Our Mission

We are commissioned by the Lord Jesus Christ to prepare His church for His second coming through His Spirit made available to us in this End-Time. We are committed to preaching and teaching Church leaders, Ministers, and the body of Christ as a whole the true gospel of holiness and righteousness which is Christ's doctrine and the only prerequisite for making Heaven, thereby re-erecting the already broken altar of true worship in sanctification to produce Saintly pilgrims.

All messages in PDF and AUDIO formats are given for free and must not be sold for any reason, they can be used by anyone all over the world for the sole purpose of spreading the gospel of Christ and also for building the body of Christ in this End-Time.

If you have been blessed through these teachings and would like to support this work prayerfully, broadcasts, or sharing of these messages through different means in other to prepare souls for the coming of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, please contact the numbers at the last page. May you not lose your eternal rewards even as the Lord increases you abundantly as you do so. Amen.

Study

So quickly tonight, The Holy Spirit is leading us into a particular topic which some Christians have neglected and it's causing a whole lot of things in this world today, both the spiritual world and the physical world. Please get ready tonight and open your heart to The Holy Spirit for Him to teach you Himself.

Acts 1:1 KJV The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach.

A quite number of times, some Christians have always lived the lifestyle of "it's my life" without knowing that the life that they now live is not theirs but of Christ who died and gave His life for them. You might be wondering who are those watching and what are they watching but just be calm, you will get the message. According to the verse, let's take a close look at two things Jesus began to put in action

1. It says Jesus began to do, meaning He was doing an action.

2. He then began to teach, meaning after He has done some particular actions, He began to teach them.

This might just look so simple and direct but when we look at it critically, I would love to ask us a question. Why didn't Jesus begin to teach before beginning to do? It means Jesus knew what He was doing. Many Christians these days are very good when it comes to preaching and teaching but the most funny aspect of this is that they preach and teach what they don't do This in turn has made a lot of Christians tagged as hypocrites and even the people they try ministering to see them as liars. Jesus began to do before teaching so it was easier for Him to teach what He was doing not that He taught them before doing them Sometimes, when you teach before doing, it's not really bad because some people will later observe you are doing what you are preaching and teaching but some Christians will never do what they preach and teach, their mouths are so swift and powerful when it comes to convincing others but they are not yet convinced.

ACTS 1:1 The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

Have you ever come across a situation or heard of a situation whereby a man or a woman goes to preach about Christ and how He transforms lives but people end up abusing them because of their appearances and how they look like people of the world here by making their salvation been questioned The moment you decide to carry your cross and follow Jesus, you become a center of attraction to everybody, both believers and unbelievers, Hear this today! You mostly become a center of attraction to unbelievers because they will want to see you portray the lifestyle of Christ that you claim to have accepted. They keep watching you closely but you won't know until you engage in a particular thing and they voice out and say "And he calls himself a Christian". Some will even say *"And he calls himself a pastor". This shows they have been watching you all along..

The Bible is very complete and right in every aspect, looking at a particular book in the Bible, it says we are read like a book by every man

2 Corinthians 3:2 KJV Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:

Kai, it doesn't say we are read by some men but all men, believers inclusive This is why as a believer, you don't go about messing yourself all around because people will question your salvation. Someone told me that he has been copying and using my lifestyle as an example to his life and I never knew, just imagine If i was behaving anyhow, that is how I would have indirectly misled an innocent soul. Many people are copying your lifestyle because they see you as a Christian but are you living the way Christ wants you to live? People are watching you, if you think you are too small to be watched by people, you are deceiving yourself.. People like monitoring Christians to either accuse them when they go wrong or copy them.

As a Christian that you are, you boarded a transport and you were cheated by the driver or conductor instead of you to behave the way a child of God would do, you start shouting and getting angry tearing your shirt in anger and doing like a boxer ready to launch an attack, the public where all eyes are on you.. You will never know that someone saw you until you behave like an holy angel on a particular day and the person that saw you when you displayed an act of immaturity will say "Don't mind him, I saw him fighting the other day" Those who were passing the other day won't know whether the driver cheated you or not, they will assume you just want to fight, now imagine you standing on the altar to preach against fighting whereas you are a boxer out there People will only be laughing at you inwardly and be saying what an hypocrite!

Jesus began to do and teach, even before He taught them about patience, He already displayed patience.. Before He taught them about Love, He already displayed it, before He taught them about giving, He already displayed it and displaying it alone has taught the people what they should do. He only buttressed His point by teaching them more and expatiating on it.

People are watching you!

Are you aware of this? When you know someone is watching you physically, you become so careful not to make any mistake so that the person won't see your mistake That is how it is Spiritually, people start watching you when you display your faith so you have to be careful of not making mistakes that will mislead people. Even at home, that husband you are praying for that God Should win his heart is watching his so called wife who calls herself a Christian, Your attitude ordinarily can change him and bring him to Christ without even preaching but when he sees his Christian wife as someone who is not different from those outside, he sees a reason not to give his life to Christ. They are watching! When a Christian brother speaks in tongues, you go ahead to barb haircuts that can be traced to the people of the world and you still blast in tongues with such haircut on your head, people are watching you closely. At your place of work, you give people tracts and preach to them and they see you as a true Christian, some even say he/she is only faking true Christianity but inwardly, they know you are a true Christian, they keep watching you to see whether the traces of an unbeliever will showcase in your life continually and they test you with little things, money, women, backbiting, gossips and a lot of things.. They try to tell you some situations and hear what your advice would be, whether godly or ungodly, are you being careful of not doing what is against Christ??

There is a story of a brother who was on fire and unknown to him, he was a role model to one of the brothers in the church, one day, he went to a phone Engineer and one thing led to another, he got so angry that him and the engineer nearly fought just because of the phone he gave the Engineer to repair. Unknown to this brother, that the other brother who used him as a role model was somewhere watching everything that was happening between the fireful brother and the Engineer and he Prayed that The Holy Spirit should minister to the brother that he had disagreement with, he later went to the Engineer to reconcile and beg him, they resolved the disagreement between them.But unknown to the second brother, he learnt something already because he wasn't there when his role model went to apologize, Then he went ahead to retaliate to someone who offended him, he ended up breaking the person's neck, he was arrested and was severely punished. That is it! The second brother didn't know that he was copying a wrong thing while the first brother never knew he was misleading an innocent soul and that someone was watching him.

We have said on this platform severally that it's better to use Jesus Christ as your role model than a man, you can make man your mentor but Jesus Should be your role model Because men can change and if you are not careful, you will change with them. Unbelievers can go a long way to test you to know whether you are truly a child of God and whether you will behave the way they behave Because they know they are not saved. As a student, people will provoke you to either speak or react. I remember during secondary school days how they tried to disturb my life and look for my trouble just for me to retaliate and fight or speak back, it was then I realised some people will deliberately do you evil to see how you will react just because you call yourself a child of God. Even in The Bible, the Pharisees tried to ask Jesus some questions and bring some situations to Him to settle just for them to know how He would go about these things, they were only tempting Him. Many times, they watched what He would do so as to catch Him and crucify Him but they found none and when they found none, they tried cooking up cock and bull story just for Him to be crucified by force even though all is according to the will of The Father.

Christians should always live the life directed and positioned by The Holy Spirit Because at a point in time, people are watching you. Anything you know that is done and can mislead others from the truth, don't get engaged in them at all. Also, whatsoever you don't do, don't preach/teach!! Go back and develop yourself well in The Lord so that when you are teaching such things, you won't be guilty of not doing them. Though it's not everything you teach that you do, you can teach that it's good to pray 10 hours a day and your capacity can only pray 5 hours, Praying 10 hours a day is not a sin, you can teach it for those whose capacities meet it, they can get engaged in it, but if you preach outward and inward holiness which are required for making heaven but you are not practicing both, you are only an hypocrite and a deceiver and people will see you as a Christian who is not serious. Let your actions do the preaching and teaching first before your mouth do so, don't be a Christian that through your actions only, you have debarred people from giving their lives to Christ, Allow the fruit of the Spirit dwell in you richly and live in wisdom with all men, always be led by The Spirit of God to do all things and when the will of the father is done, the views of anyone else do not matter.

May God grant us the grace to do what we preach and teach and give us the ability not to mislead people that are watching us in Jesus name. Amen

Thanks for your time Brethren

God bless you!
