FAITH—A LAW OF THE SPIRIT

But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him (Hebrews 11:6).

The Bible says without faith, it is impossible to please God. Someone might ask, "Why faith; can't God just do things for us without us applying faith?" The answer is no because faith is a spiritual law in the Kingdom of God. Just as the law of gravity governs motion or inertia in our physical world, faith governs our activities in the spirit realm.

If you're sitting on a chair right now, it's because of the law of gravity, an invisible force that pulls everything toward the centre of the Earth. Without it, you'd be floating uncontrollably in the air. In the realm of the spirit, the law of faith is just as much in operation.

Romans 3:27 talks about this law of faith; it says, "Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith." Faith is believing in the unseen; to receive from a realm that's invisible to the senses, and to bring spiritual realities into physical manifestation. Faith allows you to live beyond your circumstances. The earth exists within a broader spirit realm, the lesser is included in the greater.

Even if you don't see angels around you, for instance, they're ever present and ministering in our behalf and for our benefit. But it takes faith to recognize their spiritual reality. Divine health and healing are also from the spirit realm. God has already given you divine health; it's a product of eternal life. But it won't become your experience until you shift from natural thinking to spiritual understanding through faith. So, walk in faith. See with the eyes of your spirit. Speak from the realm of truth. Live by the law of faith.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for the law of faith by which I live and walk in your power and blessings. I live in the consciousness of your Word and spiritual realities. I walk in health, strength, abundance, victory and dominion; I'm full of the Spirit. My life is upward and forward only, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

YIELDING TO THE WORD

And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus (2 Timothy 3:15).

The Word of God makes us wise unto salvation. This isn't just about receiving eternal life; it's about becoming mature in spiritual things, understanding how to walk in your inheritance and live out the Christ-life effectively. There're Christians who love God but still struggle through life because they haven't yielded to the Word of God to regulate their lives. They haven't allowed the Word to condition their minds, to renew their thinking, and reculture their character.

Romans 12:2 says, "And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God." There's a continuous transformation from glory to glory that takes place in your life as you yield yourself to the Word of God. So, it's not enough for anyone to say, "I've received salvation, and that's it"; you must continue in the Word to live victoriously in Christ.

Joshua 1:8 says, "This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success." As you meditate on the Scriptures, it causes everything about your life to blossom. The Spirit imparts light to your spirit to see and apprehend your inheritance in Christ.

God's desire is for His Word to dwell in you richly in all wisdom and spiritual understanding (Colossians 3:16). He wants you to live in and by His Word. He said in Luke 4:4, "…man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God." That's how you live above the systems of this world. That's the path of blessings, victory and success; doing the Word: "But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed" (James 1:22 & 25).

PRAYER

Dear Father, your Word has made me wise unto salvation. I'm trained to reign, equipped to succeed, and conditioned to manifest your righteousness. I walk in spiritual intelligence and produce divine results, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

CARRIERS OF DIVINE WISDOM

And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord (Luke 1:17).

The Word declares that John the Baptist came in the spirit and power of Elijah to prepare the way of the Lord. But observe the specifics of what his mission entailed: to turn the disobedient to the wisdom of the just. This is a profound spiritual reality. It tells us that there's a wisdom that belongs to us, the just.

It's the wisdom that prepares men to walk with the Lord and to please Him. It's the wisdom that discerns purpose, sees beyond natural sequences, and acts in line with God's Word and divine destiny. This wisdom isn't academic; it's not about mental alertness or philosophical depth. It's a spiritual virtue imparted by God's Spirit.

When the disobedient are turned to the wisdom of the just, they receive the knowledge and guidance that aligns them with God's will and purpose. So, like John, we have a unique calling. We've been commissioned by God to turn the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous. It's what we do when we preach the Gospel and lead men to Christ.

It's this wisdom that draws men into repentance, reshapes their priorities and brings them into sync with the agenda of Heaven. That's what the Spirit of God is doing through us today; He's turning men from darkness to light, from confusion to clarity, and from rebellion to reverence and obedience. We're carriers of divine wisdom, the wisdom that makes ready for the Lord a people prepared for Him. This wisdom dominates our thoughts, guides our choices and propels our actions.

PRAYER

Dear Father, I thank you for the ministry of your Spirit in me and the manifestation of your wisdom through me in turning the disobedient from darkness to light, making them ready for Christ's coming. Your wisdom dominates my thoughts, guides my choices, and propels my actions in Jesus' Name. Amen.

NO FOUNDATION WITHOUT THE WORD

Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like: He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock (Luke 6:47-48).

Some Christians ignore the Word when they're experiencing challenging situations. For example, if they have a difficulty and you try to get their minds or point their attention to the Word, they'd say, "I know that's what the Word says, but…." They're indirectly telling you to set the Word aside; they want another solution.

By doing this, they're rejecting and resisting help from God. The Holy Spirit won't do anything without the Word. Everything that happens without the Word of God has no foundation; it'll fail. Remember what the Lord Jesus said in our opening scripture above. He gave a parable about the man who built his house on sand and the one who built his house on the rock. When the crisis of life came, the house built on sand fell, but the one built on the rock remained unshakable.

Then He explained that the one who built his house on the rock is the one who built on the Word, who made the Word His foundation. When you build your life on the Word, it blossoms; you're impregnable to the crises of life. You're always victorious and in dominion, come what may. But without the Word, whatever you have is empty.

Even in ministry, don't build your ministry on some gifts or manifestations of the Spirit; build on the Word. Let the Word be the focus, the stay, and the anchor. Preach the Word. Believe the Word. Teach the Word and live the Word. Let your life and your message be founded on Truth, the Word is truth (John 17:17).

Moreover, when we say build on the Word, we're not just referring to an isolated verse of scripture but to the "logos" (Greek) of God, the whole body of truth, the revelation of Jesus Christ in the Scriptures through the Gospel. We're referring to that which is consistent with the Gospel of Jesus Christ, who He is and what He came to do, His mission. Make that the foundation of your life.

CONFESSION

Dear Father, I live in and by your Word. Therefore, I'm unshakable, steadfast, and always victorious because my life is established on your truth; it's my foundation and anchor and has pre-eminence in all I do, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

SUNDAY 5

THE WORD TRAINS US IN RIGHTEOUSNESS

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness (2 Timothy 3:16).

An effective Christian life isn't something you stumble into; it's the result of spiritual training; training in righteousness through the Word. The Word conditions your life for victory every day. That's why the Scriptures are given to us; they're not just to inform us but to form your personality, condition your thoughts, build your life and train your spirit to discern God's way of doing things.

When you immerse yourself in the Word, it causes you to reason like God, judge like God, and respond like God. You're no longer swayed by emotions or circumstances because your decisions are shaped by divine truth. That's because God's Word is His thoughts, opinions, character, personality, will and emotions revealed to us.

Consider the Lord Jesus; He didn't respond to situations from the senses or based on pressure or sentiments. His words and actions were expressions of His divinity. He spoke and manifested truth. He had no sense of need or lack. He had no sense of limitation. He thought like God. He talked like God, and He acted like God. He was the manifestation of the Word of God, being the Word made flesh.

Guess what? As He is, so are you in this world (1 John 4:17). You were born again by the Word (1 Peter 1:23, James 1:18) and must grow and be trained by the Word because you have the life of the Word. Never be casual with the Word. Every time you study it, it's an opportunity to be transformed, receive impartation and be established in righteousness.

God's Word is what you need for your spiritual growth and development and for a balanced life of continual victory and success. Acts 20:32 says, "And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified." The Word is able to build you up because that's where you came from; you're born of the incorruptible seed of the Word. The Word is your instruction manual for life and your guide in fulfilling God's divine purpose.

CONFESSION

I'm trained by the Word, instructed in righteousness and furnished unto every good work. I function with divine insight and precision. My life is a reflection of God's wisdom and excellence, and through me, others are aligned to His perfect will. The Word of God is working in me, producing in and through me the result of its message, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

PARTNERS IN DIVINE PURPOSE

For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building (1 Corinthians 3:9).

One of the factors of spiritual maturity and walking in the wisdom of God is your alignment with His purpose in everything, including soul winning. You recognize that you're His partner or co-labourer in His agenda in the earth. You were brought into Christ not just to escape condemnation but to fulfil divine destiny, to partner with the Lord in bringing others into the Kingdom.

Wake up to your calling as a minister of the Gospel and steward of the mysteries of Christ: "Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think anything as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God; Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament…" (2 Corinthians 3:5-6). 1 Corinthians 4:1-2 says, "Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful." Be fruitful and productive in the ministry of reconciliation.

He already said in Mark 16:15, "…Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature." So, there's no need to ask, "Lord, what would you have me do?" The mandate is clear. 2 Corinthians 5:18 says, "And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation."

Function with Kingdom priorities. Win souls every day and commit your resources to the advancement of the Kingdom. Intercede passionately for those who haven't yet known the Lord. Take up the Lord's passion; the Bible says He's patient towards all for their salvation, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance (2 Peter 3:9).

2 Corinthians 5:14-15 says, "For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead: And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again." Living unto Him means living for His divine purpose. It means a heart that beats with His desire, hands that serve His plan, and feet that walk in His paths.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for making me a labourer together with you in your vineyard. I walk in divine wisdom, fulfilling your purpose for my life, aligned with your vision, committed to your call, and fruitful in all the will of God, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

PRAY EFFECTIVELY BY PRAYING IN THE SPIRIT

For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful. What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also (1 Corinthians 14:14-15).

Praying in the spirit is the primary way for Christians to pray and pray effectively. God wants you to have a productive life. Therefore, it's important to know how to pray in an effective way because prayer is our communication with God. And from our opening scripture, a most effective way to engage and talk with the Lord and have real results is praying with the spirit.

The Apostle Paul in our opening scripture distinguishes between praying with the spirit or in the spirit and praying with the understanding. Praying with the spirit is when you pray in other tongues; tongues of the spirit. Praying in your understanding is praying through your mind, using a language that you understand. However, praying in the spirit takes pre-eminence over praying with the understanding.

Ephesians 6:18 says, "Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints." This is as insightful as it is instructive: You're to pray always in the Spirit. It's one of the sure ways to pray effectively. James 5:16 AMPC, says, "…The earnest (heartfelt, continued) prayer of a righteous man makes tremendous power available [dynamic in its working]."

A righteous man is one who's born again, whose righteousness is the righteousness of Jesus Christ and that's you. Therefore, when you pray, tremendous power is made available to produce amazing results. But many don't experience this; their prayers aren't effective because they don't pray in tongues.

Make no mistakes about it; when you pray in tongues it generates a lot of fire-power that subdues the works and forces of evil amongst other transcendent benefits. The results will be evident in your home, in your place of work, in your city, in your country and around the world. Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for the blessing of praying in the spirit. As I pray in other tongues, the forces of evil are subdued, and your will is accomplished in the earth and in the lives of people everywhere. My life is continually aligned with your perfect will, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

SEE BY THE SPIRIT

...Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter (Revelation 4:1).

In life, what you see determines how you live. So it's important that you see spiritually; you see by the Spirit. Seeing by the Spirit is seeing through the Word, seeing with the eyes of faith. Many are ruled by fear and anxiety because they're seeing from the valley; they look at things from the human or earthly perspective.

But when you see by the Word through the Spirit, you realize that you're neither the sick trying to get healed nor the poor trying to be rich. You're not the defeated trying to become victorious. Rather, you see that you're the glory of God, a victor in Christ Jesus, the perfection of divine excellence. Hallelujah!

The Word of God gives you spiritual elevation. It lifts your perspective and vision above the mundane and lets you see from God's vantage point. This is what John experienced: he heard a voice saying, "Come up hither," and when he did, he was transported in the spirit to see divine realities.

God has called us to function by revelation. We walk by faith, not by sight. And faith is living by the Word, acting on the basis of God's Word and not on impulses or sensory perceptions. That's how you live above limitations. That's how you stay ahead of the world. That's how you dominate circumstances and triumph over the adversary and adversities.

You may have been diagnosed with some terrible ailments without hope for a cure; see yourself through the Word and you'd discover that the sickness or disease is a mirage. You're whole, perfect, and sound in Christ. You're the perfection of divine beauty. This is the truth.

In John 8:32, the Lord said, "And ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." In Christ Jesus, you're in the vantage position of health, prosperity and victory. This is why you have to develop yourself in the Word. Consciously increase your knowledge of the Word. The Bible says, "...grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ..." (2 Peter 3:18).

CONFESSION

I'm constantly metamorphosed and positioned by the Word for the higher life of glory and triumphs, filled with strength, courage, faith and wisdom to do the will of the Father and fulfil my destiny in Christ. I walk in divine health, excellence and dominion as I yield myself to be inspired, taught, educated and trained by the Word. Glory to God!

A NEW, JUSTIFIED BEING

Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new (2 Corinthians 5:17).

When we say Jesus paid the price for the whole world of sinners, you need to understand that we're speaking generically. It doesn't include Christians because the Christian isn't counted among the sinners. Christians are a different species of being; they're not from the world. They came into a new life through the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

When you believed in Jesus Christ and confessed His lordship over your life, you were recreated; born again with a new life: "Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life" (Romans 6:4). This is the essence of Christianity; you're a new creation born from the resurrection into a newness of life.

As a result, you walk as a justified person. What does it mean to be justified? It means to be declared not guilty, acquitted. The person who was guilty died with Christ on the Cross. And when Jesus resurrected, a new you came alive. This new you was created in righteousness and true holiness.

Romans 4:25, referring to the Lord Jesus, tells us that He "...was delivered for our offenses, and was raised again for our justification." Glory to God! You're justified because you're a new creation. This is why we preach the Gospel with urgency. We want men and women everywhere to come into Christ and become new creations. We want them to know they've been justified and that in Christ, they don't have a past; they're new species.

James 1:18 says, "Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures." Notice the underlined expression; you're a different breed, one with the divine nature; sanctified, glorified and justified. Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, I thank you for the new life in Christ. I'm a new creation, justified and alive to God. Old things are passed away, and all things have become new. I walk in the consciousness of my divine nature, manifesting the glory and righteousness of God everywhere I go, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

FRIDAY 10

PROCLAIMING THE LORDSHIP OF JESUS

That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved (Romans 10:9).

The proclamation of the lordship of Jesus is what brings you into salvation. There're those who believe in their hearts that Jesus died and that God raised Him from the dead, but they have never actively proclaimed His lordship over their lives. Therefore, the salvation that Jesus brought is not activated in their lives.

The Bible way to receive salvation is clearly stated for us in the Scriptures: "But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation" (Romans 10:8-10).

You believe in your heart that Jesus Christ is the Son of God and confess His lordship over your life; that's what catapults you into salvation. Believing alone isn't enough. In fact, the Apostle James, while addressing the importance of genuine faith, especially in how it is demonstrated through actions, tells us, "Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble" (James 2:19).

So, you've got to activate what you believe. It's the confession of the lordship of Jesus that makes salvation real. This explains why some people, though they believe in Jesus, are not born again. Without that confession, they could go to hell. So, in your evangelical work and outreaches, emphasize this, especially in these last days. It's the declaration of the lordship of Jesus that breaks Satan's grip over people's lives and brings them out of darkness into the Kingdom of God's Love-Son.

PRAYER

Dear Father, I thank you for the power of your Word and the revelation of salvation through the lordship of Jesus Christ. Jesus is Lord over my life, and I'm in His glorious Kingdom, where I reign in righteousness and victory forever, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

EVERYTHING IS IN HIM

Some Christians pray using names like Jehovah Jireh, Jehovah Rapha, and others, drawing from the different revelations of God's names they learnt from the Old Testament. It's however important to realize that all the power, glory and authority that those Old Testament names signify are fully present in Jesus. If you know Jesus, you don't need all those other names.

The totality of deity, fully and permanently resides in Jesus. The Spirit, through the Apostle Paul, reveals this in Colossians 2:9, "For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily." John 1:1 &14 says, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth."

The Lord Jesus is the living Word, and we read in our opening scripture that God has magnified His Word above all the revelations of His Name, and that Word is Jesus. You don't need to call on Jehovah Rapha for healing; Jesus is your healer. You don't need to call on Jehovah Jireh for provision; Jesus is your provider. He's the embodiment and fulfilment of all those names.

So, get to know who the Lord Jesus is. He said, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me" (John 5:39). When you know Him, you know God; you've found everything, for He's everything. Eternal life, divine health, healing, prosperity, peace, righteousness, wisdom, strength; everything is in Him. Glory to His Name forever!

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for the unveiling of your glory in the person of the Lord Jesus Christ. He is everything to me; He's my life, my righteousness, my peace, my health, and my provider. I live in the fullness of Him, of His blessings and of His Kingdom because He lives in me. Hallelujah!

LEARN TO CALL THINGS INTO BEING

Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee... (Job 22:28).

Did you know that through the power of the Holy Spirit, you can call forth anything that you desire? You have the power to appropriate into your current moment whatever it is you require. Never see yourself as being in need of something you think you can't get. Instead, learn to call such things into existence.

We see God employ this same principle when He created all things in Genesis 1. He called them forth. Then in Romans 4:17, the Apostle Paul draws our attention to something profound that God said to Abraham: "(As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations)...." This was God talking to Abraham at a time that Abraham had no child. Yet God wasn't making him a promise; it was a declaration of what already was.

Now, think about this: Abraham had no child and was almost one hundred years old. He first wondered and said "...Shall a child be born to one who is a hundred years old..." (Genesis 17:17 NKJV)? But then he chose to believe God and staggered not at God's promise through unbelief but became strong in faith, glorifying God, calling things that be not as though they were.

Faith declares what it sees in the spirit before it manifests in the physical realm. So what do you desire in your life right now? Mention it and call it forth in the Name of the Lord Jesus. Declare that it comes to you by free course. It already exists in its expanded form in the realm of the spirit; when you call it forth it'll come together in its solid form and come to you.

The Bible says you shall have what you say (Mark 11:23). You shall decree a thing and it'll be established unto you. That's the law of the Spirit. Decree it, call it forth, and see it established before your eyes.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for the creative ability and potency of my words. I function in divine authority and dominion, calling things into being and bringing unseen realities into manifestation. I decree favour, abundance, health, and victory, and I walk in the full experience of your perfect will, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

THE RIGHTNESS OF GOD IN YOU

And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness (Ephesians 4:24).

Righteousness is the rightness of God at work in you. It is divinity manifested in you. It is the unveiling of the Father's heart, His life and love at work in you. Living right is the outworking of the righteousness of God in you. He is righteousness, and He is your righteousness. He gave you the righteousness of Jesus Christ: "...of Him are ye in Christ Jesus who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification and redemption" (1 Corinthians 1:30).

This is what gives you right standing with Him. Being born again, you're in the presence of the Father without guilt, condemnation, or inferiority. We're bold and confident before Him. We live in harmony with the Father, walking in the light of His Word. We know Him, and He knows us; we've become one with Him: "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ" (Romans 5:1). "But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit" (1 Corinthians 6:17).

Righteousness is your life now; it's your nature. You've received abundance of grace and the gift of righteousness: "For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ" (Romans 5:17). Now you can walk in Him, justified and at peace with God.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for giving me your own righteousness: the ability to live right, think right, and live in your perfect will. I walk in the consciousness of my oneness with you, without guilt or condemnation. Your life and love are at work in me, producing fruits of righteousness. I reign in life through Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE COMFORT OF THE SCRIPTURES

For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope (Romans 15:4).

God cared so much about us that He gave us the Holy Scriptures as a personal document so that through the comfort of the Scriptures, we might have hope.

That's why I love to study the Bible again and again. As I study, I find direction. I'm filled with hope. I look at the future with great expectation. No matter what's happening in the world, I'm focused on the Word. I set my face like a flint because I have hope through the comfort of the Scriptures.

The Bible has become for me a living thing, the living voice of Christ. For example, whenever I say, "Greater is He that is in me than he that is in the world," I'm not just quoting a verse. I'm responding to a living voice that God gave me for my journey. He knows we don't see Him physically every day. He knows the pressures we deal with and the times we wish He would visibly show up. But He gave us something even more dependable, His Word.

He wants you to rely on His Word, for it never fails.

Isaiah 55:11 says, "So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth; it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it." Then in Matthew 24:35, the Lord Jesus said, "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away."

This shows that God's Word is the most dependable foundation. Not one word from Him has ever failed or could ever fail as Joshua 21:45 affirms, "Not one word of all the good promises which the Lord had made unto the house of Israel failed; all came to pass."

Furthermore, the Scriptures empower you to deal wisely in the affairs of life (Joshua 1:8 AMPC). That's why we emphasize meditating on the Word. Everything you'd ever be in your life is wrapped up in the Word. So, stay on the Word. Live by the Word.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for the blessing of the Scriptures, your living Word that guides, inspires and strengthens me. Through the comfort of the Scriptures, I have hope. I walk in wisdom, faith and bold expectation of a glorious future. Your Word is my daily light, and I live by its truth, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

FOCUS ON YOUR DIVINE PURPOSE

And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men; Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ (Colossians 3:23–24).

A lot of people allow themselves to be distracted. They get caught up in the busyness of life, petty worries, and worldly pursuits. Before they realize it, they've veered off course from God's divine purpose. Distractions can cause you to lose sight of what truly matters. They pull you away from your God-given assignment. So, stay alert and refuse to be distracted.

God has planned a specific work for you to do. There's a divine assignment with your name on it. If you neglect it, you will have to give account to Him. So stay focused on your purpose. The Lord Jesus said, "...My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work" (John 4:34). "I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work" (John 9:4).

Are you about the Father's work? Is it your goal to finish your assignment, to fulfil your ministry in the Gospel? The Apostle Paul had the same mindset as the Lord Jesus; he refused every form of distraction and stayed focused on His assignment. In Philippians 3:13-14, he said, "… this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

In Hebrews 12:1, he gave an important admonition which, apparently, was a hallmark of his own life. He said, "…let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us." At the end, he said, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith" (2 Timothy 4:7). That's what truly matters.

Be mindful of your divine purpose and responsibilities. Be faithful and diligent in the things God has asked you to do. We have a clear mandate to complete the full preaching of the Gospel to the whole world. You have a role in this. Set your eyes on the goal, run your race with perseverance and finish your course with joy. Praise God!

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for the divine assignment you've given me. I refuse to be distracted by people, situations, or circumstances. I focus my heart and energy on fulfilling your purpose for my life. I run my race with determination and finish my course with joy, bringing glory to your Name, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

THE LAW OF THE SPIRIT OF LIFE

For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death (Romans 8:2).

In 1 John 3:4, the Apostle John writes, "Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law." But then, Paul in 1 Timothy 1:9 tells us, "Knowing this that the law is not made for a righteous man;" and we are the righteous. It then gives rise to the question, "As Christians, are we under any law at all?"

Yes, we are, but it's a different kind of law. It's not the law of Moses. It's not the law of sin and death. It's the law of the Spirit of life. That's what the Apostle James called the perfect law of liberty in James 1:25: "But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed."

That phrase "perfect law of liberty" is an interesting play of words. Law typically implies restriction, yet here it produces liberty. This law works inside us to cancel the restrictions or inhibitions from Satan. For example, when sickness attacks the body, it's a corruption or an inhibition of the person's health. But thanks be unto God, the Bible says the Lord Jesus Christ abolished death and brought life and immortality to light" (2 Timothy 1:10). Hallelujah!

Being born again, you have eternal life, and eternal life doesn't require healing. Therefore, it doesn't matter what attacks your body; if you'd stir up the life of God in your spirit, your whole body will be vitalized. The Bible says, "If the Spirit of Him that raised up Christ from the dead lives in you, He'll vitalize your body" (Romans 8:11).

The Holy Spirit in you is life-generating. Whereas everything in the natural world degenerates, life works in you and in everything that's connected to you because you're in the realm of life. You've passed from death to life (John 5:24). Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for the perfect law of liberty by which I live and function. I walk in the liberty of the Spirit, free from every limitation and empowered to execute your will. I declare that your purpose is fulfilled in and through me, and I bring forth your righteousness in all I do, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

BEING BORN AGAIN— A SPIRITUAL REALITY

Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new (2 Corinthians 5:17).

Once, a respected Jewish teacher, Nicodemus by name, came to see the Lord Jesus. He was a ruler among the Jews, but despite his religiosity, something was missing. The Master looked at him and made a profound statement that cut through all his religious knowledge and rituals: "...Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God" (John 3:3).

Nicodemus, somewhat flustered, asked, "How can a man be born when he is old?" But the Lord Jesus wasn't speaking of physical birth; He was revealing a deep spiritual truth. Being born again isn't a mere religious cliché or phenomenon but a spiritual reality. It means receiving a brand-new life, the life and nature of God Himself.

When you were born again, you weren't brought into a religion; there was a supernatural transformation. It was an actual rebirth. Your human life was supplanted by the divine life at the new birth. Something actually took place in the spirit; you were brought from death into life and immortality: "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life" (John 5:24).

Now that you're born again, you're born of the Word by the Spirit of the Lord: "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again" (John 3:6-7). 1 Peter 1:23 says, "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever."

The Bible also says in John 1:12-13, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." This is what it means to be born again; you're literally and vitally born of God, with His life and nature in your spirit. You're taxonomically different from the non-Christians. As Jesus is, so are you in this world (1 John 4:17). Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, I thank you for the supernatural life of Christ that's now at work in me. I'm born of the incorruptible Word, which lives and abides forever; I'm not an ordinary person. I'm a new creation, born of your Word and your Spirit. I live the higher life, full of glory and righteousness. I walk in victory every day, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

YOUR WORDS ARE ALIVE

It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life (John 6:63).

The words you speak are not empty; they don't just go away; they live on. Don't think the last thing you said ended when you said it. Every word that comes out of your mouth is alive in the spirit-realm. The only way to repel or counter already spoken words is by speaking words that are opposite and more powerful. Words are things; they have energy and tangibility.

This should make you put a premium on words. Never say what you don't mean or don't want to happen. Never speak negatively because the principle is simple but spiritual: you shall have what you say. The Lord Jesus said so: "For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith" (Mark 11:23).

It's for the same reason He tells us not to speak idle, inoperative words: "But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment. For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned" (Matthew 12:36-37). Idle words are useless words, words you speak that don't mean anything. He says you'll be held accountable for speaking such words.

Remember, you're made in the image and likeness of God, and what did the Master say about Himself? He said, "...the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life" (John 6:63). He put a premium on words. The difference between the words of the Lord Jesus and the words of any other person is that He spoke life. He gave us an example to follow.

Proverbs 18:21 says, "Death and life are in the power of the tongue...." Speak only life and everything in your life and environment will live. Speak life to your business, your finances, your body, your children, and to everything around you. Remember, your words never die; they're living and active; they determine the course or direction of your life. Whether you're going to be a success or a failure is all in your mouth.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for teaching me the power of words. My words are full of life, power and faith. I speak only what I desire to see. I speak life to my body, progress to my work, growth to my finances, and peace to my environment. Thank you for making my tongue a tree of life, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

RESPOND PROMPTLY TO HIS VOICE

Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness (Hebrews 3:8).

Cultivating a very rich and focused relationship with the Holy Spirit is essential for your spiritual growth and maturity. The Holy Spirit lives in you; He guides and leads you into all truth. Recognizing His voice and responding appropriately would transform your walk with Him and help you fulfil His purpose for your life gloriously.

Maybe you've been out talking with someone, and afterwards, the Holy Spirit says to you, "You talked too much today. You shouldn't have said the things you said." Don't brush it off, thinking it's just your mind. Take that simple correction seriously and thank Him for it. That way, you're encouraging His ministry in your life.

Some ignore His promptings and get into trouble eventually. But His desire is always to help you avert every danger that might be lurking ahead. Isaiah 30:21 (NIV) says, "Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, "This is the way; walk in it." Today, that voice is not behind you; it's inside you.

When you hear His voice within you telling you what you should do or not do, act swiftly. Train yourself to recognize and respond to His voice. It's easy to know His voice because He gives you guidance and direction in line with the Word. Everything He tells you sides with the Word.

Sadly, some continue to resist and ignore His voice. The result of that is stagnation and failure. Month after month, they remain the same, stuck in a cycle without progress, immature in their spiritual walk. Spiritual maturity is marked by sensitivity to the Holy Spirit.

Mature Christians yield quickly to His correction and instruction. They understand that the Spirit's guidance is vital for effective Christian living and spiritual growth. Therefore, they respond quickly to His guidance and voice with humility. Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for giving me a heart that's sensitive to your Word and to your voice. Through the guidance and promptings of the Holy Spirit, I live an excellent life that's fully pleasing to you as I fulfil my destiny in Christ. Your wisdom fills my heart, and your love flows freely through me as I walk in sync with the Spirit, growing in maturity, grace and purpose, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

ETERNAL REMISSION

In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace (Ephesians 1:7).

Did you know the Bible doesn't actually instruct us to ask God for forgiveness? More so, God didn't even make provision for your forgiveness in the way most people think. Rather, He did something far greater; He gave us remission.

Forgiveness means to pardon. That is, the wrongs or sins that the offender committed remain on record, but he or she is no longer held accountable or punished for them. This is how men forgive. But that's not what God did in Christ Jesus. The New Testament introduces us to the greater reality of remission.

1 John 1:9 says, "...he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins...." But the Greek word translated forgive there is actually "aphiēmi," which is from "aphesis." This word does not primarily mean "pardon." Instead, it means "to send away," "to take away completely," or "to separate from." That's remission, not forgiveness. God didn't leave your sins on record and then pardon you. No! He removed them completely; they were taken away, blotted out.

This is why we don't keep asking God to forgive us. In Christ, our sins were remitted; they were washed away, not covered up. The death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus provided full payment for sin, resulting in your total justification.

Some quote verses from Matthew, Mark or Luke, to justify a forgiveness-based mentality. Jesus' teachings in those gospels were to a people still under the old covenant before His death and resurrection. But now, we're new creatures in Christ, and God has no record of your sin: "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new" (2 Corinthians 5:17). You've been cleansed, justified and sanctified. Blessed be God!

PRAYER

Dear Father, I thank you for the eternal remission of sins I have in Christ Jesus. I walk in the light of my righteousness, knowing that sin and its attendant effects have no dominion over me. I live boldly and confidently, enjoying unhindered fellowship with you, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

HOLY EXPRESSIONS OF WORSHIP

God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth (John 4:24).

God is a Spirit, and the Bible says those who worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth. However, there're certain things you do physically that help you activate your spirit.

For example, when you consciously and deliberately kneel in prayer, it causes your spirit to be immediately activated for prayer. That's why He told you to do it, because immediately, you're moved from your mental state into a spiritual state, fulfilling the Scriptures. Psalm 95:6 says, "O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the LORD our maker."

Daniel also knelt in prayer: "Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house and... he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed..." (Daniel 6:10). Even the Lord Jesus knelt down to pray: "And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed" (Luke 22:41).

The same thing happens when you lift your hands in prayer, adoration, praise and worship to the Lord. These physical actions draw you from the natural into the spiritual. They are holy expressions of reverence, adulation and worship. The Bible says, "I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting" (1 Timothy 2:8).

King Solomon lifted his hands when he dedicated the temple: "And it was so, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer… he arose from before the altar of the LORD, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven" (1 Kings 8:54). These examples show us the importance and spirituality of certain reverential actions, even though they're physical.

Never take these spiritual postures lightly. They help shift your focus from the distractions of the flesh to the realities of the Spirit. They help you make contact with your spirit, and you're stirred and awakened to deeper fellowship with the Lord. Recall the words of the Psalmist, "Let my prayer be set forth before thee as incense; and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice" (Psalm 141:2). Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for teaching me to worship you in spirit and in truth. I yield my body as an instrument of righteousness, aligning it with my spirit in worship, prayer and adoration. As I lift my hands and bow my knees, my spirit is stirred and awakened to deeper fellowship with you, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

YOUR WORDS ARE YOUR PERSON

A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh (Luke 6:45).

Did you know that the best part of your personality is your words? The greatest gift given to us naturally by God is the ability to talk. That's because your words are your person; your words are you. The character of your words is the character of your personality. You're not different from your words. If your spirit is excellent, your words will be.

In emphasizing this, the Lord Jesus said, "Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit…for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things" (Matthew 12:33-35). Notice what the Lord said; the words that come out of you are from your heart, from your spirit. And your spirit is the real you.

Proverbs 23:7 says, "as he thinks in his heart so is he." In other words, you're not different from your thoughts and words are thoughts clothed with vocabulary. So, your life as it is today is the image of what your words created months or years ago. And your life in the next few months or years is what you create now with your words. That's how important words are.

PRAYER

Righteous Father, I thank you for the gift of speech and the ability to manifest your grace through my words. My words are filled with wisdom as they spring forth from the treasures of your Kingdom in my heart. I speak excellence, purity and truth. My words reveal your righteousness, shaping my glorious life and destiny in you. Amen.

WORK THE WORD

Wherefore, my beloved… work out your own salvation with fear and trembling (Philippians 2:12).

In Christianity, that you're born again doesn't automatically mean you'll live like a true Christian or experience the results of the Christian life. It doesn't mean things will automatically start happening of their own accord; no! You have to make them happen. You have to work out your salvation. That means you have to put your faith to work; you have to practise the Word of God.

It's the doer of the Word that experiences the blessings of salvation: "But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed" (James 1:22 & 25).

You have a life that's superior to Satan, sickness, disease and infirmities—the divine life. You're an associate of the God-kind: "Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust" (2 Peter 1:4). You hail from God: "Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world" (1 John 4:4).

Your origin is in God, and He lives in you. You must superimpose these realities upon the circumstances of life.

That's where your knowledge of the Word and meditation comes in. You have to know and meditate on the Word for yourself. Through meditation, the realities in the Word and the truths within your spirit are brought into your consciousness. They become real and tangible to you.

Also, through conscious meditation on the Word, you make your way prosperous, create your victories, and deal wisely in the affairs of life: "This Book of the Law shall not depart out of your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, that you may observe and do according to all that is written in it; For then you shall make your way prosperous, and then you shall deal wisely and have good success" (Joshua 1:8 AMPC).

There you have it: your glorious and prosperous life isn't up to God but up to you. He's given you His Word which is what you need to live supremely blessed, walk in dominion and enjoy the full benefits of salvation. But you must work the Word; act on it to produce in and for you what it talks about.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for the divine life you've given me. I live in the consciousness of who I am in Christ. I superimpose your Word over my thoughts, my body, and my daily circumstances. I walk in divine health, peace and victory every day because I live from the awareness of your indwelling presence and the power of the Spirit in me, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

FRIDAY 24

FOCUS ON THE WORD

In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said, Let there be light: and there was light (Genesis 1:1-3).

If you want to see supernatural things happen in your life, focus on the Word. The Word of God created the whole world and the entire universe. God manifests Himself in different ways and one of those extraordinary ways is the Word. He manifests Himself in and through the Word. Where the Word of God is, God is.

The Word of God is not like the word of a man; the Word of God is life. The Word of God is power. The Word of God is light. The Word of God is truth. The Word of God is God. If you centre your mind on the Word, you're centring your mind on God. Isaiah 26:3 says, "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee."

How do you stay or keep your mind on Him? It's by staying your mind on His Word, meditating on the Word. It doesn't matter what you face in life; let God be all you see. That means see the Word; have the Word on your mind. When you have the Word of God on your mind, you're in for the supernatural. The Word is where the supernatural power of God is.

It's the reason the Holy Spirit never does anything without the Word. In Genesis 1, the Bible says in the beginning, God created the heaven and the earth. But the earth was without form, and darkness covered the face of the deep. Then it says, the Spirit of God moved over the face of the waters but nothing changed. The darkness was still there, the chaos was still there, until the Word was given.

The Bible says, "And God said, let there be light, and light became" (Genesis 1:3). The Spirit of God caused the light to come into being only after God spoke. It shows the power and importance of God's Word. You must focus on the Word. Speak it forth. Until the Word is given, the Spirit of God does nothing. So, to experience great things in your life as an individual and live transcendently as the Lord has ordained for you, live by the Word of God.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for the power and integrity of your Word. I centre my heart and mind on the Word, and I'm full of peace. Your Word produces in me what it talks about; I see only possibilities, walk in excellence, victory and dominion, because your Word is my life, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

GOD'S WISDOM WORKING THROUGH YOU

But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom… (1 Corinthians 1:30).

One of the most glorious truths of the Gospel is that Christ has been made unto us wisdom. This means we have access to divine insight, understanding, and direction in all things. We're not searching for wisdom; Christ is our wisdom. It's the reason we can decode mysteries; we have insight into the secrets and realities of life.

There's nothing you can't comprehend or mentally put together. The will of God is unveiled to your spirit because Christ is your wisdom. The Holy Spirit, who is the Spirit of wisdom, lives in you, and He causes you to excel. No wonder the prayer of the Spirit through the Apostle Paul in Colossians 1:9 that you be filled with the knowledge of God's will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding. Blessed be God!

This is your life as a child of God. When you make decisions, they're by God's wisdom and righteousness; they're not speculative or uncertain but accurate, producing results that glorify God because you function with divine wisdom. This wisdom shows up in how you speak, how you solve problems, how you relate with others, and in your walk with God. You love and do His Word.

This was how the Lord Jesus lived. The Bible tells us He grew in wisdom and in favour with God and man (Luke 2:52). He always knew what to do, what to say, and how to act. That same wisdom is now at work in you. The more you yield to the Word and the Holy Spirit, the more that wisdom finds expression through you. With this wisdom, you walk with precision and purpose, fulfilling God's perfect will for your life.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for your glory in my life and for making Christ my wisdom. I walk in divine insight, supernatural understanding and perfect judgment. I'm never confused or uncertain. I always know what to do because your wisdom is active and effective in me, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

SUNDAY 26

THE WISDOM OF THE RIGHTEOUS

And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord (Luke 1:17).

Notice the word "disobedient" in the verse above; it refers to the negative of being obedient. That's the original Greek connotation. It means one who can't be persuaded, one who is headstrong and deliberately chooses to go in the wrong direction, and there're people like that in life.

Such people are unyielding even when they know the truth. They don't submit to the Word of God, and the Word of God is the wisdom of God. So, the Bible says their hearts have to be turned to the wisdom of the just. This means that the wisdom of the just is yielding to the Word. The wisdom of the just is persuadable.

Recall what the Bible says about the children of Israel in the Old Testament: they couldn't enter into God's rest because of their unpersuadableness. But the wisdom of the just is easily convinced by the Word of God; it willingly and gladly accepts the Word. It's quick to make adjustments on the basis of the Word.

God wants the hearts of the disobedient to be turned to the wisdom of the just. It's called "phronesis" (Greek). That's the highest kind of wisdom; when you're swayed by the Word and allow it to shape your life and every decision you make. It doesn't matter how something appears; you only go with what the Word says. You're living in conformity to the Word. That's the wisdom of the just. Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for the wisdom of the just that works in me. My heart is ever open and responsive to your Word. I'm persuaded by your truth and governed by your love. Your wisdom propels me to walk in the paths of righteousness and live daily in alignment with your perfect will, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

THE WAY THAT WINS

For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live (Romans 8:13).

As a Christian, it's important that you see and interpret life from the right perspective, which is the Christ perspective. Don't interpret life with your senses: what you can see, hear, feel and touch. Life is spiritual, and the way that wins is the way of the Spirit and the Word. You must see life and live it through the Word, not by assumptions or the theories of men.

When we talk about seeing life through the lens of the Word, it means everything you know and believe is consistent with the provisions of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The Gospel is the Word of God concerning Jesus Christ, who He is and His mission, and His life in us today. He brought us the Kingdom-life, a higher life with higher principles. He completely baffled sense knowledge.

For example, He said, "…Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you" (Matthew 5:44). That's not how the world relates. Moses said, "An eye for an eye," but the Lord Jesus came with a new way to live.

The Bible says the Law came by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ (John 1:17). He came to reveal to us the life and nature of God, the way God thinks, the way that wins. This also applies to your health and well-being.

The world may endorse fear, disease and uncertainty, but the Gospel assures us of divine health: "Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth" (3 John 1:2). If you ever feel symptoms in your body, don't panic. Look through the Word. See from the Gospel perspective: divine health is your inheritance. Glory to God!

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for giving me your Word by which I live in victory and dominion. I see from the Gospel's perspective and walk in your light always. I refuse to fear or accept any outcome that's contrary to your Word. I walk in love, I live in divine health and strength, and I flourish every day, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

VICTORY OVER THE WORLD

For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith (1 John 5:4).

Think about the fact that the verse we just read was written by the Apostle John. God gave him that wisdom, that revelation. He wasn't just prophesying; he was writing about the life that we have in Christ, the life he and the rest of the apostles lived. This was the mentality they had. They were raised to think victory only.

They had been with the Lord Jesus and had come to understand the message of the divine life: whatsoever is born of God has victory over the world and subdues the world. This means you have power over the world because you're born of God: "Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures" (James 1:18).

"But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God" (John 1:12-13). Because you're born of God, you've conquered the world. You've prevailed over the world. You didn't need to make an effort; it happened simply by your being born of God. Hallelujah!

You've conquered the world and its systems and corrupting influences. Nothing in this world is to your disadvantage. This must be your way of thinking. You have to train and see yourself in this light. When the pressures of life come against you, remember who you are and affirm that you have power over this world, its pressures, adversities and decadence. You have power over Satan, sicknesses, diseases and infirmities. Your faith in Christ has given you the victory. Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, I thank you for my faith that gives me victory over the world. I refuse to be moved by circumstances. I live triumphantly and reign victoriously over the systems of this world, its pressures, adversities, decadence and corrupting influences by the power of your Spirit and through the Word, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

YOUR LIFE—A FOUNTAIN OF LIVING WATER

He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water (John 7:38).

Your life as a Christian, according to God's design, is a fountain of living water. Sadly, for some, their lives are "lakes" because they gather only to ask God for things. All they ever do is ask and talk about their problems. But that's not how it ought to be.

When we come together to pray, worship, and study the Scriptures, it doesn't matter that we're four, five, six or more; we proclaim the Word. That's a fountain. The Lord Jesus said, "He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water" (John 7:38).

The rivers of living water are prophetic words of power and blessings issuing forth from you. Prophecy holds the key to your future. Recall what God said to Ezekiel in Ezekiel 37:4-5, "…Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live."

Take charge of your life with the Word of God on your lips. Don't wait for somebody else to do it for you. Let the fountain of living water issue forth from you. Prophesy about your future. Prophesy to your ministry, your job, your business and career. Prophesy about your health. Prophesy to your body. Prophesy to your bones. Prophesy to your skin and to your blood.

Don't wait for the world to decide what happens to you; prophesy. Sometimes what you need requires a miracle and until you prophesy it may never happen. So, use what God has given you; His Word, the Spirit, and your mouth! Prophesy. Let gushers of living water, words of life, power, healing and blessing continuously flow from your innermost being. Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for making me a fountain of living water. Out of my belly flow rivers of living water; words of life, power, healing and blessing. I walk in health, strength, progress, increase, and prosperity, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

HEIRS OF THE PROMISE

And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise (Galatians 3:29).

In Christ, you're born God's heir. All of His wealth and resources belong to you: "And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ..." (Romans 8:17). The Bible says the silver, gold, precious stones and the whole world belong to Him: "The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts" (Haggai 2:8).

In Psalm 50:10-12, He said, "For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills. I know all the fowls of the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are mine…for the world is mine, and the fullness thereof." Therefore, as an heir of God, and joint heir with Christ, the silver, the gold, the cattle upon a thousand hills, the world and the fullness thereof, belong to you as much as they belong to Him.

See yourself in this light, for this is the truth about your prosperity. In the same way that the righteousness of God was imparted to your spirit when you were born again, prosperity and greatness have been imparted to your spirit. 2 Corinthians 8:9 says, "For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich." What does this mean?

First, understand that Jesus never became poor spiritually. So, the scripture we just read is talking about physical, material, and financial blessings. Jesus became poor for your sake so that from what He gave up, you might inherit abundance. Don't see your job or business as your source. Live a joyful, prosperous life every day.

You're the habitation of all of God's blessings: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ" (Ephesians 1:3). Remember what the Lord said to Abraham, "…I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing" (Genesis 12:2); and He really did bless Abraham.

Paul revealed in Galatians 3:16 that the promised blessing wasn't to Abraham alone but to Abraham and his seed. That seed is Christ. And we read in our opening scripture that "…if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise" (Galatians 3:29). You're the inheritor of the blessings of Abraham. Everywhere you go, you carry blessings with you. When you show up, blessings arrive. Hallelujah!

CONFESSION

I'm the seed of Abraham, and therefore the possessor and distributor of divine blessings. Salvation, righteousness, prosperity, healing, God's goodness, mercies and grace flow through me to bless my world! I walk in abundance, health and success all my days. I'm blessed in all things and in every way. Blessed be God!

LIFTING YOUR HANDS TO THE LORD

Let my prayer be set forth before thee as incense; and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice (Psalm 141:2).

When people are asked to lift their hands in worship during a church service, some respond mechanically or not at all, often because they haven't been trained in spiritual things. If they truly understood the spiritual significance of lifting their hands to the Lord, it wouldn't be a struggle.

Years ago, in some meetings, I made an important observation: many of those who were healed had been unable to lift their hands due to pain. This caught my attention, and I asked the Spirit of God why so many people had this problem. He said, "I told them to worship with hands lifted; I instructed that all men pray everywhere lifting up holy hands, but they wouldn't." Years later, they found themselves unable to lift their hands without effort or pain.

The lesson there was this: had they been worshipping with their hands lifted regularly, as God had instructed, such limitations wouldn't have developed. But thank God for His grace that brought them healing. Never think that lifting your hands is unnecessary or even embarrassing while you're praying or worshipping the Lord. It's an act of faith, spiritual responsiveness, and yieldedness to the Spirit.

Even if lifting your hands was a painful effort before you became a Christian, keep practicing lifting them to the Lord in worship. By so doing, you're acting on the Word. Before long, those same hands will rise higher and higher, effortlessly and without pain. Hebrews 12:12-13 says, "...lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees; And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed."

Many of God's children suffer physically, not because something is inherently wrong but because they neglect to do what the Word says, and Satan capitalizes on that. So, learn to act on the Word. Let your spirit train your body in worship. Keep lifting your hands in praise and you'll experience such glory in your life that you never imagined.

PRAYER

Dear Father, I thank you for the privilege and blessing of worshipping you with my hands lifted in reverence and in love. There's none like you. You're great and mighty, the King of all and God of all flesh who alone has immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no man has seen or can see. To you be honour and everlasting power forever. Amen.

7 REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD GO TO CHURCH

As a Christian, it's important for you to identity with a local assembly, a church you can call your HOME and participate fully in the activities. Here are some of the reasons you must go to church:

1. God Said So
God desires His children to attend church meetings. The admonition is clear in Hebrews 10:25 for us not to forsake the assembly of the brethren.

2. Jesus Did, Showing Us A Pattern To Follow
Jesus had a culture of going to "church." It was part of His personal discipline and devotion (Luke 4:16).

3. It's The Vehicle By Which You Function In The Body Of Christ
The local assembly is a microcosm of the spiritual body of Christ. You function in that Body by functioning in the local assembly.

4. The Church Is The Pillar And Ground Of Truth (1 Timothy 3:15)
The Church is the pillar and ground of Truth where you're taught the Word of God. The teaching of God's Word is crucial for victorious living.

5. The Church Is A Place Of Fellowship With Other Christians
Fellowship with other Christians is essential to the growth of a believer. We sharpen ourselves as we fellowship together in church.

6. The Church Is A Place Where Christian Growth And Character Are Enhanced
God ordained certain offices in the Church for the benefit of the Christian, for growth and to sharpen his spiritual development (Ephesians 4:11-16).

7. The Church Is A Place Of Training
The Church is a place where discipline is imparted. God sets instructors who are able to instruct you in the truth and help you culture your life.

"Rhapsody Ended My Battles"

Every achievement in my life was a hard-won battle; it felt like there was an invisible war preventing me from reaching my dreams. Desperate for change, I moved to Berlin, hoping for a fresh start. But the struggles only intensified. Frustrated and lost, I received my first copy of Rhapsody of Realities. As I read, a question arose: why was I fighting so hard for what God had freely given? This truth changed my mindset and gave me a supernatural life. Glory!

"Healed of An Incurable Skin Disease"

For seven years, I suffered from a skin allergy. I visited the hospital but was told there is no permanent cure, hence I would live on medication for the rest of my life. Gradually, the shame of visible symptoms led me to isolate myself. Then, in the seventh year, I met an old friend who gave me a copy of Rhapsody of Realities. Immersed in its teachings, I learned about Zoe, a life immune to sickness. I held onto that understanding, declaring it over my body until it became my reality. Today, the allergy is gone.

"Rhapsody of Realities Brought Me Wholeness"

As a single mother of four, the weight of raising my children alone became overwhelming, plunging me into a deep depression. The burden intensified daily, leading me down a destructive path of illicit drugs and alcohol. Tragically, I lost my mother during this time, and the pain drove me to contemplate suicide on multiple occasions. However, it was through the pages of Rhapsody of Realities that I began to find healing. I became intentional about rebuilding my life and transformed into a positive role model for my children. Hallelujah!
