The Absolution of the son.

Master, Lord Jesus Christ, the Only-begotten Son, the Word of God the Father, who hast broken off from us all the bonds of our sins through Thy life-giving and saving sufferings, who didst breathe upon the face of Thy holy disciples and pure ministers saying to them: Receive the Holy Spirit: whatsoever man's sins ye remit they are remitted unto them, and whatsoever sins ye retain they

Thou therefore, O Lord, hast now granted the priesthood to Thy pure ministers that do the priests; office at all times in Thy holy church that they may remit sin on earth, may bind and loosen all the bonds of iniquity. Now again we pray and entreat of Thy goodness, O lover of man, on behalf of these Thy servants and handmaids, my fathers and my brothers and my sisters, and also on my own behalf, on me Thy feeble servant, and on behalf of them that bow their heads before prepare for us the way of Thy mercy, break and sever all the bonds of our sins, whether we have trespassed against Thee, O Lord, wittingly or unwittingly or in deceit or in evilness of heart, whether in deed or in work or through smallness of understanding, for Thou knowest the feebleness of man.

O good lover of man and Lord of all creation, grant us, O Lord, forgiveness of our sins, bless us and purify us and set us free and absolve all Thy people and fill us with the fear

O Good, for Thou art our Lord and our God and our Savior Jesus Christ, to Thee we send glory and honor with Thy good heavenly Father, and Holy Spirit, the life-giver, who is co-equal with Thee, both now and ever and world without end. Amen.

May Thy servants who serve on this day, the priest and the deacon and the clergy and all the people, and I myself Thy poor servant, be absolved and cleansed out of the mouth of the Holy Trinity, the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, and out of the mouth of the one holy apostolic church, and out of the mouths of the fifteen prophets, and out of the mouths of the twelve apostles, and out of the mouths of the seventy-two disciples the ministers, and out of the mouth of the speaker of divinity, the evangelist Mark the apostle and

and out of the mouths of the honored Patriarchs St. Serverus and St. Dioscorus and St. Athanasius and St. John Chrysostom and St. Cyril and St. Gregory and St. Basil:

As Thou didst join the body of Thy Son with our body, and Thou didst mix the blood of Thy Messiah with our blood, so put Thy fear in our heart and the beauty of Thy worship in our mind.

We who are carnal, mind the things of the flesh and do the works of the flesh and walk in the way of the flesh. But do thou teach us the work of the Spirit and make us understand the law of the Spirit and lead us to the way of the Spirit.
