Unlocking The Times And Seasons

The key to activate the times and season upon which God operates in a generation is casting the greatest sacrifice into the alter of fire. When you do this the door to walk into the season will be open, you just to walk into it and be carried by the holy ghost. Man can know the season, but he might not have the key to unlock the doors into that season. The key to unlock this door is sacrifice and the greatest sacrifice is your flesh, your ambition as a man.

Human ambition is good for the flesh, but a poison to the soul, it is the greatest bondage of the flesh that hinders a man from walking and manifesting the power of God. Man can be free from bondage of sin and bondage of the world, all these gives him salvation, but there is another dimension ever child of God must thread; to walk in God's ordinance for life, your true purpose on earth, every other ambition in life is useless if it's not align with the kingdom.

Except a man lays down his life, he'll amount to nothing in eternity, his coming here will be in vain. How long are you going to live to fulfil our own ambition? For those of us who preach the gospel; how long are we to preach empty words or words of little life substance?

We must come to the cross and lay down our lives, as a living sacrifice, being dead to the flesh, crucified on the cross to be resurrected as a spirit being walking the physical. Only spiritual men can carry the life of God which destroys darkness bringing life unto dead souls.

Only dead men who carry the weightiness of God's life can stand at the valley of dry bones and cry out

" rise up! "

They are men of the presence, men who lavish their lives in God's word, in His presence, they've been immersed in the word to carry the life of God, they carry the weightiness of God's glory, God's power God's life. Except we carry the weightiness of God's life we cannot break the walls that hiders men from sin, we cannot be deliverers of men.

There are many who are in bondage of sin, no matter how much they've heard the word of God. We who are purchased by the blood of Jesus, we are given the holy spirit as a deposit, our military ID, giving us clearance to become soldiers of Christ to be trained and built higher in ranks to retake territory of darkness. It is our duty to grow to become Gods on earth, men who God will use as a medium for the establishment of His kingdom in the hearts of men.

Many Christians are weak today, they lack vision for the kingdom because they don't have revelation from God. Revelation propels a man to have vision, vision propels a man to grow deeper in Christ Jesus, when he grows deeper, he becomes more powerful. Only those who are filled with the holy spirit can create visions by the holy spirit through the revelation they've gotten.

Except we grow we cannot fulfil God's purpose on earth, you can declare the gospel for long hours, because you're an excellent orator or having intellectual knowledge of the scripture, but at the end you'll end up speaking empty words. God's word are life, it is the degree of how much life a man carries he can give life, a lifeless person or one with little life can not bring salvation to a simple man, he'll just be staring at you, because your words are not impacted with life.

How long should we continue with this, don't we get tired of preaching the gospel to people with no change at all. You might preach to someone, he might even follow you to church, but still empty. You need the life of God, the power of God birthed through his word, to break the wall that stand as a barrier blocking the heart of the unbeliever to receive God's word. To every man in sin or in weakness, there is a wall that hiders God's word form piercing through his heart, unless you break that wall you'll speak empty words, words that just hits a wall and fell to the ground.

This is a time when men must carry the life of God for the advancement of God's kingdom. We must carry God's word with power to break every wall of darkness, that even the presence of God overwhelming you, you can walk in the midst of the ungodly without saying anything and there'll be a delivered.

Only men of sacrifice who carries the power of God can break the walls in the hearts of men. Is not all about words, it is the intensity of the power that is birthed in you.

God does not raise the intellectual, because they're the hardest to be broken, God needs broken men, and so he searches for men of deficiencies, because they are the easiest to break. Great men of God who have walked and are walking with God, a time came when they realize they can't do anything on their own, they know they can't speak on their own, nothing they can do on their own. These are men who have groaned in their heart;

" Lord I've reached the brink of my limitations, snatch me up by the hands from the drowning waters and carry me through into your presence."

These are men God is searching for. A man who is filled with the holy spirit, is given a new revelation, this new revelation will usher him into a new era by the holy spirit. it is not man that usher himself, else he'll fail, it is the holy spirit, but firstly you must be filled before you're led by the holy spirit and baptized in the holy ghost to be ordained.

To Walk in line one with God, we must have the key to unlock the seasons of the age God has for men, the season is away there but only few have the keys to discern the movement of God.

Oy men who are willing to lay down their ambition at the alter and burn it up as a pleasant sacrifice unto God can unlock the times of the season. Our earthly ambition is the greatest flesh a man must overcome, are you will to sacrifice your certificate if the holy spirit tells you to? Are you willing to leave your job?

You cannot not cast away your ambition into the fire at the alter, no, you'll fail, you'll die, you must be lead by the holy spirit at the appointed time to do so, and for this appointed time to arise you must be a man of the presence filled with the holy spirit, let the holy spirit become the core of your life.

Men who have spent time in the presence of God care only about the Father and not men, neither do they care about themselves only how they can be of use to the Father.

When a man is ushered into a new era by the holy spirit, new secrets of the kingdom is revealed, the path and the requirement to walk in line with the season will be given, only if you come to the point of brokenness and surrender, then the holy spirit will come and guide you.

Secrets of the Kingdom sealed away will be revealed to usher you into the kairos time, the time of harvest when God is to ordain you. Things you might have heard of, but have been sealed away from your heart, you'll hears those things again and you'll say,

" so these things were right here!"

Why? Because your season has come, If you don't discern the time to key into your season and walk in it, you'll lose it, or it'll be too late to manifest the glory of God sealed up in you.

Men who understands the times are men of relevance, the sons of Issachar understood the times and they did exploit. You'll remain irrelevant for all of eternity If you don't align your heart with the dealings of God in your generation. If you're a child of God, you'll remain a babe and you'll go back to your father unfulfilled. Just as the parable of the Minas, your talent will be taken form you and given to one who is willing to invest on it. We are sent here on earth to fulfil the purpose of God, we are sent here for a kingdom business, salvation is just a ticket to get in to the Father business.

How much time do you invest in God's presence to become relevant unto Him, to be used by Him, only those who has given God their life time are given shares to invest in God's kingdom, these are men of relevance. Your eternal reward will be added to another man's reward, because you refuse to yield yourself to be used by God. When a man refuse to invest on what God has given him, it'll be taken away and given to another who's willing to invest more for God's kingdom.
