

ፍላጎ

Official telegram channel !

JOIN US:- @keleme_2013

@keleme_2013

13. D. Which one of the following statement best describes foreign policy?
   A. Decisions and actions that concern relations between one states.
   B. Rules and regulation as well as procedures which guides other state relation
   C. The expression of its national interest vis-à-vis other states.
   D. All.

14. C. One of the following is not in the scope of contemporary study of International Relations:
   A. The increasing interconnectedness of likeminded people around the World.
   B. Terrorism.
   C. State and human security.
   D. Poverty and climate change.
   E. Dialogue and conflict between different beliefs and ideologies.
   F. None.

15. B. The foundational assumption of realism theory of internal relation in their analysis of the nature of the international system relays on:
   A. Cooperative actions of individuals.
   B. Conflictual behavior of states.
   C. Class antagonism.
   D. Cooperative nature of corporations.

12. C. The structure of the international system where numerous states are competing for potency to dominate the whole structure is said to be:
   A. Bi-polar system.
   B. Unipolar system.
   C. multi-polar system.
   D. anarchical system.

13. C. A set of objectives and tools where a state implements to guide its relation with other states in the international system is termed as:
   A. Diplomacy.
   B. National interest.
   C. foreign policy.
   D. Ideological interest.

14. A. In the eyes of liberal theorists, the most important thing that makes human being as innately good and cooperative than being aggressive and war loving in the international system is:
   A. Egoism.
   B. Self-centeredness.
   C. National interest.
   D. Shared liberal values.

15. A. In Marx's analysis of the nature of international relation, the central thesis of the unit of analysis of his discussion focuses on:
   A. The state.
   B. Class antagonism.
   C. Individual behavior.
   D. Shared values and interests.

16. D. All are middle range foreign policy objective except?
   A. Economic needs.
   B. Material needs.
   C. Technological advancement.
   D. Territorial integrity.

39/50

Samara University
College of Social Science and Humanities
Departments of Civics and Ethical Studies

30/40 +9

Final Exam (40%)

Course title: Global Trends Academic Year: 2019/20

Course code: GlTr 1012 Semester: II

Time Allowed: 1 hr.

Name: Ramadan Nasir Id No 1203206 Section U

Part One: Say true if the statement is correct, and false if the statement is incorrect (1 point each).

1. True . The state level of analysis considers the global system as a framework in which states interact.
2. True . States are ready to negotiate when short range foreign policy objective are threatened.
3. True . Power determines the relative influence of actors and shapes the structure of the international system.
4. True . Liberal theory of international relation believes relations between states are determined solely by the pursuit of power.
5. True . In the era of globalization, participation in international relations is inevitable.
6. False . Foreign policy of the state only concern state actors.
7. False . Bipolar system usually reflects various equally powerful states competing for power.
8. False State level analysis of international relations focused on the behavior and intention of individuals.
9. True .Anarchy refers to the absence of shared institutions with the right to enforce common rules and dictate international relations.
10. True International Relation is a diseipline that exclusively studies the relations between and among states of the current international system.

Part Two: Choose the best answer among the given alternatives (1.5 Point each)

11. E . All are actors of international relation except?
    A. Non-governmental organization. C. State. E. None
    B. Individual. D. Multinational Corporation.
12. A . All of following theory of international relation has pessimistic attitude toward international relation except?
    A. Realism. C. Idealism
    B. Structuralism. D. None

Samara University Department of Civics and Ethical Studies

17. B. Ethiopia agreed to revise its foreign policy in favor of Chinese efforts to restructure global system and to take global leadership. Such kind of foreign policy pattern is known as:

A. Self-extension. C. Self –preservation.
B. Self-abnegation. D. All

18. A. The management of international relations by negotiation is known as?

A. Foreign Policy. D. Diplomacy.
B. International Relation. C. National Interests.

19. B. An Economic policy instruments in which limitation is imposed on exported commodities is known as?

A. Tariff. C. Quota.
B. Embargo. D. Boycott.

20. C. Which analytical device of International Relations conceives the global system as the cooperative, competitive and confrontational environment of states to achieve its national interest?

A. Group level analysis.
B. Individual level analysis.
C. State level analysis.
D. System level analysis.

21. A. The state's authority to formulate and enforce laws over activities within its territory denotes:

A. Sovereignty. C. Diplomacy.
B. Power. D. Territorial integrity.

22. B. A body of customary and conventional rules which are binding on civilized states in their intercourse with each other is known as:

A. Diplomacy.
B. International law.
C. International politics.
D. Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations.

Part Tree: Writing part

23. List down the short range and middle range objectives of Ethiopia's foreign policy (3%)
24. Explain the relations between foreign policy and diplomacy (3%)
25. Explain the realist's views on the causes of war (3%).
26. What is the central thesis of Marxist theory in international relation (3%)

23 short Range → Every Human being with living without any question

Global mid ቀለሜ