

TMA 1: CRD204

Q1. Biological anthropology may best be defined as _____

- A. the study of humans as biological organisms
- B. the study of human disease and illness
- C. the study of human culture
- D. the study of primates

Q2. Lice, leeches and mosquitoes are considered as examples of _____

- A. Endoparasites
- B. Ectoparasites
- C. Digestion Parasites
- D. Synthetic Parasites

Q3. A trait that increases the reproductive success of an organism is called a(n) _____

- A. Adaptation
- B. essential element
- C. benefit
- D. fertility

Q4. Chlorine, smoke, dust, cotton and nitrogen oxides are pollutants released by _____

- A. Fertilizer Industries
- B. Thermal Industries
- C. Textile Industries
- D. Steel Industries

Q5. Consumers that are fed on plants or products of plants are called _____

- A. primary consumers
- B. secondary consumers
- C. tertiary consumers
- D. primary decomposers

For More TMA solution Visit <https://nounsphy.blogspot.com>

Q6. The apelike primate that began to walk on two legs and led to humans is called a(n) _____

- A. Hominid
- B. Anthropos
- C. Pre-human
- D. Proto-human

Q7. Osteology is the study of _____

- A. the human brain
- B. human survival strategies
- C. the human skeleton
- D. human languages

Q8. Kind of symbiosis in which only one partner is benefited and other is not harmed and benefited is called_____

- A. Temporary parasitism
- B. Temporary mutualism
- C. Permanent mutualism
- D. Commensalism

Q9. What were the first photosynthetic organisms?_____

- A. Cyanobacteria
- B. Plants
- C. Protists
- D. Sunlight

Q10. Breakdown of nitrogenous wastes and dead organisms proteins into ammonia is classified as_____

Ammonification

Assimilation

Denitrification

Nitrification

For More TMA solution Visit <https://nounspy.blogspot.com>