I will not face the penalty of them. I surrender my life to You today, and I make a decision to obey and follow You. Come into my life now and accept me as Your child. Thank You for saving me, in Jesus Christ's name I pray, Amen."

Congratulations, now you are saved. If you prayed this short prayer, please WhatsApp +2347067511039 and let me know that you have just been saved. I want to have a word with you. God bless you!
