QUESTION

In the year 2020, the Stemmucos community was inhabited by people who have good will with the community by respecting the laws and procedures established by law. The people of this Stemmucos community were very respectful of the law and if there is any violation of the law then the legal procedures in the delivery of justice were followed and observed. It happened on the day of 02.03.2023 one among the people of the Stemmucos community caused the murder of a mother and child by locking them in the house and started a fire that ended the life of the mother and child. An act that the people of the Stemmucos community get angry with and they give the suspect a severe beating before being taken to the police station, The suspect stayed at the Police station for one month before being taken to court and when he was brought to court in the court of the resident magistrate in Mtwara, he was tried in absentia and the suspect was not given a chance to defend himself. And the last sentence is hanging to death. The relatives of the accused are stunned by the way the case is proceeding and the sentence handed down and they have heard that you are an expert in criminal law and procedure law and have come to ask for your advice. Advise them accordingly.
