Our Mission

The Lord Jesus Christ commissioned us to prepare His church for His second coming through His Spirit made available to us in this End-Time. We are committed to preaching and teaching Church leaders, Ministers, and the body of Christ as a whole the true gospel of Holiness and Righteousness, which is Christ's doctrine and the only prerequisite for making Heaven, re-erecting the already broken altar of true worship in sanctification to producing Saintly pilgrims.

All messages in PDF, VIDEO, and AUDIO formats are given for free and must not be sold for any reason without the prior written permission of the Ministry. They can be used by anyone all over the world for the sole purpose of spreading the gospel of Christ and also for building the body of Christ in this End-Time.

If you have been blessed through these teachings and would like to support this work prayerfully, broadcasts, or sharing of these messages through different means in order to prepare souls for the coming of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, please contact the numbers at the last page. May you not lose your eternal rewards, even as the Lord increases you abundantly as you do so. Amen.

God bless you,

THEY ARE HIS SERVANTS
Text: Numbers 12:1-8

Prayer
Eternal rock of ages we bless you for this wonderful night be thou exalted Lord, we thank you for time like this, we thank you that we gather here in peace and not in pieces thank you Jesus, Father Lord if there anyway we have come short of your glory that will no let you come to our midst, Father Lord forgive us in the name of Jesus, O Lord as we are about to hear your word, Lord teach us yourself in the name of Jesus, help us to be the doer of your word and not the hearer only in the name of Jesus, don't let this word we are about to hear stand against us on the day of judgment in Jesus mighty name we have pray. (AMEN)

Bible Text: Numbers 12:1-8

1 And Miriam and Aaron spake against Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married: for he had married an Ethiopian woman.

2 And they said, Hath the LORD indeed spoken only by Moses? hath he not spoken also by us? And the LORD heard it.

3 (Now the man Moses was very meek, above all the men which were upon the face of the earth.)

4 And the LORD spake suddenly unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam, Come out ye three unto the tabernacle of the congregation. And they three came out.

5 And the LORD came down in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they both came forth.

6 And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, I the LORD will make myself known unto him in a vision, and will speak unto him in a dream.

7 My servant Moses is not so, who is faithful in all mine house.

8 With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently, and not in dark speeches; and the similitude of the LORD shall he behold: wherefore then were ye not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?

Study

Today, we will be looking at a topic which the Lord would be using to send a warning to His church. Please, follow carefully. Without much ado, let's go into our text;

Numbers 12:1-3:

"And Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married: for he had married an Ethiopian woman. And they said, Hath the LORD indeed spoken only by Moses? hath he not spoken also by us? And the LORD heard it. (Now the man Moses was very meek, above all the men which were upon the face of the earth.)"

We all know Moses was sent by God to deliver the children of Israel and to bring them into the promised land. He was sent by God, but he still went to marry an Ethiopian woman who was a foreigner. And, we know that the Israelites were not encouraged to marry foreigners because foreigners had the tendency of converting them to worshipers of foreign gods.

So, one of these being the reason, Aaron and Miriam spoke against him because of the union. But, if you look at their words well, you would notice there was jealousy in their speech.

"And they said, Hath the LORD indeed spoken only by Moses? hath he not spoken also by us? And the LORD heard it."

So, I guess they also said this probably because Moses didn't consult them before marrying the woman. So, they got angry and were like, is it only him that God speaks to and does He not speak to them also.But, they never knew that God heard their words. The bible says "AND GOD HEARD IT". This tells us that whatsoever we speak, God hears. He might only decide to behave as though He didn't hear. Those silent abusive words you speak in your heart are loud in God's ears. Those gossip you gossip about others, God hears everything. The backbiting you do about others and the false witnesses, God hears everything!

The funny thing was that Moses didn't say a word. Yes, they were older than Moses, especially Miriam. Miriam would have been the one that monitored baby Moses in a basket when he was born and kept by the riverside.So, she was mature enough even before he was born. Which means she was far older than he was. This could have even given her the audacity to speak to him anyhow. But, the Lord heard it and because Moses was very humble, he didn't revert at what they said against him. He didn't get angry and speak against them. Probably, he even respected them as his elder ones and reverenced them not to speak against them.

He didn't use the fact that he was God's servant and had spoken with God face to face or seen God's back to speak against them. He was very meek. But, what was God's response?

God called the three of them out and spoke;

Num 12:4-9:
"And the LORD spoke suddenly unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam, Come out ye three unto the tabernacle of the congregation. And they three came out. And the LORD came down in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they both came forth. And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, I the LORD will make myself known unto him in a vision, and will speak unto him in a dream. MY SERVANT MOSES is not so, who is faithful in all mine house. With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently, and not in dark speeches; and the similitude of the LORD shall he behold: WHEREFORE THEN WERE YE NOT AFRAID TO SPEAK AGAINST MY SERVANT MOSES? And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them; and he departed."

God made them understand how faithful Moses was and that he was His servant. God told them how intimate He was with Moses, probably they were not so aware. Just as many of us do not know how some servants of God are very close and intimate with God and we speak anyhow to them. What surprised me the most is that God asked them "why they were not afraid to speak against His servant". Which means that God really expects us to always be humble towards His servants and not speak to them anyhow. Many of us are guilty of this, we tend to speak against God's true servants anyhow and GOD IS HEARING EVERYTHING.

After God spoke those words to them, He became angry with them and struck Miriam with leprosy. Which means there is a tendency that it was Miriam that stirred the uproar. Now, that scripture is in the Bible for us to know how we speak to true servants of God.

Regardless of whatsoever a man of God does, be wise in your speech against him. You never know the dealing of God with him. Even when a true man of God teaches heresies, the fact that you know he does, you should still be careful of the way you speak against him. Let it come from a true mindset and heart posture.
Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses and if you vet their words so well, you would discover jealousy and envy in them. Which means they were not really sincere with the reason they were angry at him but it was birthed out of jealousy, envy and hatred of God's grace upon him.

The fact that we are not to speak anyhow to God's servants does not mean we can't correct them, but it must be done with the wisdom of God. You don't begin to abuse or curse any servant of God because you claim he has backslided, you can receive stripes from God because of it. We should really learn from this story especially females, because females are mostly found guilty of gossiping and backbiting. You would see what became of Miriam. It was Moses whom they spoke to that later begged God on their behalf. It is not written on the foreheads that this person is God's servants, so we should extremely be careful.

And, God's servants are not only pastors but those who do the work of God genuinely and whom God has sent. Every minister of God whether ministers who minister on pulpit or not is God's servant.You never can know how intimate such a person is with God until the person tells you. You might be speaking against someone whose anointing is far far greater than the one upon you. There is hierarchy in the kingdom and even God's words in Hebrews 12 shows that Moses was highly ranked spiritual in the prophetic. He was really anointed.

This level of anointing comes with how much a person moves close to God. The bible says that "draw near to me and I will draw near to you". As long as you draw near to God, He will draw near to you. There is no partiality at all. The reason you are not close to Him is because you still want to please the world and serve God at the same time. Whereas, some people wholely and totally serve God with all their hearts. Some are suffering the consequences of speaking against anointed men of God these days and they do not even know that's the reason they are suffering such, neither do they care to know.

Those men you speak against in your closet, they are His servants and if you don't stop, judgment might come upon you.
Those people you lie and bear false witnesses against, they are His servants and He will defend them in due time.God knows that His genuine servants might not defend themselves when they are wronged, this is why He makes sure He defends them.
It is more dangerous for a servant of God to keep quiet when you greatly offend him than even when he speaks. When he speaks, you can still come to your senses and begin to apologize, but when he keeps quiet after you have offended him greatly, that will push God into action.

Stay alerted and do not allow emotions and your flesh to push you into making God get angry at you like Miriam and Aaron.
May God forgive us of every idle word we have spoken against His true minister in Jesus Christ name, amen.

Invitation

If you know that you are still living in sin and you are ready to repent and begin to live your life in strict obedience to God so that you can overcome every sin in your life to make heaven, please place your right hand on your chest and say this prayer with your mouth.

Say,

"Lord Jesus, I accept You as my personal Lord and Savior. I believe that You died for me and took away my sins so that I will not face the penalty of them. I surrender my life to You today, and I make a decision to obey and follow You. Come into my life now and accept me as Your child. Thank You for saving me, in Jesus Christ's name I pray, Amen."

Congratulations, now you are saved. If you prayed this short prayer, please WhatsApp +2347067511039 and let me know that you have just been saved. I want to have a word with you. God bless you!
