

Who Is God?

Question: Who is God?

Answer: God is simply our Heavenly Father. This means He is our Creator. Though we cannot see Him, He is real and He created us. Heb 11:3 tells us that, through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear. The word ‘worlds’ (and you can find this in the Strong’s Concordance) is the Greek Word (the New Testament was written in the Greek) aion (#165) and means the world but also an age. The following studies document that God not only made us (our flesh bodies) and the world as we see it now, but He actually created our soul (we have a spiritual body within our flesh body) and spirit (heart and mind) even before we came to live in this flesh body, at a time that we refer to as the ‘first earth age’, which you can learn about in the following links.

So, it’s important to understand that there is only one true (real) ‘God’ and that He is the Creator of our ‘inner man’ (our heart, mind and soul) as well as the one who created our flesh body in our mother’s womb (Ps 139:13-14). He also created the world that we can see, but also all other things in the Universe, even those things we cannot see, which Heb 11:3 speaks about. The Bible also tells us that God has no ‘father’ nor any beginning, neither does He have any end. In Rev 1:8 God said: I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty. When God sent Moses to free Israel, Moses asked what he should say when they asked who it was that sent Moses. God responded by saying: I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you (Ex 3:14). In the Hebrew it’s...

“I AM” is #1961. It’s written as ‘hayah’ (pronounced ‘haw-yaw’) and is a primitive root [compare OT:1933] that means to exist, i.e. be or become, come to pass (always emphatic, and not a mere copula or auxiliary).

“THAT” is # 834 and written as ‘asher’ (pronounced as ash-er’); this is a primitive relative pronoun (of every gender and number); who, which, what, that; also (as an adverb and a conjunction) when, where, how, because, in order that, etc.:

As the Companion Bible in Apx 4 points out, when the word ‘LORD’ is given in all caps, it means God’s true name was used in the manuscripts (which is #3068 Yehovah, pronounced yehho-vaw', which means to 'self-existent' and 'eternal'). But this account in Exodus explains the etymology for His name. God told Moses that HE EXISTS... always HAS and always WILL (Rev 1:8, 11, 21:6, 22:13). This is what His name means and He is named so because it describes Him.

So 'God' (the creator of our body, soul and spirit) has always existed and always will. He has created all things on earth and in heaven (Rev 4:11), including our soul (Ezek 18:4) even the things which we cannot see. And the most wonderful part of that fact, is that He wants to have a personal relationship with us (you too!), even though we cannot see Him. We develop that relationship with Him by studying His Word (the Bible). When we do so – sincerely, diligently and consistently – and strive to obey it (from the heart), He will give us His Holy Spirit to help us understand His Word and to learn how to obey it in our daily life.

The next logical question is then: who is Jesus Christ? While traditions of many confuse the answer, the Bible is very clear about it. In the Gospel of John, we are told that...

*1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

*3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

And then, verse 14 tells us...

And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

John 1:14

So, Jesus Christ is simply God (our Creator) in a flesh body. When He walked the earth, people could see what God looked like because He manifested Himself in a flesh body as Jesus Christ. Heb 1:3 says that Jesus Christ is the 'express image' of God, which means an exact copy of Him (#5481 in the Greek). Col 1:15 also says that Jesus Christ is the image (incarnation) of the invisible God and verse 16 says that by Him, (Jesus, who is God) all things were created by Him and for Him, just as Rev 4:11 says. 2 Cor 4:4 also says this and many other Scriptures back up the fact that Jesus Christ is God in the flesh (John 1:1-4, 14, John 10:30, 14:8-11, Heb 1:1-6, Col

1:12-20, Col 2:8-11, 2 Cor 5:19, 2 Cor 4:4-6, Isa 9:6-7, Isa 43:10-11, Isa 45:21-22, Isa 49:26, Isa 60:16). And that's why we must accept Jesus Christ as our Savior and king if we want to have a relationship with God Himself (our Creator) and also if we want to live forever (i.e. have eternal life). It is because Jesus Christ is God in the flesh; so, if we deny Jesus Christ, we truly deny (reject) God. And denying God (which is rebelling against Him) also means we cannot live forever with Him. For we can only live forever by His giving us life, which is essentially truth (John 6:63) – which is what the Bible gives us. Which again, is why it's so important to study the Bible for yourself. The following studies will help you understand this more...

Is believing in Jesus enough to be saved <https://t.me/BibleStudyTruth/1982>

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness;

19 Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them.

20 For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:

21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

24 Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:

25 Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

Rom 1:16-25

5 But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

6 Who will render to every man according to his deeds:

7 To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life:

8 But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile;

10 But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile:

11 For there is no respect of persons with God.
