9. Prayer

It was the month of September the very afternoon after my Chemistry intervention lessons at Avoca Secondary School with the tenacious Dr. Thasmai Dhurumraj on rates of reactions and chemical equilibriums. In my bedroom, which also functioned as my study room because it had a desk, chair, bright lamp, and next to it, my seldomly touched bookshelf. While occupied by revision tasks from school given to us for homework, my spirit was enlightened, and there, I stood amongst spirit beings on my left, right, behind, and in front of me carrying swords, and they looked like an army. These angels did not allow anyone to do me harm. Before, I was a choir of constantly traveling angels bringing gold and resources from around the world for ministry. An angel huge in stature stepped forth and said to me without moving his mouth, "This is for spreading the good news of Jesus Christ to nations around the globe." After this enlightenment, my study room was so real again, so I rushed to sit on my chair to catch my breath, and the fear that had guzzled me began to diminish in minor continuous dosages. You might be asking yourself,

"What language do angels speak,"

"What are the types of angels according to biblical truth,"

"How can you see angels,"

"What should be the relationship between angels and Christians,"

All your meekness will be satisfied in the truth unfolding as you read through this book.

Origin of angels

In Isaiah Chapter 14, we encounter scriptures informing us of a time of events before Adam was formed,

Isaiah 14:12

How art thou have fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! How art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!

The word Lucifer means light barrier or light-bringer; this word appears only in the book of Isaiah. It is important to understand son of the morning refers to angels, to which Lucifer is also included. Jesus later concurs this scripture by the prophet, Isaiah in the book of Luke let us read,

Luke 10:18

And he said unto them, I beheld Satan fall like lightning from heaven.

The word Satan is the word satani in the Hebrews, which means adversaries or opponents. Therefore, satan is a job description of tasks he assumed rather than it being his name; the name is Lucifer meaning light barrier.

To appetize your spirit, note that the Bible says Jesus was the light of men.

John 1:4-8

In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

He was not that Light but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

Lucifer is the light bringer, but we hardly know about the people that he brought light to because he could not have brought the light to our Lord since in God there is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

James 1:17

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

I am in no way comparing our Lord to Lucifer, but this will later feed into our discussions.

Back to origin of angels. The book of Job is the oldest book of the Bible written 400 years before the Lord used Moses. But the book of Genesis contains the most past story recorded by Moses as it was revealed to him by the Lord. The book of Job tells us that the Lord created the foundations of the earth, and angels referred to as the morning stars and sons of God shouted for joy.

Job 38: 4-7

Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? Declare, if thou hast understanding.

Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?

Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner stone thereof.

When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy.

Angels shouted for joy when the foundations of the earth were being laid up. In that case, it means that angels existed before the story Moses recorded in Genesis chapter 1 because angels first had to shout for joy when the foundations of the earth were created. Genesis informs us that,

Genesis 1:1

In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth.

The condition of being a creator qualifies the name God, so we can also deduce here that God created angels before creating the earth. This is a little bit easier to figure out from scriptures instead of what came first, the chicken or the egg or riddles like a circle with no beginning; I think you get me now. Let me explain further, at the beginning of the beginning that we encounter in Genesis, we did not have God, but we had the Word. Let us look at this scripture,

John 1:1

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God and the Word was God.

The book of Genesis tells us that In the beginning, God created; the condition of creating qualifies the word "God" which means creator, so angels were created by the uncreated Creator who created himself, yeah, I know! It will take us forever to explain our Lord. So, angels were created before the foundations of the earth, which means angels were created before the Adamic race. Let me show you this method,

Revelations 19:12-13

His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.

And he was clothed with a venture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.

Where we see "Word of God," let us put Jesus; I am assuming that you already know that Jesus is the word of God; if you do not then we are in deep trouble. This method, I use it with those who feel that Jesus is not God but rather "his father" is. Also, those who think that he is a lower God or the dangerous doctrine that says Jesus is an archangel called Michael.

The word of God = Jesus Revelations 19: 13

John 1:1

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God and the Word was God.

In the beginning was Jesus, and Jesus was with God, and Jesus was God.

Paul wrote a letter to the Corinthians,

1 Corinthians 15:45

And it is written, the first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

The Adam that Paul is talking about is in the book of Genesis,

Genesis 2:7

And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living soul.

Angels were created before the earth, so we can say that angels are older than the earth. Also, the earth was created before Adam was created and formed. In science, they determine the earth's age using carbon dating, and it is said that the earth is 4,543 billion years old. Carbon dating entails looking at the radioactive carbon of rocks on the earth's crust and rocks on the moon. But the generation from Adam is calculated to be six thousand years old. I understand that some of you may have a strong resistance towards scientific conclusions, but the numbers do not matter in this case; but what we can deduce is that angels were created before the earth and Adam. If it is true that the earth is 4,543 billion years, then angels are more than 4,543 billion years old. I am in no way saying that this is the exact age of angels because time exists on earth and not with God because even the days call him ancient.

Daniel 7:9

I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

To conclude, it is imperative to note that Angels are not bound to the time-space continuum presented in Physics. Let us look at this scripture again,

Genesis 1:1

In the beginning God, created the heaven and the earth.

In the beginning, God created the heaven and the earth

Time

Space

Matter

Time, space, and matter must co-occur for there to be life. If we only have matter and space without time, when will we put the matter in space? If we only have time and matter without space, then where is matter? We learned that matter is anything that has mass and occupies space; I am sure you get that now! If we only have space and time, what will we put in space? So, these three must co-occur for there to be a symphony. Angels were created before the foundations of the earth were laid up, and since the elements presented above being time-space-matter need to co-occur, we can deduce that angels are not bound to the time, space continuum.

Angelic order

Contrary to what many of us in the body of Christ has published, preached, and concluded, there is no order of angels in the Bible. The order of angels is humanmade, but most of us, as Christians, are unaware perhaps due to us not doing justice to scriptures. The order of angels is based on the proximity of angels from the throne room of God. Still, since this is not biblically incited in the scriptures, authors are not wrong by describing angels in any order. A problem may arise when we think there are spiritual benefits of following angels' humanmade order then we have been deceived. It is like this: It not an issue to go to Church on Sundays, Saturdays or Tuesdays; the problem arises when some people who follow a specific school of thought feel that there is a spiritual benefit of going to church on Saturday instead of other days.

Luke 13:11-17

And behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no use lift herself.

And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

And the ruler of the synagogues answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day.

The Lord then answered him and said thou hypocrites, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

Luke 14:3 – 6

And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees saying, is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day?

And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go;

And answered them saying, which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightaway pull him out on the sabbath day?

And they could not answer him again to these things.

Mark 2:27-28

And he said unto them, the sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath:

Therefore, the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

Hebrews 4:3-10

For we which have believed do enter into rest as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

And in this place again, if they shall enter into my rest.

Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, Today, after so long a time; as it is said, today if he will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

To share with you, I do find it funny that the people who follow this school of thought go to work in the seventh year to continue making a living. Shouldn't they observe the year of the sabbath? For them that are in God have entered their sabbath according to the above scriptures.

Cherub

In Genesis 3;24, Cherubim were placed in the east of the garden of Eden. This was a garden where God interacted with the man he created and formed without restrictions. The man could hear the footsteps of God, and this was like open heaven for Adam. Cherubim (plural) in the singular form, Cherub, was placed to guard the way to the tree of life. Notice that Cherubim were assigned to Moses when God commanded him to build the tabernacle. The term "cunning work" refers to craftiness or adeptness in performance. These angels are creative, intelligent, and skilled to do work; we can say that this is the team that the Lord deployed for construction. In the holy of holies, the cherubim were placed on either end of the mercy seat; remember they were also placed at the garden of Eden and David in Psalm's book, declared that the Lord sitteth between Cherubim, remember that for later in the book. When Ezekiel was near the river Chebar, he saw four living creatures; after this encounter, in Chapter 10:15, he records that the creatures he saw earlier were Cherubim. In the book of Revelations, we encounter these living creatures again round about the throne of God. Cherubim are guardians of the throne, glory, and presence of God.

Genesis 3:24

So, he drove out the man; and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden Cherubim and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life.

Exodus 26:1

Moreover, thou shalt make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twined linen and blue and purple and scarlet; with cherubim of cunning work shalt thou make them.

Exodus 25:18-20

And thou shalt make two cherubim of gold, of beaten work shalt thou make them, in the two ends of the mercy seat.

And make one cherub on the one end, and the other cherub on the other end: even of the mercy seat shall ye make the cherubim on the two ends thereof.

And the cherubim shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercy seat with their wings, and their faces shall look one to another, toward the mercy seat shall the faces of the cherubim be.

Numbers 7:89

And when Moses was gone into the tabernacle of the congregation to speak with him, then he heard the voice of one speaking unto him from off the mercy seat that was upon the ark of testimony, from between the two cherubim: and he spake unto him.

1 Samuel 4:4

So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the Lord of hosts, which dwelleth between the cherubim: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of covenant of God.

2 Samuel 22:11

He rode on a cherub and flew; he was seen on the wings of the wind.

1 Kings 6: 26-27

The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub.

And he set the cherubim within the inner house: and they stretched forth the wings of the cherubim, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house.

Psalm 99:1

The Lord reigneth; let the people tremble: he sitteth between the cherubim; let the earth be moved.

Ezekiel 1:10

As for the likeness of their faces, they four had the face of a man, and the face of a lion, on the right side: and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle.

Ezekiel 10:20

This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river of Chebar; and I knew that they were the cherubim.

Ezekiel 28:14

Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.

Hebrews 9:3

And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all.

Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant.

And over it the cherubim of glory shadowing the mercy seat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

Revelation 4:6-8

And before the throne there was a sea of glass like unto crystal; and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behind.

And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

Arch Angel

The word arch in the Hebrew lexicon is "archein" which means chief. It is important to note that archangel only appears twice in the Bible.

1 Thessalonians 4:16 -17

For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the triumph of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so, shall we ever be with the Lord.

This scripture has caused controversy with a population that is convinced that verse 16 implies that Jesus is an archangel. The word angel is Angelos, meaning messenger, so this means an archangel is a chief messenger. Let us look at the scriptures below:

Revelation 19: 11- 13

And I saw heaven opened and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.

And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.

John 1:1

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

Where it is written "Word" let us put "Jesus" based on Revelation 13.

In the beginning was Jesus, and Jesus was with God, and Jesus was God.

John 14: 8-9

Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the father, and it sufficeth us.

Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? He that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, shew us the Father?

The problem with this school of thought is that it denies God having dwelt among them in the flesh.

1 John 4:2-3

Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God;

And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come and even now already it is in the world.

Philippians 2:6-7 Amplified Bible who, although He existed in the form and unchanging essence of God [as One with Him, possessing the fullness of all the divine attributes—the entire nature of deity], did not regard equality with God a thing to be grasped or asserted [as if He did not already possess it, or was afraid of losing it];

but emptied Himself [without renouncing or diminishing His deity, but only temporarily giving up the outward expression of divine equality and His rightful dignity] by assuming the form of a bond-servant, and being made in the likeness of men [He became completely human but was without sin, being fully God and fully man].

I can extrapolate scriptures all that day that confirm that Jesus is not an archangel. It is essential to know that the term archangel only refers to Michael in the Bible. The name Michael is a question meaning Who is like God and notice that the created man in Genesis is created in the image and after the likeness of God. Every time the chief angel Michael and the hosts of heaven see you, they are answered! Glory be to our Lord.

Daniel 10:13

But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days; but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the Kings of Persia.

When Gabriel came to give Daniel a message, as an answer to his prayer, he said the prince of Persia's kingdom withstood him for 21 days. But notice he refers to Michael as one of the princes and not the only prince. We can have a scripture assumption that Michael is not the only archangel, but we cannot use books that are not canonized to build doctrines. It is essential to know that the Bible talks about Gabriel but never referred to him as an archangel, so the school of thought of Gabriel being an archangel is unsupported in the Bible.

Daniel 8:16

And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision.

Daniel 9:21

Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation.

Luke 1:19

And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

Luke 1:26

And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth,

Daniel 12:1

And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.

Michael was also the protector of the nation of Israel. He functioned as a territorial commander.

Seraphim

The Hebrew word for Seraph is Lisrof, meaning to burn. In modern Christianity, there is a belief that human beings cannot see seraphim. This belief has no scripture substratum, but I can tell you that it is wrong theology that can hinder the Lord from showing you great and mighty things. Not to juxtapose your beliefs, but the things of God are easy and free.

1 Corinthians 2:12

Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

Let me give you the background, there was a man called Apollos who was an evangelist and later a friend of the Apostle Paul.

Acts 18:24

And a certain Jew named Apollos, born in Alexandria, an eloquent man and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.

Apollos travelled to Ephesus, where he taught the gospel with passion according to the verse below.

Acts 18:25

This man instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John.

Apollo's understanding of the gospel of Jesus was immature or incomplete since he only knew John's baptism. Not that I intend to talk about Apollos instead of Seraphim but notice how he was passionate about an incomplete gospel that he preached, yet he was oblivious to that. It was when Priscilla and Aquila heard him preached that they took the time to teach him the full syllabus.

Acts 18:26 – 28

And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace:

For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was Christ.

When Apollos came to know the full gospel, he was now like the late Dr. Ravi Zacharias, an effective apologist of the gospel. Acts 18 declared that he convinced the Jews by "shewing of the scriptures". At that time, they did not have the book of Acts or John. This means that the same verses he had seen before now greater things were revealed to him to the point that from the same old testament scriptures Jesus was preached.

This background is essential because he traveled to Corinth, and I firmly believe he was one of the sources of information that told Paul about the current state of Corinth's church. Then Paul wrote this letter to correct the errors present in Corinth. The issue was that unity in beliefs was absent.

Corinthians 1:10

Now I beseech you, brethren by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but, that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgement.

We are divided into this subject where others feel as if the mere man cannot see seraphim, but we have to grow and take one mindset that God's things are easy, free, and it all belongs to us in Christ. I always say this, Jesus did not heal people for us to know but to also experience; because of this book, I declare that this subject is not something that you will merely know but also experience.

Isaiah 6:1-7

In the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple.

Above it stood the seraphim: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory.

And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

Then flew one of the seraphim unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar:

And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.

The word Seraphim only appears in Isaiah, chapter six. The word seraph is Lisrof meaning the burning ones; some translation may say the fiery ones, and the denotative meaning is the same. Seraphim proclaim the holiness of God. John also saw six-winged angels surrounding the throne of our Lord proclaiming his holiness. There is a school of thought following the prophet Ezekiel's encounter that these spirit beings were Cherubim rather than Seraphim. I support the school of thought that it is Seraphim for the following basis:

Seraphim proclaim the holiness and glory of our Lord.

Seraphim are found surrounding the throne of our Lord.

Seraphim are six-winged angels.

The appearance of angels in Revelations 4, being like a lion, calf, flying angle and a man's face is not enough evidence to say it is Cherubim, in this subject, I am an apologist. There is also a school of thought that I have heard of that Seraphim do not have faces because they cover their faces before the throne of God with their wings, so other ministers of the gospel or Christians, in general, may say Revelations 4, has Cherubim and not Seraphim. Notice that the prophet Isaiah saw that the two wings covered the face, the other two covered the feet, and the remaining two were used to fly. I do not think I said this at the beginning of this book, the number of wings an angel has indicated it angelic function. The closer angels are to the throne of our Lord, the more wings that the angels will have. Seraphim was also involved in preparing Isaiah for his ministry,

Isaiah 6:8

Also, I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, here am I; send me.

Guardian Angels

The concept of guardian angels is something that is strongly believed in Christianity and Judaism. There have been many who have said I saw an angel and he said I am a prophet. From Africa, Arabia, North America even your neighborhood - you can name it. The problem of people who say that angels ministered to them is that whatsoever the "angel" said does not show fruits. An angel of our Lord cannot tell you that you are the last or only prophet of God.

An angel did not tell Elijah that he was the only prophet around but, it is something that he had perceived,

1 Kings 19:14-18

And he said, I have been very jealous for the Lord God of hosts: because the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.

And the Lord said unto him, Go return on thy way to the wilderness of Damascus: and when thou comest, anoint Hazel to be King over Syria:

And Jehu the son of Nimshi shalt thou anoint to be king over Israel: and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abelmeholah shalt thou anoint to be prophet in thy room.

And it shall come to pass, that him that escapeth the sword of Hazael shall Jehu slay: and him that escapeth from the sword of Jehu shall Elisha slay.

Yet I have left me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which hath not kissed him.

When Jesus sat with his disciples, the reports that they mentioned were inclusive of assumptions that Jesus was a prophet,

Matthew 16:13-17

When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, whom do men say that I the Son of man am?

And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets.

He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.

The Lord's fashion was to raise a prophet for every era for Israel. The five-fold ministry is also inclusive of prophets,

Ephesians 4:11 – 12

And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors, and teachers;

For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:

I had to clarify the above because many people say that angels gave them a word from the Lord, but the manifestation of that word lacks the fashion, integrity, or fruit of God's spirit.

Jesus made statements to his disciples when they asked concerning who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven, note what he said;

Matthew 18:10

Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

It is crucial to understand that Jesus was expounding on his response to the question, who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. Notice he started with,

Matthew 18:3

And said, Verily I say unto you, except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Everything that he spoke about was primarily based on this initial response: in Christianity, we have taught that even people who are not saved have guardian angels, even devil worshipers, people into voodoo. But this doctrine, when looking at Jesus' response in context, seems to have missed not just the boat but the whole cruise ship. Juju man in Zimbabwe right now have guardian angels protecting them, sangomas in South Africa right now talking to spirits impersonating their forefathers have guardian angels protecting them? You get my point by now, I am sure.

Genesis 19:15

And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which are here; lest thou be consumed in the iniquity of the city.

Exodus 23:20 – 21

Behold, I send an Angel before you to keep you in the way and to bring you into the place which I have prepared.

Beware of Him and obey His voice; do not provoke Him, for He will not pardon your transgressions: for My name is in Him.

Guardian angels are not a separate order of angels, nor is the term guardian angel in the Bible, but I think you understand their function from the term guardian angel.

Exodus 32:34

Therefore now go, lead the people unto the place of which I have spoken unto thee: behold, mine Angel shall go before thee: nevertheless in the day when I visit I will visit their sin upon them.

Psalm 91:11

For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

Psalm 34:7

The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

Acts 12:12-15

And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark, where many were gathered together praying.

And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken Rhoda.

And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

And they said unto her, thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, it is his angel.

From the book of acts, we firmly understand that people knew of guardian angels. Also, notice that Rhoda heard Peter's voice, and, if a person sounds like you, the probability of that person being you are above 90%, but they said unto her it must be his angel. We can deduce that guardian angels' appearance was like the people of that day, but since people from all walks of life will read this book, it is essential to know that no angel will come to your dreams disguised as your late grandparents or parents telling you that they need food. That is not an angel but a familiar spirit using gaps in your knowledge of the spirit world just to afflict you. I have encountered many Zulus who told me that angels ministered unto them. If I shared most of those stories with you, within seconds, using your knowledge of God's word, you would know that it was not angels but diabolic spirits. This dominantly occurs in South Africa, to even those who say that they have received Christ, but they shall know the truth, and the truth shall set them free.

Portals and Open spirits

The extract below displays the definition of the word portal according to the Mariam Webster dictionary,

Por'tal | \ 'pôr-tl \

Definition of portal (Entry 1 of 3)

- 1: DOOR, ENTRANCE especially: a grand or imposing one.
- 2: The whole architectural composition surrounding and including the doorways and porches of a church
- 3: The approach or entrance to a bridge or tunnel
- 4: A communicating part or area of an organism specifically: the point at which something (such as a pathogen) enters the body.

I must tell you that this chapter is dear to my heart as I have a chance to unpack this subject according to the new testament. We must know that the word portal is not found in the whole Bible, hence I attached a definition of it in this chapter. Also, please note that when we speak of portals, we are not talking about the wells that Isaac reopened,

Genesis 26:18

And Isaac dug again the wells of water, which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father; for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham: and he called their names after the names by which his father had called them.

I know as Christians; we have a tendency of cooking revelation even where there are no ingredients.

In the old testament or rather old books since the old testament starts in Exodus 19, let me explain this before I continue so that according to the previous chapter, we have one mindset.

Hebrews 8:9

Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

The covenant that Hebrews 8 refers to is in Exodus 19.

Exodus 19:1

In the third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the hand of Egypt, the same day came they into the wilderness of Sinai.

The old testament started in Exodus 19; we generally think that it starts in Genesis 1 because the Bible printers put a page written The Old Testament after the epistle dedicatory.

Hebrews 9:16-17

For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.

For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

Based on Hebrews 9, the new testament does not start in Matthew, we think so because of the Bible printers wrote The New Testament before Matthew. Let us also look at these scriptures,

1 Corinthians 11: 25

After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

Matthew 26:27-28

And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, drink ye all of it;

For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

Luke 22:20

Likewise, also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

The new testament was in the blood of Jesus, and it was released through the crucifixion. There are many scriptures I can use to explain this further, like the disciples having to wait for the holy spirit in Jerusalem (because they were not saved), while in the new testament we come to the revelation that the Lord is that spirit.

2 Corinthians 3:17

Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

2 Corinthians 3:17 Contemporary English Version

The Lord and the Spirit are one and the same, and the Lord's Spirit sets us free.

Demarketing the old and new testament is imperative, and I must provide you with this understanding to explain angelic portals firmly and comprehensively to you.

In the old books (Genesis 1 to Exodus 18) and old testament, God used to descend to speak to his people and then ascend.

Genesis 11:5

And the Lord came down to see the city and a tower, which the children of men builded.

Exodus 19:11

And be ready against the third day: for the third day the Lord will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai.

We also had God appearing in nonhuman form, like fire, wind, whisper in the old testament.

Exodus 13:21

And the Lord went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night.

He also appeared in as a man,

Genesis 18:2 – 3

And he lifts his eyes and looked and lo, three men stood by him; and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground.

And said, My Lord if now I have found favor in thy sight, pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant.

He also appeared as an angel scripture refer to him as the angel of the Lord.

Genesis 22:11 - 12

And the angel of the Lord called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham: and he said, here am I.

And he said, lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now, I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from me.

So, what I am establishing with you here is that God used to descend to speak with his people and in the new testament God is in us, and we are also members of his body. It is important to also know that in the old testament they also had portals. These were places where there was an open heaven meaning that in these areas supernatural activities happened repeatedly. Let us look at the scriptures below,

Genesis 28:10 – 14

And Jacob went out from Beersheba and went toward Haran.

And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night because the sun was set; and he took of the stones of that place, and put them for his pillows, and lay down in that place to sleep.

And he dreamed and behold a ladder set up on me the earth and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold the angels of God ascending and descending on it.

And behold the Lord stood above it and said I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed;

And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.

After this encounter, Jacob was so amazed by the supernatural he experienced; he even called it the house of God and heaven's gate, bethel (Genesis 28:16). This becomes a portal through the effectiveness of a repetition of encounters in the same place, after 20 years of Jacob working in Laban's house for Rachel, keeping in mind that Laban was tricked. He came back to Bethel in Genesis 35 to build an altar for God, and God spoke to him again on this place.

Genesis 35: 1 – 9

And God said unto Jacob, arise go up to Bethel, and dwell there: and make there an altar unto God, that appeared unto thee when thou fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother.

Then Jacob said unto his household, and to all that were with him, put away the strange gods that are among you and be clean and change your garments:

And let us arise and go up to Bethel, and I will make there an altar unto God who answered me in the day of my distress and was with me in the way which I went.

And they gave unto Jacob all the strange gods which were in their hand and all their earnings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under oak which was by Shechem.

And they journeyed: and the terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them and they did not pursue after sons of Jacob.

So, Jacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan, that is Bethel, he and all people that were with him.

And he built there an altar and called the place El-bethel because God appeared unto him, when he fled from the face of his brother.

But Deborah Rebekah's nurse died, and she was buried beneath Bethel under an oak: and the name of it was called Allon bachuth.

And God appeared unto Jacob again, when he came out of Padanaram, and blessed him.

The Israelites crossed Jordan to enter the promise land led by Joshua after the death of Moses.

Joshua 1:10-11

Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,

Pass through the host and command the people, saying, prepare you victuals; for within three days ye shall pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land, which the Lord your God giveth you to possess it.

This was the same place where a whirlwind took the prophet Elijah to heaven.

2 Kings 2: 6 – 11

And Elijah said unto him, tarry I pray thee here: for the Lord hath sent me to Jordan. And he said, as the Lord liveth and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they two went on.

And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went and stood to view afar off: and they two stood by Jordan.

And Elijah took his mantle and wrapped it together and smote the waters and they were divided hither and hither so that they two went over on dry ground.

And it came to pass, when they were gone over that Elijah said unto Elisha, ask what I shall do for thee before I be taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me.

And he said thou hast asked a hard thing; nevertheless, if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee but if not, it shall not be so.

And it came to pass, as they still went on and talked that behold there appeared a chariot of fire and horses of fire and parted them both asunder and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

John baptized people in this place as well,

Mark 1:9 – 10

And it came to pass in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized of John in Jordan.

And straightaway coming up out of the water he saw the heavens opened and the spirit like a dove descending upon him:

And there came a voice from heaven, saying thou art my beloved son in whom I am well pleased.

Jordan can be considered as a portal based on the same specification as Bethel that is:

1. It is an area where supernatural encounters take place repeatedly with different people.

When we follow the old testament perspective of portals with this subject of angels, we make it difficult for people to access or, rather as I would say, be enlightened about the angelic realm. Our concentration then becomes portals that we direct people to, so that they can grow. From this perspective, Portals become people who have matured in this subject because they can teach and impart on people.

2 Kings 6:15 – 17

And when the servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, a host compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master! how shall we do?

And he answered, Fear not: for they that be with us are more than they that be with them.

And Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.

Elisha can be considered as a portal to his servant as he prayed for him and he was able to see angels.

I do not agree with this old testament school of thought, but I rather teach and believe in a new testament perspective that I call an Open spirit. Let us look at the scripture below,

Matthew 4: 20-24

Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

Jesus saith unto her, woman believe me the hour cometh when ye shall neither in this mountain nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the father.

Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews.

But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

God is a spirit and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

Let us put this scripture in context, it is in the old testament because this is before the resurrection of Christ, as we dealt with this earlier. Notice that Samaritans used to worship on the mountain and Jews used to worship God in Jerusalem, this was their portal. A specific place where worship can be conducted but Jesus shifts this by stating that the portal is no longer usable but rather it is now in the spirit, I paraphrased it.

But the hour cometh and now is when the true worshippers shall worship the father in spirit and in truth: for the father seeketh such to worship him.

God can now be worshipped in a bathroom, taxi, school, bedroom, prison etc. How do we do this? In spirit and in truth, this is the reason I refer to it as an open spirit rather than a portal. Someone may be asking themselves why does worshipping God in church feel different since it is no longer a portal. There may be various reasons that are true but for this chapter focus, it happens because your spirit responds different to being church or your faith yearns for this location.

Do you think Jesus functioned as a portal for Nathaniel or led him to have an open spirit?

John 1: 49-51

Nathaniel answered and saith unto him, Rabbi thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel.

Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? Thou shalt see greater things than these.

And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

The above text is extracted from the day after John spoke about Jesus and some of John's disciples followed Jesus. Philip whom Jesus asked to follow him, told Nathaniel that he has encountered the Messiah. Notice what Jesus says to him in verse 50,

Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? Thou shalt see greater things than these.

Jesus asks Nathaniel whether he believes this word of knowledge is delivered to him about his whereabouts before seeing Jesus. Why do you think dealt with Nathaniel's faith first? Notice in verse 51 he deals with what seems like a portal,

And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

Angels were descending around Jesus for Nathaniel to witness like a portal, but this was only going to happen when Nathaniel believed the word concerning him under a fig tree before meeting Jesus. Jesus dealt with his faith first to create an open spirit for him to encounter angelic beings. I understand as students of scriptures; we can say that the fig tree scenario was a figure of speech related to Israel or a representative of Israel.

Appearance and Disappearance

I am sure that you have heard Christians and especially those in the fivefold ministry, saying, "an angel appeared to me and said," "I saw an angel on the road or restaurant, and it disappeared after speaking to me." I also used to say this, primarily when I used to do deliverance services, an angel carrying a sword would appear standing next to me, or angels with burning hands would touch people at my command for their healing. The experiences or testimonies from people that you have heard may be indeed true, but why do angels appear and disappear is the focus of this chapter.

Exodus 3:1-2

Now Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father in law, the priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the backside of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to Horeb.

And the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: and he looked, and behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

The Bible tells us that angels appeared to man, whether Moses, Hagar, Daniel, and Zacharias. The Bible also indicates that angels were sent from God's presence; this specifically referred to Gabriel.

Luke 1:26

And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth,

We must remember where the old and new testament starts, according to Hebrews 9. We can then use Hebrews 9 to understand this subject better as it is essential always to take a new testament perspective. Angels appeared to people in the old testament, both laymen and his servants, the prophets. But in the new testament, angels do not appear to people; I know what I just said, and believe me, it is not contradicting the Bible.

Hebrews 12:22

But ye are come unto mount Zion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels.

I love this scripture; notice what it declares, “for ye are come unto mount Zion”. Where are we now? Mount Zion. We have written songs such as matching to Zion or entering Zion instead of saying we are in Zion. Mount Zion is where we are, the holy city of God. Let me explain this part before I continue,

Matthew 26:53

Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels?

When one of his disciples, Peter cutoffs the ear of the servant of the high priest, he asks this rhetorical question. Allow me to say that the Lord was establishing good public relations because Peter's defense made the Lord not really look like God. It is similar to the days of Moses when the children of Israel were tired of eating carbohydrates (Manna) and wanted some proteins that it was heavy on the spirit of Moses because he could not make sense as to where and how the meat will be distributed to Israelites. God gives his good PR to his servant Moses by asking the question,

Numbers 11:23 (a)

And the Lord said unto Moses, Is the Lord's hand waxed short?

Now going back to Matthew, a legion is a number between 4 thousand and 36 thousand. We are looking at a total number of 432 000 angels just on Jesus' command for calculations. Let us now go back to Hebrews,

Hebrews 12:22

But ye are come unto mount Zion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels.

The adjective innumerable denotes something too many to be counted, or as we say, countless. The mount Zion where we are currently at has angels that are just too many for us even to start to calculate; oh, what good news! For this reason, angels do not appear or disappear, but your eyes start seeing and stop seeing angels.

Revelation 5:11

And I beheld and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands.

Daniel 7:10

A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgement was set, and the books were opened.

The number of angels that John and Daniel saw is infinite, meaning limitless. When we say, angels disappeared it simply means our eyes stopped seeing them, but this is different from the blinding of the spirit. Let us look at the scripture below,

Genesis 19:10 -11

But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house of them, and shut to the door.

And they smote the men that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

2 Kings 6:18

When they came down to him, Elisha prayed to the Lord and said, “Strike this people with blindness, I pray.” So, He struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.

Angels smote the people with blindness to protect against the men who wanted to do them harm. Elisha prayed to God that the people may be blinded, so he remains unharmed. You may be asking yourself is this, not physical blindness? Yes, it is but the same thing happens in the spiritual world when people are blinded to seeing others when their lives are in danger. Let me show you this; let us read below,

Acts 6:14 – 15

For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us.

And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

When Stephen who was full of faith and the holy ghost was brought before the council after the people had fabricated evidence by using false witnesses, they noticed something shocking. When Stephen was before the council, the people saw that his face resembled the face of a spirit being called an angel when they looked at him. Many Christians waterdown this scripture by saying this means

Stephen looked like a young man by misinterpreting Matthew 18:10, which we unpacked in the chapter order of angels. People can assume if they think an angel looks like a cupid throwing love arrows at people but scripturally, that is not true and very far from the truth. The spiritual world or dimension pierced through Stephen's face, which was observed naturally by his accusers. Let me just share this with you sometimes your eyes may not see because you need to use your faith. If God shows you a vision of what will happen, you do not need faith because, well, you have seen the complete picture before time. You can be able to see angels, Jesus, and many other things in the spiritual world, but your eyes may not always see when you need them to perhaps regarding your business, family or even ongoing endeavors because your faith should fuel you until you can see a vision from God. Notice how God spoke to Abraham; the promises of God to Abraham were given in pieces and not as a whole, why you may ask? Because God had to allow his faith to kick in; hence, he would be drawn back to God to enquire about having an heir with Sarah.

Genesis 15:2

And Abram said, Lord God, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go childless, and the steward of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus?

And Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: and, lo, one born in my house is mine heir.

Why is he emphasizing this, you may ask? I need to highlight that your eyes seeing angels DOES NOT increase your faith; faith can only be increased by the word of God rather than witnessing angelic appearances.

Romans 10:16-17

But they have not all obeyed the gospel: For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?

So, then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

I think we are on this same page now on this subject, what angelic appearances (keeping in mind that they do not disappear) do for us Christians is the following;

Angels gave the prophet, Daniel understanding.

Daniel 9:22

And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding.

Remember when Mary asked Gabriel, how shall this happen, seeing that I know not a man? Gabriel gave Mary an understanding by enlighten her that the Holy ghost will overshadow her.

Luke 1:34 -35

Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.

The understanding given to us by angels does not replace the Holy Ghost, and I am assuming you already know that Father, Son, and Holy Ghost is one God, not three. This in simple terms means that angels do not replace Jesus.

2 Corinthians 3:17

Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

Acts 17: 29 – 30

Forasmuch then we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men everywhere to repent.

The moment we call God three, it becomes paganism, and we should shun away from this ignorance.

Let us continue angelic appearance,

Daniel 9:20 – 21

And whiles I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the Lord my God for the holy mountain of my God;

Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation.

Daniel saw Gabriel, notice that he referred to Gabriel as a man, keep this in mind.

Judges 13: 2-6

And there was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren and bare not.

And the angel of the Lord appeared unto the woman and said unto her, Behold now, thou art barren, and bearest not: but thou shall conceive, and bear a son.

Now therefore beware, I pray thee, and drink not wine nor strong drink, and eat not any unclean thing:

For lo, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and no razor shall come on his head: for the child shall be a Nazarite unto God from the womb: and he shall begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.

Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, A man of God came unto me, and his countenance was like the countenance of an angel of God, very terrible: but I asked him not whence he was, neither told he me his name:

When the woman went to her husband, Manoah, she said that a man of God came to her. Wait, but did she not say an angel? No, she did not; let us look at it again. Verse 3 is the Bible telling us it is an angel, but verse 6 is the woman telling her husband that she saw a man of God, and she perceived that he had a facial expression of angels. This encounter is unique for many students of scriptures because the angel appeared to the wife and not the husband; it was indeed those times in many cultures. I am sure you remember that even Jesus, after resurrection appeared to a woman at a time when the testimony of a woman was not taken seriously by both cultural and political norms. The angel did appear again to the woman because Manoah, her husband, asked the Lord that the angel returns to give them details concerning the child's birth upon birth was named Samson. But notice this, let us read

And Manoah said unto the angel of the Lord, what is thy name, that when thy savings come to pass, we may do thee honour?

And the angel of the Lord said unto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, seeing it secret?

So, Manoah took a kid with a meat-offering and offered it upon a rock unto the Lord: and the angel did wondrously; and Manoah and his wife looked on.

For it came to pass, when the flame went up toward heaven from off the altar, that the angel of the Lord ascended in the flame of the altar. And Manoah and his wife looked on it and fell on their faces to the ground.

But the angel of the Lord did no more appear to Manoah and to his wife. Then Manoah knew that he was an angel of the Lord.

It is the Bible that calls the angel, an angel of the Lord and not Manoah who was called by his wife to see this man who had previously appeared to her. Did you see that in verse 10 the woman said to him, "the man hath appeared unto me, that came unto me the other day"? The woman still saw a man and Manoah saw a man as well, but the Bible tells us that the man was an angel. It is only in verse 21 that Manoah realized that his wife's suspicion in verse 6 was true; when the man disappeared, he knew, no man no ordinary human being, can just disappear before you while burning an offering, it had to be an angel. Generally, people ask me, "How can we continuously see angels?" Let me help by showing you this, let us read,

Hebrews 13:1 -2

Let brotherly love continue.

Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for there by some have entertained angels unawares.

This scripture indicates that angels will appear as strangers to you, but let brotherly love continue, why though? Because the angelic occurrence is continuous. This highlights problems when people are xenophobic or racists because angels may not look like your family or people in your neighborhood. I am not talking about illegal immigrants in countries around the world, not but I am talking about the mistreatment whether in a form of burning, or hatred towards foreigners, because these are strangers to you. Remember in the days of Lot, men of that city wanted to rape angels that appeared like man. If it was possible for men to rape angels, people can burn angels because they appear to like mere men without wings. I have seen angels appearing as a man to me, I always laugh at this because one of them looked like my neighbor. These were angels of provision, one of them brought me my favorite pizza; the other went shopping with me for clothes while the third gave me gold to distribute to others. I know some people right now may be like, what angels buy man pizza and clothes? In Gideon's time and even Abraham angels ate food, let us read

Judges 6: 19 – 22

And Gideon went in, and made, and made ready a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ophah of flour: the flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out unto him under the oak, and presented it.

And the angel of God said unto him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and lay them upon this rock, and pour out the broth. And he did so.

Then the angel of the Lord put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and there rose up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes. Then the angel of the Lord departed out of his sight.

And when Gideon perceived that he was an angel of the Lord, Gideon said, Alas, O Lord God! For because I have seen an angel of the Lord face to face.

Notice something that we dealt with early, after the angel ate meat and the cake he departed out of his sight and only then Gideon perceived that he was an angel of the Lord. It also means that the Bible informed us that he was an angel not really Gideon who was on the scene. You do remember that there was direct evidence revealing that Joseph raped the Pharaoh's wife, but it is the Bible that tells us that he did not rape her. I know you understand this technicality now.

Abraham also cooked for the Lord and two angels that accompanied him on his way to Abraham. Some say that it was not two angels but rather the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. This becomes tricky actually very difficult because it reflects that you think God is divided into three. It is like you saying you will get to heaven one day, come across Jesus and ask him where the Father is or where is the Holy Ghost.

Genesis 18: 1 – 3

And the Lord appeared unto him in the plains of Mamre: and he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day;

And he lifts his eyes and looked, and, lo, three men stood by him: and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground,

And said, My Lord, if now I have found favour in thy sight, pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant:

The Spiritual Realm

There was a man called Enoch who walked with God all his life and one day he was no more because God had taken him. The prophet, Elijah walked to the river Jordan with Elisha and a whirlwind appeared and he then switched from his natural state and stepped into that which was spiritual but the spirituality of it being so tangible that it can hold his weight. I do sometimes think that God had a conversation with Enoch and asked him to permanently stay on the other side. Remember John, he was in the spirit on the Lord's day, he immediately changed from his natural state to that which is spiritual. Let me share with you what God told regarding angels in the spiritual realm.

Daniel 9:21

Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation.

This passage of scripture gives us an idea that there is a class of angels unlike the cherubs and seraphs, a class that appears as men or rather visiting in human form, without wings, there is a number of scriptures that can support this idea: Genesis 18:1-8, 18:22, 19:3, Hebrews 13:2, John 20:1-14, Mark 16:5-6, Acts 1:9-11 to name a few.

The spiritual realm with focus to angels can be easily understood from visions and physical interactions. While Daniel was praying and confessing the Israelites' sin, Gabriel whom he had seen in a vision appeared to him. The word vision in the above scripture is the Hebrew word Hazah denotatively meaning dream or vision. It just happens that Daniel was a prophet of God having visitations, visions and encounters consistently but the way that the Lord used to communicate with him the most is through visions. A prophet who sees visions is called a Hazon, and the one who hears audibly from God is called a Nabi.

Daniel 7:1

In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream and told the sum of the matters.

The word visions in the above scripture is also the Hebrew word Hazah.

Daniel 8:1

In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

Also, in the above scripture, the word vision is the Hebrew word Hazah.

I know you are wondering why I am starting with visions when explaining the spiritual realm concerning angels surrounding mankind. In the spiritual realms there are levels or stages this implies that we go from one level/stage to another and we generally call this increase in levels, spiritual growth. When we fail to understand that there are levels in the spirit world, we see people faking prophecies and staging miracles to be famous. The Hazah deals with the expectation and awareness of the angelic. Like how we are always suspicious, they may be someone watching you, walking behind you or at the house when you enter so too in this level we deal with expectations. You must be expectant to see angels, when walking you wrap your faith with expectation saying angels on my right, angels on my left, angels behind me, angels in front of me. Before you go to sleep you must be expectant to see angels ministering for you in your dreams. Notice that the visions called Hazah were intimately experienced by Daniel and not the Israelites around him. This is a level that consistently and intimately deals with individuals. Remember when Gehaza came to Elisha concerning the chariots and horses sent by the king of Syria notice that Elisha used awareness and expectations that indeed fear not because they that be with us are more than they that be with them.

Hazah develops into a Marah.

Daniel 10:7

And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

I am sure you can conclude what the word vision means in this context, oh yes, it is the Hebrew word Marah. Marah is a level above Hazah or as I like to put it, a materialization of all that you experience in a Hazah into the natural. You are no longer see angels in visions or dreams, but now the spiritual materializes into the natural, you walk on the street and bump into an angel, shake hands with an angel and eat with angels. Remember when Paul had a Marah on his way to Damascus's synagogues without first having experienced a Hazah, he lost his sight.

Acts 9:7 – 9

And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus.

And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

The voice Paul heard was not in a dream or vision, but it was heard in the natural, so too the light that appeared was appearing in the natural and not in a dream or vision. Now let us read Daniel 10, again.

Daniel 10:7

And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

Daniel saw a vision alone but the people around him experienced what was happening in that vision simultaneously. This is the Marah level, all that happens in dreams and visions manifests into the natural, including angels.

The other problem with experiencing Marah before Hazah is that the devil can transform himself into an angel of light.

2 Corinthians 11:14

And no marvel; for satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

So, when people desire to experience Marah first, they open themselves to demonic entities.

There was a woman called Maria Woodworth-Etter, an American healing evangelist. Whenever she would come to town people in a radius of 30 km would fall under the power of God, this was the manifestation of the Marah level, glory be to our Lord.

Angels of Prophecy

Daniel 4:17

This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the most High rule in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.

My spiritual father, Prophet Uebert Angel; the pioneer of the modern-day prophetic movement usually states that, - Prophecy is the response of the spirit of man or spirit of the prophet to the audible voice of God. It should be noted that the prophetic only speaks what it hears and confirms the decree of God and sometimes goes against the will of the people. The prophet is simply a vessel, not the originator of the message.

John 16:13

Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak.

The Holy ghost is like a parrot who will repeat the things that the Lord had said because the Holy Ghost was not in them since they were not saved. The focus here is the word shew, it is the word anagelo. This does not mean predict because God cannot prophesy. Prophecy is for prophets and Christians. God can see because he created everything by his word. God did not prophesy that the Lord Jesus would be born, but before the foundations of the earth the lamb was slain. He is the alpha and omega.

Daniel 10:12 – 13

Daniel prays on earth and an angel called Gabriel in the spiritual realm, was sent to give him an answer. But what was the prayer? Verse 14,

Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days.

But we did not read the first few verses,

Daniel 10:1

In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long; and he understood the thing and had understanding of the vision.

It was not a typical prayer that Daniel made, but Daniel wanted to understand a vision of the latter days that he saw. Understanding a vision is called interpretation, but now interpretation of a vision is called prophecy. Persia's princes stopped Gabriel from getting to Daniel to prevent prophecy about latter days to being understood by Daniel. I am sure you wonder if this means that Gabriel is an angel of prophecy, no he is not. The man Gabriel is just a messenger or as I call him a postman. Have you seen us ministers in the prophetic being so accurate and you ask the vessel of God; Did God say that to you? And the minister would say, “No, an angel told me his name”.

Angels of prophecy, minister for those who have matured in the office of the prophet or the prophetic. The visible sign of the ministry of angels of prophecy is the vessel's accuracy that God uses. For this chapter, study men like William Marion Branham, a man who was used by GOD mightily in the prophetic with evident angelic ministration that cannot be denied.

In the prophetic the Lord speaks to prophets differently, but there are some common grounds such as hearing and seeing. Now when it comes to hearing, it is always not the voice of the Lord is interpreted or rather heard audibly it is usually some inner voice, that needs an entire book to be understood well, but at times prophets hear audibly when this happens, usually it is the angel of prophecy that delivers the message. Remember that angels, unlike the Holy Spirit, are outside of us, hence when they speak, they are heard with the normal auditory system.

Psalms 8:4-5 “What is a man that You are mindful of him, and the son of man that You visit him? For You have made him a little lower than the angels (Original translation Hebrew Elohim, God), and You have crowned him with glory and honor”

Ephesians 2:6 “And God raised us up with Christ and seated us with him in the heavenly realms”

Both these scriptures gives us an understanding that in terms of ranking, once we get born again we then sit with Christ in the heavenly realms, therefore angels are under our authority, if we are to command angels, we need to understand this truth and capitalize on it.

Psalms 103: 20 “Bless the Lord, you His angels, who excel in strength, who do His word.”

Angels are obedient to the word and the commands of the Lord, we do not pray to angels, we command angels according to the word of the Lord.

Seeking Understanding

The things of the spirit are better caught than taught. I can also firmly say that the things of the spirit are always revealed but frequently not recognized but many.

Matthew 13:10 – 11

And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

He answered and said unto them, because it is given unto you know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

God is everywhere, in you, your community, synagogues, night club, he is the alpha and the omega, but he may just not be Lord everyone. Therefore, the scriptures say,

Ephesians 4:10

He who descended is the one who also ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.

Psalm 139:10 – 11

Whither shall I go from thy spirit? Or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell. Behold, thou art there.

There is something rather striking about this parable if we look at it as reported by Mark in (Mark 4:13). Jesus asked if they knew this parable because if not, how can they understand all parables. This is the substratum of it all. The word parable is parabola meaning puzzle therefore Jesus said that they may hear but not understand, see but not perceive. Just like a puzzle, the pieces of this information are made available to everyone but they appear in shadows so that those who have an ability to tune into that which the Lord wanted them to know and understand could come to the knowledge of it.

When I was in high school, I remember having visions of myself as a medical doctor, particularly an oncologist. It did not make sense because this was after the closing dates for South African Medical Schools' applications. I was not the best Chemistry learner, so I knew a miracle would have to happen for me to distinguish in that subject. But nevertheless, as a communication pathology student, I still have those visions, but it is now more pronounced. I sometimes see medical students in a bus, looking for a driver to transport them into other areas of a campus. A bus represents a stage in ministry, it can be a bus, sport car or as I have seen in visions airplanes. This was given to me in pieces as I sought to understand the visions that troubled my head.

Many of us have open visions, visions of the night, prophecies and bible revelations that we have stored in our long term memory or even written in our daily devotional books because we can perceive that the full understanding of it has not yet been given to us. Remember we spoke about the prophet, Daniel, let us look at it again,

Daniel 10:12

Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel; for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

Daniel had a vision of the latter days, that he sought to fully understand. What Daniel then did was to fast and pray, I always like this scripture because he went on a fast because he was oblivious to the fact that the first day, he set his heart to understand an answered was given. So, nowadays we say we have a Daniel fast, but he was the one who did not know the spiritual realm enough to understand that an answer to a pray is given before you pray.

Isaiah 65:24

And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.

But for the focus of this chapter, we will talk about his desire to seek understanding. Angels love ministering to people who seek full understanding of encounters and bible revelations. Remember that angels are ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for those that are the heirs of salvation. The major problem with Christians who have spiritual encounters is that they make notes of it and never pray for understanding to be given to them. They have this bad understanding that they do not need to do anything because God will do it all alone. It sounds good but we are containers of God in the earth realm, we are in union and communion with the Lord. The Jews till this day are looking for the ark of the covenant which was just a box that the Lord had limited himself to, I do know where it is but there will not believe me. It has now multiplied to over 2 billion boxes that we call born again Christians.

When you do not seek understanding you can go for the next five or ten years and you will realize that you are still in the same position. You have an ability to tune into the frequency that the Lord is using through prayer and fasting and an understanding will be given to you. Note this, the scriptures inform us that the vision Daniel had was for an appointed time. So, I am not saying fast and pray till you drop dead – No. Some visions, and revelations are for an appointed time.

Matthew 5:6

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled.

The Nephilim

Matthew 24: 35 – 37

Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my father only.

But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

When the disciples of Jesus asked the master regarding the signs of his coming and the end of the world, he started to give them a detailed description starting with the cue to avoid deception. The above extract is fascinating concerning the subject of angels. He said, like the days of Noah, so shall his coming be. We generally do not go back and check well; how were Noah's days since the stage setter for the coming of Jesus Christ is like those days.

How were these days?

1. People were eating and drinking

2. Marrying and given in marriage

However, let us look back now in Genesis 6, which tells us about Noah's days.

Genesis 6: 1 – 4

And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them,

That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose.

And the Lord said, my spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years.

There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

1. Noah found grace – this may mean that grace will be preached, so when we see preachers and Christians embracing grace, we know it is the season. Grace is indeed the gospel.

"sons of God" – beneh Elohim, this means angels in the book of Job. This is different from those that believe he gave them the power to become the sons of God. This is the Greek version, which has a different meaning than that of the book of Genesis. The most authoritative text we use for the Bible called the Septuagint has this as angels. Also, do you remember when the devil came before God together with the sons of God? Yeah, now I know you get it. Sons of God in this context were angels and not human beings.

Daughters of men – benoth adam – real human beings who were daughters. This means that it was angels and human beings mating. Nevertheless, notice what Jesus said in Matthew, they were marrying and given in marriage. According to Genesis these sons of God took them, wives, of which they chose. This simply tells us that it was by force, but did the daughters of men know it was angels since well, they had a body for them to possess male genitals to bring about conception? I think they thought it was just men abducting them or even raping them, and is not this what we see today in our countries having high rates of rape charges?

“They were giants in the earth in those days”

The word Giant in the Greek is Gígantas or Γίγαντας as it is written. But in the Hebrews the word giant is naphal or as they write נָפִיל, which is where we now derive the word nefilim meaning the fallen ones telling us that the Nephilim were children of the fallen angels. The word gigantas also means earth born.

My nephew Aneziwe is earth born – You can easily ask me? Where did you think he would be born? So, this tells us that these giants were not earth endemic. Notice that when the Nephilim meant children of the fallen ones, mated with men's daughters, they did not give birth to sons or daughters but gave them to giants. Oh yes, I know you understand it now.

Genesis 6:9

These are Noah's generations: Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God.

The word perfect is the word Tarmim or as they write it in the Hebrews תָּרְמִים, which was widely used in the Bible referring to offerings. When the Bible says do not bring unto to me offering with a blemish, this word means that Noah was without blemish, this means he was of a perfect DNA line.

Leviticus 22:20

But whatsoever hath a blemish, that shall ye not offer for it shall not be acceptable for you.

God knew that he needed a perfect DNA line to deliver his people through this bloodline by later giving birth to Jesus Christ. So, the Nephilim's duty was to corrupt this bloodline so that the savior would not be born. Many say, “Why did God destroy people, animals, and even plants in those days” – this was to your advantage so that a savior would be born. “How can a loving God destroy the whole earth with a flood”, it was no longer the perfect creation of God but a corrupted bloodline that it vexed God when he looked upon it; that is why Gen 6:11, says the earth was corrupt. It did not only end with man, but the whole earth in God's eye was just not what he desires and created it to be like.

Remember Aaron, the priest, and prophet unto Moses? Moses the prophet and Miriam the prophetess– these were siblings so that bloodline can be preserved.

Ruth and Naomi married to Boaz – this is the great-great-grandfather of Jesus Christ.

Lot running away from the fire at Sodom and Gomorrah with help from the ministry of angels, so he went to a mountain, and his daughters slept with him – this is such a sin; how can it be allowed in the old testament? Because there was no man to continue the bloodline.

Imagine the whole nation of Israel brought into captivity in Egypt, a nation taken to another nation. What was going to happen eventually since we know that love does not choose? The Israelites were ultimately going to mate with the Egyptians and mix the bloodline.

Have you looked at the genealogies of Jesus on Matthew and Luke? One gives you the stepfather called Joseph genealogy, and the other gives you Mary's genealogy, and both start at Jesse and David because it is one bloodline. Why the blood?

1. Hebrews 12:24

And to Jesus the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

Now notice this when the Jews saw the Amalekites, they knew that these were the giants' descendants, how? However, they were not in the ark, yet every one of flesh died. But we also see goliath later, yet he was not from the eight members, Noah's family.

Let us look at this scripture again,

Genesis 6:4

There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

If you notice, this verse tells us that the Nephilim were there in those days and after those days.

2 Samuel 21: 18- 22

And it came to pass after this, that there was again a battle with the Philistines at God: then Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Saph, which was of the sons of the giant.

And there was again a battle in Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of Jaare-oregim, a Bethlehemite, slew the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

And there was yet a battle in Gath, a man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he was also born to the giant.

And when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea the brother of David slew him.

These four were born to the giant in Gath and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

Deuteronomy 3:11

For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of giants; behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; is it not in Rabbath of the children of Ammon? Nine cubits were the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man.

The Nephilim were not just violent giants, but their intellectual function was above normal.

Ezekiel 26:8 – 9

He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field: and he shall make a fort against thee, and cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler against thee.

And he shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his exes he shall break down thy towers.

"engines" means contraption, invention. When we talk about the iron age where people made weapons and tools using iron or the stone age, we forget that there were other civilizations in the Bible. These beings had abilities that were quite anything else in their era,

Genesis 11:3-4

And they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and burn them thoroughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for mortar.

And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the earth.

Tower – an elevated building, whose top may reach up to heaven – these people were building skyscrapers in those days. It is indeed true that there is nothing new under the sun. We generally look at the Burj Khalifa in Dubai and call it the tallest building without looking at the Bible's civilization.

According to the Jewish books, the book of Jubilees indicates that the height of tower babel was 1, 6 miles high that is 6 times the height of the Burj Khalifa.

Revelation 21: 5; 15-16

And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, write: for these words are true faithful.

And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and height of it are equal.

Did you see, the height of a city we can measure, but the LxBxL = are equal. Twelve thousand furlongs is equivalent to 2 414 kilometers, which is 1500 miles up. Emirates can only go 9 miles up; most commercial planes go 8 miles up. Did you notice we missed something? John recorded this many years ago, telling us that he saw a new Heaven and Earth coming down, meaning it was already built at that time; where did the technology come from?

The Nephilim were descendants of spirit beings who came from heaven. The ability was in them, so tremendous that the ordinary fruits were little to eat.

Our technology has failed to duplicate some things. 2,6 metric tons all these stones weigh. No transport, no caterpillar. Each block within the pyramid weighs 2,5 tons.

Prayer

May the Lord Jesus Christ, baptize you in the revelation of this book and may you be a partaker of the divine grace and anointing bestowed upon my life.
