About

I help some businesses to promote themselves through fresh storytelling ideas, plans and sleek art direction. My experience is changeable so I can do about anything production and post-production in designing case, entrepreneur in business case, networking, software installation and maintenance. Whether it is Designing, Animation, or Video-audio Editing, IT support, or Marketing, I can make it happen within a short period of time. I am extremely dedicated to my work and I love making people's vision come to life.}
