NEW INTERNATIONAL READER'S VERSION

NIrV
HOLY BIBLE

New International Reader's Version

NIrV

Holy Bible

ZONDERVAN®

The Holy Bible, New International Reader's Version®
Copyright © 1995, 1996, 1998, 2014 by Biblica, Inc.®
All rights reserved

Published by Zondervan
3900 Sparks Drive SE
Grand Rapids, Michigan 49546, U.S.A.

www.zondervan.com

eISBN: 9780310744528

Library of Congress Catalog Card Number 2014939189

The "NIrV" and "New International Reader's Version" are trademarks registered in the United States Patent and Trademark Office by Biblica, Inc.® Use of either trademark requires the permission of Biblica, Inc.®

The NIrV text may be quoted in any form (written, visual, electronic or audio), up to and inclusive of five hundred (500) verses without express written permission of the publisher, providing the verses quoted do not amount to a complete book of the Bible nor do the verses quoted account for 25 percent or more of the total text of the work in which they are quoted.

Notice of copyright must appear on the title or copyright page of the work as follows:

> Scriptures taken from The Holy Bible, New International Reader's Version®, NIrV®. Copyright © 1995, 1996, 1998, 2014 by Biblica, Inc.® Used by permission. All rights reserved worldwide.

When quotations from the NIrV text are used in non-saleable media, such as church bulletins, orders of service, posters, transparencies or similar media, a complete copyright notice is not required, but the initials (NIrV) must appear at the end of each quotation.

Any commentary or other biblical reference work produced for commercial sale that uses the New International Reader's Version must obtain written permission for use of the NIrV text.

Permission requests for commercial use within the USA and Canada that exceeds the above guidelines must be directed to and approved in writing by Zondervan, 3900 Sparks Drive, Grand Rapids, MI 49546, USA. www.Zondervan.com

Permission requests for commercial use within the UK, EU and EFTA that exceeds the above guidelines must be directed to and approved in writing by Hodder & Stoughton Limited, 338 Euston Road, London NW1 3BH, United Kingdom. www.Hodder.co.uk

Permission requests for non-commercial use that exceeds the above guidelines must be directed to and approved in writing by Biblica US, Inc., 1820 Jet Stream Drive, Colorado Springs, CO 80921, USA. www.Biblica.com

Any Internet addresses (websites, blogs, etc.) and telephone numbers in this Bible are offered as a resource. They are not intended in any way to be or imply an endorsement by Zondervan, nor does Zondervan vouch for the content of these sites and numbers for the life of the Bible.

All rights reserved.

You will be pleased to know that a portion of the purchase price of your new NIrV Bible has been provided to Biblica, Inc.® to help spread the gospel of Jesus Christ around the world!

Table of Contents

How to Use This Bible
A Word About The New International Reader's Version

OLD TESTAMENT

NEW TESTAMENT

OLD TESTAMENT

Genesis
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24 | 25 | 26 | 27 | 28 | 29 | 30 | 31 | 32 | 33 | 34 | 35 | 36 | 37 | 38 | 39 | 40 | 41 | 42 | 43 | 44 | 45 | 46 | 47 | 48 | 49 | 50

Exodus
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24 | 25 | 26 | 27 | 28 | 29 | 30 | 31 | 32 | 33 | 34 | 35 | 36 | 37 | 38 | 39 | 40

Leviticus
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24 | 25 | 26 | 27

Numbers
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24 | 25 | 26 | 27 | 28 | 29 | 30 | 31 | 32 | 33 | 34 | 35 | 36

Deuteronomy
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24 | 25 | 26 | 27 | 28 | 29 | 30 | 31 | 32 | 33 | 34

Joshua
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24

Judges
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21

Ruth
1 | 2 | 3 | 4

1 Samuel
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24 | 25 | 26 | 27 | 28 | 29 | 30 | 31

2 Samuel
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24

1 Kings
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22

2 Kings

1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24 | 25

---

1 Chronicles
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24 | 25 | 26 | 27 | 28 | 29

---

2 Chronicles
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24 | 25 | 26 | 27 | 28 | 29 | 30 | 31 | 32 | 33 | 34 | 35 | 36

Ezra
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10

Nehemiah
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13

Esther
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10

Job
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24 | 25 | 26 | 27 | 28 | 29 | 30 | 31 | 32 | 33 | 34 | 35 | 36 | 37 | 38 | 39 | 40 | 41 | 42

Psalms
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24 | 25 | 26 | 27 | 28 | 29 | 30 | 31 | 32 | 33 | 34 | 35 | 36 | 37 | 38 | 39 | 40 | 41 | 42 | 43 | 44 | 45 | 46 | 47 | 48 | 49 | 50 | 51 | 52 | 53 | 54 | 55 | 56 | 57 | 58 | 59 | 60 | 61 | 62 | 63 | 64 | 65 | 66 | 67 | 68 | 69 | 70 | 71 | 72 | 73 | 74 | 75 | 76 | 77 | 78 | 79 | 80 | 81 | 82 | 83 | 84 | 85 | 86 | 87 | 88 | 89 | 90 | 91 | 92 | 93 | 94 | 95 | 96 | 97 | 98 | 99 | 100 | 101 | 102 | 103 | 104 | 105 | 106 | 107 | 108 | 109 | 110 | 111 | 112 | 113 | 114 | 115 | 116 | 117 | 118 | 119 | 120 | 121 | 122 | 123 | 124 | 125 | 126 | 127 | 128 | 129 | 130 | 131 | 132 | 133 | 134 | 135 | 136 | 137 | 138 | 139 | 140 | 141 | 142 | 143 | 144 | 145 | 146 | 147 | 148 | 149 | 150

Proverbs
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24 | 25 | 26 | 27 | 28 | 29 | 30 | 31

Ecclesiastes
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12

Song of Songs
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8

Isaiah
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24 | 25 | 26 | 27 | 28 |

29 | 30 | 31 | 32 | 33 | 34 | 35 | 36 | 37 | 38 | 39 | 40 | 41 | 42 | 43 | 44 | 45 | 46 | 47 | 48 | 49 | 50 | 51 | 52 | 53 | 54 | 55 | 56 | 57 | 58 | 59 | 60 | 61 | 62 | 63 | 64 | 65 | 66

Jeremiah
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24 | 25 | 26 | 27 | 28 | 29 | 30 | 31 | 32 | 33 | 34 | 35 | 36 | 37 | 38 | 39 | 40 | 41 | 42 | 43 | 44 | 45 | 46 | 47 | 48 | 49 | 50 | 51 | 52

Lamentations
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5

Ezekiel
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24 | 25 | 26 | 27 | 28 | 29 | 30 | 31 | 32 | 33 | 34 | 35 | 36 | 37 | 38 | 39 | 40 | 41 | 42 | 43 | 44 | 45 | 46 | 47 | 48

Daniel
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12

Hosea
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14

Joel
1 | 2 | 3

Amos
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9

Obadiah
1

Jonah
1 | 2 | 3 | 4

Micah
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7

Nahum
1 | 2 | 3

Habakkuk
1 | 2 | 3

Zephaniah
1 | 2 | 3

Haggai
1 | 2

Zechariah
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14

Malachi
1 | 2 | 3 | 4

NEW TESTAMENT

Matthew
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24 | 25 | 26 | 27 | 28

Mark
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16

Luke
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24

John
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21

Acts
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24 | 25 | 26 | 27 | 28

Romans
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16

1 Corinthians
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16

2 Corinthians
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13

Galatians
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6

Ephesians
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6

Philippians
1 | 2 | 3 | 4

Colossians
1 | 2 | 3 | 4

---

1 Thessalonians
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5

---

2 Thessalonians
1 | 2 | 3

---

1 Timothy
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6

---

2 Timothy
1 | 2 | 3 | 4

Titus
1 | 2 | 3

Philemon
1

Hebrews
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13

James
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5

---

1 Peter
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5

---

2 Peter
1 | 2 | 3

---

1 John
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5

---

2 John
1

---

3 John

1

Jude
1

Revelation
1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22

How to Use This Bible

Thank you for purchasing the HarperCollins Christian Publishing eBook version from Thomas Nelson and Zondervan's excellent line of Bible translations that exist to serve Christians who not only recognize the Bible's importance, but who also want a Bible to treasure in their lifelong pursuit of the knowledge of God's revelation of Himself.

There are a multitude of Bibles available to engage children, youth, men, and women with the Word of God, including Text Only, Daily, Devotional, Reference, and Comprehensive Study.

What is the difference between an eBook and a print book?

eBook versions of various Bibles contain all of the content and supplementary materials found in the original print versions and are optimized for navigation in the various apps and devices used for display. eReaders recognize text as one fluid string and are formatted in a single column. eReaders currently do not support the more complex layout seen in print version books. Therefore, some content may not appear in the same place as in the original print version, but it is structured consistently and uses hyperlinks to navigate between related content.

How do I use the eBook Table of Contents?

Important Note: Be sure to consult your device manufacturer's User's Guide for device-specific navigation instructions.

The Table of Contents is the primary navigation anchor to quickly access various parts of the Bible and is generally formatted in the same order as the original print version and hyperlinked as follows:

- Front matter – Introductory articles
- Old Testament
- New Testament
- Bible books
- Bible chapters

Old Testament and New Testament hyperlinks quickly access individual Bible books and chapters in each testament.

- Book links go directly to the beginning of that Bible book.
- Chapter links go directly to the beginning of the chapter associated with a book.
- Every Bible book and chapter hyperlink returns or goes back to the Table of Contents.
- Every entry is hyperlinked directly to the content-specific location in the main text.
- Use the device's "back" button or function to go back to the last selection.

How do I navigate to Bible Books, Chapters, and Verses?

Use the Table of Contents to navigate to specific Bible verses using one of the 2 methods below:

Method 1

- Navigate to and select a specific book of the Bible from the Table of Contents.
- Select a chapter number hyperlink.
- Use the device's "Next Page/Previous Page" buttons or functions to scroll through the verses.
- Use the device's "back" button or function to go back to the last selection.

Method 2

- Select either the Old Testament or New Testament hyperlink in the Table of Contents.
- Use the device's "Next Page/Previous Page" buttons or functions to scroll through the Bible books.
- Select a chapter number hyperlink.
- Use the device's "Next Page/Previous Page" buttons or functions to scroll through the verses.
- Use the device's "back" button or function to go back to the last selection.

A Word About The New International Reader's Version

Have You Ever Heard of the New International Version?

We call it the NIV. Many people read the NIV. In fact, more people read the NIV than any other English Bible. They like it because it's easy to read and understand.

And now we are happy to give you another Bible that's easy to read and understand. It's the New International Reader's Version. We call it the NIrV.

Who Will Enjoy Reading the New International Reader's Version?

People who are just starting to read will understand and enjoy the NIrV. Children will be able to read it and understand it. So will older people who are learning how to read. People who are reading the Bible for the first time will be able to enjoy reading the NIrV. So will people who have a hard time understanding what they read. And so will people who use English as their second language. We hope this Bible will be just right for you.

How Is the NIrV Different From the NIV?

The NIrV is based on the NIV. The NIV Committee on Bible Translation (CBT) didn't produce the NIrV. But a few of us who worked on the NIrV are members of CBT. We worked hard to make the NIrV possible. We used the words of the NIV when we could. When the words of the NIV were too long, we used shorter words. We tried to use words that are easy to understand. We also made the sentences of the NIV much shorter.

Why did we do all these things? Because we wanted to make the NIrV very easy to read and understand.

What Other Helps Does the NIrV Have?

We decided to give you a lot of other help too. For example, sometimes a verse is quoted from another place in the Bible. When it is, we tell you the Bible book, chapter and verse it comes from. We put that information right after the verse that quotes from another place.

We separated each chapter into shorter sections. We gave a title to almost every chapter. Sometimes we even gave a title to a section. We did these things to help you understand what the chapter or section is all about.

Another example of a helpful change has to do with the word “Selah” in the Psalms. What this Hebrew word means is still not clear. So, for now, this word is not helpful for readers. The NIV has moved the word to the bottom of the page. We have followed the NIV and removed this Hebrew word from the NIrV. Perhaps one day we will learn what this word means. But until then, the Psalms are easier to read and understand without it.

Sometimes the writers of the Bible used more than one name for the same person or place. For example, in the New Testament the Sea of Galilee is also called the Sea of Gennesaret. Sometimes it is also called the Sea of Tiberias. But in the NIrV we decided to call it the Sea of Galilee everywhere it appears. We called it that because that is its most familiar name.

We also wanted to help you learn the names of people and places in the Bible. So sometimes we provided names even in verses where those names don’t actually appear. For example, sometimes the Bible says “the River” where it means “the Euphrates River.” In those places, we used the full name “the Euphrates River.” Sometimes the word “Pharaoh” in the Bible means “Pharaoh Hophra.” In those places, we used his full name “Pharaoh Hophra.” We did all these things in order to make the NIrV as clear as possible.

Does the NIrV Say What the First Writers of the Bible Said?

We wanted the NIrV to say just what the first writers of the Bible said. So we kept checking the Greek New Testament as we did our work. That’s because the New Testament’s first writers used Greek. We also kept checking the Hebrew Old Testament as we did our work. That’s because the Old Testament’s first writers used Hebrew.

We used the best copies of the Greek New Testament. We also used the best copies of the Hebrew Old Testament. Older English Bibles couldn’t use those copies because they had not yet been found. The oldest copies are best because they are closer in time to the ones the first Bible writers wrote. That’s why we kept checking the older copies instead of the newer ones.

Some newer copies of the Greek New Testament added several verses that the older ones don’t have. Sometimes it’s several verses in a row. This occurs at Mark 16:9–20 and John 7:53—8:11. We have included these verses in the NIrV. Sometimes the newer copies added only a single verse. An example is Mark 9:44. That verse is not in the oldest Greek New Testaments. So we put the verse number 43/44 right before Mark 9:43. You can look on the list below for Mark 9:44 and locate the verse that was added.

Verses That Were Not Found in Oldest Greek New Testaments

Matthew 17:21	But that kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting.
Matthew 18:11	The Son of Man came to save what was lost.
Matthew 23:14	How terrible for you, teachers of the law and Pharisees! You pretenders! You take over the houses of widows. You say long prayers to show off. So God will punish you much more.
Mark 7:16	Everyone who has ears to hear should listen.
Mark 9:44	In hell, / “ ‘the worms don’t die, / and the fire doesn’t go out.’
Mark 9:46	In hell, / “ ‘the worms don’t die, / and the fire doesn’t go out.’
Mark 11:26	But if you do not forgive, your Father who is in heaven will not forgive your sins either.
Mark 15:28	Scripture came true. It says, “And he was counted among those who disobey the law.”
Luke 17:36	Two men will be in the field. One will be taken and the other left.
Luke 23:17	It was Pilate’s duty to let one prisoner go free for them at the Feast.
John 5:4	From time to time an angel of the Lord would come down. The angel would stir up the waters. The first disabled person to go into the pool after it was stirred would be healed.
Acts 8:37	Philip said, “If you believe with all your heart, you can.” The official answered, “I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.”
Acts 15:34	But Silas decided to remain there.
Acts 24:7	But Lysias, the commander, came. By using a lot of force, he took Paul from our hands.

Acts 28:29	After he said that, the Jews left. They were arguing strongly among themselves.
Romans 16:24	May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with all of you. Amen.

What Is Our Prayer for You?

The Lord has blessed the New International Version in a wonderful way. He has used it to help millions of Bible readers. Many people have put their faith in Jesus after reading it. Many others have become stronger believers because they have read it.

We hope and pray that the New International Reader's Version will help you in the same way. If that happens, we will give God all the glory.

A Word About This Edition

This edition of the New International Reader's Version has been revised to include the changes of the New International Version. Over the years, many helpful changes have been made to the New International Version. Those changes were made because our understanding of the original writings is better. Those changes also include changes that have taken place in the English language. We wanted the New International Reader's Version to include those helpful changes as well. We wanted the New International Reader's Version to be as clear and correct as possible.

We want to thank the people who helped us prepare this new edition. They are Jeannine Brown from Bethel Seminary St. Paul, Yvonne Van Ee from Calvin College, Michael Williams from Calvin Theological Seminary, and Ron Youngblood from Bethel Seminary San Diego. We also want to thank the people at Biblica who encouraged and supported this work.

The

Old Testament

Genesis

Genesis 1

The Beginning

[1]In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. [2]The earth didn't have any shape. And it was empty. There was darkness over the surface of the waves. At that time, the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters.

[3]God said, "Let there be light." And there was light. [4]God saw that the light was good. He separated the light from the darkness. [5]God called the light "day." He called the darkness "night." There was evening, and there was morning. It was day one.

[6]God said, "Let there be a huge space between the waters. Let it separate water from water." [7]And that's exactly what happened. God made the huge space between the waters. He separated the water under the space from the water above it. [8]God called the huge space "sky." There was evening, and there was morning. It was day two.

[9]God said, "Let the water under the sky be gathered into one place. Let dry ground appear." And that's exactly what happened. [10]God called the dry ground "land." He called all the water that was gathered together "seas." And God saw that it was good.
[11]Then God said, "Let the land produce plants. Let them produce their own seeds. And let there be trees on the land that grow fruit with seeds in it. Let each kind of plant or tree have its own kind of seeds." And that's exactly what happened. [12]So the land produced plants. Each kind of plant had its own kind of seeds. And the land produced trees that grew fruit with seeds in it. Each kind of tree had its own kind of seeds. God saw that it was good. [13]There was evening, and there was morning. It was day three.

[14]God said, "Let there be lights in the huge space of the sky. Let them separate the day from the night. Let the lights set the times for the holy celebrations and the days and the years. [15]Let them be lights in the huge space of the sky to give light on the earth." And that's exactly what happened. [16]God made two great lights. He made the larger light to rule over the day and the smaller light to rule over the night. He also made the stars. [17]God put the lights in the huge space of the sky to give light on the earth. [18]He put them there to rule over the day and the night. He put them there to separate light from darkness. God saw that it was good. [19]There was evening, and there was morning. It was day four.

[20]God said, “Let the seas be filled with living things. Let birds fly above the earth across the huge space of the sky.” [21]So God created the great sea creatures. He created every kind of living thing that fills the seas and moves about in them. He created every kind of bird that flies. And God saw that it was good. [22]God blessed them. He said, “Have little ones so that there will be many of you. Fill the water in the seas. Let there be more and more birds on the earth.” [23]There was evening, and there was morning. It was day five.

[24]God said, “Let the land produce every kind of living creature. Let there be livestock, and creatures that move along the ground, and wild animals.” And that’s exactly what happened. [25]God made every kind of wild animal. He made every kind of livestock. He made every kind of creature that moves along the ground. And God saw that it was good.

[26]Then God said, “Let us make human beings so that they are like us. Let them rule over the fish in the seas and the birds in the sky. Let them rule over the livestock and all the wild animals. And let them rule over all the creatures that move along the ground.”

[27]So God created human beings in his own likeness.
He created them to be like himself.
He created them as male and female.

[28]God blessed them. He said to them, “Have children so that there will be many of you. Fill the earth and bring it under your control. Rule over the fish in the seas and the birds in the sky. Rule over every living creature that moves along the ground.”

[29]Then God said, “I am giving you every plant on the face of the whole earth that produces its own seeds. I am giving you every tree that has fruit with seeds in it. All of them will be given to you for food. [30]I am giving every green plant as food for all the land animals and for all the birds in the sky. I am also giving the plants to all the creatures that move along the ground. I am giving them to every living thing that breathes." And that's exactly what happened.

[31]God saw everything he had made. And it was very good. There was evening, and there was morning. It was day six.

Genesis 2

[1]So the heavens and the earth and everything in them were completed.
[2]By the seventh day God had finished the work he had been doing. So on that day he rested from all his work. [3]God blessed the seventh day and made it holy. He blessed it because on that day he rested from all the work he had done.

Adam and Eve

[4]Here is the story of the heavens and the earth when they were created. The LORD God made the earth and the heavens.

[5]At that time, bushes had not yet appeared on the earth. Plants had not started to grow. The LORD God had not sent rain on the earth. And there was no one to farm the land. [6]But streams came from the earth. They watered the entire surface of the ground. [7]Then the LORD God formed a man. He made him out of the dust of the ground. God breathed the breath of life into him. And the man became a living person.
[8]The LORD God had planted a garden in the east in Eden. He put in the garden the man he had formed. [9]The LORD God made every kind of tree grow out of the ground. The trees were pleasing to look at. Their fruit was good to eat. There were two trees in the middle of the garden. One of them had fruit that let people live forever. The other had fruit that let people tell the difference between good and evil.
[10]A river watered the garden. It flowed out of Eden. From there the river separated into four other rivers. [11]The name of the first river is the Pishon. It winds through the whole land of Havilah. Gold is found there. [12]The gold of that land is good. Onyx and sweet-smelling resin are also found there. [13]The name of the second river is the Gihon. It winds through the whole land of Cush. [14]The name of the third river is the Tigris. It runs along the east side of Ashur. And the fourth river is called the Euphrates.
[15]The LORD God put the man in the Garden of Eden. He put him there to farm its land and take care of it. [16]The LORD God gave the man a command. He said, “You may eat fruit from any tree in the garden. [17]But you must not eat the fruit from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. If you do, you will certainly die.”

[18]The LORD God said, “It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper who is just right for him.”
[19]The LORD God had formed all the wild animals and all the birds in the sky.
He had made all of them out of the ground. He brought them to the man to see what names he would give them. And the name the man gave each living creature became its name. [20]So the man gave names to all the livestock, all the birds in the sky, and all the wild animals.
But Adam didn’t find a helper that was just right for him. [21]So the LORD God caused him to fall into a deep sleep. While the man was sleeping, the LORD God took out one of the man’s ribs. Then the LORD God closed the opening in the man’s side. [22]Then the LORD God made a woman. He made her from the rib he had taken out of the man. And the LORD God brought her to the man.
[23]The man said,

“Her bones have come from my bones.
Her body has come from my body.
She will be named ‘woman,’ because she was taken out of a man.”

[24]That’s why a man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife.
The two of them become one.
[25]Adam and his wife were both naked. They didn’t feel any shame.

Genesis 3

Adam and Eve Fall Into Sin

1The serpent was more clever than any of the wild animals the LORD God had made. The serpent said to the woman, “Did God really say, ‘You must not eat fruit from any tree in the garden’?” 2The woman said to the serpent, “We may eat fruit from the trees in the garden. 3But God did say, ‘You must not eat the fruit from the tree in the middle of the garden. Do not even touch it. If you do, you will die.’ ” 4“You will certainly not die,” the serpent said to the woman. 5“God knows that when you eat fruit from that tree, you will know things you have never known before. Like God, you will be able to tell the difference between good and evil.”
6The woman saw that the tree’s fruit was good to eat and pleasing to look at.
She also saw that it would make a person wise. So she took some of the fruit and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her. And he ate it.
7Then both of them knew things they had never known before. They realized they were naked. So they sewed together fig leaves and made clothes for themselves.
8Then the man and his wife heard the LORD God walking in the garden. It was during the coolest time of the day. They hid from the LORD God among the trees of the garden. 9But the LORD God called out to the man. “Where are you?”
he asked.
10“I heard you in the garden,” the man answered. “I was afraid, because I was naked. So I hid.”
11The LORD God said, “Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten fruit from the tree I commanded you not to eat from?” 12The man said, “It’s the fault of the woman you put here with me. She gave me some fruit from the tree. And I ate it.”
13Then the LORD God said to the woman, “What have you done?”
The woman said, “The serpent tricked me. That’s why I ate the fruit.”
14So the LORD God spoke to the serpent. He said, “Because you have done this,

> “You are set apart from all livestock > and all wild animals.

I am putting a curse on you.
You will crawl on your belly.
You will eat dust
all the days of your life.
15I will make you and the woman hate each other.
Your children and her children will be enemies.
Her son will crush your head.
And you will bite his heel."

16The LORD God said to the woman,

"I will increase your pain when you give birth.
You will be in great pain when you have children.
You will long for your husband.
And he will rule over you."

17The LORD God said to Adam, "You listened to your wife's suggestion. You ate fruit from the tree I warned you about. I said, 'You must not eat its fruit.'

"So I am putting a curse on the ground because of what you did.
All the days of your life you will have to work hard.
It will be painful for you to get food from the ground. 18You will eat plants from the field, even though the ground produces thorns and prickly weeds.
19You will have to work hard and sweat a lot to produce the food you eat.
You were made out of the ground.
You will return to it when you die.
You are dust,
and you will return to dust."

20Adam named his wife Eve. She would become the mother of every living person.

21The LORD God made clothes out of animal skins for Adam and his wife to wear. 22The LORD God said, "Just like one of us, the man can now tell the difference between good and evil. He must not be allowed to reach out and pick fruit from the tree of life and eat it. If he does, he will live forever." 23So the LORD God drove the man out of the Garden of Eden. He sent the man to farm the ground he had been made from. [24]The LORD God drove him out and then placed angels on the east side of the garden. He also placed there a flaming sword that flashed back and forth. The angels and the sword guarded the way to the tree of life.

Genesis 4

Cain and Abel

[1]Adam loved his wife Eve and slept with her. She became pregnant and gave birth to Cain. She said, “With the LORD’s help I have had a baby boy.” [2]Later she gave birth to his brother Abel.

Abel took care of sheep. Cain farmed the land. [3]After some time, Cain gathered some things he had grown. He brought them as an offering to the LORD. [4]And Abel also brought an offering. He brought the fattest parts of some animals from his flock. They were the first animals born to their mothers. The LORD was pleased with Abel and his offering. [5]But he wasn’t pleased with Cain and his offering. So Cain became very angry, and his face was sad.

[6]Then the LORD said to Cain, “Why are you angry? Why are you looking so sad? [7]Do what is right and then you will be accepted. If you don’t do what is right, sin is waiting at your door to grab you. It desires to control you. But you must rule over it.”

[8]Cain said to his brother Abel, “Let’s go out to the field.” So they went out.
There Cain attacked his brother Abel and killed him.

[9]Then the LORD said to Cain, “Where is your brother Abel?”

“I don’t know,” Cain replied. “Am I supposed to take care of my brother?”

[10]The LORD said, “What have you done? Listen! Your brother’s blood is crying out to me from the ground. [11]So I am putting a curse on you. I am driving you away from this ground. It has opened its mouth to receive your brother’s blood from your hand. [12]When you farm the land, it will not produce its crops for you anymore. You will be a restless person who wanders around on the earth.”

[13]Cain said to the LORD, “You are punishing me more than I can take.
[14]Today you are driving me away from the land. I will be hidden from you. I’ll be a restless person who wanders around on the earth. Anyone who finds me will kill me.”

[15]But the LORD said to him, “No. Anyone who kills you will be paid back seven times.” The LORD put a mark on Cain. Then anyone who found him wouldn’t kill him. [16]So Cain went away from the LORD. He lived in the land of Nod. It was east of Eden.

[17]Cain loved his wife and slept with her. She became pregnant and gave birth to Enoch. At that time Cain was building a city. He named it after his son Enoch.

18 Enoch had a son named Irad. Irad was the father of Mehujael. Mehujael was the father of Methushael. And Methushael was the father of Lamech.

19 Lamech married two women. One was named Adah, and the other was named Zillah. 20 Adah gave birth to Jabal. He was the father of people who live in tents and raise livestock. 21 His brother's name was Jubal. He was the father of everyone who plays stringed instruments and wind instruments. 22 Zillah also had a son. His name was Tubal-Cain. He made all kinds of tools out of bronze and iron. Tubal-Cain's sister was Naamah.

23 Lamech said to his wives,

"Adah and Zillah, listen to me!
You wives of Lamech, hear my words!
I have killed a man because he wounded me.
I have killed a young man because he hurt me.
24 Anyone who would have killed Cain would have been paid back seven times.
But anyone who hurts me will be paid back 77 times."

25 Adam slept with his wife again. She gave birth to a son and named him Seth. She said, "God has given me another child. He will take the place of Abel, because Cain killed him." 26 Seth also had a son and named him Enosh.

Then people began to call on the name of the LORD.

Genesis 5

The Family Line of Adam

[1]Here is the written story of Adam's family line.

When God created human beings, he made them to be like him. [2]He created them as male and female, and he blessed them. He called them "human beings" when they were created.

[3]When Adam was 130 years old, he had a son who was like him. He named him Seth. [4]Adam lived 800 years after Seth was born. He also had other sons and daughters. [5]Adam lived a total of 930 years. And then he died.

[6]Seth lived 105 years. Then he became the father of Enosh. [7]Seth lived 807 years after Enosh was born. He also had other sons and daughters. [8]Seth lived a total of 912 years. And then he died.

[9]Enosh lived 90 years. Then he became the father of Kenan. [10]Enosh lived 815 years after Kenan was born. He also had other sons and daughters. [11]Enosh lived a total of 905 years. And then he died.

[12]Kenan lived 70 years. Then he became the father of Mahalalel. [13]Kenan lived 840 years after Mahalalel was born. He also had other sons and daughters. [14]Kenan lived a total of 910 years. And then he died.

[15]Mahalalel lived 65 years. Then he became the father of Jared. [16]Mahalalel lived 830 years after Jared was born. He also had other sons and daughters. [17]Mahalalel lived a total of 895 years. And then he died.

[18]Jared lived 162 years. Then he became the father of Enoch. [19]Jared lived 800 years after Enoch was born. He also had other sons and daughters. [20]Jared lived a total of 962 years. And then he died.

[21]Enoch lived 65 years. Then he became the father of Methuselah. [22]Enoch walked faithfully with God 300 years after Methuselah was born. He also had other sons and daughters. [23]Enoch lived a total of 365 years. [24]Enoch walked faithfully with God. And then he couldn't be found, because God took him from this life.

[25]Methuselah lived 187 years. Then he became the father of Lamech.
[26]Methuselah lived 782 years after Lamech was born. He also had other sons and daughters. [27]Methuselah lived a total of 969 years.
And then he died.
[28]Lamech lived 182 years. Then he had a son [29]and named him Noah.
Lamech said, “He will comfort us when we are working. He’ll comfort us when our hands work so hard they hurt. We have to work hard because the LORD put a curse on the ground.” [30]Lamech lived 595 years after Noah was born. He also had other sons and daughters.
[31]Lamech lived a total of 777 years. And then he died.
[32]After Noah was 500 years old, he became the father of Shem, Ham and Japheth.

Genesis 6

The Sins of Everyone on Earth

[1]There began to be many human beings on the earth. And daughters were born to them. [2]The sons of God saw that the daughters of human beings were beautiful. So they married any of them they chose. [3]Then the LORD said, “My Spirit will not struggle with human beings forever. They will have only 120 years to live.”
[4]The Nephilim were on the earth in those days. That was when the sons of God went to the daughters of human beings. Children were born to them. The Nephilim were famous heroes who lived long ago. Nephilim were also on the earth later on.
[5]The LORD saw how bad the sins of everyone on earth had become. They only thought about evil things. [6]The LORD was very sad that he had made human beings on the earth. His heart was filled with pain. [7]So the LORD said, “I created human beings, but I will wipe them out. I will also destroy the animals, the birds in the sky, and the creatures that move along the ground. I am very sad that I have made human beings.” [8]But the LORD was very pleased with Noah.

Noah and the Flood

[9]Here is the story of Noah’s family line.

Noah was a godly man. He was without blame among the people of his time. He walked faithfully with God. [10]Noah had three sons. Their names were Shem, Ham and Japheth.
[11]The earth was very sinful in God’s eyes. It was full of people who did mean and harmful things. [12]God saw how sinful the earth had become. All its people were living very sinful lives. [13]So God said to Noah, “I am going to put an end to everyone. They have filled the earth with their harmful acts. I am certainly going to destroy them and the earth. [14]So make yourself an ark out of cypress wood. Make rooms in it. Cover it with tar inside and out. [15]Here is how I want you to build it. The ark has to be 450 feet long. It has to be 75 feet wide and 45 feet high. [16]Make a roof for it. Leave below the roof an opening all the way around that is a foot and a half high. Put a door in one side of the ark. Make lower, middle and upper decks. [17]I am going to bring a flood on the earth. It will destroy all life under the sky. It will destroy every living creature that breathes. Everything on earth will die. [18]But I will make my covenant with you. You will go into the ark. Your sons and your wife and your sons' wives will enter it with you. [19]Bring a male and a female of every living thing into the ark. They will be kept alive with you. [20]Two of every kind of bird will come to you. Two of every kind of animal will also come to you. And so will two of every kind of creature that moves along the ground. All of them will be kept alive with you. [21]Take every kind of food that you will need. Store it away as food for you and them."

[22]Noah did everything just as God commanded him.

Genesis 7

[1]Then the LORD said to Noah, “Go into the ark with your whole family. I know that you are a godly man among the people of today. [2]Take seven pairs of every kind of ‘clean’ animal with you. Take a male and a female of each kind.
Take one pair of every kind of animal that is not ‘clean.’ Take a male and a female of each kind. [3]Also take seven pairs of every kind of bird. Take a male and a female of each kind. Then every kind will be kept alive. They can spread out again over the whole earth. [4]Seven days from now I will send rain on the earth. It will rain for 40 days and 40 nights. I will destroy from the face of the earth every living creature I have made.”

[5]Noah did everything the LORD commanded him to do.

[6]Noah was 600 years old when the flood came on the earth. [7]He and his sons entered the ark. His wife and his sons’ wives went with them. They entered the ark to escape the waters of the flood. [8]Male and female pairs of “clean” animals and pairs of animals that were not “clean” came to Noah. So did male and female pairs of birds and of all the creatures that move along the ground. [9]All of them came to Noah and entered the ark. Everything happened just as God had commanded Noah. [10]After seven days the flood came on the earth.

[11]Noah was 600 years old. It was the 17th day of the second month of the year. On that day all of the springs at the bottom of the oceans burst open. God opened the windows of the sky. [12]Rain fell on the earth for 40 days and 40 nights.

[13]On that same day Noah entered the ark together with his sons Shem, Ham and Japheth. Noah’s wife and the wives of his three sons also entered it. [14]They had every kind of wild animal with them. They had every kind of livestock, creature that moves along the ground, and bird that flies. [15]Pairs of all living creatures that breathe came to Noah and entered the ark. [16]The animals going in were male and female of every living thing. Everything happened just as God had commanded Noah. Then the LORD shut him in.

[17]For 40 days the flood kept coming on the earth. As the waters rose higher, they lifted the ark high above the earth. [18]The waters rose higher and higher on the earth. And the ark floated on the water. [19]The waters rose on the earth until all the high mountains under the entire sky were covered. [20]The waters continued to rise until they covered the mountains by more than 20 feet. [21]Every living thing that moved on land died. The birds, the livestock and the wild animals died. All of the creatures that fill the earth also died. And so did every human being. [22]Every breathing thing on dry land died. [23]Every living thing on earth was wiped out. People and animals were destroyed. The creatures that move along the ground and the birds in the sky were wiped out. Everything on earth was destroyed. Only Noah and those with him in the ark were left.

[24]The waters flooded the earth for 150 days.

Genesis 8

[1]But God showed concern for Noah. He also showed concern for all the wild animals and livestock that were with Noah in the ark. So God sent a wind to sweep over the earth. And the waters began to go down. [2]The springs at the bottom of the oceans had been closed. The windows of the sky had also been closed. And the rain had stopped falling from the sky. [3]The water on the earth continued to go down. At the end of the 150 days the water had gone down. [4]On the 17th day of the seventh month, the ark came to rest on the mountains of Ararat. [5]The waters continued to go down until the tenth month. On the first day of that month, the tops of the mountains could be seen.

[6]After 40 days Noah opened a window he had made in the ark. [7]He sent out a raven. It kept flying back and forth until the water on the earth had dried up. [8]Then Noah sent out a dove. He wanted to see if the water on the surface of the ground had gone down. [9]But the dove couldn't find any place to rest. Water still covered the whole surface of the earth. So the dove returned to Noah in the ark. Noah reached out his hand and took the dove in. He brought it back to himself in the ark. [10]He waited seven more days. Then he sent out the dove again from the ark. [11]In the evening the dove returned to him. There in its beak was a freshly picked olive leaf! So Noah knew that the water on the earth had gone down. [12]He waited seven more days. Then he sent out the dove again. But this time it didn't return to him.

[13]It was the first day of the first month of Noah's 601st year. The water on the earth had dried up. Then Noah removed the covering from the ark. He saw that the surface of the ground was dry. [14]By the 27th day of the second month the earth was completely dry.

[15]Then God said to Noah, [16]"Come out of the ark. Bring your wife and your sons and their wives with you. [17]Bring out every kind of living thing that is with you. Bring the birds, the animals, and all the creatures that move along the ground. Then they can multiply on the earth. They can have little ones and the number of them can increase."

[18]So Noah came out of the ark. His sons and his wife and his sons' wives were with him. [19]All the animals came out of the ark. The creatures that move along the ground also came out. So did all the birds. Everything that moves on land came out of the ark, one kind after another.

[20]Then Noah built an altar to honor the LORD. He took some of the “clean” animals and birds. He sacrificed them on the altar as burnt offerings. [21]The smell of the offerings pleased the LORD. He said to himself, “I will never put a curse on the ground again because of human beings. I will not do it even though their hearts are always directed toward evil. Their thoughts are evil from the time they are young. I will never destroy all living things again, as I have just done.

[22]“As long as the earth lasts,
there will always be a time to plant and a time to gather the crops.
As long as the earth lasts,
there will always be cold and heat.
There will always be summer and winter, day and night.”

Genesis 9

God Makes a Covenant With Noah

[1]Then God blessed Noah and his sons. He said to them, “Have children so that there are many of you. Fill the earth. [2]All the land animals will be afraid of you.
All the birds in the sky will be afraid of you. Every creature that moves along the ground will be afraid of you. So will every fish in the seas. Every living thing is put under your control. [3]Everything that lives and moves about will be food for you. I have already given you the green plants for food. Now I am giving you everything.

[4]“But you must not eat meat that still has blood in it. [5]I will certainly hold someone accountable if you are murdered. I will even hold animals accountable if they kill you. I will also hold anyone accountable who murders another person.

[6]“Anyone who murders a human being will be killed by a human being.
That is because I have made human beings
so that they are like me.

[7]“Have children so that there will be many of you. Multiply and become many on the earth.”

[8]Then God spoke to Noah and to his sons who were with him. He said, [9]“I am now making my covenant with you and with all your children who will be born after you. [10]I am making it also with every living creature that was with you in the ark. I am making my covenant with the birds, the livestock and all the wild animals. I am making it with all the creatures that came out of the ark with you.
In fact, I am making it with every living thing on earth. [11]Here is my covenant I am making with you. The waters of a flood will never again destroy all life. A flood will never again destroy the earth.”

[12]God continued, “My covenant is between me and you and every living creature with you. It is a covenant for all time to come. Here is the sign of the covenant I am making. [13]I have put my rainbow in the clouds. It will be the sign of the covenant between me and the earth. [14]Sometimes when I bring clouds over the earth, a rainbow will appear in them. [15]Then I will remember my covenant between me and you and every kind of living creature. The waters will never again become a flood to destroy all life. [16]When the rainbow appears in the clouds, I will see it. I will remember that my covenant will last forever. It is a covenant between me and every kind of living creature on earth.”

[17]So God said to Noah, “The rainbow is the sign of my covenant. I have made my covenant between me and all life on earth.”

The Sons of Noah

[18]The sons of Noah who came out of the ark were Shem, Ham and Japheth. Ham was the father of Canaan. [19]The people who were scattered over the earth came from Noah’s three sons.

[20]Noah was a man who farmed the land. He decided to plant a field that produced grapes for making wine. [21]When he drank some of the wine, it made him drunk. Then he lay down inside his tent without any clothes on. [22]Ham saw his father naked. Then Ham, the father of Canaan, went outside and told his two brothers. [23]But Shem and Japheth picked up a piece of clothing and laid it across their shoulders. Then they walked backward into the tent. They covered their father’s body. They turned their faces away because they didn’t want to see their father naked.

[24]Then Noah woke up from his sleep that was caused by the wine. He found out what his youngest son had done to him. [25]He said,

> “May a curse be put on Canaan!
> He will be the lowest of slaves to his brothers.”

[26]Noah also said,

> “May the LORD, the God of Shem, be praised.
> May Canaan be the slave of Shem.
> [27]May God add land to Japheth’s territory.
> May Japheth live in the tents of Shem.
> And may Canaan be the slave of Japheth.”

[28]After the flood Noah lived 350 years. [29]Noah lived a total of 950 years. And then he died.

Genesis 10

A List of Nations

[1]Here is the story of Shem, Ham and Japheth. They were Noah's sons. After the flood, they also had sons.

The Sons of Japheth

[2]The sons of Japheth were
Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshek and Tiras.
[3]The sons of Gomer were Ashkenaz, Riphath and Togarmah.
[4]The sons of Javan were
Elishah, Tarshish, the Kittites and the Rodanites.
[5]From these people came the families who lived near the Mediterranean Sea. Each tribe and nation then spread out into its own territory and had its own language.

The Sons of Ham

[6]The sons of Ham were Cush, Egypt, Put and Canaan.
[7]The sons of Cush were Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah and Sabteka.
The sons of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan.
[8]Cush was the father of Nimrod. Nimrod became a mighty hero on the earth. [9]He was a mighty hunter in the LORD's eyes. That's why people sometimes compare others with Nimrod. They say, "They are like Nimrod, who was a mighty hunter in the LORD's eyes." [10]The first capital cities of Nimrod's kingdom were Babylon, Uruk, Akkad and Kalneh. These cities were in the land of Babylon. [11]From that land he went to Assyria. There he built Nineveh, Rehoboth Ir and Calah. [12]He also built Resen, which is between Nineveh and Calah. Nineveh is the most famous city.
[13]Egypt was the father of the Ludites, Anamites, Lehabites, Naphtuhites, [14]Pathrusites, Kasluhites and Caphtorites. The Philistines came from the Kasluhites.

[15]Canaan was the father of Sidon.
Sidon was his oldest son. Canaan was also the father of the Hittites, [16]Jebusites, Amorites and Girgashites. [17]And he was the father of the Hivites, Arkites, Sinites, [18]Arvadites, Zemarites and Hamathites.

Later the Canaanite tribes scattered. [19]The borders of Canaan reached from Sidon toward Gerar all the way to Gaza. Then they continued toward Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboyim all the way to Lasha.

[20]These are the sons of Ham. They are listed by their tribes and languages in their territories and nations.

The Sons of Shem

[21]Sons were also born to Shem, Japheth's younger brother. All the sons of Eber belonged to Shem's family line.

[22]The sons of Shem were Elam, Ashur, Arphaxad, Lud and Aram.

[23]The sons of Aram were Uz, Hul, Gether and Meshek.

[24]Arphaxad was the father of Shelah.
Shelah was the father of Eber.

[25]Eber had two sons.
One was named Peleg. That's because the earth was divided up in his time. His brother was named Joktan.

[26]Joktan was the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, [27]Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, [28]Obal, Abimael, Sheba, [29]Ophir, Havilah and Jobab. They were all sons of Joktan.

[30]The area where they lived stretched from Mesha toward Sephar. It was in the eastern hill country.

[31]These are the sons of Shem. They are listed by their tribes and languages in their territories and nations.

[32]These are the tribes of Noah’s sons. They are listed by their family lines within their nations. From them the nations spread out over the earth after the flood.

Genesis 11

The Tower of Babel

[1]The whole world had only one language, and everyone spoke it. [2]They moved to the east and found a broad valley in Babylon. There they made their home.

[3]They said to one another, “Come on! Let’s make bricks and bake them well.” They used bricks instead of stones. They used tar to hold the bricks together. [4]Then they said, “Come on! Let’s build a city for ourselves. Let’s build a tower that reaches to the sky. We’ll make a name for ourselves. Then we won’t be scattered over the whole earth.”

[5]But the LORD came down to see the city and the tower the people were building. [6]He said, “All these people are united and speak the same language. That is why they can do all this. Now they will be able to do anything they plan. [7]Come on! Let us go down and mix up their language. Then they will not be able to understand one other.”

[8]So the LORD scattered them from there over the whole earth. And they stopped building the city. [9]There the LORD mixed up the language of the whole world. That’s why the city was called Babel. From there the LORD scattered them over the whole earth.

The Family Line of Shem

[10]Here is the story of Shem’s family line.

It was two years after the flood. When Shem was 100 years old, he became the father of Arphaxad. [11]After Arphaxad was born, Shem lived 500 years and had other sons and daughters.

[12]When Arphaxad had lived 35 years, he became the father of Shelah. [13]After Shelah was born, Arphaxad lived 403 years and had other sons and daughters.

[14]When Shelah had lived 30 years, he became the father of Eber. [15]After Eber was born, Shelah lived 403 years and had other sons and daughters.

[16]When Eber had lived 34 years, he became the father of Peleg. [17]After Peleg was born, Eber lived 430 years and had other sons and daughters.

18When Peleg had lived 30 years, he became the father of Reu. 19After Reu was born, Peleg lived 209 years and had other sons and daughters.
20When Reu had lived 32 years, he became the father of Serug. 21After Serug was born, Reu lived 207 years and had other sons and daughters.
22When Serug had lived 30 years, he became the father of Nahor.
23After Nahor was born, Serug lived 200 years and had other sons and daughters.
24When Nahor had lived 29 years, he became the father of Terah.
25After Terah was born, Nahor lived 119 years and had other sons and daughters.
26After Terah was 70 years old, he became the father of Abram, Nahor and Haran.

The Family Line of Abram

27Here is the story of Terah's family line.

Terah became the father of Abram, Nahor and Haran. And Haran became the father of Lot. 28Haran died in the city of Ur in Babylonia, the land where he was born. Haran died while his father Terah was still alive. 29Abram and Nahor both got married. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai. The name of Nahor's wife was Milkah, the daughter of Haran. Haran was the father of Milkah and Iscah. 30But Sarai wasn't able to have children.

31Terah left Ur in Babylon. He took with him his son Abram and his grandson Lot, the son of Haran. Terah also took his daughter-in-law Sarai, the wife of his son Abram. All of them left together to go to Canaan. But when they came to Harran, they made their home there.

32Terah lived for 205 years. And then he died in Harran.

Genesis 12

God Chooses Abram

1 The LORD had said to Abram, “Go from your country, your people and your father’s family. Go to the land I will show you.

2 “I will make you into a great nation.
And I will bless you.
I will make your name great.
You will be a blessing to others.
3 I will bless those who bless you.
I will put a curse on anyone who puts a curse on you.
All nations on earth will be blessed because of you.”

4 So Abram went, just as the LORD had told him. Lot went with him. Abram was 75 years old when he left Harran. 5 He took his wife Sarai and his nephew Lot. They took all the people and possessions they had acquired in Harran. They started out for the land of Canaan. And they arrived there.
6 Abram traveled through the land. He went as far as the large tree of Moreh at Shechem. At that time the Canaanites were living in the land. 7 The LORD appeared to Abram at Shechem. He said, “I will give this land to your family who comes after you.” So Abram built an altar there to honor the LORD, who had appeared to him.
8 From there, Abram went on toward the hills east of Bethel. He set up his tent there. Bethel was to the west, and Ai was to the east. Abram built an altar there and called on the name of the LORD.
9 Then Abram left and continued south toward the Negev Desert.

Abram Goes to Egypt

10 At that time there was not enough food in the land. So Abram went down to Egypt to live there for a while. 11 As he was about to enter Egypt, he spoke to his wife Sarai. He said, “I know what a beautiful woman you are. 12 The people of Egypt will see you and say, ‘This is his wife.’ Then they will kill me. But they will let you live. 13 Tell them you are my sister. Then I’ll be treated well and my life will be spared because of you.”

14 Abram arrived in Egypt. The Egyptians saw that Sarai was a very beautiful woman. 15 When Pharaoh’s officials saw her, they told Pharaoh how beautiful she was. So she was taken into his palace. 16 Pharaoh treated Abram well because of her. So Abram gained more sheep and cattle and male and female donkeys. He also gained more male and female servants and some camels.

17 But the LORD sent terrible sicknesses on Pharaoh and everyone in his palace. The LORD did it because of Abram’s wife Sarai. 18 So Pharaoh sent for Abram. “What have you done to me?” he said. “Why didn’t you tell me she was your wife? 19 Why did you say she was your sister? That’s why I took her to be my wife. Now then, here’s your wife. Take her and go!” 20 Then Pharaoh gave orders to his men about Abram. They sent him on his way. So he left with his wife and everything he had.

Genesis 13

Abram and Lot Separate

[1]Abram went up from Egypt to the Negev Desert. He took his wife and everything he had. Lot went with him. [2]Abram had become very rich. He had a lot of livestock and silver and gold.

[3]Abram left the Negev Desert. He went from place to place until he came to Bethel. Then he came to the place between Bethel and Ai where his tent had been earlier. [4]There he called on the name of the LORD at the altar he had built.

[5]Lot was moving around with Abram. Lot also had flocks and herds and tents.
[6]But the land didn't have enough food for both Abram and Lot. They had large herds and many servants, so they weren't able to stay together. [7]The people who took care of Abram's herds and those who took care of Lot's herds began to argue. The Canaanites and Perizzites were also living in the land at that time.

[8]So Abram said to Lot, "Let's not argue with each other. The people taking care of your herds and those taking care of mine shouldn't argue with one another either. After all, we're part of the same family. [9]Isn't the whole land in front of you? Let's separate. If you go to the left, I'll go to the right. If you go to the right, I'll go to the left."

[10]Lot looked around. He saw that the whole Jordan River valley toward the town of Zoar had plenty of water. It was like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt. This was before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah. [11]So Lot chose the whole Jordan River valley for himself. Then he started out toward the east. The two men separated. [12]Abram lived in the land of Canaan. Lot lived among the cities of the Jordan River valley. He set up his tents near Sodom.
[13]The people of Sodom were evil. They were sinning greatly against the LORD.

[14]The LORD spoke to Abram after Lot had left him. He said, "Look around from where you are. Look north and south, east and west. [15]I will give you all the land you see. I will give it forever to you and your family who comes after you. [16]I will make them like the dust of the earth. Can dust be counted? If it can, then your family can be counted. [17]Go! Walk through the land. See how long and wide it is. I am giving it to you."

[18]So Abram went to live near the large trees of Mamre at Hebron. There he pitched his tents and built an altar to honor the LORD.

Genesis 14

Abram Saves Lot

[1]Amraphel was the king of Babylon. Arioch was the king of Ellasar. Kedorlaomer was the king of Elam. And Tidal was the king of Goyim. [2]They went to war against five other kings. They were Bera king of Sodom, Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, Shemeber king of Zeboyim, and the king of Bela. Bela was also called Zoar. [3]These five kings all gathered their armies together in the Valley of Siddim. It was also called the valley of the Dead Sea. [4]For 12 years Kedorlaomer had ruled over them. But in the 13th year they opposed him.

[5]So in the 14th year, Kedorlaomer and the kings who helped him went to war. They won the battle against the Rephaites in Ashteroth Karnaim. They also won the battle against the Zuzites in Ham and the Emites in Shaveh Kiriathaim. [6]They did the same thing to the Horites in the hill country of Seir. They marched all the way to El Paran near the desert. [7]Then they turned back and went to En Mishpat. En Mishpat was also called Kadesh. They took over the whole territory of the Amalekites. They also won the battle against the Amorites who were living in Hazezon Tamar.

[8]Then the kings of Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, Zeboyim and Bela marched out. Bela was also called Zoar. They lined up their armies for battle in the Valley of Siddim. [9]They got ready to fight against Kedorlaomer king of Elam, Tidal king of Goyim, Amraphel king of Babylonia, and Arioch king of Ellasar. There were four kings against five. [10]The Valley of Siddim was full of tar pits. The kings of Sodom and Gomorrah ran away from the battle. Some of their men fell into the pits, but the rest escaped to the hills. [11]The four kings took all the things that belonged to Sodom and Gomorrah. They also took all their food and then left. [12]They carried away Abram’s nephew Lot and the things he owned. Lot was living in Sodom at that time.

[13]A man escaped and came to report everything to Abram. Abram was a Hebrew. He was living near the large trees of Mamre the Amorite. Mamre was a brother of Eshkol and Aner. All of them helped Abram. [14]Abram heard that Lot had been captured. So he called out his 318 trained men. All of them were sons of his servants. Abram and his men chased their enemies as far as Dan. [15]During the night Abram separated his men into groups. They attacked their enemies and drove them away. They chased them north of Damascus as far as Hobah.

16 Abram took back everything the kings had taken. He brought back his nephew Lot and the things Lot owned. He also brought back the women and the other people.

17 After Abram won the battle over Kedorlaomer and the kings who helped him, he returned home. The king of Sodom came out to meet him in the Valley of Shaveh. It was also called the King's Valley.

18 Melchizedek was the king of Jerusalem. He brought out bread and wine. He was the priest of the Most High God. 19 He gave a blessing to Abram. He said,

"May the Most High God bless Abram.
May the Creator of heaven and earth bless him.
20 Give praise to the Most High God.
He gave your enemies into your hand."

Then Abram gave Melchizedek a tenth of everything.

21 The king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the people. Keep everything else for yourself."

22 But Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have raised my hand to make a promise to the LORD. He is the Most High God. He is the Creator of heaven and earth. 23 I've said I will not accept anything that belongs to you. I will not take even a thread or the strap of a sandal. You will never be able to say, 'I made Abram rich.' 24 I'll accept only what my men have eaten and what belongs to Aner, Eshkol and Mamre. These three men went with me. Let them have their share."

Genesis 15

God Makes a Covenant With Abram

[1]Some time later, Abram had a vision. The LORD said to him,

> "Abram, do not be afraid.
> I am like a shield to you.
> I am your very great reward."

[2]But Abram said, "LORD and King, what can you give me? I still don't have any children. My servant Eliezer comes from Damascus. When I die, he will get everything I own." [3]Abram continued, "You haven't given me any children. So this servant of mine will get everything I own."

[4]Then a message from the LORD came to Abram. The LORD said, "When you die, what you have will not go to this man. You will have a son of your own. He will get everything you have." [5]The LORD took Abram outside and said, "Look up at the sky. Count the stars, if you can." Then he said to him, "That's how many children will be born into your family."

[6]Abram believed the LORD. The LORD was pleased with Abram because he believed. So Abram's faith made him right with the LORD.

[7]He also said to Abram, "I am the LORD. I brought you out of Ur in the land of Babylon. I will give you this land to have as your very own."

[8]But Abram said, "LORD and King, how can I know I will have this land as my own?"

[9]So the LORD said to him, "Bring me a young cow, a goat and a ram. Each must be three years old. Bring a dove and a young pigeon along with them."

[10]Abram brought all of them to the LORD. Abram cut them in two and placed the halves opposite each other. But he didn't cut the birds in half. [11]Then large birds came down to eat the dead bodies of the animals and birds. But Abram chased the large birds away.

[12]As the sun was going down, Abram fell into a deep sleep. A thick and scary darkness covered him. [13]Then the LORD said to him, "You can be sure of what I am about to tell you. For 400 years, your family who comes after you will be strangers in another country. They will become slaves there and will be treated badly. [14]But I will punish the nation that makes them slaves. After that, they will leave with many possessions. [15]But you will die in peace. You will join the members of your family who have already died. And you will be buried when you are very old. [16]Your children's grandchildren will come back here. That's because the sin of the Amorites has not yet reached the point where I must punish them."

[17]The sun set and it became dark. Then a burning torch and a pot filled with smoking coals appeared. They passed between the pieces of the animals that had been cut in two. [18]On that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram. He said, "I am giving this land to your family who comes after you. It reaches from the River of Egypt to the great Euphrates River. [19]It includes the land of the Kenites, Kenizzites, Kadmonites, [20]Hittites, Perizzites and Rephaites. [21]The Amorites, Canaanites, Girgashites and Jebusites also live there."

Genesis 16

Hagar and Ishmael

[1]Abram's wife Sarai had never had any children by him. But she had a female slave from Egypt named Hagar. [2]So she said to Abram, "The LORD has kept me from having children. Go and sleep with my slave. Maybe I can have a family through her."

Abram agreed to what Sarai had said. [3]His wife Sarai gave him her slave Hagar to be his wife. That was after he had been living in Canaan for ten years. [4]Then he slept with Hagar, and she became pregnant.

When Hagar knew she was pregnant, she began to look down on the woman who owned her. [5]Then Sarai said to Abram, "It's your fault that I'm suffering like this. I put my slave in your arms. Now that she knows she's pregnant, she looks down on me. May the LORD judge between you and me. May he decide which of us is right."

[6]"Your slave belongs to you," Abram said. "Do with her what you think is best." Then Sarai treated Hagar badly. So Hagar ran away from her.

[7]The angel of the LORD found Hagar near a spring of water in the desert. The spring was beside the road to Shur. [8]The angel said, "Hagar, you are Sarai's slave. Where have you come from? Where are you going?"

"I'm running away from my owner Sarai," she answered.

[9]Then the angel of the LORD told her, "Go back to the woman who owns you. Obey her." [10]The angel continued, "I will give you and your family many children. There will be more of them than anyone can count."

[11]The angel of the LORD also said to her,

"You are now pregnant and will have a son.
You will name him Ishmael, because the LORD has heard about your suffering.
[12]He will be like a wild donkey.
He will use his power against everyone, and everyone will be against him.
He will not get along with any of his family."

[13]She gave a name to the LORD who spoke to her. She called him "You are the God who sees me.” That’s because she said, “I have now seen the One who sees me.” [14]That’s why the well was named Beer Lahai Roi. It’s still there, between Kadesh and Bered.

[15]So Hagar had a son by Abram and Abram gave him the name Ishmael. [16]Abram was 86 years old when Hagar had Ishmael by him.

Genesis 17

The Covenant of Circumcision

[1]When Abram was 99 years old, the LORD appeared to him. He said, “I am the Mighty God. Walk faithfully with me. Live in a way that pleases me. [2]I will now act on my covenant between me and you. I will greatly increase the number of your children after you.”

[3]Abram fell with his face to the ground. God said to him, [4]“This is my covenant with you. You will be the father of many nations. [5]You will not be called Abram anymore. Your name will be Abraham, because I have made you a father of many nations. [6]I will greatly increase the number of your children after you. Nations and kings will come from you. [7]I will make my covenant with you last forever. It will be between me and you and your family after you for all time to come. I will be your God. And I will be the God of all your family after you.
[8]You are now living in Canaan as an outsider. But I will give you the whole land of Canaan. You will own it forever and so will all your family after you. And I will be their God.”

[9]Then God said to Abraham, “You must keep my covenant. You and your family after you must keep it for all time to come. [10]Here is my covenant that you and your family after you must keep. You and every male among you must be circumcised. [11]That will be the sign of the covenant between me and you. [12]It must be done for all time to come. Every male among you who is eight days old must be circumcised. That includes those who are born into your own family or outside it. It also includes those bought with money from a stranger. [13]So any male born into your family or bought with your money must be circumcised. My covenant will last forever. Your body will have the mark of my covenant on it.
[14]Any male who has not been circumcised will be separated from his people. He has broken my covenant.”

[15]God also said to Abraham, “Do not continue to call your wife by the name Sarai. Her name will be Sarah. [16]I will give her my blessing. You can be sure that I will give you a son by her. I will bless her so that she will be the mother of nations. Kings of nations will come from her.”

[17]Abraham fell with his face to the ground. He laughed and said to himself, “Can a 100-year-old man have a son? Can Sarah have a child at the age of 90?”
[18]Abraham said to God, “I really wish Ishmael could receive your blessing!”

[19]Then God said, “Yes, I will bless Ishmael. But your wife Sarah will have a son by you. And you will name him Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him. That covenant will last forever. It will be for Isaac and his family after him.
[20]I have heard what you said about Ishmael. I will surely bless him. I will make his family very large. He will be the father of 12 rulers. And I will make him into a great nation. [21]But I will establish my covenant with Isaac. By this time next year, Sarah will have a son by you.” [22]When God had finished speaking with Abraham, God left him.

[23]On that same day Abraham circumcised his son Ishmael. He also circumcised every male who was born into his family or bought with his money.
He did exactly as God had told him. [24]Abraham was 99 years old when he was circumcised. [25]His son Ishmael was 13. [26]Abraham and his son Ishmael were both circumcised on that same day. [27]And every male in Abraham’s household was circumcised along with him. That included those born into his family or bought from a stranger.

Genesis 18

Three Men Visit Abraham

[1]The LORD appeared to Abraham near the large trees of Mamre. Abraham was sitting at the entrance to his tent. It was the hottest time of the day. [2]Abraham looked up and saw three men standing nearby. So he quickly left the entrance to his tent to greet them. He bowed low to the ground.

[3]He said, “My lord, if you are pleased with me, don’t pass me by. [4]Let me get you some water. Then all of you can wash your feet and rest under this tree. [5]Let me get you something to eat to give you strength. Then you can go on your way. I want to do this for you now that you have come to me.”

“All right,” they answered. “Do as you say.”

[6]So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah. “Quick!” he said. “Get about 36 pounds of the finest flour. Prepare it and bake some bread.”

[7]Then he ran over to the herd. He picked out a choice, tender calf. He gave it to a servant, who hurried to prepare it. [8]Then he brought some butter and milk and the calf that had been prepared. He served them to the three men. While they ate, he stood near them under a tree.

[9]“Where is your wife Sarah?” they asked him.

“Over there in the tent,” he said.

[10]Then one of them said, “I will surely return to you about this time next year. Your wife Sarah will have a son.”

Sarah was listening at the entrance to the tent, which was behind him. [11]Abraham and Sarah were already very old. Sarah was too old to have a baby. [12]So she laughed to herself. She thought, “I’m worn out, and my husband is old. Can I really know the joy of having a baby?”

[13]Then the LORD said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh? Why did she say, ‘Will I really have a baby, now that I am old?’ [14]Is anything too hard for me? I will return to you at the appointed time next year. Sarah will have a son.”

[15]Sarah was afraid. So she lied and said, “I didn’t laugh.”

But the LORD said, “Yes, you laughed.”

Abraham Pleads for Sodom

[16]The men got up to leave. They looked down toward Sodom. Abraham walked along with them to see them on their way. [17]Then the LORD said, “Should I hide from Abraham what I am about to do? [18]He will certainly become a great and powerful nation. All nations on earth will be blessed because of him. [19]I have chosen him. He must direct his children to live in the way that pleases me. And he must direct the members of his family after him to do the same. So he must guide all of them in doing what is right and fair. Then I, the LORD, will do for Abraham what I have promised him.”

[20]The LORD also said, “The cries against Sodom and Gomorrah are very great. Their sin is so bad [21]that I will go down and see for myself. I want to see if what they have done is as bad as the cries that have reached me. If it is not, then I will know.”

[22]The men turned away and went toward Sodom. But Abraham remained standing in front of the LORD. [23]Then Abraham came up to him. He said, “Will you sweep away godly people along with those who are evil? [24]What if there are 50 godly people in the city? Will you really sweep it away? Won’t you spare the place because of the 50 godly people in it? [25]You would never kill godly people along with those who are evil, would you? Would you treat them all alike? You would never do anything like that! Won’t the Judge of the whole earth do what is right?”

[26]The LORD said, “If I find 50 godly people in the city of Sodom, I will spare it. I will spare the whole place because of them.”

[27]Then Abraham spoke up again. He said, “I have been very bold to speak to the Lord. After all, I’m only dust and ashes. [28]What if the number of godly people is five fewer than 50? Will you destroy the whole city because there are five fewer people?”

“If I find 45 there,” he said, “I will not destroy it.”

[29]Once again Abraham spoke to him. He asked, “What if only 40 are found there?”

He said, “If there are 40, I will not do it.”

[30]Then Abraham said, “Lord, please don’t be angry with me. Let me speak. What if only 30 can be found there?”

He answered, “If I find 30, I will not do it.”

[31]Abraham said, “I have been very bold to speak to the Lord. What if only 20 can be found there?”

He said, “If I find 20, I will not destroy it.”

[32]Then he said, “Lord, please don’t be angry with me. Let me speak just one more time. What if only ten can be found there?”

He answered, “If I find ten, I will not destroy it.”

33When the LORD had finished speaking with Abraham, he left. And Abraham returned home.

Genesis 19

The LORD Destroys Sodom and Gomorrah

[1]The two angels arrived at Sodom in the evening. Lot was sitting near the gate of the city. When Lot saw the angels, he got up to greet them. He bowed down with his face to the ground. [2]"My lords," he said, "please come to my house.
You can wash your feet and spend the night there. Then you can go on your way early in the morning."

"No," they answered. "We'll spend the night in the town square."

[3]But Lot wouldn't give up. So they went with him and entered his house. He prepared a meal for them. He baked bread without using yeast. And they ate.
[4]Before Lot and his guests had gone to bed, all the men came from every part of the city of Sodom. Young and old men alike surrounded the house. [5]They called out to Lot. They said, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us. We want to have sex with them."

[6]Lot went outside to meet them. He shut the door behind him. [7]He said, "No, my friends. Don't do such an evil thing. [8]Look, I have two daughters that no man has ever slept with. I'll bring them out to you now. Then do to them what you want to. But don't do anything to these men. I've brought them inside so they can be safe."

[9]"Get out of our way!" the men of Sodom replied to Lot. "You came here as an outsider. Now you want to act like a judge! We'll treat you worse than them." They kept trying to force Lot to open the door. Then they moved forward to break it down.

[10]But the the angels inside reached out and pulled Lot back into the house and shut the door. [11]Then they made the men who were at the door of the house blind. They blinded both young and old men so that they couldn't find the door.

[12]The two angels said to Lot, "Do you have any other family members here?
Do you have sons-in-law, sons, daughters or any other relatives in the city? Get them out of here! [13]We are going to destroy this place. Many have cried out to the LORD against the people of this city. So he has sent us to destroy it."

[14]Then Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law. They had promised to marry his daughters. He said, "Hurry up! Get out of this place! The LORD is about to destroy the city!" But his sons-in-law thought he was joking.

[15]The sun was coming up. So the angels tried to get Lot to leave. They said,

“Hurry up! Take your wife and your two daughters who are here. Get out! If you don’t, you will be swept away when the city is destroyed.”

16Lot didn’t move right away. So the men grabbed him by the hand. They also took hold of the hands of his wife and two daughters. They led all of them safely out of the city. The LORD had mercy on them. 17As soon as the angels had brought them out, one of them spoke. He said, “Run for your lives! Don’t look back! Don’t stop anywhere in the valley! Run to the mountains! If you don’t, you will be swept away!”

18But Lot said to them, “No, my lords! Please! 19You have done me a big favor. You have been very kind to me by sparing my life. But I can’t run to the mountains. I won’t be able to escape this horrible thing that’s going to happen. And then I’ll die. 20Look, here’s a town near enough to run to. It’s small. Let me run to it. It’s very small, isn’t it? Then my life will be spared.”

21The LORD said to Lot, “All right. I will also give you what you are asking for. I will not destroy the town you are talking about. 22But run there quickly. I can’t do anything until you reach it.” The town was named Zoar. Zoar means Small.

23By the time Lot reached Zoar, the sun had risen over the land. 24Then the LORD sent down burning sulfur. It came down like rain on Sodom and Gomorrah. It came from the LORD. It came out of the sky. 25The LORD destroyed these cities and the whole valley. All the people who were living in the cities were wiped out. So were the plants in the land. 26But Lot’s wife looked back. When she did, she became a pillar made out of salt.

27Early the next morning Abraham got up. He returned to the place where he had stood in front of the LORD. 28He looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah and the whole valley. He saw thick smoke rising from the land. It looked like smoke from a furnace.

29So when God destroyed the cities of the valley, he showed concern for Abraham. He brought Lot out safely when he destroyed the cities where Lot had lived.

Lot and His Daughters

30Lot and his two daughters left Zoar. They went to live in the mountains because Lot was afraid to stay in Zoar. So he and his daughters lived in a cave. 31One day the older daughter spoke to the younger one. She said, “Our father is old. People all over the earth have men to marry and have children with. We do not. [32]So let’s get our father to drink wine. Then we can sleep with him. We can use our father to continue our family line.”

[33]That night they got their father to drink wine. Then the older daughter went in and slept with him. He wasn’t aware when she lay down or when she got up.

[34]The next day the older daughter spoke to the younger one again. She said, “Last night I slept with my father. Let’s get him to drink wine again tonight. Then you go in and sleep with him. We can use our father to continue our family line.” [35]So they got their father to drink wine that night also. Then the younger daughter slept with him. Again he wasn’t aware when she lay down or when she got up.

[36]So both of Lot’s daughters became pregnant by their father. [37]The older daughter had a son. She named him Moab. He’s the father of the Moabites of today. [38]The younger daughter also had a son. She named him Ben-Ammi. He’s the father of the Ammonites of today.

Genesis 20

Abraham and Abimelek

[1]Abraham moved south into the Negev Desert. He lived between Kadesh and Shur. For a while he stayed in Gerar. [2]There Abraham said about his wife Sarah,
"She's my sister." Then Abimelek, the king of Gerar, sent for Sarah and took her.
[3]So God appeared to Abimelek in a dream one night. He said to him, "You are as good as dead because of the woman you have taken. She is already married." [4]But Abimelek hadn't gone near her. So he said, "Lord, will you destroy a nation that hasn't done anything wrong? [5]Didn't Abraham say to me, 'She's my sister'? And didn't she also say, 'He's my brother'? I had no idea I was doing anything wrong."
[6]Then God spoke to him in the dream. He said, "Yes, I know you had no idea you were doing anything wrong. So I have kept you from sinning against me.
That is why I did not let you touch her. [7]Now return the man's wife to him. He is a prophet. So he will pray for you, and you will live. But what if you do not return her? Then you can be sure that you and all your people will die." [8]Early the next morning Abimelek sent for all his officials. When he told them everything that had happened, they were really afraid. [9]Then Abimelek called Abraham in. Abimelek said, "What have you done to us? Have I done something wrong to you? Why have you brought so much guilt on me and my kingdom?
You have done things to me that should never be done." [10]Abimelek also asked Abraham, "Why did you do this?"
[11]Abraham replied, "I thought, 'There is no respect for God in this place. They will kill me because of my wife.' [12]Besides, she really is my sister. She's the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother. And she became my wife. [13]God had me wander away from my father's house. So I said to her, 'Here is how you can show your love to me. Everywhere we go, say about me, "He's my brother." ' "
[14]Then Abimelek gave Abraham sheep and cattle and male and female slaves.
He also returned his wife Sarah to him. [15]Abimelek said, "Here is my land. Live anywhere you want to."
[16]He said to Sarah, "I'm giving your brother 25 pounds of silver. This will show everyone with you that I am sorry for what I did to you. You haven't done anything wrong."

[17]Then Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelek. He also healed his wife and his female slaves so they could have children again. [18]The LORD had kept all the women in Abimelek’s house from having children. He had done it because of Abraham’s wife Sarah.

Genesis 21

Isaac Is Born

[1]The LORD was gracious to Sarah, just as he had said he would be. The LORD did for Sarah what he had promised to do. [2]Sarah became pregnant. She had a son by Abraham when he was old. The child was born at the exact time God had promised. [3]Abraham gave the name Isaac to the son Sarah had by him.
[4]When his son Isaac was eight days old, Abraham circumcised him. He did it exactly as God had commanded him. [5]Abraham was 100 years old when his son Isaac was born to him.

[6]Sarah said, “God has given laughter to me. Everyone who hears about this will laugh with me.” [7]She also said, “Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would breast-feed children? But I’ve had a son by him when he is old.”

Abraham Sends Hagar and Ishmael Away

[8]Isaac grew. The time came for his mother to stop breast-feeding him. On that day Abraham prepared a big celebration. [9]But Sarah saw Ishmael making fun of Isaac. Ishmael was the son Hagar had by Abraham. Hagar was Sarah’s Egyptian slave. [10]Sarah said to Abraham, “Get rid of that slave woman! Get rid of her son!
That woman’s son will never have a share of the family’s property. All of it belongs to my son Isaac.”

[11]What Sarah said upset Abraham very much. After all, Ishmael was his son.
[12]But God said to Abraham, “Do not be so upset about the boy and your slave Hagar. Listen to what Sarah tells you, because your family line will continue through Isaac. [13]I will also make the son of your slave into a nation. I will do it because he is your child.”

[14]Early the next morning Abraham got some food and a bottle of water. The bottle was made out of animal skin. He gave the food and water to Hagar, placing them on her shoulders. Then he sent her away with the boy. She went on her way and wandered in the Desert of Beersheba.

[15]When the water in the bottle was gone, she put the boy under a bush. [16]Then she sat down about as far away as a person can shoot an arrow. She thought, “I can’t stand to watch the boy die.” As she sat there, she began to sob.

[17]God heard the boy crying. Then the angel of God called out to Hagar from heaven. He said to her, “What is the matter, Hagar? Do not be afraid. God has heard the boy crying as he lies there. 18Lift up the boy and take him by the hand. I will make him into a great nation.”

19Then God opened Hagar’s eyes, and she saw a well of water. So she went and filled the bottle with water and gave the boy a drink.

20God was with the boy as he grew up. He lived in the desert and learned to shoot a bow and arrow. 21While he was living in the Desert of Paran, his mother got a wife for him from Egypt.

The Agreement at Beersheba

22At that time Abimelek and his army commander, Phicol, spoke to Abraham. They said to Abraham, “God is with you in everything you do. 23Now make a promise to me here while God is watching. Give me your word that you will treat me fairly. Promise that you will treat my children and their children the same way. I’ve been kind to you. Now you be kind to me and the country where you are living as an outsider.”

24Abraham said, “I give you my word that I’ll do it.”

25Then Abraham complained to Abimelek that his servants had taken over a well of water. 26But Abimelek said, “I don’t know who has done this. You didn’t tell me. And today is the first time I heard about it.”

27So Abraham gave Abimelek sheep and cattle. The two men came to an agreement. 28Then Abraham picked out seven female lambs from his flock. 29Abimelek asked Abraham, “What’s the meaning of these seven female lambs? Why have you picked them out and set them apart?”

30Abraham replied, “Accept the seven lambs from me. They will be a witness that I dug this well.”

31So that place was named Beersheba. That’s because there the two men came to an agreement.

32After the agreement had been made at Beersheba, Abimelek went back to the land of the Philistines. His army commander, Phicol, went with him. 33Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba. There he called on the name of the LORD, the God who lives forever. 34Abraham stayed in the land of the Philistines for a long time.

Genesis 22

God Tests Abraham

[1]Some time later God tested Abraham. He said to him, “Abraham!”

“Here I am,” Abraham replied.

[2]Then God said, “Take your son, your only son. He is the one you love. Take Isaac. Go to the place called Moriah. Give your son to me there as a burnt offering. Sacrifice him on the mountain I will show you.”

[3]Early the next morning Abraham got up and loaded his donkey. He took two of his servants and his son Isaac with him. He cut enough wood for the burnt offering. Then he started out for the place God had shown him. [4]On the third day Abraham saw the place a long way off. [5]He said to his servants, “Stay here with the donkey. I and the boy will go over there and worship. Then we’ll come back to you.”

[6]Abraham had his son Isaac carry the wood for the burnt offering. He himself carried the fire and the knife. And the two of them walked on together. [7]Then Isaac said to his father Abraham, “Father?”

“Yes, my son?” Abraham replied.

“The fire and wood are here,” Isaac said. “But where is the lamb for the burnt offering?”

[8]Abraham answered, “God himself will provide the lamb for the burnt offering, my son.” And the two of them walked on together.

[9]They reached the place God had shown Abraham. There Abraham built an altar. He arranged the wood on it. He tied up his son Isaac. Abraham placed him on the altar, on top of the wood. [10]Then he reached out his hand. He picked up the knife to kill his son. [11]But the angel of the LORD called out to him from heaven. He said, “Abraham! Abraham!”

“Here I am,” Abraham replied.

[12]“Do not lay a hand on the boy,” he said. “Do not harm him. Now I know that you would do anything for God. You have not held back from me your son, your only son.”

[13]Abraham looked around. There in a bush he saw a ram caught by its horns. He went over and took the ram. He sacrificed it as a burnt offering instead of his son. [14]So Abraham named that place The LORD Will Provide. To this day people say, “It will be provided on the mountain of the LORD.”

[15]The angel of the LORD called out to Abraham from heaven a second time.
[16]He said, “I am giving you my word that I will bless you. I will bless you because of what you have done,” announces the LORD. “You have not held back your son, your only son. [17]So I will certainly bless you. I will make the children born into your family as many as the stars in the sky. I will make them as many as the grains of sand on the seashore. They will take over the cities of their enemies. [18]All nations on earth will be blessed because of your children. All these things will happen because you have obeyed me.” [19]Then Abraham returned to his servants. They started out together for Beersheba. And Abraham stayed in Beersheba.

Nahor’s Sons

[20]Some time later Abraham was told, “Milkah has become a mother.
She has had sons by your brother Nahor.
[21]Uz was born first. Then came his brother Buz.
Kemuel was born next. He became the father of Aram.
[22]Milkah’s other sons are Kesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph and Bethuel.”
[23]Bethuel became the father of Rebekah.
Milkah had the eight sons by Abraham’s brother Nahor.

[24]Nahor had a concubine named Reumah. She also had sons.
They were Tebah, Gaham, Tahash and Maakah.

Genesis 23

Sarah Dies

1Sarah lived to be 127 years old. 2She died at Kiriath Arba. Kiriath Arba is also called Hebron. It's in the land of Canaan. Sarah's death made Abraham very sad. He went to the place where her body was lying. There he wept over her.
3Then Abraham got up from beside his wife's body. He said to the Hittites, 4"I'm an outsider. I'm a stranger among you. Sell me some property where I can bury those in my family who die. Then I can bury my wife." 5The Hittites replied to Abraham, 6"Sir, listen to us. You are a mighty prince among us. Bury your wife in the best place we have to bury our dead. None of us will refuse to sell you a place to bury her."
7Then Abraham bowed down in front of the Hittites, the people of the land.
8He said to them, "If you are willing to let me bury my wife, then listen to me.
Speak to Zohar's son Ephron for me. 9Ask him to sell me the cave of Machpelah. It belongs to him and is at the end of his field. Ask him to sell it to me for the full price. I want it as a place to bury my dead wife among you."
10Ephron the Hittite was sitting there among his people. He replied to Abraham. All of the Hittites who had come to the gate of his city heard him.
11"No, sir," Ephron said. "Listen to me. I will give you the field. I'll also give you the cave that's in the field. I will give it to you in front of my people. Bury your wife."
12Again Abraham bowed down in front of the people of the land. 13He spoke to Ephron so they could hear him. He said, "Please listen to me. I'll pay the price of the field. Accept it from me. Then I can bury my wife there." 14Ephron answered Abraham, 15"Sir, listen to me. The land is worth ten pounds of silver. But what's that between the two of us? Bury your wife." 16Abraham agreed to Ephron's offer. He weighed out for Ephron the price he had named. The Hittites there had heard the amount. The price was ten pounds of silver. Abraham measured it by the weights that were used by merchants.
17So Ephron sold his field to Abraham. The field was in Machpelah near Mamre. Abraham bought the field and the cave that was in it. He also bought all the trees that were inside the borders of the field. Everything was sold 18to Abraham as his property. He bought it in front of all the Hittites who had come to the gate of the city. 19Then Abraham buried his wife Sarah. He buried her in the cave in the field of Machpelah near Mamre in the land of Canaan. Mamre is at Hebron. [20]So the field and the cave that was in it were sold to Abraham by the Hittites. The property became a place to bury those who died in his family.

Genesis 24

Abraham's Servant Finds a Wife for Isaac

[1]By that time Abraham was very old. The LORD had blessed Abraham in every way. [2]The best servant in his house was in charge of everything Abraham had. Abraham said to him, "Put your hand under my thigh. [3]The LORD is the God of heaven and the God of earth. I want you to make a promise to me in his name. I'm living among the people of Canaan. But I want you to promise me that you won't get a wife for my son from their daughters. [4]Instead, promise me that you will go to my country and to my own relatives. Get a wife for my son Isaac from there."

[5]The servant asked Abraham, "What if the woman doesn't want to come back with me to this land? Then should I take your son back to the country you came from?"

[6]"Make sure you don't take my son back there," Abraham said. [7]"The LORD, the God of heaven, took me away from my father's family. He brought me out of my own land. He made me a promise. He said, 'I will give this land to your family after you.' The LORD will send his angel ahead of you. So you will be able to get a wife for my son from there. [8]The woman may not want to come back with you. If she doesn't, you will be free from your promise. But don't take my son back there." [9]So the servant put his hand under Abraham's thigh. He promised to do what his master wanted.

[10]The servant chose ten of his master's camels and left. He loaded the camels with all kinds of good things from his master. He started out for Aram Naharaim and made his way to the town of Nahor. [11]He stopped near the well outside the town. There he made the camels get down on their knees. It was almost evening, the time when women go out to get water.

[12]Then he prayed, "LORD, you are the God of my master Abraham. Make me successful today. Be kind to my master Abraham. [13]I'm standing beside this spring. The daughters of the people who live in the town are coming out here to get water. [14]I will speak to a young woman. I'll say to her, 'Please lower your jar so I can have a drink.' Suppose she says, 'Have a drink of water, and I'll get some for your camels too.' Then let her be the one you have chosen for your servant Isaac. That's how I'll know you have been kind to my master."

[15]Before he had finished praying, Rebekah came out. She was carrying a jar on her shoulder. She was the daughter of Milkah's son Bethuel. Milkah was the wife of Abraham's brother Nahor. [16]The young woman was very beautiful. No man had ever slept with her. She went down to the spring. She filled her jar and came up again.

[17]The servant hurried to meet her. He said, "Please give me a little water from your jar."

[18]"Have a drink, sir," she said. She quickly lowered the jar to her hands and gave him a drink.

[19]After she had given him a drink, she said, "I'll get water for your camels too. I'll keep doing it until they have had enough to drink." [20]So she quickly emptied her jar into the stone tub. Then she ran back to the well to get more water. She got enough for all his camels. [21]The man didn't say a word. He watched her closely. He wanted to learn whether the LORD had given him success on the journey he had made.

[22]The camels finished drinking. Then the man took out a gold nose ring. It weighed about a fifth of an ounce. He also took out two gold bracelets. They weighed about four ounces. [23]Then he asked, "Whose daughter are you? And please tell me something else. Is there room in your father's house for us? Can we spend the night there?"

[24]She answered, "I'm the daughter of Bethuel. He's the son Milkah had by Nahor." [25]She continued, "We have plenty of straw and feed for your camels. We also have room for you to spend the night."

[26]Then the man bowed down and worshiped the LORD. [27]He said, "I praise the LORD, the God of my master Abraham. The LORD hasn't stopped being kind and faithful to my master. The LORD has led me on this journey. He has brought me to the house of my master's relatives."

[28]The young woman ran home. She told her mother's family what had happened. [29]Rebekah had a brother named Laban. He hurried out to the spring to meet the man. [30]Laban had seen the nose ring. He had seen the bracelets on his sister's arms. And he had heard Rebekah tell what the man had said to her. So Laban went out to the man. He found him standing by the camels near the spring. [31]"The LORD has given you his blessing," he said. "So come with me. Why are you standing out here? I've prepared my house for you. I also have a place for the camels."

[32]So the man went to the house. The camels were unloaded. Straw and feed were brought for the camels. And water was brought for him and his men to wash their feet. [33]Then food was placed in front of him. But he said, “I won’t eat until I’ve told you what I have to say.”

“Then tell us,” Laban said.

[34]So he said, “I am Abraham’s servant. [35]The LORD has blessed my master greatly, and he has become rich. The LORD has given him sheep and cattle, silver and gold. He has also given him male and female servants, camels and donkeys. [36]My master’s wife Sarah had a son by him when she was old. He has given that son everything he owns. [37]My master made me promise him. He said, ‘I’m living in the land of the people of Canaan. But promise me that you won’t get a wife for my son from their daughters. [38]Instead, go to my father’s family and to my own relatives. Get a wife for my son there.’

[39]“Then I asked my master, ‘What if the woman won’t come back with me?’

[40]“He replied, ‘I have walked faithfully with the LORD. He will send his angel with you. He will give you success on your journey. So you will be able to get a wife for my son. She will be from my own relatives and from my father’s family. [41]When you go to my relatives, suppose they refuse to give her to you. Then you will be free from the promise you made to me.’

[42]“Today I came to the spring. I said, ‘LORD, you are the God of my master Abraham. Please make me successful on this journey I’ve made. [43]I’m standing beside this spring. A young woman will come out to get water. I’ll say to her, “Please let me drink a little water from your jar.” [44]Suppose she says, “Have a drink of water, and I’ll get some for your camels too.” Then let her be the one the LORD has chosen for my master’s son.’

[45]“Before I finished praying in my heart, Rebekah came out. She was carrying a jar on her shoulder. She went down to the spring and got water. I said to her, ‘Please give me a drink.’

[46]“She quickly lowered her jar from her shoulder. She said, ‘Have a drink, and I’ll get water for your camels too.’ So I drank. She also got water for the camels.

[47]“I asked her, ‘Whose daughter are you?’

“She said, ‘The daughter of Bethuel. He’s the son Milkah had by Nahor.’

“Then I put the ring in her nose. I put the bracelets on her arms. [48]And I bowed down and worshiped the LORD. I praised the LORD, the God of my master Abraham. He had led me on the right road. He had led me to get for my master’s son the granddaughter of my master’s brother. [49]Now will you be kind and faithful to my master? If you will, tell me. And if you won’t, tell me. Then I’ll know which way to turn.”

[50]Laban and Bethuel answered, “The LORD has done all of this. We can’t say anything to you one way or the other. [51]Here is Rebekah. Take her and go. Let her become the wife of your master’s son, just as the LORD has said.”

[52]Abraham’s servant heard what they said. So he bowed down to the LORD with his face to the ground. [53]He brought out gold and silver jewelry and articles of clothing. He gave all of them to Rebekah. He also gave expensive gifts to her brother and her mother. [54]Then Abraham’s servant and the men who were with him ate and drank. They spent the night there.

When they got up the next morning, Abraham’s servant said, “Send me back to my master.”

[55]But her brother and her mother replied, “Let the young woman stay with us ten days or so. Then you can go.”

[56]But he said to them, “Don’t make me wait. The LORD has given me success on my journey. Send me on my way so I can go to my master.”

[57]Then they said, “Let’s get Rebekah and ask her about it.” [58]So they sent for her and asked, “Will you go with this man?”

“Yes, I’ll go,” she said.

[59]So they sent their sister Rebekah on her way with Abraham’s servant and his men. They also sent Rebekah’s servant with her. [60]And they gave Rebekah their blessing. They said to her,

> “Dear sister, may your family grow > by thousands and thousands.
> May they take over > the cities of their enemies.”

[61]Then Rebekah and her female servants got ready. They got on their camels to go back with the man. So Abraham’s servant took Rebekah and left.

[62]By that time Isaac had come from Beer Lahai Roi. He was living in the Negev Desert. [63]One evening he went out to the field. He wanted to spend some time thinking. When he looked up, he saw camels approaching. [64]Rebekah also looked up and saw Isaac. She got down from her camel. [65]She asked the servant, “Who is that man in the field coming to meet us?”

“He’s my master,” the servant answered. So she covered her face with her veil.

[66]Then the servant told Isaac everything he had done. [67]Isaac brought Rebekah into the tent that had belonged to his mother Sarah. And he married Rebekah. She became his wife, and he loved her. So Isaac was comforted after his mother died.

Genesis 25

Abraham Dies

[1]Abraham had married another woman. Her name was Keturah. [2]She had Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak and Shuah by Abraham. [3]Jokshan was the father of Sheba and Dedan. The children of Dedan were the Ashurites, the Letushites and the Leummites. [4]The sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanok, Abida and Eldaah. All of them were members of Keturah's family line.

[5]Abraham left everything he owned to Isaac. [6]But while he was still living, he gave gifts to the sons of his concubines. Then he sent them away from his son Isaac. He sent them to the land of the east.

[7]Abraham lived a total of 175 years. [8]He took his last breath and died when he was very old. He had lived a very long time. Then he joined the members of his family who had already died. [9]Abraham's sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him.
They put his body in the cave of Machpelah near Mamre. It was in the field of Ephron, the son of Zohar the Hittite. [10]Abraham had bought the field from the Hittites. He was buried there with his wife Sarah. [11]After Abraham died, God blessed his son Isaac. At that time Isaac was living near Beer Lahai Roi.

The Sons of Ishmael

[12]Here is the story of the family line of Abraham's son Ishmael. Hagar gave birth to Ishmael by Abraham. Hagar was Sarah's slave from Egypt.

[13]Here are the names of the sons of Ishmael. They are listed in the order they were born.

Nebaioth was Ishmael's oldest son.
Then came Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, [14]Mishma, Dumah, Massa, [15]Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish and Kedemah.

[16]All of them were Ishmael's sons. They were rulers of 12 tribes. They all lived in their own settlements and camps.

[17]Ishmael lived a total of 137 years. Then he took his last breath and died. He joined the members of his family who had already died. [18]His children settled in the area between Havilah and Shur. It was near the eastern border of Egypt, as you go toward Ashur. Ishmael's children weren't friendly toward any of the tribes related to them.

Jacob and Esau

[19]Here is the story of the family line of Abraham's son Isaac.

Abraham was the father of Isaac. [20]Isaac was 40 years old when he married Rebekah. She was the daughter of Bethuel, the Aramean from Paddan Aram. She was also the sister of Laban, the Aramean.

[21]Rebekah couldn't have children. So Isaac prayed to the LORD for her. And the LORD answered his prayer. His wife Rebekah became pregnant. [22]The babies struggled with each other inside her. She said, "Why is this happening to me?" So she went to ask the LORD what she should do.

[23]The LORD said to her,

"Two nations are in your body.
Two tribes that are now inside you will be separated.
One nation will be stronger than the other.
The older son will serve the younger one."

[24]The time came for Rebekah to have her babies. There were twin boys in her body. [25]The first one to come out was red. His whole body was covered with hair. So they named him Esau. [26]Then his brother came out. His hand was holding onto Esau's heel. So he was named Jacob. Isaac was 60 years old when Rebekah had them.

[27]The boys grew up. Esau became a skillful hunter. He liked the open country. But Jacob was content to stay at home among the tents. [28]Isaac liked the meat of wild animals. So Esau was his favorite son. But Rebekah's favorite was Jacob.

[29]One day Jacob was cooking some stew. Esau came in from the open country. He was very hungry. [30]He said to Jacob, "Quick! I'm very hungry! Let me have some of that red stew!" That's why he was also named Edom.

[31]Jacob replied, "First sell me the rights that belong to you as the oldest son in the family."

[32]“Look, I’m dying of hunger,” Esau said. “What good are those rights to me?”

[33]But Jacob said, “First promise to sell me your rights.” So Esau promised to do it. He sold Jacob all the rights that belonged to him as the oldest son.

[34]Then Jacob gave Esau some bread and some lentil stew. Esau ate and drank. Then he got up and left.

So Esau didn’t value the rights that belonged to him as the oldest son.

Genesis 26

Isaac and Abimelek

[1]There was very little food in the land. The same thing had been true earlier, in Abraham's time. Isaac went to Abimelek in Gerar. Abimelek was the king of the Philistines. [2]The LORD appeared to Isaac and said, "Do not go down to Egypt. Live in the land where I tell you to live. [3]Stay there for a while. I will be with you and give you my blessing. I will give all these lands to you and your children after you. And I will keep my word that I gave to your father Abraham.
[4]I will make your children after you as many as the stars in the sky. And I will give them all these lands. All nations on earth will be blessed because of your children. [5]I will do all these things because Abraham obeyed me. He did everything I required. He kept my commands, my rules and my instructions."
[6]So Isaac stayed in Gerar.

[7]The men of that place asked him about his wife. He said, "She's my sister."
He was afraid to say, "She's my wife." He thought, "The men of this place might kill me because of Rebekah. She's a beautiful woman."

[8]Isaac had been there a long time. One day Abimelek, the king of the Philistines, looked down from a window. He saw Isaac hugging and kissing his wife Rebekah. [9]So Abimelek sent for Isaac. He said, "She's really your wife, isn't she? Why did you say she was your sister?"

Isaac answered him, "I thought I might lose my life because of her."

[10]Then Abimelek said, "What have you done to us? What if one of the men slept with your wife? Then you would have made us guilty."

[11]So Abimelek gave orders to all the people. He said, "Anyone who harms this man or his wife will surely be put to death."

[12]Isaac planted crops in that land. That same year he gathered 100 times more than he planted. That was because the LORD blessed him. [13]Isaac became rich.
His wealth continued to grow until he became very rich. [14]He had many flocks and herds and servants. Isaac had so much that the Philistines became jealous of him. [15]So they stopped up all the wells the servants of his father Abraham had dug. They filled them with dirt.

[16]Then Abimelek said to Isaac, "Move away from us. You have become too powerful for us."

[17]So Isaac moved away from there. He camped in the Valley of Gerar, where he made his home. [18]Isaac opened up the wells again. They had been dug in the time of his father Abraham. The Philistines had stopped them up after Abraham died. Isaac gave the wells the same names his father had given them.

[19]Isaac's servants dug wells in the valley. There they discovered fresh water. [20]But the people of Gerar who took care of their own herds argued with the people who took care of Isaac's herds. "The water is ours!" the people of Gerar said. So Isaac named the well Esek. That's because they argued with him. [21]Then Isaac's servants dug another well. They argued about that one too. So he named it Sitnah. [22]Isaac moved on from there and dug another well. But no one argued about that one. So he named it Rehoboth. He said, "Now the LORD has given us room. Now we will be successful in the land."

[23]From there Isaac went up to Beersheba. [24]That night the LORD appeared to him. He said, "I am the God of your father Abraham. Do not be afraid. I am with you. I will bless you. I will increase the number of your children because of my servant Abraham."

[25]Isaac built an altar there and worshiped the LORD. There he set up his tent. And there his servants dug a well.

[26]During that time, Abimelek had come to him from Gerar. His personal adviser, Ahuzzath, had come with him. So had his army commander, Phicol. [27]Isaac asked them, "Why have you come to me? You were angry with me and sent me away."

[28]They answered, "We saw clearly that the LORD was with you. So we said, 'There should be an agreement between us and you.' We want to make a peace treaty with you. [29]Give us your word that you won't harm us. We didn't harm you. We always treated you well. We sent you away peacefully. And now the LORD has blessed you."

[30]Then Isaac had a feast prepared for them. They ate and drank. [31]Early the next morning the men made a treaty with each other. Then Isaac sent the men of Gerar on their way. And they left peacefully.

[32]That day Isaac's servants came to him. They told him about the well they had dug. They said, "We've found water!" [33]So he named it Shibah. To this day the name of the town has been Beersheba.

Jacob Takes Esau's Blessing

[34]When Esau was 40 years old, he got married to Judith. She was the daughter of Beeri the Hittite. Esau also married Basemath. She was the daughter of Elon the Hittite. [35]Isaac and Rebekah became very upset because Esau had married Hittite women.

Genesis 27

[1]Isaac had become old. His eyes were so weak he couldn't see anymore. One day he called for his older son Esau. He said to him, "My son."

"Here I am," he answered.

[2]Isaac said, "I'm an old man now. And I don't know when I'll die. [3]Now then, get your weapons. Get your bow and arrows. Go out to the open country. Hunt some wild animals for me. [4]Prepare for me the kind of tasty food I like. Bring it to me to eat. Then I'll give you my blessing before I die."

[5]Rebekah was listening when Isaac spoke to his son Esau. Esau left for the open country. He went to hunt for a wild animal and bring it back. [6]Then Rebekah said to her son Jacob, "Look, I heard your father speaking to your brother Esau. [7]He said, 'Bring me a wild animal. Prepare some tasty food for me to eat. Then I'll give you my blessing before I die. The LORD will be my witness.' " [8]Rebekah continued, "My son, listen carefully. Do what I tell you. [9]Go out to the flock. Bring me two of the finest young goats. I will prepare tasty food for your father. I'll make it just the way he likes it. [10]I want you to take it to your father to eat. Then he'll give you his blessing before he dies."

[11]Jacob said to his mother Rebekah, "My brother Esau's body is covered with hair. But my skin is smooth. [12]What if my father touches me? He would know I was trying to trick him. He would curse me instead of giving me a blessing."

[13]His mother said to him, "My son, let the curse be on me. Just do what I say. Go and get the goats for me."

[14]So he went and got the goats. He brought them to his mother. And she prepared some tasty food. She made it just the way his father liked it. [15]The clothes of her older son Esau were in her house. She took Esau's best clothes and put them on her younger son Jacob. [16]She covered his hands with the skins of the goats. She also covered the smooth part of his neck with them. [17]Then she handed to her son Jacob the tasty food and the bread she had made.

[18]He went to his father and said, "My father."

"Yes, my son," Isaac answered. "Who is it?"

[19]Jacob said to his father, "I'm your oldest son Esau. I've done as you told me. Please sit up. Eat some of my wild meat. Then give me your blessing."

[20]Isaac asked his son, "How did you find it so quickly, my son?"

"The LORD your God gave me success," he replied.

[21]Then Isaac said to Jacob, “Come near so I can touch you, my son. I want to know whether you really are my son Esau.”

[22]Jacob went close to his father. Isaac touched him and said, “The voice is the voice of Jacob. But the hands are the hands of Esau.” [23]Isaac didn’t recognize Jacob. Jacob’s hands were covered with hair like those of his brother Esau. So Isaac blessed him. [24]“Are you really my son Esau?” he asked.

“I am,” Jacob replied.

[25]Isaac said, “My son, bring me some of your wild meat to eat. Then I’ll give you my blessing.”

Jacob brought it to him. So Isaac ate. Jacob also brought some wine. And Isaac drank. [26]Then Jacob’s father Isaac said to him, “Come here, my son. Kiss me.”

[27]So Jacob went to him and kissed him. When Isaac smelled the clothes, he gave Jacob his blessing. He said, “It really is the smell of my son.

It’s like the smell of a field that the LORD has blessed.
[28]May God give you dew from heaven.
May he give you the richness of the earth.
May he give you plenty of grain and fresh wine.
[29]May nations serve you.
May they bow down to you.
Rule over your brothers.
May the sons of your mother bow down to you.
May those who curse you be cursed.
And may those who bless you be blessed.”

[30]When Isaac finished blessing him, Jacob left his father. Just then his brother Esau came in from hunting. [31]He too prepared some tasty food. He brought it to his father. Then Esau said to him, “My father, please sit up. Eat some of my wild meat. Then give me your blessing.”

[32]His father Isaac asked him, “Who are you?”

“I’m your son,” he answered. “I’m Esau, your oldest son.”

[33]Isaac began to shake all over. He said, “Then who hunted a wild animal and brought it to me? I ate it just before you came. I gave him my blessing. And he will certainly be blessed!”

34 Esau heard his father’s words. Then he yelled loudly and bitterly. He said to his father, “Bless me! Bless me too, my father!”
35 But Isaac said, “Your brother came and tricked me. He took your blessing.”
36 Esau said, “Isn’t Jacob just the right name for him? This is the second time he has taken advantage of me. First, he took my rights as the oldest son. And now he’s taken my blessing!” Then Esau asked, “Haven’t you saved any blessing for me?”
37 Isaac answered Esau, “I’ve made him ruler over you. I’ve made all his relatives serve him. And I’ve provided him with grain and fresh wine. So what can I possibly do for you, my son?” 38 Esau said to his father, “Do you have only one blessing, my father? Bless me too, my father!” Then Esau wept loudly.
39 His father Isaac answered him,

“You will live far away from the fruit of the earth.
You will live far away from the dew of heaven above.
40 You will live by using the sword.
And you will serve your brother.
But you will grow restless.
Then you will throw off the heavy load he has caused you to carry.”

41 Esau was angry with Jacob. He was angry because of the blessing his father had given to Jacob. He said to himself, “The days of sorrow over my father’s death are near. Then I’ll kill my brother Jacob.” 42 Rebekah was told what her older son Esau had said. So she sent for her younger son Jacob. She said to him, “Your brother Esau is planning to get back at you by killing you. 43 Now then, my son, do what I say. Run away at once to my brother Laban in Harran. 44 Stay with him until your brother’s anger calms down. 45 When he forgets what you did to him, I’ll let you know. Then you can come back from there. Why should I lose both of you in one day?” 46 Then Rebekah spoke to Isaac. She said, “I’m sick of living because of Esau’s Hittite wives. Suppose Jacob also marries a Hittite woman. If he does, my life won’t be worth living.”

Genesis 28

[1]So Isaac called for Jacob and blessed him. Then he commanded him, “Don’t get married to a Canaanite woman. [2]Go at once to Paddan Aram. Go to the house of your mother’s father Bethuel. Find a wife for yourself there. Take her from among the daughters of your mother’s brother Laban. [3]May the Mighty God bless you. May he give you children. May he make your family larger until you become a community of nations. [4]May he give you and your children after you the blessing he gave to Abraham. Then you can take over the land where you now live as an outsider. It’s the land God gave to Abraham.” [5]Isaac sent Jacob on his way. Jacob went to Paddan Aram. He went to Laban, the son of Bethuel the Aramean. Laban was Rebekah’s brother. And Rebekah was the mother of Jacob and Esau.

[6]Esau found out that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had sent him to Paddan Aram. Isaac wanted him to get a wife from there. Esau heard that when Isaac blessed Jacob, he commanded him, “Don’t get married to a woman from Canaan.” [7]Esau also learned that Jacob had obeyed his father and mother and had gone to Paddan Aram. [8]Then Esau realized how much his father Isaac disliked Canaanite women. [9]So he went to Ishmael and married Mahalath. She was the sister of Nebaioth and the daughter of Abraham’s son Ishmael. Esau added her to the wives he already had.

Jacob Has a Dream at Bethel

[10]Jacob left Beersheba and started out for Harran. [11]He reached a certain place and stopped for the night. The sun had already set. He took one of the stones there and placed it under his head. Then he lay down to sleep. [12]In a dream he saw a stairway standing on the earth. Its top reached to heaven. The angels of God were going up and coming down on it. [13]The LORD stood beside the stairway. He said, “I am the LORD. I am the God of your grandfather Abraham and the God of Isaac. I will give you and your children after you the land you are lying on. [14]They will be like the dust of the earth that can’t be counted. They will spread out to the west and to the east. They will spread out to the north and to the south. All nations on earth will be blessed because of you and your children after you. [15]I am with you. I will watch over you everywhere you go. And I will bring you back to this land. I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you.”

16Jacob woke up from his sleep. Then he thought, “The LORD is surely in this place. And I didn’t even know it.” 17Jacob was afraid. He said, “How holy this place is! This must be the house of God. This is the gate of heaven.”

18Early the next morning Jacob took the stone he had placed under his head.
He set it up as a sacred stone. And he poured olive oil on top of it. 19He named that place Bethel. But the city used to be called Luz.

20Then Jacob made a promise. He said, “May God be with me. May he watch over me on this journey I’m taking. May he give me food to eat and clothes to wear. 21May he do as he has promised so that I can return safely to my father’s home. Then you, LORD, will be my God. 22This stone I’ve set up as a sacred stone will be God’s house. And I’ll give you a tenth of everything you give me.”

Genesis 29

Jacob Arrives in Paddan Aram

[1]Then Jacob continued on his journey. He came to the land where the eastern tribes lived. [2]There he saw a well in the open country. Three flocks of sheep were lying near it. The flocks were given water from the well. The stone over the opening of the well was large. [3]All the flocks would gather there. The shepherds would roll the stone away from the well's opening. They would give water to the sheep. Then they would put the stone back in its place over the opening of the well.

[4]Jacob asked the shepherds, "My friends, where are you from?"

"We're from Harran," they replied.

[5]He said to them, "Do you know Nahor's grandson Laban?"

"Yes, we know him," they answered.

[6]Then Jacob asked them, "How is he?"

"He's fine," they said. "Here comes his daughter Rachel with the sheep."

[7]"Look," he said, "the sun is still high in the sky. It's not time for the flocks to be brought together. Give water to the sheep and take them back to the grasslands."

[8]"We can't," they replied. "We have to wait until all the flocks are brought together. The stone has to be rolled away from the opening of the well. Then we'll give water to the sheep."

[9]He was still talking with them when Rachel came with her father's sheep. It was her job to take care of the flock. [10]Rachel was the daughter of Laban, Jacob's uncle. When Jacob saw Rachel with Laban's sheep, he went over to the well. He rolled the stone away from the opening. He gave water to his uncle's sheep. [11]Jacob kissed Rachel. Then he began to cry because he was so happy. [12]He had told Rachel he was a relative of her father. He had also said he was Rebekah's son. Rachel ran and told her father what Jacob had said.

[13]As soon as Laban heard the news about his sister's son Jacob, he hurried to meet him. Laban hugged Jacob and kissed him. Then Laban brought him to his home. There Jacob told him everything. [14]Then Laban said to him, "You are my own flesh and blood."

Jacob Marries Leah and Rachel

Jacob stayed with Laban for a whole month. [15]Then Laban said to him, “You are one of my relatives. But is that any reason for you to work for me for nothing? Tell me what your pay should be.”

[16]Laban had two daughters. The name of the older one was Leah. And the name of the younger one was Rachel. [17]Leah was plain, but Rachel was beautiful. She had a nice figure. [18]Jacob was in love with Rachel. He said to Laban, “I’ll work for you for seven years so I can marry your younger daughter Rachel.”

[19]Laban said, “It’s better for me to give her to you than to some other man. Stay here with me.” [20]So Jacob worked for seven years so he could marry Rachel. But they seemed like only a few days to him because he loved her so much.

[21]Then Jacob said to Laban, “Give me my wife. I’ve completed my time. I want to sleep with her.”

[22]So Laban brought all the people of the place together and had a feast prepared. [23]But when evening came, he gave his daughter Leah to Jacob. And Jacob slept with her. [24]Laban gave his female servant Zilpah to his daughter as her servant.

[25]When Jacob woke up the next morning, there was Leah next to him! So he said to Laban, “What have you done to me? I worked for you so I could marry Rachel, didn’t I? Why did you trick me?”

[26]Laban replied, “It isn’t our practice here to give the younger daughter to be married before the older one. [27]Complete this daughter’s wedding week. Then we’ll give you the younger one also. But you will have to work for another seven years.”

[28]So Jacob completed the week with Leah. Then Laban gave him his daughter Rachel to be his wife. [29]Laban gave his female servant Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as her servant. [30]Jacob slept with Rachel also. He loved Rachel more than he loved Leah. And he worked for Laban for another seven years.

Jacob Becomes the Father of Many Children

[31]The LORD saw that Jacob didn’t love Leah as much as he loved Rachel. So he let Leah have children. But Rachel wasn’t able to have children. [32]Leah became pregnant. She had a son. She named him Reuben. She said, “The LORD has seen me suffer. Surely my husband will love me now.”

[33]She became pregnant again. She had a son. Then she said, “The LORD heard that Jacob doesn’t love me very much. That’s why the LORD gave me this one too.” So she named him Simeon.

[34]She became pregnant again. She had a son. Then she said, “Now at last my husband will value me. I have had three sons by him.” So the boy was named Levi.

[35]She became pregnant again. She had a son. Then she said, “This time I’ll praise the LORD.” So she named him Judah. Then she stopped having children.

Genesis 30

[1]Rachel saw that she wasn't having any children by Jacob. So she became jealous of her sister. She said to Jacob, "Give me children, or I'll die!"
[2]Jacob became angry with her. He said, "Do you think I'm God? He's the one who has kept you from having children." [3]Then she said, "Here's my servant Bilhah. Sleep with her so that she can have children for me. Then I too can have a family through her."
[4]So Rachel gave Jacob her servant Bilhah as a wife. Jacob slept with her.
[5]And Bilhah became pregnant. She had a son by him. [6]Then Rachel said, "God has stood up for my rights. He has listened to my prayer and given me a son." So she named him Dan.
[7]Rachel's servant Bilhah became pregnant again. She had a second son by Jacob. [8]Then Rachel said, "I've had a great struggle with my sister. Now I've won." So she named him Naphtali.
[9]Leah saw that she had stopped having children. So she gave her servant Zilpah to Jacob as a wife. [10]Leah's servant Zilpah had a son by Jacob. [11]Then Leah said, "What good fortune!" So she named him Gad.
[12]Leah's servant Zilpah had a second son by Jacob. [13]Then Leah said, "I'm so happy! The women will call me happy." So she named him Asher.
[14]While the wheat harvest was being gathered, Reuben went out into the fields. He found some mandrake plants. He brought them to his mother Leah.
Rachel said to Leah, "Please give me some of your son's mandrakes." [15]But Leah said to her, "Isn't it enough that you took my husband away? Are you going to take my son's mandrakes too?" Rachel said, "All right. Jacob can sleep with you tonight if you give me your son's mandrakes."
[16]Jacob came in from the fields that evening. Leah went out to meet him.
"You have to sleep with me tonight," she said. "I've traded my son's mandrakes for that time with you." So he slept with her that night.
[17]God listened to Leah. She became pregnant and had a fifth son by Jacob.
[18]Then Leah said, "God has rewarded me because I gave my female servant to my husband." So she named the boy Issachar.
[19]Leah became pregnant again. She had a sixth son by Jacob. [20]Then Leah said, "God has given me a priceless gift. This time my husband will treat me with honor. I've had six sons by him." So she named the boy Zebulun.

21 Some time later she had a daughter. She named her Dinah.

22 Then God listened to Rachel. He showed concern for her. He made it possible for her to have children. 23 She became pregnant and had a son. Then she said, “God has taken away my shame.” 24 She said, “May the LORD give me another son.” So she named him Joseph.

Jacob Becomes the Owner of Large Flocks

25 After Rachel had Joseph, Jacob spoke to Laban. He said, “Send me on my way. I want to go back to my own home and country. 26 Give me my wives and children. I worked for you to get them. So I’ll be on my way. You know how much work I’ve done for you.”

27 But Laban said to him, “If you are pleased with me, stay here. I’ve discovered that the LORD has blessed me because of you.” 28 He continued, “Name your pay. I’ll give it to you.”

29 Jacob said to him, “You know how hard I’ve worked for you. You know that your livestock has done better under my care. 30 You had only a little before I came. But that little has become a lot. The LORD has blessed you everywhere I’ve been. But when can I do something for my own family?”

31 “What should I give you?” Laban asked.

“Don’t give me anything,” Jacob replied. “Just do one thing for me. Then I’ll go on taking care of your flocks and watching over them. 32 Let me go through all your flocks today. Let me remove every speckled or spotted sheep. Let me remove every dark-colored lamb. Let me remove every speckled or spotted goat. They will be my pay. 33 My honesty will be a witness about me in days to come. It will be a witness every time you check on what you have paid me. Suppose I have a goat that doesn’t have speckles or spots. Or suppose I have a lamb that isn’t dark colored. Then it will be considered stolen.”

34 “I agree,” said Laban. “Let’s do what you have said.” 35 That same day Laban removed all the male goats that had stripes or spots. He removed all the female goats that had speckles or spots. They were the ones that had white on them. He also removed all the dark-colored lambs. He had his sons take care of them. 36 Then he put a journey of three days between himself and Jacob. But Jacob continued to take care of the rest of Laban’s flocks.

37 Jacob took freshly cut branches from poplar, almond and plane trees. He made white stripes on the branches by peeling off their bark. 38 Then he placed the peeled branches in all the stone tubs where the animals drank water. He placed them there so they would be right in front of the flocks when they came to drink. The flocks were ready to mate when they came to drink. [39]So they mated in front of the branches. And the flocks gave birth to striped, speckled or spotted little ones. [40]Jacob put the little ones of the flock to one side by themselves. But he made the older ones face the striped and dark-colored animals that belonged to Laban. In that way, he made separate flocks for himself. He didn't put them with Laban's animals. [41]Every time the stronger females were ready to mate, Jacob would place the branches in the stone tubs. He would place them in front of the animals so they would mate near the branches. [42]But if the animals were weak, he wouldn't place the branches there. So the weak animals went to Laban. And the strong ones went to Jacob. [43]That's how Jacob became very rich. He became the owner of large flocks. He also had many male and female servants. And he had many camels and donkeys.

Genesis 31

Jacob Runs Away From Laban

[1]Jacob heard what Laban's sons were saying. "Jacob has taken everything our father owned," they said. "He has gained all this wealth from what belonged to our father." [2]Jacob noticed that Laban's feelings toward him had changed.

[3]Then the LORD spoke to Jacob. He said, "Go back to your father's land and to your relatives. I will be with you."

[4]So Jacob sent word to Rachel and Leah. He told them to come out to the fields where his flocks were. [5]He said to them, "I see that your father's feelings toward me have changed. But the God of my father has been with me. [6]You know that I've worked for your father with all my strength. [7]But your father has cheated me. He has changed my pay ten times. In spite of everything that's happened, God hasn't let him harm me. [8]Sometimes Laban would say, 'The speckled ones will be your pay.' Then all the flocks had little ones with speckles. At other times he would say, 'The striped ones will be your pay.' Then all the flocks had little ones with stripes. [9]So God has taken away your father's livestock and given them to me.

[10]"Once during the mating season I had a dream. In my dream I looked and saw male goats mating with the flock. The goats had stripes, speckles or spots. [11]The angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob.' I answered, 'Here I am.' [12]He said, 'Look around you. See the male goats mating with the flock. All of them have stripes, speckles or spots. That's because I have seen everything that Laban has been doing to you. [13]I am the God of Bethel. That is where you poured olive oil on a sacred stone. There you made a promise to me. Now leave this land. Go back to your own land.' "

[14]Rachel and Leah replied, "Do we still have any share of our father's property? [15]Doesn't our father think of us as outsiders? First he sold us. Now he has used up what he was paid for us. [16]All the wealth God took away from our father really belongs to us and our children. So do what God has told you to do."

[17]Then Jacob put his children and wives on camels. [18]He drove all his livestock ahead of him. He also took with him everything he had acquired in Paddan Aram. He left to go to his father Isaac in the land of Canaan.

[19]Laban had gone to clip the wool from his sheep. While he was gone, Rachel stole the statues of the family gods that belonged to her father. [20]And that's not all. Jacob tricked Laban, the Aramean. He didn’t tell him he was running away. 21So Jacob ran off with everything he had. He crossed the Euphrates River. And he headed for the hill country of Gilead.

Laban Chases Jacob

22On the third day Laban was told that Jacob had run away. 23He took his relatives with him and went after Jacob. Seven days later he caught up with him in the hill country of Gilead. 24Then God came to Laban, the Aramean, in a dream at night. He said to him, “Be careful. Do not say anything to Jacob, whether it is good or bad.”

25Jacob had set up his tent in the hill country of Gilead. That’s where Laban caught up with him. Laban and his relatives camped there too. 26Laban said to Jacob, “What have you done? You have tricked me. You have taken my daughters away like prisoners of war. 27Why did you run away in secret and trick me? Why didn’t you tell me? Then I could have sent you away happily. We could have sung to the music of tambourines and harps. 28You didn’t even let me kiss my grandchildren and my daughters goodbye. You have done a foolish thing. 29I have the power to harm you. But last night the God of your father spoke to me. He said, ‘Be careful. Do not say anything to Jacob, whether it is good or bad.’ 30Now you have run away. You longed to go back to your father’s home. But why did you have to steal the statues of my gods?”

31Jacob answered Laban, “I was afraid. I thought you would take your daughters away from me by force. 32But if you find anyone who has the statues of your gods, that person will not remain alive. While our relatives are watching, look for yourself. See if there’s anything of yours here with me. If you find anything belonging to you, take it.” But Jacob didn’t know that Rachel had stolen the statues.

33So Laban went into Jacob’s tent and Leah’s tent. He went into the tent of their two female servants. But he didn’t find anything. After he came out of Leah’s tent, he entered Rachel’s tent. 34Rachel was the one who had taken the statues of Laban’s family gods. She had put them inside her camel’s saddle. She was sitting on them. Laban searched the whole tent. But he didn’t find anything.

35Rachel said to her father, “I’m sorry, sir. I can’t get up for you right now. But don’t be angry with me. I’m having my monthly period.” So he searched everywhere but couldn’t find the statues of his gods.

36Jacob was very angry with Laban. “What is my crime?” he asked. “What have I done to you that you hunt me down like this? [37]You have searched through all my things. What have you found that belongs to your family? Put it here in front of your relatives and mine. Let them decide between the two of us.

[38]"I've been with you for 20 years now. The little ones of your sheep and goats were not dead when they were born. I haven't eaten rams from your flocks. [39]I didn't bring you animals torn apart by wild beasts. I made up for the loss myself. Also, you made me pay for anything stolen by day or night. [40]And what was my life like? The heat burned me in the daytime. And it was so cold at night that I froze. I couldn't sleep. [41]That's what it was like for the 20 years I was living with you. I worked for 14 years to marry your two daughters. I worked for six years to get my share of your flocks. You changed my pay ten times. [42]But the God of my father was with me. He is the God of Abraham and the God Isaac worshiped. If he hadn't been with me, you would surely have sent me away without anything to show for all my work. But God has seen my hard times. He has seen all the work my hands have done. So last night he warned you."

[43]Laban answered Jacob, "The women are my daughters. The children are my children. The flocks are my flocks. Everything you see is mine. But what can I do today about these daughters of mine? What can I do about the children they've had? [44]Come now. Let's make a formal agreement, you and I. Let it be a witness between us."

[45]So Jacob set up a stone as a way to remember. [46]He said to his relatives, "Get some stones." So they took stones and put them in a pile. And they ate there by it. [47]Laban named the pile of stones Jegar Sahadutha. Jacob named it Galeed.

[48]Laban said, "This pile of stones is a witness between you and me today." That's why it was named Galeed. [49]It was also called Mizpah. That's because Laban said, "May the LORD keep watch between you and me when we are away from each other. [50]Don't treat my daughters badly. Don't get married to any women besides my daughters. There isn't anyone here to see what we're doing. But remember that God is a witness between you and me."

[51]Laban also said to Jacob, "Here is this pile of stones. And here is this stone I've set up. I've set them up between you and me. [52]This pile is a witness. And this stone is a witness. They are witnesses that I won't go past this pile to harm you. And they are witnesses that you won't go past this pile and this stone to harm me. [53]The God of Abraham and Nahor is also the God of their father. May their God decide which of us is right."

So Jacob made a promise using the name of the God his father Isaac worshiped. [54]He offered a sacrifice there in the hill country. And he invited his relatives to a meal. After they had eaten, they spent the night there.

[55]Early the next morning Laban kissed his grandchildren and his daughters. He gave them his blessing. Then he left and returned home.

Genesis 32

Jacob Gets Ready to Meet Esau

[1]Jacob also went on his way. The angels of God met him. [2]Jacob saw them. He said, “This is the army of God!” So he named that place Mahanaim.

[3]Jacob sent messengers ahead of him to his brother Esau. Esau lived in the land of Seir. It was also called the country of Edom. [4]Jacob told the messengers what to do. He said, “Here’s what you must tell my master Esau. ‘Your servant Jacob says, “I’ve been staying with Laban. I’ve remained there until now. [5]I have cattle and donkeys and sheep and goats. I also have male and female servants. Now I’m sending this message to you. I hope I can please you.” ’ ”

[6]The messengers came back to Jacob. They said, “We went to your brother Esau. He’s coming now to meet you. He has 400 men with him.”

[7]Jacob was very worried and afraid. So he separated the people with him into two groups. He also separated the flocks and herds and camels. [8]He thought, “Esau might come and attack one group. If he does, the group that’s left can escape.”

[9]Then Jacob prayed, “You are the God of my grandfather Abraham. You are the God of my father Isaac. LORD, you are the one who said to me, ‘Go back to your country and your relatives. Then I will give you success.’ [10]You have been very kind and faithful to me. But I’m not worthy of any of this. When I crossed this Jordan River, all I had was my walking stick. But now I’ve become two camps. [11]Please save me from the hand of my brother Esau. I’m afraid he’ll come and attack me and the mothers with their children. [12]But you have said, ‘I will surely give you success. I will make your children as many as the grains of sand on the seashore. People will not be able to count them.’ ”

[13]Jacob spent the night there. He chose a gift for his brother Esau from what he had with him. [14]He chose 200 female goats and 20 male goats. He chose 200 female sheep and 20 male sheep. [15]He chose 30 female camels with their little ones. He chose 40 cows and ten bulls. And he chose 20 female donkeys and ten male donkeys. [16]He put each herd by itself. Then he put his servants in charge of them. He said to his servants, “Go on ahead of me. Keep some space between the herds.”

[17]Jacob spoke to his servant who was leading the way. He said, “My brother Esau will meet you. He’ll ask, ‘Who is your master? Where are you going? And who owns all these animals in front of you?’ [18]Then say to Esau, ‘They belong to your servant Jacob. They are a gift to you from him. And Jacob is coming behind us.’ ”

[19]He also spoke to the second and third servants. He told them and all the others who followed the herds what to do. He said, “Say the same thing to Esau when you meet him. [20]Make sure you say, ‘Your servant Jacob is coming behind us.’ ” Jacob was thinking, “I’ll make peace with him with these gifts I’m sending on ahead. When I see him later, maybe he’ll welcome me.” [21]So Jacob’s gifts went on ahead of him. But he himself spent the night in the camp.

Jacob Wrestles With God

[22]That night Jacob got up. He took his two wives, his two female servants and his 11 sons and sent them across the Jabbok River. [23]After they had crossed the stream, he sent over everything he owned. [24]So Jacob was left alone. A man wrestled with him until morning. [25]The man saw that he couldn’t win. So he touched the inside of Jacob’s hip. As Jacob wrestled with the man, Jacob’s hip was twisted. [26]Then the man said, “Let me go. It is morning.”

But Jacob replied, “I won’t let you go unless you bless me.”

[27]The man asked him, “What is your name?”

“Jacob,” he answered.

[28]Then the man said, “Your name will not be Jacob anymore. Instead, it will be Israel. You have wrestled with God and with people. And you have won.”

[29]Jacob said, “Please tell me your name.”

But he replied, “Why do you want to know my name?” Then he blessed Jacob there.

[30]So Jacob named the place Peniel. He said, “I saw God face to face. But I’m still alive!”

[31]The sun rose above Jacob as he passed by Peniel. He was limping because of his hip. [32]That’s why the Israelites don’t eat the meat attached to the inside of an animal’s hip. They don’t eat it to this day. It’s because the inside of Jacob’s hip was touched.

Genesis 33

Jacob Meets Esau

[1]Jacob looked and saw Esau coming with his 400 men! So Jacob separated the children. He put them with Leah, Rachel and the two female servants. [2]He put the servants and their children in front. He put Leah and her children next. And he put Rachel and Joseph last. [3]He himself went on ahead. As he came near his brother, he bowed down to the ground seven times.

[4]But Esau ran to meet Jacob. He hugged him and threw his arms around his neck. He kissed him, and they cried for joy. [5]Then Esau looked around and saw the women and children. “Who are these people with you?” he asked.

Jacob answered, “They are the children God has so kindly given to me.”

[6]Then the female servants and their children came near and bowed down. [7]Next, Leah and her children came and bowed down. Last of all came Joseph and Rachel. They bowed down too.

[8]Esau asked, “Why did you send all those herds I saw?”

“I hoped I could do something to please you,” Jacob replied.

[9]But Esau said, “I already have plenty, my brother. Keep what you have for yourself.”

[10]“No, please!” said Jacob. “If I’ve pleased you, accept this gift from me. Seeing your face is like seeing the face of God. You have welcomed me so kindly. [11]Please accept the present that was brought to you. God has given me so much. I have everything I need.” Jacob wouldn’t give in. So Esau accepted it.

[12]Then Esau said, “Let’s be on our way. I’ll go with you.”

[13]But Jacob said to him, “You know that the children are young. You also know that I have to take care of the cows and female sheep that are feeding their little ones. If the animals are driven hard for just one day, all of them will die. [14]So you go on ahead of me. I’ll move along only as fast as the flocks and herds and the children can go. I’ll go slowly until I come to you in Seir.”

[15]Esau said, “Then let me leave some of my men with you.”

“Why do that?” Jacob asked. “I just hope I’ve pleased you.”

[16]So that day Esau started on his way back to Seir. [17]But Jacob went to Sukkoth. There he built a place for himself. He also made shelters for his livestock. That’s why the place is named Sukkoth.

[18]After Jacob came from Paddan Aram, he arrived safely at the city of Shechem in Canaan. He camped where he could see the city. [19]For 100 pieces of silver he bought a piece of land. He got it from Hamor’s sons. Hamor was the father of Shechem. Jacob set up his tent on that piece of land. [20]He also set up an altar there. He named it El Elohe Israel.

Genesis 34

Simeon and Levi Kill the Men of Shechem

[1]Dinah was the daughter Leah had by Jacob. Dinah went out to visit the women of the land. [2]Hamor, the Hivite, was the ruler of that area. When his son Shechem saw Dinah, he took her and raped her. [3]Then he longed for Jacob's daughter Dinah. He fell in love with her and spoke tenderly to her. [4]Shechem said to his father Hamor, "Get me that young woman. I want her to be my wife."

[5]Jacob heard that his daughter Dinah had been raped. His sons were in the fields with his livestock. So he did nothing about it until they came home.

[6]Then Shechem's father Hamor went out to talk with Jacob. [7]Jacob's sons had come in from the fields. They came as soon as they heard what had happened.
They were shocked and very angry. Shechem had done a very terrible thing. He had forced Jacob's daughter to have sex with him. He had done something that should never be done in Israel.

[8]But Hamor said to Jacob and his sons, "My son Shechem wants your daughter. Please give her to him to be his wife. [9]Let your people and ours get married to each other. Give us your daughters as our wives. You can have our daughters as your wives. [10]You can live among us. Here is the land. Live in it.
Trade in it. Buy property in it."

[11]Then Shechem spoke to Dinah's father and brothers. He said, "I want to please you. I'll give you anything you ask for. [12]Make the price for the bride as high as you want to. I'll pay you whatever you ask. Just give me the young woman. I want to marry her."

[13]Their sister Dinah had been raped. So Jacob's sons lied to Shechem and his father Hamor. [14]They said to them, "We can't do it. We can't give our sister to a man who isn't circumcised. That would bring shame on us. [15]We'll agree, but only on one condition. You will have to become like us. You will have to circumcise all your males. [16]Then we'll give you our daughters as your wives.
And we'll take your daughters as our wives. We'll live among you and become one big family with you. [17]But if you won't agree to be circumcised, then we'll take our sister and go."

[18]Their offer seemed good to Hamor and his son Shechem. [19]The young man was the most honored of all his father's family. He didn't lose any time in doing what Dinah's father and brothers had said, because he was delighted with Jacob’s daughter. [20]Hamor and his son Shechem went to the city gate. They spoke to the other men there. [21]“These men are friendly toward us,” they said. “Let them live in our land. Let them trade in it. The land has plenty of room for them. We can marry their daughters. And they can marry ours. [22]But they will agree to live with us as one big family only on one condition. All our males must be circumcised, just as they are. [23]Won’t their livestock and their property belong to us? Won’t all their animals become ours? So let’s say yes to them. Then they’ll live among us.”

[24]All the men who went out through the city gate agreed with Hamor and his son Shechem. So every male in the city was circumcised.

[25]Three days later, all of them were still in pain. Then Simeon and Levi took their swords. They were Jacob’s sons and Dinah’s brothers. They attacked the city when the people didn’t expect it. They killed every male. [26]They also used their swords to kill Hamor and his son Shechem. Then they took Dinah from Shechem’s house and left. [27]Jacob’s other sons found the dead bodies. They robbed the city where their sister had been raped. [28]They took the flocks and herds and donkeys. They took everything in the city and in the fields. [29]They carried everything away. And they took all the women and children. They took away everything in the houses.

[30]Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, “You have brought trouble on me. Now I’m like a very bad smell to the Canaanites and Perizzites who live in this land. There aren’t many of us. They may join together against me and attack me. Then I and my family will be destroyed.”

[31]But they replied, “Should Shechem have treated our sister like a prostitute?”

Genesis 35

Jacob Returns to Bethel

[1]Then God said to Jacob, “Go up to Bethel and live there. Build an altar there to honor me. That’s where I appeared to you when you were running away from your brother Esau.”
[2]So Jacob spoke to his family and to everyone with him. He said, “Get rid of the statues of false gods you have with you. Make yourselves pure by washing and changing your clothes. [3]Come, let’s go up to Bethel. There I’ll build an altar to honor God. He answered me when I was in trouble. He’s been with me everywhere I’ve gone.” [4]So they gave Jacob all the statues of false gods they had. They also gave him their earrings. Jacob buried those things under the oak tree at Shechem. [5]Then Jacob and everyone with him started out. The terror of God fell on the towns all around them. So no one chased them.
[6]Jacob and all the people with him came to Luz. Luz is also called Bethel. It’s in the land of Canaan. [7]Jacob built an altar at Luz. He named the place El Bethel.
There God made himself known to Jacob when he was running away from his brother.
[8]Rebekah’s attendant Deborah died. They buried her body under the oak tree outside Bethel. So it was called Allon Bakuth.
[9]After Jacob returned from Paddan Aram, God appeared to him again. And God blessed him. [10]God said to him, “Your name is Jacob. But you will not be called Jacob anymore. Your name will be Israel.” So he named him Israel.
[11]God said to him, “I am the Mighty God. Have children so that there will be many of you. You will become the father of a nation and a community of nations. Your later family will include kings. [12]I am giving you the land I gave to Abraham and Isaac. I will also give it to your children after you.” [13]Then God left him at the place where he had talked with him.
[14]Jacob set up a sacred stone at the place where God had talked with him. He poured out a drink offering on it. He also poured olive oil on it. [15]Jacob named the place Bethel. That’s where God had talked with him.

Rachel and Isaac Die

[16]They moved on from Bethel. Ephrath wasn’t very far away when Rachel began to have a baby. She was having a very hard time of it. [17]The woman who helped her saw that she was having problems. So she said to Rachel, “Don’t be afraid. You have another son.” [18]But Rachel was dying. As she took her last breath, she named her son Ben-Oni. But his father named him Benjamin.

[19]So Rachel died. She was buried beside the road to Ephrath. Ephrath was also called Bethlehem. [20]Jacob set up a stone marker over her tomb. To this day, the stone marks the place where Rachel was buried.

[21]Israel moved on again. He set up his tent beyond Migdal Eder. [22]While Israel was living in that area, Reuben went in and slept with Bilhah. She was the concubine of Reuben’s father. And Israel heard about it.

Here are the 12 sons Jacob had.

[23]Leah was the mother of Reuben, Jacob’s oldest son.
Her other sons were Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar and Zebulun.
[24]The sons of Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin.
[25]The sons of Rachel’s female servant Bilhah were Dan and Naphtali.
[26]The sons of Leah’s female servant Zilpah were Gad and Asher.
These were Jacob’s sons. They were born in Paddan Aram.

[27]Jacob came home to his father Isaac in Mamre. Mamre is near Kiriath Arba, where Abraham and Isaac had stayed. The place is also called Hebron. [28]Isaac lived 180 years. [29]Then he took his last breath and died. He was very old when he joined the members of his family who had already died. His sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

Genesis 36

The Family Line of Esau

[1]Here is the story of the family line of Esau. Esau was also called Edom.

[2]Esau got his wives from among the women of Canaan. He married Adah, the daughter of Elon the Hittite. He also married Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah and the granddaughter of Zibeon the Hivite. [3]And he married Basemath, the daughter of Ishmael and the sister of Nebaioth.
[4]Adah had Eliphaz by Esau. Basemath had Reuel. [5]Oholibamah had Jeush, Jalam and Korah. All of them were Esau's sons. They were born in Canaan.
[6]Esau moved to a land far away from his brother Jacob. Esau took with him his wives, his sons and daughters, and all the people who lived with him. He also took his livestock and all his other animals. He took everything he had acquired in Canaan. [7]Jacob and Esau owned so much that they couldn't remain together. There wasn't enough land for both of them. They had too much livestock. [8]So Esau made his home in the hill country of Seir. Esau was also called Edom.

[9]Here is the story of the family line of Esau. He's the father of the people of Edom. They live in the hill country of Seir.

[10]Here are the names of Esau's sons.
They are Eliphaz, the son of Esau's wife Adah, and Reuel, the son of Esau's wife Basemath.
[11]The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam and Kenaz. [12]Esau's son Eliphaz also had a concubine named Timna. She had Amalek by Eliphaz. They were grandsons of Esau's wife Adah.
[13]The sons of Reuel were Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. They were grandsons of Esau's wife Basemath.
[14]Esau's wife Oholibamah was the daughter of Anah and the granddaughter of Zibeon.
She had Jeush, Jalam and Korah by Esau.

[15]Here are the chiefs among Esau's sons.

Eliphaz was Esau's oldest son. The sons of Eliphaz were Chiefs Teman, Omar, Zepho, Kenaz, [16]Korah, Gatam and Amalek.
They were the chiefs in Edom who were sons of Eliphaz. They were Adah's grandsons.
[17]The sons of Esau's son Reuel were Chiefs Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. They were the chiefs in Edom who were sons of Reuel. They were grandsons of Esau's wife Basemath.
[18]The sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah were Chiefs Jeush, Jalam and Korah. They were the chiefs who were sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah. She was Anah's daughter.
[19]That was the family line of Esau. And these were the chiefs. Esau was also called Edom.

[20]Seir, the Horite, had sons living in the same area.
They were Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, [21]Dishon, Ezer and Dishan.
These sons of Seir in Edom were Horite chiefs.
[22]The sons of Lotan were Hori and Homam. Timna was Lotan's sister.
[23]The sons of Shobal were
Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho and Onam.
[24]The sons of Zibeon were Aiah and Anah.
He was the Anah who discovered the hot springs of water in the desert. He found them while he was taking care of the donkeys that belonged to his father Zibeon.
[25]The children of Anah were Dishon and Oholibamah. Oholibamah was the daughter of Anah.
[26]The sons of Dishon were Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran and Keran.
[27]The sons of Ezer were Bilhan, Zaavan and Akan.
[28]The sons of Dishan were Uz and Aran.
[29]The Horite chiefs were Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, [30]Dishon, Ezer and Dishan.
They were the Horite chiefs in the land of Seir. They are listed tribe by tribe.

The Rulers of Edom

31 Before Israel had a king, there were kings who ruled in Edom.

32 Bela became the king of Edom. Bela was the son of Beor. Bela's city was called Dinhabah.
33 When Bela died, Jobab became the next king. Jobab was the son of Zerah from Bozrah.
34 When Jobab died, Husham became the next king. Husham was from the land of the Temanites.
35 When Husham died, Hadad became the next king. Hadad was the son of Bedad. Hadad had won the battle over Midian in the country of Moab. Hadad's city was called Avith.
36 When Hadad died, Samlah became the next king. Samlah was from Masrekah.
37 When Samlah died, Shaul became the next king. Shaul was from Rehoboth on the river.
38 When Shaul died, Baal-Hanan became the next king. Baal-Hanan was the son of Akbor.
39 When Baal-Hanan died, Hadad became the next king. Hadad's city was called Pau. His wife's name was Mehetabel. She was Matred's daughter. Matred was the daughter of Me-Zahab.

40 Here are the chiefs in the family line of Esau. They are listed by name as chiefs in charge of their tribes and territories. They are

Timna, Alvah, Jetheth, 41 Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon, 42 Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar,
43 Magdiel and Iram.
They were the chiefs of Edom. They ruled over their settlements in the land where they lived.
That's the end of the story of the family line of Esau. He was the father of the people of Edom.

Genesis 37

Joseph Has Two Dreams

1 Jacob lived in the land of Canaan. It's the land where his father had stayed.

2 Here is the story of the family line of Jacob.

Joseph was a young man. He was 17 years old. He was taking care of the flocks with some of his brothers. They were the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, the wives of his father Jacob. Joseph brought their father a bad report about his brothers.

3 Israel loved Joseph more than any of his other sons. That's because Joseph had been born to him when he was old. Israel made him a beautiful robe. 4 Joseph's brothers saw that their father loved him more than any of them. So they hated Joseph. They couldn't even speak one kind word to him.

5 Joseph had a dream. When he told it to his brothers, they hated him even more. 6 He said to them, "Listen to the dream I had. 7 We were tying up bundles of grain out in the field. Suddenly my bundle stood up straight. Your bundles gathered around my bundle and bowed down to it."

8 His brothers said to him, "Do you plan to be king over us? Will you really rule over us?" So they hated him even more because of his dream. They didn't like what he had said.

9 Then Joseph had another dream. He told it to his brothers. "Listen," he said. "I had another dream. This time the sun and moon and 11 stars were bowing down to me."

10 He told his father as well as his brothers. Then his father rebuked him. He said, "What about this dream you had? Will your mother and I and your brothers really do that? Will we really come and bow down to the ground in front of you?" 11 His brothers were jealous of him. But his father kept the dreams in mind.

Joseph Is Sold by His Brothers

12 Joseph's brothers had gone to take care of their father's flocks near Shechem. 13 Israel said to Joseph, "As you know, your brothers are taking care of the flocks near Shechem. Come. I'm going to send you to them."

“All right,” Joseph replied.

14So Israel said to him, “Go to your brothers. See how they are doing. Also see how the flocks are doing. Then come back and tell me.” So he sent him away from the Hebron Valley.

Joseph arrived at Shechem. 15A man found him wandering around in the fields. He asked Joseph, “What are you looking for?”

16He replied, “I’m looking for my brothers. Can you tell me where they are taking care of their flocks?”

17“They’ve moved on from here,” the man answered. “I heard them say, ‘Let’s go to Dothan.’ ”

So Joseph went to look for his brothers. He found them near Dothan. 18But they saw him a long way off. Before he reached them, they made plans to kill him.

19“Here comes that dreamer!” they said to one another. 20“Come. Let’s kill him. Let’s throw him into one of these empty wells. Let’s say that a wild animal ate him up. Then we’ll see whether his dreams will come true.”

21Reuben heard them talking. He tried to save Joseph from them. “Let’s not take his life,” he said. 22“Don’t spill any of his blood. Throw him into this empty well here in the desert. But don’t harm him yourselves.” Reuben said that to save Joseph from them. He was hoping he could take him back to his father.

23When Joseph came to his brothers, he was wearing his beautiful robe. They took it away from him. 24And they threw him into the well. The well was empty.
There wasn’t any water in it.

25Then they sat down to eat their meal. As they did, they saw some Ishmaelite traders coming from Gilead. Their camels were loaded with spices, lotion and myrrh. They were on their way to take them down to Egypt.

26Judah said to his brothers, “What will we gain if we kill our brother and try to cover up what we’ve done? 27Come. Let’s sell him to these traders. Let’s not harm him ourselves. After all, he’s our brother. He’s our own flesh and blood.”
Judah’s brothers agreed with him.

28The traders from Midian came by. Joseph’s brothers pulled him up out of the well. They sold him to the Ishmaelite traders for eight ounces of silver. Then the traders took him to Egypt.

29Later, Reuben came back to the empty well. He saw that Joseph wasn’t there. He was so upset that he tore his clothes. 30He went back to his brothers and said, “The boy isn’t there! Now what should I do?”

[31]Then they got Joseph’s beautiful robe. They killed a goat and dipped the robe in the blood. [32]They took the robe back to their father. They said, “We found this. Take a look at it. See if it’s your son’s robe.”

[33]Jacob recognized it. He said, “It’s my son’s robe! A wild animal has eaten him up. Joseph must have been torn to pieces.”

[34]Jacob tore his clothes. He put on the rough clothing people wear when they’re sad. Then he mourned for his son many days. [35]All Jacob’s other sons and daughters came to comfort him. But they weren’t able to. He said, “I will continue to mourn until I go down into the grave to be with my son.” So Joseph’s father mourned for him.

[36]But the traders from Midian sold Joseph to Potiphar in Egypt. Potiphar was one of Pharaoh’s officials. He was the captain of the palace guard.

Genesis 38

Judah and Tamar

1 At that time, Judah left his brothers. He went down to stay with a man named Hirah from the town of Adullam. 2 There Judah met the daughter of a man from Canaan. His name was Shua. Judah married her and slept with her. 3 She became pregnant and had a son. They named him Er. 4 She became pregnant again and had another son. She named him Onan. 5 She had still another son. She named him Shelah. He was born at Kezib.

6 Judah got a wife for his oldest son Er. Her name was Tamar. 7 But Judah's oldest son Er was evil in the LORD's eyes. So the LORD put him to death.

8 Then Judah said to Onan, "Sleep with your brother's wife. After all, you are her brother-in-law. So carry out your duty to her. Provide children for your brother." 9 But Onan knew that the children wouldn't belong to him. So every time he slept with his brother's wife, he spilled his semen on the ground. He did it so he wouldn't provide children for his brother. 10 What he did was evil in the LORD's eyes. So the LORD put him to death also.

11 Then Judah spoke to his daughter-in-law Tamar. He said, "Live as a widow in your father's home. Wait there until my son Shelah grows up." Judah was thinking, "Shelah might die too, just like his brothers." So Tamar went to live in her father's home.

12 After a long time Judah's wife died. She was the daughter of Shua. When Judah got over his sadness, he went up to Timnah. His friend Hirah from Adullam went with him. Men were clipping the wool from Judah's sheep at Timnah.

13 Tamar was told, "Your father-in-law is on his way to Timnah to clip the wool from his sheep." 14 So she took off her widow's clothes. She covered her face with a veil so people wouldn't know who she was. Then she sat down at the entrance to Enaim. Enaim is on the road to Timnah. Tamar knew that Shelah had grown up. But she hadn't been given to him as his wife.

15 Judah saw her. He thought she was a prostitute because she had covered her face with a veil. 16 He didn't realize that she was his daughter-in-law. He went over to her by the side of the road. He said, "Come. Let me sleep with you."

"What will you give me to sleep with you?" she asked.

17 "I'll send you a young goat from my flock," he said.

“Will you give me something that belongs to you?” she asked. “I’ll keep it until you send the goat.”

[18]He said, “What should I give you?”

“Give me your official seal and the string that it hangs from,” she answered. “And give me your walking stick.” So he gave them to her. Then he slept with her. And she became pregnant by him. [19]After she left, she took off her veil. She put on her widow’s clothes again.

[20]Judah sent his friend Hirah with the young goat he had promised. He wanted to get back what he had given to the woman. But his friend Hirah couldn’t find her. [21]He asked the men who lived at Enaim, “Where’s the temple prostitute? She used to sit beside the road here.”

“There hasn’t been any temple prostitute here,” they said.

[22]So Hirah went back to Judah. He said, “I couldn’t find her. Besides, the men who lived there didn’t know anything about her. They said, ‘There hasn’t been any temple prostitute here.’ ”

[23]Then Judah said, “Let her keep what she has. I don’t want people making fun of us. After all, I did send her this young goat. We can’t help it if you couldn’t find her.”

[24]About three months later people brought word to Judah. They said, “Your daughter-in-law Tamar is guilty of being a prostitute. Now she’s pregnant.”

Judah said, “Bring her out! Have her burned to death!”

[25]As Tamar was being brought out, she sent a message to her father-in-law. She said, “I am pregnant by the man who owns these.” She continued, “Do you recognize this seal and string and walking stick? Do you know who they belong to?”

[26]Judah recognized them. He said, “She’s a better person than I am. I should have given her to my son Shelah, but I didn’t.” Judah never slept with Tamar again.

[27]The time came for Tamar to have her baby. There were twin boys inside her. [28]As the babies were being born, one of them stuck out his hand. So the woman helping Tamar took a bright red thread. The woman tied it on the baby’s wrist. She said, “This one came out first.” [29]But he pulled his hand back, and his brother came out first instead. She said, “Just look at how you have forced your way out!” So he was called Perez. [30]Then his brother, who had the red thread on his wrist, came out. So he was named Zerah.

Genesis 39

Joseph and the Wife of Potiphar

[1]Joseph had been taken down to Egypt. An Egyptian named Potiphar had bought him from the Ishmaelite traders who had taken him there. Potiphar was one of Pharaoh's officials. He was the captain of the palace guard.

[2]The LORD was with Joseph. He gave him great success. Joseph lived in Potiphar's house. [3]Joseph's master saw that the LORD was with him. He saw that the LORD made Joseph successful in everything he did. [4]So Potiphar was pleased with Joseph and made him his attendant. He put Joseph in charge of his house. He trusted Joseph to take care of everything he owned. [5]From that time on, the LORD blessed Potiphar's family and servants because of Joseph. He blessed everything Potiphar had in his house and field. [6]So Joseph took good care of everything Potiphar owned. With Joseph in charge, Potiphar didn't have to worry about anything except the food he ate.

Joseph was strong and handsome. [7]After a while, his master's wife noticed Joseph. She said to him, "Come to bed with me!"

[8]But he refused. "My master has put me in charge," he told her. "Now he doesn't have to worry about anything in the house. He trusts me to take care of everything he owns. [9]No one in this house is in a higher position than I am. My master hasn't held anything back from me, except you. You are his wife. So how could I do an evil thing like that? How could I sin against God?" [10]She spoke to Joseph day after day. But he told her he wouldn't go to bed with her. He didn't even want to be with her.

[11]One day Joseph went into the house to take care of his duties. None of the family servants was inside. [12]Potiphar's wife grabbed him by his coat. "Come to bed with me!" she said. But he left his coat in her hand. And he ran out of the house.

[13]She saw that he had left his coat in her hand and had run out of the house. [14]So she called her servants. "Look," she said to them, "this Hebrew slave has been brought here to make fun of us! He came in here to force me to have sex with him. But I screamed for help. [15]He heard my scream. So he left his coat beside me and ran out of the house."

[16]She kept Joseph's coat with her until Potiphar came home. [17]Then she told him her story. She said, "That Hebrew slave you brought us came to me to rape me. [18]But I screamed for help. So he left his coat beside me and ran out of the house.”

[19]Potiphar’s wife told him, “That’s how your slave treated me.” When Joseph’s master heard her story, he became very angry. [20]So he put Joseph in prison. It was the place where the king’s prisoners were kept.

While Joseph was there in the prison, [21]the LORD was with him. He was kind to him. So the man running the prison was pleased with Joseph. [22]He put Joseph in charge of all the prisoners. He made him responsible for everything done there. [23]The man who ran the prison didn’t pay attention to anything in Joseph’s care. That’s because the LORD was with Joseph. He gave Joseph success in everything he did.

Genesis 40

The Wine Taster and the Baker

[1]Some time later, the Egyptian king's baker and wine taster did something their master didn't like. [2]So Pharaoh became angry with his two officials, the chief wine taster and the chief baker. [3]He put them in prison in the house of the captain of the palace guard. It was the same prison where Joseph was kept. [4]The captain put Joseph in charge of those men. So Joseph took care of them.

Some time passed while they were in prison. [5]Then each of the two men had a dream. The men were the Egyptian king's baker and wine taster. They were being held in prison. Both of them had dreams the same night. Each of their dreams had its own meaning.

[6]Joseph came to them the next morning. He saw that they were sad. [7]They were Pharaoh's officials, and they were in prison with Joseph in his master's house. So he asked them, "Why do you look so sad today?"

[8]"We both had dreams," they answered. "But no one can tell us what they mean."

Then Joseph said to them, "Only God knows what dreams mean. Tell me your dreams."

[9]So the chief wine taster told Joseph his dream. He said to him, "In my dream I saw a vine in front of me. [10]There were three branches on the vine. As soon as it budded, it flowered. And bunches of ripe grapes grew on it. [11]Pharaoh's cup was in my hand. I took the grapes. I squeezed them into Pharaoh's cup. Then I put the cup in his hand."

[12]"Here's what your dream means," Joseph said to him. "The three branches are three days. [13]In three days Pharaoh will let you out of prison. He'll give your job back to you. And you will put Pharaoh's cup in his hand. That's what you used to do when you were his wine taster. [14]But when everything is going well with you, remember me. Do me a favor. Speak to Pharaoh about me. Get me out of this prison. [15]I was taken away from the land of the Hebrews by force. Even here I haven't done anything to be put in prison for."

[16]The chief baker saw that Joseph had given a positive meaning to the wine taster's dream. So he said to Joseph, "I had a dream too. There were three baskets of bread on my head. [17]All kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh were in the top basket. But the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head."

[18]“Here’s what your dream means,” Joseph said. “The three baskets are three days. [19]In three days Pharaoh will cut your head off. Then he will stick a pole through your body and set the pole up. The birds will eat your flesh.”

[20]The third day was Pharaoh’s birthday. He had a feast prepared for all his officials. He brought the chief wine taster and the chief baker out of prison. He did it in front of his officials. [21]He gave the chief wine taster’s job back to him. Once again the wine taster put the cup into Pharaoh’s hand. [22]But Pharaoh had a pole stuck through the chief baker’s body. Then he had the pole set up. Everything happened just as Joseph had told them when he explained their dreams.

[23]But the chief wine taster didn’t remember Joseph. In fact, he forgot all about him.

Genesis 41

Pharaoh Has Two Dreams

[1]When two full years had passed, Pharaoh had a dream. In his dream, he was standing by the Nile River. [2]Seven cows came up out of the river. They looked healthy and fat. They were eating some of the tall grass growing along the river.
[3]After them, seven other cows came up out of the Nile. They looked ugly and skinny. They were standing beside the other cows on the riverbank. [4]The ugly, skinny cows ate up the seven cows that looked healthy and fat. Then Pharaoh woke up.

[5]He fell asleep again and had a second dream. In that dream, seven heads of grain were growing on one stem. They were healthy and good. [6]After them, seven other heads of grain came up. They were thin and dried up by the east wind. [7]The thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven healthy, full heads. Then Pharaoh woke up. It had been a dream.

[8]In the morning he was worried. So he sent for all the magicians and wise men of Egypt. Pharaoh told them his dreams. But no one could tell him what they meant.

[9]Then the chief wine taster spoke up. He said to Pharaoh, “Now I remember that I’ve done something wrong. [10]Pharaoh was once angry with his servants. He put me and the chief baker in prison. We were in the house of the captain of the palace guard. [11]Each of us had a dream the same night. Each dream had its own meaning. [12]A young Hebrew servant was there with us. He was a servant of the captain of the guard. We told him our dreams. And he explained them to us. He told each of us the meaning of our dreams. [13]Things turned out exactly as he said they would. I was given back my job. The other man had a pole stuck through his body.”

[14]So Pharaoh sent for Joseph. He was quickly brought out of the prison.
Joseph shaved and changed his clothes. Then he came to Pharaoh.

[15]Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I had a dream. No one can tell me what it means.
But I’ve heard that when you hear a dream you can explain it.”

[16]“I can’t do it,” Joseph replied to Pharaoh. “But God will give Pharaoh the answer he wants.”

[17]Then Pharaoh told Joseph what he had dreamed. He said, “I was standing on the bank of the Nile River. [18]Seven cows came up out of the river. They were fat and looked healthy. They were eating the tall grass growing along the river.

19After them, seven other cows came up. They were bony and very ugly and thin. I had never seen such ugly cows in the whole land of Egypt. 20The thin, ugly cows ate up the seven fat cows that came up first. 21But no one could tell that the thin cows had eaten the fat cows. That's because the thin cows looked just as ugly as they had before. Then I woke up.

22"In my dream I also saw seven heads of grain. They were full and good.
They were all growing on one stem. 23After them, seven other heads of grain came up. They were weak and thin and dried up by the east wind. 24The thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven good heads. I told my dream to the magicians. But none of them could explain it to me."

25Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, "Both of Pharaoh's dreams have the same meaning. God has shown Pharaoh what he is about to do. 26The seven good cows are seven years. And the seven good heads of grain are seven years. Both dreams mean the same thing. 27The seven thin, ugly cows that came up later are seven years. So are the seven worthless heads of grain dried up by the east wind.
They are seven years when there won't be enough food.

28"It's just as I said to Pharaoh. God has shown Pharaoh what he's about to do.
29Seven years with plenty of food are coming to the whole land of Egypt. 30But seven years when there won't be enough food will follow them. Then everyone will forget about all the food Egypt had. Terrible hunger will destroy the land.
31There won't be anything left to remind people of the years when there was plenty of food in the land. That's how bad the hunger that follows will be. 32God gave the dream to Pharaoh in two forms. That's because the matter has been firmly decided by God. And it's because God will do it soon.

33"So Pharaoh should look for a wise and understanding man. He should put him in charge of the land of Egypt. 34Pharaoh should appoint officials to be in charge of the land. They should take a fifth of the harvest in Egypt during the seven years when there's plenty of food. 35They should collect all the extra food of the good years that are coming. Pharaoh should give them authority to store up the grain. They should keep it in the cities for food. 36The grain should be stored up for the country to use later. It will be needed during the seven years when there isn't enough food in Egypt. Then the country won't be destroyed just because it doesn't have enough food."

37The plan seemed good to Pharaoh and all his officials. 38So Pharaoh said to them, "The spirit of God is in this man. We can't find anyone else like him, can we?”

39Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “God has made all this known to you. No one is as wise and understanding as you are. 40You will be in charge of my palace.
All my people must obey your orders. I will be greater than you only because I’m the one who sits on the throne.”

Joseph Is Put in Charge of Egypt

41So Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I’m putting you in charge of the whole land of Egypt.” 42Then Pharaoh took from his finger the ring he used to give his official stamp. He put it on Joseph’s finger. He dressed him in robes made out of fine linen. He put a gold chain around Joseph’s neck. 43He also had him ride in a chariot. Joseph was now next in command after Pharaoh. People went in front of Joseph and shouted, “Get down on your knees!” By doing all these things, Pharaoh put Joseph in charge of the whole land of Egypt.

44Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I am Pharaoh. But unless you give an order, no one will do anything in the whole land of Egypt.” 45Pharaoh gave Joseph the name Zaphenath-Paneah. He gave Joseph a wife. She was Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera. Potiphera was the priest of On. Joseph traveled all over the land of Egypt.

46Joseph was 30 years old when he began serving Pharaoh, the king of Egypt.
He left Pharaoh’s palace and traveled all over Egypt. 47During the seven years there was plenty of food. The land produced more than the people needed.
48Joseph collected all the extra food produced in those seven years in Egypt. He stored it in the cities. In each city he stored up the food grown in the fields around it. 49Joseph stored up huge amounts of grain. There was as much of it as sand by the sea. There was so much grain it couldn’t be measured. So Joseph stopped keeping records of it.

50Before the years when there wasn’t enough food, two sons were born to Joseph. He had them by Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera. Potiphera was the priest of On. 51Joseph named his first son Manasseh. That’s because he said, “God has made me forget all my trouble and my father’s whole family.” 52He named the second son Ephraim. That’s because he said, “God has given me children in the land where I’ve suffered so much.”

53The seven years when there was plenty of food in Egypt came to an end.
54Then the seven years when there wasn’t enough food began. It happened just as Joseph had said it would. There wasn’t enough food in any of the other lands.

But in the whole land of Egypt there was food. [55]When all the people of Egypt began to get hungry, they cried out to Pharaoh for food. He told all the Egyptians, “Go to Joseph. Do what he tells you.”

[56]There wasn’t enough food anywhere in the country. So Joseph opened the storerooms. He sold grain to the Egyptians because people were very hungry all over Egypt. [57]People from all over the world came to Egypt. They came to buy grain from Joseph. That’s because people were very hungry everywhere.

Genesis 42

Joseph's Brothers Go Down to Egypt

[1]Jacob found out that there was grain in Egypt. So he said to his sons, "Why do you just keep looking at one another?" [2]He continued, "I've heard there's grain in Egypt. Go down there. Buy some for us. Then we'll live and not die."
[3]So ten of Joseph's brothers went down to Egypt to buy grain there. [4]But Jacob didn't send Joseph's brother Benjamin with them. He was afraid Benjamin might be harmed. [5]Israel's sons were among the people who went to buy grain.
There wasn't enough food in the land of Canaan.
[6]Joseph was the governor of the land. He was the one who sold grain to all its people. When Joseph's brothers arrived, they bowed down to him with their faces to the ground. [7]As soon as Joseph saw his brothers, he recognized them.
But he pretended to be a stranger. He spoke to them in a mean way. "Where do you come from?" he asked.
"From the land of Canaan," they replied. "We've come to buy food."
[8]Joseph recognized his brothers, but they didn't recognize him. [9]Then Joseph remembered his dreams about them. So he said to them, "You are spies! You have come to see the places where our land isn't guarded very well." [10]"No, sir," they answered. "We've come to buy food. [11]All of us are the sons of one man. We're honest men. We aren't spies." [12]"No!" he said to them. "You have come to see the places where our land isn't guarded very well."
[13]But they replied, "We were 12 brothers. All of us were the sons of one man.
He lives in the land of Canaan. Our youngest brother is now with our father. And one brother is gone."
[14]Joseph said to them, "I still say you are spies! [15]So I'm going to test you.
And here's the test. You can be sure that you won't leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here. You can be just as sure of this as you are sure that Pharaoh lives. I give you my word that you won't leave here unless your brother comes. [16]Send one of you back to get your brother. The rest of you will be kept in prison. I'll test your words. Then we'll find out whether you are telling the truth. You can be sure that Pharaoh lives. And you can be just as sure that if you aren't telling the truth, we'll know that you are spies!" [17]So Joseph kept all of them under guard for three days.

[18]On the third day, Joseph spoke to them again. He said, “Do what I say. Then you will live, because I have respect for God. [19]If you are honest men, let one of your brothers stay here in prison. The rest of you may go and take grain back to your hungry families. [20]But you must bring your youngest brother to me. That will prove that your words are true. Then you won’t die.” So they did what he said.

[21]They said to one another, “God is surely punishing us because of our brother. We saw how upset he was when he begged us to let him live. But we wouldn’t listen. That’s why all this trouble has come to us.”

[22]Reuben replied, “Didn’t I tell you not to sin against the boy? But you wouldn’t listen! Now we’re being paid back for killing him.” [23]They didn’t realize that Joseph could understand what they were saying. He was using someone else to explain their words to him in the Egyptian language.

[24]Joseph turned away from his brothers and began to weep. Then he came back and spoke to them again. He had Simeon taken and tied up right there in front of them.

[25]Joseph gave orders to have their bags filled with grain. He had each man’s money put back into his sack. He also made sure they were given food for their journey. [26]Then the brothers loaded their grain on their donkeys and left.

[27]When night came, they stopped. One of them opened his sack to get feed for his donkey. He saw his money in the top of his sack. [28]“My money has been given back,” he said to his brothers. “Here it is in my sack.”

They had a sinking feeling in their hearts. They began to tremble. They turned to one another and said, “What has God done to us?”

[29]They came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan. They told him everything that had happened to them. They said, [30]“The man who is the governor of the land spoke to us in a mean way. He treated us as if we were spying on the land. [31]But we said to him, ‘We’re honest men. We aren’t spies. [32]We were 12 brothers. All of us were the sons of one father. But now one brother is gone. And our youngest brother is with our father in Canaan.’

[33]“Then the man who is the governor of the land spoke to us. He said, ‘Here’s how I will know whether you are honest men. Leave one of your brothers here with me. Take food for your hungry families and go. [34]But bring your youngest brother to me. Then I’ll know that you are honest men and not spies. I’ll give your brother back to you. And you will be free to trade in the land.’ ”

[35]They began emptying their sacks. There in each man’s sack was his bag of money! When they and their father saw the money bags, they were scared to death. [36]Their father Jacob said to them, “You have taken my children away from me. Joseph is gone. Simeon is gone. Now you want to take Benjamin. Everything is going against me!”

[37]Then Reuben spoke to his father. He said, “You can put both of my sons to death if I don’t bring Benjamin back to you. Trust me to take care of him. I’ll bring him back.”

[38]But Jacob said, “My son will not go down there with you. His brother is dead. He’s the only one left here with me. Suppose he’s harmed on the journey you are taking. Then I would die as a sad old man.”

Genesis 43

Joseph's Brothers Go Down to Egypt Again

[1]There still wasn't enough food anywhere in the land. [2]After a while Jacob's family had eaten all the grain the brothers had brought from Egypt. So their father said to them, "Go back. Buy us a little more food."

[3]But Judah said to him, "The man gave us a strong warning. He said, 'You won't see my face again unless your brother Benjamin is with you.' [4]So send our brother along with us. Then we'll go down and buy food for you. [5]If you won't send him, we won't go down. The man said to us, 'You won't see my face again unless your brother is with you.' "

[6]Israel asked, "Why did you bring this trouble to me? Why did you tell the man you had another brother?"

[7]They replied, "The man questioned us closely about ourselves and our family. He asked us, 'Is your father still living? Do you have another brother?' We just answered his questions. How could we possibly know he would say, 'Bring your brother down here'?"

[8]Judah spoke to Israel his father. "Send the boy along with me," he said. "We'll go right away. Then we and you and our children will live and not die. [9]I myself promise to keep Benjamin safe. You can blame me if I don't bring him back to you. I'll set him right here in front of you. If I don't, you can put the blame on me for the rest of my life. [10]As it is, we've already waited too long. We could have made the trip to Egypt and back twice by now."

[11]Then their father Israel spoke to them. He said, "If that's the way it has to be, then do what I tell you. Put some of the best things from our land in your bags. Take them down to the man as a gift. Take some lotion and a little honey. Take some spices and myrrh. Take some pistachio nuts and almonds. [12]Take twice the amount of money with you. You have to give back the money that was put in your sacks. Maybe it was a mistake. [13]Also take your brother. Go back to the man at once. [14]May the Mighty God cause him to show you mercy. May the man let your other brother and Benjamin come back with you. And if I lose my sons, I lose them."

[15]So the men took the gifts. They took twice the amount of money. They also took Benjamin. They hurried down to Egypt and went to Joseph. [16]When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he spoke to the manager of his house. "Take these men to my house," he said. "Kill an animal and prepare a meal. I want them to eat with me at noon."

17The manager did what Joseph told him to do. He took the men to Joseph's house. 18They were frightened when they were taken to Joseph's house. They thought, "We were brought here because of the money that was put back in our sacks the first time. He wants to attack us and overpower us. Then he can hold us as slaves and take our donkeys."

19So they went up to Joseph's manager. They spoke to him at the entrance to the house. 20"Please, sir," they said. "We came down here the first time to buy food. 21We opened our sacks at the place where we stopped for the night. Each of us found in our sacks the exact amount of the money we had paid. So we've brought it back with us. 22We've also brought more money with us to buy food. We don't know who put our money in our sacks."

23"It's all right," the manager said. "Don't be afraid. Your God, the God of your father, has given you riches in your sacks. I received your money." Then he brought Simeon out to them.

24The manager took the men into Joseph's house. He gave them water to wash their feet. He provided feed for their donkeys. 25The brothers prepared their gifts for Joseph. He was planning to arrive at noon. They had heard that they were going to eat there.

26When Joseph came home, they gave him the gifts they had brought into the house. They bowed down low in front of him. 27He asked them how they were. Then he said, "How is your old father you told me about? Is he still living?"

28They replied, "Your servant our father is still alive and well." And they bowed down to show him honor.

29Joseph looked around. Then he saw his brother Benjamin, his own mother's son. He asked, "Is this your youngest brother? Is he the one you told me about?" He continued, "May God be gracious to you, my son." 30It moved him deeply to see his brother. So Joseph hurried out and looked for a place to cry. He went into his own room and cried there.

31Then he washed his face and came out. He calmed down and said, "Serve the food."

32They served Joseph by himself. They served the brothers by themselves. They also served the Egyptians who ate with Joseph by themselves. Because of their beliefs, Egyptians couldn't eat with Hebrews. 33The brothers had been given places in front of Joseph. They had been seated in the order of their ages, from the oldest to the youngest. That made them look at each other in great surprise. [34]While they were eating, some food was brought to them from Joseph’s table. Benjamin was given five times as much as anyone else. So all Joseph’s brothers ate and drank a lot with him.

Genesis 44

A Silver Cup in a Sack

1 Joseph told the manager of his house what to do. “Fill the men’s sacks with as much food as they can carry,” he said. “Put each man’s money in his sack.
2 Then put my silver cup in the youngest one’s sack. Put it there along with the money he paid for his grain.” So the manager did what Joseph told him to do.

3 When morning came, the men were sent on their way with their donkeys.
4 They hadn’t gone very far from the city when Joseph spoke to his manager. “Go after those men right away,” he said. “Catch up with them. Say to them, ‘My master was good to you. Why have you paid him back by doing evil? 5 Isn’t this the cup my master drinks from? Doesn’t he also use it to find things out? You have done an evil thing.’ ”

6 When the manager caught up with them, he told them what Joseph had said.
7 But they said to him, “Why do you say these things? We would never do anything like that! 8 We even brought back to you from Canaan the money we found in our sacks. So why would we steal silver or gold from your master’s house? 9 If you find out that any of us has the cup, he will die. And the rest of us will become your slaves.”

10 “All right, then,” he said. “As you wish. The one found to have the cup will become my slave. But the rest of you will not be blamed.”

11 Each of them quickly put his sack down on the ground and opened it. 12 Then the manager started to search. He began with the oldest and ended with the youngest. The cup was found in Benjamin’s sack. 13 When that happened, they were so upset they tore their clothes. Then all of them loaded their donkeys and went back to the city.

14 Joseph was still in the house when Judah and his brothers came in. They threw themselves down on the ground in front of him. 15 Joseph said to them, “What have you done? Don’t you know that a man like me has ways to find things out?”

16 “What can we say to you?” Judah replied. “What can we say? How can we prove we haven’t done anything wrong? God has shown you that we are guilty.
We are now your slaves. All of us are, including the one found to have the cup.”

17 But Joseph said, “I would never do anything like that! Only the man found to have the cup will become my slave. The rest of you may go back to your father in peace.”

18Then Judah went up to him. He said, “Please, sir. Let me speak a word to you. Don’t be angry with me, even though you are equal to Pharaoh himself.
19You asked us, ‘Do you have a father or a brother?’ 20We answered, ‘We have an old father. A young son was born to him when he was old. His brother is dead. He’s the only one of his mother’s sons left. And his father loves him.’

21“Then you said to us, ‘Bring him down to me. I want to see him for myself.’
22We said to you, ‘The boy can’t leave his father. If he does, his father will die.’
23But you told us, ‘Your youngest brother must come down here with you. If he doesn’t, you won’t see my face again.’ 24So we went back to my father. We told him what you had said.

25“Then our father said, ‘Go back. Buy a little more food.’ 26But we said, ‘We can’t go down. We’ll only go if our youngest brother goes there with us. We can’t even see the man’s face unless our youngest brother goes with us.’

27“Your servant my father said to us, ‘You know that my wife had two sons by me. 28One of them went away from me. And I said, “He must have been torn to pieces.” I haven’t seen him since. 29What if you take this one from me too and he is harmed? Then you would cause me to die as a sad old man. I would go down into the grave full of pain and suffering.’

30“So now, what will happen if the boy isn’t with us when I go back to my father? His life depends on the boy’s life. 31When he sees that the boy isn’t with us, he’ll die. Because of us, he’ll go down into the grave as a sad old man. 32I promised my father I would keep the boy safe. I said, ‘Father, I’ll bring him back to you. If I don’t, you can put the blame on me for the rest of my life.’

33“Now then, please let me stay here. Let me be your slave in place of the boy.
Let the boy return with his brothers. 34How can I go back to my father if the boy isn’t with me? No! Don’t let me see the pain and suffering that would come to my father.”

Genesis 45

Joseph Tells His Brothers Who He Is

1 Joseph couldn’t control himself anymore in front of all his attendants. He cried out, “Have everyone leave me!” So there wasn’t anyone with Joseph when he told his brothers who he was. 2 He wept so loudly that the Egyptians heard him. Everyone in Pharaoh’s house heard about it.

3 Joseph said to his brothers, “I am Joseph! Is my father still alive?” But his brothers weren’t able to answer him. They were too afraid of him.

4 Joseph said to his brothers, “Come close to me.” So they did. Then he said, “I am your brother Joseph. I’m the one you sold into Egypt. 5 But don’t be upset.
And don’t be angry with yourselves because you sold me here. God sent me ahead of you to save many lives. 6 For two years now, there hasn’t been enough food in the land. And for the next five years, people won’t be plowing or gathering crops. 7 But God sent me ahead of you to keep some of you alive on earth. He sent me here to save your lives by an act of mighty power.

8 “So then, it wasn’t you who sent me here. It was God. He made me like a father to Pharaoh. He made me master of Pharaoh’s entire house. God made me ruler of the whole land of Egypt. 9 Now hurry back to my father. Say to him, ‘Your son Joseph says, “God has made me master of the whole land of Egypt.
Come down to me. Don’t waste any time. 10 You will live in the area of Goshen.
You, your children and grandchildren, your flocks and herds, and everything you have will be near me. 11 There I will provide everything you need. There are still five years to come when there won’t be enough food. If you don’t come down here, you and your family and everyone who belongs to you will lose everything.” ’

12 “My brothers, I am Joseph. You can see for yourselves that I am the one speaking to you. My brother Benjamin can see it too. 13 Tell my father about all the honor given to me in Egypt. Tell him about everything you have seen. And bring my father down here quickly.”

14 Then Joseph threw his arms around his brother Benjamin and wept.
Benjamin also hugged him and wept. 15 Joseph kissed all his brothers and wept over them. After that, his brothers talked with him.

16 The news reached Pharaoh’s palace that Joseph’s brothers had come.
Pharaoh and all his officials were pleased. 17 Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Here’s what I want you to tell your brothers. Say to them, ‘Load your animals. Return to the land of Canaan. [18]Bring your father and your families back to me. I’ll give you the best land in Egypt. You can enjoy all the good things in the land.’

[19]“And here’s something else I want you to tell them. Say to them, ‘Take some carts from Egypt. Your children and your wives can use them. Get your father and come back. [20]Don’t worry about the things you have back there. The best of everything in Egypt will belong to you.’ ”

[21]Then the sons of Israel did so. Joseph gave them carts, as Pharaoh had commanded. He also gave them supplies for their journey. [22]He gave new clothes to each of them. But he gave Benjamin more than seven pounds of silver. He also gave him five sets of clothes. [23]He sent his father ten male donkeys loaded with the best things from Egypt. He also sent ten female donkeys loaded with grain and bread and other supplies for his journey. [24]Then Joseph sent his brothers away. As they were leaving he said to them, “Don’t argue on the way!”

[25]So they went up out of Egypt. They came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan. [26]They told him, “Joseph is still alive! In fact, he is ruler of the whole land of Egypt.” Jacob was shocked. He didn’t believe them. [27]So they told him everything Joseph had said to them. Jacob saw the carts Joseph had sent to carry him back. That gave new life to their father Jacob. [28]Israel said, “I believe it now! My son Joseph is still alive. I’ll go and see him before I die.”

Genesis 46

Jacob Goes Down to Egypt

1So Israel started out with everything that belonged to him. When he reached Beersheba, he offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.
2God spoke to Israel in a vision at night. “Jacob! Jacob!” he said.
“Here I am,” Jacob replied.
3“I am God. I am the God of your father,” he said. “Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt. There I will make you into a great nation. 4I will go down to Egypt with you. I will surely bring you back again. And when you die, Joseph will close your eyes with his own hand.” 5Then Jacob left Beersheba. Israel’s sons put their father Jacob and their families in the carts that Pharaoh had sent to carry him. 6So Jacob and his whole family went to Egypt. They took their livestock with them. And they took everything they had acquired in Canaan. 7Jacob brought his sons and grandsons with him to Egypt. He also brought his daughters and granddaughters. He brought his whole family with him.

8Here are the names of Israel’s children and grandchildren who went to Egypt. Jacob and his whole family are included.

Reuben was Jacob’s oldest son.
9The sons of Reuben were Hanok, Pallu, Hezron and Karmi.
10The sons of Simeon were Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jakin, Zohar and Shaul. Shaul was the son of a woman from Canaan.
11The sons of Levi were Gershon, Kohath and Merari.
12The sons of Judah were Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez and Zerah.
But Er and Onan had died in the land of Canaan.
The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.
13The sons of Issachar were Tola, Puah, Jashub and Shimron.

[14]The sons of Zebulun were Sered, Elon and Jahleel.
[15]These were the sons and grandsons born to Jacob and Leah in Paddan Aram. Leah also had a daughter by Jacob. Her name was Dinah. The total number of people in the family line of Jacob and Leah was 33.

[16]The sons of Gad were Zephon, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi and Areli.
[17]The sons of Asher were Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi and Beriah. Their sister was Serah.
The sons of Beriah were Heber and Malkiel.
[18]These were the children and grandchildren born to Jacob and Zilpah. Laban had given Zilpah to his daughter Leah. The total number of people in the family line of Jacob and Zilpah was 16.

[19]The sons of Jacob's wife Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin.
[20]In Egypt, Asenath had Manasseh and Ephraim by Joseph. Asenath was the daughter of Potiphera. Potiphera was the priest of On.
[21]The sons of Benjamin were Bela, Beker, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim and Ard.
[22]These were the sons and grandsons born to Jacob and Rachel. The total number of people in the family line of Jacob and Rachel was 14.

[23]The son of Dan was Hushim.
[24]The sons of Naphtali were Jahziel, Guni, Jezer and Shillem.
[25]These were the sons and grandsons born to Jacob and Bilhah. Laban had given Bilhah to his daughter Rachel. The total number of people in the family line of Jacob and Bilhah was seven.
[26]The total number of people who went to Egypt with Jacob was 66. That number includes only his own children and grandchildren. It doesn't include his sons' wives or his grandsons' wives. [27]The total number of the members of Jacob's family who went to Egypt was 70. That includes the two sons who had been born to Joseph in Egypt.

[28]Jacob sent Judah ahead of him to Joseph. He sent him to get directions to Goshen. And so they arrived in the area of Goshen. [29]Then Joseph had his servants get his chariot ready. He went to Goshen to meet his father Israel. As soon as he came to his father, Joseph threw his arms around him. Then Joseph wept for a long time.

[30]Israel said to Joseph, "I have seen for myself that you are still alive. Now I'm ready to die."

[31]Then Joseph spoke to his brothers and to the rest of his father's family. He said, "I will go up and speak to Pharaoh. I'll say to him, 'My brothers and the rest of my father's family have come to me. They were living in the land of Canaan. [32]The men are shepherds. They take care of livestock. They've brought along their flocks and herds and everything they own.' [33]Pharaoh will send for you. He'll ask, 'What do you do for a living?' [34]You should answer, 'We've taken care of livestock from the time we were boys. We've done just as our fathers did.' It's the practice of the people of Egypt not to mix with shepherds. So Pharaoh will let you settle in the area of Goshen."

Genesis 47

[1]Joseph went to Pharaoh. He told him, “My father and brothers have come from the land of Canaan. They’ve brought along their flocks and herds and everything they own. They are now in Goshen.” [2]Joseph had chosen five of his brothers to meet with Pharaoh.

[3]Pharaoh asked the brothers, “What do you do for a living?”

“We’re shepherds,” they replied to Pharaoh. “And that’s what our fathers were.” [4]They also said to him, “We’ve come to live in Egypt for a while. There isn’t enough food anywhere in Canaan. There isn’t any grass for our flocks. So please let us live in Goshen.”

[5]Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Your father and your brothers have come to you.
[6]The land of Egypt is open to you. Let your father and brothers live in the best part of the land. Let them live in Goshen. Do any of them have special skills? If they do, put them in charge of my own livestock.”

[7]Then Joseph brought his father Jacob in to meet Pharaoh. Jacob gave Pharaoh his blessing. [8]Then Pharaoh asked him, “How old are you?”

[9]Jacob said to Pharaoh, “The years of my journey through life are 130. My years have been few and hard. They aren’t as many as the years of my father and grandfather before me.” [10]Jacob gave Pharaoh his blessing. Then he left him.

[11]So Joseph helped his father and his brothers make their homes in Egypt. He gave them property in the best part of the land, just as Pharaoh had directed him to do. That part was known as the territory of Rameses. [12]Joseph also provided food for his father and brothers. He provided for them and the rest of his father’s family. He gave them enough for all their children.

Joseph Saves Many Lives

[13]But there wasn’t any food in the whole area. In fact, there wasn’t enough food anywhere. The people of Egypt and Canaan lost their strength because there wasn’t enough food to go around. [14]Joseph collected all the money in Egypt and Canaan. People paid it to him for the grain they were buying. And Joseph brought it to Pharaoh’s palace. [15]When the money of the people of Egypt and Canaan was gone, all the Egyptians came to Joseph. They said, “Give us food. What good would it do you to watch us all die? Our money is all gone.”

[16]“Then bring your livestock,” said Joseph. “You say your money is gone. So I’ll trade you food for your livestock.” [17]They brought their livestock to Joseph. He traded them food for their animals. They gave him their horses, sheep, goats, cattle and donkeys. He helped the people live through that year by trading them food for all their livestock.

[18]When that year was over, they came to him the next year. They said, “We can’t hide the truth from you. Our money is gone. Our livestock belongs to you. We don’t have anything left to give you except our bodies and our land. [19]What good would it do you to watch us die? Why should our land be destroyed? Trade us food for ourselves and our land. Then we and our land will belong to Pharaoh. Give us some seeds so we can live and not die. We don’t want the land to become a desert.”

[20]So Joseph bought all the land in Egypt for Pharaoh. All the people of Egypt sold their fields. They did that because there wasn’t enough food anywhere. So the land became Pharaoh’s. [21]Joseph made the people slaves from one end of Egypt to the other. [22]But Joseph didn’t buy the land that belonged to the priests. They received a regular share of food from Pharaoh. They had enough food from what Pharaoh gave them. That’s why they didn’t have to sell their land.

[23]Joseph said to the people, “I’ve bought you and your land today for Pharaoh. So here are some seeds for you to plant in the ground. [24]But when the crop comes in, give a fifth of it to Pharaoh. Keep the other four-fifths for yourselves. They will be seeds for the fields. And they will be food for yourselves, your children, and the other people who live with you.”

[25]“You have saved our lives,” they said. “If you are pleased with us, we will be Pharaoh’s slaves.”

[26]So Joseph made a law about land in Egypt. It’s still the law today. A fifth of the produce belongs to Pharaoh. Only the land belonging to the priests didn’t become Pharaoh’s.

[27]The people of Israel lived in Egypt in the area of Goshen. They received property there. They had children and so became many.

[28]Jacob lived 17 years in Egypt. He lived a total of 147 years. [29]The time came near for Israel to die. So he sent for his son Joseph. He said to him, “If you are pleased with me, put your hand under my thigh. Promise me that you will be kind and faithful to me. Don’t bury me in Egypt. [30]When I join the members of my family who have already died, carry me out of Egypt. Bury me where they are buried.”

“I’ll do exactly as you say,” Joseph said.

[31]“Give me your word that you will do it,” Jacob said. So Joseph gave him his word. And Israel worshiped God as he leaned on the top of his walking stick.

Genesis 48

Ephraim and Manasseh

1 Some time later Joseph was told, “Your father is sick.” So he took his two sons Manasseh and Ephraim along with him. 2 Jacob was told, “Your son Joseph has come to you.” So Israel became stronger and sat up in bed.

3 Jacob said to Joseph, “The Mighty God appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan. He blessed me there. 4 He said to me, ‘I am going to give you children. I will make your family very large. I will make you a community of nations. And I will give this land to your children after you. It will belong to them forever.’

5 “Now then, two sons were born to you in Egypt. It happened before I came to you here. They will be counted as my own sons. Ephraim and Manasseh will belong to me, in the same way that Reuben and Simeon belong to me. 6 Any children born to you after them will belong to you. Any territory they receive will come from the land that will be given to Ephraim and Manasseh. 7 As I was returning from Paddan, Rachel died. It made me very sad. She died in the land of Canaan while we were still on the way. We weren’t very far away from Ephrath.
So I buried her body there beside the road to Ephrath.” Ephrath was also called Bethlehem.

8 Israel saw Joseph’s sons. He asked, “Who are they?”

9 “They are the sons God has given me here,” Joseph said to his father.

Then Israel said, “Bring them to me. I want to give them my blessing.”

10 Israel’s eyes were weak because he was old. He couldn’t see very well. So Joseph brought his sons close to him. His father kissed them and hugged them.

11 Israel said to Joseph, “I never thought I’d see your face again. But now God has let me see your children too.”

12 Then Joseph lifted his sons off Israel’s knees. Joseph bowed down with his face to the ground. 13 He placed Ephraim on his right, toward Israel’s left hand.
He placed Manasseh on his left, toward Israel’s right hand. Then he brought them close to Israel. 14 But Israel reached out his right hand and put it on Ephraim’s head. He did it even though Ephraim was the younger son. He crossed his arms and put his left hand on Manasseh’s head. He did it even though Manasseh was the older son.

15 Then Israel gave Joseph his blessing. He said,

“May God bless these boys.
He is the God of my grandfather Abraham and my father Isaac.
They walked faithfully with him.
He is the God who has been my shepherd all my life right up to this day.
16He is the Angel who has saved me from all harm.
May he bless these boys.
May they be called by my name.
May they also be called by the names of my grandfather
Abraham and my father Isaac.
And may the number of them greatly increase on the earth.”

17Joseph saw his father putting his right hand on Ephraim’s head. And Joseph didn’t like it. So he took hold of his father’s hand to move it over to Manasseh’s head. 18Joseph said to him, “No, my father. Here’s my older son. Put your right hand on his head.”

19But his father wouldn’t do it. He said, “I know, my son. I know. He too will become a nation. He too will become great. But his younger brother will be greater than he is. His children after him will become a group of nations.” 20On that day, Jacob gave them his blessing. He said,

“The people of Israel will bless others in your name.
They will say, ‘May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh.’ ”

So he put Ephraim ahead of Manasseh.

21Then Israel said to Joseph, “I’m about to die. But God will be with all of you. He’ll take you back to the land of your fathers. 22But to you, Joseph, I am giving more land than your brothers. I’m giving you the land I took from the Amorites. I took it with my sword and bow.”

Genesis 49

Jacob Gives Blessings to His Sons

[1]Then Jacob sent for his sons. He said, “Gather around me so I can tell you what will happen to you in days to come.

[2]“Sons of Jacob, come together and listen.
Listen to your father Israel.

[3]“Reuben, you are my oldest son.
You were my first child. You were the first sign of my strength.
You were first in honor. You were first in power.
[4]But you are as unsteady as water. So you won’t be first anymore.
You had sex with my concubine on my bed.
You lay on my couch and made it ‘unclean.’

[5]“Simeon and Levi are brothers.
Their swords have killed a lot of people.
[6]I won’t share in their plans.
I won’t have anything to do with them.
They became angry and killed people.
They cut the legs of oxen just for the fun of it.
[7]May the LORD put a curse on them because of their terrible anger.
I will scatter them in Jacob’s land.
I will spread them around in Israel.

[8]“Judah, your brothers will praise you.
Your enemies will be brought under your control.
Your father’s sons will bow down to you.
[9]Judah, you are like a lion’s cub.
You return from hunting, my son.
Like a lion, you lie down and sleep.
You are like a mother lion. Who dares to wake you up?
[10]The right to rule will not leave Judah.
The ruler’s scepter will not be taken from between his feet.

It will be his until the king it belongs to will come.
The nations will obey that king.
11He will tie his donkey to a vine.
He will tie his colt to the very best branch.
He will wash his clothes in wine.
He will wash his robes in the red juice of grapes.
12His eyes will be darker than wine.
His teeth will be whiter than milk.

13"Zebulun will live by the seashore.
He will become a safe harbor for ships.
His border will go out toward Sidon.

14"Issachar is like a wild donkey lying down among the sheep pens.
15He sees how good his resting place is.
He sees that his land is pleasant.
So he will carry a heavy load on his back.
He will obey when he's forced to work.

16"Dan will do what is fair for his people.
He will do it as one of the tribes of Israel.
17Dan will be a snake by the side of the road.
He will be a poisonous snake along the path.
It bites the horse's heels
so that the rider falls off backward.

18"LORD, I look to you to save me.

19"Gad will be attacked by a group of robbers.
But he will attack them as they run away.

20"Asher's food will be rich and sweet.
He will provide food that even a king would enjoy.

21"Naphtali is a female deer set free and gives birth to beautiful fawns.

22 “Joseph is a vine that grows a lot of fruit.
It grows close by a spring.
Its branches climb over a wall.
23 Mean people shot arrows at him.
They shot at him because they were angry.
24 But his bow remained steady.
His strong arms moved freely.
The hand of the Mighty God of Jacob was with him.
The Shepherd, the Rock of Israel, stood by him.
25 Joseph, your father’s God helps you.
The Mighty God blesses you.
He gives you blessings from the sky above.
He gives you blessings from the deep springs below.
He blesses you with children and with a mother’s milk.
26 Your father’s blessings are great.
They are greater than the blessings from the age-old mountains.
They are greater than the gifts from the ancient hills.
Let all those blessings rest on the head of Joseph.
Let them rest on the head of the one who is prince among his brothers.

27 “Benjamin is a hungry wolf.
In the morning he eats what he has killed.
In the evening he shares what he has stolen.”

28 All these are the 12 tribes of Israel. That’s what their father said to them when he blessed them. He gave each one the blessing that was just right for him.

Jacob Dies

29 Then Jacob gave directions to his sons. He said, “I’m about to join the members of my family who have already died. Bury me with them in the cave in the field of Ephron, the Hittite. 30 The cave is in the field of Machpelah near Mamre in Canaan. Abraham had bought it as a place where he could bury his wife’s body. He had bought the cave and the field from Ephron, the Hittite. 31 The bodies of Abraham and his wife Sarah were buried there. So were the bodies of Isaac and his wife Rebekah. I also buried Leah’s body there. 32 Abraham bought the field and the cave from the Hittites.”

[33]When Jacob had finished telling his sons what to do, he pulled his feet up into his bed. Then he took his last breath and died. He joined the members of his family who had already died.

Genesis 50

1Joseph threw himself on his father's body. He wept over him and kissed him.
2Then Joseph talked to the doctors who served him. He told them to prepare the body of his father Israel to be buried. So the doctors prepared it. 3They took 40 days to do it. They needed that much time to prepare a body in the right way.
The Egyptians mourned for Jacob 70 days.

4After the days of sadness had passed, Joseph went to Pharaoh's officials. He said to them, "If you are pleased with me, speak to Pharaoh for me. Tell him, 5'My father made me give my word to him. He said, "I'm about to die. Bury me in the tomb I dug for myself in the land of Canaan." So let me go there and bury my father. Then I'll come back.' "

6Pharaoh said, "Go there and bury your father. Do what he made you promise to do."

7So Joseph went to Canaan to bury his father. All Pharaoh's officials went with him. They were the important people of his court and all the leaders of Egypt. 8Joseph's family also went. His brothers and all the rest of his father's family went. Only their children and their flocks and herds were left in Goshen.
9Chariots and horsemen also went up with him. It was a very large group.

10They came to Atad, a place where grain was processed. It was near the Jordan River. There they sobbed loudly and bitterly. Joseph set apart seven days of sadness to honor his father's memory. 11The Canaanites living in that area saw how sad all of them were. They said, "The Egyptians are having a very special service for the dead." That's why that place near the Jordan River is called Abel of the Egyptians.

12So Jacob's sons did exactly as he had commanded them. 13They carried his body to the land of Canaan. They buried it in the cave in the field of Machpelah near Mamre. Abraham had bought the cave as a place where he could bury his wife's body. He had bought the cave and the field from Ephron, the Hittite.
14After Joseph buried his father, he went back to Egypt. His brothers and all the others who had gone to help him bury his father went back with him.

Joseph Calms His Brothers' Fears

15Now that their father was dead, Joseph's brothers were worried. They said, "Remember all the bad things we did to Joseph? What if he decides to hold those things against us? What if he pays us back for them?” [16]So they sent a message to Joseph. They said, “Your father gave us directions before he died. [17]He said, ‘Here’s what you must say to Joseph. Tell him, “I’m asking you to forgive your brothers. Forgive the terrible things they did to you. Forgive them for treating you so badly.” ’ Now then, please forgive our sins. We serve the God of your father.” When their message came to Joseph, he wept.

[18]Then his brothers came and threw themselves down in front of him. “We are your slaves,” they said.

[19]But Joseph said to them, “Don’t be afraid. Do you think I’m God? [20]You planned to harm me. But God planned it for good. He planned to do what is now being done. He wanted to save many lives. [21]So then, don’t be afraid. I’ll provide for you and your children.” He calmed their fears. And he spoke in a kind way to them.

Joseph Dies

[22]Joseph stayed in Egypt, along with all his father’s family. He lived 110 years. [23]He lived long enough to see Ephraim’s children and grandchildren. When the children of Makir were born, they were placed on Joseph’s knees and counted as his own children. Makir was the son of Manasseh.

[24]Joseph said to his brothers, “I’m about to die. But God will surely come to help you. He’ll take you up out of this land. He’ll bring you to the land he promised to give to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.” [25]Joseph made the Israelites promise him. He said, “God will surely come to help you. Then you must carry my bones up from this place.”

[26]So Joseph died at the age of 110. They prepared his body to be buried. Then he was placed in a casket in Egypt.

Exodus

Exodus 1

The Israelites Become Slaves in Egypt

[1]Here are the names of Israel's children who went to Egypt with Jacob. Each one went with his family. [2]Jacob's sons were

Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, [3]Issachar, Zebulun, Benjamin,
[4]Dan, Naphtali,
Gad and Asher.
[5]The total number of Jacob's children and grandchildren was 70. Joseph was already in Egypt.

[6]Joseph and all his brothers died. So did all their children. [7]The people of Israel had many children. The number of them greatly increased. There were so many of them that they filled the land.

[8]Then a new king came to power in Egypt. Joseph didn't mean anything to him. [9]"Look," he said to his people. "The Israelites are far too many for us. [10]Come. We must deal with them carefully. If we don't, there will be even more of them. Then if war breaks out, they'll join our enemies. They'll fight against us and leave the country."

[11]So the Egyptians put slave drivers over the people of Israel. The slave drivers treated them badly and made them work hard. The Israelites built the cities of Pithom and Rameses so Pharaoh could store things there. [12]But the worse the slave drivers treated the Israelites, the more Israelites there were. So the Egyptians became afraid of them. [13]They made them work hard. They didn't show them any pity. [14]The people suffered because of their hard labor. The slave drivers forced them to work with bricks and mud. And they made them do all kinds of work in the fields. The Egyptians didn't show them any pity at all. They made them work very hard.

[15]There were two Hebrew women named Shiphrah and Puah. They helped other women having babies. The king of Egypt spoke to them. He said, [16]"You are the ones who help the other Hebrew women. Watch them when they get into a sitting position to have their babies. Kill the boys. Let the girls live.” [17]But Shiphrah and Puah had respect for God. They didn’t do what the king of Egypt had told them to do. They let the boys live. [18]Then the king of Egypt sent for the women. He asked them, “Why have you done this? Why have you let the boys live?”

[19]The women answered Pharaoh, “Hebrew women are not like the women of Egypt. They are strong. They have their babies before we get there.”

[20]So God was kind to Shiphrah and Puah. And the number of Israelites became even greater. [21]Shiphrah and Puah had respect for God. So he gave them families of their own.

[22]Then Pharaoh gave an order to all his people. He said, “You must throw every Hebrew baby boy into the Nile River. But let every Hebrew baby girl live.”

Exodus 2

Moses Is Born

[1]A man and a woman from the tribe of Levi got married. [2]She became pregnant and had a son by her husband. She saw that her baby was a fine child. And she hid him for three months. [3]After that, she couldn't hide him any longer. So she got a basket made out of the stems of tall grass. She coated the basket with tar. She placed the child in the basket. Then she put it in the tall grass that grew along the bank of the Nile River. [4]The child's sister wasn't very far away. She wanted to see what would happen to him.

[5]Pharaoh's daughter went down to the Nile River to take a bath. Her attendants were walking along the river bank. She saw the basket in the tall grass. So she sent her female slave to get it. [6]When she opened it, Pharaoh's daughter saw the baby. He was crying. She felt sorry for him. "This is one of the Hebrew babies," she said.

[7]Then his sister spoke to Pharaoh's daughter. She asked, "Do you want me to go and get one of the Hebrew women? She could breast-feed the baby for you."

[8]"Yes. Go," she answered. So the girl went and got the baby's mother. [9]Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this baby and feed him for me. I'll pay you." So the woman took the baby and fed him. [10]When the child grew older, she took him to Pharaoh's daughter. And he became her son. She named him Moses. She said, "I pulled him out of the water."

Moses Escapes to Midian

[11]Moses grew up. One day, he went out to where his own people were. He watched them while they were hard at work. He saw an Egyptian hitting a Hebrew man. The man was one of Moses' own people. [12]Moses looked around and didn't see anyone. So he killed the Egyptian. Then he hid his body in the sand. [13]The next day Moses went out again. He saw two Hebrew men fighting. He asked the one who had started the fight a question. He said, "Why are you hitting another Hebrew man?"

[14]The man said, "Who made you ruler and judge over us? Are you thinking about killing me as you killed the Egyptian?" Then Moses became afraid. He thought, "People must have heard about what I did."

[15]When Pharaoh heard about what had happened, he tried to kill Moses. But Moses escaped from Pharaoh and went to live in Midian. There he sat down by a well. [16]A priest of Midian had seven daughters. They came to fill the stone tubs with water. They wanted to give water to their father's flock. [17]Some shepherds came along and chased the girls away. But Moses got up and helped them. Then he gave water to their flock.

[18]The girls returned to their father Reuel. He asked them, "Why have you returned so early today?"

[19]They answered, "An Egyptian saved us from the shepherds. He even got water for us and gave it to the flock."

[20]"Where is he?" Reuel asked his daughters. "Why did you leave him? Invite him to have something to eat."

[21]Moses agreed to stay with the man. And the man gave his daughter Zipporah to Moses to be his wife. [22]Zipporah had a son by him. Moses named him Gershom. That's because Moses said, "I'm an outsider in a strange land."

[23]After a long time, the king of Egypt died. The people of Israel groaned because they were slaves. They also cried out to God. Their cry for help went up to him. [24]God heard their groans. He remembered his covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. [25]So God looked on the Israelites with concern for them.

Exodus 3

Moses and the Burning Bush

[1]Moses was taking care of the flock of his father-in-law Jethro. Jethro was the priest of Midian. Moses led the flock to the western side of the desert. He came to Horeb. It was the mountain of God. [2]There the angel of the LORD appeared to him from inside a burning bush. Moses saw that the bush was on fire. But it didn't burn up. [3]So Moses thought, "I'll go over and see this strange sight. Why doesn't the bush burn up?"

[4]The LORD saw that Moses had gone over to look. So God spoke to him from inside the bush. He called out, "Moses! Moses!"

"Here I am," Moses said.

[5]"Do not come any closer," God said. "Take off your sandals. The place you are standing on is holy ground." [6]He continued, "I am the God of your father. I am the God of Abraham. I am the God of Isaac. And I am the God of Jacob." When Moses heard that, he turned his face away. He was afraid to look at God.

[7]The LORD said, "I have seen how my people are suffering in Egypt. I have heard them cry out because of their slave drivers. I am concerned about their suffering. [8]So I have come down to save them from the Egyptians. I will bring them up out of that land. I will bring them into a good land. It has a lot of room. It is a land that has plenty of milk and honey. The Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites live there. [9]And now Israel's cry for help has reached me. I have seen how badly the Egyptians are treating them. [10]So now, go. I am sending you to Pharaoh. I want you to bring the Israelites out of Egypt. They are my people."

[11]But Moses spoke to God. "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh?" he said. "Who am I that I should bring the Israelites out of Egypt?"

[12]God said, "I will be with you. I will give you a sign. It will prove that I have sent you. When you have brought the people out of Egypt, all of you will worship me on this mountain."

[13]Moses said to God, "Suppose I go to the people of Israel. Suppose I say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you.' And suppose they ask me, 'What is his name?' Then what should I tell them?"

[14]God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM. Here is what you must say to the Israelites. Tell them, 'I am has sent me to you.' "

15 God also said to Moses, “Say to the Israelites, ‘The LORD is the God of your fathers. He has sent me to you. He is the God of Abraham. He is the God of Isaac. And he is the God of Jacob.’ My name will always be The LORD. Call me this name for all time to come.
16 “Go. Gather the elders of Israel together. Say to them, ‘The LORD, the God of your fathers, appeared to me. He is the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.
God said, “I have watched over you. I have seen what the Egyptians have done to you. 17 I have promised to bring you up out of Egypt where you are suffering. I will bring you into the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. It is a land that has plenty of milk and honey.” ’ 18 “The elders of Israel will listen to you. Then you and the elders must go to the king of Egypt. You must say to him, ‘The LORD has met with us. He is the God of the Hebrews. Let us take a journey that lasts about three days. We want to go into the desert to offer sacrifices to the LORD our God.’ 19 But I know that the king of Egypt will not let you and your people go. Only a mighty hand could make him do that. 20 So I will reach out my hand. I will strike the Egyptians with all the amazing things I will do. After that, their king will let you go.
21 “I will cause the Egyptians to treat you in a kind way. Then when you leave, you will not go with your hands empty. 22 Every woman should ask her neighbor and any woman living in her house for things made out of silver and gold. Ask them for clothes too. Put them on your children. In that way, you will take the wealth of Egypt along with you.”

Exodus 4

Signs for Moses to Do

[1]Moses answered, “What if the elders of Israel won’t believe me? What if they won’t listen to me? Suppose they say, ‘The LORD didn’t appear to you.’
Then what should I do?”

[2]The LORD said to him, “What do you have in your hand?”

“A walking stick,” he said.

[3]The LORD said, “Throw it on the ground.”

So Moses threw it on the ground. It turned into a snake. He ran away from it.
[4]Then the LORD said to Moses, “Reach your hand out. Take the snake by the tail.” So he reached out and grabbed the snake. It turned back into a walking stick in his hand. [5]The LORD said, “When they see this sign, they will believe that I appeared to you. I am the LORD, the God of their fathers. I am the God of Abraham. I am the God of Isaac. And I am the God of Jacob.”

[6]Then the LORD said, “Put your hand inside your coat.” So Moses put his hand inside his coat. When he took it out, the skin had become as white as snow.
His hand was covered with a skin disease.

[7]“Now put it back into your coat,” the LORD said. So Moses put his hand back into his coat. When he took it out, the skin was healthy again. His hand was like the rest of his skin.

[8]Then the LORD said, “Suppose they do not believe you or pay attention to the first sign. Then maybe they will believe the second one. [9]But suppose they do not believe either sign. Suppose they will not listen to you. Then get some water from the Nile River. Pour it on the dry ground. The water you take from the river will turn into blood on the ground.”

[10]Moses spoke to the LORD. He said, “Lord, I’ve never been a good speaker.
And I haven’t gotten any better since you spoke to me. I don’t speak very well at all.”

[11]The LORD said to him, “Who makes human beings able to talk? Who makes them unable to hear or speak? Who makes them able to see? Who makes them blind? It is I, the LORD. [12]Now go. I will help you speak. I will teach you what to say.”

[13]But Moses said, “Lord, please send someone else to do it.”

[14]Then the LORD became very angry with Moses. He said, “What about your brother, Aaron the Levite? I know he can speak well. He is already on his way to meet you. He will be glad to see you. [15]Speak to him. Tell him what to say. I will help both of you speak. I will teach you what to do. [16]He will speak to the people for you. He will be like your mouth. And you will be like God to him. [17]But take this walking stick in your hand. You will be able to do signs with it."

Moses Returns to Egypt

[18]Then Moses went back to his father-in-law Jethro. He said to him, "Let me return to my own people in Egypt. I want to see if any of them are still alive."

Jethro said, "Go. I hope everything goes well with you."

[19]The LORD had said to Moses in Midian, "Go back to Egypt. All those who wanted to kill you are dead." [20]So Moses got his wife and sons. He put them on a donkey. Together they started back to Egypt. And he took the walking stick in his hand. It was the stick God would use in a powerful way.

[21]The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, "When you return to Egypt, do all the amazing things I have given you the power to do. Do them in the sight of Pharaoh. But I will make him stubborn. He will not let the people go. [22]Then say to Pharaoh, 'The LORD says, "Israel is like an oldest son to me. [23]I told you, 'Let my son go. Then he will be able to worship me.' But you refused to let him go. So I will kill your oldest son." ' "

[24]On the way to Egypt, Moses stopped for the night. There the LORD met him and was about to kill him. [25]But Zipporah got a knife made out of flint. She circumcised her son with it. Then she touched Moses' feet with the skin she had cut off. "Surely, you are a husband who has forced me to spill my son's blood," she said. [26]So the LORD didn't kill Moses. When she said "husband who has forced me to spill my son's blood," she was talking about circumcision.

[27]The LORD said to Aaron, "Go into the desert to see Moses." So Aaron greeted Moses at the mountain of God and kissed him. [28]Then Moses told Aaron everything the LORD had sent him to say. Moses also told him about all the signs the LORD had commanded him to do.

[29]Moses and Aaron gathered all the elders of Israel together. [30]Aaron told them everything the LORD had said to Moses. He also performed the signs in the sight of the people. [31]And they believed. They heard that the LORD was concerned about them. He had seen their suffering. So they bowed down and worshiped him.

Exodus 5

[1]Later on, Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh. They said, “The LORD is the God of Israel. He says, ‘Let my people go. Then they will be able to hold a feast to honor me in the desert.’ ”

[2]Pharaoh said, “Who is the LORD? Why should I obey him? Why should I let Israel go? I don’t even know the LORD. And I won’t let Israel go.”

[3]Then Moses and Aaron said, “The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Now let us take a journey that lasts about three days. We want to go into the desert to offer sacrifices to the LORD our God. If we don’t, he might strike us with plagues. Or he might let us be killed by swords.”

[4]But the king of Egypt said, “Moses and Aaron, why are you taking the people away from their work? Get back to work!” [5]Pharaoh continued, “There are large numbers of your people in the land. But you are stopping them from working.”

[6]That same day Pharaoh gave orders to the slave drivers and the overseers in charge of the people. [7]He said, “Don’t give the people any more straw to make bricks. Let them go and get their own straw. [8]But require them to make the same number of bricks as before. Don’t lower the number they have to make. They are lazy. That’s why they are crying out, ‘Let us go. We want to offer sacrifices to our God.’ [9]Make them work harder. Then they will be too busy to pay attention to lies.”

[10]The slave drivers and the overseers left. They said to the people, “Pharaoh says, ‘I won’t give you any more straw. [11]Go and get your own straw anywhere you can find it. But you still have to make the same number of bricks.’ ” [12]So the people scattered all over Egypt. They went to gather any pieces of straw left in the fields. [13]Pharaoh’s slave drivers kept making the people work hard. They said, “Finish the work you are required to do each day. Make the same number of bricks you made when you had straw.” [14]The slave drivers whipped the Israelite overseers they had appointed. The slave drivers asked, “Why haven’t you made the same number of bricks yesterday or today, just as before?”

[15]Then the Israelite overseers appealed to Pharaoh. They asked, “Why have you treated us like this? [16]You didn’t give us any straw. But you told us, ‘Make bricks!’ We are being whipped. But it’s the fault of your own people.”

[17]Pharaoh said, “You are lazy! That’s why you keep saying, ‘Let us go. We want to offer sacrifices to the LORD.’ [18]Now get to work. We won’t give you any straw. But you still have to make the same number of bricks.”

19The Israelite overseers realized they were in trouble. They knew it when they were told, “Don’t reduce the number of bricks you are required to make each day.” 20When they left Pharaoh, they found Moses and Aaron waiting to meet them. 21They said to Moses and Aaron, “We want the LORD to look at what you have done! We want him to judge you for it! We are like a very bad smell to Pharaoh and his officials. You have given them an excuse to kill us with their swords.”

The LORD Promises to Save the Israelites

22Moses returned to talk to the LORD. He said to him, “Why, Lord? Why have you brought trouble on these people? Is this why you sent me? 23I went to Pharaoh to speak to him in your name. Ever since then, he has brought nothing but trouble on these people. And you haven’t saved your people at all.”

Exodus 6

[1]Then the LORD said to Moses, “Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh.
Because of my powerful hand, he will let the people of Israel go. Because of my mighty hand, he will drive them out of his country.”
[2]God continued, “I am the LORD. [3]I appeared to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob as the Mighty God. But I did not show them the full meaning of my name, The LORD. [4]I also made my covenant with them. I promised to give them the land of Canaan. That is where they lived as outsiders. [5]Also, I have heard the groans of the Israelites. The Egyptians are keeping them as slaves. But I have remembered my covenant.
[6]“So tell the people of Israel, ‘I am the LORD. I will throw off the heavy load the Egyptians have put on your shoulders. I will set you free from being slaves to them. I will reach out my arm and save you with mighty acts when I judge Egypt. [7]I will take you to be my own people. I will be your God. I throw off the load the Egyptians have put on your shoulders. Then you will know that I am the LORD your God. [8]I will bring you to the land I promised to give to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. I lifted up my hand and promised it to them. The land will belong to you. I am the LORD.’ ” [9]Moses reported these things to the Israelites. But they didn’t listen to him.
That’s because they had lost all hope and had to work very hard.
[10]Then the LORD said to Moses, [11]“Go. Tell Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, to let the people of Israel leave his country.” [12]But Moses said to the LORD, “The people won’t listen to me. So why would Pharaoh listen to me? After all, I don’t speak very well.”

The Family Record of Moses and Aaron

[13]The LORD had spoken to Moses and Aaron. He had talked with them about the Israelites and about Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. He had commanded Moses and Aaron to bring the people of Israel out of Egypt.

[14]Here were the leaders of the family groups of Reuben, Simeon and Levi.

Reuben was the oldest son of Israel. Reuben’s sons were Hanok, Pallu, Hezron and Karmi.
These were the family groups of Reuben.

[15]The sons of Simeon were Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jakin, Zohar and Shaul. Shaul was the son of a woman from Canaan.
These were the family groups of Simeon.

[16]Here are the names of the sons of Levi written in their family record.
They were
Gershon, Kohath and Merari.
Levi lived for 137 years.
[17]The sons of Gershon, by their family groups, were Libni and Shimei.
[18]The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.
Kohath lived for 133 years.
[19]The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi.
These are the family groups of Levi written in their family record.

[20]Amram married his father's sister Jochebed. Aaron and Moses were members of Amram's family line.
Amram lived for 137 years.
[21]The sons of Izhar were Korah, Nepheg and Zikri.
[22]The sons of Uzziel were Mishael, Elzaphan and Sithri.

[23]Aaron married Elisheba. She was the daughter of Amminadab and the sister of Nahshon. She had Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar by Aaron.

[24]The sons of Korah were Assir, Elkanah and Abiasaph.
These were the family groups of Korah.

[25]Eleazar, the son of Aaron, married one of the daughters of Putiel. She had Phinehas by Eleazar.
These are the leaders of the families of Levi. Their names are written in their family records.

[26]The LORD had spoken to this same Aaron and Moses. He had told them, “Bring the Israelites out of Egypt like an army on the march.” [27]They spoke to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, about bringing the people of Israel out of Egypt. It was this same Moses and Aaron.

Aaron Speaks for Moses

[28]The LORD had spoken to Moses in Egypt. [29]He had told him, “I am the LORD. Tell Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, everything I tell you.”

[30]But Moses said to the LORD, “I don’t speak very well. So why would Pharaoh listen to me?”

Exodus 7

[1]Then the LORD said to Moses, “I have made you like God to Pharaoh. And your brother Aaron will be like a prophet to you. [2]You must say everything I command you to say. Then your brother Aaron must tell Pharaoh to let the people of Israel leave his country. [3]But I will make Pharaoh stubborn. I will multiply the signs and amazing things I will do in Egypt. [4]In spite of that, he will not listen to you. So I will use my powerful hand against Egypt. When I judge them with mighty acts, I will bring my people Israel out like an army on the march. [5]Then the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD. I will reach out my powerful hand against them. I will bring the people of Israel out of Egypt.”
[6]Moses and Aaron did exactly as the LORD had commanded them. [7]Moses was 80 years old and Aaron was 83 when they spoke to Pharaoh.

Aaron’s Walking Stick Becomes a Snake

[8]The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron. [9]He said, “Pharaoh will say to you, ‘Do a miracle.’ When he does, speak to Aaron. Tell him, ‘Take your walking stick and throw it down in front of Pharaoh.’ It will turn into a snake.” [10]So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh. They did exactly as the LORD had commanded them. Aaron threw the stick down in front of Pharaoh and his officials. It turned into a snake. [11]Then Pharaoh sent for wise men and people who do evil magic. By doing their magic tricks, the Egyptian magicians did the same things Aaron had done. [12]Each one threw down his walking stick. Each stick turned into a snake. But Aaron’s walking stick swallowed theirs up. [13]In spite of that, Pharaoh became stubborn. He wouldn’t listen to them, just as the LORD had said.

The Plague of Blood

[14]Then the LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh is very stubborn. He refuses to let the people go. [15]In the morning Pharaoh will go down to the Nile River. Go and meet him on the bank of the river. Take in your hand the walking stick that turned into a snake. [16]Say to Pharaoh, ‘The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to you. He says, “Let my people go. Then they will be able to worship me in the desert. But up to now you have not listened.” [17]The LORD says, “Here is how you will know that I am the LORD. I will strike the water of the Nile River with the walking stick that is in my hand. The river will turn into blood. 18The fish in the river will die. The river will stink. The Egyptians will not be able to drink its water.” ’ ”

19The LORD said to Moses, “Tell Aaron, ‘Get your walking stick. Reach your hand out over the waters of Egypt. The streams, canals, ponds and all the lakes will turn into blood. There will be blood everywhere in Egypt. It will even be in the wooden buckets and stone jars.’ ”

20Moses and Aaron did exactly as the LORD had commanded them. Aaron held out his staff in front of Pharaoh and his officials. He struck the water of the Nile River. And all the water turned into blood. 21The fish in the Nile died. The river smelled so bad the Egyptians couldn’t drink its water. There was blood everywhere in Egypt.

22But the Egyptian magicians did the same things by doing their magic tricks. So Pharaoh became stubborn. He wouldn’t listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the LORD had said. 23Even that miracle didn’t change Pharaoh’s mind. In fact, he turned around and went into his palace. 24All the Egyptians dug holes near the Nile River to get drinking water. They couldn’t drink water from the river.

The Plague of Frogs

25Seven days passed after the LORD struck the Nile River.

Exodus 8

[1]Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh. Tell him, ‘The LORD says, “Let my people go. Then they will be able to worship me. [2]If you refuse to let them go, I will send a plague of frogs on your whole country. [3]The Nile River will be full of frogs. They will come up into your palace. You will have frogs in your bedroom and on your bed. They will be in the homes of your officials and your people. They will be in your ovens and in the bowls for kneading your bread. [4]The frogs will be on you, your people and all your officials.” ’ ”

[5]Then the LORD spoke to Moses. He said, “Tell Aaron, ‘Reach out your hand. Hold your walking stick over the streams, canals and ponds. Make frogs come up on the land of Egypt.’ ”

[6]So Aaron reached out his hand over the waters of Egypt. The frogs came up and covered the land. [7]But the magicians did the same things by doing their magic tricks. They also made frogs come up on the land of Egypt.

[8]Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron. He said to them, “Pray to the LORD to take the frogs away from me and my people. Then I’ll let your people go to offer sacrifices to the LORD.”

[9]Moses said to Pharaoh, “You can have the honor of setting the time for me to pray. I will pray for you, your officials and your people. I’ll pray that the frogs will leave you and your homes. The only frogs left will be the ones in the Nile River.”

[10]“Tomorrow,” Pharaoh said.

Moses replied, “It will happen just as you say. Then you will know that there is no one like the LORD our God. [11]The frogs will leave you and your houses. They will leave your officials and your people. The frogs will remain only in the Nile River.”

[12]Moses and Aaron left Pharaoh. Then Moses cried out to the LORD about the frogs he had brought on Pharaoh. [13]And the LORD did what Moses asked. The frogs died in the houses, courtyards and fields. [14]The Egyptians piled them up. The land smelled very bad because of them. [15]But when Pharaoh saw that the frogs were dead, he became stubborn. He wouldn’t listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the LORD had said.

The Plague of Gnats

16Then the LORD spoke to Moses. He said, “Tell Aaron, ‘Reach out your walking stick. Strike the dust on the ground with it.’ Then all over the land of Egypt the dust will turn into gnats.” 17So they did it. Aaron reached out the stick that was in his hand. He struck the dust on the ground with it. The dust all over the land of Egypt turned into gnats. They landed on people and animals alike. 18The magicians tried to produce gnats by doing their magic tricks. But they couldn’t.

The gnats stayed on people and animals everywhere. 19So the magicians said to Pharaoh, “God’s powerful finger has done this.” But Pharaoh remained stubborn. He wouldn’t listen, just as the LORD had said.

The Plague of Flies

20Then the LORD spoke to Moses. He said, “Get up early in the morning. Talk to Pharaoh as he goes down to the Nile River. Say to him, ‘The LORD says, “Let my people go. Then they will be able to worship me. 21If you do not let my people go, I will send large numbers of flies. I will send them on you and your officials. I will send them on your people and into your homes. The houses of the Egyptians will be full of flies. Even the ground will be covered with them.

22“ ‘ “But on that day I will treat the area of Goshen differently from yours. That is where my people live. There will not be large numbers of flies in Goshen. Then you will know that I, the LORD, am in this land. 23I will treat my people differently from yours. This sign will take place tomorrow.” ’ ”

24So the LORD did it. Huge numbers of flies poured into Pharaoh’s palace. They came into the homes of his officials. All over Egypt the flies destroyed the land.

25Then Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron. He said to them, “Go. Offer sacrifices to your God here in the land.”

26But Moses said, “That wouldn’t be right. The sacrifices we offer to the LORD our God wouldn’t be accepted by the Egyptians because of their beliefs. For that reason, they would throw stones at us and try to kill us. 27We have to take a journey that lasts about three days. We want to go into the desert to offer sacrifices to the LORD our God, just as he commands us.”

28Pharaoh said, “I will let you and your people go to offer sacrifices. You can offer them to the LORD your God in the desert. But you must not go very far. Now pray for me.”

29Moses replied, “As soon as I leave you, I will pray to the LORD. Tomorrow the flies will leave you. They will also leave your officials and your people. Just be sure you don’t try to trick us again. Let the people go to offer sacrifices to the LORD.”

30Then Moses left Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD. 31And the LORD did what Moses asked. The flies left Pharaoh, his officials and his people. Not one fly remained. 32But Pharaoh became stubborn this time also. He wouldn’t let the people go.

Exodus 9

The Plague on Livestock

[1]Then the LORD spoke to Moses. He said, “Go to Pharaoh. Tell him, ‘The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says, “Let my people go. Then they will be able to worship me. [2]Do not refuse to let them go. Do not keep holding them back. [3]If you refuse, my powerful hand will bring a terrible plague on you. I will strike your livestock in the fields. I will strike your horses, donkeys, camels, cattle, sheep and goats. [4]But I will treat Israel’s livestock differently from yours. No animal that belongs to the people of Israel will die.” ’ ”

[5]The LORD set a time for the plague. He said, “Tomorrow I will send it on the land.” [6]So the next day the LORD sent it. All the livestock of the Egyptians died.
But not one animal that belonged to the Israelites died. [7]Pharaoh searched and found out what had happened. He discovered that not even one animal that belonged to the Israelites had died. But he was still very stubborn. He wouldn’t let the people go.

The Plague of Boils

[8]Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron. He said, “Take handfuls of ashes from a furnace. Have Moses toss them into the air in front of Pharaoh. [9]The ashes will turn into fine dust over the whole land of Egypt. Then painful boils will break out on people and animals all over the land. Their bodies will be covered with them.”

[10]So Moses and Aaron took ashes from a furnace and stood in front of Pharaoh. Moses tossed them into the air. Then boils broke out on people and animals alike. [11]The bodies of all the Egyptians were covered with boils. The magicians couldn’t stand in front of Moses because of the boils that were all over them. [12]But the LORD made Pharaoh stubborn. Pharaoh wouldn’t listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the LORD had said to Moses.

The Plague of Hail

[13]Then the LORD spoke to Moses. He said, “Get up early in the morning. Go to Pharaoh and say to him, ‘The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says, “Let my people go. Then they will be able to worship me. [14]If you do not let them go, I will send the full force of my plagues against you this time. They will strike your officials and your people. Then you will know that there is no one like me in the whole earth. [15]By now I could have reached out my hand. I could have struck you and your people with a plague that would have wiped you off the earth. [16]But I had a special reason for making you king. I decided to show you my power. I wanted my name to become known everywhere on earth. [17]But you are still against my people. You will not let them go. [18]So at this time tomorrow I will send the worst hailstorm ever to fall on Egypt in its entire history. [19]Give an order now to bring your livestock inside to a safe place. Bring in everything that is outside. The hail will fall on all the people and animals that are left outside. They will die.” ’ ”

[20]The officials of Pharaoh who had respect for what the LORD had said obeyed him. They hurried to bring their slaves and their livestock inside. [21]But others didn’t pay attention to what the LORD had said. They left their slaves and livestock outside.

[22]Then the LORD spoke to Moses. He said, “Reach out your hand toward the sky. Then hail will fall all over Egypt. It will beat down on people and animals alike. It will strike everything growing in the fields of Egypt.” [23]Moses reached out his walking stick toward the sky. Then the LORD sent thunder and hail. Lightning flashed down to the ground. The LORD rained hail on the land of Egypt. [24]Hail fell and lightning flashed back and forth. It was the worst storm in Egypt’s entire history. [25]Hail struck everything in the fields all over Egypt. It fell on people and animals alike. It beat down everything growing in the fields. It tore all the leaves off the trees. [26]The only place it didn’t hail was in the area of Goshen. That’s where the people of Israel were.

[27]Then Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron. “This time I’ve sinned,” he said to them. “The LORD has done what is right. I and my people have done what is wrong. [28]Pray to the LORD, because we’ve had enough thunder and hail. I’ll let you and your people go. You don’t have to stay here any longer.”

[29]Moses replied, “When I’ve left the city, I’ll lift up my hands and pray to the LORD. The thunder will stop. There won’t be any more hail. Then you will know that the earth belongs to the LORD. [30]But I know that you and your officials still don’t have any respect for the LORD God.”

[31]The barley was ripe. The flax was in bloom. So they were both destroyed. [32]But the wheat and spelt weren’t destroyed. That’s because they ripen later.

[33]Then Moses left Pharaoh and went out of the city. Moses lifted up his hands and prayed to the LORD. The thunder and hail stopped. The rain didn’t pour down on the land any longer. 34Pharaoh saw that the rain, hail and thunder had stopped. So he sinned again. He and his officials became stubborn. 35So Pharaoh was stubborn. He wouldn’t let the people of Israel go, just as the LORD had said through Moses.

Exodus 10

The Plague of Locusts

[1]Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh. I have made him stubborn. I have also made his officials stubborn so I can perform my signs among them. [2]Then you will be able to tell your children and grandchildren how hard I was on the Egyptians. You can tell them I performed my signs among the people of Egypt. And all of you will know that I am the LORD.”

[3]So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh. They said to him, “The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says, ‘How long will you refuse to obey me? Let my people go. Then they will be able to worship me. [4]If you refuse to let them go, I will bring locusts into your country tomorrow. [5]They will cover the ground so that it can’t be seen. They will eat what little you have left after the hail. That includes every tree growing in your fields. [6]They will fill your houses. They will be in the homes of all your officials and your people. Your parents and your people before them have never seen anything like it as long as they have lived here.’ ” Then Moses turned around and left Pharaoh.

[7]Pharaoh’s officials said to him, “How long will this man be a trap for us? Let the people go. Then they’ll be able to worship the LORD their God. After everything that’s happened, don’t you realize that Egypt is destroyed?”

[8]Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh. “Go. Worship the LORD your God,” he said. “But tell me who will be going.”

[9]Moses answered, “We’ll go with our young people and old people. We’ll go with our sons and daughters. We’ll take our flocks and herds. We are supposed to hold a feast to honor the LORD.”

[10]Pharaoh said, “Suppose I ever let you go, along with your women and children. Then the LORD really will be with all of you! Clearly you are planning to do something bad. [11]No! I’ll only allow the men to go and worship the LORD. After all, that’s what you have been asking for.” Then Pharaoh drove Moses and Aaron out of his sight.

[12]The LORD said to Moses, “Reach out your hand over Egypt so that locusts cover the land. They will eat up everything growing in the fields. They will eat up everything left by the hail.”

[13]So Moses reached out his walking stick over Egypt. Then the LORD made an east wind blow across the land. It blew all that day and all that night. By morning the wind had brought the locusts. [14]Large numbers of them came down in every part of Egypt. There had never been a plague of locusts like it before. And there will never be one like it again. [15]The locusts covered the ground until it was black. They ate up everything left after the hail. They ate up everything growing in the fields. They ate up the fruit on the trees. There was nothing green left on any tree or plant in the whole land of Egypt.

[16]Pharaoh quickly sent for Moses and Aaron. He said, “I have sinned against the LORD your God. I’ve also sinned against you. [17]Now forgive my sin one more time. Pray to the LORD your God to take this deadly plague away from me.”

[18]After Moses left Pharaoh, he prayed to the LORD. [19]The LORD changed the wind to a very strong west wind. It picked up the locusts. It blew them into the Red Sea. Not even one locust was left anywhere in Egypt. [20]But the LORD made Pharaoh stubborn. So Pharaoh wouldn’t let the people of Israel go.

The Plague of Darkness

[21]The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, “Reach out your hand toward the sky so that darkness spreads over Egypt. It will be so dark that people can feel it.” [22]So Moses reached out his hand toward the sky. Then complete darkness covered Egypt for three days. [23]No one could see anyone else or go anywhere for three days. But all the people of Israel had light where they lived.

[24]Then Pharaoh sent for Moses. He said to him, “Go. Worship the LORD. Even your women and children can go with you. Just leave your flocks and herds behind.”

[25]But Moses said, “You must allow us to take our animals. We need to offer them as sacrifices and burnt offerings to the LORD our God. [26]Our livestock must also go with us. We have to use some of them to worship the LORD our God. We can’t leave even one animal behind. Until we get there, we won’t know what we are supposed to use to worship the LORD.”

[27]But the LORD made Pharaoh stubborn. So he wouldn’t let the people go. [28]Pharaoh said to Moses, “Get out of my sight! Make sure you don’t come to see me again! If you do, you will die.”

[29]“I’ll do just as you say,” Moses replied. “I will never come to see you again.”

Exodus 11

The LORD Announces the Tenth Plague

[1]The LORD had spoken to Moses. He had said, “I will bring one more plague on Pharaoh and on Egypt. After that, he will let you and your people go. When he does, he will drive every one of you away. [2]Tell the men and women alike to ask their neighbors for things made out of silver and gold.” [3]The LORD caused the Egyptians to treat the Israelites in a kind way. Pharaoh’s officials and the people had great respect for Moses.

[4]Moses told Pharaoh, “The LORD says, ‘About midnight I will go through every part of Egypt. [5]Every oldest son in Egypt will die. The oldest son of Pharaoh, who sits on the throne, will die. The oldest son of every female slave, who works at her hand mill, will die. All the male animals born first to their mothers among the cattle will also die. [6]There will be loud crying all over Egypt.
It will be worse than it’s ever been before. And nothing like it will ever be heard again. [7]But among the Israelites not even one dog will bark at any person or animal.’ Then you will know that the LORD treats Egypt differently from us.
[8]All your officials will come and bow down to me. They will say, ‘Go, you and all the people who follow you!’ After that, I will leave.” Moses was very angry when he left Pharaoh.

[9]The LORD had spoken to Moses. He had said, “Pharaoh will refuse to listen to you. So I will multiply the amazing things I will do in Egypt.” [10]Moses and Aaron performed all these amazing things in the sight of Pharaoh. But the LORD made Pharaoh stubborn. He wouldn’t let the people of Israel go out of his country.

Exodus 12

The First Passover Sacrifice

[1]The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in Egypt. [2]He said, “From now on, this month will be your first month. Each of your years will begin with it. [3]Speak to the whole community of Israel. Tell them that on the tenth day of this month each man must get a lamb from his flock. A lamb should be chosen for each family and home. [4]Suppose there are not enough people in your family to eat a whole lamb. Then you must share some of it with your nearest neighbor. You must add up the total number of people there are. You must decide how much lamb is needed for each person. [5]The animals you choose must be males that are a year old. They must not have any flaws. You may choose either sheep or goats. [6]Take care of them until the 14th day of the month. Then the whole community of Israel must kill them when the sun goes down. [7]Take some of the blood. Put it on the sides and tops of the doorframes of the houses where you eat the lambs. [8]That same night eat the meat cooked over a fire. Also eat bitter plants. And eat bread made without yeast. [9]Do not eat the meat when it is raw. Don’t boil it in water. Instead, cook it over a fire. Cook the head, legs and inside parts. [10]Do not leave any of it until morning. If some is left over until morning, burn it up. [11]Eat the meat while your coat is tucked into your belt. Put your sandals on your feet. Take your walking stick in your hand. Eat the food quickly. It is the LORD’s Passover.

[12]“That same night I will pass through Egypt. I will strike down all those born first among the people and animals. And I will judge all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD. [13]The blood on your houses will be a sign for you. When I see the blood, I will pass over you. No deadly plague will touch you when I strike Egypt.

[14]“Always remember this day. You and your children after you must celebrate this day as a feast to honor the LORD. You must do this for all time to come. It is a law that will last forever. [15]For seven days eat bread made without yeast. On the first day remove the yeast from your homes. For the next seven days, anyone who eats anything with yeast in it must be separated from Israel. [16]On the first and seventh days, come together for a sacred assembly. Do not work at all on these days. The only thing you are allowed to do is prepare food for everyone to eat.

[17]“Celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread. I brought you out of Egypt on this very day like an army on the march. It is a law that will last for all time to come. [18]In the first month eat bread made without yeast. Eat it from the evening of the 14th day until the evening of the 21st day. [19]For seven days do not let any yeast be found in your homes. Anyone who eats anything with yeast in it must be separated from the community of Israel. That applies to outsiders and Israelites alike. [20]Do not eat anything made with yeast. No matter where you live, eat bread made without yeast.”

[21]Then Moses sent for all the elders of Israel. He said to them, “Go at once. Choose the animals for your families. Each family must kill a Passover lamb. [22]Get a branch of a hyssop plant. Dip it into the blood in the bowl. Put some of the blood on the top and on both sides of the doorframe. None of you can go out of the door of your house until morning. [23]The LORD will go through the land to strike down the Egyptians. He’ll see the blood on the top and sides of the doorframe. He will pass over that house. He won’t let the destroying angel enter your homes to strike you down.

[24]“Obey all these directions. It’s a law for you and your children after you for all time to come. [25]The LORD will give you the land, just as he promised. When you enter it, keep this holy day. [26]Your children will ask you, ‘What does this holy day mean to you?’ [27]Tell them, ‘It’s the Passover sacrifice to honor the LORD. He passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt. He spared our homes when he struck down the Egyptians.’ ” Then the Israelites bowed down and worshiped. [28]They did just what the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron.

[29]At midnight the LORD struck down every oldest son in Egypt. He killed the oldest son of Pharaoh, who sat on the throne. He killed all the oldest sons of prisoners. He also killed all the male animals born first to their mothers among the livestock. [30]Pharaoh and all his officials got up during the night. So did all the Egyptians. There was loud crying in Egypt because someone had died in every home.

The Exodus

[31]During the night, Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron. He said to them, “Get out of here! You and the Israelites, leave my people! Go. Worship the LORD, just as you have asked. [32]Go. Take your flocks and herds, just as you have said. And also give me your blessing.”

[33]The Egyptians begged the people of Israel to hurry up and leave the country.

“If you don’t,” they said, “we’ll all die!” [34]So the people took their dough before the yeast was added to it. They carried it on their shoulders in bowls for kneading bread. The bowls were wrapped in clothes. [35]They did just as Moses had directed them. They asked the Egyptians for things made out of silver and gold. They also asked them for clothes. [36]The LORD had caused the Egyptians to treat the Israelites in a kind way. So the Egyptians gave them what they asked for. The Israelites took many expensive things that belonged to the Egyptians.

[37]The Israelites traveled from Rameses to Sukkoth. There were about 600,000 men old enough to go into battle. The women and children went with them. [38]So did many other people. The Israelites also took large flocks and herds with them. [39]The Israelites brought dough from Egypt. With it they baked loaves of bread without yeast. The dough didn’t have any yeast in it. That’s because the people had been driven out of Egypt before they had time to prepare their food.

[40]The Israelites lived in Egypt for 430 years. [41]Then all the LORD’s people marched out of Egypt like an army. That happened at the end of the 430 years, to the exact day. [42]The LORD kept watch that night to bring them out of Egypt. So on that same night every year all the Israelites must keep watch. They must do it to honor the LORD for all time to come.

Rules for the Passover

[43]The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Here are the rules for the Passover meal.

“No one from another country is allowed to eat it. [44]Any slave you have bought is allowed to eat it after you have circumcised him. [45]But a hired worker or someone who lives with you for a short time is not allowed to eat it.

[46]“It must be eaten inside the house. Do not take any of the meat outside. Do not break any of the bones. [47]The whole community of Israel must celebrate the Passover.

[48]“Suppose an outsider living among you wants to celebrate the LORD’s Passover. Then all the males in that home must be circumcised. After that, the person can take part, just like an Israelite. Only circumcised males may eat it. [49]The same law applies to Israelites and to outsiders living among you.”

[50]All the people of Israel did just what the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron. [51]On that day the LORD brought the Israelites out of Egypt like an army on the march.

Exodus 13

Setting Apart the Oldest Sons

[1]The LORD said to Moses, [2]“Set apart for me the first boy born in every family. The oldest son of every Israelite mother belongs to me. Every male animal born first to its mother also belongs to me.”

[3]Then Moses said to the people, “Remember this day. It’s the day you came out of Egypt. That’s the land where you were slaves. The LORD used his mighty hand to bring you out of Egypt. Don’t eat anything with yeast in it. [4]You are leaving today. It’s the month of Aviv. [5]The LORD will bring you into the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Hivites and Jebusites. He promised your people of long ago that he would give that land to you. It’s a land that has plenty of milk and honey. When you get there, celebrate this holy day in this month. [6]For seven days eat bread made without yeast. On the seventh day hold a feast to honor the LORD. [7]Eat bread made without yeast during those seven days. Nothing with yeast in it should be found among you. No yeast should be seen anywhere inside your borders. [8]On that day talk to your child. Say, ‘I’m doing this because of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.’ [9]When you celebrate this holy day, it will be like a mark on your hand. It will be like a reminder on your forehead. This law of the LORD must be on your lips. The LORD used his mighty hand to bring you out of Egypt. [10]Obey this law at the appointed time year after year.

[11]“The LORD will bring you into the land of Canaan. He will give it to you, just as he promised he would. He gave his word to you and your people of long ago. [12]After you arrive in the land, give to the LORD the oldest son of every mother. Every male animal born first to its mother among your livestock belongs to the LORD. [13]By sacrificing a lamb, buy back every male donkey born first to its mother. But if you don’t buy the donkey back, break its neck. Buy back every oldest son.

[14]“In days to come, your child will ask you, ‘What does this mean?’ Say to them, ‘The LORD used his mighty hand to bring us out of Egypt. That’s the land where we were slaves. [15]Pharaoh was stubborn. He refused to let us go. So the LORD killed every oldest son in Egypt. He also killed all those born first among the people and animals. That’s why I sacrifice to the LORD every male animal born first. And that’s why I buy back each of my oldest sons for the LORD.’

16This holy day will be like a mark on your hand. It will be like a sign on your forehead. It will remind you that the LORD used his mighty hand to bring us out of Egypt.”

Israel Goes Through the Red Sea

17Pharaoh let the people go. The shortest road from Goshen to Canaan went through the Philistine country. But God didn’t lead them that way. God said, “If they have to go into battle, they might change their minds. They might return to Egypt.” 18So God led the people toward the Red Sea by taking them on a road through the desert. The Israelites were ready for battle when they went up out of Egypt.

19Moses took the bones of Joseph along with him. Joseph had made the Israelites give their word to do this. He had said, “God will surely come to help you. When he does, you must carry my bones up from this place with you.”
(Genesis 50:25)

20The people left Sukkoth. They camped at Etham on the edge of the desert.
21By day the LORD went ahead of them in a pillar of cloud. It guided them on their way. At night he led them with a pillar of fire. It gave them light. So they could travel by day or at night. 22The pillar of cloud didn’t leave its place in front of the people during the day. And the pillar of fire didn’t leave its place at night.

Exodus 14

[1]Then the LORD spoke to Moses. [2]He said, “Tell the people of Israel to turn back. Have them camp near Pi Hahiroth between Migdol and the Red Sea. They must camp by the sea, right across from Baal Zephon. [3]Pharaoh will think, ‘The Israelites are wandering around the land. They don’t know which way to go. The desert is all around them.’ [4]I will make Pharaoh stubborn. He will chase them. But I will gain glory for myself because of what will happen to Pharaoh and his whole army. And the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD.” So the Israelites camped by the Red Sea.

[5]The king of Egypt was told that the people had escaped. Then Pharaoh and his officials changed their minds about them. They said, “What have we done? We’ve let the people of Israel go! We’ve lost our slaves and all the work they used to do for us!” [6]So he had his chariot made ready. He took his army with him. [7]He took 600 of the best chariots in Egypt. He also took along all the other chariots. Officers were in charge of all of them. [8]The LORD made Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, stubborn. So he chased the Israelites as they were marching out boldly. [9]The Egyptians went after the Israelites. All Pharaoh’s horses and chariots and horsemen and troops chased them. They caught up with the Israelites as they camped by the sea. The Israelites were near Pi Hahiroth, across from Baal Zephon.

[10]As Pharaoh approached, the Israelites looked back. There were the Egyptians marching after them! The Israelites were terrified. They cried out to the LORD. [11]They said to Moses, “Why did you bring us to the desert to die? Weren’t there any graves in Egypt? What have you done to us by bringing us out of Egypt? [12]We told you in Egypt, ‘Leave us alone. Let us serve the Egyptians.’ It would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die here in the desert!”

[13]Moses answered the people. He said, “Don’t be afraid. Stand firm. You will see how the LORD will save you today. Do you see those Egyptians? You will never see them again. [14]The LORD will fight for you. Just be still.”

[15]Then the LORD spoke to Moses. He said, “Why are you crying out to me? Tell the people of Israel to move on. [16]Hold out your walking stick. Reach out your hand over the Red Sea to divide the water. Then the people can go through the sea on dry ground. [17]I will make the Egyptians stubborn. They will go in after the Israelites. I will gain glory for myself because of what will happen to Pharaoh, his army, chariots and horsemen. [18]The Egyptians will know that I am the LORD. I will gain glory because of what will happen to Pharaoh, his chariots and his horsemen."

[19]The angel of God had been traveling in front of Israel's army. Now he moved back and went behind them. The pillar of cloud also moved away from in front of them. Now it stood behind them. [20]It came between the armies of Egypt and Israel. All through the night the cloud brought darkness to one side and light to the other. Neither army went near the other all night long.

[21]Then Moses reached out his hand over the Red Sea. All that night the LORD pushed the sea back with a strong east wind. He turned the sea into dry land. The waters were divided. [22]The people of Israel went through the sea on dry ground. There was a wall of water on their right side and on their left.

[23]The Egyptians chased them. All Pharaoh's horses and chariots and horsemen followed them into the sea. [24]Near the end of the night the LORD looked down from the pillar of fire and cloud. He saw the Egyptian army and threw it into a panic. [25]He jammed the wheels of their chariots. That made the chariots hard to drive. The Egyptians said, "Let's get away from the Israelites! The LORD is fighting for Israel against Egypt."

[26]Then the LORD spoke to Moses. He said, "Reach out your hand over the sea. The waters will flow back over the Egyptians and their chariots and horsemen." [27]So Moses reached out his hand over the sea. At sunrise the sea went back to its place. The Egyptians tried to run away from the sea. But the LORD swept them into it. [28]The water flowed back and covered the chariots and horsemen. It covered the entire army of Pharaoh that had followed the people of Israel into the sea. Not one of the Egyptians was left.

[29]But the Israelites went through the sea on dry ground. There was a wall of water on their right side and on their left. [30]That day the LORD saved Israel from the power of Egypt. The Israelites saw the Egyptians lying dead on the shore. [31]The Israelites saw the amazing power the LORD showed against the Egyptians. So the Israelites had great respect for the LORD and put their trust in him. They also put their trust in his servant Moses.

Exodus 15

The Song of Moses and Miriam

[1]Here is the song that Moses and the people of Israel sang to the LORD. They said,

"I will sing to the LORD.
He is greatly honored.
He has thrown Pharaoh's horses and chariot drivers
into the Red Sea.
[2]The LORD gives me strength and protects me.
He has saved me.
He is my God, I will praise him.
He is my father's God, and I will honor him.
[3]The LORD goes into battle.
The LORD is his name.
[4]He has thrown Pharaoh's chariots and army into the Red Sea.
Pharaoh's best officers drowned in the sea.
[5]The deep waters covered them.
They sank to the bottom like a stone.

[6]"LORD, your right hand
was majestic and powerful.
LORD, your right hand
destroyed your enemies.
[7]Because of your great majesty, you threw down those who opposed you.
Your burning anger blazed out.
It burned them up like straw.
[8]The powerful blast from your nose piled up the waters.
The rushing waters stood firm like a wall.
The deep waters stood up in the middle of the sea.

9“Your enemies bragged,
‘We will chase Israel and will catch them.
We’ll divide up what we take from them.
We’ll eat them alive.
We’ll pull our swords out.
Our powerful hands will destroy them.’
10But you blew with your breath.
The Red Sea covered your enemies.
They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

11“LORD, who among the gods is like you?
Who is like you?
You are majestic and holy.
Your glory fills me with wonder.
You do amazing things.
12You reach out your right hand.
The earth swallows up your enemies.

13“Because your love is faithful, you will lead the people you have set free.
Because you are so strong,
you will guide them to the holy place where you live.
14The nations will hear about it and tremble.
Pain and suffering will take hold of the Philistines.
15The chiefs of Edom will be terrified.
The leaders of Moab will tremble with fear.
The people of Canaan will melt away.
16Fear and terror will fall on them.
Your powerful arm
will make them as still as a stone.
Then your people will pass by, LORD.
Then the people you created will pass by.
17You will bring them in.
You will plant them on the mountain you gave them.
LORD, you have made that place your home.
Lord, your hands have made your holy place secure.

[18]“The LORD rules for ever and ever.”

[19]Pharaoh’s horses, chariots and horsemen went into the Red Sea. The LORD brought the waters of the sea back over them. But the people of Israel walked through the sea on dry ground. [20]Aaron’s sister Miriam was a prophet. She took a tambourine in her hand. All the women followed her. They played tambourines and danced. [21]Miriam sang to them, “Sing to the LORD.

He is greatly honored.
He has thrown Pharaoh’s horses and chariot drivers
into the Red Sea.”

The Waters of Marah and Elim

[22]Then Moses led Israel away from the Red Sea. They went into the Desert of Shur. For three days they traveled in the desert. They didn’t find any water there. [23]When they came to Marah, they couldn’t drink its water. It was bitter. That’s why the place is named Marah. [24]The people told Moses they weren’t happy with him. They said, “What are we supposed to drink?”

[25]Then Moses cried out to the LORD. The LORD showed him a stick. Moses threw it into the water. The water became fit to drink.

There the LORD gave a ruling and instruction for the people. And there he tested them. [26]He said, “I am the LORD your God. Listen carefully to me. Do what is right in my eyes. Pay attention to my commands. Obey all my rules. If you do, I will not send on you any of the sicknesses I sent on the Egyptians. I am the LORD who heals you.”

[27]The people came to Elim. It had 12 springs and 70 palm trees. They camped there near the water.

Exodus 16

The LORD Gives Israel Food Every Day

[1]The whole community of Israel started out from Elim. They came to the Desert of Sin. It was between Elim and Sinai. They arrived there on the 15th day of the second month after they had come out of Egypt. [2]In the desert the whole community told Moses and Aaron they weren't happy with them. [3]The Israelites said to them, "We wish the LORD had put us to death in Egypt. There we sat around pots of meat. We ate all the food we wanted. But you have brought us out into this desert. You must want this entire community to die of hunger."

[4]Then the LORD spoke to Moses. He said, "I will rain down bread from heaven for you. The people must go out each day. Have them gather enough bread for that day. Here is how I will test them. I will see if they will follow my directions. [5]On the sixth day they must prepare what they bring in. On that day they must gather twice as much as on the other days."

[6]So Moses and Aaron spoke to all the people of Israel. They said, "In the evening you will know that the LORD brought you out of Egypt. [7]And in the morning you will see the glory of the LORD. He has heard you say you aren't happy with him. Who are we? Why are you telling us you aren't happy with us?" [8]Moses also said, "You will know that the LORD has heard you speak against him. He will give you meat to eat in the evening. He'll give you all the bread you want in the morning. But who are we? You aren't speaking against us. You are speaking against the LORD."

[9]Then Moses told Aaron, "Talk to the whole community of Israel. Say to them, 'Come to the LORD. He has heard you speak against him.' "

[10]While Aaron was talking to the whole community of Israel, they looked toward the desert. There was the glory of the LORD appearing in the cloud!

[11]The LORD said to Moses, [12]"I have heard the people of Israel talking about how unhappy they are. Tell them, 'When the sun goes down, you will eat meat.
In the morning you will be filled with bread. Then you will know that I am the LORD your God.' "

[13]That evening quail came and covered the camp. In the morning the ground around the camp was covered with dew. [14]When the dew was gone, thin flakes appeared on the desert floor. They looked like frost on the ground. [15]The people of Israel saw the flakes. They asked each other, "What's that?" They didn't know what it was.

Moses said to them, “It’s the bread the LORD has given you to eat. [16]Here is what the LORD has commanded. He has said, ‘Everyone should gather as much as they need. Take three pounds for each person who lives in your tent.’ ”

[17]The people of Israel did as they were told. Some gathered a lot, and some gathered a little. [18]When they measured it out, the one who gathered a lot didn’t have too much. And the one who gathered a little had enough. Everyone gathered only what they needed.

[19]Then Moses said to them, “Don’t keep any of it until morning.”

[20]Some of them didn’t pay any attention to Moses. They kept part of it until morning. But it was full of maggots and began to stink. So Moses became angry with them.

[21]Each morning everyone gathered as much as they needed. But by the hottest time of the day, the thin flakes had melted away. [22]On the sixth day, the people gathered twice as much. It amounted to six pounds for each person. The leaders of the community came and reported that to Moses. [23]He said to them, “Here is what the LORD commanded. He said, ‘Tomorrow will be a day of rest. It will be a holy Sabbath day. It will be set apart for the LORD. So bake what you want to bake. Boil what you want to boil. Save what is left. Keep it until morning.’ ”

[24]So they saved it until morning, just as Moses commanded. It didn’t stink or get maggots in it. [25]“Eat it today,” Moses said. “Today is a Sabbath day to honor the LORD. You won’t find any flakes on the ground today. [26]Gather them for six days. But on the seventh day there won’t be any. It’s the Sabbath day.”

[27]In spite of what Moses said, some of the people went out on the seventh day to gather the flakes. But they didn’t find any. [28]Then the LORD spoke to Moses. He said, “How long will all of you refuse to obey my commands and my teachings? [29]Keep in mind that I have given you the Sabbath day. That is why on the sixth day I give you bread for two days. Everyone must stay where they are on the seventh day. No one can go out.” [30]So the people rested on the seventh day.

[31]The people of Israel called the bread manna. It was white like coriander seeds. It tasted like wafers made with honey. [32]Moses said, “Here is what the LORD has commanded. He has said, ‘Get three pounds of manna. Keep it for all time to come. Then those who live after you will see the bread I gave you to eat in the desert. I gave it to you when I brought you out of Egypt.’ ”

[33]So Moses said to Aaron, “Get a jar. Put three pounds of manna in it. Then place it in front of the LORD. Keep it there for all time to come.”

[34]Aaron did exactly as the LORD had commanded Moses. He put the manna with the tablets of the covenant law. He put it there so it would be kept for all time to come. [35]The Israelites ate manna for 40 years. They ate it until they came to a land where people were living. They ate it until they reached the border of Canaan.

[36]The jar had three pounds of manna in it.

Exodus 17

Water Out of the Rock

[1]The whole community of Israel started out from the Desert of Sin. They traveled from place to place, just as the LORD commanded. They camped at Rephidim. But there wasn't any water for the people to drink. [2]So they argued with Moses. They said, "Give us water to drink."

Moses replied, "Why are you arguing with me? Why are you testing the LORD?"

[3]But the people were thirsty for water there. So they told Moses they weren't happy with him. They said, "Why did you bring us up out of Egypt? Did you want us, our children and our livestock to die of thirst?"

[4]Then Moses cried out to the LORD. He said, "What am I going to do with these people? They are almost ready to kill me by throwing stones at me."

[5]The LORD answered Moses. "Go out in front of the people. Take some of the elders of Israel along with you. Take in your hand the walking stick you used when you struck the Nile River. Go. [6]I will stand there in front of you by the rock at Mount Horeb. Hit the rock. Then water will come out of it for the people to drink." So Moses hit the rock while the elders of Israel watched. [7]Moses called the place Massah and Meribah. That's because the people of Israel argued with him there. They also tested the LORD. They asked, "Is the LORD among us or not?"

Joshua Wins the Battle Over the Amalekites

[8]The Amalekites came and attacked the Israelites at Rephidim. [9]Moses said to Joshua, "Choose some of our men. Then go out and fight against the Amalekites. Tomorrow I will stand on top of the hill. I'll stand there holding the walking stick God gave me."

[10]So Joshua fought against the Amalekites, just as Moses had ordered. Moses, Aaron and Hur went to the top of the hill. [11]As long as Moses held up his hand, the Israelites were winning. But every time he lowered his hands, the Amalekites began to win. [12]When Moses' arms got tired, Aaron and Hur got a stone and put it under him. Then he sat on it. Aaron and Hur held up his hands. Aaron was on one side, and Hur was on the other. Moses' hands remained steady until sunset. [13]So Joshua destroyed the Amalekite army with swords.

[14]Then the LORD said to Moses, “This is something to be remembered. So write it on a scroll. Make sure Joshua knows you have done it. I will completely erase the memory of the Amalekites from the earth.”

[15]Then Moses built an altar. He called it The LORD Is My Banner. [16]He said, “The Amalekites opposed the authority of the LORD. So the LORD will fight against the Amalekites for all time to come.”

Exodus 18

Jethro Visits Moses

1 Moses' father-in-law Jethro was the priest of Midian. He heard about everything God had done for Moses and for his people Israel. Jethro heard how the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt.

2 Moses had sent his wife Zipporah to his father-in-law. So Jethro welcomed her 3 and her two sons. One son was named Gershom. That's because Moses had said, "I'm an outsider in a strange land." 4 The other was named Eliezer. That's because Moses had said, "My father's God helped me. He saved me from Pharaoh's sword."

5 Moses' father-in-law Jethro came to Moses in the desert. Moses' sons and wife came with Jethro. Moses was camped near the mountain of God. 6 Jethro had sent a message to him. It said, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you. I'm bringing your wife and her two sons."

7 So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law. Moses bowed down and kissed him. They greeted each other. Then they went into the tent. 8 Moses told Jethro everything the LORD had done to Pharaoh and the Egyptians. The LORD did all of this because of how much he loved Israel. Moses told Jethro about all their hard times along the way. He told him about how the LORD had saved them.

9 Jethro was delighted to hear about all the good things the LORD had done for Israel. He heard about how God had saved them from the power of the Egyptians. 10 He said, "I praise the LORD. He saved you and your people from the power of the Egyptians and of Pharaoh. 11 Now I know that the LORD is greater than all other gods. See what he did to those who looked down on Israel." 12 Then Moses' father-in-law Jethro brought a burnt offering and other sacrifices to God. Aaron came with all the elders of Israel. They ate a meal with Moses' father-in-law in the sight of God.

13 The next day Moses took his seat to serve the people as their judge. They stood around him from morning until evening. 14 His father-in-law saw everything Moses was doing for the people. So he said, "Aren't you trying to do too much for the people? You are the only judge. And all these people are standing around you from morning until evening."

15 Moses answered, "The people come to me to find out what God wants them to do. 16 Anytime they don't agree with one another, they come to me. I decide between them. I tell them about God's rules and instructions."

17Moses' father-in-law replied, "What you are doing isn't good. 18You will just get worn out. And so will these people who come to you. There's too much work for you. You can't possibly handle it by yourself. 19Listen to me. I'll give you some advice, and may God be with you. You must speak to God for the people. Take their problems to him. 20Teach them his rules and instructions.
Show them how to live and what to do. 21But choose men of ability from all the people. They must have respect for God. You must be able to trust them. They must not try to get money by cheating others. Appoint them as officials over thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens. 22Let them serve the people as judges. But have them bring every hard case to you. They can decide the easy ones themselves. That will make your load lighter. They will share it with you. 23If this is what God wants and if you do it, then you will be able to carry the load.
And all these people will go home satisfied."

24Moses listened to his father-in-law. He did everything Jethro said. 25He chose men of ability from the whole community of Israel. He made them leaders of the people. They became officials over thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens.
26They judged the people at all times. They brought the hard cases to Moses. But they decided the easy ones themselves.

27Moses sent his father-in-law on his way. So Jethro returned to his own country.

Exodus 19

Israel Comes to Mount Sinai

[1]Exactly three months after the people of Israel left Egypt, they came to the Desert of Sinai. [2]After they started out from Rephidim, they entered the Desert of Sinai. They camped there in the desert in front of the mountain.

[3]Then Moses went up to God. The LORD called out to him from the mountain. He said, “Here is what I want you to say to my people, who belong to Jacob’s family. Tell the Israelites, [4]‘You have seen for yourselves what I did to Egypt. You saw how I carried you on the wings of eagles and brought you to myself. [5]Now obey me completely. Keep my covenant. If you do, then out of all the nations you will be my special treasure. The whole earth is mine. [6]But you will be a kingdom of priests to serve me. You will be my holy nation.’ That is what you must tell the Israelites.”

[7]So Moses went back. He sent for the elders of the people. He explained to them everything the LORD had commanded him to say. [8]All the people answered together. They said, “We will do everything the LORD has said.” So Moses brought their answer back to the LORD.

[9]The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, “I am going to come to you in a thick cloud. The people will hear me speaking with you. They will always put their trust in you.” Then Moses told the LORD what the people had said.

[10]The LORD said to Moses, “Go to the people. Today and tomorrow set them apart for me. Have them wash their clothes. [11]Have the people ready by the third day. On that day the LORD will come down on Mount Sinai. Everyone will see it. [12]Put limits for the people around the mountain. Tell them, ‘Be careful that you do not go near the mountain. Do not even touch the foot of it. Whoever touches the mountain must be put to death. [13]Do not lay a hand on any of them.
Kill them with stones or shoot them with arrows. Whether they are people or animals, do not let them live.’ They may go near the mountain only when the ram’s horn gives out a long blast.”

[14]Moses went down the mountain to the people. After he set them apart for the LORD, they washed their clothes. [15]Then he spoke to the people. He said, “Get ready for the third day. Don’t have sex.”

[16]On the morning of the third day there was thunder and lightning. A thick cloud covered the mountain. A trumpet gave out a very loud blast. Everyone in the camp trembled with fear. [17]Then Moses led the people out of the camp to meet with God. They stood at the foot of the mountain. [18]Smoke covered Mount Sinai, because the LORD came down on it in fire. The smoke rose up from it like smoke from a furnace. The whole mountain trembled and shook. [19]The sound of the trumpet got louder and louder. Then Moses spoke. And the voice of God answered him.

[20]The LORD came down to the top of Mount Sinai. He told Moses to come to the top of the mountain. So Moses went up. [21]The LORD said to him, “Go down and warn the people. They must not force their way through to see the LORD. If they do, many of them will die. [22]The priests approach the LORD when they serve him. But even they must set themselves apart for the LORD. If they do not, his anger will break out against them.”

[23]Moses said to the LORD, “The people can’t come up Mount Sinai. You yourself warned us. You said, ‘Put limits around the mountain. Set it apart as holy.’ ”

[24]The LORD replied, “Go down. Bring Aaron up with you. But the priests and the people must not force their way through. They must not come up to the LORD. If they do, his anger will break out against them.”

[25]So Moses went down to the people and told them.

Exodus 20

God Gives His People the Ten Commandments

1 Here are all the words God spoke. He said,

2 “I am the LORD your God. I brought you out of Egypt. That is the land where you were slaves.

3 “Do not put any other gods in place of me.

4 “Do not make for yourself statues of gods that look like anything in the sky. They may not look like anything on the earth or in the waters either. 5 Do not bow down to them or worship them. I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God. I cause the sins of the parents to affect their children. I will cause the sins of those who hate me to affect even their grandchildren and great-grandchildren. 6 But for all time to come I show love to all those who love me and keep my commandments.

7 “Do not misuse the name of the LORD your God. The LORD will find guilty anyone who misuses his name.

8 “Remember to keep the Sabbath day holy. 9 Do all your work in six days. 10 But the seventh day is a sabbath to honor the LORD your God.
Do not do any work on that day. The same command applies to your sons and daughters, your male and female servants, and your animals. It also applies to any outsiders who live in your towns. 11 In six days the LORD made the heavens, the earth, the sea and everything in them. But he rested on the seventh day. So the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy.

12 “Honor your father and mother. Then you will live a long time in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

13 “Do not murder.

14 “Do not commit adultery.

15 “Do not steal.

16 “Do not be a false witness against your neighbor.

17 “Do not want to have anything your neighbor owns. Do not want to have your neighbor’s house, wife, male or female servant, ox or donkey.”

[18]The people saw the thunder and lightning. They heard the trumpet. They saw the mountain covered with smoke. They trembled with fear and stayed a long way off. [19]They said to Moses, “Speak to us yourself. Then we’ll listen. But don’t let God speak to us. If he does, we’ll die.”

[20]Moses said to the people, “Don’t be afraid. God has come to test you. He wants you to have respect for him. That will keep you from sinning.”

[21]Moses approached the thick darkness where God was. But the people remained a long way off.

Worship the LORD

[22]Then the LORD said to Moses, “Here is what you must tell the people of Israel. Say to them, ‘You have seen for yourselves what I said to you from heaven. [23]Do not put any other gods in place of me. Do not make silver or gold statues of them for yourselves.

[24]“ ‘Make an altar out of dirt for me. Sacrifice your burnt offerings and friendship offerings on it. Sacrifice your sheep, goats and cattle on it. I will come to you and bless you everywhere I cause my name to be honored. [25]If you make an altar out of stones to honor me, do not build it with blocks of stone. You will make it “unclean” if you use a tool on it. [26]Do not walk up steps to my altar. If you do, someone might see your naked body under your robes.’

Exodus 21

Other Laws

[1]“Here are the laws you must explain to the people of Israel.

Set Your Hebrew Servants Free

[2]“Suppose you buy a Hebrew servant. He must serve you for six years. But in the seventh year, you must set him free. He does not have to pay anything. [3]If he does not have a wife when he comes, he must go free alone. But if he has a wife when he comes, she must go with him. [4]Suppose his master gives him a wife. And suppose she has sons or daughters by him. Then only the man will go free. The woman and her children will belong to her master.

[5]“But suppose the servant says, ‘I love my master and my wife and children. I don’t want to go free.’ [6]Then his master must take him to the judges. His master must take him to the door or doorpost of his master’s house. His master must poke a hole through his servant’s earlobe into the door or doorpost. Then he will become his servant for life.

[7]“Suppose a man sells his daughter as a servant. Then she can’t go free as male servants do. [8]But what if the master who has chosen her does not like her? Then he must let the man buy her back. He has no right to sell her to strangers. He has broken his promise to her. [9]What if he chooses her to marry his son? Then he must grant her the rights of a daughter. [10]What if her master marries another woman? He must still give the first one her food and clothes and sleep with her. [11]If he does not provide her with those three things, she can go free. She does not have to pay anything.

Laws About Harming Others

[12]“Anyone who hits and kills someone else must be put to death. [13]Suppose they did not do it on purpose. Suppose I let it happen. Then they can escape to a place I will choose. [14]But suppose they kill someone on purpose. Then take them away from my altar and put them to death.

[15]“Anyone who attacks their father or mother must be put to death.

[16]“Anyone who kidnaps and sells another person must be put to death. If they still have the person with them when they are caught, they must be put to death.

[17]“Anyone who asks for something bad to happen to their father or mother must be put to death.

[18]“Suppose two people get into a fight and argue with each other. One hits the other with a stone or his fist. And the person who was hit does not die but has to stay in bed. [19]And later that person gets up and walks around outside with a walking stick. Then the person who hit the other person will not be held responsible. But that person must pay the one who was hurt for the time spent in bed. The one who hit the other person must be sure that person is completely healed.

[20]“Suppose a person beats their male or female slave to death with a club. That person must be punished. [21]But they will not be punished if the slave gets up after a day or two. After all, the slave is their property.

[22]“Suppose some people are fighting and one of them hits a pregnant woman. And suppose she has her baby early but is not badly hurt. Then the one who hurt her must pay a fine. That person must pay what the woman’s husband asks for and the court allows. [23]But if someone is badly hurt, a life must be taken for a life. [24]An eye must be put out for an eye. A tooth must be knocked out for a tooth. A hand must be cut off for a hand and a foot for a foot. [25]A burn must be given for a burn, a wound for a wound, and a bruise for a bruise.

[26]“Suppose an owner hits a male or female slave in the eye and destroys it. Then the owner must let the slave go free to pay for the eye. [27]Suppose an owner knocks out the tooth of a male or female slave. Then he must let the slave go free to pay for the tooth.

[28]“Suppose a bull kills a man or woman with its horns. Then you must kill the bull by throwing stones at it. Its meat must not be eaten. But the owner of the bull will not be held accountable. [29]But suppose the bull has had the habit of attacking people. And suppose the owner has been warned but has not kept it fenced in. Then if it kills a man or woman, you must kill it with stones. The owner must also be put to death. [30]But suppose payment is required of him instead. Then the owner can save his life by paying what is required. [31]The same law applies if the bull wounds a son or daughter with its horns. [32]Suppose the bull wounds a male or female slave. Then the owner must pay the slave’s master about 12 ounces of silver. You must kill the bull with stones.

[33]“Suppose someone uncovers a pit or digs one and does not cover it. And suppose an ox or donkey falls into it. [34]Then the person who opened the pit must pay the animal’s owner for the loss. The dead animal will belong to the person who opened the pit.

35“Suppose someone’s bull wounds a neighbor’s bull and it dies. Then the owner and the neighbor must sell the live one. And they must share the money and the dead animal equally. 36But suppose people knew that the bull had the habit of attacking. And suppose the owner did not keep it fenced in. Then the owner must give another animal to pay for the dead animal. And the dead animal will belong to the owner.

Exodus 22

Laws About Keeping Property Safe

[1]“Suppose someone steals an ox or a sheep. And suppose that person kills it or sells it. Then the thief must pay back five oxen for the ox. Or the thief must pay back four sheep for the sheep.

[2]“Suppose you catch a thief breaking into your house at night. And suppose you hit the thief and the thief dies. Then you are not guilty of murder. [3]But suppose it happens after the sun has come up. Then you are guilty of murder.

“Anyone who steals must pay for whatever they steal. But suppose the thief does not have anything. Then the thief must be sold to pay for what was stolen. [4]What if the stolen ox, donkey or sheep is found alive with the thief? Then the thief must pay back twice as much.

[5]“Suppose someone lets their livestock eat grass in someone else’s field or vineyard. Then they must pay that person back from the best crops of their own field or vineyard.

[6]“Suppose a fire breaks out and spreads into bushes. Suppose it burns cut and stacked grain or grain that is still growing. Or suppose it burns the whole field. Then the one who started the fire must pay for the loss.

[7]“Suppose someone gives a neighbor silver or other things to keep safe. And suppose they are stolen from the neighbor’s house. The thief, if caught, must pay back twice as much as was stolen. [8]But suppose the thief is not found. Then the neighbor must go to the judges. They will decide whether the neighbor has stolen the other person’s property. [9]Suppose you have an ox, donkey, sheep or clothing that does not belong to you. Or you have other property lost by someone else. And suppose someone says, ‘That belongs to me.’ Then both people must bring their case to the judges. The one the judges decide is guilty must pay back twice as much to the other person.

[10]“Suppose someone asks their neighbor to take care of a donkey, ox, sheep or any other animal. And suppose the animal dies or gets hurt. Or suppose it is stolen while no one is looking. [11]Then the problem will be settled by promising the LORD to tell the truth. Suppose the neighbor says, ‘I didn’t steal your property.’ Then the owner must accept what the neighbor says. No payment is required. [12]But suppose the animal really was stolen. Then the neighbor must pay the owner back. [13]Or suppose it was torn to pieces by a wild animal. Then the neighbor must bring in what is left as proof. No payment is required.

14“Suppose someone borrows an animal from their neighbor. And it gets hurt or dies while the owner is not there. Then the borrower must pay for it. 15But suppose the owner is with the animal. Then the borrower will not have to pay. If the borrower hired the animal, the money paid to hire it covers the loss.

Laws About Social Problems

16“Suppose a man meets a virgin who is not engaged. And he talks her into having sex with him. Then he must pay her father the price for a bride. And he must marry her. 17But suppose her father absolutely refuses to give her to him.
Then he must still pay the price for getting married to a virgin.

18“Do not let a woman who does evil magic stay alive. Put her to death.

19“Anyone who has sex with an animal must be put to death.

20“Anyone who sacrifices to any god other than the LORD must be destroyed.

21“Do not treat outsiders badly. Do not give them a hard time. Remember, you were outsiders in Egypt.

22“Do not take advantage of widows. Do not take advantage of children whose fathers have died. 23If you do, they might cry out to me. I will certainly hear them. 24And I will get angry. I will kill you with a sword. Your wives will become widows. Your children’s fathers will die.

25“Suppose you lend money to one of my people among you who is in need.
Then do not treat it like a business deal. Do not charge any interest at all.
26Suppose your neighbor owes you money and gives you a coat as a promise to pay it back. Then return it by sunset. 27That coat is the only thing your neighbor owns to wear or sleep in. When they cry out to me, I will listen, because I am loving and kind.

28“Do not speak evil things against God. Do not curse the ruler of your people.

29“Do not keep for yourself your grain offerings or wine offerings.

“You must give me the oldest of your sons. 30Do the same with your cattle and sheep. Let them stay with their mothers for seven days. But give them to me on the eighth day.

31“I want you to be my holy people. So do not eat the meat of any animal that has been torn by wild animals. Throw it to the dogs.

Exodus 23

Laws About Mercy and Fairness

1“Do not spread reports that are false. Do not help a guilty person by telling lies in court.
2“Do not follow the crowd when they do what is wrong. When you are a witness in court, do not turn what is right into what is wrong. Do not go along with the crowd. 3Do not show favor to a poor person in court.
4“Suppose you come across your enemy’s ox or donkey wandering away.
Then be sure to return it. 5Suppose you see that the donkey of someone who hates you has fallen down under its load. Then do not leave it there. Be sure you help them with it.
6“Be fair to your poor people in their court cases. 7Do not have anything to do with a false charge. Do not put to death people not guilty of doing anything wrong. I will not let guilty people go free.
8“Do not take money from people who want special favors. It makes you blind to the truth. It twists the words of good people.
9“Do not treat outsiders badly. You yourselves know how it feels to be outsiders. Remember, you were outsiders in Egypt.

Sabbath Laws

10“For six years plant your fields and gather your crops. 11But during the seventh year do not plow your land or use it. Then the poor people among you can get food from it. The wild animals can eat what is left over. Do the same thing with your vineyards and your groves of olive trees.
12“Do all your work in six days. But do not do any work on the seventh day.
Then your oxen and donkeys can rest. The slaves born in your house can be renewed. And so can the outsiders who live among you.
13“Be careful to do everything I have said to you. Do not speak the names of other gods. Do not even let them be heard on your lips.

Laws About Celebrating the Three Main Feasts

14“Three times a year you must celebrate a feast in my honor.
15“Celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread. For seven days, eat bread made without yeast, just as I commanded you. Do it at the appointed time in the month of Aviv. You came out of Egypt in that month.

"You must not come to worship me with your hands empty.

16"Celebrate the Feast of Weeks. Bring the first share of your crops from your fields.

"Celebrate the Feast of Booths. Hold it in the fall when you gather in your crops from your fields.

17"Three times a year all your men must come to worship me. I am your LORD and King.

18"Do not include anything made with yeast when you offer me the blood of a sacrifice.

"Suppose the fat from sacrifices is left over from my feasts. Then do not keep it until morning.

19"Bring the best of the first share of your crops to my house. I am the LORD your God.

"Do not cook a young goat in its mother's milk.

God's Angel Will Prepare the Way

20"I am sending an angel ahead of you. He will guard you along the way. He will bring you to the place I have prepared. 21Pay attention to him. Listen to what he says. Do not refuse to obey him. He will not forgive you if you turn against him. He has my full authority. 22Listen carefully to what he says. Do everything I say. Then I will be an enemy to your enemies. I will fight against those who fight against you. 23My angel will go ahead of you. He will bring you into the land of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hivites and Jebusites. I will wipe them out. 24Do not do what they do. Do not bow down to their gods or worship them. You must destroy the statues of their gods. You must break their sacred stones to pieces. 25Worship the LORD your God. Then he will bless your food and water. I, the LORD, will take away any sickness you may have. 26In your land no woman will give birth to a dead baby. Every woman will be able to have children. I will give you a long life.

27"I will send my terror ahead of you. I will throw every nation you meet into a panic. I will make all your enemies turn their backs and run away. 28I will send hornets ahead of you. They will drive the Hivites, Canaanites and Hittites out of your way. 29But I will not drive them out in just one year. If I did, the land would be deserted. There would be too many wild animals for you. 30I will drive them out ahead of you little by little. I will do that until there are enough of you to take control of the land.

31“I will make your borders secure from the Red Sea to the Mediterranean Sea. They will go from the desert to the Euphrates River. I will hand over to you the people who live in the land. You will drive them out to make room for yourselves. 32Do not make a covenant with them or with their gods. 33Do not let them live in your land. If you do, they will cause you to sin against me. If you worship their gods, that will certainly be a trap for you.”

Exodus 24

The Blood of the Covenant

[1]The LORD said to Moses, “You and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and 70 of the elders of Israel must come to worship the LORD. Do not come close when you worship. [2]Only Moses can come close to me. The others must not come near.
And the people may not go up with him.”

[3]Moses went and told the people all the LORD’s words and laws. They answered with one voice. They said, “We will do everything the LORD has told us to do.” [4]Then Moses wrote down everything the LORD had said.

Moses got up early the next morning. He built an altar at the foot of the mountain. He set up 12 stone pillars. They stood for the 12 tribes of Israel. [5]Then he sent young Israelite men to sacrifice burnt offerings. They also sacrificed young bulls as friendship offerings to the LORD. [6]Moses put half of the blood in bowls. He splashed the other half against the altar. [7]Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it to the people. They answered, “We will do everything the LORD has told us to do. We will obey him.”

[8]Then Moses took the blood and sprinkled it on the people. He said, “This is the blood that puts the covenant into effect. The LORD has made this covenant with you in keeping with all these words.”

[9]Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and the 70 elders of Israel went up.
[10]They saw the God of Israel. Under his feet was something like a street made out of lapis lazuli. It was as bright blue as the sky itself. [11]But God didn’t destroy those Israelite leaders when they saw him. They ate and drank.

[12]The LORD said to Moses, “Come up to me on the mountain. Stay here. I will give you the stone tablets. They contain the law and commandments I have written to teach the people.”

[13]Then Moses and Joshua, his helper, started out. Moses went up on the mountain of God. [14]He said to the elders, “Wait for us here until we come back to you. Aaron and Hur are with you. Anyone who has a problem can go to them.”

[15]Moses went up on the mountain. Then the cloud covered it. [16]The glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai. The cloud covered the mountain for six days.
On the seventh day the LORD called out to Moses from inside the cloud. [17]The people of Israel saw the glory of the LORD. It looked like a fire burning on top of the mountain. [18]Moses entered the cloud as he went on up the mountain. He stayed on the mountain for 40 days and 40 nights.

Exodus 25

Offerings for the Holy Tent

1The LORD said to Moses, 2“Tell the people of Israel to bring me an offering.
You must receive the offering for me from everyone whose hearts move them to give.

3“Here are the offerings you must receive from them.

“gold, silver and bronze 4blue, purple and bright red yarn and fine linen goat hair 5ram skins that are dyed red another kind of strong leather acacia wood 6olive oil for the lights
spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet-smelling incense 7onyx stones and other jewels for the linen apron and chest cloth

8“Have them make a sacred tent for me. I will live among them. 9Make the holy tent and everything that belongs to it. Make them exactly like the pattern I will show you.

The Ark of the Covenant Law

10“Have them make an ark out of acacia wood. It must be a chest three feet nine inches long and two feet three inches wide and high. 11Cover it inside and outside with pure gold. Put a strip of gold around it. 12Make four gold rings for it. Join them to its four bottom corners. Put two rings on one side and two rings on the other. 13Then make poles out of acacia wood. Cover them with gold. 14Put the poles through the rings on the sides of the ark to carry it. 15The poles must remain in the rings of the ark. Do not remove them. 16I will give you the tablets of the covenant law. When I do, put them into the ark.

17“Make its cover out of pure gold. The cover is the place where sin will be paid for. Make it three feet nine inches long and two feet three inches wide.
18Make two cherubim out of hammered gold at the ends of the cover. 19Put one of the cherubim on each end of it. Make the cherubim part of the cover itself. [20]They must have their wings spread up over the cover. The cherubim must face each other and look toward the cover. [21]Place the cover on top of the ark. I will give you the tablets of the covenant law. Put them in the ark. [22]The ark is where the tablets of the covenant law are kept. I will meet with you above the cover between the two cherubim that are over the ark. There I will give you all my commands for the Israelites.

The Table for the Holy Bread

[23]"Make a table out of acacia wood. Make it three feet long, one foot six inches wide and two feet three inches high. [24]Cover it with pure gold. Put a strip of gold around it. [25]Also make a rim around it three inches wide. Put a strip of gold around the rim. [26]Make four gold rings for the table. Join them to the four corners, where the four legs are. [27]The rings must be close to the rim. They must hold the poles that will be used to carry the table. [28]Make the poles out of acacia wood. Cover them with gold. Use them to carry the table. [29]Make its plates and dishes out of pure gold. Also make its pitchers and bowls out of pure gold. Use the pitchers and bowls to pour out drink offerings. [30]Put the holy bread on the table. It must be near my holy throne on the ark of the covenant law at all times.

The Gold Lampstand

[31]"Make a lampstand out of pure gold. Hammer out its base and stem. Its buds, blossoms and cups must branch out from it. They must be part of the lampstand itself. [32]Six branches must come out from the sides of the lampstand. Make three on one side and three on the other. [33]On one branch make three cups that are shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms. Then put three on the next branch. Do the same with all six branches that come out from the lampstand. [34]On the lampstand there must be four cups that are shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms. [35]One bud must be under the first pair of branches that come out from the lampstand. Put a second bud under the second pair. And put a third bud under the third pair. Make a total of six branches. [36]The buds and branches must come out from the lampstand. The whole lampstand must be one piece hammered out of pure gold.

[37]"Then make its seven lamps. Set them up on it so that they light the space in front of it. [38]The trays and wick cutters must be made out of pure gold. [39]Use 75 pounds of pure gold to make the lampstand and everything used with it. [40]Be sure to make everything just like the pattern I showed you on the mountain.

Exodus 26

The Holy Tent

[1]“Make ten curtains out of finely twisted linen for the holy tent. Make them with blue, purple and bright red yarn. Have a skilled worker sew cherubim into the pattern. [2]Make all the curtains the same size. They must be 42 feet long and six feet wide. [3]Join five of the curtains together. Do the same thing with the other five. [4]Make loops out of blue strips of cloth along the edge of the end curtain in one set. Do the same thing with the end curtain in the other set. [5]Make 50 loops on the end curtain of the one set. Do the same thing on the end curtain of the other set. Put the loops across from each other. [6]Make 50 gold hooks. Use them to join the curtains together so that the holy tent is all one piece.

[7]“Make a total of 11 curtains out of goat hair to put over the holy tent. [8]Make all 11 curtains the same size. They must be 45 feet long and six feet wide. [9]Join five of the curtains together into one set. Do the same thing with the other six.
Fold the sixth curtain in half at the front of the tent. [10]Make 50 loops along the edge of the end curtain in the one set. Do the same thing with the other set.
[11]Then make 50 bronze hooks. Put them in the loops to join the tent together all in one piece. [12]Let the extra half curtain hang down at the rear of the holy tent.
[13]The tent curtains will be 18 inches longer on both sides. What is left over will hang over the sides of the holy tent and cover it. [14]Make a covering for the tent.
Make it out of ram skins that are dyed red. Put a covering of the other strong leather over that.

[15]“Make frames out of acacia wood for the holy tent. [16]Make each frame 15 feet long and two feet three inches wide. [17]Add two small wooden pins to each frame. Make the pins stick out so that they are even with each other. Make all the frames for the holy tent in the same way. [18]Make 20 frames for the south side of the holy tent. [19]And make 40 silver bases to go under them. Make two bases for each frame. Put one under each pin that sticks out. [20]For the north side of the holy tent make 20 frames [21]and 40 silver bases. Put two bases under each frame.
[22]Make six frames for the west end of the holy tent. [23]Make two frames for the corners at the far end. [24]At those two corners the frames must be double from top to bottom. They must be fitted into a single ring. Make both of them the same. [25]There will be eight frames and 16 silver bases. There will be two bases under each frame.

[26]“Also make crossbars out of acacia wood. Make five for the frames on one side of the holy tent. [27]Make five for the frames on the other side. And make five for the frames on the west, at the far end of the holy tent. [28]The center crossbar must reach from end to end at the middle of the frames. [29]Cover the frames with gold. Make gold rings to hold the crossbars. Also cover the crossbars with gold.

[30]“Set up the holy tent in keeping with the plan I showed you on the mountain.

[31]“Make a curtain out of blue, purple and bright red yarn and finely twisted linen. Have a skilled worker sew cherubim into the pattern. [32]Hang the curtain with gold hooks on four posts that are made out of acacia wood. Cover the posts with gold. Stand them on four silver bases. [33]Hang the curtain from the hooks. Place the ark of the covenant law behind the curtain. The curtain will separate the Holy Room from the Most Holy Room. [34]Put the cover on the ark of the covenant law in the Most Holy Room. The cover will be the place where sin is paid for. [35]Place the table outside the curtain on the north side of the holy tent. And put the lampstand across from it on the south side.

[36]“Make a curtain for the entrance to the tent. Make it out of blue, purple and bright red yarn and finely twisted linen. Have a person who sews skillfully make it. [37]Make gold hooks for the curtain. Make five posts out of acacia wood. Cover them with gold. And make five bronze bases for them.

Exodus 27

The Altar for Burnt Offerings

[1]“Build an altar out of acacia wood. It must be four feet six inches high and seven feet six inches square. [2]Make a horn stick out from each of its upper four corners. The horns and the altar must be all one piece. Cover the altar with bronze. [3]Make everything for the altar out of bronze. Make its pots to remove the ashes. Make its shovels, sprinkling bowls, meat forks, and pans for carrying ashes. [4]Make a bronze grate for the altar. Make a bronze ring for each of the four corners of the grate. [5]Put the grate halfway up the altar on the inside. [6]Make poles out of acacia wood for the altar. Cover them with bronze. [7]Put the poles through the rings. They will be on two sides of the altar for carrying it. [8]Make the altar out of boards. Leave it hollow. It must look just like what I showed you on the mountain.

The Courtyard

[9]“Make a courtyard for the holy tent. The south side must be 150 feet long. It must have curtains that are made out of finely twisted linen. [10]The curtains must be hung on 20 posts that have 20 bronze bases. The posts must have silver hooks and bands on them. [11]The north side must also be about 150 feet long. It must have curtains with 20 posts that have 20 bronze bases. The posts must have silver hooks and bands on them.

[12]“The west end of the courtyard must be 75 feet wide. It must have curtains with ten posts that have ten bases. [13]The east end of the courtyard, toward the sunrise, must also be 75 feet wide. [14]On one side of the entrance you must put curtains that are 22 feet six inches long. Hang them on three posts. Each post must have a base. [15]On the other side you must also put curtains that are 22 feet six inches long. Hang them on three posts. Each post must have a base.

[16]“For the entrance to the courtyard, provide a curtain 30 feet long. Make it out of blue, purple and bright red yarn and finely twisted linen. Have someone who sews skillfully make it. Hang it on four posts. Each post must have a base.
[17]All the posts that are around the courtyard must have silver bands and hooks.
They must also have bronze bases. [18]The courtyard must be 150 feet long and 75 feet wide. It must have curtains that are made out of finely twisted linen. They must be seven feet six inches high. The posts must have bronze bases. [19]Make out of bronze all the other things used for any purpose in the holy tent. That includes all the tent stakes for the tent and the courtyard.

Oil for the Lampstand

[20]“Command the Israelites to bring you clear oil made from pressed olives. Use it to keep the lamps burning and giving light. [21]Aaron and his sons must keep the lamps burning in the tent of meeting. The lamps will be outside the curtain in front of the tablets of the covenant law. The lamps must be kept burning in front of the LORD from evening until morning. This is a law for the Israelites that will last for all time to come.

Exodus 28

The Clothes for the Priests

[1]"Have your brother Aaron brought to you from among the Israelites. His sons Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar must also be brought. They will serve me as priests. [2]Make sacred clothes for your brother Aaron. When he is wearing them, people will honor him. They will have respect for him. [3]Speak to all the skilled workers. I have given them the skill to do this kind of work. Tell them to make clothes for Aaron. He will wear them when he is set apart to serve me as priest. [4]The workers must make a chest cloth, a linen apron and an outer robe. They must also make an inner robe, a turban and a belt. They must make sacred clothes for your brother Aaron and his sons. Then they will serve me as priests. [5]Have the workers use thin gold wire, and blue, purple and bright red yarn, and fine linen.

The Linen Apron

[6]"Make the linen apron out of thin gold wire, and out of blue, purple and bright red yarn, and out of finely twisted linen. Have a skilled worker make it. [7]It must have two shoulder straps joined to two of its corners. [8]Its skillfully made waistband must be like the apron. The waistband must be part of the apron itself. Make the waistband out of thin gold wire, and out of blue, purple and bright red yarn, and out of finely twisted linen.

[9]"Get two onyx stones. Carve the names of the sons of Israel on them. [10]Arrange them in the order of their birth. Carve six names on one stone and six on the other. [11]Carve the names of the sons of Israel on the two stones the way a jewel cutter would carve them. Then put the stones in fancy gold settings. [12]Connect them to the shoulder straps of the linen apron. The stones will stand for the sons of Israel. Aaron must carry the names on his shoulders as a constant reminder while he is serving the LORD. [13]Make fancy gold settings. [14]Make two braided chains out of pure gold. Make them like ropes. Join the chains to the settings.

The Chest Cloth

[15]"Make a chest cloth that will be used for making decisions. Have a skilled worker make it. Make it like the linen apron. Use thin gold wire, and blue, purple and bright red yarn, and finely twisted linen. [16]Make it nine inches square. Fold it in half. [17]Put four rows of valuable jewels on it. Put carnelian, chrysolite and beryl in the first row. [18]Put turquoise, lapis lazuli and emerald in the second row. [19]Put jacinth, agate and amethyst in the third row. [20]And put topaz, onyx and jasper in the fourth row. Put them in fancy gold settings. [21]Use a total of 12 stones. Use one for each of the names of the sons of Israel. Each stone must be carved with the name of one of the 12 tribes.

[22]"Make braided chains out of pure gold for the chest cloth. Make them like ropes. [23]Make two gold rings for the chest cloth. Connect them to two corners of it. [24]Join the two gold chains to the rings at the corners of the chest cloth. [25]Join the other ends of the chains to the two settings. Join them to the shoulder straps on the front of the linen apron. [26]Make two gold rings. Connect them to the other two corners of the chest cloth. Put them on the inside edge next to the apron. [27]Make two more gold rings. Connect them to the bottom of the shoulder straps on the front of the apron. Put them close to the seam. Put them right above the waistband of the apron. [28]The rings of the chest cloth must be tied to the rings of the apron. Tie them to the waistband with blue cord. Then the chest cloth will not swing out from the linen apron.

[29]"When Aaron enters the Holy Room, he will carry the names of the sons of Israel over his heart. Their names will be on the chest cloth of decision. They will be a continuing reminder while he is serving the LORD. [30]Also put the Urim and Thummim into the chest cloth. Then they will be over Aaron's heart when he comes to serve the LORD. In that way, Aaron will always have what he needs to make decisions for the people of Israel. He will carry the Urim and Thummim over his heart while he is serving the LORD.

More Clothes for the Priests

[31]"Make the outer robe of the linen apron completely out of blue cloth. [32]In the center of the robe, make an opening for the head of the priest. Make an edge like a collar around the opening. Then it will not tear. [33]Make pomegranates out of blue, purple and bright red yarn. Sew them around the hem of the robe. Sew gold bells between them. [34]Sew a gold bell between every two pomegranates all around the hem of the robe. [35]Aaron must wear the robe when he serves as priest. The bells will jingle when he enters the Holy Room while he is serving the LORD. And they will jingle when he goes out. Then he will not die.

36“Make a plate out of pure gold. Carve words on it as if it were an official seal. Carve the words

SET APART FOR THE LORD.

37Tie the plate to the front of the turban with a blue cord. 38Aaron must wear this plate on his forehead all the time. He will be held responsible for all the sacred gifts the Israelites set apart. Then the LORD will accept the gifts.

39“Make the inner robe out of fine linen. And make the turban out of fine linen. The belt must be made by a person who sews skillfully. 40Make inner robes, belts and caps for Aaron’s sons. When they are wearing them, people will honor his sons. They will also have respect for them. 41Put all these clothes on your brother Aaron and his sons. Then pour olive oil on them and prepare them to serve me. Set them apart to serve me as priests.

42“Make linen underwear that reaches from the waist to the thigh. 43Aaron and the priests in his family line must wear it when they enter the tent of meeting. They must also wear it when they approach the altar to serve in the Holy Room. Then they will not be found guilty and die.

“For all time to come, that will be a law for Aaron and the priests in his family line.

Exodus 29

Directions for Setting Apart the Priests

[1]"Here is what you must do to set apart Aaron and his sons to serve me as priests. Get a young bull and two rams. They must not have any flaws. [2]Get the finest wheat flour. Make round loaves of bread that do not have yeast in them.
Make thick loaves of bread that do not have yeast in them. Mix olive oil into the thick loaves of bread. Also make thin loaves of bread that do not have yeast in them. Brush the thin loaves with olive oil. [3]Put everything in a basket. Offer them along with the bull and the two rams. [4]Then bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance to the tent of meeting. Wash them with water. [5]Take the inner robe, the outer robe of the linen apron, the apron itself and the chest cloth. Dress Aaron in them. Take the skillfully made waistband and tie the apron on him with it. [6]Put the turban on his head. Connect the sacred plate to the turban. [7]Take the anointing oil and pour it on his head. [8]Bring his sons and dress them in their inner robes. [9]Put caps on their heads. Tie belts on Aaron and his sons. The work of the priests belongs to them. This is my law that will last for all time to come.

"Then you must prepare Aaron and his sons to serve me.

[10]"Bring the bull to the front of the tent of meeting. Have Aaron and his sons place their hands on its head. [11]Kill it in front of the LORD at the entrance to the tent of meeting. [12]Dip your finger into some of the bull's blood. Put it on the horns that stick out from the upper four corners of the altar. Pour the rest of it out at the base of the altar. [13]Then take all the fat on the inside parts. Take the long part of the liver. Get both kidneys with the fat on them. And burn all of it on the altar. [14]But burn the bull's meat, hide and guts outside the camp. It is a sin offering.

[15]"Get one of the rams. Have Aaron and his sons place their hands on its head.
[16]Kill it. Take the blood and splash it against the sides of the altar. [17]Cut the ram into pieces. Wash the inside parts and the legs. Put them with the head and the other pieces. [18]Then burn the whole ram on the altar. It is a burnt offering to me.
It has a pleasant smell. It is a food offering presented to the LORD.

[19]"Get the other ram. Have Aaron and his sons place their hands on its head.
[20]Kill it. Put some of its blood on the right earlobes of Aaron and his sons. Put some on the thumbs of their right hands. Also put some on the big toes of their right feet. Then splash the blood against the sides of the altar. [21]Get some of the blood from the altar. Also get some of the anointing oil. Sprinkle both of them on Aaron and his clothes and on his sons and their clothes. Then he and his sons and their clothes will be set apart to serve the LORD.

22“Here is what you must take from this second ram. Take the fat, the fat tail and the fat around the inside parts. Take the long part of the liver. Also take both kidneys with the fat on them, and the right thigh. It is the ram you must use when you prepare the priests to serve the LORD. 23Get one round loaf of bread and one thick loaf of bread with olive oil mixed in. Also get one thin loaf of bread. Take them from the basket of bread made without yeast. It is the one in front of the LORD. 24Put all these things in the hands of Aaron and his sons. Tell them to lift them up and wave them in front of the LORD as a wave offering. 25Then take all these things from their hands. Burn them on the altar along with the burnt offering. Its smell pleases the LORD. It is a food offering presented to the LORD. 26Get the breast of the ram used when you prepare Aaron to serve the LORD. Wave it in front of the LORD as a wave offering. It will be your share of the meat.

27“Here are the parts of the second ram that belong to Aaron and his sons. You must set apart the breast that was waved and the thigh that was offered. 28It will be the regular share from the Israelites for Aaron and his sons. The people must give it to the LORD from their friendship offerings.

29“Aaron’s sacred clothes will belong to his sons who will come after him. Then they can wear them when you anoint them and prepare them to serve the LORD. 30The son who comes after Aaron as priest must wear them seven days. He will come and serve in the Holy Room in the tent of meeting.

31“Get the ram sacrificed when you prepare Aaron and his sons to serve the LORD. Cook the meat in a sacred place. 32Aaron and his sons must eat the ram’s meat. And they must eat the bread in the basket. They must eat all of it at the entrance to the tent of meeting. 33These are the offerings to pay for their sins. They must eat them. The offerings must be made when Aaron and his sons are set apart and prepared to serve the LORD. No one else can eat them. They are sacred. 34When you prepare Aaron and his sons to serve me, you will sacrifice the ram and the bread. If any parts of the ram or bread are left until morning, burn them up. They must not be eaten. They are sacred.

35“Do everything I have commanded you to do for Aaron and his sons. Take seven days when you prepare them to serve the LORD. 36Sacrifice a bull each day. It is a sin offering to pay for their sins. Make the altar pure. Pour olive oil on it to set it apart. 37Take seven days to make the altar pure. Set it apart. Then the altar will be a very holy place. Anything that touches it will be holy.

38“Every day sacrifice on the altar two lambs that are a year old. 39Sacrifice one in the morning and the other one when the sun goes down. 40Along with the first lamb, offer three and a half pounds of fine flour. Mix it with a quart of oil made from pressed olives. Along with that, sacrifice a quart of wine as a drink offering. 41Sacrifice the other lamb when the sun goes down. Sacrifice it along with the same grain offering and its drink offering as you do in the morning. It has a pleasant smell. It is a food offering presented to the LORD.

42“For all time to come, this burnt offering must be sacrificed regularly. Sacrifice it at the entrance to the tent of meeting in front of the LORD. There I will meet with you and speak to you. 43There I will also meet with the people of Israel. My glory will make the place holy.

44“So I will set apart the tent of meeting and the altar. And I will set apart Aaron and his sons to serve me as priests. 45Then I will live among the people of Israel. And I will be their God. 46They will know that I am the LORD their God. They will know that I brought them out of Egypt so I could live among them. I am the LORD their God.

Exodus 30

The Altar for Burning Incense

[1]"Make an altar for burning incense. Make it out of acacia wood. [2]It must be one and a half feet square and three feet high. Make a horn stick out from each of its upper four corners. [3]Cover the top, sides and horns with pure gold. Put a strip of gold around it. [4]Make two gold rings for the altar below the strip. Put the rings across from each other. They will hold the poles that are used to carry it.
[5]Make the poles out of acacia wood. Cover them with gold. [6]Put the altar in front of the curtain that hangs in front of the ark. The ark is where the tablets of the covenant law are kept. The ark will have a cover. It will be the place where sin is paid for. There I will meet with you.

[7]"Aaron must burn sweet-smelling incense on the altar. He must do it every morning when he takes care of the lamps. [8]He must burn incense again when he lights the lamps at sunset. Incense must be burned regularly in front of the LORD. Do it for all time to come. [9]Do not burn any other incense on the altar.
Do not use the altar for burnt offerings or grain offerings. And do not pour drink offerings on it. [10]Once a year Aaron must put the blood of a sin offering on the horns of the altar. He must do this to make the altar pure. He must do this on the day Israel's sin is paid for. Do this for all time to come. The altar is a very holy place to me."

Money to Pay for the People's Lives

[11]Then the LORD spoke to Moses. He said, [12]"Make a list of the Israelites and count them. When you do, each one must pay the LORD for his life at the time he is counted. Then a plague will not come on them when you count them.
[13]Each one counted must pay a fifth of an ounce of silver. It must be weighed out in keeping with the standard weights that are used in the sacred tent. The payment is an offering to the LORD. [14]Each one counted must be 20 years old or more. He must give an offering to the LORD. [15]When you make the offering, rich people must not give more than a fifth of an ounce of silver. And poor people must not give less. The offering you give to the LORD will pay for your lives. [16]Receive the money from the people of Israel. Use it for any purpose in the tent of meeting. It will remind the people that they are paying me for their lives."

The Large Bowl for Washing

17Then the LORD spoke to Moses. He said, 18“Make a large bronze bowl for washing. Make a bronze stand to put it on. Place the bowl between the tent of meeting and the altar. Put water in it. 19Aaron and his sons must wash their hands and feet with water from it. 20When they enter the tent of meeting, they must wash with water so that they will not die. They will come to the altar to serve me. They will bring a food offering to the LORD. 21When they do, they must wash their hands and feet so that they will not die. For all time to come, that will be a law for Aaron and the priests in his family line.”

Anointing Oil

22Then the LORD said to Moses, 23“Get some fine spices. Get 12 pounds eight ounces of liquid myrrh. Get six pounds four ounces of sweet-smelling cinnamon and the same amount of sweet-smelling calamus. 24Also get 12 pounds eight ounces of cassia. All the spices must be weighed out in keeping with the standard weights that are used in the sacred tent. And get a gallon of olive oil. 25Have a person who makes perfume mix everything into a sacred anointing oil. It will smell sweet. 26Then use it to anoint the tent of meeting and the ark where the tablets of the covenant law are kept. 27Anoint the table for the holy bread and all its things. Anoint the lampstand and the things that are used with it. Anoint the altar for burning incense. 28Anoint the altar for burnt offerings and all its tools. And anoint the large bowl together with its stand.
29You must set them apart so that they will be very holy. Anything that touches them will be holy.

30“Anoint Aaron and his sons. Set them apart so that they can serve me as priests. 31Say to the people of Israel, ‘This will be my sacred anointing oil for all time to come. 32Do not pour it on anyone else’s body. Do not make any other oil in the same way. It is sacred. So you must think of it as sacred. 33Suppose a person makes perfume in the same way. And suppose that person puts it on someone who is not a priest. Then that person must be separated from their people.’ ”

Incense

34Then the LORD said to Moses, “Get some sweet-smelling spices. Get some gum resin, onycha and galbanum. Also get some pure frankincense. Make sure everything is in equal amounts. [35]Have a person who makes perfume mix it all up into a sweet-smelling incense. It must have salt in it. It will be pure and sacred. [36]Grind some of it into powder. Place it in front of the ark of the covenant law in the tent of meeting. There I will meet with you. The incense will be very holy to you. [37]Do not make any incense for yourselves in the same way. Think of it as holy to the LORD. [38]Whoever makes incense in the same way to enjoy its sweet smell must be separated from their people.”

Exodus 31

Bezalel and Oholiab

[1]Then the LORD spoke to Moses. [2]He said, “I have chosen Bezalel, the son of Uri. Uri is the son of Hur. Bezalel is from the tribe of Judah. [3]I have filled him with the Spirit of God. I have filled Bezalel with wisdom, with understanding, with knowledge and with all kinds of skill. [4]He can make beautiful patterns in gold, silver and bronze. [5]He can cut and set stones. He can work with wood. In fact, he can work in all kinds of crafts. [6]I have also appointed Oholiab, the son of Ahisamak, to help him. Oholiab is from the tribe of Dan. I have given ability to all the skilled workers. They can make everything I have commanded you to make. Here is the complete list.

[7]“the tent of meeting the ark where the tablets of the covenant law are kept the cover for the ark [8]the table for the holy bread and its things the pure gold lampstand and everything used with it the altar for burning incense [9]the altar for burnt offerings and all its tools the large bowl with its stand [10]the sacred clothes for Aaron the priest the clothes for his sons when they serve as priests [11]the anointing oil the sweet-smelling incense for the Holy Room

“The skilled workers must make them just as I commanded you.”

The Sabbath Day

[12]Then the LORD spoke to Moses. [13]He said, “Tell the people of Israel, ‘You must always keep my Sabbath days. That will be the sign of the covenant I have made between me and you for all time to come. Then you will know that I am the LORD. I am the one who makes you holy.

[14]“ ‘Keep the Sabbath day. It is holy to you. Those who misuse it must be put to death. Those who do any work on that day must be separated from their people. [15]Do your work in six days. But the seventh day is a day of sabbath rest. You must rest on it. It is set apart for the LORD. Those who work on the Sabbath day must be put to death. [16]The Israelites must keep the Sabbath day. They must celebrate it for all time to come. It will be a covenant that lasts forever. [17]It will be the sign of the covenant I have made between me and the Israelites forever. The LORD made the heavens and the earth in six days. But on the seventh day he did not work. He rested.' "

[18]The LORD finished speaking to Moses on Mount Sinai. Then he gave him the two tablets of the covenant law. They were made out of stone. The words on them were written by the finger of God.

Exodus 32

Israel Worships a Golden Calf

[1]The people saw that Moses took a long time to come down from the mountain. So they gathered around Aaron. They said to him, “Come. Make us a god that will lead us. This fellow Moses brought us up out of Egypt. But we don’t know what has happened to him.”

[2]Aaron answered them, “Take the gold earrings off your wives, your sons and your daughters. Bring the earrings to me.” [3]So all the people took off their earrings. They brought them to Aaron. [4]He took what they gave him and made it into a metal statue of a god. It looked like a calf. Aaron shaped it with a tool.
Then the people said, “Israel, here is your god who brought you up out of Egypt.”

[5]When Aaron saw what they were doing, he built an altar in front of the calf.
He said, “Tomorrow will be a feast day to honor the LORD.” [6]So the next day the people got up early. They sacrificed burnt offerings and brought friendship offerings. They sat down to eat and drink. Then they got up to dance wildly in front of their god.

[7]The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, “Go down. Your people you brought up out of Egypt have become very sinful. [8]They have quickly turned away from what I commanded them. They have made themselves a metal statue of a god in the shape of a calf. They have bowed down and sacrificed to it. And they have said, ‘Israel, here is your god who brought you up out of Egypt.’

[9]“I have seen these people,” the LORD said to Moses. “They are stubborn.
[10]Now leave me alone. I will destroy them because of my great anger. Then I will make you into a great nation.”

[11]But Moses asked the LORD his God to have mercy on the people. “LORD,” he said, “why should you destroy your people in anger? You used your great power and mighty hand to bring them out of Egypt. [12]Why should the Egyptians say, ‘He brought them out to hurt them. He wanted to kill them in the mountains.
He wanted to wipe them off the face of the earth’? Turn away from your great anger. Please take pity on your people. Don’t destroy them! [13]Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac and Israel. You made a promise to them in your own name. You said, ‘I will make your children after you as many as the stars in the sky. I will give them all this land I promised them. It will belong to them forever.’ ” [14]Then the LORD took pity on his people. He didn’t destroy them as he had said he would.

[15]Moses turned and went down the mountain. He had the two tablets of the covenant law in his hands. Words were written on both sides of the tablets, front and back. [16]The tablets were the work of God. The words had been written by God. They had been carved on the tablets.

[17]Joshua heard the noise of the people shouting. So he said to Moses, “It sounds like war in the camp.”

[18]Moses replied,

> “It’s not the sound of winning.
> It’s not the sound of losing.
> It’s the sound of singing that I hear.”

[19]As Moses approached the camp, he saw the calf. He also saw the people dancing. So he was very angry. He threw the tablets out of his hands. They broke into pieces at the foot of the mountain. [20]He took the calf the people had made. He burned it in the fire. Then he ground it into powder. He scattered it on the water. And he made the Israelites drink it.

[21]He said to Aaron, “What did these people do to you? How did they make you lead them into such terrible sin?”

[22]“Please don’t be angry,” Aaron answered. “You know how these people like to do what is evil. [23]They said to me, ‘Make us a god that will lead us. This fellow Moses brought us up out of Egypt. But we don’t know what has happened to him.’ [24]So I told them, ‘Anyone who has any gold jewelry, take it off.’ They gave me the gold. I threw it into the fire. And out came this calf!”

[25]Moses saw that the people were running wild. Aaron had let them get out of control. The people had become a joke to their enemies. [26]Moses stood at the entrance to the camp. He said, “Anyone on the LORD’s side, come to me.” All the Levites joined him.

[27]Then he spoke to them. He said, “The LORD, the God of Israel, says, ‘Each man must put on his sword. Then he must go back and forth through the camp from one end to the other. Each man must kill his brother and friend and neighbor.’ ” [28]The Levites did as Moses commanded. About 3,000 of the people died that day. [29]Then Moses said to the Levites, “You have been set apart for the LORD today. You fought against your own sons and brothers. And he has blessed you this day.”

[30]The next day Moses said to the people, “You have committed a terrible sin. But now I will go up to the LORD. Maybe if I pray to him, he will forgive your sin.”

[31]So Moses went back to the LORD. He said, “These people have committed a terrible sin. They have made a god out of gold for themselves. [32]Now please forgive their sin. But if you won’t, then erase my name out of the book you have written.”

[33]The LORD replied to Moses. The LORD said, “I will erase out of my book only the names of those who have sinned against me. [34]Now go. Lead the people to the place I spoke about. My angel will go ahead of you. But when the time comes for me to punish, I will punish them for their sin.”

[35]The LORD struck the people with a plague. That’s because of what they did with the calf Aaron had made.

Exodus 33

[1]Then the LORD said to Moses, “Leave this place. You and the people you brought up out of Egypt must leave it. Go up to the land I promised to give to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. I said to them, ‘I will give it to your children after you.’ [2]I will send an angel ahead of you. I will drive out the Canaanites, Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. [3]Go up to the land that has plenty of milk and honey. But I will not go with you. You are stubborn. I might destroy you on the way.”

[4]When the people heard these painful words, they began to mourn. No one put on any jewelry. [5]The LORD had said to Moses, “Tell the Israelites, ‘You are stubborn. If I went with you even for a moment, I might destroy you. Now take off your jewelry. Then I will decide what to do with you.’ ” [6]So the people took off their jewelry at Mount Horeb.

The Tent of Meeting

[7]Moses used to take a tent and set it up far outside the camp. He called it the “tent of meeting.” Anyone who wanted to ask the LORD a question would go to the tent of meeting outside the camp. [8]When Moses would go out to the tent, everyone would get up and stand at the entrances to their tents. They would watch Moses until he entered the tent. [9]As Moses would go into the tent, the pillar of cloud would come down. It would stay at the entrance while the LORD spoke with Moses. [10]The people would see the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance to the tent. Then all of them would stand and worship at the entrances to their tents. [11]The LORD would speak to Moses face to face like one would speak to a friend. Then Moses would return to the camp. But Joshua, his young helper, didn’t leave the tent. Joshua was the son of Nun.

Moses and the Glory of the LORD

[12]Moses said to the LORD, “You have been telling me, ‘Lead these people.’
But you haven’t let me know whom you will send with me. You have said, ‘I know your name. I know all about you. And I am pleased with you.’ [13]If you are pleased with me, teach me more about yourself. Then I can know you. And I can continue to please you. Remember that this nation is your people.”

[14]The LORD replied, “I will go with you. And I will give you rest.”

15Then Moses said to him, “If you don’t go with us, don’t send us up from here. 16How will anyone know that you are pleased with me and your people?
You must go with us. How else will we be different from all the other people on the face of the earth?” 17The LORD said to Moses, “I will do exactly what you have asked. I am pleased with you. And I know your name. I know all about you.”
18Then Moses said, “Now show me your glory.”
19The LORD said, “I will make all my goodness pass in front of you. And I will announce my name, the LORD, in front of you. I will have mercy on whom I have mercy. And I will show love to those I love. 20But you can’t see my face,” he said. “No one can see me and stay alive.” 21The LORD continued, “There is a place near me where you can stand on a rock. 22When my glory passes by, I will put you in an opening in the rock. I will cover you with my hand until I have passed by. 23Then I will remove my hand.
You will see my back. But my face must not be seen.”

Exodus 34

The New Stone Tablets

[1]The LORD said to Moses, “Cut out two stone tablets that are just like the first ones. I will write on them the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. [2]Be ready in the morning. Then come up on Mount Sinai. Meet with me there on top of the mountain. [3]No one must come with you. No one must be seen anywhere on the mountain. Not even the flocks and herds must be allowed to eat grass in front of the mountain.”

[4]So Moses carved out two stone tablets just like the first ones. Early in the morning he went up Mount Sinai. He carried the two stone tablets in his hands.
He did as the LORD had commanded him to do. [5]Then the LORD came down in the cloud. He stood there with Moses and announced his name, the LORD. [6]As he passed in front of Moses, he called out. He said, “I am the LORD, the LORD.
I am the God who is tender and kind. I am gracious. I am slow to get angry. I am faithful and full of love. [7]I continue to show my love to thousands of people. I forgive those who do evil. I forgive those who refuse to obey me. And I forgive those who sin. But I do not let guilty people go without punishing them. I cause the sins of the parents to affect their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.”

[8]Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshiped. [9]“Lord,” he said, “if you are pleased with me, then go with us. Even though these people are stubborn, forgive the evil things we have done. Forgive our sin. And accept us as your people.”

[10]Then the LORD said, “I am making a covenant with you. I will do wonderful things in front of all your people. I will do amazing things that have never been done before in any nation in the whole world. The people you live among will see the things that I, the LORD, will do for you. And they will see how wonderful those things really are. [11]Obey what I command you today. I will drive out the Amorites, Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites to make room for you. [12]Be careful. Do not make a peace treaty with those who live in the land where you are going. They will be a trap to you. [13]Break down their altars. Smash their sacred stones. Cut down the poles they use to worship the female god named Asherah. [14]Do not worship any other god. The LORD is a jealous God. In fact, his name is Jealous.

15“Be careful not to make a peace treaty with the people living in the land. They commit sin by offering sacrifices to their gods. They will invite you to eat their sacrifices, and you will do it. 16You will choose some of their daughters as wives for your sons. And those daughters will commit sin by worshiping their gods. Then they will lead your sons to do the same thing.

17“Do not make any statues of gods.

18“Celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread. For seven days eat bread made without yeast, just as I commanded you. Do it at the appointed time in the month of Aviv. You came out of Egypt in that month.

19“Every male animal born first to its mother belongs to me. That includes your livestock. It includes herds and flocks alike. 20Sacrifice a lamb to buy back every male donkey born first to its mother. But if you do not buy the donkey back, break its neck. Buy back all your oldest sons.

“You must not come to worship me with your hands empty.

21“Do your work in six days. But you must rest on the seventh day. Even when you are plowing your land or gathering your crops, you must rest on the seventh day.

22“Celebrate the Feast of Weeks. Bring the first share of your wheat crop. Celebrate the Feast of Booths. Hold it in the fall. 23Three times a year all your men must come to worship me. I am your LORD and King, the God of Israel. 24I will drive out nations ahead of you. I will increase your territory. Go up three times a year to worship me. While you are doing that, I will keep others from wanting to take any of your land for themselves. I am the LORD your God.

25“Do not include anything made with yeast when you offer me the blood of a sacrifice. You must not keep any of the meat from the sacrifice of the Passover Feast until morning.

26“Bring the best of the first share of your crops to the house of the LORD your God.

“Do not cook a young goat in its mother’s milk.”

27Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write down the words I have spoken. I have made a covenant with you and with Israel in keeping with those words.” 28Moses was there with the LORD for 40 days and 40 nights. He didn’t eat any food or drink any water. The LORD wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant law. Those words are the Ten Commandments.

The Face of Moses Shines

[29]Moses came down from Mount Sinai. He had the two tablets of the covenant law in his hands. His face was shining because he had spoken with the LORD. But he didn’t realize it. [30]Aaron and all the people of Israel saw Moses. His face was shining. So they were afraid to come near him. [31]But Moses called out to them. So Aaron and all the leaders of the community came to him. And Moses spoke to them. [32]After that, all the Israelites came near him. And he gave them all the commands the LORD had given him on Mount Sinai.

[33]Moses finished speaking to them. Then he covered his face with a veil. [34]But when he would go to speak with the LORD, he would remove the veil. He would keep it off until he came out. Then he would tell the people what the LORD had commanded. [35]They would see that his face was shining. So Moses would cover his face with the veil again. He would keep it on until he went in again to speak with the LORD.

Exodus 35

Rules for the Sabbath Day

[1]Moses gathered the whole community of Israel together. He said to them, "Here are the things the LORD has commanded you to do. [2]You must do your work in six days. But the seventh day will be your holy day. It will be a day of sabbath rest to honor the LORD. You must rest on it. Anyone who does any work on it must be put to death. [3]Do not even light a fire in any of your homes on the Sabbath day."

Supplies for the Holy Tent

[4]Moses spoke to the whole community of Israel. He said, "Here is what the LORD has commanded. [5]Take an offering for the LORD from what you have.
Those who want to can bring an offering to the LORD. Here is what they can bring.

"gold, silver and bronze
[6]blue, purple and bright red yarn and fine linen goat hair
[7]ram skins that are dyed red another kind of strong leather
acacia wood
[8]olive oil for the lights
spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet-smelling incense [9]onyx stones and other jewels for the linen apron and the chest cloth

[10]"All the skilled workers among you must come. They must make everything the LORD has commanded [11]for the holy tent and its covering. Here is what they must make.

"hooks, frames, crossbars, posts and bases; [12]the ark of the covenant law, the poles and cover for the ark, and the curtain that hides the ark; [13]the table for the holy bread, the poles and all the things for the table, and the holy bread;

[14]the lampstand for light and everything used with it, the lamps, and the olive oil that gives light; [15]the altar for burning incense, the poles for the altar, the anointing oil, the sweet-smelling incense and the curtain for the entrance to the holy tent;
[16]the altar for burnt offerings with its bronze grate, its poles and all its tools;
the large bronze bowl with its stand; [17]the curtains of the courtyard with their posts and bases, and the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard; [18]the ropes and tent stakes for the holy tent and for the courtyard;
[19]and the sacred clothes for Aaron the priest and the clothes for his sons when they serve as priests.”

[20]Then the whole community of Israel left Moses. [21]Everyone who wanted to give offerings to the LORD brought them to him. The offerings were for the work on the tent of meeting. They were also for the sacred clothes and for any other purpose at the tent. [22]Every man and woman who wanted to give came. They brought gold jewelry of all kinds. They brought pins, earrings, rings and other jewelry. All of them gave their gold as a wave offering to the LORD. [23]People brought what they had. They brought blue, purple or bright red yarn or fine linen. They brought goat hair, ram skins dyed red, or the other kind of strong leather. [24]Some brought silver or bronze as an offering to the LORD. Others brought acacia wood for any part of the work. [25]All the skilled women spun yarn with their hands. They brought blue, purple or bright red yarn or fine linen. [26]All the skilled women who wanted to spin the goat hair did so. [27]The leaders brought onyx stones and other jewels for the linen apron and the chest cloth. [28]They also brought spices and olive oil. They brought them for the light, for the anointing oil, and for the sweet-smelling incense. [29]All the men and women of Israel who wanted to bring offerings to the LORD brought them to him. The offerings were for all the work the LORD had commanded Moses to tell them to do.

Bezalel and Oholiab

[30]Then Moses spoke to the people of Israel. He said, “The LORD has chosen Bezalel, the son of Uri. Uri is the son of Hur. Bezalel is from the tribe of Judah.

[31]The LORD has filled him with the Spirit of God. He has filled him with wisdom, with understanding, with knowledge and with all kinds of skill. [32]Bezalel can make beautiful patterns in gold, silver and bronze. [33]He can cut and set stones. He can work with wood. In fact, he can work in all kinds of arts and crafts. [34]And the LORD has given both him and Oholiab the ability to teach others. Oholiab, the son of Ahisamak, is from the tribe of Dan. [35]The LORD has filled Bezalel and Oholiab with skill to do all kinds of work. They can carve things and make patterns. They can sew skillfully with blue, purple and bright red yarn and on fine linen. They use thread to make beautiful cloth. Both of them have the skill to work in all kinds of crafts.

Exodus 36

[1]Bezalel and Oholiab must do the work just as the LORD has commanded. So must every skilled worker to whom the LORD has given skill and ability. They know how to do all the work for every purpose connected with the sacred tent. And that includes setting it up.”

[2]Then Moses sent for Bezalel and Oholiab. He sent for every skilled worker to whom the LORD had given ability and who wanted to come and do the work. [3]They received from Moses all the offerings the people of Israel had brought. They had brought the offerings for all the work for every purpose connected with the holy tent. That included setting it up. The people kept bringing the offerings they chose to give. They brought them morning after morning. [4]So all the skilled workers working on the holy tent stopped what they were doing. [5]They said to Moses, “The LORD commanded us to do the work. And the people are bringing more than enough for us to do it.”

[6]Then Moses gave an order. A message was sent through the whole camp. It said, “No man or woman should make anything else and offer it for the holy tent.” And so the people were kept from bringing more offerings. [7]There was already more than enough to do all the work.

The Holy Tent

[8]All the skilled workers made the holy tent. They made ten curtains out of finely twisted linen. They made them with blue, purple and bright red yarn. A skilled worker sewed cherubim into the pattern. [9]All the curtains were the same size. They were 42 feet long and six feet wide. [10]The workers joined five of the curtains together. They did the same thing with the other five. [11]Then they made loops out of blue strips of cloth along the edge of the end curtain in one set. They did the same thing with the end curtain in the other set. [12]They also made 50 loops on the end curtain of the one set. They did the same thing on the end curtain of the other set. They put the loops across from each other. [13]Then they made 50 gold hooks. They used them to join the two sets of curtains together so that the holy tent was all one piece.

[14]The workers made a total of 11 curtains out of goat hair to put over the holy tent. [15]All 11 curtains were the same size. They were 45 feet long and six feet wide. [16]The workers joined five of the curtains together into one set. They did the same thing with the other six. [17]Then they made 50 loops along the edge of the end curtain in the one set. They did the same thing with the other set. [18]They made 50 bronze hooks. They used them to join the tent together all in one piece. [19]They made a covering for the tent. They made it out of ram skins dyed red. Over that, they put a covering of another kind of strong leather.

[20]The workers made frames out of acacia wood for the holy tent. [21]Each frame was about 15 feet long and two feet three inches wide. [22]The workers added two small wooden pins to each frame. The pins stuck out so that they were even with each other. The workers made all the frames of the holy tent in the same way. [23]The workers made 20 frames for the south side of the holy tent. [24]And they made 40 silver bases to go under them. They made two bases for each frame. They put one under each pin that stuck out. [25]For the north side of the holy tent they made 20 frames [26]and 40 silver bases. They put two bases under each frame. [27]The workers made six frames for the west end of the holy tent. [28]They made two frames for the corners of the holy tent at the far end. [29]At those two corners the frames were double from top to bottom. They were fitted into a single ring. The workers made both of them the same. [30]So there were eight frames and 16 silver bases. There were two bases under each frame.

[31]The workers also made crossbars out of acacia wood. They made five for the frames on one side of the holy tent. [32]They made five for the frames on the other side. And they made five for the frames on the west, at the far end of the holy tent. [33]The center crossbar reached from end to end at the middle of the frames. [34]The workers covered the frames with gold. They made gold rings to hold the crossbars. They also covered the crossbars with gold.

[35]They made the curtain out of blue, purple and bright red yarn and finely twisted linen. A skilled worker sewed cherubim into the pattern. [36]The workers made four posts out of acacia wood for the curtain. They covered the posts with gold. They made gold hooks and four silver bases for the posts. [37]For the entrance to the tent the workers made a curtain. They made it out of blue, purple and bright red yarn and finely twisted linen. A person who sewed skillfully made it. [38]The workers made five posts with hooks for the curtains. They covered the tops of the posts and their bands with gold. And they made five bronze bases for them.

Exodus 37

The Ark of the Covenant Law

[1]Bezalel made the ark of the covenant law out of acacia wood. It was three feet nine inches long and two feet three inches wide and high. [2]He covered it inside and outside with pure gold. He put a strip of gold around it. [3]He made four gold rings for it. He joined them to its four bottom corners. He put two rings on one side and two rings on the other. [4]Then he made poles out of acacia wood.
He covered them with gold. [5]He put the poles through the rings on the sides of the ark to carry it.

[6]He made its cover out of pure gold. It was three feet nine inches long and two feet three inches wide. The cover is the place where sin is paid for. [7]Then he made two cherubim out of hammered gold at the ends of the cover. [8]He put one of the cherubim on each end of it. [9]He made them as part of the cover itself.
Their wings spread up over the cover. The cherubim faced each other and looked toward the cover.

The Table for the Holy Bread

[10]The workers made the table out of acacia wood. It was three feet long, one foot six inches wide and two feet three inches high. [11]Then they covered it with pure gold. They put a strip of gold around it. [12]They also made a rim around it three inches wide. They put a strip of gold around the rim. [13]They made four gold rings for the table. They joined them to the four corners, where the four legs were. [14]The rings were close to the rim. The rings held the poles used to carry the table. [15]The workers made the poles out of acacia wood. They covered them with gold. [16]They made plates, dishes and bowls out of pure gold for the table.
They also made pure gold pitchers to pour out drink offerings.

The Gold Lampstand

[17]The workers made the lampstand out of pure gold. They hammered out its base and stem. Its buds, blossoms and cups branched out from it. [18]Six branches came out from the sides of the lampstand. There were three on one side and three on the other. [19]On one branch there were three cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms. There were three on the next branch. In fact, there were three on each of the six branches that came out from the lampstand. [20]On the lampstand there were four cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms. [21]One bud was under the first pair of branches that came out from the lampstand. A second bud was under the second pair. And a third bud was under the third pair. There was a total of six branches. [22]The buds and branches came out from the lampstand. The whole lampstand was one piece hammered out of pure gold.

[23]The workers made its seven lamps out of pure gold. They also made its trays and wick cutters out of pure gold. [24]They used 75 pounds of pure gold to make the lampstand and everything used with it.

The Altar for Burning Incense

[25]The workers made the altar for burning incense. They made it out of acacia wood. It was about one foot six inches square and three feet high. A horn stuck out from each of its upper four corners. [26]The workers covered the top, sides and horns with pure gold. They put a strip of gold around it. [27]They made two gold rings below the strip. They put the rings on the sides across from each other. The rings held the poles used to carry it. [28]The workers made the poles out of acacia wood. They covered them with gold.

[29]They also made the sacred anointing oil and the pure, sweet-smelling incense. A person who makes perfume made them.

Exodus 38

The Altar for Burnt Offerings

[1]The workers built the altar for burnt offerings out of acacia wood. It was four feet six inches high and seven feet six inches square. [2]They made a horn stick out from each of its four upper corners. They covered the altar with bronze. [3]They made all its tools out of bronze. They made its pots, shovels, sprinkling bowls, meat forks, and pans for carrying ashes. [4]They made a bronze grate for the altar. They put the grate halfway up the altar on the inside. [5]They made a bronze ring for each of the four corners of the grate. [6]They made poles out of acacia wood. They covered them with bronze. [7]They put the poles through the rings. The poles were on two sides of the altar for carrying it. The workers made the altar out of boards. They left it hollow.

The Large Bowl for Washing

[8]The workers made the large bronze bowl and its bronze stand. They made them out of bronze mirrors. The mirrors belonged to the women who served at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

The Courtyard

[9]Next, the workers made the courtyard. The south side was 150 feet long. It had curtains made out of finely twisted linen. [10]The curtains had 20 posts and 20 bronze bases. The posts had silver hooks and bands on them. [11]The north side was also 150 feet long. Its curtains had 20 posts and 20 bronze bases. The posts had silver hooks and bands on them.

[12]The west end was 75 feet wide. It had curtains with ten posts and ten bases. The posts had silver hooks and bands on them. [13]The east end, toward the sunrise, was also 75 feet wide. [14]Curtains 22 feet six inches long were on one side of the entrance to the courtyard. They were hung on three posts. Each post had a base. [15]Curtains 22 feet six inches long were also on the other side of the entrance. They were hung on three posts. Each post had a base. [16]All the curtains around the courtyard were made out of finely twisted linen. [17]The bases for the posts were made out of bronze. The hooks and bands on the posts were made out of silver. Their tops were covered with silver. So all the posts of the courtyard had silver bands.

18The curtain for the courtyard entrance was made out of blue, purple and bright red yarn and finely twisted linen. A person who sewed skillfully made it. It was 30 feet long. Like the curtains of the courtyard, it was seven feet six inches high. 19It had four posts and four bronze bases. Their hooks and bands were made out of silver. Their tops were covered with silver. 20All the tent stakes of the holy tent were made out of bronze. So were all the stakes of the courtyard around it.

The Amounts of the Metals Used

21Here are the amounts of the metals used for the holy tent, where the tablets of the covenant law were kept. Moses commanded the Levites to record the amounts. The Levites did the work under the direction of Ithamar. Ithamar was the son of Aaron the priest. 22Bezalel, the son of Uri, made everything the LORD had commanded Moses. Uri was the son of Hur. Bezalel was from the tribe of Judah. 23Oholiab, the son of Ahisamak, helped Bezalel. Oholiab was from the tribe of Dan. He could carve things and make patterns. And he could sew skillfully with blue, purple and bright red yarn and on fine linen. 24The total weight of the gold from the wave offering was more than a ton. It was weighed out in keeping with the standard weights used in the sacred tent. The gold was used for all the work done in connection with the sacred tent.

25The silver received from the men in the community who were listed and counted weighed almost four tons. It was weighed out in keeping with the weights used in the sacred tent. 26It amounted to a fifth of an ounce for each person. It was weighed out in keeping with the weights used in the sacred tent. The silver was received from the men who had been listed and counted. All of them were 20 years old or more. Their total number was 603,550. 27The four tons of silver were used to make the bases for the holy tent and for the curtain. The 100 bases were made from the four tons. Each base used more than 75 pounds of silver. 28The workers used 45 pounds to make the hooks for the posts, to cover the tops of the posts, and to make their bands.

29The bronze from the wave offering weighed two and a half tons. 30The workers used some of it to make the bases for the entrance to the tent of meeting. They used some for the bronze altar for burnt offerings and its bronze grate and all its tools. 31They used some for the bases for the courtyard around the holy tent. They used some for the bases for the courtyard entrance. And they used the rest to make all the tent stakes for the holy tent and the courtyard around it.

Exodus 39

The Clothes for the Priests

[1]The workers made clothes from the blue, purple and bright red yarn. The clothes were worn by the priests who served in the holy tent. The workers also made sacred clothes for Aaron. They made them just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The Linen Apron

[2]The workers made the linen apron. They made it out of thin gold wire, and of blue, purple and bright red yarn, and of finely twisted linen. [3]They hammered out thin sheets of gold. They cut it into thin wire. Then they sewed it into the blue, purple and bright red yarn and fine linen. Skilled workers made it. [4]The workers made shoulder straps for the apron. The straps were joined to two of its corners. [5]Its skillfully made waistband was made like the apron. The waistband was part of the apron itself. It was made out of thin gold wire, and out of blue, purple and bright red yarn, and out of finely twisted linen. The workers made it just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

[6]They put the onyx stones in fancy gold settings. They carved the names of the sons of Israel on the stones. They did it the way a jewel cutter would carve them. [7]Then they connected them to the shoulder straps of the linen apron. The stones stood for the sons of Israel and were a constant reminder for them. The workers did those things just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The Chest Cloth

[8]Skilled workers made the chest cloth. They made it like the linen apron. They used thin gold wire, and blue, purple and bright red yarn, and finely twisted linen. [9]The chest cloth was nine inches square. It was folded in half. [10]The workers put four rows of valuable jewels on it. Carnelian, chrysolite and beryl were in the first row. [11]Turquoise, lapis lazuli and emerald were in the second row. [12]Jacinth, agate and amethyst were in the third row. [13]And topaz, onyx and jasper were in the fourth row. The workers put them in fancy gold settings. [14]They used a total of 12 stones. There was one stone for each of the names of the sons of Israel. Each stone was carved with the name of one of the 12 tribes.

15The workers made braided chains out of pure gold for the chest cloth. They made them like ropes. 16They made two fancy gold settings and two gold rings. They connected them to two corners of the chest cloth. 17They joined the two gold chains to the rings at the corners of the chest cloth. 18They joined the other ends of the chains to the two settings. They joined them to the shoulder straps on the front of the linen apron. 19The workers made two gold rings. They connected them to the other two corners of the chest cloth. They put them on the inside edge next to the apron. 20Then they made two more gold rings. They connected them to the bottom of the shoulder straps on the front of the apron. They put them close to the seam. They put them right above the waistband of the apron. 21They tied the rings of the chest cloth to the rings of the apron with blue cord. That connected it to the waistband. Then the chest cloth would not swing out from the linen apron. The workers did those things just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

More Clothes for the Priests

22The workers made the outer robe of the linen apron completely out of blue cloth. The cloth was made by a skillful person. 23The workers made an opening in the center of the robe. They made an edge like a collar around the opening. Then it couldn't tear. 24They made pomegranates out of blue, purple and bright red yarn and finely twisted linen. They sewed them around the hem of the robe. 25They made bells out of pure gold. They sewed them around the hem between the pomegranates. 26They sewed a bell between every two pomegranates all around the hem of the robe. Aaron had to wear the robe when he served as priest. That's what the LORD commanded Moses.

27The workers made inner robes out of fine linen for Aaron and his sons. The linen cloth was made by a skillful person. 28The workers also made the turban out of fine linen. And they made the caps and the underwear out of finely twisted linen. 29The belt was made out of finely twisted linen and blue, purple and bright red yarn. A person who sewed skillfully made it. The workers did those things just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

30They made the plate out of pure gold. It was a sacred crown. On the plate, they carved the words

SET APART FOR THE LORD.

[31]Then they tied the plate to the turban with a blue cord. They did those things just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The Holy Tent Is Completed

[32]So all the work on the holy tent, the tent of meeting, was completed. The Israelites did everything just as the LORD had commanded Moses. [33]Then they brought the holy tent to Moses along with everything that belonged to it. Here are the things they brought:

hooks, frames, crossbars, posts and bases;
[34]the covering of ram skins dyed red, the covering of another kind of strong leather and the curtain that hides the ark;
[35]the ark where the tablets of the covenant law are kept, the poles and the cover for the ark;
[36]the table for the holy bread with all its things and the holy bread;
[37]the pure gold lampstand with its row of lamps and everything used with it, and the olive oil that gives light;
[38]the gold altar for burning incense, the anointing oil, the sweet-smelling incense and the curtain for the entrance to the tent;
[39]the bronze altar for burnt offerings with its bronze grate, its poles and all its tools;
the large bowl with its stand;
[40]the curtains of the courtyard with their posts and bases, and the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard;
the ropes and tent stakes for the courtyard;
everything that belongs to the holy tent, the tent of meeting;
[41]and the sacred clothes for Aaron the priest and the clothes for his sons when they serve as priests.

[42]The Israelites had done all the work just as the LORD had commanded Moses. [43]Moses looked over the work carefully. He saw that the workers had done it just as the LORD had commanded. So Moses gave them his blessing.

Exodus 40

Moses Sets Up the Holy Tent

[1]Then the LORD said to Moses, [2]“Set up the holy tent, the tent of meeting. Set it up on the first day of the first month. [3]Place in it the ark where the tablets of the covenant law are kept. Hide the ark with the curtain. [4]Bring in the table for the holy bread. Arrange the loaves of bread on it. Then bring in the lampstand. Set up its lamps. [5]Place the gold altar for burning incense in front of the ark where the tablets of the covenant law are kept. Put up the curtain at the entrance to the holy tent.

[6]“Place the altar for burnt offerings in front of the entrance to the holy tent, the tent of meeting. [7]Place the large bowl between the tent of meeting and the altar. Put water in the bowl. [8]Set up the courtyard around the holy tent. Put the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard.

[9]“Get the anointing oil. Anoint the holy tent and everything in it. Set apart the holy tent and everything that belongs to it. Then it will be holy. [10]Anoint the altar for burnt offerings and all its tools. Set apart the altar. Then it will be a very holy place. [11]Anoint the large bowl and its stand. Set them apart.

[12]“Bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance to the tent of meeting. Wash them with water. [13]Dress Aaron in the sacred clothes. Anoint him and set him apart. Then he will be able to serve me as priest. [14]Bring his sons and dress them in their inner robes. [15]Anoint them just as you anointed their father. Then they will be able to serve me as priests. They will be anointed to do the work of priests. That work will last for all time to come.” [16]Moses did everything just as the LORD had commanded him.

[17]So the holy tent was set up. It was the first day of the first month in the second year. [18]Moses set up the holy tent. He put the bases in place. He put the frames in them. He put in the crossbars. He set up the posts. [19]He spread the holy tent over the frames. Then he put the coverings over the tent. Moses did it as the LORD had commanded him.

[20]He got the tablets of the covenant law. He placed them in the ark. He put the poles through its rings. And he put the cover on it. The cover was the place where sin is paid for. [21]Moses brought the ark into the holy tent. He hung the curtain to hide the ark where the tablets of the covenant law are kept. Moses did it as the LORD had commanded him.

22 Moses placed the table for the holy bread in the tent of meeting. It was on the north side of the holy tent outside the curtain. 23 He arranged the loaves of bread on it in the sight of the LORD. Moses did it as the LORD had commanded him.

24 Moses placed the lampstand in the tent of meeting. It stood across from the table on the south side of the holy tent. 25 He set up the lamps in front of the LORD. Moses did it as the LORD had commanded him.

26 Moses placed the gold altar for burning incense in the tent of meeting. He placed it in front of the curtain. 27 He burned sweet-smelling incense on it. Moses did it as the LORD had commanded him.

28 Then Moses put up the curtain at the entrance to the holy tent. 29 He set the altar for burnt offerings near the entrance to the holy tent, the tent of meeting. He sacrificed burnt offerings and grain offerings on it. Moses did it as the LORD had commanded him.

30 Moses placed the large bowl between the tent of meeting and the altar. He put water in the bowl for washing. 31 Moses and Aaron and his sons used it to wash their hands and feet. 32 They washed whenever they entered the tent of meeting or approached the altar. They did it as the LORD had commanded Moses.

33 Then Moses set up the courtyard around the holy tent and altar. He put up the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard. And so Moses completed the work.

The Glory of the LORD

34 Then the cloud covered the tent of meeting. The glory of the LORD filled the holy tent. 35 Moses couldn’t enter the tent of meeting because the cloud had settled on it. The glory of the LORD filled the holy tent.

36 The Israelites continued their travels. Whenever the cloud lifted from above the holy tent, they started out. 37 But if the cloud didn’t lift, they did not start out.
They stayed until the day it lifted. 38 So the cloud of the LORD was above the holy tent during the day. Fire was in the cloud at night. All the Israelites could see the cloud during all their travels.

Leviticus

Leviticus 1

Rules for Burnt Offerings

1The LORD called out to Moses. He spoke to him from the tent of meeting.
He said, 2“Speak to the Israelites. Tell them, ‘Suppose anyone among you brings an offering to the LORD. They must bring an animal from their herd or flock.

3“ ‘If someone brings a burnt offering from the herd, they must offer a male animal. It must not have any flaws. They must bring it to the entrance to the tent of meeting. Then the LORD will accept it. 4They must place their hand on the head of the burnt offering. Then the LORD will accept it in place of them. It will pay for their sin. 5The young bull must be killed there in the sight of the LORD.
Then the priests in Aaron’s family line must bring its blood to the altar. They must splash it against the sides of the altar. The altar stands at the entrance to the tent of meeting. 6The skin must be removed from the animal brought for the burnt offering. Then the animal must be cut into pieces. 7The priests in Aaron’s family line must build a fire on the altar. They must place wood on the fire.
8Then they must place the pieces of the animal on the burning wood on the altar.
The pieces include the head and the fat. 9The inside parts of the animal must be washed with water. The legs must also be washed. The priest must burn all of it on the altar. It is a burnt offering. It is a food offering. Its smell pleases the LORD.

10“ ‘If someone offers a burnt offering from the flock, it must be a male animal. It can be a sheep or a goat. It must not have any flaws. 11They must kill it at the north side of the altar in the sight of the LORD. The priests in Aaron’s family line must splash its blood against the sides of the altar. 12They must cut the animal into pieces. The priest must place the pieces on the burning wood on the altar. The pieces include the head and the fat. 13They must wash the inside parts with water. The legs must also be washed. The priest must bring all the parts to the altar. He must burn them there. It is a burnt offering. It is a food offering. Its smell pleases the LORD.

14“ ‘If someone offers to the LORD a burnt offering of birds, it must be a dove or a young pigeon. 15The priest must bring it to the altar. He must twist its head off. Then he must burn the rest of the bird on the altar. Its blood must be emptied out on the side of the altar. [16]The priest must remove the small bag inside the bird’s throat. He must also remove the feathers. Then he must throw them to the east side of the altar. That is where the ashes are. [17]He must take hold of the wings of the bird and tear it open. But he must not tear it in two. Then the priest will burn it on the wood burning on the altar. It is a burnt offering. It is a food offering. Its smell pleases the LORD.

Leviticus 2

Rules for Grain Offerings

1“ ‘Suppose anyone brings a grain offering to the LORD. Then their offering must be made out of the finest flour. They must pour olive oil on it. They must also put incense on it. 2They must take it to the priests in Aaron’s family line. A priest must take a handful of the flour and oil. He must mix them with all the incense. Then he must burn that part on the altar. It will be a reminder that all good things come from the LORD. It is a food offering. Its smell pleases the LORD. 3The rest of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and to the priests in his family line. It is a very holy part of the food offerings presented to the LORD.

4“ ‘If you bring a grain offering baked in an oven, make it out of the finest flour. It can be thick loaves of bread made without yeast. Mix them with olive oil. Or it can be thin loaves of bread that are made without yeast. Spread olive oil on them. 5If your grain offering is cooked on a metal plate, make your offering out of the finest flour. Mix it with oil. Make it without yeast. 6Break it into pieces. Pour oil on it. It is a grain offering. 7If your grain offering is cooked in a pan, make your offering out of the finest flour and some olive oil. 8Bring to the LORD your grain offering made out of all these things. Give it to the priest. He must take it to the altar. 9All good things come from the LORD. The priest must take out the part of the grain offering that reminds you of this. He must burn it on the altar. It is a food offering. Its smell pleases the LORD. 10The rest of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and the priests in his family line. It is a very holy part of the food offerings presented to the LORD.

11“ ‘Every grain offering you bring to the LORD must be made without yeast.
You must not add any yeast or honey to a food offering presented to the LORD.
12You can bring them to the LORD as an offering of the first share of food you gather or produce. But they must not be offered on the altar as a pleasant smell.
13Put salt on all your grain offerings. Salt stands for the lasting covenant between you and your God. So do not leave it out of your grain offerings. Add salt to all your offerings.

14“ ‘Suppose you bring to the LORD a grain offering of the first share of your food. Then offer crushed heads of your first grain that have been cooked in fire.
15Put olive oil and incense on the grain. It is a grain offering. 16The priest must burn part of the crushed grain and the oil. It will remind you that all good things come from the LORD. The priest must burn it together with all the incense. It is a food offering presented to the LORD.

Leviticus 3

Rules for Friendship Offerings

1“ ‘Suppose someone brings a friendship offering. If they offer an animal from the herd, it can be either male or female. It must not have any flaws. They must offer it in the sight of the LORD. 2They must place their hand on the animal’s head. It must be killed at the entrance to the tent of meeting. Then the priests in Aaron’s family line must splash the blood against the sides of the altar. 3Part of the friendship offering must be given to the LORD as a food offering. It must include all the fat that is connected to them. 4It must include both kidneys with the fat on them next to the lower back muscles. It must also include the long part of the liver. All of it must be removed together with the kidneys. 5Then the priests in Aaron’s family line must burn it on the altar. They must burn it on top of the burnt offering that is lying on the burning wood. It is a food offering. Its smell pleases the LORD.

6“ ‘Suppose someone brings an animal from the flock as a friendship offering to the LORD. It can be either male or female. It must not have any flaws. 7If they bring a lamb, they must offer it in the sight of the LORD. 8They must place their hand on the lamb’s head. It must be killed there in front of the tent of meeting. Then the priests in Aaron’s family line must splash its blood against the sides of the altar. 9Part of the offering must be brought as a sacrifice presented to the LORD. It must include the lamb’s fat and the entire fat tail cut off close to the backbone. It must include all the fat that is connected to them. 10It must include both kidneys with the fat on them next to the lower back muscles. The offering must also include the long part of the liver. That must be removed together with the kidneys. 11Then the priest must burn the offering on the altar as food. It is a food offering presented to the LORD.

12“ ‘If someone brings a goat, they must offer it in the sight of the LORD.
13They must place their hand on its head. It must be killed there in front of the tent of meeting. Then the priests in Aaron’s family line must splash its blood against the sides of the altar. 14Part of the offering must be brought as a food offering presented to the LORD. It must include all the fat that is connected to them. 15It must include both kidneys with the fat on them next to the lower back muscles. It must also include the long part of the liver. That must be removed together with the kidneys. 16Then the priest must burn the offering on the altar as food. It is a food offering. It has a pleasant smell. All the fat belongs to the LORD.

17“ ‘You must not eat any fat or any blood. That is a law that will last for all time to come. It applies no matter where you live.’ ”

Leviticus 4

Rules for Sin Offerings

1The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, 2“Speak to the Israelites. Tell them, ‘Suppose someone sins without meaning to. And that person does something the LORD commands us not to do.

3“ ‘Suppose it is the anointed priest who sins. And suppose he brings guilt on the people. Then he must bring a young bull to the LORD. It must not have any flaws. He must bring it as a sin offering for the sin he has committed. 4He must bring the bull to the entrance to the tent of meeting in the sight of the LORD. He must place his hand on its head. He must kill it there in the sight of the LORD. 5Then the anointed priest must take some of the bull’s blood. He must carry it into the tent of meeting. 6He must dip his finger into the blood. He must sprinkle some of it seven times in the sight of the LORD. He must do it in front of the curtain of the Most Holy Room. 7Then the priest must put some of the blood on the horns of the altar for burning incense. The horns stick out from the upper four corners of the altar. The incense burned on that altar has a sweet smell. The altar stands in front of the LORD in the tent of meeting. The priest must pour out the rest of the bull’s blood at the bottom of the altar for burnt offerings. That altar stands at the entrance to the tent. 8He must remove all the fat from the bull for the sin offering. It includes the fat that is connected to the inside parts. 9It includes both kidneys with the fat on them next to the lower back muscles. It also includes the long part of the liver. He must remove all of it together with the kidneys. 10He must remove it in the same way the fat is removed from an ox sacrificed as a friendship offering. Then the priest must burn all of it on the altar for burnt offerings. 11But the bull’s hide must be taken away. So must all its meat. So must its head and legs. And so must its inside parts and guts. 12In other words, all the rest of the bull must be taken away. The priest must take it outside the camp. He must take it to a “clean” place. He must take it to the place where the ashes are thrown. Then he must burn it there in a wood fire on a pile of ashes.

13“ ‘Or suppose the whole community of Israel sins without meaning to. They do something the LORD commands us not to do. Suppose they realize their guilt. [14]And suppose their sin becomes known. Then they must bring a young bull as a sin offering. They must offer it in front of the tent of meeting. [15]The elders of the community must place their hands on the bull's head in the sight of the LORD. The bull must be killed in the sight of the LORD. [16]Then the anointed priest must take some of the bull's blood into the tent of meeting. [17]He must dip his finger into the blood. He must sprinkle it seven times in the sight of the LORD. He must do it in front of the curtain. [18]He must put some of the blood on the horns that stick out from the upper four corners of the altar. The altar stands in front of the LORD in the tent of meeting. The priest must pour out the rest of the blood at the bottom of the altar for burnt offerings. That altar stands at the entrance to the tent. [19]He must remove all the fat from the bull. He must burn it on the altar. [20]He must do the same thing with that bull as he did with the bull for the sin offering. When he does, he will pay for the sin of the community. And they will be forgiven. [21]Then he must take the bull outside the camp. He must burn it just as he burned the first bull. It is the sin offering for the whole community.

[22]" 'Or suppose a leader sins without meaning to. He disobeys any of the commands of the LORD his God. [23]And suppose he realizes his guilt and his sin becomes known. Then he must bring an offering. It must be a male goat. It must not have any flaws. [24]He must place his hand on the goat's head. He must kill it. He must do it at the place where the animals for burnt offerings are killed in the sight of the LORD. His offering is a sin offering. [25]Then the priest must dip his finger into some of the blood of the sin offering. He must put it on the horns that stick out from the upper four corners of the altar for burnt offerings. He must pour out the rest of the blood at the bottom of the altar. [26]He must burn all the fat on the altar. He must burn it in the same way he burned the fat of the friendship offering. When he does, he will pay for the sin of the leader. And the leader will be forgiven.

[27]" 'Or suppose someone in the community sins without meaning to. They disobey any of the LORD's commands. [28]And suppose they realize their guilt and their sin becomes known. Then they must bring an offering for the sin they have committed. It must be a female goat. It must not have any flaws. [29]They must place their hand on the head of the animal for the sin offering. It must be killed at the place where the animals for burnt offerings are killed. [30]Then the priest must dip his finger into some of the blood. He must put it on the horns that stick out from the upper four corners of the altar for burnt offerings. He must pour out the rest of the blood at the bottom of the altar. [31]They must remove all the fat in the same way the fat is removed from the friendship offering. The priest must burn it on the altar. Its smell pleases the LORD. When the priest burns the offering, he will pay for their sin. And they will be forgiven.

[32]“ ‘Suppose someone brings a lamb as their sin offering. Then they must bring a female animal. It must not have any flaws. [33]They must place their hand on its head. They must kill it as a sin offering. They must do it at the place where the animals for burnt offerings are killed. [34]Then the priest must dip his finger into some of the blood of the sin offering. He must put it on the horns that stick out from the upper four corners of the altar for burnt offerings. He must pour out the rest of the blood at the bottom of the altar. [35]They must remove all the fat in the same way the fat is removed from the lamb for the friendship offering. The priest must burn it on the altar on top of the food offerings presented to the LORD. When he does, he will pay for the sin they have committed. And they will be forgiven.

Leviticus 5

1“ ‘Suppose someone has been called as a witness to something they have seen or learned about. Then if they do not tell what they know, they have sinned.
And they will be held responsible for it.
2“ ‘Or suppose someone touches something not “clean.” It could be the dead bodies of wild animals or of livestock. Or it could be the dead bodies of creatures that move along the ground. Even though those people are not aware that they touched them, they have become “unclean.” And they are guilty. 3Or suppose they touch something “unclean” that comes from a human being. It could be anything that would make them “unclean.” Suppose they are not aware that they touched it. When they find out about it, they will be guilty. 4Or suppose someone makes a promise to do something without thinking it through. It does not matter what they promised. It does not matter whether they made the promise without thinking about it carefully. And suppose they are not aware that they did not think it through. When they find out about it, they will be guilty.
5When someone is guilty in any of those ways, they must admit they have sinned. 6They must bring a sin offering to pay for the sin they have committed.
They must bring to the LORD a female lamb or goat from the flock. The priest will sacrifice the animal. That will pay for the person’s sin.
7“ ‘Suppose they can’t afford a lamb. Then they must get two doves or two young pigeons. They must bring them to the LORD to pay for their sin. One of them is for a sin offering. The other is for a burnt offering. 8They must bring them to the priest. The priest will offer the one for the sin offering first. He must twist its head. But he must not twist it off completely. 9Then he must splash some of the blood of the sin offering against the side of the altar. He must empty out the rest of the blood at the bottom of the altar. It is a sin offering. 10Then the priest will offer the other bird as a burnt offering. He must do it in the way the law requires. That will pay for the sin they have committed. And they will be forgiven.
11“ ‘But suppose they can’t afford two doves or two young pigeons. Then they must bring three and a half pounds of the finest flour as an offering for their sin.
It is a sin offering. They must not put olive oil or incense on it. That is because it is a sin offering. 12They must bring it to the priest. The priest must take a handful of it. He must burn that part on the altar. It will be a reminder that all good things come from the LORD. The priest must burn it on top of the food offerings presented to the LORD. It is a sin offering. [13]In that way the priest will pay for any of the sins they have committed. And they will be forgiven. The rest of the offering will belong to the priest. It is the same as in the case of the grain offering.’ ”

Rules for Guilt Offerings

[14]The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, [15]“Suppose someone is unfaithful to me and sins. And they do it without meaning to. Here is how they sin against me or my priests. They refuse to give the priests one of the holy things set apart for them. Then they must bring me a ram from the flock. It must not have any flaws. It must be worth the required amount of silver. The silver must be weighed out in keeping with the standard weights that are used in the sacred tent. The ram is a guilt offering. It will pay for their sin. [16]They must also pay for the holy thing they refused to give. They must add a fifth of its value to it. They must give all of it to the priest. The priest will pay for their sin with the ram. It is a guilt offering. And they will be forgiven.

[17]“Suppose someone sins by doing something I command them not to do. Even though they do not know it, they are guilty. They will be held responsible for it. [18]They must bring to the priest a ram from the flock as a guilt offering. It must not have any flaws. And it must be worth the required amount of money. The priest will sacrifice the animal. That will pay for what they have done wrong without meaning to. And they will be forgiven. [19]It is a guilt offering. They have been guilty of doing wrong against me.”

Leviticus 6

[1]The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, [2]“Suppose someone sins by not being faithful to me. They do it by tricking their neighbors. They trick them in connection with something their neighbors have placed in their care. They steal from their neighbors. Or they cheat them. [3]Or they find something their neighbors have lost and then tell a lie about it. Or they go to court. They promise to tell the truth. But instead they tell a lie when they are a witness about it. Or they lie when they are witnesses about any other sin like those sins. [4]When they sin in any of these ways and realize their guilt, they must return what they stole. They must give back what they took by cheating their neighbors. They must return what their neighbors placed in their care. They must return the lost property they found. [5]They must return anything they told a lie about when they were witnesses in court. They must pay back everything in full. They must add a fifth of its value to it. They must give all of it to the owner on the day they bring their guilt offering. [6]He must bring their guilt offering to the priest to pay for their sin. It is an offering to me. They must bring a ram from the flock. It must not have any flaws. It must be worth the required amount of money. [7]The priest will sacrifice the ram to pay for their sin. He will do it in my sight. And they will be forgiven for any of the things they did that made them guilty.”

More Rules for Burnt Offerings

[8]The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, [9]“Give Aaron and the priests in his family line a command. Tell them, ‘Here are some more rules for burnt offerings. The burnt offering must remain on the altar through the whole night. The fire on the altar must be kept burning until morning. [10]The priest must put on his linen clothes. He must put on linen underwear next to his body. He must remove the ashes of the burnt offering that the fire has burned up on the altar. He must place them beside the altar. [11]Then he must take his clothes off and put others on. He must carry the ashes outside the camp to a “clean” place. [12]The fire on the altar must be kept burning. It must not go out. Every morning the priest must add more wood to the fire. He must place the burnt offering on the fire. He must burn the fat of the friendship offerings on it. [13]The fire must be kept burning on the altar all the time. It must not go out.

More Rules for Grain Offerings

14“ ‘Here are some more rules for grain offerings. The priests in Aaron’s family line must bring the grain offering to the LORD in front of the altar. 15The priest must take a handful of the finest flour and olive oil. He must add to it all the incense on the grain offering. He must burn that part on the altar. It will remind him that all good things come from the LORD. Its smell pleases the LORD. 16Aaron and the priests in his family line will eat the rest of it. But they must eat it without yeast in the holy area. They must eat it in the courtyard of the tent of meeting. 17It must not be baked with yeast added to it. The LORD has given it to the priests as their share of the food offerings presented to him. It is very holy, just like the sin offering and the guilt offering. 18Any priests in Aaron’s family line can eat it. It is their share of the food offerings presented to the LORD. It is their share for all time to come. Anyone who touches these offerings will become holy.’ ”

19The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, 20“On the day each high priest in Aaron’s family line is anointed, he must bring an offering to me. He must bring three and a half pounds of the finest flour as a regular grain offering. He must bring half of it in the morning. He must bring the other half in the evening.
21Mix it with olive oil. Cook it on a metal plate. Break it in pieces. Bring it as a grain offering. Its smell pleases the LORD. 22The son of Aaron who will become the next high priest after him will prepare the grain offering. It is the share that must be given to the LORD for all time to come. It must be completely burned up. 23Every grain offering a high priest offers must be completely burned up. It must not be eaten.”

More Rules for Sin Offerings

24The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, 25“Speak to Aaron and the priests in his family line. Tell them, ‘Here are some more rules for sin offerings. You must kill the animal for the sin offering in the sight of the LORD. Kill it in the place where the burnt offering is killed. It is very holy. 26The priest who offers it will eat it. He must eat it in the holy area. He must eat it in the courtyard of the tent of meeting. 27Anyone who touches any of its meat will become holy. Suppose some of the blood is spilled on someone’s clothes. Then you must wash them in the holy area. 28Break the clay pot the meat is cooked in. But suppose you cook it in a bronze pot. Then you must scrub the pot and rinse it with water. 29Any male in a priest's family may eat the meat. It is very holy. [30]But suppose some of the blood of a sin offering is brought into the tent of meeting. And that blood is brought into the Holy Room to pay for sin. Then that sin offering must not be eaten. It must be burned up.

Leviticus 7

More Rules for Guilt Offerings

1“ ‘Here are some more rules for guilt offerings. The guilt offering is very holy. 2You must kill the animal for the guilt offering where you kill the animal for the burnt offering. Splash its blood against the sides of the altar. 3Offer all its fat. It must include the fat tail and the fat that covers the inside parts. 4It must include both kidneys with the fat on them next to the lower back muscles. It must also include the long part of the liver. Remove all of it together with the kidneys. 5The priest must burn all of it on the altar. It is a food offering presented to the LORD. It is a guilt offering. 6Any male in a priest’s family can eat it. But he must eat it in the holy area. It is very holy.

7“ ‘The same law applies to the sin offering and the guilt offering. Both of them belong to the priest who offers them to pay for sin. 8The priest who offers a burnt offering for anyone can keep its hide for himself. 9Every grain offering baked in an oven belongs to the priest who offers it. So does every grain offering cooked in a pan or on a metal plate. 10Every grain offering belongs equally to all the priests in Aaron’s family line. That is true whether it is mixed with olive oil or it is dry.

More Rules for Friendship Offerings

11“ ‘Here are some more rules for friendship offerings anyone may bring to the LORD.

12“ ‘Suppose they offer a friendship offering to show they are thankful. Then together with the thank offering they must offer thick loaves of bread. They must make them without yeast. They must mix them with olive oil. Or they must offer thin loaves of bread made without yeast. They must spread olive oil on them. Or they must offer thick loaves of bread made out of the finest flour. They must add olive oil to it. They must work the flour and prepare it well. 13They must bring another friendship offering along with their thank offering. It should be thick loaves of bread made with yeast. 14They must bring one of each kind of bread as an offering. One kind is made with yeast. The other is not. Both of them are a gift to the LORD. They belong to the priest who splashes the blood of the friendship offering against the altar. 15The person must eat the meat from their thank offering on the day they offer it. They must not leave any of it until morning.

16“ ‘But suppose they bring a friendship offering to keep a promise they have made. Or suppose they bring an offering they choose to give. Then they must eat the sacrifice on the day they offer it. But if anything is left over, they may eat it the next day. 17They must burn up any meat from the sacrifice left over until the third day. 18Suppose they eat any meat from the friendship offering on the third day. Then the LORD will not accept the offering. He will not accept it as a gift from them. It is not pure. If they eat any of it, they will be held responsible for it.

19“ ‘They must not eat meat that touches anything “unclean.” They must burn it up. Anyone “clean” may eat any other meat. 20But suppose an “unclean” person eats any meat from the friendship offering that belongs to the LORD. Then they will be separated from their people. 21Suppose someone touches something “unclean.” It does not matter whether it comes from a human being who is not “clean.” It does not matter whether it comes from an “unclean” animal. It does not matter whether it comes from something hated and “unclean.” And suppose they eat any of the meat from the friendship offering that belongs to the LORD. Then they will be separated from their people.’ ”

Israel Must Not Eat Fat or Blood

22The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, 23“Speak to the Israelites. Tell them, ‘Do not eat any of the fat of cattle, sheep or goats. 24Do not eat the fat of any animal found dead. Do not eat the fat of an animal that wild animals have torn apart. But you can use the fat for any other purpose. 25Suppose an animal has been sacrificed as a food offering to the LORD. No one may eat its fat. If they do, they will be separated from their people. 26No matter where you live, do not eat the blood of any bird or animal. 27Anyone who eats blood must be separated from their people.’ ”

The Share That Belongs to the Priests

28The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, 29“Speak to the Israelites. Tell them, ‘Suppose someone brings a friendship offering to the LORD. Then they must bring part of it as their special gift to the LORD. 30They must bring it with their own hands. It is a food offering presented to the LORD. They must bring the fat together with the breast. They must lift the breast up and wave it in front of the LORD as a wave offering. [31]The priest will burn the fat on the altar. But the breast belongs to Aaron and the priests in his family line. [32]Give the right thigh from your friendship offerings to the priest as a gift. [33]The priest who offers the blood and fat from the friendship offering must be given the right thigh. It is his share. [34]I, the LORD, have taken the breast that is waved and the thigh that is given. I have taken them from the friendship offerings of the Israelites. And I have given them to Aaron the priest and the priests in his family line. The offerings will be their share from the Israelites for all time to come.' "

[35]That is the part of the food offerings presented to the LORD. It is given to Aaron and the priests in his family line. It was given to Aaron and his sons on the day they were set apart to serve the LORD as priests. [36]On the day they were anointed, the LORD commanded the Israelites to give that part to them. For all time to come, it will be the share of Aaron and the priests in his family line.

[37]These are the rules for burnt offerings, grain offerings, sin offerings, guilt offerings and friendship offerings. They are also the rules for the offerings that are given when priests are being prepared to serve the LORD. [38]They are the rules the LORD gave Moses on Mount Sinai. He gave them on the day he commanded the Israelites to bring their offerings to the LORD. That took place in the Sinai Desert.

Leviticus 8

Preparing the Priests to Serve the LORD

[1]The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, [2]“Bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance to the tent of meeting. Bring their clothes and the anointing oil. Bring the bull for the sin offering. Also bring two rams. And bring the basket with the bread made without yeast. [3]Then gather the whole community at the entrance to the tent of meeting.” [4]Moses did just as the LORD had commanded him. All the people gathered together at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

[5]Moses said to the people, “Here is what the LORD has commanded us to do.” [6]Then Moses brought Aaron and his sons to the people. He washed Aaron and his sons with water. [7]He put the inner robe on Aaron. He tied the belt around him. He dressed him in the outer robe. He put the linen apron on him. He took the skillfully made waistband and tied the apron on him with it. He wanted to make sure it was securely tied to him. [8]Moses placed the chest cloth on Aaron.
He put the Urim and Thummim in the chest cloth. [9]Then he placed the turban on Aaron’s head. On the front of the turban he put the gold plate. It was a sacred crown. Moses did everything just as the LORD had commanded him.

[10]Then Moses took the anointing oil and poured it on the holy tent. He also poured it on everything in it. That’s how he set apart those things for the LORD.
[11]He sprinkled some of the oil on the altar seven times. He poured oil on the altar and all its tools. He poured it on the large bowl and its stand. He did it to set them apart. [12]He poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron’s head. He anointed him to set him apart to serve the LORD. [13]Then Moses brought Aaron’s sons to the people. He put the inner robes on them. He tied belts around them. He put caps on their heads. He did everything just as the LORD had commanded him.

[14]Then he brought the bull for the sin offering. Aaron and his sons placed their hands on its head. [15]Moses killed the bull. He dipped his finger into some of the blood. He put it on the horns that stick out from the upper four corners of the altar. He did it to make the altar pure. He poured out the rest of the blood at the bottom of the altar. So he set it apart to make it pure. [16]Moses also removed all the fat around the inside parts of the bull. He removed the long part of the liver.
He took both kidneys and their fat. Then he burned all of it on the altar. [17]But he burned the rest of the bull outside the camp. He burned up its hide, its meat and its guts. He did it just as the LORD had commanded him.

[18]Then Moses brought the ram for the burnt offering. Aaron and his sons placed their hands on its head. [19]Moses killed the ram. He splashed the blood against the sides of the altar. [20]He cut the ram into pieces. He burned the head, the other pieces and the fat. [21]He washed the inside parts and the legs with water. He burned the whole ram on the altar as a burnt offering. It had a pleasant smell. It was a food offering presented to the LORD. Moses did everything just as the LORD had commanded him.

[22]Then he brought the other ram. It was sacrificed to prepare the priests for serving the LORD. Aaron and his sons placed their hands on its head. [23]Moses killed the ram. He put some of its blood on Aaron's right earlobe. He put some on the thumb of Aaron's right hand. He also put some on the big toe of Aaron's right foot. [24]Then Moses brought Aaron's sons to the people. He put some of the blood on their right earlobes. He put some on the thumbs of their right hands. He also put some on the big toes of their right feet. Then he splashed the rest of the blood against the sides of the altar. [25]He removed the fat, the fat tail and all the fat around the inside parts. He removed the long part of the liver. He removed both kidneys and their fat. And he removed the right thigh. [26]Then he took a thick loaf of bread from the basket of bread made without yeast. The basket was in front of the LORD. Moses took a thick loaf of bread made with olive oil. He also took a thin loaf of bread. He put all of it on the fat parts of the ram and on its right thigh. [27]He put everything in the hands of Aaron and his sons. He told them to lift it up and wave it in front of the LORD as a wave offering. [28]Then Moses took it from their hands. He burned it on the altar on top of the burnt offering. It was the offering that was sacrificed to prepare the priests for serving the LORD. It had a pleasant smell. It was a food offering presented to the LORD. [29]Moses also lifted up the ram's breast and waved it in front of the LORD as a wave offering. The breast was Moses' share of the ram that was sacrificed to prepare the priests for serving the LORD. Moses did everything just as the LORD had commanded him.

[30]Then Moses took some of the anointing oil. He also took some of the blood from the altar. He sprinkled some of the oil and blood on Aaron and his clothes. He also sprinkled some on Aaron's sons and their clothes. That's how he set apart Aaron and his clothes. And that's how he set apart Aaron's sons and their clothes.

[31]Then Moses spoke to Aaron and his sons. He said, "Cook the meat at the entrance to the tent of meeting. Eat it there along with the bread from the basket of the offerings that are brought to prepare the priests for serving the LORD. Do it just as I was commanded. I was told, ‘Aaron and his sons must eat it.’ [32]Then burn up the rest of the meat and the bread. [33]Don’t leave the entrance to the tent of meeting for seven days. Don’t leave until the days that are required to prepare you for serving the LORD have been completed. Stay here for the full seven days. [34]The LORD commanded what has been done here today. It was done to pay for your sin. [35]Stay at the entrance to the tent of meeting for seven days. Stay here day and night. Do what the LORD requires. Then you won’t die. That’s the command the LORD gave me.”

[36]So Aaron and his sons did everything just as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

Leviticus 9

The Priests Offer Sacrifices

[1]On the eighth day Moses sent for Aaron, his sons and the elders of Israel. [2]He said to Aaron, “Bring a bull calf for your sin offering. Bring a ram for your burnt offering. They must not have any flaws. Offer them to the LORD. [3]Then speak to the Israelites. Tell them, ‘Bring a male goat for a sin offering. Bring a calf and a lamb for a burnt offering. Both of them must be a year old. They must not have any flaws. [4]Bring an ox and a ram for a friendship offering. Sacrifice all of them to the LORD. Also bring a grain offering. Mix it with olive oil. Today the LORD will appear to you.’ ”

[5]The people got the things Moses commanded them to get. They took them to the front of the tent of meeting. The whole community came up close to the tent. They stood there in front of the LORD. [6]Then Moses said, “You have done what the LORD has commanded. So the glory of the LORD will appear to you.”

[7]Moses said to Aaron, “Come to the altar. Sacrifice your sin offering and your burnt offering. Pay for your sin and the sin of the people. Sacrifice the people’s offering. Pay for their sin. Do just as the LORD has commanded.”

[8]So Aaron came to the altar. He killed the calf as a sin offering for himself. [9]His sons brought its blood to him. He dipped his finger into the blood. He put some on the horns that stick out from the upper four corners of the altar. He poured out the rest of the blood at the bottom of the altar. [10]He burned the fat and the kidneys on the altar. He also burned the long part of the liver. All these parts were from the sin offering. Aaron did just as the LORD had commanded Moses. [11]He burned up the meat and the hide outside the camp.

[12]Then he killed the animal for the burnt offering. His sons handed him its blood. He splashed it against the sides of the altar. [13]They handed him the burnt offering piece by piece. It included the animal’s head. Aaron burned everything on the altar. [14]He washed the inside parts and the legs. He burned them on top of the burnt offering on the altar.

[15]Then Aaron brought the people’s offering. He took the goat for their sin offering and killed it. He offered it for a sin offering. He did just as he had done with his own sin offering.

[16]He brought the animal for the burnt offering. He offered it in the way the law requires. [17]He also brought the grain offering. He took a handful of it and burned it on the altar. It was in addition to that morning's burnt offering.

18 Aaron killed the ox and the ram as the friendship offering for the people. His sons handed him the blood. He splashed it against the sides of the altar. 19 His sons also brought the fat parts of the ox and the ram. They included the fat tail and the layer of fat. They also included the kidneys and the long part of the liver. 20 Aaron's sons placed everything on the breasts of the animals. Aaron burned the fat on the altar. 21 He lifted up the breasts and the right thigh and waved them in front of the LORD as a wave offering. He did it just as Moses had commanded.

22 Then Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people. He gave them a blessing. He had already sacrificed the sin offering, the burnt offering and the friendship offering. So he stepped down from the altar.

23 Moses and Aaron went into the tent of meeting. When they came out, they gave the people a blessing. The glory of the LORD appeared to all the people. 24 The LORD sent fire on the altar. The fire burned up the burnt offering along with the fat parts. All the people saw it. Then they shouted for joy. They fell with their faces to the ground.

Leviticus 10

The LORD Kills Nadab and Abihu

1 Nadab and Abihu were two of Aaron's sons. They got their shallow cups for burning incense. They put fire in them. They added incense to it. They made an offering to the LORD by using fire that wasn't allowed. They did it against his command. 2 So the LORD sent fire on them. It burned them up. They died in front of the LORD. 3 Then Moses spoke to Aaron. He said, "That's what the LORD was talking about when he said,

> " 'Among those who approach me
> I will show that I am holy.
> In the sight of all the people
> I will be honored.' "

So Aaron remained silent.

4 Moses sent for Mishael and Elzaphan. They were sons of Aaron's uncle Uzziel. Moses said to them, "Come here. Carry the bodies of your cousins outside the camp. Take them away from in front of the Holy Room." 5 So they came and carried them outside the camp. It was just as Moses had ordered. The bodies of Nadab and Abihu still had their inner robes on them.

6 Moses spoke to Aaron and to Eleazar and Ithamar. They were Aaron's sons.
Moses said, "Don't let your hair hang loose. Don't tear your clothes. If you do, you will die. And the LORD will be angry with the whole community. But all the Israelites are allowed to show they are sad. They are your relatives. They may mourn for those the LORD has destroyed with fire. 7 Don't leave the entrance to the tent of meeting. If you do, you will die. That's because the LORD's anointing oil has made you holy." So they did what Moses told them to do.

8 Then the LORD spoke to Aaron. He said, 9 "You and your sons will go into the tent of meeting. When you do, you must not drink any kind of wine. If you do, you will die. This is a law that will last for all time to come. 10 This is so that you can tell the difference between what is holy and what is not. You must be able to tell the difference between what is 'clean' and what is not. 11 Then you will be able to teach the Israelites all the rules I have given them through Moses."

[12]Moses spoke to Aaron and to Eleazar and Ithamar. They were Aaron’s two remaining sons. Moses said, “Take the grain offering left over from the food offerings presented to the LORD. It is very holy. Make bread without yeast from it. Eat it beside the altar. [13]Eat it in the holy area. It’s your share and your sons’ share of the food offerings presented to the LORD. These rules are in keeping with the command the LORD gave me. [14]But you and your sons and your daughters can eat the breast that was waved. You can also eat the thigh that was offered. Eat them in a ‘clean’ place. They have been given to you and your children. They are your share of the friendship offerings the Israelites bring. [15]The thigh that was offered must be brought together with the fat parts of the food offerings. The breast that was waved must be brought in the same way. All of it must be lifted up and waved in front of the LORD as a wave offering. It will be the share for you and your children for all time to come. That’s what the LORD has commanded.”

[16]Moses asked about the goat that was brought as the sin offering. He found out that it had been burned up. So he became angry with Eleazar and Ithamar. They were Aaron’s two remaining sons. Moses asked them, [17]“Why didn’t you eat the sin offering in a place near the Holy Room? The offering is very holy. It was given to you to take the people’s guilt away. It paid for their sin in the sight of the LORD. [18]The blood of the offering wasn’t taken into the Holy Room. So you should have eaten the goat in a place near the Holy Room. That’s what I commanded.”

[19]Aaron replied to Moses, “Today the people sacrificed their sin offering to the LORD. They also sacrificed their burnt offerings to him. But a terrible thing has happened to me. Two of my sons have died. Would the LORD have been pleased if I had eaten the sin offering today?” [20]When Moses heard that, he was satisfied.

Leviticus 11

“Clean” and “Unclean” Food

1The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron. He said to them, 2“Speak to the Israelites. Tell them, ‘Many animals live on land. Here are the only ones you can eat. 3You can eat any animal that has hooves that are separated completely in two. But it must also chew the cud.

4“ ‘Some animals only chew the cud. Some only have hooves that are separated in two. You must not eat those animals. Camels chew the cud. But their hooves are not separated in two. So they are “unclean” for you. 5Rock badgers chew the cud. But their hooves are not separated in two. So they are “unclean” for you. 6Rabbits chew the cud. But their hooves are not separated in two. So they are “unclean” for you. 7Pigs have hooves that are separated completely in two. But they do not chew the cud. So they are “unclean” for you.
8You must not eat the meat of those animals. You must not even touch their dead bodies. They are “unclean” for you.

9“ ‘Many creatures live in the water of the oceans and streams. You can eat all those that have fins and scales. 10Treat as “unclean” all the creatures in the oceans or streams that do not have fins and scales. That includes all those that move together in groups and all those that do not. 11Treat them as “unclean.” Do not eat their meat. Treat their dead bodies as “unclean.” 12Regard as “unclean” everything that lives in the water that does not have fins and scales.

13“ ‘Here are the birds you must treat as “unclean.” Do not eat them because they are “unclean.” The birds include eagles, vultures and black vultures. 14They include red kites and all kinds of black kites. 15They include all kinds of ravens.
16They include horned owls, screech owls, gulls and all kinds of hawks. 17They include little owls, cormorants and great owls. 18They include white owls, desert owls and ospreys. 19They also include storks, hoopoes, bats and all kinds of herons.

20“ ‘Treat as “unclean” every flying insect that walks on all fours. 21But you can eat some flying insects that walk on all fours. Their legs have joints so they can hop on the ground. 22Here are the insects you can eat. You can eat all kinds of locusts, katydids, crickets and grasshoppers. 23Treat as “unclean” every other creature with wings and four legs.

[24]“ ‘You will make yourselves “unclean” if you eat these things. If you touch their dead bodies, you will be “unclean” until evening. [25]If a person picks up one of their dead bodies, that person must wash their clothes. They will be “unclean” until evening.

[26]“ ‘Suppose an animal has hooves that are not separated completely in two. Or suppose an animal does not chew the cud. Then these animals are “unclean” for you. If you touch the dead body of any of them, you will be “unclean.” [27]Many animals walk on all fours. But those that walk on their paws are “unclean” for you. Anyone who touches their dead bodies will be “unclean” until evening. [28]If a person picks up their dead bodies, that person must wash their clothes. They will be “unclean” until evening. These animals are “unclean” for you.

[29]“ ‘Many animals move along the ground. Here are the ones that are “unclean” for you. They include weasels, rats and all kinds of large lizards. [30]They also include geckos, monitor lizards, wall lizards, skinks and chameleons. [31]These are the animals that move around on the ground that are “unclean” for you. If you touch their dead bodies, you will be “unclean” until evening. [32]Suppose one of them dies and falls on something. Then that thing will be “unclean.” It does not matter what it is used for. It does not matter whether it is made out of wood, cloth, hide or rough cloth. Put it in water. It will be “unclean” until evening. After that, it will be “clean.” [33]Suppose one of these animals falls into a clay pot. Then everything in the pot will be “unclean.” You must break the pot. [34]Any food that could be eaten but has water on it that came from that pot is “unclean.” And any liquid that could be drunk from it is “unclean.” [35]Anything that the dead body of one of these animals falls on becomes “unclean.” If it is an oven or cooking pot, break it. It is “unclean.” And you must consider it “unclean.” [36]But a spring or a well for collecting water remains “clean.” That is true even if the dead body of one of these animals falls into it. But anyone who touches the dead body is not “clean.” [37]If the dead body falls on any seeds that have not been planted yet, the seeds remain “clean.” [38]But suppose water has already been put on the seeds. And suppose the dead body falls on them. Then they are “unclean” for you.

[39]“ ‘Suppose an animal you are allowed to eat dies. If anyone touches its dead body, they will be “unclean” until evening. [40]If they eat part of the dead body, they must wash their clothes. They will be “unclean” until evening. If they pick up the dead body, they must wash their clothes. They will be “unclean” until evening.

41“ ‘Treat as “unclean” every creature that moves along the ground. Do not eat it. 42Do not eat any of these creatures. It does not matter whether they move on their bellies. It does not matter whether they walk on all fours or on many feet. It is “unclean.” 43Do not make yourselves “unclean” by eating any of these animals. Do not make yourselves “unclean” because of them. Do not let them make you “unclean.” 44I am the LORD your God. Set yourselves apart. Be holy, because I am holy. Do not make yourselves “unclean” by eating any creatures that move around on the ground. 45I am the LORD. I brought you up out of Egypt to be your God. So be holy, because I am holy.

46“ ‘These are the rules about animals and birds. These are the rules about every living thing that moves around in the water. And these are the rules about every creature that moves along the ground. 47You must be able to tell the difference between what is “clean” and what is not. You must also be able to tell the difference between living creatures that can be eaten and those that can’t.’ ”

Leviticus 12

Becoming “Clean” After Having a Baby

1The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, 2“Speak to the Israelites. Tell them, ‘Suppose a woman becomes pregnant and has a baby boy. Then she will be “unclean” for seven days. It is the same as when she is “unclean” during her monthly period. 3On the eighth day the boy must be circumcised. 4After that, the woman must wait for 33 days to be made pure from her bleeding. She must not touch anything sacred until the 33 days are over. During that time she must not go to the sacred tent. 5But suppose she has a baby girl. Then she will be “unclean” for two weeks. It is the same as during her period. After the two weeks, she must wait for 66 days to be made pure from her bleeding.

6“ ‘After she has waited the required number of days to be made pure, she must bring two offerings. She must take them to the priest at the entrance to the tent of meeting. She must bring a lamb a year old for a burnt offering. She must also bring a young pigeon or a dove for a sin offering. 7The priest must offer them to the LORD. They will pay for her sin. Then she will be “clean” from her bleeding.

“ ‘These are the rules for a woman who has a baby boy or girl. 8But suppose she can’t afford a lamb. Then she must bring two doves or two young pigeons. One is for a burnt offering. The other is for a sin offering. The priest will sacrifice those offerings. That will pay for her sin. And she will be “clean.” ’ ”

Leviticus 13

Rules About Skin Diseases

[1]The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron. He told them to say to the people, [2]“Suppose someone’s skin has a swelling or a rash or a shiny spot. And suppose it could become a skin disease. Then they must be brought to the priest Aaron. Or they must be brought to a priest in Aaron’s family line. [3]The priest must look carefully at the sore on the person’s skin. He must see whether the hair in the sore has turned white. He must also see whether the sore seems to be under the skin. If the sore is white and is under the skin, it is a skin disease. When the priest looks that person over carefully, he must announce that the person is ‘unclean.’ [4]Suppose the shiny spot on the skin is white but does not seem to be under the skin. And suppose the hair in the spot has not turned white. Then the priest must make the person stay away from everyone else for seven days. [5]On the seventh day the priest must look carefully at the sore again. Suppose it has not changed and has not spread in the skin. Then the priest must make the person stay away from everyone else for another seven days. [6]On the seventh day the priest must look carefully at the sore again. If it has faded and has not spread, he must announce that the person is ‘clean.’ It is only a rash. That person must wash their clothes. They will be ‘clean.’ [7]But suppose the rash spreads in the skin after they have shown themselves to the priest a second time. Then they must appear in front of the priest again. [8]The priest must look carefully at the sore. If the rash has spread, he must announce that the person is ‘unclean.’ They have a skin disease.

[9]“When anyone has a skin disease, they must be brought to the priest. [10]The priest must look them over carefully. Suppose there is a white swelling in the skin. Suppose it has turned the hair white. And suppose there are open sores in the swelling. [11]Then the person has a skin disease that will never go away. The priest must announce that they are ‘unclean.’ The priest must not make them stay away from everyone else. They are already ‘unclean.’

[12]“Suppose the disease breaks out all over their skin. And suppose it covers them from head to foot, as far as the priest can tell. [13]Then the priest must look them over carefully. If the disease has covered their whole body, the priest must announce that they are ‘clean.’ All their skin has turned white. So they are ‘clean.’ [14]But when open sores appear on their skin, they will not be ‘clean.’

15When the priest sees the open sores, he must announce that they are ‘unclean.’
The open sores are not ‘clean.’ They have a skin disease. 16But if the open sores change and turn white, they must go to the priest. 17The priest must look them over carefully. If the sores have turned white, the priest must announce that the person is ‘clean.’ Then they will be ‘clean.’

18“Suppose someone has a boil on their skin and it heals. 19And suppose a white swelling or shiny pink spot appears where the boil was. Then they must show themselves to the priest. 20The priest must look at the boil carefully.
Suppose it seems to be under the skin. And suppose the hair in it has turned white. Then the priest must announce that the person is ‘unclean.’ A skin disease has broken out where the boil was. 21But suppose that when the priest looks at the boil carefully, there is no white hair in it. The boil is not under the skin. And it has faded. Then the priest must make the person stay away from everyone else for seven days. 22If the boil is spreading in the skin, the priest must announce that the person is ‘unclean.’ They have a skin disease. 23But suppose the spot has not changed. And suppose it has not spread. Then it is only a scar from the boil.
And the priest must announce that the person is ‘clean.’

24“Suppose someone has a burn on their skin. And suppose a white or shiny pink spot shows up in the open sores of the burn. 25Then the priest must look at the spot carefully. Suppose the hair in it has turned white. And suppose the spot seems to be under the skin. Then the person has a skin disease. It has broken out where they were burned. The priest must announce that the person is ‘unclean.’
They have a skin disease. 26But suppose the priest looks at the spot carefully.
Suppose there is no white hair in it. Suppose the spot is not under the skin. And suppose it has faded. Then the priest must make the person stay away from everyone else for seven days. 27On the seventh day the priest must look them over carefully. If the spot is spreading in the skin, the priest must announce that the person is ‘unclean.’ They have a skin disease. 28But suppose the spot has not changed. It has not spread in the skin. And it has faded. Then the burn has caused it to swell. The priest must announce that the person is ‘clean.’ It is only a scar from the burn.

29“Suppose a man or woman has a sore on their head or chin. 30Then the priest must look at the sore carefully. Suppose it seems to be under the skin. And suppose the hair in the sore is yellow and thin. Then the priest must announce that the person is ‘unclean.’ The sore is a skin disease on the head or chin. 31But suppose the priest looks carefully at the sore. It does not seem to be under the skin. And there is no black hair in it. Then the priest must make the person stay away from everyone else for seven days. [32]On the seventh day the priest must look at the sore carefully. Suppose it has not spread in the skin. It does not have any yellow hair in it. And it does not seem to be under the skin. [33]Then the man or woman must shave their head. But they must not shave the area where the disease is. And the priest must make them stay away from everyone else for another seven days. [34]On the seventh day the priest must look at the sore carefully. Suppose it has not spread in the skin. And suppose it does not seem to be under the skin. Then the priest must announce that the person is ‘clean.’ They must wash their clothes. They will be ‘clean.’ [35]But suppose the sore spreads in the skin after the priest announces that the person is ‘clean.’ [36]Then the priest must look them over carefully. Suppose the sore has spread. Then the priest does not have to look for yellow hair. The person is ‘unclean.’ [37]But suppose the sore has stopped and black hair has grown there, as far as the priest can tell. Then the person is healed and is ‘clean.’ The priest must announce that they are ‘clean.’

[38]“Suppose a man or woman has white spots on the skin. [39]Then the priest must look at them carefully. Suppose he sees that the spots are dull white. Then a harmless rash has broken out on the skin. That person is ‘clean.’

[40]“Suppose a man loses all the hair on his head. Then he is ‘clean.’ [41]Suppose he loses only the hair on the front of his head. Then he is ‘clean.’ [42]But suppose he has a shiny pink sore on his head where his hair was. Then he has a skin disease. It is breaking out on his whole head or on the front of his head. [43]The priest must look him over carefully. Suppose the swollen sore on his head or on the front of it is pink and shiny. And suppose it looks like a skin disease. [44]Then he has a skin disease. He is ‘unclean.’ The priest must announce that the man is ‘unclean.’ That’s because he has a sore on his head.

[45]“Suppose someone has a skin disease that makes them ‘unclean.’ Then they must wear torn clothes. They must let their hair hang loose. They must cover the lower part of their face. They must cry out, ‘Unclean! Unclean!’ [46]As long as they have the disease, they remain ‘unclean.’ They must live alone. They must live outside the camp.

Rules About Mold

[47]“Suppose some clothes have mold on them. The clothes could be made out of wool or linen. [48]Or there could be cloth woven or knitted out of linen or wool. There could be pieces of leather. Or there could be things that are made out of leather. [49]And suppose the mold on the clothes or on the woven or knitted cloth looks green or red. Or suppose the green or red mold is on the pieces of leather or the leather goods. Then it is mold that spreads. It must be shown to the priest. [50]The priest must look at it carefully. He must keep the thing with the mold on it away from everything else for seven days. [51]On the seventh day he must look at it carefully. Suppose the mold has spread in the clothes or in the woven or knitted cloth. Or suppose it has spread on the pieces of leather or on the leather goods. Then it is mold that destroys. The thing is ‘unclean.’ [52]The priest must burn everything with the mold in it. He must burn the clothes or the woven or knitted cloth made out of wool or linen. He must burn the leather goods. The mold destroys. So everything must be burned.

[53]“But suppose the priest looks at the thing carefully. The mold has not spread in the clothes. And it has not spread in the woven or knitted cloth or in the leather goods. [54]Then he will order someone to wash the thing with the mold on it. After that, the priest must keep that thing away from everything else for another seven days. [55]After the thing with the mold on it has been washed, the priest must look at it again carefully. Suppose the way the mold looks has not changed. Then even though the mold has not spread, it is ‘unclean.’ Burn it. It does not matter which side of the thing the mold is on. [56]But suppose the priest looks at it carefully. And suppose the mold has faded after the thing has been washed. Then the priest must tear out the part with mold on it. He must tear it out of the clothes or leather. He must tear it out of the woven or knitted cloth. [57]But suppose it shows up again in the clothes. Or suppose it shows up again in the woven or knitted cloth or in the leather goods. Then it is spreading. Everything with the mold on it must be burned. [58]The clothes that have been washed and do not have any more mold on them must be washed again. So must the woven or knitted cloth or the leather goods. Then they will be ‘clean.’ ”

[59]These are the rules about what to do with anything with mold on it. They apply to clothes that are made out of wool or linen. They apply to woven and knitted cloth and to leather goods. They give a priest directions about when to announce whether something is “clean” or “unclean.”

Leviticus 14

Making People “Clean” From Skin Diseases

1The LORD spoke to Moses. He told him to say to the people, 2“Here are the rules for making anyone ‘clean’ who has had a skin disease. They apply when the person is brought to the priest. 3The priest must go outside the camp. He must look the person over carefully. Suppose they have been healed of their skin disease. 4Then the priest will order someone to bring him two live ‘clean’ birds.
He will also order someone to bring him some cedar wood, bright red yarn and branches of a hyssop plant. All these things will be used to make the person ‘clean.’ 5The priest will order someone to kill one of the birds. It must be killed over fresh water in a clay pot. 6Then the priest must take the live bird. He must dip it into the blood of the bird killed over the fresh water. He must dip it into the blood together with the cedar wood, the bright red yarn and the hyssop plant.
7The priest will sprinkle the blood on the person who had the skin disease. That will make them ‘clean.’ The priest must sprinkle them seven times. Then the priest must announce that they are ‘clean.’ After that, the priest must let the live bird go free in the open fields.

8“The person must also wash their clothes to be made ‘clean.’ They must shave off all their hair. They must take a bath. Then they will be ‘clean.’ After that, they may come into the camp. But they must stay outside their tent for seven days. 9On the seventh day they must shave off all their hair. They must shave their head. They must shave off their beard. They must also shave off their eyebrows and the rest of their hair. They must wash their clothes. They must take a bath. Then they will be ‘clean.’

10“On the eighth day they must bring two male lambs and one female lamb as an offering. The female must be a year old. The lambs must not have any flaws.
They must also bring 11 pounds of the finest flour as a grain offering. They must mix it with olive oil. They must also bring 11 ounces of oil. 11The priest who announces that the person is ‘clean’ must bring them and their offerings to me.
He must do it at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

12“Then the priest must take one of the male lambs. He must offer it as a guilt offering. He must offer it along with 11 ounces of oil. He must lift all of it up and wave it in front of me as a wave offering. 13He must kill the lamb in the holy area where sin offerings and burnt offerings are killed. The guilt offering belongs to the priest, just as the sin offering does. The guilt offering is very holy. [14]The priest must take some of the blood from the guilt offering and put it on the person's right earlobe. He must put some on the thumb of their right hand. He must also put some on the big toe of their right foot. [15]Then the priest must take some of the oil and pour it into his own left hand. [16]He must dip his right forefinger into the oil in his hand. He must use his finger to sprinkle some of the oil in front of me seven times. [17]The priest must put some of the oil in his hand on the same places he put the blood of the guilt offering. He must put some on the person's right earlobe. He must put some on the thumb of their right hand. He must put some on the big toe of their right foot. [18]He must put on their head the rest of the oil in his hand. It will pay for the person's sin in my sight.

[19]"Then the priest must sacrifice the sin offering. It will pay for the person's sin. They will be made 'clean' after being 'unclean.' After that, the priest will kill the burnt offering. [20]He will offer it on the altar. He will offer it together with the grain offering. It will pay for the person's sin. Then they will be 'clean.'

[21]"But suppose they are poor. Suppose they can't afford all these offerings. Then they must bring one male lamb as a guilt offering. It must be lifted up and waved in front of me to pay for their sin. They must also bring three and a half pounds of the finest flour along with the lamb. They must mix the flour with olive oil. It is a grain offering. They must offer it along with 11 ounces of oil. [22]They must also bring two doves or two young pigeons that they can afford. One is for a sin offering. The other is for a burnt offering.

[23]"On the eighth day they must bring them to the priest so they can be made 'clean.' They must bring them to the entrance to the tent of meeting. They must do it in my sight. [24]The priest must take the lamb for the guilt offering. He must take it together with the 11 ounces of oil. He must lift all of it up and wave it in front of me as a wave offering. [25]He must kill the lamb for the guilt offering. He must take some of its blood and put it on the person's right earlobe. He must put some on the thumb of their right hand. He must also put some on the big toe of their right foot. [26]The priest must pour some of the oil into his own left hand. [27]He must dip his right forefinger into the oil in his hand. He must use his finger to sprinkle some of it seven times in front of me. [28]Here is what he must do with some of the oil in his hand. He must put it on the same places where he put the blood of the guilt offering. He must put some on the person's right earlobe. He must put some on the thumb of their right hand. He must also put some on the big toe of their right foot. [29]He must put on their head the rest of the oil in his hand. It will pay for the person's sin in my sight. [30]The priest will sacrifice the doves or the young pigeons that the person can afford. [31]One is for a sin offering. The other is for a burnt offering. The priest must offer them together with the grain offering. In that way he will pay for the person's sin in my sight. He will do it to make them 'clean.' "

[32]These are the rules for anyone who has a skin disease. They are for people who can't afford the regular offerings that are required to make them "clean."

Making Things "Clean" From Mold

[33]The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron. He told them to say to the people, [34]"You will enter the land of Canaan. I am giving it to you as your own. When you enter it, suppose I put mold in one of your houses. And suppose the mold spreads. [35]Then the owner of that house must go and speak to the priest. He must say, 'I've seen something that looks like mold in my house.' [36]The priest must order everything to be taken out of the house. It must be done before he goes in to look carefully at the mold. If it is not done, the priest must announce that everything in the house is 'unclean.' After the house is empty the priest must go in and check it. [37]He must look carefully at the mold on the walls. Suppose it looks as if it has green or red dents in it. And suppose the dents look as if they are behind the surface of the wall. [38]Then the priest must go out the door. He must close the house up for seven days. [39]On the seventh day the priest will return to check the house. Suppose the mold on the walls has spread. [40]Then he must order someone to tear out the stones that have mold on them. He must have them thrown into an 'unclean' place outside the town. [41]He must have all the inside walls of the house scraped. Everything scraped off must be dumped into an 'unclean' place outside the town. [42]Then other stones must be put in the place of the stones that had mold on them. The inside walls of the house must be coated with new clay.

[43]"Suppose the stones have been torn out. The house has been scraped. And the walls have been coated with new clay. But the mold appears again. [44]Then the priest must go and look things over carefully. Suppose the mold has spread in the house. Then it is the kind of mold that destroys things. The house is not 'clean.' [45]It must be torn down. The stones, the wood and all the clay coating must be torn out. All of it must be taken out of the town to an 'unclean' place.

[46]"Suppose someone goes into the house while it is closed up. Then they will be 'unclean' until evening. [47]If they sleep or eat in the house, they must wash their clothes.

48“But suppose the priest comes to look things over carefully. And suppose the mold has not spread after the walls had been coated with new clay. Then he will announce that the house is ‘clean.’ The mold is gone. 49To make the house pure, the priest must get two birds. He must also get some cedar wood, bright red yarn and branches of a hyssop plant. 50He must kill one of the birds over fresh water in a clay pot. 51Then he must take the cedar wood, the hyssop plant, the bright red yarn and the live bird. He must dip all of them into the blood of the dead bird. He must also dip them into the fresh water. He must sprinkle the house seven times. 52The priest will use the blood and the water to make the house pure. He will use the live bird to make it pure. He will also use the cedar wood, the hyssop plant and the bright red yarn to make it pure. 53Then he must let the live bird go free in the open fields outside the town. In that way he will make the house pure. It will be ‘clean.’ ”

54These are the rules for skin diseases. They apply to sores. 55They apply to mold in clothes or in houses. 56They also apply to swellings, rashes or shiny red spots on the skin. 57Use these rules to decide whether something is “clean” or not.

These are the rules for skin diseases and for mold.

Leviticus 15

Rules About Liquid Body Wastes

1The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, 2“Speak to the Israelites. Tell them, ‘Suppose liquid waste is flowing out of a man’s body. That liquid is not “clean.”
3It does not matter whether it continues to flow out of his body or is blocked. It will make him “unclean.” Here is how his liquid body waste will make him “unclean.”

4“ ‘Any bed the man who has the flow of liquid body waste lies on will be “unclean.” Anything he sits on will be “unclean.” 5Anyone who touches the man’s bed must wash their clothes. They must take a bath. They will be “unclean” until evening. 6Suppose someone sits on something the man sat on.
Then they must wash their clothes. They must take a bath. They will be “unclean” until evening.

7“ ‘Suppose someone touches the man who has the flow of liquid body waste.
Then they must wash their clothes. They must take a bath. They will be “unclean” until evening.

8“ ‘Suppose someone is “clean.” And suppose the man who has the flow of liquid waste spits on them. Then they must wash their clothes. They must take a bath. They will be “unclean” until evening.

9“ ‘Everything the man sits on when he is riding will be “unclean.” 10Suppose someone touches any of the things that were under him. Then they will be “unclean” until evening. Even if they pick up those things, they must wash their clothes. They must take a bath. They will be “unclean” until evening.

11“ ‘Suppose the man who has the liquid flow touches someone. And suppose he does it without rinsing his hands with water. Then the person he touched must wash their clothes. They must take a bath. They will be “unclean” until evening.

12“ ‘Suppose the man touches a clay pot. Then that pot must be broken. Any wooden thing he touches must be rinsed with water.

13“ ‘Suppose the man has been healed from his liquid flow. Then he must wait seven days. He must wash his clothes. He must take a bath in fresh water. After that, he will be “clean.” 14On the eighth day he must get two doves or two young pigeons. He must come to the LORD at the entrance to the tent of meeting.
There he must give the birds to the priest. 15The priest must sacrifice them. One is for a sin offering. The other is for a burnt offering. In that way the priest will pay for the man’s sin in the sight of the LORD. He will do it because the man had a liquid flow.

16“ ‘Suppose semen flows from a man’s body. Then he must wash his whole body with water. He will be “unclean” until evening. 17Suppose clothes or leather have semen on them. Then they must be washed with water. They will be “unclean” until evening. 18Suppose a man sleeps with a woman. And suppose semen flows from his body and touches both of them. Then they must take a bath. They will be “unclean” until evening.

19“ ‘Suppose a woman is having her regular monthly period. Then for seven days she will be “unclean.” Anyone who touches her will be “unclean” until evening.

20“ ‘Anything she lies on during her period will be “unclean.” Anything she sits on will be “unclean.” 21Anyone who touches her bed must wash their clothes. They must take a bath. They will be “unclean” until evening. 22Anyone who touches anything she sits on must wash their clothes. They must take a bath. They will be “unclean” until evening. 23It does not matter whether it was her bed or anything she was sitting on. If anyone touches it, they will be “unclean” until evening.

24“ ‘Suppose a man sleeps with that woman. And suppose blood from her monthly period touches him. Then he will be “unclean” for seven days. Any bed he lies on will be “unclean.”

25“ ‘Suppose blood flows from a woman’s body for many days. And it happens at a time other than her monthly period. Or blood keeps flowing after her period is over. Then she will be “unclean” as long as the blood continues to flow. She will be “unclean,” just as she is during the days of her period. 26Any bed she lies on while her blood continues to flow will be “unclean.” It is the same as it is when she is having her period. Anything she sits on will be “unclean.” 27If anyone touches those things, they will be “unclean.” They must wash their clothes. They must take a bath. They will be “unclean” until evening.

28“ ‘Suppose the woman has been healed from her flow of blood. Then she must wait seven days. After that, she will be “clean.” 29On the eighth day she must get two doves or two young pigeons. She must bring them to the priest at the entrance to the tent of meeting. 30The priest must sacrifice them. One is for a sin offering. The other is for a burnt offering. In that way he will pay for her sin in the sight of the LORD. He will do it because her flow of blood made her “unclean.”

31“ ‘You must keep the Israelites away from things that make them “unclean.”

Then they will not die for being “unclean.” And they will not die for making the place “unclean” where I, the LORD, live. It is in the middle of the camp.’ ”

[32]These are the rules for a man who has liquid waste flowing out of his body. They apply to a man made “unclean” by semen that flows from his body. [33]They apply to a woman having her monthly period. They apply to a man or woman who has a liquid flow. And they apply to a man who sleeps with a woman who is “unclean.”

Leviticus 16

The Day When Sin Is Paid For

[1]The LORD spoke to Moses after two of Aaron's sons had died. They were the sons who died when they came near the LORD. [2]The LORD said to Moses, "Speak to your brother Aaron. Tell him not to come into the Most Holy Room just anytime he wants to. Tell him not to come behind the curtain in front of the cover of the ark. The cover is the place where sin is paid for. If he comes behind the curtain, he will die. That is because I appear in the cloud over the cover.

[3]"Aaron must not enter the area of the Most Holy Room without bringing a sacrifice. He must bring a young bull for a sin offering. He must also bring a ram for a burnt offering. [4]He must put on the sacred inner robe made out of linen. He must wear linen underwear next to his body. He must tie the linen belt around him. And he must put the linen turban on his head. Those are sacred clothes. So he must take a bath before he puts them on. [5]The community of Israel must give him two male goats and a ram. The goats are for a sin offering. The ram is for a burnt offering.

[6]"Aaron must offer the bull for his own sin offering. It will pay for his own sin and the sin of his whole family. [7]Then he must take the two goats and bring them to me at the entrance to the tent of meeting. [8]He must cast lots for the two goats. One lot is for me. The other is for the goat that carries the people's sins away. [9]Aaron must bring the goat chosen for me by lot. He must sacrifice it for a sin offering. [10]But the goat chosen by the other lot must remain alive. First, it must be brought in to me to pay for the people's sins. Then, it must be sent into the desert as a goat that carries the people's sins away.

[11]"Aaron must bring the bull for his own sin offering. It will pay for his own sin and the sin of his whole family. He must kill the bull for his own sin offering. [12]He must take a shallow cup full of burning coals from the altar in my sight. He must get two handfuls of incense completely ground up. The incense must smell sweet. He must take the cup and the incense behind the curtain. [13]He must put the incense on the fire in my sight. The smoke from the incense will hide the cover of the ark where the tablets of the covenant law are kept. The cover is the place where sin is paid for. Aaron must burn the incense so that he will not die. [14]He must dip his finger in the bull's blood. He must sprinkle it on the front of the cover of the ark. He must sprinkle some in front of the cover. He must do it

seven times.

15“Then Aaron must kill the goat for the sin offering for the people. He must take its blood behind the curtain. There he must do the same thing with it as he did with the bull’s blood. He must sprinkle it on the cover of the ark. He must also sprinkle some in front of it. 16That is how he will make the Most Holy Room pure. He must do it because the Israelites are not ‘clean.’ They have not obeyed me. They have also committed other sins. Aaron must do the same for the tent of meeting because it stands in the middle of the camp. And the camp is ‘unclean.’ 17Aaron will go into the Most Holy Room to pay for the people’s sin. While Aaron is there, no one may be in the tent of meeting. No one may enter the tent until Aaron comes out. He will not come out until he has paid for his own sin and the sin of his whole family. He will not come out until he has also paid for the sin of the whole community of Israel.

18“Then he will come out to the altar for burnt offerings. It is in front of the tent where the ark of the LORD is. He will make the altar pure and clean. He will take some of the bull’s blood and some of the goat’s blood. Then he will put the blood on all the horns that stick out from the upper four corners of the altar. 19He will sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times. He will do it to make the altar pure. He will do it to set it apart from the Israelites. They are ‘unclean.’

20“Aaron will finish making the Most Holy Room pure and ‘clean.’ He will finish making the tent of meeting and the altar pure. Then he will bring out the live goat. 21He must place both of his hands on its head. While he does that, he must tell me about all the sins the Israelites have committed. He must tell me about all their evil acts and the times they did not obey me. In that way he puts their sins on the goat’s head. Then he will send the goat away into the desert. The goat will be led away by a man appointed to do it. 22The goat will carry all their sins on itself to a place where there are no people. And the man will set the goat free in the desert.

23“Then Aaron must go into the tent of meeting. He must take off the linen clothes he put on before he entered the Most Holy Room. He must leave them there. 24He must take a bath in the holy area. And he must put on his regular clothes. Then he will come out and sacrifice the burnt offering for himself. He will also sacrifice the burnt offering for the people. That will pay for his own sin and the people’s sin. 25He will also burn the fat of the sin offering on the altar.

26“The man who sets free the goat that carries the people’s sins away must wash his clothes. He must take a bath. After that, he can come back into the camp. [27]The bull and the goat for the sin offerings must be taken outside the camp. Their blood was brought into the Most Holy Room. It paid for sin. The hides, meat and guts of the animals must be burned up. [28]The man who burns them must wash his clothes. He must take a bath. After that, he can come back into the camp.

[29]"Here is a law for you that will last for all time to come. On the tenth day of the seventh month you must not eat anything. You must not do any work. It does not matter whether you are Israelites or outsiders. [30]On that day your sin will be paid for. You will be made pure and clean. You will be clean from all your sins in my sight. [31]That day is a sabbath for you. You must rest on it. You must not eat anything on that day. This is a law that will last for all time to come. [32]The high priest must pay for sin. He must make everything pure and clean. He has been anointed and prepared to become the next high priest after his father. He must put on the sacred clothes that are made out of linen. [33]He must make the Most Holy Room, the tent of meeting and the altar pure. And he must pay for the sin of the priests and all the members of the community.

[34]"Here is a law for you that will last for all time to come. Once a year you must pay for all the sin of the Israelites."

So it was done, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Leviticus 17

Do Not Eat Meat With Blood in It

[1]The LORD said to Moses, [2]“Speak to Aaron and his sons. Speak to all the Israelites. Tell them, ‘Here is what the LORD has commanded. He has said, [3]“Suppose someone sacrifices an ox, a lamb or a goat. They sacrifice it in the camp or outside of it. [4]They do it instead of bringing the animal to the entrance to the tent of meeting. They sacrifice it instead of giving it as an offering to me in front of my holy tent. Then they will be thought of as guilty of spilling blood. Because they have done that, they must be separated from their people. [5]The Israelites are now making sacrifices in the open fields. But they must bring their sacrifices to the priest. They must bring them to me at the entrance to the tent of meeting. There they must sacrifice them as friendship offerings. [6]The priest must splash the blood against my altar. It is the altar at the entrance to the tent of meeting. He must burn the fat. Its smell will please me. [7]The Israelites must stop offering any of their sacrifices to statues of gods that look like goats. When they offer sacrifices to those statues, they are not faithful to me. This is a law for them that will last for all time to come.” ’

[8]“Tell them, ‘Suppose someone offers a burnt offering or sacrifice. It does not matter whether they are an Israelite or an outsider. [9]And suppose they do not bring it to the entrance to the tent of meeting to sacrifice it to me. Then they must be separated from their people.

[10]“ ‘Suppose someone eats meat that still has blood in it. It does not matter whether they are an Israelite or an outsider. I will turn against them if they eat it. I will separate them from their people. [11]The life of each creature is in its blood. So I have given you the blood of animals to pay for your sin on the altar. Blood is life. That is why blood pays for your sin. [12]So I say to the Israelites, “You must not eat meat that still has blood in it. And an outsider who lives among you must not eat it either.”

[13]“ ‘Suppose any of you hunts any animal or bird that can be eaten. It does not matter whether you are an Israelite or an outsider. You must let the blood flow out of the animal or bird. You must cover the blood with dirt. [14]That is because every creature’s life is its blood. And that is why I have said to the Israelites, “You must not eat any creature’s meat that still has blood in it. Every creature’s life is its blood. Anyone who eats that kind of meat must be separated from the community of Israel.”

15“ ‘Suppose someone eats anything found dead or torn apart by wild animals. It does not matter whether they are an Israelite or an outsider. They must wash their clothes. They must take a bath. They will be “unclean” until evening. After that, they will be “clean.” 16But suppose they do not wash their clothes. And suppose they do not take a bath. Then they will be held responsible for what they have done.’ ”

Leviticus 18

Do Not Commit Sexual Sins

[1]The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, [2]“Speak to the Israelites. Tell them, ‘I am the LORD your God. [3]Do not do what the people of Egypt do. You used to live there. And do not do what the people of Canaan do. I am bringing you into their land. Do not follow their practices. [4]Obey my laws. Be careful to follow my rules. I am the LORD your God. [5]Keep my rules and laws. The one who obeys them will benefit from living by them. I am the LORD.

[6]“ ‘Do not have sex with any of your close relatives. I am the LORD.

[7]“ ‘Do not bring shame on your father by having sex with your mother. Do not have sex with her. She is your mother.

[8]“ ‘Do not have sex with any other wife of your father. That would bring shame on your father.

[9]“ ‘Do not have sex with your sister. It does not matter whether she is your father’s daughter or your mother’s daughter. It does not matter whether she was born in the same home as you were or somewhere else.

[10]“ ‘Do not have sex with your son’s daughter or your daughter’s daughter.
That would bring shame on you.

[11]“ ‘Do not have sex with the daughter of your father’s wife. She was born to your father. She is your sister.

[12]“ ‘Do not have sex with your father’s sister. She is a close relative on your father’s side.

[13]“ ‘Do not have sex with your mother’s sister. She is a close relative on your mother’s side.

[14]“ ‘Do not bring shame on your father’s brother by having sex with his wife.
She is your aunt.

[15]“ ‘Do not have sex with your daughter-in-law. She is your son’s wife. Do not have sex with her.

[16]“ ‘Do not have sex with your brother’s wife. That would bring shame on your brother.

[17]“ ‘Do not have sex with both a woman and her daughter. Do not have sex with either her son’s daughter or her daughter’s daughter. They are close relatives on her side. Having sex with them is an evil thing.

[18]“ ‘Do not take your wife’s sister as another wife and have sex with her. Do not do it while your wife is still living.

19“ ‘Do not have sex with a woman during her monthly period. She is “unclean” at that time.

20“ ‘Do not have sex with your neighbor’s wife. That would make you “unclean.”

21“ ‘Do not hand over any of your children to be sacrificed to the god Molek. That would be treating my name as if it were not holy. I am the LORD your God.

22“ ‘Do not have sex with a man as you would have sex with a woman. I hate that.

23“ ‘Do not have sex with an animal. Do not make yourself “unclean” by doing that. A woman must not offer herself to an animal to have sex with it. That is a wrong use of sex.

24“ ‘Do not make yourselves “unclean” in any of these ways. That is how other nations became “unclean.” So I am going to drive those nations out of the land to make room for you. 25Even their land was not “clean.” So I punished it because of its sin. The land itself threw out the people who lived there. 26But you must keep my rules and my laws. You must not do any of the things I hate. It does not matter whether you are Israelites or outsiders. 27All these things were done by the people who lived in the land before you. That is how the land became “unclean.” 28If you make the land “unclean,” it will throw you out. It will get rid of you just as it got rid of the nations there before you.

29“ ‘Suppose you do any of the things I hate. Then you must be separated from your people. 30Do exactly what I require. When you arrive in Canaan, do not follow any of the practices of its people. I hate the things they do. Do not make yourselves “unclean” by doing them. I am the LORD your God.’ ”

Leviticus 19

Other Laws

1The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, 2“Speak to the whole community of Israel. Tell them, ‘Be holy, because I am holy. I am the LORD your God.
3“ ‘All of you must have respect for your mother and father. You must always keep my Sabbath days. I am the LORD your God.
4“ ‘Do not turn away from me to worship statues of gods. Do not make for yourselves metal statues of gods. I am the LORD your God.
5“ ‘Suppose you sacrifice a friendship offering to me. Then do it in the right way. And I will accept it from you. 6You must eat it on the same day you sacrifice it or on the next day. Anything left over until the third day must be burned up. 7If you eat any of it on the third day, it is not pure. I will not accept it.
8Whoever eats it will be held responsible. They have misused what is holy to me. They will be separated from their people.
9“ ‘Suppose you are harvesting your crops. Then do not harvest all the way to the edges of your field. And do not pick up the grain you missed. 10Do not go over your vineyard a second time. Do not pick up the grapes that have fallen to the ground. Leave them for poor people and outsiders. I am the LORD your God.
11“ ‘Do not steal.
“ ‘Do not tell lies.
“ ‘Do not cheat one another.
12“ ‘Do not give your word in my name and then be a false witness. That would be treating the name of your God as if it were not holy. I am the LORD.
13“ ‘Do not cheat your neighbor. Do not rob him.
“ ‘Do not hold back the pay of a hired worker until morning.
14“ ‘Do not ask for bad things to happen to deaf people. Do not put anything in front of blind people that will make them trip. Instead, have respect for me. I am the LORD your God.
15“ ‘Do not make something wrong appear to be right. Treat poor people and rich people in the same way. Do not favor one person over another. Instead, judge everyone fairly.
16“ ‘Do not go around spreading lies among your people.
“ ‘Do not do anything that puts your neighbor’s life in danger. I am the LORD.

17“ ‘Do not hate another Israelite in your heart. Correct your neighbor boldly when they do something wrong. Then you will not share their guilt.

18“ ‘Do not try to get even. Do not hold anything against any of your people. Instead, love your neighbor as you love yourself. I am the LORD.

19“ ‘Obey my rules.

“ ‘Do not let different kinds of animals mate with each other.

“ ‘Do not mix two kinds of seeds and then plant them in your field.

“ ‘Do not wear clothes that are made out of two kinds of cloth.

20“ ‘Suppose a man sleeps with a female slave. But she and another man have promised to get married to each other. And her freedom has not yet been paid for or given to her. Then she and the man who slept with her must be punished. But they must not be put to death, because she had not been set free. 21The man must bring a ram to the entrance to the tent of meeting. It is for a guilt offering to me. 22The priest must take the ram for the guilt offering. He must sacrifice it to pay for the man’s sin in my sight. Then his sin will be forgiven.

23“ ‘When you enter the land, suppose you plant a fruit tree. Then do not eat its fruit for the first three years. The fruit is “unclean.” 24In the fourth year all the fruit will be holy. Offer it as a way of showing praise to me. 25But in the fifth year you can eat the fruit. Then you will gather more and more fruit. I am the LORD your God.

26“ ‘Do not eat any meat that still has blood in it.

“ ‘Do not practice any kind of evil magic.

27“ ‘Do not cut the hair on the sides of your head. Do not clip off the edges of your beard.

28“ ‘Do not make cuts on your bodies when someone dies. Do not put marks on your skin. I am the LORD.

29“ ‘Do not dishonor your daughter’s body by making a prostitute out of her. If you do, the Israelites will start going to prostitutes. The land will be filled with evil.

30“ ‘You must always keep my Sabbath days. Have respect for my sacred tent. I am the LORD.

31“ ‘Do not look for advice from people who get messages from those who have died. Do not go to people who talk to the spirits of the dead. If you do, they will make you “unclean.” I am the LORD your God.

32“ ‘Stand up in order to show your respect for old people. Also have respect for me. I am the LORD your God.

[33]“ ‘Suppose an outsider lives with you in your land. Then do not treat them badly. [34]Treat them as if they were one of your own people. Love them as you love yourself. Remember that all of you were outsiders in Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

[35]“ ‘Be honest when you measure lengths, weights or amounts. [36]Use honest scales and honest weights. Use honest dry measures. And use honest liquid measures. I am the LORD your God. I brought you out of Egypt.

[37]“ ‘Obey all my rules and laws. Follow them. I am the LORD.’ ”

Leviticus 20

Israel Will Be Punished for Their Sins

[1]The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, [2]"Say to the Israelites, 'Suppose a person sacrifices one of his children to the god Molek. It does not matter whether that person is an Israelite or an outsider who lives in Israel. He must be put to death. The members of the community must kill him by throwing stones at him. [3]I will turn against that man. I will separate him from his people. That's because he has sacrificed his child to Molek. He has made my sacred tent "unclean." He has treated my name as if it were not holy. [4]Suppose the members of the community act like they don't know that the man has sacrificed his child to Molek. And suppose they don't put him to death. [5]Then I will turn against that man and his family. I will separate them from their people. I will also separate all those who follow him by joining themselves to Molek. They are not faithful to me.

[6]" 'Suppose someone looks for advice from people who get messages from those who have died. Or they go to people who talk to the spirits of the dead. And they do what those people say. Then they have not been faithful to me. So I will turn against them. I will separate them from their people.

[7]" 'Set yourselves apart for me. Be holy, because I am the LORD your God. [8]Obey my rules. Follow them. I am the LORD. I make you holy.

[9]" 'Anyone who asks for bad things to happen to their father or mother must be put to death. They have cursed their father or mother. So anything that happens to them will be their own fault.

[10]" 'Suppose a man commits adultery with his neighbor's wife. Then the man and the woman must be put to death.

[11]" 'Suppose a man has sex with his father's wife. Then he has brought shame on his father. The man and the woman must be put to death. Anything that happens to them will be their own fault.

[12]" 'Suppose a man has sex with his daughter-in-law. Then they must be put to death. They have used sex in the wrong way. Anything that happens to them will be their own fault.

[13]" 'Suppose a man has sex with another man as he would have sex with a woman. I hate what they have done. They must be put to death. Anything that happens to them will be their own fault.

14“ ‘Suppose a man gets married to both a woman and her mother. That is evil. All of them must be burned to death. Then there will not be any evil among you.

15“ ‘Suppose a man has sex with an animal. Then he must be put to death. You must also kill the animal.

16“ ‘Suppose a woman has sex with an animal. Then kill the woman and the animal. They must be put to death. Anything that happens to them will be their own fault.

17“ ‘Suppose a man gets married to his sister and has sex with her. That is a shameful thing to do. It does not matter whether she is the daughter of his father or of his mother. They must be separated from their community in front of everyone. That man has brought shame on his sister. He will be responsible for what he has done.

18“ ‘Suppose a man has sex with a woman during her monthly period. He has uncovered the place where her bleeding was coming from. And she has let him do it. So both of them must be separated from their people.

19“ ‘Do not have sex with the sister of either your mother or your father. That would bring shame on a close relative. Both of you would be held responsible for what you have done.

20“ ‘Suppose a man has sex with his aunt. Then he has brought shame on his uncle. Both of them will be held accountable for what they have done. They will die without having any children.

21“ ‘Suppose a man gets married to his brother’s wife. That is something that should never be done. He has brought shame on his brother. Neither of them will have any children.

22“ ‘Obey all my rules and laws. Follow them. Then the land where I am bringing you to live will not throw you out. 23To make room for you, I am going to drive out the nations that are in the land. You must not follow the practices of those nations. I hated those nations because they did all those things. 24But I said to you, “You will take over their land as your own. I will give it to you. It will belong to you. It is a land that has plenty of milk and honey.” I am the LORD your God. I have set you apart from the other nations.

25“ ‘So you must be able to tell the difference between animals that are “clean” and those that are not. You must know which birds are “clean” and which are not. Do not make yourselves “unclean” by eating any “unclean” animal or bird. Do not make yourselves “unclean” by eating anything that moves along the ground. I have set all of them apart as “unclean” for you. 26You must be holy. You must be set apart to me. I am the LORD. I am holy. I have set you apart from the other nations to be my own people.

27“ ‘Suppose a man or woman gets messages from those who have died. Or suppose a man or woman talks to the spirits of the dead. Then you must put that man or woman to death. You must kill them by throwing stones at them. Anything that happens to them will be their own fault.’ ”

Leviticus 21

Rules for Priests

1The LORD said to Moses, “Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron. Tell them, ‘A priest must not make himself “unclean” by going near the dead body of any of his people. 2But he can go near the body of a close relative. It could be his mother, father, son, daughter or brother. 3He can also go near a sister who is not married. She would have depended on him because she did not have a husband.
The priest can make himself “unclean” by going near her body. 4But he must not make himself “unclean” by going near the bodies of people only related to him by marriage. Going near them would make him “unclean.”

5“ ‘Priests must not shave any part of their heads. They must not shave off the edges of their beards. They must not make cuts on their bodies when someone dies. 6Priests must be holy. They must be set apart for me. I am their God. They must not treat my name as if it were not holy. They must be holy because they bring food offerings to me. That is my food.

7“ ‘They must not get married to women who are “unclean” because they are prostitutes. They must not marry women who are divorced from their husbands.
That is because priests are holy. They are set apart for me. I am their God.
8Consider them as holy, because they offer up food to me. Consider them as holy, because I am holy. I am the LORD. I make you holy.

9“ ‘Suppose a priest’s daughter makes herself “unclean” by becoming a prostitute. Then she brings shame on her father. She must be burned to death.

10“ ‘The high priest is the one among his brothers whose head has been anointed with olive oil. He has been appointed to wear the priest’s clothes. When someone dies, the high priest must not let his own hair hang loose. He must not tear his clothes to show how sad he is. 11He must not enter a place where there is a dead body. He must not make himself “unclean,” even if his father or mother dies. 12He must not leave the sacred tent of the LORD to take part in burying a body. That would bring shame on the tent. The anointing oil has set the high priest apart. I am the LORD.

13“ ‘The woman the high priest gets married to must be a virgin. 14He must not marry a widow or a woman who is divorced. He must not marry a woman who is “unclean” because she is a prostitute. He must only marry a virgin. She must come from his own people. 15If he doesn’t marry a virgin, he makes the children he has by her “unclean.” I am the LORD. I make him holy.’ ” 16The LORD said to Moses, 17“Speak to Aaron. Tell him, ‘No man in your family line with any flaws may come near to offer food to the LORD. This is true for all time to come. 18No man who has any flaws can come near. No man who is blind or disabled can come. No man whose body is scarred or twisted can come. 19No man whose foot or hand is disabled can come. 20No man whose back is bent can come. No man who is too short can come. No man who has anything wrong with his eyes can come. No man who has boils or running sores can come. No man whose sex glands are crushed can come. 21No man with any flaws who is in the family line of Aaron the priest may come near me. He can’t come to bring the food offerings to the LORD. If he has any flaws, he must not come near to offer food to the LORD. 22He can eat the holy food. He can also eat my very holy food. 23But because he has a flaw, he must not go near the curtain or approach the altar. If he does, he will make my sacred tent “unclean.” I am the LORD. I make everything holy.’ ”

24So Moses told all these things to Aaron and his sons. He also told them to all the Israelites.

Leviticus 22

[1]The LORD said to Moses, [2]“Here is what I want you to tell Aaron and his sons. Tell them to treat the sacred offerings with respect. They are the offerings the Israelites set apart to honor me. So Aaron and his sons must never treat my name as if it were not holy. I am the LORD.

[3]“Say to them, ‘Suppose a man in your family line is “unclean.” And suppose he comes near the sacred offerings. They are the offerings the Israelites set apart to honor me. That man must not be allowed to serve me as a priest. That applies for all time to come. I am the LORD.

[4]“ ‘Suppose a man in Aaron’s family line has a skin disease. Or suppose liquid waste is flowing out of his body. Then he can’t eat the sacred offerings until he is made pure and clean. Suppose he touches something made “unclean” by coming near a dead body. Or suppose he touches someone who has semen flowing from his body. Then he will be “unclean.” [5]Or suppose he touches any crawling thing that makes him “unclean.” Or suppose he touches any person who makes him “unclean.” It does not matter what “unclean” thing he touches. It will make him “unclean.” [6]The one who touches anything of that kind will be “unclean” until evening. He must not eat any of the sacred offerings unless he has taken a bath. [7]When the sun goes down, he will be “clean.” After that, he can eat the sacred offerings. They are his food. [8]He must not eat anything found dead or torn apart by wild animals. If he does, it will make him “unclean.” I am the LORD.

[9]“ ‘The priests must do what I require. But suppose they make fun of what I require. Then they will become guilty and die. I am the LORD. I make them holy.

[10]“ ‘Only a member of a priest’s family can eat the sacred offering. The guest of a priest can’t eat it. A priest’s hired worker can’t eat it either. [11]But suppose a priest buys a slave with money. Or suppose slaves are born in his house. Then they can eat the sacred food. [12]Suppose a priest’s daughter marries someone who is not a priest. Then she can’t eat any of the food brought as a sacred gift. [13]But suppose the priest’s daughter becomes a widow or is divorced. She does not have any children. And she returns to live in her father’s house, where she lived when she was young. Then she can eat her father’s food. But a person who does not belong to a priest’s family can’t eat any of it.

[14]“ ‘Suppose someone eats a sacred offering by mistake. Then they must pay back the priest for the offering. They must also add a fifth of its value to it. [15]The priests must not allow the sacred offerings to become “unclean.” They are the offerings the Israelites bring to the LORD. 16The priests must not allow the offerings to become “unclean” by letting the people eat them. If they do, they will bring guilt on the people. They will have to pay for what they have done. I am the LORD. I make them holy.’ ”

Sacrifices the LORD Does Not Accept

17The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, 18“Speak to Aaron and his sons. Speak to all the Israelites. Tell them, ‘Suppose any of you brings a gift for a burnt offering to the LORD. It does not matter whether you are an Israelite or an outsider who lives in Israel. It does not matter whether you bring the offering to keep a promise or because you choose to give it. 19You must bring a male animal without any flaws if you want the LORD to accept it from you. It does not matter whether it is from your cattle, sheep or goats. 20Do not bring an animal that has any flaws. If you do, the LORD will not accept it from you. 21Suppose any of you brings an animal for a friendship offering to the LORD. Then it must not have any flaws at all. If it does, the LORD will not accept it. It does not matter whether the animal is from your herd or flock. It does not matter whether you bring it to keep a promise or because you choose to give it. 22Do not offer a blind animal to the LORD. Do not bring a hurt or wounded animal. And do not offer one that has warts or boils or running sores. Do not place any of them on the altar as a food offering presented to the LORD. 23But suppose you bring an offering you choose to give. Then you can bring an ox or a sheep whose body is twisted or too small. But the LORD will not accept it if you offer it to keep a promise. 24You must not offer the LORD a male animal whose sex glands have been hurt. The glands also must not be crushed, torn or cut. You must not offer that kind of animal in your own land. 25And you must not accept that kind of animal from someone who comes from another land. You must not offer it as food for your God. He will not accept it from you. Its body is twisted and has flaws.’ ”

26The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, 27“When a calf, lamb or goat is born, it must remain with its mother for seven days. From the eighth day on, I will accept it as a food offering presented to me. 28Do not kill a cow and its calf on the same day. Do not kill a female sheep and its lamb on the same day.

29“Sacrifice a thank offering to me in the right way. Then I will accept it from you. 30You must eat it that same day. Do not leave any of it until morning. I am

the LORD.

31“Obey my commands. Follow them. I am the LORD. 32Do not treat my name as if it were not holy. The Israelites must recognize me as the holy God. I am the LORD. I made you holy. 33I brought you out of Egypt to be your God. I am the LORD.”

Leviticus 23

The Appointed Feast Days

[1]The LORD said to Moses, [2]“Speak to the Israelites. Tell them, ‘Here are my appointed feast days. They are the appointed feast days of the LORD. Tell the people that they must come together for these sacred assemblies.

The Sabbath Day

[3]“ ‘There are six days when you can work. But the seventh day is a day of sabbath rest. You must rest on it. Come together on that sacred day. You must not do any work on it. No matter where you live, it is a Sabbath day to honor the LORD.

Passover and Unleavened Bread

[4]“ ‘Here are the LORD’s appointed feasts. Tell the people that they must come together for these sacred gatherings at their appointed times. [5]The LORD’s Passover begins when the sun goes down on the 14th day of the first month.
[6]The LORD’s Feast of Unleavened Bread begins on the 15th day of that month.
For seven days you must eat bread made without yeast. [7]On the first day you must come together for a special service. Do not do any regular work on that day. [8]On each of the seven days bring a food offering to the LORD. On the seventh day come together for a special service. Do not do any regular work on that day.’ ”

The First Share of Israel’s Crops Belongs to the LORD

[9]The LORD said to Moses, [10]“Speak to the Israelites. Tell them, ‘When you enter the land I am going to give you, bring an offering to the LORD. Gather your crops. Bring the first bundle of grain to the priest. [11]He must lift up the grain and wave it in front of the LORD. Then the LORD will accept it from you.
The priest must wave it on the day after the Sabbath. [12]On the day he waves the grain for you, you must sacrifice a burnt offering to me. It must be a lamb that does not have any flaws. It must be a year old. [13]You must bring it together with its grain offering. The grain offering must be seven pounds of the finest flour.
Mix it with olive oil. It is a food offering presented to the LORD. It has a pleasant smell. You must offer a drink offering along with the burnt offering. It must be a quart of wine. [14]You must not eat any bread until the day you bring your offering to the LORD your God. You must not eat any cooked grain or any of your first grain until that time. This is a law that will last for all time to come. It applies no matter where you live.

The Feast of Weeks

[15]“ ‘The day you brought the grain for the wave offering was the day after the Sabbath. Count off seven full weeks from that day. [16]Count off 50 days up to the day after the seventh Sabbath. On that day bring to the LORD an offering of your first grain. [17]Bring two loaves of bread that are made with seven pounds of the finest flour. They must be baked with yeast. Bring them to me as a wave offering from the first share of your crops. That applies no matter where you live. [18]Together with the bread, bring seven male lambs. Each lamb must be a year old. It must not have any flaws. Also bring one young bull and two rams. They will be a burnt offering to the LORD. They will be offered together with their grain offerings and drink offerings. They are food offerings. Their smell pleases the LORD. [19]Then sacrifice one male goat for a sin offering. Also sacrifice two lambs for a friendship offering. Each of the lambs must be a year old. [20]The priest must lift up the two lambs and wave them in front of me as a wave offering. He must offer them together with the bread made out of the first share of your crops. They are a sacred offering to the LORD. They will be given to the priest. [21]On that same day tell the people that they must come together for a special worship service. They must not do any regular work. That is a law that will last for all time to come. It applies no matter where you live.

[22]“ ‘Suppose you are gathering your crops. Then do not harvest all the way to the edges of your field. And do not pick up the grain you missed. Leave some for the poor people and the outsiders who live among you. I am the LORD your God.’ ”

The Feast of Trumpets

[23]The LORD said to Moses, [24]“Say to the Israelites, ‘On the first day of the seventh month you must have a day of sabbath rest. It must be a special service announced with trumpet blasts. [25]Do not do any regular work on that day. Instead, bring a food offering to the LORD.’ ”

The Day When Sin Is Paid For

[26]The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, [27]"The tenth day of the seventh month is the day when sin is paid for. Come together for a special service. Do not eat any food. Bring a food offering to the LORD. [28]Do not do any work on that day. It is the day when sin is paid for. On that day your sin will be paid for in my sight. I am the LORD your God. [29]Suppose you do eat food on that day. Then you will be separated from your people. [30]I will destroy anyone among your people who does any work on that day. [31]You must not do any work at all. This is a law that will last for all time to come. It applies no matter where you live. [32]That day is a day of sabbath rest for you. You must rest on it. You must not eat anything on that day. You must follow the rules of the sabbath rest. Follow them from the evening of the ninth day of the month until the following evening."

The Feast of Booths

[33]The LORD said to Moses, [34]"Say to the Israelites, 'On the 15th day of the seventh month the LORD's Feast of Booths begins. It lasts for seven days. [35]On the first day you must come together for a special service. Do not do any regular work on that day. [36]On each of the seven days bring a food offering to the LORD. On the eighth day come together for a special service. Bring a food offering to the LORD. That special service is the closing service. Do not do any regular work on that day.

[37]" 'These are the LORD's appointed feasts. Tell the people that they must come together for these sacred assemblies. During those times, the people must bring food offerings to the LORD. They are burnt offerings and grain offerings. They are sacrifices and drink offerings. Each offering must be brought at its required time. [38]The offerings are in addition to those of the days of sabbath rest. The offerings are also in addition to your gifts and anything you have promised. They are also in addition to all the offerings you choose to give to the LORD.

[39]" 'Begin with the 15th day of the seventh month. That is after you have gathered your crops. On that day celebrate the LORD's Feast of Booths for seven days. The first day is a day of rest. The eighth day is also a day of rest. [40]On the first day you must get branches from palms, willows and other leafy trees. You must be filled with joy in front of the LORD your God for seven days. [41]Celebrate the LORD's Feast of Booths for seven days each year. This is a law that will last for all time to come. Celebrate the feast in the seventh month. [42]Live in booths for seven days. All the Israelites must live in booths. [43]Then your children after you will know that I made the Israelites live in booths. I made them do it after I brought them out of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.’ ”

[44]So Moses announced to the Israelites the appointed feasts of the LORD.

Leviticus 24

Olive Oil, Bread and Incense

1The LORD said to Moses, 2"Command the Israelites to bring you clear oil made from pressed olives. Use it to keep the lamps burning and giving light all the time. 3Aaron must take care of the lamps in front of the LORD from evening until morning all the time. This is a law that will last for all time to come. The lamps are outside the curtain in front of the tablets of the covenant law in the tent of meeting. 4The lamps are on the pure gold lampstand in front of the LORD.
They must be taken care of all the time.

5"Get the finest flour and bake 12 loaves of bread. Use seven pounds of flour for each loaf. 6Arrange them in two stacks. Put six loaves in each stack on the table made out of pure gold. The table stands in front of the LORD. 7By each stack put some pure incense. It will remind you that all good things come from the LORD. Burn the incense in place of the bread. The incense is a food offering presented to the LORD. 8The bread must be set out in front of the LORD regularly. Do it every Sabbath day. It will be Israel's duty to provide it for all time to come. 9The bread belongs to Aaron and his sons. They must eat it in the holy area. It is a very holy part of their regular share of the food offerings presented to the LORD."

A Person Who Speaks Evil Is Put to Death

10There was a man who had an Israelite mother. His father was born in Egypt.
The man went out among the Israelites. A fight broke out in the camp between him and an Israelite. 11The son of the Israelite woman spoke evil things against the LORD by using a curse. So the people brought him to Moses. The name of the man's mother was Shelomith. She was the daughter of Dibri. Dibri was from the tribe of Dan. 12The people kept her son under guard until they could find out what the LORD wanted them to do.

13Then the LORD spoke to Moses. He said, 14"Get the man who spoke evil things against the LORD. Take him outside the camp. All those who heard him say those things must place their hands on his head. Then the whole community must kill him by throwing stones at him. 15Say to the Israelites, 'Anyone who curses me will be held accountable. 16Anyone who speaks evil things against my Name must be put to death. The whole community must kill them by throwing stones at them. It does not matter whether they are an outsider or an Israelite. When they speak evil things against my Name, they must be put to death.

17“ ‘Anyone who kills another human being must be put to death. 18Anyone who kills someone’s animal must pay its owner. A life must be taken for a life. 19Suppose someone hurts their neighbor. Then what they have done must be done to them. 20A bone must be broken for a bone. An eye must be put out for an eye. A tooth must be knocked out for a tooth. The one who has hurt his neighbor must be hurt in the same way. 21Whoever kills an animal must pay its owner. But if they kill a human being, they must be put to death. 22The same law applies whether they are an outsider or an Israelite. I am the LORD your God.’ ”

23Then Moses spoke to the Israelites. They got the man who had spoken evil things against the LORD. They took him outside the camp. There they killed him by throwing stones at him. The Israelites did just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 25

The Sabbath Year

[1]The LORD spoke to Moses at Mount Sinai. He said, [2]"Speak to the Israelites. Tell them, 'You will enter the land I am going to give you. When you do, you must honor the LORD every seventh year by not farming the land that year. [3]For six years plant your fields. Trim the branches in your vineyards and gather your crops. [4]But the seventh year must be a year of sabbath rest for the land. The land must rest during it. It is a sabbath year to honor the LORD. Do not plant your fields. Do not trim the branches in your vineyards. [5]Do not gather what grows without being planted. And do not gather the grapes from the vines you have not taken care of. The land must have a year of rest. [6]Anything the land produces during the sabbath year will be food for you. It will be for you and your male and female servants. Your hired workers will eat it. So will people who live with you for a while. [7]And so will your livestock and the wild animals that are in your land. Anything the land produces can be eaten.

The Year of Jubilee

[8]" 'Count off seven sabbath years. Count off seven times seven years. The seven sabbath years add up to a total of 49 years. [9]The tenth day of the seventh month is the day when sin is paid for. On that day blow the trumpet all through your land. [10]Set the 50th year apart. Announce freedom all over the land to everyone who lives there. The 50th year will be a Year of Jubilee for you. Each of you must return to your own family property. And each of you must return to your own tribe. [11]The 50th year will be a Year of Jubilee for you. Do not plant anything. Do not gather what grows without being planted. And do not gather the grapes from the vines you have not taken care of. [12]It is a Year of Jubilee. It will be holy for you. Eat only what the fields produce.

[13]" 'In the Year of Jubilee all of you must return to your own property.

[14]" 'Suppose you sell land to any of your own people. Or you buy land from them. Then do not take advantage of each other. [15]The price you pay must be based on the number of years since the last Year of Jubilee. Here is how the price you charge must be decided. It must be based on the number of years left for gathering crops before the next Year of Jubilee. [16]When there are many years left, you must raise the price. When there are only a few years left, you must lower the price. That is because what is really being sold to you is the number of crops the land will produce. [17]Do not take advantage of each other. Instead, have respect for your God. I am the LORD your God.

[18]“ ‘Follow my rules. Be careful to obey my laws. Then you will live safely in the land. [19]The land will produce its fruit. You will eat as much as you want. And you will live there in safety. [20]Suppose you say, “In the seventh year we will not plant anything or gather our crops. So what will we eat?” [21]I will send you a great blessing in the sixth year. The land will produce enough for three years. [22]While you plant during the eighth year, you will eat food from the old crop. You will continue to eat food from it until the crops from the ninth year are gathered.

[23]“ ‘The land must not be sold without a way of getting it back. That is because it belongs to me. You are only outsiders and strangers in my land. [24]You must make sure that you can buy the land back. That applies to all the land that belongs to you.

[25]“ ‘Suppose one of your own people becomes poor. And suppose they have to sell some of their land. Then their nearest relative must come and buy back what they have sold. [26]But suppose they do not have anyone to buy it back for them. And suppose things go well for them and they earn enough money to buy it back themselves. [27]Then they must decide how much the crops have become worth since the time they sold the land. They must take that amount off the price the land was sold for. They must give the one selling it back to them the money that is left. Then they can go back to their own property. [28]But suppose they have not earned enough money to pay them back. Then the buyer they sold the land to will keep it until the Year of Jubilee. At that time it will be returned to them. Then they can go back to their property.

[29]“ ‘Suppose someone sells a house in a city that has a wall around it. Then for a full year after they sell it they have the right to buy it back. [30]But suppose they do not buy it back before the full year has passed. Then the house in the walled city will continue to belong to the buyer and the buyer’s children. It will not be returned to the seller in the Year of Jubilee. [31]But houses in villages that do not have walls around them must be treated like property outside walled cities. Those houses can be bought back at any time. And they must be returned in the Year of Jubilee.

[32]“ ‘The Levites always have the right to buy back their houses in the towns that belong to them. [33]So their property among the Israelites can be bought back. That applies to a house sold in any of their towns. Any house that is sold must be returned to its original owner in the Year of Jubilee. That is because the houses of the Levites will always belong to them. [34]But the grasslands around their towns must never be sold. They will belong to them for all time to come.

[35]“ ‘Suppose any of your own people become poor. And suppose they can’t take care of themselves. Then help them just as you would help an outsider or a stranger. In that way, the poor can continue to live among you. [36]Do not charge them interest of any kind. Instead, have respect for God. Then those who have become poor can continue to live among you. [37]If you lend them money, you must not charge them interest. And you must not sell them food for more than it cost you. [38]I am the LORD your God. I brought you out of Egypt. I did it to give you the land of Canaan. I wanted to be your God.

[39]“ ‘Suppose any of your own people become poor. And suppose they sell themselves to you. Then do not make them work as slaves. [40]You must treat them like hired workers. Or you must treat them like those living among you for a while. They must work for you until the Year of Jubilee. [41]Then they and their children must be set free. They will go back to their own tribes. They will go back to the property their people have always owned. [42]The Israelites are my servants. I brought them out of Egypt. So they must not be sold as slaves. [43]Show them pity when you rule over them. Have respect for God.

[44]“ ‘You must get your male and female slaves from the nations that are around you. You can buy slaves from them. [45]You can also buy as slaves some of the people living among you for a while. You can also buy members of their families born among you. They will become your property. [46]You can leave them to your children as their share of your property. You can make them slaves for life. But when you rule over your own people, you must be kind to them.

[47]“ ‘Suppose an outsider living among you for a while becomes rich. Then suppose any of your own people become poor. Then they sell themselves to the outsider living among you. Or they sell themselves to a member of the outsider’s family. [48]Then they keep the right to buy themselves back after they have sold themselves. One of their relatives can buy them back. [49]An uncle or a cousin can buy them back after they have sold themselves. In fact, any relative in their tribe can do it. Or suppose things go well for them. Then they can buy themselves back. [50]They and their buyer must count the number of years from the time of the sale up to the Year of Jubilee. The price for their freedom must be based on the amount paid to a hired man for that number of years. [51]Suppose there are many years until the Year of Jubilee. Then for their freedom they must pay a larger share of the price paid for them. [52]But suppose there are only a few years left until the Year of Jubilee. Then they must count the number of years that are left. The payment for their freedom must be based on that number. [53]They must be treated as workers hired from year to year. You must make sure that those they must work for are kind to them when they rule over them.

[54]“ ‘Suppose they are not bought back in any of those ways. Then they and their children must still be set free in the Year of Jubilee. [55]That’s because the Israelites belong to me. They are my servants. I brought them out of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 26

Rewards for Obeying the LORD

1“ ‘Do not make statues of gods for yourselves. Do not set up a likeness of a god or a sacred stone for yourselves. Do not place a carved stone in your land and bow down in front of it. I am the LORD your God.
2“ ‘You must always keep my Sabbath days. Have respect for my sacred tent. I am the LORD.
3“ ‘Follow my rules. Be careful to obey my commands. 4Then I will send you rain at the right time. The ground will produce its crops. The trees will bear their fruit. 5You will continue to harvest your grain until you gather your grapes. You will continue to gather your grapes until you plant your crops. You will have all you want to eat. And you will live in safety in your land.
6“ ‘I will give you peace in the land. You will be able to sleep because no one will make you afraid. I will remove wild animals from the land. There will not be any war in your country. 7You will hunt down your enemies. You will kill them with your swords. 8Five of you will chase 100. And 100 of you will chase 10,000. You will kill your enemies with your swords.
9“ ‘I will bless you. I will give you many children so that there will be many of you. And I will be faithful to the covenant I made with you. 10You will still be eating last year’s crops when you will have to make room for new crops. 11I will live among you. I will not turn away from you. 12I will walk among you. I will be your God. And you will be my people. 13I am the LORD your God. I brought you out of Egypt. I did not want you to be slaves in Egypt anymore. I threw off your heavy load. I helped you walk with your heads held high.

Punishment for Not Obeying the LORD

14“ ‘On the other hand, suppose you do not listen to me. Suppose you do not carry out all my commands. 15Suppose you say no to my rules and turn away from my laws. And suppose you break my covenant by failing to carry out all my commands. 16Then here is what I will do to you. All at once I will bring terror on you. I will send sicknesses that will make you weak. I will send fever that will destroy your sight. It will slowly take your strength away. When you plant seeds, it will not do you any good. Instead, your enemies will eat what you have planted. [17]I will turn against you. Then your enemies will win the battle over you. Those who hate you will rule over you. You will run away even when no one is chasing you.

[18]“ ‘After all that, suppose you still will not listen to me. Then I will punish you for your sins seven times. [19]I will break down your stubborn pride. I will make the sky above you like iron, and it will not rain. I will make the ground under you like bronze, and you will not be able to farm it. [20]You will work with all your strength, but it will not do you any good. That is because your soil will not produce any crops. The trees of your land will not bear any fruit.

[21]“ ‘Suppose you continue to be my enemy. And suppose you still refuse to listen to me. Then I will multiply your troubles many times because of your sins. [22]I will send wild animals against you. They will kill your children. They will destroy your cattle. There will be so few of you left that your roads will be deserted.

[23]“ ‘After all those things, suppose you still do not accept my warnings. And suppose you continue to be my enemy. [24]Then I myself will be your enemy. I will make you suffer again and again for your sins. [25]I will send war against you to punish you for breaking my covenant. When you go back into your cities, I will send a plague among you. You will be handed over to your enemies. [26]I will cut off your supply of bread. Ten women will need only one oven to bake your bread. They will weigh out the bread piece by piece. Even when you eat all of it, it will not be enough to satisfy you.

[27]“ ‘After all that, suppose you still do not listen to me. And suppose you continue to be my enemy. [28]Then I will be angry with you. I will be your enemy. I myself will again punish you for your sins over and over. [29]You will eat the dead bodies of your sons. You will also eat the dead bodies of your daughters. [30]I will destroy the high places where you worship other gods. I will pull down your incense altars. I will pile up your dead bodies on the lifeless statues of your gods. And I will turn away from you. [31]I will completely destroy your cities. I will destroy your places of worship. The pleasant smell of your offerings will not give me any delight. [32]I myself will destroy your land so completely that your enemies who live there will be shocked. [33]I will scatter you among the nations. I will pull out my sword and hunt you down. Your land and your cities will be completely destroyed. [34]Then the deserted land will enjoy its sabbath years. It will rest. It will not be farmed. It will enjoy its sabbaths. But you will become prisoners in the country of your enemies. [35]The land will rest the whole time it is deserted. It was not able to rest during the sabbaths you lived in it.

36“ ‘Some of you will be left in the lands of your enemies. I will fill your hearts with fear. The sound of a leaf blown by the wind will scare you away. You will run as if you were escaping from swords. You will fall down, even though no one is chasing you. 37You will trip over one another as if you were running away from the battle. You will run away, even though no one is chasing you. You will not be able to stand and fight against your enemies. 38While you are still scattered among the nations, you will die. The lands of your enemies will destroy you. 39You who are left in those lands will become weaker and weaker. You will die because of your sins and the sins of your people who lived before you.

40“ ‘But suppose you admit that both you and your people who lived before you have sinned. You admit the evil and dishonest things you have done against me. And you admit you have become my enemy. 41What you did made me become your enemy. I let your enemies take you into their land. But suppose you stop being stubborn. You stop being proud. And you pay for your sin. 42Then I will remember my covenant with Jacob. I will remember my covenant with Isaac. I will remember my covenant with Abraham. I will remember what I said to them about the land. 43You will leave the land. It will enjoy its sabbaths while it lies deserted because you are not there. You will pay for your sins because you said no to my laws. You turned away from my rules. 44But even after all that, I will not say no to you or turn away from you. I will not destroy you completely in the land of your enemies. I will not break my covenant with you. I am the LORD your God. 45Because of you, I will remember the covenant I made with the people of Israel who lived before you. I brought them out of Egypt to be their God. The nations saw me do it. I am the LORD.’ ”

46These are the orders, the laws and the rules of the covenant the LORD made on Mount Sinai. He made it between himself and the Israelites through Moses.

Leviticus 27

Keep Your Promises to the LORD

[1]The LORD said to Moses, [2]“Speak to the Israelites. Tell them, ‘Suppose someone makes a special promise to set a person apart to serve the LORD. Here is how much it will cost to set that person free from the promise to serve. [3]The cost for a male between the ages of twenty and sixty is 20 ounces of silver. It must be weighed out in keeping with the standard weights that are used in the sacred tent. [4]The cost for a female of the same age is 12 ounces of silver. [5]The cost for a male between the ages of five and twenty is 8 ounces of silver. The cost for a female of the same age is 4 ounces of silver. [6]The cost for a male between the ages of one month and five years is 2 ounces of silver. The cost for a female of the same age is 1 ounce of silver. [7]The cost for a male who is sixty years old or more is 6 ounces of silver. The cost for a female of the same age is 4 ounces of silver. [8]But suppose the one who makes the special promise is too poor to pay the required amount. Then they must bring to the priest the person who will be set free. The priest will decide the right value for that person. It will be based on how much the one who makes the promise can afford.

[9]“ ‘Suppose what they promised is an animal that the LORD will accept as an offering. Then the animal given to the LORD becomes holy. [10]The one who makes the promise must not trade it. They must not trade a good animal for a bad one. And they must not trade a bad animal for a good one. Suppose they choose one animal instead of another. Then both animals become holy. [11]Suppose the animal they promised is not “clean.” Suppose the LORD will not accept it as an offering. Then the animal must be brought to the priest. [12]He will decide whether it is good or bad. Its value will be what he decides it will be. [13]Suppose the owner wants to buy the animal back. Then a fifth must be added to its cost.

[14]“ ‘Suppose someone sets apart their house as something holy to the LORD. Then the priest will decide whether it is good or bad. Its value will remain what he decides it will be. [15]Suppose the person sets apart their house. And suppose later they want to buy it back. Then they must add a fifth to its value. The house will belong to them again.

[16]“ ‘Suppose someone sets apart a piece of their family’s land to the LORD. Then here is how its value must be decided. It must be based on the number of seeds that are required to grow a full crop on it. That value will be 20 ounces of silver for every 300 pounds of barley seeds. [17]Suppose they set apart their field during the Year of Jubilee. Then the value that has been decided will not be changed. [18]But suppose they set apart their field after the Year of Jubilee. Then here is how the priest will decide its value. It will be based on the number of years that are left until the next Year of Jubilee. The value decided will be reduced. [19]Suppose the one who set apart their field wants to buy it back. Then they must add a fifth to its value. The field will belong to them again. [20]But suppose they do not buy back the field. Instead, suppose they sell it to someone else. Then they can never buy it back. [21]When the field is set free in the Year of Jubilee, it will become holy. It will be like a field set apart to the LORD. It will become the property of the priests.

[22]“ ‘Suppose someone sets apart to the LORD a field they have bought. And suppose it is not part of their family’s land. [23]Then here is how the priest will decide its value. It will be based on the number of years that are left until the Year of Jubilee. The owner must pay that value on the day it is decided. The money is holy. It is set apart for the LORD. [24]In the Year of Jubilee the field will go back to the person it was bought from. That person is the one who had owned the land before. [25]Every amount of money must be weighed out in keeping with the standard weights used in the sacred tent.

[26]“ ‘But no one can set apart the first male animal born to its mother. That animal already belongs to the LORD. It does not matter whether it is an ox or a sheep. It belongs to the LORD. [27]Suppose it is an “unclean” animal. Then the owner may buy it back at the value that has been decided. And they must add a fifth to its value. But suppose it is not bought back. Then it must be sold at the value that has been decided.

[28]“ ‘But nothing a person owns and sets apart to the LORD can be sold or bought back. It does not matter whether it is a human being or an animal or a family’s land. Everything set apart to the LORD is very holy to him.

[29]“ ‘No one set apart in a special way to be destroyed can be bought back. They must be put to death.

[30]“ ‘A tenth of everything the land produces belongs to the LORD. That includes grain from the soil and fruit from the trees. It is holy. It is set apart for him. [31]Suppose someone wants to buy back some of their tenth. Then they must add a fifth of the cost to it. [32]Every tenth part of herds and flocks will be holy. They will be set apart for the LORD. That includes every tenth animal that its shepherd marks with his wooden staff. [33]No one may pick out the good animals from the bad. They must not choose one animal instead of another. But if anyone does, both animals become holy. They can’t be bought back.’ ”

[34]The LORD gave Moses all these commands on Mount Sinai for the Israelites.

Numbers

Numbers 1

The Men of Israel Are Counted

[1]The LORD spoke to Moses in the tent of meeting. It happened in the Desert of Sinai. The LORD spoke to him on the first day of the second month. It was the second year after the Israelites came out of Egypt. The LORD said, [2]"Count all the men of Israel. Make a list of them by their tribes and families. List every man by name. List them one by one. [3]Count all the men able to serve in the army. They must be 20 years old or more. I want you and Aaron to make a list of them group by group. [4]One man from each tribe must help you. Those who help must be the heads of their families.

[5]Here are the names of the men who must help you.

"From the tribe of Reuben will come Elizur, the son of Shedeur.
[6]From the tribe of Simeon will come Shelumiel, the son of Zurishaddai.
[7]From the tribe of Judah will come Nahshon, the son of Amminadab.
[8]From the tribe of Issachar will come Nethanel, the son of Zuar.
[9]From the tribe of Zebulun will come Eliab, the son of Helon.
[10]From the tribe of Ephraim will come Elishama, the son of Ammihud.
From the tribe of Manasseh will come Gamaliel, the son of Pedahzur.
Ephraim and Manasseh are Joseph's two sons.
[11]From the tribe of Benjamin will come Abidan, the son of Gideoni.
[12]From the tribe of Dan will come Ahiezer, the son of Ammishaddai.
[13]From the tribe of Asher will come Pagiel, the son of Okran.
[14]From the tribe of Gad will come Eliasaph, the son of Deuel.
[15]From the tribe of Naphtali will come Ahira, the son of Enan."
[16]These were the men appointed from the community. They were the leaders of the tribes of their people. They were the heads of the major families in Israel.

[17]Moses and Aaron went and got the men whose names had been given to them. [18]Then Moses and Aaron gathered all the men of Israel together. It was the first day of the second month. The people wrote down the tribe and family they belonged to. The men 20 years old or more were listed by name. They were listed one by one. [19]Everything was done just as the LORD had commanded Moses. So Moses counted them in the Desert of Sinai.

[20]Here is the number of men from the tribe of Reuben. He is Israel's oldest son.
All the men able to serve in the army were counted. They were 20 years old or more. They were listed by name. They were listed one by one. They were listed according to the records of their tribes and families. [21]The number from the tribe of Reuben was 46,500.

[22]Here is the number of men from the tribe of Simeon.
All the men able to serve in the army were counted. They were 20 years old or more. They were listed by name. They were listed one by one. They were listed according to the records of their tribes and families. [23]The number from the tribe of Simeon was 59,300.

[24]Here is the number of men from the tribe of Gad.
All the men able to serve in the army were counted. They were 20 years old or more. They were listed by name. They were listed according to the records of their tribes and families. [25]The number from the tribe of Gad was 45,650.

[26]Here is the number of men from the tribe of Judah.
All the men able to serve in the army were counted. They were 20 years old or more. They were listed by name. They were listed according to the records of their tribes and families. [27]The number from the tribe of Judah was 74,600.

[28]Here is the number of men from the tribe of Issachar.
All the men able to serve in the army were counted. They were 20 years old or more. They were listed by name. They were listed according to the records of their tribes and families. [29]The number from the tribe of Issachar was 54,400.

[30]Here is the number of men from the tribe of Zebulun.
All the men able to serve in the army were counted. They were 20 years old or more. They were listed by name. They were listed according to the records of their tribes and families. [31]The number from the tribe of Zebulun was 57,400.

[32]Here is the number of men from the tribe of Ephraim. He is the son of Joseph.
All the men able to serve in the army were counted. They were 20 years old or more. They were listed by name. They were listed according to the records of their tribes and families. [33]The number from the tribe of Ephraim was 40,500.

[34]Here is the number of men from the tribe of Manasseh. He is the son of Joseph.
All the men able to serve in the army were counted. They were 20 years old or more. They were listed by name. They were listed according to the records of their tribes and families. [35]The number from the tribe of Manasseh was 32,200.

[36]Here is the number of men from the tribe of Benjamin.
All the men able to serve in the army were counted. They were 20 years old or more. They were listed by name. They were listed according to the records of their tribes and families. [37]The number from the tribe of Benjamin was 35,400.

[38]Here is the number of men from the tribe of Dan.
All the men able to serve in the army were counted. They were 20 years old or more. They were listed by name. They were listed according to the records of their tribes and families. [39]The number from the tribe of Dan was 62,700.

[40]Here is the number of men from the tribe of Asher.
All the men able to serve in the army were counted. They were 20 years old or more. They were listed by name. They were listed according to the records of their tribes and families. [41]The number from the tribe of Asher was 41,500.

[42]Here is the number of men from the tribe of Naphtali.
All the men able to serve in the army were counted. They were 20 years old or more. They were listed by name. They were listed according to the records of their tribes and families. [43]The number from the tribe of Naphtali was 53,400.

[44]These were the men counted by Moses and Aaron. The 12 leaders of Israel helped them. There was one leader from each tribe. [45]The men who were counted were able to serve in Israel's army. All of them were 20 years old or more. They were counted family by family. [46]The total number of men was 603,550.

[47]But the families of the tribe of Levi were not counted along with the others. [48]The LORD had spoken to Moses. He had said, [49]"You must not count the men from the tribe of Levi. Do not include them when you list the other men of Israel. [50]Instead, put the Levites in charge of the holy tent. That is where the tablets of the covenant law are kept. The Levites will be in charge of everything that belongs to the holy tent. They must carry the tent and everything that belongs to it. They must take care of it. They must set up camp around it. [51]When the holy tent must be moved, the Levites must take it down. And when the tent must be set up, the Levites must do it. Anyone else who approaches it must be put to death. [52]The Israelites must set up their tents by military groups. All of them must be in their own camps under their own flags. [53]But the Levites must set up their tents around the holy tent. That's where the tablets of the covenant law are kept. Then I will not be angry with the community of Israel. The Levites will be responsible for taking care of the tent."

[54]The Israelites did everything just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 2

The Tribes Camp Around the Tent of Meeting

[1]The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron. He said, [2]"The Israelites must camp around the tent of meeting. But they must not camp too close to it. All of them must camp under their flags and under the banners of their families."

[3]The groups of the camp of Judah must be on the east side. They must set up camp toward the sunrise. They must camp under their flag. The leader of the tribe of Judah is Nahshon, the son of Amminadab. [4]There are 74,600 men in Nahshon's group.

[5]The tribe of Issachar will camp next to them. The leader of the tribe of Issachar is Nethanel, the son of Zuar. [6]There are 54,400 men in Nethanel's group.

[7]The tribe of Zebulun will be next. The leader of the tribe of Zebulun is Eliab, the son of Helon. [8]There are 57,400 men in Eliab's group.

[9]So a total of 186,400 men will be set apart for the camp of Judah. They will be arranged group by group. They will start out first.

[10]The groups of the camp of Reuben will be on the south side. They will be under their flag. The leader of the tribe of Reuben is Elizur, the son of Shedeur. [11]There are 46,500 men in Elizur's group.

[12]The tribe of Simeon will camp next to them. The leader of the tribe of Simeon is Shelumiel, the son of Zurishaddai. [13]There are 59,300 men in Shelumiel's group.

[14]The tribe of Gad will be next. The leader of the tribe of Gad is Eliasaph, the son of Deuel. [15]There are 45,650 men in Eliasaph's group.

[16]So a total of 151,450 men will be set apart for the camp of Reuben. They will be arranged group by group. They will start out second.

[17]Then the camp of the Levites will start out. The tent of meeting will go with them. They will march in the middle of the other camps. They will start out in the same order as they do when they set up camp. Each one will be in their own place under their flag.

[18]The groups of the camp of Ephraim will be on the west side. They will be under their flag. The leader of the tribe of Ephraim is Elishama, the son of Ammihud. [19]There are 40,500 men in Elishama's group.
[20]The tribe of Manasseh will be next to them. The leader of the tribe of Manasseh is Gamaliel, the son of Pedahzur. [21]There are 32,200 men in Gamaliel's group.
[22]The tribe of Benjamin will be next. The leader of the tribe of Benjamin is Abidan, the son of Gideoni. [23]There are 35,400 men in Abidan's group.
[24]So a total of 108,100 men will be set apart for the camp of Ephraim. They will be arranged group by group. They will start out third.

[25]The groups of the camp of Dan will be on the north side. They will be under their flag. The leader of the tribe of Dan is Ahiezer, the son of Ammishaddai. [26]There are 62,700 men in Ahiezer's group.
[27]The tribe of Asher will camp next to them. The leader of the tribe of Asher is Pagiel, the son of Okran. [28]There are 41,500 men in Pagiel's group.
[29]The tribe of Naphtali will be next. The leader of the tribe of Naphtali is Ahira, the son of Enan. [30]There are 53,400 men in Ahira's group.
[31]So a total of 157,600 men will be set apart for the camp of Dan. They will start out last. They will march under their flags.
[32]Those are the men of Israel. They were counted according to their families. The total number of all the men in the camps is 603,550, group by group. [33]But the Levites weren't counted along with the other men of Israel. That's what the LORD had commanded Moses.

[34]So the Israelites did everything the LORD had commanded Moses. That's the way they set up camp under their flags. And that's the way they started out. Each of them marched out with their own tribe and family.

Numbers 3

The Levites

[1]Here is the story of the family line of Aaron and Moses. It belongs to the time when the LORD spoke to Moses at Mount Sinai.

[2]Aaron's oldest son was Nadab. Aaron's other sons were Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. [3]Those were the names of Aaron's sons. They were the anointed priests. They were given authority to serve the LORD as priests. [4]But Nadab and Abihu made an offering to the LORD by using fire that wasn't allowed. So they died in front of him. That happened in the Desert of Sinai. They didn't have any sons. Only Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests while their father Aaron was living.

[5]The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, [6]"Bring the men of the tribe of Levi to Aaron the priest. They will help him. [7]They must work at the tent of meeting for Aaron and for the whole community. They must do what needs to be done at the holy tent. [8]They must take care of everything connected with the tent of meeting. When they do, they are acting for all the Israelites. [9]Give the Levites to Aaron and his sons. They are the men of Israel who must be given completely to him. [10]Appoint Aaron and his sons to serve as priests. Anyone else who approaches the sacred tent must be put to death."

[11]The LORD also said to Moses, [12]"I have taken the Levites from among the Israelites. I have taken them in place of the son born first to each woman in Israel. The Levites belong to me. [13]That's because every male born first to a mother is mine. In Egypt I struck down all the males born first. I did it when I set apart for myself every male born first to a mother in Israel. That is true for men and animals alike. They belong to me. I am the LORD."

[14]The LORD spoke to Moses in the Desert of Sinai. He said, [15]"Count the Levites by their family groups. Count every male a month old or more." [16]So Moses counted them. He did just as the word of the LORD had commanded him.

[17]The sons of Levi were Gershon, Kohath and Merari.
[18]The major families from Gershon were Libni and Shimei.
[19]The major families from Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.

[20]The major families from Merari were Mahli and Mushi.
These were the major families of the Levites.

[21]The families of Libni and Shimei belonged to the family of Gershon.

[22]All the males a month old or more were counted. There were 7,500 of them.
[23]The families of Gershon had to camp on the west side. They had to camp behind the holy tent.
[24]The leader of the families of Gershon was Eliasaph, the son of Lael.
[25]Here are the duties of the families of Gershon at the tent of meeting. They were responsible for taking care of the holy tent and its coverings. They took care of the curtain at the entrance to the tent of meeting. [26]They took care of the curtains of the courtyard. And they took care of the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard. The courtyard was all around the holy tent and altar. The families of Gershon also took care of the ropes. In fact, they had to take care of everything connected with the use of all those things.

[27]The families of Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel belonged to the family of Kohath.

[28]All the males a month old or more were counted. There were 8,600 of them.
The families of Kohath were responsible for taking care of the sacred tent.
[29]They had to camp on the south side of the holy tent.
[30]The leader of the families of Kohath was Elizaphan, the son of Uzziel.
[31]They were responsible for taking care of the ark of the covenant law. They took care of the table for the holy bread. They took care of the lampstand and the two altars. They took care of the things used for serving in the sacred tent. They also took care of the inner curtain. In fact, they had to take care of everything connected with the use of all those things.
[32]The chief leader of the Levites was Eleazar. He was the son of Aaron the priest. Eleazar was appointed over those responsible for taking care of the sacred tent.

33 The families of Mahli and Mushi belonged to the family of Merari.

34 All the males a month old or more were counted. There were 6,200 of them.
35 The leader of the families of Merari was Zuriel, the son of Abihail.
The families of Merari had to camp on the north side of the holy tent.
36 They were responsible for taking care of the frames of the tent. They took care of its crossbars, posts and bases. They took care of all its supplies. In fact, they had to take care of everything connected with the use of all those things. 37 They also took care of the posts of the courtyard around the holy tent. And they took care of the bases, tent stakes and ropes.

38 Moses, Aaron and Aaron's sons had to camp to the east of the holy tent. They had to camp toward the sunrise in front of the tent of meeting.
They were responsible for taking care of the sacred tent. They had to do it for the Israelites.
Anyone else who approached the tent would be put to death.
39 The total number of the Levite males was 22,000. They were counted family by family. Every male a month old or more was counted. Moses and Aaron counted them, just as the LORD had commanded.

40 The LORD said to Moses, "Count all the Israelite males born first in their families. Count all those a month old or more. Make a list of their names. 41 Take the Levites for me in their place. And take the livestock of the Levites in place of all the male animals in Israel born first to their mothers. I am the LORD."

42 So Moses counted all the oldest sons in Israel. He did just as the LORD had commanded him. 43 There were 22,273 of those sons a month old or more. They were listed by name.

44 The LORD also said to Moses, 45 "Take the Levites in place of all the males born first in Israel. Also take the livestock of the Levites in place of the livestock of Israel. The Levites belong to me. I am the LORD. 46 But there are 273 more males born first in Israel than there are male Levites. 47 Collect two ounces of silver for each of them. Weigh it out according to the standard weights used in the sacred tent. [48]Give the silver to Aaron and his sons. It will buy the freedom of the additional sons in Israel.”

[49]So Moses collected the silver from the additional sons in Israel to buy their freedom. The Levites took the place of all the others. [50]Moses collected 35 pounds of silver. It was weighed out according to the weights used in the sacred tent. Moses collected it from the oldest sons in Israel. [51]He gave the silver to Aaron and his sons. He did just as the LORD had commanded him.

Numbers 4

The Families of Kohath

[1]The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, [2]"Count the Levites who belong to the families of Kohath. Make a list of them family by family. [3]Count all the men 30 to 50 years old. Those are the men who must come and serve at the tent of meeting.

[4]"Here is the work the men of Kohath must do at the tent of meeting. They must take care of the things that are very holy. [5]When the camp is ready to move, Aaron and his sons must go into the tent. They must take down the curtain that hides the ark where the tablets of the covenant law are kept. They must cover the ark with the curtain. [6]Then they must cover that with strong leather. They must spread a solid blue cloth over the leather. And they must put the poles in place.

[7]"They must spread a blue cloth over the table for the holy bread. They must put the plates, dishes and bowls on the cloth. They must also put the jars for drink offerings on it. The bread that is always kept there must remain on it. [8]They must spread a bright red cloth over everything. Then they must cover that with the strong leather. And they must put the poles of the table in place.

[9]"They must get a blue cloth. With it they must cover the lampstand that gives light. They must also cover its lamps, trays and wick cutters. And they must cover all its jars. The jars are for the olive oil used in the lampstand. [10]Then Aaron and his sons must wrap the lampstand and all the things used with it. They must cover it with the strong leather. And they must put it on a frame to carry it.

[11]"They must spread a blue cloth over the gold altar for burning incense. They must cover that with the strong leather. And they must put the poles of the altar in place.

[12]"They must get all the things used for serving in the sacred tent. They must wrap them in a blue cloth. They must cover that with the strong leather. Then they must put those things on a frame to carry them.

[13]"They must remove the ashes from the bronze altar for burnt offerings. They must spread a purple cloth over it. [14]Then they must place all the tools on it. The tools are used for serving at the altar. They include the pans for carrying ashes. They also include the meat forks, shovels and sprinkling bowls. Aaron and his sons must cover the altar with the strong leather. And they must put its poles in place.

15“Aaron and his sons must cover all the holy things that belong to the holy tent. Only then are the men of Kohath to come and carry everything. They must do so only when the camp is ready to move. But they must not touch the holy things. If they do, they will die. The men of Kohath must carry everything in the tent of meeting.

16“Eleazar the priest will be in charge of the olive oil for the light. He is the son of Aaron. Eleazar will be in charge of the sweet-smelling incense. He will be in charge of the regular grain offering and the anointing oil. He will be in charge of the entire holy tent. He will also be in charge of everything in it. That includes all the things that belong to the tent.”

17The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron. He said, 18“Make sure that the Kohath families are not destroyed from among the Levites. 19I want them to live and not die when they come near the very holy things. So here is what you must do for them. Aaron and his sons must go into the sacred tent and tell each man what to do. They must tell each man what to carry. 20But the men of Kohath must not go in and look at the holy things. They must not look at them even for a moment. If they do, they will die.”

The Families of Gershon

21The LORD said to Moses, 22“Count the families of Gershon. Make a list of them family by family. 23Count all the men 30 to 50 years old. Those are the men who must come and serve at the tent of meeting.

24“Here is how the families of Gershon must serve. They must carry things. 25They must carry the curtains of the holy tent of meeting. They must carry its covering and the outside covering of strong leather. They must carry the curtains that cover the entrance to the tent of meeting. 26They must carry the curtains of the courtyard. The courtyard is all around the holy tent and altar. They must carry the curtain for the entrance. They must carry the ropes. They must also carry all the supplies used for any purpose in the tent. The families of Gershon must do everything that needs to be done with those things. 27All their work must be done under the direction of Aaron and his sons. That includes carrying and everything else they do. Aaron and his sons must tell them what to carry. And that will be their work. 28It is what the families of Gershon must do at the tent of meeting. They must work under the direction of Ithamar the priest. He is the son of Aaron.

The Families of Merari

[29]"Count the families of Merari. Count them family by family. [30]Count all the men 30 to 50 years old. Those are the men who must come and serve at the tent of meeting. [31]Here is the work they must do at the tent of meeting. They must carry the frames of the holy tent. They must carry its crossbars, posts and bases. [32]They must also carry the posts of the courtyard. The courtyard is all around the holy tent. And they must carry the bases for the posts as well as their tent stakes and ropes. They must also carry all the supplies and everything connected with their use. Tell each man exactly what to carry. [33]That is the work the families of Merari must do at the tent of meeting. They must work under the direction of Ithamar the priest. He is the son of Aaron."

Counting the Families of the Levites

[34]Moses, Aaron and the leaders of the community counted the men of Kohath. They counted them family by family.

[35]They counted all the men from 30 to 50 years old. They were the men who came and served at the tent of meeting. [36]There were 2,750 men. They were counted family by family. [37]That was the total of all the men in the families of Kohath who served at the tent of meeting. Moses and Aaron counted them. They did just as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

[38]The men of Gershon were counted family by family.

[39]All the men from 30 to 50 years old were counted. They were the men who came and served at the tent of meeting. [40]There were 2,630 men. They were counted family by family. [41]That was the total of the men in the families of Gershon who served at the tent of meeting. Moses and Aaron counted them. They did just as the LORD had commanded.

[42]The men of Merari were counted family by family.

[43]All the men from 30 to 50 years old were counted. They were the men who came and served at the tent of meeting. [44]There were 3,200 men. They were counted family by family. [45]That was the total of the men in the families of Merari. Moses and Aaron counted them. They did just as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

[46]So Moses and Aaron counted all the Levites. The leaders of Israel helped them. They counted the Levites family by family. [47]All the men from 30 to 50 years old were counted. They were the men who came and served at the tent of meeting. They were also supposed to carry it. [48]The total number of men was 8,580. [49]Everything was done as the LORD had commanded through Moses. Each man was given his work. And each one was told what to carry.

So they were counted, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 5

Making the Camp Pure

[1]The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, [2]“Tell the Israelites that certain people must be sent away from the camp. Command them to send away anyone who has a skin disease. They must send away all those who have liquid waste coming from their bodies. And they must send away those who are ‘unclean’ because they have touched a dead body. [3]That applies to men and women alike. Send them out of the camp. They must not make their camp ‘unclean.’ That is where I live among them.” [4]So the Israelites did what the LORD commanded. They sent out of the camp those who were “unclean.” They did just as the LORD had directed Moses.

Sins Against Others Must Be Paid For

[5]The LORD said to Moses, [6]“Speak to the Israelites. Say to them, ‘Suppose a man or woman does something wrong to someone else. Then that person is not being faithful to the LORD. People like that are guilty. [7]They must admit they have committed a sin. They must pay in full for what they did wrong. And they must add a fifth of the value to it. Then they must give all of it to the person they have sinned against. [8]But suppose that person has died. And suppose that person does not have a close relative who can be paid for the sin that was committed. Then what is paid belongs to the LORD. It must be given to the priest. A ram must be given along with it. The ram must be sacrificed to the LORD to pay for the sin. [9]All the sacred gifts the Israelites bring to a priest will belong to him. [10]Sacred gifts belong to their owners. But what they give to the priest will belong to the priest.’ ”

The Test for an Unfaithful Wife

[11]Then the LORD spoke to Moses again. He said, [12]“Speak to the Israelites. Say to them, ‘Suppose a man’s wife goes astray. And suppose she is not faithful to her husband. [13]Suppose another man has sex with her. And suppose this is hidden from her husband. No one knows she is not “clean.” So there is no witness against her. And she has not been caught in the act. [14]Suppose her husband becomes jealous. He does not trust his wife, and she is really “unclean.”

Or suppose he does not trust her even though she is “clean.” [15]Then he must take his wife to the priest. He must also bring an offering. It must be eight cups of barley flour. The offering is for his wife. He must not pour olive oil on it. And he must not put incense on it. It is a grain offering for being jealous. It calls attention to the wrong thing a person has done.

[16]“ ‘The priest must have her stand in front of the LORD. [17]He must pour some holy water into a clay jar. He must get some dust from the floor of the holy tent. And he must put it into the water. [18]The priest must have the woman stand in front of the LORD. Then he must untie her hair. He must place in her hands the offering that calls attention to the wrong thing a person has done. It is the grain offering for being jealous. The priest must keep the bitter water with him. It is the water that brings a curse. [19]Then the priest must have the woman give her word. He must say to her, “Suppose no other man has had sex with you. And suppose you haven’t gone astray. You have kept yourself pure while you are married to your husband. Then may the bitter water that brings a curse not harm you. [20]But suppose you have gone astray while you are married to your husband. You have made yourself ‘unclean.’ You have had sex with a man who isn’t your husband.” [21]At that point the priest must put the woman under the curse that will come if she breaks her word. He must say, “May the LORD cause you to become a curse among your people. You will become a curse when the LORD makes your body unable to have children. [22]May this water that brings a curse enter your body. May it make your body unable to have children.”

“ ‘Then the woman must say, “Amen. Let it happen.”

[23]“ ‘The priest must write the curses on a scroll. He must wash them off in the bitter water. [24]It is the water he will make the woman drink. It is bitter water that brings a curse. It will enter her body. And it will cause her to suffer bitterly. [25]The priest must take from her hands the grain offering for being jealous. He must lift it up and wave it in front of the LORD. He must bring it to the altar. [26]Then the priest must take a handful of the grain offering. It is the offering that calls attention to the wrong thing a person has done. The priest must burn it on the altar. After that, he must have the woman drink the water. [27]Suppose she has made herself “unclean.” She has not been faithful to her husband. And she has drunk the water that brings a curse. Then it will go into her body. It will cause her to suffer bitterly. It will make her body unable to have children. She will become a curse. [28]Suppose the woman has not made herself “unclean.” But suppose she is “clean.” Then she will be free of guilt. And she will be able to have children.

[29]“ ‘This is the law about being jealous. It applies to a woman who has gone astray. She has made herself “unclean” while she is married to her husband. [30]And it applies to a man who becomes jealous. He has doubts about his wife. The priest must have her stand in front of the LORD. He must apply the entire law to her. [31]The husband will not be guilty of doing anything wrong. But the woman will be punished for her sin.’ ”

Numbers 6

Becoming a Nazirite

1The LORD said to Moses, 2“Say to the Israelites, ‘Suppose a man or woman wants to make a special promise. They want to set themselves apart to the LORD for a certain period of time. They want to be Nazirites. 3Then they must not drink any kind of wine. They must not drink vinegar made out of wine of any kind. They must not drink grape juice. They must not eat grapes or raisins.
4As long as they are Nazirites, they must not eat anything grapevines produce.
They must not even eat the seeds or skins of grapes.

5“ ‘They must not use razors on their heads. They must not cut their hair during the whole time they have set themselves apart to the LORD. They must be holy until that time is over. They must let the hair on their heads grow long.

6“ ‘And they must not go near a dead body during that whole time. 7But what if their father or mother dies? Or what if their brother or sister dies? Then they must not make themselves “unclean” because of them. The hair on their heads shows they are set apart for God. 8During the whole time they are set apart they are holy to the LORD.

9“ ‘Suppose someone dies suddenly in front of them. That makes the hair they have set apart to the LORD “unclean.” So they must shave their heads on the day they will be made “clean.” That is the seventh day. 10Then on the eighth day they must bring two doves. Or they can bring two young pigeons. They must bring them to the priest. He will be at the entrance to the tent of meeting. 11The priest must offer one of the birds as a sin offering. And he must offer the other as a burnt offering. The sacrifices will pay for the sin of the Nazirite man or woman.
They sinned by being near a dead body. That same day they must make their heads holy again. 12They must set themselves apart to the LORD again. They must do it for the same period of time they had agreed to at first. And they must bring a male lamb a year old as a guilt offering. The days before that do not count. That is because they became “unclean” during the time they were set apart.

13“ ‘The time when the Nazirites are set apart will come to an end. Here is the law that applies to them at that time. They must be brought to the entrance to the tent of meeting. 14There they must present their offerings to the LORD. They must bring a male lamb a year old. It must not have any flaws. It is for a burnt offering. Then they must bring a female lamb a year old. It must not have any flaws. It is for a sin offering. And they must bring a ram that does not have any flaws. It is for a friendship offering. 15They must sacrifice the offerings together with their grain offerings and drink offerings. And they must also bring a basket of bread made with the finest flour. The bread must be made without yeast. The offering must include thick loaves with olive oil mixed in. And it must also include thin loaves brushed with olive oil.

16“ ‘The priest must bring all these things to the LORD. He must sacrifice the sin offering and the burnt offering. 17He must bring the basket of bread made without yeast. And he must sacrifice the ram. It will be a friendship offering to the LORD. The priest must bring it together with its grain offering and drink offering.

18“ ‘Then the Nazirites must shave off the hair that shows they have set themselves apart to the LORD. They must do it at the entrance to the tent of meeting. And they must put the hair in the fire that burns the sacrifice of the friendship offering.

19“ ‘After the Nazirites have shaved off their hair, the priest must take a boiled shoulder of the ram. He must remove one thick loaf and one thin loaf from the basket. They must be made without yeast. And he must place the shoulder and the bread in the hands of the Nazirites. 20Then he must lift up the shoulder and bread and wave them in front of the LORD. They are a wave offering. They are holy and belong to the priest. Other parts of the ram belong to the priest as well. They are the breast that was waved and the thigh that was offered. After the offering is waved, the Nazirites may drink wine.

21“ ‘This is the law of the Nazirites. They promise to sacrifice offerings to the LORD. They do it when they set themselves apart. And they should bring anything else they can afford. They must fulfill the promises they have made. They must do so according to the law of the Nazirites.’ ”

How the Priests Bless the People

22The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, 23“Tell Aaron and his sons, ‘Here is how I want you to bless the Israelites. Say to them,

24“ ‘ “May the LORD bless you and take good care of you.
25May the LORD smile on you and be gracious to you.

[26]May the LORD look on you with favor and give you peace.” ’

[27]“In that way they will put the blessing of my name on the Israelites. And I will bless them.”

Numbers 7

Israel's Leaders Bring Offerings for the Holy Tent

[1]Moses finished setting up the holy tent. Then he anointed it with olive oil. He set it apart to the LORD. He did the same thing with everything that belonged to it. He also anointed the altar. And he set apart to the LORD the altar and all its tools. [2]Then the leaders of Israel brought their offerings. The leaders were the heads of the families. They were the leaders of the tribes. They were in charge of the men who had been counted. [3]They brought gifts to the LORD. They brought six covered carts and 12 oxen. Each leader gave an ox. And every two leaders gave a cart. They put their gifts in front of the holy tent.

[4]The LORD said to Moses, [5]"Accept the gifts from the leaders. I want their gifts to be used in the work at the tent of meeting. Give them to the Levites.
They need them to do their work."

[6]So Moses gave the carts and the oxen to the Levites. [7]He gave two carts and four oxen to the men from the family of Gershon. They needed them to do their work. [8]He gave four carts and eight oxen to the men from the family of Merari.
They needed them to do their work. All these men were under the direction of Ithamar the priest. He was the son of Aaron. [9]But Moses didn't give any carts or oxen to the men from the family of Kohath. They had to carry the holy things on their shoulders. They were responsible for the holy things.

[10]When the altar was anointed, the leaders brought their offerings. They placed them in front of the altar. They brought their offerings in order to set apart the altar. [11]The LORD had spoken to Moses. He had said, "Each day one leader must bring his offering. He must bring it in order to set apart the altar."

[12]On the first day Nahshon, the son of Amminadab, brought his offering.
Nahshon was from the tribe of Judah.

[13]He brought:

one silver plate and one silver sprinkling bowl. The plate weighed three pounds four ounces. The sprinkling bowl weighed one pound 12 ounces. Both were weighed according to the standard weights used in the sacred tent. Each plate and bowl was filled with the finest flour mixed with olive oil. It was a grain offering.

[14]He brought one gold dish that weighed four ounces. It was filled with incense.

15 Nahshon brought one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old. They would be sacrificed as a burnt offering.
16 He brought one male goat to be sacrificed as a sin offering.
17 He brought two oxen, five rams and five male goats. He also brought five male lambs a year old. All of them would be sacrificed as a friendship offering.
That was everything that Nahshon, the son of Amminadab, brought as his offering.

18 On the second day Nethanel, the son of Zuar, brought his offering.
Nethanel was the leader of the tribe of Issachar.

19 He brought:
one silver plate and one silver sprinkling bowl. The plate weighed three pounds four ounces. The sprinkling bowl weighed one pound 12 ounces. Both were weighed according to the standard weights used in the sacred tent. Each plate and bowl was filled with the finest flour mixed with olive oil. It was a grain offering.
20 He brought one gold dish that weighed four ounces. It was filled with incense.
21 Nethanel brought one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old. They would be sacrificed as a burnt offering.
22 He brought one male goat to be sacrificed as a sin offering.
23 He brought two oxen, five rams and five male goats. He also brought five male lambs a year old. All of them would be sacrificed as a friendship offering.
That was everything that Nethanel, the son of Zuar, brought as his offering.

24 On the third day Eliab, the son of Helon, brought his offering. Eliab was the leader of the people of Zebulun.

25 He brought:
one silver plate and one silver sprinkling bowl. The plate weighed three pounds four ounces. The sprinkling bowl weighed one pound 12 ounces. Both were weighed according to the standard weights used in the sacred tent. Each plate and bowl was filled with the finest flour mixed with olive oil. It was a grain offering.

[26]He brought one gold dish that weighed four ounces. It was filled with incense.
[27]Eliab brought one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old. They would be sacrificed as a burnt offering.
[28]He brought one male goat to be sacrificed as a sin offering.
[29]He brought two oxen, five rams and five male goats. He also brought five male lambs a year old. All of them would be sacrificed as a friendship offering.
That was everything that Eliab, the son of Helon, brought as his offering.

[30]On the fourth day Elizur, the son of Shedeur, brought his offering. Elizur was the leader of the people of Reuben.

[31]He brought:
one silver plate and one silver sprinkling bowl. The plate weighed three pounds four ounces. The sprinkling bowl weighed one pound 12 ounces. Both were weighed according to the standard weights used in the sacred tent. Each plate and bowl was filled with the finest flour mixed with olive oil. It was a grain offering.
[32]He brought one gold dish that weighed four ounces. It was filled with incense.
[33]Elizur brought one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old. They would be sacrificed as a burnt offering.
[34]He brought one male goat to be sacrificed as a sin offering.
[35]He brought two oxen, five rams and five male goats. He also brought five male lambs a year old. All of them would be sacrificed as a friendship offering.
That was everything that Elizur, the son of Shedeur, brought as his offering.

[36]On the fifth day Shelumiel, the son of Zurishaddai, brought his offering. Shelumiel was the leader of the people of Simeon.

[37]He brought:
one silver plate and one silver sprinkling bowl. The plate weighed three pounds four ounces. The sprinkling bowl weighed one pound

12 ounces. Both were weighed according to the standard weights used in the sacred tent. Each plate and bowl was filled with the finest flour mixed with olive oil. It was a grain offering.

[38]He brought one gold dish that weighed four ounces. It was filled with incense.

[39]Shelumiel brought one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old. They would be sacrificed as a burnt offering.

[40]He brought one male goat to be sacrificed as a sin offering.

[41]He brought two oxen, five rams and five male goats. He also brought five male lambs a year old. All of them would be sacrificed as a friendship offering.

That was everything that Shelumiel, the son of Zurishaddai, brought as his offering.

[42]On the sixth day Eliasaph, the son of Deuel, brought his offering. Eliasaph was the leader of the people of Gad.

[43]He brought:

one silver plate and one silver sprinkling bowl. The plate weighed three pounds four ounces. The sprinkling bowl weighed one pound 12 ounces. Both were weighed according to the standard weights used in the sacred tent. Each plate and bowl was filled with the finest flour mixed with olive oil. It was a grain offering.

[44]He brought one gold dish that weighed four ounces. It was filled with incense.

[45]Eliasaph brought one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old. They would be sacrificed as a burnt offering.

[46]He brought one male goat to be sacrificed as a sin offering.

[47]He brought two oxen, five rams and five male goats. He also brought five male lambs a year old. All of them would be sacrificed as a friendship offering.

That was everything that Eliasaph, the son of Deuel, brought as his offering.

[48]On the seventh day Elishama, the son of Ammihud, brought his offering. Elishama was the leader of the people of Ephraim.

[49]He brought:

one silver plate and one silver sprinkling bowl. The plate weighed three pounds four ounces. The sprinkling bowl weighed one pound 12 ounces. Both were weighed according to the standard weights used in the sacred tent. Each plate and bowl was filled with the finest flour mixed with olive oil. It was a grain offering.

[50]He brought one gold dish that weighed four ounces. It was filled with incense.

[51]Elishama brought one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old. They would be sacrificed as a burnt offering.

[52]He brought one male goat to be sacrificed as a sin offering.

[53]He brought two oxen, five rams and five male goats. He also brought five male lambs a year old. All of them would be sacrificed as a friendship offering.

That was everything that Elishama, the son of Ammihud, brought as his offering.

[54]On the eighth day Gamaliel, the son of Pedahzur, brought his offering. Gamaliel was the leader of the people of Manasseh.

[55]He brought:

one silver plate and one silver sprinkling bowl. The plate weighed three pounds four ounces. The sprinkling bowl weighed one pound 12 ounces. Both were weighed according to the standard weights used in the sacred tent. Each plate and bowl was filled with the finest flour mixed with olive oil. It was a grain offering.

[56]He also brought one gold dish that weighed four ounces. It was filled with incense.

[57]Gamaliel brought one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old. They would be sacrificed as a burnt offering.

[58]He brought one male goat to be sacrificed as a sin offering.

[59]He brought two oxen, five rams and five male goats. He also brought five male lambs a year old. All of them would be sacrificed as a friendship offering.

That was everything that Gamaliel, the son of Pedahzur, brought as his offering.

[60]On the ninth day Abidan, the son of Gideoni, brought his offering. Abidan was the leader of the people of Benjamin.

[61]He brought:
one silver plate and one silver sprinkling bowl. The plate weighed three pounds four ounces. The sprinkling bowl weighed one pound 12 ounces. Both were weighed according to the standard weights used in the sacred tent. Each plate and bowl was filled with the finest flour mixed with olive oil. It was a grain offering.
[62]He brought one gold dish that weighed four ounces. It was filled with incense.
[63]Abidan brought one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old. They would be sacrificed as a burnt offering.
[64]He brought one male goat to be sacrificed as a sin offering.
[65]He brought two oxen, five rams and five male goats. He also brought five male lambs a year old. All of them would be sacrificed as a friendship offering.
That was everything that Abidan, the son of Gideoni, brought as his offering.

[66]On the tenth day Ahiezer, the son of Ammishaddai, brought his offering. Ahiezer was the leader of the people of Dan.

[67]He brought:
one silver plate and one silver sprinkling bowl. The plate weighed three pounds four ounces. The sprinkling bowl weighed one pound 12 ounces. Both were weighed according to the standard weights used in the sacred tent. Each plate and bowl was filled with the finest flour mixed with olive oil. It was a grain offering.
[68]He brought one gold dish that weighed four ounces. It was filled with incense.
[69]Ahiezer brought one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old. They would be sacrificed as a burnt offering.
[70]He brought one male goat to be sacrificed as a sin offering.
[71]He brought two oxen, five rams and five male goats. He also brought five male lambs a year old. All of them would be sacrificed as a friendship offering.
That was everything that Ahiezer, the son of Ammishaddai, brought as his offering.

[72]On the eleventh day Pagiel, the son of Okran, brought his offering. Pagiel was the leader of the people of Asher.

[73]He brought:
one silver plate and one silver sprinkling bowl. The plate weighed three pounds four ounces. The sprinkling bowl weighed one pound 12 ounces. Both were weighed according to the standard weights used in the sacred tent. Each plate and bowl was filled with the finest flour mixed with olive oil. It was a grain offering.
[74]He brought one gold dish that weighed four ounces. It was filled with incense.
[75]Pagiel brought one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old. They would be sacrificed as a burnt offering.
[76]He brought one male goat to be sacrificed as a sin offering.
[77]He brought two oxen, five rams and five male goats. He also brought five male lambs a year old. All of them would be sacrificed as a friendship offering.
That was everything that Pagiel, the son of Okran, brought as his offering.

[78]On the twelfth day Ahira, the son of Enan, brought his offering. Ahira was the leader of the people of Naphtali.

[79]He brought:
one silver plate and one silver sprinkling bowl. The plate weighed three pounds four ounces. The sprinkling bowl weighed one pound 12 ounces. Both were weighed according to the standard weights used in the sacred tent. Each plate and bowl was filled with the finest flour mixed with olive oil. It was a grain offering.
[80]He brought one gold dish that weighed four ounces. It was filled with incense.
[81]Ahira brought one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb a year old. They would be sacrificed as a burnt offering.
[82]He brought one male goat to be sacrificed as a sin offering.
[83]He brought two oxen, five rams and five male goats. He also brought five male lambs a year old. All of them would be sacrificed as a friendship offering.

That was everything that Ahira, the son of Enan, brought as his offering.

[84]Those were the offerings the Israelite leaders brought. They gave them to set the altar apart when it was anointed with olive oil.
They gave 12 silver plates, 12 silver sprinkling bowls and 12 gold dishes. [85]Each plate weighed three pounds four ounces. Each sprinkling bowl weighed one pound 12 ounces. The total weight of the silver dishes was 60 pounds. Everything was weighed according to the standard weights used in the sacred tent. [86]Each of the 12 gold dishes weighed four ounces. They were filled with incense. They were weighed according to the weights used in the sacred tent. The total weight of the gold dishes was three pounds.
[87]The leaders brought 12 young bulls, 12 rams and 12 male lambs a year old. That was the total number of animals they gave for the burnt offering. They gave them together with the grain offering. They brought 12 male goats for the sin offering.
[88]The leaders brought 24 oxen, 60 rams, 60 male goats and 60 male lambs a year old. That was the total number of animals sacrificed as the friendship offering.
Those were the offerings they brought to set apart the altar. The leaders brought them after the altar was anointed with oil.

[89]Moses entered the tent of meeting. He wanted to speak with the LORD. There Moses heard the LORD talking to him. The LORD's voice was speaking to him from between the two cherubim. The cherubim were over the place where sin is paid for. It was the cover on the ark where the tablets of the covenant law were kept. In this way the LORD spoke to Moses.

Numbers 8

Aaron Sets Up the Lamps

[1]The LORD said to Moses, [2]"Say to Aaron, 'Set up the seven lamps. They will light up the area in front of the lampstand.' "

[3]So Aaron did it. He set up the lamps so that they faced forward on the lampstand. He did just as the LORD had commanded Moses. [4]The lampstand was made out of hammered gold. From its base to its blooms it was made out of hammered gold. The lampstand was made exactly like the pattern the LORD had shown Moses.

Moses Sets Apart the Levites

[5]The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, [6]"Take the Levites from among all the Israelites. Make them 'clean' in the usual way. [7]Here is how to make them pure. Sprinkle the special water on them. Then have them shave their whole bodies. Also have them wash their clothes. That is how they will make themselves pure. [8]Have them get a young bull along with its grain offering. The offering must be made out of the finest flour mixed with olive oil. Then you must get a second young bull. You must sacrifice it as a sin offering. [9]Bring the Levites to the front of the tent of meeting. Gather the whole community of Israel together. [10]You must bring the Levites to me. The Israelites must place their hands on them. [11]Aaron must bring the Levites to me. They are a wave offering from the Israelites. That is how they will be set apart to do my work.

[12]"Then I want the Levites to place their hands on the heads of the bulls. They must sacrifice one bull as a sin offering to me. And they must sacrifice the other as a burnt offering. The blood of the bulls will pay for the sin of the Levites. [13]Have the Levites stand in front of Aaron and his sons. Then give them as a wave offering to me. [14]That is how I want you to set apart the Levites from the other Israelites. The Levites will belong to me.

[15]"Make the Levites pure. Give them to me as a wave offering. Then they must come to do their work at the tent of meeting. [16]They are the Israelites who will be given to me completely. I have taken them to be my own. I have taken them in place of every son born first in his family in Israel. [17]Every male born first in Israel belongs to me. That is true whether it is a human or an animal. In Egypt I struck down all the males born first to their mothers. Then I set apart for myself all the males born first in Israel. [18]And I have taken the Levites in place of all the sons born first in Israel. [19]I have given the Levites as gifts to Aaron and his sons. I have taken them from among all the Israelites. I have appointed them to do the work at the tent of meeting. They will do it in place of the Israelites. That is how they will keep the Israelites from being guilty when they go near the sacred tent. Then no plague will strike the Israelites when they go near the tent."

[20]So Moses and Aaron and all the Israelites did with the Levites just as the LORD had commanded Moses. [21]The Levites made themselves pure. They washed their clothes. Then Aaron gave them to the LORD as a wave offering. That's how he paid for their sin to make them pure. [22]After that, the Levites came to do their work at the tent of meeting. They worked under the direction of Aaron and his sons. And so Moses and Aaron and the whole community of Israel did with the Levites just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

[23]The LORD said to Moses, [24]"Here is what the Levites must do. Men 25 years old or more must come and take part in the work at the tent of meeting. [25]But when they reach the age of 50, they must not work any longer. They must stop doing their regular work. [26]They can help their brothers with their duties at the tent of meeting. But they themselves should not do the work. That is how you must direct the Levites to do their work."

Numbers 9

Israel Celebrates the Passover Feast

1The LORD spoke to Moses in the Desert of Sinai. It was the first month of the second year after the people came out of Egypt. He said, 2"Tell the Israelites to celebrate the Passover Feast. Have them do it at the appointed time.
3Celebrate it when the sun goes down on the 14th day of this month. Obey all its rules and laws."

4So Moses told the Israelites to celebrate the Passover Feast. 5They did it in the Desert of Sinai. They celebrated it when the sun went down on the 14th day of the first month. The Israelites did everything just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

6But some of them couldn't celebrate the Passover Feast on that day. That's because they weren't "clean." They had gone near a dead body. So they came to Moses and Aaron that same day. 7They said to Moses, "We went near a dead body. So we aren't 'clean.' But why should we be kept from bringing the LORD's offering at the appointed time? Why shouldn't we bring it along with the other Israelites?"

8Moses answered them, "Wait until I find out what the LORD wants you to do."

9Then the LORD spoke to Moses. He said, 10"Tell the Israelites, 'Suppose any of you or your children are "unclean" because they have gone near a dead body.
Or suppose they are away on a journey. They must still celebrate the LORD's Passover. 11They must celebrate it on the 14th day of the second month. They must do so when the sun goes down. They must eat the lamb together with bread made without yeast. They must eat it with bitter plants. 12They must not leave any of it until morning. They must not break any of its bones. When they celebrate the Passover Feast, they must follow all the rules. 13But suppose someone is "clean" and not on a journey. And they fail to celebrate the Passover Feast. Then they must be separated from the community of Israel. They did not bring the LORD's offering at the appointed time. They will be punished for their sin.

14" 'What if there is an outsider living among you? And what if they want to celebrate the LORD's Passover? Then they must obey its rules and laws. You must have the same laws for outsiders as you do for the Israelites.' "

The Cloud Covers the Holy Tent

15 The holy tent was set up. It was the tent where the tablets of the covenant law were kept. On the day it was set up, the cloud covered it. From evening until morning the cloud above the tent looked like fire. 16 That's what continued to happen. The cloud covered the tent. At night the cloud looked like fire. 17 When the cloud lifted from its place above the tent, the Israelites started out. Where the cloud settled, the Israelites camped. 18 When the LORD gave the command, the Israelites started out. And when he gave the command, they camped. As long as the cloud stayed above the holy tent, they remained in camp. 19 Sometimes the cloud remained above the tent for a long time. Then the Israelites obeyed the LORD's order. They didn't start out. 20 Sometimes the cloud was above the tent for only a few days. When the LORD would give the command, they would camp. And when he would give the command, they would start out.
21 Sometimes the cloud stayed only from evening until morning. When it lifted in the morning, they started out. It didn't matter whether it was day or night. When the cloud lifted, the people started out. 22 It didn't matter whether the cloud stayed above the holy tent for two days or a month or a year. The Israelites would remain in camp. They wouldn't start out. But when the cloud lifted, they would start out. 23 When the LORD gave the command, they camped. And when he gave the command, they started out. They obeyed the LORD's order. They obeyed him, just as he had commanded them through Moses.

Numbers 10

The Silver Trumpets

[1]The LORD said to Moses, [2]“Make two trumpets out of hammered silver. Blow them when you want the community to gather together. And blow them when you want the camps to start out. [3]When both trumpets are blown, the whole community must gather in front of you. They must come to the entrance to the tent of meeting. [4]Suppose only one trumpet is blown. Then the leaders must gather in front of you. They are the heads of the tribes of Israel. [5]When a trumpet blast is blown, the tribes camped on the east side must start out. [6]When the second blast is blown, the camps on the south side must start out. The blast will tell them when to start. [7]Blow the trumpets to gather the people together. But do not use the same kind of blast.

[8]“The sons of Aaron, the priests, must blow the trumpets. That is a law for you and your children after you for all time to come. [9]Suppose you go into battle in your own land. And suppose it is against an enemy who is treating you badly. Then blow a blast on the trumpets. If you do, I will remember you. I will save you from your enemies. I am the LORD your God. [10]You must also blow the trumpets when you are happy. Blow them at your appointed feasts. Blow them at your New Moon feasts. Blow them when you sacrifice your burnt offerings. Blow them when you sacrifice your friendship offerings. They will remind me of you. I am the LORD your God.”

The Israelites Leave the Sinai Desert

[11]It was the 20th day of the second month of the second year. On that day the cloud began to move. It went up from above the holy tent where the tablets of the covenant law were kept. [12]Then the Israelites started out from the Desert of Sinai. They traveled from place to place. They kept going until the cloud came to rest in the Desert of Paran. [13]The first time they started out, the LORD commanded Moses to tell them to do it. And they did it.

[14]The groups of the camp of Judah went first. They marched out under their flag. Nahshon was their commander. He was the son of Amminadab. [15]Nethanel was over the group of the tribe of Issachar. Nethanel was the son of Zuar. [16]Eliab was over the group of the tribe of Zebulun. Eliab was the son of Helon. [17]The holy tent was taken down. The men of Gershon and Merari started out. They carried the tent.

18The groups of the camp of Reuben went next. They marched out under their flag. Elizur was their commander. He was the son of Shedeur. 19Shelumiel was over the group of the tribe of Simeon. Shelumiel was the son of Zurishaddai. 20Eliasaph was over the group of the tribe of Gad. Eliasaph was the son of Deuel. 21The men of Kohath started out. They carried the holy things. The holy tent had to be set up before they arrived.

22The groups of the camp of Ephraim went next. They marched out under their flag. Elishama was their commander. He was the son of Ammihud. 23Gamaliel was over the group of the tribe of Manasseh. Gamaliel was the son of Pedahzur. 24Abidan was over the group of the tribe of Benjamin. Abidan was the son of Gideoni.

25Finally, the groups of the camp of Dan started out. They marched out under their flag. They followed behind all the other groups and guarded them. Ahiezer was their commander. He was the son of Ammishaddai. 26Pagiel was over the group of the tribe of Asher. Pagiel was the son of Okran. 27Ahira was over the group of the tribe of Naphtali. Ahira was the son of Enan. 28As the groups of Israel started out, that was the order they marched in.

29Moses spoke to Hobab, the son of Reuel. Reuel was Moses' father-in-law. Reuel was from Midian. Moses said to Hobab, "We're starting out for the place the LORD promised to us. He said to us, 'I will give it to you.' So come with us. We'll treat you well. The LORD has promised to give good things to Israel."

30Hobab answered, "No. I can't go. I'm going back to my own land. I'm returning to my own people."

31But Moses said, "Please don't leave us. You know where we should camp in the desert. You can be our guide. 32So come with us. The LORD will give us good things. We'll share them with you."

33So they started out from the mountain of the LORD. They traveled for three days. The ark of the covenant of the LORD went in front of them during those three days. It went ahead of them to find a place for them to rest. 34They started out from the camp by day. And the cloud of the LORD was above them.

35When the ark started out, Moses said,

"LORD, rise up!
Let your enemies be scattered.

Let them run away from you.”

[36]When the ark stopped, Moses said,

“LORD, return.
Return to the many thousands of people in Israel.”

Numbers 11

The LORD Sends Fire Among the People

[1]The people weren't happy about the hard times they were having. The LORD heard what they were saying. It made him very angry. Then the LORD sent fire on them. It blazed out among the people. It burned up some of the outer edges of the camp. [2]The people cried out to Moses. Then he prayed to the LORD. And the fire died down. [3]So that place was named Taberah. That's because fire from the LORD had blazed out among them there.

The LORD Sends Quail for the People to Eat

[4]Some people with them began to wish for other food. Again the Israelites began to cry out. They said, "We wish we had meat to eat. [5]We remember the fish we ate in Egypt. It didn't cost us anything. We also remember the cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions and garlic. [6]But now we've lost all interest in eating. We never see anything but this manna!"

[7]The manna was like coriander seeds. It looked like sap from a tree. [8]The people went around gathering it. Then they ground it up in a small mill they held in their hands. Or they crushed it in a stone bowl. They cooked it in a pot. Or they made loaves out of it. It tasted like something made with olive oil. [9]When the dew came down on the camp at night, the manna also came down.

[10]Moses heard people from every family crying at the entrances to their tents. The LORD became very angry. So Moses became upset. [11]He asked the LORD, "Why have you brought this trouble on me? Why aren't you pleased with me? Why have you loaded me down with the troubles of all these people? [12]Am I like a mother to them? Are they my children? Why do you tell me to carry them in my arms? Do I have to carry them the way a nurse carries a baby? Do I have to carry them to the land you promised? You promised the land to their people of long ago. [13]Where can I get meat for all these people? They keep crying out to me. They say, 'Give us meat to eat!' [14]I can't carry all these people by myself. The load is too heavy for me. [15]Is this how you are going to treat me? If you are pleased with me, just put me to death right now. Don't let me live if I have to see myself destroyed anyway."

[16]The LORD said to Moses, "Bring me 70 of Israel's elders. Bring men that you know are leaders and officials among the people. Have them come to the tent of meeting. I want them to stand there with you. [17]I will come down and speak with you there. I will take some of the power of the Spirit that is on you. And I will put it on them. They will share the responsibility of these people with you. Then you will not have to carry it alone.

[18]"Tell the people, 'Set yourselves apart for tomorrow. At that time you will eat meat. The LORD heard you when you cried out. You said, "We wish we had meat to eat. We were better off in Egypt. Now the LORD will give you meat. And you will eat it. [19]You will not eat it for just one or two days. You will not eat it for just five, ten or 20 days. [20]Instead, you will eat it for a whole month. You will eat it until it comes out of your noses. You will eat it until you hate it. The LORD is among you. But you have turned your back on him. You have cried out while he was listening. You have said, "Why did we ever leave Egypt?" ' "

[21]But Moses said to the LORD, "Here I am among 600,000 men on the march. And you say, 'I will give them meat to eat for a whole month'! [22]Would they have enough if flocks and herds were killed for them? Would they have enough even if all the fish in the ocean were caught for them?"

[23]The LORD answered Moses, "Am I not strong enough? Now you will see whether what I say will come true for you."

[24]So Moses went out. He told the people what the LORD had said. He gathered 70 of their elders together. He had them stand around the tent of meeting. [25]Then the LORD came down in the cloud. He spoke with Moses. He took some of the power of the Spirit that was on Moses. And he put it on the 70 elders. When the Spirit came on them, they prophesied. But they didn't do it again.

[26]Two men had remained in the camp. Their names were Eldad and Medad. They were listed among the elders. But they didn't go out to the tent of meeting. In spite of that, the Spirit came on them too. So they prophesied in the camp. [27]A young man ran up to Moses. He said, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp."

[28]Joshua spoke up. He was the son of Nun. Joshua had been Moses' helper from the time he was young. He said, "Moses! Please stop them!"

[29]But Moses replied, "Are you jealous for me? I wish that all the LORD's people were prophets. And I wish that the LORD would put his Spirit on them." [30]Then Moses and the elders of Israel returned to the camp.

[31]The LORD sent out a wind. It drove quail in from the Red Sea. It scattered them all around the camp. They were about three feet above the ground. They could be seen in every direction as far as a person could walk in a day. [32]The people went out all day and gathered quail. They gathered them all night and all the next day. No one gathered less than 60 bushels. Then they spread the quail out all around the camp. [33]But while the meat was still in their mouths, the LORD acted. Before the people could swallow it, he became very angry with them. He struck them with a terrible plague. [34]So the place was named Kibroth Hattaavah. That's where the bodies of the people who had wished for other food were buried.

[35]From Kibroth Hattaavah the people traveled to Hazeroth. And they stayed there.

Numbers 12

Miriam and Aaron Speak Against Moses

1 Miriam and Aaron began to say bad things about Moses. That's because Moses had married a woman from Cush. 2 "Has the LORD spoken only through Moses?" they asked. "Hasn't he also spoken through us?" The LORD heard what they said.

3 Moses was a very humble man. In fact, he was more humble than anyone else on the face of the earth.

4 The LORD spoke to Moses, Aaron and Miriam. He said, "All three of you, come out to the tent of meeting." So they did. 5 Then the LORD came down in a pillar of cloud. He stood at the entrance to the tent. And he told Aaron and Miriam to come to him. The two of them stepped forward. 6 Then the LORD said, "Listen to my words.

"Suppose there is a prophet among you.
I, the LORD, make myself known to them in visions.
I speak to them in dreams.
7 But this is not true of my servant Moses.
He is faithful in everything he does in my house.
8 With Moses I speak face to face.
I speak with him clearly. I do not speak in riddles.
I let him see something of what I look like.
So why were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?"

9 The LORD was very angry with them. And he left them.

10 When the cloud went up from above the tent, there stood Miriam. She had a disease that made her skin as white as snow. Aaron turned toward her. He saw that she had a skin disease. 11 So he said to Moses, "We have committed a very foolish sin. Please don't hold it against us. 12 Don't let Miriam be like a baby that was born dead. Don't let her look like a dead baby whose body is half eaten away."

13 So Moses cried out to the LORD. He said, "Please, God, heal her!"

14 The LORD answered Moses. He said, "Suppose her father had spit in her face. Then she would have been put to shame for seven days. So keep her outside the camp for seven days. After that, you can bring her back.” [15]So Miriam was kept outside the camp for seven days. The people didn’t move on until she was brought back.

[16]After that, the people left Hazeroth. They camped in the Desert of Paran.

Numbers 13

Twelve Men Check Out the Land of Canaan

[1]The LORD said to Moses, [2]"Send some men to check out the land of Canaan.
I am giving it to the Israelites. Send one leader from each of Israel's tribes."
[3]So Moses sent them out from the Desert of Paran. He sent them as the LORD had commanded. All of them were leaders of the Israelites.

[4]Here are their names.

There was Shammua from the tribe of Reuben. Shammua was the son of Zakkur.
[5]There was Shaphat from the tribe of Simeon. Shaphat was the son of Hori.
[6]There was Caleb from the tribe of Judah. Caleb was the son of Jephunneh.
[7]There was Igal from the tribe of Issachar. Igal was the son of Joseph.
[8]There was Hoshea from the tribe of Ephraim. Hoshea was the son of Nun.
[9]There was Palti from the tribe of Benjamin. Palti was the son of Raphu.
[10]There was Gaddiel from the tribe of Zebulun. Gaddiel was the son of Sodi.
[11]There was Gaddi from the tribe of Manasseh. Gaddi was the son of Susi. Manasseh was a tribe of Joseph.
[12]There was Ammiel from the tribe of Dan. Ammiel was the son of Gemalli.
[13]There was Sethur from the tribe of Asher. Sethur was the son of Michael.
[14]There was Nahbi from the tribe of Naphtali. Nahbi was the son of Vophsi.
[15]There was Geuel from the tribe of Gad. Geuel was the son of Maki.
[16]Those are the men Moses sent to check out the land. He gave the name Joshua to Hoshea, the son of Nun.

[17]Moses sent the 12 men to check out Canaan. He said, “Go up through the Negev Desert. Go on into the central hill country. [18]See what the land is like. See whether the people who live there are strong or weak. See whether they are few or many. [19]What kind of land do they live in? Is it good or bad? What kind of towns do they live in? Do the towns have high walls around them or not? [20]How is the soil? Is it rich land or poor land? Are there trees in it or not? Do your best to bring back some of the fruit of the land.” It was the season for the first ripe grapes.

[21]So the men went up and checked out the land. They went from the Desert of Zin as far as Rehob. It was in the direction of Lebo Hamath. [22]They went up through the Negev Desert and came to Hebron. That’s where Ahiman, Sheshai and Talmai lived. They belonged to the family line of Anak. Hebron had been built seven years before Zoan. Zoan was a city in Egypt. [23]The men came to the Valley of Eshkol. There they cut off a branch that had a single bunch of grapes on it. Two of them carried it on a pole between them. They carried some pomegranates and figs along with it. [24]That place was called the Valley of Eshkol. That’s because the men of Israel cut off a bunch of grapes there. [25]At the end of 40 days, the men returned from checking out the land.

The Men Report on What They Found

[26]The men came back to Moses, Aaron and the whole community of Israel. The people were at Kadesh in the Desert of Paran. There the men reported to Moses and Aaron and all the people. They showed them the fruit of the land. [27]They gave Moses their report. They said, “We went into the land you sent us to. It really does have plenty of milk and honey! Here’s some fruit from the land. [28]But the people who live there are powerful. Their cities have high walls around them and are very large. We even saw members of the family line of Anak there. [29]The Amalekites live in the Negev Desert. The Hittites, Jebusites and Amorites live in the central hill country. The Canaanites live near the Mediterranean Sea. They also live along the Jordan River.”

[30]Then Caleb interrupted the men speaking to Moses. He said, “We should go up and take the land. We can certainly do it.”

[31]But the men who had gone up with him spoke. They said, “We can’t attack those people. They are stronger than we are.” [32]The men spread a bad report about the land among the Israelites. They said, “The land we checked out destroys those who live in it. All the people we saw there are very big and tall.

[33]We saw the Nephilim there. We seemed like grasshoppers in our own eyes. And that’s also how we seemed to them.” The family line of Anak came from the Nephilim.

Numbers 14

The People Refuse to Obey the LORD

[1]That night all the members of the community raised their voices. They wept out loud. [2]The Israelites spoke against Moses and Aaron. The whole community said to them, “We wish we had died in Egypt or even in this desert. [3]Why is the LORD bringing us to this land? We’re going to be killed by swords. Our enemies will capture our wives and children. Wouldn’t it be better for us to go back to Egypt?” [4]They said to one another, “We should choose another leader. We should go back to Egypt.”

[5]Then Moses and Aaron fell with their faces to the ground. They did it in front of the whole community of Israel gathered there. [6]Joshua, the son of Nun, tore his clothes. So did Caleb, the son of Jephunneh. Joshua and Caleb were two of the men who had checked out the land. [7]They spoke to the whole community of Israel. They said, “We passed through the land and checked it out. It’s very good.
[8]If the LORD is pleased with us, he’ll lead us into that land. It’s a land that has plenty of milk and honey. He’ll give it to us. [9]But don’t refuse to obey him. And don’t be afraid of the people of the land. We will swallow them up. The LORD is with us. So nothing can save them. Don’t be afraid of them.”

[10]But all the people talked about killing Joshua and Caleb by throwing stones at them. Then the glory of the LORD appeared at the tent of meeting. All the Israelites saw it. [11]The LORD said to Moses, “How long will these people not respect me? How long will they refuse to believe in me? They refuse even though I have done many signs among them. [12]So I will strike them down with a plague. I will destroy them. But I will make you into a greater and stronger nation than they are.”

[13]Moses said to the LORD, “Then the Egyptians will hear about it. You used your power to bring these people up from among them. [14]And the Egyptians will tell the people who live in Canaan about it. LORD, they have already heard a lot about you. They’ve heard that you are with these people. They’ve heard that you have been seen face to face. They’ve been told that your cloud stays over them.
They’ve heard that you go in front of them in a pillar of cloud by day. They’ve been told that you go in front of them in a pillar of fire at night. [15]Suppose you put all these people to death and leave none alive. Then the nations who have heard these things about you will talk. They’ll say, [16]‘The LORD promised to give these people the land of Canaan. But he wasn't able to bring them into it. So he killed them in the desert.'

17"Now, Lord, show your strength. You have said, 18'I am the LORD. I am slow to get angry. I am full of love. I forgive those who sin. I forgive those who refuse to obey. But I do not let guilty people go without punishing them. I cause the sin of the parents to affect their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.' 19LORD, your love is great. So forgive the sin of these people. Forgive them just as you have done from the time they left Egypt until now."

20The LORD replied, "I have forgiven them, just as you asked. 21You can be sure that I live. You can be just as sure that my glory fills the whole earth. 22And here is what you can be just as sure of. Not one of these people will see the land I promised to give them. They have seen my glory. They have seen the signs I did in Egypt. And they have seen what I did in the desert. But they did not obey me. And they have tested me ten times. 23So not even one of them will ever see the land I promised to give to their people of long ago. The person who has not respected me will never see it. 24But my servant Caleb has a different spirit. He follows me with his whole heart. So I will bring him into the land he went to. And his children after him will receive land there. 25The Amalekites and the Canaanites are living in the valleys. So turn back tomorrow. Start out toward the desert. Go along the way that leads to the Red Sea."

26The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, 27"How long will this evil community speak against me? I have heard these Israelites talk about how unhappy they are. 28So tell them, 'Here is what I am announcing. I am the LORD. You can be sure that I live. And here is what you can be just as sure of. I will do to you the very thing that I heard you say. 29You will die in this desert. Every one of you 20 years old or more will die. Every one of you who was counted in the list of the people will die. Every one of you who has spoken out against me will be wiped out. 30I lifted up my hand and promised to make this land your home. But now not all of you will enter the land. Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, will enter it. So will Joshua, the son of Nun. They are the only ones who will enter the land. 31You have said that your enemies would capture your children. But I will bring your children in to enjoy the land you have turned your backs on. 32As for you, you will die in the desert. 33Your children will be shepherds here for 40 years. They will suffer because you were not faithful. They will suffer until the last of your bodies lies here in the desert. 34For 40 years you will suffer for your sins. That is one year for each of the 40 days you checked out the land. You will know what it is like to have me against you.' 35I, the LORD, have spoken. I will surely do these things to this entire evil community of Israel. They have joined together against me. They will meet their end in this desert. They will die here.”

[36]So the LORD struck down the men Moses had sent to check out the land. They had returned and had spread a bad report about the land. And that had made the whole community speak out against Moses. [37]Those men were to blame for spreading the bad report. So the LORD struck them down. They died of a plague. [38]Only two of the men who went to check out the land remained alive. One of them was Joshua, the son of Nun. The other was Caleb, the son of Jephunneh.

[39]Moses reported to all the Israelites what the LORD had said. And they became very sad. [40]Early the next morning they set out for the highest point in the hill country. “We have sinned,” they said. “Now we are ready to go up to the land the LORD promised to give us.”

[41]But Moses said, “Why aren’t you obeying the LORD’s command? You won’t succeed. [42]So don’t go up. The LORD isn’t with you. Your enemies will win the battle over you. [43]The Amalekites and the Canaanites will meet you on the field of battle. You have turned away from the LORD. So he won’t be with you. And you will be killed by swords.”

[44]But they wouldn’t listen. They still went up toward the highest point in the hill country. They went up even though Moses didn’t move from the camp. They went even though the ark of the LORD’s covenant didn’t move from the camp. [45]Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who lived in that hill country came down. They attacked the Israelites. They won the battle over them. They chased the Israelites all the way to Hormah.

Numbers 15

Other Offerings

[1]Here is what the LORD said to Moses. [2]"Say to the Israelites, 'You are going to enter the land I am giving you as a home. [3]When you do, you will present food offerings to the LORD. The animals must come from your herd or flock. The smell of the offerings will please the LORD. They can be either burnt offerings or sacrifices. They can be either for special promises or for feast offerings. Or they can be for offerings you choose to give. [4]With each of the offerings, the person who brings it must present to the LORD a grain offering. It must be eight cups of the finest flour. It must be mixed with a quart of olive oil. [5]Also prepare a quart of wine as a drink offering. You must present it with each lamb that you bring for the burnt offering or the sacrifice.

[6]" 'Prepare a grain offering to present along with a ram. The grain offering must be 16 cups of the finest flour. It must be mixed with two and a half pints of olive oil. [7]You must bring two and a half pints of wine as a drink offering. Offer everything as a smell that pleases the LORD.

[8]" 'Suppose you prepare a young bull as a burnt offering or sacrifice. You prepare it to keep a special promise to the LORD. Or you prepare it to present as a friendship offering. [9]Then bring a grain offering with the bull. The grain offering must be 24 cups of the finest flour. It must be mixed with two quarts of olive oil. [10]Also bring two quarts of wine as a drink offering. It will be a food offering. Its smell will please the LORD. [11]Each bull or ram must be prepared in the same way. Each lamb or young goat must also be prepared in that way. [12]Do it for each animal. Do it for as many animals as you prepare.

[13]" 'Everyone in Israel must do those things in that way. He must do them when he presents a food offering. The smell of offerings like that pleases the LORD. [14]Everyone must always do what the law requires. It does not matter whether they are an outsider or anyone else living among you. They must do exactly as you do when they present a food offering. The smell of offerings like that pleases the LORD. [15]The community must have the same rules for you and for any outsider living among you. This law will last for all time to come. In the sight of the LORD, the law applies both to you and any outsider. [16]The same laws and rules will apply to you and to any outsider living among you.' "

[17]The LORD said to Moses, [18]"Speak to the Israelites. Say to them, 'You are going to enter the land I am taking you to. [19]You will eat its food. When you do, present part of it as an offering to the LORD. [20]Present a loaf made from the first flour you grind. Present it as an offering from the threshing floor. [21]You must present the offering to the LORD. You must present it from the first grain you grind. You must do it for all time to come.

Offerings for Sins That Aren't Committed on Purpose

[22]“ ‘Suppose you as a community fail to keep any of the commands the LORD gave Moses. And suppose you do it without meaning to. [23]That applies to any of the commands the LORD told Moses to give you. And they are in effect from the day the LORD gave them and for all time to come. [24]Suppose the community sins without meaning to. And suppose they do not know they have sinned. Then the whole community must offer a young bull. They must sacrifice it for a burnt offering. Its smell will please the LORD. Along with it, they must offer its required grain offering and drink offering. They must also sacrifice a male goat for a sin offering. [25]With it the priest will pay for the sin of the whole community of Israel. Then they will be forgiven. They did not mean to commit that sin. And they have presented to the LORD a food offering for the wrong thing they did. They have brought a sin offering with it. [26]The LORD will forgive the whole community of Israel and the outsiders living among them. All the people had a part in the sin, even though they did not mean to do it.

[27]“ ‘But suppose just one person sins without meaning to. Then that person must bring a female goat for a sin offering. It must be a year old. [28]With it the priest will pay for the person's sin in front of the LORD. The priest will do it for the one who did wrong by sinning without meaning to. When the sin is paid for, that person will be forgiven. [29]The same law applies to everyone who sins without meaning to. It does not matter whether they are an Israelite or an outsider.

[30]“ ‘But suppose someone sins on purpose. It does not matter whether they are an Israelite or an outsider. They speak evil things against the LORD. They must be separated from the community of Israel. [31]They have not respected what the LORD has said. They have broken the LORD's commands. They must certainly be separated from the community. They are still guilty.’ ”

A Man Works on the Sabbath Day

[32]The Israelites were in the desert. One Sabbath day, people saw a man gathering wood. [33]They brought him to Moses and Aaron and the whole community. [34]They kept him under guard. It wasn’t clear what should be done to him. [35]Then the LORD said to Moses, “The man must die. The whole community must kill him by throwing stones at him. They must do it outside the camp.” [36]So the people took the man outside the camp. There they killed him by throwing stones at him. They did just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Tassels on Clothes

[37]The LORD said to Moses, [38]“Say to the Israelites, ‘You must make tassels on the corners of your clothes. A blue cord must be on each tassel. You must do it for all time to come. [39]You will have the tassels to look at. They will remind you to obey all the LORD’s commands. Then you will be faithful to him. You will not chase after what your own hearts and eyes wish for. [40]You will remember to obey all my commands. And you will be set apart for your God. [41]I am the LORD your God. I brought you out of Egypt to be your God. I am the LORD your God.’ ”

Numbers 16

Korah, Dathan and Abiram

[1]Korah was the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath. Kohath was the son of Levi. Korah and certain men from the tribe of Reuben turned against Moses. The men from Reuben were Dathan, Abiram and On. Dathan and Abiram were the sons of Eliab. On was the son of Peleth. [2]All those men rose up against Moses. And 250 men of Israel joined them. All of them were known as leaders in the community. They had been appointed as members of the ruling body. [3]They came as a group to oppose Moses and Aaron. They said to Moses and Aaron, “You have gone too far! The whole community is holy. Every one in it is holy. And the LORD is with them. So why do you put yourselves above the LORD’s people?”

[4]When Moses heard what they said, he fell with his face to the ground. [5]Then he spoke to Korah and all his followers. He said, “In the morning the LORD will show who belongs to him. He will show who is holy. He’ll bring that person near him. He’ll bring the man he chooses near him. [6]Korah, here’s what you and all your followers must do. Get some shallow cups for burning incense. [7]Tomorrow put burning coals and incense in them. Offer it to the LORD. The man the LORD chooses will be the one who is holy. You Levites have gone too far!”

[8]Moses also said to Korah, “Listen, you Levites! [9]The God of Israel has separated you from the rest of the community of Israel. He has brought you near him to work at the LORD’s holy tent. He has given you to the people so that you can serve them. Isn’t all that enough for you? [10]He has already brought you and all the other Levites near him. But now you want to be priests too. [11]You and all your followers have joined together against the LORD. Why are you telling Aaron you aren’t happy with him?”

[12]Then Moses sent for Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab. But they said, “We won’t come! [13]You have brought us up out of a land that has plenty of milk and honey. You have brought us here to kill us in this desert. Isn’t that enough? Now do you also want to act as if you were ruling over us? [14]Besides, you haven’t brought us into a land that has plenty of milk and honey. You haven’t given us fields and vineyards of our own. Do you want to treat these men like slaves? No! We won’t come!”

[15]Then Moses became very angry. He said to the LORD, “Don’t accept their offering. I haven't taken even a donkey from them. In fact, I haven't done anything wrong to any of them."

16Moses said to Korah, "You and all your followers must stand in front of the LORD tomorrow. You must appear there along with Aaron. 17Each man must get his shallow cup. He must put incense in it. There will be a total of 250 incense cups. Each man must bring his cup to the LORD. You and Aaron must also bring your cups." 18So each of them got his cup. He put burning coals and incense in it. All the men came with Moses and Aaron. They stood at the entrance to the tent of meeting. 19Korah gathered all his followers together at the entrance to the tent. They opposed Moses and Aaron. Then the glory of the LORD appeared to the whole community. 20The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, 21"Separate yourselves from these people. Then I can put an end to all of them at once."

22But Moses and Aaron fell with their faces to the ground. They cried out, "God, you are the God who gives life and breath to all living things. Will you be angry with the whole community when only one man sins?"

23Then the LORD spoke to Moses. He said, 24"Tell the community, 'Move away from the tents of Korah, Dathan and Abiram.' "

25Moses got up. He went to Dathan and Abiram. The elders of Israel followed him. 26Moses warned the community. He said, "Move away from the tents of these evil men! Don't touch anything that belongs to them. If you do, the LORD will sweep you away because of all their sins." 27So they moved away from the tents of Korah, Dathan and Abiram. Dathan and Abiram had already come out. They were standing at the entrances to their tents. Their wives, children and little ones were standing there with them.

28Then Moses said, "What is about to happen wasn't my idea. The LORD has sent me to do everything I'm doing. Here is how you will know I'm telling you the truth. 29These men won't die a natural death. Something will happen to them that doesn't usually happen to people. If what I'm telling you doesn't happen, then you will know that the LORD hasn't sent me. 30But the LORD will make something totally new happen. The ground will open its mouth and swallow them up. It will swallow up everything that belongs to them. They will be buried alive. When that happens, you will know that these men have disrespected the LORD."

31As soon as Moses finished saying all these words, what he had said came true. The ground under them broke open. 32It opened its mouth. It swallowed up those men. In fact, it swallowed up everyone who lived in their houses. It swallowed all Korah's men. And it swallowed up everything they owned. 33They went down into the grave alive. Everything they owned went down with them. The ground closed over them and they died. And so they disappeared from the community. 34All the Israelites around them heard their cries. They ran away from them. They shouted, “The ground is going to swallow us up too!”

35Then the LORD sent down fire. It burned up the 250 men offering the incense.

36The LORD said to Moses, 37“Speak to Eleazar the priest. He is the son of Aaron. Remind him that the shallow cups are holy. He must take them out of the ashes. He must scatter the burning coals away from there. 38The men who sinned used those cups. And it cost them their lives. Hammer the cups into bronze sheets that will cover the altar. The cups were offered to the LORD. They have become holy. Let them serve as a warning to the Israelites.”

39So the priest Eleazar collected the bronze incense cups. They had been brought by the men who had been burned to death. He had them hammered out to cover the altar. 40He did just as the LORD had directed Moses to tell him to do. The covering would be a reminder to the Israelites. It would remind them that no one except a son of Aaron should come and burn incense to the LORD. If people other than priests did that, they would become like Korah and his followers.

41The next day the whole community of Israel told Moses and Aaron they weren’t happy with them. “You have killed the LORD’s people,” they said.

42The community gathered together to oppose Moses and Aaron. The people walked toward the tent of meeting. Suddenly the cloud covered it. The glory of the LORD appeared. 43Then Moses and Aaron went to the front of the tent of meeting. 44The LORD said to Moses, 45“Get away from these people. Then I can put an end to all of them at once.” And Moses and Aaron fell with their faces to the ground.

46Moses said to Aaron, “Take your incense cup. Put incense in it. And put burning coals from the altar in it. Then hurry to the people and pay for their sin. The LORD has begun to show his anger. The plague has started.” 47So Aaron did as Moses said. He ran in among the people. The plague had already started among them. But Aaron offered the incense and paid for their sin. 48He stood between those alive and those dead. And the plague stopped. 49But 14,700 people died from the plague. That doesn’t include those who had died because of what Korah did. 50Then Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance to the tent of meeting. The plague had stopped.

Numbers 17

Aaron's Walking Stick Produces Buds

[1]The LORD said to Moses, [2]"Speak to the Israelites. Get 12 walking sticks from them. Get one from the leader of each of Israel's tribes. Write the name of each man on his walking stick. [3]Write Aaron's name on Levi's walking stick.
There must be one stick for the head of each of Israel's tribes. [4]Put the walking sticks in the tent of meeting. Place them in front of the ark where the tablets of the covenant law are kept. That is where I meet with you. [5]The walking stick that belongs to the man I choose will begin to grow new shoots. The Israelites are never happy with what you do. I will put an end to what they are saying."

[6]So Moses spoke to the Israelites. Their leaders gave him 12 walking sticks.
They gave one for the leader of each of Israel's tribes. Aaron's walking stick was among them. [7]Moses put the sticks in front of the LORD in the tent where the tablets of the covenant law were kept.

[8]The next day Moses entered the tent. He looked at Aaron's walking stick. It stood for the tribe of Levi. Moses saw that it had begun to grow new shoots. It had also produced buds and flowers and almonds. [9]Then Moses brought out all the walking sticks from in front of the LORD. He brought them to all the Israelites. They looked at them. And each man took his own walking stick.

[10]The LORD said to Moses, "Put Aaron's walking stick back in front of the ark where the tablets of the covenant law are kept. The stick will be kept there as a warning to those who refuse to obey. They are never happy with what I do.
Aaron's walking stick will put an end to what they are saying. Then they will not die." [11]Moses did just as the LORD commanded him.

[12]The Israelites said to Moses, "We'll die! We are lost! All of us are lost!
[13]Anyone who even comes near the LORD's holy tent will die. Are all of us going to die?"

Numbers 18

Duties of Priests and Levites

[1]The LORD spoke to Aaron. He said, “You, your sons and your family are in charge of the sacred tent. You will be responsible for sins connected with the tent. And you and your sons alone will be responsible for sins connected with the office of priest. [2]Bring the Levites from your tribe to join you. They will help you when you and your sons serve at the tent of meeting. That is where the tablets of the covenant law are kept. [3]The Levites will work for you. They must do everything that needs to be done at the tent. But they must not go near anything that belongs to the sacred tent. And they must not go near the altar. If they do, they and you will die. [4]They will help you take care of the tent of meeting. They will join you in all the work at the tent. No one else can come near you there.

[5]“You will be responsible for taking care of the sacred tent and the altar. Then I will not be angry with the Israelites again. [6]I myself have chosen the Levites. I have chosen them from among the Israelites. They are a gift to you. I have set them apart to do the work at the tent of meeting. [7]But only you and your sons can serve as priests. Only you and your sons can work with everything at the altar and behind the curtain. I am letting you serve as priests. It is a gift from me.
Anyone else who comes near the sacred tent must be put to death.”

Offerings for Priests and Levites

[8]Then the LORD spoke to Aaron. He said, “I have put you in charge of the offerings brought to me. The Israelites will give me holy offerings. I will give all their offerings to you and your sons. They are the part that belongs to you. They are your share for all time to come. [9]You will have a part of the very holy offerings. It is the part not burned in the fire. That part belongs to you and your sons. You will have a part of all the gifts the people bring me as very holy offerings. It does not matter whether they are grain offerings or sin offerings or guilt offerings. [10]Eat your part as something that is very holy. Every male will eat it. You must consider it holy.

[11]“Part of the gifts the Israelites bring as wave offerings will be set aside. That part will also belong to you. I will give it to you and your sons and daughters. It is your share for all time to come. Everyone in your home who is ‘clean’ can eat it.

12“I will give you all the finest olive oil and grain the people give me. And I will give you all the finest fresh wine they give me. They give all those things as the first share of their harvest. 13All the first shares of the harvest they bring me will belong to you. Everyone in your home who is ‘clean’ can eat it.

14“Everything in Israel that is set apart to me belongs to you. 15Offer to me every male born first to its mother. It belongs to you. That includes humans and animals alike. But you must buy back every oldest son. Suppose certain animals are ‘unclean.’ Then you must buy back every male born first to its mother. 16When they are a month old, you must buy them back. You must pay the price to buy them back. The price is set at two ounces of silver. It must be weighed out according to the standard weights used in the sacred tent.

17“But you must not buy back any male calf, sheep or goat born first. They are holy. Splash their blood against the altar. And burn their fat as a food offering. Its smell pleases me. 18The meat will belong to you. It is just like the breast and the right thigh of the wave offering. Those parts belong to you. 19Part of the holy offerings the Israelites bring to me will be set aside. No matter what it is, I will give it to you and your sons and daughters. It is your share for all time to come. It is a covenant of salt from me. The salt means that the covenant will last for all time to come for you and your children.”

20The LORD spoke to Aaron. He said, “You will not receive any part of the land I am giving to Israel. You will not have any share among them. I am your share. I am what you will receive among the Israelites.

21“The Israelites will give me a tenth of everything they produce. And I will give it to the Levites. They serve at the tent of meeting. I will give them the tenth for the work they do there. 22From now on the Israelites must not go near the tent of meeting. If they do, they will be punished for their sin. They will die. 23The Levites will do the work at the tent of meeting. They will be responsible for any sins connected with the tent. This is a law that will last for all time to come. The Levites will not receive any share among the Israelites. 24Instead, I will give the Levites the tenth as their share. It is the tenth that the Israelites bring me as an offering. That is why I said the Levites would not have any share of land among the Israelites.”

25The LORD said to Moses, 26“Speak to the Levites. Say to them, ‘You will receive the tenth from the Israelites. I will give it to you as your share. When I do, you must give a tenth of that tenth as an offering to the LORD. 27Your offering will be considered as if you gave grain from a threshing floor. It will be considered as juice from a winepress. [28]In that way, you also will bring an offering to the LORD. You will bring it from the tenth you receive from the Israelites. You must give the LORD's part to the priest Aaron. You must bring it from the tenth you receive. [29]You must bring to the LORD a part of everything given to you. It must be the best and holiest part.'

[30]"Say to the Levites, 'You must bring the best part. Then it will be considered as if you gave grain from a threshing floor. It will be considered as juice from a winepress. [31]You and your families can eat the rest of it anywhere. It is your pay for your work at the tent of meeting. [32]Bring the best part of what you receive. Then you will not be guilty of holding anything back. You will not make the holy offerings of the Israelites "unclean." You will not die.' "

Numbers 19

The Special Water That Makes People "Clean"

[1]The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron. He said, [2]"Here is what the law I have commanded requires. Tell the Israelites to bring you a young red cow. It must not have any flaws at all. It must never have pulled a load. [3]Give it to Eleazar the priest. It must be taken outside the camp and killed in front of him. [4]Then Eleazar the priest must put some of its blood on his finger. He must sprinkle the blood toward the front of the tent of meeting. He must do it seven times. [5]While he watches, the young cow must be burned. Its hide, meat, blood and guts must be burned. [6]The priest must get some cedar wood, branches of a hyssop plant, and bright red wool. He must throw them on the young cow as it burns. [7]After that, the priest must wash his clothes. He must also take a bath. Then he can come into the camp. But he will be 'unclean' until evening. [8]The man who burns the young cow must wash his clothes. He must also take a bath. He too will be 'unclean' until evening.

[9]"A man who is 'clean' will gather up the ashes of the young cow. He must put them in a place that is 'clean.' The place must be outside the camp. The ashes must be kept by the community of Israel. They will be added to the special water. The water will be used to make people pure from their sin. [10]The man who gathers up the ashes of the young cow must wash his clothes. He too will be 'unclean' until evening. This law is for the Israelites. It is also for the outsiders living among them. The law will last for all time to come.

[11]"Anyone who touches a dead person's body will be 'unclean' for seven days. [12]They must make themselves pure and 'clean' with the special water. They must do it on the third day. They must also do it on the seventh day. Then they will be 'clean.' But suppose they do not make themselves pure and 'clean' on the third and seventh days. Then they will not be 'clean.' [13]Anyone who touches a dead person's body and does not make themselves pure and 'clean' makes my holy tent 'unclean.' They must be separated from Israel. The special water has not been sprinkled on them. So they are 'unclean.' And they remain 'unclean.'

[14]"Here is the law that applies when a person dies in a tent. Anyone who enters the tent will be 'unclean' for seven days. Anyone in the tent will also be 'unclean' for seven days. [15]And anything in it that is open and has no lid will be 'unclean.'

16 “Suppose someone is out in the country. And suppose they touch someone who has been killed by a sword. Or they touch someone who has died a natural death. Or they touch a human bone or a grave. Then anyone who touches any of those things will be ‘unclean’ for seven days.
17 “Here is what I want you to do for someone who is ‘unclean.’ Put some ashes from the burned young cow into a jar. Pour fresh water on the ashes.
18 Then a man who is ‘clean’ must dip branches of a hyssop plant in the water. He must sprinkle the tent with it. Everything that belongs to the tent must be sprinkled with it. The people in the tent must also be sprinkled. Anyone who has touched a human bone or a grave must be sprinkled. So must anyone who has touched someone who has been killed. And so must anyone who has touched someone who has died a natural death. 19 The man who is ‘clean’ must sprinkle those who are ‘unclean.’ That must be done on the third and seventh days. On the seventh day those who are ‘unclean’ must be made pure and ‘clean.’ Those being made ‘clean’ must wash their clothes. They must take a bath. Then that evening they will be ‘clean.’ 20 But what if those who are ‘unclean’ do not make themselves pure and ‘clean?’ Then they must be separated from the community.
They have made my holy tent ‘unclean.’ The special water has not been sprinkled on them. They are ‘unclean.’ 21 This law will apply to all those people for all time to come.
“The man who sprinkles the special water must also wash his clothes. Anyone who touches the water will be ‘unclean’ until evening. 22 Anything that an ‘unclean’ person touches becomes ‘unclean.’ And anyone who touches it becomes ‘unclean’ until evening.”

Numbers 20

The LORD Gives Israel Water Out of the Rock

1 In the first month the whole community of Israel arrived at the Desert of Zin.
They stayed at Kadesh. Miriam died and was buried there.

2 The people didn't have any water. So they gathered together to oppose Moses and Aaron. 3 They argued with Moses. They said, "We wish we had died when our people fell dead in front of the LORD. 4 Why did you bring the LORD's people into this desert? We and our livestock will die here. 5 Why did you bring us up out of Egypt? Why did you bring us to this terrible place? It doesn't have any grain or figs. It doesn't have any grapes or pomegranates. There isn't even any water for us to drink!"

6 Moses and Aaron left the people. They went to the entrance to the tent of meeting. There they fell with their faces to the ground. Then the glory of the LORD appeared to them. 7 The LORD said to Moses, 8 "Get your walking stick.
You and your brother Aaron gather the people together. Then speak to that rock while everyone is watching. It will pour out its water. You will bring water out of the rock for the community. Then they and their livestock can drink it."

9 So Moses took the walking stick from the tent. He did just as the LORD had commanded him. 10 He and Aaron gathered the people together in front of the rock. Moses said to them, "Listen, you who refuse to obey! Do we have to bring water out of this rock for you?" 11 Then Moses raised his arm. He hit the rock twice with his walking stick. Water poured out. And the people and their livestock drank it.

12 But the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron. He said, "You did not trust in me enough to honor me. You did not honor me as the holy God in front of the Israelites. So you will not bring this community into the land I am giving them."

13 Those were the waters of Meribah. That's where the Israelites argued with the LORD. And that's where he was proven to be holy among them.

Edom Doesn't Let Israel Pass Through Its Territory

14 Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom. The messengers said,

"The nation of Israel is your brother. They say, 'You know about all the hard times we've had. [15]Long ago our people went down into Egypt. We lived there for many years. The Egyptians treated us and our people badly. [16]But we cried out to the LORD. He heard our cry. He sent an angel and brought us out of Egypt.

" 'Now here we are at the town of Kadesh. It's on the edge of your territory. [17]Please let us pass through your country. We won't go through any field or vineyard. We won't drink water from any well. We'll travel along the King's Highway. We won't turn to the right or the left. We'll just go straight through your territory.' "

[18]But the people of Edom answered,

"We won't let you pass through here. If you try to, we'll march out against you. We'll attack you with our swords."

[19]The Israelites replied,

"We'll go along the main road. We and our livestock won't drink any of your water. If we do, we'll pay for it. We only want to walk through your country. That's all we ask."

[20]Again the people of Edom answered,

"We won't let you pass through here."

Then the people of Edom marched out against them. They came with a large and powerful army. [21]Edom refused to let Israel go through their territory. So Israel turned away from them.

Aaron Dies

[22]The whole community of Israel started out from Kadesh. They arrived at Mount Hor. [23]It was near the border of Edom. There the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron. He said, [24]"Aaron will join the members of his family who have already died. He will not enter the land I am giving to the Israelites. Both of you refused to obey my command. You did it at the waters of Meribah. [25]So get Aaron and his son Eleazar. Take them up Mount Hor. [26]Take Aaron's official robes off of him. Put them on his son Eleazar. Aaron will die on Mount Hor. He will join the members of his family who have already died.”

[27]Moses did just as the LORD had commanded. The three men went up Mount Hor while the whole community was watching. [28]Moses took Aaron’s official robes off of him. He put them on Aaron’s son Eleazar. And Aaron died there on top of the mountain. Then Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain. [29]The whole community found out that Aaron had died. So all the Israelites mourned for him for 30 days.

Numbers 21

Israel Destroys Arad

[1]The Canaanite king of the city of Arad lived in the Negev Desert. He heard that Israel was coming along the road to Atharim. So he attacked the Israelites.
He captured some of them. [2]Then Israel made a promise to the LORD. They said, “Hand these people over to us. If you do, we will set their cities apart to you in a special way to be destroyed.” [3]The LORD gave Israel what they asked for. He handed the Canaanites over to them. Israel completely destroyed them and their towns. So that place was named Hormah.

Moses Makes a Bronze Snake

[4]The Israelites traveled from Mount Hor along the way to the Red Sea. They wanted to go around Edom. But they grew tired on the way. [5]So they spoke against God and against Moses. They said, “Why have you brought us up out of Egypt? Do you want us to die here in the desert? We don’t have any bread! We don’t have any water! And we hate this awful food!”

[6]Then the LORD sent poisonous snakes among the Israelites. The snakes bit them. Many of the people died. [7]The others came to Moses. They said, “We sinned when we spoke against the LORD and against you. Pray that the LORD will take the snakes away from us.” So Moses prayed for the people.

[8]The LORD said to Moses, “Make a snake. Put it up on a pole. Then anyone who is bitten can look at it and remain alive.” [9]So Moses made a bronze snake.
He put it up on a pole. Then anyone who was bitten by a snake and looked at the bronze snake remained alive.

The People Continue On to Moab

[10]The Israelites moved on. They camped at Oboth. [11]Then they started out from Oboth. They camped in Iye Abarim. It’s in the desert on the eastern border of Moab. [12]From there they moved on. They camped in the Zered Valley. [13]They started out from there and camped by the Arnon River. It’s in the desert that spreads out into the territory of the Amorites. The Arnon is the border of Moab.
It’s between Moab and the Amorites. [14]Here is what the Book of the Wars of the LORD says about it.

“Sing about Zahab in Suphah and the valleys.
Sing about the Arnon [15]and the slopes of the valleys.
They lead to the settlement called Ar.
They lie along the border of Moab.”

[16]From there the Israelites continued on to Beer. That was the well where the LORD spoke to Moses. He said, “Gather the people together. I will give them water to drink.”
[17]Then Israel sang a song. They said,

“Spring up, you well!
Sing about it.
[18]Sing about the well the princes dug.
Sing about the well the nobles of the people dug.
All their rulers were holding their scepters and walking sticks.”

Then the Israelites went from the desert to Mattanah. [19]They went from Mattanah to Nahaliel. They went from Nahaliel to Bamoth. [20]And they went from Bamoth to a valley in Moab. It’s the valley where the highest slopes of Pisgah look out over a dry and empty land.

Israel Wins the Battle Over Sihon and Og

[21]The Israelites sent messengers to speak to Sihon. He was the king of the Amorites. The messengers said to him,

> [22]“Let us pass through your country. We won’t go off the road into any field or vineyard. We won’t drink water from any well. We’ll travel along the King’s Highway. We’ll just go straight through your territory.”

[23]But Sihon wouldn’t let Israel pass through his territory. He gathered his whole army together. Then he marched out into the desert against Israel. When he reached Jahaz, he fought against Israel. [24]But Israel put him to death with their swords. They took over his land. They took everything from the Arnon River to the Jabbok River. But they didn’t take over any of the land of the Ammonites. That’s because the Ammonites had built strong forts along their border. [25]The Israelites captured all the cities of the Amorites. Then they settled down in them. They captured the city of Heshbon. They also captured all the settlements around it. [26]Sihon, the king of the Amorites, ruled in Heshbon. He had fought against an earlier king of Moab. Sihon had taken from him all his land all the way to the Arnon River.

[27]That's why the poets say,

"Come to Heshbon. Let it be built again.
Let Sihon's city be made as good as new.

[28]"Fire went out from Heshbon.
A blaze went out from the city of Sihon.
It burned up Ar in Moab.
It burned up the citizens who lived on Arnon's hills.
[29]Moab, how terrible it is for you!
People of Chemosh, you are destroyed!
Chemosh has deserted his sons and daughters.
His sons have run away from the battle.
His daughters have become prisoners.
He has handed all of them over to Sihon,
the king of the Amorites.

[30]"But we have taken them over.
Heshbon's rule has been destroyed all the way to Dibon.
We have destroyed them as far as Nophah.
Nophah goes all the way to Medeba."

[31]So Israel settled in the land of the Amorites.

[32]Moses sent spies to the city of Jazer. The Israelites captured the settlements around it. They drove out the Amorites who were there. [33]Then they turned and went up along the road toward Bashan. Og was the king of Bashan. He and his whole army marched out. They went to fight against Israel at Edrei.

[34]The LORD said to Moses, "Do not be afraid of Og. I have handed him over to you. I have given you his whole army. I have also given you his land. Do to him what you did to Sihon, the king of the Amorites. He ruled in Heshbon."

[35]So the Israelites struck down Og and his sons. And they wiped out his whole army. They didn't leave anyone alive. They took over his land for themselves.

Numbers 22

Balak Sends For Balaam

[1]Then the Israelites traveled to the plains of Moab. They camped along the Jordan River across from Jericho.

[2]Balak saw everything that Israel had done to the Amorites. Balak was the son of Zippor. [3]The Moabites were terrified because there were so many Israelites. In fact, the Moabites were filled with panic because of the Israelites.

[4]The Moabites spoke to the elders of Midian. They said, “This huge mob is going to destroy everything around us. They’ll lick it up as an ox licks up all the grass in the fields.”

Balak, the son of Zippor, was the king of Moab at that time. [5]He sent messengers to get Balaam. Balaam was the son of Beor. Balaam was at the city of Pethor near the Euphrates River. Pethor was in the land where Balaam had been born. Balak told the messengers to say to Balaam,

> “A nation has come out of Egypt. They are covering the face of the land. They’ve set up camp next to me. [6]So come and put a curse on these people. They are too powerful for me. Maybe I’ll be able to win the battle over them. Maybe I’ll be able to drive them out of the land. I know that whoever you bless is blessed. And I know that whoever you cursed is cursed.”

[7]The elders of Moab and Midian left. They took with them the money they knew Balaam would ask for. They wanted him to use evil magic to figure things out for them. They came to where Balaam was. And they told him what Balak had said.

[8]“Spend the night here,” Balaam said to them. “I’ll report back to you with the answer the LORD gives me.” So the Moabite officials stayed with him.

[9]God came to Balaam. He asked, “Who are these men with you?”

[10]Balaam said to God, “Balak king of Moab, the son of Zippor, sent me a message. [11]He said, ‘A nation has come out of Egypt. They are covering the whole surface of the land. So come and put a curse on them for me. Maybe I’ll be able to fight them. Maybe I’ll be able to drive them away.’ ”

[12]But God said to Balaam, “Do not go with them. You must not put a curse on those people. I have blessed them.”

13The next morning Balaam got up. He said to Balak's officials, "Go back to your own country. The LORD won't let me go with you." 14So the Moabite officials returned to Balak. They said, "Balaam wouldn't come with us."
15Then Balak sent other officials. They were more important than the first ones. And there were more of them. 16They came to Balaam. They said,

> "Balak, the son of Zippor, says, 'Don't let anything keep you from > coming to me. 17I'll make you very rich. I'll do anything you say. So > come and put a curse on those people for me.' " 18But Balaam gave them his answer. He said, "Balak could give me all the silver and gold in his palace. Even then, I still couldn't do anything at all that goes beyond what the LORD my God commands. 19Now spend the night here so that I can find out what else the LORD will tell me." 20That night God came to Balaam. He said, "These men have come to get you.

So go with them. But do only what I tell you to do."

Balaam's Donkey

21Balaam got up in the morning. He put a saddle on his donkey. Then he went with the Moabite officials. 22But God was very angry when Balaam went. So the angel of the LORD stood in the road to oppose him. Balaam was riding on his donkey. His two servants were with him. 23The donkey saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road. The angel was holding a sword. He was ready for battle. So the donkey left the road and went into a field. Balaam hit the donkey.
He wanted to get it back on the road.
24Then the angel of the LORD stood in a narrow path. The path went through the vineyards. There were walls on both sides. 25The donkey saw the angel of the LORD. So it moved close to the wall. It crushed Balaam's foot against the wall. So he hit the donkey again.
26Then the angel of the LORD moved on ahead. He stood in a narrow place.
There was no room to turn, either right or left. 27The donkey saw the angel of the LORD. So it lay down under Balaam. That made him angry. He hit the donkey with his walking stick. 28Then the LORD opened the donkey's mouth. It said to Balaam, "What have I done to you? Why did you hit me these three times?"
29Balaam answered the donkey. He said, "You have made me look foolish! I wish I had a sword in my hand. If I did, I'd kill you right now."

30The donkey said to Balaam, "I'm your own donkey. I'm the one you have always ridden. Haven't you been riding me to this very day? Have I ever made you look foolish before?"

"No," he said.

31Then the LORD opened Balaam's eyes. He saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road. He saw that the angel was holding a sword. The angel was ready for battle. So Balaam bowed down. He fell with his face to the ground.

32The angel of the LORD spoke to him. He asked him, "Why have you hit your donkey three times? I have come here to oppose you. What you are doing is foolish. 33The donkey saw me. It turned away from me three times. Suppose it had not turned away. Then I would certainly have killed you by now. But I would have spared the donkey."

34Balaam said to the angel of the LORD, "I have sinned. I didn't realize you were standing in the road to oppose me. Tell me whether you are pleased with me. If you aren't, I'll go back."

35The angel of the LORD said to Balaam, "Go with the men. But say only what I tell you to say." So Balaam went with Balak's officials.

36Balak heard that Balaam was coming. So he went out to meet him. They met at a Moabite town near the Arnon River. The town was on the border of Balak's territory. 37Balak said to Balaam, "Didn't I send messengers to you? I wanted you to come quickly. So why didn't you come? I can make you very rich."

38"Well, I've come to you now," Balaam replied. "But I can't say whatever I please. I can only speak the words God puts in my mouth."

39Then Balaam went with Balak to Kiriath Huzoth. 40Balak sacrificed cattle and sheep. He gave some to Balaam. He also gave some to the officials with him. 41The next morning Balak took Balaam up to Bamoth Baal. From there he could see the outer edges of the Israelite camp.

Numbers 23

Balaam's First Message From God

[1]Balaam said to Balak, "Build me seven altars here. Prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me to sacrifice." [2]Balak did just as Balaam said. The two of them offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

[3]Then Balaam said to Balak, "Stay here beside your offering. I'll go and try to find out what the LORD wants me to do. Maybe he'll come and meet with me.
Then I'll tell you what he says to me." So Balaam went off to a bare hilltop.

[4]God met with him there. Balaam said, "I've prepared seven altars. On each altar I've offered a bull and a ram."

[5]The LORD put a message in Balaam's mouth. The LORD said, "Go back to Balak. Give him my message."

[6]So Balaam went back to him. He found Balak standing beside his offering.
All the Moabite officials were with him. [7]Then Balaam spoke the message he had received from God. He said,

"Balak brought me from the land of Aram.
The king of Moab sent for me from the mountains in the east.
'Come,' he said. 'Put a curse on Jacob's people for me.
Come. Speak against Israel.' [8]But how can I put a curse on people God hasn't cursed?
How can I speak against people the LORD hasn't spoken against?
[9]I see them from the rocky peaks.
I view them from the hills.
I see a group of people who live by themselves.
They don't consider themselves to be one of the nations.
[10]Jacob's people are like the dust of the earth.
Can dust be counted?
Who can count even a fourth of the Israelites?
Let me die as godly people die.
Let my death be like theirs!"

[11]Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? I brought you here to put a curse on my enemies! But all you have done is give them a blessing!”

12He answered, “I have to speak only the words the LORD puts in my mouth.”

Balaam’s Second Message From God

13Then Balak said to Balaam, “Come with me to another place. You can see the Israelites from there. You won’t see all of them. You will only see the outer edges of their camp. From there, put a curse on them for me.” 14So Balak took Balaam to the field of Zophim. It was on the highest slopes of Pisgah. There Balak built seven altars. He offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

15Balaam said to Balak, “Stay here beside your offering. I’ll meet with the LORD over there.”

16The LORD met with Balaam. He put a message in Balaam’s mouth. The LORD said, “Go back to Balak. Give him my message.”

17So Balaam went to Balak. He found him standing beside his offering. The Moabite officials were with him. Balak asked him, “What did the LORD say?”

18Then Balaam spoke the message he had received from God. He said, “Balak, rise up and listen.

Son of Zippor, hear me.
19God isn’t a mere human. He can’t lie.
He isn’t a human being. He doesn’t change his mind.
He speaks, and then he acts.
He makes a promise, and then he keeps it.
20He has commanded me to bless Israel.
He has given them his blessing. And I can’t change it.

21“I don’t see any trouble coming on the people of Jacob.
I don’t see any suffering in Israel.
The LORD their God is with them.
The shout of the King is among them.
22God brought them out of Egypt.
They are as strong as a wild ox.
23There isn’t any magic that can hurt the people of Jacob.
No one can use magic words to harm Israel.
Here is what will be said about the people of Jacob.
Here is what will be said about Israel.

People will say, ‘See what God has done!’
[24]The Israelites are going to wake up like a female lion.
They are going to get up like a male lion.
They are like a lion that won’t rest until it eats what it has caught.
They are like a lion that won’t rest until it drinks the blood of what it has killed.”

[25]Then Balak said to Balaam, “Don’t put a curse on them at all! And don’t give them a blessing at all!”

[26]Balaam answered, “Didn’t I tell you that I must do only what the LORD says?”

Balaam’s Third Message From God

[27]Then Balak said to Balaam, “Come. Let me take you to another place. Perhaps God will be pleased to let you put a curse on the Israelites for me from there.” [28]Balak took Balaam to the top of Mount Peor. It looks out over a dry and empty land.

[29]Balaam said, “Build me seven altars here. Prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me to sacrifice.” [30]Balak did just as Balaam said. He offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Numbers 24

[1]Balaam saw that the LORD was pleased to give his blessing to Israel. So he didn’t try to use evil magic as he had done at other times. Instead, he turned and looked toward the desert. [2]He looked out and saw Israel. They had set up their camps tribe by tribe. The Spirit of God came on him. [3]Balaam spoke the message he had received from God. He said,

“Here is the message God gave Balaam, the son of Beor.
It’s the message God gave to the one who sees clearly.
[4]It’s the message God gave to the one who hears the words of God.
He sees a vision from the Mighty One.
He falls down flat with his face toward the ground.
His eyes have been opened by the LORD.

[5]“People of Jacob, your tents are very beautiful.
Israel, the places where you live are very beautiful.

[6]“They spread out like valleys.
They are like gardens beside a river.
They are like aloes the LORD has planted.
They are like cedar trees beside a stream.
[7]Their water buckets will run over.
Their seeds will have plenty of water.

“Their king will be greater than King Agag.
Their kingdom will be honored.

[8]“God brought them out of Egypt.
They are as strong as a wild ox.
They destroy nations at war with them.
They break their bones in pieces.
They wound them with their arrows.
[9]Like a male lion they lie down and sleep.
They are like a female lion.
Who dares to wake them up?

“May those who bless you be blessed!
May those who curse you be cursed!”

10Then Balak became very angry with Balaam. He slapped his hands together. He said to Balaam, “I sent for you to put a curse on my enemies. But you have given them a blessing three times. 11Get out of here right away! Go home! I said I’d make you very rich. But the LORD has kept you from getting rich.”

12Balaam answered Balak, “Here is what I told the messengers you sent me. 13I said, ‘Balak could give me all the silver and gold in his palace. Even if I wanted to, I still couldn’t do anything at all that goes beyond what the LORD commands. I must say only what the LORD tells me to say.’ 14Now I’m going back to my people. But come. Let me warn you about what these people will do to your people in days to come.”

Balaam’s Fourth Message From God

15Then Balaam spoke the message he had received from God. He said,

“Here is the message God gave Balaam, the son of Beor.
It’s the message God gave to the one who sees clearly.
16It’s the message God gave to the one who hears the words of God.
The Most High God has given him knowledge.
He sees a vision from the Mighty One.
He falls down flat with his face toward the ground.
His eyes have been opened by the LORD.

17“I see him, but I don’t see him now.
I view him, but he isn’t near.
A star will come from among the people of Jacob.
A king will rise up out of Israel.
He’ll crush the foreheads of the people of Moab.
He’ll crush the heads of all the people of Sheth.
18He’ll win the battle over Edom.
He’ll win the battle over his enemy Seir.
But Israel will grow strong.
19A ruler will come from among the people of Jacob.
He’ll destroy those from the city who are still alive.”

Balaam's Fifth Message From God

[20]Then Balaam saw the Amalekites. He spoke the message he had received from God. He said,

"Amalek was the first nation to attack Israel.
But their end will be total destruction."

Balaam's Sixth Message From God

[21]Then Balaam saw the Kenites. He spoke the message he had received from God. He said,

"The place where you live is safe.
Your nest is on a high cliff.
[22]But you Kenites will be destroyed.
Ashur will take you as prisoners."

Balaam's Seventh Message From God

[23]Then Balaam spoke the message he had received from God. He said,

"Who can live when God does this?
[24]Ships will come from the shores of Cyprus.
They will bring Ashur and Eber under their control.
But they themselves will also be destroyed."

[25]Then Balaam got up and returned home. And Balak went on his way.

Numbers 25

Moab Leads Israel Astray

[1]Israel was staying in Shittim. The men of Israel began to commit sexual sins with the women of Moab. [2]The women invited the men to feasts and sacrifices to honor their gods. The people ate the sacrifices and bowed down in front of the statues of those gods. [3]So Israel joined in worshiping the god named Baal that was worshiped at Peor. The LORD became very angry with Israel.

[4]The LORD said to Moses, “Take all the leaders of these people. Kill them.
Put their dead bodies out in the open. I want to see you do it in the middle of the day. Then I will not be angry with Israel.”

[5]So Moses spoke to Israel’s judges. He said, “Some of your people have joined in worshiping the god named Baal that is worshiped at Peor. Each of you must kill the people in your tribe who have done that.”

[6]Then an Israelite man brought into the camp a Midianite woman. He did it right in front of the eyes of Moses and the whole community of Israel. They were weeping at the entrance to the tent of meeting. [7]Phinehas was a priest. He was the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron. When Phinehas saw what had happened, he left the people. He took a spear in his hand. [8]He followed the man into the tent. Phinehas stuck the spear through the man and into the woman’s stomach. Then the LORD stopped the plague against the Israelites. [9]But the plague had already killed 24,000 of them.

[10]The LORD said to Moses, [11]“Phinehas is a priest. He is the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron. Phinehas has turned my anger away from the Israelites. I am committed to making sure I am honored among them. And he is as committed as I am. So even though I was angry with them, I did not put an end to them. [12]So tell Phinehas I am making my covenant with him. It is my promise to give him peace. [13]He and his sons after him will have a covenant to be priests forever.
That is because he was committed to making sure that I, his God, was honored.
In that way he paid for the sin of the Israelites.”

[14]The name of the Israelite man who was killed was Zimri. He was the son of Salu. Zimri was killed along with the Midianite woman. Salu was a family leader in the tribe of Simeon. [15]The name of the Midianite woman who was killed was Kozbi. She was the daughter of Zur. He was the chief of a Midianite family.

16The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, 17“Treat the Midianites just as you would treat enemies. Kill them. 18After all, they treated you like enemies. They tricked you into worshiping the god named Baal that is worshiped at Peor. They also tricked you because of what Kozbi did. She was the woman killed when the plague came that was connected with Peor. Kozbi was the daughter of a Midianite leader.”

Numbers 26

The Men of Israel Are Counted a Second Time

[1]After the plague, the LORD spoke to Moses and Eleazar the priest. Eleazar was the son of Aaron. The LORD said, [2]"Count all the men of Israel. Make a list of them by their families. Count all the men who are able to serve in Israel's army. They must be 20 years old or more." [3]At that time the Israelites were on the plains of Moab. They were by the Jordan River across from Jericho. Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them. They said, [4]"Count all the men 20 years old or more. Do it just as the LORD commanded Moses."

Here are the men of Israel who came out of Egypt.

[5]Reuben was Israel's oldest son. Here are the names of his sons.
The Hanokite family came from Hanok.
The Palluite family came from Pallu.
[6]The Hezronite family came from Hezron.
The Karmite family came from Karmi.
[7]These were the families of Reuben. The number of men was 43,730.
[8]Eliab was the son of Pallu. [9]Eliab's sons were Nemuel, Dathan and Abiram. Dathan and Abiram were the same community officials who refused to obey Moses and Aaron. They were among the followers of Korah who refused to obey the LORD. [10]The ground opened its mouth. It swallowed them up along with Korah. The followers of Korah died when fire burned up 250 men. Their deaths were a warning to the rest of Israel. [11]But the family line of Korah didn't die out completely.

[12]Here are the names of Simeon's sons. They are listed by their families.
The Nemuelite family came from Nemuel.
The Jaminite family came from Jamin.
The Jakinite family came from Jakin.
[13]The Zerahite family came from Zerah.
The Shaulite family came from Shaul.
[14]These were the families of Simeon. The number of the men counted was 22,200.

15 Here are the names of Gad's sons. They are listed by their families.
The Zephonite family came from Zephon.
The Haggite family came from Haggi.
The Shunite family came from Shuni.
16 The Oznite family came from Ozni.
The Erite family came from Eri.
17 The Arodite family came from Arodi.
The Arelite family came from Areli.
18 These were the families of Gad. The number of the men counted was 40,500.

19 Er and Onan were sons of Judah. But they died in Canaan.

20 Here are the names of Judah's sons. They are listed by their families.
The Shelanite family came from Shelah.
The Perezite family came from Perez.
The Zerahite family came from Zerah.
21 Here are the names of the sons of Perez.
The Hezronite family came from Hezron.
The Hamulite family came from Hamul.
22 These were the families of Judah. The number of the men counted was 76,500.

23 Here are the names of Issachar's sons. They are listed by their families.
The Tolaite family came from Tola.
The Puite family came from Puah.
24 The Jashubite family came from Jashub.
The Shimronite family came from Shimron.
25 These were the families of Issachar. The number of the men counted was 64,300.

26 Here are the names of Zebulun's sons. They are listed by their families.
The Seredite family came from Sered.
The Elonite family came from Elon.
The Jahleelite family came from Jahleel.

[27]These were the families of Zebulun. The number of the men counted was 60,500.

[28]Here are the names of Joseph’s sons. They are listed by their families. The families came from Manasseh and Ephraim, the sons of Joseph.

[29]Here are the names of Manasseh’s sons.
The Makirite family came from Makir. Makir was the father of Gilead.
The Gileadite family came from Gilead.
[30]Here are the names of Gilead’s sons.
The Iezerite family came from Iezer.
The Helekite family came from Helek.
[31]The Asrielite family came from Asriel.
The Shechemite family came from Shechem.
[32]The Shemidaite family came from Shemida.
The Hepherite family came from Hepher.
[33]Zelophehad was the son of Hepher. Zelophehad didn’t have any sons. All he had was daughters. Their names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milkah and Tirzah.
[34]These were the families of Manasseh. The number of the men counted was 52,700.
[35]Here are the names of Ephraim’s sons. They are listed by their families.
The Shuthelahite family came from Shuthelah.
The Bekerite family came from Beker.
The Tahanite family came from Tahan.
[36]The sons of Shuthelah were the Eranite family. They came from Eran.
[37]These were the families of Ephraim. The number of the men counted was 32,500.
These were the sons of Joseph. They are listed by their families.

[38]Here are the names of Benjamin’s sons. They are listed by their families.
The Belaite family came from Bela.
The Ashbelite family came from Ashbel.

The Ahiramite family came from Ahiram.
[39]The Shuphamite family came from Shupham.
The Huphamite family came from Hupham.
[40]Bela's sons came from Ard and Naaman.
The Ardite family came from Ard.
The Naamite family came from Naaman.
[41]These were the families of Benjamin. The number of the men counted was 45,600.

[42]Here is the name of Dan's son. He is listed by his family.
The Shuhamite family came from Shuham.
This was the family of Dan. [43]All the men in Dan's family were Shuhamites. The number of the men counted was 64,400.

[44]Here are the names of Asher's sons. They are listed by their families.
The Imnite family came from Imnah.
The Ishvite family came from Ishvi.
The Beriite family came from Beriah.
[45]Here are the names of the families that came from Beriah's sons.
The Heberite family came from Heber.
The Malkielite family came from Malkiel.
[46]Asher also had a daughter named Serah.
[47]These were the families of Asher. The number of the men counted was 53,400.

[48]Here are the names of Naphtali's sons. They are listed by their families.
The Jahzeelite family came from Jahzeel.
The Gunite family came from Guni.
[49]The Jezerite family came from Jezer.
The Shillemite family came from Shillem.
[50]These were the families of Naphtali. The number of the men counted was 45,400.
[51]The total number of the men of Israel was 601,730.

[52]The LORD said to Moses, [53]"I will give the land to them. The amount of land each family receives will be based on the number of its men. [54]Give a larger share to a larger family. Give a smaller share to a smaller family. Each family will receive its share based on the number of men listed in it.

55“Be sure that you cast lots when you give out the land. What each family receives will be based on the number of men listed in its tribe. 56Cast lots when you give out each share. Cast lots for the larger and smaller families alike.”

57Here are the names of the Levites. They are listed by their families.
The Gershonite family came from Gershon.
The Kohathite family came from Kohath.
The Merarite family came from Merari.
58Here are the names of the other Levite families. They are the Libnite family,
the Hebronite family,
the Mahlite family,
the Mushite family,
the Korahite family.
Amram came from the Kohathite family. 59The name of Amram’s wife was Jochebed. She was from the family line of Levi. She was born to the Levites in Egypt. Aaron, Moses and their sister Miriam were born in the family line of Amram and Jochebed. 60Aaron was the father of Nadab and Abihu. He was also the father of Eleazar and Ithamar. 61But Nadab and Abihu made an offering to the LORD by using fire that wasn’t allowed. So they died.
62The number of male Levites a month old or more was 23,000. They weren’t listed along with the other men of Israel. That’s because they didn’t receive a share among them.

63These are the men counted by Moses and Eleazar the priest. At that time the Israelites were on the plains of Moab. They were by the Jordan River across from Jericho. 64The men of Israel had been counted before in the Sinai Desert by Moses and Aaron the priest. But not one of them was among the men counted this time. 65The LORD had told the Israelites at Kadesh Barnea that they would certainly die in the desert. Not one of them was left alive except Caleb and Joshua. Caleb was the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua was the son of Nun.

Numbers 27

Zelophehad's Daughters

[1]The daughters of Zelophehad belonged to the family groups of Manasseh. Zelophehad was the son of Hepher. Hepher was the son of Gilead. Gilead was the son of Makir. Makir was the son of Manasseh. And Manasseh was the son of Joseph. The names of Zelophehad's daughters were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milkah and Tirzah. They approached [2]the entrance to the tent of meeting. There they stood in front of Moses and Eleazar the priest. The leaders and the whole community were there too. Zelophehad's daughters said, [3]"Our father died in the Sinai Desert. But he wasn't one of the men who followed Korah. He wasn't one of those who joined together against the LORD. Our father died because of his own sin. He didn't leave any sons. [4]Why should our father's name disappear from his family just because he didn't have a son? Give us property among our father's relatives."

[5]So Moses brought their case to the LORD. [6]The LORD said to him, [7]"What Zelophehad's daughters are saying is right. You must certainly give them property. Give them a share among their father's relatives. Give their father's property to them.

[8]"Say to the Israelites, 'Suppose a man dies who doesn't have a son. Then give his property to his daughter. [9]Suppose the man doesn't have a daughter. Then give his property to his brothers. [10]Suppose the man doesn't have any brothers. Then give his property to his father's brothers. [11]Suppose his father doesn't have any brothers. Then give his property to the nearest male relative in his family group. It will belong to him. That is what the law will require of the Israelites. It is just as the LORD commanded me.' "

Joshua Becomes Israel's New Leader

[12]Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go up this mountain in the Abarim Range. See the land I have given the Israelites. [13]After you have seen it, you too will join the members of your family who have already died. You will die, just as your brother Aaron did. [14]The community refused to obey me at the waters of Meribah Kadesh in the Desert of Zin. At that time, you and Aaron did not obey my command. You did not honor me in front of them as the holy God."

[15]Moses spoke to the LORD. He said, [16]"LORD, you are the God who gives life and breath to all living things. Please put someone in charge of this community. [17]Have that person lead them and take care of them. Then your people won't be like sheep without a shepherd."

[18]So the LORD said to Moses, "Joshua, the son of Nun, has the ability to be a wise leader. Get him and place your hand on him. [19]Have him stand in front of Eleazar the priest and the whole community. Put him in charge while everyone is watching. [20]Give him some of your authority. Then the whole community of Israel will obey him. [21]Joshua will stand in front of Eleazar the priest. Eleazar will help him make decisions. Eleazar will get help from me by using the Urim. Joshua and the whole community of Israel must not make any move at all unless I command them to."

[22]Moses did just as the LORD commanded him. He got Joshua and had him stand in front of Eleazar the priest and the whole community. [23]Then Moses placed his hands on Joshua. And he put him in charge of the people. He did just as the LORD had directed through Moses.

Numbers 28

Offerings That Israel Must Bring Each Day

[1]The LORD said to Moses, [2]“Here is a command I want you to give the Israelites. Tell them, ‘Make sure to present to me my food offerings. Do it at the appointed time. Their smell will please me.’ [3]Tell them, ‘Here is the food offering you must present to the LORD. Present to him two lambs a year old.
They must not have any flaws. Present them as a regular burnt offering each day.
[4]Offer one lamb in the morning. Offer the other when the sun goes down.
[5]Present a grain offering along with them. It must have eight cups of the finest flour. Mix it with a quart of oil made from pressed olives. [6]It is the regular burnt offering. The LORD established it at Mount Sinai. It has a pleasant smell. It is a food offering presented to the LORD. [7]Along with that, offer a quart of wine as a drink offering. It must be given along with each lamb. Pour out the drink offering to the LORD at the sacred tent. [8]Offer the second lamb when the sun goes down. Sacrifice it along with the same kind of grain offering and drink offering that you present in the morning. It is a food offering. Its smell pleases the LORD.

Offerings That Israel Must Bring on the Sabbath Day

[9]“ ‘On the Sabbath day, make an offering of two lambs. They must be a year old. They must not have any flaws. Sacrifice them along with their drink offering. Sacrifice them along with a grain offering of 16 cups of the finest flour.
Mix it with olive oil. [10]It is the burnt offering for every Sabbath day. It is in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Offerings That Israel Must Bring Every Month

[11]“ ‘On the first day of every month, bring to the LORD a burnt offering.
Bring two young bulls and one ram. Also bring seven male lambs a year old.
They must not have any flaws. [12]Present a grain offering along with each bull. It must have 24 cups of the finest flour. Mix it with olive oil. Present a grain offering along with the ram. It must have 16 cups of the finest flour. Mix it with oil. [13]Present a grain offering along with each lamb. It must have eight cups of the finest flour. Mix it with oil. It is for a burnt offering. It has a pleasant smell.

It is a food offering presented to the LORD. [14]Present a drink offering along with each bull. It must have two quarts of wine. Offer two and a half pints along with the ram. And offer one quart along with each lamb. It is the burnt offering for each month. It must be made on the day of each New Moon feast during the year. [15]One male goat must be sacrificed to the LORD as a sin offering. It is in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

The Passover Feast

[16]“ ‘The LORD’s Passover Feast must be held on the 14th day of the first month. [17]On the 15th day of the month there must be a feast. For seven days eat bread made without yeast. [18]On the first day come together for a special service. Do not do any regular work. [19]Present to the LORD a food offering. Present a burnt offering of two young bulls and one ram. Also present seven male lambs a year old. They must not have any flaws. [20]Present a grain offering along with each bull. The offering must have 24 cups of the finest flour. Mix it with olive oil. Offer 16 cups along with the ram. [21]Offer eight cups along with each of the seven lambs. [22]Include a male goat as a sin offering. It will pay for your sin. [23]Offer everything in addition to the regular morning burnt offering. [24]Present the food offering every day for seven days. The smell of the offering will please the LORD. You must present the offering in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering. [25]On the seventh day come together for a special service. Do not do any regular work.

The Feast of Weeks

[26]“ ‘On the day you gather the first share of your crops, present to the LORD an offering of your first grain. Do it during the Feast of Weeks. Come together for a special service. Do not do any regular work. [27]Sacrifice a burnt offering of two young bulls and one ram. Also sacrifice seven male lambs a year old. The smell of the offering will please the LORD. [28]Present a grain offering along with each bull. It must have 24 cups of the finest flour. Mix it with olive oil. Offer 16 cups along with the ram. [29]Offer eight cups along with each of the seven lambs. [30]Include a male goat to pay for your sin. [31]Present everything along with the drink offerings. Do it in addition to the regular burnt offering and its grain offering. Be sure the animals do not have any flaws.

Numbers 29

The Feast of Trumpets

1“ ‘On the first day of the seventh month, come together for a special service.
Do not do any regular work. Blow the trumpets on that day. 2Sacrifice a burnt offering. Its smell will please the LORD. Sacrifice one young bull and one ram.
Also sacrifice seven male lambs a year old. They must not have any flaws.
3Present a grain offering along with the bull. It must have 24 cups of the finest flour. Mix it with olive oil. Offer 16 cups along with the ram. 4Offer eight cups along with each of the seven lambs. 5Include a male goat as a sin offering. It will pay for your sin. 6Each month and each day you must sacrifice burnt offerings.
Sacrifice them along with their grain offerings and drink offerings as they are required. The offerings for the Feast of Trumpets are in addition to the monthly and daily burnt offerings. They are food offerings presented to the LORD. They have a pleasant smell.

The Day When Sin Is Paid For

7“ ‘On the tenth day of the seventh month, come together for a special service.
You must not eat anything on that day. You must not do any work on it.
8Sacrifice a burnt offering. Its smell will please the LORD. Sacrifice one young bull and one ram. Also sacrifice seven male lambs a year old. They must not have any flaws. 9Present a grain offering along with the bull. The offering must have 24 cups of the finest flour. Mix it with olive oil. Offer 16 cups along with the ram. 10Offer eight cups along with each of the seven lambs. 11Include a male goat as a sin offering. It is in addition to the offering that pays for sin. It is in addition to the regular burnt offering along with its grain offering. It is also in addition to their drink offerings.

The Feast of Booths

12“ ‘On the 15th day of the seventh month, come together for a special service. Do not do any regular work. Celebrate the Feast of Booths for seven days to honor the LORD. 13Present a food offering. Its smell will please the LORD. Sacrifice a burnt offering of 13 young bulls and two rams. Also sacrifice 14 male lambs a year old. They must not have any flaws. 14Present a grain offering along with each of the 13 bulls. It must have 24 cups of the finest flour. Mix it with olive oil. Offer 16 cups along with each of the two rams. [15]Offer eight cups along with each of the 14 lambs. [16]Include a male goat as a sin offering. It is in addition to the regular burnt offering. It is also in addition to its grain offering and drink offering.

[17]“ ‘On the second day sacrifice 12 young bulls and two rams. Also sacrifice 14 male lambs a year old. They must not have any flaws. [18]Present their grain offerings and drink offerings. Present them along with the bulls, rams and lambs. Present them according to the required number. [19]Include a male goat as a sin offering. It is in addition to the regular burnt offering along with its grain offering. It is also in addition to their drink offerings.

[20]“ ‘On the third day sacrifice 11 bulls and two rams. Also sacrifice 14 male lambs a year old. They must not have any flaws. [21]Present their grain offerings and drink offerings. Present them along with the bulls, rams and lambs. Present them according to the required number. [22]Include a male goat as a sin offering. It is in addition to the regular burnt offering. It is also in addition to its grain offering and drink offering.

[23]“ ‘On the fourth day sacrifice ten bulls and two rams. Also sacrifice 14 male lambs a year old. They must not have any flaws. [24]Present their grain offerings and drink offerings. Present them along with the bulls, rams and lambs. Present them according to the required number. [25]Include a male goat as a sin offering. It is in addition to the regular burnt offering. It is also in addition to its grain offering and drink offering.

[26]“ ‘On the fifth day sacrifice nine bulls and two rams. Also sacrifice 14 male lambs a year old. They must not have any flaws. [27]Present their grain offerings and drink offerings. Present them along with the bulls, rams and lambs. Present them according to the required number. [28]Include a male goat as a sin offering. It is in addition to the regular burnt offering. It is also in addition to its grain offering and drink offering.

[29]“ ‘On the sixth day sacrifice eight bulls and two rams. Also sacrifice 14 male lambs a year old. They must not have any flaws. [30]Present their grain offerings and drink offerings. Present them along with the bulls, rams and lambs. Present them according to the required number. [31]Include a male goat as a sin offering. It is in addition to the regular burnt offering. It is also in addition to its grain offering and drink offering.

[32]“ ‘On the seventh day sacrifice seven bulls and two rams. Also sacrifice 14

male lambs a year old. They must not have any flaws. [33]Present their grain offerings and drink offerings. Present them along with the bulls, rams and lambs. Present them according to the required number. [34]Include a male goat as a sin offering. It is in addition to the regular burnt offering. It is also in addition to its grain offering and drink offering.

[35]“ ‘On the eighth day come together for a closing sacred service. Do not do any regular work. [36]Present a food offering. Its smell will please the LORD. Sacrifice a burnt offering of one bull and one ram. Also sacrifice seven male lambs a year old. They must not have any flaws. [37]Present their grain offerings and drink offerings. Present them along with the bull, the ram and the lambs. Present them according to the required number. [38]Include a male goat as a sin offering. It is in addition to the regular burnt offering. It is also in addition to its grain offering and drink offering.

[39]“ ‘Here are the offerings you must present to the LORD at your appointed feasts. They are burnt offerings, grain offerings, drink offerings and friendship offerings. They are in addition to the offerings you bring to keep a special promise you make to the LORD. They are also in addition to the offerings you choose to give.’ ”

[40]Moses told the Israelites everything the LORD had commanded him.

Numbers 30

Special Promises

[1]Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes of Israel. He said, “Here is what the LORD commands. [2]Suppose a man makes a special promise to the LORD. Or suppose he gives his word to do something. Then he must keep his promise. He must do everything he said he would do.

[3]“Suppose a young woman is still living in her father’s house. She makes a special promise to the LORD. Or she gives her word to do something. [4]Suppose her father hears about her promise. And he doesn’t say anything to her about it. Then she must keep her promise. She must do what she agreed to do. [5]But suppose her father doesn’t allow her to keep her promises when he hears about them. Then she doesn’t have to do what she promised or agreed to do. The LORD will set her free. He’ll do it because her father hasn’t allowed her to keep her promises.

[6]“Suppose she gets married after she makes a special promise. Or she gets married after agreeing to do something without thinking it through. [7]Suppose her husband hears about what she did. And he doesn’t say anything to her about it. Then she must keep her promise. She must do what she agreed to do. [8]But suppose her husband doesn’t allow her to keep her promises when he hears about them. Then she doesn’t have to do what she promised. She doesn’t have to do what she agreed to do without thinking it through. The LORD will set her free.

[9]“Suppose a widow makes a special promise. Or suppose she gives her word to do something. Then she must keep her promise. She must do what she agreed to do. The same rules apply to a woman who has been divorced.

[10]“Suppose a woman living with her husband makes a special promise. Or she gives her word to do something. [11]Suppose her husband hears about what she did. He doesn’t say anything to her about it. And he doesn’t try to stop her from keeping her promises. Then she must keep all of them. She must do what she agreed to do. [12]But suppose her husband doesn’t allow her to keep her promises when he hears about them. Then she doesn’t have to do what she promised. She doesn’t have to do what she agreed to do. Her husband has kept her from doing what she said she would do. The LORD will set her free. [13]Her husband can let her keep any special promise she makes. Or he can refuse to let her keep it. Suppose she gives her word not to eat anything. Then her husband can let her keep her promise. Or he can refuse to let her keep it. [14]But suppose day after day her husband doesn’t say anything to her about what she did. Then he lets her keep all her promises. He lets her do everything she agreed to do. That’s because he didn’t say anything to her when he heard about what she had done. [15]But suppose some time after he hears about her promises he doesn’t let her keep them. Then she will be guilty. But he will bear the consequences for her guilt.”

[16]These are the rules the LORD gave Moses about a man and his wife. And these are the rules the LORD gave about a father and his young daughter still living at home.

Numbers 31

The LORD Punishes the Midianites

1The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, 2"Pay the Midianites back for what they did to the Israelites. After that, you will join the members of your family who have already died."

3So Moses said to the people, "Prepare some of your men for battle. They must go to war against Midian. They will carry out the LORD's plan to punish Midian. 4Send 1,000 men from each of the tribes of Israel into battle." 5So Moses prepared 12,000 men for battle. There were 1,000 from each tribe. They came from the families of Israel. 6Moses sent them into battle. He sent 1,000 from each tribe. Phinehas the priest went along with them. Phinehas was the son of Eleazar. Phinehas took some things from the sacred tent with him. He also took the trumpets. The trumpet blasts would tell the people what to do and when to do it.

7They fought against Midian, just as the LORD had commanded Moses. They killed every man. 8Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur and Reba were among the men they killed. Those men were the five kings of Midian. The Israelites also killed Balaam with their swords. Balaam was the son of Beor. 9The Israelites captured the Midianite women and children. They took for themselves all the herds, flocks and goods. 10They burned down all the towns where the Midianites lived.
They also burned all their camps. 11They carried off everything they had taken.
That included the people and the animals. 12They brought back to Israel's camp the prisoners and everything else they had taken. They took them to Moses and to Eleazar the priest. They brought them to the whole community. Israel was camped on the plains of Moab. They were by the Jordan River across from Jericho.

13Moses and Eleazar the priest went to meet them outside the camp. So did all the leaders of the community. 14Moses was angry with the officers of the army who had returned from the battle. Some of them were the commanders of thousands of men. Others were the commanders of hundreds.

15"Have you let all the women remain alive?" Moses asked them. 16"The women followed Balaam's advice. They caused the Israelites to be unfaithful to the LORD. The people worshiped the god named Baal that was worshiped at Peor. So a plague struck them. 17Kill all the boys. And kill every woman who has slept with a man. [18]But save for yourselves every woman who has never slept with a man.

[19]“Anyone who has killed a person must stay outside the camp for seven days. And anyone who has touched a person who was killed must do the same thing. On the third and seventh days you must make yourselves pure. You must also make your prisoners pure. [20]Make all your clothes pure and ‘clean.’ Everything made out of leather, goat hair or wood must be made pure and ‘clean.’ ”

[21]Then Eleazar the priest spoke to the soldiers who had gone into battle. He said, “Here is what the law the LORD gave Moses requires. [22]All your gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin and lead [23]must be put through fire. So must everything else that doesn’t burn up. Then those things will be ‘clean.’ But they must also be made pure with the special water. In fact, everything that won’t burn up must be put through that water. [24]On the seventh day wash your clothes. And you will be ‘clean.’ Then you can come into the camp.”

The People Divide Up What They Had Taken

[25]The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, [26]“Here is what you and Eleazar the priest and the family leaders of the community must do. You must count all the people and animals you captured. [27]Divide up some of what you took with the soldiers who fought in the battle. Divide up the rest with the others in the community. [28]Set apart a gift for me. Take something from the soldiers who fought in the battle. Set apart one out of every 500 people, cattle, donkeys or sheep. [29]Take my gift from the soldiers’ half. Give it to Eleazar the priest. It is my share. [30]Also take something from the half that belongs to the Israelites. Choose one out of every 50 people, cattle, donkeys, sheep or other animals. Give them to the Levites. They are responsible for taking care of my holy tent.” [31]So Moses and Eleazar the priest did just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

[32]What the soldiers took included 675,000 sheep. [33]There were also 72,000 cattle [34]and 61,000 donkeys. [35]And there were 32,000 women who had never slept with a man.

[36]Here is the half that belonged to those who had fought in the battle.

There were 337,500 sheep. [37]From among them, the LORD’s gift was 675.

[38]There were 36,000 cattle. From among them, the LORD’s gift was 72.

[39]There were 30,500 donkeys. From among them, the LORD’s gift was 61.
[40]There were 16,000 women. From among them, the LORD’s gift was 32.

[41]Moses gave the gift to Eleazar the priest. It was the LORD’s share. Moses did just as the LORD had commanded him.

[42]The other half belonged to the Israelites. Moses set it apart from what belonged to the fighting men. [43]The community’s half was 337,500 sheep, [44]36,000 cattle, [45]30,500 donkeys [46]and 16,000 women. [47]Moses chose one out of every 50 people and animals. He gave them to the Levites. They were accountable for taking care of the LORD’s holy tent. Moses did just as the LORD had commanded him.

[48]Then the army officers went to Moses. Some of them were the commanders of thousands of men. Others were the commanders of hundreds. [49]All of them said to Moses, “We have counted the soldiers under our command. Not a single one is missing. [50]So we’ve brought an offering to the LORD. We’ve brought the gold each of us took in the battle. That includes armbands, bracelets, rings, earrings and necklaces. We’ve brought them in front of the LORD to pay for our sin.”

[51]Moses and Eleazar the priest accepted the beautiful gold things from the army officers. [52]The gold received from the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds weighed 420 pounds. Moses and Eleazar offered all of it as a gift to the LORD. [53]Each soldier had taken things from the battle for himself. [54]Moses and Eleazar the priest accepted the gold from all the commanders. They brought it into the tent of meeting. It reminded the LORD of the Israelites.

Numbers 32

The Tribes on the East Side of the Jordan River

[1]The tribes of Reuben and Gad had very large herds and flocks. They looked at the lands of Jazer and Gilead. They saw that those lands were just right for livestock. [2]So they came to Moses and Eleazar the priest. They also came to the leaders of the community. They said, [3]"We have seen the cities of Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah and Heshbon. We've seen Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo and Beon. [4]All of them are in the land the LORD has brought under Israel's control.
This land is just right for livestock. And we have livestock. [5]We hope you are pleased with us," they continued. "If you are, please give us this land. Then it will belong to us. But don't make us go across the Jordan River."

[6]Moses spoke to the people of Gad and Reuben. He said, "Should the rest of us go to war while you stay here? [7]The LORD has given the land of Canaan to the Israelites. So why would you want to keep them from going over into it?
[8]That's what your fathers did. I sent them from Kadesh Barnea to check out the land. [9]They went up to the Valley of Eshkol and looked at the land. Then they talked the Israelites out of entering the land the LORD had given them. [10]The LORD's anger was stirred up that day. So he made a promise. He said, [11]'Not one of those who were 20 years old or more when they came up out of Egypt will see the land. They have not followed me with their whole heart. I promised to give the land to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. [12]But not one of the people who came up out of Egypt will see the land except Caleb and Joshua. Caleb is the son of Jephunneh, the Kenizzite. And Joshua is the son of Nun. They will see the land. They followed the LORD with their whole heart.' [13]The LORD became very angry with Israel. He made them wander around in the desert for 40 years.
They wandered until all the people who had done evil in his sight had died.

[14]"Now here you are, you bunch of sinners! You have taken the place of your fathers. And you are making the LORD even angrier with Israel. [15]What if you turn away from following him? Then he'll leave all these people in the desert again. And it will be your fault when they are destroyed."

[16]Then they came up to Moses. They said, "We would like to build pens here for our livestock. We would also like to build cities for our women and children.
[17]But we will prepare ourselves for battle. We're even ready to go ahead of the Israelites. We'll march out with them until we've brought them to their place.

While we're gone, our women and children will live in cities that have high walls around them. That will keep them safe from the people living in this land. [18]We won't return to our homes until each of the Israelites has received their share of the land. [19]We won't receive any share with them on the west side of the Jordan River. We've already received our share here on the east side."

[20]Then Moses said to them, "Do what you have promised to do. Get ready to fight for the LORD. [21]Prepare yourselves and go across the Jordan River. Fight for the LORD until he has driven out his enemies in front of him. [22]When the land is under the LORD's control, you can come back here. Your duty to the LORD and Israel will be over. Then the LORD will give you this land as your own.

[23]"But what if you fail to do your duty? Then you will be sinning against the LORD. And you may be sure that your sin will be discovered. It will be brought out into the open. [24]So build up cities for your women and children. Make sheep pens for your flocks. But do what you have promised to do."

[25]The people of Gad and Reuben spoke to Moses. They said, "We will do just as you command. [26]Our children and wives will remain here in the cities of Gilead. So will our flocks and herds. [27]But we will prepare ourselves for battle. We'll go across the Jordan River and fight for the LORD. We will do just as you have said."

[28]Then Moses gave orders about them to Eleazar the priest. He gave the same orders to Joshua, the son of Nun. He also spoke to the family leaders of the Israelite tribes. [29]He said, "The men of Gad and Reuben must get ready for battle. They must go across the Jordan River with you. They must help you fight for the LORD. They must stay with you until the land has been brought under your control. If they do, you must give them the land of Gilead as their own. [30]But what if they don't get ready for battle? What if they don't go across the Jordan with you? Then they must accept a share with you in Canaan."

[31]The people of Gad and Reuben gave their answer. They said, "We will do what the LORD has said. [32]We'll get ready for battle. We'll go across the Jordan into Canaan. We'll fight for the LORD there. But the property we receive will be on this side of the Jordan River."

[33]Then Moses gave their land to them. He gave it to the tribes of Gad and Reuben and half of the tribe of Manasseh. Manasseh was Joseph's son. One part of that land had belonged to the kingdom of Sihon. He was the king of the Amorites. The other part had belonged to the kingdom of Og. He was the king of Bashan. Moses gave that whole land to those two and a half tribes. It included its cities and the territory around them.

[34]The people of Gad built up the cities of Dibon, Ataroth and Aroer. [35]They built up Atroth Shophan, Jazer, Jogbehah, [36]Beth Nimrah and Beth Haran. They built a high wall around each of those cities. They also built sheep pens for their flocks. [37]The people of Reuben built up Heshbon, Elealeh and Kiriathaim. [38]They also built up Nebo, Baal Meon and Sibmah. They gave new names to the cities they had built up.

[39]The people of Makir, the son of Manasseh, went to the land of Gilead. They captured it. They drove out the Amorites living there. [40]So Moses gave Gilead to the people of Makir, the son of Manasseh. And they settled there. [41]Jair was from the family line of Manasseh. Jair captured Gilead's settlements. He called them Havvoth Jair. [42]Nobah captured Kenath and the settlements around it. He named it after himself.

Numbers 33

The Places Where Israel Camped During Their Journey

[1]Here are the places where the Israelites camped during their journey. When they came out of Egypt, they marched in groups like an army. Moses and Aaron led them. [2]The LORD commanded Moses to record their journey. Here are the places where they camped.

[3]The Israelites started out from Rameses on the 15th day of the first month. It was the day after the Passover Feast. They marched out boldly in plain sight of all the Egyptians. [4]The Egyptians were burying all their oldest sons. The LORD had struck them down. He had done it when he punished their gods.

[5]The Israelites left Rameses and camped at Sukkoth.

[6]They left Sukkoth and camped at Etham. Etham was on the edge of the desert.

[7]They left Etham and turned back to Pi Hahiroth. It was east of Baal Zephon. They camped near Migdol.

[8]They left Pi Hahiroth. Then they passed through the Red Sea into the desert. They traveled for three days in the Desert of Etham. Then they camped at Marah.

[9]They left Marah and went to Elim. Twelve springs and 70 palm trees were there. So they camped at Elim.

[10]They left Elim and camped by the Red Sea.

[11]They left the Red Sea and camped in the Desert of Sin.

[12]They left the Desert of Sin and camped at Dophkah.

[13]They left Dophkah and camped at Alush.

[14]They left Alush and camped at Rephidim. But there was no water there for the people to drink.

[15]They left Rephidim and camped in the Desert of Sinai.

[16]They left the Desert of Sinai and camped at Kibroth Hattaavah.

[17]They left Kibroth Hattaavah and camped at Hazeroth.

[18]They left Hazeroth and camped at Rithmah.

[19]They left Rithmah and camped at Rimmon Perez.

[20]They left Rimmon Perez and camped at Libnah.

[21]They left Libnah and camped at Rissah.
[22]They left Rissah and camped at Kehelathah.
[23]They left Kehelathah and camped at Mount Shepher.
[24]They left Mount Shepher and camped at Haradah.
[25]They left Haradah and camped at Makheloth.
[26]They left Makheloth and camped at Tahath.
[27]They left Tahath and camped at Terah.
[28]They left Terah and camped at Mithkah.
[29]They left Mithkah and camped at Hashmonah.
[30]They left Hashmonah and camped at Moseroth.
[31]They left Moseroth and camped at Bene Jaakan.
[32]They left Bene Jaakan and camped at Hor Haggidgad.
[33]They left Hor Haggidgad and camped at Jotbathah.
[34]They left Jotbathah and camped at Abronah.
[35]They left Abronah and camped at Ezion Geber.
[36]They left Ezion Geber and camped at Kadesh. Kadesh was in the Desert of Zin.
[37]They left Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor. It was on the border of Edom. [38]Aaron the priest went up Mount Hor when the LORD commanded him to. That's where he died. It happened on the first day of the fifth month. It was the 40th year after the Israelites came out of Egypt. [39]Aaron was 123 years old when he died on Mount Hor.
[40]The Canaanite king of Arad lived in the Negev Desert in Canaan. He heard that the Israelites were coming.
[41]They left Mount Hor and camped at Zalmonah.
[42]They left Zalmonah and camped at Punon.
[43]They left Punon and camped at Oboth.
[44]They left Oboth and camped at Iye Abarim. It was on the border of Moab.
[45]They left Iye Abarim and camped at Dibon Gad.
[46]They left Dibon Gad and camped at Almon Diblathaim.
[47]They left Almon Diblathaim and camped in the mountains of Abarim near Nebo.
[48]They left the mountains of Abarim and camped on the plains of Moab. That area was by the Jordan River across from Jericho. [49]They camped there along the Jordan River from Beth Jeshimoth to Abel Shittim.

50On the plains of Moab the LORD spoke to Moses. He spoke to him by the Jordan River across from Jericho. The LORD said, 51"Speak to the Israelites. Tell them, 'Go across the Jordan River into Canaan. 52Drive out all those living in the land. The statues of their gods are made out of stone and metal. Destroy all those statues. And destroy all the high places where they are worshiped. 53Take the land as your own. Make your homes in it. I have given it to you. 54Cast lots when you divide up the land. Do it based on the number of people in each tribe and family. Give a larger share to a larger group. And give a smaller group a smaller share. The share they receive by casting lots will belong to them. Give out the shares based on the number of people in Israel's tribes.

55" 'But suppose you do not drive out the people living in the land. Then those you allow to remain there will become like needles in your eyes. They will become like thorns in your sides. They will give you trouble in the land where you will live. 56Then I will do to you what I plan to do to them.' "

Numbers 34

Israel Arrives at the Borders of Canaan

1The LORD said to Moses, 2“Give the Israelites a command. Tell them, ‘You are going to enter Canaan. The land will be given to you as your own.
Here are the borders it must have.

3“ ‘Your southern border will include part of the Desert of Zin. It will be along the border of Edom. Your southern border will start in the east from the southern end of the Dead Sea. 4It will cross south of Scorpion Pass. It will continue on to Zin. From there it will go south of Kadesh Barnea. Then it will go to Hazar Addar and over to Azmon. 5There it will turn and join the Wadi of Egypt. It will come to an end at the Mediterranean Sea.
6“ ‘Your western border will be the coast of the Mediterranean Sea.
That will be your border on the west.
7“ ‘For your northern border, run a line from the Mediterranean Sea to Mount Hor. 8Continue it from Mount Hor to Lebo Hamath. Then the border will go to Zedad. 9It will continue to Ziphron. It will come to an end at Hazar Enan. That will be your border on the north.
10“ ‘For your eastern border, run a line from Hazar Enan to Shepham.
11The border will go down from Shepham to Riblah. Riblah is on the east side of Ain. From there the border will continue along the slopes east of the Sea of Galilee. 12Then the border will go down along the Jordan River. It will come to an end at the Dead Sea.
“ ‘That will be your land. And those will be its borders on every side.’ ”

13Moses gave the Israelites a command. He said, “Cast lots when you divide up the land. Each tribe will have its own share. The LORD has ordered it to be given to the nine and a half tribes. 14The families of the tribes of Reuben and Gad have already received their shares. The families of half of the tribe of Manasseh have also received their share. 15Those two and a half tribes have received their shares east of the Jordan River. It flows near Jericho. Their land is toward the sunrise.”

16The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, 17“Here are the names of the men who will give out the shares of the land to your people. They are Eleazar the priest and Joshua, the son of Nun. [18]Also appoint one leader from each of the nine and a half tribes. They will help you give out the land.

[19]Here are their names.

"Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, is from the tribe of Judah.
[20]Shemuel, the son of Ammihud, is from the tribe of Simeon.
[21]Elidad, the son of Kislon, is from the tribe of Benjamin.
[22]Bukki, the son of Jogli, is the leader from the tribe of Dan.
[23]Hanniel, the son of Ephod, is the leader from the tribe of Manasseh. Manasseh was the son of Joseph.
[24]Kemuel, the son of Shiphtan, is the leader from the tribe of Ephraim. Ephraim was the son of Joseph.
[25]Elizaphan, the son of Parnak, is the leader from the tribe of Zebulun.
[26]Paltiel, the son of Azzan, is the leader from the tribe of Issachar.
[27]Ahihud, the son of Shelomi, is the leader from the tribe of Asher.
[28]Pedahel, the son of Ammihud, is the leader from the tribe of Naphtali."
[29]These are the men the LORD commanded to give out the shares of the land. They were commanded to give them to Israel in the land of Canaan.

Numbers 35

The Levites Receive Their Towns

[1]On the plains of Moab, the LORD spoke to Moses. It was by the Jordan River across from Jericho. The LORD said, [2]"Command the Israelites to give the Levites towns to live in. The towns must come from the shares of land the people will have as their own. Also give the Levites the grasslands around the towns. [3]Then the Levites will have towns to live in. They will also have grasslands for their cattle and all their other livestock.

[4]"The grasslands around each town you give them will go out to 1,500 feet from the town wall. [5]Outside each town, the east side will measure 3,000 feet. So will the south side, the west side and the north side. The town must be in the center. And the Levites will own the grasslands around each town.

Cities to Run to for Safety

[6]"Six of the towns you give the Levites will be cities to go to for safety. A person who has killed someone can run to one of them. Also give the Levites 42 other towns. [7]You must give the Levites a total of 48 towns. Also give them the grasslands around those towns. [8]The towns you give the Levites must come from the land the Israelites have as their own. So the number you give from each tribe will depend on the size of that tribe's share. Take many towns from a tribe that has many towns. But take only a few towns from a tribe that has only a few."

[9]Then the LORD said to Moses, [10]"Speak to the Israelites. Tell them, 'You will soon go across the Jordan River. You will enter Canaan. [11]When you do, choose the cities to go to for safety. People who have killed someone by accident can run to one of those cities. [12]They will be places of safety for them. People will be safe there from those who want to kill them. Then anyone charged with murder will not die before their case has been brought to the community court. [13]Six towns will be the cities you can go to for safety. [14]Three will be east of the Jordan River. The other three will be in Canaan. [15]Those six towns will be places where the Israelites can go for safety. Outsiders living in Israel can also go to them for safety. So anyone who has killed another person by accident can run there.

[16]" 'Suppose a person uses an iron object to hit and kill someone. Then that person is a murderer and must be put to death. [17]Or suppose a person is holding a stone that could kill. And they use it to hit and kill someone. Then that person is a murderer and must be put to death. [18]Or suppose a person is holding a wooden object that could kill. And they use it to hit and kill someone. Then that person is a murderer and must be put to death. [19]The dead person's nearest male relative must kill the murderer. When he meets up with him, he must kill the murderer. [20]What if a person makes evil plans against someone else? And what if that person pushes them so that they die? Or what if that person throws something at them so that they die? [21]Or what if that person hits another person with a fist so that the other dies? Then the person who does any of those things must be put to death. That person is a murderer. The dead person's nearest male relative must kill the murderer. When he meets up with him, he must kill the murderer.

[22]" 'But what if a person suddenly pushes someone else without being angry? Or what if that person throws something at someone else without meaning to? [23]Or what if that person does not see the other person and drops a stone on them that kills them? He was not the dead person's enemy. He did not mean to harm them. [24]Then the court must decide between the person who did the act and the nearest male relative of the one who was killed. Here are the rules the court must follow. [25]The court must provide a safe place for the person accused of murder. It must keep the one accused of murder safe from those who want to kill them. The court must send the accused person back to the city they ran to for safety. The accused person must stay there until the high priest dies. That priest has been anointed with holy oil.

[26]" 'But suppose the accused person goes outside that city. [27]And suppose the dead person's nearest male relative finds them outside the city. Then the relative can kill the accused person. The relative will not be guilty of murder. [28]The accused person must stay in that city until the high priest dies. Only then may they return home.

[29]" 'This is what the law requires of you for all time to come. It will apply to you no matter where you live.

[30]" 'Suppose a person kills someone. Then that person must be put to death as a murderer. But do it only when there are witnesses who can tell what happened. Do not put anyone to death if only one witness tells what happened.

[31]" 'Do not accept payment for a murderer's life. A murderer deserves to die. They must certainly be put to death.

[32]" 'Do not accept payment for anyone who has run to a city for safety. Do not let them buy their freedom to return home. They must not go back and live on their own land before the high priest dies.

33“ ‘Do not pollute the land where you are. Murder pollutes the land. Only one thing can pay to remove the pollution in the land where murder has been committed. The blood of the one who spilled another’s blood must be spilled. 34So do not make the land where you live “unclean,” because I live there too. I, the LORD, live among the Israelites.’ ”

Numbers 36

The Property Zelophehad's Daughters Will Receive

[1]The heads of the families of Gilead came to Moses. Gilead was the son of Makir. The family heads were from the tribe of Manasseh. So they were in the family line of Joseph. They spoke to Moses in front of the leaders of the families of Israel. [2]They said, "The LORD commanded you to give shares of the land to the Israelites. He told you to cast lots when you do it. At that time the LORD ordered you to give our brother Zelophehad's share to his daughters. [3]Suppose they marry men from other tribes in Israel. Then their share will be taken away from our family's land. It will be added to the land of the tribe they marry into. So a part of the share given to us will be taken away. [4]The Year of Jubilee for the Israelites will come. Then their share will be added to the land of the tribe they marry into. Their land will be taken away from the share given to our tribe."

[5]Then the LORD gave a command to Moses. He told Moses to give an order to the Israelites. Moses said, "What the tribe in the family line of Joseph is saying is right. [6]Here is what the LORD commands for Zelophehad's daughters. They can marry anyone they want to. But they have to marry someone in their own family's tribe. [7]Property in Israel must not pass from one tribe to another. Everyone in Israel must keep their family's share of their tribe's land. [8]Suppose a daughter in any tribe of Israel receives land from her parents. Then she must marry someone in her father's family and tribe. In that way, every family's share will remain in its family line in Israel. [9]Property can't pass from one tribe to another. Each tribe of Israel must keep the land it receives."

[10]So Zelophehad's daughters did just as the LORD commanded Moses. [11]The names of the daughters were Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milkah and Noah. All of them married their cousins on their father's side. [12]They married men in the family line of Manasseh, the son of Joseph. So the land they received remained in their father's family and tribe.

[13]These are the commands and rules the LORD gave through Moses. He gave them to the Israelites on the plains of Moab. They were by the Jordan River across from Jericho.

Deuteronomy

Deuteronomy 1

The LORD Commands Israel to Leave Mount Horeb

[1]These are the words Moses spoke to all the Israelites. At that time, they were in the desert east of the Jordan River. It's in the Arabah Valley across from Suph. The people were between Paran and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth and Dizahab. [2]It takes 11 days to go from Mount Horeb to Kadesh Barnea if you travel on the Mount Seir road.

[3]It was the 40th year since the Israelites had left Egypt. On the first day of the 11th month, Moses spoke to them. He told them everything the LORD had commanded him to tell them. [4]They had already won the battle over Sihon. Sihon was the king of the Amorites. He had ruled in Heshbon. Israel had also won the battle over Og at Edrei. Og was the king of Bashan. He had ruled in Ashtaroth.

[5]The people were east of the Jordan River in the territory of Moab. There Moses began to explain the law. Here is what he said.

> [6]The LORD our God spoke to us at Mount Horeb. He said, "You have stayed long enough at this mountain. [7]Take your tents down. Go into the hill country of the Amorites. Go to all the people who are their neighbors. Go to the people who live in the Arabah Valley. Travel to the mountains and the western hills. Go to the people in the Negev Desert and along the coast. Travel to the land of Canaan and to Lebanon. Go as far as the great Euphrates River. [8]I have given you all this land. Go in and take it as your own. The LORD promised he would give the land to your fathers. He promised it to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. He also said he would give it to their children after them."

Some Officials Are Chosen to Help Moses

[9]At that time I spoke to you. I said, "You are too heavy a load for me to carry alone. [10]The LORD your God has caused there to be many of you. Today you are as many as the stars in the sky. [11]The LORD is the God of your people. May he cause there to be a thousand times more of you. May he bless you, just as he promised he would. [12]But I can't handle your problems and troubles all by myself. I can't settle your arguments. [13]So choose some wise men from each of your tribes. They must understand how to give good advice. The people must have respect for them. I will appoint those men to have authority over you."

[14]You answered me, "Your suggestion is good."

[15]So I chose the leading men of your tribes who were wise and respected. I appointed them to have authority over you. I made them commanders of thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens. I appointed them to be officials over the tribes. [16]Here is what I commanded your judges at that time. I said, "Listen to your people's cases when they argue with one another. Judge them fairly. It doesn't matter whether the case is between two Israelites or between an Israelite and an outsider living among you. [17]When you judge them, treat everyone the same. Listen to those who are important and those who are not. Don't be afraid of anyone. God is the highest judge. Bring me any case that is too hard for you. I'll listen to it." [18]At that time I told you everything you should do.

Twelve Men Check Out the Land of Canaan

[19]The LORD our God commanded us to start out from Mount Horeb. So we did. We went toward the hill country of the Amorites. We traveled all through the huge and terrible desert you saw. Finally, we reached Kadesh Barnea. [20]Then I said to you, "You have reached the hill country of the Amorites. The LORD our God is giving it to us. [21]The LORD your God has given you the land. Go up and take it. Do what the LORD says. He's the God of your people. Don't be afraid. Don't lose hope."

[22]Then all of you came to me. You said, "Let's send some men ahead of us. They can check out the land for us and bring back a report. They can suggest to us which way to go. They can tell us about the towns we'll come to."

[23]That seemed like a good idea to me. So I chose 12 of you. I picked one man from each tribe. [24]They left and went up into the hill country. There they came to the Valley of Eshkol. They checked it out. [25]They got some of the fruit of that land. Then they brought it down to us and gave us their report. They said, "The LORD our God is giving us a good land."

Israel Refuses to Obey the LORD

[26]But you wouldn't go up. You refused to obey the command of the LORD your God. [27]You spoke against him in your tents. You said, “The LORD hates us. That’s why he brought us out of Egypt to hand us over to the Amorites. He wanted to destroy us. [28]Where can we go? The men who checked out the land have made us afraid. They say, ‘The people are stronger and taller than we are. The cities are large. They have walls that reach up to the sky. We even saw the Anakites there.’ ”

[29]Then I said to you, “Don’t be terrified. Don’t be afraid of them. [30]The LORD your God will go ahead of you. He will fight for you. With your own eyes you saw how he fought for you in Egypt. [31]You also saw how the LORD your God brought you through the desert. He carried you everywhere you went, just as a father carries his son. And now you have arrived here.”

[32]In spite of that, you didn’t trust in the LORD your God. [33]He went ahead of you on your journey. He was in the fire at night and in the cloud during the day. He found places for you to camp. He showed you the way you should go.

[34]The LORD heard what you said. So he became angry. He made a promise. He said, [35]“I promised to give this good land to your people of long ago. But no one alive today will see it. [36]Only Caleb will see the land. He is the son of Jephunneh. I will give him and his children after him the land he walked on. He followed me with his whole heart.”

[37]Because of you, the LORD became angry with me also. He said, “You will not enter the land either. [38]But Joshua, the son of Nun, is your helper. Joshua will enter the land. Help him to be brave. Give him hope. He will lead Israel to take the land as their own. [39]You said your little ones would be taken prisoner. But they will enter the land. They do not yet know right from wrong. But I will give them the land. They will take it as their own. [40]As for you, turn around. Start out toward the desert. Go along the road that leads to the Red Sea.”

[41]Then you replied, “We have sinned against the LORD. We will go up and fight. We’ll do just as the LORD our God has commanded us.” So all of you got your swords and put them on. You thought it would be easy to go up into the hill country.

[42]But the LORD spoke to me. He said, “Tell them, ‘Do not go up and fight. I will not be with you. Your enemies will win the battle over you.’ ”

[43]So I told you what the LORD said. But you wouldn’t listen. You refused to obey his command. You were so filled with pride that you marched up into the hill country. [44]The Amorites who lived in those hills came out and attacked you. Like large numbers of bees they chased you. They beat you down from Seir all the way to Hormah. [45]You came back and wept in front of the LORD. But he didn’t pay any attention to your weeping. He wouldn’t listen to you. [46]So you stayed in Kadesh for many years. You spent a long time in that area.

Deuteronomy 2

Israel Wanders in the Desert

[1]We turned back and started out toward the desert. We went along the road that leads to the Red Sea. That's how the LORD had directed me. For a long time we made our way around the hill country of Seir.

[2]Then the LORD spoke to me. He said, [3]"You have made your way around this hill country long enough. So now turn north. [4]Here are the orders I want you to give the people. Tell them, 'You are about to pass through the territory of your relatives. They are from the family line of Esau. They live in Seir. They will be afraid of you. But be very careful. [5]Do not make them angry. If you do, they will go to war against you. I will not give you any of their land. You will not have even enough to put your foot on. I have given Esau's people the hill country of Seir as their own. [6]Pay them with silver for the food you eat and the water you drink.' "

[7]The LORD your God has blessed you in everything your hands have done. He watched over you when you traveled through that huge desert. For these 40 years the LORD your God has been with you. So you have had everything you need.

[8]We went on past our relatives. They are from the family line of Esau. They live in Seir. We turned away from the Arabah Valley road. It comes up from Elath and Ezion Geber. We traveled along the desert road of Moab.

[9]Then the LORD said to me, "Do not attack the Moabites. Do not even make them angry. If you do, they will go to war against you. I will not give you any part of their land. I have given Moab to the people in the family line of Lot. I have given it to them as their own."

[10]The Emites used to live there. They were strong people. There were large numbers of them. They were as tall as the Anakites. [11]Like the Anakites, they too were thought of as Rephaites. But the Moabites called them Emites. [12]The Horites used to live in Seir. But the people of Esau drove them out. They destroyed the Horites to make room for themselves. Then they settled in their territory. They did just as Israel has done in the land the LORD gave them as their own.

[13]The LORD said, "Now get up. Go across the Zered Valley." So we went across it.

[14]Between the time we left Kadesh Barnea and the time we went across the Zered Valley, 38 years had passed. By then, all the fighting men who had been in our camp from the beginning had died. The LORD had warned them that it would happen. [15]He used his power against them until he had gotten rid of all of them. Not one was left in the camp.

[16]Finally, the last of the fighting men among the people died. [17]Then the LORD said to me, [18]"Today you must pass near the border of Moab. Moab is also called Ar. [19]When you come to the Ammonites, do not attack them. Do not make them angry. If you do, they will go to war against you. I will not give you any of their land as your own. I have given it to the people in the family line of Lot. I have given it to them as their own."

[20]That land was also thought of as a land of the Rephaites. They used to live there. But the Ammonites called them Zamzummites. [21]The Rephaites were strong people. There were large numbers of them. They were as tall as the Anakites. The LORD destroyed the Rephaites to make room for the Ammonites. So the Ammonites drove them out. Then they settled in the territory of the Rephaites. [22]The LORD had done the same thing for the people of Esau. They lived in Seir. The LORD destroyed the Horites to make room for Esau's people. They drove the Horites out. So the people of Esau have lived in Seir in the territory of the Horites to this very day. [23]The Avvites lived in villages as far away as Gaza. But people came from Crete and destroyed the Avvites. Then the people of Crete made their home in the territory of the Avvites.

Israel Wins the Battle Over Sihon

[24]The LORD said, "Start out and go across the valley of the Arnon River. I have handed Sihon over to you. He is the Amorite king of Heshbon. I have also given you his country. Begin to take it as your own. Go to war against him. [25]This very day I will bring fear and terror on all the nations because of you. They will hear about you. They will tremble with fear. Pain and suffering will grip them because of you."

[26]I sent messengers from the Desert of Kedemoth. I told them to go to Sihon, the king of Heshbon. They offered him peace. They said, [27]"Let us pass through your country. We'll stay on the main road. We won't turn off it to one side or the other. [28]We'll pay you the right amount of silver for food to eat and water to drink. Just let us walk through your country. [29]The people of Esau, who live in Seir, allowed us to do that. The people of Moab, who live in Ar, also allowed us to do it. So let us walk through until we go across the Jordan River. Then we'll be able to go into the land the LORD our God is giving us." [30]But Sihon, the king of Heshbon, refused to let us walk through. The LORD your God had made him stubborn in his heart and spirit. The LORD wanted to hand him over to you. And that's exactly what he has done.

[31]The LORD said to me, "I have begun to hand Sihon and his country over to you. So begin the battle to take his land as your own."

[32]Sihon and his whole army came out to fight against us at Jahaz. [33]But the LORD our God handed him over to us. We struck him down together with his sons and his whole army. [34]At that time we took all his towns. We completely destroyed them. We killed all the men, women and children. We didn't leave any of them alive. [35]But we took for ourselves the livestock and everything else from the towns we had captured. [36]Not a single town was too strong for us. That includes all the towns from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon River valley all the way to Gilead. It also includes the town in the valley. The LORD our God gave us all of them. [37]And you obeyed the LORD's command. You didn't go near any part of the land of the Ammonites. That includes the land along the Jabbok River. It also includes the land around the towns in the hills.

Deuteronomy 3

Israel Wins the Battle Over Og

[1]Next, we turned and went up along the road toward Bashan. Og marched out with his whole army. They fought against us at Edrei. Og was the king of Bashan. [2]The LORD said to me, “Do not be afraid of Og. I have handed him over to you. I have also handed over his whole army and his land. Do to him what you did to Sihon. Sihon was the Amorite king who ruled in Heshbon.”

[3]So the LORD our God also handed Og, the king of Bashan, and his whole army over to us. We struck them down. We didn’t leave any of them alive. [4]At that time we took all his cities. There were 60 of them. We took the whole area of Argob. That was Og’s kingdom in Bashan. [5]All those cities had high walls around them. The city gates were made secure with heavy metal bars. There were also large numbers of villages that didn’t have walls. [6]We completely destroyed them. We did to them just as we had done to Sihon, the king of Heshbon. We destroyed all their cities. We destroyed the men, women and children. [7]But we kept for ourselves the livestock and everything else we took from their cities.

[8]So at that time we took the territory east of the Jordan River. We captured it from those two Amorite kings. The territory goes all the way from the Arnon River valley to Mount Hermon. [9]Hermon is called Sirion by the people of Sidon. The Amorites call it Senir. [10]We captured all the towns on the high plains. We took the whole land of Gilead. And we captured the whole land of Bashan as far away as Salekah and Edrei. Those were towns that belonged to Og’s kingdom in Bashan. [11]Og, the king of Bashan, was the only Rephaite left. His bed was decorated with iron. It was more than 13 feet long and six feet wide. It is still in the Ammonite city of Rabbah.

Moses Divides Up the Land

[12]I divided up the land we took over at that time. I gave the tribes of Reuben and Gad the territory north of Aroer by the Arnon River valley. It includes half of the hill country of Gilead together with its towns. [13]I gave the rest of Gilead to half of the tribe of Manasseh. I also gave them the whole land of Bashan, the kingdom of Og. The whole area of Argob in Bashan used to be known as a land of the Rephaites. [14]Jair took the whole area of Argob. He was from the family line of Manasseh. Argob goes all the way to the border of the people of Geshur and Maakah. It was named after Jair. So Bashan is called Havvoth Jair to this very day. 15I gave Gilead to Makir. 16But I gave to the tribes of Reuben and Gad the territory that reaches from Gilead down to the Arnon River valley. It goes all the way to the Jabbok River. The Jabbok is the northern border of Ammon. The middle of the Arnon River valley is its southern border. 17The western border of Reuben and Gad is the Jordan River in the Arabah Valley. It reaches from the Sea of Galilee to the Dead Sea. It runs below the slopes of Pisgah.

18Here is the command I gave at that time to the tribes of Reuben and Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh. I said, “The LORD your God has given you this land as your very own. But all your strong men must be prepared for battle. They must cross over ahead of the rest of the Israelites. 19But your wives and children can stay in the towns I’ve given you. You can keep your livestock there too. I know you have a lot of livestock. 20The LORD has given you peace and rest. Then let your families and livestock stay in those towns until the LORD gives peace and rest to the other tribes. And let your families stay until the other tribes have taken over the land the LORD your God is giving them. That land is across the Jordan River. After that, each of you may go back to the land I’ve given you as your very own.”

The LORD Will Not Allow Moses to Cross the Jordan River

21At that time I gave Joshua a command. I said, “Your own eyes have seen everything the LORD your God has done to Sihon and Og. He will do the same thing to all the kingdoms in the land where you are going. 22Don’t be afraid of them. The LORD your God himself will fight for you.”

23At that time I made my appeal to the LORD. I said, 24“LORD and King, you have begun to show me how great you are. You have shown me how strong your hand is. You do great works and mighty acts. There isn’t any god in heaven or on earth who can do what you do. 25Let me go across the Jordan River. Let me see the good land beyond it. I want to see that fine hill country and Lebanon.”

26But the LORD was angry with me because of what you did. He wouldn’t listen to me. “That is enough!” the LORD said. “Do not speak to me anymore about this matter. 27Go up to the highest slopes of Pisgah. Look west and north and south and east. Look at the land with your own eyes. But you are not going to go across this Jordan River. 28So appoint Joshua as the new leader. Help him to be brave. Give him hope and strength. He will take these people across the Jordan. You will see the land. But he will lead them into it to take it as their own.” [29]So we stayed in the valley near Beth Peor.

Deuteronomy 4

Obey the LORD

[1]Now, Israel, listen to the rules and laws I'm going to teach you. Obey them and you will live. You will go in and take over the land. The LORD was the God of your people of long ago. He's giving you the land. [2]Don't add to what I'm commanding you. Don't subtract from it either. Instead, obey the commands of the LORD your God that I'm giving you.

[3]Your own eyes saw what the LORD your God did at Baal Peor. He destroyed every one of your people who worshiped the Baal that was worshiped at Peor.
[4]But all of you who remained true to the LORD your God are still alive today.

[5]I have taught you rules and laws, just as the LORD my God commanded me.
Obey them in the land you are entering to take as your very own. [6]Be careful to keep them. That will show the nations how wise and understanding you are.
They will hear about all these rules. They'll say, "That great nation certainly has wise and understanding people." [7]The LORD our God is near us every time we pray to him. What other nation is great enough to have its gods that close to them? [8]I'm giving you the laws of the LORD today. What other nation is great enough to have rules and laws as fair as these?

[9]Don't be careless. Instead, be very careful. Don't forget the things your eyes have seen. As long as you live, don't let them slip from your mind. Teach them to your children and their children after them. [10]Remember the day you stood at Mount Horeb. The LORD your God was there. He said to me, "Bring the people to me to hear my words. I want them to learn to have respect for me as long as they live in the land. I want them to teach my words to their children." [11]You came near and stood at the foot of the mountain. It blazed with fire that reached as high as the very heavens. There were black clouds and deep darkness. [12]Then the LORD spoke to you out of the fire. You heard the sound of his words. But you didn't see any shape or form. You only heard a voice. [13]He announced his covenant to you. That covenant is the Ten Commandments. He commanded you to obey them. Then he wrote them down on two stone tablets. [14]At that time the LORD directed me to teach you his rules and laws. You must obey them in the land you are crossing the Jordan River to take as your own.

Don't Make or Worship Statues of Gods

15The LORD spoke to you at Mount Horeb out of the fire. But you didn’t see any shape or form that day. So be very careful. 16Make sure you don’t commit a horrible sin. Don’t make for yourselves a statue of a god. Don’t make a god that looks like a man or woman or anything else. 17Don’t make one that looks like any animal on earth or any bird that flies in the sky. 18Don’t make a statue that looks like any creature that moves along the ground or any fish that swims in the water. 19When you look up at the heavens, you will see the sun and moon. And you will see huge numbers of stars. Don’t let anyone tempt you to bow down to the sun, moon or stars. Don’t worship things the LORD your God has provided for all the nations on earth. 20Egypt was like a furnace that melts iron down and makes it pure. But the LORD took you and brought you out of Egypt. He wanted you to be his very own people. And that’s exactly what you are.

21The LORD was angry with me because of what you did. He promised that he would never let me go across the Jordan River. He promised that I would never enter that good land. It’s the land the LORD your God is giving you as your own. 22I’ll die here in this land. I won’t go across the Jordan. But you are about to cross over it. You will take that good land as your own. 23Be careful.
Don’t forget the covenant the LORD your God made with you. Don’t make for yourselves a statue of any god at all. He has told you not to. So don’t do it. 24The LORD your God is like a fire that burns everything up. He wants you to worship only him.

25So don’t make a statue of a god. Don’t commit that horrible sin. Don’t do it even after you have had children and grandchildren. Don’t do it even after you have lived in the land a long time. If you do, that will be an evil thing in the sight of the LORD your God. You will make him angry. 26Today I’m calling out to the heavens and the earth to be witnesses against you. Suppose you do these things.
Then you will quickly die in the land you are going across the Jordan River to take over. You won’t live there very long. You will certainly be destroyed. 27The LORD will drive you out of your land. He will scatter you among the nations.
Only a few of you will remain alive there. 28There you will worship gods that men have made out of wood and stone. Those gods can’t see, hear, eat or smell.
29Perhaps while you are there, you will seek the LORD your God. You will find him if you seek him with all your heart and with all your soul. 30All the things I’ve told you about might happen to you. And you will be in trouble. But later you will return to the LORD your God. You will obey him. 31The LORD your God is tender and loving. He won’t leave you or destroy you. He won’t forget the covenant he made with your people of long ago. He gave his word when he made it.

The LORD Is God

[32]Ask now about the days of long ago. Find out what happened long before your time. Ask about what has happened since the time God created human beings on the earth. Ask from one end of the world to the other. Has anything as great as this ever happened? Has anything like it ever been heard of? [33]You heard the voice of God speaking out of fire. And you lived! Has that happened to any other people? [34]Has any god ever tried to take one nation out of another to be his own? Has any god done it by testing his people? Has any god done it with signs and amazing deeds or with war? Has any god reached out his mighty hand and powerful arm? Or has any god shown his people his great and wonderful acts? The LORD your God did all those things for you in Egypt. With your very own eyes you saw him do them.

[35]The LORD showed you those things so that you might know he is God. There is no other God except him. [36]From heaven he made you hear his voice. He wanted to teach you. On earth he showed you his great fire. You heard his words coming out of the fire. [37]He loved your people of long ago. He chose their children after them. So he brought you out of Egypt. He used his great strength to do it. [38]He drove out nations to make room for you. They were greater and stronger than you are. He will bring you into their land. He wants to give it to you as your very own. The whole land is as good as yours right now.

[39]The LORD is God in heaven above and on the earth below. Today you must agree with that and take it to heart. There is no other God. [40]I'm giving you his rules and commands today. Obey them. Then things will go well with you and your children after you. You will live a long time in the land. The LORD your God is giving you the land for all time to come.

Cities to Run to for Safety

[41]Then Moses set apart three cities east of the Jordan River. [42]Suppose someone killed a person they didn't hate and without meaning to do it. That person could run to one of those cities and stay alive. [43]Here are the names of the cities. Bezer was for the people of Reuben. It was in the high plains in the desert. Ramoth was for the people of Gad. It was in Gilead. Golan was for the people of Manasseh. It was in Bashan.

Moses Gives the Law to Israel

[44]Here is the law Moses gave the Israelites. [45]Here are its terms, rules and laws. Moses gave them to the people when they came out of Egypt. [46]They were now east of the Jordan River in the valley near Beth Peor. They were in the land of Sihon, the king of the Amorites. He ruled in Heshbon. But Moses and the Israelites won the battle over him after we came out of Egypt. [47]They captured his land and made it their own. They also took the land of Og, the king of Bashan. Sihon and Og were the two Amorite kings east of the Jordan River. [48]Their land reached from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon River valley to Mount Hermon. [49]It included the whole Arabah Valley east of the Jordan. It included land all the way to the Dead Sea below the slopes of Pisgah.

Deuteronomy 5

The Ten Commandments

[1]Moses sent for all the Israelites. Here is what he said to them.

Israel, listen to me. Here are the rules and laws I'm announcing to you today. Learn them well. Be sure to obey them. [2]The LORD our God made a covenant with us at Mount Horeb. [3]He didn't make it only with our people of long ago. He also made it with us. In fact, he made it with all of us who are alive here today. [4]The LORD spoke to you face to face. His voice came out of the fire on the mountain. [5]At that time I stood between the LORD and you. I announced to you the LORD's message. I did it because you were afraid of the fire. You didn't go up the mountain. The LORD said, > [6]"I am the LORD your God. I brought you out of Egypt. That is the land where you were slaves.

>
> [7]"Do not put any other gods in place of me.
>
> [8]"Do not make statues of gods that look like anything in the sky or on the earth or in the waters. [9]Do not bow down to them or worship them. I am the LORD your God. I want you to worship only me. I cause the sins of the parents to affect their children. I will cause the sins of those who hate me to affect even their grandchildren and great-grandchildren. [10]But for all time to come I show love to all those who love me and keep my commandments.
>
> [11]"Do not misuse the name of the LORD your God. The LORD will find guilty anyone who misuses his name.
>
> [12]"Keep the Sabbath day holy. Do this just as the LORD your God has commanded you. [13]Do all your work in six days. [14]But the seventh day is a sabbath to honor the LORD your God. Do not do any work on that day. The same command applies to your sons and daughters, your male and female servants, your oxen, your donkeys and your other animals. It also applies to any outsiders who live in your towns. I want your male and female servants to rest, just as you do. [15]Remember that you were slaves in Egypt. The LORD your God reached out his mighty hand and powerful arm and brought you out of there. So the LORD your God has commanded you to keep the Sabbath day holy.

16“Honor your father and mother, just as the LORD your God has commanded you. Then you will live a long time in the land he is giving you. And things will go well with you there.
17“Do not murder.
18“Do not commit adultery.
19“Do not steal.
20“Do not be a false witness against your neighbor.
21“Do not want to have your neighbor’s wife. Do not desire anything your neighbor owns. Do not desire to have your neighbor’s house or land, male or female servant, ox or donkey.”

22These are the commandments the LORD announced in a loud voice to your whole community. He gave them to you there on the mountain. He spoke out of the fire, cloud and deep darkness. He didn’t add anything else. Then he wrote the commandments on two stone tablets. And he gave them to me.

23The mountain was blazing with fire. You heard the voice coming out of the darkness. So your elders and all the leaders of your tribes came to me. 24You said, “The LORD our God has shown us his glory and majesty. We have heard his voice coming out of the fire. Today we have seen that a person can still stay alive even if God speaks with them. 25But why should we die? This great fire will burn us up. We’ll die if we hear the voice of the LORD our God again. 26We have heard the voice of the living God. We’ve heard him speaking out of the fire. Has any other human being ever heard him speak like that and stayed alive? 27Go near and listen to everything the LORD our God says. Then tell us what he tells you. We will listen and obey.”

28The LORD heard you when you spoke to me. He said to me, “I have heard what these people said to you. Everything they said was good. 29But I wish they would always have respect for me in their hearts. I wish they would always obey all my commands. Then things would go well with them and their children forever.

30“Go and tell them to return to their tents. 31But you stay here with me. Then I will give you all my commands, rules and laws. You must teach the people to obey them in the land I am giving them as their very own.”

32So be careful to do what the LORD your God has commanded you. Don’t turn away from his commands to the right or the left. 33Live exactly as the LORD your God has commanded you to live. Then you will enjoy life in the land you will soon own. Things will go well with you there. You will live there for a long time.

Deuteronomy 6

Love the LORD Your God

[1]The LORD your God has directed me to teach you his commands, rules and laws. Obey them in the land you will take over when you go across the Jordan River. [2]Then you, your children and their children after them will honor the LORD your God as long as you live. Obey all his rules and commands I'm giving you. If you do, you will enjoy long life. [3]Israel, listen to me. Make sure you obey me. Then things will go well with you. The number of your people will increase greatly in a land that has plenty of milk and honey. That's what the LORD, the God of your parents, promised you.

[4]Israel, listen to me. The LORD is our God. The LORD is the one and only God. [5]Love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul. Love him with all your strength. [6]The commandments I give you today must be in your hearts. [7]Make sure your children learn them. Talk about them when you are at home. Talk about them when you walk along the road. Speak about them when you go to bed. And speak about them when you get up. [8]Write them down and tie them on your hands as a reminder. Also tie them on your foreheads.
[9]Write them on the doorframes of your houses. Also write them on your gates.

[10]The LORD your God will bring you into the land of Canaan. He gave his word. He promised he would give the land to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. The land has large, wealthy cities you didn't build. [11]It has houses filled with all kinds of good things you didn't provide. The land has wells you didn't dig. And it has vineyards and groves of olive trees you didn't plant. You will have plenty to eat. [12]But be careful that you don't forget the LORD.
Remember that he brought you out of Egypt. That's the land where you were slaves.

[13]Worship the LORD your God. He is the only one you should serve. When you make promises, do so in his name. [14]Don't serve the gods of the nations around you. [15]The LORD your God is among you. He wants you to worship only him. If you worship other gods, God will be very angry with you. And he will destroy you from the face of the land. [16]Don't test the LORD your God as you did at Massah. [17]Be sure to obey the LORD's commands. Obey the terms and rules he has given you. [18]Do what is right and good in the LORD's eyes.
Then things will go well with you. You will go in and take over the land. It's the good land the LORD promised to your people of long ago. [19]You will drive out all your enemies to make room for you. That's what the LORD said would happen.

[20]Later on, your child might ask you, "What is the meaning of the terms, rules and laws the LORD our God has commanded you to obey?" [21]If they do ask you, tell them, "We were Pharaoh's slaves in Egypt. But the LORD used his mighty hand to bring us out of Egypt. [22]With our own eyes we saw the LORD send amazing signs. They were great and terrible. He sent them on Egypt and Pharaoh and everyone in his house. [23]But the LORD brought us out of Egypt. He planned to bring us into the land of Canaan and give it to us. It's the land he promised to our people of long ago. [24]The LORD our God commanded us to obey all his rules. He commanded us to honor him. If we do, we will always succeed and be kept alive. That's what is happening today. [25]We must make sure we obey the whole law in the sight of the LORD our God. That's what he has commanded us to do. If we obey his law, we'll be doing what he requires of us."

Deuteronomy 7

The LORD Will Drive Out Many Nations

[1]The LORD your God will bring you into the land. You are going to enter it and take it as your own. He'll drive out many nations to make room for you. He'll drive out the Hittites, Girgashites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. Those seven nations are larger and stronger than you are. [2]The LORD your God will hand them over to you. You will win the battle over them. You must completely destroy them. Don't make a peace treaty with them. Don't show them any mercy. [3]Don't marry any of their people. Don't give your daughters to their sons. And don't take their daughters for your sons. [4]If you do, those people will turn your children away from serving the LORD. Then your children will serve other gods. The LORD will be very angry with you. He will quickly destroy you. [5]So here is what you must do to those people. Break down their altars. Smash their sacred stones. Cut down the poles they use to worship the female god named Asherah. Burn the statues of their gods in the fire. [6]You are a holy nation. The LORD your God has set you apart for himself. He has chosen you to be his special treasure. He chose you out of all the nations on the face of the earth to be his people.

[7]The LORD chose you because he loved you very much. He didn't choose you because you had more people than other nations. In fact, you had the smallest number of all. [8]The LORD chose you because he loved you. He wanted to keep the promise he had made to your people of long ago. That's why he used his mighty hand to bring you out of Egypt. He bought you back from the land where you were slaves. He set you free from the power of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. [9]So I want you to realize that the LORD your God is God. He is the faithful God. He keeps his covenant for all time to come. He keeps it with those who love him and obey his commandments. He shows them his love. [10]But he will pay back those who hate him. He'll destroy them. He'll quickly pay back those who hate him. [11]So be careful to obey the commands, rules and laws I'm giving you today.

[12]Pay attention to the laws of the LORD your God. Be careful to obey them. Then he will keep his covenant of love with you. That's what he promised to your people of long ago. [13]The LORD will love you and bless you. He'll cause there to be many of you. He'll give you many children. He'll bless the crops of your land. He'll give you plenty of grain, olive oil and fresh wine. He'll bless your herds with many calves. He'll give your flocks many lambs. He'll do all these things for you in the land of Canaan. It's the land he promised your people of long ago that he would give you. 14He will bless you more than any other nation. All your men and women will have children. All your livestock will have little ones. 15The LORD will keep you from getting sick. He won't send on you any of the horrible sicknesses you saw all around you in Egypt. But he'll send them on everyone who hates you. 16You must destroy all the nations the LORD your God hands over to you. Don't feel sorry for them. Don't serve their gods. If you do, they will be a trap for you.

17You might say to yourselves, "These nations are stronger than we are. How can we drive them out?" 18But don't be afraid of them. Be sure to remember what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and all the Egyptians. 19With your own eyes you saw what the LORD did to them. You saw the signs and amazing things he did. He reached out his mighty hand and powerful arm. The LORD your God used all those things to bring you out. You are now afraid of the nations that are in the land the LORD promised you. But the LORD your God will do to them the same things he did to Egypt. 20The LORD your God will also send hornets among those nations. Some of the people left alive will hide from you. But even they will die. 21So don't be terrified by them. The LORD your God is with you. He is a great and wonderful God. 22The LORD your God will drive out those nations to make room for you. But he will do it little by little. You won't be allowed to get rid of them all at once. If you did, wild animals would multiply all around you. 23But the LORD your God will hand those nations over to you. He will throw them into a panic until they are destroyed. 24He will hand their kings over to you. You will wipe out their names from the earth. No one will be able to stand up against you. You will destroy them. 25Burn the statues of their gods in the fire. Don't wish for the silver and gold on those statues. Don't take it for yourselves. If you do, it will be a trap for you. The LORD your God hates it. 26Don't bring anything he hates into your house. If you do, you will be completely destroyed along with it. So hate it with all your heart. It is set apart to be destroyed.

Deuteronomy 8

Remember What the LORD Has Done

[1]Make sure you obey every command I'm giving you today. Then you will live, and there will be many of you. You will enter the land and take it as your own. It's the land the LORD promised to your people of long ago. [2]Remember how the LORD your God led you all the way. He guided you in the desert for these 40 years. He wanted to take your pride away. He wanted to test you to know what was in your hearts. He wanted to see whether you would obey his commands. [3]He took your pride away. He let you go hungry. Then he gave you manna to eat. You and your parents had never even known anything about manna before. He tested you to teach you that man doesn't live only on bread. He also lives on every word that comes from the mouth of the LORD. [4]Your clothes didn't wear out during these 40 years. Your feet didn't swell. [5]Here is what I want you to know in your hearts. The LORD your God guides you, just as parents guide their children.

[6]Obey the commands of the LORD your God. Live as he wants you to live. Have respect for him. [7]The LORD your God is bringing you into a good land. It has brooks, streams and deep springs of water. Those springs flow in its valleys and hills. [8]It has wheat, barley, vines, fig trees, pomegranates, olive oil and honey. [9]There is plenty of food in that land. You will have everything you need. Its rocks have iron in them. And you can dig copper out of its hills.

[10]When you have eaten and are satisfied, praise the LORD your God. Praise him for the good land he has given you. [11]Make sure you don't forget the LORD your God. Don't fail to obey his commands, laws and rules. I'm giving them to you today. [12]But suppose you don't obey his commands. And suppose you have plenty to eat. You build fine houses and live in them. [13]The number of your herds and flocks increases. You also get more and more silver and gold. And everything you have multiplies. [14]Then your hearts will become proud. And you will forget the LORD your God. The LORD brought you out of Egypt. That's the land where you were slaves. [15]He led you through that huge and terrible desert. It was a dry land. It didn't have any water. It had poisonous snakes and scorpions. The LORD gave you water out of solid rock. [16]He gave you manna to eat in the desert. Your people had never even known anything about manna before. The LORD took your pride away. He tested you. He did it so that things would go well with you in the end. [17]You might say to yourself, “My power and my strong hands have made me rich.” [18]But remember the LORD your God. He gives you the ability to produce wealth. That shows he stands by the terms of the covenant he made with you. He promised it to your people of long ago. And he’s still faithful to his covenant today.

[19]Don’t forget the LORD your God. Don’t serve other gods. Don’t worship them and bow down to them. I am a witness against you today that if you do, you will certainly be destroyed. [20]You will be destroyed just like the nations the LORD your God is destroying to make room for you. That’s what will happen if you don’t obey him.

Deuteronomy 9

Why the LORD Gave Canaan to Israel

[1]Israel, listen to me. You are now about to go across the Jordan River. You will take over the land of the nations that live there. Those nations are greater and stronger than you are. Their large cities have walls that reach up to the sky. [2]The people who live there are Anakites. They are strong and tall. You know all about them. You have heard people say, “Who can stand up against the Anakites?” [3]But today you can be sure the LORD your God will go over there ahead of you. He is like a fire that will burn them up. He’ll destroy them. He’ll bring them under your control. You will drive them out. You will put an end to them quickly, just as the LORD has promised you.

[4]The LORD your God will drive them out to make room for you. When he does, don’t say to yourself, “The LORD has done it because I am godly. That’s why he brought me here to take over this land.” That isn’t true. The LORD is going to drive out those nations to make room for you because they are very evil. [5]You are not going in to take over their land because you have done what is right or honest. It’s because those nations are so evil. That’s why the LORD your God will drive them out to make room for you. He will do what he said he would do. He made a promise to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. [6]The LORD your God is giving you this good land to take as your own. But you must understand that it isn’t because you are a godly nation. In fact, you are stubborn.

Israel Worshiped the Golden Calf

[7]Here is something you must remember. Never forget it. You made the LORD your God angry in the desert. You refused to obey him from the day you left Egypt until you arrived here. [8]At Mount Horeb you made the LORD angry enough to destroy you. [9]I went up the mountain. I went there to receive the tablets of the covenant law. They were made out of stone. It was the covenant the LORD had made with you. I stayed on the mountain for 40 days and 40 nights. I didn’t eat any food or drink any water. [10]The LORD gave me two stone tablets. The words on them were written by the finger of God. All the commandments the LORD gave you were written on the tablets. He announced them to you out of the fire on the mountain. He wrote them on the day you gathered together there.

[11]The 40 days and 40 nights came to an end. Then the LORD gave me the two stone tablets. They were the tablets of the covenant law. [12]The LORD told me, “Go down from here right away. The people you brought out of Egypt have become very sinful. They have quickly turned away from what I commanded them. They have made a statue of a god for themselves.”

[13]The LORD also said to me, “I have seen these people. They are so stubborn! [14]Do not try to stop me. I am going to destroy them. I will wipe them out from the earth. Then I will make you into a great nation. Your people will be stronger than they were. There will be more of you than there were of them.”

[15]So I turned and went down the mountain. It was blazing with fire. I was carrying the two tablets of the covenant law. [16]When I looked, I saw that you had sinned against the LORD your God. You had made for yourselves a metal statue of a god. It looked like a calf. You had quickly turned away from the path the LORD had commanded you to follow. [17]So I threw the two tablets out of my hands. You watched them break into pieces.

[18]Then once again I fell down flat in front of the LORD with my face toward the ground. I lay there for 40 days and 40 nights. I didn’t eat any food or drink any water. You had committed a terrible sin. You had done an evil thing in the LORD’s sight. You had made him angry. [19]I was afraid of the LORD’s great anger. He was so angry with you he wanted to destroy you. But the LORD listened to me again. [20]And he was so angry with Aaron he wanted to destroy him too. But at that time I prayed for Aaron. [21]I also got that sinful calf you had made. I burned it in the fire. I crushed it and ground it into fine powder. Then I threw the powder into a stream that was flowing down the mountain.

[22]You also made the LORD angry at Taberah, Massah and Kibroth Hattaavah.

[23]The LORD sent you out from Kadesh Barnea. He said, “Go up and take over the land I have given you.” But you refused to do what the LORD your God had commanded you to do. You didn’t trust him or obey him. [24]You have been refusing to obey the LORD as long as I’ve known you.

[25]I lay down in front of the LORD with my face toward the ground for 40 days and 40 nights. I did it because the LORD had said he would destroy you. [26]I prayed to him. “LORD and King,” I said, “don’t destroy your people. They belong to you. You set them free by your great power. You used your mighty hand to bring them out of Egypt. [27]Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Forgive the Israelites for being so stubborn. Don’t judge them for the evil and sinful things they’ve done. [28]If you do, the Egyptians will say, ‘The LORD wasn’t able to take them into the land he had promised to give them. He hated them. So he brought them out of Egypt to put them to death in the desert.’ [29]But they are your people. They belong to you. You used your great power to bring them out of Egypt. You reached out your mighty arm and saved them.”

Deuteronomy 10

The New Stone Tablets

[1]At that time the LORD spoke to me. He said, “Carve out two stone tablets, just like the first ones. Then come up to me on the mountain. Also make a wooden ark. [2]I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. Then you must put the tablets in the ark.”

[3]So I made the ark out of acacia wood. I carved out two stone tablets that were just like the first ones. I went up the mountain. I carried the two tablets in my hands. [4]The LORD wrote on the tablets what he had written before. It was the Ten Commandments. He had announced them to you out of the fire on the mountain. It was on the day you had gathered together there. So the LORD gave the tablets to me. [5]Then I came back down the mountain. I put the tablets in the ark I had made, just as the LORD had commanded me. And that’s where they are now.

[6]Remember how the Israelites traveled from the wells of Bene Jaakan to Moserah. That’s where Aaron died. And his body was buried there. His son Eleazar became the next priest after him. [7]From Moserah the people traveled to Gudgodah. Then they went on to Jotbathah. That land has streams of water. [8]At that time the LORD set the tribe of Levi apart. He appointed them to carry the ark of the covenant of the LORD. He wanted them to serve him. He told them to bless the people in his name. And they still do it today. [9]That’s why the Levites don’t have any part of the land the LORD gave the other tribes in Israel. They don’t have any share among them. The LORD himself is their share. That’s what the LORD your God told them.

[10]I had stayed on the mountain for 40 days and 40 nights, just as I did the first time. The LORD listened to me that time also. He didn’t want to destroy you.
[11]“Go,” the LORD said to me. “Lead the people on their way. Then they can enter the land and take it over. I have given my word. I promised I would give the land to their fathers, to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.”

Honor the LORD

[12]And now, Israel, what is the LORD your God asking you to do? Honor him.
Live exactly as he wants you to live. Love him. Serve him with all your heart and with all your soul. [13]Obey the LORD’s commands and rules. I’m giving them to you today for your own good.

14The heavens belong to the LORD your God. Even the highest heavens belong to him. He owns the earth and everything in it. 15But the LORD loved your people of long ago very much. You are their children. And he chose you above all the other nations. His love and his promise remain with you to this very day. 16So don’t be stubborn anymore. Obey the LORD. 17The LORD your God is the greatest God of all. He is the greatest LORD of all. He is the great God. He is mighty and wonderful. He treats everyone the same. He doesn’t accept any money from those who want special favors. 18He stands up for widows and for children whose fathers have died. He loves outsiders living among you. He gives them food and clothes. 19So you also must love outsiders.
Remember that you yourselves were outsiders in Egypt. 20Honor the LORD your God. Serve him. Remain true to him. When you make promises, do so in his name. 21He is the one you should praise. He’s your God. With your own eyes you saw the great and amazing things he did for you. 22Long ago, your people went down into Egypt. The total number of them was 70. And now the LORD your God has made you as many as the stars in the sky.

Deuteronomy 11

Love and Obey the LORD

[1]Love the LORD your God. Do what he requires. Always obey his rules, laws and commands. [2]Remember today that your children weren't the ones the LORD your God guided and corrected. They didn't see his majesty. They weren't in Egypt when he reached out his mighty hand and powerful arm. [3]They didn't see the signs and the other things he did in Egypt. They didn't see what he did to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and to his whole country. [4]They weren't there when the LORD destroyed the army of Egypt and its horses and chariots. He swept the waters of the Red Sea over the Egyptians while they were chasing you. He wiped them out forever. [5]Your children didn't see what he did for you in the desert before you arrived here. [6]They didn't see what he did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab. Eliab was from the tribe of Reuben. The earth opened its mouth right in the middle of the Israelite camp. It swallowed up Dathan and Abiram. It swallowed them up together with their families, tents and every living thing that belonged to them. [7]But with your own eyes you saw all the great things the LORD has done.

[8]So obey all the commands I'm giving you today. Then you will be strong enough to go in and take over the land. You will go across the Jordan River and take the land as your own. [9]You will live there for a long time. It's the land the LORD promised to give to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and their children after them. He gave his word when he made that promise. The land has plenty of milk and honey. [10]You will enter it and take it over. It isn't like the land of Egypt.
That's where you came from. You planted your seeds there. You had to water them, just as you have to water a vegetable garden. [11]But you will soon go across the Jordan River. The land you are going to take over has mountains and valleys in it. It drinks rain from heaven. [12]It's a land the LORD your God takes care of. His eyes always look on it with favor. He watches over it from the beginning of the year to its end.

[13]So be faithful. Obey the commands the LORD your God is giving you today. Love him. Serve him with all your heart and with all your soul. [14]Then the LORD will send rain on your land at the right time. He'll send rain in the fall and in the spring. You will be able to gather your grain. You will also be able to make olive oil and fresh wine. [15]He'll provide grass in the fields for your cattle.

You will have plenty to eat.

[16]But be careful. Don't let anyone tempt you to do something wrong. Don't turn away and worship other gods. Don't bow down to them. [17]If you do, the LORD will be very angry with you. He'll close up the sky. It won't rain. The ground won't produce its crops. Soon you will die. You won't live to enjoy the good land the LORD is giving you. [18]So keep my words in your hearts and minds. Write them down and tie them on your hands as a reminder. Also tie them on your foreheads. [19]Teach them to your children. Talk about them when you are at home. Talk about them when you walk along the road. Speak about them when you go to bed. And speak about them when you get up. [20]Write them on the doorframes of your houses. Also write them on your gates. [21]Then you and your children will live for a long time in the land. The LORD promised to give the land to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Your family line will continue as long as the heavens remain above the earth.

[22]So be careful. Obey all the commands I'm giving you to follow. Love the LORD your God. Live exactly as he wants you to live. Remain true to him. [23]Then the LORD will drive out all the nations to make room for you. They are larger and stronger than you are. But you will take their land. [24]Every place you walk on will belong to you. Your territory will go all the way from the desert to Lebanon. It will go from the Euphrates River to the Mediterranean Sea. [25]No one will be able to stand up against you. The LORD your God will throw the whole land into a panic because of you. He'll do it everywhere you go, just as he promised you.

[26]Listen to me. I'm setting a blessing and a curse in front of you today. [27]I'm giving you the commands of the LORD your God today. You will be blessed if you obey them. [28]But you will be cursed if you don't obey them. So don't turn away from the path I'm now commanding you to take. Don't turn away by worshiping other gods you didn't know before. [29]The LORD your God will bring you into the land to take it over. When he does, you must announce the blessings from Mount Gerizim. You must announce the curses from Mount Ebal. [30]As you know, those mountains are across the Jordan River. They are on the west side of the Jordan toward the setting sun. They are near the large trees of Moreh. The mountains are in the territory of the Canaanites, who live in the Arabah Valley near Gilgal. [31]You are about to go across the Jordan River. You will enter the land and take it over. The LORD your God is giving it to you. You will take it over and live there. [32]When you do, make sure you obey all the rules and laws I'm giving you today.

Deuteronomy 12

Worship Only Where the LORD Wants You To

[1]Here are the rules and laws you must obey. Be careful to obey them in the land the LORD has given you to take as your own. He's the God of your people who lived long ago. Obey these rules and laws as long as you live in the land. [2]You will soon drive the nations out of it. Completely destroy all the places where they worship their gods. Destroy them on the high mountains, on the hills and under every green tree. [3]Break down their altars. Smash their sacred stones. Burn up the poles they use to worship the female god named Asherah. Cut down the statues of their gods. Wipe out the names of their gods from those places.

[4]You must not worship the LORD your God the way those nations worship their gods. [5]Instead, go to the special place he will choose from among all your tribes. He will put his Name there. That's where you must go. [6]Take your burnt offerings and sacrifices to that place. Bring your special gifts and a tenth of everything you produce. Take with you what you have promised to give. Bring any other offerings you choose to give. And bring the male animals among your livestock that were born first to their mothers. [7]You and your families will eat at the place the LORD your God will choose. He will be with you there. You will find joy in everything you have done. That's because he has blessed you.

[8]You must not do as we're doing here today. All of us are doing only what we think is right. [9]That's because you haven't yet reached the place the LORD is giving you. Your God will give you peace and rest there. [10]But first you will go across the Jordan River. You will settle in the land he's giving you. It will belong to you as your share. He will give you peace and rest from all your enemies around you. You will live in safety. [11]The LORD your God will choose a special place. He will put his Name there. That's where you must bring everything I command you to bring. That includes your burnt offerings and sacrifices. It includes your special gifts and a tenth of everything you produce. It also includes all the things of value that you promised to give to the LORD. [12]Be filled with joy there in the sight of the LORD your God. Your children should also be joyful. So should your male and female servants. And so should the Levites from your towns. The Levites won't receive any part of the land as their share. [13]Be careful not to sacrifice your burnt offerings anywhere you want to. [14]Offer them only at the place the LORD will choose in one of your tribes. There you must obey everything I command you.

15But you can kill your animals in any of your towns. You can eat as much of the meat as you want to. You can eat it as if it were antelope or deer meat. That is part of the blessing the LORD your God is giving you. Those who are “clean” and those who are not can eat it. 16But you must not eat meat that still has blood in it. Pour the blood out on the ground like water. 17Here are the things you must not eat in your own towns. You must not eat the tenth part of your grain, olive oil and fresh wine. It belongs to the LORD. You must not eat the male animals among your livestock that were born first to their mothers. Don’t eat anything you have promised to give. Don’t eat any offerings you have chosen to give. And you must not eat any of your special gifts. 18Instead, you must eat all those things in the sight of the LORD your God. Do it at the place he will choose. You, your children, your male and female servants and the Levites from your towns can eat them. Be filled with joy in the sight of the LORD your God. Be joyful in everything you do. 19Don’t forget to take care of the Levites as long as you live in your land.

20The LORD your God will increase your territory, just as he has promised you. When he does, you might get hungry for meat. You might say, “I’d really like some meat.” Then you can eat as much of it as you want to. 21The LORD your God will choose a special place. He will put his Name there. But suppose that place is too far away from you. Then you can kill animals from the herds and flocks the LORD has given you. Do it just as I have commanded you. In your own towns you can eat as much of the meat as you want to. 22Eat it as you would eat antelope or deer meat. Those who are “clean” and those who are not can eat it. 23But be sure you don’t eat meat that still has blood in it. The blood is the animal’s life. So you must not eat the life along with the meat. 24You must not eat the blood. Pour it out on the ground like water. 25Don’t eat it. Then things will go well with you and your children after you. You will be doing what is right in the eyes of the LORD.

26But go to the place the LORD will choose. Take with you the things you have set apart for him. Bring what you have promised to give him. 27Sacrifice your burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD your God. Offer the meat and the blood there. The blood of your sacrifices must be poured out beside his altar. But you can eat the meat. 28Make sure you obey all the rules I’m giving you. Then things will always go well with you and your children after you. That’s because you will be doing what is good and right in the eyes of the LORD your God.

29You are about to attack the land and take it over as your own. When you do, the LORD your God will destroy the nations who live there. He will do it to make room for you. You will drive them out. You will settle in their land. [30]They will be destroyed to make room for you. But when they are destroyed, be careful. Don’t be trapped. Don’t ask questions about their gods. Don’t say, “How do these nations serve their gods? We’ll do it in the same way.” [31]You must not worship the LORD your God the way they worship their gods. When they worship, they do all kinds of evil things the LORD hates. They even burn up their children in the fire as sacrifices to their gods.

[32]Be sure you do everything I am commanding you to do. Do not add anything to my commands. And do not take anything away from them.

Deuteronomy 13

Do Not Worship Other Gods

[1]Suppose a prophet appears among you. Or someone comes who uses dreams to tell what's going to happen. He tells you that a sign or something amazing is going to take place. [2]The sign or amazing thing he has spoken about might really take place. And then the prophet might say, "Let's serve other gods. Let's worship them." But you haven't known anything about those gods before. [3]So you must not listen to what that prophet or dreamer has said. The LORD your God is testing you. He wants to know whether you love him with all your heart and with all your soul. [4]You must worship him. You must honor him. Keep his commands. Obey him. Serve him. Remain true to him. [5]That prophet or dreamer must be put to death. He told you not to obey the LORD your God. The LORD brought you out of Egypt. He set you free from the land where you were slaves.
He commanded you to live the way he wants you to. But that prophet or dreamer has tried to get you to be unfaithful to the LORD. Get rid of that evil person.

[6]Suppose your very own brother or sister secretly tempts you to do something wrong. Or your child or the wife you love tempts you. Or your closest friend does it. Suppose one of them says, "Let's go and worship other gods." But you and your people of long ago hadn't known anything about those gods before.
[7]They are the gods of the nations around you. Those nations might be near or far away. In fact, they might reach from one end of the land to the other. [8]Don't give in to those who are tempting you. Don't listen to them. Don't feel sorry for them.
Don't spare them or save them. [9]You must certainly put them to death. You must be the first to throw stones at them. Then all the people must do the same thing.
[10]Put them to death by throwing stones at them. They tried to turn you away from the LORD your God. He brought you out of Egypt. That's the land where you were slaves. [11]After you kill those who tempted you, all the Israelites will hear about it. And they will be too scared to do an evil thing like that again.

[12]The LORD your God is giving you towns to live in. But suppose you hear something bad about one of those towns. [13]You hear that people who cause trouble have appeared among you. They've tried to get the people of their town to do something wrong. They've said, "Let's go and worship other gods." But you haven't known anything about those gods before. [14]So you must ask people some questions. You must check out the matter carefully. If it's true, an evil thing has really happened among you. It’s something the LORD hates. [15]Then you must certainly kill with your swords everyone who lives in that town. You must destroy it completely. You must wipe out its people and livestock. [16]You must gather all the goods of that town into the middle of the main street. You must burn the town completely. You must burn up everything in it. It’s a whole burnt offering to the LORD your God. The town must remain a pile of stones forever. It must never be built again. [17]Don’t keep anything that should be destroyed. Then the LORD will turn away from his great anger. He will show you mercy. He’ll have deep concern for you. He’ll cause there to be many of you. That’s what he promised your people of long ago. He gave his word when he made the promise. [18]The LORD your God will do those things if you obey him. I’m giving you his commands today. And you must obey all of them. You must do what is right in his eyes.

Deuteronomy 14

“Clean” and “Unclean” Food

[1]You are the children of the LORD your God. Don’t cut yourselves to honor the dead. Don’t shave the front of your heads to honor the dead. [2]You are a holy nation. The LORD your God has set you apart for himself. He has chosen you to be his special treasure. He chose you out of all the nations on the face of the earth.

[3]Don’t eat anything the LORD hates. [4]Here are the only animals you can eat.
You can eat oxen, sheep, goats, [5]deer, gazelles, roe deer, wild goats, ibexes, antelope and mountain sheep. [6]You can eat any animal that has a divided hoof.
But it must also chew the cud. [7]Some animals only chew the cud. Others only have a divided hoof. The camel, rabbit and rock badger chew the cud, but they don’t have a divided hoof. So you can’t eat them. They are not “clean” for you.
[8]Pigs aren’t “clean” for you either. They have a divided hoof, but they don’t chew the cud. So don’t eat their meat. And don’t touch their dead bodies.

[9]Many creatures live in water. You can eat all the ones that have fins and scales. [10]But don’t eat anything that doesn’t have fins and scales. It isn’t “clean” for you.

[11]You can eat any “clean” bird. [12]But there are many birds you can’t eat. They include eagles, vultures, and black vultures. [13]They include red kites, black kites and all kinds of falcons. [14]They include all kinds of ravens. [15]They include horned owls, screech owls, gulls and all kinds of hawks. [16]They include little owls, great owls, white owls [17]and desert owls. They include ospreys and cormorants. [18]They include storks and all kinds of herons. They also include hoopoes and bats.

[19]All flying insects are “unclean” for you. So don’t eat them. [20]But you can eat any creature that has wings and is “clean.”

[21]If you find something that’s already dead, don’t eat it. You can give it to an outsider living in any of your towns. They may eat it. Or you can sell it to someone from another country. But you are a holy nation. The LORD your God has set you apart for himself.

Don’t cook a young goat in its mother’s milk.

Give a Tenth of What You Produce

[22]Be sure to set apart a tenth of everything your fields produce each year. [23]Here are the things you should eat in the sight of the LORD your God. You should eat a tenth part of your grain, olive oil and fresh wine. You should also eat the male animals among your livestock that were born first to their mothers. Eat all these things at the special place the LORD your God will choose. He will put his Name there. You will learn to honor him always. [24]But suppose the place the LORD will choose for his Name is too far away from you. And suppose your God has blessed you. And your tenth part is too heavy for you to carry. [25]Then sell it for silver. Take the silver with you. Go to the place the LORD your God will choose. [26]Use the silver to buy anything you like. It can be cattle or sheep. It can be any kind of wine. In fact, it can be anything else you wish. Then you and your family can eat there in the sight of the LORD your God. You can be filled with joy. [27]Don’t forget to take care of the Levites who will live in your towns. They won’t receive any part of the land as their share.

[28]At the end of every three years, bring a tenth of everything you produce that year. Store it in your towns. [29]Then the Levites can come and eat. That’s because they won’t receive any part of the land as their share. The outsiders and widows who live in your towns can come. So can the children whose fathers have died. Everyone can have plenty to eat. Then the LORD your God will bless you in everything you do.

Deuteronomy 15

The Year for Forgiving People What They Owe

[1]At the end of every seven years you must forgive people what they owe you.
[2]Have you made a loan to one of your own people? Then forgive what is owed to you. You can't require that person to pay you back. The LORD's time to forgive what is owed has been announced. [3]You can require someone from another nation to pay you back. But you must forgive what any of your own people owes you. [4]There shouldn't be any poor people among you. The LORD will greatly bless you in the land he is giving you. You will take it over as your own. [5]The LORD your God will bless you if you obey him completely. Be careful to follow all the commands I'm giving you today. [6]The LORD your God will bless you, just as he has promised. You will lend money to many nations. But you won't have to borrow from any of them. You will rule over many nations. But none of them will rule over you.

[7]Suppose someone is poor among you. And suppose they live in one of the towns in the land the LORD your God is giving you. Then don't be mean to them. They are poor. So don't hold back money from them. [8]Instead, open your hands and lend them what they need. Do it freely. [9]Be careful not to have an evil thought in your mind. Don't say to yourself, "The seventh year will soon be here. It's the year for forgiving people what they owe." If you think like that, you might treat the needy people among you badly. You might not give them anything. Then they might make their appeal to the LORD against you. And he will find you guilty of sin. [10]So give freely to needy people. Let your heart be tender toward them. Then the LORD your God will bless you in all your work. He will bless you in everything you do. [11]There will always be poor people in the land. So I'm commanding you to give freely to those who are poor and needy in your land. Open your hands to them.

Set Your Hebrew Servants Free

[12]Suppose any Hebrew men or women sell themselves to you. If they do, they will serve you for six years. Then in the seventh year you must let them go free.
[13]But when you set them free, don't send them away without anything to show for all their work. [14]Freely give them some animals from your flock. Also give them some of your grain and wine. The LORD your God has blessed you richly.

Give to them as he has given to you. [15]Remember that you were slaves in Egypt. The LORD your God set you free. That's why I'm giving you this command today.

[16]But suppose your servant says to you, "I don't want to leave you." He loves you and your family. And you are taking good care of him. [17]Then take him to the door of your house. Poke a hole through his earlobe into the doorpost. And he will become your servant for life. Do the same with your female servant.

[18]Don't think you are being cheated when you set your servants free. After all, they have served you for six years. The service of each of them has been worth twice as much as the service of a hired worker. And the LORD your God will bless you in everything you do.

Male Animals Born First to Their Mothers

[19]Set apart every male animal among your livestock that was born first to its mother. Set it apart to the LORD your God. Don't put a firstborn cow to work. Don't clip the wool from a firstborn sheep. [20]Each year you and your family must eat them. Do it in front of the LORD your God at the place he will choose. [21]Suppose an animal has something wrong with it. It might not be able to see or walk. Or it might have a bad flaw. Then you must not sacrifice it to the LORD your God. [22]You must eat it in your own towns. Those who are "clean" and those who are "unclean" can eat it. Eat it as if it were antelope or deer meat. [23]But you must not eat meat that still has blood in it. Pour the blood out on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy 16

The Passover Feast

[1]Celebrate the Passover Feast of the LORD your God in the month of Aviv. In that month he brought you out of Egypt at night. [2]Sacrifice an animal from your flock or herd. It is the Passover sacrifice to honor the LORD your God. Sacrifice it at the special place the LORD will choose. He will put his Name there. [3]Don't eat the animal along with bread made with yeast. Instead, for seven days eat bread made without yeast. It's the bread that reminds you of how much you suffered. Remember that you left Egypt in a hurry. Remember it all the days of your life. Don't forget the day you left Egypt. [4]Don't keep any yeast anywhere in your land for seven days. You will sacrifice the Passover animal on the evening of the first day. Do not let any of its meat be left over until the next morning.

[5]You must not sacrifice the Passover animal in just any town the LORD your God is giving you. [6]Sacrifice it only in the special place he will choose for his Name. Sacrifice it there in the evening when the sun goes down. Do it on the same day every year. Be sure it's the day you left Egypt. [7]Cook the animal and eat it. Do it at the place the LORD your God will choose. Then in the morning return to your tents. [8]For six days eat bread made without yeast. On the seventh day come together for a service to honor the LORD your God. Don't do any work on that day.

The Feast of Weeks

[9]Count off seven weeks from the time you begin to cut your grain in the field.
[10]Then celebrate the Feast of Weeks to honor the LORD your God. Give to the LORD anything you choose to give as an offering. Give, just as the LORD has given to you. [11]Be filled with joy in the sight of the LORD your God. Be joyful at the special place he will choose for his Name. You, your children, and your male and female servants should be joyful. So should the Levites living in your towns. So should the outsiders and widows living among you. And so should the children whose fathers have died. [12]Remember that you were slaves in Egypt. Be careful to obey the rules I'm giving you.

The Feast of Booths

[13]Gather the grain from your threshing floors. Take the fresh wine from your winepresses. Then celebrate the Feast of Booths for seven days. [14]Be filled with joy at your feast. You, your children, and your male and female servants should be joyful. So should the Levites, the outsiders, and the widows living in your towns. And so should the children whose fathers have died. [15]For seven days celebrate the feast to honor the LORD your God. Do it at the place he will choose. The LORD will bless you when you gather all your crops. He'll bless you in everything you do. And you will be full of joy. [16]All your men must appear in front of the LORD your God at the holy tent. They must go to the place he will choose. They must do it three times a year. They must go there to celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks and the Feast of Booths. None of your men should appear in front of the LORD without bringing something with him. [17]Each of you must bring a gift. Give to the LORD your God, just as he has given to you.

Appoint Judges and Officials

[18]Appoint judges and officials for each of your tribes. Do it in every town the LORD your God is giving you. They must judge the people fairly. [19]Do what is right. Treat everyone the same. Don't take money from people who want special favors. It makes those who are wise close their eyes to the truth. It twists the words of those who have done nothing wrong. [20]Do only what is right. Then you will live. You will take over the land the LORD your God is giving you.

Don't Worship Other Gods

[21]Don't set up a wooden pole used to worship the female god named Asherah.
Don't set it up beside the altar you build to worship the LORD your God.
[22]Don't set up a sacred stone to honor another god. The LORD your God hates Asherah poles and sacred stones.

Deuteronomy 17

[1]Suppose an ox or sheep has anything at all wrong with it. Then don't sacrifice it to the LORD your God. He hates it.

[2]Someone living among you might do what is evil in the sight of the LORD your God. It might happen in one of the towns the LORD is giving you. That person is breaking the LORD's covenant. [3]The person might have worshiped or bowed down to other gods. That person might have bowed down to the sun or moon or stars in the sky. I have commanded you not to do these things. [4]When you hear that people have done something like that, check the matter out carefully. If it's true, an evil thing has been done in Israel. The LORD hates that. [5]So take the person who has done that evil thing to your city gate. Put that person to death by throwing stones at them. [6]Two or three witnesses are required to put someone to death. No one can be put to death because of what only one witness says. Two or three witnesses are required. [7]The witnesses must throw the first stones. Then the rest of the people must also throw stones. Get rid of that evil person.

Law Courts

[8]People will bring their cases to your courts. But some cases will be too hard for you to judge. They might be about murders, attacks or other crimes. Then take those hard cases to the place the LORD your God will choose. [9]Go to a priest, who is a Levite. And go to the judge who is in office at that time. Ask them for their decision. They will give it to you. [10]They'll hand down their decisions at the place the LORD will choose. You must do what they decide. Be careful to do everything they tell you to do. [11]Act according to whatever they teach you. Accept the decisions they give you. Don't turn away from what they tell you. Don't turn to the right or the left. [12]Someone might show that they don't respect the judge. Or they will show that they don't respect the priest. The priest will serve the LORD your God at the place God will choose. If anyone doesn't show respect for these people, that person must be put to death. Remove that evil person from Israel. [13]All the Israelites will hear about it. And they will be afraid to disrespect a judge or priest again.

Appoint the King the LORD Chooses

[14]You will enter the land the LORD your God is giving you. You will take it as your own. You will make your homes in it. When you do, you will say, “Let’s appoint a king over us, just like all the nations around us.” [15]When that happens, make sure you appoint over yourselves a king the LORD your God chooses. He must be from among your own people. Don’t appoint over yourselves someone from another country. Don’t choose anyone who isn’t from one of the tribes of Israel. [16]The king must not get large numbers of horses for himself. He must not make the people return to Egypt to get more horses. The LORD has told you, “You must not go back there again.” [17]The king must not have many wives. If he does, they will lead him astray. He must not store up large amounts of silver and gold.

[18]When he sits on the throne of his kingdom, he must make for himself a copy of the law. He must write on a scroll the law that I am teaching you. He must copy it from the scroll of a priest, who is a Levite. [19]The king must keep the scroll close to him at all times. He must read it all the days of his life. Then he can learn to have respect for the LORD his God. He can carefully obey all the words of this law and these rules. [20]He won’t think of himself as being better than his people are. He won’t turn away from the law. He won’t turn to the right or the left. Then he and his sons after him will rule over his kingdom in Israel for a long time.

Deuteronomy 18

Offerings for Priests and Levites

[1]The priests, who are Levites, won't receive any part of the land of Israel.
That also applies to the whole tribe of Levi. They will eat the food offerings presented to the LORD. That will be their share. [2]They won't have any part of the land the LORD gave the other tribes in Israel. The LORD himself is their share, just as he promised them.

[3]Anyone who sacrifices a bull or a sheep owes a share of it to the priests.
Their share is the shoulder, the inside parts and the meat from the head. [4]You must give the priests the first share of the harvest of your grain, olive oil and fresh wine. You must also give them the first wool you clip from your sheep.
[5]The LORD your God has chosen the Levites and their sons after them to serve him in his name always. He hasn't chosen priests from any of your other tribes.

[6]Sometimes a Levite will move from the town in Israel where he's living. And he will come to the place the LORD will choose. He'll do it because he really wants to. [7]Then he can serve in the name of the LORD his God. He'll be like all the other Levites who serve the LORD there. [8]He must have an equal share of the good things they have. That applies even if he has already received money by selling things his family owned.

Practices the LORD Hates

[9]You will enter the land the LORD your God is giving you. When you do, don't copy the practices of the nations there. The LORD hates those practices.
[10]Here are things you must not do. Don't sacrifice your children in the fire to other gods. Don't practice any kind of evil magic at all. Don't use magic to try to explain the meaning of warnings in the sky or of any other signs. Don't take part in worshiping evil powers. [11]Don't put a spell on anyone. Don't get messages from those who have died. Don't talk to the spirits of the dead. Don't get advice from the dead. [12]The LORD your God hates it when anyone does these things.
The nations in the land he's giving you do these things he hates. So he will drive out those nations to make room for you. [13]You must be without blame in the sight of the LORD your God.

The Prophet of the LORD

[14]You will take over the nations that are in the land the LORD is giving you. They listen to those who practice all kinds of evil magic. But you belong to the LORD your God. He says you must not do these things. [15]The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me. He will be one of your own people. You must listen to him. [16]At Mount Horeb you asked the LORD your God for a prophet. You asked him on the day you gathered together. You said, “We don’t want to hear the voice of the LORD our God. We don’t want to see this great fire anymore. If we do, we’ll die.”

[17]The LORD said to me, “What they are saying is good. [18]I will raise up for them a prophet like you. He will be one of their own people. I will put my words in his mouth. He will tell them everything I command him to say. [19]The prophet will speak in my name. But someone might not listen to what I say through the prophet. I will hold that person responsible for not listening. [20]But suppose a prophet dares to speak in my name something I have not commanded. Or he speaks in the name of other gods. Then that prophet must be put to death.”

[21]You will say to yourselves, “How can we know when a message hasn’t been spoken by the LORD?” [22]Sometimes a prophet will announce something in the name of the LORD. And it won’t take place or come true. Then that’s a message the LORD hasn’t told him to speak. That prophet has dared to speak on his own authority. So don’t be afraid of what he says.

Deuteronomy 19

Cities to Run to for Safety

[1]The LORD your God will destroy the nations whose land he is giving you. You will drive them out. And you will make your homes in their towns and their houses. [2]When you do, set apart for yourselves three cities in the land. It's the land the LORD your God is giving you to take as your own. [3]Figure out the distances and then separate the land into three parts. Then anyone who kills another person can run to one of these cities for safety. They are in the land the LORD your God is giving you as your own.

[4]Here is the rule about a person who kills someone. That person can run to one of those cities for safety. The rule applies to anyone who kills a neighbor they didn't hate and didn't mean to kill. [5]For example, suppose a man goes into a forest with his neighbor to cut wood. When he swings his ax to chop down a tree, the head of the ax flies off. And it hits his neighbor and kills him. Then that man can run to one of those cities and save his life. [6]If he doesn't go to one of those cities, the dead man's nearest male relative might become very angry. He might chase the man. If the city is too far away, he might catch him and kill him. But the man running to the city isn't worthy of death, because he didn't hate his neighbor. [7]That's why I command you to set apart for yourselves three cities.

[8]The LORD your God will increase the size of your territory. He promised your people of long ago that he would do it. He will give you the whole land he promised them. [9]But he'll do it only if you are careful to obey all the laws I'm commanding you today. I command you to love the LORD your God. You must always live as he wants you to live. Suppose you are careful to obey, and the LORD your God gives you more land. Then you must set apart three more cities. [10]Do it to protect those not guilty of murder. Then you won't spill their blood in your land. It's the land the LORD your God is giving you as your own.

[11]But suppose a man hates his neighbor. So he hides and waits for him. Then he attacks him and kills him. And he runs to one of those cities for safety. [12]If he does, the elders of his own town must send for him. He must be brought back from the city. He must be handed over to the dead man's nearest male relative. Then the relative will kill him. [13]Don't feel sorry for him. He has killed someone who hadn't done anything wrong. Crimes like that must be punished in Israel. Then things will go well with you.

[14]Don’t move your neighbor’s boundary stone. It was set up by people who lived there before you. It marks the border of a field in the land you will receive as your own. The LORD your God is giving you that land. You will take it over.

Witnesses

[15]Suppose someone is charged with committing a crime of any kind. Then one witness won’t be enough to prove that person is guilty. Every matter must be proved by the words of two or three witnesses.

[16]Suppose a witness who tells lies goes to court and brings charges against someone. The witness says someone committed a crime. [17]Then the two people in the case must stand in front of the LORD. They must stand in front of the priests and the judges who are in office at that time. [18]The judges must check out the matter carefully. And suppose the witness is proved to be lying. Then he has said something false in court against another Israelite. [19]So do to the lying witness what he tried to do to the other person. Get rid of that evil witness. [20]The rest of the people will hear about it. And they will be afraid. They won’t allow such an evil thing to be done among them again. [21]Don’t feel sorry for that evil person. A life must be taken for a life. An eye must be put out for an eye. A tooth must be knocked out for a tooth. A hand must be cut off for a hand and a foot for a foot.

Deuteronomy 20

Going to War

[1]When you go to war against your enemies, you might see that they have horses and chariots. They might even have an army stronger than yours. But don't be afraid of them. The LORD your God will be with you. After all, he brought you up out of Egypt. [2]Just before you go into battle, the priest will come forward. He'll speak to the army. [3]He'll say, "Men of Israel, listen to me. Today you are going into battle against your enemies. Don't be scared. Don't be afraid. Don't panic or be terrified by them. [4]The LORD your God is going with you. He'll fight for you. He'll help you win the battle over your enemies."

[5]The officers will speak to the army. They will say, "Has anyone built a new house and not started to live in it? Let him go home. If he doesn't, he might die in battle. Then someone else will live in his house. [6]Has anyone planted a vineyard and not started to enjoy it? Let him go home. If he doesn't, he might die in battle. Then someone else will enjoy his vineyard. [7]Has anyone promised to be married to a woman but hasn't done it yet? Let him go home. If he doesn't, he might die in battle. Then someone else will marry her." [8]The officers will continue, "Is anyone afraid or scared? Let him go home. Then the other soldiers won't lose hope too." [9]The officers will finish speaking to the army. When they do, they'll appoint commanders over it.

[10]Suppose you march up to attack a city. Before you attack it, offer to make peace with its people. [11]Suppose they accept your offer and open their gates. Then force all the people in the city to be your slaves. They will have to work for you. [12]But suppose they refuse your offer of peace and prepare for battle. Then surround that city. Get ready to attack it. [13]The LORD your God will hand it over to you. When he does, kill all the men with your swords. [14]But you can take the women and children for yourselves. You can also take the livestock and everything else in the city. What you have captured from your enemies you can use for yourselves. The LORD your God has given it to you. [15]That's how you must treat all the cities far away from you. Those cities don't belong to the nations that are nearby.

[16]But what about the cities the LORD your God is giving you as your own? Kill everything that breathes in those cities. [17]Completely destroy them. Wipe out the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. That's what the LORD your God commanded you to do. [18]If you don’t destroy them, they’ll teach you to do all the things the LORD hates. He hates the way they worship their gods. If you do those things, you will sin against the LORD your God.

[19]Suppose you surround a city and get ready to attack it. And suppose you fight against it for a long time in order to capture it. Then don’t chop down its trees and destroy them. You can eat their fruit. So don’t cut them down. Are the trees people? So why should you attack them? [20]But you can cut down trees that you know aren’t fruit trees. You can build war machines out of their wood. You can use them until you capture the city you are fighting against.

Deuteronomy 21

What to Do When You Don't Know Who Killed Someone

[1]Suppose you find someone who has been killed. The body is lying in a field in the land the LORD your God is giving you as your own. But no one knows who the killer was. [2]Then your elders and judges will go out to the field. They will measure the distance from the body to the nearby towns. [3]The elders from the town that is nearest to the body will get a young cow. It must never have been used for work. It must never have pulled a load. [4]The elders must lead it down into a valley. The valley must not have been farmed. There must be a stream flowing through it. There in the valley the elders must break the cow's neck. [5]The priests, who are sons of Levi, will step forward. The LORD your God has chosen them to serve him. He wants them to bless the people in his name. He wants them to decide all cases that have to do with people arguing and attacking others. [6]Then all the elders from the town that is nearest to the body will wash their hands. They will wash them over the young cow whose neck they broke in the valley. [7]They'll say to the LORD, "We didn't kill that person. We didn't see it happen. [8]Accept this payment for the sin of your people Israel. LORD, you have set your people free. Don't hold them guilty for spilling the blood of someone who hasn't done anything wrong." That will pay for the death of that person. [9]So you will get rid of the guilt of killing someone who didn't do anything wrong. That's because you have done what is right in the LORD's eyes.

Marrying a Woman Who Is Your Prisoner

[10]Suppose you go to war against your enemies. And the LORD your God hands them over to you and you take them as prisoners. [11]Then you notice a beautiful woman among them. If you like her, you may marry her. [12]Bring her home. Have her shave her head and cut her nails. [13]Have her throw away the clothes she was wearing when she was captured. Let her live in your house and mourn the loss of her parents for a full month. Then you can go to her and be her husband. And she will be your wife. [14]But suppose you aren't pleased with her.
Then let her go where she wants to. You must not sell her. You must not treat her as a slave. You have already brought shame on her.

The Rights of the Oldest Son

15Suppose a man has two wives. He loves one but not the other. And both of them have sons by him. But the oldest son is the son of the wife the man doesn't love. 16Someday he'll leave his property to his sons. When he does, he must not give the rights of the oldest son to the son of the wife he loves. He must give those rights to his oldest son. He must do it even though his oldest son is the son of the wife he doesn't love. 17He must recognize the full rights of the oldest son.
He must do it, even though that son is the son of the wife he doesn't love. He must give that son a double share of everything he has. That son is the first sign of his father's strength. So the rights of the oldest son belong to him.

A Stubborn Son

18Suppose someone has a very stubborn son. He doesn't obey his father and mother. And he won't listen to them when they try to correct him. 19Then his parents will take hold of him and bring him to the elders at the gate of his town.
20They will say to the elders, "This son of ours is very stubborn. He won't obey us. He eats too much. He's always getting drunk." 21Then all the people in his town will put him to death by throwing stones at him. Get rid of that evil person.
All the Israelites will hear about it. And they will be afraid to disobey their parents.

Several Other Laws

22Suppose someone is put to death for a crime worthy of death. And a pole is stuck through their body and set up where people can see it. 23Then you must not leave the body on the pole all night. Make sure you bury it that same day.
Everyone who is hung on a pole is under God's curse. You must not make the land "unclean." The LORD your God is giving it to you as your own.

Deuteronomy 22

[1]Suppose you see your neighbor's ox or sheep wandering away. Then don't act as if you didn't see it. Instead, make sure you take it back to its owner. [2]Its owner might not live near you. Or you might not know who owns it. So take the animal home with you. Keep it until the owner comes looking for it. Then give it back to them. [3]Do the same thing if you find their donkey, coat or anything they have lost. Don't act as if you didn't see it.

[4]Suppose you see your neighbor's donkey or ox that has fallen down on the road. Then don't act as if you didn't see it. Help the owner get it up on its feet again.

[5]A woman must not wear men's clothes. And a man must not wear women's clothes. The LORD your God hates it when anyone does this.

[6]Suppose you happen to find a bird's nest beside the road. It might be in a tree or on the ground. And suppose the mother bird is sitting on her little birds or on the eggs. Then don't take the mother along with the little ones. [7]You can take the little ones. But make sure you let the mother go. Then things will go well with you. You will live for a long time.

[8]If you build a new house, put a low wall around the edge of your roof. Then you won't be responsible if someone falls off your roof and dies.

[9]Don't plant two kinds of seeds in your vineyard. If you do, the crops you grow there will be impure. Your grapes will also be impure.

[10]Don't let an ox and a donkey pull the same plow together.

[11]Don't wear clothes made out of wool and linen woven together.

[12]Make tassels on the four corners of the coat you wear.

Breaking Marriage Laws

[13]Suppose a man marries a woman and sleeps with her. But then he doesn't like her. [14]So he tells lies about her and says she's a bad woman. He says, "I married this woman. But when I slept with her, I discovered she wasn't a virgin." [15]Then the young woman's parents must bring proof that she was a virgin. They must give the proof to the elders at the gate of the town. [16]Her father will speak to the elders. He'll say, "I gave my daughter to this man to be his wife. But he doesn't like her. [17]So now he has told lies about her. He has said, 'I discovered that your daughter wasn't a virgin.' But here's the proof that my daughter was a virgin.” Then her parents will show the elders of the town the cloth that has her blood on it. [18]The elders will punish the man. [19]They’ll make him weigh out two and a half pounds of silver. They’ll give it to the young woman’s father. That’s because the man has said an Israelite virgin is a bad woman. She will continue to be his wife. He must not divorce her as long as he lives.

[20]But suppose the charge is true. And there isn’t any proof that the young woman was a virgin. [21]Then she must be brought to the door of her father’s house. There the people of her town will put her to death by throwing stones at her. She has done a very terrible thing in Israel. She has slept with a man before she was married. Get rid of that evil person.

[22]Suppose a man is seen sleeping with another man’s wife. Then the man and the woman must both die. Get rid of those evil people.

[23]Suppose a man happens to see a virgin in a town. And she has promised to marry another man. But the man who happens to see her sleeps with her. [24]Then you must take both of them to the gate of that town. You must put them to death by throwing stones at them. You must kill the young woman because she was in a town and didn’t scream for help. And you must kill the man because he slept with another man’s wife. Get rid of those evil people.

[25]But suppose a man happens to see a young woman out in the country. And she has promised to marry another man. But the man who happens to see her rapes her. Then only the man who has done that will die. [26]Don’t do anything to the woman. She hasn’t committed a sin worthy of death. That case is like the case of someone who attacks and murders a neighbor. [27]The man found the young woman out in the country. And she screamed for help. But there wasn’t anyone around who could save her.

[28]Suppose a man happens to see a virgin who hasn’t promised to marry another man. And the man who happens to see her rapes her. But someone discovers them. [29]Then the man must weigh out 20 ounces of silver. He must give it to her father. The man must marry the young woman, because he raped her. And he can never divorce her as long as he lives.

[30]A man must not marry his stepmother. He must not bring shame on his father by sleeping with her.

Deuteronomy 23

Who Can Join in Worship With the LORD's People?

[1]No man whose sex organs have been crushed or cut can join in worship with the LORD's people.

[2]No one born to an unmarried woman can join in worship with the LORD's people. That also applies to the person's children for all time to come.

[3]The people of Ammon and Moab can't join in worship with the LORD's people. That also applies to their children after them for all time to come. [4]The Ammonites and Moabites didn't come to meet you with food and water on your way out of Egypt. They even hired Balaam from Pethor in Aram Naharaim to put a curse on you. Balaam was the son of Beor. [5]The LORD your God wouldn't listen to Balaam. Instead, he turned the curse into a blessing for you. He did it because he loves you. [6]So don't make a peace treaty with the Ammonites and Moabites as long as you live.

[7]Don't hate the people of Edom. They are your relatives. Don't hate the people of Egypt. After all, you lived as outsiders in their country. [8]The great-grandchildren of the Edomites and Egyptians can join in worship with the LORD's people.

Keep the Camp of the Soldiers Pure and "Clean"

[9]There will be times when you are at war with your enemies. And your soldiers will be in camp. Then keep away from anything that isn't pure and "clean." [10]Suppose semen flows from the body of one of your soldiers during the night. Then that will make him "unclean." He must go outside the camp and stay there. [11]But as evening approaches, he must wash himself. When the sun goes down, he can return to the camp.

[12]Choose a place outside the camp where you can go to the toilet. [13]Keep a shovel among your tools. When you go to the toilet, dig a hole. Then cover up your waste. [14]The LORD your God walks around in your camp. He's there to keep you safe. He's also there to hand your enemies over to you. So your camp must be holy. Then he won't see anything among you that is shameful. He won't turn away from you.

Several Other Laws

15If a slave comes to you for safety, don’t hand them over to their master.
16Let them live among you anywhere they want to. Let them live in any town they choose. Don’t treat them badly.

17A man or woman in Israel must not become a temple prostitute. 18The
LORD your God hates the money that men and women get for being prostitutes.
So don’t take that money into the house of the LORD to pay what you promised to give.

19Don’t charge your own people any interest. Don’t charge them when they borrow money, food or anything else. 20You can charge interest to people from another country. But don’t charge your own people. Then the LORD your God will bless you in everything you do. He will bless you in the land you are entering to take as your own.

21Don’t put off giving to the LORD your God everything you promise him.
He will certainly require it from you. And you will be guilty of committing a sin.
22But if you don’t make a promise, you won’t be guilty. 23Make sure you do what you promised to do. With your own mouth you made the promise to the LORD your God. No one forced you to do it.

24When you enter your neighbor’s vineyard, you can eat all the grapes you want. But don’t put any of them in your basket. 25When you enter your neighbor’s field, you can pick heads of grain. But don’t cut down their standing grain.

Deuteronomy 24

[1]Suppose a man marries a woman. But later he decides he doesn't like her. He finds something shameful about her. So he gives her a letter of divorce and sends her away from his house. [2]Then after she leaves his house she becomes another man's wife. [3]But her second husband doesn't like her either. So he gives her a letter of divorce and sends her away from his house. Or perhaps he dies. [4]Then her first husband isn't allowed to marry her again. The LORD would hate that. When her first husband divorced her, she became "unclean." Don't bring sin on the land the LORD your God is giving you as your own.

[5]Suppose a man has just married his wife. Then don't send him into battle. Don't give him any other duty either. He's free to stay home for one year. He needs time to make his new wife happy.

[6]Someone might borrow money from you and give you two millstones to keep until you are paid back. Don't keep them. Don't even keep the upper one. That person needs both millstones to make a living.

[7]Suppose someone is caught kidnapping another Israelite. And they sell or treat that person as a slave. Then the kidnapper must die. Get rid of that evil person.

[8]What about skin diseases? Be very careful to do exactly what the priests, who are Levites, tell you to do. You must be careful to obey the commands I've given them. [9]Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam on your way out of Egypt.

[10]Suppose your neighbor borrows something from you. And he offers you something to keep until you get paid back. Then don't go into their house to get it. [11]Stay outside. Let the neighbor bring it out to you. [12]The neighbor might be poor. You might be given their coat to keep until you get paid back. Don't go to sleep while you still have it. [13]Return it before the sun goes down. They need it to sleep in and will thank you for returning it. The LORD your God will see it and know that you have done the right thing.

[14]Don't take advantage of any hired worker who is poor and needy. That applies to your own people. It also applies to outsiders living in one of your towns. [15]Give them their pay every day. They are poor and are counting on it. If you don't pay them, they might cry out to the LORD against you. Then you will be guilty of committing a sin.

[16]Parents must not be put to death because of what their children do. And children must not be put to death because of what their parents do. People must die because of their own sins.

[17]Do what is right and fair for outsiders and for children whose fathers have died. Suppose a widow borrows something from you. And she offers to give you her coat until she pays you back. Don’t take it. [18]Remember that you were slaves in Egypt. Remember that the LORD your God set you free from there. That’s why I’m commanding you to do those things.

[19]When you are gathering crops in your field, you might leave some grain behind by mistake. Don’t go back to get it. Leave it behind for outsiders and widows. Leave it for children whose fathers have died. Then the LORD your God will bless you in everything you do. [20]When you knock olives off your trees, don’t go back over the branches a second time. Leave what remains for outsiders and widows. Leave it for children whose fathers have died. [21]When you pick grapes in your vineyard, don’t go back over the vines a second time. Leave what remains for outsiders and widows. Leave it for children whose fathers have died. [22]Remember that you were slaves in Egypt. That’s why I’m commanding you to do these things.

Deuteronomy 25

[1]Suppose two people don't agree about something. Then they must take their case to court. The judges will decide the case. They will let the one who isn't guilty go free. And they will punish the one who is guilty. [2]The guilty one might have done something that's worthy of a beating. Then the judge will make them lie down and be beaten with a whip right there in court. The number of strokes should fit the crime. [3]But the judge must not give the guilty person more than 40 strokes. If more than that are used, you will have disrespected your Israelite neighbor.

[4]Don't stop an ox from eating while you use it to separate grain from straw.

[5]Suppose two brothers are living near each other. And one of them dies without having a son. Then his widow must not marry anyone outside the family.
Her husband's brother should marry her. That's what a brother-in-law is supposed to do. [6]Her first baby boy will be named after her first husband. Then the dead man's name will continue in Israel.

[7]But suppose the man doesn't want to marry his brother's wife. Then she will go to the elders at the gate of the town. She will say, "My husband's brother refuses to keep his brother's name alive in Israel. He won't do for me what a brother-in-law is supposed to do." [8]Then the elders in his town will send for him.
They will talk to him. But he still might say, "I don't want to marry her." [9]Then his brother's widow will go up to him in front of the elders. She'll pull one of his sandals off his foot. She'll spit in his face. And she'll say, "That's what we do to a man who won't build up his brother's family line." [10]That man's family line will be known in Israel as The Family of the Man Whose Sandal Was Pulled Off.

[11]Suppose two men are fighting. And the wife of one of them comes to save her husband from his attacker. So she reaches out and grabs hold of his attacker's private parts. [12]Then you must cut off her hand. Don't feel sorry for her.

[13]Don't have two different scales. Don't have scales that cause things to seem heavier or lighter than they really are. [14]And don't have two different sets of measures. Don't have measures that cause things to seem larger or smaller than they really are. [15]You must use weights and measures that are honest and exact.
Then you will live a long time in the land the LORD your God is giving you.
[16]He hates anyone who cheats.

[17]Remember what the Amalekites did to you on your way out of Egypt. [18]You were tired and worn out. They met up with you on your journey. They attacked everyone who was lagging behind. They didn’t have any respect for God. [19]The LORD your God will give you peace and rest from all the enemies around you. He’ll do this in the land he’s giving you to take over as your very own. No one on earth will mention the Amalekites ever again because you will destroy them. Do not forget!

Deuteronomy 26

Give the LORD His Share

[1]You will enter the land the LORD your God is giving you as your own. You will take it over. You will make your homes in the land. [2]When you do, get some of the first share of everything your soil produces. Put it in a basket. It's from the land the LORD your God is giving you. Take your gifts and go to the special place he will choose. He will put his Name there. [3]Speak to the priest in office at that time. Tell him, "I announce today to the LORD your God that I have come to this land. It's the land he promised to give us. He promised it to our people of long ago." [4]The priest will receive the basket from you. He'll set it down in front of the altar of the LORD your God. [5]Then you will speak while the LORD is listening. You will say, "My father Jacob was a wanderer from the land of Aram. He went down into Egypt with a few people. He lived there and became the father of a great nation. It had huge numbers of people. [6]But the people of Egypt treated us badly. They made us suffer. They made us work very hard. [7]Then we cried out to the LORD. He is the God of our people who lived long ago. He heard our voice. He saw how much we were suffering. The Egyptians were treating us badly. They were making us work very hard. [8]So the LORD used his mighty hand and powerful arm to bring us out of Egypt. He did great and terrifying things. He did signs and amazing things. [9]He brought us to this place. He gave us this land. It's a land that has plenty of milk and honey. [10]Now, LORD, I'm bringing you the first share of crops from the soil. After all, you have given them to me." Place the basket in front of the LORD your God. Bow down to him. [11]Then you and the Levites and the outsiders among you will be full of joy. You will enjoy all the good things the LORD your God has given to you and your family.

[12]You will set apart a tenth of everything you produce in the third year. That's the year for giving the tenth to people who have greater needs. You will give it to the Levites, outsiders and widows. You will also give it to children whose fathers have died. Then all of them will have plenty to eat in your towns. [13]Speak to the LORD your God. Say to him, "I have taken your sacred share from my house. I have given it to the Levites, outsiders and widows. I have also given it to children whose fathers have died. I've done everything you commanded me to do. I haven't stopped obeying your commands. I haven't forgotten any of them.

[14]I haven’t eaten any part of your sacred share while I mourned over someone who had died. I haven’t taken any of it from my house while I was ‘unclean.’ And I haven’t offered any of it to the dead. LORD my God, I’ve obeyed you. I’ve done everything you commanded me to do. [15]Look down from the holy place where you live in heaven. Bless your people Israel. Bless the land you have given us. It’s the land you promised to give to our people of long ago. It’s a land that has plenty of milk and honey.”

Obey the LORD’s Commands

[16]This day the LORD your God commands you to obey all these rules and laws. Be careful to obey them with all your heart and with all your soul. [17]Today you have announced that the LORD is your God. You have said you would live exactly as he wants you to live. You have agreed to keep his rules, commands and laws. And you have said you would listen to him. [18]Today the LORD has announced that you are his people. He has said that you are his special treasure. He promised that you would be. He has told you to keep all his commands. [19]He has announced that he will make you famous. He’ll give you more praise and honor than all the other nations he has made. And he has said that you will be a holy nation. The LORD your God has set you apart for himself. That’s exactly what he promised to do.

Deuteronomy 27

The Altar on Mount Ebal

[1]Moses and the elders of Israel gave commands to the people. They said, “Obey all the commands we’re giving you today. [2]You will go across the Jordan River. You will enter the land the LORD your God is giving you. When you do, set up some large stones. Put a coat of plaster on them. [3]Write all the words of this law on them. Do it when you have crossed over into the land the LORD your God is giving you. It’s a land that has plenty of milk and honey. The LORD is the God of your people of long ago. He promised you that you would enter the land. [4]After you have gone across the Jordan, set up those stones on Mount Ebal. Put a coat of plaster on them. We’re commanding you today to do that. [5]Build an altar there to honor the LORD your God. Make it out of stones. Don’t use any iron tool on them. [6]Use stones you find in the fields to build his altar. Then offer burnt offerings on it to the LORD your God. [7]Sacrifice friendship offerings there. Eat them and be filled with joy in the sight of the LORD your God. [8]You must write all the words of this law on the stones you have set up. Write the words very clearly.”

Curses for Not Obeying the LORD

[9]Then Moses and the priests, who are Levites, spoke to all the Israelites. They said, “Israel, be quiet! Listen! You have now become the people of the LORD your God. [10]Obey him. Obey his commands and rules that we’re giving you today.”

[11]Here are the commands Moses gave the people that same day.

[12]You will go across the Jordan River. When you do, six tribes will stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people. Those tribes are Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph and Benjamin. [13]The other six tribes will stand on Mount Ebal to announce some curses. Those tribes are Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan and Naphtali.

[14]The Levites will speak to all the Israelites in a loud voice. The Levites will say, > [15]“May anyone who makes a statue of a god and sets it up in secret be under the LORD’s curse. That statue is made by a skilled worker. And the LORD hates it.”

Then all the people will say, “Amen!”

16“May anyone who brings shame on their father or mother be under the LORD’s curse.”

Then all the people will say, “Amen!”

17“May anyone who moves their neighbor’s boundary stone be under the LORD’s curse.”

Then all the people will say, “Amen!”

18“May anyone who leads blind people down the wrong road be under the LORD’s curse.”

Then all the people will say, “Amen!”

19“May anyone who treats unfairly outsiders, widows, and children whose fathers have died be under the LORD’s curse.”

Then all the people will say, “Amen!”

20“May anyone who sleeps with his stepmother be under the LORD’s curse. That man brings shame on his father by doing that.”

Then all the people will say, “Amen!”

21“May anyone who has sex with animals be under the LORD’s curse.”

Then all the people will say, “Amen!”

22“May anyone who sleeps with his sister be under the LORD’s curse. It doesn’t matter whether she is his full sister or his half sister.”

Then all the people will say, “Amen!”

23“May anyone who sleeps with his mother-in-law be under the LORD’s curse.”

Then all the people will say, “Amen!”

24“May anyone who kills their neighbor secretly be under the LORD’s curse.”

Then all the people will say, “Amen!”

25“May anyone who accepts money to kill someone who isn’t guilty of doing anything wrong be under the LORD’s curse.”

Then all the people will say, “Amen!”

26“May anyone who doesn’t honor the words of this law by obeying them be under the LORD’s curse.”

Then all the people will say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 28

Blessings for Obeying the LORD

[1]Make sure you obey the LORD your God completely. Be careful to obey all his commands. I'm giving them to you today. If you do these things, the LORD will honor you more than all the other nations on earth. [2]If you obey the LORD your God, here are the blessings that will come to you and remain with you.

[3]You will be blessed in the cities. You will be blessed out in the country.
[4]Your children will be blessed. Your crops will be blessed. The young animals among your livestock will be blessed. That includes your calves and lambs.
[5]Your baskets and bread pans will be blessed.
[6]You will be blessed no matter where you go.

[7]Enemies will rise up against you. But the LORD will help you win the battle over them. They will come at you from one direction. But they'll run away from you in every direction.
[8]The LORD your God will bless your barns with plenty of grain and other food. He will bless everything you do. He'll bless you in the land he's giving you.
[9]The LORD your God will make you his holy people. He will set you apart for himself. He promised to do this. He promised to do it if you would keep his commands and live exactly as he wants you to live. [10]All the nations on earth will see that you belong to the LORD. And they will be afraid of you. [11]The LORD will give you more than you need. You will have many children. Your livestock will have many little ones. Your crops will do very well. All of that will happen in the land he promised to give you. He promised this to your people of long ago.
[12]The LORD will open up the heavens. That's where he stores his riches. He will send rain on your land at just the right time. He'll bless everything you do.
You will lend money to many nations. But you won't have to borrow from any of them. [13]The LORD your God will make you leaders, not followers. Pay attention to his commands that I'm giving you today. Be careful to obey them.
Then you will always be on top. You will never be on the bottom. [14]Don't turn away from any of the commands I’m giving you today. Don’t turn to the right or the left. Don’t follow other gods. Don’t worship them.

Curses for Not Obeying the LORD

15But suppose you don’t obey the LORD your God. And you aren’t careful to obey all his commands and rules I’m giving you today. Then he will send curses on you. They’ll catch up with you. Here are those curses.

16You will be cursed in the cities. You will be cursed out in the country.
17Your baskets and bread pans will be cursed.
18Your children will be cursed. Your crops will be cursed. Your calves and lambs will be cursed.
19You will be cursed no matter where you go.

20The LORD will send curses on you. You won’t know what’s going on. In everything you do, he will be angry with you. You will be destroyed suddenly and completely. This will happen because you did an evil thing when you deserted the LORD. 21He will send all kinds of sicknesses on you. He’ll send them until he has destroyed you. He’ll remove you from the land you are entering to take as your own. 22The LORD will make you sick and very weak. He will strike you with fever and swelling. He’ll send burning heat. There won’t be any rain. The hot winds will completely dry up your crops. All those things will happen until you die. 23The sky above you will be like bronze. The ground beneath you will be like iron. 24The LORD will turn the rain of your country into dust and powder. It will come down from the skies until you are destroyed.

25The LORD will help your enemies win the battle over you. You will come at them from one direction. But you will run away from them in every direction. All the kingdoms on earth will be completely shocked when they see you. 26Birds and wild animals will eat up your dead bodies. There won’t be anyone left to scare them away. 27The LORD will send boils on you, just like the ones he sent on the Egyptians. You will have growths in your bodies and boils on your skin. You will itch all over. No one will be able to heal you. 28The LORD will make you lose your mind. He will make you blind. You won’t know what’s going on. 29Even at noon you will have to feel your way around like a blind person in the dark. You won’t have success in anything you do. Day after day you will be robbed and treated badly. No one will be able to save you.

[30]You and a woman will promise to marry each other. But another man will take her and rape her. You will build a house. But you won't live in it. You will plant a vineyard. But you won't eat a single grape from it. [31]Your ox will be killed right in front of your eyes. But you won't eat any of it. Your donkey will be taken away from you by force. And you will never get it back. Your sheep will be given to your enemies. No one will be able to save them. [32]Your children will be given to another nation. Day after day you will watch for them to come back. But you will only wear out your eyes. You won't be able to help your children. [33]A nation you don't know anything about will eat what you work to produce on your land. You will only be treated badly as long as you live. [34]The things you see will make you lose your mind. [35]The LORD will send painful boils on your knees and legs. No one will be able to heal them. They will cover you from head to toe.

[36]The LORD will drive you out of the land. And he will drive out the king you place over yourselves. All of you will go to another nation. You and your people of long ago didn't know anything about them. There you will worship other gods. They will be made out of wood and stone. [37]You will look very bad to all the nations where the LORD sends you. They will be completely shocked when they see you. They will mock you and make fun of you.

[38]You will plant many seeds in your field. But you will gather very little food. Locusts will eat it up. [39]You will plant vineyards and take care of them. But you won't drink the wine. You won't gather the grapes. Worms will eat them up. [40]You will have olive trees through your whole country. But you won't use the oil. The olives will drop off the trees. [41]You will have children. But you won't be able to keep them. They'll be taken away as prisoners. [42]Large numbers of locusts will eat up the leaves on all your trees. They will also eat up the crops on your land.

[43]Outsiders who live among you will become your leaders. They will rise higher and higher. But you will sink lower and lower. [44]They will lend money to you. But you won't be able to lend money to them. They will be the leaders. But you will be the followers.

[45]The LORD your God will send all these curses on you. They will follow you everywhere. They'll catch up with you. You will be under the LORD's curse until you are destroyed. That's because you didn't obey him. You didn't keep the commands and rules he gave you. [46]These curses will remain as signs and awful judgments against you and your children after you forever. [47]You didn't serve the LORD your God with joy and gladness when times were good. [48]So he will send enemies against you. You will have to serve them. You will be hungry and thirsty. You will be naked and poor. The LORD will put the iron chains of slavery around your necks until he has destroyed you.

[49]The LORD will bring a nation against you from far away. It will come from the ends of the earth. It will dive down on you like an eagle. You won't understand that nation's language. [50]Its people will look mean. They won't have any respect for old people. They won't show any kindness to young people. [51]They will eat up the young animals among your livestock. They'll eat up the crops on your land. They'll destroy you. They won't leave you any grain, olive oil or fresh wine. They won't leave you any calves or lambs. They'll destroy you. [52]They'll surround all the cities throughout your whole land. They'll attack those cities until the high, strong walls you trust in fall down. That's what will happen to the cities in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

[53]Your enemies will surround you and attack you. They will make you suffer greatly. So you will eat your own children. You will eat the dead bodies of the sons and daughters the LORD your God has given you. [54]There may be a gentle and caring man among you. But he will treat his own brother badly. He'll be just as mean to the wife he loves and to any of his children who are still alive. [55]He won't give to a single one of them any part of the dead bodies of his children that he's eating. It will be all he has left to eat. That's how much your enemies will make you suffer when they surround all your cities and attack them. [56]There may be a gentle and caring woman among you. She wouldn't even touch the ground with her feet without first putting her sandals on. But she will not share anything with the husband she loves. She won't share with her own children either. [57]She will eat what comes out of her body after she has a baby. Then she'll even eat her baby. She won't share it with anyone in her family. In her great hunger she'll plan to eat it in secret. There won't be anything else for her to eat because the city she lives in will be surrounded. That's an example of how much your enemies will make you suffer when they are attacking your cities.

[58]Be careful to follow all the words of this law. They are written in this scroll. Have respect for the glorious and wonderful name of the LORD your God. If you don't, [59]he will send terrible plagues on you and your children after you. He'll send horrible and lasting troubles. He'll make you very sick for a long time. [60]He'll bring on you all the sicknesses you were afraid of getting when you were in Egypt. You won't be able to get rid of them. [61]The LORD will also bring on you all other kinds of sickness and trouble. I haven't even written those down in this Book of the Law. You will be destroyed. 62At one time you were as many as the stars in the sky. But there will only be a few of you left. That's because you didn't obey the LORD your God. 63It pleased the LORD to give you success and to cause there to be many of you. But it will please him just as much to wipe you out and destroy you. You will be removed from the land you are entering to take as your own.

64Then the LORD will scatter you among all the nations. He'll spread you around from one end of the earth to the other. There you will worship statues of gods made out of wood and stone. You and your people of long ago hadn't known anything about those gods. 65Among those nations you won't find any peace. There won't be any place where you can make your home and rest your feet. The LORD will give you minds filled with worry. He'll give you eyes worn out from looking for help. You won't have any hope in your hearts. 66Your lives will always be in danger. You will be filled with fear night and day. You will never be sure you are safe. 67In the morning you will say, "We wish it were evening!" In the evening you will say, "We wish it were morning!" Your hearts will be filled with fear. The things you see will terrify you. 68The LORD will send you back to Egypt in ships. He'll send you on a journey I said you should never have to make again. You will offer to sell yourselves to your enemies as slaves in Egypt. But no one will buy you.

Deuteronomy 29

Obey the Terms of the Covenant

[1]Here are the terms of the covenant the LORD commanded Moses to make with the Israelites in Moab. The terms were added to the covenant he had made with them at Mount Horeb.

[2]Moses sent for all the Israelites. Here is what he said to them.

> With your own eyes you have seen everything the LORD did in Egypt to Pharaoh. You have seen what he did to all Pharaoh's officials and to his whole land. [3]With your own eyes you saw how the LORD really made them suffer. You saw the signs and amazing things he did. [4]But to this day the LORD hasn't given you a mind that understands. He hasn't given you eyes that see. He hasn't given you ears that hear. [5]Yet the LORD says, "I led you through the desert for 40 years. During that time your clothes didn't wear out. The sandals on your feet didn't wear out either. [6]You didn't eat any bread. You didn't drink any kind of wine. I did all these things because I wanted you to know that I am the LORD your God."

[7]When you got here, Sihon and Og came out to fight against us. Sihon was the king of Heshbon. And Og was the king of Bashan. But we won the battle over them. [8]We took their land. We gave it to the tribes of Reuben and Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh as their share.

[9]Be careful to obey the terms of this covenant. Then you will have success in everything you do. [10]Today all of you are standing here in the sight of the LORD your God. Your leaders and chief men are here. Your elders and officials are here. So are all the other men of Israel. [11]Your children and wives are here with you too. So are the outsiders living in your camps. They chop your wood and carry your water. [12]All of you are standing here in order to enter into a covenant with the LORD your God. He is making the covenant with you today. He's giving you his word. [13]Today he wants to show you that you are his people and that he is your God. That's what he promised to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. [14]I'm making this covenant and the promise that goes along with it. I'm making this covenant with you. [15]You are standing here with us today in front of the LORD our God. And I'm also making this covenant with those who aren't here today.

[16]You yourselves know how we lived in Egypt. You also know how we passed through other countries on the way here. [17]You saw the statues of their gods made out of wood, stone, silver and gold. The LORD hates those statues. [18]Make sure there isn't a man or woman among your families or tribes who turns away from the LORD our God. No one must worship the gods of those nations. Make sure that kind of worship doesn't spread like bitter poison through your whole community.

[19]Some people who worship those gods will hear the promise that seals the covenant I'm making. They think they can escape trouble by what they're saying. They say, "We'll be safe, even though we're stubborn and go our own way." But they will bring trouble on the whole land. [20]The LORD will never be willing to forgive those people. His great anger will blaze out against them. All the curses I've written down in this book will fall on them. And the LORD will erase any mention of them from the earth. [21]He will find those people in all the tribes of Israel and give them nothing but trouble. That will agree with all the curses of the covenant. They are written down in this Book of the Law.

[22]Even your children's children will see the troubles that have fallen on the land. They'll see the sicknesses the LORD has brought on it. People who come from countries far away will also see those things. [23]The whole land will be burned up. Nothing but salt and sulfur will be left. Nothing will be planted there. Nothing will grow there. In fact, nothing will even start to grow there. The land will be like Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboyim after they were destroyed. The LORD wiped out those cities because he was very angry. [24]All the nations will ask, "Why has the LORD done this to the land? What could have made him so very angry?"

[25]And they will hear the answer, "It's because the people living there have broken the covenant of the LORD. He's the God of their people of long ago. He made that covenant with them when he brought them out of Egypt. [26]They went off and worshiped other gods. They bowed down to them. They hadn't known anything about those gods before. The LORD hadn't given those gods to them. [27]So the LORD became very angry with this land. He brought on it all the curses written down in this book. [28]The LORD's anger blazed out against his people. So he pulled them up out of their land. He threw them into another land. And that's where they are now."

[29]The LORD our God keeps certain things hidden. But he makes other things known to us and to our children forever. He does it so we can obey all the words of this law.

Deuteronomy 30

The LORD Will Bless His People

[1]I have told you about all these blessings and curses. The LORD your God will bring them on you. Then you will think carefully about the blessings and curses. You will think about them everywhere the LORD your God scatters you among the nations. [2]You and your children will return to the LORD your God. You will obey him with all your heart and with all your soul. That will be according to everything I'm commanding you today. [3]When all that happens, the LORD your God will bless you with great success again. He will be very kind to you. He'll bring you back from all the nations where he scattered you. [4]Suppose you have been forced to go away to the farthest land on earth. The LORD your God will bring you back even from there. [5]He will bring you to the land that belonged to your people of long ago. You will take it over. He'll make you better off than your people were. He'll cause there to be more of you than there were of them. [6]The LORD your God will keep you from being stubborn. He'll do the same thing for your children and their children. Then you will love him with all your heart and with all your soul. And you will live. [7]The LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies. They hated you and hunted you down. [8]You will obey the LORD again. You will obey all his commands that I'm giving you today. [9]Then the LORD your God will give you great success in everything you do. You will have many children. Your livestock will have many little ones. Your crops will do very well. The LORD will take delight in you again. He'll give you success. That's what he did for your people of long ago. [10]But you must obey the LORD your God. You must keep his commands and rules. They are written in this Book of the Law. You must turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Choose Life, Not Death

[11]What I'm commanding you today is not too hard for you. It isn't beyond your reach. [12]It isn't up in heaven. So you don't have to ask, "Who will go up into heaven to get it? Who will announce it to us so we can obey it?" [13]And it isn't beyond the ocean. So you don't have to ask, "Who will go across the ocean to get it? Who will announce it to us so we can obey it?" [14]No, the message isn't far away at all. In fact, it's really near you. It's in your mouth and in your heart so that you can obey it.

15Today I’m giving you a choice. You can have life and success. Or you can have death and harm. 16I’m commanding you today to love the LORD your God. I’m commanding you to live exactly as he wants you to live. You must obey his commands, rules and laws. Then you will live. There will be many of you. The LORD your God will bless you in the land you are entering to take as your own.

17Don’t let your hearts turn away from the LORD. Instead, obey him. Don’t let yourselves be drawn away to other gods. And don’t bow down to them and worship them. 18If you do, I announce to you this day that you will certainly be destroyed. You are about to go across the Jordan River and take over the land. But you won’t live there very long.

19I’m calling for the heavens and the earth to be witnesses against you this very day. I’m offering you the choice of life or death. You can choose either blessings or curses. But I want you to choose life. Then you and your children will live. 20And you will love the LORD your God. You will obey him. You will remain true to him. The LORD is your very life. He will give you many years in the land. He promised to give that land to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Deuteronomy 31

Joshua Becomes the New Leader

[1]Here are the words Moses spoke to all the Israelites. [2]He said, “I am now 120 years old. I’m not able to lead you anymore. The LORD has said to me, ‘You will not go across the Jordan River.’ [3]The LORD your God himself will go across ahead of you. He’ll destroy the nations there in order to make room for you. You will take over their land. Joshua will also go across ahead of you, just as the LORD said he would. [4]The LORD will do to those nations what he did to Sihon and Og. He destroyed those Amorite kings along with their land. [5]The LORD will hand those nations over to you. Then you must do to them everything I’ve commanded you to do. [6]Be strong and brave. Don’t be afraid of them. Don’t be terrified because of them. The LORD your God will go with you. He will never leave you. He’ll never desert you.”

[7]Then Moses sent for Joshua. Moses spoke to him in front of all the Israelites. He said, “Be strong and brave. You must go with these people. They are going into the land the LORD promised to give to their people of long ago. You must divide it up among them. They will each receive their share. [8]The LORD himself will go ahead of you. He will be with you. He will never leave you. He’ll never desert you. So don’t be afraid. Don’t lose hope.”

The Law Must Be Read to the People

[9]Moses wrote down this law. He gave it to the priests, who are sons of Levi. They carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD. He also gave the law to all the elders of Israel. [10]Then Moses commanded them, “You must read this law at the end of every seven years. Do it in the year when you forgive people what they owe. Read it during the Feast of Booths. [11]That’s when all the Israelites come to appear in front of the LORD your God at the holy tent. It will be at the place he will choose. You must read this law to them. [12]Gather the people together. Gather the men, women and children. Also bring together the outsiders living in your towns. Then they can listen and learn to have respect for the LORD your God. And they’ll be careful to obey all the words of this law. [13]Their children must hear it read too. They don’t know this law yet. They too must learn to have respect for the LORD your God. They must honor him as long as you live in the land. You are about to go across the Jordan River and take that land as your very own.”

The Israelites Will Refuse to Obey the LORD

14The LORD said to Moses, “The day when you will die is near. Have Joshua go to the tent of meeting. Join him there. That is where I will appoint him as the new leader.” So Joshua and Moses went to the tent of meeting.

15Then the LORD appeared at the tent in a pillar of cloud. It stood over the entrance to the tent. 16The LORD spoke to Moses. He said, “You are going to join the members of your family who have already died. The Israelites will not be faithful to me. They will soon join themselves to the false gods that are worshiped in the land they are entering. The people will desert me. They will break the covenant I made with them. 17In that day I will become angry with them. I will desert them. I will turn my face away from them. And they will be destroyed. Many horrible troubles and hard times will come on them. On that day they will say, ‘Trouble has come on us. Our God isn’t with us!’ 18I will certainly turn away from them on that day. I will do it because they did a very evil thing when they turned to other gods.

19“I want you to write down a song and teach it to the Israelites. Have them sing it. It will be my witness against them. 20I will bring them into a land that has plenty of milk and honey. I promised the land to their people of long ago. In that land they will eat until they have had enough. They will get fat. When they do, they will turn to other gods and worship them. They will turn their backs on me.
They will break my covenant. 21Many horrible troubles and hard times will come on them. Then the song I am giving you will be a witness against them.
That is because the song will not be forgotten by their children and their children’s children. I know what they are likely to do. I know it even before I bring them into the land I promised them.” 22So that day Moses wrote the song down. And Moses taught it to the Israelites.

23The LORD gave a command to Joshua, the son of Nun. He said, “Be strong and brave. You will bring the Israelites into the land I promised them. I myself will be with you.”

24Moses finished writing the words of this law in a book. He wrote them down from beginning to end. 25Then he gave a command to the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD. Moses said, 26“Take this Book of the Law.
Place it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God. It will remain there as a witness against you. 27I know how you refuse to obey the LORD. I know how stubborn you are. You have refused to obey him while I've been living among you. So you will certainly refuse to obey him after I'm dead! [28]Gather together all the elders of your tribes and all your officials. Bring them to me. Then I can speak these words to them. I can call for the heavens and the earth to be witnesses against them. [29]I know that after I'm dead you will certainly become very sinful. You will turn away from the path I've commanded you to take. In days to come, trouble will fall on you. That's because you will do what is evil in the sight of the LORD. You will make him very angry because of the statues of gods your hands have made."

The Song of Moses

[30]Moses spoke the words of this song from beginning to end. The whole community of Israel heard them. Here is what he said.

Deuteronomy 32

[1]Heavens, listen to me.Then I will speak.
Earth, hear the words of my mouth.
[2]Let my teaching fall like rain.
Let my words come down like dew.
Let them be like raindrops on new grass.
Let them be like rain on tender plants.

[3]I will make known the name of the LORD.
Praise God! How great he is!
[4]He is the Rock. His works are perfect.
All his ways are right.
He is faithful. He doesn't do anything wrong.
He is honest and fair.

[5]Israel, you have sinned against him very much.
It's too bad for you that you aren't his children anymore.
You have become a twisted and evil nation.
[6]Is that how you thank the LORD?
You aren't wise. You are foolish.
Remember, he's your Father. He's your Creator.
He made you. He formed you.

[7]Remember the days of long ago.
Think about what the LORD did through those many years.
Ask your father. He will tell you.
Ask your elders. They'll explain it to you.
[8]The Most High God gave the nations their lands.
He divided up the human race.
He set up borders for the nations.
He did it based on the number of the angels in his heavenly court.
[9]The LORD's people are his share.
Jacob is the nation he has received.

[10]The LORD found Israel in a desert.

He found them in an empty and windy land.
He took care of them and kept them safe.
He guarded them as he would guard his own eyes.
11 He was like an eagle that stirs up its nest.
It hovers over its little ones.
It spreads out its wings to catch them.
It carries them up in the air on its feathers.
12 The LORD was the only one who led Israel.
No other god was with them.

13 The LORD made them ride on the highest places in the land.
He fed them what grew in the fields.
He gave them the sweetest honey.
He fed them olive oil from a rocky hillside.
14 He gave them butter and milk from the herds and flocks.
He fed them the fattest lambs and goats.
He gave them the best of Bashan's rams.
He fed them the finest wheat.
They drank the bubbling red juice of grapes.

15 When Israel grew fat, they became stubborn.
When they were filled with food, they became fat and heavy.
They left the God who made them.
They turned away from the Rock who saved them.
16 They made him jealous by serving false gods.
They made him angry by worshiping statues of gods.
He hated those gods.
17 The people sacrificed to those false gods, not to God.
They hadn't known anything about those false gods.
Those gods were new to them.
Their people of long ago didn't worship them.
18 But then they deserted the Rock. He was their Father.
They forgot the God who created them.

19 When the LORD saw this, he turned away from them.
His sons and daughters made him angry.
20 "I will turn my face away from them," he said.
"I will see what will happen to them in the end.

They are sinful people.
They are unfaithful children.
21 They made me jealous by serving what is not even a god.
They made me angry by worshiping worthless statues of gods.
I will use people who are not a nation to make them jealous.
A nation that has no understanding will make them angry.
22 My anger will start a fire.
It will burn all the way down to the kingdom of the dead.
It will eat up the earth and its crops.
It will set the base of the mountains on fire.

23 "I will pile troubles on my people.
I will shoot all my arrows at them.
24 I will send them hunger. It will make them weak.
I will send terrible sickness. I will send deadly plagues.
I will send wild animals that will tear them apart.
Snakes that glide through the dust will bite them.
25 In the streets their children will be killed by swords.
Their homes will be filled with terror.
The young men and women will die.
The babies and old people will die.
26 I said I would scatter them.
I said I would erase their name from human memory.
27 But I was afraid their enemies would make fun of that.
I was afraid their attackers would not understand.
I was sure they would say, 'We're the ones who've beaten them!
The LORD isn't the one who did it.' "

28 Israel is a nation that doesn't have any sense.
They can't understand anything.
29 I wish they were wise. Then they would understand what's coming.
They'd realize what would happen to them in the end.
30 How could one person chase a thousand?
How could two make ten thousand run away?
It couldn't happen unless their Rock had deserted them.
It couldn't take place unless the LORD had given them up.

[31]Their rock is not like our Rock.
Even our enemies know that.
[32]Their vine comes from the vines of Sodom.
It comes from the vineyards of Gomorrah.
Their grapes are filled with poison.
Their bunches of grapes taste bitter.
[33]Their wine is like the poison of snakes.
It's like the deadly poison of cobras.

[34]The LORD says, "I have kept all those terrible things stored away.
I have kept them sealed up in my strongbox.
[35]I punish people. I will pay them back.
The time will come when their feet will slip.
Their day of trouble is near.
Very soon they will be destroyed."

[36]The LORD will come to the aid of his people.
He'll show tender love to those who serve him.
He will know when their strength is gone.
He'll see that no one at all is left.
[37]He'll say, "Where are their gods now?
Where is the rock they went to for safety?
[38]Where are the gods who ate the fat of their sacrifices?
Where are the gods who drank the wine of their drink offerings?
Let those gods rise up to help you!
Let them keep you safe!

[39]"Look! I am the One!
There is no other God except me.
I put some people to death. I bring others to life.
I have wounded, and I will heal.
No one can save you from my power.
[40]I raise my hand to heaven. Here is the promise I make.
You can be sure that I live forever.
[41]And you can be just as sure that I will sharpen my flashing sword.
My hand will hold it when I judge.

I will get even with my enemies.
I will pay back those who hate me.
42I will make my arrows drip with blood.
My sword will destroy people.
It will kill some. It will even kill prisoners.
It will cut off the heads of enemy leaders.”

43You nations, be full of joy. Be joyful together with God’s people.
The LORD will get even with his enemies.
He will pay them back for killing those who serve him.
He will wipe away the sin of his land and people.

44Moses spoke all the words of this song to the people. Joshua, the son of Nun, was with him. 45Moses finished speaking all these words to all the Israelites. 46Then he said to them, “Think carefully about all the words I have announced to you today. I want you to command your children to be careful to obey all the words of this law. 47They aren’t just useless words for you. They are your very life. If you obey them, you will live in the land for a long time. It’s the land you are going across the Jordan River to take as your own.”

Moses Will Die on Mount Nebo

48On that same day the LORD said to Moses, 49“Go up into the Abarim mountains. Go to Mount Nebo in Moab. It is across from Jericho. From there look out over Canaan. It is the land I am giving the Israelites to take as their own. 50You will die there on the mountain you have climbed. You will join the members of your family who have already died. In the same way, your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor. He joined the members of his family who had already died. 51You and Aaron disobeyed me in front of the Israelites. It happened at the waters of Meribah Kadesh in the Desert of Zin. You did not honor me among the Israelites as the holy God. 52So you will see the land, but only from far away. You will not enter the land I am giving to the Israelites.”

Deuteronomy 33

Moses Blesses the Tribes

[1]Here is the blessing that Moses, the man of God, gave to the Israelites before he died. [2]He said,

"The LORD came from Mount Sinai.
Like the rising sun, he shone on his people from Mount Seir.
He shone on them from Mount Paran.
He came with large numbers of angels.
He came from his mountain slopes in the south.
[3]LORD, I'm sure you love your people.
All the holy ones are in your hands.
At your feet all of them bow down.
And you teach them.
[4]They learn the law Moses gave us.
It belongs to the community of the people of Jacob.
[5]The LORD was king over Israel when the leaders of the people came together.
The tribes of Israel were also there."

[6]Here's what Moses said about Reuben.

"Let Reuben live. Don't let him die.
And do not let his people be few."

[7]Here's what Moses said about Judah.

"LORD, listen to Judah cry out.
Bring him to his people.
By his own power he stands up for himself.
LORD, help him fight against his enemies!"

[8]Here's what Moses said about Levi.

"Your Thummim and Urim belong to your faithful servant.
You tested him at Massah.

You argued with him at the waters of Meribah.
[9]Levi didn’t show special favor to anyone.
He did not spare his father and mother.
He didn’t excuse his relatives or his children.
But he watched over your word.
He guarded your covenant.
[10]He teaches your rules to the people of Jacob.
He teaches your law to Israel.
He offers incense to you.
He sacrifices whole burnt offerings on your altar.
[11]LORD, bless all his skills.
Be pleased with everything he does.
Destroy those who rise up against him.
Strike down his enemies until they can’t get up.”

[12]Here’s what Moses said about Benjamin.

“Let the one the LORD loves rest safely in him.
The LORD guards him all day long.
The one the LORD loves rests in his arms.”

[13]Here’s what Moses said about Joseph.

“May the LORD bless Joseph’s land.
May he bless it with dew from the highest heavens.
May he bless it with water from the deepest oceans.
[14]May he bless it with the best crops the sun can produce.
May he bless it with the finest crops the moon can give.
[15]May he bless it with the best products of the age-old mountains.
May he bless it with the many crops of the ancient hills.
[16]May he bless it with the best gifts that fill the earth.
May he bless it with the favor of the God who spoke out of the burning bush.
Let all these blessings rest on the head of Joseph.
Let them rest on the head of the one who is prince among his brothers.
[17]His glory is like the glory of a bull born first to its mother.
His horns are like the horns of a wild ox.

He will use them to destroy the nations.
He'll wipe out the nations that are very far away.
The ten thousands of men in Ephraim's army are like the bull and the ox.
So are the thousands in the army of Manasseh."

18 Here's what Moses said about Zebulun and Issachar.

"Zebulun, be filled with joy when you go out.
Issachar, be joyful in your tents.
19 You will call for other people to go to the mountain.
There you will offer the sacrifices of those who do what is right.
You will enjoy the many good things your ships bring you.
You will enjoy treasures that are hidden in the sand."

20 Here's what Moses said about Gad.

"May the God who gives Gad more land be praised!
Gad lives there like a lion that tears off arms and heads.
21 He chose the best land for his livestock.
The leader's share was kept for him.
The leaders of the people came together.
Then Gad carried out the LORD's holy plan.
He carried out the LORD's decisions for Israel."

22 Here's what Moses said about Dan.

"Dan is like a lion's cub that charges out of the land of Bashan."

23 Here's what Moses said about Naphtali.

"The LORD greatly favors Naphtali.
The LORD fills him with his blessing.
Naphtali's land will reach south to the Sea of Galilee."

24 Here's what Moses said about Asher.

“Asher is the most blessed of sons.
Let his brothers be kind to him.
Let Asher wash his feet with olive oil.
25The bars of his gates will be made out of iron and bronze.
His strength will last as long as he lives.

26“There is no one like the God of Israel.
He rides across the heavens to help you.
He rides on the clouds in his glory.
27God lives forever! You can run to him for safety.
His powerful arms are always there to carry you.
He will drive out your enemies to make room for you.
He’ll say to you, ‘Destroy them!’
28So Israel will live in safety.
Jacob will live secure in a land that has grain and fresh wine.
There the heavens drop their dew.
29Israel, how blessed you are!
Who is like you?
The LORD has saved you.
He keeps you safe. He helps you.
He’s like a glorious sword to you.
Your enemies will bow down to you in fear.
You will walk on the highest places of their lands.”

Deuteronomy 34

Moses Dies

[1]Moses climbed Mount Nebo. He went up from the plains of Moab to the highest slopes of Pisgah. It's across from Jericho. At Pisgah the LORD showed him the whole land from Gilead all the way to Dan. [2]Moses saw the whole land of Naphtali. He saw the territory of Ephraim and Manasseh. The LORD showed him the whole land of Judah all the way to the Mediterranean Sea. [3]Moses saw the Negev Desert. He saw the whole area from the Valley of Jericho all the way to Zoar. Jericho was also known as The City of Palm Trees. [4]Then the LORD spoke to Moses. He said, "This is the land I promised to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. I told them, 'I will give this land to your children and their children.' Moses, I have let you see it with your own eyes. But you will not go across the Jordan River to enter it."

[5]Moses, the servant of the LORD, died there in Moab. It happened just as the LORD had said. [6]The LORD buried the body of Moses in Moab. His grave is in the valley across from Beth Peor. But to this day no one knows where his grave is. [7]Moses was 120 years old when he died. But his eyesight was still good. He was still very strong. [8]The Israelites mourned over Moses on the plains of Moab for 30 days. They did it until their time for weeping and crying was over.

[9]Joshua, the son of Nun, was filled with wisdom. That's because Moses had placed his hands on him. So the Israelites listened to Joshua. They did what the LORD had commanded Moses.

[10]Since then, Israel has never had a prophet like Moses. The LORD knew him face to face. [11]Moses did many signs and amazing things. The LORD had sent him to do them in Egypt. Moses did them against Pharaoh, against all his officials and against his whole land. [12]No one has ever had the mighty power Moses had. No one has ever done the wonderful acts he did in the sight of all the Israelites.

Joshua

Joshua 1

Joshua Becomes Israel's Leader

[1]Moses, the servant of the LORD, died. After that, the LORD spoke to Joshua, the son of Nun. Joshua was Moses' helper. The LORD said to Joshua, [2]"My servant Moses is dead. Now then, I want you and all these people to get ready to go across the Jordan River. I want all of you to go into the land I am about to give to the Israelites. [3]I will give all of you every place you walk on, just as I promised Moses. [4]Your territory will reach from the Negev Desert all the way to Lebanon. The great Euphrates River will be to the east. The Mediterranean Sea will be to the west. Your territory will include all the Hittite country. [5]Joshua, no one will be able to oppose you as long as you live. I will be with you, just as I was with Moses. I will never leave you. I will never desert you. [6]Be strong and brave. You will lead these people. They will take the land as their very own. It is the land I promised to give their people of long ago.

[7]"Be strong and very brave. Make sure you obey the whole law my servant Moses gave you. Do not turn away from it to the right or the left. Then you will have success everywhere you go. [8]Never stop reading this Book of the Law. Day and night you must think about what it says. Make sure you do everything written in it. Then things will go well with you. And you will have great success. [9]Here is what I am commanding you to do. Be strong and brave. Do not be afraid. Do not lose hope. I am the LORD your God. I will be with you everywhere you go."

[10]So Joshua gave orders to the officers of the people. He said, [11]"Go through the camp. Tell the people, 'Get your supplies ready. Three days from now you will go across the Jordan River right here. You will go in and take over the land. The LORD your God is giving it to you as your very own.' "

[12]Joshua also spoke to the tribes of Reuben and Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh. He said to them, [13]"Remember what Moses, the servant of the LORD, commanded you. He said, 'The LORD your God is giving you this land. It's a place where you can make your homes and live in peace and rest.' [14]Your wives, children and livestock can stay here east of the Jordan River. Moses gave you this land. But all your fighting men must get ready for battle. They must go across ahead of the other tribes. You must help them [15]until the LORD gives them rest. In the same way, he has already given you rest. You must help them until they also have taken over their land. It’s the land the LORD your God is giving them. After that, you can come back here. Then you can live in your own land. It’s the land that Moses, the servant of the LORD, gave you east of the Jordan River. It’s toward the sunrise.”

[16]Then the tribes of Reuben and Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh answered Joshua. They said, “We’ll do what you have commanded us to do. We’ll go where you send us. [17]We obeyed Moses completely. And we’ll obey you just as completely. But may the LORD your God be with you, just as he was with Moses. [18]Suppose people question your authority. And suppose they refuse to obey anything you command them to do. Then they will be put to death. Just be strong and brave!”

Joshua 2

Rahab Helps the Spies

[1]Joshua, the son of Nun, sent two spies from Shittim. He sent them in secret. He said to them, “Go and look over the land. Most of all, check out Jericho.” So they went to Jericho. They stayed at the house of a prostitute. Her name was Rahab.

[2]The king of Jericho was told, “Look! Some of the Israelites have come here tonight. They’ve come to check out the land.” [3]So the king sent a message to Rahab. It said, “Bring out the men who came into your house. They’ve come to check out the whole land.”

[4]But the woman had hidden the two men. She said, “It’s true that the men came here. But I didn’t know where they had come from. [5]They left at sunset, when it was time to close the city gate. I don’t know which way they went. Go after them quickly. You might catch up with them.” [6]But in fact she had taken them up on the roof. There she had hidden them under some flax she had piled up. [7]The king’s men left to hunt down the spies. They took the road that leads to where the Jordan River can be crossed. As soon as they had gone out of the city, the gate was shut.

[8]Rahab went up on the roof before the spies settled down for the night. [9]She said to them, “I know that the LORD has given you this land. We are very much afraid of you. Everyone who lives in this country is weak with fear because of you. [10]We’ve heard how the LORD dried up the Red Sea for you when you came out of Egypt. We’ve heard what you did to Sihon and Og, the two Amorite kings. They ruled east of the Jordan River. You completely destroyed them. [11]When we heard about it, we were terrified. Because of you, we aren’t brave anymore. The LORD your God is the God who rules in heaven above and on the earth below.

[12]“Now then, please give me your word. Promise me in the name of the LORD that you will be kind to my family. I’ve been kind to you. Promise me [13]that you will spare the lives of my father and mother. Spare my brothers and sisters. Also spare everyone in their families. Promise that you won’t put any of us to death.”

[14]So the men made a promise to her. “If you save our lives, we’ll save yours,” they said. “Just don’t tell anyone what we’re doing. Then we’ll be kind and faithful to you when the LORD gives us the land."

15The house Rahab lived in was part of the city wall. So she let the spies down by a rope through the window. 16She said to them, "Go up into the hills. The men chasing you won't be able to find you. Hide yourselves there for three days until they return. Then you can go on your way."

17The spies had said to her, "You made us give our word. But we won't keep our promise 18unless you do what we say. When we enter the land, you must tie this bright red rope in the window. Tie it in the window you let us down through. Bring your father and mother into your house. Also bring in your brothers and everyone else in your family. 19None of you must go out into the street. If you do, anything that happens to you will be your own fault. We won't be responsible. But if anyone hurts someone who is inside the house with you, it will be our fault. We will be responsible. 20Don't tell anyone what we're doing. If you do, we won't have to keep the promise you asked us to make."

21"I agree," Rahab replied. "I'll do as you say."

So she sent them away, and they left. Then she tied the bright red rope in the window.

22When the spies left, they went up into the hills. They stayed there for three days. By that time the men chasing them had searched all along the road. They couldn't find them. So they returned. 23Then the two spies started back. They went down out of the hills. They went across the Jordan River. They came to Joshua, the son of Nun. They told him everything that had happened to them. 24They said, "We're sure the LORD has given the whole land over to us. All the people there are weak with fear because of us."

Joshua 3

Israel Goes Across the Jordan River

[1]Early one morning Joshua and all the Israelites started out from Shittim. They went down to the Jordan River. They camped there before they went across it.
[2]After three days the officers went all through the camp. [3]They gave orders to the people. They said, “Watch for the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God. The priests, who are Levites, will be carrying it. When you see it, you must move out from where you are and follow it. [4]Then you will know which way to go. You have never gone this way before. But don’t go near the ark. Stay about 1,000 yards away from it.”

[5]Joshua said to the people, “Set yourselves apart to the LORD. Tomorrow he’ll do amazing things among you.”

[6]Joshua said to the priests, “Go and get the ark of the covenant. Walk on ahead of the people.” So they went and got it. Then they walked on ahead of them.

[7]The LORD said to Joshua, “Today I will begin to honor you in the eyes of all the Israelites. Then they will know that I am with you, just as I was with Moses.
[8]Speak to the priests who carry the ark of the covenant. Tell them, ‘When you reach the edge of the Jordan River, go into the water and stand there.’ ”

[9]Joshua said to the Israelites, “Come here. Listen to what the LORD your God is saying. [10]You will soon know that the living God is among you. He will certainly drive out the people now living in the land. He’ll do it to make room for you. He’ll drive out the Canaanites, Hittites, Hivites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites and Jebusites. [11]The ark will go into the Jordan River ahead of you. It’s the ark of the covenant of the Lord of the whole earth. [12]Choose 12 men from the tribes of Israel. Choose one from each tribe. [13]The priests will carry the ark of the LORD. He’s the Lord of the whole earth. As soon as the priests step into the Jordan, it will stop flowing. The water that’s coming down the river will pile up in one place. That’s how you will know that the living God is among you.”

[14]So the people took their tents down. They prepared to go across the Jordan River. The priests carrying the ark of the covenant went ahead of them. [15]The water of the Jordan was going over its banks. It always does that at the time the crops are being gathered. The priests came to the river. Their feet touched the water’s edge. [16]Right away the water coming down the river stopped flowing. It piled up far away at a town called Adam near Zarethan. The water flowing down to the Dead Sea was completely cut off. So the people went across the Jordan River opposite Jericho. [17]The priests carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD. They stopped in the middle of the river and stood on dry ground. They stayed there until the whole nation of Israel had gone across on dry ground.

Joshua 4

[1]After the whole nation had gone across the Jordan River, the LORD spoke to Joshua. He said, [2]“Choose 12 men from among the people. Choose one from each tribe. [3]Tell them to get 12 stones from the middle of the river. They must pick them up from right where the priests stood. They must carry the stones over with all of you. And they must put them down at the place where you will stay tonight.”

[4]So Joshua called together the 12 men he had appointed from among the Israelites. There was one man from each tribe. [5]He said to them, “Go back to the middle of the Jordan River. Go to where the ark of the LORD your God is. Each one of you must pick up a stone. You must carry it on your shoulder. There will be as many stones as there are tribes in Israel. [6]The stones will serve as a reminder to you. In days to come, your children will ask you, ‘What do these stones mean?’ [7]Tell them that the LORD cut off the flow of water in the Jordan River. Tell them its water stopped flowing when the ark of the covenant of the LORD went across. The stones will always remind the Israelites of what happened there.”

[8]So the Israelites did as Joshua commanded them. They took 12 stones from the middle of the Jordan River. There was one stone for each of the tribes of Israel. It was just as the LORD had told Joshua. The people carried the stones with them to their camp. There they put them down. [9]Joshua also piled up 12 stones in the middle of the river. He piled them up right where the priests who carried the ark of the covenant had stood. And they are still there to this very day.

[10]The priests who carried the ark remained standing in the middle of the Jordan River. They stayed there until the people had done everything the LORD had commanded Joshua. It was just as Moses had directed Joshua. All the people went across quickly. [11]As soon as they did, the ark of the LORD and the priests also went across to the other side. The people were watching them. [12]Among the people who went across the river were men from the tribes of Reuben and Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh. The men were ready for battle. They went across ahead of the rest of the Israelites. It was just as Moses had directed them. [13]There were about 40,000 of them. All of them were ready for battle. They went across in front of the ark of the LORD. They marched to the plains around Jericho. They were prepared to go to war.

[14]That day the LORD honored Joshua in the eyes of all the Israelites. They had respect for Joshua as long as he lived. They respected him just as much as they had respected Moses.

[15]Then the LORD spoke to Joshua. He said, [16]“Command the priests to come up out of the Jordan River. They are carrying the ark where the tablets of the covenant law are kept.”

[17]So Joshua gave a command to the priests. He said, “Come up out of the Jordan River.”

[18]Then the priests came up out of the river. They were carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD. As soon as they stepped out on dry ground, the water of the Jordan began to flow again. It went over its banks, just as it had done before.

[19]On the tenth day of the first month the people went up out of the Jordan River. They camped at Gilgal on the eastern border of Jericho. [20]Joshua set up the 12 stones at Gilgal. They were the ones the people had taken out of the Jordan. [21]Then he spoke to the Israelites. He said, “In days to come, your children after you will ask their parents, ‘What do these stones mean?’ [22]Their parents must tell them, ‘Israel went across the Jordan River on dry ground.’ [23]The LORD your God dried up the Jordan for you until you had gone across it. He did to the Jordan River the same thing he had done to the Red Sea. He dried up the Red Sea ahead of us until we had gone across it. [24]He did it so that all the nations on earth would know that he is powerful. He did it so that you would always have respect for the LORD your God.”

Joshua 5

[1]All the Amorite and Canaanite kings heard how the LORD had dried up the Jordan River. They heard how he had dried it up for the Israelites until they had gone across it. The Amorite kings lived west of the Jordan. The kings of Canaan lived along the Mediterranean Sea. When all those kings heard what the LORD had done, they were terrified. They weren't brave enough to face the Israelites anymore.

Circumcision and Passover at Gilgal

[2]At that time the LORD said to Joshua, "Make knives out of flint. Use them to circumcise the men of Israel." [3]So Joshua made knives out of flint. Then he used them to circumcise the men of Israel at Gibeath Haaraloth.

[4]Here is why Joshua circumcised them. All the men who came out of Egypt had died. They died while they were wandering through the Sinai Desert. They were the men old enough to serve in the army. [5]All the men who came out had been circumcised. But all the men born in the desert during the journey from Egypt hadn't been circumcised. [6]The Israelites had moved around in the desert for 40 years. By the end of that time all the men old enough to serve in the army when they left Egypt had died. That's because they hadn't obeyed the LORD. He had made a promise to them. He had told them they wouldn't see the land. It's the land he had promised to their people to give us. It's a land that has plenty of milk and honey. [7]Because they hadn't obeyed him, he raised up their sons to take their place. They were the ones Joshua circumcised. They hadn't been circumcised yet. That's because no one had circumcised them during the journey. [8]So Joshua circumcised all those men. The whole nation remained in the camp until the men were healed.

[9]Then the LORD spoke to Joshua. He said, "Today I have taken away from you the shame of being slaves in Egypt." That's why the place where the men were circumcised has been called Gilgal to this very day.

[10]The Israelites celebrated the Passover Feast. They observed it on the evening of the 14th day of the month. They did it while they were camped at Gilgal on the plains around Jericho. [11]The day after the Passover, they ate some of the food grown in the land. On that same day they ate grain that had been cooked. They also ate bread made without yeast. [12]The manna stopped coming down the day after they ate the food grown in the land. The Israelites didn't have manna anymore. Instead, that year they ate food grown in Canaan.

Israel Captures Jericho

13When Joshua was near Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing in front of him. The man was holding a sword. He was ready for battle. Joshua went up to him. He asked, “Are you on our side? Or are you on the side of our enemies?”

14“I am not on either side,” he replied. “I have come as the commander of the LORD’s army.” Then Joshua fell with his face to the ground. He asked the man, “What message does my Lord have for me?”

15The commander of the LORD’s army replied, “Take off your sandals. The place you are standing on is holy ground.” So Joshua took them off.

Joshua 6

[1]The gates of Jericho were shut tight and guarded closely because of the Israelites. No one went out. No one came in.

[2]Then the LORD said to Joshua, “I have handed Jericho over to you. I have also handed over to you its king and its fighting men. [3]March around the city once with all your fighting men. In fact, do it for six days. [4]Have seven priests get trumpets made out of rams’ horns. They must carry them in front of the ark. On the seventh day, march around the city seven times. Tell the priests to blow the trumpets as you march. [5]You will hear them blow a long blast on the trumpets. When you do, tell the whole army to give a loud shout. The wall of the city will fall down. Then the whole army will march up to the city. Everyone will go straight in.”

[6]So Joshua, the son of Nun, called for the priests. He said to them, “Go and get the ark of the covenant of the LORD. I want seven of you to carry trumpets in front of it.” [7]He gave an order to the army. He said, “Move out! March around the city. Some of the fighting men must march in front of the ark of the LORD.”

[8]When Joshua had spoken to the men, the seven priests went forward. They were carrying the seven trumpets as they marched in front of the ark of the LORD. They were blowing the trumpets. The ark of the LORD’s covenant was carried behind the priests. [9]Some of the fighting men marched ahead of the priests who were blowing the trumpets. The others followed behind the ark and guarded all the priests. That whole time the priests were blowing the trumpets. [10]But Joshua had given an order to the army. He had said, “Don’t give a war cry. Don’t raise your voices. Don’t say a word until the day I tell you to shout. Then shout!” [11]So he had the ark of the LORD carried around the city once. Then the army returned to camp. They spent the night there.

[12]Joshua got up early the next morning. The priests went and got the ark of the LORD. [13]The seven priests carrying the seven trumpets started out. They marched in front of the ark of the LORD. They blew the trumpets. Some of the fighting men marched ahead of them. The others followed behind the ark and guarded all of them. The priests kept blowing the trumpets. [14]On the second day they marched around the city once. Then the army returned to camp. They did all those things for six days.

[15]On the seventh day, they got up at sunrise. They marched around the city, just as they had done before. But on that day they went around it seven times.

16On the seventh time around, the priests blew a long blast on the trumpets. Then Joshua gave a command to the army. He said, “Shout! The LORD has given you the city! 17The city and everything in it must be set apart to the LORD to be destroyed. But the prostitute Rahab and all those with her in her house must be spared. That’s because she hid the spies we sent. 18But keep away from the things that have been set apart to the LORD. If you take any of them, you will be destroyed. And you will bring trouble on the camp of Israel. You will cause it to be destroyed. 19All the silver and gold is holy. It is set apart to the LORD. So are all the things made out of bronze and iron. All those things must be added to the treasures kept in the LORD’s house.”

20The priests blew the trumpets. As soon as the army heard the sound, they gave a loud shout. Then the wall fell down. Everyone charged straight in. So they took the city. 21They set it apart to the LORD to be destroyed. They destroyed every living thing in it with their swords. They killed men and women. They wiped out young people and old people. They destroyed cattle, sheep and donkeys.

22Then Joshua spoke to the two men who had gone in to check out the land. He said, “Go into the prostitute’s house. Bring her out. Also bring out everyone with her. That’s what you promised her you would do.” 23So the young men who had checked out the land went into Rahab’s house. They brought her out along with her parents and brothers and sisters. They brought out everyone else there with her. They put them in a place outside the camp of Israel.

24Then they burned the whole city and everything in it. But they added the silver and gold to the treasures kept in the LORD’s house. They also put there the things made out of bronze and iron. 25But Joshua spared the prostitute Rahab. He spared her family. He also spared everyone else in the house with her. He did it because she hid the spies he had sent to Jericho. Rahab lives among the Israelites to this day.

26At that time Joshua made a promise and called down a curse. He said, “May the person who tries to rebuild this city of Jericho be under the LORD’s curse.

> “If that person lays its foundations, > it will cost the life of his oldest son.
> If he sets up its gates,
> it will cost the life of his youngest son.”

27So the LORD was with Joshua. And Joshua became famous everywhere in the land.

Joshua 7

Achan Sins Against the LORD

1But the Israelites weren't faithful to the LORD. They didn't destroy what had been set apart to him. So they did not do what they had been told to do. Achan had taken some of those things. So the LORD became very angry with Israel.
Achan was the son of Karmi. Karmi was the son of Zimri. And Zimri was the son of Zerah. Achan and all his relatives were from the tribe of Judah.

2Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai. Ai is near Beth Aven east of Bethel.
Joshua told the men, "Go up and check out the area around Ai." So the men went up and checked it out.

3Then they returned to Joshua. They said, "The whole army doesn't have to go up and attack Ai. Send only two or three thousand men. They can take the city.
Don't make the whole army go up there. Only a few people live in Ai." 4So only about 3,000 troops went up. But the men of Ai drove them away. 5They chased the Israelites from the city gate all the way to Shebarim. They killed about 36 of them on the way down. So the Israelites were terrified.

6Joshua and the elders of Israel became sad. Joshua tore his clothes. He fell in front of the ark of the LORD with his face to the ground. He remained there until evening. The elders did the same thing. They also sprinkled dust on their heads.
7Joshua said, "LORD and King, why did you ever bring these people across the Jordan River? Did you want to hand us over to the Amorites? Did you want them to destroy us? I wish we had been content to stay on the other side of the Jordan! 8Lord, our enemies have driven us away. What can I say? 9The Canaanites will hear about it. So will everyone else in the country. They will surround us. They'll erase any mention of our name from the face of the earth.
Then what will you do when people don't honor your great name anymore?"

10The LORD said to Joshua, "Get up! What are you doing down there on your face? 11Israel has sinned. I made a covenant with them. I commanded them to keep it. But they have broken it. They have taken some of the things that had been set apart to me in a special way to be destroyed. They have stolen. They have lied. They have taken the things they stole and have put them with their own things. 12That is why the Israelites can't stand up against their enemies.
They turn their backs and run. That's because I have decided to let them be destroyed. You must destroy the things you took that had been set apart to me. If you do not, I will not be with you anymore.

[13]“Go and set the people apart. Tell them, ‘Make yourselves pure. Get ready for tomorrow. Here is what the LORD, the God of Israel, wants you to do. He says, “People of Israel, you have kept some of the things that had been set apart to me to be destroyed. You can’t stand up against your enemies until you get rid of those things.”

[14]“ ‘In the morning, come forward tribe by tribe. The tribe the LORD chooses will come forward group by group. The group the LORD chooses will come forward family by family. And the men in the family the LORD chooses will come forward one by one. [15]Whoever is caught with the things that had been set apart to the LORD will be destroyed by fire. Everything that belongs to that person will also be destroyed. He has broken the LORD’s covenant. He has done a very terrible thing in Israel!’ ”

[16]Early the next morning Joshua had Israel come forward by tribes. The tribe of Judah was chosen. [17]The groups of Judah came forward. The group of Zerah was chosen. Joshua had the group of Zerah come forward by families. The family of Zimri was chosen. [18]He had their men come forward one by one. Achan was chosen. Achan was the son of Karmi. Karmi was the son of Zimri. And Zimri was the son of Zerah. Zerah was from the tribe of Judah.

[19]Joshua said to Achan, “My son, the LORD is the God of Israel. So give him glory and honor him by telling the truth! Tell me what you have done. Don’t hide it from me.”

[20]Achan replied, “It’s true! I’ve sinned against the LORD, the God of Israel. Here is what I’ve done. [21]I saw a beautiful robe from Babylonia among the things we had taken. I saw five pounds of silver. And I saw a gold bar that weighed 20 ounces. I wanted them, so I took them. I hid them in the ground inside my tent. The silver is on the bottom.”

[22]So Joshua sent some messengers. They ran to Achan’s tent. And there was everything, hidden in his tent! The silver was on the bottom. [23]They brought the things out of the tent. They took them to Joshua and all the Israelites. And they spread them out in the sight of the LORD.

[24]Then Joshua and all the people grabbed Achan, the son of Zerah. They took the silver, the robe and the gold bar. They took Achan’s sons and daughters. They took his cattle, donkeys and sheep. They also took his tent and everything he had. They carried all of it out to the Valley of Achor. [25]Joshua said to Achan, “Why have you brought this trouble on us? The LORD will bring trouble on you today.”

Then all the people killed Achan by throwing stones at him. They also killed the rest of his family with stones. They burned all of them up. [26]They placed a large pile of rocks on top of Achan’s body. The place has been called the Valley of Achor ever since. That pile is still there to this day. After the people killed Achan, the LORD was no longer angry with them.

Joshua 8

Israel Destroys Ai

[1]Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid. Do not lose hope. Go up and attack Ai. Take the whole army with you. I have handed the king of Ai over to you. I have given you his people, his city and his land. [2]Remember what you did to Jericho and its king. You will do the same thing to Ai and its king. But this time you can keep for yourselves the livestock and everything else you take from them. Have some of your fighting men hide behind the city and take them by surprise.”

[3]So Joshua and the whole army moved out to attack Ai. He chose 30,000 of his best fighting men. He sent them out at night. [4]He gave them orders. He said, “Listen carefully to what I’m saying. You must hide behind the city. Don’t go very far away from it. All of you must be ready to attack it. [5]I and all those with me will march up to the city. The men of Ai will come out to fight against us, just as they did before. Then we’ll run away from them. [6]They’ll chase us until we’ve drawn them away from the city. They’ll say, ‘They are running away from us, just as they did before.’ When we run away from them, [7]come out of your hiding place. Capture the city. The LORD your God will hand it over to you. [8]When you have taken it, set it on fire. Do what the LORD has commanded. Make sure you obey my orders.”

[9]Then Joshua sent them away. They went to the place where they had planned to hide. They hid in a place west of Ai. It was between Bethel and Ai. But Joshua spent that night with his troops.

[10]Early the next morning Joshua brought together his army. He and the leaders of Israel marched in front of them to Ai. [11]The whole army that was with him marched up to the city. They stopped in front of it. They set up camp north of Ai. There was a valley between them and the city. [12]Joshua had chosen about 5,000 soldiers. He had ordered them to hide in a place west of Ai. It was between Bethel and Ai. [13]The men took up their battle positions. All the men in the camp north of the city took up their positions. So did those who were supposed to hide west of the city. That night Joshua went into the valley.

[14]The king of Ai saw what the troops with Joshua were doing. So the king and all his men hurried out of the city early in the morning. They marched out to meet Israel in battle. They went to a place that looked out over the Arabah

Valley. The king didn’t know that some of Israel’s fighting men were hiding behind the city. [15]Joshua and all his men let the men of Ai drive them back. The Israelites ran away toward the desert. [16]All the men of Ai were called out to chase them. They chased Joshua. So they were drawn away from the city. [17]Not even one man remained in Ai or Bethel. All of them went out to chase Israel. When they did, they left the city wide open.

[18]Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Hold out toward Ai the javelin that is in your hand. I will give the city to you.” So Joshua held out toward the city the javelin in his hand. [19]As soon as he did, the men hiding behind the city got up quickly. They came out of their hiding places and rushed forward. They entered the city and captured it. They quickly set it on fire.

[20]The men of Ai looked back. They saw smoke rising up from the city into the sky. But they couldn’t escape in any direction. The Israelites had been running away toward the desert. But now they turned around to face those chasing them. [21]Joshua and all his men saw that the men who had been hiding behind the city had captured it. They also saw that smoke was going up from it. So they turned around and attacked the men of Ai. [22]The men who had set Ai on fire came out of the city. They also fought against the men of Ai. So the men of Ai were caught in the middle. The army of Israel was on both sides of them. Israel struck them down. They didn’t let anyone remain alive or get away. [23]But they captured the king of Ai alive. They brought him to Joshua.

[24]Israel finished killing all the men of Ai. They destroyed them in the fields and in the desert where they had chased them. They struck down every one of them with their swords. Then all the Israelites returned to Ai. And they killed those who were left in it. [25]The total number of men and women they killed that day was 12,000. The Israelites put to death all the people of Ai. [26]Joshua continued to hold out his javelin toward Ai. He didn’t lower his hand until he and his men had totally destroyed everyone who lived there. [27]But this time Israel kept for themselves the livestock and everything else they had taken from the city. The LORD had directed Joshua to let them do it.

[28]So Joshua burned down Ai. He tore it down so it could never be built again. It has been deserted to this very day. [29]Joshua killed the king of Ai. He stuck a pole through the body. Then he set it up where people could see it. He left it there until evening. At sunset, Joshua ordered his men to remove the body from the pole. He told them to throw the body down at the entrance of the city gate. They put a large pile of rocks over the body. That pile is still there to this day.

Joshua Reads the Book of the Law to the People

30 Joshua built an altar to honor the LORD, the God of Israel. He built it on Mount Ebal. 31 Moses, the servant of the LORD, had commanded the Israelites to do that. Joshua built the altar according to what is written in the Book of the Law of Moses. Joshua built the altar out of stones that iron tools had never touched.
Then the people offered on the altar burnt offerings to the LORD. They also sacrificed friendship offerings on it. 32 Joshua copied the law of Moses on stones.
He did it while all the Israelites were watching. 33 They were standing on both sides of the ark of the covenant of the LORD. All the Israelites, including outsiders and citizens, were there. Israel's elders, officials and judges were also there. All of them faced the priests, who were Levites. They were carrying the ark. Half of the people stood in front of Mount Gerizim. The other half stood in front of Mount Ebal. Moses, the servant of the LORD, had earlier told them to do it. Moses told them to do it when he had given directions to bless the Israelites.

34 Then Joshua read all the words of the law out loud. He read the blessings and the curses. He read them just as they are written in the Book of the Law.
35 Joshua read every word Moses had commanded. He read them to the whole community of Israel. That included the women and children. It also included the outsiders living among them.

Joshua 9

The People of Gibeon Trick Israel

[1]All the kings who ruled west of the Jordan River heard about the battles Israel had won. That included the kings who ruled in the central hill country and the western hills. It also included those who ruled along the entire coast of the Mediterranean Sea all the way to Lebanon. They were the kings of the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. [2]They brought their armies together to fight against Joshua and Israel.

[3]The people of Gibeon heard about what Joshua had done to Jericho and Ai. [4]So they decided to trick the Israelites. They packed supplies as if they were going on a long trip. They loaded their donkeys with old sacks and old wineskins. The wineskins were cracked but had been mended. [5]They put worn-out sandals on their feet. The sandals had been patched. They also wore old clothes. All the bread they took along was dry and moldy. [6]They went to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal. They spoke to him and the Israelites. They said, “We’ve come from a country that’s far away. Make a peace treaty with us.”

[7]The Israelites said to the Hivites, “But suppose you live close to us. If you do, we can’t make a peace treaty with you.”

[8]“We’ll serve you,” they said to Joshua.

But Joshua asked, “Who are you? Where do you come from?”

[9]They answered, “We’ve come from a country that’s very far away. We’ve come because the LORD your God is famous. We’ve heard reports about him. We’ve heard about everything he did in Egypt. [10]We’ve heard about everything he did to Sihon and Og. They were the two kings of the Amorites. They ruled east of the Jordan River. Sihon was the king of Heshbon. Og was the king of Bashan. He ruled in Ashtaroth. [11]Our elders and all the people living in our country spoke to us. They said, ‘Take supplies for your trip. Go and meet the Israelites. Say to them, “We’ll serve you. Make a peace treaty with us.” ’ [12]Look at our bread. It was warm when we packed it. We packed it at home the day we left to come and see you. But look at how dry and moldy it is now. [13]When we filled these wineskins, they were new. But look at how cracked they are now. And our clothes and sandals are worn out because we’ve traveled so far.”

[14]The Israelites looked over the supplies those people had brought. But they didn’t ask the LORD what they should do. [15]Joshua made a peace treaty with the people who had come. He agreed to let them live. The leaders of the community gave their word that they agreed with the treaty.

16So the Israelites made a peace treaty with the people of Gibeon. But three days later they heard that the people of Gibeon lived close to them. 17So the Israelites started out to go to the cities of those people. On the third day they came to Gibeon, Kephirah, Beeroth and Kiriath Jearim. 18But they didn't attack those cities. That's because the leaders of the community had given their word and made a peace treaty with them. They had given their word in the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

The whole community told the leaders they weren't happy with them. 19But all the leaders answered, "We've made a peace treaty with them. We've given our word in the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. So we can't touch them now. 20But here is what we'll do to them. We'll let them live. Then the LORD won't be angry with us because we didn't keep our promise." 21They continued, "Let them live. But make them cut wood and carry water to serve the whole community." So the leaders kept their promise to them.

22Joshua sent for the people of Gibeon. He said to them, "Why did you trick us? You said, 'We live far away from you.' But in fact you live close to us. 23So now you are under a curse. You will always serve us. You will always cut wood and carry water for the house of my God."

24They answered Joshua, "We were clearly told what the LORD your God had commanded his servant Moses to do. He commanded him to give you the whole land. He also ordered him to wipe out all its people to make room for you. So we were afraid you would kill us. That's why we tricked you. 25We are now under your control. Do to us what you think is good and right."

26So Joshua saved the people of Gibeon. He didn't let the Israelites kill them. 27That day he made them cut wood and carry water. They had to serve the community of Israel. They also had to do work connected with the altar of the LORD. The altar would be at the place the LORD would choose. And they still serve the Israelites to this day.

Joshua 10

The Sun Stands Still

[1]Adoni-Zedek was the king of Jerusalem. He heard that Joshua had captured Ai. He found out that the city had been set apart to the LORD in a special way to be destroyed. He heard that Joshua had done to Ai and its king the same thing he had done to Jericho and its king. Adoni-Zedek heard that the people of Gibeon had made a peace treaty with Israel. He also found out that they were living among the Israelites. [2]The things he heard alarmed him and his people very much. That's because Gibeon was an important city. It was like one of the royal cities. It was larger than Ai. All its men were good soldiers. [3]So Adoni-Zedek, the king of Jerusalem, made an appeal to Hoham, the king of Hebron. He appealed to Piram, the king of Jarmuth. He appealed to Japhia, the king of Lachish. He also made an appeal to Debir, the king of Eglon. [4]"Come up and help me attack Gibeon," he said. "Its people have made peace with Joshua and the Israelites."

[5]Then the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish and Eglon gathered their armies together. Those five Amorite kings moved all their troops into position to fight against Gibeon. Then they attacked it.

[6]Joshua was in the camp at Gilgal. The people of Gibeon sent a message to him there. They said, "Don't desert us. We serve you. Come up to us quickly!
Save us! Help us! All the Amorite kings from the central hill country have gathered their armies together to fight against us."

[7]So Joshua marched up from Gilgal with his whole army. The army included all his best fighting men. [8]The LORD said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid of them.
I have handed them over to you. Not one of them will be able to fight against you and win."

[9]Joshua marched all night from Gilgal. He took the Amorite armies by surprise. [10]The LORD threw them into a panic as Israel marched toward them.
Then Joshua and the Israelites won a complete victory over them at Gibeon. The Israelites chased them along the road that goes up to Beth Horon. They struck them down all the way to Azekah and Makkedah. [11]The Amorites tried to escape as Israel marched toward them. They ran down the road from Beth Horon to Azekah. Then the LORD threw large hailstones down on them. The hailstones killed more of them than the swords of the Israelites did.

12 So the LORD gave the Amorites over to Israel. On that day Joshua spoke to the LORD while the Israelites were listening. He said,

"Sun, stand still over Gibeon.
And you, moon, stand still over the Valley of Aijalon."
13 So the sun stood still.
The moon stopped.
They didn't move again until the nation won the battle over its enemies.

You can read about it in the Book of Jashar.
The sun stopped in the middle of the sky. It didn't go down for about a full day. 14 There has never been a day like it before or since. It was a day when the LORD listened to a mere human being. Surely the LORD was fighting for Israel!
15 Joshua and his whole army returned to the camp at Gilgal.

Joshua Kills the Five Amorite Kings

16 The five Amorite kings had run away. They had hidden in the cave at Makkedah. 17 Joshua was told that the five kings had been found. He was also told that they were hiding in the cave at Makkedah. 18 He said, "Roll some large rocks up to the opening of the cave. Put some men there to guard it. 19 But keep on going! Chase your enemies! Attack them from behind. Don't let them get back to their cities. The LORD your God has handed them over to you."
20 So Joshua and the men of Israel had complete victory over them. They killed almost every one of them. But a few escaped. They went back to their cities that had high walls around them. 21 Then Israel's whole army returned safely to Joshua. He was in the camp at Makkedah. No one in the land dared to say anything against the Israelites.
22 Joshua said, "Open up the cave. Bring those five kings out to me." 23 So Joshua's men brought the kings out of the cave. They were the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish and Eglon. 24 The men brought them to Joshua. Then he sent for all the men of Israel. He spoke to the army commanders who had come with him. He said, "Come here. Put your feet on the necks of these kings." So they came forward and placed their feet on the necks of the kings.
25 Joshua said to them, "Don't be afraid. Don't lose hope. Be strong and brave.

This is what the LORD will do to all the enemies you are going to fight.”
[26]Joshua put the five kings to death. He stuck a pole through each of their bodies. Then he set the poles up where people could see the bodies. He left them there until evening.

[27]At sunset Joshua ordered his men to take down the bodies. So they took them down from the poles and threw them into the cave where the kings had been hiding. They placed large rocks at the opening of the cave. And the rocks are still there to this day.

The Campaign Against the Cities in the South

[28]That day Joshua captured Makkedah. He cut down its people and their king. He totally destroyed everyone in it. He didn’t leave anyone alive. He did to the king of Makkedah the same thing he had done to the king of Jericho.

[29]Joshua moved on from Makkedah to Libnah. Israel’s whole army went with him. They attacked Libnah. [30]The LORD also handed that city and its king over to Israel. Joshua destroyed the city. He and his men killed everyone in it with their swords. He didn’t leave anyone alive there. He did to its king the same thing he had done to the king of Jericho.

[31]Joshua moved on from Libnah to Lachish. Israel’s whole army went with him. The men took up their battle positions. Then Joshua attacked Lachish. [32]The LORD handed it over to Israel. Joshua captured the city on the second day of the battle. He destroyed the city. He and his men killed everyone in it with their swords. He had done the same thing to Libnah. [33]While all that was happening, Horam had come up to help Lachish. He was the king of Gezer. But Joshua won the battle over him and his army. No one was left alive.

[34]Joshua moved on from Lachish to Eglon. Israel’s whole army went with him. They took up their battle positions. Then they attacked Eglon. [35]They captured it that same day. They totally destroyed everyone in it with their swords. They had done the same thing to Lachish.

[36]Joshua went up from Eglon to Hebron. Israel’s whole army went with him. Then they attacked Hebron. [37]They captured the city. They destroyed it and its villages. They killed all its people and their king with their swords. They didn’t leave anyone alive. They totally destroyed the city and everyone in it. They had done the same thing at Eglon.

[38]Joshua turned back and attacked Debir. Israel’s whole army went with him. [39]They captured the city, its king and its villages. They totally destroyed everyone in Debir with their swords. They didn’t leave anyone alive. They did to Debir and its king the same thing they had done to Libnah and its king. They had also done the same thing to Hebron.

40So Joshua brought the whole area under his control. That included the central hill country and the Negev Desert. It included the western hills and the mountain slopes. It also included all the kings in that whole area. Joshua didn’t leave anyone alive. He totally destroyed everyone who breathed. He did just as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded. 41Joshua brought everyone from Kadesh Barnea to Gaza under his control. He did the same thing to everyone from the whole area of Goshen to Gibeon. 42He won the battle over all those kings and their lands. He did it in one campaign. That’s because the LORD, the God of Israel, fought for Israel.

43Then Joshua returned to the camp at Gilgal. Israel’s whole army went with him.

Joshua 11

The Campaign Against the Cities in the North

[1]Jabin was the king of Hazor. He heard about the battles Israel had won. So he sent a message to Jobab. Jobab was the king of Madon. Jabin sent the same message to the kings of Shimron and Akshaph. [2]He also sent it to many other kings. Some ruled in the mountains in the north. Some ruled in the Arabah Valley south of Kinnereth. Others ruled in the western hills. Still others ruled in Naphoth Dor in the west. [3]Jabin sent the same message to the people of east Canaan and west Canaan. He sent it to the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites and Jebusites. They lived in the central hill country. He also sent it to the Hivites who lived below Mount Hermon in the area of Mizpah. [4]Those kings marched out with all their troops. They had a large number of horses and chariots. It was a huge army. The fighting men were as many as the grains of sand on the seashore. [5]All those kings gathered their armies together to fight against Israel. They set up camp together at the Waters of Merom.

[6]The LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid of them. By this time tomorrow I will hand all of them over to Israel. All of them will be killed. You must cut the legs of their horses. You must burn their chariots.”

[7]So Joshua and his whole army attacked them suddenly. They fought against them at the Waters of Merom. [8]The LORD handed them over to Israel. The Israelites won the battle over them. They hunted them down all the way to Greater Sidon. They chased them to Misrephoth Maim. They chased them to the Valley of Mizpah in the east. Not one of them was left alive. [9]Joshua did to them what the LORD had ordered him to do. He cut the legs of their horses. He burned up their chariots.

[10]At that time Joshua turned back. He captured Hazor. He killed its king with his sword. Hazor was the most important city in all those kingdoms. [11]The army of Israel killed everyone in Hazor with their swords. Its people had been set apart to the LORD to be destroyed. Israel’s army didn’t spare anyone who breathed. Then Joshua burned down the city.

[12]Joshua captured all those royal cities and their kings. He and his men killed everyone in those cities with their swords. He totally destroyed them. He did just as Moses, the servant of the LORD, had commanded. [13]Many cities were built on top of earlier cities that had been destroyed. Israel didn’t burn any of those except Hazor. Joshua burned it down. [14]The army of Israel kept for themselves the livestock and everything else they took from those cities. But they killed all the people with their swords. They completely destroyed them. They didn’t spare anyone who breathed. [15]The LORD had commanded his servant Moses to do all these things. Moses had passed that command on to Joshua. And Joshua carried it out. He did everything the LORD had commanded Moses.

[16]So Joshua captured the whole land. He took over the central hill country and the whole Negev Desert. He took over the whole area of Goshen. He took over the western hills. He took over the Arabah Valley. He took over the mountains of Israel and the hills around them. [17]He took over the area that begins at Mount Halak, which rises toward Seir. The area ends at Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon. Joshua captured the kings who ruled over that whole land. He put them to death. [18]He fought battles against all those kings for a long time. [19]Only the Hivites who lived in Gibeon made a peace treaty with the Israelites. No other city made a treaty with them. So Israel captured all those cities in battle. [20]The LORD himself made their people stubborn. He made them go to war against Israel so he could totally destroy them. He wanted to wipe them out. He didn’t show them any mercy. The LORD had commanded Moses to destroy the Canaanites.

[21]At that time Joshua went and destroyed the Anakites. They lived all through the hill country of Judah and Israel. They lived in Hebron, Debir and Anab. Joshua totally destroyed the Anakites and their towns. [22]There weren’t any Anakites left alive in Israel’s territory. But a few were left alive in Gaza, Gath and Ashdod.

[23]So Joshua captured the whole land, just as the LORD had directed Moses. Joshua gave the land to Israel as their very own. He divided it up and gave each tribe its share. Then the land had peace and rest.

Joshua 12

Israel Wins the Battle Over the Kings in the Land

[1]The Israelites took over the territory east of the Jordan River. The land they captured reached from the Arnon River valley to Mount Hermon. It included the whole east side of the Arabah Valley. Israel won the battle over the kings of that whole territory. Here are the lands Israel captured from the kings they won the battle over.

[2]They took over the land of Sihon. He was the king of the Amorites.
He ruled in Heshbon. The land he ruled over begins at Aroer. Aroer is on the rim of the Arnon River valley. Sihon ruled from the middle of the valley to the Jabbok River. The Jabbok is the border of Ammon. Sihon's territory included half of Gilead.
[3]He also ruled over the east side of the Arabah Valley. That land begins at the Sea of Galilee. It goes to the Dead Sea and over to Beth Jeshimoth. Then it goes south, below the slopes of Pisgah.
[4]Israel also took over the territory of Og. He was the king of Bashan.
He was one of the last of the Rephaites. He ruled in Ashtaroth and Edrei. [5]He ruled over Mount Hermon, Salekah and the whole land of Bashan. Og's kingdom reached all the way to the border of Geshur and Maakah. He ruled over half of Gilead. His land reached the border of Sihon, the king of Heshbon.
[6]Moses was the servant of the LORD. Moses and the Israelites won the battle over those two kings. He gave their land to the tribes of Reuben and Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh. He gave it to them as their share.

[7]Joshua and the Israelites won the battle over the kings who ruled west of the Jordan River. The lands of those kings reached from Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon to Mount Halak, which rises toward Seir. Joshua gave their lands to the tribes of Israel as their very own. He divided them up and gave each tribe its share. [8]Those lands included the central hill country, the western hills and the Arabah Valley. They also included the mountain slopes, the Desert of Judah and the Negev Desert. Those lands belonged to the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites.

Here are the kings Israel won the battle over.

[9]the king of Jericho one the king of Ai, which is near Bethel one [10]the king of Jerusalem one the king of Hebron one [11]the king of Jarmuth one the king of Lachish one [12]the king of Eglon one the king of Gezer one [13]the king of Debir one the king of Geder one [14]the king of Hormah one the king of Arad one [15]the king of Libnah one the king of Adullam one [16]the king of Makkedah one the king of Bethel one [17]the king of Tappuah one the king of Hepher one [18]the king of Aphek one the king of Lasharon one [19]the king of Madon one the king of Hazor one [20]the king of Shimron Meron one the king of Akshaph one [21]the king of Taanach one the king of Megiddo one [22]the king of Kedesh one the king of Jokneam in Carmel one [23]the king of Dor in Naphoth Dor one the king of Goyim in Gilgal one [24]the king of Tirzah one

The total number of kings was 31.

Joshua 13

The Land That Remained to Be Taken Over

[1]Joshua was now very old. The LORD said to him, “You are very old. And there are still very large areas of land that have not yet been taken over.

[2]“Here is the land that remains to be taken over.

It includes all the areas of Philistia and Geshur. [3]Those areas begin at the Shihor River in the eastern part of Egypt. They go to the territory of Ekron in the north. All that land is considered Canaanite even though it is controlled by five Philistine rulers. They rule over Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath and Ekron.

The Avvites [4]live south of them.

The rest of the land of Canaan that remains to be taken over reaches from Arah all the way to Aphek. Arah belongs to the people of Sidon. The land that remains to be taken reaches the border of Amorite territory.

[5]It includes the area of Byblos.

It also includes all of Lebanon to the east. It reaches from Baal Gad below Mount Hermon all the way to Lebo Hamath.

[6]“I myself will drive out all the people who live in the mountain areas. Those areas reach from Lebanon to Misrephoth Maim. They include the area where all the people of Sidon live. I myself will drive out those people to make room for the Israelites. Make sure you set that land apart for Israel. Give it to them as their share, just as I have directed you. [7]Divide it up among the nine tribes and half of the tribe of Manasseh. Give each tribe its share.”

Land for the Tribes East of the Jordan River

[8]The other half of Manasseh’s tribe had already received the share of land Moses had given them. Their share was east of the Jordan River. The tribes of Reuben and Gad had already received their share too. Moses, the servant of the LORD, had given it to them.

[9]That land starts at Aroer on the rim of the Arnon River valley. It includes the town in the middle of the valley. It includes the high plains of Medeba all the way to Dibon. [10]It also includes all the towns of Sihon, the king of the Amorites. He had ruled in Heshbon. That area reaches to the border of Ammon.

[11]It also includes Gilead. It includes the territory of Geshur and Maakah. It includes Mount Hermon and the whole land of Bashan all the way to Salekah. [12]So it includes the entire kingdom of Og in Bashan. Og had ruled in Ashtaroth and Edrei. He was the last of the Rephaites.
Moses had won the battle over Sihon and Og. He had taken over their land. [13]But the Israelites didn't drive out the people of Geshur and Maakah. So they continue to live among the Israelites to this day.

[14]Moses hadn't given any share of the land to the tribe of Levi. That's because the food offerings are their share. Those offerings are presented to the LORD, the God of Israel. Moses gave the Levites what he had promised them.

[15]Here is what Moses had given to the tribe of Reuben, according to its family groups.

[16]Their territory starts at Aroer on the rim of the Arnon River valley. It includes the town in the middle of the valley. It includes all of the high plains near Medeba. [17]It includes Heshbon and all its towns on those plains. Those towns include Dibon, Bamoth Baal, Beth Baal Meon, [18]Jahaz, Kedemoth and Mephaath. [19]They include Kiriathaim, Sibmah and Zereth Shahar on the hill in the valley. [20]They also include Beth Peor, Beth Jeshimoth and the slopes of Pisgah. [21]All those towns are on the high plains. The territory includes the whole kingdom of Sihon, the king of the Amorites. He had ruled in Heshbon.
Moses had won the battle over him and over the chiefs of Midian. Those chiefs were Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur and Reba. They were princes who helped Sihon fight against Israel. They lived in that country. [22]The Israelites killed many of them in battle. They also killed Balaam with their swords. He was the son of Beor. Balaam had used evil magic to find out what was going to happen.

[23]The border of the tribe of Reuben was the bank of the Jordan River.
All those towns and their villages were given to the tribe of Reuben as their very own. Each family group received its share.

[24]Here is what Moses had given to the tribe of Gad, according to its family groups.

[25]Their territory includes Jazer and all the towns of Gilead. It includes half of the country of Ammon all the way to Aroer, which was near Rabbah. [26]Their territory reaches from Heshbon to Ramath Mizpah and Betonim. It reaches from Mahanaim to the territory of Debir. [27]In the valley their land includes Beth Haram, Beth Nimrah, Sukkoth and Zaphon. It also includes the rest of the kingdom of Sihon. He was the king of Heshbon. His kingdom included the east side of the Jordan River. It reached up to the south end of the Sea of Galilee.
[28]All those towns and their villages were given to the tribe of Gad as their very own. Each family group received its share.

[29]Here is what Moses had given to half of the tribe of Manasseh, according to its family groups. It's what Moses had given to half of Manasseh's family line.

[30]Their territory starts at Mahanaim. It includes the whole land of Bashan. That was the entire kingdom of Og, the king of Bashan.
Manasseh's territory includes all the 60 towns of Jair in Bashan. [31]It includes half of the land of Gilead. It also includes Ashtaroth and Edrei. They were the royal cities of Og in Bashan.
That land was given to half of the family line of Makir. He was the son of Manasseh. Each family group received its share.
[32]Those were the shares of land Moses had given the eastern tribes when he was in the plains of Moab. The plains are across the Jordan River east of Jericho. [33]But Moses hadn't given any share to the tribe of Levi. The LORD, the God of Israel, is their share. Moses gave the Levites what he had promised them.

Joshua 14

Land for the Tribes West of the Jordan River

[1]The rest of the tribes of Israel received their shares of land in Canaan. Eleazar the priest and Joshua, the son of Nun, decided what each of the tribes should receive. The leaders of the tribes helped them make these decisions. [2]The shares of nine tribes and half of the tribe of Manasseh were decided by casting lots. That's what the LORD had commanded through Moses. [3]Moses had given two tribes and the other half of the tribe of Manasseh their shares east of the Jordan River. But Moses had not given the Levites a share among the other tribes. [4]Manasseh and Ephraim were the sons of Joseph. They had become two tribes. The Levites didn't receive any share of the land. They only received towns to live in and grasslands for their flocks and herds. [5]So the Israelites divided up the land, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Joshua Gives Hebron to Caleb

[6]The people of Judah approached Joshua at Gilgal. Caleb, the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, spoke to Joshua. He said, "You know what the LORD said to Moses, the man of God. He spoke to him at Kadesh Barnea about you and me. [7]Moses, the servant of the LORD, sent me from Kadesh Barnea to check out the land. I was 40 years old at that time. I brought back an honest report to him. I told him exactly what I had seen. [8]Several other men of Israel went up with me. What they reported terrified the people. But I followed the LORD my God with my whole heart. [9]So on that day Moses made a promise to me. He said, 'The land you have walked on will be your share. It will be the share of your children forever. That's because you have followed the LORD my God with your whole heart.' (Deuteronomy 1:36)

[10]"The LORD has done just as he promised. He made the promise while Israel was wandering around in the desert. That was 45 years ago. He has kept me alive all this time. So here I am today, 85 years old! [11]I'm still as strong today as I was the day Moses sent me out. I'm just as able to go out to battle now as I was then. [12]So give me this hill country. The LORD promised it to me that day. At that time you yourself heard that the Anakites were living there. You also heard that their cities were large and had high walls around them. But I'll drive them out, just as the LORD said I would. He will help me do it."

[13]Then Joshua blessed Caleb, the son of Jephunneh. He gave him Hebron as his share. [14]So ever since that time Hebron has belonged to Caleb, the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite. That’s because he followed the LORD, the God of Israel, with his whole heart. [15]Hebron used to be called Kiriath Arba. It was named after Arba. He was the greatest man among the Anakites.

So the land had peace and rest.

Joshua 15

Land Is Given to Judah

[1]Land was given to the tribe of Judah, according to its family groups. It reached down to the territory of Edom. It went as far south as the Desert of Zin.

[2]Judah's border on the south started from the bay at the south end of the Dead Sea. [3]It went across to the south of Scorpion Pass. It continued on to Zin. It went over to the south of Kadesh Barnea. Then it ran past Hezron up to Addar. It curved around to Karka. [4]It then went along to Azmon. There it joined the Wadi of Egypt and ended at the Mediterranean Sea. That was the southern border of Judah.

[5]The border on the east was the Dead Sea. It went north all the way to where the Jordan River enters the sea.

The border on the north started at the bay of the Dead Sea. That's where the Jordan River enters the sea. [6]From there it went up to Beth Hoglah. It continued north of Beth Arabah to the Stone of Bohan, the son of Reuben. [7]Then it went from the Valley of Achor up to Debir. It turned north to Gilgal. Gilgal faces the Pass of Adummim south of the valley. The border continued along to the springs of En Shemesh.
It came to an end at En Rogel. [8]Then it ran up the Valley of Ben Hinnom. It went along the south slope of Jerusalem. From there it climbed to the top of the hill west of the Hinnom Valley. The hill is also at the north end of the Valley of Rephaim. [9]From the top of the hill the border headed toward the springs of Nephtoah. It went to the towns near Mount Ephron. It went down toward Kiriath Jearim.
[10]Then it curved west from Kiriath Jearim to Mount Seir. It ran along the north slope of Mount Kesalon. It continued down to Beth Shemesh and crossed over to Timnah. [11]It went to the north slope of Ekron. Then it turned toward Shikkeron. It passed along to Mount Baalah and reached Jabneel. The border came to an end at the Mediterranean Sea.

[12]The border on the west was the coastline of the Mediterranean Sea.

Those were the borders of the family groups of the tribe of Judah.

[13]Joshua gave a part of Judah's share of land to Caleb, the son of Jephunneh. That was according to the LORD's command to Joshua. The share Caleb received was the city of Hebron. It was also called Kiriath Arba. Anak came from the family line of Arba. [14]Caleb drove three Anakites out of Hebron. Their names were Sheshai, Ahiman and Talmai. They were from the family line of Anak. [15]From Hebron, Caleb marched out against the people living in Debir. It used to be called Kiriath Sepher. [16]Caleb said, "I will give my daughter Aksah to be married. She'll be the wife of the man who attacks and captures Kiriath Sepher." [17]Othniel captured it. So Caleb gave his daughter Aksah to him to be his wife. Othniel was the son of Kenaz. He was Caleb's brother.

[18]One day Aksah came to Othniel. She begged him to ask her father for a field. When she got off her donkey, Caleb spoke to her. He asked, "What can I do for you?"

[19]She replied, "Do me a special favor. You have given me some land in the Negev Desert. Give me springs of water also." So Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.

[20]Here is the share of land given to the tribe of Judah, according to its family groups.

[21]The towns farthest south that were given to Judah were in the Negev Desert. They were near the border of Edom. Here is a list of those towns.

Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur, [22]Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah, [23]Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan, [24]Ziph, Telem, Bealoth, [25]Hazor Hadattah, Hazor, [26]Amam, Shema, Moladah, [27]Hazar Gaddah, Heshmon, Beth Pelet, [28]Hazar Shual, Beersheba, Biziothiah, [29]Baalah, Iyim, Ezem, [30]Eltolad, Kesil, Hormah, [31]Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah, [32]Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain and Rimmon. The total number of towns was 29. Some of them had villages near them.

[33]Towns were also given to Judah in the western hills. Here is a list of those towns.

Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah, [34]Zanoah, En Gannim, Tappuah, Enam, [35]Jarmuth, Adullam, Sokoh, Azekah, [36]Shaaraim, Adithaim and Gederah. Gederah is also called Gederothaim. The total number of towns was 14. Some of them had villages near them.

[37]Here’s another list of towns given to Judah in the western hills.
Zenan, Hadashah, Migdal Gad, [38]Dilean, Mizpah, Joktheel, [39]Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon, [40]Kabbon, Lahmas, Kitlish, [41]Gederoth, Beth Dagon, Naamah and Makkedah. The total number of towns was 16. Some of them had villages near them.
[42]Here’s another list of towns given to Judah in the western hills.
Libnah, Ether, Ashan, [43]Iphtah, Ashnah, Nezib, [44]Keilah, Akzib and Mareshah. The total number of towns was nine. Some of them had villages near them.
[45]Judah was also given Ekron and the settlements and villages around it. [46]West of Ekron, Judah was given all the settlements and villages near Ashdod. [47]Judah was given Ashdod and the settlements and villages around it. And Judah was given Gaza and its settlements and villages. Judah’s territory went all the way to the Wadi of Egypt and the coast of the Mediterranean Sea.
[48]Towns were also given to Judah in the central hill country. Here is a list of those towns.
Shamir, Jattir, Sokoh, [49]Dannah, Debir, [50]Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim, [51]Goshen, Holon and Giloh. The total number of towns was 11.
Some of them had villages near them.
[52]Here’s another list of towns given to Judah in the central hill country. Arab, Dumah, Eshan, [53]Janim, Beth Tappuah, Aphekah, [54]Humtah, Hebron and Zior. The total number of towns was nine.
Some of them had villages near them.
[55]Here’s another list of towns given to Judah in the central hill country. Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah, [56]Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah, [57]Kain, Gibeah and Timnah. The total number of towns was ten.
Some of them had villages near them.
[58]Here’s another list of towns given to Judah in the central hill country. Halhul, Beth Zur, Gedor, [59]Maarath, Beth Anoth and Eltekon. The total number of towns was six. Some of them had villages near them.
[60]Here’s another list of towns given to Judah in the central hill country. Kiriath Jearim and Rabbah. The total number of towns was two. They had villages near them.
[61]Towns were also given to Judah in the desert. Here is a list of those towns.

Beth Arabah, Middin, Sekakah, [62]Nibshan, the City of Salt and En Gedi. The total number of towns was six. Some of them had villages near them.
[63]Judah couldn’t drive out the Jebusites who were living in Jerusalem. So they live there with the people of Judah to this day.

Joshua 16

Land Is Given to Ephraim and Manasseh

[1]The land given to the two tribes in the family line of Joseph began at the Jordan River. Their border started east of the springs of Jericho. It went up from there through the desert into the hill country of Bethel. [2]Bethel is also called Luz. From Bethel the border crossed over to Ataroth. That's where the Arkites live. [3]Then it went west down to the territory of the Japhletites. It went all the way to the area of Lower Beth Horon. It went on to Gezer. The border came to an end at the Mediterranean Sea.

[4]The tribes of Manasseh and Ephraim were from the family line of Joseph. So they received that land as their share.

[5]Here is the territory given to the tribe of Ephraim, according to its family groups.

The border of their share of land started at Ataroth Addar in the east. It went to Upper Beth Horon. [6]It continued toward the Mediterranean Sea. From Mikmethath on the north, it curved toward the east. It went to Taanath Shiloh. It passed by Taanath Shiloh to Janoah on the east. [7]Then it went down from Janoah to Ataroth and Naarah. It touched Jericho and came to an end at the Jordan River. [8]From Tappuah the border went west to the Kanah Valley. It came to an end at the Mediterranean Sea. That was the land given to the tribe of Ephraim. Each family group received its share.

[9]The tribe of Ephraim was also given other towns and villages that were set apart for them. Those towns and villages were in the share of land given to the tribe of Manasseh.

[10]The people of Ephraim didn't drive out the Canaanites living in Gezer. The Canaanites live among the people of Ephraim to this day. But they are forced to work hard for the people of Ephraim.

Joshua 17

[1]Land was given to the tribe of Manasseh. It was given to Makir. Manasseh was Joseph's oldest son. Makir was Manasseh's oldest son. The people of Gilead came from the family line of Makir. The people of Gilead had received the lands of Gilead and Bashan. That's because the people of Makir were great soldiers. [2]So land was given to the rest of the people of Manasseh. It was given to the family groups of Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hepher and Shemida. They were the other men in the family line of Manasseh, the son of Joseph. Those were their names by their family groups.

[3]Makir was the son of Manasseh. Gilead was the son of Makir. Hepher was the son of Gilead. And Zelophehad was the son of Hepher. Zelophehad didn't have any sons. He only had daughters. Their names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milkah and Tirzah. [4]The daughters of Zelophehad went to Eleazar the priest and to Joshua, the son of Nun. They also went to the other leaders. They said, "The LORD commanded Moses to give us our share of land among our male relatives." So Joshua gave them land along with their male relatives. That was according to what the LORD had commanded. [5]Manasseh's share was made up of ten pieces of land. That land was in addition to Gilead and Bashan east of the Jordan River. [6]So the five granddaughters of Hepher in the family line of Manasseh received land, just as the other five sons of Manasseh did. The land of Gilead belonged to the rest of the family line of Manasseh.

[7]The territory of Manasseh reached from Asher to Mikmethath. Mikmethath was east of Shechem. The border ran south from Mikmethath. The people living at En Tappuah were inside the border. [8]Manasseh had the land around Tappuah. But the town of Tappuah itself was on the border of Manasseh's land. It belonged to the people of Ephraim. [9]The border continued south to the Kanah Valley. Some of the towns that belonged to Ephraim were located among the towns of Manasseh. But the border of Manasseh was the north side of the valley. The border came to an end at the Mediterranean Sea. [10]The land on the south belonged to Ephraim. The land on the north belonged to Manasseh. The territory of Manasseh reached the Mediterranean Sea. The tribe of Asher was the border on the north. The tribe of Issachar was the border on the east.

[11]Inside the land given to Issachar and Asher, the towns of Beth Shan and Ibleam belonged to Manasseh. The towns of Dor, Endor, Taanach and Megiddo and their people also belonged to Manasseh. Manasseh was given all those towns and the settlements around them. The third town in the list was also called Naphoth Dor.
[12]But the people of Manasseh weren't able to take over those towns. That's because the Canaanites had made up their minds to live in that area. [13]The Israelites grew stronger. Then they forced the Canaanites to work hard for them. But they didn't drive them out completely.

[14]The people in the family line of Joseph spoke to Joshua. They said, "Why have you given us only one share of the land to have as our own? There are large numbers of us. The LORD has blessed us greatly."

[15]"That's true," Joshua said. "There are large numbers of you. And the hill country of Ephraim is too small for you. So go up into the forest. Clear out some land for yourselves in the territory of the Perizzites and Rephaites."

[16]The people in Joseph's family line replied, "The hill country isn't big enough for us. And all the Canaanites who live in the plains use chariots that have iron parts. They include the people of Beth Shan and its settlements. They also include the people who live in the Valley of Jezreel."

[17]Joshua spoke again to the people in Joseph's family line. He said to the people of Ephraim and Manasseh, "There are large numbers of you. And you are very powerful. You will have more than one piece of land. [18]You will also have the central hill country. It's covered with trees. Cut them down and clear the land. That whole land from one end to the other will belong to you. The Canaanites use chariots that have iron parts. And those people are strong. But you can drive them out."

Joshua 18

The Rest of the Land Is Divided Up

[1]The whole community of Israel gathered together at Shiloh. They set up the tent of meeting there. The country was brought under their control. [2]But there were still seven tribes in Israel who had not yet received their shares of land.

[3]So Joshua spoke to the Israelites. He said, “The LORD, the God of your people, has given you this land. How long will you wait before you begin to take it over? [4]Appoint three men from each tribe. I’ll send them to map out the land. Then they’ll write a report about its features. The report will point out the share of land each tribe will receive. Then the men will return to me. [5]You must divide the land up into seven shares. Judah must remain in its territory in the south. The people in Joseph’s family line must remain in their territory in the north. [6]Write reports about the features of those seven shares of land. Bring them here to me. Then I’ll cast lots for you in the sight of the LORD our God. [7]But the Levites don’t get any share of your land. That’s because their share is to serve the LORD as priests. The tribes of Gad and Reuben and half of the tribe of Manasseh have already received their shares. They are on the east side of the Jordan River. Moses, the servant of the LORD, gave their shares to them.”

[8]The men started out on their way to map out the land. Joshua directed them, “Go and map out the land. Write a report about its features. Then return to me. I’ll cast lots for you here at Shiloh in the sight of the LORD.” [9]So the men left and went through the land. They wrote a report about its features on a scroll. It showed how they divided up the land into seven shares. It listed the towns in each share. The men returned to Joshua in the camp at Shiloh.

[10]Then Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh in the sight of the LORD. There he gave out a share of land to each of the remaining tribes in Israel.

Land Is Given to Benjamin

[11]The first lot drawn out was for the tribe of Benjamin, according to its family groups. The territory they were given was located between the tribes of the people of Judah and the people of Joseph. Here are the borders of Benjamin’s territory.

12 On the north side their border started at the Jordan River. It went past the north slope of Jericho. Then it headed west into the central hill country. It came to an end at the Desert of Beth Aven. 13 From there the border crossed to the south slope of Bethel. Then it went down to Ataroth Addar on the hill south of Lower Beth Horon.
14 From the hill that faces Beth Horon on the south the border turned south. Then the border went along the west side of the hill. It came to an end at Kiriath Jearim. That town belongs to the people of Judah.
That was the border on the west.
15 The border on the south side started at the west edge of Kiriath Jearim. It came to an end at the springs of Nephtoah. 16 It went down to the foot of the hill that faces the Valley of Ben Hinnom. The hill is north of the Valley of Rephaim. The border continued down the Hinnom Valley. It went along the south slope of Jerusalem, where the people of Jebus live. It continued on to En Rogel. 17 Then it curved north. It went to En Shemesh. It continued on to Geliloth. Geliloth faces the Pass of Adummim. The border ran down to the Stone of Bohan, the son of Reuben. 18 It continued to the north slope of Beth Arabah. It went on down into the Arabah Valley. 19 From there it went to the north slope of Beth Hoglah. It came to an end at the north bay of the Dead Sea. That's where the Jordan River flows into the Dead Sea. That was the border on the south.
20 The Jordan River formed the border on the east side.
Those were the borders that marked out on all sides the land the family groups of Benjamin received as their share.

21 Here is a list of towns given to the tribe of Benjamin, according to its family groups.
Jericho, Beth Hoglah, Emek Keziz, 22 Beth Arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel, 23 Avvim, Parah, Ophrah, 24 Kephar Ammoni, Ophni and Geba. The total number of towns and their villages was 12.
25 Here is another list of towns given to Benjamin.
Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth, 26 Mizpah, Kephirah, Mozah, 27 Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah, 28 Zelah, Haeleph, Jerusalem, Gibeah and Kiriath.
The total number of towns and their villages was 14.
That was the share of land the family groups of Benjamin received.

Joshua 19

Land Is Given to Simeon

[1]The second lot drawn out was for the tribe of Simeon, according to its family groups. The share of land they were given was in the territory of Judah.

[2]Here is what Simeon's share included.
Beersheba, Moladah, [3]Hazar Shual, Balah, Ezem, [4]Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah, [5]Ziklag, Beth Markaboth, Hazar Susah, [6]Beth Lebaoth and Sharuhen. The total number of towns was 13. Some of them had villages near them.
[7]Here's another list of towns given to Simeon.
Ain, Rimmon, Ether and Ashan. The total number of towns was four.
Some of them had villages near them. [8]The towns and all the villages around them reached all the way to Ramah in the Negev Desert.
That was the share of land the tribe of Simeon received, according to its family groups.
[9]Simeon's share of land was taken from Judah's share. That's because Judah had more land than they needed. So the people of Simeon received their share of land inside the territory of Judah.

Land Is Given to Zebulun

[10]The third lot drawn out was for the tribe of Zebulun, according to its family groups. Here are the borders of Zebulun's territory.

The border of their share of land went as far as Sarid. [11]It ran west to Maralah and touched Dabbesheth. It reached to the valley near Jokneam. [12]It turned east from Sarid toward the sunrise. It went to the territory of Kisloth Tabor. It went on to Daberath and up to Japhia. [13]Then it continued east to Gath Hepher and Eth Kazin. It came to an end at Rimmon and turned toward Neah. [14]There the border went around on the north to Hannathon. It came to an end at the Valley of Iphtah El.

15 Zebulun’s territory included Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah and Bethlehem. The total number of towns was 12. Some of them had villages near them.
16 Those towns and their villages were Zebulun’s share, according to its family groups.

Land Is Given to Issachar

17 The fourth lot drawn out was for the tribe of Issachar, according to its family groups. 18 Here is what Issachar’s share included.

Jezreel, Kesulloth, Shunem, 19 Hapharaim, Shion, Anaharath, 20 Rabbith, Kishion, Ebez, 21 Remeth, En Gannim, En Haddah and Beth Pazzez.
22 The border touched Tabor, Shahazumah and Beth Shemesh. It came to an end at the Jordan River.
The total number of towns was 16. Some of them had villages near them.
23 Those towns and their villages were the share the tribe of Issachar received, according to its family groups.

Land Is Given to Asher

24 The fifth lot drawn out was for the tribe of Asher, according to its family groups. 25 Here is what Asher’s share included.

Helkath, Hali, Beten, Akshaph, 26 Allammelek, Amad and Mishal. On the west the border touched Carmel and Shihor Libnath. 27 Then it turned east toward Beth Dagon. It touched Zebulun and the Valley of Iphtah El. It went north to Beth Emek and Neiel. It went past Kabul on the left. 28 It went to Abdon, Rehob, Hammon and Kanah. It reached all the way to Greater Sidon. 29 The border then turned back toward Ramah. It went to Tyre, a city that had high walls around it. It turned toward Hosah. It came to an end at the Mediterranean Sea in the area of Akzib, 30 Ummah, Aphek and Rehob.
The total number of towns was 22. Some of them had villages near them.
31 Those towns and their villages were the share the tribe of Asher received, according to its family groups.

Land Is Given to Naphtali

[32]The sixth lot drawn out was for Naphtali, according to its family groups.

[33]Their border started at Heleph and the large tree in Zaanannim. It went past Adami Nekeb and Jabneel. It went to Lakkum and came to an end at the Jordan River. [34]The border ran west through Aznoth Tabor. It came to an end at Hukkok. It touched Zebulun on the south. It touched Asher on the west. It touched the Jordan on the east.

[35]The towns that had high walls around them were Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Kinnereth, [36]Adamah, Ramah, Hazor, [37]Kedesh, Edrei, En Hazor, [38]Iron, Migdal El, Horem, Beth Anath and Beth Shemesh. The total number of towns was 19. Some of them had villages near them.

[39]Those towns and their villages were the share the tribe of Naphtali received, according to its family groups.

Land Is Given to Dan

[40]The seventh lot drawn out was for the tribe of Dan, according to its family groups. [41]Here is what Dan's share of land included.

Zorah, Eshtaol, Ir Shemesh, [42]Shaalabbin, Aijalon, Ithlah, [43]Elon, Timnah, Ekron, [44]Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath, [45]Jehud, Bene Berak, Gath Rimmon, [46]Me Jarkon and Rakkon. Dan's share included the area that faces Joppa.

[47]The people of Dan lost their territory. So they went up and attacked Leshem. They captured it. They killed its people with their swords. Then they moved into Leshem and made their homes there. They named it Dan. That's because they traced their family line back to him.

[48]All those towns and their villages were the share the tribe of Dan received, according to its family groups.

Land Is Given to Joshua

[49]The Israelites finished dividing up the shares of land the tribes received. Then they gave a share to Joshua, the son of Nun. [50]They did what the LORD had commanded them to do. They gave Joshua the town he asked for. It was Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim. He built up the town and made his home there.

[51]All those territories were given out by casting lots at Shiloh. The lots were drawn out by Eleazar the priest and by Joshua, the son of Nun. The leaders of the tribes of Israel helped them. The lots were drawn out in front of the LORD at the entrance to the tent of meeting. So the work of dividing up the land was finished.

Joshua 20

Cities to Run to for Safety

[1]Then the LORD spoke to Joshua. He said, [2]“Tell the Israelites to choose the cities to go to for safety, just as I directed you through Moses. [3]Anyone who kills a person by accident can run there for safety. So can anyone who kills a person without meaning to. The one charged with murder will be kept safe from the nearest male relative of the person killed. [4]Suppose those who are charged with murder run for safety to one of these cities. Then they must stand in the entrance of the city gate. They must state their case in front of the elders of that city. The elders must let them come into their city. The elders must provide a place for them to live in their city. [5]Suppose the nearest male relative of the person killed chases the one charged with murder. Then the elders must not hand them over to that relative. That’s because that person didn’t mean to kill their neighbor. They didn’t make evil plans to do it. [6]They must stay in that city until their case has been brought to the community court. They must stay there until the high priest serving at that time dies. Then they can go back to their own home. They can return to the town they ran away from.”

[7]So the Israelites set apart Kedesh in Galilee. It’s in the hill country of Naphtali. They set apart Shechem. It’s in the hill country of Ephraim. They set apart Kiriath Arba. It’s in the hill country of Judah. Kiriath Arba is also called Hebron. [8]On the east side of the Jordan River near Jericho they chose Bezer. It’s in the desert on the high plains. It’s in the territory of the tribe of Reuben. They chose Ramoth in Gilead. It’s in the territory of the tribe of Gad. They chose Golan in the land of Bashan. It’s in the territory of the tribe of Manasseh. [9]Suppose you kill someone by accident. Or another Israelite does it. Or an outsider who lives among you does it. Then any of you can run for safety to one of these cities that have been chosen. There you won’t be killed by the nearest male relative of the person killed by accident. First your case must be brought to the community court.

Joshua 21

Towns Are Given to the Levites

[1]The leaders of the Levite family groups approached Eleazar the priest and Joshua, the son of Nun. They also approached the leaders of the family groups of Israel's other tribes. [2]They went to all of them at Shiloh in Canaan. They said to them, "Give us towns to live in. Also give us grasslands for our livestock. That's what the LORD commanded through Moses."

[3]So the Israelites gave the Levites towns and grasslands out of their own shares of land. They did what the LORD had commanded. Here are the towns the Levites were given.

[4]The first lot drawn out was for the people of Kohath, according to their family groups. Some of the Levites came from the family line of Aaron the priest. They were given 13 towns from the tribes of Judah, Simeon and Benjamin.

[5]The rest of Kohath's family groups were given ten towns. Those towns were from the family groups of the tribes of Ephraim and Dan and half of the tribe of Manasseh.

[6]The family groups of Gershon were given 13 towns. Those towns were from the family groups of the tribes of Issachar, Asher and Naphtali and half of the tribe of Manasseh. That part of Manasseh was in the land of Bashan.

[7]The family groups of Merari received 12 towns from the tribes of Reuben, Gad and Zebulun. Each family group received its share.

[8]So the Israelites gave those towns and their grasslands to the Levites. They did what the LORD had commanded through Moses.

[9]Some towns were given from the territories of the tribes of Judah and Simeon. [10]The Israelites gave them to the members of the family line of Aaron. The towns were given to the family groups of Kohath. They were Levites. The first lot drawn out was for them. Here are the towns the family groups of Kohath were given.

[11]The Israelites gave them Kiriath Arba and the grasslands around it. Kiriath Arba is also called Hebron. It's in the hill country of Judah.

Anak came from the family line of Arba. [12]But Israel had already given away the fields and villages around the city. They had given them to Caleb as his share. Caleb was the son of Jephunneh. [13]So they gave Hebron to the members of the family line of Aaron the priest. Hebron was a city where anyone charged with murder could go for safety. They also gave them Libnah, [14]Jattir, Eshtemoa, [15]Holon, Debir, [16]Ain, Juttah and Beth Shemesh. They gave those towns and their grasslands to the family groups of Kohath. The total number of towns from the tribes of Judah and Simeon came to nine.

[17]The Israelites gave some towns from the tribe of Benjamin to the family groups of Kohath.

The towns were Gibeon, Geba, [18]Anathoth and Almon. The total number of these towns and their grasslands came to four.

[19]So the total number of towns and their grasslands given to the priests in Aaron's family line came to 13.

[20]There were other family groups of Kohath among the Levites. They were given towns from the tribe of Ephraim. Here are the towns those other family groups of Kohath were given.

[21]In the hill country of Ephraim they were given

Shechem. It was a city where anyone charged with murder could go for safety. They were also given Gezer, [22]Kibzaim and Beth Horon. The total number of these towns and their grasslands came to four.

[23]From the tribe of Dan they received

Eltekeh, Gibbethon, [24]Aijalon and Gath Rimmon. The total number of these towns and their grasslands came to four.

[25]From half of the tribe of Manasseh they received

Taanach and Gath Rimmon. The total number of these towns and their grasslands came to two.

[26]So all these ten towns and their grasslands were given to the other family groups of Kohath.

[27]Here are the towns given to the family groups of Gershon among the Levites.

From half of the tribe of Manasseh they received
Golan in the land of Bashan. Golan was a city where anyone charged with murder could go for safety. They also received Be Eshterah. The total number of these towns and their grasslands came to two.
28From the tribe of Issachar they received Kishion, Daberath, 29Jarmuth and En Gannim. The total number of these towns and their grasslands came to four.
30From the tribe of Asher they received Mishal, Abdon, 31Helkath and Rehob. The total number of these towns and their grasslands came to four.
32From the tribe of Naphtali they received Kedesh in Galilee. Kedesh was a city where anyone charged with murder could go for safety. They also received Hammoth Dor and Kartan. The total number of these towns and their grasslands came to three.
33So the total number of towns and their grasslands given to the family groups of Gershon came to 13.

34The rest of the Levites were from the family groups of Merari. Here are the towns they were given.

From the tribe of Zebulun they received Jokneam, Kartah, 35Dimnah and Nahalal. The total number of these towns and their grasslands came to four.
36From the tribe of Reuben they received Bezer, Jahaz, 37Kedemoth and Mephaath. The total number of these towns and their grasslands came to four.
38From the tribe of Gad they received
Ramoth in Gilead. Ramoth was a city where anyone charged with murder could go for safety. They also received Mahanaim, 39Heshbon and Jazer. The total number of these towns and their grasslands came to four.
40So the total number of towns given to the family groups of Merari came to 12. That concludes the list of towns the rest of the Levites received.
41The total number of Levite towns and their grasslands in the territory given to Israel came to 48. 42Each of those towns had grasslands around it. That was true of all of them.

43So the LORD gave Israel all the land he had promised to give to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. And Israel took it over. Then they made their homes there.
44The LORD gave them peace and rest on every side. He had promised their people of long ago that he would do that. Not one of Israel's enemies was able to fight against them and win. The LORD handed all their enemies over to them.
45The LORD kept all the good promises he had made to the Israelites. Every one of them came true.

Joshua 22

The Eastern Tribes Return Home

[1]Joshua sent for the tribes of Reuben and Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh. [2]He said to them, “You have done everything that Moses, the servant of the LORD, commanded. You have also obeyed everything I commanded. [3]For a long time now you haven’t deserted the other Israelites. Instead, you have done what the LORD your God sent you to do. You have obeyed him right up to this day. [4]Now the LORD your God has given the other tribes peace and rest. That’s what he promised to do. So return to your homes. They are in the land that Moses, the servant of the LORD, gave you. It’s on the east side of the Jordan River. [5]Be very careful to obey the law that Moses, the servant of the LORD, gave you. He commanded you to love the LORD your God. He told you to live exactly as the LORD wants you to. He told you to obey the LORD’s commands. He told you to remain faithful to the LORD. And he told you to serve the LORD with all your heart and with all your soul.”

[6]Joshua gave the eastern tribes his blessing. Then he sent them home. So they went. [7]Moses had given land in Bashan to half of the tribe of Manasseh. Joshua had given land to the other half of the tribe. He had given it to them along with the other tribes on the west side of the Jordan River. When Joshua sent them home, he blessed them. [8]He said, “Return to your homes. Take your great wealth with you. Return with your large herds of livestock. Take your silver, gold, bronze and iron with you. Return with all the extra clothes you acquired. Divide up the things you have taken from your enemies. Share them with your people.”

[9]So the tribes of Reuben and Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh went home. They left the other Israelites at Shiloh in Canaan. They returned to Gilead. That was their own land. They had acquired it according to the LORD’s command through Moses.

[10]The tribes of Reuben and Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh came to Geliloth. It was near the Jordan River in the land of Canaan. They built a large altar there by the Jordan. [11]The rest of the Israelites heard that the eastern tribes had built the altar. They heard that it had been built on the border of Canaan at Geliloth. It was near the Jordan River on the west side. [12]So the whole community of Israel gathered together at Shiloh. They decided to go to war against the eastern tribes.

[13]The Israelites sent Phinehas the priest to the land of Gilead. Phinehas was the son of Eleazar. They sent him to the tribes of Reuben and Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh. [14]They sent ten of their leaders with him. There was one from each of the tribes of Israel. Each man was the leader of a family group among the larger family groups of Israel.

[15]Those leaders went to the tribes of Reuben and Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh. Those tribes were in the land of Gilead. The leaders said to them, [16]"We're speaking for the LORD's whole community. How could you disobey the God of Israel like this? How could you turn away from the LORD? How could you disobey him by building an altar for yourselves? [17]Don't you remember how we sinned at Peor? The LORD struck us with a plague because of what we did. Up to this day we're still suffering because of that sin. [18]Are you turning away from the LORD now?

"Suppose you disobey the LORD today. If you do, he'll be angry with the whole community of Israel tomorrow. [19]If your own land is 'unclean,' come over to the LORD's land. It's where his holy tent stands. Share our land with us. But don't disobey the LORD. Don't turn against us by building an altar for yourselves. Don't build any altar other than the altar of the LORD our God. [20]Remember what happened to Achan, the son of Zerah. Achan wasn't faithful to the LORD. He took the things that had been set apart to the LORD in a special way to be destroyed. Didn't the whole community of Israel experience the LORD's anger? Achan wasn't the only one who died because of his sin."

[21]Then the tribes of Reuben and Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh replied. They answered the leaders of the family groups of Israel. [22]They said, "The Mighty One, God, the LORD! The Mighty One, God, the LORD! He knows! And we want Israel to know! Have we opposed the LORD? Have we refused to obey him? If we have, don't spare us today. [23]Have we built our own altar so we can turn away from the LORD? Have we built it to offer burnt offerings and grain offerings on it? Have we built it to sacrifice friendship offerings on it? If we have, may the LORD himself hold us accountable.

[24]"No! We built it because we were afraid. Someday your children might speak to our children. We were afraid they might say, 'What do you have to do with the LORD? What do you have to do with the God of Israel? [25]The LORD has made the Jordan River a border between us and you. You people of Reuben! You people of Gad! You don't have anything to do with the LORD.' If your children say that, they might cause our children to stop worshiping the LORD.

[26]"That's why we said to ourselves, 'Let's get ready and build an altar. But let’s not build it to offer burnt offerings or sacrifices on it.’ [27]So just the opposite is true. The altar will be a witness between us and you. It will be a witness between our children and yours after us. It will also be a witness that we will worship the LORD at his sacred tent. We’ll worship him there with our burnt offerings, sacrifices and friendship offerings. Then in days to come your children won’t be able to say to ours, ‘You don’t have anything to do with the LORD.’

[28]“So we said to ourselves, ‘Suppose they say that to us sometime. Or suppose they say it to our children after us. Then we’ll answer, “Look at this altar. It’s exactly like the LORD’s altar. Our people built it. They didn’t build it to offer burnt offerings and sacrifices on it. Instead, they built it to be a witness between us and you.” ’

[29]“We would never refuse to obey the LORD. We would never turn away from him now. We wouldn’t build an altar to offer burnt offerings, grain offerings and sacrifices on it. We wouldn’t use any altar other than the altar of the LORD our God. That altar stands in front of his holy tent.”

[30]Phinehas the priest heard what the tribes of Reuben, Gad and Manasseh had to say. The leaders of the family groups of the community of Israel heard it too. All of them were pleased with what they heard. [31]Phinehas the priest spoke to the tribes of Reuben, Gad and Manasseh. Phinehas was the son of Eleazar. He said, “Today we know that the LORD is with us. That’s because you have been faithful to him in this matter. Now you have saved the Israelites from the LORD’s anger against them.”

[32]Then Phinehas the priest, the son of Eleazar, returned to Canaan. So did the leaders. All of them went back from their meeting with the tribes of Reuben and Gad in Gilead. They brought a report back to the Israelites. [33]The people were glad to hear the report. They praised God. They didn’t talk anymore about going to war against the eastern tribes. And they didn’t talk anymore about destroying the country where the tribes of Reuben and Gad lived.

[34]The tribes of Reuben and Gad gave the altar a name. They called it A Witness Between Us that the LORD is God.

Joshua 23

Joshua Says Goodbye to the Leaders

[1]A long time had passed. The LORD had given Israel peace and rest from all their enemies around them. By that time Joshua was very old. [2]So he sent for all the elders, leaders, judges and officials of Israel. He said to them, “I’m very old. [3]You yourselves have seen everything the LORD your God has done. You have seen what he’s done to all these nations because of you. The LORD your God fought for you. [4]Remember how I’ve given you all the land of the nations that remain here. I’ve given each of your tribes a share of it. It’s the land of the nations I conquered. It’s between the Jordan River and the Mediterranean Sea in the west. [5]The LORD your God himself will drive those nations out of your way. He will push them out to make room for you. You will take over their land, just as the LORD your God promised you.

[6]“Be very strong. Be careful to obey everything written in the Book of the Law of Moses. Don’t turn away from it to the right or the left. [7]Don’t have anything to do with the nations that remain among you. Don’t use the names of their gods for any reason at all. Don’t give your word and make promises in their names. You must not serve them. You must not bow down to them. [8]You must remain true to the LORD your God, just as you have done until now.

[9]“The LORD has driven out great and powerful nations to make room for you. To this day no one has been able to fight against you and win. [10]One of you can chase a thousand away. That’s because the LORD your God fights for you, just as he promised he would. [11]So be very careful to love the LORD your God.

[12]“But suppose you turn away from him. You mix with the people who are left alive in the nations that remain among you. Later, you and they get married to each other. And you do other kinds of things with them. [13]Then you can be sure of what the LORD your God will do. He won’t drive out those nations to make room for you anymore. Instead, they will become traps and snares for you. They will be like whips on your backs. They will be like thorns in your eyes. All that will continue until you are destroyed. It will continue until you are removed from this good land. It’s the land the LORD your God has given you.

[14]“Now I’m about to die, just as everyone else on earth does. The LORD your God has kept all the good promises he gave you. Every one of them has come true. Not one has failed to come true. And you know that with all your heart and soul. [15]Every good thing has come to pass that the LORD your God has promised you. So you know that he can also bring against you all the evil things he has warned you about. He'll do it until he has destroyed you. He'll do it until he has removed you from this good land. It's the land he has given you. [16]Suppose you break the covenant the LORD your God made with you. He commanded you to obey it. But suppose you go and serve other gods. And you bow down to them. Then the LORD will be very angry with you. You will quickly be destroyed. You will be removed from the good land he has given you."

Joshua 24

The Covenant Is Renewed at Shechem

[1]Joshua gathered all Israel's tribes together at Shechem. He sent for the elders, leaders, judges and officials of Israel. They came and stood there in the sight of God.

[2]Joshua spoke to all the people. He said, "The LORD is the God of Israel. He says, 'Long ago your people lived east of the Euphrates River. They worshiped other gods there. Your people included Terah. He was the father of Abraham and Nahor. [3]I took your father Abraham from the land east of the Euphrates. I led him all through Canaan. I gave him many children and grandchildren. I gave him Isaac. [4]To Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. I gave the hill country of Seir to Esau. But Jacob and his family went down to Egypt.

[5]" 'Then I sent Moses and Aaron. I made the people of Egypt suffer because of the plagues I sent on them. But I brought you out of Egypt. [6]When I brought your people out, they came to the Red Sea. The people of Egypt chased them with chariots and with men on horses. They chased them all the way to the sea. [7]But your people cried out to me for help. So I put darkness between you and the people of Egypt. I swept them into the sea. It completely covered them. Your own eyes saw what I did to them. After that, you lived in the desert for a long time.

[8]" 'I brought you to the land of the Amorites. They lived east of the Jordan River. They fought against you. But I handed them over to you. I destroyed them to make room for you. Then you took over their land. [9]Balak, the son of Zippor, prepared to fight against Israel. Balak was the king of Moab. He sent for Balaam, the son of Beor. Balak wanted Balaam to put a curse on you. [10]But I would not listen to Balaam's curses. So he blessed you again and again. And I saved you from his power.

[11]" 'Then you went across the Jordan River. You came to Jericho. Its people fought against you. So did the Amorites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hittites, Girgashites, Hivites and Jebusites. But I handed them over to you. [12]I sent hornets ahead of you. They drove your enemies out to make room for you. That included the two Amorite kings. You did not do that with your own swords and bows. [13]So I gave you a land you had never farmed. I gave you cities you had not built. You are now living in them. And you are eating the fruit of vineyards and olive trees you did not plant.’

14“So have respect for the LORD. Serve him. Be completely faithful to him. Throw away the gods your people worshiped east of the Euphrates River and in Egypt. Serve the LORD. 15But suppose you don’t want to serve him. Then choose for yourselves right now whom you will serve. You can choose the gods your people served east of the Euphrates River. Or you can serve the gods of the Amorites. After all, you are living in their land. But as for me and my family, we will serve the LORD.”

16Then the people answered Joshua, “We would never desert the LORD! We would never serve other gods! 17The LORD our God himself brought us and our parents up out of Egypt. He brought us out of that land where we were slaves. With our own eyes, we saw those great signs he did. He kept us safe on our entire journey. He kept us safe as we traveled through all the nations. 18He drove them out to make room for us. That included the Amorites. They also lived in the land. We too will serve the LORD. That’s because he is our God.”

19Joshua said to the people, “You aren’t able to serve the LORD. He is a holy God. He is a jealous God. He won’t forgive you when you disobey him. He won’t forgive you when you sin against him. 20Suppose you desert the LORD. Suppose you serve the gods that people in other lands serve. If you do, he will turn against you. He will bring trouble on you. He will destroy you, even though he has been good to you.”

21But the people said to Joshua, “No! We will serve the LORD.”

22Then Joshua said, “You are witnesses against yourselves. You have said that you have chosen to serve the LORD.”

“Yes. We are witnesses,” they replied.

23“Now then,” said Joshua, “throw away the statues of the gods that are among you. People from other lands serve those gods. Give yourselves completely to the LORD. He is the God of Israel.”

24Then the people said to Joshua, “We will serve the LORD our God. We will obey him.”

25On that day Joshua made a covenant for the people. There at Shechem he reminded them of its rules and laws. 26He recorded these things in the Book of the Law of God. Then he got a large stone. He set it up in Shechem under the oak tree. It was near the place that had been set apart for the LORD.

27“Look!” he said to all the people. “This stone will be a witness against us. It has heard all the words the LORD has spoken to us. Suppose you aren’t faithful to your God. Then the stone will be a witness against you.”

[28]Joshua sent the people away. He sent all of them to their own shares of land.

Joshua Is Buried in the Promised Land

[29]Then Joshua, the servant of the LORD, died. He was the son of Nun. He was 110 years old when he died. [30]His people buried him at Timnath Serah on his own property. It's north of Mount Gaash in the hill country of Ephraim.

[31]Israel served the LORD as long as Joshua lived. They also served him as long as the elders lived. Those were the elders who lived longer than Joshua did. They had seen for themselves everything the LORD had done for Israel.

[32]The Israelites had brought Joseph's bones up from Egypt. They buried his bones at Shechem in the piece of land Jacob had bought. He had bought it from the sons of Hamor. He had paid 100 pieces of silver for it. Hamor was the father of Shechem. That piece of land became the share that belonged to Joseph's children after him.

[33]Aaron's son Eleazar died. He was buried at Gibeah in the hill country of Ephraim. Gibeah had been given to Eleazar's son Phinehas.

Judges

Judges 1

The Israelites Fight Against the Remaining Canaanites

[1]Joshua died. After that, the Israelites spoke to the LORD. They asked him, “Who of us will go up first and fight against the Canaanites?”

[2]The LORD answered, “The tribe of Judah will go up. I have handed the land over to them.”

[3]Then the men of Judah spoke to their fellow Israelites, the men of Simeon. They said, “Come up with us. Come into the territory Joshua gave us. Help us fight against the Canaanites. Then we’ll go with you into your territory.” So the men of Simeon went with them.

[4]When the men of Judah attacked, the LORD helped them. He handed the Canaanites and Perizzites over to them. They struck down 10,000 men at Bezek. [5]The men of Judah found Adoni-Bezek there. They fought against him. They struck down the Canaanites and Perizzites. [6]But Adoni-Bezek ran away. The men of Judah chased him and caught him. Then they cut off his thumbs and big toes.

[7]Adoni-Bezek said, “I cut off the thumbs and big toes of 70 kings. I made them pick up scraps under my table. Now God has paid me back for what I did to them.” The men of Judah brought Adoni-Bezek to Jerusalem. That’s where he died.

[8]The men of Judah attacked Jerusalem and captured it. They set the city on fire. They killed its people with their swords.

[9]After that, the men of Judah went down to fight against some Canaanites. Those Canaanites were living in the central hill country. They also fought against those living in the Negev Desert and the western hills. [10]Then the men of Judah marched out against the Canaanites living in Hebron. Hebron used to be called Kiriath Arba. The men of Judah won the battle over Sheshai, Ahiman and Talmai. [11]From Hebron they marched out against the people living in Debir. It used to be called Kiriath Sepher.

[12]Caleb said, “I will give my daughter Aksah to be married. I’ll give her to the man who attacks and captures Kiriath Sepher.” [13]Othniel captured it. So Caleb gave his daughter Aksah to him to be his wife. Othniel was the son of Kenaz. He was Caleb's younger brother.

[14]One day Aksah came to Othniel. She begged him to ask her father for a field. When she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her, "What can I do for you?"

[15]She replied, "Do me a special favor. You have given me some land in the Negev Desert. Give me springs of water also." So Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.

[16]Moses' father-in-law was a Kenite. His family went up from Jericho. Jericho was also known as the City of Palm Trees. His family went up with the people of Judah to the Desert of Judah. They went there to live among its people. Those people were living in the Negev Desert near Arad.

[17]The men of Judah marched out with their fellow Israelites, the men of Simeon. They attacked the people of Canaan living in Zephath. They set the city apart to the LORD in a special way to be destroyed. That's why the city was called Hormah. [18]The men of Judah captured Gaza, Ashkelon and Ekron. They also captured the territory around each of those cities.

[19]The LORD was with the men of Judah. They took over the central hill country. But they weren't able to drive the people out of the plains. That's because those people used chariots that had some iron parts. [20]Moses had promised to give Hebron to Caleb. So Hebron was given to Caleb. He drove the three sons of Anak out of it. [21]But the people of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites living in Jerusalem. So to this day they live there with the people of Benjamin.

[22]The tribes of Joseph attacked Bethel. The LORD was with them. [23]They sent men to Bethel to check it out. It used to be called Luz. [24]Those who were sent saw a man coming out of the city. They said to him, "Show us how to get into the city. If you do, we'll see that you are treated well." [25]So he showed them how to get in. The men of Joseph killed the people in the city with their swords. But they spared the man from Bethel. They also spared his whole family. [26]Then he went to the land of the Hittites. He built a city there. He called it Luz. That's still its name to this day.

[27]But the tribe of Manasseh didn't drive out the people of Beth Shan. They didn't drive out the people of Taanach, Dor, Ibleam and Megiddo. And they didn't drive out the people of the settlements that are around those cities either. That's because the Canaanites had made up their minds to continue living in that land. [28]Later, Israel became stronger. Then they forced the Canaanites to work hard for them. But Israel never drove them out completely. [29]The tribe of Ephraim didn't drive out the Canaanites living in Gezer. So the Canaanites continued to live there among them. [30]The tribe of Zebulun didn’t drive out the Canaanites living in Kitron and Nahalol. So these Canaanites lived among them. But the people of Zebulun forced the Canaanites to work hard for them. [31]The tribe of Asher didn’t drive out the people living in Akko and Sidon. They didn’t drive out the people of Ahlab, Akzib, Helbah, Aphek and Rehob. [32]So the people of Asher lived among the Canaanites who were in the land. [33]The tribe of Naphtali didn’t drive out the people living in Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath. So the people of Naphtali lived among the Canaanites who were in the land. The people of Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath were forced to work hard for them. [34]The Amorites made the people of Dan stay in the central hill country. They didn’t let them come down into the plain. [35]The Amorites made up their minds to stay in Mount Heres. They also stayed in Aijalon and Shaalbim. But the power of the tribes of Joseph grew. Then the Amorites were forced to work hard for them. [36]The border of the Amorites started at Scorpion Pass. It went to Sela and even past it.

Judges 2

The Angel of the LORD Warns Israel at Bokim

[1]The angel of the LORD went up from Gilgal to Bokim. There he said to the Israelites, “I brought you up out of Egypt. I led you into this land. It is the land I promised to give to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. At that time I said, ‘I will never break the covenant I made with you. [2]So you must not make a covenant with the people of this land. Instead, you must tear down their altars.’ But you have disobeyed me. Why did you do it? [3]I have said something else. I said, ‘I will not drive out those people to make room for you. They and their gods will become traps for you.’ ”

[4]The angel of the LORD spoke these things to all the Israelites. Then the people wept out loud. [5]So that place was called Bokim. The people offered sacrifices there to the LORD.

The People Disobey the LORD and Lose Their Battles

[6]Joshua sent the Israelites away. Then they went to take over the land. All of them went to their own shares of land. [7]The people served the LORD as long as Joshua lived. They also served him as long as the elders lived. Those were the elders who lived longer than Joshua did. They had seen all the great things the LORD had done for Israel.

[8]Joshua, the servant of the LORD, died. He was the son of Nun. He was 110 years old when he died. [9]His people buried him on his own property at Timnath Heres. It’s north of Mount Gaash in the hill country of Ephraim.

[10]All the people of Joshua’s time joined the members of their families who had already died. Then those who were born after them grew up. They didn’t know the LORD and what he had done for Israel. [11]The Israelites did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. They served gods that were named Baal. [12]They deserted the LORD, the God of their people. He had brought them out of Egypt. But now the Israelites served other gods and worshiped them. They served the gods of the nations that were around them. They made the LORD angry [13]because they deserted him. They served Baal. They also served female gods that were named Ashtoreth. [14]The LORD became angry with the Israelites. So he handed them over to robbers. The robbers stole everything from them. The LORD handed the Israelites over to their enemies all around them. Israel wasn’t able to fight against them anymore and win. [15]When the Israelites went out to fight, the LORD's power was against them. He let their enemies win the battle over them. The LORD had warned them that it would happen. And now they were suffering terribly.

[16]Then the LORD gave them leaders. The leaders saved them from the power of those robbers. [17]But the people wouldn't listen to their leaders. They weren't faithful to the LORD. They served other gods and worshiped them. They didn't obey the LORD's commands as their people before them had done. They quickly turned away from the path their people had taken. [18]When the LORD gave them a leader, he was with that leader. The LORD saved the people from the power of their enemies. He did it as long as the leader lived. The LORD felt very sorry for the people. They groaned because of what their enemies did to them. Their enemies treated them badly. [19]But when the leader died, the people returned to their evil ways. The things they did were even more sinful than the things their people before them had done. They served other gods and worshiped them. They refused to give up their evil practices. They wouldn't change their stubborn ways.

[20]So the LORD became very angry with the Israelites. He said, "This nation has broken my covenant. I made it with their people of long ago. But this nation has not listened to me. [21]Joshua left some nations in the land when he died. I will no longer drive out those nations to make room for Israel. [22]I will use those nations to test Israel. I will see whether Israel will live the way I, the LORD, want them to. I will see whether they will be like their people of long ago. I will see whether they will follow my path." [23]The LORD had let those nations remain in the land. He didn't drive them out right away. He didn't hand them over to Joshua.

Judges 3

[1]The LORD left some nations in the land. He left them to test the Israelites who hadn't lived through any of the wars in Canaan. [2]He wanted to teach the men in Israel who had never been in battle before. He wanted them to learn how to fight. [3]So he left the five rulers of the Philistines. He left the people of Canaan and the people of Sidon. He left the Hivites living in the Lebanon mountains.
They lived in the area between Mount Baal Hermon and Lebo Hamath. [4]The LORD left those nations where they were to test the Israelites. He wanted to see whether they would obey his commands. He had given those commands through Moses to their people of long ago.

[5]So the Israelites lived among the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. [6]They married the daughters of those people. They gave their own daughters to the sons of those people. And they served the gods of those people.

Othniel

[7]The Israelites did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. They forgot the LORD their God. They served gods that were named Baal. They also served female gods that were named Asherah. [8]So the LORD was very angry with Israel. He handed them over to the power of Cushan-Rishathaim, the king of Aram Naharaim. For eight years Israel was under his rule. [9]They cried out to the LORD. Then he provided someone to save them. The man's name was Othniel, the son of Kenaz. He was Caleb's younger brother. [10]The Spirit of the LORD came on Othniel. So he became Israel's leader. He went to war. The LORD handed over to him Cushan-Rishathaim, the king of Aram. Othniel won the battle over him. [11]So the land was at peace for 40 years. Then Othniel, the son of Kenaz, died.

Ehud

[12]Again the Israelites did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. So the LORD gave Eglon power over Israel. Eglon was the king of Moab. [13]He got the Ammonites and Amalekites to join him. All of them came and attacked Israel.
They captured Jericho. Jericho was also known as The City of Palm Trees. [14]For 18 years the Israelites were under the rule of Eglon, the king of Moab.

15 Again the Israelites cried out to the LORD. Then he provided someone to save them. The man's name was Ehud, the son of Gera. Ehud was left-handed.
He was from the tribe of Benjamin. The Israelites sent Ehud to Eglon, the king of Moab. They sent him to give the king what he required them to bring him.
16 Ehud had made a sword that had two edges. It was about a foot and a half long.
He tied it to his right leg under his clothes. 17 Eglon, the king of Moab, was a very fat man. Ehud gave him the gift he had brought. 18 After that, Ehud sent away those who had carried it. 19 When he came to the place where some statues of gods stood near Gilgal, Ehud went back to Eglon. He said, "Your Majesty, I have a secret message for you."

The king said to his attendants, "Leave us!" And all his attendants left him.

20 Then Ehud approached him. King Eglon was sitting alone in the upstairs room of his palace. Ehud said, "I have a message from God for you." So the king got up from his seat. 21 Then Ehud reached out his left hand. He pulled out the sword tied to his right leg. He stuck it into the king's stomach. 22 Even the handle sank in after the blade. Eglon sagged and fell to the floor. Ehud didn't pull out the sword. And the fat closed over it. 23 Ehud went out to the porch. He shut the doors of the upstairs room behind him. Then he locked them.

24 After he had gone, the servants came. They found the doors of the upstairs room locked. They said, "Eglon must be going to the toilet in the inside room of the palace." 25 They waited for a long time. They waited so long they became worried. But the king still didn't open the doors of the room. So they took a key and unlocked them. There they saw their king. He had fallen to the floor and was dead.

26 While Eglon's servants had been waiting, Ehud had gotten away. He passed by the statues of gods and escaped to Seirah. 27 There in the hill country of Ephraim he blew a trumpet. Then he led the Israelites down from the hills.

28 "Follow me," Ehud ordered. "The LORD has handed your enemy Moab over to you." So they followed him down. They took over the only places where people could go across the Jordan River to get to Moab. They didn't let anyone go across. 29 At that time they struck down about 10,000 men of Moab. All those men were strong and powerful. But not even one escaped. 30 That day Moab was brought under the rule of Israel. So the land was at peace for 80 years.

Shamgar

31 After Ehud, Shamgar became the next leader. He was the son of Anath.

Shamgar struck down 600 Philistines with a large, pointed stick used to drive oxen. He too saved Israel.

Judges 4

Deborah

[1]After Ehud died, the Israelites once again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. [2]So the LORD handed them over to the power of Jabin. He was a king in Canaan. He ruled in Hazor. The commander of his army was Sisera. He lived in Harosheth Haggoyim. [3]Jabin used 900 chariots that had some iron parts. He treated the Israelites very badly for 20 years. So they cried out to the LORD for help.

[4]Deborah was a prophet. She was the wife of Lappidoth. She was leading Israel at that time. [5]Under the Palm Tree of Deborah she served the people as their judge. That place was between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim. The Israelites went up to her there. They came to have her decide cases for them. She settled matters between them. [6]Deborah sent for Barak. He was the son of Abinoam. Barak was from Kedesh in the land of Naphtali. Deborah said to Barak, “The LORD, the God of Israel, is giving you a command. He says, ‘Go! Take 10,000 men from the tribes of Naphtali and Zebulun with you. Then lead them up to Mount Tabor. [7]I will lead Sisera into a trap. He is the commander of Jabin’s army. I will bring him, his chariots and his troops to the Kishon River. There I will hand him over to you.’ ”

[8]Barak said to her, “If you go with me, I’ll go. But if you don’t go with me, I won’t go.”

[9]“All right,” Deborah said. “I’ll go with you. But because of the way you are doing this, you won’t receive any honor. Instead, the LORD will hand Sisera over to a woman.” So Deborah went to Kedesh with Barak. [10]There he sent for men from Zebulun and Naphtali. And 10,000 men followed him into battle. Deborah also went with him.

[11]Heber, the Kenite, had left the other Kenites. They came from the family line of Hobab. He was the brother-in-law of Moses. Heber set up his tent by the large tree in Zaanannim near Kedesh.

[12]Sisera was told that Barak, the son of Abinoam, had gone up to Mount Tabor. [13]So Sisera gathered together his 900 chariots that had some iron parts. He also gathered together all his men. He brought them from Harosheth Haggoyim to the Kishon River.

[14]Then Deborah said to Barak, “Go! Today the LORD will hand Sisera over to you. Hasn’t the LORD gone ahead of you?” So Barak went down Mount Tabor. His 10,000 men followed him. 15As Barak’s men marched out, the LORD drove Sisera away from the field of battle. The LORD scattered all of Sisera’s chariots. Barak’s men struck down Sisera’s army with their swords. Sisera got down from his chariot. He ran away on foot.

16Barak chased Sisera’s chariots and army. Barak chased them all the way to Harosheth Haggoyim. All of Sisera’s troops were killed by swords. Not even one was left. 17But Sisera ran away on foot. He ran to the tent of Jael. She was the wife of Heber, the Kenite. Sisera ran there because there was a treaty between Heber’s family and Jabin, the king of Hazor.

18Jael went out to meet Sisera. “Come in, sir,” she said. “Come right in. Don’t be afraid.” So he entered her tent. Then she covered him with a blanket.

19“I’m thirsty,” he said. “Please give me some water.” So Jael opened a bottle of milk. The bottle was made out of animal skin. She gave him a drink of milk. Then she covered him up again.

20“Stand in the doorway of the tent,” he told her. “Someone might come by and ask you, ‘Is anyone in there?’ If that happens, say ‘No.’ ”

21But Heber’s wife Jael picked up a tent stake and a hammer. She went quietly over to Sisera. He was lying there, fast asleep. He was very tired. She drove the stake through his head right into the ground. So he died.

22Just then Barak came by because he was chasing Sisera. Jael went out to meet him. “Come right in,” she said. “I’ll show you the man you are looking for.” So he went in with her. Sisera was lying there with the stake through his head. He was dead.

23On that day God brought Jabin under Israel’s control. He was a king in Canaan. 24Israel’s power grew stronger and stronger against King Jabin. The Israelites became so strong that they destroyed him.

Judges 5

The Song of Deborah

[1]On that day Deborah and Barak sang a song. Barak was the son of Abinoam.
Here is what Deborah and Barak sang.

[2]"The princes in Israel lead the way.
The people follow them just because they want to.
When this happens, praise the LORD!

[3]"Kings, hear this! Rulers, listen!
I will sing to the LORD.
I will praise the LORD in song. He is the God of Israel.

[4]"LORD, you went out from Seir.
You marched out from the land of Edom.
The earth shook. The heavens poured.
The clouds poured down their water.
[5]The mountains shook because of the LORD. He was at Mount Sinai.
They shook because of the LORD. He is the God of Israel.

[6]"The main roads were deserted. So travelers used the winding paths.
That happened in the days of Shamgar, the son of Anath.
It happened in the days of Jael.
[7]Those who lived in the villages of Israel would not fight.
They held back until I, Deborah, came.
I came as a mother in Israel.
[8]War came to the city gates. Then God chose new leaders.
But no shields or spears were seen anywhere.
There weren't any among 40,000 men in Israel.
[9]My heart is with the princes in Israel.
It's with the people who follow them just because they want to.
Praise the LORD!

10 “Some of you ride on white donkeys.
Some of you sit on your saddle blankets.
Some of you walk along the road.
Think about 11 the voices of the singers at the watering places.
They sing about the victories of the LORD.
They sing about the victories of his people who live in Israel’s villages.

“The people of the LORD went down to the city gates.
12 ‘Wake up, Deborah! Wake up!’ they said.
‘Wake up! Wake up! Begin to sing!
Barak, get up!
Son of Abinoam, capture your prisoners!’

13 “The nobles who were left came down.
The people of the LORD
came down to me against the powerful enemy.
14 Some came from the part of Ephraim where some Amalekites lived.
Some from Benjamin were with the people who followed Ephraim.
Captains came down from Makir.
Those who rule like commanders came down from Zebulun.
15 The princes of Issachar were with Deborah.
The men of Issachar were with Barak.
They went into the valley under his command.
In the territories of Reuben, men looked deeply into their hearts.
16 Why did they stay among the sheep pens?
Why did they stay to hear shepherds whistling for the flocks?
In the territories of Reuben, men looked deeply into their hearts.
17 Gilead stayed east of the Jordan River.
Why did Dan stay near the ships?
The men of Asher remained on the coast of the Mediterranean Sea.
They stayed in their safe harbors.
18 The people of Zebulun put their very lives in danger.

So did Naphtali on the hillside fields.

19“Kings came and fought.
The kings of Canaan fought at Taanach by the streams of Megiddo.
But they didn’t carry away any silver.
They didn’t take anything at all.
20From the heavens the stars fought.
From the sky they fought against Sisera.
21The Kishon River swept them away.
The Kishon is a very old river.
My spirit, march on! Be strong!
22The hooves of the horses pounded like thunder.
The powerful horses of our enemies galloped away.
23‘Let Meroz be cursed,’ said the angel of the LORD.
‘Let bitter curses fall on its people.
They did not come to help the LORD.
They did not come to help him against our powerful enemies.’

24“May Jael be the most blessed woman of all.
May the wife of Heber, the Kenite, be blessed.
May she be the most blessed woman of all those who live in tents.
25Sisera asked for water. She gave him milk.
In a bowl fit for nobles she brought him buttermilk.
26Her hand reached out for a tent stake.
Her right hand reached for a hammer.
She hit Sisera. She crushed his head.
She drove the stake right through his head.
27He sank down. He fell at her feet.
He was lying there.
At her feet he sank down. He fell.
He fell where he sank down.
That’s where he died.

28“Sisera’s mother looked out through the window.
From behind the wooden screen she cried out.
‘Why is his chariot taking so long to get here?’ she said.

‘Why can’t I hear the noise of his chariots yet?’
29 Her wisest ladies answer her.
And here’s what she keeps saying to herself.
30 She says, ‘They must be finding riches to bring back.
They must be dividing them up.
Each man is getting a woman or two.
They are giving colorful clothes to Sisera.
The clothes are very beautiful.
He will bring some for me to wear.
The men must be finding many things to bring home.’

31 “LORD, may all your enemies be destroyed.
But may all who love you be like the morning sun.
May they be like the sun when it shines the brightest.”

So the land was at peace for 40 years.

Judges 6

Gideon

[1]The Israelites did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. So for seven years he handed them over to the people of Midian. [2]The Midianites treated the Israelites very badly. That's why they made hiding places for themselves. They hid in holes in the mountains. They also hid in caves and in other safe places.
[3]Each year the people planted their crops. When they did, the Midianites came into the country and attacked it. So did the Amalekites and other tribes from the east. [4]They camped on the land. They destroyed the crops all the way to Gaza.
They didn't spare any living thing for Israel. They didn't spare sheep or cattle or donkeys. [5]The Midianites came up with their livestock and tents. They came like huge numbers of locusts. It was impossible to count the men and their camels.
They came into the land to destroy it. [6]The Midianites made the Israelites very poor. So they cried out to the LORD for help.

[7]They cried out to the LORD because of what the Midianites had done. [8]So he sent a prophet to Israel. The prophet said, "The LORD is the God of Israel. He says, 'I brought you up out of Egypt. That is the land where you were slaves. [9]I saved you from the power of the Egyptians. I saved you from all those who were treating you badly. I drove out the Canaanites to make room for you. I gave you their land. [10]I said to you, "I am the LORD your God. You are now living in the land of the Amorites. Do not worship their gods." But you have not listened to me.' "

[11]The angel of the LORD came. He sat down under an oak tree in Ophrah.
The tree belonged to Joash. He was from the family line of Abiezer. Gideon was threshing wheat in a winepress at Ophrah. He was the son of Joash. Gideon was threshing in a winepress to hide the wheat from the Midianites. [12]The angel of the LORD appeared to Gideon. He said, "Mighty warrior, the LORD is with you."

[13]"Pardon me, sir," Gideon replied, "you say the LORD is with us. Then why has all this happened to us? Where are all the wonderful things he has done? Our people of long ago told us about them. They said, 'Didn't the LORD bring us up out of Egypt?' But now the LORD has deserted us. He has handed us over to Midian."

[14]The LORD turned to Gideon. He said to him, "You are strong. Go and save Israel from the power of Midian. I am sending you."

15"Pardon me, sir," Gideon replied, "but how can I possibly save Israel? My family group is the weakest in the tribe of Manasseh. And I'm the least important member of my family."

16The LORD answered, "I will be with you. So you will strike down the Midianites. You will leave no one alive."

17Gideon replied, "If you are pleased with me, give me a special sign. Then I'll know that it's really you talking to me. 18Please don't go away until I come back. I'll bring my offering and set it down in front of you."

The LORD said, "I will wait until you return."

19Gideon went inside and prepared a young goat. From 36 pounds of flour he made bread without using yeast. He put the meat in a basket. In a pot he put soup made from the meat. Then he brought all of it and offered it to the LORD under the oak tree.

20The angel of God said to Gideon, "Take the meat and the bread. Place them on this rock. Then pour out the soup." So Gideon did it. 21The angel of the LORD had a walking stick in his hand. With the tip of the stick he touched the meat and the bread. Fire blazed out of the rock. It burned up the meat and the bread. Then the angel of the LORD disappeared. 22Gideon realized it was the angel of the LORD. He cried out, "Oh no, my LORD and King, I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face!"

23But the LORD said to him, "May peace be with you! Do not be afraid. You are not going to die."

24So Gideon built an altar there to honor the LORD. He called it The LORD Is Peace. It still stands in Ophrah to this day. Ophrah is in the territory that belongs to the family line of Abiezer.

25That same night the LORD spoke to Gideon. He said, "Get the second bull from your father's herd. Get the one that is seven years old. Tear down the altar your father built to honor the god named Baal. Cut down the pole beside it. The pole is used to worship the female god named Asherah. 26Then build the right kind of altar. Build it to honor the LORD your God. Build it on top of this hill. Then use the wood from the Asherah pole you cut down. Sacrifice the second bull as a burnt offering."

27So Gideon went and got ten of his servants. He did just as the LORD had told him. But he was afraid of his family. He was also afraid of the people in the town. So he did everything at night instead of during the day.

28In the morning the people in the town got up. They saw that Baal's altar had been torn down. The Asherah pole beside it had been cut down. And the second bull had been sacrificed on the new altar that had been built.

[29]They asked each other, “Who did this?”

They looked into the matter carefully. Someone told them, “Gideon, the son of Joash, did it.”

[30]The people in the town spoke to Joash. They ordered him, “Bring your son out here. He must die. He has torn down Baal’s altar. He has cut down the Asherah pole beside it.”

[31]But Joash replied to the angry crowd around him. He asked, “Are you going to stand up for Baal? Are you trying to save him? Those who stand up for him will be put to death by morning! Is Baal really a god? If he is, he can stand up for himself when someone tears down his altar.” [32]That’s why they gave Gideon the name Jerub-Baal on that day. Gideon had torn down Baal’s altar. So they said, “Let Baal take his stand against him.”

[33]All the Midianites and Amalekites gathered their armies together. Other tribes from the east joined them. All of them went across the Jordan River. They camped in the Valley of Jezreel. [34]Then the Spirit of the LORD came on Gideon. So Gideon blew a trumpet to send for the men of Abiezer. He told them to follow him. [35]He sent messengers all through Manasseh’s territory. He called for the men of Manasseh to fight. He also sent messengers to the men of Asher, Zebulun and Naphtali. So all those men went up to join the others.

[36]Gideon said to God, “You promised you would use me to save Israel. [37]Please do something for me. I’ll put a piece of wool on the threshing floor. Suppose dew is only on the wool tomorrow morning. And suppose the ground all around it is dry. Then I will know that you will use me to save Israel. I’ll know that your promise will come true.” [38]And that’s what happened. Gideon got up early the next day. He squeezed the dew out of the wool. The water filled a bowl.

[39]Then Gideon said to God, “Don’t be angry with me. Let me ask you for just one more thing. Let me use the wool for one more test. But this time make the wool dry. And let the ground be covered with dew.” [40]So that night God did it. Only the wool was dry. The ground all around it was covered with dew.

Judges 7

Gideon Wins the Battle Over the Midianites

[1]Early in the morning Jerub-Baal and all his men camped at the spring of Harod. Jerub-Baal was another name for Gideon. The camp of Midian was north of Gideon's camp. It was in the valley near the hill of Moreh. [2]The LORD said to Gideon, "I want to hand Midian over to you. But you have too many men for me to do that. Then Israel might brag, 'My own strength has saved me.' [3]So here is what I want you to announce to the army. Tell them, 'Those who tremble with fear can turn back. They can leave Mount Gilead.' " So 22,000 men left. But 10,000 remained.

[4]The LORD said to Gideon, "There are still too many men. So take them down to the water. There I will reduce the number of them for you. If I say, 'This one will go with you,' he will go. But if I say, 'That one will not go with you,' he will not go."

[5]So Gideon took the men down to the water. There the LORD said to him, "Some men will drink the way dogs do. They will lap up the water with their tongues. Separate them from those who get down on their knees to drink." [6]Three hundred men brought up the water to their mouths with their hands. And they lapped it up the way dogs do. All the rest got down on their knees to drink.

[7]The LORD spoke to Gideon. He said, "With the help of the 300 men who lapped up the water I will save you. I will hand the Midianites over to you. Let all the other men go home." [8]So Gideon sent those Israelites home. But he kept the 300 men. They took over the supplies and trumpets the others had left.

The Midianites had set up their camp in the valley below where Gideon was. [9]During that night the LORD said to Gideon, "Get up. Go down against the camp. I am going to hand it over to you. [10]But what if you are afraid to attack? Then go down to the camp with your servant Purah. [11]Listen to what they are saying. After that, you will not be afraid to attack the camp." So Gideon and his servant Purah went down to the edge of the camp. [12]The Midianites had set up their camp in the valley. So had the Amalekites and all the other tribes from the east. There were so many of them that they looked like huge numbers of locusts. Like the grains of sand on the seashore, their camels couldn't be counted.

[13]Gideon arrived just as a man was telling a friend about his dream. "I had a dream," he was saying. "A round loaf of barley bread came rolling into the camp of Midian. It hit a tent with great force. The tent turned over and fell down flat.”

14His friend replied, “That can only be the sword of Gideon, the son of Joash. Gideon is from Israel. God has handed the Midianites over to him. He has given him the whole camp.”

15Gideon heard the man explain what the dream meant. Then Gideon bowed down and worshiped. He returned to the camp of Israel. He called out, “Get up! The LORD has handed the Midianites over to you.” 16Gideon separated the 300 men into three fighting groups. He put a trumpet and an empty jar into the hands of each man. And he put a torch inside each jar.

17“Watch me,” he told them. “Do what I do. I’ll go to the edge of the enemy camp. Then do exactly as I do. 18I and everyone with me will blow our trumpets. Then blow your trumpets from your positions all around the camp. And shout the battle cry, ‘For the LORD and for Gideon!’ ”

19Gideon and the 100 men with him reached the edge of the enemy camp. It was about ten o’clock at night. It was just after the guard had been changed. Gideon and his men blew their trumpets. They broke the jars that were in their hands. 20The three fighting groups blew their trumpets. They smashed their jars. They held their torches in their left hands. They held in their right hands the trumpets they were going to blow. Then they shouted the battle cry, “A sword for the LORD and for Gideon!” 21Each man stayed in his position around the camp. But all the Midianites ran away in fear. They were crying out as they ran.

22When the 300 trumpets were blown, the LORD caused all the men in the enemy camp to start fighting one another. They attacked one another with their swords. The army ran away to Beth Shittah toward Zererah. They ran all the way to the border of Abel Meholah near Tabbath. 23Israelites from the tribes of Naphtali, Asher and all of Manasseh were called out. They chased the Midianites. 24Gideon sent messengers through the entire hill country of Ephraim. They said, “Come on down against the Midianites. Take control of the waters of the Jordan River before they get there. Do it all the way to Beth Barah.”

So all the men of Ephraim were called out. They took control of the waters of the Jordan all the way to Beth Barah. 25They also captured Oreb and Zeeb. Those men were two of the Midianite leaders. The men of Ephraim killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb. They killed Zeeb at the winepress of Zeeb. They chased the Midianites. And they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon. He was by the Jordan River.

Judges 8

Zebah and Zalmunna

[1]The men of Ephraim asked Gideon, “Why have you treated us like this? Why didn’t you ask us to help you when you went out to fight against Midian?” In anger they challenged Gideon.

[2]But he answered them, “What I’ve done isn’t anything compared to what you have done. Ephraim’s grapes have been gathered. Isn’t what is left over better than all the grapes that have been gathered from Abiezer’s vines? [3]God handed Oreb and Zeeb over to you. They were Midianite leaders. So what was I able to do compared to what you did?” After Gideon had said that, they didn’t feel angry with him anymore.

[4]Gideon and his 300 men were very tired. But they kept on chasing their enemies. They came to the Jordan River and went across it. [5]Gideon said to the men of Sukkoth, “Give my troops some bread. They are worn out. And I’m still chasing Zebah and Zalmunna. They are the kings of Midian.”

[6]But the officials of Sukkoth objected. They said, “Have you already killed Zebah and Zalmunna? Have you cut their hands off and brought them back to prove it? If you haven’t, why should we give bread to your troops?”

[7]Gideon replied, “The LORD will hand Zebah and Zalmunna over to me.
When he does, I’ll tear your skin with thorns from desert bushes.”

[8]From there Gideon went up to Peniel. He asked its men for the same thing.
But they answered as the men of Sukkoth had. [9]So he said to the men of Peniel, “I’ll be back after I’ve won the battle. Then I’ll tear down this tower.”

[10]Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor. They had an army of about 15,000 men. That’s all that were left of the armies of the tribes from the east. About 120,000 men who carried swords had died in battle. [11]Gideon went up the trail the people of the desert had made. It ran east of Nobah and Jogbehah. He attacked the army by surprise. [12]Zebah and Zalmunna ran away. They were the two kings of Midian. Gideon chased them and captured them. He destroyed their whole army.

[13]Then Gideon, the son of Joash, returned from the battle. He came back through the Pass of Heres. [14]He caught a young man from Sukkoth. He asked him about the elders of the town. The young man wrote down for him the names of Sukkoth’s 77 officials. [15]Then Gideon came and said to the men of Sukkoth, “Here are Zebah and Zalmunna. You made fun of me because of them. You said, ‘Have you already killed Zebah and Zalmunna? Have you cut their hands off and brought them back to prove it? If you haven’t, why should we give bread to your tired men?’ ” [16]Gideon went and got the elders of the town. Then he taught the men of Sukkoth a lesson. He tore their skin with thorns from desert bushes. [17]He also pulled down the tower at Peniel. He killed the men in the town.

[18]Then he spoke to Zebah and Zalmunna. He asked, “What were the men like that you killed at Tabor?”

“Men like you,” they answered. “Each one walked as if he were a prince.”

[19]Gideon replied, “Those were my brothers. They were the sons of my own mother. You can be sure that the LORD lives. And you can be just as sure that if you had spared their lives, I wouldn’t kill you.” [20]Then Gideon turned to his oldest son Jether. He said, “Kill them!” But Jether didn’t pull out his sword. He was only a boy. So he was afraid.

[21]Zebah and Zalmunna said, “Come on. Do it yourself. ‘The older the man, the stronger he is.’ ” So Gideon stepped forward and killed them. Then he took the gold chains off the necks of their camels.

Gideon’s Linen Apron

[22]The Israelites said to Gideon, “Rule over us. We want you, your son and your grandson to be our rulers. You have saved us from the power of Midian.”

[23]But Gideon told them, “I will not rule over you. My son won’t rule over you either. The LORD will rule over you.” [24]He continued, “I do ask one thing. I want each of you to give me an earring. I’m talking about the earrings you took from your enemies.” It was the practice of the people in the family line of Ishmael to wear gold earrings.

[25]The Israelites said, “We’ll be glad to give them to you.” So they spread out a piece of clothing. Each of them threw a ring on it from what he had taken. [26]The weight of the gold rings Gideon asked for was 43 pounds. That didn’t include the moon-shaped necklaces the kings of Midian had worn. It didn’t include their other necklaces or their purple clothes. And it didn’t include the gold chains that had been on the necks of their camels. [27]Gideon made an object out of all the gold. It looked like the linen apron the high priest of Israel wore. Gideon placed it in Ophrah. That was his hometown. All the Israelites worshiped it there. They weren’t faithful to the LORD. So the gold object became a trap to Gideon and his family.

Gideon Dies

[28]Israel brought Midian under their control. Midian wasn’t able to attack Israel anymore. So the land was at peace for 40 years. The peace lasted as long as Gideon was living.

[29]Jerub-Baal, the son of Joash, went back home to live. Jerub-Baal was another name for Gideon. [30]He had 70 sons of his own. That’s because he had many wives. [31]And he had a concubine who lived in Shechem. She also had a son by him. Gideon named that son Abimelek. [32]Gideon, the son of Joash, died when he was very old. He was buried in the tomb of his father Joash in Ophrah. Ophrah was in the territory that belonged to the family line of Abiezer.

[33]As soon as Gideon had died, the Israelites began serving and worshiping gods that were named Baal. Israel wasn’t faithful to the LORD. They worshiped Baal-Berith as their god. [34]They forgot what the LORD their God had done for them. He had saved them from the power of their enemies all around them. [35]Jerub-Baal had done many good things for the Israelites. But they weren’t faithful to his family. Jerub-Baal was another name for Gideon.

Judges 9

Abimelek

[1]Abimelek was the son of Jerub-Baal. He went to his mother's brothers in Shechem. He spoke to them and to all the members of his mother's family group. He said, [2]"Speak to all the citizens of Shechem. Tell them, 'You can have all 70 of Jerub-Baal's sons rule over you. Or you can have just one man rule over you. Which would you rather have?' Remember, I'm your own flesh and blood."

[3]The brothers told all of that to the citizens of Shechem. Then the people decided to follow Abimelek. They said, "He's related to us." [4]They gave him 28 ounces of silver. They had taken it from the temple of the god named Baal-Berith. Abimelek used it to hire some men. They were wild and weren't good for anything. They became his followers. [5]Abimelek went to his father's home in Ophrah. There on a big rock he murdered his 70 brothers. All of them were the sons of Jerub-Baal. But Jotham escaped by hiding. He was Jerub-Baal's youngest son. [6]All the citizens of Shechem and Beth Millo came together. They gathered at the stone pillar that was beside the large tree in Shechem. They wanted to crown Abimelek as their king.

[7]Jotham was told about it. So he climbed up on top of Mount Gerizim. He shouted down to them, "Citizens of Shechem! Listen to me! Then God will listen to you. [8]One day the trees went out to anoint a king for themselves. They said to an olive tree, 'Be our king.'

[9]"But the olive tree answered, 'Should I give up my olive oil? It's used to honor gods and people alike. Should I give that up just to rule over the trees?'

[10]"Next, the trees said to a fig tree, 'Come and be our king.'

[11]"But the fig tree replied, 'Should I give up my fruit? It's so good and sweet. Should I give that up just to rule over the trees?'

[12]"Then the trees said to a vine, 'Come and be our king.'

[13]"But the vine answered, 'Should I give up my wine? It cheers up gods and people alike. Should I give that up just to rule over the trees?'

[14]"Finally, all the trees spoke to a bush that had thorns. They said, 'Come and be our king.'

[15]"The bush asked the trees, 'Do you really want to anoint me as king over you? If you do, come and rest in my shade. But if you don't, I will destroy you! Fire will come out of me and burn up the cedar trees of Lebanon!'

16“Did you act in an honest way when you made Abimelek your king? Did you really do the right thing? Have you been fair to Jerub-Baal and his family?
Have you given him the honor he’s worthy of? 17Remember that my father fought for you. He put his life in danger for you. He saved you from the power of Midian. 18But today you have turned against my father’s family. You have murdered his 70 sons on a big rock. Abimelek is only the son of my father’s female slave. But you have made him king over the citizens of Shechem. You have done that because he’s related to you. 19Have you citizens of Shechem and Beth Millo acted in an honest way toward Jerub-Baal? Have you done the right thing to his family today? If you have, may you be happy with Abimelek! And may he be happy with you! 20But if you haven’t, let fire come out from Abimelek and burn you up! And let fire come out from you and burn Abimelek up!”

21Then Jotham ran away. He escaped to a town named Beer. He lived there because he was afraid of his brother Abimelek.

22Abimelek ruled over Israel for three years. 23Then God stirred up trouble between Abimelek and the citizens of Shechem. So they turned against Abimelek. They decided not to follow him anymore. 24God made that happen because of what Abimelek had done to Jerub-Baal’s 70 sons. He had spilled their blood. God wanted to punish their brother Abimelek for doing that. He also wanted to punish the citizens of Shechem. They had helped Abimelek murder his brothers. 25The citizens of Shechem didn’t want Abimelek to be their ruler anymore. So they hid some men on top of the hills. They wanted them to attack and rob everyone who passed by. Abimelek was told about it.

26Gaal and his relatives moved into Shechem. Gaal was the son of Ebed. The citizens of Shechem put their trust in Gaal. 27The people of Shechem went out into the fields. They gathered the grapes. They pressed the juice out of them by stomping on them. Then they held a feast in the temple of their god. While they were eating and drinking, they cursed Abimelek. 28Then Gaal, the son of Ebed, said, “Who is Abimelek? And who is Shechem? Why should we citizens of Shechem be under Abimelek’s rule? Isn’t he Jerub-Baal’s son? Isn’t Zebul his helper? It would be better to serve the family of Hamor. He was the father of Shechem. So why should we serve Abimelek? 29I wish these people were under my command. Then I would get rid of Abimelek. I would say to him, ‘Call out your whole army!’ ”

30Zebul was the governor of Shechem. He heard about what Gaal, the son of Ebed, had said. So he was very angry. 31Zebul secretly sent messengers to Abimelek. They said, “Gaal, the son of Ebed, has come to Shechem. His relatives have come with him. They are stirring up the city against you. [32]So come with your men during the night. Hide in the fields and wait. [33]In the morning at sunrise, attack the city. Gaal and his men will come out against you. Then take that opportunity to attack them.”

[34]So Abimelek and all his troops started out at night. They went into their hiding places near Shechem. Abimelek had separated them into four fighting groups. [35]Gaal, the son of Ebed, had already gone out. He was standing at the entrance of the city gate. He had arrived there just as Abimelek and his troops came out of their hiding places.

[36]Gaal saw them. He said to Zebul, “Look! People are coming down from the tops of the mountains!”

Zebul replied, “You are wrong. Those aren’t people. They are just the shadows of the mountains.”

[37]But Gaal spoke up again. He said, “Look! People are coming down from the central hill. Another group is coming from the direction of the fortune tellers’ tree.”

[38]Then Zebul said to Gaal, “Where is your big talk now? You said, ‘Who is Abimelek? Why should we be under his rule?’ Aren’t these the people you made fun of? Go out and fight against them!”

[39]So Gaal led the citizens out of Shechem. They fought against Abimelek. [40]He chased Gaal from the field of battle. Abimelek chased them all the way to the entrance of the city gate. Many men were killed as they ran away. [41]Abimelek stayed in Arumah. And Zebul drove Gaal and his relatives out of Shechem.

[42]The next day the people of Shechem went out to work in the fields. Abimelek was told about it. [43]So he gathered his men together. He separated them into three fighting groups. Then he hid them in the fields and told them to wait. When he saw the people coming out of the city, he got up to attack them. [44]Abimelek and the men with him ran forward. They placed themselves at the entrance of the city gate. Then the other two groups attacked the people in the fields. There they struck them down. [45]Abimelek kept up his attack against the city all day long. He didn’t stop until he had captured it. Then he killed its people. He destroyed the city. He scattered salt on it to make sure that nothing would be able to grow there.

[46]The citizens in the tower of Shechem heard about what was happening. So they went to the safest place in the temple of the god named El-Berith.

[47]Abimelek heard that they had gathered together there. [48]He and all his men went up Mount Zalmon. He got an ax and cut off some branches. He carried them on his shoulders. He ordered the men with him to do the same thing. “Quick!” he said. “Do what you have seen me do!” [49]So all the men cut branches and followed Abimelek. They piled them against the place where the people had gone for safety. Then they set the place on fire with the people still inside. There were about 1,000 men and women in the tower of Shechem. All of them died.

[50]Next, Abimelek went to Thebez. He surrounded it. Then he attacked it and captured it. [51]But inside the city there was a strong tower. All the people in the city had run to it for safety. All the men and women had gone into it. They had locked themselves in. They had climbed up on the roof of the tower. [52]Abimelek went to the tower and attacked it. He approached the entrance to the tower to set it on fire. [53]But a woman dropped a large millstone on him. It broke his head open.

[54]He quickly called out to the man carrying his armor. He said, “Pull out your sword and kill me. Then people can’t say, ‘A woman killed him.’ ” So his servant stuck his sword through him. And Abimelek died. [55]When the Israelites saw he was dead, they went home.

[56]That’s how God punished Abimelek for the evil thing he had done to his father. He had murdered his 70 brothers. [57]God also made the people of Shechem pay for all the evil things they had done. The curse of Jotham came down on them. He was the son of Jerub-Baal.

Judges 10

Tola

[1]Tola rose up to save Israel. That happened after the time of Abimelek. Tola was from the tribe of Issachar. He was the son of Puah, who was the son of Dodo. Tola lived in Shamir. It's in the hill country of Ephraim. [2]Tola led Israel for 23 years. After he died, he was buried in Shamir.

Jair

[3]Jair became the leader after Tola. Jair was from the land of Gilead. He led Israel for 22 years. [4]He had 30 sons. They rode on 30 donkeys. His sons controlled 30 towns in Gilead. Those towns are called Havvoth Jair to this day. [5]After Jair died, he was buried in Kamon.

Jephthah

[6]Once again the Israelites did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. They served gods that were named Baal. They served female gods that were named Ashtoreth. They worshiped the gods of Aram and Sidon. They served the gods of Moab and Ammon. They also worshiped the gods of the Philistines. The Israelites deserted the LORD. They didn't serve him anymore. [7]So the LORD became very angry with them. He handed them over to the Philistines and the Ammonites. [8]That year they broke Israel's power completely. They treated the Israelites badly for 18 years. The people who did this lived east of the Jordan River. They lived in Gilead. That was the land of the Amorites. [9]The Ammonites also went across the Jordan. They crossed over to fight against the tribes of Judah, Benjamin and Ephraim. Israel was suffering terribly. [10]Then the Israelites cried out to the LORD. They said, "We have sinned against you. We have deserted our God. We have served gods that are named Baal."

[11]The LORD replied, "The Egyptians and Amorites treated you badly. So did the Ammonites and Philistines. [12]And so did the Amalekites and the people of Sidon and Maon. Each time you cried out to me for help. And I saved you from their power. [13]But you have deserted me. You have served other gods. So I will not save you anymore. [14]Go and cry out to the gods you have chosen. Let them save you when you get into trouble!"

[15]But the Israelites replied to the LORD, “We have sinned. Do to us what you think is best. But please save us now.” [16]Then they got rid of the false gods that were among them. They served the LORD. And he couldn’t stand to see Israel suffer anymore.

[17]The Ammonites were called together to fight. They camped in the land of Gilead. Then the Israelites gathered together. They camped at the city of Mizpah. [18]The leaders of Gilead spoke to one another. They said, “Who will lead the attack against the Ammonites? That person will be the ruler of all the people who live in Gilead.”

Judges 11

[1]Jephthah was a mighty warrior. He was from the land of Gilead. His father's name was Gilead. Jephthah's mother was a prostitute. [2]Gilead's wife also had sons by him. When they had grown up, they drove Jephthah away. "You aren't going to get any share of our family's property," they said. "You are the son of another woman." [3]So Jephthah ran away from his brothers. He made his home in the land of Tob. A group of men who weren't good for anything gathered around him there. And they followed him.

[4]Some time later, the Ammonites were fighting against Israel. [5]So the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob. [6]"Come with us," they said. "Be our commander. Then we can fight against the Ammonites."

[7]Jephthah said to them, "Didn't you hate me? Didn't you drive me away from my father's house? Why are you coming to me only when you are in trouble?"

[8]The elders of Gilead replied to him. "You are right," they said. "That's why we're turning to you now. Come with us and fight against the Ammonites. Then you will rule over all of us who live in Gilead."

[9]Jephthah said, "Suppose you take me back to fight against the Ammonites. And suppose the LORD gives me victory over them. Then will I really be your leader?"

[10]The elders of Gilead replied, "The LORD is our witness. We'll certainly do as you say." [11]So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead. And the people made him their leader and commander. He went to Mizpah. There he repeated to the LORD everything he had said.

[12]Then Jephthah sent messengers to the king of Ammon. They asked, "What do you have against me? Why have you attacked my country?"

[13]The king of Ammon answered Jephthah's messengers. He said, "Israel came up out of Egypt. At that time they took my land away. They took all the land between the Arnon River and the Jabbok River. It reached all the way to the Jordan River. Now give it back. Then there will be peace."

[14]Jephthah sent messengers back to the king of Ammon. [15]They said,

> "Here is what Jephthah says to you. Israel didn't take the land of Moab. They didn't take the land of Ammon. [16]When Israel came up out of Egypt, they went through the desert to the Red Sea. From there they went on to Kadesh. [17]Then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom.

They said, ‘Please let us go through your country.’ But the king of Edom wouldn’t listen to them. They sent the same message to the king of Moab. But he refused too. So Israel stayed at Kadesh.

18“Next, they traveled through the desert. They traveled along the borders of the lands of Edom and Moab. They passed along the east side of the country of Moab. They camped on the other side of the Arnon River. They didn’t enter the territory of Moab. The Arnon River was Moab’s border.

19“Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon. He was the king of the Amorites. He ruled in Heshbon. They said to him, ‘Let us pass through your country to our own land.’ 20But Sihon didn’t trust Israel to pass through his territory. Instead, he gathered all his troops together. They camped at Jahaz. And they fought against Israel.

21“Then the LORD, the God of Israel, handed Sihon and his whole army over to Israel. Israel won the battle over them. Amorites were living in the country at that time. And Israel took over all their land. 22Israel captured all the land between the Arnon River and the Jabbok River. It reached from the desert all the way to the Jordan River.

23“The LORD, the God of Israel, has driven the Amorites out to make room for his people. So what right do you have to take it over? 24You will take what your god Chemosh gives you, won’t you? In the same way, we will take over what the LORD our God has given us. 25Are you any better than Balak, the son of Zippor? Balak was the king of Moab. Did he ever argue with Israel? Did he ever fight against them? 26For 300 years Israel has been living in Heshbon and Aroer. They have been living in the settlements around those cities. They have also been living in all the towns along the Arnon River. Why didn’t you take those places back during that time? 27I haven’t done anything wrong to you. But you are doing something wrong to me. You have gone to war against me. The LORD is the Judge. So let him decide our case today. Let him settle matters between the Israelites and the Ammonites.”

28But the king of Ammon didn’t pay any attention to the message Jephthah sent him.

29Then the Spirit of the LORD came on Jephthah. He went across the territories of Gilead and Manasseh. He passed through Mizpah in the land of Gilead. From there he attacked the people of Ammon. 30Jephthah made a promise to the LORD. Jephthah said, “Hand the Ammonites over to me. 31If you do, here’s what I’ll do when I come back from winning the battle. Anything that comes out the door of my house to meet me will belong to the LORD. I will sacrifice it as a burnt offering.”

32Then Jephthah went over to fight against the Ammonites. The LORD handed them over to him. 33Jephthah destroyed 20 towns between Aroer and the area of Minnith. He destroyed them all the way to Abel Keramim. So Israel brought Ammon under their control.

34Jephthah returned to his home in Mizpah. And guess who came out to meet him. It was his daughter! She was dancing to the beat of tambourines. She was his only child. He didn’t have any other sons or daughters. 35When Jephthah saw her, he was so upset that he tore his clothes. He cried out, “Oh no, my daughter! You have filled me with trouble and sorrow. I’ve made a promise to the LORD. And I can’t break it.”

36“My father,” she replied, “you have given your word to the LORD. So do to me just what you promised to do. The Ammonites were your enemies. And the LORD has paid them back for what they did to you. 37But please do one thing for me,” she continued. “Give me two months to wander around in the hills. Let me weep there with my friends. I want to do that because I’ll never get married.”

38“You may go,” he said. He let her go for two months. She and her friends went into the hills. They were filled with sadness because she would never get married. 39After the two months were over, she returned to her father. He did to her just what he had promised to do. And she was a virgin.

So that became a practice in Israel. 40Each year the young women of Israel go away for four days. They do it in honor of the daughter of Jephthah. He was from the land of Gilead.

Judges 12

Jephthah Wins the Battle Over Ephraim

[1]The troops of Ephraim were called out. The troops went across the Jordan River to Zaphon. When they arrived, they said to Jephthah, “You went to fight against the Ammonites. Why didn’t you ask us to go with you? We’re going to burn down your house over your head.”

[2]Jephthah answered, “I and my people were taking part in a great struggle. We were at war with the Ammonites. I asked you for help. But you didn’t come to save me from their power. [3]I saw that you wouldn’t help. So I put my own life in danger. I went across the Jordan to fight against the Ammonites. The LORD helped me win the battle over them. So why have you come up today to fight against me?”

[4]Then Jephthah called the men of Gilead together. They fought against Ephraim. The men of Gilead struck them down. The people of Ephraim had said, “You people of Gilead are nothing but deserters from Ephraim and Manasseh.” [5]The men of Gilead captured the places where people go across the Jordan River to get to Ephraim. Some men of Ephraim weren’t killed in the battle. When they arrived at the river, they would say, “Let us go across.” Then the men of Gilead would ask each one, “Are you from Ephraim?” Suppose he replied, “No.” [6]Then they would say, “All right. Say ‘Shibboleth.’ ” If he said “Sibboleth,” the way he said the word would give him away. He couldn’t say it correctly. So they would grab him. Then they would kill him at one of the places where people go across the Jordan. At that time, 42,000 men of Ephraim were killed.

[7]Jephthah led Israel for six years. Then he died. He was buried in a town in Gilead. Jephthah was from the land of Gilead.

Ibzan, Elon and Abdon

[8]After Jephthah, Ibzan from Bethlehem led Israel. [9]He had 30 sons and 30 daughters. He gave his daughters to be married to men who were outside his family group. He brought in 30 young women to be married to his sons. Those women also came from outside his family group. Ibzan led Israel for seven years. [10]Then he died. He was buried in Bethlehem.

[11]After Ibzan, Elon led Israel. He was from the tribe of Zebulun. Elon led Israel for ten years. [12]Then he died. He was buried in Aijalon. It was in the land of Zebulun.

[13]After Elon, Abdon led Israel. Abdon was the son of Hillel. Abdon was from Pirathon. [14]He had 40 sons and 30 grandsons. They rode on 70 donkeys. Abdon led Israel for eight years. [15]Then he died. He was buried at Pirathon in Ephraim. Pirathon was in the hill country of the Amalekites. Abdon was the son of Hillel.

Judges 13

Samson Is Born

[1]Once again the Israelites did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. So the LORD handed them over to the Philistines for 40 years.

[2]A certain man from Zorah was named Manoah. He was from the tribe of Dan. Manoah had a wife who wasn't able to have children. [3]The angel of the LORD appeared to Manoah's wife. He said, "You are not able to have children. But you are going to become pregnant. You will have a baby boy. [4]Make sure you do not drink any kind of wine. Also make sure you do not eat anything that is 'unclean.' [5]You will become pregnant. You will have a son. The hair on his head must never be cut. That is because the boy will be a Nazirite. He will be set apart to God from the day he is born. He will take the lead in saving Israel from the power of the Philistines."

[6]Then the woman went to her husband. She told him, "A man of God came to me. He looked like an angel of God. His appearance was so amazing that it filled me with great wonder. I didn't ask him where he came from. And he didn't tell me his name. [7]But he said to me, 'You will become pregnant. You will have a son. So do not drink any kind of wine. Do not eat anything that is "unclean." That is because the boy will be a Nazirite. He will belong to God in a special way from the day he is born until the day he dies.' "

[8]Then Manoah prayed to the LORD. He said, "Pardon your servant, Lord. I beg you to let the man of God you sent to us come again. He told us we would have a son. We want the man of God to teach us how to bring up the boy."

[9]God heard Manoah. And the angel of God came again to the woman. He came while she was out in the field. But her husband Manoah wasn't with her. [10]The woman hurried to her husband. She told him, "He's here! The man who appeared to me the other day is here!"

[11]Manoah got up and followed his wife. When he came to the man, he spoke to him. He said, "Are you the man who talked to my wife?"

"I am," he replied.

[12]So Manoah asked him, "What will happen when your words come true? What rules should we follow for the boy's life and work?"

[13]The angel of the LORD answered him. He said, "Your wife must do everything I have told her to do. [14]She must not eat anything that comes from grapevines. She must not drink any kind of wine. She must not eat anything that is ‘unclean.’ She must do everything I have commanded her to do.”

15Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, “We would like you to stay and eat. We want to prepare a young goat for you.”

16The angel of the LORD replied, “Even if I stay, I will not eat any of your food. But if you still want to prepare a burnt offering, you must offer it to the LORD.” Manoah didn’t realize it was the angel of the LORD.

17Then Manoah asked the angel of the LORD a question. “What is your name?” he said. “We want to honor you when your word comes true.”

18The angel replied, “Why are you asking me what my name is? You would not be able to understand it.” 19Manoah got a young goat. He brought it along with the grain offering. He sacrificed it on a rock to the LORD. Then the LORD did an amazing thing. It happened while Manoah and his wife were watching. 20A flame blazed up from the altar toward heaven. The angel of the LORD rose up in the flame. When Manoah and his wife saw it, they fell with their faces to the ground. 21The angel of the LORD didn’t show himself again to Manoah and his wife. Then Manoah realized it was the angel of the LORD.

22“We’re going to die!” he said to his wife. “We’ve seen God!”

23But his wife answered, “The LORD doesn’t want to kill us. If he did, he wouldn’t have accepted a burnt offering and a grain offering from us. He wouldn’t have shown us all these things. He wouldn’t have told us we’re going to have a son.”

24Later, the woman had a baby boy. She named him Samson. As he grew up, the LORD blessed him. 25The Spirit of the LORD began to work in his life. It happened while he was in Mahaneh Dan. That place is between Zorah and Eshtaol.

Judges 14

Samson Marries a Philistine Woman

[1]Samson went down to Timnah. There he saw a young Philistine woman. [2]When he returned, he spoke to his father and mother. He said, “I’ve seen a Philistine woman in Timnah. Get her for me. I want her to be my wife.”

[3]His father and mother replied, “Can’t we find a wife for you among your relatives? Isn’t there one among any of our people? Do you have to go to the Philistines to get a wife? They aren’t God’s people. They haven’t even been circumcised.”

But Samson said to his father, “Get her for me. She’s the right one for me.” [4]Samson’s parents didn’t know that the LORD wanted things to happen this way. He was working out his plans against the Philistines. That’s because the Philistines were ruling over Israel at that time.

[5]Samson went down to Timnah. His father and mother went with him. They approached the vineyards of Timnah. Suddenly a young lion came roaring toward Samson. [6]Then the Spirit of the LORD came powerfully on Samson. So he tore the lion apart with his bare hands. He did it as easily as he might have torn a young goat apart. But he didn’t tell his father or mother what he had done. [7]Then he went down and talked with the woman. He liked her.

[8]Some time later, he was going back to marry her. But he turned off the road to look at the lion’s dead body. He saw large numbers of bees and some honey in it. [9]He dug out the honey with his hands. He ate it as he walked along. Then he joined his parents again. He gave them some honey. They ate it too. But he didn’t tell them he had taken it from the lion’s dead body.

[10]Samson’s father went down to see the woman. Samson had a feast prepared there. He was following the practice of young men when they married their wives. [11]When the people saw Samson, they gave him 30 men to be his companions.

[12]“Let me tell you a riddle,” Samson said to the companions. “The feast will last for seven days. Give me the answer to the riddle before the feast ends. If you do, I’ll give you 30 linen shirts. I’ll also give you 30 sets of clothes. [13]But suppose you can’t give me the answer. Then you must give me 30 linen shirts. You must also give me 30 sets of clothes.”

“Tell us your riddle,” they said. “Let’s hear it.”

[14]Samson replied,

“Out of the eater came something to eat.
Out of the strong came something sweet.”

For three days they couldn’t give him the answer.

[15]On the fourth day they spoke to Samson’s wife. “Get your husband to explain the riddle for us,” they said. “If you don’t, we’ll burn you to death. We’ll burn up everyone in your family. Did you invite us here to steal our property?”

[16]Then Samson’s wife threw herself on him. She sobbed, “You hate me! You don’t really love me. You have given my people a riddle. But you haven’t told me the answer.”

“I haven’t even explained it to my father or mother,” he replied. “So why should I explain it to you?” [17]She cried during the whole seven days the feast was going on. So on the seventh day he finally told her the answer to the riddle. That’s because she kept on asking him to tell her. Then she explained the riddle to her people.

[18]Before sunset on the seventh day of the feast the men of the town spoke to Samson. They said,

“What is sweeter than honey?
What is stronger than a lion?”

Samson said to them,

“You have plowed with my young cow.
If you hadn’t, you wouldn’t have known the answer to my riddle.”

[19]Then the Spirit of the LORD came powerfully on Samson. He went down to Ashkelon. He struck down 30 of their men. He took everything they had with them. And he gave their clothes to those who had explained the riddle. Samson was very angry as he returned to his father’s home. [20]Samson’s wife was given to someone else. She was given to a companion of Samson. The companion had helped him at the feast.

Judges 15

Samson Gets Even With the Philistines

[1]Later on, Samson went to visit his wife. He took a young goat with him. He went at the time the wheat was being gathered. He said, “I’m going to my wife’s room.” But her father wouldn’t let him go in.

[2]Her father said, “I was sure you hated her. So I gave her to your companion. Isn’t her younger sister more beautiful? Take her instead.”

[3]Samson said to them, “This time I have a right to get even with the Philistines. I’m going to hurt them badly.” [4]So he went out and caught 300 foxes. He tied them in pairs by their tails. Then he tied a torch to each pair of tails. [5]He lit the torches. He let the foxes loose in the fields of grain that belonged to the Philistines. He burned up the grain that had been cut and stacked. He burned up the grain that was still growing. He also burned up the vineyards and olive trees.

[6]The Philistines asked, “Who did this?” They were told, “Samson did. He’s the son-in-law of the man from Timnah. Samson did it because his wife was given to his companion.”

So the Philistines went up and burned the woman and her father to death. [7]Samson said to the Philistines, “Is that how you act? Then I promise I won’t stop until I pay you back.” [8]He struck them down with heavy blows. He killed many of them. Then he went down and stayed in a cave. It was in the rock of Etam.

[9]The Philistines went up and camped in Judah. They spread out near Lehi. [10]The people of Judah asked, “Why have you come to fight against us?”

“We’ve come to take Samson as our prisoner,” they answered. “We want to do to him what he did to us.”

[11]Then 3,000 men from Judah went to get Samson. They went down to the cave in the rock of Etam. They said to Samson, “Don’t you realize the Philistines are ruling over us? What have you done to us?”

Samson answered, “I only did to them what they did to me.”

[12]The men of Judah said to him, “We’ve come to tie you up. We’re going to hand you over to the Philistines.”

Samson said, “Promise me you won’t kill me yourselves.”

[13]“We agree,” they answered. “We’ll only tie you up and hand you over to them. We won’t kill you.” So they tied him up with two new ropes. They led him up from the rock. [14]Samson approached Lehi. The Philistines came toward him shouting. Then the Spirit of the LORD came powerfully on Samson. The ropes on his arms became like burned thread. They dropped off his hands. [15]He found a fresh jawbone of a donkey. He grabbed it and struck down 1,000 men.

[16]Then Samson said,

"By using a donkey's jawbone
I've made them look like donkeys.
By using a donkey's jawbone
I've struck down 1,000 men."

[17]Samson finished speaking. Then he threw the jawbone away. That's why the place was called Ramath Lehi.

[18]Samson was very thirsty. So he cried out to the LORD. He said, "You have helped me win this great battle. Do I have to die of thirst now? Must I fall into the power of people who haven't even been circumcised? They aren't your people." [19]Then God opened up the hollow place in Lehi. Water came out of it. When Samson drank the water, his strength returned. He felt as good as new. So the spring was called En Hakkore. It's still there in Lehi.

[20]Samson led Israel for 20 years. In those days the Philistines were in the land.

Judges 16

Samson and Delilah

[1]One day Samson went to Gaza. There he saw a prostitute. He went in to spend the night with her. [2]The people of Gaza were told, “Samson is here!” So they surrounded the place. They hid and waited for him at the city gate all night long. They didn’t make any move against him during the night. They said, “Let’s wait until the sun comes up. Then we’ll kill him.”

[3]But Samson stayed there only until the middle of the night. Then he got up. He took hold of the doors of the city gate. He also took hold of the two doorposts. He tore them loose, together with their metal bar. He picked them up and put them on his shoulders. Then he carried them to the top of the hill that faces Hebron.

[4]Some time later, Samson fell in love again. The woman lived in the Valley of Sorek. Her name was Delilah. [5]The rulers of the Philistines went to her. They said, “See if you can get him to tell you the secret of why he’s so strong. Find out how we can overpower him. Then we can tie him up. We can bring him under our control. Each of us will give you 28 pounds of silver.”

[6]So Delilah said to Samson, “Tell me the secret of why you are so strong. Tell me how you can be tied up and controlled.”

[7]Samson answered her, “Let someone tie me up with seven new bowstrings. They must be strings that aren’t completely dry. Then I’ll become as weak as any other man.”

[8]So the Philistine rulers brought seven new bowstrings to her. They weren’t completely dry. Delilah tied Samson up with them. [9]Men were hiding in the room. She called out to him, “Samson! The Philistines are attacking you!” But he snapped the bowstrings easily. They were like pieces of string that had come too close to a flame. So the secret of why he was so strong wasn’t discovered.

[10]Delilah spoke to Samson again. “You have made me look foolish,” she said. “You told me a lie. Come on. Tell me how you can be tied up.”

[11]Samson said, “Let someone tie me tightly with new ropes. They must be ropes that have never been used. Then I’ll become as weak as any other man.”

[12]So Delilah got some new ropes. She tied him up with them. Men were hiding in the room. She called out to him, “Samson! The Philistines are attacking you!” But he snapped the ropes off his arms. They fell off just as if they were threads.

[13]Delilah spoke to Samson again. “All this time you have been making me look foolish,” she said. “You have been telling me lies. This time really tell me how you can be tied up.”

He replied, “Weave the seven braids of my hair into the cloth on a loom. Then tighten the cloth with a pin. If you do, I’ll become as weak as any other man.” So while Samson was sleeping, Delilah took hold of the seven braids of his hair. She wove them into the cloth on a loom. [14]Then she tightened the cloth with a pin.

Again she called out to him, “Samson! The Philistines are attacking you!” He woke up from his sleep. He pulled up the pin and the loom, together with the cloth.

[15]Then she said to him, “How can you say, ‘I love you’? You won’t even share your secret with me. This is the third time you have made me look foolish. And you still haven’t told me the secret of why you are so strong.” [16]She continued to pester him day after day. She nagged him until he was sick and tired of it.

[17]So he told her everything. He said, “My hair has never been cut. That’s because I’ve been a Nazirite since the day I was born. A Nazirite is set apart to God. If you shave my head, I won’t be strong anymore. I’ll become as weak as any other man.”

[18]Delilah realized he had told her everything. So she sent a message to the Philistine rulers. She said, “Come back one more time. He has told me everything.” So the rulers returned. They brought the silver with them. [19]Delilah got Samson to go to sleep on her lap. Then she called for someone to shave off the seven braids of his hair. That’s how she began to bring Samson under her control. And he wasn’t strong anymore.

[20]She called out, “Samson! The Philistines are attacking you!”

He woke up from his sleep. He thought, “I’ll go out just as I did before. I’ll shake myself free.” But he didn’t know that the LORD had left him.

[21]Then the Philistines grabbed him. They poked his eyes out. They took him down to Gaza. They put bronze chains around him. Then they made him grind grain in the prison. [22]His head had been shaved. But the hair on it began to grow again.

Samson Dies

[23]The rulers of the Philistines gathered together. They were going to offer a great sacrifice to their god Dagon. They were going to celebrate. They said, “Our god has handed our enemy Samson over to us.”

[24]When the people saw Samson, they praised their god. They said,

> “Our god has handed our enemy over to us.
> Our enemy has destroyed our land.
> He has killed large numbers of our people.”

[25]After they had drunk a lot of wine, they shouted, “Bring Samson out. Let him put on a show for us.” So they called Samson out of the prison. He put on a show for them.

They had him stand near the temple pillars. [26]Then he spoke to the servant who was holding his hand. He said, “Put me where I can feel the pillars. I’m talking about the ones that hold up the temple. I want to lean against them.” [27]The temple was crowded with men and women. All the Philistine rulers were there. About 3,000 men and women were on the roof. They were watching Samson put on a show. [28]Then he prayed to the LORD. Samson said, “LORD and King, show me that you still have concern for me. Please, God, make me strong just one more time. Let me pay the Philistines back for what they did to my two eyes. Let me do it with only one blow.” [29]Then Samson reached toward the two pillars that were in the middle of the temple. They were the ones that held up the temple. He put his right hand on one of them. He put his left hand on the other. He leaned hard against them. [30]Samson said, “Let me die together with the Philistines!” Then he pushed with all his might. The temple came down on the rulers. It fell on all the people in it. So Samson killed many more Philistines when he died than he did while he lived.

[31]Then his brothers went down to get him. So did his father’s whole family. All of them brought Samson back home. They buried him in the tomb of his father Manoah. It’s between Zorah and Eshtaol. Samson had led Israel for 20 years.

Judges 17

Micah's False Gods

[1]A man named Micah lived in the hill country of Ephraim. [2]He said to his mother, "Someone took 28 pounds of silver from you. I heard you curse the one who took it. I have the silver with me. I'm the one who took it."

Then his mother said, "My son, may the LORD bless you!"

[3]He gave the 28 pounds of silver back to his mother. She said to him, "I'm making a promise to set apart my silver to the LORD. My son, I want you to use it to cover a statue of a god made out of wood or stone. That's why I'll give the silver back to you."

[4]Micah gave the silver back to his mother. Then she gave five pounds of it to a skilled worker who made things out of silver. He used the silver for the statue. The statue was put in Micah's house.

[5]That same Micah had a small temple. He made a sacred linen apron and some statues of his family gods. He appointed one of his sons to serve as his priest. [6]In those days Israel didn't have a king. The people did anything they thought was right.

[7]A young Levite had been living in land that belonged to the tribe of Judah. He was from Bethlehem in Judah. [8]He left that town to look for some other place to stay. On his way he came to Micah's house. It was in the hill country of Ephraim.

[9]Micah asked him, "Where are you from?"

"I'm a Levite," he said. "I'm from Bethlehem in Judah. I'm looking for a place to stay."

[10]Then Micah said to him, "Live with me. Be my father and priest. I'll give you four ounces of silver a year. I'll also give you clothes and food." [11]So the Levite agreed to live with him. The young man became just like one of Micah's sons to him. [12]Then Micah appointed the Levite to serve as his priest. He lived in Micah's house. [13]Micah said, "Now I know that the LORD will be good to me. This Levite has become my priest."

Judges 18

The People of Dan Make Their Homes in Laish

1 In those days Israel didn't have a king.

And in those days the tribe of Dan was looking for a place where they could make their homes. They hadn't been able to take over their own share of land among the tribes of Israel. 2 So the people of Dan sent out five of their leading men from Zorah and Eshtaol. They told the men to look over the land and check it out. Those men did it for all the people of Dan. Those people told the men, "Go. Check out the land."

So they entered the hill country of Ephraim. They went to the house of Micah. That's where they spent the night. 3 When they came near Micah's house, they recognized a voice. It was the voice of the young Levite. So they turned off the road and stopped there. They asked him, "Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? Why are you here?"

4 The Levite told them what Micah had done for him. He said, "He has hired me. I'm his priest."

5 Then they said to him, "Please ask God for advice. Try to find out whether we'll have success on our journey."

6 The priest answered them, "Go in peace. The LORD is pleased with your journey."

7 So the five men left. They came to Laish. There they saw that the people felt secure. They were living in safety. Like the people in Sidon, they were at peace. Their land had everything they needed. Things were going very well for them. They lived a long way from the people of Sidon. And they didn't think they would ever need help from anyone else.

8 The men returned to Zorah and Eshtaol. Their people asked them, "What did you find out?"

9 They answered, "Come on! Let's attack them! We've seen the land, and it is very good. Aren't you going to do something? Don't wait any longer. Go there and take it over. 10 When you get there, you will find people who aren't expecting anything bad to happen to them. Their land has plenty of room. God has handed it over to you. It's a land that has everything you will ever need."

11 So 600 men from the tribe of Dan started out from Zorah and Eshtaol. They were prepared for battle. 12 On their way they set up camp. Their camp was near Kiriath Jearim in Judah. That's why the place is called Mahaneh Dan to this day. It's west of Kiriath Jearim. [13]From there they went to the hill country of Ephraim. They came to Micah's house.

[14]Then the five men who had looked over the land of Laish spoke to the other members of their tribe. They said, "Don't you know that one of these houses has a sacred linen apron in it? Some statues of family gods are there. That house also has another statue of a god covered with silver. Now you know what to do." [15]So they turned off the road and stopped there. They went to the house of the young Levite. He was at Micah's place. They greeted the young man. [16]The 600 men from Dan stood at the entrance of the gate. They were prepared for battle. [17]The five men who had looked over the land went inside. They took the statue covered with silver. They also took the family gods and the linen apron. During that time, the priest stood at the entrance of the gate. The 600 men stood there with him. They were prepared for battle.

[18]When the five men went into Micah's house and took all those things, the priest spoke to them. He asked, "What are you doing?"

[19]They answered him, "Be quiet! Don't say a word. Come with us. Be our father and priest. You can serve a whole tribe and family group in Israel as our priest. Isn't that better than serving just one man's family?" [20]The priest was very pleased. He took the linen apron and the family gods. He also took the statue of the god that was covered with silver. Then the priest left with the people. [21]They put their little children and their livestock in front of them. They also put everything else they owned in front of them. And they turned and went on their way.

[22]The men who lived near Micah were called together. Then they left and caught up with the people of Dan. That's because Dan's people hadn't gone very far from Micah's house. [23]Those who lived near Micah shouted at them. The people of Dan turned around and asked Micah, "What's the matter with you? Why did you call out your men to fight against us?"

[24]He replied, "You took away the gods I made. And you took away my priest. What do I have left? So how can you ask, 'What's the matter with you?' "

[25]The people of Dan answered, "Don't argue with us. Some of the men may get angry and attack you. Then you and your family will lose your lives." [26]So the people of Dan went on their way. Micah saw that they were too strong for him. So he turned around and went back home.

[27]The people of Dan took what Micah had made. They also took his priest. They continued on their way to Laish. They went there to fight against a people who were at peace and secure. The people of Dan struck them down with their swords. They burned down their city. [28]No one could save those people and their city. They lived a long way from Sidon. And they didn't think they would ever need help from anyone else. Their city was located in a valley near Beth Rehob.

The people of Dan rebuilt the city. Then they made their homes there. [29]They named it Dan. That's because they traced their family line back to Dan. He was a son of Israel. The city used to be called Laish. [30]There the people of Dan set up for themselves the statue of the god that was covered with silver. Jonathan and his sons were priests for the tribe of Dan. Jonathan was the son of Gershom, the son of Moses. Jonathan and his sons were priests until the time when the land was captured. [31]The people of Dan continued to use the statue Micah had made. They used it during the whole time the house of God was in Shiloh.

Judges 19

A Levite and His Concubine

1 In those days Israel didn't have a king.

There was a Levite who lived deep in the hill country of Ephraim. He got a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah. 2 But she wasn't faithful to him. She left him. She went back to her parents' home in Bethlehem in Judah. She stayed there for four months. 3 Then her husband went to see her. He tried to talk her into coming back with him. He had his servant and two donkeys with him. She took her husband into her parents' home. When her father saw him, he gladly welcomed him. 4 His father-in-law, the woman's father, begged him to stay. So the Levite remained with him for three days. He ate, drank and slept there.

5 On the fourth day they got up early. The Levite prepared to leave. But the woman's father said to his son-in-law, "Have something to eat. It will give you strength. Then you can go on your way." 6 So the two of them sat down. They ate and drank together. After that, the woman's father said, "Please stay tonight. Enjoy yourself." 7 The man got up to go. But his father-in-law talked him into staying. So he stayed there that night. 8 On the morning of the fifth day, the Levite got up to go. But the woman's father said, "Have something to eat. It will give you strength. Wait until this afternoon!" So the two of them ate together.

9 Then the man got up to leave. His concubine and his servant got up when he did. But his father-in-law, the woman's father, spoke to him again. "Look," he said. "It's almost evening. The day is nearly over. So spend another night here. Please stay. Enjoy yourself. Early tomorrow morning you can get up and go back home." 10 But the man didn't want to stay another night. So he left. He went toward Jebus. Jebus is also called Jerusalem. The Levite had his two donkeys and his concubine with him. The donkeys had saddles on them.

11 By the time the travelers came near Jebus, the day was almost over. So the servant said to his master, "Come. Let's stop at this Jebusite city. Let's spend the night here."

12 His master replied, "No. We won't go into any city where strangers live. The people there aren't Israelites. We'll continue on to Gibeah." 13 He added, "Come. Let's try to reach Gibeah or Ramah. We can spend the night in one of those places." 14 So they continued on. As they came near Gibeah in Benjamin, the sun went down. 15 They stopped there to spend the night. They went to the city's main street and sat down. But no one took them home for the night.

16That evening an old man came into the city. He had been working in the fields. He was from the hill country of Ephraim. But he was living in Gibeah. The people who lived there were from the tribe of Benjamin. 17The old man saw the traveler in the main street. He asked, “Where are you going? Where did you come from?”

18The Levite answered, “We’ve come from Bethlehem in Judah. We’re on our way to Ephraim. I live deep in the hill country there. I’ve been to Bethlehem. Now I’m going to the house of the LORD. But no one has taken me home for the night. 19We have straw and feed for our donkeys. We have food and wine for ourselves. We have enough for me, the woman and the young man with us. We don’t need anything.”

20“You are welcome at my house,” the old man said. “I’d be happy to supply anything you might need. But don’t spend the night in the street.” 21So the old man took him into his house and fed his donkeys. After the travelers had washed their feet, they had something to eat and drink.

22They were inside enjoying themselves. But some of the evil men who lived in the city surrounded the house. They pounded on the door. They shouted to the old man who owned the house. They said, “Bring out the man who came to your house. We want to have sex with him.”

23The owner of the house went outside. He said to them, “No, my friends. Don’t do such an evil thing. This man is my guest. So don’t do this terrible thing. 24Look, here is my virgin daughter. And here’s the Levite’s concubine. I’ll bring them out to you now. You can have them. Do to them what you want to. But don’t do such a terrible thing to this man.”

25The men wouldn’t listen to him. So the Levite sent his concubine out to them. They forced her to have sex with them. They raped her all night long. As the night was ending, they let her go. 26At sunrise she went back to the house where her master was staying. She fell down at the door. She stayed there until daylight.

27Later that morning her master got up. He opened the door of the house. He stepped out to continue on his way. But his concubine was lying there. She had fallen at the doorway of the house. Her hands were reaching out toward the door. 28He said to her, “Get up. Let’s go.” But there wasn’t any answer. Then he put her dead body on his donkey. And he started out for home.

29When he reached home, he got a knife. He cut up his concubine. He cut her into 12 pieces. He sent them into all the territories of Israel. 30Everyone who saw it spoke to one another. They said, “Nothing like this has ever been seen or done before. Nothing like this has happened since the day the Israelites came up out of Egypt. Just imagine! We must do something! So let’s hear your ideas!”

Judges 20

The Israelites Punish the Tribe of Benjamin

[1]Then all the Israelites came out. They came from the whole land between Dan and Beersheba. They also came from the land of Gilead. All of them gathered together in front of the LORD at Mizpah. [2]The leaders of all the tribes of Israel came. They took their places among the people of God gathered together. There were 400,000 men carrying swords. [3]The tribe of Benjamin heard that the Israelites had gone up to Mizpah. The Israelites said, “Tell us how this awful thing happened.”

[4]So the Levite spoke. He was the husband of the woman who had been murdered. He said, “I and my concubine went to Gibeah in Benjamin. We spent the night there. [5]During the night the men of Gibeah came after me. They surrounded the house. They were planning to kill me. They raped my concubine, and she died. [6]I took my concubine and cut her into pieces. I sent one piece to each part of Israel’s territory. I did it because the men of Gibeah had done a very terrible thing in Israel. [7]All you men of Israel, speak up now. Tell me what you have decided to do.”

[8]All the men got up together. They said, “None of us will go home. Not one of us will return to his house. [9]Here is what we’ll do to Gibeah. We’ll cast lots to tell us how to attack the city. [10]We’ll take ten men out of every 100 from all the tribes of Israel. We’ll take 100 from every 1,000. We’ll take 1,000 from every 10,000. The men we take will get supplies for the army. Then the army will go to Gibeah in Benjamin. They’ll give Gibeah exactly what they should get because of the terrible thing they did in Israel.” [11]So all the men of Israel came together to fight against the city.

[12]The tribes of Israel sent people to carry a message through the whole tribe of Benjamin. They said, “What about this awful crime that was committed among you? [13]Hand over to us those evil men of Gibeah. We’ll put them to death. In that way we’ll get rid of those evil people.”

But the people of Benjamin wouldn’t listen to the other Israelites. [14]They came together at Gibeah from their towns. They came to fight against the other Israelites. [15]Right away the people of Benjamin gathered together 26,000 men from their towns. They were carrying swords. These men were added to the 700 capable young men from Gibeah. [16]Among all these men there were 700 who were left-handed. Each of them could sling a stone at a hair and not miss.

17 Israel gathered 400,000 men together. They were carrying swords. All of them were trained for battle. That number didn't include the tribe of Benjamin.

18 The Israelites went up to Bethel. There they asked God, "Who should go up first and fight against the people of Benjamin?"

The LORD answered, "The tribe of Judah will go first."

19 The next morning the Israelites got up. They set up camp near Gibeah. 20 The Israelites went out to fight against the men of Benjamin. They took up their battle positions against them at Gibeah. 21 The men of Benjamin came out of Gibeah. They killed 22,000 Israelites on the field of battle that day. 22 But the Israelites cheered one another on. They again took up their positions in the places where they had been the first day. 23 The Israelites went and wept in front of the LORD until evening. They asked the LORD, "Should we go up again to fight against the men of Benjamin? They are our fellow Israelites."

The LORD answered, "Go up and fight against them."

24 The Israelites came near the men of Benjamin on the second day. 25 The men of Benjamin came out from Gibeah to oppose them. That time they killed 18,000 more Israelites. All the men who died had been carrying swords.

26 Then all the Israelites, the whole army, went up to Bethel. They sat there and wept in front of the LORD. They didn't eat anything that day until evening. Then they brought burnt offerings and friendship offerings to the LORD. 27 Again the Israelites spoke to the LORD. In those days the ark of the covenant of God was there. 28 Phinehas was serving as priest at the ark. He was the son of Eleazar. Eleazar was the son of Aaron. The Israelites asked, "Should we go up again to fight against the men of Benjamin? They are our fellow Israelites."

The LORD answered, "Go. Tomorrow I will hand them over to you."

29 Then Israel hid some men and had them wait all around Gibeah. 30 They went up to fight against the men of Benjamin on the third day. They took up their positions against Gibeah, just as they had done before. 31 The men of Benjamin came out to fight against them. They were drawn away from the city. They began to wound and kill the Israelites just as they had done before. About 30 men fell in battle. They fell in the open fields and on the roads. One of the roads led to Bethel. The other led to Gibeah. 32 The men of Benjamin said, "We're winning the battle over them, just as we did before." But the men of Israel said, "Let's pull back. Let's draw them away from the city to the roads."

33 All the men of Israel moved away from their places. They took up new battle positions at Baal Tamar. The men who had been hiding charged out. They came from west of Gibeah. [34]Then 10,000 of Israel's capable young men attacked Gibeah. The men of Benjamin didn't realize they were about to be destroyed. The fighting was very heavy. [35]The LORD helped Israel win the battle over Benjamin. On that day the Israelites struck down 25,100 men of Benjamin. All the men who died had been carrying swords. [36]Then the men of Benjamin saw that they had lost the battle.

The men of Israel had moved away from their positions in front of Benjamin. They had depended on the men they had hidden near Gibeah. [37]Suddenly those men who had been hiding rushed into Gibeah. They spread out. Then they killed everyone in the city with their swords. [38]The Israelites had made a plan with those who had been hiding. They had told them to send up a large cloud of smoke from the city. [39]Then the Israelites would turn around and attack.

The men of Benjamin had begun to wound and kill the men of Israel. They had struck down about 30 of them. They had said, "We're winning the battle over them, just as we did the first time." [40]But a large cloud of smoke began to go up from the city. The men of Benjamin turned around. They saw the the whole city going up in smoke. [41]Then the Israelites turned around and attacked them. The men of Benjamin were terrified. They realized they were going to be destroyed. [42]So they ran away from the men of Israel. They ran toward the desert. But they couldn't escape the battle. Other Israelites came out of the towns. There they struck down the men of Benjamin. [43]Here's how it happened. The Israelites had surrounded them. They had chased them and easily caught up with them east of Gibeah. [44]So 18,000 men of Benjamin fell in battle. All of them were brave fighters. [45]Some men of Benjamin turned back. They ran toward the desert to the rock of Rimmon. As they did, the Israelites struck down 5,000 of them along the roads. They kept chasing the men of Benjamin all the way to Gidom. Along the way they struck down 2,000 more.

[46]On that day 25,000 men of Benjamin fell in battle. They had been carrying swords. All of them were brave fighters. [47]But 600 of them turned back. They ran into the desert to the rock of Rimmon. They stayed there for four months. [48]The men of Israel went back to Benjamin. In all the towns they killed the people with their swords. They even killed the animals. So they killed everything they found. They set on fire all the towns they came to.

Judges 21

Wives for the Men of Benjamin

1The men of Israel had made a promise at Mizpah. They had said, “Not one of us will give his daughter to be married to a man from Benjamin.” 2The people went to Bethel. They sat there until evening in front of God. They wept loudly and bitterly. 3“LORD, you are the God of Israel,” they cried. “Why has this happened to Israel? Why is one tribe missing from Israel today?” 4Early the next day the people built an altar. They brought burnt offerings and friendship offerings.
5Then the Israelites asked, “Has anyone failed to come here in front of the LORD? Is anyone missing from all the tribes of Israel?” The people had made a promise. They had said that anyone who failed to come to Mizpah in front of the LORD must be put to death.
6The Israelites were very sad because of what had happened to the tribe of Benjamin. After all, they were their fellow Israelites. “Today one tribe has been cut off from Israel,” they said. 7“How can we provide wives for the men who are left? We’ve made a promise in front of the LORD. We’ve promised not to give any of our daughters to be married to them.” 8Then they asked, “Has any tribe of Israel failed to come here to Mizpah in front of the LORD?” They discovered that no one from Jabesh Gilead had come. No one from there had gathered together with the others in the camp. 9They counted the people. They found that none of the people of Jabesh Gilead had come to Mizpah.
10So the community sent 12,000 fighting men to Jabesh Gilead. They directed them to take their swords and kill those living there. That included the women and children. 11“Here is what you must do,” they said. “Kill every male. Also kill every woman who is not a virgin.” 12They found 400 young women in Jabesh Gilead who had never slept with a man. So they took them to the camp at Shiloh in Canaan.
13Then the whole community sent an offer of peace to the men of Benjamin.
The men were at the rock of Rimmon. 14So the men of Benjamin returned at that time. They were given the women of Jabesh Gilead who had been spared. But there weren’t enough women for all of them.
15The people were very sad because of what had happened to the tribe of Benjamin. The LORD had left a gap in the tribes of Israel. They weren’t complete without Benjamin. [16]The elders of the community spoke up. They said, “All the women of Benjamin have been wiped out. So how will we find wives for the men who are left? [17]The men of Benjamin who are still alive need to have children,” they said. “If they don’t, a tribe of Israel will be wiped out. [18]But we can’t give them our daughters to be their wives. We Israelites have made a promise. We’ve said, ‘May anyone who gives a wife to a man from Benjamin be under the LORD’s curse.’ [19]Look, a feast is celebrated every year in Shiloh to honor the LORD. Shiloh is north of Bethel. It’s east of the road that goes from Bethel to Shechem. It’s south of Lebonah.”

[20]So they told the men of Benjamin what to do. They said, “Go. Hide in the vineyards [21]and watch. The young women of Shiloh will come out. They’ll join in the dancing. When they do, run out of the vineyards. Each of you grab a young woman from Shiloh to be your wife. Then return to the land of Benjamin. [22]Their fathers or brothers might not be happy with what we’re doing. If they aren’t, we’ll say to them, ‘Do us a favor. Help the men of Benjamin. We didn’t get wives for them during the battle. You aren’t guilty of doing anything wrong. After all, you didn’t give your daughters to them. Your daughters were stolen from you.’ ”

[23]So that’s what the men of Benjamin did. While the young women were dancing, each man caught one. He carried her away to be his wife. Then the men returned to their own share of land. They built the towns again. They made their homes in them.

[24]At that time the Israelites also left. They went home to their tribes and family groups. Each one went to his own share of land.

[25]In those days Israel didn’t have a king. The people did anything they thought was right.

Ruth

Ruth 1

Naomi Loses Her Husband and Sons

[1]There was a time when Israel didn't have kings to rule over them. But they had leaders to help them. This is a story about some things that happened during that time. There wasn't enough food in the land of Judah. So a man went to live for a while in the country of Moab. He was from Bethlehem in Judah. His wife and two sons went with him. [2]The man's name was Elimelek. His wife's name was Naomi. The names of his two sons were Mahlon and Kilion. They were from the tribe of Ephraim. Their home had been in Bethlehem in Judah. They went to Moab and lived there.

[3]Naomi's husband Elimelek died. So she was left with her two sons. [4]They married women from Moab. One was named Orpah. The other was named Ruth. Naomi's family lived in Moab for about ten years. [5]Then Mahlon and Kilion also died. So Naomi was left without her two sons and her husband.

Naomi and Ruth Return to Bethlehem

[6]While Naomi was in Moab, she heard that the LORD had helped his people. He had begun to provide food for them again. So Naomi and her two daughters-in-law prepared to go from Moab back to her home. [7]She left the place where she had been living. Her daughters-in-law went with her. They started out on the road that would take them back to the land of Judah.

[8]Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Both of you go back. Each of you go to your own mother's home. You were kind to your husbands, who have died. You have also been kind to me. So may the LORD be just as kind to you. [9]May the LORD help each of you find rest in the home of another husband."

Then she kissed them goodbye. They broke down and wept loudly. [10]They said to her, "We'll go back to your people with you."

[11]But Naomi said, "Go home, my daughters. Why would you want to come with me? Am I going to have any more sons who could become your husbands? [12]Go home, my daughters. I'm too old to have another husband. Suppose I thought there was still some hope for me. Suppose I married a man tonight. And later I had sons by him. [13]Would you wait until they grew up? Would you stay single until you could marry them? No, my daughters. My life is more bitter than yours. The LORD's power has turned against me!"

14When they heard that, they broke down and wept again. Then Orpah kissed her mother-in-law goodbye. But Ruth held on to her.

15"Look," said Naomi. "Your sister-in-law is going back to her people and her gods. Go back with her."

16But Ruth replied, "Don't try to make me leave you and go back. Where you go I'll go. Where you stay I'll stay. Your people will be my people. Your God will be my God. 17Where you die I'll die. And there my body will be buried. I won't let even death separate you from me. If I do, may the LORD punish me greatly." 18Naomi realized that Ruth had made up her mind to go with her. So she stopped trying to make her go back.

19The two women continued on their way. At last they arrived in Bethlehem. The whole town was stirred up because of them. The women in the town asked, "Can this possibly be Naomi?"

20"Don't call me Naomi," she told them. "Call me Mara. The Mighty One has made my life very bitter. 21I was full when I went away. But the LORD has brought me back empty. So why are you calling me Naomi? The LORD has made me suffer. The Mighty One has brought trouble on me."

22So Naomi returned from Moab. Ruth, her daughter-in-law from Moab, came with her. They arrived in Bethlehem just when people were beginning to harvest the barley.

Ruth 2

Ruth Meets Boaz in the Grain Field

[1]Naomi had a relative on her husband's side of the family. The relative's name was Boaz. He was a very important man from the family of Elimelek.

[2]Ruth, who was from Moab, spoke to Naomi. Ruth said, "Let me go out to the fields. I'll pick up the grain that has been left. I'll do it behind anyone who is pleased with me."

Naomi said to her, "My daughter, go ahead." [3]So Ruth went out to a field and began to pick up grain. She worked behind those cutting and gathering the grain. As it turned out, she was working in a field that belonged to Boaz. He was from the family of Elimelek.

[4]Just then Boaz arrived from Bethlehem. He greeted those cutting and gathering the grain. He said, "May the LORD be with you!"

"And may the LORD bless you!" they replied.

[5]Boaz spoke to the man in charge of his workers. He asked, "Who does that young woman belong to?"

[6]The man replied, "She's from Moab. She came back from there with Naomi. [7]The young woman said, 'Please let me walk behind the workers. Let me pick up the grain that is left.' She came into the field. She has kept on working here from morning until now. She took only one short rest in the shade."

[8]So Boaz said to Ruth, "Dear woman, listen to me. Don't pick up grain in any other field. Don't go anywhere else. Stay here with the women who work for me. [9]Keep your eye on the field where the men are cutting grain. Walk behind the women who are gathering it. Pick up the grain that is left. I've told the men not to bother you. When you are thirsty, go and get a drink. Take water from the jars the men have filled."

[10]When Ruth heard that, she bowed down with her face to the ground. She asked him, "Why are you being so kind to me? In fact, why are you even noticing me? I'm from another country."

[11]Boaz replied, "I've been told all about you. I've heard about everything you have done for your mother-in-law since your husband died. I know that you left your father and mother. I know that you left your country. You came to live with people you didn't know before. [12]May the LORD reward you for what you have done. May the LORD, the God of Israel, bless you richly. You have come to him to find safety under his care.”

13“Sir, I hope you will continue to be kind to me,” Ruth said. “You have made me feel safe. You have spoken kindly to me. And I’m not even as important as one of your servants!”

14When it was time to eat, Boaz spoke to Ruth again. “Come over here,” he said. “Have some bread. Dip it in the wine vinegar.”

She sat down with the workers. Then Boaz offered her some grain that had been cooked. She ate all she wanted. She even had some left over. 15Ruth got up to pick up more grain. Then Boaz gave orders to his men. He said, “Let her take some stalks from what the women have tied up. Don’t tell her she can’t. 16Even pull out some stalks for her. Leave them for her to pick up. Don’t tell her she shouldn’t do it.”

17So Ruth picked up grain in the field until evening. Then she separated the barley from the straw. The barley weighed 30 pounds. 18She carried it back to town. Her mother-in-law saw how much she had gathered. Ruth also brought out the food left over from the lunch Boaz had given her. She gave it to Naomi.

19Her mother-in-law asked her, “Where did you pick up grain today? Where did you work? May the man who noticed you be blessed!”

Then Ruth told her about the man whose field she had worked in. “The name of the man I worked with today is Boaz,” she said.

20“May the LORD bless him!” Naomi said to her daughter-in-law. “The LORD is still being kind to those who are living and those who are dead.” She continued, “That man is a close relative of ours. He’s one of our family protectors.”

21Then Ruth, who was from Moab, said, “He told me more. He even said, ‘Stay with my workers until they have finished bringing in all my grain.’ ”

22Naomi replied to her daughter-in-law Ruth. She said, “That will be good for you, my daughter. Go with the women who work for him. You might be harmed if you go to someone else’s field.”

23So Ruth stayed close to the women who worked for Boaz as she picked up grain. She worked until the time when all the barley and wheat had been harvested. And she lived with her mother-in-law.

Ruth 3

Ruth and Boaz at the Threshing Floor

[1]One day Ruth's mother-in-law Naomi spoke to her. She said, "My daughter, I must find a home for you. It should be a place where you will be provided for. [2]You have been working with the women who work for Boaz. He's a relative of ours. Tonight he'll be separating the straw from his barley on the threshing floor. [3]So wash yourself. Put on some perfume. And put on your best clothes. Then go down to the threshing floor. But don't let Boaz know you are there. Wait until he has finished eating and drinking. [4]Notice where he lies down. Then go over and uncover his feet. Lie down there. He'll tell you what to do."

[5]"I'll do everything you say," Ruth answered. [6]So she went down to the threshing floor. She did everything her mother-in-law had told her to do.

[7]When Boaz had finished eating and drinking, he was in a good mood. He went over to lie down at the far end of the grain pile. Then Ruth approached quietly. She uncovered his feet and lay down there. [8]In the middle of the night, something surprised Boaz and woke him up. He turned and found a woman lying there at his feet!

[9]"Who are you?" he asked.

"I'm Ruth," she said. "You are my family protector. So take good care of me by making me your wife."

[10]"Dear woman, may the LORD bless you," he replied. "You are showing even more kindness now than you did earlier. You didn't run after the younger men, whether they were rich or poor. [11]Dear woman, don't be afraid. I'll do for you everything you ask. All the people of my town know that you are an excellent woman. [12]It's true that I'm a relative of yours. But there's a family protector who is more closely related to you than I am. [13]So stay here for the night. In the morning if he wants to help you, good. Let him help you. But if he doesn't want to, then I'll do it. You can be sure that the LORD lives. And you can be just as sure that I'll help you. Lie down here until morning."

[14]So she stayed at his feet until morning. But she got up before anyone could be recognized. Boaz thought, "No one must know that a woman came to the threshing floor."

[15]He said to Ruth, "Bring me the coat you have around you. Hold it out." So she did. He poured more than fifty pounds of barley into it and helped her pick it up. Then he went back to town.

[16]Ruth came to her mother-in-law. Naomi asked, “How did it go, my daughter?”

Then Ruth told her everything Boaz had done for her. [17]She said, “He gave me all this barley. He said, ‘Don’t go back to your mother-in-law with your hands empty.’ ”

[18]Naomi said, “My daughter, sit down until you find out what happens. The man won’t rest until he settles the whole matter today.”

Ruth 4

Boaz Marries Ruth

[1]Boaz went up to the town gate and sat down there. Right then, the family protector he had talked about came by. Then Boaz said, “Come over here, my friend. Sit down.” So the man went over and sat down.

[2]Boaz brought ten of the elders of the town together. He said, “Sit down here.” So they did. [3]Then he spoke to the family protector. He said, “Naomi has come back from Moab. She’s selling the piece of land that belonged to our relative Elimelek. [4]I thought I should bring the matter to your attention. I suggest that you buy the land. Buy it while those sitting here and the elders of my people are looking on as witnesses. If you are willing to buy it back, do it. But if you aren’t, tell me. Then I’ll know. No one has the right to buy it back except you. And I’m next in line.”

“I’ll buy it,” he said.

[5]Then Boaz said, “When you buy the property from Naomi, you must also marry Ruth. She is from Moab and is the dead man’s widow. So you must marry her. That’s because his property must continue to belong to his family.”

[6]When the family protector heard that, he said, “Then I can’t buy the land. If I did, I might put my own property in danger. So you buy it. I can’t do it.”

[7]In earlier times in Israel, there was a certain practice. It was used when family land was bought back and changed owners. The practice made the sale final. One person would take his sandal off and give it to the other. That was how people in Israel showed that a business matter had been settled.

[8]So the family protector said to Boaz, “Buy it yourself.” And he took his sandal off.

[9]Then Boaz said to the elders and all the people, “Today you are witnesses. You have seen that I have bought land from Naomi. I have bought all the property that had belonged to Elimelek, Kilion and Mahlon. [10]I’ve also taken Ruth, who is from Moab, to become my wife. She is Mahlon’s widow. I’ve decided to marry her so the dead man’s name will stay with his property. Now his name won’t disappear from his family line or from his hometown. Today you are witnesses!”

[11]Then the elders and all the people at the gate said, “We are witnesses. The woman is coming into your home. May the LORD make her like Rachel and Leah. Together they built up the family of Israel. May you be an important person in Ephrathah. May you be famous in Bethlehem. [12]The LORD will give you children through this young woman. May your family be like the family of Perez. He was the son Tamar had by Judah.”

Naomi Gains a Son

[13]So Boaz married Ruth. Then he slept with her. The LORD blessed her so that she became pregnant. And she had a son. [14]The women said to Naomi, “We praise the LORD. Today he has provided a family protector for you. May this child become famous all over Israel! [15]He will make your life new again. He’ll take care of you when you are old. He’s the son of your very own daughter-in-law. She loves you. She is better to you than seven sons.”

[16]Then Naomi took the child in her arms and took care of him. [17]The women living there said, “Naomi has a son!” They named him Obed. He was the father of Jesse. Jesse was the father of David.

[18]Here is the family line of Perez.

Perez was the father of Hezron.
[19]Hezron was the father of Ram.
Ram was the father of Amminadab.
[20]Amminadab was the father of Nahshon.
Nahshon was the father of Salmon.
[21]Salmon was the father of Boaz.
Boaz was the father of Obed.
[22]Obed was the father of Jesse.
And Jesse was the father of David.

1 Samuel

1 Samuel 1

Samuel Is Born

[1]A certain man from Ramathaim in the hill country of Ephraim was named Elkanah. He was the son of Jeroham. Jeroham was the son of Elihu. Elihu was the son of Tohu. Tohu was the son of Zuph. Elkanah belonged to the family line of Zuph. Elkanah lived in the territory of Ephraim. [2]Elkanah had two wives. One was named Hannah. The other was named Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah didn't.

[3]Year after year Elkanah went up from his town to Shiloh. He went there to worship and sacrifice to the LORD who rules over all. Hophni and Phinehas served as priests of the LORD at Shiloh. They were the two sons of Eli. [4]Every year at Shiloh, the day would come for Elkanah to offer a sacrifice. On that day, he would give a share of the meat to his wife Peninnah. He would also give a share to each of her sons and daughters. [5]But he would give two shares of meat to Hannah. That's because he loved her. He also gave her two shares because the LORD had kept her from having children. [6]Peninnah teased Hannah to make her angry. She did it because the LORD had kept Hannah from having children. [7]Peninnah teased Hannah year after year. Every time Hannah would go up to the house of the LORD, Elkanah's other wife would tease her. She would keep doing it until Hannah cried and wouldn't eat. [8]Her husband Elkanah would say to her, "Hannah, why are you crying? Why don't you eat? Why are you so unhappy? Don't I mean more to you than ten sons?"

[9]One time when they had finished eating and drinking in Shiloh, Hannah stood up. Eli the priest was sitting on his chair by the doorpost of the LORD's house. [10]Hannah was very sad. She wept and wept. She prayed to the LORD. [11]She made a promise to him. She said, "LORD, you rule over all. Please see how I'm suffering! Show concern for me! Don't forget about me! Please give me a son! If you do, I'll give him back to the LORD. Then he will serve the LORD all the days of his life. He'll never use a razor on his head. He'll never cut his hair."

[12]As Hannah kept on praying to the LORD, Eli watched her lips. [13]She was praying in her heart. Her lips were moving. But she wasn't making a sound. Eli thought Hannah was drunk. [14]He said to her, “How long are you going to stay drunk? Stop drinking your wine.”

[15]“That’s not true, sir,” Hannah replied. “I’m a woman who is deeply troubled. I haven’t been drinking wine or beer. I was telling the LORD all my troubles. [16]Don’t think of me as an evil woman. I’ve been praying here because I’m very sad. My pain is so great.”

[17]Eli answered, “Go in peace. May the God of Israel give you what you have asked him for.”

[18]She said, “May you be pleased with me.” Then she left and had something to eat. Her face wasn’t sad anymore.

[19]Early the next morning Elkanah and his family got up. They worshiped the LORD. Then they went back to their home in Ramah. Elkanah slept with his wife Hannah. And the LORD blessed her. [20]So after some time, Hannah became pregnant. She had a baby boy. She said, “I asked the LORD for him.” So she named him Samuel.

Hannah Gives Samuel to the LORD

[21]Elkanah went up to Shiloh to offer the yearly sacrifice to the LORD. He also went there to keep a promise he had made. His whole family went with him. [22]But Hannah didn’t go. She said to her husband, “When the boy doesn’t need me to breast-feed him anymore, I’ll take him to the LORD’s house. I’ll give him to the LORD there. He’ll stay there for the rest of his life.”

[23]Her husband Elkanah told her, “Do what you think is best. Stay here at home until Samuel doesn’t need you to breast-feed him anymore. May the LORD make his promise to you come true.” So Hannah stayed home. She breast-fed her son until he didn’t need her milk anymore.

[24]When the boy didn’t need her to breast-feed him anymore, she took him with her to Shiloh. She took him there even though he was still very young. She brought him to the LORD’s house. She brought along a bull that was three years old. She brought 36 pounds of flour. She also brought a bottle of wine. The bottle was made out of animal skin. [25]After the bull was sacrificed, Elkanah and Hannah brought the boy to Eli. [26]Hannah said to Eli, “Pardon me, sir. I’m the woman who stood here beside you praying to the LORD. And that’s just as sure as you are alive. [27]I prayed for this child. The LORD has given me what I asked him for. [28]So now I’m giving him to the LORD. As long as he lives he’ll be given to the LORD.” And there Eli worshiped the LORD.

1 Samuel 2

Hannah's Prayer

[1]Then Hannah prayed. She said,

"The LORD has filled my heart with joy.
He has made me strong.
I can laugh at my enemies.
I'm so glad he saved me.

[2]"There isn't anyone holy like the LORD.
There isn't anyone except him.
There isn't any Rock like our God.

[3]"Don't keep talking so proudly.
Don't let your mouth say such proud things.
The LORD is a God who knows everything.
He judges everything people do.

[4]"The bows of great heroes are broken.
But those who trip and fall are made strong.
[5]Those who used to be full have to work for food.
But those who used to be hungry aren't hungry anymore.
The woman who couldn't have children has seven of them now.
But the woman who has had many children is sad now because hers have died.

[6]"The LORD causes people to die. He also gives people life.
He brings people down to the grave. He also brings people up from death.
[7]The LORD makes people poor. He also makes people rich.
He brings people down. He also lifts people up.
[8]He raises poor people up from the trash pile.
He lifts needy people out of the ashes.
He lets them sit with princes.
He gives them places of honor.

“The foundations of the earth belong to the LORD.
On them he has set the world.
9He guards the paths of his faithful servants.
But evil people will lie silent in their dark graves.

“People don’t win just because they are strong.
10Those who oppose the LORD will be totally destroyed.
The Most High God will thunder from heaven.
The LORD will judge the earth from one end to the other.

“He will give power to his king.
He will give honor to his anointed one.”

11Then Elkanah went home to Ramah. But the boy Samuel served the LORD under the direction of Eli the priest.

Eli’s Evil Sons

12Eli’s sons were good for nothing. They didn’t honor the LORD. 13When any of the people came to offer a sacrifice, here is what the priests would do. While the meat was being boiled, the servant of the priest would come with a large fork in his hand. 14He would stick the fork into the pan or pot or small or large kettle. Then the priest would take for himself everything the fork brought up. That’s how Eli’s sons treated all the Israelites who came to Shiloh. 15Even before the fat was burned, the priest’s servant would come over. He would speak to the person who was offering the sacrifice. He would say, “Give the priest some meat to cook. He won’t accept boiled meat from you. He’ll only accept raw meat.”

16Sometimes the person would say to him, “Let the fat be burned first. Then take what you want.” But the servant would answer, “No. Hand it over right now. If you don’t, I’ll take it away from you by force.”

17That sin of Eli’s sons was very great in the LORD’s sight. That’s because they were not treating his offering with respect.

18But the boy Samuel served the LORD. He wore a sacred linen apron. 19Each year his mother made him a little robe. She took it to him when she went up to Shiloh with her husband. She did it when her husband went to offer the yearly sacrifice. 20Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife. He would say, “May the LORD give you children by this woman. May they take the place of the boy she prayed for and gave to the LORD.” Then they would go home. 21The LORD was gracious to Hannah. Over a period of years she had three more sons and two daughters. During that whole time the boy Samuel grew up serving the LORD.

22Eli was very old. He kept hearing about everything his sons were doing to all the Israelites. He also heard how his sons were sleeping with the women who served at the entrance to the tent of meeting. 23So Eli said to his sons, “Why are you doing these things? All the people are telling me about the evil things you are doing. 24No, my sons. The report I hear isn’t good. And it’s spreading among the LORD’s people. 25If a person sins against someone else, God can help that sinner. But if anyone sins against the LORD, who can help them?” In spite of what their father Eli said, his sons didn’t pay any attention to his warning. That’s because the LORD had already decided to put them to death.

26The boy Samuel continued to grow stronger. He also became more and more pleasing to the LORD and to people.

Prophecy Against Eli’s Family

27A man of God came to Eli. He told him, “The LORD says, ‘I made myself clearly known to your relatives who lived long ago. I did it when they were in Egypt under Pharaoh’s rule. 28At that time, I chose Aaron from your family line to be my priest. I chose him out of all the tribes of Israel. I told him to go up to my altar. I told him to burn incense. I chose him to wear a linen apron when he served me. I also gave his family all the food offerings presented by the Israelites. 29Why don’t you treat my sacrifices and offerings with respect? I require them to be brought to the house where I live. Why do you honor your sons more than me? Why do you fatten yourselves on the best parts of every offering that is made by my people Israel?’

30“The LORD is the God of Israel. He announced, ‘I promised that members of your family line would serve me as priests forever.’ But now the LORD announces, ‘I will not let that happen! I will honor those who honor me. But I will turn away from those who look down on me. 31The time is coming when I will cut your life short. I will also cut short the lives of those in your family line of priests. No one in your family line will grow old. 32You will see nothing but trouble in the house where I live. Good things will still happen to Israel. But no one in your family line will ever grow old. 33I will prevent the members of your family from serving me at my altar. I will destroy the eyesight of all of you I allow to live. I will also cause you to lose your strength. And everyone in your family line will die while they are still young.

34“ ‘Something is going to happen to your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas.
When it does, it will show you that what I am saying is true. They will both die on the same day. 35I will raise up for myself a faithful priest. He will do what my heart and mind want him to do. I will make his family line of priests very secure.
They will always serve as priests to my anointed king. 36Everyone left in your family line will come and bow down to him. They will beg him for a piece of silver and a loaf of bread. They will say, “Please give me a place to serve among the priests. Then I can have food to eat.” ’ ”

1 Samuel 3

The LORD Calls Out to Samuel

[1]The boy Samuel served the LORD under the direction of Eli. In those days the LORD didn't give many messages to his people. He didn't give them many visions.

[2]One night Eli was lying down in his usual place. His eyes were becoming so weak he couldn't see very well. [3]Samuel was lying down in the LORD's house.
That's where the ark of God was kept. The lamp of God was still burning. [4]The LORD called out to Samuel.

Samuel answered, "Here I am." [5]He ran over to Eli and said, "Here I am. You called out to me."

But Eli said, "I didn't call you. Go back and lie down." So he went and lay down.

[6]Again the LORD called out, "Samuel!" Samuel got up and went to Eli. He said, "Here I am. You called out to me."

"My son," Eli said, "I didn't call you. Go back and lie down."

[7]Samuel didn't know the LORD yet. That's because the LORD still hadn't given him a message.

[8]The LORD called out for the third time. He said, "Samuel!" Samuel got up and went to Eli. He said, "Here I am. You called out to me."

Then Eli realized that the LORD was calling the boy. [9]So Eli told Samuel,
"Go and lie down. If someone calls out to you again, say, 'Speak, LORD. I'm listening.' " So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

[10]The LORD came and stood there. He called out, just as he had done the other times. He said, "Samuel! Samuel!"

Then Samuel replied, "Speak. I'm listening."

[11]The LORD said to Samuel, "Pay attention! I am about to do something terrible in Israel. It will make the ears of everyone who hears about it tingle. [12]At that time I will do everything to Eli and his family that I said I would. I will finish what I have started. [13]I told Eli I would punish his family forever. He knew his sons were sinning. He knew they were saying bad things about me. In spite of that, he did not stop them. [14]So I made a promise to the family of Eli. I said, 'The sins of Eli's family will never be paid for by bringing sacrifices or offerings.' "

15 Samuel lay down until morning. Then he opened the doors of the LORD’s house. He was afraid to tell Eli about the vision he had received. 16 But Eli called out to him. He said, “Samuel, my son.”

Samuel answered, “Here I am.”

17 “What did the LORD say to you?” Eli asked. “Don’t hide from me anything he told you. If you do, may God punish you greatly.” 18 So Samuel told him everything. He didn’t hide anything from him. Then Eli said, “He is the LORD.
Let him do what he thinks is best.”

19 As Samuel grew up, the LORD was with him. He made everything Samuel said come true. 20 So all the Israelites recognized that Samuel really was a prophet of the LORD. Everyone from Dan all the way to Beersheba knew it.
21 The LORD continued to appear at Shiloh. There he made himself known to Samuel through the messages he gave him.

1 Samuel 4

[1]And Samuel gave those messages to all the Israelites.

The Philistines Capture the Ark

The Israelites went out to fight against the Philistines. The Israelites camped at Ebenezer. The Philistines camped at Aphek. [2]The Philistines brought their forces together to fight against Israel. As the fighting spread, the Israelites lost the battle to the Philistines. The Philistines killed about 4,000 of them on the field of battle. [3]The rest of the Israelite soldiers returned to camp. Then the elders asked them, “Why did the LORD let the Philistines win the battle over us today? Let’s bring the ark of the LORD’s covenant from Shiloh. Let’s take it with us. Then the LORD will save us from the power of our enemies.”

[4]So the people sent men to Shiloh. They brought back the ark of the LORD’s covenant law. He sits there on his throne between the cherubim. The LORD is the one who rules over all. Eli’s two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, were with the ark of God’s covenant law. The ark was in Shiloh.

[5]The ark of the LORD’s covenant law was brought into the camp. Then all the Israelites shouted so loudly that the ground shook. [6]The Philistines heard the noise. They asked, “What’s all that shouting about in the Hebrew camp?”

Then the Philistines found out that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp. [7]So they were afraid. “A god has come into their camp,” they said. “Oh no! Nothing like this has ever happened before. [8]How terrible it will be for us! Who will save us from the power of these mighty gods? They struck down the people of Egypt in the desert. They sent all kinds of plagues on them. [9]Philistines, be strong! Fight like men! If you don’t, you will come under the control of the Hebrews. You will become their slaves, just as they have been your slaves. Fight like men!”

[10]So the Philistines fought. The Israelites lost the battle, and every man ran back to his tent. A large number of them were killed. Israel lost 30,000 soldiers who were on foot. [11]The ark of God was captured. And Eli’s two sons Hophni and Phinehas died.

Eli Dies

[12]That same day a man from the tribe of Benjamin ran from the front lines of the battle. He went to Shiloh. His clothes were torn. He had dust on his head. [13]When he arrived, there was Eli sitting on his chair. He was by the side of the road. He was watching because his heart was really concerned about the ark of God. The man entered the town and told everyone what had happened. Then the whole town cried out.

[14]Eli heard the people crying out. He asked, “What’s the meaning of all this noise?”

The man hurried over to Eli. [15]Eli was 98 years old. His eyes were so bad he couldn’t see. [16]The man told Eli, “I’ve just come from the front lines of the battle. I just ran away from there today.”

Eli asked, “What happened, son?”

[17]The man who brought the news replied, “Israel ran away from the Philistines. Large numbers of men in the army were wounded or killed. Your two sons Hophni and Phinehas are also dead. And the ark of God has been captured.”

[18]When the man spoke about the ark of God, Eli fell backward off his chair. He had been sitting by the side of the gate. When he fell, he broke his neck and died. He was old and fat. He had led Israel for 40 years.

[19]The wife of Phinehas was pregnant. She was Eli’s daughter-in-law. It was near the time for her baby to be born. She heard the news that the ark of God had been captured. She heard that her father-in-law and her husband were dead. So she went into labor and had her baby. Her pain was more than she could bear. [20]As she was dying, the women helping her spoke up. They said, “Don’t be afraid. You have had a son.” But she didn’t reply. She didn’t pay any attention.

[21]She named the boy Ichabod. She said, “The God of glory has left Israel.” She said it because the ark of God had been captured. She also said it because her father-in-law and her husband had died. [22]She said, “The God of glory has left Israel.” She said it because the ark of God had been captured.

1 Samuel 5

The Ark in Ashdod and Ekron

[1]The Philistines had captured the ark of God. They took it from Ebenezer to Ashdod. [2]They carried the ark into the temple of their god Dagon. They set it down beside the statue of Dagon. [3]The people of Ashdod got up early the next day. They saw the statue of Dagon. There it was, lying on the ground! It had fallen on its face in front of the ark of the LORD. So they picked up the statue of Dagon. They put it back in its place. [4]But the following morning when they got up, they saw the statue of Dagon. There it was, lying on the ground again! It had fallen on its face in front of the ark of the LORD. Its head and hands had been broken off. Only the body of the statue was left. Its head and hands were lying in the doorway of the temple. [5]That's why to this day no one steps on the bottom part of the doorway of Dagon's temple at Ashdod. Not even the priests of Dagon step there.

[6]The LORD's power was against the people of Ashdod and the settlements near it. He destroyed them. He made them suffer with growths in their bodies.
[7]The people of Ashdod saw what was happening. They said, "The ark of the god of Israel must not stay here with us. His power is against us and against our god Dagon." [8]So they called together all the rulers of the Philistines. They asked them, "What should we do with the ark of the god of Israel?"

The rulers answered, "Have the ark moved to Gath." So they moved it.

[9]But after the people of Ashdod had moved the ark, the LORD's power was against Gath. That threw its people into a great panic. The LORD made them break out with growths in their bodies. It happened to young people and old people alike. [10]So the ark of God was sent to Ekron.

As the ark was entering Ekron, the people of the city cried out. They shouted, "They've brought the ark of the god of Israel to us. They want to kill us and our people." [11]So they called together all the rulers of the Philistines. They said, "Send the ark of the god of Israel away. Let it go back to its own place. If you don't, it will kill us and our people." The death of so many people had filled the city with panic. God's power was against the city. [12]Those who didn't die suffered with growths in their bodies. The people of Ekron cried out to heaven for help.

1 Samuel 6

The Philistines Return the Ark to Israel

[1]The ark of the LORD had been in Philistine territory for seven months. [2]The Philistines called for the priests and for those who practice evil magic. They wanted their advice. They said to them, “What should we do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us how we should send it back to its place.”

[3]They answered, “If you return the ark of the god of Israel, don’t send it back to him without a gift. Be sure you send a guilt offering to their god along with it. Then you will be healed. You will find out why his power has continued to be against you.”

[4]The Philistines asked, “What guilt offering should we send to him?”

Their advisers replied, “There are five Philistine rulers. So send five gold rats. Also send five gold models of the growths in your bodies. Do it because the same plague has struck you and your rulers alike. [5]Make models of the rats and the growths that are destroying the country. Give honor to Israel’s god. Then perhaps his power will no longer be against you, your gods and your land. [6]Why are you stubborn, as Pharaoh and the people of Egypt were? Israel’s god was very hard on them. Only then did they send the Israelites out. Only then did they let them go on their way.

[7]“Now then, get a new cart ready. Get two cows that have just had calves. Be sure the cows have never pulled a cart before. Tie the cart to them. But take their calves away and put them in a pen. [8]Then put the ark of the LORD on the cart. Put the gold models in a chest beside the ark. Send them back to the LORD as a guilt offering. Send the cart on its way. [9]But keep an eye on the cart. See if it goes up toward Beth Shemesh to its own territory. If it does, then it’s the LORD who has brought this horrible trouble on us. But if it doesn’t, then we’ll know it wasn’t his hand that struck us. We’ll know it happened to us by chance.”

[10]So that’s what they did. They took the two cows and tied the cart to them. They put the calves in a pen. [11]They placed the ark of the LORD on the cart. They put the chest there along with it. The chest held the gold models of the rats and of the growths. [12]Then the cows went straight up toward Beth Shemesh. They stayed on the road. They were mooing all the way. They didn’t turn to the right or the left. The Philistine rulers followed them all the way to the border of Beth Shemesh.

[13]The people of Beth Shemesh were working in the valley. They were gathering their wheat crop. They looked up and saw the ark. When they saw it, they were filled with joy. [14]The cart came to the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh. It stopped there beside a large rock. The people chopped up the wood the cart was made out of. They sacrificed the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD. [15]Some Levites had taken the ark of the LORD off the cart. They had also taken off the chest that held the gold models. They placed them on the large rock. On that day the people of Beth Shemesh offered burnt offerings to the LORD. They also made sacrifices to him. [16]The five Philistine rulers saw everything that happened. On that same day they returned to Ekron.

[17]The Philistines sent gold models of growths as a guilt offering to the LORD. There was one each for Ashdod, Gaza, Ashkelon, Gath and Ekron. [18]They also sent five gold models of rats. There was one for each of the Philistine towns that belonged to the five rulers. Each of those towns had high walls around it. The towns also had country villages around them. The Levites set the ark of the LORD on the large rock. To this day the rock is a witness to what happened there. It’s in the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh.

[19]But some of the people of Beth Shemesh looked into the ark of the LORD. So he struck them down. He put 70 of them to death. The rest of the people were filled with sorrow. That’s because the LORD had killed so many of them. [20]The people of Beth Shemesh said, “The LORD is a holy God. Who can stand in front of him? Where can the ark go up to from here?”

[21]Then messengers were sent to the people of Kiriath Jearim. The messengers said, “The Philistines have returned the ark of the LORD. Come down and take it up to your town.”

1 Samuel 7

[1]So the men of Kiriath Jearim came and got the ark of the LORD. They brought it up to Abinadab's house on the hill. They set his son Eleazar apart to guard the ark. [2]The ark remained at Kiriath Jearim for a long time. It was there for a full 20 years.

Samuel Brings the Philistines Under Israel's Control

Then all the Israelites turned back to the LORD. [3]So Samuel spoke to all the Israelites. He said, "Do you really want to return to the LORD with all your hearts? If you do, get rid of your false gods. Get rid of your statues of female gods that are named Ashtoreth. Commit yourselves to the LORD. Serve him only. Then he will save you from the power of the Philistines." [4]So the Israelites put away their statues of gods that were named Baal. They put away their statues of female gods that were named Ashtoreth. They served the LORD only.

[5]Then Samuel said, "Gather all the Israelites together at Mizpah. I will pray to the LORD for you." [6]When the people had come together at Mizpah, they went to the well and got water. They poured it out in front of the LORD. On that day they didn't eat any food. They admitted they had sinned. They said, "We've sinned against the LORD." Samuel was serving as the leader of Israel at Mizpah.

[7]The Philistines heard that Israel had gathered together at Mizpah. So the Philistine rulers came up to attack them. When the Israelites heard about it, they were afraid. [8]They said to Samuel, "Don't stop crying out to the LORD our God to help us. Keep praying that he'll save us from the power of the Philistines." [9]Then Samuel got a very young lamb. He sacrificed it as a whole burnt offering to the LORD. He cried out to the LORD to help Israel. And the LORD answered his prayer.

[10]The Philistines came near to attack Israel. At that time Samuel was sacrificing the burnt offering. But that day the LORD thundered loudly against the Philistines. He threw them into such a panic that the Israelites were able to chase them away. [11]The men of Israel rushed out of Mizpah. They chased the Philistines all the way to a point below Beth Kar. They killed them all along the way.

[12]Then Samuel got a big stone. He set it up between Mizpah and Shen. He named it Ebenezer. He said, "The LORD has helped us every step of the way."

[13]So the Philistines were brought under Israel’s control. The Philistines didn’t attack their territory again. The LORD used his power against the Philistines as long as Samuel lived. [14]The Philistines had captured many towns between Ekron and Gath. But they had to give all of them back. Israel took back the territories near those towns from the control of the Philistines. During that time Israel and the Amorites were friendly toward each other.

[15]Samuel continued to lead Israel all the days of his life. [16]From year to year he traveled from Bethel to Gilgal to Mizpah. He served Israel as judge in all those places. [17]But he always went back to Ramah. That’s where his home was. He served Israel as judge there too. And he built an altar there to honor the LORD.

1 Samuel 8

Israel Asks for a King

[1]When Samuel became old, he appointed his sons as Israel's leaders. [2]The name of his oldest son was Joel. The name of his second son was Abijah. They served as judges at Beersheba. [3]But his sons didn't live as he did. They were only interested in making money. They accepted money from people who wanted special favors. They made things that were wrong appear to be right.

[4]So all the elders of Israel gathered together. They came to Samuel at Ramah. [5]They said to him, "You are old. Your sons don't live as you do. So appoint a king to lead us. We want a king just like the kings all the other nations have."

[6]Samuel wasn't pleased when they said, "Give us a king to lead us." So he prayed to the LORD. [7]The LORD told him, "Listen to everything the people are saying to you. You are not the one they have turned their backs on. I am the one they do not want as their king. [8]They are doing just as they have always done. They have deserted me and served other gods. They have done that from the time I brought them up out of Egypt until this day. Now they are deserting you too. [9]Let them have what they want. But give them a strong warning. Let them know what the king who rules over them will expect to be done for him."

[10]Samuel told the people who were asking him for a king everything the LORD had said. [11]Samuel told them, "Here's what the king who rules over you will expect to be done for him. He will take your sons. He'll make them serve with his chariots and horses. They will run in front of his chariots. [12]He'll choose some of your sons to be commanders of thousands of men. Some will be commanders of fifties. Others will have to plow his fields and gather his crops. Still others will have to make weapons of war and parts for his chariots. [13]He'll also take your daughters. Some will have to make perfume. Others will be forced to cook and bake. [14]He will take away your best fields and vineyards and olive groves. He'll give them to his attendants. [15]He will take a tenth of your grain and a tenth of your grapes. He'll give it to his officials and attendants. [16]He will also take your male and female servants. He'll take your best cattle and donkeys. He'll use all of them any way he wants to. [17]He will take a tenth of your sheep and goats. You yourselves will become his slaves. [18]When that time comes, you will cry out for help because of the king you have chosen. But the LORD won't answer you at that time."

[19]In spite of what Samuel said, the people refused to listen to him. “No!” they said. “We want a king to rule over us. [20]Then we’ll be like all the other nations. We’ll have a king to lead us. He’ll go out at the head of our armies and fight our battles.”

[21]Samuel heard everything the people said. He told the LORD about it. [22]The LORD answered, “Listen to them. Give them a king.”

Then Samuel said to the Israelites, “Each of you go back to your own town.”

1 Samuel 9

Samuel Anoints Saul to Be Israel's King

[1]There was a man named Kish from the tribe of Benjamin. Kish was a very important person. He was the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror. Zeror was the son of Bekorath, the son of Aphiah from the tribe of Benjamin. [2]Kish had a son named Saul. Saul was a handsome young man. He was more handsome than anyone in Israel. And he was a head taller than anyone else.

[3]The donkeys that belonged to Saul's father Kish were lost. So Kish spoke to his son Saul. He said, "Go and look for the donkeys. Take one of the servants with you." [4]Saul and his servant went through the hill country of Ephraim. They also went through the area around Shalisha. But they didn't find the donkeys. So they went on into the area of Shaalim. But the donkeys weren't there either. Then Saul went through the territory of Benjamin. But they still didn't find the donkeys.

[5]When Saul and the servant with him reached the area of Zuph, Saul spoke to the servant. He said, "Come on. Let's go back. If we don't, my father will stop thinking about the donkeys. Instead, he'll start worrying about us."

[6]But the servant replied, "There's a man of God here in Ramah. People have a lot of respect for him. Everything he says comes true. So let's go and see him now. Perhaps he'll tell us which way to go."

[7]Saul said to his servant, "If we go to see the man, what can we give him? There isn't any food in our sacks. We don't have a gift for the man of God. So what can we give him?"

[8]The servant answered Saul again. "Look," he said. "I've got a tenth of an ounce of silver. I'll give it to the man of God. Then maybe he'll tell us which way to go." [9]In Israel, prophets used to be called seers. So if someone wanted to ask God for advice, they would say, "Come on. Let's go to the seer."

[10]Saul said to his servant, "That's a good idea. Come on. Let's go and ask the seer." So they started out for the town where the man of God lived.

[11]They were going up the hill toward the town. Along the way they met some young women who were coming out to get water from the well. Saul and his servant asked them, "Is the seer here?"

[12]"Yes, he is," they answered. "In fact, he's just up ahead of you. So hurry along. He has just come to our town today. The people are going to offer a sacrifice at the high place where they worship. [13]As soon as you enter the town, you will find him. He'll be there until he goes up to the high place to eat. The people won't start eating until he gets there. He must bless the sacrifice first. After that, those who are invited will eat. So go on up. You should find him there just about now."

[14]They went up to the town. As they were entering it, they saw Samuel. He was coming toward them. He was on his way up to the high place.

[15]The LORD had spoken to Samuel the day before Saul came. He had said, [16]"About this time tomorrow I will send you a man. He is from the land of Benjamin. Anoint him to be the king of my people Israel. He will save them from the power of the Philistines. I have seen how much my people are suffering. Their cry for help has reached me."

[17]When Samuel saw a man coming toward him, the LORD spoke to Samuel again. He said, "He is the man I told you about. His name is Saul. He will govern my people."

[18]Saul approached Samuel at the gate of the town. He asked Samuel, "Can you please show me the seer's house?"

[19]"I'm the seer," Samuel replied. "Go on up to the high place ahead of me. I want you and your servant to eat with me today. Tomorrow morning I'll tell you what's on your mind. Then I'll send you on your way. [20]Don't worry about the donkeys you lost three days ago. They've already been found. But who do all the Israelites want? You and your father's whole family!"

[21]Saul answered, "But I'm from the tribe of Benjamin. It's the smallest tribe in Israel. And my family group is the least important in the whole tribe of Benjamin. So why are you saying that to me?"

[22]Then Samuel brought Saul and his servant into the room where they would be eating. He seated them at the head table. About 30 people had been invited. [23]Samuel said to the cook, "Bring the piece of meat I gave you. It's the one I told you to put to one side."

[24]So the cook went and got a choice piece of thigh. He set it in front of Saul. Samuel said, "Here is what has been kept for you. Eat it. It was put to one side for you for this special occasion. We've saved it for you ever since I invited the guests." And Saul ate with Samuel that day.

[25]They came down from the high place to the town. After that, Samuel talked with Saul on the roof of Samuel's house. [26]The next day they got up at about the time the sun was rising. Samuel called out to Saul on the roof. He said, "Get ready. Then I'll send you on your way." So Saul got ready. And he and Samuel went outside together. [27]As they were on their way down to the edge of town, Samuel spoke to Saul. He said, “Tell the servant to go ahead of us.” So the servant went on ahead. Then Samuel continued, “Stay here for a while. I’ll give you a message from God.”

1 Samuel 10

[1]Then Samuel took a bottle of olive oil. He poured it on Saul's head and kissed him. He said, "The LORD has anointed you to be the king of his people. [2]When you leave me today, you will meet two men. They will be near Rachel's tomb at Zelzah on the border of Benjamin. They'll say to you, 'The donkeys you have been looking for have been found. Now your father has stopped thinking about them. Instead, he's worried about you. He's asking, "What can I do to find my son?" '

[3]"You will go on from Zelzah until you come to the large tree at Tabor. Three men will meet you there. They'll be on their way up to Bethel to worship God. One of them will be carrying three young goats. Another will be carrying three loaves of bread. A third will be carrying a bottle of wine. It will be a bottle made out of animal skin. [4]The men will greet you. They'll offer you two loaves of bread. You will accept the loaves from them.

[5]"After that, you will go to Gibeah of God. Some Philistine soldiers are stationed there. As you approach the town, you will meet a group of prophets. They'll be coming down from the high place where they worship. People will be playing lyres, tambourines, flutes and harps at the head of the group. The prophets will be prophesying. [6]The Spirit of the LORD will come powerfully on you. Then you will prophesy along with them. You will become a different person. [7]All these things will happen. Then do what you want to do. God is with you.

[8]"Go down ahead of me to Gilgal. You can be sure that I'll come down to you there. I'll come and sacrifice burnt offerings and friendship offerings. But you must wait there for seven days until I come to you. Then I'll tell you what to do."

Saul Becomes King of Israel

[9]As Saul turned to leave Samuel, God changed Saul's heart. All these things happened that day. [10]When Saul and his servant arrived at Gibeah, a group of prophets met Saul. Then the Spirit of God came powerfully on him. He prophesied along with them. [11]Those who had known Saul before saw him prophesying with the prophets. They asked one another, "What has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also one of the prophets?"

[12]A man who lived in Gibeah answered, "Yes, he is. In fact, he's their leader."

That's why people say, "Is Saul also one of the prophets?" [13]After Saul stopped prophesying, he went to the high place to worship.

[14]Later, Saul's uncle spoke to him and his servant. He asked, "Where have you been?"

"Looking for the donkeys," Saul said. "But we couldn't find them. So we went to Samuel."

[15]Saul's uncle said, "Tell me what Samuel said to you."

[16]Saul replied, "He told us the donkeys had been found." But Saul didn't tell his uncle that Samuel had said he would become king.

[17]Samuel sent a message to the Israelites. He told them to meet with the LORD at Mizpah. [18]He said to them, "The LORD is the God of Israel. He says, 'Israel, I brought you up out of Egypt. I saved you from their power. I also saved you from the power of all the kingdoms that had treated you badly.' [19]But now you have turned your backs on your God. He saves you out of all your trouble and suffering. In spite of that, you have said, 'We refuse to listen. Place a king over us.' So now gather together to meet with the LORD. Do it tribe by tribe and family group by family group."

[20]Then Samuel had each tribe of Israel come forward. The tribe of Benjamin was chosen by casting lots. [21]Next he had the tribe of Benjamin come forward, family group by family group. Matri's group was chosen. Finally Saul, the son of Kish, was chosen. But when people looked for him, they realized he wasn't there. [22]They needed more help from the LORD. So they asked him, "Has the man come here yet?"

The LORD said, "Yes. He has hidden himself among the supplies."

[23]So they ran over there and brought him out. When he stood up, the people saw that he was a head taller than any of them. [24]Samuel spoke to all the people. He said, "Look at the man the LORD has chosen! There isn't anyone like him among all the people."

Then the people shouted, "May the king live a long time!"

[25]Samuel explained to the people the rights and duties of the king who ruled over them. He wrote them down in a book. He placed it in front of the LORD in the holy tent. Then he sent the people away. He sent each of them to their own homes.

[26]Saul also went to his home in Gibeah. Some brave men whose hearts God had touched went with Saul. [27]But some people who wanted to stir up trouble said, "How can this fellow save us?" They looked down on him. They didn't bring him any gifts. But Saul kept quiet about it.

1 Samuel 11

Saul Rescues the City of Jabesh Gilead

[1]Nahash was the king of Ammon. He and his army went up to Jabesh Gilead. They surrounded it and got ready to attack it. All the men of Jabesh spoke to Nahash. They said, “Make a peace treaty with us. Then we’ll be under your control.”

[2]Nahash, the king of Ammon, replied, “I will make a peace treaty with you. But I’ll do it only on one condition. You must let me put out the right eye of every one of you. I want to bring shame on the whole nation of Israel.”

[3]The elders of Jabesh said to him, “Give us seven days to report back to you. We’ll send messengers all through Israel. If no one comes to save us, we’ll hand ourselves over to you.”

[4]The messengers came to Gibeah of Saul. They reported to the people the terms Nahash had required. Then all the people wept out loud. [5]Just then Saul was coming in from the fields. He was walking behind his oxen. He asked, “What’s wrong with everyone? Why are they weeping?” He was told what the men of Jabesh had said.

[6]When Saul heard their words, the Spirit of God came powerfully on him. He became very angry. [7]He got a pair of oxen and cut them into pieces. He sent the pieces by messengers all through Israel. They announced, “You must follow Saul and Samuel. If you don’t, this is what will happen to your oxen.” The terror of the LORD fell on the people. So all of them came together with one purpose in mind. [8]Saul brought his army together at Bezek. There were 300,000 men from Israel and 30,000 from Judah.

[9]The messengers who had come were told, “Go back and report to the men of Jabesh Gilead. Tell them, ‘By the hottest time of the day tomorrow, you will be rescued.’ ” The messengers went and reported it to the men of Jabesh. It made those men very happy. [10]They said to the people of Ammon, “Tomorrow we’ll hand ourselves over to you. Then you can do to us whatever you like.”

[11]The next day Saul separated his men into three groups. While it was still dark, they broke into the camp of the Ammonite army. They kept killing the men of Ammon until the hottest time of the day. Those who got away were scattered. There weren’t two of them left together anywhere.

The People Agree to Have Saul as King

12 The people said to Samuel, “Who asked, ‘Is Saul going to rule over us?’
Turn these men over to us. We’ll put them to death.”

13 But Saul said, “No one will be put to death today! After all, this is the day the LORD has rescued Israel.”

14 Then Samuel said to the people, “Come on. Let’s go to Gilgal. There we’ll agree again to have Saul as our king.” 15 So all the people went to Gilgal. There, with the LORD as witness, they made Saul their king. There they sacrificed friendship offerings to the LORD. And there Saul and all the Israelites celebrated with great joy.

1 Samuel 12

Samuel's Final Speech to Israel

[1]Samuel spoke to all the Israelites. He said, "I've done everything you asked me to do. I've placed a king over you. [2]Now you have a king as your leader. But I'm old. My hair is gray. My sons are here with you. I've been your leader from the time I was young until this day. [3]Here I stand. Bring charges against me if you can. The LORD is a witness. And so is his anointed king. Whose ox have I taken? Whose donkey have I taken? Have I cheated anyone? Have I treated anyone badly? Have I accepted money from anyone who wanted special favors?
If I've done any of these things, I'll make it right."

[4]"You haven't cheated us," they replied. "You haven't treated us badly. You haven't taken anything from anyone."

[5]Samuel said to them, "The LORD is a witness against you this day. And so is his anointed king. They are witnesses that I haven't taken anything from any of you."

"The LORD is a witness," they said.

[6]Then Samuel said to the people, "The LORD appointed Moses and Aaron.
He brought out of Egypt your people who lived long ago. [7]Now then, stand here.
I'm going to remind you of all the good things the LORD has done for you and your people. He is a witness.

[8]"After Jacob's family entered Egypt, they cried out to the LORD for help.
The LORD sent Moses and Aaron. They brought your people out of Egypt. They had them make their homes in this land.

[9]"But the people forgot the LORD their God. So he put them under the control of Sisera. Sisera was the commander of the army of Hazor. The LORD also put the Israelites under the control of the Philistines and the king of Moab. All those nations fought against Israel. [10]So the people cried out to the LORD. They said,
'We have sinned. We've deserted the LORD. We've served gods that are named Baal. We've served female gods that are named Ashtoreth. But save us now from the power of our enemies. Then we will serve you.' [11]The LORD sent Gideon, Barak, Jephthah and me. He saved you from the power of your enemies who were all around you. So you lived in safety.

[12]"But then you saw that Nahash, the king of Ammon, was about to attack you. So you said to me, 'No! We want a king to rule over us.' You said it even though the LORD your God was your king. [13]Now here is the king you have chosen. He's the one you asked for. The LORD has placed a king over you. [14]But you must have respect for the LORD. You must serve him and obey him. You must not say no to his commands. Both you and the king who rules over you must obey the LORD your God. If you do, that's good. [15]But you must not disobey him. You must not say no to his commands. If you do, his power will be against you. That's what happened to your people who lived before you.

[16]"So stand still. Watch the great thing the LORD is about to do right here in front of you! [17]It's time to gather in the wheat, isn't it? I'll call out to the LORD to send thunder and rain. Then you will realize what an evil thing you did in the sight of the LORD. You shouldn't have asked for a king."

[18]Samuel called out to the LORD. That same day the LORD sent thunder and rain. So all the people had great respect for the LORD and for Samuel.

[19]They said to Samuel, "Pray to the LORD your God for us. Pray that we won't die because we asked for a king. That was an evil thing to do. We added it to all our other sins."

[20]"Don't be afraid," Samuel replied. "It's true that you have done all these evil things. But don't turn away from the LORD. Serve him with all your heart. [21]Don't turn away and worship statues of gods. They are useless. They can't do you any good. They can't save you either. They are completely useless. [22]But the LORD will be true to his great name. He won't turn his back on his people. That's because he was pleased to make you his own people. [23]I would never sin against the LORD by failing to pray for you. I'll teach you to live in a way that is good and right. [24]But be sure to have respect for the LORD. Serve him faithfully. Do it with all your heart. Think about the great things he has done for you. [25]But don't be stubborn. Don't continue to do what is evil. If you do, both you and your king will be destroyed."

1 Samuel 13

Samuel Judges Saul's Sin

[1]Saul was 30 years old when he became king. He ruled over Israel for 42 years.

[2]Saul chose 3,000 of Israel's men. Two thousand of them were with him at Mikmash and in the hill country of Bethel. One thousand were with Jonathan at Gibeah in the land of Benjamin. Saul sent the rest back to their homes.

[3]Some Philistine soldiers were stationed at Geba. Jonathan attacked them. The other Philistines heard about it. Saul announced, "Let the Hebrew people hear about what has happened!" He had trumpets blown all through the land. [4]So all the Israelites heard the news. They were told, "Saul has attacked the Philistine army camp at Geba. Now the Philistines can't stand the Israelites." The Israelites were called out to join Saul at Gilgal.

[5]The Philistines gathered together to fight against Israel. They had 3,000 chariots and 6,000 chariot drivers. Their soldiers were as many as the grains of sand on the seashore. They went up and camped at Mikmash. It was east of Beth Aven. [6]The Israelites saw that their army was in deep trouble. So they hid in caves. They hid among bushes and rocks. They also hid in pits and empty wells. [7]Some of them even went across the Jordan River. They went to the lands of Gad and Gilead.

Saul remained at Gilgal. All the troops with him were shaking with fear. [8]He waited seven days, just as Samuel had told him to. But Samuel didn't come to Gilgal. And Saul's men began to scatter. [9]So he said, "Bring me the burnt offering and the friendship offerings." Then he offered up the burnt offering. [10]Just as Saul finished offering the sacrifice, Samuel arrived. Saul went out to greet him.

[11]"What have you done?" asked Samuel.

Saul replied, "I saw that the men were scattering. I saw that the Philistines were gathering together at Mikmash. You didn't come when you said you would. [12]So I thought, 'Now the Philistines will come down to attack me at Gilgal. And I haven't asked the LORD for his blessing.' So I felt I had to sacrifice the burnt offering."

[13]"You have done a foolish thing," Samuel said. "You haven't obeyed the command the LORD your God gave you. If you had, he would have made your kingdom secure over Israel for all time to come. [14]But now your kingdom won't last. The LORD has already looked for a man who is dear to his heart. He has appointed him king of his people. That's because you haven't obeyed the LORD's command."

[15]Then Samuel left Gilgal and went up to Gibeah in the land of Benjamin. Saul counted the men who were with him. The total number was about 600.

Israel Doesn't Have Weapons

[16]Saul and his son Jonathan were staying in Gibeah in the land of Benjamin. The men who remained in the army were there with them. At the same time, the Philistines camped at Mikmash. [17]Three groups of soldiers went out from the Philistine camp to attack Israel. One group turned and went toward Ophrah in the area of Shual. [18]Another went toward Beth Horon. The third went toward the border that looked out over the Valley of Zeboim. That valley faces the desert.

[19]There weren't any blacksmiths in the whole land of Israel. That's because the Philistines had said, "The Hebrews might hire them to make swords or spears!" [20]So all the Israelites had to go down to the Philistines. They had to go to them to get their plows, hoes, axes and sickles sharpened. [21]It cost a fourth of an ounce of silver to sharpen a plow or a hoe. It cost an eighth of an ounce to sharpen a pitchfork or an axe. That's also what it cost to put new tips on the large sticks used to drive oxen.

[22]So the Israelite soldiers went out to battle without swords or spears in their hands. That was true for all of Saul's and Jonathan's soldiers. Only Saul and his son Jonathan had those weapons.

Jonathan Attacks the Philistines

[23]A group of Philistine soldiers had gone out to the pass at Mikmash.

1 Samuel 14

[1]One day Jonathan, the son of Saul, spoke to the young man carrying his armor. “Come on,” he said. “Let’s go over to the Philistine army camp on the other side of the pass.” But he didn’t tell his father about it.

[2]Saul was staying just outside Gibeah. He was under a pomegranate tree in Migron. He had about 600 men with him. [3]Ahijah was one of them. He was wearing a sacred linen apron. He was a son of Ichabod’s brother Ahitub. Ahitub was the son of Eli’s son Phinehas. Eli had been the LORD’s priest in Shiloh. No one was aware that Jonathan had left.

[4]Jonathan planned to go across the pass to reach the Philistine camp. But there was a cliff on each side of the pass. One cliff was called Bozez. The other was called Seneh. [5]One cliff stood on the north side of the pass toward Mikmash. The other stood on the south side toward Geba.

[6]Jonathan spoke to the young man carrying his armor. He said, “Come on. Let’s go over to the camp of those fellows who aren’t circumcised. Perhaps the LORD will help us. If he does, it won’t matter how many or how few of us there are. That won’t keep the LORD from saving us.”

[7]“Go ahead,” the young man said. “Do everything you have in mind. I’m with you all the way.”

[8]Jonathan said, “Come on, then. We’ll go across the pass toward the Philistines and let them see us. [9]Suppose they say to us, ‘Wait there until we come to you.’ Then we’ll stay where we are. We won’t go up to them. [10]But suppose they say, ‘Come up to us.’ Then we’ll climb up. That will show us that the LORD has handed them over to us.”

[11]So Jonathan and the young man let the soldiers in the Philistine camp see them. “Look!” said the Philistines. “Some of the Hebrews are crawling out of the holes they were hiding in.” [12]The men in the Philistine camp shouted to Jonathan and the young man carrying his armor. They said, “Come on up here. We’ll teach you a thing or two.”

So Jonathan said to the young man, “Climb up after me. The LORD has handed them over to Israel.”

[13]Using his hands and feet, Jonathan climbed up. The young man was right behind him. Jonathan struck down the Philistines. The young man followed him and killed those who were still alive. [14]In that first attack, Jonathan and the young man killed about 20 men. They did it in an area of about half an acre.

Israel Chases the Philistines Away

15Then panic struck the whole Philistine army. It struck those who were in the camp and those in the field. It struck those who were at the edge of the camp. It also struck those who were in the groups that had been sent out to attack Israel.
The ground shook. It was a panic that God had sent.

16Saul's lookouts at Gibeah in the land of Benjamin saw what was happening.
They saw the Philistine army melting away in all directions. 17Then Saul spoke to the men with him. He said, "Bring the troops together. See who has left our camp." When they did, they discovered that Jonathan and the young man carrying his armor weren't there.

18Saul said to Ahijah the priest, "Bring the ark of God." At that time it was with the Israelites. 19While Saul was talking to the priest, the noise in the Philistine camp got louder and louder. So Saul said to the priest, "Stop what you are doing."

20Then Saul and all his men gathered together. They went to the battle. They saw that the Philistines were in total disorder. They were striking one another with their swords. 21At an earlier time some of the Hebrews had been on the side of the Philistines. They had gone up with them to their camp. But now they changed sides. They joined the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan.
22Some of the Israelites had hidden in the hill country of Ephraim. They heard that the Philistines were running away. They quickly joined the battle and chased after them. 23So on that day the LORD saved Israel. And the fighting continued on past Beth Aven.

Jonathan Eats Honey

24The Israelites became very hungry that day. That's because Saul had forced the army to make a promise. He had said, "None of you must eat any food before evening comes. You must not eat until I've paid my enemies back for what they did. If you do, may you be under a curse!" So none of the troops ate any food at all.

25The whole army entered the woods. There was honey on the ground.
26When they went into the woods, they saw the honey dripping out of a honeycomb. No one put any of the honey in his mouth. They were afraid of the curse that would come if they broke their promise. 27But Jonathan hadn't heard that his father had forced the army to make a promise. Jonathan had a long stick in his hand. He reached out and dipped the end of it into the honeycomb. He put some honey in his mouth. It gave him new life. [28]Then one of the soldiers told him, “Your father forced the army to make a promise that everyone must obey. He said, ‘None of you must eat any food today. If you do, may you be under a curse!’ That’s why the men are weak and ready to faint.”

[29]Jonathan said, “My father has made trouble for the country. See how I gained new life after I tasted a little of this honey. [30]Our soldiers took food from their enemies today. Suppose they had eaten some of it. How much better off they would have been! Even more Philistines would have been killed.”

[31]That day the Israelites struck down the Philistines. They killed them from Mikmash to Aijalon. By that time they were tired and worn out. [32]They grabbed what they had taken from their enemies. They killed some of the sheep, cattle and calves right there on the ground. They ate the meat while the blood was still in it. [33]Then someone said to Saul, “Look! The men are sinning against the LORD. They’re eating meat that still has blood in it.”

Saul said to them, “You have broken your promise. Roll a large stone over here at once.” [34]He continued, “Go out among the men. Tell them, ‘Each of you bring me your cattle and sheep. Kill them here and eat them. Don’t sin against the LORD by eating meat that still has blood in it.’ ”

So that night everyone brought the ox he had taken and killed it there. [35]Then Saul built an altar to honor the LORD. It was the first time he had done that.

[36]Saul said, “Let’s go down and chase after the Philistines tonight. Let’s not leave even one of them alive. Let’s take everything they have before morning.”

“Do what you think is best,” they replied.

But the priest said, “Let’s ask God for advice first.”

[37]So Saul asked God, “Should I go down and chase after the Philistines? Will you hand them over to Israel?” But God didn’t answer him that day.

[38]Saul said to the leaders of the army, “Come here. Let’s find out what sin has been committed today. [39]The LORD is the one who rescues Israel. You can be sure that the LORD lives. And you can be just as sure that the sinner must die. He must die even if he’s my son Jonathan.” But no one said anything.

[40]Then Saul said to all the Israelites, “You stand over there. I and my son Jonathan will stand over here.”

“Do what you think is best,” they replied.

[41]Then Saul prayed to the LORD, the God of Israel. He said, “Why haven’t you answered your servant today? If I or my son Jonathan is to blame, answer with Urim. But if the Israelites are to blame, answer with Thummim.” Jonathan and Saul were chosen by casting lots. The other men were cleared of blame. [42]Saul said, “Cast the lot to find out whether I or my son Jonathan is to blame.” And Jonathan was chosen.

[43]Then Saul said to Jonathan, “Tell me what you have done.”

So Jonathan told him, “I used the end of my stick to get a little honey and taste it. And now do I have to die?”

[44]Saul said, “Jonathan, I must certainly put you to death. If I don’t, may God punish me greatly.”

[45]But the men said to Saul, “Should Jonathan be put to death? Never! He has saved Israel in a wonderful way. He did it today with God’s help. You can be sure that the LORD lives. And you can be just as sure that not even one hair on Jonathan’s head will fall to the ground.” So the men rescued Jonathan. He wasn’t put to death.

[46]Then Saul stopped chasing the Philistines. They went back to their own land.

[47]After Saul became the king of Israel, he fought against Israel’s enemies who were all around them. He went to war against Moab, Ammon and Edom. He fought against the kings of Zobah and the Philistines. No matter where he went, he punished his enemies. [48]He fought bravely. He won the battle over the Amalekites. He saved Israel from the power of those who had carried off what belonged to Israel.

Saul’s Family

[49]Saul’s sons were Jonathan, Ishvi and Malki-Shua. Saul’s older daughter was named Merab. His younger daughter was named Michal. [50]Saul’s wife was named Ahinoam. She was the daughter of Ahimaaz. The commander of Saul’s army was named Abner. He was the son of Ner. Ner was Saul’s uncle. [51]Saul’s father Kish and Abner’s father Ner were sons of Abiel.

[52]As long as Saul was king, he had to fight hard against the Philistines. So every time Saul saw a strong or brave man, he took him into his army.

1 Samuel 15

The LORD Is Sad That He Made Saul King

[1]Samuel said to Saul, “The LORD sent me to anoint you as king over his people Israel. So listen now to a message from him. [2]The LORD who rules over all says, ‘I will punish the Amalekites because of what they did to Israel. As the Israelites came up from Egypt, the Amalekites attacked them. [3]Now go. Attack the Amalekites. Completely destroy all that belongs to them. Do not spare the Amalekites. Put the men and women to death. Put the children and babies to death. Also kill the cattle, sheep, camels and donkeys.’ ”

[4]So Saul brought his men together at Telaim. The total number was 200,000 soldiers on foot from Israel and 10,000 from Judah. [5]Saul went to the city of Amalek. Then Saul had some of his men hide and wait in the valley. [6]Then Saul said to the Kenites, “You were kind to all the Israelites when they came up out of Egypt. Get away from the Amalekites. Then I won’t have to destroy you along with them.” So the Kenites moved away from the Amalekites.

[7]Saul attacked the Amalekites. He struck them down all the way from Havilah to Shur. Shur was near the eastern border of Egypt. [8]Saul captured Agag, the king of the Amalekites. But he and his men totally destroyed with their swords all Agag’s people. [9]So Saul and the army spared Agag. They spared the best of the sheep and cattle. They spared the fat calves and lambs. They spared everything that was valuable. They weren’t willing to completely destroy any of those things. But they totally destroyed everything that was worthless and weak.

[10]Then the LORD gave Samuel a message. He said, [11]“I am very sad I have made Saul king. He has turned away from me. He has not done what I directed him to do.” When Samuel heard that, he was angry. He cried out to the LORD during that whole night.

[12]Early the next morning Samuel got up. He went to see Saul. But Samuel was told, “Saul went to Carmel. There he set up a monument in his own honor. Now he has gone on down to Gilgal.”

[13]When Samuel got there, Saul said, “May the LORD bless you. I’ve done what he directed me to do.”

[14]But Samuel said, “Then why do I hear the baaing of sheep? Why do I hear the mooing of cattle?”

[15]Saul answered, “The soldiers brought them from the Amalekites. They spared the best of the sheep and cattle. They did it to sacrifice them to the LORD your God. But we totally destroyed everything else."

16"That's enough!" Samuel said to Saul. "Let me tell you what the LORD said to me last night."

"Tell me," Saul replied.

17Samuel said, "There was a time when you didn't think you were important. But you became the leader of the tribes of Israel. The LORD anointed you to be king over Israel. 18He sent you to do something for him. He said, 'Go and completely destroy the Amalekites. Go and destroy those evil people. Fight against them until you have wiped them out.' 19Why didn't you obey the LORD? Why did you keep for yourselves what you had taken from your enemies? Why did you do what is evil in the sight of the LORD?"

20"But I did obey the LORD," Saul said. "I went to do what he sent me to do. I completely destroyed the Amalekites. I brought back Agag, their king. 21The soldiers took sheep and cattle from what had been taken from our enemies. They took the best of what had been set apart to God. They wanted to sacrifice them to the LORD your God at Gilgal."

22But Samuel replied,

"What pleases the LORD more?
Burnt offerings and sacrifices, or obeying the LORD?
It is better to obey than to offer a sacrifice.
It is better to do what he says than to offer the fat of rams.
23Refusing to obey the LORD is as sinful as using evil magic.
Being proud is as evil as worshiping statues of gods.
You have refused to do what the LORD told you to do.
So he has refused to have you as king."

24Then Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned. I've broken the LORD's command. I haven't done what you directed me to do. I was afraid of the men. So I did what they said I should do. 25Now I beg you, forgive my sin. Come back into town with me so I can worship the LORD."

26But Samuel said to him, "I won't go back with you. You have refused to do what the LORD told you to do. So he has refused to have you as king over Israel!"

27Samuel turned to leave. But Saul grabbed the hem of his robe, and it tore. 28Samuel said to Saul, "The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel away from you today. He has given it to one of your neighbors. He has given it to someone better than you. [29]The God who is the Glory of Israel does not lie. He doesn't change his mind. That's because he isn't a mere human being. If he were, he might change his mind."

[30]Saul replied, "I have sinned. But please honor me in front of the elders of my people and in front of Israel. Come back with me so I can worship the LORD your God." [31]So Samuel went back with Saul. And Saul worshiped the LORD.

[32]Then Samuel said, "Bring me Agag, the king of the Amalekites."

Agag was in chains when he came to Samuel. Agag thought, "The time for me to be put to death must have passed by now."

[33]But Samuel said,

"Your sword has killed the children of other women.
So the child of your mother will be killed."

Samuel put Agag to death at Gilgal in front of the LORD.

[34]Then Samuel left to go to Ramah. But Saul went up to his home in Gibeah of Saul. [35]Until the day Samuel died, he didn't go to see Saul again. Samuel was filled with sorrow because of Saul. And the LORD was very sad he had made Saul king over Israel.

1 Samuel 16

Samuel Anoints David to Be Israel's King

[1]The LORD said to Samuel, "How long will you be filled with sorrow because of Saul? I have refused to have him as king over Israel. Fill your animal horn with olive oil and go on your way. I am sending you to Jesse in Bethlehem.
I have chosen one of his sons to be king."

[2]But Samuel said, "How can I go? Suppose Saul hears about it. Then he'll kill me."

The LORD said, "Take a young cow with you. Tell the elders of Bethlehem, 'I've come to offer a sacrifice to the LORD.' [3]Invite Jesse to the sacrifice. Then I will show you what to do. You must anoint for me the one I point out to you."

[4]Samuel did what the LORD said. He arrived at Bethlehem. The elders of the town met him. They were trembling with fear. They asked, "Have you come in peace?"

[5]Samuel replied, "Yes, I've come in peace. I've come to offer a sacrifice to the LORD. Set yourselves apart to him and come to the sacrifice with me." Then he set Jesse and his sons apart to the LORD. He invited them to the sacrifice.

[6]When they arrived, Samuel saw Eliab. He thought, "This has to be the one the LORD wants me to anoint for him."

[7]But the LORD said to Samuel, "Do not consider how handsome or tall he is.
I have not chosen him. The LORD does not look at the things people look at.
People look at the outside of a person. But the LORD looks at what is in the heart."

[8]Then Jesse called for Abinadab. He had him walk in front of Samuel. But Samuel said, "The LORD hasn't chosen him either." [9]Then Jesse had Shammah walk by. But Samuel said, "The LORD hasn't chosen him either." [10]Jesse had seven of his sons walk in front of Samuel. But Samuel said to him, "The LORD hasn't chosen any of them." [11]So he asked Jesse, "Are these the only sons you have?"

"No," Jesse answered. "My youngest son is taking care of the sheep."

Samuel said, "Send for him. We won't sit down to eat until he arrives."

[12]So Jesse sent for his son and had him brought in. He looked very healthy. He had a fine appearance and handsome features.

Then the LORD said, "Get up and anoint him. This is the one."

13So Samuel got the animal horn that was filled with olive oil. He anointed David in front of his brothers. From that day on, the Spirit of the LORD came powerfully on David. Samuel went back to Ramah.

David Serves Saul

14The Spirit of the LORD had left Saul. And an evil spirit sent by the LORD terrified him.
15Saul's attendants said to him, "An evil spirit sent by God is terrifying you.
16Give us an order to look for someone who can play the harp. He will play it when the evil spirit sent by God comes on you. Then you will feel better."
17So Saul said to his attendants, "Find someone who plays the harp well.
Bring him to me."
18One of the servants said, "I've seen someone who knows how to play the harp. He is a son of Jesse from Bethlehem. He's a brave man. He would make a good soldier. He's a good speaker. He's very handsome. And the LORD is with him." 19Then Saul sent messengers to Jesse. He said, "Send me your son David, the one who takes care of your sheep." 20So Jesse got some bread and a bottle of wine. The bottle was made out of animal skin. He also got a young goat. He loaded everything on the back of a donkey. He sent all of it to Saul with his son David.
21David went to Saul and began to serve him. Saul liked him very much.
David became one of the men who carried Saul's armor. 22Saul sent a message to Jesse. Saul said, "Let David stay here. I want him to serve me. I'm pleased with him." 23When the evil spirit sent by God would come on Saul, David would get his harp and play it. That would help Saul. He would feel better, and the evil spirit would leave him.

1 Samuel 17

David and Goliath

[1]The Philistines gathered their army together for war. They came to Sokoh in Judah. They set up camp at Ephes Dammim. It was between Sokoh and Azekah.
[2]Saul and the army of Israel gathered together. They camped in the Valley of Elah. They lined up their men to fight against the Philistines. [3]The Philistine army was camped on one hill. Israel's army was on another. The valley was between them.

[4]A mighty hero named Goliath came out of the Philistine camp. He was from Gath. He was more than nine feet tall. [5]He had a bronze helmet on his head. He wore bronze armor that weighed 125 pounds. [6]On his legs he wore bronze guards. He carried a bronze javelin on his back. [7]His spear was as big as a weaver's rod. Its iron point weighed 15 pounds. The man who carried his shield walked along in front of him.

[8]Goliath stood there and shouted to the soldiers of Israel. He said, "Why do you come out and line up for battle? I'm a Philistine. You are servants of Saul.
Choose one of your men. Have him come down and face me. [9]If he's able to fight and kill me, we'll become your slaves. But if I win and kill him, you will become our slaves and serve us." [10]Goliath continued, "This day I dare the soldiers of Israel to send a man down to fight against me." [11]Saul and the whole army of Israel heard what the Philistine said. They were terrified.

[12]David was the son of Jesse, who belonged to the tribe of Ephraim. Jesse was from Bethlehem in Judah. He had eight sons. When Saul was king, Jesse was already very old. [13]Jesse's three oldest sons had followed Saul into battle. The oldest son was Eliab. The second was Abinadab. The third was Shammah.
[14]David was the youngest. The three oldest sons followed Saul. [15]But David went back and forth from Saul's camp to Bethlehem. He went to Bethlehem to take care of his father's sheep.

[16]Every morning and evening Goliath came forward and stood there. He did it for 40 days.

[17]Jesse said to his son David, "Get at least half a bushel of grain that has been cooked. Also get ten loaves of bread. Take all of it to your brothers. Hurry to their camp. [18]Take along these ten chunks of cheese to the commander of their military group. Find out how your brothers are doing. Bring me back some word about them. [19]They are with Saul and all the men of Israel. They are in the Valley of Elah. They are fighting against the Philistines."

[20]Early in the morning David left his father's flock in the care of a shepherd. David loaded up the food and started out, just as Jesse had directed. David reached the camp as the army was going out to its battle positions. The soldiers were shouting the war cry. [21]The Israelites and the Philistines were lining up their armies for battle. The armies were facing each other. [22]David left what he had brought with the man who took care of the supplies. He ran to the battle lines and asked his brothers how they were. [23]As David was talking with them, Goliath stepped forward from his line. Goliath was a mighty Philistine hero from Gath. He again dared someone to fight him, and David heard it. [24]Whenever Israel's army saw Goliath, all of them ran away from him. That's because they were so afraid.

[25]The Israelites had been saying, "Just look at how this man keeps daring Israel to fight him! The king will make the man who kills Goliath very wealthy. The king will also give his own daughter to be that man's wife. The king won't require anyone in the man's family to pay any taxes in Israel."

[26]David spoke to the men standing near him. He asked them, "What will be done for the man who kills this Philistine? Goliath is bringing shame on Israel. What will be done for the one who removes it? This Philistine isn't even circumcised. He dares the armies of the living God to fight him. Who does he think he is?"

[27]The men told David what Israel's soldiers had been saying. The men told him what would be done for the man who killed Goliath.

[28]David's oldest brother Eliab heard him speaking with the men. So Eliab became very angry with him. Eliab asked David, "Why have you come down here? Who is taking care of those few sheep in the desert for you? I know how proud you are. I know how evil your heart is. The only reason you came down here was to watch the battle."

[29]"What have I done now?" said David. "Can't I even speak?" [30]Then he turned away to speak to some other men. He asked them the same question he had asked before. And they gave him the same answer. [31]Someone heard what David said and reported it to Saul. So Saul sent for David.

[32]David said to Saul, "Don't let anyone lose hope because of that Philistine. I'll go out and fight him."

[33]Saul replied, "You aren't able to go out there and fight that Philistine. You are too young. He's been a warrior ever since he was a boy."

[34]But David said to Saul, “I’ve been taking care of my father’s sheep. Sometimes a lion or a bear would come and carry off a sheep from the flock. [35]Then I would go after it and hit it. I would save the sheep it was carrying in its mouth. If it turned around to attack me, I would grab its hair. I would strike it down and kill it. [36]In fact, I’ve killed both a lion and a bear. I’ll do the same thing to this Philistine. He isn’t even circumcised. He has dared the armies of the living God to fight him. [37]The LORD saved me from the paw of the lion. He saved me from the paw of the bear. And he’ll save me from the powerful hand of this Philistine too.”

Saul said to David, “Go. And may the LORD be with you.”

[38]Then Saul dressed David in his own military clothes. He put a coat of armor on him. He put a bronze helmet on his head. [39]David put on Saul’s sword over his clothes. He walked around for a while in all that armor because he wasn’t used to it.

“I can’t go out there in all this armor,” he said to Saul. “I’m not used to it.” So he took it off. [40]Then David picked up his wooden staff. He went down to a stream and chose five smooth stones. He put them in the pocket of his shepherd’s bag. Then he took his sling in his hand and approached Goliath.

[41]At that same time, the Philistine kept coming closer to David. The man carrying Goliath’s shield walked along in front of him. [42]Goliath looked David over. He saw how young he was. He also saw how healthy and handsome he was. And he hated him. [43]He said to David, “Why are you coming at me with sticks? Do you think I’m only a dog?” The Philistine cursed David in the name of his gods. [44]“Come over here,” he said. “I’ll feed your body to the birds and wild animals!”

[45]David said to Goliath, “You are coming to fight against me with a sword, a spear and a javelin. But I’m coming against you in the name of the LORD who rules over all. He is the God of the armies of Israel. He’s the one you have dared to fight against. [46]This day the LORD will give me the victory over you. I’ll strike you down. I’ll cut your head off. This day I’ll feed the bodies of the Philistine army to the birds and wild animals. Then the whole world will know there is a God in Israel. [47]The LORD doesn’t rescue people by using a sword or a spear. And everyone here will know it. The battle belongs to the LORD. He will hand all of you over to us.”

[48]As the Philistine moved closer to attack him, David ran quickly to the battle line to meet him. [49]He reached into his bag. He took out a stone. He put it in his sling. He slung it at Goliath. The stone hit him on the forehead and sank into it.

He fell to the ground on his face.

50So David won the fight against Goliath with a sling and a stone. He struck down the Philistine and killed him. He did it without even using a sword.

51David ran and stood over him. He picked up Goliath’s sword and cut off his head with it.

The Philistines saw that their hero was dead. So they turned around and ran away. 52Then the men of Israel and Judah shouted and rushed forward. They chased the Philistines to the entrance of Gath. They chased them to the gates of Ekron. Bodies of dead Philistines were scattered all along the road to Gath and Ekron. That’s the road that leads to Shaaraim. 53Israel’s army returned from chasing the Philistines. They had taken everything from the Philistine camp.

54David picked up Goliath’s head. He brought it to Jerusalem. He put Goliath’s weapons in his own tent.

55Saul had been watching David as he went out to meet the Philistine. He spoke to Abner, the commander of the army. Saul said to him, “Abner, whose son is that young man?”

Abner replied, “Your Majesty, I don’t know. And that’s just as sure as you are alive.”

56The king said, “Find out whose son that young man is.”

57After David killed Goliath, he returned to the camp. Then Abner brought him to Saul. David was still carrying Goliath’s head.

58“Young man, whose son are you?” Saul asked him.

David said, “I’m the son of Jesse from Bethlehem.”

1 Samuel 18

Saul's Growing Fear of David

[1]David finished talking with Saul. After that, Jonathan and David became close friends. Jonathan loved David just as he loved himself. [2]From that time on, Saul kept David with him. He didn't let him return home to his family. [3]Jonathan made a covenant with David because he loved him just as he loved himself.
[4]Jonathan took off the robe he was wearing and gave it to David. He also gave him his military clothes. He even gave him his sword, his bow and his belt.

[5]David did everything Saul sent him to do. He did it so well that Saul gave him a high rank in the army. That pleased Saul's whole army, including his officers.

[6]After David had killed Goliath, the men of Israel returned home. The women came out of all the towns of Israel to meet King Saul. They danced and sang joyful songs. They played harps and tambourines. [7]As they danced, they sang,

"Saul has killed thousands of men.
David has killed tens of thousands."

[8]That song made Saul very angry. It really upset him. He said to himself,
"They are saying David has killed tens of thousands of men. But they are saying I've killed only thousands. The only thing left for him to get is the kingdom itself." [9]From that time on, Saul watched David closely.

[10]The next day an evil spirit sent by God came powerfully on Saul. Saul began to prophesy in his house. At that same time David began to play the harp, just as he usually did. Saul was holding a spear. [11]He threw it at David. As he did, he said to himself, "I'll pin David to the wall." But David got away from him twice.

[12]The LORD had left Saul and was with David. So Saul was afraid of David.
[13]He sent David away. He put him in command of 1,000 men. David led the troops in battle. [14]In everything he did, he was very successful. That's because the LORD was with him. [15]When Saul saw how successful David was, he became afraid of him. [16]But all the troops of Israel and Judah loved David.
That's because he led them in battle.

[17]Saul said to David, "Here is my older daughter Merab. I'll give her to you to be your wife. Just serve me bravely and fight the LORD's battles." Saul said to himself, “I won’t have to lift my hand to strike him down. The Philistines will do that!”

18But David said to Saul, “Who am I? Is anyone in my whole family that important in Israel? Am I worthy to become the king’s son-in-law?” 19The time came for Saul to give his daughter Merab to David. Instead, Saul gave her to Adriel from Meholah to be his wife.

20Saul’s daughter Michal was in love with David. When they told Saul about it, he was pleased. 21“I’ll give her to David to be his wife,” Saul said to himself. “Then maybe she’ll trap him. And maybe the Philistines will strike him down.” So Saul said to David, “Now you have a second chance to become my son-in-law.”

22Then Saul gave an order to his attendants. He said, “Speak to David in private. Tell him, ‘The king likes you. All his attendants love you. So become his son-in-law.’ ”

23Saul’s attendants spoke those very words to David. But David said, “Do you think it’s a small thing to become the king’s son-in-law? I’m only a poor man. I’m not very well known.”

24Saul’s attendants told him what David had said. 25Saul said, “Tell David, ‘Here’s the price the king wants for the bride. He wants you to kill 100 Philistines. Then bring back the skins you cut off when you circumcise them. That’s how Saul will get even with his enemies.’ ” Saul hoped that the Philistines would strike David down.

26Saul’s attendants also told David those things. Then David was pleased to become the king’s son-in-law. So before the wedding day, 27David and his men went out and killed 200 Philistines. They circumcised the Philistines. Then David brought back all the skins. They counted out the full number and gave them to the king. By doing that, David could become the king’s son-in-law. So Saul gave David his daughter Michal to be his wife.

28Saul realized that the LORD was with David. He also realized that his daughter Michal loved David. 29So Saul became even more afraid of him. As long as Saul lived, he remained David’s enemy.

30The Philistine commanders kept on going out to battle. Every time they did, David had more success against them than the rest of Saul’s officers. So his name became well known.

1 Samuel 19

Saul Tries to Kill David

[1]Saul told his son Jonathan and all the attendants to kill David. But Jonathan liked David very much. [2]So Jonathan warned him, “My father Saul is looking for a chance to kill you. Be very careful tomorrow morning. Find a place to hide and stay there. [3]My father and I will come and stand in the field where you are hiding. I’ll speak to him about you. Then I’ll tell you what I find out.”

[4]Jonathan told his father Saul some good things about David. He said to him, “Please don’t do anything to harm David. He hasn’t done anything to harm you. And what he’s done has helped you a lot. [5]He put his own life in danger when he killed Goliath. The LORD used him to win a great battle for the whole nation of Israel. When you saw it, you were glad. So why would you do anything to harm a man like David? He isn’t guilty of doing anything to harm you. Why would you want to kill him without any reason?”

[6]Saul paid attention to Jonathan. Saul made a promise. He said, “You can be sure that the LORD lives. And you can be just as sure that David will not be put to death.”

[7]So Jonathan sent for David and told him everything he and Saul had said. Then he brought David to Saul. David served Saul as he had done before.

[8]Once more war broke out. So David went out and fought against the Philistines. He struck them down with so much force that they ran away from him.

[9]But an evil spirit sent by the LORD came on Saul. It happened as he was sitting in his house and holding his spear. While David was playing the harp, [10]Saul tried to pin him to the wall with his spear. But David got away from him just as Saul drove the spear into the wall. That night David escaped.

[11]Saul sent some men to watch David’s house. He told them to kill David the next morning. But David’s wife Michal warned him. She said, “You must run for your life tonight. If you don’t, tomorrow you will be killed.” [12]So Michal helped David escape through a window. He ran and got away. [13]Then Michal got a statue of a god. She laid it on David’s bed. She covered it with clothes. And she put some goat hair at the place where David’s head would have been.

[14]Saul sent the men to capture David. But Michal told them, “He’s sick.”

[15]Then Saul sent the men back to see David. He told them, “Bring him up here to me in his bed. Then I'll kill him." [16]But when the men entered, the only thing they found in the bed was the statue. Some goat hair was at the place where David's head would have been.

[17]Saul said to Michal, "Why did you trick me like this? Why did you help my enemy escape?"

Michal told him, "He said to me, 'Help me get away. If you don't, I'll kill you.' "

[18]After David had run away and escaped, he went to Samuel at Ramah. He told him everything Saul had done to him. Then David and Samuel went to Naioth and stayed there. [19]Saul was told, "David is in Naioth at Ramah." [20]So Saul sent some men to capture him. When they got there, they saw a group of prophets who were prophesying. Samuel was standing there as their leader. Then the Spirit of God came on Saul's men. So they also began to prophesy. [21]Saul was told about it. So he sent some more men. They began to prophesy too. Saul sent some men a third time. And they also began to prophesy. [22]Finally, Saul decided to go to Ramah himself. He went to the large well at Seku. He asked some people, "Where are Samuel and David?"

"Over in Naioth at Ramah," they said.

[23]So Saul went to Naioth at Ramah. But the Spirit of God even came on him. He walked along and prophesied until he came to Naioth. [24]There he took off his clothes. Then he also prophesied in front of Samuel. He lay there without his clothes on all that day and night. That's why people say, "Is Saul also one of the prophets?"

1 Samuel 20

David and Jonathan

[1]David was in Naioth at Ramah. He ran away from there to where Jonathan was. He asked him, “What have I done? What crime have I committed? I haven’t done anything to harm your father. So why is he trying to kill me?”

[2]“That will never happen!” Jonathan replied. “You aren’t going to die! My father doesn’t do anything at all without letting me know. So why would he hide this from me? He isn’t going to kill you!”

[3]But David strongly disagreed. He said, “Your father knows very well that you are pleased with me. He has said to himself, ‘I don’t want Jonathan to know I’m planning to kill David. If he finds out, he’ll be very sad.’ But I’m very close to being killed. And that’s just as sure as the LORD and you are alive.”

[4]Jonathan said to David, “I’ll do anything you want me to do for you.”

[5]So David said, “Tomorrow is the time for the New Moon feast. I’m supposed to eat with the king. But let me go and hide in the field. I’ll stay there until the evening of the day after tomorrow. [6]Your father might miss me. If he does, then tell him, ‘David begged me to let him hurry home to Bethlehem. A yearly sacrifice is being offered there for his whole family group.’ [7]Your father might say, ‘That’s all right.’ If he does, it will mean I’m safe. But he might become very angry. If he does, you can be sure he’s made up his mind to harm me. [8]Please be kind to me. You have made a covenant with me in front of the LORD. If I’m guilty, kill me yourself! Don’t hand me over to your father!”

[9]“I would never do that!” Jonathan said. “Suppose I had even the smallest clue that my father had made up his mind to harm you. Then I would tell you.”

[10]David asked, “Who will tell me if your father answers you in a mean way?”

[11]“Come on,” Jonathan said. “Let’s go out to the field.” So they went there together.

[12]Then Jonathan spoke to David. He said, “I promise you that I’ll find out what my father is planning to do. I’ll find out by this time the day after tomorrow. The LORD, the God of Israel, is my witness. Suppose my father has kind feelings toward you. Then I’ll send you a message and let you know. [13]But suppose he wants to harm you. And I don’t let you know about it. Suppose I don’t help you get away in peace. Then may the LORD punish me greatly. May he be with you, just as he has been with my father. [14]But always be kind to me, just as the LORD is. Be kind to me as long as I live. Then I won't be killed. [15]And never stop being kind to my family. Don't stop even when the LORD has cut off every one of your enemies from the face of the earth."

[16]So Jonathan made a covenant of friendship with David and his family. He said, "May the LORD hold David's enemies responsible for what they've done." [17]Jonathan had David promise his friendship again because he loved him. In fact, Jonathan loved David just as he loved himself.

[18]Then Jonathan said to David, "Tomorrow is the time for the New Moon feast. You will be missed, because your seat at the table will be empty. [19]Go to the place where you hid when all this trouble began. Go there the day after tomorrow, when evening is approaching. There's a stone out there called Ezel. [20]Wait by it. I'll shoot three arrows to one side of the stone. I'll pretend I'm practicing my shooting. [21]Then I'll send a boy out there. I'll tell him, 'Go and find the arrows.' Suppose I say to him, 'The arrows are on this side of you. Bring them here.' Then come. That will mean you are safe. You won't be in any danger. And that's just as sure as the LORD is alive. [22]But suppose I tell the boy, 'The arrows are far beyond you.' Then go. That will mean the LORD is sending you away. [23]And remember what we talked about. Remember that the LORD is a witness between you and me forever."

[24]So David hid in the field. When the time for the New Moon feast came, the king sat down to eat. [25]He sat in his usual place by the wall. Jonathan sat across from him. Abner sat next to Saul. But David's place was empty. [26]Saul didn't say anything that day. He said to himself, "Something must have happened to David to make him 'unclean.' That must be why he isn't here." [27]But the next day, David's place was empty again. It was the second day of the month. Finally, Saul spoke to his son Jonathan. He said, "Why hasn't the son of Jesse come to the meal? He hasn't been here yesterday or today."

[28]Jonathan replied, "David begged me to let him go to Bethlehem. [29]He said, 'Let me go. Our family is offering a sacrifice in the town. My brother has ordered me to be there. Are you pleased with me? If you are, let me go and see my brothers.' That's why he hasn't come to eat at your table."

[30]Saul became very angry with Jonathan. He said to him, "You are an evil son. You have refused to obey me. I know that you are on the side of Jesse's son. You should be ashamed of that. And your mother should be ashamed of having a son like you. [31]You will never be king as long as Jesse's son lives on this earth. And you will never have a kingdom either. So send someone to bring the son of Jesse to me. He must die!"

[32]“Why do you want to put him to death?” Jonathan asked his father. “What has he done?” [33]But Saul threw his spear at Jonathan to kill him. Then Jonathan knew that his father wanted to kill David.

[34]So Jonathan got up from the table. He was very angry. On that second day of the feast, he refused to eat. He was very sad that his father was treating David so badly.

[35]The next morning Jonathan went out to the field to meet David. He took a young boy with him. [36]He said to the boy, “Run and find the arrows I shoot.” As the boy ran, Jonathan shot an arrow far beyond him. [37]The boy came to the place where Jonathan’s arrow had fallen. Then Jonathan shouted to him, “The arrow went far beyond you, didn’t it?” [38]He continued, “Hurry up! Run fast! Don’t stop!” The boy picked up the arrow and returned to his master. [39]The boy didn’t know what was going on. Only Jonathan and David knew. [40]Jonathan gave his weapons to the boy. He told him, “Go back to town. Take the weapons with you.”

[41]After the boy had gone, David got up from the south side of the stone. He bowed down in front of Jonathan with his face to the ground. He did it three times. Then they kissed each other and cried. But David cried more than Jonathan did.

[42]Jonathan said to David, “Go in peace. In the name of the LORD we’ve promised to be friends. We have said, ‘The LORD is a witness between you and me. He’s a witness between your children and my children forever.’ ” Then David left, and Jonathan went back to the town.

1 Samuel 21

David at Nob

[1]David went to Ahimelek the priest at Nob. Ahimelek trembled with fear when he met him. He asked David, “Why are you alone? Why isn’t anyone with you?”
[2]David answered Ahimelek the priest, “The king gave me a special job to do.
He said to me, ‘I don’t want anyone to know what I’m sending you to do. So don’t say anything about it.’ I’ve told my men to meet me at a certain place. [3]Do you have anything for us to eat? Give me five loaves of bread, or anything else you can find.”
[4]But the priest answered David, “I don’t have any bread that isn’t holy. I only have some holy bread here. But it’s for men who haven’t slept with women recently.”
[5]David replied, “Well, we haven’t slept with women recently. That’s the way it is every time I lead my men out to battle. We keep ourselves holy even when we do jobs that aren’t holy. And that’s even more true today.” [6]So the priest gave him the holy bread. It was the only bread he had. It had been removed from the table that was in front of the LORD. On the same day, hot bread had been put in its place.
[7]One of Saul’s servants was there that day. He had been made to stay at the holy tent for a while. He was Doeg from Edom. Doeg was Saul’s chief shepherd.
[8]David asked Ahimelek, “Don’t you have a spear or sword here? I haven’t brought my sword or any other weapon. That’s because the job the king gave me to do had to be done right away.” [9]The priest replied, “The sword of Goliath, the Philistine, is here. You killed him in the Valley of Elah. His sword is wrapped in a cloth. It’s behind the sacred linen apron. If you want it, take it. It’s the only sword here.”
David said, “There isn’t any sword like it. Give it to me.”

David at Gath

[10]That day David ran away from Saul. He went to Achish, the king of Gath.
[11]But the servants of Achish spoke to him. They said, “Isn’t this David, the king of the land? Isn’t he the one the Israelites sing about when they dance? They sing,

“ ‘Saul has killed thousands of men.
David has killed tens of thousands.’ ”

12 David paid close attention to what the servants were saying. He became very much afraid of what Achish, the king of Gath, might do. 13 So he pretended to be out of his mind when he was with them. As long as he was in Gath, he acted like a crazy person. He made marks on the doors of the city gate. He let spit run down his beard.

14 Achish said to his servants, “Just look at the man! He’s out of his mind!
Why are you bringing him to me? 15 Don’t I have enough crazy people around me already? So why do you have to bring this fellow here? Just look at how he’s carrying on in front of me! Why do you have to bring this man into my house?”

1 Samuel 22

David at Adullam and Mizpah

[1]David left Gath and escaped to the cave of Adullam. His brothers and the other members of his family heard about it. So they went down to join him there.
[2]Everyone who was in trouble or owed money or was unhappy gathered around him. He became their commander. About 400 men were with him.

[3]From there David went to Mizpah in Moab. He spoke to the king of Moab.
He said, “Please let my father and mother come and stay with you. Let them stay until I learn what God will do for me.” [4]So David left his parents with the king of Moab. They stayed with him as long as David was in his usual place of safety.

[5]But the prophet Gad spoke to David. He said, “Don’t stay in your usual place of safety. Go into the land of Judah.” So David left and went to the forest of Hereth.

Saul Kills the Priests at Nob

[6]Saul heard that the place where David and his men were hiding had been discovered. Saul was sitting under a tamarisk tree on the hill at Gibeah. He was holding his spear. All his officials were standing at his side. [7]Saul said to them, “Men of Benjamin, listen to me! Do you think Jesse’s son will give all of you fields and vineyards? Do you think he’ll make some of you commanders of thousands of men? Do you think he’ll make the rest of you commanders of hundreds? [8]Is that why all of you have joined together against me? No one tells me when my son makes a covenant with Jesse’s son. None of you is concerned about me. No one tells me that my son has stirred up Jesse’s son to hide and wait to attack me. But that’s exactly what’s happening now.”

[9]Doeg was standing with Saul’s officials. He was from Edom. He said, “I saw Jesse’s son David come to Ahimelek at Nob. Ahimelek is the son of Ahitub.
[10]Ahimelek asked the LORD a question for David. He also gave him food and the sword of Goliath, the Philistine.”

[11]Then the king sent for the priest Ahimelek, the son of Ahitub. The king also sent for all the men in his family. They were the priests at Nob. All of them came to the king. [12]Saul said, “Son of Ahitub, listen to me.”

“Yes, master,” he answered.

[13]Saul said to him, “Why have you and Jesse’s son joined together against me? Why did you give him bread and a sword? Why did you ask God a question for him? Now he has turned against me. He is hiding and waiting to attack me right now.”

14Ahimelek answered the king, “David is faithful to you. In fact, he’s more faithful to you than anyone else who serves you. He’s your own son-in-law. He’s the captain of your own personal guards. He’s highly respected by everyone in your palace. 15Was that day the first time I asked God a question for him? Of course not! Please don’t bring charges against me. Please don’t bring charges against anyone in my family. I don’t know anything at all about this whole matter.”

16But the king said, “Ahimelek, you will certainly be put to death. You and your whole family will be put to death.”

17Then the king gave an order to the guards at his side. He said, “Go and kill the priests of the LORD. They are on David’s side too. They knew he was running away from me. And they didn’t even tell me.”

But the king’s officials wouldn’t raise a hand to strike down the priests of the LORD.

18Then the king ordered Doeg, “You go and strike down the priests.” So Doeg, the Edomite, went and struck them down. That day he killed 85 priests who wore linen aprons. 19He also killed the people of Nob with his sword. Nob was a town where priests lived. Doeg killed its men and women. He killed its children and babies. He also destroyed its cattle, donkeys and sheep.

20But Abiathar, a son of Ahimelek, escaped. Ahimelek was the son of Ahitub. Abiathar ran away and joined David. 21He told David that Saul had killed the priests of the LORD. 22Then David said to Abiathar, “One day I was at Nob. I saw Doeg, the Edomite, there. I knew he would be sure to tell Saul. Your whole family has been killed. And I’m responsible for it. 23So stay with me. Don’t be afraid. The man who wants to kill you wants to kill me too. You will be safe with me.”

1 Samuel 23

David Saves the People of Keilah

[1]David was told, “The Philistines are fighting against the town of Keilah. They are stealing grain from the threshing floors.” [2]So he asked the LORD for advice. He said, “Should I go and attack those Philistines?”

The LORD answered him, “Go and attack them. Save Keilah.”

[3]But David’s men said to him, “We’re afraid here in Judah. Suppose we go to Keilah and fight against the Philistine army. Then we’ll be even more afraid.”

[4]Once again David asked the LORD what he should do. The LORD answered him, “Go down to Keilah. I am going to hand the Philistines over to you.” [5]So David and his men went to Keilah. They fought against the Philistines and carried off their livestock. David wounded and killed large numbers of Philistines. And he saved the people of Keilah. [6]Abiathar, the son of Ahimelek, had brought down the sacred linen apron with him from Nob. He did it when he ran away to David at Keilah.

Saul Chases David

[7]Saul was told that David had gone to Keilah. He said, “God has handed him over to me. David has trapped himself by entering a town that has gates with metal bars.” [8]So Saul brought together all his soldiers to go to battle. He ordered them to go down to Keilah. He told them to surround David and his men. He told them to get ready to attack them.

[9]David learned that Saul was planning to attack him. So he said to Abiathar the priest, “Bring the linen apron.” [10]Then David said, “LORD, you are the God of Israel. I know for sure that Saul plans to come to Keilah. He plans to destroy the town because of me. [11]Will the citizens of Keilah hand me over to him? Will Saul come down here, as I’ve heard he would? LORD, you are the God of Israel. Please answer me.”

The LORD said, “He will come down.”

[12]Again David asked, “Will the citizens of Keilah hand me and my men over to Saul?”

And the LORD said, “They will.”

[13]So David and his men left Keilah. The total number of them was about 600. They kept moving from place to place. Saul was told that David had escaped from Keilah. So he didn't go there.

14Sometimes David stayed in places of safety in the desert. At other times he stayed in the hills of the Desert of Ziph. Day after day Saul looked for him. But God didn't hand David over to him.

15David was at Horesh in the Desert of Ziph. There he learned that Saul had come out to kill him. 16Saul's son Jonathan went to David at Horesh. He told David that God would make him strong. 17"Don't be afraid," he said. "My father Saul won't harm you. You will be king over Israel. And I will be next in command. Even my father Saul knows this." 18The two of them made a covenant of friendship in front of the LORD. Then Jonathan went home. But David remained at Horesh.

19The people of Ziph went up to Saul at Gibeah. They said, "David is hiding among us. He's hiding in places of safety at Horesh. Horesh is south of Jeshimon on the hill of Hakilah. 20Your Majesty, come down when it pleases you to come. It will be our duty to hand David over to you."

21Saul replied, "May the LORD bless you because you were concerned about me. 22Make sure you are right. Go and check things out again. Find out where David usually goes. Find out who has seen him there. People tell me he's very tricky. 23Find out about all the hiding places he uses. Come back to me with all the facts. I'll go with you. Suppose he's in the area. Then I'll track him down among all the family groups of Judah."

24So they started out. They went to Ziph ahead of Saul. David and his men were in the Desert of Maon. Maon is south of Jeshimon in the Arabah Valley. 25Saul and his men started out to look for David. David was told about it. So he went down to a rock in the Desert of Maon to hide. Saul heard he was there. So he went into the Desert of Maon to chase David.

26Saul was going along one side of the mountain. David and his men were on the other side. They were hurrying to get away from Saul. Saul and his army were closing in on David and his men. They were about to capture them. 27Just then a messenger came to Saul. He said, "Come quickly! The Philistines are attacking the land." 28So Saul stopped chasing David. He went to fight against the Philistines. That's why they call that place Sela Hammahlekoth. 29David left that place. He went and lived in places of safety near En Gedi.

1 Samuel 24

David Doesn't Kill Saul When He Has the Chance

[1]Saul returned from chasing the Philistines. Then he was told, "David is in the Desert of En Gedi." [2]So Saul took 3,000 of the best soldiers from the whole nation of Israel. He started out to look for David and his men. He planned to look near the Rocky Cliffs of the Wild Goats.

[3]He came to some sheep pens along the way. A cave was there. Saul went in to go to the toilet. David and his men were far back in the cave. [4]David's men said, "This is the day the LORD told you about. He said to you, 'I will hand your enemy over to you. Then you can deal with him as you want to.' " So David came up close to Saul without being seen. He cut off a corner of Saul's robe.

[5]Later, David felt sorry that he had cut off a corner of Saul's robe. [6]He said to his men, "May the LORD keep me from doing a thing like that again to my master. He is the LORD's anointed king. So I promise that I will never lay my hand on him. The LORD has anointed him." [7]David said that to correct his men.
He wanted them to know that they should never suggest harming the king. He didn't allow them to attack Saul. So Saul left the cave and went on his way.

[8]Then David went out of the cave. He called out to Saul, "King Saul! My master!" When Saul looked behind him, David bowed down. He lay down flat with his face toward the ground. [9]He said to Saul, "Why do you listen when men say, 'David is trying to harm you'? [10]This day you have seen with your own eyes how the LORD handed you over to me in the cave. Some of my men begged me to kill you. But I didn't. I said, 'I will never lay my hand on my master. He is the LORD's anointed king.' [11]Look, my father! Look at this piece of your robe in my hand! I cut off the corner of your robe. But I didn't kill you. See, there is nothing in my hand that shows I am guilty of doing anything wrong. I haven't turned against you. I haven't done anything to harm you. But you are hunting me down. You want to kill me. [12]May the LORD judge between you and me. And may the LORD pay you back because of the wrong things you have done to me.
But I won't do anything to hurt you. [13]People say, 'Evil acts come from those who do evil.' So I won't do anything to hurt you.

[14]"King Saul, who are you trying to catch? Who do you think you are chasing? I'm nothing but a dead dog or a flea! [15]May the LORD be our judge.
May he decide between us. May he consider my case and stand up for me. May he show that I’m not guilty of doing anything wrong. May he save me from you.”

16When David finished speaking, Saul asked him a question. He said, “My son David, is that your voice?” And Saul wept out loud. 17“You are a better person than I am,” he said. “You have treated me well. But I’ve treated you badly. 18You have just now told me about the good things you did to me. The LORD handed me over to you. But you didn’t kill me. 19Suppose a man finds his enemy. He doesn’t let him get away without harming him. May the LORD reward you with many good things. May he do it because of the way you treated me today. 20I know for sure that you will be king. I know that the kingdom of Israel will be made secure under your control. 21Now make a promise in the name of the LORD. Promise me that you won’t kill the children of my family. Also promise me that you won’t wipe out my name from my family line.”

22So David made that promise to Saul. Then Saul returned home. But David and his men went up to his usual place of safety.

1 Samuel 25

David, Nabal and Abigail

1When Samuel died, the whole nation of Israel gathered together. They were filled with sorrow because he was dead. They buried him at his home in Ramah.
Then David went down into the Desert of Paran.

2A certain man in Maon was very wealthy. He owned property there at Carmel. He had 1,000 goats and 3,000 sheep. He was clipping the wool off the sheep in Carmel. 3His name was Nabal. His wife's name was Abigail. She was a wise and beautiful woman. But her husband was rude and mean in the way he treated others. He was from the family of Caleb.

4David was staying in the Desert of Paran. While he was there, he heard that Nabal was clipping the wool off his sheep. 5So he sent for ten young men. He said to them, "Go up to Nabal at Carmel. Greet him for me. 6Say to him, 'May you live a long time! May everything go well with you and your family! And may things go well with everything that belongs to you!

7" 'I hear that you are clipping the wool off your sheep. When your shepherds were with us, we treated them well. The whole time they were at Carmel nothing that belonged to them was stolen. 8Ask your own servants. They'll tell you.
We've come to you now at a happy time of the year. Please be kind to my men.
Please give me and my men anything you can find for us.' "

9When David's men arrived, they gave Nabal the message from David. Then they waited.

10Nabal answered David's servants, "Who is this David? Who is this son of Jesse? Many servants are running away from their masters these days. 11Why should I give away my bread and water? Why should I give away the meat I've prepared for those who clip the wool off my sheep? Why should I give food to men who come from who knows where?"

12So David's men turned around and went back. When they arrived, they reported to David every word Nabal had spoken. 13David said to his men, "Each of you put on your swords!" So they did. David put his sword on too. About 400 men went up with David. Two hundred men stayed behind with the supplies.

14One of the servants warned Abigail, Nabal's wife. He said, "David sent some messengers from the desert to give his greetings to our master. But Nabal shouted at them and was rude to them. 15David's men had been very good to us.

They treated us well. The whole time we were near them out in the fields, nothing was stolen. [16]We were taking care of our sheep near them. During that time, they were like a wall around us night and day. They kept us safe. [17]Now think it over. See what you can do. Horrible trouble will soon come to our master and his whole family. He's such an evil man that no one can even talk to him."

[18]Abigail didn't waste any time. She got 200 loaves of bread and two bottles of wine. The bottles were made out of animal skins. She got five sheep that were ready to be cooked. She got a bushel of grain that had been cooked. She got 100 raisin cakes. And she got 200 cakes of pressed figs. She loaded all of it on the backs of donkeys. [19]Then she told her servants, "Go on ahead. I'll follow you." But she didn't tell her husband Nabal about it.

[20]Abigail rode her donkey into a mountain valley. There she saw David and his men. They were coming down toward her. [21]David had just said, "Everything we've done hasn't been worth a thing! I watched over that fellow's property in the desert. I made sure none of it was stolen. But he has paid me back evil for good. [22]I won't leave even one of his men alive until morning. If I do, may God punish me greatly!"

[23]When Abigail saw David, she quickly got off her donkey. She bowed down in front of David with her face toward the ground. [24]She fell at his feet. She said, "Pardon your servant, sir. Please let me speak to you. Listen to what I'm saying. Let me take the blame myself. [25]Please don't pay any attention to that evil man Nabal. His name means Foolish Person. And that's exactly what he is. He's always doing foolish things. I'm sorry I didn't get a chance to see the men you sent. [26]Sir, the LORD has kept you from killing Nabal and his men. He has kept you from using your own hands to get even. So may what's about to happen to Nabal happen to all your enemies. May it happen to everyone who wants to harm you. And may it happen just as surely as the LORD your God and you are alive. [27]I've brought a gift for you. Give it to the men who follow you.

[28]"Please forgive me if I shouldn't have done that. The LORD your God will certainly give you and your family line a kingdom that will last. That's because you fight the LORD's battles. You won't do anything wrong as long as you live. [29]Someone may chase you and try to kill you. But the LORD your God will keep your life safe like a treasure hidden in a bag. And he'll destroy your enemies. Their lives will be thrown away, just as a stone is thrown from a sling. [30]The LORD will do for you every good thing he promised to do. He'll appoint you ruler over Israel. [31]When that happens, you won't have this heavy load on your mind. You won't have to worry about how you killed people without any reason.

You won’t have to worry about how you got even. The LORD your God will give you success. When that happens, please remember me.”

[32]David said to Abigail, “Give praise to the LORD. He is the God of Israel. He has sent you today to find me. [33]May the LORD bless you for what you have done. You have shown a lot of good sense. You have kept me from killing Nabal and his men this day. You have kept me from using my own hands to get even. [34]It’s a good thing you came quickly to meet me. If you hadn’t come, not one of Nabal’s men would have been left alive by sunrise. And that’s just as sure as the LORD, the God of Israel, is alive. He has kept me from harming you.”

[35]Then David accepted from her what she had brought him. He said, “Go home in peace. I’ve heard your words. I’ll do what you have asked.”

[36]Abigail went back to Nabal. He was having a dinner party in the house. It was the kind of dinner a king would have. He had been drinking too much wine. He was very drunk. So she didn’t tell him anything at all until sunrise. [37]The next morning Nabal wasn’t drunk anymore. Then his wife told him everything. When she did, his heart grew weak. He became like a stone. [38]About ten days later, the LORD struck Nabal down. And he died.

[39]David heard that Nabal was dead. So he said, “Give praise to the LORD. Nabal was rude to me. But the LORD stood up for me. He has kept me from doing something wrong. He has paid Nabal back for the wrong things he did.”

Then David sent a message to Abigail. He asked her to become his wife. [40]His servants went to Carmel. They said to Abigail, “David has sent us to you. He wants you to come back with us and become his wife.”

[41]Abigail bowed down with her face toward the ground. She said, “I am your servant. I’m ready to serve him. I’m ready to wash the feet of his servants.” [42]Abigail quickly got on a donkey and went with David’s messengers. Her five female servants went with her. She became David’s wife. [43]David had also married Ahinoam from Jezreel. Both of them became his wives. [44]But Saul had given his daughter Michal, David’s first wife, to Paltiel. Paltiel was from Gallim. He was the son of Laish.

1 Samuel 26

Once Again David Doesn't Kill Saul When He Has the Chance

[1]Some people from Ziph went to Saul at Gibeah. They said, "David is hiding on the hill of Hakilah. It faces Jeshimon." [2]So Saul went down to the Desert of Ziph. He took 3,000 of the best soldiers in Israel with him. They went to the desert to look for David. [3]Saul set up his camp beside the road. It was on the hill of Hakilah facing Jeshimon. But David stayed in the desert. He saw that Saul had followed him there. [4]So he sent out scouts. From them he learned that Saul had arrived.
[5]Then David started out. He went to the place where Saul had camped. He saw where Saul and Abner were lying down. Saul was lying inside the camp.
The army was camped all around him. Abner was commander of the army. He was the son of Ner.
[6]Then David spoke to Ahimelek, the Hittite. He also spoke to Joab's brother Abishai, the son of Zeruiah. He asked them, "Who will go down with me into the camp to Saul?"
"I'll go with you," said Abishai.
[7]So that night David and Abishai went into the camp. They found Saul lying asleep inside the camp. His spear was stuck in the ground near his head. Abner and the soldiers were lying asleep around him.
[8]Abishai said to David, "Today God has handed your enemy over to you. So let me pin him to the ground. I can do it with one jab of the spear. I won't even have to strike him twice." [9]But David said to Abishai, "Don't destroy him! No one can do any harm to the LORD's anointed king and not be guilty. [10]You can be sure that the LORD lives," he said. "And you can be just as sure that the LORD himself will strike Saul down. Perhaps he'll die a natural death. Or perhaps he'll go into battle and be killed. [11]May the LORD keep me from doing anything to harm his anointed king. Now get the spear and water jug that are near his head. Then let's leave." [12]So David took the spear and water jug that were near Saul's head. Then he and Abishai left. No one saw them. No one knew about what they had done. In fact, no one even woke up. Everyone was sleeping. That's because the LORD had put them into a deep sleep.
[13]David went across to the other side of the valley. He stood on top of a hill far away from Saul's camp. There was a wide space between them. [14]He called out to the army and to Abner, the son of Ner. He said, "Abner! Aren't you going to answer me?"

Abner replied, "Who is calling out to the king?"

[15]David said, "You are a great soldier, aren't you? There isn't anyone else like you in Israel. So why didn't you guard the king? He's your master, isn't he? Someone came into the camp to destroy him. [16]You didn't guard him. And that isn't good. You can be sure that the LORD lives. And you can be just as sure that you and your men must die. That's because you didn't guard your master. He's the LORD's anointed king. Look around you. Where are the king's spear and water jug that were near his head?"

[17]Saul recognized David's voice. He said, "My son David, is that your voice?"

David replied, "Yes it is, King Saul, my master." [18]He continued, "Why are you chasing me? What evil thing have I done? What am I guilty of? [19]King Saul, please listen to what I'm saying. Was it the LORD who made you angry with me? If it was, may he accept my offering. Was it people who made you angry at me? If it was, may the LORD see them cursed. They have driven me today from my share of the LORD's land. By doing that, they might as well have said, 'Go and serve other gods.' [20]Don't spill my blood on the ground far away from where the LORD lives. King Saul, you have come out to look for nothing but a flea. It's as if you were hunting a partridge in the mountains."

[21]Then Saul said, "I have sinned. My son David, come back. Today you thought my life was very special. So I won't try to harm you again. I've really acted like a foolish person. I've made a huge mistake."

[22]"Here's your spear," David answered. "Send one of your young men over to get it. [23]The LORD rewards everyone for doing what is right and being faithful. He handed you over to me today. But I wouldn't harm you. You are the LORD's anointed king. [24]Today I thought your life had great value. In the same way, may the LORD think of my life as having great value. May he save me from all trouble."

[25]Then Saul said to David, "May the LORD bless you, David my son. You will do great things. You will also have great success."

So David went on his way. And Saul returned home.

1 Samuel 27

David Among the Philistines

[1]David thought, “Some day Saul will destroy me. So the best thing I can do is escape. I’ll go to the land of the Philistines. Then Saul will stop looking for me everywhere in Israel. His hand won’t be able to reach me.”

[2]So David and his 600 men left Israel. They went to Achish, the king of Gath. He was the son of Maok. [3]David and his men made their homes in Gath near Achish. Each of David’s men had his family with him. David had his two wives with him. They were Ahinoam from Jezreel and Abigail from Carmel. Abigail was Nabal’s widow. [4]Saul was told that David had run away to Gath. So he didn’t look for David anymore.

[5]David said to Achish, “If you are pleased with me, give me a place in one of your country towns. I can live there. I don’t really need to live near you in the royal city.”

[6]So on that day Achish gave David the town of Ziklag. It has belonged to the kings of Judah ever since that time. [7]David lived in Philistine territory for a year and four months.

[8]Sometimes David and his men would go up and attack the Geshurites. At other times they would attack the Girzites or the Amalekites. All those people had lived in the land that reached all the way to Shur and Egypt. They had been there for a long time. [9]When David would attack an area, he wouldn’t leave a man or woman alive. But he would take their sheep, cattle, donkeys, camels and clothes. Then he would return to Achish.

[10]Achish would ask, “Who did you attack today?” David would answer, “The people who live in the Negev Desert of Judah.” Or he would answer, “The people in the Negev Desert of Jerahmeel.” Or he would answer, “The people in the Negev Desert of the Kenites.” [11]David wouldn’t leave a man or woman alive to be brought back to Gath. He thought, “They might tell on us. They might tell Achish who we really attacked.” That’s what David did as long as he lived in Philistine territory. [12]Achish trusted David. He thought, “David’s own people, the Israelites, can’t stand him anymore. So he’ll be my servant for life.”

1 Samuel 28

[1]While David was living in Ziklag, the Philistines gathered their army together. They planned to fight against Israel. Achish said to David, “Here is what you must understand. You and your men must march out with me and my army.”

[2]David said, “I understand. You will see for yourself what I can do.”

Achish replied, “All right. I’ll make you my own personal guard for life.”

Saul and the Woman at Endor

[3]Samuel had died. The whole nation of Israel was filled with sorrow because he was dead. They had buried him in his own town of Ramah. Saul had thrown out of the land people who get messages from those who have died. He had also thrown out people who talk to the spirits of the dead.

[4]The Philistines gathered together and set up camp at Shunem. At the same time, Saul gathered together all the Israelites. They set up camp at Gilboa.
[5]When Saul saw the Philistine army, he was afraid. Terror filled his heart. [6]He asked the LORD for advice. But the LORD didn’t answer him through dreams or prophets. He didn’t answer him when Saul had the priest cast lots by using the Urim. [7]Saul spoke to his attendants. He said, “Find me a woman who gets messages from those who have died. Then I can go and ask her some questions.”

“There’s a woman like that in Endor,” they said.

[8]Saul put on different clothes so people wouldn’t know who he was. At night he and two of his men went to see the woman. “I want you to talk to a spirit for me,” he said. “Bring up the spirit of the dead person I choose.”

[9]But the woman said to him, “By now you must know what Saul has done. He has removed everyone who gets messages from those who have died. He has also removed everyone who talks to the spirits of the dead. He has thrown all of them out of the land. Why are you trying to trap me? Why do you want to have me put to death?”

[10]Saul made a promise in the name of the LORD. He said to the woman, “You can be sure that the LORD lives. And you can be just as sure that you won’t be punished for helping me.”

[11]Then the woman asked, “Whose spirit should I bring up for you?”

“Bring Samuel up,” he said.

[12]When the woman saw Samuel, she let out a loud scream. She said to Saul,

“Why have you tricked me? You are King Saul!”

13He said to her, “Don’t be afraid. Tell me what you see.”

The woman said, “I see a ghostly figure. He’s coming up out of the earth.”

14“What does he look like?” Saul asked.

“An old man wearing a robe is coming up,” she said.

Then Saul knew it was Samuel. He bowed down. He lay down flat with his face toward the ground.

15Samuel said to Saul, “Why have you troubled me by bringing me up from the dead?”

“I’m having big problems,” Saul said. “The Philistines are fighting against me. God has left me. He doesn’t answer me anymore. He doesn’t speak to me through prophets or dreams. So I’ve called on you to tell me what to do.”

16Samuel said, “The LORD has left you. He has become your enemy. So why are you asking me what you should do? 17The LORD has spoken through me and has done what he said he would do. The LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hands. He has given it to one of your neighbors. He has given it to David. 18You didn’t obey the LORD. You didn’t show his great anger against the Amalekites by destroying them. So he’s punishing you today. 19He will hand both Israel and you over to the Philistines. Tomorrow you and your sons will be down here with me. The LORD will also hand Israel’s army over to the Philistines.”

20Immediately Saul fell flat on the ground. What Samuel had said filled Saul with fear. His strength was gone. He hadn’t eaten anything all that day and all that night.

21The woman went over to Saul because she saw that he was very upset. She said, “Look, I’ve obeyed you. I put my own life in danger by doing what you told me to do. 22So please listen to me. Let me give you some food. Eat it. Then you will have the strength to go on your way.”

23But he refused. He said, “I don’t want anything to eat.”

Then his men joined the woman in begging him to eat. Finally, he paid attention to them. He got up from the ground and sat on a couch.

24The woman had a fat calf at her house. She killed it at once. She got some flour. She mixed it and baked some bread that didn’t have any yeast in it. 25Then she set the food in front of Saul and his men. They ate it. That same night they got up and left.

1 Samuel 29

Achish Sends David Back to Ziklag

[1]The Philistines gathered their whole army together at Aphek. Israel's army camped by the spring of water at Jezreel. [2]The Philistine rulers marched out in groups of hundreds and thousands. David and his men were marching with Achish behind the others. [3]The commanders of the Philistines asked, "Why are these Hebrews here?"

Achish replied, "That's David, isn't it? Wasn't he an officer of Saul, the king of Israel? He has already been with me for more than a year. I haven't found any fault in him. That's been true from the day he left Saul until now."

[4]But the Philistine commanders were angry with Achish. They said, "Send David back. Let him return to the town you gave him. He must not go with us into battle. If he does, he'll turn against us during the fighting. In fact, he might even cut off the heads of our own men. What better way could he choose to win back his master's favor? [5]Isn't David the one the Israelites sang about when they danced? They sang,

> " 'Saul has killed thousands of men.
> David has killed tens of thousands.' "

[6]So Achish called David over to him. He said, "You have been faithful to me.
And that's just as sure as the LORD is alive. I would be pleased to have you serve with me in the army. I haven't found any fault in you. That's been true from the day you came to me until today. But the Philistine rulers aren't pleased to have you come along. [7]So now go back home in peace. Don't do anything that wouldn't please the Philistine rulers."

[8]"But what have I done?" asked David. "What have you found against me from the day I came to you until now? Why can't I go and fight against your enemies? After all, you are my king and master."

[9]Achish answered, "You have been as pleasing to me as an angel of God. But the Philistine commanders have said, 'We don't want David to go up with us into battle.' [10]So get up early in the morning. Take with you the men who used to serve Saul. Leave as soon as the sun begins to come up."

[11]So David and his men got up early in the morning. They went back to the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

1 Samuel 30

David Destroys the Amalekites

[1]On the third day David and his men arrived in Ziklag. The Amalekites had attacked the people of the Negev Desert. They had also attacked Ziklag and burned it. [2]They had captured the women and everyone else in Ziklag. They had taken as prisoners young people and old people alike. But they didn't kill any of them. Instead, they carried them off as they went on their way.

[3]David and his men reached Ziklag. They saw that it had been destroyed by fire. They found out that their wives and sons and daughters had been captured. [4]So David and his men began to weep out loud. They wept until they couldn't weep anymore. [5]David's two wives had been captured. Their names were Ahinoam from Jezreel and Abigail from Carmel. Abigail was Nabal's widow. [6]David was greatly troubled. His men were even talking about killing him by throwing stones at him. All of them were very bitter because their sons and daughters had been taken away. But David was made strong by the LORD his God.

[7]Then David spoke to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelek. He said, "Bring me the linen apron." Abiathar brought it to him. [8]David asked the LORD for advice. He said, "Should I chase after the men who attacked Ziklag? If I do, will I catch up with them?"

"Chase after them," the LORD answered. "You will certainly catch up with them. You will succeed in saving those who were captured."

[9]David and his 600 men came to the Besor Valley. Some of them stayed behind there. [10]That's because 200 of them were too tired to go across the valley. But David and the other 400 continued the chase.

[11]David's men found an Egyptian in a field. They brought him to David. They gave him water to drink and food to eat. [12]They gave him part of a cake of pressed figs. They also gave him two raisin cakes. After he ate them, he felt as good as new. That's because he hadn't eaten any food for three days and three nights. He hadn't drunk any water during that time either.

[13]David asked him, "Who do you belong to? Where do you come from?"

The man said, "I'm from Egypt. I'm the slave of an Amalekite. My master deserted me when I became ill three days ago. [14]We attacked the people in the Negev Desert of the Kerethites. We attacked the territory that belongs to Judah.

We attacked the people in the Negev Desert of Caleb. And we burned Ziklag.”

15David asked him, “Can you lead me down to the men who attacked Ziklag?”

He answered, “Make a promise to me in the name of God. Promise that you won’t kill me. Promise that you won’t hand me over to my master. Then I’ll take you down to them.”

16He led David down to where the men were. They were scattered all over the countryside. They were eating and drinking and dancing wildly. That’s because they had taken a large amount of goods from those they had attacked. They had taken it from the land of the Philistines and from the people of Judah. 17David fought against them from sunset until the evening of the next day. None of them escaped except 400 young men. They rode off on camels and got away. 18David got everything back that the Amalekites had taken. That included his two wives. 19Nothing was missing. Not one young person or old person or boy or girl was missing. None of the goods or anything else the Amalekites had taken was missing. David brought everything back. 20He brought back all the flocks and herds. His men drove them on ahead of the other livestock. They said, “Here’s what David has captured.”

21Then David came to the 200 men who had been too tired to follow him. They had been left behind in the Besor Valley. They came out to welcome David and the men with him. As David and his men approached, he asked them how they were. 22But some of the men who had gone out with David were evil. They wanted to stir up trouble. They said, “The 200 men didn’t go out into battle with us. So we won’t share with them the goods we brought back. But each man can take his wife and children and go home.”

23David replied, “No, my friends. You must not hold back their share of what the LORD has given us. He has kept us safe. He has handed over to us the men who attacked us. 24So no one will pay any attention to what you are saying. Each man who stayed with the supplies will receive the same share as each man who went down to the battle. Everyone’s share will be the same.” 25David made that a law and a rule for Israel. It has been followed from that day until now.

26David reached Ziklag. He sent some of the goods to the elders of Judah. They were his friends. He said, “Here’s a gift for you. It’s part of the things we took from the LORD’s enemies.”

27David sent some goods to the elders in Bethel, Ramoth Negev and Jattir. 28He sent some to the elders in Aroer, Siphmoth, Eshtemoa 29and Rakal. He sent some to the elders in the towns of the Jerahmeelites and Kenites. 30He sent some to the elders in Hormah, Bor Ashan, Athak 31and Hebron. He also sent some to the elders in all the other places where he and his men had wandered around.

1 Samuel 31

Saul Takes His Own Life

[1]The Philistines fought against the Israelites. The Israelites ran away from them. But many Israelites were killed on Mount Gilboa. [2]The Philistines kept chasing Saul and his sons. They killed his sons Jonathan, Abinadab and Malki-Shua. [3]The fighting was heavy around Saul. Men who were armed with bows and arrows caught up with him. They shot their arrows at him and wounded him badly.

[4]Saul spoke to the man carrying his armor. He said, “Pull out your sword. Stick it through me. If you don’t, these fellows who aren’t circumcised will come. They’ll stick their swords through me and hurt me badly.”

But the man was terrified. He wouldn’t do it. So Saul took his own sword and fell on it. [5]The man saw that Saul was dead. So he fell on his own sword and died with him. [6]Saul and his three sons died together that same day. The man who carried his armor also died with them that day. So did all of Saul’s men.

[7]The Israelites who lived along the valley saw that their army had run away. So did those who lived across the Jordan River. They saw that Saul and his sons were dead. So they left their towns and ran away. Then the Philistines came and made their homes in them.

[8]The day after the Philistines had won the battle, they came to take what they wanted from the dead bodies. They found Saul and his three sons dead on Mount Gilboa. [9]So they cut off Saul’s head. They took his armor from his body. Then they sent messengers through the whole land of the Philistines. They announced the news in the temple where they had set up statues of their gods. They also announced it among their people. [10]They put Saul’s armor in the temple where they had set up statues of female gods that were named Ashtoreth. They hung his body up on the wall of Beth Shan.

[11]The people of Jabesh Gilead heard about what the Philistines had done to Saul. [12]So all their brave men marched through the night to Beth Shan. They took down the bodies of Saul and his sons from the wall of Beth Shan. They brought them to Jabesh. There they burned them. [13]Then they got the bones of Saul and his sons and buried them under a tamarisk tree at Jabesh. They didn’t eat anything for seven days.

2 Samuel

2 Samuel 1

David Hears That Saul Has Died

1 After Saul died, David returned to Ziklag. He had won the battle over the Amalekites. He stayed in Ziklag for two days. 2 On the third day a man arrived from Saul's camp. His clothes were torn. He had dust on his head. When he came to David, he fell to the ground to show him respect.

3 "Where have you come from?" David asked him.

He answered, "I've escaped from Israel's camp."

4 "What happened?" David asked. "Tell me."

He said, "Israel's men ran away from the battle. Many of them were killed.
Saul and his son Jonathan are dead."

5 David spoke to the young man who brought him the report. He asked him,
"How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?"

6 "I just happened to be there on Mount Gilboa," the young man said. "Saul was there too. He was leaning on his spear. The enemy chariots and chariot drivers had almost caught up with him. 7 Then he turned around and saw me. He called out to me. I said, 'What do you want me to do?'

8 "He asked me, 'Who are you?'

" 'An Amalekite,' I answered.

9 "Then he said to me, 'Stand here by me and kill me! I'm close to death, but I'm still alive.'

10 "So I stood beside him and killed him. I did it because I knew that after he had lost the battle he would be killed anyway. So I took the crown that was on his head. I also took his armband. I've brought them here to you. You are my master."

11 Then David tore his clothes. And all his men tore their clothes. 12 All of them were filled with sadness. They mourned over the whole nation of Israel. They didn't eat anything until evening. That's because Saul and Jonathan and the LORD's army had been killed by swords.

13 David spoke to the young man who had brought him the report. He asked,
"Where are you from?"

"I'm the son of an outsider, an Amalekite," he answered.

[14]David asked him, “Why weren’t you afraid to lift your hand to kill the LORD’s anointed king?”

[15]Then David called for one of his men. He said, “Go! Strike him down!” So he struck the man down, and the man died. [16]That’s because David had said to him, “Anything that happens to you will be your own fault. What your own mouth has spoken is a witness against you. You said, ‘I killed the LORD’s anointed king.’ ”

David’s Song of Sadness About Saul and Jonathan

[17]David sang a song of sadness about Saul and his son Jonathan. [18]He ordered that it be taught to the people of Judah. It is a song that is played on a stringed instrument. It is written down in the Book of Jashar. David sang, [19]“Israel, a gazelle lies dead on your hills.

Your mighty men have fallen.

[20]“Don’t announce it in Gath.
Don’t tell it in the streets of Ashkelon.
If you do, the daughters of the Philistines will be glad.
The daughters of men who haven’t been circumcised will be joyful.

[21]“Mountains of Gilboa, may no dew or rain fall on you.
May no showers fall on your hillside fields.
The shield of the mighty king wasn’t respected there.
The shield of Saul lies there. It isn’t rubbed with oil anymore.
[22]The bow of Jonathan didn’t turn back.
The sword of Saul didn’t return without being satisfied.
They spilled the blood of their enemies.
They killed mighty men.

[23]“When they lived, Saul and Jonathan were loved and respected.
When they died, they were not parted.
They were faster than eagles.
They were stronger than lions.

24 “Daughters of Israel, mourn over Saul.
He dressed you in the finest clothes.
He decorated your clothes with ornaments of gold.

25 “Your mighty men have fallen in battle.
Jonathan lies dead on your hills.
26 My brother Jonathan, I’m filled with sadness because of you.
You were very special to me.
Your love for me was wonderful.
It was more wonderful than the love of women.

27 “Israel’s mighty men have fallen.
Their weapons of war are broken.”

2 Samuel 2

David Is Anointed to Be King Over Judah

1 After Saul and Jonathan died, David asked the LORD for advice. “Should I go up to one of the towns of Judah?” he asked.
The LORD said, “Go up.”
David asked, “Where should I go?”
“To Hebron,” the LORD answered.
2 So David went up there with his two wives. Their names were Ahinoam from Jezreel and Abigail from Carmel. Abigail was Nabal’s widow. 3 David also took his men and their families with him. They made their homes in Hebron and its towns. 4 Then the men of Judah came to Hebron. There they anointed David to be king over the people of Judah.
David was told that the men from Jabesh Gilead had buried Saul’s body. 5 So he sent messengers to them to speak for him. The messengers said, “You were kind to bury the body of your master Saul. May the LORD bless you for that.
6 And may he now be kind and faithful to you. David will treat you well for being kind to Saul’s body. 7 Now then, be strong and brave. Your master Saul is dead.
And the people of Judah have anointed David to be king over them.”

The Armies of David and Saul Fight Each Other

8 Abner, the son of Ner, was commander of Saul’s army. Abner had brought Saul’s son Ish-Bosheth to Mahanaim. 9 There Abner made Ish-Bosheth king over Gilead, Ashuri and Jezreel. He also made him king over Ephraim, Benjamin and other areas of Israel.
10 Ish-Bosheth was 40 years old when he became king over Israel. He ruled for two years. But the people of Judah remained faithful to David. 11 David was king in Hebron over the people of Judah for seven and a half years.
12 Abner, the son of Ner, left Mahanaim and went to Gibeon. The men of Ish-Bosheth, the son of Saul, went with him. 13 Joab, the son of Zeruiah, and David’s men also went out. All of them met at the pool in Gibeon. One group sat down on one side of the pool. The other group sat on the other side.
14 Then Abner said to Joab, “Let’s have some of the young men get up and fight. Let’s tell them to fight hand to hand in front of us.”
“All right. Let them do it,” Joab said.

15So the young men stood up and were counted off. There were 12 on the side of Benjamin and Saul's son Ish-Bosheth. And there were 12 on David's side.
16Each man grabbed one of his enemies by the head. Each one stuck his dagger into the other man's side. And all of them fell down together and died. So that place in Gibeon was named Helkath Hazzurim.

17The fighting that day was very heavy. Abner and the Israelites lost the battle to David's men.

18The three sons of Zeruiah were there. Their names were Joab, Abishai and Asahel. Asahel was as quick on his feet as a wild antelope. 19He chased Abner.
He didn't turn to the right or the left as he chased him. 20Abner looked behind him. He asked, "Asahel, is that you?"

"It is," he answered.

21Then Abner said to him, "Turn to the right or the left. Fight one of the young men. Take his weapons away from him." But Asahel wouldn't stop chasing him.

22Again Abner warned Asahel, "Stop chasing me! If you don't, I'll strike you down. Then how could I look your brother Joab in the face?"

23But Asahel refused to give up the chase. So Abner drove the dull end of his spear into Asahel's stomach. The spear came out through his back. He fell and died right there on the spot. Every man stopped when he came to the place where Asahel had fallen and died.

24But Joab and Abishai chased Abner. As the sun was going down, they came to the hill of Ammah. It was near Giah on the way to the dry and empty land close to Gibeon. 25The men of Benjamin gathered in a group around Abner.
They took their stand on top of a hill.

26Abner called out to Joab, "Do you want our swords to keep on killing us off? Don't you know that all this fighting will end in bitter feelings? How long will it be before you order your men to stop chasing their fellow Israelites?"

27Joab answered, "It's a good thing you spoke up. If you hadn't, the men would have kept on chasing them until morning. And that's just as sure as God is alive."

28So Joab blew a trumpet. All the troops stopped. They didn't chase Israel anymore. They didn't fight anymore either.

29All that night Abner and his men marched through the Arabah Valley. They went across the Jordan River. All morning long they kept on going. Finally, they came to Mahanaim.

30Then Joab stopped chasing Abner. He gathered together the whole army.

Besides Asahel, only 19 of David's men were missing. [31]But David's men had killed 360 men from Benjamin who were with Abner. [32]They got Asahel's body and buried it in his father's tomb at Bethlehem. Then Joab and his men marched all night. They arrived at Hebron at sunrise.

2 Samuel 3

[1]The war between Saul's royal house and David's royal house lasted a long time. David grew stronger and stronger. But the royal house of Saul grew weaker and weaker.

[2]Sons were born to David in Hebron.

His first son was Amnon. Amnon's mother was Ahinoam from Jezreel.
[3]His second son was Kileab. Kileab's mother was Abigail. She was Nabal's widow from Carmel.
The third son was Absalom. His mother was Maakah. She was the daughter of Talmai, the king of Geshur.
[4]The fourth son was Adonijah. His mother was Haggith.
The fifth son was Shephatiah. His mother was Abital.
[5]The sixth son was Ithream. His mother was David's wife Eglah.
Those sons were born to David in Hebron.

Abner Goes Over to David's Side

[6]The fighting continued between David's royal house and Saul's royal house. Abner gained more and more power in the royal house of Saul. [7]While Saul was still alive, he had a concubine named Rizpah. She was the daughter of Aiah. Ish-Bosheth said to Abner, "Why did you sleep with my father's concubine?"

[8]Abner was very angry because of what Ish-Bosheth said. So Abner answered, "Do you think I'm only a dog's head? Am I on Judah's side? To this day I've been faithful to the royal house of your father Saul. I've been faithful to his family and friends. I haven't handed you over to David. But now you claim that I've sinned with this woman! [9]I will do for David what the LORD promised him. If I don't, may God punish me greatly. [10]I'll take the kingdom away from Saul's royal house. I'll set up the throne of David's kingdom over Israel and Judah. He will rule from Dan all the way to Beersheba." [11]Ish-Bosheth didn't dare to say another word to Abner. He was much too afraid of him.

[12]Then Abner sent messengers to David to speak for him. They said, "Who will rule over this land? Make a covenant with me. Then I'll help you bring all the Israelites over to your side."

[13]"Good," said David. "I will make a covenant with you. But there's one thing

I want you to do. Bring Saul's daughter Michal to me. Don't come to see me unless she's with you." [14]Then David sent messengers to Saul's son Ish-Bosheth. He ordered them to say, "Give me my wife Michal. She was promised to me. I paid for her the price that was demanded. I paid for her with the skins of 100 circumcised Philistines."

[15]So Ish-Bosheth gave the order. He sent men who took Michal away from her husband Paltiel. Paltiel was the son of Laish. [16]But her husband followed her to Bahurim. He was crying all the way. Then Abner said to him, "Go back home!" So he did.

[17]Abner talked with the elders of Israel. He said, "For some time you have wanted to make David your king. [18]Now do it! The LORD made a promise to David. He said, 'I will rescue my people Israel from the power of the Philistines. I will also rescue them from all their enemies. I will rescue them through my servant David.' "

[19]Abner also spoke to the people of Benjamin in person. Then he went to Hebron to tell David everything. He told him what Israel and all the people of Benjamin wanted to do. [20]Abner had 20 men with him. They came to David at Hebron. So David prepared a feast for Abner and his men. [21]Then Abner said to David, "Let me go right now. I'll gather together all the Israelites for you. After all, you are now my king and master. The people can make a covenant with you. Then you can rule over everyone you want to." So David sent Abner away. And he went in peace.

Joab Murders Abner

[22]Just then David's men and Joab came back from attacking their enemies. They brought with them the large amount of goods they had taken. But Abner wasn't with David in Hebron anymore. That's because David had sent him away, and he had gone in peace. [23]Joab and all the soldiers with him arrived. Then he was told that Abner, the son of Ner, had come to see the king. He was told that the king had sent Abner away. He was also told that Abner had gone in peace.

[24]So Joab went to the king. He said, "What have you done? Abner came to you. Why did you let him get away? Now he's gone! [25]You know what Abner, the son of Ner, is like. He came to trick you. He wanted to watch your every move. He came to find out everything you are doing."

[26]Then Joab left David. He sent messengers to get Abner. They brought Abner back from the well of Sirah. But David didn't know about it. [27]When Abner returned to Hebron, Joab took him to one side. He brought him into an inside room. Joab acted as if he wanted to speak to him in private. But he really wanted to get even with him. That's because Abner had spilled the blood of Joab's brother Asahel. So Joab stabbed Abner in the stomach, and he died.

[28]Later on, David heard about it. He said, "I and the people of my kingdom aren't guilty of spilling the blood of Abner, the son of Ner. We are free of blame forever in the sight of the LORD. [29]May Joab and his whole family line be held accountable for spilling Abner's blood! May Joab's family never be without someone who has an open sore or skin disease. May his family never be without someone who has to use a crutch to walk. May his family never be without someone who gets killed by a sword. And may his family never be without someone who doesn't have enough to eat."

[30]Joab and his brother Abishai murdered Abner. They did it because he had killed their brother Asahel in the battle at Gibeon.

[31]David spoke to Joab and all the people with him. He said, "Tear your clothes. Put on the rough clothing people wear when they're sad. Mourn when you walk in front of Abner's body." King David himself walked behind it. [32]Abner's body was buried in Hebron. The king wept out loud at Abner's tomb. So did the rest of the people.

[33]King David sang a song of sadness over Abner. He said,

"Should Abner have died as sinful people do?
[34]His hands were not tied.
His feet were not chained.
He died as if he had been killed by evil people."

All the people mourned over Abner again.

[35]Then all of them came and begged David to eat something. They wanted him to eat while it was still day. But David made a promise. He said, "I won't taste bread or anything else before the sun goes down. If I do, may God punish me greatly!"

[36]All the people heard his promise and were pleased. In fact, everything the king did pleased them. [37]So on that day all the people there and all the Israelites understood. They knew that the king didn't have anything to do with the murder of Abner, the son of Ner.

[38]The king spoke to his men. He said, "Don't you realize that a great commander has died in Israel today? [39]I'm the anointed king. But today I'm weak. These sons of Zeruiah are too powerful for me. May the LORD pay back the one who killed Abner! May he pay him back for the evil thing he has done!”

2 Samuel 4

Ish-Bosheth Is Murdered

[1]Ish-Bosheth, the son of Saul, heard that Abner had died in Hebron. Then he wasn't so brave anymore. And all the Israelites became alarmed. [2]Two men in Ish-Bosheth's army led small fighting groups that attacked their enemies. The names of the men were Baanah and Rekab. They were sons of Rimmon from the town of Beeroth. Rimmon was from the tribe of Benjamin. Beeroth is considered to be part of Benjamin. [3]That's because the people who used to live in Beeroth had run away to Gittaim. They have lived there as outsiders to this day.

[4]Jonathan, the son of Saul, had a son named Mephibosheth. Both of Mephibosheth's feet were hurt. He was five years old when the news that Saul and Jonathan had died came from Jezreel. His nurse picked him up and ran. But as she hurried to get away, he fell down. That's how his feet were hurt.

[5]Rekab and Baanah started out for the house of Ish-Bosheth. They were the sons of Rimmon from Beeroth. They arrived there during the hottest time of the day. Ish-Bosheth was taking his early afternoon nap. [6]Rekab and his brother Baanah went into the inside part of the house. They acted as if they were going to get some wheat. Instead, they stabbed Ish-Bosheth in the stomach. Then they slipped away.

[7]They had gone into the house while Ish-Bosheth was lying on his bed in his bedroom. They stabbed him and killed him. Then they cut off his head and took it with them. They traveled all night through the Arabah Valley. [8]They brought the head of Ish-Bosheth to King David at Hebron. They said to him, "Here's the head of Ish-Bosheth, the son of Saul. Saul was your enemy. He often tried to kill you. Today the LORD has paid back Saul and his family. He has let you get even with them. You are our king and master."

[9]David gave an answer to Rekab and his brother Baanah. They were the sons of Rimmon from Beeroth. David said, "The LORD has saved me from every trouble. [10]Someone once told me, 'Saul is dead.' He thought he was bringing me good news. But I grabbed him. I had him put to death in Ziklag. That's the reward I gave him for his news! And that's just as sure as the LORD is alive. [11]Now you evil men have killed a man in his own house. He hadn't done anything wrong. You killed him while he was lying on his own bed. You spilled his blood. So shouldn't I spill your blood? Shouldn't I wipe you off the face of the earth?"

[12]Then David gave an order to his men. They killed Rekab and Baanah. They cut off their hands and feet. They hung their bodies by the pool in Hebron. But they buried the head of Ish-Bosheth in Abner’s tomb at Hebron.

2 Samuel 5

David Becomes King Over Israel

[1]All the tribes of Israel came to see David at Hebron. They said, “We are your own flesh and blood. [2]In the past, Saul was our king. But you led Israel on their military campaigns. And the LORD said to you, ‘You will be the shepherd over my people Israel. You will become their ruler.’ ” [3]All the elders of Israel came to see King David at Hebron. There the king made a covenant with them in front of the LORD. They anointed David as king over Israel.
[4]David was 30 years old when he became king. He ruled for 40 years. [5]In Hebron he ruled over Judah for seven and a half years. In Jerusalem he ruled over all of Israel and Judah for 33 years.

David Captures Jerusalem

[6]The king and his men marched to Jerusalem. They went to attack the Jebusites who lived there. The Jebusites said to David, “You won’t get in here.
Even people who can’t see or walk can keep you from coming in.” The Jebusites thought, “David can’t get in here.” [7]But David captured the fort of Zion. It became known as the City of David.
[8]On that day David had said, “Someone might win the battle over the Jebusites. But they will have to crawl through the water tunnel to get into the city. That’s the only way they can reach those enemies of mine that you say can’t see or walk.” That’s why people say, “Those who ‘can’t see or walk’ won’t enter David’s palace.”
[9]David moved into the fort. He called it the City of David. He built up the area around the fort. He filled in the low places. He started at the bottom and worked his way up. [10]David became more and more powerful. That’s because the LORD God who rules over all was with him.
[11]Hiram was king of Tyre. He sent messengers to David. He sent cedar logs along with them. He also sent skilled workers. They worked with wood and stone. They built a palace for David. [12]Then David knew that the LORD had made his position as king secure. He knew that he had made him king over the whole nation of Israel. He knew that the LORD had greatly honored his kingdom. The LORD had done it because the Israelites were his people.

[13]After David left Hebron, he got more concubines and wives in Jerusalem. More sons and daughters were born to him there. [14]Here is a list of the children who were born to him in Jerusalem. Their names were Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, [15]Ibhar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia, [16]Elishama, Eliada and Eliphelet.

David Wins the Battle Over the Philistines

[17]The Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over Israel. So their whole army went to look for him. But David heard about it. He went down to his usual place of safety. [18]The Philistines had come and spread out in the Valley of Rephaim. [19]So David asked the LORD for advice. He said, “Should I go and attack the Philistines? Will you hand them over to me?”

The LORD answered him, “Go. I will surely hand over the Philistines to you.”

[20]So David went to Baal Perazim. There he won the battle over the Philistines. He said, “The LORD has broken through against my enemies when I’ve attacked them. He has broken through just as water breaks through a dam.” That’s why the place was called Baal Perazim. [21]The Philistines left the statues of their gods there. So David and his men carried off the statues.

[22]Once more the Philistines came up. They spread out in the Valley of Rephaim. [23]So David asked the LORD for advice. The LORD answered, “Do not go straight up. Instead, circle around behind them. Attack them in front of the poplar trees. [24]Listen for the sound of marching in the tops of the trees. Then move quickly. The sound will mean that I have gone out in front of you. I will strike down the Philistine army.” [25]So David did just as the LORD had commanded him. He struck down the Philistines. He struck them down from Gibeon all the way to Gezer.

2 Samuel 6

David Brings the Ark to Jerusalem

[1]Again David brought together the best soldiers in Israel. The total number was 30,000. [2]He and all his men went to Baalah in Judah. They wanted to bring the ark of God up to Jerusalem from there. The ark is named after the LORD. He is the LORD who rules over all. He sits on his throne between the cherubim that are on the ark. [3]The ark of God was placed on a new cart. Then it was brought from Abinadab's house, which was on a hill. Uzzah and Ahio were guiding the cart. They were the sons of Abinadab. [4]The ark of God was on the cart. Ahio was walking in front of it. [5]David was celebrating with all his might in front of the LORD. So was the whole community of Israel. All of them were playing castanets, harps, lyres, tambourines, rattles and cymbals.

[6]They came to the threshing floor of Nakon. The oxen nearly fell there. So Uzzah reached out and took hold of the ark of God. [7]Then the LORD was very angry with Uzzah. That's because what Uzzah did showed that he didn't have any respect for the LORD. So God struck him down. He died there beside the ark of God.

[8]David was angry because the LORD's great anger had broken out against Uzzah. That's why the place is still called Perez Uzzah to this day.

[9]David was afraid of the LORD that day. He asked, "How can the ark of the LORD ever be brought to me?" [10]He didn't want to take the ark of the LORD to be with him in the City of David. Instead, he took it to the house of Obed-Edom. Obed-Edom was from Gath. [11]The ark of the LORD remained in Obed-Edom's house for three months. And the LORD blessed him and his whole family.

[12]King David was told, "The LORD has blessed the family of Obed-Edom. He has also blessed everything that belongs to him. That's because the ark of God is in Obed-Edom's house." So David went down there to bring up the ark. With great joy he brought it up from the house of Obed-Edom. He took it to the City of David. [13]Those carrying the ark of the LORD took six steps forward. Then David sacrificed a bull and a fat calf. [14]David was wearing a sacred linen apron. He danced in front of the LORD with all his might. [15]He did it while he was bringing up the ark of the LORD. The whole community of Israel helped him bring it up. They shouted. They blew trumpets.

[16]The ark of the LORD was brought into the City of David. Saul's daughter Michal was watching from a window. She saw King David leaping and dancing in front of the LORD. That made her hate him in her heart.

17The ark of the LORD was brought into Jerusalem. It was put in its place in the tent David had set up for it. David sacrificed burnt offerings and friendship offerings to the LORD. 18After he finished sacrificing those offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD who rules over all. 19He gave to each Israelite man and woman a loaf of bread. He also gave each one a date cake and a raisin cake. Then all the people went home.

20David returned home to bless his family. Saul's daughter Michal came out to meet him. She said, "You are the king of Israel. You have really brought honor to yourself today, haven't you? You have gone around half-naked right in front of the female slaves of your officials. You acted like a fool!"

21David said to Michal, "I did it to honor the LORD. He chose me instead of your father or anyone else in Saul's family. The LORD appointed me ruler over his people Israel. I will celebrate to honor the LORD. 22And that's not all. I will bring even less honor to myself. I will bring even more shame on myself. But those female slaves you spoke about will honor me."

23Saul's daughter Michal didn't have any children as long as she lived.

2 Samuel 7

God's Promise to David

[1]The king moved into his palace. The LORD had given him peace and rest from all his enemies around him. [2]Then the king spoke to Nathan the prophet.
He said, "Here I am, living in a house that has beautiful cedar walls. But the ark of God remains in a tent."

[3]Nathan replied to the king, "Go ahead and do what you want to. The LORD is with you."

[4]But that night the word of the LORD came to Nathan. The LORD said,

> [5]"Go and speak to my servant David. Tell him, 'The LORD says, "Are > you the one to build me a house to live in? [6]I brought the Israelites up > out of Egypt. But I have not lived in a house from then until now. I have > been moving from place to place. I have been living in a tent. [7]I have > moved from place to place with all the Israelites. I commanded their > rulers to be shepherds over them. I never asked any of those rulers, > 'Why haven't you built me a house that has beautiful cedar walls?' " '
>
> [8]"So tell my servant David, 'The LORD who rules over all says, "I > took you away from the grasslands. That's where you were taking care > of your father's sheep and goats. I made you ruler over my people > Israel. [9]I have been with you everywhere you have gone. I have > destroyed all your enemies. Now I will make you famous. Your name > will be just as respected as the names of the most important people on > earth. [10]I will provide a place where my people Israel can live. I will > plant them in the land. Then they will have a home of their own. They > will not be bothered anymore. Evil people will no longer crush them, as > they did at first. [11]That is what your enemies have done ever since I > appointed leaders over my people Israel. But I will give you peace and > rest from all of them.
>
> " ' "I tell you that I, the LORD, will set up a royal house for you.
> [12]Some day your life will come to an end. You will join the members of > your family who have already died. Then I will make one of your own > sons the next king after you. And I will make his kingdom secure. [13]He > is the one who will build a house where I will put my Name. I will set up the throne of his kingdom. It will last forever. [14]I will be his father.

And he will be my son. When he does what is wrong, I will use other men to beat him with rods and whips. [15]I took my love away from Saul.
I removed him from being king. You were there when I did it. But I will never take my love away from your son. [16]Your royal house and your kingdom will last forever in my sight. Your throne will last forever." ' "

[17]Nathan reported to David all the words that the LORD had spoken to him.

David's Prayer to the LORD

[18]Then King David went into the holy tent. He sat down in front of the LORD.
He said,

"LORD and King, who am I? My family isn't important. So why have you brought me this far? [19]I would have thought that you had already done more than enough for me. But now, LORD and King, you have also said what will happen to my royal house in days to come. And, my LORD and King, this promise is for a mere human being!

[20]"What more can I say to you? LORD and King, you know all about me. [21]You have done a wonderful thing. You have made it known to me. You have done it because that's what you said you would do. It's exactly what you wanted to do for me.

[22]"LORD and King, how great you are! There isn't anyone like you.
There isn't any God but you. We have heard about it with our own ears.
[23]Who is like your people Israel? God, we are the one nation on earth you have saved. You have set us free for yourself. Your name has become famous. You have done great and wonderful things. You have driven out nations and their gods to make room for your people. You saved us when you set us free from Egypt. [24]You made Israel your very own people forever. LORD, you have become our God.

[25]"And now, LORD God, keep forever the promise you have made to me and my royal house. Do exactly as you promised. [26]Then your name will be honored forever. People will say, 'The LORD rules over all. He is God over Israel.' My royal house will be made secure in your sight.

[27]"LORD who rules over all, you are the God of Israel. Here's what you have shown me. You told me, 'I will build you a royal house.' So I can boldly pray this prayer to you. [28]LORD and King, you are God!

Your covenant can be trusted. You have promised many good things to me. [29]Now please bless my royal house. Then it will continue forever in your sight. LORD and King, you have spoken. Because you have given my royal house your blessing, it will be blessed forever.”

2 Samuel 8

David Wins Many Battles

[1]While David was king of Israel, he won many battles over the Philistines. He brought them under his control. He took Metheg Ammah away from them.

[2]David also won the battle over the people of Moab. He made them lie down on the ground. Then he measured them off with a piece of rope. He put two-thirds of them to death. He let the other third remain alive. So the Moabites were brought under David's rule. They gave him the gifts he required them to bring him.

[3]David fought against Hadadezer, the son of Rehob. Hadadezer was king of Zobah. He had gone to repair his monument at the Euphrates River. [4]David captured 1,000 of Hadadezer's chariots, 7,000 chariot riders and 20,000 soldiers on foot. He cut the legs of all but 100 of the chariot horses.

[5]The Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer, the king of Zobah. But David struck down 22,000 of them. [6]He stationed some soldiers in the Aramean kingdom of Damascus. The people of Aram were brought under his rule. They gave him the gifts he required them to bring him. The LORD helped David win his battles everywhere he went.

[7]David took the gold shields that belonged to the officers of Hadadezer. He brought the shields to Jerusalem. [8]He took a huge amount of bronze from Tebah and Berothai. Those towns belonged to Hadadezer.

[9]Tou was king of Hamath. He heard that David had won the battle over the entire army of Hadadezer. [10]So Tou sent his son Joram to King David. Joram greeted David. He praised David because he had won the battle over Hadadezer. Hadadezer had been at war with Tou. So Joram brought with him gifts made out of silver, of gold and of bronze.

[11]King David set those gifts apart for the LORD. He had done the same thing with the silver and gold he had taken from the other nations. Those were nations he had brought under his control. [12]Those nations were Edom, Moab, Ammon, Philistia and Amalek. He also set apart for the LORD what he had taken from Hadadezer, the son of Rehob. Hadadezer was king of Zobah.

[13]David returned after he had struck down 18,000 men of Edom in the Valley of Salt. He became famous for doing it.

[14]He stationed some soldiers all through Edom. The whole nation of Edom was brought under David’s rule. The LORD helped him win his battles everywhere he went.

David’s Officials

15 David ruled over the whole nation of Israel. He did what was fair and right for all his people. 16 Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was commander over the army.
Jehoshaphat, the son of Ahilud, kept the records. 17 Zadok, the son of Ahitub, was a priest. Ahimelek, the son of Abiathar, was also a priest. Seraiah was the secretary. 18 Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, was commander over the Kerethites and Pelethites. And David’s sons were priests.

2 Samuel 9

David and Mephibosheth

1 David asked, “Is anyone left from the royal house of Saul? If there is, I want to be kind to him because of Jonathan.”
2 Ziba was a servant in Saul’s family. David sent for him to come and see him.
The king said to him, “Are you Ziba?”
“I’m ready to serve you,” he replied.
3 The king asked, “Isn’t there anyone still alive from the royal house of Saul?
God has been very kind to me. I would like to be kind to that person in the same way.”
Ziba answered the king, “A son of Jonathan is still living. Both of his feet were hurt so that he can’t walk.”
4 “Where is he?” the king asked.
Ziba answered, “He’s in the town of Lo Debar. He’s staying at the house of Makir, the son of Ammiel.”
5 So King David had Mephibosheth brought from Makir’s house in Lo Debar.
6 Mephibosheth came to David. He was the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul.
Mephibosheth bowed down to David to show him respect.
David said, “Mephibosheth!”
“I’m ready to serve you,” he replied.
7 “Don’t be afraid,” David told him. “You can be sure that I will be kind to you because of your father Jonathan. I’ll give back to you all the land that belonged to your grandfather Saul. And I’ll always provide what you need.” 8 Mephibosheth bowed down to David. He said, “Who am I? Why should you pay attention to me? I’m nothing but a dead dog.” 9 Then the king sent for Saul’s servant Ziba. He said to him, “I’m giving your master’s grandson everything that belonged to Saul and his family. 10 You and your sons and your servants must farm the land for him. You must bring in the crops. Then he’ll be taken care of. I’ll always provide what he needs.” Ziba had 15 sons and 20 servants.
11 Then Ziba said to the king, “I’ll do anything you command me to do. You are my king and master.” So David provided what Mephibosheth needed. He treated him like one of the king’s sons.
12 Mephibosheth had a young son named Mika. All the members of Ziba’s family became servants of Mephibosheth. [13]Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem. The king always provided what he needed. Both of his feet were hurt so that he could not walk.

2 Samuel 10

David Wins the Victory Over the Ammonites

[1]The king of Ammon died. His son Hanun became the next king after him. [2]David thought, “I’m going to be kind to Hanun. His father Nahash was kind to me.” So David sent messengers to Hanun. He wanted them to tell Hanun how sad he was that Hanun’s father had died.

David’s messengers went to the land of Ammon. [3]The Ammonite commanders spoke to their master Hanun. They said, “David has sent messengers to tell you he is sad. They say he wants to honor your father. But the real reason they’ve come is to look the city over. They want to destroy it.” [4]So Hanun grabbed David’s messengers. He shaved off half of each man’s beard. He cut their clothes off just below the waist and left them half naked. Then he sent them away.

[5]David was told about it. So he sent messengers to his men because they were filled with shame. King David said to them, “Stay at Jericho until your beards grow out again. Then come back here.”

[6]The Ammonites realized that what they had done had made David very angry with them. So they hired 20,000 Aramean soldiers who were on foot. The soldiers came from Beth Rehob and Zobah. The Ammonites also hired the king of Maakah and 1,000 men. And they hired 12,000 men from Tob.

[7]David heard about it. So he sent Joab out with the entire army of Israel’s fighting men. [8]The Ammonites marched out. They took up their battle positions at the entrance of their city gate. The Arameans of Zobah and Rehob gathered their troops together in the open country. So did the men of Tob and Maakah.

[9]Joab saw that there were lines of soldiers in front of him and behind him. So he chose some of the best troops in Israel. He sent them to march out against the Arameans. [10]He put the rest of the men under the command of his brother Abishai. Joab sent them to march out against the Ammonites. [11]He said, “Suppose the Arameans are too strong for me. Then you must come and help me. But suppose the Ammonites are too strong for you. Then I’ll come and help you. [12]Be strong. Let’s be brave as we fight for our people and the cities of our God. The LORD will do what he thinks is best.”

[13]Then Joab and the troops with him marched out to attack the Arameans. They ran away from him. [14]The Ammonites realized that the Arameans were running away. So they ran away from Abishai. They went inside the city. After Joab had fought against the Ammonites, he went back to Jerusalem.

15The Arameans saw that they had been driven away by Israel. So they brought their troops together. 16Hadadezer had some Arameans brought from east of the Euphrates River. They went to Helam under the command of Shobak. He was the commander of Hadadezer's army.

17David was told about it. So he gathered the whole army of Israel together. They went across the Jordan River to Helam. The Arameans lined up their soldiers to go to war against David. They began to fight against him. 18But then they ran away from Israel. David killed 700 of their chariot riders. He killed 40,000 of their soldiers who were on foot. He also struck down Shobak, the commander of their army. Shobak died there. 19All the kings who were under the rule of Hadadezer saw that Israel had won the battle over them. So they made a peace treaty with the Israelites. They were brought under Israel's rule.

After that, the Arameans were afraid to help the Ammonites anymore.

2 Samuel 11

David and Bathsheba

[1]It was spring. It was the time when kings go off to war. So David sent Joab out with the king's special troops and the whole army of Israel. They destroyed the Ammonites. They marched to the city of Rabbah. They surrounded it and got ready to attack it. But David remained in Jerusalem.

[2]One evening David got up from his bed. He walked around on the roof of his palace. From the roof he saw a woman taking a bath. She was very beautiful.
[3]David sent a messenger to find out who she was. The messenger returned and said, "She is Bathsheba. She's the daughter of Eliam. She's the wife of Uriah.
He's a Hittite." [4]Then David sent messengers to get her. She came to him. And he slept with her. Then she went back home. All of that took place after she had already made herself "clean" from her monthly period. [5]Later, Bathsheba found out she was pregnant. She sent a message to David. She said, "I'm pregnant."

[6]So David sent a message to Joab. David said, "Send me Uriah, the Hittite." Joab sent him to David. [7]Uriah came to David. David asked him how Joab and the soldiers were doing. He also asked him how the war was going. [8]David said to Uriah, "Go home and enjoy some time with your wife." So Uriah left the palace. Then the king sent him a gift. [9]But Uriah didn't go home. Instead, he slept at the entrance to the palace. He stayed there with all his master's servants.

[10]David was told, "Uriah didn't go home." So he sent for Uriah. David said to him, "You have been away for a long time. Why didn't you go home?"

[11]Uriah said to David, "The ark and the army of Israel and Judah are out there in tents. My commander Joab and your special troops are camped in the open country. How could I go to my house to eat and drink? How could I go there and sleep with my wife? I could never do a thing like that. And that's just as sure as you are alive!"

[12]Then David said to him, "Stay here one more day. Tomorrow I'll send you back to the battle." So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the next.
[13]David invited Uriah to eat and drink with him. David got him drunk. But Uriah still didn't go home. In the evening he went out and slept on his mat. He stayed there among his master's servants.

[14]The next morning David wrote a letter to Joab. He sent it along with Uriah.
[15]In it he wrote, "Put Uriah out in front. That's where the fighting is the heaviest.

Then pull your men back from him. When you do, the Ammonites will strike him down and kill him.”

16So Joab attacked the city. He put Uriah at a place where he knew the strongest enemy fighters were. 17The troops came out of the city. They fought against Joab. Some of the men in David’s army were killed. Uriah, the Hittite, also died.

18Joab sent David a full report of the battle. 19He told the messenger, “Tell the king everything that happened in the battle. When you are finished, 20his anger might explode. He might ask you, ‘Why did you go so close to the city to fight against it? Didn’t you know that the enemy soldiers would shoot arrows down from the wall? 21Don’t you remember how Abimelek, the son of Jerub-Besheth, was killed? A woman dropped a large millstone on him from the wall. That’s how he died in Thebez. So why did you go so close to the wall?’ If the king asks you that, tell him, ‘And your servant Uriah, the Hittite, is also dead.’ ”

22The messenger started out for Jerusalem. When he arrived there, he told David everything Joab had sent him to say. 23The messenger said to David, “The men in the city were more powerful than we were. They came out to fight against us in the open. But we drove them back to the entrance of the city gate. 24Then those who were armed with bows shot arrows at us from the wall. Some of your special troops were killed. Your servant Uriah, the Hittite, is also dead.”

25David told the messenger, “Tell Joab, ‘Don’t get upset over what happened. Swords kill one person as well as another. So keep on attacking the city. Destroy it.’ Tell that to Joab. It will cheer him up.”

26Uriah’s wife heard that her husband was dead. She mourned over him. 27When her time of sadness was over, David had her brought to his house. She became his wife. And she had a son by him. But the LORD wasn’t pleased with what David had done.

2 Samuel 12

Nathan Tells David He Has Sinned

[1]The LORD sent the prophet Nathan to David. When Nathan came to him, he said, “Two men lived in the same town. One was rich. The other was poor. [2]The rich man had a very large number of sheep and cattle. [3]But all the poor man had was one little female lamb. He had bought it. He raised it. It grew up with him and his children. It shared his food. It drank from his cup. It even slept in his arms. It was just like a daughter to him.

[4]“One day a traveler came to the rich man. The rich man wanted to prepare a meal for him. But he didn’t want to kill one of his own sheep or cattle. Instead, he took the little female lamb that belonged to the poor man. Then the rich man cooked it for the traveler who had come to him.”

[5]David was very angry with the rich man. He said to Nathan, “The man who did this must die! And that’s just as sure as the LORD is alive. [6]The man must pay back four times as much as that lamb was worth. How could he do such a thing? And he wasn’t even sorry he had done it.”

[7]Then Nathan said to David, “You are the man! The LORD, the God of Israel, says, ‘I anointed you king over Israel. I saved you from Saul. [8]I gave you everything that belonged to your master Saul. I even put his wives into your arms. I made you king over all the people of Israel and Judah. And if all of that had not been enough for you, I would have given you even more. [9]Why did you turn your back on what I told you to do? You did what is evil in my sight. You made sure that Uriah, the Hittite, would be killed in battle. You took his wife to be your own. You let the men of Ammon kill him with their swords. [10]So time after time members of your own royal house will be killed with swords. That’s because you turned your back on me. You took the wife of Uriah, the Hittite, to be your own.’

[11]“The LORD also says, ‘I am going to bring trouble on you. It will come from your own family. I will take your wives away. Your own eyes will see it. I will give your wives to a man who is close to you. He will sleep with them in the middle of the day. [12]You committed your sins in secret. But I will make sure that the man commits his sin in the middle of the day. Everyone in Israel will see it.’ ”

[13]Then David said to Nathan, “I have sinned against the LORD.”

Nathan replied, “The LORD has taken away your sin. You aren’t going to die.
14But you have dared to show great disrespect for the LORD. So the son who has been born to you will die.”

15Nathan went home. Then the LORD made David’s child very sick. That was the child David had by Uriah’s wife. 16David begged God to heal the child.
David didn’t eat anything. He spent his nights lying on the ground. He put on the rough clothes people wear when they’re sad. 17His most trusted servants stood beside him. They wanted him to get up from the ground. But he refused to do it.
And he wouldn’t eat any food with them.

18On the seventh day the child died. David’s attendants were afraid to tell him the child was dead. They thought, “While the child was still alive, we spoke to David. But he wouldn’t listen to us. So how can we now tell him the child is dead? He might do something terrible to himself.”

19David saw that his attendants were whispering to one another. Then he realized the child was dead. “Has the child died?” he asked.

“Yes,” they replied. “He’s dead.”

20Then David got up from the ground. After he washed himself, he put on lotions. He changed his clothes. He went into the house of the LORD and worshiped him. Then he went to his own house. He asked for some food. They served it to him. And he ate it.

21His attendants asked him, “Why are you acting like this? While the child was still alive, you wouldn’t eat anything. You cried a lot. But now that the child is dead, you get up and eat!”

22He answered, “While the child was still alive, I didn’t eat anything. And I cried a lot. I thought, ‘Who knows? The LORD might have mercy on me. He might let the child live.’ 23But now he’s dead. So why should I continue to go without food? Can I bring him back to life again? Someday I’ll go to him. But he won’t return to me.”

24Then David comforted his wife Bathsheba. He went to her and slept with her. Some time later she had a son. He was given the name Solomon. The LORD loved him. 25So the LORD sent a message through Nathan the prophet. The LORD said, “Name the boy Jedidiah.”

26During that time, Joab fought against Rabbah. It was the royal city of the Ammonites. It had high walls around it. Joab was about to capture it. 27He sent messengers to David. He told them to say, “I have fought against Rabbah. I’ve taken control of its water supply. 28So bring the rest of the troops together.
Surround the city and get ready to attack it. Then capture it. If you don’t, I’ll capture it myself. Then it will be named after me.”

[29]So David brought together the whole army and went to Rabbah. He attacked it and captured it. [30]David took the gold crown off the head of the king of Ammon. Then the crown was placed on David’s head. The crown weighed 75 pounds. It had jewels in it. David took a huge amount of goods from the city. [31]He brought out the people who were there. He made them work with saws and iron picks and axes. He forced them to make bricks. David did that to all the towns in Ammon. Then he and his entire army returned to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 13

Amnon and Tamar

[1]Some time later, David's son Amnon fell in love with Tamar. She was the beautiful sister of Absalom. He was another one of David's sons.

[2]Amnon wanted his sister Tamar so much that it made him sick. She was a virgin, and it seemed impossible for him to do what he wanted with her.

[3]Amnon had an adviser named Jonadab. He was the son of David's brother Shimeah. Jonadab was a very clever man. [4]He asked Amnon, "You are the king's son, aren't you? So why do you look so worn out every morning? Won't you tell me?"

Amnon answered, "I'm in love with Tamar. She's the sister of my brother Absalom."

[5]"Go to bed," Jonadab said. "Pretend to be sick. Your father will come to see you. When he does, tell him, 'I would like my sister Tamar to come and give me something to eat. Let her prepare the food right here in front of me where I can watch her. Then she can feed it to me.' "

[6]So Amnon went to bed. He pretended to be sick. The king came to see him. Amnon said to him, "I would like my sister Tamar to come here. I want to watch her make some special bread. Then she can feed it to me."

[7]David sent a message to Tamar at the palace. He said, "Go to your brother Amnon's house. Prepare some food for him." [8]So Tamar went to the house of her brother Amnon. He was lying in bed. She got some dough and mixed it. She shaped the bread right there in front of him. And she baked it. [9]Then she took the bread out of the pan and served it to him. But he refused to eat it.

"Send everyone out of here," Amnon said. So everyone left him. [10]Then he said to Tamar, "Bring the food here into my bedroom. Please feed it to me." So Tamar picked up the bread she had prepared. She brought it to her brother Amnon in his bedroom. [11]She took it to him so he could eat it. But he grabbed her. He said, "My sister, come to bed with me."

[12]"No, my brother!" she said to him. "Don't force me! An evil thing like that should never be done in Israel! Don't do it! [13]What about me? How could I ever get rid of my shame? And what about you? You would be as foolish as any evil person in Israel. Please speak to the king. He won't keep me from marrying you." [14]But Amnon refused to listen to her. He was stronger than she was. So he raped her.

15Then Amnon hated Tamar very much. In fact, he hated her more than he had loved her before. He said to her, “Get up! Get out!”

16“No!” she said to him. “Don’t send me away. That would be worse than what you have already done to me.”

But he refused to listen to her. 17He sent for his personal servant. He said, “Get this woman out of my sight. Lock the door behind her.” 18So his servant threw her out. Then he locked the door behind her. Tamar was wearing a beautiful robe. It was the kind of robe the virgin daughters of the king wore. 19She put ashes on her head. She tore the beautiful robe she was wearing. She put her hands on her head and went away. She was weeping out loud as she went.

20When her brother Absalom saw her, he spoke to her. He said, “Has Amnon, that brother of yours, forced you to go to bed with him? My sister, don’t let it upset you. Don’t let it bother you. He’s your brother.” After that, Tamar lived in her brother Absalom’s house. She was very lonely.

21King David heard about everything that had happened. So he became very angry. 22And Absalom never said a word of any kind to Amnon. He hated Amnon because he had brought shame on his sister Tamar.

Absalom Kills Amnon

23Two years later, Absalom invited all the king’s sons to come to Baal Hazor. It was near the border of Ephraim. The workers who clipped the wool off Absalom’s sheep were there. 24Absalom went to the king. He said, “I’ve had my workers come to clip the wool. Will you and your attendants please join me?”

25“No, my son,” the king replied. “All of us shouldn’t go. It would be too much trouble for you.” Although Absalom begged him, the king still refused to go. But he gave Absalom his blessing.

26Then Absalom said, “If you won’t come, please let my brother Amnon come with us.”

The king asked him, “Why should he go with you?” 27But Absalom begged him. So the king sent Amnon with him. He also sent the rest of his sons.

28Absalom ordered his men, “Listen! When Amnon has had too much wine to drink, I’ll say to you, ‘Strike Amnon down.’ When I do, kill him. Don’t be afraid. I’ve given you an order, haven’t I? Be strong and brave.” 29So Absalom’s men killed Amnon, just as Absalom had ordered. Then all the king’s sons got on their mules and rode away.

30While they were on their way, a report came to David. It said, “Absalom has struck down all your sons. Not one of them is left alive.” 31The king stood up and tore his clothes. Then he lay down on the ground. All his attendants stood near him. They had also torn their clothes.

32Jonadab, the son of David’s brother Shimeah, spoke up. He said, “You shouldn’t think that all the princes have been killed. The only one who is dead is Amnon. Absalom had planned to kill him ever since the day Amnon raped his sister Tamar. 33You are my king and master. You shouldn’t be concerned about this report. It’s not true that all your sons are dead. The only one who is dead is Amnon.”

34While all of that was taking place, Absalom ran away.

The man on guard duty at Jerusalem looked up. He saw many people coming on the road west of him. They were coming down the side of the hill. He went and spoke to the king. He said, “I see men coming down the road from Horonaim. They are coming down the side of the hill.”

35Jonadab said to the king, “See, your sons are coming. It has happened just as I said it would.”

36As he finished speaking, the king’s sons came in. They were weeping out loud. The king and all his attendants were also weeping very bitterly.

37When Absalom ran away, he went to Talmai, the son of Ammihud. Talmai was king of Geshur. King David mourned many days for his son Amnon.

38So Absalom ran away and went to Geshur. He stayed there for three years. 39After some time the king got over his sorrow because of Amnon’s death. Then King David longed to go to Absalom.

2 Samuel 14

Absalom Returns to Jerusalem

1 Joab, the son of Zeruiah, knew that the king longed to see Absalom. 2 So Joab sent someone to Tekoa to have a wise woman brought back from there. Joab said to her, “Pretend you are filled with sadness. Put on the rough clothing people wear when they’re sad. Don’t use any makeup. Act like a woman who has spent many days mourning for someone who has died. 3 Then go to the king. Give him the message I’m about to give you.” And Joab told her what to say.

4 The woman from Tekoa went to the king. She bowed down with her face toward the ground. She did it to show him respect. She said, “Your Majesty, please help me!”

5 The king asked her, “What’s bothering you?”

She said, “I’m a widow. My husband is dead. 6 I had two sons. They got into a fight with each other in a field. No one was there to separate them. One of my sons struck down the other one and killed him. 7 Now my whole family group has risen up against me. They say, ‘Hand over the one who struck down his brother.
Then we can put him to death for killing his brother. That will also get rid of the one who will receive the family property.’ They want to kill the only living son I have left, just as someone would put out a burning coal. That would leave my husband without any son on the face of the earth to carry on the family name.”

8 The king said to the woman, “Go home. I’ll give an order to make sure you are taken care of.”

9 But the woman from Tekoa said to him, “You are my king and master. Please pardon me and my family. You and your royal family won’t be guilty of doing anything wrong.”

10 The king replied, “If people give you any trouble, bring them to me. They won’t bother you again.”

11 She said, “Please pray to the LORD your God. Pray that he will keep our nearest male relative from killing my other son. Then my son won’t be destroyed.”

“You can be sure that the LORD lives,” the king said. “And you can be just as sure that not one hair of your son’s head will fall to the ground.”

12 Then the woman said, “King David, please let me say something else to you.”

“Go ahead,” he replied.

[13]The woman said, “You are the king. So why have you done something that brings so much harm on God’s people? When you do that, you hand down a sentence against yourself. You won’t let the son you drove away come back. [14]All of us must die. We are like water spilled on the ground. It can’t be put back into the jar. But that is not what God desires. Instead, he finds a way to bring back anyone who was driven away from him.

[15]“King David, I’ve come here to say this to you now. I’ve done it because people have made me afraid. I thought, ‘I’ll go and speak to the king. Perhaps he’ll do what I’m asking. [16]A man is trying to separate me and my son from the property God gave us. Perhaps the king will agree to save me from that man.’

[17]“So now I’m saying, ‘May what you have told me prevent that man from doing what he wants. You are like an angel of God. You know what is good and what is evil. May the LORD your God be with you.’ ”

[18]Then the king said to the woman, “I’m going to ask you a question. I want you to tell me the truth.”

“Please ask me anything you want to,” the woman said.

[19]The king asked, “Joab told you to say all of this, didn’t he?”

The woman answered, “What you have told me is exactly right. And that’s just as sure as you are alive. It’s true that Joab directed me to do this. He told me everything he wanted me to say. [20]He did it to change the way things now are. You are as wise as an angel of God. You know everything that happens in the land.”

[21]Later the king said to Joab, “All right. I’ll do what you want. Go. Bring back the young man Absalom.”

[22]Joab bowed down with his face toward the ground. He did it to honor the king. And he asked God to bless the king. He said, “You are my king and master. Today I know that you are pleased with me. You have given me what I asked for.”

[23]Then Joab went to Geshur. He brought Absalom back to Jerusalem. [24]But the king said, “He must go to his own house. I don’t want him to come and see me.” So Absalom went to his own house. He didn’t go to see the king.

[25]In the whole land of Israel there wasn’t any man as handsome as Absalom was. That’s why everyone praised him. From the top of his head to the bottom of his feet he didn’t have any flaws. [26]He used to cut his hair once a year when it became too heavy for him. Then he would weigh it. It weighed five pounds in keeping with the standard weights used in the palace.

[27]Three sons and a daughter were born to Absalom. His daughter’s name was Tamar. She became a beautiful woman.

28 Absalom lived in Jerusalem for two years without going to see the king.
29 Then Absalom sent for Joab. He wanted to send Joab to the king. But Joab refused to come to Absalom. So Absalom sent for him a second time. But Joab still refused to come. 30 Then Absalom said to his servants, “Joab’s field is next to mine. He has barley growing there. Go and set it on fire.” So Absalom’s servants set the field on fire.

31 Joab finally went to Absalom’s house. He said to Absalom, “Why did your servants set my field on fire?”

32 Absalom said to Joab, “I sent a message to you. I said, ‘Come here. I want to send you to the king. I want you to ask him for me, “Why did you bring me back from Geshur? I would be better off if I were still there!” ’ Now then, I want to go and see the king. If I’m guilty of doing anything wrong, let him put me to death.”

33 So Joab went to the king and told him that. Then the king sent for Absalom.
He came in and bowed down to the king with his face toward the ground. And the king kissed Absalom.

2 Samuel 15

Absalom Makes Secret Plans Against David

[1]Some time later, Absalom got a chariot and horses for himself. He also got 50 men to run in front of him. [2]He would get up early. He would stand by the side of the road that led to the city gate. Sometimes a person would come with a case for the king to decide. Then Absalom would call out to him, “What town are you from?” He would answer, “I’m from one of the tribes of Israel.” [3]Absalom would say, “Look, your claims are based on the law. So you have every right to make them. But the king doesn’t have anyone here who can listen to your case.” [4]Absalom would continue, “I wish I were appointed judge in the land! Then anyone who has a case or a claim could come to me. I would make sure they are treated fairly.”

[5]Sometimes people would approach Absalom and bow down to him. Then he would reach out his hand. He would take hold of them and kiss them. [6]Absalom did that to all the Israelites who came to the king with their cases or claims.
That’s why the hearts of the people were turned toward him.

[7]After Absalom had lived in Jerusalem for four years, he went and spoke to the king. He said, “Let me go to Hebron. I want to keep a promise I made to the LORD. [8]When I was living at Geshur in Aram, I made a promise. I said, ‘If the LORD takes me back to Jerusalem, I’ll go to Hebron and worship him there.’ ”

[9]The king said to him, “Go in peace.” So he went to Hebron.

[10]Then Absalom sent messengers secretly to all the tribes of Israel. They said, “Listen for the sound of trumpets. As soon as you hear them, say, ‘Absalom has become king in Hebron.’ ” [11]Absalom had taken 200 men from Jerusalem with him to Hebron. He had invited them to be his guests. They went without having any idea what was going to happen. [12]While Absalom was offering sacrifices, he sent for Ahithophel. Ahithophel was David’s adviser. He came to Absalom from Giloh, his hometown. The number of people who followed Absalom kept growing. So he became more and more able to carry out his plans against David.

David Runs Away From Absalom

[13]A messenger came and spoke to David. He told him, “The hearts of the Israelites are turned toward Absalom.”

[14]Then David spoke to all his officials who were with him in Jerusalem. He said, “Come on! We have to leave right away! If we don’t, none of us will escape from Absalom. He’ll move quickly to catch up with us. He’ll destroy us. His men will kill everyone in the city with their swords.”

15The king’s officials answered him, “You are our king and master. We’re ready to do anything you want.”

16The king started out. Everyone in his whole family went with him. But he left ten concubines behind to take care of the palace. 17So the king and all those with him left. They stopped at the edge of the city. 18All of David’s officials marched past him. All the Kerethites and Pelethites marched along with them. And all of the 600 men who had come with him from Gath marched in front of him.

19The king spoke to Ittai. He was from Gath. The king said to him, “Why do you want to come along with us? Go back. Stay with King Absalom. You are an outsider. You left your own country. 20You came to join me only a short time ago. So why should I make you wander around with us now? I don’t even know where I’m going. So go on back. Take your people with you. And may the LORD be kind and faithful to you.”

21But Ittai replied to the king, “You are my king and master. I want to be where you are. It doesn’t matter whether I live or die. And that’s just as sure as the LORD and you are alive.”

22David said to Ittai, “Go ahead then. Keep marching with my men.” So Ittai, the Gittite, kept marching. All his men and their families marched with him.

23All the people in the countryside wept out loud as David and all his followers passed by. The king went across the Kidron Valley. He and all the people with him moved on toward the desert.

24Zadok also went with them. Some of the Levites went with him. They were carrying the ark of the covenant of God. They set down the ark. Abiathar offered sacrifices until all the people had left the city.

25Then the king said to Zadok, “Take the ark of God back into the city. If the LORD is pleased with me, he’ll bring me back. He’ll let me see the ark again. He’ll also let me see Jerusalem again. That’s the place where he lives. 26But suppose he says, ‘I am not pleased with you.’ Then I accept that. Let him do to me what he thinks is best.”

27The king said again to Zadok the priest, “Do you understand? Go back to the city with my blessing. Take your son Ahimaaz with you. Also take Abiathar and his son Jonathan with you. 28I’ll wait at the place in the desert where we can go across the Jordan River. I’ll wait there until you send word to let me know what’s happening.” [29]So Zadok and Abiathar took the ark of God back to Jerusalem. They stayed there.

[30]But David went on up the Mount of Olives. He was weeping as he went. His head was covered, and he was barefoot. All the people with him covered their heads too. And they were weeping as they went up. [31]David had been told, “Ahithophel, along with Absalom, is one of the people making secret plans against you.” So David prayed, “LORD, make Ahithophel’s advice look foolish.”

[32]David arrived at the top of the Mount of Olives. That’s where people used to worship God. Hushai, the Arkite, was there to meet him. His robe was torn. There was dust on his head. [33]David said to him, “If you go with me, you will be too much trouble for me. [34]So return to the city. Say to Absalom, ‘Your Majesty, I’ll be your servant. In the past, I was your father’s servant. But now I’ll be your servant.’ If you do that, you can help me by making sure Ahithophel’s advice fails. [35]Zadok and Abiathar, the priests, will be there with you. Tell them everything you hear in the king’s palace. [36]They have their sons Ahimaaz and Jonathan there with them. Send them to tell me everything you hear.”

[37]So David’s trusted friend Hushai went to Jerusalem. He arrived just as Absalom was entering the city.

2 Samuel 16

David and Ziba

[1]David went just beyond the top of the Mount of Olives. Ziba was waiting there to meet him. He was Mephibosheth's manager. He had several donkeys with saddles on them. They were carrying 200 loaves of bread and 100 raisin cakes. They were also carrying 100 fig cakes and a bottle of wine. The bottle was made out of animal skin.

[2]The king asked Ziba, "Why have you brought all these things?"

Ziba answered, "The donkeys are for the king's family to ride on. The bread and fruit are for the people to eat. The wine will make those who get tired in the desert feel like new again."

[3]Then the king asked, "Where is your master's grandson Mephibosheth?"

Ziba said to him, "He's staying in Jerusalem. He thinks, 'Today the Israelites will cause me to rule once again over my grandfather Saul's kingdom.' "

[4]Then the king said to Ziba, "Everything that belonged to Mephibosheth belongs to you now."

"You are my king and master," Ziba said. "I make myself humble in front of you. I bow down to you. May you be pleased with me."

Shimei Curses David

[5]King David approached Bahurim. As he did, a man came out toward him. The man was from the same family group that Saul was from. His name was Shimei. He was the son of Gera. As he came out of the town, he cursed David. [6]He threw stones at David and all his officials. He did it even though all the troops and the special guard were there. They were to the right and left of David. [7]As Shimei cursed, he said, "Get out! Get out, you murderer! You are a worthless and evil man! [8]You spilled the blood of a lot of people in Saul's family. You took over his kingdom. Now the LORD is paying you back. He has handed the kingdom over to your son Absalom. You have been destroyed because you are a murderer!"

[9]Then Abishai, the son of Zeruiah, spoke to the king. He said, "King David, why should we let this dead dog curse you? Let me go over there. I'll cut off his head."

[10]But the king said, "You and Joab are sons of Zeruiah. What does this have to do with you? Maybe the LORD said to him, ‘Curse David.’ If he did, who can ask him, ‘Why are you doing this?’ ”

11Then David spoke to Abishai and all his officials. He said, “My very own son Absalom is trying to kill me. How much more should this man from Benjamin want to kill me! Leave him alone. Let him curse. The LORD has told him to do it. 12Maybe the LORD will see how much I’m suffering. Maybe he’ll bring back to me his covenant blessing instead of his curse I’m hearing today.”

13So David and his men kept going along the road. At the same time, Shimei was going along the hillside across from him. He was cursing David as he went. He was throwing stones at David. He was showering him with dirt. 14The king and all the people with him came to the place they had planned to go to. They were very tired. So David rested there.

Ahithophel and Hushai Give Advice to Absalom

15During that time, Absalom and all the men of Israel came to Jerusalem. Ahithophel was with him. 16Then Hushai, the Arkite, went to Absalom. He said to him, “May the king live a long time! May the king live a long time!” Hushai was David’s trusted friend.

17Absalom said to Hushai, “So this is the way you show love to your friend? If he’s your friend, why didn’t you go with him?”

18Hushai said to Absalom, “Why should I? You are the one the LORD has chosen. These people and all the men of Israel have also chosen you. I want to be on your side. I want to stay with you. 19After all, who else should I serve? Shouldn’t I serve the king’s son? I will serve you, just as I served your father.”

20Absalom said to Ahithophel, “Give us your advice. What should we do?”

21Ahithophel answered, “Your father left some concubines behind to take care of the palace. Go and sleep with them. Then all the Israelites will hear about it. They will hear that you have made your father hate you. Everyone with you will be encouraged to give you more support.” 22So they set up a tent for Absalom on the roof of the palace. He went in and slept with his father’s concubines. Everyone in Israel saw it.

23In those days the advice Ahithophel gave was as good as advice from someone who asks God for guidance. That’s what David and Absalom thought about all of Ahithophel’s advice.

2 Samuel 17

[1]One day Ahithophel said to Absalom, “Here’s what I suggest. Choose 12,000 men. Start out tonight and go after David. [2]Attack him while he’s tired and weak.
Fill him with terror. Then all the people with him will run away. Don’t strike down anyone except the king. [3]Bring all the other people back. After the man you want to kill is dead, everyone else will return to you. And none of the people will be harmed.” [4]Ahithophel’s plan seemed good to Absalom. It also seemed good to all the elders of Israel.

[5]But Absalom said, “Send for Hushai, the Arkite. Then we can find out what he suggests as well.” [6]Hushai came to him. Absalom said, “Ahithophel has given us his advice. Should we do what he says? If we shouldn’t, tell us what you would do.”

[7]Hushai replied to Absalom, “The advice Ahithophel has given you isn’t good this time. [8]You know your father and his men. They are fighters. They are as strong as a wild bear whose cubs have been stolen from her. Besides, your father really knows how to fight. He won’t spend the night with his troops. [9]In fact, he’s probably hiding in a cave or some other place right now. Suppose he attacks your troops first. When people hear about it, they’ll say, ‘Many of the troops who followed Absalom have been killed.’ [10]Then the hearts of your soldiers will melt away in fear. Even those as brave as a lion will be terrified. That’s because everyone in Israel knows that your father is a fighter. They know that those with him are brave.

[11]“So here’s what I suggest. Bring together all the men of Israel from the town of Dan all the way to Beersheba. They are as many as the grains of sand on the seashore. You yourself should lead them into battle. [12]Then we’ll attack David no matter where we find him. As dew completely covers the ground, we’ll completely overpower his entire army. We won’t leave him or any of his men alive. [13]He might try to get away by going into a city. If he does, all of us will bring ropes to that city. We’ll drag the whole city down into the valley. Not even a pebble of that city will be left.”

[14]Absalom and all the men of Israel agreed. They said, “The advice of Hushai, the Arkite, is better than the advice of Ahithophel.” The LORD had decided that Ahithophel’s good advice would fail. The LORD wanted to bring horrible trouble on Absalom.

[15]Hushai spoke to Zadok and Abiathar, the priests. He said, “Ahithophel has given advice to Absalom and the elders of Israel. He suggested that they should do one thing. But I suggested something else. [16]Send a message right away. Tell David, ‘Don’t spend the night in the desert at a place where people cross the Jordan River. Make sure you go on across. If you don’t, you and all the people with you will be swallowed up.’ ”

[17]Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying at En Rogel just outside Jerusalem. They knew they would be in danger if anyone saw them entering the city. A female servant was supposed to go and tell them what had happened. Then they were supposed to go and tell King David. [18]But a young man saw Jonathan and Ahimaaz and told Absalom about it. So the two men left right away. They went to the house of a man in Bahurim. He had a well in his courtyard. They climbed down into it. [19]The man’s wife got a covering and spread it out over the opening of the well. Then she scattered grain on the covering. So no one knew that the men were hiding in the well.

[20]Absalom’s men came to the house. They asked the woman, “Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?”

She answered, “They went across the brook.” When the men looked around, they didn’t find anyone. So they returned to Jerusalem.

[21]After they had gone, Jonathan and Ahimaaz climbed out of the well. They went to tell King David what they had found out. They said to him, “Go across the river right away. Ahithophel has told Absalom how to come after you and strike you down.” [22]So David and all the people with him started out. They went across the Jordan River. By sunrise, everyone had crossed over.

[23]Ahithophel saw that his advice wasn’t being followed. So he put a saddle on his donkey. He started out for his house in his hometown. When he arrived, he made everything ready for his death. He made out his will. Then he killed himself. And so he died and was buried in his father’s tomb.

Absalom Dies

[24]David went to Mahanaim. Absalom went across the Jordan River with all the men of Israel. [25]Absalom had made Amasa commander of the army in place of Joab. Amasa was the son of Jether. Jether belonged to the family line of Ishmael. He had married Abigail. She was the daughter of Nahash and the sister of Zeruiah. Zeruiah was the mother of Joab. [26]Absalom and the Israelites camped in the land of Gilead.

[27]David came to Mahanaim. Shobi, the son of Nahash, met him there. Shobi was from Rabbah in the land of Ammon. Makir, the son of Ammiel from Lo Debar, met him there too. So did Barzillai from Rogelim in the land of Gilead. [28]They brought beds, bowls and clay pots. They brought wheat, barley, flour, and grain that had been cooked. They brought beans and lentils. [29]They brought honey, butter, sheep, and cheese that was made from cows' milk. They brought all that food for David and his people to eat. They said, "These people have become tired. They've become hungry and thirsty in the desert."

2 Samuel 18

[1]David brought together the men with him. He appointed commanders of thousands over some of them. He appointed commanders of hundreds over the others. [2]Then David sent out his troops in military groups. One group was under the command of Joab. Another was under Joab's brother Abishai, the son of Zeruiah. The last was under Ittai, the Gittite. The king told the troops, "You can be sure that I myself will march out with you."

[3]But the men said, "You must not march out. If we are forced to run away, our enemies won't care about us. Even if half of us die, they won't care. But you are worth 10,000 of us. So it would be better for you to stay here in the city. Then you can send us help if we need it."

[4]The king said, "I'll do what you think is best."

So the king stood beside the city gate. His whole army marched out in groups of hundreds and groups of thousands. [5]The king gave an order to Joab, Abishai and Ittai. He commanded them, "Be gentle with the young man Absalom. Do it for me." All the troops heard the king give the commanders that order about Absalom.

[6]David's army marched out of the city to fight against Israel. The battle took place in the forest of Ephraim. [7]There David's men won the battle over Israel's army. A huge number of men were wounded or killed that day. The total number was 20,000. [8]The fighting spread out over the whole countryside. But more men were killed in the forest that day than out in the open.

[9]Absalom happened to come across some of David's men. He was riding his mule. The mule went under the thick branches of a large oak tree. Absalom's hair got caught in the tree. He was left hanging in the air. The mule he was riding kept on going.

[10]One of David's men saw what had happened. He told Joab, "I just saw Absalom hanging in an oak tree."

[11]Joab said to the man, "What! You saw him? Why didn't you strike him down right there? Then I would have had to give you four ounces of silver and a soldier's belt."

[12]But the man replied, "I wouldn't do anything to hurt the king's son. I wouldn't do it even for 25 pounds of silver. We heard the king's command to you and Abishai and Ittai. He said, 'Be careful not to hurt the young man Absalom. Do it for me.' [13]Suppose I had put my life in danger by killing him. The king would have found out about it. Nothing is hidden from him. And you wouldn't have stood up for me."

14Joab said, "I'm not going to waste any more time on you." So he got three javelins. Then he went over and plunged them into Absalom's heart. He did it while Absalom was still hanging there alive in the oak tree. 15Ten of the men carrying Joab's armor surrounded Absalom. They struck him and killed him.

16Then Joab blew his trumpet. He ordered his troops to stop chasing Israel's army. 17Joab's men threw Absalom into a big pit in the forest. They covered him with a large pile of rocks. While all of that was going on, all the Israelites ran back to their homes.

18Earlier in his life Absalom had set up a pillar in the King's Valley. He had put it up as a monument to himself. He thought, "I don't have a son to carry on the memory of my name." So he named the pillar after himself. It is still called Absalom's Monument to this day.

David Mourns Over Absalom

19Ahimaaz, the son of Zadok, said to Joab, "Let me run and take the news to the king. Let me tell him that the LORD has shown that David is in the right. The LORD has done this by saving David from his enemies."

20"I don't want you to take the news to the king today," Joab told him. "You can do it some other time. But you must not do it today, because the king's son is dead."

21Then Joab said to a man from Cush, "Go. Tell the king what you have seen." The man bowed down in front of Joab. Then he ran off.

22Ahimaaz, the son of Zadok, spoke again to Joab. He said, "I don't care what happens to me. Please let me run behind the man from Cush."

But Joab replied, "My son, why do you want to go? You don't have any news that will bring you a reward."

23He said, "I don't care what happens. I want to run."

So Joab said, "Run!" Then Ahimaaz ran across the plain of the Jordan River. As he ran, he passed the man from Cush.

24David was sitting in the area between the inner and outer gates of the city. The man on guard duty went up to the roof over the entrance of the gate by the wall. As he looked out, he saw someone running alone. 25The guard called out to the king and reported it.

The king said, "If the runner is alone, he must be bringing good news." The runner came closer and closer.

[26]Then the man on guard duty saw another runner. He called out to the man guarding the gate. He said, “Look! There’s another man running alone!”

The king said, “He must be bringing good news too.”

[27]The man on guard duty said, “I can see that the first one runs like Ahimaaz, the son of Zadok.”

“He’s a good man,” the king said. “He’s bringing good news.”

[28]Then Ahimaaz called out to the king, “Everything’s all right!” He bowed down in front of the king with his face toward the ground. He said, “You are my king and master. Give praise to the LORD your God! He has handed over to you those who lifted their hands to kill you.”

[29]The king asked, “Is the young man Absalom safe?”

Ahimaaz answered, “I saw total disorder. I saw it just as Joab was about to send the king’s servant and me to you. But I don’t know what it was all about.”

[30]The king said, “Stand over there and wait.” So he stepped over to one side and stood there.

[31]Then the man from Cush arrived. He said, “You are my king and master. I’m bringing you some good news. The LORD has shown that you are in the right. He has done this by rescuing you today from all those trying to kill you.”

[32]The king asked the man from Cush, “Is the young man Absalom safe?”

The man replied, “King David, may your enemies be like that young man. May all those who rise up to harm you be like him.”

[33]The king was very upset. He went up to the room over the entrance of the gate and wept. As he went, he said, “My son Absalom! My son, my son Absalom! I wish I had died instead of you. Absalom! My son, my son!”

2 Samuel 19

[1]Someone told Joab, “The king is weeping and mourning for Absalom. He’s filled with sadness because his son has died.” [2]The army had won a great battle that day. But their joy turned into sadness. That’s because someone had told the troops, “The king is filled with sorrow because his son is dead.” [3]The men came quietly into the city that day. They were like fighting men who are ashamed because they’ve run away from a battle. [4]The king covered his face. He cried loudly, “My son Absalom! Absalom, my son, my son!”

[5]Then Joab went into the king’s house. He said to him, “Today you have made all your men feel ashamed. They have just saved your life. They have saved the lives of your sons and daughters. And they have saved the lives of your wives and concubines. [6]You love those who hate you. You hate those who love you.
The commanders and their troops don’t mean anything to you. You made that very clear today. I can see that you would be pleased if Absalom were alive today and all of us were dead. [7]Now go out there and cheer up your men. If you don’t, you won’t have any of them left with you by sunset. That will be worse for you than all the troubles you have ever had in your whole life. That’s what I promise you in the LORD’s name.”

[8]So the king got up and took his seat in the entrance of the city gate. His men were told, “The king is sitting in the entrance of the gate.” Then all of them came and stood in front of him.

While all of that was going on, the Israelites had run back to their homes.

David Returns to Jerusalem

[9]People from all the tribes of Israel began to argue among themselves. They were saying, “The king saved us from the power of our enemies. He saved us from the power of the Philistines. But now he has left the country to escape from Absalom. [10]We anointed Absalom to rule over us. But he has died in battle. So why aren’t any of you talking about bringing the king back?”

[11]King David sent a message to Zadok and Abiathar, the priests. David said, “Speak to the elders of Judah. Tell them I said, ‘News has reached me where I’m staying. People all over Israel are talking about bringing me back to my palace.
Why should you be the last to do something about it? [12]You are my relatives.
You are my own flesh and blood. So why should you be the last to bring me back?’ [13]Say to Amasa, ‘Aren’t you my own flesh and blood? You will be the commander of my army for life in place of Joab. If that isn’t true, may God punish me greatly.’ ”

[14]So the hearts of all the men of Judah were turned toward David. All of them had the same purpose in mind. They sent a message to the king. They said, “We want you to come back. We want all your men to come back too.” [15]Then the king returned. He went as far as the Jordan River.

The men of Judah had come to Gilgal to welcome the king back. They had come to bring him across the Jordan. [16]Shimei, the son of Gera, was among them. Shimei was from Bahurim in the territory of Benjamin. He hurried down to welcome King David back. [17]There were 1,000 people from Benjamin with him. Ziba, the manager of Saul’s house, was with him too. And so were Ziba’s 15 sons and 20 servants. All of them rushed down to the Jordan River. That’s where the king was. [18]They went across at the place where people usually cross it. Then they brought the king’s family back over with them. They were ready to do anything he wanted them to do.

Shimei, the son of Gera, had also gone across the Jordan. When he did, he fell down flat with his face toward the ground in front of the king. [19]He said to him, “You are my king and master. Please don’t hold me guilty. Please forgive me for the wrong things I did on the day you left Jerusalem. Please forget all about them. [20]I know I’ve sinned. But today I’ve come down here to welcome you. I’m the first member of Joseph’s whole family to do it.”

[21]Then Abishai, the son of Zeruiah, said, “Shouldn’t Shimei be put to death for what he did? He cursed you. And you are the LORD’s anointed king.”

[22]But David replied, “You and Joab are sons of Zeruiah. What does this have to do with you? What right do you have to interfere? Should anyone be put to death in Israel today? Don’t I know that today I am king over Israel again?” [23]So the king made a promise to Shimei. He said to him, “You aren’t going to be put to death.”

[24]Mephibosheth was Saul’s grandson. He had also gone down to welcome the king back. He had not taken care of his feet. He hadn’t trimmed his mustache or washed his clothes. He hadn’t done any of those things from the day the king left Jerusalem until the day he returned safely. [25]He came from Jerusalem to welcome the king. The king asked him, “Mephibosheth, why didn’t you go with me?”

[26]He said, “You are my king and master. I’m not able to walk. So I thought, ‘I’ll have a saddle put on my donkey. I’ll ride on it. Then I can go with the king.’

But my servant Ziba turned against me. [27]He has told you lies about me. King David, you are like an angel of God. So do what you wish. [28]You should have put all the members of my grandfather's family to death, including me. Instead, you always provided what I needed. So what right do I have to make any more appeals to you?"

[29]The king said to him, "You don't have to say anything else. I order you and Ziba to divide up Saul's land between you."

[30]Mephibosheth said to the king, "I'm happy that you have returned home safely. So just let Ziba have everything."

[31]Barzillai had also come down to go across the Jordan River with the king. He wanted to send the king on his way from there. Barzillai was from Rogelim in the land of Gilead. [32]He was very old. He was 80 years old. He had given the king everything he needed while the king was staying in Mahanaim. That's because Barzillai was very wealthy. [33]The king said to Barzillai, "Come across the river with me. Stay with me in Jerusalem. I'll take good care of you."

[34]But Barzillai said to the king, "I won't live for many more years. So why should I go up to Jerusalem with you? [35]I'm already 80 years old. I can hardly tell the difference between what is enjoyable and what isn't. I can hardly taste what I eat and drink. I can't even hear the voices of male and female singers anymore. So why should I add my problems to yours? [36]I'll go across the Jordan River with you for a little way. Why should you reward me by taking care of me? [37]Let me go back home. Then I can die in my own town. I can be buried there in the tomb of my father and mother. But let Kimham take my place. Let him go across the river with you. Do for him whatever you wish."

[38]The king said, "Kimham will go across with me. I'll do for him whatever you wish. And I'll do for you anything you wish."

[39]So all the people went across the Jordan River. Then the king crossed over. The king kissed Barzillai and said goodbye to him. And Barzillai went back home.

[40]After the king had gone across the river, he went to Gilgal. Kimham had gone across with him. All the troops of Judah and half of the troops of Israel had taken the king across.

[41]Soon all the men of Israel were coming to the king. They were saying to him, "Why did the men of Judah take you away from us? They are our relatives. What right did they have to bring you and your family across the Jordan River? What right did they have to bring all your men over with you?"

[42]All the men of Judah answered the men of Israel. They said, "We did that because the king is our close relative. So why should you be angry about what happened? Have we eaten any of the king's food? Have we taken anything for ourselves?"

43Then the men of Israel answered the men of Judah. They said, "We have ten of the 12 tribes in the kingdom. So we have a stronger claim on David than you have. Why then are you acting as if you hate us? Weren't we the first ones to talk about bringing back our king?"

But the men of Judah argued their side even more forcefully than the men of Israel.

2 Samuel 20

Sheba Urges Israel Not to Follow David

1 An evil man who always stirred up trouble happened to be in Gilgal. His name was Sheba, the son of Bikri. Sheba was from the tribe of Benjamin. He blew his trumpet. Then he shouted,

> "We don't have any share in David's kingdom!
> Jesse's son is not our king!
> Men of Israel, every one of you go back home!"

2 So all the men of Israel deserted David. They followed Sheba, the son of Bikri. But the men of Judah stayed with their king. They remained with him from the Jordan River all the way to Jerusalem.

3 David returned to his palace in Jerusalem. He had left ten concubines there to take care of the palace. He put them in a house and kept them under guard. He gave them what they needed. But he didn't sleep with them. They were kept under guard until the day they died. They lived as if they were widows.

4 The king said to Amasa, "Send for the men of Judah. Tell them to come to me within three days. And be here yourself." 5 So Amasa went to get the men of Judah. But he took longer than the time the king had set for him.

6 David said to Abishai, "Sheba, the son of Bikri, will do more harm to us than Absalom ever did. Take my men and go after him. If you don't, he'll find cities that have high walls around them. He'll go into one of them and escape from us." 7 So Joab's men marched out with the Kerethites and Pelethites. They went out with all the mighty soldiers. All of them were under Abishai's command.
They marched out from Jerusalem and went after Sheba, the son of Bikri.

8 They arrived at the great rock in Gibeon. Amasa went there to welcome them. Joab was wearing his military clothes. Over them at his waist he had strapped on a belt that held a dagger. As he stepped forward, he secretly took the dagger out.

9 Joab said to Amasa, "How are you, my friend?" Then Joab reached out his right hand. He took hold of Amasa's beard to kiss him. 10 Amasa didn't notice the dagger in Joab's left hand. Joab stuck it into his stomach. His insides spilled out on the ground. Joab didn't have to stab him again. Amasa was already dead.
Then Joab and his brother Abishai went after Sheba, the son of Bikri.

[11]One of Joab's men stood beside Amasa's body. He said to the other men, "Are you pleased with Joab? Are you on David's side? Then follow Joab!" [12]Amasa's body lay covered with his blood in the middle of the road. The man saw that all the troops stopped there. He realized that everyone was stopping to look at Amasa's body. So he dragged it from the road into a field. Then he threw some clothes on top of it. [13]After that happened, everyone continued on with Joab. They went after Sheba, the son of Bikri.

[14]Sheba passed through all the territory of the tribes of Israel. He arrived at the city of Abel Beth Maakah. He had gone through the entire area of the Bikrites. They had gathered together and followed him. [15]Joab and all his troops came to Abel Beth Maakah. They surrounded it because Sheba was there. They built a ramp up to the city. It stood against the outer wall. They pounded the wall with huge logs to bring it down. [16]While that was going on, a wise woman called out from the city. She shouted, "Listen! Listen! Tell Joab to come here. I want to speak to him." [17]So Joab went toward her. She asked, "Are you Joab?"

"I am," he answered.

She said, "Listen to what I have to say."

"I'm listening," he said.

[18]She continued, "Long ago people used to say, 'Get your answer at Abel.' And that would settle the matter. [19]We are the most peaceful and faithful people in Israel. You are trying to destroy a city that is like a mother in Israel. Why do you want to swallow up what belongs to the LORD?"

[20]"I would never do anything like that!" Joab said. "I would never swallow up or destroy what belongs to the LORD! [21]That isn't what I have in mind at all. There's a man named Sheba, the son of Bikri, in your city. He's from the hill country of Ephraim. He's trying to kill King David. Hand that man over to me. Then I'll pull my men back from your city."

The woman said to Joab, "We'll throw his head down to you from the wall."

[22]Then the woman gave her wise advice to all the people in the city. They cut off the head of Sheba, the son of Bikri. They threw it down to Joab. So he blew his trumpet. Then his men pulled back from the city. Each of them returned to his home. And Joab went back to the king in Jerusalem.

David's Officials

[23]Joab was commander over Israel's entire army.

Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, was commander over the Kerethites and Pelethites.

[24]Adoniram was in charge of those who were forced to work hard.
Jehoshaphat, the son of Ahilud, kept the records.
[25]Sheva was the secretary.
Zadok and Abiathar were priests.
[26]Ira, the Jairite, was David’s priest.

2 Samuel 21

David Makes Things Right for the People of Gibeon

[1]For three years in a row there wasn't enough food in the land. That was while David was king. So David asked the LORD why he wasn't blessing his people. The LORD said, "It is because Saul and his family committed murder. He put the people of Gibeon to death."

[2]The people of Gibeon weren't a part of Israel. Instead, they were some of the Amorites who were still left alive. The Israelites had promised to spare them. But Saul had tried to put an end to them. That's because he wanted to make Israel and Judah strong. So now King David sent for the people of Gibeon and spoke to them. [3]He asked them, "What would you like me to do for you? How can I make up for the wrong things that were done to you? I want you to be able to pray that the LORD will once again bless his land."

[4]The people of Gibeon answered him. They said, "No amount of silver or gold can make up for what Saul and his family did to us. And we can't put anyone in Israel to death."

"What do you want me to do for you?" David asked.

[5]They answered the king, "Saul nearly destroyed us. He made plans to wipe us out. We don't have anywhere to live in Israel. [6]So let seven of the males in his family line be given to us. We'll kill them. We'll put their dead bodies out in the open in the sight of the LORD. We'll do it at Gibeah of Saul. Saul was the LORD's chosen king."

So King David said, "I'll give seven males to you."

[7]The king spared Mephibosheth. He was the son of Jonathan and the grandson of Saul. David had made a promise in front of the LORD. He had promised to be kind to Jonathan and the family line of his father Saul. [8]But the king chose Armoni and another Mephibosheth. They were the two sons of Aiah's daughter Rizpah. Saul was their father. The king also chose the five sons of Saul's daughter Merab. Adriel, the son of Barzillai, was their father. Adriel was from Meholah. [9]King David handed them over to the people of Gibeon. They killed them. They put their dead bodies out in the open on a hill in the sight of the LORD. All seven of them died together. They were put to death during the first days of the harvest. It happened just when people were beginning to harvest the barley.

[10]Aiah's daughter Rizpah took some rough cloth people wear when they're sad. She spread it out for herself on a rock. She stayed there from the beginning of the harvest until it rained. The rain poured down from the sky on the dead bodies of the seven males. She didn't let the birds touch them by day. She didn't let the wild animals touch them at night. [11]Someone told David what Rizpah had done. She was Aiah's daughter and Saul's concubine. [12]David went and got the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan. He got them from the citizens of Jabesh Gilead. They had stolen their bodies from the main street in Beth Shan. That's where the Philistines had hung their bodies up on the city wall. They had done it after they struck Saul down on Mount Gilboa. [13]David brought the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan from Jabesh Gilead. The bones of the seven males who had been killed and put out in the open were also gathered up.

[14]The bones of Saul and his son Jonathan were buried in the tomb of Saul's father Kish. The tomb was at Zela in the territory of Benjamin. Everything the king commanded was done. After that, God answered prayer and blessed the land.

Wars Against the Philistines

[15]Once again there was a battle between the Philistines and Israel. David went down with his men to fight against the Philistines. He became very tired. [16]Ishbi-Benob belonged to the family line of Rapha. The tip of his bronze spear weighed seven and a half pounds. He was also armed with a new sword. He said he would kill David. [17]But Abishai, the son of Zeruiah, came to save David. He struck down the Philistine and killed him. Then David's men made a promise. They said to David, "We never want you to go out with us to battle again. You are the lamp of Israel's kingdom. We want that lamp to keep on burning brightly."

[18]There was another battle against the Philistines. It took place at Gob. At that time Sibbekai killed Saph. Sibbekai was a Hushathite. Saph was from the family line of Rapha.

[19]In another battle against the Philistines at Gob, Elhanan killed Goliath's brother. Elhanan was the son of Jair from Bethlehem. Goliath was from the city of Gath. His spear was as big as a weaver's rod.

[20]There was still another battle. It took place at Gath. A huge man lived there. He had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot. So the total number of his toes and fingers was 24. He was also from the family of Rapha. [21]He made fun of Israel. So Jonathan killed him. Jonathan was the son of David's brother Shimeah.

[22]Those four Philistine men lived in Gath. They were from the family line of Rapha. David and his men killed them.

2 Samuel 22

David's Song of Praise

[1]David sang the words of this song to the LORD. He sang them when the LORD saved him from the power of all his enemies and of Saul. [2]He said, "The LORD is my rock and my fort. He is the God who saves me.

[3]My God is my rock. I go to him for safety.
He is like a shield to me. He's the power that saves me.
He's my place of safety. I go to him for help. He's my Savior.
He saves me from those who want to hurt me.
[4]I called out to the LORD. He is worthy of praise.
He saved me from my enemies.

[5]"The waves of death were all around me.
A destroying flood swept over me.
[6]The ropes of the grave were tight around me.
Death set its trap in front of me.
[7]When I was in trouble I called out to the LORD.
I called out to my God.
From his temple he heard my voice.
My cry for help reached his ears.

[8]"The earth trembled and shook.
The pillars of the heavens rocked back and forth.
They trembled because the LORD was angry.
[9]Smoke came out of his nose.
Flames of fire came out of his mouth.
Burning coals blazed out of it.
[10]He opened the heavens and came down.
Dark clouds were under his feet.
[11]He got on the cherubim and flew.
The wings of the wind lifted him up.
[12]He covered himself with darkness.
The dark rain clouds of the sky were like a tent around him.
[13]From the brightness all around him flashes of lightning blazed out.

14 The LORD thundered from heaven.
The voice of the Most High God was heard.
15 He shot his arrows and scattered the enemy.
He sent flashes of lightning and chased them away.
16 The bottom of the sea could be seen.
The foundations of the earth were uncovered.
It happened when the LORD's anger blazed out.
It came like a blast of breath from his nose.

17 "He reached down from heaven. He took hold of me.
He lifted me out of deep waters.
18 He saved me from my powerful enemies.
He set me free from those who were too strong for me.
19 They stood up to me when I was in trouble.
But the LORD helped me.
20 He brought me out into a wide and safe place.
He saved me because he was pleased with me.

21 "The LORD has been good to me because I do what is right.
He has rewarded me because I lead a pure life.
22 I have lived the way the LORD wanted me to.
I'm not guilty of turning away from my God.
23 I keep all his laws in mind.
I haven't turned away from his commands.
24 He knows that I am without blame.
He knows I've kept myself from sinning.
25 The LORD has rewarded me for doing what is right.
He has rewarded me because I haven't done anything wrong.

26 "LORD, to those who are faithful you show that you are faithful.
To those who are without blame you show that you are without blame.
27 To those who are pure you show that you are pure.
But to those whose paths are crooked you show that you are clever.
28 You save those who aren't proud.

But you watch the proud to bring them down.
29 LORD, you are my lamp.
You bring light into my darkness.
30 With your help I can attack a troop of soldiers.
With the help of my God I can climb over a wall.

31 "God's way is perfect.
The LORD's word doesn't have any flaws.
He protects like a shield
all who go to him for safety.
32 Who is God except the LORD?
Who is the Rock except our God?
33 God gives me strength for the battle.
He keeps my way secure.
34 He makes my feet like the feet of a deer.
He causes me to stand on the highest places.
35 He trains my hands to fight every battle.
My arms can bend a bow of bronze.
36 LORD, you shield me with your saving help.
Your help has made me great.
37 You give me a wide path to walk in so that I don't twist my ankles.

38 "I chased my enemies and crushed them.
I didn't turn back until they were destroyed.
39 I crushed them completely so that they couldn't get up.
They fell under my feet.
40 LORD, you gave me strength to fight the battle.
You caused my enemies to be humble in front of me.
41 You made them turn their backs and run away.
So I destroyed my enemies.
42 They cried out for help. But there was no one to save them.
They called out to the LORD. But he didn't answer them.
43 I beat them as fine as the dust of the earth.
I pounded them and walked on them like mud in the streets.

44 "You saved me when people attacked me.

You have kept me as the ruler over nations.
People I didn’t know serve me now.
45 People from other lands bow down to me in fear.
As soon as they hear about me, they obey me.
46 All of them give up hope.
They come trembling out of their hiding places.

47 “The LORD lives! Give praise to my Rock!
Give honor to my God, the Rock! He is my Savior!
48 He is the God who pays back my enemies.
He brings the nations under my control.
49 He sets me free from my enemies.
You have honored me more than them.
You have saved me from a man who wanted to hurt me.
50 LORD, I will praise you among the nations.
I will sing your praise.
51 He gives his king great victories.
He shows his faithful love to his anointed king.
He shows it to David and his family forever.”

2 Samuel 23

David's Last Words

[1]Here are David's last words. He said,

"I am David, the son of Jesse. God has given me a message.
The Most High God has greatly honored me.
The God of Jacob anointed me as king.
I am the hero of Israel's songs.

[2]"The Spirit of the LORD spoke through me.
I spoke his word with my tongue.
[3]The God of Israel spoke.
The Rock of Israel said to me,
'A king must rule over people in a way that is right.
He must have respect for God when he rules.
[4]Then he will be like the light of morning at sunrise when there aren't any clouds.
He will be like the bright sun after rain that makes grass grow on the earth.'

[5]"Suppose my royal family was not right with God.
Then he would not have made a covenant with me that will last forever.
Every part of it was well prepared and made secure.
Then God would not have saved me completely or given me everything I longed for.
[6]But evil people are like thorns that are thrown away.
You can't pick them up with your hands.
[7]Even if you touch them,
you must use an iron tool or a spear.
Thorns are burned up right where they are."

David's Mighty Warriors

[8]Here are the names of David's mighty warriors.
Josheb-Basshebeth was chief of the three mighty warriors. He was a Tahkemonite. He used his spear against 800 men. He killed all of them at one time.

9Next to him was Eleazar. He was one of the three mighty warriors. He was the son of Dodai, the Ahohite. Eleazar was with David at Pas Dammim. That's where Israel's army made fun of the Philistines who were gathered there for battle. Then the Israelites pulled back. 10But Eleazar stayed right where he was. He struck down the Philistines until his hand grew tired. But he still held on to his sword. The LORD helped him win a great battle that day. The troops returned to Eleazar. They came back to him only to take what they wanted from the dead bodies.

11Next to him was Shammah, the son of Agee. Shammah was a Hararite. The Philistines gathered together at a place where there was a field full of lentils. Israel's troops ran away from the Philistines. 12But Shammah took his stand in the middle of the field. He didn't let the Philistines capture it. He struck them down. The LORD helped him win a great battle.

13David was at the cave of Adullam. During harvest time, three of the 30 chief warriors came down to him there. A group of Philistines was camped in the Valley of Rephaim. 14At that time David was in his usual place of safety. Some Philistine troops were stationed at Bethlehem. 15David longed for a drink of water. He said, "I wish someone would get me water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem." 16So the three mighty warriors fought their way past the Philistine guards. They got some water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem. They took the water back to David. But David refused to drink it. Instead, he poured it out as a drink offering to the LORD. 17"LORD, I would never drink that water!" David said. "It stands for the blood of these men. They put their lives in danger by going to Bethlehem to get it." So David wouldn't drink it.

Those were some of the brave things the three mighty warriors did.

18Abishai was chief over the three mighty warriors. He was the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah. He used his spear against 300 men. He killed all of them. So he became as famous as the three mighty warriors were. 19In fact, he was even more honored than the three mighty warriors. He became their commander. But he wasn't included among them.

20Benaiah was a great hero from Kabzeel. He was the son of Jehoiada. Benaiah did many brave things. He struck down two of Moab's best warriors. He also went down into a pit on a snowy day. He killed a lion there. 21And he struck down a huge Egyptian. The Egyptian was holding a spear. Benaiah went out to fight against him with a club. He grabbed the spear out of the Egyptian's hand. Then he killed him with it. [22]Those were some of the brave things Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, did. He too was as famous as the three mighty warriors were. [23]He was honored more than any of the thirty chief warriors. But he wasn't included among the three mighty warriors. David put him in charge of his own personal guards.

[24]Here is a list of David's men who were among the thirty chief warriors.

Asahel, the brother of Joab
Elhanan, the son of Dodo, from Bethlehem
[25]Shammah, the Harodite
Elika, the Harodite
[26]Helez, the Paltite
Ira, the son of Ikkesh, from Tekoa
[27]Abiezer from Anathoth
Sibbekai, the Hushathite
[28]Zalmon, the Ahohite
Maharai from Netophah
[29]Heled, the son of Baanah, from Netophah
Ithai, the son of Ribai, from Gibeah in Benjamin
[30]Benaiah from Pirathon
Hiddai from the valleys of Gaash
[31]Abi-Albon, the Arbathite
Azmaveth, the Barhumite
[32]Eliahba, the Shaalbonite
the sons of Jashen
Jonathan, [33]the son of Shammah, the Hararite
Ahiam, the son of Sharar, the Hararite
[34]Eliphelet, the son of Ahasbai, the Maakathite Eliam, the son of Ahithophel, from Giloh
[35]Hezro from Carmel
Paarai, the Arbite
[36]Igal, the son of Nathan, from Zobah the son of Hagri
[37]Zelek from Ammon
Naharai from Beeroth, who carried the armor of Joab, the son of Zeruiah

[38]Ira, the Ithrite
Gareb, the Ithrite
[39]and Uriah, the Hittite
The total number of men was 37.

2 Samuel 24

David Counts His Fighting Men

1The LORD was very angry with Israel. He stirred up David against them. He said, “Go! Count the men of Israel and Judah.”

2So the king spoke to Joab and the army commanders with him. He said, “Go all through the territories of the tribes of Israel. Go from the town of Dan all the way to Beersheba. Count the fighting men. Then I’ll know how many there are.”

3Joab replied to the king. He said, “King David, you are my master. May the LORD your God multiply the troops 100 times. And may you live to see it. But why would you want me to count the fighting men?”

4The king’s word had more authority than the word of Joab and the army commanders. That was true in spite of what Joab had said. So they left the king and went out to count the fighting men of Israel.

5They went across the Jordan River. They camped south of the town in the middle of the Arnon River valley near Aroer. Then they went through Gad and continued on to Jazer. 6They went to Gilead and the area of Tahtim Hodshi. They continued to Dan Jaan and on around toward Sidon. 7Then they went toward the fort of Tyre. They went to all the towns of the Hivites and Canaanites. Finally, they went on to Beersheba. It was in the Negev Desert of Judah.

8They finished going through the entire land. Then they came back to Jerusalem. They had been gone for nine months and 20 days.

9Joab reported to the king how many fighting men he had counted. In Israel there were 800,000 men who were able to handle a sword. In Judah there were 500,000.

10David felt sorry that he had counted the fighting men. So he said to the LORD, “I committed a great sin when I counted Judah and Israel’s men. LORD, I beg you to take away my guilt. I’ve done a very foolish thing.”

11Before David got up the next morning, a message from the LORD came to Gad the prophet. He was David’s seer. The message said, 12“Go and tell David, ‘The LORD says, “I could punish you in three different ways. Choose one of them for me to use against you.” ’ ”

13So Gad went to David. He said to him, “Take your choice. Do you want three years when there won’t be enough food in your land? Or do you want three months when you will run away from your enemies while they chase you? Or do you want three days when there will be a plague in your land? Think it over. Then take your pick. Tell me how to answer the one who sent me."

14David said to Gad, "I'm suffering terribly. Let us fall into the hands of the LORD. His mercy is great. But don't let me fall into human hands."

15So the LORD sent a plague on Israel. It lasted from that morning until he decided to end it. From Dan all the way to Beersheba 70,000 people died. 16The angel reached his hand out to destroy Jerusalem. But the LORD stopped sending the plague. So he spoke to the angel who was making the people suffer. He said, "That is enough! Do not kill any more people." The angel of the LORD was at Araunah's threshing floor. Araunah was from the city of Jebus.

17David saw the angel who was striking down the people. David said to the LORD, "I'm the one who has sinned. I'm the one who has done what is wrong. I'm like a shepherd for these people. These people are like sheep. What have they done? Let your judgment be on me and my family."

David Builds an Altar

18On that day Gad went to David. Gad said to him, "Go up to the threshing floor of Araunah, the Jebusite. Build an altar there to honor the LORD." 19So David went up and did it. He did what the LORD had commanded through Gad. 20Araunah looked and saw the king and his officials coming toward him. So he went out to welcome them. He bowed down to the king with his face toward the ground.

21Araunah said, "King David, you are my master. Why have you come to see me?"

"To buy your threshing floor," David answered. "I want to build an altar there to honor the LORD. When I do, the plague on the people will be stopped."

22Araunah said to David, "Take anything you wish. Offer it up. Here are oxen for the burnt offering. Here are threshing sleds. And here are wooden collars from the necks of the oxen. Use all the wood to burn the offering. 23Your Majesty, I'll give all of it to you." Araunah continued, "And may the LORD your God accept you."

24But the king replied to Araunah, "No. I want to pay you for it. I won't sacrifice to the LORD my God burnt offerings that haven't cost me anything."

So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen. He paid 20 ounces of silver for them. 25David built an altar there to honor the LORD. He sacrificed burnt offerings and friendship offerings. Then the LORD answered David's prayer and blessed the land. The plague on Israel was stopped.

1 Kings

1 Kings 1

Adonijah Makes Himself King

[1]King David was now very old. He couldn’t keep warm even when blankets were spread over him. [2]So his attendants spoke to him. They said, “You are our king and master. Please let us try to find a young virgin to serve you. She can take care of you. She can lie down beside you to keep you warm.”

[3]So David’s attendants looked all over Israel for a beautiful young woman. They found Abishag. She was from the town of Shunem. They brought her to the king. [4]The woman was very beautiful. She took care of the king and served him. But the king didn’t have sex with her.

[5]Adonijah was the son of David and his wife Haggith. He came forward and announced, “I’m going to be the next king.” So he got chariots and horses ready. He also got 50 men to run in front of him. [6]His father had never tried to stop him from doing what he wanted to. His father had never asked him, “Why are you acting the way you do?” Adonijah was also very handsome. Now that Absalom was dead, Adonijah was David’s oldest son.

[7]Adonijah talked things over with Joab, the son of Zeruiah. He also talked with Abiathar the priest. They agreed to help him. [8]But Zadok the priest and Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, didn’t join Adonijah. Nathan the prophet didn’t join him. Shimei and Rei didn’t join him. And neither did David’s special guard.

[9]Adonijah sacrificed sheep, cattle and fat calves. He sacrificed them at the Stone of Zoheleth near En Rogel. He invited all his brothers, the king’s sons, and all the royal officials of Judah. [10]But he didn’t invite Benaiah or Nathan the prophet. He didn’t invite the special guard or his brother Solomon either.

[11]Nathan asked Solomon’s mother Bathsheba, “Haven’t you heard? Adonijah, the son of Haggith, has made himself king. And King David doesn’t know anything about it. [12]So let me tell you what to do to save your life. It will also save the life of your son Solomon. [13]Go in and see King David. Say to him, ‘You are my king and master. You promised me, “You can be sure that your son Solomon will be king after me. He will sit on my throne.” If that’s really true, why has Adonijah become king?’ [14]While you are still talking to the king, I’ll come in and support what you have said.”

15So Bathsheba went to see the old king in his room. Abishag, the Shunammite, was taking care of him there. 16Bathsheba bowed low in front of the king.

"What do you want?" the king asked.

17She said to him, "My master, you made a promise in the name of the LORD your God. You promised me, 'Your son Solomon will be king after me. He will sit on my throne.' 18But now Adonijah has made himself king. And you don't even know about it. 19He has sacrificed large numbers of cattle, fat calves and sheep. He has invited all the king's sons. He has also invited Abiathar the priest and Joab, the commander of the army. But he hasn't invited your son Solomon.
20You are my king and master. All the Israelites are watching to see what you will do. They want to find out from you who will sit on the throne after you. 21If you don't do something, I and my son Solomon will be treated like people who have committed crimes. That will happen as soon as you join the members of your family who have already died."

22While she was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet arrived.
23The king was told, "Nathan the prophet is here." So Nathan went to the king.
He bowed down with his face toward the ground.

24Nathan said, "You are my king and master. Have you announced that Adonijah will be king after you? Have you said he will sit on your throne?
25Today he has gone down outside the city. He has sacrificed large numbers of cattle, fat calves and sheep. He has invited all the king's sons. He has also invited the commanders of the army and Abiathar the priest. Even now they are eating and drinking with him. They are saying, 'May King Adonijah live a long time!' 26But he didn't invite me. He didn't invite Zadok the priest or Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada. He didn't invite your son Solomon either. 27King David, have you allowed all of that to happen? Did you do it without letting us know about it? Why didn't you tell us who is going to sit on your throne after you?"

David Makes Solomon King

28King David said, "Tell Bathsheba to come in." So she came and stood in front of the king.

29Then the king made a promise. He said, "The LORD has saved me from all my troubles. You can be sure that he lives. 30And you can be just as sure I will do what I promised. This is the day I will do what I promised in the name of the LORD. He is the God of Israel. I promised you that your son Solomon would be king after me. He will sit on my throne in my place.”

[31]Then Bathsheba bowed down in front of the king. Her face was toward the ground. She said, “King David, you are my master. May you live forever!”

[32]King David said, “Tell Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet to come in. Also tell Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, to come.” So they came to the king. [33]He said to them, “Take my officials with you. Have my son Solomon get on my own mule. Take him down to the Gihon spring. [34]Have Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him as king over Israel there. Blow a trumpet. Shout, ‘May King Solomon live a long time!’ [35]Then come back up to the city with him. Have him sit on my throne. He will rule in my place. I’ve appointed him ruler over Israel and Judah.”

[36]Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, answered the king. “Amen!” he said. “May the LORD your God make it come true. [37]You are my king and master. The LORD has been with you. May he also be with Solomon. King David, may the LORD make Solomon’s kingdom even greater than yours!”

[38]So Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet left the palace. Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, went with them. So did the Kerethites and Pelethites. They had Solomon get on King David’s mule. And they brought him down to the Gihon spring. [39]Zadok the priest had taken an animal horn from the sacred tent. The horn was filled with olive oil. He anointed Solomon with the oil. A trumpet was blown. All the people shouted, “May King Solomon live a long time!” [40]Then they went up toward the city. Solomon was leading the way. The people were playing flutes. They were filled with great joy. The ground shook because of all the noise.

[41]Adonijah and all his guests heard it. They were just finishing their meal. Joab heard the sound of the trumpet. So he asked, “What does all this noise in the city mean?”

[42]While Joab was still speaking, Jonathan arrived. Jonathan was the son of Abiathar the priest. Adonijah said, “Come in. I have respect for you. You must be bringing good news.”

[43]“No! I’m not!” Jonathan answered. “Our master King David has made Solomon king. [44]David sent Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet along with Solomon. He also sent Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, with him. He sent the Kerethites and Pelethites with him too. They put him on the king’s mule. [45]They took him down to the Gihon spring. There Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anointed him as king. Now they’ve gone back up to the city. They were cheering all the way. The city is filled with the sound of it. That’s the noise you hear. [46]And that’s not all. Solomon has taken his seat on the royal throne. [47]The royal officials came to give their blessing to our master King David. They said, ‘May your God make Solomon’s name more famous than yours! May he make Solomon’s kingdom greater than yours!’ While King David was sitting on his bed, he bowed in worship. [48]He said, ‘I praise the LORD. He is the God of Israel. He has let me live to see my son sitting on my throne today as the next king.’ ”

[49]When all Adonijah’s guests heard that, they were terrified. So they got up and scattered. [50]Adonijah was afraid of what Solomon might do to him. So he went and grabbed the horns of the altar for burnt offerings. Those horns stuck out from its upper corners. [51]Then Solomon was told, “King Solomon, Adonijah is afraid of you. He’s holding onto the horns of the altar. He says, ‘I want King Solomon to make a promise today. I want him to promise that he won’t kill me with his sword.’ ”

[52]Solomon replied, “Let him show that he’s a man people can respect. Then not even one hair on his head will fall to the ground. But if I find out he’s done something evil, he will die.” [53]King Solomon got some men to bring Adonijah down from the altar. He came and bowed down to King Solomon. Solomon said, “Go on home.”

1 Kings 2

David Gives Orders to Solomon

[1]The time came near for David to die. So he gave orders to his son Solomon.
[2]He said, “I’m about to die, just as everyone else on earth does. So be strong. Show how brave you are. [3]Do everything the LORD your God requires. Live the way he wants you to. Obey his orders and commands. Keep his laws and rules. Do everything written in the Law of Moses. Then you will have success in everything you do. You will succeed everywhere you go. [4]The LORD will keep the promise he made to me. He said, ‘Your sons must be careful about how they live. They must be faithful to me with all their heart and soul. Then you will always have a son from your family line to sit on the throne of Israel.’
[5]“You yourself know what Joab, the son of Zeruiah, did to me. You know that he killed Abner, the son of Ner, and Amasa, the son of Jether. They were the two commanders of Israel’s armies. He killed them in a time of peace. It wasn’t a time of war. Joab spilled the blood of Abner and Amasa. With that blood he stained the belt around his waist. He also stained the sandals on his feet. [6]You are wise. So I leave him in your hands. Just don’t let him live to become an old man. Don’t let him die peacefully.
[7]“But be kind to the sons of Barzillai from Gilead. Provide what they need. They were faithful to me when I had to run away from your brother Absalom.
[8]“Don’t forget that Shimei, the son of Gera, is still around. He’s from Bahurim in the territory of Benjamin. Shimei cursed me bitterly. He did it on the day I went to Mahanaim. Later, he came down to welcome me at the Jordan River. At that time I made a promise in the name of the LORD. I promised Shimei, ‘I won’t put you to death with my sword.’ [9]But now I want you to think of him as guilty. You are wise. You will know what to do to him. Don’t let him live to become an old man. Put him to death.”
[10]David joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in the City of David. [11]He had ruled over Israel for 40 years. He ruled for seven years in Hebron. Then he ruled for 33 years in Jerusalem. [12]So Solomon sat on the throne of his father David. His position as king was made secure.

Solomon’s Kingdom Is Made Secure

[13]Adonijah was the son of David’s wife Haggith. He went to Bathsheba. She was Solomon's mother. She asked Adonijah, "Have you come in peace?"

He answered, "Yes. I've come in peace." [14]He continued, "I want to ask you something."

"Go ahead," she replied.

[15]He said, "As you know, the kingdom belonged to me. The whole nation of Israel thought of me as their king. But now things have changed. The kingdom belongs to my brother. The LORD has given it to him. [16]But I have a favor to ask of you. Don't say no to me."

"Go ahead," she said.

[17]So he continued, "Please ask King Solomon for a favor. He won't say no to you. Ask him to give me Abishag from Shunem to be my wife."

[18]"All right," Bathsheba replied. "I'll speak to the king for you."

[19]So Bathsheba went to King Solomon. She went to him to speak for Adonijah. The king stood up to greet her. He bowed down to her. Then he sat down on his throne. He had a throne brought for his mother. She sat down at his right side.

[20]"I have one small favor to ask of you," she said. "Don't say no to me."

The king replied, "Mother, go ahead and ask. I won't say no to you."

[21]She said, "Let your brother Adonijah marry Abishag, the Shunammite."

[22]King Solomon answered his mother, "Why are you asking me to give Abishag, the Shunammite, to Adonijah? You might as well ask me to give him the whole kingdom! After all, he's my older brother. And he doesn't want the kingdom only for himself. He also wants it for Abiathar the priest and for Joab, the son of Zeruiah."

[23]Then King Solomon made a promise in the name of the LORD. He said, "Adonijah will pay with his life because of what he has asked for. If he doesn't, may God punish me greatly. [24]The LORD has made my position as king secure. I'm sitting on the throne of my father David. The LORD has built a royal house for me, just as he promised. You can be sure that the LORD lives. And you can be just as sure that Adonijah will be put to death today." [25]So King Solomon gave the order to Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada. Benaiah struck down Adonijah, and he died.

[26]The king spoke to Abiathar the priest. He said, "Go back to your fields in Anathoth. You should really be put to death. But I won't have it done now. That's because you carried the ark of the LORD and King. You did it for my father David. You shared all of his hard times." [27]So Solomon wouldn't let Abiathar serve as a priest of the LORD anymore. That's how the message the LORD had spoken at Shiloh came true. He had spoken it about the family of Eli.

[28]News of what Solomon had done reached Joab. Joab had never made evil plans along with Absalom. But he had joined Adonijah. So he ran to the tent of the LORD. He grabbed the horns that stuck out from the upper corners of the altar for burnt offerings. [29]King Solomon was told that Joab had run to the tent. He was also told that Joab was by the altar. Then Solomon gave the order to Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada. He told him, "Go! Strike him down!"

[30]So Benaiah entered the tent of the LORD. He said to Joab, "The king says, 'Come on out!' "

But Joab answered, "No. I'd rather die here."

Benaiah told the king what Joab had said to him.

[31]Then the king commanded Benaiah, "Do what he says. Strike him down and bury him. Then I and my family line won't be held accountable for the blood Joab spilled. He killed people who weren't guilty of doing anything wrong. [32]The LORD will pay him back for the blood he spilled. Joab attacked two men. He killed them with his sword. And my father David didn't even know anything about it. Joab killed Abner, the son of Ner. Abner was the commander of Israel's army. Joab also killed Amasa, the son of Jether. Amasa was the commander of Judah's army. Abner and Amasa were better men than Joab is. They were more honest than he is. [33]May Joab and his children after him be held forever accountable for spilling the blood of Abner and Amasa. But may David and his children after him enjoy the LORD's peace and rest forever. May the LORD also give his peace to David's royal house and kingdom forever."

[34]So Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, went up to the LORD's tent. There he struck down Joab. And he killed him. Joab was buried at his home out in the country. [35]The king put Benaiah in charge of the army. Benaiah took Joab's place. The king also put Zadok the priest in Abiathar's place.

[36]Then the king sent for Shimei. He said to him, "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem. Live there. Don't go anywhere else. [37]You must not leave the city and go across the Kidron Valley. If you do, you can be sure you will die. And it will be your own fault."

[38]Shimei replied to the king, "You are my king and master. What you say is good. I'll do it." Shimei stayed in Jerusalem for a long time.

[39]Three years after Solomon had talked with Shimei, two of Shimei's slaves ran off. They went to Achish, the king of Gath. He was the son of Maakah. Shimei was told, "Your slaves are in Gath." [40]When Shimei heard that, he put a saddle on his donkey. Then he went to Achish at Gath to look for his slaves.

Shimei found them and brought them back from Gath.

41Solomon was told that Shimei had left Jerusalem. He was told he had gone to Gath and had returned. 42So the king sent for Shimei. He said to him, “Didn’t I force you to make a promise in the name of the LORD? Didn’t I warn you? I said, ‘You must not leave the city and go somewhere else. If you do, you can be sure you will die.’ At that time you said to me, ‘What you say is good. I’ll obey your command.’ 43So why didn’t you keep your promise to the LORD? Why didn’t you obey the command I gave you?”

44The king continued, “You know all the wrong things you did to my father David. In your heart you know them. Now the LORD will pay you back for what you did. 45But I will be blessed. The LORD will make David’s kingdom secure forever.”

46Then the king gave the order to Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada. Benaiah left the palace and struck down Shimei. And he died.

So the kingdom was now made secure in Solomon’s hands.

1 Kings 3

Solomon Asks God for Wisdom

[1]Solomon and Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, agreed to help each other. So Solomon married Pharaoh's daughter. He brought her to the City of David. She stayed there until he finished building his palace, the LORD's temple, and the wall around Jerusalem. [2]But the people continued to offer sacrifices at the high places where they worshiped. That's because a temple hadn't been built yet where the LORD would put his Name. [3]Solomon showed his love for the LORD. He did it by obeying the laws his father David had taught him. But Solomon offered sacrifices at the high places. He also burned incense there.

[4]King Solomon went to the city of Gibeon to offer sacrifices. That's where the most important high place was. There he offered 1,000 burnt offerings on the altar. [5]The LORD appeared to Solomon at Gibeon. He spoke to him in a dream during the night. God said, "Ask for anything you want me to give you."

[6]Solomon answered, "You have been very kind to my father David, your servant. That's because he was faithful to you. He did what was right. His heart was honest. And you have continued to be very kind to him. You have given him a son to sit on his throne this day.

[7]"LORD my God, you have now made me king. You have put me in the place of my father David. But I'm only a little child. I don't know how to carry out my duties. [8]I'm here among the people you have chosen. They are a great nation. They are more than anyone can count. [9]So give me a heart that understands. Then I can rule over your people. I can tell the difference between what is right and what is wrong. Who can possibly rule over this great nation of yours?"

[10]The Lord was pleased that Solomon had asked for that. [11]So God said to him, "You have not asked to live for a long time. You have not asked to be wealthy. You have not even asked to have your enemies killed. Instead, you have asked for wisdom. You want to do what is right and fair when you judge people. Because that is what you have asked for, [12]I will give it to you. I will give you a wise and understanding heart. So here is what will be true of you. There has never been anyone like you. And there never will be. [13]And that is not all. I will give you what you have not asked for. I will give you wealth and honor. As long as you live, no other king will be as great as you are. [14]Live the way I want you to. Obey my laws and commands, just as your father David did. Then I will let you live for a long time.” [15]Solomon woke up. He realized he had been dreaming.

He returned to Jerusalem. He stood in front of the ark of the Lord’s covenant. He sacrificed burnt offerings and friendship offerings. Then he gave a feast for all his officials.

A Wise Ruling

[16]Two prostitutes came to the king. They stood in front of him. [17]One of them said, “Pardon me, my master, this woman and I live in the same house. I had a baby while she was there with me. [18]Three days after my child was born, this woman also had a baby. We were alone. There wasn’t anyone in the house but the two of us.

[19]“During the night this woman’s baby died. It happened because she was lying on top of him. [20]So she got up in the middle of the night. She took my son from my side while I was asleep. She put him by her breast. Then she put her dead son by my breast. [21]The next morning, I got up to nurse my son. But he was dead! I looked at him closely in the morning light. And I saw that it wasn’t my baby.”

[22]The other woman said, “No! The living baby is my son. The dead one belongs to you.”

But the first woman said, “No! The dead baby is yours. The living one belongs to me.” So they argued in front of the king.

[23]The king said, “One of you says, ‘My son is alive. Your son is dead.’ The other one says, ‘No! Your son is dead. Mine is alive.’ ”

[24]He continued, “Bring me a sword.” So a sword was brought to him. [25]Then he gave an order. He said, “Cut the living child in two. Give half to one woman and half to the other.”

[26]The woman whose son was alive was filled with deep love for her son. She said to the king, “My master, please give her the living baby! Don’t kill him!”

But the other woman said, “Neither one of us will have him. Cut him in two!”

[27]Then the king made his decision. He said, “Give the living baby to the first woman. Don’t kill him. She’s his mother.”

[28]All the Israelites heard about the decision the king had given. That gave them great respect for him. They saw that God had given him wisdom. They knew that Solomon would do what was right and fair when he judged people.

1 Kings 4

Solomon's Officials and Governors

[1]So King Solomon ruled over the whole nation of Israel.

[2]Here are the names of his chief officials.

Azariah was the priest. He was the son of Zadok.
[3]Elihoreph and Ahijah were secretaries. They were the sons of Shisha.
Jehoshaphat kept the records. He was the son of Ahilud.
[4]Benaiah was the commander in chief. He was the son of Jehoiada.
Zadok and Abiathar were priests.
[5]Azariah was in charge of the local governors. He was the son of Nathan.
Zabud was a priest. He was also the king's adviser. He was the son of Nathan.
[6]Ahishar was in charge of the palace.
Adoniram was in charge of those who were forced to work for the king. He was the son of Abda.

[7]Solomon had 12 local governors over the whole land of Israel. They provided supplies for the king and the royal family. Each governor had to provide supplies for one month out of each year.

[8]Here are their names and areas.

Ben-Hur's area was the hill country of Ephraim.
[9]Ben-Deker's area was Makaz, Shaalbim, Beth Shemesh and Elon Bethhanan.
[10]Ben-Hesed's area was Arubboth. Sokoh and the whole land of Hepher were included in his area.
[11]Ben-Abinadab's area was Naphoth Dor. He married Solomon's daughter Taphath.
[12]Baana's area was Taanach, Megiddo and the whole territory of Beth Shan. Beth Shan was next to Zarethan below Jezreel. Baana's area reached from Beth Shan all the way to Abel Meholah. It also went across to Jokmeam. Baana was the son of Ahilud.

13 Ben-Geber’s area was Ramoth Gilead. The settlements of Jair, the son of Manasseh, were included in his area in Gilead. The area of Argob in Bashan was also included. That area had 60 large cities that had high walls around them. The city gates were made secure with heavy bronze bars.
14 Ahinadab’s area was Mahanaim. He was the son of Iddo.
15 Ahimaaz’s area was Naphtali. He had married Basemath. She was Solomon’s daughter.
16 Baana’s area was Asher and Aloth. He was the son of Hushai.
17 Jehoshaphat’s area was Issachar. He was the son of Paruah.
18 Shimei’s area was Benjamin. He was the son of Ela.
19 Geber’s area was Gilead. He was the only governor over the area. He was the son of Uri. Gilead had been the country of Sihon and Og.
Sihon had been king of the Amorites. Og had been king of Bashan.

Solomon’s Daily Supplies

20 There were many people in Judah and Israel. In fact, they were as many as the grains of sand on the seashore. They ate, drank and were happy. 21 Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistines. He ruled as far as the border of Egypt. All those countries brought the gifts he required them to bring him. And Solomon ruled over those countries for his whole life.

22 Here are the supplies Solomon required every day.

five and a half tons of the finest flour
11 tons of meal
23 ten oxen that had been fed by hand
20 oxen that had been fed on grasslands 100 sheep and goats deer, antelopes and roebucks the finest birds

24 Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms that were west of the Euphrates River. He ruled from Tiphsah all the way to Gaza. And he had peace and rest on every side. 25 While Solomon was king, Judah and Israel lived in safety. They were secure from Dan all the way to Beersheba. Everyone had their own vine and their own fig tree.

[26]Solomon had 4,000 spaces where he kept his chariot horses. He had a total of 12,000 horses.

[27]The local governors provided supplies for King Solomon. They provided them for all who ate at the king's table. Each governor provided supplies for one month every year. The governors made sure the king had everything he needed. [28]They also brought barley and straw for the chariot horses and the other horses. Each of the governors brought the amounts required of them. They brought them to the proper places.

God Makes Solomon Very Wise

[29]God made Solomon very wise. His understanding couldn't even be measured. It was like the sand on the seashore. People can't measure that either. [30]Solomon's wisdom was greater than the wisdom of all the people of the east. It was greater than all the wisdom of Egypt. [31]Solomon was wiser than anyone else. He was wiser than Ethan, the Ezrahite. He was wiser than Heman, Kalkol and Darda. They were the sons of Mahol. Solomon became famous in all the nations around him. [32]He spoke 3,000 proverbs. He wrote 1,005 songs. [33]He spoke about plants. He knew everything about them, from the cedar trees in Lebanon to the hyssop plants that grow out of walls. He spoke about animals and birds. He also spoke about reptiles and fish. [34]The kings of all the world's nations heard about how wise Solomon was. So they sent their people to listen to him.

1 Kings 5

Solomon Prepares to Build the Temple

[1]Hiram was the king of Tyre. He heard that Solomon had been anointed as king. He heard that Solomon had become the next king after his father David. Hiram had always been David's friend. So Hiram sent his messengers to Solomon. [2]Then Solomon sent a message back to Hiram. Solomon said,

> [3]"As you know, my father David had to fight many battles. His enemies attacked him from every side. So he couldn't build a temple where the LORD his God would put his Name. That wouldn't be possible until the LORD had put his enemies under his control. [4]But now the LORD my God has given me peace and rest on every side. We don't have any enemies. And we don't have any other major problems either. [5]So I'm planning to build a temple. I want to build it for the Name of the LORD my God. That's what he told my father David he wanted me to do. He said, 'I will put your son on the throne in your place. He will build a temple. I will put my Name there.'
>
> [6]"So give your men orders to cut down cedar trees in Lebanon for me. My men will work with yours. I'll pay you for your men's work. I'll pay any amount you decide on. As you know, we don't have anyone as skilled in cutting down trees as the men of Sidon are."

[7]When Hiram heard Solomon's message, he was very pleased. He said, "May the LORD be praised today. He has given David a wise son to rule over that great nation."

[8]So Hiram sent a message to Solomon. Hiram said,

> "I have received the message you sent me. I'll do everything you want me to. I'll provide the cedar and juniper logs. [9]My men will bring them from Lebanon down to the Mediterranean Sea. I'll make them into rafts. I'll float them to the place you want me to. When the rafts arrive, I'll separate the logs from each other. Then you can take them away. And here's what I want in return. Provide food for all the people in my palace."

[10]So Hiram supplied Solomon with all the cedar and juniper logs he wanted. [11]Solomon gave Hiram 3,600 tons of wheat as food for the people in his palace. He also gave him 120,000 gallons of oil made from pressed olives. He did that for Hiram year after year. [12]The LORD made Solomon wise, just as he had promised him. There was peace between Hiram and Solomon. The two of them made a peace treaty.

[13]King Solomon forced men from all over Israel to work hard for him. There were 30,000 of them. [14]He sent them off to Lebanon in groups of 10,000 each month. They spent one month in Lebanon. Then they spent two months at home. Adoniram was in charge of the people who were forced to work. [15]Solomon had 70,000 people who carried things. He had 80,000 who cut stones in the hills. [16]He had 3,300 men in charge of the project. They also directed the workers. [17]The people did what the king commanded. They removed large blocks of the best quality stone from a rock pit. They used them to provide a foundation for the temple. [18]The skilled workers of Solomon and Hiram cut and prepared the logs and stones. They would later be used in building the temple. Workers from Byblos also helped.

1 Kings 6

Solomon Builds the Temple

[1]Solomon began to build the temple of the LORD. It was 480 years after the Israelites came out of Egypt. It was in the fourth year of Solomon's rule over Israel. He started in the second month. That was the month of Ziv.

[2]The temple King Solomon built for the LORD was 90 feet long. It was 30 feet wide. And it was 45 feet high. [3]The temple had a porch in front of the main hall. The porch was as wide as the temple itself. It was 30 feet wide. It came out 15 feet from the front of the temple. [4]Solomon made narrow windows high up in the temple walls. [5]He built side rooms around the temple. They were built against the walls of the main hall and the Most Holy Room. [6]On the first floor the side rooms were seven and a half feet wide. On the second floor they were nine feet wide. And on the third floor they were ten and a half feet wide. Solomon made the walls of the temple thinner as they went up floor by floor. The result was ledges along the walls. So the floor beams of the side rooms rested on the ledges. The beams didn't go into the temple walls.

[7]All the stones used for building the temple were shaped where they were cut. So hammers, chisels and other iron tools couldn't be heard where the temple was being built.

[8]The entrance to the first floor was on the south side of the temple. A stairway led up to the second floor. From there it went on up to the third floor. [9]So Solomon built the temple and finished it. He made its roof out of beams and cedar boards. [10]He built side rooms all along the temple. Each room was seven and a half feet high. They were joined to the temple by cedar beams.

[11]A message came to Solomon from the LORD. The LORD said, [12]"You are now building this temple. Follow my orders. Keep my rules. Obey all my commands. Then I will make the promise I gave your father David come true. I will do it through you. [13]I will live among my people Israel. I will not desert them."

[14]So Solomon built the temple and finished it. [15]He put cedar boards on its inside walls. He covered them from floor to ceiling. He covered the temple floor with juniper boards. [16]He put up a wall 30 feet from the back of the temple. He made it with cedar boards from floor to ceiling. That formed a room inside the temple. It was the Most Holy Room. [17]The main hall in front of the room was 60 feet long. [18]The inside of the temple was covered with cedar wood. Gourds and open flowers were carved on the wood. Everything was cedar. There wasn't any stone showing anywhere.

[19]Solomon prepared the Most Holy Room inside the temple. That's where the ark of the covenant of the LORD would be placed. [20]The Most Holy Room was 30 feet long. It was 30 feet wide. And it was 30 feet high. Solomon covered the inside of it with pure gold. He prepared the cedar altar for burning incense. He covered it with gold. [21]Solomon covered the inside of the main hall with pure gold. He placed gold chains across the front of the Most Holy Room. That room was covered with gold. [22]So Solomon covered the inside of the whole temple with gold. He also covered the altar for burning incense with gold. It was right in front of the Most Holy Room.

[23]For the Most Holy Room Solomon made a pair of cherubim. He made them out of olive wood. Each cherub was 15 feet high. [24]One wing of the first cherub was seven and a half feet long. The other wing was also seven and a half feet long. So the wings measured 15 feet from tip to tip. [25]The second cherub's wings also measured 15 feet from tip to tip. The two cherubim had the same size and shape. [26]Each cherub was 15 feet high. [27]Solomon placed the cherubim inside the Most Holy Room in the temple. Their wings were spread out. The wing tip of one cherub touched one wall. The wing tip of the other touched the other wall. The tips of their wings touched each other in the middle of the room. [28]Solomon covered the cherubim with gold.

[29]On the walls all around the temple he carved cherubim, palm trees and open flowers. He carved them on the walls of the Most Holy Room and the main hall. [30]He also covered the floors of those two rooms with gold.

[31]For the entrance to the Most Holy Room he made two doors out of olive wood. Each door was one-fifth of the width of the Most Holy Room. [32]On the two olive wood doors he carved cherubim, palm trees and open flowers. He covered the cherubim and palm trees with hammered gold. [33]In the same way he made olive wood doorposts for the entrance to the main hall. Each doorpost was one-fourth of the width of the hall. [34]He also made two doors out of juniper wood. Each door had two parts. They turned in bases shaped like cups. [35]He carved cherubim, palm trees and open flowers on the doors. He covered the doors with gold. He hammered the gold evenly over the carvings.

[36]He used blocks of stone to build a wall around the inside courtyard. The first three layers of the wall were made out of stone. The top layer was made out of beautiful cedar wood.

[37]The foundation of the LORD's temple was laid in Solomon's fourth year. It was in the month of Ziv. [38]The temple was finished in his 11th year. It was in the month of Bul. That was the eighth month. Everything was finished just as the plans required. Solomon had spent seven years building the temple.

1 Kings 7

Solomon Builds His Palace

[1]But it took Solomon 13 years to finish constructing his palace and the other buildings related to it. [2]He built the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon. It was 150 feet long. It was 75 feet wide. And it was 45 feet high. It had four rows of cedar columns. They held up beautiful cedar beams. [3]Above the beams was a roof made out of cedar boards. It rested on the columns. There were three rows of beams with 15 in each row. The total number of beams was 45. [4]The windows of the palace were placed high up in the walls. They were in groups of three. And they faced each other. [5]All the doorways had frames shaped like rectangles. They were in front. They were in groups of three. And they faced each other.

[6]Solomon made a covered area. It was 75 feet long. And it was 45 feet wide. Its roof was held up by columns. In front of it was a porch. In front of that were pillars and a roof that went out beyond them.

[7]Solomon built the throne hall. It was called the Hall of Justice. That's where he would serve as judge. He covered the hall with cedar boards from floor to ceiling. [8]The palace where he would live was set farther back. Its plan was something like the plan for the hall. Solomon had married Pharaoh's daughter. He made a palace for her. It was like the hall.

[9]All those buildings were made out of blocks of good quality stone. They were cut to the right size. They were made smooth on their back and front sides. Those stones were used for the outside of each building and for the large courtyard. They were also used from the foundations up to the roofs. [10]Large blocks of good quality stone were used for the foundations. Some were 15 feet long. Others were 12 feet long. [11]The walls above them were made out of good quality stones. The stones were cut to the right size. On top of them was a layer of cedar beams. [12]The large courtyard had a wall around it. The first three layers of the wall were made out of blocks of stone. The top layer was made out of beautiful cedar wood. The same thing was done with the inside courtyard of the LORD's temple and its porch.

More Facts About the Temple

[13]King Solomon sent messengers to Tyre. He wanted them to bring Huram back with them. [14]Huram's mother was a widow. She was from the tribe of Naphtali. Huram's father was from Tyre. He was skilled in working with bronze. Huram also had great skill, knowledge and understanding in working with bronze. He came to King Solomon and did all the work he was asked to do.

15Huram made two bronze pillars. Each of them was 27 feet high. And each was 18 feet around. 16Each pillar had a decorated top made out of bronze. Each top was seven and a half feet high. 17Chains that were linked together hung down from the tops of the pillars. There were seven chains for each top. 18Huram made two rows of pomegranates. They circled the chains. The pomegranates decorated the tops of the pillars. Huram did the same thing for each pillar. 19The tops on the pillars of the porch were shaped like lilies. The lilies were 6 feet high. 20On the tops of both pillars were 200 pomegranates. They were in rows all around the tops. They were above the part that was shaped like a bowl. And they were next to the chains. 21Huram set the pillars up at the temple porch. The pillar on the south he named Jakin. The one on the north he named Boaz. 22The tops of the pillars were shaped like lilies. So the work on the pillars was finished.

23Huram made a huge metal bowl for washing. Its shape was round. It measured 15 feet from rim to rim. It was seven and a half feet high. And it was 45 feet around. 24Below the rim there was a circle of gourds around the bowl. In every 18 inches around the bowl there were ten gourds. The gourds were arranged in two rows. They were made as part of the bowl itself.

25The huge bowl stood on 12 bulls. Three of them faced north. Three faced west. Three faced south. And three faced east. The bowl rested on top of the bulls. Their rear ends were toward the center. 26The bowl was three inches thick. Its rim was like the rim of a cup. The rim was shaped like the bloom of a lily. The bowl held 12,000 gallons of water.

27Huram also made ten stands out of bronze. They could be moved around. Each stand was six feet long. It was six feet wide. And it was four and a half feet high. 28Here is how the stands were made. They had sides that were joined to posts. 29On the sides between the posts were lions, bulls and cherubim. They were also on all of the posts. Above and below the lions and bulls were wreaths made out of hammered metal. 30Each stand had four bronze wheels with bronze axles. Each stand had a bowl that rested on four supports. The stand had wreaths on each side. 31There was a round opening on the inside of each stand. The opening had a frame 18 inches deep. The sides were 27 inches high from the top of the opening to the bottom of the base. There was carving around the opening.

The sides of the stands were square, not round. [32]The four wheels were under the sides. The axles of the wheels were connected to the stand. Each wheel was 27 inches across. [33]The wheels were made like chariot wheels. All the axles, rims, spokes and hubs were made out of metal.

[34]Each stand had four handles on it. There was one on each corner. They came out from the stand. [35]At the top of the stand there was a round band. It was nine inches deep. The sides and supports were connected to the top of the stand. [36]Huram carved cherubim, lions and palm trees on the sides of the stands. He also carved them on the surfaces of the supports. His carving covered every open space. He had also carved wreaths all around. [37]That's how he made the ten stands. All of them were made in the same molds. And they had the same size and shape.

[38]Then Huram made ten bronze bowls. Each one held 240 gallons. The bowls measured six feet across. There was one bowl for each of the ten stands. [39]He placed five of the stands on the south side of the temple. He placed the other five on the north side. He put the huge bowl on the south side. It was at the southeast corner of the temple. [40]He also made the pots, shovels and sprinkling bowls.

So Huram finished all the work he had started for King Solomon. Here's what he made for the LORD's temple.

[41]He made the two pillars.
He made the two tops for the pillars. The tops were shaped like bowls.
He made the two sets of chains that were linked together. They decorated the two bowl-shaped tops of the pillars.
[42]He made the 400 pomegranates for the two sets of chains. There were two rows of pomegranates for each chain. They decorated the bowl-shaped tops of the pillars.
[43]He made the ten stands with their ten bowls.
[44]He made the huge bowl. He made the 12 bulls that were under it.
[45]He made the pots, shovels and sprinkling bowls.

Huram made all those objects for King Solomon for the LORD's temple. He made them out of bronze. Then he shined them up. [46]The king had made them in clay molds. It was done on the plain of the Jordan River between Sukkoth and Zarethan. [47]Solomon didn't weigh any of those things. There were too many of them to weigh. No one even tried to weigh the bronze they were made out of.

[48]Solomon also made everything in the LORD's temple.

He made the golden altar.
He made the golden table for the holy bread.
[49]He made the pure gold lampstands. There were five on the right and five on the left. They were in front of the Most Holy Room.
He made the gold flowers. He made the gold lamps and tongs.
[50]He made the bowls, wick cutters, sprinkling bowls, dishes, and shallow cups for burning incense. All of them were made out of pure gold.
He made the gold bases for the doors of the inside room. That's the Most Holy Room. He also made gold bases for the doors of the main hall of the temple.

[51]King Solomon finished all the work for the LORD's temple. Then he brought in the things his father David had set apart for the LORD. They included the silver and gold and all the other things for the LORD's temple. Solomon placed them with the other treasures that were there.

1 Kings 8

The Ark Is Brought to the Temple

[1]Then King Solomon sent for the elders of Israel. He told them to come to him in Jerusalem. They included all the leaders of the tribes. They also included the chiefs of the families of Israel. Solomon wanted them to bring up the ark of the LORD's covenant from Zion. Zion was the City of David. [2]All the Israelites came together to where King Solomon was. It was at the time of the Feast of Booths. The feast was held in the month of Ethanim. That's the seventh month.

[3]All the elders of Israel arrived. Then the priests picked up the ark and carried it. [4]They brought up the ark of the LORD. They also brought up the tent of meeting and all the sacred things in the tent. The priests and Levites carried everything up. [5]The entire community of Israel had gathered around King Solomon. All of them were in front of the ark. They sacrificed huge numbers of sheep and cattle. There were so many animals that they couldn't be recorded. In fact, they couldn't even be counted.

[6]The priests brought the ark of the LORD's covenant law to its place in the Most Holy Room of the temple. They put it under the wings of the cherubim.
[7]Their wings were spread out over the place where the ark was. They covered the ark. They also covered the poles used to carry it. [8]The poles were very long.
Their ends could be seen from the Holy Room in front of the Most Holy Room.
But they couldn't be seen from outside the Holy Room. They are still there to this day. [9]There wasn't anything in the ark except the two stone tablets. Moses had placed them in it at Mount Horeb. That's where the LORD had made a covenant with the Israelites. He made it after they came out of Egypt.

[10]The priests left the Holy Room. Then the cloud filled the temple of the LORD. [11]The priests couldn't do their work because of it. That's because the glory of the LORD filled his temple.

[12]Then Solomon said, "LORD, you have said you would live in a dark cloud.
[13]As you can see, I've built a beautiful temple for you. You can live in it forever."

[14]The whole community of Israel was standing there. The king turned around and gave them his blessing. [15]Then he said,

"I praise the LORD. He is the God of Israel. With his own mouth he made a promise to my father David. With his own powerful hand he made it come true. He said, [16]‘I brought my people Israel out of Egypt. Ever since, I haven’t chosen a city in any tribe of Israel where a temple could be built for my Name. But I have chosen David to rule over my people Israel.’

[17]“With all his heart my father David wanted to build a temple. He wanted to do it so the LORD could put his Name there. The LORD is the God of Israel. [18]But the LORD spoke to my father David. He said, ‘With all your heart you wanted to build a temple for my Name. It is good that you wanted to do that. [19]But you will not build the temple. Instead, your son will build the temple for my Name. He is your own flesh and blood.’

[20]“The LORD has kept the promise he made. I’ve become the next king after my father David. Now I’m sitting on the throne of Israel. That’s exactly what the LORD promised would happen. I’ve built the temple where the LORD will put his Name. He is the God of Israel. [21]I’ve provided a place for the ark there. The tablets of the LORD’s covenant law are inside it. He made that covenant with our people of long ago. He made it when he brought them out of Egypt.”

Solomon Prays to Set the Temple Apart to the LORD

[22]Then Solomon stood in front of the LORD’s altar. He stood in front of the whole community of Israel. He spread out his hands toward heaven. [23]He said, “LORD, you are the God of Israel. There is no God like you in heaven above or on earth below. You keep the covenant you made with us. You show us your love. You do that when we follow you with all our hearts. [24]You have kept your promise to my father David. He was your servant. With your mouth you made a promise. With your powerful hand you have made it come true. And today we can see it.

[25]“LORD, you are the God of Israel. Keep the promises you made to my father David. Do it for him. He was your servant. Here is what you said to him. ‘A son from your family line will sit before me on the throne of Israel. This will always be true if your children after you are careful in everything they do. They must live in my sight faithfully the way you have lived.’ [26]God of Israel, let your promise to my father David come true.

27“But will you really live on earth? After all, the heavens can’t hold you. In fact, even the highest heavens can’t hold you. So this temple I’ve built certainly can’t hold you! 28But please pay attention to my prayer. LORD my God, be ready to help me as I make my appeal to you. Listen to my cry for help. Hear the prayer I’m praying to you today. 29Let your eyes look toward this temple night and day. You said, ‘I will put my Name there.’ So please listen to the prayer I’m praying toward this place. 30Hear me when I ask you to help us. Listen to your people Israel when they pray toward this place. Listen to us from heaven. It’s the place where you live. When you hear us, forgive us.

31“Suppose someone does something wrong to their neighbor. And the person who has done something wrong is required to give their word. They must tell the truth about what they have done. They must come and do it in front of your altar in this temple. 32When they do, listen to them from heaven. Take action. Judge between the person and their neighbor. Punish the guilty one. Do to that person what they have done to their neighbor. Deal with the one who isn’t guilty in a way that shows they are free from blame. That will prove they aren’t guilty.

33“Suppose your people Israel have lost the battle against their enemies. And suppose they’ve sinned against you. But they turn back to you and praise your name. They pray to you in this temple. And they ask you to help them. 34Then listen to them from heaven. Forgive the sin of your people Israel. Bring them back to the land you gave to their people who lived long ago.

35“Suppose your people have sinned against you. And because of that, the sky is closed up and there isn’t any rain. But your people pray toward this place. They praise you by admitting they’ve sinned. And they turn away from their sin because you have made them suffer.
36Then listen to them from heaven. Forgive the sin of your people Israel. Teach them the right way to live. Send rain on the land you gave them as their share.

37“Suppose there isn’t enough food in the land. And a plague strikes the land. The hot winds completely dry up our crops. Or locusts or grasshoppers come and eat them up. Or an enemy surrounds one of our cities and gets ready to attack it. Or trouble or sickness comes. 38But suppose one of your people prays to you. They ask you to help them.
They are aware of how much their own heart is suffering. And they spread out their hands toward this temple to pray. [39]Then listen to them from heaven. It's the place where you live. Forgive them. Take action. Deal with everyone in keeping with everything they do. You know their hearts. In fact, you are the only one who knows every human heart. [40]Your people will have respect for you. They will respect you as long as they are in the land you gave our people long ago.

[41]"Suppose there are outsiders who don't belong to your people Israel. And they have come from a land far away. They've come because they've heard about your name. [42]When they get here, they will find out even more about your great name. They'll hear about how you reached out your mighty hand and powerful arm. So they'll come and pray toward this temple. [43]Then listen to them from heaven. It's the place where you live. Do what those outsiders ask you to do. Then all the nations on earth will know you. They will have respect for you. They'll respect you just as your own people Israel do. They'll know that your Name is in this house I've built.

[44]"Suppose your people go to war against their enemies. It doesn't matter where you send them. And suppose they pray to you toward the city you have chosen. They pray toward the temple I've built for your Name. [45]Then listen to them from heaven. Listen to their prayer for your help. Stand up for them.

[46]"Suppose your people sin against you. After all, there isn't anyone who doesn't sin. And suppose you get angry with them. You hand them over to their enemies. They take them as prisoners to their own lands. It doesn't matter whether those lands are near or far away. [47]But suppose your people change their ways in the land where they are held as prisoners. They turn away from their sins. They beg you to help them in the land of those who won the battle over them. They say, 'We have sinned. We've done what is wrong. We've done what is evil.' [48]And they turn back to you with all their heart and soul. Suppose it happens in the land of their enemies who took them away as prisoners. There they pray to you toward the land you gave their people long ago. They pray toward the city you have chosen. And they pray toward the temple I've built for your Name. [49]Then listen to them from heaven. It's the place where you live. Listen to their prayer. Listen to them when they ask you to help them. Stand up for them. [50]Your people have sinned against you. Please forgive them. Forgive them for all the wrong things they've done against you. And make those who won the battle over them show mercy to them. [51]After all, they are your people. They belong to you. You brought them out of Egypt. You brought them out of that furnace that melts iron down and makes it pure.

[52]"Let your eyes be open to me when I ask you to help us. Let them be open to your people Israel when they ask you to help them. Pay attention to them every time they cry out to you. [53]After all, you chose them out of all the nations in the world. You made them your very own people. You did it just as you had announced through your servant Moses. That's when you brought out of Egypt our people of long ago. You are our LORD and King."

[54]Solomon finished praying. He finished asking the LORD to help his people. Then he got up from in front of the LORD's altar. He had been down on his knees with his hands spread out toward heaven. [55]He stood in front of the whole community of Israel. He blessed them with a loud voice. He said,

[56]"I praise the LORD. He has given peace and rest to his people Israel. That's exactly what he promised to do. He gave his people good promises through his servant Moses. Every single word of those promises has come true. [57]May the LORD our God be with us, just as he was with our people who lived long ago. May he never leave us. May he never desert us. [58]May he turn our hearts to him. Then we will live the way he wants us to. We'll obey the commands, rules and directions he gave our people of long ago. [59]I've prayed these words to the LORD our God. May he keep them close to him day and night. May he stand up for me. May he also stand up for his people Israel. May he give us what we need every day. [60]Then all the nations on earth will know that the LORD is God. They'll know that there isn't any other god. [61]And may you commit your lives completely to the LORD our God. May you live by his rules. May you obey his commands. May you always do as you are doing now."

The Temple Is Set Apart to the LORD

[62]Then the king and the whole community of Israel offered sacrifices to the LORD. [63]Solomon sacrificed friendship offerings to the LORD. He sacrificed

22,000 oxen. He also sacrificed 120,000 sheep and goats. So the king and the whole community set the temple of the LORD apart to him.

64On that same day the king set the middle area of the courtyard apart to the LORD. It was in front of the LORD's temple. There Solomon sacrificed burnt offerings and grain offerings. He also sacrificed the fat of the friendship offerings there. He did it there because the bronze altar that stood in front of the LORD was too small. It wasn't big enough to hold all the burnt offerings, the grain offerings and the fat of the friendship offerings.

65At that time Solomon celebrated the Feast of Booths. The whole community of Israel was with him. It was a huge crowd. People came from as far away as Lebo Hamath and the Wadi of Egypt. For seven days they celebrated in front of the LORD our God. The feast continued for seven more days. That made a total of 14 days. 66On the following day Solomon sent the people away. They asked the LORD to bless the king. Then they went home. The people were glad. Their hearts were full of joy. That's because the LORD had done so many good things for his servant David and his people Israel.

1 Kings 9

The LORD Appears to Solomon

[1]Solomon finished building the LORD's temple and the royal palace. He had accomplished everything he had planned to do. [2]The LORD appeared to him a second time. He had already appeared to him at Gibeon. [3]The LORD said to him,

> "I have heard you pray to me. I have heard you ask me to help you. You have built this temple. I have set it apart for myself. My Name will be there forever. My eyes and my heart will always be there.
>
> [4]"But you must walk faithfully with me, just as your father David did. Your heart must be honest. It must be without blame. Do everything I command you to do. Obey my rules and laws. [5]Then I will set up your royal throne over Israel forever. I promised your father David I would do that. I said to him, 'You will always have a son from your family line on the throne of Israel.'
>
> [6]"But suppose all of you turn away from me. Or your children turn away from me. You refuse to obey the commands and rules I have given you. And you go off to serve other gods and worship them. [7]Then I will remove Israel from the land. It is the land I gave them. I will turn my back on this temple. I will do it even though I have set it apart for my Name to be there. Then Israel will be hated by all the nations. They will laugh and joke about Israel. [8]This temple will become a pile of stones. All those who pass by it will be shocked. They will make fun of it. And they will say, 'Why has the LORD done a thing like this to this land and temple?' [9]People will answer, 'Because they have deserted the LORD their God. He brought out of Egypt their people of long ago. But they have been holding on to other gods. They've been worshiping them. They've been serving them. That's why the LORD has brought all this horrible trouble on them.' "

Other Things Solomon Did

[10]Solomon built the LORD's temple and the royal palace. It took him 20 years to construct those two buildings. [11]King Solomon gave 20 towns in Galilee to Hiram, the king of Tyre. That's because Hiram had provided him with all the cedar and juniper logs he wanted. He had also provided Solomon with all the gold he wanted. [12]Hiram went from Tyre to see the towns Solomon had given him. But he wasn't pleased with them. [13]"My friend," he asked, "what have you given me? What kind of towns are these?" So he called them the Land of Kabul. And that's what they are still called to this day. [14]Hiram had sent four and a half tons of gold to Solomon.

[15]King Solomon forced people to work hard for him. Here is a record of what they did. They built the LORD's temple and Solomon's palace. They filled in the low places. They rebuilt the wall of Jerusalem. They built up Hazor, Megiddo and Gezer. [16]Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, had attacked Gezer and captured it. He had set it on fire. He had killed the Canaanites who lived there. Then he had given Gezer as a wedding gift to his daughter. She was Solomon's wife. [17]Solomon rebuilt Gezer. He built up Lower Beth Horon [18]and Baalath. He built up Tadmor in the desert. All those towns were in his land. [19]He built up all the cities where he could store things. He also built up the towns for his chariots and horses. He built anything he wanted to build in Jerusalem, Lebanon and all the territory he ruled over.

[20]There were still many people left in the land who weren't Israelites. They included Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. [21]They were children of the people who had lived in the land before the Israelites came. Those people had been set apart to the LORD in a special way to be destroyed. But the Israelites hadn't been able to kill all of them. Solomon forced them to work very hard as his slaves. And they still work for Israel as slaves to this day. [22]But Solomon didn't force any of the Israelites to work as his slaves. Instead, some were his fighting men. Others were his government officials, his officers and his captains. Others were commanders of his chariots and chariot drivers. [23]Still others were the chief officials in charge of Solomon's projects. There were 550 officials in charge of those who did the work.

[24]Pharaoh's daughter moved from the City of David up to the palace Solomon had built for her. After that, he filled in the low places near the palace.

[25]Three times a year Solomon sacrificed burnt offerings and friendship offerings. He sacrificed them on the altar he had built to honor the LORD. Along with the offerings, he burned incense to the LORD. So he carried out his duties for the temple.

[26]King Solomon also built ships at Ezion Geber. It's near Elath in Edom. It's on the shore of the Red Sea. [27]Hiram sent his men to serve on the ships together with Solomon’s men. Hiram’s sailors knew the sea. [28]All of them sailed to Ophir. They brought back 16 tons of gold. They gave it to King Solomon.

1 Kings 10

The Queen of Sheba Visits Solomon

[1]The queen of Sheba heard about how famous Solomon was. She also heard about how he served and worshiped the LORD. So she came to test Solomon with hard questions. [2]She arrived in Jerusalem with a very large group of attendants. Her camels were carrying spices, huge amounts of gold, and valuable jewels. She came to Solomon and asked him about everything she wanted to know. [3]Solomon answered all her questions. There wasn't anything too hard for the king to explain to her. [4]So the queen of Sheba saw how very wise Solomon was. She saw the palace he had built. [5]She saw the food on his table. She saw his officials sitting there. She saw the robes of the servants who waited on everyone. She saw his wine tasters. And she saw the burnt offerings Solomon sacrificed at the LORD's temple. She could hardly believe everything she had seen.

[6]She said to the king, "Back in my own country I heard a report about you. I heard about how much you had accomplished. I also heard about how wise you are. Everything I heard is true. [7]But I didn't believe those things. So I came to see for myself. And now I believe it! You are twice as wise and wealthy as people say you are. The report I heard doesn't even begin to tell the whole story about you. [8]How happy your people must be! How happy your officials must be! They always get to serve you and hear the wise things you say. [9]May the LORD your God be praised. He takes great delight in you. He placed you on the throne of Israel. The LORD will love Israel for all time to come. That's why he has made you king. He knows that you will do what is fair and right."

[10]She gave the king four and a half tons of gold. She also gave him huge amounts of spices and valuable jewels. No one would ever bring to King Solomon as many spices as the queen of Sheba gave him.

[11]Hiram's ships brought gold from Ophir. From there they also brought huge amounts of almugwood and valuable jewels. [12]The king used the almugwood to make supports for the LORD's temple and the royal palace. He also used it to make harps and lyres for those who played the music. That much almugwood has never been brought into Judah or seen there since that day.

[13]King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba everything she wanted and asked for. That was in addition to what he had given her out of his royal riches. Then she left. She returned to her own country with her attendants.

Solomon's Greatness

14Each year Solomon received 25 tons of gold. 15That didn't include the money brought in by business and trade. It also didn't include the money from all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the territories.

16King Solomon made 200 large shields out of hammered gold. Each one weighed 15 pounds. 17He also made 300 small shields out of hammered gold. Each one weighed seven and a half pounds. The king put all the shields in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon.

18Then he made a large throne. It was covered with ivory. And that was covered with fine gold. 19The throne had six steps. Its back had a rounded top. The throne had armrests on both sides of the seat. A statue of a lion stood on each side of the throne. 20Twelve lions stood on the six steps. There was one at each end of each step. Nothing like that throne had ever been made for any other kingdom. 21All of King Solomon's cups were made out of gold. All the things used in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon were made out of pure gold. Nothing was made out of silver. When Solomon was king, silver wasn't considered to be worth very much. 22He had many ships that carried goods to be traded. His ships went to sea along with Hiram's ships. Once every three years the ships returned. They brought gold, silver, ivory, apes and peacocks.

23King Solomon was richer than all the other kings on earth. He was also wiser than they were. 24People from the whole world wanted to meet Solomon in person. They wanted to see for themselves how wise God had made him. 25Year after year, everyone who came to him brought a gift. They brought gifts made out of silver and gold. They brought robes, weapons and spices. They also brought horses and mules.

26Solomon had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horses. He kept some of his horses and chariots in the chariot cities. He kept the others with him in Jerusalem. 27The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones. He made cedar wood as common there as sycamore-fig trees in the western hills. 28Solomon got horses from Egypt and from Kue. The royal traders bought them from Kue at the current price. 29They weighed out 15 pounds of silver for a chariot from Egypt. And they weighed out almost four pounds of silver for a horse. They also sold horses and chariots to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Arameans.

1 Kings 11

Solomon's Wives

[1]King Solomon loved many women besides Pharaoh's daughter. They were from other lands. They were Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians and Hittites. [2]The LORD had warned Israel about women from other nations. He had said, "You must not marry them. If you do, you can be sure they will turn your hearts toward their gods." But Solomon continued to love them anyway. He wouldn't give them up. [3]He had 700 wives who came from royal families. And he had 300 concubines. His wives led him astray. [4]As Solomon grew older, his wives turned his heart toward other gods. He didn't follow the LORD his God with all his heart. So he wasn't like his father David. [5]Solomon worshiped Ashtoreth. Ashtoreth was the female god of the Sidonians. He also worshiped Molek. Molek was the god of the Ammonites. The LORD hated that god.
[6]Solomon did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. He didn't completely obey the LORD. He didn't do what his father David had done.

[7]There is a hill east of Jerusalem. Solomon built a high place for worshiping Chemosh there. He built a high place for worshiping Molek there too. Chemosh was the god of Moab. Molek was the god of Ammon. The LORD hated both of those gods. [8]Solomon also built high places so that all his wives from other nations could worship their gods. Those women burned incense and offered sacrifices to their gods.

[9]The LORD became angry with Solomon. That's because his heart had turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel. He had appeared to Solomon twice.
[10]He had commanded Solomon not to worship other gods. But Solomon didn't obey the LORD. [11]So the LORD said to Solomon, "You have chosen not to keep my covenant. You have decided not to obey my rules. I commanded you to do what I told you. But you did not do it. So you can be absolutely sure I will tear the kingdom away from you. I will give it to one of your officials. [12]But I will not do that while you are still living. Because of your father David I will wait. I will tear the kingdom out of your son's hand. [13]But I will not tear the whole kingdom away from him. I will give him one of the tribes because of my servant David. I will also do it because of Jerusalem. That is the city I have chosen."

Solomon's Enemies

[14]Then the LORD brought an enemy against Solomon. The enemy's name was Hadad. He was from Edom. In fact, he belonged to the royal family of Edom. [15]David had fought against Edom. Joab had been the commander of the army. He had gone up to bury the dead bodies of the Israelites who had been killed in battle. At that time he had struck down all the men in Edom. [16]In fact, Joab and all the men of Israel stayed there for six months. During that time they destroyed all the men in Edom. [17]But when Hadad was only a boy, he ran away to Egypt. Some officials from Edom went with him. They had served Hadad's father. [18]They started out from Midian and went to Paran. They took some people from Paran with them. Then they went to Egypt. They went to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. He gave Hadad a house and some land. He also supplied him with food.

[19]Pharaoh was very pleased with Hadad. Pharaoh's wife was Queen Tahpenes. He gave Hadad her sister to be his wife. [20]The sister of Tahpenes had a son by Hadad. The baby was named Genubath. Tahpenes brought him up in the royal palace. Genubath lived there with Pharaoh's own children.

[21]Hadad heard that David had joined the members of his family who had already died. He also heard that Joab, the commander of the army, was dead. Hadad heard those things while he was in Egypt. He said to Pharaoh, "Let me go. I want to return to my own country."

[22]"Why do you want to go back to your own country?" Pharaoh asked. "Don't you have everything you need right here?"

"Yes," Hadad replied. "But I want you to let me go anyway!"

[23]God brought another enemy against Solomon. The enemy's name was Rezon. He was the son of Eliada. Rezon had run away from his master Hadadezer, the king of Zobah. [24]David had destroyed Zobah's army. Then Rezon gathered together some men to follow him. He became their leader. They went to Damascus where they made their homes. They also took control of Damascus. [25]Rezon was Israel's enemy as long as Solomon was living. Rezon added to the trouble Hadad had caused. So Rezon ruled in Aram. He was Israel's enemy.

Jeroboam Refuses to Follow Solomon

[26]Jeroboam refused to follow King Solomon. He was one of Solomon's officials. He was from Zeredah in the territory of Ephraim. His father was Nebat. His mother was a widow named Zeruah.

[27]Here is the story of how Jeroboam refused to follow the king. Solomon had filled in the low places near the palace. He had also repaired the wall of the city of his father David. [28]Jeroboam was a very important young man. Solomon saw how well he did his work. So he put him in charge of all the workers in northern Israel.

[29]About that time Jeroboam was going out of Jerusalem. Ahijah the prophet met him on the road. Ahijah was from Shiloh. He was wearing a new coat. The two of them were all alone out in the country. [30]Ahijah grabbed the new coat he had on. He tore it up into 12 pieces. [31]Then he said to Jeroboam, "Take ten pieces for yourself. The LORD is the God of Israel. He says, 'I am going to tear the kingdom out of Solomon's hand. I will give you ten of its tribes. [32]Solomon will have one of its tribes. I will let him keep it because of my servant David and because of Jerusalem. I have chosen that city out of all the cities in the tribes of Israel. [33]I will do these things because the tribes have deserted me. They have worshiped Ashtoreth, the female god of the people of Sidon. They have worshiped Chemosh, the god of the people of Moab. And they have worshiped Molek, the god of the people of Ammon. They have not lived the way I wanted them to. They have not done what is right in my eyes. They have not obeyed my rules and laws as Solomon's father David did.

[34]" 'But I will not take the whole kingdom out of Solomon's hand. I have made him ruler all the days of his life. I have done it because of my servant David. I chose him, and he obeyed my commands and rules. [35]I will take the kingdom out of his son's hands. And I will give you ten of the tribes. [36]I will give one of the tribes to David's son. Then my servant David will always have a son on his throne in Jerusalem. The lamp of David's kingdom will always burn brightly in my sight. Jerusalem is the city I chose for my Name. [37]But I will make you king over Israel. You will rule over everything your heart desires. So you will be the king of Israel. [38]Do everything I command you to do. Live the way I want you to. Do what is right in my eyes. Obey my rules and commands. That is what my servant David did. If you do those things, I will be with you. I will build you a kingdom. It will last as long as the one I built for David. I will give Israel to you. [39]I will punish David's family because of what Solomon has done. But I will not punish them forever.' "

[40]Solomon tried to kill Jeroboam. But Jeroboam ran away to Egypt. He went to Shishak, the king of Egypt. He stayed there until Solomon died.

Solomon Dies

[41]The other events of Solomon’s rule are written down. Everything he did and the wisdom he showed are written down. They are written in the official records of Solomon. [42]Solomon ruled in Jerusalem over the whole nation of Israel for 40 years. [43]Then he joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in the city of his father David. Solomon’s son Rehoboam became the next king after him.

1 Kings 12

Israel Refuses to Follow Rehoboam

[1]Rehoboam went to the city of Shechem. All the Israelites had gone there to make him king. [2]Jeroboam heard about it. He was the son of Nebat. Jeroboam was still in Egypt at that time. He had gone there for safety. He wanted to get away from King Solomon. But now he returned from Egypt. [3]So the people sent for Jeroboam. He and the whole community of Israel went to Rehoboam. They said to him, [4]"Your father put a heavy load on our shoulders. But now make our hard work easier. Make the heavy load on us lighter. Then we'll serve you."

[5]Rehoboam answered, "Go away for three days. Then come back to me." So the people went away.

[6]King Rehoboam asked the elders for advice. They had served his father Solomon while he was still living. Rehoboam asked them, "What advice can you give me? How should I answer these people?"

[7]They replied, "Serve them today. Give them what they are asking for. Then they'll always serve you."

[8]But Rehoboam didn't accept the advice the elders gave him. Instead, he asked for advice from the young men. They had grown up with him and were now serving him. [9]He asked them, "What's your advice? How should I answer these people? They say to me, 'Make the load your father put on our shoulders lighter.' "

[10]The young men who had grown up with him gave their answer. They replied, "These people have said to you, 'Your father put a heavy load on our shoulders. Make it lighter.' Now tell them, 'My little finger is stronger than my father's legs. [11]My father put a heavy load on your shoulders. But I'll make it even heavier. My father beat you with whips. But I'll beat you with bigger whips.' "

[12]Three days later Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam. That's because the king had said, "Come back to me in three days." [13]The king answered the people in a mean way. He didn't accept the advice the elders had given him. [14]Instead, he followed the advice of the young men. He said, "My father put a heavy load on your shoulders. But I'll make it even heavier. My father beat you with whips. But I'll beat you with bigger whips." [15]So the king didn't listen to the people. That's because the LORD had planned it that way.

What he had said through Ahijah came true. Ahijah had spoken the LORD's message to Jeroboam, the son of Nebat. Ahijah was from Shiloh.

16All the Israelites saw that the king refused to listen to them. So they answered the king. They said,

"We don't have any share in David's royal family.
We don't have any share in Jesse's son.
People of Israel, let's go back to our homes.
David's royal family, take care of your own kingdom!"

So the Israelites went home. 17But Rehoboam still ruled over the Israelites living in the towns of Judah.

18Adoniram was in charge of those who were forced to work hard for King Rehoboam. The king sent him out among all the Israelites. But they killed Adoniram by throwing stones at him. King Rehoboam was able to get away in his chariot. He escaped to Jerusalem. 19Israel has refused to follow the royal family of David to this day.

20All the Israelites heard that Jeroboam had returned. They sent for him. They wanted him to meet with the whole community. Then they made him king over the entire nation of Israel. Only the tribe of Judah remained true to David's royal family.

21Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem. He brought together 180,000 capable young men from Judah and the tribe of Benjamin. He had decided to go to war against Israel. Solomon's son Rehoboam wanted his fighting men to get the kingdom of Israel back for him.

22But a message from God came to Shemaiah. He was a man of God. God said to him, 23"Speak to Solomon's son Rehoboam, the king of Judah. Speak to all Judah and the tribe of Benjamin. Also speak to the rest of the people. Tell all of them, 24'The LORD says, "Do not go up to fight against the Israelites. They are your relatives. I want every one of you to go back home. Things have happened exactly the way I planned them." ' " So the fighting men obeyed the LORD's message. They went home again, just as he had ordered.

Golden Calves at Bethel and Dan

25Jeroboam built up the walls of Shechem. It was in the hill country of Ephraim. Jeroboam made Shechem his home. From there he went out and built up Peniel.

[26]Jeroboam thought, “My kingdom still isn’t secure. It could very easily go back to the royal family of David. [27]Suppose the Israelites go up to Jerusalem to offer sacrifices at the LORD’s temple. If they do, they will again decide to follow Rehoboam as their master. Then they’ll kill me. They’ll return to King Rehoboam. He is king of Judah.”

[28]So King Jeroboam asked for advice. Then he made two golden statues that looked like calves. He said to the people, “It’s too hard for you to go up to Jerusalem. Israel, here are your gods who brought you up out of Egypt.” [29]He set up one statue in Bethel. He set up the other one in Dan. [30]What Jeroboam did was sinful. And it caused Israel to sin. The people came to worship the statue at Bethel. They went all the way to Dan to worship the statue that was there.

[31]Jeroboam built temples for worshiping gods on high places. He appointed all kinds of people as priests. They didn’t even have to be Levites. [32]He established a feast. It was on the 15th day of the eighth month. He wanted to make it like the Feast of Booths that was held in Judah. Jeroboam built an altar at Bethel. He offered sacrifices on it. He sacrificed to the calves he had made. He also put priests in Bethel. He did it at the high places he had made. [33]He offered sacrifices on the altar he had built at Bethel. It was on the 15th day of the eighth month. That’s the month he had chosen for it. So he established the feast for the Israelites. And he went up to the altar to sacrifice offerings.

1 Kings 13

A Man of God From Judah

[1]A man of God went from Judah to Bethel. He had received a message from the LORD. He arrived in Bethel just as Jeroboam was standing by the altar to offer a sacrifice. [2]The man cried out. He shouted a message from the LORD against the altar. He said, “Altar! Altar! The LORD says, ‘A son named Josiah will be born into the royal family of David. Altar, listen to me! Josiah will sacrifice the priests of the high places on you. They will be the children of the priests who are offering sacrifices here. So human bones will be burned on you.’ ” [3]That same day the man of God spoke about a miraculous sign. He said, “Here is the sign the LORD has announced. This altar will be broken to pieces. The ashes on it will be spilled out.”

[4]The man of God announced that message against the altar at Bethel. When King Jeroboam heard it, he reached out his hand from the altar. He said, “Grab him!” But as he reached out his hand toward the man, it dried up. He couldn’t even pull it back. [5]Also, the altar broke into pieces. Its ashes spilled out. That happened in keeping with the miraculous sign the man of God had announced. He had received a message from the LORD.

[6]King Jeroboam spoke to the man of God. He said, “Pray to the LORD your God for me. Pray that my hand will be as good as new again.” So the man of God prayed to the LORD for the king. And the king’s hand became as good as new. It was just as healthy as it had been before.

[7]The king said to the man of God, “Come home with me for a meal. I’ll give you a gift.”

[8]But the man of God replied to the king. He said, “What if you were to give me half of what you own? Even then I wouldn’t go with you. I wouldn’t eat bread or drink water here. [9]The LORD gave me a command. He said, ‘Do not eat bread or drink water there. Do not return the same way you came.’ ” [10]So he took another road. He didn’t go back on the same road he had taken when he came to Bethel.

[11]An old prophet was living in Bethel. His sons came and spoke to him. They told him everything the man of God had done there that day. They also told their father what the man had said to the king. [12]Their father asked them, “Which way did he go?” His sons showed him the road the man of God from Judah had taken. [13]So he said to his sons, “Put a saddle on the donkey for me.” When they had done it, he got on the donkey. [14]He traveled on the same road the man of God had taken. He found the man sitting under an oak tree. He asked him, “Are you the man of God who came from Judah?”

“I am,” he replied.

[15]So the prophet said to him, “Come home with me. I’ll give you something to eat.”

[16]The man of God said, “I can’t go back to Bethel with you. I can’t eat bread or drink water with you there. [17]I’ve received a message from the LORD. He told me, ‘Do not eat bread or drink water there. Do not return the same way you came.’ ”

[18]The old prophet answered, “I’m also a prophet, just like you. An angel gave me a message from the LORD. The message said, ‘Bring the man of God back with you to your house. Then he can eat bread and drink water with you.’ ” But the old prophet was telling him a lie. [19]The man of God returned with him. He ate and drank in his house.

[20]They were sitting at the table. The LORD gave a message to the old prophet who had brought the man of God back. [21]He cried out to the man who had come from Judah. He told him, “The LORD says, ‘You have not done what I told you to do. You have not obeyed the command I gave you. I am the LORD your God. [22]You came back here and ate bread and drank water. You did it in the place where I told you not to. So your body will not be buried in your family tomb.’ ”

[23]The man of God finished eating and drinking. Then the old prophet who had brought him back put a saddle on the man’s donkey for him. [24]And the man went on his way. A lion attacked him on the road and killed him. His body was left lying on the road. The donkey and the lion were standing beside it. [25]Some people passed by. They saw the body lying on the road. They saw the lion standing beside the body. Then they went and reported it in the city where the old prophet lived.

[26]The prophet who had brought the man back from his journey heard about what had happened. He said, “It’s the man of God. He didn’t do what the LORD told him to do. So the LORD has given him over to the lion. The lion has attacked him and killed him. Everything has happened just as the LORD’s message had warned him it would.”

[27]The old prophet said to his sons, “Put a saddle on the donkey for me.” So they did. [28]Then he went out. He found the body of the man of God lying on the road. The donkey and the lion were standing beside it. The lion hadn’t eaten the body. It hadn’t attacked the donkey either. [29]So the prophet picked up the man’s body. He put it on the donkey. He brought it back to his own city. He wanted to mourn for him and bury him. [30]Then he placed the body in his own tomb. People mourned for him. They said, “Oh, no, my friend! My dear friend!”

[31]After the old prophet had buried the the man of God, he spoke to his sons. He said, “When I die, bury me in the grave where the man of God is buried. Put my bones next to his bones. [32]I want you to do that because he announced a message from the LORD. He spoke against the altar in Bethel. He also spoke against all the temples that are on the high places. They are in the towns of Samaria. What the man of God said will certainly come true.”

[33]Even after all of that happened, Jeroboam still didn’t change his evil ways. Once more he appointed priests for the high places. He made priests out of all kinds of people. In fact, he let anyone become a priest who wanted to. He set them apart to serve at the high places. [34]All of that was the great sin the royal family of Jeroboam committed. It led to their fall from power. Because of it, they were destroyed from the face of the earth.

1 Kings 14

Ahijah's Prophecy Against Jeroboam

[1]At that time Abijah became sick. He was the son of Jeroboam. [2]Jeroboam said to his wife, "Go. Put on some different clothes. Then no one will recognize you as my wife. Go to Shiloh. That's where Ahijah the prophet is. He told me I would be king over the Israelites. [3]Take ten loaves of bread with you. Take some cakes and a jar of honey. Go to him. He'll tell you what will happen to our son." [4]So Jeroboam's wife did what he said. She went to Ahijah's house in Shiloh.

Ahijah couldn't see. He was blind because he was so old. [5]But the LORD had told Ahijah, "Jeroboam's wife is coming. Her son is sick. She'll ask you about him. Give her the answer I give you. When she arrives, she'll pretend to be someone else."

[6]Ahijah heard the sound of her footsteps at the door. He said, "Come in. I know that you are Jeroboam's wife. Why are you pretending to be someone else? I have some bad news for you. [7]Go. Tell Jeroboam that the LORD has a message for him. The LORD is the God of Israel. He says, 'I chose you from among the people. I appointed you king over my people Israel. [8]I tore the kingdom away from the royal house of David. I gave it to you. But you have not been like my servant David. He obeyed my commands. He followed me with all his heart. He did only what was right in my eyes. [9]You have done more evil things than all those who lived before you. You have made other gods for yourself. You have made statues of gods out of metal. You have made me very angry. You have turned your back on me.

[10]" 'Because of that, I am going to bring horrible trouble on your royal house. I will cut off from you every male in Israel. It does not matter whether they are slaves or free. I will burn up your royal house, just as someone burns up trash. I will burn it until it is all gone. [11]Some of the people who belong to you will die in the city. Dogs will eat them up. Others will die in the country. The birds will eat them. The LORD has spoken!'

[12]"Now go back home. When you enter your city, your son will die. [13]All the Israelites will mourn for him. Then he will be buried. He is the only one who belongs to Jeroboam who will be buried. That is because he is the only one in Jeroboam's royal house in whom I have found anything good. I am the LORD, the God of Israel.

[14]“I will choose for myself a king over Israel. He will destroy the family of Jeroboam. This day your son will die. Even now this is beginning to happen. [15]I, the LORD, will strike down Israel. Israel will be like tall grass swaying in the water. I will pull Israel up from this good land by the roots. I gave it to their people who lived long ago. I will scatter Israel to the east side of the Euphrates River. That is because they made the LORD very angry. They made poles used to worship the female god named Asherah. [16]I will give Israel up because of the sins Jeroboam has committed. He has also caused Israel to commit those same sins.”

[17]Then Jeroboam’s wife got up and left. She went to the city of Tirzah. As soon as she stepped through the doorway of the house, her son died. [18]He was buried and all the Israelites mourned for him. That’s what the LORD had said would happen. He had said it through his servant, Ahijah the prophet.

[19]The other events of Jeroboam’s rule are written down. His wars and how he ruled are written down. They are written in the official records of the kings of Israel. [20]Jeroboam ruled for 22 years. Then he joined the members of his family who had already died. Jeroboam’s son Nadab became the next king after him.

Rehoboam King of Judah

[21]Rehoboam was king in Judah. He was the son of Solomon. Rehoboam was 41 years old when he became king. He ruled for 17 years in Jerusalem. It was the city the LORD had chosen out of all the cities in the tribes of Israel. He wanted to put his Name there. Rehoboam’s mother was Naamah from Ammon.

[22]The people of Judah did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. The sins they had committed made the LORD angry. The LORD was angry because they refused to worship only him. They did more to make him angry than their people who lived before them had done. [23]Judah also set up for themselves high places for worship. They set up sacred stones. They set up poles used to worship the female god named Asherah. They did it on every high hill and under every green tree. [24]There were even male prostitutes at the temples in the land. The people took part in all the practices of other nations. The LORD hated those practices. He had driven those nations out to make room for the Israelites.

[25]Shishak attacked Jerusalem. It was in the fifth year that Rehoboam was king. Shishak was king of Egypt. [26]He carried away the treasures of the LORD’s temple. He also carried away the treasures of the royal palace. He took everything. That included all the gold shields Solomon had made. [27]So King

Rehoboam made bronze shields to take their place. He gave them to the commanders of the guards on duty at the entrance to the royal palace. [28]Every time the king went to the LORD’s temple, the guards carried the shields. Later, they took them back to the room where they were kept.

[29]The other events of Rehoboam’s rule are written down. Everything he did is written in the official records of the kings of Judah. [30]Rehoboam and Jeroboam were always at war with each other. [31]Rehoboam joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in his family tomb in the City of David. His mother was Naamah from Ammon. Rehoboam’s son Abijah became the next king after him.

1 Kings 15

Abijah King of Judah

[1]Abijah became king of Judah. It was in the 18th year of Jeroboam's rule over Israel. Jeroboam was the son of Nebat. [2]Abijah ruled in Jerusalem for three years. His mother's name was Maakah. She was Abishalom's daughter.

[3]Abijah committed all the sins his father had committed before him. Abijah didn't obey the LORD his God with all his heart. He didn't do what King David had done. [4]But the LORD still kept the lamp of Abijah's kingdom burning brightly in Jerusalem. He did it by giving him a son to be the next king after him.
He also did it by making Jerusalem strong. The LORD did those things because of David. [5]David had done what was right in the sight of the LORD. He had kept all the LORD's commands. He had obeyed them all the days of his life. But he hadn't obeyed the LORD in the case of Uriah, the Hittite.

[6]There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam all through Abijah's life. [7]The other events of Abijah's rule are written down. Everything he did is written down. All these things are written in the official records of the kings of Judah.
There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. [8]Abijah joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in the City of David. Abijah's son Asa became the next king after him.

Asa King of Judah

[9]Asa became king of Judah. It was in the 20th year that Jeroboam was king of Israel. [10]Asa ruled in Jerusalem for 41 years. His grandmother's name was Maakah. She was Abishalom's daughter.

[11]Asa did what was right in the sight of the LORD. That's what King David had done. [12]Asa threw out of the land the male prostitutes who were at the temples. He got rid of all the statues of gods made by his people of long ago.
[13]He even removed his grandmother Maakah from her position as queen mother.
That's because she had made a pole used to worship the female god named Asherah. The LORD hated it. So Asa cut it down. He burned it in the Kidron Valley. [14]Asa didn't remove the high places from Israel. But he committed his whole life completely to the LORD. [15]He and his father had set apart silver, gold and other things to the LORD. Asa brought them into the LORD's temple.

16There was war between Asa and Baasha, the king of Israel. It lasted the whole time they were kings. 17Baasha was king of Israel. He marched out against Judah. Baasha built up the walls of Ramah. He did it to keep people from leaving or entering the territory of Asa, the king of Judah.

18Asa took all the silver and gold left among the treasures of the LORD's temple and his own palace. He put his officials in charge of it. He sent the officials to Ben-Hadad. Ben-Hadad was king of Aram. He was ruling in Damascus. He was the son of Tabrimmon and the grandson of Hezion. 19"Let's make a peace treaty between us," Asa said. "My father and your father had made a peace treaty between them. Now I'm sending you a gift of silver and gold. So break your treaty with Baasha, the king of Israel. Then he'll go back home."

20Ben-Hadad agreed with King Asa. He sent his army commanders against the towns of Israel. He captured Ijon, Dan, Abel Beth Maakah and the whole area of Kinnereth in addition to Naphtali. 21Baasha heard about it. So he stopped building up Ramah. He went back home to Tirzah. 22Then King Asa gave an order to all the men of Judah. Everyone was required to help. They carried away from Ramah the stones and wood Baasha had been using there. King Asa used them to build up Geba in the territory of Benjamin. He also used them to build up Mizpah.

23All the other events of Asa's rule are written down, including the cities he built. Everything he did is written in the official records of the kings of Judah. But when Asa became old, his feet began to give him trouble. 24He joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in his family tomb. It was in the city of King David. Asa's son Jehoshaphat became the next king after him.

Nadab King of Israel

25Nadab became king of Israel. It was in the second year that Asa was king of Judah. Nadab ruled over Israel for two years. He was the son of Jeroboam. 26Nadab did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. He lived the way his father had lived. He committed the same sin his father Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit.

27Baasha was from the tribe of Issachar. He was the son of Ahijah. Baasha made plans against Nadab and struck him down at Gibbethon. It was a Philistine town. Baasha struck him down while Nadab and all the men of Israel were getting ready to attack Gibbethon. 28He killed Nadab in the third year that Asa was king of Judah. Baasha became the next king after Nadab.

29As soon as Baasha became king, he killed Jeroboam's whole family. He didn't leave any of them alive. He destroyed every one of them. He did what the LORD had said would happen. The LORD had spoken that message through his servant Ahijah from Shiloh. 30The LORD judged Jeroboam's family because of the sins Jeroboam had committed. He had also caused Israel to commit those same sins. He had made the LORD very angry. The LORD is the God of Israel.

31The other events of Nadab's rule are written down. Everything he did is written in the official records of the kings of Israel. 32There was war between Asa and Baasha, the king of Israel. It lasted the whole time they were kings.

Baasha King of Israel

33Baasha became king of Israel in Tirzah. It was in the third year that Asa was king of Judah. Baasha ruled for 24 years. He was the son of Ahijah. 34Baasha did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. He lived the way Jeroboam had lived.
He committed the same sin Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit.

1 Kings 16

[1]The LORD's message about Baasha came to Jehu, the son of Hanani. Here is what the LORD said about Baasha. [2]"I lifted you up from the dust. I appointed you king over my people Israel. But you lived the way Jeroboam had lived. You also caused my people Israel to sin. And their sins made me very angry. [3]So I am about to destroy you, Baasha, and your royal house. I will make your house like the royal house of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat. [4]Some of the people who belong to you will die in the city. Dogs will eat them up. Others will die in the country. The birds will eat them."

[5]The other events of Baasha's rule are written down. What he did and what he accomplished are written in the official records of the kings of Israel. [6]Baasha joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in Tirzah. Baasha's son Elah became the next king after him.

[7]The LORD's message came through the prophet Jehu, the son of Hanani. It was against Baasha and his royal house. Baasha had done all kinds of evil things in the sight of the LORD. Baasha had also destroyed the royal house of Jeroboam. What Baasha did had made the LORD very angry. So Baasha had become as sinful as the royal house of Jeroboam had been.

Elah King of Israel

[8]Elah became king of Israel. It was in the 26th year that Asa was king of Judah. Elah ruled in Tirzah for two years. He was the son of Baasha.

[9]Zimri was one of Elah's officials. He commanded half of Elah's chariot drivers. He made plans against Elah. Elah was in Tirzah at the time. He was getting drunk in the home of Arza. Arza was in charge of the palace at Tirzah. [10]Zimri came in. He struck Elah down and killed him. It was in the 27th year of Asa, the king of Judah. Zimri became the next king after Elah.

[11]As soon as Zimri was seated on the throne as king, he killed off Baasha's whole family. He didn't even spare one male. It didn't matter whether it was a relative or a friend. [12]So Zimri destroyed the whole family of Baasha. That's what the LORD had said would happen. He had spoken against Baasha through Jehu the prophet. [13]Baasha and his son Elah had committed all kinds of sin. They had also caused Israel to commit the same sins. So Israel made the LORD very angry. They did it by worshiping worthless statues of gods. The LORD is the God of Israel.

14The other events of Elah's rule are written down. Everything he did is written in the official records of the kings of Israel.

Zimri King of Israel

15Zimri ruled in Tirzah for seven days. It was in the 27th year that Asa was king of Judah. The army of Israel had set up camp near Gibbethon. It was a Philistine town. 16The Israelites in the camp heard that Zimri had made plans against King Elah. They also heard that Zimri had murdered him. So they announced that Omri was king over Israel. He was the commander of the army. They made him king that day in the camp. 17Then Omri and all his men pulled back from Gibbethon. They marched to Tirzah and surrounded it. They attacked it and captured it. 18Zimri saw that they had taken over the city. So he went into the safest place in the royal palace. He set the palace on fire all around him. He died there 19because of the sins he had committed. He had done what was evil in the sight of the LORD. He had lived the way Jeroboam had lived. He had committed the same sin Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit.

20The other events of Zimri's rule are written down. The way he turned against King Elah and killed him is written down. All these things are written in the official records of the kings of Israel.

Omri King of Israel

21The Israelites divided up into two groups. Half of them wanted Tibni to be king. He was the son of Ginath. The other half wanted Omri. 22But Omri's followers were stronger than those of Tibni, the son of Ginath. So Tibni died. And Omri began to rule.

23Omri became king of Israel. It was in the 31st year that Asa was king of Judah. Omri ruled for 12 years. He ruled in Tirzah for six of those years. 24He bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer. He weighed out 150 pounds of silver for it. Then he built a city on the hill. He called it Samaria. He named it after Shemer. Shemer had owned the hill before him.

25But Omri did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. He sinned more than all the kings who had ruled before him. 26He lived the way Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had lived. He committed the same sin Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit. Israel made the LORD very angry. They did it by worshiping worthless statues of gods. The LORD is the God of Israel.

[27]The other events of Omri’s rule are written down. Everything he did and the things he accomplished are written in the official records of the kings of Israel. [28]Omri joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in Samaria. Omri’s son Ahab became the next king after him.

Ahab King of Israel

[29]Ahab became king of Israel. It was in the 38th year that Asa was king of Judah. Ahab ruled over Israel in Samaria for 22 years. He was the son of Omri. [30]Ahab, the son of Omri, did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. He did more evil things than any of the kings who had ruled before him. [31]He thought it was only a small thing to commit the sins Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had committed. Ahab also married Jezebel. She was Ethbaal’s daughter. Ethbaal was king of the people of Sidon. Ahab began to serve the god named Baal and worship him. [32]He set up an altar to honor Baal. He set it up in the temple of Baal that he built in Samaria. [33]Ahab also made a pole used to worship the female god named Asherah. He made the LORD very angry. Ahab did more to make him angry than all the kings of Israel had done before him. The LORD is the God of Israel.

[34]In Ahab’s time, Hiel from Bethel rebuilt Jericho. When he laid its foundations, it cost him the life of his oldest son Abiram. When he set up its gates, it cost him the life of his youngest son Segub. That’s what the LORD had said would happen. He had spoken it through Joshua, the son of Nun.

1 Kings 17

Elijah Announces No Dew or Rain

1 Elijah was from Tishbe in the land of Gilead. He said to Ahab, “I serve the LORD. He is the God of Israel. You can be sure that he lives. And you can be just as sure that there won’t be any dew or rain on the whole land. There won’t be any during the next few years. It won’t come until I say so.”

Elijah Is Fed by Ravens

2 Then a message came to Elijah from the LORD. He said, 3 “Leave this place.
Go east and hide in the Kerith Valley. It is east of the Jordan River. 4 You will drink water from the brook. I have directed some ravens to supply you with food there.”

5 So Elijah did what the LORD had told him to do. He went to the Kerith Valley. It was east of the Jordan River. He stayed there. 6 The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning. They also brought him bread and meat in the evening. He drank water from the brook.

Elijah and the Widow at Zarephath

7 Some time later the brook dried up. It hadn’t rained in the land for quite a while. 8 A message came to Elijah from the LORD. He said, 9 “Go right away to Zarephath in the region of Sidon. Stay there. I have directed a widow there to supply you with food.” 10 So Elijah went to Zarephath. He came to the town gate.
A widow was there gathering sticks. He called out to her. He asked, “Would you bring me a little water in a jar? I need a drink.” 11 She went to get the water. Then he called out to her, “Please bring me a piece of bread too.”

12 “I don’t have any bread,” she replied. “And that’s just as sure as the LORD your God is alive. All I have is a small amount of flour in a jar and a little olive oil in a jug. I’m gathering a few sticks to take home. I’ll make one last meal for myself and my son. We’ll eat it. After that, we’ll die.”

13 Elijah said to her, “Don’t be afraid. Go home. Do what you have said. But first make a small loaf of bread for me. Make it out of what you have. Bring it to me. Then make some for yourself and your son. 14 The LORD is the God of Israel. He says, ‘The jar of flour will not be used up. The jug will always have oil in it. You will have flour and oil until the day the LORD sends rain on the land.’ ”

15She went away and did what Elijah had told her to do. So Elijah had food every day. There was also food for the woman and her family. 16The jar of flour wasn’t used up. The jug always had oil in it. That’s what the LORD had said would happen. He had spoken that message through Elijah.

17Some time later the son of the woman who owned the house became sick. He got worse and worse. Finally he stopped breathing. 18The woman said to Elijah, “You are a man of God. What do you have against me? Did you come to bring my sin out into the open? Did you come to kill my son?”

19“Give me your son,” Elijah replied. He took him from her arms. He carried him to the upstairs room where he was staying. He put him down on his bed. 20Then Elijah cried out to the LORD. He said, “LORD my God, I’m staying with this widow. Have you brought pain and sorrow even to her? Have you caused her son to die?” 21Then he lay down on the boy three times. He cried out to the LORD. He said, “LORD my God, give this boy’s life back to him!”

22The LORD answered Elijah’s prayer. He gave the boy’s life back to him. So the boy lived. 23Elijah picked up the boy. He carried him down from the upstairs room into the house. He gave him to his mother. He said, “Look! Your son is alive!”

24Then the woman said to Elijah, “Now I know that you are a man of God. I know that the message you have brought from the LORD is true.”

1 Kings 18

Elijah and Obadiah

[1]It was now three years since it had rained. A message came to Elijah from the LORD. He said, “Go. Speak to Ahab. Then I will send rain on the land.” [2]So Elijah went to speak to Ahab.

There wasn’t enough food in Samaria. The people there were very hungry.
[3]Ahab had sent for Obadiah. He was in charge of Ahab’s palace. Obadiah had great respect for the LORD. [4]Ahab’s wife Jezebel had been killing off the LORD’s prophets. So Obadiah had hidden 100 prophets in two caves. He had put 50 in each cave. He had supplied them with food and water. [5]Ahab had said to Obadiah, “Go through the land. Go to all the valleys and springs of water.
Maybe we can find some grass there. It will keep the horses and mules alive.
Then we won’t have to kill any of our animals.” [6]So they decided where each of them would look. Ahab went in one direction. Obadiah went in another.

[7]As Obadiah was walking along, Elijah met him. Obadiah recognized him. He bowed down to the ground. He said, “My master Elijah! Is it really you?”

[8]“Yes,” he replied. “Go and tell your master Ahab, ‘Elijah is here.’ ”

[9]“What have I done wrong?” asked Obadiah. “Why are you handing me over to Ahab to be put to death? [10]My master has sent people to look for you everywhere. There isn’t a nation or kingdom where he hasn’t sent someone to look for you. Suppose a nation or kingdom would claim you weren’t there. Then Ahab would make them give their word that they couldn’t find you. And that’s just as sure as the LORD your God is alive. [11]But now you are telling me to go to my master. You want me to say, ‘Elijah is here.’ [12]But the Spirit of the LORD might carry you away when I leave you. Then I won’t know where you are. If I go and tell Ahab and he doesn’t find you, he’ll kill me. But I’ve worshiped the LORD ever since I was young. [13]My master, haven’t you heard what I did?
Jezebel was killing the LORD’s prophets. But I hid 100 of them in two caves. I put 50 in each cave. I supplied them with food and water. [14]And now you are telling me to go to my master Ahab. You want me to say to him, ‘Elijah is here.’
Ahab will kill me!”

[15]Elijah said, “I serve the LORD who rules over all. You can be sure that he lives. And you can be just as sure that I will speak to Ahab today.”

Elijah on Mount Carmel

16 Obadiah went back to Ahab. He told Ahab that Elijah wanted to see him. So Ahab went to where Elijah was. 17 When he saw Elijah, he said to him, “Is that you? You are always stirring up trouble in Israel.”

18 “I haven’t made trouble for Israel,” Elijah replied. “But you and your father’s family have. You have turned away from the LORD’s commands. You have followed gods that are named Baal. 19 Now send for people from all over Israel. Tell them to meet me on Mount Carmel. And bring the 450 prophets of the god named Baal. Also bring the 400 prophets of the female god named Asherah. All of them eat at Jezebel’s table.”

20 So Ahab sent that message all through Israel. He gathered the prophets together on Mount Carmel. 21 Elijah went there and stood in front of the people.
He said, “How long will it take you to make up your minds? If the LORD is the one and only God, worship him. But if Baal is the one and only God, worship him.”

The people didn’t say anything.

22 Then Elijah said to them, “I’m the only one of the LORD’s prophets left.
But Baal has 450 prophets. 23 Get two bulls for us. Let Baal’s prophets choose one for themselves. Let them cut it into pieces. Then let them put it on the wood.
But don’t let them set fire to it. I’ll prepare the other bull. I’ll put it on the wood.
But I won’t set fire to it. 24 Then you pray to your god. And I’ll pray to the LORD. The god who answers by sending fire down is the one and only God.”

Then all the people said, “What you are saying is good.”

25 Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, “Choose one of the bulls. There are many of you. So prepare your bull first. Pray to your god. But don’t light the fire.” 26 So they prepared the bull they had been given.

They prayed to Baal from morning until noon. “Baal! Answer us!” they shouted. But there wasn’t any reply. No one answered. Then they danced around the altar they had made.

27 At noon Elijah began to tease them. “Shout louder!” he said. “I’m sure Baal is a god! Perhaps he has too much to think about. Or maybe he has gone to the toilet. Or perhaps he’s away on a trip. Maybe he’s sleeping. You might have to wake him up.” 28 So they shouted louder. They cut themselves with swords and spears until their blood flowed. That’s what they usually did when things really looked hopeless. 29 It was now past noon. The prophets of Baal continued to prophesy with all their might. They did it until the time came to offer the evening sacrifice. But there wasn't any reply. No one answered. No one paid any attention.

30Then Elijah said to all the people, "Come here to me." So they went to him. He rebuilt the altar of the LORD. It had been torn down. 31Elijah got 12 stones. There was one for each tribe in the family line of Jacob. The LORD's message had come to Jacob. It had said, "Your name will be Israel." 32Elijah used the stones to build an altar to honor the LORD. He dug a ditch around it. The ditch was large enough to hold 24 pounds of seeds. 33He arranged the wood for the fire. He cut the bull into pieces. He placed the pieces on the wood. Then he said to some of the people, "Fill four large jars with water. Pour it on the offering and the wood." So they did.

34"Do it again," he said. So they did it again.

"Do it a third time," he ordered. And they did it the third time. 35The water ran down around the altar. It even filled the ditch.

36When it was time to offer the evening sacrifice, the prophet Elijah stepped forward. He prayed, "LORD, you are the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel. Today let everyone know that you are God in Israel. Let them know I'm your servant. Let them know I've done all these things because you commanded me to. 37Answer me. LORD, answer me. Then these people will know that you are the one and only God. They'll know that you are turning their hearts back to you again."

38The fire of the LORD came down. It burned up the sacrifice. It burned up the wood and the stones and the soil. It even dried up the water in the ditch.

39All the people saw it. Then they fell down flat with their faces toward the ground. They cried out, "The LORD is the one and only God! The LORD is the one and only God!"

40Then Elijah commanded them, "Grab the prophets of Baal. Don't let a single one of them get away!" So they grabbed them. Elijah had them brought down to the Kishon Valley. There he had them put to death.

41Elijah said to Ahab, "Go. Eat and drink. I can hear the sound of a heavy rain." 42So Ahab went off to eat and drink. But Elijah climbed to the top of Mount Carmel. He bent down toward the ground. Then he put his face between his knees.

43"Go and look toward the sea," he told his servant. So he went up and looked.

"I don't see anything there," he said.

Seven times Elijah said, "Go back."

44 The seventh time the servant said, “I see a cloud. It’s as small as a man’s hand. It’s coming up over the sea.”

Elijah said, “Go to Ahab. Tell him, ‘Tie your chariot to your horse. Go down to Jezreel before the rain stops you.’ ”

45 Black clouds filled the sky. The wind came up, and a heavy rain began to fall. Ahab rode off to Jezreel. 46 The power of the LORD came on Elijah. He tucked his coat into his belt. And he ran ahead of Ahab all the way to Jezreel.

1 Kings 19

Elijah Runs Away to Mount Horeb

[1]Ahab told Jezebel everything Elijah had done. He told her how Elijah had killed all the prophets of Baal with his sword. [2]So Jezebel sent a message to Elijah. She said, “You can be sure that I will kill you, just as I killed the other prophets. I’ll do it by this time tomorrow. If I don’t, may the gods punish me greatly.”

[3]Elijah was afraid. So he ran for his life. He came to Beersheba in Judah. He left his servant there. [4]Then he traveled for one day into the desert. He came to a small bush. He sat down under it. He prayed that he would die. “LORD, I’ve had enough,” he said. “Take my life. I’m no better than my people of long ago.” [5]Then he lay down under the bush. And he fell asleep.

Suddenly an angel touched him. The angel said, “Get up and eat.” [6]Elijah looked around. Near his head he saw some bread. It had been baked over hot coals. A jar of water was also there. So Elijah ate and drank. Then he lay down again.

[7]The angel of the LORD came to him a second time. He touched him and said, “Get up and eat. Your journey will be long and hard.” [8]So he got up. He ate and drank. The food gave him new strength. He traveled for 40 days and 40 nights. He kept going until he arrived at Horeb. It was the mountain of God. [9]There he went into a cave and spent the night.

The LORD Appears to Elijah

A message came to Elijah from the LORD. He said, “Elijah, what are you doing here?”

[10]He replied, “LORD God who rules over all, I’ve been very committed to you. The Israelites have turned their backs on your covenant. They have torn down your altars. They’ve put your prophets to death with their swords. I’m the only one left. And they are trying to kill me.”

[11]The LORD said, “Go out. Stand on the mountain in front of me. I am going to pass by.”

As the LORD approached, a very powerful wind tore the mountains apart. It broke up the rocks. But the LORD wasn’t in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake. But the LORD wasn’t in the earthquake. [12]After the earthquake a fire came. But the LORD wasn't in the fire. And after the fire there was only a gentle whisper. [13]When Elijah heard it, he pulled his coat over his face. He went out and stood at the entrance to the cave.

Then a voice said to him, "Elijah, what are you doing here?"

[14]He replied, "LORD God who rules over all, I've been very committed to you. The Israelites have turned their backs on your covenant. They have torn down your altars. They've put your prophets to death with their swords. I'm the only one left. And they are trying to kill me."

[15]The LORD said to him, "Go back the way you came. Go to the Desert of Damascus. When you get there, anoint Hazael as king over Aram. [16]Also anoint Jehu as king over Israel. He is the son of Nimshi. And anoint Elisha from Abel Meholah as the next prophet after you. He is the son of Shaphat. [17]Jehu will put to death anyone who escapes Hazael's sword. And Elisha will put to death anyone who escapes Jehu's sword. [18]But I will keep 7,000 people in Israel for myself. They have not bowed down to Baal. And they have not kissed him."

The LORD Chooses Elisha

[19]Elijah left Mount Horeb. He saw Elisha, the son of Shaphat. Elisha was plowing in a field. He was driving the last of 12 pairs of oxen. Elijah went up to him. He threw his coat around him. [20]Then Elisha left his oxen. He ran after Elijah. "Let me kiss my father and mother goodbye," he said. "Then I'll come with you."

"Go back," Elijah replied. "What have I done to you?"

[21]So Elisha left him and went back. He got his two oxen and killed them. He burned the plow to cook the meat. He gave it to the people, and they ate it. Then he started to follow Elijah. He became Elijah's servant.

1 Kings 20

Ben-Hadad Attacks Samaria

[1]Ben-Hadad brought his whole army together. He was king of Aram. He went up to Samaria. He took 32 kings and their horses and chariots with him. All of them surrounded Samaria and attacked it. [2]Ben-Hadad sent messengers into the city. They spoke to Ahab, the king of Israel. They told him, “Ben-Hadad says, [3]‘Your silver and gold belong to me. The best of your wives and children also belong to me.’ ”

[4]The king of Israel replied, “What you say is true. You are my king and master. I belong to you. And everything I have belongs to you.”

[5]The messengers came again. They told Ahab, “Ben-Hadad says, ‘I commanded you to give me your silver and gold. I also commanded you to give me your wives and children. [6]But now I’m going to send my officials to you.
They will come about this time tomorrow. They’ll search your palace. They’ll search the houses of your officials. They’ll take everything you value. And they’ll carry it all away.’ ”

[7]The king of Israel sent for all the elders of the land. He said to them, “This man is really looking for trouble! He sent for my wives and children. He sent for my silver and gold. And I agreed to give them to him.”

[8]All the elders and people answered, “Don’t listen to him. Don’t agree to give him what he wants.”

[9]So Ahab replied to Ben-Hadad’s messengers. He said, “Tell my king and master, ‘I will do everything you commanded me to do the first time. But this time, I can’t do what you want me to do.’ ” They took Ahab’s answer back to Ben-Hadad.

[10]Then Ben-Hadad sent another message to Ahab. Ben-Hadad said, “There won’t be enough dust left in Samaria to give each of my followers even a handful. If there is, may the gods punish me greatly.”

[11]The king of Israel replied. He said, “Tell him, ‘Someone who puts his armor on shouldn’t brag like someone who takes it off.’ ”

[12]Ben-Hadad and the kings were in their tents drinking. That’s when he heard the message. He ordered his men, “Get ready to attack.” So they prepared to attack the city.

Ahab Wins the Battle Over Ben-Hadad

13During that time a prophet came to Ahab, the king of Israel. He announced, “The LORD says, ‘Do you see this huge army? I will hand it over to you today. Then you will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

14“But who will do it?” Ahab asked.

The prophet answered, “The LORD says, ‘The junior officers who are under the area commanders will do it.’ ”

“And who will start the battle?” Ahab asked.

The prophet answered, “You will.”

15So Ahab sent for the junior officers who were under the area commanders. The total number of officers was 232. Ahab gathered together the rest of the Israelites. The total number of them was 7,000. 16They started out at noon. At that time Ben-Hadad and the 32 kings helping him were in their tents. They were getting drunk. 17The junior officers who were under Ahab’s area commanders marched out first.

Ben-Hadad had sent out scouts. They came back and reported, “Men are marching against us from Samaria.”

18Ben-Hadad said, “They might be coming to make peace. If they are, take them alive. Or they might be coming to make war. If they are, take them alive.”

19The junior officers marched out of the city. The army was right behind them. 20Each man struck down the one fighting against him. When that happened, the army of Aram ran away. The Israelites chased them. But Ben-Hadad, the king of Aram, escaped on a horse. Some of his horsemen escaped with him. 21The king of Israel attacked them. He overpowered the horses and chariots. Large numbers of the men of Aram were wounded or killed.

22After that, the prophet came to the king of Israel again. The prophet said, “Make your position stronger. Do what needs to be done. Next spring the king of Aram will attack you again.”

23During that time, the officials of the king of Aram gave him advice. They said, “The gods of Israel are gods of the hills. That’s why they were too strong for us. But suppose we fight them on the plains. Then we’ll certainly be stronger than they are. 24Here’s what you should do. Don’t let any of the kings continue as military leaders. Have other officers take their places. 25You must also put another army together. It should be just like the one you lost. It should have the same number of horses and chariots. Then we’ll be able to fight against Israel on the plains. And we’ll certainly be stronger than they are.” Ben-Hadad agreed with their advice. He did what they suggested.

[26]The next spring Ben-Hadad brought together the men of Aram. They went up to the city of Aphek to fight against Israel. [27]The Israelites were also brought together. They were given supplies. They marched out to fight against their enemies. Israel's army camped across from Aram's army. The Israelites looked like two small flocks of goats that had become separated from the others. But the men of Aram covered the countryside.

[28]The man of God came up to the king of Israel again. He told him, "The LORD says, 'The men of Aram think the LORD is a god of the hills. They do not think he is a god of the valleys. So I, the LORD, will hand their huge army over to you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.' "

[29]For seven days the two armies camped across from each other. On the seventh day the battle began. The Israelites wounded or killed 100,000 Aramean soldiers who were on foot. That happened in a single day. [30]The rest of the men of Aram escaped to the city of Aphek. Its wall fell down on 27,000 of them. Ben-Hadad ran to the city. He hid in a secret room.

[31]His officials said to him, "Look, we've heard that the kings of Israel often show mercy. So let's go to the king of Israel. Let's wear the rough clothing people wear when they're sad. Let's tie ropes around our heads. Perhaps Ahab will spare your life."

[32]So they wore rough clothing. They tied ropes around their heads. Then they went to the king of Israel. They told him, "Your servant Ben-Hadad says, 'Please let me live.' "

The king answered, "Is he still alive? He used to be my friend."

[33]The men thought that was good news. So they quickly used the word Ahab had used. "Yes! Your friend Ben-Hadad!" they said.

"Go and get him," the king said. Ben-Hadad came out of the secret room. Then Ahab had him get into his chariot.

[34]"I'll return the cities my father took from your father," Ben-Hadad offered. "You can set up your own market areas in Damascus. That's what my father did in Samaria."

Ahab said, "If we sign a peace treaty, I'll set you free." So Ben-Hadad made a treaty with him. Then Ahab let him go.

A Prophet Accuses Ahab

[35]There was a group of people called the group of the prophets. A message from the LORD came to one of their members. He said to his companion, “Strike me down with your weapon.” But he wouldn’t do it.

[36]The prophet said, “You haven’t obeyed the LORD. So as soon as you leave me, a lion will kill you.” The companion went away. And a lion found him and killed him.

[37]The prophet found another man. He said, “Please strike me down.” So the man struck him down and wounded him. [38]Then the prophet went and stood by the road. He waited for the king to come by. He pulled his headband down over his eyes so no one would recognize him. [39]The king passed by. Then the prophet called out to him. He said, “I went into the middle of the battle. Someone came to me with a prisoner. He said, ‘Guard this man. Don’t let him get away. If he does, you will pay for his life with yours. Or you can pay 75 pounds of silver.’ [40]While I was busy here and there, the man disappeared.”

The king of Israel spoke to him. He told him, “What you’ve just said is what will happen to you.”

[41]Then the prophet quickly removed the headband from his eyes. The king of Israel recognized him as one of the prophets. [42]He told the king, “The LORD says, ‘You have set a man free. But I had said he should be set apart to the LORD in a special way to be destroyed. So you must pay for his life with yours. You must pay for his people’s lives with the lives of your people.’ ” [43]The king of Israel was angry. He was in a bad mood. He went back to his palace in Samaria.

1 Kings 21

Naboth's Vineyard

1 Some time later King Ahab wanted a certain vineyard. It belonged to Naboth from Jezreel. The vineyard was in Jezreel. It was close to the palace of Ahab, the king of Samaria. 2 Ahab said to Naboth, "Let me have your vineyard. It's close to my palace. I want to use it for a vegetable garden. I'll trade you a better vineyard for it. Or, if you prefer, I'll pay you what it's worth." 3 But Naboth replied, "May the LORD keep me from giving you the land my family handed down to me."
4 So Ahab went home. He was angry. He was in a bad mood because of what Naboth from Jezreel had said. He had told Ahab, "I won't give you the land my family handed down to me." So Ahab lay on his bed. He was in a very bad mood. He wouldn't even eat anything.
5 His wife Jezebel came in. She asked him, "Why are you in such a bad mood?
Why won't you eat anything?"
6 He answered her, "Because I spoke to Naboth from Jezreel. I said, 'Sell me your vineyard. Or, if you prefer, I'll give you another vineyard in its place.' But he said, 'I won't sell you my vineyard.' " 7 His wife Jezebel said, "Is this how the king of Israel acts? Get up! Eat something! Cheer up. I'll get you the vineyard of Naboth from Jezreel." 8 So she wrote some letters in Ahab's name. She stamped them with his royal seal. Then she sent them to the elders and nobles who lived in the city where Naboth lived. 9 In those letters she wrote,

> "Announce a day when people are supposed to go without eating. Have > Naboth sit in an important place among the people. 10 But put two > worthless and evil men in seats across from him. Have them bring > charges that he has cursed God and the king. Then take him out of the > city. Kill him by throwing stones at him."

11 So the elders and nobles who lived in that city did what Jezebel wanted.
They did everything she directed in the letters she had written to them. 12 They announced a day of fasting. They had Naboth sit in an important place among the people. 13 Then two worthless and evil men came and sat across from him.
They brought charges against Naboth in front of the people. The two men said, “Naboth has cursed God and the king.” So they took him outside the city. They killed him by throwing stones at him. 14Then they sent a message to Jezebel. They said, “Naboth is dead. We killed him by throwing stones at him.”

15Jezebel heard that Naboth had been killed. As soon as she heard it, she said to Ahab, “Get up. Take over the vineyard of Naboth from Jezreel. It’s the one he wouldn’t sell to you. He isn’t alive anymore. He’s dead.” 16Ahab heard that Naboth was dead. So Ahab got up and went down to take over Naboth’s vineyard.

17Then a message from the LORD came to Elijah, who was from Tishbe. The LORD said, 18“Go down to see Ahab, the king of Israel. He rules in Samaria. You will find him in Naboth’s vineyard. Ahab has gone there to take it over. 19Tell him, ‘The LORD says, “Haven’t you murdered a man? Haven’t you taken over his property?” ’ Then tell Ahab, ‘The LORD says, “Dogs licked up Naboth’s blood. In that same place dogs will lick up your blood. Yes, I said your blood!” ’ ”

20Ahab said to Elijah, “My enemy! You have found me!”

“I have found you,” he answered. “That’s because you gave yourself over to do evil things. You did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. 21So the LORD says, ‘I am going to bring horrible trouble on you. I will destroy your children after you. I will destroy every male in Israel who is related to you. It does not matter whether they are slaves or free. 22I will make your royal house like the house of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat. I will make it like the house of Baasha, the son of Ahijah. You have made me very angry. You have caused Israel to sin.’

23“The LORD also says, ‘Dogs will eat up Jezebel near the wall of Jezreel.’

24“Some of the people who belong to Ahab will die in the city. Dogs will eat them up. Others will die in the country. The birds will eat them.”

25There was never anyone like Ahab. He gave himself over to do what was evil in the sight of the LORD. His wife Jezebel talked him into it. 26He acted in the most evil way. He worshiped statues of gods. He was like the Amorites. The LORD drove them out to make room for Israel.

27When Ahab heard what Elijah had said, he tore his clothes. He put on the rough clothing people wear when they’re sad. He went without eating. He even slept in his clothes. He went around looking sad.

28Then a message from the LORD came to Elijah, who was from Tishbe. The LORD said, 29“Have you seen how Ahab has made himself humble in my sight? Because he has done that, I will not bring trouble on him while he lives. But I will bring it on his royal house when his son is king.”

1 Kings 22

Micaiah Prophesies Against Ahab

[1]For three years there wasn't any war between Aram and Israel. [2]In the third year Jehoshaphat went down to see Ahab, the king of Israel. Jehoshaphat was king of Judah. [3]The king of Israel had spoken to his officials. He had said, "Don't you know that Ramoth Gilead belongs to us? And we aren't even doing anything to take it back from the king of Aram."

[4]So Ahab asked Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to fight against Ramoth Gilead?"

Jehoshaphat replied to the king of Israel, "Yes. I'll go with you. My men will go with you. My horses will also go with you." [5]Jehoshaphat continued, "First ask the LORD for advice."

[6]So the king of Israel brought about 400 prophets together. He asked them, "Should I go to war against Ramoth Gilead? Or should I stay here?"

"Go," they answered. "The Lord will hand it over to you."

[7]But Jehoshaphat asked, "Is there no longer a prophet of the LORD here? If there is, ask him what we should do."

[8]The king of Israel answered Jehoshaphat. He said, "There is still one other man we can go to. We can ask the LORD for advice through him. But I hate him. He never prophesies anything good about me. He only prophesies bad things. His name is Micaiah. He's the son of Imlah."

"You shouldn't say bad things about him," Jehoshaphat replied.

[9]So the king of Israel called for one of his officials. He told him, "Bring Micaiah, the son of Imlah, right away."

[10]The king of Israel and Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, were wearing their royal robes. They were sitting on their thrones at the threshing floor. It was near the entrance of the gate of Samaria. All the prophets were prophesying in front of them. [11]Zedekiah was the son of Kenaanah. Zedekiah had made horns out of iron. They looked like animal horns. He announced, "The LORD says, 'With these horns you will drive back the men of Aram until they are destroyed.' "

[12]All the other prophets were prophesying the same thing. "Attack Ramoth Gilead," they said. "Win the battle over it. The LORD will hand it over to you."

[13]A messenger went to get Micaiah. He said to him, "Look. The other prophets agree. All of them are saying the king will have success. So agree with them. Say the same thing they do.”

14But Micaiah said, “You can be sure that the LORD lives. And here is something you can be just as sure of. I can only tell the king what the LORD tells me to say.”

15When Micaiah arrived, the king spoke to him. He asked, “Should we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or not?”

“Attack,” he answered. “You will win. The LORD will hand Ramoth Gilead over to you.”

16The king said to him, “I’ve made you promise to tell the truth many times before. So don’t tell me anything but the truth in the name of the LORD.”

17Then Micaiah answered, “I saw all the Israelites scattered on the hills. They were like sheep that didn’t have a shepherd. The LORD said, ‘These people do not have a master. Let each of them go home in peace.’ ”

18The king of Israel spoke to Jehoshaphat. He said, “Didn’t I tell you he never prophesies anything good about me? He only prophesies bad things.”

19Micaiah continued, “Listen to the LORD’s message. I saw the LORD sitting on his throne. All the angels of heaven were standing around him. Some were standing at his right side. The others were standing at his left side. 20The LORD said, ‘Who will get Ahab to attack Ramoth Gilead? I want him to die there.’

“One angel suggested one thing. Another suggested something else. 21Finally, a spirit came forward and stood in front of the LORD. The spirit said, ‘I’ll get Ahab to do it.’

22“ ‘How?’ the LORD asked.

“The spirit said, ‘I’ll go out and put lies in the mouths of all his prophets.’

“ ‘You will have success in getting Ahab to attack Ramoth Gilead,’ said the LORD. ‘Go and do it.’

23“So the LORD has put lies in the mouths of all your prophets. He has said that great harm will come to you.”

24Then Zedekiah, the son of Kenaanah, went up and slapped Micaiah in the face. Zedekiah asked Micaiah, “Do you think the spirit sent by the LORD left me? Do you think that spirit went to speak to you?”

25Micaiah replied, “You will find out on the day you go to hide in an inside room to save your life.”

26Then the king of Israel gave an order. He said, “Take Micaiah away. Send him back to Amon. Amon is the ruler of the city of Samaria. And send him back to Joash. Joash is a member of the royal court. 27Tell him, ‘The king says, “Put this fellow in prison. Don’t give him anything but bread and water until I return safely.” ’ ”

[28]Micaiah announced, “Do you really think you will return safely? If you do, the LORD hasn’t spoken through me.” He continued, “All of you people, remember what I’ve said!”

Ahab Is Killed at Ramoth Gilead

[29]So the king of Israel went up to Ramoth Gilead. Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, went there too. [30]The king of Israel spoke to Jehoshaphat. He said, “I’ll go into battle wearing different clothes. Then people won’t recognize me. But you wear your royal robes.” So the king of Israel put on different clothes. Then he went into battle.

[31]The king of Aram had given an order to his 32 chariot commanders. He had said, “Fight only against the king of Israel. Don’t fight against anyone else.” [32]The chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat. They thought, “That has to be the king of Israel.” So they turned to attack him. But Jehoshaphat cried out. [33]Then the commanders saw he wasn’t the king of Israel after all. So they stopped chasing him.

[34]But someone shot an arrow without taking aim. The arrow hit the king of Israel between the parts of his armor. The king told his chariot driver, “Turn the chariot around. Get me out of this battle. I’ve been wounded.” [35]All day long the battle continued. The king kept himself standing up by leaning against the inside of his chariot. He kept his face toward the men of Aram. The blood from his wound ran down onto the floor of the chariot. That evening he died. [36]As the sun was setting, a cry spread through the army. “Every man must go to his own town!” they said. “Every man must go to his own land!”

[37]So the king died. He was brought to Samaria. They buried him there. [38]They washed the chariot at a pool in Samaria. It was where the prostitutes took baths. The dogs licked up Ahab’s blood. It happened exactly as the LORD had said it would.

[39]The other events of Ahab’s rule are written down. Everything he did is written down. That includes the palace he built and decorated with ivory. It also includes the cities he built up and put high walls around. All these things are written in the official records of the kings of Israel. [40]Ahab joined the members of his family who had already died. Ahab’s son Ahaziah became the next king after him.

Jehoshaphat King of Judah

41 Jehoshaphat began to rule over Judah. It was in the fourth year that Ahab was king of Israel. Jehoshaphat was the son of Asa. 42 Jehoshaphat was 35 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 25 years. His mother's name was Azubah. She was the daughter of Shilhi. 43 Jehoshaphat followed all the ways of his father Asa. He didn't wander away from them. He did what was right in the sight of the LORD. But the high places weren't removed. The people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense at them. 44 Jehoshaphat was also at peace with the king of Israel.

45 The other events of Jehoshaphat's rule are written down. The brave things he did in battle and everything else he accomplished are written down. All these things are written in the official records of the kings of Judah. 46 Jehoshaphat got rid of the rest of the male prostitutes who were at the temples. They had remained in the land even after the rule of his father Asa. 47 At that time Edom didn't have a king. An area governor was in charge.

48 Jehoshaphat built many ships that he used to carry goods to be traded. The ships were supposed to go to Ophir for gold. But they never had a chance to sail.
They were wrecked at Ezion Geber. 49 At that time Ahaziah, the son of Ahab, spoke to Jehoshaphat. He said, "Let my men sail with yours." But Jehoshaphat refused.

50 Jehoshaphat joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in the family tomb in the city of King David. Jehoshaphat's son Jehoram became the next king after him.

Ahaziah King of Israel

51 Ahaziah became king of Israel in Samaria. It was in the 17th year that Jehoshaphat was king of Judah. Ahaziah ruled over Israel for two years. He was the son of Ahab. 52 Ahaziah did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. He lived the way his father and mother had lived. He lived the way Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had lived. Jeroboam had caused Israel to sin. 53 Ahaziah served and worshiped the god named Baal. He made the LORD, the God of Israel, very angry. That's exactly what Ahaziah's father had done.

2 Kings

2 Kings 1

The LORD Judges Ahaziah

1 After King Ahab died, Moab refused to remain under Israel's control.
2 Ahaziah had fallen through the window of his upstairs room in Samaria. He had hurt himself. So he sent messengers to ask the god named Baal-Zebub for advice. Baal-Zebub was the god of the city of Ekron. Ahaziah said to the messengers, "Go and ask Baal-Zebub whether I will get well again."

3 But the angel of the LORD spoke to Elijah, who was from Tishbe. The angel said, "Go up to see the messengers of Ahaziah, the king of Samaria. Tell them, 'You are on your way to ask Baal-Zebub for advice. He is the god of Ekron. Are you going there to pray to that god? Do you think there is no God in Israel?'
4 The LORD says to Ahaziah, 'You will never leave the bed you are lying on.
You can be sure that you will die!' " So Elijah went to see the messengers.

5 They returned to the king. He asked them, "Why have you come back?"

6 "A man met us on our way there," they replied. "He said to us, 'Go back to the king who sent you. Tell him, "The LORD says, 'You are sending messengers to ask Baal-Zebub for advice. He is the god of Ekron. Are you going there to pray to that god? Do you think there is no God in Israel? You will never leave the bed you are lying on. You can be sure that you will die!' " ' "

7 The king asked the messengers, "What kind of man came to see you? Who told you these things?"

8 They replied, "He was wearing clothes made out of hair. He had a leather belt around his waist."

The king said, "That was Elijah from Tishbe."

9 Then Ahaziah sent a captain to Elijah. The captain had his group of 50 fighting men with him. Elijah was sitting on top of a hill. The captain went up to him. He said to Elijah, "Man of God, the king says, 'Come down!' "

10 Elijah answered the captain, "If I'm really a man of God, may fire come down from heaven! May it burn up you and your 50 men!" Then fire came down from heaven. It burned up the captain and his men.

11 After that happened, the king sent another captain to Elijah. The captain had his 50 men with him. He said to Elijah, "Man of God, the king says, 'Come down at once!’ ”

12Elijah replied, “If I’m really a man of God, may fire come down from heaven! May it burn up you and your 50 men!” Then the fire of God came down from heaven. It burned up the captain and his 50 men.

13So the king sent a third captain with his 50 men. The captain went up to Elijah. He fell on his knees in front of him. “Man of God,” he begged, “please have respect for my life! Please have respect for the lives of these 50 men! 14Fire has come down from heaven. It has burned up the first two captains and all their men. But please have respect for my life!”

15The angel of the LORD said to Elijah, “Go down along with him. Don’t be afraid of him.” So Elijah got up and went down to the king with the captain.

16Elijah told the king, “The LORD says, ‘You have sent messengers to ask Baal-Zebub for advice. He is the god of Ekron. Did you go there to pray to that god for advice? Do you think there is no God in Israel? You will never leave the bed you are lying on. You can be sure that you will die!’ ” 17So King Ahaziah died. It happened just as the LORD had said it would. He had spoken that message through Elijah.

Ahaziah didn’t have any sons. So Joram, his younger brother, became the next king after him. It was the second year of Jehoram, the king of Judah. Jehoram was the son of Jehoshaphat. 18All the other events of Ahaziah’s rule are written down. Everything he did is written in the official records of the kings of Israel.

2 Kings 2

Elijah Is Taken Up to Heaven

[1]Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal. The LORD was going to use a strong wind to take Elijah up to heaven. [2]Elijah said to Elisha, “Stay here.
The LORD has sent me to Bethel.”

But Elisha said, “I won’t leave you. And that’s just as sure as the LORD and you are alive.” So they went down to Bethel.

[3]There was a group of prophets at Bethel. They came out to where Elisha was.
They asked him, “Do you know what the LORD is going to do? He’s going to take your master away from you today.”

“Yes, I know,” Elisha replied. “So be quiet.”

[4]Then Elijah said to him, “Stay here, Elisha. The LORD has sent me to Jericho.”

Elisha replied, “I won’t leave you. And that’s just as sure as the LORD and you are alive.” So they went to Jericho.

[5]There was a group of prophets at Jericho. They went up to where Elisha was.
They asked him, “Do you know what the LORD is going to do? He’s going to take your master away from you today.”

“Yes, I know,” Elisha replied. “So be quiet.”

[6]Then Elijah said to him, “Stay here. The LORD has sent me to the Jordan River.”

Elisha replied, “I won’t leave you. And that’s just as sure as the LORD and you are alive.” So the two of them walked on.

[7]Fifty men from the group of prophets followed them. The men stopped and stood not far away from them. They faced the place where Elijah and Elisha had stopped at the Jordan River. [8]Elijah rolled up his coat. Then he struck the water with it. The water parted to the right and to the left. The two of them went across the river on dry ground.

[9]After they had gone across, Elijah said to Elisha, “Tell me. What can I do for you before I’m taken away from you?”

“Please give me a double share of your spirit,” Elisha replied.

[10]“You have asked me for something that’s very hard to do,” Elijah said. “But suppose you see me when I’m taken away from you. Then you will receive what you have asked for. If you don’t see me, you won’t receive it.”

[11]They kept walking along and talking together. Suddenly there appeared a chariot and horses made of fire. The chariot and horses came between the two men. Then Elijah went up to heaven in a strong wind. [12]Elisha saw it and cried out to Elijah, “My father! You are like a father to me! You, Elijah, are the true chariots and horsemen of Israel!” Elisha didn’t see Elijah anymore. Then Elisha took hold of his own garment and tore it in two.

[13]He picked up the coat that had fallen from Elijah. He went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan River. [14]Then he struck the water with Elijah’s coat. “Where is the power of the LORD?” he asked. “Where is the power of the God of Elijah?” When Elisha struck the water, it parted to the right and to the left. He went across the river.

[15]The group of prophets from Jericho were watching. They said, “The spirit of Elijah has been given to Elisha.” They went over to Elisha. They bowed down to him with their faces toward the ground. [16]“Look,” they said. “We have 50 capable men. Let them go and look for your master. Perhaps the Spirit of the LORD has lifted him up. Maybe he has put him down on a mountain or in a valley.”

“No,” Elisha replied. “Don’t send them.”

[17]But they kept asking until he felt he couldn’t say no. So he said, “Send them.” And they sent 50 men. They looked for Elijah for three days. But they didn’t find him. [18]So they returned to Elisha. He was staying in Jericho. Elisha said to them, “Didn’t I tell you not to go?”

Elisha Makes Jericho’s Water Pure

[19]The people of Jericho said to Elisha, “Look. This town has a good location. You can see that for yourself. But the spring of water here is bad. So the land doesn’t produce anything.”

[20]“Bring me a new bowl,” Elisha said. “Put some salt in it.” So they brought it to him.

[21]Then he went out to the spring. He threw the salt into it. He told the people, “The LORD says, ‘I have made this water pure. It will never cause death again. It will never keep the land from producing crops again.’ ” [22]The water has stayed pure to this day. That’s what Elisha had said would happen.

Some Boys Make Fun of Elisha

[23]Elisha left Jericho and went up to Bethel. He was walking along the road. Some boys came out of the town. They made fun of him. “Get out of here, baldy!” they said. “Get out of here! You don’t even have any hair on your head!”

[24]He turned around and looked at them. And he asked for bad things to happen to them. He did it in the name of the LORD. Then two bears came out of the woods. They attacked 42 of the boys. [25]Elisha went on to Mount Carmel. From there he returned to Samaria.

2 Kings 3

Moab's King Refuses to Obey Israel's King

[1]Joram became king of Israel in Samaria. It was in the 18th year that Jehoshaphat was king of Judah. Joram ruled for 12 years. He was the son of Ahab. [2]Joram did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. But he wasn't as bad as his father and mother had been. Joram's father had made a sacred stone used to worship the god named Baal. Joram got rid of it. [3]But he kept on committing the sins of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat. Jeroboam had also caused Israel to commit those same sins. Joram didn't turn away from them.

[4]Mesha raised sheep. He was king of Moab. He had to pay the king of Israel 100,000 lambs a year. He also had to pay him with the wool of 100,000 rams a year. [5]After Ahab died, Moab's king refused to obey the next king of Israel. [6]So at that time King Joram started out from Samaria. He gathered together all of Israel's troops. [7]He also sent a message to Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah. Joram said, "The king of Moab is refusing to obey me. Will you go with me to fight against Moab?"

"Yes. I'll go with you," Jehoshaphat replied. "My men will go with you. My horses will also go with you."

[8]"What road should we take to attack Moab?" Joram asked.

"The one that goes through the Desert of Edom," Jehoshaphat answered.

[9]So the king of Israel marched out. The king of Judah and the king of Edom went with him. Their armies marched around the southern end of the Dead Sea. After seven days they ran out of water. There wasn't any water for the men or their animals.

[10]"What should we do now?" exclaimed the king of Israel. "The LORD has called us three kings together. Did he do it only to hand us over to Moab?"

[11]But Jehoshaphat asked, "Isn't there a prophet of the LORD here? Can't we ask the LORD for advice through him?"

An officer of the king of Israel answered, "Elisha is here. He's the son of Shaphat. Elisha used to serve Elijah."

[12]Jehoshaphat said, "The LORD speaks through him." So the king of Israel went down to see Elisha. Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom also went there.

[13]Elisha said to the king of Israel, "Why do you want to come to me? Go to your father's prophets. Go to your mother's prophets."

“No,” the king of Israel answered. “The LORD called us three kings together. He did it to hand us over to Moab.”

14Elisha said, “I serve the LORD who rules over all. You can be sure that he lives. And you can be just as sure that I have respect for Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah. If I didn’t, I wouldn’t pay any attention to you. 15But now bring me someone who plays the harp.”

While that person was playing the harp, the LORD’s power came on Elisha. 16Elisha announced, “The LORD says, ‘I will fill this valley with pools of water.’ 17This will happen because the LORD says, ‘You will not see wind or rain. But this valley will be filled with water. Then you, your cattle and your other animals will have water to drink.’ 18This is an easy thing for the LORD to do. He will also hand Moab over to you. 19You will destroy every city that has high walls around it. You will destroy every major town. You will cut down every good tree. You will stop up all the springs of water. And you will cover every good field with stones.”

20The next day, the time came to offer the morning sacrifice. And then it happened! Water was flowing from the direction of Edom! In fact, the land was filled with water!

21Now all the people of Moab had heard that the kings had come to fight against them. So the king of Moab sent for all Moab’s fighting men. It didn’t matter whether they were young or old. He sent for everyone who could carry a weapon. All of them were stationed at the border. 22They got up early in the morning. The sun was already shining on the water. Across the way, the water looked red to the men of Moab. It looked like blood. 23“That’s blood!” they said. “Those kings must have fought and killed each other. Let’s go, Moab! Let’s take everything that has any value.”

24So the men of Moab went to the camp of Israel. Just as they arrived there, the men of Israel got ready to fight. They fought against the men of Moab until those men ran away. The men of Israel marched into the land and attacked it. They killed the people of Moab. 25They destroyed the towns. Each man threw a large stone on every good field. They did that until the fields were covered. They stopped up all the springs of water. And they cut down every good tree. The only town left with any stones in place was Kir Hareseth. But some of the Israelites armed with slings surrounded it. Then they attacked it.

26The king of Moab saw that the battle had gone against him. So he took with him 700 men who had swords. They tried to break through the battle lines to the king of Edom. But they couldn’t do it. 27Then the king of Moab took his oldest son. He was the son who would become the next king of Moab. But the king offered his son as a sacrifice on the city wall. That shocked and terrified the men of Israel. So they pulled back and returned to their own land.

2 Kings 4

Elisha Provides Olive Oil for a Widow

[1]The wife of a man from the group of the prophets cried out to Elisha. She said, “My husband is dead. You know how much respect he had for the LORD. But he owed money to someone. And now that person is coming to take my two boys away. They will become his slaves.”

[2]Elisha replied to her, “How can I help you? Tell me. What do you have in your house?”

“I don’t have anything there at all,” she said. “All I have is a small jar of olive oil.”

[3]Elisha said, “Go around to all your neighbors. Ask them for empty jars. Get as many as you can. [4]Then go inside your house. Shut the door behind you and your sons. Pour oil into all the jars. As each jar is filled, put it over to one side.”

[5]The woman left him. Then she shut the door behind her and her sons. They brought the jars to her. And she kept pouring. [6]When all the jars were full, she spoke to one of her sons. She said, “Bring me another jar.”

But he replied, “There aren’t any more left.” Then the oil stopped flowing.

[7]She went and told the man of God about it. He said, “Go and sell the oil. Pay what you owe. You and your sons can live on what is left.”

The Son of a Woman From Shunem Is Brought Back to Life

[8]One day Elisha went to the town of Shunem. A rich woman lived there. She begged him to stay and have a meal. So every time he came by, he stopped there to eat. [9]The woman said to her husband, “That man often comes by here. I know that he is a holy man of God. [10]Let’s make a small room for him on the roof. We’ll put a bed and a table in it. We’ll also put a chair and a lamp in it. Then he can stay there when he comes to visit us.”

[11]One day Elisha came. He went up to his room and lay down there. [12]He said to his servant Gehazi, “Go and get the woman from Shunem.” So he did. She stood in front of Elisha. [13]He said to Gehazi, “Tell her, ‘You have gone to a lot of trouble for us. Now what can we do for you? Can we speak to the king for you? Or can we speak to the commander of the army for you?’ ”

She replied, “I live among my own people. I have everything I need here.”

[14]After she left, Elisha asked Gehazi, “What can we do for her?”

Gehazi said, “She doesn’t have a son. And her husband is old.”

15Then Elisha said, “Bring her here again.” So he did. She stood in the doorway. 16“You will hold a son in your arms,” Elisha said. “It will be about this time next year.”

“No, my master!” she objected. “You are a man of God. So please don’t lie to me!”

17But the woman became pregnant. She had a baby boy. It happened the next year about that same time. That’s exactly what Elisha had told her would happen.

18The child grew. One day he went out to get his father. His father was with the people who were gathering the crops. 19The boy said to his father, “My head hurts! It really hurts!”

His father told a servant, “Carry him to his mother.” 20The servant lifted up the boy. He carried him to his mother. The boy sat on her lap until noon. Then he died. 21She went up to the room on the roof. There she laid him on the bed of the man of God. Then she shut the door and went out.

22She sent for her husband. She said, “Please send me one of the servants and a donkey. Then I can go quickly to the man of God and return.”

23“Why do you want to go to him today?” he asked. “It isn’t the time for the New Moon feast. It isn’t the Sabbath day.”

“Don’t let that bother you,” she said.

24She put a saddle on her donkey. She said to her servant, “Let’s go. Don’t slow down for me unless I tell you to.” 25So she started out. She came to Mount Carmel. That’s where the man of God was.

When she was still a long way off, he saw her coming. He said to his servant Gehazi, “Look! There’s the woman from Shunem! 26Run out there to meet her. Ask her, ‘Are you all right? Is your husband all right? Is your child all right?’ ”

“Everything is all right,” she said.

27She came to the man of God at the mountain. Then she took hold of his feet. Gehazi came over to push her away. But the man of God said, “Leave her alone! She is suffering terribly. But the LORD hasn’t told me the reason for it. He has hidden it from me.”

28“My master, did I ask you for a son?” she said. “Didn’t I tell you, ‘Don’t make me hope for something that won’t happen’?”

29Elisha said to Gehazi, “Tuck your coat into your belt. Take my walking stick and run to Shunem. Don’t say hello to anyone you see. If anyone says hello to you, don’t answer. Lay my walking stick on the boy’s face.”

30But the child’s mother said, “I won’t leave you. And that’s just as sure as the LORD and you are alive.” So Elisha got up and followed her.
31Gehazi went on ahead. He laid Elisha’s walking stick on the boy’s face. But there wasn’t any sound. The boy didn’t move at all. So Gehazi went back to Elisha. He told him, “The boy hasn’t awakened.”
32Elisha arrived at the house. The boy was dead. He was lying on Elisha’s bed.
33Elisha went into the room. He shut the door. He was alone with the boy. He prayed to the LORD. 34Then Elisha got on the bed. He lay down on the boy. His mouth touched the boy’s mouth. His eyes touched the boy’s eyes. And his hands touched the boy’s hands. As Elisha lay on the boy, the boy’s body grew warm.
35Elisha turned away. He walked back and forth in the room. Then he got on the bed again. He lay down on the boy once more. The boy sneezed seven times.
After that, he opened his eyes.
36Elisha sent for Gehazi. He said to him, “Go and get the woman from Shunem.” So he did. When she came, Elisha said, “Take your son.” 37She came in and fell at Elisha’s feet. She bowed down with her face toward the ground.
Then she took her son and went out.

Deadly Food in a Pot

38Elisha returned to Gilgal. There wasn’t enough food to eat in that area. The group of the prophets was meeting with Elisha. So he said to his servant, “Put the large pot over the fire. Cook some stew for these prophets.” 39One of them went out into the fields to gather herbs. He found a wild vine and picked some of its gourds. He picked as many as he could fit in his coat.
Then he cut them up and put them into the pot of stew. But no one knew what they were. 40The stew was poured out for the men. They began to eat it. But then they cried out, “Man of God, the food in that pot will kill us!” They couldn’t eat it.
41Elisha said, “Get some flour.” He put it in the pot. He said, “Serve it to the men to eat.” Then there wasn’t anything in the pot that could harm them.

Elisha Feeds 100 People

42A man came from Baal Shalishah. He brought the man of God 20 loaves of barley bread. They had been baked from the first grain that had ripened. The man also brought some heads of new grain. “Give this food to the people to eat,” Elisha said.

[43]“How can I put this in front of 100 men?” his servant asked.

But Elisha answered, “Give it to the people to eat. Do it because the LORD says, ‘They will eat and have some left over.’ ” [44]Then the servant put the food in front of them. They ate it and had some left over. It happened just as the LORD had said it would.

2 Kings 5

Naaman Is Healed of a Skin Disease

1 Naaman was army commander of the king of Aram. He was very important to his master and was highly respected. That's because the LORD had helped him win the battle over Aram's enemies. He was a brave soldier. But he had a skin disease.

2 Groups of soldiers from Aram had marched out. They had captured a young girl from Israel. She became a servant of Naaman's wife. 3 The young girl spoke to the woman she was serving. She said, "I wish my master would go and see the prophet who is in Samaria. He would heal my master of his skin disease."

4 Naaman went to see his own master. He told him what the girl from Israel had said. 5 "I think you should go," the king of Aram replied. "I'll give you a letter to take to the king of Israel." So Naaman left. He took 750 pounds of silver with him. He also took 150 pounds of gold. And he took ten sets of clothes. 6 He carried the letter to the king of Israel. It said, "I'm sending my servant Naaman to you with this letter. I want you to heal him of his skin disease."

7 The king of Israel read the letter. As soon as he did, he tore his royal robes.
He said, "Am I God? Can I kill people and bring them back to life? Why does this fellow send someone to me to be healed of his skin disease? He must be trying to pick a fight with me!"

8 Elisha, the man of God, heard that the king of Israel had torn his robes. So he sent the king a message. Elisha said, "Why have you torn your robes? Tell the man to come to me. Then he will know there is a prophet in Israel." 9 So Naaman went to see Elisha. He took his horses and chariots with him. He stopped at the door of Elisha's house. 10 Elisha sent a messenger out to him. The messenger said, "Go! Wash yourself in the Jordan River seven times. Then your skin will be healed. You will be pure and 'clean' again."

11 But Naaman went away angry. He said, "I was sure Elisha would come out to me. I thought he would stand there and pray to the LORD his God. I thought he would wave his hand over my skin. Then I would be healed. 12 And what about the Abana and Pharpar rivers of Damascus? Aren't they better than all the rivers of Israel? Couldn't I wash in the rivers of Damascus and be made pure and 'clean'?" So he turned and went away. He was very angry.

13 Naaman's servants went over to him. They said, "You are like a father to us.

What if Elisha the prophet had told you to do some great thing? Wouldn't you have done it? But he only said, 'Wash yourself. Then you will be pure and "clean." ' You should be even more willing to do that!" [14]So Naaman went down to the Jordan River. He dipped himself in it seven times. He did exactly what the man of God had told him to do. Then his skin was made pure again. It became "clean" like the skin of a young boy.

[15]Naaman and all his attendants went back to the man of God. Naaman stood in front of Elisha. Naaman said, "Now I know that there is no God anywhere in the whole world except in Israel. So please accept a gift from me."

[16]The prophet answered, "I serve the LORD. You can be sure that he lives. And you can be just as sure that I won't accept a gift from you." Even though Naaman begged him to take it, Elisha wouldn't.

[17]"I can see that you won't accept a gift from me," said Naaman. "But please let me have some soil from your land. Give me as much as a pair of mules can carry. Here's why I want it. I won't ever bring burnt offerings and sacrifices to any other god again. I'll bring them only to the LORD. I'll worship him on his own soil. [18]But there is one thing I hope the LORD will forgive me for. From time to time my master will enter the temple to bow down to his god Rimmon. When he does, he'll lean on my arm. Then I'll have to bow down there also. I hope the LORD will forgive me for that."

[19]"Go in peace," Elisha said.

Naaman started out on his way. [20]Gehazi was the servant of Elisha, the man of God. Gehazi said to himself, "My master was too easy on Naaman from Aram. He should have accepted the gift Naaman brought. I'm going to run after him. I'm going to get something from him. And that's just as sure as the LORD is alive."

[21]Gehazi hurried after Naaman. Naaman saw him running toward him. So he got down from the chariot to greet him. "Is everything all right?" he asked.

[22]"Everything is all right," Gehazi answered. "My master sent me to say, 'Two young men from the group of the prophets have just come to me. They've come from the hill country of Ephraim. Please give them 75 pounds of silver and two sets of clothes.' "

[23]"I wish you would take twice as much silver," said Naaman. He begged Gehazi to accept it. Then Naaman tied up 150 pounds of silver in two bags. He also gave Gehazi two sets of clothes. He gave all of it to two of his own servants. They carried it ahead of Gehazi. [24]Gehazi came to the hill where Elisha lived. Then the servants handed the things over to Gehazi. He put them away in Elisha’s house. He sent the men away, and they left. [25]Then he went back inside the house. He stood in front of his master Elisha.

“Gehazi, where have you been?” Elisha asked.

“I didn’t go anywhere,” Gehazi answered.

[26]But Elisha said to him, “Didn’t my spirit go with you? I know that the man got down from his chariot to greet you. Is this the time for you to accept money or clothes? Is it the time to take olive groves, vineyards, flocks or herds? Is it the time to accept male and female slaves? [27]You and your children after you will have Naaman’s skin disease forever.” Then Gehazi left Elisha. And he had Naaman’s skin disease. His skin had become as white as snow.

2 Kings 6

An Ax Blade Floats

1The group of the prophets said to Elisha, “Look. The place where we meet with you is too small for us. 2We would like to go to the Jordan River. Each of us can get some wood there. We want to build a place there for us to meet.”

Elisha said, “Go.”

3Then one of them said, “Won’t you please come with us?”

“I will,” Elisha replied. 4And he went with them.

They went to the Jordan River. There they began to cut down trees. 5One of them was cutting down a tree. The iron blade of his ax fell into the water. “Oh no, master!” he cried out. “This ax was borrowed!”

6The man of God asked, “Where did the blade fall?” He showed Elisha the place. Then Elisha cut a stick and threw it there. That made the iron blade float.
7“Take it out of the water,” he said. So the man reached out and took it.

Elisha Makes the Soldiers of Aram Blind

8The king of Aram was at war with Israel. He talked things over with his officers. Then he said, “I’m going to set up my camp in a certain place.”

9Elisha, the man of God, sent a message to the king of Israel. Elisha said, “Try to stay away from that place. Aram’s army is going to be down there.” 10The king of Israel checked on the place the man of God had told him about. Time after time Elisha warned the king. So the king was on guard in those places.

11All of that made the king of Aram very angry. He sent for his officers. He said to them, “Tell me! Which of us is on the side of the king of Israel?”

12“You are my king and master,” said one of his officers. “None of us is on Israel’s side. But Elisha is a prophet in Israel. He tells the king of Israel even the words you speak in your own bedroom.”

13“Go and find out where he is,” the king ordered. “Then I can send my men and capture him.” The report came back. The officers said, “He’s in Dothan.” 14Then the king sent horses and chariots and a strong army there. They went at night and surrounded the city.

15The servant of the man of God got up the next morning. He went out early.
He saw that an army with horses and chariots had surrounded the city. “Oh no, my master!” the servant said. “What can we do?”

16“Don’t be afraid,” the prophet answered. “Those who are with us are more than those who are with them.”

17Elisha prayed, “LORD, open my servant’s eyes so that he can see.” Then the LORD opened his eyes. Elisha’s servant looked up and saw the hills. He saw that Elisha was surrounded by horses and chariots made of fire.

18Aram’s army came down toward Elisha. Then he prayed to the LORD, “Make these soldiers blind.” So the LORD made them blind, just as Elisha had prayed.

19Elisha told them, “This isn’t the right road. This isn’t the right city. Follow me. I’ll lead you to the man you are looking for.” He led them to Samaria.

20They entered the city. Then Elisha said, “LORD, open the eyes of these men. Help them see again.” Then the LORD opened their eyes. They looked around. And there they were, inside Samaria!

21The king of Israel saw them. So he asked Elisha, “Should I kill them? I need your advice. You are like a father to me. Should I kill them?”

22“Don’t kill them,” he answered. “Would you kill people you have captured with your own sword or bow? Put some food and water in front of them. Then they can eat and drink. They can go back to their master.” 23So the king of Israel prepared a great feast for them. After they had finished eating and drinking, he sent them away. They returned to their master. So the groups of fighting men from Aram stopped attacking Israel’s territory.

Aram’s Army Attacks Samaria and People Go Hungry

24Some time later, Ben-Hadad gathered his entire army together. Ben-Hadad was the king of Aram. His army marched up and surrounded Samaria. Then they attacked it. 25There wasn’t enough food anywhere in the city. It was surrounded for so long that people had to weigh out two pounds of silver for a donkey’s head. They had to weigh out two ounces of silver for half a pint of seed pods.

26One day the king of Israel was walking on top of the city wall. A woman cried out to him, “You are my king and master. Please help me!”

27The king replied, “If the LORD doesn’t help you, where can I get help for you? From the threshing floor? From the winepress?” 28He continued, “What’s wrong?”

She answered, “A woman said to me, ‘Give up your son. Then we can eat him today. Tomorrow we’ll eat my son.’ 29So we cooked my son. Then we ate him.

The next day I said to her, ‘Give up your son. Then we can eat him.’ But she had hidden him.”

30When the king heard the woman’s words, he tore his royal robes. As he walked along the wall, the people looked up at him. They saw that under his robes he was wearing the rough clothing people wear when they’re sad. 31He said, “I’ll cut the head of Shaphat’s son Elisha off his shoulders today. If I don’t, may God punish me greatly!”

32Elisha was sitting in his house. The elders were sitting there with him. The king went to see Elisha. He sent a messenger on ahead of him. Before the messenger arrived, Elisha spoke to the elders. He said, “That murderer is sending someone here to cut off my head. Can’t you see that? When the messenger comes, close the door. Hold it shut against him. Can’t you hear his master’s footsteps right behind him?” 33Elisha was still talking to the elders when the messenger came down to him.

The king also arrived. He said, “The LORD has sent this horrible trouble on us. Why should I wait any longer for him to help us?”

2 Kings 7

[1]Elisha replied, “Listen to a message from the LORD. He says, ‘About this time tomorrow, flour won’t cost very much. Even 12 pounds of the finest flour will cost less than half of an ounce of silver. You will also be able to buy 20 pounds of barley for the same price. That’s all you will have to pay for those things at the gate of Samaria.’ ”

[2]The king was leaning on an officer’s arm. The officer spoke to the man of God. The officer said, “Suppose the LORD opens the sky and pours down food on us. Even if he does, could what you are saying really happen?”

“You will see it with your own eyes,” answered Elisha. “But you won’t eat any of it!”

The Attack on Samaria Ends

[3]There were four men who had a skin disease. They were at the entrance of the gate of Samaria. They said to one another, “Why should we stay here until we die? [4]Suppose we say, ‘We’ll go into the city.’ There isn’t any food there, and we’ll die. But if we stay here, we’ll die anyway. So let’s go over to Aram’s army camp. Let’s give ourselves up. If they spare us, we’ll live. If they kill us, we’ll die.”

[5]At sunset they got up and went to Aram’s army camp. They arrived at the edge of it. But no one was there. [6]The Lord had caused the soldiers of Aram to hear a noise. It sounded like chariots and horses and a huge army. So the soldiers said to one another, “Listen! The king of Israel has hired the Hittite and Egyptian kings. He has paid them to attack us!” [7]So the soldiers of Aram had run away at sunset. They had left their tents and horses and donkeys behind. They had left the camp just as it was. And they had run for their lives.

[8]The men who had a skin disease arrived at the edge of the camp. They entered one of the tents. They ate and drank. Then they took silver, gold and clothes. They went off and hid them. They returned and entered another tent.
They took some things from it and hid them also.

[9]But then they said to one another, “What we’re doing isn’t right. This is a day of good news. And we’re keeping it to ourselves. If we wait until sunrise, we’ll be punished. Let’s go at once. Let’s report this to the royal palace.”

[10]So they went. They called out to the people who were guarding the city gates. They told them, “We went into Aram’s army camp. No one was there. We didn’t hear anyone. The horses and donkeys were still tied up. The tents were left just as they were.” [11]The people who guarded the gates shouted the news. It was reported inside the palace.

[12]The king of Israel got up in the night. He spoke to his officers. He said, “I’ll tell you what the men of Aram have done to us. They know we are very hungry. So they have left the camp to hide in the countryside. They are thinking, ‘We are sure they’ll come out. Then we’ll take them alive. And we’ll get into the city.’ ”

[13]One of the king’s officers said, “A few horses are still left in the city. Have some men get five of them. Those men won’t be any worse off than all the other Israelites who are left here. In fact, all of us will soon be dead anyway. So let’s send the men to find out what happened.”

[14]The men chose two chariots and their horses. The king sent them out to look for Aram’s army. He commanded the drivers, “Go and find out what has happened.” [15]They followed the trail of Aram’s soldiers all the way to the Jordan River. They found clothes and supplies all along the road. The soldiers had thrown them down when they ran away. So the men who were sent out returned. They reported to the king what they had seen. [16]Then the people went out of the city. They took everything of value from Aram’s army camp. So 12 pounds of the finest flour sold for less than half of an ounce of silver. And 20 pounds of barley sold for the same price. That’s exactly what the LORD had said would happen.

[17]The king had put an officer in charge of the city gate. He was the officer on whose arm the king leaned. On their way out of the city, the people knocked the officer down. In the entrance of the gate he was crushed as they walked on top of him. And so he died. That’s exactly what the man of God had said would happen. He had said it when the king came down to his house. [18]What Elisha, the man of God, had told the king came true. Elisha had said, “About this time tomorrow, flour won’t cost very much. Even 12 pounds of the finest flour will cost less than half of an ounce of silver. You will also be able to buy 20 pounds of barley for the same price. That’s all you will have to pay for those things at the gate of Samaria.”

[19]The officer had spoken to the man of God. The officer had said, “Suppose the LORD opens the sky and pours down food on us. Even if he does, could what you are saying really happen?” The man of God had replied, “You will see it with your own eyes. But you won’t eat any of it!” [20]And that’s exactly what happened to the officer. On their way out of the city, the people knocked him down. In the entrance of the gate he was crushed as they walked on top of him.

And so he died.

2 Kings 8

The Woman From Shunem Gets Her Land Back

1 Elisha had brought a woman's son back to life. He had said to her, "Go away with your family. Stay for a while anywhere you can. The LORD has decided that there won't be enough food in the land. That will be true for seven years."
2 The woman did just as the man of God told her to. She and her family went away. They stayed in the land of the Philistines for seven years.

3 The seven years passed. Then she came back from the land of the Philistines.
She went to the king of Israel. She wanted to ask him to get her house and land back. 4 The king was talking to Gehazi. Gehazi was the servant of the man of God. The king had said, "Tell me about all the great things Elisha has done."
5 Gehazi was telling the king how Elisha had brought a dead boy back to life. Just then the woman came to ask the king to get her house and land back. She was the woman whose son Elisha had brought back to life.

Gehazi said, "King Joram, this is the woman I've been telling you about. And this is her son. He's the one Elisha brought back to life." 6 The king asked the woman about her house and land. And she told him.

Then he appointed an official to look into her case. The king told him, "Give her back everything that belonged to her. That includes all the money that was earned from her land. It was earned from the day she left the country until now."

Hazael Murders Ben-Hadad

7 Elisha went to Damascus. Ben-Hadad was sick. He was king of Aram. The king was told, "The man of God has come all the way up here." 8 Then the king said to Hazael, "Take a gift with you. Go and see the man of God. Ask him for the LORD's advice. Ask him whether I will get well again."

9 Hazael went to see Elisha. Hazael took 40 camels with him as a gift. The camels were loaded with all the finest goods of Damascus. Hazael went into Elisha's house and stood in front of him. Hazael said, "Ben-Hadad has sent me.
He is the king of Aram. He asks, 'Will I get well again?' "

10 Elisha answered, "Go and tell him, 'Yes. You will get well again.' But the LORD has shown me that he will in fact die." 11 Elisha stared at him without looking away. He did it until Hazael felt uncomfortable. Then the man of God began to weep.

12“Why are you weeping?” asked Hazael.

“Because I know how much harm you will do to the people of Israel,” Elisha answered. “You will set fire to their cities that have high walls around them. You will kill their young men with your swords. You will smash their little children on the ground. You will rip open their pregnant women.”

13Hazael said, “How could I possibly do a thing like that? I’m nothing but a dog. I don’t have that kind of power.”

“You will become king of Aram,” Elisha answered. “That’s what the LORD has shown me.”

14Then Hazael left Elisha and returned to his master. Ben-Hadad asked, “What did Elisha say to you?” Hazael replied, “He told me you would get well again.” 15But the next day Hazael got a thick cloth. He soaked it in water. He spread it over the king’s face. He held it there until the king died. Then Hazael became the next king after him.

Jehoram King of Judah

16Jehoram began to rule as king over Judah. It was in the fifth year that Joram was king of Israel. Joram was the son of Ahab. Jehoram was the son of Jehoshaphat. 17Jehoram was 32 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for eight years. 18He followed the ways of the kings of Israel, just as the royal family of Ahab had done. In fact, he married a daughter of Ahab. Jehoram did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. 19But the LORD didn’t want to destroy Judah. That’s because the LORD had made a covenant with his servant David. The LORD had promised to keep the lamp of David’s kingdom burning brightly. The LORD had promised that for him and his children after him forever.

20When Jehoram was king over Judah, Edom refused to remain under Judah’s control. Edom set up their own king. 21So Jehoram went to Zair. He took all his chariots with him. The men of Edom surrounded him and his chariot commanders. He got up at night and fought his way out. But his army ran back home. 22To this day Edom has refused to remain under Judah’s control. When Jehoram was Judah’s king, Libnah also refused to remain under the control of Judah.

23The other events of Jehoram’s rule are written down. Everything he did is written in the official records of the kings of Judah. 24Jehoram joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in the family tomb in the City of David. Jehoram's son Ahaziah became the next king after him.

Ahaziah King of Judah

25 Ahaziah began to rule as king over Judah. It was in the 12th year that Joram was king of Israel. Joram was the son of Ahab. Ahaziah was the son of Jehoram.
26 Ahaziah was 22 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for one year. His mother's name was Athaliah. She was a granddaughter of Omri. Omri had been the king of Israel. 27 Ahaziah followed the ways of the royal family of Ahab. Ahaziah did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, just as the family of Ahab had done. That's because he had married into Ahab's family.

28 Ahaziah joined forces with Joram. They went to war against Hazael at Ramoth Gilead. Joram was the son of Ahab. Hazael was king of Aram. The soldiers of Aram wounded King Joram. 29 So he returned to Jezreel to give his wounds time to heal. The soldiers of Aram had wounded him at Ramoth in his battle against Hazael, the king of Aram.

Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram, went down to Jezreel. He went there to see Joram. That's because Joram had been wounded. Ahaziah was king of Judah.
Joram was the son of Ahab.

2 Kings 9

Jehu Is Anointed as King of Israel

1 Elisha the prophet sent for a man from the group of the prophets. Elisha said to him, “Tuck your coat into your belt. Take this bottle of olive oil with you. Go to Ramoth Gilead. 2 When you get there, look for Jehu. He’s the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi. Go to Jehu. Get him away from his companions.
Take him into an inside room. 3 Then get the bottle. Pour the oil on his head.
Announce to him, ‘The LORD says, “I anoint you as king over Israel.” ’ After that, open the door and run away. Do it quickly!”

4 So the young prophet went to Ramoth Gilead. 5 When he arrived, he found the army officers sitting together. “Commander, I have a message for you,” he said.

“For which one of us?” asked Jehu.

“For you, commander,” he replied.

6 Jehu got up and went into the house. Then the prophet poured the oil on Jehu’s head. He announced, “The LORD is the God of Israel. He says, ‘I am anointing you as king over the LORD’s people Israel. 7 You must destroy the royal house of your master Ahab. I will pay them back for spilling the blood of my servants the prophets. I will also pay them back for the blood of all the LORD’s servants that Jezebel spilled. 8 The whole house of Ahab will die out. I will destroy every male in Israel who is related to Ahab. It does not matter whether they are slaves or free. 9 I will make Ahab’s royal house like the house of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat. I will make it like the house of Baasha, the son of Ahijah. 10 Dogs will eat up Jezebel on a piece of land at Jezreel. No one will bury her.’ ” Then the prophet opened the door and ran away.

11 Jehu went out to where the other officers were. One of them asked him, “Is everything all right? Why did that crazy man come to you?”

“You know the man. You know the kinds of things he says,” Jehu replied.

12 “That’s not true!” they said. “Tell us.”

Jehu said, “Here is what he told me. He announced, ‘The LORD says, “I am anointing you as king over Israel.” ’ ”

13 The officers quickly grabbed their coats. They spread them out under Jehu on the bare steps of the house. Then they blew a trumpet. They shouted, “Jehu is king!”

Jehu Kills Joram and Ahaziah

14Jehu was the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi. Jehu made plans against Joram. During that time Joram and Israel's whole army had been guarding Ramoth Gilead. They had been guarding it against Hazael, the king of Aram. 15But King Joram had returned to Jezreel. He had gone there to give his wounds time to heal. The soldiers of Aram had wounded him in his battle against Hazael, the king of Aram. Jehu said to his men, "Do you want to make me king? If you do, don't let anyone sneak out of the city. Don't let them go and tell the news in Jezreel." 16Then Jehu got into his chariot. He rode off to Jezreel.
Joram was resting there. And Ahaziah, the king of Judah, had gone down to see him.

17A lookout was standing on the roof of the tower in Jezreel. He saw Jehu's troops approaching. So he called out, "I see some troops coming."

"Get a horseman," Joram ordered. "Send him to ride out to them. Have him ask, 'Are you coming in peace?' "

18The horseman rode out to where Jehu was. He said, "The king asks, 'Are you coming in peace?' "

"What do you know about peace?" Jehu answered. "Get in line behind me."

The lookout reported, "The messenger has reached them. But he isn't coming back."

19So the king sent out a second horseman. When he came to them, he said,
"The king asks, 'Are you coming in peace?' "

Jehu replied, "What do you know about peace? Get in line behind me."

20The lookout reported, "The second messenger has reached them. But he isn't coming back either. The one driving the chariot drives like Jehu, the son of Nimshi. He's driving like a crazy person."

21"Get my chariot ready," King Joram ordered. When it was ready, he rode out. Ahaziah, the king of Judah, rode out with him. Each of them was in his own chariot. They both went to meet Jehu. They met him at the piece of land that had belonged to Naboth from Jezreel. 22When Joram saw Jehu he asked, "Have you come here in peace, Jehu?"

"Your mother Jezebel worships statues of gods," Jehu replied. "She also worships evil powers. The evil things she does have spread everywhere. As long as all of that goes on, how can there be peace?"

23Joram turned around and tried to get away. He called out, "It's treason, Ahaziah!"

[24]Then Jehu shot an arrow at Joram. It hit him between the shoulders. It went through his heart. He sank down slowly in his chariot. [25]Jehu spoke to Bidkar, his chariot officer. Jehu said, “Pick Joram up. Throw him on the field that belonged to Naboth from Jezreel. Remember how you and I were riding together in chariots behind Joram’s father Ahab? It was when the LORD spoke this prophecy against him. The LORD announced, [26]‘Yesterday I saw the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons. You can be sure that I will make you pay for it on this piece of land.’ So pick Joram up. Throw him on that piece of land. That’s what the LORD said would happen.”

[27]Ahaziah, the king of Judah, saw what had happened. So he tried to get away. He went up the road toward Beth Haggan. Jehu chased him. He shouted, “Kill him too!” Jehu’s men wounded Ahaziah in his chariot. It happened on the way up to Gur near Ibleam. But Ahaziah escaped to Megiddo. And that’s where he died. [28]Ahaziah’s servants took him to Jerusalem in his chariot. They buried him in his family tomb in the City of David. [29]Ahaziah had become king of Judah. It was in the 11th year of Joram, the son of Ahab.

Jehu Kills Jezebel

[30]Jehu went to Jezreel. Jezebel heard about it. So she put makeup on her eyes and fixed her hair. Then she looked out of a window. [31]Jehu entered the gate below. Jezebel said to him, “You are just like Zimri. You murdered your master. Have you come here in peace?”

[32]Jehu looked up at the window. “Who is on my side?” he called out. “Who?” Two or three officials looked down at him. [33]“Throw her down!” Jehu said. So they threw her down. Some of her blood splashed on the wall. Some of it splashed on Jehu’s chariot horses as they ran over her.

[34]Jehu went inside. He ate and drank. “The LORD put a curse on that woman,” he said. “Take proper care of her body. Bury her. After all, she was a king’s daughter.” [35]So they went out to bury her. But all they found was her head, feet and hands. [36]They went back and reported it to Jehu. He told them, “That’s what the LORD said would happen. He announced it through his servant Elijah, who was from Tishbe. He said, ‘On a piece of land at Jezreel, dogs will eat up Jezebel’s body. [37]Her body will end up as garbage on that piece of land. So no one will be able to say, “Here’s where Jezebel is buried.” ’ ”

2 Kings 10

Jehu Wipes Out Ahab's Royal House

[1]Ahab's royal family in the city of Samaria had a total of 70 sons. Jehu wrote some letters to the officials of the city. He also sent them to the elders there. And he sent them to the people who took care of Ahab's children. Jehu said, [2]"Your master's sons are with you. You also have chariots and horses and weapons. And you are living in a city that has high walls around it. As soon as you read this letter, here's what I want you to do. [3]Choose the best and most respected son of your master. Place him on his father Joram's throne. Then fight for your master's royal house."

[4]The leaders of Samaria were terrified. They said, "King Joram and King Ahaziah couldn't stand up against Jehu. So how can we?"

[5]The city governor and the person in charge of the palace sent a message to Jehu. The message was also from the elders and the people who took care of Ahab's children. In the message, they said, "We will serve you. We'll do anything you say. We won't appoint anyone to be king. Do what you think is best."

[6]Then Jehu wrote them a second letter. He said, "You say you are on my side. You say you will obey me. If you really mean it, bring me the heads of your master's sons. Meet me in Jezreel by this time tomorrow."

There were 70 royal princes. They were with the most important men of the city. Those men were in charge of raising them. [7]When Jehu's letter arrived, the men went and got the princes. They killed all 70 of them. They put their heads in baskets. Then they sent them to Jehu in Jezreel. [8]When the messenger arrived, he spoke to Jehu. He told him, "The heads of the princes have been brought here."

Then Jehu ordered his men, "Put them in two piles. Stack them up at the entrance of the city gate until morning."

[9]The next morning Jehu went out. He stood in front of all the people. He said, "You aren't guilty of doing anything wrong. I'm the one who made plans against my master Joram. I killed him. But who killed all these? [10]I want you to know that the LORD has spoken against Ahab's royal house. Not a word of what he has said will fail. The LORD has done exactly what he announced through his servant Elijah." [11]So Jehu killed everyone from Ahab's family who was in Jezreel. He also killed all Ahab's chief men. And he killed Ahab's close friends and his priests. He didn't leave anyone alive in Ahab's family.

12Then Jehu started out for Samaria. At Beth Eked of the Shepherds, 13he saw some people. They were relatives of Ahaziah, the king of Judah. Jehu asked them, “Who are you?”

They said, “We are Ahaziah’s relatives. We’ve come down to visit the families of the king and of his mother.”

14“Take them alive!” Jehu ordered. So his men took them alive. Then they killed them by the well of Beth Eked. They killed a total of 42 of them. Jehu didn’t leave anyone alive.

15Jehu left there. On the way he met Jehonadab. He was the son of Rekab. Jehonadab was on his way to see Jehu. Jehu greeted him. He asked, “Are you my friend? You know I’m your friend.”

“I am,” Jehonadab answered.

“If that’s true,” said Jehu, “hold out your hand.” So he did. Then Jehu helped him up into the chariot. 16Jehu said, “Come along with me. See how committed I am to serve the LORD.” Jehu had Jehonadab ride along in his chariot.

17Jehu came to Samaria. He killed everyone there who was left from Ahab’s family. And so he completely destroyed Ahab’s royal house. That’s what the LORD had said would happen. He had spoken that message to Elijah.

Jehu Kills the People Who Serve Baal

18Then Jehu brought together all the people. He said to them, “Ahab served the god named Baal a little. I will serve him a lot. 19Send for all of Baal’s prophets. Also send for all his priests and the others who serve him. Make sure that not a single one is missing. I’m going to hold a great sacrifice to honor Baal. Anyone who doesn’t come will be killed.” But Jehu was lying to them. He was planning to destroy everyone who served Baal.

20Jehu said, “Call everyone together to honor Baal.” So they did. 21Then he sent a message all through Israel. All those who served Baal came. Not a single one of them stayed away. They crowded into Baal’s temple. It was full from one end to the other. 22Jehu spoke to the one who took care of the sacred robes. He told him, “Bring robes for everyone who serves Baal.” So he brought the robes out for them.

23Then Jehu went into Baal’s temple. Jehonadab, the son of Rekab, went with him. Jehu said to those who served Baal, “Look around. Make sure that no one who serves the LORD is here with you. Make sure only those who serve Baal are here.” 24So they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Jehu had stationed 80 men outside. He warned them, “I’m placing some men in your hands. Don’t let a single one of them escape. If you do, you will pay for his life with yours.”

25Jehu finished sacrificing the burnt offering. As soon as he did, he gave an order to the guards and officers. He commanded them, “Go inside and kill everyone. Don’t let a single one of them escape.” So they cut them down with their swords. The guards and officers threw the bodies outside. Then they entered the most sacred area inside Baal’s temple. 26They brought the sacred stone of Baal outside. They burned it up. 27So they destroyed Baal’s sacred stone. They also tore down Baal’s temple. People have used it as a public toilet to this day.

28So Jehu destroyed the worship of the god named Baal in Israel. 29But he didn’t turn away from the sins of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat. Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit those same sins. Jehu worshiped the golden calves at Bethel and Dan.

30The LORD said to Jehu, “You have done well. You have accomplished what is right in my eyes. You have done to Ahab’s royal house everything I wanted you to do. So your sons after you will sit on the throne of Israel. They will rule until the time of your children’s grandchildren.” 31But Jehu wasn’t careful to obey the law of the LORD. He didn’t obey the God of Israel with all his heart. He didn’t turn away from the sins of Jeroboam. Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit those same sins.

32In those days the LORD began to make the kingdom of Israel smaller. Hazael gained control over many parts of Israel. He gained control over all their territory 33east of the Jordan River. It included the whole land of Gilead from Aroer by the Arnon River valley all the way to Bashan. That was the territory of Gad, Reuben and Manasseh.

34The other events of Jehu’s rule are written down. Everything he did and accomplished is written in the official records of the kings of Israel.

35Jehu joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in Samaria. His son Jehoahaz became the next king after him. 36Jehu had ruled over Israel in Samaria for 28 years.

2 Kings 11

Athaliah and Joash

[1]Athaliah was Ahaziah's mother. She saw that her son was dead. So she began to destroy the whole royal house of Judah. [2]But Jehosheba went and got Joash, the son of Ahaziah. Jehosheba was the daughter of King Jehoram and the sister of Ahaziah. She stole Joash away from among the royal princes. All of them were about to be murdered. She put Joash and his nurse in a bedroom. That's how she hid him from Athaliah. And that's why Athaliah didn't kill him. [3]The child remained hidden with his nurse at the LORD's temple for six years. Athaliah ruled over the land during that time.

[4]In the seventh year Jehoiada the priest sent for the commanders of military groups of 100 men. They were the commanders over the Carites and the guards. Jehoiada had them brought to him at the temple of the LORD. He made a covenant with them. At the temple he made them promise to be faithful. Then he showed them the king's son. [5]He gave them a command. He said, "Here's what you must do. There are five groups of you. Some of you are in the three groups that are going on duty on the Sabbath day. A third of you must guard the royal palace. [6]A third of you must guard the Sur Gate. And a third of you must guard the gate that is behind the guard. All of you must take turns guarding the temple. [7]The rest of you are in the other two groups. Normally you are not on duty on the Sabbath day. But you also must guard the temple for the king. [8]Station yourselves around the king. Each of you must have his weapon in his hand. Anyone else who approaches your groups must be put to death. Stay close to the king no matter where he goes."

[9]The commanders of the military groups did just as Jehoiada the priest ordered. Each commander got his men and came to Jehoiada. Some of the men were going on duty on the Sabbath day. Others were going off duty. [10]Then Jehoiada gave weapons to the commanders. He gave them spears and shields. The weapons had belonged to King David. They had been in the LORD's temple. [11]The guards stationed themselves around the new king. Each of them had his weapon in his hand. They were near the altar and the temple. They stood from the south side of the temple to its north side.

[12]Jehoiada brought out Ahaziah's son. He put the crown on him. He gave him a copy of the covenant. And he announced that Joash was king. Jehoiada and his sons anointed him. The people clapped their hands. Then they shouted, “May the king live a long time!”

13 Athaliah heard the noise the guards and the people were making. So she went to the people at the LORD’s temple. 14 She looked, and there was the king! He was standing next to the pillar. That was the usual practice. The officers and trumpet players were standing beside the king. All the people of the land were filled with joy. They were blowing trumpets. Then Athaliah tore her royal robes. She called out, “Treason! It’s treason!”

15 Jehoiada the priest gave an order to the commanders of the military groups of 100 men. The commanders were in charge of the troops. He said to them, “Bring her away from the temple between the line of guards. Use your swords to kill anyone who follows her.” The priest had said, “She must not be put to death at the LORD’s temple.” 16 So they grabbed her as she reached the place where the horses enter the palace grounds. There she was put to death.

17 Then Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and people. He had the king and people promise that they would be the LORD’s people. Jehoiada also made a covenant between the king and the people. 18 All the people of the land went to Baal’s temple. They tore it down. They smashed to pieces the altars and the statues of gods. They killed Mattan in front of the altars. He was the priest of Baal.

Then Jehoiada the priest stationed guards at the temple of the LORD. 19 Jehoiada took with him the commanders of groups of 100 men. They were the commanders over the Carites and the guards. He also took with him all the people of the land. All of them brought the new king down from the LORD’s temple. They went into the palace. They entered it by going through the gate of the guards. Then the king sat down on the royal throne. 20 All the people of the land were filled with joy. And the city was calm. That’s because Athaliah had been killed with a sword at the palace.

21 Joash was seven years old when he became king.

2 Kings 12

Joash Repairs the Temple

[1]Joash became king of Judah. It was in the seventh year of Jehu's rule. Joash ruled in Jerusalem for 40 years. His mother's name was Zibiah. She was from Beersheba. [2]Joash did what was right in the eyes of the LORD. Joash lived that way as long as Jehoiada the priest was teaching him. [3]But the high places weren't removed. The people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

[4]Joash spoke to the priests. He said, "Collect all the money the people bring as sacred offerings to the LORD's temple. That includes the money collected when the men who are able to serve in the army are counted. It includes the money received from people who make a special promise to the LORD. It also includes the money people bring to the temple just because they want to. [5]Let each priest receive the money from one of the people in charge of the temple's treasures. Then use all of that money to repair the temple where it needs it."

[6]It was now the 23rd year of the rule of King Joash. And the priests still hadn't repaired the temple. [7]So the king sent for Jehoiada the priest and the other priests. He asked them, "Why aren't you repairing the temple where it needs it? Don't take any more money from the people in charge of the treasures. Instead, hand it over so the temple can be repaired." [8]The priests agreed that they wouldn't collect any more money from the people. They also agreed that they wouldn't repair the temple themselves.

[9]Jehoiada the priest got a chest. He drilled a hole in its lid. He placed the chest beside the altar for burnt offerings. The chest was on the right side as people enter the LORD's temple. Some priests guarded the entrance. They put into the chest all the money the people brought to the temple. [10]From time to time there was a large amount of money in the chest. When that happened, the royal secretary and the high priest came. They counted the money the people had brought to the temple. Then they put it into bags. [11]After they added it all up, they used it to repair the temple. They gave it to the men who had been put in charge of the work. Those men used it to pay the workers. They paid the builders and those who worked with wood. [12]They paid those who cut stones and those who laid them. They bought lumber and blocks of stone. So they used the money to repair the LORD's temple. They also paid all the other costs to make the temple like new again.

[13]The money the people brought to the LORD’s temple wasn’t used to make silver bowls. It wasn’t used for wick cutters, sprinkling bowls or trumpets. And it wasn’t used for any other things made out of gold or silver. [14]Instead, it was paid to the workers. They used it to repair the temple. [15]The royal secretary and the high priest didn’t require a report from those who were in charge of the work. That’s because they were completely honest. They always paid the workers. [16]Money was received from people who brought guilt offerings and sin offerings. But it wasn’t taken to the LORD’s temple. It belonged to the priests.

[17]About that time Hazael, the king of Aram, went up and attacked Gath. Then he captured it. After that, he turned back to attack Jerusalem. [18]But Joash, the king of Judah, didn’t want to go to war. So he took all the sacred objects. They had been set apart to the LORD by the kings who had ruled over Judah before him. Those kings were Jehoshaphat, Jehoram and Ahaziah. Joash took the gifts he himself had set apart. He took all the gold that was among the temple treasures. He also took all the gold from the royal palace. He sent all those things to Hazael, the king of Aram. Then Hazael pulled his army back from Jerusalem.

[19]The other events of the rule of Joash are written down. Everything he did is written in the official records of the kings of Judah. [20]The officials of Joash made evil plans against him. They killed him at Beth Millo. It happened on the road that goes down to Silla. [21]The officials who murdered him were Jozabad and Jehozabad. Jozabad was the son of Shimeath. Jehozabad was the son of Shomer. After Joash died, he was buried in the family tomb in the City of David. Joash’s son Amaziah became the next king after him.

2 Kings 13

Jehoahaz King of Israel

[1]Jehoahaz became king of Israel in Samaria. It was in the 23rd year of the rule of Joash, the king of Judah. Jehoahaz ruled for 17 years. Joash was the son of Ahaziah. Jehoahaz was the son of Jehu. [2]Jehoahaz did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD. He committed the sins Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had committed. Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit those same sins. Jehoahaz didn't turn away from them. [3]So the LORD was very angry with Israel. For a long time he kept them under the power of Hazael, the king of Aram. The LORD also kept them under the power of his son Ben-Hadad.

[4]Then Jehoahaz asked the LORD for help. The LORD listened to him. The LORD saw how badly the king of Aram was treating Israel. [5]The LORD provided someone to save Israel. And they escaped from the power of Aram. So the Israelites lived in their own homes, just as they had before. [6]But the people didn't turn away from the sins of the royal house of Jeroboam. He had caused Israel to commit those same sins. The people continued to commit them. And the pole used to worship the female god named Asherah remained standing in Samaria.

[7]The army of Jehoahaz had almost nothing left. All it had was 50 horsemen, 10 chariots and 10,000 soldiers on foot. The king of Aram had destroyed the rest of them. He had made them like dust at threshing time.

[8]The other events of the rule of Jehoahaz are written down. Everything he did and accomplished is written in the official records of the kings of Israel.
[9]Jehoahaz joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in Samaria. Jehoahaz's son Jehoash became the next king after him.

Jehoash King of Israel

[10]Jehoash became king of Israel in Samaria. It was in the 37th year that Joash was king of Judah. Jehoash ruled for 16 years. He was the son of Jehoahaz.
[11]Jehoash did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD. Jehoash didn't turn away from any of the sins of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat. Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit those same sins. And Jehoash continued to commit them.

[12]The other events of the rule of Jehoash are written down. That includes his war against Amaziah, the king of Judah. Everything he did and accomplished is written in the official records of the kings of Israel. [13]Jehoash joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in the royal tombs in Samaria. Jeroboam became the next king on Israel's throne after him.

[14]Elisha had been suffering from a sickness. Later he would die from it. Jehoash, the king of Israel, went down to see him. Jehoash wept over him. "My father!" he cried. "You are like a father to me! You, Elisha, are the true chariots and horsemen of Israel!"

[15]Elisha said to Jehoash, "Get a bow and some arrows." So he did. [16]"Hold the bow in your hands," Elisha said to the king of Israel. So Jehoash took hold of the bow. Then Elisha put his hands on the king's hands.

[17]"Open the east window," Elisha said. So he did. "Shoot!" Elisha said. So he shot. "That's the LORD's arrow!" Elisha announced. "It means you will win the battle over Aram! You will completely destroy the men of Aram at Aphek."

[18]Elisha continued, "Get some arrows." So the king did. Elisha told him, "Strike the ground." Jehoash struck it three times. Then he stopped. [19]The man of God was angry with him. He said, "You should have struck the ground five or six times. Then you would have won the war over Aram. You would have completely destroyed them. But now you will win only three battles over them."

[20]Elisha died and was buried.

Some robbers from Moab used to enter the country of Israel every spring. [21]One day some Israelites were burying a man. Suddenly they saw a group of robbers. So they threw the man's body into Elisha's tomb. The body touched Elisha's bones. When it did, the man came back to life again. He stood up on his feet.

[22]Hazael, the king of Aram, treated Israel badly. He did it the whole time Jehoahaz was king. [23]But the LORD helped Israel. He was tender and kind to them. He showed concern for them. He did all these things because of the covenant he had made with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. To this day he hasn't been willing to destroy Israel. And he hasn't driven them out of his land.

[24]Hazael, the king of Aram, died. His son Ben-Hadad became the next king after him. [25]Then Jehoash won back some towns from Ben-Hadad, the son of Hazael. Ben-Hadad had captured them in battle from Jehoahaz, the father of Jehoash. Jehoash won three battles over Ben-Hadad. So Jehoash won back the Israelite towns.

2 Kings 14

Amaziah King of Judah

[1]Amaziah began to rule as king over Judah. It was in the second year that Jehoash was king of Israel. He was the son of Jehoahaz. Amaziah was the son of Joash. [2]Amaziah was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 29 years. His mother's name was Jehoaddan. She was from Jerusalem. [3]Amaziah did what was right in the eyes of the LORD. But he didn't do what King David had done. He always followed the example of his father Joash. [4]But the high places weren't removed. The people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

[5]The kingdom was firmly under his control. So he put to death the officials who had murdered his father, the king. [6]But he didn't put their children to death. He obeyed what is written in the Book of the Law of Moses. There the LORD commanded, "Parents must not be put to death because of what their children do. And children must not be put to death because of what their parents do. People must die because of their own sins." (Deuteronomy 24:16)

[7]Amaziah won the battle over 10,000 men of Edom. It happened in the Valley of Salt. During the battle he captured the town of Sela. He called it Joktheel. That's the name it still has to this day.

[8]After the battle, Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the king of Israel. Jehoash was the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu. Amaziah said, "Come on. Let us face each other in battle."

[9]But Jehoash, the king of Israel, answered Amaziah, the king of Judah. Jehoash said, "A thorn bush in Lebanon sent a message to a cedar tree there. The thorn bush said, 'Give your daughter to be married to my son.' Then a wild animal in Lebanon came along. It crushed the thorn bush by walking on it. [10]It's true that you have won the battle over Edom. So you are proud. Enjoy your success while you can. But stay home and enjoy it! Why ask for trouble? Why bring yourself crashing down? Why bring Judah down with you?"

[11]But Amaziah wouldn't listen. So Jehoash, the king of Israel, attacked. He and Amaziah, the king of Judah, faced each other in battle. The battle took place at Beth Shemesh in Judah. [12]Israel drove Judah away. Every man ran home. [13]Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah at Beth Shemesh. Amaziah was the son of Joash. Joash was the son of Ahaziah. Jehoash went to Jerusalem. He broke down part of its wall. It's the part that went from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate. That part of the wall was 600 feet long. [14]Jehoash took all the gold, silver and objects that were in the LORD's temple. He also took all those same kinds of things that were among the treasures of the royal palace. And he took prisoners. Then he returned to Samaria.

[15]The other events of the rule of Jehoash are written down. That includes his war against Amaziah, the king of Judah. Everything he did and accomplished is written in the official records of the kings of Israel. [16]Jehoash joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in Samaria in the royal tombs of Israel. Jehoash's son Jeroboam became the next king after him.

[17]Amaziah king of Judah lived for 15 years after Jehoash king of Israel died. Amaziah was the son of Joash. Jehoash was the son of Jehoahaz. [18]The other events of Amaziah's rule are written down. They are written in the official records of the kings of Judah.

[19]Some people made evil plans against Amaziah in Jerusalem. So he ran away to Lachish. But they sent men to Lachish after him. There they killed him. [20]His body was brought back on a horse. Then he was buried in the family tomb in Jerusalem, the City of David.

[21]All the people of Judah made Uzziah king. He was 16 years old. They made him king in place of his father Amaziah. [22]Uzziah rebuilt Elath. He brought it under Judah's control again. He did it after Amaziah joined the members of his family who had already died.

Jeroboam II King of Israel

[23]Jeroboam became king of Israel in Samaria. It was in the 15th year that Amaziah was king of Judah. Jeroboam ruled for 41 years. Amaziah was the son of Joash. Jeroboam was the son of Jehoash. [24]Jeroboam did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD. He didn't turn away from any of the sins the earlier Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had committed. That Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit those same sins. [25]Jeroboam, the son of Jehoash, made the borders of Israel the same as they were before. They reached from Lebo Hamath all the way to the Dead Sea. That's what the LORD, the God of Israel, had said would happen. He had spoken that message through his servant Jonah. Jonah the prophet was the son of Amittai. Jonah was from the town of Gath Hepher.

[26]The LORD had seen how much everyone in Israel was suffering. It didn't matter whether they were slaves or free. They didn't have anyone to help them.

[27]The LORD hadn’t said he would wipe out Israel’s name from the earth. So he saved them by the power of Jeroboam, the son of Jehoash.

[28]The other events of the rule of Jeroboam are written down. What he and his army accomplished is written down. That includes how he brought Damascus and Hamath back under Israel’s control. Damascus and Hamath had belonged to the territory of Judah. Everything he did is written in the official records of the kings of Israel. [29]Jeroboam joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in the royal tombs of Israel. Jeroboam’s son Zechariah became the next king after him.

2 Kings 15

Uzziah King of Judah

[1]Uzziah began to rule as king over Judah. It was in the 27th year that Jeroboam was king of Israel. Uzziah was the son of Amaziah. [2]Uzziah was 16 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 52 years. His mother's name was Jekoliah. She was from Jerusalem. [3]Uzziah did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Amaziah had done. [4]But the high places weren't removed. The people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

[5]The LORD caused King Uzziah to suffer from a skin disease until the day he died. He lived in a separate house. His son Jotham was in charge of the palace.
Jotham ruled over the people of the land.

[6]The other events of the rule of Uzziah are written down. Everything he did is written in the official records of the kings of Judah. [7]Uzziah joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried near them in the City of David. Uzziah's son Jotham became the next king after him.

Zechariah King of Israel

[8]Zechariah became king of Israel in Samaria. It was in the 38th year that Uzziah was king of Judah. Zechariah ruled for six months. He was the son of Jeroboam, the son of Jehoash. [9]Zechariah did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD. He did what the kings of Israel before him had done. He didn't turn away from the sins Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had committed. Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit those same sins.

[10]Shallum made evil plans against Zechariah. He attacked Zechariah in front of the people and killed him. Then he became the next king after him. Shallum was the son of Jabesh. [11]The other events of the rule of Zechariah are written down. They are written in the official records of the kings of Israel. [12]What happened to Zechariah is what the LORD said would happen. He had spoken that message to Jehu. The LORD had said, "Your sons after you will sit on the throne of Israel. They will rule until the time of your children's grandchildren."
(2 Kings 10:30)

Shallum King of Israel

[13]Shallum became king of Israel. It was in the 39th year that Uzziah was king of Judah. Shallum ruled in Samaria for one month. He was the son of Jabesh. [14]Menahem went from Tirzah up to Samaria. There he attacked Shallum, the son of Jabesh. Menahem killed him and became the next king after him. Menahem was the son of Gadi.

[15]The other events of Shallum's rule are written down. The evil things he planned are written down. All these things are written in the official records of the kings of Israel.

[16]At that time Menahem started out from Tirzah and attacked Tiphsah. He attacked everyone in the city and the area around it. That's because they refused to open their gates for him. He destroyed Tiphsah. He ripped open all their pregnant women.

Menahem King of Israel

[17]Menahem became king of Israel. It was in the 39th year that Uzziah was king of Judah. Menahem ruled in Samaria for ten years. He was the son of Gadi. [18]Menahem did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD. During his entire rule he didn't turn away from the sins Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had committed. Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit those same sins.

[19]Then Tiglath-Pileser marched into the land of Israel. He was king of Assyria. Menahem gave him 38 tons of silver to get his help. He wanted to make his control over the kingdom stronger. [20]Menahem forced Israel to give him that money. Every wealthy person had to give him 20 ounces of silver. All of it went to the king of Assyria. So he pulled his troops back. He didn't stay in the land anymore.

[21]The other events of the rule of Menahem are written down. Everything he did is written in the official records of the kings of Israel. [22]Menahem joined the members of his family who had already died. Menahem's son Pekahiah became the next king after him.

Pekahiah King of Israel

[23]Pekahiah became king of Israel in Samaria. It was in the 50th year that Uzziah was king of Judah. Pekahiah ruled for two years. He was the son of Menahem. [24]Pekahiah did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD. He didn't turn away from the sins Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had committed. Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit those same sins. [25]One of Pekahiah's chief officers was Pekah. He was the son of Remaliah. Pekah made evil plans against Pekahiah. He took 50 men from Gilead with him and killed Pekahiah. Pekah also killed Argob and Arieh. He killed all of them in the safest place in the royal palace at Samaria. So Pekah killed Pekahiah. He became the next king after him.

[26]The other events of the rule of Pekahiah are written down. Everything he did is written in the official records of the kings of Israel.

Pekah King of Israel

[27]Pekah became king of Israel in Samaria. It was in the 52nd year that Uzziah was king of Judah. Pekah ruled for 20 years. He was the son of Remaliah. [28]Pekah did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD. He didn't turn away from the sins Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had committed. Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit those same sins.

[29]During the rule of Pekah, the king of Israel, Tiglath-Pileser marched into the land again. He was king of Assyria. He captured the towns of Ijon, Abel Beth Maakah, Janoah, Kedesh and Hazor. He also captured the lands of Gilead and Galilee. That included the whole territory of Naphtali. He took the people away from their own land. He sent them off to Assyria. [30]Then Hoshea made evil plans against Pekah, the son of Remaliah. Hoshea was the son of Elah. Hoshea attacked Pekah and killed him. Then Hoshea became the next king after him. It was in the 20th year of the rule of Jotham, the son of Uzziah.

[31]The other events of the rule of Pekah are written down. Everything he did is written in the official records of the kings of Israel.

Jotham King of Judah

[32]Jotham began to rule as king over Judah. It was in the second year that Pekah was king of Israel. He was the son of Remaliah. Jotham was the son of Uzziah. [33]Jotham was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 16 years. His mother's name was Jerusha. She was the daughter of Zadok. [34]Jotham did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Uzziah had done. [35]But the high places weren't removed. The people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there. Jotham rebuilt the Upper Gate of the LORD's temple.

[36]The other events of the rule of Jotham are written down. Everything he did is written in the official records of the kings of Judah. [37]In those days the LORD began to send Rezin and Pekah against Judah. Rezin was king of Aram. Pekah was the son of Remaliah. [38]Jotham joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in the family tomb in the city of King David. Jotham’s son Ahaz became the next king after him.

2 Kings 16

Ahaz King of Judah

[1]Ahaz began to rule as king over Judah. It was in the 17th year of the rule of Pekah, the son of Remaliah. Ahaz was the son of Jotham. [2]Ahaz was 20 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 16 years. Ahaz didn't do what was right in the eyes of the LORD his God. He didn't do what King David had done. [3]He followed the ways of the kings of Israel. He even sacrificed his son in the fire to another god. He followed the practices of the nations. The LORD hated those practices. He had driven out those nations to make room for the Israelites. [4]Ahaz offered sacrifices and burned incense at the high places. He also did it on the tops of hills and under every green tree.

[5]Rezin and Pekah marched up to Jerusalem and surrounded it. Rezin was king of Aram. Pekah, the son of Remaliah, was king of Israel. They attacked Ahaz. But they couldn't overpower him. [6]At that time Rezin, the king of Aram, won back Elath for Aram. He drove out the people of Judah. Then the people of Edom moved into Elath. And they still live there to this day.

[7]Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-Pileser. He was king of Assyria. The message of Ahaz said, "I am your servant. You are my master. Come up and save me from the power of the kings of Aram and Israel. They are attacking me." [8]Ahaz took the silver and gold that were in the LORD's temple. He also took the silver and gold that were among the treasures in the royal palace. He sent all of it as a gift to the king of Assyria. [9]So the king of Assyria did what Ahaz asked him to do. He attacked the city of Damascus and captured it. He sent its people away to Kir. And he put Rezin to death.

[10]Then King Ahaz went to Damascus. He went there to see Tiglath-Pileser, the king of Assyria. Ahaz saw an altar in Damascus. He sent a drawing of it to Uriah the priest. Ahaz also sent him plans for building it. [11]So Uriah the priest built an altar. He followed all the plans King Ahaz had sent from Damascus. He finished it before Ahaz returned. [12]The king came back from Damascus. When he saw the altar, he approached it. Then he offered sacrifices on it. [13]He offered up his burnt offering and grain offering. He poured out his drink offering. And he splashed the blood from his friendship offerings against the altar. [14]The bronze altar for burnt offerings stood in front of the LORD. It was between the new altar and the LORD's temple. Ahaz took the bronze altar away from the front of the temple. He put it on the north side of the new altar.

15Then King Ahaz gave orders to Uriah the priest. He said, “Offer sacrifices on the large new altar. Offer the morning burnt offering and the evening grain offering. Offer my burnt offering and my grain offering. Offer the burnt offering of all the people of the land. Offer their grain offering and their drink offering.
Splash against this altar the blood from all the burnt offerings and sacrifices. But I will use the bronze altar to look for advice and direction.” 16Uriah the priest did just as King Ahaz had ordered.

17Ahaz cut off the sides of the bronze stands. He removed the bowls from the stands. He removed the huge bowl from the bronze bulls it stood on. He placed the bowl on a stone base. 18He took away the covered area that had been used on the Sabbath day. It had been built at the LORD’s temple. He removed the royal entrance that was outside the temple. Ahaz did all these things to honor the king of Assyria.

19The other events of the rule of Ahaz are written down. Everything he did is written in the official records of the kings of Judah. 20Ahaz joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in the family tomb in the City of David. Ahaz’s son Hezekiah became the next king after him.

2 Kings 17

Hoshea the Last King of Israel

[1]Hoshea became king of Israel in Samaria. It was in the 12th year that Ahaz was king of Judah. Hoshea ruled for nine years. He was the son of Elah. [2]Hoshea did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD. But he wasn't as evil as the kings of Israel who ruled before him.

[3]Shalmaneser came up to attack Hoshea. Shalmaneser was king of Assyria. He had been Hoshea's master. He had forced Hoshea to bring him gifts. [4]But the king of Assyria found out that Hoshea had turned against him. Hoshea had sent messengers to So, the king of Egypt. Hoshea didn't send gifts to the king of Assyria anymore. He had been sending them every year. So Shalmaneser grabbed him and put him in prison. [5]The king of Assyria marched into the whole land of Israel. He marched to Samaria and surrounded it for three years. From time to time he attacked it. [6]Finally, the king of Assyria captured Samaria. It was in the ninth year of Hoshea. The king of Assyria took the Israelites away from their own land. He sent them off to Assyria. He made some of them live in Halah. He made others live in Gozan on the Habor River. And he made others live in the towns of the Medes.

Israel Is Forced to Leave the Land Because of Sin

[7]All of this took place because the Israelites had sinned against the LORD their God. He had brought them up out of Egypt. He had brought them out from under the power of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. But they worshiped other gods. [8]The LORD had driven out other nations to make room for Israel. But they followed the evil practices of those nations. They also followed the practices that the kings of Israel had started. [9]The Israelites did things in secret against the LORD their God. What they did wasn't right. They built high places for worship in all their towns. They built them at lookout towers. They also built them at cities that had high walls around them. [10]They set up sacred stones. And they set up poles used to worship the female god named Asherah. They did that on every high hill and under every green tree. [11]The LORD had driven out nations to make room for Israel. But the Israelites burned incense at every high place, just as those nations had done. The Israelites did evil things that made the LORD very angry. [12]They worshiped statues of gods. They did it even though the LORD had said, “Do not do that.” 13The LORD warned Israel and Judah through all his prophets and seers. He said, “Turn from your evil ways. Keep my commands and rules. Obey every part of my Law. I commanded your people who lived long ago to obey it. And I gave it to you through my servants the prophets.”

14But the people wouldn’t listen. They were as stubborn as their people of long ago had been. Those people didn’t trust in the LORD their God. 15They refused to obey his rules. They broke the covenant he had made with them. They didn’t pay any attention to the rules he had warned them to keep. They worshiped worthless statues of gods. Then they themselves became worthless. They followed the example of the nations around them. They did it even though the LORD had ordered them not to. He had said, “Do not do as they do.”

16They turned away from all the commands of the LORD their God. They made two statues of gods for themselves. The statues were shaped like calves. They made a pole used to worship the female god named Asherah. They bowed down to all the stars. And they worshiped the god named Baal. 17They sacrificed their sons and daughters in the fire. They practiced all kinds of evil magic. They gave up following God’s rules. They did only what was evil in the eyes of the LORD. All these things made him very angry.

18So the LORD was very angry with Israel. He removed them from his land. Only the tribe of Judah was left. 19And even Judah didn’t obey the commands of the LORD their God. They followed the practices Israel had started. 20So the LORD turned his back on all the people of Israel. He made them suffer. He handed them over to people who stole everything they had. And finally he threw them out of his land.

21The LORD took control of Israel away from the royal house of David. The Israelites made Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, their king. Jeroboam tried to get Israel to stop following the LORD. He caused them to commit a terrible sin. 22The Israelites were stubborn. They continued to commit all the sins Jeroboam had committed. They didn’t turn away from them. 23So the LORD removed them from his land. That’s what he had warned them he would do. He had given that warning through all his servants the prophets. So the people of Israel were taken away from their country. They were forced to go to Assyria. And that’s where they still are.

Assyria Makes Other People Live in Samaria

[24]The king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Kuthah, Avva, Hamath and Sepharvaim. He made all of them live in the towns of Samaria. They took the place of the people of Israel. They lived in all the towns of Samaria. [25]When they first lived there, they didn't worship the LORD. So he sent lions among them. And the lions killed some of the people. [26]A report was given to the king of Assyria. He was told, "You forced people to leave their own homes and live in the towns of Samaria. But they don't know what the god of that country requires. So he has sent lions among them. And the lions are killing the people off. That's because the people don't know what that god requires."

[27]Then the king of Assyria gave an order. He said, "Get one of the priests you captured from Samaria. Send him back to live there. Have him teach the people what the god of that land requires." [28]So a priest went back to live in Bethel. He was one of the priests who had been forced to leave Samaria. He taught the people of Bethel how to worship the LORD.

[29]In spite of that, the people from each nation made statues of their own gods. They made them in all the towns where they had been forced to live. They set up those statues in small temples. The people of Samaria had built the temples at the high places. [30]The people from Babylon made statues of the god named Sukkoth Benoth. Those from Kuthah made statues of the god named Nergal. Those from Hamath made statues of the god named Ashima. [31]The Avvites made statues of the gods named Nibhaz and Tartak. The Sepharvites sacrificed their children in the fire to the gods named Adrammelek and Anammelek. They were the gods of Sepharvaim. [32]So the people of Samaria worshiped the LORD. But they also appointed all kinds of their own people to be their priests. The priests served in the small temples at the high places. [33]The people worshiped the LORD. But they also served their own gods. They followed the evil practices of the nations they had been taken from.

[34]The people of Samaria are still stubborn. They continue in their old practices to this day. And now they don't even worship the LORD. They don't follow his directions and rules. They don't obey his laws and commands. The LORD had given all these laws to the family of Jacob. He gave the name Israel to Jacob. [35]The LORD made a covenant with the Israelites. At that time he commanded them, "Do not worship any other gods. Do not bow down to them. Do not serve them or sacrifice to them. [36]The LORD is the one you must worship. The LORD brought you up out of Egypt by his great power. He saved you by reaching out his mighty arm. You must bow down only to him. You must offer sacrifices only to him. [37]You must always be careful to follow his directions and rules. You must obey the laws and commands he wrote for you. Do not worship other gods.

38Do not forget the covenant I made with you. And remember, you must not worship other gods. 39Instead, worship the LORD your God. He will save you from the powerful hand of all your enemies."

40But the people wouldn't listen. Instead, they were stubborn. They continued in their old practices. 41They worshiped the LORD. But at the same time, they served the statues of their gods. And to this day their children and grandchildren continue to do what their people before them did.

2 Kings 18

Hezekiah King of Judah

[1]Hezekiah began to rule as king over Judah. It was in the third year that Hoshea was king of Israel. He was the son of Elah. Hezekiah was the son of Ahaz. [2]Hezekiah was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 29 years. His mother's name was Abijah. She was the daughter of Zechariah. [3]Hezekiah did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as King David had done. [4]Hezekiah removed the high places. He smashed the sacred stones. He cut down the poles used to worship the female god named Asherah. He broke into pieces the bronze snake Moses had made. Up to that time the Israelites had been burning incense to it. They called it Nehushtan.

[5]Hezekiah trusted in the LORD, the God of Israel. There was no one like Hezekiah among all the kings of Judah. There was no king like him either before him or after him. [6]Hezekiah remained faithful to the LORD. He didn't stop serving him. He obeyed the commands the LORD had given Moses. [7]The LORD was with Hezekiah. Because of that, Hezekiah was successful in everything he did. He refused to remain under the control of the king of Assyria. He didn't serve him. [8]He won the war against the Philistines. He won battles at their lookout towers. He won battles at their cities that had high walls around them. He won battles against the Philistines all the way to Gaza and its territory.

[9]Shalmaneser marched to Samaria and surrounded it. It was in the fourth year of King Hezekiah. That was the seventh year of Hoshea, the king of Israel. Hoshea was the son of Elah. Shalmaneser was king of Assyria. [10]At the end of three years the army of Assyria captured Samaria. That happened in the sixth year of Hezekiah's rule. It was the ninth year of the rule of Hoshea, the king of Israel. [11]The king of Assyria took the people of Israel away from their own land. He sent them off to Assyria. He made some of them live in Halah. He made others live in Gozan on the Habor River. And he made others live in the towns of the Medes. [12]These things happened because the Israelites hadn't obeyed the LORD their God. They had broken the covenant he had made with them. They had refused to do everything Moses, the servant of the LORD, had commanded. They hadn't paid any attention to those commands. They hadn't obeyed them.

[13]Sennacherib attacked and captured all the cities of Judah that had high walls around them. It was in the 14th year of the rule of Hezekiah. Sennacherib was king of Assyria. [14]Hezekiah, the king of Judah, sent a message to the king of Assyria at Lachish. Hezekiah said, “I have done what is wrong. Pull your troops back from me. Then I’ll pay you anything you ask me to.” The king of Assyria forced Hezekiah, the king of Judah, to give him 11 tons of silver. Hezekiah also had to give him one ton of gold. [15]So Hezekiah gave him all the silver in the LORD’s temple. He also gave him all the silver among the treasures in the royal palace.

[16]Hezekiah, the king of Judah, had covered the doors and doorposts of the LORD’s temple with gold. But now he had to strip it off. He had to give it to the king of Assyria.

Sennacherib Warns Jerusalem

[17]The king of Assyria sent his highest commander from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. He also sent his chief officer and his field commander along with a large army. All of them came up to Jerusalem. They stopped at the channel that brings water from the Upper Pool. The channel was on the road to the Washerman’s Field. [18]The Assyrians called for King Hezekiah. Eliakim, Shebna and Joah went out to them. Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, was in charge of the palace. Shebna was the secretary. Joah, the son of Asaph, kept the records.

[19]The field commander said to them, “Give Hezekiah this message. Tell him, > “ ‘Sennacherib is the great king of Assyria. He says, “Why are you putting your faith in what your king says? [20]You say you have a military plan. You say you have a strong army. But your words don’t mean anything. Who are you depending on? Why don’t you want to stay under my control? [21]Look, I know you are depending on Egypt. Why are you doing that? Egypt is nothing but a broken papyrus stem. Try leaning on it. It will only cut your hand. Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, is just like that to everyone who depends on him. [22]But suppose you say to me, ‘We are depending on the LORD our God.’ Didn’t Hezekiah remove your god’s high places and altars? Didn’t Hezekiah say to the people of Judah and Jerusalem, ‘You must worship at the altar in Jerusalem’?

>
> [23]“ ‘ “Go ahead and make a deal with my master, the king of Assyria. I’ll give you 2,000 horses. But only if you can put riders on them! [24]You are depending on Egypt for chariots and horsemen. You can’t drive away even the least important officer among my master’s officials. [25]Besides, do you think I've come without receiving a message from the LORD? Have I come to attack and destroy this place without a message from him? The LORD himself told me to march out against your country. He told me to destroy it." ' "

[26]Then Shebna, Joah and Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, spoke to the field commander. They said, "Please speak to us in the Aramaic language. We understand it. Don't speak to us in Hebrew. If you do, the people sitting on the city wall will be able to understand you."

[27]But the commander replied, "My master sent me to say these things. Are these words only for your master and you to hear? Aren't they also for the people sitting on the wall? They are going to suffer just like you. They'll have to eat their own waste. They'll have to drink their own urine."

[28]Then the commander stood up and spoke in the Hebrew language. He called out, "Pay attention to what the great king of Assyria is telling you. [29]He says, 'Don't let Hezekiah trick you. He can't save you from my power. [30]Don't let Hezekiah talk you into trusting in the LORD. Don't believe him when he says, "You can be sure that the LORD will save us. This city will not be handed over to the king of Assyria." '

[31]"Don't listen to Hezekiah. The king of Assyria says, 'Make a peace treaty with me. Come over to my side. Then each one of you will eat fruit from your own vine and fig tree. Each one of you will drink water from your own well. [32]You will do that until I come back. Then I'll take you to a land just like yours. It's a land that has a lot of grain and fresh wine. It has plenty of bread and vineyards. It has olive trees and honey. So choose life! Don't choose death!'

"Don't pay any attention to Hezekiah. He's telling you a lie when he says, 'The LORD will save us.' [33]Has the god of any nation ever saved his land from the power of the king of Assyria? [34]Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena and Ivvah? Have they saved Samaria from my power? [35]Which one of all the gods of those countries has been able to save his land from me? So how can the LORD save Jerusalem from my power?"

[36]But the people remained silent. They didn't say anything. That's because King Hezekiah had commanded, "Don't answer him."

[37]Then Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, went to Hezekiah. Eliakim was in charge of the palace. Shebna the secretary went with him. So did Joah, the son of Asaph. Joah kept the records. All of them went to Hezekiah with their clothes torn. They told him what the field commander had said.

2 Kings 19

Isaiah Prophesies That Jerusalem Will Be Saved

[1]When King Hezekiah heard what the field commander had said, he tore his clothes. He put on the rough clothing people wear when they're sad. Then he went into the LORD's temple. [2]Hezekiah sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace, to Isaiah the prophet. Isaiah was the son of Amoz. Hezekiah also sent to Isaiah the leading priests and Shebna the secretary. All of them were wearing the same rough clothing. [3]They told Isaiah, "Hezekiah says, 'Today we're in great trouble. The LORD is warning us. He's bringing shame on us. Sometimes babies come to the moment when they should be born. But their mothers aren't strong enough to allow them to be born. Today we are like those mothers. We aren't strong enough to save ourselves. [4]Perhaps the LORD your God will hear everything the field commander has said. His master, the king of Assyria, has sent him to make fun of the living God. Maybe the LORD your God will punish him for what he has heard him say. So pray for the remaining people who are still alive here.' "

[5]King Hezekiah's officials came to Isaiah. [6]Then Isaiah said to them, "Tell your master, 'The LORD says, "Do not be afraid of what you have heard. The officers of the king of Assyria have spoken evil things against me. [7]Listen! I will send him news from his own country. It will make him want to return home. There I will have him killed by a sword." ' "

[8]The field commander heard that the king of Assyria had left Lachish. So the commander pulled his troops back from Jerusalem. He went to join the king. He found out that the king was fighting against Libnah.

[9]During that time Sennacherib received a report. He was told that Tirhakah was marching out to fight against him. Tirhakah was the king of Cush. Sennacherib sent messengers again to Hezekiah with a letter. Sennacherib said, [10]"Tell Hezekiah, the king of Judah, 'Don't let the god you depend on trick you. He says, "Jerusalem will not be handed over to the king of Assyria." But don't believe him. [11]I'm sure you have heard about what the kings of Assyria have done to all the other countries. They have destroyed them completely. So do you think you will be saved? [12]The kings who ruled before me destroyed many nations. Did the gods of those nations save them? Did the gods of Gozan, Harran or Rezeph save them? What about the gods of the people of Eden who were in Tel Assar? [13]Where is the king of Hamath? Where is the king of Arpad? Where are the kings of Lair, Sepharvaim, Hena and Ivvah?' "

Hezekiah's Prayer

[14]When Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers, he read it. Then he went up to the LORD's temple. There he spread the letter out in front of the LORD. [15]Hezekiah prayed to the LORD. He said, "LORD, you are the God of Israel. You sit on your throne between the cherubim. You alone are God over all the kingdoms on earth. You have made heaven and earth. [16]Listen, LORD. Hear us. Open your eyes, LORD. Look at the trouble we're in. Listen to what Sennacherib is saying. You are the living God. And he dares to make fun of you!

[17]"LORD, it's true that the kings of Assyria have completely destroyed many nations and their lands. [18]They have thrown the statues of the gods of those nations into the fire. And they have destroyed them. That's because they weren't really gods at all. They were nothing but statues made out of wood and stone. They were made by human hands. [19]LORD our God, save us from the power of Sennacherib. Then all the kingdoms of the earth will know that you alone are the LORD. You alone are God."

Isaiah Prophesies That Sennacherib Will Fall From Power

[20]Isaiah sent a message to Hezekiah. Isaiah was the son of Amoz. Isaiah said, "The LORD is the God of Israel. The LORD says, 'I have heard your prayer about Sennacherib, the king of Assyria.' [21]Here is the message the LORD has spoken against him. The LORD says,

" 'You will not win the battle over Zion.
  Its people hate you and make fun of you.
The people of Jerusalem lift up their heads proudly as you run away.
[22]Who have you laughed at?
  Who have you spoken evil things against?
  Who have you raised your voice against?
Who have you looked at so proudly?
  You have done it against me.
  I am the Holy One of Israel!
[23]Through your messengers

you have dared to make fun of the Lord.
And you have said,
“I have many chariots.
With them I have gone to the tops of the mountains.
I’ve climbed the highest mountains in Lebanon.
I’ve cut down its tallest cedar trees.
I’ve cut down the best of its juniper trees.
I’ve reached its farthest parts.
I’ve reached its finest forests.
24I’ve dug wells in strange lands.
I’ve drunk the water from them.
I’ve walked through all of Egypt’s streams.
I’ve dried up every one of them.”

25“ ‘But I, the LORD, say, “Haven’t you heard what I have done?
Long ago I arranged for you to do all of that.
In days of old I planned it.
Now I have made it happen.
You have turned cities with high walls into piles of stone.
26Their people do not have any power left.
They are troubled and put to shame.
They are like plants in the field.
They are like new green plants.
They are like grass that grows on a roof.
It dries up before it is completely grown.

27“ ‘ “But I know where you are.
I know when you come and go.
I know how very angry you are with me.
28You roar against me and brag.
And I have heard your bragging.
So I will put my hook in your nose.
I will put my bit in your mouth.
And I will make you go home by the same way you came.” ’ ”

29The LORD said, “Hezekiah, here is a miraculous sign for you.

“This year you will eat what grows by itself.
In the second year you will eat what grows from that.
But in the third year you will plant your crops and gather them in.
You will plant your grapevines and eat their fruit.
30Those who remain from the kingdom of Judah will be like plants.
Once more they will put down roots and produce fruit.
31Out of Jerusalem will come those who remain.
Out of Mount Zion will come those who survive.

“The LORD’s great love will make sure that happens.
He rules over all.

32“Here is a message from me about the king of Assyria. The LORD says,

“ ‘The king of Assyria will not enter this city.
He will not even shoot an arrow at it.
He will not come near it with a shield.
He will not build a ramp in order to climb over its walls.
33By the same way he came he will go home.
He will not enter this city,’ announces the LORD.
34“ ‘I will guard this city and save it.
I will do it for myself. And I will do it for my servant David.’ ”

35That night the angel of the LORD went into the camp of the Assyrians. He put to death 185,000 people there. The people of Jerusalem got up the next morning and looked out at the camp. There were all the dead bodies! 36So Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, took the army tents down. Then he left. He returned to Nineveh and stayed there.

37One day Sennacherib was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisrok. His sons Adrammelek and Sharezer killed him with their swords. Then they escaped to the land of Ararat. Esarhaddon became the next king after his father Sennacherib.

2 Kings 20

Hezekiah Becomes Sick

[1]In those days Hezekiah became very sick. He was about to die. Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, went to him. Isaiah told Hezekiah, “The LORD says, ‘Put everything in order. Make out your will. You are going to die soon. You will not get well again.’ ”
[2]Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall. He prayed to the LORD. He said, [3]“LORD, please remember how faithful I’ve been to you. I’ve lived the way you wanted me to. I’ve served you with all my heart. I’ve done what is good in your sight.” And Hezekiah wept bitterly.
[4]Isaiah was leaving the middle courtyard. Before he had left it, a message came to him from the LORD. He said, [5]“Go back and speak to Hezekiah. He is the ruler of my people. Tell him, ‘The LORD, the God of King David, says, “I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. And I will heal you. On the third day from now you will go up to my temple. [6]I will add 15 years to your life. And I will save you and this city from the power of the king of Assyria. I will guard this city. I will do it for myself. And I will do it for my servant David.” ’ ” [7]Then Isaiah said, “Press some figs together. Spread them on a piece of cloth.”
So that’s what they did. Then they applied it to Hezekiah’s boil. And he got well again.
[8]Hezekiah had said to Isaiah, “You say the LORD will heal me. You say that I’ll go up to his temple on the third day from now. What will the sign be to prove he’ll really do that?”
[9]Isaiah answered, “The LORD will do what he has promised. Here is his sign to you. Do you want the shadow the sun makes to go forward ten steps? Or do you want it to go back ten steps?” [10]“It’s easy for the shadow to go forward ten steps,” said Hezekiah. “So have it go back ten steps.”
[11]Then Isaiah the prophet called out to the LORD. And the LORD made the shadow go back ten steps. It went back the ten steps it had gone down on the stairway Ahaz had made.

Messengers Come From Babylon to Hezekiah

[12]At that time Marduk-Baladan, the king of Babylon, sent Hezekiah letters and a gift. He had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. Marduk-Baladan was the son of Baladan. [13]Hezekiah received the messengers. He showed them everything in his storerooms. He showed them the silver and gold. He showed them the spices and the fine olive oil. He showed them where he kept his weapons. And he showed them all his treasures. In fact, he showed them everything in his palace and in his whole kingdom.

[14]Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah. He asked him, “What did those men say? Where did they come from?”

“They came from a land far away,” Hezekiah said. “They came from Babylon.”

[15]The prophet asked, “What did they see in your palace?”

“They saw everything in my palace,” Hezekiah said. “I showed them all my treasures.”

[16]Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Listen to the LORD’s message. He says, [17]‘You can be sure the time will come when everything in your palace will be carried off to Babylon. Everything the kings before you have stored up until this day will be taken away. There will not be anything left,’ says the LORD. [18]‘Some of the members of your family line will be taken away. They will be your own flesh and blood. They will include the children who will be born into your family line in years to come. And they will serve the king of Babylon in his palace.’ ”

[19]“The message the LORD has spoken through you is good,” Hezekiah replied. He thought, “There will be peace and safety while I’m still living.”

[20]The other events of the rule of Hezekiah are written down. That includes how he made the pool and the tunnel. He used them to bring water into Jerusalem. Everything he accomplished is written in the official records of the kings of Judah. [21]Hezekiah joined the members of his family who had already died. Hezekiah’s son Manasseh became the next king after him.

2 Kings 21

Manasseh King of Judah

[1]Manasseh was 12 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 55 years. His mother's name was Hephzibah. [2]Manasseh did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD. He followed the practices of the nations. The LORD hated those practices. He had driven those nations out to make room for the Israelites.
[3]Manasseh rebuilt the high places. His father Hezekiah had destroyed them.
Manasseh also set up altars to the god named Baal. He made a pole used to worship the female god named Asherah. Ahab, the king of Israel, had done those same things. Manasseh even bowed down to all the stars. And he worshiped them. [4]He built altars in the LORD's temple. The LORD had said about his temple, "I will put my Name there in Jerusalem." [5]In the two courtyards of the LORD's temple Manasseh built altars to honor all the stars. [6]He sacrificed his own son in the fire to another god. He practiced all kinds of evil magic. He got messages from those who had died. He talked to the spirits of the dead. He did many things that were evil in the eyes of the LORD. Manasseh made the LORD very angry.

[7]Manasseh had carved a pole used to worship the female god named Asherah.
He put it in the temple. The LORD had spoken to David and his son Solomon about the temple. He had said, "My Name will be in this temple and in Jerusalem forever. Out of all the cities in the tribes of Israel I have chosen Jerusalem. [8]I gave this land to your people who lived long ago. I will not make the Israelites wander away from it again. But they must be careful to do everything I commanded them. They must obey the whole Law that my servant Moses gave them." [9]But the people didn't pay any attention. Manasseh led them astray. They did more evil things than the nations the LORD had destroyed. He had destroyed them to make room for the Israelites.

[10]The LORD spoke through his servants the prophets. He said, [11]"Manasseh, the king of Judah, has committed terrible sins. I hate them. Manasseh has done more evil things than the Amorites who were in the land before him. And he has led Judah to commit sin by worshiping his statues of gods. [12]I am the LORD, the God of Israel. I tell you, 'I am going to bring trouble on Jerusalem and Judah. It will be so horrible that the ears of everyone who hears about it will tingle. [13]I will measure out punishment against Jerusalem, just as I did against Samaria. I used a plumb line against the royal family of Ahab. I used it to prove that they did not measure up to my standards. I will use the same plumb line against Jerusalem. I will wipe out Jerusalem, just as someone wipes a dish. I will wipe it and turn it upside down. [14]I will desert those who remain among my people. I will hand them over to their enemies. All their enemies will rob them. [15]That's because my people have done what is evil in my sight. They have made me very angry. They have done that from the day their own people came out of Egypt until this day.' "

[16]Manasseh also spilled the blood of many people who weren't guilty of doing anything wrong. He spilled so much blood that he filled Jerusalem with it from one end of the city to the other. And he caused Judah to commit sin. So they also did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD.

[17]The other events of the rule of Manasseh are written down. That includes the sin he committed. Everything he did is written in the official records of the kings of Judah. [18]Manasseh joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in his palace garden. It was called the garden of Uzza. Manasseh's son Amon became the next king after him.

Amon King of Judah

[19]Amon was 22 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for two years. His mother's name was Meshullemeth. She was the daughter of Haruz. She was from Jotbah. [20]Amon did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Manasseh had done. [21]He lived the way his father had lived. He worshiped the statues of the gods his father had worshiped. He bowed down to them. [22]He deserted the LORD, the God of his people. He didn't obey the LORD.

[23]Amon's officials made plans against him. They murdered the king in his palace. [24]Then the people of the land killed all those officials who had made plans against King Amon. Then the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place.

[25]The other events of the rule of Amon are written down. Everything he did is written in the official records of the kings of Judah. [26]Amon was buried in his grave in the garden of Uzza. Amon's son Josiah became the next king after him.

2 Kings 22

Hilkiah Finds the Book of the Law

[1]Josiah was eight years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 31 years. His mother's name was Jedidah. She was the daughter of Adaiah. She was from Bozkath. [2]Josiah did what was right in the eyes of the LORD. He lived the way King David had lived. He didn't turn away from it to the right or the left.

[3]King Josiah sent his secretary Shaphan to the LORD's temple. It was in the 18th year of Josiah's rule. Shaphan was the son of Azaliah. Azaliah was the son of Meshullam. Josiah said, [4]"Go up to Hilkiah the high priest. Have him add up the money that has been brought into the LORD's temple. The men who guard the doors have collected it from the people. [5]Have them put all the money in the care of certain men. These men have been put in charge of the work on the LORD's temple. Have them pay the workers who repair it. [6]Have them pay the builders and those who work with wood. Have them pay those who lay the stones. Also have them buy lumber and blocks of stone to repair the temple. [7]But they don't have to report how they use the money that is given to them. That's because they are completely honest."

[8]Hilkiah the high priest spoke to Shaphan the secretary. Hilkiah said, "I've found the Book of the Law in the LORD's temple." Hilkiah gave it to Shaphan, who read it. [9]Then Shaphan went to King Josiah. Shaphan told him, "Your officials have paid out the money that was in the LORD's temple. They've put it in the care of the workers and directors there." [10]Shaphan continued, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." Shaphan read some of it to the king.

[11]The king heard the words of the Book of the Law. When he did, he tore his royal robes. [12]He gave orders to Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Akbor, Shaphan the secretary and Asaiah. Ahikam was the son of Shaphan. Akbor was the son of Micaiah. And Asaiah was the king's attendant. Josiah commanded them, [13]"Go.
Ask the LORD for advice. Ask him about what is written in this book that has been found. Do it for me. Also do it for the people and the whole nation of Judah. The LORD is very angry with us. That's because our people who have lived before us didn't obey the words of this book. They didn't do everything written there about us."

[14]Hilkiah the priest went to speak to Huldah the prophet. So did Ahikam, Akbor, Shaphan and Asaiah. Huldah was the wife of Shallum. Shallum was the son of Tikvah. Tikvah was the son of Harhas. Shallum took care of the sacred robes. Huldah lived in the New Quarter of Jerusalem.

15Huldah said to them, “The LORD is the God of Israel. He says, ‘Here is what you must tell the man who sent you to me. 16Tell him, “The LORD says, ‘I am going to bring horrible trouble on this place and its people. Everything written in the book the king of Judah has read will take place. 17That’s because the people have deserted me. They have burned incense to other gods. They have made me very angry because of the statues of gods their hands have made. So my anger will burn like a fire against this place. And the fire of my anger will not be put out.’ ” ’ 18The king of Judah sent you to ask the LORD for advice. Tell him, ‘The LORD is the God of Israel. He has a message for you about the things you heard. He says, 19“Your heart was tender. You made yourself humble in the eyes of the LORD. You heard what I spoke against this place and its people. I said they would be under a curse. I told them they would be destroyed. You tore your royal robes and wept in front of me. And I have heard you,” announces the LORD. 20“You will join the members of your family who have already died. You will be buried in peace. Your eyes will not see all the trouble I am going to bring on this place.” ’ ”

Huldah’s answer was taken back to the king.

2 Kings 23

Josiah Promises Again to Obey the Covenant

[1]Then the king called together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. [2]He went up to the LORD's temple. The people of Judah and Jerusalem went with him. So did the priests and prophets. All of them went, from the least important of them to the most important. The king had all the words of the Book of the Covenant read to them. The book had been found in the LORD's temple. [3]The king stood next to his pillar. He agreed to the terms of the covenant in front of the LORD. The king promised to serve the LORD and obey his commands, directions and rules. He promised to obey them with all his heart and with all his soul. So he agreed to the terms of the covenant written down in that book. Then all the people committed themselves to the covenant as well.

[4]Certain things in the LORD's temple had been made to honor other gods. They were the god named Baal, the female god named Asherah and all the stars in the sky. The king ordered Hilkiah the high priest to remove those things. The king ordered the priests who were next in rank and the men who guarded the doors to help Hilkiah. Josiah took those things that had been in the LORD's temple and burned them outside Jerusalem. He burned them in the fields in the Kidron Valley. And he took the ashes to Bethel. [5]Josiah got rid of the priests who served other gods. The kings of Judah had appointed those priests to burn incense. They burned the incense on the high places of the towns of Judah. And they burned it on the high places around Jerusalem. They burned incense to honor Baal and the sun and moon. They burned it to honor all the stars. [6]Josiah removed the Asherah pole from the LORD's temple. It had been used to worship the female god named Asherah. He took it to the Kidron Valley outside Jerusalem. There he burned it. He ground it into powder. And he scattered it over the graves of the ordinary people. [7]He also tore down the rooms where the male temple prostitutes stayed. Those rooms were in the LORD's temple. Women had made cloth for Asherah in them.

[8]Josiah brought all the priests from the towns of Judah and destroyed the high places. He destroyed them from Geba all the way to Beersheba. The priests had burned incense on them. Josiah broke down the gate at the entrance of the Gate of Joshua. It was on the left side of Jerusalem's city gate. Joshua was the city governor. [9]The priests of the high places didn't serve at the LORD's altar in Jerusalem. In spite of that, they ate with the other priests. All of them ate bread made without yeast.

10Josiah destroyed the high place at Topheth in the Valley of Ben Hinnom. He didn't want anyone to use the high place to sacrifice his son or daughter in the fire to the god named Molek. 11Josiah removed the statues of horses from the entrance to the LORD's temple. The kings of Judah had set them apart to honor the sun. The statues were in the courtyard. They were near the room of an official named Nathan-Melek. Josiah burned the chariots that had been set apart to honor the sun.

12He pulled down the altars the kings of Judah had set up. They had put them on the palace roof near the upstairs room of Ahaz. Josiah also pulled down the altars Manasseh had built. They were in the two courtyards of the LORD's temple. Josiah removed the altars from there. He smashed them to pieces. Then he threw the broken pieces into the Kidron Valley. 13The king also destroyed the high places that were east of Jerusalem. They were at the southern end of the Mount of Olives. They were the ones Solomon, the king of Israel, had built. He had built a high place for worshiping Ashtoreth. She was the evil female god of the people of Sidon. Solomon had also built one for worshiping Chemosh. He was the evil god of Moab. And Solomon had built one for worshiping Molek. He was the god of the people of Ammon. The LORD hated that god. 14Josiah smashed the sacred stones. He cut down the poles used to worship the female god named Asherah. Then he covered all those places with human bones.

15There was an altar at Bethel. It was at the high place made by Jeroboam, the son of Nebat. Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit sin. Even that altar and high place were destroyed by Josiah. He burned the high place. He ground it into powder. He also burned the Asherah pole. 16Then Josiah looked around. He saw the tombs on the side of the hill. He had the bones removed from them. And he burned them on the altar to make it "unclean." That's what the LORD had said would happen. He had spoken that message through a man of God. The man had announced those things long before they took place.

17The king asked, "What's that stone on the grave over there?"

The people of the city said, "It marks the tomb where the man of God is buried. He came from Judah. He spoke against the altar at Bethel. He announced the very things you have done to it."

18"Leave it alone," Josiah said. "Don't let anyone touch his bones." So they spared his bones. They also spared the bones of the prophet who had come from the northern kingdom of Israel.

19Josiah did in the rest of the northern kingdom the same things he had done at

Bethel. He removed all the small temples at the high places. He made them "unclean." The kings of Israel had built them in the towns of the northern kingdom. The people in those towns had made the LORD very angry. [20]Josiah killed all the priests of those high places on the altars. He burned human bones on the altars. Then he went back to Jerusalem.

[21]The king gave an order to all the people. He said, "Celebrate the Passover Feast to honor the LORD your God. Do what is written in this Book of the Covenant." [22]A Passover Feast like that one had not been held for a long time. There hadn't been any like it in the days of the judges who led Israel. And there hadn't been any like it during the whole time the kings of Israel and Judah were ruling. [23]King Josiah celebrated the Passover Feast in Jerusalem to honor the LORD. It was in the 18th year of his rule.

[24]And that's not all. Josiah got rid of those who got messages from people who had died. He got rid of those who talked to the spirits of people who had died. He got rid of the statues of family gods and the statues of other gods. He got rid of everything else the LORD hates that was in Judah and Jerusalem. He did it to carry out what the law required. That law was written in the book that Hilkiah the priest had found in the LORD's temple. [25]There was no king like Josiah either before him or after him. None of them turned to the LORD as he did. He obeyed the LORD with all his heart and all his soul. He obeyed him with all his strength. He did everything the Law of Moses required.

[26]In spite of that, the LORD didn't turn away from his great anger against Judah. That's because of everything Manasseh had done to make him very angry. [27]So the LORD said, "I will remove Judah from my land. I will do to them what I did to Israel. I will turn my back on Jerusalem. It is the city I chose. I will also turn my back on this temple. I spoke about it. I said, 'I will put my Name there.' " (1 Kings 8:29)

[28]The other events of the rule of Josiah are written down. Everything he did is written in the official records of the kings of Judah.

[29]Pharaoh Necho was king of Egypt. He marched up to the Euphrates River. He went there to help the king of Assyria. It happened while Josiah was king. Josiah marched out to meet Necho in battle. When Necho saw him at Megiddo, he killed him. [30]Josiah's servants brought his body in a chariot from Megiddo to Jerusalem. They buried him in his own tomb. Then the people of the land went and got Jehoahaz. They anointed him as king in place of his father Josiah.

Jehoahaz King of Judah

[31]Jehoahaz was 23 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for three months. His mother’s name was Hamutal. She was the daughter of Jeremiah. She was from Libnah. [32]Jehoahaz did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD. He did just as the kings who had ruled before him had done. [33]Pharaoh Necho put him in chains at Riblah in the land of Hamath. That kept him from ruling in Jerusalem. Necho made the people of Judah pay him a tax of almost four tons of silver and 75 pounds of gold. [34]Pharaoh Necho made Eliakim king in place of his father Josiah. Necho changed Eliakim’s name to Jehoiakim. But he took Jehoahaz with him to Egypt. And that’s where Jehoahaz died. [35]Jehoiakim paid Pharaoh Necho the silver and gold he required. To get the money, Jehoiakim taxed the land. He forced the people to give him the silver and gold. He made each one pay him what he required.

Jehoiakim King of Judah

[36]Jehoiakim was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 11 years. His mother’s name was Zebidah. She was the daughter of Pedaiah. She was from Rumah. [37]Jehoiakim did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD. He did just as the kings who had ruled before him had done.

2 Kings 24

[1]During Jehoiakim's rule, Nebuchadnezzar marched into the land and attacked it. He was king of Babylon. He became Jehoiakim's master for three years. But then Jehoiakim decided he didn't want to remain under Nebuchadnezzar's control. [2]The LORD sent robbers against Jehoiakim from Babylon, Aram, Moab and Ammon. He sent them to destroy Judah. That's what the LORD had said would happen. He had spoken that message through his servants the prophets. [3]These things happened to Judah in keeping with what the LORD had commanded. He brought enemies against his people in order to remove them from his land. He removed them because of all the sins Manasseh had committed. [4]Manasseh had spilled the blood of many people who weren't guilty of doing anything wrong. In fact, he spilled so much of their blood that he filled Jerusalem with it. So the LORD refused to forgive him.

[5]The other events of the rule of Jehoiakim are written down. Everything he did is written in the official records of the kings of Judah. [6]Jehoiakim joined the members of his family who had already died. Jehoiakim's son Jehoiachin became the next king after him.

[7]The king of Egypt didn't march out from his own country again. That's because the king of Babylon had taken so much of his territory. It reached from the Wadi of Egypt all the way to the Euphrates River.

Jehoiachin King of Judah

[8]Jehoiachin was 18 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for three months. His mother's name was Nehushta. She was the daughter of Elnathan. She was from Jerusalem. [9]Jehoiachin did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD. He did just as his father Jehoiakim had done.

[10]At that time the officers of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, marched to Jerusalem. They surrounded it and got ready to attack it. [11]Nebuchadnezzar himself came up to the city. He arrived while his officers were attacking it. [12]Jehoiachin, the king of Judah, handed himself over to Nebuchadnezzar. Jehoiachin's mother did the same thing. And so did all his attendants, nobles and officials.

The king of Babylon took Jehoiachin away as his prisoner. It was in the eighth year of Nebuchadnezzar's rule. [13]Nebuchadnezzar removed the treasures from the LORD's temple. He also removed the treasures from the royal palace. He cut up the gold objects that Solomon, the king of Israel, had made for the temple. That's what the LORD had announced would happen. 14Nebuchadnezzar took all the people of Jerusalem to the land of Babylon as prisoners. That included all the officers and fighting men. It also included all the skilled workers. The total number of prisoners was 10,000. Only the poorest people were left in the land.

15Nebuchadnezzar took Jehoiachin to Babylon as his prisoner. He also took the king's mother from Jerusalem to Babylon. And he took Jehoiachin's wives, his officials and the most important people of the land. 16The king also forced the whole army of 7,000 soldiers to go away to the land of Babylon. Those men were strong and able to go to war. And the king forced 1,000 skilled workers to go to Babylon. 17Nebuchadnezzar made Jehoiachin's uncle Mattaniah king in his place. And Nebuchadnezzar changed Mattaniah's name to Zedekiah.

Zedekiah King of Judah

18Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 11 years. His mother's name was Hamutal. She was the daughter of Jeremiah. She was from Libnah. 19Zedekiah did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD. He did just as Jehoiakim had done. 20The enemies of Jerusalem and Judah attacked them because the LORD was angry. In the end the LORD threw them out of his land.

The Fall of Jerusalem

Zedekiah also refused to remain under the control of Nebuchadnezzar.

2 Kings 25

[1]Nebuchadnezzar was king of Babylon. He marched out against Jerusalem. His whole army went with him. It was in the ninth year of the rule of Zedekiah. It was on the tenth day of the tenth month. Nebuchadnezzar set up camp outside the city. He brought in war machines all around it. [2]It was surrounded until the 11th year of King Zedekiah's rule.

[3]By the ninth day of the fourth month, there wasn't any food left in the city. So the people didn't have anything to eat. [4]Then the Babylonians broke through the city wall. Judah's whole army ran away at night. They went out through the gate between the two walls near the king's garden. They escaped even though the Babylonians surrounded the city. Judah's army ran toward the Arabah Valley. [5]But the Babylonian army chased King Zedekiah. They caught up with him in the plains near Jericho. All his soldiers were separated from him. They had scattered in every direction. [6]The king was captured.

He was taken to the king of Babylon at Riblah. That's where Nebuchadnezzar decided how he would be punished. [7]Nebuchadnezzar's men killed the sons of Zedekiah. They forced him to watch it with his own eyes. Then they poked out his eyes. They put him in bronze chains. And they took him to Babylon.

[8]Nebuzaradan was an official of the king of Babylon. In fact, he was commander of the royal guard. He came to Jerusalem. It was in the 19th year that Nebuchadnezzar was king of Babylon. It was on the seventh day of the fifth month. [9]Nebuzaradan set the LORD's temple on fire. He also set fire to the royal palace and all the houses in Jerusalem. He burned down every important building. [10]The whole Babylonian army broke down the walls around Jerusalem. That's what the commander told them to do. [11]Some people still remained in the city. But Nebuzaradan the commander took them away as prisoners. He also took the rest of the people of the land. That included those who had joined the king of Babylon. [12]But the commander left behind some of the poorest people of the land. He told them to work in the vineyards and fields.

[13]The Babylonian army destroyed the LORD's temple. They broke the bronze pillars into pieces. They broke up the bronze stands that could be moved around. And they broke up the huge bronze bowl. Then they carried the bronze away to Babylon. [14]They also took away the pots, shovels, wick cutters and dishes. They took away all the bronze objects used for any purpose in the temple. [15]The commander of the royal guard took away the shallow cups for burning incense.

He took away the sprinkling bowls. So he took away everything made out of pure gold or silver.

16The bronze was more than anyone could weigh. It included the bronze from the two pillars, the huge bowl and the stands. Solomon had made all those things for the LORD's temple. 17Each pillar was 27 feet high. The bronze top of one pillar was four and a half feet high. It was decorated with a set of bronze chains and pomegranates all around it. The other pillar was just like it. It also had a set of chains.

18The commander of the guard took some prisoners. They included Seraiah the chief priest and Zephaniah the priest who was next in rank. They also included the three men who guarded the temple doors. 19Some people were still left in the city. The commander took as a prisoner the officer who was in charge of the fighting men. He took the five men who gave advice to the king. He also took the secretary. He was the chief officer in charge of getting the people of the land to serve in the army. And he took 60 of those people serving in the army who were still in the city. 20Nebuzaradan the commander took all of them away. He brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. 21There the king had them put to death. Riblah was in the land of Hamath.

So the people of Judah were taken as prisoners. They were taken far away from their own land.

22Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, had left some people behind in Judah. He appointed Gedaliah to govern them. Gedaliah was the son of Ahikam. Ahikam was the son of Shaphan. 23All of Judah's army officers and their men heard about what had happened. They heard that the king had appointed Gedaliah as governor. So they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, came. So did Johanan, the son of Kareah. Seraiah, the son of Tanhumeth, also came. And so did Jaazaniah, the son of the Maakathite. All their men came too. Seraiah was from Netophah. 24Gedaliah promised to help them and their men. He spoke in a kind way to them. He said, "Don't be afraid of the Babylonian officials. Make your homes in the land of Judah. Serve the king of Babylon. Then things will go well with you."

25But in the seventh month Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, came with ten men. He killed Gedaliah. He also killed the people of Judah and the Babylonians who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah. Nethaniah was the son of Elishama. Ishmael was a member of the royal family. 26After he had killed Gedaliah, all the people ran away to Egypt. Everyone from the least important of them to the most important ran away. The army officers went with them. All of them went to Egypt because they were afraid of the Babylonians.

Jehoiachin Is Set Free

27 Awel-Marduk set Jehoiachin, the king of Judah, free from prison. It was in the 37th year after Jehoiachin had been taken away to Babylon. It was also the year Awel-Marduk became king of Babylon. It was on the 27th day of the 12th month. 28 Awel-Marduk spoke kindly to Jehoiachin. He gave him a place of honor. Other kings were with Jehoiachin in Babylon. But his place was more important than theirs. 29 So Jehoiachin put his prison clothes away. For the rest of Jehoiachin's life the king provided what he needed. 30 The king did that for Jehoiachin day by day as long as he lived.

1 Chronicles

1 Chronicles 1

A List of Names From Adam to Abraham

A List of Names From Adam to the Sons of Noah

[1]Adam, Seth, Enosh,
[2]Kenan, Mahalalel, Jared,
[3]Enoch, Methuselah, Lamech, Noah.
[4]The sons of Noah were Shem, Ham and Japheth.

The Sons of Japheth

[5]The sons of Japheth were
Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshek and Tiras.
[6]The sons of Gomer were Ashkenaz, Riphath and Togarmah.
[7]The sons of Javan were Elishah, Tarshish, the Kittites and the Rodanites.

The Sons of Ham

[8]The sons of Ham were Cush, Egypt, Put and Canaan.
[9]The sons of Cush were Seba, Havilah, Sabta, Raamah and Sabteka.
The sons of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan.
[10]Cush was the father of Nimrod. Nimrod became a mighty hero on the earth.
[11]Egypt was the father of the Ludites, Anamites, Lehabites and Naphtuhites. [12]He was also the father of the Pathrusites, Kasluhites and Caphtorites. The Philistines came from the family line of the Kasluhites.

[13]Canaan was the father of Sidon. Sidon was his oldest son.
Canaan was also the father of the Hittites, [14]Jebusites, Amorites and Girgashites. [15]And he was the father of the Hivites, Arkites, Sinites, [16]Arvadites, Zemarites and Hamathites.

The Sons of Shem

[17]The sons of Shem were
Elam, Ashur, Arphaxad, Lud and Aram.
The sons of Aram were
Uz, Hul, Gether and Meshek.
[18]Arphaxad was the father of Shelah.
Shelah was the father of Eber.
[19]Eber was the father of two sons.
One was named Peleg. That's because the earth was divided up in his time. His brother was named Joktan.
[20]Joktan was the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth and Jerah. [21]He was also the father of Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, [22]Obal, Abimael, Sheba, [23]Ophir, Havilah and Jobab. All of them were sons of Joktan.

[24]Shem, Arphaxad, Shelah, [25]Eber, Peleg, Reu,
[26]Serug, Nahor, Terah,
[27]Abram. Abram was also called Abraham.

The Family of Abraham

[28]The sons of Abraham were Isaac and Ishmael.

The Family Line of Hagar

[29]Here are the members of the family line of Hagar.
Nebaioth was Ishmael's oldest son. Then came Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, [30]Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Hadad, Tema, [31]Jetur, Naphish and Kedemah.
All of them were Ishmael's sons.

The Family Line of Keturah

[32]Here are the sons born to Abraham's concubine Keturah.
They were Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak and Shuah.
The sons of Jokshan were Sheba and Dedan.
[33]The sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanok, Abida and Eldaah.
All of them were from the family line of Keturah.

The Family Line of Sarah

[34]Abraham was the father of Isaac.

The sons of Isaac were Esau and Israel.

The Sons of Esau

[35]The sons of Esau were Eliphaz, Reuel, Jeush, Jalam and Korah.
[36]The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam and Kenaz.
Timna had Amalek by Eliphaz.
[37]The sons of Reuel were Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah.

The People of Seir in Edom

[38]The sons of Seir were Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer and Dishan.
[39]The sons of Lotan were Hori and Homam. Timna was Lotan's sister.
[40]The sons of Shobal were
Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho and Onam.
The sons of Zibeon were
Aiah and Anah.
[41]The son of Anah was Dishon.

The sons of Dishon were Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran and Keran.
42The sons of Ezer were
Bilhan, Zaavan and Akan.
The sons of Dishan were Uz and Aran.

The Rulers of Edom

43Before Israel had a king, there were kings who ruled in Edom.

Bela was the son of Beor. Bela's city was called Dinhabah.
44When Bela died, Jobab became the next king. Jobab was the son of Zerah from Bozrah.
45When Jobab died, Husham became the next king. Husham was from the land of the people of Teman.
46When Husham died, Hadad became the next king. Hadad was the son of Bedad. Hadad had won the battle over Midian in the country of Moab. Hadad's city was called Avith.
47When Hadad died, Samlah became the next king. Samlah was from Masrekah.
48When Samlah died, Shaul became the next king. Shaul was from the town of Rehoboth. It was by a river.
49When Shaul died, Baal-Hanan became the next king. Baal-Hanan was the son of Akbor.
50When Baal-Hanan died, Hadad became the next king. Hadad's city was called Pau. His wife's name was Mehetabel. She was the daughter of Matred. Matred was the daughter of Me-Zahab. 51Hadad also died.

The chiefs of Edom were Timna, Alvah, Jetheth, 52Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon, 53Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar, 54Magdiel and Iram.

They were the chiefs of Edom.

1 Chronicles 2

The Sons of Israel

[1]Here are the names of the sons of Israel. Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun, [2]Dan, Joseph, Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad, Asher.

The Family of Judah

The Family Line From Judah's Sons to Hezron's Sons

[3]The sons of Judah were Er, Onan and Shelah. A woman from Canaan had these three sons by him. She was the daughter of Shua.
Er was Judah's oldest son. He was evil in the LORD's sight. So the LORD put him to death.
[4]Tamar was Judah's daughter-in-law. She had Perez and Zerah by him.
The total number of Judah's sons was five.

[5]The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.
[6]The sons of Zerah were Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Kalkol and Darda. The total number of Zerah's sons was five.
[7]The son of Karmi was Achar.
He brought trouble on Israel. Some things that had been set apart to the LORD in a special way to be destroyed. He took some of those things. When he did that, he disobeyed the LORD's command.
[8]The son of Ethan was Azariah.
[9]Hezron was the father of Jerahmeel, Ram and Caleb.

The Family Line of Ram

[10]Ram was the father of Amminadab.

Amminadab was the father of Nahshon. Nahshon was the leader of the people of Judah.
[11]Nahshon was the father of Salmon.
Salmon was the father of Boaz.
[12]Boaz was the father of Obed.
And Obed was the father of Jesse.

[13]Jesse's first son was Eliab. His second son was Abinadab.
The third was Shimea. [14]The fourth was Nethanel.
The fifth was Raddai. [15]The sixth was Ozem.
And the seventh was David.
[16]Their sisters were Zeruiah and Abigail.
Zeruiah's three sons were Abishai, Joab and Asahel.
[17]Abigail was the mother of Amasa. Amasa's father was Jether. Jether belonged to the family line of Ishmael.

The Family Line of Caleb

[18]Caleb was the son of Hezron. Caleb's wife Azubah had children by him. Jerioth also had children by him. Azubah's sons were Jesher, Shobab and Ardon.
[19]When Azubah died, Caleb married Ephrath. She had Hur by him.
[20]Hur was the father of Uri. And Uri was the father of Bezalel.

[21]When he was 60 years old, Hezron married the daughter of Makir. Makir was the father of Gilead. Hezron slept with his wife, and she had Segub by him.
[22]Segub was the father of Jair. Jair controlled 23 towns in Gilead.
[23]But Geshur and Aram captured Havvoth Jair. They also captured Kenath and the settlements around it. The total number of towns captured was 60.
Hezron, Segub and Jair belonged to the family line of Makir. Makir was the father of Gilead.

[24]Hezron died in Caleb Ephrathah. Abijah was Hezron's wife. She had Ashhur by him. Ashhur was born after Hezron died. Ashhur was the father of Tekoa.

The Family Line of Jerahmeel

[25]Here are the sons of Jerahmeel. He was the oldest son of Hezron.
Ram was Jerahmeel's oldest son. Then came Bunah, Oren, Ozem and Ahijah. [26]Jerahmeel had another wife. Her name was Atarah. She was the mother of Onam.
[27]Here are the sons of Ram. He was the oldest son of Jerahmeel. The sons of Ram were Maaz, Jamin and Eker.
[28]The sons of Onam were Shammai and Jada.
The sons of Shammai were Nadab and Abishur. [29]Abishur's wife was named Abihail. She had Ahban and Molid by him.
[30]The sons of Nadab were Seled and Appaim. Seled died without having any children.
[31]The son of Appaim was Ishi. Ishi was the father of Sheshan. Sheshan was the father of Ahlai.
[32]The sons of Jada were Jether and Jonathan. Jada was Shammai's brother. Jether died without having any children.
[33]The sons of Jonathan were Peleth and Zaza.
They belonged to the family line of Jerahmeel.

[34]Sheshan didn't have any sons. All he had was daughters.

He had a servant from Egypt named Jarha. [35]Sheshan gave his daughter to be married to his servant Jarha. She had Attai by Jarha.
[36]Attai was the father of Nathan.
Nathan was the father of Zabad.
[37]Zabad was the father of Ephlal.
Ephlal was the father of Obed.
[38]Obed was the father of Jehu.
Jehu was the father of Azariah.

[39]Azariah was the father of Helez.
Helez was the father of Eleasah.
[40]Eleasah was the father of Sismai.
Sismai was the father of Shallum.
[41]Shallum was the father of Jekamiah.
And Jekamiah was the father of Elishama.

The Family Groups of Caleb

[42]Caleb was the brother of Jerahmeel.
Caleb's oldest son was Mesha. Mesha was the father of Ziph.
Caleb had another son named Mareshah. Mareshah was the father of Hebron.
[43]The sons of Hebron were Korah, Tappuah, Rekem and Shema.
[44]Shema was the father of Raham.
Raham was the father of Jorkeam.
Rekem was the father of Shammai.
[45]The son of Shammai was Maon.
Maon was the father of Beth Zur.
[46]Caleb had a concubine named Ephah.
She was the mother of Haran, Moza and Gazez.
Haran was the father of Gazez.
[47]The sons of Jahdai were Regem, Jotham, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah and Shaaph.
[48]Caleb had a concubine named Maakah.
She was the mother of Sheber and Tirhanah.
[49]She was also the mother of Shaaph and Sheva. Shaaph was the father of Madmannah. Sheva was the father of Makbenah and Gibea.
Caleb's daughter was Aksah.
[50]All of them belonged to the family line of Caleb.

Hur was the oldest son of Ephrathah.
Hur was the brother of Shobal. Shobal was the father of Kiriath Jearim. [51]Hur was the father of Salma. Salma was the father of Bethlehem. Hur was also the father of Hareph. Hareph was the father of Beth Gader.

[52]Here is the family line of Shobal, the father of Kiriath Jearim. It included Haroeh and half of the people of Manahath. [53]It also included the family groups of Kiriath Jearim. They were the Ithrites, Puthites, Shumathites and Mishraites. The people of Zorah and Eshtaol belonged to these family groups.

[54]Here is the family line of Salma. It included

Bethlehem, the people of Netophah, Atroth Beth Joab, half of the people of Manahath, and the Zorites. [55]It also included the family groups of secretaries who lived at Jabez. They were the Tirathites, Shimeathites and Sucathites. They were the Kenites who belonged to the family line of Hammath. Hammath was the father of the family line of Rekab.

1 Chronicles 3

The Sons of David

[1]Here are the sons of David who were born to him in Hebron.

His first son was Amnon. Amnon's mother was Ahinoam from Jezreel.
The second son was Daniel. His mother was Abigail from Carmel.
[2]The third son was Absalom. His mother was Maakah. She was the daughter of Talmai, the king of Geshur.
The fourth son was Adonijah. His mother was Haggith.
[3]The fifth son was Shephatiah. His mother was Abital.
The sixth son was Ithream. David's wife Eglah had Ithream by him.
[4]These six sons were born to David in Hebron. He ruled there for seven and a half years.

After that, he ruled in Jerusalem for 33 years. [5]Children were born to him there.

They included Shammua, Shobab, Nathan and Solomon. The mother of these four sons was Bathsheba. She was the daughter of Ammiel.
[6]David's children also included Ibhar, Elishua, Eliphelet, [7]Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, [8]Elishama, Eliada and Eliphelet. There were nine of them.
[9]David was the father of all these sons. His concubines also had sons by him. David's sons had a sister named Tamar.

The Kings of Judah

[10]Solomon's son was Rehoboam.
Abijah was the son of Rehoboam.
Asa was the son of Abijah.
Jehoshaphat was the son of Asa.
[11]Jehoram was the son of Jehoshaphat.
Ahaziah was the son of Jehoram.
Joash was the son of Ahaziah.
[12]Amaziah was the son of Joash.

Azariah was the son of Amaziah.
Jotham was the son of Azariah.
[13]Ahaz was the son of Jotham.
Hezekiah was the son of Ahaz.
Manasseh was the son of Hezekiah.
[14]Amon was the son of Manasseh.
Josiah was the son of Amon.
[15]Josiah's first son was Johanan.
Jehoiakim was his second son.
Zedekiah was the third son.
Shallum was the fourth son.
[16]The next king after Jehoiakim was his son Jehoiachin.
After that, Josiah's son Zedekiah became king.

The Royal Family Line After Jehoiachin

[17]Here are the members of the family line of Jehoiachin. He was taken as a prisoner to Babylon.
His sons were Shealtiel, [18]Malkiram, Pedaiah, Shenazzar, Jekamiah, Hoshama and Nedabiah.
[19]The sons of Pedaiah were Zerubbabel and Shimei.
The sons of Zerubbabel were Meshullam and Hananiah. Shelomith was their sister. [20]There were also five other sons. They were Hashubah, Ohel, Berekiah, Hasadiah and Jushab-Hesed.
[21]The family line of Hananiah included
Pelatiah and Jeshaiah. It also included the sons of Rephaiah, Arnan, Obadiah and Shekaniah.
[22]The family line of Shekaniah included Shemaiah and his sons. They were Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah and Shaphat. The total number of men was six.
[23]The sons of Neariah were Elioenai, Hizkiah and Azrikam. The total number of sons was three.
[24]The sons of Elioenai were Hodaviah, Eliashib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah and Anani. The total number of sons was seven.

1 Chronicles 4

Other Family Groups of Judah

[1]The family line of Judah included Perez, Hezron, Karmi, Hur and Shobal.

[2]Reaiah was the son of Shobal and the father of Jahath. Jahath was the father of Ahumai and Lahad. These were the family groups of the people of Zorah.
[3]The sons of Etam were Jezreel, Ishma and Idbash. Their sister was named Hazzelelponi.
[4]Penuel was the father of Gedor. Ezer was the father of Hushah.
These people belonged to the family line of Hur. He was the oldest son of Ephrathah and the father of Bethlehem.

[5]Ashhur was the father of Tekoa. Ashhur had two wives. Their names were Helah and Naarah.
[6]Naarah had Ahuzzam, Hepher, Temeni and Haahashtari by Ashhur. They belonged to the family line of Naarah.
[7]The sons of Helah were Zereth, Zohar, Ethnan [8]and Koz. Koz was the father of Anub and Hazzobebah. He was also the father of the family groups of Aharhel. Aharhel was the son of Harum.

[9]Jabez was more respected than his brothers. His mother had named him Jabez. She had said, “I was in a lot of pain when he was born.” [10]Jabez cried out to the God of Israel. He said, “I wish you would bless me. I wish you would give me more territory. Let your power protect me. Keep me from harm. Then I won’t have any pain.” God gave him what he asked for.

[11]Kelub was the brother of Shuhah and the father of Mehir. Mehir was the father of Eshton. [12]Eshton was the father of Beth Rapha, Paseah and Tehinnah. Tehinnah was the father of Ir Nahash. These were the men of Rekah.

[13]The sons of Kenaz were Othniel and Seraiah.

The sons of Othniel were Hathath and Meonothai. [14]Meonothai was the father of Ophrah.
Seraiah was the father of Joab. Joab was the father of Ge Harashim.
Ge Harashim was called by that name because all its people were skilled workers.
[15]The sons of Caleb were Iru, Elah and Naam. Caleb was the son of Jephunneh.
The son of Elah was Kenaz.
[16]The sons of Jehallelel were Ziph, Ziphah, Tiria and Asarel.
[17]The sons of Ezrah were Jether, Mered, Epher and Jalon.
One of Mered's wives had Miriam, Shammai and Ishbah by him. Ishbah was the father of Eshtemoa. [18]These were the children of Pharaoh's daughter Bithiah. Mered had married her.
His wife from the tribe of Judah had Jered, Heber and Jekuthiel by him. Jered was the father of Gedor. Heber was the father of Soko. Jekuthiel was the father of Zanoah.
[19]Hodiah's wife was the sister of Naham. Her sons were the father of Keilah the Garmite and Eshtemoa the Maakathite.
[20]The sons of Shimon were Amnon, Rinnah, Ben-Hanan and Tilon.
The family line of Ishi included Zoheth and Ben-Zoheth.
[21]Shelah was the son of Judah. The sons of Shelah were Er and Laadah. Er was the father of Lekah. Laadah was the father of Mareshah. He was also the father of the family groups of the linen workers who lived in Beth Ashbea. [22]Other sons of Shelah were Jokim, Joash, Saraph and the men of Kozeba. Moab and Jashubi Lehem were ruled by sons of Shelah. The records of all these matters are very old.
[23]Some of Shelah's sons were potters who lived in Netaim and Gederah. They stayed there and worked for the king.

The Family Line of Simeon

[24]The family line of Simeon included
Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib, Zerah and Shaul. [25]Shallum was Shaul's son.
Mibsam was Shallum's son. Mishma was Mibsam's son.
[26]The family line of Mishma included Hammuel. Hammuel was Mishma's son. Zakkur was Hammuel's son. Shimei was Zakkur's son.

[27]Shimei had 16 sons and six daughters. But his brothers didn't have many children. So their whole family group didn't have as many people as Judah had. [28]Shimei's family group lived in Beersheba, Moladah, Hazar Shual, [29]Bilhah, Ezem, Tolad, [30]Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag, [31]Beth Markaboth, Hazar Susim, Beth Biri and Shaaraim. These were their towns until David became king. [32]Five of the villages around these towns were Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Token and Ashan. [33]The territory of all the villages around these towns reached all the way to Baalath. These were their settlements.

The tribe of Simeon kept its own family history.

[34]Simeon's family line included Meshobab, Jamlech and Joshah. Joshah was the son of Amaziah.
[35]Simeon's family line also included Joel and Jehu. Jehu was the son of Joshibiah. Joshibiah was the son of Seraiah. Seraiah was the son of Asiel.
[36]And the family line included Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah
[37]and Ziza. Ziza was the son of Shiphi. Shiphi was the son of Allon.
Allon was the son of Jedaiah. Jedaiah was the son of Shimri. And Shimri was the son of Shemaiah.
[38]The men whose names are listed above were leaders of their family groups.

Their families greatly increased their numbers. [39]They spread out all the way to the edge of Gedor east of the valley. They looked for grasslands for their flocks. [40]They found grasslands that were rich and good. The land had plenty of room. It was peaceful and quiet. Some of the people of Ham had lived there before.

[41]The men whose names are listed lived at the time when Hezekiah was king of Judah. They came and attacked the Hamites in their homes. They also attacked the Meunites who were there. And they completely destroyed them. What happened to them is clear even to this day. The men of Simeon made their homes where the Meunites had lived. That’s because in that place there were enough grasslands for their flocks. [42]Five hundred of these men came into the hill country of Seir and attacked it. They were led by Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah and Uzziel. These four men were the sons of Ishi. [43]They killed the rest of the Amalekites who had escaped. And they still live there to this day.

1 Chronicles 5

The Family Line of Reuben

[1]Reuben was the oldest son of Israel.
But he slept with his father's concubine. By doing that, he made his father's bed "unclean." That's why his rights as the oldest son were given to the sons of Joseph, the son of Israel. So Reuben isn't listed in the family history as the one who had the rights of the oldest son. [2]Judah also did not have the rights of the oldest son. Judah didn't have them even though he was the leader among his brothers. And a ruler came from his family line. But the rights of the oldest son belonged to Joseph.

[3]Reuben was the oldest son of Israel. Reuben's sons were Hanok, Pallu, Hezron and Karmi.
[4]The family line of Joel includes his son Shemaiah. Gog was the son of Shemaiah.
Shimei was the son of Gog. [5]Micah was the son of Shimei.
Reaiah was the son of Micah. Baal was the son of Reaiah.
[6]And Beerah was the son of Baal. Beerah was a leader of the people of Reuben. Tiglath-Pileser took Beerah as a prisoner to another country. Tiglath-Pileser was the king of Assyria.
[7]Here are the relatives of the family groups of Reuben. They are listed in their family history.
They include Chief Jeiel, Zechariah [8]and Bela. Bela was the son of Azaz. Azaz was the son of Shema. Shema was the son of Joel.

All of them made their homes in the area from Aroer to Nebo and Baal Meon. [9]To the east they made their homes in the land up to the edge of the desert. That desert reaches all the way to the Euphrates River. They made their homes there because their livestock had increased in Gilead.

[10]While Saul was king, the people of Reuben went to war against the Hagrites. They won the battle over them. Then they lived in the houses of the Hagrites. The people of Reuben lived in the entire area east of Gilead.

The Family Line of Gad

[11]The people of Gad lived next to the people of Reuben in Bashan. They spread out all the way to Salekah.

[12]Joel was their chief. Shapham was next. Then came Janai and Shaphat in Bashan.
[13]Here are their relatives family by family. They included Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jakan, Zia and Eber. The total number of them was seven.
[14]These were the sons of Abihail. Abihail was the son of Huri. Huri was the son of Jaroah. Jaroah was the son of Gilead. Gilead was the son of Michael. Michael was the son of Jeshishai. Jeshishai was the son of Jahdo. And Jahdo was the son of Buz.
[15]Ahi was the leader of some of the families of Gad. Ahi was the son of Abdiel. Abdiel was the son of Guni.

[16]The people of Gad lived in the land of Gilead. They lived in the villages of Bashan. They also lived on all the grasslands of Sharon as far as they reached.
[17]All these names were written down in the family history. They were written during the time when Jotham was king of Judah and Jeroboam was king of Israel.
[18]The tribes of Reuben, Gad and half the tribe of Manasseh had 44,760 men able to serve in the army. Each one was able to handle a shield and sword. Each was also able to use a bow. Each was trained for battle. [19]They went to war against the Hagrites, Jetur, Naphish and Nodab. [20]God helped his people fight against the Hagrites and all who were helping them. He handed over all those enemies to his people. That’s because they cried out to him during the battle. He answered their prayers, because they trusted in him. [21]They captured the livestock of the Hagrites. They captured 50,000 camels, 250,000 sheep and 2,000 donkeys. They also took 100,000 people as prisoners. [22]Many others were killed, because God won the battle over them. His people lived in the land until they themselves were taken as prisoners to other countries.

The Family Line of Half of the Tribe of Manasseh

[23]The people in half of the tribe of Manasseh became a very large group. They made their homes in the land from Bashan to Baal Hermon. Baal Hermon is also called Senir. Another name for it is Mount Hermon.

[24]Here are the leaders of their families. They included Epher, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah and Jahdiel. They were brave fighting men. They were also famous and were leaders of their families. [25]But they weren’t faithful to the God of their people. They joined themselves to the gods of the nations of the land and worshiped them. God had destroyed those nations to make room for his people. [26]So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul. He was king of Assyria. He was also called Tiglath-Pileser. He took the tribes of Reuben and Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh to other countries as his prisoners. He took them to Halah, Habor, Hara and the river of Gozan. And that’s where they still are to this day.

1 Chronicles 6

The Family Line of Levi

[1]The sons of Levi were Gershon, Kohath and Merari.
[2]The sons of Kohath were
Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.
[3]Aaron, Moses and Miriam were born into the family line of Amram.
The sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

[4]Eleazar was the father of Phinehas.
Phinehas was the father of Abishua.
[5]Abishua was the father of Bukki.
Bukki was the father of Uzzi.
[6]Uzzi was the father of Zerahiah.
Zerahiah was the father of Meraioth.
[7]Meraioth was the father of Amariah.
Amariah was the father of Ahitub.
[8]Ahitub was the father of Zadok.
Zadok was the father of Ahimaaz.
[9]Ahimaaz was the father of Azariah.
Azariah was the father of Johanan.
[10]Johanan was the father of Azariah. Azariah served as priest in the temple Solomon built in Jerusalem.
[11]Azariah was the father of Amariah.
Amariah was the father of Ahitub.
[12]Ahitub was the father of Zadok.
Zadok was the father of Shallum.
[13]Shallum was the father of Hilkiah.
Hilkiah was the father of Azariah.
[14]Azariah was the father of Seraiah.
And Seraiah was the father of Jozadak.
[15]Jozadak was taken away from his own land. The LORD took the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the land of Babylon. He used Nebuchadnezzar to take them there as prisoners.

16 The sons of Levi were Gershon, Kohath and Merari.
17 The names of the sons of Gershon were Libni and Shimei.
18 The sons of Kohath were
Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.
19 The sons of Merari were
Mahli and Mushi.

Here are the members of the family groups of the Levites. They are listed under the names of their fathers.

20 Gershon was the father of Libni.
Jahath was Libni's son.
Zimmah was Jahath's son.
21 Joah was Zimmah's son.
Iddo was Joah's son.
Zerah was Iddo's son.
And Jeatherai was Zerah's son.
22 The family line of Kohath included his son Amminadab.
Korah was Amminadab's son.
Assir was Korah's son.
23 Elkanah was Assir's son.
Ebiasaph was Elkanah's son.
Assir was Ebiasaph's son.
24 Tahath was Assir's son.
Uriel was Tahath's son.
Uzziah was Uriel's son.
And Shaul was Uzziah's son.
25 The family line of Elkanah included his son Amasai.
Amasai was the father of Ahimoth.
26 Elkanah was Ahimoth's son.
Zophai was Elkanah's son.
Nahath was Zophai's son.

[27]Eliab was Nahath’s son.
Jeroham was Eliab’s son.
Elkanah was Jeroham’s son.
And Samuel was Elkanah’s son.
[28]The sons of Samuel were his first son Joel and his second son Abijah.
[29]The family line of Merari included his son Mahli.
Libni was Mahli’s son.
Shimei was Libni’s son.
Uzzah was Shimei’s son.
[30]Shimea was Uzzah’s son.
Haggiah was Shimea’s son.
And Asaiah was Haggiah’s son.

The Levites Who Were in Charge of the Music

[31]Here are the Levites David put in charge of the music in the house of the LORD. He did it after the ark was placed there. [32]The men used their music to serve in front of the holy tent, the tent of meeting. They served there until Solomon built the temple of the LORD in Jerusalem. They did their work according to the rules they had been given.

[33]Here are the men who served. The list also includes their sons.

The family line of Kohath included
Heman. He led the music.
He was the son of Joel.
Joel was the son of Samuel.
[34]Samuel was the son of Elkanah.
Elkanah was the son of Jeroham.
Jeroham was the son of Eliel.
Eliel was the son of Toah.
[35]Toah was the son of Zuph.
Zuph was the son of Elkanah.
Elkanah was the son of Mahath.
Mahath was the son of Amasai.
[36]Amasai was the son of Elkanah.

Elkanah was the son of Joel.
Joel was the son of Azariah.
Azariah was the son of Zephaniah.
[37]Zephaniah was the son of Tahath.
Tahath was the son of Assir.
Assir was the son of Ebiasaph.
Ebiasaph was the son of Korah.
[38]Korah was the son of Izhar.
Izhar was the son of Kohath.
Kohath was the son of Levi.
And Levi was the son of Israel.
[39]Heman had a relative named Asaph. Asaph served as Heman's helper at his right side.
Asaph was the son of Berekiah.
Berekiah was the son of Shimea.
[40]Shimea was the son of Michael.
Michael was the son of Baaseiah.
Baaseiah was the son of Malkijah.
[41]Malkijah was the son of Ethni.
Ethni was the son of Zerah.
Zerah was the son of Adaiah.
[42]Adaiah was the son of Ethan.
Ethan was the son of Zimmah.
Zimmah was the son of Shimei.
[43]Shimei was the son of Jahath.
Jahath was the son of Gershon.
And Gershon was the son of Levi.
[44]Here are the Levites in the family line of Merari who served as Heman's helpers at his left side. They were relatives of the Kohathites.
Ethan was the son of Kishi.
Kishi was the son of Abdi.
Abdi was the son of Malluk.
[45]Malluk was the son of Hashabiah.
Hashabiah was the son of Amaziah.
Amaziah was the son of Hilkiah.
[46]Hilkiah was the son of Amzi.

Amzi was the son of Bani.
Bani was the son of Shemer.
47Shemer was the son of Mahli.
Mahli was the son of Mushi.
Mushi was the son of Merari.
And Merari was the son of Levi.

48The rest of the Levites were appointed to do all the other work at the holy tent. It was the house of God. 49Aaron and his sons after him brought the offerings. They sacrificed them on the altar of burnt offering. They also burned incense on the altar of incense. That was part of what they did in the Most Holy Room. That's how they paid for the sin of Israel. They did everything just as Moses, the servant of God, had commanded.

50Here are the members of the family line of Aaron.
Eleazar was Aaron's son.
Phinehas was Eleazar's son.
Abishua was Phinehas's son.
51Bukki was Abishua's son.
Uzzi was Bukki's son.
Zerahiah was Uzzi's son.
52Meraioth was Zerahiah's son.
Amariah was Meraioth's son.
Ahitub was Amariah's son.
53Zadok was Ahitub's son.
And Ahimaaz was Zadok's son.

54Here were the places where they made their homes. These places were given to them as their territory. Some were given to the children of Aaron who were from the family group of Kohath. They were given out by casting lots. The first lot was for Kohath.

55In Judah the Kohathites were given Hebron. They also received the grasslands around Hebron. 56But the fields and villages around the city were given to Caleb, the son of Jephunneh. 57So the people in the family line of Aaron received Hebron. It was a city where people could go for safety. Aaron's family line received Libnah, Jattir, Eshtemoa, 58Hilen and Debir. 59They also received Ashan, Juttah and Beth Shemesh. They were given all these towns together with their grasslands.

60 From the tribe of Benjamin they received Gibeon, Geba, Alemeth and Anathoth. They received these towns together with their grasslands.
All these towns were handed out to the family groups of Kohath. The total number of towns was 13.

61 The rest of the members of the family line of Kohath were given ten towns. The towns were from the family groups of half of the tribe of Manasseh.
62 The members of the family line of Gershon were given 13 towns. They received them family group by family group. Most of the towns were from the tribes of Issachar, Asher and Naphtali. The rest were from the other half of the tribe of Manasseh. It's in Bashan.
63 The members of the family line of Merari were given 12 towns. They received them family group by family group. The towns were from the tribes of Reuben, Gad and Zebulun.

64 So the Israelites gave the Levites all these towns and their grasslands.

65 They gave other towns to them from the tribes of Judah, Simeon and Benjamin.

66 Some of the family groups of Kohath were given towns from the tribe of Ephraim as their territory.

67 In the hill country of Ephraim they received Shechem. Shechem was a city where people could go for safety. The Kohathites also received Gezer, 68 Jokmeam, Beth Horon, 69 Aijalon and Gath Rimmon. They were given all these towns together with their grasslands.
70 From half of the tribe of Manasseh the people of Israel gave the towns of Aner and Bileam. They gave them to the rest of the family groups of Kohath. They gave them together with their grasslands.

71 Here is what the members of the family line of Gershon were given.

From half of the tribe of Manasseh they received Golan in Bashan and also Ashtaroth. They received them together with their grasslands.

[72]From the tribe of Issachar they received Kedesh, Daberath, [73]Ramoth and Anem. They received them together with their grasslands.
[74]From the tribe of Asher they received Mashal, Abdon, [75]Hukok and Rehob. They received them together with their grasslands.
[76]From the tribe of Naphtali they received Kedesh in Galilee. They also received Hammon and Kiriathaim. They were given all these towns together with their grasslands.

[77]The members of the family line of Merari make up the rest of the Levites.
Here is what they were given.

From the tribe of Zebulun they received Jokneam, Kartah, Rimmono and Tabor. They received them together with their grasslands.
[78]The tribe of Reuben was across the Jordan River east of Jericho. From that tribe the Merarites received Bezer in the desert, Jahzah, [79]Kedemoth and Mephaath. They received them together with their grasslands.
[80]From the tribe of Gad they received Ramoth in Gilead. They also received Mahanaim, [81]Heshbon and Jazer. They received all these towns together with their grasslands.

1 Chronicles 7

The Family Line of Issachar

[1]The sons of Issachar were Tola, Puah, Jashub and Shimron. The total number of sons was four.
[2]The sons of Tola were Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Ibsam and Samuel. They were the leaders of their families. The total number of fighting men who were listed in the history of the family line of Tola was 22,600. That was when David was king.
[3]The son of Uzzi was Izrahiah.
The sons of Izrahiah were Michael, Obadiah, Joel and Ishiah. All five of them were chiefs. [4]According to their family history, 36,000 of their men were ready for battle. That's because they had many wives and children.
[5]The total number of fighting men who belonged to all the family groups of Issachar was 87,000. The men were listed in their family history.

The Family Line of Benjamin

[6]The three sons of Benjamin were Bela, Beker and Jediael.
[7]The sons of Bela were Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth and Iri. They were the leaders of their families. The total number of sons was five. Their family history listed 22,034 fighting men.
[8]The sons of Beker were Zemirah, Joash, Eliezer, Elioenai, Omri, Jeremoth, Abijah, Anathoth and Alemeth. All of them were the sons of Beker. [9]Their family history listed the leaders of their families. It also listed 20,200 fighting men.
[10]The son of Jediael was Bilhan.

The sons of Bilhan were Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Kenaanah, Zethan, Tarshish and Ahishahar.
[11]All these sons of Jediael were the leaders of their families. There were 17,200 fighting men who were ready to go to war.
[12]The Shuppites and Huppites belonged to the family line of Ir. The Hushites belonged to the family line of Aher.

The Family Line of Naphtali

[13]The sons of Naphtali were Jahziel, Guni, Jezer and Shillem. They belonged to the family line of Bilhah.

The Family Line of Manasseh

[14]Here is the family line of Manasseh.
He had a concubine who was from the land of Aram. She had Asriel and Makir by him. Makir was the father of Gilead.
[15]Makir married a woman from among the Huppites and Shuppites. He had a sister named Maakah.
Another member of Manasseh's family line was Zelophehad. All he had was daughters.
[16]Makir's wife Maakah had a son by him. She named the boy Peresh. He had a brother named Sheresh. The sons of Sheresh were Ulam and Rakem.
[17]The son of Ulam was Bedan.
These were the members of the family line of Makir, the son of Manasseh. Gilead was the son of Makir.
[18]Gilead's sister was Hammoleketh. She was the mother of Ishhod, Abiezer and Mahlah.
[19]The sons of Shemida were Ahian, Shechem, Likhi and Aniam.

The Family Line of Ephraim

[20]Here are the members of the family line of Ephraim.

Shuthelah was Ephraim’s son.
Bered was Shuthelah’s son.
Tahath was Bered’s son.
Eleadah was Tahath’s son.
Tahath was Eleadah’s son.
21Zabad was Tahath’s son.
And Shuthelah was Zabad’s son.
Men from Gath killed Ezer and Elead when they went down to steal their livestock. 22Their father Ephraim mourned for them for many days. His relatives came to comfort him. 23Then he slept with his wife. She became pregnant and had a baby boy. Ephraim named him Beriah. That’s because something bad had happened in his family. 24His daughter was Sheerah. She built Lower and Upper Beth Horon. She also built Uzzen Sheerah.
25Rephah was Beriah’s son.
Resheph was Rephah’s son.
Telah was Resheph’s son.
Tahan was Telah’s son.
26Ladan was Tahan’s son.
Ammihud was Ladan’s son.
Elishama was Ammihud’s son.
27Nun was Elishama’s son.
And Joshua was the son of Nun.
28The lands and settlements of the members of Ephraim’s line included Bethel and the villages around it. Naaran was on the east. Gezer and its villages were on the west. The lands and settlements included Shechem. They also included the villages around Shechem all the way to Ayyah and its villages. 29Along the borders of Manasseh were Beth Shan, Taanach, Megiddo and Dor, together with their villages. The members of the family line of Joseph lived in these towns. Joseph was the son of Israel.

The Family Line of Asher

30The sons of Asher were Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi and Beriah. They had a sister named Serah.
31The sons of Beriah were

Heber and Malkiel. Malkiel was the father of Birzaith.
[32]Heber was the father of Japhlet, Shomer, Hotham and their sister Shua.
[33]The sons of Japhlet were Pasak, Bimhal and Ashvath. They were Japhlet's sons.
[34]The sons of Shomer were Ahi, Rohgah, Hubbah and Aram.
[35]The sons of Shomer's brother Helem were Zophah, Imna, Shelesh and Amal.
[36]The sons of Zophah were Suah, Harnepher, Shual, Beri, Imrah, [37]Bezer, Hod, Shamma, Shilshah, Ithran and Beera.
[38]The sons of Jether were Jephunneh, Pispah and Ara.
[39]The sons of Ulla were Arah, Hanniel and Rizia.
[40]All of them were members of the family line of Asher. They were the leaders of their families. They were fine men. They were brave fighting men. They were outstanding leaders. The total number of men who were ready for battle was 26,000. They were listed in their family history.

1 Chronicles 8

The Family History of Saul

[1]Benjamin was the father of Bela. Bela was his first son.
Ashbel was his second son. Aharah was the third.
[2]Nohah was the fourth. And Rapha was the fifth.
[3]The sons of Bela were Addar, Gera, Abihud, [4]Abishua, Naaman, Ahoah, [5]Gera, Shephuphan and Huram.
[6]Here are the members of the family line of Ehud. They were the leaders of the families who were living in Geba. Later, they were taken away from their own land. They were forced to go to Manahath. [7]The sons of Ehud were Naaman, Ahijah and Gera. Gera took them away from their land. He was the father of Uzza and Ahihud.
[8]Sons were born to Shaharaim in Moab. That happened after he had divorced his wives Hushim and Baara. [9]His wife Hodesh had sons by him. Their names were Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Malkam, [10]Jeuz, Sakia and Mirmah. His sons were the leaders of their families. [11]His wife Hushim had Abitub and Elpaal by him.
[12]The sons of Elpaal were Eber, Misham and Shemed. Shemed built Ono and Lod and the villages around it. [13]Beriah and Shema were also sons of Elpaal. They were the leaders of the families who were living in Aijalon. Beriah and Shema drove out the people who were living in Gath.
[14]Ahio, Shashak, Jeremoth, [15]Zebadiah, Arad, Eder, [16]Michael, Ishpah and Joha were the sons of Beriah.
[17]Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hizki, Heber, [18]Ishmerai, Izliah and Jobab were other sons of Elpaal.
[19]Jakim, Zikri, Zabdi, [20]Elienai, Zillethai, Eliel, [21]Adaiah, Beraiah and Shimrath were the sons of Shimei.
[22]Ishpan, Eber, Eliel, [23]Abdon, Zikri, Hanan, [24]Hananiah, Elam, Anthothijah, [25]Iphdeiah and Penuel were the sons of Shashak.

[26]Shamsherai, Shehariah, Athaliah, [27]Jaareshiah, Elijah and Zikri were the sons of Jeroham.
[28]All these men were the leaders of their families. They were listed as chiefs in their family history. They lived in Jerusalem.

[29]Jeiel lived in the city of Gibeon. He was the father of Gibeon.
Jeiel had a wife named Maakah. [30]His oldest son was Abdon. His other sons were Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, [31]Gedor, Ahio, Zeker [32]and Mikloth. Mikloth was the father of Shimeah. Mikloth and Shimeah also lived in Jerusalem. They lived near their relatives.
[33]Ner was the father of Kish. Kish was the father of Saul. Saul was the father of Jonathan, Malki-Shua, Abinadab and Esh-Baal.
[34]The son of Jonathan was Merib-Baal. Merib-Baal was the father of Micah.
[35]The sons of Micah were Pithon, Melek, Tarea and Ahaz. [36]Ahaz was the father of Jehoaddah.
Jehoaddah was the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri. Zimri was the father of Moza. [37]Moza was the father of Binea. Raphah was Binea's son. Eleasah was Raphah's son. And Azel was Eleasah's son.
[38]Azel had six sons. Their names were Azrikam, Bokeru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah and Hanan. All of them were the sons of Azel.
[39]Here are the sons of Azel's brother Eshek.
Ulam was his first son. Jeush was the second. Eliphelet was the third.
[40]The sons of Ulam were brave fighting men. They could use a bow. They had many sons and grandsons. The total number of sons and grandsons was 150.
All these men belonged to the family line of Benjamin.

1 Chronicles 9

[1]The whole community of Israel was listed in their family histories. They were written down in the records of the kings of Israel and Judah. The people of Judah were taken away from their own land. They were taken as prisoners to Babylon. That’s because they weren’t faithful to the LORD.

The People Who Lived in Jerusalem

[2]The first people who came back from Babylon were some Israelites, priests, Levites and temple servants. They made their homes again in their own towns on their own property.

[3]Some of them lived in Jerusalem. They included people from Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim and Manasseh.

[4]They included Uthai. He was the son of Ammihud. Ammihud was the son of Omri. Omri was the son of Imri. Imri was the son of Bani. Bani belonged to the family line of Perez. Perez was the son of Judah.

[5]The family line of Shelah included his oldest son Asaiah. It also included the sons of Asaiah.

[6]The family line of Zerah included Jeuel.
The total number of the people of Judah was 690.

[7]The family line of Benjamin included

Sallu. He was the son of Meshullam. Meshullam was the son of Hodaviah. Hodaviah was the son of Hassenuah.

[8]Ibneiah was the son of Jeroham.
Elah was the son of Uzzi. Uzzi was the son of Mikri.
Meshullam was the son of Shephatiah. Shephatiah was the son of Reuel. Reuel was the son of Ibnijah.

[9]The total number of the people of Benjamin was 956. They were listed in their family history. All these men were the leaders of their families.

[10]The family line of the priests included

Jedaiah, Jehoiarib and Jakin.

[11]It also included Azariah. He was the son of Hilkiah. Hilkiah was the son of Meshullam. Meshullam was the son of Zadok. Zadok was the son of Meraioth. Meraioth was the son of Ahitub. Azariah was the official who was in charge of the house of God.

[12]Adaiah was the son of Jeroham. Jeroham was the son of Pashhur. Pashhur was the son of Malkijah.

Maasai was the son of Adiel. Adiel was the son of Jahzerah. Jahzerah was the son of Meshullam. Meshullam was the son of Meshillemith. Meshillemith was the son of Immer.

[13]The total number of priests was 1,760. They were the leaders of their families. They were able men. It was their duty to serve in the house of God.

[14]The family line of the Levites included

Shemaiah. He was the son of Hasshub. Hasshub was the son of Azrikam. Azrikam was the son of Hashabiah. Shemaiah belonged to the family line of Merari.

[15]The family line of the Levites also included Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal and Mattaniah. Mattaniah was the son of Mika. Mika was the son of Zikri. Zikri was the son of Asaph.

[16]Obadiah was the son of Shemaiah. Shemaiah was the son of Galal. Galal was the son of Jeduthun.

Berekiah was the son of Asa. Asa was the son of Elkanah. He lived in the villages of the people of Netophah.

[17]The men who guarded the gates were

Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman and other Levites. Shallum was their chief. [18]He was stationed at the King’s Gate on the east side. That duty has continued to this day. These guards belonged to the camp of the Levites.

[19]Shallum was the son of Kore. Kore was the son of Ebiasaph. Ebiasaph was the son of Korah. Shallum and the other Levites in his family belonged to the family line of Korah. They had the duty of guarding the entrances to the tent. From long ago, their people had the duty of guarding the entrance to the house of the LORD.

[20]Long ago Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, was in charge of those who guarded the gate. And the LORD was with him.
[21]Zechariah guarded the entrance to the tent of meeting. He was the son of Meshelemiah.
[22]The total number of the men who were chosen to guard the entrances was 212. They were listed in their family history in their villages.

David and Samuel the prophet had appointed them to their positions. They appointed them because they trusted them. [23]These Levites and their children after them were in charge of guarding the gates of the house of the LORD. The house of the LORD was also called the tent of meeting. [24]The men who guarded the gates were on the four sides of the tent. They were on the east, west, north and south sides. [25]From time to time, their relatives in their villages had to come to help them. They had to share their duties for a week at a time. [26]But the four main men who guarded the gates were Levites. They were trusted with the duty of taking care of the storerooms and the other rooms in the house of God. [27]They spent the night in their positions around the house of God. That's because they had to guard it. They were in charge of the key that opened it each morning.

[28]Some Levites were in charge of the objects that were used when they served at the temple. They counted the objects when they were brought in. They also counted them when they were taken out. [29]Other Levites were appointed to take care of all the other things that belonged to the temple. They also took care of the special flour, wine, olive oil, incense and spices. [30]Some of the priests took care of mixing the spices. [31]There was a Levite named Mattithiah. He was the oldest son of Shallum. Shallum belonged to the family line of Korah. Mattithiah was trusted with the duty of baking the offering bread. [32]The bread was placed on the table every Sabbath day. Some Levites in the family line of Kohath were in charge of preparing the bread.

[33]Those who led the music lived in rooms in the temple. They were the leaders of their Levite families. Their only duty was to lead the music. They had to do that work day and night.

[34]All of them were the leaders of their Levite families. They were listed as chiefs in their family history. They lived in Jerusalem.

The Family History of Saul

[35]Jeiel lived in the city of Gibeon. He was the father of Gibeon.
Jeiel had a wife named Maakah. [36]His oldest son was Abdon. His other sons were Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, [37]Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah and Mikloth. [38]Mikloth was the father of Shimeam. Mikloth and Shimeam lived near their relatives in Jerusalem.
[39]Ner was the father of Kish. Kish was the father of Saul. Saul was the father of Jonathan, Malki-Shua, Abinadab and Esh-Baal.
[40]The son of Jonathan was Merib-Baal. Merib-Baal was the father of Micah.
[41]The sons of Micah were Pithon, Melek, Tahrea and Ahaz. [42]Ahaz was the father of Jadah. Jadah was the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri. Zimri was the father of Moza. [43]Moza was the father of Binea. Rephaiah was Binea's son. Eleasah was Rephaiah's son. And Azel was Eleasah's son.
[44]Azel had six sons. Their names were Azrikam, Bokeru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah and Hanan. They were the sons of Azel.

1 Chronicles 10

Saul Takes His Own Life

[1]The Philistines fought against Israel. The men of Israel ran away from them. But many Israelites were killed on Mount Gilboa. [2]The Philistines kept chasing Saul and his sons. They killed his sons Jonathan, Abinadab and Malki-Shua. [3]The fighting was heavy around Saul. Men armed with bows and arrows caught up with him. They shot their arrows at him and wounded him badly.

[4]Saul spoke to the man who was carrying his armor. He said, “Pull out your sword and stick it through me. If you don’t, these men who aren’t circumcised will come and hurt me badly.”

But the man was terrified. He wouldn’t do it. So Saul took his own sword and fell on it. [5]The man saw that Saul was dead. So he fell on his own sword and died. [6]Saul and his three sons died. All of them died together.

[7]All the Israelites who lived in the valley saw that their army had run away. They saw that Saul and his sons were dead. So the Israelites left their towns and ran away. Then the Philistines came and lived in them.

[8]The day after the Philistines had won the battle, they came to take what they wanted from the dead bodies. They found Saul and his sons dead on Mount Gilboa. [9]So they took what they wanted from Saul’s body. They cut off his head and took his armor. Then they sent messengers through the whole land of the Philistines. They announced the news to the statues of their gods. They also announced it among their people. [10]They put Saul’s armor in the temple of their gods. They hung up his head in the temple of their god Dagon.

[11]The people of Jabesh Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul. [12]So all the brave men of Jabesh Gilead went and got the bodies of Saul and his sons. They brought them to Jabesh. Then they buried the bones of Saul and his sons under the great tree that was there. They didn’t eat anything for seven days.

[13]Saul died because he wasn’t faithful to the LORD. He didn’t obey the word of the LORD. He even asked for advice from a person who gets messages from people who have died. [14]He didn’t ask the LORD for advice. So the LORD put him to death. He turned the kingdom over to David. David was the son of Jesse.

1 Chronicles 11

David Becomes King Over Israel

[1]The whole community of Israel came together to see David at Hebron. They said, “We are your own flesh and blood. [2]In the past, Saul was our king. But you led the men of Israel in battle. The LORD your God said to you, ‘You will be the shepherd over my people Israel. You will become their ruler.’ ”

[3]All the elders of Israel came to see King David at Hebron. There he made a covenant with them in front of the LORD. They anointed David as king over Israel. It happened just as the LORD had promised through Samuel.

David Captures Jerusalem

[4]David and all the men of Israel marched to Jerusalem. Jerusalem was also called Jebus. The Jebusites who lived there [5]said to David, “You won’t get in here.” But David captured the fort of Zion. It became known as the City of David.

[6]David had said, “Anyone who leads the attack against the Jebusites will become the commander of Israel’s army.” Joab went up first. So he became the commander of the army. He was the son of Zeruiah.

[7]David moved into the fort. So it was called the City of David. [8]He built up the city around the fort. He filled in the low places. He built a wall around it. During that time, Joab built up the rest of the city. [9]David became more and more powerful. That’s because the LORD who rules over all was with him.

David’s Mighty Warriors

[10]The chiefs of David’s mighty warriors and the whole community of Israel helped David greatly. They helped him become king over the entire land. That’s exactly what the LORD had promised him. [11]Here is a list of David’s mighty warriors.

Jashobeam was chief of the officers. He was a Hakmonite. He used his spear against 300 men. He killed all of them at one time.

[12]Next to him was Eleazar. He was one of the three mighty warriors. He was the son of Dodai, the Ahohite. [13]Jashobeam was with David at Pas Dammim. The Philistines had gathered there for battle. Israel’s troops ran away from the Philistines. At the place where that happened, there was a field full of barley. [14]The three mighty warriors took their stand in the middle of the field. They didn't let the Philistines capture it. They struck them down. The LORD helped them win a great battle.

[15]David was near the rock at the cave of Adullam. Three of the 30 chiefs came down to him there. A group of Philistines was camped in the Valley of Rephaim. [16]At that time David was in his usual place of safety. Some Philistine troops were stationed at Bethlehem. [17]David really wanted some water. He said, "I wish someone would get me a drink of water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem!" [18]So the three mighty warriors fought their way past the Philistine guards. They got some water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem. They took the water back to David. But David refused to drink it. Instead, he poured it out as a drink offering to the LORD. [19]"I would never drink that water!" David said. "It would be like drinking the blood of these men. They put their lives in danger by going to Bethlehem." The men had put their lives in danger by bringing the water back. So David wouldn't drink it.

Those were some of the brave things the three mighty warriors did.

[20]Abishai was chief over the three mighty warriors. He was the brother of Joab. Abishai used his spear against 300 men. He killed all of them. So he became as famous as the three mighty warriors. [21]He was honored twice as much as the three mighty warriors. He became their commander. But he wasn't included among them.

[22]Benaiah was a great hero from Kabzeel. He was the son of Jehoiada. Benaiah did many brave things. He struck down two of Moab's best fighting men. He also went down into a pit on a snowy day. He killed a lion there. [23]And Benaiah struck down an Egyptian who was seven and a half feet tall. The Egyptian was holding a spear as big as a weaver's rod. Benaiah went out to fight against him with a club. He grabbed the spear out of the Egyptian's hand. Then he killed him with it. [24]Those were some of the brave things Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, did. He too was as famous as the three mighty warriors. [25]He was honored more than any of the 30 chiefs. But he wasn't included among the three mighty warriors. And David put him in charge of his own personal guards.

[26]Here is a list of David's mighty warriors.

Asahel, the brother of Joab
Elhanan, the son of Dodo, from Bethlehem

[27]Shammoth, the Harorite
Helez, the Pelonite
[28]Ira, the son of Ikkesh, from Tekoa
Abiezer from Anathoth
[29]Sibbekai, the Hushathite
Ilai, the Ahohite
[30]Maharai from Netophah
Heled, the son of Baanah, from Netophah
[31]Ithai, the son of Ribai, from Gibeah in Benjamin
Benaiah from Pirathon
[32]Hurai from the valleys of Gaash
Abiel, the Arbathite
[33]Azmaveth, the Baharumite
Eliahba, the Shaalbonite
[34]the sons of Hashem, the Gizonite
Jonathan, the son of Shagee, the Hararite
[35]Ahiam, the son of Sakar, the Hararite Eliphal, the son of Ur
[36]Hepher, the Mekerathite
Ahijah, the Pelonite
[37]Hezro from Carmel
Naarai, the son of Ezbai
[38]Joel, the brother of Nathan Mibhar, the son of Hagri
[39]Zelek from Ammon
Naharai, from Beeroth, who carried the armor of Joab, the son of Zeruiah
[40]Ira, the Ithrite
Gareb, the Ithrite
[41]Uriah, the Hittite
Zabad, the son of Ahlai
[42]Adina, the son of Shiza, the Reubenite, who was chief of the Reubenites and the 30 men with him
[43]Hanan, the son of Maakah
Joshaphat, the Mithnite
[44]Uzzia, the Ashterathite

Shama and Jeiel, the sons of Hotham from Aroer 45 Jediael, the son of Shimri his brother Joha, the Tizite 46 Eliel, the Mahavite
Jeribai and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam Ithmah from Moab
47 Eliel
Obed
Jaasiel, the Mezobaite

1 Chronicles 12

Fighting Men Join David

[1]Some fighting men came to David at Ziklag. They were among those who helped him in battle. David had been forced to hide from Saul, the son of Kish. [2]The men were armed with bows. They were able to shoot arrows or throw stones from a sling with either hand. They were relatives of Saul from the tribe of Benjamin. Here is a list of them.

[3]Their chief Ahiezer and Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite Jeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth Berakah
Jehu from Anathoth
[4]Ishmaiah, the Gibeonite, who was a mighty warrior among the 30 chiefs and a leader of the 30 chiefs
Jeremiah
Jahaziel
Johanan
Jozabad from Gederah
[5]Eluzai
Jerimoth
Bealiah
Shemariah
Shephatiah, the Haruphite
[6]the Korahites Elkanah, Ishiah, Azarel, Joezer and Jashobeam
[7]Joelah and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham from Gedor

[8]Some men of Gad went over to David's side at his usual place of safety in the desert. They were brave fighting men. They were ready for battle. They were able to use shields and spears. Their faces were like the faces of lions. They could run as fast as antelopes in the mountains.

[9]Ezer was their chief.
Obadiah was next in command. Eliab was third.
[10]Mishmannah was fourth. Jeremiah was fifth.
[11]Attai was sixth. Eliel was seventh.

12 Johanan was eighth. Elzabad was ninth.
13 Jeremiah was tenth. And Makbannai was eleventh.

14 All these men of Gad were army commanders. The least important of them was equal to 100 men. The most important was equal to 1,000. 15 They went across the Jordan River when it was flowing over its banks. That happened in the first month of spring. They chased away everyone who lived in the valleys. They chased them away from the east and west sides of the river.

16 Some men from the territories of Benjamin and Judah also came to David at his usual place of safety. 17 David went out to meet them. He said to them, "Have you come to me in peace? Have you come to help me? If you have, I'm ready for you to join me. But suppose you have come to hand me over to my enemies when I haven't even harmed anyone. Then may the God of our people see it and judge you."

18 The Spirit of God came on Amasai. He was leader of the 30 chiefs. He said,

"David, we belong to you!
Son of Jesse, we're on your side!
May you have great success.
May those who help you also have success.
Your God will help you."

So David welcomed them. He made them leaders in his army.

19 Some people from the tribe of Manasseh went over to David's side. They did this when he marched out with the Philistines to fight against Saul. But David and his men didn't help the Philistines. That's because after all the Philistine rulers had discussed the matter, they sent him away. They said, "Suppose he deserts to his master Saul. Then our heads will be cut off!" 20 So David went to Ziklag. Here are the men of Manasseh who went over to his side. They were Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu and Zillethai. They were leaders of groups of 1,000 men in Manasseh. 21 They helped David fight against enemy armies. All the men of Manasseh were brave fighting men. They were commanders in David's army. 22 Day after day men came to help David. Soon he had a large army. It was like the army of God.

Other Fighting Men Join David at Hebron

23 Large numbers of men came to David at Hebron. They were prepared for battle. They came to hand Saul’s kingdom over to him, just as the LORD had said. Here are the numbers of the men who came.

24The men from Judah carried shields and spears. They were prepared for battle. The total number of them was 6,800.

25The fighting men from Simeon were ready for battle. The total number of them was 7,100.

26The total number of men from Levi was 4,600. 27They included Jehoiada. He was the leader of the family of Aaron. He came with 3,700 men. 28The men from Levi also included Zadok. He was a brave young fighter. He came with 22 officers from his family.

29The men from Benjamin were from Saul’s tribe. Most of them had remained faithful to Saul’s family until that time. The total number of them was 3,000.

30The men from Ephraim were brave fighting men. They were famous in their own family groups. The total number of them was 20,800.

31The men from half of the tribe of Manasseh had been chosen by name to come and make David king. The total number of them was 18,000.

32The men from Issachar understood what was going on at that time. They knew what Israel should do. The total number of their chiefs was 200. They came with all their relatives who were under their command.

33The men from Zebulun knew how to fight well. That’s because they had done it many times before. They were prepared for battle. They had every kind of weapon. They came to help David with their whole heart. The total number of them was 50,000.

34The total number of officers from Naphtali was 1,000. They came with 37,000 men who carried shields and spears.

35The men from Dan were ready for battle. The total number of them was 28,600.

36The men from Asher knew how to fight well. That’s because they had done it many times before. They were prepared for battle. The total number of them was 40,000.

37The men from the tribes of Reuben, Gad and half the tribe of Manasseh were armed with every kind of weapon. The men came from the east side of the Jordan River. The total number of them was 120,000.

[38]All these fighting men offered to serve in the army.

Before they came to Hebron, they had agreed completely to make David king over all the Israelites. All the rest of the people also agreed to make David king. [39]The men spent three days there with David. They ate and drank what their families had given them. [40]Their neighbors also brought food. They brought it on donkeys, camels, mules and oxen. They came from as far away as the territories of Issachar, Zebulun and Naphtali. There was plenty of flour, fig cakes, raisin cakes, wine, olive oil, cattle and sheep. The Israelites brought all these things because they were so happy.

1 Chronicles 13

David Brings Back the Ark

[1]David talked with each of his officers. He wanted to get their advice. Some of them were commanders of thousands of men. Others were commanders of hundreds. [2]David spoke to the whole community of Israel. He said, “Let’s send word to the rest of our people no matter how far away they live. They live in all the territories of Israel. Let’s also send word to the priests and Levites who are with them in their towns and on their grasslands. Let’s invite everyone to come and join us. Let’s do it if it seems good to you and if that’s what the LORD our God wants. [3]Let’s bring the ark of our God back here to us. We didn’t use it to ask God for advice during the whole time Saul was king.” [4]So that’s what the whole community agreed to do. It seemed right to them.

[5]David gathered together all the Israelites. They came from the area between the Shihor River in Egypt and Lebo Hamath. They came to bring the ark of God from Kiriath Jearim to Jerusalem. [6]David went to Baalah of Judah. The whole community of Israel went with him. Baalah is also called Kiriath Jearim. All the people went there to get the ark of God the LORD. He sits on his throne between the cherubim. The ark is named after the LORD.

[7]The ark of God was placed on a new cart. Then it was moved from Abinadab’s house. Uzzah and Ahio were guiding it. [8]David was celebrating with all his might in front of God. So was the whole community of Israel. All of them were singing songs. They were also playing harps, lyres, tambourines, cymbals and trumpets.

[9]They came to the threshing floor of Kidon. The oxen nearly fell there. So Uzzah reached out his hand to hold the ark steady. [10]Then the LORD became very angry with Uzzah. The LORD struck him down because he had put his hand on the ark. So Uzzah died there in front of God.

[11]David was angry because the LORD’s great anger had broken out against Uzzah. That’s why the place is still called Perez Uzzah to this day.

[12]David was afraid of God that day. David asked, “How can I ever bring the ark of God back here to me?” [13]So he didn’t take the ark to be with him in the City of David. Instead, he took it to the house of Obed-Edom. Obed-Edom was from Gath. [14]The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom. It stayed in his house for three months. And the LORD blessed his family. He also blessed everything that belonged to him.

1 Chronicles 14

David's Palace and Family

[1]Hiram was king of Tyre. He sent messengers to David. He sent cedar logs along with them. He also sent skilled workers to build a palace for David. They worked with stone and wood. [2]David knew that the LORD had made his position as king secure. He knew that the LORD had made him king over the whole nation of Israel. He knew that the LORD had greatly honored his kingdom. The LORD had done it because the Israelites were his people.

[3]In Jerusalem David married more women. He also became the father of more sons and daughters. [4]Here is a list of the children born to him in Jerusalem. Their names were Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, [5]Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet, [6]Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, [7]Elishama, Beeliada and Eliphelet.

David Wins the Battle Over the Philistines

[8]The Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over the entire nation of Israel. So the whole Philistine army went to look for him. But David heard about it. He went out to where they were. [9]The Philistines had come and attacked the people in the Valley of Rephaim. [10]So David asked God for advice. David asked, "Should I go and attack the Philistines? Will you hand them over to me?"

The LORD answered him, "Go. I will hand them over to you."

[11]So David and his men went up to Baal Perazim. There David won the battle over the Philistines. He said, "God has broken through against my enemies, just as water breaks through a dam." That's why the place was called Baal Perazim. [12]The Philistines had left statues of their gods there. So David gave orders to burn them up.

[13]Once more the Philistines attacked the people in the valley. [14]So David asked God for advice again. God answered him, "Do not go straight after them. Instead, circle around them. Attack them in front of the poplar trees. [15]Listen for the sound of marching in the tops of the trees. Then move out to fight. The sound will mean that I have gone out in front of you. I will strike down the Philistine army." [16]So David did just as God had commanded him. He and his men struck down the Philistine army. They struck them down from Gibeon all the way to Gezer.

[17]So David became famous in every land. The LORD made all the nations afraid of him.

1 Chronicles 15

David Brings the Ark to Jerusalem

[1]David constructed buildings for himself in the City of David. Then he prepared a place for the ark of God. He set up a tent for it. [2]He said, “Only Levites can carry the ark of God. That’s because the LORD chose them to carry his ark. He chose them to serve him forever in front of the place where his throne is.”

[3]David gathered the whole community of Israel together in Jerusalem. He wanted to carry up the ark of the LORD to the place he had prepared for it.

[4]He called together the members of the family line of Aaron. He also called the Levites together. Here are the men who came from the families of the Levites.

[5]From the families of Kohath came the leader Uriel and 120 relatives.
[6]From the families of Merari came the leader Asaiah and 220 relatives.
[7]From the families of Gershon came the leader Joel and 130 relatives.
[8]From the families of Elizaphan came the leader Shemaiah and 200 relatives.
[9]From the families of Hebron came the leader Eliel and 80 relatives.
[10]From the families of Uzziel came the leader Amminadab and 112 relatives.

[11]David sent for Zadok and Abiathar, the priests. He also sent for Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel and Amminadab. They were Levites. [12]He said to them, “You are the leaders of the families of Levi. You and the other Levites must set yourselves apart to serve the LORD and his people. You must carry up the ark of the LORD. He is the God of Israel. Put the ark in the place I’ve prepared for it. [13]Remember when the anger of the LORD our God broke out against us? That’s because it wasn’t you Levites who tried to carry up the ark the first time. We didn’t ask the LORD how to do it in the way the law requires.”

[14]So the priests and Levites set themselves apart. Then they carried up the ark of the LORD. He is the God of Israel. [15]This time the Levites used the poles to carry on their shoulders the ark of God. That's what Moses had commanded in keeping with the word of the LORD.

[16]David told the Levite leaders to appoint other Levites as musicians. He wanted them to make a joyful sound with lyres, harps and cymbals.

[17]So the Levites appointed Heman, the son of Joel. From his relatives they chose Asaph, the son of Berekiah. Other relatives were from the family of Merari. From them they chose Ethan, the son of Kushaiah. [18]Along with them they chose their relatives who were next in rank. Their names were Zechariah, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom and Jeiel. They guarded the gates.

[19]Heman, Asaph and Ethan played the bronze cymbals. [20]Zechariah, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah and Benaiah played the lyres according to alamoth. [21]Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jeiel and Azaziah played the harps according to sheminith. [22]Kenaniah was the leader of the Levites. He was in charge of the singing because he was good at it.

[23]Berekiah and Elkanah guarded the ark. [24]Some of the priests blew trumpets in front of the ark of God. Their names were Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah and Eliezer. Obed-Edom and Jehiah also helped guard the ark.

[25]David and the elders of Israel went to carry up the ark of the covenant of the LORD. So did the commanders of military groups of 1,000 men. With great joy they carried up the ark from the house of Obed-Edom. [26]God had helped the Levites who were carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD. So seven bulls and seven rams were sacrificed. [27]David was wearing a robe made out of fine linen. So were all the Levites who were carrying the ark. And so were the musicians and the choir director Kenaniah. David was also wearing a sacred linen apron. [28]So the whole community of Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD. They shouted. They blew rams' horns and trumpets. They played cymbals, lyres and harps.

[29]The ark of the covenant of the LORD was brought into the City of David. Saul's daughter Michal was watching from a window. She saw King David dancing and celebrating. That made her hate him in her heart.

1 Chronicles 16

Serving God in Front of the Ark

[1]The ark of God was carried into Jerusalem. It was put in the tent David had set up for it. The priests brought burnt offerings and friendship offerings to God.
[2]After David finished sacrificing those offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD. [3]He gave to each Israelite man and woman a loaf of bread.
He also gave each one a date cake and a raisin cake.
[4]He appointed some of the Levites to serve in front of the ark of the LORD.
David wanted them to give honor, thanks and praise to the LORD. He is the God of Israel. [5]Asaph was the leader of those Levites. Zechariah was next in rank.
Then came Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-Edom and Jeiel. They played the lyres and harps. Asaph played the cymbals.
[6]Benaiah and Jahaziel, the priests, blew the trumpets. They blew them at regular times in front of the ark of the covenant of God.

[7]That day was the first time David appointed Asaph and his helpers. He appointed them to give praise to the LORD with these words.

[8]Give praise to the LORD. Make his name known.
Tell the nations what he has done.
[9]Sing to him. Sing praise to him.
Tell about all the wonderful things he has done.
[10]Honor him, because his name is holy.
Let the hearts of those who trust in the LORD be glad.
[11]Look to the LORD and to his strength.
Always look to him.
[12]Remember the wonderful things he has done.
Remember his miracles and how he judged our enemies.
[13]Remember, you his servants, the children of Israel.
Remember, you people of Jacob. Remember, you who are chosen by God.

[14]He is the LORD our God.
He judges the whole earth.

15 He will keep his covenant forever.
He will keep his promise for all time to come.
16 He will keep the covenant he made with Abraham.
He will keep the promise he made to Isaac.
17 He made it stand as a law for Jacob.
He made it stand as a covenant for Israel. It will last forever.
18 He said, “I will give you the land of Canaan.
It will belong to you.”

19 At first there weren’t very many of God’s people.
There were only a few. And they were strangers in the land.
20 They wandered from nation to nation.
They wandered from one kingdom to another.
21 But God didn’t allow anyone to treat them badly.
To keep them safe, he gave a command to kings.
22 He said to them, “Do not touch my anointed ones.
Do not harm my prophets.”

23 All you people of the earth, sing to the LORD.
Day after day tell about how he saves us.
24 Tell the nations about his glory.
Tell all people about the wonderful things he has done.
25 The LORD is great. He is really worthy of praise.
People should have respect for him as the greatest God of all.
26 All the gods of the nations are like their statues.
They can’t do anything.
But the LORD made the heavens.
27 Glory and majesty are all around him.
Strength and joy are in the place where he lives.
28 Praise the LORD, all you nations.
Praise the LORD for his glory and strength.
29 Praise the LORD for the glory that belongs to him.
Bring an offering and come to him.
Worship the LORD because of his beauty and holiness.
30 All you people of the earth, tremble when you are with him.
The world is firmly set in place. It can’t be moved.
31 Let the heavens be filled with joy. Let the earth be glad.

Let them say among the nations, “The LORD rules!”
[32]Let the ocean and everything in it roar.
Let the fields and everything in them be glad.
[33]Let the trees in the forest sing with joy.
They will sing before the LORD.
He will judge the people of the world.

[34]Give thanks to the LORD, because he is good.
His faithful love continues forever.
[35]Cry out, “Save us, God our Savior.
Save us. Bring us back from among the nations.
Then we will give thanks to you, because your name is holy.
We will celebrate by praising you.”
[36]Give praise to the LORD, the God of Israel,
for ever and ever.

Then all the people said, “Amen!” They also said, “Praise the LORD.”

[37]David left Asaph and his helpers to serve in front of the ark of the covenant of the LORD. They served there at regular times. They did it as they were required to do each day. [38]David also left Obed-Edom and his 68 helpers to serve with them. Obed-Edom and Hosah guarded the gates. Obed-Edom was the son of Jeduthun.

[39]David left Zadok the priest and some other priests in front of the holy tent of the LORD. It was at the high place in Gibeon. [40]David left them there to sacrifice burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar every morning and evening. They did it according to everything written in the Law of the LORD. That’s the Law he had given to Israel. [41]Heman and Jeduthun were with the priests. So were the rest of those who had been chosen by name and appointed to serve. They had been chosen to give thanks to the LORD, “because his faithful love continues forever.” [42]It was the duty of Heman and Jeduthun to blow the trumpets. They also had the duty of playing the cymbals and other instruments for the sacred songs. The sons of Jeduthun were stationed at one of the gates.

[43]All the people left. Everyone went home. And David returned home to bless his family.

1 Chronicles 17

God Makes a Promise to David

[1]David moved into his palace. Then he spoke to Nathan the prophet. He said, “Here I am, living in a house that has beautiful cedar walls. But the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under a tent.”

[2]Nathan replied to David, “Do what you want to. God is with you.”

[3]But that night a message came to Nathan from God. He said,

> [4]“‘Go and speak to my servant David. Tell him, ‘The LORD says, “You are not the one who will build me a house to live in. [5]I have not lived in a house from the day I brought Israel up out of Egypt until now. I have moved my tent from one place to another. I have moved my home from one place to another. [6]I have moved from place to place with all the Israelites. I commanded their leaders to be shepherds over my people. I never asked any of those leaders, ‘Why haven’t you built me a house that has beautiful cedar walls?’ ” ’
>
> [7]“‘So tell my servant David, ‘The LORD who rules over all says, “I took you away from the grasslands. That is where you were taking care of your father’s sheep and goats. I appointed you ruler over my people Israel. [8]I have been with you everywhere you have gone. I destroyed all your enemies when you were attacking them. Now I will make you famous. Your name will be just as respected as the names of the most important people on earth. [9]I will provide a place where my people Israel can live. I will plant them in the land. Then they will have a home of their own. They will not be bothered anymore. Sinful people will no longer crush them, as they did at first. [10]That is what your enemies have done ever since I appointed leaders over my people Israel. But I will bring all your enemies under your control.
>
> “ ‘ “I tell you that I, the LORD, will build a royal house for your family. [11]Some day your life will come to an end. You will join the members of your family who have already died. Then I will give you one of your own sons to become the next king after you. I will make his kingdom secure. [12]He is the one who will build me a house. I will set up his throne. It will last forever. [13]I will be his father. And he will be my son. I took my love away from the man who ruled before you. But I will never take my love away from your son. [14]I will place him over my house and my kingdom forever. His throne will last forever.” ’ ”

[15]Nathan reported to David all the words that the LORD had spoken to him.

David’s Prayer

[16]Then King David went into the holy tent. He sat down in front of the LORD. He said, “LORD God, who am I? My family isn’t important. So why have you brought me this far? [17]I would have thought that you had already done more than enough for me. But now, my God, you have spoken about my royal house. You have said what will happen to it in days to come. LORD God, you have treated me as if I were the most honored man of all.

[18]“What more can I say to you for honoring me? You know all about me. [19]LORD, you have done a wonderful thing. You have given me many great promises. All of them are for my good. They are exactly what you wanted to give me.

[20]“LORD, there isn’t anyone like you. There isn’t any God but you. We have heard about it with our own ears. [21]Who is like your people Israel? God, we are the one nation on earth you have saved. You have set us free for yourself. Your name has become famous. You have done great and wonderful things. You have driven out nations to make room for your people. You saved us when you set us free from Egypt. [22]You made Israel your very own people forever. LORD, you have become our God.

[23]“And now, LORD, let the promise you have made to me and my royal house stand forever. Do exactly as you promised. [24]When your promise comes true, your name will be honored forever. People will say, ‘The LORD rules over all. He is the God over Israel. He is Israel’s God!’ My royal house will be made secure in your sight.

[25]“My God, you have shown me that you will build me a royal house. So I can pray to you boldly. [26]You, LORD, are God! You have promised many good things to me. [27]You have been pleased to bless my royal house. Now it will continue forever in your sight. LORD, you have blessed it. And it will be blessed forever."

1 Chronicles 18

David Wins Many Battles

[1]While David was king of Israel, he won many battles over the Philistines. He brought them under his control. He took Gath away from the Philistines. He also captured the villages around Gath.

[2]David also won the battle over the people of Moab. They were brought under his rule. They gave him the gifts he required them to bring him.

[3]David fought against Hadadezer in the area of Hamath. Hadadezer was king of Zobah. He had gone to set up his monument at the Euphrates River. [4]David captured 1,000 of Hadadezer's chariots, 7,000 chariot riders and 20,000 soldiers on foot. He cut the legs of all but 100 of the chariot horses.

[5]The Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer, the king of Zobah. But David struck down 22,000 of them. [6]David stationed some soldiers in the Aramean kingdom of Damascus. The people of Aram were brought under his rule. They gave him the gifts he required them to bring him. The LORD helped David win his battles wherever he went.

[7]David took the gold shields carried by the officers of Hadadezer. He brought the shields to Jerusalem. [8]He took a huge amount of bronze from Tebah and Kun. Those towns belonged to Hadadezer. Later, Solomon used the bronze to make the huge bronze bowl for washing. He also used it to make the pillars and many other bronze objects for the temple.

[9]Tou was king of Hamath. He heard that David had won the battle over the entire army of Hadadezer, the king of Zobah. [10]So Tou sent his son Hadoram to King David. Hadoram greeted David. He praised him because David had won the battle over Hadadezer. Hadadezer had been at war with Tou. So Hadoram brought David all kinds of things made out of gold, of silver and of bronze.

[11]King David set those things apart for the LORD. He had done the same thing with the silver and gold he had taken from other nations. The nations were Edom, Moab, Ammon, Philistia and Amalek.

[12]Abishai struck down 18,000 men of Edom in the Valley of Salt. Abishai was the son of Zeruiah. [13]Abishai stationed some soldiers in Edom. The whole nation of Edom was brought under his rule. The LORD helped David win his battles wherever he went.

David's Officials

[14]David ruled over the whole nation of Israel. He did what was fair and right for all his people.

[15]Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was commander over the army.
Jehoshaphat, the son of Ahilud, kept the records.
[16]Zadok, the son of Ahitub, was a priest. Ahimelek, the son of Abiathar, was also a priest.
Shavsha was the secretary.
[17]Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, was commander over the Kerethites and Pelethites.
And King David's sons were the chief officials who served at his side.

1 Chronicles 19

David Wins the Battle Over the Ammonites

1 Nahash was king of Ammon. After he died, his son became the next king after him. 2 David thought, “I’m going to be kind to Hanun. His father Nahash was kind to me.” So David sent messengers to Hanun. He wanted them to tell Hanun how sad he was that Hanun’s father had died. David’s messengers went to the land of Ammon. They told Hanun how sad David was.

3 The Ammonite commanders spoke to Hanun. They said, “David has sent messengers to tell you he is sad. They say he wants to honor your father. But the real reason they’ve come is to look the land over. They want to destroy it.” 4 So Hanun grabbed David’s messengers. He shaved them. He cut off their clothes just below the waist and left them half naked. Then he sent them away.

5 Someone came and told David what had happened to his men. So David sent messengers to them because they were filled with shame. King David said to them, “Stay at Jericho until your beards grow out again. Then come back here.”

6 The Ammonites realized that what they had done had made David very angry with them. So Hanun and the Ammonites got 38 tons of silver. They used it to hire chariots and chariot riders from Aram Naharaim, Aram Maakah and Zobah.
7 They hired 32,000 chariots and riders. They also hired the king of Maakah and his troops. All of them came out and camped near Medeba. At the same time the Ammonites brought their troops together from their towns. Then they marched out to fight.

8 David heard about it. So he sent Joab out with the entire army of Israel’s fighting men. 9 The Ammonites marched out. They took up their battle positions at the entrance to their city. The kings who came to help them gathered their troops together in the open country.

10 Joab saw that there were lines of soldiers in front of him and behind him. So he chose some of the best troops in Israel. He sent them to march out against the Arameans. 11 He put the rest of the men under the command of his brother Abishai. They were sent to march out against the Ammonites. 12 Joab said, “Suppose the Arameans are too strong for me. Then you must come and help me. But suppose the Ammonites are too strong for you. Then I’ll come and help you. 13 Be strong. Let’s be brave as we fight for our people and the cities of our God. The LORD will do what he thinks is best.”

[14]Then Joab and the troops with him marched out to attack the Arameans. They ran away from him. [15]The Ammonites realized that the Arameans were running away. So they also ran away from Joab’s brother Abishai. They went inside the city. Then Joab went back to Jerusalem.

[16]The Arameans saw that they had been driven away by Israel. So they sent messengers to get some Arameans from east of the Euphrates River. The Arameans were under the command of Shophak. He was the commander of Hadadezer’s army.

[17]David was told about it. So he gathered together the whole army of Israel. They went across the Jordan River. David marched out against the Arameans. He lined up his soldiers opposite them. He lined them up to meet the Arameans in battle. The Arameans began to fight against him. [18]But then they ran away from Israel. David killed 7,000 of their chariot riders. He killed 40,000 of their soldiers who were on foot. He also killed Shophak, the commander of their army.

[19]The people who were under the rule of Hadadezer saw that Israel had won the battle over them. So they made a peace treaty with David. They were brought under his rule.

After that, the Arameans wouldn’t help the Ammonites anymore.

1 Chronicles 20

Joab Captures the City of Rabbah

[1]In the spring, Joab led Israel's army out. It was the time when kings march out to war. Joab destroyed the land of Ammon. He went to the city of Rabbah. He surrounded it and got ready to attack it. But David remained in Jerusalem. Later, Joab attacked Rabbah and completely destroyed it. [2]David took the gold crown off the head of the king of Ammon. The crown weighed 75 pounds. It had jewels in it. It was placed on David's head. He took a huge amount of goods from the city. [3]He brought out the people who were there. He made them work with saws and iron picks and axes. David did that to all the towns in Ammon. Then he and his entire army returned to Jerusalem.

Israel Goes to War Against the Philistines

[4]War broke out at Gezer against the Philistines. At that time Sibbekai killed Sippai. So the Philistines were brought under Israel's control. Sibbekai was a Hushathite. Sippai was from the family line of Rapha.

[5]In another battle against the Philistines, Elhanan killed Lahmi. Elhanan was the son of Jair. Lahmi was the brother of Goliath. Goliath was from the city of Gath. Lahmi's spear was as big as a weaver's rod.

[6]There was still another battle. It took place at Gath. A huge man lived there. He had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot. So the total number of his toes and fingers was 24. He was also from the family line of Rapha. [7]He made fun of Israel. So Jonathan killed him. Jonathan was the son of David's brother Shimea.

[8]Those Philistine men lived in Gath. They were from the family line of Rapha. David and his men killed them.

1 Chronicles 21

David Counts His Fighting Men

1 Satan rose up against Israel. He stirred up David to count the men of Israel.
2 So David said to Joab and the commanders of the troops, “Go! Count the men of Israel from Beersheba all the way to Dan. Report back to me. Then I’ll know how many there are.”
3 Joab replied, “May the LORD multiply his troops 100 times. King David, you are my master. Aren’t all the men under your control? Why would you want me to count them? Do you want to make Israel guilty?”
4 In spite of what Joab said, the king’s order had more authority than Joab’s reply did. So Joab left and went all through Israel. Then he came back to Jerusalem. 5 Joab reported to David how many fighting men he had counted. In the whole land of Israel there were 1,100,000 men who could use their swords well. That included 470,000 men in Judah.
6 But Joab didn’t include the tribes of Levi and Benjamin in the total number.
The king’s command was sickening to Joab. 7 It was also evil in the sight of God.
So he punished Israel.
8 Then David said to God, “I committed a great sin when I counted Israel’s men. I beg you to take away my guilt. I’ve done a very foolish thing.”
9 The LORD spoke to Gad, David’s prophet. The LORD said, 10 “Go and tell David, ‘The LORD says, “I could punish you in three different ways. Choose one of them for me to punish you with.” ’ ” 11 So Gad went to David. Gad said to him, “The LORD says, ‘Take your choice. 12 You can have three years when there will not be enough food in the land. You can have three months when your enemies will sweep you away. They will catch up with you. They will destroy you with their swords. Or you can have three days when the sword of the LORD will punish you. That means there would be three days of plague in the land. My angel would strike down people in every part of Israel.’ So take your pick. Tell me how to answer the one who sent me.”
13 David said to Gad, “I’m suffering terribly. Let me fall into the hands of the LORD. His mercy is very great. But don’t let me fall into human hands.”
14 So the LORD sent a plague on Israel. And 70,000 Israelites died. 15 God sent an angel to destroy Jerusalem. But as the angel was doing it, the LORD saw it.

The LORD decided to end the plague he had sent. So he spoke to the angel who was destroying the people. He said, “That is enough! Do not kill any more people!” The angel of the LORD was standing at Araunah’s threshing floor. Araunah was from the city of Jebus.

16David looked up. He saw the angel of the LORD standing between heaven and earth. The angel was holding out a sword over Jerusalem. David and the elders fell with their faces to the ground. They were wearing the rough clothing people wear when they’re sad.

17David said to God, “I ordered the fighting men to be counted. I’m the one who has sinned. I am the shepherd of these people. I’m the one who has done what is wrong. These people are like sheep. What have they done? LORD my God, punish me and my family. But don’t let this plague continue to strike your people.”

David Builds an Altar

18Then the angel of the LORD ordered Gad to tell David to go up to the threshing floor of Araunah, the Jebusite. He wanted David to build an altar there to honor the LORD. 19So David went up and did it. He obeyed the message that Gad had spoken in the LORD’s name.

20Araunah was threshing wheat. He turned and saw the angel. Araunah’s four children were with him. They hid themselves. 21David approached the threshing floor. Araunah looked up and saw him. So Araunah left the threshing floor. He bowed down to David with his face toward the ground.

22David said to him, “Let me have the property your threshing floor is on. I want to build an altar there to honor the LORD. When I do, the plague on the people will be stopped. Sell the threshing floor to me for the full price.”

23Araunah said to David, “Take it! King David, you are my master. Do what you please. I’ll even provide the oxen for the burnt offerings. Use boards from the threshing sleds for the wood. Use the wheat for the grain offering. I’ll give it all to you.”

24But King David replied to Araunah, “No! I want to pay the full price. I won’t take what belongs to you and give it to the LORD. I won’t sacrifice a burnt offering that hasn’t cost me anything.”

25So David paid Araunah 15 pounds of gold for the property. 26David built an altar there to honor the LORD. He sacrificed burnt offerings and friendship offerings. He called out to the LORD. The LORD answered him by sending fire from heaven on the altar for burnt offerings.

[27]Then the LORD spoke to the angel. And the angel put his sword away.
[28]When the angel did that, David was still at the threshing floor of Araunah, the Jebusite. David saw that the LORD had answered him. So he offered sacrifices there. [29]At that time, the LORD's holy tent was at the high place in Gibeon. The altar for burnt offerings was there too. Moses had made the holy tent in the desert. [30]David couldn't go to the tent to pray to God. That's because he was afraid of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 22

[1]David announced, “The house of the LORD God will be built here. Israel’s altar for burnt offerings will also be here.”

David Makes Plans for Building the Temple

[2]David gave orders to bring together the outsiders who were living in Israel. He appointed some of them to cut stones. He wanted them to prepare blocks of stone for building the house of God. [3]David provided a large amount of iron to make nails. They were for the doors of the gateways and for the fittings. He provided more bronze than anyone could weigh. [4]He also provided more cedar logs than anyone could count. The people of Sidon and Tyre brought large numbers of logs to David.

[5]David said, “My son Solomon is young. He’s never done anything like this before. The house that will be built for the LORD should be very grand and wonderful. All the nations should consider it to be famous and beautiful. I’ll get things ready for it.” So David got many things ready before he died.

[6]Then he sent for his son Solomon. He told him to build a house for the LORD, the God of Israel. [7]David said to Solomon, “My son, with all my heart I wanted to build a house for the LORD my God. That’s where his Name will be. [8]But a message from the LORD came to me. It said, ‘You have spilled the blood of many people. You have fought many wars. You are not the one who will build a house for my Name. That is because I have seen you spill the blood of many people on the earth. [9]But you are going to have a son. He will be a man of peace. And I will give him peace and rest from all his enemies on every side. His name will be Solomon. I will give Israel peace and quiet while he is king. [10]He will build a house for my Name. He will be my son. And I will be his father. I will make his kingdom secure over Israel. It will last forever.’

[11]“My son, may the LORD be with you. May you have success. May you build the house of the LORD your God, just as he said you would. [12]May the LORD give you good sense. May he give you understanding when he makes you king over Israel. Then you will keep the law of the LORD your God. [13]Be careful to obey the rules and laws the LORD gave Moses for Israel. Then you will have success. Be strong and brave. Don’t be afraid. Don’t lose hope.

[14]“I’ve tried very hard to provide for the LORD’s temple. I’ve provided 3,750 tons of gold and 37,500 tons of silver. I've provided more bronze and iron than anyone can weigh. I've also given plenty of wood and stone. You can add to it.

15You have a lot of workers. You have people who can cut stones and people who can lay the stones. You have people who can work with wood. You also have people who are skilled in every other kind of work. 16Some of them can work with gold and silver. Others can work with bronze and iron. There are more workers than anyone can count. So begin the work. May the LORD be with you."

17Then David ordered all Israel's leaders to help his son Solomon. 18He said to them, "The LORD your God is with you. He's given you peace and rest on every side. He's handed over to me the people who are living in the land. The land has been brought under the control of the LORD and his people. 19So be committed to the LORD your God with all your heart and soul. Start building the temple of the LORD God. Then bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD into it. Also bring in the sacred objects that belong to God. The temple will be built for the Name of the LORD."

1 Chronicles 23

The Family Line of Levi

[1]David had become very old. So he made his son Solomon king over Israel.
[2]He gathered together all the leaders of Israel. He also gathered the priests and the Levites together. [3]The Levites who were 30 years old or more were counted. The total number of men was 38,000. [4]David said, “From them, 24,000 will be in charge of the work of the LORD’s temple. And 6,000 will be officials and judges. [5]Another 4,000 will guard the gates. And 4,000 will praise the LORD with the instruments of music I’ve provided for that purpose.”

[6]David separated the Levites into groups. He did it according to the sons of Levi. The sons were Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

The Family of Gershon

[7]Ladan and Shimei belonged to the family of Gershon.
[8]The sons of Ladan were Jehiel, Zetham and Joel. Jehiel was the oldest son. The total number of sons was three.
[9]The sons of Shimei were Shelomoth, Haziel and Haran. The total number of sons was three. They were the leaders of the families of Ladan.
[10]The sons of Shimei were Jahath, Ziza, Jeush and Beriah. The total number of the sons of Shimei was four.
[11]Jahath was the first son. Ziza was the second son. But Jeush and Beriah didn’t have many sons. So they were counted as one family. They had only one task.

The Family of Kohath

[12]The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel. The total number of sons was four.

[13]The sons of Amram were Aaron and Moses.
Aaron and his family line were set apart forever as the LORD's priests. They had the duty of setting the most holy things apart to the LORD. They offered sacrifices to the LORD. They served him. They gave blessings in his name forever. [14]The sons of Moses, the man of God, were counted as part of the tribe of Levi.
[15]The sons of Moses were Gershom and Eliezer.
[16]Shubael was the oldest son in the family line of Gershom.
[17]Rehabiah was the oldest son in the family line of Eliezer.
Eliezer didn't have any other sons. But Rehabiah had a great many sons.
[18]Shelomith was the oldest son of Izhar.
[19]Jeriah was the first son of Hebron.
Amariah was his second son. Jahaziel was the third. Jekameam was the fourth.
[20]Micah was the first son of Uzziel.
Ishiah was his second son.

The Family of Merari

[21]The sons of Merari were
Mahli and Mushi.
The sons of Mahli were Eleazar and Kish.
[22]Eleazar died without having any sons. All he had was daughters. They married their cousins. The cousins were the sons of Kish.
[23]The sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder and Jerimoth. The total number of sons was three.
[24]Those were the family lines of Levi. They were recorded under the names of the family leaders. Each worker who was 20 years old or more was counted. They served in the LORD's temple. [25]David had said, "The LORD is the God of Israel. He has given peace and rest to his people. He has come to Jerusalem to live there forever. [26]So the Levites don't need to carry the holy tent anymore. They don't need to carry any of its objects anymore. Those were the things that were used to serve there.” [27]The Levites who were 20 years old or more were counted. That was in keeping with David’s final directions.

[28]The Levites had the duty of helping the members of Aaron’s family line. They helped them serve in the LORD’s temple. They were in charge of the courtyards and the side rooms. They made all the sacred things pure and “clean.” They also had other duties at the house of God. [29]They were in charge of setting the holy bread out on the table. They prepared the special flour for the grain offerings. They made the thin loaves without using any yeast. They did the baking and the mixing. They measured the amount and size of everything. [30]They stood every morning to thank and praise the LORD. They did the same thing every evening. [31]They also did it every time burnt offerings were brought to the LORD. Those offerings were brought every Sabbath day. They were also brought at every New Moon feast and during the appointed yearly feasts. The Levites served in front of the LORD at regular times. The proper number of Levites was always used when they served. They served in the way the law required.

[32]So the Levites carried out their duties for the tent of meeting and for the Holy Room. They worked under their relatives who were in the family line of Aaron. They helped them serve at the LORD’s temple.

1 Chronicles 24

The Groups of Priests

[1]The priests in the family line of Aaron were separated into groups. The groups were separated according to the sons of Aaron.

The sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. [2]But Nadab and Abihu died before their father did. They didn't have any sons. So Eleazar and Ithamar served as the priests. [3]With the help of Zadok and Ahimelek, David separated the priests into groups. Each group served in its appointed order and time. Zadok belonged to the family line of Eleazar. Ahimelek belonged to the family line of Ithamar. [4]More leaders were found among Eleazar's family line than among Ithamar's. So the priests were separated into their groups based on that fact. There were 16 family leaders from Eleazar's line. There were eight family leaders from Ithamar's line. [5]The priests were separated into their groups by casting lots. That was the fair way to do it. The priests were officials of the temple and officials of God. They came from the family lines of Eleazar and Ithamar.

[6]Shemaiah was a Levite. He was the son of Nethanel. Shemaiah was the writer who recorded the names of the priests. He wrote them down in front of the king and the officials. The officials included Zadok the priest and Ahimelek. Ahimelek was the son of Abiathar. The officials also included the leaders of the families of the priests and the Levites. One family was chosen by lot from Eleazar's group. Then one was chosen from Ithamar's group.

[7]The 1st lot chosen was for Jehoiarib.
The 2nd was for Jedaiah.
[8]The 3rd was for Harim.
The 4th was for Seorim.
[9]The 5th was for Malkijah.
The 6th was for Mijamin.
[10]The 7th was for Hakkoz.
The 8th was for Abijah.
[11]The 9th was for Jeshua.
The 10th was for Shekaniah.
[12]The 11th was for Eliashib.
The 12th was for Jakim.

[13]The 13th was for Huppah.
The 14th was for Jeshebeab.
[14]The 15th was for Bilgah.
The 16th was for Immer.
[15]The 17th was for Hezir.
The 18th was for Happizzez.
[16]The 19th was for Pethahiah.
The 20th was for Jehezkel.
[17]The 21st was for Jakin.
The 22nd was for Gamul.
[18]The 23rd was for Delaiah.
The 24th was for Maaziah.

[19]That was their appointed order for serving when they entered the LORD's temple. That order was based on the rules Aaron had given them long ago. Everything was done exactly as the LORD had commanded Aaron. The LORD is the God of Israel.

The Rest of the Levites

[20]Here are the other members of the family line of Levi.

From the sons of Amram came Shubael.
From the sons of Shubael came Jehdeiah.
[21]From the sons of Rehabiah came Ishiah. Ishiah was the oldest.
[22]From the people of Izhar came Shelomoth.
From the sons of Shelomoth came Jahath.
[23]Jeriah was the first son of Hebron. Amariah was his second son. Jahaziel was the third. Jekameam was the fourth.
[24]The son of Uzziel was Micah.
From the sons of Micah came Shamir.
[25]The brother of Micah was Ishiah.
From the sons of Ishiah came Zechariah.
[26]The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi.
The son of Jaaziah was Beno.
[27]The sons of Merari from Jaaziah were Beno, Shoham, Zakkur and Ibri.

[28]From Mahli came Eleazar. Eleazar didn’t have any sons.
[29]From Kish came Jerahmeel. Jerahmeel was the son of Kish.
[30]The sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder and Jerimoth.
Those were the Levites, family by family.

[31]They cast lots just as their relatives had done. Their relatives were in the family line of Aaron. They cast lots in front of King David, Zadok and Ahimelek. They did it in front of the family leaders of the priests. They also did it in front of the family leaders of the Levites. The families of the oldest brother were treated in the same way as the families of the youngest.

1 Chronicles 25

The Musicians

[1]David and the commanders of the army set apart some of the sons of Asaph, Heman and Jeduthun. They set them apart to serve the LORD by prophesying while harps, lyres and cymbals were being played. Here is the list of the men who served in that way.

[2]From the sons of Asaph came Zakkur, Joseph, Nethaniah and Asarelah. The sons of Asaph were under the direction of Asaph. He prophesied under the king's direction.

[3]From the sons of Jeduthun came Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Shimei, Hashabiah and Mattithiah. The total number was six. They were under the direction of their father Jeduthun. He prophesied while playing the harp. He used it to thank and praise the LORD.

[4]From the sons of Heman came Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shubael, Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamti-Ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir and Mahazioth. [5]All of them were sons of the king's prophet Heman. They were given to Heman to bring him honor. That's what God had promised. God gave him 14 sons and three daughters.

[6]All of them were under the direction of their father. They played music for the LORD's temple. They served at the house of God by playing cymbals, lyres and harps. Asaph, Jeduthun and Heman were under the king's direction.

[7]All of them were trained and skilled in playing music for the LORD. Their total number was 288. That included their relatives. [8]Young and old alike cast lots for their duties. That was true for students as well as teachers.

[9]The 1st lot chosen was for Asaph. It was for Joseph and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.
The 2nd lot was for Gedaliah and his relatives and sons. The total number was 12.

[10]The 3rd was for Zakkur and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.
[11]The 4th was for Izri and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.
[12]The 5th was for Nethaniah and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.
[13]The 6th was for Bukkiah and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.
[14]The 7th was for Jesarelah and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.
[15]The 8th was for Jeshaiah and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.
[16]The 9th was for Mattaniah and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.
[17]The 10th was for Shimei and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.
[18]The 11th was for Azarel and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.
[19]The 12th was for Hashabiah and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.
[20]The 13th was for Shubael and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.
[21]The 14th was for Mattithiah and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.
[22]The 15th was for Jerimoth and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.
[23]The 16th was for Hananiah and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.
[24]The 17th was for Joshbekashah and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.
[25]The 18th was for Hanani and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.
[26]The 19th was for Mallothi and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.
[27]The 20th was for Eliathah and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.

[28]The 21st was for Hothir and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.
[29]The 22nd was for Giddalti and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.
[30]The 23rd was for Mahazioth and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.
[31]The 24th was for Romamti-Ezer and his sons and relatives. The total number was 12.

1 Chronicles 26

The Men Who Guarded the Gates

[1]Here are the groups of men who guarded the gates.

From the family of Korah came Meshelemiah, the son of Kore. Kore was one of the sons of Asaph.

[2]Meshelemiah had sons.
Zechariah was his first son.
Jediael was his second son.
Zebadiah was the third.
Jathniel was the fourth. [3]Elam was the fifth.
Jehohanan was the sixth.
And Eliehoenai was the seventh.
[4]Obed-Edom also had sons.
Shemaiah was his first son.
Jehozabad was his second son.
Joah was the third.
Sakar was the fourth.
Nethanel was the fifth.
[5]Ammiel was the sixth.
Issachar was the seventh.
And Peullethai was the eighth.
God had blessed Obed-Edom.
[6]Obed-Edom's son Shemaiah also had sons. They were leaders in their family. That's because they were men of great ability. [7]The sons of Shemaiah were Othni, Rephael, Obed and Elzabad.
Elzabad's relatives Elihu and Semakiah were also capable men.
[8]All of them belonged to the family line of Obed-Edom. They and their sons and relatives were capable men. They were strong enough to do their work. The total number of men in the family line of Obed-Edom was 62.
[9]Meshelemiah's sons and relatives were capable men. Their total number was 18.

[10]Hosah belonged to the family line of Merari. Hosah's first son was Shimri. But Shimri wasn't the oldest son. His father had made him the first.
[11]Hilkiah was Hosah's second son.
Tabaliah was the third.
Zechariah was the fourth.
The total number of Hosah's sons and relatives was 13.

[12]Those groups of men guarded the gates. They worked under their leaders.
They served at the LORD's temple, just as their relatives had served.
[13]Lots were cast for each gate, family by family. Young and old alike were chosen.

[14]The lot chosen for the East Gate was for Shelemiah.
Then lots were cast for his son Zechariah, who gave wise advice. The lot chosen for the North Gate was for Zechariah.
[15]The lot chosen for the South Gate was for Obed-Edom. The lot chosen for the storeroom was for his sons.
[16]Lots were chosen for the West Gate and the Shalleketh Gate on the upper road. Those lots were chosen for Shuppim and Hosah.

One guard stood next to another.

[17]There were six Levites a day on the east.
There were four a day on the north.
There were four a day on the south.
And there were two at a time at the storeroom.
[18]Two Levite guards were at the courtyard to the west. And four were at the road.
[19]Those were the groups of the men who guarded the gates. They belonged to the family lines of Korah and Merari.

Other Officials

[20]Men were in charge of the treasures in the house of God. They were the Levite relatives of the men who guarded the gates. These men were also in charge of other treasures that had been set apart for God.

[21]Ladan was from the family line of Gershon. Some leaders of families belonged to Ladan's family line. One of them was Jehieli. [22]The sons of Jehieli were Zetham and his brother Joel. They were in charge of the treasures in the LORD's temple.

[23]Here are the officials who were from the family lines of Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.

[24]Shubael was from the family line of Moses' son Gershom. Shubael was the official in charge of the treasures. [25]His relatives through Eliezer included his son Rehabiah. Jeshaiah was Rehabiah's son. Joram was Jeshaiah's son. Zikri was Joram's son. And Shelomith was Zikri's son. [26]Shelomith and his relatives were in charge of all the treasures that had been set apart for God. King David had set those treasures apart. Some family leaders had also set them apart. They were the commanders of thousands of men and commanders of hundreds. The treasures had also been set apart by other army commanders.

[27]Some of the goods that had been taken in battle were set apart to repair the LORD's temple. [28]Samuel the prophet had set apart some things for God. Saul, the son of Kish, had set apart other things. So had Abner, the son of Ner. And so had Joab, the son of Zeruiah. All these things and everything else that had been set apart were taken care of by Shelomith and his relatives.

[29]From the family line of Izhar came Kenaniah and his sons. They were given duties that were away from the temple. They were officials and judges over Israel.

[30]From the family line of Hebron came

Hashabiah and his relatives. They were capable men. The total number was 1,700. It was their duty to serve the king in Israel west of the Jordan River. It was also their duty to do all the LORD's work there. [31]Jeriah was the chief of the family line of Hebron. That's based on their family history.

In the 40th year of David's rule, a search was made in the records. That's how capable men were found in the family line of Hebron at Jazer in Gilead. [32]Jeriah had 2,700 relatives. They were capable men and family leaders. King David had put them in charge of the tribes of Reuben and Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh. They were in charge of matters having to do with God and the king.

1 Chronicles 27

The Groups of Fighting Men in the Army

[1]Here is the list of the Israelites who served in the king's army. They included leaders of families. They included commanders of thousands of men and commanders of hundreds. They also included other officers. All of them served the king in everything concerning the army's fighting groups. These groups were on duty month by month all through the year. The total number of men in each group was 24,000.

[2]Jashobeam was in charge of the first fighting group for the first month. He was the son of Zabdiel. The total number of men in Jashobeam's group was 24,000. [3]He belonged to the family line of Perez. He was chief of all the army officers for the first month.

[4]Dodai was in charge of the second fighting group for the second month. He belonged to the family line of Ahoah. Mikloth was the leader of Dodai's group. The total number of men in Dodai's group was 24,000.

[5]The third army commander for the third month was Benaiah the priest, the son of Jehoiada. Benaiah was the chief. The total number of men in Benaiah's fighting group was 24,000.

[6]That same Benaiah was a mighty warrior among the 30 chiefs. In fact, he was leader over the 30 chiefs. His son Ammizabad was in charge of Benaiah's group.

[7]The fourth commander for the fourth month was Joab's brother Asahel. Asahel's son Zebadiah was the next commander after him. The total number of men in Asahel's fighting group was 24,000.

[8]The fifth commander for the fifth month was Shamhuth. He was an Izrahite. The total number of men in Shamhuth's fighting group was 24,000.

[9]The sixth commander for the sixth month was Ira. He was the son of Ikkesh from Tekoa. The total number of men in Ira's fighting group was 24,000.

[10]The seventh commander for the seventh month was Helez. He was a Pelonite from Ephraim. The total number of men in Helez's fighting group was 24,000.

[11]The eighth commander for the eighth month was Sibbekai. He was a Hushathite from Zerah. The total number of men in Sibbekai's fighting group was 24,000.
[12]The ninth commander for the ninth month was Abiezer. He was from Anathoth in Benjamin. The total number of men in Abiezer's fighting group was 24,000.
[13]The tenth commander for the tenth month was Maharai. He was a Netophathite from Zerah. The total number of men in Maharai's fighting group was 24,000.
[14]The 11th commander for the 11th month was Benaiah. He was from Pirathon in Ephraim. The total number of men in Benaiah's fighting group was 24,000.
[15]The 12th commander for the 12th month was Heldai. He was a Netophathite from the family line of Othniel. The total number of men in Heldai's fighting group was 24,000.

The Leaders of the Tribes

[16]Here are the leaders of the tribes of Israel.

Over the tribe of Reuben was Eliezer, the son of Zikri.
Over Simeon was Shephatiah, the son of Maakah.
[17]Over Levi was Hashabiah, the son of Kemuel.
Over Aaron was Zadok.
[18]Over Judah was Elihu. He was David's brother.
Over Issachar was Omri, the son of Michael.
[19]Over Zebulun was Ishmaiah, the son of Obadiah.
Over Naphtali was Jerimoth, the son of Azriel.
[20]Over Ephraim was Hoshea, the son of Azaziah.
Over half of the tribe of Manasseh was Joel, the son of Pedaiah.
[21]Over the half of the tribe of Manasseh in Gilead was Iddo, the son of Zechariah.
Over Benjamin was Jaasiel, the son of Abner.
[22]Over Dan was Azarel, the son of Jeroham.
These were the leaders of the tribes of Israel.

[23]David didn’t count the men who were 20 years old or less. That’s because the LORD had promised to make the people of Israel as many as the stars in the sky. [24]Joab, the son of Zeruiah, began to count the men. But he didn’t finish. The LORD was angry with Israel because David had begun to count the men. So the number wasn’t written down in the official records of King David.

Other Officials of the King

[25]Azmaveth was in charge of the royal storerooms. He was the son of Adiel.

Jonathan was in charge of the storerooms in the fields, towns, villages and lookout towers. He was the son of Uzziah.

[26]Ezri was in charge of the workers who farmed the land. He was the son of Kelub.

[27]Shimei was in charge of the vineyards. He was from Ramah.

Zabdi was in charge of the grapes from the vineyards. He was also in charge of storing the wine. He was a Shiphmite.

[28]Baal-Hanan was in charge of the olive trees and sycamore-fig trees in the western hills. He was from Geder.

Joash was in charge of storing the olive oil.

[29]Shitrai was in charge of the herds that ate grass in Sharon. He was from Sharon.

Shaphat was in charge of the herds in the valleys. He was the son of Adlai.

[30]Obil was in charge of the camels. He was from the family line of Ishmael.

Jehdeiah was in charge of the donkeys. He was from Meronoth.

[31]Jaziz was in charge of the flocks. He was a Hagrite.

All these men were the officials in charge of King David’s property.

[32]Jonathan was David’s uncle. He gave good advice. He was a man of understanding. He was also a secretary.

Jehiel took care of the king’s sons. He was the son of Hakmoni.

[33]Ahithophel was the king’s adviser.

Hushai was the king’s trusted friend. He was an Arkite.

[34]Jehoiada and Abiathar became the next advisers after Ahithophel. Jehoiada was the son of Benaiah.

Joab was the commander of the royal army.

1 Chronicles 28

David's Plans for the Temple

[1]David asked all the officials of Israel to come together at Jerusalem. He sent for the officers who were over the tribes. He sent for the commanders of the military groups who served the king. He sent for the commanders of thousands of men and commanders of hundreds. He sent for the officials who were in charge of all the royal property and livestock. They belonged to the king and his sons. He sent for the palace officials and the warriors. He also sent for all the brave fighting men.

[2]King David stood up. He said, "All of you Israelites, listen to me. With all my heart I wanted to build a house for the LORD. I wanted it to be a place of peace and rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD. The ark is the stool for our God's feet. I made plans to build the LORD's house. [3]But God said to me, 'You are not the one who will build a house for my Name. That is because you are a fighting man. You have spilled people's blood.'

[4]"But the LORD chose me. He is the God of Israel. He chose me from my whole family to be king over Israel forever. He chose Judah to lead the tribes. From the tribe of Judah he chose my family. From my father's sons he chose me. He was pleased to make me king over the whole nation of Israel. [5]The LORD has given me many sons. From all of them he has chosen my son Solomon. He wants Solomon to sit on the throne of the LORD's kingdom. He wants him to rule over Israel. [6]The LORD said to me, 'Your son Solomon is the one who will build my house and my courtyards. I have chosen him to be my son. And I will be his father. [7]I will make his kingdom secure. It will last forever. That will happen if he continues to obey my commands and laws. He must continue to obey them, just as he is doing now.'

[8]"So I'm giving you a command in the sight of all the people of Israel. The LORD's community is watching. And our God is listening. I command you to be careful to follow all the commands of the LORD your God. Then you will own this good land. You will pass it on to your children after you as their share forever.

[9]"My son Solomon, always remember the God of your father. Serve him with all your heart. Do it with a mind that wants to obey him. The LORD looks deep down inside every heart. He understands every desire and every thought. If you look to him, you will find him. But if you desert him, he will turn his back on you forever. [10]Think about it. The LORD has chosen you to build a house as a holy place where he can live. So be strong. Get to work."

[11]Then David gave his son Solomon the plans for the porch of the temple. He gave him the plans for its buildings and its storerooms. He gave him the plans for its upper parts and its inside rooms. He gave him the plans for the place where sin is paid for and forgiven. [12]He gave him the plans for everything the Spirit of the LORD had put in his mind. There were plans for the courtyards of the LORD's temple. There were plans for all the rooms around it. There were plans for the places where the treasure of God's temple would be kept. There were plans for the places where the things set apart for God would be kept. [13]David told Solomon how to separate the priests and Levites into groups. He gave him directions for all the work they should do when they served in the LORD's temple. David also showed Solomon how all the objects should be used at the temple. [14]Different things were used for different purposes. David told Solomon how much gold should be used for each gold object. He also told him how much silver should be used for each silver object. [15]He told him how much gold should be used to make each gold lampstand and its lamps. He told him how much silver should be used to make each silver lampstand and its lamps. The amount depended on how each lampstand would be used. [16]David told Solomon how much gold should be used to make each table for holy bread. He told him how much silver should be used to make the silver tables. [17]He told him how much pure gold should be used to make the forks, sprinkling bowls and pitchers. He told him how much gold should be used to make each gold dish. He told him how much silver should be used to make each silver dish. [18]And David told Solomon how much pure gold should be used to make the altar for burning incense. He also gave Solomon the plan for the chariot of the gold cherubim. The cherubim spread their wings over the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

[19]David said, "I have written everything down. I wrote it all down as the LORD guided me. He helped me understand every part of the plan."

[20]David also said to his son Solomon, "Be strong and brave. Get to work. Don't be afraid. Don't lose hope. The LORD God is my God. He is with you. He won't fail you. He won't desert you until all the work for serving in the LORD's temple is finished. [21]The groups of the priests and Levites are ready to do all the work on God's temple. Every person who is willing and skilled can help you do all the work. The officials and all the people will obey every command you give them."

1 Chronicles 29

Gifts Are Brought for Building the Temple

[1]Then King David spoke to the whole community. He said, “God has chosen my son Solomon. But Solomon is young. He’s never done anything like this before. The task is huge. This grand and wonderful temple won’t be built for human beings. It will be built for the LORD God. [2]With all my riches I’ve done everything I could for the temple of my God. I’ve provided gold for the gold work and silver for the silver work. I’ve provided bronze for the bronze work and iron for the iron work. I’ve given wood for the things that will be made out of wood. I’ve given onyx and turquoise for the settings. I’ve given stones of different colors and all kinds of fine stone and marble. I’ve provided everything in huge amounts. [3]With all my heart I want the temple of my God to be built. So I’m giving my personal treasures of gold and silver for it. I’m adding them to everything else I’ve provided for the holy temple. [4]I’m giving 110 tons of gold and 260 tons of pure silver. Cover the walls of the buildings with it. [5]Use it for the gold work and the silver work. Use it for everything the skilled workers will do. How many of you are willing to set yourselves apart to the LORD today?”

[6]Many people were willing to give. They included the leaders of families and the officers of the tribes of Israel. They included the commanders of thousands of men and commanders of hundreds. They also included the officials who were in charge of the king’s work. [7]All of them gave to the work on God’s temple.
They gave more than 190 tons of gold and 380 tons of silver. They also gave 675 tons of bronze and 3,800 tons of iron. [8]Anyone who had valuable jewels added them to the treasure for the LORD’s temple. Jehiel was in charge of the temple treasure. He was from the family line of Gershon. [9]The people were happy when they saw what their leaders had been willing to give. The leaders had given freely. With their whole heart they had given everything to the LORD. King David was filled with joy.

David’s Prayer

[10]David praised the LORD in front of the whole community. He said, “LORD, we give you praise.

You are the God of our father Israel.

We give you praise for ever and ever.
[11]LORD, you are great and powerful.
Glory, majesty and beauty belong to you.
Everything in heaven and on earth belongs to you.
LORD, the kingdom belongs to you.
You are honored as the one who rules over all.
[12]Wealth and honor come from you.
You are the ruler of all things.
In your hands are strength and power.
You can give honor and strength to everyone.
[13]Our God, we give you thanks.
We praise your glorious name.

[14]"But who am I? And who are my people? Without your help we wouldn't be able to give this much. Everything comes from you. We've given back to you only what comes from you. [15]We are outsiders and strangers in your sight. So were all of our people who lived long ago. Our days on this earth are like a shadow. We don't have any hope. [16]LORD our God, we've given more than enough. We've provided it to build you a temple where you will put your holy Name. But all of it comes from you. All of it belongs to you. [17]My God, I know that you tested our hearts. And you are pleased when we are honest. I've given all these things just because I wanted to. When I did it, I was completely honest with you. Your people here have also been willing to give to you. And I've been happy to see this. [18]LORD, you are the God of our fathers Abraham, Isaac and Israel. Keep these desires and thoughts in the hearts of your people forever. Keep their hearts faithful to you. [19]Help my son Solomon serve you with all his heart. Then he will keep your commands and rules. He will do what you require. He'll do everything to build the grand and wonderful temple I've provided for."

[20]Then David said to the whole community, "Praise the LORD your God." So all of them praised the LORD. He's the God of their people who lived long ago. The whole community bowed low. They fell down flat with their faces toward the ground. They did it in front of the LORD and the king.

Solomon Becomes the Next King

[21]The next day they offered sacrifices to the LORD. They brought burnt offerings to him. They sacrificed 1,000 bulls, 1,000 rams and 1,000 male lambs. They also brought the required drink offerings. And they offered many other sacrifices for the whole community of Israel. [22]They ate and drank with great joy that day. They did it in front of the LORD. Then they announced a second time that Solomon was king. He was the son of David. They anointed Solomon in front of the LORD. They anointed him to be ruler. They also anointed Zadok to be priest.

[23]So Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD. He ruled as king in place of his father David. Things went well with him. All the people of Israel obeyed him. [24]All the officers and warriors promised to be completely faithful to King Solomon. So did all of King David's sons.

[25]The LORD greatly honored Solomon in the sight of all the people. He gave him royal majesty. Solomon was given more glory than any king over Israel ever had before.

David Dies

[26]David was king over the whole nation of Israel. He was the son of Jesse. [27]He ruled over Israel for 40 years. He ruled for seven years in Hebron and for 33 years in Jerusalem. [28]He died when he was very old. He had enjoyed a long life. He had enjoyed wealth and honor. David's son Solomon became the next king after him.

[29]The events of King David's rule from beginning to end are written down. They are written in the records of Samuel, Nathan and Gad, the prophets. [30]The records tell all about David's rule and power. They tell about what happened concerning him and Israel and the kingdoms of all the other lands.

2 Chronicles

2 Chronicles 1

Solomon Asks God for Wisdom

[1]Solomon was the son of David. Solomon made his position secure over his kingdom. The LORD his God was with him. He made Solomon very great.

[2]Solomon spoke to the whole community of Israel. He spoke to the commanders of thousands of men and commanders of hundreds. He spoke to the judges and all the leaders in Israel. He spoke to the leaders of Israel's families. [3]Solomon and the whole community went to the high place at Gibeon. That's because God's tent of meeting was there. The LORD's servant Moses had made the tent in the desert. [4]David had carried up the ark of God from Kiriath Jearim. He had it brought to the place he had prepared for it. He had set up a tent for it in Jerusalem. [5]But the bronze altar that Bezalel had made was in Gibeon. Bezalel was the son of Uri. Uri was the son of Hur. The altar was in front of the LORD's holy tent. So Solomon and the whole community asked the LORD for advice in Gibeon. [6]Solomon went up to the bronze altar in front of the LORD at the tent of meeting. Solomon sacrificed 1,000 burnt offerings on the altar.

[7]That night God appeared to Solomon. He said to him, "Ask for anything you want me to give you."

[8]Solomon answered God, "You were very kind to my father David. Now you have made me king in his place. [9]LORD God, let the promise you gave to my father David come true. You have made me king. My people are as many as the dust of the earth. They can't be counted. [10]Give me wisdom and knowledge. Then I'll be able to lead these people. Without your help, who would be able to rule this great nation of yours?"

[11]God said to Solomon, "I am glad that those are the things you really want. You have not asked for wealth, possessions or honor. You have not even asked to have your enemies killed. You have not asked to live for a long time. Instead, you have asked for wisdom and knowledge. You want to be able to rule my people wisely. I have made you king over them. [12]So wisdom and knowledge will be given to you. I will also give you wealth, possessions and honor. You will have more than any king before you ever had. And no king after you will have as much."

[13]Then Solomon left the high place at Gibeon. He went from the tent of meeting there to Jerusalem. And he ruled over Israel.

[14]Solomon had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horses. He kept some of them in the chariot cities. He kept others with him in Jerusalem. [15]The king made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as stones. He made cedar wood as common there as sycamore-fig trees in the western hills. [16]Solomon got horses from Egypt and Kue. The king's buyers purchased them from Kue at the current price. [17]They could get a chariot from Egypt for 15 pounds of silver. They could get a horse for less than four pounds of silver. They sold horses and chariots to all the Hittite and Aramean kings.

2 Chronicles 2

Solomon Prepares to Build the Temple

[1]Solomon gave orders to build a temple. That's where the LORD would put his Name. Solomon also gave orders to build a royal palace for himself. [2]He chose 70,000 men to carry things. He chose 80,000 to cut stones in the hills. He put 3,600 men in charge of them.

[3]Solomon sent a message to Hiram. Hiram was king of Tyre. Solomon said,

> "Send me cedar logs, just as you did for my father David. You sent him > cedar to build a palace to live in. [4]Now I'm about to build a temple. The > Name of the LORD my God will be there. I'll set the temple apart for > him. Sweet-smelling incense will be burned in front of him there. The > holy bread will be set out at regular times. Burnt offerings will be > sacrificed there every morning and evening. They will be sacrificed > every Sabbath day. They will be sacrificed at every New Moon feast.
> And they will be sacrificed at every yearly appointed feast of the LORD > our God. That's a law for Israel that will last for all time to come.
>
> [5]"The temple I'm going to build will be beautiful. That's because our > God is greater than all other gods. [6]So who is able to build a temple for > him? After all, the heavens can't hold him. In fact, not even the highest > heavens can hold him. So who am I to build a temple for him? It will > only be a place to burn sacrifices in front of him.
>
> [7]"Send me a man skilled at working with gold, silver, bronze and > iron. He must also be able to work with purple, blue and bright red > yarn. He must be skilled in the art of carving. Send him to work in > Judah and Jerusalem with my skilled workers. My father David > provided them to help me.
>
> [8]"Also send me cedar, juniper and algum logs from Lebanon. I know > that your servants are skilled in cutting wood there. My servants will > work with yours. [9]They'll provide me with plenty of lumber. That's > because the temple I'm building must be large and beautiful. [10]I'll pay > your servants. They will cut the wood. I'll pay them 3,600 tons of > wheat that has been ground up. I'll pay them 3,000 tons of barley. I'll > also pay them 120,000 gallons of wine and 120,000 gallons of olive > oil."

[11]King Hiram of Tyre replied to Solomon. He wrote a letter to him. In it Hiram said,

> “The LORD loves his people. That’s why he has made you their king.”

[12]Hiram continued,

> “I praise the LORD. He is the God of Israel. He made heaven and earth. He has given King David a wise son. You have good sense. You understand what is right. You will build a temple for the LORD. You will also build a palace for yourself.
>
> [13]“I’m sending Huram-Abi to you. He is very skillful. [14]His mother was from Dan. His father was from Tyre. He is trained to work with gold, silver, bronze and iron. He knows how to work with stone and wood. He can also work with purple, blue and bright red yarn and fine linen. He’s skilled in all kinds of carving. He can follow any pattern you give him. He’ll work with your skilled workers. He’ll also work with those of your father David. David was my master.
>
> [15]“Now please send us what you promised. Send us the wheat, barley, olive oil and wine. [16]And we’ll cut all the logs from Lebanon that you need. We’ll make rafts out of them. We’ll float them by sea down to Joppa. Then you can take them up to Jerusalem.”

[17]Solomon counted all the outsiders who were living in Israel. He did it after his father David had counted them. There were 153,600 of them. [18]He chose 70,000 to carry things. He chose 80,000 to cut stones in the hills. He put 3,600 men in charge of the people to keep them working.

2 Chronicles 3

Solomon Builds the Temple

[1]Then Solomon began to build the temple of the LORD. He built it on Mount Moriah in Jerusalem. That's where the LORD had appeared to Solomon's father David. The LORD had appeared at the threshing floor of Araunah. Araunah was from Jebus. David had provided the threshing floor. [2]Solomon began building the temple on the second day of the second month. It was in the fourth year of his rule.

[3]Solomon laid the foundation for God's temple. It was 90 feet long and 30 feet wide. Solomon's men followed the standard measure used at that time. [4]The porch in front of the temple was 30 feet across and 30 feet high.

Solomon covered the inside of the temple with pure gold. [5]He covered the inside of the main hall with juniper boards. Then he covered the boards with fine gold. He decorated the hall with palm tree patterns and chain patterns. [6]He decorated the temple with valuable jewels. The gold he used came from Parvaim. [7]He covered the ceiling beams, doorframes, walls and doors of the temple with gold. He carved cherubim on the walls.

[8]He built the Most Holy Room. It was as long as the temple was wide. It was 30 feet long and 30 feet wide. He covered the inside of the Most Holy Room with 23 tons of fine gold. [9]He also covered the upper parts with gold. The gold on the nails weighed 20 ounces.

[10]For the Most Holy Room, Solomon made a pair of carved cherubim. He covered them with gold. [11]The total length of the cherubim's wings from tip to tip was 30 feet. One wing of the first cherub was seven and a half feet long. Its tip touched the temple wall. The other wing was also seven and a half feet long. Its tip touched the wing tip of the other cherub. [12]In the same way one wing of the second cherub was seven and a half feet long. Its tip touched the other temple wall. The other wing was also seven and a half feet long. Its tip touched the wing tip of the first cherub. [13]So the total length of the wings of the two cherubim was 30 feet from tip to tip. The cherubim stood facing the main hall.

[14]Solomon made the curtain out of blue, purple and bright red yarn and fine linen. A skilled worker sewed cherubim into its pattern.

[15]For the front of the temple, Solomon made two pillars. Each pillar was 26 feet tall. Each had a decorated top seven and a half feet high. [16]Solomon made chains that were linked together. He put them on top of the pillars. He also made 100 pomegranates. He fastened them to the chains. [17]Solomon set the pillars up in front of the temple. One was on the south. The other was on the north. He named the one on the south Jakin. The one on the north he named Boaz.

2 Chronicles 4

More Facts About the Temple

[1]Solomon made a bronze altar 30 feet long, 30 feet wide and 15 feet high. [2]He made a huge metal bowl for washing. Its shape was round. It measured 15 feet from rim to rim. It was seven and a half feet high. And it was 45 feet around. [3]Below the rim there was a circle of bull figures around the bowl. In every 18 inches around the bowl there were ten bulls. The bulls were arranged in two rows. They were made as part of the bowl itself.

[4]The bowl stood on 12 bulls. Three of them faced north. Three faced west. Three faced south. And three faced east. The bowl rested on top of them. Their rear ends were toward the center. [5]The bowl was three inches thick. Its rim was like the rim of a cup. The rim was shaped like the bloom of a lily. The bowl held 18,000 gallons of water.

[6]Solomon made ten smaller bowls for washing. He placed five of them on the south side of the huge bowl. He placed the other five on the north side. The things used for the burnt offerings were rinsed in the smaller bowls. But the priests used the huge bowl for washing.

[7]Solomon made ten gold lampstands. He followed the pattern the LORD had given him. He placed the lampstands in the temple. He put five of them on the south side. He put the other five on the north side.

[8]He made ten tables. He placed them in the temple. He put five of them on the south side. He put the other five on the north side. He also made 100 gold sprinkling bowls.

[9]He made the courtyard of the priests. He also made the large courtyard. He made doors for it. He covered the doors with bronze. [10]He placed the huge bowl on the south side of the courtyard. He put it at the southeast corner.

[11]And Huram also made the pots, shovels and sprinkling bowls.

So Huram finished the work he had started for King Solomon. Here's what he made for God's temple.

[12]He made the two pillars.
He made the two tops for the pillars. The tops were shaped like bowls.
He made the two sets of chains that were linked together. They decorated the two bowl-shaped tops of the pillars.

[13]He made the 400 pomegranates for the two sets of chains. There were two rows of pomegranates for each chain. They decorated the bowl-shaped tops of the pillars.

14 He made the stands and their bowls.

15 He made the huge bowl. He made the 12 bulls that were under it.

16 He made the pots, shovels and meat forks. He also made all the things used with them.

Huram-Abi made all these objects for King Solomon for the LORD's temple. He made them out of bronze. Then he shined them up. 17 The king had them made in clay molds. It was done on the plains of the Jordan River between Sukkoth and Zarethan. 18 Solomon made huge numbers of these things. There were too many of them to weigh. In fact, it was impossible to add up the weight of all the bronze.

19 Solomon also made all the objects that were in God's temple.

He made the golden altar.

He made the tables for the holy bread.

20 He made the pure gold lampstands and their lamps. The lamps burned in front of the Most Holy Room, just as the law required.

21 He made the gold flowers. He made the gold lamps and tongs. They were made out of solid gold.

22 He made the wick cutters, sprinkling bowls, dishes, and shallow cups for burning incense. All of them were made out of pure gold. He made the gold doors of the temple. They were the inner doors to the Most Holy Room and the doors of the main hall.

2 Chronicles 5

[1]Solomon finished all the work for the LORD's temple. Then he brought in the things his father David had set apart for the LORD. They included the silver and gold and all the objects for God's temple. Solomon placed them there with the other treasures.

The Ark Is Brought to the Temple

[2]Then Solomon sent for the elders of Israel. He told them to come to Jerusalem. They included all the leaders of the tribes. They also included the chiefs of the families of Israel. Solomon wanted them to bring up the ark of the LORD's covenant from Zion. Zion was the City of David. [3]All the Israelites came together to where the king was. It was at the time of the Feast of Booths. The feast was held in the seventh month.

[4]All the elders of Israel arrived. Then the Levites picked up the ark and carried it. [5]They brought up the ark. They also brought up the tent of meeting and all the sacred things in the tent. The priests, who were Levites, carried up everything. [6]The entire community of Israel had gathered around King Solomon. All of them were in front of the ark. They sacrificed huge numbers of sheep and cattle. There were so many animals that they couldn't be recorded. In fact, they couldn't even be counted.

[7]The priests brought the ark of the LORD's covenant to its place in the Most Holy Room of the temple. They put it under the wings of the cherubim. [8]The cherubim's wings were spread out over the place where the ark was. They covered the ark. They also covered the poles used to carry it. [9]The poles reached out from the ark. They were so long that their ends could be seen from in front of the Most Holy Room. But they couldn't be seen from outside the Holy Room. They are still there to this day. [10]There wasn't anything in the ark except the two tablets. Moses had placed them in it at Mount Horeb. That's where the LORD had made a covenant with the Israelites. He made it after they came out of Egypt.

[11]The priests left the Holy Room. All the priests who were there had set themselves apart to the LORD. It didn't matter what group they were in. [12]All the Levites who played music stood near the east side of the altar. They included Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun and their sons and relatives. They were dressed in fine linen. They were playing cymbals, harps and lyres. They were joined by 120 priests who were blowing trumpets. [13]The trumpet players and other musicians played their instruments together. They praised the LORD and gave thanks to him. The singers sang to the music of the trumpets, cymbals and other instruments. They sang in praise to the LORD,

> “The LORD is good.
> His faithful love continues forever.”

Then a cloud filled the temple of the LORD. [14]The priests couldn’t do their work. That’s because the cloud of the LORD’s glory filled God’s temple.

2 Chronicles 6

[1]Then Solomon said, “LORD, you have said you would live in a dark cloud.
[2]I’ve built a beautiful temple for you. You can live in it forever.”

[3]The whole community of Israel was standing there. The king turned around and gave them his blessing. [4]Then he said,

> “I praise the LORD. He is the God of Israel. With his mouth he made a promise to my father David. With his powerful hands he made it come true. He said, [5]‘I brought my people out of Egypt. Since then, a temple for my Name has not been built. I have not chosen a city in any tribe of Israel for that purpose. And I have not chosen anyone to be ruler over my people Israel. [6]But now I have chosen Jerusalem. I will put my Name there. And I have chosen David to rule over my people Israel.’
>
> [7]“With all his heart my father David wanted to build a temple. He wanted to do it so the Name of the LORD could be there. The LORD is the God of Israel. [8]But the LORD spoke to my father David. He said, ‘With all your heart you wanted to build a temple for my Name. It is good that you wanted to do that. [9]But you will not build the temple. Instead, your son will build the temple for my Name. He is your own flesh and blood.’
>
> [10]“The LORD has kept the promise he made. I’ve become the next king after my father David. Now I’m sitting on the throne of Israel. That’s exactly what the LORD promised would happen. I’ve built the temple for the Name of the LORD. He is the God of Israel. [11]I’ve placed the ark there. The tablets of the LORD’s covenant are inside it. He made that covenant with the people of Israel.”

Solomon Prays to Set the Temple Apart to the LORD

[12]Then Solomon stood in front of the LORD’s altar. He stood in front of the whole community of Israel. He spread out his hands to pray. [13]He had made a bronze stage. It was seven and a half feet long and seven and a half feet wide. It was four and a half feet high. He had placed it in the center of the outer courtyard. He stood on the stage. Then he got down on his knees in front of the whole community of Israel. He spread out his hands toward heaven. [14]He said, “LORD, you are the God of Israel. There is no God like you in heaven or on earth. You keep the covenant you made with us. You show us your love. You do that when we follow you with all our hearts. 15You have kept your promise to my father David. He was your servant. With your mouth you made a promise. With your powerful hand you have made it come true. And today we can see it.

16“LORD, you are the God of Israel. Keep the promises you made to my father David. Do it for him. He was your servant. You said to him, ‘You will always have a son from your family line to sit on Israel’s throne. He will sit in front of the Most Holy Room, where my own throne is. That will be true only if your children after you are careful in everything they do. They must live the way my law tells them to. That is the way you have lived.’ 17LORD, you are the God of Israel. So let your promise to your servant David come true.

18“But will God really live on earth with human beings? After all, the heavens can’t hold you. In fact, even the highest heavens can’t hold you. So this temple I’ve built certainly can’t hold you! 19But please pay attention to my prayer. LORD my God, be ready to help me as I make my appeal to you. Listen to my cry for help. Hear the prayer I’m praying to you. 20Let your eyes look toward this temple day and night. You said you would put your Name here. Listen to the prayer I’m praying toward this place. 21Hear me when I ask you to help us. Listen to your people Israel when they pray toward this place. Listen to us from heaven. It’s the place where you live. When you hear us, forgive us.

22“Suppose someone does something wrong to their neighbor. And the person who has done something wrong is required to give their word. They must tell the truth about what they have done. They must come and do it in front of your altar in this temple. 23When they do, listen to them from heaven. Take action. Judge between the person and their neighbor. Pay back the guilty one. Do to them what they have done to their neighbor. Deal with the one who isn’t guilty in a way that shows they are free from blame. That will prove they aren’t guilty.

24“Suppose your people Israel have lost the battle against their enemies. And suppose they’ve sinned against you. But they turn back to you and praise your name. They pray to you in this temple. And they ask you to help them. 25Then listen to them from heaven. Forgive the sin of your people Israel. Bring them back to the land you gave to them and their people who lived long ago.

[26]“Suppose your people have sinned against you. And because of that, the sky is closed up and there isn’t any rain. But your people pray toward this place. They praise you by admitting they’ve sinned. And they turn away from their sin because you have made them suffer. [27]Then listen to them from heaven. Forgive the sin of your people Israel. Teach them the right way to live. Send rain on the land you gave them as their share.

[28]“Suppose there isn’t enough food in the land. And a plague strikes the land. The hot winds completely dry up our crops. Or locusts or grasshoppers come and eat them up. Or enemies surround one of our cities and get ready to attack it. Or trouble or sickness comes. [29]But suppose one of your people prays to you. They ask you to help them. They are aware of how much they are suffering. And they spread out their hands toward this temple to pray. [30]Then listen to them from heaven. It’s the place where you live. Forgive them. Deal with everyone in keeping with everything they do. You know their hearts. In fact, you are the only one who knows every human heart. [31]Your people will have respect for you. They will live the way you want them to. They’ll live that way as long as they are in the land you gave our people long ago.

[32]“Suppose an outsider who doesn’t belong to your people Israel has come from a land far away. They have come because they’ve heard about your great name. They have heard that you reached out your mighty hand and powerful arm. So they come and pray toward this temple. [33]Then listen to them from heaven. It’s the place where you live. Do what that outsider asks you to do. Then all the nations on earth will know you. They will have respect for you. They’ll respect you just as your own people Israel do. They’ll know that your Name is in this house I’ve built.

[34]“Suppose your people go to war against their enemies. It doesn’t matter where you send them. And suppose they pray to you toward this city you have chosen. They pray toward the temple I’ve built for your Name. [35]Then listen to them from heaven. Listen to their prayer. Listen to them when they ask you to help them. Stand up for them.

[36]“Suppose they sin against you. After all, there isn’t anyone who doesn’t sin. And suppose you get angry with them. You hand them over to their enemies. They take them as prisoners to another land. It doesn’t matter whether that land is near or far away. 37But suppose your people change their ways in the land where they are held as prisoners. They turn away from their sins. They beg you to help them in the land where they are prisoners. They say, ‘We have sinned. We’ve done what is wrong. We’ve done what is evil.’ 38And they turn back to you with all their heart and soul. Suppose it happens in the land where they were taken as prisoners. There they pray toward the land you gave their people long ago. They pray toward the city you have chosen. And they pray toward the temple I’ve built for your Name. 39Then listen to them from heaven. It’s the place where you live. Listen to their prayer. Listen to them when they ask you to help them. Stand up for them. Your people have sinned against you. Please forgive them.

40“My God, let your eyes see us. Let your ears pay attention to the prayers offered in this place.

41“LORD God, rise up and come to your resting place.
Come in together with the ark.
It’s the sign of your power.
LORD God, may your priests put on salvation as if it were their clothes.
May your faithful people be glad because you are so good.
42LORD God, don’t turn your back on your anointed king.
Remember the great love you promised to your servant David.”

2 Chronicles 7

The Temple Is Set Apart to the LORD

[1]Solomon finished praying. Then fire came down from heaven. It burned up the burnt offering and the sacrifices. The glory of the LORD filled the temple.
[2]The priests couldn't enter the temple of the LORD because his glory filled it.
[3]All the Israelites saw the fire coming down. They saw the glory of the LORD above the temple. So they got down on their knees in the courtyard with their faces toward the ground. They worshiped the LORD. They gave thanks to him and said,

"The LORD is good.
His faithful love continues forever."

[4]Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices to the LORD. [5]King Solomon sacrificed 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep and goats. So the king and all the people set the temple of God apart. [6]The priests and Levites took their positions. The Levites played the LORD's musical instruments. King David had made them for praising the LORD. They were used when he gave thanks to the LORD. He said, "His faithful love continues forever." Across from where the Levites were, the priests blew their trumpets. All the people of Israel were standing.

[7]Solomon set the middle area of the courtyard apart to the LORD. It was in front of the LORD's temple. There Solomon sacrificed burnt offerings. He also sacrificed the fat of the friendship offerings there. He did it there because the bronze altar he had made couldn't hold it all. It couldn't hold the burnt offerings, the grain offerings and the fat parts.

[8]At that time Solomon celebrated the Feast of Booths for seven days. The whole community of Israel was with him. It was a huge crowd. People came from as far away as Lebo Hamath and the Wadi of Egypt. [9]On the eighth day they held a special service. For seven days they had celebrated by setting the altar apart to honor God. The feast continued for seven more days. [10]Then Solomon sent the people home. It was the 23rd day of the seventh month. The people were glad. Their hearts were full of joy. That's because the LORD had done good things for David and Solomon and his people Israel.

The LORD Appears to Solomon

[11]Solomon finished the LORD's temple and the royal palace. He had done everything he had planned to do in the LORD's temple and his own palace. [12]The LORD appeared to him at night. The LORD said,

> "I have heard your prayer. I have chosen this place for myself. It is a temple where sacrifices will be offered.
>
> [13]"Suppose I close up the sky and there isn't any rain. Suppose I command locusts to eat up the crops. And I send a plague among my people. [14]But they make themselves humble in my sight. They pray and look to me. And they turn from their evil ways. Then I will listen to them from heaven. I will forgive their sin. And I will heal their land. After all, they are my people. [15]Now my eyes will see them. My ears will pay attention to the prayers they offer in this place. [16]I have chosen this temple. I have set it apart for myself. My Name will be there forever. My eyes and my heart will always be there.
>
> [17]"But you must walk faithfully with me, just as your father David did. Do everything I command you to do. Obey my rules and laws. [18]Then I will set up your royal throne. I made a covenant with your father David to do that. I said to him, 'You will always have a son from your family line to rule over Israel.'
>
> [19]"But suppose all of you turn away from me. You refuse to obey the rules and commands I have given you. And you go off to serve other gods and worship them. [20]Then I will remove Israel from my land. It is the land I gave them. I will turn my back on this temple. I will do it even though I have set it apart for my Name to be there. I will make all the nations hate it. They will laugh and joke about it. [21]This temple will become a pile of stones. All those who pass by it will be shocked. They will say, 'Why has the LORD done a thing like this to this land and temple?' [22]People will answer, 'Because they have deserted the LORD. He is the God of their people who lived long ago. He brought them out of Egypt. But they have been holding on to other gods. They've been worshiping them. They've been serving them. That's why the LORD has brought all this horrible trouble on them.' "

2 Chronicles 8

Other Things Solomon Did

[1]Solomon built the LORD's temple and his own palace. It took him 20 years to build them. After that, [2]Solomon rebuilt the villages Hiram had given him. Solomon had Israelites make their homes in them. [3]Then Solomon went to Hamath Zobah. He captured it. [4]He also built up Tadmor in the desert. He built up all the cities in Hamath where he could store things. [5]He rebuilt Upper Beth Horon and Lower Beth Horon. He put up high walls around them. He made their city gates secure with heavy metal bars. [6]He rebuilt Baalath and all the cities where he could store things. He also rebuilt all the cities for his chariots and horses. Solomon built anything he wanted in Jerusalem, Lebanon and all the territory he ruled.

[7]There were still many people left in the land who weren't Israelites. They included Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. [8]They were children of the people who had lived in the land before the Israelites came. The people of Israel hadn't destroyed them. Solomon forced them to work very hard as his slaves. And they still work for Israel to this day. [9]But Solomon didn't force the Israelites to work as his slaves. Instead, some were his fighting men. Others were commanders of his captains, chariots and chariot drivers. [10]Still others were King Solomon's chief officials. There were 250 officials in charge of the other men.

[11]Solomon brought Pharaoh's daughter up from the City of David to the palace he had built for her. Solomon said, "My wife must not live in the palace of David, who was the king of Israel. It's one of the places the ark of the LORD has entered. That makes it holy."

[12]Solomon had built the LORD's altar. It stood in front of the temple porch. On that altar Solomon sacrificed burnt offerings to the LORD. [13]Each day he sacrificed what the Law of Moses required. He sacrificed the required offerings every Sabbath day. He also sacrificed them at each New Moon feast and during the three yearly feasts. Those three were the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks and the Feast of Booths. [14]Solomon followed the orders his father David had given him. He appointed the groups of priests for their duties. He appointed the Levites to lead the people in praising the LORD. They also helped the priests do their required tasks each day. Solomon appointed the groups of men who guarded all the gates. That's what David, the man of God, had ordered. [15]The king's commands were followed completely. They applied to the priests and Levites. They also applied to the temple treasure.

[16]All of Solomon's work was carried out. It started the day the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid. It ended when the LORD's temple was finished.

[17]Solomon went to Ezion Geber and Elath on the coast of Edom. [18]Hiram sent him ships that his own officers commanded. They were sailors who knew the sea. Together with Solomon's men they sailed to Ophir. They brought back 17 tons of gold. They gave it to King Solomon.

2 Chronicles 9

The Queen of Sheba Visits Solomon

[1]The queen of Sheba heard about how famous Solomon was. So she came to Jerusalem to test him with hard questions. She arrived with a very large group of attendants. Her camels were carrying spices, huge amounts of gold, and valuable jewels. She came to Solomon and asked him about everything she wanted to know. [2]He answered all her questions. There wasn't anything too hard for him to explain to her. [3]So the queen of Sheba saw how wise Solomon was. She saw the palace he had built. [4]She saw the food on his table. She saw his officials sitting there. She saw the robes of the servants who waited on everyone. She saw the robes the wine tasters were wearing. And she saw the burnt offerings Solomon sacrificed at the LORD's temple. She could hardly believe everything she had seen.

[5]She said to the king, "Back in my own country I heard a report about you. I heard about how much you had accomplished. I also heard about how wise you are. Everything I heard is true. [6]But I didn't believe what people were saying. So I came to see for myself. And now I believe it! You are twice as wise as people say you are. The report I heard doesn't even begin to tell the whole story about you. [7]How happy your people must be! How happy your officials must be! They always get to serve you and hear the wise things you say. [8]May the LORD your God be praised. He takes great delight in you. He placed you on his throne as king. He put you there to rule for him. Your God loves Israel very much. He longs to take good care of them forever. That's why he has made you king over them. He knows that you will do what is fair and right."

[9]She gave the king four and a half tons of gold. She also gave him huge amounts of spices and valuable jewels. There had never been as many spices as the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

[10]The servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon brought gold from Ophir. They also brought algumwood and valuable jewels. [11]The king used the algumwood to make steps for the LORD's temple and the royal palace. He also used it to make harps and lyres for those who played the music. No one had ever seen anything like those instruments in Judah before.

[12]King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba everything she wanted and asked for. In fact, he gave her more than she had brought to him. Then she left. She returned to her own country with her attendants.

Solomon's Greatness

13Each year Solomon received 25 tons of gold. 14That didn't include the money brought in by business and trade. All the kings of Arabia also brought gold and silver to Solomon. So did the governors of the territories.

15King Solomon made 200 large shields out of hammered gold. Each one weighed 15 pounds. 16He also made 300 small shields out of hammered gold.
Each one weighed almost eight pounds. The king put all the shields in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon.

17Then he made a large throne. It was covered with ivory. And that was covered with pure gold. 18The throne had six steps. A gold stool for the king's feet was connected to it. The throne had armrests on both sides of the seat. A statue of a lion stood on each side of the throne. 19Twelve lions stood on the six steps. There was one at each end of each step. Nothing like that throne had ever been made for any other kingdom. 20All of King Solomon's cups were made out of gold. All the things used in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon were made out of pure gold. Nothing was made out of silver. When Solomon was king, silver wasn't considered to be worth very much. 21He had many ships that carried goods to be traded. The crews of those ships were made up of Hiram's servants. Once every three years the ships returned. They brought gold, silver, ivory, apes and peacocks.

22King Solomon was richer than all the other kings on earth. He was also wiser than they were. 23All these kings wanted to meet Solomon in person. They wanted to see for themselves how wise God had made him. 24Year after year, everyone who came to him brought a gift. They brought gifts made out of silver and gold. They brought robes, weapons and spices. They also brought horses and mules.

25Solomon had 4,000 spaces where he kept his horses and chariots. He had 12,000 horses. He kept some of his horses and chariots in the chariot cities. He kept the others with him in Jerusalem. 26Solomon ruled over all the kings from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistines. He ruled all the way to the border of Egypt. 27The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones. He made cedar wood as common there as sycamore-fig trees in the western hills.
28Solomon got horses from Egypt. He also got them from many other countries.

Solomon Dies

[29]The other events of Solomon's rule from beginning to end are written down. They are written in the records of Nathan the prophet. They are written in the prophecy of Ahijah. He was from Shiloh. They are also written in the records of the visions of Iddo the prophet about Jeroboam. Jeroboam was the son of Nebat. [30]Solomon ruled in Jerusalem over the whole nation of Israel for 40 years. [31]Then he joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in the city of his father David. Solomon's son Rehoboam became the next king after him

2 Chronicles 10

Israel Refuses to Follow Rehoboam

[1]Rehoboam went to the city of Shechem. All the Israelites had gone there to make him king. [2]Jeroboam heard about it. He was the son of Nebat. Jeroboam was in Egypt at that time. He had gone there for safety. He wanted to get away from King Solomon. But now he returned from Egypt. [3]So the people sent for Jeroboam. He and all the people went to Rehoboam. They said to him, [4]"Your father put a heavy load on our shoulders. But now make our hard work easier.
Make the heavy load on us lighter. Then we'll serve you."

[5]Rehoboam answered, "Come back to me in three days." So the people went away.

[6]Then King Rehoboam asked the elders for advice. They had served his father Solomon while he was still living. Rehoboam asked them, "What advice can you give me? How should I answer these people?"

[7]They replied, "Be kind to them. Please them. Give them what they are asking for. Then they'll always serve you."

[8]But Rehoboam didn't accept the advice the elders gave him. He asked for advice from the young men who had grown up with him and were now serving him. [9]He asked them, "What's your advice? How should I answer these people?
They said to me, 'Make the load your father put on our shoulders lighter.' "

[10]The young men who had grown up with him gave their answer. They replied, "The people have said to you, 'Your father put a heavy load on our shoulders. Make it lighter.' Now tell them, 'My little finger is stronger than my father's legs. [11]My father put a heavy load on your shoulders. But I'll make it even heavier. My father beat you with whips. But I'll beat you with bigger whips.' "

[12]Three days later Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam. That's because the king had said, "Come back to me in three days." [13]The king answered them in a mean way. He didn't accept the advice of the elders.
[14]Instead, he followed the advice of the young men. He said, "My father put a heavy load on your shoulders. But I'll make it even heavier. My father beat you with whips. But I'll beat you with bigger whips." [15]So the king didn't listen to the people. That's because God had planned it that way. What the LORD had said through Ahijah came true. Ahijah had spoken the LORD's message to Jeroboam, the son of Nebat. Ahijah was from Shiloh.

16 All the Israelites saw that the king refused to listen to them. So they answered the king. They said,

> “We don’t have any share in David’s royal family.
> We don’t have any share in Jesse’s son.
> People of Israel, let’s go back to our homes.
> David’s royal family, take care of your own kingdom!”

So all the Israelites went home. 17 But Rehoboam still ruled over the Israelites who were living in the towns of Judah.

18 Adoniram was in charge of those who were forced to work hard for King Rehoboam. The king sent him out among the Israelites. But they killed Adoniram by throwing stones at him. Rehoboam was able to get away in his chariot. He escaped to Jerusalem. 19 Israel has refused to follow the royal family of David to this day.

2 Chronicles 11

[1]Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem. He brought together 180,000 capable young men from the tribes of Judah and Benjamin. He had decided to go to war against Israel. He wanted his fighting men to get the kingdom of Israel back for him.

[2]But a message came to Shemaiah from the LORD. Shemaiah was a man of God. The LORD said to him, [3]"Speak to Solomon's son Rehoboam, the king of Judah. Speak to all the people of Israel in Judah and Benjamin. Tell them, [4]'The LORD says, "Do not go up to fight against your relatives. I want every one of you to go back home. Things have happened exactly the way I planned them." ' " So the young men obeyed the LORD's message. They turned back. They didn't march out against Jeroboam.

Rehoboam Builds Up Judah's Towns

[5]Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem. He made Judah more secure by building up its towns. [6]He built up Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa, [7]Beth Zur, Soko and Adullam. [8]He also built up Gath, Mareshah, Ziph, [9]Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah, [10]Zorah, Aijalon and Hebron. All of them were cities in Judah and Benjamin that had high walls around them. [11]Rehoboam made those cities even more secure. He put commanders in them. He gave the cities plenty of food, olive oil and wine. [12]He put shields and spears in all those cities. He made them very strong. So he ruled over Judah and Benjamin.

[13]The priests and Levites were on Rehoboam's side. They came from their territories all over Israel. [14]The Levites even left their grasslands and other property behind. They came to Judah and Jerusalem. That's because Jeroboam and his sons had refused to accept them as priests of the LORD. [15]Jeroboam had appointed his own priests to serve at the high places. He had made statues of gods that looked like goats and calves. His priests served those gods. [16]Some people from every tribe in Israel followed the Levites to Jerusalem. With all their hearts they wanted to worship the LORD. He is the God of Israel. They came to Jerusalem to offer sacrifices to him. He was the God of their people of long ago. [17]All those who came to Jerusalem made the kingdom of Judah strong. They helped Solomon's son Rehoboam for three years. During that time they lived the way David and Solomon had lived.

Rehoboam's Family

[18]Rehoboam married Mahalath. She was the daughter of David's son Jerimoth. Her mother was Abihail. Abihail was the daughter of Jesse's son Eliab. [19]Mahalath had sons by Rehoboam. Their names were Jeush, Shemariah and Zaham. [20]Then Rehoboam married Maakah. She was the daughter of Absalom. She had sons by Rehoboam. Their names were Abijah, Attai, Ziza and Shelomith. [21]Rehoboam loved Absalom's daughter Maakah. In fact, he loved her more than any of his other wives and concubines. He had a total of 18 wives and 60 concubines. And he had a total of 28 sons and 60 daughters.

[22]Rehoboam appointed Maakah's son Abijah to be the chief prince among his brothers. He did it because he wanted to make him king. [23]Rehoboam acted wisely. He scattered some of his sons through all the territories of Judah and Benjamin. He put them in all the cities that had high walls around them. He gave them plenty of food and everything else they needed. He also gave them many wives.

2 Chronicles 12

Shishak Attacks Jerusalem

[1]Rehoboam had made his position as king secure. He had become very strong. Then he turned away from the law of the LORD. So did all the people of Judah. [2]They hadn't been faithful to the LORD. So Shishak attacked Jerusalem. It was in the fifth year that Rehoboam was king. Shishak was king of Egypt. [3]He came with 1,200 chariots and 60,000 horsemen. Troops of Libyans, Sukkites and Cushites came with him from Egypt. There were so many of them they couldn't be counted. [4]Shishak captured the cities of Judah that had high walls around them. He came all the way to Jerusalem.

[5]Then Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah. They had gathered together in Jerusalem. They were afraid of Shishak. Shemaiah said to them, "The LORD says, 'You have left me. So now I am leaving you to Shishak.' "

[6]The king and the leaders of Israel made themselves humble in the LORD's sight. They said, "The LORD does what is right and fair."

[7]The LORD saw they had made themselves humble. So he gave a message to Shemaiah. The LORD said, "They have made themselves humble in my sight. So I will not destroy them. Instead, I will soon save them. Even though I am very angry with Jerusalem, I will not use Shishak to destroy them. [8]But the people of Jerusalem will be brought under his control. Then they will learn the difference between serving me and serving the kings of other lands."

[9]Shishak, the king of Egypt, attacked Jerusalem. He carried away the treasures of the LORD's temple. He also carried the treasures of the royal palace away. He took everything. That included the gold shields Solomon had made. [10]So King Rehoboam made bronze shields to take their place. He gave them to the commanders of the guards who were on duty at the entrance to the royal palace. [11]Every time the king went to the LORD's temple, the guards went with him. They carried the shields. Later, they took them back to the room where they were kept.

[12]Rehoboam had made himself humble in the LORD's sight. So the LORD turned his anger away from him. Rehoboam wasn't totally destroyed. In fact, some good things happened in Judah.

[13]King Rehoboam had made his position secure in Jerusalem. He continued as king. He was 41 years old when he became king. He ruled for 17 years in Jerusalem. It was the city the LORD had chosen out of all the cities in the tribes of Israel. He wanted to put his Name there. The name of Rehoboam's mother was Naamah from Ammon. [14]Rehoboam did what was evil. That's because he hadn't worshiped the LORD with all his heart.

[15]The events of Rehoboam's rule from beginning to end are written down. They are written in the records of Shemaiah and Iddo, the prophets. The records deal with family histories. Rehoboam and Jeroboam were always at war with each other. [16]Rehoboam joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in the City of David. Rehoboam's son Abijah became the next king after him.

2 Chronicles 13

Abijah King of Judah

[1]Abijah became king of Judah. It was in the 18th year of Jeroboam's rule over Israel. [2]Abijah ruled in Jerusalem for three years. His mother's name was Maakah. She was a daughter of Uriel. Uriel was from Gibeah.

There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. [3]Abijah went into battle with an army of 400,000 capable fighting men. Jeroboam lined up his soldiers against them. He had 800,000 able troops.

[4]Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim. It's in the hill country of Ephraim. Abijah said, "Jeroboam and all you Israelites, listen to me! [5]The LORD is the God of Israel. Don't you know that he has placed David and his sons after him on Israel's throne forever? The LORD made a covenant of salt with David. The salt means the covenant will last for all time to come. [6]Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, was an official of David's son Solomon. But he refused to obey his master. [7]Some worthless and evil men gathered around him. They opposed Solomon's son Rehoboam. At that time Rehoboam was young. He couldn't make up his mind. He wasn't strong enough to stand up against those men.

[8]"Now you plan to stand up against the kingdom of the LORD. His kingdom is in the hands of men in David's family line. It's true that you have a huge army. You have the statues of the golden calves that Jeroboam made to be your gods. [9]But you drove out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron. You also drove out the Levites. You appointed your own priests. That's what the people of other nations do. Anyone can come and set himself apart. All he has to do is sacrifice a young bull and seven rams. Then he becomes a priest of gods that aren't really gods at all!

[10]"But the LORD is our God. We haven't deserted him. The priests who serve the LORD belong to the family line of Aaron. The Levites help them. [11]Every morning and evening the priests bring burnt offerings and sweet-smelling incense to the LORD. They set out the holy bread on the table. That table is 'clean.' They light the lamps on the gold lampstand every evening. We always do what the LORD our God requires in his law. But you have deserted him. [12]God is with us. He's our leader. His priests will blow their trumpets. They will sound the battle cry against you. People of Israel, don't fight against the LORD. He's the God of your people who lived long ago. You can't possibly succeed."

[13]Jeroboam had sent some troops behind Judah’s battle lines. He told them to hide and wait there. He and his men stayed in front of Judah’s lines. [14]Judah turned and saw that they were being attacked from the front and from the back. Then they cried out to the LORD. The priests blew their trumpets. [15]The men of Judah shouted the battle cry. When they did, God drove Jeroboam and all the Israelites away from Abijah and Judah. [16]The Israelites ran away from them. God handed Israel over to Judah. [17]Abijah and his troops wounded and killed large numbers of them. In fact, 500,000 of Israel’s capable men lay dead or wounded. [18]So at that time the Israelites were brought under Judah’s control. The people of Judah won the battle over them. That’s because they trusted in the LORD, the God of their people.

[19]Abijah chased Jeroboam. He captured from him the towns of Bethel, Jeshanah and Ephron. He also captured the villages around them. [20]Jeroboam didn’t get his power back during the time of Abijah. In fact, the LORD struck Jeroboam down, and he died.

[21]But Abijah grew stronger. He married 14 wives. He had 22 sons and 16 daughters.

[22]The other events of Abijah’s rule are written down. The things he did and said are written in the notes of Iddo the prophet.

2 Chronicles 14

[1]Abijah joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in the City of David. Abijah's son Asa became the next king after him. While Asa was king, the country had peace and rest for ten years.

Asa Becomes King of Judah

[2]Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God. [3]Asa removed the altars where false gods were worshiped. He took away the high places. He smashed the sacred stones. He cut down the poles used to worship the female god named Asherah. [4]He commanded Judah to worship the LORD, the God of their people. He commanded them to obey the LORD's laws and commands. [5]Asa removed the high places and incense altars from every town in Judah. The kingdom had peace and rest under his rule. [6]He built up the cities of Judah that had high walls around them. The land was at peace. No one was at war with Asa during those years. That's because the LORD gave him peace and rest.

[7]"Let's build up our towns," Asa said to the people of Judah. "Let's put walls around them. Let's provide them with towers. Let's make them secure with gates that have heavy metal bars. The land still belongs to us. That's because we've trusted in the LORD our God. We trusted in him, and he has given us peace and rest on every side." So they built. And things went well for them.

[8]Asa had an army of 300,000 men from Judah. They carried spears and large shields. There were 280,000 men from Benjamin. They were armed with bows and small shields. All these men were brave soldiers.

[9]Zerah marched out against them. He was from Cush. He had a huge army of thousands. He also had 300 chariots. They came all the way to Mareshah. [10]Asa went out to meet Zerah in battle. They took up their positions in the Valley of Zephathah. It's near Mareshah.

[11]Then Asa called out to the LORD his God. He said, "LORD, there isn't anyone like you. You help the weak against the strong. LORD our God, help us. We trust in you. In your name we have come out to fight against this huge army. LORD, you are our God. Don't let mere human beings win the battle over you."

[12]The LORD struck down the men of Cush for Asa and Judah. The Cushites ran away. [13]Asa and his army chased them all the way to Gerar. A large number of Cushites fell down wounded or dead. So they couldn't fight back. The LORD and his army crushed them. The men of Judah carried off a large amount of goods. [14]They destroyed all the villages around Gerar. The LORD had made the people in those villages afraid of him. The men of Judah took everything from all the villages. [15]They also attacked the camps of those who took care of the herds. They carried off large numbers of sheep, goats and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 15

Asa Makes Judah a Better Nation

[1]The Spirit of God came on Azariah. He was the son of Oded. [2]Azariah went out to meet Asa. He said to him, “Asa and all you people of Judah and Benjamin, listen to me. The LORD is with you when you are with him. If you really look for him, you will find him. But if you desert him, he will desert you.
[3]For a long time Israel didn’t worship the true God. They didn’t have a priest who taught them. So they didn’t know God’s law. [4]But when they were in trouble, they turned to the LORD, the God of Israel. When they did, they found him. [5]In those days it wasn’t safe to travel around. The people who lived in all the areas of the land were having a lot of trouble. [6]One nation was crushing another. One city was crushing another. That’s because God was causing them to suffer terribly. [7]But be strong. Don’t give up. God will reward you for your work.”

[8]Asa heard that prophecy. He paid attention to the words of Azariah the prophet, the son of Oded. So Asa became bolder than ever. He removed the statues of gods from the whole land of Judah and Benjamin. He also removed them from the towns he had captured in the hills of Ephraim. He did it because the LORD hated those gods. Asa repaired the altar of the LORD. It was in front of the porch of the LORD’s temple.

[9]Then Asa gathered together all the people of Judah and Benjamin. He also gathered together the people from Ephraim, Manasseh and Simeon who were living among them. Large numbers of people had come over to him from Israel.
They came because they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

[10]They gathered in Jerusalem. It was the third month of the 15th year of Asa’s rule. [11]At that time they sacrificed to the LORD 700 oxen and 7,000 sheep and goats. The animals were among the things they had taken after the battle. [12]They made a covenant to obey the LORD, the God of their people. They would obey him with all their heart and soul. [13]All those who wouldn’t obey the LORD, the God of Israel, would be killed. It wouldn’t matter how important they were. It wouldn’t matter whether they were men or women. [14]They made a promise to the LORD. They praised him out loud. They shouted. They blew trumpets and horns. [15]All the people of Judah were happy about the promise they had made.
They turned to God with all their heart. When they did, they found him. So the LORD gave them peace and rest on every side.

16King Asa also removed his grandmother Maakah from her position as queen mother. That's because she had made a pole used to worship the female god named Asherah. The LORD hated it. So Asa cut it down. He broke it up. He burned it in the Kidron Valley. 17Asa didn't remove the high places from Israel. But he committed his whole life completely to the LORD. 18He and his father had set apart silver, gold and other things to the LORD. Asa brought them into God's temple.

19There weren't any more wars until the 35th year of Asa's rule.

2 Chronicles 16

Asa's Last Years

[1]Baasha was king of Israel. He marched out against Judah. It was in the 36th year of Asa's rule over Judah. Baasha built up the walls of Ramah. He did it to keep people from leaving or entering the territory of Asa, the king of Judah.

[2]Asa took the silver and gold from among the treasures of the LORD's temple and his own palace. He sent it to Ben-Hadad. Ben-Hadad was king of Aram. He was ruling in Damascus. [3]"Let's make a peace treaty between us," Asa said. "My father and your father had made a peace treaty between them. Now I'm sending you silver and gold. So break your treaty with Baasha, the king of Israel. Then he'll go back home."

[4]Ben-Hadad agreed with King Asa. He sent his army commanders against the towns of Israel. His army captured Ijon, Dan, Abel Maim and all the cities in Naphtali where Baasha stored things. [5]Baasha heard about it. So he stopped building up Ramah and left that place. [6]Then King Asa brought all the men of Judah to Ramah. They carried away the stones and wood Baasha had been using. Asa used them to build up Geba and Mizpah.

[7]At that time Hanani the prophet came to Asa, the king of Judah. He said to him, "You trusted the king of Aram. You didn't trust in the LORD your God. So the army of the king of Aram has escaped from you. [8]The people of Cush and Libya had a strong army. They had large numbers of chariots and horsemen. But you trusted in the LORD. So he handed them over to you. [9]The LORD looks out over the whole earth. He gives strength to those who commit their lives completely to him. You have done a foolish thing. From now on you will be at war."

[10]Asa was angry with the prophet because of what he had said. In fact, he was so angry he put him in prison. At the same time, Asa treated some of his own people very badly.

[11]The events of Asa's rule from beginning to end are written down. They are written in the records of the kings of Judah and Israel. [12]In the 39th year of Asa's rule his feet began to hurt. The pain was terrible. But even though he was suffering, he didn't look to the LORD for help. All he did was go to the doctors. [13]In the 41st year of Asa's rule he joined the members of his family who had already died. [14]He was buried in a tomb. He had cut it out for himself in the City of David. His body was laid on a wooden frame. It was covered with spices and different mixes of perfume. A huge fire was made to honor him.

2 Chronicles 17

Jehoshaphat King of Judah

[1]Jehoshaphat was the son of Asa. Jehoshaphat became the next king after him. He made his kingdom strong in case Israel would attack him. [2]He placed troops in all the cities of Judah that had high walls around them. He stationed some soldiers in Judah. He also put some in the towns of Ephraim that his father Asa had captured.

[3]The LORD was with Jehoshaphat. That's because he lived the way King David had lived. He didn't ask for advice from the gods that were named Baal. [4]Instead, Jehoshaphat obeyed the God of his father. He obeyed the LORD's commands instead of the practices of Israel. [5]The LORD made the kingdom secure under Jehoshaphat's control. All the people of Judah brought gifts to Jehoshaphat. So he had great wealth and honor. [6]His heart was committed to living the way the LORD wanted him to. He removed the high places from Judah. He also removed the poles used to worship the female god named Asherah.

[7]In the third year of his rule, he sent his officials to teach in the towns of Judah. The officials were Ben-Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel and Micaiah. [8]Some Levites were with them. Their names were Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah and Tob-Adonijah. Elishama and Jehoram, the priests, were also with them. [9]They taught people all through Judah. They took the Book of the Law of the LORD with them. They went around to all the towns of Judah. And they taught the people.

[10]All the kingdoms of the lands around Judah became afraid of the LORD. So they didn't go to war against Jehoshaphat. [11]Some Philistines brought to Jehoshaphat the gifts and silver he required of them. The Arabs brought him their flocks. They brought him 7,700 rams and 7,700 goats.

[12]Jehoshaphat became more and more powerful. He built forts in Judah. He also built cities in Judah where he could store things. [13]He had large supplies in the towns of Judah. In Jerusalem he kept men who knew how to fight well. [14]Here is a list of them, family by family.

From Judah there were commanders of groups of 1,000.
One of them was Adnah. He commanded 300,000 fighting men.

[15]Another was Jehohanan. He commanded 280,000.
[16]Another was Amasiah, the son of Zikri. Amasiah commanded 200,000. He had offered to serve the LORD.
[17]From Benjamin there were also commanders.
One of them was Eliada. He was a brave soldier. He commanded 200,000 men. They were armed with bows and shields.
[18]Another was Jehozabad. He commanded 180,000 men. They were prepared for battle.

[19]These were the men who served the king. He stationed some other men in the cities all through Judah. The cities had high walls around them.

2 Chronicles 18

Micaiah Prophesies Against Ahab

[1]Jehoshaphat had great wealth and honor. He joined forces with Ahab by marrying Ahab's daughter. [2]Some years later he went down to see Ahab in Samaria. Ahab killed a lot of sheep and cattle for Jehoshaphat and the people with him. Ahab tried to get Jehoshaphat to attack Ramoth Gilead. [3]Ahab was the king of Israel. He spoke to Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah. He asked, "Will you go with me to fight against Ramoth Gilead?"

Jehoshaphat replied, "Yes. I'll go with you. My men will also go with your men. We'll join you in the war." [4]He continued, "First ask the LORD for advice."

[5]So the king of Israel brought 400 prophets together. He asked them, "Should we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or not?"

"Go," they answered. "God will hand it over to you."

[6]But Jehoshaphat asked, "Is there no longer a prophet of the LORD here? If there is, ask him what we should do."

[7]The king of Israel answered Jehoshaphat. He said, "There is still one prophet we can go to. We can ask the LORD for advice through him. But I hate him. He never prophesies anything good about me. He only prophesies bad things. His name is Micaiah. He's the son of Imlah."

"You shouldn't say bad things about him," Jehoshaphat replied.

[8]So the king of Israel called for one of his officials. He told him, "Bring Micaiah, the son of Imlah, right away."

[9]The king of Israel and Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, were wearing their royal robes. They were sitting on their thrones at the threshing floor. It was near the entrance of the gate of Samaria. All the prophets were prophesying in front of them. [10]Zedekiah was the son of Kenaanah. Zedekiah had made horns out of iron. They looked like animal horns. He announced, "The LORD says, 'With these horns you will drive back the men of Aram until they are destroyed.' "

[11]All the other prophets were prophesying the same thing. "Attack Ramoth Gilead," they said. "Win the battle over it. The LORD will hand it over to you."

[12]A messenger went to get Micaiah. He said to him, "Look. The other prophets agree. All of them are saying the king will have success. So agree with them. Say the same thing they do."

[13]But Micaiah said, “You can be sure that the LORD lives. And you can be just as sure that I can only tell the king what my God says.”

[14]When Micaiah arrived, the king spoke to him. He asked, “Should we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or not?”

“Attack,” he answered. “You will win. The people of Ramoth Gilead will be handed over to you.”

[15]The king said to him, “I’ve made you promise to tell the truth many times before. So don’t tell me anything but the truth in the name of the LORD.”

[16]Then Micaiah answered, “I saw all the Israelites scattered on the hills. They were like sheep that didn’t have a shepherd. The LORD said, ‘These people do not have a master. Let each of them go home in peace.’ ”

[17]The king of Israel spoke to Jehoshaphat. He said, “Didn’t I tell you he never prophesies anything good about me? He only prophesies bad things.”

[18]Micaiah continued, “Listen to the LORD’s message. I saw the LORD sitting on his throne. Some of the angels of heaven were standing at his right side. The others were standing at his left side. [19]The LORD said, ‘Who will get Ahab, the king of Israel, to attack Ramoth Gilead? I want him to die there.’

“One angel suggested one thing. Another suggested something else. [20]Finally, a spirit came forward and stood in front of the LORD. The spirit said, ‘I’ll get Ahab to do it.’

“ ‘How?’ the LORD asked.

[21]“The spirit said, ‘I’ll go and put lies in the mouths of all his prophets.’

“ ‘You will have success in getting Ahab to attack Ramoth Gilead,’ said the LORD. ‘Go and do it.’

[22]“So the LORD has put lies in the mouths of your prophets. He has said that great harm will come to you.”

[23]Then Zedekiah, the son of Kenaanah, went up and slapped Micaiah in the face. Zedekiah asked Micaiah, “Do you think the spirit sent by the LORD left me? Do you think that spirit went to speak to you?”

[24]Micaiah replied, “You will find out on the day you go to hide in an inside room to save your life.”

[25]Then the king of Israel gave an order. He said, “Take Micaiah away. Send him back to Amon. Amon is the ruler of the city of Samaria. And send Micaiah back to Joash. Joash is a member of the royal court. [26]Tell them, ‘The king says, “Put this fellow in prison. Don’t give him anything but bread and water until I return safely.” ’ ”

[27]Micaiah announced, “Do you really think you will return safely? If you do, the LORD hasn’t spoken through me.” He continued, “All you people, remember what I’ve said!”

Ahab Is Killed at Ramoth Gilead

[28]So the king of Israel went up to Ramoth Gilead. Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, went there too. [29]The king of Israel spoke to Jehoshaphat. He said, “I’ll go into battle wearing different clothes. Then people won’t recognize me. But you wear your royal robes.” So the king of Israel put on different clothes. Then he went into battle.

[30]The king of Aram had given an order to his chariot commanders. He had said, “Fight only against the king of Israel. Don’t fight against anyone else.” [31]The chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat. They thought, “That’s the king of Israel.” So they turned to attack him. But Jehoshaphat cried out. And the LORD helped him. God drew the commanders away from him. [32]They saw he wasn’t the king of Israel after all. So they stopped chasing him.

[33]But someone shot an arrow without taking aim. The arrow hit the king of Israel between the parts of his armor. The king told the chariot driver, “Turn the chariot around. Get me out of this battle. I’ve been wounded.” [34]All day long the battle continued. The king of Israel kept himself standing up by leaning against the inside of his chariot. He kept his face toward the men of Aram until evening. At sunset he died.

2 Chronicles 19

[1]Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, returned safely to his palace in Jerusalem. [2]Jehu the prophet went out to meet him. He was the son of Hanani. Jehu said to the king, “You shouldn’t help evil people. You shouldn’t love those who hate the LORD. The LORD is angry with you. [3]But there’s some good in you. You have removed all the poles in the land used to worship the female god named Asherah. And you have worshiped God with all your heart.”

Jehoshaphat Appoints Judges

[4]Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem. He went out again among the people. He went from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim. He turned the people back to the LORD, the God of Israel. [5]Jehoshaphat appointed judges in the land. He put them in all the cities of Judah that had high walls around them. [6]He told the judges, “Think carefully about what you do. After all, you aren’t judging for human beings. You are judging for the LORD. He’s with you every time you make a decision. [7]Have respect for the LORD. Judge carefully. He is always right. He treats everyone the same. Our God doesn’t want his judges to take money from people who want special favors.”

[8]In Jerusalem, Jehoshaphat chose some Levites and priests. He also chose some leaders of Israelite families. He appointed all of them to apply the law of the LORD fairly. He wanted them to decide cases. He wanted them to settle matters between people. All those judges lived in Jerusalem. [9]Here are the orders Jehoshaphat gave them. He said, “Have respect for the LORD. Serve him faithfully. Do it with all your heart. [10]Cases will come to you from your people who live in the other cities. The cases might be about murder or other matters dealt with by the law, commands, directions and rules. Warn the people not to sin against the LORD. If you don’t warn them, he will be angry with you and your people. Do what I say. Then you won’t sin.

[11]“Amariah the chief priest will be over you in any matter that concerns the LORD. Zebadiah is the leader of the tribe of Judah. He is the son of Ishmael. Zebadiah will be over you in any matter that concerns the king. The Levites will serve as your officials. Be brave. And may the LORD be with those of you who do well.”

2 Chronicles 20

Jehoshaphat Wins the Battle Over Moab and Ammon

[1]After that, the Moabites, Ammonites and some Meunites went to war against Jehoshaphat.

[2]Some people came and told him, “A huge army is coming from Edom to fight against you. They have come across the Dead Sea. They are already in Hazezon Tamar.” Hazezon Tamar is also called En Gedi. [3]Jehoshaphat was alarmed. So he decided to ask the LORD for advice. He told all the people of Judah to go without eating. [4]The people came together to ask the LORD for help. In fact, they came from every town in Judah to pray to him.

[5]Then Jehoshaphat stood up among the people of Judah and Jerusalem. He was in front of the new courtyard at the LORD’s temple. [6]He said,

> “LORD, you are the God of our people who lived long ago. You are the God who is in heaven. You rule over all the kingdoms of the nations. You are strong and powerful. No one can fight against you and win. [7]Our God, you drove out the people who lived in this land. You drove them out to make room for your people Israel. You gave this land forever to those who belong to the family line of your friend Abraham. [8]They have lived in this land. They’ve built a temple here for your Name. They have said, [9]‘Suppose trouble comes on us. It doesn’t matter whether it’s a punishing sword, or plague or hunger. We’ll serve you. We’ll stand in front of this temple where your Name is. We’ll cry out to you when we’re in trouble. Then you will hear us. You will save us.’
>
> [10]“But here are men from Ammon, Moab and Mount Seir. You wouldn’t allow Israel to march in and attack their territory when the Israelites came from Egypt. So Israel turned away from them. They didn’t destroy them. [11]See how they are paying us back. They are coming to drive us out. They want to take over the land you gave us as our share. [12]Our God, won’t you please judge them? We don’t have the power to face this huge army that’s attacking us. We don’t know what to do. But we’re looking to you to help us.”

[13]All the men of Judah stood there in front of the LORD. Their wives, children and little ones were with them.

14Then the Spirit of the LORD came on Jahaziel. He was standing among the people of Israel. He was the son of Zechariah. Zechariah was the son of Benaiah. Benaiah was the son of Jeiel. Jeiel was the son of Mattaniah. Jahaziel was a Levite. He was from the family line of Asaph.

15Jahaziel said, “King Jehoshaphat, listen! All you who live in Judah and Jerusalem, listen! The LORD says to you, ‘Do not be afraid. Do not lose hope because of this huge army. The battle is not yours. It is God’s. 16Tomorrow march down against them. They will be climbing up by the Pass of Ziz. You will find them at the end of the valley in the Desert of Jeruel. 17You will not have to fight this battle. Take your positions. Stand firm. You will see how the LORD will save you. Judah and Jerusalem, do not be afraid. Do not lose hope. Go out and face them tomorrow. The LORD will be with you.’ ”

18Jehoshaphat bowed down with his face toward the ground. All the people of Judah and Jerusalem also bowed down. They worshiped the LORD. 19Then some Levites from the families of Kohath and Korah stood up. They praised the LORD, the God of Israel. They praised him with very loud voices.

20Early in the morning all the people left for the Desert of Tekoa. As they started out, Jehoshaphat stood up. He said, “Judah, listen to me! People of Jerusalem, listen to me! Have faith in the LORD your God. He’ll take good care of you. Have faith in his prophets. Then you will have success.” 21Jehoshaphat asked the people for advice. Then he appointed men to sing to the LORD. He wanted them to praise the LORD because of his glory and holiness. They marched out in front of the army. They said, > “Give thanks to the LORD.

> His faithful love continues forever.”

22They began to sing and praise him. Then the LORD hid some men and told them to wait. He wanted them to attack the people of Ammon, Moab and Mount Seir. They had gone into Judah and attacked it. But they lost the battle. 23The Ammonites and Moabites rose up against the men from Mount Seir. They destroyed them. They put an end to them. When they finished killing the men from Seir, they destroyed one another.

24The men of Judah came to the place that looks out over the desert. They turned to look down at the huge army. But all they saw was dead bodies lying there on the ground. No one had escaped. 25So Jehoshaphat and his men went down there to carry off anything of value. Among the dead bodies they found a large amount of supplies, clothes and other things of value. There was more than they could take away. There was so much it took three days to collect all of it. [26]On the fourth day they gathered together in the Valley of Berakah. There they praised the LORD. That's why it's called the Valley of Berakah to this day.

[27]Then all the men of Judah and Jerusalem returned to Jerusalem. They were filled with joy. Jehoshaphat led them. The LORD had made them happy because all their enemies were dead. [28]They entered Jerusalem and went to the LORD's temple. They were playing harps, lyres and trumpets.

[29]All the surrounding kingdoms began to have respect for God. They had heard how the LORD had fought against Israel's enemies. [30]The kingdom of Jehoshaphat was at peace. His God had given him peace and rest on every side.

Jehoshaphat's Rule Comes to an End

[31]So Jehoshaphat ruled over Judah. He was 35 years old when he became Judah's king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 25 years. His mother's name was Azubah. She was the daughter of Shilhi. [32]Jehoshaphat followed the ways of his father Asa. He didn't wander away from them. He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD. [33]But the high places weren't removed. The people still hadn't worshiped the God of Israel with all their hearts.

[34]The other events of Jehoshaphat's rule from beginning to end are written down. They are written in the official records of Jehu, the son of Hanani. They are written in the records of the kings of Israel.

[35]Jehoshaphat king of Judah and Ahaziah king of Israel agreed to be friends. Ahaziah did what was evil. [36]Jehoshaphat agreed with him to build a lot of ships. They were built at Ezion Geber. They carried goods that were traded for other goods. [37]Eliezer was the son of Dodavahu from Mareshah. Eliezer prophesied against Jehoshaphat. He said, "You have joined forces with Ahaziah. So the LORD will destroy what you have made." The ships were wrecked. They were never able to sail or trade goods.

2 Chronicles 21

[1]Jehoshaphat joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in the family tomb in the City of David. Jehoshaphat's son Jehoram became the next king after him. [2]Jehoram's brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat, were Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariahu, Michael and Shephatiah. All of them were sons of Jehoshaphat, the king of Israel. [3]Their father had given them many gifts. He had given them silver, gold and other things of value. He had also given them cities in Judah that had high walls around them. But he had made Jehoram king. That's because Jehoram was his oldest son.

Jehoram King of Judah

[4]Jehoram made his position secure over his father's kingdom. Then he killed all his brothers with his sword. He also killed some of the officials of Israel. [5]Jehoram was 32 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for eight years. [6]He followed the ways of the kings of Israel, just as the royal family of Ahab had done. In fact, he married a daughter of Ahab. Jehoram did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD. [7]But the LORD didn't want to destroy the royal family of David. That's because the LORD had made a covenant with him. The LORD had promised to keep the lamp of David's kingdom burning brightly. The LORD had promised that for David and his children after him forever.

[8]When Jehoram was king over Judah, Edom refused to remain under Judah's control. They set up their own king. [9]So Jehoram went to Edom. He took his officers and all his chariots with him. The men of Edom surrounded him and his chariot commanders. But he got up at night and fought his way out. [10]To this day Edom has refused to remain under Judah's control.

At that same time, Libnah also refused to remain under the control of Judah. That's because Jehoram had deserted the LORD, the God of his people. [11]Jehoram had also built high places on the hills of Judah. He had caused the people of Jerusalem to worship other gods. They weren't faithful to the LORD. Jehoram had led Judah down the wrong path.

[12]Jehoram received a letter from Elijah the prophet. In it, Elijah said,

> "The LORD is the God of your father David. The LORD says, 'You have not followed the ways of your own father Jehoshaphat or of Asa, the king of Judah. [13]Instead, you have followed the ways of the kings of > Israel. You have led Judah and the people of Jerusalem to worship other gods, just as the royal family of Ahab did. Also, you have murdered your own brothers. They were members of your own family. They were better men than you are. [14]So now the LORD is about to strike down your people with a heavy blow. He will strike down your sons, your wives and everything that belongs to you. [15]And you yourself will be very sick for a long time. The sickness will finally cause your insides to come out.' "

[16]The LORD stirred up the anger of the Philistines against Jehoram. He also stirred up the anger of the Arabs. They lived near the people of Cush. [17]The Philistines and Arabs attacked Judah. They went in and carried off all the goods they found in the king's palace. They also took his sons and wives. The only son he had left was Ahaziah. He was the youngest son.

[18]After all of that, the LORD made Jehoram very sick. He couldn't be healed. [19]After he had been sick for two years, the sickness caused his insides to come out. He died in great pain. His people didn't make a funeral fire to honor him. They had made funeral fires to honor the kings who ruled before him.

[20]Jehoram was 32 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for eight years. No one was sorry when he passed away. He was buried in the City of David. But he wasn't placed in the tombs of the kings.

2 Chronicles 22

Ahaziah King of Judah

[1]The people of Jerusalem made Ahaziah king in place of Jehoram. Ahaziah was Jehoram's youngest son. Robbers had come with the Arabs into Jehoram's camp. The robbers had killed all his older sons. So Ahaziah, the king of Judah, began to rule. He was the son of Jehoram.

[2]Ahaziah was 22 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for one year. His mother's name was Athaliah. She was a granddaughter of Omri.

[3]Ahaziah also followed the ways of the royal family of Ahab. That's because Ahaziah's mother gave him bad advice. She told him to do what was wrong. [4]So he did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD. He did what the family of Ahab had done. After Ahaziah's father died, the members of Ahab's family became his advisers. That's what destroyed him. [5]He also followed their advice when he joined forces with Joram, the king of Israel. They went to war against Hazael at Ramoth Gilead. Joram was the son of Ahab. Hazael was king of Aram. The soldiers of Aram wounded Joram. [6]So he returned to Jezreel to give his wounds time to heal. His enemies had wounded him at Ramoth in his battle against Hazael, the king of Aram.

Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram, went down to Jezreel. He went there to see Joram. That's because Joram had been wounded. Ahaziah was king of Judah. Joram was the son of Ahab.

[7]Through Ahaziah's visit to Joram, God caused Ahaziah to fall from power. When Ahaziah arrived, he rode out with Joram to meet Jehu, the son of Nimshi. The LORD had anointed Jehu to destroy the royal family of Ahab. [8]So Jehu punished Ahab's family, just as the LORD had told him to. While he was doing it, he found the officials of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's relatives. They had been serving Ahaziah. So Jehu killed them. [9]Then he went to look for Ahaziah. Jehu's men captured him while he was hiding in Samaria. Ahaziah was brought to Jehu and put to death. People buried him, because they said, "He was a grandson of Jehoshaphat, who followed the LORD with all his heart." So no one in the royal family of Ahaziah was powerful enough to keep the kingdom.

Athaliah and Joash

[10]Athaliah was Ahaziah's mother. She saw that her son was dead. So she began to wipe out the whole royal family of Judah. [11]But Jehosheba went and got Joash, the son of Ahaziah. Jehosheba was the daughter of King Jehoram. She stole Joash away from among the royal princes. All of them were about to be murdered. She put Joash and his nurse in a bedroom. Jehosheba, the daughter of King Jehoram, was the wife of Jehoiada the priest. She was also Ahaziah's sister. So Jehosheba hid the child from Athaliah. That's why Athaliah couldn't kill him. [12]The child remained hidden with the priest and his wife at God's temple for six years. Athaliah ruled over the land during that time.

2 Chronicles 23

[1]When Joash was seven years old, Jehoiada showed how strong he was. He made a covenant with the commanders of groups of 100 men. The commanders were Azariah son of Jeroham, Ishmael son of Jehohanan, Azariah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat son of Zikri. [2]They went all through Judah. They gathered together the Levites and the leaders of Israelite families from all the towns. They came to Jerusalem. [3]The whole community made a covenant with the new king at God's temple.

Jehoiada said to them, "Ahaziah's son will rule over Judah. That's what the LORD promised concerning the family line of David. [4]Here's what I want you to do. A third of you priests and Levites who are going on duty on the Sabbath day must guard the doors. [5]A third of you must guard the royal palace. And a third of you must guard the Foundation Gate. All the other men must guard the courtyards of the LORD's temple. [6]Don't let anyone enter the temple except the priests and Levites who are on duty. They can enter because they are set apart to the LORD. But all the other men must obey the LORD's command not to enter. [7]The Levites must station themselves around the new king. Each man must have his weapon in his hand. Anyone else who enters the temple must be put to death. Stay close to the king no matter where he goes."

[8]The Levites did just as Jehoiada the priest ordered. So did all the men of Judah. Each commander got his men. Some of the men were going on duty on the Sabbath day. Others were going off duty. Jehoiada didn't let any of the groups go. [9]Then he gave weapons to the commanders of the groups. He gave them spears, large shields and small shields. The weapons had belonged to King David. They had been in God's temple. [10]Jehoiada stationed all the men around the new king. Each man had his weapon in his hand. They were standing near the altar and the temple. They stood from the south side of the temple to its north side.

[11]Jehoiada and his sons brought Ahaziah's son out. They put the crown on him. They gave him a copy of the covenant. And they announced that he was king. They anointed him. Then they shouted, "May the king live a long time!"

[12]Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and cheering the new king. So she went to them at the LORD's temple. [13]She looked, and there was the king! He was standing next to his pillar at the entrance. The officers and trumpet players were standing beside the king. All the people of the land were filled with

joy. They were blowing trumpets. Musicians with their musical instruments were leading the songs of praise. Then Athaliah tore her royal robes. She shouted, “Treason! It’s treason!”

14Jehoiada the priest sent out the commanders of the groups of 100 men. They were in charge of the troops. He said to them, “Bring her away from the temple between the line of guards. Use your swords to kill anyone who follows her.” The priest had said, “Don’t put her to death at the LORD’s temple.” 15So they grabbed her as she reached the entrance of the Horse Gate on the palace grounds. There they put her to death.

16Then Jehoiada made a covenant. He promised that he, the people and the king would be the LORD’s people. 17All the people went to Baal’s temple. They tore it down. They smashed the altars and the statues of gods. They killed Mattan in front of the altars. He was the priest of Baal.

18Then Jehoiada put the priests, who were Levites, in charge of the LORD’s temple. David had given them their duties in the temple. He had appointed them to sacrifice burnt offerings to the LORD. He wanted them to do it in keeping with what was written in the Law of Moses. David wanted them to sing and be full of joy. 19Jehoiada stationed guards at the gates of the LORD’s temple. No one who was “unclean” in any way could enter.

20Jehoiada took with him the commanders of hundreds, the nobles, the rulers of the people, and all the people of the land. He brought the new king down from the LORD’s temple. They went into the palace through the Upper Gate. Then they seated the king on the royal throne. 21All the people of the land were filled with joy. And the city was calm. That’s because Athaliah had been killed by a sword.

2 Chronicles 24

Joash Repairs the Temple

[1]Joash was seven years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 40 years. His mother's name was Zibiah. She was from Beersheba. [2]Joash did what was right in the eyes of the LORD. Joash lived that way as long as Jehoiada the priest was alive. [3]Jehoiada chose two wives for Joash. They had sons and daughters by Joash.

[4]Some time later Joash decided to make the LORD's temple look like new again. [5]He called together the priests and Levites. He said to them, "Go to the towns of Judah. Collect the money that the nation of Israel owes every year. Use it to repair the temple of your God. Do it now." But the Levites didn't do it right away.

[6]So the king sent for Jehoiada the chief priest. He said to him, "Why haven't you required the Levites to bring in the tax from Judah and Jerusalem? It was set up by the LORD's servant Moses and the whole community of Israel. It was used for the tent where the tablets of the covenant law were kept."

[7]The children of that evil woman Athaliah had broken into God's temple. They had used even its sacred objects for the gods that were named Baal.

[8]King Joash commanded that a wooden chest be made. It was placed outside near the gate of the LORD's temple. [9]Then a message went out in Judah and Jerusalem. It said that the people should bring the tax to the LORD. God's servant Moses had required Israel to pay that tax when they were in the desert. [10]All the officials and people gladly brought their money. They dropped it into the chest until it was full. [11]The chest was brought in by the Levites to the king's officials. Every time the officials saw there was a large amount of money in the chest, it was emptied out. The royal secretary and the officer of the chief priest came and emptied it. Then they carried it back to its place. They did it regularly. They collected a great amount of money. [12]The king and Jehoiada gave it to the people who were doing the work on the LORD's temple. They hired people who could lay the stones and people who could work with wood. They also hired people who could work with iron and bronze. They hired all of them to repair the temple.

[13]The men in charge of the work did their best. The repairs went very well under them. They rebuilt God's temple. They did it in keeping with its original plans. They made the temple even stronger. [14]So they finished the work. Then they brought the rest of the money to the king and Jehoiada. It was used to pay for the objects that were made for the LORD's temple. The objects were used for serving at the temple. They were also used for the burnt offerings. The objects included dishes and other things made out of gold and silver. As long as Jehoiada lived, burnt offerings were sacrificed continually at the LORD's temple.

[15]Jehoiada had become very old. He died at the age of 130. [16]He was buried with the kings in the City of David. That's because he had done so many good things in Israel for God and his temple.

The Evil Things Joash Did

[17]After Jehoiada died, the officials of Judah came to King Joash. They bowed down to him. He listened to them. [18]They turned their backs on the temple of the LORD, the God of their people. They worshiped poles made to honor the female god named Asherah. They also worshiped statues of other gods. Because Judah and Jerusalem were guilty of sin, God became angry with them. [19]The LORD sent prophets to the people to bring them back to him. The prophets told the people what they were doing wrong. But the people wouldn't listen.

[20]Then the Spirit of God came on Zechariah the priest. He was the son of Jehoiada. Zechariah stood in front of the people. He told them, "God says, 'Why do you refuse to obey my commands? You will not have success. You have deserted me. So I have deserted you.' "

[21]But the people made evil plans against Zechariah. The king ordered them to kill Zechariah by throwing stones at him. They did it in the courtyard of the LORD's temple. [22]King Joash didn't remember how kind Zechariah's father Jehoiada had been to him. So he killed Jehoiada's son. As Zechariah was dying he said, "May the LORD see this. May he hold you responsible."

[23]In the spring, the army of Aram marched into Judah and Jerusalem against Joash. They killed all the leaders of the people. They took a large amount of goods from Judah. They sent it to their king in Damascus. [24]The army of Aram had come with only a few men. But the LORD allowed them to win the battle over a much larger army. Judah had deserted the LORD, the God of their people. That's why the LORD punished Joash. [25]The army of Aram pulled back. They left Joash badly wounded. His officials planned to do evil things to him. That's because he murdered the son of Jehoiada the priest. They killed Joash in his bed.

So he died. He was buried in the City of David. But he wasn’t placed in the tombs of the kings.

[26]Those who made the plans against Joash were Zabad and Jehozabad. Zabad was the son of Shimeath. She was from Ammon. Jehozabad was the son of Shimrith. She was from Moab. [27]The story of the sons of Joash is written in the notes on the records of the kings. The many prophecies about him are written there too. So is the record of how he made God’s temple look like new again. Joash’s son Amaziah became the next king after him.

2 Chronicles 25

Amaziah King of Judah

[1]Amaziah was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 29 years. His mother's name was Jehoaddan. She was from Jerusalem. [2]Amaziah did what was right in the eyes of the LORD. But he didn't do it with all his heart.
[3]The kingdom was firmly under his control. So he put to death the officials who had murdered his father, the king. [4]But he didn't put their children to death. He obeyed what is written in the Law, the Book of Moses. There the LORD commanded, "Parents must not be put to death because of what their children do.
And children must not be put to death because of what their parents do. People must die because of their own sins." (Deuteronomy 24:16)

[5]Amaziah called the people of Judah together. He arranged them by families under commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds. He did it for all the people of Judah and Benjamin. Then he brought together the men who were 20 years old or more. He found out there were 300,000 men who were able to serve in the army. They could handle spears and shields. [6]He also hired 100,000 fighting men from Israel. He had to pay them almost four tons of silver.

[7]But a man of God came to him. He said, "Your Majesty, these troops from Israel must not march out with you. The LORD is not with Israel. He isn't with any of the people of Ephraim. [8]Go and fight bravely in battle if you want to. But God will destroy you right in front of your enemies. God has the power to help you or destroy you."

[9]Amaziah asked the man of God, "But what about all that silver I paid for these Israelite troops?"

The man of God replied, "The LORD can give you much more than that."

[10]So Amaziah let the troops go who had come to him from Ephraim. He sent them home. They were very angry with Judah. They were still very angry when they went home.

[11]Then Amaziah showed how strong he was. He led his army to the Valley of Salt. There he killed 10,000 men of Seir. [12]The army of Judah also captured 10,000 men alive. The army of Judah took them to the top of a cliff. Then they threw them down. All of them were smashed to pieces.

[13]The troops Amaziah had sent back attacked some towns that belonged to Judah. Amaziah hadn't allowed the troops to take part in the war. They attacked towns from Samaria to Beth Horon. They killed 3,000 people. They carried off huge amounts of goods.

14 Amaziah returned from killing the men of Edom. He brought back the statues of the gods of Seir. He set them up as his own gods. He bowed down to them. He burned sacrifices to them. 15 The LORD was very angry with Amaziah. He sent a prophet to him. The prophet said, “Why do you ask the gods of those people for advice? They couldn’t even save their own people from your power!”

16 While the prophet was still speaking, the king spoke to him. He said, “Did I ask you for advice? Stop! If you don’t, you will be struck down.”

So the prophet stopped. But then he said, “I know that God has decided to destroy you. That’s because you have worshiped other gods. You haven’t listened to my advice.”

17 Amaziah, the king of Judah, spoke to his advisers. Then he sent a message to Jehoash, the king of Israel. Jehoash was the son of Jehoahaz. Jehoahaz was the son of Jehu. Amaziah dared Jehoash, “Come on! Let us face each other in battle!”

18 But Jehoash, the king of Israel, answered Amaziah, the king of Judah. Jehoash said, “A thorn bush in Lebanon sent a message to a cedar tree there. The thorn bush said, ‘Give your daughter to be married to my son.’ Then a wild animal in Lebanon came along. It crushed the thorn bush by walking on it. 19 You brag that you have won the battle over Edom. You are very proud. But stay home! Why ask for trouble? Why bring yourself crashing down? Why bring Judah down with you?”

20 But Amaziah wouldn’t listen. That’s because God had planned to hand Judah over to Jehoash. After all, they had asked the gods of Edom for advice. 21 So Jehoash, the king of Israel, attacked. He and Amaziah, the king of Judah, faced each other in battle. The battle took place at Beth Shemesh in Judah. 22 Israel drove Judah away. Every man ran home. 23 Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah at Beth Shemesh. Amaziah was the son of Joash. Joash was the son of Ahaziah. Jehoash brought Amaziah to Jerusalem. Jehoash broke down part of its wall. It’s the part that went from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate. That part of the wall was 600 feet long. 24 Jehoash took all the gold and silver. He took all the objects he found in God’s temple. Obed-Edom had been in charge of them. Jehoash also took the palace treasures and the prisoners. Then he returned to Samaria.

25 Amaziah king of Judah lived for 15 years after Jehoash king of Israel died. Amaziah was the son of Joash. Jehoash was the son of Jehoahaz. 26 The other events of Amaziah's rule from beginning to end are written down. They are written in the records of the kings of Judah and Israel. [27]Amaziah turned away from obeying the LORD. From that time on, some people made evil plans against him in Jerusalem. So he ran away to Lachish. But they sent men after him to Lachish. There they killed him. [28]His body was brought back on a horse to Jerusalem, the City of Judah. There he was buried in the family tomb.

2 Chronicles 26

Uzziah King of Judah

[1]All the people of Judah made Uzziah king. He was 16 years old. They made him king in place of his father Amaziah. [2]Uzziah rebuilt Elath. He brought it under Judah's control again. He did it after Amaziah joined the members of his family who had already died.

[3]Uzziah was 16 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 52 years. His mother's name was Jekoliah. She was from Jerusalem. [4]Uzziah did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Amaziah had done.
[5]He tried to obey God during the days of Zechariah. Zechariah taught him to have respect for God. As long as Uzziah obeyed the LORD, God gave him success.

[6]Uzziah went to war against the Philistines. He broke down the walls of Gath, Jabneh and Ashdod. Then he rebuilt some towns that were near Ashdod. He also rebuilt some other towns where Philistines lived. [7]God helped him fight against the Philistines. He also helped him fight against the Meunites and against the Arabs who lived in Gur Baal. [8]The Ammonites brought to Uzziah the gifts he required of them. He became famous all the way to the border of Egypt. That's because he had become very powerful.

[9]Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem. They were at the Corner Gate, the Valley Gate and the angle of the wall. He made the towers very strong. [10]He also built towers in the desert. He dug many wells, because he had a lot of livestock. The livestock were in the western hills and on the plains. Uzziah had people working in his fields and vineyards in the hills and in the rich lands. That's because he loved the soil.

[11]Uzziah's army was well trained. It was ready to march out by military groups according to their numbers. Jeiel and Maaseiah brought them together.
Jeiel was the secretary. Maaseiah was the officer. They were under the direction of Hananiah. He was one of the royal officials. [12]The total number of family leaders who were over the fighting men was 2,600. [13]An army of 307,500 men was under their command. The men were trained for war. They were a powerful force. They helped the king against his enemies. [14]Uzziah provided the entire army with shields, spears, helmets, coats of armor, bows, and stones for their slings. [15]In Jerusalem he invented machines to be used on the towers and on the corners of city walls. These machines were used by men who shot arrows from the walls. The machines were also used by men to throw large stones from the walls. Uzziah became famous everywhere. God greatly helped him until he became powerful.

16But after Uzziah became powerful, his pride brought him down. He wasn't faithful to the LORD his God. He entered the LORD's temple to burn incense on the altar for burning incense. 17Azariah the priest followed him in. So did 80 other brave priests of the LORD. 18They stood up to Uzziah. They said, "Uzziah, it isn't right for you to burn incense to the LORD. Only the priests are supposed to do that. They are members of the family line of Aaron. They have been set apart to burn incense. So get out of here. Leave the temple. You haven't been faithful. The LORD God won't honor you."

19Uzziah was holding a shallow cup. He was ready to burn incense in it. He became angry. He shouted at the priests in the LORD's temple. He did it near the altar for burning incense. While he was shouting, a skin disease suddenly broke out on his forehead. 20Azariah the chief priest and all the other priests looked at him. They saw that Uzziah had a skin disease on his forehead. So they hurried him out of the temple. Actually, he himself really wanted to leave. He knew that the LORD was making him suffer.

21King Uzziah had the skin disease until the day he died. He lived in a separate house because he had the disease. And he wasn't allowed to enter the LORD's temple. Uzziah's son Jotham was in charge of the palace. Jotham ruled over the people of the land.

22The other events of Uzziah's rule from beginning to end were written down by Isaiah the prophet. Isaiah was the son of Amoz. 23Uzziah joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried near them in a royal burial ground. People said, "He had a skin disease." Uzziah's son Jotham became the next king after him.

2 Chronicles 27

Jotham King of Judah

[1]Jotham was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 16 years. His mother's name was Jerusha. She was the daughter of Zadok. [2]Jotham did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Uzziah had done.
But Jotham didn't enter the LORD's temple as Uzziah had done. The people, however, continued to do very sinful things. [3]Jotham rebuilt the Upper Gate of the LORD's temple. He did a lot of work on the wall at the hill of Ophel. [4]He built towns in the hill country of Judah. He also built forts and towers in areas that had a lot of trees in them.

[5]Jotham went to war against the king of Ammon. He won the battle over the Ammonites. That year they paid Jotham almost four tons of silver. They paid him 1,800 tons of wheat and 1,500 tons of barley. They also brought him the same amount in the second and third years.

[6]Jotham became powerful. That's because he had worshiped the LORD his God with all his heart.

[7]The other events of Jotham's rule are written down. That includes all his wars and the other things he did. All these things are written in the records of the kings of Israel and Judah. [8]Jotham was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 16 years. [9]Jotham joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in the City of David. Jotham's son Ahaz became the next king after him.

2 Chronicles 28

Ahaz King of Judah

[1]Ahaz was 20 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 16 years. He didn't do what was right in the eyes of the LORD. He didn't do what King David had done. [2]He followed the ways of the kings of Israel. He also made statues of gods that were named Baal. [3]He burned sacrifices in the Valley of Ben Hinnom. He sacrificed his children in the fire to other gods. He followed the practices of the nations. The LORD hates these practices. The LORD had driven out those nations to make room for the people of Israel. [4]Ahaz offered sacrifices and burned incense at the high places. He also did it on the tops of hills and under every green tree.

[5]So the LORD his God handed him over to the king of Aram. The men of Aram won the battle over him. They took many of his people as prisoners. They brought them to Damascus.

God also handed Ahaz over to Pekah. Pekah was king of Israel. His army wounded or killed many of the troops of Ahaz. [6]In one day Pekah, the son of Remaliah, killed 120,000 soldiers in Judah. That's because Judah had deserted the LORD, the God of their people. [7]Zikri was a fighting man from Ephraim. He killed Maaseiah, Azrikam and Elkanah. Maaseiah was the king's son. Azrikam was the officer who was in charge of the palace. And Elkanah was next in command after the king. [8]The men of Israel captured 200,000 wives, sons and daughters from their relatives in Judah. They also took a large amount of goods. They carried all of it back to Samaria.

[9]But a prophet of the LORD was there. His name was Oded. When the army returned to Samaria, he went out to meet them. He said to them, "The LORD is the God of your people. He was very angry with Judah. So he handed them over to you. But you have killed them. Your anger reached all the way to heaven. [10]Now you are planning to make the men and women of Judah and Jerusalem your slaves. But aren't you also guilty of sins against the LORD your God? [11]Listen to me! You have taken your relatives from Judah as prisoners. The LORD is very angry with you. So send your relatives back."

[12]Then some of the leaders in Ephraim stood up to those who were returning from the war. The leaders were Azariah, Berekiah, Jehizkiah and Amasa. Azariah was the son of Jehohanan. Berekiah was the son of Meshillemoth.

Jehizkiah was the son of Shallum. And Amasa was the son of Hadlai. [13]"Don't bring those prisoners here," they said. "If you do, we'll be guilty in the sight of the LORD. Do you really want to add to our sin and guilt? We're already very guilty. The LORD is very angry with Israel."

[14]So the soldiers gave up the prisoners and the goods they had taken. They did it in front of the officials and the whole community. [15]Azariah, Berekiah, Jehizkiah and Amasa received the prisoners. From the goods that had been taken, they gave clothes to everyone who was naked. They gave them clothes, sandals, food, drink and healing lotion. They put all the weak people on donkeys. They took them back to their relatives at Jericho. Then they returned to Samaria. Jericho was also known as the City of Palm Trees.

[16]At that time King Ahaz sent men to the king of Assyria to get help. [17]The men of Edom had come and attacked Judah again. They had carried away prisoners. [18]At the same time the Philistines had attacked towns in the western hills and in the Negev Desert of Judah. They had captured Beth Shemesh, Aijalon and Gederoth. They had also captured Soko, Timnah and Gimzo and the villages around them. They had settled down in all of them. [19]The LORD had made Judah less powerful because of Ahaz, their king. Ahaz had stirred up the people of Judah to do evil things. He hadn't been faithful to the LORD at all. [20]Tiglath-Pileser came to Ahaz. But he gave Ahaz trouble instead of help. Tiglath-Pileser was king of Assyria. [21]Ahaz took some things from the LORD's temple. He also took some from the royal palace and from the officials. He gave all of them to the king of Assyria. But that didn't help Ahaz.

[22]When King Ahaz was in trouble, he became even more unfaithful to the LORD. [23]Ahaz offered sacrifices to the gods of Damascus. They had won the battle over him. Ahaz thought, "The gods of the kings of Aram have helped them. So I'll sacrifice to those gods. Then they'll help me." But those gods only caused his ruin. In fact, those gods caused the ruin of the whole nation of Israel.

[24]Ahaz gathered together everything that belonged to God's temple. He cut all of it in pieces. Ahaz shut the doors of the LORD's temple. He set up altars at every street corner in Jerusalem. [25]In every town in Judah he built high places. Sacrifices were burned there to other gods. That made the LORD, the God of his people, very angry.

[26]The other events of the rule of Ahaz and all his evil practices from beginning to end are written down. They are written in the records of the kings of Judah and Israel. [27]Ahaz joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in the city of Jerusalem. But he wasn't placed in the tombs of the kings of Israel. Ahaz’s son Hezekiah became the next king after him.

2 Chronicles 29

Hezekiah Purifies the Temple

[1]Hezekiah was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 29 years. His mother's name was Abijah. She was the daughter of Zechariah.
[2]Hezekiah did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as King David had done.

[3]In the first month of Hezekiah's first year as king, he opened the doors of the LORD's temple. He repaired them. [4]He brought the priests and Levites in. He gathered them together in the open area on the east side of the temple. [5]He said, "Levites, listen to me! Set yourselves apart to the LORD. Set apart the temple of the LORD. He's the God of your people who lived long ago. Remove anything 'unclean' from the temple. [6]Our people weren't faithful. They did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God. They deserted him. They turned their faces away from the place where he lives. They turned their backs on him. [7]They also shut the doors of the temple porch. They put the lamps out. They didn't burn incense at the temple. They didn't sacrifice burnt offerings there to the God of Israel. [8]So the LORD has become angry with Judah and Jerusalem. He has made them look so bad that everyone is shocked when they see them. They laugh at them. You can see it with your own eyes. [9]That's why our fathers have been killed by swords. That's why our sons and daughters and wives have become prisoners. [10]So I'm planning to make a covenant with the LORD, the God of Israel. Then he'll stop being angry with us. [11]My sons, don't fail to obey the LORD. He has chosen you to stand in front of him and work for him. He wants you to serve him and burn incense to him."

[12]Here are the Levites who went to work.

Mahath and Joel were from the family line of Kohath.
Mahath was the son of Amasai. Joel was the son of Azariah.
Kish and Azariah were from the family line of Merari.
Kish was the son of Abdi. Azariah was the son of Jehallelel.
Joah and Eden were from the family line of Gershon.
Joah was the son of Zimmah. Eden was the son of Joah.
[13]Shimri and Jeiel were from the family line of Elizaphan.

Zechariah and Mattaniah were from the family line of Asaph.
14 Jehiel and Shimei were from the family line of Heman.
Shemaiah and Uzziel were from the family line of Jeduthun.

15 All these Levites gathered the other Levites together. They set themselves apart to the LORD. Then they went in to purify the LORD's temple. That's what the king had ordered them to do. They did what the LORD told them to. 16 The priests went into the LORD's temple to make it pure. They brought out to the temple courtyard everything that was "unclean." They had found "unclean" things in the LORD's temple. The Levites took them and carried them out to the Kidron Valley. 17 On the first day of the first month they began to set everything in the temple apart to the LORD. By the eighth day of the month they reached the LORD's porch. For eight more days they set the LORD's temple itself apart to him. They finished on the 16th day of the first month.

18 Then they went to King Hezekiah. They reported, "We've purified the whole temple of the LORD. That includes the altar for burnt offerings and all its tools. It also includes the table for the holy bread and all its objects. 19 We've prepared all the things King Ahaz had removed. We've set them apart to the LORD. Ahaz had removed them while he was king. He wasn't faithful to the LORD. Those things are now in front of the LORD's altar."

20 Early the next morning King Hezekiah gathered together the city officials. They all went up to the LORD's temple. 21 They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven male lambs and seven male goats with them. They sacrificed the animals as a sin offering for the kingdom, for the temple and for Judah. The king commanded the priests to offer them on the LORD's altar. The priests were from the family line of Aaron. 22 They killed the bulls. Then they splashed the blood against the altar. Next they killed the rams and splashed the blood against the altar. Then they killed the lambs and splashed the blood against the altar. 23 The goats for the sin offering were brought to the king and the whole community. They placed their hands on them. 24 Then the priests killed the goats. They put the blood on the altar as a sin offering. It paid for the sin of the whole nation of Israel. The king had ordered the burnt offering and the sin offering for the whole nation.

25 Hezekiah stationed the Levites in the LORD's temple. They had cymbals, harps and lyres. They did everything in the way King David, his prophet Gad, and Nathan the prophet had required. The LORD had given commands about all these things through his prophets. [26]So the Levites stood ready with David's musical instruments. And the priests had their trumpets ready.

[27]Hezekiah gave the order to sacrifice the burnt offering on the altar. The offering began. Singing to the LORD also began. The singing was accompanied by the trumpets and by the instruments of David. He had been king of Israel. [28]The whole community bowed down. They worshiped the LORD. At the same time the musicians played their musical instruments. The priests blew their trumpets. All of that continued until the burnt offering had been sacrificed.

[29]So the offerings were finished. King Hezekiah got down on his knees. He worshiped the LORD. So did everyone who was with him. [30]The king and his officials ordered the Levites to praise the LORD. They used the words of David and Asaph the prophet. They sang praises with joy. They bowed down and worshiped the LORD.

[31]Then Hezekiah said, "You have set yourselves apart to the LORD. Come and bring sacrifices and thank offerings to his temple." So the whole community brought sacrifices and thank offerings. Everyone who wanted to brought burnt offerings.

[32]The whole community brought 70 bulls, 100 rams and 200 male lambs. They brought all of them as burnt offerings to the LORD. [33]The total number of animals set apart as sacrifices to the LORD was 600 bulls and 3,000 sheep and goats. [34]But there weren't enough priests to skin all the burnt offerings. So their relatives, the Levites, helped them. They worked until the task was finished. By that time other priests had been set apart to the LORD. The Levites had been more careful than the priests when they set themselves apart. [35]There were large numbers of burnt offerings, along with the drink offerings and the fat from the friendship offerings. They were offered along with the burnt offerings.

So the service of the LORD's temple was started up again. [36]Hezekiah and all the people were filled with joy. That's because everything had been done so quickly. God had provided for his people in a wonderful way.

2 Chronicles 30

Hezekiah Celebrates the Passover Feast

[1]Hezekiah sent a message to all the people of Israel and Judah. He also wrote letters to the tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh. He invited everyone to come to the LORD's temple in Jerusalem. He wanted them to celebrate the Passover Feast to honor the LORD. He is the God of Israel. [2]The king, his officials and the whole community in Jerusalem decided to celebrate the Passover Feast in the second month. [3]They hadn't been able to celebrate it at the regular time. That's because there weren't enough priests who had set themselves apart to the LORD. Also, the people hadn't gathered together in Jerusalem. [4]The plan seemed good to the king and the whole community. [5]They decided to send a message all through Israel. It was sent out from Beersheba all the way to Dan. The message invited the people to come to Jerusalem. It invited them to celebrate the Passover Feast to honor the LORD, the God of Israel. The Passover Feast hadn't been celebrated by large numbers of people for a long time. It hadn't been done in keeping with what was written in the law.

[6]Messengers went all through Israel and Judah. They carried letters from the king and his officials. The king had ordered them to do that. The letters said,

> "People of Israel, return to the LORD. He is the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel. Return to him. Then he will return to you who are left in the land. You have escaped from the power of the kings of Assyria. [7]Don't be like your parents and the rest of your people. They weren't faithful to the LORD, the God of their people. That's why he punished them. He made them look so bad that everyone was shocked when they saw them. You can see it for yourselves. [8]Don't be stubborn. Don't be as your people were. Obey the LORD. Come to his temple. He has set it apart to himself forever. Serve the LORD your God. Then he'll stop being angry with you. [9]Suppose you return to the LORD. Then those who captured your relatives and children will be kind to them. In fact, your relatives and children will come back to this land. The LORD your God is kind and tender. He won't turn away from you if you return to him."

[10]The messengers went from town to town in Ephraim and Manasseh. They went all the way to Zebulun. But people laughed and made fun of them. [11]In spite of that, some people from Asher, Manasseh and Zebulun made themselves humble. They went to Jerusalem. [12]God helped the people of Judah. He helped them agree with one another. So they did what the king and his officials had ordered. They did what the LORD told them to do.

[13]A very large crowd of people gathered together in Jerusalem. They went there to celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread. It took place in the second month. [14]They removed the altars in Jerusalem. They cleared away the altars for burning incense. They threw all the altars into the Kidron Valley.

[15]They killed the Passover lamb on the 14th day of the second month. The priests and Levites were ashamed of how they had lived. They set themselves apart to the LORD. They brought burnt offerings to his temple. [16]Then they did their regular tasks just as the Law of Moses, the man of God, required. The Levites gave the blood of the animals to the priests. The priests splashed it against the altar. [17]Many people in the crowd hadn't set themselves apart to the LORD. They weren't "clean." They couldn't set apart their lambs to him. So the Levites had to kill the Passover lambs for all of them. [18]Many people came from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun. Most of them hadn't made themselves pure and "clean." But they still ate the Passover meal. That was against what was written in the law. But Hezekiah prayed for them. He said, "The LORD is good. May he forgive everyone [19]who wants to worship God with all their heart. God is the LORD, the God of their people. May God forgive them even if they aren't 'clean' in keeping with the rules of the temple." [20]The LORD answered Hezekiah's prayer. He healed the people.

[21]The people of Israel who were in Jerusalem celebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread. They celebrated for seven days with great joy. The Levites and priests praised the LORD every day. They praised the LORD with loud musical instruments. The instruments had been set apart to the LORD.

[22]Hezekiah spoke words that gave hope to all the Levites. They understood how to serve the LORD well. For the seven days of the feast they ate the share given to them. They also sacrificed friendship offerings. They praised the LORD, the God of their people.

[23]Then the whole community agreed to celebrate the feast for seven more days. So for another seven days they celebrated with joy. [24]Hezekiah, the king of Judah, provided 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep and goats for the community. The officials provided 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep and goats for them. A large number of priests set themselves apart to the LORD. [25]The entire community of Judah was filled with joy. So were the priests and Levites. And so were all the people who had gathered together from Israel. That included the outsiders who had come from Israel. It also included those who lived in Judah. [26]There was great joy in Jerusalem. There hadn’t been anything like it in Israel since the days of Solomon, the son of David. Solomon had been king of Israel. [27]The priests and Levites gave their blessing to the people. God heard them. Their prayer reached all the way to heaven. It’s the holy place where God lives.

2 Chronicles 31

[1]The Passover Feast came to an end. The people of Israel who were in Jerusalem went out to the towns of Judah. They smashed the sacred stones. They cut down the poles used to worship the female god named Asherah. They destroyed the high places and the altars. They did those things all through Judah and Benjamin. They also did them in Ephraim and Manasseh. They destroyed all the objects used to worship other gods. Then the Israelites returned to their own towns and property.

The People Bring Gifts to the LORD

[2]Hezekiah put the priests and Levites in groups based on their duties. The priests sacrificed burnt offerings and friendship offerings. The Levites served the LORD by giving thanks and singing praises at the gates of his house. [3]The king gave some of his own possessions to the temple. He gave them for the morning and evening burnt offerings. He gave them for the burnt offerings for every Sabbath day. He gave them for the burnt offerings for every New Moon feast. And he gave them for the burnt offerings for every yearly appointed feast. He did it in keeping with what is written in the Law of the LORD. [4]Hezekiah gave an order to the people who were living in Jerusalem. He commanded them to give to the priests and Levites the share they owed them. Then the priests and Levites could give their full attention to the Law of the LORD. [5]The order went out. Right away the people of Israel began to give freely. They gave the first share of the harvest of their grain, fresh wine, olive oil and honey. They also gave the first share of everything else their fields produced. They brought a large amount. It was a tenth of everything. [6]Here is what the people of Israel and Judah who lived in the towns of Judah brought. They brought a tenth of their herds and flocks. They also brought a tenth of the holy things they had set apart to the LORD their God. They put them in piles. [7]They began doing it in the third month. They finished in the seventh month. [8]Hezekiah and his officials came and saw the piles. When they did, they praised the LORD. And they blessed his people Israel.

[9]Hezekiah asked the priests and Levites about the piles. [10]Azariah the chief priest answered him. He said, “The people have been bringing their gifts to the LORD’s temple. Ever since they began to bring them, we’ve had enough to eat. We have even had plenty to spare. That’s because the LORD has blessed his people. So we have a large amount left over." Azariah was from the family line of Zadok.

[11]Hezekiah gave orders to prepare storerooms in the LORD's temple. And it was done. [12]The people were faithful. They brought in their offerings and a tenth of everything they produced. They also brought the gifts they had set apart to the LORD. Konaniah the Levite was in charge of everything they brought. His brother Shimei was next in command after him. [13]Konaniah and his brother Shimei had helpers who worked with them. Their names were Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismakiah, Mahath and Benaiah. King Hezekiah and Azariah had appointed them. Azariah was the official in charge of God's temple.

[14]Kore the Levite guarded the East Gate. He was in charge of the offerings people chose to give to God. He handed out the offerings made to the LORD. He also handed out the gifts that had been set apart to the LORD. Kore was the son of Imnah. [15]Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah and Shekaniah helped Kore. They were faithful in helping him in the towns of the priests. They handed out gifts to their brother priests, group by group. They gave the gifts to old men and young men alike.

[16]In addition to that, they handed out gifts to the males who were three years old or more. The names of those males were listed in their family history. All of them would enter the LORD's temple. They would carry out their duties each day. Each group did all the different things it was supposed to do. [17]Kore and his Levite companions also handed out gifts to the priests. The priests were listed by their families in their family history. Those Levites also handed out gifts to the Levites who were 20 years old or more. Each group did all the different things it was supposed to do. [18]Those groups included all the little ones, the wives, and the sons and daughters of the whole community. All of them were listed in their family history. They were faithful in setting themselves apart to serve the LORD.

[19]Some of the priests lived in other towns or on farms around their towns. They were from the family line of Aaron. Men were chosen by name to hand out shares to those priests. They gave a share to every male among them. They also gave a share to everyone whose name was written down in the family history of the Levites.

[20]That's what Hezekiah did all through Judah. He did what was good and right. He was faithful to the LORD his God. [21]He tried to obey his God. He worked for him with all his heart. That's the way he worked in everything he did to serve God's temple. He obeyed the law. He followed the LORD's commands.

So he had success.

2 Chronicles 32

Sennacherib Warns Jerusalem

[1]Hezekiah had been completely faithful to the LORD. However, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and marched into Judah. Sennacherib surrounded the cities that had high walls around them. He got ready to attack them. He thought he could win the battle over them. He thought he could take them for himself. [2]Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come to Jerusalem to fight against it. [3]So he asked his officials and military leaders for advice. He asked them about blocking off the water from the springs outside the city. They gave him the advice he asked for. [4]They gathered together a large group of people. They blocked all the springs. They also blocked the stream that flowed through the land. "Why should the kings of Assyria come and find plenty of water?" they asked. [5]Then Hezekiah worked hard repairing all the broken parts of the wall. He built towers on it. He built another wall outside that one. He built up the areas that had been filled in around the City of David. He also made large numbers of weapons and shields.

[6]He appointed military officers over the people. He gathered the officers together in front of him in the open area at the city gate. He gave them words of hope. He said, [7]"Be strong. Be brave. Don't be afraid. Don't lose hope. The king of Assyria has a huge army with him. But there's a greater power with us than there is with him. [8]The only thing he has is human strength. But the LORD our God is with us. He will help us. He'll fight our battles." The people had great faith in what Hezekiah, the king of Judah, said.

[9]Later Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, and all his forces surrounded Lachish. They prepared to attack it. At that time, Sennacherib sent his officers to Jerusalem. They went there with a message for Hezekiah, the king of Judah. The message was also for all the people of Judah who were there. The message said,

> [10]"Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, says, 'Why are you putting your faith in what your king says? Why do you remain in Jerusalem when you are surrounded? [11]Hezekiah says, "The LORD our God will save us from the power of the king of Assyria." But he isn't telling you the truth. If you listen to him, you will die of hunger and thirst. [12]Didn't Hezekiah himself remove your god's high places and altars? Didn't Hezekiah say to the people of Judah and Jerusalem, "You must worship at one altar. You must burn sacrifices on it”?

13“ ‘Don’t you know what I and the kings who ruled before me have done? Don’t you know what we’ve done to all the peoples of the other lands? Were the gods of those nations ever able to save their lands from my power? 14The kings who ruled before me destroyed many nations. Which one of the gods of those nations has been able to save his people from me? So how can your god save you from my power? 15Don’t let Hezekiah trick you. He’s telling you lies. Don’t believe him. No god of any nation or kingdom has been able to save his people from my power. No god has been able to save his people from the power of the kings who ruled before me. So your god won’t save you from my power either!’ ”

16Sennacherib’s officers spoke even more things against the LORD God and his servant Hezekiah. 17The king also wrote letters against the LORD. His letters made fun of the God of Israel. They said, “The peoples of other lands have their gods. But those gods didn’t save their people from my power. So the god of Hezekiah won’t save his people from my power either.” 18Then the officers called out in the Hebrew language to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall. They were trying to scare them and make them afraid. That’s because they wanted to capture the city. 19They were comparing the God of Jerusalem to the gods of the other nations of the world. But those gods were only statues. They had been made by human hands.

20King Hezekiah cried out in prayer to God in heaven. He prayed about the problem Jerusalem was facing. So did Isaiah the prophet. He was the son of Amoz. 21The LORD sent an angel. The angel wiped out all the enemy’s fighting men, commanders and officers. He put an end to them right there in the camp of the Assyrian king. So Sennacherib went back to his own land in shame. He went into the temple of his god. There some of his own sons, the people closest to him, killed him with their swords.

22So the LORD saved Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem. He saved them from the power of Sennacherib, the king of Assyria. He also saved them from all their other enemies. He took care of them on every side. 23Many people brought offerings to Jerusalem for the LORD. They brought expensive gifts for Hezekiah, the king of Judah. From then on, all the nations thought well of him.

Hezekiah’s Pride, Success and Death

[24]In those days Hezekiah became sick. He knew he was about to die. So he prayed to the LORD. And the LORD answered him. He gave him a miraculous sign. [25]But Hezekiah's heart was proud. He didn't give thanks for the many kind things the LORD had done for him. So the LORD became angry with him. He also became angry with Judah and Jerusalem. [26]Then Hezekiah had a change of heart. He was sorry he had been proud. The people of Jerusalem were also sorry they had sinned. So the LORD wasn't angry with them as long as Hezekiah was king.

[27]Hezekiah was very rich. He received great honor. He made storerooms for his silver and gold. He also made them for his jewels, spices, shields and all kinds of expensive things. [28]He made buildings to store the harvest of grain, fresh wine and olive oil. He made barns for all kinds of cattle. He made sheep pens for his flocks. [29]He built villages. He gained large numbers of flocks and herds. God had made him very rich.

[30]Hezekiah blocked up the upper opening of the Gihon spring. He directed the water to flow down to the west side of the City of David. He had success in everything he did. [31]The rulers of Babylon sent messengers to him. They asked him about the miraculous sign that had taken place in the land. Then God left Hezekiah to test him. God wanted to know everything in Hezekiah's heart.

[32]Hezekiah did many things that showed he was faithful to the LORD. Those things and the other events of his rule are written down. They are written in the record of the vision of the prophet Isaiah, the son of Amoz. That record is part of the records of the kings of Judah and Israel. [33]Hezekiah joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried on the hill where the tombs of David's family are. The whole nation of Judah honored him when he died. So did the people of Jerusalem. Hezekiah's son Manasseh became the next king after him.

2 Chronicles 33

Manasseh King of Judah

[1]Manasseh was 12 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 55 years. [2]Manasseh did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD. He followed the practices of the nations. The LORD hated those practices. The LORD had driven out those nations to make room for the Israelites. [3]Manasseh rebuilt the high places. His father Hezekiah had destroyed them. Manasseh also set up altars to the gods that were named Baal. He made poles used to worship the female god named Asherah. He even bowed down to all the stars and worshiped them. [4]He built altars in the LORD's temple. The LORD had said about his temple, "My Name will remain in Jerusalem forever." [5]In the two courtyards of the LORD's temple Manasseh built altars to honor all the stars in the sky. [6]He sacrificed his children in the fire to other gods. He did it in the Valley of Ben Hinnom. He practiced all kinds of evil magic. He took part in worshiping evil powers. He got messages from people who had died. He talked to the spirits of people who have died. He did many things that were evil in the eyes of the LORD. Manasseh made the LORD very angry.

[7]Manasseh had carved a statue of a god. He put it in God's temple. God had spoken to David and his son Solomon about the temple. He had said, "My Name will be in this temple and in Jerusalem forever. Out of all the cities in the tribes of Israel I have chosen Jerusalem. [8]I gave this land to your people who lived long ago. I will not make the Israelites leave it again. But they must be careful to do everything I commanded them. They must follow all the laws, directions, and rules I gave them through Moses." [9]But Manasseh led Judah and the people of Jerusalem astray. They did more evil things than the nations the LORD had destroyed to make room for the Israelites.

[10]The LORD spoke to Manasseh and his people. But they didn't pay any attention to him. [11]So the LORD brought the army commanders of the king of Assyria against them. They took Manasseh as a prisoner. They put a hook in his nose. They put him in bronze chains. And they took him to Babylon. [12]When Manasseh was in trouble, he asked the LORD his God to help him. He made himself very humble in the sight of the God of his people. [13]Manasseh prayed to him. When he did, the LORD felt sorry for him. He answered his prayer. The LORD brought Manasseh back to Jerusalem and his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD is God.

14After that, Manasseh rebuilt the outer wall of the City of David. It was west of the Gihon spring in the valley. It reached all the way to the entrance of the Fish Gate. It went around the entire hill of Ophel. Manasseh also made the wall much higher. He stationed military commanders in all the cities in Judah that had high walls around them.

15Manasseh got rid of the false gods. He removed the statue of one of those gods from the LORD's temple. He also removed all the altars he had built on the temple hill and in Jerusalem. He threw them out of the city. 16Then he made the LORD's altar look like new again. He sacrificed friendship offerings and thank offerings on it. He told the people of Judah to serve the LORD, the God of Israel. 17The people continued to offer sacrifices at the high places. But they offered them only to the LORD their God.

18The other events of Manasseh's rule are written down in the official records of the kings of Judah. These records include his prayer to his God. They also include the words the prophets spoke to him in the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. 19Everything about Manasseh is written in the records of the prophets. That includes his prayer and the fact that God felt sorry for him. It includes everything he did before he made himself humble in the LORD's sight. It includes all his sins and the fact that he wasn't faithful to the LORD. It includes the locations where he built high places. It includes the places where he set up poles used to worship the female god named Asherah. And it includes the places where he set up statues of other gods. 20Manasseh joined the members of his family who had already died. He was buried in his palace. Manasseh's son Amon became the next king after him.

Amon King of Judah

21Amon was 22 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for two years. 22Amon did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Manasseh had done. Amon worshiped and offered sacrifices to all the statues of gods that Manasseh had made. 23He didn't make himself humble in the LORD's sight as his father Manasseh had done. So Amon became even more guilty.

24Amon's officials made plans against him. They murdered him in his palace. 25Then the people of the land killed all those who had made plans against King Amon. They made his son Josiah king in his place.

2 Chronicles 34

Josiah Makes Judah a Better Nation

[1]Josiah was eight years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 31 years. [2]He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD. He lived the way King David had lived. He didn't turn away from it to the right or the left.

[3]While he was still young, he began to worship the God of King David. It was the eighth year of Josiah's rule. In his 12th year Josiah began to get rid of the high places in Judah and Jerusalem. He removed the poles used to worship the female god named Asherah. He also removed the statues of other false gods. [4]He ordered the altars of the gods that were named Baal to be torn down. Josiah cut to pieces the altars above them that were used for burning incense. He smashed the Asherah poles. He also smashed the statues of other false gods. Josiah broke all of them to pieces. He scattered the pieces over the graves of those who had offered sacrifices to those gods. [5]He burned the bones of the priests on their altars. That's the way he made Judah and Jerusalem pure and "clean." [6]Josiah went to the towns of Manasseh, Ephraim and Simeon. He went all the way to Naphtali. He also went to the destroyed places around all those towns.
[7]Everywhere Josiah went he tore down the altars and the Asherah poles. He crushed the statues of gods to powder. He cut to pieces all the altars for burning incense. He destroyed all those things everywhere in Israel. Then he went back to Jerusalem.

[8]In the 18th year of Josiah's rule, he decided to make the land and temple pure and "clean." So he sent Shaphan, Maaseiah and Joah to repair the temple of the LORD his God. Shaphan was the son of Azaliah. Maaseiah was ruler of the city.
And Joah, the son of Joahaz, kept the records.

[9]These men went to Hilkiah the high priest. They gave him the money that had been brought into God's temple. The Levites who guarded the gates had collected it. They had received some of the money from the people of Manasseh and Ephraim. They had also received some from the other people who remained in Israel. The rest of the money came from other people. It came from all the people of Judah and Benjamin and the people living in Jerusalem. [10]Men were appointed to direct the work on the LORD's temple. All the money collected was given to them. These men paid the workers who repaired the temple. They made it look like new again. [11]They also gave money to the builders and those who worked with wood. The workers used it to buy lumber and blocks of stone. The lumber was used for the supports and beams for the buildings. The kings of Judah had let the buildings fall down.

12The workers were faithful in doing the work. Jahath and Obadiah directed them. They were Levites from the family line of Merari. Zechariah and Meshullam also directed them. They were from the family line of Kohath. The Levites were skilled in playing musical instruments. 13They were in charge of the laborers. They directed all the workers from job to job. Some of the Levites were secretaries and writers. Other Levites guarded the gates.

Hilkiah Finds the Book of the Law

14The money that had been taken into the LORD's temple was being brought out. At that time Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of the LORD. It had been given through Moses. 15Hilkiah spoke to Shaphan the secretary. Hilkiah said, "I've found the Book of the Law in the LORD's temple." Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan.

16Then Shaphan took the book to King Josiah. He told him, "Your officials are doing everything they've been asked to do. 17They have paid out the money that was in the LORD's temple. They've put it in the care of the directors and workers." 18Shaphan continued, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." Shaphan read some of it to the king.

19The king heard the words of the Law. When he did, he tore his royal robes. 20He gave orders to Hilkiah, Ahikam, Abdon, Shaphan the secretary and Asaiah. Ahikam was the son of Shaphan. Abdon was the son of Micah. And Asaiah was the king's attendant. Josiah commanded them, 21"Go. Ask the LORD for advice. Ask him about what is written in this book that has been found. Do it for me. Also do it for the people who remain in Israel and Judah. The LORD has been very angry with us. That's because our people before us didn't obey what the LORD had said. They didn't do everything written in this book."

22Hilkiah and the people the king had sent with him went to speak to Huldah the prophet. She was the wife of Shallum. Shallum was the son of Tokhath. Tokhath was the son of Hasrah. Shallum took care of the sacred robes. Huldah lived in the New Quarter of Jerusalem.

23Huldah said to them, "The LORD is the God of Israel. He says, 'Here is what you should tell the man who sent you to me. 24"The LORD says, 'I am going to bring horrible trouble on this place and its people. There are curses written down in the book that has been read to the king of Judah. All those curses will take place. [25]That's because the people have deserted me. They have burned incense to other gods. They have made me very angry because of everything their hands have made. So my anger will burn like a fire against this place. And the fire of my anger will not be put out.' " ' [26]The king of Judah sent you to ask for advice. Tell him, 'The LORD is the God of Israel. He has a message for you about the things you heard. [27]The LORD says, "Your heart was tender. You made yourself humble in my sight. You heard what I spoke against this place and its people. So you made yourself humble. You tore your royal robes and wept. And I have heard you," announces the LORD. [28]You will join the members of your family who have already died. You will be buried in peace. You will not see all the trouble I am going to bring. I am going to bring trouble on this place and the people who live here.' "

Huldah's answer was taken back to the king.

[29]Then the king called together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. [30]He went up to the LORD's temple. The people of Judah and Jerusalem went with him. So did the priests and Levites. All of them went, from the least important of them to the most important. The king had all the words of the Book of the Covenant read to them. The book had been found in the LORD's temple. [31]The king stood next to his pillar. He agreed to the terms of the covenant in front of the LORD. The king promised to serve the LORD and obey his commands, directions and rules. He promised to obey them with all his heart and with all his soul. So the king promised to obey the terms of the covenant that were written in that book.

[32]Then he had everyone in Jerusalem and in Benjamin commit themselves to the covenant. The people of Jerusalem did it in keeping with the covenant of the God of Israel.

[33]Josiah removed all the statues of false gods from the whole territory that belonged to the Israelites. The LORD hated those statues. Josiah had everyone in Israel serve the LORD their God. As long as he lived, they didn't fail to follow the LORD, the God of their people.

2 Chronicles 35

Josiah Celebrates the Passover Feast

[1]Josiah celebrated the Passover Feast in Jerusalem to honor the LORD. The Passover lamb was killed on the 14th day of the first month. [2]Josiah appointed the priests to their duties. He cheered them up as they served the LORD at his temple. [3]The Levites taught all the people of Israel. The Levites had been set apart to the LORD. Josiah said to them, “Put the sacred ark of the covenant in the temple Solomon built. He was the son of David and king of Israel. The ark must not be carried around on your shoulders. Serve the LORD your God. Serve his people Israel. [4]Prepare yourselves by families in your groups. Do it based on the directions written by David, the king of Israel, and by his son Solomon.

[5]“Stand at the temple. Stand there with a group of Levites for each group of families among your people. [6]Kill the Passover lambs. Set yourselves apart to the LORD. Prepare the lambs for your people. Do what the LORD commanded through Moses.”

[7]Josiah provided animals for the Passover offerings. He gave them for all the people who were there. He gave a total of 30,000 lambs and goats and 3,000 oxen. He gave all of them from his own possessions.

[8]His officials also gave freely. They gave to the people and the priests and Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah and Jehiel were in charge of God’s temple. They gave the priests 2,600 Passover lambs and 300 oxen. [9]Konaniah and his brothers Shemaiah and Nethanel also gave offerings. So did Hashabiah, Jeiel and Jozabad. All of them were the leaders of the Levites. They gave 5,000 Passover lambs and 500 oxen for the Levites.

[10]The Passover service was arranged. The priests stood in their places. The Levites were in their groups. That’s what the king had ordered. [11]The Passover lambs were killed. The priests splashed against the altar the blood handed to them. The Levites skinned the animals. [12]They set the burnt offerings to one side. These offerings were for the smaller family groups to offer to the LORD. That’s what was written in the Book of Moses. The Levites did the same thing with the oxen. [13]They cooked the Passover animals over the fire, just as the law required. They boiled the holy offerings in pots, large kettles and pans. They served the offerings quickly to all the people. [14]After that, they got things ready for themselves and the priests. That’s because the priests, who were from the family line of Aaron, were busy until dark. They were sacrificing the burnt offerings and the fat parts. The Levites got things ready for themselves and for the priests, who belonged to Aaron's family line.

15Those who played music were from the family line of Asaph. They were in the places that had been set up by David, Asaph, Heman and Jeduthun. Jeduthun had been the king's prophet. The guards at each gate didn't have to leave their places. That's because their brother Levites got things ready for them.

16So at that time the entire service to honor the LORD was carried out. The Passover Feast was celebrated. The burnt offerings were sacrificed on the LORD's altar. That's what King Josiah had ordered. 17The Israelites who were there celebrated the Passover Feast at that time. They observed the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days. 18The Passover Feast hadn't been observed like that in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet. None of the kings of Israel had ever celebrated a Passover Feast like Josiah's. He celebrated it with the priests and Levites. All the people of Judah and Israel were there along with the people of Jerusalem. He celebrated it with them too. 19That Passover Feast was celebrated in the 18th year of Josiah's rule.

Josiah Dies

20Josiah had put the temple in order. After all of that, Necho went up to fight at Carchemish. He was king of Egypt. Carchemish was on the Euphrates River. Josiah marched out to meet Necho in battle. 21But Necho sent messengers to him. They said, "Josiah king of Judah, there isn't any trouble between you and me. I'm not attacking you at this time. I'm at war with another country. God told me to hurry. He's with me. So stop opposing him. If you don't, he'll destroy you."

22But Josiah wouldn't turn away from Necho. Josiah wore different clothes so people wouldn't recognize him. He wanted to go to war against Necho. He wouldn't listen to what God had commanded Necho to say. Instead, Josiah went out to fight him on the plains of Megiddo.

23Men who had bows shot arrows at King Josiah. After he was hit, he told his officers, "Take me away. I'm badly wounded." 24So they took him out of his chariot. They put him in his other chariot. They brought him to Jerusalem. There he died. He was buried in the tombs of his family. All the people of Judah and Jerusalem mourned for him.

25Jeremiah wrote songs of sadness about Josiah. To this day all the male and female singers remember Josiah by singing those songs. That became a practice in Israel. The songs are written down in the Book of the Songs of Sadness.

[26]Josiah did many things that showed he was faithful to the LORD. Those things and the other events of Josiah's rule were in keeping with what is written in the Law of the LORD. [27]All the events from beginning to end are written down. They are written in the records of the kings of Israel and Judah.

2 Chronicles 36

[1]The people of the land went and got Jehoahaz. He was the son of Josiah. The people made Jehoahaz king in Jerusalem in place of his father.

Jehoahaz King of Judah

[2]Jehoahaz was 23 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for three months. [3]The king of Egypt removed him from his throne in Jerusalem. The king of Egypt made the people of Judah pay him a huge tax. The tax was almost four tons of silver and 75 pounds of gold. [4]Necho, the king of Egypt, made Eliakim king over Judah and Jerusalem. Eliakim was a brother of Jehoahaz. Necho changed Eliakim's name to Jehoiakim. But Necho took Eliakim's brother Jehoahaz with him to Egypt.

Jehoiakim King of Judah

[5]Jehoiakim was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 11 years. He did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD his God. [6]Nebuchadnezzar attacked him. Nebuchadnezzar was king of Babylon. He put Jehoiakim in bronze chains. And he took him to Babylon. [7]Nebuchadnezzar also took to Babylon objects from the LORD's temple. He put them in his own temple there.

[8]The other events of Jehoiakim's rule are written in the records of the kings of Israel and Judah. He did things the LORD hated. Those things and everything that happened to him are also written in those records. Jehoiakim's son Jehoiachin became the next king after him.

Jehoiachin King of Judah

[9]Jehoiachin was 18 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for three months and ten days. He did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD. [10]In the spring, King Nebuchadnezzar sent for him. He brought him to Babylon. He also brought things of value from the LORD's temple. He made Zedekiah king over Judah and Jerusalem. Zedekiah was Jehoiachin's uncle.

Zedekiah King of Judah

[11]Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 11 years. [12]He did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD his God. He didn't pay any attention to the message the LORD spoke through Jeremiah the prophet. [13]Zedekiah also refused to remain under the control of King Nebuchadnezzar. The king had forced Zedekiah to make a promise in God's name. But Zedekiah's heart became very stubborn. He wouldn't turn to the LORD, the God of Israel. [14]And that's not all. The people and all the leaders of the priests became more and more unfaithful. They followed all the practices of the nations. The LORD hated those practices. The people and leaders made the LORD's temple "unclean." The LORD had set the temple in Jerusalem apart in a special way for himself.

The Fall of Jerusalem

[15]The LORD, the God of Israel, sent word to his people through his messengers. He sent it to them again and again. He took pity on his people. He also took pity on the temple where he lived. [16]But God's people made fun of his messengers. They hated his words. They laughed at his prophets. Finally the LORD's great anger was stirred up against his people. Nothing could save them. [17]The LORD brought the king of the Babylonians against them. The Babylonian army killed their young people with their swords at the temple. They didn't spare young men or young women. They didn't spare the old people or weak people either. God handed all of them over to Nebuchadnezzar. [18]Nebuchadnezzar carried off to Babylon all the objects from God's temple. Some of those things were large. Others were small. He carried off the treasures of the temple. He also carried off the treasures that belonged to the king and his officials. [19]The Babylonians set God's temple on fire. They broke down the wall of Jerusalem. They burned all the palaces. They destroyed everything of value there.

[20]Nebuchadnezzar took the rest of the people to Babylon as prisoners. They had escaped from being killed by swords. They served him and those who ruled after him. That lasted until the kingdom of Persia came to power. [21]The land of Israel enjoyed its sabbath years. It rested. That deserted land wasn't farmed for a full 70 years. What the LORD had spoken through Jeremiah came true.

[22]It was the first year of the rule of Cyrus. He was king of Persia. The LORD inspired him to send a message all through his kingdom. It happened so that what the LORD had spoken through Jeremiah would come true. The message was written down. It said,

[23]“Cyrus, the king of Persia, says,

“ ‘The LORD is the God of heaven. He has given me all the kingdoms on earth. He has appointed me to build a temple for him at Jerusalem in Judah. Any of his people among you may go up to Jerusalem. And may the LORD their God be with them.’ ”

Ezra

Ezra 1

Cyrus Helps the Jews to Return to Jerusalem

[1]It was the first year of the rule of Cyrus. He was king of Persia. The LORD inspired him to send a message all through his kingdom. It happened so that what the LORD had spoken through Jeremiah would come true. The message was written down. It said,

> [2]"Cyrus, the king of Persia, says,
>
> " 'The LORD is the God of heaven. He has given me all the kingdoms on earth. He has appointed me to build a temple for him at Jerusalem in Judah. [3]Any of his people among you may go up to Jerusalem and build the LORD's temple. He is the God of Israel. He is the God who is in Jerusalem. And may their God be with them. [4]The people still left alive in every place must bring gifts to the people going. They must provide silver and gold to the people going up to Jerusalem. The people must bring goods and livestock. They should also bring any offerings they choose to. All those gifts will be for God's temple in Jerusalem.' "

[5]Then everyone God had inspired prepared to go. They wanted to go up to Jerusalem and build the LORD's temple there. They included the family leaders of Judah and Benjamin. They also included the priests and Levites. [6]All their neighbors helped them. They gave them silver and gold objects. They gave them goods and livestock. And they gave them gifts of great value. All those things were added to the other offerings the people chose to give.

[7]King Cyrus also brought out the objects that belonged to the LORD's temple. Nebuchadnezzar had carried them off from Jerusalem. He had put them in the temple of his own god. [8]Cyrus, the king of Persia, told Mithredath to bring them out. Mithredath was in charge of the temple treasures. He counted those objects. Then he gave them to Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah.

[9]Here is a list of the objects.

There were 30 gold dishes.
There were 1,000 silver dishes.
There were 29 silver pans.
[10]There were 30 gold bowls.
There were 410 matching silver bowls.
There were 1,000 other objects.
[11]The total number of gold and silver objects was 5,400.

Sheshbazzar brought all of these back with him to Jerusalem. So Sheshbazzar and the Jews who had been forced to leave Judah came up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Ezra 2

The List of the Jews Who Returned to Judah

[1]Nebuchadnezzar had taken many Jews away from the land of Judah. He had forced them to go to Babylon as prisoners.
Now they returned to Jerusalem and Judah. All of them went back to their own towns. Nebuchadnezzar was king of Babylon. [2]The leaders of the Jews included Zerubbabel, Joshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah and Reelaiah. They also included Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum and Baanah.

Here is a list of the men of Israel who returned home.

[3]There were 2,172 from the family line of Parosh.
[4]There were 372 from Shephatiah.
[5]There were 775 from Arah.
[6]There were 2,812 from Pahath-Moab through the family line of Jeshua and Joab.
[7]There were 1,254 from Elam.
[8]There were 945 from Zattu.
[9]There were 760 from Zakkai.
[10]There were 642 from Bani.
[11]There were 623 from Bebai.
[12]There were 1,222 from Azgad.
[13]There were 666 from Adonikam.
[14]There were 2,056 from Bigvai.
[15]There were 454 from Adin.
[16]There were 98 from Ater through the family line of Hezekiah.
[17]There were 323 from Bezai.
[18]There were 112 from Jorah.
[19]There were 223 from Hashum.
[20]There were 95 from Gibbar.
[21]There were 123 from the men of Bethlehem.
[22]There were 56 from Netophah.
[23]There were 128 from Anathoth.

[24]There were 42 from Azmaveth.
[25]There were 743 from Kiriath Jearim, Kephirah and Beeroth.
[26]There were 621 from Ramah and Geba.
[27]There were 122 from Mikmash.
[28]There were 223 from Bethel and Ai.
[29]There were 52 from Nebo.
[30]There were 156 from Magbish.
[31]There were 1,254 from the other Elam.
[32]There were 320 from Harim.
[33]There were 725 from Lod, Hadid and Ono.
[34]There were 345 from Jericho.
[35]There were 3,630 from Senaah.

[36]Here is a list of the priests.

There were 973 from the family line of Jedaiah through the line of Jeshua.
[37]There were 1,052 from Immer.
[38]There were 1,247 from Pashhur.
[39]There were 1,017 from Harim.

[40]Here is a list of the Levites.

There were 74 from the family lines of Jeshua and Kadmiel. Kadmiel was from the line of Hodaviah.

[41]Here is a list of the musicians.

There were 128 from the family line of Asaph.

[42]Here is a list of the men who guarded the gates.

There were 139 from the family lines of Shallum, Ater, Talmon, Akkub, Hatita and Shobai.

[43]Here is a list of the members of the family lines of the temple servants.

Ziha, Hasupha, Tabbaoth,
44 Keros, Siaha, Padon,
45 Lebanah, Hagabah, Akkub, 46 Hagab, Shalmai, Hanan, 47 Giddel, Gahar, Reaiah,
48 Rezin, Nekoda, Gazzam, 49 Uzza, Paseah, Besai,
50 Asnah, Meunim, Nephusim,
51 Bakbuk, Hakupha, Harhur,
52 Bazluth, Mehida, Harsha,
53 Barkos, Sisera, Temah,
54 Neziah, Hatipha

55 Here is a list of the members of the family lines of the servants of Solomon.

Sotai, Hassophereth, Peruda,
56 Jaala, Darkon, Giddel,
57 Shephatiah, Hattil, Pokereth-Hazzebaim, Ami
58 The total number of the members of the family lines of the temple servants and the servants of Solomon was 392.

59 Many people came up to Judah from the towns of Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon and Immer. But they weren't able to prove that their families belonged to the people of Israel.

60 There were 652 of them from the family lines of Delaiah, Tobiah and Nekoda.

61 Here is a list of the members of the family lines of the priests.

They were Hobaiah, Hakkoz and Barzillai. Barzillai had married a daughter of Barzillai from Gilead. So he was also called Barzillai.
62 The priests looked for their family records. But they couldn't find them. So they weren't able to serve as priests. They were "unclean."
63 The governor gave them an order. He told them not to eat any of the most sacred food. They had to wait until there was a priest who could use the Urim and Thummim. The priest would use them to find out what the LORD wanted the people to do.

64 The total number of the entire group that returned was 42,360. 65 That didn't include their 7,337 male and female slaves. There were also 200 male and female singers. 66 And there were 736 horses, 245 mules, 67 435 camels and 6,720 donkeys.

68 All the people arrived at the place in Jerusalem where the LORD's temple would be rebuilt. Then some of the leaders of the families brought offerings they chose to give. They would be used for rebuilding the house of God. It would stand in the same place it had been before. 69 The people gave money for the work. It was based on how much they had. They gave 1,100 pounds of gold. They also gave three tons of silver. And they gave 100 sets of clothes for the priests. All of that was added to the temple treasure.

70 The priests and Levites made their homes in their own towns. So did the musicians, the men who guarded the gates, and the temple servants. The rest of the Israelites also made their homes in their own towns.

Ezra 3

The People Rebuild the Altar

[1]The Israelites had made their homes in their towns. In the seventh month all of them gathered together in Jerusalem. [2]Then Joshua began to build the altar for burnt offerings to honor the God of Israel. Joshua was the son of Jozadak. The other priests helped Joshua. So did Zerubbabel and his men. They built the altar according to what is written in the Law of Moses. Moses was a man of God. Zerubbabel was the son of Shealtiel. [3]The people who built the altar were afraid of the nations around them. But they built it anyway. They set it up where it had stood before. They sacrificed burnt offerings on it to the LORD. They offered the morning and evening sacrifices on it. [4]Then they celebrated the Feast of Booths. They did it according to what is written in the Law. They sacrificed the number of burnt offerings required for each day. [5]After they celebrated the Feast of Booths, they sacrificed the regular burnt offerings. They offered the New Moon sacrifices. They also offered the sacrifices for all the appointed sacred feasts of the LORD. And they sacrificed the offerings the people chose to give him. [6]On the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD. They did it even though the foundation of the LORD's temple hadn't been laid yet.

The People Begin to Rebuild the Temple

[7]The people gave money to those who worked with stone and those who worked with wood. They gave food and drink and olive oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre. Then those people brought cedar logs down from Lebanon to the Mediterranean Sea. They floated them down to Joppa. Cyrus, the king of Persia, authorized them to do it.

[8]It was the second month of the second year after they had arrived at the house of God in Jerusalem. Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, began the work. Joshua, the son of Jozadak, helped him. So did everyone else. That included the priests and Levites. It also included the rest of those who had returned to Jerusalem. They had been prisoners in the land of Babylon. Levites who were 20 years old or more were appointed to be in charge of building the LORD's house. [9]Those who joined together to direct the work included Joshua and his sons and brothers. They also included Kadmiel and his sons. And they included the sons of Henadad and their sons and brothers. All those men were Levites. Kadmiel and his sons were members of the family line of Hodaviah.

10The builders laid the foundation of the LORD's temple. Then the priests came. They were wearing their special clothes. They brought their trumpets with them. The Levites who belonged to the family line of Asaph also came. They brought their cymbals with them. The priests and Levites took their places to praise the LORD. They did everything just as King David had required them to. 11They sang to the LORD. They praised him. They gave thanks to him. They said,

"The LORD is good.
His faithful love to Israel continues forever."

All the people gave a loud shout. They praised the LORD. They were glad because the foundation of the LORD's temple had been laid. 12But many of the older priests and Levites and family leaders wept out loud. They had seen the first temple. So when they saw the foundation of the second temple being laid, they wept. Others shouted with joy. 13No one could tell the difference between the shouts of joy and the sounds of weeping. That's because the people made so much noise. The sound was heard far away.

Ezra 4

Enemies Oppose the Rebuilding of the Temple

[1]The people who had returned from Babylon were building a temple to honor the LORD. He is the God of Israel. The enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard about it. [2]Then those enemies came to Zerubbabel. The family leaders of Israel were with him. The enemies said, “We want to help you build. We’re just like you. We worship your God. We offer sacrifices to him. We’ve been doing that ever since the time of Esarhaddon. He was king of Assyria. He brought our people here.”

[3]Zerubbabel and Joshua answered them. So did the rest of the family leaders of Israel. They said, “You can’t help us build a temple to honor our God. You aren’t part of us. We’ll build it ourselves. We’ll do it to honor the LORD, the God of Israel. Cyrus, the king of Persia, commanded us to build it.”

[4]Then the nations around Judah tried to make its people lose hope. They wanted to make them afraid to go on building. [5]So those nations paid some of the Jewish officials to work against the people of Judah. They wanted their plans to fail. They did it during the whole time Cyrus was king of Persia. They kept doing it until Darius became king.

Later Enemies Also Oppose the Jews

[6]The enemies of the Jews brought charges against the people of Judah and Jerusalem. It happened when Xerxes began to rule over Persia.

[7]Then Artaxerxes became king of Persia. During his rule, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel and their friends wrote a letter to Artaxerxes. It was written in the Aramaic language. And it used the Aramaic alphabet.

[8]Rehum and Shimshai also wrote a letter to King Artaxerxes. Rehum was the commanding officer. Shimshai was the secretary. Their letter was against the people of Jerusalem. It said,

> [9]We, Rehum and Shimshai, are writing this letter. Rehum is the > commanding officer. Shimshai is the secretary. Our friends join us in > writing. They include the judges, officials and managers in charge of > the people from Persia, Uruk and Babylon. They are also over the > Elamites from Susa. [10]And they are over those who were forced to leave their countries. The great King Ashurbanipal, who is worthy of honor, forced them to leave. He moved them to the city of Samaria. He also moved them to other places west of the Euphrates River.

[11]Here is a copy of the letter sent to Artaxerxes.

We are sending this letter to you, King Artaxerxes.

It is from your servants who live west of the Euphrates River.

[12]We want you to know about the people who left you and have come up to us. They have gone to Jerusalem and are rebuilding that evil city. It has caused trouble for a long time. Those people are making its walls like new again. They are repairing the foundations.

[13]Here is something else we want you to know. Suppose this city is rebuilt. And suppose its walls are made like new again. Then no more taxes, gifts or fees will be collected. And sooner or later there will be less money for you. [14]We owe a lot to you. We don't want to see dishonor brought on you. So we're sending this letter to tell you what is going on. [15]Then you can have a search made in the official records. Have someone check the records of the kings who ruled before you. If you do, you will find out that Jerusalem is an evil city. It causes trouble for kings and countries. For a long time the city has refused to let anyone rule over it. That's why it was destroyed. [16]We want you to know that this city shouldn't be rebuilt. Its walls shouldn't be made like new again. If that happens, you won't have anything left west of the Euphrates River.

[17]The king replied,

I am writing this letter to Rehum, the commanding officer. I am also writing it to Shimshai the secretary. And I am writing it to your friends living in Samaria and in other places west of the Euphrates River.

I give you my greetings.

[18]The letter you sent us has been read to me. It has been explained to me in my language. [19]I gave an order. I had a search made. Here is what we found out. Jerusalem has a long history of turning against the kings of the countries that have ruled over it. It has refused to remain under their control. It is always stirring up trouble. [20]Jerusalem has had powerful kings. Some of them ruled over everything west of the Euphrates. Taxes, gifts and fees were paid to them. [21]So give an order to those men. Make them stop their work. Then the city won't be rebuilt until I give the order. [22]Pay careful attention to this matter. Why should we let this danger grow? That would not be in our best interests.

[23]The copy of the letter of King Artaxerxes was read to Rehum and Shimshai the secretary. It was also read to their friends. Right away they went to the Jews in Jerusalem. They forced them to stop their work.

[24]And so the work on the house of God in Jerusalem came to a stop. No more work was done on it until the second year that Darius was king of Persia.

Ezra 5

Tattenai's Letter to King Darius

[1]Haggai and Zechariah, the prophets, prophesied to the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem. They spoke to them in the name of the God of Israel. God had spoken to those prophets. Zechariah belonged to the family line of Iddo. [2]Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, began to work. So did Joshua, the son of Jozadak. They began to rebuild the house of God in Jerusalem. The prophets of God were right there with them. They were helping them.

[3]At that time Tattenai was governor of the land west of the Euphrates River. He and Shethar-Bozenai and their friends went to the Jews. They asked them, "Who authorized you to rebuild this temple? Who told you that you could finish it?" [4]They also asked, "What are the names of the people who are putting up this building?" [5]But the God of the Jews was watching over their elders. So they didn't have to stop their work. First a report would have to be sent to Darius. Then they would have to receive his answer in writing.

[6]Here is a copy of the letter sent to King Darius. It was from Tattenai, the governor of the land west of the Euphrates. Shethar-Bozenai joined him in writing it. So did their friends. They were officials of that land. [7]The report they sent to the king said,

> We are sending this letter to you, King Darius.
>
> We give you our most friendly greetings.
>
> [8]We want you to know that we went to the land of Judah. We went to the temple of the great God. The people are building it with large stones. They are putting wooden beams in the walls. The people are working hard. The work is moving ahead very quickly under the direction of the people.
>
> [9]We asked the elders some questions. We said to them, "Who authorized you to rebuild this temple? Who told you that you could finish it?" [10]We also asked them what their names were. We wanted to write down the names of their leaders for your information.
>
> [11]Here is the answer they gave us. They said,

“We serve the God of heaven and earth. We are rebuilding the temple that was built many years ago. The great King Solomon built it and finished it. [12]But our people made the God of heaven angry. So he handed them over to Nebuchadnezzar from Chaldea. He was king of Babylon. He destroyed this temple. He forced the Jews to leave their own country. He took them away to Babylon.

[13]“But King Cyrus gave an order to rebuild this house of God. He gave it in the first year he was king of Babylon. [14]He even removed some gold and silver objects from the temple of Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar had brought them there from the house of God in Jerusalem. He had taken them to the temple in Babylon. Then King Cyrus brought the objects out. He gave them to a man named Sheshbazzar. Cyrus had appointed him as governor. [15]Cyrus told him, ‘Take these objects with you. Go and put them in the temple in Jerusalem. Rebuild the house of God in the same place where it stood before.’

[16]“So Sheshbazzar made the trip to Jerusalem. He laid the foundations of the house of God there. From that day until now the people have been working on it. But they haven’t finished it yet.”

[17]If it pleases you, King Darius, let a search be made in the royal records. Search the official records of the kings of Babylon. Find out whether King Cyrus really did give an order to rebuild this house of God in Jerusalem. Then tell us what you decide to do.

Ezra 6

King Darius's Reply to Tattenai

[1]King Darius gave an order. He had a search made in the official records stored among the treasures at Babylon. [2]A book was found in a safe storeroom at Ecbatana in the land of Media. Here is what was written on it.

This is my official reply to your letter.

[3]In the first year that Cyrus was king, he gave an order. It concerned God's temple in Jerusalem. King Cyrus said, Rebuild the temple. Then the Jews can offer sacrifices there. Lay its foundations. The temple must be 90 feet high and 90 feet wide. [4]Its walls must have three layers of large stones. They must also have a layer of beautiful wood. Use money from the royal treasures to pay for everything. [5]The gold and silver objects from the house of God must be returned. Nebuchadnezzar had taken them from the first temple in Jerusalem. And he had brought them to Babylon. Now they must be returned to their places in the temple at Jerusalem. They must be put in the house of God there.

[6]Tattenai, you are governor of the land west of the Euphrates River. I want you to stay away from the temple in Jerusalem. I also want you, Shethar-Bozenai, and you other officials of that area to stay away from it. [7]Don't try to stop the work on the temple of God. Let the governor of the Jews and their elders rebuild the house of their God. Let them build it in the same place where it stood before.

[8]Here is what I want you to do for the elders of the Jews. Here is how you must help them to build the house of their God.

Pay all their expenses from the royal treasures. Use the money you collect from the people who live west of the Euphrates. Don't let the work on the temple stop. [9]Don't fail to give the priests in Jerusalem what they ask for each day. Give them what they need. Give them young bulls, rams and male lambs. The priests can use them to sacrifice burnt offerings to the God of heaven. Also give them wheat, salt, wine and olive oil. [10]Give them those things so they can offer sacrifices that please the God of heaven. And I want them to pray that things will go well for me and my sons.

[11]Don't change this order. If anyone tries to change it, they must be put to death. A pole must be pulled from their house. The pole must be stuck through their body. Because that person tried to change my royal order, their house must be broken to pieces. [12]God has chosen to put his Name in the temple at Jerusalem. May he wipe out any king or nation that lifts a hand to change this order. May he also wipe out anyone who tries to destroy the temple in Jerusalem.

That's what I have ordered. I am King Darius. Make sure you carry out my order.

The Temple Is Completed and Set Apart to God

[13]The governor Tattenai and Shethar-Bozenai carried out King Darius's order. And so did their friends. [14]The elders of the Jews continued to build the temple. They enjoyed great success because of the preaching of Haggai and Zechariah, the prophets. Zechariah belonged to the family line of Iddo. The people finished building the temple. That's what the God of Israel had commanded them to do. Cyrus and Darius had given orders allowing them to do it. Later, Artaxerxes supplied many things that were needed in the temple. Those three men were kings of Persia. [15]So the temple was completed on the third day of the month of Adar. It was in the sixth year that Darius was king.

[16]When the house of God was set apart, the people of Israel celebrated with joy. The priests and Levites joined them. So did the rest of those who had returned from the land of Babylon. [17]When the house of God was set apart to him, the people sacrificed 100 bulls. They also sacrificed 200 rams and 400 male lambs. As a sin offering for the whole nation of Israel, the people sacrificed 12 male goats. One goat was sacrificed for each tribe in Israel. [18]The priests were appointed to their groups. And the Levites were appointed to their groups. All of them served God at Jerusalem. They served him in keeping with what is written in the Book of Moses.

The People Celebrate the Passover Feast

[19]The people who had returned from the land of Babylon celebrated the Passover Feast. It was on the 14th day of the first month. [20]The priests and Levites had made themselves pure and “clean.” The Levites killed Passover lambs for the people who had returned from Babylon. They also did it for themselves and their relatives, the priests. [21]So the Israelites who had returned ate the Passover lamb. They ate it together with all those who had separated themselves from the practices of their Gentile neighbors. Those practices were “unclean.” The people worshiped the LORD. He is the God of Israel. [22]For seven days they celebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread with joy. That’s because the LORD had filled them with joy. They were glad because he had changed the mind of the king of Persia. So the king had helped them with the work on the house of the God of Israel.

Ezra 7

Ezra Comes to Jerusalem

[1]After all these things had happened, Ezra came up to Jerusalem from Babylon. It was during the rule of Artaxerxes. He was king of Persia. Ezra was the son of Seraiah. Seraiah was the son of Azariah. Azariah was the son of Hilkiah. [2]Hilkiah was the son of Shallum. Shallum was the son of Zadok. Zadok was the son of Ahitub. [3]Ahitub was the son of Amariah. Amariah was the son of Azariah. Azariah was the son of Meraioth. [4]Meraioth was the son of Zerahiah. Zerahiah was the son of Uzzi. Uzzi was the son of Bukki. [5]Bukki was the son of Abishua. Abishua was the son of Phinehas. Phinehas was the son of Eleazar. And Eleazar was the son of Aaron the chief priest. [6]So Ezra came up from Babylon. He was a teacher who knew the Law of Moses very well. The LORD, the God of Israel, had given Israel that law. The king had given Ezra everything he asked for. That's because the LORD his God helped him. [7]Some of the Israelites came up to Jerusalem too. They included priests, Levites and musicians. They also included the temple servants and those who guarded the temple gates. It was in the seventh year that Artaxerxes was king.

[8]Ezra arrived in Jerusalem in the fifth month of the seventh year of the king's rule. [9]Ezra had begun his journey from Babylon on the first day of the first month. He arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month. That's because God was gracious to him and helped him. [10]Ezra had committed himself to study and obey the Law of the LORD. He also wanted to teach the LORD's rules and laws in Israel.

King Artaxerxes's Letter to Ezra

[11]Ezra was a priest and teacher of the Law. He was an educated man. He knew the LORD's commands and rules for Israel very well. Here is a copy of a letter King Artaxerxes had given to Ezra. It said, > [12]I, Artaxerxes, am writing this letter. I am the greatest king of all.

>
> I have given it to Ezra the priest. He is the teacher of the Law of the God of heaven.

I give you my greetings.

13 Ezra, I am giving an order about the Israelites in my kingdom. Any of them who want to go to Jerusalem with you may go. The order also allows priests and Levites to go with you. 14 I and my seven advisers are sending you to see how things are going in Judah and Jerusalem. Find out whether the people there are obeying the Law of your God. You have a copy of that law with you. 15 I and my advisers have freely given some silver and gold to the God of Israel. He is the God who lives in Jerusalem. Take that silver and gold with you. 16 Also take any other silver and gold you can get from the land of Babylon. And take the offerings the people and priests choose to give for the temple of their God in Jerusalem. 17 Make sure you use the money to buy bulls, rams and male lambs. Also buy their grain offerings and drink offerings.
Then sacrifice them on the altar of the temple of your God in Jerusalem.
18 You and the other Jews can do what you think is best with the rest of the silver and gold. Do what your God wants you to do. 19 Give to the God of Jerusalem all the things you are responsible for. Use them for worshiping your God in his temple. 20 You might need to supply some other things for the temple of your God. If you do, take them from among the royal treasures.
21 I, King Artaxerxes, also give this order. It applies to all those who are in charge of the treasures west of the Euphrates River. Make sure you provide anything Ezra the priest might ask you to give. He is the teacher of the Law of the God of heaven. 22 Give Ezra up to three and three-fourths tons of silver. Give him up to 18 tons of wheat. Give him up to 600 gallons of wine and up to 600 gallons of olive oil. And give him as much salt as he needs. 23 Work hard for the temple of the God of heaven. Do everything he has required. I don’t want him to be angry with my kingdom and the kingdom of my sons. 24 Here is something else I want you to know. You have no authority to collect taxes, gifts or fees from these people. You may not collect them from the priests, Levites or musicians. You may not collect them from those who guard the temple gates. You may not collect them from the temple servants.
And you may not collect them from other workers at the house of God in Jerusalem.

> [25]Ezra, appoint judges and other court officials. When you do it, use > the wisdom your God gives you. Those you appoint should do what is > right and fair when they judge people. They should do it for everyone > who lives west of the Euphrates River. They should do it for everyone > who knows the laws of your God. And I want you to teach the people > who don't know those laws. [26]Anyone who doesn't obey the law of > your God must be punished. The same thing applies to anyone who > doesn't obey my law. The people must be punished in keeping with the > laws they have broken. Some of them must be put to death. Others must > be forced to leave the places where they live. Others must have their > property taken away from them. Still others must be put in prison.

[27]So here is what I, Ezra, say to you people of Israel. "Give praise to the LORD. He is the God of our people who lived long ago. He has put it in the king's heart to bring honor to the LORD's temple in Jerusalem. The king has honored the LORD in his letter. [28]The LORD has been kind to me. He has caused the king and his advisers to be kind to me. In fact, all the king's powerful officials have been kind to me. The strong hand of the LORD my God helped me. That gave me new strength. So I gathered together leaders from Israel to go up to Jerusalem with me."

Ezra 8

The Family Leaders Who Returned to Jerusalem With Ezra

[1]Many family leaders came up to Jerusalem with me from Babylon. So did others who were listed with them. It was during the time when Artaxerxes was king. Here is a list of those who came.

[2]Gershom came from the family line of Phinehas.
Daniel came from the family line of Ithamar.
Hattush came from the family line of David. [3]Hattush also belonged to the family of Shekaniah.
Zechariah came from the family line of Parosh. The total number of men who were listed with him was 150.
[4]Eliehoenai came from the family line of Pahath-Moab. Eliehoenai was the son of Zerahiah. The total number of men with him was 200.
[5]Shekaniah came from the family line of Zattu. Shekaniah was the son of Jahaziel. The total number of men with him was 300.
[6]Ebed came from the family line of Adin. Ebed was the son of Jonathan. The total number of men with him was 50.
[7]Jeshaiah came from the family line of Elam. Jeshaiah was the son of Athaliah. The total number of men with him was 70.
[8]Zebadiah came from the family line of Shephatiah. Zebadiah was the son of Michael. The total number of men with him was 80.
[9]Obadiah came from the family line of Joab. Obadiah was the son of Jehiel. The total number of men with him was 218.
[10]Shelomith came from the family line of Bani. Shelomith was the son of Josiphiah. The total number of men with him was 160.
[11]Zechariah came from the family line of Bebai. Zechariah was the son of Bebai. The total number of men with him was 28.
[12]Johanan came from the family line of Azgad. Johanan was the son of Hakkatan. The total number of men with him was 110.
[13]Eliphelet, Jeuel and Shemaiah came from the family line of Adonikam. Some members of their family had gone up to Jerusalem before them. The total number of men with them was 60.
[14]Uthai and Zakkur came from the family line of Bigvai. The total number of men with them was 70.

Ezra Leads Many Jews Back to Jerusalem

15I gathered the people together at the canal that flows toward Ahava. We camped there for three days. I looked for Levites among the people and priests. But I didn't find any. 16So I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan and Jarib. I also sent for Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah and Meshullam. All of them were leaders. And I sent for Joiarib and Elnathan. They were very well educated. 17I ordered all those men to go to Iddo. He was the leader in Kasiphia. He and his Levite relatives were temple servants there. I told my men what to say to them. I wanted Iddo and his Levite relatives to bring some attendants to us for the house of our God. 18God was gracious to us and helped us. So they brought us Sherebiah, a very capable man. He came from the family line of Mahli. Mahli was the son of Levi. Levi was a son of Israel. They also brought us Sherebiah's sons and brothers. The total number of men was 18. 19And they brought Hashabiah and his brothers and nephews. They brought them together with Jeshaiah. He came from the family line of Merari. The total number of men was 20. 20They also brought 220 of the temple servants. That was a special group David and his officials had established. They were supposed to help the Levites. All of them were listed by name.

21By the canal that flows toward Ahava, I announced a fast. I told the people not to eat any food. In that way, we made ourselves humble in God's sight. We prayed that he would give us and our children a safe journey. We asked him to keep safe everything we owned. 22I was ashamed to ask King Artaxerxes for soldiers and horsemen. They could have kept us safe from enemies on the road. But we had told the king that our God would keep us safe. We had said, "Our God is gracious and helps everyone who looks to him. But he becomes very angry with anyone who deserts him." 23So we didn't eat anything. We prayed to our God about all these matters. And he answered our prayers.

24Then I set apart 12 of the leading priests. They were Sherebiah, Hashabiah and ten of their relatives. 25I weighed out to them the offering of silver and gold and other things. They had been given for the house of our God. The king, his advisers and officials, and all the Israelites who were there had given them. 26I weighed out 24 tons of silver and gave it to those men. I weighed out almost four tons of silver things. I weighed out almost four tons of gold. 27I weighed out 20 gold bowls. They weighed 19 pounds. I also weighed out two fine objects. The bronze they were made out of was highly polished. They were as priceless as gold.

[28]I said to those men, “You are set apart to the LORD. So are these things. The silver and gold were offered to the LORD by those who chose to give them. He is the God of your people. [29]Guard all these things carefully until you weigh them out. Weigh them in the special rooms of the LORD’s temple in Jerusalem. Do this in front of the leading priests and the Levites. Make sure the family leaders of Israel are watching.” [30]Then the priests and Levites received the silver and gold and sacred objects. All of them had been weighed out. They were going to be taken to the house of our God in Jerusalem.

[31]On the 12th day of the first month we started out. We left the canal that flows toward Ahava. And we headed for Jerusalem. Our God helped us. He kept us safe from enemies and robbers along the way. [32]So we arrived in Jerusalem. There we rested for three days.

[33]On the fourth day we weighed out the silver and gold. We also weighed out the sacred objects. We weighed everything in the house of our God. We handed all of it over to Meremoth the priest. He was the son of Uriah. Eleazar, Jozabad and Noadiah were with him. Eleazar was the son of Phinehas. Jozabad was the son of Jeshua. Noadiah was the son of Binnui. Jozabad and Noadiah were Levites. [34]Everything was listed by number and weight. And the total weight was recorded at that time.

[35]Then the people sacrificed burnt offerings to the God of Israel. They had returned from Babylon. They offered 12 bulls for the whole nation of Israel. They offered 96 rams and 77 male lambs. All of that was a burnt offering to the LORD. They sacrificed 12 male goats as a sin offering. [36]They also handed over the king’s orders. They gave them to the royal officials and governors who ruled over the land west of the Euphrates River. Then those men helped the people. They also did many things for the house of God.

Ezra 9

Ezra Prays for the People

[1]After all these things had been done, the leaders came to me. They said, “The people of Israel have committed sins. Even the priests and Levites have sinned. They haven’t kept themselves separate from the nations around them. The LORD hates the practices of those nations. He hates what the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites and Jebusites do. He also hates what the Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians and Amorites do. [2]The men of Israel have married the daughters of some of those people. They’ve also taken some of those women for their sons to marry. So they’ve mixed our holy nation with the nations around us. We leaders and officials have also married women who don’t worship the LORD. By doing this, we have led the way in breaking our covenant with the LORD.”

[3]When I heard that, I tore my inner robe and my coat. I pulled hair from my head and beard. I was so shocked I sat down. [4]Then everyone who trembled with fear at God’s words gathered around me. That’s because the people who had returned from Babylon had not been faithful. So I was very upset. I just sat there until the time of the evening sacrifice.

[5]Then I got up. I had been very sad for quite a while. My inner robe and my coat were torn. I fell down on my knees. I spread my hands out to the LORD my God. [6]I prayed,

> “I’m filled with shame and dishonor, my God. I can hardly look to you and pray. That’s because our sins are piled up above our heads. Our guilt reaches all the way to the heavens. [7]We are filled with it. It has been like that ever since the days of our people who lived long ago. Kings of other countries have killed many of us and our kings and priests with their swords. They’ve forced others to leave their own land. They’ve taken them away as prisoners. They’ve robbed others. They’ve made still others feel ashamed and dishonored. All these things have happened to us because we’ve committed so many sins. And that’s how things still are to this day.
>
> [8]“But you are the LORD our God. Now you have shown us your kindness for a short time. That’s because you have allowed a few of us to remain here. Your temple has given us new hope. So you have made things easier for us. You have given us a little rest from our slavery. [9]We are still slaves. But you are our God. You haven't turned away from us. You haven't left us in our slavery. You have been kind to us. The kings of Persia have seen it. You have given us new life to repair your temple and rebuild it. You have given us a place of safety in Judah and Jerusalem.

[10]"You are our God. What can we say after the way you have blessed us? We have turned away from your commands. [11]You gave us your commands through your servants the prophets. You said, 'You are entering the land to take it as your own. The sinful practices of its people have made the land impure. They have filled it with their "unclean" acts from one end to the other. The LORD hates all their practices. [12]So don't let your daughters marry their sons. And don't let their daughters marry your sons. Don't make a peace treaty with them at any time. Then you will be strong. You will eat the good things the land produces. And you will leave all of it to your children as their share. They and their children after them will enjoy it forever.'

[13]"Our evil acts and our terrible sins have brought about the things that have happened to us. You are our God. Because we sinned so much, you should have punished us even more than you have. But you have left many of your people alive. [14]Suppose we don't obey your commands again. And suppose we continue to marry people who commit sins that you hate. If we do, you will be so angry with us that you will destroy us. You won't leave us even a few people. You won't leave anyone alive. [15]LORD, you are the God of Israel. You are holy. You always do what is right. Today you have left many of your people alive. Here we are with all our guilt. You see the guilt of our sin. Because we have sinned, not one of us can stand in front of you."

Ezra 10

The People Admit They Have Sinned

[1]Ezra was praying and admitting to God that his people had sinned. He was weeping and throwing himself down in front of the house of God. Then a large crowd of Israelites gathered around him. Men, women and children were there. They too wept bitterly. [2]Shekaniah spoke to Ezra. Shekaniah was the son of Jehiel. He belonged to the family line of Elam. Shekaniah said, “We haven’t been faithful to our God. We’ve married women from the nations around us. In spite of that, there is still hope for Israel. [3]So let’s make a covenant in front of our God. Let’s promise to send away all these women and their children. That’s what you have advised us to do. Those who respect our God’s commands have given us the same advice. We want to do what the Law says. [4]Get up, Ezra. This matter is in your hands. Do what you need to. We will be behind you all the way. Be brave and do it.”

[5]So Ezra got up. He made the leading priests and Levites and all the Israelites make a promise. He made them promise they would do what Shekaniah had suggested. And they made that promise. [6]Then Ezra left the house of God. He went to Jehohanan’s room. Jehohanan was the son of Eliashib. While Ezra was there, he didn’t eat any food. He didn’t drink any water. That’s because he was filled with sadness. He mourned because the people weren’t faithful to the LORD’s commands. Those people were the ones who had returned from the land of Babylon.

[7]Then an announcement was sent all through Judah and Jerusalem. All the people who had returned were told to gather together in Jerusalem. [8]They were supposed to come there before three days had passed. If they didn’t, they would lose all their property. They would also be removed from the community of those who had returned. That’s what the officials and elders had decided.

[9]Before the three days were over, all the men of Judah and Benjamin had gathered together in Jerusalem. It was the 20th day of the ninth month. They were sitting in the open area in front of the house of God. They were very upset by what they knew would happen. And they were upset because it was raining. [10]Then Ezra the priest stood up. He said, “You haven’t been faithful to the LORD. You have married women from other lands. So you have added to Israel’s guilt. [11]Now honor the LORD, the God of your people. Then do what he wants you to do. Separate yourselves from the nations around you. Send away your wives from other lands.”

12The whole community answered with a loud voice. They said, “You are right! We must do as you say. 13But there are a lot of people here. And it’s the rainy season. So we can’t stand outside. Besides, this matter can’t be taken care of in just a day or two. That’s because we have sinned terribly by what we’ve done. 14Our officials can act for the whole community. Have everyone in our towns who has married a woman from another land come at a certain time. Tell them to come together with the elders and judges of each town. Then our God will no longer be angry with us concerning this whole matter.” 15Only a few men opposed that. They included Jonathan and Jahzeiah. Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite joined them. Jonathan was the son of Asahel. Jahzeiah was the son of Tikvah.

16So those who had returned did what had been suggested. Ezra the priest chose some family leaders. There was one from each family group. All of them were chosen by name. They sat down to check out each case. They started on the first day of the tenth month. 17By the first day of the first month they were finished. They had handled all the cases of the men who had married women from other lands.

A List of Those Who Had Married Women From Other Lands

18Among the family lines of the priests, here are the men who had married women from other lands.

Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib and Gedaliah came from the family line of Joshua and his brothers. Joshua was the son of Jozadak. 19All of them made a firm promise to send their wives away. Each of these men brought a ram from his flock as a guilt offering.

20Hanani and Zebadiah came from the family line of Immer.

21Maaseiah and Elijah came from the family line of Harim. So did Shemaiah, Jehiel and Uzziah.

22Elioenai, Maaseiah and Ishmael came from the family line of Pashhur. So did Nethanel, Jozabad and Elasah.

[23]Among the Levites, here are the men who had married women from other lands.

There were Jozabad, Shimei and Kelaiah. There were also Pethahiah, Judah and Eliezer. Kelaiah's other name was Kelita.

[24]Eliashib came from the musicians.

Shallum, Telem and Uri came from the men who guarded the temple gates.

[25]Among the other Israelites, here are the men who had married women from other lands.

Ramiah, Izziah, Malkijah and Mijamin came from the family line of Parosh. So did Eleazar, Malkijah and Benaiah.

[26]Mattaniah, Zechariah and Jehiel came from the family line of Elam. So did Abdi, Jeremoth and Elijah.

[27]Elioenai, Eliashib and Mattaniah came from the family line of Zattu. So did Jeremoth, Zabad and Aziza.

[28]Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai and Athlai came from the family line of Bebai.

[29]Meshullam, Malluk and Adaiah came from the family line of Bani. So did Jashub, Sheal and Jeremoth.

[30]Adna, Kelal, Benaiah and Maaseiah came from the family line of Pahath-Moab. So did Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui and Manasseh.

[31]Eliezer, Ishijah, Malkijah, Shemaiah and Shimeon came from the family line of Harim. [32]So did Benjamin, Malluk and Shemariah.

[33]Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad and Eliphelet came from the family line of Hashum. So did Jeremai, Manasseh and Shimei.

[34]Maadai, Amram and Uel came from the family line of Bani. [35]So did Benaiah, Bedeiah, Keluhi, [36]Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, [37]Mattaniah, Mattenai and Jaasu.

38 Shimei came from the family line of Binnui. 39 So did Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah, 40 Maknadebai, Shashai, Sharai, 41 Azarel, Shelemiah, Shemariah, 42 Shallum, Amariah and Joseph.
43 Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad and Zebina came from the family line of Nebo. So did Jaddai, Joel and Benaiah.
44 All these men had married women from other lands. Some of them had even had children by those wives.

Nehemiah

Nehemiah 1

Nehemiah Prays to the LORD

[1]These are the words of Nehemiah. He was the son of Hakaliah.

I was in the fort of Susa. I was there in the 20th year that Artaxerxes was king. It was in the month of Kislev. [2]At that time Hanani came from Judah with some other men. He was one of my brothers. I asked him and the other men about the Jews who were left alive in Judah. They had returned from Babylon. I also asked him about Jerusalem.

[3]He and the men with him said to me, “Some of the people who returned are still alive. They are back in the land of Judah. But they are having a hard time. They are ashamed. The wall of Jerusalem is broken down. Its gates have been burned with fire.”

[4]When I heard about these things, I sat down and wept. For several days I was very sad. I didn’t eat any food. And I prayed to the God of heaven. [5]I said, > “LORD, you are the God of heaven. You are a great and wonderful God. You keep the covenant you made with those who love you and obey your commandments. You show them your love. [6]Please pay careful attention to my prayer. See how your people are suffering. Please listen to me. I’m praying to you day and night. I’m praying for the people of Israel. We Israelites have committed sins against you. All of us admit it. I and my family have also sinned against you. [7]We’ve done some very evil things. We haven’t obeyed the commands, rules and laws you gave your servant Moses.

>
> [8]“Remember what you told him. You said, ‘If you people are not faithful, I will scatter you among the nations. [9]But if you return to me, I will bring you back. If you obey my commands, I will gather you together again. I will bring you back from the farthest places on earth. I will bring you to the special place where I have chosen to put my Name.’
>
> [10]“LORD, they are your people. They serve you. You used your great strength and mighty hand to set them free from Egypt. [11]Lord, please pay careful attention to my prayer. Listen to the prayers of all of us. We take delight in bringing honor to your name. Give me success today when I bring my request to King Artaxerxes.”

I was the king’s wine taster.

Nehemiah 2

Artaxerxes Sends Nehemiah to Jerusalem

[1]Wine was brought in for King Artaxerxes. It was the month of Nisan in the 20th year of his rule. I got the wine and gave it to him. I hadn't been sad in front of him before. But now I was. [2]So the king asked me, "Why are you looking so sad? You aren't sick. You must be feeling very sad."

I was really afraid. [3]But I said to the king, "May you live forever! Why shouldn't I look sad? The city where my people of long ago are buried has been destroyed. And fire has burned up its gates."

[4]The king said to me, "What do you want?"

I prayed to the God of heaven. [5]Then I answered the king, "Are you pleased with me, King Artaxerxes? If it pleases you, send me to Judah. Let me go to the city of Jerusalem. That's where my people are buried. I want to rebuild it."

[6]The queen was sitting beside the king. He turned and asked me, "How long will your journey take? When will you get back?" It pleased the king to send me. So I chose a certain time.

[7]I also said to him, "If it pleases you, may I take some letters with me? I want to give them to the governors of the land west of the Euphrates River. Then they'll help me travel safely through their territory until I arrive in Judah. [8]May I also have a letter to Asaph? He takes care of the royal park. I want him to give me some logs so I can make beams out of them. I want to use them for the gates of the fort that is by the temple. Some of the logs will also be used in the city wall. And I'll need some for the house I'm going to live in." God was kind to me and helped me. So the king gave me what I asked for. [9]Then I went to the governors of the land west of the Euphrates River. I gave them the king's letters. He had also sent army officers and horsemen along with me.

[10]Sanballat and Tobiah heard about what was happening. Sanballat was a Horonite. Tobiah was an official from Ammon. They were very upset that someone had come to help the Israelites.

Nehemiah Checks Out the Walls of Jerusalem

[11]I went to Jerusalem and stayed there for three days. [12]Then at night I took a few other people with me to check out the walls. I hadn't told anyone what my God wanted me to do for Jerusalem. There weren't any donkeys with me except the one I was riding on.

13That night I went out through the Valley Gate. I went toward the Jackal Well and the Dung Gate. I checked out the walls of Jerusalem. They had been broken down. I also checked the city gates. Fire had burned them up. 14I moved on toward the Fountain Gate and the King's Pool. But there wasn't enough room for my donkey to get through. 15It was still night. I went up the Kidron Valley. I kept checking the wall. Finally, I turned back. I went back in through the Valley Gate. 16The officials didn't know where I had gone or what I had done. That's because I hadn't said anything to anyone yet. I hadn't told the priests or nobles or officials. And I hadn't spoken to any other Jews who would be rebuilding the wall.

17I said to them, "You can see the trouble we're in. Jerusalem has been destroyed. Fire has burned up its gates. Come on. Let's rebuild the wall of Jerusalem. Then people won't be ashamed anymore." 18I also told them how my gracious God was helping me. And I told them what the king had said to me.

They replied, "Let's start rebuilding." So they began that good work.

19But Sanballat, the Horonite, heard about it. So did Tobiah, the official from Ammon. Geshem, the Arab, heard about it too. All of them laughed at us. They made fun of us. "What do you think you are doing?" they asked. "Are you turning against the king?"

20I answered, "The God of heaven will give us success. We serve him. So we'll start rebuilding the walls. But you don't have any share in Jerusalem. You don't have any claim to it. You don't have any right to worship here."

Nehemiah 3

A List of the People Who Repaired the Wall

[1]Eliashib the high priest and the other priests went to work. They rebuilt the Sheep Gate. They set it apart to God. They put its doors in place. They continued to rebuild the wall up to the Tower of the Hundred. They set the tower apart to God. Then they continued to rebuild the wall all the way to the Tower of Hananel. [2]Some men from Jericho rebuilt the next part of the wall. And Zakkur rebuilt the next part. He was the son of Imri.

[3]The sons of Hassenaah rebuilt the Fish Gate. They laid its beams. They put in place its doors with their metal bolts and bars. [4]Meremoth repaired the next part of the wall. He was the son of Uriah. Uriah was the son of Hakkoz. Next to Meremoth, Meshullam made some repairs. He was the son of Berekiah. Berekiah was the son of Meshezabel. Next to Meshullam, Zadok also made some repairs. He was the son of Baana. [5]Some men from Tekoa repaired the next part of the wall. But their nobles refused to do any work at all. They didn’t pay any attention to the people who were in charge of the work.

[6]Joiada and Meshullam repaired the Jeshanah Gate. Joiada was the son of Paseah. Meshullam was the son of Besodeiah. Joiada and Meshullam laid the beams of the gate. They put in place its doors with their metal bolts and bars. [7]Next to them, some men from Gibeon and Mizpah made repairs. They included Melatiah from Gibeon and Jadon from Meronoth. Those places were under the authority of the governor of the land west of the Euphrates River. [8]Uzziel repaired the next part of the wall. He made his living by working with gold. He was the son of Harhaiah. Hananiah made repairs on the next part. He made his living by making perfume. So the wall of Jerusalem was made like new again all the way to the Broad Wall. [9]Rephaiah repaired the next part. He was the son of Hur. Rephaiah ruled over half of the territory where Jerusalem was located. [10]Jedaiah repaired the part of the wall that was across from his house. He was the son of Harumaph. Hattush made repairs next to Jedaiah. Hattush was the son of Hashabneiah. [11]Malkijah and Hasshub repaired another part of the wall. They also repaired the Tower of the Ovens. Malkijah was the son of Harim. Hasshub was the son of Pahath-

Moab. [12]Shallum repaired the next part. His daughters helped him. He was the son of Hallohesh. Shallum ruled over the other half of the territory where Jerusalem was located.

[13]Hanun repaired the Valley Gate. Some people who lived in Zanoah helped him. They rebuilt it. They put in place its doors with their metal bolts and bars. They also repaired 1,500 feet of the wall. They repaired it all the way to the Dung Gate.

[14]Malkijah repaired the Dung Gate. He was the son of Rekab. Malkijah ruled over the territory where Beth Hakkerem was located. He rebuilt the gate. He put in place its doors with their metal bolts and bars.

[15]Shallun repaired the Fountain Gate. He was the son of Kol-Hozeh. Shallun ruled over the territory where Mizpah was located. He rebuilt the gate. He put a roof over it. And he put in place the doors of the gate with their metal bolts and bars. He also repaired the wall by the Pool of Siloam. It was near the King's Garden. Shallun repaired the wall as far as the steps that go down from the City of David. [16]Next to Shallun, Nehemiah made some repairs. He was the son of Azbuk. Nehemiah ruled over half of the territory where Beth Zur was located. He repaired the wall up to the part that was across from the tombs of David. He repaired it all the way to the man-made pool and the House of the Heroes.

[17]Next to Nehemiah, some Levites made repairs. They worked under the direction of Rehum. He was the son of Bani. Next to Rehum, Hashabiah made repairs for his territory. He ruled over half of the territory where Keilah was located. [18]Next to him, other Levites made some repairs. They worked under the direction of Binnui. He was the son of Henadad. Binnui ruled over the other half of the territory where Keilah was located. [19]Next to Binnui, Ezer repaired another part of the wall. He was the son of Jeshua. Ezer ruled over Mizpah. He repaired the part across from the place that went up to the storeroom where the weapons were kept. He repaired the wall up to the angle of the wall. [20]Next to Ezer, Baruch worked hard to repair another part of the wall. He was the son of Zabbai. He repaired the part from the angle of the wall to the entrance to Eliashib's house. Eliashib was the high priest. [21]Next to Baruch, Meremoth repaired another part. He was the son of Uriah. Uriah was the son of Hakkoz. Meremoth repaired the part from the entrance to Eliashib's house to the end of the house.

[22]Next to Meremoth, some priests from the surrounding area made repairs.
[23]Next to them, Benjamin and Hasshub repaired the part of the wall that was in front of their house. Next to them, Azariah repaired the part that was beside his house. He was the son of Maaseiah. Maaseiah was the son of Ananiah. [24]Next to Azariah, Binnui made repairs on another part. Binnui was the son of Henadad.
Binnui repaired the wall from Azariah's house to the angle and the corner.
[25]Palal worked across from the angle. He was the son of Uzai. Palal also worked across from the tower that was part of the upper palace. It was near the courtyard of the guard. Next to him, Pedaiah made some repairs. He was the son of Parosh.
[26]The temple servants who lived on the hill of Ophel helped Pedaiah. They repaired the wall up to the part that was across from the Water Gate. It was toward the east and the palace tower. [27]Next to the temple servants, the men from Tekoa repaired another part. They made repairs from the large palace tower to the wall of Ophel.

[28]The priests made repairs above the Horse Gate. Each priest repaired the part of the wall that was in front of his own house. [29]Next to them, Zadok made repairs across from his house. He was the son of Immer. Next to Zadok, Shemaiah made some repairs. He was the son of Shekaniah. Shemaiah guarded the East Gate. [30]Next to him, Hananiah and Hanun repaired another part of the wall. Hananiah was the son of Shelemiah. Hanun was the sixth son of Zalaph. Next to Hananiah and Hanun, Meshullam made some repairs. He was the son of Berekiah. Meshullam repaired the part that was across from where he lived. [31]Next to him, Malkijah made some repairs. He made his living by working with gold. He repaired the wall up to the house of the temple servants and the traders. It was across from the Inspection Gate. He also repaired the wall as far as the room above the corner. [32]The traders and those who made their living by working with gold made some repairs. They repaired the wall from the room above the corner to the Sheep Gate.

Nehemiah 4

Nehemiah's Enemies Oppose the Rebuilding

[1]Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall. So he became very angry and upset. He made fun of the Jews. [2]He spoke to his friends and the army of Samaria. He said, "What are those Jews trying to do? Can they make their city wall like new again? Will they offer sacrifices? Can they finish everything in a single day? The stones from their city wall and buildings are piled up like trash. And everything has been badly burned. Can they use those stones to rebuild everything again?"

[3]Tobiah from Ammon was at Sanballat's side. He said, "What are they building? They're putting up a stone wall. But suppose a fox climbs on top of it. Even that will break it down!"

[4]I prayed to God. I said, "Our God, please listen to our prayer. Some people hate us. They're saying bad things about us. So let others say bad things about them. Let them be carried off like stolen goods. Let them be taken to another country as prisoners. [5]Don't hide your eyes from their guilt. Don't forgive their sins. They have said bad things about the builders."

[6]So we rebuilt the wall. We repaired it until all of it was half as high as we wanted it to be. The people worked with all their heart.

[7]But Sanballat and Tobiah heard that Jerusalem's walls continued to be repaired. The Arabs, the Ammonites and the people of Ashdod heard about it too. They heard that the gaps in the wall were being filled in. So they were very angry. [8]All of them made evil plans to come and fight against Jerusalem. They wanted to stir up trouble against it. [9]But we prayed to our God. We put guards on duty day and night to watch out for danger.

[10]During that time, the people in Judah spoke up. They said, "The workers are getting weaker and weaker all the time. Broken stones are piled up everywhere. They are in our way. So we can't rebuild the wall."

[11]And our enemies said, "We will be right there among them. We'll kill them. We'll put an end to their work. We'll do it before they even know it or see us."

[12]Then the Jews who lived near our enemies came to us. They told us ten times, "No matter where you are, they'll attack us."

[13]So I stationed some people behind the lowest parts of the wall. That's where our enemies could easily attack us. I stationed the people family by family. They had their swords, spears and bows with them. [14]I looked things over. Then I stood up and spoke to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people. I said, “Don’t be afraid of your enemies. Remember the Lord. He is great and powerful. So fight for your families. Fight for your sons and daughters. Fight for your wives and homes.”

[15]Our enemies heard that we knew what they were trying to do. They heard that God had blocked their evil plans. So all of us returned to the wall. Each of us did our own work.

[16]From that day on, half of my men did the work. The other half were given spears, shields, bows and armor. The officers stationed themselves behind all the people of Judah. [17]The people continued to build the wall. The people who carried supplies did their work with one hand. They held a weapon in the other hand. [18]Each of the builders wore his sword at his side as he worked. But the man who blew the trumpet stayed with me.

[19]Then I spoke to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people. I said, “This is a big job. It covers a lot of territory. We’re separated too far from one another along the wall. [20]When you hear the sound of the trumpet, join us at that location. Our God will fight for us!”

[21]So we continued the work. Half of the men held spears. We worked from the first light of sunrise until the stars came out at night. [22]At that time I also spoke to the people. I told them, “Have every man and his helper stay inside Jerusalem at night. Then they can guard us at night. And they can work during the day.” [23]My relatives and I didn’t take off our clothes. My men and the guards didn’t take theirs off either. Each man kept his weapon with him, even when he went to get water.

Nehemiah 5

Nehemiah Helps Some Poor People

[1]Some men and their wives cried out against their Jewish brothers and sisters.
[2]Some of them were saying, “There are now many of us. We have many sons and daughters. We have to get some grain so we can eat and stay alive.” [3]Others were saying, “We’re being forced to sell our fields, vineyards and homes. We have to do it to buy grain. There isn’t enough food for everyone.” [4]Still others were saying, “We’ve had to borrow money. We needed it to pay the king’s tax on our fields and vineyards. [5]We belong to the same family lines as the rest of our people. Our children are as good as theirs. But we’ve had to sell them off as slaves. Some of our daughters have already been made slaves.
But we can’t do anything about it. That’s because our fields and vineyards now belong to others.”
[6]I heard them when they cried out. And I was very angry when I heard what they were saying. [7]I thought it over for a while. Then I accused the nobles and officials of breaking the law. I told them, “You are charging your own people interest!” So I called together a large group of people to handle the matter. [8]I said, “Our Jewish brothers and sisters were sold to other nations. We’ve done everything we could to buy them back and bring them home. But look at what you are doing! You are actually selling your own people! Now we’ll have to buy them back too!” The people kept quiet. They couldn’t think of anything to say.
[9]So I continued, “What you are doing isn’t right. Shouldn’t you show respect for our God? Shouldn’t you live in a way that will keep our enemies from saying bad things about us? [10]I’m lending the people money and grain. So are my relatives and my men. But we must stop charging interest! [11]Give the people’s fields back to them. Give them back their vineyards, olive groves and houses. Do it right away. Give everything back to them. Also give them back the one percent on the money, grain, fresh wine and olive oil you have charged them.” [12]“We’ll give it back,” they said. “And we won’t require anything more from them. We’ll do exactly as you say.”
Then I sent for the priests. I made the nobles and officials promise to do what they had said. [13]I also shook out my pockets and emptied them. I said, “Someone might decide not to keep this promise they have made. If that happens, may God shake them out of their house! May he empty them of everything they own!”

The whole community said, “Amen.” They praised the LORD. And the leaders did what they had promised to do.

14And that’s not all. I was appointed as governor of Judah in the 20th year that Artaxerxes was king of Persia. I remained in that position until his 32nd year. During those 12 years, I and my relatives didn’t eat the food that was provided for my table. 15But there had been governors before me. They had put a heavy load on the people. They had taken a pound of silver from each of them. They had also taken food and wine from them. Their officials had acted like high and mighty rulers over them. But because of my great respect for God, I didn’t act like that. 16Instead, I spent all my time working on this wall. All my men were gathered there to work on it too. We didn’t receive any land for ourselves.

17Many people ate at my table. They included 150 Jews and officials. They also included leaders who came to us from the nations that were around us. 18Each day one ox, six of the best sheep and some birds were prepared for me. Every ten days plenty of wine of all kinds was brought in as well. In spite of all that, I never asked for the food that was provided for my table. That’s because the people were already paying too many taxes.

19You are my God. Please remember me and help me. Keep in mind everything I’ve done for these people.

Nehemiah 6

Nehemiah's Enemies Continue to Oppose the Rebuilding

[1]Sanballat, Tobiah and Geshem, the Arab, heard about what I had done. So did the rest of our enemies. All of them heard I had rebuilt the wall. In fact, they heard there weren't any gaps left in it. But up to that time I hadn't put up the gates at the main entrances to the city. [2]Sanballat and Geshem sent me a message. They said, "Come. Let's talk with one another. Let's meet in one of the villages on the plain of Ono."

But they were planning to harm me. [3]So I sent messengers to them with my answer. I replied, "I'm working on a huge project. So I can't get away. Why should the work stop while I leave it? Why should I go down and talk with you?" [4]They sent me the same message four times. And I gave them the same answer each time.

[5]Sanballat sent his helper to me a fifth time. He brought the same message. He was carrying a letter that wasn't sealed. [6]It said,

> "A report is going around among the nations. Geshem says it's true. We hear that you and the other Jews are planning to turn against the Persian rulers. And that's why you are building the wall. It's also reported that you are about to become their king. [7]People say that you have even appointed prophets to make an announcement about you. In Jerusalem they are going to say, 'Judah has a king!' That report will get back to the king of Persia. So come. Let's meet together."

[8]I sent a reply to Sanballat. I said, "What you are saying isn't really happening. You are just making it up."

[9]All of them were trying to frighten us. They thought, "Their hands will get too weak to do the work. So it won't be completed."

But I prayed to God. I said, "Make my hands stronger."

[10]One day I went to Shemaiah's house. He was the son of Delaiah. Delaiah was the son of Mehetabel. Shemaiah had shut himself up in his home. He said, "Let's go to God's house. Let's meet inside the temple and close the doors. Some men are coming at night to kill you."

[11]But I said, "Should a man like me run away? Should someone like me go into the temple just to save his life? No! I won't go!" [12]I realized that God hadn't sent Shemaiah. Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. That's why he had prophesied lies about me. [13]They had hired him to scare me. They wanted me to commit a sin by doing what he said. That would give me a bad name in the community. People would find fault with me and my work.

[14]You are my God. Remember what Tobiah and Sanballat have done. Also remember the prophet Noadiah. She and the rest of the prophets have been trying to scare me. [15]So the city wall was completed on the 25th day of the month of Elul. It was finished in 52 days.

Nehemiah's Enemies Oppose the Completed Wall

[16]All our enemies heard about it. All the nations around us became afraid. They weren't sure of themselves anymore. They realized that our God had helped us finish the work.

[17]In those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah. And replies from Tobiah came back to them. [18]Many people in Judah had promised that they would be faithful to him. That's because he was Shekaniah's son-in-law. Shekaniah was the son of Arah. Tobiah's son Jehohanan had married Meshullam's daughter. Meshullam was the son of Berekiah. [19]Tobiah's friends kept reporting to me the good things he did. They also kept telling him what I said. And Tobiah himself sent letters to scare me.

Nehemiah 7

[1]The wall had been rebuilt. I had put up the gates at the main entrances to the city. The people who guarded the gates were appointed to their positions. So were the musicians and the Levites. [2]I put my brother Hanani in charge of Jerusalem. Hananiah helped him. Hananiah was commander of the fort that was by the temple. Hanani was an honest man. He had more respect for God than most people do. [3]I said to Hanani and Hananiah, “Don’t open the gates of Jerusalem until the hottest time of the day. Tell the men who guard the gates to shut them before they go off duty. Make sure they lock them up tight. Also appoint as guards some people who live in Jerusalem. Station some of them at their appointed places. Station others near their own homes.”

A List of People Who Returned to Judah

[4]Jerusalem was large. It had a lot of room. But only a few people lived there. The houses hadn’t been rebuilt yet. [5]So my God gave me the idea and encouraged me to gather the people together. He also encouraged me to gather the nobles and officials together with them. He wanted me to list them by families. I found the family history of those who had been the first to return. Here is what I found written in it.

[6]Nebuchadnezzar had taken many Jews away from the land of Judah. He had forced them to go to Babylon as prisoners.
Now they returned to Jerusalem and Judah. All of them went back to their own towns. Nebuchadnezzar was king of Babylon. [7]The leaders of the Jews included Zerubbabel, Joshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah and Nahamani. They also included Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum and Baanah.

Here is a list of the men of Israel who returned home.

[8]There were 2,172 from the family line of Parosh.
[9]There were 372 from Shephatiah.
[10]There were 652 from Arah.
[11]There were 2,818 from Pahath-Moab through the family line of Jeshua and Joab.

12 There were 1,254 from Elam.
13 There were 845 from Zattu.
14 There were 760 from Zakkai.
15 There were 648 from Binnui.
16 There were 628 from Bebai.
17 There were 2,322 from Azgad.
18 There were 667 from Adonikam.
19 There were 2,067 from Bigvai.
20 There were 655 from Adin.
21 There were 98 from Ater through the family line of Hezekiah.
22 There were 328 from Hashum.
23 There were 324 from Bezai.
24 There were 112 from Hariph.
25 There were 95 from Gibeon.
26 There were 188 from the men of Bethlehem and Netophah.
27 There were 128 from Anathoth.
28 There were 42 from Beth Azmaveth.
29 There were 743 from Kiriath Jearim, Kephirah and Beeroth.
30 There were 621 from Ramah and Geba.
31 There were 122 from Mikmash.
32 There were 123 from Bethel and Ai.
33 There were 52 from the other Nebo.
34 There were 1,254 from the other Elam.
35 There were 320 from Harim.
36 There were 345 from Jericho.
37 There were 721 from Lod, Hadid and Ono.
38 There were 3,930 from Senaah.

39 Here is a list of the priests.

There were 973 from the family line of Jedaiah through the line of Jeshua.
40 There were 1,052 from Immer.
41 There were 1,247 from Pashhur.
42 There were 1,017 from Harim.

[43]The Levites belonged to the family line of Jeshua through Kadmiel through the line of Hodaviah. The total number of men was 74.

[44]The musicians belonged to the family line of Asaph. The total number of men was 148.

[45]The men who guarded the temple gates belonged to the family lines of Shallum, Ater, Talmon, Akkub, Hatita and Shobai. The total number of men was 138.

[46]Here is a list of the members of the family lines of the temple servants.

Ziha, Hasupha, Tabbaoth,
[47]Keros, Sia, Padon, [48]Lebana, Hagaba, Shalmai, [49]Hanan, Giddel, Gahar, [50]Reaiah, Rezin, Nekoda,
[51]Gazzam, Uzza, Paseah, [52]Besai, Meunim, Nephusim,
[53]Bakbuk, Hakupha, Harhur,
[54]Bazluth, Mehida, Harsha,
[55]Barkos, Sisera, Temah,
[56]Neziah, Hatipha

[57]Here is a list of the members of the family lines of the servants of Solomon.

Sotai, Sophereth, Perida,
[58]Jaala, Darkon, Giddel,
[59]Shephatiah, Hattil, Pokereth-Hazzebaim, Amon
[60]The total number of the members of the family lines of the temple servants and the servants of Solomon was 392.

[61]Many people came up to Judah from the towns of Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon and Immer. But they weren’t able to prove that their families belonged to the people of Israel.

[62]There were 642 of them from the family lines of Delaiah, Tobiah and Nekoda.

[63]Here is a list of the members of the family lines of the priests.

They were Hobaiah, Hakkoz and Barzillai. Barzillai had married a daughter of Barzillai from Gilead. So he was also called Barzillai.
[64]The priests looked for their family records. But they couldn’t find them. So they weren’t able to serve as priests. They weren’t “clean.”
[65]The governor gave them an order. He told them not to eat any of the most sacred food. They had to wait until there was a priest who could use the Urim and Thummim. The priest would use them to get decisions from the LORD.
[66]The total number of the entire group that returned was 42,360. [67]That didn’t include their 7,337 male and female slaves. There were also 245 male and female singers. [68]And there were 736 horses, 245 mules, [69]435 camels and 6,720 donkeys.

[70]Some of the family leaders helped pay for the work. The governor gave 19 pounds of gold to be added to the temple treasure. He also gave 50 bowls and 530 sets of clothes for the priests. [71]Some of the family leaders gave 375 pounds of gold for the work. They also gave one and a third tons of silver. All of that was added to the temple treasure. [72]The rest of the people gave a total of 375 pounds of gold and one and a fourth tons of silver. They also gave 67 sets of clothes for the priests.

[73]The priests and Levites made their homes in their own towns. So did the musicians, the temple servants and the men who guarded the gates. The rest of the Israelites also made their homes in their own towns.

Ezra Reads the Law to the People

The Israelites had made their homes in their towns. In the seventh month,

Nehemiah 8

[1]all of them gathered together. They went to the open area in front of the Water Gate. They told Ezra to bring out the Book of the Law of Moses. The LORD had given Israel that Law so they would obey him. Ezra was the teacher of the Law.

[2]Ezra the priest brought the Law out to the whole community. It was the first day of the seventh month. The group was made up of men, women, and children old enough to understand what Ezra was going to read. [3]He read the Law to them from sunrise until noon. He did it as he faced the open area in front of the Water Gate. He read it to the men, the women, and the children old enough to understand. And all the people paid careful attention as Ezra was reading the Book of the Law.

[4]Ezra, the teacher of the Law, stood on a high wooden stage. It had been built for the occasion. Mattithiah, Shema and Anaiah stood at his right side. So did Uriah, Hilkiah and Maaseiah. Pedaiah, Mishael and Malkijah stood at his left side. So did Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah and Meshullam.

[5]Ezra opened the book. All the people could see him. That’s because he was standing above them. As he opened the book, the people stood up. [6]Ezra praised the LORD. He is the great God. All the people lifted up their hands and said, “Amen! Amen!” Then they bowed down. They turned their faces toward the ground and worshiped the LORD.

[7]The Levites taught the Law to the people. They remained standing while the Levites taught them. The Levites who were there included Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai and Hodiah. They also included Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan and Pelaiah. [8]All these Levites read to the people parts of the Book of the Law of God. They made it clear to them. They told them what it meant. So the people understood what was being read.

[9]Nehemiah was the governor. Ezra was a priest and the teacher of the Law.
They spoke up. So did the Levites who were teaching the people. All these men said to the people, “This day is set apart to honor the LORD your God. So don’t weep. Don’t be sad.” All the people had been weeping as they listened to the words of the Law.

[10]Nehemiah said, “Go and enjoy some good food and sweet drinks. Send some of it to people who don’t have any. This day is holy to our Lord. So don’t be sad. The joy of the LORD makes you strong.”

[11]The Levites calmed all the people down. They said, “Be quiet. This is a holy day. So don’t be sad.”

[12]Then all the people went away to eat and drink. They shared their food with others. They celebrated with great joy. Now they understood the words they had heard. That’s because everything had been explained to them.

[13]All the family leaders gathered around Ezra, the teacher. So did the priests and Levites. All of them paid attention to the words of the Law. It was the second day of the month. [14]The LORD had given the Law through Moses. He wanted the Israelites to obey it. It is written there that they were supposed to live in booths during the Feast of Booths. That feast was celebrated in the seventh month. [15]They were also supposed to spread the message all through their towns and in Jerusalem. They were supposed to announce, “Go out into the central hill country. Bring back some branches from olive and wild olive trees. Also bring some from myrtle, palm and shade trees. Use the branches to make booths.”

[16]So the people went out and brought back some branches. They built themselves booths on their own roofs. They made them in their courtyards. They put them up in the courtyards of the house of God. They built them in the open area in front of the Water Gate. And they built them in the open area in front of the Gate of Ephraim. [17]All the people who had returned from the land of Babylon made booths. They lived in them during the Feast of Booths. They hadn’t celebrated the feast with so much joy for a long time. In fact, they had never celebrated it like that from the days of Joshua, the son of Nun, until that day. So their joy was very great.

[18]Day after day, Ezra read parts of the Book of the Law of God to them. He read it out loud from the first day to the last. They celebrated the Feast of Booths for seven days. On the eighth day they gathered together. They followed the required rules for celebrating the feast.

Nehemiah 9

The Israelites Admit They Have Sinned

[1]It was the 24th day of the seventh month. The Israelites gathered together again. They didn't eat any food. They wore the rough clothing people wear when they're sad. They put dust on their heads. [2]The Israelites separated themselves from everyone else. They stood and admitted they had sinned. They also admitted that their people before them had sinned. [3]They stood where they were. They listened while the Levites read parts of the Book of the Law of the LORD their God. They listened for a fourth of the day. They spent another fourth of the day admitting their sins. They also worshiped the LORD their God. [4]Some people were standing on the stairs of the Levites. They included Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani and Kenani. With loud voices they called out to the LORD their God. [5]Then some Levites spoke up. They included Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah and Pethahiah. They said to the people, "Stand up. Praise the LORD your God. He lives for ever and ever!"

