

QUESTION 2.

a)-The letter that Dr. Stockman has received is from the landlord.

-It is a notice for him to quit the house he has been staying in. (2mks)

b) The characters of Mrs Stockmann.

- Caring-concerned about the family. "But think of the boys, Thomas!"
- Emotional-".....the things you had said had something to do with it, you know"
- Gullible....." would you prefer to have the boys grow up in a society like this?

(Any 2 well illustrated =4mks)

NB: use adjective to describe traits

c) Oppression.

-Petra is dismissed from her teaching position because of her father.

"They don't squeeze a free man's soul in a vice as they do here"

Misuse of power.

"The landlord dare not do otherwise ...but on account of his fellow citizen"

-The landlord is acting on behalf of somebody who wishes to see Dr.Stockmann suffer for his stand.

(Any two well-illustrated=4mks)

d) -their house is stoned and all their windows broken.

- an eviction notice from the landlord

-their daughter has been dismissed from her teaching job.

-the doctor loses his job

-they have torn his trousers.

-the doctor has been branded an enemy of the people.

-the boys have been dismissed from school due to their father's stand

(any 6 points= 6mks)

e)-Petra has been given a notice of dismissal.

-The head of the school had been threatened with three other letters to have her dismissed. (2mks)

f) - He reveals a lot about the polluted state of the Baths which is the main artery of the town's economy.

-His efforts to have the authorities relay the water pipes for the safety of the citizens is seen as a way of taxing the rate payers and therefore a burden to the citizens hence he is declared an enemy of the people.

(3mks)

g) They turn every idea on its head.

(1mk)

h) Common people.....ordinary citizens/ civilians

Sufficient.....enough

Independent minded.....ability to make decisions without being influenced.

(3mks)

Question 3

a)i) Fable-----it is an animal story with a moral lesson. Squirrel and elephant are the main characters.

ii) Trickster story-----the squirrel tricks the elephant to a contest and uses tricks to win it.

Any of the 2..... (2mks)

b)-use of narration

-Use of direct speech-brings out clearly what the characters in the story think and say.

-opening formula....."one day....."

-closing formula....."And from that day to this....."

(Any three features well illustrated= 6mks)

c) Character traits of:

(i) Elephant

- Gluttonous/ greedy.....ate without control until he could not stand.
- Unwise.....was not keen to ensure that squirrel played according to the rules of the contest.
- Proud and arrogant....." I am the greatest and everyone knows it." (2mks)

(ii) Squirrel

- Daring/brave.....confronted elephant in spite of his huge size.
- Cunning and witty.....involved her relatives in the contest to win over elephant. (2mks)

(Any 1 identification of trait well illustrated)

d) - Pride comes before a fall -Elephant was defeated in the contest by the tiny squirrel

- Knowledge is power -squirrel used knowledge not power to win the contest.

(And any other 2 points well illustrated=4mks)

e) One economic activity is farming; they grew palm nuts, acacia and other plants. (2mks)

f) Animals are used in this narrative to depict the cunning nature of the squirrel who is small against the folly of the huge Elephant who is defeated in a contest despite his size. They are used to represent social virtues or vices in a story. (2mks)

4. GRAMMAR

a) (i) proudly

(ii) quarrelsome

(iii) definition

(iv) belief (4mks)

b)(i) It is an important occasion

(ii) The site was lovely

(iii) It is embarrassing to mispronounce words (3mks)

c) (i) for

(ii) on

(iii) from

(iv) over (4mks)

d. (i) would not have bitten

(ii) cost (2mks)

e) (i) "I want to go home", He said

or

He said, "I want to go home".

(ii) James regrets not working harder at school.

(2mks)