Wife Of Noble Character

The mothers play a very crucial role in the making of great men of God, the mother is the one who nurtures the spirit sent by God to fulfill His purpose and plans on earth, she sharpens the calling of God for a child. The devil knows of this and so he spend lots of investment on a woman right from childhood unto maturity so she'll become ignorant of God, living in sin to destroy that which God is to put in her.

The womb of a mother carries the destinies of great men of God, every soul is sent from heaven by God, predestined for a great purpose here on earth for the manifestation of God and His kingdom here on earth. However many women have become foolish, if they were not foolish, this world wouldn't have been overrun by demons and evil, because it is the child born in contamination of sin that gives rise to an increase in darkness in the world.

The devil has thrown many ladies into immorality today, they dress naked, sell their body to the devil to be used in the destruction of men, they use their body for seduction, destroying the lives of the foolish, they've desecrated their body the temple of God, rendering it a vessel of darkness. When a woman is contaminated with evil, when a woman is filled with darkness due to her sin, even the slightest sin can lead to a spiritual defection in her womb. But the worst kind of sin that totally contaminates and destroys the womb of a woman is sexual immorality, this is why many women are bound to live this way if they're been influenced by demons.

It is a demonic civilization and system set in place to thwart the plans of God on earth, the problem is not God, this world is governed by spiritual laws, you choose to live the way you want it live. Except God really has called you for something greater, then He'll do everything to consecrate you.

The contamination of a woman by sin, renders her spiritual womb a void of darkness, when a soul is been sent to where flesh, that flesh being nursed in a void of darkness becomes corrupt, and when that child is born, he manifest the sin properties of both the mother and the Father, being contaminated with sin, he can also acquire spirits of sin from the life of those influencing him.

A father and a mother must have knowledge of this, mostly the mother. Marriage is of God, not of man, God's established marriage for His purpose of recreating and increase His kingdom here on earth. And for this to be fulfilled He sends a soul, a man and a woman comes together to become one flesh ( a child born of the spirit of God ) in order for the soul sent by God to walk the physical he must wear flesh, this is were a man and a woman comes in.

However, many have mistaken and turned marriage for their own gain, you're just there to bring a soul to this earth, nurture him, till his time comes for the fulfillment of God's will in his life. Every parent will be held accountable on the day of judgement for his or her negligence and for his or her wisdom.

The wickedness of women living in sin makes it a demanding task for God to raise men of standard, if great men of God, in this generation. The soul being contaminated by darkness already, when God comes and say it is time, an unnecessary war will break out for the soul of that man, if the parents were wise there wouldn't have been a need for any war, because the child would have been consecrated to God already. Being corrupted with darkness, God will have to break, crush, restructure and bring the path of such a man into alignment with Him.

The wicked mother nurtures a desiccated egg, an egg void of God, filled only with darkness, This makes a child find it difficult to walk in line with God. Women in ignorance, awaken now else, you'll be judged. If you eventually enter into God's kingdom, you'll be judged according to your works, and the reward you were to receive will be denied of you. When you see women of noble character in the kingdom in their glorious majesty, you'd be like a pauper in their presence.

Women who continue in sin, they've ruptured their womb for the contamination of evil and when that child is born for God's purpose, he'll have to go through a great deal of alignment, many things has to be restructured, God will have to pass him through many trials and dealings to awaken and quicken his spirit man to reveal God's glory which was hidden within.

A woman's womb is meant to carry the glory of God, how much more do you think God will judge you for bringing to ruin or to a halt what He is to do with a soul. Where are the Deborah's, the Esther's of our time, women who'll say I rather die for the glory of God, I sacrifice my life for God's purpose to be fulfilled in the lives of His Children

The book of Proverb 31:1 express the love of a mother over her child and the purpose of God plan for him.

" O my son, O son of my womb, O son of my vows."

I thank God for the good mother's, the wise mother's, I thank God for my mother, though many might have fallen, but they remember where they have fallen and went back to God, although many lack knowledge of this truth still they strive to live a holy life please to God, the lives they live keeps the child in store for God's awakening in his life.

The lives lived, the prayers they made, were not in vain, they had restricted the child from venturing far into sin, so God purpose will be fulfilled in his life, the spiritual songs they played and sang all the time, the Christian schools they sent their children so they can hear God's word on a morning assembly, the church they forced the child to attend, all these might be annoying to the child, but when that child has been called by God, he'll look back and say

" Oh! how my mother loved me."

This is the true love of a mother for her child, nurturing, in preparation for the day of God's calling in his life.

When the holy Spirit is revealed in a child, he automatically walks in line with God in His presence. The Lord supports him with revelations and on the basis of these revelations, sprouts his growth, making him aware of God's calling in his life and how close he is to God. He then strives even more with the help of the spirit as his coach, to be restored back to God, baptized in the holy ghost and ordained to become what God has called him for, be it an Apostle, a prophet, whatever his calling is.
