Q1. Beautiful story of love and relationship between father and daughter in my own words according to image :

Answer: This image shows a beautiful story of love and relationship between a father and daughter. Once upon a time a little girl was returning back from school, crying towards her house because her few classmates came in her way and started bullying her just over her dark complexion. As she reached home she hugged her father and kept asking "why i am so ugly?" her father wiped her tears and said "The ones who said this are ugly themselves because they don't know how precious and gem my daughter is. I found no one else as adorable as you are my little girl you have stolen my heart so just forget negativity around and keep focusing on the ones who accept you the way you are and adore you for how beautiful you are." After hearing this all from her father, she realized my father is best blessing Allah has given me.
