ENGLISH ANSWER WITH DETAIL EXPLANATIONS

Section ONE : Vocabulary

A.Completion(1-5)

1.The answer is C.

Explanation : We use the phrasal verb: pull down to say decay or destroy something especially for house, tooth, etc.

2.The answer is D.

Explanation:

- Beneficial: Something that is beneficial helps people or improves their lives.
- Beneficiary: someone who is a beneficlary of something is helped by it.
- Benefactor : A benefactor is a person who helps a person or organization by giving them money.

3.The answer is B.

Explanation: We look up the meaning of words in dictionary.

(look up= is phrasal verb meaning search for /find out)

4.The answer is A.

Explanation :

disability: is a permanent injury, illness, or physical or mental condition that tends to restrict the way that someone can live their life.

unable : If you are unable to do something it is impossible for you to do it.

inability : If we refer to someone's inability to do Something. We refer to the fact that they are unable to do it.

- Her inability to concentrate causes an accident the government's inability to provide basic serves.

5.The answer is B.

Explanation : We say that somebody rejected someone else's offer if he/she refused /declined /turned down to accept it.

B.Substitution(6-9)

6.The Answer is D.

Explanation :I can't stand = I can't be tolerate /bear with.

7.The answer is D.

Explanation: Poaching : Catching animals illegally

(poaching fishes, birds.....etc)

8.The answer is A.

Explanation :To contravene a law or rule means to do something that is forbidden by the law or rule.

9.The answer is A.

Explanation : Quarreled : heated disagreement. So,If you have fallen out with someone, you have had anrgument and stopped being friendly with them.

Section Two : Grammar (10-19)

10.The answer is A.

Explanation : No + noun

I could get no information about the man.

None is not followed by a noun

E.g Did you've any new diaries? We've got none at the moment.

11. The answer is C.

Explanation : The key difference between Never and Ever is □□

- Never= at no time and is a negative term, used in affirmative constructions (to avoid double negatives).
- Ever = at any time and it's generally not used in affirmative sentences.

❖ So, The last sentence gives you some clues about the first sentences.
I. (has/have +Never + V_3) in present perfect tense.

12.The answer is D.

Explanation :The last sentence 'past perfect' tells us that we should use the simple past tense for the first sentence.

Note □□

❖ Action happened first = past perfect; and
❖ Action happened second = past simple

13.The answer is A.

Explanation : To express that the action will be over incomplete in the future, we use will have + V_3 for active and will bave been + V_3 for passive.

Note :Future time reference like by tomorrow /next year/ tomorrow morning this time, by next January, etc are mainly used.

E.g

- Next year this time, my dad will have-been to USA for year
- I will have completed my first year by next July.
- By the year 2015. All the dilapidated houses will have been replaced by a contemporary building (passive

14.The answer is A.

Explanation: When you express what you really wish, you can use present or past tense Use past form for present wishes.

E.g

- I can't play the piano

Use past perfect tense for past wishes

- I couldn't play piano

I wish I would have (played).

15.The answer is C.

Explanation :if we put a singular countable noun between an adjective and the second as, we use a /an in front of the noun.

E.g

- She was as patient a teacher as any one could have had.
- It is not as quite a place as it used to be.

16.The answer is B.

Explanation :Something which is done repeatedly is expressed by a Simple present tense, not by a future even in conditional clause type one.

17.The answer is A.

Explanation : Nowhere /no one / nobody...+ an affirmative sentence

:Anywhere /any one/ anybody... + a negative sentence

E.g

- I knocked the door several times, but no one was in.
- I searched for my pen, but I could find it nowhere.
- I knocked the door several times, but there was not any.
- I searched for my pen, but I could not find it anywhere.

18. The answer is B.

Explanation : This question is about participle clause which expresses ideas of time, cause, consequence or condition.

E.g

- Putting down my news paper, I walked over to the window.
- Waiting some excitements, Mary become a pilot.
- After talking to you, I felt better.

19.The answer is B.

Explanation : Use 'will' in immediate decision that will take place in the near future.

Section Three : Communicative Activities

20.The answer is A.

Explanation : When we totally /completely agree with someone's idea , we say .....i can't/ couldn't agree more(= i am in a complete agreement)

21.The answer is B.

Explanation : negative tags require a positive reply.

22.The Answer is D.

Just to answer this question it's enough to know the meaning of Evacuate.

evacuate = move out of a place

23.The answer is A.

Explanation : in greeting how do you do is replied by how do you do.

We are Scholastic Clusters !!

@scholasticclusters