

True Conquerors Of Reality

There are many systems of conquering in the kingdom of God, however, you must first conquer in your sphere before you conquer in the kingdom, it is your enablement to conquer in your sphere that'll birth and fuel your sacrifice to be reckoned as noble and valiant warrior for conquering in God's kingdom. We'll be dealing with life before ascending into life in the kingdom, because unless we've dealt with that which weighs us down, we cannot talk about kingdom.

At the birth of our life, sent here by God to fulfil His divine purpose, there are stigmas of sin that has locked us out of God's kingdom, degrading and tossing us far away from God and unless these stigmas are eradicated we cannot talk about kingdom our original purpose in earth, we are made for a kingdom. This is where salvation comes in by the blood and authority in the name Jesus.

Unless a man becomes usable and is being used by God he hasn't fulfil anything, no matter how much wealth he has accumulated, all that is here are vanity. For God to use a man he must first be washed by the blood of Jesus to eradicate the stigma of death caused by sin. After eradicating death to attain salvation at the end, he is then given legal right to wield the name Jesus as a mantle of authority to shatter and break every cords of darkness in his life.

Although, being born again in the holy ghost, because the life of death we have been bound to, there still lies weightiness of darkness that needs to be broken off us, unless these are broken off, we'll be limited and restricted from walking further with God, this is why the Lord gave us the word and the holy spirit. It is on constant infilling of the word in obedience that births the holy spirit in us. It is then, the holy spirit dominating and lording over our lives that enables us exercise authority in the name Jesus to take off these dead weights. God must act in us through His word by His spirit, to manifest Himself.

However, the holy spirit, brings us into a dimension to operate in the life of God where we must walk in the fullness of God's life as sons. It is the fullness of God's life birthed in us, harnessed through His word, the holy spirit will act on to stir our hearts to desire and walk in deep intimacy with God. You can't have an in-depth level of Intimacy with God if you're not filled with the holy ghost to be remotely control and sentenced into a life of the presence. It is how much we dwell in His presence through His word and in prayers that'll enhances our Intimacy with God before we talk about sacrifices.

This level of Intimacy built in the word and prayers ushers us into a full life of God, a life of liberation that is delivered from all that hinders, it is when you've been totally delivered with nothing withholding then, you can begin to walk and function in God's kingdom mandate. At this point darkness no longer hinders rather, only the flesh does poses as a dead weight and except a man deals with the flesh, he'll amount to nothing in eternity.

You should know also we need to be sanctified, I've talked about this a lot in my previous messages and I don't think I'll deliberate on it again, but we should always know the word and prayers are sanctifying tools the holy spirit uses in us to sanctify our heart with his purifying fire.

Being in this last age we must have all come to our senses that all pertaining to the flesh, the earth realm are vanity, they're just mere resources to be converted into sacrifice for the building of God's kingdom, whatever it is you have, even your very flesh should serve as a spice to your life of sacrifice. If you still live as if there's still tomorrow, if you still invest only in the earth realm, then your purpose as a man has been lost, because you were never sent here to store up earthly treasures, rather you were sent that through you God will build His Kingdom. This earth realm is just a ground to invest in the life God has deposited in us for His kingdom so, we can have a place and be of relevance in God's kingdom.

God sent us here, specifically designed to fulfil His kingdom mandate and if we fail to do so, if we fail to become part of His functionaries, we'll journey into eternity with God only to find out that we amounted to nothing, because every man will be rewarded according to the life he lived and how much God did through the life he harnessed for His kingdom.

A rich man who has amassed wealth in the earth realm, but failed to invest in God will become a pauper in eternity, because if the rich and the poor should journey into eternity in the kingdom of heaven, it'll be so regrettable to the rich man when he finds the poor who invested his time in God to be of much greater glory, and his mansion so great like an estate. Whereas, the rich will be of lesser glory and his house, not mansion, his house will be as small as a caravan. Nobody will be ranked equal in eternity, how much you invest here to walk in your ordination will determine your placing in a realm of pause, where there is no more investment, but reward and placement.

It's unfortunate, but majority of the rich in earth who eventually scaled through to heaven will become a pauper over there, because they failed to live as a sacrifice consecrated unto the Lord. Your wealth, even though present, will mean nothing to you. And so Jesus said;

Matthew 19:24

" Again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

What Jesus meant was this; the kingdom of God is a government, it is different from the kingdom of heaven which is a dwelling place, it is a government, but all governments have a separated dwelling place in a country just like the white house. In this case however, the dwelling place of God's government is the new Jerusalem in heaven, anyone who's not part of it will live outside its walls. All children of God will enter the kingdom of heaven, but not all will be part of the kingdom of God (His government.)

It'll be hard for the rich man to be part of this government, because he focused more on the flesh and not the eternal, his life was not a sacrifice, he didn't live for the will of the Father to be done in his life rather do his own will and pleasure, he lived like a normal Christian who just want to maintain his faith and go to heaven. But the poor, the ones with little and those who are rich but didn't let their wealth hider them from advancing the kingdom lived as a sacrifice.

For example; can a rich man, a man who's still concerned about what to eat and drink, can he easily be led by the holy spirit into fasting or give away almost or all he has for his trust in God to be verified. These are sacrifices that births life, only if he can make these sacrifices he'll gain the trust of God, and God's kingdom will be Invested on him. But, he wouldn't, he sees life as having demands and not sacrifice unto God.

The poor man, however, not necessarily poor, I mean; men who're no longer swayed by the desires of the world and the flesh can easily live for the will of God. Such can pray ceaselessly, not for himself, but for the will of the Father, he dwells in the presence more and is available to be used by God at anytime, if God says " move now!" he'll move no matter the situation, unlike the rich who's always occupied with himself. How many of you married couples can be separated unto God even while married, your marriage will just scatter, because it's not from God in the first place, you did it for your own selfish desire.

All activities of the world are orchestrated by the devil to hinder those who'll enter the kingdom of heaven from investing in eternity so they won't be part of the government. The same way satan descended from his place in heaven so, also he wants you to be descend from your throne even if you enter the kingdom. Only selfless men will serve as functionaries in God's kingdom.

When you pass through the eye of the needle, all that is called self, all that is of this world and of the flesh will be used against you by God to try you in the furnace. If you can count them worthless and die to yourself, bringing yourself to a new dimension of trust in God, then you'll be restored to your throne spiritually. Every trial we face in life is a fire God prepares to reveal our heart, your faith now, how much your intimacy with God is affected in the midst of it all will determine if you'll be restored your throne. So, every trial you face in life if you gamble with it wrongly, know your heavenly throne is on the line. Pass through the furnace to secure God's faith in you, the fire doesn't burn forever, it burns only for a little while.

The man who calls himself a senator now, if he fails to live for the advancement of the kingdom, although born again, he'll find himself degraded from a senator to a pauper in the kingdom of heaven, because he has been conquered by the world. Whereas, a poor janitor will ascend to heaven and you'll be surprised his ranking in God's kingdom might be like that of a vice president, you'll see him seat with ranking men like Abraham, because he lived only for God and not for himself. In fact you might not see him, because just as it is difficult to see a president on earth, so it'll be over there also. Untill you begin to live for God your life spent on earth in the realm of time will be spent on nothing.

I believe I'm talking to believers, whatever is in this earth realm counts for nothing if it doesn't resonate in God's kingdom. Everything you're given and wherever you find yourself is for sacrifice for the kingdom to harness life. Even if you're wealthy, use it for God, if it is from your heart, He'll replenish it. And so it is written;

Act 17:26-27

" And He made from one man every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth, having determined their appointed times and the boundaries of their habitation, that they would seek God..."

He did this that according to every man, a different specie, they'll be able to walk in their ordination as alters of sacrifice in their own dispensation of time, alters through which God can draw incense to advance His kingdom through earth realm. How much and the value of your incense raised in your time dispensation will determine your place in the new Jerusalem, God's government.

Wherever God placed you, you're fit to walk in it to live as a sacrifice, no other person can. Whatever situation you're going through, have the faith to conquer, no other person is fit (that is; having the same heart design as you) for it except you, because we're different but of one true king. A tailor cannot excel as an accountant, but still they'll have their part in a government and will be rewarded according to how much they invest in time to harness life for that government. If the tailor invest more of his ability (talent) he can be greater than the accountant who invested little of his ability. They have different jobs, but it's the same pay, they'll be paid in accordance to how much of their ability they invest and not how much profit was gained, the profit is for God.

All our achievements are vanity unless they form a catalyst to ignite the dimensions of God's kingdom in our life through Intimacy. You must be led to cast your flesh into the fire, unless you burn and burn, you'll have no sacrifice in heaven to tell of your worth in order to determine how much you'll be used by God. Are you a doctor? If you become a doctor not from the very depth of your heart, then you're not called by God, because if you were, He'll demand of it and use you in His own way.

You know, God can be too demanding not only man, the only difference is that the demands of man is lustful. God might even tell you to drop your doctor degree and follow Him. You degrees, whatever this world has to offer, they're just things of the world set up by the devil to keep men from their true purpose, a kingdom purpose, we live for a kingdom not for flesh. You became a doctor and you think you've conquered, you've only conquered in the flesh, but when you're check in eternity you'll know you have nothing.

If you really were called by God and He wants you to remain a doctor, God's will through you manifest His healing dimension in the lives of many for all to know that there is an Almighty God. If whatever you're doing does not bring others to know and to accept Jesus, then it is not of God. And whatever is not of God has only momentary value which eventually will pass away.

Your sacrifice for the kingdom will determine how much you'll be of use and how you'll appear in Zion. If you face death, die more, sacrifice more to become one and intimate with God, you'll be a priced vessel of great value and so you'll be for all eternity.

All who want to be relevant in God's kingdom, a time will come when you've conquered to attain treasure on earth, then God will come and demand of all those treasures to be used as your sacrifice for His kingdom. If you're not willing to sacrifice then, you'll amount to nothing in eternity, but if you follow the leading of the holy ghost to sacrifice, then you'll be ushered into God's kingdom and registered as a functionary who'll get his due, wages at the end.

You must conquer to sacrifice, all your victory in Christ that has impact in the flesh like financial blessing, healing, and all. At point of sacrifice, God will demand them of you, you won't have any excuses, because they are given not for your pleasure only, but to advance the kingdom of God and also to serve as sacrifice to fuel your intimacy with God.

For instance; God can ask you to empty your account, it sounds crazy right? To the normal christian, it does, but if you have faith that He can restore and He's always there to provide, then you'll sacrifice not withholding and when you do you'll not only get it back in more folds, but also your intimacy level with Him will be heightened to another dimension. There are things you don't pray for, you're given naturally, because of your intimacy with God. There are still children of God tormented by witches, I tell you, if you build intimacy, the light breaking out you will incinerate them if they should come closet, those in the western world, I'm not talking about physical beings.

The holy spirit has spoken to many of us, but we thought it's just us or the devil, remember you must first be mature spiritually before you can discern when you're led, you don't just go drop things, you must be led. Actually only men who know the calling of God concerning their lives are led by the holy spirit to sacrifice the flesh, because they have a revelation of where God is taking them.

Men who live only for pleasures don't know or care about the kingdom, their true purpose on earth. There's more to the kingdom of heaven than you know, it is where life for creation begins and never ends, what will you do to be placed in God's kingdom? Because everyone bearing the spirit of God will be placed in accordance to how much they lived on earth. To be relevant in God's kingdom, we must sacrifice the flesh, living not for ourselves, rather only for God. The more you journey deeper in God, the more you die to the flesh to render sacrifices of greater value, your life lived will determine your reward in the age to come.

Only men who have journeyed far are beckoned by the holy spirit to sacrifice their life. At this junction, you might finish your education and then the holy spirit will whisper,

" cast your certificate into the fire,"

This is why we build intimacy, without an in-depth level of intimacy with the holy spirit you can't trap revelations from God which triggers visions enabling you to make greater sacrifice. If you want to conquer and become of much relevance in God's kingdom, you must be a man of great sacrifice, however, this is impossible if you don't have a deep intimacy with God. What others call foolishness, absurd, speakings of the devil won't deter your faith, because you know the One speaking to you. You'll be ready to die to sacrifice for His will, because through intimacy you know the level of conviction you've received.

Men like this, even if they don't achieve anything on earth, even if they're not recognized as pastors, bishops, apostles, they'll be recognized and highly ranked in God's kingdom, because of the life of costly sacrifice they lived. They died totally to themselves, to all that pertains to this world to become a spirit being to birth the move of God. It is through their incense of great value raised spiced with their death to the flesh and of the world God will use to gain more territory in the earth realm for the advancement of His kingdom. The pastor might preach and men will give their lives to Christ, you might think it's the pastor, but what you don't know is that, there's a man whose life has paved way for God to dwell in that territory.

After we have conquered darkness in our lives which restricts us, we must then conquer flesh as a spiritual system in order to become kingdom functionaries for conquering and advancement of God's kingdom. Life is built mainly on the basis of kingdom matters, be it of God or of the devil. We must live as light bearers and not functionaries of darkness. Everyman who dwells in sin, his heart becomes an altar of death which raises sacrifice for the kingdom of hell to prevail.

However, you who have been restored you must now become a living sacrifice to dissipate the thick cloud of darkness your past sin and the sins of others contributed which gave the devil much ground to manifest in the earth realm.

We must live only for God and not for ourselves, unless we die to our pleasures and comfort for will of the Father to be fulfilled, the spiritual barrier of the flesh veiling and suppressing the glory of God in us won't wear off. The reason why men can manifest the life of God in diverse dimensions is, because they have died to the flesh to destroy its spiritual barrier which hinders the life of God from flowing out a man.

The flesh is what contains and seals the glory of God within, hindering us from releasing God's life to stir the spirit of God in others. It is when the flesh dies we become fully clothed in God's spirit to fully function as a vessel of noble purpose unto God else, it'll wear you out. Meanwhile, I heard from an Apostle the glory of God in a man is bigger than this earth, just a man.

The moment you decide to live as sons, you'll be sentenced to a system of death process by the holy ghost till you leave this earth realm, you'll burn as a sacrifice just as ungodly men burn as a sacrifice of death to yield darkness, you also must burn for the advancement of the kingdom. It is your sacrifice that invokes the dimensions of heaven on the earth realm for God to take over territories of darkness, the reason why a territory is filled with darkness and no man of God has risen is, because no one has dared to live as a sacrifice to invoke God's presence.

Your life of sacrifice becomes a burning fire and every second of your life lived, raises incense to be used by God for His kingdom advancement. And it is your desires of the flesh sacrificed that fuels and beautifies the aroma of your incense making it of great value. Just a little of it fetches by God can degrade darkness occupying territories.

This is the true act of conquering, for the kingdom and not only for yourself. You can conquer for yourself, but the blessings will perish here on earth, it is a conquering for the kingdom that'll give you eternal treasures that'll never perish. Conquer for the imperishable and not the perishable.

All your conquering on earth are vanity if they don't pave way for you to conquer for God's kingdom. When all is said and done, you'll be rewarded like a knight who fought to establish a kingdom. Whereas the civilians who did nothing will have nothing but watch and cheer on those valiant warriors when they're are being ranked in heaven. They'll weep.

He that conquered only in time is not a true conqueror, rather he that conquered in time to gain eternal value, his rightful throne is a true conqueror.
