WEBINAR INVITATION

UNCITRAL DAYS IN AFRICA

In search of an inclusive AfCFTA: what role for advisory centres on international trade and investment law?

You are hereby cordially invited to attend the fourth webinar in a series of webinars hosted by the Mandela Institute in partnership with UNCITRAL as part of its UNCITRAL Days in Africa initiative (for more information, click here).

The inaugural edition of the UNCITRAL Days in Africa initiative is aimed at engaging on the subject of the modernisation and harmonisation of international commercial law frameworks against the backdrop of the African Continental Free Trade Area (AfCFTA) becoming operational. In this fourth webinar, the presenters will discuss the potential role of international trade and investment law advisory centres for making the AfCFTA an inclusive regional integration effort.
