

The Remembered 01

A holy spirit gave this through a lady, it's something most of us children of God are lacking, we'll be trusting Him to teach us more on this. Our scriptural references will be taken from;

Psalms 106:4-5

"Remember me, O Lord, when you show favor to your people, come to my aid when you save them, that I may enjoy the prosperity of your chosen ones, that I may share in the joy of your nation and join your inheritance in giving praise."

Remembrance is birthed by obedience, only those who obey are remembered, although due to covenants of old established by God one can be remembered, still not fully. An ungodly man can not be remembered by God, because he lacks obedience. However, I believe I'm not talking to ungodly people, but mainly to the obedient.

If an ungodly man is not remembered by God, and we are children of God, remembered by Him, yes He always remembers us, why are some more remembered than the others? It all comes to obedience. Just as there is an obedience to be saved, there is also an obedience as a sacrifice in our relationship to become more intimate with God. Those who obey, love and sacrifice much are of much relevance unto God than those who obey less, that is; those who don't desire to journey deeper in communion with God.

We children of God don't necessarily need to pray for blessings or favor at times, because God knows our needs even before we ask of Him and He'll surely provide without us asking if we walk in obedience. However, just as God always provides, there lies powers of darkness still lording over the lives of men that hinders and limits God's will in their life, God is aware of this, but unless such a man sacrifices to become more intimate with God he won't be free, if he's not set free, he'll continue living in limitations.

Intimacy with God breaks every cords of darkness, that's why God allows trials. Where God provides, there might be trials, but He allows it so you can become more intimate with Him, trials triggers deeper intimacy. Intimacy with God takes us higher in Him, intimacy increases our relevance with God and our relevance with God determines our ranking in the spiritual.

In other words; he who obeys more, he who sacrifices to know God more is of much relevance and will be highly remembered. Being remembered by God, he'll be placed in higher rankings. The more he obeys, the more his spiritual ranking increases. His ranking causes the remembrance of God to find more expression in his life, because when God remembers, there will be nothing to limit God's will over his life due to his high level of authority in the spirit realm.

God loves us, but He wants us to grow, because there are spiritual laws He operates on, and one of that law is the law of obedience to spirit entities, any spirit entity. As long as you align your heart to function in the laws of the spirits you'll be remembered more by that spirit you yield yourself to. God loves us all, but we must move before God moves and He that yields himself more unto God, will be loved more.

God is mostly interested in those who weigh much value, do you know the life of Moses was worth the life of the Israelites put together during his time, God was ready to wipe out the whole generation and spare only Moses, why? Because he loved more, he had a more deeper intimacy with God and God always remembers him, when ever he speaks God remembers, He was the only man who could change the mind of God.

We must constantly yield to the holy ghost, there are children of God who believed and are saved, but there are those who believed and journeyed deeper unto God. It's not all about salvation, neither is it all about entering God's kingdom, it's all about a relationship, intimacy with God. In intimacy with God the kingdom is given, I'm not talking about the one we'll go to, but rather, the manifestation of God's kingdom in our lives to walk the dimensions of God's kingdom on earth. It is given only to those who have died constantly to the flesh in obedience to the holy ghost. For example; one whom Jesus uses to manifest His healing powers, manifest the healing nature of God's kingdom on earth. If you're not remembered you can't walk the heaven on Earth because you don't appear there, although your name is written.

Sacrifice to become more intimate with God, the more we journey in our intimacy with God, the more we become relevant before Him. It's like a servant who attends to his master more than the others, sure there are others who loved, but he that loved more will be remembered in times of reward.

Our obedience to God is; love expressed through sacrifices, and our sacrifice is our life lived in holiness as a living sacrifice unto God. At times is not all about praying, but obedience, a burning desire to be more intimate with God, these are those whom God is more interested in. When we constantly journey in obedience accompanied with sacrifices, forsaking all things to please the Father, a selfless love, then our lives will arise from our heart as a living sacrifice, a fragrance offering unto God, an offering of value stored in precious jars. When God perceives your offering will He regard it of great worth? Every man born again lives as a sacrifice unto God, whatever he does in holiness, the question is, of what value is your incense unto God?

The psalmist was referring to God's children, but he was more concerned about his relationship with God, that's why he said;

" Remember me, O Lord, when you show favor to your people."

Why? He said this because, even as all children of God won't have to worry about what to eat or wear, still there are those whom God is truly interested in, they are the remembered, men of sacrifices. Even if God curses the land with a dire famine, many of God's children will still have food to eat, but there are those who'll still live in abundance, just an illustration, though. These " people " he was referring to are the remembered, men of deep intimacy with God. They don't obey God for their needs, their obedience is a relationship to meet also the needs and demands of God, then all other things follows.

When you obey, you constantly abides In God's presence, clothed in His glory. Being in God's presence shields us from all evil. We must constantly obey so we can appears in His radar, else we'll be exposed to threats, I can tell countless testimonies concerning this. We must put to death the flesh in order for us to be clothed in God's spirit, God is spirit and spirit can only relate with spirit. If we don't sacrifice to crucify the flesh in obedience to the holy ghost, putting aside the desires of the world and the flesh, we won't have more intimacy with God, in other words we won't be remembered much, we'll be of little relevance.

A man who is remembered is prioritized by God, in every area of his life, God is highly concerned, because he is like a rare and precious commodity. This is why great men of God prosper even if they don't have a side job, because they are a priced and rare commodity, they don't pray for blessing no, no, no, not at all. We who lives in obedience ought not to pray for blessings or favor, it comes natural. The only difference is our relationship, that is; the in depth of intimacy we have in our relationship reveals a difference in how much God will attend to us. God is just.

The widows might is a perfect example of sacrifice, she gave much out of the little she had, the cost of her heart. I'm not saying you should go giving when you're not led, that's just an illustration of sacrifice from the heart. Her sacrifice made all those who were there seems irrelevant even though some were children of God, they were just like mirage before God, as if they never existed.

There are times we don't ask for certain things, we only need obedience. Seems I've been talking more on obedience, but we talk about being remembered without obedience, sacrifice actually.

Deuteronomy 28:1

" If you fully obey the Lord your God and carefully follow all His commands I give you today, the Lord your God will set you high above all the nations on the earth."

Being highly remembered is based on our obedience, the degree of our obedience will determine how much God will remember us, even for eternity, especially.

You can't obey if your not filled with the holy spirit, it is His spirit in us that usher us into making sacrifices to love God more, only then can we be of relevance. And this can only be achieved through His word, it all comes back to the foundation, " the word." Feeding in the word grows the holy spirit in us to maturity which births a hunger to desire God more. It is the holy ghost that puts burdens in our heart to attend to, burdens to detach from all that hinders in order to love God more. If you're not yet filled, you can't make sacrifices, hence you can't be remembered. Only men of sacrifices are remembered.

You must come under the government of God, in a government there are those who are of much value, just as there are civilians there are those also of authority who are much relevant than the others. If a war was to break out, those in authority will be given attention first.
