Volunteering Opportunity (SRH focus)

Location: Al Faraj Building, Bole
Position Type: Part-Time

About Letena Ethiopia:

Letena Ethiopia is a dynamic project focused on providing critical knowledge, tools, and services to support healthier, more informed communities. Through education, consultations, and outreach, Letena aims to create meaningful change and expand access to essential sexual and reproductive health (SRH) resources. We are dedicated to empowering individuals with reliable health information, fostering better decision-making, and promoting well-being across Ethiopia.

Role Overview:

We are looking for a passionate and creative volunteer to be featured in some of our educational videos and support in writing engaging and entertaining articles on sexual and reproductive health topics. You will work closely with our content team, creating impactful videos and articles that educate and engage our audience on important SRH issues.

Key Responsibilities:

1. Video Participation:
    - Be featured in short educational videos answering questions on various SRH topics. These videos will be shared across our social media platforms to educate and engage our audience.
    - Collaborate with the team to identify relevant questions and topics to address in each video.
    - Be comfortable presenting health information in an engaging and accessible way for a diverse audience.
2. Writing Articles/Blog Posts:
    - Research and write engaging, informative, and entertaining articles or blog posts on various sexual and reproductive health topics.
    - Ensure content is accurate, easy to understand, and culturally sensitive.
    - Work with the Letena team to ensure the articles align with our mission and audience's needs.

How to Apply:
If you're excited about contributing to public health education and have a passion for SRH topics, we'd love to hear from you! Please submit the following to our email: info@letenaethiopia.com by March 4, 2025:

1. A 1-2 minute video in Amharic discussing an SRH topic of your choice.
2. The script for the video you've recorded.
3. Both the English and Amharic translated versions of a sample article (including citations) you have written on any SRH topic. Feel free to use one you've written previously or create a new one.

Please include Letena Volunteer in the subject line.

Only candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.

Qualifications:

- A licensed medical doctor with experience or expertise in sexual and reproductive health (SRH).
- Ability to communicate complex SRH information in an engaging and understandable manner.
- Comfortable with presenting on camera (for video participation).
- Excellent writing skills in both English and Amharic.
- Basic computer skills (e.g., familiarity with Google Docs, email, social media platforms).
- Strong writing, language, and communication skills.
- Previous experience writing or creating content is desired but not required.

Additional Information:

- Transportation Allowance: We will provide a transportation allowance to assist with travel expenses related to the role.
- Opportunity for Full-Time Employment: After 3 months of volunteering and an evaluation, there is the possibility of transitioning to a full-time position based on performance and availability of funding.

Why Join Us?
As a volunteer with Letena Ethiopia, you'll be making a tangible impact in the community, contributing to the education of individuals on vital health topics. You'll gain experience in content creation and digital media while being part of a passionate and growing team working to promote better SRH awareness in Ethiopia.

Letena Ethiopia fosters an inclusive, collaborative work environment where your voice and contributions will be valued. Together, we can empower individuals to make informed decisions about their health and well-being. We encourage people of all backgrounds, particularly women, to apply and contribute to this important work.
