INTRODUCTION

Faith is one of the basic virtues we need as Christians, in fact, you cannot say you are a Christian without declaring your faith in Jesus Christ. For us Christians to grow spiritually we need faith, faith sets us apart for the mighty works of the Lord upon our lives; the apostles and the prophets of old were put right with God through faith. With faith, we can overcome the challenges and tribulations that come our way as Christians.

Unfortunately, there are Christians who lack faith or fail to exercise this free gift God has given to each one of us. Faith is like a seed; just like we have the parable of the Sower who had seeds that fell on the different path, the same way each one of us has been given the seed of faith to nurture and allow to grow. For most Christians who have neglected their faith, they continue to struggle and wallow in sin. But for those who chose to watch over their faith, they have witnessed tremendous growth in their Christian vocation.

We live in a world where there is lack of faith in God; a lot of people believe in their own strength, some Christians have lost faith in God because of the challenges and distraction of this world. As Christians, we are meant to guard our faith jealously and not allow the devil to steal our blessings. It was by faith that Abraham was able to claim his blessings, it was by faith that the apostles worked signs and wonders. We need faith please God. We need faith for our spiritual growth; we need faith to make our world a better place. If Christians can live out their faith effectively and be faithful to God, our world would be a better place.

Faith is a free gift from God, we cannot earn it with our money, but there is something we can do with our faith. We can grow it! How can we grow our faith? Growing your faith requires sacrifice and patience, we need an open and teachable spirit to be able to learn to grow our faith because faith does not work alone but requires other spiritual gifts like love, obedience, and patience. Look at Abraham, for example, he was obedient to the core, this enabled him to grow his faith and understood the plan of God for his life, he never questions God or asked How is it possible? All he did was obey the instructions given to him by God.

We can grow our faith by the constant hearing of the word of God and building a healthy relationship with the fellowship of our brethren. The early church lived a life of community and fellowship; this was how their faith was nurtured. We need to work in harmony with our Christian brothers and sisters so we can grow our faith as Christians.

The importance of faith in the life of a believer are numerous, let's take a look at a few of them.

Faith:

- Builds our confidence and trust in God.
- Enables us to achieve the impossible.
- Uplifts us.
- Takes us to a new level in the spirit.

- Enables us to act the way God wants of us.
- Activates and revives our spirit.
- Builds our character.
- Makes us be bold and courageous.
- Enables us to fight our fears.

Every Christian needs faith for the following reasons:

- To expand your coast.
- To overcome fear and the enemy.
- To have access to the Father.
- To be renewed in the spirit.
- To receive blessings and favors from God.
- To break curses, vices and the powers of darkness.
- For a renewal and manifestation of the power of God.
- To set those in captives free and restore wholeness to those suffering afflictions of various sorts.

We cannot do without faith; let us ask our Lord to increase our faith as the apostles did after witnessing the mighty works of faith.

This book Exercise Your Faith teach strictly on the various needs and categories of faith and how we can build up and exercise our faith and achieve tremendous success, restoration, healing, breakthroughs, and fruitfulness in our lives.

CHAPTER ONE

Faith for Healing

Every Christian needs healing at one point in their life because we live in a world full of imperfection and we possess a body that is weak and fragile and besides there are various challenges that we face in our day to day living as humans and as believers and because of this, we need faith for healing to overcome these challenges. One fact that is certain in the healing works of Christ is that he came to heal us in all ramification both body and soul. Christ came to heal us and restore wholeness to those with deformities; this is evident in his works to restore healing to those who needed healing.

For those suffering from emotional pains and broken heart, Christ brought peace. For those suffering from physical defects, Christ brought restoration; he also delivered those who were in bondage to sin.

The healing Jesus is still available to heal us from our various limitations and problems, but he needs something from us which is our faith. Christ wants us to trust him and believe in him that he can heal us and bring back life into us.

Faith for Healing Bodily Sickness

We need more faith in our world, those who can stand up boldly and proclaim the Good News of our savior Jesus Christ, many Christians are suffering from various sickness and disease. Some believers are held bound with Cancer, Heart disease, Diabetes, Kidney infection, Ulcer, HIV etc.

These have made them sad, worried and downcast. Some have lost their appetite for food and battling seriously with their health condition, some have become homebound, and others have been admitted to the hospital and have remained in their hospital beds for years. Our world needs the healing touch from the Lord to revive those who are sick. You may have your loved ones who are seriously sick and in the hos pital crying for healing.

The healing Jesus is still available, he is still touching lives and he is ever ready to heal your loved ones who are sick.

I want you to cast your mind back to the story of the woman with a hemorrhage. In fact, her real name was never mentioned in the bible because that doesn't count, what counts most is faith in the Healing Jesus who can cure every disease. She convinced herself and said to herself "If only I could touch the helm of his garment I would be well again" and indeed though she was weak she struggled and made her way through the crowds and touched Jesus and her disease stopped that instant.

Now I want you to stand in the gap; I want you to begin to build up your faith in the Risen Lord, I want you to begin to make some positive declarations into the life of that sick loved one. Declare healing now! Receive the power to heal that fellow now! Go ahead declare healing and let the power of the Holy Ghost flow through you into that fellow that is sick, don't think how it's going to happen whether you are capable or not but just begin to call the name of the HEALING JESUS; ensure to use that name.

Say: Let the power and the blood of the risen Jesus fill the body of that sick person, do it with faith and see the mighty works of Jesus.

Please, if you are the one suffering from the disease all you have to do is place your hands on your head and declare the power of the healing Lord into your system and command the disease to go!

Ensure to read the word of God and make this exercise regularly and believe in the power of the Risen Lord to cure sicknesses and diseases.

Faith to Heal Emotional Pains

Each one of us needs emotional healing because we get hurt from time to time while growing up, someone we trusted might have betrayed and hurt our emotion. Jesus himself was betrayed and neglected too by his disciples; he pleaded with them at his passion to keep watch with him for one hour but they could not.

First it was Judas who betrayed him and sold him to his enemies for 30 pieces of silver; next, it was Peter who would deny him three times. The other apostles ran away during his passion except John the beloved and his mother Mary.

Sometimes, God allows that we feel emotional pains so we can grow in our faith; he uses these challenges to teach us some lessons about our faith and about life. He also uses these challenges sometimes to draw us back to himself, because for some of us, we will be so carried away with the affairs of this world and never remember God until we are hurt and so God uses these avenues to humble us, teach us, correct us and draw us back to himself.

They were many people in scriptures who also suffered emotional pains and betrayal, a good example is Job; now Job lost his kids and wealth, his wife and friends abandoned him and he felt empty, the prophets of old too felt betrayal and neglect.

If you are suffering from emotional pains such as depression, anxiety, rejection, frustration, broken relationships, isolation, fear, betrayal, failure etc. I want you to trust in the power of the reason Lord who has come to restore wholeness both in mind, body, and soul.

Begin to confess to him, speak against that torture! Ask Christ to heal your mind, place your hands in your chest, if you are praying for someone, all you have to do is stretch out your hands and declare.

Now receive the healing touch from the Lord! Receive it I say! Command that pain to go! In the name of Jesus, men.

Faith to be Free From Sin

Sin is among the greatest enemy of man; sin made man lost his glory at the Garden of Eden, sin brings disgrace and judgment to man, so many people suffered from the bondage of sin during the time of Jesus. We discover that Christ uses the word "Your sins are forgiven" because he was aware of the damage sin has brought to many that came for bodily healing, and Jesus restores spiritual wholeness by casting out sin first before he begins bodily healing.

There was a wonderful event that took place in the house of Simon who was a Pharisee. Simon invited Jesus for a dinner, and while at dinner, behold a sinful woman showed up uninvited with an alabaster jar of oil anointing the feet of Christ and wiping it with her hair.

This woman was tired of her sinful life, she wanted a change of heart and forgiveness of her sins so that she could be set free from the stronghold of sin, but she could not summon the courage to tell Jesus. However, her faith made her devised a plan to get the attention of Jesus; she took a jar of oil and anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped it with her hair. This plan eventually became a success.

For the others that were present, including Simon, this woman has lost all opportunity and doesn't deserve forgiveness or recognition. However, her faith broke all obstacles and she got what she wanted. In verse 50 of Luke, Seven Christ would declare "Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

I don't know what damage sin has done to your life, but what I do know is that Jesus has the power to set you free from whatever stronghold of sin that is holding you bound from living your spiritual life to the fullest.

I want you now to rise up and begin to declare against every form of sin in your life. Declare that Christ has come to dwell inside of you and therefore sin has no part in you. Receive the resurrection power to drive out sin completely from your life!

Faith Healing From Possession and Addiction

In the time of Jesus, they were many people suffering from possession, and addiction of various sought; Jesus was always casting out devils.

His work of deliverance was so frequent that he was accused of casting out devils by the power of the prince of demon Beelzebul.

In our contemporary world, many people are still in the captivity of Satan in the form of possession and addiction.

The story of the little boy who was possessed by an Epileptic spirit is a perfect example of possession.

This little boy suffered so many afflictions in the hands of this demon and often times the demon would try to kill him by throwing into a fire or pool of water; however, the anointing of Jesus to break every yoke was readily available to set the little boy free.

When Christ came into the scene he discovered that his apostles were unable to cure the boy because they lacked faith, Jesus would further summon the father of the boy to have faith for the healing to be manifested in his son's life. Now in one command in verse 25 of Mark 9, Jesus drove out the demon that tormented this little boy all through his life.

I don't know what's troubling your spirit, I don't know the affliction or addiction you are going through but Jesus is asking you to have faith today just as he asked the father of the boy to have faith. Everything is possible to those who have faith. I want you to speak against every affliction of sin and possession; exercise the authority God has given to you in his word in Mark 6:7 and James 4:7 and put a stop to the manipulation of the devil in your life.

CHAPTER TWO

Faith for Restoration

In John chapter 2 there was a wedding at Cana, and Christ and his disciples were present, along the line, there was a lack, the couples ran out of wine.

Wine symbolizes fruitfulness, wealth and glory but this couple became short of these wonderful blessings and needed restoration to former glory. But something was required to achieve this glory which is faith, obedience, and intercession. To the glory of God, someone who knew Christ very well was present; his mother Mary.

In verse 5 she would say to the servants: "Do whatever he tells you". And by mere obedience to the instructions of the Lord to fill the empty jars; restoration was brought back to the once lost glory.

Christ wants to bring back the glory you have lost, he wants you to be fruitful once again, he wants you to expand your coast and experience unlimited breakthrough, but he needs your co-operation, he needs your faith and your obedience to his word.

As believers, we are destined for greatness, we are a privileged people who have been called by God and given the power to become sons and daughters of God. Endeavor to exercise the faith God has given to you.

Faith to Restore Lost Glory

God has crowned each one of us in glory. When he created man he gave him glory to rule over other created things and placed man in the garden to take charge of it. Jesus himself declared that he has come that we may have a life to the full. God destined each one of us for divine blessings and favor; however, the devil who is a roaring lion has gone about stealing blessings from God's children. You should never allow him to steal your blessings.

Bartimaeus the son of Timaeus lost his glory as a result of blindness. Now, the name Timaeus means 'To honor' or 'Honoring' the name Bartimaeus means son of Timaeus. It follows therefore that the true meaning of the name of the blind man connotes the son of an honorable man who in turn should reflect the honor of his father. Unfortunately because of his blindness, the son of the honored became dishonored.

However, faith will make a difference in this man's life and restore back the glory he once lost. And so it happened that the Messiah was passing through the wonderful city of Jericho and behold Bartimaeus was aware of the presence of Jesus and he began to shout "Son of David take pity on me." Now in verse 52 of Mark 10 when Christ asked him "What do you want me to do for you" he answered, "I want to see again." And behold his sight was restored.

You may have been like Bartimaeus before, enjoying the blessings and glory God has given to you; but the devil came around and tempered with your glory and honor and made you blind to holiness, wealth, peace, health, joy etc. But I assure you today Christ is passing by you! You must, therefore, rise up in faith and shout like Bartimaeus "Son of David take pity on me." And finally, you must declare before Jesus that you want to see again so he could restore your sight.

Faith For Success and Breakthrough

There is also the faith to bring forth success and breakthrough, many Christians today are not fulfilled, and they are not living out the fullness of the abundance Jesus has left for us his children. They continue to toil without getting a reward for their labor. They need a breakthrough in what they do for a living.

Peter was fishing at Lake Gennesaret, he toiled all through the night but caught nothing; he became frustrated and gave up. However, when Christ came into the scene, his story changed for good. He experienced a turnaround in his occupation. The story of Peter is unique because he obeyed the instruction that was given to him by Jesus.

God has given us instructions in his word; all we have to do is key into God's word and receive the blessing promised by God. Peter experience was a breakthrough because he never caught any fish initially, but when Jesus came into his occupation he caught such an abundant amount of fish that their nets were about to break.

I pray for you today, you shall experience a breakthrough like Peter in whatever you lay your hands upon; I pray you to experience a turnaround and thanksgiving shall never depart your lips in Jesus name Amen.

Faith For Spiritual Upliftment

There are moments we feel crushed by the temptations and tribulations we face in this world. On such occasion we need a renewal in our spirit, we need a touch from the Lord. It is also the desire of Christ that we grow in righteousness and wholeness of mind and body.

In Mark chapter 1 Simon Peter's mother-in-law was down with fever, but when Christ came to her he took her by the hand and lifted her up and the fever left her. Her spirit that was down became revived by the healing power of Jesus.

I pray for you today, every spirit that wants to bring you down and crush your happiness, I command them to go out now in the name of Jesus. I want you to rise up and declare against every form of negativity in your life to be uprooted in Jesus name. Christ came that you may have life in abundance; may this be your portion in Jesus name Amen.

Faith in Union with the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is our greatest companion; we need to key into the power of the Holy Spirit for a revival and renewal of our spirit each time we feel overwhelmed by challenges that come our way.

The disciples of Jesus Christ were scared after the death of Jesus, and so for fear of the Jews they hid behind closed doors. But here comes Christ to restore peace to their souls by breathing the Holy Spirit into them to strengthen them in the journey of faith.

May the power of the Holy Spirit come upon you and revive your spirit in Jesus name Amen.

May His presence overwhelm you and give you lasting peace and joy in Jesus name Amen.

CHAPTER THREE

Faith to Break Curses and Barriers

There is the faith to break whatever stronghold that might want to bring us down, St Paul makes it clear in his letter to the Ephesians that we are fighting spiritual battles and we need to be armed with faith as a shield to put out the arrows shot by the evil one. We need faith to break the yoke of failure and unfruitfulness; Christ has given us the authority to overcome the forces of darkness, we need to exercise this authority by trusting solely on Jesus to overcome the enemy.

Faith to Break Unfruitfulness

Christ wants us to be fruitful in what we do, we see this in John 15:16. If we anchor to him who is the vine we would definitely bear fruits.

There were people in the bible who were unfruitful, but because of their faith and obedience, they broke the chain of unfruitfulness.

Hannah, for example, could not conceive, she was unfruitful and this caused her great distress, however her faith in God turned her misfortune into fortune and her disgrace into grace through the intercession of the priest Eli. Similarly, there was this widow of Zarephath in the time of the great prophet Elijah during the drought in Israel, she has given up hope, and all she bargained for was to prepare her last meal for herself and her son and after then starvation till death. But here comes the great prophet of God who came to break the yoke of death and unfruitfulness from this widow's life, and by obedience to the instructions of the prophet of God, her Jar of oil never ran dry but flowed in abundance.

I prophesy for you today, your jar of oil will never run dry in Jesus name, you will be fruitful and you shall overcome.

The story of Peter who was a skillful fisherman was also a similar occurrence. He toiled all through the night but caught nothing; his skills could not help him, he was unfruitful and frustrated! But here comes Jesus the bestowal of abundance who came and broke the chains of unfruitfulness from Peter. In fact, Peter witnessed such as great catch that he beckoned for assistance. May you like Peter witness abundance in Jesus name Amen.

Certain similar facts run through the three encounters above:

- There was great distress
- There was unfruitfulness
- There were a divine visitation and intercession (Priest, Prophet, Christ)
- There was an instruction
- There was obedience to the instruction given
- And finally, there was a miracle

I pray for you today, you shall receive divine visitation in your moment of distress.

I pray for you to experience a miracle of fruitfulness and favor in areas of lack in your life in Jesus name Amen.

Faith to Break Limitations

There are so many limitations trying to pull us down as believers; limitations from within such as weaknesses and doubts; limitations from the world that is, lack of faith we see around us and wicked people who don't want us to achieve progress. Limitations from the devil, who tries to trick us, tempt us or torment us. But in all of these Christ has come to rescue us from whatever limitations that tries to pull us down.

The event that took place at Jericho, between Zacchaeus and Jesus serve as motivation for us to overcome whatever limitations that come our way through faith.

Zacchaeus had a bad reputation as a tax collector, but when he heard that Jesus was passing by he never allowed his reputation to discourage him from joining the crowd, in fact, some could have been wondering "what's this sinful tax collector doing here?" but that never bothered him. Similarly, here comes his great limitation; his height! Zacchaeus was a short man; his height prevented him from seeing Jesus. But because he had faith he broke the chains of limitation which was his height. He ran ahead of the crowd which was another limitation and climbed a sycamore tree and saw Jesus. Now, Jesus who knows the secret thoughts of man saw the great expression of the faith of this man and blessed him.

I pray that every limitation that tries to pull you down in whatever form (reputation, height, crowd) shall be brought down in Jesus name Amen.

You shall experience peace, favor, success, and breakthrough in Jesus name Amen.

Faith to Escape God's Wrath

We serve a merciful God who is full of mercy and who blesses us and forgives our sins. But on the contrary, if we try to profane the name of the Lord and make a jest of his goodness and patience, his wrath might fall on us.

In Luke 13 the people were criticizing the Galileans Pilate killed who were offering sacrifices to God. Christ made them understand that they were not holier than those who died, and if they fail to turn from their sins they might as well face the same fate.

There is also the story of the fig tree that refused to bear fruits. And when Jesus took a closer look and discovered there was no fruit, he cursed the tree and the following day the disciples of Jesus saw that the tree was completely dried up.

In Acts chapter 5 the story of Ananias and his wife Sapphira was dramatic and terrifying; they tried to trick the apostles not knowing it was God they were actually dealing with, what happened, in the end, was that the wrath of God fell on them and they died.

We should pray to always act in obedience to God's word and not do something contrary to his will.

It is my prayer that we should have sincere faith in God and avoid anything contrary that may attract his curse in Jesus name Amen.

Faith to Overcome Calamities

There is the faith to overcome calamities of various sort, there are calamities surrounding us in our world; we hear of disease outbreaks, Terrorism, Hurricane, Earthquakes, and Tsunami etc. These events often create fear and tension. People are no longer safe in our world, but in all these trials God will keep his children safe from calamities.

Jesus was in a boat with his disciples, and suddenly there was a great storm that almost sank the boat, now, Jesus was behind sleeping. His disciples woke him up for fear they might sink! Christ stood up and gave a command and the wind died down.

Jesus has the power to calm every storm or calamity that might want to afflict us. We should always call on him like the apostles to calm whatever terror that we are feeling inside.

CHAPTER FOUR

Faith for Upliftment

It is the desire of God that we should prosper, at creation God blessed man and asked him to be fruitful and multiply, also in the feeding of the crowd, Christ used five loaves and two fish to feed five thousand men and there was left over with twelve baskets full. We serve a God of multiplication who can transform little into plenty. God wants us to prosper and achieve the purpose for a wish he created us.

Faith and Grace

The grace of God rests upon us his children, by the power of his resurrection Christ has conquered death. He has rescued us from sin by his sacrifice on the cross of Calvary. He is the vine we are his branches, there is so much grace available for us to tap into for Christ has secured it all for us. The scripture rightly put that the curtain of the temple was torn from top to bottom, the windows of heaven are wide open and the glory and blessings of God have rained down upon us.

Jesus imparted grace upon his apostles before he left them; he gave them the authority to cast out demons and to heal all kinds of diseases and sicknesses. When he sent out the 72 men for evangelization, he also gave them authority and through the power of God, they overcame the devil.

Finally, before his ascension, he commissioned his apostle and gave them the authority to preach the gospel to the ends of the earth and confer baptism on all who believe.

Jesus has secured many graces for us his children, all we have to do is to key onto the graces he has secured for us through faith.

Faith for Revival

We need to express our faith; this was exactly what the apostles did. Faith without works is dead and we walk by faith, not by sight. We need faith for revival to transform our world and win converts for Jesus. It is time we wake up from our slumber, enough of timid Christians, we need Christians who can stand boldly and proclaim the word of God, we need Christians who are ready to go the extra mile and proclaim the gospel of salvation Christ has come to establish.

On the day of Pentecost, there was a great revival, the power of the Holy Spirit came down mightily upon the apostles; first, it was in the form of a rushing wind and later there were tongues of fire. The power of the Holy Ghost was so mighty on the apostles that they began to speak in strange tongues, and the people wondered if they were drunk.

We need a new Pentecost in our lives, we need a new touch from the Lord, and we need a revival.

Similarly, Paul and Silas expressed the revival spirit when they were thrown into prison; and instead of complaining and giving in to despair, they refused to sleep in the middle of the night but started praising God. Once again the power of the Holy Ghost fell and the chains fell off their hands and feet. The power of faith and revival can bring about a change and transformation into your life.

I want you to stand up and declare the mighty power of the Holy Ghost to fall upon you and transform whatever ugly situation that is not aligned with the plan of God to become straighten right now in the name of Jesus Amen.

Faith For the Church

The early church witnessed tremendous success and expansion because God was with them and was working mightily through the apostles. They always gathered to pray and the power of the Holy Ghost was with them and they worked signs and wonders; the believers increased rapidly in numbers. They were united in faith and purpose.

When Peter was arrested by Herod, the church was united in prayers and faith and because of their fervent prayers; heaven had no option than to send an angel of the Lord to rescue Peter from his captures.

I pray heaven shall send you a visiting angel who will come and rescue you from your tribulations in Jesus name Amen.

Faith for Prophecies, Revelation and Spiritual Insight

There are wonderful declarations and prophecies available for us in the word of God. In Acts 2:17 Peter declared that in last days the children of God shall prophesy. This is the will of the father, we shall prophesy in the name of the Lord and we shall proclaim his message.

Philip had an encounter with the Ethiopian eunuch in Acts 8 and there was a revelation of the word of God to the Ethiopian eunuch who desired an understanding of God's word, the word of God enlightened his mind and he was fit for baptism. This for him became his moment of conversion and the revelation of Jesus in his life.

Paul who was initially called Saul was spiritually blind, he took permission from the High Priest and was on his way to further persecute Christians; however, his plan never saw the light of the day as Jesus intercepted him and struck him blind. This event became a turning point in the life of Saul who would later be called Paul. And by the revelation of the Holy Spirit, Ananias will be sent to set Saul free from his spiritual blindness and open his eyes to gain spiritual insight.

God wants to reveal great things to you, he wants to show you his awesome power, he wants you to prophesy, he wants to impart the revelation of his word into your soul and give you spiritual insight. Are you ready for these wonderful gifts and blessings? Why not open your heart with faith and declare these blessings into your soul for an inward transformation.

CHAPTER FIVE

Overcoming Faithlessness

It is very easy to doubt God or express faithlessness most especially in a world that has little faith in the things of God. Look at Naaman the Syrian for example, the prophet of God Elisha gave a simple instruction for him to go and wash himself in the River Jordan seven times and be healed but he doubted, it was the servant that persuaded him to obey a simple instruction from the prophet of God that brought back healing and restoration.

Often times we see the things of God as common and unimportant but there lays the solution to our problems; God demands that we express faith in his word so that his grace and power can locate us.

Faith for Fighting Fear

Fear is the enemy; fear creates a false impression of reality. We should never allow fear to take over us. We should always have faith and believe in God. We should speak against any form of fear that may want to arise in our lives and in our family. Peter saw Jesus walking on the water and his faith grew that he called out to Jesus for him to come over on the water. Peter did the impossible by working on water because he focused on Christ. But when he saw the wind fear gripped him, he was distracted, he lost focus on Jesus and lost faith and so he began to sink. However, he cried out to the Lord for help who came to his rescue and drew him from the water.

I want you to speak against any form of fear in your life your life, declare the word of God into that aspect of your life and get rid of fear completely in Jesus name Amen.

Faith for Fighting Doubt

Do you have doubts about God? Do you have doubts about yourself?

Christ wants you to doubt no more for he has come to restore hope and to restore life.

The story of Zechariah the father of John the Baptist was a remarkable encounter. The message of the Lord came to him through the Archangel Gabriel that his wife Elizabeth in her old age would conceive. Zechariah doubted the message of the angel, and for his doubt, he was struck dumb until the child was delivered and about to be named that his speech was restored.

Now I want you to speak against any form of doubts about the plan of God in your life, begin to declare that faith is your portion and that the purpose for which God created you must come to pass in your life in Jesus name Amen.

Faith for Fighting Hopeless Conditions

There are several conditions in a man's life that may seem hopeless and irreversible, but we serve a God who can transform hopeless cases and turn things around for our good.

If you remember the story Lazarus a very dear friend to Jesus; yet when Christ got the report that he was sick he stayed back for two more days until Lazarus had died. Sometimes the situation we are passing through might be like that of Lazarus which was a completely hopeless case but I assure you, if you believe and do not doubt the power of God, he too can restore your hopeless condition.

Now, after staying back for two more days he went to visit Lazarus relatives; the scene was full of weeping and mourning, it was indeed a moment of grief for the family of Lazarus, tears flowed uncontrollably, in fact when the sisters of Lazarus heard that Christ was present, they rushed out to meet him and wept bitterly; now Christ assured them that if they believe they will see the glory of God come to pass.

Now, Christ ordered that the stone is rolled away even though the body had been buried for four days.

Christ called out in a loud voice "Lazarus, come out!" and a dead man heard the voice of Jesus and came out alive.

What is that hopeless condition in your life that is dead and you think nothing can be done to overcome the problem? What is that stone that has tied down your health, your finances, your courage, and your joy? Now is the time to roll away that stone and command that situation to be restored back to sanity, for the risen Lord is here to set you free.

I want to begin to declare against that situation, speak against it that Christ is here to restore hope and peace. Go on open your mouth and pray against it.

Conclusion

I believe you have been blessed by the message of hope and motivation in this book. Also, I congratulate you that the blessings of God have been established in your life.
