Tungasuvvingat Inuit (TI) aims at empowering and enhancing the lives of Inuit across Canada. Since 1987 TI has been operating in Ottawa as a community-based counselling and resource centre. TI was first established as the result of an Inuit needs assessment study which clearly demonstrated the necessity for a service geared to the unique culture and needs of Inuit clients adjusting to the urban living. Since then, the programs at TI have expanded to accommodate the growing Inuit population.

Tungasuvvingat Inuit (TI); an Inuit organization located in Ottawa, ON that provides cultural, social and counselling services and advice to Inuit across Canada.

TI is the only established Inuit specific service organization of its kind in urban Canada and as a result it is called upon to provide advice and support to other agencies across the province and country (eg. shelters, courts, hospitals, schools).

For these agencies, TI provides:

- Information on Inuit culture and values
- Resource information for Inuit specific programming
- Understanding of Inuit Rights in the City
- Information on financial assistance for Inuit post-secondary students

TI focuses on providing clients with programs and services that:

- Include Inuit country food
- Assists with the adjustment to an urban centre
- Maintain client confidentiality
- Promotes individual and community healing through culturally appropriate programming
- Provides a place for Inuit to gather with other Inuit
