Walking Under The Government Of The Christ

The reason a man falls is, because he was born in a fallen state, but through repentance he declares himself to be subjected under the government of the Christ. Although he now has Jesus in him, but still he's not yet free from the bondages of sin unless he attains salvation which lies at the end. God made it so that the hearts of men shall be revealed.

When a man repents and confesses Jesus as Lord over his life, there's a transaction he underwent in the spirit. The moment he made the declaration from heart and mentioned the name " Jesus," he has sworn an oat under the authority of that name " Jesus," to become subjected under the government of the Christ.

The name " Jesus " is an authority a man comes under as a mantle. The " Christ " is a government, an office of the Messiah. And so we have, " Jesus Christ " that is; authority under the government of the Christ. So whenever you mention; " in the name of Jesus Christ," know you're making the statement " by the authority of the government of the Christ."

If you call His name, His government will act in your stead in accordance to your faith level and how deep you've journeyed in Intimacy with God. Anything can happen. For an unbeliever, he is rescued from the captive of sin's government, for a man in the course to attain salvation, light is sent to obliterate sin, for an Intercessor, angels can be assembled by the authority of that government to conquer and deliver.

It is the authority in the name " Jesus " that brings a man out of the government of sin, and puts him under the government of the Christ. The government of the Christ is what guides a man, just as a government has laws and constitutions, so also the government of the Christ, sends a proxy (the holy spirit) to guide a man and teach him the constitution of the government he's under. What to eat (the word,) how to pray, what to do, what to avoid, all these laws begins to function in a man by the help of the holy spirit the executor.

However, just as this man is under the authority of Jesus which compels him to live and obey the constitution of the government, so that in time he'll become a fully fledge citizen, there is also sin lurking around. Although, he has been brought into the government of the Christ, but he's not yet a certified citizen of heaven. Unless he passes his exams, sin still lies in his heart and if the spirit of sin comes again to compel this man back to her government, he must exercise his will by relying on the authority of the government he's under so, he'll be compelled to abstain and to disdain the spirit of sin and fulfill the rights of the government of Christ by obeying the laws.

However if he hasn't gotten his certificate, as long as he isn't found guilty of any law he's still regarded as a citizen. And it's a risky thing not having his citizen's certificate, he can be maltreated by thugs (darkness) and if he's not careful, he might break the laws and be excommunicated.

He must align himself to live as a citizen by drawing life from the well of life (God's word,) he must always keep in contact with the government (Jesus) by the proxy (the holy spirit) through prayers, he must do all to obey and mingle with the citizens of the country. But still, if he decides to yield to the spirit of sin, he'll become a rebel to the government of the Christ. When he was persuaded he has every right and will to report to the authorities (Jesus), but he kept quiet and chose the path of a rebel.

Those who understands what it takes to attain heaven's citizenship will do all it takes to get their certificate. Whereas, the weak and foolish will choose to the path of a rebel. And if they continue in it, they'll become an outlaw, having no heart to turn over a new leaf. If you're still falling all these while, then you're the one who chose to become a rebel, but today I pray you'll broken free in the name of Jesus Amen!

When he accepted Jesus as Lord, he has declared a change in government from sin to the government of the Christ, this is what gives Jesus right to function in him, guiding him on what to do and also creating restrictions that'll hinder sin from taking over his heart once more. When you enter the government of the Christ, you're given a head start as a refugee is given a camp.

- you're shielded by the word
- your faith seed sown as a deposit has been activated.
- the government of the Christ now has control over your heart, but not fully. He's the one that tell you to pray, Feed on the words, don't go there, don't look there. Still the spirit of sin is still there, because you've not yet dethrone it by proving your qualification on faithfulness.

If you can be conscious of these three factors then, you can utilize properly and know that for sure you'll get there.

For one to get over an addiction, a sin he's heavily bound to, I would say an influence actually, because it is caused by a spirit. For one to get over and subdue it completely, all it takes it's the fullness of God's nature in him as a result of his faithfulness to fetch from the well of life (God's word) that's all, you won't hear anything new. But people would wonder, how would one have the fullness of God nature? First you need faith and faithfulness and then, It is attained by;

- feeding on God's word daily as you would feed your flesh, don't starve the spirit of God in you, else He won't grow to dominate your heart giving no space for that spirit of darkness. You must see God's word not to preach it or have knowledge, but as a source to draw God's life from His well.

- prayers, to secure that life which you've gotten and also prayers to build Intimacy with God and for sanctification of heart.

- obedience. Actually you can't naturally obey if the nature of God has not begin to dominate your heart.

If such a man can be consistent and faithful in doing this, I tell you, it'll take only few weeks, no, even few days to get over sin. It's not hard you're not just serious and lack faith. You put too much confidence and hype about how much sin can be a suppressive sprit to that of Christ, what an insult.

In Accordance to all that you've been questioning about the impossibility to live without sin, here's your answer and you've always known it, " build the nature of God."

However, we must see beyond the vistas of salvation and focus on God's will concerning us, why were you predestined and ordained even before the beginning of time? I believe there are those reading this who aren't just looking for how to overcome sin. For these kind of people, they desire to live like God and for His will alone.

Then, I'll put in order what you really need and what you've always heard;

- Righteousness - Holiness - Purity

This path is for men who desires to be used by God and to be used by God requires purity, a firm foundation. This desire is given only to someone who is already filled with the holy spirit. These actually are broad aspect, but I'll trust the holy spirit to keep it short, it's not all about lengthy words, if your hearts are open there'll be an Impartation of life.

- Righteousness

This is your efforts and our effort (righteousness) is of two kind. One comes from us and the other is from the holy spirit (God's spirit of righteousness).

If we walk alone in our righteousness we'll of course faint, but if we dwell in the word of God, we're being filled with the holy spirit, it is our effort (righteousness) to dwell in the word the holy spirit (the spirit of righteousness) will dominate and assist us in our weakness to press on. And then we say, " our righteousness is a filthy rag," but when we are assisted by the holy spirit, it no longer becomes a filthy rag.

It is this righteousness that quickens and propels you to strive harder by faith to attain holiness.

- Holiness

It is the nature of God, if you are holy then the divers characteristics of God's nature will be expressed in you. This is when a man can no longer live in sin, because he now has an indwelling of the nature of God. However, holiness cannot be attained without righteousness.

You have die to yourself in other to dwell in the word to draw life to fuel God's spirit in you so He can gain dominance. At this phase the Lord keeps watching to see your genuineness and when you have prayed for your heart to be sanctified, when you're faithful, at the appointed time, which is a short time depending on how much effort you put and how much faith you have. Then the Lord steps in fully and bring you to salvation, then you become filled with the holy Spirit to live a life without sin.

Holiness cannot come if God's nature has not grown to maturity in you through the word. It is the dominating power of God's spirit in you that'll replace and eradicate totally that spirit of sin. You'd just look back one day and say; " Hey! When was the last time I did this." Sin becomes alien to such a man. However, here comes purity

- Purity

When a man is still holy, he cannot sin, but still his will is a little bit still in control, and so he might decide to do this and that and if he's not careful…
However, purity is a total subjection to the holy Spirit, here you can never sin only if you say " let me be holy spirit for I want to," it's like a man who say he'll shoot himself in the leg when he knows how painful it'll be, even if you want to do it you just can't do it. That's how hard it is for a man to sin at this stage, because he's becoming more like God.

For this to happen, to live completely under the subject of the government of the holy spirit, living a live without sin naturally and freely, you must journey deeper in Intimacy with God. You must see beyond salvation and desire to be of use unto God. You'll still do the same process, but with another conviction. Dwell more and more in the presence in His word and pray more than before to sanctify your heart completely and also, to build Intimacy.

The more you feed on the word, the more you add coal to the fire which is the holy spirit, when this fire increases rapidly it catalyze and accelerate your sanctification process to be purged of any trace of sin. Then God will be waiting at the other side to come in, this time not Jesus, but God will come in the temple and give you revelations about his plan concerning your life. For Jesus said;

" If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word; and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our home with him."
[John 14:23]

You're life henceforth at this point, will be lived in revelations, and a personal dealings from the holy spirit so you can be a vessel of honor unto God for the fulfillment of His will and completion of His blueprint concerning you.
