

Invitation to Participate in a Virtual Training on Human Rights _ 3rd Batch

Lawyers for Human Right (LHR) is pleased to announce that it has organized the third round of online training to practicing lawyers on human rights. The training will be given through LHR's own electronic learning management system to deliver the online training virtually. Accordingly, potential trainees who fulfil the following requirements are invited to register:

- LL. B Degree;
- Licensed to practice law either at the federal and/or regional level;
- Good command of English especially listening and writing;
- Computer and internet literate and;
- Have access to the internet

As we have limited slots, the trainees will be selected based on the principle of first come first served.

If you're interested, register at <http://bit.ly/2YHGrRY>

Dates of registration: Between Feb 04 and 7, 2021

Training Dates: Between Feb 8 2021 and Feb 28, 2021

Mode of Training: Virtual/Online

Costs: The LHR will reimburse the cost of the internet data for the training.

You will be required to complete the training within three weeks on the e-learning management system as the session will expire and will not allow you to log back in. Only those who successfully completes course content, assessment quiz and written assignment will be eligible for Certificate of Completion.