> So the people said, "LORD, may your glorious name be praised. May it be lifted high above every other name that is blessed and praised. [6]You are the one and only LORD. You made the heavens. You made even the highest heavens. You created all the stars in the sky. You created the earth and everything on it. And you made the oceans and everything in them. You give life to everything. Every living being in heaven worships you.
> [7]"You are the LORD God. You chose Abram. You brought him out of Ur in the land of Babylon. You named him Abraham. [8]You knew that his heart was faithful to you. And you made a covenant with him. You promised to give to his children after him a land of their own. It was the land of the Canaanites, Hittites and Amorites. The Perizzites, Jebusites and Girgashites also lived there. You have kept your promise. That's because you always do what is right and fair.
> [9]"You saw how our people of long ago suffered in Egypt. You heard them cry out to you at the Red Sea. [10]You sent signs and wonders against Pharaoh. You sent plagues on all his officials. In fact, you sent them on all the people of Egypt. You knew how they treated our people.

They looked down on them. But you made a name for yourself. That name remains to this very day. [11]You parted the waters of the Red Sea for the Israelites. They passed through it on dry ground. But you threw into the sea those who chased them. They sank down like a stone into the mighty waters. [12]By day you led the Israelites with a pillar of cloud. At night you led them with a pillar of fire. It gave them light to show them the way you wanted them to go.

[13]"You came down on Mount Sinai. From heaven you spoke to our people. You gave them rules and laws. Those laws are right and fair. You gave them orders and commands that are good. [14]You taught them about your holy Sabbath day. You gave them commands, orders and laws. You did it through your servant Moses. [15]When the people were hungry, you gave them bread from heaven. When they were thirsty, you brought them water out of a rock. You told them to go into the land of Canaan. You told them to take it as their own. It was the land you had promised to give them.

[16]"But our people before us became proud and stubborn. They didn't obey your commands. [17]They refused to listen to you. They forgot the miracles you had done among them. So they became stubborn. When they refused to obey you, they appointed a leader for themselves. They wanted to go back to being slaves in Egypt. But you are a God who forgives. You are gracious. You are tender and kind. You are slow to get angry. You are full of love. So you didn't desert them. [18]They made for themselves a metal statue of a god that looked like a calf. They said to one another, 'Here is your god. He brought you up out of Egypt.' And they did evil things that dishonored you. But you still didn't desert them.

[19]"Because you loved them so much, you didn't leave them in the desert. During the day the pillar of cloud didn't stop guiding them on their path. At night the pillar of fire didn't stop shining on the way you wanted them to go. [20]You gave them your good Spirit to teach them. You didn't hold back your manna from their mouths. And you gave them water when they were thirsty. [21]For 40 years you took good care of them in the desert. They had everything they needed. Their clothes didn't wear out. And their feet didn't swell up.

[22]"You gave them kingdoms and nations. You even gave them lands far away. They took over the country of Sihon. He was the king of Heshbon. They also took over the country of Og. He was the king of Bashan. [23]You gave them as many children as there are stars in the sky. You told their parents to enter the land. You told them to take it over. And you brought their children into it. [24]Their children went into the land. They took it as their own. You brought the Canaanites under Israel's control. The Canaanites lived in the land. But you handed them over to Israel. You also handed over their kings and the other nations in the land to Israel. You allowed Israel to deal with them just as they wanted to. [25]Your people captured cities that had high walls around them. They also took over the rich land in Canaan. They took houses filled with all kinds of good things. They took over wells that had already been dug. They took many vineyards, olive groves and fruit trees. They ate until they were very full and satisfied. They were filled with joy because you were so good to them.

[26]"But they didn't obey you. Instead, they turned against you. They turned their backs on your law. They killed your prophets. The prophets had warned them to return to you. But they did very evil things that dishonored you. [27]So you handed them over to their enemies, who treated them badly. Then they cried out to you. From heaven you heard them. You loved them very much. So you sent leaders to help them. The leaders saved them from the power of their enemies.

[28]"Then the people were enjoying peace and rest again. That's when they did what you did not want them to do. Then you handed them over to their enemies. So their enemies ruled over them. When they cried out to you again, you heard them from heaven. You loved them very much. So you saved them time after time.

[29]"You warned them so that they would obey your law again. But they became proud. They didn't obey your commands. They sinned against your rules. You said, 'Anyone who obeys my rules will live by them.' But the people didn't care about that. They turned their backs on you. They became very stubborn. They refused to listen to you. [30]For many years you put up with them. By your Spirit you warned them through your prophets. In spite of that, they didn't pay any attention. So you handed them over to the nations that were around them. [31]But you loved them very much. So you didn't put an end to them. You didn't desert them. That's because you are a gracious God. You are tender and kind.

[32]“Our God, you are the great God. You are mighty and wonderful.
You keep the covenant you made with us. You show us your love. So don’t let all our suffering seem like a small thing to you. We’ve suffered greatly. So have our kings and leaders. So have our priests and prophets. Our people who lived long ago also suffered. And all your people are suffering right now. In fact, we’ve been suffering from the time of the kings of Assyria until today. [33]In spite of everything that has happened to us, you have been fair. You have been faithful in what you have done. But we did what was evil. [34]Our kings and leaders didn’t follow your law. Our priests and our people before us didn’t follow it either. They didn’t pay any attention to your commands or rules that you warned them to keep. [35]They didn’t serve you. They didn’t turn from their evil ways. They didn’t obey you even when they had a kingdom. You were very good to them. And they enjoyed it. You gave them a rich land. It had plenty of room in it. But they still didn’t serve you.

[36]“Now look at us. We are slaves today. We’re slaves in the land you gave our people of long ago. You gave it to them so they could eat its fruit and the other good things it produces. [37]But we have sinned against you. So its great harvest goes to the kings of Persia. You have placed them over us. They rule over our bodies and cattle just as they please. And we are suffering terribly.

They also included all the people who separated themselves from the surrounding nations to obey the Law of God. All these men brought their wives with them. And they brought all their sons and daughters who were old enough to understand what was being agreed to. [29]All the men joined the nobles of their people. They made a firm agreement. They made a promise and said they would be cursed if they didn't keep it. They promised to follow the Law of God. It had been given through Moses, the servant of God. They promised to obey carefully all the commands, rules and laws of the LORD our Lord.

[30]Here is what the priests, Levites and people said. "We promise not to let our daughters marry men from the nations around us. And we promise not to let their daughters marry our sons.

[31]"The people around us will bring goods and grain to sell on the Sabbath day. But we won't buy anything from them on the Sabbath day. In fact, we won't buy anything from them on any holy day. Every seventh year we won't farm the land. And we'll forgive people what they owe us.

32"We will be accountable for carrying out the commands for serving in the house of our God. Each of us will give an eighth of an ounce of silver every year. 33It will pay for the holy bread that is placed on the table in the temple. It will pay for the regular grain offerings and burnt offerings. It will pay for the offerings on the Sabbath days. It will pay for the offerings at the New Moon feasts and at the appointed feasts. It will pay for the holy offerings. It will be used for sin offerings to pay for the sins of Israel. It will also pay for everything else that needs to be done at the house of our God.

34"We are the priests, Levites and people. Each of our families should bring a gift of wood to the house of our God. We have cast lots to decide when they will do that. They will bring it at certain appointed times every year. The wood will be burned on the altar of the LORD our God. That's what the Law requires.

35"We will also be accountable for bringing the first share of our crops each year. And we'll bring the first share of every fruit tree. We'll bring them to the LORD's house.

36"Each of us will bring our oldest son to the priests who serve there. We'll also bring the male animals that were born first to their mothers among our cattle, herds and flocks. We'll bring them to the house of our God. That's what the Law requires.

37"We will also bring the first part of the meal we grind. We'll bring the first of our grain offerings. We'll bring the first share of fruit from all our trees. And we'll bring the first share of our olive oil and fresh wine. We'll give all those things to the priests. They'll put them in the storerooms of the house of our God. And we'll give a tenth of our crops to the Levites. They collect the tenth shares. They do it in all the towns where we work. 38A priest from Aaron's family line must go with the Levites when they receive the tenth shares. And the Levites must bring a tenth of those shares up to the house of our God. They must put it in the rooms where the treasures are stored. 39The people of Israel, including the Levites, must bring their gifts. They must bring grain, olive oil and fresh wine. They must put them in the storerooms where the objects for the temple are kept. That's also where the objects are kept for the priests serving at the temple, the musicians and the men who guard the gates.

"We won't forget to take care of the house of our God."

Nehemiah 11

People Are Chosen to Live in Jerusalem

[1]The leaders of the people made their homes in Jerusalem. The rest of the people cast lots. They did it to choose one person out of every ten of them. That person was chosen to live in the holy city of Jerusalem. The other nine had to stay in their own towns. [2]The people thanked everyone who agreed to live in Jerusalem.

[3]Here are the leaders from different parts of the country who made their homes in Jerusalem.
Some Israelites, priests and Levites lived in the towns of Judah. So did some temple servants and some members of the family lines of Solomon's servants. All of them were the leaders of the priests and those who helped them. They lived in the days of Joshua.

[8]The Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah and Judah. There were also Mattaniah and those who helped him. They were in charge of the songs for giving thanks. [9]Bakbukiah and Unni helped them. They stood and sang across from them during the services.

And Nethanel was from Jedaiah’s family.

22The names of the family leaders of the Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan and Jaddua were written down. So were the names of the family leaders of the priests. That happened while Darius ruled over Persia. 23The names of the leaders in Levi’s family line up to the time of Johanan were written down. They were written in the official records. Johanan was the son of Eliashib. 24The leaders of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah and Jeshua. Jeshua was the son of Kadmiel. Those who helped them stood across from them to sing praises and give thanks. One group would sing back to the other. That’s what David, the man of God, had ordered.

25Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon and Akkub stood at the gates of the temple. They guarded the storerooms at the gates. 26They served in the days of Joiakim. He was the son of Joshua. Joshua was the son of Jozadak. They also served in the days of Nehemiah and Ezra. Nehemiah was the governor. Ezra was a priest and the teacher of the Law.

The Wall of Jerusalem Is Set Apart to God

27The wall of Jerusalem was set apart to God. For that occasion, the Levites were gathered together from where they lived. They were brought to Jerusalem to celebrate that happy occasion. They celebrated the fact that the wall was being set apart to God. They did it by singing and giving their thanks to him. They celebrated by playing music on cymbals, harps and lyres. [28]The musicians were also brought together. Some of them came in from the area around Jerusalem. Others came from the villages where the people of Netophah lived. [29]Others came from Beth Gilgal. Still others came from the area of Geba and Azmaveth. The musicians had built villages for themselves around Jerusalem. [30]The priests and Levites made themselves pure. Then they made the people, the gates and the wall pure and “clean.”

[31]I, Nehemiah, had the leaders of Judah go up on top of the wall. I also appointed two large choirs to sing and give thanks. I told one of them to walk south on top of the wall. That was toward the Dung Gate. [32]Hoshaiah and half of the leaders of Judah followed them. [33]Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam, [34]Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah and Jeremiah also followed them. [35]Some priests who had trumpets followed them. So did Zechariah. He was the son of Jonathan. Jonathan was the son of Shemaiah. Shemaiah was the son of Mattaniah. Mattaniah was the son of Micaiah. Micaiah was the son of Zakkur. Zakkur was the son of Asaph. [36]Those who helped Zechariah also marched along. They were Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah and Hanani. They brought musical instruments with them. That’s what David, the man of God, had ordered. Ezra led the group that was marching south. He was the teacher of the Law. [37]At the Fountain Gate they continued straight up the steps of the City of David. The steps went up to the wall. Then the group passed above the place where David’s palace had been. They continued on to the Water Gate on the east.

[38]The second choir went north. I followed them on top of the wall. Half of the people went with me. They went past the Tower of the Ovens. They went to the Broad Wall. [39]They marched over the Gate of Ephraim. They went over the Jeshanah Gate and the Fish Gate. They went past the Tower of Hananel and the Tower of the Hundred. They continued on to the Sheep Gate. At the Gate of the Guard they stopped.

[40]Then the two choirs that sang and gave thanks took their places in God’s house. So did I. So did half of the officials. [41]And so did the priests. They were Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah and Hananiah. They had their trumpets with them. [42]Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malkijah, Elam and Ezer were also there. The choirs sang under the direction of Jezrahiah. [43]On that day large numbers of sacrifices were offered. The people were glad because God had given them great joy. The women and children were also very happy. The joyful sound in Jerusalem could be heard far away.

Nehemiah Makes Some Final Changes

44At that time some men were put in charge of the storerooms. That's where all the gifts the people brought were placed. Those gifts included the first shares of their crops. They also included a tenth of everything the Law required. Crops were harvested from the fields around the towns. The people had to bring the shares of those crops that were required by the Law. They gave them to the priests and Levites. That's because the people of Judah were pleased with the priests and Levites who were serving God. 45The priests and Levites did everything their God wanted them to do. They made things pure and "clean."
The musicians and the men who guarded the temple gates also served God.
Everything was done just as David and his son Solomon had commanded. 46A long time ago there had been directors for the musicians. There had also been directors for the songs for giving thanks and praise to God. It was in the time of David and Asaph. 47So now in the days of Zerubbabel and Nehemiah, all the people of Israel brought their gifts. They gave the musicians and the men who guarded the gates what they were supposed to give them every day. They also set apart the shares for the other Levites. And the Levites set apart the shares for the priests in the family line of Aaron.

[1]At that time the Book of Moses was read out loud. All the people heard it. It was written there that no Ammonite or Moabite could ever become a member of God's community. [2]That's because they hadn't given the people of Israel food and water. Instead, they had hired Balaam to put a curse on them. But our God turned the curse into a blessing. [3]When that law was read, the people of Judah obeyed it. They sent out of Israel everyone who was from another nation.

[4]Eliashib the priest had been put in charge of the storerooms in the house of our God. He had worked closely with Tobiah. [5]He had also provided a large room for Tobiah. It had been used to store the grain offerings. The incense and the objects for the temple had been put there. And a tenth of the grain, olive oil and fresh wine had been kept there. That's what the Law required for the Levites. That's also what it required for the musicians and the men who guarded the temple gates. The gifts for the priests had been kept there too.

[6]But I wasn't in Jerusalem while all of that was going on. I had returned to the Persian King Artaxerxes, the king of Babylon. I went to him in the 32nd year of his rule. Some time later I asked him to let me return to Jerusalem. [7]When I got back, I learned about the evil thing Eliashib had done. He had provided a room for Tobiah. It was in the courtyards of God's house. [8]So I was very unhappy. I threw all of Tobiah's things out of the room. [9]I gave orders to make the rooms pure and "clean" again. Then I put the supplies from God's house back into them. That included the grain offerings and the incense.

[10]I also learned that the shares the Levites were supposed to receive hadn't been given to them. So all the Levites and musicians had to leave their regular temple duties. They had to go back and farm their own fields. [11]I gave a warning to the officials. I asked them, "Why aren't you taking care of God's house?" Then I brought the Levites and musicians together. I stationed them in their proper places. I put them back to work.

[12]All the people of Judah brought a tenth of the grain, olive oil and fresh wine. They took it to the storerooms. [13]I put some men in charge of the storerooms. They were Shelemiah, Zadok and Pedaiah. Shelemiah was a priest. Zadok was a teacher of the law. And Pedaiah was a Levite. I made Hanan their assistant. He was the son of Zakkur. Zakkur was the son of Mattaniah. I knew that these men could be trusted. They were put in charge of handing out the supplies to the other Levites.

[14]You are my God. Remember me because of what I've done. I've worked faithfully for your temple and its services. So please don't forget the good things I've done.

[15]In those days I saw some people of Judah stomping on grapes in winepresses. They were doing it on the Sabbath day. Other people were bringing in grain. They were loading it on donkeys. Still other people were loading up wine, grapes, figs and other kinds of things. They were bringing all of it into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. So I warned them not to sell food on that day. [16]People from Tyre who lived in Jerusalem were bringing in fish. In fact, they were bringing in all kinds of goods. They were selling them in Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. The people of Judah were buying them. [17]I gave a warning to the nobles of Judah. I said, "Why are you doing such an evil thing? You are misusing the Sabbath day! [18]Your people of long ago did the very same things. That's why our God has brought all this trouble on us. That's why he's making this city suffer so much. Now you are making him even angrier against Israel. You are misusing the Sabbath day."

[19]Evening shadows fell on the gates of Jerusalem before the Sabbath day started. So I ordered the gates to be shut. They had to remain closed until the Sabbath day was over. I stationed some of my own men at the gates. I told them not to let anything be brought in on the Sabbath day. [20]Once or twice some traders and sellers spent the night outside Jerusalem. They were hoping to sell all kinds of goods. [21]But I gave them a warning. I said, "Why are you spending the night by the wall? If you do this again, I'll arrest you." So from that time on they didn't come on the Sabbath day anymore. [22]I commanded the Levites to make themselves pure. Then I told them to go and guard the gates. I wanted the Sabbath day to be kept holy.

You are my God. Remember me because of the good things I've done. Be kind to me according to your great love.

[23]In those days I also saw that some men of Judah had married women from Ashdod. Others had married women from Ammon or Moab. [24]Half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod. Or they spoke the language of one of the other nations. They didn't even know how to speak the language of Judah. [25]So I gave them a warning. I cursed them. I beat up some of them. I pulled their hair out. I had them make a promise in God's name. I said, "You must promise not to give your daughters to be married to their sons. You must promise not to let their daughters marry your sons. And you must not marry their daughters either. [26]That's how Solomon, the king of Israel, sinned. He married women from other nations. There wasn't a king like him anywhere. His God loved him. In fact, God made him king over the whole nation of Israel. But even he was led into sin by women from other lands. [27]Now I hear that you too are doing all of the same terrible and evil things. You aren't being faithful to our God. You are marrying women from other lands."

[28]One of the sons of Joiada was the son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite. Joiada, the son of Eliashib, was the high priest. I drove Joiada's son away from me.

[29]You are my God. Remember what those priests have done. They have brought shame to their own work. They have also brought shame to the covenant that God made with the priests and Levites long ago.

[30]So I made the priests and Levites pure. I made them pure from every practice that had come from other countries and had made them impure. I gave them their duties. Each one had his own job to do. [31]I also made plans for gifts of wood to be brought at certain appointed times. And I made plans for the first share of the crops to be brought.

You are my God. Please remember me with kindness.

Esther 1

Vashti Is Removed From Her Position as Queen

[1]King Xerxes ruled over the 127 territories in his kingdom. They reached from India all the way to Cush. Here is what happened during the time Xerxes ruled over the whole Persian kingdom. [2]He was ruling from his royal throne in the fort of Susa. [3]In the third year of his rule King Xerxes gave a feast. It was for all his nobles and officials. The military leaders of Persia and Media were there. So were the princes and the nobles of the territories he ruled over.

[4]Every day for 180 days he showed his guests the great wealth of his kingdom. He also showed them how glorious his kingdom was. [5]When those days were over, the king gave another feast. It lasted for seven days. It was held in the garden of the king's courtyard. It was for all the people who lived in the fort of Susa. Everyone from the least important person to the most important was invited. [6]The garden was decorated with white and blue linen banners. They hung from ropes that were made out of white linen and purple cloth. The ropes were connected to silver rings on marble pillars. There were gold and silver couches in the garden. They were placed on a floor that was made out of small stones. The floor had purple crystal, marble, mother-of-pearl and other stones of great value. [7]Royal wine was served in gold cups. Each cup was different from all the others. There was plenty of wine. The king always provided as much as his guests wanted. [8]He commanded that they should be allowed to drink as much or as little as they wished. He directed all his servants to give his guests what they asked for.

[9]Queen Vashti also gave a feast. Only women were invited. It was held in the royal palace of King Xerxes.

[10]On the seventh day Xerxes was in a good mood because he had drunk a lot of wine. So he gave a command to the seven officials who served him. They were Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar and Karkas. [11]King Xerxes told them to bring Queen Vashti to him. He wanted her to come wearing her royal crown. He wanted to show off her beauty to the people and nobles. She was lovely to look at. [12]The attendants told Queen Vashti what the king had ordered her to do. But she refused to come. So the king became very angry.

[13]It was the king’s practice to ask for advice about matters of law and fairness. So he spoke with the wise men who understood what was going on at that time. [14]They were the men closest to the king. Their names were Karshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena and Memukan. They were the seven nobles of Persia and Media. They were the king’s special advisers and the most important men in the kingdom.

[15]“You know the law,” the king said. “What should I do to Queen Vashti? She hasn’t obeyed my command. The officials told her what I ordered her to do, didn’t they?”

[16]Then Memukan gave a reply to the king and the nobles. He said, “Queen Vashti has done what is wrong. But she didn’t do it only against you, King Xerxes. She did it also against all the nobles. And she did it against the people in all the territories you rule over. [17]All the women will hear about what the queen has done. Then they won’t respect their husbands. They’ll say, ‘King Xerxes commanded Queen Vashti to be brought to him. But she wouldn’t come.’ [18]Here is what will start today. The leading women in Persia and Media who have heard about the queen’s actions will act in the same way. They’ll disobey all your nobles, just as she disobeyed you. They won’t have any respect for their husbands. They won’t honor them.

[19]“So if it pleases you, send out a royal order. Let it be written down in the laws of Persia and Media. Those laws can never be changed. Let the royal order say that Vashti can never see you again. Also let her position as queen be given to someone who is better than she is. [20]And let your order be announced all through your entire kingdom. Then all women will have respect for their husbands, from the least important to the most important.”

[21]The king and his nobles were pleased with that advice. So he did what Memukan had suggested. [22]The king sent messages out to every territory in the kingdom. He sent them to each territory in its own writing. He sent them to every nation in its own language. The messages announced that every man should rule over his own family, using his own language.

Esther 2

Esther Becomes Queen of Persia

[1]Later, the great anger of King Xerxes calmed down. Then he remembered Vashti and what she had done. He also remembered the royal order he had sent out concerning her. [2]At that time the king's personal attendants made a suggestion. They said, "King Xerxes, let a search be made for some beautiful young virgins for you. [3]Appoint some officials in every territory in your kingdom. Have them bring all these beautiful young women into the fort of Susa. Put them in the special place where the virgins stay. Then put Hegai in charge of them. He's the official who serves you. He's in charge of the women. Let beauty care be given to the new group of women. [4]Then let the young woman who pleases you the most become queen in Vashti's place." The king liked that advice. So he followed it.

[5]There was a Jew living in the fort of Susa. He was from the tribe of Benjamin. His name was Mordecai. He was the son of Jair. Jair was the son of Shimei. Shimei was the son of Kish. [6]Nebuchadnezzar had forced Mordecai to leave Jerusalem. He was among the prisoners who were carried off along with Jehoiachin. Jehoiachin had been king of Judah. Nebuchadnezzar was king of Babylon. [7]Mordecai had a cousin named Hadassah. He had raised her because she didn't have a father or mother. Hadassah was also called Esther. She had a lovely figure and was very beautiful. Mordecai had adopted her as his own daughter. He had done it when her father and mother died.

[8]After the king's order and law were announced, many young women were brought to the fort of Susa. Hegai was put in charge of them. Esther was also taken to the king's palace. She was put under the control of Hegai. He was in charge of the place where the virgins stayed. [9]Esther pleased him. He showed her how happy he was with her. Right away he provided her with her beauty care and special food. He appointed seven female attendants to help her. They were chosen from the king's palace. He moved her and her attendants into the best part of the place where the virgins stayed.

[10]Esther hadn't told anyone who her people were. She hadn't talked about her family. That's because Mordecai had told her not to. [11]Mordecai tried to find out how Esther was getting along. He wanted to know what was happening to her. So he walked back and forth near the courtyard by the place where the virgins stayed. He did it every day.

12 Each young woman had to complete 12 months of beauty care. They used oil of myrrh for six months. And they used perfume and makeup for the other six months. A virgin's turn to go in to King Xerxes could come only after a full 12 months had passed. 13 And here is how she would go to the king. She would be given anything she wanted from the place where the virgins stayed. She could take it with her to the king's palace. 14 In the evening she would go there. In the morning she would leave. Then she would go to the special place where the king's concubines stayed. She would be put under the control of Shaashgaz. He was the king's official who was in charge of the concubines. She would never return to the king unless he was pleased with her. He had to send for her by name before she could go to him again.

15 Mordecai had adopted Esther. She had been the daughter of his uncle Abihail. Her turn came to go in to the king. She only asked for what Hegai suggested. He was the king's official who was in charge of the place where the virgins stayed. Everyone who saw Esther was pleased with her. 16 She was taken to King Xerxes in the royal house. It was now the tenth month. That was the month of Tebeth. It was the seventh year of the rule of Xerxes.

17 The king liked Esther more than he liked any of the other women. She pleased him more than any of the other virgins. So he put a royal crown on her head. He made her queen in Vashti's place. 18 Then the king gave a feast to honor Esther. All his nobles and officials were invited. He announced a holiday all through the territories he ruled over. He freely gave many gifts in keeping with his royal wealth.

Mordecai Uncovers a Plan to Kill the King

19 The virgins were gathered together a second time. At that time Mordecai was sitting at the palace gate. 20 Esther had kept her family history a secret. She hadn't told anyone who her people were. Mordecai had told her not to. She continued to follow his directions. That's what she had always done when he was bringing her up.

21 Bigthana and Teresh were two of the king's officers. They guarded the door of the royal palace. They became angry with King Xerxes. So they decided to kill him. They made their evil plans while Mordecai was sitting at the palace gate. 22 So Mordecai found out about it and told Queen Esther. Then she reported it to the king. She told him that Mordecai had uncovered the plans against him.
23 Some people checked Esther's report. And they found out it was true. So the two officials were put to death. Then poles were stuck through them. They were set up where people could see them. All of that was written in the official records. It was written down while the king was watching.

Esther 3

Haman Plans to Destroy the Jews

[1]After those events, King Xerxes honored Haman. Haman was the son of Hammedatha. He was from the family line of Agag. The king gave Haman a higher position than he had before. He gave him a seat of honor. It was higher than the positions any of the other nobles had. [2]All the royal officials at the palace gate got down on their knees. They gave honor to Haman. That's because the king had commanded them to do it. But Mordecai refused to get down on his knees. He wouldn't give Haman any honor at all.

[3]The royal officials at the palace gate asked Mordecai a question. They said, "Why don't you obey the king's command?" [4]Day after day they spoke to him. But he still refused to obey. So they told Haman about it. They wanted to see whether he would let Mordecai get away with what he was doing. Mordecai had told them he was a Jew.

[5]Haman noticed that Mordecai wouldn't get down on his knees. He wouldn't give Haman any honor. So Haman was very angry. [6]But he had found out who Mordecai's people were. So he didn't want to kill only Mordecai. He also looked for a way to destroy all Mordecai's people. They were Jews. He wanted to kill all of them everywhere in the kingdom of Xerxes.

[7]The lot was cast in front of Haman. The lot was called Pur. It was cast in the first month of the 12th year that Xerxes was king. That month was called Nisan. The lot was cast to choose a day and a month. The month chosen was the 12th month. That month was called Adar.

[8]Then Haman said to King Xerxes, "Certain people are scattered among the nations. They live in all the territories in your kingdom. They keep themselves separate from everyone else. Their practices are different from the practices of all other people. They don't obey your laws. It really isn't good for you to put up with them. [9]If it pleases you, give the order to destroy them. I'll even add 375 tons of silver to the king's officials for the royal treasures."

[10]So the king took his ring off his finger. The ring had his royal seal on it. He gave the ring to Haman. Haman was the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite. Haman was the enemy of the Jews. [11]"Keep the money," the king said to Haman. "Do what you want to with those people."

[12]The king sent for the royal secretaries. It was the 13th day of the first month.

The secretaries wrote down all Haman’s orders. They wrote them down in the writing of each territory in the kingdom. They also wrote them in the language of each nation. The orders were sent to the royal officials and to the governors of the territories. And the orders were also sent to the nobles of the nations. The orders were written in the name of King Xerxes himself. And they were stamped with his own official mark. [13]They were carried by messengers. They were sent to all the king’s territories. The orders commanded people to destroy, kill and wipe out all the Jews. That included young people and old people alike. It included women and children. All the Jews were supposed to be killed on a single day. That day was the 13th day of the 12th month. It was the month of Adar. The orders also commanded people to take everything that belonged to the Jews. [14]A copy of the order had to be sent out as law. It had to be sent to every territory in the kingdom. It had to be announced to the people of every nation. Then they would be ready for that day.

[15]The king commanded the messengers to go out. So they did. The order was sent out from the fort of Susa. Then the king and Haman sat down to drink wine. But the people in the city were bewildered.

Esther 4

Mordecai Talks Esther Into Helping the Jews

[1]Mordecai found out about everything that had been done. So he tore his clothes. He put on the rough clothing people wear when they're sad. He sat down in ashes. Then he went out into the city. He wept out loud. He cried bitter tears. [2]But he only went as far as the palace gate. That's because no one dressed in that rough clothing was allowed to go through it. [3]All the Jews were very sad. They didn't eat anything. They wept and cried. Many of them put on the rough clothing people wear when they're sad. They were lying down in ashes. They did all these things in every territory where the king's order and law had been sent.

[4]Esther's male and female attendants came to her. They told her about Mordecai. So she became very troubled. She wanted him to take off his rough clothing. So she sent him other clothes to wear. But he wouldn't accept them. [5]Then Esther sent for Hathak. He was one of the king's officials. He had been appointed to take care of her. She ordered him to find out what was troubling Mordecai. She wanted to know why he was so upset.

[6]So Hathak went out to see Mordecai. He was in the open area in front of the palace gate. [7]Mordecai told him everything that had happened to him. He told him about the exact amount of money Haman had promised to add to the royal treasures. He said Haman wanted it to be used to pay some men to destroy the Jews. [8]Mordecai also gave Hathak a copy of the order. It commanded people to wipe out the Jews. The order had been sent from Susa. Mordecai told Hathak to show the order to Esther. He wanted Hathak to explain it to her. Mordecai told him to tell her to go and beg the king for mercy. Mordecai wanted her to make an appeal to the king for her people.

[9]Hathak went back and reported to Esther what Mordecai had said. [10]Then Esther directed him to give an answer to Mordecai. She told him to say, [11]"There is a certain law that everyone knows about. All the king's officials know about it. The people in the royal territories know about it. It applies to any man or woman who approaches the king in the inner courtyard without being sent for. It says they must be put to death. But there is a way out. Suppose the king reaches out his gold scepter toward them. Then their lives will be spared. But 30 days have gone by since the king sent for me."

[12]Esther's words were reported to Mordecai. [13]Then he sent back an answer.

He said, “You live in the king’s palace. But don’t think that just because you are there you will be the only Jew who will escape. 14What if you don’t say anything at this time? Then help for the Jews will come from another place. But you and your family will die. Who knows? It’s possible that you became queen for a time just like this.”

15Then Esther sent a reply to Mordecai. She said, 16“Go. Gather together all the Jews who are in Susa. And fast for my benefit. Don’t eat or drink anything for three days. Don’t do it night or day. I and my attendants will fast just as you do. Then I’ll go to the king. I’ll do it even though it’s against the law. And if I have to die, I’ll die.”

17So Mordecai went away. He carried out all Esther’s directions.

Esther 5

Esther Asks the King for a Favor

[1]On the third day Esther put on her royal robes. She stood in the inner courtyard of the palace. It was in front of the king's hall. The king was sitting on his royal throne in the hall. He was facing the entrance. [2]He saw Queen Esther standing in the courtyard. He was pleased with her. So he reached out toward her the gold scepter that was in his hand. Then Esther approached him. She touched the tip of the scepter.

[3]The king asked, "What is it, Queen Esther? What do you want? I'll give it to you. I'll even give you up to half of my kingdom."

[4]Esther replied, "King Xerxes, if it pleases you, come to a feast today. I've prepared it for you. Please have Haman come with you."

[5]"Bring Haman at once," the king said to his servants. "Then we'll do what Esther asks."

So the king and Haman went to the feast Esther had prepared. [6]As they were drinking wine, the king asked Esther the same question again. He said, "What do you want? I'll give it to you. What do you want me to do for you? I'll even give you up to half of my kingdom."

[7]Esther replied, "Here is what I want. Here is my appeal to you. [8]I hope you will be pleased to give me what I want. And I hope you will be pleased to listen to my appeal. If you are, I'd like you and Haman to come tomorrow to the feast I'll prepare for you. Then I'll answer your question."

Haman Is Very Angry With Mordecai

[9]That day Haman was happy. So he left the palace in a good mood. But then he saw Mordecai at the palace gate. He noticed that Mordecai didn't stand up when he walked by. In fact, Mordecai didn't have any respect for him at all. So he was very angry with him. [10]But Haman was able to control himself. He went on home.

Haman called together his friends and his wife Zeresh. [11]He bragged to them about how rich he was. He talked about how many sons he had. He spoke about all the ways the king had honored him. He bragged about how the king had given him a high position. It was higher than the position of any of the other nobles and officials. [12]"And that's not all," Haman added. "I'm the only person Queen Esther invited to come with the king to the feast she gave. Now she has invited me along with the king tomorrow. [13]But even all of that doesn't satisfy me. I won't be satisfied as long as I see that Jew Mordecai sitting at the palace gate."

[14]Haman's wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, "Get a pole. In the morning, ask the king to have Mordecai put to death. Have the pole stuck through his body. Set it up at a place where it will be 75 feet above the ground. Everyone will be able to see it there. Then go to the feast with the king. Have a good time." Haman was delighted with that suggestion. So he got the pole ready.

Esther 6

The King Honors Mordecai

[1]That night the king couldn’t sleep. So he ordered the official records of his rule to be brought in. He ordered someone to read them to him. [2]What Mordecai had done was written there. He had uncovered the plans of Bigthana and Teresh. They were two of the king’s officers who guarded the door of the royal palace. They had decided to kill King Xerxes.

[3]“What great honor has Mordecai received for doing that?” the king asked.

“Nothing has been done for him,” his attendants answered.

[4]The king asked, “Who is in the courtyard?” Haman had just entered the outer courtyard of the palace. He had come to speak to the king about putting Mordecai to death. He wanted to talk about putting Mordecai’s body on the pole he had prepared for him.

[5]The king’s attendants said to him, “Haman is standing in the courtyard.”

“Bring him in,” the king ordered.

[6]Haman entered. Then the king asked him, “What should be done for the man I want to honor?”

Haman said to himself, “Is there anyone the king would rather honor than me?” [7]So he answered the king. He said, “Here is what you should do for the man you want to honor. [8]Have your servants get a royal robe you have worn. Have them bring a horse you have ridden on. Have a royal mark placed on its head. [9]Then give the robe and horse to one of your most noble princes. Let the robe be put on the man you want to honor. Let him be led on the horse through the city streets. Let people announce in front of him, ‘This is what is done for the man the king wants to honor!’ ”

[10]“Go right away,” the king commanded Haman. “Get the robe. Bring the horse. Do exactly what you have suggested. Do it for Mordecai the Jew. He’s sitting out there at the palace gate. Make sure you do everything you have suggested.”

[11]So Haman got the robe and the horse. He put the robe on Mordecai. And he led him on horseback through the city streets. He walked along in front of him and announced, “This is what is done for the man the king wants to honor!”

[12]After that, Mordecai returned to the palace gate. But Haman rushed home. He covered his head because he was very sad. [13]He told his wife Zeresh everything that had happened to him. He also told all his friends.

His advisers and his wife Zeresh spoke to him. They said, “Your fall from power started with Mordecai. He’s a Jew. So now you can’t stand up against him. You are going to be destroyed!” [14]They were still talking with him when the king’s officials arrived. They hurried Haman away to the feast Esther had prepared.

Esther 7

Haman Is Put to Death

[1]So the king and Haman went to Queen Esther's feast. [2]They were drinking wine on the second day. The king again asked, "What do you want, Queen Esther? I'll give it to you. What do you want me to do for you? I'll even give you up to half of my kingdom."

[3]Then Queen Esther answered, "Your Majesty, I hope you will be pleased to let me live. That's what I want. Please spare my people. That's my appeal to you. [4]My people and I have been sold to be destroyed. We've been sold to be killed and wiped out. Suppose we had only been sold as male and female slaves. Then I wouldn't have said anything. That kind of suffering wouldn't be a good enough reason to bother you."

[5]King Xerxes asked Queen Esther, "Who is the man who has dared to do such a thing? And where is he?"

[6]Esther said, "The man hates us! He's our enemy! He's this evil Haman!"

Then Haman was terrified in front of the king and queen. [7]The king got up. He was very angry. He left his wine and went out into the palace garden. But Haman realized that the king had already decided what he was going to do to him. So he stayed behind to beg Queen Esther for his life.

[8]The king returned from the palace garden to the dinner hall. Just then he saw Haman falling on the couch where Esther was lying.

The king shouted, "Will he even treat the queen like this? Will he harm her while she's right here with me in the palace?"

As soon as the king finished speaking, his men covered Haman's face. [9]Then Harbona said, "There's a pole standing near Haman's house. He has prepared it for Mordecai. Mordecai is the one who spoke up to help you. Haman had planned to have him put to death. He was going to have the pole stuck through his body. Then he was going to set it up at a place where it would be 75 feet above the ground." Harbona was one of the officials who attended the king.

The king said to his men, "Put Haman to death! Stick the pole through his body! Set it up where everyone can see it!" [10]So they did. And they used the pole Haman had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king's anger calmed down.

Esther 8

The King Allows the Jews to Fight for Their Lives

[1]That same day King Xerxes gave Queen Esther everything Haman had owned. Haman had been the enemy of the Jews. Esther had told the king that Mordecai was her cousin. So Mordecai came to see the king. [2]The king took his ring off. It had his royal mark on it. He had taken it back from Haman. Now he gave it to Mordecai. And Esther put Mordecai in charge of everything Haman had owned.

[3]Esther made another appeal to the king. She fell at his feet and wept. She begged him to put an end to the evil plan of Haman, the Agagite. He had decided to kill the Jews. [4]The king reached out his gold scepter toward Esther. She got up and stood in front of him.

[5]She said, “King Xerxes, I hope you will think what I’m asking is the right thing to do. I hope you are pleased with me. If you are, and if it pleases you, let an order be written. Let it take the place of the messages Haman wrote. Haman was the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite. He planned to kill the Jews. He wrote orders to destroy us in all your territories. [6]I couldn’t stand by and see the horrible trouble that would fall on my people! I couldn’t stand to see my family destroyed!”

[7]King Xerxes gave a reply to Queen Esther and Mordecai the Jew. He said, “Haman attacked the Jews. So I’ve given Esther everything he owned. My men have stuck a pole through his dead body. And they’ve set it up where everyone can see it. [8]Now write another order in my name. Do it for the benefit of the Jews. Do what seems best to you. Stamp the order with my royal mark. Nothing that is written in my name and stamped with my mark can ever be changed.”

[9]Right away the king sent for the royal secretaries. It was the 23rd day of the third month. That was the month of Sivan. They wrote down all Mordecai’s orders to the Jews. They also wrote them to the royal officials, the governors and the nobles of the 127 territories in his kingdom. The territories reached from India all the way to Cush. The orders were written down in the writing of each territory. They were written in the language of each nation. They were also written to the Jews in their own writing and language. [10]Mordecai wrote the orders in the name of King Xerxes. He stamped them with the king’s royal mark. He sent them by messengers on horseback. They rode fast horses that were raised just for the king.

[11]The Jews in every city could now gather together and fight for their lives. The king’s order gave them that right. But suppose soldiers from any nation or territory attacked them, their women or children. Then the Jews could destroy, kill and wipe out those soldiers. They could also take the goods that belonged to their enemies. [12]A day was appointed for the Jews to do that in all the king’s territories. It was the 13th day of the 12th month. That was the month of Adar. [13]A copy of the order was sent out as law in every territory. It was announced to the people of every nation. So the Jews would be ready on that day. They could pay back their enemies.

[14]The messengers rode on the royal horses. They raced along. That’s what the king commanded them to do. The order was also sent out in the fort of Susa.

The Jews Win the Battle Over Their Enemies

[15]Mordecai left the king and went on his way. Mordecai was wearing royal clothes when he went. They were blue and white. He was also wearing a large gold crown. And he was wearing a purple coat. It was made out of fine linen. The city of Susa celebrated with great joy. [16]The Jews were filled with joy and happiness. They were very glad because now they were being honored. [17]They celebrated and enjoyed good food. They were glad and full of joy. That was true everywhere the king’s order came. It was true in every territory and every city. Many people from other nations announced that they had become Jews. That’s because they were so afraid of the Jews.

[1]The king's order had to be carried out on the 13th day of the 12th month. That was the month of Adar. On that day the enemies of the Jews had hoped to win the battle over them. But now everything had changed. The Jews had gained the advantage over those who hated them. [2]The Jews gathered together in their cities. They gathered in all the territories King Xerxes ruled over. They came together to attack those who were trying to destroy them. No one could stand up against them. The people from all the other nations were afraid of them. [3]All the nobles in the territories helped the Jews. So did the royal officials, the governors and the king's officers. That's because they were so afraid of Mordecai. [4]He was well known in the palace. His fame spread all through the territories. So he became more and more important.

[5]The Jews struck down with swords all their enemies. They killed them and destroyed them. They did what they pleased to those who hated them. [6]The Jews killed 500 men. They destroyed them in the fort of Susa. [7]They also killed Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, [8]Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, [9]Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai and Vaizatha. [10]They were the ten sons of Haman. He was the son of Hammedatha. Haman had been the enemy of the Jews. They didn't take anything that belonged to their enemies.

[11]A report was brought to the king that same day. He was told how many men had been killed in the fort of Susa. [12]He said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed 500 men. They destroyed them in the fort of Susa. They also killed the ten sons of Haman there. What have they done in the rest of my territories? Now what do you want? I'll give it to you. What do you want me to do for you? I'll do that too."

[13]"If it pleases you," Esther answered, "let the Jews in Susa carry out today's order tomorrow also. Stick poles through the dead bodies of Haman's ten sons. Set them up where everyone can see them."

[14]So the king commanded that it be done. An order was sent out in Susa. And the king's men did to the bodies of Haman's sons everything they were told to do. [15]The Jews in Susa came together on the 14th day of the month of Adar. They put 300 men to death in Susa. But they didn't take anything that belonged to those men.

[16]During that time, the rest of the Jews also gathered together. They lived in the king's territories. They came together to fight for their lives. They didn't want their enemies to bother them anymore. They wanted to get some peace and rest. So they killed 75,000 of their enemies. But they didn't take anything that belonged to them. [17]It happened on the 13th of Adar. On the 14th day they rested. They made it a day to celebrate with great joy. And they enjoyed good food.

[18]But the Jews in Susa had gathered together on the 13th and 14th. Then on the 15th they rested. They made it a day to celebrate with great joy. And they enjoyed good food.

[19]That's why Jews who live out in the villages celebrate on the 14th of Adar. They celebrate that day with great joy. And they enjoy good food. They also give presents to each other on that day.

Purim Is Celebrated

[20]Mordecai wrote down these events. He sent letters to all the Jews all through the territories of King Xerxes. It didn't matter whether the Jews lived nearby or far away. [21]Mordecai told them to celebrate the 14th and 15th days of the month of Adar. He wanted them to do it every year. [22]Mordecai told the Jews to celebrate the time when they got rest from their enemies. That was the month when their sadness was turned into joy. It was when their weeping turned into a day for celebrating. He wrote the letters to celebrate those days as times of joy. He wanted the people to enjoy good food. He told them to give presents of food to one another. He also wanted them to give gifts to people who were poor.

[23]So the Jews agreed to continue the celebrating they had started. They kept doing what Mordecai had written to them. [24]Haman was the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite. He had been the enemy of all the Jews. He had planned to destroy them. He had cast the lot to destroy them completely. The lot was called Pur. [25]But the king had found out about Haman's evil plan. So the king had sent out written orders. He had ordered that Haman's evil plan against the Jews should happen to him instead. The king also commanded that poles be stuck through the dead bodies of Haman and his sons. Then they should be set up where everyone could see them. [26]The days the Jews were celebrating were called Purim. Purim comes from the word Pur. Pur means Lot. Now the Jews celebrate these two days every year. They do it because of everything that was written in Mordecai's letter. They also do it because of what they had seen and what had happened to them. [27]So they established it as a regular practice. They decided they would always observe these two days of the year. They would celebrate in the required way. And they would celebrate at the appointed time. They and their children after them would always observe these days. And so would all who join them. [28]The days should be remembered and celebrated. They should be remembered by every family for all time to come. They should be celebrated in every territory and in every city. The Jews should never stop celebrating the days of Purim. Their children after them should always remember these days.

[29]So Queen Esther, the daughter of Abihail, wrote a second letter. She wrote it together with Mordecai the Jew. They wanted to give their full authority to this second letter about Purim. [30]Mordecai sent letters to all the Jews in the 127 territories of the kingdom of Xerxes. The letters had messages of kindness and hope in them. [31]The letters established the days of Purim at their appointed times. They spoke about what Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had ordered the people to do. Everything should be done in keeping with the directions the Jews had set up for themselves and their children after them. The directions applied to their times of fasting and sadness. [32]Esther's order established the rules about Purim. It was written down in the records.

The Greatness of Mordecai

[1]King Xerxes required people all through his kingdom to bring gifts. King Xerxes required gifts from its farthest shores. [2]All the king's powerful and mighty acts are written down. That includes the whole story of how important Mordecai was. The king had given him a position of great honor. All these things are written in the official records of the kings of Media and Persia. [3]The position of Mordecai the Jew was second only to the position of King Xerxes. Mordecai was the most important Jew. All the other Jews had the highest respect for him. That's because he worked for the good of his people. And he spoke up for the benefit of all the Jews.

Job

Job 1

The Story Begins

[1]There was a man who lived in the land of Uz. His name was Job. He was honest. He did what was right. He had respect for God and avoided evil. [2]Job had seven sons and three daughters. [3]He owned 7,000 sheep and 3,000 camels. He owned 500 pairs of oxen and 500 donkeys. He also had a large number of servants. He was the most important man among all the people in the east.

[4]His sons used to give feasts in their homes on their birthdays. They would invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them. [5]The time for enjoying good food would end. Then Job would make plans for his children to be made pure and "clean." He would sacrifice a burnt offering for each of them. He would do it early in the morning. He would think, "Perhaps my children have sinned. Maybe they have spoken evil things against God in their hearts." That's what Job always did for his children when he felt they had sinned.

[6]One day angels came to the LORD. Satan also came with them. [7]The LORD said to Satan, "Where have you come from?"

Satan answered, "From traveling all around the earth. I've been going from one end of it to the other."

[8]Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you thought about my servant Job? There isn't anyone on earth like him. He is honest. He does what is right. He has respect for God and avoids evil."

[9]"You always give Job everything he needs," Satan replied. "That's why he has respect for you. [10]Haven't you guarded him and his family? Haven't you taken care of everything he has? You have blessed everything he does. His flocks and herds are spread all through the land. [11]But now reach out your hand and strike down everything he has. Then I'm sure he will speak evil things against you. In fact, he'll do it right in front of you."

[12]The LORD said to Satan, "All right. I am handing everything he has over to you. But do not touch the man himself."

Then Satan left the LORD and went on his way.

[13]One day Job's sons and daughters were at their oldest brother's house. They were enjoying good food and drinking wine. [14]During that time a messenger came to Job. He said, “The oxen were plowing. The donkeys were eating grass near them. [15]Then the Sabeans attacked us and carried off the animals. They killed some of the servants with their swords. I’m the only one who has escaped to tell you!”

[16]While he was still speaking, a second messenger came. He said, “God sent lightning from the sky. It struck the sheep and killed them. It burned up some of the servants. I’m the only one who has escaped to tell you!”

[17]While he was still speaking, a third messenger came. He said, “The Chaldeans separated themselves into three groups. They attacked your camels and carried them off. They killed the rest of the servants with their swords. I’m the only one who has escaped to tell you!”

[18]While he was still speaking, a fourth messenger came. He said, “Your sons and daughters were at their oldest brother’s house. They were enjoying good food and drinking wine. [19]Suddenly a strong wind blew in from the desert. It struck the four corners of the house. The house fell down on your children. Now all of them are dead. I’m the only one who has escaped to tell you!”

[20]After Job heard all these reports, he got up and tore his robe. He shaved his head. Then he fell to the ground and worshiped the LORD. [21]He said,

> “I was born naked.
> And I’ll leave here naked.
> The LORD has given, and the LORD has taken away.
> May the name of the LORD be praised.”

[22]In spite of everything, Job didn’t sin by blaming God for doing anything wrong.

Job 2

[1]On another day angels came to the LORD. Satan also came to him along with them. [2]The LORD said to Satan, “Where have you come from?”

Satan answered, “From traveling all around the earth. I’ve been going from one end of it to the other.”

[3]Then the LORD said to Satan, “Have you thought about my servant Job? There isn’t anyone on earth like him. He is honest. He does what is right. He has respect for God and avoids evil. You tried to turn me against him. You wanted me to destroy him without any reason. But he still continues to be faithful.”

[4]Satan replied, “A man will give everything he has to save himself. So Job is willing to give up the lives of his family to save his own life. [5]But now reach out your hand and strike his flesh and bones. Then I’m sure he will speak evil things against you. In fact, he’ll do it right in front of you.”

[6]The LORD said to Satan, “All right. I am handing him over to you. But you must spare his life.”

[7]Then Satan left the LORD and went on his way. He sent painful sores on Job. They covered him from the bottom of his feet to the top of his head. [8]He got part of a broken pot. He used it to scrape his skin. He did it while he was sitting in ashes.

[9]His wife said to him, “Are you still continuing to be faithful to the LORD? Speak evil things against him and die!”

[10]Job replied, “You are talking like a foolish woman. We accept good things from God. So we should also accept trouble when he sends it.”

In spite of everything, Job didn’t say anything that was sinful.

[11]Job had three friends named Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. They heard about all the troubles that had come to Job. So they started out from their homes. They had agreed to meet together. They wanted to go and show their concern for Job. They wanted to comfort him. [12]When they got closer to where he lived, they could see him. But they could hardly recognize him. They began to weep out loud. They tore their robes and sprinkled dust on their heads. [13]Then they sat down on the ground with him for seven days and seven nights. No one said a word to him. That’s because they saw how much he was suffering.

Job 3

Job Wishes He Had Never Been Born

[1]After a while, Job opened his mouth to speak. He cursed the day he had been born. [2]He said, [3]"May the day I was born be wiped out.

May the night be wiped away when people said, 'A boy is born!'
[4]May that day turn into darkness.
May God in heaven not care about it.
May no light shine on it.
[5]May gloom and total darkness take it back.
May a cloud settle over it.
May blackness cover it up.
[6]May deep darkness take over the night I was born.
May it not be included among the days of the year.
May it never appear in any of the months.
[7]May no children ever have been born on that night.
May no shout of joy be heard in it.
[8]May people say evil things about that day.
May people ready to wake the sea monster Leviathan say evil things about that day.
[9]May its morning stars become dark.
May it lose all hope of ever seeing daylight.
May it not see the first light of the morning sun.
[10]It didn't keep my mother from letting me be born.
It didn't keep my eyes from seeing trouble.

[11]"Why didn't I die when I was born?
Why didn't I die as I came out of my mother's body?
[12]Why was I placed on her knees?
Why did her breasts give me milk?
[13]If all of that hadn't happened,
I would be lying down in peace.
I'd be asleep and at rest in the grave.

14 I’d be with the earth’s kings and rulers.
They had built for themselves places that are now destroyed.
15 I’d be with princes who used to have gold.
They had filled their houses with silver.
16 Why wasn’t I buried like a baby who was born dead?
Why wasn’t I buried like a child who never saw the light of day?
17 In the grave, sinful people don’t cause trouble anymore.
And there tired people find rest.
18 Prisoners also enjoy peace there.
They don’t hear a slave driver shouting at them anymore.
19 The least important and most important people are there.
And there the slaves are set free from their owners.

20 “Why should those who suffer ever be born?
Why should life be given to those whose spirits are bitter?
21 Why is life given to those who long for death that doesn’t come?
Why is it given to those who would rather search for death than for hidden treasure?
22 Why is life given to those who are actually happy and glad when they reach the grave?
23 Why is life given to a man like me?
God hasn’t told me what will happen to me.
He has surrounded me with nothing but trouble.
24 Sighs have become my food every day.
Groans pour out of me like water.
25 What I was afraid of has come on me.
What I worried about has happened to me.
26 I don’t have any peace and quiet.
I can’t find any rest. All I have is trouble.”

Job 4

The First Speech of Eliphaz

[1]Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied,

[2]"Job, suppose someone tries to talk to you.
Will that make you uneasy?
I can't keep from speaking up.
[3]Look, you taught many people.
You made weak hands strong.
[4]Your words helped those who had fallen down.
You made shaky knees strong.
[5]Now trouble comes to you. And you are unhappy about it.
It strikes you down. And you are afraid.
[6]Shouldn't you worship God and trust in him?
Shouldn't your honest life give you hope?

[7]"Here's something to think about.
Have people who aren't guilty ever been wiped out?
Have honest people ever been completely destroyed?
[8]Here's what I've observed.
People gather a crop from what they plant.
If they plant evil and trouble, that's what they will harvest.
[9]The breath of God destroys them.
The blast of his anger wipes them out.
[10]Powerful lions might roar and growl.
But their teeth are broken.
[11]Lions die because they don't have any food.
Then their cubs are scattered.

[12]"A message came to me in secret.
It was as quiet as a whisper.
[13]I had a scary dream one night.
I was sound asleep.
[14]Fear and trembling seized me.
That made every bone in my body shake.

15 A spirit glided past my face.
The hair on my body stood on end.
16 Then the spirit stopped.
But I couldn’t tell what it was.
Something stood there in front of me.
I heard a soft voice.
17 It said, ‘Can a human being be more right than God?
Can even a strong man be more pure than the God who made him?
18 God doesn’t trust those who serve him.
He even brings charges against his angels.
19 So he’ll certainly find fault with human beings.
After all, they are made out of dust.
They can be crushed more easily than a moth.
20 Between sunrise and sunset they are broken to pieces.
Nobody even notices. They disappear forever.
21 Like a tent that falls down, they get weak.
They die because they didn’t follow God’s wisdom.’ ”

"Call out if you want to, Job.
But who will answer you?
Which one of the holy angels will you turn to?
[2]Anger kills foolish people.
Jealousy destroys those who are childish.
[3]I saw that foolish people were having success.
But suddenly harm came to their their homes.
[4]Their children aren't safe at all.
They lose their case in court.
No one speaks up for them.
[5]Hungry people eat up the crops of the foolish.
They even take the food that grows among thorns.
Thirsty people long for the wealth of the foolish.
[6]Hard times don't just grow out of the soil.
Trouble doesn't jump out of the ground.
[7]People are born to have trouble.
And that's just as sure as sparks fly up.

[8]"If I were you, I'd make my appeal to God.
I'd bring my case to be judged by him.
[9]He does wonderful things that can't be understood.
He does miracles that can't even be counted.
[10]He sends rain on the earth.
He sends water on the countryside.
[11]He lifts up people who are lowly in spirit.
He lifts up those who are sad.
He keeps them safe.
[12]He stops the evil plans of those who are clever.
The work of their hands doesn't succeed.
[13]Some people think they are so wise.
But God catches them in their own tricks.
He sweeps away the evil plans of sinful people.

14 Darkness covers them in the daytime.
At noon they feel their way around as if it were night.
15 God saves needy people from the cutting words of their enemies.
He saves them from their power.
16 So poor people have hope.
And God shuts the mouths of those who don’t treat others fairly.

17 “Blessed is the person God corrects.
So don’t hate the Mighty One’s training.
18 He wounds. But he also bandages up those he wounds.
He harms. But his hands also heal those he harms.
19 From six troubles he will save you.
Even if you are in trouble seven times, no harm will come to you.
20 When there isn’t enough food, God will keep you from dying.
When you go into battle, he won’t let a sword strike you down.
21 He will keep you safe from words that can hurt you.
You won’t need to be afraid
when everything is being destroyed.
22 You will laugh when things are being destroyed.
You will enjoy life even when there isn’t enough food.
You won’t be afraid of wild animals.
23 You will make a covenant with the stones in the fields.
They won’t keep your crops from growing.
Even wild animals will be at peace with you.
24 You will know that the tent you live in is secure.
You will check out your property.
You will see that nothing is missing.
25 You can be sure you will have a lot of children.
They will be as many as the blades of grass on the earth.
26 You will go down to the grave while you are still very strong.
You will be like a crop that is gathered at the right time.

27 “We have carefully studied all these things.
And they are true.
So pay attention to them.

Apply them to yourself.”

Job 6

Job's Reply

[1]Job replied,

[2]"I wish my great pain could be weighed!
I wish all my suffering could be weighed on scales!
[3]I'm sure it would weigh more than the grains of sand on the seashore.
No wonder I've been so quick to speak!
[4]The Mighty One has shot me with his arrows.
I have to drink their poison.
God's terrors are aimed at me.
[5]Does a wild donkey cry out when it has enough grass?
Does an ox call out when it has plenty of food?
[6]Is food that doesn't have any taste eaten without salt?
Is there any flavor in the sap of a mallow plant?
[7]I refuse to touch that kind of food.
It makes me sick.

[8]"I wish I could have what I'm asking for!
I wish God would give me what I'm hoping for!
[9]I wish he would crush me!
I wish he would just cut off my life!
[10]Then I'd still have one thing to comfort me.
It would be that I haven't said no to the Holy One's commands.
That would give me joy in spite of my pain that never ends.

[11]"I'm so weak that I no longer have any hope.
Things have gotten so bad that I can't wait for help anymore.
[12]Am I as strong as stone?
Is my body made out of bronze?
[13]I don't have the power to help myself.
All hope of success has been taken away from me.

[14]"A person shouldn't stop being kind to a friend.

Anyone who does that stops showing respect for the Mighty One.
15 But my friends have stopped being kind to me.
They are like streams that only flow for part of the year.
They are like rivers that flow over their banks 16 when the ice begins to break up.
The streams rise when the snow starts to melt.
17 But they stop flowing when the dry season comes.
They disappear from their stream beds when the weather warms up.
18 Groups of traders turn away from their usual paths.
They go off into the dry and empty land.
And they die there.
19 Traders from Tema look for water.
Traveling merchants from Sheba also hope to find it.
20 They become troubled because they had expected to find some.
But when they arrive at the stream beds,
they don't find any water at all.
21 And now, my friends, you haven't helped me either.
You see the horrible condition I'm in.
And that makes you afraid.
22 I've never said, 'Give me something to help me.
Use your wealth to set me free.
23 Save me from the power of my enemy.
Rescue me from the power of mean people.'

24 "Teach me. Then I'll be quiet.
Show me what I've done wrong.
25 Honest words are so painful!
But your reasoning doesn't prove anything.
26 Are you trying to correct what I'm saying?
Are you treating my hopeless words like nothing but wind?
27 You would even cast lots for those whose fathers have died.
You would even trade away your closest friend.

28 "But now please look at me.
Would I tell you a lie right here in front of you?

[29]Stop what you are saying. Don’t be so unfair.
Think it over again.
You are trying to take my honesty away from me.
[30]Has my mouth spoken anything that is evil?
Do my lips say things that are hateful?”

“Don’t all human beings have to work hard on this earth?
Aren’t their days like the days of hired workers?
[2]I’ve been like a slave who longs for the evening shadows to come.
I’ve been like a hired worker who is waiting to be paid.
[3]I’ve been given several months that were useless to me.
My nights have been filled with suffering.
[4]When I lie down I think,
‘How long will it be before I can get up?’
The night drags on.
I toss and turn until sunrise.
[5]My body is covered with worms and sores.
My skin is broken. It has boils all over it.

[6]“My days pass by faster than a weaver can work.
They come to an end. I don’t have any hope.
[7]God, remember that my life is only a breath.
I’ll never be happy again.
[8]The eyes that see me now won’t see me anymore.
You will look for me. But I’ll be gone.
[9]When a cloud disappears, it’s gone forever.
And anyone who goes down to the grave never returns.
[10]He never comes home again.
Even his own family doesn’t remember him.

[11]“So I won’t keep quiet.
When I’m suffering greatly, I’ll speak out.
When my spirit is bitter, I’ll tell you how unhappy I am.
[12]Am I the ocean? Am I the sea monster?
If I’m not, why do you guard me so closely?
[13]Sometimes I think my bed will comfort me.

I think my couch will keep me from being unhappy.
14 But even then you send me dreams that frighten me.
You send me visions that terrify me.
15 So I would rather choke to death.
That would be better than living in this body of mine.
16 I hate my life. I don’t want to live forever.
Leave me alone. My days don’t mean anything to me.

17 “What are human beings that you think so much of them?
What are they that you pay so much attention to them?
18 You check up on them every morning.
You test them every moment.
19 Won’t you ever look away from me?
Won’t you leave me alone even for one second?
20 If I’ve really sinned, tell me what I’ve done to you.
You see everything we do.
Why do you shoot your arrows at me?
Have I become a problem to you?
21 Why don’t you forgive the wrong things I’ve done?
Why don’t you forgive me for my sins?
I’ll soon lie down in the dust of my grave.
You will search for me. But I’ll be gone.”

Job 8

The First Speech of Bildad

[1]Then Bildad the Shuhite replied,

[2]"Job, how long will you talk like that?
Your words don't have any meaning.
[3]Does God ever treat people unfairly?
Does the Mighty One make what is wrong appear to be right?
[4]Your children sinned against him.
So he punished them for their sin.
[5]But seek God with all your heart.
Make your appeal to the Mighty One.
[6]Be pure and honest.
And he will rise up and help you now.
He'll give you everything you had before.
[7]In the past, things went well with you.
But in days to come, things will get even better.

[8]"Find out what our parents taught.
Discover what those who lived before them learned.
[9]After all, we were born only yesterday.
So we don't know anything.
Our days on this earth are like a shadow that disappears.
[10]Won't your people of long ago teach you and tell you?
Won't the things they said help you understand?
[11]Can grass grow tall where there isn't any swamp?
Can plants grow well where there isn't any water?
[12]While they are still growing and haven't been cut,
they dry up faster than grass does.
[13]The same thing happens to everyone who forgets God.
The hope of ungodly people dies out.
[14]What they trust in is very weak.
What they depend on is like a spider's web.

15 They lean on it, but it falls apart.
They hold on to it, but it gives way.
16 They are like a plant in the sunshine that receives plenty of water.
It spreads its new growth all over the garden.
17 It wraps its roots around a pile of rocks.
It tries to find places to grow among the stones.
18 But when the plant is pulled up from its spot, that place says, ‘I never saw you.’
19 The life of that plant is sure to dry up.
But from the same soil other plants will grow.

20 “I’m sure God doesn’t turn his back on anyone who is honest.
And he doesn’t help those who do what is evil.
21 He will fill your mouth with laughter.
Shouts of joy will come from your lips.
22 Your enemies will put on shame as if it were clothes.
The tents of sinful people will be gone.”

Job 9

Job's Reply

[1]Job replied,

[2]"I'm sure that what you have said is true.
But how can human beings prove to God they are not guilty?
[3]They might wish to argue with him.
But they couldn't answer him even once in a thousand times.
[4]His wisdom is deep. His power is great.
No one opposes him and comes away unharmed.
[5]He moves mountains, and they don't even know it.
When he is angry, he turns them upside down.
[6]He shakes the earth loose from its place.
He makes its pillars tremble.
[7]When he tells the sun not to shine, it doesn't.
He turns off the light of the stars.
[8]He's the only one who can spread out the heavens.
He alone can walk on the waves of the ocean.
[9]He made the Big Dipper and Orion.
He created the Pleiades and the southern stars.
[10]He does wonderful things that can't be understood.
He does miracles that can't even be counted.
[11]When he passes by me, I can't see him.
When he goes past me, I can't recognize him.
[12]If he takes something, who can stop him?
Who would dare to ask him, 'What are you doing?'
[13]God doesn't hold back his anger.
Even the helpers of the sea monster Rahab bowed in fear at his feet.

[14]"So how can I disagree with God?
How can I possibly argue with him?
[15]Even if I hadn't done anything wrong,

I couldn’t answer him.
I could only beg my Judge to have mercy on me.
16Suppose I called out to him and he answered.
I don’t believe he’d listen to me.
17He would send a storm to crush me.
He’d increase my wounds without any reason.
18He wouldn’t let me catch my breath.
He’d make my life very bitter.
19If it’s a matter of strength, he is mighty!
And if it’s a matter of being fair,
who would dare to bring charges against him?
20Even if I hadn’t sinned, what I said would prove me guilty.
Even if I were honest, my words would show that I’m wrong.

21“Even though I’m honest,
I’m not concerned about myself.
I hate my own life.
22It all amounts to the same thing. That’s why I say,
‘God destroys honest people and sinful people alike.’
23Suppose a plague brings sudden death.
Then he laughs when those who haven’t sinned lose hope.
24Suppose a nation falls into the power of sinful people.
Then God makes its judges blind to the truth.
If he isn’t the one doing it, who is?

25“God, my days race by like a runner.
They fly away without seeing any joy.
26They speed along like papyrus boats.
They are like eagles swooping down on their food.
27Suppose I say, ‘I’ll forget about all my problems.
I’ll change my frown into a smile.’
28Then I’d still be afraid I’d go on suffering.
That’s because I know you would say
I had done something wrong.
29In fact, you have already said I’m guilty.
So why should I struggle without any reason?
30Suppose I clean myself with soap.

Suppose I wash my hands with cleanser.
31 Even then you would throw me into a muddy pit.
And even my clothes would hate me.

32 “God isn’t a mere human being like me. I can’t answer him.
We can’t take each other to court.
33 I wish someone would settle matters between us.
I wish someone would bring us together.
34 I wish someone would keep God from punishing me.
Then his terror wouldn’t frighten me anymore.
35 I would speak up without being afraid of him.
But as things stand now, I can’t do that.

Job 10

1 “I’m sick of living.
So I’ll talk openly about my problems.
I’ll speak out because my spirit is bitter.
2 I say to God, ‘Don’t find me guilty.
Instead, tell me what charges
you are bringing against me.
3 Does it make you happy when you crush me?
Does it please you to turn your back on what you have made?
While you do those things,
you smile on the plans of sinful people!
4 You don’t have human eyes.
You don’t see as people see.
5 Your days aren’t like the days of a mere human being.
Your years aren’t even like the years of a strong man.
6 So you search for my mistakes.
You look for my sin.
7 You already know I’m not guilty.
No one can save me from your power.

8 “ ‘Your hands shaped me and made me.
So are you going to destroy me now?
9 Remember, you molded me like clay.
So are you going to turn me back into dust?
10 Didn’t you pour me out like milk?
Didn’t you form me like cheese?
11 Didn’t you put skin and flesh on me?
Didn’t you sew me together with bones and muscles?
12 You gave me life. You were kind to me.
You took good care of me. You watched over me.

13 “ ‘But here’s what you hid in your heart.
Here’s what you had on your mind.
14 If I sinned, you would be watching me.
You wouldn’t let me go without punishing me.

15 If I were guilty, how terrible that would be for me!
Even if I haven't sinned,
I can't be proud of what I've done.
That's because I'm so full of shame.
I'm drowning in my suffering.
16 If I become proud, you hunt me down like a lion.
You show your mighty power against me.
17 You bring new witnesses against me.
You become more and more angry with me.
You use your power against me again and again.

18 " 'Why did you bring me out of my mother's body?
I wish I had died before anyone saw me.
19 I wish I'd never been born!
I wish I'd been carried straight from my mother's body to the grave!
20 Aren't my few days almost over?
Leave me so I can have a moment of joy.
21 Turn away before I go to the place I can't return from.
It's the land of gloom and total darkness.
22 It's the land of darkest night and total darkness and disorder.
There even the light is like darkness.' "

Job 11

The First Speech of Zophar

[1]Then Zophar the Naamathite replied,

[2]"Don't all your words require an answer?
I'm sure that what you are saying can't be right.
[3]Your useless talk won't keep us quiet.
Someone has to correct you when you make fun of truth.
[4]You say to God, 'My beliefs are perfect.
I'm pure in your sight.'
[5]I wish God would speak.
I wish he'd answer you.
[6]I wish he'd show you the secrets of wisdom.
After all, true wisdom has two sides.
Here's what I want you to know.
God has forgotten some of your sins.

[7]"Do you know how deep the mysteries of God are?
Can you discover the limits of the Mighty One's knowledge?
[8]They are higher than the heavens above.
What can you do?
They are deeper than the deepest parts of the earth below.
What can you know?
[9]They are longer than the earth.
They are wider than the ocean.

[10]"Suppose God comes along and puts you in prison.
Suppose he takes you to court.
Then who can oppose him?
[11]He certainly knows when people tell lies.
When he sees evil, he pays careful attention to it.
[12]A wild donkey's colt can't be born a human being.
And it's just as impossible that a person without sense can become wise.

13 “So commit yourself to God completely.
Reach out your hands to him for help.
14 Get rid of all the sin you have.
Don’t let anything that is evil stay in your tent.
15 Then, free of those things, you can face others.
You can stand firm without being afraid.
16 You can be sure you will forget your troubles.
They will be like water that has flowed on by.
17 Life will be brighter than the sun at noon.
And darkness will become like morning.
18 You will be secure, because there is hope.
You will look around you and find a safe place to rest.
19 You will lie down, and no one will make you afraid.
Many people will want you to help them.
20 But sinful people won’t find what they are looking for.
They won’t be able to escape.
All they can hope for is to die.”

Job 12

Job's Reply

[1]Job replied,

[2]"You people think you are the only ones who matter!
You are sure that wisdom will die with you!
[3]But I have a brain, just like you.
I'm as clever as you are.
In fact, everyone knows as much as you do.

[4]"My friends laugh at me all the time, even though I called out to God and he answered.
My friends laugh at me,
even though I'm honest and right.
[5]People who have an easy life look down on those who have problems.
They think trouble comes only to those whose feet are slipping.
[6]Why doesn't anyone bother the tents of robbers?
Why do those who make God angry remain secure?
They are in God's hands!

[7]"But ask the animals what God does.
They will teach you.
Or ask the birds in the sky.
They will tell you.
[8]Or speak to the earth. It will teach you.
Or let the fish in the ocean educate you.
[9]Are there any of these creatures that don't know what the powerful hand of the LORD has done?
[10]He holds the life of every creature in his hand.
He controls the breath of every human being.
[11]Our tongues tell us what tastes good and what doesn't.
And our ears tell us what's true and what isn't.
[12]Old people are wise.
Those who live a long time have understanding.

13 “Wisdom and power belong to God.
Advice and understanding also belong to him.
14 What he tears down can’t be rebuilt.
The people he puts in prison can’t be set free.
15 If he holds back the water, everything dries up.
If he lets the water loose, it floods the land.
16 Strength and understanding belong to him.
Those who tell lies and those who believe them also belong to him.
17 He removes the wisdom of rulers and leads them away.
He makes judges look foolish.
18 He sets people free from the chains that kings put on them.
Then he dresses the kings in the clothes of slaves.
19 He removes the authority of priests and leads them away.
He removes from their positions officials who have been in control for a long time.
20 He shuts the mouths of trusted advisers.
He takes away the understanding of elders.
21 He looks down on proud leaders.
He takes away the strength of those who are mighty.
22 He tells people the secrets of darkness.
He brings total darkness out into the light.
23 He makes nations great, and then he destroys them.
He makes nations grow, and then he scatters them.
24 He takes away the understanding of the leaders of the earth.
He makes them wander in a desert where no one lives.
25 Without any light, they feel their way along in darkness.
God makes them unsteady like those who get drunk.

Job 13

[1]“My eyes have seen everything God has done.
My ears have heard it and understood it.
[2]What you know, I also know.
I’m as clever as you are.
[3]In fact, I long to speak to the Mighty One.
I want to argue my case with God.
[4]But you spread lies about me and take away my good name.
If you are trying to heal me,
you aren’t very good doctors!
[5]I wish you would keep your mouths shut!
Then people would think you were wise.
[6]Listen to my case.
Listen as I make my appeal.
[7]Will you say evil things in order to help God?
Will you tell lies for him?
[8]Do you want to be on God’s side?
Will you argue his case for him?
[9]Would it turn out well if he looked you over carefully?
Could you fool him as you might fool human beings?
[10]He would certainly hold you responsible if you took his side in secret.
[11]Wouldn’t his glory terrify you?
Wouldn’t the fear of him fall on you?
[12]Your sayings are as useless as ashes.
The answers you give are as weak as clay.

[13]“So be quiet and let me speak.
Then I won’t care what happens to me.
[14]Why do I put myself in danger?
Why do I take my life in my hands?
[15]Even if God kills me, I’ll still put my hope in him.
I’ll argue my case in front of him.
[16]No matter how things turn out,
I’m sure I’ll still be saved.

After all, no ungodly person would dare to come into his court.
17Listen carefully to what I’m saying.
Pay close attention to my words.
18I’ve prepared my case.
And I know I’ll be proved right.
19Can others bring charges against me?
If they can, I’ll keep quiet and die.

20“God, I won’t hide from you.
Here are the only two things I want.
21Stop treating me this way.
And stop making me so afraid.
22Then send for me, and I’ll answer.
Or let me speak, and you reply.
23How many things have I done wrong?
How many sins have I committed?
Show me my crime. Show me my sin.
24Why do you turn your face away from me?
Why do you think of me as your enemy?
25I’m already like a leaf that is blown by the wind.
Are you going to terrify me even more?
I’m already like dry straw.
Are you going to keep on chasing me?
26You write down bitter things against me.
You make me suffer for the sins
I committed when I was young.
27You put my feet in chains.
You watch every step I take.
You do it by putting marks on the bottom of my feet.

28“People waste away like something that is rotten.
They are like clothes that are eaten by moths.

Job 14

[1]Human beings have only a few days to live.
Their lives are full of trouble.
[2]They grow like flowers, and then they dry up.
They are like shadows that quickly disappear.

[3]“God, do you even notice them?
Will you let them appear in your court?
[4]Who can bring what is pure from something that isn’t pure?
No one!
[5]You decide how long anyone will live.
You have established the number of his months.
You have set a limit to the number of his days.
[6]So look away from him. Leave him alone.
Let him put in his time like a hired worker.

[7]“At least there is hope for a tree.
If it’s cut down, it will begin to grow again.
New branches will appear on it.
[8]Its roots may grow old in the ground.
Its stump may die in the soil.
[9]But when it smells water, it will begin to grow.
It will send out new growth like a plant.
[10]No man is like that. When he dies, he is buried in a grave.
He takes his last breath. Then he is gone.
[11]Water dries up from lakes.
Riverbeds become empty and dry.
[12]In the same way, people lie down and never get up.
People won’t wake or rise from their sleep until the heavens are gone.

[13]“I wish you would hide me in a grave!
I wish you would cover me up until your anger passes by!
I wish you would set the time for me to spend in the grave and then bring me back up!

14 If someone dies, will they live again?
All the days of my hard work
I will wait for the time when you give me new life.
15 You will call out to me, and I will answer you.
You will long for the person your hands have made.
16 Then you will count every step I take.
But you won't keep track of my sin.
17 The wrong things I've done will be sealed up in a bag.
You will wipe out my sins by forgiving them.

18 "A mountain wears away and crumbles.
A rock is moved from its place.
19 Water wears away stones.
Storms wash away soil.
In the same way, you destroy a person's hope.
20 You overpower them completely, and then they're gone.
You change the way they look and send them to their graves.
21 If their children are honored, they don't even know it.
If their children are dishonored, they don't even see it.
22 All they feel is the pain of their own bodies.
They are full of sadness only for themselves."

Job 15

The Second Speech of Eliphaz

1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied,

2 “Job, would a wise person answer with a lot of meaningless talk?
Would they fill their stomach with the hot east wind?
3 Would they argue with useless words?
Would they give worthless speeches?
4 But you even cause others to lose their respect for God.
You make it hard for them to be faithful to him.
5 Your sin makes you say evil things.
You talk like people who twist the truth.
6 Your own mouth judges you, not mine.
Your own lips witness against you.

7 “Are you the first man who was ever born?
Were you created before the hills?
8 Do you listen in when God speaks with his angels?
Do you think you are the only wise person?
9 What do you know that we don’t know?
What understanding do you have that we don’t have?
10 People who are old and gray are on our side.
And they are even older than your parents!
11 Aren’t God’s words of comfort enough for you?
He speaks them to you gently.
12 Why have you let your wild ideas carry you away?
Why do your eyes flash with anger?
13 Why do you get so angry with God?
Why do words like those pour out of your mouth?

14 “Can human beings really be pure?
Can those who are born really be right with God?
15 God doesn’t trust his holy angels.
Even the heavens aren’t pure in his sight.

16 So he'll certainly find fault with human beings.
After all, they are evil and sinful.
They drink up evil as if it were water.

17 "Listen to me. I'll explain things to you.
Let me tell you what I've seen.
18 I'll tell you what those who are wise have said.
They don't hide anything they've received from their people of long ago.
19 The land was given only to those people.
Their wisdom didn't come from outsiders.
And here's what those who are wise have said.
20 Sinful people always suffer pain.
Mean people suffer all their lives.
21 Terrifying sounds fill their ears.
When everything seems to be going well, robbers attack them.
22 They lose all hope of escaping the darkness of death.
They will certainly be killed by swords.
23 Like vultures, they look around for food.
They know that the day they will die is near.
24 Suffering and pain terrify them.
Their troubles overpower them,
like a king ready to attack his enemies.
25 They shake their fists at God.
They brag about themselves and oppose the Mighty One.
26 They boldly charge against him with their thick, strong shields.

27 "Their faces are very fat.
Their stomachs hang out.
28 They'll live in towns that have been destroyed.
They'll live in houses where no one else lives.
The houses will crumble to pieces.
29 They won't be rich anymore. Their wealth won't last.
Their property will no longer spread out over the land.
30 They won't escape the darkness of death.

A flame will dry up everything they have.
The breath of God will blow them away.
31 Don’t let them fool themselves by trusting in what is worthless.
They won’t get anything out of it.
32 Even before they die, they will dry up.
No matter what they do, it won’t succeed.
33 They’ll be like vines that are stripped of their unripe grapes.
They’ll be like olive trees that drop their flowers.
34 People who are ungodly won’t have any children.
Fire will burn up the tents of people who accept money from those who want special favors.
35 Instead of having children, ungodly people create suffering.
All they produce is evil.
They are full of lies.”

Job 16

Job's Reply

[1]Job replied,

[2]"I've heard many of these things before.
All of you are terrible at comforting me!
[3]Your speeches go on forever.
Won't they ever end?
What's wrong with you?
Why do you keep on arguing?
[4]If you and I changed places,
I could say the same things you are saying.
I could make fine speeches against you.
I could shake my head at you.
[5]But what I might say would give you hope.
My words of comfort would help you.

[6]"If I speak, it doesn't help me.
And if I keep quiet, my pain doesn't go away.
[7]God has worn me out completely.
He has destroyed my whole family.
[8]People can see the condition he has put me in.
My thin body stands as a witness against me.
[9]God is angry with me.
He attacks me and tears me up.
He grinds his teeth at me.
He stares at me as if he were my enemy.
[10]People make fun of me.
They slap my face and laugh at me.
All of them join together against me.
[11]God has turned me over to sinful people.
He has handed me over to them.
[12]Everything was going well with me.
But he broke me into pieces like a clay pot.
He grabbed me by the neck and crushed me.

He has taken aim at me.
13 He shoots his arrows at me from all sides.
Without pity, he stabs me in the kidneys.
He spills my insides on the ground.
14 He smashes through me as if I were a wall.
He rushes at me like a fighting man.

15 “I’ve sewed rough clothing over my skin.
All I can do is sit here in the dust.
16 My face is red from crying.
I have dark circles under my eyes.
17 But I haven’t harmed anyone.
My prayers to God are pure.

18 “Earth, please don’t cover up my blood!
May God always hear my cry for help!
19 Even now my witness is in heaven.
The one who speaks up for me is there.
20 My go-between is my friend
as I pour out my tears to God.
21 He makes his appeal to God to help me as a person pleads for a friend.

22 “Only a few years will pass by.
Then I’ll take the path of no return.

Job 17

[1]My strength is almost gone.
I won’t live much longer.
A grave is waiting for me.
[2]People who make fun of me are all around me.
I’m forced to watch as they attack me with their words.

[3]“God, please pay the price to have me set free.
Who else would put up money for me?
[4]You have closed the minds of those who are trying to comfort me.
They don’t understand that I haven’t done anything wrong.
So don’t let them win the argument.
[5]Suppose someone tells lies about their friends to get a reward.
Then their own children will suffer for it.

[6]“God has made an example of me.
People spit in my face.
[7]My eyes have grown weak because I’m so sad.
My body is so thin it hardly casts a shadow.
[8]People who claim to be honest are shocked when they see me.
Those who think they haven’t sinned are stirred up against me.
They think I’m ungodly.
[9]But godly people will keep doing what is right.
Those who have clean hands will grow stronger.

[10]“Come on, all of you! Try again!
I can’t find a wise person among you.
[11]My life is almost over. My plans are destroyed.
Yet the desires of my heart
[12]turn night into day.
Even though it’s dark,
‘Light is nearby.’
[13]Suppose the only home I can hope for is a grave.

And suppose I make my bed in the darkness of death.
14 Suppose I say to the grave,
‘You are like a father to me.’
And suppose I say to its worms,
‘You are like a mother or sister to me.’
15 Then what hope do I have?
Who can give me any hope?
16 Will hope go down to the gates of death with me?
Will we go down together into the dust of the grave?”

Job 18

The Second Speech of Bildad

[1]Then Bildad the Shuhite replied,

[2]"Job, when will you stop these speeches of yours?
Be reasonable! Then we can talk.
[3]Why do you look at us as if we were cattle?
Why do you think of us as being stupid?
[4]Your anger is tearing you to pieces.
Does the earth have to be deserted just to prove you are right?
Must all the rocks be moved from their places?

[5]"The lamps of sinful people are blown out.
Their flames will never burn again.
[6]The lights in their tents become dark.
The lamps beside those who are evil go out.
[7]They walk more slowly than they used to.
Their own evil plans make them fall.
[8]Their feet take them into a net.
They wander right into it.
[9]A trap grabs hold of their heels.
It refuses to let them go.
[10]A trap lies in their path.
A rope to catch them is hidden on the ground.
[11]Terrors alarm them on every side.
They follow them every step of the way.
[12]Trouble would like to eat them up.
Danger waits for them when they fall.
[13]It eats away parts of their skin.
Death itself feeds on their arms and legs.
[14]They are torn away from the safety of their tents.
They are marched off to the one who rules over death.
[15]Fire races through their tents.
Burning sulfur is scattered over their homes.

16 Their roots dry up under them.
Their branches dry up above them.
17 No one on earth remembers them.
Their names are forgotten in the land.
18 They are driven from light into the place of darkness.
They are thrown out of the world.
19 Their family dies out among their people.
No one is left where they used to live.
20 What has happened to them shocks the people in the west.
It terrifies the people in the east.
21 Now you know what the homes of sinners are like.
Those who don’t know God live in places like that.”

Job 19

Job's Reply

[1]Job replied,

[2]"How long will you people make me suffer?
How long will you crush me with your words?
[3]You have already accused me many times.
You have attacked me without feeling any shame.
[4]Suppose it's true that I've gone down the wrong path.
Then it's my concern, not yours.
[5]Suppose you want to place yourselves above me.
Suppose you want to use my shame to prove I'm wrong.
[6]Then I want you to know that God hasn't treated me right.
In fact, he has captured me in his net.

[7]"I cry out, 'Someone harmed me!'
But I don't get any reply.
I call out for help.
But I'm not treated fairly.
[8]God has blocked my way, and I can't get through.
He has made my paths so dark I can't see where I'm going.
[9]He has taken my wealth away from me.
He has stripped me of my honor.
[10]He tears me down on every side until I'm gone.
He pulls up the roots of my hope as if I were a tree.
[11]His anger burns against me.
He thinks I'm one of his enemies.
[12]His troops march toward me in force.
They come at me from every direction.
They camp around my tent.

[13]"God has caused my family to desert me.
The people I used to know are now strangers to me.
[14]My relatives have gone away.
My closest friends have forgotten me.

15 My guests and my female servants think of me as a stranger.
They look at me as if I were an outsider.
16 I send for my servant, but he doesn’t answer.
He doesn’t come, even though I beg him to.
17 My wife can’t stand the way my breath smells.
My own family won’t have anything to do with me.
18 Even little children mock me.
When I appear, they make fun of me.
19 All my close friends hate me.
Those I love have turned against me.
20 I’m nothing but skin and bones.
I’ve barely escaped death.

21 “Have pity on me, my friends! Please have pity!
God has struck me down with his powerful hand.
22 Why do you chase after me as he does?
Aren’t you satisfied with what you have done to me already?

23 “I wish my words were written down!
I wish they were written in a book!
24 I wish they were cut into lead with an iron tool!
I wish they were carved in rock forever!
25 I know that my redeemer lives.
In the end he will stand on the earth.
26 Though my skin will be destroyed,
in my body I’ll see God.
27 I myself will see him with my own eyes.
I’ll see him, and he won’t be a stranger to me.
How my heart longs for that day!

28 “You might say, ‘Let’s keep bothering Job.
After all, he’s the cause of all his suffering.’
29 But you should be afraid when God comes to judge you.
He’ll be angry. He’ll punish you with his sword.
Then you will know that he is the Judge.”

Job 20

The Second Speech of Zophar

[1]Then Zophar the Naamathite replied,

[2]"My troubled thoughts force me to answer you.
That's because I'm very upset.
[3]What you have just said dishonors me.
So I really have to reply to you.

[4]"I'm sure you must know how things have always been.
They've been that way ever since human beings were placed on this earth.
[5]Those who are evil are happy for only a short time.
The joy of ungodly people lasts only for a moment.
[6]Their pride might reach all the way up to the heavens.
Their heads might touch the clouds.
[7]But they will disappear forever,
like the waste from their own bodies.
Anyone who has seen them will say,
'Where did they go?'
[8]Like a dream they will fly away.
They will never be seen again.
They will be driven away like visions in the night.
[9]The eyes that saw them won't see them anymore.
Even their own families won't remember them.
[10]Their children must pay back what they took from poor people.
Their own hands must give back the wealth they stole.
[11]They might feel young and very strong.
But they will soon lie down in the dust of their graves.

[12]"Anything that is evil tastes sweet to them.
They keep it under their tongues for a while.
[13]They can't stand to let it go.
So they hold it in their mouths.
[14]But their food will turn sour in their stomachs.

It will become like the poison of a serpent inside them.
15 They will spit out the rich food they swallowed.
God will make their stomachs throw it up.
16 They will suck the poison of a serpent.
The fangs of an adder will kill them.
17 They won't enjoy streams that flow with honey.
They won't enjoy rivers that flow with cream.
18 What they worked for they must give back before they can eat it.
They won't enjoy what they have earned.
19 They've crushed poor people and left them with nothing.
They've taken over houses they didn't even build.

20 "No matter how much they have,
they always long for more.
But their treasure can't save them.
21 There isn't anything left for them to eat up.
Their success won't last.
22 While they are enjoying the good life, trouble will catch up with them.
Terrible suffering will come on them.
23 When they've filled their stomachs,
God will pour out his great anger on them.
He'll strike them down with blow after blow.
24 They might run away from iron weapons.
But arrows that have bronze tips will wound them.
25 They will pull the arrows out of their backs.
They will remove the shining tips from their livers.
They will be filled with terror.
26 Total darkness hides and waits for their treasures.
God will send a fire that will destroy them.
It will burn up everything that's left in their tents.
27 Heaven will show their guilt to everyone.
The earth will be a witness against them.
28 A flood will carry their houses away.
Rushing water will wash them away on the day when God judges.

[29]Now you know what God will do to sinful people.
Now you know what he has planned for them.”

Job 21

Job's Reply

1 Job replied,

2 "Listen carefully to what I'm saying.
Let that be the comfort you people give me.
3 Put up with me while I speak.
After I've spoken, you can make fun of me!

4 "I'm not arguing with mere human beings.
So why shouldn't I be angry and uneasy?
5 Look at me and be shocked.
Put your hand over your mouth and stop talking!
6 When I think about these things, I'm terrified.
My whole body trembles.
7 Why do sinful people keep on living?
The older they grow, the richer they get.
8 They see their children grow up around them.
They watch their family grow larger.
9 Their homes are safe.
They don't have to be afraid.
God isn't punishing them.
10 Every time their bulls mate, their cows become pregnant.
And the calves don't die before they are born.
11 Sinful people send their children out like a flock of lambs.
Their little ones dance around.
12 They sing to the music of tambourines and lyres.
They have a good time while flutes are being played.
13 Those who are evil spend their years living well.
They go down to their graves in peace.
14 But they say to God, 'Leave us alone!
We don't want to know how you want us to live.
15 Who is the Mighty One? Why should we serve him?
What would we get if we prayed to him?'

16 But they aren’t in control of their own success.
So I don’t pay any attention to their plans.

17 “How often are their lamps blown out?
How often does trouble come on them?
How often does God punish them when he’s angry?
18 How often are they like straw blowing in the wind?
How often are they like tumbleweeds swept away by a storm?
19 People say, ‘God stores up the punishment of evil people for their children.’
But let God punish the evil people themselves.
Then they’ll learn a lesson from it.
20 Let their own eyes see how they are destroyed.
Let them drink the wine of the Mighty One’s anger.
21 What do they care about the families they leave behind?
What do they care about them
when their lives come to an end?

22 “Can anyone teach God anything?
After all, he judges even the angels in heaven.
23 Some people die while they are still very strong.
They are completely secure. They have an easy life.
24 They are well fed.
Their bodies are healthy.
25 Others die while their spirits are bitter.
They’ve never enjoyed anything good.
26 Side by side they lie in the dust of death.
The worms in their graves cover all of them.

27 “I know exactly what you people are thinking.
I know you are planning to do bad things to me.
28 You are saying to yourselves,
‘Where is the great man’s house now?
Where are the tents where his evil family lived?’
29 Haven’t you ever asked questions of those who travel?
Haven’t you paid any attention to their stories?
30 They’ll tell you that sinful people are spared from the day of trouble.

They'll say that those people are saved from the day when God will judge.
31 Who speaks against them for the way they act?
Who pays them back for what they've done?
32 Their bodies will be carried to their graves.
Guards will watch over their tombs.
33 The soil in the valley will be pleasant to those who have died.
Many people will walk along behind their bodies.
Many others will walk in front of them.

34 "So how can you comfort me with your speeches?
They don't make any sense at all.
Your answers are nothing but lies!"

Job 22

The Third Speech of Eliphaz

[1]Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied,

[2]"Can any person be of benefit to God?
Can even a wise person be of any help to him?
[3]Job, what pleasure would it give the Mighty One if you were right?
What would he get if you were completely honest?

[4]"You say you have respect for him.
Is that why he corrects you?
Is that why he brings charges against you?
[5]Haven't you done many evil things?
Don't you sin again and again?
[6]You took clothes away from your relatives just because they owed you some money.
You left them naked for no reason at all.
[7]You didn't give any water to people who were tired.
You held food back from those who were hungry.
[8]You did it even though you were honored and powerful.
You owned land and lived on it.
[9]But you sent widows away without anything.
You mistreated children whose fathers had died.
[10]That's why traps have been set all around you.
That's why sudden danger terrifies you.
[11]That's why it's so dark you can't even see.
That's why a flood covers you up.

[12]"Isn't God in the highest parts of heaven?
See how high the highest stars are!
[13]But you still say, 'What does God know?
Can he see through the darkest clouds to judge us?
[14]He goes around in the highest heavens.
Thick clouds keep him from seeing us.'

15 Will you stay on the old path that sinful people have walked on?
16 They were carried off even before they died.
Their foundations were washed away by a flood.
17 They said to God, ‘Leave us alone!
What can you do to us, you Mighty One?’
18 But he was the one who filled their houses with good things.
So I don’t pay any attention to the plans of evil people.

19 Those who do what is right are joyful when they see sinners destroyed.
Those who haven’t done anything wrong make fun of them.
20 They say, ‘Our enemies are completely destroyed.
Fire has burned up their wealth.’

21 “Job, obey God and be at peace with him.
Then he will help you succeed.
22 Do what he teaches you to do.
Keep his words in your heart.
23 If you return to the Mighty One,
you will have what you had before.
But first you must remove everything that is evil far from your tent.
24 You must throw your gold nuggets away.
You must toss your gold from Ophir into a valley.
25 Then the Mighty One himself will be your gold.
He’ll be like the finest silver to you.
26 You will find delight in the Mighty One.
You will honor God and trust in him.
27 You will pray to him, and he will hear you.
You will keep the promises you made to him.
28 What you decide to do will be done.
Light will shine on the path you take.
29 When people are brought low you will say, ‘Lift them up!’
Then God will help them.
30 He’ll even save those who are guilty.
He’ll save them because your hands are clean.”

Job 23

Job's Reply

[1]Job replied,

[2]"Even today my problems are more than I can handle.
In spite of my groans, God's hand is heavy on me.
[3]I wish I knew where I could find him!
I wish I could go to the place where he lives!
[4]I would state my case to him.
I'd give him all my arguments.
[5]I'd find out what his answers would be.
I'd think about what he would say to me.
[6]Would he strongly oppose me?
No. He wouldn't bring charges against me.
[7]There honest people can prove to him they're not guilty.
There my Judge would tell me once and for all that I'm not guilty.

[8]"But if I go to the east, God isn't there.
If I go to the west, I don't find him.
[9]When he's working in the north, I don't see him there.
When he turns to the south, I don't see him there either.
[10]But he knows every step I take.
When he has tested me,
I'll come out as pure as gold.
[11]My feet have closely followed his steps.
I've stayed on his path without turning away.
[12]I haven't disobeyed his commands.
I've treasured his words more than my daily bread.

[13]"But he's the only God. Who can oppose him?
He does anything he wants to do.
[14]He carries out his plans against me.
And he still has many other plans just like them.

15 That’s why I’m so terrified.
When I think about all of this, I’m afraid of him.
16 God has made my heart weak.
The Mighty One has filled me with terror.
17 But even the darkness of death won’t make me silent.
When the darkness of the grave covers my face, I won’t be quiet.

Job 24

[1]“Why doesn’t the Mighty One set a time for judging sinful people?
Why do those who know him have to keep waiting for that day?
[2]People move their neighbor’s boundary stones.
They steal their neighbor’s flocks.
[3]They take away the donkeys that belong to children whose fathers have died.
They take a widow’s ox until she has paid what she owes.
[4]They push those who are needy out of their way.
They force all the poor people in the land to go into hiding.
[5]The poor are like wild donkeys in the desert.
They have to go around looking for food.
The dry and empty land provides the only food for their children.
[6]The poor go to the fields and get a little grain.
They gather up what is left in the vineyards of sinners.
[7]The poor don’t have any clothes. So they spend the night naked.
They don’t have anything to cover themselves in the cold.
[8]They are soaked by mountain rains.
They hug the rocks because they don’t have anything to keep them warm.
[9]Children whose fathers have died are torn away from their mothers.
A poor person’s baby is taken away to pay back what is owed.
[10]The poor don’t have any clothes. They go around naked.
They carry bundles of grain, but they still go hungry.
[11]They work very hard as they crush olives.
They stomp on grapes in winepresses,
but they are still thirsty.
[12]The groans of those who are dying are heard from the city.
Those who are wounded cry out for help.
But God doesn’t charge anyone with doing what is wrong.

[13]“Some people hate it when daylight comes.

In the daytime they never walk outside.
14When daylight is gone, murderers get up.
They kill poor people and those who are in need.
In the night they sneak around like robbers.
15Those who commit adultery wait until the sun goes down.
They think, ‘No one will see us.’
They keep their faces hidden.
16In the dark, thieves break into houses.
But by day they shut themselves in.
They don’t want anything to do with the light.
17Midnight is like morning to them.
The terrors of darkness are their friends.

18“But sinners are like bubbles on the surface of water.
Their share of the land is under God’s curse.
So no one goes to their vineyards.
19Melted snow disappears when the air is hot and dry.
And sinners disappear when they go down into their graves.
20Even their mothers forget them.
The worms in their graves eat them up.
No one remembers sinful people anymore.
They are cut down like trees.
21They mistreat women who aren’t able to have children.
They aren’t kind to widows.
22But God is powerful.
He even drags away people who are strong.
When he rises up against them,
they can never be sure they are safe.
23God might let them rest and feel secure.
But his eyes see how they live.
24For a little while they are honored.
Then they are gone.
They are brought low.
And they die like everyone else.
They are cut off like heads of grain.

25“Who can prove that what I’m saying is wrong?

Who can prove that my words aren’t true?”

Job 25

The Third Speech of Bildad

[1]Then Bildad the Shuhite replied,

[2]“God is King. He should be feared.
He establishes peace in the highest parts of heaven.
[3]Can anyone count his troops?
Is there anyone his light doesn’t shine on?
[4]How can human beings be right with God?
How can mere people really be pure?
[5]Even the moon isn’t bright and the stars aren’t pure in God’s eyes.
[6]So how about human beings? They are like maggots.
How about mere people? They are like worms.”

Job 26

Job's Reply

[1]Job replied,

[2]"Bildad, you haven't helped people who aren't strong!
You haven't saved people who are weak!
[3]You haven't offered advice to those who aren't wise!
In fact, you haven't understood anything at all!
[4]Who helped you say these things?
Whose spirit was speaking through you?

[5]"The spirits of the dead are suffering greatly.
So are those that are under the waters.
And so are all those that live in them.
[6]The place of the dead is naked in the sight of God.
The grave lies open in front of him.
[7]He spreads out the northern skies over empty space.
He hangs the earth over nothing.
[8]He wraps up water in his clouds.
They are heavy, but they don't burst.
[9]He covers the face of the full moon.
He spreads his clouds over it.
[10]He marks out the place where the sky meets the sea.
He marks out the boundary between light and darkness.
[11]The pillars of the heavens shake.
They are terrified when his anger blazes out.
[12]With his power he stirred up the oceans.
In his wisdom he cut the sea monster Rahab to pieces.
[13]His breath made the skies bright and clear.
His hand wounded the serpent that glides through the sea.
[14]Those are only on the edges of what he does.
They are only the soft whispers that we hear from him.
So who can understand how very powerful he is?"

Job 27

Job's Final Reply to His Friends

1 Job continued to speak. He said,

2 "God hasn't treated me fairly.
The Mighty One has made my life bitter.
You can be sure that God lives.
And here's something else you can be sure of.
3 As long as I have life
and God gives me breath,
4 my mouth won't say evil things.
My lips won't tell lies.
5 I'll never admit you people are right.
Until I die, I'll say I'm telling the truth.
6 I'll continue to say I'm right.
I'll never let go of that.
I won't blame myself as long as I live.

7 "May my enemies suffer like sinful people!
May my attackers be punished like those who aren't fair!
8 What hope do ungodly people have when their lives are cut short?
What hope do they have when God takes away their lives?
9 God won't listen to their cry
when trouble comes on them.
10 They won't take delight in the Mighty One.
They'll never call out to God.

11 "I'll teach all of you about God's power.
I won't hide the things the Mighty One does.
12 You have seen those things yourselves.
So why do you continue your useless talk?

13 "Here's what God does to sinful people.
Here's what those who are mean receive from the Mighty One.
14 All their children will be killed by swords.

They’ll never have enough to eat.
15 A plague will kill those who are left alive.
The widows of sinful men won’t even weep over their own children.
16 Sinners might store up silver like dust and clothes like piles of clay.
17 But people who do what is right will wear those clothes.
People who haven’t done anything wrong will divide up that silver.
18 The house an evil person builds is like a moth’s cocoon.
It’s like a hut that’s made by someone on guard duty.
19 Sinful people lie down wealthy, but their wealth is taken away.
When they open their eyes, everything is gone.
20 Terrors sweep over them like a flood.
A storm takes them away during the night.
21 The east wind carries them off, and they are gone.
It sweeps them out of their houses.
22 It blows against them without mercy.
They try to escape from its power.
23 It claps its hands and makes fun of them.
It hisses them out of their houses.”

Job 28

The Place Where Wisdom Is Found Is Explained

[1]There are mines where silver is found.
There are places where gold is purified.
[2]Iron is taken out of the earth.
Copper is melted down from ore.
[3]Human beings light up the darkness.
They search for ore in the deepest pits.
They look for it in the blackest darkness.
[4]Far from where people live they cut a tunnel.
They do it in places where other people don't go.
Far away from people they swing back and forth on ropes.
[5]Food grows on the surface of the earth.
But far below, the earth is changed as if by fire.
[6]Lapis lazuli is taken from the rocky earth.
Its dust contains nuggets of gold.
[7]No bird knows that hidden path.
No falcon's eye has seen it.
[8]Proud animals don't walk on it.
Lions don't prowl there.
[9]Human hands attack the hardest rock.
Their strong hands uncover the base of the mountains.
[10]They tunnel through the rock.
Their eyes see all its treasures.
[11]They search the places where the rivers begin.
They bring hidden things out into the light.

[12]But where can wisdom be found?
Where does understanding live?
[13]No human being understands how much it's worth.
It can't be found anywhere in the world.
[14]The ocean says, "It's not in me."
The sea says, "It's not here either."
[15]It can't be bought with the finest gold.

Its price can’t be weighed out in silver.
16 It can’t be bought with gold from Ophir.
It can’t be bought with priceless onyx or lapis lazuli.
17 Gold or crystal can’t compare with it.
It can’t be bought with jewels made of gold.
18 Don’t bother to talk about coral and jasper.
Wisdom is worth far more than rubies.
19 A topaz from Cush can’t compare with it.
It can’t be bought with the purest gold.

20 So where does wisdom come from?
Where does understanding live?
21 It’s hidden from the eyes of every living thing.
Even the birds in the sky can’t find it.
22 Death and the Grave say,
“Only reports about it have reached our ears.”
23 But God understands the way to it.
He is the only one who knows where it lives.
24 He sees from one end of the earth to the other.
He views everything in the world.
25 He made the mighty wind.
He measured out the waters.
26 He gave orders for the rain to fall.
He made paths for the thunderstorms.
27 Then he looked at wisdom and set its price.
He established it and tested it.
28 He said to human beings,
“Have respect for the Lord. That will prove you are wise.
Avoid evil. That will show you have understanding.”

Job 29

Job's Final Speech

1 Job continued to speak. He said,

2 "How I long for the times when things were better!
That's when God watched over me.
3 The light of his lamp shone on me.
I walked through darkness by his light.
4 Those were the best days of my life.
That's when God's friendship blessed my house.
5 The Mighty One was still with me.
My children were all around me.
6 The path in front of me was like sweet cream.
It was as if the rock poured out olive oil for me.

7 "In those days I went to the city gate.
I took my seat as a member of the council.
8 Young people who saw me stepped to one side.
Old people stood up as I approached.
9 The leaders stopped speaking.
They covered their mouths with their hands.
10 The voices of the nobles became quiet.
Their tongues stuck to the roofs of their mouths.
11 Everyone who heard me said good things about me.
Those who saw me honored me.
12 That's because I saved poor people who cried out for help.
I saved helpless children whose fathers had died.
13 Those who were dying gave me their blessing.
I made the hearts of widows sing.
14 I put on a godly life as if it were my clothes.
Fairness was my robe and my turban.
15 I was like eyes for those who were blind.
I was like feet for those who couldn't walk.
16 I was like a father to needy people.

I stood up for strangers in court.
17 Sinners are like animals that have powerful teeth.
But I took from their mouths the people they had caught.

18 "I thought, 'I'll die in my own house.
The days of my life will be as many as the grains of sand.
19 My roots will reach down to the water.
The dew will lie all night on my branches.
20 I will remain healthy and strong.
My bow will stay as good as new in my hand.'

21 "People wanted to hear what I had to say.
They waited silently for the advice I gave them.
22 After I had spoken, they didn't speak anymore.
My words fell gently on their ears.
23 They waited for me just as they would wait for rain showers.
They drank my words just as they would drink the spring rain.
24 When I smiled at them, they could hardly believe it.
The light of my face lifted their spirits.
25 I chose the way they should go. I sat as their chief.
I lived as a king lives among his troops.
I was like someone who comforts those who are sad.

Job 30

[1]“But now those who are younger than I am make fun of me.
I wouldn’t even put their parents with my sheep dogs!
[2]Their strong hands couldn’t give me any help.
That’s because their strength was gone.
[3]They were weak because they were needy and hungry.
They wandered through dry and empty deserts at night.
[4]Among the bushes they gathered salty plants.
They ate the roots of desert bushes.
[5]They were driven away from human society.
They were shouted at as if they were robbers.
[6]They were forced to live in dry stream beds.
They had to stay among rocks and in holes in the ground.
[7]Like donkeys they cried out among the bushes.
There they crowded together and hid.
[8]They were so foolish that no one respected them.
They were driven out of the land.

[9]“Now their children laugh at me.
They make fun of me with their songs.
[10]They hate me. They stay away from me.
They even dare to spit in my face.
[11]God has made my body weak.
It’s like a tent that has fallen down.
So those children do what they want to in front of me.
[12]Many people attack me on my right side.
They lay traps for my feet.
They come at me from every direction.
[13]They tear up the road I walk on.
They succeed in destroying me.
They say, ‘No one can help him.’
[14]They attack me like troops smashing through a wall.
Among the destroyed buildings they come rolling in.
[15]Terrors sweep over me.

My honor is driven away as if by the wind.
My safety vanishes like a cloud.

16“Now my life is slipping away.
Days of suffering grab hold of me.
17At night my bones hurt.
My aches and pains never stop.
18God’s great power becomes like clothes to me.
He chokes me like the neck of my shirt.
19He throws me down into the mud.
I’m nothing but dust and ashes.

20“God, I cry out to you. But you don’t answer me.
I stand up. But all you do is look at me.
21You do mean things to me.
You attack me with your mighty power.
22You pick me up and blow me away with the wind.
You toss me around in the storm.
23I know that you will bring me down to death.
That’s what you have appointed for everyone.

24“No one would crush people when they cry out for help in their trouble.
25Haven’t I wept for those who are in trouble?
Haven’t I felt sorry for poor people?
26I hoped good things would happen, but something evil came.
I looked for light, but all I saw was darkness.
27My insides are always churning.
Nothing but days of suffering are ahead of me.
28My skin has become dark, but the sun didn’t do it.
I stand up in the community and cry out for help.
29I’ve become a brother to wild dogs.
Owls are my companions.
30My skin grows black and peels.
My body burns with fever.
31My lyre is tuned to sadness.
My flute makes a sound like weeping.

Job 31

[1]“I made an agreement with my eyes.
I promised not to look at a young woman with impure thoughts.
[2]What do we receive from God above?
What do we get from the Mighty One in heaven?
[3]Sinful people are destroyed.
Trouble comes to those who do what is wrong.
[4]Doesn’t God see how I live?
Doesn’t he count every step I take?

[5]“I haven’t told any lies.
My feet haven’t hurried to cheat others.
[6]So let God weigh me in honest scales.
Then he’ll know I haven’t done anything wrong.
[7]Suppose my steps have turned away from the right path.
Suppose my heart has wanted what my eyes have seen.
Or suppose my hands have become ‘unclean.’
[8]Then may others eat what I’ve planted.
May my crops be pulled up by the roots.

[9]“Suppose my heart has been tempted by a woman.
Or suppose I’ve prowled around my neighbor’s home.
[10]Then may my wife grind another man’s grain.
May other men sleep with her.
[11]Wanting another woman would have been an evil thing.
It would have been a sin that should be judged.
[12]It’s like a fire that burns down to the grave.
It would have caused my crops to be pulled up by the roots.

[13]“Suppose I haven’t treated any of my male and female servants fairly when they’ve brought charges against me.
[14]Then what will I do when God opposes me?
What answer will I give him
when he asks me to explain myself?

15 Didn’t he who made me make my servants also?
Didn’t the same God form us inside our mothers?

16 “I haven’t said no to what poor people have wanted.
I haven’t let widows lose their hope.
17 I haven’t kept my bread to myself.
I’ve shared it with children whose fathers had died.
18 From the time I was young, I’ve helped those widows.
I’ve raised those children as a father would.
19 Suppose I’ve seen people dying because they didn’t have enough clothes.
I’ve seen needy people who didn’t have enough to keep warm.
20 And they didn’t give me their blessing
when I warmed them with wool from my sheep.
21 Suppose I’ve raised my hand against children whose fathers have died.
And I did it because I knew
I had power in the courts.
22 Then let my arm fall from my shoulder.
Let it be broken off at the joint.
23 I was afraid God would destroy me.
His glory terrifies me.
So I’d never do things like that.

24 “Suppose I’ve put my trust in gold.
I’ve said to pure gold, ‘You make me feel secure.’
25 And I’m happy because I’m so wealthy.
I’m glad because my hands have earned so much.
26 Suppose I’ve worshiped the sun in all its glory.
I’ve bowed down to the moon in all its beauty.
27 My heart has been secretly tempted.
My hand has thrown kisses to the sun and moon.
28 Then these things would have been sins that should be judged.
And I wouldn’t have been faithful to God in heaven.

29 “I wasn’t happy when hard times came to my enemies.

I didn’t enjoy seeing the trouble they had.
30 I didn’t allow my mouth to sin
by asking for bad things to happen to them.
31 The workers in my house always said,
‘Job always gives plenty of food to everyone.’
32 No stranger ever had to spend the night in the street.
My door was always open to travelers.
33 I didn’t hide my sin as other people do.
I didn’t hide my guilt in my heart.
34 I was never afraid of the crowd.
I never worried that my relatives might hate me.
I didn’t have to keep quiet or stay inside.

35 “I wish someone would listen to me!
I’m signing my name to everything I’ve said.
I hope the Mighty One will give me his answer.
I hope the one who brings charges against me will write them down.
36 I’ll wear them on my shoulder.
I’ll put them on my head like a crown.
37 I’ll give that person a report of every step I take.
I’ll present it to him like I would to a ruler.

38 “Suppose my land cries out against me.
And all its soil is wet with tears.
39 Suppose I’ve used up its crops without paying for them.
Or I’ve broken the spirit of its renters.
40 Then let thorns grow instead of wheat.
Let stinkweed come up instead of barley.”

The words of Job end here.

Job 32

The Speech of Elihu

[1]So the three men stopped answering Job, because he thought he was right. [2]But Elihu the Buzite was very angry with Job. That's because Job said he himself was right instead of God. Elihu was the son of Barakel. He was from the family of Ram. [3]Elihu was also very angry with Job's three friends. They hadn't found any way to prove that Job was wrong. But they still said he was guilty. [4]Elihu had waited before he spoke to Job. That's because the others were older than he was. [5]But he saw that the three men didn't have anything more to say. So he was very angry.

[6]Elihu the Buzite, the son of Barakel, said,

"I'm young, and you are old.
So I was afraid to tell you what I know.
[7]I thought, 'Those who are older should speak first.
Those who have lived for many years should teach people how to be wise.'
[8]But the spirit in people gives them understanding.
The breath of the Mighty One gives them wisdom.
[9]Older people aren't the only ones who are wise.
They aren't the only ones who understand what is right.

[10]"So I'm saying you should listen to me.
I'll tell you what I know.
[11]I waited while you men spoke.
I listened to your reasoning.
While you were searching for words,
[12]I paid careful attention to you.
But not one of you has proved that Job is wrong.
None of you has answered his arguments.
[13]Don't claim, 'We have enough wisdom to answer Job.'
Let God, not a mere man, prove that he's wrong.
[14]Job hasn't directed his words against me.
I won't answer him with your arguments.

15“Job, these men are afraid.
They don’t have anything else to say.
They’ve run out of words.
16Do I have to keep on waiting, now that they are silent?
They are just standing there with nothing to say.
17I too have something to say.
I too will tell what I know.
18I’m full of words.
My spirit inside me forces me to speak.
19Inside I’m like wine that is bottled up.
I’m like new wineskins ready to burst.
20I must speak so I can feel better.
I must open my mouth and reply.
21I’ll treat everyone the same.
I won’t praise anyone without meaning it.
22If I weren’t honest when I praised people, my Maker would soon take me from this life.

Job 33

[1]“Job, listen now to my words.
Pay attention to everything I say.
[2]I’m about to open my mouth.
My words are on the tip of my tongue.
[3]What I say comes from an honest heart.
My lips speak only what I know is true.
[4]The Spirit of God has made me.
The breath of the Mighty One gives me life.
[5]So answer me if you can.
Stand up and argue your case in front of me.
[6]To God I’m just the same as you.
I too am a piece of clay.
[7]You don’t have to be afraid of me.
My hand won’t be too heavy on you.

[8]“But I heard what you said.
And here are the exact words I heard.
[9]You said, ‘I’m pure. I have done no wrong.
I’m clean. I’m free from sin.
[10]But God has found fault with me.
He thinks I’m his enemy.
[11]He puts my feet in chains.
He watches every step I take.’

[12]“But I’m telling you that you aren’t right when you talk like that.
After all, God is greater than any human being.
[13]Why do you claim that God never answers anybody’s questions?
[14]He speaks in one way and then another.
But we do not even realize it.
[15]He might speak in a dream or in a vision at night.
That’s when people are sound asleep in their beds.
[16]He might speak in their ears.
His warnings might terrify them.

17 He warns them in order to turn them away from sinning.
He wants to keep them from being proud.
18 He wants to stop them from going down into the grave.
He doesn’t want them to be killed by swords.
19 Someone might be punished by suffering in bed.
The pain in their bones might never go away.
20 They might feel so bad they can’t eat anything.
They might even hate the finest food.
21 Their body might waste away to nothing.
Their bones might have been hidden.
But now they stick out.
22 They might approach the very edge of the grave.
The messengers of death might come for them.

23 But suppose there is an angel who will speak up for him.
The angel is very special. He’s one out of a thousand.
He will tell that person how to do what is right.
24 That angel will be gracious to them. He’ll say to God, ‘Spare them from going down into the grave.
I know a way that can set them free.’
25 Then their body is made like new again.
They become as strong and healthy as when they were young.
26 Then that person can pray to God and be blessed by him.
They will see God’s face and shout for joy.
God will make them well and happy again.
27 Then that person will come to others and say,
‘I sinned. I made what is wrong appear to be right.
But I wasn’t punished as I should have been.
28 God has set me free. He has kept me from going down into the darkness of the grave.
So I’ll live to enjoy the light of life.’

29 “God does all these things to people.
In fact, he does them again and again.
30 He wants to stop people from going down into the darkness of the grave.
Then the light of life will shine on them.

31 “Pay attention, Job! Listen to me!
Be quiet so I can speak.
32 If you have anything to say, answer me.
Speak up. I want to help you be cleared of all charges.
33 But if you don’t have anything to say, listen to me.
Be quiet so I can teach you how to be wise.”

[2]“Hear what I’m saying, you wise men.
Listen to me, you who have learned so much.
[3]Our tongues tell us what tastes good and what doesn’t.
And our ears tell us what’s true and what isn’t.
[4]So let’s choose for ourselves what is right.
Let’s learn together what is good.

[5]“Job says, ‘I’m not guilty of doing anything wrong.
But God doesn’t treat me fairly.
[6]Even though I’m right,
he thinks I’m a liar.
Even though I’m not guilty,
his arrows give me wounds that can’t be healed.’
[7]Is there anyone like Job?
He accuses God as easily as he drinks water.
[8]He’s a companion of those who do evil.
He spends his time with sinful people.
[9]He asks, ‘What good is it to try to please God?’

[10]“So listen to me, you men who have understanding.
God would never do what is evil.
The Mighty One would never do what is wrong.
[11]He pays back everyone for what they’ve done.
He gives them exactly what they should get.
[12]It isn’t possible for God to do wrong.
The Mighty One would never treat people unfairly.
[13]Who appointed him to rule over the earth?
Who put him in charge of the whole world?
[14]If he really wanted to,
he could hold back his spirit and breath.
[15]Then everyone would die together.

They would return to the dust.

16 “Job, if you have understanding, listen to me.
Pay attention to what I’m saying.
17 Can someone who hates to be fair govern?
Will you bring charges against the holy and mighty God?
18 He says to kings, ‘You are worthless.’
He says to nobles, ‘You are evil.’
19 He doesn’t favor princes.
He treats rich people and poor people the same.
His hands created all of them.
20 They die suddenly in the middle of the night.
God strikes them down, and they pass away.
Even people who are mighty are removed, but not by human hands.

21 “His eyes see how people live.
He watches every step they take.
22 There is no deep shadow or total darkness where those who do what is evil can hide.
23 God doesn’t need to bring charges against anyone.
He knows they are guilty.
So he doesn’t need to have them appear in his court to be judged.
24 He destroys the mighty without asking them questions in court.
Then he sets others up in their places.
25 He knows what they do.
So he crushes them during the night.
26 He punishes them for the sins they commit.
He does it where everyone can see them.
27 That’s because they turned away from following him.
They didn’t have respect for anything he does.
28 They caused poor people to cry out to him.
He heard the cries of those who were in need.
29 But if he remains silent, who can judge him?
If he turns his face away, who can see him?
He rules over individual people and nations alike.

[30]He keeps those who are ungodly from ruling.
He keeps them from laying traps for others.

[31]“Someone might say to God, ‘I’m guilty of sinning,
but I won’t do it anymore.
[32]Show me my sins that I’m not aware of.
If I’ve done what is wrong,
I won’t do it again.’
[33]But you refuse to turn away from your sins.
So God won’t treat you the way you want to be treated.
You must decide, Job. I can’t do it for you.
So tell me what you know.

[34]“You men who have understanding have spoken.
You wise men who hear me have said to me,
[35]‘Job doesn’t know what he’s talking about.
The things he has said don’t make any sense.’
[36]I wish Job would be given the hardest test possible!
He answered like someone who is evil.
[37]To his sin he adds even more sin.
He claps his hands and makes fun of us.
He multiplies his words against God.”

[2]“Job, do you think it’s fair for you to say,
‘I am the one who is right, not God’?
[3]You ask him, ‘What good is it for me not to sin?
What do I get by not sinning?’

[4]“I’d like to reply to you and to your friends who are with you.
[5]Look up at the heavens.
Observe the clouds that are high above you.
[6]If you sin, what does that mean to God?
If you sin many times, what does that do to him?
[7]If you do what is right, how does that help him?
What does he get from you?
[8]The evil things you do only hurt people like yourself.
The right things you do only help other human beings.

[9]“People cry out when they are treated badly.
They beg to be set free from the power of those who are over them.
[10]But no one says, ‘Where is the God who made me?
He gives us songs even during the night.
[11]He teaches us more than he teaches the wild animals.
He makes us wiser than the birds in the sky.’
[12]He doesn’t answer sinful people when they cry out to him.
That’s because they are so proud.
[13]In fact, God doesn’t listen to their empty cries.
The Mighty One doesn’t pay any attention to them.
[14]So he certainly won’t listen to you.
When you say you don’t see him, he won’t hear you.
He won’t listen when you state your case to him.
He won’t pay attention even if you wait for him.
[15]When you say his anger never punishes sin, he won’t hear you.

He won’t listen when you say he doesn’t pay any attention to evil.
16So you say things that don’t mean anything.
You use a lot of words,
but you don’t know what you are talking about.”

[2]“Put up with me a little longer.
I’ll show you I can speak up for God even more.
[3]I get my knowledge from far away.
I’ll announce that the God who made me is fair.
[4]You can be sure that my words are true.
One who has perfect knowledge is talking to you.

[5]“God is mighty, but he doesn’t hate people.
He’s mighty, and he knows exactly what he’s going to do.
[6]He doesn’t keep alive those who are evil.
Instead, he gives suffering people their rights.
[7]He watches over those who do what is right.
He puts them on thrones as if they were kings.
He honors them forever.
[8]But some people are held by chains.
Their pain ties them up like ropes.
[9]God tells them what they’ve done.
He tells them they’ve become proud and sinned against him.
[10]He makes them listen when he corrects them.
He commands them to turn away from the evil things they’ve done.
[11]If they obey him and serve him, they’ll enjoy a long and happy life.
Things will go well with them.
[12]But if they don’t listen to him, they’ll be killed by swords.
They’ll die because they didn’t want to know anything about him.

[13]“Those whose hearts are ungodly are always angry.
Even when God puts them in chains,
they don’t cry out for help.

14 They die while they are still young.
They die among the male prostitutes at the temples.
15 But God saves suffering people while they suffer.
He speaks to them while they are hurting.

16 "Job, he wants to take you out of the jaws of trouble.
He wants to bring you to a wide and safe place.
He'd like to seat you at a table that is loaded with the best food.
17 But now you are loaded down with the punishment sinners will receive.
You have been judged fairly.
18 Be careful that no one tempts you with riches.
Don't take money from people who want special favors,
no matter how much it is.
19 Can your wealth keep you out of trouble?
Can all your mighty efforts keep you going?
20 Don't wish for the night to come so you can drag people away from their homes.
21 Be careful not to do what is evil.
You seem to like evil better than suffering!

22 "God is honored because he is so powerful.
There is no teacher equal to him.
23 Who has told him what he can do?
Who has said to him, 'You have done what is wrong'?
24 Remember to thank him for what he's done.
People have praised him with their songs.
25 Every human being has seen his work.
People can see it from far away.
26 How great God is! We'll never completely understand him.
We'll never find out how long he has lived.

27 "He makes mist rise from the water.
Then it falls as rain into the streams.
28 The clouds pour down their moisture.
Rain showers fall on people everywhere.
29 Who can understand how God spreads out the clouds?

Who can explain how he thunders from his home in heaven?
30 See how he scatters his lightning around him!
He lights up the deepest parts of the ocean.
31 The rain he sends makes things grow for the nations.
He provides them with plenty of food.
32 He holds lightning bolts in his hands.
He commands them to strike their marks.
33 His thunder announces that a storm is coming.
Even the cattle let us know it’s approaching.

Job 37

[1]“When I hear the thunder, my heart pounds.
It beats faster inside me.
[2]Listen! Listen to the roar of his voice!
Listen to the thunder that comes from him!
[3]He sends his lightning across the sky.
It reaches from one end of the earth to the other.
[4]Next comes the sound of his roaring thunder.
He thunders with his majestic voice.
When his voice fills the air,
he doesn’t hold anything back.
[5]God’s voice thunders in wonderful ways.
We’ll never understand the great things he does.
[6]He says to the snow, ‘Fall on the earth.’
He tells the rain, ‘Pour down your mighty waters.’
[7]He stops everyone from working.
He wants them to see his work.
[8]The animals go inside.
They remain in their dens.
[9]The storm comes out of its storeroom in the heavens.
The cold comes from the driving winds.
[10]The breath of God produces ice.
The shallow water freezes over.
[11]He loads the clouds with moisture.
He scatters his lightning through them.
[12]He directs the clouds to circle above the surface of the whole earth.
They do everything he commands them to do.
[13]He tells the clouds to punish people.
Or he brings them to water his earth and show his love.

[14]“Job, listen to me.
Stop and think about the wonderful things God does.
[15]Do you know how he controls the clouds?
Do you understand how he makes his lightning flash?

16 Do you know how the clouds stay up in the sky?
Do you understand the wonders of the God who has perfect knowledge?
17 Even your clothes are too hot for you when the land lies quiet under the south wind.
18 Can you help God spread out the skies?
They are as hard as a mirror
that’s made out of bronze.

19 “Job, tell us what we should say to God.
We can’t prepare our case
because our minds are dark.
20 Should he be told that I want to speak?
Would anyone ask to be destroyed by him?
21 No one can look at the sun.
It’s too bright after the wind has swept the skies clean.
22 Out of the north, God comes in his shining glory.
He comes in all his wonderful majesty.
23 We can’t reach up to the Mighty One.
He is lifted high because of his power.
Everything he does is fair and right.
So he doesn’t crush people.
24 That’s why they have respect for him.
He cares about all those who are wise.”

Job 38

The LORD Speaks

[1]The LORD spoke to Job out of a storm. He said,

[2]"Who do you think you are to disagree with my plans?
You do not know what you are talking about.
[3]Get ready to stand up for yourself.
I will ask you some questions.
Then I want you to answer me.

[4]"Where were you when I laid the earth's foundation?
Tell me, if you know.
[5]Who measured it? I am sure you know!
Who stretched a measuring line across it?
[6]What was it built on?
Who laid its most important stone?
[7]When it happened, the morning stars sang together.
All the angels shouted with joy.

[8]"Who created the ocean?
Who caused it to be born?
[9]I put clouds over it as if they were its clothes.
I wrapped it in thick darkness.
[10]I set limits for it.
I put its doors and metal bars in place.
[11]I said, 'You can come this far.
But you can't come any farther.
Here is where your proud waves have to stop.'

[12]"Job, have you ever commanded the morning to come?
Have you ever shown the sun where to rise?
[13]The daylight takes the earth by its edges
as if it were a blanket.
Then it shakes sinful people out of it.
[14]The earth takes shape like clay stamped with an official's mark.

Its features stand out like the different parts of your clothes.
15 Sinners would rather have darkness than light.
When the light comes, their power is broken.

16 “Have you traveled to the springs at the bottom of the ocean?
Have you walked in its deepest parts?
17 Have the gates of death been shown to you?
Have you seen the gates of the deepest darkness?
18 Do you understand how big the earth is?
Tell me, if you know all these things.

19 “Where does light come from?
And where does darkness live?
20 Can you take them to their places?
Do you know the paths to their houses?
21 I am sure you know! After all, you were already born!
You have lived so many years!

22 “Have you entered the places where the snow is kept?
Have you seen the storerooms for the hail?
23 I store up snow and hail for times of trouble.
I keep them for days of war and battle.
24 Where does lightning come from?
Where do the east winds live that blow across the earth?
25 Who tells the rain where it should fall?
Who makes paths for the thunderstorms?
26 They bring water to places where no one lives.
They water deserts that do not have anyone in them.
27 They satisfy the needs of dry and empty lands.
They make grass start growing there.
28 Does the rain have a father?
Who is the father of the drops of dew?
29 Does the ice have a mother?
Who is the mother of the frost from the heavens?
30 The waters become as hard as stone.
The surface of the ocean freezes over.

[31]“Can you tie up the cords of the Pleiades?
Can you untie the belt that Orion wears?
[32]Can you bring out all the stars in their seasons?
Can you lead out the Big Dipper and the Little Dipper?
[33]Do you know the laws that govern the heavens?
Can you rule over the earth the way I do?

[34]“Can you give orders to the clouds?
Can you make them pour rain down on you?
[35]Do you send the lightning bolts on their way?
Do they report to you, ‘Here we are’?
[36]Who gives the ibis wisdom?
Who gives the rooster understanding?
[37]Who is wise enough to count the clouds?
Who can tip over the water jars of the heavens?
[38]I tip them over when the ground becomes hard.
I do it when the dirt sticks together.

[39]“Do you hunt for food for mother lions?
Do you satisfy the hunger of their cubs?
[40]Some of them lie low in their dens.
Others lie waiting in the bushes.
[41]Who provides food for ravens when their babies cry out to me?
They wander around because they do not have anything to eat.

Job 39

[1]“Job, do you know when mountain goats have their babies?
Do you watch when female deer give birth?
[2]Do you count the months until the animals have their babies?
Do you know the time when they give birth?
[3]They bend their back legs and have their babies.
Then their labor pains stop.
[4]Their little ones grow strong and healthy in the wild.
They leave and do not come home again.

[5]“Who let the wild donkeys go free?
Who untied their ropes?
[6]I gave them the dry and empty land as their home.
I gave them salt flats to live in.
[7]They laugh at all the noise in town.
They do not hear the shouts of the donkey drivers.
[8]They wander over the hills to look for grass.
They search for anything green to eat.

[9]“Job, will wild oxen agree to serve you?
Will they stay by your feed box at night?
[10]Can you keep them in straight rows with harnesses?
Will they plow the valleys behind you?
[11]Will you depend on them for their great strength?
Will you let them do your heavy work?
[12]Can you trust them to haul in your grain?
Will they bring it to your threshing floor?

[13]“The wings of ostriches flap with joy.
But they can’t compare with the wings and feathers of storks.
[14]Ostriches lay their eggs on the ground.
They let them get warm in the sand.
[15]They do not know that something might step on them.
A wild animal might walk all over them.
[16]Ostriches are mean to their little ones.

They treat them as if they did not belong to them.
They do not care that their work was useless.
17 I did not provide ostriches with wisdom.
I did not give them good sense.
18 But when they spread their feathers to run,
they laugh at a horse and its rider.

19 “Job, do you give horses their strength?
Do you put flowing manes on their necks?
20 Do you make them jump like locusts?
They terrify others with their proud snorting.
21 They paw the ground wildly.
They are filled with joy.
They charge at their enemies.
22 They laugh at fear. They are not afraid of anything.
They do not run away from swords.
23 Many arrows rattle at their sides.
Flashing spears and javelins are also there.
24 They are so excited that they race over the ground.
They can’t stand still when trumpets are blown.
25 When they hear the trumpets they snort, ‘Aha!’
They catch the smells of battle far away.
They hear the shouts of commanders and the battle cries.

26 “Job, are you wise enough to teach hawks where to fly?
They spread their wings and fly toward the south.
27 Do you command eagles to fly so high?
They build their nests as high as they can.
28 They live on cliffs and stay there at night.
High up on the rocks they think they are safe.
29 From there they look for their food.
They can see it from far away.
30 Their little ones like to eat blood.
Eagles gather where they see dead bodies.”

[1]The LORD continued,

[2]“I am the Mighty One.
Will the man who argues with me correct me?
Let him who brings charges against me answer me!”

[3]Job replied to the LORD,

[4]“I’m not worthy. How can I reply to you?
I’m putting my hand over my mouth. I’ll stop talking.
[5]I spoke once. But I really don’t have any answer.
I spoke twice. But I won’t say anything else.”

[6]Then the LORD spoke to Job out of the storm. He said,

[7]“Get ready to stand up for yourself.
I will ask you some more questions.
Then I want you to answer me.

[8]“Would you dare to claim that I am not being fair?
Would you judge me in order to make yourself seem right?
[9]Is your arm as powerful as mine is?
Can your voice thunder as mine does?
[10]Then put on glory and beauty as if they were your clothes.
Also put on honor and majesty.
[11]Let loose your great anger.
Look at those who are proud and bring them low.
[12]Look at proud people and make them humble.
Crush evil people right where they are.
[13]Bury their bodies together in the dust.
Cover their faces in the grave.
[14]Then I myself will admit to you that your own right hand can save you.

[15]“Look at Behemoth. It is a huge animal.

I made both of you.
It eats grass like an ox.
16 Look at the strength it has in its hips!
What power it has in the muscles of its stomach!
17 Its tail sways back and forth like a cedar tree.
The tendons of its thighs are close together.
18 Its bones are like tubes made out of bronze.
Its legs are like rods made out of iron.
19 It ranks first among my works.
I made it. I can approach it with my sword.
20 The hills produce food for it.
All the other wild animals play near it.
21 It lies under lotus plants.
It hides in tall grass in the swamps.
22 The lotus plants hide it in their shade.
Poplar trees near streams surround it.
23 It is not afraid when the river roars.
It is secure even when the Jordan River rushes against its mouth.
24 Can anyone capture it by its eyes?
Can anyone trap it and poke a hole through its nose?

Job 41

[1]“Job, can you pull Leviathan out of the sea with a fishhook?
Can you tie down its tongue with a rope?
[2]Can you put a rope through its nose?
Can you stick a hook through its jaw?
[3]Will it keep begging you for mercy?
Will it speak gently to you?
[4]Will it make an agreement with you?
Can you make it your slave for life?
[5]Can you make a pet out of it like a bird?
Can you put it on a leash for the young women in your house?
[6]Will traders offer you something for it?
Will they divide it up among the merchants?
[7]Can you fill its body with harpoons?
Can you throw fishing spears into its head?
[8]If you touch it, it will fight you.
Then you will remember never to touch it again!
[9]No one can possibly control Leviathan.
Just looking at it will terrify you.
[10]No one dares to wake it up.
So who can possibly stand up to me?
[11]Who has a claim against me that I must pay?
Everything on earth belongs to me.

[12]“Now I will speak about the Leviathan’s legs.
I will talk about its strength and its graceful body.
[13]Who can strip off its outer coat?
Who would try to pierce its double coat of armor?
[14]Who dares to open its jaws?
Its mouth is filled with terrifying teeth.
[15]Its back has rows of shields that are close together.
[16]Each one is so close to the next one that not even air can pass between them.

[17]They are joined tightly to one another.
They stick together and can’t be forced apart.
[18]Leviathan’s snorting throws out flashes of light.
Its eyes shine like the first light of day.
[19]Flames spray out of its mouth.
Sparks of fire shoot out.
[20]Smoke pours out of its nose.
It is like smoke from a boiling pot over burning grass.
[21]Its breath sets coals on fire.
Flames fly out of its mouth.
[22]Its neck is very strong.
People run to get out of its way.
[23]Its rolls of fat are close together.
They are firm and can’t be moved.
[24]Its chest is as hard as rock.
It is as hard as a lower millstone.
[25]When Leviathan rises up, even mighty people are terrified.
They run away when it moves around wildly.
[26]A sword that strikes it has no effect.
Neither does a spear or dart or javelin.
[27]It treats iron as if it were straw.
It crushes bronze as if it were rotten wood.
[28]Arrows do not make it run away.
Stones that are thrown from slings are like straw hitting it.
[29]A club seems like a piece of straw to it.
It laughs when it hears a javelin rattling.
[30]Its undersides are like broken pieces of pottery.
It leaves a trail in the mud like a threshing sled.
[31]It makes the ocean churn like a boiling pot.
It stirs up the sea like perfume someone is making.
[32]It leaves a shiny trail behind it.
You would think the ocean had white hair.
[33]Nothing on earth is equal to Leviathan.
That creature is not afraid of anything.
[34]It looks down on proud people.

It rules over all those who are proud.”

Job 42

Job's Reply

[1]Job replied to the LORD,

[2]"I know that you can do anything.
No one can keep you from doing what you plan to do.
[3]You asked me, 'Who do you think you are to disagree with my plans?
You do not know what you are talking about.'
I spoke about things I didn't completely understand.
I talked about things that were too wonderful for me to know.

[4]"You said, 'Listen now, and I will speak.
I will ask you some questions.
Then I want you to answer me.'
[5]My ears had heard about you.
But now my own eyes have seen you.
[6]So I hate myself.
I'm really sorry for what I said about you.
That's why I'm sitting in dust and ashes."

The Story Ends

[7]After the LORD finished speaking to Job, he spoke to Eliphaz the Temanite. He said, "I am angry with you and your two friends. You have not said what is true about me, as my servant Job has. [8]So now get seven bulls and seven rams. Go to my servant Job. Then sacrifice a burnt offering for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you. And I will accept his prayer. I will not punish you for saying the foolish things you said. You have not said what is true about me, as my servant Job has." [9]So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite did what the LORD told them to do. And the LORD accepted Job's prayer.

[10]After Job had prayed for his friends, the LORD made him successful again. He gave him twice as much as he had before. [11]All his brothers and sisters and everyone who had known him before came to see him. They ate with him in his house. They showed their concern for him. They comforted him because of all the troubles the LORD had brought on him. Each one gave him a piece of silver and a gold ring.

12 The LORD blessed the last part of Job's life even more than the first part. He gave Job 14,000 sheep and 6,000 camels. He gave him 1,000 pairs of oxen and 1,000 donkeys. 13 Job also had seven sons and three daughters. 14 He named the first daughter Jemimah. He named the second Keziah. And he named the third Keren-Happuch. 15 Job's daughters were more beautiful than any other women in the whole land. Their father gave them a share of property along with their brothers.

16 After all of that happened, Job lived for 140 years. He saw his children, his grandchildren and his great-grandchildren. 17 And so Job died. He had lived for a very long time.

Psalms

BOOK I

Psalms 1–41

Psalm 1

[1]Blessed is the person who obeys the law of the LORD.
They don’t follow the advice of evil people.
They don’t make a habit of doing what sinners do.
They don’t join those who make fun of the LORD and his law.
[2]Instead, the law of the LORD gives them joy.
They think about his law day and night.
[3]That kind of person is like a tree that is planted near a stream of water.
It always bears its fruit at the right time.
Its leaves don’t dry up.
Everything godly people do turns out well.

[4]Sinful people are not like that at all.
They are like straw
that the wind blows away.
[5]When the LORD judges them, their life will come to an end.
Sinners won’t have any place among those who are godly.

[6]The LORD watches over the lives of godly people.
But the lives of sinful people will lead to their death.

Psalm 2

[1]Why do the nations plan evil together?
Why do they make useless plans?
[2]The kings of the earth rise up against the LORD.
The rulers of the earth join together against his anointed king.
[3]“Let us break free from their chains,” they say.
“Let us throw off their ropes.”

[4]The God who sits on his throne in heaven laughs.
The Lord makes fun of those rulers and their plans.
[5]When he is angry, he warns them.
When his anger blazes out, he terrifies them.
[6]He says to them,
“I have placed my king on my holy mountain of Zion.”

[7]I will announce what the LORD has promised.

He said to me, “You are my son.
Today I have become your father.
[8]Ask me, and I will give the nations to you.
All nations on earth will belong to you.
[9]You will break them with an iron scepter.
You will smash them to pieces like clay pots.”

[10]Kings, be wise!
Rulers of the earth, be warned!
[11]Serve the LORD and have respect for him.
Celebrate his rule with trembling.
[12]Obey the son completely, or he will be angry.
Your way of life will lead to your death.
His anger can blaze out at any moment.
Blessed are all those who go to him for safety.

Psalm 3

A psalm of David when he ran away from his son Absalom.

[1]LORD, I have so many enemies!
So many people are rising up against me!
[2]Many are saying about me,
“God will not save him.”

[3]LORD, you are like a shield that keeps me safe.
You bring me honor. You help me win the battle.
[4]I call out to the LORD.
He answers me from his holy mountain.

[5]I lie down and sleep.
I wake up again, because the LORD takes care of me.
[6]I won’t be afraid even though tens of thousands attack me on every side.

[7]LORD, rise up!
My God, save me!
Strike all my enemies in the face.
Break the teeth of sinful people.

[8]LORD, you are the one who saves.
May your blessing be on your people.

Psalm 4

For the director of music. A psalm of David to be played on stringed instruments.

[1]My faithful God, answer me when I call out to you.
Give me rest from my trouble.
Have mercy on me. Hear my prayer.

[2]How long will you people turn my glory into shame?
How long will you love what will certainly fail you?
How long will you pray to statues of gods?
[3]Remember that the LORD has set apart his faithful servant for himself.
The LORD hears me when I call out to him.

[4]Tremble and do not sin.
When you are in bed,
look deep down inside yourself and be silent.
[5]Offer to the LORD the sacrifices that godly people offer.
Trust in him.

[6]LORD, many are asking, “Who will make us successful?”
LORD, may you do good things for us.
[7]Fill my heart with joy
when the people have lots of grain and fresh wine.
[8]In peace I will lie down and sleep.
LORD, you alone keep me safe.

Psalm 5

For the director of music. A psalm of David to be played on flutes.

[1]LORD, listen to my words.
Pay attention when I mourn.
[2]My King and my God, hear me when I cry for help.
I pray to you.
[3]LORD, in the morning you hear my voice.
In the morning I pray to you.
I wait for you in hope.

[4]For you, God, aren't happy with anything that is evil.
Those who do what is wrong can't live where you are.
[5]Those who are proud can't stand in front of you.
You hate everyone who does what is evil.
[6]You destroy those who tell lies.
LORD, you hate murderers and those who cheat others.

[7]Because of your great love
I can come into your house.
With deep respect I bow down toward your holy temple.
[8]LORD, I have many enemies.
Lead me in your right path.
Make your way smooth and straight for me.

[9]Not a word from their mouths can be trusted.
Their hearts are filled with a desire to hurt others.
Their throats are like open graves.
With their tongues they tell lies.
[10]God, show that they are guilty.
Let their evil plans bring them down.
Send them away because of their many sins.
They have refused to obey you.

[11]But let all those who go to you for safety be glad.
Let them always sing for joy.
Spread your cover over them and keep them safe.
Then those who love you will be glad because of you.
[12]Surely, LORD, you bless those who do what is right.
Like a shield, your loving care keeps them safe.

Psalm 6

For the director of music. According to sheminith. A psalm of David to be played on stringed instruments.

[1]LORD, don’t correct me when you are angry.
Don’t punish me when you are very angry.
[2]LORD, have mercy on me. I’m so weak.
LORD, heal me. My body is full of pain.
[3]My soul is very troubled.
LORD, how long will it be until you save me?

[4]LORD, turn to me and help me.
Save me. Your love never fails.
[5]Dead people can’t call out your name.
How can they praise you when they are in the grave?

[6]My groaning has worn me out.
All night long my tears flood my bed.
My bed is wet because of my crying.
[7]I’m so sad I can’t see very well.
My eyesight gets worse because of all my enemies.

[8]Get away from me, all you who do evil.
The LORD has heard my weeping.
[9]The LORD has heard my cry for his mercy.
The LORD accepts my prayer.
[10]All my enemies will be covered with shame and trouble.
They will turn back in shame. It will happen suddenly.

Psalm 7

A shiggaion of David. He sang it to the LORD about Cush, who was from the tribe of Benjamin.

[1]LORD my God, I go to you for safety.
Help me. Save me from all those who are chasing me.
[2]If you don't, they will tear me apart as if they were lions.
They will rip me to pieces so that no one can save me.

[3]LORD my God, suppose I have done something wrong.
Suppose I am guilty.
[4]Or I have done evil to my friend.
Or I have robbed my enemy without any reason.
[5]Then let my enemy chase me and catch me.
Let him stomp me into the ground.
Let him bury me in the dust.

[6]LORD, rise up in your anger.
Rise up against the great anger of my enemies.
My God, wake up. Command that the right thing be done.
[7]Let all the people of the earth gather around you.
Rule over them from your throne in heaven.
[8]LORD, judge all people.
LORD, show that I have done what is right.
Most High God, remember that I am honest.
[9]God, you always do what is right.
You look deep down inside the hearts and minds of people.
Bring to an end the terrible things sinful people do.
Make godly people safe.

[10]The Most High God is like a shield that keeps me safe.
He saves those whose hearts are honest.
[11]God judges fairly.
He shows his anger every day.
[12]If evil people don't change their ways,
God will sharpen his sword.
He will get his bow ready to use.

[13]He has prepared his deadly weapons.
He has made his flaming arrows ready.

[14]Whoever is full of evil plans trouble and ends up telling lies.
[15]Whoever digs a hole and shovels it out falls into the pit they have made.
[16]The trouble they cause comes back on them.
The terrible things they do will happen to them.

[17]I will give thanks to the LORD because he does what is right.
I will sing the praises of the name of the LORD Most High.

Psalm 8

For the director of music. According to gittith. A psalm of David.

[1]LORD, our Lord,
how majestic is your name in the whole earth!

You have set your glory
in the heavens.
[2]You have made sure that children and infants praise you.
Their praise is a wall that stops the talk of your enemies.

[3]I think about the heavens.
I think about what your fingers have created.
I think about the moon and stars that you have set in place.
[4]What are human beings that you think about them?
What is a son of man that you take care of him?
[5]You have made them a little lower than the angels.
You placed on them a crown of glory and honor.

[6]You made human beings rule over everything your hands created.
You put everything under their control.
[7]They rule over all flocks and herds and over the wild animals.
[8]They rule over the birds in the sky and over the fish in the ocean.
They rule over everything that swims in the oceans.

[9]LORD, our Lord,
how majestic is your name in the whole earth!

Psalm 9

For the director of music. A psalm of David to the tune of “The Death of the Son.”

[1]LORD, I will give thanks to you with all my heart.
I will tell about all the wonderful things you have done.
[2]I will be glad and full of joy because of you.
Most High God, I will sing the praises of your name.

[3]My enemies turn back.
They fall down and die right in front of you.
[4]You have proved that I haven’t done anything wrong.
You have sat on your throne and judged fairly.
[5]You have punished the nations. You have destroyed evil people.
You have erased their names from your book for ever and ever.
[6]My enemies have been destroyed forever.
You have leveled their cities to the ground.
Even the memory of them is gone.

[7]The LORD rules forever.
He has set up his throne so that he can judge people.
[8]He rules the world in keeping with what is right.
He judges all its people fairly.
[9]The LORD is a place of safety for those who have been treated badly.
He keeps them safe in times of trouble.
[10]LORD, those who know you will trust in you.
You have never deserted those who look to you.

[11]Sing the praises of the LORD. He rules from his throne in Zion.
Tell among the nations what he has done.
[12]The God who pays back murderers remembers.
He doesn’t forget the cries of those who are hurting.

[13]LORD, see how badly my enemies treat me!
Help me! Don’t let me go down to the gates of death!
[14]Then I can give praise to you at the gates of the city of Zion.

There I will be full of joy
because you have saved me.
15 The nations have fallen into the pit they have dug.
Their feet are caught in the net they have hidden.
16 The LORD is known to be fair by the things he does.
Evil people are trapped by what they have done.
17 Sinful people go down to the place of the dead.
So do all the nations that forget God.
18 But God will never forget needy people.
The hope of those who are hurting will never die.

19 LORD, rise up. Don't let people win the battle.
Let the nations come to you and be judged.
20 LORD, strike them with terror.
Let the nations know they are only human beings.

Psalm 10

[1]LORD, why are you so far away?
Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?

[2]An evil person is proud and hunts down those who are weak.
He catches weak people by making clever plans.
[3]He brags about what his heart desires.
He speaks well of those who always want more.
He attacks the LORD with his words.
[4]Because he is proud, that evil person doesn't turn to the LORD.
There is no room for God in any of his thoughts.
[5]Everything always goes well for him.
So he is proud.
He doesn't want to have anything to do with God's laws.
He makes fun of all his enemies.
[6]He says to himself, "I will always be secure."
He promises himself, "No one will ever harm me."
[7]His mouth is full of lies and warnings.
With his tongue he speaks evil and makes trouble.

[8]Sinful people hide and wait near the villages.
From their hiding places they murder people who aren't guilty.
They watch in secret for those they want to attack.
[9]They hide and wait like a lion in the bushes.
From their hiding places they wait to catch those who are helpless.
They catch them and drag them off in their nets.
[10]Those they have attacked are beaten up. They fall to the ground.
They fall because their attackers are too strong for them.
[11]Sinful people say to themselves, "God will never notice.
He covers his face. He never sees us."

[12]LORD, rise up! God, show your power!
Don't forget those who are helpless.
[13]Why do sinful people attack you with their words?

Why do they say to themselves,
“He won’t hold us accountable”?
14 God, you see the problems of people in trouble.
You take note of their pain. You do something about it.
So those who are attacked place themselves in your care.
You help children whose fathers have died.
15 Take away the power of sinful people.
Hold them accountable for the evil things they do.
Uncover all the evil they have done.

16 The LORD is King for ever and ever.
The nations will disappear from his land.
17 LORD, you hear the desires of those who are hurting.
You cheer them up and give them hope.
You listen to their cries.
18 You stand up for those whose fathers have died and for those who have been treated badly.
You do it so that mere human beings made of dust may not terrify others anymore.

Psalm 11

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

[1]I run to the LORD for safety.
So how can you say to me,
"Fly away like a bird to your mountain.
[2]Look! Evil people are bending their bows.
They are placing their arrows against the strings.
They are planning to shoot from the shadows at those who have honest hearts.
[3]When law and order are being destroyed,
what can godly people do?"

[4]The LORD is in his holy temple.
The LORD is on his throne in heaven.
He watches everyone on earth.
His eyes study them.
[5]The LORD watches over those who do what is right.
But he really hates sinful people and those who love to hurt others.
[6]He will pour out flaming coals and burning sulfur on those who do what is wrong.
A hot and dry wind will destroy them.

[7]The LORD always does what is right.
So he loves it when people do what is fair.
Those who are honest will enjoy his blessing.

Psalm 12

For the director of music. According to sheminith. A psalm of David.

[1]Help, LORD! No one does what is right anymore.
Those who are faithful have disappeared from the human race.
[2]Everyone tells lies to their neighbors.
With their lips they praise others, but they don't really mean it.

[3]May the LORD close all lips that don't mean what they say.
May he stop every tongue that brags.
[4]They say, "What we speak with our tongues will win the battle.
What we say with our lips will keep us safe. No one will have victory over us."

[5]The LORD says, "The poor are being robbed.
Those who are in need groan.
So I will stand up to help them.
I will keep them safe from those who tell lies about them."
[6]The words of the LORD are perfect.
They are like silver made pure in a clay furnace.
They are like gold made pure seven times over.

[7]LORD, you will keep needy people safe.
You will always keep sinners from hurting us.
[8]Proud and sinful people walk around openly when the evil they do is praised by the human race.

Psalm 13

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

[1]LORD, how long must I wait? Will you forget me forever?
How long will you turn your face away from me?
[2]How long must I struggle with my thoughts?
How long must my heart be sad day after day?
How long will my enemies keep winning the battle over me?

[3]LORD my God, look at me and answer me.
Give me new life, or I will die.
[4]Then my enemies will say, “We have beaten him.”
They will be filled with joy when I die.

[5]But I trust in your faithful love.
My heart is filled with joy because you will save me.
[6]I will sing praise to the LORD.
He has been so good to me.

Psalm 14

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

[1]Foolish people say in their hearts,
"There is no God."
They do all kinds of horrible and evil things.
No one does anything good.

[2]The LORD looks down from heaven
on all people.
He wants to see if there are any who understand.
He wants to see if there are any who trust in God.
[3]All of them have turned away.
They have all become evil.
No one does anything good,
no one at all.

[4]Do all these people who do evil know nothing?
They eat up my people as if they were eating bread.
They never call out to the LORD.
[5]But just look at them! They are filled with terror because God is among those who do right.
[6]You who do evil keep poor people from succeeding.
But the LORD is their place of safety.

[7]How I pray that the God who saves Israel will come out of Zion!
Then the LORD will bless his people with great success again.
So let the people of Jacob be filled with joy! Let Israel be glad!

Psalm 15

A psalm of David.

[1]LORD, who can live in your sacred tent?
Who can stay on your holy mountain?

[2]Anyone who lives without blame and does what is right.
They speak the truth from their heart.
[3]They don’t tell lies about other people.
They don’t do wrong to their neighbors.
They don’t say anything bad about them.
[4]They hate evil people.
But they honor those who have respect for the LORD.
They keep their promises even when it hurts.
They do not change their mind.
[5]They lend their money to poor people without charging interest.
They don’t accept money to harm those who aren’t guilty.

Anyone who lives like that will always be secure.

Psalm 16

A miktam of David.

[1]My God, keep me safe.
I go to you for safety.

[2]I say to the LORD, “You are my Lord.
Without you, I don’t have anything that is good.”
[3]I say about God’s people who live in our land, “They are the noble ones.
I take great delight in them.”
[4]Those who run after other gods will suffer more and more.
I will not pour out offerings of blood to those gods.
My lips will not speak their names.

[5]LORD, you alone are everything I need.
You make my life secure.
[6]I am very pleased with what you have given me.
I am very happy with what I’ve received from you.

[7]I will praise the LORD. He gives me good advice.
Even at night my heart teaches me.
[8]I keep my eyes always on the LORD.
He is at my right hand.
So I will always be secure.

[9]So my heart is glad. Joy is on my tongue.
My body also will be secure.
[10]You will not leave me in the place of the dead.
You will not let your faithful one rot away.
[11]You always show me the path of life.
You will fill me with joy when I am with you.
You will make me happy forever at your right hand.

Psalm 17

A prayer of David.

[1]LORD, hear me, because I ask for what is right.
Listen to my cry for help.
Hear my prayer.
It doesn't come from lips that tell lies.
[2]When you hand down your sentence, may it be in my favor.
May your eyes see what is right.

[3]Look deep down into my heart.
Study me carefully at night and test me.
You won't find anything wrong.
I have planned nothing evil.
My mouth has not said sinful things.
[4]Though evil people tried to pay me to do wrong,
I have not done what they wanted.
Instead I have done what you commanded.
[5]My steps have stayed on your paths.
My feet have not slipped.

[6]My God, I call out to you because you will answer me.
Listen to me. Hear my prayer.
[7]Show me the wonders of your great love.
By using your great power,
you save those who go to you for safety from their enemies.
[8]Take good care of me, just as you would take care of your own eyes.
Hide me in the shadow of your wings.
[9]Save me from the sinful people who want to destroy me.
Save me from my deadly enemies who are all around me.

[10]They make their hearts hard and stubborn.
Their mouths speak with pride.
[11]They have tracked me down. They are all around me.
Their eyes watch for a chance to throw me to the ground.

[12]They are like a hungry lion, waiting to attack.
They are like a powerful lion, hiding in the bushes.

[13]LORD, rise up. Oppose them and bring them down.
With your sword, save me from those evil people.
[14]LORD, by your power save me from people like that.
They belong to this world. They get their reward in this life.

May what you have stored up for evil people fill their bellies.
May their children's stomachs be filled with it.
And may there even be leftovers for their little ones.
[15]You will show that I am right; I will enjoy your blessing.
When I wake up, I will be satisfied because I will see you.

Psalm 18

For the director of music. A psalm of David, the servant of the LORD. He sang the words of this song to the LORD. He sang them when the LORD saved him. He saved him from the power of all his enemies and of Saul. David said, [1]I love you, LORD.

You give me strength.

[2]The LORD is my rock and my place of safety. He is the God who saves me.
My God is my rock. I go to him for safety.
He is like a shield to me. He's the power that saves me. He's my place of safety.
[3]I called out to the LORD. He is worthy of praise.
He saved me from my enemies.

[4]The ropes of death were almost wrapped around me.
A destroying flood swept over me.
[5]The ropes of the grave were tight around me.
Death set its trap in front of me.
[6]When I was in trouble, I called out to the LORD.
I cried to my God for help.
From his temple he heard my voice.
My cry for help reached his ears.

[7]The earth trembled and shook.
The base of the mountains rocked back and forth.
It trembled because the LORD was angry.
[8]Smoke came out of his nose.
Flames of fire came out of his mouth.
Burning coals blazed out of it.
[9]He opened the heavens and came down.
Dark clouds were under his feet.
[10]He stood on the cherubim and flew.
The wings of the wind lifted him up.
[11]He covered himself with darkness.
The dark rain clouds of the sky were like a tent around him.

12 Clouds came out of the brightness that was all around him.
They came with hailstones and flashes of lightning.
13 The LORD thundered from heaven.
The voice of the Most High God was heard.
14 He shot his arrows and scattered our enemies.
He sent great flashes of lightning and chased the enemies away.
15 The bottom of the sea could be seen.
The foundations of the earth were uncovered.
LORD, it happened when your anger blazed out.
It came like a blast of breath from your nose.

16 He reached down from heaven. He took hold of me.
He lifted me out of deep waters.
17 He saved me from my powerful enemies.
He set me free from those who were too strong for me.
18 They opposed me when I was in trouble.
But the LORD helped me.
19 He brought me out into a wide and safe place.
He saved me because he was pleased with me.

20 The LORD has been good to me because I do what is right.
He has rewarded me because I lead a pure life.
21 I have lived the way the LORD wanted me to.
I am not guilty of turning away from my God.
22 I keep all his laws in mind.
I haven't turned away from his commands.
23 He knows that I am without blame.
He knows I've kept myself from sinning.
24 The LORD has rewarded me for doing what is right.
He has rewarded me because I haven't done anything wrong.

25 LORD, to those who are faithful you show that you are faithful.
To those who are without blame you show that you are without blame.
26 To those who are pure you show that you are pure.
But to those whose paths are crooked you show that you are clever.

27 You save those who aren’t proud.
But you bring down those whose eyes are proud.
28 LORD, you keep the lamp of my life burning brightly.
You are my God. You bring light into my darkness.
29 With your help I can attack a troop of soldiers.
With the help of my God I can climb over a wall.

30 God’s way is perfect.
The LORD’s word doesn’t have any flaws.
He is like a shield
to all who go to him for safety.
31 Who is God except the LORD?
Who is the Rock except our God?
32 God gives me strength for the battle.
He keeps my way secure.
33 He makes my feet like the feet of a deer.
He causes me to stand on the highest places.
34 He trains my hands to fight every battle.
My arms can bend a bow of bronze.
35 LORD, you are like a shield that keeps me safe.
Your strong right hand keeps me going.
Your help has made me great.
36 You give me a wide path to walk on so that I don’t twist my ankles.

37 I chased my enemies and caught them.
I didn’t turn back until they were destroyed.
38 I crushed them so that they couldn’t get up.
They fell under my feet.
39 LORD, you gave me strength to fight the battle.
You made my enemies humble in front of me.
40 You made them turn their backs and run away.
So I destroyed my enemies.
41 They cried out for help. But there was no one to save them.
They called out to the LORD. But he didn’t answer them.
42 I beat them as fine as dust blown by the wind.
I stomped on them like mud in the streets.

[43]You saved me when my own people attacked me.
You made me the ruler over nations.
People I didn’t know serve me now.
[44]People from other lands bow down to me in fear.
As soon as they hear me, they obey me.
[45]All of them give up hope.
They come trembling out of their hiding places.

[46]The LORD lives! Give praise to my Rock!
Give honor to God my Savior!
[47]He is the God who pays back my enemies.
He brings the nations under my control.
[48]He saves me from my enemies.
You have honored me more than them.
You have saved me from a man who wanted to hurt me.
[49]LORD, I will praise you among the nations.
I will sing the praises of your name.
[50]The LORD helps his king win great battles.
He shows his faithful love to his anointed king.
He shows it to David and to his family forever.

Psalm 19

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

[1]The heavens tell about the glory of God.
The skies show that his hands created them.
[2]Day after day they speak about it.
Night after night they make it known.
[3]But they don't speak or use words.
No sound is heard from them.
[4]Yet their voice goes out into the whole earth.
Their words go out from one end of the world to the other.

God has set up a tent in the heavens for the sun.
[5]The sun is like a groom leaving the room of his wedding night.
The sun is like a great runner who takes delight in running a race.
[6]It rises at one end of the heavens.
Then it moves across to the other end.
Everything enjoys its warmth.

[7]The law of the LORD is perfect.
It gives us new strength.
The laws of the LORD can be trusted.
They make childish people wise.
[8]The rules of the LORD are right.
They give joy to our hearts.
The commands of the LORD shine brightly.
They give light to our minds.
[9]The law that brings respect for the LORD is pure.
It lasts forever.
The commands the LORD gives are true.
All of them are completely right.
[10]They are more priceless than gold.
They have greater value than huge amounts of pure gold.
They are sweeter than honey that is taken from the honeycomb.

[11]Your servant is warned by them.
When people obey them, they are greatly rewarded.

[12]But who can know their own mistakes?
Forgive my hidden faults.
[13]Also keep me from the sins I want to commit.
May they not be my master.
Then I will be without blame.
I will not be guilty of any great sin against your law.

[14]LORD, may these words of my mouth please you.
And may these thoughts of my heart please you also.
You are my Rock and my Redeemer.

Psalm 20

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

[1]May the LORD answer you when you are in trouble.
May the God of Jacob keep you safe.
[2]May he send you help from the sacred tent.
May he give you aid from Zion.
[3]May he remember all your sacrifices.
May he accept your burnt offerings.
[4]May he give you what your heart wishes for.
May he make all your plans succeed.
[5]May we shout for joy over your victory.
May we lift up our flags in the name of our God.
May the LORD give you everything you ask for.

[6]Now I know that the LORD gives victory to his anointed king.
He answers him from his sacred home in heaven.
The power of God's right hand gives victory to the king.
[7]Some trust in chariots. Some trust in horses.
But we trust in the LORD our God.
[8]They are brought to their knees and fall down.
But we get up and stand firm.

[9]LORD, give victory to the king!
Answer us when we call out to you!

Psalm 21

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

[1]LORD, the king is filled with joy because you are strong.
How great is his joy because you help him win his battles!
[2]You have given him what his heart wished for.
You haven't kept back from him what his lips asked for.
[3]You came to greet him with rich blessings.
You placed a crown of pure gold on his head.
[4]He asked you for life, and you gave it to him.
You promised him days that would never end.
[5]His glory is great because you helped him win his battles.
You have honored him with glory and majesty.
[6]You have given him blessings that will never end.
You have made him glad and joyful because you are with him.

[7]The king trusts in the LORD.
The faithful love of the Most High God will keep the king secure.

[8]You, the king, will capture all your enemies.
Your right hand will take hold of them.
[9]When you appear for battle, you will burn them up like they were in a flaming furnace.
The LORD will swallow them up in his great anger.
His fire will burn them up.
[10]You will wipe their children from the face of the earth.
You will remove them from the human race.
[11]Your enemies make evil plans against you.
They think up evil things to do. But they can't succeed.
[12]You will make them turn their backs and run away when you aim your arrows at them.

[13]LORD, may you be honored because you are strong.
We will sing and praise your might.

Psalm 22

For the director of music. A psalm of David to the tune of “The Doe of the Morning.”

[1]My God, my God, why have you deserted me?
Why do you seem so far away when I need you to save me?
Why do you seem so far away that you can’t hear my groans?
[2]My God, I cry out in the daytime. But you don’t answer.
I cry out at night. But you don’t let me sleep.

[3]But you rule from your throne as the Holy One.
You are the God Israel praises.
[4]Our people of long ago put their trust in you.
They trusted in you, and you saved them.
[5]They cried out to you and were saved.
They trusted in you, and you didn’t let them down.

[6]Everyone treats me like a worm and not a man.
They hate me and look down on me.
[7]All those who see me laugh at me.
They shout at me and make fun of me.
They shake their heads at me.
[8]They say, “He trusts in the LORD.
Let the LORD help him.
If the LORD is pleased with him,
let him save him.”

[9]But you brought me out of my mother’s body.
You made me trust in you even when I was at my mother’s breast.
[10]From the time I was born, you took good care of me.
Ever since I came out of my mother’s body, you have been my God.
[11]Don’t be far away from me.
Trouble is near,
and there is no one to help me.

12 Many enemies are all around me.
They are like strong bulls from the land of Bashan.
13 They are like roaring lions that tear to pieces what they kill.
They open their mouths wide to attack me.
14 My strength is like water that is poured out on the ground.
I feel as if my bones aren't connected.
My heart has turned to wax.
It has melted away inside me.
15 My mouth is dried up like a piece of broken pottery.
My tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth.
You bring me down to the edge of the grave.
16 A group of sinful people has closed in on me.
They are all around me like a pack of dogs.
They have pierced my hands and my feet.
17 Everyone can see all my bones right through my skin.
People stare at me. They laugh when I suffer.
18 They divide up my clothes among them.
They cast lots for what I am wearing.

19 LORD, don't be so far away from me.
You give me strength. Come quickly to help me.
20 Save me from being killed by the sword.
Save the only life I have. Save me from the power of those dogs.
21 Save me from the mouths of those lions.
Save me from the horns of those wild oxen.

22 I will announce your name to my people.
I will praise you among those who are gathered to worship you.
23 You who have respect for the LORD, praise him!
All you people of Jacob, honor him!
All you people of Israel, worship him!
24 He has not forgotten the one who is hurting.
He has not turned away from his suffering.
He has not turned his face away from him.
He has listened to his cry for help.

25 Because of what you have done,

I will praise you in the whole community of those who worship
you.
In front of those who respect you,
I will keep my promises.
[26]Those who are poor will eat and be satisfied.
Those who seek the LORD will praise him.
May their hearts be filled with new hope!
[27]People from one end of the earth to the other will remember and turn to the LORD.
The people of all the nations will bow down in front of him.
[28]The LORD is King.
He rules over the nations.

[29]All rich people of the earth will feast and worship God.
All who go down to the grave will kneel in front of him.
Those who cannot keep themselves alive will kneel.
[30]Those who are not yet born will serve him.
Those who are born later will be told about the Lord.
[31]And they will tell people who have not yet been born,
“The Lord has done what is right!”

Psalm 23

A psalm of David.

[1]The LORD is my shepherd. He gives me everything I need.
[2]He lets me lie down in fields of green grass.
He leads me beside quiet waters.
[3]He gives me new strength.
He guides me in the right paths
for the honor of his name.
[4]Even though I walk through the darkest valley,
I will not be afraid.
You are with me.
Your shepherd's rod and staff comfort me.

[5]You prepare a feast for me right in front of my enemies.
You pour oil on my head.
My cup runs over.
[6]I am sure that your goodness and love will follow me
all the days of my life.
And I will live in the house of the LORD forever.

Psalm 24

A psalm of David.

[1]The earth belongs to the LORD. And so does everything in it.
The world belongs to him. And so do all those who live in it.
[2]He set it firmly on the oceans.
He made it secure on the waters.

[3]Who can go up to the temple on the mountain of the LORD?
Who can stand in his holy place?
[4]Anyone who has clean hands and a pure heart.
Anyone who does not trust in the statue of a god.
Anyone who doesn't use the name of that god when he makes a promise.
[5]People like that will receive the LORD's blessing.
When God their Savior hands down his sentence, it will be in their favor.
[6]The people who look to God are like that.
God of Jacob, they look to you.

[7]Open wide, you gates.
Open up, you ancient doors.
Then the King of glory will come in.
[8]Who is the King of glory?
The LORD, who is strong and mighty.
The LORD, who is mighty in battle.
[9]Open wide, you gates.
Open wide, you ancient doors.
Then the King of glory will come in.
[10]Who is he, this King of glory?
The LORD who rules over all.
He is the King of glory.

Psalm 25

A psalm of David.

[1]In you, LORD my God, I put my trust.
[2]I trust in you.
Don’t let me be put to shame.
Don’t let my enemies win the battle over me.
[3]Those who put their hope in you will never be put to shame.
But those who lie to other people for no reason will be put to shame.

[4]LORD, show me your ways.
Teach me how to follow you.
[5]Guide me in your truth. Teach me.
You are God my Savior.
I put my hope in you all day long.
[6]LORD, remember your great mercy and love.
You have shown them to your people for a long time.
[7]Don’t remember the sins I committed when I was young.
Don’t remember how often I refused to obey you.
Remember me because you love me.
LORD, you are good.

[8]The LORD is honest and good.
He teaches sinners to walk in his ways.
[9]He shows those who aren’t proud how to do what is right.
He teaches them his ways.
[10]All the LORD’s ways are loving and faithful toward those who obey what his covenant commands.
[11]LORD, be true to your name.
Forgive my sin, even though it is great.
[12]Who are the people who have respect for the LORD?
God will teach them the ways they should choose.
[13]Things will always go well for them.
Their children will be given the land.

[14]The LORD shares his plans with those who have respect for him.
He makes his covenant known to them.
[15]My eyes always look to the LORD.
He alone can set my feet free from the trap.

[16]Turn to me and help me.
I am lonely and hurting.
[17]Take away the troubles of my heart.
Set me free from my great pain.
[18]Look at how I’m hurting! See how much I suffer!
Take away all my sins.
[19]Look at how many enemies I have!
See how terrible their hatred is for me!
[20]Guard my life. Save me.
Don’t let me be put to shame.
I go to you for safety.
[21]May my honest and good life keep me safe.
LORD, I have put my hope in you.

[22]God, set Israel free from all their troubles!

Psalm 26

A psalm of David.

[1]LORD, when you hand down your sentence, let it be in my favor.
I have lived without blame.
I have trusted in the LORD.
I have never doubted him.
[2]LORD, test me. Try me out.
Look deep down into my heart and mind.
[3]I have always remembered your love that never fails.
I have always depended on the fact that you are faithful.
[4]I don’t spend time with people who tell lies.
I don’t keep company with pretenders.
[5]I hate to be with a group of sinful people.
I refuse to spend time with those who are evil.
[6]I wash my hands to show that I’m not guilty.
LORD, I come near your altar.
[7]I shout my praise to you.
I tell about all the wonderful things you have done.
[8]LORD, I love the house where you live.
I love the place where your glory is.

[9]Don’t destroy me together with sinners.
Don’t take away my life along with murderers.
[10]Their hands are always planning to do evil.
Their right hands are full of money that has bought their help.
[11]But I live without blame.
Save me from harm and treat me with kindness.

[12]My feet stand on level ground.
In the whole community I will praise the LORD.

Psalm 27

A psalm of David.

[1]The LORD is my light, and he saves me.
Why should I fear anyone?
The LORD is my place of safety.
Why should I be afraid?
[2]My enemies are evil.
They will trip and fall
when they attack me
and try to swallow me up.
[3]Even if an army attacks me,
my heart will not be afraid.
Even if war breaks out against me,
I will still trust in God.

[4]I'm asking the LORD for only one thing.
Here is what I want.
I want to live in the house of the LORD
all the days of my life.
I want to look at the beauty of the LORD.
I want to worship him in his temple.
[5]When I'm in trouble,
he will keep me safe in his house.
He will hide me in the safety of his holy tent.
He will put me on a rock that is very high.
[6]Then I will win the battle over my enemies who are all around me.
At his holy tent I will offer my sacrifice with shouts of joy.
I will sing and make music to the LORD.

[7]LORD, hear my voice when I call out to you.
Treat me with kindness and answer me.
[8]My heart says, "Seek him!"
LORD, I will seek you.
[9]Don't turn your face away from me.

Don’t turn me away because you are angry.
You have helped me.
God my Savior, don’t say no to me.
Don’t desert me.
10 My father and mother may desert me,
but the LORD will accept me.
11 LORD, teach me your ways.
Lead me along a straight path.
There are many people who treat me badly.
12 My enemies want to harm me. So don’t turn me over to them.
Witnesses who tell lies are rising up against me.
They say all sorts of evil things about me.

13 Here is something I am still sure of.
I will see the LORD’s goodness
while I’m still alive.
14 Wait for the LORD.
Be strong and don’t lose hope.
Wait for the LORD.

Psalm 28

A psalm of David.

[1]LORD, my Rock, I call out to you.
Pay attention to me.
If you remain silent, I will die.
I will be like those who go down into the grave.
[2]Hear my cry for your favor
when I call out to you for help.
Hear me when I lift up my hands in prayer toward your Most Holy Room.

[3]Don’t drag me away with sinners.
Don’t drag me away with those who do evil.
They speak in a friendly way to their neighbors.
But their hearts are full of hate.
[4]Pay them back for their evil actions.
Pay them back for what their hands have done.
Give them exactly what they should get.
[5]They don’t care about the LORD’s mighty acts.
They don’t care about what his hands have done.
So he will tear them down.
He will never build them up again.

[6]Give praise to the LORD.
He has heard my cry for his favor.
[7]The LORD gives me strength. He is like a shield that keeps me safe.
My heart trusts in him, and he helps me.
My heart jumps for joy.
With my song I praise him.

[8]The LORD gives strength to his people.
He guards and saves his anointed king.
[9]Save your people. Bless those who belong to you.
Be their shepherd. Take care of them forever.

Psalm 29

A psalm of David.

[1]Praise the LORD, you angels in heaven.
Praise the LORD for his glory and strength.
[2]Praise the LORD for the glory that belongs to him.
Worship the LORD because of his beauty and holiness.

[3]The voice of the LORD is heard over the waters.
The God of glory thunders.
The LORD thunders over the mighty waters.
[4]The voice of the LORD is powerful.
The voice of the LORD is majestic.
[5]The voice of the LORD breaks the cedar trees.
The LORD breaks the cedars of Lebanon into pieces.
[6]He makes the mountains of Lebanon leap like a calf.
He makes Mount Hermon jump like a young wild ox.
[7]The voice of the LORD strikes with flashes of lightning.
[8]The voice of the LORD shakes the desert.
The LORD shakes the Desert of Kadesh.
[9]The voice of the LORD twists the oak trees.
It strips the forests bare.
And in his temple everyone cries out, “Glory!”

[10]The LORD on his throne rules over the flood.
The LORD rules from his throne as King forever.
[11]The LORD gives strength to his people.
The LORD blesses his people with peace.

Psalm 30

A psalm of David. A song for setting apart the completed temple to God.

[1]LORD, I will give you honor.
You brought me out of deep trouble.
You didn't give my enemies the joy of seeing me die.
[2]LORD my God, I called out to you for help.
And you healed me.
[3]LORD, you brought me up from the place of the dead.
You kept me from going down into the pit.

[4]Sing the praises of the LORD, you who are faithful to him.
Praise him, because his name is holy.
[5]His anger lasts for only a moment.
But his favor lasts for a person's whole life.
Weeping can stay for the night.
But joy comes in the morning.

[6]When I felt safe, I said,
"I will always be secure."
[7]LORD, when you gave me your help, you made Mount Zion stand firm.
But when you took away your help,
I was terrified.

[8]LORD, I called out to you.
I cried to you for mercy.
[9]I said, "What good will come if I become silent in death?
What good will come if I go down into the grave?
Can the dust of my dead body praise you?
Can it tell how faithful you are?
[10]LORD, hear me. Have mercy on me.
LORD, help me."

[11]You turned my loud crying into dancing.
You removed my clothes of sadness and dressed me with joy.

[12]So my heart will sing your praises. I can’t keep silent.
LORD, my God, I will praise you forever.

Psalm 31

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

[1]LORD, I have come to you for safety.
Don’t let me ever be put to shame.
Save me, because you do what is right.
[2]Pay attention to me.
Come quickly to help me.
Be the rock I go to for safety.
Be the strong fort that saves me.
[3]You are my rock and my fort.
Lead me and guide me for the honor of your name.
[4]Keep me free from the trap that is set for me.
You are my place of safety.
[5]Into your hands I commit my very life.
LORD, set me free. You are my faithful God.

[6]I hate those who worship worthless statues of gods.
But I trust in the LORD.
[7]I will be glad and full of joy because you love me.
You saw that I was hurting.
You took note of my great pain.
[8]You have not handed me over to the enemy.
You have put me in a wide and safe place.

[9]LORD, have mercy on me. I’m in deep trouble.
I’m so sad I can hardly see.
My whole body grows weak with sadness.
[10]Pain has taken over my life.
My years are spent in groaning.
I have no strength because I’m hurting so much.
My body is getting weaker and weaker.
[11]My neighbors make fun of me because I have so many enemies.
My closest friends are afraid of me.
People who see me on the street run away from me.

[12]No one remembers me. I might as well be dead.
I have become like broken pottery.
[13]I hear many people whispering,
“There is terror all around him!”
Many have joined together against me.
They plan to kill me.

[14]But I trust in you, LORD.
I say, “You are my God.”
[15]My whole life is in your hands.
Save me from the hands of my enemies.
Save me from those who are chasing me.
[16]May you look on me with favor.
Save me because your love is faithful.
[17]LORD, I have cried out to you.
Don’t let me be put to shame.
But let sinners be put to shame.
Let them lie silent in the place of the dead.
[18]Their lips tell lies. Let them be silenced.
They speak with pride against those who do right.
They make fun of them.

[19]You have stored up so many good things.
You have stored them up for those who have respect for you.
You give those things while everyone watches.
You give them to people who run to you for safety.
[20]They are safe because you are with them.
You hide them from the evil plans of their enemies.
In your house you keep them safe from those who bring charges against them.

[21]Give praise to the LORD.
He showed me his wonderful love when my enemies attacked the city I was in.
[22]I was afraid and said,
“I’ve been cut off from you!”
But you heard my cry for your favor.
You heard me when I called out to you for help.

[23]Love the LORD, all you who are faithful to him!
The LORD keeps safe those who are faithful to him.
But he completely pays back those who are proud.
[24]Be strong, all you who put your hope in the LORD.
Never give up.

Psalm 32

A maskil of David.

[1]Blessed is the person whose lawless acts are forgiven.
Their sins have been taken away.
[2]Blessed is the person whose sin the LORD never counts against them.
That person doesn't want to cheat anyone.

[3]When I kept silent about my sin, my body became weak
because I groaned all day long.
[4]Day and night
you punished me.
I became weaker and weaker
as I do in the heat of summer.
[5]Then I admitted my sin to you.
I didn't cover up the wrong I had done.
I said, "I will admit my lawless acts to the LORD."
And you forgave the guilt of my sin.

[6]Let everyone who is faithful pray to you while they can still look to you.
When troubles come like a flood,
they certainly won't reach those who are faithful.
[7]You are my hiding place.
You will keep me safe from trouble.
You will surround me with songs sung by those who praise you because you save your people.

[8]I will guide you and teach you the way you should go.
I will give you good advice and watch over you with love.
[9]Don't be like a horse or a mule.
They can't understand anything.
They have to be controlled by bits and bridles.
If they aren't, they won't come to you.

[10]Sinful people have all kinds of trouble.
But the LORD's faithful love is all around those who trust in him.

[11]Be glad because of what the LORD has done for you.
Be joyful, you who do what is right!
Sing, all you whose hearts are honest!

Psalm 33

[1]You who are godly, sing with joy to the LORD.
It is right for honest people to praise him.
[2]With the harp, praise the LORD.
With the lyre that has ten strings, make music to him.
[3]Sing a new song to him.
Play with skill, and shout with joy.

[4]What the LORD says is right and true.
He is faithful in everything he does.
[5]The LORD loves what is right and fair.
The earth is full of his faithful love.

[6]The heavens were made when the LORD commanded it to happen.
All the stars were created by the breath of his mouth.
[7]He gathers together the waters of the sea.
He puts the oceans in their places.
[8]Let the whole earth have respect for the LORD.
Let all the people in the world honor him.
[9]He spoke, and the world came into being.
He commanded, and it stood firm.
[10]The LORD blocks the sinful plans of the nations.
He keeps them from doing what they want to do.
[11]But the plans of the LORD stand firm forever.
What he wants to do will last for all time.

[12]Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD.
Blessed are the people he chose to be his own.
[13]From heaven the LORD looks down and sees everyone.
[14]From his throne he watches
all those who live on the earth.
[15]He creates the hearts of all people.
He is aware of everything they do.

16 A king isn’t saved just because his army is big.
A soldier doesn’t escape just because he is very strong.
17 People can’t trust a horse to save them either.
Though it is very strong, it can’t save them.
18 But the LORD looks with favor on those who respect him.
He watches over those who put their hope in his faithful love.
19 He watches over them to save them from death.
He wants to keep them alive when there is no food in the land.

20 We wait in hope for the LORD.
He helps us. He is like a shield that keeps us safe.
21 Our hearts are full of joy because of him.
We trust in him, because he is holy.
22 LORD, may your faithful love be with us.
We put our hope in you.

Psalm 34

A psalm of David when he was with Abimelek and pretended to be out of his mind. Abimelek drove him away, and David left.

[1]I will thank the LORD at all times.
My lips will always praise him.
[2]I will find my glory in knowing the LORD.
Let those who are hurting hear me and be joyful.
[3]Join me in giving glory to the LORD.
Let us honor him together.

[4]I looked to the LORD, and he answered me.
He saved me from everything I was afraid of.
[5]Those who look to him have joyful faces.
They are never covered with shame.
[6]This poor man called out, and the LORD heard him.
He saved him out of all his troubles.
[7]The angel of the LORD stands guard around those who have respect for him.
And he saves them.

[8]Taste and see that the LORD is good.
Blessed is the person who goes to him for safety.
[9]You holy people of God, have respect for the LORD.
Those who respect him have everything they need.
[10]The lions may grow weak and hungry.
But those who look to the LORD have every good thing they need.

[11]My children, come. Listen to me.
I will teach you to have respect for the LORD.
[12]Do you love life
and want to see many good days?
[13]Then keep your tongues from speaking evil.
Keep your lips from telling lies.
[14]Turn away from evil, and do good.

Look for peace, and go after it.

15 The LORD looks with favor on those who are godly.
His ears are open to their cry.
16 But the LORD doesn’t look with favor on those who do evil.
He removes all memory of them from the earth.

17 Godly people cry out, and the LORD hears them.
He saves them from all their troubles.
18 The LORD is close to those whose hearts have been broken.
He saves those whose spirits have been crushed.

19 The person who does what is right may have many troubles.
But the LORD saves him from all of them.
20 The LORD watches over all his bones.
Not one of them will be broken.

21 Sinners will be killed by their own evil.
The enemies of godly people will be judged.
22 The LORD will save those who serve him.
No one who goes to him for safety will be found guilty.

Psalm 35

A psalm of David.

[1]LORD, stand up against those who stand up against me.
Fight against those who fight against me.
[2]Pick up your shield and your armor.
Rise up and help me.
[3]Get your spear and javelin ready to fight against those who are chasing me.
Say to me, “I will save you.”

[4]Let those who are trying to kill me be brought down in dishonor.
Let those who plan to destroy me
be turned back in terror.
[5]Let them be like straw blowing in the wind,
while the angel of the LORD drives them away.
[6]Let their path be dark and slippery,
while the angel of the LORD chases them.
[7]They set a trap for me without any reason.
Without any reason they dug a pit to catch me.
[8]So let them be destroyed without warning.
Let the trap they set for me catch them.
Let them fall into the pit and be destroyed.
[9]Then I will be full of joy because of what the LORD has done.
I will be glad because he has saved me.
[10]My whole being will cry out,
“Who is like you, LORD?
You save poor people from those who are too strong for them.
You save poor and needy people from those who rob them.”

[11]Mean people come forward to speak against me.
They ask me things I don’t know anything about.
[12]They pay me back with evil, even though I was good to them.
They leave me like someone who has lost a family member.
[13]But when they were sick, I put on the clothing of sadness.

I made myself humble by going without food.
My prayers for them weren't always answered.
14 So I went around crying
as if I were mourning over my friend or relative.
I bowed my head in sadness
as if I were weeping over my mother.
15 But when I tripped and fell, they were all very happy.
Attackers gathered against me when I didn't even know it.
They kept on telling lies about me.
16 Like ungodly people, they were mean and made fun of me.
They ground their teeth at me in hate.
17 Lord, how much longer will you just look on?
Save me from their deadly attacks.
Save the only life I have.
Save me from these lions.
18 I will give you thanks in the whole community.
Among all your people I will praise you.

19 Don't let those who are my enemies without any reason laugh at me and make fun of me.
Don't let those who hate me without any reason wink at me with an evil purpose.
20 They don't speak words of peace.
They make up false charges against those who live quietly in the land.
21 They make fun of me.
They say, "With our own eyes we have seen what you did."

22 LORD, you have seen this. Don't be silent.
Lord, don't be far away from me.
23 Wake up! Rise up to help me!
My God and Lord, stand up for me.
24 LORD my God, when you hand down your sentence, let it be in my favor.
You always do what is right.
Don't let my enemies have the joy of seeing me fall.
25 Don't let them think, "That's exactly what we wanted!"

Don’t let them say, “We have swallowed him up.”

[26]Let all those who laugh at me because I’m in trouble be ashamed and bewildered.
Let all who think they are better than I am put on shame and dishonor as if they were clothes.
[27]Let those who are happy when my name is cleared shout with joy and gladness.
Let them always say, “May the LORD be honored.
He is pleased when everything goes well with the one who serves him.”
[28]You always do what is right. My tongue will speak about it and praise you all day long.

Psalm 36

For the director of music. A psalm of David, the servant of the LORD.

[1]I have a message from God in my heart.
It is about the evil ways of anyone who sins.
They don't have any respect for God.
[2]They praise themselves so much that they can't see their sin or hate it.
[3]Their mouths speak words that are evil and false.
They do not act wisely or do what is good.
[4]Even as they lie in bed they make evil plans.
They commit themselves to a sinful way of life.
They never say no to what is wrong.

[5]LORD, your love is as high as the heavens.
Your faithful love reaches up to the skies.
[6]Your holiness is as great as the height of the highest mountains.
You are as honest as the oceans are deep.
LORD, you keep people and animals safe.
[7]How priceless your faithful love is!
People find safety in the shadow of your wings.
[8]They eat well because there is more than enough in your house.
You let them drink from your river that flows with good things.
[9]You have the fountain of life.
We are filled with light because you give us light.

[10]Keep on loving those who know you.
Keep on doing right to those whose hearts are honest.
[11]Don't let the feet of those who are proud step on me.
Don't let the hands of those who are evil drive me away.
[12]See how those who do evil have fallen!
They are thrown down and can't get up.

Psalm 37

A psalm of David.

[1]Don’t be upset because of sinful people.
Don’t be jealous of those who do wrong.
[2]Like grass, they will soon dry up.
Like green plants, they will soon die.

[3]Trust in the LORD and do good.
Then you will live in the land and enjoy its food.
[4]Find your delight in the LORD.
Then he will give you everything your heart really wants.

[5]Commit your life to the LORD.
Here is what he will do if you trust in him.
[6]He will make the reward for your godly life shine like the dawn.
He will make the proof of your honest life shine like the sun at noon.

[7]Be still and wait patiently for the LORD to act.
Don’t be upset when other people succeed.
Don’t be upset when they carry out their evil plans.

[8]Turn away from anger and don’t give in to wrath.
Don’t be upset, because that only leads to evil.
[9]Sinful people will be destroyed.
But those who put their hope in the LORD will receive the land.

[10]In a little while, there won’t be any more sinners.
Even if you look for them, you won’t be able to find them.
[11]But those who are free of pride will be given the land.
They will enjoy peace and success.

[12]Sinful people make plans to harm those who do what is right.
They grind their teeth at them.
[13]But the Lord laughs at those who do evil.

He knows the day is coming when he will judge them.

14 Sinners pull out their swords.
They bend their bows.
They want to kill poor and needy people.
They plan to murder those who lead honest lives.
15 But they will be killed by their own swords.
Their own bows will be broken.

16 Those who do what is right may have very little.
But it's better than the wealth of many sinners.
17 The power of those who are evil will be broken.
But the LORD takes good care of those who do what is right.

18 Those who are without blame spend their days in the LORD's care.
What he has given them will last forever.
19 When trouble comes to them, they will have what they need.
When there is little food in the land, they will still have plenty.

20 But sinful people will die.
The LORD's enemies may be like flowers in the field.
But they will be swallowed up.
They will disappear like smoke.

21 Sinful people borrow and don't pay back.
But those who are godly give freely to others.
22 The LORD will give the land to those he blesses.
But he will destroy those he curses.

23 The LORD makes secure the footsteps of the person who delights in him,
24 Even if that person trips, he won't fall.
The LORD's hand takes good care of him.

25 I once was young, and now I'm old.
But I've never seen godly people deserted.
I've never seen their children begging for bread.

[26]The godly are always giving and lending freely.
Their children will be a blessing.

[27]Turn away from evil and do good.
Then you will live in the land forever.
[28]The LORD loves those who are honest.
He will not desert those who are faithful to him.

Those who do wrong will be completely destroyed.
The children of sinners will die.
[29]Those who do what is right will be given the land.
They will live in it forever.

[30]The mouths of those who do what is right speak words of wisdom.
They say what is honest.
[31]God's law is in their hearts.
Their feet do not slip.

[32]Those who are evil hide and wait for godly people.
They want to kill them.
[33]But the LORD will not leave the godly in their power.
He will not let them be found guilty when they are brought into court.

[34]Put your hope in the LORD.
Live as he wants you to.
He will honor you by giving you the land.
When sinners are destroyed, you will see it.

[35]I saw a mean and sinful person.
He was doing well, like a green tree in its own land.
[36]But he soon passed away and was gone.
Even though I looked for him, I couldn't find him.

[37]Consider honest people who are without blame.
People who seek peace will have a tomorrow.
[38]But all sinners will be destroyed.

Those who are evil won’t have a tomorrow.

39 The LORD saves those who do what is right.
He is their place of safety when trouble comes.
40 The LORD helps them and saves them.
He saves them from sinful people because they go to him for safety.

Psalm 38

A psalm of David. A prayer.

[1]LORD, don’t correct me when you are angry.
Don’t punish me when you are burning with anger.
[2]You have wounded me with your arrows.
You have struck me with your hand.
[3]Because of your anger, my whole body is sick.
Because of my sin, I’m not healthy.
[4]My guilt has become too much for me.
It is a load too heavy to carry.

[5]My wounds are ugly. They stink.
I’ve been foolish. I have sinned.
[6]I am bent over. I’ve been brought very low.
All day long I go around weeping.
[7]My back is filled with burning pain.
My whole body is sick.
[8]I am weak and feel as if I’ve been broken in pieces.
I groan because of the great pain in my heart.

[9]Lord, everything I really want is clearly known to you.
You always hear me when I sigh.
[10]My heart pounds, and my strength is gone.
My eyes can hardly see.
[11]My friends and companions avoid me because of my wounds.
My neighbors stay far away from me.
[12]Those who are trying to kill me set their traps.
Those who want to harm me talk about destroying me.
All day long they make their plans and tell their lies.

[13]Like a deaf person, I can’t hear.
Like someone who can’t speak, I can’t say a word.
[14]I’m like someone who doesn’t hear.
I’m like someone whose mouth can’t make any reply.
[15]LORD, I wait for you to help me.

Lord my God, I know you will answer.
16 I said, “Don’t let my enemies have the joy of seeing me fall.
Don’t let them brag when my feet slip.”

17 I am about to fall.
My pain never leaves me.
18 I admit that I have done wrong.
I am troubled by my sin.
19 Though I have done nothing to cause it, many people have become my enemies.
They hate me without any reason.
20 They pay me back with evil, even though I was good to them.
They bring charges against me, though I try only to do what is good.

21 LORD, don’t desert me.
My God, don’t be far away from me.
22 Lord my Savior,
come quickly to help me.

Psalm 39

For the director of music. For Jeduthun. A psalm of David.

[1]I said, “I will be careful about how I live.
I will not sin by what I say.
I will keep my mouth closed
when I am near sinful people.”
[2]So I was completely silent.
I didn’t even say anything good.
But the pain inside me grew worse.
[3]My heart was deeply troubled.
As I thought about what was happening to me,
I became even more troubled.
Then I spoke out.

[4]I said, “LORD, show me when my life will end.
Show me how many days I have left.
Tell me how short my life will be.
[5]You have given me only a few days to live.
My whole life doesn’t seem like anything to you.
No one lasts any longer than a breath.
This is true even for those who feel secure.
[6]People are only shadows as they go here and there.
They rush around, but it doesn’t mean anything.
They pile up wealth, but they don’t know who will finally get it.

[7]“Lord, what can I look forward to now?
You are the only hope I have.
[8]Save me from all the wrong things I’ve done.
Don’t let foolish people make fun of me.
[9]I keep silent. I don’t open my mouth.
You are the one who has caused all this to happen.
[10]Please stop beating me.
I’m about to die from the blows of your hand.
[11]You correct and punish people for their sin.
Then, just as a moth eats cloth, you destroy their wealth.

No one lasts any longer than a breath.

12 “LORD, hear my prayer.
Listen to my cry for help.
Pay attention to my weeping.
I’m like an outsider in your home.
I’m just a stranger, like all my family who lived before me.
13 Leave me alone.
Let me enjoy life again before I die.”

Psalm 40

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

[1]I was patient while I waited for the LORD.
He turned to me and heard my cry for help.
[2]I was sliding down into the pit of death, and he pulled me out.
He brought me up out of the mud and dirt.
He set my feet on a rock.
He gave me a firm place to stand on.
[3]He gave me a new song to sing.
It is a hymn of praise to our God.
Many people will see and have respect for the LORD.
They will put their trust in him.

[4]Blessed is the person who trusts in the LORD.
They don't trust in proud people.
Those proud people worship statues of gods.
[5]LORD my God,
no one can compare with you.
You have done many wonderful things.
You have planned to do these things for us.
There are too many of them
for me to talk about.

[6]You didn't want sacrifices and offerings.
You didn't require burnt offerings and sin offerings.
You opened my ears so that I could hear you and obey you.
[7]Then I said, "Here I am.
It is written about me in the book.
[8]My God, I have come to do what you want.
Your law is in my heart."

[9]I have told the whole community of those who worship you.
I have told them what you have done to save me.
LORD, you know that I haven’t kept quiet.

10 I haven’t kept to myself that what you did for me was right.
I have spoken about how faithful you were when you saved me.
I haven’t hidden your love and your faithfulness from the whole community.

11 LORD, don’t hold back your mercy from me.
May your love and faithfulness always keep me safe.
12 There are more troubles all around me than I can count.
My sins have caught up with me, and I can’t see any longer.
My sins are more than the hairs of my head.
I have lost all hope.

13 LORD, please save me.
LORD, come quickly to help me.
14 Let all those who are trying to kill me be put to shame.
Let them lose their way.
Let all those who want to destroy me
be turned back in shame.
15 Some people make fun of me.
Let them be shocked when their plans fail.
16 But let all those who seek you
be joyful and glad because of what you have done.
Let those who count on you to save them always say,
“The LORD is great!”

17 But I am poor and needy.
May the Lord be concerned about me.
You are the God who helps me and saves me.
You are my God, so don’t wait any longer.

Psalm 41

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

[1]Blessed are those who care about weak people.
When they are in trouble, the LORD saves them.
[2]The LORD guards them and keeps them alive.
They are counted among those who are blessed in the land.
The LORD won't hand them over to the wishes of their enemies.
[3]The LORD will take care of them when they are lying sick in bed.
He will make them well again.

[4]I said, "LORD, have mercy on me.
Heal me, because I have sinned against you."
[5]My enemies are saying bad things about me.
They say, "When will he die and his name be forgotten?"
[6]When one of them comes to see me,
he says things that aren't true.
At the same time, he thinks up lies to tell against me.
Then he goes out and spreads those lies around.

[7]All my enemies whisper to each other about me.
They want something terrible to happen to me.
[8]They say, "He is sick and will die very soon.
He will never get up from his bed again."
[9]Even my close friend, someone I trusted, has failed me.
I even shared my bread with him.

[10]But LORD, may you have mercy on me.
Make me well, so I can pay them back.
[11]Then I will know that you are pleased with me, because my enemies haven't won the battle over me.
[12]You will take good care of me because I've been honest.
You will let me be with you forever.

[13]Give praise to the LORD, the God of Israel,

for ever and ever.
Amen and Amen.

BOOK II

Psalms 42–72

Psalm 42

For the director of music. A maskil of the Sons of Korah.

[1]A deer longs for streams of water.
God, I long for you in the same way.
[2]I am thirsty for God. I am thirsty for the living God.
When can I go and meet with him?
[3]My tears have been my food
day and night.
All day long people say to me,
"Where is your God?"
[4]When I remember what has happened,
I tell God all my troubles.
I remember how I used to walk to the house of God.
The Mighty One guarded my steps.
We shouted with joy and praised God
as we went along with the joyful crowd.

[5]My spirit, why are you so sad?
Why are you so upset deep down inside me?
Put your hope in God.
Once again I will have reason to praise him.
He is my Savior and my God.

[6]My spirit is very sad deep down inside me.
So I will remember you here where the Jordan River begins.
I will remember you here on the Hermon mountains and on Mount Mizar.
[7]You have sent wave upon wave of trouble over me.
It roars down on me like a waterfall.
All your waves and breakers have rolled over me.

[8]During the day the LORD sends his love to me.
During the night I sing about him.
I say a prayer to the God who gives me life.

[9]I say to God my Rock,
"Why have you forgotten me?
Why must I go around in sorrow?
Why am I treated so badly by my enemies?"
[10]My body suffers deadly pain as my enemies make fun of me.
All day long they say to me,
"Where is your God?"

[11]My spirit, why are you so sad?
Why are you so upset deep down inside me?
Put your hope in God.
Once again I will have reason to praise him.
He is my Savior and my God.

Psalm 43

[1]My God, when you hand down your decision, let it be in my favor.
Stand up for me against an unfaithful nation.
Save me from those lying and sinful people.
[2]You are God, my place of safety.
Why have you turned your back on me?
Why must I go around in sorrow?
Why am I beaten down by my enemies?
[3]Send me your light and your faithful care.
Let them lead me.
Let them bring me back to your holy mountain,
to the place where you live.
[4]Then I will go to the altar of God.
I will go to God. He is my joy and my delight.
God, you are my God.
I will praise you by playing the lyre.

[5]My spirit, why are you so sad?
Why are you so upset deep down inside me?
Put your hope in God.
Once again I will have reason to praise him.
He is my Savior and my God.

Psalm 44

For the director of music. A maskil of the Sons of Korah.

[1]God, we have heard what you did.
Those who came before us have told us what you did in their days,
in days long ago.
[2]By your power you drove out the nations.
You gave our people homes in the land.
You crushed the people who were there.
And you made our people do well.
[3]They didn't win the land with their swords.
They didn't gain success by their own power.
Your powerful right hand and your mighty arm gave them victory.
You gave them success because you loved them.

[4]You are my King and my God.
You give victories to the people of Jacob.
[5]With your help we push back our enemies.
By your power we walk all over them.
[6]I put no trust in my bow.
My sword doesn't bring me victory.
[7]But you give us victory over our enemies.
You put them to shame.
[8]All day long we talk about how great God is.
We will praise your name forever.

[9]But now you have turned your back on us and made us humble.
You don't march out with our armies anymore.
[10]You made us turn and run from our enemies.
They have taken what belongs to us.
[11]You handed us over to be eaten up like sheep.
You have scattered us among the nations.
[12]You sold your people for very little.
You didn't gain anything when you sold them.

13 You have made us something that our neighbors laugh at.
Those who live around us make fun of us and tease us.
14 The nations make jokes about us.
They shake their heads at us.
15 All day long I have to live with my shame.
My face is covered with it.
16 That's because they laugh at me and attack me with their words.
They want to get even with me.

17 All of this happened to us,
even though we had not forgotten you.
We had not broken the covenant you made with us.
18 Our hearts had not turned away from you.
Our feet had not wandered from your path.
19 But you crushed us and left us to the wild dogs.
You covered us over with deep darkness.

20 We didn't forget our God.
We didn't spread out our hands in prayer to a false god.
21 If we had, God would have discovered it.
He knows the secrets of our hearts.
22 But because of you, we face death all day long.
We are considered as sheep to be killed.

23 Lord, wake up! Why are you sleeping?
Get up! Don't say no to us forever.
24 Why do you turn your face away from us?
Why do you forget our pain and troubles?

25 We are brought down to the dust.
Our bodies lie flat on the ground.
26 Rise up and help us.
Save us because of your faithful love.

Psalm 45

For the director of music. A maskil of the Sons of Korah. A wedding song to the tune of “Lilies.”

[1]My heart is full of beautiful words as I say my poem for the king.
My tongue is like the pen of a skillful writer.

[2]You are the most excellent of men.
Your lips have been given the ability to speak gracious words.
God has blessed you forever.
[3]Mighty one, put your sword at your side.
Put on glory and majesty as if they were your clothes.
[4]In your majesty ride out with power to fight for what is true, humble and fair.
Let your right hand do wonderful things.
[5]Shoot your sharp arrows into the hearts of your enemies.
Let the nations come under your control.
[6]Your throne is the very throne of God.
Your kingdom will last for ever and ever.
You will rule by treating everyone fairly.
[7]You love what is right and hate what is evil.
So your God has placed you above your companions.
He has filled you with joy by pouring the sacred oil on your head.
[8]Myrrh and aloes and cassia make all your robes smell good.
In palaces decorated with ivory
the music played on stringed instruments makes you glad.
[9]Daughters of kings are among the women you honor.
At your right hand is the royal bride dressed in gold from Ophir.

[10]Royal bride, listen and pay careful attention.
Forget about your people and the home you came from.
[11]Let the king be charmed by your beauty.
Honor him. He is now your master.
[12]The people of Tyre will come with gifts.
Wealthy people will try to gain your favor.

[13]In her room, the princess looks glorious.
Her gown has gold threads running through it.
[14]Dressed in beautiful clothes, she is led to the king.
Her virgin companions follow her.
They have been brought to be with her.
[15]They are led in with joy and gladness.
They enter the palace of the king.

[16]Your sons will rule just as your father and grandfather did.
You will make them princes through the whole land.
[17]I will make sure that people will always remember you.
The nations will praise you for ever and ever.

Psalm 46

For the director of music. A song of the Sons of Korah. According to alamoth.

[1]God is our place of safety. He gives us strength.
He is always there to help us in times of trouble.
[2]The earth may fall apart.
The mountains may fall into the middle of the sea.
But we will not be afraid.
[3]The waters of the sea may roar and foam.
The mountains may shake when the waters rise.
But we will not be afraid.

[4]God's blessings are like a river. They fill the city of God with joy.
That city is the holy place where the Most High God lives.
[5]Because God is there, the city will not fall.
God will help it at the beginning of the day.
[6]Nations are in disorder. Kingdoms fall.
God speaks, and the people of the earth melt in fear.

[7]The LORD who rules over all is with us.
The God of Jacob is like a fort to us.

[8]Come and see what the LORD has done.
See the places he has destroyed on the earth.
[9]He makes wars stop from one end of the earth to the other.
He breaks every bow. He snaps every spear.
He burns every shield with fire.
[10]He says, "Be still, and know that I am God.
I will be honored among the nations.
I will be honored in the earth."

[11]The LORD who rules over all is with us.
The God of Jacob is like a fort to us.

Psalm 47

For the director of music. A psalm of the Sons of Korah.

[1]Clap your hands, all you nations.
Shout to God with cries of joy.
[2]Do this because the LORD Most High is wonderful.
He is the great King over the whole earth.
[3]He brought nations under our control.
He made them fall under us.
[4]He chose our land for us.
The people of Jacob are proud of their land,
and God loves them.

[5]God went up to his throne while his people were shouting with joy.
The LORD went up while trumpets were playing.
[6]Sing praises to God. Sing praises.
Sing praises to our King. Sing praises.

[7]God is the King of the whole earth.
Sing a psalm of praise to him.
[8]God rules over the nations.
He is seated on his holy throne.
[9]The nobles of the nations come together.
They are now part of the people of the God of Abraham.
The kings of the earth belong to God.
He is greatly honored.

Psalm 48

A song. A psalm of the Sons of Korah.

[1]The LORD is great. He is really worthy of praise.
Praise him in the city of our God, his holy mountain.
[2]Mount Zion is high and beautiful.
It brings joy to everyone on earth.
Mount Zion is like the highest parts of Mount Zaphon.
It is the city of the Great King.
[3]God is there to keep it safe.
He has shown himself to be like a fort to the city.

[4]Many kings joined forces.
They entered Israel together.
[5]But when they saw Mount Zion, they were amazed.
They ran away in terror.
[6]Trembling took hold of them.
They felt pain like a woman giving birth.
[7]LORD, you destroyed them like ships of Tarshish that were torn apart by an east wind.

[8]What we heard we have also seen.
We have seen it
in the city of the LORD who rules over all.
We have seen it in the city of our God.
We have heard and seen that God makes it secure forever.

[9]God, inside your temple we think about your faithful love.
[10]God, your fame reaches from one end of the earth to the other.
So people praise you from one end of the earth to the other.
You use your power to do what is right.
[11]Mount Zion is filled with joy.
The villages of Judah are glad.
That’s because you judge fairly.

[12]Walk all around Zion.
Count its towers.
[13]Think carefully about its outer walls.
Just look at how safe it is!
Then you can tell its people that God keeps them safe.
[14]This God is our God for ever and ever.
He will be our guide to the very end.

Psalm 49

For the director of music. A psalm of the Sons of Korah.

[1]Hear this, all you nations.
Listen, all you who live in this world.
[2]Listen, people, whether you are ordinary or important.
Listen, people, whether you are rich or poor.
[3]My mouth will speak wise words.
What I think about in my heart will give you understanding.
[4]I will pay attention to a proverb.
I will explain my riddle as I play the harp.

[5]Why should I be afraid when trouble comes?
Why should I fear when sinners are all around me?
They are the kind of people who want to take advantage of me.
[6]They trust in their wealth.
They brag about how rich they are.
[7]No one can pay for the life of anyone else.
No one can give God what that would cost.
[8]The price for a life is very high.
No payment is ever enough.
[9]No one can pay enough to live forever and not rot in the grave.

[10]Everyone can see that even wise people die.
People who are foolish and who have no sense also pass away.
All of them leave their wealth to others.
[11]Their tombs will remain their houses forever.
Their graves will be their homes for all time to come.
Naming lands after themselves won’t help either.

[12]Even though people may be very rich, they don’t live on and on.
They are like the animals. They die.

[13]That’s what happens to those who trust in themselves.
It also happens to their followers, who agree with what they say.

[14]They are like sheep and will end up in the grave.
Death will be their shepherd.
But when honest people come to power, a new day will dawn.
The bodies of sinners will waste away in the grave.
They will end up far away from their princely houses.
[15]But God will save me from the place of the dead.
He will certainly take me to himself.

[16]Don’t get too upset when other people become rich.
Don’t be troubled when they become more and more wealthy.
[17]They won’t take anything with them when they die.
Their riches won’t go down to the grave with them.
[18]While they lived, they believed they were blessed.
People praised them when things were going well for them.
[19]But they will die, like their people of long ago.
They will never again see the light of life.

[20]People who have riches but don’t understand are like the animals. They die.

Psalm 50

A psalm of Asaph.

[1]The Mighty One, God, the LORD, speaks.
He calls out to the earth from the sunrise in the east to the sunset in the west.
[2]From Zion, perfect and beautiful,
God’s glory shines out.
[3]Our God comes, and he won’t be silent.
A burning fire goes ahead of him.
A terrible storm is all around him.
[4]He calls out to heaven and earth to be his witnesses.
Then he judges his people.
[5]He says, “Gather this holy people around me.
They made a covenant with me by offering a sacrifice.”
[6]The heavens announce that what God decides is right.
That’s because he is a God of justice.

[7]God says, “Listen, my people, and I will speak.
I will be a witness against you, Israel.
I am God, your God.
[8]I don’t bring charges against you because of your sacrifices.
I don’t bring charges because of the burnt offerings you always bring me.
[9]I don’t need a bull from your barn.
I don’t need goats from your pens.
[10]Every animal in the forest already belongs to me.
And so do the cattle on a thousand hills.
[11]I own every bird in the mountains.
The insects in the fields belong to me.
[12]If I were hungry, I wouldn’t tell you.
The world belongs to me. And so does everything in it.
[13]Do I eat the meat of bulls?
Do I drink the blood of goats?

[14]Bring me thank offerings, because I am your God.
Carry out the promises you made to me, because I am the Most High God.
[15]Call out to me when trouble comes.
I will save you. And you will honor me.”

[16]But here is what God says to a sinful person.

“What right do you have to speak the words of my laws?
How dare you speak the words of my covenant!
[17]You hate my teaching.
You turn your back on what I say.
[18]When you see a thief, you join him.
You make friends with those who commit adultery.
[19]You use your mouth to speak evil.
You use your tongue to spread lies.
[20]You are a witness against your brother.
You always tell lies about your own mother’s son.
[21]When you did these things, I kept silent.
So you thought I was just like you.
But now I’m going to bring you to court.
I will bring charges against you.

[22]“You who forget God, think about this.
If you don’t, I will tear you to pieces.
No one will be able to save you.
[23]People who sacrifice thank offerings to me honor me.
To those who are without blame I will show my power to save.”

Psalm 51

For the director of music. A psalm of David when the prophet Nathan came to him. Nathan came to him after David had committed adultery with Bathsheba.

[1]God, have mercy on me
according to your faithful love.
Because your love is so tender and kind,
wipe out my lawless acts.
[2]Wash away all the evil things I've done.
Make me pure from my sin.

[3]I know the lawless acts I've committed.
I can't forget my sin.
[4]You are the one I've really sinned against.
I've done what is evil in your sight.
So you are right when you sentence me.
You are fair when you judge me.
[5]I know I've been a sinner ever since I was born.
I've been a sinner ever since my mother became pregnant with me.
[6]I know that you wanted faithfulness even when I was in my mother's body.
You taught me wisdom in that secret place.

[7]Sprinkle me with hyssop, then I will be clean.
Wash me, then I will be whiter than snow.
[8]Let me hear you say, "Your sins are forgiven."
That will bring me joy and gladness.
Let the body you have broken be glad.
[9]Take away all my sins.
Wipe away all the evil things I've done.

[10]God, create a pure heart in me.
Give me a new spirit that is faithful to you.
[11]Don't send me away from you.
Don't take your Holy Spirit away from me.

[12]Give me back the joy that comes from being saved by you.
Give me a spirit that obeys you so that I will keep going.

[13]Then I will teach your ways to those who commit lawless acts.
And sinners will turn back to you.
[14]You are the God who saves me.
I have committed murder.
God, take away my guilt.
Then my tongue will sing about how right you are no matter what you do.
[15]Lord, open my lips so that I can speak.
Then my mouth will praise you.
[16]You don’t take delight in sacrifice.
If you did, I would bring it.
You don’t take pleasure in burnt offerings.
[17]The greatest sacrifice you want is a broken spirit.
God, you will gladly accept a heart that is broken because of sadness over sin.

[18]May you be pleased to give Zion success.
May it please you to build up the walls of Jerusalem.
[19]Then you will delight in the sacrifices of those who do what is right.
Whole burnt offerings will bring delight to you.
And bulls will be offered on your altar.

Psalm 52

For the director of music. A maskil of David when Doeg, who was from Edom, had gone to Saul. Doeg had told Saul, “David has gone to the house of Ahimelek.”

[1]You think you are such a big, strong man!
Why do you brag about the evil things you’ve done?
You are a dishonor to God all the time.
[2]You plan ways to destroy others.
Your tongue is like a blade that has a sharp edge.
You are always telling lies.
[3]You love evil instead of good.
You would rather lie than tell the truth.
[4]You love to harm others with your words, you liar!

[5]So God will destroy you forever.
He will grab you and pluck you from your tent.
He will remove you from this life.
[6]Those who do what is right will see it and learn a lesson from it.
They will laugh at you and say,
[7]“Just look at this fellow!
He didn’t depend on God for his safety.
He put his trust in all his wealth.
He grew strong by destroying others!”

[8]But I am like a healthy olive tree.
My roots are deep in the house of God.
I trust in your faithful love
for ever and ever.
[9]I will praise you forever for what you have done.
I will praise you when I’m with your faithful people.
I will put my hope in you because you are good.

Psalm 53

For the director of music. According to mahalath. A maskil of David.

[1]Foolish people say in their hearts,
“There is no God.”
They do all kinds of horrible and evil things.
No one does anything good.

[2]God looks down from heaven
on all people.
He wants to see if there are any who understand.
He wants to see if there are any who trust in God.
[3]All of them have turned away.
They have all become evil.
No one does anything good,
no one at all.

[4]Don’t these people who do evil know anything?
They eat up my people as if they were eating bread.
They never call out to God for help.
[5]Just look at them! They are filled with terror even when there is nothing to be afraid of!
People of Israel, God scattered the bones of those who attacked you.
You put them to shame, because God hated them.

[6]How I pray that the God who saves Israel will come out of Zion!
God will bless his people with great success again.
Then let the people of Jacob be filled with joy! Let Israel be glad!

Psalm 54

For the director of music. To be played on stringed instruments. A maskil of David when the men from Ziph had gone to Saul. They had said, “Isn’t David hiding among us?”

[1]God, save me by your power.
Set me free by your might.
[2]God, hear my prayer.
Listen to what I’m saying.

[3]Enemies who are proud are attacking me.
Mean people are trying to kill me.
They don’t care about God.

[4]But I know that God helps me.
The Lord is the one who keeps me going.

[5]My enemies tell lies about me.
Do to them the evil things they planned against me.
God, be faithful and destroy them.

[6]I will sacrifice an offering to you just because I choose to.
LORD, I will praise your name
because it is good.
[7]You have saved me from all my troubles.
With my own eyes I have seen you win the battle over my enemies.

Psalm 55

For the director of music. A maskil of David to be played on stringed instruments.

[1]God, listen to my prayer.
Pay attention to my cry for help.
[2]Hear me and answer me.
My thoughts upset me. I'm very troubled.
[3]I'm troubled by what my enemies say about me.
I'm upset because they say they will harm me.
They cause me all kinds of suffering.
When they are angry, they attack me with their words.

[4]I feel great pain deep down inside me.
The terrors of death have fallen on me.
[5]Fear and trembling have taken hold of me.
Panic has overpowered me.
[6]I said, "I wish I had wings like a dove!
Then I would fly away and be at rest.
[7]I would escape to a place far away.
I would stay out in the desert.
[8]I would hurry to my place of safety.
It would be far away from the winds and storms I'm facing."

[9]Lord, confuse the sinners and keep them from understanding one another.
I see people destroying things and fighting in the city.
[10]Day and night they prowl around on top of its walls.
The city is full of crime and trouble.
[11]Forces that destroy are at work inside it.
Its streets are full of people who cheat others and take advantage of them.

[12]If an enemy were making fun of me,
I could stand it.
If he were getting ready to oppose me,
I could hide.

13 But it’s you, someone like myself.
It’s my companion, my close friend.
14 We used to enjoy good friendship at the house of God.
We used to walk together among those who came to worship.

15 Let death take my enemies by surprise.
Let them be buried alive,
because their hearts and homes are full of evil.

16 But I call out to God.
And the LORD saves me.
17 Evening, morning and noon
I groan and cry out.
And he hears my voice.
18 Even though many enemies are fighting against me,
he brings me safely back from the battle.
19 God has been on his throne since ancient times and does not change.
He will hear my enemies and make them humble.
That’s because they have no respect for God.

20 My companion attacks his friends.
He breaks his promise.
21 His talk is as smooth as butter.
But he has war in his heart.
His words flow like olive oil.
But they are like swords ready for battle.

22 Turn your worries over to the LORD.
He will keep you going.
He will never let godly people be shaken.
23 God, you will bring sinners down to the grave.
Murderers and liars
won’t live out even half of their lives.

But I trust in you.

Psalm 56

For the director of music. A miktam of David after the Philistines had captured him in Gath. To the tune of “A Dove on Distant Oak Trees.”

[1]Help me, God. Men are chasing me.
All day long they keep attacking me.
[2]My enemies chase me all day long.
Many proud people are attacking me.

[3]When I’m afraid,
I put my trust in you.
[4]I trust in God. I praise his word.
I trust in God. I am not afraid.
What can mere people do to me?

[5]All day long they twist my words.
They are always making plans to destroy me.
[6]They get together and hide.
They watch my steps.
They hope to kill me.

[7]Because they are so evil, make sure you don’t let them escape.
God, bring down the nations in your anger.
[8]Make a record of my sadness.
List my tears in your book.
Aren’t you making a record of them?

[9]My enemies will turn back
when I call out to you for help.
Then I will know that God is on my side.
[10]I trust in God. I praise his word.
I trust in the LORD. I praise his word.
[11]I trust in God. I am not afraid.
What can mere people do to me?

[12]God, I have made promises to you.

I will bring my thank offerings to you.
13 You have saved me from the darkness of death.
You have kept me from tripping and falling.
Now I can live with you in the light of life.

Psalm 57

For the director of music. A miktam of David when he had run away from Saul into the cave. To the tune of “Do Not Destroy.”

[1]Have mercy on me, God. Have mercy on me.
I go to you for safety.
I will find safety in the shadow of your wings.
There I will stay until the danger is gone.

[2]I cry out to God Most High.
I cry out to God, and he shows that I am right.
[3]He answers from heaven and saves me.
He puts to shame those who chase me.
He shows his love and that he is faithful.

[4]Men who are like lions are all around me.
I am forced to lie down among people who are like hungry animals.
Their teeth are like spears and arrows.
Their tongues are like sharp swords.

[5]God, may you be honored above the heavens.
Let your glory be over the whole earth.

[6]My enemies spread a net to catch me by the feet.
I felt helpless.
They dug a pit in my path.
But they fell into it themselves.

[7]God, my heart feels secure.
My heart feels secure.
I will sing and make music to you.
[8]My spirit, wake up!
Harp and lyre, wake up!
I want to sing and make music before the sun rises.

[9]Lord, I will praise you among the nations.

I will sing about you among the people of the earth.
10 Great is your love. It reaches to the heavens.
Your truth reaches to the skies.

11 God, may you be honored above the heavens.
Let your glory be over the whole earth.

Psalm 58

For the director of music. A miktam of David to the tune of “Do Not Destroy.”

[1]Are you rulers really fair when you speak?
Do you judge people honestly?
[2]No, in your hearts you plan to be unfair.
With your hands you do terrible things on the earth.
[3]Even from birth those who are evil go down the wrong path.
From the day they are born they go the wrong way and spread lies.
[4]Their words are like the poison of a snake.
They are like the poison of a cobra that has covered up its ears.
[5]It won’t listen to a snake charmer’s tune, even if the charmer plays very well.

[6]God, break the teeth in the mouths of those sinners!
LORD, tear out the sharp teeth of those lions!
[7]Let those people disappear like water that flows away.
When they draw their bows, let their arrows fall short of the target.
[8]Let them be like a slug that melts away as it moves along.
Let them be like a baby that is born dead and never sees the sun.

[9]Evil people will be swept away before burning thorns can heat a pot.
And it doesn’t matter if the thorns are green or dry.
[10]Godly people will be glad when those who have hurt them are paid back.
They will dip their feet in the blood of those who do evil.
[11]Then people will say,
“The godly will get their reward.
There really is a God who judges the earth.”

Psalm 59

For the director of music. A miktam of David when Saul had sent men to watch David's house. Saul sent the men to kill David. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy."

[1]God, save me from my enemies.
Keep me safe from people who are attacking me.
[2]Save me from those who do evil.
Save me from people who want to kill me.

[3]See how they hide and wait for me!
LORD, angry people plan to harm me, even though I haven't hurt them in any way or sinned against them.
[4]I haven't done anything wrong to them. But they are ready to attack me.
Rise up and help me! Look at what I'm up against!
[5]LORD God who rules over all, rise up. God of Israel, punish all the nations.
Don't show any mercy to those sinful people who have turned against me.

[6]My enemies are like a pack of barking dogs that come back to the city in the evening.
They prowl around the city.
[7]Listen to what pours out of their mouths.
The words from their lips are like swords.
They think, "Who can hear us?"
[8]But you laugh at them, LORD.
You make fun of all those nations.

[9]You give me strength. I look to you.
God, you are like a fort to me. [10]You are my God, and I can depend on you.

God will march out in front of me.
He will let me look down on those who tell lies about me.

[11]Lord, you are like a shield that keeps us safe.
Don’t kill my enemies all at once.
If you do, my people will forget about it.
Use your power to pull my enemies up by the roots like weeds.
Destroy them.
[12]They have sinned with their mouths.
Their lips have spoken evil words.
They have cursed me and lied.
Let them be caught in their pride.
[13]Burn them up in your anger.
Burn them up until there isn’t anything left of them.
Then everyone from one end of the earth to the other will know that God rules over the people of Jacob.

[14]My enemies are like a pack of barking dogs that come back into the city in the evening.
They prowl around the city.
[15]They wander around looking for food.
They groan if they don’t find something that will satisfy them.
[16]But I will sing about your strength.
In the morning I will sing about your love.
You are like a fort to me.
You keep me safe in times of trouble.

[17]You give me strength. I sing praise to you.
God, you are like a fort to me. You are my God, and I can depend on you.

Psalm 60

For the director of music. For teaching. A miktam of David when he fought against Aram Naharaim and Aram Zobah. That was when Joab returned and struck down 12,000 people from Edom in the Valley of Salt. To the tune of “The Lily of the Covenant.”

[1]God, you have turned away from us. You have attacked us.
You have been angry. Now turn back to us!
[2]You have shaken the land and torn it open.
Fix its cracks, because it is falling apart.
[3]You have shown your people hard times.
You have made us drink the wine of your anger.
Now we can’t even walk straight.

[4]But you lead into battle those who have respect for you.
You give them a flag to wave against the enemy’s weapons.

[5]Save us and help us by your power.
Do this so that those you love may be saved.
[6]God has spoken from his temple.
He has said, “I will win the battle.
Then I will divide up the land around Shechem.
I will divide up the Valley of Sukkoth.
[7]Gilead belongs to me.
So does the land of Manasseh.
Ephraim is the strongest tribe.
It is like a helmet for my head.
Judah is the royal tribe.
It is like a ruler’s scepter.
[8]Moab serves me like one who washes my feet.
I toss my sandal on Edom to show that I own it.
I shout to Philistia that I have won the battle.”

[9]Who will bring me to the city that has high walls around it?
Who will lead me to the land of Edom?
[10]God, isn’t it you, even though you have now turned away from us?
Isn’t it you, even though you don’t lead our armies into battle anymore?

[11]Help us against our enemies.
The help people give doesn’t amount to anything.
[12]With your help we will win the battle.
You will walk all over our enemies.

Psalm 61

For the director of music. A psalm of David to be played on stringed instruments.

[1]God, hear my cry for help.
Listen to my prayer.

[2]From a place far away I call out to you.
I call out as my heart gets weaker.
Lead me to the safety of a rock that is high above me.
[3]You have always kept me safe from my enemies.
You are like a strong tower to me.

[4]I long to live in your holy tent forever.
There I find safety in the shadow of your wings.
[5]God, you have heard my promises.
You have given me what belongs to those who worship you.

[6]Add many days to the king's life.
Let him live on and on for many years.
[7]May he always enjoy your blessing as he rules.
Let your love and truth keep him safe.

[8]Then I will always sing praise to you.
I will keep my promises day after day.

Psalm 62

For the director of music. For Jeduthun. A psalm of David.

[1]It is surely true that I find my rest in God.
He is the God who saves me.
[2]It is surely true that he is my rock. He is the God who saves me.
He is like a fort to me. I will always be secure.

[3]How long will you enemies attack me?
Will all of you throw me down?
I'm like a leaning wall.
I'm like a fence about to fall.
[4]Surely my enemies only want to pull me down from my place of honor.
They take delight in telling lies.
They bless me with what they say.
But in their hearts they ask for bad things to happen to me.

[5]Yes, I must find my rest in God.
He is the God who gives me hope.
[6]It is surely true that he is my rock and the God who saves me.
He is like a fort to me, so I will always be secure.
[7]I depend on God to save me and to honor me.
He is my mighty rock and my place of safety.
[8]Trust in him at all times, you people.
Tell him all your troubles.
God is our place of safety.

[9]Surely ordinary people are only a breath.
Important people are not what they seem to be.
If they were weighed on a scale, they wouldn't amount to anything.
Together they are only a breath.
[10]Don't trust in money you have taken from others.
Don't put false hope in things you have stolen.
Even if your riches grow,

don’t put your trust in them.

[11]God, I have heard you say two things.
One is that power belongs to you, God.
[12]The other is that your love, Lord, never ends.
You will reward everyone in keeping with what they have done.

Psalm 63

A psalm of David when he was in the Desert of Judah.

[1]God, you are my God.
I seek you with all my heart.
With all my strength I thirst for you in this dry desert
where there isn't any water.

[2]I have seen you in the sacred tent.
There I have seen your power and your glory.
[3]Your love is better than life.
So I will bring glory to you with my lips.
[4]I will praise you as long as I live.
I will call on your name when I lift up my hands in prayer.
[5]I will be as satisfied as if I had eaten the best food there is.
I will sing praise to you with my mouth.

[6]As I lie on my bed I remember you.
I think of you all night long.
[7]Because you have helped me,
I sing in the shadow of your wings.
[8]I hold on to you tightly.
Your powerful right hand takes good care of me.

[9]Those who want to kill me will be destroyed.
They will go down into the grave.
[10]They will be killed by swords.
They will become food for wild dogs.

[11]But the king will be filled with joy because of what God has done.
All those who make promises in God's name will be able to brag.
But the mouths of liars will be shut.

Psalm 64

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

[1]God, hear me as I tell you my problem.
Don’t let my enemies kill me.
[2]Hide me from evil people who talk about how to harm me.
Hide me from those people who are planning to do evil.

[3]They make their tongues like sharp swords.
They aim their mean words like deadly arrows.
[4]They shoot from their hiding places at people who aren’t guilty.
They shoot quickly and aren’t afraid of being caught.

[5]They help one another make evil plans.
They talk about hiding their traps.
They say, “Who can see what we are doing?”
[6]They make plans to do what is evil.
They say, “We have thought up a perfect plan!”
The hearts and minds of people are so clever!

[7]But God will shoot my enemies with his arrows.
He will suddenly strike them down.
[8]He will turn their own words against them.
He will destroy them.
All those who see them will shake their heads and look down on them.

[9]All people will respect God.
They will tell about his works.
They will think about what he has done.
[10]Godly people will be full of joy because of what the LORD has done.
They will go to him for safety.
All those whose hearts are honest will be proud of what he has done.

Psalm 65

For the director of music. A psalm of David. A song.

[1]Our God, we look forward to praising you in Zion.
We will keep our promises to you.
[2]All people will come to you,
because you hear and answer prayer.
[3]When our sins became too much for us,
you forgave our lawless acts.
[4]Blessed are those you choose and bring near to worship you.
You bring us into the courtyards of your holy temple.
There in your house we are filled with all kinds of good things.

[5]God our Savior, you answer us with right and wonderful deeds.
People all over the world and beyond the farthest oceans put their hope in you.
[6]You formed the mountains by your power.
You showed how strong you are.
[7]You calmed the oceans and their roaring waves.
You calmed the angry words and actions of the nations.
[8]Everyone on earth is amazed at the wonderful things you have done.
What you do makes people from one end of the earth to the other sing for joy.

[9]You take care of the land and water it.
You make it able to grow many crops.
You fill your streams with water.
You do that to provide the people with grain.
That's what you have decided to do for the land.
[10]You water its rows.
You smooth out its bumps.
You soften it with showers.
And you bless its crops.
[11]You bring the year to a close with huge crops.

You provide more than enough food.
12 The grass grows thick even in the desert.
The hills are dressed with gladness.
13 The meadows are covered with flocks and herds.
The valleys are dressed with grain.
They sing and shout for joy.

Psalm 66

For the director of music. A song. A psalm.

[1]Shout to God for joy, everyone on earth!
[2]Sing about the glory of his name!
Give him glorious praise!
[3]Say to God, “What wonderful things you do!
Your power is so great that your enemies bow down to you in fear.
[4]Everyone on earth bows down to you.
They sing praise to you.
They sing the praises of your name.”

[5]Come and see what God has done.
See what wonderful things he has done for people!
[6]He turned the Red Sea into dry land.
The people of Israel passed through the waters on foot.
Come, let us be full of joy because of what he did.
[7]He rules by his power forever.
His eyes watch the nations.
Let no one who refuses to obey him rise up against him.

[8]Praise our God, all you nations.
Let the sound of the praise you give him be heard.
[9]He has kept us alive.
He has kept our feet from slipping.
[10]God, you have tested us.
You put us through fire to make us like silver.
[11]You put us in prison.
You placed heavy loads on our backs.
[12]You let our enemies ride their chariots over our heads.
We went through fire and water.
But you brought us to a place where we have everything we need.

[13]I will come to your temple with burnt offerings.

I will keep my promises to you.
14 I made them with my lips.
My mouth spoke them when I was in trouble.
15 I will sacrifice fat animals to you as burnt offerings.
I will offer rams, bulls and goats to you.

16 Come and hear, all you who have respect for God.
Let me tell you what he has done for me.
17 I cried out to him with my mouth.
I praised him with my tongue.
18 If I had enjoyed having sin in my heart,
the Lord would not have listened.
19 But God has surely listened.
He has heard my prayer.
20 Give praise to God.
He has accepted my prayer.
He has not held back his love from me.

Psalm 67

For the director of music. A psalm. A song to be played on stringed instruments.

[1]God, have mercy on us and bless us.
May you be pleased with us.
[2]Then your ways will be known on earth.
All nations will see that you have the power to save.

[3]God, may the nations praise you.
May all the people on earth praise you.
[4]May the nations be glad and sing for joy.
You rule the people of the earth fairly.
You guide the nations of the earth.
[5]God, may the nations praise you.
May all the people on earth praise you.

[6]The land produces its crops.
God, our God, blesses us.
[7]May God continue to bless us.
Then people from one end of the earth to the other will have respect for him.

Psalm 68

For the director of music. A psalm of David. A song.

[1]May God rise up and scatter his enemies.
May they turn and run away from him.
[2]May you, God, blow them away like smoke.
As fire melts wax,
so may God destroy sinful people.
[3]But may those who do what is right be glad and filled with joy when they are with him.
May they be happy and joyful.

[4]Sing to God, sing praise to his name.
Lift up a song to the God who rides on the clouds.
Be glad when you are with him.
His name is the LORD.
[5]God is in his holy temple.
He is a father to children whose fathers have died.
He takes care of women whose husbands have died.
[6]God gives lonely people a family.
He sets prisoners free, and they go out singing.
But those who refuse to obey him live in a land that is baked by the sun.

[7]God, you led your people out.
You marched through the desert.
[8]The ground shook when you, the God of Sinai, appeared.
The heavens poured down rain
when you, the God of Israel, appeared.
[9]God, you gave us plenty of rain.
You renewed your worn-out land.
[10]God, your people made their homes in it.
From all your riches, you provided for those who were poor.

[11]The Lord gives the message.

The women who make it known are a huge group.
12 They said, “Kings and armies are running away.
The women at home are dividing up the things the army took from their enemies.
13 Even while the soldiers sleep near the sheep pens,
God wins the battle for them.
He gives the enemy’s silver and gold to Israel, his dove.”
14 The Mighty One has scattered the kings around the land.
It was like snow falling on Mount Zalmon.

15 Mount Bashan is a majestic mountain.
Mount Bashan is a very rocky mountain.
16 Why are you jealous of Mount Zion, you rocky mountain?
That’s where God chooses to rule.
That’s where the LORD himself will live forever.
17 God has come with tens of thousands of his chariots.
He has come with thousands and thousands of them.
The Lord has come from Mount Sinai.
He has entered his holy place.
18 When he went up to his place on high,
he took many prisoners.
He received gifts from people,
even from those who refused to obey him.
The LORD God went up to live on Mount Zion.

19 Give praise to the Lord. Give praise to God our Savior.
He carries our heavy loads day after day.
20 Our God is a God who saves.
He is the King and the LORD. He saves us from death.

21 God will certainly smash the heads of his enemies.
He will break the hairy heads of those who keep on sinning.
22 The Lord says, “I will bring your enemies from Bashan.
I will bring them up from the bottom of the sea.
23 Then your feet can wade in their blood.
The tongues of your dogs can lick up all the blood they want.”

[24]God, those who worship you come marching into view.
My God and King, those who follow you have entered the sacred tent.
[25]The singers are walking in front.
Next come the musicians.
Young women playing tambourines are with them.
[26]The leaders sing, “Praise God among all those who worship him.
Praise the LORD in the community of Israel.”
[27]The little tribe of Benjamin leads the worshipers.
Next comes the great crowd of Judah’s princes.
Then come the princes of Zebulun and the princes of Naphtali.

[28]God, show us your power.
Show us your strength.
God, do as you have done before.
[29]Do it from your temple at Jerusalem, where kings will bring you gifts.
[30]Give a strong warning to Egypt, that beast among the tall grass.
It is like a herd of bulls among the calves.
May that beast bow down before you with gifts of silver.
Scatter the nations who like to make war.
[31]Messengers will come from Egypt.
The people of Cush will be quick to bring gifts to you.

[32]Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth.
Sing praise to the Lord.
[33]He rides across the highest places in heaven.
He rides across the ancient skies above.
He thunders with his mighty voice.
[34]Tell how powerful God is.
He rules as king over Israel.
The skies show how powerful he is.
[35]How wonderful is God in his holy place!
The God of Israel gives power and strength to his people.

Give praise to God!

Psalm 69

For the director of music. A psalm of David to the tune of “Lilies.”

[1]God, save me.
My troubles are like a flood.
I’m up to my neck in them.
[2]I’m sinking in deep mud.
I have no firm place to stand.
I am out in deep water.
The waves roll over me.
[3]I’m worn out from calling for help.
My throat is very dry.
My eyes grow tired
looking for my God.
[4]Those who hate me without any reason are more than the hairs on my head.
Many people who don’t have any reason to be my enemies are trying to destroy me.
They force me to give back
what I didn’t steal.

[5]God, you know how foolish I’ve been.
My guilt is not hidden from you.

[6]Lord, you are the LORD who rules over all.
May those who put their hope in you not be dishonored because of me.
You are the God of Israel.
May those who worship you not be put to shame because of me.
[7]Because of you, people laugh at me.
My face is covered with shame.
[8]I’m an outsider to my own family.
I’m a stranger to my own mother’s children.
[9]My great love for your house destroys me.
Those who make fun of you make fun of me also.
[10]When I weep and go without eating, they laugh at me.

[11]When I put on rough clothing to show how sad I am, people make jokes about me.
[12]Those who gather in public places make fun of me.
Those who get drunk make up songs about me.

[13]But LORD, I pray to you.
May this be the time you help me.
God, answer me because you love me so much.
Save me, as you always do.
[14]Save me from the trouble I'm in.
It's like slippery mud, so don't let me sink in it.
Save me from those who hate me.
Save me from the deep water I'm in.
[15]Don't let the floods cover me.
Don't let the deep water swallow me up.
Don't let the grave close its mouth over me.
[16]LORD, answer me because your love is so good.
Turn to me because you are so kind.
[17]Don't turn your face away from me.
Answer me quickly. I'm in trouble.
[18]Come near and save me.
Set me free from my enemies.

[19]You know how they make fun of me.
They dishonor me and put me to shame.
You know all about my enemies.
[20]They have broken my heart by saying evil things about me.
It has left me helpless.
I looked for pity, but I didn't find any.
I looked for someone to comfort me, but I didn't find anyone.
[21]They put bitter spices in my food.
They gave me vinegar when I was thirsty.

[22]Let their feast be a trap and a snare.
Let my enemies get what's coming to them.
[23]Let their eyes grow weak so they can't see.

Let their backs be bent forever.
24 Pour out your anger on them.
Let them feel what it is like.
25 May their homes be deserted.
May no one live in their tents.
26 They attack those you have wounded.
They talk about the pain of those you have hurt.
27 Charge them with one crime after another.
Don’t save them.
28 May their names be erased from the book of life.
Don’t include them in the list of those who do right.

29 I’m in pain. I’m in deep trouble.
God, save me and keep me safe.

30 I will praise God’s name by singing to him.
I will bring him glory by giving him thanks.
31 That will please the LORD more than offering him an ox.
It will please him more than offering him a bull with its horns and hooves.
32 Poor people will see it and be glad.
The hearts of those who worship God will be strengthened.
33 The LORD hears those who are in need.
He doesn’t forget his people in prison.

34 Let heaven and earth praise him.
Let the oceans and everything that moves in them praise him.
35 God will save Zion.
He will build the cities of Judah again.
Then people will live in them and own the land.
36 The children of those who serve God will receive it.
Those who love him will live there.

Psalm 70

For the director of music. A prayer of David.

[1]God, hurry and save me.
LORD, come quickly and help me.
[2]Let those who are trying to kill me be put to shame.
Let them not be honored.
Let all those who want to destroy me
be turned back in shame.
[3]Some people make fun of me.
Let them be turned back when their plans fail.
[4]But let all those who seek you
be joyful and glad because of what you have done.
Let those who want you to save them always say,
"The LORD is great!"

[5]But I am poor and needy.
God, come quickly to me.
You are the God who helps me and saves me.
LORD, please don't wait any longer.

Psalm 71

[1]LORD, I have gone to you for safety.
Let me never be put to shame.
[2]You do what is right, so save me and help me.
Pay attention to me and save me.
[3]Be my rock of safety
that I can always go to.
Give the command to save me.
You are my rock and my fort.
[4]My God, save me from the power of sinners.
Save me from the hands of those who are mean and evil.

[5]You are the King and the LORD. You have always been my hope.
I have trusted in you ever since I was young.
[6]From the time I was born I have depended on you.
You brought me out of my mother's body.
I will praise you forever.
[7]To many people I am an example of how much you care.
You are my strong place of safety.
[8]My mouth is filled with praise for you.
All day long I will talk about your glory.

[9]Don't push me away when I'm old.
Don't desert me when my strength is gone.
[10]My enemies speak against me.
Those who want to kill me get together and make evil plans.
[11]They say, "God has deserted him.
Go after him and grab him.
No one will save him."
[12]God, don't be far away from me.
My God, come quickly and help me.
[13]May those who bring charges against me die in shame.
May those who want to harm me be covered with shame and dishonor.

14 But I will always have hope.
I will praise you more and more.
15 I will tell other people about all the good things you have done.
All day long I will talk about how you have saved your people.
But there’s no way I could say how many times you’ve done this.
16 LORD and King, I will come and announce your mighty acts.
I will announce all the good things that you alone do.
17 God, ever since I was young you have taught me.
To this very day I tell about your wonderful acts.
18 God, don’t leave me
even when I’m old and have gray hair.
Let me live to tell my children about your power.
Let me tell all of them about your mighty acts.

19 God, your saving acts reach to the skies.
You have done great things.
God, who is like you?
20 You have sent many bitter troubles my way.
But you will give me new life.
Even if I’m almost in the grave,
you will bring me back.
21 You will honor me more and more.
You will comfort me once again.

22 My God, I will use the harp to praise you because you are always faithful.
Holy One of Israel,
I will use the lyre to sing praise to you.
23 My lips will shout with joy
when I sing praise to you.
You have saved me.
24 All day long my tongue will say that you have done what is right.
Those who wanted to harm me have been put to shame.
They have not been honored.

Psalm 72

A psalm of Solomon.

[1]God, give the king the ability to judge fairly.
He is your royal son. Help him to do what is right.
[2]May he rule your people in the right way.
May he be fair to those among your people who are hurting.
[3]May the mountains and the hills produce rich crops, because the people will do what is right.
[4]May the king stand up for those who are hurting.
May he save the children of those who are in need.
May he crush those who treat others badly.

[5]May the king rule as long as the sun shines and the moon gives its light.
May he rule for all time to come.
[6]May he be like rain falling on the fields.
May he be like showers watering the earth.
[7]May godly people do well as long as he rules.
May they have more than they need as long as the moon lasts.

[8]May the king rule from sea to sea.
May his kingdom reach from the Euphrates River to the ends of the earth.
[9]May the desert tribes bow down to him.
May his enemies lick the dust.
[10]May the kings of Tarshish and of places far away bring him gifts.
May the kings of Sheba and Seba give him presents.
[11]May all kings bow down to him.
May all nations serve him.

[12]The king will save needy people who cry out to him.
He will save those who are hurting and have no one else to help.
[13]He will take pity on those who are weak and in need.

He will save them from death.
14 He will save them from people who treat others badly.
He will save them from people who do mean things to them.
Their lives are very special to him.

15 May the king live a long time!
May gold from Sheba be given to him.
May people always pray for him.
May they ask the LORD to bless him all day long.
16 May there be plenty of grain everywhere in the land.
May it sway in the wind on the tops of the hills.
May the crops grow well, like those in Lebanon.
May they grow like the grass of the field.
17 May the king's name be remembered forever.
May his fame last as long as the sun shines.

Then all nations will be blessed because of him.
They will call him blessed.

18 Give praise to the LORD God, the God of Israel.
Only he can do wonderful things.
19 Give praise to his glorious name forever.
May his glory fill the whole earth.
Amen and Amen.

20 The prayers of David, the son of Jesse, end here.

BOOK III

Psalms 73–89

Psalm 73

A psalm of Asaph.

[1]God is truly good to Israel.
He is good to those who have pure hearts.

[2]But my feet had almost slipped.
I had almost tripped and fallen.
[3]I saw that proud and sinful people were doing well.
And I began to long for what they had.

[4]They don't have any troubles.
Their bodies are healthy and strong.
[5]They don't have the problems most people have.
They don't suffer as other people do.
[6]Their pride is like a necklace.
They put on meanness as if it were their clothes.
[7]Many sins come out of their hard and stubborn hearts.
There is no limit to the evil things they can think up.
[8]They laugh at others and speak words of hatred.
They are proud. They warn others about the harm they can do to them.
[9]They brag as if they owned heaven itself.
They talk as if they controlled the earth.
[10]So people listen to them.
They lap up their words like water.
[11]They say, "How would God know what we're doing?
Does the Most High God know anything?"

[12]Here is what sinful people are like.

They don’t have a care in the world.
They keep getting richer and richer.

13It seems as if I have kept my heart pure for no reason.
It didn’t do me any good to wash my hands to show that I wasn’t guilty of doing anything wrong.
14Day after day I’ve been in pain.
God has punished me in a new way every morning.

15What if I had talked like that?
Then I wouldn’t have been faithful to God’s children.
16I tried to understand it all.
But it was more than I could handle.
17It troubled me until I entered God’s temple.
Then I understood what will finally happen to bad people.

18God, I’m sure you will make them slip and fall.
You will throw them down and destroy them.
19It will happen very suddenly.
A terrible death will take them away completely.
20A dream goes away when a person wakes up.
Lord, it will be like that when you rise up.
It will be as if those people were only a dream.

21At one time my heart was sad and my spirit was bitter.
22I didn’t have any sense. I didn’t know anything.
I acted like a wild animal toward you.

23But I am always with you.
You hold me by my right hand.
24You give me wise advice to guide me.
And when I die, you will take me away into the glory of heaven.
25I don’t have anyone in heaven but you.
I don’t want anything on earth besides you.
26My body and my heart may grow weak.

God, you give strength to my heart.
You are everything I will ever need.

[27]Those who don’t want anything to do with you will die.
You destroy all those who aren’t faithful to you.
[28]But I am close to you. And that’s good.
LORD and King, I have made you my place of safety.
I will talk about everything you have done.

Psalm 74

A maskil of Asaph.

[1]God, why have you turned your back on us for so long?
Why are you so angry with us? We are your very own sheep.
[2]Remember the nation that you chose as your own so long ago.
Remember that you set us free from slavery to be your very own people.
Remember Mount Zion, where you lived.
[3]Walk through this place that has been torn down beyond repair.
See how completely your enemies have destroyed the temple!

[4]In the place where you used to meet with us, your enemies have shouted, “We’ve won the battle!”
They have set up their flags to show they have beaten us.
[5]They acted like people cutting down a forest with axes.
[6]They smashed all the beautiful wooden walls with their axes and hatchets.
[7]They burned your temple to the ground.
They polluted the place where your Name is.
[8]They had said in their hearts, “We will crush them completely!”
They burned every place where you were worshiped in the land.
[9]We don’t get signs from God anymore.
There aren’t any prophets left.
None of us knows how long that will last.

[10]God, how long will your enemies make fun of you?
Will they attack you with their words forever?
[11]Why don’t you help us? Why do you hold back your power?
Use your strong power to destroy your enemies!

[12]God, you have been my king for a long time.
You are the only God who can save anyone on earth.
[13]You parted the waters of the Red Sea by your power.
You broke the heads of that sea monster in Egypt.
[14]You crushed the heads of the sea monster Leviathan.

You fed it to the creatures of the desert.
15 You opened up streams and springs.
You dried up rivers that flow all year long.
16 You rule over the day and the night.
You created the sun and the moon.
17 You decided where the borders of the earth would be.
You made both summer and winter.

18 LORD, remember how your enemies have made fun of you.
Remember how foolish people have attacked you with their words.
19 Don’t hand over Israel, your dove, to those wild animals.
Don’t forget your suffering people forever.
20 Honor the covenant you made with us.
Horrible things are happening in every dark corner of the land.
21 Don’t let your suffering people be put to shame.
May those who are poor and needy praise you.

22 God, rise up. Stand up for your cause.
Remember how foolish people make fun of you all day long.
23 Pay close attention to the shouts of your enemies.
The trouble they cause never stops.

Psalm 75

For the director of music. A psalm of Asaph. A song to the tune of “Do Not Destroy.”

[1]God, we praise you.
We praise you because you are near to us.
People talk about the wonderful things you have done.

[2]You say, “I choose the appointed time to judge people.
And I judge them fairly.
[3]When the earth and all its people tremble,
I keep everything from falling to pieces.
[4]To the proud I say, ‘Don’t brag anymore.’
To sinners I say, ‘Don’t show off your power.
[5]Don’t show it off against me.
Don’t talk back to me.’ ”

[6]No one from east or west or north or south can judge themselves.
[7]God is the one who judges.
He says to one person, “You are guilty.”
To another he says, “You are not guilty.”
[8]In the hand of the LORD is a cup.
It is full of wine mixed with spices.
It is the wine of his anger.
He pours it out. All the evil people on earth drink it down to the very last drop.

[9]I will speak about this forever.
I will sing praise to the God of Jacob.
[10]God says, “I will destroy the power of all sinful people.
But I will make godly people more powerful.”

Psalm 76

For the director of music. A psalm of Asaph. A song to be played on stringed instruments.

[1]In the land of Judah, God is well known.
In Israel, his name is great.
[2]His tent is in Jerusalem.
The place where he lives is on Mount Zion.
[3]There he broke the deadly arrows of his enemies.
He broke their shields and swords.
He broke their weapons of war.

[4]God, you shine like a very bright light.
You are more majestic than mountains full of wild animals.
[5]Brave soldiers have been robbed of everything they had.
Now they lie there, sleeping in death.
Not one of them can even lift his hands.
[6]God of Jacob, at your command both horse and chariot lie still.
[7]People should have respect for you alone.
Who can stand in front of you when you are angry?
[8]From heaven you handed down your sentence.
The land was afraid and became quiet.
[9]God, that happened when you rose up to judge.
It happened when you came to save all your suffering people in the land.
[10]Your anger against sinners brings you praise.
Those who live through your anger gather to worship you.

[11]Make promises to the LORD your God and keep them.
Let all the neighboring nations bring gifts to the God who should be respected.
[12]He breaks the proud spirit of rulers.
The kings of the earth have respect for him.

Psalm 77

For the director of music. For Jeduthun. A psalm of Asaph.

[1]I cried out to God for help.
I cried out to God to hear me.
[2]When I was in trouble, I looked to the Lord for help.
During the night I lifted up my hands in prayer.
But I refused to be comforted.

[3]God, I remembered you, and I groaned.
I thought about you, and I became weak.
[4]You kept me from going to sleep.
I was so troubled I couldn’t speak.
[5]I thought about days gone by.
I thought about the years of long ago.
[6]I remembered how I used to sing praise to you in the night.
I thought about it, and here is what I asked myself.

[7]“Will the Lord turn away from us forever?
Won’t he ever show us his kindness again?
[8]Has his faithful love disappeared forever?
Has his promise failed for all time?
[9]Has God forgotten to help us?
Has he held back his tender love because he was angry?”

[10]Then I thought, “Here is what gives me hope.
For many years the Most High God showed how powerful he is.
[11]LORD, I will remember what you did.
Yes, I will remember your miracles of long ago.
[12]I will spend time thinking about everything you have done.
I will consider all your mighty acts.”

[13]God, everything you do is holy.
What god is as great as our God?
[14]You are the God who does miracles.
You show your power among the nations.

15 With your mighty arm you set your people free.
You set the children of Jacob and Joseph free.

16 God, the water of the Red Sea saw you.
It saw you and boiled up.
The deepest waters were stirred up.
17 The clouds poured down rain.
The skies rumbled with thunder.
Lightning flashed back and forth like arrows.
18 Your thunder was heard in the windstorm.
Your lightning lit up the world.
The earth trembled and shook.
19 Your path led through the Red Sea.
You walked through the mighty waters.
But your footprints were not seen.

20 You led your people like a flock.
You led them by the hands of Moses and Aaron.

Psalm 78

A maskil of Asaph.

[1]My people, listen to my teaching.
Pay attention to what I say.
[2]I will open my mouth and tell a story.
I will speak about things that were hidden.
They happened a long time ago.
[3]We have heard about them and we know them.
Our people who lived before us have told us about them.
[4]We won’t hide them from our children.
We will tell them to those who live after us.
We will tell them what the LORD has done that is worthy of praise.
We will talk about his power and the wonderful things he has done.
[5]He gave laws to the people of Jacob.
He gave Israel their law.
He commanded our people who lived before us to teach his laws to their children.
[6]Then those born later would know his laws.
Even their children yet to come would know them.
And they in turn would tell their children.
[7]Then they would put their trust in God.
They would not forget what he had done.
They would obey his commands.
[8]They would not be like their people who lived long ago.
Those people were stubborn. They refused to obey God.
They turned away from him.
Their spirits were not faithful to him.

[9]The soldiers of Ephraim were armed with bows.
But they ran away on the day of battle.
[10]They didn’t keep the covenant God had made with them.
They refused to live by his law.
[11]They forgot what he had done.

They didn’t remember the wonders he had shown them.
12 He did miracles right in front of their people who lived long ago.
At that time they were living in Egypt, in the area of Zoan.
13 God parted the Red Sea and led them through it.
He made the water stand up like a wall.
14 He guided them with the cloud during the day.
He led them with the light of a fire all night long.
15 He broke the rocks open in the desert.
He gave them as much water as there is in the oceans.
16 He brought streams out of a rocky cliff.
He made water flow down like rivers.

17 But they continued to sin against him.
In the desert they refused to obey the Most High God.
18 They were stubborn and tested God.
They ordered him to give them the food they wanted.
19 They spoke against God. They said,
“Can God really put food on a table in the desert?
20 It is true that he struck the rock, and streams of water poured out.
Huge amounts of water flowed down.
But can he also give us bread?
Can he supply meat for his people?”
21 When the LORD heard what they said, he was very angry.
His anger broke out like fire against the people of Jacob.
He became very angry with Israel.
22 That was because they didn’t believe in God.
They didn’t trust in his power to save them.
23 But he gave a command to the skies above.
He opened the doors of the heavens.
24 He rained down manna for the people to eat.
He gave them the grain of heaven.
25 Mere human beings ate the bread of angels.
He sent them all the food they could eat.
26 He made the east wind blow from the heavens.
By his power he caused the south wind to blow.
27 He rained down meat on them like dust.
He sent them birds like sand on the seashore.

28 He made the birds come down inside their camp.
The birds fell all around their tents.
29 People ate until they couldn’t eat any more.
He gave them what they had wanted.
30 But even before they had finished eating, God acted.
He did it while the food was still in their mouths.
31 His anger rose up against them.
He put to death the strongest among them.
He struck down Israel’s young men.

32 But even after all that, they kept on sinning.
Even after the wonderful things he had done, they still didn’t believe.
33 So he brought their days to an end like a puff of smoke.
He ended their years with terror.
34 Every time God killed some of them, the others would seek him.
They gladly turned back to him again.
35 They remembered that God was their Rock.
They remembered that God Most High had set them free.
36 But they didn’t mean it when they praised him.
They lied to him when they spoke.
37 They turned away from him.
They weren’t faithful to the covenant he had made with them.
38 But he was full of tender love.
He forgave their sins
and didn’t destroy his people.
Time after time he held back his anger.
He didn’t let all his burning anger blaze out.
39 He remembered that they were only human.
He remembered they were only a breath of air that drifts by and doesn’t return.

40 How often they refused to obey him in the desert!
How often they caused him sorrow in that dry and empty land!
41 Again and again they tested God.
They made the Holy One of Israel sad and angry.
42 They didn’t remember his power.

They forgot the day he set them free from those who had treated them so badly.
43 They forgot how he had shown them his signs in Egypt.
They forgot his miracles in the area of Zoan.
44 He turned the river of Egypt into blood.
The people of Egypt couldn’t drink water from their streams.
45 He sent large numbers of flies that bit them.
He sent frogs that destroyed their land.
46 He gave their crops to the grasshoppers.
He gave their food to the locusts.
47 He destroyed their vines with hail.
He destroyed their fig trees with sleet.
48 He killed their cattle with hail.
Their livestock were struck by lightning.
49 Because he was so angry with Egypt, he caused them to have great trouble.
In his great anger he sent destroying angels against them.
50 God prepared a path for his anger.
He didn’t spare their lives.
He gave them over to the plague.
51 He killed the oldest son of each family in Egypt.
He struck down the oldest son in every house in the land of Ham.
52 But he brought his people out like a flock.
He led them like sheep through the desert.
53 He guided them safely, and they weren’t afraid.
But the Red Sea swallowed up their enemies.
54 And so he brought his people to the border of his holy land.
He led them to the central hill country he had taken by his power.
55 He drove out the nations to make room for his people.
He gave to each family a piece of land to pass on to their children.
He gave the tribes of Israel a place to make their homes.

56 But they tested God.
They refused to obey the Most High God.

They didn’t keep his laws.
57 They were like their people who lived long ago.
They turned away from him and were not faithful.
They were like a bow that doesn’t shoot straight.
They couldn’t be trusted.
58 They made God angry by going to their high places.
They made him jealous by worshiping the statues of their gods.
59 When God saw what the people were doing, he was very angry.
He turned away from them completely.
60 He deserted the holy tent at Shiloh.
He left the tent he had set up among his people.
61 He allowed the ark to be captured.
Into the hands of his enemies he sent the ark where his glory rested.
62 He let his people be killed by swords.
He was very angry with them.
63 Fire destroyed their young men.
Their young women had no one to marry.
64 Their priests were killed by swords.
Their widows weren’t able to weep.

65 Then the Lord woke up as if he had been sleeping.
He was like a warrior waking up from the deep sleep caused by wine.
66 He drove back his enemies.
He put them to shame that will last forever.
67 He turned his back on the tents of the people of Joseph.
He didn’t choose to live in the tribe of Ephraim.
68 Instead, he chose to live in the tribe of Judah.
He chose Mount Zion, which he loved.
69 There he built his holy place as secure as the heavens.
He built it to last forever, like the earth.
70 He chose his servant David.
He took him from the sheep pens.
71 He brought him from tending sheep to be the shepherd of his people Jacob.
He made him the shepherd of Israel, his special people.

[72]David cared for them with a faithful and honest heart.
With skilled hands he led them.

Psalm 79

A psalm of Asaph.

[1]God, an army from the nations has attacked your land.
They have polluted your holy temple.
They have completely destroyed Jerusalem.
[2]They have left the dead bodies of your people.
They have left them as food for the birds in the sky.
They have left the bodies of your faithful people.
They have left them for the wild animals.
[3]They have poured out the blood of your people like water.
It is all around Jerusalem.
No one is left to bury the dead.
[4]We are something our neighbors joke about.
The nations around us laugh at us and make fun of us.

[5]LORD, how long will you be angry with us? Will it be forever?
How long will your jealousy burn like fire?
[6]Bring your great anger against the nations that don't pay any attention to you.
Bring it against the kingdoms that don't worship you.
[7]They have swallowed up the people of Jacob.
They have destroyed Israel's homeland.
[8]Don't hold against us the sins of our people who lived before us.
May you be quick to show us your tender love.
We are in great need.

[9]God our Savior, help us.
Then glory will come to you.
Save us and forgive our sins.
Then people will honor your name.
[10]Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God?"
Show the nations that you punish those who kill your people.
We want to see it happen.

[11]Listen to the groans of the prisoners.
Use your strong arm
to save people sentenced to death.

[12]Lord, our neighbors have laughed at you.
Pay them back seven times for what they have done.
[13]We are your people, your very own sheep.
We will praise you forever.
For all time to come
we will keep on praising you.

Psalm 80

For the director of music. A psalm of Asaph to the tune of “The Lilies of the Covenant.”

[1]Shepherd of Israel, hear us.
You lead the people of Joseph like a flock.
You sit on your throne between the cherubim.
Show your glory
[2]to the people of Ephraim, Benjamin and Manasseh.
Call your strength into action.
Come and save us.

[3]God, make us new again.
May you be pleased with us.
Then we will be saved.

[4]LORD God, you rule over all.
How long will you be angry?
Will you be angry with your people even when they pray to you?
[5]You have given us tears as our food.
You have made us drink tears by the bowlful.
[6]You have let our neighbors mock us.
Our enemies laugh at us.

[7]God who rules over all, make us new again.
May you be pleased with us.
Then we will be saved.

[8]You brought Israel out of Egypt.
Israel was like a vine.
After you drove the nations out of Canaan,
you planted the vine in their land.
[9]You prepared the ground for it.
It took root and spread out over the whole land.
[10]The mountains were covered with its shade.
The shade of its branches covered the mighty cedar trees.

[11]Your vine sent its branches out all the way to the Mediterranean Sea.
They reached as far as the Euphrates River.

[12]Why have you broken down the walls around your vine?
Now all who pass by it can pick its grapes.
[13]Wild pigs from the forest destroy it.
Insects from the fields feed on it.
[14]God who rules over all, return to us!
Look down from heaven and see us!
Watch over your vine.
[15]Guard the root you have planted with your powerful right hand.
Take care of the branch you have raised up for yourself.

[16]Your vine has been cut down and burned in the fire.
You have been angry with us, and we are dying.
[17]May you honor the people at your right hand.
May you honor the nation you have raised up for yourself.
[18]Then we won't turn away from you.
Give us new life. We will worship you.

[19]LORD God who rules over all, make us new again.
May you be pleased with us.
Then we will be saved.

Psalm 81

For the director of music. According to gittith. A psalm of Asaph.

[1]Sing joyfully to God! He gives us strength.
Give a loud shout to the God of Jacob!
[2]Let the music begin. Play the tambourines.
Play sweet music on harps and lyres.

[3]Blow the ram's horn on the day of the New Moon feast.
Blow it again when the moon is full and the Feast of Booths begins.
[4]This is an order given to Israel.
It is a law of the God of Jacob.
[5]He gave it as a covenant law for the people of Joseph.
It was given when God went out to punish Egypt.
There I heard a voice I didn't recognize.

[6]The voice said, "I removed the load from your shoulders.
I set your hands free from carrying heavy baskets.
[7]You called out when you were in trouble, and I saved you.
I answered you out of a thundercloud.
I tested you at the waters of Meribah.

[8]"My people, listen and I will warn you.
Israel, I wish you would listen to me!
[9]Don't have anything to do with the gods of other nations.
Don't bow down and worship any god other than me.
[10]I am the LORD your God.
I brought you up out of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it with good things.

[11]"But my people wouldn't listen to me.
Israel wouldn't obey me.
[12]So I let them go their own stubborn way.
I let them follow their own sinful plans.

13 “I wish my people would listen to me!
I wish Israel would live as I want them to live!
14 Then I would quickly bring their enemies under control.
I would use my power against their attackers.
15 Those who hate me would bow down to me in fear.
They would be punished forever.
16 But you would be fed with the finest wheat.
I would satisfy you with the sweetest honey.”

Psalm 82

A psalm of Asaph.

[1]God takes his place at the head of a large gathering of leaders.
He announces his decisions among them.

[2]He says, “How long will you stand up for those who aren’t fair to others?
How long will you show mercy to sinful people?
[3]Stand up for the weak and for children whose fathers have died.
Protect the rights of people who are poor or treated badly.
[4]Save those who are weak and needy.
Save them from the power of sinful people.

[5]“You leaders don’t know anything.
You don’t understand anything.
You are in the dark about what is right.
Law and order have been destroyed all over the world.

[6]“I said, ‘You leaders are like gods.
You are all children of the Most High God.’
[7]But you will die, like mere human beings.
You will die like every other leader.”

[8]God, rise up. Judge the earth.
All the nations belong to you.

Psalm 83

A song. A psalm of Asaph.

[1]God, don’t remain silent.
Don’t refuse to listen.
Do something, God.
[2]See how your enemies are growling like dogs.
See how they are rising up against you.
[3]They make clever plans against your people.
They make evil plans against those you love.
[4]“Come,” they say. “Let’s destroy that whole nation.
Then the name of Israel won’t be remembered anymore.”

[5]All of them agree on the evil plans they have made.
They join forces against you.
[6]Their forces include the people of Edom, Ishmael, Moab and Hagar.
[7]They also include the people of Byblos, Ammon, Amalek, Philistia and Tyre.
[8]Even Assyria has joined them to give strength to the people of Moab and Ammon.

[9]Do to them what you did to the people of Midian.
Do to them what you did to Sisera and Jabin at the Kishon River.
[10]Sisera and Jabin died near the town of Endor.
Their bodies were left on the ground like human waste.
[11]Do to the nobles of your enemies what you did to Oreb and Zeeb.
Do to all their princes what you did to Zebah and Zalmunna.
[12]They said, “Let’s take over the grasslands that belong to God.”

[13]My God, make them like straw that the wind blows away.
Make them like tumbleweed.
[14]Destroy them as fire burns up a forest.
Destroy them as a flame sets mountains on fire.

[15]Chase them with your mighty winds.
Terrify them with your storm.
[16]LORD, put them to shame
so that they will seek you.

[17]May they always be filled with terror and shame.
May they die in dishonor.
[18]May you, the LORD, let your enemies know who you are.
You alone are the Most High God over the whole earth.

Psalm 84

For the director of music. According to gittith. A psalm of the Sons of Korah.

[1]LORD who rules over all,
how lovely is the place where you live!
[2]I can't wait to be in the courtyards of the LORD's temple.
I really want to be there.
My whole being cries out for the living God.

[3]LORD who rules over all,
even the sparrow has found a home near your altar.
My King and my God,
the swallow also has a nest there,
where she may have her young.
[4]Blessed are those who live in your house.
They are always praising you.

[5]Blessed are those whose strength comes from you.
They have firmly decided to travel to your temple.
[6]As they pass through the dry Valley of Baka, they make it a place where water flows.
The rain in the fall covers it with pools.
[7]Those people get stronger as they go along, until each of them appears in Zion, where God lives.

[8]LORD God who rules over all, hear my prayer.
God of the people of Jacob, listen to me.
[9]God, may you be pleased with your anointed king.
You appointed him to be like a shield that keeps us safe.

[10]A single day in your courtyards is better than a thousand anywhere else.
I would rather guard the door of the house of my God than live in the tents of sinful people.
[11]The LORD God is like the sun that gives us light.

He is like a shield that keeps us safe.
The LORD blesses us with favor and honor.
He doesn’t hold back anything good from those whose lives are without blame.

12 LORD who rules over all,
blessed is the person who trusts in you.

Psalm 85

For the director of music. A psalm of the Sons of Korah.

[1]LORD, you were good to your land.
You blessed the people of Jacob with great success again.
[2]You forgave the evil things your people did.
You took away all their sins.
[3]You stopped being angry with them.
You turned your great anger away from them.

[4]God our Savior, make us new again.
Stop being unhappy with us.
[5]Will you be angry with us forever?
Will you be angry for all time to come?
[6]Won't you give us new life again?
Then we'll be joyful because of what you have done.
[7]LORD, show us your faithful love.
Save us.

[8]I will listen to what God the LORD says.
He promises peace to his faithful people.
But they must not turn to foolish ways.
[9]I know he's ready to save those who have respect for him.
Then his glory can be seen in our land.

[10]God's truth and faithful love join together.
His peace and holiness kiss each other.
[11]His truth springs up from the earth.
His holiness looks down from heaven.
[12]The LORD will certainly give what is good.
Our land will produce its crops.
[13]God's holiness leads the way in front of him.
It prepares the way for his coming.

Psalm 86

A prayer of David.

[1]LORD, hear me and answer me.
I am poor and needy.
[2]Keep my life safe, because I am faithful to you.
Save me, because I trust in you.
You are my God.
[3]Lord, have mercy on me.
I call out to you all day long.
[4]Bring joy to me.
Lord, I put my trust in you.

[5]Lord, you are forgiving and good.
You are full of love for all who call out to you.
[6]LORD, hear my prayer.
Listen to my cry for mercy.
[7]When I'm in trouble, I will call out to you.
And you will answer me.

[8]Lord, there's no one like you among the gods.
No one can do what you do.
[9]Lord, all the nations you have made will come and worship you.
They will bring glory to you.
[10]You are great. You do wonderful things.
You alone are God.

[11]LORD, teach me how you want me to live.
Do this so that I will depend on you, my faithful God.
Give me a heart that doesn't want anything more than to worship you.
[12]Lord my God, I will praise you with all my heart.
I will bring glory to you forever.
[13]Great is your love for me.
You have kept me from going down into the place of the dead.

[14]God, proud people are attacking me.
A gang of mean people is trying to kill me.
They don’t care about you.
[15]But Lord, you are a God who is tender and kind.
You are gracious.
You are slow to get angry.
You are faithful and full of love.
[16]Come to my aid and have mercy on me.
Show your strength by helping me.
Save me because I serve you just as my mother did.
[17]Prove your goodness to me.
Then my enemies will see it and be put to shame.
LORD, you have helped me and given me comfort.

Psalm 87

A psalm of the Sons of Korah. A song.

[1]The LORD has built his city on the holy mountain.
[2]He loves the city of Zion more than all the other places where the people of Jacob live.
[3]City of God,
the LORD says glorious things about you.
[4]He says, “I will include Egypt and Babylon in a list of nations who recognize me as king.
I will also include Philistia and Tyre, along with Cush.
I will say about them, ‘They were born in Zion.’ ”

[5]Certainly it will be said about Zion,
“This nation and that nation were born in it.
The Most High God himself will make it secure.”
[6]Here is what the LORD will write in his list of the nations.
“Each of them was born in Zion.”
[7]As they make music they will sing,
“Zion, all our blessings come from you.”

Psalm 88

For the director of music. According to mahalath leannoth. A song. A psalm of the Sons of Korah. A maskil of Heman the Ezrahite.

[1]LORD, you are the God who saves me.
Day and night I cry out to you.
[2]Please hear my prayer.
Pay attention to my cry for help.

[3]I have so many troubles
I'm about to die.
[4]People think my life is over.
I'm like someone who doesn't have any strength.
[5]People treat me as if I were dead.
I'm like those who have been killed and are now in the grave.
You don't even remember them anymore.
They are cut off from your care.

[6]It's as if you have put me deep down in the grave.
It's as if you have put me in that deep, dark place.
[7]Your great anger lies heavy on me.
All the waves of your anger have crashed over me.
[8]You have taken my closest friends away from me.
You have made me sickening to them.
I feel trapped and can't escape.
[9]I'm crying so much I can't see very well.

LORD, I call out to you every day.
I lift up my hands to you in prayer.
[10]Do you do wonderful things for those who are dead?
Do their spirits rise up and praise you?
[11]Do those who are dead speak about your love?
Do those who are in the grave tell how faithful you are?
[12]Are your wonderful deeds known in that dark place?
Are your holy acts known in that land where the dead are forgotten?

[13]LORD, I cry out to you for help.
In the morning I pray to you.
[14]LORD, why do you say no to me?
Why do you turn your face away from me?

[15]I’ve been in pain ever since I was young.
I’ve been close to death.
You have made me suffer terrible things.
I have lost all hope.
[16]Your great anger has swept over me.
Your terrors have destroyed me.
[17]All day long they surround me like a flood.
They have closed in all around me.
[18]You have taken my friends and neighbors away from me.
Darkness is my closest friend.

Psalm 89

A maskil of Ethan the Ezrahite.

[1]LORD, I will sing about your great love forever.
For all time to come, I will tell how faithful you are.
[2]I will tell everyone that your love stands firm forever.
I will tell them that you are always faithful, even in heaven itself.

[3]You said, “Here is the covenant I have made with my chosen one.
Here is the promise I have made to my servant David.
[4]‘I will make your family line continue forever.
I will make your kingdom secure for all time to come.’ ”

[5]LORD, the heavens praise you for your wonderful deeds.
When your holy angels gather together,
they praise you for how faithful you are.
[6]Who in the skies above can compare with the LORD?
Who among the angels is like the LORD?
[7]God is highly respected among his holy angels.
He’s more wonderful than all those who are around him.
[8]LORD God who rules over all, who is like you?
LORD, you are mighty. You are faithful in everything you do.

[9]You rule over the stormy sea.
When its waves rise up, you calm them down.
[10]You crushed Egypt and killed her people.
With your powerful arm you scattered your enemies.
[11]The heavens belong to you. The earth is yours also.
You made the world and everything that is in it.
[12]You created everything from north to south.
Mount Tabor and Mount Hermon sing to you with joy.
[13]Your arm is powerful.
Your hand is strong.
Your right hand is mighty.

14 Your kingdom is built on what is right and fair.
Your faithful love leads the way in front of you.
15 Blessed are those who have learned to shout praise to you.
LORD, they live in the light of your kindness.
16 All day long they are full of joy because of who you are.
They celebrate the fact that you do what is right.
17 You bring them glory and give them strength.
You are pleased to honor our king.
18 Our king is like a shield that keeps us safe.
He belongs to the LORD.
He belongs to the Holy One of Israel.

19 You once spoke to your faithful people in a vision.
You said, “I have given strength to a soldier.
I have raised up a young man from among the people.
20 I have found my servant David.
I have poured my sacred oil on his head.
21 My powerful hand will keep him going.
My mighty arm will give him strength.
22 No enemy will have the victory over him.
No evil person will treat him badly.
23 I will crush the king’s enemies.
I will completely destroy them.
24 I will love him and be faithful to him.
Because of me his power will increase.
25 I will give him a great kingdom.
It will reach from the Mediterranean Sea to the Euphrates River.
26 He will call out to me, ‘You are my Father.
You are my God. You are my Rock and Savior.’
27 I will also make him my oldest son.
Among all the kings of the earth, he will be the most important one.
28 I will continue to love him forever.
I will never break my covenant with him.
29 I will make his family line continue forever.
His kingdom will last as long as the heavens.

30 “What if his sons turn away from my laws and do not follow them?
31 What if they disobey my orders and fail to keep my commands?
32 Then I will punish them for their sins.
I will strike them with a rod.
I will whip them for their evil acts.
33 But I will not stop loving David.
I will always be faithful to him.
34 I will not break my covenant.
I will not go back on my word.
35 Once and for all, I have made a promise.
It is based on my holiness.
And I will not lie to David.
36 His family line will continue forever.
His kingdom will last as long as the sun.
37 It will last forever like the moon,
that faithful witness in the sky.”

38 But you have turned your back on your anointed king.
You have been very angry with him.
39 You have broken the covenant you made with him.
You have thrown your servant’s crown into the dirt.
40 You have broken through the walls around his city.
You have completely destroyed his secure places.
41 All those who pass by have carried off what belonged to him.
His neighbors make fun of him.
42 You have made his enemies strong.
You have made all of them happy.
43 You have made his sword useless.
You have not helped him in battle.
44 You have put an end to his glory.
You have knocked his throne to the ground.
45 You have cut short the days of his life.
You have covered him with shame.

46 LORD, how long will you hide yourself? Will it be forever?

How long will your anger burn like fire?
47 Remember how short my life is.
You have created all people for such a useless purpose!
48 Who can live and not die?
Who can escape the power of the grave?
49 Lord, where is the great love you used to have?
You faithfully promised it to David.
50 Lord, remember how my enemies have made fun of me.
I've had to put up with mean words from all the nations.
51 LORD, your enemies have said mean things.
They have laughed at everything your anointed king has done.

52 Give praise to the LORD forever!
Amen and Amen.

BOOK IV

Psalms 90–106

Psalm 90

A prayer of Moses, the man of God.

[1]Lord, from the very beginning you have been like a home to us.
[2]Before you created the whole world and the mountains were made, from the beginning to the end you are God.

[3]You turn human beings back to dust.
You say to them, “Return to dust.”
[4]To you a thousand years are like a day that has just gone by.
They are like a few hours of the night.
[5]Yet you sweep people away, and they die.
They are like new grass that grows in the morning.
[6]In the morning it springs up new,
but by evening it’s all dried up.

[7]Your anger destroys us.
Your burning anger terrifies us.
[8]You have put our sins right in front of you.
You have placed our secret sins where you can see them clearly.
[9]You have been angry with us all of our days.
We groan as we come to the end of our lives.
[10]We live to be about 70.
Or we may live to be 80, if we stay healthy.
But even our best days are filled with trouble and sorrow.
The years quickly pass, and we are gone.

[11]If only we knew the power of your anger!
It’s as great as the respect we should have for you.
[12]Teach us to realize how short our lives are.
Then our hearts will become wise.

[13]LORD, please stop punishing us!
How long will you keep it up?
Be kind to us.
[14]Satisfy us with your faithful love every morning.
Then we can sing for joy and be glad all our days.
[15]Make us glad for as many days as you have made us suffer.
Give us joy for as many years as we’ve had trouble.
[16]Show us your mighty acts.
Let our children see your glorious power.

[17]May the Lord our God always be pleased with us.
Lord, make what we do succeed.
Please make what we do succeed.

Psalm 91

[1]Whoever rests in the shadow of the Most High God will be kept safe by the Mighty One.
[2]I will say about the LORD,
"He is my place of safety.
He is like a fort to me.
He is my God. I trust in him."

[3]He will certainly save you from hidden traps and from deadly sickness.
[4]He will cover you with his wings.
Under the feathers of his wings you will find safety.
He is faithful. He will keep you safe like a shield or a tower.
[5]You won't have to be afraid of the terrors that come during the night.
You won't have to fear the arrows that come at you during the day.
[6]You won't have to be afraid of the sickness that attacks in the darkness.
You won't have to fear the plague that destroys at noon.
[7]A thousand may fall dead at your side.
Ten thousand may fall near your right hand.
But no harm will come to you.
[8]You will see with your own eyes how God punishes sinful people.

[9]Suppose you say, "The LORD is the one who keeps me safe."
Suppose you let the Most High God be like a home to you.
[10]Then no harm will come to you.
No terrible plague will come near your tent.
[11]The LORD will command his angels to take good care of you.
[12]They will lift you up in their hands.
Then you won't trip over a stone.
[13]You will walk on lions and cobras.

You will crush mighty lions and poisonous snakes.

14 The LORD says, “I will save the one who loves me.
I will keep him safe, because he trusts in me.
15 He will call out to me, and I will answer him.
I will be with him in times of trouble.
I will save him and honor him.
16 I will give him a long and full life.
I will save him.”

Psalm 92

A psalm. A song for the Sabbath day.

[1]LORD, it is good to praise you.
Most High God, it is good to make music to honor you.
[2]It is good to sing every morning about your love.
It is good to sing every night about how faithful you are.
[3]I sing about it to the music of the lyre that has ten strings.
I sing about it to the music of the harp.

[4]LORD, you make me glad by your deeds.
I sing for joy about what you have done.
[5]LORD, how great are the things you do!
How wise your thoughts are!
[6]Here is something that people without sense don't know.
Here is what foolish people don't understand.
[7]Those who are evil spring up like grass.
Those who do wrong succeed.
But they will be destroyed forever.

[8]But LORD, you are honored forever.

[9]LORD, your enemies will certainly die.
All those who do evil will be scattered.
[10]You have made me as strong as a wild ox.
You have poured the finest olive oil on me.
[11]I've seen my evil enemies destroyed.
I've heard that they have lost the battle.

[12]Those who do what is right will grow like a palm tree.
They will grow strong like a cedar tree in Lebanon.
[13]Their roots will be firm in the house of the LORD.
They will grow strong and healthy in the courtyards of our God.
[14]When they get old, they will still bear fruit.
Like young trees they will stay fresh and strong.
[15]They will say to everyone, "The LORD is honest.

He is my Rock, and there is no evil in him.”

Psalm 93

[1]The LORD rules.
He puts on majesty as if it were clothes.
The LORD puts on majesty and strength.
Indeed, the world has been set in place.
It is firm and secure.
[2]LORD, you began to rule a long time ago.
You have always existed.

[3]LORD, the seas have lifted up their voice.
They have lifted up their pounding waves.
[4]But LORD, you are more powerful than the roar of the ocean.
You are stronger than the waves of the sea.
LORD, you are powerful in heaven.

[5]Your laws do not change, LORD.
Your temple will be holy
for all time to come.

Psalm 94

[1]The LORD is a God who punishes.
Since you are the one who punishes, come and show your anger.
[2]Judge of the earth, rise up.
Pay back proud people for what they have done.
[3]LORD, how long will those who are evil be glad?
How long will they be full of joy?

[4]Proud words pour out of their mouths.
All those who do evil are always bragging.
[5]LORD, they crush your people.
They treat badly those who belong to you.
[6]They kill outsiders. They kill widows.
They murder children whose fathers have died.
[7]They say, “The LORD doesn’t see what’s happening.
The God of Jacob doesn’t pay any attention to it.”

[8]You who aren’t wise, pay attention.
You foolish people, when will you become wise?
[9]Does he who made the ear not hear?
Does he who formed the eye not see?
[10]Does he who corrects nations not punish?
Does he who teaches human beings not know anything?
[11]The LORD knows what people think.
He knows that their thoughts don’t amount to anything.

[12]LORD, blessed is the person you correct.
Blessed is the person you teach from your law.
[13]You give them rest from times of trouble, until a pit is dug to trap sinners.
[14]The LORD won’t say no to his people.
He will never desert those who belong to him.
[15]He will again judge people in keeping with what is right.
All those who have honest hearts will follow the right way.

16 Who will rise up for me against sinful people?
Who will stand up for me against those who do evil?
17 Suppose the LORD had not helped me.
Then I would soon have been lying quietly in the grave.
18 I said, “My foot is slipping.”
But LORD, your faithful love kept me from falling.
19 I was very worried.
But your comfort brought me joy.

20 Can you have anything to do with rulers who aren’t fair?
Can those who make laws that cause suffering be friends of yours?
21 Evil people join together against those who do what is right.
They sentence to death those who aren’t guilty of doing anything wrong.
22 But the LORD has become like a fort to me.
My God is my rock. I go to him for safety.
23 He will pay them back for their sins.
He will destroy them for their evil acts.
The LORD our God will destroy them.

Psalm 95

[1]Come, let us sing for joy to the LORD.
Let us give a loud shout to the Rock who saves us.
[2]Let us come to him and give him thanks.
Let us praise him with music and song.

[3]The LORD is the great God.
He is the greatest King.
He rules over all the gods.
[4]He owns the deepest parts of the earth.
The mountain peaks belong to him.
[5]The ocean is his, because he made it.
He formed the dry land with his hands.

[6]Come, let us bow down and worship him.
Let us fall on our knees in front of the LORD our Maker.
[7]He is our God.
We are the sheep belonging to his flock.
We are the people he takes good care of.

If only you would listen to his voice today.
[8]He says, “Don’t be stubborn as you were at Meribah.
Don’t be stubborn as you were that day at Massah in the desert.
[9]There your people of long ago really tested me.
They did it even though they had seen what I had done for them.
[10]For 40 years I was angry with them.
I said, ‘Their hearts are always going astray.
They do not know how I want them to live.’
[11]So when I was angry, I made a promise.
I said, ‘They will never enjoy the rest I planned for them.’ ”

Psalm 96

[1]Sing a new song to the LORD.
All you people of the earth, sing to the LORD.
[2]Sing to the LORD. Praise him.
Day after day tell about how he saves us.
[3]Tell the nations about his glory.
Tell all people about the wonderful things he has done.

[4]The LORD is great. He is really worthy of praise.
People should have respect for him as the greatest God of all.
[5]All the gods of the nations are like their statues.
They can’t do anything.
But the LORD made the heavens.
[6]Glory and majesty are all around him.
Strength and glory can be seen in his temple.

[7]Praise the LORD, all you nations.
Praise the LORD for his glory and strength.
[8]Praise the LORD for the glory that belongs to him.
Bring an offering and come into the courtyards of his temple.
[9]Worship the LORD because of his beauty and holiness.
All you people of the earth, tremble when you are with him.

[10]Say to the nations, “The LORD rules.”
The world is firmly set in place. It can’t be moved.
The LORD will judge the people of the world fairly.
[11]Let the heavens be full of joy. Let the earth be glad.
Let the ocean and everything in it roar.
[12]Let the fields and everything in them be glad.
Let all the trees in the forest sing for joy.
[13]Let all creation be full of joy in front of the LORD,
because he is coming to judge the earth.
He will faithfully judge the people of the world in keeping with what is right.

Psalm 97

[1]The LORD rules. Let the earth be glad.
Let countries that are far away be full of joy.

[2]Clouds and thick darkness surround him.
His rule is built on what is right and fair.
[3]The LORD sends fire ahead of him.
It burns up his enemies all around him.
[4]His lightning lights up the world.
The earth sees it and trembles.
[5]The mountains melt like wax when the LORD is near.
He is the Lord of the whole earth.
[6]The heavens announce that what he does is right.
All people everywhere see his glory.

[7]All who worship statues of gods or brag about them are put to shame.
All you gods, worship the LORD!

[8]Zion hears about it and is filled with joy.
LORD, the villages of Judah are glad because of how you judge.
[9]LORD, you are the Most High God.
You rule over the whole earth.
You are honored much more than all gods.

[10]Let those who love the LORD hate evil.
He guards the lives of those who are faithful to him.
He saves them from the power of sinful people.
[11]Good things come to those who do what is right.
Joy comes to those whose hearts are honest.
[12]You who are godly, be glad because of what the LORD has done.
Praise him, because his name is holy.

Psalm 98

A psalm.

[1]Sing a new song to the LORD.
He has done wonderful things.
By the power of his right hand and his holy arm
he has saved his people.
[2]The LORD has made known his power to save.
He has shown the nations that he does what is right.
[3]He has shown his faithful love to the people of Israel.
People from one end of the earth to the other have seen that our God has saved us.

[4]Shout for joy to the LORD, everyone on earth.
Burst into joyful songs and make music.
[5]Make music to the LORD with the harp.
Sing and make music with the harp.
[6]Blow the trumpets. Give a blast on the ram’s horn.
Shout for joy to the LORD. He is the King.

[7]Let the ocean and everything in it roar.
Let the world and all who live in it shout.
[8]Let the rivers clap their hands.
Let the mountains sing together with joy.
[9]Let them sing to the LORD,
because he is coming to judge the earth.
He will judge the nations of the world in keeping with what is right and fair.

Psalm 99

[1]The LORD rules.
Let the nations tremble.
He sits on his throne between the cherubim.
Let the earth shake.
[2]Great is the LORD in Zion.
He is honored over all the nations.
[3]Let them praise his great and wonderful name.
He is holy.

[4]The King is mighty and loves justice.
He has set up the rules for fairness.
He has done what is right and fair
for the people of Jacob.
[5]Honor the LORD our God.
Worship at his feet.
He is holy.

[6]Moses and Aaron were two of his priests.
Samuel was one of those who worshiped him.
They called out to the LORD.
And he answered them.
[7]He spoke to them from the pillar of cloud.
They obeyed his laws and the orders he gave them.

[8]LORD our God, you answered them.
You showed Israel that you are a God who forgives.
But when they did wrong, you punished them.
[9]Honor the LORD our God.
Worship at his holy mountain.
The LORD our God is holy.

Psalm 100

A psalm for giving grateful praise.

[1]Shout for joy to the LORD, everyone on earth.
[2]Worship the LORD with gladness.
Come to him with songs of joy.
[3]Know that the LORD is God.
He made us, and we belong to him.
We are his people.
We are the sheep belonging to his flock.

[4]Give thanks as you enter the gates of his temple.
Give praise as you enter its courtyards.
Give thanks to him and praise his name.
[5]The LORD is good. His faithful love continues forever.
It will last for all time to come.

Psalm 101

A psalm of David.

[1]I will sing about your love and fairness.
LORD, I will sing praise to you.
[2]I will be careful to lead a life
that is without blame.
When will you come and help me?

In my own home I will lead a life
that is without blame.
[3]I won't look at anything that is evil and call it good.

I hate the acts of people who aren't faithful to you.
I won't have anything to do with those things.
[4]I will stay away from those whose hearts are twisted.
I won't have anything to do with what is evil.

[5]I will get rid of anyone who tells lies about their neighbor in secret.
I won't put up with anyone whose eyes and heart are proud.

[6]I will look with favor on the faithful people in the land.
They will live with me.
Those whose lives are without blame will serve me.

[7]No one who lies and cheats will live in my house.
No one who tells lies will serve me.

[8]Every morning I will get rid of all the sinful people in the land.
I will remove from the city of the LORD
everyone who does what is evil.

Psalm 102

A prayer of a suffering person who has become weak. They pour out their problems to the LORD.

[1]LORD, hear my prayer.
Listen to my cry for help.
[2]Don't turn your face away from me
when I'm in trouble.
Pay attention to me.
When I call out for help, answer me quickly.

[3]My days are disappearing like smoke.
My body burns like glowing coals.
[4]My strength has dried up like grass.
I even forget to eat my food.
[5]I groan out loud because of my suffering.
I'm nothing but skin and bones.
[6]I'm like a desert owl.
I'm like an owl among destroyed buildings.
[7]I can't sleep. I've become like a bird alone on a roof.
[8]All day long my enemies laugh at me.
Those who make fun of me use my name as a curse.
[9]I eat ashes as my food.
My tears fall into what I'm drinking.
[10]You were very angry with me.
So you picked me up and threw me away.
[11]The days of my life are like an evening shadow.
I dry up like grass.

[12]But LORD, you are seated on your throne forever.
Your fame will continue for all time to come.
[13]You will rise up and show deep concern for Zion.
The time has come for you to help Zion.
[14]The stones of your destroyed city are priceless to us.
Even its dust brings deep concern to us.

15 The nations will worship the LORD.
All the kings on earth will respect his glorious power.
16 The LORD will build Zion again.
He will appear in his glory.
17 He will answer the prayer of those who don't have anything.
He won't say no to their cry for help.

18 Let this be written down for those born after us.
Then people who are not yet born can praise the LORD.
19 Here is what should be written.
"The LORD looked down from his temple in heaven.
From heaven he viewed the earth.
20 He heard the groans of the prisoners.
He set free those who were sentenced to death."
21 So people will talk about him in Zion.
They will praise him in Jerusalem.
22 Nations and kingdoms will gather there to worship the LORD.

23 When I was still young, he took away my strength.
He wasn't going to let me live much longer.
24 So I said, "My God, don't let me die in the middle of my life.
You will live for all time to come.
25 In the beginning you made the earth secure.
You placed it on its foundations.
Your hands created the heavens.
26 They will pass away. But you will remain.
They will all wear out like a piece of clothing.
You will make them like clothes that are taken off and thrown away.
27 But you remain the same.
Your years will never end.
28 Our children will live with you.
Their sons and daughters will be safe in your care."

Psalm 103

A psalm of David.

[1]I will praise the LORD.
Deep down inside me, I will praise him.
I will praise him, because his name is holy.
[2]I will praise the LORD.
I won’t forget anything he does for me.
[3]He forgives all my sins.
He heals all my sicknesses.
[4]He saves my life from going down into the grave.
His faithful and tender love makes me feel like a king.
[5]He satisfies me with the good things I desire.
Then I feel young and strong again, just like an eagle.

[6]The LORD does what is right and fair for all who are treated badly.

[7]He told Moses all about his plans.
He let the people of Israel see his mighty acts.
[8]The LORD is tender and kind. He is gracious.
He is slow to get angry. He is full of love.
[9]He won’t keep bringing charges against us.
He won’t stay angry with us forever.
[10]He doesn’t punish us for our sins as much as we should be punished.
He doesn’t pay us back in keeping with the evil things we’ve done.
[11]He loves those who have respect for him.
His love is as high as the heavens are above the earth.
[12]He has removed our sins from us.
He has removed them as far as the east is from the west.
[13]A father is tender and kind to his children.
In the same way, the LORD is tender and kind to those who have respect for him.
[14]He knows what we are made of.

He remembers that we are dust.
15 The life of human beings is like grass.
People grow like the flowers in the field.
16 When the wind blows on them, they are gone.
No one can tell that they had ever been there.
17 But the LORD's love for those who have respect for him lasts for ever and ever.
Their children's children will know that he always does what is right.
18 He always loves those who keep his covenant.
He always does what is right for those who remember to obey his commands.

19 The LORD has set up his throne in heaven.
His kingdom rules over all.

20 Praise the LORD, you angels of his.
Praise him, you mighty ones who carry out his orders and obey his word.
21 Praise the LORD, all you angels in heaven.
Praise him, all you who serve him and do what he wants.
22 Let everything the LORD has made praise him everywhere in his kingdom.

I will praise the LORD.

Psalm 104

[1]I will praise the LORD.

LORD my God, you are very great.
You are dressed in glory and majesty.
[2]The LORD wraps himself in light as if it were a robe.
He spreads out the heavens like a tent.
[3]He builds his palace high in the heavens.
He makes the clouds serve as his chariot.
He rides on the wings of the wind.
[4]He makes the winds serve as his messengers.
He makes flashes of lightning serve him.

[5]He placed the earth on its foundations.
It can never be moved.
[6]You, LORD, covered it with the oceans like a blanket.
The waters covered the mountains.
[7]But you commanded the waters, and they ran away.
At the sound of your thunder they rushed off.
[8]They flowed down the mountains.
They went into the valleys.
They went to the place you appointed for them.
[9]You drew a line they can't cross.
They will never cover the earth again.

[10]The LORD makes springs pour water into the valleys.
It flows between the mountains.
[11]The springs give water to all the wild animals.
The wild donkeys satisfy their thirst.
[12]The birds in the sky build nests by the waters.
They sing among the branches.
[13]The LORD waters the mountains from his palace high in the clouds.
The earth is filled with the things he has made.
[14]He makes grass grow for the cattle and plants for people to take care of.

That’s how they get food from the earth.
15 There is wine to make people glad.
There is olive oil to make their skin glow.
And there is bread to make them strong.
16 The cedar trees of Lebanon belong to the LORD.
He planted them and gave them plenty of water.
17 There the birds make their nests.
The stork has its home in the juniper trees.
18 The high mountains belong to the wild goats.
The cliffs are a safe place for the rock badgers.

19 The LORD made the moon to mark off the seasons.
The sun knows when to go down.
20 You, LORD, bring darkness, and it becomes night.
Then all the animals of the forest prowl around.
21 The lions roar while they hunt.
All their food comes from God.
22 The sun rises, and they slip away.
They return to their dens and lie down.
23 Then people get up and go to work.
They keep working until evening.

24 LORD, you have made so many things!
How wise you were when you made all of them!
The earth is full of your creatures.
25 Look at the ocean, so big and wide!
It is filled with more creatures than people can count.
It is filled with living things, from the largest to the smallest.
26 Ships sail back and forth on it.
Leviathan, the sea monster you made, plays in it.

27 All creatures depend on you to give them their food when they need it.
28 When you give it to them,
they eat it.
When you open your hand,

they are satisfied with good things.
29 When you turn your face away from them,
they are terrified.
When you take away their breath,
they die and turn back into dust.
30 When you send your Spirit,
you create them.
You give new life to the ground.

31 May the glory of the LORD continue forever.
May the LORD be happy with what he has made.
32 When he looks at the earth, it trembles.
When he touches the mountains, they pour out smoke.

33 I will sing to the LORD all my life.
I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.
34 May these thoughts of mine please him.
I find my joy in the LORD.
35 But may sinners be gone from the earth.
May evil people disappear.

I will praise the LORD.

Praise the LORD.

Psalm 105

[1]Give praise to the LORD and announce who he is.
Tell the nations what he has done.
[2]Sing to him, sing praise to him.
Tell about all the wonderful things he has done.
[3]Praise him, because his name is holy.
Let the hearts of those who trust in the LORD be glad.
[4]Seek the LORD and the strength he gives.
Always seek him.

[5]Remember the wonderful things he has done.
Remember his miracles and how he judged our enemies.
[6]Remember what he has done, you children of his servant
Abraham.
Remember it, you people of Jacob, God's chosen ones.
[7]He is the LORD our God.
He judges the whole earth.

[8]He will keep his covenant forever.
He will keep his promise for all time to come.
[9]He will keep the covenant he made with Abraham.
He will keep the promise he made to Isaac.
[10]He made it stand as a law for Jacob.
He made it stand as a covenant for Israel that will last forever.
[11]He said, "I will give you the land of Canaan.
It will belong to you."

[12]At first there weren't very many of God's people.
There were only a few, and they were strangers in the land.
[13]They wandered from nation to nation.
They wandered from one kingdom to another.
[14]But God didn't allow anyone to treat them badly.
To keep them safe, he gave a command to kings.
[15]He said to them, "Do not touch my anointed ones.
Do not harm my prophets."

[16]He made the people in the land go hungry.
He destroyed all their food supplies.
[17]He sent a man ahead of them into Egypt.
That man was Joseph. He had been sold as a slave.
[18]The Egyptians put his feet in chains.
They put an iron collar around his neck.
[19]He was in prison until what he said would happen came true.
The word of the LORD proved that he was right.
[20]The king of Egypt sent for Joseph and let him out of prison.
The ruler of many nations set him free.
[21]He put Joseph in charge of his palace.
He made him ruler over everything he owned.
[22]Joseph was in charge of teaching the princes.
He taught the elders how to think and live wisely.

[23]Then the rest of Jacob’s family went to Egypt.
The people of Israel lived as outsiders in the land of Ham.
[24]The LORD gave his people so many children that there were too many of them for their enemies.
[25]He made the Egyptians hate his people.
The Egyptians made evil plans against them.
[26]The LORD sent his servant Moses to the king of Egypt.
He sent Aaron, his chosen one, along with him.
[27]The LORD gave them the power to do signs among the Egyptians.
They did his wonders in the land of Ham.
[28]The LORD sent darkness over the land.
He did it because the Egyptians had refused to obey his words.
[29]He turned their rivers and streams into blood.
He caused the fish in them to die.
[30]Their land was covered with frogs.
Frogs even went into the bedrooms of the rulers.
[31]The LORD spoke, and large numbers of flies came.
Gnats filled the whole country.
[32]He turned their rain into hail.
Lightning flashed all through their land.

[33]He destroyed their vines and fig trees.
He broke down the trees in Egypt.
[34]He spoke, and the locusts came.
There were so many of them they couldn’t be counted.
[35]They ate up every green thing in the land.
They ate up what the land produced.
[36]Then he killed the oldest son of every family in Egypt.
He struck down the oldest of all their sons.

[37]He brought the people of Israel out of Egypt.
The Egyptians loaded them down with silver and gold.
From among the tribes of Israel no one got tired or fell down.
[38]The Egyptians were glad when the people of Israel left.
They were terrified because of Israel.
[39]The LORD spread out a cloud to cover his people.
He gave them a fire to light up the night.
[40]They asked for meat, and he brought them quail.
He fed them well with manna, the bread of heaven.
[41]He broke open a rock, and streams of water poured out.
They flowed like a river in the desert.

[42]He remembered the holy promise
he had made to his servant Abraham.
[43]His chosen people shouted for joy
as he brought them out of Egypt.
[44]He gave them the lands of other nations.
He let them take over what others had worked for.
[45]He did it so they might obey his rules and follow his laws.

Praise the LORD.

Psalm 106

[1]Praise the LORD.

Give thanks to the LORD, because he is good.
His faithful love continues forever.
[2]Who can speak enough about the mighty acts of the LORD?
Who can praise him as much as he should be praised?
[3]Blessed are those who always do what is fair.
Blessed are those who keep doing what is right.
[4]LORD, remember me when you bless your people.
Help me when you save them.
[5]Then I will enjoy the good things you give your chosen ones.
I will be joyful together with your people.
I will join them when they praise you.

[6]We have sinned, just as our people of long ago did.
We too have done what is evil and wrong.
[7]When our people were in Egypt,
they forgot about the LORD's miracles.
They didn't remember his many kind acts.
At the Red Sea they refused to obey him.
[8]But he saved them for the honor of his name.
He did it to make his mighty power known.
[9]He ordered the Red Sea to dry up, and it did.
He led his people through it as if it were a desert.
[10]He saved them from the power of their enemies.
He set them free from their control.
[11]The waters covered their enemies.
Not one of them escaped alive.
[12]Then his people believed his promises and sang praise to him.

[13]But they soon forgot what he had done.
They didn't wait for what he had planned to happen.
[14]In the desert they longed for food.

In that dry and empty land they tested God.
15So he gave them what they asked for.
But he also sent a sickness that killed many of them.

16In their camp some of them became jealous of Moses and Aaron.
Aaron had been set apart to serve the LORD.
17The ground opened up and swallowed Dathan.
It buried Abiram and his followers.
18Fire blazed among all of them.
Flames destroyed those evil people.

19At Mount Horeb they made a metal statue of a bull calf.
They worshiped that statue of a god.
20They traded their glorious God for a statue of a bull that eats grass.
21They forgot the God who saved them.
They forgot the God who had done great things in Egypt.
22They forgot the miracles he did in the land of Ham.
They forgot the wonderful things he did by the Red Sea.
23So he said he would destroy them.
But Moses, his chosen one,
stood up for them.
He kept God’s anger from destroying them.

24Later on, they refused to enter the pleasant land of Canaan.
They didn’t believe God’s promise.
25In their tents they told the LORD how unhappy they were.
They didn’t obey him.
26So he lifted up his hand and promised that he would make them die in the desert.
27He promised he would scatter their children’s children among the nations.
He would make them die in other lands.

28They joined in worshiping the Baal that was worshiped at Peor.
They ate food that had been offered to gods that aren’t even alive.

[29]Their evil ways made the LORD angry.
So a plague broke out among them.
[30]But Phinehas stood up and took action.
Then the plague stopped.
[31]What Phinehas did made him right with the LORD.
It will be remembered for all time to come.

[32]By the waters of Meribah the LORD's people made him angry.
Moses got in trouble because of them.
[33]They refused to obey the Spirit of God.
So Moses spoke without thinking.

[34]They didn't destroy the nations in Canaan as the LORD had commanded them.
[35]Instead, they mixed with those nations and adopted their ways.
[36]They worshiped statues of their gods.
That became a trap for them.
[37]They sacrificed their sons and daughters as offerings to false gods.
[38]They killed those who weren't guilty of doing anything wrong.
They killed their own sons and daughters.
They sacrificed them as offerings to statues of the gods of Canaan.
The land became "unclean" because of the blood of their children.
[39]The people made themselves impure by what they had done.
They weren't faithful to the LORD.

[40]So the LORD became angry with his people.
He turned away from his own children.
[41]He handed them over to the nations.
Their enemies ruled over them.
[42]Their enemies treated them badly and kept them under their power.
[43]Many times the LORD saved them.
But they refused to obey him.
So he destroyed them because of their sins.

[44]Yet he heard them when they cried out.
He paid special attention to their suffering.
[45]Because they were his people, he remembered his covenant.
Because of his great love, he felt sorry for them.
[46]He made all those who held them as prisoners have mercy on them.

[47]LORD our God, save us.
Bring us back from among the nations.
Then we will give thanks to you, because your name is holy.
We will celebrate by praising you.

[48]Give praise to the LORD, the God of Israel,
for ever and ever.
Let all the people say, “Amen!”

Praise the LORD.

BOOK V

Psalms 107–150

Psalm 107

[1]Give thanks to the LORD, because he is good.
His faithful love continues forever.
[2]Let those who have been set free by the LORD tell their story.
He set them free from the power of the enemy.
[3]He brought them back from other lands.
He brought them back from east and west, from north and south.

[4]Some of them wandered in deserts that were dry and empty.
They couldn’t find a city where they could make their homes.
[5]They were hungry and thirsty.
Their lives were slipping away.
[6]Then they cried out to the LORD because of their problems.
And he saved them from their troubles.
[7]He led them straight to a city where they could make their homes.
[8]Let them give thanks to the LORD for his faithful love.
Let them give thanks for the wonderful things he does for people.
[9]He gives those who are thirsty all the water they want.
He gives those who are hungry all the good food they can eat.

[10]Others lived in the deepest darkness.
They suffered as prisoners in iron chains.
[11]That’s because they hadn’t obeyed the commands of God.
They had refused to follow the plans of the Most High God.
[12]So he made them do work that was hard and bitter.
They tripped and fell, and there was no one to help them.
[13]Then they cried out to the LORD because of their problems.

And he saved them from their troubles.
14 He brought them out of the deepest darkness.
He broke their chains off.
15 Let them give thanks to the LORD for his faithful love.
Let them give thanks for the wonderful things he does for people.
16 He breaks down gates that are made of bronze.
He cuts through bars that are made of iron.

17 Others were foolish. They suffered because of their sins.
They suffered because they wouldn't obey the LORD.
18 They refused to eat anything.
They came close to passing through the gates of death.
19 Then they cried out to the LORD because of their problems.
And he saved them from their troubles.
20 He gave his command and healed them.
He saved them from the grave.
21 Let them give thanks to the LORD for his faithful love.
Let them give thanks for the wonderful things he does for people.
22 Let them sacrifice thank offerings.
Let them talk about what he has done as they sing with joy.

23 Some people sailed out on the ocean in ships.
They traded goods on the mighty waters.
24 They saw the works of the LORD.
They saw the wonderful deeds he did on the ocean.
25 He spoke and stirred up a storm.
It lifted the waves high.
26 They rose up to the heavens. Then they went down deep into the ocean.
In that kind of danger the people's boldness melted away.
27 They were unsteady like people who have become drunk.
They didn't know what to do.
28 Then they cried out to the LORD because of their problems.
And he brought them out of their troubles.
29 He made the storm as quiet as a whisper.

The waves of the ocean calmed down.
30 The people were glad when the ocean became calm.
Then he guided them to the harbor they were looking for.
31 Let them give thanks to the LORD for his faithful love.
Let them give thanks for the wonderful things he does for people.
32 Let them honor him among his people who gather for worship.
Let them praise him in the meeting of the elders.

33 He turned rivers into a desert.
He turned flowing springs into thirsty ground.
34 He turned land that produced crops into a salty land where nothing could grow.
He did it because the people who lived there were evil.
35 He turned the desert into pools of water.
He turned the dry and cracked ground into flowing springs.
36 He brought hungry people there to live.
They built a city where they could make their homes.
37 They planted fields and vineyards that produced large crops.
38 He blessed the people, and they greatly increased their numbers.
He kept their herds from getting smaller.

39 Then the number of God's people got smaller.
They were made humble by trouble, suffering and sorrow.
40 The God who looks down on proud nobles made them wander in a desert where no one lives.
41 But he lifted needy people out of their suffering.
He made their families increase like flocks of sheep.
42 Honest people see it and are filled with joy.
But no one who is evil has anything to say.

43 Let those who are wise pay attention to these things.
Let them think about the loving deeds of the LORD.

Psalm 108

A song. A psalm of David.

[1]God, my heart feels secure.
I will sing and make music to you with all my heart.
[2]Harp and lyre, wake up!
I want to sing and make music before the sun rises.
[3]LORD, I will praise you among the nations.
I will sing about you among the people of the earth.
[4]Great is your love. It is higher than the heavens.
Your truth reaches to the skies.
[5]God, may you be honored above the heavens.
Let your glory be over the whole earth.

[6]Save us. Help us with your powerful right hand, so that those you love may be saved.
[7]God has spoken from his temple.
He has said, “I will win the battle.
Then I will divide up the land around Shechem.
I will divide up the Valley of Sukkoth.
[8]Gilead belongs to me, and so does the land of Manasseh.
Ephraim is the strongest tribe. It is like a helmet for my head.
Judah is the royal tribe. It is like a ruler’s scepter.
[9]Moab serves me like one who washes my feet.
I toss my sandal on Edom to show that I own it.
I shout to Philistia that I have won the battle.”

[10]Who will bring me to the city that has high walls around it?
Who will lead me to the land of Edom?
[11]God, isn’t it you, even though you have now turned away from us?
Isn’t it you, even though you don’t lead our armies into battle anymore?
[12]Help us against our enemies.
The help people give doesn’t amount to anything.
[13]With your help we will win the battle.

You will walk all over our enemies.

Psalm 109

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

[1]God, I praise you.
Don’t remain silent.
[2]Sinful people who lie and cheat have spoken against me.
They have used their tongues to tell lies about me.
[3]They gather all around me with their words of hatred.
They attack me without any reason.
[4]They bring charges against me, even though I love them
and pray for them.
[5]They pay me back with evil for the good things I do.
They pay back my love with hatred.

[6]Appoint an evil person to take my enemies to court.
Let him stand at their right hand and bring charges against them.
[7]When they are tried, let them be found guilty.
May even their prayers judge them.
[8]May their days be few.
Let others take their places as leaders.
[9]May their children’s fathers die.
May their wives become widows.
[10]May their children be driven from their destroyed homes.
May they wander around like beggars.
[11]May everything those people own be taken away to pay for what they owe.
May strangers rob them of everything they’ve worked for.
[12]May no one be kind to them or take pity on the children they leave behind.
[13]May their family line come to an end.
May their names be forgotten by those who live after them.
[14]May the LORD remember the evil things their fathers have done.
May he never erase the sins of their mothers.
[15]May the LORD never forget their sins.

Then he won’t let people remember the names of my enemies
anymore.

16 They never thought about doing anything kind.
Instead, they drove those who were poor and needy to their deaths.
They did the same thing to those whose hearts were broken.
17 They loved to curse others.
May their curses come back on them.
They didn’t find any pleasure in giving anyone their blessing.
May no blessing ever come to them.
18 They cursed others as easily as they put on clothes.
Cursing was as natural to them as getting a drink of water or putting olive oil on their bodies.
19 May their curses cover them like coats.
May their curses be wrapped around them like a belt forever.
20 May that be the LORD’s way of paying back those who bring charges against me.
May it happen to those who say evil things about me.

21 But LORD and King, help me so that you bring honor to yourself.
Because your love is so good, save me.
22 I am poor and needy.
My heart is wounded deep down inside me.
23 I fade away like an evening shadow.
I’m like a locust that someone brushes off.
24 My knees are weak because I’ve gone without food.
My body is very thin.
25 Those who bring charges against me laugh at me.
When they see me, they shake their heads at me.

26 LORD my God, help me.
Save me because of your faithful love.
27 LORD, let my enemies know that you yourself have saved me.
You have done it with your own hand.

[28]They may curse me.
But may you bless me.
May those who attack me be put to shame.
But may I be filled with joy.
[29]May those who bring charges against me be clothed with dishonor.
May they be wrapped in shame as if it were a coat.

[30]With my mouth I will continually praise the LORD.
I will praise him when all his people gather for worship.
[31]He stands ready to help those who need it.
He saves them from those who are ready to sentence them to death.

Psalm 110

A psalm of David.

[1]The LORD says to my lord,
“Sit at my right hand
until I put your enemies
under your control.”

[2]The LORD will make your royal authority spread out from Zion to other lands.
He says, “Rule over your enemies who are all around you.”
[3]Your troops will be willing to fight for you on the day of battle.
Your young men will be wrapped in holy majesty.
They will come to you like the fresh dew that falls early in the morning.

[4]The LORD has made a promise.
He will not change his mind.
He has said, “You are a priest forever,
just like Melchizedek.”

[5]The Lord is at your right hand.
He will crush kings on the day when he is angry.
[6]He will judge the nations. He will pile up dead bodies on the field of battle.
He will crush the rulers of the whole earth.
[7]He will drink from a brook along the way and receive new strength.
And so he will win the battle.

Psalm 111

[1]Praise the LORD.

I will praise the LORD with all my heart.
I will praise him where honest people gather for worship.

[2]The LORD has done great things.
All who take delight in those things think deeply about them.
[3]What he does shows his glory and majesty.
He will always do what is right.
[4]The LORD causes his wonders to be remembered.
He is kind and tender.
[5]He provides food for those who have respect for him.
He remembers his covenant forever.
[6]He has shown his people what his power can do.
He has given them the lands of other nations.
[7]He is faithful and right in everything he does.
All his rules can be trusted.
[8]They will stand firm for ever and ever.
They were given by the LORD.
He is faithful and honest.
[9]He set his people free.
He made a covenant with them that will last forever.
His name is holy and wonderful.

[10]If you really want to become wise,
you must begin by having respect for the LORD.
All those who follow his rules have good understanding.
People should praise him forever.

Psalm 112

[1]Praise the LORD.

Blessed are those who have respect for the LORD.
They find great delight when they obey God's commands.

[2]Their children will be powerful in the land.
Because they are honest, their children will be blessed.
[3]Their family will have wealth and riches.
They will always be blessed for doing what is right.
[4]Even in the darkness light shines on honest people.
It shines on those who are kind and tender and godly.
[5]Good things will come to those who are willing to lend freely.
Good things will come to those who are fair in everything they do.
[6]Those who do what is right will always be secure.
They will be remembered forever.
[7]They aren't afraid when bad news comes.
They stand firm because they trust in the LORD.
[8]Their hearts are secure. They aren't afraid.
In the end they will see their enemies destroyed.
[9]They have spread their gifts around to poor people.
Their good works continue forever.
They will be powerful and honored.

[10]Evil people will see it and be upset.
They will grind their teeth and become weaker and weaker.
What evil people long to do can't succeed.

Psalm 113

[1]Praise the LORD.

Praise him, you who serve the LORD.
Praise the name of the LORD.
[2]Let us praise the name of the LORD,
both now and forever.
[3]From the sunrise in the east to the sunset in the west,
may the name of the LORD be praised.

[4]The LORD is honored over all the nations.
His glory reaches to the highest heavens.
[5]Who is like the LORD our God?
He sits on his throne in heaven.
[6]He bends down to look at the heavens and the earth.

[7]He raises poor people up from the trash pile.
He lifts needy people out of the ashes.
[8]He causes them to sit with princes.
He causes them to sit with the princes of his people.
[9]He gives children to the woman who doesn’t have any children.
He makes her a happy mother in her own home.

Praise the LORD.

Psalm 114

[1]The people of Israel came out of Egypt.
The people of Jacob left a land where a different language was spoken.
[2]Then Judah became the holy place where God lived.
Israel became the land he ruled over.

[3]The Red Sea saw him and parted.
The Jordan River stopped flowing.
[4]The mountains leaped like rams.
The hills skipped like lambs.

[5]Red Sea, why did you part?
Jordan River, why did you stop flowing?
[6]Why did you mountains leap like rams?
Why did you hills skip like lambs?

[7]Earth, tremble with fear when the Lord comes.
Tremble when the God of Jacob is near.
[8]He turned the rock into a pool.
He turned the hard rock into springs of water.

Psalm 115

[1]LORD, may glory be given to you, not to us.
You are loving and faithful.

[2]Why do the nations ask,
"Where is their God?"
[3]Our God is in heaven.
He does anything he wants to do.
[4]But the statues of their gods are made out of silver and gold.
They are made by human hands.
[5]They have mouths but can't speak.
They have eyes but can't see.
[6]They have ears but can't hear.
They have noses but can't smell.
[7]They have hands but can't feel.
They have feet but can't walk.
They have throats but can't say anything.
[8]Those who make statues of gods will be like them.
So will all those who trust in them.

[9]All you Israelites, trust in the LORD.
He helps you like a shield that keeps you safe.
[10]Priests of Aaron, trust in the LORD.
He helps you like a shield that keeps you safe.
[11]You who have respect for the LORD, trust in him.
He helps you like a shield that keeps you safe.

[12]The LORD remembers us and will bless us.
He will bless Israel, his people.
He will bless the priests of Aaron.
[13]The LORD will bless those who have respect for him.
He will bless important and unimportant people alike.

[14]May the LORD give you many children.
May he give them to you and to your children after you.

[15]May the LORD bless you.
He is the Maker of heaven and earth.

[16]The highest heavens belong to the LORD.
But he has given the earth to human beings.
[17]Dead people don’t praise the LORD.
Those who lie quietly in the grave don’t praise him.
[18]But we who are alive praise the LORD,
both now and forever.

Praise the LORD.

Psalm 116

[1]I love the LORD, because he heard my voice.
He heard my cry for his help.
[2]Because he paid attention to me,
I will call out to him as long as I live.

[3]The ropes of death were wrapped around me.
The horrors of the grave came over me.
I was overcome by sadness and sorrow.
[4]Then I called out to the LORD.
I cried out, “LORD, save me!”

[5]The LORD is holy and kind.
Our God is full of tender love.
[6]The LORD takes care of those who are not aware of danger.
When I was in great need, he saved me.

[7]I said to myself, “Be calm.
The LORD has been good to me.”

[8]LORD, you have saved me from death.
You have dried the tears from my eyes.
You have kept me from tripping and falling.
[9]So now I can enjoy life here with you while I’m still living.
[10]I trusted in the LORD even when I said to myself,
“I am in great pain.”
[11]When I was terrified, I said to myself,
“No one tells the truth.”

[12]The LORD has been so good to me!
How can I ever pay him back?
[13]I will bring an offering of wine to the LORD and thank him for saving me.
I will worship him.

[14]In front of all the LORD’s people,
I will do what I promised him.

[15]The LORD pays special attention when his faithful people die.
[16]LORD, I serve you.
I serve you just as my mother did.
You have set me free from the chains of my suffering.

[17]LORD, I will sacrifice a thank offering to you.
I will worship you.
[18]In front of all the LORD’s people,
I will do what I promised him.
[19]I will keep my promise in the courtyards of the LORD’s temple.
I will keep my promise in Jerusalem itself.

Praise the LORD.

Psalm 117

[1]All you nations, praise the LORD.
All you people on earth, praise him.
[2]Great is his love for us.
The LORD is faithful forever.

Praise the LORD.

Psalm 118

[1]Give thanks to the LORD, because he is good.
His faithful love continues forever.

[2]Let the people of Israel say,
"His faithful love continues forever."
[3]Let the priests of Aaron say,
"His faithful love continues forever."
[4]Let those who have respect for the LORD say,
"His faithful love continues forever."

[5]When I was in great trouble, I cried out to the LORD.
He answered me and set me free from my trouble.
[6]The LORD is with me. I will not be afraid.
What can mere human beings do to me?
[7]The LORD is with me. He helps me.
I win the battle over my enemies.

[8]It is better to go to the LORD for safety than to trust in mere human beings.
[9]It is better to go to the LORD for safety than to trust in human leaders.

[10]The nations were all around me.
But by the LORD's power I destroyed them.
[11]They were around me on every side.
But by the LORD's power I destroyed them.
[12]They attacked me like swarms of bees.
But they were burned up as quickly as thorns in a fire.
By the LORD's power I destroyed them.

[13]I was pushed back and about to be killed.
But the LORD helped me.
[14]The LORD gives me strength and makes me secure.
He has saved me.

15 Shouts of joy ring out in the tents of godly people.
They praise him for his help in battle.
They shout, “The LORD’s powerful right hand has done mighty things!
16 The LORD’s powerful right hand has won the battle!
The LORD’s powerful right hand has done mighty things!”

17 I will not die but live.
I will talk about what the LORD has done.
18 The LORD has really punished me.
But he didn’t let me die.

19 Open for me the gates where the godly can go in.
I will enter and give thanks to the LORD.
20 This is the gate of the LORD.
Only those who do what is right can go through it.
21 LORD, I will give thanks to you, because you answered me.
You have saved me.

22 The stone the builders didn’t accept
has become the most important stone of all.
23 The LORD has done it.
It is wonderful in our eyes.
24 The LORD has done it on this day.
Let us be joyful today and be glad.

25 LORD, save us.
LORD, give us success.
26 Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the LORD.
From the temple of the LORD we bless you.
27 The LORD is God.
He has been good to us.
Take branches in your hands. Join in the march on the day of the feast.
March up to the corners of the altar.

28 You are my God, and I will praise you.

You are my God, and I will honor you.

[29]Give thanks to the LORD, because he is good.
His faithful love continues forever.

Psalm 119

א Aleph

[1]Blessed are those who live without blame.
They live in keeping with the law of the LORD.
[2]Blessed are those who obey his covenant laws.
They trust in him with all their hearts.
[3]They don’t do anything wrong.
They live as he wants them to live.
[4]You have given me rules that I must obey completely.
[5]I hope I will always stand firm in following your orders.
[6]Then I won’t be put to shame
when I think about all your commands.
[7]I will praise you with an honest heart as I learn about how fair your decisions are.
[8]I will obey your orders.
Please don’t leave me all alone.

[9]How can a young person keep their life pure?
By living according to your word.
[10]I trust in you with all my heart.
Don’t let me wander away from your commands.
[11]I have hidden your word in my heart
so that I won’t sin against you.
[12]LORD, I give praise to you.
Teach me your orders.
[13]With my lips I talk about all the decisions you have made.
[14]Following your covenant laws gives me joy just as great riches give joy to others.
[15]I spend time thinking about your rules.
I consider how you want me to live.

16 I take delight in your orders.
I won’t fail to obey your word.

18 Open my eyes so that I can see the wonderful truths in your law.
19 I’m a stranger on earth.
Don’t hide your commands from me.
20 My heart is filled with longing for your laws at all times.
21 You correct proud people. They are under your curse.
They wander away from your commands.
22 I obey your covenant laws.
So don’t let evil people laugh at me or hate me.
23 Even if rulers sit together and tell lies about me,
I will spend time thinking about your orders.
24 Your covenant laws are my delight.
They give me wise advice.

I will obey it with all my heart.
[35]Teach me to live as you command, because that makes me very happy.
[36]Make me want to follow your covenant laws instead of wanting to gain things only for myself.
[37]Turn my eyes away from things that are worthless.
Keep me alive as you have promised.
[38]Keep your promise to me.
Then other people will have respect for you.
[39]Please don’t let me be put to shame.

52 LORD, I remember the laws you gave long ago.
I find comfort in them.
53 I am very angry
because evil people have turned away from your law.
54 No matter where I live,

They dig pits for me to fall into.
86 All your commands can be trusted.

Psalm 120

A song for those who go up to Jerusalem to worship the LORD.

[1]I call out to the LORD when I’m in trouble, and he answers me.
[2]LORD, save me from people whose lips tell lies.
Save me from people whose tongues don’t tell the truth.

[3]What will the LORD do to you, you lying tongue?
And what more will he do?
[4]He will punish you with the sharp arrows of a soldier.
He will punish you with burning coals from a desert bush.

[5]How terrible it is for me to live in the tents of the people of Meshek!
How terrible to live in the tents of the people of Kedar!
[6]I have lived too long among those who hate peace.
[7]I want peace.
But when I speak, they want war.

Psalm 121

A song for those who go up to Jerusalem to worship the LORD.

[1]I look up to the mountains.
Where does my help come from?
[2]My help comes from the LORD.
He is the Maker of heaven and earth.

[3]He won’t let your foot slip.
He who watches over you won’t get tired.
[4]In fact, he who watches over Israel won’t get tired or go to sleep.

[5]The LORD watches over you.
The LORD is like a shade tree at your right hand.
[6]The sun won’t harm you during the day.
The moon won’t harm you during the night.

[7]The LORD will keep you from every kind of harm.
He will watch over your life.
[8]The LORD will watch over your life no matter where you go,
both now and forever.

Psalm 122

A song for those who go up to Jerusalem to worship the LORD. A psalm of David.

[1]I was very glad when they said to me,
"Let us go up to the house of the LORD."
[2]Jerusalem, our feet are standing inside your gates.

[3]Jerusalem is built like a city where everything is close together.
[4]The tribes of the LORD go there to praise his name.
They do it in keeping with the law he gave to Israel.
[5]The thrones of the family line of David are there.
That's where the people are judged.

[6]Pray for the peace of Jerusalem. Say,
"May those who love you be secure.
[7]May there be peace inside your walls.
May your people be kept safe."
[8]I'm concerned for my family and friends.
So I say to Jerusalem, "May you enjoy peace."
[9]I'm concerned about the house of the LORD our God.
So I pray that things will go well with Jerusalem.

Psalm 123

A song for those who go up to Jerusalem to worship the LORD.

[1]I look up and pray to you.
Your throne is in heaven.
[2]Slaves depend on their masters.
A female slave depends on the woman she works for.
In the same way, we depend on the LORD our God.
We wait for him to have mercy on us.

[3]LORD, have mercy on us. Have mercy on us, because people haven't stopped making fun of us.
[4]We have had to put up with a lot from those who are proud.
They were always laughing at us.

Psalm 124

A song for those who go up to Jerusalem to worship the LORD. A psalm of David.

[1]Here is what Israel should say.
Suppose the LORD had not been on our side.
[2]Suppose the LORD had not been on our side when our enemies attacked us.
[3]Suppose he had not been on our side when their burning anger blazed out against us.
Then they would have swallowed us alive.
[4]They would have been like a flood that drowned us.
They would have swept over us like a rushing river.
[5]They would have washed us away like a swollen stream.

[6]Give praise to the LORD.
He has not let our enemies chew us up.
[7]We have escaped like a bird from a hunter’s trap.
The trap has been broken,
and we have escaped.
[8]Our help comes from the LORD.
He is the Maker of heaven and earth.

Psalm 125

A song for those who go up to Jerusalem to worship the LORD.

[1]Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion.
They will always be secure. They will last forever.
[2]Like the mountains around Jerusalem, the LORD is all around his people
both now and forever.

[3]Evil people will not always rule
the land the LORD gave to those who do right.
If they did, those who do right might do what is evil.

[4]LORD, do good to those who are good.
Do good to those whose hearts are honest.
[5]But the LORD will drive out those who have taken crooked paths.
He will drive them out with those who do evil things.

May Israel enjoy peace.

Psalm 126

A song for those who go up to Jerusalem to worship the LORD.

[1]Our enemies took us away from Zion.
But when the LORD brought us home,
it seemed like a dream to us.
[2]Our mouths were filled with laughter.
Our tongues sang with joy.
Then the people of other nations said,
"The LORD has done great things for them."
[3]The LORD has done great things for us.
And we are filled with joy.

[4]LORD, bless us with great success again,
as rain makes streams flow in the Negev Desert.
[5]Those who cry as they plant their crops will sing with joy when they gather them in.
[6]Those who go out weeping as they carry seeds to plant will come back singing with joy.
They will bring the new crop back with them.

Psalm 127

A song for those who go up to Jerusalem to worship the LORD. A psalm of Solomon.

[1]If the LORD doesn’t build a house,
the work of the builders is useless.
If the LORD doesn’t watch over a city,
it’s useless for those on guard duty to stand watch over it.
[2]It’s useless for you to work from early morning until late at night
just to get food to eat.
God provides for those he loves even while they sleep.

[3]Children are a gift from the LORD.
They are a reward from him.
[4]Children who are born to people when they are young are like arrows in the hands of a soldier.
[5]Blessed are those who have many children.
They won’t be put to shame
when they go up against their enemies in court.

Psalm 128

A song for those who go up to Jerusalem to worship the LORD.

[1]Blessed are all those who have respect for the LORD.
They live as he wants them to live.
[2]Your work will give you what you need.
Blessings and good things will come to you.
[3]As a vine bears a lot of fruit,
so may your wife have many children by you.
May they sit around your table
like young olive trees.
[4]Only a man who has respect for the LORD will be blessed like that.

[5]May the LORD bless you from Zion.
May you enjoy the good things that come to Jerusalem
all the days of your life.
[6]May you live to see your grandchildren.

May Israel enjoy peace.

Psalm 129

A song for those who go up to Jerusalem to worship the LORD.

[1]Here is what Israel should say.
"My enemies have treated me badly ever since I was a young nation.
[2]My enemies have treated me badly ever since I was a young nation.
But they haven't won the battle.
[3]They have made deep wounds in my back.
It looks like a field a farmer has plowed.
[4]The LORD does what is right.
Sinners had tied me up with ropes. But the LORD has set me free."

[5]May all those who hate Zion be driven back in shame.
[6]May they be like grass that grows on the roof of a house.
It dries up before it can grow.
[7]There isn't enough of it to fill a person's hand.
There isn't enough to tie up and carry away.
[8]May no one who passes by say to those who hate Zion,
"May the blessing of the LORD be on you.
We bless you in the name of the LORD."

Psalm 130

A song for those who go up to Jerusalem to worship the LORD.

[1]LORD, I cry out to you because I'm suffering so deeply.
[2]Lord, listen to me.
Pay attention to my cry for your mercy.

[3]LORD, suppose you kept a close watch on sins.
Lord, who then wouldn't be found guilty?
[4]But you forgive.
So we can serve you with respect.

[5]With all my heart I wait for the LORD to help me.
I put my hope in his word.
[6]I wait for the Lord to help me.
I want his help more than night watchmen want the morning to come.
I'll say it again.
I want his help more than night watchmen want the morning to come.
[7]Israel, put your hope in the LORD,
because the LORD's love never fails.
He sets his people completely free.
[8]He himself will set Israel
free from all their sins.

Psalm 131

A song for those who go up to Jerusalem to worship the LORD. A psalm of David.

[1]LORD, my heart isn’t proud.
My eyes aren’t proud either.
I don’t concern myself with important matters.
I don’t concern myself with things that are too wonderful for me.
[2]I have made myself calm and content like a young child in its mother’s arms.
Deep down inside me, I am as content as a young child.

[3]Israel, put your hope in the LORD
both now and forever.

Psalm 132

A song for those who go up to Jerusalem to worship the LORD.

[1]LORD, remember David and all the times he didn't do what he wanted.

[2]LORD, he made a promise.
Mighty One of Jacob, he made a promise to you.
[3]He said, "I won't enter my house or go to bed.
[4]I won't let my eyes sleep.
I won't close my eyelids
[5]until I find a place for the LORD.
I want to build a house for the Mighty One of Jacob."

[6]Here are the words we heard in Ephrathah.
We heard them again in the fields of Kiriath Jearim.
[7]"Let us go to the LORD's house.
Let us worship at his feet. Let us say,
[8]'LORD, rise up and come to your resting place.
Come in together with the ark. It's the sign of your power.
[9]May your priests put on godliness as if it were their clothes.
May your faithful people sing for joy.' "

[10]In honor of your servant David, don't turn your back on your anointed king.

[11]The LORD made a promise to David.
It is a firm promise that he will never break.
He said, "After you die,
I will place one of your own sons on your throne.
[12]If your sons keep my covenant and the laws I teach them, then their sons will sit on your throne for ever and ever."

[13]The LORD has chosen Zion.
That’s the place where he wants to live.
[14]He has said, “This will be my resting place for ever and ever.
Here I will sit on my throne, because that’s what I want.
[15]I will greatly bless Zion with everything it needs.
I will give plenty of food to the poor people living there.
[16]I will put salvation on its priests as if it were their clothes.
God’s faithful people will always sing for joy.

[17]“Here in Jerusalem I will raise up a mighty king from the family of David.
I will set up the lamp of David’s kingdom for my anointed king.
Its flame will burn brightly forever.
[18]I will put shame on his enemies as if it were their clothes.
But he will wear on his head a shining crown.”

Psalm 133

A song for those who go up to Jerusalem to worship the LORD. A psalm of David.

[1]How good and pleasant it is when God's people live together in peace!
[2]It's like the special olive oil that was poured on Aaron's head.
It ran down on his beard
and on the collar of his robe.
[3]It's as if the dew of Mount Hermon were falling on Mount Zion.
There the LORD gives his blessing.
He gives life that never ends.

Psalm 134

A song for those who go up to Jerusalem to worship the LORD.

[1]All you who serve the LORD, praise the LORD.
All you who serve at night in the house of the LORD, praise him.
[2]Lift up your hands in the temple and praise the LORD.

[3]May the LORD bless you from Zion.
He is the Maker of heaven and earth.

Psalm 135

[1]Praise the LORD.

Praise the name of the LORD.
You who serve the LORD, praise him.
[2]You who serve in the house of the LORD, praise him.
You who serve in the courtyards of the temple of our God, praise him.

[3]Praise the LORD, because he is good.
Sing praise to his name, because that is pleasant.
[4]The LORD has chosen the people of Jacob to be his own.
He has chosen Israel to be his special treasure.

[5]I know that the LORD is great.
I know that our Lord is greater than all gods.
[6]The LORD does anything he wants to do in the heavens and on the earth.
He does it even in the deepest parts of the oceans.
[7]He makes clouds rise from one end of the earth to the other.
He sends lightning with the rain.
He brings the wind out of his storerooms.

[8]He killed the oldest son of each family in Egypt.
He struck down the oldest males that were born to people and animals.
[9]He did miraculous signs in Egypt.
He did wonders against Pharaoh and everyone who served him.
[10]He destroyed many nations.
He killed mighty kings.
[11]He killed Sihon, the king of the Amorites,
and Og, the king of Bashan.
He killed all the kings of Canaan.
[12]He gave their land as a gift to his people Israel.

[13]LORD, your name continues forever.
LORD, your fame will last for all time to come.
[14]When the LORD hands down his sentence, it will be in his people's favor.
He will show deep concern for those who serve him.

[15]The statues of the nations' gods are made out of silver and gold.
They are made by human hands.
[16]They have mouths but can't speak.
They have eyes but can't see.
[17]They have ears but can't hear.
They have mouths but can't breathe.
[18]Those who make statues of gods will be like them.
So will all those who trust in them.

[19]People of Israel, praise the LORD.
Priests of Aaron, praise the LORD.
[20]Tribe of Levi, praise the LORD.
You who have respect for the LORD, praise him.
[21]Give praise to the LORD in Zion.
Give praise to the God who lives in Jerusalem.

Praise the LORD.

Psalm 136

[1]Give thanks to the LORD, because he is good.
His faithful love continues forever.
[2]Give thanks to the greatest God of all.
His faithful love continues forever.
[3]Give thanks to the most powerful Lord of all.
His faithful love continues forever.

[4]Give thanks to the only one who can do great miracles.
His faithful love continues forever.
[5]By his understanding he made the heavens.
His faithful love continues forever.
[6]He spread out the earth on the waters.
His faithful love continues forever.
[7]He made the great lights in the sky.
His faithful love continues forever.
[8]He made the sun to rule over the day.
His faithful love continues forever.
[9]He made the moon and stars to rule over the night.
His faithful love continues forever.

[10]Give thanks to the God who killed the oldest son of each family in Egypt.
His faithful love continues forever.
[11]He brought the people of Israel out of Egypt.
His faithful love continues forever.
[12]He did it by reaching out his mighty hand and powerful arm.
His faithful love continues forever.

[13]Give thanks to the God who parted the waters of the Red Sea.
His faithful love continues forever.
[14]He brought Israel through the middle of it.
His faithful love continues forever.
[15]But he swept Pharaoh and his army into the Red Sea.
His faithful love continues forever.

[16]Give thanks to the God who led his people through the desert.
His faithful love continues forever.
[17]He killed great kings.
His faithful love continues forever.
[18]He struck down mighty kings.
His faithful love continues forever.
[19]He killed Sihon, the king of the Amorites.
His faithful love continues forever.
[20]He killed Og, the king of Bashan.
His faithful love continues forever.
[21]He gave their land as a gift.
His faithful love continues forever.
[22]He gave it as a gift to his servant Israel.
His faithful love continues forever.

[23]Give thanks to the God who remembered us when things were going badly.
His faithful love continues forever.
[24]He set us free from our enemies.
His faithful love continues forever.
[25]He gives food to every creature.
His faithful love continues forever.

[26]Give thanks to the God of heaven.
His faithful love continues forever.

Psalm 137

[1]We were sitting by the rivers of Babylon.
We wept when we remembered what had happened to Zion.
[2]On the nearby poplar trees
we hung up our harps.
[3]Those who held us as prisoners asked us to sing.
Those who enjoyed hurting us ordered us to sing joyful songs.
They said, “Sing one of the songs of Zion to us!”

[4]How can we sing the songs of the LORD while we are in another land?
[5]Jerusalem, if I forget you, may my right hand never be able to play the harp again.
[6]If I don’t remember you, may my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth so I can’t sing.
May it happen if I don’t consider Jerusalem to be my greatest joy.

[7]LORD, remember what the people of Edom did on the day Jerusalem fell.
“Tear it down!” they cried.
“Tear it down to the ground!”

[8]People of Babylon, you are sentenced to be destroyed.
Happy is the person who pays you back
according to what you have done to us.
[9]Happy is the person who grabs your babies and smashes them against the rocks.

Psalm 138

A psalm of David.

[1]LORD, I will praise you with all my heart.
In front of those who think they are gods
I will sing praise to you.
[2]I will bow down facing your holy temple.
I will praise your name,
because you are always loving and faithful.
You have honored your holy word
even more than your own fame.
[3]When I called out to you, you answered me.
You made me strong and brave.

[4]LORD, may all the kings on earth praise you when they hear about what you have decided.
[5]LORD, may they sing about what you have done, because your glory is great.

[6]Though the LORD is high above all, he cares for the lowly.
Though he is in heaven above, he sees them on earth below.
[7]Trouble is all around me,
but you keep me alive.
You reach out your hand to put a stop to the anger of my enemies.
With your powerful right hand you save me.
[8]LORD, you will show that I was right to trust you.
LORD, your faithful love continues forever.
You have done so much for us, so don’t stop now.

Psalm 139

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

[1]LORD, you have seen what is in my heart.
You know all about me.
[2]You know when I sit down and when I get up.
You know what I'm thinking even though you are far away.
[3]You know when I go out to work and when I come back home.
You know exactly how I live.
[4]LORD, even before I speak a word,
you know all about it.

[5]You are all around me, behind me and in front of me.
You hold me safe in your hand.
[6]I'm amazed at how well you know me.
It's more than I can understand.

[7]How can I get away from your Spirit?
Where can I go to escape from you?
[8]If I go up to the heavens, you are there.
If I lie down in the deepest parts of the earth, you are also there.
[9]Suppose I were to rise with the sun in the east.
Suppose I travel to the west where it sinks into the ocean.
[10]Your hand would always be there to guide me.
Your right hand would still be holding me close.

[11]Suppose I were to say, "I'm sure the darkness will hide me.
The light around me will become as dark as night."
[12]Even that darkness would not be dark to you.
The night would shine like the day,
because darkness is like light to you.

[13]You created the deepest parts of my being.
You put me together inside my mother's body.
[14]How you made me is amazing and wonderful.
I praise you for that.

What you have done is wonderful.
I know that very well.
15None of my bones was hidden from you when you made me inside my mother’s body.
That place was as dark as the deepest parts of the earth.
When you were putting me together there,
16your eyes saw my body even before it was formed.
You planned how many days I would live.
You wrote down the number of them in your book before I had lived through even one of them.

17God, your thoughts about me are priceless.
No one can possibly add them all up.
18If I could count them,
they would be more than the grains of sand.
If I were to fall asleep counting and then wake up,
you would still be there with me.

19God, I wish you would kill the people who are evil!
I wish those murderers would get away from me!
20They are your enemies. They misuse your name.
They misuse it for their own evil purposes.
21LORD, I really hate those who hate you!
I really hate those who rise up against you!
22I have nothing but hatred for them.
I consider them to be my enemies.

23God, see what is in my heart.
Know what is there.
Test me.
Know what I’m thinking.
24See if there’s anything in my life you don’t like.
Help me live in the way that is always right.

Psalm 140

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

[1]LORD, save me from sinful people.
Keep me safe from those who want to hurt me.
[2]They make evil plans in their hearts.
They are always starting fights.
[3]Their tongues are as deadly as the tongue of a serpent.
The words from their lips are like the poison of a snake.

[4]LORD, keep me safe from the hands of sinful people.
Protect me from those who want to hurt me.
They plan ways to trip me up and make me fall.
[5]Proud people have hidden their traps to catch me.
They have spread out their nets.
They have set traps for me along my path.

[6]I say to the LORD, “You are my God.”
LORD, hear my cry for mercy.
[7]LORD and King, you save me because you are strong.
You are like a shield that keeps me safe in the day of battle.
[8]LORD, don’t give sinners what they want.
Don’t let their plans succeed.

[9]Those who are all around me proudly raise their heads.
May the trouble they planned for me happen to them.
[10]May burning coals fall on people like that.
May they be thrown into the fire.
May they be thrown into muddy pits and never get out.
[11]Don’t let people who lie about me be secure in the land.
May trouble hunt down those who want to hurt me.

[12]I know that the LORD makes sure that poor people are treated fairly.
He stands up for those who are in need.
[13]I’m sure that those who do right will praise your name.

Those who are honest will live with you.

Psalm 141

A psalm of David.

[1]I call out to you, LORD. Come quickly to help me.
Listen to me when I call out to you.
[2]May my prayer come to you like the sweet smell of incense.
When I lift up my hands in prayer, may it be like the evening sacrifice.

[3]LORD, guard my mouth.
Keep watch over the door of my lips.
[4]Don’t let my heart be drawn to what is evil.
Don’t let me join with people who do evil.
Don’t let me eat their fancy food.

[5]If a godly person hit me, it would be an act of kindness.
If they would correct me, it would be like pouring olive oil on my head.
I wouldn’t say no to it.

I will always pray against the things that sinful people do.
[6]When their rulers are thrown down from the rocky cliffs, those evil people will realize that my words were true.
[7]They will say, “As clumps of dirt are left from plowing up the ground, so our bones will be scattered near an open grave.”

[8]But LORD and King, I keep looking to you for help.
I go to you for safety. Don’t let me die.
[9]Keep me from the traps of those who do evil.
Save me from the traps they have set for me.
[10]Let evil people fall into their own nets.
But let me go safely on my way.

Psalm 142

A prayer of David when he was in the cave. A maskil.

[1]I call out to the LORD.
I pray to him for mercy.
[2]I pour out my problem to him.
I tell him about my trouble.

[3]When I grow weak,
you are watching over my life.
In the path where I walk,
people have hidden a trap to catch me.
[4]Look and see that no one is on my right side to help me.
No one is concerned about me.
I have no place of safety.
No one cares whether I live or die.

[5]LORD, I cry out to you.
I say, “You are my place of safety.
You are everything I need in this life.”
[6]Listen to my cry.
I am in great need.
Save me from those who are chasing me.
They are too strong for me.
[7]My troubles are like a prison.
Set me free so I can praise your name.

Then those who do what is right will gather around me because you have been good to me.

Psalm 143

A psalm of David.

[1]LORD, hear my prayer.
Listen to my cry for mercy.
You are faithful and right.
Come and help me.
[2]Don’t take me to court and judge me, because in your eyes no living person does what is right.

[3]My enemies chase me.
They crush me down to the ground.
They make me live in the darkness like those who died long ago.
[4]So I grow weak.
Deep down inside me, I’m afraid.

[5]I remember what happened long ago.
I spend time thinking about all your acts.
I consider what your hands have done.
[6]I spread out my hands to you in prayer.
I’m thirsty for you, just as dry ground is thirsty for rain.

[7]LORD, answer me quickly.
I’m growing weak.
Don’t turn your face away from me,
or I will be like those who go down into the grave.
[8]In the morning let me hear about your faithful love, because I’ve put my trust in you.
Show me the way I should live,
because I trust you with my life.
[9]LORD, save me from my enemies, because I go to you for safety.
[10]Teach me to do what you want,
because you are my God.
May your good Spirit

lead me on a level path.

11 LORD, bring yourself honor by keeping me alive.
Because you do what is right, get me out of trouble.
12 Because your love is faithful, put an end to my enemies.
Destroy all of them, because I serve you.

Psalm 144

A psalm of David.

[1]Give praise to the LORD, my Rock.
He trains my hands for war.
He trains my fingers for battle.
[2]He is my loving God and is like a fort to me.
He is my place of safety and the God who saves me.
He is like a shield that keeps me safe.
He brings nations under my control.

[3]LORD, what are human beings that you take care of them?
What are mere people that you think about them?
[4]Their lives don't last any longer than a breath.
Their days are like a shadow that quickly disappears.

[5]LORD, open up your heavens and come down.
Touch the mountains, and they will pour out smoke.
[6]Send flashes of lightning and scatter my enemies.
Shoot your arrows and chase them away.
[7]My enemies are like a mighty flood.
Reach down from heaven and save me.
Save me from outsiders who attack me.
[8]They tell all kinds of lies with their mouths.
Even when they make a promise by raising their right hands,
they don't mean it.

[9]My God, I will sing a new song to you.
I will make music to you on a lyre that has ten strings.
[10]You are the God who helps kings win battles.
You save your servant David.

From death by the sword [11]save me.
Set me free from outsiders who attack me.
They tell all kinds of lies with their mouths.
Even when they make a promise by raising their right hands,

they don’t mean it.

12 While our sons are young,
they will be like healthy plants.
Our daughters will be like pillars that have been made to decorate a palace.
13 Our storerooms will be filled with every kind of food.
The sheep in our fields will increase by thousands.
They will increase by tens of thousands.
14 Our oxen will pull heavy loads.
None of our city walls will be broken down.
No one will be carried off as a prisoner.
No cries of pain will be heard in our streets.

15 Blessed is the nation about whom all these things are true.
Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD.

Psalm 145

A psalm of praise. A psalm of David.

[1]I will honor you, my God the King.
I will praise your name for ever and ever.
[2]Every day I will praise you.
I will praise your name for ever and ever.

[3]LORD, you are great. You are really worthy of praise.
No one can completely understand how great you are.
[4]Parents praise your works to their children.
They tell about your mighty acts.
[5]They speak about your glorious majesty.
I will spend time thinking about your wonderful deeds.
[6]They speak about the powerful and wonderful things you do.
I will talk about the great things you have done.
[7]They celebrate your great goodness.
They sing for joy about your holy acts.

[8]The LORD is gracious, kind and tender.
He is slow to get angry and full of love.
[9]The LORD is good to all.
He shows deep concern for everything he has made.
[10]LORD, all your works praise you.
Your faithful people praise you.
[11]They tell about your glorious kingdom.
They speak about your power.
[12]Then all people will know about the mighty things you have done.
They will know about the glorious majesty of your kingdom.
[13]Your kingdom is a kingdom that will last forever.
Your rule will continue for all time to come.

The LORD will keep all his promises.
He is faithful in everything he does.
[14]The LORD takes good care of all those who fall.

He lifts up all those who feel helpless.
15 Every living thing looks to you for food.
You give it to them exactly when they need it.
16 You open your hand and satisfy the needs of every living creature.

17 The LORD is right in everything he does.
He is faithful in everything he does.
18 The LORD is ready to help all those who call out to him.
He helps those who really mean it when they call out to him.
19 He satisfies the needs of those who have respect for him.
He hears their cry and saves them.
20 The LORD watches over all those who love him.
But he will destroy all sinful people.

21 I will praise the LORD with my mouth.
Let every creature praise his holy name
for ever and ever.

Psalm 146

[1]Praise the LORD.

I will praise the LORD.
[2]I will praise the LORD all my life.
I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.

[3]Don’t put your trust in human leaders.
Don’t trust in people who can’t save you.
[4]When they die, they return to the ground.
On that day their plans come to nothing.

[5]Blessed are those who depend on the God of Jacob for help.
Blessed are those who put their hope in the LORD their God.
[6]He is the Maker of heaven and earth and the ocean.
He made everything in them.
He remains faithful forever.
[7]He stands up for those who are treated badly.
He gives food to hungry people.
The LORD sets prisoners free.
[8]The LORD gives sight to those who are blind.
The LORD lifts up those who feel helpless.
The LORD loves those who do what is right.
[9]The LORD watches over the outsiders who live in our land.
He takes good care of children whose fathers have died.
He also takes good care of widows.
But he causes evil people to fail in everything they do.

[10]The LORD rules forever.
The God of Zion will rule for all time to come.

Praise the LORD.

Psalm 147

[1]Praise the LORD.

How good it is to sing praises to our God!
How pleasant and right it is to praise him!

[2]The LORD builds up Jerusalem.
He gathers the scattered people of Israel.
[3]He heals those who have broken hearts.
He takes care of their wounds.

[4]He decides how many stars there should be.
He gives each one of them a name.
[5]Great is our Lord. His power is mighty.
There is no limit to his understanding.
[6]The LORD gives strength to those who aren't proud.
But he throws evil people down to the ground.

[7]Sing to the LORD and give him grateful praise.
Make music to our God on the harp.
[8]He covers the sky with clouds.
He supplies the earth with rain.
He makes grass grow on the hills.
[9]He provides food for the cattle.
He provides for the young ravens when they cry out.

[10]He doesn't take pleasure in the strength of horses.
He doesn't take delight in the strong legs of warriors.
[11]The LORD takes delight in those who have respect for him.
They put their hope in his faithful love.

[12]Jerusalem, praise the LORD.
Zion, praise your God.
[13]He makes the metal bars of your gates stronger.
He blesses the people who live inside you.

[14]He keeps your borders safe and secure.
He satisfies you with the finest wheat.

[15]He sends his command to the earth.
His word arrives there quickly.
[16]He spreads the snow like wool.
He scatters the frost like ashes.
[17]He throws down his hail like pebbles.
No one can stand his icy blast.
[18]He gives his command, and the ice melts.
He stirs up his winds, and the waters flow.

[19]He has made his word known to the people of Jacob.
He has made his laws and rules known to Israel.
[20]He hasn’t done that for any other nation.
They don’t know his laws.

Praise the LORD.

Psalm 148

[1]Praise the LORD.

Praise the LORD from the heavens.
Praise him in the heavens above.
[2]Praise him, all his angels.
Praise him, all his angels in heaven.
[3]Praise him, sun and moon.
Praise him, all you shining stars.
[4]Praise him, you highest heavens.
Praise him, you waters above the skies.
[5]Let all of them praise the name of the LORD, because at his command they were created.
[6]He established them for ever and ever.
He gave them laws they will always have to obey.

[7]Praise the LORD from the earth, you great sea creatures and all the deepest parts of the ocean.
[8]Praise him, lightning and hail, snow and clouds.
Praise him, you stormy winds that obey him.
[9]Praise him, all you mountains and hills.
Praise him, all you fruit trees and cedar trees.
[10]Praise him, all you wild animals and cattle.
Praise him, you small creatures and flying birds.
[11]Praise him, you kings of the earth and all nations.
Praise him, all you princes and rulers on earth.
[12]Praise him, young men and women.
Praise him, old men and children.

[13]Let them praise the name of the LORD.
His name alone is honored.
His glory is higher than the earth and the heavens.
[14]He has given his people a strong king.
All his faithful people praise him for that gift.
All the people of Israel are close to his heart.

Praise the LORD.

Psalm 149

[1]Praise the LORD.

Sing a new song to the LORD.
Sing praise to him in the assembly of his faithful people.

[2]Let Israel be filled with joy because God is their Maker.
Let the people of Zion be glad because he is their King.
[3]Let them praise his name with dancing.
Let them make music to him with harps and tambourines.
[4]The LORD takes delight in his people.
He awards with victory those who are humble.
[5]Let his faithful people be filled with joy because of that honor.
Let them sing for joy even when they are lying in bed.

[6]May they praise God with their mouths.
May they hold in their hands a sword that has two edges.
[7]Let them pay the nations back.
Let them punish the people of the earth.
[8]Let them put the kings of those nations in chains.
Let them put their nobles in iron chains.
[9]Let them carry out God’s sentence against those nations.
This will bring glory to all his faithful people.

Praise the LORD.

Psalm 150

[1]Praise the LORD.

Praise God in his holy temple.
Praise him in his mighty heavens.
[2]Praise him for his powerful acts.
Praise him because he is greater than anything else.
[3]Praise him by blowing trumpets.
Praise him with harps and lyres.
[4]Praise him with tambourines and dancing.
Praise him with stringed instruments and flutes.
[5]Praise him with clashing cymbals.
Praise him with clanging cymbals.

[6]Let everything that has breath praise the LORD.

Praise the LORD.

Proverbs

Proverbs 1

Purpose

[1]These are the proverbs of Solomon. He was the son of David and the king of Israel.

[2]Proverbs teach you wisdom and instruct you.
They help you understand wise sayings.
[3]They provide you with instruction and help you live wisely.
They lead to what is right and honest and fair.
[4]They give understanding to childish people.
They give knowledge and good sense to those who are young.
[5]Let wise people listen and add to what they have learned.
Let those who understand what is right get guidance.
[6]What I'm teaching also helps you understand proverbs and stories.
It helps you understand the sayings and riddles of those who are wise.

[7]If you really want to gain knowledge, you must begin by having respect for the LORD.
But foolish people hate wisdom and instruction.

Think and Live Wisely

A Warning Against Sinful Men

[8]My son, listen to your father's advice.
Don't turn away from your mother's teaching.
[9]What they teach you will be like a beautiful crown on your head.
It will be like a chain to decorate your neck.

[10]My son, if sinful men tempt you, don’t give in to them.

[11]They might say, “Come along with us.
Let’s hide and wait to kill someone who hasn’t done anything wrong.
Let’s catch some harmless person in our trap.
[12]Let’s swallow them alive, as the grave does.
Let’s swallow them whole, like those who go down into the pit.
[13]We’ll get all kinds of valuable things.
We’ll fill our houses with what we steal.
[14]Cast lots with us for what they own.
We’ll share everything we take from them.”
[15]My son, don’t go along with them.
Don’t even set your feet on their paths.
[16]They are always in a hurry to sin.
They are quick to spill someone’s blood.
[17]How useless it is to spread a net where every bird can see it!
[18]Those who hide and wait will spill their own blood.
They will be caught in their own trap.
[19]That’s what happens to everyone who goes after money in the wrong way.
That kind of money takes away
the life of those who get it.

Wisdom’s Warning

[20]Out in the open wisdom calls out.
She raises her voice in a public place.
[21]On top of the city wall she cries out.
Here is what she says near the gate of the city.

[22]“How long will you childish people love your childish ways?
How long will you rude people enjoy making fun of God and others?
How long will you foolish people hate knowledge?
[23]Pay attention to my warning!
Then I will pour out my thoughts to you.

I will make known to you my teachings.
24But you refuse to listen when I call out to you.
No one pays attention when I reach out my hand.
25You turn away from all my advice.
And you do not accept my warning.
26So I will laugh at you when you are in danger.
I will make fun of you when hard times come.
27I will laugh when hard times hit you like a storm.
I will laugh when danger comes your way like a windstorm.
I will make fun of you when suffering and trouble come.

28"Then you will call to me. But I won't answer.
You will look for me. But you won't find me.
29You hated knowledge.
You didn't choose to have respect for the LORD.
30You wouldn't accept my advice.
You turned your backs on my warnings.
31So you will eat the fruit of the way you have lived.
You will choke on the fruit of what you have planned.

32"The wrong path that childish people take will kill them.
Foolish people will be destroyed by being satisfied with the way they live.
33But those who listen to me will live in safety.
They will be at ease and have no fear of being harmed."

Proverbs 2

Good Things Come From Wisdom

[1]My son, accept my words.
Store up my commands inside you.
[2]Let your ears listen to wisdom.
Apply your heart to understanding.
[3]Call out for the ability to be wise.
Cry out for understanding.
[4]Look for it as you would look for silver.
Search for it as you would search for hidden treasure.
[5]Then you will understand how to have respect for the LORD.
You will find out how to know God.
[6]The LORD gives wisdom.
Knowledge and understanding come from his mouth.
[7]He stores up success for honest people.
He is like a shield to those who live without blame.
[8]He guards the path of those who are honest.
He watches over the way of his faithful ones.

[9]You will understand what is right and honest and fair.
You will understand the right way to live.
[10]Your heart will become wise.
Your mind will delight in knowledge.
[11]Good sense will keep you safe.
Understanding will guard you.

[12]Wisdom will save you from the ways of evil men.
It will save you from men who twist their words.
[13]Men like that have left the straight paths to walk in dark ways.
[14]They take delight in doing what is wrong.
They take joy in twisting everything around.
[15]Their paths are crooked.
Their ways are not straight.

16 Wisdom will save you from a woman who commits adultery.
It will save you from a sinful woman and her tempting words.
17 She has left the man she married when she was young.
She has broken the promise she made in front of God.
18 Surely her house leads down to death.
Her paths lead to the spirits of the dead.
19 No one who goes to her comes back or reaches the paths of life.

20 You will walk in the ways of good people.
You will follow the paths of those who do right.
21 Honest people will live in the land.
Those who are without blame will remain in it.
22 But sinners will be cut off from the land.
Those who aren't faithful will be torn away from it.

Proverbs 3

More Good Things Come From Wisdom

[1]My son, do not forget my teaching.
Keep my commands in your heart.
[2]They will help you live for many years.
They will bring you peace and success.

[3]Don’t let love and truth ever leave you.
Tie them around your neck.
Write them on the tablet of your heart.
[4]Then you will find favor and a good name in the eyes of God and people.

[5]Trust in the LORD with all your heart.
Do not depend on your own understanding.
[6]In all your ways obey him.
Then he will make your paths smooth and straight.

[7]Don’t be wise in your own eyes.
Have respect for the LORD and avoid evil.
[8]That will bring health to your body.
It will make your bones strong.

[9]Honor the LORD with your wealth.
Give him the first share of all your crops.
[10]Then your storerooms will be so full they can’t hold everything.
Your huge jars will spill over with fresh wine.

[11]My son, do not hate the LORD’s training.
Do not object when he corrects you.
[12]The LORD trains those he loves.
He is like a father who trains the son he is pleased with.

[13]Blessed is the one who finds wisdom.
Blessed is the one who gains understanding.

14 Wisdom pays better than silver does.
She earns more than gold does.
15 She is worth more than rubies.
Nothing you want can compare with her.
16 Long life is in her right hand.
In her left hand are riches and honor.
17 Her ways are pleasant ways.
All her paths lead to peace.
18 She is a tree of life to those who take hold of her.
Those who hold her close will be blessed.

19 By wisdom the LORD laid the earth's foundations.
Through understanding he set the heavens in place.
20 By his knowledge the seas were separated, and the clouds dropped their dew.

21 My son, do not let wisdom and understanding out of your sight.
Hold on to good sense and the understanding of what is right.
22 They will be life for you.
They will be like a gracious necklace around your neck.
23 Then you will go on your way in safety.
You will not trip and fall.
24 When you lie down, you won't be afraid.
When you lie down, you will sleep soundly.
25 Don't be terrified by sudden trouble.
Don't be afraid when sinners are destroyed.
26 The LORD will be at your side.
He will keep your feet from being caught in a trap.

27 Don't hold back good from those who are worthy of it.
Don't hold it back when you can help.
28 Suppose you already have something to give.
Don't say to your neighbor,
"Come back tomorrow.
I'll give it to you then."

29 Don't plan to harm your neighbor.

He lives near you and trusts you.
30 Don’t bring charges against anyone for no reason.
They have not harmed you.

31 Don’t be jealous of a person who hurts others.
Don’t choose any of their ways.
32 The LORD really hates sinful people.
But he makes honest people his closest friends.

33 The LORD puts a curse on the houses of sinners.
But he blesses the homes of those who do what is right.
34 He makes fun of proud people who make fun of others.
But he gives grace to those who are humble and treated badly.
35 Wise people receive honor.
But foolish people get only shame.

Proverbs 4

Get Wisdom at Any Cost

[1]My sons, listen to a father’s teaching.
Pay attention and gain understanding.
[2]I give you good advice.
So don’t turn away from what I teach you.
[3]I, too, was once a young boy in my father’s house.
And my mother loved me deeply.
[4]Then my father taught me.
He said to me, “Take hold of my words with all your heart.
Keep my commands, and you will live.
[5]Get wisdom, and get understanding.
Don’t forget my words or turn away from them.
[6]Stay close to wisdom, and she will keep you safe.
Love her, and she will watch over you.
[7]To start being wise you must first get wisdom.
No matter what it costs, get understanding.
[8]Value wisdom highly, and she will lift you up.
Hold her close, and she will honor you.
[9]She will set a beautiful crown on your head.
She will give you a glorious crown.”

[10]My son, listen. Accept what I say.
Then you will live for many years.
[11]I instruct you in the way of wisdom.
I lead you along straight paths.
[12]When you walk, nothing will slow you down.
When you run, you won’t trip and fall.
[13]Hold on to my teaching and don’t let it go.
Guard it well, because it is your life.
[14]Don’t take the path of evil people.
Don’t live the way sinners do.
[15]Stay away from their path and don’t travel on it.
Turn away from it and go on your way.

16 Sinners can’t rest until they do what is evil.
They can’t sleep until they make someone sin.
17 They do evil just as easily as they eat food.
They hurt others as easily as they drink wine.

18 The path of those who do right is like the sun in the morning.
It shines brighter and brighter until the full light of day.
19 But the way of those who do what is wrong is like deep darkness.
They don’t know what makes them trip and fall.

20 My son, pay attention to what I say.
Listen closely to my words.
21 Don’t let them out of your sight.
Keep them in your heart.
22 They are life to those who find them.
They are health to a person’s whole body.
23 Above everything else, guard your heart.
Everything you do comes from it.
24 Don’t speak with twisted words.
Keep evil talk away from your lips.
25 Let your eyes look straight ahead.
Keep looking right in front of you.
26 Think carefully about the paths that your feet walk on.
Always choose the right ways.
27 Don’t turn to the right or left.
Keep your feet from the path of evil.

Proverbs 5

A Warning Against Committing Adultery

[1]My son, pay attention to my wisdom.
Listen carefully to my wise sayings.
[2]Then you will continue to have good sense.
Your lips will keep on speaking words of knowledge.
[3]A woman who commits adultery has lips that drip honey.
What she says is smoother than olive oil.
[4]But in the end she is like bitter poison.
She cuts like a sword that has two edges.
[5]Her feet go down to death.
Her steps lead straight to the grave.
[6]She doesn't give any thought to her way of life.
Her paths have no direction, but she doesn't realize it.

[7]My sons, listen to me.
Don't turn away from what I say.
[8]Stay on a path far away from that evil woman.
Don't even go near the door of her house.
[9]If you do, you will lose your honor to other people.
You will give your self-respect to someone who is mean.
[10]Strangers will use up all your wealth.
Your hard work will make someone else rich.
[11]At the end of your life you will groan.
Your skin and your body will be worn out.
[12]You will say, "How I hated to take advice!
How my heart refused to be corrected!
[13]I would not obey my teachers.
I wouldn't listen to those who taught me.
[14]I was soon in deep trouble.
It happened right in front of the whole assembly of God's people."

[15]Drink water from your own well.

Drink running water from your own spring.
16 Should your springs pour out into the streets?
Should your streams of water pour out in public places?
17 No! Let them belong to you alone.
Never share them with strangers.
18 May your fountain be blessed.
May the wife you married when you were young make you happy.
19 She is like a loving doe, a graceful deer.
May her breasts always satisfy you.
May you always be captured by her love.
20 My son, why be captured by another man's wife?
Why hug a woman who has gone astray?

21 The LORD watches your ways.
He studies all your paths.
22 Sinners are trapped by their own evil acts.
They are held tight by the ropes of their sins.
23 They will die because they refused to be corrected.
Their sins will capture them because they were very foolish.

Proverbs 6

Warnings Against Foolish Acts

[1]My son, don’t promise to pay for what your neighbor owes.
Don’t agree to pay a stranger’s bill.
[2]Don’t be trapped by what you have said.
Don’t be caught by the words of your mouth.
[3]Instead, my son, do something to free yourself.
Don’t fall into your neighbor’s hands.
Go until you can’t go anymore.
Don’t let your neighbor rest.
[4]Don’t let your eyes go to sleep.
Don’t let your eyelids close.
[5]As a deer frees itself from a hunter, free yourself.
As a bird frees itself from a trapper, free yourself.

[6]You people who don’t want to work, think about the ant!
Consider its ways and be wise!
[7]It has no commander.
It has no leader or ruler.
[8]But it stores up its food in summer.
It gathers its food at harvest time.

[9]You lazy people, how long will you lie there?
When will you get up from your sleep?
[10]You might sleep a little or take a little nap.
You might even fold your hands and rest.
[11]Then you would be poor, as if someone had robbed you.
You would have little, as if someone had stolen from you.

[12]An evil troublemaker goes around saying twisted things with his mouth.
[13]He winks with his eyes.
He makes signals with his feet.
He motions with his fingers.

14 His plans are evil, and he has lies in his heart.
He is always stirring up fights.
15 Trouble will catch up with him in an instant.
He will suddenly be destroyed, and nothing can save him.

16 There are six things the LORD hates.
In fact, he hates seven things.
17 The LORD hates proud eyes,
a lying tongue,
and hands that kill those who aren't guilty.
18 He also hates hearts that make evil plans and feet that are quick to do evil.
19 He hates any witness who pours out lies and anyone who stirs up conflict in the community.

A Warning Against Committing Adultery

20 My son, keep your father's command.
Don't turn away from your mother's teaching.
21 Always tie them on your heart.
Put them around your neck.
22 When you walk, they will guide you.
When you sleep, they will watch over you.
When you wake up, they will speak to you.
23 Your father's command is like a lamp.
Your mother's teaching is like a light.
And whatever instructs and corrects you leads to life.
24 It keeps you from your neighbor's wife.
It keeps you from the smooth talk of a woman who commits adultery.
25 Don't hunger in your heart after her beauty.
Don't let her eyes capture you.
26 A prostitute can be bought for only a loaf of bread.
But another man's wife hunts your very life.
27 You can't shovel fire into your lap without burning your clothes.

[28]You can’t walk on hot coals without burning your feet.
[29]It’s the same for anyone who has sex with another man’s wife.
Anyone who touches her will be punished.

[30]People don’t hate a thief who steals to fill his empty stomach.
[31]But when he is caught, he must pay seven times as much as he stole.
It may even cost him everything he has.
[32]A man who commits adultery has no sense.
Anyone who does it destroys himself.
[33]He will be beaten up and dishonored.
His shame will never be wiped away.
[34]Jealousy stirs up a husband’s anger.
He will show no mercy when he gets even.
[35]He won’t accept any payment.
He won’t take any money, no matter how much he is offered.

Proverbs 7

A Warning Against a Woman Who Commits Adultery

[1]My son, obey my words.
Store up my commands inside you.
[2]Obey my commands and you will live.
Guard my teachings as you would guard your own eyes.
[3]Tie them on your fingers.
Write them on the tablet of your heart.
[4]Say to wisdom, “You are my sister.”
Say to understanding, “You are a member of my family.”
[5]They will keep you from a woman who commits adultery.
They will keep you from the smooth talk of a sinful wife.

[6]I stood at the window of my house.
I looked down through it.
[7]Among those who were childish
I saw a young man who had no sense.
[8]He went down the street near that sinful woman’s corner.
He walked toward her house.
[9]The sun had gone down, and the day was fading.
The darkness of night was falling.

[10]A woman came out to meet him.
She was dressed like a prostitute and had a clever plan.
[11]She was wild and pushy.
She never stayed at home.
[12]Sometimes she’s in the streets. Sometimes she’s at other places.
At every corner she waits.
[13]She took hold of the young man and kissed him.
With a bold face she spoke to him. She said,

[14]“Today I offered what I promised I would.
At home I have meat left over from my fellowship offering.
[15]So I came out to meet you.

I looked for you and have found you!
16 I have covered my bed with colored sheets from Egypt.
17 I've perfumed my bed with spices.
I used myrrh, aloes and cinnamon.
18 Come, let's drink our fill of love until morning.
Let's enjoy ourselves by sleeping together!
19 My husband isn't home.
He's gone on a long journey.
20 He took his bag full of money.
He won't be home for several days."

21 She led him astray with her clever words.
She charmed him with her smooth talk.
22 All at once he followed her.
He was like an ox going to be killed.
He was like a deer stepping into a trap
23 until an arrow struck its liver.
He was like a bird rushing into a trap.
Little did he know it would cost him his life!

24 My sons, listen to me.
Pay attention to what I say.
25 Don't let your hearts turn to her ways.
Don't step onto her paths.
26 She has brought down a lot of men.
She has killed a huge crowd.
27 Her house is a road to the grave.
It leads down to the place of the dead.

Proverbs 8

Wisdom Calls Out

[1]Doesn’t wisdom call out?
Doesn’t understanding raise her voice?
[2]At the highest point along the way,
she takes her place where the paths meet.
[3]Beside the gate leading into the city,
she cries out at the entrance. She says,
[4]“People, I call out to you.
I raise my voice to all human beings.
[5]You who are childish, get some good sense.
You who are foolish, set your hearts on getting it.
[6]Listen! I have things to say that you can depend on.
I open my lips to speak what is right.
[7]My mouth speaks what is true.
My lips hate evil.
[8]All the words of my mouth are honest.
None of them is twisted or sinful.
[9]To those who have understanding, all my words are right.
To those who have found knowledge, they are true.
[10]Choose my teaching instead of silver.
Choose knowledge rather than fine gold.
[11]Wisdom is worth more than rubies.
Nothing you want can compare with her.

[12]“I, wisdom, live together with understanding.
I have knowledge and good sense.
[13]To have respect for the LORD is to hate evil.
I hate pride and bragging.
I hate evil ways and twisted words.
[14]I have good sense and give good advice.
I have understanding and power.
[15]By me kings rule.
Leaders make laws that are fair.

16 By me princes and nobles govern.
It is by me that anyone rules on earth.
17 I love those who love me.
Those who look for me find me.
18 With me are riches and honor.
With me are lasting wealth and success.
19 My fruit is better than fine gold.
My gifts are better than the finest silver.
20 I walk in ways that are honest.
I take paths that are right.
21 I leave riches to those who love me.
I give them more than they have room for.

22 "The LORD created me as the first of his works, before his acts of long ago.
23 I was formed a long, long time ago.
I was formed at the very beginning, when the world was created.
24 Before there were any oceans, I was born.
It was before there were springs flowing with water.
25 Before the mountains were settled in place, I was born.
Before there were any hills, I was born.
26 It happened before the LORD made the world and its fields.
It was before he made the dust of the earth.
27 I was there when he set the heavens in place.
When he marked out the place where the sky meets the sea, I was there.
28 That was when he put the clouds above.
It was when he fixed the ocean springs in place.
29 It was when he set limits for the sea
so that the waters had to obey his command.
When the LORD marked out the foundations of the earth, I was there.
30 I was constantly at his side.
I was filled with delight day after day.
I was always happy to be with him.
31 His whole world filled me with joy.
I took delight in all human beings.

[32]“My children, listen to me.
Blessed are those who keep my ways.
[33]Listen to my teaching and be wise.
Don’t turn away from it.
[34]Blessed are those who listen to me.
They watch every day at my doors.
They wait beside my doorway.
[35]Those who find me find life.
They receive blessing from the LORD.
[36]But those who don’t find me harm only themselves.
Everyone who hates me loves death.”

Proverbs 9

Wisdom and Foolishness Call Out

[1]Wisdom has built her house.
She has set up its seven pillars.
[2]She has prepared her meat and mixed her wine.
She has also set her table.
[3]She has sent out her servants.
She calls out from the highest point of the city.
[4]She says, “Let all who are childish come to my house!”
She speaks to those who have no sense. She says,
[5]“Come and eat my food.
Drink the wine I have mixed.
[6]Leave your childish ways and you will live.
Walk in the way of understanding.”

[7]When you correct someone who makes fun of others, you might be laughed at.
When you warn a sinner, you might get hurt.
[8]Don’t warn those who make fun of others, or they will hate you.
Warn those who are wise, and they will love you.
[9]Teach a wise person, and they will become even wiser.
Teach a person who does right, and they will learn even more.

[10]If you want to become wise, you must begin by respecting the LORD.
To know the Holy One is to gain understanding.
[11]Through wisdom, you will live a long time.
Years will be added to your life.
[12]If you are wise, your wisdom will reward you.
If you make fun of others, you alone will suffer.

[13]The woman called Foolishness is wild.
She is childish and knows nothing.
[14]She sits at the door of her house.

She sits at the highest point of the city.
15 She calls out to those who pass by.
She calls out to those who go straight on their way. She says,
16 “Let all who are childish come to my house!”
She speaks to those who have no sense.
17 She says, “Stolen water is sweet.
Food eaten in secret tastes good!”
18 But they don’t know that dead people are there.
They don’t know that her guests are deep in the place of the dead.

Proverbs 10

The Proverbs of Solomon

But doing what is right saves you from death.

But he lets those who do wrong go hungry.

[4]Hands that don't want to work make you poor.
But hands that work hard bring wealth to you.

But a child who sleeps at harvest time brings shame.

But having nothing destroys those who are poor.

16 People who do what is right earn life.
But sinners earn sin and death.

shows the path to life.
But anyone who refuses to be corrected leads others down the wrong path.

18 Anyone who hides hatred with lying lips and spreads lies is foolish.

But those who are wise control their tongues.

20 The tongues of those who do right are like fine silver.
But the hearts of those who do wrong aren't worth very much.

21 The words of those who do right benefit many people.
But those who are foolish die because they have no sense.

22 The blessing of the LORD brings wealth.
And it comes without painful work.

23 A foolish person finds pleasure in evil plans.

But a person who has understanding takes delight in wisdom.

24 What sinners are afraid of will catch up with them.
But those who do right will get what they want.

25 When the storm is over, sinners are gone.
But those who do right stand firm forever.

26 Those who don’t want to work hurt those who send them.
They are like vinegar on the teeth or smoke in the eyes.

27 Having respect for the LORD leads to a longer life.
But the years of evil people are cut short.

28 Those who do right can expect joy.
But the hopes of sinners are bound to fail.

29 The way of the LORD is a safe place for those without blame.
But that way destroys those who do evil.

30 Those who do right will never be removed from the land.
But those who do wrong will not remain in it.

31 The mouths of those who do right produce wisdom.
But tongues that speak twisted words will be made silent.

32 Those who do right know the proper thing to say.
But those who do wrong speak only twisted words.

But he is delighted when people use honest weights.

But those who aren't faithful are destroyed by their lies.

But doing what is right saves you from death.

[5]The ways of honest people are made straight because they do what is right.
But those who do what is wrong are brought down by their own sins.

[6]Godly people are saved by doing what is right.
But those who aren't faithful are trapped by evil longings.

Everything their power promised comes to nothing.

But trouble comes on those who do wrong.

[9]With their words ungodly people destroy their neighbors.
But those who do what is right escape because of their knowledge.

But the words of sinners destroy it.

[12]Whoever makes fun of their neighbor has no sense.
But the one who has understanding controls their tongue.

But those who can be trusted keep the secrets of others.

But a person who doesn't agree to pay someone else's bill is safe.

But men who are not kind gain only wealth.

[17]Those who are kind benefit themselves.
But mean people bring ruin on themselves.

[18]An evil person really earns nothing.
But the one who plants what is right will certainly be rewarded.

[19]Surely right living leads to life.
But whoever runs after evil finds death.

[20]The LORD hates those whose hearts are twisted.
But he is pleased with those who live without blame.

[21]You can be sure that sinners will be punished.
And you can also be sure that godly people will go free.

[22]A beautiful woman who has no sense is like a gold ring in a pig's nose.

[23]What godly people long for ends only in what is good.
But what sinners hope for ends only in God's anger.

[24]One person gives freely but gets even richer.

Another person doesn’t give what they should but gets even poorer.

25 Anyone who gives a lot will succeed.
Anyone who renews others will be renewed.

26 People ask for bad things to happen to those who store up grain for themselves.
But people ask for God’s blessing on those who are willing to sell.

27 Anyone who looks for what is good will be blessed.
But bad things will happen to a person who plans to do evil.

28 Those who trust in their riches will fall.
But those who do right will be as healthy as a green leaf.

29 Those who bring ruin on their families will receive nothing but wind.
And foolish people will serve wise people.

30 The fruit that godly people bear is like a tree of life.
And those who are wise save lives.

31 Godly people get what they should get on earth.
So ungodly people and sinners will certainly get what they should get!

What will you do in the end
if your neighbor puts you to shame?

Proverbs 30

The Sayings of Agur

[1]These sayings are the words of Agur, son of Jakeh. These sayings came from God.

This man said to Ithiel:

"I am weary, God.
But I can still have success.
[2]Surely I am only a dumb animal and not a man.
I don't understand as other men do.
[3]I haven't learned wisdom.
And I don't know the things the Holy One knows.
[4]Who has gone up to heaven and come down?
Whose hands have gathered up the wind?
Who has wrapped up the waters in a coat?
Who has set in place all the boundaries of the earth?
What is his name? What is his son's name?
Surely you know!

[5]"Every word of God is perfect.
He is like a shield to those who trust in him.
He keeps them safe.
[6]Don't add to his words.
If you do, he will correct you.
He will prove that you are a liar.

[7]"LORD, I ask you for two things.
Don't refuse me before I die.
[8]Keep lies far away from me.
Don't make me either poor or rich,
but give me only the bread I need each day.
[9]If you don't, I might have too much.
Then I might say I don't know you.

I might say, ‘Who is the LORD?’
Or I might become poor and steal.
Then I would bring shame to the name of my God.

10“Don’t tell lies about a servant when you talk to their master.
If you do, they will curse you, and you will pay for your lies.

11“Some people curse their fathers.
Others don’t bless their mothers.
12Some are pure in their own eyes.
But their dirty sins haven’t been washed away.
13Some have eyes that are very proud.
They look down on others.
14Some people have teeth like swords.
The teeth in their jaws are as sharp as knives.
They are ready to eat up the poor people of the earth.
They are ready to eat up those who are the most needy.

15“A leech has two daughters.
They cry out, ‘Give! Give!’

“Three things are never satisfied.
Four things never say, ‘Enough!’
16The first is the grave.
The second is a woman who can’t have a baby.
The third is land, which never gets enough water.
And the fourth is fire, which never says, ‘Enough!’

17“One person makes fun of their father.
Another doesn’t honor their mother when she is old.
The ravens of the valley will peck out their eyes.
Then the vultures will eat them.

18“Three things are too amazing for me.
There are four things I don’t understand.
19The first is the way of an eagle in the sky.
The second is the way of a snake on a rock.
The third is the way of a ship on the ocean.

And the fourth is the way of a man with a young woman.

20 “This is the way of a woman who commits adultery.
She eats and wipes her mouth.
Then she says, ‘I haven’t done anything wrong.’

21 “Under three things the earth shakes.
Under four things it can’t stand up.
22 The first is a servant who becomes a king.
The second is a foolish and ungodly person who gets plenty to eat.
23 The third is a mean woman who gets married.
And the fourth is a servant who takes the place of the woman she works for.

24 “Four things on earth are small.
But they are very wise.
25 The first are ants, which aren’t very strong.
But they store up their food in the summer.
26 The second are hyraxes, which aren’t very powerful.
But they make their home among the rocks.
27 The third are locusts, which don’t have a king.
But they all march forward in ranks.
28 And the fourth are lizards, which your hand can catch.
But you will find them in kings’ palaces.

29 “Three things walk as if they were kings.
Four things move as kings do.
30 The first is a lion, which is mighty among the animals. It doesn’t back away from anything.
31 The second is a rooster, which walks proudly.
The third is a billy goat.
And the fourth is a king, who is secure against any who might oppose him.

32 “Do you do foolish things?
Do you think you are better than others?
Do you plan evil?
If you do, put your hand over your mouth and stop talking!

[33]If you churn cream, you will produce butter.
If you twist a nose, you will produce blood.
And if you stir up anger, you will produce a fight.”

Proverbs 31

The Sayings of King Lemuel

[1]These are the sayings of King Lemuel. His mother taught them to him. These sayings came from God.

[2]Listen, my son! Listen, my very own son!
Listen, you who are the answer to my prayers!
[3]Don’t waste your strength on women.
Don’t waste it on those who destroy kings.

[4]Lemuel, it isn’t good for kings to drink wine.
It isn’t good for rulers to long for beer.
[5]If they do, they might drink and forget what has been commanded.
They might take away the rights of all those who are treated badly.
[6]Let beer be for those who are dying.
Let wine be for those who are sad and troubled.
[7]Let them drink and forget how poor they are.
Let them forget their suffering.

[8]Speak up for those who can’t speak for themselves.
Speak up for the rights of all those who are poor.
[9]Speak up and judge fairly.
Speak up for the rights of those who are poor and needy.

The Excellent Woman

[10]Who can find an excellent woman?
She is worth far more than rubies.
[11]Her husband trusts her completely.
She gives him all the important things he needs.
[12]She brings him good, not harm,

all the days of her life.
13She chooses wool and flax.
She loves to work with her hands.
14She is like the ships of traders.
She brings her food from far away.
15She gets up while it is still night.
She provides food for her family.
She also gives some to her female servants.
16She considers a field and buys it.
She uses some of the money she earns to plant a vineyard.
17She gets ready to work hard.
Her arms are strong.
18She sees that her trading earns a lot of money.
Her lamp doesn’t go out at night.
19With one hand she holds the wool.
With the other she spins the thread.
20She opens her arms to those who are poor.
She reaches out her hands to those who are needy.
21When it snows, she’s not afraid for her family.
All of them are dressed in the finest clothes.
22She makes her own bed coverings.
She is dressed in fine linen and purple clothes.
23Her husband is respected at the city gate.
There he takes his seat among the elders of the land.
24She makes linen clothes and sells them.
She supplies belts to the traders.
25She puts on strength and honor as if they were her clothes.
She can laugh at the days that are coming.
26She speaks wisely.
She teaches faithfully.
27She watches over family matters.
She is busy all the time.
28Her children stand up and call her blessed.
Her husband also rises up, and he praises her.
29He says, “Many women do excellent things.
But you are better than all the others.”

[30]Charm can fool you. Beauty fades.
But a woman who has respect for the LORD should be praised.
[31]Give her honor for all that her hands have done.
Let everything she has done bring praise to her at the city gate.

Ecclesiastes

Ecclesiastes 1

Everything Is Meaningless

[1]These are the words of the Teacher. He was the son of David. He was also the king in Jerusalem.

[2]“Meaningless! Everything is meaningless!”
  says the Teacher.
“Everything is completely meaningless!
  Nothing has any meaning.”

[3]What do people get for all their work?
  Why do they work so hard on this earth?
[4]People come and people go.
  But the earth remains forever.
[5]The sun rises. Then it sets.
  And then it hurries back to where it rises.
[6]The wind blows to the south.
  Then it turns to the north.
Around and around it goes.
  It always returns to where it started.
[7]Every stream flows into the ocean.
  But the ocean never gets full.
The streams return to the place they came from.
[8]All things are tiresome.
  They are more tiresome than anyone can say.
But our eyes never see enough of anything.
  Our ears never hear enough.
[9]Everything that has ever been will come back again.
  Everything that has ever been done will be done again.
  Nothing is new on earth.
[10]There isn’t anything about which someone can say, “Look! Here’s something new.”

It was already here long ago.
It was here before we were.
[11]No one remembers the people of long ago.
Even those who haven't been born yet won't be remembered
by those who will be born after them.

Wisdom Is Meaningless

[12]I, the Teacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. [13]I decided to study things carefully. I used my wisdom to check everything out. I looked into everything that is done on earth. What a heavy load God has put on human beings! [14]I've seen what is done on this earth. All of it is meaningless. It's like chasing the wind.

[15]People can't straighten things that are crooked.
They can't count things that don't even exist.

[16]I said to myself, "Look, I've now grown wiser than anyone who ruled over Jerusalem in the past. I have a lot of wisdom and knowledge." [17]Then I used my mind to understand what it really means to be wise. And I wanted to know what foolish pleasure is all about. But I found out that it's also like chasing the wind.

[18]A lot of human wisdom leads to a lot of sorrow.
More knowledge only brings more sadness.

Ecclesiastes 2

Pleasure Is Meaningless

[1]I said to myself, “Come on. I’ll try out pleasure. I want to find out if it is good.” But it also proved to be meaningless. [2]“Laughter doesn’t make any sense,” I said. “And what can pleasure do for me?” [3]I tried cheering myself up by drinking wine. I even tried living in a foolish way. But wisdom was still guiding my mind. I wanted to see what was good for people to do on earth during their short lives.

[4]So I started some large projects. I built houses for myself. I planted vineyards. [5]I made gardens and parks. I planted all kinds of fruit trees in them. [6]I made lakes to water groves of healthy trees. [7]I bought male and female slaves.
And I had other slaves who were born in my house. I also owned more herds and flocks than anyone in Jerusalem ever had before. [8]I stored up silver and gold for myself. I gathered up the treasures of kings and their kingdoms. I got some male and female singers. I also got many women for myself. Women delight the hearts of men. [9]I became far more important than anyone in Jerusalem had ever been before. And in spite of everything, I didn’t lose my wisdom.

[10]I gave myself everything my eyes wanted.
There wasn’t any pleasure that I refused to give myself.
I took delight in everything I did.
And that was what I got for all my work.
[11]But then I looked over everything my hands had done.
I saw what I had worked so hard to get.
And nothing had any meaning.
It was like chasing the wind.
Nothing was gained on this earth.

Wisdom and Foolish Pleasure Are Meaningless

[12]I decided to think about wisdom.
I also thought about foolish pleasure.
What more can a new king do?
Can he do anything more than others have already done?
[13]I saw that wisdom is better than foolishness,

just as light is better than darkness.
[14]The eyes of a wise person see things clearly.
A person who is foolish lives in darkness.
But I finally realized that death catches up with both of them.

[15]Then I said to myself,

"What happens to a foolish person will catch up with me too.
So what do I gain by being wise?"
I said to myself,
"That doesn't have any meaning either."
[16]Like a foolish person, a wise person won't be remembered very long.
The days have already come when both of them have been forgotten.
Like a person who is foolish,
a wise person must die too!

Work Is Meaningless

[17]So I hated life. That's because the work done on this earth made me sad. None of it has any meaning. It's like chasing the wind. [18]I hated everything I had worked for on earth. I'll have to leave all of it to someone who lives after me. [19]And who knows whether that person will be wise or foolish? Either way, they'll take over everything on earth I've worked so hard for. That doesn't have any meaning either. [20]So I began to lose hope because of all my hard work on this earth. [21]A person might use wisdom, knowledge and skill to do their work. But then they have to leave everything they own to someone who hasn't worked for it. That doesn't have any meaning either. In fact, it isn't fair. [22]What do people get for all their hard work on earth? What do they get for all their worries? [23]As long as they live, their work is nothing but pain and sorrow. Even at night their minds can't rest. That doesn't have any meaning either.

[24]A person can't do anything better than eat, drink and be satisfied with their work. I'm finally seeing that those things also come from the hand of God. [25]Without his help, who can eat or find pleasure? [26]God gives wisdom, knowledge and happiness to the person who pleases him. But to a sinner he gives the task of gathering and storing up wealth. Then the sinner must hand it over to the one who pleases God. That doesn’t have any meaning either. It’s like chasing the wind.

Ecclesiastes 3

There Is a Time for Everything

[1]There is a time for everything.
There's a time for everything that is done on earth.

[2]There is a time to be born.
And there's a time to die.
There is a time to plant.
And there's a time to pull up what is planted.
[3]There is a time to kill.
And there's a time to heal.
There is a time to tear down.
And there's a time to build up.
[4]There is a time to weep.
And there's a time to laugh.
There is a time to be sad.
And there's a time to dance.
[5]There is a time to scatter stones.
And there's a time to gather them.
There is a time to embrace someone.
And there's a time not to embrace.
[6]There is a time to search.
And there's a time to stop searching.
There is a time to keep.
And there's a time to throw away.
[7]There is a time to tear.
And there's a time to mend.
There is a time to be silent.
And there's a time to speak.
[8]There is a time to love.
And there's a time to hate.
There is a time for war.
And there's a time for peace.

[9]What do workers get for their hard work? [10]I've seen the heavy load God has put on human beings. [11]He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also given people a sense of who he is. But they can't completely understand what God has done from beginning to end. [12]People should be happy and do good while they live. I know there's nothing better for them to do than that. [13]Each of them should eat and drink. People should be satisfied with all their hard work. That is God's gift to them. [14]I know that everything God does will last forever. Nothing can be added to it. And nothing can be taken from it. God does that so people will have respect for him.

[15]Everything that now exists has already been.
And what is coming has existed before.
God will judge those who treat others badly.

[16]Here's something else I saw on earth.

Where people should be treated right,
they are treated wrong.
Where people should be treated fairly,
they are treated unfairly.

[17]I said to myself,

"God will judge
godly and sinful people alike.
He has a time for every act.
He has a time to judge everything that is done."

[18]I also said to myself, "God tests human beings. He does this so they can see that in certain ways they are like animals. [19]Surely what happens to animals happens to people too. Death waits for people and animals alike. People die, just as animals do. All of them have the same breath. People don't have any advantage over animals. Nothing has any meaning. [20]People and animals go to the same place. All of them come from dust. And all of them return to dust. [21]Who can know whether the spirit of a person goes up? Who can tell whether the spirit of an animal goes down into the earth?"

[22]So a person should enjoy their work. That's what God made them for. I saw that there's nothing better for them to do than that. After all, who can show them what will happen after they are gone?

Ecclesiastes 4

Suffering, Hard Work and No Friends

[1]I looked and saw how much people were suffering on this earth.

I saw the tears of those who are suffering.
They don't have anyone to comfort them.
Power is on the side of those who treat them badly.
Those who are suffering don't have anyone to comfort them.
[2]Then I announced that those who have already died are happier than those who are still alive.
[3]But someone who hasn't been born yet is better off than the dead or the living.
That's because that person hasn't seen the evil things that are done on earth.

[4]I also saw that a person works hard and accomplishes a lot. But they do it only because they want what another person has. That doesn't have any meaning either. It's like chasing the wind.

[5]Foolish people fold their hands and don't work.
And that destroys them.
[6]One handful with peace and quiet is better than two handfuls with hard work.
Working too hard is like chasing the wind.

[7]Again I saw something on earth that didn't mean anything.

[8]A man lived all by himself.
He didn't have any sons or brothers.
His hard work never ended.
But he wasn't happy with what he had.
"Who am I working so hard for?" he asked.
"Why don't I get the things I enjoy?"
That doesn't have any meaning either.

In fact, it’s a very bad deal!

9 Two people are better than one.
They can help each other in everything they do.
10 Suppose either of them falls down.
Then the one can help the other one up.
But suppose a person falls down and doesn’t have anyone to help them up.
Then feel sorry for that person!
11 Or suppose two people lie down together.
Then they’ll keep warm.
But how can one person keep warm alone?
12 One person could be overpowered.
But two people can stand up for themselves.
And a rope made out of three cords isn’t easily broken.

Getting Ahead Is Meaningless

13 A poor but wise young man is better off than an old but foolish king. That king doesn’t pay attention to a warning anymore. 14 The young man might have come from prison to become king. Or he might have been born poor within the kingdom but still became king. 15 I saw that everyone was following the young man who had become the new king. 16 At first, all the people served him when he became king. But those who came later weren’t pleased with the way he was ruling. That doesn’t have any meaning either. It’s like chasing the wind.

Ecclesiastes 5

Keep Your Promise to God

[1]Be careful what you say when you go to God's house. Go there to listen.
Don't be like foolish people when you offer your sacrifice. They do what is wrong and don't even know it.

[2]Don't be too quick to speak.
  Don't be in a hurry to say anything to God.
God is in heaven. You are on earth.
  So use only a few words when you speak.
[3]Many worries result in dreams.
  Many words result in foolish talk.

[4]When you make a promise to God, don't wait too long to carry it out. He isn't pleased with foolish people. So do what you have promised. [5]It is not good to make a promise and not keep it. It is better to make no promise at all. [6]Don't let your mouth cause you to sin. Don't say to the temple messenger, "My promise was a mistake." Why should God be angry with what you say? Why should he destroy what you have done? [7]Dreaming too much and talking too much are meaningless. So have respect for God.

Riches Are Meaningless

[8]Suppose you see poor people being mistreated somewhere. And what is being done to them isn't right or fair. Don't be surprised by that. One official is watched by a higher one. Officials who are even higher are watching both of them. [9]All of them take what the land produces. And the king himself takes his share from the fields.

[10]Anyone who loves money never has enough.
  Anyone who loves wealth is never satisfied with what they get.
  That doesn't have any meaning either.

[11]As more and more goods are made,
  more and more people use them up.

So how can those goods benefit their owners?
All they can do is look at them with desire.

12 The sleep of a worker is sweet.
It doesn't matter whether they eat a little or a lot.
But the wealth of rich people keeps them awake at night.

13 I've seen something very evil on earth.

It's when wealth is stored up and then brings harm to its owners.
14 It's also when wealth is lost because of an unwise business deal.
Then there won't be anything left for the owners' children.
15 Everyone is born naked.
They come into the world with nothing.
And they go out of it with nothing.
They don't get anything from their work that they can take with them.

16 Here's something else that is very evil.

Everyone is born, and everyone dies.
And what do they get for their work?
Nothing. It's like working for the wind.
17 All their lives they eat in darkness.
Their lives are full of trouble, suffering and anger.

18 I have seen what is good. It is good for a person to eat and drink. It's good for them to be satisfied with their hard work on this earth. That's what they should do during the short life God has given them. That's what God made them for. 19 Sometimes God gives a person wealth and possessions. God makes it possible for that person to enjoy them. God helps them accept the life he has given them. God helps them to be happy in their work. All these things are gifts from God. 20 A person like that doesn't have to think about how their life is going. That's because God fills their heart with joy.

Ecclesiastes 6

[1]I've seen another evil thing on this earth. And it's a heavy load on human beings. [2]God gives some people wealth, possessions and honor. They have everything their hearts desire. But God doesn't let them enjoy those things. Instead, strangers enjoy them. This doesn't have any meaning. It's a very evil thing.

[3]A man might have a hundred children. He might live a long time. But suppose he can't enjoy his wealth. And suppose he isn't buried in the proper way. Then it doesn't matter how long he lives. I'm telling you that a baby that is born dead is better off than that man is. [4]That kind of birth doesn't have any meaning. The baby dies in darkness and leaves this world. And in darkness it is forgotten. [5]It didn't even see the sun. It didn't know anything at all. But it has more rest than that man does. [6]And that's true even if he lives for 2,000 years but doesn't get to enjoy his wealth. All people die and go to the grave, don't they?

[7]People eat up everything they work to get.
But they are never satisfied.
[8]What advantage do wise people have over those who are foolish?
What do poor people gain
by knowing how to act toward others?
[9]Being satisfied with what you have is better than always wanting more.
That doesn't have any meaning either.
It's like chasing the wind.

[10]God has already planned what now exists.
He has already decided what a human being is.
No one can argue with someone who is stronger.
[11]The more words people use,
the less meaning there is.
And that doesn't help anyone.

[12]Who knows what's good for a person? They live for only a few meaningless days. They pass through life like a shadow. Who can tell them what will happen on earth after they are gone?

Ecclesiastes 7

Good Advice About How to Live

[1]A good name is better than fine perfume.
People can learn more from mourning when someone dies than from being happy when someone is born.
[2]So it's better to go where people are mourning than to go where people are having a good time.
Everyone will die someday.
Those who are still living should really think about that.
[3]Not being able to figure things out is better than laughter.
That's because sorrow is good for the heart.
[4]Those who are wise are found where there is sorrow.
But foolish people are found where there is pleasure.
[5]Pay attention to a wise person's warning.
That's better than listening to the songs of those who are foolish.
[6]A foolish person's laughter is like the crackling of thorns burning under a pot.
That doesn't have any meaning either.

[7]When a wise person takes wealth by force, they become foolish.
It is sinful to take money from people who want special favors.

[8]The end of a matter is better than its beginning.
So it's better to be patient than proud.
[9]Don't become angry quickly.
Anger lives in the hearts of foolish people.

[10]Don't say, "Why were things better in the good old days?"
It isn't wise to ask that kind of question.

[11]Wisdom is a good thing.
It's like getting a share of the family wealth.
It benefits those who live on this earth.
[12]Wisdom provides safety,

just as money provides safety.
But here's the advantage of wisdom.
It guards those who have it.

13 Think about what God has done.

Who can make straight
what he has made crooked?
14 When times are good, be happy.
But when times are bad, here's something to think about.
God has made bad times.
He has also made good times.
So no one can find out anything about what's ahead for them.

15 In my meaningless life here's what I've seen.

I've seen godly people dying
even though they are godly.
And I've seen sinful people living a long time
even though they are sinful.
16 Don't claim to be better than you are.
And don't claim to be wiser than you are.
Why destroy yourself?
17 Don't be too sinful.
And don't be foolish.
Why die before your time comes?
18 It's good to hold on to both of those things.
Don't let go of either one.
Whoever has respect for God will avoid going too far in either direction.

19 Wisdom makes one wise person more powerful than ten rulers in a city.

20 It is true that there isn't anyone on earth who does only what is right and never sins.

[21]Don’t pay attention to everything people say.
If you do, you might hear your servant cursing you.
[22]Many times you yourself have cursed others.
Deep down inside, you know that’s true.

[23]I used wisdom to test all these things. I said,

“I’ve made up my mind to be wise.”
But it was more than I could accomplish.
[24]Whatever exists is far away and very deep.
Who can find it?
[25]So I tried to understand wisdom more completely.
I wanted to study it and figure it out.
I tried to find out everything I could about it.
I tried to understand why it’s foolish to be evil.
I wanted to see why choosing foolishness is so unwise.

[26]A woman who hunts a man down is more painful than death.
Her heart is like a trap.
Her hands are like chains.
A man who pleases God will try to get away from her.
But she will trap a sinner.

[27]“Look,” says the Teacher. “Here’s what I’ve discovered.

“I added one thing to another to find out everything I could about wisdom.
[28]I searched and searched
but found very little.
I did find one honest man among a thousand.
But I didn’t find one honest woman among a thousand.
[29]Here’s the only other thing I found.
God created human beings as honest.
But they’ve made many evil plans.”

Ecclesiastes 8

[1]Who is like a wise person?
  Who knows how to explain things?
A person's wisdom makes their face bright.
  It softens the look on their face.

Obey the King

[2]I'm telling you to obey the king's command. You promised to serve him. You made a promise to God. [3]Don't be in a hurry to quit your job in the palace. Don't stand up for something the king doesn't like. He'll do anything he wants to. [4]The king has the final word. So who can ask him, "What are you doing?"

[5]No one who obeys his command will be harmed.
  Those who are wise will know the proper time and way to approach him.
[6]There's a proper time and way for people to do everything.
  That's true even though a person might be suffering greatly.

[7]No one knows what lies ahead.
  So who can tell someone else what's going to happen?
[8]No one can stop the wind from blowing.
  And no one has the power to decide when they will die.
No one is let out of the army in times of war.
  And evil won't let go of those who practice it.

[9]I understood all these things. I used my mind to study everything that's done on earth. A man sometimes makes life hard for others. But he ends up hurting himself. [10]I also saw sinful people being buried. They used to come and go from the place of worship. And others praised them in the city where they worshiped. That doesn't have any meaning either.

[11]Sometimes the sentence for a crime isn't carried out quickly. So people make plans to commit even more crimes. [12]An evil person may be guilty of a hundred crimes. Yet they may still live a long time. But I know that things will go better with those who have great respect for God. [13]Sinful people don't respect God. So things won’t go well with them. Like a shadow, they won’t be around very long.

14Here’s something else on this earth that doesn’t have any meaning. Sometimes godly people get what sinful people should receive. And sinful people get what godly people should receive. Here’s what I’m telling you. That doesn’t have any meaning either. 15So I advise everyone to enjoy life. A person on this earth can’t do anything better than eat and drink and be glad. Then they will enjoy their work. They’ll be happy all the days of the life God has given them on earth.

16I used my mind to understand what it really means to be wise. I wanted to observe the hard work people do on earth. They don’t close their eyes and go to sleep day or night. 17I saw everything God has done. No one can understand what happens on earth. People might try very hard to figure it out. But they still can’t discover what it all means. Wise people might claim they know. But they can’t really understand it either.

Ecclesiastes 9

Everyone Dies

[1]I thought about all these things. I realized that those who are wise and do what is right are under God's control. What they do is also under his control. But no one knows whether they will be loved or hated. [2]Everyone will die someday. Death comes to godly and sinful people alike. It comes to good and bad people alike. It comes to "clean" and "unclean" people alike. Those who offer sacrifices and those who don't offer them also die.

A good person dies,
and so does a sinner.
Those who make promises die.
So do those who are afraid to make them.

[3]Here's what is so bad about everything that happens on this earth. Death catches up with all of us. Also, the hearts of people are full of evil. They live in foolish pleasure. After that, they join those who have already died. [4]Anyone who is still living has hope. Even a live dog is better off than a dead lion!

[5]People who are still alive know they'll die.
But those who have died don't know anything.
They don't receive any more rewards.
And even their name is forgotten.
[6]Their love, hate and jealousy disappear.
They will never share again in anything that happens on earth.

[7]Go and enjoy your food. Be joyful as you drink your wine. God has aleady approved what you do. [8]Always wear white clothes to show you are happy. Anoint your head with olive oil. [9]You love your wife. So enjoy life with her. Do it all the days of this meaningless life God has given you on earth. That's what he made you for. That's what you get for all your hard work on earth. [10]No matter what you do, work at it with all your might. Remember, you are going to the place of the dead. And there isn't any work or planning or knowledge or wisdom there.

[11]Here’s something else I’ve seen on this earth.

Races aren’t always won by those who run fast.
Battles aren’t always won by those who are strong.
Wise people don’t always have plenty of food.
Clever people aren’t always wealthy.
Those who have learned a lot aren’t always successful.
God controls the timing of every event.
He also controls how things turn out.

[12]No one knows when trouble will come to them.

Fish are caught in nets.
Birds are taken in traps.
And people are trapped by hard times that come when they don’t expect them.

Being Wise Is Better Than Being Foolish

[13]Here’s something else I saw on this earth. I saw an example of wisdom that touched me deeply. [14]There was once a small city. Only a few people lived there. A powerful king attacked it. He brought in war machines all around it. [15]A certain man lived in that city. He was poor but wise. He used his wisdom to save the city. But no one remembered that poor man. [16]So I said, “It’s better to be wise than to be powerful.” But people look down on the poor man’s wisdom. No one pays any attention to what he says.

[17]People should listen to the quiet words of those who are wise.
That’s better than paying attention to the shouts of a ruler of foolish people.
[18]Wisdom is better than weapons of war.
But one sinner destroys a lot of good.

Ecclesiastes 10

[1]Dead flies give perfume a bad smell.
And a little foolishness can make a lot of wisdom useless.
[2]The hearts of wise people lead them on the right path.
But the hearts of foolish people take them down the wrong path.
[3]Foolish people don't have any sense at all.
They show everyone they are foolish.
They do it even when they are walking along the road.
[4]Suppose a ruler gets very angry with you.
If he does, don't quit your job in the palace.
Being calm can overcome what you have done against him.

[5]Here's something evil I've seen on this earth.
And it's the kind of mistake that rulers make.
[6]Foolish people are given many important jobs.
Rich people are given unimportant ones.
[7]I've seen slaves on horseback.
I've also seen princes who were forced to walk as if they were slaves.

[8]Anyone who digs a pit might fall into it.
Anyone who breaks through a wall might be bitten by a snake.
[9]Anyone who removes stones from rock pits might get hurt.
Anyone who cuts logs might get wounded.

[10]Suppose the blade of an ax is dull.
And its edge hasn't been sharpened.
Then more effort is needed to use it.
But skill will bring success.

[11]Suppose a snake bites before it is charmed.
Then the snake charmer receives no payment.

[12]Wise people say gracious things.
But foolish people are destroyed by what their own lips speak.

[13]At first what they say is foolish.
In the end their words are very evil.
[14]They talk too much.

No one knows what lies ahead.
Who can tell someone else what will happen after they are gone?

[15]The work foolish people do makes them tired.
They don’t even know the way to town.

[16]How terrible it is for a land whose king used to be a servant!
How terrible if its princes get drunk in the morning!
[17]How blessed is the land whose king was born into the royal family!
How blessed if its princes eat and drink at the proper time!
How blessed if they eat and drink to become strong and not to get drunk!

[18]When a person won’t work, the roof falls down.
Because of hands that aren’t busy, the house leaks.

[19]People laugh at a dinner party.
And wine makes life happy.
People think money can buy everything.

[20]Don’t say bad things about the king.
Don’t even think about those things.
Don’t curse rich people.
Don’t even curse them in your bedroom.
A bird might fly away and carry your words.
It might report what you said.

Ecclesiastes 11

Do Many Things to Succeed

[1]Sell your grain in the market overseas.
After a while you might earn something from it.
[2]Try to succeed by doing many things.
After all, you don't know what great trouble might come on the land.

[3]Clouds that are full of water pour rain down on the earth.
A tree might fall to the south or the north.
It will stay in the place where it falls.
[4]Anyone who keeps on watching the wind won't plant seeds.
Anyone who keeps looking at the clouds won't gather crops.

[5]You don't know the path the wind takes.
You don't know how a baby is made inside its mother.
So you can't understand how God works either.
He made everything.

[6]In the morning plant your seeds.
In the evening keep your hands busy.
You don't know what will succeed.
It may be one or the other.
Or both might do equally well.

Remember Your Creator While You Are Young

[7]Light is sweet.
People enjoy being out in the sun.
[8]No matter how many years anyone might live,
let them enjoy all of them.
But let them remember the dark days.
There will be many of those.
Nothing that's going to happen will have any meaning.

[9]You young people, be happy while you are still young.
Let your heart be joyful while you are still strong.
Do what your heart tells you to do.
Go after what your eyes look at.
But I want you to know that God will judge you for everything you do.
[10]So drive worry out of your heart.
Get rid of all your troubles.
Being young and strong doesn’t have any meaning.

Ecclesiastes 12

[1]Remember your Creator.
Remember him while you are still young.
Think about him before your times of trouble come.
The years will come when you will say,
"I don't find any pleasure in them."
[2]That's when the sunlight will become dark.
The moon and the stars will also grow dark.
And the clouds will return after it rains.
[3]Remember your Creator before those who guard the house tremble with old age.
That's when strong men will be bent over.
The women who grind grain will stop because there are so few of them left.
Those who look through the windows won't be able to see very well.
[4]Remember your Creator before the front doors are closed.
That's when the sound of grinding will fade away.
Old people will rise up when they hear birds singing.
But they will barely hear any of their songs.
[5]Remember your Creator before you become afraid of places that are too high.
You will also be terrified because of danger in the streets.
Remember your Creator before the almond trees have buds on them.
That's when grasshoppers will drag themselves along.
Old people will lose their desire.
That's when people will go to their dark homes in the grave.
And those who mourn for the dead will walk around in the streets.

[6]Remember your Creator before the silver cord is cut.
Remember him before the golden bowl is broken.
The wheel will be broken at the well.
The pitcher will be smashed at the spring.
[7]Remember your Creator before you return to the dust you came from.

Remember him before your spirit goes back to God who gave it.

8“Meaningless! Everything is meaningless!”
says the Teacher.
“Nothing has any meaning.”

Have Respect for God and Obey His Commandments

9The Teacher was wise. He gave knowledge to people. He tried out many proverbs. He thought about them carefully. Then he wrote them down in order. 10He did his best to find just the right words. And what he wrote was honest and true.

11The sayings of those who are wise move people to take action. Their collected sayings are like nails pounded in firm and deep. These sayings are given to us by one shepherd. 12My son, be careful not to pay attention to anything added to them.

Books will never stop being written. Too much studying makes people tired.

13Everything has now been heard.
And here’s the final thing I want to say.
Have respect for God and obey his commandments.
This is what he expects of all human beings.
14God will judge everything people do.
That includes everything they try to hide.
He’ll judge everything, whether it’s good or evil.

Song of Songs

Song of Songs 1

[1]This is the greatest song Solomon ever wrote.

A Shulammite woman says to King Solomon,

[2]“I long for your lips to kiss me!
Your love makes me happier than wine does.
[3]The lotion you have on pleases me.
Your name is like perfume that is poured out.
No wonder the young women love you!
[4]Take me away with you. Let us hurry!
King Solomon, bring me into your palace.”

The other women say,

“King Solomon, you fill us with joy. You make us happy.
We praise your love more than we praise wine.”

The woman says to the king,

“It is right for them to love you!

[5]“Women of Jerusalem,
my skin is dark but lovely.
It is dark like the tents in Kedar.
It’s like the curtains of Solomon’s tent.
[6]Don’t stare at me because I’m dark.
The sun has made my skin look like this.
My brothers were angry with me.
They made me take care of the vineyards.
I haven’t even taken care of my own vineyard.

[7]“King Solomon, I love you.
So tell me where you take care of your flock.
Tell me where you rest your sheep at noon.

Why should I have to act like a prostitute near the flocks of your friends?”

The other women say,

8 “You are the most beautiful woman of all.
Don’t you know where to find the king?
Follow the tracks the sheep make.
Take care of your young goats near the tents of the shepherds.”

King Solomon says to the Shulammite woman,

9 “You are my love.
You are like a mare among Pharaoh’s chariot horses.
10 Your earrings make your cheeks even more beautiful.
Your strings of jewels make your neck even more lovely.
11 We will make gold earrings for you.
We’ll decorate them with silver.”

The woman says,

12 “The king was at his table.
My perfume gave off a sweet smell.
13 The one who loves me is like a small bag of myrrh resting between my breasts.
14 He is like henna flowers from the vineyards of En Gedi.”

The king says,

15 “You are so beautiful, my love!
So beautiful!
Your eyes are like doves.”

The woman says,

16 “You are so handsome, my love!
So charming!

The green field is our bed.”

The king says,

17 “Cedar trees above us are the beams of our house.
Fir trees overhead are its rafters.”

Song of Songs 2

[1]The woman says,

“I am like a rose on the coast of Sharon.
I’m like a lily in the valleys.”

The king says,

[2]“My love, among the young women you are like a lily among thorns.”

The woman says,

[3]“My love, among the young men
you are like an apple tree among the trees of the forest.
I’m happy to sit in your shade.
Your fruit tastes so sweet to me.
[4]Lead me to the dinner hall.
Let your banner of love be lifted high above me.
[5]Give me some raisins to make me strong.
Give me some apples to make me feel like new again.
Our love has made me weak.
[6]Your left arm is under my head.
Your right arm is around me.
[7]Women of Jerusalem, make me a promise.
Let the antelopes and the does serve as witnesses.
Don’t stir up love.
Don’t wake it up until it’s ready.

[8]“Listen! I hear my love!
Look! Here he comes!
He’s leaping across the mountains.
He’s coming over the hills.
[9]The one who loves me is like an antelope or a young deer.
Look! There he stands behind our wall.
He’s gazing through the window.

He’s peering through the screen.
[10]He said to me, ‘Rise up, my love.
Come with me, my beautiful one.
[11]Look! The winter is past.
The rains are over and gone.
[12]Flowers are appearing on the earth.
The season for singing has come.
The cooing of doves
is heard in our land.
[13]The fig trees are producing their early fruit.
The flowers on the vines are giving off their sweet smell.
Rise up and come, my love.
Come with me, my beautiful one.’ ”

The king says,

[14]“You are like a dove in an opening in the rocks.
You are like a dove in a hiding place on a mountainside.
Show me your face.
Let me hear your voice.
Your voice is so sweet.
Your face is so lovely.
[15]Catch the foxes for us.
Catch the little foxes.
They destroy our vineyards.
The vineyards are in bloom.”

The woman says,

[16]“My love belongs to me, and I belong to him.
Like an antelope, he eats among the lilies.
[17]Until the day begins and the shadows fade away,
turn to me, my love.
Be like an antelope
or like a young deer
on the rocky hills.

Song of Songs 3

[1]“All night long on my bed
I searched for the one my heart loves.
I looked for him but didn’t find him.
[2]I will get up and go around in the city.
I’ll look through all of its streets.
I’ll search for the one my heart loves.
So I looked for him but didn’t find him.
[3]Those on guard duty found me
as they were walking around in the city.
‘Have you seen the one my heart loves?’ I asked.
[4]As soon as I had passed by them
I found the one my heart loves.
I threw my arms around him and didn’t let him go until I had brought him to my mother’s house.
I took him to my mother’s room.
[5]Women of Jerusalem, make me a promise.
Let the antelopes and the does serve as witnesses.
Don’t stir up love.
Don’t wake it up until it’s ready.

[6]“Who is this man coming up from the desert like a column of smoke?
He smells like myrrh and incense made from all the spices of the trader.
[7]Look! There’s Solomon’s movable throne.
Sixty soldiers accompany it.
They have been chosen from the best warriors in Israel.
[8]All of them are wearing swords.
They have fought many battles.
Each one has his sword at his side.
Each is prepared for the terrors of the night.
[9]King Solomon made the movable throne for himself.
He made it out of wood from Lebanon.
[10]He formed its posts out of silver.

He made its base out of gold.
Its seat was covered with purple cloth.
It was decorated inside with love.
Women of Jerusalem, [11]come out.

Look, you women of Zion.
Look at King Solomon wearing his crown.
His mother placed it on him.
She did it on his wedding day.
His heart was full of joy.”

Song of Songs 4

[1]The king says to the Shulammite woman,

"You are so beautiful, my love!
So beautiful!
Your eyes behind your veil are like doves.
Your hair flows like a flock of black goats
coming down from the hills of Gilead.
[2]Your teeth are as clean as a flock of sheep.
Their wool has just been clipped.
They have just come up from being washed.
Each of your teeth has its twin.
Not one of them is alone.
[3]Your lips are like a bright red ribbon.
Your mouth is so lovely.
Your cheeks behind your veil
are like the halves of a pomegranate.
[4]Your neck is strong and beautiful like the tower of David.
That tower is built with rows of stones.
A thousand shields are hanging on it.
All of them belong to mighty soldiers.
[5]Your breasts are lovely.
They are like two young antelopes that eat among the lilies.
[6]I will go to the mountain of myrrh.
I'll go to the hill of incense.
I'll stay there until the day begins
and the shadows fade away.
[7]Every part of you is so beautiful, my love.
There is no flaw in you.

[8]"Come with me from Lebanon, my bride.
Come with me from Lebanon.
Come down from the top of Mount Amana.
Come down from the top of Senir.
Come to me from the peak of Mount Hermon.

Leave the dens where the lions live.
Leave the places in the mountains where the leopards stay.
9 My bride, you have stolen my heart with one glance of your eyes.
My sister, you have stolen my heart with one jewel in your necklace.
10 My bride, your love is so delightful.
My sister, your love makes me happier than wine does.
Your perfume smells better than any spice.
11 Your lips are as sweet as honey, my bride.
Milk and honey are under your tongue.
Your clothes smell like the cedar trees in Lebanon.
12 My bride, you are like a garden that is locked up.
My sister, you are like a spring of water that has a fence around it.
You are like a fountain that is sealed up.
13 You are like trees whose branches are loaded with pomegranates, fine fruits, henna and nard, 14 with nard and saffron, cane and cinnamon.
You are like every kind of incense tree.
You have myrrh, aloes
and all the finest spices.
15 You are like a fountain in a garden.
You are like a well of flowing water streaming down from Lebanon.”

The woman says,

16 “Wake up, north wind!
Come, south wind!
Blow on my garden.
Then its sweet smell will spread everywhere.
Let my love come into his garden.
Let him taste its fine fruits.”

Song of Songs 5

[1]The king says,

“My bride, I have come into my garden.
My sister, I’ve gathered my myrrh and my spice.
I’ve eaten my honeycomb and my honey.
I’ve drunk my wine and my milk.”

The other women say to the Shulammite woman and to Solomon, “Friends, eat and drink.

Drink up all the love you want.”

The woman says,

[2]“I slept, but my heart was awake.
Listen! The one who loves me is knocking.
He says, ‘My sister, I love you.
Open up so I can come in.
You are my dove.
You are perfect in every way.
My head is soaked with dew.
The night air has made my hair wet.’

[3]“But I’ve taken off my robe.
Must I put it on again?
I’ve washed my feet.
Must I get them dirty again?
[4]My love put his hand through the opening.
My heart began to pound for him.
[5]I got up to open the door for my love.
My hands dripped with myrrh.
It flowed from my fingers onto the handles of the lock.
[6]I opened the door for my love.
But he had left and was gone.

My heart sank because he had left.
I looked for him but didn't find him.
I called out to him, but he didn't answer.
7 Those on guard duty found me
as they were walking around in the city.
They beat me. They hurt me.
Those on guard duty at the walls took my coat away from me.
8 Women of Jerusalem, make me a promise.
If you find the one who loves me, tell him our love has made me weak."

The other women say,

9 "You are the most beautiful woman of all.
How is the one you love better than others?
How is he better than anyone else?
Why do you ask us to make you this promise?"

The woman says,

10 "The one who loves me is tanned and handsome.
He's the finest man among 10,000.
11 His head is like the purest gold.
His hair is wavy and as black as a raven.
12 His eyes are like doves
by streams of water.
They look as if they've been washed in milk.
They are set like jewels in his head.
13 His cheeks are like beds of spice giving off perfume.
His lips are like lilies
dripping with myrrh.
14 His arms are like rods of gold set with topaz.
His body is like polished ivory decorated with lapis lazuli.
15 His legs are like pillars of marble set on bases of pure gold.

He looks like the finest cedar tree in the mountains of Lebanon.
16 His mouth is very sweet.
Everything about him is delightful.
That’s what the one who loves me is like.
That’s what my friend is like, women of Jerusalem.”

Song of Songs 6

[1]The other women say,

"You are the most beautiful woman of all.
Where has the one who loves you gone?
Which way did he turn?
We'll help you look for him."

The woman says,

[2]"My love has gone down to his garden.
He's gone to the beds of spices.
He's eating in the gardens.
He's gathering lilies.
[3]I belong to my love, and he belongs to me.
He's eating among the lilies."

The king says,

[4]"My love, you are as beautiful as the city of Tirzah.
You are as lovely as Jerusalem.
You are as majestic as troops carrying their banners.
[5]Turn your eyes away from me.
They overpower me.
Your hair flows like a flock of black goats
coming down from the hills of Gilead.
[6]Your teeth are as clean as a flock of sheep coming up from being washed.
Each of your teeth has its twin.
Not one of them is missing.
[7]Your cheeks behind your veil
are like the halves of a pomegranate.
[8]There might be 60 queens and 80 concubines.
There might be more virgins than anyone can count.
[9]But you are my perfect dove.
There isn't anyone like you.

You are your mother’s favorite daughter.
The young women see you and call you blessed.
The queens and concubines praise you.”

The other women say,

[10]“Who is this woman?
She is like the sunrise in all its glory.
She is as beautiful as the moon.
She is as bright as the sun.
She is as majestic as the stars traveling across the sky.”

The king says,

[11]“I went down to a grove of nut trees.
I wanted to look at the new plants growing in the valley.
I wanted to find out whether the vines had budded.
I wanted to see if the pomegranate trees had bloomed.
[12]Before I realized it,
I was among the royal chariots of my people.”

The other women say,

[13]“Come back to us.
Come back, Shulammite woman.
Come back to us.
Come back. Then we can look at you.”

The king says to the women,

“Why do you want to look at the Shulammite woman as you would watch a dancer at Mahanaim?”

Song of Songs 7

[1]The king says to the Shulammite woman,

"You are like a prince's daughter.
Your feet in sandals are so beautiful.
Your graceful legs are like jewels.
The hands of an artist must have shaped them.
[2]Your navel is like a round bowl that always has mixed wine in it.
Your waist is like a mound of wheat surrounded by lilies.
[3]Your two breasts are lovely.
They are like two young antelopes.
[4]Your neck is smooth and beautiful like an ivory tower.
Your eyes are like the pools of Heshbon
by the gate of Bath Rabbim.
Your nose is like the towering mountains of Lebanon that face the city of Damascus.
[5]Your head is like a crown on you.
It is as beautiful as Mount Carmel.
Your hair is as smooth as purple silk.
I am captured by your flowing curls.
[6]You are so beautiful! You please me so much!
You are so delightful, my love!
[7]You are as graceful as a palm tree.
Your breasts are as sweet as the freshest fruit.
[8]I said, 'I will climb the palm tree.
I'll take hold of its fruit.'
May your breasts be as sweet as grapes on the vine.
May your breath smell like the tastiest apples.
[9]May your lips be like the finest wine."

The woman says,

"May my wine go straight to you, my love.
May it flow gently over our lips as we sleep.

10 “I belong to you, my love.
And you long for me.
11 Come, my love. Let’s go to the country.
Let’s spend the night in the villages.
12 Let’s go out to the vineyards early.
Let’s go and see if the vines have budded.
Let’s find out whether their flowers have opened.
Let’s see if the pomegranate trees are blooming.
There I will give you my love.
13 The mandrake flowers give off their strong smell.
All the best things are waiting for us,
new and old alike.
I’ve stored them up for you, my love.

Song of Songs 8

[1]“I wish you were like a brother to me.
I wish my mother’s breasts had nursed you.
Then if I found you outside,
I could kiss you.
No one would look down on me.
[2]I’d bring you to my mother’s house.
She taught me everything I know.
I’d give you spiced wine to drink.
It’s the juice of my pomegranates.
[3]Your left arm is under my head.
Your right arm is around me.
[4]Women of Jerusalem, make me a promise.
Don’t stir up love.
Don’t wake it up until it’s ready.”

The other women say,

[5]“Who is this woman coming up from the desert?
She’s leaning on the one who loves her.”

The woman says to the king,

“Under the apple tree I woke you up.
That’s where your mother became pregnant with you.
She went into labor, and you were born there.
[6]Hold me close to your heart where your royal seal is worn.
Keep me as close to yourself as the bracelet on your arm.
My love for you is so strong it won’t let you go.
Love is as powerful as death.
Love’s jealousy is as strong as the grave.
Love is like a blazing fire.
Love burns like a mighty flame.
[7]No amount of water can put it out.
Rivers can’t sweep it away.
Suppose someone offers all their wealth to buy love.

That won't even come close to being enough."

The woman's brothers say,

[8]"We have a little sister.
Her breasts are still small.
What should we do for our sister
when she gets engaged?
[9]If she were a wall,
we'd build silver towers on her.
If she were a door,
we'd cover her with cedar boards."

The woman says to the king,

[10]"I am a wall.
My breasts are like well-built towers.
So in your eyes I've become like someone who makes you happy.
[11]Solomon, you had a vineyard in Baal Hamon.
You rented your vineyard to others.
They had to pay 25 pounds of silver for its fruit.
[12]But I can give my own vineyard to anyone I want to.
So I give my 25 pounds of silver to you, Solomon.
Give 5 pounds to those who take care of its fruit."

The king says,

[13]"My love, you live in the gardens.
My friends listen for your voice.
But let me hear it now."

The woman says,

[14]"Come away with me, my love.
Be like an antelope
or like a young deer

on mountains that are full of spices.”

Isaiah

Isaiah 1

[1]Here is the vision about Judah and Jerusalem that Isaiah saw. It came to him when Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah were ruling. They were kings of Judah. Isaiah was the son of Amoz.

The Nation Refuses to Obey the LORD

[2]Listen to me, you heavens! Pay attention to me, earth!
The LORD has said,
"I raised children. I brought them up.
But they have refused to obey me.
[3]The ox knows its master.
The donkey knows where its owner feeds it.
But Israel does not know me.
My people do not understand me."

[4]How terrible it will be for this sinful nation!
They are loaded down with guilt.
They are people who do nothing but evil.
They are children who are always sinning.
They have deserted the LORD.
They have turned against the Holy One of Israel.
They have turned their backs on him.

[5]Israel, why do you want to be beaten all the time?
Why do you always refuse to obey the LORD?
Your head is covered with wounds.
Your whole heart is weak.
[6]There isn't a healthy spot on your body.
You are not healthy from the bottom of your feet to the top of your head.
You have nothing but wounds, cuts and open sores.
They haven't been cleaned up or bandaged or treated with olive oil.

7 Your country has been deserted.
Your cities have been burned down.
The food from your fields is being eaten up by outsiders.
They are doing it right in front of you.
Your land has been completely destroyed.
It looks as if strangers have taken it over.
8 The city of Zion is left like a shed where someone stands guard in a vineyard.
It is left like a hut in a cucumber field.
It's like a city being attacked.
9 The LORD who rules over all has let some people live through that time of trouble.
If he hadn't, we would have become like Sodom.
We would have been like Gomorrah.

10 Rulers of Sodom, hear the LORD's message.
People of Gomorrah,
listen to the instruction of our God.
11 "Do you think I need any more of your sacrifices?"
asks the LORD.
"I have more than enough of your burnt offerings.
I have more than enough of rams and the fat of your fattest animals.
I do not find any pleasure
in the blood of your bulls, lambs and goats.
12 Who asked you to bring all these animals when you come to worship me?
Who asked you and your animals to walk all over my courtyards?
13 Stop bringing offerings that do not mean anything to me!
I hate your incense.
I can't stand your worthless gatherings.
I can't stand the way you celebrate your New Moon feasts,
Sabbath days and special services.
14 Your New Moon feasts and your other appointed feasts

I hate with my whole being.
They have become a heavy load to me.
I am tired of carrying it.
15 You might spread out your hands toward me when you pray.
But I do not look at you.
You might even offer many prayers.
But I am not listening to them.
Your hands are covered with the blood of the people you have murdered.
16 So wash and make yourselves clean.
Get your evil actions out of my sight!
Stop doing what is wrong!
17 Learn to do what is right!
Treat people fairly.
Help those who are treated badly.
Stand up in court for children whose fathers have died.
And do the same thing for widows.

18 "Come. Let us settle this matter,"
says the LORD.
"Even though your sins are bright red,
they will be as white as snow.
Even though they are deep red,
they will be white like wool.
19 But you have to be willing to change and obey me.
If you are, you will eat the good things that grow on the land.
20 But if you are not willing to obey me,
you will be killed by swords."
The LORD has spoken.

21 See how the faithful city of Jerusalem has become like a prostitute!
Once it was full of people who treated others fairly.
Those who did what was right used to live in it.
But now murderers live there!
22 Jerusalem, your silver isn't pure anymore.
Your best wine has been made weak with water.
23 Your rulers refuse to obey the LORD.

They join forces with robbers.
All of them love to accept money from those who want special favors.
They are always looking for gifts from other people.
They don’t stand up in court for children whose fathers have died.
They don’t do it for widows either.
24The Lord is the Mighty One of Israel.
The LORD who rules over all announces,
“Israel, you have become my enemies.
I will act against you in my anger.
I will pay you back for what you have done.
25I will turn my power against you.
I will make you completely ‘clean.’
I will remove everything that is not pure.
26I will give you leaders like the ones you had long ago.
I will give you rulers like those you had at the beginning.
Then you will be called the City That Does What Is Right.
You will also be called the Faithful City.”

27Zion will be saved when justice is done.
Those who are sorry for their sins will be saved
when what is right is done.
28But sinners and those who refuse to obey the LORD will be destroyed.
And those who desert the LORD will die.

29“Israel, you take delight in worshiping among the sacred oak trees.
You will be full of shame for doing that.
You have chosen to worship in the sacred gardens.
You will be dishonored for doing that.
30You will be like an oak tree whose leaves are dying.
You will be like a garden that doesn’t have any water.
31Your strongest men will become like dry pieces of wood.
Their worship of other gods will be the spark that lights the fire.
Everything will be burned up.
No one will be there to put the fire out.”

Isaiah 2

People From Many Nations Will Worship at Mount Zion

[1]Here is a vision that Isaiah, the son of Amoz, saw about Judah and Jerusalem.

[2]In the last days

the mountain where the LORD's temple is located will be famous.
It will be the highest mountain of all.
It will be raised above the hills.
All the nations will go to it.

[3]People from many nations will go there. They will say,

"Come. Let us go up to the LORD's mountain.
Let's go to the temple of Jacob's God.
He will teach us how we should live.
Then we will live the way he wants us to."
The law of the LORD will be taught at Zion.
His message will go out from Jerusalem.
[4]He will judge between the nations.
He'll settle problems among many of them.
They will hammer their swords into plows.
They'll hammer their spears into pruning tools.
Nations will not go to war against one another.
They won't even train to fight anymore.

[5]People of Jacob, come.
Let us live the way the LORD has taught us to.

The Day of the LORD Is Coming

[6]LORD, you have deserted the people of Jacob.
They are your people.
The land is full of false beliefs from the east.
The people practice evil magic, just as the Philistines do.
They do what ungodly people do.

[7]Their land is full of silver and gold.
There is no end to their treasures.
Their land is full of horses.
There is no end to their chariots.
[8]Their land is full of statues of gods.
Their people bow down to what their own hands have made.
They bow down to what their fingers have shaped.
[9]So people will be brought low.
Everyone will be made humble.
Do not forgive them.

[10]Go and hide in caves in the rocks, you people!
Hide in holes in the ground.
Hide from the terrifying presence of the LORD!
Hide when he comes in glory and majesty!
[11]Anyone who brags will be brought low.
Anyone who is proud will be made humble.
The LORD alone will be honored at that time.

[12]The LORD who rules over all has set apart a day when he will judge.
He has set it apart for all those who are proud and think they are important.
He has set it apart for all those who brag about themselves.
All of them will be brought low.
[13]The LORD has set that day apart for all the cedar trees in Lebanon.
They are very tall.
He has set that day apart for all the oak trees in Bashan.
[14]He has set it apart for all the towering mountains.
He has set it apart for all the high hills.
[15]He has set it apart for every high tower and every strong wall.
[16]He has set it apart for every trading ship and every beautiful boat.
[17]Anyone who brags will be brought low.
Anyone who is proud will be made humble.

The LORD alone will be honored at that time.
18 And the statues of gods will totally disappear.

19 People will run and hide in caves in the rocks.
They will go into holes in the ground.
They will run away from the terrifying presence of the LORD.
They will run when he comes in glory and majesty.
When he comes, he will shake the earth.
20 People had made some statues of gods out of silver.
They had made others out of gold.
Then they worshiped them.
But when the LORD comes,
they will throw the statues away to the moles and bats.
21 Those people will run and hide in caves in the rocks.
They will go into holes in the cliffs.
They will run away from the terrifying presence of the LORD.
They will run when he comes in glory and majesty.
When he comes, he will shake the earth.

22 Stop trusting in mere human beings, who can’t help you.
They only live for a little while.
What good are they?

Isaiah 3

The LORD Will Judge Jerusalem and Judah

[1]Here is what the LORD who rules over all is about to do.
The Lord will take away from Jerusalem and Judah supplies and help alike.
He will take away all the supplies of food and water.
[2]He'll take away heroes and soldiers.
He'll take away judges and prophets.
He'll take away fortune tellers and elders.
[3]He'll take away captains of group of 50 men.
He'll take away government leaders.
He'll take away advisers, skilled workers and those who are clever at doing evil magic.

[4]The LORD will make mere youths their leaders.
Children will rule over them.
[5]People will treat one another badly.
They will fight against one another.
They will fight against their neighbors.
Young people will attack old people.
Ordinary people will attack those who are more important.

[6]A man will grab one of his brothers in his father's house. He will say,
"You have a coat. So you be our leader.
Take charge of all these broken-down buildings!"
[7]But at that time the brother will cry out,
"I can't help you.
I don't have any food or clothing in my house.
Don't make me the leader of these people."

[8]Jerusalem is about to fall.
And so is Judah.
They say and do things against the LORD.

They dare to disobey him to his very face.
9The look on their faces is a witness against them.
They show off their sin, just as the people of Sodom did.
They don’t even try to hide it.
How terrible it will be for them!
They have brought trouble on themselves.

10Tell those who do what is right that things will go well with them.
They will enjoy the results of the good things they’ve done.
11But how terrible it will be for those who do what is evil!
Trouble is about to fall on them.
They will be paid back for the evil things they’ve done.

12Those who are young treat my people badly.
Women rule over them.
My people, your leaders have taken you down the wrong path.
They have turned you away from the right path.

13The LORD takes his place in court.
He stands up to judge the people.
14He judges the elders and leaders of his people.
He says to them,
“My people are like a vineyard.
You have destroyed them.
The things you have taken from poor people are in your houses.
15What do you mean by crushing my people?
Why are you grinding the faces of the poor into the dirt?”
announces the Lord.
He is the LORD who rules over all.

16The LORD continues,
“The women in Zion are very proud.
They walk along with their noses in the air.
They tease men with their eyes.
They sway their hips as they walk along.
Little chains jingle on their ankles.
17So I will put sores on the heads of Zion’s women.

And I will remove the hair from their heads.”

18 At that time the Lord will take away the beautiful things they wear. He will take away their decorations, headbands and moon-shaped necklaces. 19 He’ll take away their earrings, bracelets and veils. 20 He’ll remove their headdresses, anklets and belts. He’ll take away their perfume bottles and charms. 21 He’ll remove the rings they wear on their fingers and in their noses. 22 He’ll take away their fine robes and their capes and coats. He’ll take away their purses 23 and mirrors. And he’ll take away their linen clothes, turbans and shawls.

24 Instead of smelling sweet,
the women will smell bad.
Instead of wearing belts,
they will wear ropes.
Instead of having beautiful hair,
they won’t have any hair at all.
Instead of wearing fine clothes,
they’ll wear rough clothes to show how sad they are.
Instead of being beautiful,
on their bodies they’ll have the marks of their owners.
25 Jerusalem, your men will be killed by swords.
Your soldiers will die in battle.
26 The city of Zion will be very sad.
Like a widow, she will lose everything.
She will sit on the ground and mourn.

Isaiah 4

[1]At that time seven women will grab hold of one man.
They'll say to him, "We will eat our own food.
We'll provide our own clothes.
Just let us become your wives.
Take away our shame!"

The Branch of the LORD

[2]At that time Israel's king will be beautiful and glorious. He will be called The Branch of the LORD. The fruit of the land will be the pride and glory of those who are still left alive in Israel. [3]Those who are left in Zion will be called holy. They will be recorded among those who are alive in Jerusalem. [4]The Lord will wash away the sin of the women in Zion. He will clean up the blood that was spilled there. He will judge those who spilled that blood. His burning anger will blaze out at them. [5]Then the LORD will create over Jerusalem a cloud of smoke by day. He will also create a glow of flaming fire at night. The cloud and fire will appear over all of Mount Zion. They will also appear over the people who gather together there. The LORD's glory will be like a tent over everything. [6]It will cover the people and give them shade from the hot sun all day long. It will be a safe place where they can hide from storms and rain.

Isaiah 5

The Song of the Vineyard

[1]I will sing a song for the LORD.
He is the one I love.
It's a song about his vineyard Israel.
The one I love had a vineyard.
It was on a hillside that had rich soil.
[2]He dug up the soil and removed its stones.
He planted the very best vines in it.
He built a lookout tower there.
He also cut out a winepress for it.
Then he kept looking for a crop of good grapes.
But the vineyard produced only bad fruit.

[3]So the LORD said, "People of Jerusalem and Judah, you be the judge between me and my vineyard.
[4]What more could I have done for my vineyard?
I did everything I could.
I kept looking for a crop of good grapes.
So why did it produce only bad ones?
[5]Now I will tell you what I am going to do to my vineyard.
I will take away its fence.
And the vineyard will be destroyed.
I will break down its wall.
And people will walk all over my vineyard.
[6]I will turn my vineyard into a dry and empty desert.
It will not be pruned or taken care of.
Thorns and bushes will grow there.
I will command the clouds not to rain on it."

[7]The vineyard of the LORD who rules over all is the nation of Israel.
The people of Judah are the vines he took delight in.

He kept looking for them to do what is fair.
But all he saw was blood being spilled.
He kept looking for them to do what is right.
But all he heard were cries of suffering.

The LORD Judges His Vineyard

8 How terrible it will be for you who get too many houses!
How terrible for you who get too many fields!
Finally there won't be any space left in the land.
Then you will live all alone.

9 I heard the LORD who rules over all announce a message. He said,

"You can be sure that the great houses will become empty.
The fine homes will be left with no one living in them.
10 A ten-acre vineyard will produce only six gallons of wine.
360 pounds of seeds will produce only 36 pounds of grain."

11 How terrible it will be for those who get up early in the morning to start drinking!
How terrible for those who stay up late at night until they are drunk with wine!
12 They have harps and lyres at their banquets.
They have tambourines, flutes and wine.
But they don't have any concern for the mighty acts of the LORD.
They don't have any respect for what his power has done.
13 So my people will be taken away as prisoners.
That's because they don't understand what the LORD has done.
Their nobles will die of hunger.
The rest of the people won't have any water to drink.
14 So Death opens its jaws to receive them.
Its mouth is open wide to swallow them up.
Their nobles and the rest of the people will go down into it.
They will go there together with all those who have wild parties.
15 So people will be brought low.
Everyone will be made humble.

Those who brag will be brought down.
16 But the LORD who rules over all will be honored because he judges fairly.
The holy God will prove that he is holy by doing what is right.
17 Then sheep will graze as if they were in their own grasslands.
Lambs will eat grass among the destroyed buildings where rich people used to live.

18 How terrible it will be for those who continue to sin and lie about it!
How terrible for those who keep on doing what is evil
as if they were tied to it!
19 How terrible for those who say,
"Let God hurry up and do what he says he will.
We want to see it happen.
Let us see the plan of the Holy One of Israel.
We want to know what it is."

20 How terrible it will be for those who say that what is evil is good!
How terrible for those who say that what is good is evil!
How terrible for those who say that darkness is light and light is darkness!
How terrible for those who say that what is bitter is sweet and what is sweet is bitter!

21 How terrible it will be for those who think they are wise!
How terrible for those who think they are really clever!

22 How terrible it will be for those who are heroes at drinking wine!
How terrible for those who are heroes at mixing drinks!
23 How terrible for those who take money to set guilty people free!

How terrible for those who don’t treat good people fairly!
24Flames of fire burn up straw.
Dry grass sinks down into those flames.
Evil people will be like plants whose roots rot away.
They will be like flowers that are blown away like dust.
That’s because they have said no to the law of the LORD who rules over all.
They have turned against the message of the Holy One of Israel.
25So the LORD is angry with his people.
He raises his hand against them and strikes them down.
The mountains shake.
The bodies of dead people lie in the streets like trash.

Even then, the LORD is still angry.
His hand is still raised against them.

26He lifts up a banner to gather the nations that are far away.
He whistles for them to come from the farthest places on earth.
Here they come.
They are moving very quickly.
27None of them grows tired.
None of them falls down.
None of them sleeps or even takes a nap.
All of them are ready for battle.
Every belt is pulled tight.
Not a single sandal strap is broken.
28The enemies’ arrows are sharp.
All their bows are ready.
The hooves of their horses are as hard as rock.
Their chariot wheels turn like a twister.
29The sound of their army is like the roar of lions.
It’s like the roar of young lions.
They growl as they capture what they were chasing.
They carry it off.
No one can take it away from them.

30 At that time the enemy army will roar over Israel.
It will sound like the roaring of the ocean.
If someone looks at the land of Israel,
there is only darkness and trouble.
The clouds will make even the sun become dark.

Isaiah 6

The Lord Appoints Isaiah to Speak for Him

1 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord. He was seated on his throne. His long robe filled the temple. He was highly honored. 2 Above him were seraphs. Each of them had six wings. With two wings they covered their faces. With two wings they covered their feet. And with two wings they were flying. 3 They were calling out to one another. They were saying,

"Holy, holy, holy is the LORD who rules over all.
The whole earth is full of his glory."

4 The sound of their voices caused the stone doorframe to shake. The temple was filled with smoke.
5 "How terrible it is for me!" I cried out. "I'm about to be destroyed! My mouth speaks sinful words. And I live among people who speak sinful words.
Now I have seen the King with my own eyes. He is the LORD who rules over all."
6 A seraph flew over to me. He was holding a hot coal. He had used tongs to take it from the altar. 7 He touched my mouth with the coal. He said, "This has touched your lips. Your guilt has been taken away. Your sin has been paid for."
8 Then I heard the voice of the Lord. He said, "Who will I send? Who will go for us?"
I said, "Here I am. Send me!"
9 So he said, "Go and speak to these people. Tell them,

" 'You will hear but never understand.
You will see but never know what you are seeing.'
10 Make the hearts of these people stubborn.
Plug up their ears.
Close their eyes.
Otherwise they might see with their eyes.
They might hear with their ears.
They might understand with their hearts.
And they might turn to me and be healed."

[11]Then I said, “Lord, how long will it be like that?”
He answered,

“It will last until the cities of Israel are destroyed.
It will last until no one is living in them.
It will last until the houses are deserted.
The fields will be completely destroyed.
[12]It will last until the LORD has sent everyone far away.
The land will be totally deserted.
[13]Suppose only a tenth of the people remain there.
Even then the land will be completely destroyed again.
But when oak trees and terebinth trees are cut down, stumps are left.
And my holy people will be like stumps that begin to grow again.”

Isaiah 7

The Sign of Immanuel

[1]Ahaz was king of Judah. Rezin was king of Aram. And Pekah was king of Israel. Rezin and Pekah marched up to fight against Jerusalem. But they couldn't overpower it. Ahaz was the son of Jotham and the grandson of Uzziah. Pekah was the son of Remaliah.

[2]The royal family of Ahaz was told, "The army of Aram has joined forces with Ephraim's army." So the hearts of Ahaz and his people trembled with fear. They shook just as trees in the forest shake when the wind blows through them.

[3]The LORD said to Isaiah, "Go out and see Ahaz. Take your son Shear-Jashub with you. Meet Ahaz at the end of the channel that brings water from the Upper Pool. It is on the road to the Washerman's Field. [4]Tell Ahaz, 'Be careful. Stay calm. Do not be afraid. Do not lose hope because of the great anger of Rezin, Aram and the son of Remaliah. After all, they are nothing but two pieces of smoking firewood. [5]Aram, Ephraim and Remaliah's son have planned to destroy you. They said, [6]"Let's march into Judah and attack it. Let's tear everything down. Then we can share the land among ourselves. And we can make Tabeel's son king over it." [7]But I am the LORD and King. I say,

" ' "That will not happen.
It will not take place.
[8]The capital of Aram is Damascus.
And the ruler of Damascus is only Rezin.
Do not worry about the people of Ephraim.
They will be too crushed to be considered a people.
That will happen before 65 years are over.
[9]The capital of Ephraim is Samaria.
And the ruler of Samaria is only Remaliah's son.
If you do not stand firm in your faith,
you will not stand at all." ' "

[10]The LORD spoke to Ahaz through Isaiah again. He said, [11]"I am the LORD your God. Ask me to give you a sign. It can be anything in the deepest grave or in the highest heaven."

[12]But Ahaz said, "I won't ask. I won't test the LORD."

[13]Then Isaiah said, “Listen, you members of the royal family of David! Isn’t it enough for you to test the patience of human beings? Are you also going to test the patience of my God? [14]The Lord himself will give you a sign. The virgin is going to have a baby. She will give birth to a son. And he will be called Immanuel. [15]He will still be very young when he can decide between right and wrong. [16]Even before then, the lands of the two kings you fear will be ruined. [17]The LORD will also bring the king of Assyria against you. And he will bring him against your people and the whole royal family. That will be a time of trouble. It will be unlike any since the people of Ephraim broke away from Judah.”

The LORD Uses Assyria to Judge Judah

[18]At that time the LORD will whistle for the Egyptians. They will come like flies from the Nile River in Egypt. He will also whistle for the Assyrians. They will come from their country like bees. [19]All of them will come and camp in the deep valleys. They will camp in caves in the rocks. And they’ll camp near bushes and water holes. [20]At that time the Lord will use the Assyrians to punish you. Ahaz had hired them earlier from east of the Euphrates River. Now their king will be like a razor in the Lord’s hand. He will shave the hair from your head and private parts. He will also shave off your beards. [21]At that time a person may only be able to keep alive one young cow and two goats. [22]But they will give plenty of milk to live on. In fact, everyone left in the land will only have milk curds and honey to eat. [23]The land used to have vineyards with 1,000 vines worth 25 pounds of silver. But soon the whole land will be covered with thorns and bushes. [24]Hunters will go there with bows and arrows. That’s because it will be covered with bushes and thorns. [25]All the hills used to be plowed with hoes. But you won’t go there anymore. That’s because you will be afraid of the thorns and bushes. Cattle will be turned loose on those hills. Sheep will also run there.

Isaiah 8

Isaiah and His Children Are Signs

[1]The LORD said to me, “Get a large sheet of paper. Write ‘Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz’ on it with a pen.” [2]So I sent for Zechariah and Uriah the priest. Zechariah is the son of Jeberekiah. Zechariah and Uriah were witnesses for me whom I could trust. [3]Then I went and slept with my wife, who was a prophet. She became pregnant and had a baby boy. The LORD said to me, “Name him Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz. [4]The king of Assyria will carry off the wealth of Damascus. He will also carry away the goods that were taken from Samaria. That will happen before the boy knows how to say ‘My father’ or ‘My mother.’ ”

[5]The LORD continued,

[6]“I am like the gently flowing stream of Siloam.
But the people of Judah have turned their backs on me.
They are filled with joy because of the fall of Rezin and the son of Remaliah.
[7]So I am about to bring against these people
the king of Assyria and his whole army.
The Assyrians will be like the mighty Euphrates River
when it is flooding.
They will run over everything in their path.
[8]They will sweep on into Judah like a flood.
They will pass through Judah and reach all the way to Jerusalem.
Immanuel, they will attack your land like an eagle.
Their wings will spread out and cover it.”

[9]Sound the battle cry, you nations!
But you will be torn apart.
Listen, all you lands far away!
Prepare for battle! But you will be torn apart.
Prepare for battle! But you will be torn apart.
[10]Make your battle plans! But you won’t succeed.
Give your orders! But they won’t be carried out.
That’s because God is with us.

[11]The LORD speaks to me while his powerful hand is on me. He is warning me not to live the way these people live. He says,

[12]“People of Judah, do not agree with those who say
Isaiah is guilty of treason.
Do not fear what they fear.
Do not be afraid.
[13]The LORD rules over all.
So you must think about him as holy.
You must have respect for him.
You must fear him.
[14]Then the LORD will be a holy place of safety for you.
But that’s not true for many people in Israel and Judah.
He will be a stone that causes them to trip.
He will be a rock that makes them fall.
And for the people of Jerusalem
he will be a trap and a snare.
[15]Many of them will trip.
They will fall and be broken.
They will be trapped and captured.”

[16]Tie up and seal this warning that the LORD said to you through me.
Preserve among my followers what he taught you through me.
[17]I will wait for the LORD.
He is turning his face away from Jacob’s people.
I will put my trust in him.

[18]Here I am. Here are the children the LORD has given me. We are signs and reminders to Israel from the LORD who rules over all. He lives on Mount Zion.

The Darkness Turns to Light

[19]There are people who get messages from those who have died. But these people only whisper words that are barely heard. Suppose someone tells you to ask for advice from these people. Shouldn’t you ask for advice from your God instead? Why should you get advice from dead people to help those who are alive? [20]Follow what the LORD taught you and said to you through me. People who don’t speak in keeping with these words will have no hope in the morning.

[21]They will suffer and be hungry. They’ll wander through the land. When they are very hungry, they will become angry. They’ll look up toward heaven. They’ll ask for bad things to happen to their king and their God. [22]Then they will look at the earth. They’ll see nothing but suffering and darkness. They’ll see terrible sadness. They’ll be driven into total darkness.

Isaiah 9

[1]But there won't be any more sadness for those who were suffering. In the past the LORD brought shame on the land of Zebulun. He also brought shame on the land of Naphtali. But in days to come he will honor Galilee, where people from other nations live. He will honor the land along the Mediterranean Sea. And he will honor the territory east of the Jordan River.

[2]The people who are now living in darkness will see a great light.
They are now living in a very dark land.
But a light will shine on them.
[3]LORD, you will make our nation larger.
You will increase their joy.
They will show you how glad they are.
They will be as glad as people are at harvest time.
They will be as glad as warriors are when they share the things they've taken after a battle.
[4]You set Israel free from Midian long ago.
In the same way, you will break
the heavy yoke that weighs Israel down.
You will break the wooden beams that are on their shoulders.
You will break the rods of those who strike them down.
[5]Every fighting man's boot that he wore in battle will be burned up.
So will every piece of clothing covered with blood.
All of them will be thrown into the fire.
[6]A child will be born to us.
A son will be given to us.
He will rule over us.
And he will be called Wonderful Adviser and Mighty God.
He will also be called Father Who Lives Forever and Prince Who Brings Peace.
[7]There will be no limit to how great his authority is.
The peace he brings will never end.
He will rule on David's throne and over his kingdom.

He will make the kingdom strong and secure.
His rule will be based on what is fair and right.
It will last forever.
The LORD's great love will make sure that happens.
He rules over all.

The LORD Is Angry With Israel

[8]The Lord has sent a message against Jacob's people.
He will punish Israel.
[9]All the people will know about it.
Ephraim's people and those who live in Samaria will know about it.
Their hearts are very proud.
They say,
[10]"The brick buildings have fallen down.
But we will rebuild them with blocks of stone.
The fig trees have been chopped down.
But we'll plant cedar trees in place of them."
[11]In spite of that, the LORD has made Rezin's enemies stronger.
He has stirred up Assyria to fight against Israel.
[12]Arameans from the east have opened their mouths and swallowed up Israel.
So have Philistines from the west.

Even then, the LORD is still angry.
His hand is still raised against them.

[13]But his people have not returned to the God who struck them down.
They haven't turned for help to the LORD who rules over all.
[14]So he will cut off from Israel heads and tails alike.
In a single day he will cut off palm branches and tall grass alike.
The palm branches are the people who rule over others.
The tall grass is the people who bow down to them.
[15]The elders and important leaders are the heads.

The prophets who teach lies are the tails.
16 Those who guide the people of Israel are leading them down the wrong path.
So those who follow them aren’t on the right road.
17 The Lord will not be pleased with the young men.
He won’t take pity on widows and on children whose fathers have died.
All of them are ungodly and evil.
They say foolish things with their mouths.

Even then, the LORD is still angry.
His hand is still raised against them.

18 What is evil burns like a fire.
It burns up bushes and thorns.
It sets the forest on fire.
It sends up a huge column of smoke.
19 The LORD rules over all.
When he gets angry, he will burn up the land.
The people will burn in the fire.
They will not spare one another.
20 People will eat up everything they can find on their right.
But they’ll still be hungry.
They will eat everything they can find on their left.
But they won’t be satisfied.
So they will eat the dead bodies of their children.
21 That’s what Manasseh’s people will do to Ephraim.
And that’s what Ephraim’s people will do to Manasseh.
Together they will turn against Judah.

Even then, the LORD is still angry.
His hand is still raised against them.

Isaiah 10

[1]How terrible it will be for you who make laws that aren't fair!
How terrible for you
who write laws that make life hard for others!
[2]You take away the rights of poor people.
You hold back what is fair from my people who are suffering.
You take for yourselves what belongs to widows.
You rob children whose fathers have died.
[3]What will you do on the day when the LORD punishes you?
On that day trouble will come from far away.
Who will you run to for help?
Who will you trust your riches with?
[4]All you can do is bow down in fear among the prisoners.
All you can do is fall among those who have died in battle.

Even then, the LORD is still angry.
His hand is still raised against them.

The LORD Will Judge Assyria

[5]The LORD says, "How terrible it will be for the people of Assyria!
They are the war club that carries out my anger.
[6]I will send them against the ungodly nation of Judah.
I will order them to fight against my own people.
My people make me angry.
I will order Assyria to take their goods and carry them away.
I will order Assyria to walk on my people as if they were walking on mud.
[7]But that is not what the king of Assyria plans.
It is not what he has in mind.
His purpose is to destroy many nations.
His purpose is to put an end to them.
[8]'Aren't all my commanders kings?' he says.

[9]‘I took over Kalno just as I took Carchemish.
I took over Hamath just as I did Arpad.
I took Samaria just as I did Damascus.
[10]My powerful hand grabbed hold of kingdoms whose people worship statues of gods.
They had more gods than Jerusalem and Samaria did.
[11]I took over Samaria and its statues of gods.
In the same way, I will take Jerusalem and its gods.’ ”

[12]The Lord will finish everything he has planned to do against Mount Zion and Jerusalem. Then he’ll say, “Now I will punish the king of Assyria. I will punish him because his heart and his eyes are so proud. [13]The king of Assyria says,

“ ‘By my power
I have taken over all these nations.
I am very wise.
I have great understanding.
I have wiped out the borders between nations.
I’ve taken their treasures.
Like a great hero I’ve brought their kings under my control.
[14]I’ve taken the wealth of the nations.
It was as easy as reaching into a bird’s nest.
I’ve gathered the riches of all these countries.
It was as easy as gathering eggs that have been left in a nest.
Not a single baby bird flapped its wings.
Not one of them opened its mouth to chirp.’ ”

[15]Does an ax claim to be more important than the person who swings it?
Does a saw brag that it is better than the one who uses it?
That would be like a stick swinging the person who picks it up!
It would be like a war club waving the one who carries it!
[16]So the LORD who rules over all will send a sickness.

The Lord will send it on the king of Assyria’s strong fighting men.
It will make them weaker and weaker.
The army he was so proud of will be completely destroyed.
It will be as if it had been burned up in a fire.
17The LORD is the Light of Israel.
He will become a fire.
Israel’s Holy One will become a flame.
In a single day he will burn up all Assyria’s bushes.
He will destroy all their thorns.
18He will completely destroy the beauty of their forests and rich farm lands.
The Assyrian army will be like a sick person who becomes weaker and weaker.
19It will be like the trees of their forests.
So few of them will be left standing that even a child could count them.

The Israelites Who Are Left Alive

20In days to come, some people will still be left alive in Israel.
They will be from Jacob’s family line.
But they won’t depend any longer on the nation that struck them down.
Instead, they will truly depend on the LORD.
He is the Holy One of Israel.
21The people of Jacob who are still alive will return to the Mighty God.
22Israel, your people might be as many as the grains of sand by the sea.
But only a few of them will return.
The LORD has handed down a death sentence.
He will destroy his people.
What he does is right.
23The LORD who rules over all will carry out his sentence.
The Lord will destroy the whole land.

24The LORD rules over all. The Lord says,

“My people who live in Zion,
do not be afraid of the Assyrian army.
They beat you with rods.
They lift up war clubs against you,
just as the Egyptians did.
25 Very soon I will not be angry with you anymore.
I will turn my anger against the Assyrians.
I will destroy them.”

26 The LORD who rules over all will beat them with a whip.
He will strike them down as he struck down Midian at the rock of Oreb.
And he will stretch out his walking stick over the waters.
That’s what he did in Egypt.
27 People of Zion, in days to come he will help you.
He will lift the heavy load of the Assyrians from your shoulders.
He will remove their yokes from your necks.
Their yokes will be broken
because you have become so strong.

28 The Assyrian army has entered the town of Aiath.
They have passed through Migron.
They have stored up supplies at Mikmash.
29 They have marched through the pass there. They said,
“Let’s camp for the night at Geba.”
The people of Ramah tremble with fear.
Those who live in Gibeah of Saul run away.
30 Town of Gallim, cry out!
Laishah, listen!
Poor Anathoth!
31 The people of Madmenah are running away.
Those who live in Gebim are hiding.
32 Today the Assyrians have stopped at Nob.
They are shaking their fists
at Mount Zion in the city of Jerusalem.

33 The Assyrian soldiers are like trees in a forest.
The LORD who rules over all will chop them down.

The Lord will cut off their branches with his great power.
He will chop the tall trees down.
He will cut down even the highest ones.
[34]The Mighty One will chop down the forest with his ax.
He will cut down the cedar trees in Lebanon.

Isaiah 11

A Branch Will Come From Jesse's Family Line

[1]Jesse's family is like a tree that has been cut down.
A new little tree will grow from its stump.
From its roots a Branch will grow and produce fruit.
[2]The Spirit of the LORD will rest on that Branch.
The Spirit will help him to be wise and understanding.
The Spirit will help him make wise plans and carry them out.
The Spirit will help him know the LORD and have respect for him.
[3]The Branch will take delight in respecting the LORD.

He will not judge things only by the way they look.
He won't make decisions based simply on what people say.
[4]He will always do what is right
when he judges those who are in need.
He'll be completely fair
when he makes decisions about poor people.
When he commands that people be punished,
it will happen.
When he orders that evil people be put to death,
it will take place.
[5]He will put on godliness as if it were his belt.
He'll wear faithfulness around his waist.

[6]Wolves will live with lambs.
Leopards will lie down with goats.
Calves and lions will eat together.
And little children will lead them around.
[7]Cows will eat with bears.
Their little ones will lie down together.
And lions will eat straw like oxen.
[8]A baby will play near a hole where cobras live.
A young child will put its hand into a nest

where poisonous snakes live.
[9]None of those animals will harm or destroy anything or anyone on my holy mountain of Zion.
The oceans are full of water.
In the same way, the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the LORD.

[10]At that time, here is what the man who is called the Root of Jesse will do. He will be like a banner that brings nations together. They will come to him. And the place where he rules will be glorious. [11]At that time the Lord will reach out his hand. He will gather his people a second time. He will bring back those who are left alive. He'll bring them back from Assyria, Lower Egypt, Upper Egypt and Cush. He'll bring them from Elam, Babylon and Hamath. He will also bring them from the islands of the Mediterranean Sea.

[12]He will lift up a banner.
It will show the nations that he is gathering the people of Israel.
He'll bring back those who had been taken away as prisoners.
He'll gather together the scattered people of Judah.
He'll bring them back from all four directions.
[13]Ephraim's people won't be jealous anymore.
Judah's attackers will be destroyed.
Ephraim won't be jealous of Judah.
And Judah won't attack Ephraim.
[14]Together they will rush down the slopes of Philistia to the west.
They'll take what belongs to the people of the east.
They'll take over Edom and Moab.
The people of Ammon will be under their control.
[15]The LORD will dry up the Red Sea in Egypt.
By his power he'll send a burning wind to sweep over the Euphrates River.
He will break it up into many streams.
Then people will be able to go across it wearing sandals.
[16]There was a road the people of Israel used when they came up from Egypt.
In the same way, there will be a wide road coming out of Assyria.
It will be used by the LORD's people who are left alive there.

Isaiah 12

Two Songs of Praise

[1]In days to come, the people of Israel will sing,

"LORD, we will praise you.
You were angry with us.
But now your anger has turned away from us.
And you have brought us comfort.
[2]God, you are the one who saves us.
We will trust in you.
Then we won't be afraid.
LORD, you are the one who gives us strength.
You are the one who keeps us safe.
LORD, you have saved us."
[3]People of Israel, he will save you.
That will bring you joy like water brought up from wells.

[4]In days to come, the people of Israel will sing,

"Give praise to the LORD. Make his name known.
Tell the nations what he has done.
Announce how honored he is.
[5]Sing to the LORD. He has done glorious things.
Let it be known all over the world.
[6]People of Zion, give a loud shout!
Sing for joy!
The Holy One of Israel is among you.
And he is great."

Isaiah 13

A Prophecy Against Babylon

[1]Here is the prophecy against Babylon that Isaiah, the son of Amoz, saw.

[2]Lift up a banner on the top of a bare hill.
Shout to the enemy soldiers.
Wave for them to enter the gates that are used by the nobles of Babylon.
[3]The LORD has commanded the soldiers he prepared for battle.
He has sent for them to carry out his anger against Babylon.
They will be happy when he wins the battle for them.

[4]Listen! I hear a noise in the mountains.
It sounds like a huge crowd.
Listen! I hear a loud noise among the kingdoms.
It sounds like nations gathering together.
The LORD who rules over all is bringing an army together for war.
[5]They come from lands far away.
They come from the farthest places on earth.
The LORD and those weapons of his anger are coming to destroy the whole country of Babylon.

[6]Cry out! The day of the LORD is near.
The Mighty One is coming to destroy the Babylonians.
[7]Their hands won't be able to help them.
Everyone's heart will melt away in fear.
[8]The people will be filled with terror.
Pain and suffering will grab hold of them.
They will groan with pain like a woman having a baby.
They'll look at one another in terror.
Their faces will burn with shame.

[9]The day of the LORD is coming.
It will be a terrible day.

The LORD’s burning anger will blaze out.
He will make the land dry and empty.
He’ll destroy the sinners in it.
10 All the stars in the sky will stop giving their light.
The sun will be darkened as soon as it rises.
The moon will not shine.
11 The LORD will punish the world because it is so evil.
He will punish evil people for their sins.
He’ll put an end to the bragging of those who are proud.
He’ll bring down the pride of those who don’t show any pity.
12 He’ll make people harder to find than pure gold.
They will be harder to find than gold from Ophir.
13 He will make the heavens tremble.
He’ll shake the earth out of its place.
The LORD who rules over all will show how angry he is.
At that time his burning anger will blaze out.

14 Outsiders who live in Babylon will scatter like antelope that are chased by a hunter.
They are like sheep that don’t have a shepherd.
All of them will return to their own people.
They will run back to their own countries.
15 Those who are captured will have spears stuck through them.
Those who are caught will be killed by swords.
16 Their babies will be smashed to pieces right in front of their eyes.
Their houses will be robbed.
Their wives will be raped.

17 The LORD will stir up the Medes to attack the Babylonians.
They aren’t interested in getting silver.
They don’t want gold.
18 Instead, they will use their bows and arrows to strike down the young men.
They won’t even show any mercy to babies.
They won’t take pity on children.
19 The city of Babylon is the jewel of kingdoms.

It is the pride and glory of the Babylonians.
But God will destroy it just as he did Sodom and Gomorrah.
[20]No one will ever live in Babylon again.
No one will live there for all time to come.
Those who wander in the desert will never set up their tents there.
Shepherds will never rest their flocks there.
[21]But desert creatures will lie down there.
Wild dogs will fill its houses.
Owls will live there.
Wild goats will jump around in it.
[22]Hyenas will live in its forts.
Wild dogs will live in its beautiful palaces.
The time for Babylon to be punished is near.
Its days are numbered.

Isaiah 14

[1]The LORD will show tender love toward Jacob’s people.
Once again he will choose Israel.
He’ll give them homes in their own land.
Outsiders will join them.
They and the people of Jacob will become one people.
[2]Nations will help Israel return to their own land.
Israel will possess other nations.
They will serve Israel as male and female servants in the LORD’s land.
The Israelites will make prisoners of those who had held them as prisoners.
Israel will rule over those who had crushed them.

[3]The LORD will put an end to Israel’s suffering and trouble. They will no longer be forced to do hard labor. At that time, [4]they will make fun of the king of Babylon. They will say,

“See how the one who crushed others has fallen!
See how his anger has come to an end!
[5]The LORD has taken away the authority of evil people.
He has broken the power of rulers.
[6]When they became angry, they struck down nations.
Their blows never stopped.
In their anger they brought nations under their control.
They attacked them again and again.
[7]All the lands now enjoy peace and rest.
They break out into singing.
[8]Even the juniper trees show how happy they are.
The cedar trees of Lebanon celebrate too.
They say, ‘Babylon, you have fallen.
Now no one comes and cuts us down.’

[9]“King of Babylon, many people in the place of the dead are really excited.

They're excited about meeting you when you go down there.
The spirits of the dead get up to welcome you.
At one time all of them were leaders in the world.
They were kings over the nations.
They get up from their thrones.
10 All of them call out to you.
They say,
'You have become weak, just as we are.
You have become like us.'
11 Your grand show of power has been brought down to the grave.
The noise of your harps has come down here along with your power.
Maggots are spread out under you.
Worms cover you.

12 "King of Babylon, you thought you were the bright morning star.
But now you have fallen from heaven!
You once brought down nations.
But now you have been thrown down to the earth!
13 You said in your heart,
'I will go up to the heavens.
I'll raise my throne
above the stars of God.
I'll sit as king on the mountain where the gods meet.
I'll set up my throne on the highest slopes of Mount Zaphon.
14 I will rise above the tops of the clouds.
I'll make myself like the Most High God.'
15 But now you have been brought down to the place of the dead.
You have been thrown into the deepest part of the pit.

16 "Those who see you stare at you.
They think about what has happened to you.
They say to themselves,
'Is this the man who shook the earth?
Is he the one who made kingdoms tremble with fear?
17 Did he turn the world into a desert?
Did he destroy its cities?
Did he refuse to let his prisoners go home?'

18 “All the kings of the nations are buried with honor.
Each of them lies in his own tomb.
19 But you have been thrown out of your tomb.
You are like a branch that is cut off and thrown away.
You are covered with the bodies of those who have been killed by swords.
You have been tossed into a stony pit along with them.
You are like a dead body that people have walked on.
20 You won’t be buried like other kings.
That’s because you have destroyed your land.
You have killed your people.

“Let the children of that evil man be killed.
Let none of them be left to carry on the family name.
21 So prepare a place to kill his children.
Kill them because of the sins of the rulers who lived before them.
They must not rise to power.
They must not rule over the world.
They must not cover the earth with their cities.”

22 “I will rise up against them,”
announces the LORD who rules over all.
“I will destroy Babylon.
It will not be remembered anymore.
No one will be left alive there.
I will destroy its people and their children after them,”
announces the LORD.
23 “I will turn it into a place where nothing but owls can live.
I will turn it into a swamp.
I will sweep through it like a broom and destroy everything,”
announces the LORD who rules over all.

24 The LORD who rules over all has made a promise. He has said,

“You can be sure that what I have planned will happen.
What I have decided will take place.
25 I will crush the Assyrians in my land.

On my mountains I will walk all over them.
The yokes they put on my people will be removed.
The heavy load they put on their shoulders will be taken away.”

[26]That’s how the LORD carries out his plan all over the world.
That’s how he reaches out his powerful hand to punish all the nations.
[27]The LORD who rules over all has planned it.
Who can stop him?
He has reached out his powerful hand.
Who can keep him from using it?

A Prophecy Against the Philistines

[28]This prophecy came to me from the LORD in the year King Ahaz died. The LORD said, [29]“The rod of Assyria has struck all of you Philistines.

But do not be glad that it is broken.
That rod is like a snake that will produce an even more poisonous snake.
It will produce a darting, poisonous serpent.
[30]Even the poorest people in Israel will have plenty to eat.
Those who are in need will lie down in safety.
But I will destroy your families.
They will die of hunger.
I will kill any of them who are still left alive.

[31]“Cities of Philistia, cry out for help! Scream in pain!
All you Philistines, melt away in fear!
An army is coming from the north in a cloud of dust.
No one in its ranks is falling behind.
[32]What answer should be given to the messengers from that nation?
Tell them, ‘The LORD has made Zion secure.
His suffering people will find safety there.’ ”

Isaiah 15

A Prophecy Against Moab

[1]Here is a prophecy against Moab that the LORD gave me.

The city of Ar in Moab is destroyed.
It happened in a single night.
Kir in Moab is also destroyed.
It happened in a single night.
[2]The people of Dibon go up to their temple to worship.
They go to their high places to weep.
The people of Moab cry over the cities of Nebo and Medeba.
All their heads are shaved.
All their beards have been cut off.
[3]In the streets they wear the rough clothing people wear when they're sad.
On their roofs and in the market places
all of them are crying.
They fall down flat with their faces toward the ground.
And they weep.
[4]The people of Heshbon and Elealeh cry out.
Their voices are heard all the way to Jahaz.
So the fighting men of Moab cry out.
Their hearts are weak.

[5]My heart cries out over Moab.
Some who run away get as far as Zoar.
Others run all the way to Eglath Shelishiyah.
Others go up the hill to Luhith.
They are weeping as they go.
Still others travel the road to Horonaim.
They sing a song of sadness because their town is being destroyed.
[6]The waters at Nimrim are dried up.
And so is the grass.
The plants have died.
Nothing green is left.

[7]The people are trying to escape through the Valley of the Poplar Trees.
They are carrying with them the wealth
they have collected and stored up.
[8]Their loud cries echo along the border of Moab.
They reach as far as Eglaim.
Their songs of sadness reach all the way to Beer Elim.
[9]The waters of the city of Dimon are full of blood.
But the LORD will bring even more trouble on Dimon.
He will bring lions against those who run away from Moab.
They will also attack those who remain in the land.

Isaiah 16

[1]People of Moab, send lambs as a gift to the ruler of Judah.
Send them from Sela.
Send them across the desert.
Send them to Mount Zion in the city of Jerusalem.
[2]The women of Moab are at the places where people go across the Arnon River.
They are like birds that flap their wings
when they are pushed from their nest.

[3]The Moabites say to the rulers of Judah,
“Make up your mind. Make a decision.
Cover us with your shadow.
Make it like night even at noon.
Hide those of us who are running away.
Don’t turn them over to their enemies.
[4]Let those who have run away from Moab stay with you.
Keep them safe from those who are trying to destroy them.”

Those who crush others will be destroyed.
The killing will stop.
The attackers will disappear from the earth.
[5]A man from the royal house of David will sit on Judah’s throne.
He will rule with faithful love.
When he judges he will do what is fair.
He will be quick to do what is right.

[6]We have heard all about Moab’s pride.
We have heard how very proud they are.
They think they are so much better than others.
They brag about themselves.
But all their bragging is nothing but empty words.

[7]So the people of Moab cry out.
All of them cry over their country.

Sing a song of sadness.
Weep that you can no longer enjoy the raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth.
[8]The fields of Heshbon dry up.
So do the vines of Sibmah.
The rulers of the nations have walked all over its finest vines.
Those vines once reached as far as Jazer.
They spread out toward the desert.
Their new growth went all the way to the Dead Sea.
[9]Jazer weeps for the vines of Sibmah.
And so do I.
Heshbon and Elealeh,
I soak you with my tears!
There isn't any ripe fruit for people to shout about.
There isn't any harvest to make them happy.
[10]Joy and gladness are taken away from the orchards.
No one sings or shouts in the vineyards.
No one stomps on grapes at the winepresses.
That's because the LORD has put an end to the shouting.
[11]My heart mourns over Moab like a song of sadness played on a harp.
Deep down inside me I mourn over Kir Hareseth.
[12]Moab's people go to their high place to pray.
But all they do is wear themselves out.
Their god Chemosh can't help them at all.

[13]That's the message the LORD has already spoken against Moab. [14]But now he says, "In exactly three years, people will look down on Moab's glory. Now Moab has many people. But by that time only a few of them will be left alive. And even they will be weak."

Isaiah 17

Prophecies Against Damascus and Israel

[1]Here is a prophecy against Damascus that the LORD gave me. He said,

"Damascus will not be a city anymore.
Instead, all its buildings will be knocked down.
[2]The cities of Aroer will be deserted.
They will be left to the flocks that lie down there.
No one will make them afraid.
[3]Ephraim's people will no longer have cities with high walls around them.
Royal power will disappear from Damascus.
Those who are left alive in Aram will be like the glory of the people of Israel,"
announces the LORD who rules over all.

[4]"In days to come, the glory of Jacob's people will fade.
Their strength will get weaker and weaker.
[5]It will be as when workers cut and gather grain in the Valley of Rephaim.
They gather up stalks in their arms.
Only a few heads of grain are left.
[6]In the same way, only a few people will be left alive.
It will be as when workers knock olives off the trees.
Only two or three olives are left on the highest branches.
Four or five at most are left on the limbs that produce fruit," announces the LORD, the God of Israel.

[7]In days to come, people will look to their Maker for help.
They will turn their eyes to the Holy One of Israel.
[8]They won't trust in the altars
they made with their own hands.
They won't pay any attention to the poles they used to worship the female god named Asherah.
And they won't depend on the incense altars

they made with their own fingers.

9 At that time the strong cities in Israel will be deserted. They will be as they were when the Israelites drove the Canaanites away. They will be like places that are taken over by bushes and weeds. The whole land will become dry and empty.

10 Israel, you have forgotten God, who saves you.
You have not remembered the Rock, who keeps you safe.
You might set out the finest plants.
You might plant vines from other lands.
11 The plants might start to grow on the day you set them out.
The vines might begin to bud on the morning you plant them.
But even if they do, there won't be any harvest.
Instead, there will be sickness and pain that won't go away.

12 How terrible it will be for the nations that attack us!
The noise of their armies is like the sound of the ocean.
How terrible it will be for the nations who fight against us!
They are as loud as huge waves crashing on the shore.
13 They sound like the roar of rushing waters.
But when the LORD speaks out against them, they run far away.
The wind blows them away like straw on the hills.
A strong wind drives them along like tumbleweeds.
14 In the evening, the nations terrify us.
But before morning comes, they are gone.
That's what happens to those who steal our goods.
That's what happens to those who take what belongs to us.

Isaiah 18

A Prophecy Against Cush

[1]How terrible it will be for the land whose armies are like large numbers of flying insects!
That land is along the rivers of Cush.
[2]Its people send messengers on the Nile River.
They travel over the water in papyrus boats.

Messengers, hurry back home!
Go back to your people,
who are tall and have smooth skin.
Everyone is afraid of them.
They are warriors whose language is different from ours.
Their land is divided up by rivers.

[3]Pay attention, all you people of the world!
Listen, all you who live on earth!
Banners will be lifted up on the mountains.
And you will see them.
Trumpets will be blown.
And you will hear them.
[4]The LORD says to me,
"I will look down from heaven, where I live.
I will be as quiet as summer heat in the sunshine.
I will be as quiet as a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest."
[5]A farmer cuts off new growth with pruning knives.
He cuts down spreading branches and takes them away.
He does it before the grapes are harvested.
That's when the blooms are gone and the grapes are ripe.
In the same way, the LORD will cut off the nations that are gathered against his people.
[6]Their dead bodies will be left for the birds of the mountains to eat.
They will be left for the wild animals.
The birds will eat the dead bodies all summer long.
The wild animals will eat them all through the winter.

[7]At that time gifts will be brought to the LORD who rules over all.

The people who are tall and have smooth skin will bring them.
Everyone is afraid of those people.
They are warriors whose language is different from ours.
Their land is divided up by rivers.

They will bring their gifts to Mount Zion. That’s where the LORD who rules over all has put his Name.

Isaiah 19

A Prophecy Against Egypt

[1]Here is a prophecy against Egypt that the LORD gave me.

The LORD is coming to Egypt.
He's riding on a cloud that moves very fast.
The statues of the gods in Egypt tremble with fear because of him.
The hearts of the people there melt with fear.

[2]The LORD says, "I will stir up one Egyptian against another.
Relatives will fight against relatives.
Neighbors will fight against one another.
Cities will fight against cities.
Kingdoms will fight against one another.
[3]The people of Egypt will lose hope.
I will keep them from doing what they plan to do.
They will ask their gods for advice.
They will turn to the spirits of dead people for help.
They will go to people who get messages from those who have died.
They will ask for advice from people who talk to the spirits of the dead.
[4]I will hand the Egyptians over to a mean and unkind master.
A powerful king will rule over them," announces the LORD.
He is the LORD who rules over all.

[5]The waters of the Nile River will dry up.
The bottom of it will be cracked and dry.
[6]Its canals will stink.
And the streams of Egypt will get smaller and smaller until they dry up.
The tall grass that grows along the river will dry up.
[7]So will the plants along the banks of the Nile.
Even the planted fields along the Nile will dry up.
Everything that grows there will blow away and disappear.

[8]The fishermen will moan.
All those who drop hooks into the Nile will weep.
Those who throw their nets on the water will become very sad.
[9]Those who make clothes out of flax will lose hope.
So will those who weave fine linen.
[10]Those who work with cloth will be unhappy.
And all those who work for money will be sick at heart.

[11]The officials of the city of Zoan are very foolish.
Pharaoh's wise men give advice that doesn't make any sense.
How can they dare to say to Pharaoh,
"We're among the wise men"?
How can they say to him,
"We're like the advisers to the kings of long ago"?

[12]Pharaoh, where are your wise men now?
Let them tell you what the LORD who rules over all has planned against Egypt.
[13]The officials of Zoan have become foolish.
The leaders of Memphis have been lied to.
The most important leaders in Egypt have led its people astray.
[14]The LORD has given them
a spirit that makes them feel dizzy.
They make Egypt unsteady in everything it does.
Egypt is like a person who drinks too much.
He throws up and then walks around in the mess he's made.
[15]No one in Egypt can do anything to help them.
Its elders and important leaders can't help them.
Its prophets and priests can't do anything.
Those who rule over others can't help.
And those who bow down to them can't help either.

[16]In days to come, the people of Egypt will become weak. The LORD who rules over all will raise his hand against them. Then they will tremble with fear. [17]The people of Judah will bring terror to the Egyptians. Everyone in Egypt who hears the name of Judah will be terrified. That's because of what the LORD who rules over all is planning to do to them.

[18]At that time the people of five cities in Egypt will worship the LORD. He is the LORD who rules over all. They will use the Hebrew language when they worship him. They will promise to be faithful to him. One of those cities will be called the City of the Sun.

[19]At that time there will be an altar to the LORD in the middle of Egypt. There will be a monument to him at its border. [20]They will remind people that the LORD who rules over all is worshiped in Egypt. The people there will cry out to the LORD. They will cry out because of those who treat them badly. He will send someone to stand up for them and save them. And he will set them free. [21]So the LORD will make himself known to the people of Egypt. At that time they will recognize that he is the LORD. They will worship him by bringing sacrifices and grain offerings to him. They will make promises to the LORD. And they will keep them. [22]The LORD will strike Egypt with a plague. But then he will heal them. They will turn to the LORD. And he will answer their prayers and heal them.

[23]At that time there will be a wide road from Egypt to Assyria. The people of Assyria will go to Egypt. And the people of Egypt will go to Assyria. The people of Egypt and Assyria will worship the LORD together. [24]At that time Egypt, Assyria and Israel will be a blessing to the whole earth. [25]The LORD who rules over all will bless those three nations. He will say, "Let the Egyptians be blessed. They are my people. Let the Assyrians be blessed. My hands created them. And let the Israelites be blessed. They are my very own people."

Isaiah 20

A Prophecy Against Egypt and Cush

[1]Sargon, the king of Assyria, sent his highest commander to the city of Ashdod. He attacked it and captured it. [2]Three years earlier the LORD had spoken to Isaiah, the son of Amoz. The LORD had said, “Take off the rough clothing you are wearing. And take off your sandals.” So Isaiah did. He went around barefoot and naked.

[3]After Ashdod was captured, the LORD said, “My servant Isaiah has gone around barefoot and naked for three years. He is a sign and reminder to Egypt and Cush about what will happen to them. [4]The king of Assyria will lead prisoners away from Egypt and Cush. Young people and old people alike will be taken away. Like Isaiah, they will be barefoot and naked. Their backsides will be bare. So the Egyptians will be put to shame. [5]People trusted in Cush to help them. They bragged about what Egypt could do for them. But they will lose heart and be put to shame. [6]At that time the people who live on the coast of Philistia will speak up. They will say, ‘See what has happened to those we depended on! We ran to them for help. We wanted them to save us from the king of Assyria. Now how can we escape?’ ”

Isaiah 21

A Prophecy Against Babylon

[1]Here is a prophecy against Babylon that the LORD gave me. Babylon is known as the Desert by the Sea.

An attack is coming through the desert.
It is coming from a land of terror.
It's sweeping along like a windstorm blowing across the Negev Desert.

[2]I have seen a vision about something terrible that will happen.
People are turning against Babylon.
Robbers are taking its goods.
Elamites, attack the city! Medes, surround it!
The LORD will put an end to all the suffering Babylon has caused.

[3]The vision fills my body with pain.
Pains take hold of me.
They are like the pains of a woman having a baby.
I am shaken by what I hear.
I'm terrified by what I see.
[4]My heart grows weak.
Fear makes me tremble.
I longed for evening to come.
But it brought me horror instead of rest.

[5]In my vision the Babylonians set the tables.
They spread out the rugs.
They eat and drink.
Get up, you officers!
Rub your shields with oil!

[6]The Lord said to me,

"Go. Put a guard on duty on Jerusalem's walls.

Have him report what he sees.
7Tell him to watch for chariots that are pulled by teams of horses.
Tell him to watch for men riding on donkeys or camels.
Make sure he stays awake.
Make sure he stays wide awake.”

8“My master!” the guard shouts back.

“Day after day I stand here on the lookout tower.
Every night I stay here on duty.
9Look! Here comes a man in a chariot!
It’s being pulled by a team of horses.
He’s calling out the news,
‘Babylon has fallen! It has fallen!
All the statues of its gods lie broken in pieces on the ground!’ ”

10My people, you have been crushed like grain on a threshing floor.
But now I’m telling you the good news I’ve heard.
It comes from the LORD who rules over all.
He is the God of Israel.

A Prophecy Against Edom

11Here is a prophecy against Edom that the LORD gave me.

Someone is calling out to me from the land of Seir. He says, “Guard, when will the night be over?
Guard, how soon will it end?”
12The guard answers,
“Morning is coming, but the night will return.
If you want to ask again,
come back and ask.”

A Prophecy Against Arabia

13Here is a prophecy against Arabia that the LORD gave me.

He told me to give orders to traders from Dedan.
They were camping in the bushes of Arabia.
14I told them to bring water for those who are thirsty.
I also gave orders to those who live in Tema.
I told them to bring food for those who are running away.
15They are running away from where the fighting is heaviest.
That’s where the swords are ready to strike.
That’s where the bows are ready to shoot.

16The Lord spoke to me. He said, “In exactly one year, Kedar’s splendor will come to an end. 17Only a few of Kedar’s soldiers who shoot arrows will be left alive.” The LORD has spoken. He is the God of Israel.

Isaiah 22

A Prophecy Against Jerusalem

[1]Here is a prophecy against Jerusalem that the LORD gave me. Jerusalem is also known as the Valley of Vision.

People of Jerusalem, what's the matter with you?
Why have all of you gone up on the roofs of your houses?
[2]Why is your town so full of noise?
Why is your city so full of the sound of wild parties?
Those among you who died weren't killed by swords.
They didn't die in battle.
[3]All your leaders have run away.
They've been captured without a single arrow being shot.
All you who were caught were taken away as prisoners.
You ran off while your enemies were still far away.
[4]So I said, "Leave me alone.
Let me weep bitter tears.
Don't try to comfort me.
My people have been destroyed."

[5]The LORD who rules over all sent the noise of battle against you.
The Lord brought disorder and terror to the Valley of Vision.
The walls of the city were knocked down.
Cries for help were heard in the mountains.
[6]Soldiers from Elam came armed with bows and arrows.
They came with their chariots and horses.
Soldiers from Kir got their shields ready.
[7]Your rich valleys filled up with chariots.
Horsemen took up their battle positions at your city gates.
[8]The Lord made Judah a place where it wasn't safe to live anymore.

At that time, you depended on the weapons in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon.

[9]You saw that the walls of the City of David were broken through in many places.
You stored up water
in the Lower Pool.
[10]You picked out the weaker buildings in Jerusalem.
You tore them down and used their stones to strengthen the city walls against attack.
[11]You built a pool between the two walls.
You used it to save the water that was running down from the Old Pool.
But you didn't look to the God who made it all possible.
You didn't pay any attention to the God who planned everything long ago.

[12]The LORD who rules over all called out to you at that time.
The Lord told you to weep and cry.
He told you to tear your hair out.
And he told you to put on the rough clothing people wear when they're sad.
[13]Instead, you are enjoying yourselves at wild parties!
You are killing cattle and sheep.
You are eating their meat and drinking wine.
You are saying, "Let's eat and drink, because tomorrow we'll die."

[14]I heard the LORD who rules over all speaking. "Your sin can never be paid for as long as you live," says the Lord.

[15]The LORD who rules over all speaks. The Lord says, "Go and speak to Shebna, the head servant.

He is in charge of the palace. Tell him,
[16]'What are you doing here outside the city?
Who allowed you to cut out a tomb for yourself here?
Who said you could carve out your grave on the hillside?
Who allowed you to cut out your resting place in the rock?

17“ ‘Watch out, you mighty man!
The LORD is about to grab you.
He is about to throw you away.
18He will roll you up tightly like a ball.
He will throw you into a very large country.
There you will die.
And that’s where the chariots you were so proud of will be.
Those chariots will then bring nothing but shame on your master’s family!
19The LORD will remove you from your job.
You will be brought down from your high position.

20“ ‘At that time he will send for his servant Eliakim. He is the son of Hilkiah. 21The LORD will put your robe on Eliakim. He will tie your belt around him. He will hand your authority over to him. Eliakim will be like a father to the people of Jerusalem and Judah. 22The LORD will give Eliakim the key of authority in David’s royal house. No one can shut what he opens. And no one can open what he shuts. 23The LORD will set him firmly in place like a peg driven into a wall. He will hold a position of honor in his family. 24The good name of his whole family will depend on him. They will be like bowls and jars hanging on a peg.

25“ ‘But a new day is coming,’ ” announces the LORD who rules over all. “ ‘At that time the peg that was driven into the wall will give way. It will break off and fall down. And the heavy load hanging on it will also fall.’ ” The LORD has spoken.

Isaiah 23

A Prophecy Against Tyre

[1]Here is a prophecy against Tyre that the LORD gave me.

Men in the ships of Tarshish, cry out!
The city of Tyre is destroyed.
Its houses and harbor are gone.
That's the message you have received from the island of Cyprus.

[2]People on the island of Tyre, be silent.
Traders from the city of Sidon, be quiet.
Those who sail on the Mediterranean Sea have made you rich.
[3]Grain from Egypt came across the mighty waters.
The harvest of the Nile River brought wealth to Tyre.
It became the market place of the nations.

[4]Sidon, be ashamed. Mighty Tyre out in the sea, be ashamed.
The sea has spoken. It has said,
"It's as if I had never felt labor pains or had children.
It's as if I had never brought up sons or daughters.
It's as if the city of Tyre had never existed."
[5]The Egyptians will hear about what has happened to Tyre.
They'll be very sad and troubled.

[6]People of the island of Tyre, cry out!
Go across the sea to Tarshish.
[7]Just look at Tyre.
It's no longer the old, old city that was known for its wild parties.
It no longer sends its people out to make their homes in lands far away.
[8]Tyre was a city that produced kings.
Its traders were princes.
They were honored all over the earth.

So who planned to destroy such a city?
9 The LORD who rules over all planned to do it.
He wanted to bring down all its pride and glory.
He wanted to shame those who were honored all over the earth.

10 People of Tarshish, farm your land as they do along the Nile River.
That's because you don't have a harbor anymore.
11 The LORD has reached his powerful hand out over the sea.
He has made its kingdoms tremble with fear.
He has given a command concerning Phoenicia.
He has ordered that its forts be destroyed.
12 He said, "No more wild parties for you!
People of Sidon, you are now destroyed!

"Leave your city. Go across the sea to Cyprus.
Even there you will not find any rest."
13 Look at the land of the Babylonians.
No one lives there anymore.
The Assyrians have turned it into a place for desert creatures.
They built their towers in order to attack it.
They took everything out of its forts.
They knocked down all its buildings.

14 Men in the ships of Tarshish, cry out!
Mighty Tyre is destroyed!

15 A time is coming when people will forget about Tyre for 70 years. That's the length of a king's life. But at the end of those 70 years, Tyre will be like the prostitute that people sing about. They say, 16 "Forgotten prostitute, pick up a harp.

Walk through the city.
Play the harp well. Sing many songs.
Then you will be remembered."

17 At the end of the 70 years, the LORD will punish Tyre. He will let it return to its way of life as a prostitute. It will earn its living with all the kingdoms on the face of the earth. [18]But the money it earns will be set apart for the LORD. The money won't be stored up or kept for Tyre. Instead, it will go to those who live the way the LORD wants them to. It will pay for plenty of food and fine clothes for them.

Isaiah 24

The LORD Will Destroy the Earth

[1]The LORD is going to completely destroy everything on earth.
He will twist its surface.
He'll scatter those who live on it.
[2]Priests and people alike will suffer.
So will masters and their servants.
And so will women and their female servants.
Sellers and buyers alike will suffer.
So will those who borrow and those who lend.
And so will those who owe money and those who lend it.
[3]The earth will be completely destroyed.
Everything of value will be taken out of it.
That's what the LORD has said.

[4]The earth will dry up completely.
The world will dry up and waste away.
The heavens will fade away along with the earth.
[5]The earth is polluted by its people.
They haven't obeyed the laws of the LORD.
They haven't done what he told them to do.
They've broken the covenant that will last forever.
[6]So the LORD will send a curse on the earth.
Its people will pay for what they've done.
They will be burned up.
Very few of them will be left.
[7]The vines and fresh wine will dry up completely.
Those who used to have a good time will groan.
[8]The happy sounds of tambourines will be gone.
The noise of those who enjoy wild parties will stop.
The joyful music of harps will become silent.
[9]People will no longer sing as they drink wine.
Beer will taste bitter to those who drink it.
[10]Destroyed cities will lie empty.
People will lock themselves inside their houses.

[11]In the streets people will cry out for wine.
All joy will turn into sadness.
All joyful sounds will be driven out of the earth.
[12]All the buildings will be knocked down.
Every city gate will be smashed to pieces.
[13]That's how it will be on the earth.
And that's how it will be among the nations.
It will be as when workers knock all but a few olives off the trees.
It will be like a vine that has only a few grapes left after the harvest.

[14]Those who are left alive will shout for joy.
People from the west will praise the LORD because he is the King.
[15]So give glory to him, you who live in the east.
Honor the name of the LORD, you who are in the islands of the sea.
He is the God of Israel.
[16]From one end of the earth to the other we hear singing.
People are saying,
"Give glory to the God who always does what is right."

But I said, "I feel very bad.
I'm getting weaker and weaker.
How terrible it is for me!
People turn against one another.
They can't be trusted.
So they turn against one another."
[17]Listen, you people of the earth.
Terror, a pit and a trap are waiting for you.
[18]Anyone who runs away from the terror
will fall into the pit.
Anyone who climbs out of the pit
will be caught in the trap.

The LORD will open the windows of the skies.
He will flood the land.
The foundations of the earth will shake.

[19]The earth will be broken up.
It will split open.
It will be shaken to pieces.
[20]The earth will be unsteady like someone who is drunk.
It will sway like a tent in the wind.
Its sin will weigh so heavily on it that it will fall.
It will never get up again.

[21]At that time the LORD will punish the spiritual forces of evil in the heavens above.
He will also punish the kings on the earth below.
[22]They will be brought together like prisoners in chains.
They'll be locked up in prison.
After many days the LORD will punish them.
[23]The LORD who rules over all will rule on Mount Zion in Jerusalem.
The elders of the city will be there.
They will see his great glory.
His rule will be so glorious that the sun and moon will be too ashamed to shine.

Isaiah 25

A Song of Praise to the LORD

[1]LORD, you are my God.
I will honor you.
I will praise your name.
You have been perfectly faithful.
You have done wonderful things.
You had planned them long ago.
[2]You have turned cities into piles of trash.
You have pulled down the high walls that were around them.
You have destroyed our enemies' forts.
They will never be rebuilt.
[3]Powerful nations will honor you.
Even sinful people from their cities will have respect for you.
[4]Poor people have come to you for safety.
You have kept needy people safe when they were in trouble.
You have been a place to hide when storms came.
You have been a shade from the heat of the sun.
Evil people attack us.
They are like a storm beating against a wall.
[5]They are like the heat of the desert.
You stopped the noisy shouts of our enemies.
You kept them from winning the battle over us and singing about it.
You are like the shadow of a cloud that cools the earth.

[6]On Mount Zion the LORD who rules over all will prepare a feast for all the nations.
The best and richest foods and the finest aged wines will be served.
[7]On that mountain the LORD will destroy the veil of sadness that covers all the nations.
He will destroy the gloom that is spread over everyone.
[8]He will swallow up death forever.
The LORD and King will wipe away the tears from everyone's face.

He will remove the shame of his people from the whole earth.
The LORD has spoken.

9 At that time they will say,

"He is our God.
We trusted in him, and he saved us.
He is the LORD. We trusted in him.
Let us be filled with joy because he saved us."

10 The LORD's power will keep Mount Zion safe.
But the people of Moab will be crushed in their land.
They will be crushed just as straw is crushed in animal waste.
11 They will try to swim their way out of it.
They will spread out their hands in it,
just as swimmers spread out their hands to swim.
But God will bring down Moab's pride.
None of their skill will help them.
12 He will pull down their high, strong walls.
He will bring them down to the ground.
He'll bring them right down to the dust.

Isaiah 26

Another Song of Praise

[1]At that time a song will be sung in the land of Judah. It will say,

"We have a strong city.
God's saving power surrounds it like walls and towers.
[2]Open its gates
so that those who do what is right can enter.
They are the people who remain faithful to God.
[3]LORD, you will give perfect peace to those who commit themselves to be faithful to you.
That's because they trust in you.

[4]"Trust in the LORD forever.
The LORD himself is the Rock.
The LORD will keep us safe forever.
[5]He brings down those who are proud.
He pulls down cities that have high walls.
They fall down flat on the ground.
He throws them down to the dust.
[6]The feet of those who were treated badly stomp on them.
Those who were poor walk all over them."

[7]The path of godly people is level.
You are the God who does what is right.
You make their way smooth.
[8]LORD, we are living the way your laws command us to live.
We are waiting for you to act.
We want your honor and fame to be known.
[9]My heart longs for you at night.
My spirit longs for you in the morning.
You will come and judge the earth.
Then the people of the world will learn to do what is right.
[10]Sometimes grace is shown to sinful people.

But they still don’t learn to do what is right.
They keep on doing evil even in a land where others are honest and fair.
They don’t have any respect for the majesty of the LORD.
11 LORD, you have raised your hand high to punish them.
But they don’t even see it.
Let them see how much you love your people.
Then they will be put to shame.
Let the fire you are saving for your enemies burn them up.

12 LORD, you give us peace.
You are the one who has done everything we’ve accomplished.
13 LORD, you are our God.
Other masters besides you have ruled over us.
But your name is the only one we honor.
14 Those other masters are now dead.
They will never live again.
Their spirits won’t rise from the dead.
You punished them and destroyed them.
You wiped out all memory of them.
15 LORD, you have made our nation grow.
You have made it larger.
You have gained glory for yourself.
You have increased the size of our land.

16 LORD, when your people were suffering, they came to you.
When you punished them,
they could barely whisper a prayer.
17 LORD, you made us like a woman who is about to have a baby.
She groans and cries out in pain.
18 We were pregnant and groaned with pain.
But nothing was born.
We didn’t bring your saving power to the earth.
And the people of the world have not come to life.

19 LORD, your people who have died will live again.
Their bodies will rise from the dead.
Let those who lie in the grave

wake up and shout for joy.
You give life, LORD, like the dew of the morning.
So the earth will give up its dead people.

[20]My people, go into your houses.
Shut the doors behind you.
Hide yourselves for a little while.
Do it until the LORD's anger is over.
[21]He is coming from the place where he lives.
He will punish the people of the earth for their sins.
The blood spilled on the earth will be brought out into the open.
The ground will no longer hide those who have been killed.

Isaiah 27

Israel Will Be Saved

[1]At that time

the LORD will punish Leviathan with his sword.
His great, powerful and deadly sword will punish the serpent that glides through the sea.
He will kill that twisting sea monster.

[2]At that time the LORD will sing about his fruitful vineyard. He will say,

[3]"I am the LORD. I watch over my vineyard.
I water it all the time.
I guard it day and night.
I do it so no one can harm it.
[4]I am not angry with my vineyard.
I wish thorns and bushes would come up in it.
Then I would march out against them in battle.
I would set all of them on fire.
[5]So the enemies of my people should come to me for safety.
They should make peace with me.
I will say it again.
They should make peace with me."

[6]In days to come, Jacob's people will put down roots like a vine.
Israel will bud and bloom.
They will fill the whole world with fruit.

[7]The LORD struck down those who struck down Israel.
But he hasn't punished Israel as much.
The LORD killed those who killed many of his people.
But he hasn't punished his people as much.
[8]The LORD will use war to punish Israel.
He will make them leave their land.
With a strong blast of his anger he will drive them out.
It will be as if the east wind were blowing.

[9]The people of Jacob will have to pay for their sin.
Here is how they will show that their sin has been removed.
They will make all the altar stones like limestone.
They will crush them to pieces.
No poles used to worship the female god named Asherah will be left standing.
No incense altars will be left either.
[10]Cities that have high walls around them will become empty.
They will be settlements with no one in them.
They will be like a desert.
Calves will eat and lie down in them.
They will strip bare the branches of their trees.
[11]When their twigs are dry, they will be broken off.
Then women will come and make fires with them.
The people of Jacob don’t understand the LORD.
So the God who made them won’t be concerned about them.
Their Creator won’t be kind to them.

[12]At that time the LORD will separate Israel from other people. He will gather the Israelites together one by one. He will gather them from the Euphrates River to the Wadi of Egypt. [13]At that time a loud trumpet will be blown. Those who were dying in Assyria will come and worship the LORD. So will those who were taken away to Egypt. All of them will worship the LORD on his holy mountain in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 28

The LORD Will Judge the Leaders of Ephraim and Judah

[1]How terrible it will be for the city of Samaria!
It sits on a hill like a wreath of flowers.
The leaders of Ephraim are drunk.
They take pride in their city.
It sits above a valley that has rich soil.
How terrible it will be for the glorious beauty of that fading flower!
[2]The Lord will bring the strong and powerful king of Assyria against Samaria.
The Lord will throw that city down to the ground with great force.
It will be like a hailstorm.
It will be like a wind that destroys everything.
It will be like a driving rain and a flooding storm.
[3]That city is like a wreath.
The leaders of Ephraim are drunk.
They take pride in their city.
But its enemies will walk all over it.
[4]It sits on a hill above a rich valley.
The city is like a wreath of flowers whose glorious beauty is fading away.
But it will become like figs that are ripe before harvest.
As soon as people see them,
they pick them and swallow them.

[5]At that time the LORD who rules over all will be like a glorious crown.
He will be like a beautiful wreath for those of his people who will be left alive.
[6]He will help those who are fair when they judge.
He will give strength to those who turn back their enemies at the city gate.

[7]Israel’s leaders are drunk from wine.
They can’t walk straight.
They are drunk from beer.
They are unsteady on their feet.
Priests and prophets drink beer.
They can’t walk straight.
They are mixed up from drinking too much wine.
They drink too much beer.
They are unsteady on their feet.
The prophets see visions but don’t really understand them.
The priests aren’t able to make good decisions.
[8]They throw up. All the tables are covered with the mess they’ve made.
There isn’t one spot on the tables that isn’t smelly and dirty.

[9]The LORD’s people are making fun of him. They say,
“Who does he think he’s trying to teach?
Who does he think he’s explaining his message to?
Is it to children who do not need their mother’s milk anymore?
Is it to those who have just been taken from her breast?
[10]Here is how he teaches.
Do this and do that.
There is a rule for this and a rule for that.
Learn a little here and learn a little there.”

[11]All right then, these people won’t listen to me.
So God will speak to them.
He will speak by using people who speak unfamiliar languages.
He will speak by using the mouths of strangers.
[12]He said to his people,
“I am offering you a resting place.
Let those who are tired rest.”
He continued, “I am offering you a place of peace and quiet.”
But they wouldn’t listen.
[13]So then, here is what the LORD’s message will become to them.
Do this and do that.
There is a rule for this and a rule for that.

Learn a little here and learn a little there.
So when they try to go forward,
they'll fall back and be wounded.
They'll be trapped and captured.

14 Listen to the LORD's message,
you who make fun of the truth.
Listen, you who rule over these people in Jerusalem.
15 You brag, "We have entered into a covenant with the place of the dead.
We have made an agreement with the grave.
When a terrible plague comes to punish us,
it can't touch us.
That's because we depend on lies to keep us safe.
We hide behind what isn't true."

16 So the LORD and King speaks. He says,

"Look! I am laying a stone in Zion.
It is a stone that has been tested.
It is the most important stone for a firm foundation.
The one who depends on that stone will never be shaken.
17 I will use a measuring line to prove that you have not been fair.
I will use a plumb line to prove that you have not done what is right.
Hail will sweep away the lies you depend on to keep you safe.
Water will flood your hiding place.
18 Your covenant with death will be called off.
The agreement you made with the place of the dead will not stand.
When the terrible plague comes to punish you,
you will be struck down by it.
19 As often as it comes, it will carry you away.
Morning after morning, day and night,
it will come to punish you."

If you understand this message,
it will bring you absolute terror.

[20]You will be like someone whose bed is too short to lie down on.
You will be like those whose blankets are too small to wrap themselves in.
[21]The LORD will rise up to judge, just as he did at Mount Perazim.
He will get up to act, just as he did in the Valley of Gibeon.
He'll do his work, but it will be strange work.
He'll carry out his task, but it will be an unexpected one.
[22]Now stop making fun of me.
If you don't, your chains will become heavier.
The LORD who rules over all has spoken to me.
The Lord has told me he has ordered that the whole land be destroyed.

[23]Listen and hear my voice.
Pay attention to what I'm saying.
[24]When a farmer plows in order to plant, does he plow without stopping?
Does he keep on breaking up the soil and making the field level?
[25]When he's made the surface even, doesn't he plant caraway seeds?
Doesn't he scatter cumin seeds?
Doesn't he plant wheat in its proper place?
Doesn't he plant barley where it belongs?
Doesn't he plant spelt along the edge of the field?
[26]His God directs him.
He teaches him the right way to do his work.

[27]Caraway seeds are beaten out with a rod.
They aren't separated out under a threshing sled.
Cumin seeds are beaten out with a stick.
The wheel of a cart isn't rolled over them.
[28]Grain must be ground up to make bread.
A farmer separates it out.
But he doesn't go on doing it forever.
He drives the wheels of a threshing cart over it.
But he doesn't use horses to grind the grain.
[29]All these insights come from the LORD who rules over all.
His advice is wonderful. His wisdom is glorious.

Isaiah 29

The LORD Will Judge Jerusalem

[1]Jerusalem, how terrible it will be for you!
Ariel, you are the city where David made his home.
The years will come and go.
Keep on celebrating your regular feasts.
[2]The LORD says, “Ariel, I will surround you.
Jerusalem, I will get ready to attack you.
Your people will mourn.
They will sing songs of sadness.
I will make you like the front of an altar covered with blood.
[3]I will be like an army camped against you on all sides.
I will surround you with towers in order to attack you.
I will build my ramps all around you and set up my ladders.
[4]You will be brought down to the grave.
You will speak from deep down inside the ground.
Your words will be barely heard out of the dust.
Your voice will sound like the voice of a ghost coming from under the ground.
Your words will sound like a whisper out of the dust.”

[5]Jerusalem, all your enemies will become like fine dust.
Their terrifying armies will become like straw
that the wind blows away.
All of a sudden, in an instant,
[6]the LORD who rules over all will come.
He will come with thunder, earthquakes and a lot of noise.
He’ll bring windstorms and rainstorms with him.
He’ll send a blazing fire that will burn up everything.

[7]Armies from all the nations will fight against Ariel.
They will attack it and its fort.
They’ll surround it completely.
But suddenly those armies will disappear like a dream.

They will vanish like a vision in the night.
[8]It will be as when a hungry person dreams of eating,
but wakes up still hungry.
It will be as when a thirsty person dreams of drinking,
but wakes up weak and still thirsty.
In the same way, the armies from all the nations that fight against Mount Zion will disappear.

[9]People of Jerusalem, be shocked and amazed.
Make yourselves blind so you can't see anything.
Get drunk, but not from wine.
Be unsteady on your feet, but not because of beer.
[10]The LORD has made you fall into a deep sleep.
He has closed the eyes of your prophets.
He has covered the heads of your seers so they can't see.

[11]For you, this whole vision is like words that are sealed up in a scroll. Suppose you give it to someone who can read. And suppose you say, "Please read this for us." Then they'll answer, "I can't. It's sealed up." [12]Or suppose you give the scroll to someone who can't read. And suppose you say, "Please read this for us." Then they'll answer, "I don't know how to read."

[13]The Lord says,

"These people worship me only with their words.
They honor me by what they say.
But their hearts are far away from me.
Their worship doesn't mean anything to me.
They teach nothing but human rules that they have been taught.
[14]So once more I will shock these people with many wonderful acts.
I will destroy the wisdom of those who think they are so wise.
I will do away with the cleverness of those who think they are so smart."
[15]How terrible it will be for people who try hard to hide their plans from the LORD!
They do their work in darkness.
They think, "Who sees us? Who will know?"

16 They turn everything upside down.
How silly they are to think that potters are like the clay they work with!
Can what is made say to the one who made it,
"You didn't make me"?
Can the pot say to the potter,
"You don't know anything"?

17 In a very short time, Lebanon will be turned into rich farm lands.
The rich farm lands will seem like a forest.
18 At that time those who can't hear will hear what is read from the scroll.
Those who are blind will come out of gloom and darkness.
They will be able to see.
19 Those who aren't proud will once again find their joy in the LORD.
And those who are in need will find their joy in the Holy One of Israel.
20 Those who don't show any pity will vanish.
Those who make fun of others will disappear.
All those who look for ways to do what is evil will be cut off.
21 Without any proof, they claim that a person is guilty.
In court they try to trap
the one who speaks up for others.
By using dishonest witnesses they keep people who aren't guilty from being treated fairly.

22 Long ago the LORD saved Abraham from trouble. Now he says to Jacob's people,

"You will not be ashamed anymore.
Your faces will no longer grow pale with fear.
23 You will see your children living among you.
I myself will give you those children.
Then you will honor my name.
You will recognize how holy I am.
I am the Holy One of Jacob.
You will have great respect for me.

I am the God of Israel.
24 I will give understanding to you who find yourselves going stray.
You who are always speaking against others will accept what I teach you.”

Isaiah 30

The LORD Will Judge His Stubborn People

[1]“How terrible it will be for these stubborn children of mine!”
announces the LORD.
“How terrible for those who carry out plans that did not come from me!
Their agreement with Egypt did not come from my Spirit.
So they pile up one sin on top of another.
[2]They go down to Egypt
without asking me for advice.
They look to Pharaoh to help them.
They ask Egypt to keep them safe.
[3]But looking to Pharaoh will only bring them shame.
Asking Egypt for help will bring them dishonor.
[4]Their officials have gone to the city of Zoan.
Their messengers have arrived in Hanes.
[5]But the people of Judah will be put to shame.
That’s because they are trusting in a nation that is useless to
them.
Egypt will not bring them any help or advantage.
Instead, it will bring them shame and dishonor.”

[6]Here is a prophecy the LORD gave me about the animals in the Negev Desert.

Judah’s messengers carry their riches on the backs of donkeys.
They carry their treasures on the humps of camels.
They travel through a land of danger and suffering.
It’s a land filled with lions.
Poisonous snakes are also there.
The messengers travel to a nation that can’t do them any good.
[7]They travel to Egypt, whose help is totally useless.
That’s why I call it Rahab the Do-Nothing.

[8]The LORD said to me, “Go now.
Write on a tablet for the people of Judah
what I am about to say.
Also write it on a scroll.
In days to come
it will be a witness that lasts forever.
[9]That’s because these people of Judah refuse to obey me.
They are children who tell lies.
They will not listen to what I want to teach them.
[10]They say to the seers,
‘Don’t see any more visions!’
They say to the prophets,
‘Don’t give us any more visions of what is right!
Tell us pleasant things.
Prophesy things we want to hear even if they aren’t true.
[11]Get out of our way!
Get off our path!
Keep the Holy One of Israel away from us!’ ”

[12]So the Holy One of Israel speaks. He says,

“You have turned your backs on what I have said.
You have depended on telling people lies.
You have crushed others.
[13]Those sins are like cracks in a high wall.
They get bigger and bigger.
Suddenly the wall breaks apart.
Then it quickly falls down.
[14]It breaks into small pieces like a clay pot.
It breaks up completely.
Not one piece is left big enough for taking coals from a fireplace.
Not one piece is left for dipping water out of a well.”

[15]The LORD and King is the Holy One of Israel. He says,

“You will find peace and rest when you turn away from your sins and depend on me.

You will receive the strength you need when you stay calm and trust in me.
But you do not want to do what I tell you to.
16You said, ‘No. We’ll escape on horses.’
So you will have to escape!
You said, ‘We’ll ride off on fast horses.’
So those who chase you will use faster horses!
17When one of them dares you to fight,
a thousand of you will run away.
When five of them dare you,
all of you will run away.
So few of you will be left that you will be like a flagpole on top of a mountain.
You will be like only one banner on a hill.”

18But the LORD wants to have mercy on you.
So he will rise up to give you his tender love.
The LORD is a God who is always fair.
Blessed are all those who wait for him to act!

19People of Zion, who live in Jerusalem, you won’t weep anymore. When you cry out to the LORD for help, he will have mercy on you. As soon as he hears you, he’ll answer you. 20He might treat you like prisoners. You might eat the bread of trouble. You might drink the water of suffering. But he will be your Teacher. He won’t hide himself anymore. You will see him with your own eyes. 21You will hear your Teacher’s voice behind you. You will hear it whether you turn to the right or the left. It will say, “Here is the path I want you to take. So walk on it.” 22Then you will get rid of the silver statues of your gods. You won’t have anything to do with the gold statues either. All of them are “unclean.” So you will throw them away like dirty rags. You will say to them, “Get away from us!”

23The LORD will send rain on the seeds you plant in the ground. The crops that grow will be rich and plentiful. At that time your cattle will eat grass in rolling meadows. 24The oxen and donkeys that work the soil will eat the finest feed and crushed grain. The farmers will use pitchforks and shovels to separate it from the straw. 25At that time the towers of your enemies will fall down. Their soldiers will die. Streams of water will flow on every high mountain and hill. [26]The moon will shine like the sun. And the sunlight will be seven times brighter than usual. It will be like the light of seven full days. That will happen when the LORD bandages and heals the wounds and bruises he has brought on his people.

[27]The LORD will come from far away in all his power and glory.
He will show his burning anger.
Thick clouds of smoke will be all around him.
His mouth will speak angry words.
The words from his tongue will be like a destroying fire.
[28]His breath will be like a rushing flood that rises up to the neck.
He'll separate out the nations he is going to destroy.
He'll place a bit in their jaws.
It will lead them down the road to death.
[29]You will sing
as you do on the night you celebrate a holy feast.
Your hearts will be filled with joy.
You will be as joyful as people playing their flutes
as they go up to the mountain of the LORD.
He is the Rock of Israel.
[30]The LORD will cause people to hear his powerful voice.
He will make them see his arm coming down to punish them.
It will come down with burning anger and destroying fire.
It will come down with rain, thunderstorms and hail.
[31]The voice of the LORD will tear the Assyrians apart.
He will strike them down with his scepter.
[32]He will strike them with his club to punish them.
Each time he does, his people will celebrate with the music of harps and tambourines.
He will use his powerful arm to strike down the Assyrians in battle.
[33]In the Valley of Ben Hinnom, Topheth has been prepared for a long time.
It has been made ready for the king of Assyria.
Its fire pit has been made deep and wide.

It has plenty of wood for the fire.
The breath of the LORD will be like a stream of burning sulfur.
It will set the wood on fire.

Isaiah 31

The LORD Will Judge Those Who Depend on Egypt

[1]How terrible it will be for those who go down to Egypt for help!
How terrible for those who depend on horses!
They trust in how many chariots they have.
They trust in how strong their horsemen are.
But they don't look to the Holy One of Israel.
They don't ask the LORD for his help.
[2]He too is wise. He can bring horrible trouble.
He does what he says he'll do.
He'll rise up against that evil nation.
He'll fight against those who help them.
[3]The men of Egypt are only human beings.
They aren't God.
Their horses are only flesh and blood.
They aren't spirits.
The LORD will reach out his powerful hand to punish everyone.
The Egyptians provide help.
But they will be tripped up.
The people of Judah receive the help.
But they will fall down.
All of them will be destroyed.

[4]The LORD says to me,

"A powerful lion stands over its food and growls.
A lot of shepherds can be brought together to drive it away.
But the lion is not frightened by their shouts.
It is not upset by the noise they make.
In the same way, I will come down from heaven.
I will fight on Mount Zion and on its hills.
Nothing will drive me away.
I am the LORD who rules over all.
[5]Like a bird hovering over its nest, I will guard Jerusalem.

I will keep it safe.
I will ‘pass over’ it and save it.
I am the LORD who rules over all.”

6People of Israel, return to the LORD. He’s the God you have so strongly opposed. 7You sinned when you made your gods out of silver and gold. The time will come when all of you will turn away from them.

8The LORD says, “The Assyrians will be killed by swords.
But the swords that kill them will not be used by human beings.
The Assyrians will run away from those swords.
But their young men will be caught and forced to work hard.
9Their hiding places will be destroyed
when terror strikes them.
Their commanders will see their enemy’s battle flags.
Then they will be filled with panic,”
announces the LORD.
His fire blazes out from Mount Zion.
His furnace burns in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 32

The King Who Will Do What Is Right

[1]A king will come who will do what is right.
His officials will govern fairly.
[2]Each official will be like a place to get out of the wind.
He will be like a place to hide from storms.
He'll be like streams of water flowing in the desert.
He'll be like the shadow of a huge rock in a dry and thirsty land.

[3]Then the eyes of those who see won't be closed anymore.
The ears of those who hear will listen to the truth.
[4]People who are afraid will know and understand.
Tongues that stutter will speak clearly.
[5]Foolish people won't be considered noble anymore.
Those who are worthless won't be highly respected.
[6]Foolish people say foolish things.
Their minds are set on doing evil things.
They don't do what is right.
They tell lies about the LORD.
They don't give hungry people any food.
They don't let thirsty people have any water.
[7]Those who are worthless use sinful methods.
They make evil plans against poor people.
They destroy them with their lies.
They do it even when those people are right.
[8]But those who are noble make noble plans.
And by doing noble things they succeed.

The Sinful Women in Jerusalem

[9]You women who are so contented,
pay attention to me.
You who feel so secure,
listen to what I have to say.
[10]You feel secure now.

But in a little over a year you will tremble with fear.
The grape harvest will fail.
There won’t be any fruit.
11So tremble, you contented women.
Tremble with fear, you who feel so secure.
Take off your fine clothes.
Wrap yourselves in rags.
12Beat your chests to show how sad you are.
The pleasant fields have been destroyed.
The fruitful vines have dried up.
13My people’s land is overgrown with thorns and bushes.
Mourn for all the houses that were once filled with joy.
Cry over this city that used to be full of wild parties.
14The royal palace will be left empty.
The noisy city will be deserted.
The fort and lookout tower will become a dry and empty desert forever.
Donkeys will enjoy being there.
Flocks will eat there.
15That will continue until the Holy Spirit is poured out on us from heaven.
Then the desert will be turned into rich farm lands.
The rich farm lands will seem like a forest.
16In the desert, the LORD will make sure people do what is right.
In the rich farm lands he will make sure they treat one another fairly.
17Doing what is right will bring peace and rest.
When my people do that, they will stay calm and trust in the LORD forever.
18They will live in a peaceful land.
Their homes will be secure.
They will enjoy peace and quiet.
19Hail might strip the forests bare.
Cities might be completely destroyed.
20But how blessed you people will be!
You will plant your seeds by every stream.
You will let your cattle and donkeys wander anywhere they want to.

Isaiah 33

Trouble for Assyria and Help for God's People

[1]How terrible it will be for you, you who destroy others!
Assyria, you haven't been destroyed yet.
How terrible for you, you who turn against others!
Others haven't turned against you yet.
When you stop destroying,
you will be destroyed.
When you stop turning against others,
others will turn against you.

[2]LORD, have mercy on us.
We long for you to help us.
Make us strong every morning.
Save us when we're in trouble.
[3]At the roar of your army, the nations run away.
When you rise up against them, they scatter.
[4]Nations, what you have taken in battle is destroyed.
It's as if young locusts had eaten it up.
Like large numbers of locusts,
people rush to get it.

[5]The LORD is honored. He lives in heaven.
He will make sure Zion's people only do what is fair and right.
[6]He will be the firm foundation for their entire lives.
He will give them all the wisdom, knowledge and saving power they will ever need.
Respect for the LORD is the key to that treasure.

[7]Look! Judah's brave men cry out loud in the streets.
The messengers who were sent to bring peace weep bitter tears.
[8]The wide roads are deserted.
No one travels on them.
Our peace treaty with Assyria is broken.
Those who witnessed it are looked down on.

No one is respected.
9 The land dries up and wastes away.
Lebanon is full of shame and dries up.
The rich land of Sharon is like the Arabah Desert.
The trees of Bashan and Carmel drop their leaves.

10 "Now I will take action," says the LORD.
"Now I will be honored.
Now I will be respected.
11 Assyria, your plans and actions are like straw.
Your anger is a fire that will destroy you.
12 The nations will be burned to ashes.
They will be like bushes that are cut down and set on fire.

13 "You nations far away, listen to what I have done!
My people who are near, recognize how powerful I am!
14 The sinners in Zion are terrified.
They tremble with fear.
They say, 'Who of us can live through the LORD's destroying fire?
Who of us can live through the fire that burns forever?'
15 People must do what is right.
They must be honest and tell the truth.
They must not get rich by cheating others.
Their hands must not receive money from those who want special favors.
They must not let their ears listen to plans to commit murder.
They must close their eyes to even thinking about doing what is evil.
16 People like that will be kept safe.
It will be as if they were living on high mountains.
It will be as if they were living in a mountain fort.
They will have all the food they need.
And they will never run out of water."

17 People of Judah, you will see the king in all his glory and majesty.
You will view his kingdom spreading far and wide.

[18]You will think about what used to terrify you.
You will say to yourself,
“Where is that chief officer of Assyria?
Where is the one who forced us to send gifts to his king?
Where is the officer in charge of the towers that were used when we were attacked?”
[19]You won’t see those proud people anymore.
They spoke a strange language.
None of us could understand it.

[20]Just look at Zion! It’s the city where we celebrate our regular feasts.
Turn your eyes toward Jerusalem.
It will be a peaceful place to live in.
It will be like a tent that will never be moved.
Its stakes will never be pulled up.
None of its ropes will be broken.
[21]There the LORD will be our Mighty One.
It will be like a place of wide rivers and streams.
No boat with oars will travel on them.
No mighty ship will sail on them.
[22]That’s because the LORD is our judge.
The LORD gives us our law.
The LORD is our king.
He will save us.

[23]The ropes on your ship hang loose.
The mast isn’t very secure.
The sail isn’t spread out.
But the LORD will strike down the Assyrians.
Then a large amount of goods will be taken from them and divided up.
Even people who are disabled will carry off some of it.
[24]No one living in Zion will ever say again, “I’m sick.”
And the sins of those who live there will be forgiven.

Isaiah 34

The LORD Will Judge the Nations

[1]Nations, come near and listen to me!
Pay attention to what I'm about to say.
Let the earth and everything in it listen.
Let the world and everything that comes out of it pay attention.
[2]The LORD is angry with all the nations.
His anger is against all their armies.
He will totally destroy them.
He will have them killed.
[3]Those who are killed won't be buried.
Their dead bodies will be thrown on the ground.
They will stink.
Their blood will cover the mountains.
[4]All the stars in the sky will vanish.
The heavens will be rolled up like a scroll.
All the stars in the sky will fall like dried-up leaves from a vine.
They will drop like wrinkled figs from a fig tree.

[5]The sword of the LORD will finish its deadly work in the sky.
Then it will come down to strike Edom.
He will totally destroy that nation.
[6]His sword will be red with blood.
It will be covered with fat.
The blood will flow like the blood of lambs and goats being sacrificed.
The fat will be like the fat taken from the kidneys of rams.
That's because the LORD will offer a sacrifice
in the city of Bozrah.
He will kill many people in the land of Edom.
[7]The people and their leaders will be killed like wild oxen and young bulls.
Their land will be wet with their blood.
The dust will be covered with their fat.

[8]That’s because the LORD has set aside a day to pay Edom back.
He has set aside a year to pay them back. He will pay them back for what they did to Zion.
[9]The streams of Edom will be turned into tar.
Its dust will be turned into blazing sulfur.
Its land will become burning tar.
[10]The fire will keep burning night and day.
It can’t be put out.
Its smoke will go up forever.
Edom will lie empty for all time to come.
No one will ever travel through it again.
[11]The desert owl and screech owl will make it their home.
The great owl and the raven will build their nests there.
God will use his measuring line to show how completely Edom will be destroyed.
He will use his plumb line to show how empty Edom will become.
[12]Edom’s nobles won’t have anything left there that can be called a kingdom.
All its princes will vanish.
[13]Thorns will cover its forts.
Bushes and weeds will cover its safest places.
It will become a home for wild dogs.
It will become a place where owls live.
[14]Desert creatures will meet with hyenas.
Wild goats will call out to each other.
Night creatures will also lie down there.
They will find places where they can rest.
[15]Owls will make their nests and lay their eggs there.
And they will hatch them.
They will take care of their little ones
under the shadow of their wings.
Male and female falcons will also gather there.

[16]Look in the book of the LORD. Here is what you will read there.

None of those animals will be missing.
Male and female alike will be there.

The LORD himself has commanded it.
    And his Spirit will gather them together.
17 The LORD will decide what part of the land goes to each animal.
    Then he will give each one its share.
It will belong to them forever.
    And they will live there for all time to come.

Isaiah 35

The Joy of the LORD's People

[1]The desert and the dry ground will be glad.
The dry places will be full of joy.
Flowers will grow there.
Like the first crocus in the spring,
[2]the desert will bloom with flowers.
It will be very glad and shout for joy.
The glorious beauty of Lebanon will be given to it.
It will be as beautiful as the rich lands of Carmel and Sharon.
Everyone will see the glory of the LORD.
They will see the beauty of our God.

[3]Strengthen the hands of those who are weak.
Help those whose knees give way.
[4]Say to those whose hearts are afraid,
"Be strong and do not fear.
Your God will come.
He will pay your enemies back.
He will come to save you."

[5]Then the eyes of those who are blind will be opened.
The ears of those who can't hear will be unplugged.
[6]Those who can't walk will leap like a deer.
And those who can't speak will shout for joy.
Water will pour out in dry places.
Streams will flow in the desert.
[7]The burning sand will become a pool of water.
The thirsty ground will become bubbling springs.
In the places where wild dogs once lay down,
tall grass and papyrus will grow.

[8]A wide road will go through the land.
It will be called the Way of Holiness.

Only those who lead a holy life can use it.
“Unclean” and foolish people can’t walk on it.
9 No lions will use it.
No hungry wild animals will be on it.
None of them will be there.
Only people who have been set free will walk on it.
10 Those the LORD has saved will return to their land.
They will sing as they enter the city of Zion.
Joy that lasts forever will be like beautiful crowns on their heads.
They will be filled with gladness and joy.
Sorrow and sighing will be gone.

Isaiah 36

Sennacherib Warns Jerusalem

1Sennacherib attacked and captured all the cities of Judah that had high walls around them. It was in the 14th year of the rule of Hezekiah. Sennacherib was king of Assyria. 2He sent his field commander from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. He sent him along with a large army. The commander stopped at the channel that brings water from the Upper Pool. It was on the road to the Washerman's Field. 3Eliakim, Shebna and Joah went out to him. Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, was in charge of the palace. Shebna was the secretary. Joah, the son of Asaph, kept the records.

4The field commander said to them, "Give Hezekiah this message. Tell him, > " 'Sennacherib is the great king of Assyria. He says, "Why are you > putting your faith in what your king says? 5You say you have a military > plan. You say you have a strong army. But your words don't mean > anything. Who are you depending on? Why don't you want to stay > under my control? 6Look, I know you are depending on Egypt. Why are > you doing that? Egypt is nothing but a broken papyrus stem. Try > leaning on it. It will only cut your hand. Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, is > just like that to everyone who depends on him. 7But suppose you say to > me, 'We are depending on the LORD our God.' Didn't Hezekiah > remove your god's high places and altars? Didn't Hezekiah say to the > people of Judah and Jerusalem, 'You must worship at the altar in > Jerusalem'?

>
> 8" ' "Come on. Make a deal with my master, the king of Assyria. I'll > give you 2,000 horses. But only if you can put riders on them! 9You are > depending on Egypt for chariots and horsemen. You can't drive away > even the least important officer among my master's officials. 10Besides, > do you think I've come without being sent by the LORD? Have I come > to attack and destroy this land without receiving a message from him?
> The LORD himself told me to march out against your country. He told > me to destroy it." ' "

11Then Eliakim, Shebna and Joah spoke to the field commander. They said, "Please speak to us in the Aramaic language. We understand it. Don't speak to us in Hebrew. If you do, the people on the wall will be able to understand you."

[12]But the commander replied, "My master sent me to say these things. Are these words only for your master and you to hear? Aren't they also for the people sitting on the wall? They are going to suffer just like you. They'll have to eat their own waste. They'll have to drink their own urine."

[13]Then the commander stood up and spoke in the Hebrew language. He called out, "Pay attention to what the great king of Assyria is telling you. [14]He says, 'Don't let Hezekiah trick you. He can't save you! [15]Don't let Hezekiah talk you into trusting in the LORD. Don't believe him when he says, "You can be sure that the LORD will save us. This city will not be handed over to the king of Assyria." '

[16]"Don't listen to Hezekiah. The king of Assyria says, 'Make a peace treaty with me. Come over to my side. Then each one of you will eat fruit from your own vine and fig tree. Each one of you will drink water from your own well. [17]You will do that until I come back. Then I'll take you to a land just like yours. It's a land that has a lot of grain and fresh wine. It has plenty of bread and vineyards.

[18]" 'Don't let Hezekiah fool you. He's telling you a lie when he says, "The LORD will save us." Have the gods of any nations ever saved their lands from the power of the king of Assyria? [19]Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they saved Samaria from my power? [20]Which one of all the gods of those countries has been able to save their lands from me? So how can the LORD save Jerusalem from my power?' "

[21]But the people remained silent. They didn't say anything. That's because King Hezekiah had commanded, "Don't answer him."

[22]Then Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, went to Hezekiah. Eliakim was in charge of the palace. Shebna the secretary went with him. So did Joah, the son of Asaph. Joah kept the records. All of them went to Hezekiah with their clothes torn. They told him what the field commander had said.

Isaiah 37

Isaiah Prophesies That Jerusalem Will Be Saved

1When King Hezekiah heard what the field commander had said, he tore his clothes. He put on the rough clothing people wear when they're sad. Then he went into the LORD's temple. 2Hezekiah sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. He also sent the leading priests and Shebna the secretary to him. All of them were wearing rough clothing.
3They told Isaiah, "Hezekiah says, 'Today we're in great trouble. The LORD is warning us. He's bringing shame on us. Sometimes babies come to the moment when they should be born. But their mothers aren't strong enough to give birth to them. Today we are like those mothers. We aren't strong enough to save ourselves. 4Perhaps the LORD your God will hear everything the field commander has said. His master, the king of Assyria, has sent him to make fun of the living God. Maybe the LORD your God will punish him for what he has heard him say. So pray for the remaining people who are still alive here.' " 5King Hezekiah's officials came to Isaiah. 6Then he said to them, "Tell your master, 'The LORD says, "Do not be afraid of what you have heard. The officers who are under the king of Assyria have spoken evil things against me. 7Listen! I will send him news from his own country. It will make him want to return home.

There I will have him cut down by a sword." ' "

8The field commander heard that the king of Assyria had left Lachish. So the commander pulled his troops back from Jerusalem. He went to join the king. He found out that the king was fighting against Libnah.

9During that time Sennacherib received a report. He was told that Tirhakah was marching out to fight against him. Tirhakah was the king of Cush. When Sennacherib heard the report, he sent messengers again to Hezekiah with a letter.
It said, 10"Tell Hezekiah, the king of Judah, 'Don't let the god you depend on trick you. He says, "Jerusalem will not be handed over to the king of Assyria."
But don't believe him. 11I'm sure you have heard about what the kings of Assyria have done to all the other countries. They have destroyed them completely. So do you think you will be saved? 12The kings who ruled before me destroyed many nations. Did the gods of those nations save them? Did the gods of Gozan, Harran or Rezeph save them? What about the gods of the people of Eden who were in Tel Assar? 13Where is the king of Hamath? Where is the king of Arpad? Where are the kings of Lair, Sepharvaim, Hena and Ivvah?' "

Hezekiah Prays to the LORD

14When Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers, he read it. Then he went up to the LORD's temple. There he spread the letter out in front of the LORD. 15Hezekiah prayed to the LORD. He said, 16"LORD who rules over all, you are the God of Israel. You sit on your throne between the cherubim. You alone are God over all the kingdoms on earth. You have made heaven and earth. 17Listen, LORD. Hear us. Open your eyes, LORD. Look at the trouble we're in. Listen to what Sennacherib is saying. You are the living God. And he dares to make fun of you!

18"LORD, it's true that the kings of Assyria have completely destroyed many nations and their lands. 19They have thrown the statues of the gods of those nations into the fire. And they have destroyed them. That's because they weren't really gods at all. They were nothing but statues made out of wood and stone. They were made by human hands. 20LORD our God, save us from the power of Sennacherib. Then all the kingdoms of the earth will know that you are the only God."

Sennacherib Falls From Power

21Isaiah sent a message to Hezekiah. Isaiah said, "The LORD is the God of Israel. He says, 'You have prayed to me about Sennacherib, the king of Assyria. 22So here is the message the LORD has spoken against him. The LORD is telling him,

" ' "You will not win the battle over Zion.
Its people hate you and make fun of you.
The people of Jerusalem lift up their heads proudly as you run away.
23Who have you laughed at?
Who have you spoken evil things against?
Who have you raised your voice against?
Who have you looked at so proudly?
You have done it against me.
I am the Holy One of Israel!
24Through your messengers

you have laughed at me again and again.
And you have said,
‘I have many chariots.
With them I have climbed to the tops of the mountains.
I’ve climbed the highest mountains in Lebanon.
I’ve cut down its tallest cedar trees.
I’ve cut down the best of its juniper trees.
I’ve reached its farthest mountains.
I’ve reached its finest forests.
25I’ve dug wells in other lands.
I’ve drunk the water from them.
I’ve walked through all the streams of Egypt.
I’ve dried up every one of them.’

26“ ‘ “But I, the LORD, say, ‘Haven’t you heard what I have done?
Long ago I arranged for you to do this.
In days of old I planned it.
Now I have made it happen.
You have turned cities with high walls into piles of stone.
27Their people do not have any power left.
They are troubled and put to shame.
They are like plants in the field.
They are like new green plants.
They are like grass that grows on a roof.
It dries up before it is completely grown.

28“ ‘ “ ‘But I know where you are.
I know when you come and go.
I know how very angry you are with me.
29You roar against me and brag.
And I have heard your bragging.
So I will put my hook in your nose.
I will put my bit in your mouth.
And I will make you go home
by the same way you came.’ ” ’ ”

30The LORD said, “Hezekiah, here is a sign for you.

“This year you will eat what grows by itself.
Next year you will eat what grows from that.
But in the third year you will plant your crops and gather them in.
You will plant your grapevines and eat their fruit.
31The people of the kingdom of Judah who are still alive will be like plants.
Once more they will put down roots and produce fruit.
32Out of Jerusalem will come the people who remain.
Out of Mount Zion will come those who are still left alive.
My great love will make sure that happens.
I rule over all.

33“Here is a message from me about the king of Assyria. I say,

“ ‘He will not enter this city.
He will not even shoot an arrow at it.
He will not come near it with a shield.
He will not build a ramp in order to climb over its walls.
34By the way that he came he will go home.
He will not enter this city,’
announces the LORD.
35‘I will guard this city and save it.
I will do it for myself.
And I will do it for my servant David.’ ”

36Then the angel of the LORD went into the camp of the Assyrians. He put to death 185,000 soldiers there. The people of Jerusalem got up the next morning. They looked out and saw all the dead bodies. 37So Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, took the army tents down. Then he left. He returned to Nineveh and stayed there.

38One day Sennacherib was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisrok. His sons Adrammelek and Sharezer killed him with their swords. Then they escaped to the land of Ararat. Esarhaddon became the next king after his father Sennacherib.

Isaiah 38

Hezekiah Becomes Sick and Is Healed

[1]In those days Hezekiah became very sick. He knew he was about to die. Isaiah went to see him. Isaiah was the son of Amoz. Isaiah told Hezekiah, “The LORD says, ‘Put everything in order. Make out your will. You are going to die soon. You will not get well again.’ ”

[2]Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall. He prayed to the LORD. He said, [3]“LORD, please remember how faithful I’ve been to you. I’ve lived the way you wanted me to. I’ve served you with all my heart. I’ve done what is good in your sight.” And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

[4]A message from the LORD came to Isaiah. The LORD said, [5]“Go and speak to Hezekiah. Tell him, ‘The LORD, the God of King David, says, “I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. I will add 15 years to your life. [6]And I will save you and this city from the power of the king of Assyria. I will guard this city.

[7]“ ‘ “Here is a sign from me. It will show you that I will heal you, just as I promised I would. [8]The shadow that was made by the sun has gone down ten steps on the stairway of Ahaz. I will make it go back up those ten steps.” ’ ” So the shadow went back up the ten steps it had gone down.

[9]Here is a song of praise that was written by Hezekiah, the king of Judah. He wrote it after he was sick and had gotten well again.

[10]I said, “I’m enjoying the best years of my life.
Must I now go through the gates of death?
Will the rest of my years be taken away from me?”
[11]I said, “LORD, I’ll never see you again
while I’m still alive.
I’ll never see people anymore.
I’ll never again be with those who live in this world.
[12]My body is like a shepherd’s tent.
It has been pulled down and carried off.
My life is like a piece of cloth that I’ve rolled up.
You have cut it off from the loom.
In a short period of time you have brought my life to an end.

13 I waited patiently until sunrise.
But like a lion you broke all my bones.
In a short period of time you have brought my life to an end.
14 I cried softly like a weak little bird.
I sounded like a dove as I mourned.
My eyes grew tired as I looked up toward heaven.
Lord, my life is in danger. Please come and help me!

15 "But what can I say?
You have promised to heal me.
And you yourself have done it.
Once I was proud and bitter.
But now I will live the rest of my life free of pride.
16 Lord, people find the will to live because you keep your promises.
And my spirit also finds life in your promises.
You brought me back to health.
You let me live.
17 I'm sure it was for my benefit that I suffered such great pain.
You love me. You kept me from going down into the pit of death.
You have put all my sins
behind your back.
18 People in the grave can't praise you.
Dead people can't sing praise to you.
Those who go down to the grave can't hope for you to be faithful to them.
19 It is those who are alive who praise you.
And that's what I'm doing today.
Parents tell their children about how faithful you are.

20 "The LORD will save me.
So we will sing and play music on stringed instruments.
We will sing all the days of our lives in the LORD's temple."

[21]When Hezekiah was sick, Isaiah had said, “Press some figs together. Spread them on a piece of cloth. Apply them to Hezekiah’s boil. Then he’ll get well again.”

[22]At that time Hezekiah had asked, “What will the sign be to prove I’ll go up to the LORD’s temple?” That’s when the LORD had made the shadow go back ten steps.

Isaiah 39

Messengers Come From Babylon to Hezekiah

[1]At that time Marduk-Baladan, the king of Babylon, sent Hezekiah letters and a gift. He had heard that Hezekiah had been sick but had gotten well again.
Marduk-Baladan was the son of Baladan. [2]Hezekiah gladly received the messengers. He showed them what was in his storerooms. He showed them the silver and gold. He took them to where the spices and the fine olive oil were kept. He showed them where he kept all his weapons. And he showed them all his treasures. In fact, he showed them everything that was in his palace and in his whole kingdom.

[3]Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah. Isaiah asked him, "What did those men say? Where did they come from?"

"They came from a land far away," Hezekiah said. "They came to me from Babylon."

[4]Isaiah asked, "What did they see in your palace?"

"They saw everything in my palace," Hezekiah said. "I showed them all my treasures."

[5]Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Listen to the message of the LORD who rules over all. He says, [6]'You can be sure the time will come when everything in your palace will be carried off to Babylon. Everything the kings before you have stored up until this day will be taken away. There will not be anything left,' says the LORD. [7]'Some of the members of your family line will be taken away. They will be your own flesh and blood. They will include the children who will be born into your family line. And they will serve the king of Babylon in his palace.' "

[8]"The message the LORD has spoken through you is good," Hezekiah replied.
He thought, "There will be peace and safety while I'm still living."

Isaiah 40

God Comforts His People

[1]“Comfort my people,” says your God.
“Comfort them.
[2]Speak tenderly to the people of Jerusalem.
Announce to them
that their hard labor has been completed.
Tell them that their sin has been paid for.
Tell them the LORD has punished them enough for all their sins.”

[3]A messenger is calling out,
“In the desert prepare the way for the LORD.
Make a straight road through it for our God.
[4]Every valley will be filled in.
Every mountain and hill will be made level.
The rough ground will be smoothed out.
The rocky places will be made flat.
[5]Then the glory of the LORD will appear.
And everyone will see it together.
The LORD has spoken.”

[6]Another messenger says, “Cry out.”
And I said, “What should I cry?”

“Cry out, ‘All people are like grass.
They don’t stay faithful to me any longer than wildflowers last.
[7]The grass dries up. The flowers fall to the ground.
That happens when the LORD makes his wind blow on them.
So people are just like grass.
[8]The grass dries up. The flowers fall to the ground.
But what our God says will stand forever.’ ”

[9]Zion, you are bringing good news to your people.
Go up on a high mountain and announce it.
Jerusalem, you are bringing good news to them.
Shout the message loudly.
Shout it out loud. Don’t be afraid.
Say to the towns of Judah,
“Your God is coming!”
[10]The LORD and King is coming with power.
He rules with a powerful arm.
He has set his people free.
He is bringing them back as his reward.
He has won the battle over their enemies.
[11]He takes care of his flock like a shepherd.
He gathers the lambs in his arms.
He carries them close to his heart.
He gently leads those that have little ones.

[12]Who has measured the oceans by using the palm of his hand?
Who has used the width of his hand to mark off the sky?
Who has measured out the dust of the earth in a basket?
Who has weighed the mountains on scales?
Who has weighed the hills in a balance?
[13]Who can ever understand the Spirit of the LORD?
Who can ever give him advice?
[14]Did the LORD have to ask anyone to help him understand?
Did he have to ask someone to teach him the right way?
Who taught him what he knows?
Who showed him how to understand?

[15]The nations are only a drop in a bucket to him.
He considers them as nothing but dust on the scales.
He weighs the islands as if they were only fine dust.
[16]Lebanon doesn’t have enough trees to keep his altar fires burning.
It doesn’t have enough animals to sacrifice as burnt offerings to him.
[17]To him, all the nations don’t amount to anything.
He considers them to be worthless.

In fact, they are less than nothing in his sight.

18 So who will you compare God with?
Is there any other god like him?
19 Will you compare him with a statue of a god?
Anyone who works with metal can make a statue.
Then another worker covers it with gold and makes silver chains for it.
20 But someone who is too poor to bring that kind of offering will choose some wood that won't rot.
Then they look for a skilled worker.
They pay the worker to make a statue of a god that won't fall over.

21 Don't you know who made everything?
Haven't you heard about him?
Hasn't it been told to you from the beginning?
Haven't you understood it ever since the earth was made?
22 God sits on his throne high above the earth.
Its people look like grasshoppers to him.
He spreads out the heavens like a cover.
He sets it up like a tent to live in.
23 He takes the power of princes away from them.
He reduces the rulers of this world to nothing.
24 They are planted.
They are scattered like seeds.
They put down roots in the ground.
But as soon as that happens, God blows on them and they dry up.
Then a windstorm sweeps them away like straw.

25 "So who will you compare me with?
Who is equal to me?" says the Holy One.
26 Look up toward the sky.
Who created everything you see?
The LORD causes the stars to come out at night one by one.
He calls out each one of them by name.
His power and strength are great.
So none of the stars is missing.

[27]Family of Jacob, why do you complain,
“The LORD doesn’t notice our condition”?
People of Israel, why do you say,
“Our God doesn’t pay any attention to our rightful claims”?
[28]Don’t you know who made everything?
Haven’t you heard about him?
The LORD is the God who lives forever.
He created everything on earth.
He won’t become worn out or get tired.
No one will ever know how great his understanding is.
[29]He gives strength to those who are tired.
He gives power to those who are weak.
[30]Even young people become worn out and get tired.
Even the best of them trip and fall.
[31]But those who trust in the LORD will receive new strength.
They will fly as high as eagles.
They will run and not get tired.
They will walk and not grow weak.

Isaiah 41

The LORD Helps Israel

[1]The LORD says, “People who live on the islands, come and stand quietly in front of me.
Let the nations gain new strength in order to state their case.
Let them come forward and speak.
Let us go to court and find out who is right.

[2]“Who has stirred up a king from the east?
Who has helped him win his battles?
I hand nations over to him.
I bring kings under his control.
He turns them into dust with his sword.
With his bow he turns them into straw blowing in the wind.
[3]He hunts them down. Then he moves on unharmed.
He travels so fast that his feet
don’t seem to touch the ground.
[4]Who has made that happen? Who has carried it out?
Who has created all the people who have ever lived?
I, the LORD, have done it.
I was with the first of them.
And I will be with the last of them.”

[5]The people on the islands have seen that king coming.
And it has made them afraid.
People tremble with fear from one end of the earth to the other.
They come and gather together.
[6]They help one another.
They say to one another, “Be strong!”
[7]One skilled worker makes a statue of a god.
Another covers it with gold.
The first worker says to the second,
“You have done a good job.”
Another worker smooths out the metal with a hammer.

Still another gives the statue its final shape.
The one who hammers says to the one who shapes,
"You have done a good job."
Then they nail the statue down so it won't fall over.

[8]The LORD says, "People of Israel, you are my servants.
Family of Jacob, I have chosen you.
You are the children of my friend Abraham.
[9]I gathered you from one end of the earth to the other.
From the farthest places on earth I brought you together.
I said, 'You are my servants.'
I have chosen you.
I have not turned my back on you.
[10]So do not be afraid. I am with you.
Do not be terrified. I am your God.
I will make you strong and help you.
I will hold you safe in my hands.
I always do what is right.

[11]"All those who are angry with you will be put to shame.
And they will be dishonored.
Those who oppose you will be destroyed.
And they will vanish.
[12]You might search for your enemies.
But you will not find them.
Those who go to war against you will completely disappear.
[13]I am the LORD your God.
I take hold of your right hand.
I say to you, 'Do not be afraid.
I will help you.'
[14]Family of Jacob, you are as weak as a worm.
But do not be afraid.
People of Israel, there are only a few of you.
But do not be afraid.
I myself will help you," announces the LORD.
He is the one who sets his people free.
He is the Holy One of Israel.

15 He says, “I will make you into a threshing sled.
It will be new and sharp.
It will have many teeth.
You will grind the mountains down and crush them.
You will turn the hills into nothing but straw.
16 You will toss them in the air.
A strong wind will catch them and blow them away.
You will be glad because I will make that happen.
You will praise me.
I am the Holy One of Israel.

17 “Those who are poor and needy search for water.
But there isn’t any.
Their tongues are dry because they are thirsty.
But I will help them. I am the LORD.
I will not desert them.
I am Israel’s God.
18 I will make streams flow on the bare hilltops.
I will make springs come up in the valleys.
I will turn the desert into pools of water.
I will turn the dry and cracked ground into flowing springs.
19 I will make trees grow in the desert.
I will plant cedar and acacia trees there.
I will plant myrtle and olive trees there.
I will make juniper trees grow in the dry and empty desert.
I will plant fir and cypress trees there.
20 Then people will see and know that my powerful hand has done it.
They will consider and understand that I have created it.
I am the Holy One of Israel.”

21 The LORD says to the nations and their gods,
“State your case.”
Jacob’s King says to them,
“Prove your case to me.
22 Tell us, you false gods,
what is going to happen.

Tell us what happened in the past.
Then we can check it out and see if it is really true.
Or announce to us the things that will take place.
23 Tell us what will happen in the days ahead.
Then we will know that you are gods.
Do something. It does not matter whether it is good or bad.
Then we will be terrified and filled with fear.
24 But you false gods are less than nothing.
Your actions are completely worthless.
I hate it when people worship you.

25 "I have stirred up a king who will come from the north.
He lives in the east.
He will bring honor to me.
He walks all over rulers as if they were mud.
He steps on them just as a potter stomps on clay.
26 Which one of you false gods said those things would happen before they did?
Who told us about them
so we could know them?
Who told us ahead of time?
Who told us so we could say,
'You are right'?
None of you false gods told us about them.
None of you told us ahead of time.
In fact, no one heard you say anything at all.
27 I was the first to tell Zion.
I said, 'Look! The people of Israel are coming back!'
I sent a messenger to Jerusalem with the good news.
28 I look, but there is no one among the gods that can give me advice.
None of them can answer
when I ask them the simplest question.
29 So they are not really gods at all.
What they do does not amount to anything.
They are as useless as wind.

Isaiah 42

The LORD's Chosen Servant

[1]"Here is my servant. I take good care of him.
I have chosen him. I am very pleased with him.
I will put my Spirit on him.
He will bring justice to the nations.
[2]He will not shout or cry out.
He will not raise his voice in the streets.
[3]He will not break a bent twig.
He will not put out a dimly burning flame.
He will be faithful and make everything right.
[4]He will not grow weak or lose hope.
He will not give up until he brings justice to the earth.
The islands will put their hope in his teaching."

[5]God created the heavens and stretches them out.
The LORD spreads out the earth with everything that grows on it.
He gives breath to its people.
He gives life to those who walk on it.
He says to his servant,
[6]"I, the LORD, have chosen you to do what is right.
I will take hold of your hand.
I will keep you safe.
You will put into effect my covenant with the people of Israel.
And you will be a light for the Gentiles.
[7]You will open eyes that can't see.
You will set prisoners free.
Those who sit in darkness will come out of their cells.

[8]"I am the LORD. That is my name!
I will not let any other god share my glory.
I will not let statues of gods share my praise.
[9]What I said would happen has taken place.
Now I announce new things to you.

Before they even begin to happen,
I announce them to you.”

A Song of Praise to the LORD

10 Sing a new song to the LORD.
Sing praise to him from one end of the earth to the other.
Sing, you who sail out on the ocean.
Sing, all you creatures in it.
Sing, you islands.
Sing, all you who live there.
11 Let the desert and its towns raise their voices.
Let those who live in the settlements of Kedar be glad.
Let the people of Sela sing for joy.
Let them shout from the tops of the mountains.
12 Let them give glory to the LORD.
Let them praise him in the islands.
13 The LORD will march out like a mighty warrior.
He will stir up his anger like a soldier getting ready to fight.
He will shout the battle cry.
And he will win the battle over his enemies.

14 The LORD says, “For a long time I have kept silent.
I have been calm and quiet.
But now, like a woman having a baby,
I cry out. I gasp and pant.
15 I will completely destroy the mountains and hills.
I will dry up everything that grows there.
I will turn rivers into dry land.
I will dry up the pools.
16 Israel is blind.
So I will lead them along paths
they had not known before.
I will guide them on roads they are not familiar with.
I will turn the darkness into light as they travel.
I will make the rough places smooth.
Those are the things I will do.
I will not desert my people.

17 Some people trust in statues of gods.
They say to them, ‘You are our gods.’
But they will be dishonored.
They will be put to shame.

Israel Can’t See or Hear

18 “Israel, listen to me! You can hear, but you do not understand.
Look to me! You can see,
but you do not know what you are seeing.
19 The people of Israel serve me. But who is more blind than they are?
Who is more deaf than the messengers I send?
Who is more blind than the one who has promised to be faithful to me?
Who is more blind than the servant of the LORD?
20 Israel, you have seen many things.
But you do not pay any attention to me.
Your ears are open.
But you do not listen to anything I say.”
21 The LORD wanted his people to see how great and glorious his law is.
He wanted to show them
that he always does what is right.
22 Enemies have carried off everything they own.
All my people are trapped in pits or hidden away in prisons.
They themselves have become like stolen goods.
No one can save them.
They have been carried off.
And there is no one who will say, “Send them back.”

23 Family of Jacob, who among you will listen to what I’m saying?
People of Israel, which one of you will pay close attention in days to come?
24 Who allowed you to be carried off like stolen goods?
Who handed you over to robbers?

The LORD did it!
    We have sinned against him.
Israel, you wouldn’t follow his ways.
    You didn’t obey his law.
25So he poured out his great anger on you.
    He had many of you killed in battle.
You were surrounded by flames.
    But you didn’t realize what was happening.
Many of you were destroyed.
    But you didn’t learn anything from it.

Isaiah 43

The LORD Saves Israel

[1]Family of Jacob, the LORD created you.
People of Israel, he formed you.
He says, “Do not be afraid.
I will set you free.
I will send for you by name.
You belong to me.
[2]You will pass through deep waters.
But I will be with you.
You will pass through the rivers.
But their waters will not sweep over you.
You will walk through fire.
But you will not be burned.
The flames will not harm you.
[3]I am the LORD your God.
I am the Holy One of Israel.
I am the one who saves you.
I will give up Egypt to set you free.
I will give up Cush and Seba for you.
[4]You are priceless to me.
I love you and honor you.
So I will trade other people for you.
I will give up other nations to save your lives.
[5]Do not be afraid. I am with you.
I will bring your people back from the east.
I will gather you from the west.
[6]I will say to the north, ‘Let them go!’
And I will say to the south, ‘Do not hold them back.’
Bring my sons from far away.
Bring my daughters from the farthest places on earth.
[7]Bring back everyone who belongs to me.
I created them to bring glory to me.
I formed them and made them.”

[8]Lead my people into court.
They have eyes but can't see.
Bring those who have ears but can't hear.
[9]All the nations are gathering together.
All of them are coming.
Which one of their gods said ahead of time that the people of Israel would return?
Which of them told us anything at all about the past?
Let them bring in their witnesses to prove they were right.
Then others will hear them. And they will say,
"What they said is true."
[10]"People of Israel, you are my witnesses," announces the LORD.
"I have chosen you to be my servant.
I wanted you to know me and believe in me.
I wanted you to understand that I am the one and only God.
Before me, there was no other god at all.
And there will not be any god after me.
[11]I am the one and only LORD.
I am the only one who can save you.
[12]I have made known what would happen.
I saved you. I have told you about it.
I did this. It was not some other god you worship.
You are my witnesses that I am God," announces the LORD.
[13]"And that is not all! I have always been God, and I always will be.
No one can save people from my power.
When I do something, who can undo it?"

The LORD Is Full of Mercy but Israel Is Unfaithful

[14]The LORD sets his people free.
He is the Holy One of Israel. He says,
"People of Israel, I will send an army to Babylon to save you.
I will cause all the Babylonians to run away.
They will try to escape in the ships they were so proud of.
[15]I am your LORD and King.
I am your Holy One.
I created you."

16 Long ago the LORD opened a way for his people to go through the Red Sea.
He made a path through the mighty waters.
17 He caused Egypt to send out its chariots and horses.
He sent its entire army to its death.
Its soldiers lay down there.
They never got up again.
They were destroyed.
They were blown out like a dimly burning flame.
But the LORD says,
18 "Forget the things that happened in the past.
Do not keep on thinking about them.
19 I am about to do something new.
It is beginning to happen even now.
Don't you see it coming?
I am going to make a way for you to go through the desert.
I will make streams of water in the dry and empty land.
20 Even wild dogs and owls honor me.
That is because I provide water in the desert for my people to drink.
I cause streams to flow in the dry and empty land for my chosen ones.
21 I do it for the people I made for myself.
I want them to sing praise to me.

22 "Family of Jacob, you have not prayed to me as you should.
People of Israel, you have not worn yourselves out for me.
23 You have not brought me sheep for burnt offerings.
You have not honored me with your sacrifices.
I have not loaded you down
by requiring grain offerings.
I have not made you tired
by requiring you to burn incense.
24 But you have not bought any sweet-smelling cane for me.
You have not given me the fattest parts of your animal sacrifices.
Instead, you have loaded me down with your sins.
You have made me tired with the wrong things you have done.

25 “I am the one who wipes out your lawless acts.
I do it because of who I am.
I will not remember your sins anymore.
26 But let us go to court together.
Remind me of what you have done.
State your case.
Prove to me that you are not guilty.
27 Your father Jacob sinned.
The people I sent to teach you refused to obey me.
28 So I put the high officials of your temple to shame.
I let Jacob’s family be totally destroyed.
And I let people make fun of Israel.

Isaiah 44

The LORD Chooses Israel

[1]“Family of Jacob, listen to me. You are my servant.
People of Israel, I have chosen you.
[2]I made you. I formed you when you were born as a nation.
I will help you.
So listen to what I am saying.
Family of Jacob, do not be afraid. You are my servant.
People of Israel, I have chosen you.
[3]I will pour out water on the thirsty land.
I will make streams flow on the dry ground.
I will pour out my Spirit on your children.
I will pour out my blessing on their children after them.
[4]They will spring up like grass in a meadow.
They will grow like poplar trees near flowing streams.
[5]Some will say, ‘We belong to the LORD.’
Others will call themselves by Jacob’s name.
Still others will write on their hands,
‘We belong to the LORD.’
And they will be called by the name of Israel.

Worship the LORD, Not False Gods

[6]“I am Israel’s King. I set them free.
I am the LORD who rules over all.
So listen to what I am saying.
I am the first and the last.
I am the one and only God.
[7]Who is like me? Let him come forward and speak boldly.
Let him tell me everything that has happened
since I created my people long ago.
And let him tell me what has not happened yet.
Let him announce ahead of time what is going to take place.
[8]Do not tremble with fear. Do not be afraid.
Didn’t I announce everything that has happened?

Didn’t I tell you about it long ago?
You are my witnesses. Is there any other God but me?
No! There is no other Rock. I do not know even one.”

9 Those who make statues of gods don’t amount to anything.
And the statues they think so much of are worthless.
Those who would speak up for them are blind.
They don’t know anything.
So they will be put to shame.
10 People make statues of gods.
But those gods can’t do any good.
11 People who do that will be put to shame.
Those who make statues of gods are mere human beings.
Let all of them come together and state their case.
They will be terrified and put to shame.

12 A blacksmith gets his tool.
He uses it to shape metal over the burning coals.
He uses his hammers to make a statue of a god.
He forms it with his powerful arm.
He gets hungry and loses his strength.
He doesn’t drink any water.
He gets weaker and weaker.
13 A carpenter measures a piece of wood with a line.
He draws a pattern on it with a marker.
He cuts out a statue with sharp tools.
He marks it with compasses.
He shapes it into the form of a beautiful human being.
He does this so he can put it in a temple.
14 He cuts down a cedar tree.
Or perhaps he takes a cypress or an oak tree.
It might be a tree that grew in the forest.
Or it might be a pine tree he planted.
And the rain made it grow.
15 A man gets wood from trees to burn.
He uses some of it to warm himself.
He starts a fire and bakes bread.
But he also uses some of it to make a god and worship it.

He makes a statue of a god and bows down to it.
16 He burns half of the wood in the fire.
He prepares a meal over it.
He cooks meat over it.
He eats until he is full.
He also warms himself. He says,
"Good! I'm getting warm.
The fire is nice and hot."
17 From the rest of the wood he makes a statue.
It becomes his god.
He bows down and worships it.
He prays to it. He says,
"Save me! You are my god!"
18 People like that don't even know what they are doing.
Their eyes are shut so that they can't see the truth.
Their minds are closed so that they can't understand it.
19 No one even stops to think about this.
No one has any sense or understanding.
If anyone did, they would say,
"I used half of the wood for fuel.
I even baked bread over the fire.
I cooked meat. Then I ate it.
Should I now make a statue of a god out of the wood that's left over?
Should I bow down to a block of wood?
The LORD would hate that."
20 That's as foolish as eating ashes!
The mind of someone like that has led him astray.
He can't save himself.
He can't bring himself to say,
"This thing I'm holding in my right hand isn't really a god at all."

21 The LORD says, "Family of Jacob, remember these things.
People of Israel, you are my servant.
I have made you. You are my servant.
Israel, I will not forget you.

[22]I will sweep your sins away as if they were a cloud.
I will blow them away as if they were the morning mist.
Return to me.
Then I will set you free.”

[23]Sing for joy, you heavens!
The LORD does wonderful things.
Shout out loud, you earth!
Burst into song, you mountains!
Sing, you forests and all your trees!
The LORD sets the family of Jacob free.
He shows his glory in Israel.

People Will Live in Jerusalem Again

[24]The LORD says,
“People of Israel, I set you free.
I formed you when you were born as a nation.

“I am the LORD. I am the Maker of everything.
I alone stretch out the heavens.
I spread out the earth by myself.

[25]“Some prophets are not really prophets at all.
I show that their signs are fake.
I make those who practice evil magic look foolish.
I destroy the learning of those who think they are wise.
Their knowledge does not make any sense at all.
[26]I make the words of my servants the prophets come true.
I carry out what my messengers say will happen.

“I say about Jerusalem,
‘My people will live there again.’
I say about the towns of Judah,
‘They will be rebuilt.’
I say about their broken-down buildings,
‘I will make them like new again.’
[27]I say to the deep waters,

‘Dry up. Let your streams become dry.’
28I say about Cyrus,
‘He is my shepherd.
He will accomplish everything I want him to.
He will say about Jerusalem,
“Let it be rebuilt.”
And he will say about the temple,
“Let its foundations be laid.” ’

Isaiah 45

[1]“Cyrus is my anointed king.
I take hold of his right hand.
I give him the power to bring nations under his control.
I help him strip kings of their power to go to war against him.
I break city gates open so he can go through them.
I say to him,
[2]‘I will march out ahead of you.
I will make the mountains level.
I will break down bronze gates.
I will cut through their heavy iron bars.
[3]I will give you treasures that are hidden away.
I will give you riches that are stored up in secret places.
Then you will know that I am the LORD.
I am the God of Israel.
I am sending for you by name.
[4]Cyrus, I am sending for you by name.
I am doing it for the good of the family of Jacob.
They are my servant.
I am doing it for Israel.
They are my chosen people.
You do not know anything about me.
But I am giving you a title of honor.
[5]I am the LORD. There is no other LORD.
I am the one and only God.
You do not know anything about me.
But I will make you strong.
[6]Then people will know there is no God but me.
Everyone from where the sun rises in the east to where it sets in the west will know it.
I am the LORD.
There is no other LORD.
[7]I cause light to shine. I also create darkness.
I bring good times. I also create hard times.

I do all these things. I am the LORD.

8“ ‘Rain down my godliness, you heavens above.
Let the clouds shower it down.
Let the earth open wide to receive it.
Let freedom spring to life.
Let godliness grow richly along with it.
I have created all these things.
I am the LORD.’ ”

9How terrible it will be for anyone who argues with their Maker!
They are like a broken piece of pottery lying on the ground.
Does clay say to a potter,
“What are you making?”
Does a pot say,
“The potter doesn’t have any skill”?
10How terrible it will be for anyone who says to a father,
“Why did you give me life?”
How terrible for anyone who says to a mother,
“Why have you brought me into the world?”

11The LORD is the Holy One of Israel.
He made them.
He says to them,
“Are you asking me about what will happen to my children?
Are you telling me what I should do with what my hands have made?
12I made the earth.
I created human beings to live there.
My own hands spread out the heavens.
I put all the stars in their places.
13I will stir up Cyrus and help him win his battles.
I will make all his roads straight.
He will rebuild Jerusalem.
My people have been taken away from their country.
But he will set them free.
I will not pay him to do it.
He will not receive a reward for it,”

says the LORD who rules over all.

14 The LORD says to the people of Jerusalem,

"You will get everything Egypt produces.
You will receive everything the people of Cush and the tall Sabeans get in trade.
All of it will belong to you.
And all these people will walk behind you as slaves.
They will be put in chains and come over to you.
They will bow down to you.
They will admit,
'God is with you.
There is no other God.' "

15 You are a God who has been hiding yourself.
You are the God of Israel. You save us.
16 All those who make statues of gods will be put to shame.
They will be dishonored.
They will be led away in shame together.
17 But the LORD will save Israel.
He will save them forever.
They will never be put to shame or dishonored.
That will be true for all time to come.

18 The LORD created the heavens.
He is God.
He formed the earth and made it.
He set it firmly in place.
He didn't create it to be empty.
Instead, he formed it for people to live on.
He says, "I am the LORD.
There is no other LORD.
19 I have not spoken in secret.
I have not spoken from a dark place.
I have not said to Jacob's people,
'It is useless to look for me.'
I am the LORD. I always speak the truth.

I always say what is right.

20 “Come together, you people of the nations who escaped from Babylon.
Gather together and come into court.
Only people who do not know anything would carry around gods that are made out of wood.
They pray to false gods that can’t save them.
21 Tell me what will happen. State your case.
Talk it over together.
Who spoke long ago about what would happen?
Who said it a long time ago?
I did. I am the LORD.
I am the one and only God.
I always do what is right.
I am the one who saves.
There is no God but me.

22 “All you who live anywhere on earth,
turn to me and be saved.
I am God. There is no other God.
23 I have made a promise in my own name.
I have spoken with complete honesty.
I will not take back a single word. I said,
‘Everyone will kneel down to me.
Everyone’s mouth will make promises in my name.’
24 They will say, ‘The LORD is the only one who can save us.
Only he can make us strong.’ ”
All those who have been angry with the LORD will come to him.
And they will be put to shame.
25 But the LORD will save all the people of Israel.
And so they will boast about the LORD.

Isaiah 46

The False Gods of Babylon

[1]The gods named Bel and Nebo are brought down in shame.
The statues of them are being carried away on the backs of animals.
They used to be carried around by the people who worshiped them.
But now they've become a heavy load for tired animals.
[2]The gods named Bel and Nebo are brought down in shame together.
They aren't able to save their own statues.
They themselves are carried off as prisoners.

[3]The LORD says, "Family of Jacob, listen to me.
Pay attention, you people of Israel who are left alive.
I have taken good care of you since your life began.
I have carried you since you were born as a nation.
[4]I will continue to carry you even when you are old.
I will take good care of you even when your hair is gray.
I have made you, and I will carry you.
I will take care of you, and I will save you.
I am the LORD.

[5]"Who will you compare me with?
Who is equal to me?
What am I like?
Who can you compare me with?
[6]Some people pour out gold from their bags.
They weigh out silver on the scales.
They hire someone who works with gold to make it into a god.
They bow down to it and worship it.
[7]They lift it up on their shoulders and carry it.
They set it up in its place, and there it stands.
It can't move from that spot.
Someone might cry out to it.
But it does not answer.

It can’t save them from their troubles.
8So remember this, you who refuse to obey me.
Keep it in your minds and hearts.

9“Remember what happened in the past.
Think about what took place long ago.
I am God. There is no other God.
I am God. There is no one like me.
10Before something even happens, I announce how it will end.
In fact, from times long ago I announced what was still to come.
I say, ‘My plan will succeed.
I will do anything I want to do.’
11I will send for a man from the east to carry out my plan.
From a land far away, he will come like a bird that kills its food.
I will bring about what I have said.
I will do what I have planned.
12Listen to me, you stubborn people.
Pay attention, you who now refuse to do what I have said is right.
13The time is almost here for me to make everything right.
It is not far away.
The time for me to save you will not be put off.
I will save the city of Zion.
I will bring honor to Israel.

Isaiah 47

Babylon Will Fall

[1]“City of Babylon, go down and sit in the dust.
Leave your throne and sit on the ground.
Queen city of the Babylonians, your life will not be comfortable and easy anymore.
[2]Get millstones and grind some flour like a female slave.
Take off your veil.
Lift up your skirts. Make your legs bare.
Wade through the streams.
[3]Everyone will see your naked body.
Everyone will see your shame.
I will pay you back for what you did.
I will not spare any of your people.”

[4]The one who sets us free is the Holy One of Israel.
His name is the LORD Who Rules Over All.

[5]The LORD says, “Queen city of the Babylonians, go into a dark prison. Sit there quietly.
You will not be called the queen of kingdoms anymore.
[6]I was angry with my people.
I treated them as if they did not belong to me.
I handed them over to you.
And you did not show them any pity.
You even placed heavy loads on their old people.
[7]You said, ‘I am queen forever!’
But you did not think about what you were doing.
You did not consider how things might turn out.

[8]“So listen, you who love pleasure.
You think you are safe and secure.

You say to yourself,
‘I am like a god.
No one is greater than I am.
I’ll never be a widow.
And my children will never be taken away from me.’
9But both of these things will happen to you in a moment.
They will take place on a single day.
You will lose your children.
And you will become a widow.
That is what will happen to you.
All your evil magic
and powerful spells will not save you.
10You have felt secure in your evil ways.
You have said, ‘No one sees what I’m doing.’
Your wisdom and knowledge lead you astray.
You say to yourself,
‘I am like a god. No one is greater than I am.’
11So horrible trouble will come on you.
You will not know how to use your evil magic to make it go away.
Great trouble will fall on you.
No amount of money can keep it away.
Something terrible will happen to you all at once.
You will not see it coming ahead of time.

12“So keep on casting your magic spells.
Keep on practicing your evil magic.
You have been doing those things ever since you were a child.
Perhaps they will help you.
Maybe they will scare your enemies away.
13All the advice you have received has only worn you out!
Let those who study the heavens come forward.
They claim to know what is going to happen
by watching the stars every month.
So let them save you from the trouble that is coming on you.
14They are just like straw.

Fire will burn them up.
They can’t even save themselves
from the powerful flames.
These are not like coals that can warm anyone.
This is not like a fire to sit by.
15They can’t do you any good.
You have done business with them ever since you were a child.
You have always asked them for advice.
All of them are bewildered and continue in their own ways.
None of them can save you.”

Isaiah 48

Israel Is Stubborn

[1]People of Jacob, listen to me.
You are called by the name of Israel.
You come from the family line of Judah.
You make promises in the name of the LORD.
You pray to Israel's God.
But you aren't honest.
You don't mean what you say.
[2]You call yourselves citizens of the holy city of Jerusalem.
You say you depend on Israel's God.
His name is the LORD Who Rules Over All. He says,
[3]"Long ago I told you ahead of time what would happen.
I announced it and made it known.
Then all of a sudden I acted.
And those things took place.
[4]I knew how stubborn you were.
Your neck muscles were as unbending as iron.
Your forehead was as hard as bronze.
[5]So I told you those things long ago.
Before they happened I announced them to you.
I did it so you would not be able to say,
'My statues of gods did them.
My wooden and metal gods made them happen.'
[6]You have heard me tell you these things.
Think about all of them.
Won't you admit they have taken place?

"From now on I will tell you about new things that will happen.
I have not made them known to you before.
[7]These things are taking place right now.
They did not happen long ago.
You have not heard of them before today.
So you can't say,
'Oh, yes. I already knew about them.'

[8]You have not heard or understood what I said.
Your ears have been plugged up for a long time.
I knew very well that you would turn against me.
From the day you were born, you have refused to obey me.
[9]For the honor of my own name I wait to show my anger.
I hold it back from you so people will continue to praise me.
I do not want to destroy you completely.
[10]I have tested you in the furnace of suffering.
I have tried to make you pure.
But I did not use as much heat as it takes to make silver pure.
[11]I tried to purify you for my own honor.
I did it for the honor of my name.
How can I let myself be dishonored?
I will not give up my glory to any other god.

Israel Is Set Free

[12]"Family of Jacob, listen to me.
People of Israel, pay attention.
I have chosen you.
I am the first and the last.
I am the LORD.
[13]With my own hand I laid the foundations of the earth.
With my right hand I spread out the heavens.
When I send for them,
they come and stand ready to obey me.

[14]"People of Israel, come together and listen to me.
What other god has said ahead of time that certain things would happen?
I have chosen Cyrus.
He will carry out my plans against Babylon.
He will use his power against the Babylonians.
[15]I myself have spoken.
I have chosen him to carry out my purpose.
I will bring him to Babylon.
He will succeed in what I tell him to do.

16 “Come close and listen to me.

“From the first time I said Cyrus was coming,
I did not do it in secret.
When he comes, I will be there.”

The LORD and King has filled me with his Spirit.
People of Israel, he has sent me to you.

17 The LORD is the Holy One of Israel.
He sets his people free. He says to them,
“I am the LORD your God.
I teach you what is best for you.
I direct you in the way you should go.
18 I wish you would pay attention to my commands.
If you did, peace would flow over you like a river.
Godliness would sweep over you like the waves of the ocean.
19 Your family would be like the sand.
Your children after you would be as many as the grains of sand by the sea.
It would be impossible to count them.
I would always accept the members of your family line.
They would never disappear or be destroyed.”

20 People of Israel, leave Babylon!
Hurry up and get away from the Babylonians!
Here is what I want you to announce.
Make it known with shouts of joy.
Send the news out from one end of the earth to the other.
Say, “The LORD has set free his servant Jacob.”
21 They didn’t get thirsty when he led them through the deserts.
He made water flow out of the rock for them.
He broke the rock open,
and water came out of it.

22 “There is no peace for those who are evil,” says the LORD.

Isaiah 49

The Servant of the LORD

[1]People who live on the islands, listen to me.
Pay attention, you nations far away.
Before I was born the LORD chose me to serve him.
Before I was born the LORD spoke my name.
[2]He made my words like a sharp sword.
He hid me in the palm of his hand.
He made me into a sharpened arrow.
He took good care of me and kept me safe.
[3]He said to me, “You are my true servant Israel.
I will show my glory through you.”
[4]But I said, “In spite of my hard work,
I feel as if I haven’t accomplished anything.
I’ve used up all my strength.
It seems as if everything I’ve done is worthless.
But the LORD will give me what I should receive.
My God will reward me.”

[5]The LORD formed me in my mother’s body to be his servant.
He wanted me to bring the family of Jacob back to him.
He wanted me to gather the people of Israel to himself.
The LORD will honor me.
My God will give me strength.

[6]Here is what the LORD says to me.

“It is not enough for you as my servant
to bring the tribes of Jacob back to their land.
It is not enough for you to bring back the people of Israel I have kept alive.
I will also make you a light for the Gentiles.
Then you will make it possible for the whole world to be saved.”

[7]The LORD sets his people free.
He is the Holy One of Israel.
He speaks to his servant, who is looked down on and hated by the nations.
He speaks to the servant of rulers. He says to him,
"Kings will see you and stand up to honor you.
Princes will see you and bow down to show you their respect.
I am the LORD. I am faithful.
I am the Holy One of Israel.
I have chosen you."

Israel Is Brought Back to Their Land

[8]The LORD says to his servant,

"When it is time to have mercy on you, I will answer your prayers.
When it is time to save you, I will help you.
I will keep you safe.
You will put into effect my covenant with the people of Israel.
Then their land will be made like new again.
Each tribe will be sent back to its territory that was left empty.
[9]I want you to say to the prisoners, 'Come out.'
Tell those who are in their dark cells, 'You are free!'

"On their way home they will eat beside the roads.
They will find plenty to eat on every bare hill.
[10]They will not get hungry or thirsty.
The heat from the desert sun will not beat down on them.
The God who has tender love for them will guide them.
Like a shepherd, he will lead them beside springs of water.
[11]I will make roads across the mountains.
I will build wide roads for my people.
[12]They will come from far away.
Some of them will come from the north.
Others will come from the west.
Still others will come from Aswan in the south."

[13]Shout for joy, you heavens!

Be glad, you earth!
Burst into song, you mountains!
The LORD will comfort his people.
He will show his tender love to those who are suffering.

14 But the city of Zion said, “The LORD has deserted me.
The Lord has forgotten me.”

15 The LORD answers, “Can a mother forget the baby who is nursing at her breast?
Can she stop having tender love for the child who was born to her?
She might forget her child.
But I will not forget you.
16 I have written your name on the palms of my hands.
Your walls are never out of my sight.
17 Your people will hurry back.
Those who destroyed you so completely will leave you.
18 Look up. Look all around you.
All your people are getting together to come back to you.
You can be sure that I live,”
announces the LORD.
“And you can be just as sure that your people will be like decorations you will wear.
Like a bride, you will wear them proudly.

19 “Zion, you were destroyed. Your land was left empty.
It was turned into a dry and empty desert.
But now you will be too small to hold all your people.
And those who destroyed you will be far away.
20 The children born during your time of sorrow will speak to you. They will say,
‘This city is too small for us.
Give us more space to live in.’
21 Then you will say to yourself,
‘Whose children are these?
I lost my children.

And I couldn’t have any more.
My children were taken far away from me.
And no one wanted them.
Who brought these children up?
I was left all alone.
So where have these children come from?’ ”

22The LORD and King continues,

“I will call out to the nations.
I will give a signal to them.
They will bring back your sons in their arms.
They will carry your daughters on their hips.
23Their kings will become like fathers to you.
Their queens will be like mothers who nurse you.
They will bow down to you with their faces toward the ground.
They will kiss the dust at your feet to show you their respect.
Then you will know that I am the LORD.
Those who put their hope in me will not be ashamed.”

24Can goods that were stolen by soldiers be taken away from them?
Can prisoners be set free from the powerful Babylonians?

25“Yes, they can,” the LORD answers.

“Prisoners will be taken away from soldiers.
Stolen goods will be taken back from the powerful Babylonians.
Zion, I will fight against those who fight against you.
And I will save your people.
26I will make those who treat you badly eat the flesh of others.
They will drink blood and get drunk on it as if it were wine.
Then everyone on earth will know that I am the one who saves you.
I am the LORD. I set you free.
I am the Mighty One of Jacob.”

Isaiah 50

Israel Sins but the LORD's Servant Obeys

[1]The LORD says to the people in Jerusalem,

"Do you think I divorced your people who lived before you?
Is that why I sent them away?
If it is, show me the letter of divorce.
I did not sell you into slavery to pay someone I owe.
You were sold because you sinned against me.
Your people were sent away because of their lawless acts.
[2]When I came to save you, why didn't anyone welcome me?
When I called out to you, why didn't anyone answer me?
Wasn't I powerful enough to set you free?
Wasn't I strong enough to save you?
I dry up the sea with a single command.
I turn rivers into a desert.
Then fish rot because they do not have any water.
They die because they are thirsty.
[3]I make the sky turn dark.
It looks as if it's dressed in clothing sad people wear."

[4]The LORD and King has taught me what to say.
He has taught me how to help those who are tired.
He wakes me up every morning.
He makes me want to listen like a good student.
[5]The LORD and King has unplugged my ears.
I've always obeyed him.
I haven't turned away from him.
[6]I let my enemies beat me on my bare back.
I let them pull the hair out of my beard.
I didn't turn my face away
when they made fun of me and spit on me.
[7]The LORD and King helps me.
He won't let me be dishonored.
So I've made up my mind to keep on serving him.

I know he won’t let me be put to shame.
[8]He is near. He will prove I haven’t done anything wrong.
So who will bring charges against me?
Let’s face each other in court!
Who can bring charges against me?
Let him come and face me!
[9]The LORD and King helps me.
So who will judge me?
My enemies will be like clothes that moths have eaten up.
My enemies will disappear.

[10]Does anyone among you have respect for the LORD?
Does anyone obey the message of the LORD’s servant?
Let the person who walks in the dark trust in the LORD.
Let the one who doesn’t have any light to guide them depend on their God.
[11]But all you sinners who light fires should go ahead and walk in their light.
You who carry flaming torches should walk in their light.
Here’s what I’m going to do to you.
I’ll make you lie down in great pain.

Isaiah 51

The LORD's Saving Power for Zion Lasts Forever

[1]The LORD says, "Listen to me, you who want to do what is right.
Pay attention, you who look to me.
Consider the rock you were cut out of.
Think about the rock pit you were dug from.
[2]Consider Abraham. He is the father of your people.
Think about Sarah. She is your mother.
When I chose Abraham, he did not have any children.
But I blessed him and gave him many of them.
[3]You can be sure that I will comfort Zion's people.
I will look with loving concern on all their destroyed buildings.
I will make their deserts like Eden.
I will make their dry and empty land like the garden of the LORD.
Joy and gladness will be there.
People will sing and give thanks to me.

[4]"Listen to me, my people.
Pay attention, my nation.
My instruction will go out to the nations.
I make everything right.
That will be a guiding light for them.
[5]The time for me to set you free is near.
I will soon save you.
My powerful arm will make everything right among the nations.
The islands will put their hope in me.
They will wait for my powerful arm to act.
[6]Look up toward the heavens.
Then look at the earth.
The heavens will vanish like smoke.
The earth will wear out like clothes.
Those who live there will die like flies.
But I will save you forever.
My saving power will never end.

[7]“Listen to me, you who know what is right.
Pay attention, you who have taken my instruction to heart.
Do not be afraid when mere human beings make fun of you.
Do not be terrified when they laugh at you.
[8]They will be like clothes that moths have eaten up.
They will be like wool that worms have chewed up.
But my saving power will last forever.
I will save you for all time to come.”

[9]Wake up, arm of the LORD! Wake up!
Dress yourself with strength as if it were your clothes!
Wake up, just as you did in the past.
Wake up, as you did long ago.
Didn’t you cut Rahab to pieces?
Didn’t you stab that sea monster to death?
[10]Didn’t you dry up the Red Sea?
Didn’t you dry up those deep waters?
You made a road on the bottom of that sea.
Then those who were set free went across.
[11]Those the LORD has saved will return to their land.
They will sing as they enter the city of Zion.
Joy that lasts forever will be like beautiful crowns on their heads.
They will be filled with gladness and joy.
Sorrow and sighing will be gone.

[12]The LORD says to his people,
“I comfort you because of who I am.
Why are you afraid of mere human beings?
They are like grass that dries up.
[13]How can you forget me? I made you.
I stretch out the heavens.
I lay the foundations of the earth.
Why are you terrified every day?
Is it because those who are angry with you are crushing you?
Is it because they are trying to destroy you?
Their anger can’t harm you anymore.
[14]You prisoners who are so afraid will soon be set free.

You will not die in your prison cells.
You will not go without food.
15 I am the LORD your God.
I stir up the ocean. I make its waves roar.
My name is the LORD Who Rules Over All.
16 I have put my words in your mouth.
I have kept you safe in the palm of my hand.
I set the heavens in place.
I laid the foundations of the earth.
I say to Zion, ‘You are my people.’ ”

The Cup of the LORD’s Great Anger

17 Wake up, Jerusalem!
Wake up! Get up!
The LORD has handed you the cup of his great anger.
And you have drunk from it.
That cup makes people unsteady on their feet.
And you have drunk from it to the very last drop.
18 Among all the children who were born to you
there was none to guide you.
Among all the children you brought up there was none to lead you by the hand.
19 Nothing but trouble has come to you.
You have been wiped out and destroyed.
And you have suffered hunger and war.
No one feels sorry for you.
No one can comfort you.
20 Your children have fainted.
They lie helpless at every street corner.
They are like antelope that have been caught in a net.
They have felt the full force of the LORD’s great anger.
Jerusalem, your God had to warn them strongly.

21 So listen to me, you suffering people of Jerusalem.
You have been made drunk, but not by drinking wine.
22 Your LORD and King speaks.
He is your God.

He stands up for his people. He says,
“I have taken from you the cup of my great anger.
It made you unsteady on your feet.
But you will never drink
from that cup again.
23Instead, I will give it to those who made you suffer.
They said to you,
‘Fall down flat on the ground.
Then we can walk all over you.’
And that is exactly what you did.
You made your back like a street to be walked on.”

Isaiah 52

[1]Wake up! Zion, wake up!
Dress yourself with strength as if it were your clothes.
Holy city of Jerusalem,
put on your clothes of glory.
Those who haven't been circumcised will never enter you again.
Neither will those who are "unclean."
[2]Get up, Jerusalem! Shake off your dust.
Take your place on your throne.
Captured people of Zion,
remove the chains from your neck.

[3]The LORD says,

"When you were sold as slaves, no one paid anything for you.
Now no one will pay any money to set you free."

[4]The LORD and King continues,

"Long ago my people went down to Egypt.
They lived there for a while.
Later, Assyria crushed them without any reason.

[5]"Now look at what has happened to them," announces the LORD.

"Once again my people have been taken away.
And no one paid anything for them.
Those who rule over them brag about it,"
announces the LORD.
"All day long without stopping,
people speak evil things against my name.
[6]So the day will come when my people will really know the meaning of my name.
They will know what kind of God I am.
They will know that I told them ahead of time they would return to their land.

They will know that it was I.”

7What a beautiful sight it is to see messengers coming with good news!
How beautiful to see them coming down from the mountains with a message about peace!
How wonderful it is when they bring the good news that we are saved!
How wonderful when they say to Zion,
“Your God rules!”
8Listen! Those on guard duty are shouting out the message.
With their own eyes
they see the LORD returning to Zion.
So they shout for joy.
9Burst into songs of joy together,
you broken-down buildings in Jerusalem.
The LORD has comforted his people.
He has set Jerusalem free.
10The LORD will use the power of his holy arm to save his people.
All the nations will see him do it.
Everyone from one end of the earth to the other will see it.

11You who carry the objects that belong to the LORD’s temple, leave Babylon!
Leave it! Get out of there!
Don’t touch anything that isn’t pure and “clean.”
Come out of Babylon and be pure.
12But this time you won’t have to leave in a hurry.
You won’t have to rush away.
The LORD will go ahead of you and lead you.
The God of Israel will follow behind you and guard you.

The Suffering and Glory of the LORD’s Servant

13The LORD says, “My servant will act wisely and accomplish his task.
He will be highly honored. He will be greatly respected.
14Many people were shocked when they saw him.

He was so scarred that he no longer looked like a person.
His body was so twisted that he did not look like a human being anymore.
15 But many nations will be surprised when they see what he has done.
Kings will be so amazed that they will not be able to say anything.
They will understand things they were never told.
They will know the meaning of things they never heard.”

Isaiah 53

[1]Who has believed what we've been saying?
Who has seen the LORD's saving power?
[2]His servant grew up like a tender young plant.
He grew like a root coming up out of dry ground.
He didn't have any beauty or majesty that made us notice him.
There wasn't anything special about the way he looked that drew us to him.
[3]People looked down on him. They didn't accept him.
He knew all about pain and suffering.
He was like someone people turn their faces away from.
We looked down on him. We didn't have any respect for him.

[4]He suffered the things we should have suffered.
He took on himself the pain that should have been ours.
But we thought God was punishing him.
We thought God was wounding him and making him suffer.
[5]But the servant was pierced because we had sinned.
He was crushed because we had done what was evil.
He was punished to make us whole again.
His wounds have healed us.
[6]All of us are like sheep. We have wandered away from God.
All of us have turned to our own way.
And the LORD has placed on his servant
the sins of all of us.

[7]He was treated badly and made to suffer.
But he didn't open his mouth.
He was led away like a lamb to be killed.
Sheep are silent while their wool is being cut off.
In the same way, he didn't open his mouth.
[8]He was arrested and sentenced to death.
Then he was taken away.
He was cut off from this life.
He was punished for the sins of my people.
Who among those who were living at that time tried to stop what was happening?

9He was given a grave with those who were evil.
But his body was buried in the tomb of a rich man.
He was killed even though he hadn't harmed anyone.
And he had never lied to anyone.

10The LORD says, "It was my plan to crush him and cause him to suffer.
I made his life an offering to pay for sin.
But he will see all his children after him.
In fact, he will continue to live.
My plan will be brought about through him.
11After he has suffered, he will see the light of life.
And he will be satisfied.
My godly servant will make many people godly because of what he will accomplish.
He will be punished for their sins.
12So I will give him a place of honor among those who are great.
He will be rewarded just like others who win the battle.
That's because he was willing to give his life as a sacrifice.
He was counted among those who had committed crimes.
He took the sins of many people on himself.
And he gave his life for those who had done what is wrong."

Isaiah 54

Jerusalem Will Be Glorious

[1]“Jerusalem, sing!
You are now like a woman who never had a child.
Burst into song! Shout for joy!
You who have never had labor pains,
you are now all alone.
But you will have more children than a woman who still has a husband,”
says the LORD.
[2]“Make a large area for your tent.
Spread out its curtains.
Go ahead and make your tent wider.
Make its ropes longer.
Drive the stakes down deeper.
[3]You will spread out to the right and the left.
Your children after you will drive out the nations that are now living in your land.
They will make their homes in the deserted cities of those nations.

[4]“Do not be afraid. You will not be put to shame anymore.
Do not be afraid of being dishonored.
People will no longer make fun of you.
You will forget the time when you suffered as slaves in Egypt.
You will no longer remember the shame of being a widow in Babylon.
[5]I made you. I am now your husband.
My name is the LORD Who Rules Over All.
I am the Holy One of Israel.
I have set you free.
I am the God of the whole earth.
[6]You were like a wife who was deserted.
And her heart was broken.
You were like a wife who married young.

And her husband sent her away.
But now I am calling you to come back,” says your God.
7“For a brief moment I left you.
But because I love you so much, I will bring you back.
8For a moment I turned my face away from you.
I was very angry with you.
But I will show you my loving concern.
My faithful love will continue forever,” says the LORD. He is the one who set you free.

9“During Noah’s time I made a promise.
I said I would never cover the earth with water again.
In the same way, I have promised not to be angry with you.
I will never punish you again.
10The mountains might shake.
The hills might be removed.
But my faithful love for you will never be shaken.
And my covenant that promises peace to you will never be removed,”
says the LORD. He shows you his loving concern.

11“Suffering city, you have been beaten by storms.
You have not been comforted.
I will rebuild you with turquoise stones.
I will rebuild your foundations with lapis lazuli.
12I will line the top of your city wall with rubies.
I will make your gates out of gleaming jewels.
And I will make all your walls out of precious stones.
13I will teach all your children.
And they will enjoy great peace.
14When you do what is right,
you will be made secure.
Your leaders will not be mean to you.
You will not have anything to be afraid of.
You will not be terrified anymore.
Terror will not come near you.
15People might attack you. But I will not be the cause of it.
Those who attack you will give themselves up to you.

16“I created blacksmiths.
They fan the coals into flames of fire.
They make weapons that are fit for their work.
I also created those who destroy others.
17But no weapon used against you will succeed.
People might bring charges against you.
But you will prove that they are wrong.
Those are the things I do for my servants.
I make everything right for them,”
announces the LORD.

Isaiah 55

The LORD Invites Thirsty People to Come to Him

[1]“Come, all you who are thirsty.
Come and drink the water I offer to you.
You who do not have any money, come.
Buy and eat the grain I give you.
Come and buy wine and milk.
You will not have to pay anything for it.
[2]Why spend money on what is not food?
Why work for what does not satisfy you?
Listen carefully to me.
Then you will eat what is good.
You will enjoy the richest food there is.
[3]Listen and come to me.
Pay attention to me.
Then you will live.
I will make a covenant with you that will last forever.
I will give you my faithful love.
I promised it to David.
[4]I made him a witness to the nations.
He became a ruler and commander over them.
[5]You too will send for nations you do not know.
Even though you do not know them,
they will come running to you.
That is what I will do. I am the LORD your God.
I am the Holy One of Israel.
I have honored you.”

[6]Turn to the LORD before it’s too late.
Call out to him while he’s still ready to help you.
[7]Let those who are evil stop doing evil things.
And let them quit thinking evil thoughts.
Let them turn to the LORD.
The LORD will show them his tender love.
Let them turn to our God.

He is always ready to forgive.

8 “My thoughts are not like your thoughts.
And your ways are not like my ways,”
announces the LORD.
9 “The heavens are higher than the earth.
And my ways are higher than your ways.
My thoughts are higher than your thoughts.
10 The rain and the snow
come down from the sky.
They do not return to it without watering the earth.
They make plants come up and grow.
The plants produce seeds for farmers.
They also produce food for people to eat.
11 The words I speak are like that.
They will not return to me without producing results.
They will accomplish what I want them to.
They will do exactly what I sent them to do.

12 “My people, you will go out of Babylon with joy.
You will be led out of it in peace.
The mountains and hills
will burst into song as you go.
And all the trees in the fields will clap their hands.
13 Juniper trees will grow where there used to be bushes that had thorns on them.
And myrtle trees will grow where there used to be thorns.
That will bring me great fame.
It will be a lasting reminder of what I can do.
It will stand forever.”

Isaiah 56

The LORD Will Save Those Who Come to Him

[1]The LORD says,

"Do what is fair and right.
I will soon come and save you.
Soon everyone will know that what I do is right.
[2]Blessed is the person who does what I want them to.
They are faithful in keeping the Sabbath day.
They do not misuse it.
They do not do what is evil on that day."

[3]Suppose an outsider wants to follow the LORD.
Then that person shouldn't say,
"The LORD won't accept me as one of his people."
And a eunuch shouldn't say,
"I'm like a dry tree that doesn't bear any fruit."

[4]The LORD says,

"Suppose some eunuchs keep my Sabbath days.
They choose to do what pleases me.
And they are faithful in keeping my covenant.
[5]Then I will set up a monument in the area of my temple.
Their names will be written on it.
That will be better for them than having sons and daughters.
The names of the eunuchs will be remembered forever.
They will never be forgotten.

[6]"Suppose outsiders want to follow me and serve me.
They want to love me
and worship me.
They keep the Sabbath day and do not misuse it.
And they are faithful in keeping my covenant.

[7]Then I will bring them to my holy mountain of Zion.
I will give them joy in my house.
They can pray there.
I will accept their burnt offerings and sacrifices on my altar.
My house will be called a house where people from all nations can pray.”
[8]The LORD and King will gather those who were taken away from their homes in Israel.
He announces, “I will gather them to myself.
And I will gather others to join them.”

The LORD Judges Israel’s Evil Leaders

[9]Come, all you enemy nations! Come like wild animals.
Come and destroy like animals in the forest.
[10]Israel’s prophets are blind.
They don’t know the LORD.
All of them are like watchdogs that can’t even bark.
They just lie around and dream.
They love to sleep.
[11]They are like dogs that love to eat.
They never get enough.
They are like shepherds who don’t have any understanding.
All of them do as they please.
They only look for what they can get for themselves.
[12]“Come!” they shout. “Let’s get some wine!
Let’s drink all the beer we can!
Tomorrow we’ll do the same thing.
And that will be even better than today.”

Isaiah 57

[1]Those who are right with God die.
And no one really cares about it.
People who are faithful to the LORD are swept away by trouble.
And no one understands why that happens to those who do what is right.
[2]Those who lead honest lives will enjoy peace and rest when they die.

[3]The LORD says, “Come here, you children of women who practice evil magic!
You are children of prostitutes and those who commit adultery.
[4]Who are you making fun of?
Who are you laughing at?
Who are you sticking your tongue out at?
You are people who refuse to obey me.
You are just a bunch of liars!
[5]You burn with sinful desire among the oak trees.
You worship your gods under every green tree.
You sacrifice your children in the valleys.
You also do it under the cliffs.
[6]You have chosen some of the smooth stones in the valleys to be your gods.
You have joined yourselves to them.
You have even poured out drink offerings to them.
You have given grain offerings to them.
So why should I take pity on you?
[7]You have made your bed on a very high hill.
You went up there to offer your sacrifices.
[8]You have set up statues to remind you of your gods.
You have put them behind your doors and doorposts.
You deserted me. You invited other lovers into your bed.
You climbed into it and welcomed them.
You made a deal with them.
And you looked with desire at their naked bodies.

[9]You took olive oil to the god named Molek.
You took a lot of perfume along with you.
You sent your messengers to places far away.
You even sent them down to the place of the dead.
[10]You wore yourself out with all your efforts.
But you would not say, ‘It’s hopeless.’
You received new strength.
So you did not give up.

[11]“Who are you so afraid of that you have not been faithful to me?
You have not remembered me.
What you do doesn’t even bother you.
I have not punished you for a long time.
That is why you are not afraid of me.
[12]You have not done what is right or good.
I will let everyone know about it.
And that will not be of any benefit to you.
[13]Go ahead and cry out for help to all the statues of your gods.
See if they can save you!
The wind will carry them off.
Just a puff of air will blow them away.
But anyone who comes to me for safety will receive the land.
They will possess my holy mountain of Zion.”

The LORD Comforts People Who Are Sorry for Their Sins

[14]A messenger says,

“Build up the road! Build it up! Get it ready!
Remove anything that would keep my people from coming back.”
[15]The God who is highly honored lives forever.
His name is holy. He says,
“I live in a high and holy place.
But I also live with anyone who turns away from their sins.
I live with anyone who is not proud.

I give new life to them.
I give it to anyone who turns away from their sins.
16 I will not find fault with my people forever.
I will not always be angry with them.
If I were, I would cause their spirits to grow weak.
The people I created would faint away.
17 I was very angry with them.
They always longed for more and more of everything.
So I punished them for that sin.
I turned my face away from them because I was angry.
But they kept on wanting their own way.
18 I have seen what they have done.
But I will heal them.
I will guide them.
I will give those who mourn in Israel the comfort they had before.
19 Then they will praise me.
I will give perfect peace to those who are far away and those who are near.
And I will heal them," says the LORD.
20 But those who are evil are like the rolling sea.
It never rests.
Its waves toss up mud and sand.

21 "There is no peace for those who are evil," says my God.

Isaiah 58

What True Worship Is All About

[1]The LORD told me,

"Shout out loud. Do not hold back.
Raise your voice like a trumpet.
Tell my people that they have refused to obey me.
Tell the family of Jacob how much they have sinned.
[2]Day after day they worship me.
They seem ready and willing to know how I want them to live.
They act as if they were a nation that does what is right.
They act as if they have not turned away from my commands.
They claim to want me to give them fair decisions.
They seem ready and willing to come near and worship me.
[3]'We have gone without food,' they say.
'Why haven't you noticed it?
We have made ourselves suffer.
Why haven't you paid any attention to us?'

"On the day when you fast, you do as you please.
You take advantage of all your workers.
[4]When you fast, it ends in arguing and fighting.
You hit one another with your fists.
That is an evil thing to do.
The way you are now fasting keeps your prayers from being heard in heaven.
[5]Do you think that is the way I want you to fast?
Is it only a time for people to make themselves suffer?
Is it only for people to bow their heads like tall grass bent by the wind?
Is it only for people to lie down in ashes and clothes of mourning?
Is that what you call a fast?
Do you think I can accept that?

[6]"Here is the way I want you to fast.

“Set free those who are held by chains without any reason.
Untie the ropes that hold people as slaves.
Set free those who are crushed.
Break every evil chain.
7Share your food with hungry people.
Provide homeless people with a place to stay.
Give naked people clothes to wear.
Provide for the needs of your own family.
8Then the light of my blessing will shine on you like the rising sun.
I will heal you quickly.
I will march out ahead of you.
And my glory will follow behind you and guard you.
That’s because I always do what is right.
9You will call out to me for help.
And I will answer you.
You will cry out.
And I will say, ‘Here I am.’

“Get rid of the chains you use to hold others down.
Stop pointing your finger at others as if they had done something wrong.
Stop saying harmful things about them.
10Work hard to feed hungry people.
Satisfy the needs of those who are crushed.
Then my blessing will light up your darkness.
And the night of your suffering will become as bright as the noonday sun.
11I will always guide you.
I will satisfy your needs in a land baked by the sun.
I will make you stronger.
You will be like a garden that has plenty of water.
You will be like a spring whose water never runs dry.
12Your people will rebuild the cities that were destroyed long ago.
And you will build again on the old foundations.
You will be called One Who Repairs Broken Walls.
You will be called One Who Makes City Streets Like New Again.

13 “Do not work on the Sabbath day.
Do not do just anything you want to on my holy day.
Make the Sabbath a day you can enjoy.
Honor the LORD’s holy day.
Do not work on it.
Do not do just anything you want to.
Do not talk about things that are worthless.
14 Then you will find your joy in me.
I will give you control over the most important places in the land.
And you will enjoy all the good things in the land I gave your father Jacob.”
The LORD has spoken.

Isaiah 59

The LORD Sets His People Free

[1]People of Israel, the LORD's arm is not too weak to save you.
His ears aren't too deaf to hear your cry for help.
[2]But your sins have separated you from your God.
They have caused him to turn his face away from you.
So he won't listen to you.
[3]Your hands and fingers are stained with blood.
You are guilty of committing murder.
Your mouth has told lies.
Your tongue says evil things.
[4]People aren't fair when they present cases in court.
They aren't honest when they state their case.
They depend on weak arguments. They tell lies.
They plan to make trouble.
Then they carry it out.
[5]The plans they make are like the eggs of poisonous snakes.
Anyone who eats those eggs will die.
When one of them is broken, a snake comes out.
[6]Those people weave their evil plans together like a spider's web.
But the webs they make can't be used as clothes.
They can't cover themselves with what they make.
Their acts are evil.
They do things to harm others.
[7]They are always in a hurry to sin.
They run quickly to murder those who aren't guilty.
They love to think up evil plans.
They leave a trail of harmful actions.
[8]They don't know how to live at peace with others.
What they do isn't fair.
They lead twisted lives.
No one who lives like that will enjoy peace and rest.

[9]We aren't being treated fairly.
We haven't been set free yet.

The God who always does what is right hasn’t come to help us.
We look for light, but we see nothing but darkness.
We look for brightness, but we walk in deep shadows.
10 Like blind people we feel our way along the wall.
We are like those who can’t see.
At noon we trip and fall as if the sun had already set.
Compared to those who are healthy, we are like dead people.
11 All of us growl like hungry bears.
We sound like doves as we mourn.
We want the LORD to do what is fair and save us.
But he doesn’t do it.
We long for him to set us free.
But the time for that seems far away.

12 That’s because we’ve done so many things he considers wrong.
Our sins prove that we are guilty.
The wrong things we’ve done are always troubling us.
We admit that we have sinned.
13 We’ve refused to obey the LORD.
We’ve made evil plans against him.
We’ve turned our backs on our God.
We’ve stirred up conflict and refused to follow him.
We’ve told lies that came from our own minds.
14 So people stop others from doing what is fair.
They keep them from doing what is right.
No one tells the truth in court anymore.
No one is honest there.
15 In fact, truth can’t be found anywhere.
Those who refuse to do evil are attacked.

The LORD sees that people aren’t treating others fairly.
That makes him unhappy.
16 He sees that there is no one who helps his people.
He is shocked that no one stands up for them.
So he will use his own powerful arm to save them.
He has the strength to do it because he is holy.
17 He will put the armor of holiness on his chest.

He'll put the helmet of salvation on his head.
He'll pay people back for the wrong things they do.
He'll wrap himself in anger as if it were a coat.
18 He will pay his enemies back for what they have done.
He'll pour his anger out on them.
He'll punish those who attack him.
He'll give the people in the islands what they have coming to them.
19 People in the west will show respect for the LORD's name.
People in the east will worship him because of his glory.
The LORD will come like a rushing river that was held back.
His breath will drive it along.

20 "I set my people free. I will come to Mount Zion.
I will come to those in Jacob's family who turn away from their sins,"
announces the LORD.

21 "Here is the covenant I will make with them," says the LORD. "My Spirit is on you and will not leave you. I have put my words in your mouth. They will never leave your mouth. And they will never leave the mouths of your children or their children after them. That will be true for all time to come," says the LORD.

Isaiah 60

Zion Will Be Glorious

1 “People of Jerusalem, get up.
Shine, because your light has come.
The glory of the LORD will shine on you.
2 Darkness covers the earth.
Thick darkness spreads over the nations.
But I will rise and shine on you.
My glory will appear over you.
3 Nations will come to your light.
Kings will come to the brightness of your new day.

4 “Look up. Look all around you.
All your people are getting together to come back to you.
Your sons will come from far away.
Your daughters will be carried on the hip like little children.
5 Then your face will glow with joy.
Your heart will beat fast because you are so happy.
Wealth from across the ocean will be brought to you.
The riches of the nations will come to you.
6 Herds of young camels will cover your land.
They will come from Midian and Ephah.
They will also come from Sheba.
They’ll carry gold and incense.
And people will shout praises to me.
7 All of Kedar’s flocks will be gathered to you.
The rams of Nebaioth will serve as your sacrifices.
I will accept them as offerings on my altar.
That is how I will bring honor to my glorious temple.

8 “Whose ships are these that sail along like clouds?
They fly like doves to their nests.
9 People from the islands are coming to me.
The ships of Tarshish are out in front.
They are bringing your children back from far away.

Your children are bringing their silver and gold with them.
They are coming to honor me.
I am the LORD your God.
I am the Holy One of Israel.
I have honored you.

10 “People from other lands will rebuild your walls.
Their kings will serve you.
When I was angry with you, I struck you.
But now I will show you my tender love.
11 Your gates will always stand open.
They will never be shut, day or night.
Then people can bring you the wealth of the nations.
Their kings will come along with them.
12 The nation or kingdom that will not serve you will be destroyed.
It will be completely wiped out.

13 “Lebanon’s glorious trees will be brought to you.
Its junipers, firs and cypress trees will be brought.
They will be used to make my temple beautiful.
And I will bring glory to the place where my throne is.
14 The children of those who crush you will come and bow down to you.
All those who hate you will kneel down at your feet.
Jerusalem, they will call you the City of the LORD.
They will name you Zion, the City of the Holy One of Israel.

15 “You have been deserted and hated.
No one even travels through you.
But I will make you into something to be proud of forever.
You will be a place of joy for all time to come.
16 You will get everything you need from kings and nations.
You will be like children who are nursing at their mother’s breasts.
Then you will know that I am the one who saves you.
I am the LORD. I set you free.
I am the Mighty One of Jacob.
17 Instead of bronze I will bring you gold.

In place of iron I will give you silver.
Instead of wood I will bring you bronze.
In place of stones I will give you iron.
I will make peace govern you.
I will make godliness rule over you.
18 People will no longer harm one another in your land.
They will not wipe out or destroy anything inside your borders.
You will call your walls Salvation.
And you will name your gates Praise.
19 You will not need the light of the sun by day anymore.
The bright light of the moon will no longer have to shine on you.
I will be your light forever.
My glory will shine on you.
I am the LORD your God.
20 Your sun will never set again.
Your moon will never lose its light.
I will be your light forever.
Your days of sorrow will come to an end.
21 Then all your people will do what is right.
The land will belong to them forever.
They will be like a young tree I have planted.
My hands have created them.
They will show how glorious I am.
22 The smallest family among you will become a tribe.
The smallest tribe will become a mighty nation.
I am the LORD.
When it is the right time, I will act quickly.”

Isaiah 61

The Year When the LORD Sets His People Free

[1]The Spirit of the LORD and King is on me.
The LORD has anointed me
to announce good news to poor people.
He has sent me to comfort
those whose hearts have been broken.
He has sent me to announce freedom for those who have been captured.
He wants me to set prisoners free from their dark cells.
[2]He has sent me to announce the year when he will set his people free.
He wants me to announce the day
when he will pay his enemies back.
Our God has sent me to comfort all those who are sad.
[3]He wants me to help those in Zion who are filled with sorrow.
I will put beautiful crowns on their heads in place of ashes.
I will anoint them with olive oil to give them joy
instead of sorrow.
I will give them a spirit of praise
in place of a spirit of sadness.
They will be like oak trees that are strong and straight.
The LORD himself will plant them in the land.
That will show how glorious he is.

[4]They will rebuild the places that were destroyed long ago.
They will repair the buildings that have been broken down for many years.
They will make the destroyed cities like new again.
They have been broken down for a very long time.
[5]Outsiders will serve you by taking care of your flocks.
People from other lands will work in your fields and vineyards.
[6]You will be called priests of the LORD.

You will be named workers for our God.
You will enjoy the wealth of nations.
You will brag about getting their riches.

7 Instead of being put to shame
you will receive a double share of wealth.
Instead of being dishonored
you will be glad to be in your land.
You will receive a double share of riches there.
And you'll be filled with joy that will last forever.

8 The LORD says, "I love those who do what is right.
I hate it when people steal and do other sinful things.
So I will be faithful to my people.
And I will bless them.
I will make a covenant with them
that will last forever.
9 Their children after them will be famous among the nations.
Their families will be praised by people everywhere.
All those who see them will agree that I have blessed them."

10 The people of Jerusalem will say,
"We take great delight in the LORD.
We are joyful because we belong to our God.
He has dressed us with salvation as if it were our clothes.
He has put robes of godliness on us.
We are like a groom who is dressed up for his wedding.
We are like a bride who decorates herself with her jewels.
11 The soil makes the young plant come up.
A garden causes seeds to grow.
In the same way, the LORD and King will make godliness grow.
And all the nations will praise him."

Isaiah 62

The LORD Gives Zion a New Name

[1]The LORD says, “For the good of Zion I will not keep silent.
For Jerusalem’s benefit I will not remain quiet.
I will not keep silent until what I will do for them shines like the sunrise.
I will not remain quiet until they are saved and shine like a blazing torch.
[2]Jerusalem, the nations will see that I have made everything right for you.
All their kings will see your glory.
You will be called by a new name.
I myself will give it to you.
[3]You will be like a glorious crown in my strong hand.
You will be like a royal crown in my powerful hand.
[4]People will not call you Deserted anymore.
They will no longer name your land Empty.
Instead, you will be called One the LORD Delights In.
Your land will be named Married One.
That’s because the LORD will take delight in you.
And your land will be married.
[5]As a young man marries a young woman,
so your Builder will marry you.
As a groom is happy with his bride,
so your God will be full of joy over you.”

[6]Jerusalem, I have stationed guards on your walls.
They must never be silent day or night.
You who call out to the LORD must not give yourselves any rest.
[7]And don’t give him any rest until he makes Jerusalem secure.
Don’t give him any peace until people all over the earth praise that city.

[8]The LORD has made a promise.
He has lifted up his right hand and mighty arm.
He has promised, “I will never give your grain to your enemies for food again.
Outsiders will never again drink the fresh wine
you have worked so hard for.
[9]Instead, those who gather the grain will eat it themselves.
And they will praise me.
Those who gather grapes to make the wine will enjoy it.
They will drink it in the courtyards of my temple.”

[10]Go out through your gates, people of Jerusalem! Go out!
Prepare the way for the rest of your people to return.
Build up the road! Build it up!
Remove the stones.
Raise a banner over the city for the nations to see.

[11]The LORD has announced a message from one end of the earth to the other.
He has said, “Tell the people of Zion,
‘Look! Your Savior is coming!
He is bringing his people back as his reward.
He has won the battle over their enemies.’ ”
[12]They will be called the Holy People.
They will be called the People the LORD Set Free.
And Jerusalem will be named the City the LORD Cares About.
It will be named the City No Longer Deserted.

Isaiah 63

God Will Save His People and Punish Their Enemies

[1]Who is this man coming from the city of Bozrah in Edom?
His clothes are stained bright red.
Who is he? He is dressed up in all his glory.
He is marching toward us with great strength.

The LORD answers, “It is I.
I have won the battle.
I am mighty.
I have saved my people.”

[2]Why are your clothes red?
They look as if you have been stomping on grapes in a winepress.

[3]The LORD answers, “I have been stomping on the nations as if they were grapes.
No one was there to help me.
I walked all over the nations because I was angry.
That is why I stomped on them.
Their blood splashed all over my clothes.
So my clothes were stained bright red.
[4]I decided it was time to pay back Israel’s enemies.
The year for me to set my people free had come.
[5]I looked around, but no one was there to help me.
I was shocked that no one gave me any help.
So I used my own power to save my people.
I had the strength to do it because I was angry.
[6]I walked all over the nations because I was angry with them.
I made them drink from the cup of my great anger.
I poured out their blood on the ground.”

Isaiah Praises the LORD and Prays to Him

[7]I will talk about the kind things the LORD has done.
I'll praise him for everything he's done for us.
He has done many good things for the nation of Israel.
That's because he loves us and is very kind to us.
[8]In the past he said, "They are my people.
They are children who will be faithful to me."
So he saved them.
[9]When they suffered, he suffered with them.
He sent his angel to save them.
He set them free because he is loving and kind.
He lifted them up and carried them.
He did it again and again in days long ago.
[10]But they refused to obey him.
They made his Holy Spirit sad.
So he turned against them and became their enemy.
He himself fought against them.

[11]Then his people remembered what he did long ago.
They recalled the days of Moses and his people.
They asked, "Where is the God who brought Israel through the Red Sea?
Moses led them as the shepherd of his flock.
Where is the God who put his Holy Spirit among them?
[12]He used his glorious and powerful arm to help Moses.
He parted the waters of the sea in front of them.
That mighty act made him famous forever.
[13]He led them through that deep sea.
Like a horse in open country,
they didn't trip and fall.
[14]They were like cattle that are taken down to the plains.
They were given rest by the Spirit of the LORD."
That's how he guided his people.
So he made a glorious name for himself.

[15]LORD, look down from heaven.

Look down from your holy and glorious throne.
Where is your great love for us?
Where is your power?
Why don’t you show us
your tender love and concern?
16 You are our Father.
Abraham might not accept us as his children.
Jacob might not recognize us as his family.
But you are our Father, LORD.
Your name is One Who Always Sets Us Free.
17 LORD, why do you let us wander away from you?
Why do you let us become so stubborn that we don’t respect you?
Come back and help us.
We are the tribes that belong to you.
18 For a little while your holy people possessed the land.
But now our enemies have torn your temple down.
19 We are like people you never ruled over.
We are like those who don’t belong to you.

Isaiah 64

[1]I wish you would open up your heavens and come down to us!
I wish the mountains would tremble
when you show your power!
[2]Be like a fire that causes twigs to burn.
It also makes water boil.
So come down and make yourself known to your enemies.
Cause the nations to shake with fear
when they see your power!
[3]Long ago you did some wonderful things we didn’t expect.
You came down, and the mountains trembled when you showed your power.
[4]No one’s ears have ever heard of a God like you.
No one’s eyes have ever seen a God who is greater than you.
No God but you acts for the good of those who trust in him.
[5]You come to help those who enjoy doing what is right.
You help those who thank you for teaching them how to live.
But when we continued to disobey you,
you became angry with us.
So how can we be saved?
[6]All of us have become like someone who is “unclean.”
All the good things we do are like dirty rags to you.
All of us are like leaves that have dried up.
Our sins sweep us away like the wind.
[7]No one prays to you.
No one asks you for help.
You have turned your face away from us.
You have let us feel the effects of our sins.

[8]LORD, you are our Father.
We are the clay. You are the potter.
Your hands made all of us.
[9]Don’t be so angry with us, LORD.

Don’t remember our sins anymore.
Please have mercy on us.
All of us belong to you.
10 Your sacred cities have become a desert.
Even Zion is a desert.
Jerusalem is a dry and empty place.
11 Our people of long ago used to praise you in our holy and glorious temple.
But now it has been burned down.
Everything we treasured has been destroyed.
12 LORD, won’t you help us even after everything that’s happened?
Will you keep silent and punish us more than we can stand?

Isaiah 65

The LORD Judges and Saves

[1]The LORD says, “I made myself known to those who were not asking for me.
I was found by those who were not trying to find me.
I spoke to a nation that did not pray to me.
‘Here I am,’ I said. ‘Here I am.’
[2]All day long I have held out my hands to welcome a stubborn nation.
They lead sinful lives.
They go where their evil thoughts take them.
[3]They are always making me very angry.
They do it right in front of me.
They offer sacrifices in the gardens of other gods.
They burn incense on altars that are made out of bricks.
[4]They sit among the graves.
They spend their nights talking to the spirits of the dead.
They eat the meat of pigs.
Their cooking pots hold soup that has ‘unclean’ meat in it.
[5]They say, ‘Keep away! Don’t come near us!
We are too sacred for you!’
Those people are like smoke in my nose.
They are like a fire that keeps burning all day.

[6]“I will judge them. I have even written it down.
I will not keep silent.
Instead, I will pay them back for all their sins.
[7]I will punish them for their sins.
I will also punish them for the sins of their people before them.”
This is what the LORD says.
“They burned sacrifices on the mountains.
They disobeyed me by worshiping other gods on the hills.
So I will make sure they are fully punished for all the sins they have committed.”

[8]The LORD says,

"Sometimes juice is still left in grapes that have been crushed.
So people say, 'Don't destroy them.
They are still of some benefit.'
That is what I will do for the good of those who serve me.
I will not destroy all my people.
[9]I will give children to the families of Jacob and Judah.
They will possess my entire land.
My chosen people will be given all of it.
Those who serve me will live there.
[10]Their flocks will eat in the rich grasslands of Sharon.
Their herds will rest in the Valley of Achor.
That is what I will do for my people who follow me.

[11]"But some of you have deserted me.
You no longer worship on my holy mountain of Zion.
You spread a table for the god called Good Fortune.
You offer bowls of mixed wine to the god named Fate.
[12]So I will make it your fate to be killed by swords.
All of you will die in the battle.
That's because I called out to you, but you did not answer me.
I spoke to you, but you did not listen.
You did what is evil in my sight.
You chose to do what does not please me."

[13]So the LORD and King says,

"Those who serve me will have food to eat.
But you will be hungry.
My servants will have plenty to drink.
But you will be thirsty.
Those who serve me will be full of joy.
But you will be put to shame.
[14]My servants will sing with joy in their hearts.
But you will cry out because of the great pain in your hearts.

You will cry because your spirits are sad.
15 My chosen ones will use your names
when they curse others.
I am your LORD and King.
I will put you to death.
But I will give new names to those who serve me.
16 They will ask me to bless their land.
They will do it in my name.
I am the one true God.
They will make promises in their land.
They will do it in my name.
I am the one true God.
The troubles of the past will be forgotten.
They will be hidden from my eyes.

The LORD Will Create New Heavens and a New Earth

17 "I will create new heavens and a new earth.
The things that have happened before will not be remembered.
They will not even enter your minds.
18 So be glad and full of joy forever
because of what I will create.
I will cause others to take delight in Jerusalem.
They will be filled with joy
when they see its people.
19 And I will be full of joy because of Jerusalem.
I will take delight in my people.
Weeping and crying
will not be heard there anymore.

20 "Babies in Jerusalem will no longer live only a few days.
Old people will not fail to live for a very long time.
Those who live to the age of 100
will be thought of as mere children when they die.
Those who die before they are 100 will be considered as having been under God’s curse.

[21]My people will build houses and live in them.
They will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
[22]They will no longer build houses only to have others live in them.
They will no longer plant crops only to have others eat them.
My people will live to be as old as trees.
My chosen ones will enjoy for a long time
the things they have worked for.
[23]Their work will not be worthless anymore.
They will not have children who are sure to face sudden terror.
Instead, I will bless them.
I will also bless their children after them.
[24]Even before they call out to me, I will answer them.
While they are still speaking, I will hear them.
[25]Wolves and lambs will eat together.
Lions will eat straw like oxen.
Serpents will not bite anyone.
They will eat nothing but dust.
None of those animals will harm or destroy anything or anyone on my holy mountain of Zion,”
says the LORD.

Isaiah 66

The LORD Judges Some People and Blesses Others

[1]The LORD says,

"Heaven is my throne.
The earth is under my control.
So how could you ever build a house for me?
Where would my resting place be?
[2]Didn't I make everything by my power?
That is how all things were created,"
announces the LORD.

"The people I value are not proud.
They are sorry for the wrong things they have done.
They have great respect for what I say.
[3]But others are not like that.
They sacrifice bulls to me,
but at the same time they kill people.
They offer lambs to me,
but they also sacrifice dogs to other gods.
They bring grain offerings to me,
but they also offer pig's blood to other gods.
They burn incense to me,
but they also worship statues of gods.
They have chosen to go their own way.
They take delight in things I hate.
[4]So I have also made a choice.
I will make them suffer greatly.
I will bring on them what they are afraid of.
When I called out to them, no one answered me.
When I spoke to them, no one listened.
They did what is evil in my sight.
They chose to do what displeases me."

[5]Listen to the word of the LORD.
Listen, you who tremble with fear when he speaks. He says,

“Some of your own people hate you.
They turn their backs on you because you are faithful to me.
They make fun of you and say,
‘Let the LORD show his glory by saving you.
Then we can see how happy you are.’
But they will be put to shame.
6Hear the loud sounds coming from the city!
Listen to the noise coming from the temple!
I am the one causing it.
I am paying back my enemies for everything they have done.

7“Zion is like a woman who has a baby before she goes into labor.
She has a son
even before her labor pains begin.
8Who has ever heard of anything like that?
Who has ever seen such a thing?
Can a country be born in a day?
Can a nation be created in a moment?
But as soon as Zion goes into labor,
there are many more of her people.
9Zion, would I bring you to the moment of birth and not let it happen?” says the LORD.
“Would I close up a mother’s body when it is time for her baby to be born?” says your God.
10“Be glad along with Jerusalem, all you who love her.
Be filled with joy because of her.
Take great delight in her,
all you who mourn over her.
11You will nurse at her comforting breasts.
And you will be satisfied.
You will drink until you are full.
And you will delight in her rich and plentiful supply.”

12The LORD continues,

“I will cause peace to flow over her like a river.
I will make the wealth of nations sweep over her like a flooding stream.

You will nurse and be carried in her arms.
You will play on her lap.
13As a mother comforts her child,
I will comfort you.
You will find comfort in Jerusalem.”

14When you see that happen, your hearts will be filled with joy.
Just as grass grows quickly, you will succeed.
The LORD will show his power to those who serve him.
But he will pour out his anger on his enemies.
15The LORD will judge them with fire.
His chariots are coming like a windstorm.
He will pour out his burning anger on his enemies.
It will blaze out like flames of fire.
16The LORD will judge with fire and with his sword.
He will judge all people.
He will put many people to death.

17“Some people set themselves apart and make themselves pure. They do it so they can go into the gardens to worship other gods. They follow what the worship leader tells them to do. They are among those who eat the meat of pigs and rats. They also eat other ‘unclean’ things. Those people and the one they follow will come to a horrible end,” announces the LORD.

18“They have planned to do many evil things. And they have carried out their plans. So I will come and gather the people of every nation and language. They will see my glory when I act.

19“I will give them a sign. I will send to the nations some of those who are left alive. I will send some of them to the people of Tarshish, Libya and Lydia, who are famous for using bows. I will send others to Tubal and Greece. And I will send still others to islands far away. The people who live there have not heard about my fame. They have not seen my glory. But when I act, those I send will tell the nations about my glory. 20And they will bring back all the people of Israel from all those nations. They will bring them to my holy mountain in Jerusalem. My people will ride on horses, mules and camels. They will come in chariots and wagons,” says the LORD. “Those messengers will bring my people as an offering to me. They will bring them to my temple, just as the Israelites bring their grain offerings in bowls that are ‘clean.’ 21And I will choose some of them to be priests and Levites,” says the LORD.

22“I will make new heavens and a new earth. And they will last forever,” announces the LORD. “In the same way, your name and your children after you will last forever. 23Everyone will come and bow down to me. They will do it at every New Moon feast and on every Sabbath day,” says the LORD.
24“When they go out of Jerusalem, they will see the dead bodies of those who refused to obey me. The worms that eat their bodies will not die. The fire that burns them will not be put out. It will make everyone sick just to look at them.”

Jeremiah

Jeremiah 1

[1]These are the words Jeremiah received from the LORD. Jeremiah was the son of Hilkiah. Jeremiah was one of the priests at Anathoth. That's a town in the territory of Benjamin. [2]A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. It came in the 13th year that Josiah was king over Judah. Josiah was the son of Amon. [3]After Josiah, his son Jehoiakim was king over Judah. The LORD's message also came to Jeremiah during the whole time Jehoiakim ruled. The LORD continued to speak to Jeremiah while Zedekiah was king over Judah. He did this until the fifth month of the 11th year of Zedekiah's rule. That's when the people of Jerusalem were forced to leave their country. Zedekiah was the son of Josiah. Here is what Jeremiah said.

The LORD Appoints Jeremiah to Speak for Him

[4]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said,

> [5]"Before I formed you in your mother's body I chose you.
> Before you were born I set you apart to serve me.
> I appointed you to be a prophet to the nations."

[6]"You are my LORD and King," I said. "I don't know how to speak. I'm too young."

[7]But the LORD said to me, "Do not say, 'I'm too young.' You must go to everyone I send you to. You must say everything I command you to say. [8]Do not be afraid of the people I send you to. I am with you. I will save you," announces the LORD.

[9]Then the LORD reached out his hand. He touched my mouth and spoke to me. He said, "I have put my words in your mouth. [10]Today I am appointing you to speak to nations and kingdoms. I give you authority to pull them up by the roots and tear them down. I give you authority to destroy them and crush them. I give you authority to build them up and plant them."

[11]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD asked me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?"

"The branch of an almond tree," I replied.

12The LORD said to me, “You have seen correctly. I am watching to see that my word comes true.”
13Another message from the LORD came to me. The LORD asked me, “What do you see?”
“A pot that has boiling water in it,” I answered. “It’s leaning toward us from the north.”
14The LORD said to me, “Something very bad will be poured out on everyone who lives in this land. It will come from the north. 15I am about to send for all the armies in the northern kingdoms,” announces the LORD.

“Their kings will come to Jerusalem.
They will set up their thrones at the very gates of the city.
They will attack all the walls that surround the city.
They will go to war against all the towns of Judah.
16I will judge my people.
They have done many evil things.
They have deserted me.
They have burned incense to other gods.
They have worshiped the gods their own hands have made.

17“So get ready! Stand up! Tell them everything I command you to. Do not let them terrify you. If you do, I will terrify you in front of them. 18Today I have made you like a city that has a high wall around it. I have made you like an iron pillar and a bronze wall. Now you can stand up against the whole land. You can stand against the kings and officials of Judah. You can stand against its priests and its people. 19They will fight against you. But they will not win the battle over you. I am with you. I will save you,” announces the LORD.

Jeremiah 2

Israel Deserts the LORD

[1]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [2]“Go. Announce my message to the people in Jerusalem. I want everyone to hear it. Tell them, “Here is what the LORD says.

“ ‘I remember how faithful you were to me when you were young.
You loved me as if you were my bride.
You followed me through the desert.
Nothing had been planted there.
[3]Your people were holy to me.
They were the first share of my harvest.
All those who destroyed them were held guilty.
And trouble came to their enemies,’ ”
announces the LORD.

[4]People of Jacob, hear the LORD’s message.
Listen, all you tribes of Israel.

[5]The LORD says,

“What did your people of long ago find wrong with me?
Why did they wander so far away from me?
They worshiped worthless statues of gods.
Then they themselves became worthless.
[6]They did not ask, ‘Where is the LORD?
He brought us up out of Egypt.
He led us through a dry and empty land.
He guided us through deserts and deep valleys.
It was a land of total darkness where there wasn’t any rain.
No one lived or traveled there.’
[7]But I brought you into a land that has rich soil.
I gave you its fruit and its finest food.
In spite of that, you made my land impure.
You turned it into something I hate.

[8]The priests did not ask,
‘Where is the LORD?’
Those who taught my law did not know me.
The leaders refused to obey me.
The prophets prophesied in the name of Baal.
They worshiped worthless statues of gods.

[9]“So I am bringing charges against you again,”
announces the LORD.
“And I will bring charges against your children’s children.
[10]Go over to the coasts of Cyprus and look.
Send people to the land of Kedar and have them look closely.
See if there has ever been anything like this.
[11]Has a nation ever changed its gods?
Actually, they are not even gods at all.
But my people have traded away their glorious God.
They have traded me for worthless statues of gods.
[12]Sky above, be shocked over this.
Tremble with horror,”
announces the LORD.
[13]“My people have sinned twice.
They have deserted me,
even though I am the spring of water that gives life.
And they have dug their own wells.
But those wells are broken.
They can’t hold any water.
[14]Are you people of Israel servants?
You were not born as slaves, were you?
Then why have you been carried off like stolen goods?
[15]Lions have roared.
They have growled at you.
They have destroyed your land.
Your towns are burned and deserted.
[16]The men of Memphis and Tahpanhes have cracked your skulls.
[17]Haven’t you brought this on yourselves?
I am the LORD your God, but you deserted me.

You left me even while I was leading you.
18 Why do you go to Egypt to drink water from the Nile River?
Why do you go to Assyria to drink from the Euphrates River?
19 You will be punished because you have sinned.
You will be corrected for turning away from me.
I am the LORD your God.
If you desert me, bad things will happen to you.
If you do not respect me, you will suffer bitterly.
I want you to understand that,"
announces the LORD who rules over all.

20 "Long ago you broke off the yoke I put on you.
You tore off the ropes I tied you up with.
You said, 'I won't serve you!'
In fact, on every high hill
you lay down like a prostitute.
You worshiped other gods under every green tree.
21 You were like a good vine when I planted you.
You were a healthy plant.
Then how did you turn against me?
How did you become a bad, wild vine?
22 You might wash yourself with soap.
You might use plenty of strong soap.
But I can still see the stains your guilt covers you with,"
announces the LORD and King.
23 "You say, 'I am "clean."
I haven't followed the gods that are named Baal.'
How can you say that?
Remember how you acted in the valley.
Consider what you have done.
You are like a female camel running quickly here and there.
24 You are like a wild donkey that lives in the desert.
She smells the wind when she longs for a mate.
Who can hold her back?
The males that run after her do not need to wear themselves out.
At mating time they will easily find her.

25 Do not run after other gods until your sandals are worn out and your throat is dry.
But you said, ‘It’s no use!
I love those gods.
I must go after them.’

26 “A thief is dishonored when he is caught.
And you people of Israel are filled with shame.
Your kings and officials are dishonored.
So are your priests and your prophets.
27 You say to a piece of wood, ‘You are my father.’
You say to a stone, ‘You are my mother.’
You have turned your backs to me.
You refuse to look at me.
But when you are in trouble, you say,
‘Come and save us!’
28 Then where are the gods you made for yourselves?
Let them come when you are in trouble!
Let them save you if they can!
Judah, you have as many gods
as you have towns.

29 “Why do you bring charges against me?
All of you have refused to obey me,”
announces the LORD.
30 “I punished your people. But it did not do them any good.
They did not pay attention when they were corrected.
You have killed your prophets by swords.
You have swallowed them up like a hungry lion.

31 “You who are now living, consider my message. I am saying,

“Have I been like a desert to Israel?
Have I been like a land of deep darkness?
Why do my people say, ‘We are free to wander.
We won’t come to you anymore’?
32 Does a young woman forget all about her jewelry?
Does a bride forget her wedding jewels?

But my people have forgotten me
more days than anyone can count.
33 You are very skilled at chasing after love!
Even the worst of women can learn from how you act.
34 The blood of those you have killed is on your clothes.
You have destroyed poor people who were not guilty.
You did not catch them in the act of breaking in.
In spite of all this,
35 you say, ‘I’m not guilty of doing anything wrong.
The LORD isn’t angry with me.’
But I will judge you.
That’s because you say, ‘I haven’t sinned.’ 36 Why do you keep on changing your ways so much?
Assyria did not help you.
And Egypt will not help you either.
37 So you will also leave Egypt with your hands tied together above your heads.
I have turned my back on those you trust.
They will not help you.

Jeremiah 3

[1]“Suppose a man divorces his wife.
What if she then marries another man?
Should her first husband return to her again?
If he does, won’t the land become completely ‘unclean’?
People of Israel, you have lived like a prostitute.
You have loved many other gods.
So do you think you can return to me now?”
announces the LORD.
[2]“Look up at the bare hilltops.
Is there any place where you have not worshiped other gods?
You have been unfaithful to me like a wife committing adultery.
By the side of the road you sat waiting for lovers.
You sat there like someone who wanders in the desert.
You have made the land impure.
You are like a sinful prostitute.
[3]So I have held back the showers.
I have kept the spring rains from falling.
But you still have the bold face of a prostitute.
You refuse to blush with shame.
[4]You have just now called out to me.
You said,
‘My Father, you have been my friend ever since I was young.
[5]Will you always be angry with me?
Will your anger continue forever?’
This is how you talk.
But you do all the evil things you can.”

Israel Is Not Faithful to the LORD

[6]During the time Josiah was king, the LORD spoke to me. He said, “Have you seen what the people of Israel have done? They have not been faithful to me. They have committed adultery with other gods. They worshiped them on every high hill and under every green tree. [7]I thought that after they had done all this, they would return to me. But they did not. Their sister nation Judah saw them doing this. And they were not faithful to me either. [8]I gave Israel their letter of divorce. I sent them away because they were unfaithful to me so many times. But I saw that their sister nation Judah did not have any respect for me. They were not faithful to me either. They also went out and committed adultery with other gods. [9]Israel was not faithful to me, but that did not bother them at all. They made the land ‘unclean.’ They worshiped gods that were made out of stone and wood. [10]In spite of all this, their sister nation Judah did not come back to me. They were not faithful to me either. They did not return with all their heart. They only pretended to,” announces the LORD.

[11]The LORD said to me, “Israel and Judah have not been faithful to me. But Israel was not as bad as Judah was. [12]Go. Announce this message to the people in the north. Tell them, “ ‘Israel, you have not been faithful,’ announces the LORD.

‘Return to me. Then I will do good things for you again.
That’s because I am faithful,’ announces the LORD.
‘I will not be angry with you forever.
[13]Admit that you are guilty of doing what is wrong.
You have refused to obey me. I am the LORD your God.
You have committed adultery with other gods.
You worshiped them under every green tree.
And you have not obeyed me,’ ”
announces the LORD.

[14]“You people have not been faithful,” announces the LORD. “Return to me. I am your husband. I will choose one of you from each town. I will choose two from each territory. And I will bring you to the city of Zion. [15]Then I will give you shepherds who are dear to my heart. Their knowledge and understanding will help them lead you. [16]In those days there will be many more of you in the land,” announces the LORD. “Then people will not talk about the ark of the covenant of the LORD anymore. It will never enter their minds. They will not remember it. The ark will not be missed. And another one will not be made. [17]At that time they will call Jerusalem The Throne of the LORD. All the nations will gather together there. They will go there to honor me. They will no longer do what their stubborn and evil hearts want them to do. [18]In those days the people of Judah will join the people of Israel. Together they will come from a land in the north. They will come to the land I gave to your people of long ago. I wanted them to have it as their very own.

19“I myself said,

“ ‘I would gladly treat you like my children.
I would give you a pleasant land.
It is the most beautiful land any nation could have.’
I thought you would call me ‘Father.’
I hoped you would always obey me.
20But you people are like a woman who is not faithful to her husband.
Israel, you have not been faithful to me,”
announces the LORD.

21A cry is heard on the bare hilltops.
The people of Israel are weeping and begging for help.
That’s because their lives are so twisted.
They’ve forgotten the LORD their God.

22“You have not been faithful,”
says the LORD.
“Return to me. I will heal you.
Then you will not turn away from me anymore.”

“Yes,” the people say. “We will come to you.
You are the LORD our God.
23The gods we worship on the hills and mountains are useless.
You are the LORD our God.
You are the only one who can save us.
24From our earliest years shameful gods have harmed us.
They have eaten up everything our people of long ago worked for.
They have eaten up our flocks and herds.
They’ve destroyed our sons and daughters.
25Let us lie down in our shame.
Let our dishonor cover us.
You are the LORD our God. But we have sinned against you.

We and our people of long ago have sinned.
We haven’t obeyed you from our earliest years until now.”

Jeremiah 4

[1]“If you, Israel, will return, then return to me,”
announces the LORD.
“Put the statues of your gods out of my sight.
I hate them.
Stop going astray.
[2]Make all your promises in my name.
When you promise say, ‘You can be sure that the LORD is alive.’
Be truthful, fair and honest when you make these promises.
Then the nations will ask for blessings from me.
And they will boast about me.”

[3]Here is what the LORD is telling the people of Judah and Jerusalem. He says,

“Your hearts are as hard as a field
that has not been plowed.
So change your ways and produce good crops.
Do not plant seeds among thorns.
[4]People of Judah and you who live in Jerusalem, obey me.
Do not let your hearts be stubborn.
If you do, my anger will blaze out against you.
It will burn like fire because of the evil things you have done.
No one will be able to put it out.

Trouble Will Come From the North

[5]“Announce my message in Judah.
Tell it in Jerusalem.
Say, ‘Blow trumpets all through the land!’
Give a loud shout and say,
‘Gather together!
Let’s run to cities that have high walls around them!’
[6]Warn everyone to go to Zion!
Run for safety! Do not wait!

I am bringing trouble from the north.
Everything will be totally destroyed.”

7Lions have come out of their dens.
Those who destroy nations have begun to march out.
They have left their place to destroy your land completely.
Your towns will be broken to pieces.
No one will live in them.
8So put on the clothes of sadness.
Mourn and weep over what has happened.
The LORD hasn’t turned his great anger away from us.

9“A dark day is coming,” announces the LORD.
“The king and his officials will lose hope.
The priests will be shocked.
And the prophets will be terrified.”

10Then I said, “You are my LORD and King. You have completely tricked the people of Judah and Jerusalem! You have told them, ‘You will have peace and rest.’ But swords are pointed at our throats!”

11At that time the people of Judah and Jerusalem will be warned. They will be told, “A hot and dry wind is coming, my people. It is blowing toward you from the bare hilltops in the desert. But it does not separate straw from grain. 12It is much too strong for that. The wind is coming from me. I am making my decision against you.”

13Look! Our enemies are approaching like the clouds.
Their chariots are coming like a strong wind.
Their horses are faster than eagles.
How terrible it will be for us!
We’ll be destroyed!
14People of Jerusalem, wash your sins from your hearts and be saved.
How long will you hold on to your evil thoughts?
15A voice is speaking all the way from the city of Dan.
From the hills of Ephraim it announces that trouble is coming.

16“Tell the nations.
Make an announcement concerning Jerusalem.
Say, ‘An army will attack Judah.
It is coming from a land far away.
It will shout a war cry against the cities of Judah.
17It will surround them like people who guard a field.
Judah has refused to obey me,’ ”
announces the LORD.
18“The army will attack you because of your conduct and actions.
This is how you will be punished.
It will be so bitter!
It will cut deep down into your hearts!”

19I’m suffering! I’m really suffering!
I’m hurting badly.
My heart is suffering so much!
It’s pounding inside me.
I can’t keep silent.
I’ve heard the sound of trumpets.
I’ve heard the battle cry.
20One trouble follows another.
The whole land is destroyed.
In an instant my tents are gone.
My home disappears in a moment.
21How long must I look at our enemy’s battle flag?
How long must I hear the sound of the trumpets?

22The LORD says, “My people are foolish.
They do not know me.
They are children who do not have any sense.
They have no understanding at all.
They are skilled in doing what is evil.
They do not know how to do what is good.”

23I looked at the earth.

It didn’t have any shape. And it was empty.
I looked at the sky.
Its light was gone.
24 I looked at the mountains.
They were shaking.
All the hills were swaying.
25 I looked. And there weren’t any people.
Every bird in the sky had flown away.
26 I looked. And the fruitful land had become a desert.
All its towns were destroyed.
The LORD had done all this because of his great anger.

27 The LORD says,

“The whole land will be destroyed.
But I will not destroy it completely.
28 So the earth will be filled with sadness.
The sky above will grow dark.
I have spoken, and I will not take pity on them.
I have made my decision, and I will not change my mind.”

29 People can hear the sound of horsemen.
Men armed with bows are coming.
The people in every town run away.
Some of them go into the bushes.
Others climb up among the rocks.
All the towns are deserted.
No one is living in them.

30 What are you doing, you who are destroyed?
Why do you dress yourself in bright red clothes?
Why do you put on jewels of gold?
Why do you put makeup on your eyes?
You make yourself beautiful for no reason at all.
Your lovers hate you.
They want to kill you.

31 I hear a cry like the cry of a woman having a baby.

I hear a groan like someone having her first child.
It’s the cry of the people of Zion struggling to breathe.
They reach out their hands and say,
“Help us! We’re fainting!
Murderers are about to kill us!”

Jeremiah 5

No One Is Honest

[1]The LORD says, “Go up and down the streets of Jerusalem.
Look around.
Think about what you see.
Search through the market.
See if you can find one honest person who tries to be truthful.
If you can, I will forgive this city.
[2]They make their promises in my name.
They say, ‘You can be sure that the LORD is alive.’
But their promises can’t be trusted.”

[3]LORD, don’t your eyes look for truth?
You struck down your people.
But they didn’t feel any pain.
You crushed them.
But they refused to be corrected.
They made their faces harder than stone.
They refused to turn away from their sins.
[4]I thought, “The people of Jerusalem are foolish.
They don’t know how the LORD wants them to live.
They don’t know what their God requires of them.
[5]So I will go to the leaders.
I’ll speak to them.
They should know how the LORD wants them to live.
They must know what their God requires of them.”
But all of them had broken off the yoke the LORD had put on
them.
They had torn off the ropes he had tied them up with.
[6]So a lion from the forest will attack them.
A wolf from the desert will destroy them.
A leopard will hide and wait near their towns.
It will tear to pieces anyone who dares to go out.
Again and again they have refused to obey the LORD.

They have turned away from him many times.

7 The LORD says, “Jerusalem, why should I forgive you?
Your people have deserted me.
They have made their promises in the names of gods that are not really gods at all.
I supplied everything they needed.
But they committed adultery.
Large crowds went to the houses of prostitutes.
8 Your people are like stallions that have plenty to eat.
Their sinful desires are out of control.
Each of them goes after another man’s wife.
9 Shouldn’t I punish them for this?”
announces the LORD.
“Shouldn’t I pay back the nation
that does these things?

10 “Armies of Babylon, go through their vineyards and destroy them.
But do not destroy them completely.
Strip off their branches.
These people do not belong to me.
11 The people of Israel and the people of Judah have not been faithful to me at all,”
announces the LORD.

12 They have told lies about the LORD.
They said, “He won’t do anything!
No harm will come to us.
We will never see war or be hungry.
13 The prophets are nothing but wind.
Their message doesn’t come from the LORD.
So let what they say will happen be done to them.”

14 The LORD God rules over all. He says to me,

“The people have spoken these words.
So my words will be like fire in your mouth.

I will make the people like wood.
And the fire will burn them up.”

15“People of Israel, listen to me,”
announces the LORD.
“I am bringing against you a nation from far away.
It is an old nation. And it will last for a long time.
Its people speak a language you do not know.
You can’t understand what they are saying.
16The bags they carry their arrows in are like an open grave.
All their soldiers are mighty.
17They will eat up your crops and your food.
They will strike down your sons and daughters.
They will kill your sheep and cattle.
They will destroy your vines and fig trees.
You trust in your cities that have high walls around them.
But the people in them will be killed by swords.

18“In spite of that, even in those days I will not destroy you completely,” announces the LORD. 19‘Jeremiah,’ the people will ask, ‘Why has the LORD our God done all this to us?’ Then you will tell them, ‘You have deserted the LORD. You have served other gods in your own land. So now you will serve another nation in a land that is not your own.’

20“Here is what I want you to announce to the people of Jacob.
Tell it in Judah.
Tell them I say,
21‘Listen to this, you foolish people,
who do not have any sense.
You have eyes, but you do not see.
You have ears, but you do not hear.
22Shouldn’t you have respect for me?’ announces the LORD.
‘Shouldn’t you tremble with fear in front of me?
I made the sand to hold the ocean back.
It will do that forever.
The ocean can’t go past it.

The waves might roll, but they can’t sweep over it.
They might roar, but they can’t go across it.
23But you people have stubborn hearts.
You refuse to obey me.
You have turned away from me.
You have gone astray.
24You do not say to yourselves,
“Let us have respect for the LORD our God.
He sends rain in the fall and the spring.
He promises us that the harvest will come at the same time each year.”
25But the things you have done wrong have robbed you of these gifts.
Your sins have kept these good things far away from you.’

26“Jeremiah, some of my people are evil.
They hide and wait just as people hide to catch birds.
They set traps for people.
27A hunter uses tricks to fill his cage with birds.
And my people have filled their houses with a lot of goods.
They have become rich and powerful.
28They have grown fat and heavy.
There is no limit to the evil things they do.
In court they do not seek justice.
They don’t protect the rights of children whose fathers have died.
They do not stand up for poor people.
29Shouldn’t I punish them for this?”
announces the LORD.
“Shouldn’t I pay back the nation that does these things?

30“Something horrible and shocking has happened in the land.
31The prophets prophesy lies.
The priests rule by their own authority.
And my people love it this way.

But what will you do in the end?”

Jeremiah 6

The Babylonians Will Attack Jerusalem

[1]The LORD says, “People of Benjamin, run for safety!
Run away from Jerusalem!
Blow trumpets in the city of Tekoa!
Warn everyone in Beth Hakkerem!
Horrible trouble is coming from the north.
The Babylonians will destroy everything with awful power.
[2]I will destroy the city of Zion, even though it is very beautiful.
[3]Shepherds will come against it with their flocks.
They will set up their tents around it.
All of them will take care of their own sheep.”

[4]The Babylonians say, “Prepare for battle against Judah!
Get up! Let’s attack them at noon!
But the daylight is fading.
The shadows of evening are getting longer.
[5]So get up! Let’s attack them at night!
Let’s destroy their strongest forts!”

[6]The LORD who rules over all speaks to the Babylonians. He says, “Cut down some trees.

Use the wood to build ramps against Jerusalem’s walls.
I must punish that city.
It is filled with people who treat others badly.
[7]Wells keep giving fresh water.
And Jerusalem keeps on sinning.
Its people are always fighting and causing trouble.
When I look at them,
I see nothing but sickness and wounds.
[8]Jerusalem, listen to my warning.
If you do not, I will turn away from you.
Your land will become a desert.

No one will be able to live there.”

9The LORD rules over all. He says to me,

“People gather the few grapes left on a vine.
So let Israel’s enemies gather the few people left alive in the land Look carefully at the branches again.
Do this like someone who gathers the last few grapes.”

10Who can I speak to? Who can I warn?
Who will even listen to me?
Their ears are closed
so they can’t hear.
The LORD’s message displeases them.
They don’t take any delight in it.
11But the LORD’s anger burns inside me.
I can no longer hold it in.

The LORD says to me, “Pour out my anger on the children in the street.
Pour it out on the young men who are gathered together.
Husband and wife alike will be caught in it.
So will those who are very old.
12I will reach out my hand against those who live in the land,”
announces the LORD.
“Then their houses will be turned over to others.
So will their fields and their wives.
13Everyone wants to get richer and richer,
from the least important of them to the most important.
Prophets and priests alike
try to fool everyone they can.
14They bandage the wounds of my people
as if they were not very deep.
‘Peace, peace,’ they say.
But there isn’t any peace.
15Are they ashamed of their hateful actions?

No. They do not feel any shame at all.
They do not even know how to blush.
So they will fall like others who have already fallen.
They will be brought down when I punish them,"
says the LORD.

16 The LORD tells the people of Judah,

"Stand where the roads cross, and look around.
Ask where the old paths are.
Ask for the good path, and walk on it.
Then your hearts will find rest in me.
But you said, 'We won't walk on it.'
17 I appointed prophets to warn you. I said,
'Listen to the sound of the trumpets!'
But you said, 'We won't listen.'
18 So pay attention, you nations.
You are witnesses for me.
Watch what will happen to my people.
19 Earth, pay attention.
I am going to bring trouble on them.
I will punish them because of the evil things they have done.
They have not listened to my words.
They have said no to my law.
20 What do I care about incense from the land of Sheba?
Why should I bother with sweet-smelling cane from a land far away?
I do not accept your burnt offerings.
Your sacrifices do not please me."

21 So the LORD says,

"I will bring an army against the people of Judah.
Parents and children alike will trip and fall.
Neighbors and friends will die."

22 The LORD says to Jerusalem,

"Look! An army is coming from the land of the north.

I am stirring up a great nation.
Its army is coming from a land that is very far away.
23 Its soldiers are armed with bows and spears.
They are mean. They do not show any mercy at all.
They come riding in on their horses.
They sound like the roaring ocean.
They are lined up for battle.
They are marching out to attack you, city of Zion.”

24 We have heard reports about them.
And our hands can’t help us.
We are suffering greatly.
It’s like the pain of a woman having a baby.
25 Don’t go out to the fields.
Don’t walk on the roads.
Our enemies have swords.
And there is terror on every side.
26 My people, put on the clothes of sadness.
Roll among the ashes.
Mourn with bitter weeping
just as you would mourn for an only son.
The one who is going to destroy us will come suddenly.

27 The LORD says to me, “I have made you like one who tests metals.
My people are the ore.
I want you to watch them
and test the way they live.
28 All of them are used to disobeying me.
They go around telling lies about others.
They are like bronze mixed with iron.
All of them do very sinful things.
29 The fire is made very hot so the lead will burn away.
But it is impossible to make these people pure.

Those who are evil are not removed.
30 They are like silver that is thrown away.
That is because I have not accepted them.”

Jeremiah 7

Worshiping Other Gods Is Worthless

[1]A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. The LORD said, [2]"Stand at the gate of my house. Announce my message to the people there. Say,

" 'Listen to the LORD's message, all you people of Judah. You always come through these gates to worship the LORD. [3]The God of Israel is speaking to you. He is the LORD who rules over all. He says, "Change the way you live and act. Then I will let you live in this place. [4]Do not trust in lies. Do not say, 'This is the temple of the LORD! This is the temple of the LORD! This is the temple of the LORD!' [5]You must really change the way you live and act. Treat one another fairly. [6]Do not treat outsiders or widows badly in this place. Do not take advantage of children whose fathers have died. Do not kill those who are not guilty of doing anything wrong. Do not worship other gods. That will only bring harm to you. [7]If you obey me, I will let you live in this place. It is the land I gave your people of long ago. It was promised to them for ever and ever. [8]But look! You are trusting in worthless lies.

[9]" ' "You continue to steal and commit murder. You commit adultery. You tell lies in court. You burn incense to Baal. You worship other gods you didn't know before. [10]Then you come and stand in front of me. You keep coming to this house where I have put my Name. You say, 'We are safe.' You think you are safe when you do so many things I hate. [11]My Name is in this house. But you have made it a den for robbers! I have been watching you!" announces the LORD.

[12]" ' "Go now to the town of Shiloh. Go to the place where I first made a home for my Name. See what I did to it because of the evil things my people Israel were doing. [13]I spoke to you again and again," announces the LORD. "I warned you while you were doing all these things. But you did not listen. I called out to you. But you did not answer. [14]So what I did to Shiloh I will now do to the house where my Name is. It is the temple you trust in. It is the place I gave to you and your people of long ago. [15]But I will throw you out of my land. That is exactly what I did to the people of Ephraim. And they are your relatives." '

[16]"Jeremiah, do not pray for these people. Do not make any appeal or request for them. Do not beg me. I will not listen to you. [17]Don't you see what they are doing? They are worshiping other gods in the towns of Judah. They are offering sacrifices to them in the streets of Jerusalem. [18]The children go out and gather wood. The fathers light the fire. The women mix the dough. They make flat cakes of bread to offer to the female god called the Queen of Heaven. They pour out drink offerings to other gods. That makes me very angry. [19]But am I the one they are hurting?" announces the LORD. "Aren't they only harming themselves? They should be ashamed of it."

[20]So the LORD and King says, "I will pour out my burning anger on this place. It will strike people and animals alike. It will destroy the trees in the fields and the crops in your land. It will burn, and no one will be able to put it out."

[21]The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says, "Go ahead! Add your burnt offerings to your other sacrifices. Eat the meat yourselves! [22]When I brought your people out of Egypt, I spoke to them. But I did not just give them commands about burnt offerings and sacrifices. [23]I also gave them another command. I said, 'Obey me. Then I will be your God. And you will be my people. Live the way I command you to live. Then things will go well with you.' [24]But they did not listen. They refused to pay any attention to me. Instead, they did what their stubborn and evil hearts wanted them to do. They went backward and not forward. [25]Again and again I sent my servants the prophets to you. They came to you day after day. They prophesied from the time your people left Egypt until now. [26]But your people of long ago did not listen. They refused to pay any attention to me. They were stubborn. They did more evil things than their people who lived before them.

[27]"Jeremiah, when you tell them all this, they will not listen to you. When you call out to them, they will not answer. [28]So say to them, 'You are a nation that has not obeyed the LORD your God. You did not pay attention when you were corrected. Truth has died out. You do not tell the truth anymore.' "

[29]The LORD says to the people of Jerusalem, "Cut off your hair. Throw it away. Sing a song of sadness on the bare hilltops. I am very angry with you. I have turned my back on you. I have deserted you.

The Valley of Death

[30]"The people of Judah have done what is evil in my eyes," announces the LORD. "They have set up statues of their gods. They have worshiped them in the house where my Name is. They have made my house 'unclean.' I hate those statues. [31]The people have built the high places of Topheth in the Valley of Ben Hinnom. There they worship other gods. And there they sacrifice their children in the fire. That is something I did not command. It did not even enter my mind.

[32]So watch out!” announces the LORD. “The days are coming when people will not call it Topheth anymore. And they will not call it the Valley of Ben Hinnom either. Instead, they will call it the Valley of Death. They will bury the dead bodies of some people in Topheth. But they will run out of room. [33]Then they will not be able to bury the bodies of other people there. So the bodies will become food for birds and wild animals. And no one will scare them away. [34]I will put an end to the sounds of joy and gladness. The voices of brides and grooms will not be heard anymore. There will be no sounds of joy in the towns of Judah. And there will be no joy in the streets of Jerusalem. The land will become a desert.

Jeremiah 8

[1]“At that time the tombs will be opened,” announces the LORD. “The bones of the kings and officials of Judah will be brought out. The bones of the priests and prophets will be removed. So will the bones of the people of Jerusalem. [2]They will lie outside under the sun, moon and all the stars. All these people had loved and served these things. They had followed them and worshiped them. They had asked them for advice. So the bones of these people will not be gathered up or buried again. Instead, they will be like human waste lying there on the ground. [3]Everyone left alive in this evil nation will want to die rather than live. That is what they will long for in the lands where I force them to go.” The LORD who rules over all announces this.

The LORD Punishes His Sinful People

[4]“Jeremiah, tell them, ‘The LORD says,

“ ‘ “When people fall down, don’t they get up again?
When someone turns away, don’t they come back?
[5]Then why have the people of Jerusalem turned away from me?
Why do they always turn away?
They keep on telling lies.
They refuse to come back to me.
[6]I have listened carefully.
But they do not say what is right.
They refuse to turn away from their sins.
None of them says, ‘What have I done?’
Each of them goes their own way.
They are like horses charging into battle.
[7]Storks know when to fly south.
So do doves, swifts and thrushes.
But my people do not know what I require them to do.

[8]“ ‘ “How can you people say, ‘We are wise.
We have the law of the LORD’?
Actually, the teachers of the law have told lies about it.

Their pens have not written what is true.
9Those who think they are wise will be put to shame.
They will become terrified. They will be trapped.
They have not accepted my message.
So what kind of wisdom do they have?
10I will give their wives to other men.
I will give their fields to new owners.
Everyone wants to get richer and richer.
Everyone is greedy, from the least important to the most important.
Prophets and priests alike
try to fool everyone they can.
11They bandage the wounds of my people
as if they were not very deep.
‘Peace, peace,’ they say.
But there isn’t any peace.
12Are they ashamed of their hateful actions?
No. They do not feel any shame at all.
They do not even know how to blush.
So they will fall like others who have already fallen.
They will be brought down when I punish them,”
says the LORD.

13“ ‘ “I will take away their harvest,”
announces the LORD.
“There will not be any grapes on the vines.
The trees will not bear any figs.
The leaves on the trees will dry up.
What I have given my people will be taken away from them.” ’ ”

14Why are we sitting here?
Let’s gather together!
Let’s run to the cities that have high walls around them!
Let’s die there!
The LORD our God has sentenced us to death.
He has given us poisoned water to drink.
That’s because we’ve sinned against him.

15 We hoped peace would come.
But nothing good has happened to us.
We hoped we would finally be healed.
But there is only terror.
16 When our enemy's horses snort,
the noise is heard all the way from the city of Dan.
When their stallions neigh,
the whole land trembles with fear.
They have come to destroy the land and everything in it.
The city and everyone who lives there will be destroyed.

17 "People of Judah, I will send poisonous snakes among you.
No one will be able to charm them.
And they will bite you,"
announces the LORD.

18 LORD, my heart is weak inside me.
You comfort me when I'm sad.
19 Listen to the cries of my people from a land far away.
They cry out, "Isn't the LORD in Zion?
Isn't its King there anymore?"

The LORD says, "Why have they made me so angry by worshiping their wooden gods?
Why have they made me angry with their worthless statues of gods from other lands?"

20 The people say, "The harvest is over.
The summer has ended.
And we still haven't been saved."

21 My people are crushed, so I am crushed.
I mourn, and I am filled with horror.
22 Isn't there any healing lotion in Gilead?
Isn't there a doctor there?

Then why doesn’t someone heal
the wounds of my people?

Jeremiah 9

[1]I wish my head were a spring of water!
I wish my eyes were a fountain of tears!
I would weep day and night for my people who have been killed.
[2]I wish I had somewhere to go in the desert where a traveler could stay!
Then I could leave my people.
I could get away from them.
All of them commit adultery by worshiping other gods.
They aren't faithful to the LORD.

[3]"They get ready to use their tongues like bows,"
announces the LORD.
"Their mouths shoot out lies like arrows.
They tell lies to gain power in the land.
They go from one sin to another.
They do not pay any attention to me.
[4]Be on guard against your friends.
Do not trust the members of your own family.
Every one of them cheats.
Every friend tells lies.
[5]One friend cheats another.
No one tells the truth.
They have taught their tongues how to lie.
They wear themselves out sinning.
[6]Jeremiah, you live among people who tell lies.
When they lie, they refuse to pay any attention to me,"
announces the LORD.

[7]So the LORD who rules over all says,

"I will put them through the fire to test them.
What else can I do?
My people are so sinful!

[8]Their tongues are like deadly arrows.
They tell lies.
With their mouths all of them speak kindly to their neighbors.
But in their hearts they set traps for them.
[9]Shouldn’t I punish them for this?”
announces the LORD.
“Shouldn’t I pay back the nation
that does these things?”

[10]I will cry and mourn over the mountains.
I will sing a song of sadness about the desert grasslands.
They are dry and empty. No one travels through them.
The mooing of cattle isn’t heard there.
The birds have flown away.
All the animals are gone.

[11]The LORD says, “I will knock down all of Jerusalem’s buildings.
I will make it a home for wild dogs.
The towns of Judah will be completely destroyed.
No one will be able to live in them.”

[12]Who is wise enough to understand these things? Who has been taught by the LORD? Who can explain them? Why has the land been destroyed so completely? Why has it become like a desert that no one can go across?

[13]The LORD answered me, “Because my people have turned away from my law. I gave it to them. But they have not kept it. They have not obeyed me. [14]Instead, they have done what their stubborn hearts wanted them to do. They have worshiped the gods that are named Baal. They have done what their people have taught them to do through the years.” [15]So now the LORD who rules over all speaks. He is the God of Israel. He says, “I will make these people eat bitter food. I will make them drink poisoned water. [16]I will scatter them among the nations. They and their people before them didn’t know about these nations. With swords I will chase these people. I will hunt them down until I have destroyed them.”

[17]The LORD rules over all. He says,

“Here is something I want you to think about.

Send for the women who mourn for the dead.
Send for the most skilled among them.”

18 Let them come quickly and weep for us.
Let them cry until tears flow from our eyes.
Let them weep until water pours out of our eyes.
19 People are heard weeping in Zion.
They are saying, “We are destroyed!
We are filled with shame!
We must leave our land.
Our houses have been torn down.”

20 You women, hear the LORD’s message.
Listen to what he’s saying.
Teach your daughters how to mourn for the dead.
Teach one another a song of sadness.
21 Death has climbed in through our windows.
It has entered our forts.
Death has removed the children from the streets.
It has taken the young men out of the market.

22 Say, “The LORD announces, “ ‘Dead bodies will be like human waste lying in the open fields.

They will lie there like grain that is cut down at harvest time.
No one will gather them up.’ ”

23 The LORD says,

“Do not let wise people brag about how wise they are.
Do not let strong people boast about how strong they are.
Do not let rich people brag about how rich they are.
24 But here is what the one who brags should boast about.
They should brag that they have the understanding to know me.
I want them to know that I am the LORD.
No matter what I do on earth, I am always kind, fair and right.

And I take delight in this,”

announces the LORD.

25“The days are coming when I will judge people,” announces the LORD. “I will punish all those who are circumcised only in their bodies. 26That includes the people of Egypt, Judah, Edom, Ammon and Moab. It also includes all those who live in the desert in places far away. None of the people in these nations is really circumcised. And not even the people of Israel are circumcised in their hearts.”

Jeremiah 10

The LORD Is the Only True God

[1]People of Israel, listen to what the LORD is telling you. [2]He says,

"Do not follow the practices of other nations.
Do not be terrified by warnings in the sky.
Do not be afraid, even though the nations are terrified by them.
[3]The practices of these nations are worthless.
People cut a tree out of the forest.
A skilled worker shapes the wood with a sharp tool.
[4]Others decorate it with silver and gold.
They use a hammer to nail it to the floor.
They want to keep it from falling down.
[5]The statues of their gods can't speak.
They are like scarecrows in a field of cucumbers.
Their statues have to be carried around because they can't walk.
So do not be afraid of their gods.
They can't do you any harm.
And they can't do you any good either."

[6]LORD, no one is like you.
You are great.
You are mighty and powerful.
[7]King of the nations,
everyone should have respect for you.
That's what people should give you.
Among all the wise leaders of the nations
there is no one like you.
No one can compare with you in all their kingdoms.
[8]All of them are foolish. They don't have any sense.
They think they are taught by worthless wooden gods.
[9]Hammered silver is brought from Tarshish.
Gold is brought from Uphaz.
People skilled in working with wood and gold make a statue.

Then they put blue and purple clothes on it.
The whole thing is made by skilled workers.
10 But you are the only true God.
You are the only living God.
You are the King who rules forever.
When you are angry, the earth trembles with fear.
The nations can't stand up under your anger.

11 The LORD speaks to the Jews living in Babylon. He says, "Here is what you must tell the people of the nations. Tell them, 'Your gods did not make the heavens and the earth. In fact, these gods will disappear from the earth. They will vanish from under the heavens.' "

12 But God used his power to make the earth.
His wisdom set the world in place.
His understanding spread out the heavens.
13 When he thunders, the waters in the heavens roar.
He makes clouds rise from one end of the earth to the other.
He sends lightning along with the rain.
He brings the wind out from his storerooms.

14 No one has any sense or knows anything at all.
Everyone who works with gold is put to shame by his gods.
The metal gods he has made are fakes.
They can't even breathe.
15 They are worthless things that people make fun of.
When the LORD judges them, they will be destroyed.
16 The God of Jacob is not like them.
He gives his people everything they need.
He made everything that exists.
And that includes Israel.
They are the people who belong to him.
His name is the LORD Who Rules Over All.

The Land Will Be Destroyed

17 People of Jerusalem, your enemies have surrounded you.
They are attacking you.

So gather up what belongs to you.
Then leave the land.
18 The LORD says,
"I am about to throw out of this land
everyone who lives in it.
I will bring trouble on them.
They will be captured."

19 How terrible it will be for me!
I've been wounded!
And my wound can't be healed!
In spite of that, I said to myself,
"I'm sick. But I'll have to put up with it."
20 Jerusalem is like a tent that has been destroyed.
All its ropes have snapped.
My people have gone away from me.
Now no one is left to set up my tent.
I have no one to set up my shelter.
21 The leaders of my people are like shepherds who don't have any sense.
They don't ask the LORD for advice.
That's why they don't succeed.
And that's why their whole flock is scattered like sheep.
22 Listen! A message is coming!
I hear the sound of a great army marching down from the north!
It will turn Judah's towns into a desert.
They will become a home for wild dogs.

Jeremiah Prays to the LORD

23 LORD, I know that a person doesn't control their own life.
They don't direct their own steps.
24 Correct me, LORD, but please be fair.
Don't correct me when you are angry.
If you do, nothing will be left of me.
25 Pour out your great anger on the nations.

They don’t pay any attention to you.
They refuse to worship you.
They have destroyed the people of Jacob.
They’ve wiped them out completely.
They’ve also destroyed the land they lived in.

Jeremiah 11

The LORD's People Have Broken His Covenant

[1]A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. The LORD said, [2]"Listen to the terms of the covenant I made with my people of long ago. Tell Judah the terms still apply to them. Tell those who live in Jerusalem that they must obey them too. [3]I am the LORD, the God of Israel. So let the people know what I want them to do. Here is what I want you to tell them. 'May the person who does not obey the terms of the covenant be under my curse. [4]I gave those terms to your people of long ago. That was when I brought them out of Egypt. I saved them out of that furnace that melts down iron and makes it pure.' I said, 'Obey me. Do everything I command you to do. Then you will be my people. And I will be your God. [5]I raised my hand and made a promise to your people of long ago. I promised them I would give them a land that had plenty of milk and honey.' It is the land you own today. I kept my promise."

I replied, "Amen, LORD."

[6]The LORD said to me, "Here is what I want you to announce in the towns of Judah. Say it also in the streets of Jerusalem. Tell the people, 'Listen to the terms of my covenant. Obey them. [7]Long ago I brought your people up from Egypt. From that time until today, I warned them again and again. I said, "Obey me." [8]But they did not listen. They did not pay any attention to me. Instead, they did what their stubborn and evil hearts wanted them to do. So I brought down on them all the curses of the covenant. I commanded them to obey it. But they refused.' "

[9]The LORD continued, "The people of Judah have made some evil plans. So have those who live in Jerusalem. [10]All of them have returned to the sins their people of long ago committed. Those people refused to listen to what I told them. And now the people of Israel and Judah alike have worshiped other gods and served them. They have broken the covenant I made with their people who lived before them. [11]So I say, 'I will bring trouble on them. They will not be able to escape it. They will cry out to me. But I will not listen to them. [12]The people of Jerusalem and of the towns of Judah will cry out. They will cry out to the gods they burn incense to. But those gods will not help them at all when trouble strikes them. [13]Judah, you have as many gods as you have towns. And in Jerusalem you have set up as many altars as there are streets. You are burning incense to that shameful god named Baal.’

14“Jeremiah, do not pray for these people. Do not make any appeal or request for them. They will call out to me when they are in trouble. But I will not listen to them.

15“I love the people of Judah.
But they are working out their evil plans along with many others.
So what are they doing in my temple?
Can meat that is offered to me keep me from punishing you?
When you do evil things, you get a lot of pleasure from them.”

16People of Judah, the LORD once called you a healthy olive tree.
He thought its fruit was beautiful.
But now he will come with the roar of a mighty storm.
He will set the tree on fire.
And its branches will be broken.

17The LORD who rules over all planted you. But now he has ordered your enemies to destroy you. The people of Israel and Judah have both done what is evil. They have made the LORD very angry by burning incense to Baal.

Jeremiah’s Enemies Make Evil Plans Against Him

18The LORD told me about the evil plans of my enemies. That’s how I knew about them. He showed me what they were doing. 19I had been like a gentle lamb led off to be killed. I didn’t realize they had made plans against me. They had said, “Let’s destroy the tree and its fruit.

Let’s take away his life.
Then his name won’t be remembered anymore.”
20But LORD, you rule over all.
You always judge fairly.
You test people’s hearts and minds.
So pay them back for what they’ve done.
I’ve committed my cause to you.

21The LORD says, “Jeremiah, here is what I am telling you about the people of Anathoth. They say they're going to kill you. They are saying, 'Don't prophesy in the LORD's name. If you do, we will kill you with our own hands.' " [22]So the LORD who rules over all says, "I will punish them. Their young men will be killed by swords. Their sons and daughters will die of hunger. [23]Only a few people will be left alive. I will judge the people of Anathoth. I will destroy them when the time comes to punish them."

Jeremiah 12

Jeremiah Complains to the LORD

[1]LORD, when I bring a matter to you,
you always do what is right.
But now I would like to speak with you about whether you are being fair.
Why are sinful people successful?
Why do those who can't be trusted have an easy life?
[2]You have planted them.
Their roots are deep in the ground.
They grow and produce fruit.
They honor you by what they say.
But their hearts are far away from you.
[3]LORD, you know me and see me.
You test my thoughts about you.
Drag those people off like sheep to be killed!
Set them apart for the day of their death!
[4]How long will the land be thirsty for water?
How long will the grass in every field be dry?
The people who live in the land are evil.
So the animals and birds have died.
And that's not all. The people are saying,
"The LORD won't see what happens to us."

The LORD Answers Jeremiah

[5]The LORD says, "Suppose you have raced against people.
And suppose they have worn you out.
Then how would you be able to race against horses?
Suppose you feel safe only in open country.
Then how would you get along in the bushes near the Jordan River?
[6]Even your relatives have turned against you.
They are members of your own family.
They have shouted loudly at you.

They might say nice things about you.
But do not trust them.

7"I will turn my back on my people.
I will desert my land.
I love the people of Judah.
In spite of that, I will hand them over to their enemies.
8My land has become to me like a lion in the forest.
It roars at me.
So I hate it.
9My own land has become like a spotted hawk.
And other hawks surround it and attack it.
Come, all you wild animals!
Gather together!
Come together to eat up my land.
10Many shepherds will destroy my vineyard.
They will walk all over it.
They will turn my pleasant vineyard
into a dry and empty land.
11My vineyard will become a desert.
It will be dry and empty in my sight.
The whole land will be completely destroyed.
And no one even cares.
12Many will come to destroy it.
They will gather on the bare hilltops in the desert.
I will use them as my sword to destroy my people.
They will kill them from one end of the land to the other.
No one will be safe.
13People will plant wheat. But all they will gather is thorns.
They will wear themselves out. But they will not have anything to show for it.
I am very angry with them.
So they will be ashamed of the crop they gather."

14Here is what the LORD says. "All my evil neighbors have taken over the land I gave my people Israel. So I will pull them up by their roots from the lands they live in. And I will pull up the roots of the people of Judah from among them. [15]But after I pull up those nations, I will give my tender love to them again. I will bring all of them back to their own lands. I will take all of them back to their own countries. [16]Suppose those nations learn to follow the practices of my people. And they make their promises in my name. When they promise, they say, ‘You can be sure that the LORD is alive.’ They do this just as they once taught my people to make promises in Baal’s name. Then I will give them a place among my people. [17]But what if one of those nations does not listen? Then you can be sure of this. I will pull it up by the roots and destroy it,” announces the LORD.

Jeremiah 13

A Linen Belt

[1]The LORD said to me, “Go and buy a linen belt. Put it around your waist.
But do not let it get wet.” [2]So I bought a belt, just as the LORD had told me to do. And I put it around my waist.
[3]Then another message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [4]“Take off the belt you bought and are wearing around your waist. Go to Perath. Hide the belt there in a crack in the rocks.” [5]So I went and hid it at Perath. I did just as the LORD had told me to do.
[6]Many days later the LORD said to me, “Go to Perath. Get the belt I told you to hide there.” [7]So I went to Perath. I dug up the belt. I took it from the place where I had hidden it. But it had rotted. It was completely useless.
[8]Then another message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [9]“In the same way, I will destroy Judah’s pride. And I will destroy the great pride of Jerusalem. [10]These people are evil. They refuse to listen to what I say. They do what their stubborn hearts want them to do. They chase after other gods. They serve them and worship them. So they will be like this belt. They will be completely useless. [11]A belt is tied around a person’s waist. In the same way, I tied all the people of Israel to me. I also tied all the people of Judah to me like a belt. I wanted them to be my people. They should have brought me fame and praise and honor. But they have not listened to me,” announces the LORD.

Wineskins

[12]“Tell them, ‘The LORD is the God of Israel. He says, “Every wineskin should be filled with wine.” ’ Here is what the people might say to you. ‘Don’t we know that every wineskin should be filled with wine?’ [13]If they do, here is what you must tell them. ‘The LORD says, “I am going to fill with wine everyone who lives in this land. I will make the kings who sit on David’s throne drunk. And I will fill with wine the priests, the prophets and everyone who lives in Jerusalem. [14]I will smash them against one another. I will punish parents and children alike,” announces the LORD. “I will not feel sorry for them. I will not show them any kindness. My tender love for them will not keep me from destroying them.” ’ ”

Judah Will Be Taken Away From Their Land

15 People of Judah, listen to me.
Pay attention and don't be proud.
The LORD has spoken.
16 Give glory to the LORD your God.
Honor him before he sends darkness to cover the land.
Do this before you trip and fall on the darkened hills.
You hope that light will come.
But he will turn it into thick darkness.
He will change it to deep shadows.
17 If you don't listen,
I will weep in secret.
Because you are so proud,
I will weep bitterly.
Tears will flow from my eyes.
The LORD's flock will be taken away as prisoners.

18 Speak to the king and his mother. Tell them,
"Come down from your thrones.
Your glorious crowns are about to fall from your heads."
19 The gates of the cities in the Negev Desert will be shut tight.
There won't be anyone to open them.
Everyone in Judah will be carried away as prisoners.
You will be completely taken away.

20 Jerusalem, look up!
Your enemies are coming from the north.
Where is the flock you were supposed to take care of?
Where are the sheep you were so proud of?
21 You have worked hard to make special friends.
But the LORD will let them rule over you.
Then what will you say?
Suffering will take hold of you.
It will be like the pain of a woman having a baby.

22 Suppose you ask yourself,
"Why has this happened to me?"
It's because you have committed so many sins.
That's the reason your skirt has been torn off.
That's why your body has been treated so badly.
23 Can people from Ethiopia change their skin?
Can leopards change their spots?
It's the same with you.
You have always done what is evil.
So how can you do what is good?

24 The LORD says, "I will scatter you like straw that the desert wind blows away.
25 This is what will happen to you.
I have appointed it for you,"
announces the LORD.
"You have forgotten me.
You have trusted in other gods.
26 So I will pull your skirt up over your face.
Then people will see the shame of your naked body.
27 They will see that you have not been faithful to me.
You have committed adultery with other gods.
And you have acted like a prostitute who does not have any shame.
I have seen what you did on the hills and in the fields.
And I hate it.
How terrible it will be for you, Jerusalem!
How long will you choose to be 'unclean'?"

Jeremiah 14

War and Hunger

[1]A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. He told Jeremiah there wouldn't be any rain in the land. The LORD said,

[2]"Judah is filled with sadness.
Its cities are wasting away.
The people weep for the land.
Crying is heard in Jerusalem.
[3]The nobles send their servants to get water.
They go to the wells.
But they do not find any water.
They return with empty jars.
They are terrified. They do not have any hope.
They cover their heads.
[4]The ground is dry and cracked.
There isn't any rain in the land.
The farmers are terrified.
They cover their heads.
[5]Even the female deer in the fields desert their newborn fawns.
There isn't any grass to eat.
[6]Wild donkeys stand on the bare hilltops.
They long for water as wild dogs do.
Their eyesight fails
because they do not have any food to eat."

[7]LORD, our sins are a witness against us.
But do something for the honor of your name.
We have often turned away from you.
We've sinned against you.
[8]You are Israel's only hope.
You save us when we're in trouble.
Why are you like a stranger to us?
Why are you like a traveler who stays for only one night?

[9]Why are you like a man taken by surprise?
Why are you like a soldier who can't save anyone?
LORD, you are among us.
And we are your people.
Please don't desert us!

[10]The LORD gave Jeremiah a message about these people. The LORD said,

"They really love to wander away from me.
Their feet go down the wrong path.
I do not accept these people.
I will remember the evil things they have done.
I will punish them for their sins."

[11]The LORD continued, "Do not pray that things will go well with them. [12]Even if they go without food, I will not listen to their cry for help. They might sacrifice burnt offerings and grain offerings. But I will not accept them. Instead, I will destroy them with war, hunger and plague."

[13]But I said, "LORD and King, the prophets keep telling them something else. They say, 'You won't have to suffer from war or hunger. Instead, the LORD will give you peace and rest in this place.' "

[14]Then the LORD said to me, "The prophets are prophesying lies in my name. I have not sent them or appointed them. I have not even spoken to them. Everything they tell you about their visions or secret knowledge is a lie. They pretend to bring you messages from other gods. They try to get you to believe their own mistaken ideas. [15]So here is what I am saying about the prophets who are prophesying in my name. I did not send them. But they are saying, 'No war or hunger will come to this land.' Those same prophets will die because of war and hunger. [16]And the people they are prophesying to will be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem. They will die because of hunger and war. No one will bury them. No one will bury their wives and children. I will pour out trouble on them. That is exactly what they should get.

[17]"Jeremiah, give them this message. Tell them,

" 'Let tears flow from my eyes.
Let them pour out night and day.
Never let them stop.

The people of my own nation have suffered a terrible wound.
They have been crushed.
18 Suppose I go into the country.
Then I see people who have been killed by swords.
Or suppose I go into the city.
Then I see people who have died of hunger.
Prophet and priest alike have gone to a land they hadn't known about before.' "

19 LORD, have you completely turned your back on Judah?
Do you hate the city of Zion?
Why have you made us suffer?
We can't be healed.
We hoped peace would come.
But nothing good has happened to us.
We hoped we would finally be healed.
But all we got was terror.
20 LORD, we admit we've done evil things.
We also admit that our people of long ago were guilty.
It's true that we've sinned against you.
21 For the honor of your name, don't turn your back on us.
Don't bring shame on your glorious throne in the temple.
Remember the covenant you made with us.
Please don't break it.
22 Do any of the worthless gods of the nations bring rain?
Do the skies send down showers all by themselves?
No. LORD our God, you send the rain.
So we put our hope in you.
You are the one who does all these things.

Jeremiah 15

[1]Then the LORD said to me, “Suppose Moses and Samuel were standing in front of me. Even then my heart would not feel sorry for these people. Send them away from me! Let them go! [2]Suppose these people ask you, ‘Where should we go?’ Then tell them, ‘The LORD says,

“ ‘ “Those I have appointed to die will die.
Those I have appointed to be killed by swords
will be killed by swords.
Those I have appointed to die of hunger will die of hunger.
Those I have appointed to be taken away as prisoners will be taken away.” ’

[3]“I will send four kinds of destroyers against them,” announces the LORD.
“Swords will kill them. Dogs will drag them away. Birds will eat them up. And wild animals will destroy them. [4]I will make all the kingdoms on earth hate them. That will happen because of what Manasseh did in Jerusalem. He was king of Judah and the son of Hezekiah.

[5]“Jerusalem, who will have pity on you?
Who will mourn for you?
Who will stop to ask how you are doing?
[6]You have said no to me,” announces the LORD.
“You keep on turning away from me.
So I will reach out and destroy you.
I am tired of showing you pity.
[7]I will stand at the city gates of the land.
I will separate the straw from the grain.
I will destroy my people. I will bring great sorrow on them.
They have not changed their ways.
[8]I will increase the number of their widows.
There will be more of them than the grains of sand on the seashore.
At noon I will bring a destroyer against the mothers of the young men among my people.

All at once I will bring down on them great suffering and terror.
9 Mothers who have many children will grow weak.
They will take their last breath.
The sun will set on them while it is still day.
They will be dishonored and put to shame.
All those who are left alive I will kill by swords.
I will have their enemies do this,”
announces the LORD.

10 My mother, I wish I had never been born!
The whole land opposes me.
They fight against me.
I haven’t made loans to anyone.
And I haven’t borrowed anything.
But everyone curses me anyway.

11 The LORD said,

“Jeremiah, I will keep you safe for a good purpose.
I will make your enemies ask you to pray for them.
They will make their appeal to you when they are in great trouble.

12 “People of Judah, the armies of Babylon will come from the north.
They are as strong as iron and bronze.
Can anyone break their power?
13 I will give away your wealth and your treasures.
Your enemies will carry off everything.
And they will not pay anything for it.
That will happen because you have sinned so much.
You have done it throughout your country.
14 I will make you slaves to your enemies.
You will serve them in a land
you have not known about before.
My anger will start a fire that will burn you up.”

15 LORD, you understand how much I'm suffering.
Show concern for me. Take care of me.
Pay back those who are trying to harm me.
You are patient. Don't take my life away from me.
Think about how much shame I suffer because of you.
16 When I received your words, I ate them.
They filled me with joy.
My heart took delight in them.
LORD God who rules over all,
I belong to you.
17 I never sat around with those who go to wild parties.
I never had a good time with them.
I sat alone because you had put your powerful hand on me.
Your anger against sin was burning inside me.
18 Why does my pain never end?
Why is my wound so deep?
Why can't I ever get well?
To me you are like a stream that runs dry.
You are like a spring that doesn't have any water.

19 So the LORD says to Jeremiah,

"If you turn away from your sins, I will heal you.
And then you will be able to serve me.
Speak words that are worthy, not worthless.
Then you will be speaking for me.
Let these people turn to you.
But you must not turn to them.
20 I will make you like a wall to them.
I will make you like a strong bronze wall.
The people will fight against you.
But they will not overcome you.
I am with you.
I will save you,"
announces the LORD.
21 "I will save you from the hands of evil people.
I will set you free from those who treat you badly."

Jeremiah 16

Times of Trouble Are Coming

1 A message from the LORD came to me. He said, 2 “Jeremiah, you must not get married. You must not have any sons or daughters in this land.” 3 Here is the LORD’s message about the children born in this place. He says about them and their parents, 4 “Some of them will die of deadly sicknesses. No one will mourn for them. Their bodies will not be buried. Instead, they will be like human waste lying there on the ground. Others will die because of war and hunger. Their bodies will not be buried. Instead, they will become food for the birds and the wild animals.”

5 The LORD says, “Jeremiah, suppose a meal is being served because someone has died. Do not enter any house where that is happening. Do not go there to mourn or to comfort the family. I will not bless these people anymore. I have taken my love and pity away from them,” announces the LORD. 6 “Important and unimportant people alike will die in this land. Their bodies will not be buried. No one will mourn for them. No one will cut themselves or shave their head for the dead. 7 No one will offer food or drink to comfort those who mourn for the dead. No one will do this even if someone’s father or mother has died.

8 “Do not enter a house where a feast is being held. Do not sit down there to eat and drink. 9 I am the LORD who rules over all. I am the God of Israel. I am telling you, ‘In your days I will judge your people. You will see it with your own eyes. I will put an end to the sounds of joy and gladness here in Jerusalem. The voices of brides and grooms will not be heard anymore.’

10 “Tell these people all these things. They will ask you, ‘Why has the LORD decided to send so much trouble on us? We haven’t done anything wrong. We haven’t committed any sins against the LORD our God.’ 11 When they say this, here is what you should tell them. ‘I did it because your people of long ago deserted me,’ announces the LORD. ‘They followed other gods. They served them and worshiped them. They deserted me. They did not obey my law. 12 But you have done more evil things than they did. All of you are doing what your stubborn and evil hearts want you to do. You are not obeying me. 13 So I will throw you out of this land. I will send you away to another land. Neither you nor your people of long ago have known about it. There you will serve other gods day and night. And I will not give you any help.’

14“But a new day is coming,” announces the LORD. “At that time here is what people will no longer say. ‘As sure as he is alive, the LORD brought the Israelites up out of Egypt.’ 15Instead, they will say, ‘The LORD brought the Israelites up out of the land of the north. He gathered them out of all the countries where he had forced them to go. And that’s just as sure as he is alive.’ I will bring them back to the land I gave their people of long ago.
16“But now I will send for many fishermen,” announces the LORD. “They will catch some of these people. After that, I will send for many hunters. They will hunt down the others on every mountain and hill. They will bring them out of the cracks in the rocks. 17My eyes see everything these people do. What they do is not hidden from me. I always see their sin. 18I will pay them back double for their sin and the evil things they have done. They have made my land ‘unclean.’ They have set up lifeless statues of their evil gods. They have filled my land with them. I hate those gods.”

19LORD, you give me strength.
You are like a fort to me.
When I’m in trouble,
I go to you for safety.
The nations will come to you
from one end of the earth to the other.
They will gather together and say,
“Our people of long ago didn’t own anything except statues of gods.
The statues were worthless.
They didn’t do them any good.
20Do human beings really make their own gods?
Yes. But they aren’t really gods at all!”

21The LORD says, “So I will teach them about myself.
This time I will show them how powerful and mighty I am.
Then they will know that I am the LORD.

Jeremiah 17

[1]“Judah’s sin is carved with an iron tool.
It is written with the flint point of the tool.
It is carved on the tablets of their hearts.
It is written on the horns that stick out from the corners of their altars.
[2]Even their children offer sacrifices to other gods on those altars.
They use the poles that were made to worship the female god named Asherah.
They worship strange gods beside the green trees and on the high hills.
[3]I will give away my holy Mount Zion to the Babylonians.
Your enemies will carry off your wealth and all your treasures.
I will give away your high places.
That will happen because you have sinned.
You have done it throughout your country.
[4]You will lose the land I gave you.
And it will be your own fault.
I will make you slaves to your enemies.
You will serve them in a land you didn’t know about before.
You have set my anger on fire.
It will burn forever.”

[5]The LORD says,

“Those who trust in human beings are under my curse.
They depend on human strength.
Their hearts turn away from me.
[6]They will be like a bush in a dry and empty land.
They will not enjoy success when it comes.
They will live in dry places in the desert.
It is a land of salt where no one else lives.

[7]“But I will bless anyone who trusts in me.

I will do good things for the person who depends on me.
[8]They will be like a tree planted near water.
It sends out its roots beside a stream.
It is not afraid when heat comes.
Its leaves are always green.
It does not worry when there is no rain.
It always bears fruit.”

[9]A human heart is more dishonest than anything else.
It can’t be healed.
Who can understand it?

[10]The LORD says, “I look deep down inside human hearts.
I see what is in people’s minds.
I reward each person in keeping with their conduct.
I bless them based on what they have done.”

[11]Some people get rich by doing sinful things.
They are like a partridge that hatches eggs it didn’t lay.
When their lives are half over, their riches will desert them.
In the end they will prove how foolish they have been.

[12]Our temple is where the LORD’s glorious throne is.
From the beginning it has been high and lifted up.
[13]LORD, you are Israel’s only hope.
Everyone who deserts you will be put to shame.
The names of those who turn away from you will be listed among the dead.
LORD, they have deserted you.
You are the spring of water that gives life.

[14]LORD, heal me. Then I will be healed.
Save me from my enemies. Then I will be saved.
You are the one I praise.
[15]They keep saying to me,
“What has happened to the message the LORD gave you?
Let it come true right now!”
[16]I haven’t run away from being the shepherd of your people.

You know I haven’t wanted the day of Jerusalem’s fall to come.
You are aware of every word that comes from my lips.
17 Don’t be a terror to me.
When I’m in trouble, I go to you for safety.
18 Let those who attack me be put to shame.
But keep me from shame.
Let them be terrified.
But keep me from terror.
Bring the day of trouble on them.
Destroy them once and for all.

Keep the Sabbath Day Holy

19 The LORD said to me, “Go. Stand at the city gate called the Gate of the People. That is where the kings of Judah go in and out. Then stand at all the other gates of Jerusalem. 20 Say, ‘Listen to the LORD’s message, you kings of Judah and all you people of Judah and Jerusalem. You always come through these gates. 21 The LORD says, “Make sure you do not carry a load on the Sabbath day. Do not bring it through the gates of Jerusalem. 22 Do not bring a load out of your houses on the Sabbath day. Do not do any work on that day. Instead, keep the Sabbath day holy. Do as I commanded your people of long ago. 23 But they did not listen. They did not pay any attention to me. They were stubborn. They would not listen or pay attention when I corrected them. 24 Be careful to obey me,” announces the LORD. “Do not bring a load through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day. Instead, keep the Sabbath day holy. Do not do any work on it. 25 Then kings who sit on David’s throne will come through the gates of this city. They and their officials will come riding in chariots and on horses. The people of Judah and Jerusalem will come along with them. And this city will always have people living in it. 26 Some will come from the towns of Judah. And some will come in from the villages around Jerusalem. Others will come from the territory of Benjamin. And others will come in from the western hills. Still others will come from the central hill country and the Negev Desert. All of them will bring burnt offerings and sacrifices. They will come bringing grain offerings, incense and thank offerings. They will take all these offerings to my house. 27 But what if you do not obey me? Suppose you do not keep the Sabbath day holy. And suppose you carry a load through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. Then I will start a fire that can’t be put out. It will begin at the gates of Jerusalem. It will destroy its mighty towers.” ’ ”

Jeremiah 18

The LORD Sends Jeremiah to the Potter's House

[1]A message from the LORD came to me. He said, [2]"Jeremiah, go down to the potter's house. I will give you my message there." [3]So I went down to the potter's house. I saw him working at his wheel. [4]His hands were shaping a pot out of clay. But he saw that something was wrong with it. So he formed it into another pot. He shaped it in the way that seemed best to him.

[5]Then the LORD's message came to me. [6]"People of Israel, I can do with you just as this potter does," announces the LORD. "The clay is in the potter's hand. And you are in my hand, people of Israel. [7]Suppose I announce that something will happen to a nation or kingdom. Suppose I announce that it will be pulled up by the roots. And I announce that it will be torn down and destroyed. [8]But suppose the nation I warned turns away from its sins. Then I will not do what I said I would. I will not bring trouble on it as I had planned. [9]But suppose I announce that a nation or kingdom is going to be built up and planted. [10]And then it does what is evil in my eyes. It does not obey me. Then I will think again about the good things I had wanted to do for it.

[11]"So speak to the people of Judah and Jerusalem. Tell them, 'The LORD says, "Look! I am making plans against you. I am going to bring trouble on you. So each one of you must turn from your evil ways. Change the way you live and act." ' [12]But they will reply, 'It's no use. We will continue to do what we've already planned. All of us will do what our stubborn and evil hearts want us to do.' "

[13]So the LORD says,

"Ask the nations a question. Say to them,
'Who has ever heard anything like this?
The people of Israel have done
a very horrible thing.
[14]Does the snow ever disappear from Lebanon's rocky slopes?
Do its cool waters ever stop flowing from places far away?
[15]But my people have forgotten me.

They burn incense to worthless gods.
Their gods made them trip and fall
as they walked on the old paths.
They made them use side roads
instead of roads that were built up.
16So their land will become a horrible thing.
People will make fun of it again and again.
All those who pass by it will be shocked.
They will shake their heads.
17I will sweep over my people like a wind from the east.
I will use the Babylonians to scatter them.
I will show them my back and not my face.
I will desert them when their day of trouble comes.’ ”

18They said, “Come on. Let’s make plans against Jeremiah. We’ll still have priests to teach us the law. We’ll always have wise people to give us advice. We’ll have prophets to bring us messages from the LORD. So come on. Let’s speak out against Jeremiah. We shouldn’t pay any attention to what he says.”

19LORD, please listen to me!
Hear what my enemies are saying about me!
20Should the good things I’ve done be paid back with evil?
But my enemies have dug a pit for me.
Remember that I stood in front of you and spoke up for them.
I tried to turn your anger away from them.
21So let their children die of hunger.
Let my enemies be killed in war.
Let their wives lose their children and husbands.
Let their men be put to death.
Let their young men be killed in battle.
22Bring their enemies against them without warning.
Let cries be heard from their houses.
They have dug a pit to capture me.
They have hidden traps for my feet.
23But LORD, you know
all about their plans to kill me.
Don’t forgive their crimes.

Don’t erase their sins from your sight.
Destroy my enemies.
Punish them when the time to show your anger comes.

Jeremiah 19

[1]The LORD said to Jeremiah, “Go and buy a clay jar from a potter. Take along some of the elders of the people. Also tell some of the priests to go with you.
[2]Go out to the Valley of Ben Hinnom. Stand near the entrance of the gate where broken pieces of pottery are thrown away. There announce the message I give you. [3]Tell the people, ‘Listen to the LORD’s message, you kings of Judah and people of Jerusalem. The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says, “Listen! I am going to bring trouble on Jerusalem. It will be so horrible that it will make the ears of everyone who hears about it ring. [4]My people have deserted me. They have made this city a place where other gods are worshiped.
They have burned incense to them here. They, their people of long ago and the kings of Judah had never known these gods. My people have also filled this place with the blood of those who aren’t guilty. [5]They have built the high places where they worship Baal. There they sacrifice their children in the fire as offerings to Baal. That is something I did not command or talk about. It did not even enter my mind. [6]So watch out!” announces the LORD. “The days are coming when people will not call this place Topheth anymore. And they will not call it the Valley of Ben Hinnom either. Instead, they will call it the Valley of Death.

[7]“ ‘ “In this place I will make the plans of Judah and Jerusalem as useless as a broken jar. I will use their enemies to kill my people by swords. They will die at the hands of those who want to take their lives. I will give their dead bodies as food to the birds and the wild animals. [8]I will completely destroy this city. I will make it a horrible thing. People will make fun of it. All those who pass by it will be shocked. They will laugh at its people because of all their wounds. [9]I will make the people of this city eat their sons and daughters. And they will eat one another. They will do this because things will be so bad during the attack. The enemies who want to take their lives will bring all this trouble on them.” ’

[10]“Jeremiah, break the jar while those who go with you are watching. [11]Tell them, ‘Here is what the LORD who rules over all says. “This potter’s jar is smashed and can’t be repaired. And I will smash this nation and this city. People will bury their dead in Topheth. But they will run out of room. [12]Here is what I will do to Jerusalem and those who live here,” ’ announces the LORD. ‘ “I will make this city like Topheth. [13]The houses in Jerusalem will be made ‘unclean’ like Topheth. So will the houses of the kings of Judah. All these people burned incense on their roofs to all the stars. They poured out drink offerings to other gods.” ’ ”

14Then Jeremiah returned from Topheth. That’s where the LORD had sent him to prophesy. Jeremiah stood in the courtyard of the LORD’s temple. He spoke to all the people. He said, 15“The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says, ‘Listen! I am going to punish this city and all the villages around it. I am going to bring against them all the trouble I have announced. That’s because my people were stubborn. They would not listen to what I said.’ ”

Jeremiah 20

Jeremiah and Pashhur

[1]Pashhur the priest was the official in charge of the LORD's temple. He was the son of Immer. Pashhur heard Jeremiah prophesying that Jerusalem would be destroyed. [2]So he had Jeremiah the prophet beaten. Then Pashhur put him in prison at the Upper Gate of Benjamin at the LORD's temple. [3]The next day Pashhur set him free. Jeremiah said to him, "The LORD's name for you isn't Pashhur. The LORD's name for you is Terror on Every Side. [4]The LORD says to you, 'I will make you a terror to yourself. You will also be a terror to all your friends. With your own eyes you will see them die. Their enemies will kill them with swords. I will hand over all the people of Judah to the king of Babylon. He will carry them away to Babylon or kill them with swords. [5]I will hand over all the wealth of this city to Judah's enemies. I will give them all its products and everything of value. I will turn over to them all the treasures that belonged to the kings of Judah. They will take these things and carry them off to Babylon.
[6]Pashhur, you and everyone who lives in your house will also be forced to go there. You have prophesied lies to all your friends. So all of you will die and be buried in Babylon.' "

Jeremiah Complains to the LORD

[7]You tricked me, LORD, and I was tricked.
You overpowered me and won.
People make fun of me all day long.
Everyone laughs at me.

[8]Every time I speak, I cry out.
All you ever tell me to talk about is fighting and trouble.
Your message has brought me nothing but dishonor.
It has made me suffer shame all day long.
[9]Sometimes I think, "I won't talk about his message anymore.
I'll never speak in his name again."
But then your message burns in my heart.
It's like a fire deep inside my bones.

I’m tired of holding it in.
In fact, I can’t.
10I hear many people whispering,
“There is terror on every side!
Bring charges against Jeremiah! Let’s bring charges against him!”
All my friends
are waiting for me to slip.
They are saying, “Perhaps he will be tricked into making a mistake.
Then we’ll win out over him.
We’ll get even with him.”

11But you are with me like a mighty warrior.
So those who are trying to harm me will trip and fall.
They won’t win out over me.
They will fail. They’ll be totally put to shame.
Their dishonor will never be forgotten.

12LORD, you rule over all.
You test those who do what is right.
You see what is in people’s hearts and minds.
So pay them back for what they’ve done.
I’ve committed my cause to you.

13Sing to the LORD, you people!
Give praise to him!
He saves the lives of people in need.
He saves them from the power of sinful people.

14May the day I was born be cursed!
May the day I was born to my mother not be blessed!
15May the man who brought my father the news be cursed!
He’s the one who made my father very glad.
He said, “You have had a baby! It’s a boy!”
16May that man be like the towns
the LORD destroyed without pity.
May that man hear loud weeping in the morning.

May he hear a battle cry at noon.
17 He should have killed me in my mother’s body.
He should have made my mother my grave.
He should have let her body stay large forever.
18 Why did I ever come out of my mother’s body?
I’ve seen nothing but trouble and sorrow.
My days will end in shame.

Jeremiah 21

The LORD Refuses Zedekiah's Appeal

[1]A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. It came when King Zedekiah sent Pashhur to Jeremiah. Pashhur was the son of Malkijah. Zedekiah sent Zephaniah the priest along with him. Zephaniah was the son of Maaseiah. They said to Jeremiah, [2]"Ask the LORD to help us. Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon is attacking us. In the past the LORD did wonderful things for us. Maybe he'll do them again. Then Nebuchadnezzar will pull his armies back from us."

[3]But Jeremiah answered them, "Tell Zedekiah and his people, [4]'The LORD is the God of Israel. He says, "The king of Babylon and his armies are all around this city. They are getting ready to attack you. You have weapons of war in your hands to fight against them. But I am about to turn your weapons against you. And I will bring your enemies inside this city. [5]I myself will fight against you. I will reach out my powerful hand and mighty arm. I will come against you with all my great anger. [6]I will strike down those who live in this city. I will kill people and animals alike. They will die of a terrible plague. [7]After that, I will hand you over to your enemies. They want to kill you," announces the LORD. "I will hand over Zedekiah, the king of Judah, and his officials. I will also hand over the people in this city who live through the plague, war and hunger. All of them will be handed over to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. He will kill them with swords. He will show them no mercy. He will not feel sorry for them. In fact, he will not have any concern for them at all." '

[8]"Tell the people, 'The LORD says, "I am offering you a choice. You can choose the way that leads to life. Or you can choose the way that leads to death. [9]Those who stay in this city will die of war, hunger or plague. But suppose some go out and give themselves up to the Babylonians attacking you. They will live. They will escape with their lives. [10]I have decided to do this city harm and not good," announces the LORD. "It will be handed over to the king of Babylon. And he will destroy it with fire." '

[11]"Also speak to Judah's royal family. Tell them, 'Listen to the LORD's message. [12]Here is what the LORD says to you who belong to David's royal house.

" ' "Every morning do what is right and fair.
Save those who have been robbed.

Set them free from the people who have treated them badly.
If you do not, my anger will blaze out against you.
It will burn like fire because of the evil things you have done.
No one will be able to put it out.
13 Jerusalem, I am against you,”
announces the LORD.
“You live above this valley.
You are on a high, rocky plain.
And you say, ‘Who can come against us?
Who can enter our place of safety?’
14 But I will punish you in keeping with what you have done,”
announces the LORD.
“I will start a fire in your forests.
It will burn down everything around you.” ’ ”

Jeremiah 22

The LORD Judges Evil Kings

[1]The LORD said to Jeremiah, “Go down to the palace of the king of Judah. Announce my message there. Tell him, [2]‘King of Judah, listen to the LORD’s message. You are sitting on David’s throne. You and your officials and your people come through these gates. [3]The LORD says, “Do what is fair and right. Save those who have been robbed. Set them free from the people who have treated them badly. Do not do anything wrong to outsiders or widows in this place. Do not harm children whose fathers have died. Do not kill those who are not guilty of doing anything wrong. [4]Be careful to obey these commands. Then kings who sit on David’s throne will come through the gates of this palace. They will come riding in chariots and on horses. Their officials and their people will come along with them. [5]But suppose you do not obey these commands,” announces the LORD. “Then I promise you that this palace will be destroyed. You can be as sure of this promise as you are sure that I live.” ’ ”

[6]The LORD speaks about the palace of the king of Judah. He says,

“You are like the land of Gilead to me.
You are like the highest mountain in Lebanon.
But I will make you like a desert.
You will become like towns that no one lives in.
[7]I will send destroyers against you.
All of them will come with their weapons.
They will cut up your fine cedar beams.
They will throw them into the fire.

[8]“People from many nations will pass by this city. They will ask one another, ‘Why has the LORD done such a thing to this great city?’ [9]And the answer will be, ‘This happened because of what its people have done. They have turned away from the covenant the LORD their God made with them. They have worshiped other gods. And they have served them.’ ”

[10]Don’t weep over dead King Josiah.
Don’t be sad because he’s gone.
Instead, weep bitterly over King Jehoahaz.

He was forced to leave his country.
He will never return.
He'll never see his own land again.

11 Jehoahaz became king of Judah after his father Josiah. But he has gone away from this place. That's because the LORD says about him, "He will never return. 12 He will die in Egypt. That is where he was taken as a prisoner.
He will not see this land again."

13 The LORD says, "How terrible it will be for King Jehoiakim!
He builds his palace
by mistreating his people.
He builds its upstairs rooms with money gained by sinning.
He makes his own people work for nothing.
He does not pay them for what they do.
14 He says, 'I will build myself a great palace.
It will have large rooms upstairs.'
So he makes big windows in it.
He covers its walls with cedar boards.
He decorates it with red paint.

15 "Jehoiakim, does having more and more cedar boards make you a king?
Your father Josiah had enough to eat and drink.
He did what was right and fair.
So everything went well with him.
16 He stood up for those who were poor or needy.
So everything went well with him.
That is what it means to know me,"
announces the LORD.
17 "Jehoiakim, the only thing on your mind is to get rich by cheating others.
You would even kill people who are not guilty of doing anything wrong.
You would mistreat them.
You would take everything they own."

[18]So the LORD speaks about King Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah. He says,

"His people will not mourn for him.
They will not say,
'My poor brother! My poor sister!'
They will not mourn for him.
They will not say,
'My poor master! How sad that his glory is gone!'
[19]In fact, he will be buried like a donkey.
His body will be dragged away and thrown outside the gates of Jerusalem."

[20]The LORD says, "People of Jerusalem, go up to Lebanon.
Cry out for help.
Let your voice be heard in the land of Bashan.
Cry out from the mountains of Abarim.
All those who were going to help you are crushed.
[21]When you felt secure, I warned you.
But you said, 'I won't listen!'
You have acted like that ever since you were young.
You have not obeyed me.
[22]The wind will drive away all your shepherds.
All those who were going to help you will be carried off as prisoners.
Then you will be dishonored and put to shame.
That will happen because you have been so sinful.
[23]Some of you live in Jerusalem in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon.
You are comfortable in your cedar buildings.
But you will groan when pain comes on you.
It will be like the pain of a woman having a baby.

[24]"King Jehoiachin, you are the son of Jehoiakim," announces the LORD. "Suppose you were a ring on my right hand. And suppose the ring even had my royal mark on it. Then I would still pull you off my finger. And that is just as sure as I am alive. [25]I will hand you over to those who want to kill you. I will hand you over to people you are afraid of. I will give you to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. I will hand you over to his armies. [26]I will throw you out into another country. I will throw your mother out. Neither of you was born in that country. But both of you will die there. [27]You will never come back to the land you long to return to."

[28]This man Jehoiachin is like a broken pot.
Everyone hates him. No one wants him.
Why will he and his children be thrown out of this land?
Why will they be sent to a land
they don't know about?
[29]Land, land, land,
listen to the LORD's message!
[30]The LORD says,
"Let the record say that this man did not have any children.
Let it report that he did not have any success in life.
None of his children will have success either.
None of them will sit on David's throne.
None of them will ever rule over Judah.

Jeremiah 23

The Godly Branch

[1]"How terrible it will be for the shepherds who lead my people astray!"
announces the LORD. "They are destroying and scattering the sheep that belong to my flock." [2]So the LORD, the God of Israel, speaks to the shepherds who take care of my people. He tells them, "You have scattered my sheep. You have driven them away. You have not taken good care of them. So I will punish you for the evil things you have done," announces the LORD. [3]"I myself will gather together those who are left alive in my flock. I will gather them out of all the countries where I have driven them. And I will bring them back to their own land. There my sheep will have many lambs. There will be many more of them.
[4]I will place shepherds over them who will take good care of them. My sheep will not be afraid or terrified anymore. And none of them will be missing,"
announces the LORD.

[5]"A new day is coming," announces the LORD.
"At that time I will raise up for David's royal line
a godly Branch.
He will be a King who will rule wisely.
He will do what is fair and right in the land.
[6]In his days Judah will be saved.
Israel will live in safety.
And the Branch will be called
The LORD Who Makes Us Right With Himself.

[7]Other days are also coming," announces the LORD. "At that time people will no longer say, 'The LORD brought the Israelites up out of Egypt. And that's just as sure as he is alive.' [8]Instead, they will say, 'The LORD brought the Israelites up out of the land of the north. He gathered them out of all the countries where he had forced them to go. And that's just as sure as he is alive.' Then they will live in their own land."

Prophets Who Tell Lies

[9]Here is my message about the prophets.

My heart is broken inside me.
All my bones tremble with fear.
I am like a man who is drunk.
I am like a strong man who has had too much wine.
That's what the LORD's holy words have done to me.
10The land is full of people who aren't faithful to the LORD.
Now the land is under his curse.
And that's why it is thirsty for water.
That's why the desert grasslands are dry.
The prophets are leading sinful lives.
They don't use their power in the right way.

11"Prophets and priests alike are ungodly,"
announces the LORD.
"Even in my temple I find them sinning.
12So their path will become slippery.
They will be thrown out into darkness.
There they will fall.
I will bring trouble on them when the time to punish them comes,"
announces the LORD.

13"Among the prophets of Samaria
I saw something I can't stand.
They were prophesying in the name of Baal.
They were leading my people Israel astray.
14I have also seen something horrible among Jerusalem's prophets.
They are not faithful to me.
They are not living by the truth.
They strengthen the hands of those who do evil.
So not one of them turns from their sinful ways.
All of them are like the people of Sodom to me.
They are just like the people of Gomorrah."

15So the LORD who rules over all speaks about the prophets. He says,

“I will make them eat bitter food.
I will make them drink poisoned water.
The prophets of Jerusalem have spread their ungodly ways all through the land.”

16 The LORD who rules over all says to the people of Judah,

“Do not listen to what the prophets are saying to you.
They fill you with false hopes.
They talk about visions that come from their own minds.
What they say does not come from my mouth.
17 They keep speaking to those who hate me. They say,
‘The LORD says you will have peace.’
They speak to all those who do what their stubborn hearts want them to do.
They tell them, ‘No harm will come to you.’
18 But which of them has ever stood in my courts?
Have they been there to see a vision or hear my message?
Who has listened and heard my message there?
19 A storm will burst out because of my great anger.
A windstorm will sweep down on the heads of sinful people.
20 My anger will not turn back.
I will accomplish everything
I plan to do.
In days to come
you will understand it clearly.
21 I did not send these prophets.
But they have run to tell you their message anyway.
I did not speak to them.
But they have still prophesied.
22 Suppose they had stood in my courts.
Then they would have announced my message to my people.
They would have turned my people from their evil ways.
They would have turned them away from their sins.

23 “Am I only a God who is nearby?”

announces the LORD.

“Am I not a God who is also far away?
[24]Who can hide in secret places so that I can’t see them?”
announces the LORD.

“Don’t I fill heaven and earth?”
announces the LORD.

[25]“I have heard what the prophets are saying. They prophesy lies in my name. They say, ‘I had a dream! The LORD has given me a dream!’ [26]How long will that continue in the hearts of these prophets who tell lies? They try to get others to believe their own mistaken ideas. [27]They tell one another their dreams. They think that will make my people forget my name. In the same way, their people of long ago forgot my name when they worshiped Baal. [28]Let the prophet who has a dream describe the dream. But let the one who has my message speak it faithfully. Your prophets have given you straw to eat instead of grain,” announces the LORD. [29]“My message is like fire,” announces the LORD. “It is like a hammer that breaks a rock in pieces.

[30]“So I am against these prophets,” announces the LORD. “I am against those who steal messages from one another. They claim that the messages come from me. [31]Yes,” announces the LORD. “I am against the prophets who speak their own words. But they still say, ‘Here is what the LORD says.’ [32]I am against prophets who talk about dreams that did not come from me,” announces the LORD. “They tell foolish lies. Their lies lead my people astray. But I did not send these prophets. I did not appoint them. They do not help my people in the least,” announces the LORD.

Prophets Who Give Messages That Are Not From the LORD

[33]“Jeremiah, these people might ask you a question. Or a prophet or priest might do this. They might ask, ‘What message have you received from the LORD?’ Then tell them, ‘You ask, “What message?” Here it is. “I will desert you,” announces the LORD.’ [34]A prophet or priest might make a claim. Or someone else might do this. He might claim, ‘This is a message from the LORD.’ Then I will punish them and their family. [35]Here is what each of you people keeps on saying to your friends and other Israelites. You ask, ‘What is the LORD’s answer?’ Or you ask, ‘What has the LORD spoken?’ [36]But you must not talk about ‘a message from the LORD’ again. That’s because each person’s own words become their message. And so you twist the LORD’s words. He is the living God. He is the LORD who rules over all. And he is our God. [37]Here is what you keep saying to a prophet. You ask, ‘What is the LORD’s answer to you?’ Or you ask, ‘What has the LORD spoken?’ [38]You claim, ‘This is a message from the LORD.’ But here is what the LORD says. ‘You used the words, “This is a message from the LORD.” But I told you that you must not claim, “This is a message from the LORD.” ’ [39]So you can be sure I will forget you. I will throw you out of my sight. I will also destroy the city I gave you and your people of long ago. [40]I will bring on you shame that will last forever. It will never be forgotten.”

Jeremiah 24

Judah Is Like Two Baskets of Figs

[1]King Jehoiachin was forced to leave Jerusalem. He was the son of Jehoiakim. Jehoiachin was taken to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. The officials and all the skilled workers were forced to leave with him. After they left, the LORD showed me two baskets of figs. They were in front of his temple. [2]One basket had very good figs in it. They were like figs that ripen early. The other basket had very bad figs in it. In fact, they were so bad they couldn't even be eaten.

[3]Then the LORD asked me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?"

"Figs," I answered. "The good ones are very good. But the others are so bad they can't be eaten."

[4]Then a message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [5]"I am the LORD, the God of Israel. I say, 'I consider the people who were forced to leave Judah to be like these good figs. I sent them away from this place. I forced them to go to Babylon. [6]My eyes will watch over them. I will be good to them. And I will bring them back to this land. I will build them up. I will not tear them down. I will plant them. I will not pull them up by the roots. [7]I will change their hearts. Then they will know that I am the LORD. They will be my people. And I will be their God. They will return to me with all their heart.

[8]" 'But there are also bad figs. In fact, they are so bad they can't be eaten,' says the LORD. 'Zedekiah, the king of Judah, is like these bad figs. So are his officials and the people of Jerusalem who are still left alive. I will punish them whether they remain in this land or live in Egypt. [9]I will make all the kingdoms on earth displeased with them. In fact, they will hate them a great deal. They will shake their heads at them. They will curse them and make fun of them. All this will happen no matter where I force them to go. [10]I will send war, hunger and plague against them. They will be destroyed from the land I gave them and their people of long ago.' "

Jeremiah 25

Seventy Years in Babylon

1 A message from the LORD about all the people of Judah came to Jeremiah. It came in the fourth year that Jehoiakim was the king of Judah. It was the first year that Nebuchadnezzar was the king of Babylon. Jehoiakim was the son of Josiah. 2 Jeremiah, the LORD's prophet, spoke to all the people of Judah and Jerusalem. He said, 3 "For 23 years the LORD's messages have been coming to me. They began to come in the 13th year that Josiah was king of Judah. He was the son of Amon. The LORD's messages still come to me today. I've spoken to you people again and again. But you haven't listened to me.

4 "The LORD has sent all his servants the prophets to you. They've come to you again and again. But you haven't listened. You haven't paid any attention to them. 5 They said, 'Each of you must turn from your evil ways and practices.
Then you can stay in the land forever. It's the land the LORD gave you and your people of long ago. 6 Don't follow other gods. Don't serve them or worship them.
Don't make the LORD angry with the gods your own hands have made. Then he won't harm you.'

7 " 'But you did not listen to me,' announces the LORD. 'You have made me very angry with the gods your hands have made. And you have brought harm on yourselves.'

8 "The LORD who rules over all says, 'You have not listened to my words. 9 So I will send for all the nations in the north. And I will send for my servant Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon,' announces the LORD. 'I will bring all of them against this land and against you who live here. They will march out against all the nations that are around this land. I will set apart Judah and the nations around it in a special way to be destroyed. People will be shocked because of them. And they will make fun of them. Those nations will be destroyed forever. 10 I will put an end to the sounds of joy and gladness. I will put an end to the voices of brides and grooms. The sound of grinding millstones will not be heard anymore. And lamps will not be lit anymore. 11 This whole country will become dry and empty. And these nations will serve the king of Babylon for 70 years.

12 " 'But I will punish that king and his nation because they are guilty. I will do this when the 70 years are over,' announces the LORD. 'I will make that land a desert forever. [13]I have spoken against that land. And I will make all these things happen to it. Everything will happen that is written in this book. And I will make everything Jeremiah prophesied against all the nations come true. [14]The people of Babylon will become slaves of many other nations and great kings. I will pay them back for what they have done.' "

The Cup of God's Great Anger

[15]The LORD is the God of Israel. He said to me, "Take this cup from my hand. It is filled with the wine of my great anger. Make all the nations to which I send you drink it. [16]When they drink it, they will not even be able to walk straight. It will drive them out of their minds. I am going to send war against them."

[17]So I took the cup from the LORD's hand. I made all the nations to which he sent me drink from it.

[18]He sent me to Judah's kings and officials. He told me to go to Jerusalem and the towns of Judah. He wanted me to tell them they would be destroyed. Then people would be shocked because of them. They would make fun of them. They would use their name in a curse. And that's how things still are today.

[19]Here is a list of the other kings and nations he sent me to.
Pharaoh, the king of Egypt his attendants, his officials, all his people [20]all the people from other lands who lived there all the kings of Uz
the Philistine kings of Ashkelon, Gaza and Ekron the Philistines still living in Ashdod
[21]Edom, Moab, Ammon
[22]all the kings of Tyre and Sidon the kings of the islands and other lands along the Mediterranean Sea [23]Dedan, Teman, Buz
all the other places far away in the east [24]all the kings of Arabia all the other kings of people who live in the desert [25]all the kings of Zimri, Elam and Media
[26]all the kings in the north, near and far

So he sent me to all the kingdoms on the face of the earth, one after the other. They will all drink from the cup of the LORD's anger. After they drink, the king of Babylon will drink from it too.

[27]The LORD says, "Tell them, 'The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says, "Drink from this cup. Get drunk and throw up. Fall down and do not get up again. I am going to send war against you." ' [28]But they might refuse to take the cup from your hand. They might not want to drink from it. Then tell them, 'The LORD who rules over all says, "You must drink from it! [29]I am beginning to bring trouble on the city where I have put my Name. You might think you will not be punished. But you will certainly be punished. I am sending war against everyone who lives on earth," announces the LORD who rules over all.'

[30]"Jeremiah, prophesy against them. Tell them,

" 'The LORD will roar from heaven like a lion.
His voice will sound like thunder from his holy temple there.
He will roar loudly against his land.
He will shout like those who stomp on grapes in winepresses.
He will shout against everyone who lives on earth.
[31]The noise of battle will be heard from one end of the earth to the other.
That's because the LORD will bring charges against the nations.
He will judge every human being.
He will kill sinful people with his sword,' "
announces the LORD.

[32]The LORD who rules over all says,

"Look! Horrible trouble is spreading from one nation to another.
A mighty storm is rising.
It is coming from a place that is very far away."

[33]At that time those the LORD kills will be lying around everywhere. They will be found from one end of the earth to the other. No one will mourn for them. Their dead bodies will not be gathered up or buried. Instead, they will be like human waste lying there on the ground.

[34]Weep and cry, you shepherds.
Roll in the dust, you leaders of the flock.
Your time to be killed has come.
You will fall like the best of the rams.
[35]The shepherds won't have any place to run to.
The leaders of the flock won't be able to escape.
[36]Listen to the cries of the shepherds.
Hear the weeping of the leaders of the flock.
The LORD is destroying their grasslands.
[37]Their peaceful meadows will be completely destroyed
because of the LORD's great anger.
[38]Like a lion he will leave his den.
The land of those leaders will become a desert.
That's because the sword of the LORD brings great harm.
His anger will burn against them.

Jeremiah 26

Jeremiah's Enemies Try to Have Him Killed

1 A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. It was shortly after Jehoiakim became king of Judah. He was the son of Josiah. 2 The LORD said to Jeremiah, "Stand in the courtyard of my house. Speak to the people of the towns in Judah.
Speak to all those who come to worship in my house. Tell them everything I command you. Do not leave out a single word. 3 Perhaps they will listen. Maybe they will turn from their evil ways. Then I will not do what I said I would. I will not bring trouble on them. I had planned to punish them because of the evil things they had done. 4 Tell them, 'The LORD says, "Listen to me. Obey my law that I gave you. 5 And listen to the words my servants the prophets are speaking. I have sent them to you again and again. But you have not listened to them. 6 So I will make this house like Shiloh. All the nations on earth will use the name of this city in a curse." ' "

7 Jeremiah spoke these words in the LORD's house. The priests, the prophets and all the people heard him. 8 Jeremiah finished telling all the people everything the LORD had commanded him to say. But as soon as he did, the priests, the prophets and all the people grabbed him. They said, "You must die! 9 Why do you prophesy these things in the LORD's name? Why do you say that this house will become like Shiloh? Why do you say that this city will be empty and deserted?" And all the people crowded around Jeremiah in the LORD's house.

10 The officials of Judah heard what had happened. So they went up from the royal palace to the LORD's house. There they took their places at the entrance of the New Gate. 11 Then the priests and prophets spoke to the officials and all the people. They said, "This man should be sentenced to death. He has prophesied against this city. You have heard it with your own ears!"

12 Then Jeremiah spoke to all the officials and people. He said, "The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and this city. He told me to say everything you have heard. 13 So change the way you live and act. Obey the LORD your God. Then he won't do what he said he would. He won't bring on you the trouble he said he would bring. 14 As for me, I'm in your hands. Do to me what you think is good and right. 15 But you can be sure of one thing. If you put me to death, you will be held responsible for spilling my blood. And I haven't even done anything wrong. You will bring guilt on yourselves and this city and those who live in it. The LORD has sent me to you. He wanted me to say all these things so you could hear them. And that's the truth."

16Then the officials and all the people spoke to the priests and prophets. They said, "This man shouldn't be sentenced to death! He has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God."

17Some of the elders of the land stepped forward. They spoke to the whole community gathered there. They said, 18"Micah from Moresheth prophesied. It was during the time Hezekiah was king over Judah. Micah spoke to all the people of Judah. He told them, 'The LORD who rules over all says,

> " ' "Zion will be plowed up like a field.
> Jerusalem will be turned into a pile of trash.
> The temple hill will be covered with bushes and weeds." ' (Micah 3:12)

19Did King Hezekiah or anyone else in Judah put Micah to death? Hezekiah had respect for the LORD and tried to please him. And the LORD didn't judge Jerusalem as he said he would. He didn't bring on it the trouble he said he would bring. But we are about to bring horrible trouble on ourselves!"

20Uriah was another man who prophesied in the name of the LORD. He was from Kiriath Jearim. He was the son of Shemaiah. Uriah prophesied against this city and this land. He said the same things Jeremiah did. 21King Jehoiakim and all his officers and officials heard Uriah's words. So the king decided to put him to death. But Uriah heard about it. He was afraid. And he ran away to Egypt. 22So King Jehoiakim sent Elnathan to Egypt. He also sent some other men along with him. Elnathan was the son of Akbor. 23Those men brought Uriah out of Egypt. They took him to King Jehoiakim. Then the king had Uriah struck down with a sword. He had Uriah's body thrown into one of the graves of the ordinary people.

24In spite of that, Ahikam stood up for Jeremiah. Ahikam was the son of Shaphan. Because of Ahikam, Jeremiah wasn't handed over to the people to be put to death.

Jeremiah 27

Judah Will Serve Nebuchadnezzar

[1]A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. It was shortly after Zedekiah became king of Judah. He was the son of Josiah. [2]The LORD said, “Make a yoke out of ropes and wooden boards. Put it on your neck. [3]Then write down a message for the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre and Sidon. Give it to their messengers who have come to Jerusalem. They have come to see Zedekiah, the king of Judah. [4]Give them a message for the kings who sent them. It should say, ‘The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says, “Here is what I want you to tell your masters. [5]I reached out my great and powerful arm. I made the earth. I made its people and animals. And I can give the earth to anyone I please. [6]Now I will hand over all your countries to my servant Nebuchadnezzar.
He is the king of Babylon. I will put even the wild animals under his control.
[7]All the nations will serve him and his son and grandson. After that, I will judge his land. Then many nations and great kings will make him serve them.

[8]“ ‘ “But suppose any nation or kingdom will not serve Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. And suppose it refuses to put its neck under his yoke. Then I will punish that nation with war, hunger and plague,” announces the LORD. “I will punish it until his powerful hand destroys it. [9]So do not listen to your prophets. Do not listen to those who claim to have secret knowledge. Do not listen to those who try to explain your dreams. Do not listen to those who get messages from people who have died. Do not listen to those who practice evil magic. All of them will tell you, ‘You won’t serve the king of Babylon.’ [10]But they prophesy lies to you. If you listen to them, you will be removed far away from your lands. I will drive you away from them. And you will die. [11]But suppose any nation will put its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon. And suppose it serves him. Then I will let that nation remain in its own land. I will let its people plow the land and live there,” ’ ” announces the LORD.

[12]I gave the same message to Zedekiah, the king of Judah. I said, “Put your neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon. Obey him. Serve his people. Then you will live. [13]Why should you and your people die? Why should you die of war, hunger and plague? That’s what the LORD said would happen to any nation that won’t serve the king of Babylon. [14]Don’t listen to the words of the prophets who say to you, ‘You won’t serve the king of Babylon.’ They are prophesying lies to you. [15]‘I have not sent them,’ announces the LORD. ‘They are prophesying lies in my name. So I will drive you away from your land. And you will die. So will the prophets who prophesy to you.’ ”

[16]Then I spoke to the priests and all these people. I said, “The LORD says, ‘Do not listen to the prophets who speak to you. They say, “Very soon the objects from the LORD’s house will be brought back from Babylon.” Those prophets are prophesying lies to you. [17]Do not listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon. Then you will live. Why should this city be destroyed? [18]If they are prophets and have received a message from me, let them pray to me. I am the LORD who rules over all. Those prophets should pray that what is still in Jerusalem will remain here. They should pray that the objects in my house and the king’s palace will not be taken to Babylon. [19]I am the LORD who rules over all. Do you know what these objects are? They include the two pillars in front of the temple. They include the huge bronze bowl. They include the bronze stands that can be moved around. And they include the other things left in this city. [20]Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, did not take these things away at first. That was when he took King Jehoiachin from Jerusalem to Babylon. Jehoiachin is the son of Jehoiakim. Nebuchadnezzar also took all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem along with Jehoiachin. [21]I am the LORD who rules over all. I am the God of Israel. Here is what will happen to the things that are left in my house, the king’s palace and Jerusalem. [22]They will be taken to Babylon. They will remain there until the day I come for them,’ announces the LORD. ‘Then I will bring them back. I will return them to this place.’ ”

Jeremiah 28

The False Prophet Hananiah Opposes Jeremiah

[1]The false prophet Hananiah spoke to me, Jeremiah, in the LORD's house. Hananiah was from Gibeon. He was the son of Azzur. It was shortly after Zedekiah became king of Judah. It was in the fifth month of his fourth year. In front of the priests and all the people Hananiah spoke to me. He said, [2]"The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says, 'I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon. [3]Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, removed all the objects that belong to my house. He took them to Babylon. Before two years are over, I will bring them back to this place. [4]I will also bring King Jehoiachin back. He is the son of Jehoiakim. And I will bring back all the others who were taken from Judah to Babylon,' announces the LORD. 'I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.' "

[5]Then Jeremiah the prophet replied to the false prophet Hananiah. Jeremiah spoke to him in front of the priests and all the people. They were standing in the LORD's house. [6]Jeremiah said, "Amen, Hananiah! May the LORD do those things! May he make the words you have prophesied come true. May he bring back from Babylon the objects that belong to the LORD's house. May he bring back to this place all the people who were taken away. [7]But listen to what I have to say. I want you and all the people to hear it. [8]There have been prophets long before you and I were ever born. They have prophesied against many countries and great kingdoms. They have spoken about war, trouble and plague. [9]But what if a prophet says peace will come? And suppose peace really does come? Only then will he be recognized as a prophet truly sent by the LORD."

[10]The false prophet Hananiah took the yoke off the neck of Jeremiah the prophet. Then Hananiah broke the yoke. [11]In front of all the people he said, "The LORD says, 'In the same way, I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. Before two years are over, I will remove it from the necks of all the nations.' " When Jeremiah the prophet heard this, he went on his way.

[12]A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. It was after the false prophet Hananiah had broken the yoke off Jeremiah's neck. The message said, [13]"Go. Tell Hananiah, 'The LORD says, "You have broken a wooden yoke. But in its place you will get an iron yoke." [14]The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says, "I will put an iron yoke on the necks of all these nations. I will make them serve Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. So they will serve him. I will even give him control over the wild animals.” ’ ”

15Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke to the false prophet Hananiah. Jeremiah said, “Listen, Hananiah! The LORD hasn’t sent you. But you have tricked these people. Now they trust in lies. 16So the LORD says, ‘I am about to remove you from the face of the earth. Before this year is over, you will die. You have taught the people to turn against me.’ ”

17In the seventh month of that very year, the false prophet Hananiah died.

Jeremiah 29

Jeremiah's Letter to the Jews in Babylon

[1]Jeremiah the prophet sent a letter from Jerusalem to Babylon. It was for the Jewish elders still alive there. It was also for the priests and prophets in Babylon. And it was for all the other people Nebuchadnezzar had taken from Jerusalem to Babylon. [2]It was sent to them after King Jehoiachin had been forced to leave Jerusalem. His mother and the court officials were taken with him. The leaders of Judah and Jerusalem had been forced to go to Babylon. All the skilled workers had also been forced to go. [3]Jeremiah gave the letter to Elasah and Gemariah. Elasah was the son of Shaphan. Gemariah was the son of Hilkiah. Zedekiah, the king of Judah, had sent Elasah and Gemariah to King Nebuchadnezzar in Babylon. Here is what the letter said.

> [4]The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He speaks to all those he forced to go from Jerusalem to Babylon. He says, [5]"Build houses and make your homes there. Plant gardens and eat what they produce. [6]Get married. Have sons and daughters. Find wives for your sons. Give your daughters to be married. Then they too can have sons and daughters. Let there be many more of you and not fewer. [7]Also work for the success of the city I have sent you to. Pray to the LORD for that city. If it succeeds, you too will enjoy success." [8]The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says, "Do not let the prophets trick you. Do not be fooled by those who claim to have secret knowledge. Do not listen to people who try to explain their dreams to you. [9]All of them are prophesying lies to you in my name. I have not sent them," announces the LORD.
> [10]The LORD says, "You will be forced to live in Babylon for 70 years. After they are over, I will come to you. My good promise to you will come true. I will bring you back home. [11]I know the plans I have for you," announces the LORD. "I want you to enjoy success. I do not plan to harm you. I will give you hope for the years to come. [12]Then you will call out to me. You will come and pray to me. And I will listen to you. [13]When you look for me with all your heart, you will find me. [14]I will be found by you," announces the LORD. "And I will bring you back from where you were taken as prisoners. I will gather you from all the nations. I will gather you from the places where I have forced you to go," announces the LORD. "I will bring you back to the place I sent you away from."

15You might say, "The LORD has given us prophets in Babylon."
16But here is what the LORD says about the king who now sits on David's throne. He also says it about all the people who remain in this city. And he says it about all those who did not go with you to Babylon.
17The LORD who rules over all says, "I will send war, hunger and plague against them. I will make them like bad figs. They are so bad they can't be eaten. 18I will hunt them down with war, hunger and plague. I will make all the kingdoms on earth displeased with them. They will use their name in a curse. All the nations where I drive them will be shocked at them. They will make fun of them. And they will bring shame on them. 19That's because they have not listened to my words," announces the LORD. "I sent messages to them again and again. I sent them through my servants the prophets. And you who were taken to Babylon have not listened either," announces the LORD.

20So listen to the LORD's message. Listen, all you whom he has sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon. 21The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He speaks about Ahab and Zedekiah. Ahab is the son of Kolaiah. Zedekiah is the son of Maaseiah. They are prophesying lies to you in my name. The LORD says about Ahab and Zedekiah, "I will hand them over to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. He will put them to death. You will see it with your own eyes. 22Because of what happens to them, people will use their names when they curse someone. All those who have been taken from Judah to Babylon will use their names in that way. They will say, 'May the LORD treat you like Zedekiah and Ahab. The king of Babylon burned them in the fire.'
23That will happen because they have done awful things in Israel. They have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives. They have spoken lies in my name. I did not give them the authority to speak those things. I know what they have done. And I am a witness to it," announces the LORD.

Shemaiah Opposes Jeremiah

24Tell Shemaiah, the Nehelamite, 25"The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says, ‘You sent letters in your own name to all the people in Jerusalem. You also sent them to Zephaniah the priest. He is the son of Maaseiah. And you sent them to all the other priests. You said to Zephaniah, 26“The LORD has appointed you priest in place of Jehoiada. He has put you in charge of the LORD’s house. You are supposed to arrest any crazy person who claims to be a prophet. You should put him in prison. You should put iron bands around his neck. 27So why haven’t you punished Jeremiah from Anathoth? He claims to be a prophet among you. 28He has sent a message to us in Babylon. It says, ‘You will be there a long time. So build houses and make your homes there. Plant gardens and eat what they produce.’ ” ’ ”

29But Zephaniah the priest read the letter to me. 30Then a message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, 31“Send a message to all the people who were taken away. Tell them, ‘The LORD speaks about Shemaiah, the Nehelamite. He says, “Shemaiah has prophesied to you. But I did not send him. He has made you trust in lies. 32So I say, ‘I will certainly punish Shemaiah, the Nehelamite. I will also punish his children after him. He will not have any children left among these people. I will do good things for my people. But he will not see them,’ ” ’ ” announces the LORD. “ ‘ “ ‘That’s because he has taught people to turn against me.’ ” ’ ”

Jeremiah 30

Israel Will Return to the LORD

1 A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. The LORD said, 2 “I am the LORD. I am the God of Israel. I say, ‘Write in a book all the words I have spoken to you. 3 A new day is coming,’ ” announces the LORD. “ ‘At that time I will bring my people Israel and Judah back from where they have been taken as prisoners. I will bring them back to this land. I gave it to their people of long ago to have as their own,’ ” says the LORD.

4 Here are the words the LORD spoke about Israel and Judah. He said, 5 “I am the LORD. I say,

“ ‘Cries of fear are heard.
There is terror. There isn’t any peace.
6 Ask and see.
Can a man give birth to children?
Then why do I see every strong man with his hands on his stomach?
Each of them is acting like a woman having a baby.
Every face is as pale as death.
7 How awful that day will be!
No other day will be like it.
It will be a time of trouble for the people of Jacob.
But they will be saved out of it.

8 “ ‘At that time I will break the yoke off their necks,’
announces the LORD who rules over all.
‘I will tear off the ropes that hold them.
People from other lands will not make them slaves anymore.
9 Instead, they will serve me.
And they will serve David their king.
I will raise him up for them.
I am the LORD their God.

10 “ ‘People of Jacob, do not be afraid.
You are my servant.

Israel, do not be terrified,’ ”
announces the LORD.
“ ‘You can be sure that I will save you.
I will bring you out of a place far away.
I will bring your children back
from the land where they were taken.
Your people will have peace and security again.
And no one will make them afraid.
11I am with you. I will save you,’ ”
announces the LORD.
“ ‘I will completely destroy all the nations
among which I scatter you.
But I will not completely destroy you.
I will correct you. But I will be fair.
I will not let you go without any punishment.’ ”

12The LORD says,

“Your wound can’t be cured.
Your pain can’t be healed.
13No one will stand up for you.
There isn’t any medicine for your sore.
There isn’t any healing for you.
14All those who were going to help you have forgotten you.
They do not care about you.
I have struck you as if I were your enemy.
I have punished you as if I were very mean.
That is because your guilt is so great.
You have sinned so much.
15Why do you cry out about your wound?
Your pain can’t be healed.
Your guilt is very great.
And you have committed many sins.
That is why I have done all these things to you.

16“But everyone who destroys you will be destroyed.
All your enemies will be forced to leave their countries.

Those who steal from you will be stolen from.
I will take the belongings of those who take things from you.
17 But I will make you healthy again.
I will heal your wounds,”
announces the LORD.
“That’s because you have been thrown out.
You are called Zion, the one no one cares about.”

18 The LORD says,

“I will bless Jacob’s people with great success again.
I will show tender love to Israel.
Jerusalem will be rebuilt where it was destroyed.
The palace will stand in its proper place.
19 From those places the songs of people giving thanks will be heard.
The sound of great joy will come from there.
I will cause there to be more of my people.
There will not be fewer of them.
I will bring them honor.
People will have respect for them.
20 Things will be as they used to be for Jacob’s people.
I will make their community firm and secure.
I will punish everyone who treats them badly.
21 Their leader will be one of their own people.
Their ruler will rise up from among them.
I will bring him near.
And he will come close to me.
He will commit himself to serve me,”
announces the LORD.
22 “So you will be my people.
And I will be your God.”

23 A storm will burst out because of the LORD’s great anger.
A strong wind will sweep down on the heads of evil people.

[24]The LORD’s great anger won’t turn back.
He will accomplish everything
his heart plans to do.
In days to come
you will understand this.

Jeremiah 31

[1]“At that time I will be the God of all the families of Israel,” announces the LORD. “And they will be my people.”

[2]The LORD says,

“Some of my people will live through everything their enemies do to them.
They will find help in the desert.
I will come to give peace and rest to Israel.”

[3]The LORD appeared to us in the past. He said,

“I have loved you with a love that lasts forever.
I have kept on loving you with a kindness that never fails.
[4]I will build you up again.
Nation of Israel, you will be rebuilt.
Once again you will use your tambourines to celebrate.
You will go out and dance with joy.
[5]Once again you will plant vineyards on the hills of Samaria.
Farmers will plant them.
They will enjoy their fruit.
[6]There will be a day when those on guard duty will cry out.
They will stand on the hills of Ephraim.
And they will shout,
‘Come! Let’s go up to Zion.
Let’s go up to where the LORD our God is.’ ”

[7]The LORD says,

“Sing for joy because the people of Jacob are blessed.
Shout because the LORD has made them the greatest nation.
Make your praises heard.
Say, ‘LORD, save your people.
Save the people who are left alive in Israel.’
[8]I will bring them from the land of the north.

I will gather them from one end of the earth to the other.
Even those who are blind and those who can't walk will be among them.
Pregnant women and women having their babies will be among them also.
Many of them will return.
9Their eyes will be filled with tears as they come.
They will pray as I bring them back.
I will lead them beside streams of water.
I will lead them on a level path
where they will not trip or fall.
I am Israel's father.
And Ephraim is my oldest son.

10"Listen to my message, you nations.
Announce it on shores far away.
Say, 'He who scattered Israel will gather them.
He will watch over his flock like a shepherd.'
11I will set the people of Jacob free.
I will save them from those who are stronger than they are.
12They will come and shout for joy on Mount Zion.
They will be joyful because of everything I give them.
I give them grain, olive oil and fresh wine.
I give them the young animals in their flocks and herds.
Israel will be like a garden that has plenty of water.
And they will not be sad anymore.
13Then young women will dance and be glad.
And so will the men, young and old alike.
I will turn their mourning into gladness.
I will comfort them.
And I will give them joy instead of sorrow.
14I will satisfy the priests. I will give them more than enough.
And my people will be filled with the good things I give them,"
announces the LORD.

15The LORD says,

"A voice is heard in Ramah.

It is the sound of weeping and deep sadness.
Rachel is weeping for her children.
She refuses to be comforted,
because they are gone.”

16 The LORD says,

“Do not weep anymore.
Do not let tears fall from your eyes.
I will reward you for your work,”
announces the LORD.
“Your children will return from the land of the enemy.
17 So there is hope for your children,”
announces the LORD.
“Your children will return to their own land.

18 “I have heard the groans of Ephraim’s people. They say,
‘You corrected us like a calf you were training.
And we have been trained.
Bring us back to you, and we will come back.
You are the LORD our God.
19 After we wandered away from you,
we turned away from our sins.
After we learned our lesson,
we beat our chests in sorrow.
We were full of shame.
What we did when we were young brought dishonor on us.’
20 Aren’t the people of Ephraim my dear children?
Aren’t they the children I take delight in?
I often speak against them.
But I still remember them.
So my heart longs for them.
I love them with a tender love,”
announces the LORD.

21 The LORD says, “Put up road signs.
Set up stones to show the way.
Look carefully for the highway.

Look for the road you will take.
Return, people of Israel.
Return to your towns.
22How long will you wander,
my people Israel, who are not faithful to me?
I will create a new thing on earth.
The woman will return to the man.”

23The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says, “I will bring them back from the place where they were taken. Here is what the people in Judah and its towns will say once again. ‘May the LORD bless you, you successful city. Sacred mountain, may he bless you.’ 24People will live together in Judah and all its towns. Farmers and shepherds will live there. 25I will give rest to those who are tired. I will satisfy those who are weak.”

26When I heard this, I woke up and looked around. My sleep had been pleasant to me.

27Here is what the LORD announces. “The days are coming when I will plant the kingdoms of Israel and Judah again. I will plant them with children and young animals. 28I watched over Israel and Judah to pull them up by the roots. I tore them down. I crushed them. I destroyed them. I brought horrible trouble on them. But now I will watch over them to build them up and plant them,” announces the LORD. 29“In those days people will no longer say,

“ ‘The parents have eaten sour grapes.
But the children have a bitter taste in their mouths.’

30Instead, everyone will die for their own sin. The one who eats sour grapes will taste how bitter they are.

31“The days are coming,” announces the LORD.
“I will make a new covenant
with the people of Israel.
I will also make it with the people of Judah.
32It will not be like the covenant
I made with their people of long ago.
That was when I took them by the hand.
I led them out of Egypt.
But they broke my covenant.

They did it even though I was like a husband to them,”
announces the LORD.
[33]“This is the covenant I will make with Israel after that time,” announces the LORD.
“I will put my law in their minds.
I will write it on their hearts.
I will be their God.
And they will be my people.
[34]They will not need to teach their neighbor anymore.
And they will not need to teach one another anymore.
They will not need to say, ‘Know the LORD.’
That’s because everyone will know me.
From the least important of them to the most important,
all of them will know me,”
announces the LORD.
“I will forgive their evil ways.
I will not remember their sins anymore.”

[35]The LORD speaks.

He makes the sun shine by day.
He orders the moon and stars
to shine at night.
He stirs up the ocean.
He makes its waves roar.
His name is the LORD Who Rules Over All.
[36]“Suppose my orders for creation disappear from my sight,”
announces the LORD.
“Only then will the people of Israel stop being a nation in my sight.”

[37]The LORD says,

“Suppose the sky above could be measured.
Suppose the foundations of the earth below could be completely discovered.
Only then would I turn away the people of Israel.
Even though they have committed many sins,

I will still accept them,”

announces the LORD.

38“The days are coming,” announces the LORD. “At that time Jerusalem will be rebuilt for me. It will be rebuilt from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate. 39The measuring line will reach out from there. It will go straight to the hill of Gareb. Then it will turn and reach as far as Goah.
40There is a valley where dead bodies and ashes are thrown. That whole valley will be holy to me. The side of the Kidron Valley east of the city will be holy to me. It will be holy all the way to the corner of the Horse Gate. The city will never again be pulled up by the roots. It will never be destroyed.”

Jeremiah 32

Jeremiah Buys a Field

[1]A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. It came in the 10th year that Zedekiah was king of Judah. It was in the 18th year of the rule of Nebuchadnezzar. [2]The armies of the king of Babylon were getting ready to attack Jerusalem. Jeremiah the prophet was being held as a prisoner. He was kept in the courtyard of the guard. It was part of Judah's royal palace.

[3]Zedekiah, the king of Judah, had made Jeremiah a prisoner there. Zedekiah had said to him, "Why do you prophesy as you do? You say, 'The LORD says, "I am about to hand over this city to the king of Babylon. He will capture it. [4]Zedekiah, the king of Judah, will not escape from the powerful hands of the armies of Babylon. He will certainly be handed over to the king of Babylon. Zedekiah will speak with him face to face. He will see him with his own eyes. [5]Nebuchadnezzar will take Zedekiah to Babylon. Zedekiah will remain there until I deal with him," announces the LORD. "Suppose you fight against the armies of Babylon. If you do, you will not succeed." ' "

[6]Jeremiah said, "A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [7]'Hanamel is going to come to you. He is the son of your uncle Shallum. Hanamel will say, "Buy my field at Anathoth. You are my closest relative. So it's your right and duty to buy it." '

[8]"Then my cousin Hanamel came to me. I was in the courtyard of the guard. It happened just as the LORD had said it would. Hanamel said, 'Buy my field at Anathoth. It is in the territory of Benjamin. It is your right to buy it and own it. So buy it for yourself.'

"I knew that this was the LORD's message. [9]So I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel. I weighed out seven ounces of silver for him. [10]I signed and sealed the deed of purchase. I had some people witness everything. And I weighed out the silver on the scales. [11]There were two copies of the deed. One was sealed and the other wasn't. The deed included the terms and conditions of the sale. [12]I gave Baruch the copies of the deed. My cousin Hanamel saw me do this. The witnesses who had signed the deed were there too. So were all the Jews who were sitting in the courtyard of the guard. Baruch was the son of Neriah. Neriah was the son of Mahseiah.

[13]"I gave Baruch directions in front of all of them. I said, [14]'The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says, “Take this deed of purchase. Take the sealed and unsealed copies. Put them in a clay jar. Then they will last a long time.” 15The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says, “Houses, fields and vineyards will again be bought in this land.” ’

16“I gave the deed of purchase to Baruch, the son of Neriah. Then I prayed to the LORD. I said, > 17“ ‘LORD and King, you have reached out your great and powerful arm. You have made the heavens and the earth. Nothing is too hard for you. 18You show your love to thousands of people. But you cause the sins of parents to affect even their children. Great and powerful God, your name is the LORD Who Rules Over All. 19Your purposes are great. Your acts are mighty. Your eyes see everything people do. You reward each one of them in keeping with their conduct. You do this based on what they have done. 20You performed signs and wonders in Egypt. And you have continued to do them to this day. You have done them in Israel and among all people. You are still known for doing them. 21You brought your people Israel out of Egypt. You did it with signs and wonders. You reached out your mighty hand and powerful arm. You did great and wonderful things. 22You gave Israel this land that you promised to their people of long ago. It is a land that has plenty of milk and honey. 23Israel came in and took it over. But they did not obey you. They didn’t follow your law. They didn’t do what you commanded them to do. So you brought all this trouble on them.

> 24“ ‘See how ramps are built up against Jerusalem’s walls to attack it. The city will be handed over to the armies of Babylon. They are attacking it. It will fall because of war, hunger and plague. What you said would happen is now happening, as you can see. 25LORD and King, the city will be handed over to the armies of Babylon. In spite of that, you tell me to buy a field. You say, “Pay for it with silver. And have the sale witnessed.” ’ ”

26Then a message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. The LORD said, 27“I am the LORD. I am the God of all people. Is anything too hard for me?” 28So the LORD says, “I am about to hand this city over to the armies of Babylon. I will give it to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. He will capture it. 29The armies of Babylon are now attacking this city. They will come in and set it on fire. They will burn it down. They will burn down the houses where the people made me very angry. They burned incense on their roofs to the god named Baal. And they poured out drink offerings to other gods.

30"The people of Israel and Judah have done nothing but evil in my eyes. They have done it since the nation was young. In fact, they have done nothing but make me very angry. They have worshiped statues of gods their own hands have made," announces the LORD. 31"This city has always stirred up my great anger. It has done it since the day it was built. Now I must remove it from my sight. 32The people of Israel and Judah have made me very angry. They have done many evil things. They, their kings and officials have sinned. So have their priests and prophets. And the people of Judah and Jerusalem have also sinned. 33They turned their backs to me. They would not face me. I taught them again and again. But they would not listen or pay attention when they were corrected. 34They set up the hateful statues of their gods. They did it in the house where I have put my Name. They made my house 'unclean.' 35The people built high places for Baal in the Valley of Ben Hinnom. That is where they sacrifice their children to Molek in the fire. That is something I did not command. It did not even enter my mind. They did something I hate. They made Judah sin."

36Here is what you people of Judah are saying about this city. "By war, hunger and plague it will be handed over to the king of Babylon." But here is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says. 37"You can be sure that I will gather my people again. I will send them away when my burning anger blazes out against them. But I will bring them back to this place. And I will let them live in safety. 38They will be my people. And I will be their God. 39I will give them a single purpose in life. Then, they will always have respect for me. Then all will go well for them. And it will also go well for their children after them. 40I will make a covenant with them that will last forever. I promise that I will never stop doing good to them. I will cause them to respect me. Then they will never turn away from me again. 41I will take pleasure in doing good things for them. I will certainly plant them in this land. I will do these things with all my heart and soul."

42The LORD says, "I have brought all this horrible trouble on these people. But now I will give them all the good things I have promised them. 43Once more fields will be bought in this land. It is the land about which you now say, 'It is a dry and empty desert. It doesn't have any people or animals in it. It has been handed over to the armies of Babylon.' 44Fields will be bought with silver. Deeds will be signed, sealed and witnessed. That will be done in the territory of Benjamin. It will be done in the villages around Jerusalem and in the towns of Judah. It will also be done in the towns of the central hill country. And it will be done in the towns of the western hills and the Negev Desert. I will bless their people with great success again," announces the LORD.

Jeremiah 33

The LORD Promises to Heal His People

[1]Jeremiah was still being held as a prisoner. He was kept in the courtyard of the guard. Then another message from the LORD came to him. The LORD said, [2]"I made the earth. I formed it. And I set it in place. The LORD is my name. [3]Call out to me. I will answer you. I will tell you great things you do not know. And unless I do, you wouldn't be able to find out about them." [4]The LORD is the God of Israel. He speaks about the houses in Jerusalem. He talks about the royal palaces of Judah. The people had torn down many of them. They had used their stones to strengthen the city walls against attack. [5]That was during their fight with the armies of Babylon. The LORD says, "The houses will be filled with dead bodies. They will be the bodies of the people I will kill. I will kill them when I am very angry with them. I will hide my face from this city. That's because its people have committed so many sins.

[6]"But now I will bring health and healing to Jerusalem. I will heal my people. I will let them enjoy great peace and security. [7]I will bring Judah and Israel back from the places where they have been taken. I will build up the nation again. It will be just as it was before. [8]I will wash from its people all the sins they have committed against me. And I will forgive all the sins they committed when they turned away from me. [9]Then this city will bring me fame, joy, praise and honor. All the nations on earth will hear about the good things I do for this city. They will see the great success and peace I give it. Then they will be filled with wonder. And they will tremble with fear."

[10]The LORD says, "You say about this place, 'It's a dry and empty desert. It doesn't have any people or animals in it.' The towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem are now deserted. So they do not have any people or animals living in them. But happy sounds will be heard there once more. [11]They will be the sounds of joy and gladness. The voices of brides and grooms will fill the streets. And the voices of those who bring thank offerings to my house will be heard there. They will say,

> " 'Give thanks to the LORD who rules over all,
> because he is good.
> His faithful love continues forever.'

That's because I will bless this land with great success again. It will be as it was before," says the LORD.

12The LORD who rules over all says, "This place is a desert. It does not have any people or animals in it. But there will again be grasslands near all its towns. Shepherds will rest their flocks there. 13Flocks will again pass under the hands of shepherds as they count their sheep," says the LORD. "That will be done in the towns of the central hill country. It will be done in the western hills and the Negev Desert. It will be done in the territory of Benjamin. And it will be done in the villages around Jerusalem and in the towns of Judah.

14"The days are coming," announces the LORD. "At that time I will fulfill my good promise to my people. I made it to the people of Israel and Judah.

15"Here is what I will do in those days and at that time.
I will make a godly Branch grow from David's royal line.
He will do what is fair and right in the land.
16In those days Judah will be saved.
Jerusalem will live in safety.
And it will be called
The LORD Who Makes Us Right With Himself."

17The LORD says, "David will always have a son to sit on the throne of Israel. 18The priests, who are Levites, will always have a man to serve me. He will sacrifice burnt offerings. He will burn grain offerings. And he will offer sacrifices."

19A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. 20The LORD said, "Could you ever break my covenant with the day? Could you ever break my covenant with the night? Could you ever stop day and night from coming at their appointed times? 21Only then could my covenant with my servant David be broken. Only then could my covenant with the Levites who serve me as priests be broken. Only then would David no longer have someone from his family line to rule on his throne. 22Here is what I will do for my servant David. And here is what I will do for the Levites who serve me. I will make their children after them as many as the stars in the sky. And I will make them as many as the grains of sand on the seashore. It will be impossible to count them."

23A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. The LORD said, 24"Haven't you noticed what these people are saying? They say, 'The LORD once chose the two kingdoms of Israel and Judah. But now he has turned his back on them.' So they hate my people. They do not think of them as a nation anymore. [25]I say, ‘What if I had not made my covenant with day and night? What if I had not established the laws of heaven and earth? [26]Only then would I turn my back on the children of Jacob and my servant David. Only then would I not choose one of David’s sons to rule over the children of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. But I will bless my people with great success again. I will love them with tender love.’ ”

Jeremiah 34

Zedekiah Is Warned

[1]Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, and all his armies were fighting against Jerusalem. They were also fighting against all the towns around it. All the kingdoms and nations Nebuchadnezzar ruled over were helping him. At that time a message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. The LORD said, [2]"I am the LORD, the God of Israel. Go to Zedekiah, the king of Judah. Tell him, 'The LORD says, "I am about to hand this city over to the king of Babylon. He will burn it down. [3]You will not escape from his power. You will certainly be captured. You will be handed over to him. You will see the king of Babylon with your own eyes. He will speak with you face to face. And you will go to Babylon.

[4]" ' "But listen to the LORD's promise to you, Zedekiah king of Judah. I say that you will not be killed by a sword. [5]You will die in a peaceful way. People made fires to honor the kings who died before you. In the same way, they will make a fire in your honor. They will mourn for you. They will say, 'My poor master!' I myself make this promise," announces the LORD.' "

[6]Then Jeremiah the prophet told all this to King Zedekiah in Jerusalem. [7]At that time Nebuchadnezzar's armies were fighting against Jerusalem. They were also fighting against Lachish and Azekah. These two cities were still holding out. They were the only cities left in Judah that had high walls around them.

The People Set Their Slaves Free

[8]A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem. He had told them to set their Hebrew slaves free. [9]All of them had to do this. That applied to male and female slaves alike. No one was allowed to hold another Hebrew as a slave. [10]So all the officials and people entered into this covenant. They agreed to set their male and female slaves free. They agreed not to hold them as slaves anymore. Instead, they set them free. [11]But later they changed their minds. They took back the people they had set free. They made them slaves again.

[12]Then a message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. [13]The LORD is the God of Israel. He says, "I made a covenant with your people of long ago. I brought them out of Egypt. That is the land where they were slaves. I said, [14]'Every seventh year you must set your people free. Each of you must set free all the Hebrews who have sold themselves to you. Let them serve you for six years. Then you must let them go free.' (Deuteronomy 15:12) But your people of long ago did not listen to me. They did not pay any attention to me. 15Recently you turned away from your sins. You did what is right in my eyes. Each of you set your Hebrew slaves free. You even made a covenant in front of me. You did it in the house where I have put my Name. 16But now you have turned around. You have treated my name as if it were not holy. Each of you has taken back your male and female slaves. You had set them free to go where they wished. But now you have forced them to become your slaves again."

17So the LORD says, "You have not obeyed me. You have not set your Hebrew slaves free. So now I will set you free," announces the LORD. "I will set you free to be destroyed by war, plague and hunger. I will make all the kingdoms on earth displeased with you. 18Those people who have broken my covenant will be punished. They have not lived up to the terms of the covenant they made in front of me. When you made that covenant, you cut a calf in two. Then you walked between its pieces. Now I will cut you to pieces. 19That includes all of you who walked between the pieces of the calf. It includes the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the court officials and the priests. It also includes some of the people of the land. 20So I will hand over all those people to their enemies who want to kill them. Their dead bodies will become food for the birds and the wild animals.

21"I will hand over King Zedekiah and his officials to their enemies. I will hand them over to those who want to kill them. I will hand them over to the armies of the king of Babylon. They have now pulled back from you. 22But I am going to give an order," announces the LORD. "I will bring them back to this city. They will fight against it. They will capture it and burn it down. And I will completely destroy the towns of Judah. No one will be able to live there."

Jeremiah 35

The Family Line of Rekab

[1]A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. It came during the time Jehoiakim was king over Judah. Jehoiakim was the son of Josiah. The message said, [2]"Go to the members of the family line of Rekab. Invite them to come to one of the side rooms in my house. Then give them wine to drink."

[3]So I went to get Jaazaniah. He was the son of Jeremiah. Jeremiah was the son of Habazziniah. I also went to get Jaazaniah's brothers and all his sons. That included all the members of the family line of Rekab. [4]I brought them into the LORD's house. I took them into the room of the sons of Hanan. He was the son of Igdaliah. He was also a man of God. His room was next to the room of the officials. Their room was above the room of Maaseiah. He was the son of Shallum. He also was one of those who guarded the temple doors. [5]Then I got bowls full of wine and some cups. I set them down in front of the men from the family line of Rekab. I said to them, "Drink some wine."

[6]But they replied, "We don't drink wine. That's because Jehonadab gave us a command. He was the son of Rekab. He was also one of our own people from long ago. He commanded, 'You and your children after you must never drink wine. [7]Also you must never build houses. You must never plant crops or vineyards. You must never have any of these things. Instead, you must always live in tents. Then you will live a long time in the land where you are wandering around.' [8]We have done everything Jehonadab, the son of Rekab, commanded us to do. So we and our wives and our children have never drunk wine. [9]We have never built houses to live in. We've never had vineyards, fields or crops.
[10]We've always lived in tents. We've completely obeyed everything Jehonadab commanded our people of long ago. [11]But Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, marched into this land. Then we said, 'Come. We must go to Jerusalem. There we can escape the armies of Babylon and Aram.' So we have remained in Jerusalem."

[12]Then a message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. It said, [13]"The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says, 'Go. Speak to the people of Judah and Jerusalem. Tell them, "Won't you ever learn a lesson? Won't you ever obey my words?" announces the LORD. [14]"Jehonadab, the son of Rekab, ordered his children not to drink wine. And they have kept his command. To this day they do not drink wine. They obey the command Jehonadab gave their people long ago. But I have spoken to you again and again. In spite of that, you have not obeyed me. 15Again and again I sent all my servants the prophets to you. They said, ‘Each of you must turn from your evil ways. You must change the way you act. Do not worship other gods. Do not serve them. Then you will live in the land. I gave it to you and your people of long ago.’ But you have not paid any attention. You have not listened to me. 16The children of Jehonadab, the son of Rekab, have obeyed the command Jehonadab gave them long ago. But the people of Judah have not obeyed me.” ’ ”

17So the LORD God who rules over all speaks. The God of Israel says, “Listen! I am going to bring horrible trouble on Judah. I will also bring it on everyone who lives in Jerusalem. I will bring on them every trouble I said I would. I spoke to them. But they did not listen. I called out to them. But they did not answer.”

18Then Jeremiah spoke to the members of the family line of Rekab. Jeremiah said, “The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says, ‘You have obeyed the command Jehonadab gave your people of long ago. You have followed all his directions. You have done everything he ordered.’ 19So the LORD who rules over all speaks. The God of Israel says, ‘Jehonadab, the son of Rekab, will always have someone from his family line to serve me.’ ”

Jeremiah 36

Jehoiakim Burns Up Jeremiah's Scroll

1 A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. It came in the fourth year that Jehoiakim was king of Judah. He was the son of Josiah. The message said, 2 "Get a scroll. Write on it all the words I have spoken to you. Write down what I have said about Israel, Judah and all the other nations. Write what I have said to you from the time of King Josiah until now. 3 The people of Judah will hear about all the trouble I plan to bring on them. Maybe then each of them will turn from their evil ways. If they do, I will forgive their sins and the evil things they have done."

4 So Jeremiah sent for Baruch, the son of Neriah. Jeremiah told him to write down all the words the LORD had spoken to him. And Baruch wrote them on the scroll. 5 Then Jeremiah said to him, "I'm not allowed to go to the LORD's temple. 6 So you go there. Go on a day when the people are fasting. Read to them from the scroll. Read the words of the LORD you wrote down as I gave them to you. Read them to all the people of Judah who come in from their towns. 7 They will hear what the LORD will do to them when his burning anger blazes out against them. Then perhaps they will pray to him. And maybe each of them will turn from their evil ways."

8 Baruch, the son of Neriah, did everything Jeremiah the prophet told him to do. He went to the LORD's temple. There he read the words of the LORD from the scroll. 9 It was in the fifth year that Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, was king of Judah. It was the ninth month of that year. A time of fasting at the LORD's temple had been ordered. All the people in Jerusalem were told to take part in it.
So were those who had come in from the towns of Judah. 10 Baruch read to all the people who were at the LORD's temple. He read Jeremiah's words from the scroll. He was in the room of Gemariah the secretary. It was located in the upper courtyard at the entrance of the New Gate of the temple. Gemariah was the son of Shaphan.

11 Micaiah was the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan. Micaiah heard Baruch reading all the LORD's words that were written on the scroll. 12 Then he went down to the secretary's room in the royal palace. All the officials were sitting there. They included the secretary Elishama and Delaiah, the son of Shemaiah. Elnathan, the son of Akbor, was also there. So was Gemariah, the son of Shaphan. Zedekiah, the son of Hananiah, was there too. And so were all the other officials. [13]Micaiah told all of them what he had heard. He told them everything Baruch had read to the people from the scroll. [14]All the officials sent Jehudi to speak to Baruch, the son of Neriah. Jehudi was the son of Nethaniah. Nethaniah was the son of Shelemiah. Shelemiah was the son of Cushi. Jehudi said to Baruch, “Come. Bring the scroll you have read to the people.” So Baruch went to them. He carried the scroll with him. [15]The officials said to him, “Please sit down. Read the scroll to us.”

So Baruch read it to them. [16]They heard all its words. Then they looked at one another in fear. They said to Baruch, “We must report all these words to the king.” [17]They said to Baruch, “Tell us. How did you happen to write all these things? Did Jeremiah tell you to do this?”

[18]“Yes,” Baruch replied. “He told me to write down all these words. So I wrote them in ink on the scroll.”

[19]Then the officials spoke to Baruch. They said, “You and Jeremiah must go and hide. Don’t let anyone know where you are.”

[20]The officials put the scroll in the room of Elishama the secretary. Then they went to the king in the courtyard. They reported everything to him. [21]The king sent Jehudi to get the scroll. Jehudi brought it from the room of Elishama the secretary. Jehudi read it to the king. All the officials were standing beside the king. So they heard it too. [22]It was the ninth month. The king was sitting in his winter apartment. A fire was burning in the fire pot in front of him. [23]Jehudi read three or four sections from the scroll. Then the king cut them off with a secretary’s knife. He threw them into the fire pot. He did that until the entire scroll was burned up in the fire. [24]The king and some of his attendants heard all these words. But they weren’t afraid. They didn’t tear their clothes. [25]Elnathan, Delaiah and Gemariah begged the king not to burn the scroll. But he wouldn’t listen to them. [26]Instead, the king commanded three men to arrest Baruch the secretary and Jeremiah the prophet. But the LORD had hidden them. The three men were Jerahmeel, Seraiah and Shelemiah. Jerahmeel was a member of the royal court. Seraiah was the son of Azriel. And Shelemiah was the son of Abdeel.

[27]A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. It came after the king burned the scroll. On the scroll were the words Baruch had written down. Jeremiah had told him to write them. The message said, [28]“Get another scroll. Write on it all the words that were on the first one. King Jehoiakim burned that one up. [29]Also tell King Jehoiakim, ‘The LORD says, “You burned that scroll. You said to Baruch, ‘Why did you write that the king of Babylon would certainly come? Why did you write that he would destroy this land? And why did you write that he would remove from it people and animals alike?’ ” [30]So now the LORD has something to say about Jehoiakim, the king of Judah. He says, “No one from Jehoiakim’s family line will sit on David’s throne. Jehoiakim’s body will be thrown out. It will lie outside in the heat by day and in the frost at night. [31]I will punish him and his children and his attendants. I will punish them for their sinful ways. I will bring on them all the trouble I said I would. And I will bring it on the people of Jerusalem and Judah. They have not listened to me.” ’ ”

[32]So Jeremiah got another scroll. He gave it to Baruch the secretary. He was the son of Neriah. Jeremiah told Baruch what to write on it. Baruch wrote down all the words that were on the scroll King Jehoiakim had burned up in the fire. And many more words were written on it. They were similar to those that had already been written.

Jeremiah 37

Jeremiah Is Put in Prison

[1]Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, appointed Zedekiah to be king of Judah. He was the son of Josiah. Zedekiah ruled in place of Jehoiachin, the son of Jehoiakim. [2]Zedekiah and his attendants didn't pay any attention to what the LORD had said through Jeremiah the prophet. And the people of the land didn't pay any attention either.

[3]But King Zedekiah sent Jehukal to Jeremiah the prophet. Zedekiah sent Zephaniah the priest along with him. Jehukal was the son of Shelemiah. Zephaniah was the son of Maaseiah. Jehukal and Zephaniah brought the king's message to Jeremiah. It said, "Please pray to the LORD our God for us."

[4]At that time Jeremiah was free to come and go among the people. Jeremiah had not yet been put in prison. [5]The armies of Babylon were attacking Jerusalem. They received a report that Pharaoh's army had marched out of Egypt to help Zedekiah. So armies of Babylon pulled back from Jerusalem.

[6]A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. [7]The LORD is the God of Israel. He says, "The king of Judah has sent you to ask me for advice. Tell him, 'Pharaoh's army has marched out to help you. But it will go back to its own land. It will return to Egypt. [8]Then the armies of Babylon will come back here. They will attack this city. They will capture it. Then they will burn it down.'

[9]"The LORD says, 'Do not fool yourselves. You think, "The Babylonians will leave us alone." But they will not! [10]Suppose you destroy all the armies of Babylon that are attacking you. Suppose only wounded men are left in their tents. Even then they will come out and burn down this city.' "

[11]The armies of Babylon had pulled back from Jerusalem because of Pharaoh's army. [12]So Jeremiah started to leave the city. He was planning to go to the territory of Benjamin. Jeremiah wanted to get his share of the property among the people there. [13]He got as far as the Benjamin Gate. But the captain of the guard arrested him. He said, "You are going over to the side of the Babylonians!" The captain's name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah. Shelemiah was the son of Hananiah.

[14]Jeremiah said to Irijah, "That isn't true! I'm not going to the side of the Babylonians." But Irijah wouldn't listen to him. Instead, he arrested Jeremiah. He brought Jeremiah to the officials. [15]They were angry with him. So they had him beaten. Then they took him to the house of Jonathan the secretary. It had been made into a prison. That's where they put Jeremiah.

16 Jeremiah was put into a prison cell below ground level. He remained there a long time. 17 Then King Zedekiah sent for him. King Zedekiah had Jeremiah brought to the palace. There the king spoke to him in private. The king asked, "Do you have a message from the LORD for me?"

"Yes," Jeremiah replied. "You will be handed over to the king of Babylon."

18 Then Jeremiah continued, "Why have you put me in prison? What crime have I committed against you? What have I done to your attendants or these people? 19 Where are your prophets who prophesied to you? They said, 'The king of Babylon won't attack you. He won't march into this land.' 20 But now please listen, my king and master. Let me make my appeal to you. Please don't send me back to the house of Jonathan the secretary. If you do, I'll die there."

21 Then King Zedekiah gave the order. His men put Jeremiah in the courtyard of the guard. They gave him a loaf of bread from the street of the bakers. They did it every day until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.

Jeremiah 38

Jeremiah Is Thrown Into an Empty Well

[1]Shephatiah, Gedaliah, Jehukal and Pashhur heard what Jeremiah was telling all the people. Shephatiah was the son of Mattan. Gedaliah was the son of Pashhur. Jehukal was the son of Shelemiah. And Pashhur was the son of Malkijah. These four men heard Jeremiah say, [2]"The LORD says, 'Those who stay in this city will die of war, hunger or plague. But those who go over to the side of the Babylonians will live. They will escape with their lives. They will remain alive.' [3]The LORD also says, 'This city will certainly be handed over to the armies of the king of Babylon. They will capture it.' "

[4]Then these officials said to the king, "This man should be put to death. What he says is making the soldiers who are left in this city lose hope. It's making all the people lose hope too. He isn't interested in what is best for the people. In fact, he's trying to destroy them."

[6]So they took Jeremiah and put him into an empty well. It belonged to Malkijah. He was a member of the royal court. His well was in the courtyard of the guard. Zedekiah's men lowered Jeremiah by ropes into the well. It didn't have any water in it. All it had was mud. And Jeremiah sank down into the mud.

[7]Ebed-Melek was an official in the royal palace. He was from the land of Cush. He heard that Jeremiah had been put into the well. The king was sitting by the Benjamin Gate at that time. [8]Ebed-Melek went out of the palace. He said to the king, [9]"My king and master, everything these men have done to Jeremiah the prophet is evil. They have thrown him into an empty well. Soon there won't be any more bread in the city. Then he'll starve to death."

[10]So the king gave an order to Ebed-Melek the Cushite. He said, "Take with you 30 men from here. Lift Jeremiah the prophet out of the well before he dies."

[11]Then Ebed-Melek took the men with him. He went to a room in the palace. It was under the place where the treasures were stored. He got some old rags and worn-out clothes from there. Then he let them down with ropes to Jeremiah in the well. [12]Ebed-Melek the Cushite told Jeremiah what to do. Ebed-Melek said, "Put these old rags and worn-out clothes under your arms. They'll pad the ropes." So Jeremiah did. [13]Then the men pulled him up with the ropes. They lifted him out of the well. And Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.

Zedekiah Questions Jeremiah Again

14Then King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah the prophet. The king had him brought to the third entrance to the LORD's temple. "I want to ask you something," the king said to Jeremiah. "Don't hide anything from me." 15Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "Suppose I give you an answer. You will kill me, won't you? Suppose I give you good advice. You won't listen to me, will you?" 16But King Zedekiah promised Jeremiah secretly, "I won't kill you. And I won't hand you over to those who want to kill you. That's just as sure as the LORD is alive. He's the one who has given us breath."
17So Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "The LORD God who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says, 'Give yourself up to the officers of the king of Babylon.
Then your life will be spared. And this city will not be burned down. You and your family will remain alive. 18But what if you do not give yourself up to them?
Then this city will be handed over to the Babylonians. They will burn it down.
And you yourself will not escape from them.' " 19King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "I'm afraid of some of the Jews. They are the ones who have gone over to the side of the Babylonians. The Babylonians might hand me over to them. And those Jews will treat me badly."
20"They won't hand you over to them," Jeremiah replied. "Obey the LORD.
Do what I tell you to do. Then things will go well with you. Your life will be spared. 21Don't refuse to give yourself up. The LORD has shown me what will happen if you do. 22All the women who are left in your palace will be brought out. They'll be given to the officials of the king of Babylon. Those women will say to you,

" 'Your trusted friends have tricked you.
They have gotten the best of you.
Your feet are sunk down in the mud.
Your friends have deserted you.'

23"All your wives and children will be brought out to the Babylonians. You yourself won't escape from them. You will be captured by the king of Babylon.
And this city will be burned down."
24Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Don't let anyone know about the talk we've had. If you do, you might die. 25Suppose the officials find out that I've talked with you. And suppose they come to you and say, ‘Tell us what you said to the king. Tell us what the king said to you. Don’t hide it from us. If you do, we’ll kill you.’ [26]Then tell them, ‘I was begging the king not to send me back to Jonathan’s house. I don’t want to die there.’ ”

[27]All the officials came to Jeremiah. And they questioned him. He told them everything the king had ordered him to say. None of them had heard what he told the king. So they didn’t say anything else to him.

[28]Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard. He stayed there until the day Jerusalem was captured.

Jerusalem Is Destroyed

Here is how Jerusalem was captured.

Jeremiah 39

[1]Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, marched out against Jerusalem. He came with all his armies and attacked it. It was in the ninth year that Zedekiah was king of Judah. It was in the tenth month. [2]The city wall was broken through.
It happened on the ninth day of the fourth month. It was in the 11th year of Zedekiah's rule. [3]All the officials of the king of Babylon came. They took seats near the Middle Gate. Nergal-Sharezer from Samgar was there. Nebo-Sarsekim, a chief officer, was also there. So was Nergal-Sharezer, a high official. And all the other officials of the king of Babylon were there too. [4]King Zedekiah and all the soldiers saw them. Then they ran away. They left the city at night. They went by way of the king's garden. They went out through the gate between the two walls. And they headed toward the Arabah Valley.

[5]But the armies of Babylon chased them. They caught up with Zedekiah in the plains near Jericho. They captured him there. And they took him to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. He was at Riblah in the land of Hamath.
That's where Nebuchadnezzar decided how Zedekiah would be punished. [6]The king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah at Riblah. He forced Zedekiah to watch it with his own eyes. He also killed all the nobles of Judah. [7]Then he poked out Zedekiah's eyes. He put him in bronze chains. And he took him to Babylon.

[8]The Babylonians set the royal palace on fire. They also set fire to the houses of the people. And they broke down the walls of Jerusalem. [9]Nebuzaradan was commander of the royal guard. Some people still remained in the city. But he took them away to Babylon as prisoners. He also took along those who had gone over to his side. And he took the rest of the people. [10]Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guard, left some of the poor people of Judah behind. They didn't own anything. So at that time he gave them vineyards and fields.

[11]Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, had given orders about Jeremiah. He had given them to Nebuzaradan, the commander of the royal guard.
Nebuchadnezzar had said, [12]"Take him. Look after him. Don't harm him. Do for him anything he asks." [13]So that's what Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guard, did. Nebushazban and Nergal-Sharezer were with him. So were all the other officers of the king of Babylon. Nebushazban was a chief officer. Nergal-Sharezer was a high official. All these men [14]sent for Jeremiah. They had him taken out of the courtyard of the guard. They turned him over to Gedaliah.

Gedaliah was the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan. They told Gedaliah to take Jeremiah back to his home. So Jeremiah remained among his own people.

15 A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. It came while he was being kept in the courtyard of the guard. The LORD said, 16 "Go. Speak to Ebed-Melek the Cushite. Tell him, 'The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says, "I am about to make the words I spoke against this city come true. I will not give success to it. Instead, I will bring horrible trouble on it. At that time my words will come true. You will see it with your own eyes. 17 But I will save you on that day," announces the LORD. "You will not be handed over to those you are afraid of. 18 I will save you. You will not be killed by a sword. Instead, you will escape with your life. That's because you trust in me," announces the LORD.' "

Jeremiah 40

Jeremiah Is Set Free From His Chains

[1]A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. It came after Nebuzaradan, the commander of the royal guard, had set him free at Ramah. Jeremiah was being held by chains when Nebuzaradan found him. Jeremiah was among all the prisoners from Jerusalem and Judah. They were being taken to Babylon. [2]But the commander of the guard found Jeremiah. The commander said to him, “The LORD your God ordered that this place be destroyed. [3]And now he has brought it about. He has done exactly what he said he would do. All these things have happened because you people sinned against the LORD. You didn’t obey him. [4]But today I’m setting you free from the chains on your wrists. Come with me to Babylon if you want to. I’ll take good care of you there. But if you don’t want to come, then don’t. The whole country lies in front of you. Go anywhere you want to.” [5]But before Jeremiah turned to go, Nebuzaradan continued, “Go back to Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam. The king of Babylon has appointed Gedaliah to be over the towns of Judah. Go and live with him among your people. Or go anywhere else you want to.” Ahikam was the son of Shaphan.

The commander gave Jeremiah food and water. He also gave him a gift. Then he let Jeremiah go. [6]So Jeremiah went to Mizpah to see Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam. Jeremiah stayed with him. Jeremiah lived among the people who were left behind in the land.

Gedaliah Is Murdered

[7]Some of Judah’s army officers and their men were still in the open country. They heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah as governor over Judah. Gedaliah was the son of Ahikam. The king had put Gedaliah in charge of the men, women and children who were still there. They were the poorest people in the land. They hadn’t been taken to Babylon. [8]When the army officers and their men heard these things, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, came. So did Johanan and Jonathan, the sons of Kareah. Seraiah, the son of Tanhumeth, also came. The sons of Ephai from Netophah came too. And so did Jaazaniah, the son of the Maakathite. All their men came with them. [9]Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, made a promise. He made the promise to give hope to all these men. He spoke in a kind way to them. He said,

“Don’t be afraid to serve the Babylonians. Make your homes in the land of Judah. Serve the king of Babylon. Then things will go well with you. [10]I myself will stay at Mizpah. I’ll speak for you to the officials of Babylon who come to us. But you must harvest the wine, summer fruit and olive oil. Put them in your jars. Store them up. And live in the towns you have taken over.”

[11]All the Jews in Moab, Ammon and Edom heard what had happened. So did the Jews in all the other countries. They heard that the king of Babylon had left some people behind in Judah. They also heard that he had appointed Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, as governor over them. Ahikam was the son of Shaphan. [12]When they heard these things, all of them came back to the land of Judah. They went to Gedaliah at Mizpah. They came from all the countries where they had been scattered. And they harvested a large amount of wine and summer fruit.

[13]Johanan and all the other army officers still in the open country came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. Johanan was the son of Kareah. [14]The officers spoke to Gedaliah. They said, “Don’t you know that Baalis has sent someone to take your life? Baalis is the king of Ammon. He has sent Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah.” But Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, didn’t believe them.

[15]Then Johanan, the son of Kareah, spoke in private to Gedaliah in Mizpah. He said, “Let me go and kill Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah. No one will know about it. Why should he take your life? Why should he cause all the Jews gathered around you to be scattered? Why should he cause the people who remain in Judah to die?”

[16]But Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, spoke to Johanan, the son of Kareah. He said, “Don’t do an awful thing like that! What you are saying about Ishmael isn’t true.”

Jeremiah 41

[1]In the seventh month Ishmael came with ten men to Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, at Mizpah. Ishmael was the son of Nethaniah. Nethaniah was the son of Elishama. Ishmael was a member of the royal family. He had been one of the king's officers. Ishmael and his ten men were eating together at Mizpah. [2]They got up and struck down Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, with their swords. They killed him even though the king of Babylon had appointed him as governor over Judah. Ahikam was the son of Shaphan. [3]Ishmael also killed all the men of Judah who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah. And he killed the Babylonian soldiers who were there.

[4]On the next day, people still hadn't found out that Gedaliah had been murdered. [5]On that day 80 men came from Shechem, Shiloh and Samaria. They had shaved off their beards. They had torn their clothes. And they had cut themselves. They brought grain offerings and incense with them. They took them to the LORD's house. [6]Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, went out from Mizpah to meet them. He was weeping as he went. When he met them, he said, "Come to Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam." [7]They went with him into the city. Then Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, and the men who were with him killed them. And they threw them into an empty well. [8]But ten of the men had spoken to Ishmael. They had said, "Don't kill us! We have some wheat and barley. We also have olive oil and honey. We've hidden all of it in a field." So he didn't kill them along with the others. [9]But he had thrown into the empty well all the bodies of the men he had killed. That included Gedaliah's body. The well was the one King Asa had made. He had made it when he strengthened Mizpah against attack by Baasha, the king of Israel. Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, filled it with the bodies of those he had killed.

[10]Nebuzaradan was the commander of the royal guard. He had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam over all the people at Mizpah. But Ishmael made prisoners of the people left at Mizpah. These prisoners included women who were members of the royal court. The prisoners also included everyone else left at Mizpah. Then Ishmael started out to go across the Jordan River to the land of Ammon.

[11]Johanan, the son of Kareah, was told what had happened. And so were all the other army officers with him. They heard about all the crimes Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, had committed. [12]So they brought all their men together. Then they went to fight against Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah. They caught up with him near the large pool in Gibeon. [13]Ishmael had many people with him. They saw Johanan, the son of Kareah. And they saw the other army officers who were with him. So the people who had been forced to go with Ishmael were glad. [14]Ishmael had taken those people from Mizpah as prisoners. But now they turned and went over to the side of Johanan, the son of Kareah. [15]But Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, and eight of his men escaped from Johanan. They ran away to the land of Ammon.

Some Jews Take Jeremiah to Egypt

[16]Then Johanan, the son of Kareah, led away all the people of Mizpah who were still alive. All the other army officers with Johanan helped him do this. He had taken them away from Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah. That happened after Ishmael had murdered Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam. The people Johanan had taken away included soldiers, women, children and court officials. He had brought them from Gibeon. [17]They went on their way. They stopped at Geruth Kimham near Bethlehem. They were going to Egypt. [18]They wanted to get away from the Babylonians. They were afraid of them. That’s because Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, had killed Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam. The king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah as governor over Judah.

Jeremiah 42

[1]Then all the army officers approached Jeremiah. They included Johanan, the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah, the son of Hoshaiah. All the people from the least important of them to the most important also came. [2]All of them said to Jeremiah the prophet, “Please listen to our appeal. Pray to the LORD your God. Pray for all of us who are left here. Once there were many of us. But as you can see, only a few of us are left now. [3]So pray to the LORD your God. Pray that he’ll tell us where we should go. Pray that he’ll tell us what we should do.”

[4]“I’ve heard you,” Jeremiah the prophet replied. “I’ll certainly pray to the LORD your God. I’ll do what you have asked me to do. In fact, I’ll tell you everything the LORD says. I won’t keep anything back from you.”

[5]Then they said to Jeremiah, “We’ll do everything the LORD your God sends you to tell us to do. If we don’t, may he be a true and faithful witness against us.
[6]It doesn’t matter whether what you say is in our favor or not. We’re asking you to pray to the LORD our God. And we’ll obey him. Things will go well with us.
That’s because we will obey the LORD our God.”

[7]Ten days later a message came to Jeremiah from the LORD. [8]So Jeremiah sent for Johanan, the son of Kareah, and all the other army officers with him.
Jeremiah also gathered together all the people from the least important of them to the most important. [9]He said to all of them, “The LORD is the God of Israel.
You asked me to present your appeal to him. He told me, [10]‘Stay in this land.
Then I will build you up. I will not tear you down. I will plant you. I will not pull you up by the roots. I have decided to stop bringing trouble on you. [11]Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon. You are afraid of him now. Do not be,’ announces the LORD. ‘I am with you. I will keep you safe. I will save you from his power.
[12]I will show you my loving concern. Then he will have concern for you. And he will let you return to your land.’

[13]“But suppose you say, ‘We won’t stay in this land.’ If you do, you will be disobeying the LORD your God. [14]And suppose you say, ‘No! We’ll go and live in Egypt. There we won’t have to face war anymore. We won’t hear the trumpets of war. And we won’t get hungry.’ [15]Then listen to what the LORD says to you who are left in Judah. He is the LORD who rules over all. He is the God of Israel. He says, ‘Have you already made up your minds to go to Egypt? Are you going to make your homes there? [16]Then the war you fear will catch up with you there. The hunger you are afraid of will follow you into Egypt. And you will die there. [17]In fact, that will happen to all those who go and make there homes in Egypt. All of them will die of war, hunger and plague. Not one of them will live. None of them will escape the trouble I will bring on them.' [18]He is the LORD who rules over all. He is the God of Israel. He says, 'My great anger has been poured out on those who used to live in Jerusalem. In the same way, it will be poured out on you when you go to Egypt. People will use your name in a curse. They will be shocked at you. They will say bad things about you. And they will say you are shameful. You will never see this place again.'

[19]"The LORD has spoken to you who are left in Judah. He has said, 'Do not go to Egypt.' Here is something you can be sure of. I am warning you about it today. [20]You made a big mistake when you asked me to pray to the LORD your God. You said, 'Pray to the LORD our God for us. Tell us everything he says. We'll do it.' [21]I have told you today what the LORD your God wants you to do. But you still haven't obeyed him. You haven't done anything he sent me to tell you to do. [22]So here is something else you can be sure of. You will die of war, hunger and plague. You want to go and make your homes in Egypt. But you will die there."

Jeremiah 43

[1]Jeremiah finished telling the people everything the LORD their God had said.
Jeremiah told them everything the LORD had sent him to tell them. [2]After that, Azariah, the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan, the son of Kareah, spoke to Jeremiah. And all the proud men joined them. They said, “You are lying! The LORD our God hasn’t sent you to speak to us. He hasn’t told you to say, ‘You must not go to Egypt and make your homes there.’ [3]But Baruch, the son of Neriah, is turning you against us. He wants us to be handed over to the Babylonians. Then they can kill us. Or they can take us away to Babylon.”

[4]So Johanan, the son of Kareah, disobeyed the LORD’s command. So did all the other army officers and all the people. They didn’t stay in the land of Judah.
[5]Instead Johanan, the son of Kareah, and all the other army officers led away all the people who were left in Judah. Those people had returned to Judah from all the nations where they had been scattered. [6]Johanan and the other officers also led away many people Nebuzaradan had left at Mizpah. They included men, women and children. They also included the king’s daughters. Nebuzaradan had left them with Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam. They also took Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah along with them. Nebuzaradan was commander of the royal guard. Ahikam was the son of Shaphan. [7]So the Jewish leaders disobeyed the LORD. They took everyone to Egypt. They went all the way to Tahpanhes.

[8]In Tahpanhes a message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. The LORD said, [9]“Make sure the Jews are watching you. Then get some large stones. Go to the entrance to Pharaoh’s house in Tahpanhes. Bury the stones in the clay under the brick walkway there. [10]Then tell the Jews, ‘The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says, “I will send for my servant Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. And I will set his throne over these stones that are buried here. He will set up his royal tent over them. [11]He will come and attack Egypt. He will bring death to those I have appointed to die. He will take away as prisoners those I have appointed to be taken away. And he will kill with swords those I have appointed to be killed. [12]He will set the temples of the gods of Egypt on fire. He will burn down their temples. He will take away the statues of their gods.
Nebuchadnezzar will be like a shepherd who picks his coat clean of lice.
Nebuchadnezzar will pick Egypt clean and then depart. [13]At Heliopolis in Egypt he will smash the sacred pillars to pieces. And he will burn down the temples of the gods of Egypt.” ’ ”

Jeremiah 44

Worshiping Other Gods Brings Horrible Trouble

[1]A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. It was about all the Jews living in Lower Egypt. They were living in Migdol, Tahpanhes and Memphis. It was also about all the Jews living in Upper Egypt. [2]The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He said, “You saw all the trouble I brought on Jerusalem. I also brought it on all the towns in Judah. Today they lie there deserted and destroyed. [3]That’s because of the evil things their people did. They made me very angry. They burned incense to other gods. And they worshiped them. They and you and your people of long ago never knew those gods. [4]Again and again I sent my servants the prophets. They said, ‘Don’t worship other gods! The LORD hates it!’ [5]But the people didn’t listen. They didn’t pay any attention. They didn’t turn from their sinful ways. They didn’t stop burning incense to other gods. [6]So my burning anger was poured out. It blazed out against the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem. It made them the dry and empty places they are today.”

[7]The LORD God who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says, “Why do you want to bring all this trouble on yourselves? You are removing from Judah its men and women, its children and babies. Not one of you will be left. [8]Why do you want to make me angry with the gods your hands have made? Why do you burn incense to the gods of Egypt, where you now live? You will destroy yourselves. All the nations on earth will use your name as a curse. They will say you are shameful. [9]Have you forgotten the evil things done by your people of long ago? The kings and queens of Judah did those same things. So did you and your wives. They were done in the land of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem. [10]To this day the people of Judah have not made themselves humble in my sight. They have not shown any respect for me. They have not obeyed my law. They have not followed the rules I gave you and your people of long ago.”

[11]The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says, “I have decided to bring horrible trouble on you. I will destroy the whole land of Judah. [12]I will destroy the people of Judah who are left. They had decided to go to Egypt and make their homes there. But all of them will die in Egypt. They will die of war or hunger. All of them will die, from the least important of them to the most important. They will die of war or hunger. People will use their name as a curse. They will be shocked at them. They will say bad things about them. And they will say they are shameful. [13]I will use war, hunger and plague to punish the Jews who live in Egypt. I punished Jerusalem in the same way. [14]None of the people of Judah who have gone to live in Egypt will escape. Not one of them will live to return to Judah. They long to return and live there. But only a few will escape from Egypt and go back."

[15]All the Jews who were living in Lower and Upper Egypt gathered to give Jeremiah their answer. A large crowd had come together. It included men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods. Their wives were there with them. All of them said to Jeremiah, [16]"We won't listen to the message you have spoken to us in the LORD's name! [17]We will certainly do everything we said we would. We'll burn incense to the female god called the Queen of Heaven. We'll pour out drink offerings to her. We'll do just as we and our people of long ago have done. Our kings and our officials also did it. All of us did it in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem. At that time we had plenty of food. We were well off. We didn't suffer any harm. [18]But then we stopped burning incense to the Queen of Heaven. We stopped pouring out drink offerings to her. And ever since that time we haven't had anything. Instead, we've been dying of war and hunger."

[19]The women added, "We burned incense to the Queen of Heaven. We poured out drink offerings to her. And our husbands knew we were making cakes that looked like her. They knew we were pouring out drink offerings to her."

[20]Then Jeremiah spoke to all the people who were answering him. He spoke to men and women alike. He said, [21]"Didn't the LORD know you were burning incense in the towns of Judah? Didn't he care that you were also doing it in the streets of Jerusalem? You and your people of long ago were doing it. Your kings and officials were doing it too. So were the rest of the people in the land. [22]The LORD couldn't put up any longer with the evil things you were doing. He hated the things you did. So your land became a curse. It became a dry and empty desert. No one lived there. And that's the way it still is today. [23]You have burned incense to other gods. You have sinned against the LORD. You haven't obeyed him or his law. You haven't followed his rules. You haven't lived up to the terms of the covenant he made with you. That's why all this trouble has come on you. You have seen it with your own eyes."

[24]Then Jeremiah spoke to all the people. That included the women. He said, "All you people of Judah in Egypt, listen to the LORD's message. [25]The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says, 'You and your wives have done what you promised you would do. You said, "We will certainly keep the promises we made to the Queen of Heaven. We'll burn incense to her. We'll pour out drink offerings to her." '

"Go ahead then. Do what you said you would! Keep your promises! [26]But listen to the LORD's message. Listen, all you Jews living in Egypt. 'I make a promise by my own great name,' says the LORD. 'Here is what I promise. "No one from Judah who lives anywhere in Egypt will ever again pray in my name. None of them will ever make this promise. They will never say, 'You can be sure that the LORD and King is alive.' " [27]I am watching over them to do them harm and not good. The Jews in Egypt will die of war and hunger until all of them are destroyed. [28]Some will not be killed. They will return to Judah from Egypt. But they will be very few. Then all the people of Judah who came to live in Egypt will know the truth. They will know whether what I say or what they say will come true.

[29]" 'I will give you a sign that I will punish you in this place,' announces the LORD. 'Then you can be sure that my warnings of harm against you will come true.' [30]The LORD says, 'I am going to hand over Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt. I will hand him over to his enemies who want to kill him. In the same way, I handed over King Zedekiah to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. He was the enemy who wanted to kill Zedekiah.' "

Jeremiah 45

The LORD Speaks to Baruch

[1]Jeremiah talked to Baruch, the son of Neriah. It was in the fourth year that Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, was king of Judah. It was when Baruch had written down on a scroll the words Jeremiah the prophet told him to write. Jeremiah had said, [2]"The LORD is the God of Israel. Baruch, he says to you, [3]'You have said, "How terrible it is for me! The LORD has added sorrow to my pain. I'm worn out from all my groaning. I can't find any rest." ' [4]But here is what the LORD has told me to say to you, Baruch. 'The LORD says, "I will destroy what I have built up. I will pull up by the roots what I have planted. I will do this throughout the earth. [5]So should you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them. I will bring trouble on everyone," announces the LORD. "But no matter where you go, I will let you escape with your life." ' "

Jeremiah 46

A Message About Egypt

[1]A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet. It was about the nations.

[2]Here is what the LORD says about Egypt.

Here is his message against the army of Pharaoh Necho. He was king of Egypt. Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, won the battle over Necho's army. That happened at Carchemish on the Euphrates River. It was in the fourth year that Jehoiakim was king of Judah. He was the son of Josiah. The message says, [3]"Egyptians, prepare your shields!

Prepare large and small shields alike!
March out for battle!
[4]Get the horses and chariots ready to ride!
Take up your battle positions!
Put on your helmets!
Shine up your spears!
Put on your armor!
[5]What do I see?
The Egyptians are terrified.
They are pulling back.
Their soldiers are losing.
They run away as fast as they can.
They do not look back.
There is terror on every side,"
announces the LORD.
[6]"Those who run fast can't get away.
Those who are strong can't escape.
In the north by the Euphrates River
they trip and fall.

[7]"Who is this that rises like the Nile River?
Who rises like rivers of rushing waters?

[8]Egypt rises like the Nile River.
It rises like rivers of rushing waters.
Egypt says, ‘I will rise and cover the earth.
I’ll destroy cities and their people.’
[9]Charge, you horses!
Drive fast, you chariot drivers!
March on, you soldiers!
March on, you men of Cush and Put who carry shields.
March on, you men of Lydia who shoot arrows.
[10]But that day belongs to me.
I am the LORD who rules over all.
It is a day for me to pay back my enemies.
My sword will eat until it is satisfied.
It will drink until it is not thirsty for blood anymore.
I am the Lord. I am the LORD who rules over all.
I will offer a sacrifice.
I will offer it in the land of the north by the Euphrates River.

[11]“People of Egypt, go up to Gilead and get some healing lotion.
You may try many medicines, but you will not be healed.
There isn’t any healing for you.
[12]The nations will hear about your shame.
Your cries of pain will fill the earth.
One soldier will trip over another.
Both of them will fall down together.”

[13]Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, was coming to attack Egypt. Here is the message the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet about it. He said, [14]“Egyptians, here is what I want you to announce in your land.

Announce it in the city of Migdol.
Also announce it in Memphis and Tahpanhes.
Say, ‘Take up your battle positions! Get ready!
The sword eats up those around you.’
[15]Why are your soldiers lying on the ground?
They can’t stand, because I bring them down.

16 They will trip again and again.
They will fall over one another.
They will say, ‘Get up. Let’s go back home.
Let’s return to our own people and our own lands.
Let’s get away from the swords that will bring us great harm.’
17 The Egyptian soldiers will cry out,
‘Pharaoh, our king, is only a loud noise.
He has missed his chance to win the battle.’

18 “I am the King.
My name is the LORD Who Rules Over All.
Someone will come who is like Mount Tabor among the mountains.
He is like Mount Carmel by the Mediterranean Sea.
And that is just as sure as I am alive,”
announces the King.
19 “So pack your belongings, you who live in Egypt.
You will be taken away from your land.
Memphis will be completely destroyed.
Its buildings will be broken down.
No one will live there.

20 “Egypt is like a beautiful young cow.
But Nebuchadnezzar is coming against her from the north.
He will bite her like a fly.
21 Hired soldiers are in Egypt’s army.
They are like fat calves.
All of them will turn and run away.
They will not hold their positions.
The day of trouble is coming on them.
The time for them to be punished is near.
22 The Egyptians will hiss like a snake that is trying to get away.
A powerful army will advance against them.
Their enemies will come against them with axes.
They will be like those who cut down trees.
23 Egypt is like a thick forest.
But they will chop it down,”

announces the LORD.
“There are more of their enemies than there are locusts.
In fact, they can’t even be counted.
24The nation of Egypt will be put to shame.
It will be handed over to the people of the north.”

25The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says, “I am about to punish Amon, the god of Thebes. I will also punish Pharaoh. I will punish Egypt and its gods and kings. And I will punish those who depend on Pharaoh. 26I will hand them over to those who want to kill them. I will give them to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, and his officers. But later, many people will live in Egypt again as in times past,” announces the LORD.

27“People of Jacob, do not be afraid.
You are my servant.
Israel, do not be terrified.
I will bring you safely out of a place far away.
I will bring your children back
from the land where they were taken.
Your people will have peace and security again.
And no one will make them afraid.
28People of Jacob, do not be afraid.
You are my servant.
I am with you,” announces the LORD.
“I will completely destroy all the nations
among which I scatter you.
But I will not completely destroy you.
I will correct you. But I will be fair.
I will not let you go without any punishment.”

Jeremiah 47

A Message About the Philistines

[1]A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet. It was about the Philistines before Pharaoh attacked the city of Gaza.

[2]The LORD said,

"The armies of Babylon are like waters rising in the north.
They will become a great flood.
They will flow over the land and everything in it.
They will flow over the towns and those who live in them.
The people will cry out.
All those who live in the land will weep.
[3]They will weep when they hear galloping horses.
They will weep at the noise of enemy chariots.
They will weep at the rumble of their wheels.
Parents will not even try to help their children.
Their hands will not be able to help them.
[4]The day has come to destroy all the Philistines.
The time has come to remove all those who could help Tyre and Sidon.
I am about to destroy the Philistines.
I will not leave anyone alive who came from the coasts of Crete.
[5]The people of Gaza will be so sad
they will shave their heads.
And Ashkelon's people will be silent.
You who remain on the plain,
how long will you cut yourselves?

[6]" 'Sword of the LORD!' you cry out.
'How long will it be until you rest?
Return to the place you came from.
Stop killing us! Be still!'
[7]But how can his sword rest when the LORD has given it a command?

He has ordered it to attack Ashkelon and the Philistine coast.”

Jeremiah 48

A Message About Moab

[1]Here is what the LORD says about Moab.

The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says,

"How terrible it will be for the city of Nebo!
It will be destroyed.
Kiriathaim will be captured.
It will be put to shame.
Its fort will be broken down.
It will be put to shame.
[2]Moab will not be praised anymore.
In Heshbon people will plan its fall from power.
They will say, 'Come. Let's put an end to that nation.'
City of Madmen, you too will be silent.
My sword will hunt you down.
[3]Cries of sorrow come from Horonaim.
The town is being completely destroyed.
[4]Moab will be broken.
Her little ones will cry out.
[5]The people go up the hill to Luhith.
They are weeping bitterly as they go.
Loud cries are heard on the road down to Horonaim.
People cry out because the town is being destroyed.
[6]People of Moab, run away! Run for your lives!
Become like a lonely bush in the desert.
[7]You trust in the things you can do.
You trust in your riches.
So you too will be taken away as prisoners.
Your god named Chemosh will be carried away.
So will its priests and officials.
[8]The one who is going to destroy you will come against every town.
Not even one of them will escape.

The valley and the high plain
will be destroyed.
The LORD has spoken.
9Sprinkle salt all over Moab.
It will be completely destroyed.
Its towns will be a dry and empty desert.
No one will live in them.

10“May anyone who is lazy when they do the LORD’s work be under my curse!
May anyone who keeps their sword from killing
be under my curse!

11“Moab has been at peace and rest from its earliest days.
It is like wine that has not been shaken up.
It has not been poured from one jar to another.
Moab’s people have not been taken away from their land.
They are like wine that tastes as it always did.
Its smell has not changed at all.
12But other days are coming,”
announces the LORD.
“At that time I will send people who pour wine from pitchers.
They will pour Moab out like wine.
They will empty its pitchers.
They will smash its jars.
13Then Moab’s people will be ashamed of their god named Chemosh.
They will be ashamed just as the people of Israel were when they trusted in their false god at Bethel.

14“How can you say, ‘We are soldiers.
We are men who are brave in battle’?
15Moab will be destroyed.
Its enemies will march into its towns.
Its finest young men will die in battle,”
announces the King.
His name is the LORD Who Rules Over All.
16“The fall of Moab is near.

Its time of trouble will come quickly.
17 All you who live around it, mourn for its people.
Be sad, you who know how famous Moab is.
Say, ‘Its powerful ruler’s scepter is broken!
His glorious scepter is smashed.’

18 “Come down from your glorious city, you who live in Dibon.
Come and sit on the thirsty ground.
The one who destroys Moab will come up and attack you.
Your enemies will destroy your cities
that have high walls around them.
19 Stand by the road and watch,
you who live in Aroer.
Ask the men who are running away.
Ask the women who are escaping.
Ask them, ‘What has happened?’
20 Moab has been put to shame.
It has been destroyed.
Weep and cry out!
Tell everyone Moab has been destroyed.
Announce it by the Arnon River.
21 The high plain has been judged.
So have Holon, Jahzah and Mephaath.
22 Dibon, Nebo and Beth Diblathaim have been judged.
23 So have Kiriathaim, Beth Gamul and Beth Meon.
24 Kerioth and Bozrah have also been judged.
And so have all the towns of Moab, far and near alike.
25 Moab’s power is gone.
Its strength is broken,”
announces the LORD.

26 “Moab’s people think they are better than I am.
So let their enemies make them drunk.
Let the people get sick and throw up.
Let them roll around in the mess they have made.
Let people laugh at them.

[27]Moab, you laughed at Israel, didn’t you?
Were Israel’s people caught among robbers?
Is that why you shake your head at them?
Is that why you make fun of them
every time you talk about them?
[28]Leave your towns,
you who live in Moab.
Go and live among the rocks.
Be like a dove that makes its nest
at the entrance of a cave.

[29]“We have heard all about Moab’s pride.
We have heard how very proud they are.
They think they are so much better than others.
Their pride reaches deep down inside their hearts.
[30]I know how rude they are.
But it will not get them anywhere,”
announces the LORD.
“Their bragging does not accomplish anything.
[31]So I weep over Moab.
I cry for all Moab’s people.
I groan for the people of Kir Hareseth.
[32]I weep for you as Jazer weeps, you vines of Sibmah.
Your branches used to spread out.
They went all the way down to the Dead Sea.
They reached as far as the sea of Jazer.
The one who destroys your country has taken away your grapes and ripe fruit.
[33]Joy has left your orchards.
Gladness is gone from your fields.
I have stopped the flow of juice from your winepresses.
No one stomps on your grapes with shouts of joy.
There are shouts.
But they are not shouts of joy.

[34]“The sound of their cry rises from Heshbon.
It rises as far as Elealeh and Jahaz.

It rises from Zoar.
It goes all the way to Horonaim and Eglath Shelishiyah.
Even the waters at Nimrim are dried up.
35In Moab people sacrifice offerings on the high places.
They burn incense to their gods.
But I will put an end to those people,”
announces the LORD.
36“Like a flute my heart sings a song of sadness for Moab.
It sings like a flute for the people of Kir Hareseth.
The wealth they had acquired is gone.
37Every head is shaved.
Every beard is cut off.
Every hand is cut.
And every waist is covered with the clothes of sadness.
38Weeping is the only sound in Moab.
It is heard on all its roofs.
It is heard in the market.
I have broken Moab
like a jar that no one wants,”
announces the LORD.
39“How broken Moab is! How the people weep!
They turn away from others
because they are so ashamed.
All those around them laugh at them.
They are shocked at them.”

40The LORD says,

“Look! Nebuchadnezzar is like an eagle diving down.
He is spreading his wings over Moab.
41Kerioth will be captured.
Its forts will be taken.
At that time the hearts of Moab’s soldiers will tremble in fear.
They will be like the heart of a woman having a baby.
42Moab will be destroyed as a nation.
That is because its people thought they were better than the LORD.
43You people of Moab,”

announces the LORD,
"terror, a pit and a trap are waiting for you.
44 Anyone who runs away from the terror
will fall into the pit.
Anyone who climbs out of the pit
will be caught in the trap.
The time is coming
when I will punish Moab,"
announces the LORD.

45 "In the shadow of Heshbon
those who are trying to escape stand helpless.
A fire has blazed out from Heshbon.
Flames have come out from Sihon's city.
It burns the foreheads of Moab's people.
It burns the skulls of those who brag loudly.
46 How terrible it will be for you, Moab!
Those who worship Chemosh are destroyed.
Your sons are being taken to another country.
Your daughters are taken away as prisoners.

47 "But in days to come
I will bless Moab with great success again,"
announces the LORD.

This ends the report about how the LORD would judge Moab.

Jeremiah 49

A Message About Ammon

[1]Here is what the LORD says about the people of Ammon.

He says,

"Doesn't Israel have any sons?
Doesn't Israel have anyone to take over the family property?
Then why has the god named Molek taken over Gad?
Why do those who worship him live in its towns?
[2]But a new day is coming,"
announces the LORD.
"At that time I will sound the battle cry.
I will sound it against Rabbah in the land of Ammon.
It will become a pile of broken-down buildings.
The villages around it will be set on fire.
Then Israel will drive out those who drove her out,"
says the LORD.
[3]"Heshbon, weep for Ai! It is destroyed!
Cry out, you who live in Rabbah!
Put on the clothes of sadness and mourn.
Run here and there inside the walls.
Your god named Molek will be carried away.
So will its priests and officials.
[4]Why do you brag about your valleys?
You brag that they produce so many crops.
Ammon, you are an unfaithful country.
You trust in your riches. You say,
'Who will attack me?'
[5]I will bring terror on you.
It will come from all those around you," announces the Lord. He is the LORD who rules over all.
"Every one of you will be driven away.
No one will bring back those who escape.

6“But after that, I will bless the people of Ammon with great success again,”
announces the LORD.

A Message About Edom

7Here is what the LORD says about Edom.

The LORD who rules over all says,

“Isn’t there wisdom in the town of Teman anymore?
Can’t those who are wise give advice?
Has their wisdom disappeared completely?
8Turn around and run away, you who live in Dedan.
Hide in deep caves.
I will bring trouble on Esau’s family line.
I will do this at the time I punish them.
9Edom, suppose grape pickers came to harvest your vines.
They would still leave a few grapes.
Suppose robbers came at night.
They would steal only as much as they wanted.
10But I will strip everything away from Esau’s people.
I will uncover their hiding places.
They will not be able to hide anywhere.
Their army is destroyed.
Their friends and neighbors are destroyed.
So there is no one to say,
11‘Leave your children whose fathers have died.
I will keep them alive.
Your widows can also depend on me.’ ”

12The LORD says, “What if those who do not have to drink the cup must drink it anyway? Then shouldn’t you be punished? You will certainly be punished. You must drink the cup. 13I make a promise in my own name. Bozrah will be destroyed,” announces the LORD. “People will be shocked at it. They will say Bozrah is a shameful place. They will use its name as a curse. And all its towns will be destroyed forever.”

14 I've heard a message from the LORD.
A messenger was sent to the nations. The LORD told him to say,
"Gather yourselves together to attack Edom!
Prepare for battle!"

15 The LORD says to Edom, "I will make you weak among the nations.
They will hate you.
16 You live in the safety of the rocks.
You live on top of the hills.
But the terror you stir up has now turned against you.
Your proud heart has tricked you.
You build your nest as high as an eagle does.
But I will bring you down from there,"
announces the LORD.
17 "People of Edom,
all those who pass by you will be shocked.
They will make fun of you
because of all your wounds.
18 Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed.
So were the towns that were near them,"
says the LORD.
"You will be just like them.
No one will live in your land.
No human beings will stay there.

19 "I will be like a lion coming up from the bushes by the Jordan River.
I will hunt in rich grasslands.
I will chase you from your land in an instant.
What nation will I choose to do this?
Which one will I appoint?
Is anyone like me?
Who would dare to argue with me?
What leader can stand against me?"
20 So listen to what the LORD has planned against the people of Edom.
Hear what he has planned against those who live in Teman.

Edom's young people will be dragged away.
Their grasslands will be shocked at their fate.
[21]When the earth hears Edom fall, it will shake.
The people's cries will be heard all the way to the Red Sea.
[22]Look! An enemy is coming.
It's like an eagle diving down.
It will spread its wings over Bozrah.
At that time the hearts of Edom's soldiers will tremble in fear.
They'll be like the heart of a woman having a baby.

A Message About Damascus

[23]Here is what the LORD says about Damascus. He says,

"The people of Hamath and Arpad are terrified.
They have heard bad news.
They have lost all hope.
They are troubled like the rolling sea.
[24]The people of Damascus have become weak.
They have turned to run away.
Panic has taken hold of them.
Suffering and pain have taken hold of them.
Their pain is like the pain of a woman having a baby.
[25]Why hasn't the famous city been deserted?
It is the town I take delight in.
[26]You can be sure its young men will fall dead in the streets.
All its soldiers will be put to death at that time,"
announces the LORD who rules over all.
[27]"I will set the walls of Damascus on fire.
It will burn down the strong towers of King Ben-Hadad."

A Message About Kedar and Hazor

[28]Here is what the LORD says about the people of Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor. Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, was planning to attack them.

The LORD says to the armies of Babylon,

“Prepare for battle. Attack Kedar.
Destroy the people of the east.
29Their tents and flocks will be taken away from them.
Their tents will be carried off.
All their goods and camels will be stolen.
People will shout to them,
‘There is terror on every side!’

30“Run away quickly!
You who live in Hazor, stay in deep caves,”
announces the LORD.
“Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, has made plans against you.
He has decided to attack you.

31“Armies of Babylon, prepare for battle.
Attack a nation that feels secure.
Its people do not have any worries,”
announces the LORD.
“That nation does not have gates or bars that lock them.
Its people live far from danger.
32Their camels will be stolen.
Their large herds will be taken away.
I will scatter to the winds those who are in places far away.
I will bring trouble on them from every side,”
announces the LORD.
33“Hazor will become a home for wild dogs.
It will be a dry and empty desert forever.
No one will live in that land.
No human beings will stay there.”

A Message About Elam

34A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet. It was about Elam. It came shortly after Zedekiah became king of Judah.

35The LORD who rules over all said,

“Elam’s bow is the secret of its strength.

But I will break it.
[36]I will bring the four winds against Elam.
I will bring them from all four directions.
I will scatter Elam's people to the four winds.
They will be taken away
to every nation on earth.
[37]I will use Elam's enemies to smash them.
Those who want to kill them will kill them.
I will bring trouble on Elam's people.
My anger will be great against them,"
announces the LORD.
"I will chase them with swords.
I will hunt them down
until I have destroyed them.
[38]I will set up my throne in Elam.
I will destroy its king and officials,"
announces the LORD.

[39]"But in days to come I will bless Elam with great success again,"
announces the LORD.

Jeremiah 50

A Message About Babylon

[1]Here is the message the LORD spoke through Jeremiah the prophet. It was about the city of Babylon and the land of Babylon. He said,

[2]"Announce this message among the nations.
Lift up a banner.
Let the nations hear the message.
Do not keep anything back.
Say, 'Babylon will be captured.
The god named Bel will be put to shame.
The god named Marduk will be filled with terror.
Babylon's gods will be put to shame.
The gods its people made will be filled with terror.'
[3]A nation from the north will attack it.
That nation will destroy Babylon.
No one will live there.
People and animals alike will run away.

[4]"The days are coming,"
announces the LORD.
"At that time the people of Israel and Judah will gather together.
They will come in tears to me.
I am the LORD their God.
[5]They will ask how to get to Zion.
Then they will turn their faces toward it.
They will come and join themselves to me.
They will enter into the covenant I make with them.
It will last forever.
It will never be forgotten.

[6]"My people have been like lost sheep.
Their shepherds have led them astray.
They have caused them to wander in the mountains.
They have wandered over mountains and hills.
They have forgotten that I am their true resting place.

7 Everyone who found them destroyed them.
Their enemies said, ‘We aren’t guilty.
They sinned against the LORD.
He gave them everything they needed.
He has always been Israel’s hope.’

8 “People of Judah, run away from Babylon.
Leave the land of Babylon.
Be like the goats that lead the flock.
9 I will stir up great nations that will join forces against Babylon.
I will bring them from the land of the north.
They will take up their battle positions against Babylon.
They will come from the north and capture it.
Their arrows will be like skilled soldiers.
They will not miss their mark.
10 So the riches of Babylon will be taken away.
All those who steal from it will have more than enough,”
announces the LORD.

11 “People of Babylon, you have stolen what belongs to me.
That has made you glad and full of joy.
You dance around like a young cow on a threshing floor.
You neigh like stallions.
12 Because of that, you will bring great shame on your land.
Your whole nation will be dishonored.
It will become the least important of the nations.
It will become a dry and empty desert.
13 Because I am angry with it, no one will live there.
It will be completely deserted.
All those who pass by Babylon will be shocked.
They will make fun of it because of all its wounds.

14 “All you who shoot arrows, take up your battle positions around Babylon.
Shoot at it! Do not spare any arrows!
Its people have sinned against me.
15 Shout against them on every side!

They are giving up.
The towers of the city are falling.
Its walls are being pulled down.
The LORD is paying back its people.
So pay them back yourselves.
Do to them what they have done to others.
16 Do not leave anyone in Babylon to plant the fields.
Do not leave anyone to harvest the grain.
Let each of them return to their own people.
Let them run away to their own land.
If they don't, their enemy's sword will bring them great harm.

17 "Israel is like a scattered flock that lions have chased away.
The first lion that ate them up was the king of Assyria.
The last one that broke their bones was Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon."

18 The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says,

"I punished the king of Assyria.
In the same way, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land.
19 But I will bring Israel back to their own grasslands.
I will feed them on Mount Carmel and in Bashan.
I will satisfy their hunger on the hills of Ephraim and Gilead.
20 The days are coming,"
announces the LORD.
"At that time people will search for Israel's guilt.
But they will not find any.
They will search for Judah's sins.
But they will not find any.
That is because I will forgive the people I have spared.

21 "Enemies of Babylon, attack their land of Merathaim.
Make war against those who live in Pekod.

Chase them and kill them. Destroy them completely,”
announces the LORD.
“Do everything I have commanded you to do.
22 The noise of battle is heard in the land.
It is the noise of a great city being destroyed!
23 It has been broken to pieces.
It was the hammer that broke the whole earth.
How empty Babylon is among the nations!
24 Babylon, I set a trap for you.
And you were caught before you knew it.
You were found and captured.
That is because you opposed me.
25 I have opened up my storeroom.
I have brought out the weapons I use when I am angry.
I am the LORD and King who rules over all.
I have work to do in the land of the Babylonians.
26 So come against it from far away.
Open up its storerooms.
Stack everything up like piles of grain.
Completely destroy that country.
Do not leave anyone alive there.
27 Kill all Babylon’s strongest warriors.
Let them die in battle.
How terrible it will be for them!
Their time to be judged has come.
Now they will be punished.
28 Listen to those who have escaped.
Listen to those who have returned from Babylon.
They are announcing in Zion
how I have paid Babylon back.
I have paid it back for destroying my temple.

29 “Send for men armed with bows and arrows.
Send them against Babylon.
Set up camp all around it.
Do not let anyone escape.
Pay it back for what its people have done.
Do to them what they have done to others.

They have dared to disobey me.
I am the Holy One of Israel.
30 You can be sure its young men will fall dead in the streets.
All its soldiers will be put to death at that time,”
announces the LORD.
31 “Proud Babylonians, I am against you,”
announces the Lord.
The LORD who rules over all says,
“Your day to be judged has come.
It is time for you to be punished.
32 You proud people will trip and fall.
No one will help you up.
I will start a fire in your towns.
It will burn up everyone around you.”

33 The LORD who rules over all says,

“The people of Israel are being treated badly.
So are the people of Judah.
Those who have captured them are holding them.
They refuse to let them go.
34 But I am strong and will save them.
My name is the LORD Who Rules Over All.
I will stand up for them.
I will bring peace and rest to their land.
But I will bring trouble to those who live in Babylon.

35 “A sword is coming against the Babylonians!”
announces the LORD.
“It is coming against those who live in Babylon.
It is coming against their officials and wise men.
36 A sword is coming against their prophets.
But they are not really prophets at all!
So they will look foolish.
A sword is coming against their soldiers!
They will be filled with terror.
37 A sword is coming against their horses and chariots!
It is coming against all the hired soldiers in their armies.

They will become weak.
A sword is coming against their treasures!
They will be stolen.
38 There will not be any rain for their rivers.
So they will dry up.
Those things will happen because their land is full of statues of gods.
Those gods will go crazy with terror.

39 "Desert creatures and hyenas will live in Babylon.
And so will owls.
People will never live there again.
It will not be lived in for all time to come.
40 I destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.
I also destroyed the towns that were near them,"
announces the LORD.
"Babylon will be just like them.
No one will live there.
No human beings will stay there.

41 "Look! An army is coming from the north.
I am stirring up a great nation and many kings.
They are coming from a land that is very far away.
42 Their soldiers are armed with bows and spears.
They are mean.
They do not show any mercy at all.
They come riding in on their horses.
They sound like the roaring ocean.
They are lined up for battle.
They are coming to attack you, city of Babylon.
43 The king of Babylon has heard reports about them.
His hands can't help him.
He is in great pain.
It is like the pain of a woman having a baby.
44 I will be like a lion coming up from the bushes by the Jordan River.
I will hunt in rich grasslands.
I will chase the people of Babylon from their land in an instant.

What nation will I choose to do this?
Which one will I appoint?
Is anyone like me? Who would dare to argue with me?
What leader can stand against me?”
45So listen to what the LORD has planned against Babylon.
Hear what he has planned against the land of the Babylonians.
Their young people will be dragged away.
Their grasslands will be shocked at their fate.
46At the news of Babylon’s capture,
the earth will shake.
The people’s cries will be heard among the nations.

Jeremiah 51

[1]The LORD says,

"I will stir up the spirits of destroyers.
They will march out against Babylon and its people.
[2]I will send other nations against it to separate the straw from the grain.
I will send them to destroy Babylon completely.
They will oppose it on every side.
At that time it will be destroyed.
[3]Do not let its soldiers get their bows ready to use.
Do not let them put on their armor.
Do not spare their young men.
Destroy their armies completely.
[4]They will fall down dead in Babylon.
They will receive deadly wounds in its streets.
[5]The land of Israel and Judah is full of guilt.
Its people have sinned against me.
But I have not deserted them. I am their God.
I am the LORD who rules over all.
I am the Holy One of Israel.

[6]"People of Judah, run away from Babylon!
Run for your lives!
Do not be destroyed because of the sins of its people.
It is time for me to pay them back.
I will punish them for what they have done.
[7]Babylon was like a gold cup in my hand.
That city made the whole earth drunk.
The nations drank its wine.
So now they have gone crazy.
[8]Babylon will suddenly fall and be broken.
Weep for it!
Get healing lotion for its pain.
Perhaps it can be healed.

9“The nations say, ‘We would have healed Babylon.
But it can’t be healed.
So let’s leave it. Let’s each go to our own land.
Babylon’s sins reach all the way to the skies.
They rise up as high as the heavens.’

10“The people of Judah say,
‘The LORD has made things right for us again.
So come. Let’s tell in Zion
what the LORD our God has done.’

11“I have stirred up you kings of the Medes.
So sharpen your arrows!
Get your shields!
I plan to destroy Babylon.
I will pay the Babylonians back.
They have destroyed my temple.
12Lift up a banner! Attack Babylon’s walls!
Put more guards on duty!
Station more of them to watch over you!
Hide and wait to attack them!
I will do what I have planned.
I will do what I have decided to do against the people of Babylon.
13You who live by the rivers of Babylon,
your end has come.
You who are rich in treasures,
it is time for you to be destroyed.
14I am the LORD who rules over all.
I have made a promise in my own name.
I have said, ‘I will certainly fill your land with soldiers.
They will be as many as a huge number of locusts.
They will win the battle over you.
They will shout for joy.’

15“I used my power to make the earth.
I used my wisdom to set the world in place.
I used my understanding to spread out the heavens.

16 When I thunder, the waters in the heavens roar.
I make clouds rise from one end of the earth to the other.
I send lightning with the rain.
I bring out the wind from my storerooms.

17 "No one has any sense.
No one knows anything.
Everyone who works with gold is put to shame
by his wooden gods.
His metal gods are fakes.
They can't even breathe.
18 They are worthless, and people make fun of them.
When I judge them, they will be destroyed.
19 But I, the God of Jacob, am not like them.
I give my people everything they need.
I can do this because I made everything, including Israel.
They are the people who belong to me.
My name is the LORD Who Rules Over All.

20 "Babylon, you are my war club.
You are my weapon for battle.
I use you to destroy nations.
I use you to wipe out kingdoms.
21 I use you to destroy horses and their riders.
I use you to destroy chariots and their drivers.
22 I use you to destroy men and women.
I use you to destroy old people and young people.
I use you to destroy young men and young women.
23 I use you to destroy shepherds and their flocks.
I use you to destroy farmers and their oxen.
I use you to destroy governors and officials.

24 "Judah, I will pay Babylon back. You will see it with your own eyes. I will pay back all those who live in Babylon. I will pay them back for all the wrong things they have done in Zion," announces the LORD.

25 "Babylon, I am against you.
Your kingdom is like a destroying mountain.

You have destroyed the whole earth,”
announces the LORD.
“I will reach out my hand against you.
I will roll you off the cliffs.
I will make you like a mountain that has been burned up.
26No rock will be taken from you to be used as the most important stone for a building.
No stones will be taken from you to be used for a foundation.
Your land will be empty forever,”
announces the LORD.

27“Nations, lift up a banner in the land of Babylon!
Blow a trumpet among yourselves!
Prepare yourselves for battle against Babylon.
Send the kingdoms
of Ararat, Minni and Ashkenaz against it.
Appoint a commander against it.
Send many horses against it.
Let them be as many as a huge number of locusts.
28Prepare yourselves for battle against Babylon.
Prepare the kings of the Medes.
Prepare their governors and all their officials.
Prepare all the countries they rule over.
29The Babylonians tremble and shake with fear.
My plans against them stand firm.
I plan to destroy their land completely.
Then no one will live there.
30Babylon’s soldiers have stopped fighting.
They remain in their forts.
Their strength is all gone.
They have become weak.
Their buildings are set on fire.
The metal bars that lock their gates are broken.
31One messenger after another comes to the king of Babylon.
All of them announce that his entire city is captured.

[32]The places where people go across the Euphrates River have been captured.
The swamps have been set on fire.
And the soldiers are terrified.”

[33]The LORD who rules over all is the God of Israel. He says,

“The city of Babylon is like a threshing floor when cattle are walking on it.
The time to destroy it will soon come.”

[34]The people of Jerusalem say,
“Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, has destroyed us.
He has thrown us into a panic.
He has emptied us out like a jar.
Like a snake he has swallowed us up.
He has filled his stomach with our rich food.
Then he has spit us out of his mouth.”
[35]The people continue, “May the people of Babylon pay for the harmful things they have done to us.
May those who live in Babylon pay for spilling the blood of our people.”
That’s what the people who live in Zion say.

[36]So the LORD says,

“I will stand up for you.
I will pay the Babylonians back for what they did to you.
I will dry up their water supply.
I will make their springs run dry.
[37]Babylon will have all its buildings knocked down.
It will be a home for wild dogs.
No one will live there.
People will be shocked at it.
They will make fun of it.
[38]All its people roar like young lions.
They growl like lion cubs.
[39]They are stirred up.

So I will set a feast in front of them.
I will make them drunk.
And they will shout and laugh.
But then they will lie down and die.
They will never wake up,”
announces the LORD.
40“I will lead them down like lambs to be put to death.
They will be like rams and goats that have been killed.

41“Babylon will be captured!
The whole earth was very proud of it.
But it will be taken over by others!
It will be a deserted place among the nations.
42Babylon’s enemies will sweep over it like an ocean.
Like roaring waves they will cover it.
43The towns of Babylon will be empty.
It will become a dry and desert land.
No one will live there.
No one will even travel through it.
44I will punish the god named Bel in Babylon.
I will make Bel spit out what he has swallowed.
The nations will not come and worship him anymore.
And Babylon’s walls will fall down.

45“Come out of there, my people!
Run for your lives!
Run away from my great anger.
46You will hear about terrible things that are happening in Babylon.
But do not lose hope. Do not be afraid.
You will hear one thing this year.
And you will hear something else next year.
You will hear about awful things in the land.
You will hear about one ruler fighting against another.
47I will punish the gods of Babylon.
That time will certainly come.
Then the whole land will be full of shame.
Its people will lie down and die there.

[48]So heaven and earth and everything in them will shout for joy.
They will be glad because of what will happen to Babylon.
Armies will attack it from the north.
And they will destroy it,”
announces the LORD.

[49]“Babylon’s people have killed my people Israel.
They have also killed people all over the earth.
So now Babylon itself must fall.
[50]You who have not been killed in the war against Babylon, leave! Do not wait!
In a land far away remember me.
And think about Jerusalem.”

[51]The people of Judah reply, “No one honors us anymore.
People make fun of us.
Our faces are covered with shame.
People from other lands have entered the holy places of the LORD’s house.”

[52]“But the days are coming,” announces the LORD.
“At that time I will punish the gods of Babylon.
And all through its land wounded people will groan.
[53]What if Babylon reached all the way to the heavens?
What if it made its high walls even stronger?
I would still send destroyers against it,”
announces the LORD.

[54]“The noise of people screaming comes from Babylon.
A terrible sound comes from its land.
It is the sound of a mighty city being destroyed.
[55]I will destroy Babylon.
I will put an end to all its noise.
Waves of enemies will sweep through it like great waters.
The roar of their voices will fill the air.
[56]A destroying army will come against Babylon.
The soldiers in the city will be captured.

Their bows will be broken.
I am the LORD God who pays people back.
I will pay them back in full.
[57]I will make Babylon's officials and wise men drunk.
I will do the same thing to its governors, officers and soldiers.
They will lie down and die. They will never wake up," announces the King. His name is the LORD Who Rules Over All.

[58]The LORD who rules over all says,

"Babylon's thick walls will fall down flat.
Its high gates will be set on fire.
The nations wear themselves out for no reason at all.
Their hard work will only be burned up in the flames."

[59]Jeremiah the prophet gave a message to the staff officer Seraiah, the son of Neriah. Neriah was the son of Mahseiah. Jeremiah told Seraiah to take the message with him to Babylon. Seraiah went there with Zedekiah, the king of Judah. He left in the fourth year of Zedekiah's rule. [60]Jeremiah had written about all the trouble that would come on Babylon. He had written it down on a scroll. It included everything that had been recorded about Babylon. [61]Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "When you get to Babylon, here's what I want you to do. Make sure that you read all these words out loud. [62]Then say, 'LORD, you have said you will destroy this place. You have said that no people or animals will live here. It will be empty forever.' [63]Finish reading the scroll. Tie a stone to it. Throw it into the Euphrates River. [64]Then say, 'In the same way, Babylon will sink down. It will never rise again. That is because I will bring such horrible trouble on it. And its people will fall along with it.' "

The words of Jeremiah end here.

Jeremiah 52

Nebuchadnezzar Destroys Jerusalem

[1]Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for 11 years. His mother's name was Hamutal. She was the daughter of Jeremiah.
She was from Libnah. [2]Zedekiah did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD. He did just as Jehoiakim had done. [3]The enemies of Jerusalem and Judah attacked them because the LORD was angry. In the end he threw them out of his land.

Zedekiah refused to obey the king of Babylon.

[4]Nebuchadnezzar was the king of Babylon. He marched out against Jerusalem. All his armies went with him. It was in the ninth year of the rule of Zedekiah. It was on the tenth day of the tenth month. The armies set up camp outside the city. They set up ladders and built ramps and towers all around it. [5]It was surrounded until the 11th year of King Zedekiah's rule.

[6]By the ninth day of the fourth month, there wasn't any food left in the city.
So the people didn't have anything to eat. [7]Then the Babylonians broke through the city wall. Judah's whole army ran away. They left the city at night. They went out through the gate between the two walls that were near the king's garden. They escaped even though the Babylonians surrounded the city. Judah's army ran toward the Arabah Valley. [8]But the armies of Babylon chased King Zedekiah. They caught up with him in the plains near Jericho. All his soldiers were separated from him. They had scattered in every direction. [9]The king was captured.

He was taken to the king of Babylon at Riblah. Riblah was in the land of Hamath. That's where Nebuchadnezzar decided how Zedekiah would be punished. [10]At Riblah the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah. He forced him to watch it with his own eyes. Nebuchadnezzar also killed all the officials of Judah. [11]Then he poked out Zedekiah's eyes. He put him in bronze chains. And he took him to Babylon. There he put Zedekiah in prison until the day he died.

[12]Nebuzaradan served the king of Babylon. In fact, he was commander of the royal guard. He came to Jerusalem. It was in the 19th year that Nebuchadnezzar was king of Babylon. It was on the tenth day of the fifth month. [13]Nebuzaradan set the LORD's temple on fire. He also set fire to the royal palace and all the houses in Jerusalem. He burned down every important building. [14]The armies of Babylon broke down all the walls around Jerusalem. That's what the commander told them to do. [15]Some of the poorest people still remained in the city along with the others. But the commander Nebuzaradan took them away as prisoners. He also took the rest of the skilled workers. That included the people who had joined the king of Babylon. [16]But Nebuzaradan left the rest of the poorest people of the land behind. He told them to work in the vineyards and fields.

[17]The armies of Babylon destroyed the LORD's temple. They broke the bronze pillars into pieces. They broke up the bronze stands that could be moved around. And they broke up the huge bronze bowl. Then they carried away all the bronze to Babylon. [18]They also took away the pots, shovels, wick cutters, sprinkling bowls and dishes. They took away all the bronze objects that were used for any purpose in the temple. [19]The commander of the royal guard took away the bowls and the shallow cups for burning incense. He took away the sprinkling bowls, the pots, the lampstands and the dishes. He took away the bowls used for drink offerings. So he took away everything made out of pure gold or silver.

[20]The bronze was more than anyone could weigh. It included the bronze from the two pillars. It included the bronze from the huge bowl and the 12 bronze bulls under it. It also included the stands. King Solomon had made all those things for the LORD's temple. [21]Each pillar was 27 feet high and 18 feet around. The pillars were hollow. The metal in each of them was three inches thick. [22]The bronze top of one pillar was seven and a half feet high. It was decorated with a set of bronze chains and pomegranates all around it. The other pillar was just like it. It also had pomegranates. [23]There were 96 pomegranates on the sides of each of the two tops. The total number of pomegranates above the bronze chains around each top was 100.

[24]The commander of the guard took many prisoners. They included Seraiah the chief priest and Zephaniah the priest who reported to him. They also included the three men who guarded the temple doors. [25]Some people were still left in the city. The commander took as a prisoner the officer in charge of the fighting men. He took the seven men who gave advice to the king. He also took the secretary who was the chief officer in charge of getting the people of the land to serve in the army. There were 60 people of the land still in the city. [26]The commander Nebuzaradan took all of them away. He brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. [27]There the king had them put to death. Riblah was in the land of Hamath.

So the people of Judah were taken as prisoners. They were taken far away from their own land.

[28]Here is the number of the people Nebuchadnezzar took to Babylon as prisoners.

In the seventh year of his rule,
he took 3,023 Jews.
[29]In his 18th year,
he took 832 people from Jerusalem.
[30]In Nebuchadnezzar's 23rd year,
Nebuzaradan, the commander of the royal guard, took 745 Jews to Babylon.
The total number of people taken to Babylon was 4,600.

Jehoiachin Is Set Free

[31]Awel-Marduk set Jehoiachin, the king of Judah, free from prison. It was in the 37th year after Jehoiachin had been taken away to Babylon. It was also the year Awel-Marduk became king of Babylon. It was on the 25th day of the 12th month. [32]Awel-Marduk spoke kindly to Jehoiachin. He gave him a place of honor. Other kings were with Jehoiachin in Babylon. But his place was more important than theirs. [33]So Jehoiachin put away his prison clothes. For the rest of Jehoiachin's life the king of Babylon provided what he needed. [34]The king did that for Jehoiachin day by day as long as he lived. He did it until the day Jehoiachin died.

Lamentations

Lamentations 1

[1]The city of Jerusalem is so empty!
    She used to be full of people.
But now she's like a woman whose husband has died.
    She used to be great among the nations.
She was like a queen among the kingdoms.
    But now she is a slave.

[2]Jerusalem weeps bitterly at night.
    Tears run down her cheeks.
    None of her friends comforts her.
All those who were going to help her have turned against her.
    They have become her enemies.

[3]After Judah's people had suffered greatly,
    they were taken away as prisoners.
Now they live among the nations.
    They can't find any place to rest.
All those who were chasing them have caught up with them.
    And they can't get away.

[4]The roads to Zion are empty.
    No one travels to her appointed feasts.
All the public places near her gates are deserted.
    Her priests groan.
Her young women are sad.
    And Zion herself weeps bitterly.

[5]Her enemies have become her masters.
    They have an easy life.
The LORD has brought suffering to Jerusalem because her people have committed so many sins.
Her children have been taken away as prisoners.

Her enemies have forced her people to leave their homes.

6The city of Zion used to be full of glory.
But now her glory has faded away.
Her princes are like deer.
They can't find anything to eat.
They are almost too weak to get away from those who hunt them down.

7Jerusalem's people are suffering and wandering.
They remember all the treasures
they used to have.
But they fell into the hands of their enemies.
And no one was there to help them.
Their enemies looked at them.
They laughed because Jerusalem had been destroyed.

8Her people have committed many sins.
They have become impure.
All those who honored Jerusalem now look down on her.
They all look at her as if she were a naked woman.
The city groans and turns away in shame.

9Her skirts are dirty.
She didn't think about how things might turn out.
Her fall from power amazed everyone.
And no one was there to comfort her.
She said, "LORD, please pay attention to how much I'm suffering.
My enemies have won the battle over me."

10Jerusalem's enemies took away all her treasures.
Her people saw outsiders
enter her temple.
The LORD had commanded them not to do that.

11All Jerusalem's people groan
as they search for bread.

They trade their treasures for food
just to stay alive.
Jerusalem says, “LORD, look at me.
Think about my condition.
Everyone looks down on me.”

12 Jerusalem also says, “All you who are passing by, don’t you care about what has happened to me?
Just look at my condition.
Has anyone suffered the way I have?
The LORD has brought all this on me.
He has made me suffer.
His anger has burned against me.

13 “He sent down fire from heaven.
It went deep down into my bones.
He spread a net to catch me by the feet.
He stopped me right where I was.
He made me empty.
I am sick all the time.

14 “My sins have been made into a heavy yoke.
They were woven together by his hands.
They have been placed on my neck.
The Lord has taken away my strength.
He has handed me over to my enemies.
I can’t win the battle over them.

15 “The Lord has refused to accept any of my soldiers.
He has sent for an army
to crush my young men.
I am like grapes in the Lord’s winepress.
He has stomped on me,
even though I am his very own.

16 “That’s why I am weeping.
Tears are flowing from my eyes.
No one is near to comfort me.

No one can heal my spirit.
My children don’t have anything.
My enemies are much too strong for me.”

17 Zion reaches out her hands.
But no one is there to comfort her people.
The LORD has ordered that the neighbors of Jacob’s people would become their enemies.
Jerusalem has become impure among them.

18 Jerusalem says, “The LORD always does what is right.
But I refused to obey his commands.
Listen, all you nations.
Pay attention to how much I’m suffering.
My young men and women have been taken away as prisoners.

19 “I called out to those who were going to help me.
But they turned against me.
My priests and elders
died in the city.
They were searching for food
just to stay alive.

20 “LORD, see how upset I am!
I am suffering deep down inside.
My heart is troubled.
Again and again I have refused to obey you.
Outside the city, people are being killed by swords.
Inside, there is nothing but death.

21 “People have heard me groan.
But no one is here to comfort me.
My enemies have heard about all my troubles.
What you have done makes them happy.
So please judge them, just as you said you would.
Let them become like me.

22 “Please pay attention to all their sinful ways.

Punish them as you have punished me.
You judged me because I had committed so many sins.
I groan all the time.
And my heart is weak.”

Lamentations 2

[1]See how the Lord covered the city of Zion with the cloud of his anger!
He threw Israel's glory down from heaven to earth.
When he was angry, he turned his back on his own city.

[2]Without pity the Lord swallowed up all the homes of Jacob's people.
When he was angry, he tore down
the forts of the people of Judah.
He brought down their kingdom and princes to the ground in dishonor.

[3]When he was very angry,
he took away Israel's power.
He pulled back his powerful right hand
as the enemy approached.
His burning anger blazed out in Jacob's land.
It burned up everything near it.

[4]Like an enemy the Lord got his bow ready to use.
He had a sword in his right hand.
Like an enemy he destroyed
everything that used to be pleasing to him.
His anger blazed out like fire.
It burned up the homes in the city of Zion.

[5]The Lord was like an enemy.
He swallowed up Israel.
He swallowed up all of its palaces.
He destroyed its forts.
He filled the people of Judah with sorrow and sadness.

[6]The LORD's temple was like a garden.
   But he completely destroyed it.
He destroyed the place where he used to meet with his people.
He made Zion's people forget their appointed feasts and Sabbath days.
When he was very angry, he turned his back on king and priest alike.

[7]The Lord deserted his altar.
   He left his temple.
He gave the walls of Jerusalem's palaces into the hands of her enemies.
They shouted loudly in the house of the LORD.
   You would have thought it was the day of an appointed feast.

[8]The LORD decided to tear down
   the walls around the city of Zion.
He measured out what he wanted to destroy.
   Then he destroyed Jerusalem by his power.
He made even her towers and walls sing songs of sadness.
   All of them fell down.

[9]Her gates sank down into the ground.
   He broke the metal bars that locked her gates, and he destroyed
      them.
Her king and princes were taken away to other nations.
   There is no law anymore.
Jerusalem's prophets no longer receive visions from the LORD.

[10]The elders of the city of Zion sit silently on the ground.
They have sprinkled dust on their heads.
   They've put on the clothes of sadness.
The young women of Jerusalem have bowed their heads toward the ground.

[11]I’ve cried so much I can’t see very well.
I’m suffering deep down inside.
My heart is broken
because my people are destroyed.
Children and babies are fainting
in the streets of the city.

[12]They say to their mothers,
“Where can we find something to eat and drink?”
They faint like wounded soldiers
in the streets of the city.
Their lives are slipping away
in their mothers’ arms.

[13]City of Jerusalem, what can I say about you?
What can I compare you to?
People of Zion, what are you like?
I want to comfort you.
Your wound is as deep as the ocean.
Who can heal you?

[14]The visions of your prophets were lies.
They weren’t worth anything.
They didn’t show you the sins you had committed.
So that’s why you were captured.
The messages they gave you were lies.
They led you astray.

[15]All those who pass by clap their hands and make fun of you.
They laugh at you and shake their heads
at the city of Jerusalem.
They say, “Could that be the city that was called perfect and beautiful?
Is that the city that brought joy to everyone on earth?”

[16]All your enemies open their mouths wide against you.
They laugh at you and grind their teeth.

They say, “We have swallowed up Jerusalem’s people.
This is the day we’ve waited for.
And we’ve lived to see it.”

17 The LORD has done what he planned to do.
He has made what he said come true.
He gave the command long ago.
He has destroyed you without pity.
He has let your enemies laugh at you.
He has made them stronger than you are.

18 People in the city of Zion, cry out from your heart to the Lord.
Let your tears flow like a river
day and night.
Don’t stop at all.
Don’t give your eyes any rest.

19 Get up. Cry out as the night begins.
Tell the Lord all your troubles.
Lift up your hands to him.
Pray that the lives of your children will be spared.
At every street corner they faint because they are so hungry.

20 Jerusalem says, “LORD, look at me.
Think about my condition.
Have you ever treated anyone else like this?
Should women have to eat their babies?
Should they eat the children they’ve taken care of?
Should priests and prophets be killed
in your own temple?

21 “Young people and old people alike lie dead in the dust of my streets.
My young men and women
have been killed by swords.
You killed them when you were angry.
You put them to death without pity.

22“You sent for terrors to come against me on every side.
It was as if you were inviting people to enjoy a feast day.
Because you were angry, no one escaped.
No one was left alive.
I took good care of my children and brought them up.
But my enemies have destroyed them.”

Lamentations 3

[1]I am a man who has suffered greatly.
The LORD has used the Babylonians to punish my people.
[2]He has driven me away. He has made me walk in darkness instead of light.
[3]He has turned his powerful hand against me.
He has done it again and again, all day long.

[4]He has worn out my body.
He has broken my bones.
[5]He has surrounded me and attacked me.
He has made me suffer bitterly.
He has made things hard for me.
[6]He has made me live in darkness like those who are dead and gone.

[7]He has built walls around me, so I can’t escape.
He has put heavy chains on me.
[8]I call out and cry for help.
But he won’t listen to me when I pray.
[9]He has put up a stone wall to block my way.
He has made my paths crooked.

[10]He has been like a bear waiting to attack me.
He has been like a lion hiding in the bushes.
[11]He has dragged me off the path.
He has torn me to pieces.
And he has left me helpless.
[12]He has gotten his bow ready to use.
He has shot his arrows at me.

[13]The arrows from his bag have gone through my heart.
[14]My people laugh at me all the time.

They sing and make fun of me all day long.
15The LORD has made my life bitter.
He has made me suffer bitterly.

16He made me chew stones that broke my teeth.
He has walked all over me in the dust.
17I have lost all hope of ever having any peace.
I've forgotten what good times are like.
18So I say, "My glory has faded away.
My hope in the LORD is gone."

19I remember how I suffered and wandered.
I remember how bitter my life was.
20I remember it very well.
My spirit is very sad deep down inside me.
21But here is something else I remember.
And it gives me hope.

22The LORD loves us very much.
So we haven't been completely destroyed.
His loving concern never fails.
23His great love is new every morning.
LORD, how faithful you are!
24I say to myself, "The LORD is everything I will ever need.
So I will put my hope in him."

25The LORD is good to those who put their hope in him.
He is good to those who look to him.
26It is good when people wait quietly for the LORD to save them.
27It is good for a man to carry a heavy load of suffering while he is young.

28Let him sit alone and not say anything.
The LORD has placed that load on him.
29Let him bury his face in the dust.
There might still be hope for him.

30 Let him turn his cheek toward those who would slap him.
Let him be filled with shame.

31 The Lord doesn't turn his back on people forever.
32 He might bring suffering.
But he will also show loving concern.
How great his faithful love is!
33 He doesn't want to bring pain or suffering to anyone.

34 Every time people crush prisoners under their feet,
the Lord knows all about it.
35 When people refuse to give someone what they should,
the Most High God knows it.
36 When people don't treat someone fairly,
the Lord knows it.

37 Suppose people order something to happen.
It won't happen unless the Lord has planned it.
38 Troubles and good things alike come to people because the Most High God has commanded them to come.
39 A person who is still alive shouldn't blame God when God punishes them for their sins.

40 Let's take a good look at the way we're living.
Let's return to the LORD.
41 Let's lift up our hands to God in heaven.
Let's pray to him with all our hearts.
42 Let's say, "We have sinned.
We've refused to obey you.
And you haven't forgiven us.

43 "You have covered yourself with the cloud of your anger.
You have chased us.
You have killed us without pity.
44 You have covered yourself with the cloud of your anger.

Our prayers can’t get through to you.
45You have made us become like trash and garbage among the nations.

46“All our enemies have opened their mouths wide to swallow us up.
47We are terrified and trapped.
We are broken and destroyed.”
48Streams of tears flow from my eyes.
That’s because my people are destroyed.

49Tears will never stop flowing from my eyes.
My eyes can’t get any rest.
50I’ll weep until the LORD looks down from heaven.
I’ll cry until he notices my tears.
51What I see brings pain to my spirit.
All the women of my city are mourning.

52Those who were my enemies for no reason at all hunted me down as if I were a bird.
53They tried to end my life
by throwing me into a deep pit.
They threw stones down at me.
54The water rose and covered my head.
I thought I was going to die.

55LORD, I called out to you.
I called out from the bottom of the pit.
56I prayed, “Please don’t close your ears to my cry for help.”
And you heard my appeal.
57You came near when I called out to you.
You said, “Do not be afraid.”

58Lord, you stood up for me in court.
You saved my life and set me free.
59LORD, you have seen the wrong things people have done to me.

Stand up for me again!
60 You have seen how my enemies have tried to get even with me.
You know all about their plans against me.

61 LORD, you have heard them laugh at me.
You know all about their plans against me.
62 You have heard my enemies whispering among themselves.
They speak against me all day long.
63 Just look at them sitting and standing there!
They sing and make fun of me.

64 LORD, pay them back.
Punish them for what their hands have done.
65 Cover their minds with a veil.
Put a curse on them!
66 LORD, get angry with them and hunt them down.
Wipe them off the face of the earth.

Lamentations 4

[1]Look at how the gold has lost its brightness!
    See how dull the fine gold has become!
The sacred jewels are scattered
    at every street corner.

[2]The priceless children of Zion were worth their weight in gold.
But now they are thought of as clay pots made by the hands of a potter.

[3]Even wild dogs nurse their young pups.
But my people are as mean
    as ostriches in the desert.

[4]When the babies get thirsty, their tongues stick to the roofs of their mouths.
When the children beg for bread,
    no one gives them any.

[5]Those who once ate fine food are dying in the streets.
Those who wore royal clothes are now lying on piles of trash.

[6]My people have been punished more than Sodom was.
It was destroyed in a moment.
    No one offered it a helping hand.

[7]Jerusalem’s princes were brighter than snow.
    They were whiter than milk.
Their bodies were redder than rubies.
    They looked like lapis lazuli.

[8]But now they are blacker than coal.
No one even recognizes them in the streets.
Their skin is wrinkled on their bones.
It has become as dry as a stick.

[9]Those killed by swords are better off than those who die of hunger.
Those who are hungry waste away to nothing.
They don’t have any food from the fields.

[10]With their own hands, loving mothers have had to cook even their own children.
They ate their children
when my people were destroyed.

[11]The LORD has become very angry.
He has poured out his burning anger.
He started a fire in Zion.
It burned its foundations.

[12]The kings of the earth couldn’t believe what was happening.
Neither could any of the peoples of the world.
Enemies actually attacked and entered the gates of Jerusalem.

[13]It happened because Jerusalem’s prophets had sinned.
Her priests had done evil things.
All of them spilled the blood of those who did what was right.

[14]Now those prophets and priests have to feel their way along the streets
as if they were blind.
The blood of those they killed has made them “unclean.”
So no one dares to touch their clothes.

[15]“Go away! You are ‘unclean’!”
people cry out to them.
“Go away! Get out of here!

Don’t touch us!”
So they run away and wander around.
Then people among the nations say,
“They can’t stay here anymore.”

16 The LORD himself has scattered them.
He doesn’t watch over them anymore.
No one shows the priests any respect.
No one honors the elders.

17 And that’s not all. Our eyes grew tired.
We looked for help that never came.
We watched from our towers.
We kept looking for a nation that couldn’t save us.

18 People hunted us down no matter where we went.
We couldn’t even walk in our streets.
Our end was near, so we only had a few days to live.
Our end had come.

19 Those who were hunting us down were faster than eagles in the sky.
They chased us over the mountains.
They hid and waited for us in the desert.

20 Zedekiah, the LORD’s anointed king, was our last hope.
But he was caught in their traps.
We thought he would keep us safe.
We expected to continue living among the nations.

21 People of Edom, be joyful.
You who live in the land of Uz, be glad.
But the cup of the LORD’s anger will also be passed to you.
Then you will become drunk.
Your clothes will be stripped off.

22 People of Zion, the time for you to be punished will come to an end.
The LORD won’t keep you away from your land any longer.

But he will punish your sin, people of Edom.
He will show everyone the evil things you have done.

Lamentations 5

[1]LORD, think about what has happened to us.
Look at the shame our enemies have brought on us.
[2]The land you gave us has been turned over to outsiders.
Our homes have been given to strangers.
[3]Our fathers have been killed.
Our mothers don’t have husbands.
[4]We have to buy the water we drink.
We have to pay for the wood we use.
[5]Those who chase us are right behind us.
We’re tired and can’t get any rest.
[6]We put ourselves under the control of Egypt and Assyria just to get enough bread.
[7]Our people of long ago sinned.
And they are now dead.
We are being punished because of their sins.
[8]Slaves rule over us.
No one can set us free
from their power.
[9]We put our lives in danger just to get some bread to eat.
Robbers in the desert might kill us with their swords.
[10]Our skin is as hot as an oven.
We are so hungry we’re burning up with fever.
[11]Our women have been treated badly in Zion.
Our virgins have been treated badly in the towns of Judah.
[12]Our princes have been hung up by their hands.
No one shows our elders any respect.
[13]Our young men are forced to grind grain at the mill.
Our boys almost fall down
as they carry heavy loads of wood.
[14]Our elders don’t go to the city gate anymore.
Our young men have stopped playing their music.
[15]There isn’t any joy in our hearts.
Our dancing has turned into mourning.

16 All of our honor is gone.
How terrible it is for us because we have sinned!
17 So our hearts are weak.
Our eyes can’t see very clearly.
18 Mount Zion has been deserted.
Wild dogs are prowling all around on it.

19 LORD, you rule forever.
Your throne will last for all time to come.
20 Why do you always forget us?
Why have you deserted us for so long?
21 LORD, please bring us back to you.
Then we can return.
Make our lives like new again.
22 Or have you completely turned away from us?
Are you really that angry with us?

Ezekiel

Ezekiel 1

The LORD Gives Ezekiel Visions of His Glory

[1]I was 30 years old. I was with my people. We had been taken away from our country. We were by the Kebar River in the land of Babylon. On the fifth day of the fourth month, the heavens were opened. I saw visions of God.

[2]It was the fifth day of the month. Jehoiachin had been king of Judah. It was the fifth year since he had been brought to Babylon as a prisoner. [3]A message from the LORD came to me. I was by the Kebar River in Babylon. The power of the LORD came on me there. I am Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi.

[4]I looked up and saw a windstorm coming from the north. I saw a huge cloud. The fire of lightning was flashing out of it. Bright light surrounded it. The center of the fire looked like glowing metal. [5]I saw in the fire something that looked like four living creatures. They appeared to have the shape of a human being. [6]But each of them had four faces and four wings. [7]Their legs were straight. Their feet looked like the feet of a calf. They were as bright as polished bronze. [8]The creatures had human hands under their wings on their four sides. All four of them had faces and wings. [9]The wings of one touched the wings of another. Each of the creatures went straight ahead. They didn't change their direction as they moved.

[10]Here's what their faces looked like. Each of the four creatures had the face of a human being. On the right side each had the face of a lion. On the left each had the face of an ox. Each one also had an eagle's face. [11]That's what their faces looked like. They each had two wings that spread out and lifted up. Each wing touched the wing of another creature on either side. They each had two other wings that covered their bodies. [12]All the creatures went straight ahead. Anywhere their spirits would lead them to go, they would go. They didn't change their direction as they went. [13]The living creatures looked like burning coals of fire or like torches. Fire moved back and forth among the creatures. It was bright. Lightning flashed out of it. [14]The creatures raced back and forth like flashes of lightning.

[15]As I looked at the living creatures, I saw wheels on the ground beside them. Each creature had four faces. [16]Here's how the wheels looked and worked. They gleamed like topaz. All four of them looked alike. Each one seemed to be made like a wheel inside another wheel at right angles. [17]The wheels could go in any one of the four directions the creatures faced. The wheels didn't change their direction as the creatures moved. [18]Their rims were high and terrifying. All four rims were full of eyes all the way around them.

[19]When the living creatures moved, the wheels beside them moved. When the creatures rose from the ground, the wheels also rose. [20]Anywhere their spirits would lead them to go, they would go. And the wheels would rise along with them. That's because the spirits of the living creatures were in the wheels. [21]When the living creatures moved, the wheels also moved. When the creatures stood still, they also stood still. When the creatures rose from the ground, the wheels rose along with them. That's because the spirits of the living creatures were in the wheels.

[22]Something that looked like a huge space was spread out above the heads of the living creatures. It gleamed like crystal. It was terrifying. [23]The wings of the creatures were spread out under the space. They reached out toward one another. Each creature had two wings covering its body. [24]When the living creatures moved, I heard the sound of their wings. It was like the roar of rushing waters. It sounded like the thundering voice of the Mighty God. It was like the loud noise an army makes. When the creatures stood still, they lowered their wings.

[25]Then a voice came from above the huge space over their heads. They stood with their wings lowered. [26]Above the space over their heads was something that looked like a throne made out of lapis lazuli. On the throne high above was a figure that appeared to be a man. [27]From his waist up he looked like glowing metal that was full of fire. From his waist down he looked like fire. Bright light surrounded him. [28]The glow around him looked like a rainbow in the clouds on a rainy day.

That's what the glory of the LORD looked like. When I saw it, I fell with my face toward the ground. Then I heard the voice of someone speaking.

Ezekiel 2

The LORD Appoints Ezekiel to Speak for Him

[1]He said to me, “Son of man, stand up on your feet. I will speak to you.” [2]As he spoke, the Spirit of the LORD came into me. He raised me to my feet. I heard him speaking to me.

[3]He said, “Son of man, I am sending you to the people of Israel. That nation has refused to obey me. They have turned against me. They and their people of long ago have been against me to this day. [4]The people I am sending you to are very stubborn. Tell them, ‘Here is what the LORD and King says.’ [5]They might listen, or they might not. After all, they refuse to obey me. But whether they listen or not, they will know that a prophet was among them. [6]Son of man, do not be afraid of them or of what they say. Do not be afraid, even if thorns and bushes are all around you. Do not be afraid, even if you live among scorpions.
Do not be afraid of what they say. Do not be terrified by them. They always refuse to obey me. [7]You must give them my message. They might listen, or they might not. After all, they refuse to obey me. [8]Son of man, listen to what I tell you. Do not be like those who refuse to obey me. Open your mouth. Eat what I give you.”

[9]Then I looked up. I saw a hand reach out to me. A scroll was in it. [10]He unrolled it in front of me. Both sides had words written on them. They spoke about sadness, sorrow and trouble.

Ezekiel 3

[1]The LORD said to me, “Son of man, eat what is in front of you. Eat this scroll. Then go and speak to the people of Israel.” [2]So I opened my mouth. And he gave me the scroll to eat.

[3]Then he said to me, “Son of man, eat this scroll I am giving you. Fill your stomach with it.” So I ate it. And it tasted as sweet as honey in my mouth.

[4]Then he said to me, “Son of man, go to the people of Israel. Give them my message. [5]I am not sending you to people who speak another language that is hard to learn. Instead, I am sending you to the people of Israel. [6]You are not being sent to many nations whose people speak other languages that are hard to learn. You would not be able to understand them. Suppose I had sent you to them. Then they certainly would have listened to you. [7]But the people of Israel do not want to listen to you. That is because they do not want to listen to me. All the Israelites are very stubborn. [8]But I will make you just as stubborn as they are.
[9]I will make you very brave. So do not be afraid of them. Do not let them terrify you, even though they refuse to obey me.”

[10]He continued, “Son of man, listen carefully. Take to heart everything I tell you. [11]Go now to your own people who were brought here as prisoners. Speak to them. Tell them, ‘Here is what the LORD and King says.’ Speak to them whether they listen or not.”

[12]Then the Spirit of the LORD lifted me up. I heard a loud rumbling sound behind me. The sound was made when the glory of the LORD rose up. It rose up from the place it had been standing. [13]The sound was made by the wings of the living creatures. They were brushing against one another. The sound was also made by the wheels beside them. It was a loud rumbling sound. [14]Then the Spirit lifted me up and took me away. My spirit was bitter. I was very angry. The power of the LORD was on me. [15]I came to my people who had been brought as prisoners to Tel Aviv. It was near the Kebar River. I went to where they were living. There I sat among them for seven days. I was very sad and scared about everything that had happened.

The LORD Has Appointed Ezekiel to Warn Israel

[16]After seven days, a message from the LORD came to me. [17]The LORD said, “Son of man, I have appointed you as a prophet to warn the people of Israel. So listen to my message. Give them a warning from me. [18]Suppose I say to a sinful person, ‘You can be sure you will die.’ And you do not warn them. You do not try to get them to change their evil ways in order to save their life. Then that sinful person will die because they have sinned. And I will hold you responsible for their death. [19]But suppose you do warn that sinful person. And they do not turn away from their sin or their evil ways. Then they will die because they have sinned. But you will have saved yourself.

[20]“Or suppose a godly person turns away from their godliness and does what is evil. And suppose I put something in their way that will trip them up. Then they will die. Since you did not warn them, they will die for their sin. The godly things that person did will not be remembered. And I will hold you responsible for their death. [21]But suppose you do warn a godly person not to sin. And they do not sin. Then you can be sure that they will live because they listened to your warning. And you will have saved yourself.”

[22]The power of the LORD was on me. He said, “Get up. Go out to the plain. I will speak to you there.” [23]So I got up and went out to the plain. The glory of the LORD was standing there. It was just like the glory I had seen by the Kebar River. So I fell with my face toward the ground.

[24]Then the Spirit of the LORD came into me. He raised me to my feet. He said to me, “Go, son of man. Shut yourself inside your house. [25]Some people will tie you up with ropes. So you will not be able to go out among your people. [26]I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth. Then you will be silent. You will not be able to correct them. That’s because they always refuse to obey me. [27]But later I will speak to you. I will open your mouth. Then you will tell them, ‘Here is what the LORD and King says.’ Those who listen will listen. And those who refuse to listen will refuse. They always refuse to obey me.

Ezekiel 4

An Attack on Jerusalem Is Pictured

1 “Son of man, get a block of clay. Put it in front of you. Draw the city of Jerusalem on it. 2 Then pretend to surround it and attack it. Make some little models of war machines. Build a ramp up to it. Set camps up around it. Surround it with models of logs to be used for knocking down its gates. 3 Then get an iron pan. Put it between you and the city. Pretend it is an iron wall. Turn your face toward the city. It will be under attack when you begin to attack it. That will show the people of Israel what is going to happen to Jerusalem.

4 “Next, lie down on your left side. Pretend that you are putting Israel’s sin on yourself. Keep their sin on you for the number of days you lie on your side. 5 Let each day you lie there stand for one year of their sin. So you will keep Israel’s sin on you for 390 days.

6 “After you have finished this, lie down again. This time lie on your right side.
Pretend that you are putting Judah’s sin on yourself. Lie there for 40 days. That is one day for each year of their sin. 7 Next, turn your face toward the model of Jerusalem under attack. Uncover your arm as if you were a soldier ready to fight.
Prophesy against the city. 8 I will tie you up with ropes. Then you will not be able to turn from one side to the other. You will stay that way until you have finished attacking Jerusalem.

9 “Get some wheat and barley. Also get some beans and lentils. And get some millet and spelt. Put everything in a storage jar. Use it to make some bread for yourself. Eat it during the 390 days you are lying down on your side. 10 Weigh out eight ounces of food to eat each day. Eat it at your regular mealtimes. 11 Also measure out two-thirds of a quart of water. Drink it at your regular mealtimes.
12 Eat your food as you would eat a loaf of barley bread. Bake it over human waste in front of the people.” 13 The LORD said, “That is how the people of Israel will eat ‘unclean’ food. They will eat it in the nations where I will drive them.”

14 Then I said, “No, LORD and King! I won’t do this! I’ve never eaten anything ‘unclean.’ From the time I was young until now, I’ve never eaten anything that was found dead. And I’ve never eaten anything torn apart by wild animals. ‘unclean’ meat has never entered my mouth.”

15 “All right,” he said. “I will let you bake your bread over waste from cows.

You can use that instead of human waste.”

16He continued, “Son of man, I am about to cut off the food supply in Jerusalem. The people will be worried as they eat their tiny share of food. They will not have any hope as they drink their tiny share of water. 17There will be very little food and water. The people will be shocked as they look at one another. They will become weaker and weaker because of their sin.

Ezekiel 5

God's Judgment Will Be Like a Barber's Razor

[1]"Son of man, get a sharp sword. Use it as a barber's razor. Shave your head and beard with it. Then get a set of scales and weigh the hair. Separate it into three piles. [2]Burn up a third of the hair inside the city. Do this when you stop attacking the model of Jerusalem. Next, get another third of the hair. Strike it with a sword all around the city. Then scatter the last third to the winds. That is because I will chase the people with a sword that is ready to strike them down. [3]But save a few hairs. Tuck them away in the clothes you are wearing. [4]Next, get a few more hairs. Throw them into the fire. Burn them up. The fire will spread to all the people of Israel."

[5]The LORD and King says, "What you do with the hair stands for what I will do with Jerusalem's people. I have placed that city in the center of the nations. Countries are all around it. [6]But its people are sinful. They have refused to obey my laws and rules. They have turned their backs on my laws. They have not followed my rules. These people are worse than the nations and countries around them."

[7]The LORD and King continues, "You people have been worse than the nations around you. You have not lived by my rules or kept my laws. You have not even lived up to the standards of the nations around you."

[8]The LORD and King continues, "Jerusalem, I myself am against you. I will punish you in the sight of the nations. [9]I will do to you what I have never done before and will never do again. That is because you worship statues of gods. I hate them. [10]So parents will eat their own children inside the city. And children will eat their parents. I will punish you. And I will scatter to the winds anyone who is left alive. [11]You have made my temple 'unclean.' You have set up statues of all your evil gods. You have done other things I hate. So I will cut you off just like Ezekiel cut off his hair. I will not spare you or feel sorry for you. And that is just as sure as I am alive," announces the LORD and King. [12]A third of your people will die of the plague inside your walls. Or they will die of hunger there. Another third will be killed by swords outside your walls. And I will scatter the last third of your people to the winds. I will chase them with a sword that is ready to strike them down.

[13]"Then I will not be angry anymore. My great anger against them will die down. And I will be satisfied. Then they will know that I have spoken with strong feelings. And my great anger toward them will come to an end. I am the LORD.

14“I will destroy you. I will bring shame on you in the sight of the nations around you. All those who pass by will see it. 15You will be put to shame. The nations will make fun of you. You will serve as a warning to others. They will be shocked when they see you. So I will punish you because I am very angry with you. You will feel the sting of my warning. I have spoken. I am the LORD. 16I will shoot at you with my deadly, destroying arrows of hunger. I will shoot to kill. I will bring more and more hunger on you. I will cut off your food supply. 17I will send hunger and wild animals against you. They will destroy all your children. Plague and murder will sweep over you. And I will send swords to kill you. I have spoken. I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 6

Ezekiel Prophesies Against the Mountains of Israel

[1]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [2]“Son of man, turn your attention to the mountains of Israel. Prophesy against them. [3]Say, ‘Mountains of Israel, listen to the message of the LORD and King. Here is what he says to the mountains and hills. And here is what he says to the canyons and valleys. He tells them, “I will send swords to kill your people. I will destroy the high places where you worship other gods. [4]Your altars will be torn down. Your incense altars will be smashed. And I will kill your people in front of the statues of your gods. [5]I will put the dead bodies of Israelites in front of those statues. I will scatter your bones around your altars. [6]No matter where you live, the towns will be destroyed. The high places will be torn down. So your altars will be completely destroyed. The statues of your gods will be smashed to pieces. Your incense altars will be broken down. And everything you have made will be wiped out. [7]Your people will fall down dead among you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

[8]“ ‘ “But I will spare some of you. Some will escape from being killed by swords. You will be scattered among other lands and nations. [9]You will be taken away to those nations as prisoners. Those of you who escape will remember me. You will recall how much pain your unfaithful hearts gave me. You turned away from me. Your eyes longed to see the statues of your gods. You will hate yourselves because of all the evil things you have done. I hate those things too. [10]You will know that I am the LORD. I said I would bring trouble on you. And my warning came true.” ’ ”

[11]The LORD and King said to me, “Clap your hands. Stamp your feet. Cry out, ‘How sad!’ Do this because the people of Israel have done so many evil things. I hate those things. Israel will be destroyed by war, hunger and plague. [12]The one who is far away will die of the plague. The one who is near will be killed by swords. Anyone who is left alive and is spared will die of hunger. And in this way I will pour out my great anger on them. [13]Then they will know that I am the LORD. Their people will lie dead among the statues of their gods around their altars. Their bodies will lie on every high hill and every mountaintop. They will lie under every green tree and leafy oak tree. They used to offer sweet-smelling incense to all their gods at those places. [14]I will reach out my powerful hand against them. The land will become dry and empty. Those people will live from the desert all the way to Diblah. They will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 7

The End Has Come

1 A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, 2 “Son of man, I am the LORD and King. I say to the land of Israel, ‘The end has come! It has come on the four corners of the land. 3 The end has now come for you. I will pour out my anger on you. I will judge you based on how you have lived. I will pay you back for all your evil practices. I hate them.
4 “ ‘I will not feel sorry for you. I will not spare you. You can be sure that I will pay you back for how you have lived. I will judge you for your evil practices. I hate them. You will know that I am the LORD.’
5 “I am the LORD and King. I say, ‘Horrible trouble is coming! No one has ever heard of anything like it. It is here!
6 “ ‘The end has come! The end has come! It has stirred itself up against you. It is here! 7 Death has come on you who live in the land. The time for you to be destroyed has come. The day when it will happen is near. There is no joy on your mountains. There is nothing but panic.
8 “ ‘I am about to pour out all my great anger on you. I will judge you based on how you have lived. I will pay you back for all your evil practices. I hate them.
9 “ ‘I will not feel sorry for you. I will not spare you. I will pay you back for how you have lived. I will judge you for your evil practices. I hate them. You will know that I am the one who strikes you down. I am the LORD.
10 “ ‘The day for me to punish you is here! It is here! Death has arrived. The time is ripe for you to be judged. Your pride has grown so much that you will be destroyed. 11 Your mean and harmful acts have become like a rod. I will use it to punish those who do evil. None of them will be left. None of their wealth or anything of value will remain.
12 “ ‘The time has come! The day has arrived! I will soon pour out my great anger on the whole crowd of you. Do not let the buyer be happy. Do not let the seller be sad. 13 The seller will not get back the land that was sold. That will be true as long as both the buyer and seller are alive.
“ ‘Ezekiel, the vision I gave you about that whole crowd will come true. They have committed many sins. So not one of them will be able to save their life.
14 They have blown trumpets. They have made everything ready. But no one will go into battle. I will soon pour out my great anger on the whole crowd.

15“ ‘There is trouble everywhere. War is outside the city. Plague and hunger are inside it. Those out in the country will die in battle. Those in the city will be destroyed by hunger and plague. 16All those who escape and are left alive will run to the mountains. They will sound like doves of the valley when they cry over their sins.
17“ ‘Their hands will be powerless to help them. They will wet themselves.
18They will put on the rough clothing people wear when they’re sad. They will put on terror as if it were their clothes. Every face will be covered with shame.
Every head will be shaved.
19“ ‘They will throw their silver into the streets. They will treat their gold like an “unclean” thing. Their silver and gold won’t be able to save them on the day I pour out my anger. It will not be able to satisfy their hunger. Their stomachs can’t be filled with it. Their silver and gold have tripped them up. It has made them fall into sin. 20My people were so proud of their beautiful jewelry. They used it to make statues of their evil gods. I hate those gods. So I will turn their jewelry into an “unclean” thing for them.
21“ ‘I will hand over their wealth to outsiders. I will turn it over to sinful people in other countries. They will make it “unclean.” 22I will turn my face away from my people. Robbers will make “unclean” the temple I love. They will enter it and make it “unclean.” 23“ ‘Ezekiel, get ready to put my people in chains. The land is full of murderers. They are harming one another all over Jerusalem. 24I will bring the most evil nations against them. They will take over the houses in the city. I will put an end to the pride of those who are mighty. Their holy places will be made “unclean.”
25“ ‘When terror comes, they will look for peace. But there will not be any.
26Trouble after trouble will come. One report will follow another. But they will not be true. The people will go searching for a vision from the prophets. But there will not be any. The teaching of the law by the priests will be gone. Advice from the elders will come to an end.
27“ ‘The king will be filled with sadness. The princes will lose all hope. The hands of the people of the land will tremble. I will punish them based on how they have lived. I will judge them by their own standards. Then they will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

Ezekiel 8

The People Worship Other Gods in the Temple

[1]It was the sixth year since King Jehoiachin had been brought to Babylon as a prisoner. On the fifth day of the sixth month, I was sitting in my house. The elders of Judah were sitting there with me. The power of the LORD and King came on me there. [2]I looked up and saw a figure that appeared to be human. From his waist down he looked like fire. From his waist up he looked as bright as glowing metal. [3]He reached out what appeared to be a hand. He took hold of me by the hair of my head. The Spirit of the LORD lifted me up between earth and heaven. In visions God gave me, the Spirit took me to Jerusalem. He brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the inner courtyard. The statue of a god was standing there. It made God very angry. [4]There in front of me was the glory of the God of Israel. It looked just as it did in the vision I had seen on the plain.

[5]Then the LORD said to me, “Son of man, look toward the north.” So I did. I saw a statue that made God angry. It was in the entrance of the gate north of the altar.

[6]He said to me, “Son of man, do you see what the Israelites are doing here? They are doing things I hate very much. Those things will cause me to go far away from my temple. But you will see things I hate even more.”

[7]Then he brought me to the entrance to the courtyard. I looked up and saw a hole in the wall. [8]He said to me, “Son of man, dig into the wall.” So I did. And I saw a door there.

[9]He continued, “Go through it. Look at the evil things they are doing here. I hate those things.” [10]So I went in and looked. All over the walls were pictures of all kinds of crawling things and “unclean” animals. The LORD hates it when people worship those things. There were also carvings of the gods of the people of Israel. [11]In front of them stood 70 elders of Israel. Jaazaniah was standing there among them. He is the son of Shaphan. Each elder was holding a shallow cup. A sweet-smelling cloud of incense was rising from the cups.

[12]The LORD spoke to me. He said, “Son of man, do you see what the elders of Israel are doing in the dark? Each of them is in his own room worshiping his own god. They say, ‘The LORD doesn’t see us. He has deserted the land.’ ” [13]He continued, “You will see them doing things I hate even more.”

[14]Then he brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the LORD’s house. I saw women sitting there. They were mourning for the god named Tammuz. [15]The LORD said to me, “Son of man, do you see what they are doing? You will see things I hate even more.”

[16]Then he brought me into the inner courtyard of the LORD’s house. About 25 men were there. They were at the entrance to the LORD’s temple between the porch and the altar. Their backs were turned toward the temple. Their faces were turned toward the east. And they were bowing down to the sun.

[17]He said to me, “Son of man, have you seen all of this? The people of Judah are doing things here that I hate. This is a very serious matter. They are harming one another all through the land. They continue to make me very angry. Just look at them making fun of me! [18]So I am angry with them. I will punish them. I will not spare them or feel sorry for them. They might even shout in my ears. But I will not listen to them.”

Ezekiel 9

The LORD Judges Those Who Worship Other Gods

[1]Then I heard the LORD call out in a loud voice. He said, “Bring here those who are appointed to bring my judgment on the city. Make sure each of them has a weapon in his hand.” [2]I saw six men coming from the direction of the upper gate. It faces north. Each of them had a deadly weapon in his hand. A man wearing linen clothes came along with them. He was carrying a writing kit at his side. They came in and stood beside the bronze altar.

[3]The glory of the God of Israel had been above the cherubim. It moved from there to the doorway of the temple. Then the LORD called to the man who was dressed in linen clothes. He had the writing kit. [4]The LORD said to him, “Go all through Jerusalem. Look for those who are sad and sorry about all the things being done there. I hate those things. Put a mark on the foreheads of those people.”

[5]I heard him speak to the six men. He said, “Follow him through the city. Do not show any pity or concern. [6]Kill the old men and women, the young men and women, and the children. But do not touch anyone who has the mark. Start at my temple.” So they began with the old men who were in front of the temple.

[7]Then he said to the men, “Make the temple ‘unclean.’ Fill the courtyards with dead bodies. Go!” So they went out and started killing people all through the city. [8]While they were doing it, I was left alone. I fell with my face toward the ground. I cried out, “LORD and King, are you going to destroy all the Israelites who are still left alive? Will you pour out your great anger on all those who remain in Jerusalem?”

[9]He answered me, “The sin of Israel and Judah is very great. The land is full of murderers. Its people are not being fair to one another anywhere in Jerusalem. They say, ‘The LORD has deserted the land. He doesn’t see us.’ [10]So I will not spare them or feel sorry for them. Anything that happens to them will be their own fault.”

[11]Then the man wearing linen clothes returned. He had the writing kit. He reported, “I’ve done what you commanded.”

Ezekiel 10

The Glory of the LORD Moves Out of the Temple

[1]I looked up and saw something that appeared to be a throne made out of lapis lazuli. It was above the huge space that was spread out over the heads of the cherubim. [2]The LORD spoke to the man who was wearing linen clothes. He said, “Go in among the wheels beneath the cherubim. Fill your hands with burning coals from the fire that is among the cherubim. Scatter the coals over the city.” As I watched, he went in.

[3]The cherubim were standing on the south side of the temple when the man went in. A cloud filled the inner courtyard. [4]Then the glory of the LORD rose from above the cherubim. It moved to the doorway of the temple. The cloud filled the temple. And the courtyard was full of the brightness of the glory of the LORD. [5]The sound the wings of the cherubim made could be heard as far away as the outer courtyard. It was like the voice of the Mighty God when he speaks.

[6]The LORD gave a command to the man who was dressed in linen clothes. He said, “Get some coals of fire from among the wheels. Take them from among the cherubim.” So the man went in and stood beside a wheel. [7]Then one of the cherubim reached out his hand. He picked up some of the burning coals that were among the wheels. He handed them to the man who was wearing linen clothes. The man took them and left. [8]I saw what looked like human hands. They were under the wings of the cherubim.

[9]I looked up and saw four wheels beside the cherubim. One wheel was beside each of them. The wheels gleamed like topaz. [10]All four of them looked alike.
Each wheel appeared to be inside another wheel at right angles. [11]The wheels could go in any one of the four directions the cherubim faced. The wheels didn’t change their direction as the cherubim moved. The cherubim went in the direction their heads faced. They didn’t change their direction as they moved.
[12]Their whole bodies were completely covered with eyes. That included their backs, hands and wings. Their four wheels were covered with eyes too. [13]I heard someone tell the wheels to start spinning around. [14]Each of the cherubim had four faces. One face was the face of a cherub. The second was the face of a human being. The third was the face of a lion. And the fourth was an eagle’s face.

[15]The cherubim rose from the ground. They were the same living creatures I had seen by the Kebar River. [16]When the cherubim moved, the wheels beside them moved. The cherubim spread their wings to rise from the ground. As they did, the wheels didn’t leave their side. [17]When the cherubim stood still, the wheels also stood still. When the cherubim rose, the wheels rose along with them. That’s because the spirits of the living creatures were in the wheels.

[18]Then the glory of the LORD moved away from the doorway of the temple. It stopped above the cherubim. [19]While I watched, they spread their wings. They rose from the ground. As they went, the wheels went along with them. They stopped at the entrance of the east gate of the LORD’s house. And the glory of the God of Israel was above them.

[20]These were the same living creatures I had seen by the Kebar River. I had seen them beneath the God of Israel. I realized that they were cherubim. [21]Each one had four faces and four wings. Under their wings was what looked like human hands. [22]Their faces looked the same as the ones I had seen by the Kebar River. Each of the cherubim went straight ahead.

Ezekiel 11

The LORD's Judgment of Jerusalem Is Certain

[1]Then the Spirit of the LORD lifted me up. He brought me to the east gate of the LORD's house. There were 25 men at the entrance of the gate. I saw Jaazaniah and Pelatiah among them. They were leaders of the people. Jaazaniah is the son of Azzur. Pelatiah is the son of Benaiah. [2]The LORD said to me, "Son of man, these men are making evil plans. They are giving bad advice to the city. [3]They say, 'Haven't our houses just been built again? The city is like a pot used for cooking. And we are the meat in it.' [4]So prophesy against them. Prophesy, son of man."

[5]Then the Spirit of the LORD came on me. He told me to tell them, "The LORD says, 'You leaders in Israel, that is what you are saying. But I know what you are thinking. [6]You have killed many people in this city. In fact, you have filled its streets with dead bodies.'

[7]"So the LORD and King says, 'The bodies you have thrown there are the meat. And the city is the cooking pot. But I will drive you out of it. [8]You are afraid of the swords of war. But I will bring them against you,' announces the LORD and King. [9]'I will drive you out of the city. I will hand you over to outsiders. And I will punish you. [10]You will be killed by swords. I will judge you at the borders of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD. [11]This city will not be a pot for you. And you will not be the meat in it. I will judge you at the borders of Israel. [12]Then you will know that I am the LORD. You have not obeyed my rules. You have not kept my laws. Instead, you have lived by the standards of the nations around you.' "

[13]Pelatiah, the son of Benaiah, died as I was prophesying. Then I fell with my face toward the ground. I cried out in a loud voice. I said, "LORD and King, will you destroy all the Israelites who are still left alive?"

The LORD Will Bring His People Back Home

[14]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [15]"Son of man, the people of Jerusalem have spoken about you. They have spoken about the others the Babylonians have taken away. They have also spoken about all the other people of Israel. The people of Jerusalem have said, 'Those people are far away from the LORD. This land was given to us. And it belongs to us.'

16“So tell them, ‘The LORD and King says, “I sent some of my people far away among the nations. I scattered them among the countries. But for a little while I have been their temple in the countries where they have gone.” ’ 17“Tell them, ‘The LORD and King says, “I will gather you from the nations. I will bring you back from the countries where you have been scattered. I will give you back the land of Israel.” ’ 18“They will return to it. They will remove all its statues of evil gods. I hate those gods. 19I will give my people hearts that are completely committed to me. I will give them a new spirit that is faithful to me. I will remove their stubborn hearts from them. And I will give them hearts that obey me. 20Then they will follow my rules. They will be careful to keep my laws. They will be my people.
And I will be their God. 21But some people have hearts that are committed to worshiping the statues of their evil gods. I hate those gods. Anything that happens to those people will be their own fault,” announces the LORD and King.
22Then the cherubim spread their wings. The wheels were beside them. The glory of the God of Israel was above them. 23The glory of the LORD went up from the city. It stopped above the Mount of Olives east of the city. 24The Spirit of God lifted me up. He took me to those who had been brought to Babylon as prisoners. These are the things that happened in the visions the Spirit gave me.

Then the visions I had seen were gone. 25I told my people everything the LORD had shown me.

Ezekiel 12

Ezekiel Gives a Picture of What Will Happen

[1]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [2]"Son of man, you are living among people who refuse to obey me. They have eyes that can see. But they do not really see. They have ears that can hear. But they do not really hear. They refuse to obey me.

[3]"Son of man, pack your belongings as if you were going on a long trip. Leave in the daytime. Let the people see you. Start out from where you are. Go to another place. Perhaps they will understand the meaning of what you are doing. But they will still refuse to obey me. [4]Bring out your belongings packed for a long trip. Do this during the daytime. Let the people see you. Then in the evening, pretend you are being forced to leave home. Let the people see you. [5]While the people are watching, dig through the mud bricks of your house. Then take your belongings out through the hole in the wall. [6]Put them on your shoulder. Carry them out at sunset. Let the people see you. Cover your face so you can't see the land. All of that will show the Israelites what is going to happen to them."

[7]So I did just as he commanded me. During the day I brought out my things as if I were going on a long trip. In the evening I dug through the wall of my house with my hands. At sunset I took my belongings out. I put them on my shoulders. The people watched what I was doing.

[8]In the morning a message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [9]"Son of man, didn't the Israelites ask you, 'What are you doing?' They always refuse to obey me.

[10]"Tell them, 'The LORD and King says, "This prophecy is about Zedekiah, the prince in Jerusalem. It is also about all the Israelites who still live there." ' [11]Tell them, 'The things I've done are a picture of what's going to happen to you.

" 'So what I've done will happen to you. You will be forced to leave home. You will be taken to Babylon as prisoners.'

[12]"The prince among them will put his things on his shoulder and leave. He will do this at sunset. Someone will dig a hole in the city wall for him to go through. He will cover his face so he can't see the land. [13]I will spread out my net to catch him. He will be caught in my trap. I will bring him to Babylon. It is the land where the Chaldeans live. But he will not see it. He will die there. [14]I will scatter to the winds all those around him. I will scatter his officials and all his troops. And I will chase them with a sword that is ready to strike them down.

15“They will know that I am the LORD when I scatter them among the nations. I will send them to other countries. 16But I will spare a few of them. I will save them from war, hunger and plague. In those countries they will admit they have done all kinds of evil things. I hate those things. They will know that I am the LORD.”

17A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, 18“Son of man, tremble with fear as you eat your food. Tremble as you drink your water. 19Speak to the people of the land. Say to them, ‘Here is what the LORD and King says. He says this about those who live in Jerusalem and Israel. “They will be worried as they eat their food. They will not have any hope as they drink their water. Their land will be stripped of everything in it because all those who live there are harming one another. 20The towns where people live will be completely destroyed. The land will become a dry and empty desert. Then you will know that I am the LORD.” ’ ”

The LORD’s Judgment Will Come Soon

21A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, 22“Son of man, you have a proverb in the land of Israel. It says, ‘The days go by, and not even one vision comes true.’ 23Tell them, ‘The LORD and King says, “I am going to put an end to this proverb. They will not use that saying in Israel anymore.” ’ Tell them, ‘The days are coming soon when every vision will come true. 24There will be no more false visions. People will no longer use magic to find out whether good things are going to happen in Israel. 25I am the LORD. So I will say what I want to. And it will come true when I want it to. In your days I will do everything I say I will. But you people always refuse to obey me,’ announces the LORD and King.”

26A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, 27“Son of man, the Israelites are saying, ‘The vision Ezekiel sees won’t come true for many years. He is prophesying about a time that is a long way off.’

28“So tell them, ‘The LORD and King says, “Everything I say will come true. It will happen when I want it to,” announces the LORD and King.’ ”

Ezekiel 13

The LORD Punishes Those Who Pretend to Be True Prophets

[1]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [2]“Son of man, prophesy against those who are now prophesying in Israel. What they prophesy comes out of their own minds. Tell them, ‘Listen to the LORD’s message! [3]The LORD and King says, “How terrible it will be for you foolish prophets! You say what your own minds tell you to. Your visions do not come from me. [4]Israel, your prophets are like wild dogs that live among broken-down buildings. [5]You have not repaired the cracks in the city wall for the people of Israel. So it will not stand firm in the battle on the day I judge you. [6]The visions of those prophets are false. They use magic to try to find out what is going to happen. But their magic tricks are lies. They say, ‘The LORD announces.’ But I have not sent them. In spite of that, they expect him to make their words come true. [7]You prophets have seen false visions. You have used magic to try to find out what is going to happen. But your magic tricks are lies. So you lied when you said, ‘The LORD announces.’ I did not even speak to you at all.”

[8]“ ‘The LORD and King says, “I am against you prophets. Your messages are false. Your visions do not come true,” announces the LORD and King. [9]Israel, my power will be against the prophets who see false visions. Their magic tricks are lies. They will not be among the leaders of my people. They will not be listed in the records of Israel. In fact, they will not even enter the land. Then you will know that I am the LORD and King.

[10]“ ‘ “They lead my people away from me. They say, ‘Peace.’ But there isn’t any peace. They are like people who build a weak wall. They try to cover up the weakness by painting the wall white. [11]Tell those who do this that their wall is going to fall. Heavy rains will come. I will send hailstones crashing down. Powerful winds will blow. [12]The wall will fall down. Then people will ask them, ‘Now where is the paint you covered it with?’ ”

[13]“ ‘So the LORD and King speaks. He says, “When I am very angry, I will send a powerful wind. Hailstones and heavy rains will come. They will fall with great force. [14]I will tear down the wall you prophets painted over. I will knock it down. The only thing left will be its foundation. When it falls, you will be destroyed along with it. Then you will know that I am the LORD. [15]So I will pour out all my great anger on the wall. I will also send it against you prophets who painted it. I will say to you, ‘The wall is gone. You who painted it will be gone too. [16]You prophets of Israel prophesied to Jerusalem. You saw visions of peace for its people. But there wasn’t any peace,’ announces the LORD and King.” ’

[17]“Son of man, turn your attention to the daughters of your people. What they prophesy comes out of their own minds. So prophesy against them. [18]Tell them, ‘Here is what the LORD and King says. “How terrible it will be for you women who sew magic charms to put around your wrists! You make veils of different lengths to put on your heads. You do these things to trap people. You trap my people. But you will also be trapped. [19]You have treated me as if I were not holy. You did it among my very own people. You did it for a few handfuls of barley and scraps of bread. You told lies to my people. They like to listen to lies. You killed those who should have lived. And you spared those who should have died.”

[20]“ ‘So the LORD and King says, “I am against your magic charms. You use them to trap people as if they were birds. I will tear them off your arms. I will set free the people you trap like birds. [21]I will tear your veils off your heads. I will save my people from your power. They will no longer be under your control. Then you will know that I am the LORD. [22]I had not made godly people sad. But when you told them lies, you made them lose all hope. You advised sinful people not to turn from their evil ways. You did not want them to save their lives. [23]So you will never see false visions again. You will not use your magic tricks anymore. I will save my people from your power. Then you will know that I am the LORD.” ’ ”

Ezekiel 14

The LORD Judges Those Who Worship Other Gods

[1]Some of the elders of Israel came to see me. They sat down with me. [2]Then a message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [3]"Son of man, these men have thought about nothing but other gods. They have fallen into the evil trap of worshiping them. Should I let these men ask me for any advice? [4]Speak to them. Tell them, 'The LORD and King says, "Suppose any of the Israelites think about other gods. And they fall into the evil trap of worshiping them. Then they go to a prophet to ask for advice. If they do, I myself will tell the prophet to answer them in keeping with their worship of many gods. [5]I will win back the hearts of the people of Israel. All of them have deserted me for their other gods." '

[6]"So speak to the people of Israel. Tell them, 'The LORD and King says, "Turn away from your sins! Also turn away from your gods. Give up all the evil things you have done. I hate them.

[7]" ' "Suppose any of the Israelites or any outsiders who live in Israel separate themselves from me. And they think about other gods. They fall into the evil trap of worshiping them. Then they go to a prophet to ask me for advice. If they do, I myself will tell the prophet to answer them. [8]I will turn against them. I will make an example out of them. People will talk about the bad things that happen to them. I will remove them from you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

[9]" ' "Suppose that prophet is stirred up to give a prophecy. Then I am the one who has stirred him up. And I will reach out my powerful hand against him. I will destroy him from among my people Israel. [10]The prophet will be as much to blame as the one who asks him for advice. Both of them will be guilty. [11]Then the people of Israel will no longer wander away from me. And they will not make themselves 'unclean' anymore with their many sins. They will be my people. And I will be their God," ' announces the LORD and King."

Jerusalem Can't Escape the LORD's Judgment

[12]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [13]"Son of man, suppose the people in a certain country sin against me. And they are not faithful to me. So I reach out my powerful hand against them. I cut off their food supply. I make them very hungry. I kill them and their animals. [14]And suppose Noah, Daniel and Job were in that country. Then these three men could save only themselves by doing what is right," announces the LORD and King.

15"Or suppose I send wild animals through that country. And they kill all its children. It becomes a dry and empty desert. No one can pass through it because of the animals. 16And suppose these three men were in that country. Then they could not save their own sons or daughters. They alone would be saved. But the land would become a dry and empty desert. And that is just as sure as I am alive," announces the LORD and King.

17"Or suppose I send swords to kill the people in that country. And I say, 'Let swords sweep all through the land.' And I kill its people and their animals. 18And suppose these three men were in that country. Then they could not save their own sons or daughters. They alone would be saved. And that is just as sure as I am alive," announces the LORD and King.

19"Or suppose I send a plague into that land. And I pour out my great anger on it by spilling blood. I kill its people and their animals. 20And suppose Noah, Daniel and Job were in that land. Then they could not save their own sons or daughters. They could save only themselves by doing what is right. And that is just as sure as I am alive," announces the LORD and King.

21The LORD and King says, "It will get much worse. I will punish Jerusalem in four horrible ways. There will be war, hunger, wild animals and plague. They will destroy the people and their animals. 22But some people will be left alive. Some children will be brought out of the city. They will come to you. You will see how they act and the way they live. And you will be comforted in spite of all the trouble I brought on Jerusalem. 23You will be comforted when you see how they act and the way they live. Then you will know that I did not do anything there without a reason," announces the LORD and King.

Ezekiel 15

Jerusalem Is Like a Useless Vine

[1]A message from the LORD came to me. Here is what the LORD said. [2]“Son of man, how is the wood of a vine different from the wood of any tree in the forest? [3]Can its wood ever be made into anything useful? Can pegs be made from it to hang things on? [4]Suppose it is thrown in the fire to be burned. And the fire burns both ends and blackens the middle. Then is the wood useful for anything? [5]It was not useful when it was whole. So how can it be made into something useful now? The fire has burned it and blackened it.”

[6]Here is what the LORD and King says. “Instead of the wood of any tree in the forest, I have given the vine to burn in the fire. I will treat the people who live in Jerusalem the same way. [7]I will turn against them. They might have come out of the fire. But the fire will destroy them anyway. I will turn against them. Then you will know that I am the LORD. [8]I will make the land a dry and empty desert. My people have not been faithful to me,” announces the LORD and King.

Ezekiel 16

Jerusalem Is Like an Unfaithful Wife

[1]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [2]“Son of man, tell the people of Jerusalem the evil things they have done. I hate those things. [3]Tell them, ‘The LORD and King speaks to Jerusalem. He says, “Your history in the land of Canaan goes back a long way. Your father was an Amorite. Your mother was a Hittite. [4]On the day you were born your cord was not cut. You were not washed with water to clean you up. You were not rubbed with salt. And you were not wrapped in large strips of cloth. [5]No one took pity on you. No one was concerned enough to do any of these things for you. Instead, you were thrown out into an open field. You were hated on the day you were born.

[6]“ ‘ “I was passing by. I saw you kicking around in your blood. As you were lying there, I said to you, ‘Live!’ [7]I made you grow like a plant in a field. Soon you had grown up. You became a young adult. Your breasts had formed. Your hair had grown. But you were completely naked.

[8]“ ‘ “Later, I was passing by again. I looked at you. I saw that you were old enough for love. So I married you and took good care of you. I covered your naked body. I made a firm promise to you. I entered into a covenant with you. And you became mine,” announces the LORD and King.

[9]“ ‘ “I bathed you with water. I washed the blood off you. And I put lotions on you. [10]I put a beautiful dress on you. I gave you sandals made out of fine leather. I dressed you in fine linen. I covered you with expensive clothes. [11]I decorated you with jewelry. I put bracelets on your arms. I gave you a necklace for your neck. [12]I put rings on your nose and ears. And I gave you a beautiful crown for your head. [13]So you were decorated with gold and silver. Your clothes were made out of fine linen. They were made out of expensive and beautiful cloth. Your food was made out of honey, olive oil and the finest flour. You became very beautiful. You became a queen. [14]You were so beautiful that your fame spread among the nations. The glory I had given you made your beauty perfect,” announces the LORD and King.

[15]“ ‘ “But you trusted in your beauty. You used your fame to become a prostitute. You offered your body freely to anyone who passed by. In fact, you gave yourself to anyone who wanted you. [16]You used some of your clothes to make high places colorful. That is where people worshiped other gods. You were a prostitute there. You went to your lover and he took your beauty. [17]I had given you fine jewelry. It was made out of gold and silver. You used it to make for yourself statues of male gods. You worshiped those gods. You were not faithful to me. [18]You put your beautiful clothes on them. You offered my oil and incense to them. [19]You also offered them food. It was made out of olive oil, honey and the finest flour. I had given it to you to eat. You offered it as sweet-smelling incense to them. That is what you did," announces the LORD and King.

[20]" ' "Then you took your sons and daughters who belonged to me. And you sacrificed them as food to other gods. Wasn't it enough for you to be a prostitute? [21]You killed my children. You sacrificed them to other gods. [22]You did not remember the days when you were young. At that time you were completely naked. You were kicking around in your blood. But now you have done evil things. I hate them. You have worshiped other gods. You have not been faithful to me.

[23]" ' "How terrible it will be for you!" announces the LORD and King. "How terrible for you! You continued to sin against me. [24]Your people built up mounds for themselves in every market. They put little places of worship on them. [25]They set them up at every street corner. Jerusalem, you misused your beauty. You offered your body to anyone who passed by. You did it again and again. [26]You committed shameful acts with the people of Egypt. They were your neighbors who were ready to have sex with you. You offered yourself to them again and again. That made me very angry. [27]So I reached out my powerful hand against you. I made your territory smaller. I handed you over to your Philistine enemies. The people in their towns were shocked by your impure conduct. [28]You also committed shameful acts with the people of Assyria. Nothing ever seemed to satisfy you. You could never get enough. [29]Then you offered yourself to the people of Babylon. But that did not satisfy you either. There are many traders in the land of Babylon.

[30]" ' "I am filled with great anger against you," announces the LORD and King. "Just look at all the things you are doing! You are acting like a prostitute who has no shame at all. [31]Your people built up mounds at every street corner. You put little places of worship on them in every market. But you did not really act like a prostitute. That's because you refused to let your lovers pay you anything.

[32]" ' "You unfaithful wife! You would rather be with strangers than with your own husband! [33]Every prostitute receives gifts. Instead, you give gifts to all your lovers. You offer them money to come to you from everywhere. You want them to sleep with you. You are not faithful to me. [34]As a prostitute, you are the opposite of others. No one runs after you to sleep with you. You are exactly the opposite. You pay them. They do not pay you.” ’ ”

[35]You prostitute, listen to the LORD’s message. [36]The LORD and King says, “You poured out your desire on your lovers. You took off your clothing and slept with them. You did it again and again. You worshiped other gods. I hate them. You even sacrificed your children to them. [37]So I am going to gather together all the lovers you found pleasure with. They include those you loved and those you hated. I will gather them against you from everywhere. I will take your clothes off right in front of them. Then they will see you completely naked. [38]I will hand down my sentence against you. You will be punished like women who commit adultery and sacrifice their children to other gods. I am so angry with you. So I will sentence you to death for everything you have done. [39]Then I will hand you over to your lovers. They will tear down those mounds you built. They will destroy the little places of worship you put on them. They will take your clothes off. They will remove your fine jewelry. And they will leave you completely naked. [40]They will bring a crowd against you. The crowd will put you to death by throwing stones at you. And they will chop you to pieces with their swords. [41]They will burn down your houses and punish you. Many women will see it. I will not let you be a prostitute anymore. You will no longer pay your lovers. [42]Then my great anger against you will die down. My jealous anger will turn away from you. I will be calm. I will not be angry anymore.

[43]“You did not remember the days when you were young. The things you did made me very angry. So anything that happens to you will be your own fault,” announces the LORD and King. “You added impure conduct to all the other evil things you did. I hate all those things.

[44]“All those who use proverbs will use this one about you. They will say, ‘Like mother, like daughter.’ [45]You are a true daughter of your mother. She hated her husband and children. And you are a true sister of your sisters. They hated their husbands and children. Your mother was a Hittite. Your father was an Amorite. [46]Your older sister was Samaria. She lived north of you with her daughters. Your younger sister was Sodom. She lived south of you with her daughters. [47]You lived exactly the way they did. You copied their evil practices. I hate those practices. Everything you did was so sinful that you soon became even worse than they were. [48]Your sister Sodom and her daughters never did what you and your daughters have done. And that is just as sure as I am alive,” announces the LORD and King.

49“Here is the sin your sister Sodom committed. She and her daughters were proud. They ate too much. They were not concerned about others. They did not help those who were poor and in need. 50They were very proud. They did many things that were evil in my eyes. I hated those things. So I got rid of Sodom and her daughters, just as you have seen. 51Samaria did not commit half the sins you did. You sinned even more than they did. I hate those sins. Compared to what you did, you made your sisters seem godly. 52So you will be dishonored. You have given your sisters an excuse for what they did. Your sins were far worse than theirs. In fact, your sisters appear to be more godly than you. So then, be ashamed. You will be dishonored. You have made them appear to be godly.

53“I will not only give you back what you had before. I will also do the same thing for Sodom and her daughters. And I will do the same for Samaria and her daughters. 54That will make you feel dishonored. You will be ashamed of everything you have done. You have made them feel better because you sinned more and were punished more than they were. 55Your sisters Sodom and Samaria and their daughters will return to what they were before. And you and your daughters will return to what you were before. 56In the past you would not even mention your sister Sodom. You were proud at that time. 57That was before your sin was uncovered. Now the daughters of Edom make fun of you. So do all her neighbors and the daughters of the Philistines. Everyone who lives around you hates you. 58You will be punished for your impure conduct. I will also punish you for the other evil things you have done. I hate all those things,” announces the LORD.

59The LORD and King says, “I will punish you in keeping with what you have done. I sealed with a promise the covenant I made with you. You hated that promise. And you broke my covenant. 60But I will remember my covenant with you. I made it with you when you were young. Now I will make a new covenant with you. It will last forever. 61Then you will remember how you have lived.
You will be ashamed when I give you Samaria and Sodom. Samaria is your older sister. Sodom is your younger one. I will give them and their daughters to you as daughters. That can’t happen based on my old covenant with you. 62So I will make my new covenant with you. Then you will know that I am the LORD. 63I will pay for all the sins you have committed. Then you will remember what you have done. You will be ashamed of it. Because of your shame, you will never speak against me again,” announces the LORD and King.

Ezekiel 17

Two Eagles and a Vine

[1]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [2]“Son of man, tell the people of Israel a story about their kings. Let them know what will happen to them. [3]Tell them, ‘The LORD and King says, “A great eagle came to the city of ‘Lebanon.’ It had powerful wings and a lot of long feathers. The feathers were colorful and beautiful. The eagle landed in the top of a cedar tree. [4]It broke off the highest twig. The eagle carried it away to the land of Babylon. There are many traders in that land. The eagle planted the twig in the city of Babylon.

[5]“ ‘ “Then it took from the land a seed that had just sprouted. It put it in rich soil near plenty of water. It planted the seed like a willow tree. [6]The seed grew into a low, spreading vine. Its branches turned toward the eagle. And its roots remained under the eagle. So the seed became a vine. It produced branches and put out leaves.

[7]“ ‘ “But there was another great eagle. It also had powerful wings and a lot of feathers. The vine now sent out its roots toward that eagle. It sent them out from the place where it was planted. And it reached out its branches to the eagle for water. [8]The seed had been planted in good soil near plenty of water. Then it could produce branches and bear fruit. It could become a beautiful vine.” ’

[9]“Ezekiel, tell the Israelites, ‘The LORD and King asks, “Will the vine grow? Won’t it be pulled up by its roots? Won’t all its fruit be stripped off? Won’t it dry up? All its new growth will dry up. It will not take a strong arm or many people to pull it up. [10]It has been planted, but will it grow? No. It will dry up completely when the east wind strikes it. It will dry up in the place where it grew.” ’ ”

[11]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [12]“These people refuse to obey me. Ask them, ‘Don’t you know what these things mean?’ Tell them, ‘Nebuchadnezzar went to Jerusalem. He was the king of Babylon. He carried off King Jehoiachin and the nobles. He brought them back with him to the city of Babylon. [13]Then Nebuchadnezzar made a peace treaty with Zedekiah. He was a member of Jerusalem’s royal family. Nebuchadnezzar made him promise he would keep the treaty. He also took away the leading men of the land as prisoners. [14]He did it to bring down their kingdom. It would not rise again. In fact, it would be able to last only by keeping his treaty. [15]But Zedekiah turned against him. He sent messengers to Egypt. They went there to get horses and a large army. Will he succeed? Will he who does things like that escape? Can he break the peace treaty and still escape?

16“ ‘Zedekiah will die in Babylon,’ announces the LORD and King. ‘And that is just as sure as I am alive. He will die in the land of King Nebuchadnezzar, who put him on the throne. Zedekiah didn’t keep his promise to Nebuchadnezzar and broke his treaty. 17So Nebuchadnezzar will build ramps against the walls of Jerusalem. He will set up war machines to destroy many lives. Pharaoh will not be able to help Zedekiah during the war. The huge and mighty army of Egypt will not be of any help. 18Zedekiah didn’t keep his promise to Nebuchadnezzar and broke his treaty. Zedekiah had made a firm promise to keep it. But he broke it anyway. So he will not escape.

19“ ‘The LORD and King says, “Zedekiah didn’t keep the promise he made in my name. He broke the treaty. So I will pay him back. And that is just as sure as I am alive. 20I will spread out my net to catch him. He will be caught in my trap. I will bring him to Babylon. I will judge him there because he was not faithful to me. 21All Zedekiah’s best troops will be killed by swords. Those who are left alive will be scattered to the winds. Then you will know that I have spoken. I am the LORD.”

22“ ‘The LORD and King says, “I myself will get a twig from the very top of a cedar tree and plant it. I will break off the highest twig. I will plant it on a very high mountain. 23I will plant it on the high mountains of Israel. It will produce branches and bear fruit. It will become a beautiful cedar tree. All kinds of birds will make their nests in it. They will live in the shade of its branches. 24All the trees in the forest will know that I bring down tall trees. I make short trees grow tall. I dry up green trees. And I make dry trees green.”

“ ‘I have spoken. I will do this. I am the LORD.’ ”

Ezekiel 18

People Will Die Because of Their Own Sins

[1]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [2]"You people have a proverb about the land of Israel. What do you mean by it? It says,

" 'The parents eat sour grapes.
But the children have a bitter taste in their mouths.'

[3]"You will not use that proverb in Israel anymore," announces the LORD and King. "And that is just as sure as I am alive. [4]Everyone belongs to me. Parents and children alike belong to me. A person will die because of their own sins.

[5]"Suppose there is a godly man who does what is fair and right.
[6]And he does not eat at the mountain temples.
He does not worship the statues of Israel's gods.
He does not sleep with another man's wife.
He does not have sex with his own wife during her monthly period.
[7]He does not treat anyone badly.
Instead, he always returns things he takes to make sure loans are paid back.
He does not steal.
Instead, he gives his food to hungry people.
He provides clothes for those who are naked.
[8]He does not charge interest when he lends money to them.
He does not make money from them.
He keeps himself from doing what is wrong.
He judges cases fairly.
[9]He obeys my rules.
He is faithful in keeping my laws.
He always does what is right.
You can be sure he will live,"
announces the LORD and King.

10“But suppose he has a mean son who harms other people. The son commits murder. Or he does some other things that are wrong. 11Suppose he does these things even though his father never did.

“Suppose the son eats at the mountain temples.
And he sleeps with another man’s wife.
12He treats poor and needy people badly.
He steals.
He does not pay back what he owes.
He worships statues of gods.
He does other things I hate.
13He charges interest when he lends money to poor people. He makes money from them.

Will a man like that live? He will not! He must be put to death. And what happens to him will be his own fault. He did many things I hate.
14“But suppose this son has a son of his own. And the son sees all the sins his father commits. He sees them, but he does not do them.

15“Suppose he does not eat at the mountain temples.
And he does not worship the statues of Israel’s gods.
He does not sleep with another man’s wife.
16He does not treat anyone badly.
He does not make people give him something to prove they will pay back what they owe him.
He does not steal.
Instead, he gives his food to hungry people.
He provides clothes for those who are naked.
17He keeps himself from committing sins.
He does not charge interest when he lends money to poor people.
He does not make money from them.
He keeps my laws and obeys my rules.

He will not die because of his father’s sin. You can be sure he will live. 18But his father will die because of his own sin. He got rich by cheating others. He robbed his relatives. He also did what was wrong among his people.
19“But you still ask, ‘Is the son guilty along with his father?’ No! The son did what was fair and right. He was careful to obey all my rules. So you can be sure he will live. [20]A person will die because of their own sins. A child will not be guilty because of what their parent did. And a parent will not be guilty because of what their child did. The right things a godly person does will be added to their account. The wrong things a sinful person does will be charged against them.

[21]"But suppose a sinful person turns away from all the sins they have committed. And they obey all my rules. They do what is fair and right. Then you can be sure they will live. They will not die. [22]None of the sins they have committed will be held against them. Because of the godly things they have done, they will live. [23]When sinful people die, it does not give me any joy," announces the LORD and King. "But when they turn away from their sins and live, that makes me very happy.

[24]"Suppose a godly person stops doing what is right. And they sin. They do the same evil things a sinful person does. They do things I hate. Then they will not live. I will not remember any of the right things they have done. They have not been faithful to me. They have also committed many other sins. So they are guilty. They will die.

[25]"But you say, 'What the Lord does isn't fair.' Listen to me, you Israelites. What I do is always fair. What you do is not. [26]Suppose a godly person stops doing what is right. And they sin. Then they will die because of it. They will die because of the sin they have committed. [27]But suppose a sinful person turns away from the evil things they have done. And they do what is fair and right. Then they will save their life. [28]They think about all the evil things they have done. And they turn away from them. So you can be sure they will live. They will not die. [29]But the Israelites still say, 'What the Lord does isn't fair.' People of Israel, what I do is always fair. What you do is not.

[30]"So I will judge you Israelites. I will judge each of you in keeping with what you have done," announces the LORD and King. "Turn away from your sins! Turn away from all the evil things you have done. Then sin will not bring you down. [31]Get rid of all the evil things you have done. Let me give you a new heart and a new spirit. Then you will be faithful to me. Why should you die, people of Israel? [32]When anyone dies, it does not give me any joy," announces the LORD and King. "So turn away from your sins. Then you will live!

Ezekiel 19

A Song of Sadness About Israel's Princes

[1]"Sing a song of sadness about Israel's princes. [2]Say to Israel,

" 'You were like a mother lion to your princes.
She lay down among the lions.
She brought up her cubs.
[3]One of them was Jehoahaz.
He became a strong lion.
He learned to tear apart what he caught.
And he became a man-eater.
[4]The nations heard about him.
They trapped him in their pit.
They put hooks in his face.
And they led him away to Egypt.

[5]" 'The mother lion looked and waited.
But all her hope was gone.
So she got another one of her cubs.
She made him into a strong lion.
[6]He prowled with the lions.
He became very strong.
He learned to tear apart what he caught.
And he became a man-eater.
[7]He broke down their forts.
He completely destroyed their towns.
The land and all those who were in it were terrified when he roared.
[8]Then nations came against him.
They came from all around him.
They spread out their net to catch him.
He was trapped in their pit.
[9]They used hooks to pull him into a cage.
They brought him to the king of Babylon.
They put him in prison.

So his roar was not heard anymore on the mountains of Israel.

10“ ‘Israel, you were like a vine in a vineyard.
It was planted near water.
It had a lot of fruit and many branches.
There was plenty of water.
11Its branches were strong.
Each was good enough to be made into a ruler’s scepter.
The vine grew high above all the leaves.
It stood out because it was so tall and had so many branches.
12But Nebuchadnezzar became angry.
He pulled it up by its roots.
He threw it to the ground.
The east wind dried it up.
Its fruit was stripped off.
Its strong branches dried up.
And fire destroyed them.
13Now it is planted in the Babylonian desert.
It is in a dry and thirsty land.
14One of its main branches was Zedekiah.
Fire spread from it and burned up its fruit.
None of its branches is good enough to be made into a ruler’s scepter.’

This is a song of sadness. And that is how it should be used.

Ezekiel 20

The LORD Judges Sinful Israel

[1]It was the seventh year since King Jehoiachin had been brought to Babylon as a prisoner. On the tenth day of the fifth month, some of the elders of Israel came to ask the LORD for advice. They sat down with me.
[2]Then a message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [3]"Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel. Tell them, 'The LORD and King says, "Have you come to ask me for advice? I will not let you do that," announces the LORD and King. "And that is just as sure as I am alive." '
[4]"Are you going to judge them, son of man? Will you judge them? Tell them the evil things done by their people of long ago. I hate those things. [5]Tell them,
'The LORD and King says, "I chose Israel. On that day I raised my hand and made a promise. I made a promise to the members of Jacob's family line. I made myself known to them in Egypt. I raised my hand and told them, 'I am the LORD your God.' [6]On that day I promised I would bring them out of Egypt. I told them I would take them to a land I had found for them. It had plenty of milk and honey. It was the most beautiful land of all. [7]I said to them, 'Each of you must get rid of the statues of the evil gods you worship. Do not make yourselves
"unclean" by worshiping the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.'
[8]" ' "But they refused to obey me. They would not listen to me. They did not get rid of the evil gods they worshiped. And they did not turn away from Egypt's gods. So I said I would pour out all my great anger on them in Egypt. [9]I wanted my name to be honored. So I brought my people out of Egypt. I did it to keep my name from being treated as if it were not holy. I didn't want this to happen in front of the nations around my people. I had made myself known to Israel in the sight of those nations. [10]So I led them out of Egypt. I brought them into the Desert of Sinai. [11]I gave them my rules. I made my laws known to them. The person who obeys them will live by them. [12]I also told them to observe my Sabbath days. That is the sign of the covenant I made with them. I wanted them to know that I made them holy. I am the LORD.
[13]" ' "But in the desert the people of Israel refused to obey me. They did not follow my rules. They turned their backs on my laws. The person who obeys them will live by them. They totally misused my Sabbath days. So I said I would pour out my great anger on them. I would destroy them in the desert. [14]But I wanted my name to be honored. I kept it from being treated as if it were not holy. I did not want that to happen in front of the nations. They had seen me bring Israel out of Egypt. [15]I also raised my hand and made a promise in the desert. I told my people I would not bring them into the land I had given them. It had plenty of milk and honey. It was the most beautiful land of all. [16]But they turned their backs on my laws. They did not obey my rules. They misused my Sabbath days. Their hearts were committed to worshiping the statues of their gods. [17]Then I felt sorry for them. So I did not destroy them. I did not put an end to them in the desert. [18]I spoke to their children there. I said, 'Do not follow the rules your parents gave you. Do not obey their laws. Do not make yourselves "unclean" by worshiping their gods. [19]I am the LORD your God. So follow my rules. Be careful to obey my laws. [20]Keep my Sabbath days holy. That is the sign of the covenant I made with you. You will know that I am the LORD your God.'

[21]" ' "But their children refused to obey me. They did not follow my rules. They were not careful to keep my laws. The person who obeys them will live by them. They misused my Sabbath days. So I said I would pour out all my great anger on them in the desert. [22]But I kept myself from punishing them at that time. I wanted my name to be honored. So I kept it from being treated as if it were not holy. I did not want that to happen in front of the nations. They had seen me bring Israel out of Egypt. [23]I also raised my hand and made a promise in the desert. I told my people I would scatter them among the nations. I would send them to other countries. [24]They had not obeyed my laws. They had turned their backs on my rules. They had misused my Sabbath days. They only wanted to worship the statues of their parents' gods. [25]So I let them follow other rules. Those other rules were not good. I let them have laws they could not live by. [26]I let them become 'unclean' by offering sacrifices to other gods. They even sacrificed the first male child born in each family. I wanted to fill them with horror. Then they would know that I am the LORD." '

[27]"Son of man, speak to the people of Israel. Tell them, 'The LORD and King says, "Your people spoke evil things against me long ago. They were unfaithful to me. [28]But I brought them into the land. I had promised to give the land to them. Then they offered sacrifices that made me very angry. They did it on every high hill and under every green tree. There they brought their sweet-smelling incense. And there they poured out their drink offerings. [29]Then I said to them, 'What is this high place you go to?' " ' " That high place is called Bamah to this day.

The LORD Makes Israel New Again

30The LORD said to me, “Speak to the Israelites. Tell them, ‘Here is what the LORD and King says. “Are you going to make yourselves ‘unclean’ the way your people of long ago did? Are you also going to want to worship the statues of their evil gods? 31You make yourselves ‘unclean’ by offering sacrifices to other gods. You even sacrifice your children in the fire. You continue to do these things to this day. People of Israel, should I let you ask me for advice? I will not let you do that,” announces the LORD and King. “And that is just as sure as I am alive.

32“ ‘ “You say, ‘We want to be like the other nations. We want to be like all the other people in the world. They serve gods made out of wood and stone.’ But what you have in mind will never happen. 33I will rule over you by reaching out my mighty hand and powerful arm. I will pour my great anger out on you,” announces the LORD and King. “And that is just as sure as I am alive. 34I will bring you back from the nations. I will gather you together from the countries where you have been scattered. I will reach out my mighty hand and powerful arm. I will pour my great anger out on you. 35I will send you among the nations.
There I will judge you face to face. It will be as if I were judging you in the desert again. 36Long ago, I judged your people in the desert of Egypt. In the same way, I will judge you,” announces the LORD and King. 37“I will take note of you as you pass under my shepherd’s stick. I will separate those who obey me from those who do not. And I will give the blessings of the covenant to those of you who obey me. 38I will get rid of those among you who turn against me. They refuse to obey me. I will bring them out of the land where they are living. But they will not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

39“ ‘ “People of Israel, the LORD and King says, ‘Go, every one of you!
Serve your gods. But later you will listen to me. You will no longer treat my name as if it were not holy. You will not offer sacrifices to other gods anymore.
40People of Israel, you will all serve me,’ announces the LORD and King. ‘You will serve me on my high and holy mountain in Jerusalem. There I will accept you. I will require your offerings and your finest gifts. I want you to bring them along with all your other holy sacrifices. 41I will bring you back from the nations. I will gather you together from the countries where you have been scattered. Then I will accept you as if you were sweet-smelling incense. I will show that I am holy among you. The nations will see it. 42I will bring you into the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD. Long ago I raised my hand and made a promise. I promised to give that land to your people of long ago. [43]There you will remember your conduct. You will think about everything you did that made you "unclean." And you will hate yourselves because of all the evil things you have done. [44]People of Israel, I will deal with you for the honor of my name. I will not deal with you based on your evil conduct and sinful practices. Then you will know that I am the LORD,' announces the LORD and King." ' "

Ezekiel Prophesies Against the South

[45]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [46]"Son of man, turn your attention to Judah in the south. Preach against it. Prophesy against its forests. [47]Tell them, 'Listen to the LORD's message. The LORD and King says, "I am about to set you on fire. The fire will destroy all your trees. It will burn down green trees and dry trees alike. The blazing flame will not be put out. The faces of everyone from south to north will be burned by it. [48]Everyone will see that I started the fire. It will not be put out. I am the LORD." ' "

[49]Then I said, "LORD and King, people are talking about me. They are saying, 'Isn't he just telling stories?' "

Ezekiel 21

God Uses the Babylonians to Judge Israel

[1]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [2]“Son of man, turn your attention to Jerusalem. Preach against the temple. Prophesy against the land of Israel. [3]Tell them, ‘The LORD says, “I am against you. I will pull out my sword. I will remove from you godly people and sinful people alike. [4]Because I am going to remove them, my sword will be ready to use. I will strike down everyone from south to north. [5]Then all people will know that I have pulled out my sword. I will not put it back. I am the LORD.” ’

[6]“Groan, son of man! Groan in front of your people. Groan with a broken heart and bitter sorrow. [7]They will ask you, ‘Why are you groaning?’ Then you will say, ‘Because of the news that is coming. The hearts of all the people will melt away in fear. Their hands will not be able to help them. Their spirits will grow weak. And they will be so afraid they’ll wet themselves.’ The news is coming! You can be sure those things will happen,” announces the LORD and King.

[8]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [9]“Son of man, prophesy. Say, ‘The Lord says,

> “ ‘ “A sword! A sword!
> A sharp and shiny sword is coming from Babylon!
> [10]It is sharpened to kill people.
> It flashes like lightning.” ’ ”

The people say, “Should we take delight in the scepter of the LORD’s royal son? The sword looks down on every scepter like this.” [11]The LORD says,

> “I have told Nebuchadnezzar to shine his sword.
> It is in his hand.
> It has been sharpened and shined.
> It is ready for the killer’s hand.
> [12]Son of man, cry out and weep.
> The sword is against my people.
> It is against all the princes of Israel.
> It will kill them

along with the rest of my people.
So beat your chest in sorrow.

13“You can be sure that testing will come. Why does the sword look down on the scepter? Because even the scepter will not continue to rule,” announces the LORD and King.

14“Son of man, prophesy.
Clap your hands.
Let the sword strike twice.
Let it strike even three times.
It is a sword to kill people.
It is a sword to kill many people.
It is closing in on them from every side.
15People’s hearts will melt away in fear.
Many will be wounded or killed.
I have prepared the sword to kill people at all their city gates.
Look! It strikes like lightning.
It is in the killer’s hand.
16Sword, cut to the right.
Then cut to the left.
Strike down people everywhere your blade is turned.
17I too will clap my hands.
I won’t be so angry anymore.
I have spoken. I am the LORD.”

18A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, 19“Son of man, mark out on a map two roads for the sword to take. The sword belongs to the king of Babylon. Both roads start from the same country. Put up a sign where the road turns off to the city of Rabbah. 20Mark out one road for the sword to take against Rabbah in Ammon. Mark out another against Judah and the walls of Jerusalem. 21The king of Babylon will stop at the place where the two roads meet. He will look for a special sign. He will cast lots by pulling arrows out of a bag. He will ask his gods for advice. And he will look carefully at the liver of a sheep. 22His right hand will pull out the arrow for Jerusalem. There he will get huge logs ready to knock down its gates. He will give the command to kill its people. He will sound the battle cry. He will build a ramp up to the city wall. He will bring in his war machines. [23]The decision to attack Jerusalem will seem like the wrong advice to those who made a treaty with Nebuchadnezzar. But he will remind them that they are guilty. And he will take them away as prisoners."

[24]So the LORD and King says, "You people have reminded everyone of how guilty you are. You have done it by refusing to obey me or any other authority. Everything you do clearly shows how sinful you are. So you will be taken away as prisoners."

[25]King Zedekiah, your day has come. You are an unholy and evil prince in Israel. The day for you to be punished is here. [26]The LORD and King says, "Take off your turban. Remove your crown. Things will not be as they were in the past. Those who are considered not important will be honored. And those who are honored will be considered not important. [27]Jerusalem will fall. I will destroy it. It will not be rebuilt until the true king comes. After all, the kingdom belongs to him. I will give it to him.

[28]"Son of man, prophesy. Say, 'The LORD and King speaks about the Ammonites. He also talks about the way they laugh because of Jerusalem's fall. He says,

" ' "A sword! A sword!
Nebuchadnezzar's sword is ready to kill you.
It is shined to destroy you.
It flashes like lightning.
[29]The visions of your prophets are false.
They use magic to try to find out what is going to happen to you.
But their magic tricks are lies.
The sword will strike the necks of you sinful people.
You will be killed.
The day for you to be punished has finally come.
Your time is up.
[30]Ammon, return your sword to its place.
In the land where you were created, I will judge you.
That is where you came from.
[31]I will pour out my anger on you.
I will breathe out my burning anger against you.
I will hand you over to mean people.
They are skilled at destroying others.

[32]You will be burned in the fire.
Your blood will be spilled in your land.
You will not be remembered anymore.
I have spoken. I am the LORD.” ’ ”

Ezekiel 22

The LORD Judges Jerusalem for Its Sins

1 A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said,

2 “Son of man, are you going to judge Jerusalem? Will you judge this city that has so many murderers in it? Then tell its people they have done many evil things. I hate those things. 3 Tell them, ‘The LORD and King says, “Your city brings death on itself. You spill blood inside its walls. You make yourselves ‘unclean’ by making statues of gods. 4 You are guilty of spilling blood. Your statues have made you ‘unclean.’ You have brought your days to a close. The end of your years has come. So the nations will make fun of you.
All the countries will laugh at you. 5 Those who are near you will tell jokes about you. So will those who are far away. Trouble fills the streets of your sinful city.

6 “ ‘ “The princes of Israel are in your city. All of them use their power to spill blood. 7 They have made fun of fathers and mothers alike. They have crushed outsiders. They have treated badly the children whose fathers have died. They have done the same thing to widows. 8 You have looked down on the holy things that were set apart to me. You have misused my Sabbath days. 9 You have spread lies about others so you can spill someone’s blood. You eat at the mountain temples. You commit impure acts. 10 You bring shame on your fathers by having sex with their wives. You have sex with women during their monthly period.
That is when they are ‘unclean.’ 11 One of you has sex with another man’s wife. I hate that sin. Another brings shame on his daughter-in-law by having sex with her. Still another has sex with his sister, even though she is his own father’s daughter. 12 You accept money from people who want special favors. You do this to spill someone’s blood. You charge interest to poor people when you lend them money. You make money from them. You get rich by cheating your neighbors.
And you have forgotten me,” announces the LORD and King.

13 “ ‘ “I will clap my hands because I am so angry. You got rich by cheating others. You spilled blood inside the walls of your city. 14 Will you be brave on the day I deal with you? Will you be strong at that time? I have spoken. I will do this. I am the LORD. 15 I will scatter you among the nations. I will send you to other countries. I will put an end to your ‘uncleanness.’ 16 You will be ‘unclean’ in the sight of the nations. Then you will know that I am the LORD.” ’ ”

17A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, 18“Son of man, the people of Israel have become like scum to me. All of them are like the copper, tin, iron and lead left inside a furnace. They are only the scum that is removed from silver.” 19So the LORD and King says, “People of Israel, all of you have become like scum. So I will gather you together in Jerusalem. 20People put silver, copper, iron, lead and tin into a furnace. They melt it with a blazing fire.
In the same way, I will gather you. I will pour out my burning anger on you. I will put you inside the city and melt you. 21I will gather you together. My burning anger will blaze out at you. And you will be melted inside Jerusalem.
22Silver is melted in a furnace. And you will be melted inside the city. Then you will know that I have poured out my burning anger on you. I am the LORD.”

23Another message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, 24“Son of man, speak to the land. Tell it, ‘You have not been washed clean with rain.
That’s because I am angry with you.’ 25Ezekiel, the princes of the land are like a roaring lion that tears its food apart. They eat people up. They take treasures and other valuable things. They cause many women in the land to become widows.
26Its priests break my law. They treat things set apart to me as if they were not holy. They treat holy and common things as if they were the same. They teach that there is no difference between things that are ‘clean’ and things that are not.
They refuse to keep my Sabbath days. So they treat me as if I were not holy.
27The officials in the land are like wolves that tear their food apart. They spill blood and kill people to get rich. 28The prophets cover up these acts for them.
The visions of these prophets are false. They use magic to try to find out what is going to happen. But their magic tricks are lies. They say, ‘The LORD and King says.’ But I have not spoken to them. 29The people of the land get rich by cheating others. They steal. They crush those who are poor and in need. They treat outsiders badly. They refuse to be fair to them.

30“I looked for someone among them who would stand up for Jerusalem. I tried to find someone who would pray to me for the land. Then I would not have to destroy it. But I could not find anyone who would pray for it. 31So I will pour out my anger on its people. I will destroy them because of my great anger against them. And anything that happens to them will be their own fault,” announces the LORD and King.

Ezekiel 23

Samaria and Jerusalem Are Like Two Impure Sisters

[1]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [2]"Son of man, once there were two women. They had the same mother. [3]They became prostitutes in Egypt. They have been unfaithful to me since they were young. In that land they allowed their breasts to be touched. They permitted their virgin breasts to be kissed. [4]The older sister was named Oholah. The younger one was Oholibah. They belonged to me. Sons and daughters were born to them. Oholah stands for Samaria. And Oholibah stands for Jerusalem.

[5]"Oholah was unfaithful to me even while she still belonged to me. She longed for her Assyrian lovers. They included soldiers [6]who wore blue uniforms. They also included governors and commanders. All of them were young and handsome. They rode horses. [7]She gave herself as a prostitute to all Assyria's finest warriors. She made herself impure with the statues of the gods of everyone she longed for. [8]She started being a prostitute in Egypt. And she never stopped. When she was young, men had sex with her. They kissed her virgin breasts. They used up all their sinful desires on her.

[9]"So I handed her over to her Assyrian lovers. She longed for them. [10]They stripped her naked. They took away her sons and daughters. And they killed her with their swords. Other women laughed when that happened. I was the one who had punished her.

[11]"Her sister Oholibah saw it. But her evil desire for sexual sin was worse than her sister's. [12]She too longed for the men of Assyria. They included governors and commanders. They included soldiers who wore fancy uniforms. They also included men who rode horses. All of them were young and handsome. [13]I saw that she too made herself impure. So both sisters did the same evil things.

had sex with her. After they did it, she became sick of them. So she turned away from them. [18]She acted like a prostitute who had no shame at all. She openly showed her naked body. I became sick of what she was doing. So I turned away from her. I had also turned away from her sister. [19]But Oholibah offered her body to her lovers again and again. She remembered the days when she was a young prostitute in Egypt. [20]There she had longed for her lovers. Their private parts seemed as big as those of donkeys. And their flow of semen appeared to be as much as that of horses. [21]So you wanted to return to the days when you were young. You longed for the time when you first became impure in Egypt. That was when you allowed your breasts to be kissed. And you permitted your young breasts to be touched."

[22]So the LORD and King says, "Oholibah, I will stir up your lovers against you. You became sick of them. You turned away from them. But I will bring them against you from every side. [23]They include the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans. They include the men from Pekod, Shoa and Koa. They also include all the Assyrians. They are young and handsome. Some of them are governors and commanders. Others are chariot officers. Still others are very high officials. All of them ride horses. [24]So a huge army will come against you with weapons, chariots and wagons. They will take up positions against you on every side. They will carry large and small shields. They will wear helmets. I will turn you over to them to be punished. They will punish you in their own way. [25]I will pour out my jealous anger on you. And the army's anger will burn against you. They will cut off your noses and ears. Some of you who are left will be killed by swords. They will take away your sons and daughters. Others of you who are left will be burned up. [26]The army will also strip off your clothes. They will take your fine jewelry away from you. [27]You became an impure prostitute in Egypt. But I will put a stop to all of that. You will no longer want to do any of it. You will not remember Egypt anymore."

[28]The LORD and King says, "I am about to hand you over to people you hate. You became sick of them. You turned away from them. [29]They will punish you because they hate you so much. They will take away from you everything you have worked for. They will leave you completely naked. Then everyone will see that you are a prostitute who has no shame at all. You were impure. You offered your body to your lovers again and again. [30]That is why you will be punished. You longed for lovers in other nations. You made yourself impure by worshiping their gods. [31]You did the same things your sister Oholah did. So I will put her cup in your hand. It is filled with the wine of my anger."

[32]The LORD and King says to Oholibah,

“You will drink from your sister’s cup.
It is large and deep.
It is filled with the wine of my anger.
So others will laugh at you.
They will make fun of you.
[33]You will become drunk and sad.
The cup of my anger will completely destroy you.
It is the same cup your sister Samaria drank from.
[34]You will drink from it until it is empty.
Then you will chew on its pieces.
And you will claw at your breasts.

I have spoken,” announces the LORD and King.

[35]So the LORD and King says, “You have forgotten me. You have turned your back on me. You have been impure. You have acted like a prostitute. So I will punish you.”

[36]The LORD said to me, “Son of man, are you going to judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then tell them they have done many evil things. I hate those things. [37]They have committed adultery. Their hands are covered with the blood of the people they have murdered. They have worshiped other gods. They have not been faithful to me. They have even sacrificed their children as food to other gods. Those children belonged to me. [38]Here are some other things the sisters have done to me. They have made my temple ‘unclean.’ They have misused my Sabbath days. [39]They have sacrificed their children to their gods. On that same day they entered my temple and made it ‘unclean.’ That is what they have done in my house.

[40]“They even sent messengers to bring men from far away. When the men arrived, Oholibah took a bath. She put makeup on her eyes. She put her jewelry on. [41]She sat down on a beautiful couch. A table was in front of it. There she put the incense and olive oil that belonged to me.

[42]“The noise of a carefree crowd was all around her. Men who drink too much were brought from the desert. Other men were brought along with them. They put bracelets on the wrists of the two sisters. They put beautiful crowns on their heads. [43]Then I spoke about Oholibah. She was worn out by adultery. I said, ‘Let them use her as a prostitute. After all, that is what she is.’ [44]So they slept with her. In fact, they slept with both of these impure women, Oholah and Oholibah. They slept with them just as men sleep with prostitutes. [45]But judges who are right with God will sentence the sisters to be punished. They will be punished in the same way as women who commit adultery and murder. After all, they have committed adultery. And their hands are covered with the blood of the people they have murdered.”

[46]The LORD and King says, “Bring an angry crowd against the sisters. Hand them over to those who will terrify them and steal everything they have. [47]The crowd will kill them by throwing stones at them. They will use swords to cut them down. They will kill their sons and daughters. And they will burn down their houses.

[48]“So I will put an end to impurity in the land. Then all its women will be warned. They will not want to be like the sisters. [49]Those sisters will be punished because of the impure things they have done. They will be judged because they have worshiped other gods. Then they will know that I am the LORD and King.”

Ezekiel 24

Jerusalem Is Like a Cooking Pot

[1]It was the ninth year since King Jehoiachin had been brought to Babylon as a prisoner. On the tenth day of the tenth month, a message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [2]"Son of man, write down today's date. The king of Babylon has surrounded Jerusalem and attacked it today. [3]Your people refuse to obey me. So tell them a story. Say to them, 'The LORD and King told me, " ' "Put a cooking pot on the fire.

Pour water into it.
[4]Put pieces of meat in it.
Use all the best pieces.
Use the leg and shoulder.
Fill it with the best bones.
[5]Pick the finest animal in the flock.
Pile wood under the pot to cook the bones.
Bring the water to a boil.
Cook the bones in it." ' "

[6]The LORD and King says,

"How terrible it will be for this city!
It has so many murderers in it.
How terrible for the pot that is coated with scum!
The scum on it will not go away.
Take the meat out of the pot piece by piece.
Take it out in whatever order it comes.

[7]"The blood Jerusalem's people spilled is inside its walls.
They poured it out on a bare rock.
They did not pour it on the ground.
If they had, dust would have covered it up.
[8]So I put their blood on the bare rock.
I did not want it to be covered up.
I poured out my great anger on them.
I paid them back."

9So the LORD and King said to me,

"How terrible it will be for this city!
It has so many murderers in it.
I too will pile the wood high.
10So pile on the wood.
Light the fire.
Cook the meat well.
Mix in the spices.
Let the bones be blackened.
11Then set the empty pot on the coals.
Let it get hot. Let its copper glow.
Then what is not pure in it will melt.
Its scum will be burned away.
12But it can't be cleaned up.
Its thick scum has not been removed.
Even fire can't burn it off.

13"Jerusalem, you are really impure. I tried to clean you up. But you would not let me make you pure. So you will not be clean again until I am no longer so angry with you.

14"I have spoken. The time has come for me to act. I will not hold back. I will not feel sorry for you. I will do what I said I would do. You will be judged for your conduct and actions. I am the LORD," announces the LORD and King.

Ezekiel's Wife Dies

15A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, 16"Son of man, I will take away from you the wife you delight in. It will happen very soon. But do not sing songs of sadness. Do not let any tears flow from your eyes. 17Groan quietly. Do not mourn for your wife when she dies. Keep your turban on your head. Keep your sandals on your feet. Do not cover your mustache and beard. Do not eat the food people eat to comfort them when someone dies."

18So I spoke to my people in the morning. And in the evening my wife died. The next morning I did what I had been commanded to do.

19Then the people said to me, "Tell us what these things have to do with us.

Why are you acting like this?”

[20]So I told them. I said, “A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [21]‘Speak to the people of Israel. Tell them, “The LORD and King says, ‘I am about to make my temple “unclean.” I will let the Babylonians burn it down. It is the beautiful building you are so proud of. You take delight in it. You love it. The sons and daughters you left behind will be killed by swords. [22]So do what Ezekiel did. Do not cover your mustache and beard. Do not eat the food people eat to comfort them when someone dies. [23]Keep your turbans on your heads. Keep your sandals on your feet. Do not mourn or weep. You will waste away because you have sinned so much. You will groan among yourselves. [24]What Ezekiel has done will show you what is going to happen to you. You will do just as he has done. Then you will know that I am the LORD and King.’ ” ’

[25]“Son of man, I will take away their beautiful temple. It is their joy and glory. They take delight in it. Their hearts long for it. I will also take away their sons and daughters. [26]On the day I destroy everything, a man will escape. He will come and tell you the news. [27]At that time I will open your mouth. Then you will no longer be silent. You will speak with the man. That will show them what will happen to them. And they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 25

A Prophecy Against Ammon

[1]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [2]“Son of man, turn your attention to the Ammonites. Prophesy against them. [3]Tell them, ‘Listen to the message of the LORD and King. He says, “You laughed when my temple was made ‘unclean.’ You also laughed when the land of Israel was completely destroyed. You mocked the people of Judah when they were taken away as prisoners. [4]So I am going to hand you over to the people of the east. They will set up their tents in your land. They will camp among you. They will eat your fruit. They will drink your milk. [5]I will turn the city of Rabbah into grasslands for camels. Ammon will become a resting place for sheep. Then you will know that I am the LORD.” ’ ” [6]The LORD and King says, “You clapped your hands.
You stamped your feet. Deep down inside, you hated the land of Israel. You were glad because of what happened to it. [7]So I will reach out my powerful hand against you. I will give you and everything you have to the nations. I will bring you to an end among the nations. I will destroy you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

A Prophecy Against Moab

[8]The LORD and King says, “Moab and Edom said, ‘Look! Judah has become like all the other nations.’ [9]So I will let Moab’s enemies attack its lower hills.
They will begin at the border towns. Those towns include Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon and Kiriathaim. They are the glory of that land. [10]I will hand Moab over to the people of the east. I will also give the Ammonites to them. And the Ammonites will no longer be remembered among the nations. [11]I will punish Moab. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

A Prophecy Against Edom

[12]The LORD and King says, “Edom got even with Judah. That made Edom very guilty.” [13]The LORD continues, “I will reach out my hand against Edom. I will kill its people and their animals. I will completely destroy it. They will be killed by swords from Teman all the way to Dedan. [14]I will use my people Israel to pay Edom back. They will punish Edom because my anger against it is great.

They will know how I pay back my enemies," announces the LORD and King.

A Prophecy Against the Philistines

15The LORD and King says, "Deep down inside them, the Philistines hated Judah. So the Philistines tried to get even with them. They had been Judah's enemies for many years. So they tried to destroy them." 16The LORD continues,
"I am about to reach out my hand against the Philistines. I will wipe out the Kerethites. I will destroy those who remain along the coast. 17You can be sure that I will pay them back. I will punish them because my anger against them is great. When I pay them back, they will know that I am the LORD."

Ezekiel 26

A Prophecy Against Tyre

[1]It was the first day of the 11th month. It was the 12th year since King Jehoiachin had been brought to Babylon as a prisoner. A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [2]"Son of man, Tyre laughed because of what happened to Jerusalem. The people of Tyre said, 'Jerusalem is the gateway to the nations. But the gate is broken. Its doors have swung open to us. Jerusalem has been destroyed. So now we will succeed.' " [3]The LORD and King says, "But I am against you, Tyre. I will bring many nations against you. They will come in like the waves of the sea. [4]They will destroy your walls. They will pull down your towers. I will clear away the stones of your broken-down buildings. I will turn you into nothing but a bare rock. [5]Out in the Mediterranean Sea your island city will become a place to spread fishnets. I have spoken," announces the LORD and King. "The nations will take you and everything you have. [6]Your settlements on the coast will be destroyed by war. Then you will know that I am the LORD."

[7]The LORD and King says, "From the north I am going to bring Nebuchadnezzar against Tyre. He is the king of Babylon. He is the greatest king of all. He will come with horses and chariots. Horsemen and a great army will be brought along with him. [8]He will go to war against you. He will destroy your settlements on the coast. He will bring in war machines to attack you. A ramp will be built up to your walls. He will raise his shields against you. [9]He will use huge logs to knock down your walls. He will destroy your towers with his weapons. [10]He will have so many horses that they will cover you with dust. Your walls will shake because of the noise of his war horses, wagons and chariots. He will enter your gates, just as men enter a city whose walls have been broken through. [11]The hooves of his horses will pound in your streets. His swords will kill your people. Your strong pillars will fall to the ground. [12]His men will take away from you your wealth and anything else you have. They will pull down your walls. They will completely destroy your fine houses. They will throw the stones and lumber of your broken-down buildings into the sea. [13]I will put an end to your noisy songs. No one will hear the music of your harps anymore. [14]I will turn you into nothing but a bare rock. You will become a place to spread fishnets. You will never be rebuilt. I have spoken. I am the LORD," announces the LORD and King.

15The LORD and King speaks to Tyre. He says, “The lands along the coast will shake because of the sound of your fall. Wounded people will groan because so many are dying there. 16Then all the princes along the coast will step down from their thrones. They will put their robes away. They will take off their beautiful clothes. They will sit on the ground. They will put on terror as if it were their clothes. They will tremble with fear all the time. They will be shocked because of what has happened to you. 17Then they will sing a song of sadness about you. They will say to you,

“ ‘Famous city, you have been completely destroyed!
You were filled with sea traders.
You and your citizens were a mighty power on the seas.
You terrified everyone who lived in you.
18The lands along the coast trembled with fear when you fell.
The islands in the sea
were terrified when you were destroyed.’ ”

19The LORD and King says to Tyre, “I will turn you into an empty city. You will be like cities where no one lives anymore. I will cause the ocean to sweep over you. Its mighty waters will cover you. 20So I will bring you down together with those who go down into the grave. The people there lived long ago. You will have to live in the earth below. It will be like living in buildings that were destroyed many years ago. You will go down into the grave along with others.
And you will never come back. You will not take your place in this world again.
21I will bring you to a horrible end. You will be gone forever. People will look for you. But they will never find you,” announces the LORD and King.

Ezekiel 27

A Song of Sadness About Tyre

1 A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, 2 “Son of man, sing a song of sadness about Tyre. 3 It is located at the gateway to the Mediterranean Sea. It does business with nations on many coasts. Say to it, ‘The LORD and King says,

“ ‘ “Tyre, you say,
‘I am perfect and beautiful.’
4 You were like a ship that ruled over the high seas.
Your builders made you perfect and beautiful.
5 They cut all your lumber from juniper trees on Mount Hermon.
They used a cedar tree from Lebanon to make a mast for you.
6 They made your oars out of oak trees from Bashan.
They made your deck out of cypress wood from the coasts of Cyprus.
They decorated it with ivory.
7 Your sail was made out of beautiful Egyptian linen.
It served as your banner.
Your shades were made out of blue and purple cloth.
They were from the coasts of Elishah.
8 Men from Sidon and Arvad manned your oars.
Tyre, your sailors were skillful.
9 Very skilled workers from Byblos were on board.
They kept you waterproof.
All the ships on the sea and their sailors came up beside you.
They brought their goods to trade for yours.

10 “ ‘ “Men from Persia, Lydia and Put served as soldiers in your army, city of Tyre.
They hung their shields and helmets on your walls.

That brought glory to you.
[11]Men from Arvad and Helek guarded your walls on every side.
Men from Gammad
were in your towers.
They hung their shields around your walls.
They made you perfect and beautiful.

[12]“ ‘ “Tarshish did business with you because you had so much wealth. They traded silver, iron, tin and lead for your goods.

[13]“ ‘ “Greece, Tubal and Meshek did business with you. They traded human beings and bronze objects for your products.

[14]“ ‘ “Men from Beth Togarmah traded chariot horses, war horses and mules for your goods.

[15]“ ‘ “Men from Rhodes did business with you. Many lands along the coast bought goods from you. They paid you with ivory tusks and ebony wood.

[16]“ ‘ “Aram did business with you because you had so many products for sale. They traded turquoise, purple cloth and needlework for your goods. They also traded fine linen, coral and rubies for them.

[17]“ ‘ “Judah and Israel did business with you. They traded wheat from Minnith, sweets, honey, olive oil and lotion for your products.

[18]“ ‘ “Damascus did business with you. That’s because you had so many products and so much wealth. They traded to you wine from Helbon and wool from Zahar. [19]They also traded to you casks of wine from Izal. You traded to them wrought iron, cassia and calamus.

[20]“ ‘ “Dedan traded saddle blankets to you.

[21]“ ‘ “Arabia and all the princes of Kedar bought goods from you. They traded you lambs, rams and goats for them.

[22]“ ‘ “Traders from Sheba and Raamah did business with you. They traded the finest spices, jewels and gold for your goods.

[23]“ ‘ “Harran, Kanneh and Eden did business with you. So did traders from Sheba, Ashur and Kilmad. [24]In your market they traded beautiful clothes, blue cloth, and needlework to you. They also traded colorful rugs that had twisted cords and tight knots.

[25]“ ‘ “The ships of Tarshish carry your products.

You are like a ship filled with a heavy load
as you sail the sea.
[26]The sailors who man your oars take you out to the high seas.
But the east wind will break you in pieces far out at sea.
[27]You will be wrecked on that day.
Your wealth, goods and products will sink deep into the sea.
So will your sailors, officers, carpenters,
traders and all your soldiers.
Anyone else on board will sink too.
[28]The lands along the coast will shake when your sailors cry out.
[29]All those who man the oars will desert their ships.
The sailors and all the officers will stand on the shore.
[30]They will raise their voices.
They will cry bitterly over you.
They will sprinkle dust on their heads.
They will roll in ashes.
[31]They will shave their heads because of you.
And they will put on the clothes of sadness.
They will weep over you.
Their spirits will be greatly troubled.
They will be very sad.
[32]As they weep and mourn over you,
they will sing a song of sadness about you.
They will say, ‘Who was ever like Tyre?
It was destroyed in the sea.’
[33]Your goods went out on the seas.
You supplied many nations with what they needed.
You had so much wealth and so many products.
You made the kings of the earth rich.
[34]Now the sea has torn you apart.
You have sunk deep down into it.

Your products and all your people have gone down with you.
35 All those who live in the lands along the coast are shocked because of what has happened to you.
Their kings tremble with fear.
Their faces are twisted in horror.
36 The traders among the nations laugh at you.
You have come to a horrible end.
And you will be gone forever.” ’ ”

Ezekiel 28

A Prophecy Against the King of Tyre

[1]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [2]“Son of man, speak to Ethbaal. He is the ruler of Tyre. Tell him, ‘The LORD and King says,

“ ‘ “In your proud heart
you say, ‘I am a god.
I sit on the throne of a god
in the Mediterranean Sea.’
But you are only a human being. You are not a god.
In spite of that, you think you are as wise as a god.
[3]Are you wiser than Daniel?
Isn’t even one secret hidden from you?
[4]You are wise and understanding.
So you have become very wealthy.
You have piled up gold and silver among your treasures.
[5]You have used your great skill in trading to increase your wealth.
You are very rich.
So your heart has become proud.” ’ ”

[6]The LORD and King says,

“You think you are wise.
In fact, you claim to be as wise as a god.
[7]So I am going to bring outsiders against you.
They will not show you any pity at all.
They will use their swords against your beauty and wisdom.
They will strike down your shining glory.
[8]They will bring you down to the grave.
You will die a horrible death
in the middle of the sea.
[9]Then will you say, ‘I am a god’?
Will you say that to those who kill you?

You will be only a human being to those who kill you.
You will not be a god to them.
10 You will die just like those who have not been circumcised.
Outsiders will kill you.

I have spoken," announces the LORD and King.

11 A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, 12 "Son of man, sing a song of sadness about the king of Tyre. Tell him, 'The LORD and King says,

" ' "You were the model of perfection.
You were full of wisdom.
You were perfect and beautiful.
13 You were in Eden.
It was my garden.
All kinds of jewels decorated you.
Here is a list of them.
carnelian, chrysolite and emerald topaz, onyx and jasper lapis lazuli, turquoise and beryl
Your settings and mountings were made out of gold.
On the day you were created,
they were prepared.
14 I appointed you to be like a guardian angel.
I anointed you for that purpose.
You were on my holy mountain.
You walked among the gleaming jewels.
15 Your conduct was without blame from the day you were created.
But soon you began to sin.
16 You traded with many nations.
You harmed people everywhere.
And you sinned.
So I sent you away from my mountain in shame.
Guardian angel, I drove you away from among the gleaming jewels.
17 You thought you were so handsome that it made your heart proud.

You thought you were so glorious that it spoiled your wisdom.
So I threw you down to the earth.
I made an example out of you in front of kings.
18Your many sins and dishonest trade made your holy places impure.
So I made you go up in flames.
I turned you into nothing but ashes on the ground.
I let everyone see it.
19All the nations that knew you are shocked because of what happened to you.
You have come to a horrible end.
And you will be gone forever.” ’ ”

A Prophecy Against Sidon

20A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, 21“Son of man, turn your attention to the city of Sidon. Prophesy against it. 22Say, ‘The LORD and King says, “ ‘ “Sidon, I am against your people.

Among you I will display my glory.
I will punish your people.
Among you I will prove that I am holy.
Then you will know that I am the LORD.
23I will send a plague on you.
I will make blood flow in your streets.
Those who are killed will fall inside you.
Swords will strike your people on every side.
Then they will know that I am the LORD.

24“ ‘ “The people of Israel will no longer have neighbors who hate them. Those neighbors will not be like sharp and painful thorns anymore. Then Israel will know that I am the LORD and King.” ’ ”

25The LORD and King says, “I will gather the people of Israel together from the nations where they have been scattered. That will prove that I am holy. I will let the nations see it. Then Israel will live in their own land. I gave it to my servant Jacob. [26]My people will live there in safety. They will build houses. They will plant vineyards. They will live in safety. I will punish all their neighbors who told lies about them. Then Israel will know that I am the LORD their God.”

Ezekiel 29

A Prophecy Against Egypt

[1]It was the tenth year since King Jehoiachin had been brought to Babylon as a prisoner. On the 12th day of the tenth month, a message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [2]"Son of man, turn your attention to Pharaoh Hophra. He is king of Egypt. Prophesy against him and the whole land of Egypt. [3]Tell him, 'The LORD and King says, " ' "Pharaoh Hophra, I am against you.

King of Egypt, you are like a huge monster lying among your streams.
You say, 'The Nile River belongs to me.
I made it for myself.'
[4]But I will put hooks in your jaws.
I will make the fish in your streams stick to your scales.
I will pull you out from among your streams.
All the fish will stick to your scales.
[5]I will leave you out in the desert.
All the fish in your streams will be there with you.
You will fall down in an open field.
You will not be picked up.
I will feed you to the wild animals and to the birds in the sky.

[6]Then everyone who lives in Egypt will know that I am the LORD.

" ' "You have been like a walking stick made out of a papyrus stem. The people of Israel tried to lean on you. [7]They took hold of you. But you broke under their weight. You tore open their shoulders. The people of Israel leaned on you. But you snapped in two. And their backs were broken." ' "

[8]So the LORD and King says, "I will send Nebuchadnezzar's sword against you. He will kill people and animals alike. [9]Egypt will become a dry and empty desert. Then your people will know that I am the LORD.

“You said, ‘The Nile River belongs to me. I made it for myself.’ [10]So I am against you and your streams. I will destroy the land of Egypt. I will turn it into a dry and empty desert from Migdol all the way to Aswan. I will destroy everything as far as the border of Cush. [11]No people or animals will travel through Egypt. No one will even live there for 40 years. [12]Egypt will be more empty than any other land. Its destroyed cities will lie empty for 40 years. I will scatter the people of Egypt among the nations. I will send them to other countries.”

[13]But here is what the LORD and King says. “At the end of 40 years I will gather the Egyptians together. I will bring them back from the nations where they were scattered. [14]I will bring them back from where they were taken as prisoners. I will return them to Upper Egypt. That is where their families came from. There they will be an unimportant kingdom. [15]Egypt will be the least important kingdom of all. It will never place itself above the other nations again.
I will make it very weak. Then it will never again rule over the nations. [16]The people of Israel will no longer trust in Egypt. Instead, Egypt will remind them of how they sinned when they turned to it for help. Then they will know that I am the LORD and King.”

[17]It was the 27th year since King Jehoiachin had been brought to Babylon as a prisoner. On the first day of the first month, a message from the LORD came to me. Here is what the LORD said. [18]“Son of man, King Nebuchadnezzar drove his army in a hard military campaign. The campaign was against Tyre. Their helmets rubbed their heads bare. The heavy loads they carried made their shoulders raw. But he and his army did not gain anything from the campaign he led against Tyre. [19]So I am going to give Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. He will carry off its wealth.
He will take away anything else they have. He will give it to his army. [20]I have given Egypt to him as a reward for his efforts. After all, he and his army attacked Egypt because I told them to,” announces the LORD and King.

[21]“When Nebuchadnezzar wins the battle over Egypt, I will make the Israelites strong again. Ezekiel, I will open your mouth. And you will be able to speak to them. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 30

[1]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [2]“Son of man, prophesy. Say, ‘The LORD and King says, “ ‘ “Cry out,

‘A terrible day is coming!’
[3]The day is near.
The day of the LORD is coming.
It will be a cloudy day.
The nations have been sentenced to die.
[4]I will send Nebuchadnezzar’s sword against Egypt.
Cush will suffer terribly.
Many will die in Egypt.
Then its wealth will be carried away.
Its foundations will be torn down.

[5]The people of Cush, Libya, Lydia, Kub and the whole land of Arabia will be killed by swords. So will the Jews who live in Egypt. They went there from the covenant land of Israel. And the Egyptians will die too.” ’ ”

[6]The LORD says,

“Those who were going to help Egypt will die.
The strength Egypt was so proud of will fail.
Its people will be killed by swords from Migdol all the way to Aswan,”
announces the LORD and King.
[7]“Egypt will be more empty than any other land.
Its cities will be completely destroyed.
[8]I will set Egypt on fire.
All those who came to help it will be crushed.
Then they will know that I am the LORD.

[9]“At that time I will send messengers out in ships. They will terrify the people of Cush who are so contented. Cush will suffer greatly when Egypt falls. And you can be sure it will fall.”

[10]The LORD and King says,

"I will put an end to the huge armies of Egypt.
I will use Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, to do this.
[11]He and his armies will attack the land and destroy it.
They will not show its people any pity at all.
They will use their swords against Egypt.
They will fill the land with dead bodies.
[12]I will dry up the waters of the Nile River.
I will sell the land to an evil nation.
I will use the power of outsiders to destroy the land and everything in it.

I have spoken. I am the LORD."

[13]The LORD and King says,

"I will destroy the statues of Egypt's gods.
I will put an end to the gods
the people in Memphis worship.
Egypt will not have princes anymore.
I will spread fear all through the land.
[14]I will completely destroy Upper Egypt.
I will set Zoan on fire.
I will punish Thebes.
[15]I will pour out my burning anger on Pelusium.
It is a fort in eastern Egypt.
I will wipe out the huge army of Thebes.
[16]I will set Egypt on fire.
Pelusium will groan with terrible pain.
Thebes will be ripped apart.
Memphis will suffer greatly because of everything that happens.
[17]The young men of Heliopolis and Bubastis
will be killed by swords.
Their people will be taken away as prisoners.
[18]I will break Egypt's power over other lands.
That will be a dark day for Tahpanhes.

There the strength Egypt was so proud of
will come to an end.
Egypt will be covered with clouds.
The people in its villages
will be taken away as prisoners.
19So I will punish Egypt.
Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

20It was the 11th year since King Jehoiachin had been brought to Babylon as a prisoner. On the seventh day of the first month, a message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, 21“Son of man, I have broken the powerful arm of Pharaoh Hophra, the king of Egypt. No bandages have been put on his arm to heal it. It has not been put in a cast. So his arm will not be strong enough to use a sword. 22I am against Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. I will break both his arms. I will break his healthy arm and his broken one. His sword will fall from his hand. 23I will scatter the people of Egypt among the nations. I will send them to other countries. 24I will make the arms of the king of Babylon stronger. I will put my sword in his hand. But I will break the arms of Pharaoh. And he will groan in front of Nebuchadnezzar. He will cry out like someone dying from his wounds. 25I will make the arms of the king of Babylon stronger. But the arms of Pharaoh will not be able to help Egypt. I will put my sword in Nebuchadnezzar’s hand. He will get ready to use it against Egypt. Then they will know that I am the LORD. 26I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations. I will send them to other countries. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 31

[1]It was the 11th year since King Jehoiachin had been brought to Babylon as a prisoner. On the first day of the third month, a message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [2]“Son of man, speak to Pharaoh Hophra, the king of Egypt. Also speak to his huge army. Tell him,

“ ‘Who can be compared with your majesty?
[3]Think about what happened to Assyria.
Once it was like a cedar tree in Lebanon.
It had beautiful branches that provided shade for the forest.
It grew very high.
Its top was above all the leaves.
[4]The waters fed it.
Deep springs made it grow tall.
Their streams flowed
all around its base.
They made their way
to all the trees in the fields.
[5]So it grew higher than any other tree in the fields.
It grew more limbs.
Its branches grew long.
They spread because they had plenty of water.
[6]All the birds in the sky made their nests in its limbs.
All the wild animals
had their babies under its branches.
All the great nations
lived in its shade.
[7]Its spreading branches made it majestic and beautiful.
Its roots went down deep to where there was plenty of water.
[8]The cedar trees in my garden were no match for it.

The juniper trees
could not equal its limbs.
The plane trees
could not compare with its branches.
No tree in my garden
could match its beauty.
9I gave it many branches.
They made it beautiful.
All the trees in my Garden of Eden were jealous of it.’ ”

10So the LORD and King says, “The great cedar tree grew very high. Its top was above all the leaves. It was proud of how tall it was. 11So I handed it over to the Babylonian ruler of the nations. I wanted him to punish it because it was so evil. I decided to get rid of it. 12The Babylonians cut it down and left it there. They did not show it any pity at all. Some of its branches fell on the mountains. Others fell in all the valleys. The branches lay broken in all the stream beds in the land. All the nations on earth came out from under its shade. And they went on their way. 13All the birds settled on the fallen tree. All the wild animals lived among its branches. 14So trees that receive plenty of water must never grow so high that it makes them proud. Their tops must never be above the rest of the leaves. No other trees that receive a lot of water must ever grow that high. They are appointed to die and go down into the earth below. They will join human beings, who go down to the place of the dead.”

15The LORD and King says, “Assyria was like a cedar tree. But I brought it down to the place of the dead. On that day I dried up the deep springs of water and covered them. I held its streams back. I shut off its rich supply of water. Because of that, Lebanon was dressed in gloom as if it were clothes. All the trees in the fields dried up. 16I brought the cedar tree down to the place of the dead. It joined the other nations that go down there. I made the nations on earth shake because of the sound of its fall. Then all the trees of Eden were comforted in the earth below. That included the finest and best trees in Lebanon. And it included all the trees that received plenty of water. 17Others also went down along with the cedar tree into the place of the dead. They included those who had been killed by swords. They also included the armed men among the nations who lived in its shade.

18“Which one of the trees of Eden can be compared with you? What tree is as glorious and majestic as you are? But you too will be brought down to the earth below. There you will join the trees of Eden. You will lie down with those who have not been circumcised. You will be among those who were killed by swords.

"That is what will happen to Pharaoh and his huge armies," announces the LORD and King.

Ezekiel 32

[1]It was the 12th year since King Jehoiachin had been brought to Babylon as a prisoner. On the first day of the 12th month, a message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [2]"Son of man, sing a song of sadness about Pharaoh Hophra, the king of Egypt. Tell him,

" 'You are like a lion among the nations.
You are like a monster in the sea.
You move around wildly in your rivers.
You churn the water with your feet.
You make the streams muddy.' "

[3]The LORD and King says,

"I will use a large crowd of people to throw my net over you.
They will pull you up in it.
[4]Then I will throw you on the land.
I will toss you into an open field.
I will let all the birds in the sky settle on you.
I will let all the wild animals eat you up.
[5]I will scatter the parts of your body all over the mountains.
I will fill the valleys with your remains.
[6]I will soak the land with your blood.
It will flow all the way to the mountains.
The valleys will be filled with the parts of your body.
[7]When I wipe you out,
I will put a cover over the heavens.
I will darken the stars.
I will cover the sun with a cloud.
The moon will stop shining.
[8]I will darken all the bright lights in the sky above you.
I will bring darkness over your land,"
announces the LORD and King.
[9]"The hearts of many people will be troubled.

That is because I will destroy you among the nations.
You had never known anything about those lands before.
10 Many nations will be shocked when they see what has happened to you.
Their kings will tremble with fear
when they find out about it.
I will get ready to use Nebuchadnezzar
as my sword against them.
On the day you fall from power,
each of the kings will tremble with fear.
Each will be afraid he is the next to die.”

11 The LORD and King says,

“I will send against you
the sword of the king of Babylon.
12 I will destroy your huge army.
They will be killed by the swords of Babylon’s mighty soldiers.
The soldiers will not show them any pity.
They will bring Egypt down in all its pride.
Its huge armies will be thrown down.
13 I will destroy all its cattle from the places where they have plenty of water.
Human feet will never stir up the water again.
The hooves of cattle will not make it muddy anymore.
14 I will let the waters of Egypt settle.
I will make its streams flow like olive oil,”
announces the LORD and King.
15 “I will turn Egypt into an empty land.
I will strip away everything in it.
I will strike down everyone who lives there.
Then they will know that I am the LORD.

16 “That is the song of sadness people will sing about Egypt. Women from other nations will sing it. They will weep over Egypt and its huge armies,” announces the LORD and King.

[17]A message from the LORD came to me. King Jehoiachin had been brought to Babylon as a prisoner. On the 15th day of a month 12 years after that, the message came. The LORD said, [18]“Son of man, weep over the huge army of Egypt. Tell the Egyptians they will go down into the earth below. The women singers from the other mighty nations will go down into the grave along with them and others. [19]Tell them, ‘Are you any better than others? Since you are not, go down there. Lie down with those who have not been circumcised.’ [20]They will fall dead among those who were killed by swords. Nebuchadnezzar is ready to use his sword against them. Let Egypt be dragged off together with its huge armies. [21]The mighty leaders who are already in the place of the dead will talk about Egypt. They will also speak about the nations that were going to help it. They will say, ‘They have come down here. They are lying down with those who had not been circumcised. They are here with those who were killed by swords.’

[22]“Assyria is there with its whole army. Its king is surrounded by the graves of all its people who were killed by swords. [23]Their graves are deep down in the pit. Assyria’s army lies around the grave of its king. All those who spread terror while they were alive are now dead. They were killed by swords.

[24]“Elam is also there. Its huge armies lie around the grave of its king. All those who spread terror while they were alive are now dead. They were killed by swords. They had not been circumcised. They went down into the earth below. Their shame is like the shame of others who go down into the grave. [25]A bed is made for Elam’s king among the dead. His huge armies lie around his grave. They had not been circumcised. They were killed by swords. They had spread terror while they were alive. So now their shame is like the shame of others who go down into the grave. They lie down among the dead.

[26]“Meshek and Tubal are also there. Their huge armies lie around the graves of their kings. None of them had been circumcised. They had spread their terror while they were alive. So they were killed by swords. [27]But they do not lie down with the other dead soldiers of long ago. Those soldiers and their weapons had gone down into the place of the dead. Their swords had been placed under their heads. Their shields rest on their bones. The soldiers of Meshek and Tubal do not lie down with them. This is true even though they had also spread terror while they were alive.

[28]“Pharaoh Hophra, you too will be broken. You will lie down among those who had not been circumcised. You will be there with those who were killed by swords.

[29]“Edom is also there. So are its kings and all its princes. In spite of their power, they lie down with those who were killed by swords. They lie down with those who had not been circumcised. They are there with others who went down into the grave.

[30]“All the princes of the north are there too. So are all the people of Sidon. They went down into the grave in dishonor. While they were alive, they used their power to spread terror. They had never been circumcised. But now they lie down there with those who were killed by swords. Their shame is like the shame of others who go down into the grave.

[31]“Pharaoh and his whole army will see all of them. That will comfort him even though his huge armies were killed by swords.” This is what the LORD and King announces. [32]“I let Pharaoh spread terror while he was alive. But now he and his huge armies will be buried with those who had not been circumcised. They will lie down there with those who were killed by swords,” announces the LORD and King.

Ezekiel 33

The LORD Again Appoints Ezekiel to Warn Israel

[1]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [2]“Son of man, speak to your people. Tell them, ‘Suppose I send enemies against a land. And its people choose one of their men to stand guard. [3]He sees the enemies coming against the land. He blows a trumpet to warn the people. [4]Someone hears the trumpet. But they do not pay any attention to the warning. The enemies come and kill them. Then what happens to them will be their own fault. [5]They heard the sound of the trumpet. But they did not pay any attention to the warning. So what happened to them was their own fault. If they had paid attention, they would have saved themselves. [6]But suppose the guard sees the enemies coming. And he does not blow the trumpet to warn the people. The enemies come and kill one of them. Then their life has been taken away from them because they sinned. But I will hold the guard responsible for their death.’

[7]“Son of man, I have appointed you as a prophet to warn the people of Israel. So listen to my message. Give them a warning from me. [8]Suppose I say to a sinful person, ‘You can be sure that you will die.’ And suppose you do not try to get them to change their ways. Then they will die because they have sinned. And I will hold you responsible for their death. [9]But suppose you do warn that sinful person. You tell them to change their ways. But they do not change. Then they will die because they have sinned. But you will have saved yourself.

[10]“Son of man, speak to the Israelites. Tell them, ‘You are saying, “Our sins and the wrong things we have done weigh us down. We are wasting away because we have sinned so much. So how can we live?” ’ [11]Tell them, ‘When sinful people die, it does not give me any joy. But when they turn away from their sins and live, that makes me very happy. And that is just as sure as I am alive,’ announces the LORD and King. ‘So turn away from your sins! Change your evil ways! Why should you die, people of Israel?’

[12]“Son of man, speak to your people. Tell them, ‘Suppose a godly person does not obey the LORD. Then the right things that person has done in the past count for nothing. Suppose a sinful person turns away from doing wrong things. Then the wrong things that person has done in the past won’t bring them judgment. A godly person who sins won’t be allowed to live. That’s true even though they used to do right things.’ [13]Suppose I tell a godly person that they will live. And they trust in the fact that they used to do what is right. But now they do what is evil. Then I will not remember any of the right things they have done. They will die because they have done so many evil things. [14]Suppose I say to a sinful person, ‘You can be sure you will die.’ And then they turn away from their sin. They do what is fair and right. [15]They return things they take to make sure loans are repaid. They give back what they have stolen. They obey my rules that give life. They do not do what is evil. Then you can be sure they will live. They will not die. [16]None of the sins they have committed will be held against them. They have done what is fair and right. So you can be sure they will live.

[17]“In spite of that, your people say, ‘What the Lord does isn’t fair.’ But it is what you do that is not fair. [18]Suppose a godly person stops doing what is right. And they do what is evil. Then they will die because of it. [19]But suppose a sinful person turns away from the evil things they have done. And they do what is fair and right. Then they will live by doing that. [20]In spite of that, you Israelites say, ‘What the Lord does isn’t fair.’ But I will judge each of you based on how you have lived.”

The LORD Explains Why Jerusalem Fell

[21]It was the 12th year since we had been brought to Babylon as prisoners. On the fifth day of the tenth month, a man who had escaped from Jerusalem came to bring me a report. He said, “The city has fallen!” [22]The evening before the man arrived, the power of the LORD came on me. He opened my mouth before the man came to me in the morning. So my mouth was opened. I was no longer silent.

[23]Then a message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [24]“Son of man, here is what the people living in Israel’s broken-down buildings are saying. ‘Abraham was only one man. But he owned the land. We are many people. The land must certainly belong to us.’ [25]So tell them, ‘The LORD and King says, “You eat meat that still has blood in it. You worship your statues of gods. You commit murder. So should you still possess the land? [26]You depend on your swords. You do things I hate. Each one of you sleeps with your neighbor’s wife. So should you still possess the land?” ’

[27]“Tell them, ‘Here is what the LORD and King says. “The people who are left in those broken-down buildings will be killed by swords. Wild animals will eat up those who are out in the country. Those who are in caves and other safe places will die of a plague. And that is just as sure as I am alive. [28]I will turn the land into a dry and empty desert. The strength Jerusalem is so proud of will come to an end. The mountains of Israel will be deserted. No one will travel across them. [29]So I will turn the land into a dry and empty desert. I will punish my people because of all the evil things they have done. I hate those things. Then they will know that I am the LORD.” ’

[30]“Son of man, your people are talking about you. They are getting together by the walls of their houses and at their doors. They are saying to one another, ‘Come. Listen to the LORD’s message.’ [31]My people come to you, just as they usually do. They sit in front of you. They hear what you say. But they do not put it into practice. With their mouths they say they love me. But in their hearts they want what belongs to others. They try to get rich by cheating them. [32]You are nothing more to them than someone who sings love songs. They say you have a beautiful voice. They think you play an instrument well. They hear what you say. But they do not put it into practice.

[33]“Everything I have told you will come true. You can be sure of it. Then the people will know that a prophet has been among them.”

Ezekiel 34

The LORD Will Be the Shepherd of His People

[1]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [2]“Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Tell them, ‘The LORD and King says, “How terrible it will be for you shepherds of Israel! You only take care of yourselves. You should take good care of your flocks. [3]Instead, you eat the butter. You dress yourselves with the wool. You kill the finest animals. But you do not take care of your flocks. [4]You have not made the weak ones in the flock stronger. You have not healed the sick. You have not bandaged those who are hurt. You have not brought back those who have wandered away. You have not searched for the lost. When you ruled over them, you were mean to them. You treated them badly. [5]So they were scattered because they did not have a shepherd. They became food for all of the wild animals. [6]My sheep wandered all over the mountains and high hills. They were scattered over the whole earth. No one searched for them. No one looked for them.”

[7]“ ‘Shepherds, listen to the LORD’s message. He says, [8]“My flock does not have a shepherd. Many of my sheep have been stolen. They have become food for all the wild animals. My shepherds did not care for my sheep. They did not even search for them. Instead, they only took care of themselves. And that is just as sure as I am alive,” announces the LORD and King. [9]Shepherds, listen to the LORD’s message. [10]The LORD and King says, “I am against the shepherds. I will hold them responsible for my flock. I will stop them from taking care of the flock. Then they will not be able to feed themselves anymore. I will save my flock from their mouths. My sheep will no longer be food for them.” ’ ”

[11]The LORD and King says, “I myself will search for my sheep. I will look after them. [12]A shepherd looks after his scattered flock when he is with them. And I will look after my sheep. I will save them from all the places where they were scattered on a dark and cloudy day. [13]I will bring them out from among the nations. I will gather them together from other countries. I will bring them into their own land. There they will eat grass on the mountains and in the valleys. And they will eat in all the fields of Israel. [14]I will take care of them in the best grasslands. They will eat grass on the highest mountains of Israel. There they will lie down in the finest grasslands. They will eat grass in the best places on Israel’s mountains. [15]I myself will take care of my sheep. I will let them lie down in safety," announces the LORD and King. [16]"I will search for the lost. I will bring back those who have wandered away. I will bandage the ones who are hurt. I will make the weak ones stronger. But I will destroy those who are fat and strong. I will take good care of my sheep. I will treat them fairly."

[17]The LORD and King says, "You are my flock. I will judge between one sheep and another. I will judge between rams and goats. [18]You already eat in the best grasslands. Must you also stomp all over the other fields? You already drink clear water. Must you also make the rest of the water muddy with your feet? [19]Must my flock have to eat the grass you have stomped on? Must they drink the water you have made muddy?"

[20]So the LORD and King speaks to them. He says, "I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the skinny sheep. [21]You push the other sheep around with your hips and shoulders. You use your horns to butt all the weak sheep. Finally, you drive them away. [22]But I will save my sheep. They will not be carried off anymore. I will judge between one sheep and another. [23]I will place one shepherd over them. He will belong to the family line of my servant David. He will take good care of them. He will look after them. He will be their shepherd. [24]I am the LORD. I will be their God. And my servant from David's family line will be the prince among them. I have spoken. I am the LORD.

[25]"I will make a covenant with them. It promises to give them peace. I will get rid of the wild animals in the land. Then my sheep can live safely in the desert. They can sleep in the forests. [26]I will make them and the places surrounding my holy mountain of Zion a blessing. I will send down rain at the right time. There will be showers of blessing. [27]The trees will bear their fruit. And the ground will produce its crops. The people will be secure in their land. I will break the chains that hold them. I will save them from the power of those who made them slaves. Then they will know that I am the LORD. [28]The nations will not carry them off anymore. Wild animals will no longer eat them up. They will live in safety. And no one will make them afraid. [29]I will give them a land that is famous for its crops. They will never again be hungry there. The nations will not make fun of them anymore. [30]Then they will know that I am with them. I am the LORD their God. And the Israelites will know that they are my people," announces the LORD and King. [31]"You are my sheep. You belong to my flock. And I am your God," announces the LORD and King.

Ezekiel 35

A Prophecy Against Edom

[1]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [2]“Son of man, turn your attention to Mount Seir. Prophesy against it. [3]Tell it, ‘The LORD and King says, “Mount Seir, I am against you. I will reach out my powerful hand against you. I will turn you into a dry and empty desert. [4]I will destroy your towns. Your land will become empty. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

[5]“ ‘ “People of Edom, you have been Israel’s enemies for a long time. You let many Israelites be killed by swords when they were in great trouble. At that time I used Nebuchadnezzar to punish them and destroy them completely. [6]Now I will hand you over to murderers. They will hunt you down. You murdered others. So murderers will chase you. And that is just as sure as I am alive,” announces the LORD and King. [7]“I will turn Mount Seir into a dry and empty desert. No one will be able to go anywhere or do anything there. [8]I will fill your mountains with dead bodies. Some of those who are killed by swords will fall down dead on your hills. Others will die in your valleys and in all your canyons. [9]I will make your land empty forever. No one will live in your towns. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

[10]“ ‘ “You said, ‘The nations of Israel and Judah will belong to us. We will take them over.’ You said that, even though I was there. I am the LORD. [11]You were full of anger, jealousy and hatred toward my people. So I will punish you. When I judge you, they will know that I am the LORD. And that is just as sure as I am alive,” announces the LORD and King. [12]“You will know that I have heard all the terrible things you said. You said them about those who live in the mountains of Israel. You made fun of them. You said, ‘They have been destroyed. They’ve been handed over to us. Let’s wipe them out.’ [13]You bragged that you were better than I am. You spoke against me. You did not hold anything back. But I heard it.” ’ ” [14]The LORD and King says, “The whole earth will be glad. But I will make your land empty. [15]You were happy when the land of Israel became empty. So I will treat you in the same way. Mount Seir, you will be empty. So will the whole land of Edom. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 36

A Prophecy of Hope for the Mountains of Israel

[1]“Son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel. Tell them, ‘Mountains of Israel, listen to the LORD’s message. [2]The LORD and King says, “Your enemies made fun of you. They bragged, ‘The hills you lived in for a long time belong to us now.’ ” ’ [3]Ezekiel, prophesy. Say, ‘The LORD and King says, “Your enemies destroyed you. They crushed you from every side. So the rest of the nations took over your land. People talked about you. They told lies about you.” ’ ” [4]Mountains of Israel, listen to the message of the LORD and King. He speaks to you mountains, hills, canyons and valleys. He speaks to you destroyed cities and deserted towns. The rest of the nations around you took away from you everything of value. They made fun of you. [5]So the LORD and King says, “I am very angry with those nations. I have spoken against them and the whole land of Edom. They were very happy when they took over my land. Deep down inside them, they hated Israel. They wanted to take its grasslands. [6]Ezekiel, prophesy about the land of Israel. Speak to the mountains, hills, canyons and valleys. Tell them, ‘The LORD and King says, “I have a jealous anger against the nations. They have laughed at you.” [7]So the LORD and King says, “I raise my hand and make a promise. I promise that the nations around you will also be laughed at.

[8]“ ‘ “Mountains of Israel, you will produce branches and bear fruit for my people Israel. They will come home soon. [9]I am concerned about you. I will do good things for you. Farmers will plow your ground. They will plant seeds in it. [10]I will cause many people to live in Israel. The towns will no longer be empty. Their broken-down houses will be rebuilt. [11]I will cause many people and animals to live in you, Israel. They will have many babies. I will cause people to make their homes in your towns, just as I did in the past. I will help you succeed more than ever before. Then you will know that I am the LORD. [12]I will let my people Israel live there again. They will possess you. They will receive you as their own. You will never take their children away from them again.” ’ ”

[13]The LORD and King says, “People say to you mountains, ‘You destroy people. You let your nation’s children be taken away.’ [14]But I will not let you destroy people anymore. I will no longer let your nation’s children be taken away,” announces the LORD and King. [15]“You will not have to listen to the nations laughing at you anymore. People will no longer make fun of you. You will not let your nation fall," announces the LORD and King.

Israel Will Surely Be Rebuilt

16Another message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, 17"Son of man, the people of Israel used to live in their own land. But they made it 'unclean' because of how they acted and the way they lived. To me they were 'unclean' like a woman having her monthly period. 18They spilled people's blood in the land. They made the land 'unclean' by worshiping other gods. So I poured out my great anger on them. 19I scattered them among the nations. I sent them to other countries. I judged them based on how they acted and on how they lived. 20They treated my name as if it were not holy. They did it everywhere they went among the nations. People said about them, 'They are the LORD's people.
But they were forced to leave his land.' 21I was concerned about my holy name.
The people of Israel treated it as if it were not holy. They did it everywhere they went among the nations.

22"So tell the Israelites, 'The LORD and King speaks. He says, "People of Israel, I will not take action for your benefit. Instead, I will act for the honor of my holy name. You have treated it as if it were not holy. You did it everywhere you went among the nations. 23But I will show everyone how holy my great name is. You have treated it as if it were not holy. So I will use you to prove to the nations how holy I am. Then they will know that I am the LORD,"
announces the LORD and King.

24" ' "I will take you out of the nations. I will gather you together from all the countries. I will bring you back into your own land. 25I will sprinkle pure water on you. Then you will be 'clean.' I will make you completely pure and 'clean.' I will take all the statues of your gods away from you. 26I will give you new hearts. I will give you a new spirit that is faithful to me. I will remove your stubborn hearts from you. I will give you hearts that obey me. 27I will put my Spirit in you. I will make you want to obey my rules. I want you to be careful to keep my laws. 28Then you will live in the land I gave your people of long ago.
You will be my people. And I will be your God. 29I will save you from all your 'uncleanness.' I will give you plenty of grain. You will have more than enough.
So you will never be hungry again. 30I will multiply the fruit on your trees. I will increase the crops in your fields. Then the nations will no longer make fun of you because you are hungry. 31You will remember your evil ways and the sinful things you have done. You will hate yourselves because you have sinned so much. I also hate your evil practices. [32]I want you to know that I am not doing those things for your benefit," announces the LORD and King. "People of Israel, you should be ashamed of yourselves! Your conduct has brought dishonor to you." ' "

[33]The LORD and King says, "I will make you pure from all your sins. On that day I will give you homes in your towns again. Your broken-down houses will be rebuilt. [34]The dry and empty land will be farmed again. Everyone who passes through it will see that it is no longer empty. [35]They will say, 'This land was completely destroyed. But now it's like the Garden of Eden. The cities were full of broken-down buildings. They were destroyed and empty. But now they have high walls around them. And people live in them.' [36]Then the nations that remain around you will know that I have rebuilt what was once destroyed. I have planted again the fields that were once empty. I have spoken. And I will do this. I am the LORD."

[37]The LORD and King says, "Once again I will answer Israel's prayer. Here is what I will do for them. I will multiply them as if they were sheep. [38]Large flocks of animals are sacrificed at Jerusalem during the appointed feasts there. In the same way, the destroyed cities will be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

Ezekiel 37

The Valley of Dry Bones

[1]The power of the LORD came on me. His Spirit brought me away from my home. He put me down in the middle of a valley. It was full of bones. [2]He led me back and forth among them. I saw a huge number of bones in the valley. The bones were very dry. [3]The LORD asked me, “Son of man, can these bones live?”

I said, “LORD and King, you are the only one who knows.”

[4]Then he said to me, “Prophesy to these bones. Tell them, ‘Dry bones, listen to the LORD’s message. [5]The LORD and King speaks to you. He says, “I will put breath in you. Then you will come to life again. [6]I will attach tendons to you.
I will put flesh on you. I will cover you with skin. So I will put breath in you.
And you will come to life again. Then you will know that I am the LORD.” ’ ”

[7]So I prophesied just as the LORD commanded me to. As I was prophesying, I heard a noise. It was a rattling sound. The bones came together. One bone connected itself to another. [8]I saw tendons and flesh appear on them. Skin covered them. But there was no breath in them.

[9]Then the LORD said to me, “Prophesy to the breath. Prophesy, son of man.
Tell it, ‘The LORD and King says, “Breath, come from all four directions. Go into these people who have been killed. Then they can live.” ’ ” [10]So I prophesied just as he commanded me to. And breath entered them. Then they came to life again. They stood up on their feet. They were like a huge army.

[11]Then the LORD said to me, “Son of man, these bones stand for all the people of Israel. The people say, ‘Our bones are dried up. We’ve lost all hope.
We are destroyed.’ [12]So prophesy. Tell them, ‘The LORD and King says, “My people, I am going to open up your graves. I am going to bring you out of them.
I will take you back to the land of Israel. [13]So I will open up your graves and bring you out of them. Then you will know that I am the LORD. You are my people. [14]I will put my Spirit in you. And you will live again. I will settle you in your own land. Then you will know that I have spoken. I have done it,”
announces the LORD.’ ”

Israel Will Be One Nation Under One King

[15]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [16]“Son of man, get a stick of wood. Write on it, ‘Belonging to the tribe of Judah and the Israelites who are connected with it.’ Then get another stick. Write on it, ‘Ephraim’s stick. Belonging to the tribes of Joseph and all the Israelites connected with them.’ [17]Join them together into one stick in your hand.

[18]“Your people will ask you, ‘What do you mean by this?’ [19]Tell them, ‘The LORD and King says, “I am going to get the stick of Joseph and the Israelites connected with it. That stick is in Ephraim’s hand. I am going to join it to Judah’s stick. I will make them a single stick of wood in my hand.” ’ [20]Show them the sticks you wrote on. [21]Tell them, ‘The LORD and King says, “I will take the Israelites out of the nations where they have gone. I will gather them together from all around. I will bring them back to their own land. [22]There I will make them one nation. They will live on the mountains of Israel. All of them will have one king. They will never be two nations again. They will never again be separated into two kingdoms. [23]They will no longer make themselves ‘unclean’ by worshiping any of their evil gods. They will not do wrong things anymore. They always turn away from me. But I will save them from that sin. I will make them pure and ‘clean.’ They will be my people. And I will be their God.

[24]“ ‘ “A man who belongs to the family line of my servant David will be their king. All of them will have one shepherd. They will obey my laws. And they will be careful to keep my rules. [25]They will live in the land I gave to my servant Jacob. That is where your people of long ago lived. They, their children, their children’s children, and their children after them will live there forever. And my servant from David’s family line will be their prince forever. [26]I will make a covenant with them. It promises to give them peace. The covenant will last forever. I will make them my people. And I will cause there to be many of them. I will put my temple among them forever. [27]I will live with them. I will be their God. And they will be my people. [28]My temple will be among them forever. Then the nations will know that I make Israel holy. I am the LORD.” ’ ”

Ezekiel 38

The LORD Will Have Great Victory Over the Nations

[1]A message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [2]“Son of man, turn your attention to Gog. He is from the land of Magog. He is the chief prince of Meshek and Tubal. Prophesy against him. [3]Tell him, ‘The LORD and King says, “Gog, I am against you. You are the chief prince of Meshek and Tubal. [4]But I will turn you around. I will put hooks in your jaws. I will bring you out of your land along with your whole army. Your horses will come with you. Your horsemen will be completely armed. Your huge army will carry large and small shields. All of them will be ready to use their swords. [5]The men of Persia, Cush and Put will march out with them. All of them will have shields and helmets.
[6]Gomer and all its troops will be there too. Beth Togarmah from the far north will also come with all its troops. Many nations will help you.

[7]“ ‘ “Get ready. Be prepared. Take command of the huge armies gathered around you. [8]After many years you will be called together to fight. Later, you will march into a land that has not had war for a while. Its people were gathered together from many nations. They came to the mountains of Israel. No one had lived in those mountains for a long time. So the people had been brought back from other nations. Now all the people live in safety. [9]You, all your troops and the many nations with you will march up to attack them. All of you will advance like a storm. You will be like a cloud covering their land.”

[10]“ ‘The LORD and King says, “At that time some ideas will come to you.
You will make evil plans. [11]You will say, ‘I will march out against a land whose villages don’t have walls around them. I’ll attack those peaceful people. I’ll do this when they aren’t expecting it. None of their villages has walls or gates with metal bars on them. [12]I will rob those people. I’ll steal everything they have.
Then I’ll turn my attention to the destroyed houses where people are living again. They have returned there from other nations. Now they are rich. They have plenty of livestock and all kinds of goods. They are living in Israel. It is the center of the earth.’ [13]The people of Sheba and Dedan will speak to you. So will the traders of Tarshish and all its villages. They will say, ‘Have you come to rob us? Have you gathered your huge army together to steal our silver and gold? Are you going to take away from us our livestock and goods? Do you plan to carry off everything we have?’ ” ’

[14]“Son of man, prophesy. Tell Gog, ‘The LORD and King says, “A time is coming when my people Israel will be living in safety. You will see that it is a good time to attack them. [15]So you will come from your place in the far north.
Many nations will join you. All their men will be riding on horses. You will have a huge and mighty army. [16]They will advance against my people Israel. They will be like a cloud covering their land. Gog, in days to come I will bring you against my land. Then the nations will know me. I will use you to prove to them how holy I am.”

[17]“ ‘Here is what the LORD and King says to Gog. “In the past I spoke about you through my servants, the prophets of Israel. At that time they prophesied for years that I would bring you against them. [18]Here is what will happen in days to come. You will attack the land of Israel. That will stir up my burning anger,” announces the LORD and King. [19]“At that time my burning anger will blaze out at you. There will be a great earthquake in the land of Israel. [20]The fish in the sea, the birds in the sky and the wild animals will tremble with fear. They will tremble with fear because of what I will do. So will every creature that moves along the ground. And so will all the people on earth. The mountains will come crashing down. The cliffs will break into pieces. Every wall will fall to the ground. [21]I will punish you on all my mountains,” announces the LORD and King. “Your men will use their swords against one another. [22]I will judge you. I will send a plague against you. A lot of blood will be spilled. I will send heavy rain, hailstones and burning sulfur down to the earth. They will fall on you and your troops. They will also come down on the many nations that are helping you.
[23]That will show how great and holy I am. I will make myself known to many nations. Then they will know that I am the LORD.” ’

Ezekiel 39

[1]“Son of man, prophesy against Gog. Tell him, ‘The LORD and King says, “Gog, I am against you. You are the chief prince of Meshek and Tubal. [2]But I will turn you around. I will drag you along. I will bring you from the far north. I will send you against the mountains of Israel. [3]Then I will knock your bow out of your left hand. I will make your arrows drop from your right hand. [4]You will fall dead on the mountains of Israel. You and all your troops will die there. So will the nations that join you. I will feed you to all kinds of birds that eat dead bodies. So they and the wild animals will eat you up. [5]You will fall dead in the open fields. I have spoken,” announces the LORD and King. [6]“I will send fire on the land of Magog. It will burn up the people who live in safety on the coast. So they will know that I am the LORD.

[7]“ ‘ “I will make my holy name known among my people Israel. I will no longer let them treat my name as if it were not holy. Then the nations will know that I am the Holy One in Israel. I am the LORD. [8]The day I will judge you is coming. You can be sure of it,” announces the LORD and King. “It is the day I have spoken about.

[9]“ ‘ “At that time those who live in the towns of Israel will go out and light a fire. They will use it to burn up the weapons. That includes small and large shields. It also includes bows and arrows, war clubs and spears. It will take seven years to burn all of them up. [10]People will not gather wood from the fields.
They will not cut down the forests. Instead, they will burn the weapons. And they will rob those who robbed them. They will steal from those who stole from them,” announces the LORD and King.

[11]“ ‘ “Gog, at that time I will bury you in a grave in Israel. It will be in the valley where people travel east of the Dead Sea. It will block the path of travelers. That’s because you and your huge armies will be buried there. So it will be called the Valley of Gog’s Armies.

[12]“ ‘ “It will take seven months for the Israelites to bury the bodies. They will do this to make the land ‘clean’ again. [13]All the people in the land will bury them. The day that I show how glorious I am will be a time to remember.” This is what the LORD and King announces. [14]“People will keep being hired to make the land ‘clean’ again. They will go all through it. They and others will bury any bodies lying on the ground.

“ ‘ “After the seven months they will search even more carefully. [15]As they go through the land here is what they'll do. When anyone sees a bone, they will put a marker beside it. Then those who dig the graves will take the bone to the Valley of Gog's Armies. There they will bury it. [16]That is how they will make the land 'clean' again." ' " Also a town called Gog's Armies is near there.

[17]The LORD and King said to me, "Son of man, speak to every kind of bird. Call out to all the wild animals. Tell them, 'Gather together. Come from everywhere. Gather around the sacrifice I am preparing for you. It is the great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel. There you will eat human bodies and drink human blood. [18]You will eat the bodies of mighty men. You will drink the blood of the princes of the earth. You will eat their bodies and drink their blood. You will do this as if they were rams and lambs, goats and bulls. You will enjoy it as if you were eating the fattest animals from Bashan. [19]So I am preparing a sacrifice for you. You will eat fat until you are completely full. You will drink blood until you are drunk. [20]At my table you will eat horses, riders, mighty men and soldiers until you are full,' announces the LORD and King.

[21]" 'I will show all the nations my glory. They will see how I punish them when I use my power against them. [22]From that time on, the people of Israel will know that I am the LORD their God. [23]The nations will know that the people of Israel were taken away as prisoners because they sinned against me. They were not faithful to me. So I turned my face away from them. I handed them over to their enemies. All of them were killed by swords. [24]I punished them because they were "unclean." They did many things that were wrong. So I turned my face away from them.' "

[25]The LORD and King says, "I will now cause the people of Jacob to recover from my judgment. I will show my tender love for all the people of Israel. I will make sure that my name is kept holy. [26]My people will forget the shameful things they have done. They will not remember all the ways they were unfaithful to me. They used to live in safety in their land. At that time no one made them afraid. [27]So I will bring them back from the nations. I will gather them from the countries of their enemies. And I will use them to prove to many nations how holy I am. [28]Then they will know that I am the LORD their God. I let the nations take my people away as prisoners. But now I will bring them back to their own land. I will not leave anyone behind. [29]I will no longer turn my face away from the people of Israel. I will pour out my Spirit on them," announces the LORD and King.

Ezekiel 40

The New Temple Area

[1]It was the 14th year after Jerusalem had been captured. We had been brought to Babylon as prisoners. It was the tenth day of a month near the beginning of the 25th year after that. On that day the power of the LORD came on me. He took me back to my land. [2]In visions God gave me, he brought me to the land of Israel. He set me on a very high mountain. Some buildings were on the south side of it. They looked like a city. [3]He took me there. I saw a man who appeared to be made out of bronze. He was standing at the gate of the outer courtyard. He was holding a linen measuring tape and a measuring rod. [4]The man said to me, "Son of man, look carefully and listen closely. Pay attention to everything I show you. That is why the LORD brought you here. Tell the people of Israel everything you see."

The East Gate to the Outer Courtyard

[5]I saw a wall that completely surrounded the temple area. The measuring rod in the man's hand was 11 feet long. He measured the wall with it. The wall was as thick and as high as one measuring rod.

[6]Then the man went to the east gate. He climbed its steps. He measured the gateway. It was one rod wide. [7]The rooms where the guards stood were one rod long and one rod wide. The walls between the rooms were almost nine feet thick. The gateway next to the porch was one rod wide. The porch faced the front of the temple.

[8]Then the man measured the porch of the gateway. [9]It was 14 feet wide. Each of its doorposts was three and a half feet thick. The porch of the gateway faced the front of the temple.

[10]Inside the east gate were three rooms on each side. All the rooms were the same size. The walls on each side of the rooms had the same thickness. [11]Then the man measured the entrance of the gateway. It was 18 feet wide and 23 feet long. [12]In front of each room was a wall. It was 21 inches high. The rooms measured 11 feet on each side. [13]Then he measured the gateway from the back wall of one room to the back wall of the room across from it. It was 44 feet from the top of one wall to the top of the other. [14]He measured along the front of the side walls all around the inside of the gateway. The total was 105 feet. That didn’t include the porch that faced the courtyard. [15]It was 88 feet from the entrance of the gateway to the far end of its porch. [16]The rooms and their side walls inside the gateway had narrow openings on top of them. So did the porch. All the openings faced the inside. The front of each side wall was decorated with a palm tree.

The Outer Courtyard

[17]Then the man brought me into the outer courtyard. There I saw some rooms and a sidewalk. They had been built all around the courtyard. Along the sidewalk were 30 rooms. [18]The sidewalk went all the way up to the sides of the gateways. It was as wide as they were long. This was the lower sidewalk. [19]Then he measured from the inside of the lower gateway to the outside of the inner courtyard. The east side measured 175 feet. So did the north side.

The North Gate

[20]Then the man measured the north gate. He wanted to show me how long and wide it was. The gate led into the outer courtyard. [21]It had three rooms on each side. Their side walls and porch measured the same as the ones at the first gateway. They measured 88 feet long and 44 feet wide. [22]Its openings, porch and palm tree decorations measured the same as the ones at the east gate. Seven steps led up to the north gate. Its porch was across from them. [23]The inner courtyard had a gate. It faced the gate on the north. It was just like the east gate. He measured from one gate to the one across from it. The total was 175 feet.

The South Gate

[24]Then the man led me to the south side of the courtyard. There I saw the south gate. He measured its doorposts and porch. They measured the same as the others. [25]The gateway and its porch had narrow openings all around. The openings were the same as the others had. The side walls and porch measured 88 feet long and 44 feet wide. [26]Seven steps led up to it. Its porch was across from them. The front of each side wall was decorated with a palm tree. [27]The inner courtyard also had a gate that faced south. The man measured from this gate to the outer gate on the south side. The total was 175 feet.

The Gates to the Inner Courtyard

[28]Then the man brought me into the inner courtyard. We went through the south gate. He measured it. It was the same size as the others. [29]Its rooms, side walls and porch measured the same as the ones at the other gateways. The gateway and its porch had openings all around. The side walls and porch measured 88 feet long and 44 feet wide. [30]The porches of the gateways around the inner courtyard were 44 feet wide and nine feet long. [31]Its porch faced the outer courtyard. Palm trees decorated its doorposts. Eight steps led up to it.

[32]Then the man brought me to the east side of the inner courtyard. There he measured the gateway. It was the same size as the others. [33]Its rooms, side walls and porch measured the same as the ones at the other gateways. The gateway and its porch had openings all around. The side walls and porch measured 88 feet long and 44 feet wide. [34]Its porch faced the outer courtyard. Each doorpost was decorated with a palm tree. Eight steps led up to the porch.

[35]Then the man brought me to the north gate. He measured it. It was the same size as the others. [36]Its rooms, side walls and porch measured the same as the ones at the other gateways. It had openings all around. The side walls and the porch measured 88 feet long and 44 feet wide. [37]The porch faced the outer courtyard. Each doorpost was decorated with a palm tree. Eight steps led up to the porch.

The Rooms for Preparing Sacrifices

[38]A room with a doorway was by the porch of each inner gateway. The burnt offerings were washed there. [39]On each side of the porch of the gateway were two tables. The burnt offerings were killed on them. So were the sin offerings and guilt offerings. [40]Two more tables were by the outer wall of the gateway porch. They were near the steps at the entrance of the north gateway. Two more tables were on the other side of the steps. [41]So there were four tables on each side of the gateway. The total number of tables was eight. Animals for sacrifice were killed on all of them. [42]There were also four other tables for the burnt offerings. They were made out of blocks of stone. Each table was two and a half feet long and two and a half feet wide. And each was almost two feet high. The tools for killing the burnt offerings and other sacrifices were placed on them. [43]Large hooks hung on the walls all around. Each was three inches long. The meat of the offerings was placed on the tables.

The Rooms for the Priests

[44]Near the inner gates were two rooms. They were in the inner courtyard. One room was next to the north gate. It faced south. The other one was next to the south gate. It faced north. [45]The man said to me, “The room that faces south is for the priests who guard the temple. [46]The one that faces north is for the priests who guard the altar. All these priests are the sons of Zadok. They are the only Levites who can approach the LORD to serve him.”

[47]Then the man measured the courtyard. It was square. It measured 175 feet long and 175 feet wide. And the altar was in front of the temple.

The New Temple

[48]The man brought me to the porch of the temple. He measured the doorposts of the porch. Each of them was almost nine feet wide. The entrance was 24 and a half feet wide. Each of the side walls was a little over five feet wide. [49]The porch was 35 feet wide. It was 21 feet from front to back. It was reached by some stairs. Pillars were on each side of the doorposts.

Ezekiel 41

[1]Then the man brought me to the main hall. There he measured the doorposts. Each of them was 11 feet wide. [2]The entrance was 18 feet wide. Each of its side walls was almost nine feet wide. He also measured the main hall. It was 70 feet long and 35 feet wide.

[3]Then he went into the Most Holy Room. There he measured the doorposts at the entrance. Each one of them was three and a half feet wide. The entrance itself was 11 feet wide. Each of its side walls was a little over 12 feet wide. [4]He also measured the Most Holy Room. It was 35 feet long and 35 feet wide. He said to me, “This is the Most Holy Room.” It was beyond the back wall of the main hall.

[5]Then the man measured the wall of the temple. It was 11 feet thick. Each side room around the temple was seven feet wide. [6]The side rooms were on three floors. There were 30 rooms on each floor. Ledges had been built all around the wall of the temple. So the floor beams of the side rooms rested on the ledges. The beams didn’t go into the temple wall. [7]The side rooms of the temple were wider as we went up floor by floor. A stairway went from the lowest floor all the way up to the top floor. It passed through the middle floor.

[8]I saw that the temple had a raised base all around it. The base formed the foundation of the side rooms. It was as long as one measuring rod. So it was 11 feet long. [9]The outer wall of each side room was almost nine feet thick. The open area between the side rooms of the temple [10]and the priests’ rooms was 35 feet wide. It went all around the temple. [11]The side rooms had entrances from the open area. One was on the north side. Another was on the south. The base next to the open area was almost nine feet wide all around.

[12]There was a large building right behind the temple. It was on the west side of the outer courtyard. It was 123 feet wide. Its wall was almost nine feet thick all around. And it was 158 feet long.

[13]Then the man measured the temple. It was 175 feet long. The open area and the large building behind the temple also measured 175 feet. [14]The east side of the inner courtyard was 175 feet wide. That included the front of the temple.

[15]Then the man measured the building that was on the west side of the outer courtyard. It was behind the temple. It was 175 feet long. That included the walkways of the building on each side.

The main hall and the Most Holy Room were covered with wood. [16]And the porch that faced the inner courtyard was covered with wood. So were the gateways, narrow openings and walkways around these three places. The gateways and everything beyond them were covered with wood. The floor, the wall up to the openings, and the openings themselves were also covered. [17]The area above the outside of the entrance to the Most Holy Room was decorated. There were also decorations all around the walls of the Most Holy Room. [18]Carved cherubim and palm trees were used in the decorations. Each cherub had a palm tree next to it. And each palm tree had a cherub next to it. Each cherub had two faces. [19]One was the face of a human being. It looked toward the palm tree on one side. The other was the face of a lion. It looked toward the palm tree on the other side. The decorations were carved all around the whole temple. [20]Cherubim and palm trees decorated the wall of the main hall. They were carved from the floor all the way up to the area above the entrance.

[21]The main hall had a doorframe shaped like a rectangle. So did the Most Holy Room. [22]A wooden altar stood in the main hall. It was a little over five feet high. It was three and a half feet long and three and a half feet wide. Its corners, base and sides were made out of wood. The man said to me, “This is the table that stands in front of the LORD.” [23]The main hall had double doors. So did the Most Holy Room. [24]Each door had two parts that could swing back and forth. [25]Cherubim and palm trees were carved on the doors of the main hall. The decorations were like the ones on the walls. A wooden roof went out beyond the front of the porch. [26]The side walls of the porch had narrow openings on top of them. Palm trees were carved on each side. A wooden roof went out beyond the entrance to each side room of the temple.

Ezekiel 42

The Rooms for the Priests

[1]Then the man led me north into the outer courtyard of the temple. He brought me to the rooms that were across from the inner courtyard. They were across from the outer wall of the temple on the north side. [2]The rooms were in a building north of the temple. The building had a door that faced north. It was 175 feet long. It was 88 feet wide. [3]One row of rooms was next to the inner courtyard. The other row was across from the sidewalk of the outer courtyard.
Each room was 35 feet long. Walkways in front of each row faced each other on all three floors. [4]Between the two rows was an inner sidewalk. It was 18 feet wide and 175 feet long. Each of the rooms had a door on the north side. [5]The rooms on the top floor were narrower than the others. The walkways took up more space from these rooms. The walkways took up less space from the rooms on the other two floors. [6]The courtyards had pillars. But the rooms on the top floor didn't. So their floor space was smaller than the space in the rooms on the other floors. [7]The building had an outer wall. It was even with the outer row of rooms and with the outer courtyard. The wall continued east of the outer row for 88 feet. [8]So there were two rows of rooms. The row next to the outer courtyard was 88 feet long. The one closest to the temple was 175 feet long. [9]The first floor of the building had an entrance on the east side. It led to the outer courtyard.

[10]There were also two rows of rooms in a building next to the south side of the inner courtyard. The building was across from the south wall of the outer courtyard. [11]Between the two rows was an inner sidewalk. The rooms were like the ones in the north building. They were as long and wide as the rooms on the north. The doorways of the rooms on the south were like the ones on the north.
[12]People entered the south rooms through the doorway at the east end of the inner sidewalk. The south wall continued east of the outer row of rooms.

[13]The man said to me, "The north and south rooms face the inner courtyard.
They are the priests' rooms. That is where the priests who approach the LORD will eat the very holy offerings. They will also store them there. That includes the grain offerings, sin offerings and guilt offerings. This place is holy. [14]The priests who enter these holy rooms must leave behind the clothes they served in.
Then they can go into the outer courtyard. The clothes they served in are holy.

So the priests must put other clothes on. They have to do that before they go near the places where other people go.”

15The man finished measuring what was inside the temple area. Then he led me out through the east gate. He measured all around the area. 16He measured the east side with his measuring rod. It was 875 feet long. 17He measured the north side. It was 875 feet long. 18He measured the south side. It was 875 feet long. 19Finally, he turned and measured the west side. It was 875 feet long. 20So he measured the area on all four sides. It had a wall around it. The wall was 875 feet long and 875 feet wide. It separated what was holy from what was not.

Ezekiel 43

The Glory of God Returns to the Temple

[1]Then the man brought me to the east gate. [2]There I saw the glory of the God of Israel. He was coming from the east. His voice was like the roar of rushing waters. His glory made the land shine brightly. [3]The vision I saw was like the one I had when he came to destroy the city. It was also like the visions I had seen by the Kebar River. I fell with my face toward the ground. [4]The glory of the LORD entered the temple through the east gate. [5]Then the Spirit lifted me up.
He brought me into the inner courtyard. The glory of the LORD filled the temple.

[6]The man was standing beside me. I heard someone speaking to me from inside the temple. [7]He said, “Son of man, this is the place where my throne is.
The stool for my feet is also here. I will live here among the people of Israel forever. They will never again treat my name as if it were not holy. They and their kings will not serve other gods anymore. The people will no longer make funeral offerings for their kings. [8]The people of Israel placed their own doorway next to my holy doorway. They put their doorposts right beside mine. Nothing but a thin wall separated us. They treated my name as if it were not holy. I hated it when they did that. So I became angry with them and destroyed them. [9]Now let them stop serving other gods. Let them stop making funeral offerings for their kings. If they obey me, I will live among them forever.

[10]“Son of man, tell the people of Israel about the temple. Then they will be ashamed of their sins. Let them think carefully about how perfect it is. [11]What if they are ashamed of everything they have done? Then show them all the plans of the temple. Explain to them how it is laid out. Tell them about its exits and entrances. Show them exactly what it will look like. Give them all its rules and laws. Write everything down so they can see it. Then they will be faithful to its plan. And they will obey all its rules.

[12]“Here is the law of the temple. The whole area on top of Mount Zion will be very holy. That is the law of the temple.”

The Great Altar Is Rebuilt

[13]The man said, “Here is the size of the altar. The standard measurement I am using is 21 inches. The altar has a drain on the ground. The drain is 21 inches deep and 21 inches wide. It has a rim that is nine inches wide around the edge. Here is how high the altar is. [14]From the drain to the lower ledge is three and a half feet. The lower ledge goes around the altar and is 21 inches wide. From the lower ledge to the upper ledge is seven feet. The upper ledge also goes around the altar and is 21 inches wide. [15]The top part of the altar is where the sacrifices are burned. It is seven feet high. A horn sticks out from each of its four corners. [16]The top part of the altar is square. It is 21 feet long and 21 feet wide. [17]The upper ledge is also square. It is 25 feet long and 25 feet wide. The drain goes all the way around the altar. The rim of the drain is 11 inches wide. The steps leading up to the top of the altar face east."

[18]Then the man said to me, "Son of man, the LORD and King speaks. He says, 'Here are the rules for the altar when it is built. Follow them when you sacrifice burnt offerings and splash blood against it. [19]Give a young bull to the priests as a sin offering. They are Levites from the family of Zadok. They approach me to serve me,' announces the LORD and King. [20]'Get some of the bull's blood. Put it on the four horns of the altar. Also put it on the four corners of the upper ledge of the altar and all around the rim. That will make the altar pure and "clean." [21]Use the bull for the sin offering. Burn it in the proper place outside the temple.

[22]" 'On the second day offer a male goat. It must not have any flaws. It is a sin offering to make the altar pure and "clean." So do the same thing with the goat that you did with the bull. [23]When you finish making the altar pure, offer a young bull and a ram from the flock. They must not have any flaws. [24]Offer them to me. The priests must sprinkle salt on them. Then they must sacrifice them as a burnt offering to me.

[25]" 'Provide a male goat each day for seven days. It is a sin offering. Also provide a young bull and a ram from the flock. They must not have any flaws. [26]For seven days the priests must make the altar pure and "clean." That is how they will set it apart to me. [27]From the eighth day on, the priests must bring your burnt offerings and friendship offerings. They must sacrifice them on the altar. Then I will accept you,' announces the LORD and King."

Ezekiel 44

The Priesthood Will Be Established Again

[1]Then the man brought me back to the outer gate of the temple. It was the one that faced east. It was shut. [2]The LORD said to me, “This gate must remain shut.
It must not be opened. No one can enter through it. It must remain shut because I have entered through it. I am the God of Israel. [3]The prince is the only one who can sit in the gateway. There he can eat in front of me. He must enter through the porch of the gateway. And he must go out the same way.”

[4]Then the man brought me through the north gate. He took me to the front of the temple. I looked up and saw the glory of the LORD. It filled his temple. I fell with my face toward the ground.

[5]The LORD said to me, “Son of man, pay attention. Look carefully. Listen closely to everything I tell you. I’m telling you about all the rules and instructions concerning my temple. Pay attention to the entrance to the temple and to all its exits. [6]Speak to the people of Israel. They refuse to obey me. Tell them, ‘Here is what the LORD and King says. “People of Israel, I have had enough of your evil practices. I hate them. [7]You brought outsiders into my temple. They were not circumcised. Their hearts were stubborn. You made my temple ‘unclean.’ But you offered me food, fat and blood anyway. When you did all these things, you broke the covenant I made with you. I hated all the evil things you did. [8]You did not do what I told you to. You did not take care of my holy things. Instead, you put other people in charge of my temple.” ’ ” [9]The LORD and King says, “No outsider whose heart is stubborn can enter my temple. They have not been circumcised. Even if they live among the people of Israel they can’t enter my temple.

[10]“Some Levites wandered far away from me when Israel went astray. They worshiped the statues of their gods. So they will be punished because they have sinned. [11]They might serve in my temple. They might be in charge of its gates.
They might kill the burnt offerings and sacrifices for the people. And they might stand in front of the people and serve them in other ways. [12]But these Levites served the people of Israel. They served while the Israelites were worshiping the statues of their gods. They made the people fall into sin. So I raised my hand and made a promise. I warned them that I would punish them because of their sin,” announces the LORD and King. [13]“They must not approach me to serve me as priests. They must not come near any of my holy things. They must stay away from my very holy offerings. They did many things they should have been ashamed of. I hated those things. 14But I will still appoint them to guard the temple. They will guard it for all the work that has to be done there.

15"But the priests must approach me to serve me. They are Levites from Zadok's family line. They guarded my temple when the people of Israel turned away from me. These priests must serve me by offering sacrifices of fat and blood," announces the LORD and King. 16"They are the only ones who can enter my temple. Only they can come near to serve me as guards.

17"They will enter the gates of the inner courtyard. When they do, they must wear linen clothes. They will serve at the gates of the inner courtyard or inside the temple. When they do, they must not wear any clothes made out of wool. 18They must have linen turbans on their heads. They must wear linen underwear around their waists. They must not wear anything that makes them sweat. 19They will go into the outer courtyard where the people are. When they do, they must take off the clothes they have been serving in. They must leave them in the sacred rooms. And they must put other clothes on. Then the people will not be made holy if they happen to touch the priests' clothes.

20"The priests must not shave their heads. They must not let their hair grow long. They must keep it cut short. 21No priest may drink wine when he enters the inner courtyard. 22They must not get married to widows or divorced women. They may only marry Israelite virgins or the widows of priests. 23The priests must teach my people the difference between what is holy and what is not. They must show them how to tell the difference between what is 'clean' and what is not.

24"When people do not agree, the priests must serve as judges between them. They must make their decisions based on my laws. They must obey my laws and rules for all my appointed feasts. And they must keep my Sabbath days holy.

25"A priest must not make himself 'unclean' by going near a dead person. But suppose the dead person was his father or mother. Or suppose it was his son or daughter or brother or unmarried sister. Then the priest may make himself 'unclean.' 26After he is pure and 'clean' again, he must wait seven days. 27Then he may go to the inner courtyard to serve in the temple. But when he does, he must sacrifice a sin offering for himself," announces the LORD and King.

28"The priests will not receive any part of the land of Israel. I myself will be their only share. 29They will eat the grain offerings, sin offerings and guilt offerings. Everything in Israel that is set apart to me in a special way will belong to them. [30]The best of every first share of the people's crops will belong to the priests. So will all their special gifts. The people must give the priests the first share of their ground meal. Then I will bless my people's families. [31]The priests must not eat any bird or animal that is found dead. They must not eat anything that wild animals have torn apart.

Ezekiel 45

The LORD Establishes Israel Again

[1]“People of Israel, you will divide up the land you will receive. When you do, give me my share of it. It will be a sacred area. It will be eight miles long and six and a half miles wide. The entire area will be holy. [2]The temple area in it will be 875 feet long and 875 feet wide. An 88-foot strip around it will be open land. [3]In the sacred area, measure off a large strip of land. It will be eight miles long and three and a third miles wide. The temple will be in it. It will be the most holy place of all. [4]The large strip will be the sacred share of land for the priests. There they will serve in the temple. And they will approach me to serve me there.
Their houses will be built on that land. The holy temple will also be located there. [5]So the Levites will serve in the temple. They will have an area eight miles long and three and a third miles wide. The towns they live in will be located there.

[6]“Give the city an area one and two-thirds miles wide and eight miles long. It will be right next to the sacred area. It will belong to all the people of Israel.

[7]“The prince will have land on both sides of the sacred area and the city. Its border will run east and west along the land of one of the tribes. [8]The prince will own this land in Israel. And my princes will not crush my people anymore.
Instead, they will allow the people of Israel to receive their own share of land. It will be divided up based on their tribes.”

[9]The LORD and King says, “Princes of Israel, you have gone far enough!
Stop hurting others. Do not crush them. Do what is fair and right. Stop taking my people’s land away from them,” announces the LORD and King. [10]“Use weights and measures that are honest and exact. [11]Use the same standard to measure dry and liquid products. Use a 6-bushel measure for dry products. And use a 60-gallon measure for liquids. [12]Every amount of money must be weighed out in keeping with the standard weights.

[13]“You must offer a special gift. It must be six pounds out of every six bushels of grain. [14]Give two and a half quarts out of every 60 gallons of olive oil. [15]Also give one sheep from every flock of 200 sheep. Get them from the grasslands of Israel that receive plenty of water. Use them for grain offerings, burnt offerings and friendship offerings. They will be used to pay for the sin of the people,” announces the LORD and King. [16]“All the people in the land will be required to give this special gift. They must give it to the prince in Israel. [17]He must provide the burnt offerings, grain offerings and drink offerings. They will be for the yearly feasts, New Moon feasts and Sabbath days. So they will be for all the appointed feasts of the people of Israel. The prince will provide the sin offerings, grain offerings, burnt offerings and friendship offerings. They will be used to pay for the sin of the Israelites."

[18]The LORD and King says, "Get a young bull. It must not have any flaws. Use it to make the temple pure and 'clean.' Do this on the first day of the first month. [19]The priest must get some of the blood from the sin offering. He must put some on the doorposts of the temple. He must apply some to the four corners of the upper ledge of the altar. He must put the rest on the gateposts of the inner courtyard. [20]Do the same thing on the seventh day of the month. Do this for those who sin without meaning to. And do this for those who sin without realizing what they are doing. So you will make the temple pure and 'clean.'

[21]"Keep the Passover Feast on the 14th day of the first month. It will last for seven days. During that time you must eat bread made without yeast. [22]The prince must provide a bull as a sin offering. It will be for him and all the people of the land. [23]For each of the seven days of the feast he must provide seven bulls and seven rams. They must not have any flaws. They will be a burnt offering to me. The prince must also provide a male goat for a sin offering. [24]He must bring 35 pounds for each bull or ram. He must also provide four quarts of olive oil for each of them.

[25]"The seven days of the feast begin on the 15th day of the seventh month. During those days the prince must provide the same sin offerings, burnt offerings, grain offerings and olive oil."

Ezekiel 46

[1]The LORD and King says, “On the six working days of each week you must keep the east gate of the inner courtyard of the temple shut. But open it on Sabbath days and during New Moon feasts. [2]The prince must enter the temple area through the porch of the gateway. He must stand by the gatepost. The priests must sacrifice his burnt offering and friendship offerings. He must bow down in worship at the entrance of the gateway. Then he must leave. But the gate will not be shut until evening. [3]On Sabbath days and during New Moon feasts the people of the land must gather together. They must gather at the entrance of the temple gateway. That is where they must worship me. [4]The prince must bring a burnt offering to me on the Sabbath day. It will be six male lambs and a ram. They must not have any flaws. [5]He must offer 35 pounds of grain along with the ram. The grain he offers along with the lambs can be as much as he wants to give. He must also offer four quarts of olive oil for every 35 pounds of grain. [6]On the day of the New Moon feast the prince must make another offering. He must offer a young bull, six lambs and a ram. They must not have any flaws. [7]He must offer 35 pounds of grain along with the bull or ram. The grain he offers along with the lambs can be as much as he wants to give. He must also offer four quarts of olive oil for every 35 pounds of grain. [8]Here is how the prince must enter the temple area. He must go in through the porch of the gateway. And he must leave the same way.

[9]“The people of the land must worship me at the appointed feasts. Those who enter through the north gate must leave through the south gate. Those who enter through the south gate must leave through the north gate. They must not leave through the same gate they entered. Each one must go out the opposite gate. [10]The prince must be among them. He must go in when they go in. And he must leave when they leave. [11]At the yearly feasts and other appointed feasts there must be grain offerings. The prince must offer 35 pounds of grain along with a bull or ram. The grain he offers along with the lambs can be as much as he wants to give. He must also offer four quarts of olive oil for every 35 pounds of grain.

[12]“He may also bring another offering to me because he chooses to. It might be a burnt offering or friendship offering. When he brings it, the east gate must be opened for him. He will bring his offering just as he does on the Sabbath day. Then he will leave. After he has gone out, the gate must be shut.

[13]“Every day you must provide a lamb that is a year old. It must not have any flaws. It is a burnt offering to me. You must provide it every morning. [14]You must also offer grain along with it every morning. Bring six pounds of grain. Also bring one and a half quarts of olive oil to make the flour a little wet. So you will give the grain offering to me. That will be a law that will last for all time to come. [15]Provide the lamb, grain offering and oil every morning. They will be used for a regular burnt offering."

[16]The LORD and King says, "Suppose the prince makes a gift from his share of land. And he gives it to one of his sons. Then the property will also belong to his sons after him. It will be handed down to them. [17]But suppose he makes a gift from his share of land to one of his servants. Then the servant may keep it until the Year of Jubilee. After that, it will be returned to the prince. His property may be handed down only to his sons. It belongs to them. [18]The prince must not take any share of land that belongs to the people. He must not drive them off their property. He must give his sons their share out of his own property. Then not one of my people will be separated from their property."

[19]The man brought me through the entrance at the side of the north building. That's where the priests' sacred rooms were located. He showed me a place west of the building. [20]He said to me, "This is where the priests must cook the guilt offerings and sin offerings. They must also bake the grain offerings here. Then they will not have to bring the offerings into the outer courtyard. That will keep the people from touching the offerings and becoming holy."

[21]Then the man brought me to the outer courtyard. He led me around to its four corners. In each corner I saw another smaller courtyard. [22]So in the four corners of the outer courtyard were walled courtyards. Each one was 70 feet long and 53 feet wide. All of them were the same size. [23]Around the inside of each of the four courtyards was a stone ledge. Places for fire were built all around under each ledge. [24]The man said to me, "These are the kitchens. Those who serve at the temple must cook the people's sacrifices here."

Ezekiel 47

A River Will Flow From the Temple

[1]The man brought me back to the entrance to the temple. I saw water flowing east from under a temple gateway. The temple faced east. The water was coming down from under the south side of the temple. It was flowing south of the altar. [2]Then he brought me out through the north gate of the outer courtyard. He led me around the outside to the outer gate that faced east. The water was flowing from the south side of the east gate.

[3]Then the man went toward the east. He had a measuring line in his hand. He measured off 1,700 feet. He led me through water that was up to my ankles. [4]Then he measured off another 1,700 feet. He led me through water that was up to my knees. Then he measured off another 1,700 feet. He led me through water that was up to my waist. [5]Then he measured off another 1,700 feet. But now it was a river that I could not go across. The water had risen so high that it was deep enough to swim in. [6]He asked me, “Son of man, do you see this?”

Then he led me back to the bank of the river. [7]When I arrived there, I saw many trees. They were on both sides of the river. [8]The man said to me, “This water flows toward the eastern territory. It goes down into the Arabah Valley. There it enters the Dead Sea. When it empties into it, the salt water there becomes fresh. [9]Many creatures will live where the river flows. It will have many schools of fish. This water flows there and makes the salt water fresh. So where the river flows everything will live. [10]People will stand along the shore to fish. From En Gedi all the way to En Eglaim there will be places for spreading fishnets. The Dead Sea will have many kinds of fish. They will be like the fish in the Mediterranean Sea. [11]But none of the swamps will have fresh water in them. They will stay salty. [12]Fruit trees of all kinds will grow on both banks of the river. Their leaves will not dry up. The trees will always have fruit on them. Every month they will bear fruit. The water from the temple will flow to them. Their fruit will be used for food. And their leaves will be used for healing.”

The Borders of the Land

[13]Here is what the LORD and King says. “People of Israel, here are the borders of the land that you will divide up. You will divide up the land among the 12 tribes of Israel. Each tribe will receive a share. But the family of Joseph will have two shares. [14]Divide the land into equal parts. Long ago I raised my hand and made a promise. I promised to give the land to your people of long ago. So all of it will belong to you.

[15]"Here are the borders of the land.

"On the north side the border will start at the Mediterranean Sea. It will go by the Hethlon road past Lebo Hamath. Then it will continue on to Zedad, [16]Berothah and Sibraim. Sibraim is between Damascus and Hamath. The border will reach all the way to Hazer Hattikon. It is right next to Hauran. [17]The border will go from the sea to Hazar Enan. It will run north of Damascus and south of Hamath. This will be the northern border.

[18]"On the east side the border will run between Hauran and Damascus. It will continue along the Jordan River between Gilead and the land of Israel. It will reach to the Dead Sea and all the way to Tamar. This will be the eastern border.

[19]"On the south side the border will start at Tamar. It will reach all the way to the waters of Meribah Kadesh. Then it will run along the Wadi of Egypt. It will end at the Mediterranean Sea. This will be the southern border.

[20]"On the west side, the Mediterranean Sea will be the border. It will go to a point across from Lebo Hamath. This will be the western border.

[21]"You must divide up this land among yourselves. Do this based on the number of men in your tribes. [22]Each of the tribes must receive a share of the land. You must also give some land to the outsiders who live among you and who have children. Treat them as if they had been born in Israel. Let them have some land among your tribes. [23]Outsiders can live in the land of any tribe. There you must give them their share," announces the LORD and King.

Ezekiel 48

The Land Will Be Divided Up

[1]"Here are the tribes. They are listed by their names.

"Dan will receive one share of land. It will be at the northern border of Israel. The border will follow the Hethlon road to Lebo Hamath. Hazar Enan will be part of the border. So will the northern border of Damascus next to Hamath. Dan's northern border will run from east to west.

[2]"Asher will receive one share. It will border the territory of Dan from east to west.

[3]"Naphtali will receive one share. It will border the territory of Asher from east to west.

[4]"Manasseh will receive one share. It will border the territory of Naphtali from east to west.

[5]"Ephraim will receive one share. It will border the territory of Manasseh from east to west.

[6]"Reuben will receive one share. It will border the territory of Ephraim from east to west.

[7]"Judah will receive one share. It will border the territory of Reuben from east to west.

[8]"You must give one share as a special gift to me. It will border the territory of Judah from east to west. It will be eight miles wide. It will be as long as the border of each of the territories of the tribes. Its border will run from east to west. The temple will be in the center of that strip of land.

[9]"Give that special share of land to me. It will be eight miles long and three and a third miles wide. [10]It will be the sacred share of land for the priests. It will be eight miles long on the north side. It will be three and a third miles wide on the west side. It will be three and a third miles wide on the east side. And it will be eight miles long on the south side. My temple will be in the center of it. [11]This share of land will be for the priests who are set apart to me. They will come from the family line of Zadok. The members of that family served me faithfully. They did not go astray as the Levites and other Israelites did. [12]Their share of land will be a special gift to them. It will be part of the sacred share of the land. It will be very holy. Its border will run along the territory of the Levites.

13“The Levites will receive a share. It will be next to the territory of the priests. The Levites’ share will be eight miles long and three and a third miles wide. 14They must not sell or trade any of it. It is the best part of the land. It must not be handed over to anyone else. It is set apart to me.

15“The area that remains is one and two-thirds miles wide. It is eight miles long. It will not be holy. The people in Jerusalem can build houses there. They can use some of it as grasslands. The city will be in the center of it. 16Each of the four sides of the city will be one and a half miles long. 17Each of the four sides of the city’s grasslands will be 440 feet long. 18What remains of the area will be three and a third miles long on the east and west sides. Its border will run along the border of the sacred share. Its crops will supply food for the city workers. 19They will farm the area. They will come from all the tribes of Israel. 20The entire area will be a square. Each of its four sides will be eight miles long. Set the sacred share apart as a special gift to me. Do the same thing with the property of the city.

21“The area that remains on both sides will belong to the prince. So his land does not include the sacred share and the property of the city. The eastern part of his land will reach from the sacred share all the way to the eastern border. The western part will reach from the sacred share to the western border. The sacred share itself is eight miles long on its east and west sides. Both of those areas will be right next to the borders of the two tribes on the north and south sides. They will belong to the prince. The sacred share will be in the center of them. It will have the temple in it. 22The property of the Levites will lie in the center of the prince’s share. So will the property of the city. The prince’s land will lie between the borders of the tribes of Judah and Benjamin.

23“Here is the land for the rest of the tribes.

“Benjamin will receive one share. It will reach from the eastern border to the western border.

24“Simeon will receive one share. It will border the territory of Benjamin from east to west.

25“Issachar will receive one share. It will border the territory of Simeon from east to west.

26“Zebulun will receive one share. It will border the territory of Issachar from east to west.

27“Gad will receive one share. It will border the territory of Zebulun from east to west.
28“The southern border of Gad will run south from Tamar to the waters of Meribah Kadesh. It will continue along the Wadi of Egypt. It will end at the Mediterranean Sea.
29“This is the land you must divide among the tribes of Israel. And these will be the shares they will receive,” announces the LORD and King.

The Gates of the New City

30“Here is a list of the gates of the city.

Start with its north side. It will be a mile and a half long. 31The city gates will be named after the tribes of Israel. The north side will have three gates. They will be the gates of Reuben, Judah and Levi.
32“The east side will be a mile and a half long. It will have three gates. They will be the gates of Joseph, Benjamin and Dan.
33“The south side will be a mile and a half long. It will have three gates. They will be the gates of Simeon, Issachar and Zebulun.
34“The west side will be a mile and a half long. It will have three gates. They will be the gates of Gad, Asher and Naphtali.
35“The city will be six miles around.

“From that time on, its name will be ‘The LORD Is There.’ ”

Daniel

Daniel 1

Daniel Is Trained in Babylon

[1]It was the third year that Jehoiakim was king of Judah. Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem. His armies surrounded the city and attacked it. [2]The Lord handed Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, over to him. Nebuchadnezzar also took some of the objects from God's temple. He carried them off to the temple of his god in Babylon. He put them among the treasures of his god.

[3]The king gave Ashpenaz an order. Ashpenaz was the chief of Nebuchadnezzar's court officials. The king told him to bring him some of the Israelites. The king wanted them to serve him in his court. He wanted nobles and men from the royal family. [4]He was looking for young men who were healthy and handsome. They had to be able to learn anything. They had to be well educated. They had to have the ability to understand new things quickly and easily. The king wanted men who could serve in his palace. Ashpenaz was supposed to teach them the Babylonian language and writings. [5]The king had his servants give them food and wine from his own table. They received a certain amount every day. The young men had to be trained for three years. After that, they could begin to serve the king.

[6]Some of the men chosen were from Judah. Their names were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah. [7]The chief official gave them new names. He gave Daniel the name Belteshazzar. He gave Hananiah the name Shadrach. He gave Mishael the name Meshach. And he gave Azariah the name Abednego.

[8]Daniel decided not to make himself "unclean" by eating the king's food and drinking his wine. So he asked the chief official for a favor. He wanted permission not to make himself "unclean" with the king's food and wine. [9]God had caused the official to be kind and friendly to Daniel. [10]But the official refused to do what Daniel asked for. He said, "I'm afraid of the king. He is my master. He has decided what you and your three friends must eat and drink. Other young men are the same age as you. Why should he see you looking worse than them? When he sees how you look, he might kill me."

[11]So Daniel spoke to one of the guards. The chief official had appointed him over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah. [12]Daniel said to him, "Please test us for ten days. Give us nothing but vegetables to eat. And give us only water to drink. [13]Then compare us with the young men who eat the king's food. See how we look. After that, do what you want to." [14]So the guard agreed. He tested them for ten days.

[15]After the ten days Daniel and his friends looked healthy and well fed. In fact, they looked better than any of the young men who ate the king's food. [16]So the guard didn't require them to eat the king's special food. He didn't require them to drink the king's wine either. He gave them vegetables instead.

[17]God gave knowledge and understanding to these four young men. So they understood all kinds of writings and subjects. And Daniel could understand all kinds of visions and dreams.

[18]The three years the king had set for their training ended. So the chief official brought them to Nebuchadnezzar. [19]The king talked with them. He didn't find anyone equal to Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah. So they began to serve the king. [20]He asked them for advice in matters that required wisdom and understanding. The king always found their answers to be the best. Other men in his kingdom claimed to get knowledge by using magic. But the answers of Daniel and his friends were ten times better than theirs.

[21]Daniel served in Babylon until the first year Cyrus ruled over the land of Babylon. Cyrus was king of Persia.

Daniel 2

Nebuchadnezzar Dreams About a Large Statue

[1]In the second year of Nebuchadnezzar's rule, he had a dream. His mind was troubled. He couldn't sleep. [2]So the king sent for those who claimed to get knowledge by using magic. He also sent for those who practiced evil magic and those who studied the heavens. He wanted them to tell him what he had dreamed. They came in and stood in front of the king. [3]He said to them, "I had a dream. It troubles me. So I want to know what it means."

[4]Then those who studied the heavens answered the king. They spoke in Aramaic. They said, "King Nebuchadnezzar, may you live forever! Tell us what you dreamed. Then we'll explain what it means."

[5]The king replied to them, "I have made up my mind. You must tell me what I dreamed. And you must tell me what it means. If you don't, I'll have you cut to pieces. And I'll have your houses turned into piles of trash. [6]So tell me what I dreamed. Explain it to me. Then I'll give you gifts. I'll reward you. I'll give you great honor. So tell me the dream. And tell me what it means."

[7]Once more they replied, "King Nebuchadnezzar, tell us what you dreamed. Then we'll tell you what it means."

[8]The king answered, "I know what you are doing. You are trying to gain more time. You realize that I've made up my mind. [9]You must tell me the dream. If you don't, you will pay for it. You have gotten together and made evil plans. You hope things will change. So you are telling me lies. But I want you to tell me what I dreamed. Then I'll know that you can tell me what it means."

[10]They answered the king, "There is no one on earth who can do what you are asking! No king has ever asked for anything like that. Not even a king as great and mighty as you has asked for it. Those who get knowledge by using magic have never been asked to do what you are asking. And those who study the heavens haven't been asked to do it either. [11]What you are asking is much too hard. No one can tell you what you dreamed except the gods. And they don't live among human beings."

[12]That made the king very angry. He ordered that all the wise men in Babylon be put to death. [13]So the order was given to kill them. Men were sent out to look for Daniel and his friends. They were also supposed to be put to death.

[14]Arioch was the commander of the king's guard. He went out to put the wise men of Babylon to death. So Daniel spoke to him wisely and carefully. [15]He asked the king's officer, "Why did Nebuchadnezzar give a terrible order like that?" Then Arioch explained to Daniel what was going on. [16]When Daniel heard that, he went to the king. He told him he would explain the dream to him. But he needed more time.

[17]Then Daniel returned to his house. He explained everything to his friends Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah. [18]He asked them to pray that the God of heaven would give him mercy. He wanted God to help him understand the mystery of the king's dream. Then he and his friends wouldn't be killed along with Babylon's other wise men. [19]During that night, God gave Daniel a vision. He showed him what the mystery was all about. Then Daniel praised the God of heaven. [20]He said,

"May God be praised for ever and ever!
He is wise and powerful.
[21]He changes times and seasons.
He removes some kings from power.
He causes other kings to rule.
The wisdom of those who are wise comes from him.
He gives knowledge to those who have understanding.
[22]He explains deep and hidden things.
He knows what happens in the darkest places.
And where he is, everything is light.
[23]God of my people of long ago, I thank and praise you.
You have given me wisdom and power.
You have made known to me what we asked you for.
You have shown us the king's dream."

Daniel Tells the King What His Dream Means

[24]Then Daniel went to Arioch. The king had appointed him to put the wise men of Babylon to death. Daniel said to him, "Don't kill the wise men of Babylon. Take me to the king. I'll tell him what his dream means."

[25]So Arioch took Daniel to the king at once. Arioch said, "I have found a man among those you brought here from Judah. He can tell you what your dream means."

[26]Nebuchadnezzar spoke to Daniel, who was also called Belteshazzar. The king asked him, “Are you able to tell me what I saw in my dream? And can you tell me what it means?”

[27]Daniel replied, “You have asked us to explain a mystery to you. But no wise man can do that. And those who try to figure things out by using magic can’t do it either. [28]But there is a God in heaven who can explain mysteries. King Nebuchadnezzar, he has shown you what is going to happen. Here is what you dreamed while lying in bed. And here are the visions that passed through your mind.

[29]“Your Majesty, while you were still in bed your mind was troubled. You were thinking about things that haven’t happened yet. The God who explains mysteries showed these things to you. [30]Now the mystery has been explained to me. But it isn’t because I have greater wisdom than anyone else alive. It’s because God wants you to know what the mystery means, Your Majesty. He wants you to understand what went through your mind.

[31]“King Nebuchadnezzar, you looked up and saw a large statue standing in front of you. It was huge. It shone brightly. And it terrified you. [32]The head of the statue was made out of pure gold. Its chest and arms were made out of silver. Its stomach and thighs were made out of bronze. [33]Its legs were made out of iron. And its feet were partly iron and partly baked clay. [34]While you were watching, a rock was cut out. But human hands didn’t do it. It struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay. It smashed them. [35]Then the iron and clay were broken to pieces. So were the bronze, silver and gold. All of them were broken to pieces. They became like straw on a threshing floor at harvest time. The wind blew them away without leaving a trace. But the rock that struck the statue became a huge mountain. It filled the whole earth.

[36]“This was your dream. Now I will tell you what it means. [37]King Nebuchadnezzar, you are the greatest king of all. The God of heaven has given you authority and power. He has given you might and glory. [38]He has put everyone under your control. He has also given you authority over the wild animals and the birds in the sky. It doesn’t matter where they live. He has made you ruler over all of them. You are that head of gold.

[39]“After you, another kingdom will take over. It won’t be as powerful as yours. Next, a third kingdom will rule over the whole earth. The bronze part of the statue stands for that kingdom. [40]Finally, there will be a fourth kingdom. It will be as strong as iron. Iron breaks and smashes everything to pieces. And the fourth kingdom will crush and break all the others. [41]You saw that the feet and toes were made out of iron and baked clay. And the fourth kingdom will be divided up. But it will still have some of the strength of iron. That's why you saw iron mixed with clay. [42]The toes were partly iron and partly clay. And the fourth kingdom will be partly strong and partly weak. [43]You saw the iron mixed with baked clay. And the fourth kingdom will be made up of all kinds of people. They won't hold together any more than iron mixes with clay.

[44]"In the time of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom. It will never be destroyed. And no other nation will ever take it over. It will crush all those other kingdoms. It will bring them to an end. But it will last forever. [45]That's what the vision of the rock cut out of a mountain means. Human hands didn't cut out the rock. It broke the statue to pieces. It smashed the iron, bronze, clay, silver and gold.

"The great God has shown you what will take place in days to come. The dream is true. And you can trust the meaning of it that I have explained to you."

[46]Then King Nebuchadnezzar bowed low in front of Daniel. He wanted to honor him. So he ordered that an offering and incense be offered up to him. [47]The king said to Daniel, "I'm sure your God is the greatest God of all. He is the Lord of kings. He explains mysteries. That's why you were able to explain the mystery of my dream."

[48]Then the king put Daniel in a position of authority. He gave him many gifts. He made him ruler over the city of Babylon and the towns around it. He put him in charge of all its other wise men. [49]The king also did what Daniel asked him to. He appointed Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego to help Daniel govern Babylon and the towns around it. Daniel himself remained at the royal court.

Daniel 3

A Gold Statue and a Blazing Furnace

[1]King Nebuchadnezzar made a gold statue. It was 90 feet tall and 9 feet wide. He set it up on the plain of Dura near the city of Babylon. [2]Then the king sent for the royal rulers, high officials and governors. He sent for the advisers, treasurers, judges and court officers. And he sent for all the other officials of Babylon. He asked them to come to a special gathering to honor the statue he had set up. [3]So the royal rulers, high officials and governors came together. So did the advisers, treasurers, judges and court officers. All the other officials joined them. They came to honor the statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. They stood in front of it.

[4]Then a messenger called out loudly, “Listen, you people who come from every nation! Pay attention, you who speak other languages! Here is what the king commands you to do. [5]You will soon hear the sound of horns and flutes. You will hear zithers, lyres, harps and pipes. In fact, you will hear all kinds of music. When you do, you must fall down and worship the gold statue. That is the statue that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up. [6]If you don’t, you will be thrown into a blazing furnace right away.”

[7]All the people heard the sound of the horns and flutes. They heard the zithers, lyres, harps and other musical instruments. As soon as they did, they fell down and worshiped Nebuchadnezzar’s gold statue. They were people from all nations no matter what language they spoke.

[8]At this time some people who studied the heavens came forward. They spoke against the Jews. [9]They said, “King Nebuchadnezzar, may you live forever! [10]Your Majesty has commanded everyone to fall down and worship the gold statue. You told them to do it when they heard the horns, flutes, zithers, lyres, harps, pipes and other musical instruments. [11]If they didn’t, they would be thrown into a blazing furnace. [12]But you have appointed some Jews to help Daniel govern Babylon and the towns around it. Their names are Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. They don’t pay any attention to you, King Nebuchadnezzar. They don’t serve your gods. And they refuse to worship the gold statue you have set up.”

[13]Nebuchadnezzar was very angry. He sent for Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. So they were brought to him. [14]The king said to them, “Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, is what I heard about you true? Don't you serve my gods? Don't you worship the gold statue I set up? [15]You will hear the horns, flutes, zithers, lyres, harps, pipes and other musical instruments. When you do, fall down and worship the statue I made. If you will, that's very good. But if you won't, you will be thrown at once into a blazing furnace. Then what god will be able to save you from my power?"

[16]Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego replied to him. They said, "King Nebuchadnezzar, we don't need to talk about this anymore. [17]We might be thrown into the blazing furnace. But the God we serve is able to bring us out of it alive. He will save us from your power. [18]But we want you to know this, Your Majesty. Even if we knew that our God wouldn't save us, we still wouldn't serve your gods. We wouldn't worship the gold statue you set up."

[19]Then Nebuchadnezzar was very angry with Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. The look on his face changed. And he ordered that the furnace be heated seven times hotter than usual. [20]He also gave some of the strongest soldiers in his army a command. He ordered them to tie up Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. Then he told his men to throw them into the blazing furnace. [21]So they were tied up. Then they were thrown into the furnace. They were wearing their robes, pants, turbans and other clothes. [22]The king's command was carried out quickly. The furnace was so hot that its flames killed the soldiers who threw Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego into it. [23]So the three men were firmly tied up. And they fell into the blazing furnace.

[24]Then King Nebuchadnezzar leaped to his feet. He was so amazed he asked his advisers, "Didn't we tie up three men? Didn't we throw three men into the fire?"

They replied, "Yes, we did, Your Majesty."

[25]The king said, "Look! I see four men walking around in the fire. They aren't tied up. And the fire hasn't even harmed them. The fourth man looks like a son of the gods."

[26]Then the king approached the opening of the blazing furnace. He shouted, "Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, come out! You who serve the Most High God, come here!"

So they came out of the fire. [27]The royal rulers, high officials, governors and advisers crowded around them. They saw that the fire hadn't harmed their bodies. Not one hair on their heads was burned. Their robes weren't burned either. And they didn't even smell like smoke.

[28]Then Nebuchadnezzar said, "May the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego be praised! He has sent his angel and saved his servants. They trusted in him. They refused to obey my command. They were willing to give up their lives. They would rather die than serve or worship any god except their own God. [29]No other god can save people this way. So I'm giving an order about the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. No one may say anything against him. That's true no matter what language they speak. If they say anything against him, they'll be cut to pieces. And their houses will be turned into piles of trash."

[30]Then the king honored Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. He gave them higher positions in the city of Babylon and the towns around it.

Daniel 4

Nebuchadnezzar Dreams About a Tree

[1]I, King Nebuchadnezzar, am writing this letter.

I am sending it to people who live all over the world. I'm sending it to people of every nation no matter what language they speak.

May you have great success!

[2]I am pleased to tell you what has happened. The Most High God has done miraculous signs and wonders for me.

[3]His signs are great.
His wonders are mighty.
His kingdom will last forever.
His rule will never end.

[4]I was at home in my palace. I was content and very successful. [5]But I had a dream that made me afraid. I was lying in bed. Then dreams and visions passed through my mind. They terrified me. [6]So I commanded that all the wise men in Babylon be brought to me. I wanted them to tell me what my dream meant. [7]Those who try to figure things out by using magic came. So did those who study the heavens. I told all of them what I had dreamed. But they couldn't tell me what it meant. [8]Finally, Daniel came to me. He is called Belteshazzar, after the name of my god. The spirit of the holy gods is in him. I told him my dream.

[9]I said, "Belteshazzar, you are chief of the magicians. I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you. No mystery is too hard for you to figure out. Here is my dream. Tell me what it means. [10]Here are the visions I saw while I was lying in bed. I looked up and saw a tree standing in the middle of the land. It was very tall. [11]It had grown to be large and strong. Its top touched the sky. It could be seen anywhere on earth. [12]Its leaves were beautiful. It had a lot of fruit on it. It provided enough food for people and animals. Under the tree, the wild animals found safety. The birds lived in its branches. Every creature was fed from that tree.

13“While I was still lying in bed, I looked up. In my visions, I saw a holy one. He was a messenger. He was coming down from heaven. 14He called out in a loud voice. He said, ‘Cut down the tree. Break off its branches. Strip off its leaves. Scatter its fruit. Let the animals under it run away. Let the birds in its branches fly off. 15But leave the stump with its roots in the ground. Let it stay in the field. Put a band of iron and bronze around it.

“ ‘Let King Nebuchadnezzar become wet with the dew of heaven. Let him live with the animals among the plants of the earth. 16Let him no longer have the mind of a man. Instead, let him be given the mind of an animal. Let him stay that way until seven periods of time pass by.

17“ ‘The decision is announced by holy messengers. So all who are alive will know that the Most High God is King. He rules over all kingdoms on earth. He gives them to anyone he wants. Sometimes he puts the least important people in charge of them.’

18“This is the dream I, King Nebuchadnezzar, had. Now tell me what it means, Belteshazzar. None of the wise men in my kingdom can explain it to me. But you can. After all, the spirit of the holy gods is in you.”

Daniel Explains Nebuchadnezzar’s Dream

19Daniel, who was also called Belteshazzar, was very bewildered for a while. His thoughts terrified him. So the king said, “Belteshazzar, don’t let the dream or its meaning make you afraid.”

Belteshazzar answered, “My master, I wish the dream were about your enemies! I wish its meaning had to do with them! 20You saw a tree. It grew to be large and strong. Its top touched the sky. It could be seen from anywhere on earth. 21Its leaves were beautiful. It had a lot of fruit on it. It provided enough food for people and animals. Under the tree, the wild animals found safety. The birds lived in its branches. 22Your Majesty, you are that tree! You have become great and strong. Your greatness has grown until it reaches the sky. Your rule has spread to all parts of the earth.

23“Your Majesty, you saw a holy one. He was a messenger. He came down from heaven. He said, ‘Cut down the tree. Destroy it. But leave the stump with its roots in the ground. Let it stay in the field. Put an iron and bronze band around it. Let King Nebuchadnezzar become wet with the dew of heaven. Let him live with the wild animals. Let him stay that way until seven periods of time pass by.'

[24]"Your Majesty, here is what your dream means. The Most High God has given an order against you. [25]You will be driven away from people. You will live with the wild animals. You will eat grass just as an ox does. You will become wet with the dew of heaven. Seven periods of time will pass by for you. Then you will recognize that the Most High God rules over all kingdoms on earth. He gives them to anyone he wants. [26]But he gave a command to leave the stump of the tree along with its roots. That means your kingdom will be given back to you. It will happen when you recognize that the God of heaven rules. [27]So, Your Majesty, I hope you will accept my advice. Stop being sinful. Do what is right. Give up your evil practices. Show kindness to those who are being treated badly. Then perhaps things will continue to go well with you."

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream Comes True

[28]All this happened to King Nebuchadnezzar. [29]It took place twelve months later. He was walking on the roof of his palace in Babylon. [30]He said, "Isn't this the great Babylon I have built as a place for my royal palace? I used my mighty power to build it. It shows how glorious my majesty is."

[31]He was still speaking when he heard a voice from heaven. It said, "King Nebuchadnezzar, here is what has been ordered concerning you. Your royal authority has been taken from you. [32]You will be driven away from people. You will live with the wild animals. You will eat grass just as an ox does. Seven periods of time will pass by for you. Then you will recognize that the Most High God rules over all kingdoms on earth. He gives them to anyone he wants."

[33]What had been said about King Nebuchadnezzar came true at once. He was driven away from people. He ate grass just as an ox does. His body became wet with the dew of heaven. He stayed that way until his hair grew like the feathers of an eagle. His nails became like the claws of a bird.

[34]At the end of that time I, Nebuchadnezzar, looked up toward heaven. My mind became clear again. Then I praised the Most High God. I gave honor and glory to the God who lives forever.

His rule will last forever.
His kingdom will never end.
[35]He considers all the nations on earth to be nothing.
He does as he pleases with the powers of heaven.
He does what he wants with the nations of the earth.
No one can hold back his hand.
No one can say to him,
"What have you done?"

[36]My honor and glory were returned to me when my mind became clear again. The glory of my kingdom was given back to me. My advisers and nobles came to me. And I was put back on my throne. I became even greater than I had been before. [37]Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, give praise and honor and glory to the King of heaven. Everything he does is right. All his ways are fair. He is able to bring down those who live proudly.

Daniel 5

A Hand Writes on the Palace Wall

[1]King Belshazzar gave a huge banquet. He invited a thousand of his nobles to it. He drank wine with them. [2]While Belshazzar was drinking his wine, he gave orders to his servants. He commanded them to bring in some gold and silver cups. They were the cups his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem. Belshazzar had them brought in so everyone could drink from them. That included the king himself, his nobles, his wives and his concubines. [3]So the servants brought in the gold cups. The cups had been taken from God's temple in Jerusalem. The king and his nobles drank from them. So did his wives and concubines. [4]As they drank the wine, they praised their gods. The statues of those gods were made out of gold, silver, bronze, iron, wood or stone.

[5]Suddenly the fingers of a human hand appeared. They wrote something on the plaster of the palace wall. It happened near the lampstand. The king watched the hand as it wrote. [6]His face turned pale. He was so afraid that his legs became weak. And his knees were knocking together.

[7]The king sent for those who try to figure things out by using magic. He also sent for those who study the heavens. All of them were wise men in Babylon. Then the king spoke to them. He said, "I want one of you to read this writing. I want you to tell me what it means. Whoever does this will be dressed in purple clothes. A gold chain will be put around his neck. And he will be made the third highest ruler in the kingdom."

[8]Then all the king's wise men came in. But they couldn't read the writing. They couldn't tell him what it meant. [9]So King Belshazzar became even more terrified. His face grew more pale. And his nobles were bewildered.

[10]The queen heard the king and his nobles talking. So she came into the dining hall. "King Belshazzar, may you live forever!" she said. "Don't be afraid! Don't look so pale! [11]I know a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods in him. He has understanding and wisdom and good sense just like the gods. He was chief of those who tried to figure things out by using magic. And he was in charge of those who studied the heavens. Your father, King Nebuchadnezzar, appointed him to that position. [12]King Nebuchadnezzar did this because he saw what the man could do. This man's name is Daniel. Your father called him Belteshazzar. He has a clever mind and knowledge and understanding. He is also able to tell what dreams mean. He can explain riddles and solve hard problems. Send for him. He'll tell you what the writing means."

[13]So Daniel was brought to the king. The king said to him, "Are you Daniel? Are you one of the prisoners my father the king brought here from Judah? [14]I have heard that the spirit of the gods is in you. I've also heard that you have understanding and good sense and special wisdom. [15]The wise men and those who practice magic were brought to me. They were asked to read this writing and tell me what it means. But they couldn't. [16]I have heard that you are able to explain things and solve hard problems. I hope you can read this writing and tell me what it means. If you can, you will be dressed in purple clothes. A gold chain will be put around your neck. And you will be made the third highest ruler in the kingdom."

[17]Then Daniel answered the king. He said, "You can keep your gifts for yourself. You can give your rewards to someone else. But I will read the writing for you. I'll tell you what it means.

[18]"Your Majesty, the Most High God was good to your father Nebuchadnezzar. He gave him authority and greatness and glory and honor. [19]God gave him a high position. Then people from every nation became afraid of the king. That was true no matter what language they spoke. The king put to death anyone he wanted to. He spared anyone he wanted to spare. He gave high positions to anyone he wanted to. And he brought down anyone he wanted to bring down. [20]But his heart became very stubborn and proud. So he was removed from his royal throne. His glory was stripped away from him. [21]He was driven away from people. He was given the mind of an animal. He lived with the wild donkeys. He ate grass just as an ox does. His body became wet with the dew of heaven. He stayed that way until he recognized that the Most High God rules over all kingdoms on earth. He puts anyone he wants to in charge of them.

[22]"But you knew all that, Belshazzar. After all, you are Nebuchadnezzar's son. In spite of that, you are still proud. [23]You have taken your stand against the Lord of heaven. You had your servants bring cups from his temple to you. You and your nobles drank wine from them. So did your wives and concubines. You praised your gods. The statues of those gods are made out of silver, gold, bronze, iron, wood or stone. They can't see or hear or understand anything. But you didn't honor God. He holds in his hand your very life and everything you do. [24]So he sent the hand that wrote on the wall.

[25]"Here is what was written.

26 “And here is what these words mean.

The word Mene means that God has limited the time of your rule. He has brought it to an end.
27 The word Tekel means that you have been weighed on scales. And you haven’t measured up to God’s standard.
28 The word Peres means that your authority over your kingdom will be taken away from you. It will be given to the Medes and Persians.”

29 Then Belshazzar commanded his servants to dress Daniel in purple clothes. So they did. They put a gold chain around his neck. And he was made the third highest ruler in the kingdom.

30 That very night Belshazzar, the king of Babylon, was killed. 31 His kingdom was given to Darius the Mede. Darius was 62 years old.

Daniel 6

Daniel Is Thrown Into a Den of Lions

[1]It pleased Darius to appoint 120 royal rulers over his entire kingdom. [2]He placed three leaders over them. One of the leaders was Daniel. The royal rulers were made accountable to the three leaders. Then the king wouldn't lose any of his wealth. [3]Daniel did a better job than the other two leaders or any of the royal rulers. He was an unusually good and able man. So the king planned to put him in charge of the whole kingdom. [4]But the other two leaders and the royal rulers heard about it. So they looked for a reason to bring charges against Daniel. They tried to find something wrong with the way he ran the government. But they weren't able to. They couldn't find any fault with his work. He could always be trusted. He never did anything wrong. And he always did what he was supposed to. [5]Finally these men said, "We want to bring charges against this man Daniel. But It's almost impossible for us to come up with a reason to do it. If we find a reason, it will have to be in connection with the law of his God."

[6]So the two leaders and the royal rulers went as a group to the king. They said, "King Darius, may you live forever! [7]All the royal leaders, high officials, royal rulers, advisers and governors want to make a suggestion. We've agreed that you should give an order. And you should make sure it's obeyed. Your Majesty, here is the command you should make your people obey for the next 30 days. Don't let any of your people pray to any god or human being except to you. If they do, throw them into the lions' den. [8]Now give the order. Write it down in the law of the Medes and Persians. Then it can't be changed." [9]So King Darius put the order in writing.

[10]Daniel found out that the king had signed the order. In spite of that, he did just as he had always done before. He went home to his upstairs room. Its windows opened toward Jerusalem. He went to his room three times a day to pray. He got down on his knees and gave thanks to his God. [11]Some of the other royal officials went to where Daniel was staying. They saw him praying and asking God for help. [12]So they went to the king. They spoke to him about his royal order. They said, "Your Majesty, didn't you sign an official order? It said that for the next 30 days your people could pray only to you. They could not pray to anyone else, whether god or human being. If they did, they would be thrown into the lions' den."

The king answered, "The order must still be obeyed. It's what the law of the Medes and Persians requires. So it can't be changed."

13Then they spoke to the king again. They said, "Daniel is one of the prisoners from Judah. He doesn't pay any attention to you, Your Majesty. He doesn't obey the order you put in writing. He still prays to his God three times a day." 14When the king heard this, he was very upset. He didn't want Daniel to be harmed in any way. Until sunset, he did everything he could to save him.

15Then the men went as a group to King Darius. They said to him, "Your Majesty, remember that no order or command you give can be changed. That's what the law of the Medes and Persians requires."

16So the king gave the order. Daniel was brought out and thrown into the lions' den. The king said to him, "You always serve your God faithfully. So may he save you!"

17A stone was brought and placed over the opening of the den. The king sealed it with his own special ring. He also sealed it with the rings of his nobles. Then nothing could be done to help Daniel. 18The king returned to his palace. He didn't eat anything that night. He didn't ask for anything to be brought to him for his enjoyment. And he couldn't sleep.

19As soon as the sun began to rise, the king got up. He hurried to the lions' den. 20When he got near it, he called out to Daniel. His voice was filled with great concern. He said, "Daniel! You serve the living God. You always serve him faithfully. So has he been able to save you from the lions?"

21Daniel answered, "Your Majesty, may you live forever! 22My God sent his angel. And his angel shut the mouths of the lions. They haven't hurt me at all. That's because I haven't done anything wrong in God's sight. I've never done anything wrong to you either, Your Majesty."

23The king was filled with joy. He ordered his servants to lift Daniel out of the den. So they did. They didn't see any wounds on him. That's because he had trusted in his God.

24Then the king gave another order. The men who had said bad things about Daniel were brought in. They were thrown into the lions' den. So were their wives and children. Before they hit the bottom of the den, the lions attacked them. And the lions crushed all their bones.

25Then King Darius wrote to people of all nations, no matter what language they spoke. He said,

"May you have great success!

[26]“I order people in every part of my kingdom to respect and honor Daniel’s God.

“He is the living God.
He will live forever.
His kingdom will not be destroyed.
His rule will never end.
[27]He sets people free and saves them.
He does miraculous signs and wonders.
He does them in the heavens and on the earth.
He has saved Daniel from the power of the lions.”

[28]So Daniel had success while Darius was king. Things went well with Daniel during the rule of Cyrus, the Persian.

Daniel 7

Daniel Has a Dream About Four Animals

[1]It was the first year that Belshazzar was king of Babylon. Daniel had a dream. He was lying in bed. In his dream, visions passed through his mind. He wrote down what he saw.

[2]Daniel said, “I had a vision at night. I looked up and saw the four winds of heaven. They were stirring up the Mediterranean Sea. [3]Four large animals came up out of the sea. Each one was different from the others.

[4]“The first animal was like a lion. It had the wings of an eagle. I watched until its wings were torn off. Then it was lifted up from the ground. It stood on two feet like a human being. And the mind of a human being was given to it.

[5]“I saw a second animal. It looked like a bear. It was raised up on one of its sides. And it had three ribs between its teeth. It was told, ‘Get up! Eat meat until you are full!’

[6]“After that, I saw another animal. It looked like a leopard. On its back were four wings like the wings of a bird. The animal I saw had four heads. And it was given authority to rule.

[7]“After that, in my vision I looked up and saw a fourth animal. It was terrifying and very powerful. It had large iron teeth. It crushed those it attacked and ate them up. It stomped on anything that was left. It was different from the other animals. And it had ten horns.

[8]“I thought about the horns. Then I saw another horn. It was a little one. It grew up among the other horns. Three of the first horns were pulled up by their roots to make room for it. The little horn had eyes like the eyes of a human being. Its mouth was always bragging.

[9]“As I watched,

> “thrones were set in place.
> The Eternal God took his seat.
> His clothes were as white as snow.
> The hair on his head was white like wool.
> His throne was blazing with fire.
> And flames were all around its wheels.
> [10]A river of fire was flowing.
> It was coming out from in front of God.

Thousands and thousands of angels served him.
Millions of them stood in front of him.
The court was seated.
And the books were opened.

11“Then I continued to watch because of the way the horn was bragging. I kept looking until the fourth animal was killed. I watched until its body was destroyed. It was thrown into the blazing fire. 12The authority of the other animals had been stripped away from them. But they were allowed to live for a period of time.

13“In my vision I saw one who looked like a son of man. He was coming with the clouds of heaven. He approached the Eternal God. He was led right up to him. 14And he was given authority, glory and a kingdom. People of all nations, no matter what language they spoke, worshiped him. His authority will last forever. It will not pass away. His kingdom will never be destroyed.

An Angel Tells Daniel What His Dream Means

15“My spirit was troubled. The visions that passed through my mind upset me. 16I approached an angel who was standing there. I asked him what all these things really meant.

“So he explained to me what everything meant. 17He said, ‘The four large animals stand for four kings. The kings will appear on the earth. 18But the holy people of the Most High God will receive the kingdom. They will possess it forever. It will belong to them for ever and ever.’

19“Then I wanted to know what the fourth animal stood for. It was different from the others. It was the most terrifying of all. It had iron teeth and bronze claws. It crushed everyone it attacked and ate them up. It stomped on anything that was left. 20I also wanted to know about the ten horns on its head. And I wanted to know about the other horn that grew up later. It caused three of the ten horns to fall out. It appeared to be stronger than the others. It had eyes. And its mouth was always bragging. 21I saw that the horn was at war with God’s holy people. It was winning the battle over them. 22But then the Eternal God came. He decided in favor of his holy people. So the time came when the kingdom was given to them.

23“Here’s how the angel explained it to me. He said, ‘The fourth animal stands for a fourth kingdom. It will appear on earth. It will be different from the other kingdoms. It will eat up the whole earth. It will stomp on it and crush it. [24]The ten horns stand for ten kings. They will come from the fourth kingdom. After them another king will appear. He will be different from the earlier ones. He'll bring three kings under his control. [25]He'll speak against the Most High God. He'll treat God's holy people badly. He will try to change the times and laws that were given by God. God's holy people will be placed under his power for three and a half years.

[26]" 'But the court will be seated. And the power of that king will be taken away from him. It will be completely destroyed forever. [27]Then the authority, power and greatness of all the kingdoms on earth will be taken from them. And all they had will be given to the holy people of the Most High God. His kingdom will last forever. Every ruler will worship and obey him.'

[28]"That's all I saw. My thoughts deeply troubled me. My face turned pale. But I kept those things to myself."

Daniel 8

Daniel Has a Vision About a Ram and a Goat

[1]It was the third year of King Belshazzar's rule. After the vision that had already appeared to me, I had another one. [2]In my vision I saw myself in the city of Susa. It has high walls around it. It is in the land of Elam. In the vision I was beside the Ulai Canal. [3]I looked up and saw a ram that had two horns. It was standing beside the canal. Its horns were long. One of them was longer than the other. But that horn grew up later. [4]I watched the ram as it charged toward the west. It also charged toward the north and the south. No animal could stand up against it. Not one of them could save anyone from its power. It did as it pleased. And it became great.

[5]I was thinking about all of this. Then a goat suddenly came from the west. It had a large horn between its eyes. The goat raced across the whole earth without even touching the ground. [6]It came toward the ram that had the two horns. It was the ram I had seen standing beside the canal. The goat was very angry. It charged at the ram. [7]I saw it attack the ram with mighty force. It struck the ram and broke the ram's two horns. The ram didn't have the power to stand up against it. The goat knocked the ram to the ground and stomped on it. No one could save the ram from the goat's power. [8]The goat became very great. But when its power was at its greatest, the goat's large horn was broken off. In its place four large horns grew up toward the four winds of heaven.

[9]Out of one of the four horns came another horn. It was small at first but became more and more powerful. It grew to the south and to the east and toward the beautiful land of Israel. [10]It grew until it reached the stars in the sky. It threw some of them down to the earth. And it stomped on them. [11]It set itself up to be as great as the commander of the LORD's army. It took away the daily sacrifices from the LORD. And his temple in Jerusalem was thrown down. [12]Because many of the LORD's people refused to obey him, they were handed over to the horn. The daily sacrifices were also given over to it. The horn was successful no matter what it did. And true worship of God was thrown down to the ground.

[13]Then I heard a holy angel speaking. Another holy angel spoke to him. He asked, "How long will it take for the vision to come true? When will the daily sacrifices be stopped? When will those who refuse to obey God be destroyed? When will the temple be handed over to an enemy? And when will some of the LORD’s people be stomped on?”

14One of the holy angels said to me, “It will take 2,300 evenings and mornings. Then the temple will be made holy again.”

Gabriel Tells Daniel What His Vision Means

15I was having the vision. And I was trying to understand it. Then I saw someone who looked like a man. 16I heard a voice from the Ulai Canal. It called out, “Gabriel, tell Daniel what his vision means.”

17Gabriel came close to where I was standing. I was terrified and fell down flat with my face toward the ground. Here is what he said to me. “Son of man, I want you to understand the vision. It’s about the time of the end.”

18While he was speaking to me, I was sound asleep. I lay with my face on the ground. Then he touched me. He raised me to my feet.

19He said, “I am going to tell you what will happen later. It will take place when God is angry. The vision is about the appointed time of the end. 20You saw a ram that had two horns. It stands for the kings of Media and Persia. 21The goat stands for the king of Greece. The large horn between its eyes is the first king. 22Four horns took the horn’s place when it was broken off. They stand for four kingdoms that will come from his nation. But those kingdoms will not be as powerful as his.

23“Toward the end of their rule, those who refuse to obey God will become completely evil. Then another king will appear. He will have a scary-looking face. He will be a master at making clever plans. 24He will become very strong. But he will not get that way by his own power. People will be amazed at the way he destroys everything. He will be successful no matter what he does. He will destroy mighty people. Those mighty people are God’s holy people. 25He will tell lies in order to succeed. He will think he is more important than anyone else. When people feel safe, he will destroy many of them. He will stand up against the greatest Prince of all. Then he will be destroyed. But he will not be killed by human beings.

26“The vision of the evenings and mornings that has been given to you is true. But seal up the vision. It is about a time far off.”

27I, Daniel, was worn out. I was too tired to get up for several days. Then I got up and returned to my work for the king. The vision bewildered me. I couldn’t understand it.

Daniel 9

Daniel Prays to the LORD

[1]It was the first year that Darius was king of Babylon. He was from Media and was the son of Xerxes. [2]In that year I learned from the Scriptures that Jerusalem would remain destroyed for 70 years. That was what the LORD had told Jeremiah the prophet. [3]So I prayed to the Lord God. I begged him. I made many appeals to him. I didn't eat anything. I put on the rough clothing people wear when they're sad. And I sat down in ashes.

[4]I prayed to the LORD my God. I admitted that we had sinned. I said,

> "Lord, you are a great and wonderful God. You keep the covenant you > made with all those who love you and obey your commandments. You > show them your love. [5]We have sinned and done what is wrong. We > have been evil. We have refused to obey you. We have turned away > from your commands and laws. [6]We haven't listened to your servants > the prophets. They spoke in your name to our kings, our princes and our > people of long ago. They also brought your message to all our people in > the land.
>
> [7]"Lord, you always do what is right. But we are covered with shame > today. We are the people of Judah and Jerusalem. All of us are > Israelites, no matter where we live. We are now living in many > countries. You scattered us among the nations because we weren't > faithful to you. [8]LORD, we are covered with shame. So are our kings > and princes, and our people of long ago. We have sinned against you.
> [9]You are the Lord our God. You show us your tender love. You forgive > us. But we have turned against you. [10]You are the LORD our God. But > we haven't obeyed you. We haven't kept the laws you gave us through > your servants the prophets. [11]All the people of Israel have broken your > law and turned away from it. They have refused to obey you.
>
> "Curses and warnings are written down in the Law of Moses. He was > your servant. Those curses have been poured out on us. That's because > we have sinned against you. [12]The warnings you gave us and our rulers > have come true. You have brought great trouble on us. Nothing like > what has been done to Jerusalem has ever happened anywhere else on earth. [13]The curses that are written in the Law of Moses have fallen on us. We have received nothing but trouble. You are the LORD our God. But we haven't asked for your favor. We haven't turned away from our sins. We've refused to pay attention to the laws you gave us. [14]LORD, you didn't hold back from bringing this trouble on us. You always do what is right. But we haven't obeyed you.

[15]"Lord our God, you used your mighty hand to bring your people out of Egypt. You made a name for yourself. It is still great to this day. But we have sinned. We've done what is wrong. [16]Lord, you saved your people before. So turn your great anger away from Jerusalem again. After all, it is your city. It's your holy mountain. You have made those who live around us think little of Jerusalem and your people. That's because we have sinned. Our people before us did evil things too.

[17]"Our God, hear my prayers. Pay attention to the appeals I make to you. Lord, have mercy on your temple that has been destroyed. Do it for your own honor. [18]Our God, please listen to us. The city that belongs to you has been destroyed. Open your eyes and see it. We aren't asking you to answer our prayers because we are godly. Instead, we're asking you to do it because you love us so much. [19]Lord, please listen! Lord, please forgive us! Lord, hear our prayers! Take action for your own honor. Our God, please don't wait. Your city and your people belong to you."

Gabriel Tells Daniel About Seventy "Weeks"

[20]I was speaking and praying. I was admitting that I and my people Israel had sinned. I was making my appeal to the LORD my God. My appeal was about his holy mountain of Zion. [21]While I was still praying, Gabriel came to me. I had seen him in my earlier vision. He flew over to me very quickly. It was about the time when the evening sacrifice is offered. [22]He helped me understand. He said, "Daniel, I have come now to help you know and understand these things. [23]You are highly respected. So as soon as you began to pray, the LORD gave you a message. I have come to tell you what it is. Here is how you must understand the vision.

[24]"The LORD has appointed 70 'weeks' for your people and your holy city. During that time, acts against God's law will be stopped. Sin will come to an end. And the evil things people do will be paid for. Then everyone will always do what is right. Everything that has been made known in visions and prophecies will come true. And the Most Holy Room in the temple will be anointed.

25“Here is what I want you to know and understand. There will be seven ‘weeks.’ Then there will be 62 ‘weeks.’ The seven ‘weeks’ will begin when an order is given to rebuild Jerusalem and make it like new again. At the end of the 62 ‘weeks,’ the Anointed King will come. Jerusalem will have streets and a water system when it is rebuilt. But that will be done in times of trouble. 26After the 62 ‘weeks,’ the Anointed King will be put to death. His followers will desert him. And everything he has will be taken away from him. The army of the ruler who will come will destroy the city and the temple. The end will come like a flood. War will continue until the end. The LORD has ordered that many places be destroyed. 27A covenant will be put into effect with many people for one ‘week.’ In the middle of the ‘week’ sacrifices and offerings will come to an end. And at the temple a hated thing that destroys will be set up. It will remain until that ruler who will come is destroyed. Then he will experience what the LORD has ordered.”

Daniel 10

Daniel Has a Vision About What Will Happen to Israel

[1]It was the third year that Cyrus, the king of Persia, ruled over Babylon. At that time I was living in Babylon. There the people called me Belteshazzar. A message from God came to me. It was true. It was about a great war. I had a vision that showed me what it meant.

[2]At that time I was very sad for three weeks. [3]I didn't eat any rich food. No meat or wine touched my lips. I didn't use any lotions at all until the three weeks were over.

[4]I was standing on the bank of the great Tigris River. It was the 24th day of the first month. [5]I looked up and saw a man dressed in linen clothes. He had a belt around his waist. It was made out of fine gold from Uphaz. [6]His body gleamed like topaz. His face shone like lightning. His eyes were like flaming torches. His arms and legs were as bright as polished bronze. And his voice was like the sound of a large crowd.

[7]I was the only one who saw the vision. The people who were there with me didn't see it. But they were so terrified that they ran and hid. [8]So I was left alone as I was watching this great vision. I felt very weak. My face turned as pale as death. And I was helpless. [9]Then I heard the man speak. As I listened to him, I fell sound asleep. My face was toward the ground.

[10]A hand touched me. It pulled me up on my hands and knees. I began to tremble with fear. [11]The man said, "Daniel, you are highly respected. Think carefully about what I am going to say to you. And stand up. God has sent me to you." When he said that, I trembled as I stood up.

[12]He continued, "Do not be afraid, Daniel. You decided to get more understanding. You made yourself humble as you worshiped your God. Since the first day you did those things, your words were heard. I have come to give you an answer. [13]But the prince of Persia opposed me for 21 days. Then Michael came to help me. He is one of the leaders of the angels. He helped me win the battle over the king of Persia. [14]Now I have come to explain the vision to you. I will tell you what will happen to your people. The vision shows what will take place in days to come."

[15]While he was telling me these things, I bowed with my face toward the ground. I wasn't able to speak. [16]Then someone who looked like a man touched my lips. I opened my mouth. I began to speak to the one who was standing in front of me. I said, “My master, I’m greatly troubled because of the vision I’ve seen. And I feel very weak. 17How can I talk with you? My strength is gone. In fact, I can hardly breathe.”

18The one who looked like a man touched me again. He gave me strength. 19“Do not be afraid,” he said. “You are highly respected. May peace be with you! Be strong now. Be strong.”

When he spoke to me, I became stronger. I said, “Speak, my master. You have given me strength.”

20So he said, “Do you know why I have come to you? Soon I will return to fight against the prince of Persia. When I go, the prince of Greece will come. 21But first I will tell you what is written in the Book of Truth. No one gives me any help against those princes except Michael. He is your leader.

Daniel 11

[1]I stepped forward to help him and keep him safe. It was the first year that Darius, the Mede, was king.

The Kings of Egypt and Syria

[2]"Now then, what I'm about to tell you is true. Three more kings will come to power in Persia. Then a fourth one will rule. He will be much richer than all the others. He will use his wealth to gain power. And he will stir up everyone against the kingdom of Greece. [3]After him, a mighty king will come to power. He will rule with great power and do as he pleases. [4]Not long after his rule ends, his kingdom will be broken up. It will be divided up into four parts. His children will not receive it when he dies. And it will not be as strong as his kingdom. It will be pulled up by the roots. And it will be given to others.

[5]"The king of Egypt will become strong. But one of his commanders will become even stronger. He will rule over his own kingdom with great power. [6]After many years, the two kingdoms will join forces. The daughter of the next king of Egypt will go to the king of Syria. She will join forces with him. But she will not hold on to her power. And he and his power will not last either. In those days she and her attendants will die. They will die when the people she trusts lie to her. The same thing will happen to her father and the one who helped her.

[7]"Someone from her family line will take her place. He will attack the army of the next king of Syria. Then he will enter his fort. He will fight against that army and win. [8]He will take the metal statues of their gods. He will also take away their priceless objects of silver and gold. He will carry everything off to Egypt. For many years he will leave the king of Syria alone. [9]Then the king of Syria will march into territory that was controlled by Egypt. After that, he will return to his own country. [10]His sons will prepare for war. They will gather a huge army. It will sweep along like a mighty flood. The army will fight its way as far as one of the Egyptian forts.

[11]"Another king of Egypt will march out with mighty force. He will be very angry. By then, another person will have become king in Syria. The king of Egypt will come to fight against him. The king of Syria will gather a huge army. But that army will lose the battle. [12]His soldiers will be carried off. Then the king of Egypt will be filled with pride. He will kill many thousands of soldiers.

But his success will not last. [13]The king of Syria will bring another army together. It will be larger than the first one. After several years, he will march out with a huge army. It will have everything it needs for battle.

[14]"In those times many people will rise up against the next king of Egypt.
Lawless people in your own nation will refuse to obey him. That is what you saw in your vision. But they will not succeed. [15]Then the king of Syria will go to a certain city that has high walls around it. He will build ramps against them.
And he will capture that city. The forces of Egypt will not have the power to stop him. Even their best troops will not be strong enough to stand up against him.
[16]He will do anything he wants to. No one will be able to stand up against him.
He will take over the beautiful land of Israel. And he will have the power to destroy it. [17]The king of Syria will decide to come with the might of his entire kingdom. He will join forces with the king of Egypt. And the king of Syria will give his daughter to him to become his wife. The king of Syria will do this in order to take control of Egypt. But his plans will not succeed or help him. [18]Then he will turn his attention to the lands along the Mediterranean coast. He will take over many of them. But a commander will put an end to his proud actions. He will turn his pride back on him. [19]After this, the king of Syria will return to the forts in his own country. But he will trip and fall. And he will never be seen again.

[20]"The next king after him will send someone out to collect taxes. The taxes will help maintain the glory of his kingdom. But in a few years the king will be destroyed. It will not happen because someone becomes angry with him or kills him in battle.

[21]"After him, another king will take his place. Many people will hate him. He will not be honored as a king should be. He will lead an army into the kingdom when its people feel secure. He will make clever plans to capture it. [22]Then he will sweep away a huge army. The army and a prince of the covenant will be destroyed. [23]The king of Syria will make an agreement with that prince. But then the king of Syria will not keep his word. He will rise to even greater power with the help of only a few people. [24]When the people in the richest areas feel secure, he will attack them. He will do what the kings before him could not do. And he will reward his followers with the goods and wealth he takes. He will make clever plans to take over the forts. But that will last for only a short time.

[25]"He will become stronger and more confident. He will do that by gathering a large army. Then he will go to war against the next king of Egypt. That king will fight against him with a huge and very powerful army. But the king of Egypt will not be able to stand up against him. So the plans of the king of Syria will succeed. [26]The trusted advisers of the king of Egypt will try to destroy him. His army will be swept away. Many of his soldiers will be wounded or killed. [27]The kings of Syria and Egypt will sit at the same table. But in their hearts they will plan to do what is evil. And they will tell lies to each other. But it will not do them any good. God will put an end to their plans at his appointed time. [28]The king of Syria will return to his own country. He will go back there with great wealth. But he will make evil plans against the holy temple in Jerusalem. He will do a lot of harm to the temple and the people who worship there. Then he will return to his own country.

[29]"At God's appointed time, the king of Syria will march south again. But this time things will turn out differently. [30]Roman ships will oppose him. He will lose hope. Then he will turn back. He will take out his anger against the holy temple. And he will do good to the Jews who desert it.

[31]"His army will come and make the temple area 'unclean.' They will put a stop to the daily sacrifices. Then they will set up a hated thing that destroys. [32]He will pretend to praise those who have broken the covenant. He will lead them to do what is evil. But the people who know their God will firmly oppose him.

[33]"Those who are wise will teach many others. But for a while, some of the wise will be killed by swords. Others will be burned to death. Still others will be made prisoners. Or they will be robbed of everything they have. [34]When that happens, they will receive a little help. Many who are not honest will join them. [35]So some of the wise people will suffer. They will be made pure in the fire. They will be made spotless until the time of the end. It will still come at God's appointed time.

The King Who Honors Himself

[36]"A certain king will do as he pleases. He will honor himself. He will put himself above every god. He will say things against the greatest God of all. Those things have never been heard before. He will have success until God is not angry anymore. What God has decided to do must take place. [37]The king will not show any respect for the gods his people have always worshiped. There is a god desired by women. He will not respect that god either. He will not have respect for any god. Instead, he will put himself above all of them. [38]In place of them, he will worship a god of war. He will honor a god his people have not known before. He will give gold and silver to that god. He will bring jewels and expensive gifts to it. [39]He will attack the strongest forts. A new god will help him do it. He will greatly honor those who recognize him as their leader. He will make them rulers over many people. And he will give them land as a reward.

[40]"A king in the south will go to war against him. It will happen at the time of the end. The king who will honor himself will rush out against him. He will come with chariots and horsemen. He will attack with a lot of ships. He will lead his army into many countries. He will sweep through them like a flood. [41]He will also march into the beautiful land of Israel. Many countries will fall. But Edom, Moab and the leaders of Ammon will be saved from his mighty hand. [42]His power will reach out into many countries. Even Egypt will not escape. [43]He will gain control of all Egypt's riches. He will take their gold and silver treasures. The people of Libya and Cush will be under his control. [44]But reports from the east and the north will terrify him. He will march out with great anger to destroy many people and wipe them out. [45]He will set up his royal tents. He will put them between the Mediterranean Sea and the beautiful holy mountain of Zion. But his end will come. And no one will help him.

Daniel 12

The Time of the End

[1]"At that time Michael will appear. He is the great prince of the angels. He guards your people. There will be a time of terrible suffering. Things will be worse than at any time since nations began. But at that time of suffering your people will be saved. Their names are written in the book of life. [2]Many people who lie dead in their graves will wake up. Some will rise up to life that will never end. Others will rise up to shame that will never end. [3]Those who are wise will shine like the brightness of the sky. Those who lead many others to do what is right will be like the stars for ever and ever. [4]But I want you to roll up this scroll, Daniel. Seal it until the time of the end. Many people will go here and there to increase their knowledge."

[5]Then I looked up and saw two other angels. One was on this side of the Tigris River. And one was on the other side. [6]The man who was dressed in linen was above the waters of the river. One of the angels spoke to him. He asked, "How long will it be before these amazing things come true?"

[7]The man raised both hands toward heaven. I heard him make a promise in the name of the God who lives forever. He answered me, "Three and a half years. Then the power of the holy people will finally be broken. And all these things will come true."

[8]I heard what he said. But I didn't understand it. So I asked, "My master, what will come of all this?"

[9]He answered, "Go on your way, Daniel. The scroll is rolled up. It is sealed until the time of the end. [10]Many people will be made pure in the fire. They will be made spotless. But sinful people will continue to be evil. Not one sinful person will understand. But those who are wise will.

[11]"The daily sacrifices will be stopped. And the hated thing that destroys will be set up. After that, there will be 1,290 days. [12]Blessed are those who wait for the 1,335 days and reach the end of them.

[13]"Daniel, go on your way until the end. Your body will rest in the grave. Then at the end of the days you will rise from the dead. And you will receive what God has appointed for you."

Hosea

Hosea 1

[1]A message from the LORD came to Hosea, the son of Beeri. The message came while Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah were kings of Judah. It also came while Jeroboam was king of Israel. He was the son of Jehoash. Here is what the LORD said to him.

Hosea's Wife and Children

[2]The LORD began to speak through Hosea. He said to him, "Go. Marry a woman who has sex with anyone she wants. Have children with her. Do this because the people of the land are like that kind of wife. They have not been faithful to me." [3]So Hosea married Gomer. She was the daughter of Diblaim.
Gomer became pregnant and had a son by Hosea.

[4]Then the LORD said to Hosea, "Name him Jezreel. That's because I will soon punish Jehu's royal family. He killed many people at the city of Jezreel. So I will put an end to the kingdom of Israel. [5]At that time I will break their military power. It will happen in the Valley of Jezreel."

[6]Gomer became pregnant again. She had a daughter. Then the LORD said to Hosea, "Name her Lo-Ruhamah." Lo-Ruhamah means Not Loved. "That's because I will no longer show love to the people of Israel. I will not forgive them anymore. [7]But I will show love to the people of Judah. And I will save them. I will not use bows or swords or other weapons of war to do it. I will not save them by using horses and horsemen either. Instead, I will use my own power to save them. I am the LORD their God. And I will save them."

[8]Later, Gomer stopped nursing Lo-Ruhamah. After that, she had another son.
[9]Then the LORD said, "Name him Lo-Ammi." Lo-Ammi means Not My People.
"That's because Israel is no longer my people. And I am no longer their God.

[10]"But the time will come when the people of Israel will be like the sand on the seashore. It can't be measured or counted. Now it is said about them, 'You are not my people.' But at that time they will be called 'children of the living God.' [11]The people of Judah and Israel will come together again. They will appoint one leader and come up out of the land. And Jezreel's day will be great.

Hosea 2

[1]“People of Israel, call your brothers ‘My people.’ And call your sisters ‘My loved ones.’

Israel Is Punished and Brought Back to the LORD

[2]“Tell your mother she is wrong.
Tell her she is wrong.
She isn’t acting like a wife to me anymore.
She no longer treats me as her husband.
Tell her to stop looking and acting like a prostitute.
Tell her not to let her lovers lie on her breasts anymore.
[3]If she doesn’t stop it, I will strip her naked.
I’ll make her as bare as she was on the day she was born.
I’ll make her like a desert.
She will become like dry land.
And I’ll let her die of thirst.

[4]“I won’t show my love to her children.
They are the children of other men.
[5]Their mother hasn’t been faithful to me.
She who became pregnant with them has brought shame on herself.
She said, ‘I will chase after my lovers.
They give me my food and water.
They provide me with wool and linen.
They give me olive oil and wine.’
[6]So I will block her path with bushes that have thorns.
I’ll build a wall around her.
Then she can’t go to her lovers.
[7]She will still chase after her lovers.
But she won’t catch them.
She’ll look for them.
But she won’t find them.
Then she’ll say,

‘I’ll go back to my husband.
That’s where I was at first.
I was better off then than I am now.’
8She wouldn’t admit that I was the one who gave her everything she had.
I provided her with grain, olive oil and fresh wine.
I gave her plenty of silver and gold.
But she used it to make statues of Baal.

9“So I will take away my grain when it gets ripe.
I’ll take my fresh wine when it’s ready.
I’ll take back my wool and my linen.
I gave them to her to cover her naked body.
10So now I’ll uncover her body.
All her lovers will see it.
No one can stop me from punishing her.
11I will put a stop to the special times she celebrates.
I’ll bring an end to the feasts she celebrates each year.
I’ll stop her New Moon feasts and her Sabbath days.
I’ll bring all her appointed feasts to an end.
12I will destroy her vines and her fig trees.
She said they were her pay from her lovers.
I’ll make them like clumps of bushes and weeds.
Wild animals will eat them up.
13Israel burned incense to the gods
that were named Baal.
I will punish her
for all the times she did that.
She decorated herself with rings and jewelry.
Then she went after her lovers.
But she forgot all about me,”
declares the LORD.

14“So now I am going to draw her back to me.
I will lead her into the desert.
There I will speak tenderly to her.
15I will give her back her vineyards.
I will make the Valley of Achor a door of hope for her.

Then she will love me, as she did when she was young.
She will love me just as she did when she came up out of Egypt.

16“A new day is coming,” announces the LORD.
“Israel will call me ‘my husband.’
She will no longer call me ‘my master.’
17She will no longer speak about the gods that are named Baal.
She will not pray to them for help anymore.
18At that time I will make a covenant for the good of my people.
I will make it with the wild animals and the birds in the sky.
It will also be made with the creatures that move along the ground.
I will remove bows and swords and other weapons of war from the land.
Then my people can lie down in safety.
19I will make Israel my own.
She will belong to me forever.
I will do to her what is right and fair.
I will love her tenderly.
20I will be faithful to her.
And she will recognize me as the LORD.

21“So at that time I will answer her,”
announces the LORD.
“I will command the skies
to send rain on the earth.
22Then the earth will produce grain, olive oil and fresh wine.
And Israel will be called Jezreel.
That’s because I will answer her prayers.
23I will plant her in the land for myself.
I will show my love to the one I called Not My Loved One.
I will say, ‘You are my people’
to those who were called Not My People.
And they will say, ‘You are my God.’ ”

Hosea 3

Hosea Brings His Wife Back to Himself

[1]The LORD said to me, “Go. Show your love to your wife again. She is loved by another man. And she has committed adultery. But I want you to love her just as I love the people of Israel. They turn to other gods. And they love to offer raisin cakes to Baal and eat them. In spite of that, I love my people.”

[2]So I bought Gomer for six ounces of silver and 430 pounds of barley. [3]Then I told her, “You must wait for me for a long time. You must not be a prostitute.
You must not have sex with any man. And I will be faithful to you too.”

[4]So the people of Israel will live for a long time without a king or prince. They won’t have sacrifices or sacred stones. They won’t have sacred linen aprons or statues of family gods. [5]After that, the people of Israel will return to the LORD their God. They will look to him and to a king from the family line of David. In the last days, they will tremble with fear as they come to the LORD. And they will receive his full blessing.

Hosea 4

The LORD Brings Charges Against Israel

[1]People of Israel, listen to the LORD's message.
He is bringing charges against you who live in Israel.
He says, "There is no faithfulness or love in the land.
No one recognizes me as God.
[2]People curse one another.
They tell lies and commit murder.
They steal and commit adultery.
They break all my laws.
They keep spilling the blood of other people.
[3]That is why the land is drying up.
All those who live in it are getting weaker and weaker.
The wild animals and the birds in the sky are dying.
So are the fish in the ocean.

[4]"But you priests should not blame the people.
You should not find fault with one another.
After all, your people could also bring charges against you.
[5]You trip and fall day and night.
And the prophets fall down along with you.
So I will destroy your nation.
She is the one who gave birth to you.
[6]My people are destroyed because they do not know me.

"You priests have refused to obey me.
So I will refuse to accept you as my priests.
You have not paid any attention to my law.
So I will not let your children be my priests.
[7]The more priests there were,

the more they sinned against me.
They have traded their glorious God for that shameful god named Baal.
8They live off the sins of my people.
And they want them to keep on sinning.
9So here is what I will do.
I will punish people and priests alike.
I will judge them because of their sinful lives.
I will pay them back for the evil things they have done.

10"My people will eat.
But they will not have enough.
They will have sex with prostitutes.
But they will not have any children.
That's because they have deserted me.
They have sex 11with prostitutes.
They drink old wine and fresh wine.
Their drinking has destroyed their ability to understand.
12My people ask a wooden statue of a god for advice.
They get answers from a stick of wood.
They are as unfaithful as prostitutes.
They are not faithful to their God.
13They offer sacrifices on the mountaintops.
They burn offerings on the hills.
They worship under oak, poplar and terebinth trees.
The trees provide plenty of shade.
So your daughters become prostitutes.
And your daughters-in-law commit adultery.

14"I will not punish your daughters when they become prostitutes.
I will not judge your daughters-in-law
when they commit adultery.
After all, the men themselves have sex with sinful women.
They offer sacrifices where temple prostitutes earn their living.
People who can't understand will be destroyed!

15“Israel, you are not faithful to me.
But I do not want Judah to become guilty too.

“My people, do not go to Gilgal to offer sacrifices.
Do not go up to Bethel to worship other gods.
When you make a promise, do not say,
‘You can be sure that the LORD is alive.’
16The people of Israel are stubborn.
They are as stubborn as a young cow.
So how can I take care of them
like lambs in a meadow?
17The people of Ephraim have joined themselves to other gods.
And nothing can be done to help them.
18They continue to be unfaithful to me
even when their drinks are gone.
And their rulers love to do shameful things.
19A windstorm will blow all of them away.
And their sacrifices will bring shame on them.

Hosea 5

The LORD Judges Israel

[1]“Listen to me, you priests!
Pay attention, people of Israel!
Listen, you members of the royal family!
Here is my decision against you.
You have been like a trap at Mizpah.
You have been like a net spread out on Mount Tabor.
[2]You refuse to obey me.
You are knee-deep in killing.
So I will punish all of you.
[3]I know all about the people of Ephraim.
What Israel is doing is not hidden from me.
Now they have joined themselves to other gods.
They have made themselves ‘unclean.’

[4]“They can’t return to me because they have done so many evil things.
In their hearts they long to act like prostitutes.
They do not recognize me as the LORD.
[5]Israel’s pride proves that they are guilty.
The people of Ephraim trip and fall because they have sinned.
Judah falls down along with them.
[6]Israel will come to worship the LORD.
They will bring their animals to offer as sacrifices.
But they will not find him.
He has turned away from them.
[7]They are not faithful to the LORD.
Their children are not his.
When they celebrate their New Moon feasts,
he will destroy their fields.

[8]“My people, blow trumpets in Gibeah!
Blow horns in Ramah!
Shout the battle cry in Bethel!

Say to the people of Benjamin, ‘Lead on into battle!’
9The people of Ephraim will be completely destroyed when it is time for me to punish them.
They can be sure it will happen.
I am announcing it among their tribes.
10Judah’s leaders have stolen some land.
They have moved their borders farther north.
So I will pour out my anger on them like a flood of water.
11Ephraim will soon be crushed.
The Assyrians will stomp all over them.
It will happen because they have made up their minds to chase after other gods.
12I will be like a moth to Ephraim.
I will cause Judah to rot away.

13“The people of Ephraim saw how sick they were.
The people of Judah saw that they were wounded.
Then Ephraim turned to Assyria for help.
They sent gifts to the great King Tiglath-Pileser.
But he is not able to make you well.
He can’t heal your wounds.
14I will be like a lion to Ephraim.
I will attack Judah like a powerful lion.
I will tear them to pieces.
I will drag them off.
Then I will leave them.
No one will be able to save them.
15I will go back to my lion’s den.
I will stay there until they pay the price for their sin.
Then they will turn to me.
They will suffer so much that they will really want me to help them.”

Hosea 6

Israel Refuses to Turn Away From Their Sins

[1]The people say, “Come.
Let us return to the LORD.
He has torn us to pieces.
But he will heal us.
He has wounded us.
But he’ll bandage our wounds.
[2]After two days he will give us new life.
On the third day he’ll make us like new again.
Then we will enjoy his blessing.
[3]Let’s recognize him as the LORD.
Let’s keep trying to know him.
You can be sure the sun will rise.
And you can be just as sure the LORD will appear.
He will come to renew us like the winter rains.
He will be like the spring rains that water the earth.”

[4]The LORD says, “Ephraim, what can I do with you?
And what can I do with you, Judah?
Your love for me vanishes like the morning mist.
It soon disappears like the early dew.
[5]So I used the words of my prophets to cut you in pieces.
I used my words to put you to death.
Then my judgments blazed out like the sun.
[6]I want mercy and not sacrifice.
I want you to recognize me as God
instead of bringing me burnt offerings.
[7]Just as at the city of Adam, they disobeyed me,
they have broken the covenant I made with them.
They were not faithful to me there.
[8]Ramoth Gilead is a city where sinful people live.
It is stained with footprints of blood.
[9]On the road to Shechem, groups of priests act like robbers.
They hide and wait to attack people.

They murder them.
So they carry out their evil plans.
10 I have seen a horrible thing in Israel.
The people of Ephraim are unfaithful to their own God.
The people of Israel are ‘unclean.’

11 “People of Judah, I have also appointed a time for you to be destroyed.

“I would like to bless my people
with great success again.

Hosea 7

[1]I would like to heal Israel.
But when I try to, Ephraim’s sins are brought out into the open.
The crimes of Samaria are made known to everyone.
The people tell lies.
They break into houses and steal.
They rob others in the streets.
[2]But they do not realize that I remember all the evil things they do.
Their sins pile up and cover them.
I am always aware of their sins.

[3]“Their evil conduct even makes the king glad.
Their lies make the princes happy.
[4]But all the people are unfaithful to the king.
Their anger against him burns
like the coals in an oven.
The baker does not even need to stir up the fire until the dough is ready.”

[5]On special days to honor our king,
the princes get drunk with wine.
And the king enjoys the party.
He joins hands with those who pretend to be faithful to him.
[6]Their hearts are as hot as an oven.
They make evil plans to get rid of him.
Their anger burns like a slow fire all night.
In the morning it blazes out like a flaming fire.
[7]All of them are as hot as an oven.
They destroy their rulers.
All their kings fall from power.
But none of them calls on the LORD for help.

[8]The people of Ephraim mix with the nations.
They are like a thin loaf of bread that is baked on only one side.
[9]People from other lands make them weaker and weaker.
But they don’t realize it.
Their hair is becoming gray.
But they don’t even notice it.
[10]The pride of Israel proves that they are guilty.
But in spite of everything,
they don’t return to the LORD their God.
They don’t go to him for help.

[11]The LORD says,

“The people of Ephraim are like a dove.
They are easily tricked.
They do not have any sense at all.
First they call out to Egypt for help.
Then they turn to Assyria.
[12]When they send for help,
I will throw my net over them.
I will capture them like the birds in the sky.
When I hear them gathering like birds,
I will catch them.
[13]How terrible it will be for them!
They have wandered away from me.
So they will be destroyed.
That’s because they have refused to obey me.
I long to save them.
But they tell lies about me.
[14]They do not cry out to me from their hearts.
Instead, they just lie on their beds and sob.
They cut themselves when they pray to their gods for grain and fresh wine.
But they turn away from me.
[15]I brought them up and made them strong.
But they make evil plans against me.
[16]I am the Most High God. But they do not turn to me.

They are like a bow that does not shoot straight.
Their leaders will be killed by swords.
They will die because they have spoken too proudly.
The people of Egypt will make fun of them.”

Hosea 8

Israel Will Harvest a Windstorm

[1]The LORD said to me,

"Put a trumpet to your lips!
Give a warning to my people!
Assyria is like an eagle.
It is ready to attack my land.
My people have broken the covenant I made with them.
They have refused to obey my law.
[2]Israel shouts to me,
'We recognize you as our God!'
[3]But they have turned away from what is good.
So an enemy will chase them.
[4]My people appoint kings I do not want.
They choose princes without my permission.
They use their silver and gold to make statues of gods.
That is how they destroy themselves."
[5]The LORD says, "People of Samaria, throw out your god that looks like a calf!
I am very angry with them.
How long will it be until they are able to remain faithful to me?
[6]Their calf is not God.
A skilled worker from Israel made it.
But that calf of Samaria will be broken to pieces."

[7]The LORD says,

"Worshiping other gods is like worshiping the wind.
It is like planting worthless seeds.
Assyria is like a windstorm.
That is all my people will harvest.
There are no heads of grain on the stems that will come up.

So they will not produce any flour.
Even if they did produce grain,
the Assyrians would eat all of it up.
8 So the people of Israel are swallowed up.
Now they are among the nations like something no one wants.
9 They have gone up to Assyria for help.
They are like a wild donkey that wanders around by itself.
Ephraim's people have sold themselves to their Assyrian lovers.
10 They have sold themselves to the nations to get their help.
But now I will gather them together.
They will get weaker and weaker.
The mighty kings of Assyria will crush them.

11 "Ephraim built many altars where they sacrificed sin offerings to other gods.
So their altars have become places where they commit sin.
12 In my law I wrote down many things for their good.
But they considered those things as something strange.
13 They offer sacrifices as gifts to me.
They eat the meat of the animals they bring.
But the LORD is not pleased with any of this.
He will remember the evil things they have done.
He will punish them for their sins.
And they will return to Egypt.
14 Israel has forgotten the God who made them.
They have built palaces for themselves.
Judah has built forts in many towns.
But I will send down fire on their cities.
It will burn up their forts."

Hosea 9

Israel Will Be Punished

[1]Israel, don't be joyful.
Don't be glad as the other nations are.
You haven't been faithful to your God.
You love to get paid for being a prostitute.
Your pay is the grain at every threshing floor.
[2]But soon there won't be any grain or wine to feed you.
There won't even be any fresh wine.
[3]You won't remain in the LORD's land.
Ephraim, you will return to Egypt.
You will eat "unclean" food in Assyria.
[4]You won't pour out wine offerings to the LORD.
Your sacrifices won't please him.
They'll be like the bread people eat when someone dies.
Everyone who eats those sacrifices will be "unclean."
They themselves will have to eat that kind of food.
They can't bring it into the LORD's temple.

[5]What will you do when your appointed feasts come?
What will you do on the LORD's special days?
[6]Some of you will escape without being destroyed.
But you will die in Egypt.
Your bodies will be buried at Memphis.
Weeds will cover your treasures of silver.
Thorns will grow up in your tents.
[7]The time when God will punish you is coming.
The day when he will judge you is near.
I want Israel to know this.
You have committed many sins.
And you hate me very much.
That's why you think the prophet is foolish.
You think the person the LORD speaks through is crazy.
[8]People of Ephraim, the prophet, along with my God, is warning you of danger.

But you set traps for him everywhere he goes.
You hate him so much you even wait for him in God's house.
9You have sunk very deep into sin,
just as your people did at Gibeah long ago.
God will remember the evil things they have done.
He will punish them for their sins.

10The LORD says,

"When I first found Israel,
it was like finding grapes in the desert.
When I saw your people of long ago,
it was like seeing the early fruit on a fig tree.
But then they went to Baal Peor.
There they gave themselves to that shameful god named Baal.
They became as evil as the god they loved.
11Ephraim's greatness and glory will be gone.
It will fly away like a bird.
Women will no longer have children.
They will not be able to get pregnant.
12But suppose they do have children.
Then I will kill every one of them.
How terrible it will be for them
when I turn away from them!
13Tyre is planted in a pleasant place.
And so is Ephraim.
But the Assyrians will kill Ephraim's children."
14LORD, what should you do to Ephraim's people?
Give them women whose babies die before they are born.
Give them women whose breasts have no milk.

15The LORD says,

"My people did many evil things in Gilgal.
That is why I hated them there.
They committed many sins.

So I will drive them out of my land.
I will not love them anymore.
All their leaders refuse to obey me.
16 Ephraim is like a worthless plant.
Its roots are dried up.
It does not produce any fruit.
Suppose Ephraim's people have children.
Then I will kill the children they love so much."

17 My God will turn his back on his people.
They have not obeyed him.
So they will wander among other nations.

Hosea 10

[1]Israel was like a spreading vine.
They produced fruit for themselves.
As they grew more fruit,
they built more altars.
As their land became richer,
they made more beautiful the sacred stones they worshiped.
[2]Their hearts are dishonest.
So now they must pay for their sins.
The LORD will tear down their altars.
He'll destroy their sacred stones.

[3]Then they'll say, "We don't have a king.
That's because we didn't have any respect for the LORD.
But suppose we did have a king.
What could he do for us?"
[4]They make a lot of promises.
They make agreements among themselves.
They make promises they don't mean to keep.
So court cases spring up like poisonous weeds in a plowed field.
[5]The people who live in Samaria are filled with fear.
They are afraid for their god that looks like a calf.
They're afraid it will be carried off from Beth Aven, that evil town.
They will mourn over it.
So will the priests who led them to worship it.
The priests were full of joy because their statue was so glorious.
But it will be captured and taken far away from them.
[6]It will be carried off to Assyria.
The people of Ephraim will be forced to give it to the great king.
They will be dishonored.

Israel will be ashamed of its agreements with other nations.
7 Samaria's king will be destroyed.
He will be like a twig swept away by a river.
8 The high places where Israel worshiped other gods
will be destroyed.
That's where they sinned against the LORD.
Thorns and weeds will grow up there.
They will cover the altars.
Then the people will say to the mountains, "Cover us!"
They'll say to the hills, "Fall on us!"

9 The LORD says,

"Israel, you have done evil things
ever since your people sinned at Gibeah long ago.
And you are still doing what is evil.
War will come again
to those who sinned at Gibeah.
10 I will punish them when I want to.
Nations will gather together to fight against them.
They will put them in chains because they have committed so many sins.
11 Ephraim was like a well-trained young cow.
It loved to thresh grain.
So I will put a yoke
on its pretty neck.
I will make Ephraim do hard work.
Judah also must plow.
So all the people of Jacob must break up the ground.
12 Your hearts are as hard as a field
that has not been plowed.
If you change your ways,
you will produce good crops.
So plant the seeds of doing what is right.
Then you will harvest the fruit of your faithful love.
It is time to seek the LORD.

When you do, he will come and shower his blessings on you.
13But you have planted the seeds of doing what is wrong.
So you have harvested the fruit of your evil conduct.
You have had to eat the fruit of your lies.
You have trusted in your own strength.
You have depended on your many soldiers.
14But the roar of battle will come against you.
All your forts will be completely destroyed.
It will happen just as Shalman destroyed Beth Arbel in a battle.
Mothers and their children were smashed on the ground.
15People of Bethel, that will happen to you.
You have committed far too many sins.
When the time comes for me to punish you,
the king of Israel will be completely destroyed.”

Hosea 11

God Loves Israel

[1]The LORD continues,

"When Israel was a young nation, I loved them.
I chose to bring my son out of Egypt.
[2]But the more I called out to Israel,
the more they went away from me.
They brought sacrifices to the statues of the gods
that were named Baal.
And they burned incense to them.
[3]I taught Ephraim to walk.
I took them up in my arms.
But they did not realize
I was the one who took care of them.
[4]I led them with kindness and love.
I was to them like a person who lifts
a little child to their cheek.
I bent down and fed them.

[5]"But they refuse to turn away from their sins.
So they will return to Egypt.
And Assyria will rule over them.
[6]A sword will flash in their cities.
It will destroy the prophets who teach lies.
It will bring an end to their plans.
[7]My people have made up their minds to turn away from me.
Even if they call me the Most High God,
I will certainly not honor them."

[8]The LORD continues,

"People of Ephraim, how can I give you up?
Israel, how can I hand you over to your enemies?
Can I destroy you as I did the town of Admah?

Can I treat you like Zeboyim?
My heart is stirred inside me.
It is filled with pity for you.
9 I will not be so angry with you anymore.
I will not completely destroy you again.
After all, I am God.
I am not a mere man.
I am the Holy One among you.
I will not direct my anger against their cities.
10 I will roar like a lion against my enemies.
Then the LORD's people will follow him.
When he roars, his children will come home trembling with fear.
They will return from the west.
11 They will come from Egypt, trembling like sparrows.
They will return from Assyria, flying in like doves.
I will settle you again in your homes,"
announces the LORD.

Israel Has Sinned

12 The people of Ephraim tell me nothing but lies.
Israel has not been honest with me.
And Judah continues to wander away from God.
They have deserted the faithful Holy One.

Hosea 12

[1]The people of Ephraim look to others for help.
It's like chasing the wind.
The wind they keep chasing is hot and dry.
They tell more and more lies.
They are always hurting others.
They make a peace treaty with Assyria.
They send olive oil to Egypt to get help.
[2]The LORD is bringing charges against Judah.
He will punish Jacob's people because of how they act.
He'll pay them back for the evil things they've done.
[3]Even before Jacob was born,
he was holding on to his brother's heel.
When he became a man,
he struggled with God.
[4]At Peniel he struggled with the angel and won.
Jacob wept and begged for his blessing.
God also met with him at Bethel.
He talked with him there.
[5]He is the LORD God who rules over all.
His name is the LORD.
[6]People of Jacob, you must return to your God.
You must hold on to love and do what is fair.
You must trust in your God always.

[7]You are like a trader who uses dishonest scales.
You love to cheat others.
[8]People of Ephraim, you brag,
"We are very rich.
We've become wealthy.
And no one can prove we sinned to gain all this wealth."

[9]The LORD says,

"I have been the LORD your God
ever since you came out of Egypt.
But I will make you live in tents again.
That is what you did when you celebrated the Feast of Booths in the desert.
[10]I spoke to the prophets.
They saw many visions.
I gave you warnings through them."

[11]The people of Gilead are evil!
They aren't worth anything!
Gilgal's people sacrifice bulls to other gods.
Their altars will become like piles of stones on a plowed field.
[12]Jacob ran away to the country of Aram.
There Israel served Laban to get a wife.
He took care of sheep to pay for her.
[13]The prophet Moses brought Israel up from Egypt.
The LORD used him to take care of them.
[14]But Ephraim's people have made the LORD very angry.
Their Lord will hold them accountable for the blood they've spilled.
He'll pay them back for the shameful things they've done.

Hosea 13

The LORD Is Angry With Israel

[1]When the tribe of Ephraim spoke, the other tribes trembled with fear.
Ephraim was honored in Israel.
But its people sinned by worshiping Baal.
So they were as good as dead.
[2]Now they sin more and more.
They use their silver to make statues of gods for themselves.
The statues come from their own clever ideas.
Skilled workers make all of them.
The people pray to these gods.
They offer human sacrifices to them.
They kiss the gods that look like calves.
[3]So these people will vanish like the morning mist.
They will soon disappear like the early dew.
They will be like straw that the wind blows around on a threshing floor.
They will be like smoke that escapes through a window.

[4]The LORD says,

"People of Israel, I have been the LORD your God
ever since you came out of Egypt.
You must not worship any god but me.
You must not have any savior except me.
[5]I took care of you in the desert.
It was a land of burning heat.
[6]I fed them until they were satisfied.
Then they became proud.
They forgot all about me.
[7]So I will leap on them like a lion.
I will hide and wait

beside the road like a leopard.
8I will attack them like a bear that is robbed of her cubs.
I will rip them wide open.
Like a lion I will eat them up.
Like a wild animal I will tear them apart.

9"Israel, you will be destroyed.
I helped you. But you turned against me.
10Where is your king?
Wasn't he supposed to save you?
Where are the rulers in all your towns?
You said, 'Give us a king and princes.'
11So I became angry and gave you a king.
Then I took him away from you.
12Ephraim's guilt is piling up.
I am keeping a record of all their sins.
13They will suffer pain like a woman having a baby.
They are like foolish children.
It is time for them to be born.
But they don't have the sense to come out of their mother's body.

14"I will set these people free from the power of the grave.
I will save them from death.
Death, where are your plagues?
Grave, where is your power to destroy?

"I will no longer pity Ephraim.
15Even though they are doing well among the other tribes, trouble will come to them.
I will send a hot and dry wind from the east.
It will blow in from the desert.
Their springs will not have any water.
Their wells will dry up.
All their treasures
will be taken out of their storerooms.
16The people of Samaria must pay for their sins.

They have refused to obey me.
They will be killed by swords.
Their little children will be smashed on the ground.
Their pregnant women will be ripped wide open.”

Hosea 14

The LORD Blesses Those Who Turn Away From Sin

[1]Israel, return to the LORD your God.
Your sins have destroyed you!
[2]Tell the LORD you are turning away from your sins.
Return to him.
Say to him,
"Forgive us for all our sins.
Please be kind to us.
Welcome us back to you.
Then our lips will offer you our praise.
[3]Assyria can't save us.
We won't trust in our war horses.
Our own hands have made statues of gods.
But we will never call them our gods again.
We are like children whose fathers have died.
But you show us your tender love."

[4]Then the LORD will answer,

"My people always wander away from me.
But I will put an end to that.
My anger has turned away from them.
Now I will love them freely.
[5]I will be like the dew to Israel.
They will bloom like a lily.
They will send their roots down deep like a cedar tree in Lebanon.
[6]They will spread out like new branches.
They will be as beautiful as an olive tree.
They will smell as sweet as the cedar trees in Lebanon.
[7]Once again my people will live in the safety of my shade.
They will grow like grain.
They will bloom like vines.

And Israel will be as famous as wine from Lebanon.
[8]Ephraim will have nothing more to do with other gods.
I will answer the prayers of my people.
I will take good care of them.
I will be like a healthy juniper tree to them.
All the fruit they bear will come from me.”

[9]If someone is wise, they will realize that what I’ve said is true.
If they have understanding,
they will know what it means.
The ways of the LORD are right.
People who are right with God live the way he wants them to.
But those who refuse to obey him trip and fall.

Joel

Joel 1

[1]A message from the LORD came to Joel, the son of Pethuel. Here is what Joel said.

Locusts Attack the Land

[2]Elders, listen to me.
Pay attention, all you who live in the land.
Has anything like this ever happened in your whole life?
Did it ever happen to your people who lived long ago?
[3]Tell your children about it.
Let them tell their children.
And let their children tell it to those who live after them.
[4]The giant locusts have eaten
what the common locusts have left.
The young locusts have eaten
what the giant locusts have left.
And other locusts have eaten
what the young locusts have left.

[5]Get up and weep, you people who drink too much!
Cry, all you who drink wine!
Cry because the fresh wine has been taken away from you.
[6]The locusts are like a mighty army that has marched into our land.
There are so many of them
they can’t even be counted.
Their teeth are as sharp as a lion’s teeth.
They are like the fangs of a female lion.
[7]The locusts have completely destroyed our vines.
They have wiped out our fig trees.

They've stripped off the bark and thrown it away.
They've left the branches bare.

8 My people, mourn like a virgin who is dressed in the clothes of sadness.
She is sad because she has lost
the young man she was going to marry.
9 No one brings grain offerings and drink offerings to the LORD's house anymore.
So the priests who serve the LORD are filled with sorrow.
10 Our fields are wiped out.
The ground is dried up.
The grain is destroyed.
The fresh wine is gone.
And there isn't any more olive oil.
11 Farmers, be sad.
Cry, you who grow vines.
Mourn because the wheat and barley are gone.
The crops in the fields are destroyed.
12 The vines and fig trees are dried up.
The pomegranate, palm and apple trees
don't have any fruit on them.
In fact, all the trees in the fields are dried up.
And my people's joy has faded away.

A Call to Mourn

13 Priests, put on the clothing of sadness and mourn.
Cry, you who serve at the altar.
Come, you who serve my God in the temple.
Spend the night dressed in the clothes of sadness.
Weep because no one brings grain offerings and drink offerings to the house of your God anymore.
14 Announce a holy fast.
Tell the people not to eat anything.
Gather them together for a special service.
Send for the elders and all who live in the land.

Have them come to the house of the LORD your God.
And pray to him.

15 The day of the LORD is near.
How sad it will be on that day!
The Mighty One is coming to destroy you.

16 Our food has been taken away right in front of our eyes.
There isn't any joy or gladness
in the house of our God.
17 The seeds have dried up in the ground.
The grain is also gone.
The storerooms have been destroyed.
The barns are broken down.
18 Listen to the cattle groan!
The herds wander around.
They don't have any grass to eat.
The flocks of sheep are also suffering.

19 LORD, I call out to you.
Fire has burned up the desert grasslands.
Flames have destroyed all the trees in the fields.
20 Even the wild animals cry out to you for help.
The streams of water have dried up.
Fire has burned up the desert grasslands.

Joel 2

The LORD Sends an Army of Locusts

[1]Priests, blow the trumpets in Zion.
Give a warning on my holy mountain.
Let everyone who lives in the land tremble with fear.
The day of the LORD is coming.
It is very near.
[2]That day will be dark and sad.
It will be black and cloudy.
A huge army of locusts is coming.
They will spread across the mountains
like the sun when it rises.
There has never been an army like it.
And there will never be another
for all time to come.

[3]Like fire they eat up everything in their path.
Behind them it looks as if flames have burned the land.
In front of them the land is like the Garden of Eden.
Behind them it is a dry and empty desert.
Nothing escapes them.
[4]They look like horses.
Like war horses they charge ahead.
[5]They sound like chariots as they leap over the mountaintops.
They crackle like fire burning up dry weeds.
They are like a mighty army that is ready for battle.

[6]When people see them, they tremble with fear.
All their faces turn pale.
[7]The locusts charge ahead like warriors.
They climb over walls like soldiers.
All of them march in line.
They don’t turn to the right or the left.
[8]They don’t bump into one another.

Each of them marches straight ahead.
They charge through everything that tries to stop them.
But they still stay in line.
9They attack a city.
They run along its wall.
They climb into houses.
They enter through windows like robbers.

10As they march forward, the earth shakes.
The heavens tremble as they approach.
The sun and moon grow dark.
And the stars stop shining.
11The LORD thunders with his mighty voice
as he leads his army.
He has so many forces they can't even be counted.
The army that obeys his commands is mighty.
The day of the LORD is great and terrifying.
Who can live through it?

Let Your Hearts Be Broken

12The LORD announces to his people,

"Return to me with all your heart.
There is still time.
Do not eat any food.
Weep and mourn."

13Don't just tear your clothes to show how sad you are.
Let your hearts be broken.
Return to the LORD your God.
He is gracious.
He is tender and kind.
He is slow to get angry.
He is full of love.
He won't bring his judgment.
He won't destroy you.
14Who knows? He might turn toward you and not bring his judgment.

He might even give you his blessing.
Then you can bring grain offerings and drink offerings to the LORD your God.

15 Priests, blow the trumpets in Zion.
Announce a holy fast.
Tell the people not to eat anything.
Gather them together for a special service.
16 Bring them together.
Set all of them apart to me.
Bring together the elders.
Gather the children and the babies who are still nursing.
Let the groom leave his bedroom.
Let the bride leave their marriage bed.
17 Let the priests who serve the LORD weep.
Let them cry between the temple porch and the altar.
Let them say, “LORD, spare your people.
Don’t let others make fun of them.
Don’t let the nations laugh at them.
Don’t let them tease your people and say,
‘Where is their God?’ ”

The LORD Answers the Prayer of His People

18 Then the LORD was concerned for his land.
He took pity on his people.

19 He replied,

“I am sending you grain, olive oil and fresh wine.
It will be enough to satisfy you completely.
I will never allow other nations to make fun of you again.

20 “I will drive far away from you
the army that comes from the north.
I will send some of its forces

into a dry and empty land.
Its eastern troops will drown in the Dead Sea.
Its western troops will drown in the Mediterranean Sea.
Their dead bodies will stink.”

The LORD has done great things.
[21]Land of Judah, don’t be afraid.
Be glad and full of joy.
The LORD has done great things.
[22]Wild animals, don’t be afraid.
The desert grasslands are turning green again.
The trees are bearing their fruit.
The vines and fig trees are producing rich crops.
[23]People of Zion, be glad.
Be joyful because of what the LORD your God has done.
He has given you the right amount of rain in the fall.
That’s because he is faithful.
He has sent you plenty of showers.
He has sent fall and spring rains alike,
just as he did before.
[24]Your threshing floors will be covered with grain.
Olive oil and fresh wine will spill over from the places where they are stored.

[25]The LORD says,

“I sent a great army of locusts to attack you.
They included common locusts, giant locusts,
young locusts and other locusts.
I will make up for the years
they ate your crops.
[26]You will have plenty to eat.
It will satisfy you completely.
Then you will praise me.
I am the LORD your God.
I have done wonderful things for you.
My people will never again be put to shame.
[27]You will know that I am with you in Israel.

I am the LORD your God.
There is no other God.
So my people will never again be put to shame.

The Day of the LORD Is Coming

28 “After that, I will pour out my Spirit on all people.
Your sons and daughters will prophesy.
Your old men will have dreams.
Your young men will have visions.
29 In those days I will pour out my Spirit on those who serve me, men and women alike.
30 I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth.
There will be blood and fire and clouds of smoke.
31 The sun will become dark.
The moon will turn red like blood.
It will happen before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes.
32 Everyone who calls out to me will be saved.
On Mount Zion and in Jerusalem
some of my people will be left alive.
I have chosen them.
That is what I have promised.

Joel 3

The LORD Judges the Nations

[1]“At that time I will bless Judah and Jerusalem
with great success again.
[2]I will gather together all the nations.
I will bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat.
There I will put them on trial.
I will judge them for what they have done to my people Israel.
They scattered them among the nations.
They divided up my land among themselves.
[3]They cast lots for my people.
They sold boys into slavery to get prostitutes.
They sold girls to buy some wine to drink.

[4]“Tyre and Sidon, why are you doing things like that to me? And why are you doing them, all you people in Philistia? Are you trying to get even with me for something I have done? If you are, I will pay you back for it in a quick and speedy way. [5]You took my silver and gold. You carried off my finest treasures to your temples. [6]You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks. You wanted to send them far away from their own country.

[7]“But now I will stir them up into action. I will bring them back from the places you sold them to. And I will do to you what you did to them. [8]I will sell your sons and daughters to the people of Judah. And they will sell them to the Sabeans. The Sabeans are a nation that is far away.” The LORD has spoken.

[9]Announce this among the nations.
Tell them to prepare for battle.
Nations, get your soldiers ready!
Bring all your fighting men together and march out to attack.
[10]Hammer your plows into swords.
Hammer your pruning tools into spears.
Let anyone who is weak say,
“I am strong!”

[11]Come quickly, all you surrounding nations.
Gather together in the Valley of Jehoshaphat.

LORD, send down your soldiers from heaven!

[12]The LORD says,

"Stir up the nations into action!
Let them march into the valley
where I will judge them.
I will take my seat in court.
I will judge all the surrounding nations.
[13]My soldiers, swing your blades.
The nations are ripe for harvest.
Come and stomp on them as if they were grapes.
Crush them until the winepress of my anger is full.
Do it until the wine spills over from the places where it is stored.
The nations have committed far too many sins!"

[14]Huge numbers of soldiers are gathered in the valley where the LORD will hand down his sentence.
The day of the LORD is near in that valley.
[15]The sun and moon will become dark.
The stars won't shine anymore.
[16]The LORD will roar like a lion from Jerusalem.
His voice will sound like thunder from Zion.
The earth and the heavens will tremble.
But the LORD will keep the people of Israel safe.
He will be a place of safety for them.

The LORD Blesses His People

[17]The LORD says,

"You will know that I am the LORD your God.
I live in Zion.
It is my holy mountain.
Jerusalem will be my holy city.

People from other lands will never again attack it.

18“At that time fresh wine will drip from the mountains.
Milk will flow down from the hills.
Water will run through all Judah’s valleys.
A fountain will flow out of my temple.
It will water the places where acacia trees grow.
19But Egypt will be deserted.
Edom will become a dry and empty desert.
They did terrible harm to the people of Judah.
My people were not guilty of doing anything wrong.
But Egypt and Edom spilled their blood anyway.
20My people will live in Judah and Jerusalem forever.
The land will be their home for all time to come.
21Egypt and Edom have spilled my people’s blood.
Should I let them escape my judgment?
No, I will not.”

The LORD lives in Zion!

Amos

Amos 1

[1]These are the words of Amos. He was a shepherd from the town of Tekoa. Here is the vision he saw concerning Israel. It came to him two years before the earthquake. At that time Uzziah was king of Judah. Jeroboam, the son of Jehoash, was king of Israel. Here are the words of Amos.

[2]He said,

"The LORD roars like a lion from Jerusalem.
His voice sounds like thunder from Zion.
The grasslands of the shepherds turn brown.
The top of Mount Carmel dries up."

The LORD Judges Israel's Neighbors

[3]The LORD says,

"The people of Damascus have sinned again and again.
So I will judge them.
They used threshing sleds with iron teeth to crush Gilead's people.
[4]So I will send fire to destroy the palace of King Hazael.
It will burn up the forts of his son Ben-Hadad.
[5]I will break down the city gate of Damascus.
I will kill the king
who lives in the Valley of Aven, that evil place.
He holds the ruler's scepter in Beth Eden.
The people of Aram will be taken away to Kir as prisoners,"
says the LORD.

[6]The LORD says,

"The people of Gaza have sinned again and again.
So I will judge them.
They captured whole communities.

They sold them to Edom.
[7]So I will send fire to destroy the walls of Gaza.
It will burn up its forts.
[8]I will kill the king of Ashdod.
He holds the ruler's scepter in Ashkelon.
I will use my power against Ekron.
Every single Philistine will die," says the LORD and King.

[9]The LORD says,

"The people of Tyre have sinned again and again.
So I will judge them.
They captured whole communities.
They sold them to Edom.
They did not honor the treaty of friendship they had made.
[10]So I will send fire to destroy the walls of Tyre.
It will burn up its forts."

[11]The LORD says,

"The people of Edom have sinned again and again.
So I will judge them.
They chased Israel with swords that were ready to strike them down.
They killed the women of the land.
They were angry all the time.
Their anger was like a fire that blazed out.
It could not be stopped.
[12]So I will send fire to destroy the city of Teman.
It will burn up Bozrah's forts."

[13]The LORD says,

"The people of Ammon have sinned again and again.
So I will judge them.
They ripped open the pregnant women in Gilead.
They wanted to add land to their territory.

[14]So I will set fire to destroy the walls of Rabbah.
It will burn up its forts.
War cries will be heard on that day of battle.
Strong winds will blow on that stormy day.
[15]Ammon’s king will be carried away.
So will his officials,”
says the LORD.

Amos 2

[1]The LORD says,

“The people of Moab have sinned again and again.
So I will judge them.
They burned the bones
of Edom’s king to ashes.
[2]So I will send fire to destroy Moab.
It will burn up Kerioth’s forts.
Moab will come crashing down with a loud noise.
War cries will be heard.
So will the blast of trumpets.
[3]I will kill Moab’s ruler.
I will also kill all its officials,”
says the LORD.

[4]The LORD says,

“The people of Judah have sinned again and again.
So I will judge them.
They have refused to obey my law.
They have not kept my rules.
Other gods have led them astray.
Their people of long ago
worshiped those gods.
[5]So I will send fire to destroy Judah.
It will burn up Jerusalem’s forts.”

The LORD Judges Israel

[6]The LORD says,

“The people of Israel have sinned again and again.
So I will judge them.
They sell into slavery those who have done no wrong.
They trade needy people
for a mere pair of sandals.

7 They grind the heads of the poor into the dust of the ground.
They refuse to be fair to those who are crushed.
A father and his son have sex with the same girl.
They treat my name as if it were not holy.
8 They lie down beside every altar on clothes they have taken.
They lie on those clothes
until the owner pays back what is owed.
In the house of their God
they drink wine that was paid as fines.

9 "Yet I destroyed the Amorites to make room in the land for my people.
The Amorites were as tall as cedar trees.
They were as strong as oak trees.
But I cut off their fruit above the ground and their roots below it.

10 "People of Israel, I brought you up out of Egypt.
I led you in the desert for 40 years.
I gave you the land of the Amorites.
11 I raised up prophets from among your children.
I also set apart for myself some of your young people to be Nazirites.
Isn't that true, people of Israel?"
announces the LORD.
12 "But you made the Nazirites drink wine.
You commanded the prophets not to prophesy.

13 "A cart that is loaded with grain crushes anything it runs over.
In the same way, I will crush you.
14 Your fastest runners will not escape.
The strongest people will not get away.
Even soldiers will not be able
to save their own lives.
15 Men who are armed with bows will lose the battle.
Soldiers who are quick on their feet will not escape.

Horsemen will not be able
to save their own lives.
16 Even your bravest soldiers will run away naked on that day,”
announces the LORD.

Amos 3

The LORD Calls for Witnesses Against Israel

[1]People of Israel, listen to the LORD's message. He has spoken his message against you. He has spoken it against the whole family he brought up out of Egypt. He says,

[2]"Out of all the families on earth
I have chosen only you.
So I will punish you because you have committed so many sins."

[3]Do two people walk together unless they've agreed to do so?
[4]Does a lion roar in the bushes when it doesn't have any food?
Does it growl in its den
when it hasn't caught anything?
[5]Does a bird fly down to a trap on the ground
when no bait is there?
Does a net spring up from the ground
when it has not caught anything?
[6]When someone blows a trumpet in a city, don't the people tremble with fear?
When trouble comes to a city, hasn't the LORD caused it?

[7]The LORD and King never does anything without telling his servants the prophets about it.

[8]A lion has roared.
Who isn't afraid?
The LORD and King has spoken.
Who can do anything but prophesy?

[9]Speak to the people in the forts of Ashdod and Egypt.
Tell them, "Gather together on the mountains of Samaria.

Look at the great trouble in that city.
Its people are committing many crimes.”

10“They do not know how to do what is right,”
announces the LORD.
“They store up stolen goods in their forts.”

11So the LORD and King says,

“Enemies will take over your land.
They will pull down your places of safety.
They will rob your forts.”

12The LORD says,

“Suppose a shepherd saves only two leg bones from a lion’s mouth.
Or he might save only a piece of an ear.
That is how the Israelites living in Samaria will be saved.
They will only have a board from a bed and a piece of cloth from a couch.”

13“Listen to me,” announces the Lord. “Be a witness against the people of Jacob,” says the LORD God who rules over all.

14“I will punish Israel for their sins.
When I do, I will destroy their altars at Bethel.
The horns that stick out from the upper corners of their main altar will be cut off.
They will fall to the ground.
15I will tear down their winter houses.
I will also pull down their summer houses.
The houses they have decorated with ivory will be destroyed.
And their princely houses will be torn down,”
announces the LORD.

Amos 4

Israel Has Not Returned to the LORD

[1]Listen to the LORD's message,
you women who live on the hill of Samaria.
You treat poor people badly.
You crush those who are in need.
You say to your husbands,
"Bring us some drinks!"
But you are already as fat
as the cows in Bashan.
[2]The LORD and King has made a promise by his own holy name.
He says, "You can be sure that the time will come when your enemies will put hooks in your faces.
They will lead every one of you away with fishhooks.
[3]Each of you will go straight out through gaps made in the wall.
You will be thrown out toward Harmon,"
announces the LORD.
[4]"People of Samaria, go to Bethel and sin!
Go to Gilgal! Sin there even more!
Bring your sacrifices every morning.
Every third year, bring a tenth of everything you produce.
[5]Bake some bread with yeast.
Burn it as a thank offering.
Brag about the offerings you freely give.
This is what you Israelites love to do,"
announces the LORD and King.

[6]"I made sure your stomachs were empty in every city.
You did not have enough bread in any of your towns.
In spite of that, you still have not returned to me,"
announces the LORD.

7 “I also held back rain from you.
The time to harvest crops was still three months away.
I sent rain on one town.
But I held it back from another.
One field had rain.
But another had no rain and dried up.
8 People wandered from town to town to look for water.
But they did not get enough to drink.
In spite of that, you still have not returned to me,”
announces the LORD.

9 “Many times I kept your gardens and vineyards from growing.
I sent hot winds to dry them up completely.
Locusts ate up your fig and olive trees.
In spite of that, you still have not returned to me,”
announces the LORD.

10 “I sent plagues on you,
just as I did on Egypt.
I killed your young men by swords.
I also let the horses you had captured be killed.
I filled your noses with the stink of your camps.
In spite of that, you still have not returned to me,”
announces the LORD.

11 “I destroyed some of you,
just as I did Sodom and Gomorrah.
You were like a burning stick that was pulled out of the fire.
In spite of that, you still have not returned to me,”
announces the LORD.

12 “So, people of Israel, I will judge you.
Because I will do that to you, Israel, prepare to meet your God!”

13 The LORD forms the mountains.
He creates the wind.

He makes his thoughts known to human beings.
He turns sunrise into darkness.
He rules over even the highest places on earth.
His name is the LORD God Who Rules Over All.

Amos 5

Mourn and Turn Back to the LORD

[1]People of Israel, listen to the LORD's message. Hear my song of sadness about you. I say,

[2]"The people of Israel have fallen.
They will never get up again.
They are deserted in their own land.
No one can lift them up."

[3]Here is what the LORD and King says to Israel.

"A thousand soldiers will march out from a city.
But only a hundred will return.
A hundred soldiers will march out from a town.
But only ten will come back."

[4]The LORD speaks to the people of Israel. He says,

"Look to me and live.
[5]Do not look to Bethel.
Do not go to Gilgal.
Do not travel to Beersheba.
The people of Gilgal will be taken away as prisoners.
Nothing will be left of Bethel."

[6]Israel, look to the LORD and live.
If you don't, he will sweep through the tribes of Joseph like a fire.
It will burn everything up.
And Bethel won't have anyone to put it out.

[7]There are people among you who turn what is fair into something bitter.
They throw down to the ground what is right.
[8]The LORD made the Pleiades and Orion.

He turns midnight into sunrise.
He makes the day fade into night.
He sends for the waters in the clouds.
Then he pours them out on the surface of the land.
His name is the LORD.
9With a flash of light he destroys places of safety.
He tears down cities
that have high walls around them.
10There are people among you who hate anyone who stands for justice in court.
They hate those who tell the truth.

11You make poor people pay tax on their straw.
You also tax their grain.
So, even though you have built stone houses,
you won't live in them.
You have planted fruitful vineyards.
But you won't drink the wine they produce.
12I know how many crimes you have committed.
You have sinned far too much.

Among you are people who crush those who have done no wrong.
They accept money from people who want special favors.
They take away the rights of poor people in the courts.
13So those who are wise keep quiet in times like these.
That's because the times are evil.

14Look to what is good, not to what is evil.
Then you will live.
And the LORD God who rules over all will be with you,
just as you say he is.
15Hate evil and love good.
Do what is fair in the courts.
Perhaps the LORD God who rules over all will have mercy on you.
After all, you are the only ones left in the family line of Joseph.

16 The LORD God rules over all. The Lord says,

"People will weep in all the streets.
They will be very sad in every market place.
Even farmers will be told to cry loudly.
People will mourn for the dead.
17 Workers will cry in all the vineyards.
That's because I will punish you,"
says the LORD.

The Day of the LORD Is Coming

18 How terrible it will be for you who long for the day of the LORD!
Why do you want it to come?
That day will be dark, not light.
19 It will be like a man running away from a lion only to meet a bear.
He enters his house and rests his hand on a wall only to be bitten by a snake.
20 The day of the LORD will be dark, not light.
It will be very black.
There won't be a ray of sunlight anywhere.

21 The LORD says,

"I hate your holy feasts.
I can't stand them.
Your gatherings stink.
22 You bring me burnt offerings and grain offerings.
But I will not accept them.
You bring your best friendship offerings.
But I will not even look at them.
23 Take the noise of your songs away!
I will not listen to the music of your harps.
24 I want you to treat others fairly.
So let fair treatment roll on just as a river does!

Always do what is right.
Let right living flow along like a stream that never runs dry!

25 “People of Israel, did you bring me sacrifices and offerings for 40 years in the desert?
26 Yes. But you have honored the place where your king worshiped other gods.
You have carried the stands
the statues of your gods were on.
You have lifted up the banners of the stars you worship as gods.
You made all those things for yourselves.
27 So I will send you away as prisoners beyond Damascus,”
says the LORD.
His name is God Who Rules Over All.

Amos 6

How Terrible for Those Who Feel Secure When They Shouldn't

[1]How terrible it will be for you men who are so contented on Mount Zion!
How terrible for you who feel secure on the hill of Samaria!
You are famous men from the greatest nation.
The people of Israel come to you for help and advice.
[2]Go and look at the city of Kalneh.
Go from there to the great city of Hamath.
Then go down to Gath in Philistia.
Are those places better off than your two kingdoms?
Is their land larger than yours?
[3]You are trying to avoid the time when trouble will come.
But you are only bringing closer the Assyrian rule of terror.
[4]You lie down on beds that are decorated with ivory.
You rest on your couches.
You eat the best lambs
and the fattest calves.
[5]You pluck away on your harps as David did.
You play new songs on musical instruments.
[6]You drink wine by the bowlful.
You use the finest lotions.
But Joseph's people will soon be destroyed.
And you aren't even sad about it.
[7]So you will be among the first to be taken away as prisoners.
You won't be able to enjoy good food.
You won't lie around on couches anymore.

The LORD Hates the Pride of Israel

[8]The LORD and King has made a promise in his own name. He is the LORD God who rules over all. He announces,

> “I hate the pride of Jacob’s people.
> I can’t stand their forts.
> I will hand the city of Samaria > and everything in it over to their enemies.”

[9]Ten people might be left in one house. If they are, they will die there. [10]Relatives might come to burn the dead bodies. If they do, they’ll have to carry them out of the house first. They might ask someone still hiding there, “Is anyone else here with you?” If the answer is no, the relatives will go on to say, “Be quiet! We must not pray in the LORD’s name.”

> [11]That’s because the LORD has already given an order.
> He will smash large houses to pieces.
> He will crush small houses to bits.
>
> [12]Horses don’t run on rocky ground.
> People don’t plow the sea with oxen.
> But you have turned fair treatment into poison.
> You have turned the fruit of right living into bitterness.
> [13]You are happy because you captured the town of Lo Debar.
> You say, “We were strong enough to take Karnaim too.”
>
> [14]But the LORD God rules over all. He announces, “People of > Israel,
> I will stir up a nation against you.
> They will crush you from Lebo Hamath > all the way down to the Arabah Valley.”

Amos 7

Amos Has Visions of Locusts, Fire and a Plumb Line

1 The LORD and King gave me a vision. He was bringing large numbers of locusts on the land. The king's share had already been harvested. Now the later crops were coming up. 2 The locusts stripped the land clean. Then I cried out,
"LORD and King, forgive Israel! How can Jacob's people continue? They are such a weak nation!"

3 So the LORD had pity on them.

"I will let them continue for now," he said.

4 The LORD and King gave me a second vision. He was using fire to punish his people. It dried up the deep waters. It burned the land up. 5 Then I cried out, "LORD and King, please stop! How can Jacob's people continue? They are such a weak nation!"

6 So the LORD had pity on them.

"I will let them continue for now," the LORD and King said.

7 Then the Lord gave me a third vision. He was standing by a wall. It had been built very straight, all the way up and down. He was holding a plumb line. 8 The LORD asked me, "What do you see, Amos?"

"A plumb line," I replied.

Then the Lord said, "Look at what I am doing. I am hanging a plumb line next to my people Israel. It will show how crooked they are. I will no longer spare them.

9 "The high places where Isaac's people worship other gods will be destroyed.
The other places of worship in Israel will also be torn down.
I will use my sword to attack Jeroboam's royal family."

Amaziah Tells Amos to Stop Prophesying

10 Amaziah was priest of Bethel. He sent a message to Jeroboam, the king of Israel. He said, "Amos is making evil plans against you right here in Israel. The people in the land can't stand to listen to what he's saying. 11 Amos is telling
them,

“ ‘Jeroboam will be killed by a sword.
The people of Israel will be taken away as prisoners.
They will be carried off from their own land.’ ”

12Then Amaziah said to Amos, “Get out of Israel, you prophet! Go back to the land of Judah. Earn your living there. Do your prophesying there. 13Don’t prophesy here at Bethel anymore. This is where the king worships. The main temple in the kingdom is located here.”

14Amos answered Amaziah, “I was not a prophet. I wasn’t even the son of a prophet. I was a shepherd. I also took care of sycamore-fig trees. 15But the LORD took me away from taking care of the flock. He said to me, ‘Go. Prophesy to my people Israel.’ 16Now then, listen to the LORD’s message. You say, “ ‘Don’t prophesy against Israel.

Stop preaching against the people of Isaac.’

17“But the LORD says,

“ ‘Your wife will become a prostitute
in the city of Bethel.
Your sons and daughters will be killed by swords.
Your land will be measured and divided up.
And you yourself will die in another country.
The people of Israel will surely be taken away as prisoners.
They will be carried off from their own land.’ ”

Amos 8

Amos Has a Vision of a Basket of Ripe Fruit

1 The LORD and King gave me a vision. He showed me a basket of ripe fruit.
2 "What do you see, Amos?" he asked.

"A basket of ripe fruit," I replied.

Then the LORD said to me, "The time is ripe for my people Israel. I will no longer spare them.

3 "The time is coming when the songs in the temple will turn to weeping," announces the LORD and King. "Many, many bodies will be thrown everywhere! So be quiet!"

4 Listen to me, you who walk all over needy people.
You crush those who are poor in the land.

5 You say,

"When will the New Moon feast be over?
Then we can sell our grain.
When will the Sabbath day come to an end?
Then people can buy our wheat."
But you measure out less than the right amount.
You raise your prices.
You cheat others by using dishonest scales.
6 You buy poor people to make slaves out of them.
You buy those who are in need for a mere pair of sandals.
You even sell the worthless parts of your wheat.

7 People of Jacob, you are proud that the LORD is your God. But he has made a promise in his own name. He says, "I will never forget anything Israel has done.

8 "The land will tremble because of what will happen.
Everyone who lives in it will mourn.
So the whole land will rise like the Nile River.
It will be stirred up.
Then it will settle back down again

like that river in Egypt.”

9The LORD and King announces,

“At that time I will make the sun go down at noon.
The earth will become dark in the middle of the day.
10I will turn your holy feasts into times for mourning.
I will turn all your songs into weeping.
You will have to wear the clothing of sadness.
You will shave your heads.
I will make you mourn as if your only son had died.
The end of that time will be like a bitter day.”

11The LORD and King announces,

“The days are coming
when I will send hunger through the land.
But people will not be hungry for food.
They will not be thirsty for water.
Instead, they will be hungry to hear a message from me.
12People will wander from the Dead Sea to the Mediterranean.
They will travel from north to east.
They will look for a message from me.
But they will not find it.

13“At that time

“the lovely young women and strong young men will faint because they are so thirsty.
14Some people make promises in the name of Samaria’s god.
That god has led them astray.
Others say, ‘People of Dan, you can be sure that your god is alive.’
Still others say, ‘You can be sure that Beersheba’s god is alive.’
But all these people will fall dead.
They will never get up again.”

Amos 9

Israel Will Be Destroyed

[1]I saw the Lord standing next to the altar in the temple. He said to me,

"Strike the tops of the temple pillars.
Then the heavy stones at the base of the entrance will shake.
Bring everything down on the heads of everyone there.
I will kill with my swords
those who are left alive.
None of the Israelites will escape.
None will get away.
[2]They might dig down deep.
But my powerful hand will take them out of there.
They might climb up to the heavens.
But I will bring them down from there.
[3]They might hide on top of Mount Carmel.
But I will hunt them down and grab them.
They might hide from me at the bottom of the ocean.
But even there I will command the serpent to bite them.
[4]Their enemies might take them away as prisoners to another country.
But there I will command Israel's enemies to cut them down with swords.
I will keep my eye on Israel to harm them.
I will not help them."

[5]The LORD rules over all.
The Lord touches the earth, and it melts.
Everyone who lives in it mourns.
The whole land rises like the Nile River.
Then it settles back down again
like that river in Egypt.
[6]The LORD builds his palace high in the heavens.
He lays its foundation on the earth.
He sends for the waters in the clouds.

Then he pours them out on the surface of the land.
His name is the LORD.

7 “You Israelites are just like the people of Cush to me,”
announces the LORD.
“I brought Israel up from Egypt.
I also brought the Philistines from Crete and the Arameans from Kir.

8 “I am the LORD and King.
My eyes are watching the sinful kingdom of Israel.
I will wipe it off the face of the earth.
But I will not totally destroy the people of Jacob,”
announces the LORD.
9 “I will give an order.
I will shake the people of Israel
among all the nations.
They will be like grain that is shaken through a screen.
Not a pebble will fall to the ground.
10 All the sinners among my people
will be killed by swords.
They say, ‘Nothing bad will ever happen to us.’

Israel Will Be Made Like New Again

11 “The time will come when I will set up
David’s fallen shelter.
I will repair its broken walls.
I will rebuild what was destroyed.
I will make it what it used to be.
12 Then my people will take control of those who are left alive in Edom.
They will also possess all the nations that belong to me,”
announces the LORD.
He will do all these things.

13 “The days are coming,” announces the LORD.

“At that time those who plow the land will catch up with those who harvest the crops.
Those who stomp on grapes will catch up with those who plant the vines.
Fresh wine will drip from the mountains.
It will flow down from all the hills.
14 I will bring my people Israel back home.
I will bless them with great success again.
They will rebuild the destroyed cities and live in them.
They will plant vineyards and drink the wine they produce.
They will make gardens and eat their fruit.
15 I will plant Israel in their own land.
They will never again be removed from the land I have given them,” says the LORD your God.

Obadiah

Obadiah 1

Obadiah's Vision

[1]This is the vision about Edom that Obadiah had.

Here is what the LORD and King says about Edom.

We've heard a message from the LORD.
A messenger was sent to the nations.
The LORD told him to say,
"Get up! Let us go and make war against Edom."

[2]The LORD says to Edom,

"I will make you weak among the nations.
They will look down on you.
[3]You live in the safety of the rocks.
You make your home high up in the mountains.
But your proud heart has tricked you.
So you say to yourself,
'No one can bring me down to the ground.'
[4]You have built your home as high as an eagle does.
You have made your nest among the stars.
But I will bring you down from there,"
announces the LORD.
[5]"Edom, suppose robbers came to you at night.
They would steal only as much as they wanted.
Suppose grape pickers came to harvest your vines.
They would still leave a few grapes.
But you are facing horrible trouble!
[6]People of Esau, everything will be taken away from you.
Your hidden treasures will be stolen.
[7]All those who are helping you will force you to leave your country.

Your friends will trick you and overpower you.
Those who eat bread with you will set a trap for you.
But you will not see it.”

8Here is what the LORD announces. “At that time
I will destroy the wise men of Edom.
I will wipe out the men of understanding in the mountains of Esau.
9People of Teman, your soldiers will be terrified.
Everyone in Esau’s mountains will be cut down by swords.
10You did harmful things to the people of Jacob.
They are your relatives.
So you will be covered with shame.
You will be destroyed forever.
11Outsiders entered the gates of Jerusalem.
They cast lots to see what each one would get.
Strangers carried off its wealth.
When that happened, you just stood there and did nothing.
You were like one of them.
12That was a time of trouble for your relatives.
So you shouldn’t have been happy about what happened to them.
The people of Judah were destroyed.
So you should not have been happy about it.
You should not have laughed at them so much
when they were in trouble.
13You should not have marched through the gates of my people’s city
when they were in trouble.
You shouldn’t have been happy about what happened to them.
You should not have stolen their wealth
when they were in trouble.
14You waited where the roads cross.
You wanted to cut down those who were running away.
You should not have done that.
You handed over to their enemies

those who were still left alive.
You should not have done that.
They were in trouble.

15 “The day of the LORD is near for all the nations.
Others will do to you
what you have done to them.
You will be paid back
for what you have done.
16 You Edomites made my holy mountain of Zion impure by drinking and celebrating there.
So all the nations will drink
from the cup of my anger.
And they will keep on drinking from it.
They will vanish.
It will be as if they had never existed.
17 But on Mount Zion some of my people will be left alive.
I will save them.
Zion will be my holy mountain once again.
And the people of Jacob will again receive the land as their own.
18 They will be like a fire.
Joseph’s people will be like a flame.
The nation of Edom will be like straw.
Jacob’s people will set Edom on fire and burn it up.
No one will be left alive among Esau’s people.”

The LORD has spoken.

19 Israelites from the Negev Desert will take over Esau’s mountains.
Israelites from the western hills will possess the land of the Philistines.
They’ll take over the territories of Ephraim and Samaria.
Israelites from the tribe of Benjamin will possess the land of Gilead.

[20]Some Israelites were forced to leave their homes.
They'll come back to Canaan and possess
it all the way to the town of Zarephath.
Some people from Jerusalem were taken to the city of Sepharad.
They'll return and possess
the towns of the Negev Desert.
[21]Leaders from Mount Zion will go and rule over the mountains of Esau.
And the kingdom will belong to the LORD.

Jonah

Jonah 1

Jonah Runs Away From the LORD

1 A message from the LORD came to Jonah, the son of Amittai. The LORD said, 2 "Go to the great city of Nineveh. Preach against it. The sins of its people have come to my attention."

3 But Jonah ran away from the LORD. He headed for Tarshish. So he went down to the port of Joppa. There he found a ship that was going to Tarshish. He paid the fare and went on board. Then he sailed for Tarshish. He was running away from the LORD.

4 But the LORD sent a strong wind over the Mediterranean Sea. A wild storm came up. It was so wild that the ship was in danger of breaking apart. 5 All the sailors were afraid. Each one cried out to his own god for help. They threw the ship's contents into the sea. They were trying to make the ship lighter.

But Jonah had gone below deck. There he lay down and fell into a deep sleep.
6 The captain went down to him and said, "How can you sleep? Get up and call out to your god for help! Maybe he'll pay attention to what's happening to us.
Then we won't die."

7 Here is what the sailors said to one another. "Someone is to blame for getting us into all this trouble. Come. Let's cast lots to find out who it is." So they did.
And Jonah was picked. 8 They asked him, "What terrible thing have you done to bring all this trouble on us? Tell us. What do you do for a living? Where do you come from? What is your country? What people do you belong to?"

9 He answered, "I'm a Hebrew. I worship the LORD. He is the God of heaven.
He made the sea and the dry land."

10 They found out he was running away from the LORD. That's because he had told them. Then they became terrified. So they asked him, "How could you do a thing like that?"

11 The sea was getting rougher and rougher. So they asked him, "What should we do to you to make the sea calm down?"

12 "Pick me up and throw me into the sea," he replied. "Then it will become calm. I know it's my fault that this terrible storm has come on you."

13 But the men didn't do what he said. Instead, they did their best to row back to land. But they couldn’t. The sea got even rougher than before. 14Then they cried out to the LORD. They prayed, “Please, LORD, don’t let us die for taking this man’s life. After all, he might not be guilty of doing anything wrong. So don’t hold us responsible for killing him. LORD, you always do what you want to.” 15Then they took Jonah and threw him overboard. And the stormy sea became calm. 16The men saw what had happened. Then they began to have great respect for the LORD. They offered a sacrifice to him. And they made promises to him.

Jonah Prays to the LORD

17Now the LORD sent a huge fish to swallow Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish for three days and three nights.

Jonah 2

[1]From inside the fish Jonah prayed to the LORD his God. [2]He said,

"When I was in trouble, I called out to the LORD.
And he answered me.
When I was deep in the place of the dead,
I called out for help.
And you listened to my cry.
[3]You threw me deep into the Mediterranean Sea.
I was deep down in its waters.
They were all around me.
All your rolling waves
were sweeping over me.
[4]I said, 'I have been driven away from you.
But I will look again toward your holy temple in Jerusalem.'
[5]I had almost drowned in the waves.
The deep waters were all around me.
Seaweed was wrapped around my head.
[6]I sank down to the bottom of the mountains.
I thought I had died
and gone down into the grave forever.
But you are the LORD my God.
You brought my life up from the very edge of the pit of death.

[7]"When my life was nearly over,
I remembered you, LORD.
My prayer rose up to you.
It reached you in your holy temple in heaven.

[8]"Some people worship the worthless statues of their gods.
They turn away from God's love for them.
[9]But I will sacrifice a thank offering to you.
And I will shout with thankful praise.
I will do what I have promised.

I will say, ‘LORD, you are the one who saves.’ ”

10 The LORD gave the fish a command. And it spit Jonah up onto dry land.

Jonah 3

Jonah Goes to Nineveh

1 A message from the LORD came to Jonah a second time. The LORD said,
2 "Go to the great city of Nineveh. Announce to its people the message I give you."

3 Jonah obeyed the LORD. He went to Nineveh. It was a very large city. In fact, it took about three days to go through it. 4 Jonah began by going one whole day into the city. As he went, he announced, "In 40 days Nineveh will be destroyed." 5 The people of Nineveh believed God's warning. So they decided not to eat any food for a while. And all of them put on the rough clothing people wear when they're sad. That's what everyone did, from the least important of them to the most important.

6 Jonah's warning reached the king of Nineveh. He got up from his throne. He took off his royal robes. He also dressed himself in the clothing of sadness. And then he sat down in the dust. 7 Here is the message he sent out to the people of Nineveh.

> "I and my nobles give this order.
> Don't let people or animals taste anything. That includes your herds and flocks. People and animals must not eat or drink anything. 8 Let people and animals alike be covered with the clothing of sadness. All of you must call out to God with all your hearts. Stop doing what is evil. Don't harm others. 9 Who knows? God might take pity on us. He might not be angry with us anymore. Then we won't die."

10 God saw what they did. He saw that they stopped doing what was evil. So he took pity on them. He didn't destroy them as he had said he would.

Jonah 4

Jonah Is Angry That the LORD Spares Nineveh

[1]But to Jonah this seemed very wrong. He became angry. [2]He prayed to the LORD. Here is what Jonah said to him. “LORD, isn’t this exactly what I thought would happen when I was still at home? That is what I tried to prevent by running away to Tarshish. I knew that you are gracious. You are tender and kind. You are slow to get angry. You are full of love. You are a God who takes pity on people. You don’t want to destroy them. [3]LORD, take away my life. I’d rather die than live.”

[4]But the LORD replied, “Is it right for you to be angry?”

[5]Jonah had left the city. He had sat down at a place east of it. There he put some branches over his head. He sat in their shade. He waited to see what would happen to the city. [6]Then the LORD God sent a leafy plant and made it grow up over Jonah. It gave him more shade for his head. It made him more comfortable. Jonah was very happy he had the leafy plant. [7]But before sunrise the next day, God sent a worm. It chewed the plant so much that it dried up. [8]When the sun rose, God sent a burning east wind. The sun beat down on Jonah’s head. It made him very weak. He wanted to die. So he said, “I’d rather die than live.”

[9]But God spoke to Jonah. God said, “Is it right for you to be angry about the plant?”

“It is,” Jonah said. “In fact, I’m so angry I wish I were dead.”

[10]But the LORD said, “You have been concerned about this plant. But you did not take care of it. You did not make it grow. It grew up in one night and died the next. [11]And shouldn’t I show concern for the great city of Nineveh? It has more than 120,000 people. They can’t tell right from wrong. Nineveh also has a lot of animals.”

Micah

Micah 1

[1]A message from the LORD came to Micah. He was from the town of Moresheth. The message came while Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah were kings of Judah. This is the vision Micah saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem. Here is what he said.

[2]Listen to me, all you nations!
Earth and everyone who lives in it, pay attention!
The LORD and King will be a witness against you.
The Lord will speak from his holy temple in heaven.

The LORD Will Judge Samaria and Jerusalem

[3]The LORD is about to come down from his home in heaven.
He rules over even the highest places on earth.
[4]The mountains will melt under him like wax near a fire.
The valleys will be broken apart
by water rushing down a slope.
[5]All this will happen because Jacob's people have done what is wrong.
The people of Israel
have committed many sins.
Who is to blame
for the wrong things Jacob has done?
Samaria!
Who is to blame for the high places where Judah's people worship other gods?
Jerusalem!

[6]So the LORD says,

"I will turn Samaria into a pile of trash.

It will become a place for planting vineyards.
I will dump its stones down into the valley.
And I will destroy it down to its very foundations.
7 All the statues of Samaria's gods will be broken to pieces.
All the gifts its people gave to temple prostitutes will be burned with fire.
I will destroy all the statues of its gods.
Samaria collected gifts that were paid to temple prostitutes.
So the Assyrians will use the gifts to pay their own temple prostitutes."

Micah Weeps Over His People

8 I will weep and mourn because Samaria will be destroyed.
I'll walk around barefoot and naked.
I'll bark like a wild dog.
I'll hoot like an owl.
9 Samaria's plague can't be healed.
The plague has spread to Judah.
It has spread right up to the gate of my people.
It has spread to Jerusalem itself.
10 Don't tell the people of Gath about it.
Don't let them see you weep.
People in Beth Ophrah, roll in the dust.
11 You who live in the town of Shaphir, leave naked and in shame.
Those who live in Zaanan won't come out to help you.
The people in Beth Ezel will mourn.
They won't be able to help keep you safe any longer.
12 Those who live in Maroth will groan with pain
as they wait for help.
That's because the LORD will bring trouble on them.
It will reach the very gate of Jerusalem.
13 You who live in Lachish, get your fast horses ready to pull their chariots.

You trust in military power.
Lachish was where sin began for the people of Zion.
The wrong things Israel did were also done by you.
14People of Judah, you might as well say goodbye to Moresheth near Gath.
The town of Akzib won’t give any help to the kings of Israel.
15An enemy will attack
you who live in Mareshah.
Israel’s nobles will have to run away and hide in the cave of Adullam.
16The children you enjoy so much
will be taken away as prisoners.
So shave your heads and mourn.
Make them as bare as the head of a vulture.

Micah 2

People's Plans and God's Plans

[1]How terrible it will be for those who plan to harm others!
How terrible for those who make evil plans before they even get out of bed!
As soon as daylight comes,
they carry out their plans.
That's because they have the power to do it.
[2]If they want fields or houses,
they take them.
They cheat people out of their homes.
They rob them of their property.

[3]So the LORD says to them,

"I am planning to send trouble on you.
You will not be able to save yourselves from it.
You will not live so proudly anymore.
It will be a time of trouble.
[4]At that time people will make fun of you.
They will tease you by singing a song of sadness.
They will pretend to be you and say,
'We are totally destroyed.
Our enemies have divided up our land.
The LORD has taken it away from us!
He has given our fields to those who turned against us.' "

[5]So you won't even have anyone left in the LORD's community who can divide up the land for you.

Some Prophets Aren't Really Prophets at All

6“Don’t prophesy,” the people’s prophets say.
“Don’t prophesy about bad things.
Nothing shameful is going to happen to us.”
7People of Jacob, should anyone say,
“The LORD is patient, so he wouldn’t do things like that”?

The LORD replies, “What I promise brings good things to those who lead honest lives.
8But lately my people have attacked one another as if they were enemies.
You strip off the rich robes from those who happen to pass by.
They thought they were as safe as men returning from a battle they had won.
9You drive the women among my people out of their pleasant homes.
You take away my blessing from their children forever.
10Get up! Leave this land!
It is no longer your resting place.
You have made it ‘unclean.’
You have completely destroyed it.
11Suppose a prophet goes around telling lies.
And he prophesies that you will have plenty of wine and beer.
Then that kind of prophet would be just right for this nation!

The LORD Promises to Save His People

12“People of Jacob, I will gather all of you.
I will bring together
you who are still left alive in Israel.
I will gather you together like sheep in a pen.
You will be like a flock in its grasslands.
Your country will be filled with people.
13I will open the way for you to return.

I will march in front of you.
You will break through the city gates and go free.
I am your King. I will pass through the gates in front of you.
I, the LORD, will lead the way.”

Micah 3

The LORD Warns Israel's Leaders and Prophets

[1]Then I said,

"Listen, you leaders of Jacob's people!
Pay attention, you rulers of Israel!
You should want to judge others fairly.
[2]But you hate what is good.
And you love what is evil.
You are like someone who tears the skin off my people.
You pull the meat off their bones.
[3]You eat my people's bodies.
You strip off their skin.
You break their bones in pieces.
You chop them up like meat.
You put them in a cooking pot."

[4]The time will come when Israel will cry out to the LORD.
But he won't answer them.
In fact, he'll turn his face away from them.
They have done what is evil.

[5]The LORD says,

"The prophets are those who lead my people astray.
If my people feed them,
the prophets promise them peace.
If my people do not feed them,
the prophets prepare to go to war against them.
[6]So night will come on the prophets.
But they will not have any visions.
Darkness will cover them.
But they will not be able to figure out what is going to happen.

The sun will set on the prophets.
The day will become dark for them.
[7]Those who see visions will be put to shame.
Those who try to figure out what is going to happen will be dishonored.
All of them will cover their faces.
I will not answer them.”

[8]The Spirit of the LORD has filled me with power.
He helps me do what is fair.
He makes me brave.
Now I’m prepared to tell Jacob’s people
what they’ve done wrong.
I’m ready to tell Israel they’ve sinned.
[9]Listen to me, you leaders of Jacob’s people!
Pay attention, you rulers of Israel!
You hate to do what is fair.
You twist everything that is right.
[10]You build up Zion by spilling the blood of others.
You build Jerusalem by doing what is evil.
[11]Your judges take money from people who want special favors.
Your priests teach only if they get paid for it.
Your prophets won’t tell fortunes
unless they receive money.
But you still look for the LORD’s help.
You say, “The LORD is with us.
No trouble will come on us.”
[12]So because of what you have done,
Zion will be plowed up like a field.
Jerusalem will be turned into a pile of trash.
The temple hill will be covered with bushes and weeds.

Micah 4

People From Many Nations Will Worship at the LORD's Mountain

[1]In the last days

the mountain where the LORD's temple is located will be famous.
It will be the highest mountain of all.
It will be lifted up above the hills.
And nations will go to it.

[2]People from many nations will go there. They will say,

"Come, let us go up to the LORD's mountain.
Let's go to the temple of Jacob's God.
He will teach us how we should live.
Then we will live the way he wants us to."
The law of the LORD will be taught at Zion.
His message will go out from Jerusalem.
[3]He will judge between people from many nations.
He'll settle problems among strong nations everywhere.
They will hammer their swords into plows.
They'll hammer their spears into pruning tools.
Nations will not go to war against one another.
They won't even train to fight anymore.
[4]Everyone will have their own vine and fig tree.
And no one will make them afraid.
That's what the LORD who rules over all has promised.
[5]Other nations worship and trust in their gods.
But we will worship and obey the LORD.
He will be our God for ever and ever.

The LORD's Plan

[6]"The time is coming when I will gather those who are disabled,"
announces the LORD.

“I will bring together those who were taken away as prisoners.
I will gather those I have allowed to suffer.
7I will make the disabled my faithful people.
I will make into a strong nation those driven away from their homes.
I will rule over them on Mount Zion.
I will be their King from that time on and forever.
8Jerusalem, you used to be like a guard tower for my flock.
City of Zion, you used to be a place of safety for my people.
The glorious kingdom you had before will be given back to you.
Once again a king will rule over your people.”

9Why are you crying out so loudly now?
Don’t you have a king?
Has your ruler died?
Is that why pain comes on you like the pain of a woman having a baby?
10People of Zion, groan with pain.
Cry out like a woman having a baby.
Soon you must leave your city.
You must camp in the open fields.
You will have to go to the land of Babylon.
But that’s where the LORD will save you.
There he will set you free from the power of your enemies.

11But now many nations have gathered together to attack you.
They say, “Let Jerusalem be made ‘unclean.’
We want to laugh when Zion suffers!”
12But those nations don’t know what the LORD has in mind.
They don’t understand his plan.
He has planned to gather them up like bundles of grain.

He has planned to take them to his threshing floor.

13 The LORD says,

"People of Zion, get up
and crush your enemies.
I will make you like a threshing ox.
I will give you iron horns and bronze hooves.
So you will crush many nations."

They got their money in the wrong way.
But you will set it apart to the LORD.
You will give their wealth to the Lord of the whole earth.

Micah 5

A Promised Ruler Will Come From Bethlehem

[1]Jerusalem, you are being attacked.
So bring your troops together.
Our enemies have surrounded us.
They want to slap the face of Israel's ruler.

[2]The LORD says,

"Bethlehem Ephrathah, you might not be an important town in the nation of Judah.
But out of you will come for me
a ruler over Israel.
His family line goes back to the early years of your nation.
It goes all the way back to days of long ago."

[3]The LORD will hand over his people to their enemies.
That will last until the pregnant woman bears her promised son.
Then the rest of his relatives in Judah will return to their land.

[4]That promised son will stand firm and be a shepherd for his flock.
The LORD will give him the strength to do it.
The LORD his God will give him
the authority to rule.
His people will live safely.
His greatness will reach
from one end of the earth to the other.
[5]And he will be our peace
when the Assyrians attack our land.
They will march through our forts.
But we will raise up against them many shepherds.
We'll send out against them

as many commanders as we need to.
[6]They will use their swords to rule over Assyria.
They'll rule the land of Nimrod with swords that are ready to strike.
The Assyrians will march across our borders and attack our land.
But the promised ruler will save us from them.

[7]Jacob's people who are still left alive will be scattered among many nations.
They will be like dew the LORD has sent.
Dew doesn't depend on any human being.
They will be like rain that falls on the grass.
Rain doesn't wait for someone to give it orders.
[8]So Jacob's people will be scattered among many nations.
They will be like a lion
among the animals in the forest.
They'll be like a young lion
among flocks of sheep.
Lions attack and tear apart their prey as they move along.
No one can keep them
from killing what they want.
[9]LORD, your power will win the battle over your enemies.
All of them will be destroyed.

[10]"At that time I will destroy your war horses," announces the LORD.
"I will smash your chariots.
[11]I will destroy the cities in your land.
I will tear down all your forts.
[12]I will destroy your worship of evil powers.
You will no longer be able to put a spell on anyone.
[13]I will destroy the statues of your gods.
I will take your sacred stones away from you.
You will no longer bow down to the gods your hands have made.

14 I will pull down the poles you used to worship the female god named Asherah.
That will happen when I completely destroy your cities.
15 I will pay back the nations that have not obeyed me.
I will direct my anger against them.”

Micah 6

The LORD Brings Charges Against Israel

[1]Israel, listen to the LORD's message. He says to me,

"Stand up in court.
Let the mountains serve as witnesses.
Let the hills hear what you have to say."

[2]Hear the LORD's case, you mountains.
Listen, you age-old foundations of the earth.
The LORD has a case against his people Israel.
He is bringing charges against them.

[3]The LORD says,

"My people, what have I done to you?
Have I made things too hard for you? Answer me.
[4]I brought your people up out of Egypt.
I set them free from the land where they were slaves.
I sent Moses to lead them.
Aaron and Miriam helped him.
[5]Remember how Balak, the king of Moab, planned to put a curse on your people.
But Balaam, the son of Beor, gave them a blessing instead.
Remember their journey from Shittim to Gilgal.
I want you to know that I always do what is right."

[6]The people of Israel say,

"What should we bring with us
when we go to worship the LORD?
What should we offer the God of heaven
when we bow down to him?

Should we take burnt offerings to him?
Should we sacrifice calves that are a year old?
7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams?
Will he take delight in 10,000 rivers of olive oil?
Should we offer our oldest sons
for the wrong things we've done?
Should we sacrifice our own children
to pay for our sins?"

8 The LORD has shown you what is good.
He has told you what he requires of you.
You must act with justice.
You must love to show mercy.
And you must be humble as you live in the sight of your God.

The LORD Will Punish His Guilty People

9 The LORD is calling out to Jerusalem.
And it would be wise to pay attention to him.
He says, "Listen, tribe of Judah and you people who are gathered in the city.
10 You sinful people, should I forget that you got your treasures by stealing them?
You use dishonest measures to cheat others.
I have placed a curse on that practice.
11 Should I forgive anyone who uses dishonest scales?
They use weights that weigh things heavier or lighter than they really are.
12 The rich people among you harm others.
You are always telling lies.
You try to fool others by what you say.
13 So I have begun to strike you down.
I have begun to destroy you because you have sinned so much.
14 You will eat. But you will not be satisfied.
Your stomachs will still be empty.
You will try to save what you can.

But you will not be able to.
If you do save something,
it will be destroyed in battle.
15 You will plant seeds.
But you will not harvest any crops.
You will press olives.
But you will not use the oil.
You will crush grapes.
But you will not drink the wine that is made from them.
16 You have followed the evil practices of King Omri of Israel.
You have done what the family of King Ahab did.
You have followed their bad example.
So I will let you be destroyed.
Others will make fun of you.
The nations will laugh at you.”

Micah 7

Israel's Sin Brings Suffering

[1]I'm suffering very much!
I'm like someone who gathers summer fruit in a vineyard after the good fruit has already been picked.
No grapes are left to eat.
None of the early figs I long for remain.
[2]Faithful people have disappeared from the land.
Those who are honest are gone.
Everyone hides and waits to spill the blood of others.
They use nets to try and trap one another.
[3]They are very good at doing what is evil.
Rulers require gifts.
Judges accept money from people
who want special favors.
Those who are powerful always get what they want.
All of them make evil plans together.
[4]The best of these people are as harmful as thorns.
The most honest of them are even worse.
God has come to punish you.
The time your prophets warned you about has come.
Panic has taken hold of you.
[5]Don't trust your neighbors.
Don't put your faith in your friends.
Be careful what you say
even to your own wife.
[6]Sons don't honor their fathers.
Daughters refuse to obey their mothers.
Daughters-in-law are against their mothers-in-law.
A man's enemies are the members of his own family.

[7]But I will look to the LORD.
I'll put my trust in God my Savior.

He will hear me.

Jerusalem Will Be Rebuilt

8 The people of Jerusalem say,

"Don't laugh when we suffer,
you enemies of ours!
We have fallen.
But we'll get up.
Even though we sit in the dark,
the LORD will give us light.
9 We've sinned against the LORD.
So he is angry with us.
His anger will continue until he takes up our case.
Then he'll do what is right for us.
He'll bring us out into the light.
Then we'll see him save us.
10 Our enemies will see it too.
And they will be put to shame.
After all, they said to us,
'Where is the LORD your God?'
But we will see them destroyed.
Soon they will be stomped on like mud in the streets."

11 People of Jerusalem, the time will come when your walls will be rebuilt.
Land will be added to your territory.
12 At that time your people will come back to you.
They'll return from Assyria and the cities of Egypt.
They'll come from the countries between Egypt and the Euphrates River.
They'll return from the lands between the seas.
They'll come back from the countries between the mountains.

[13]But the rest of the earth will be deserted.
The people who live in it have done many evil things.

Prayer and Praise

[14]LORD, be like a shepherd to your people.
Take good care of them.
They are your flock.
They live by themselves
in the safety of a forest.
Rich grasslands are all around them.
Let them eat grass in Bashan and Gilead just as they did long ago.

[15]The LORD says to his people,

"I showed you my wonders
when you came out of Egypt long ago.
In the same way, I will show them to you again."

[16]When the nations see those wonders,
they will be put to shame.
All their power will be taken away from them.
They will be so amazed that they won't be able to speak or hear.
[17]They'll be forced to eat dust like a snake.
They'll be like creatures that have to crawl on the ground.
They'll come out of their dens trembling with fear.
They'll show respect for the LORD our God.
They will also have respect for his people.
[18]LORD, who is a God like you?
You forgive sin.
You forgive your people
when they do what is wrong.
You don't stay angry forever.

Instead, you take delight in showing your faithful love to them.
19 Once again you will show loving concern for us.
You will completely wipe out the evil things we've done.
You will throw all our sins into the bottom of the sea.
20 You will be faithful to Jacob's people.
You will show your love
to Abraham's children.
You will do what you promised to do for our people.
You made that promise long ago.

Nahum

Nahum 1

[1]Here is a prophecy the LORD gave Nahum, who was from the town of Elkosh. The prophecy came in a vision and is written in a book. The prophecy is about Nineveh.

The LORD Is Angry With Nineveh

[2]The LORD is a jealous God who punishes people.
He pays them back for the evil things they do.
He directs his anger against them.
The LORD punishes his enemies.
He holds his anger back until the right time to use it.
[3]The LORD is slow to get angry.
But he is very powerful.
The LORD will not let guilty people go without punishing them.
When he marches out, he stirs up winds and storms.
Clouds are the dust kicked up by his feet.
[4]He controls the seas. He dries them up.
He makes all the rivers run dry.
Bashan and Mount Carmel dry up.
The flowers in Lebanon fade.
[5]He causes the mountains to shake.
The hills melt away.
The earth trembles because he is there.
The world and all those who live in it also tremble.
[6]Who can stand firm when his anger burns?
Who can live when he is angry?
His anger blazes out like fire.
He smashes the rocks to pieces.

[7]The LORD is good.
When people are in trouble,

they can go to him for safety.
He takes good care of those who trust in him.
8 But he will destroy Nineveh with a powerful flood.
He will chase his enemies into the place of darkness.

9 The LORD will put an end to anything they plan against him.
He won't allow Assyria to win the battle over his people a second time.
10 His enemies will be tangled up among thorns.
Their wine will make them drunk.
They'll be burned up like dry straw.
11 Nineveh, a king has marched out from you.
He makes evil plans against the LORD.
He thinks about how he can do what is wrong.

12 The LORD says,

"His army has many soldiers.
Other nations are helping them.
But they will be destroyed and pass away.
Judah, I punished you.
But I will not do it anymore.
13 Now I will break Assyria's yoke off your neck.
I will tear off the ropes that hold you."

14 Nineveh, the LORD has given an order concerning you.
He has said, "You will not have any children to carry on your name.
I will destroy the wooden and metal statues that are in the temple of your gods.
I will get your grave ready for you.
You are worthless."

15 Look at the mountains of Judah!

I see a messenger running to bring good news!
He’s telling us that peace has come!
People of Judah, celebrate your feasts.
Carry out your promises.
The evil Assyrians won’t attack you again.
They’ll be completely destroyed.

Nahum 2

The LORD Will Destroy Nineveh

[1]Nineveh, armies are coming to attack you.
Guard the forts!
Watch the roads!
Get ready!
Gather all your strength!

[2]Assyria once took everything of value from God's people.
Its army destroyed all their vines.
But the LORD will bring back the glory of Jacob's people.
He'll make Israel glorious again.

[3]The shields of the soldiers are red.
The warriors are dressed in bright red uniforms.
The metal on their chariots flashes
when they are prepared for war.
Their spears made out of juniper are ready to use.
[4]The chariots race through the main streets.
They rush back and forth through them.
They look like flaming torches.
They dart around like lightning.

[5]Nineveh sends for their special troops.
But they trip and fall on their way.
They run toward the city wall.
They keep their shield in front of them.
[6]The attackers open the gates that hold back the waters of the river.
And the palace falls down.
[7]The attackers order that Nineveh's people be taken away as prisoners.
The female slaves sound like doves as they mourn.
They beat their chests.

[8]Nineveh is like a pool whose water is draining away.
"Stop running away!" someone cries out.
But no one turns back.
[9]"Steal the silver!" the attackers shout.
"Grab the gold!"
The supply is endless.
There is plenty of wealth
among all the city's treasures.
[10]Nineveh is destroyed, robbed and stripped!
Hearts melt away in fear.
Knees give way.
Bodies tremble with fear.
Everyone's face turns pale.

[11]Assyria is like a lion.
Where is the lions' den now?
Where did they feed their cubs?
Where did all the lions go?
In their den they had nothing to fear.
[12]The lion killed enough for his cubs to eat.
He choked what he caught for his mate.
He filled his home with what he had killed.
He brought to his dens what he had caught.

[13]"Nineveh, I am against you,"
announces the LORD who rules over all.
"I will burn up your chariots with fire.
Your young lions will be killed by swords.
I will leave you nothing on earth to catch.
The voices of your messengers will no longer be heard."

Nahum 3

The LORD Will Judge Nineveh

[1]How terrible it will be for Nineveh!
It is a city of murderers!
It is full of liars!
It is filled with stolen goods!
The killing never stops!
[2]Whips crack!
Wheels clack!
Horses charge!
Chariots rumble!
[3]Horsemen attack!
Swords flash!
Spears gleam!
Many people die.
Dead bodies pile up.
They can’t even be counted.
People trip over them.
[4]All of that was caused by the evil desires of the prostitute Nineveh.
That woman who practiced evil magic was very beautiful.
She used her sinful charms to make slaves out of the nations.
She worshiped evil powers
in order to trap others.

[5]“Nineveh, I am against you,”
announces the LORD who rules over all.
“I will pull your skirts up over your face.
I will show the nations your naked body.
Kingdoms will make fun of your shame.
[6]I will throw garbage at you.
I will look down on you.
I will make an example out of you.

[7]All those who see you will run away from you.
They will say, ‘Nineveh is destroyed.
Who will mourn over it?’
Where can I find someone to comfort your people?”

[8]Nineveh, are you better than Thebes on the Nile River?
There was water all around that city.
The river helped to keep it safe.
The waters were like a wall around it.
[9]Cush and Egypt gave it all the strength it needed.
Put and Libya also helped it.
[10]But Thebes was captured anyway.
Its people were taken away as prisoners.
Its babies were smashed to pieces
at every street corner.
The Assyrian soldiers cast lots for all its nobles.
They put them in chains
and made slaves out of them.
[11]People of Nineveh, you too will get drunk.
You will try to hide from your enemies.
You will look for a place of safety.

[12]All your forts are like fig trees that have their first ripe fruit on them.
When the trees are shaken,
the figs fall into the mouths of those who eat them.
[13]Look at your troops.
All of them are weak.
The gates of your forts
are wide open to your enemies.
Fire has destroyed the bars that lock your gates.

[14]Prepare for the attack by storing up water!
Make your walls as strong as you can!

Make some bricks out of clay!
Mix the mud to hold them together!
Use them to repair the walls!
15 In spite of all your hard work,
fire will burn you up inside your city.
Your enemies will cut you down with their swords.
They will destroy you just as a swarm of locusts eats up crops.
Multiply like grasshoppers!
Increase your numbers like locusts!
16 You have more traders than the number of stars in the sky.
But like locusts they strip the land.
Then they fly away.
17 Your guards are like grasshoppers.
Your officials are like swarms of locusts.
They settle in the walls on a cold day.
But when the sun appears, they fly away.
And no one knows where they go.

18 King of Assyria, your leaders are asleep.
Your nobles lie down to rest.
Your people are scattered on the mountains.
No one is left to gather them together.
19 Nothing can heal your wounds.
You will die of them.
All those who hear the news about you clap their hands.
That’s because you have fallen from power.
Is there anyone who has not suffered because of how badly you treated them?

Habakkuk

Habakkuk 1

[1]This is a prophecy that Habakkuk the prophet received from the LORD. Here is what Habakkuk said.

Habakkuk Complains to the LORD

[2]LORD, how long do I have to call out for help?
Why don't you listen to me?
How long must I keep telling you that things are terrible?
Why don't you save us?
[3]Why do you make me watch while people treat others so unfairly?
Why do you put up with the wrong things they are doing?
I have to look at death.
People are harming others.
They are arguing and fighting all the time.
[4]The law can't do what it's supposed to do.
Fairness never comes out on top.
Sinful people surround those who do what is right.
So people are never treated fairly.

The LORD Replies to Habakkuk

[5]The LORD replies,

"Look at the nations. Watch them.
Be totally amazed at what you see.
I am going to do something in your days
that you would never believe.
You would not believe it even if someone told you about it.

[6]I am going to send the armies of Babylon to attack you.
They are very mean. They move quickly.
They sweep across the whole earth.
They take over homes
that do not belong to them.
[7]They terrify others.
They do not recognize any laws but their own.
That is how proud they are.
[8]Their horses are faster than leopards.
They are meaner than wolves at sunset.
Their horsemen charge straight into battle.
They ride in from far away.
They come down like an eagle
diving for its food.
[9]All of them are ready and willing to destroy others.
Their huge armies advance like a wind out of the desert.
They gather prisoners like sand.
[10]They mock kings and make fun of rulers.
They laugh at all the cities
that have high walls around them.
They build dirt ramps against the walls and capture the cities.
[11]They sweep past like the wind.
Then they go on their way.
They are guilty.
They worship their own strength.”

Habakkuk Complains to the LORD Again

[12]LORD, haven’t you existed forever?
You are my holy God.
You will never die.
LORD, you have appointed the Babylonians to punish your people.
My Rock, you have chosen them to judge us.
[13]Your eyes are too pure to look at what is evil.
You can’t put up with the wrong things people do.

So why do you put up with those who can’t be trusted?
The evil Babylonians swallow up those who are more godly than themselves.
So why are you silent?
14 You have made people to be like the fish in the sea.
They are like the sea creatures that don’t have a ruler.
15 The evil Babylonians pull all of them up with hooks.
They catch them in their nets.
They gather them up.
So they celebrate.
They are glad.
16 They offer sacrifices to their nets.
They burn incense to them.
Their nets allow them to live in great comfort.
They enjoy the finest food.
17 Are you going to let them
keep on emptying their nets?
Will they go on destroying nations without showing them any mercy?

Habakkuk 2

[1]I will go up to the lookout tower.
I'll station myself on the city wall.
I'll wait to see how the LORD will reply to me.
Then I'll try to figure out how his reply answers what I've complained about.

The LORD Replies to Habakkuk

[2]The LORD replies,

"Write down the message I am giving you.
Write it clearly on the tablets you use.
Then a messenger can read it and run to announce it.
[3]The message I give you waits for the time I have appointed.
It speaks about what is going to happen.
And all of it will come true.
It might take a while.
But wait for it.
You can be sure it will come.
It will happen when I want it to.

[4]"The Babylonians are very proud.
What they want is not good.

"But the person who is godly will live by his faithfulness.

[5]"Wine makes the Babylonians do foolish things.
They are proud. They never rest.
Like the grave, they are always hungry for more.
Like death, they are never satisfied.
They gather all the nations to themselves.
They take all those people away as prisoners.

6“Won’t those people laugh at the Babylonians? Won’t they make fun of them? They will say to them,

“ ‘How terrible it will be for you who pile up stolen goods!
You get rich by cheating others.
How long will this go on?’
7Those you owe money to will suddenly rise up.
They will wake up
and make you tremble with fear.
Then they will take away
everything you have.
8You have robbed many nations.
So the nations that are left will rob you.
You have spilled human blood.
You have destroyed lands and cities
and everyone in them.

9“How terrible it will be for the Babylonians!
They build their kingdom with money that they gained by cheating others.
They have tried to make the kingdom
as secure as possible.
After all, they did not want to be destroyed.
10They have planned to wipe out many nations.
But they have brought shame on their own kingdom.
So they must pay with their own lives.
11The stones in the walls of their homes will cry out.
And the wooden beams will echo that cry.

12“How terrible it will be for the Babylonians!
They build cities by spilling the blood of others.
They establish towns by doing what is wrong.
13I am the LORD who rules over all.
Human effort is no better than wood that feeds a fire.
So the nations wear themselves out for nothing.
14The oceans are full of water.
In the same way, the earth will be filled with the knowledge of my glory.

15“How terrible it will be for the Babylonians!
They give drinks to their neighbors.
They pour the drinks from wineskins until their neighbors are drunk.
They want to look at their naked bodies.
16But the Babylonians will be filled with shame instead of glory.
So now it is their turn to drink and be stripped of their clothes.
The cup of anger in my powerful right hand is going to punish them.
They will be covered with shame instead of glory.
17The harm they have done to Lebanon will bring them down.
Because they have killed so many animals,
animals will terrify them.
They have spilled human blood.
They have destroyed lands and cities
and everyone in them.

18“If someone carves a statue of a god, what is it worth?
What value is there in a god that teaches lies?
The one who trusts in this kind of god
worships his own creation.
He makes statues of gods that can’t speak.
19How terrible it will be for the Babylonians!
They say to a wooden god, ‘Come to life!’
They say to a stone god, ‘Wake up!’
Can those gods give advice?
They are covered with gold and silver.
They can’t even breathe.”

20The LORD is in his holy temple.
Let the whole earth be silent in front of him.

Habakkuk 3

Habakkuk Prays to the LORD

[1]This is a prayer of Habakkuk the prophet. It is on shigionoth. Here is what he said.

[2]LORD, I know how famous you are.
I have great respect for you because of your mighty acts.
Do them again for us.
Make them known in our time.
When you are angry,
please have mercy on us.

[3]God came from Teman.
The Holy One came from Mount Paran.
His glory covered the heavens.
His praise filled the earth.
[4]His glory was like the sunrise.
Rays of light flashed from his mighty hand.
His power was hidden there.
[5]He sent plagues ahead of him.
Sickness followed behind him.
[6]When he stood up, the earth shook.
When he looked at the nations,
they trembled with fear.
The age-old mountains crumbled.
The ancient hills fell down.
But he marches on forever.
[7]I saw the tents of Cushan in trouble.
The people of Midian were suffering greatly.

[8]LORD, were you angry with the rivers?
Were you angry with the streams?
Were you angry with the Red Sea?
You rode your horses and chariots to overcome it.

[9]You got your bow ready to use.
You asked for many arrows.
You broke up the surface of the earth with rivers.
[10]The mountains saw you and shook.
Floods of water swept by.
The sea roared.
It lifted its waves high.

[11]The sun and moon stood still in the sky.
They stopped because your flying arrows flashed by.
Your gleaming spear shone like lightning.
[12]When you were angry, you marched across the earth.
Because of your anger you destroyed the nations.
[13]You came out to set your people free.
You saved your chosen ones.
You crushed Pharaoh, the leader of that evil land of Egypt.
You stripped him from head to foot.
[14]His soldiers rushed out to scatter us.
They were laughing at us.
They thought they would easily destroy us.
They saw us as weak people who were trying to hide.
So you wounded Pharaoh’s head with his own spear.
[15]Your horses charged into the Red Sea.
They stirred up the great waters.

[16]I listened and my heart pounded.
My lips trembled at the sound.
My bones seemed to rot.
And my legs shook.
But I will be patient.
I’ll wait for the day of trouble to come on Babylon.
It’s the nation that is attacking us.
[17]The fig trees might not bud.
The vines might not produce any grapes.
The olive crop might fail.
The fields might not produce any food.

There might not be any sheep in the pens.
There might not be any cattle in the barns.
18 But I will still be glad because of what the LORD has done.
God my Savior fills me with joy.

19 The LORD and King gives me strength.
He makes my feet like the feet of a deer.
He helps me walk on the highest places.

This prayer is for the director of music. It should be sung while being accompanied by stringed instruments.

Zephaniah

Zephaniah 1

[1]A message from the LORD came to Zephaniah, the son of Cushi. Cushi was the son of Gedaliah. Gedaliah was the son of Amariah. Amariah was the son of King Hezekiah. The LORD spoke to Zephaniah during the rule of Josiah. He was king of Judah and the son of Amon.

The LORD Will Judge the Whole World

[2]"I will sweep away everything from the face of the earth,"
announces the LORD.
[3]"I will destroy people and animals alike.
I will wipe out the birds in the sky and the fish in the waters.
I will destroy the statues of gods that cause evil people to sin.
That will happen when I destroy all human beings on the face of the earth,"
announces the LORD.
[4]"I will reach out my powerful hand against Judah.
I will punish all those who live in Jerusalem.
I will destroy from this place
what is left of Baal worship.
The priests who serve other gods will be removed.
[5]I will destroy those who bow down on their roofs to worship all the stars.
I will destroy those who make promises not only in my name but also in the name of Molek.
[6]I will destroy those who stop following the LORD.
They no longer look to him or ask him for advice.
[7]Be silent in front of him.
He is the LORD and King.
The day of the LORD is near.
The LORD has prepared a sacrifice.

He has set apart for himself
the people he has invited.
8When the LORD's sacrifice is ready to be offered,
I will punish the officials and the king's sons.
I will also judge all those who follow
the practices of other nations.
9At that time I will punish all those who worship other gods.
They fill the temples of their gods with lies and other harmful things.

10"At that time people at the Fish Gate in Jerusalem will cry out," announces the LORD.
"So will those at the New Quarter.
The buildings on the hills will come crashing down with a loud noise.
11Cry out, you who live in the market places.
All your merchants will be wiped out.
Those who trade in silver will be destroyed.
12At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps.
I will punish those who are so contented.
They are like wine that has not been shaken up.
They think, 'The LORD won't do anything.
He won't do anything good or bad.'
13Their wealth will be stolen.
Their houses will be destroyed.
They will build houses.
But they will not live in them.
They will plant vineyards.
But they will not drink the wine they produce.
14The great day of the LORD is near.
In fact, it is coming quickly.
The cries on that day are bitter.
The Mighty Warrior shouts his battle cry.
15At that time I will pour out my anger.
There will be great suffering and pain.
It will be a day of horrible trouble.
It will be a time of darkness and gloom.

It will be filled with the blackest clouds.
16 Trumpet blasts and battle cries will be heard.
Soldiers will attack cities that have forts and corner towers.
17 I will bring great trouble on all people.
So they will feel their way around like blind people.
They have sinned against the LORD.
Their blood will be poured out like dust.
Their bodies will lie rotting on the ground.
18 Their silver and gold won’t save them
on the day the LORD pours out his anger.
The whole earth will be burned up when his jealous anger blazes out.
Everyone who lives on earth will come to a sudden end.”

Zephaniah 2

The LORD Will Judge Judah and Jerusalem Along With the Nations

God Calls Judah to Turn Away From Their Sins

[1]Gather together,
you shameful nation of Judah!
Gather yourselves together!
[2]Come together before the LORD's judgment arrives.
The day of the LORD's judgment will sweep in like straw blown by the wind.
Soon the LORD's great anger will come against you.
The day of his wrath will come against you.
[3]So look to him, all you people in the land who worship him faithfully.
You always do what he commands you to do.
Continue to do what is right.
Don't be proud.
Then perhaps the LORD will keep you safe on the day he pours out his anger on the world.

A Message About Philistia

[4]Gaza will be deserted.
Ashkelon will be destroyed.
Ashdod will be emptied out at noon.
Ekron will be pulled up by its roots.
[5]How terrible it will be for you Kerethites who live by the Mediterranean Sea!
Philistia, the LORD has spoken against you.
What happened to Canaan will happen to you.

The LORD says, "I will destroy you.
No one will be left."

[6]The land by the sea will become grasslands.

It will have wells for shepherds and pens for flocks.
[7]That land will belong to those who are still left alive among the people of Judah.
They will find grasslands there.
They will take over the houses in Ashkelon and live in them.
The LORD their God will take care of them.
He will bless them with great success again.

A Message About Moab and Ammon

[8]The LORD says,

"I have heard Moab make fun of my people.
The Ammonites also laughed at them.
They told them that bad things would happen to their land.
[9]So Moab will become like Sodom,"
announces the LORD who rules over all.
"Ammon will be like Gomorrah.
Weeds and salt pits will cover those countries.
They will be dry and empty deserts forever.
Those who are still left alive among my people will take all their valuable things.
So they will receive those lands as their own.
And that is just as sure as I am alive."
The LORD is the God of Israel.

[10]Moab and Ammon will be judged because they are so proud.
They made fun of the LORD's people.
They laughed at them.
[11]The LORD who rules over all will terrify Moab and Ammon.
He will destroy all the gods on earth.
Then distant nations will bow down to him.
All of them will serve him in their own lands.

A Message About Cush

[12]The LORD says, “People of Cush, you too will die by my sword.”

A Message About Assyria

[13]The LORD will reach out his powerful hand against the north.
He will destroy Assyria.
He’ll leave Nineveh totally empty.
It will be as dry as a desert.
[14]Flocks and herds will lie down there.
So will creatures of every kind.
Desert owls and screech owls will rest on its pillars.
The sound of their hooting will echo through the windows.
The doorways will be full of trash.
The cedar beams will be showing.
[15]Nineveh was a carefree city.
It lived in safety.
It said to itself,
“I am the one!
No one is greater than I am.”
But it has been destroyed.
Wild animals make their home there.
All those who pass by laugh and shake their fists at it.

Zephaniah 3

A Message About Jerusalem

[1]How terrible it will be for Jerusalem!
Its people crush others.
They refuse to obey the LORD.
They are “unclean.”
[2]They don’t obey anyone.
They don’t accept the LORD’s warnings.
They don’t trust in him.
They don’t ask their God for his help.
[3]Jerusalem’s officials are like roaring lions.
Their rulers are like wolves that hunt in the evening.
They don’t leave anything to eat in the morning.
[4]Their prophets care about nothing.
They can’t be trusted.
Their priests make the temple “unclean.”
They break the law they teach others to obey.
[5]In spite of that, the LORD is good to Jerusalem.
He never does anything that is wrong.
Every morning he does what is fair.
Each new day he does the right thing.
But those who do what is wrong aren’t even ashamed of it.

Jerusalem Remains Unrepentant

[6]The LORD says to his people,

“I have destroyed other nations.
I have wiped out their forts.
I have left their streets deserted.
No one walks along them.
Their cities are destroyed.
They are deserted and empty.
[7]Here is what I thought about Jerusalem.
‘Surely you will have respect for me.

Surely you will accept my warning.’
Then the city you think is safe would not be destroyed.
And I would not have to punish you so much.
But they still wanted to go on sinning in every way they could.
8So wait for me to come as judge,”
announces the LORD.
“Wait for the day I will stand up to witness against all sinners.
I have decided to gather the nations.
I will bring the kingdoms together.
And I will pour out all my burning anger on them.
The fire of my jealous anger will burn the whole world up.

Israel Will Trust in the LORD

9“But then I will purify what all the nations say.
And they will use their words to worship me.
They will serve me together.
10My scattered people will come to me from beyond the rivers of Cush.
They will worship me.
They will bring me offerings.
11Jerusalem, you have done many wrong things to me.
But at that time you will not be put to shame anymore.
That’s because I will remove from this city
those who think so highly of themselves.
You will never be proud again
on my holy mountain of Zion.
12But inside your city I will leave those who are not proud at all.
Those who are still left alive will trust in the LORD.
13They will not do anything wrong.
They will not tell any lies.
They will not say anything to fool other people.
They will eat and lie down in peace.
And no one will make them afraid.”

[14]People of Zion, sing!
Israel, shout loudly!
People of Jerusalem, be glad!
Let your hearts be full of joy.
[15]The LORD has stopped punishing you.
He has made your enemies turn away from you.
The LORD is the King of Israel.
He is with you.
You will never again be afraid that others will harm you.
[16]The time is coming when people will say to Jerusalem,
"Zion, don't be afraid.
Don't give up.
[17]The LORD your God is with you.
He is the Mighty Warrior who saves.
He will take great delight in you.
In his love he will no longer punish you.
Instead, he will sing for joy because of you."

[18]The LORD says to his people,

"You used to celebrate my appointed feasts in Jerusalem.
You are sad because you can't do that anymore.
Other people make fun of you because of that.
That sadness was a heavy load for you to carry.
But I will remove that load from you.
[19]At that time I will punish all those who crushed you.
I will save those among you who are disabled.
I will gather those who have been taken away.
I will give them praise and honor in every land where they have been put to shame.
[20]At that time I will gather you together.
And I will bring you home.
I will give you honor and praise
among all the nations on earth.
I will bless you with great success again,"
says the LORD.

Haggai

Haggai 1

Haggai Tells His People to Rebuild the LORD's Temple

[1]A message from the LORD came to Haggai the prophet. Haggai gave it to Zerubbabel and Joshua. Zerubbabel was governor of Judah and the son of Shealtiel. Joshua was high priest and the son of Jozadak. The message came on the first day of the sixth month of the second year that Darius was king of Persia. Here is what Haggai said.

[2]Here is what the LORD who rules over all says. "The people of Judah say, 'It's not yet time to rebuild the LORD's temple.' "

[3]So the message from the LORD came to me. The LORD said, [4]"My temple is still destroyed. But you are living in your houses that have beautiful wooden walls."

[5]The LORD who rules over all says, "Think carefully about how you are living. [6]You have planted many seeds. But the crops you have gathered are small. So you eat. But you never have enough. You drink. But you are never full. You put on your clothes. But you are not warm. You earn your pay. But it will not buy everything you need."

[7]He continues, "Think carefully about how you are living. [8]Go up into the mountains. Bring logs down. Use them to rebuild the temple, my house. Then I will enjoy it. And you will honor me," says the LORD. [9]You expected a lot. But you can see what a small amount it turned out to be. I blew away what you brought home. I'll tell you why," announces the LORD who rules over all. "Because my temple is still destroyed. In spite of that, each one of you is busy with your own house. [10]So because of what you have done, the heavens have held back the dew. And the earth has not produced its crops. [11]I ordered the rain not to fall on the fields and mountains. Then the ground did not produce any grain. There were not enough grapes to make fresh wine. The trees did not bear enough olives to make oil. People and cattle suffered. All your hard work failed."

[12]Zerubbabel was the son of Shealtiel. Joshua the high priest was the son of Jozadak. They obeyed the LORD their God. So did all the LORD's people who were still left alive. The LORD had given his message to them through me. He had sent me to speak to them. And the people had respect for him.

[13]Haggai was the LORD's messenger. So Haggai gave the LORD's message to the people. He told them, "The LORD announces, 'I am with you.' " [14]So the LORD stirred up the spirits of Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah, and Joshua the high priest. The LORD also stirred up the rest of the people to help them. Then everyone began to work on the temple of the LORD who rules over all. He is their God. [15]It was the 24th day of the sixth month.

The New Temple Will Be Beautiful

In the second year of King Darius,

Haggai 2

[1]a second message came from the LORD. It came to Haggai the prophet. The message came on the 21st day of the seventh month. The LORD said, [2]“Speak to Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah and the son of Shealtiel. Also speak to Joshua the high priest, the son of Jozadak. And speak to all my people who are still left alive. Ask them, [3]‘Did any of you who are here see how beautiful this temple used to be? How does it look to you now? It doesn’t look so good, does it? [4]But be strong, Zerubbabel,’ announces the LORD. ‘Be strong, Joshua. Be strong, all of you people in the land,’ announces the LORD. ‘Start rebuilding. I am with you,’ announces the LORD who rules over all. [5]‘That is what I promised you when you came out of Egypt. My Spirit continues to be with you. So do not be afraid.’ ”

[6]The LORD says, “In a little while I will shake the heavens and the earth once more. I will also shake the ocean and the dry land. [7]I will shake all the nations. Then what is desired by all nations will come to my temple. And I will fill the temple with glory,” says the LORD who rules over all. [8]“The silver belongs to me. So does the gold,” announces the LORD who rules over all. [9]“The new temple will be more beautiful than the first one was,” says the LORD. “And in this place I will bring peace,” announces the LORD who rules over all.

The LORD Will Make His People Pure and “Clean”

[10]A third message from the LORD came to Haggai the prophet. The message came on the 24th day of the ninth month of the second year that Darius was king. [11]The LORD who rules over all speaks. He says, “Ask the priests what the law says. [12]Suppose someone carries holy meat in the clothes they are wearing. And the clothes touch some bread or stew. Or they touch some wine, olive oil or other food. Then do these things also become holy?”

The priests answered, “No.”

[13]So Haggai said, “Suppose someone is made ‘unclean’ by touching a dead body. And then they touch one of these things. Does it become ‘unclean’ too?”

“Yes,” the priests replied. “It does.”

[14]Then here is what Haggai said. “The LORD announces, ‘That is how I look at these people and this nation. Anything they do and anything they sacrifice on the altar is “unclean.”

15“ ‘Think carefully about this from now on. Think about how things were before the LORD’s temple was built. This was before one stone was laid on top of another. 16People went to get 20 measures of grain. But they could find only 10. They went to where the wine was stored to get 50 measures. But only 20 were there. 17You worked very hard to produce all those things. But I struck them with rot, mold and hail. And you still did not return to me,’ announces the LORD. 18It is the 24th day of the ninth month. From this day on, here is what you should think carefully about. Think about the day when the foundation of my temple was laid. 19Are any seeds still left in your barns? Until now, your vines and fig trees have not produced any fruit. Your pomegranate and olive trees have not produced any either.

“ ‘But from this day on I will bless you.’ ”

The LORD Compares Zerubbabel to His Royal Ring

20A final message from the LORD came to Haggai. This message also came on the 24th day of the ninth month. The LORD said, 21“Speak to Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah. Tell him I am going to shake the heavens and the earth. 22I will throw down royal thrones. I will smash the power of other kingdoms. I will destroy chariots and their drivers. Horses and their riders will fall. They will be killed by the swords of their relatives.

23“ ‘Zerubbabel, at that time I will pick you,’ announces the LORD. ‘You are my servant,’ announces the LORD. ‘You will be like a ring that has my royal mark on it. I have chosen you,’ announces the LORD who rules over all.”

Zechariah

Zechariah 1

The LORD Wants His People to Return to Him

[1]A message from the LORD came to Zechariah the prophet. Zechariah was the son of Berekiah. Berekiah was the son of Iddo. It was the eighth month of the second year that Darius was king of Persia. Here is what Zechariah said.

[2]The LORD who rules over all was very angry with your people of long ago. [3]And now he says to us, “Return to me. Then I will return to you,” announces the LORD. [4]“Do not be like your people of long ago. The earlier prophets gave them my message. I said, ‘Stop doing what is evil. Turn away from your sinful practices.’ But they would not listen to me. They would not pay any attention,” announces the LORD. [5]“Where are those people now? And what about my prophets? Do they live forever? [6]I commanded my servants the prophets what to say. I told them what I planned to do. But your people refused to obey me. So I had to punish them.

“Then they had a change of heart. They said, ‘The LORD who rules over all has punished us because of how we have lived. He was fair and right to do that. He has done to us just what he decided to do.’ ”

A Vision of a Horseman Among Some Myrtle Trees

[7]A message from the LORD came to Zechariah the prophet. Zechariah was the son of Berekiah. Berekiah was the son of Iddo. The message came during the second year that Darius was king. It was the 24th day of the 11th month. That’s the month of Shebat.

[8]I had a vision at night. I saw a man sitting on a red horse. He was standing among the myrtle trees in a valley. Behind him were red, brown and white horses.

[9]An angel was talking with me. I asked him, “Sir, what are these?”

He answered, “I will show you what they are.”

[10]Then the man standing among the myrtle trees spoke. He said, “They are the messengers the LORD has sent out. He told them to go all through the earth.”

[11]They brought a report to the angel of the LORD. He was standing among the myrtle trees. They said to him, “We have gone all through the earth. We’ve found the whole world enjoying peace and rest.”

12Then the angel of the LORD spoke up. He said, “LORD, you rule over all.
How long will you keep from showing your tender love to Jerusalem? How long will you keep it from the towns of Judah? You have been angry with them for 70 years.” 13So the LORD replied with kind and comforting words. He spoke them to the angel who talked with me.

14Then the angel said, “Announce this message. Say, ‘The LORD who rules over all says, “I am very jealous for my people in Jerusalem and Zion. 15And I am very angry with the nations that feel secure. I was only a little angry with my people. But the nations went too far and tried to wipe them out.”

16“ ‘So the LORD says, “I will return to Jerusalem. I will show its people my tender love. My temple will be rebuilt there. Workers will use a measuring line when they rebuild Jerusalem,” announces the LORD.

17“ ‘He says, “My towns will be filled with good things once more. I will comfort Zion. And I will choose Jerusalem again.” ’ ”

A Vision of Four Horns and Four Skilled Workers

18Then I looked up and saw four animal horns. 19I spoke to the angel who was talking with me. “What are these horns?” I asked.

He said, “They are the powerful nations that scattered Judah, Israel and Jerusalem.”

20Then the LORD showed me four skilled workers. 21I asked, “What are they coming to do?”

He answered, “The horns are the powerful nations that scattered the people of Judah. That made Judah helpless. But these four skilled workers have come to terrify the horns. The workers will destroy the power of those nations. Those nations had used their power to scatter Judah’s people.”

Zechariah 2

A Vision of a Man Holding a Measuring Line

1Then I looked up and saw a man. He was holding a measuring line. 2"Where are you going?" I asked.

"To measure Jerusalem," he answered. "I want to find out how wide and how long it is."

3The angel who was talking with me was leaving. At that time, another angel came over to him. 4He said to him, "Run! Tell that young man Zechariah, 'Jerusalem will be a city that does not have any walls around it. It will have huge numbers of people and animals in it. 5And I myself will be like a wall of fire around it,' announces the LORD. 'I will be the city's glory.'

6"Israel, I have scattered you," announces the LORD. "I have used the power of the four winds of heaven to do it. Come quickly! Run away from the land of the north," announces the LORD.

7"Come, people of Zion! Escape, you who live in Babylon!" 8The LORD rules over all. His angel says to Israel, "The Glorious One has sent me to punish the nations that have robbed you of everything. That's because anyone who hurts you hurts those the LORD loves and guards. 9So I will raise my powerful hand to strike down your enemies. Their own slaves will rob them of everything. Then you will know that the LORD who rules over all has sent me.

10" 'People of Zion, shout and be glad! I am coming to live among you,' announces the LORD. 11'At that time many nations will join themselves to me.
And they will become my people. I will live among you,' says the LORD. Then you will know that the LORD who rules over all has sent me to you. 12He will receive Judah as his share in the holy land. And he will choose Jerusalem again.
13All you people of the world, be still because the LORD is coming. He is getting ready to come down from his holy temple in heaven."

Zechariah 3

A Vision of the High Priest Dressed in Fine Clothes

1Then the LORD showed me Joshua the high priest. He was standing in front of the angel of the LORD. Satan was standing to the right of Joshua. He was there to bring charges against the high priest. 2The LORD said to Satan, “May the LORD correct you! He has chosen Jerusalem. So may he correct you! Isn’t this man Joshua like a burning stick pulled out of the fire?”

3Joshua stood in front of the angel. He was wearing clothes that were very dirty. 4The angel spoke to those who were standing near him. He said, “Take his dirty clothes off.”

He said to Joshua, “I have taken your sin away. I will put fine clothes on you.”

5I added, “Put a clean turban on his head.” So they did. And they dressed him while the angel of the LORD stood by.

6Then the angel spoke to Joshua. He said, 7“The LORD who rules over all says, ‘You must obey me. You must do what I have commanded. Then you will rule in my temple. You will be in charge of my courtyards. And I will give you a place among these who are standing here.

8“ ‘High Priest Joshua, pay attention! I want you other priests who are sitting with Joshua to listen also. All you men are signs of things to come. I am going to bring to you my servant the Branch. 9Look at the stone I have put in front of Joshua! There are seven eyes on that one stone. I will carve a message on it,’ says the LORD who rules over all. ‘And I will remove the sin of this land in one day.

10“ ‘At that time each of you will invite your neighbors to visit you. They will sit under your vines and fig trees,’ announces the LORD.”

Zechariah 4

A Vision of the Gold Lampstand and Two Olive Trees

[1]Then the angel who was talking with me returned. He woke me up. It was as if I had been asleep. [2]"What do you see?" he asked me.

"I see a solid gold lampstand," I answered. "It has a bowl on top of it. There are seven lamps on it. Seven tubes lead to the lamps. [3]There are two olive trees by the lampstand. One is on its right side. The other is on its left."

[4]I asked the angel who was talking with me, "Sir, what are these?"

[5]He answered, "Don't you know what they are?"

"No, sir," I replied.

[6]So he said to me, "A message from the LORD came to Zerubbabel. The LORD said, 'Your strength will not get my temple rebuilt. Your power will not do it either. Only the power of my Spirit will do it,' says the LORD who rules over all.

[7]"So nothing can stop Zerubbabel from completing the temple. Even a mountain of problems will be smoothed out by him. When the temple is finished, he will put its most important stone in place. Then the people will shout, 'God bless it! God bless it!' "

[8]Then a message from the LORD came to me. His angel said, [9]"The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this temple. His hands will also complete it. Then you will know that the LORD who rules over all has sent me to you.

[10]"Do not look down on the small amount of work done on the temple so far.
The seven eyes of the LORD look over the whole earth. They will see Zerubbabel holding the most important stone. They will be filled with joy when they see it."

[11]Then I said to the angel, "I see two olive trees. One is on the right side of the lampstand. The other is on the left. What are these trees?"

[12]I continued, "I also see two olive branches. They are next to the two gold pipes that pour out golden olive oil. What are these branches?"

[13]He answered, "Don't you know what they are?"

"No, sir," I said.

[14]So he told me, "They are Zerubbabel and Joshua. The Lord of the whole earth has anointed them to serve him."

Zechariah 5

A Vision of a Flying Scroll

1 I looked up again and saw a flying scroll.

2 "What do you see?" the angel asked me.

"A scroll flying in the air," I replied. "It's 30 feet long and 15 feet wide."

3 He said to me, "A curse sent by the LORD is written on it. It is going out over the whole land. Every thief will be driven out of the land. That is what it says on one side of the scroll. Everyone who lies when promising to tell the truth will also be driven out. That is what it says on the other side. 4 The LORD who rules over all announces, 'I will send the curse out. It will enter the house of the thief. It will also enter the house of anyone who lies when making a promise in my name. It will remain in that house and destroy it completely. It will pull down its beams and stones.' "

A Vision of a Woman in a Basket

5 Then the angel who was talking with me came forward. He said to me, "Look at what is coming."

6 "What is it?" I asked.

"A basket," he replied. "The sins of the people all through the land are in it."

7 Then the basket's cover was lifted up. It was made out of lead. A woman was sitting in the basket! 8 The angel said, "She stands for everything that is evil." Then he pushed her down into the basket. He put the lead cover back over it.

9 I looked up and saw two other women. They had wings like the wings of a stork. A wind sent by the LORD carried them along. They lifted the basket up between heaven and earth.

10 "Where are they taking the basket?" I asked the angel.

11 He replied, "To the country of Babylon. A temple will be built for it. When the temple is ready, the basket will be set there in its place."

Zechariah 6

A Vision of Four Chariots

[1]I looked up again and saw four chariots. They were coming out from between two mountains. The mountains were made out of bronze. [2]The first chariot was pulled by red horses. The second one had black horses. [3]The third had white horses. And the fourth had spotted horses. All the horses were powerful. [4]I asked the angel who was talking with me, “Sir, what are these?”

[5]The angel answered, “The four spirits of heaven. They are going out to serve the Lord of the whole world. [6]The chariot pulled by the black horses is going toward the north country. The one with the white horses is going toward the west. And the one with the spotted horses is going toward the south.”

[7]The powerful horses went out. They were in a hurry to go all over the earth.
The angel said, “Go all through the earth!” So they did.

[8]Then the LORD called out to me, “Look! The horses going toward the north have given my Spirit rest in the north country.”

A Crown Is Given to Joshua

[9]A message from the LORD came to me. His angel said, [10]“Get some silver and gold from Heldai, Tobijah and Jedaiah. They have just come back from Babylon. On that same day go to Josiah’s house. He is the son of Zephaniah.
[11]Use the silver and gold to make a crown. Set it on the head of Joshua the high priest. He is the son of Jozadak. [12]Give Joshua a message from the LORD who rules over all. He says, ‘Here is the man whose name is the Branch. He will branch out and build my temple. [13]That is what he will do. He will be dressed in majesty as if it were his royal robe. He will sit as king on his throne. He will also be a priest there. So he will combine the positions of king and priest in himself.’
[14]The crown will be given to Heldai, Tobijah, Jedaiah and Zephaniah’s son Hen.
The crown will be kept in the LORD’s temple. It will remind everyone that the LORD’s promises will come true. [15]Those who are far away will come to Jerusalem. They will help build the LORD’s temple. Then his people will know that the LORD who rules over all has sent me to them. It will happen if they are careful to obey the LORD their God.”

Zechariah 7

Have Justice and Mercy

[1]During the fourth year that Darius was king, a message from the LORD came to me. It was the fourth day of the ninth month. That's the month of Kislev. [2]The people of Bethel wanted to ask the LORD for his blessing. So they sent Sharezer and Regem-Melek and their men. [3]They went to the prophets and priests at the LORD's temple. They asked them, "Should we mourn and go without eating in the fifth month? That's what we've done for many years."

[4]Then the message came to me from the LORD who rules over all. He said, [5]"Ask the priests and all the people in the land a question for me. Say to them,
'You mourned and fasted in the fifth and seventh months. You did it for the past 70 years. But did you really do it for me? [6]And when you were eating and drinking, weren't you just enjoying good food for yourselves? [7]Didn't I tell you the same thing through the earlier prophets? That was when Jerusalem and the towns around it were at rest and enjoyed success. People lived in the Negev Desert and the western hills at that time.' "

[8]Another message from the LORD came to me. [9]Here is what the LORD who rules over all said to his people. "Treat everyone with justice. Show mercy and tender concern to one another. [10]Do not take advantage of widows. Do not mistreat children whose fathers have died. Do not be mean to outsiders or poor people. Do not make evil plans against one another."

[11]But they refused to pay attention to the LORD. They were stubborn. They turned their backs and covered their ears. [12]They made their hearts as hard as the hardest stone. They wouldn't listen to the law. They wouldn't pay attention to the LORD's messages. So the LORD who rules over all was very angry. After all, his Spirit had spoken to his people through the earlier prophets.

[13]"When I called, they did not listen," says the LORD. "So when they called, I would not listen. [14]I used a windstorm to scatter them among all the nations.
They were strangers there. The land they left behind became dry and empty. No one could even travel through it. This is how they turned the pleasant land into a dry and empty desert."

Zechariah 8

The LORD Promises to Bless Jerusalem

[1]A message came to me from the LORD who rules over all.

He said, [2]“I am very jealous for my people in Zion. In fact, I am burning with jealousy for them.”

[3]He continued, “I will return to Zion. I will live among my people in Jerusalem. Then Jerusalem will be called the Faithful City. And my mountain will be called the Holy Mountain.”

[4]He continued, “Once again old men and women will sit in the streets of Jerusalem. All of them will be using canes because they are old. [5]The city streets will be filled with boys and girls. They will be playing there.”

[6]He continued, “All of that might seem hard to believe to the people living then. But it will not be too hard for me.”

[7]He continued, “I will save my people. I will gather them from the countries of the east and the west. [8]I will bring them back to live in Jerusalem. They will be my people. I will be their faithful God. I will keep my promises to them.”

[9]The LORD who rules over all says to his people, “Now listen to these words, ‘Let your hands be strong so that you can rebuild the temple.’ This also was said by the prophets Haggai and Zechariah. They spoke to you when the work on my temple began again. [10]Before the work was started again, there was no pay for the people. And there was no money to rent animals. People could not go about their business safely because of their enemies. I had turned all of them against one another. [11]But now I will not punish you who are living at this time. I will not treat you as I treated your people before you,” announces the LORD who rules over all.

[12]“Your seeds will grow well. Your vines will bear fruit. The ground will produce crops for you. And the heavens will drop their dew on your land. I will give all these things to those who are still left alive here. [13]Judah and Israel, in the past you have been a curse among the nations. But now I will save you. You will be a blessing to others. Do not be afraid. Let your hands be strong so that you can do my work.”

[14]The LORD who rules over all says, “Your people of long ago made me angry. So I decided to bring trouble on them. I did not show them any pity. [15]But now I plan to do good things to Jerusalem and Judah again. So do not be afraid.

[16]Here is what you must do. Speak the truth to one another. Make true and wise decisions in your courts. [17]Do not make evil plans against one another. When you promise to tell the truth, do not lie. Many people love to do that. But I hate all these things," announces the LORD.

[18]Another message came to me from the LORD who rules over all.

He said, [19]"You have established special times to go without eating. They are your fasts in the fourth, fifth, seventh and tenth months. They will become days of joy. They will be happy times for Judah. It will happen if you take delight in telling the truth and bringing about peace."

[20]He continued, "Many nations will still come to you. And those who live in many cities will also come. [21]The people who live in one city will go to another city. They will say, 'Let's go right away to ask the LORD for his blessing. Let's look to him as our God. We ourselves are going.' [22]Large numbers of people and nations will come to Jerusalem. They will look to me. They will ask me to bless them."

[23]He continued, "At that time many people of all nations and languages will take hold of one Jew. They will grab hold of the hem of his robe. And they will say, 'We want to go to Jerusalem with you. We've heard that God is with you.' "

Zechariah 9

The LORD Destroys Israel's Enemies

[1]This is a prophecy. It is the LORD's message against the land of Hadrak.
He will judge Damascus.
That's because all the tribes of Israel look to him.
So do all other people.
[2]The LORD will judge Hamath too.
It's next to Damascus.
He will also punish Tyre and Sidon
even though they are very clever.
[3]Tyre's people have built a fort for themselves.
They've piled up silver like dust.
They have as much gold as the dirt in the streets.
[4]But the Lord will take away everything they have.
He'll destroy their power on the Mediterranean Sea.
And Tyre will be completely burned up.
[5]Ashkelon will see it and become afraid.
Gaza will groan with pain.
So will Ekron. Its hope will vanish.
Gaza will no longer have a king.
Ashkelon will be deserted.
[6]A people who come from several nations will take over Ashdod.
The LORD says, "I will put an end to the pride of the Philistines.
[7]They will no longer drink the blood of their animal sacrifices.
I will remove the 'unclean' food from between their teeth.
The Philistines who are left will belong to our God.
They will become a family group in Judah.
And Ekron will be like the Jebusites.
So the Philistines will become part of Israel.
[8]But I will camp at my temple.
I will guard it against enemy armies.
No one will ever crush my people again.
I will make sure it does not happen.

A King Comes to Zion

9 “City of Zion, be full of joy!
People of Jerusalem, shout!
See, your king comes to you.
He always does what is right.
He has won the victory.
He is humble and riding on a donkey.
He is sitting on a donkey’s colt.
10 I will take the chariots away from Ephraim.
I will remove the war horses from Jerusalem.
I will break the bows that are used in battle.
Your king will announce peace to the nations.
He will rule from ocean to ocean.
His kingdom will reach from the Euphrates River to the ends of the earth.
11 I will set your prisoners free from where their enemies are keeping them.
I will do it because of the blood that put into effect my covenant with you.
12 Return to your place of safety,
you prisoners who still have hope.
Even now I announce that I will give you back much more than you had before.
13 I will bend Judah as I bend my bow.
I will make Ephraim’s people my arrows.
Zion, I will stir up your sons.
Greece, they will attack your sons.
My people, I will use you as my sword.”

The LORD Will Appear

14 Then the LORD will appear over his people.
His arrows will flash like lightning.
The LORD and King will blow the trumpet of his thunder.
He’ll march out like a storm in the south.
15 The LORD who rules over all will be like a shield to his people.

They will destroy their enemies.
They'll use slings to throw stones at them.
They'll drink the blood of their enemies
as if it were wine.
They'll be full like the bowl that is used for sprinkling the corners of the altar.
16 The LORD their God will save his people on that day.
He will be like a shepherd who saves his flock.
They will gleam in his land
like jewels in a crown.
17 How very beautiful they will be!
Grain and fresh wine
will make the young men and young women strong.

Zechariah 10

The LORD Will Take Care of Judah

[1]People of Judah, ask the LORD to send rain in the spring.
He is the one who sends the thunderstorms.
He sends down showers of rain on all people.
He gives everyone the plants in the fields.
[2]Other gods tell lies.
Those who practice magic see visions that aren't true.
They tell dreams that fool people.
They give comfort that doesn't do any good.
So the people wander around like sheep.
They are crushed because they don't have a shepherd.

[3]The LORD who rules over all says,

"I am very angry with the shepherds.
I will punish the leaders.
The LORD will take care of his flock.
They are the people of Judah.
He will make them like a proud horse in battle.
[4]The most important building stone will come from the tribe of Judah.
The tent stake will also come from it.
And the bow that is used in battle will come from it.
In fact, every ruler will come from it.
[5]Together they will be like warriors in battle.
They will stomp their enemies into the mud of the streets.
The LORD will be with them.
So they will fight against the horsemen and put them to shame.

[6]"I will make the family of Judah strong.

I will save the tribes of Joseph.
I will bring them back because I have tender love for them.
It will be as if
I had not sent them away.
I am the LORD their God.
I will help them.
7 The people of Ephraim will become like warriors.
Their hearts will be glad as if they were drinking wine.
Their children will see it
and be filled with joy.
I will make their hearts glad.
8 I will signal for my people to come,
and I will gather them in.
I will set them free.
There will be as many of them as before.
9 I have scattered them among the nations.
But in lands far away they will remember me.
They and their children will be kept alive.
And they will return.
10 I will bring them back from Egypt.
I will gather them from Assyria.
I will bring them to Gilead and Lebanon.
There will not be enough room for them.
11 They will pass through a sea of trouble.
The stormy sea will calm down.
All the deep places in the Nile River will dry up.
Assyria's pride will be brought down.
Egypt's right to rule will disappear.
12 I will make my people strong.
They will live in safety because of me,"
announces the LORD.

Zechariah 11

[1]Lebanon, open your doors!
Then fire can burn up your cedar trees.
[2]Juniper trees, cry out!
The cedar trees have fallen down.
The majestic trees are destroyed.
Cry out, you oak trees of Bashan!
The thick forest has been cut down.
[3]Listen to the shepherds cry out!
Their rich grasslands are destroyed.
Listen to the lions roar!
The trees and bushes along the Jordan River are gone.

The Two Shepherds

[4]The LORD my God says, “Take care of the sheep that are set apart to be sacrificed. [5]Those who buy them kill them. And they are not punished for it. Those who sell them say, ‘Praise the LORD! We’re rich!’ And their own shepherds do not spare them. [6]I will no longer have pity on the people in the land,” announces the LORD. “I will hand all of them over to their neighbors and their king. They will destroy the land. And I will not save anyone from their power.”

[7]So I took care of the sheep set apart to be sacrificed. I took special care of those that had been treated badly. Then I got two shepherd’s staffs. I called one of them Favor. I called the other one Union. And I took care of the flock. [8]In one month I got rid of three worthless shepherds.

The sheep hated me, and I got tired of them. [9]So I said, “I won’t be your shepherd anymore. Let those of you who are dying die. Let those who are passing away pass away. Let those who are left eat one another up.”

[10]Then I got my staff called Favor. I broke it. That meant the covenant the LORD had made with all the nations was broken. [11]It happened that day. The sheep that had been treated badly were watching me. They knew it was the LORD’s message.

[12]I told them, “If you think it is best, give me my pay. But if you don’t think so, keep it.” So they paid me 30 silver coins.

[13]The LORD said to me, “Throw those coins to the potter.” That amount shows how little they valued me! So I threw the 30 silver coins to the potter at the LORD’s temple.

[14]Then I broke my second staff called Union. That broke the family connection between Judah and Israel.

[15]The LORD said to me, “Now pretend to be a foolish shepherd. Get the things you need. [16]I am going to raise up a shepherd over the land. He will not take care of those that are wounded. He will not look for the young ones. He will not heal those that are hurt. He will not feed the healthy ones. Instead, he will eat the best sheep. He will even tear their hooves off.

[17]“How terrible it will be for that worthless shepherd!
He deserts the flock.
May a sword strike his arm and his right eye!
May his powerful arm become weak!
May his right eye be totally blinded!”

Zechariah 12

The LORD Will Destroy Jerusalem's Enemies

[1]This is a prophecy. It is the LORD's message about Israel.

The LORD spreads out the heavens. He lays the foundation of the earth.
He creates the human spirit within a person. He says, [2]"Jerusalem will be like a cup in my hand. It will make all the surrounding nations drunk from the wine of my anger. Judah will be attacked by its enemies. So will Jerusalem.
[3]At that time all the nations on earth will gather together against Jerusalem.
Then it will become like a rock that can't be moved. All the nations that try to move it will only hurt themselves. [4]On that day I will fill every horse with panic. I will make every rider crazy," announces the LORD. "I will watch over the people of Judah. But I will make all the horses of the nations blind.
[5]Then the family groups of Judah will say in their hearts, 'The people of Jerusalem are strong. That's because the LORD who rules over all is their God.'

[6]"At that time Judah's family groups will be like a fire pot in a pile of wood. They will be like a burning torch among bundles of grain. They will destroy all the surrounding nations on every side. But Jerusalem will remain unharmed in its place.

[7]"I will save the houses in Judah first. The honor of David's family line is great. So is the honor of those who live in Jerusalem. But their honor will not be greater than the honor of the rest of Judah. [8]At that time I will be like a shield to those who live in Jerusalem. Then even the weakest among them will be great warriors like David. And David's family line will be like the angel of the LORD who leads them. [9]On that day I will begin to destroy all the nations that attack Jerusalem.

Israel's People Will Mourn Over the One They Pierced

[10]"I will pour out a spirit of grace and prayer on David's family line. I will also send it on those who live in Jerusalem. They will look to me. I am the one they have pierced. They will mourn over me as someone mourns over an only child who has died. They will be full of sorrow over me. Their sorrow will be just like someone's sorrow over an oldest son. [11]At that time there will be a lot of weeping in Jerusalem. It will be as great as the weeping of the people at Hadad Rimmon. Hadad Rimmon is in the valley of Megiddo. They were weeping over Josiah's death. [12]Everyone in the land will mourn. Each family will mourn by themselves and their wives by themselves. That will include the family lines of David, Nathan, [13]Levi, Shimei and [14]all the others.

Zechariah 13

The LORD Makes Israel Pure and "Clean"

1"At that time a fountain will be opened for the benefit of David's family line.
It will also bless the others who live in Jerusalem. It will wash away their sins. It will make them pure and 'clean.'
2"On that day I will remove the names of other gods from the land. They will not even be remembered anymore," announces the LORD who rules over all. "I will drive the evil prophets out of the land. I will get rid of the spirit that put lies in their mouths. 3Some people might still prophesy. But their own fathers and mothers will speak to them. They will tell them, 'You must die. You have told lies in the LORD's name.' When they prophesy, their own parents will stab them.
4"At that time every prophet will be ashamed of the vision they see. They will no longer pretend to be a true prophet. They will not put on clothes that are made out of hair in order to trick people. 5In fact, each one will say, 'I'm not really a prophet. I'm a farmer. I've farmed the land since I was young.' 6Suppose someone asks, 'What are these wounds on your body?' Then they will answer, 'I was given these wounds at the house of my friends.'

The Good Shepherd Is Killed and the Sheep Are Scattered

7"My sword, wake up! Attack my shepherd!
Attack the man who is close to me,"
announces the LORD who rules over all.
"Strike down the shepherd.
Then the sheep will be scattered.
And I will turn my hand against their little ones.
8Here is what will happen in the whole land,"
announces the LORD.
"Two-thirds of the people will be struck down and die.
But one-third will be left.
9I will put this third in the fire.
I will make them as pure as silver.
I will test them like gold.
They will call out to me.

And I will answer them.
I will say, ‘They are my people.’
And they will say, ‘The LORD is our God.’ ”

Zechariah 14

The LORD Will Be King Over the Whole Earth

[1]The day of the LORD is coming, Jerusalem. At that time your enemies will steal everything your people own. They will divide it up within your walls.
[2]The LORD will gather all the nations together. They will fight against Jerusalem. They'll capture the city. Its houses will be robbed. Its women will be raped. Half of the people will be taken away as prisoners. But the rest of them won't be taken. [3]Then the LORD will march out and fight against those nations.
He will fight as on a day of battle. [4]On that day he will stand on the Mount of Olives. It's east of Jerusalem. It will be split in two from east to west. Half of the mountain will move north. The other half will move south. A large valley will be formed. [5]The people will run away through that mountain valley. It will reach all the way to Azel. They'll run away just as they ran from the earthquake when Uzziah was king of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come. All the holy ones will come with him.
[6]There won't be any sunlight on that day. There will be no cold, frosty darkness either. [7]It will be a day unlike any other. It will be a day known only to the LORD. It won't be separated into day and night. After that day is over, there will be light again.
[8]At that time water that gives life will flow out from Jerusalem. Half of it will run east into the Dead Sea. The other half will go west to the Mediterranean Sea.
The water will flow in summer and winter.
[9]The LORD will be king over the whole earth. On that day there will be one LORD. His name will be the only name.
[10]The whole land south of Jerusalem will be changed. From Geba to Rimmon it will become like the Arabah Valley. But Jerusalem will be raised up high. It will be raised from the Benjamin Gate to the First Gate to the Corner Gate. It will be raised from the Tower of Hananel to the royal winepresses. And it will remain in its place. [11]People will live in it. Jerusalem will never be destroyed again. It will be secure.
[12]The LORD will punish all the nations that fought against Jerusalem. He'll strike them with a plague. It will make their bodies rot while they are still standing on their feet. Their eyes will rot in their heads. Their tongues will rot in their mouths. [13]On that day the LORD will fill people with great panic. They will grab one another by the hand. And they'll attack one another. [14]Judah will also fight at Jerusalem. The wealth of all the surrounding nations will be collected. Huge amounts of gold, silver and clothes will be gathered up. [15]The same kind of plague will strike the horses, mules, camels and donkeys. In fact, it will strike all the animals in the army camps.

[16]But some people from all the nations that have attacked Jerusalem will still be left alive. All of them will go up there to worship the King. He is the LORD who rules over all. Year after year these people will celebrate the Feast of Booths. [17]Some nations might not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King. If they don't, they won't have any rain. [18]The people of Egypt might not go up there to take part. Then they won't have any rain either. That's the plague the LORD will send on the nations that don't go to celebrate the Feast of Booths. [19]Egypt will be punished. So will all the other nations that don't celebrate the feast.

[20]On that day "Holy to the LORD" will be carved on the bells of the horses. The cooking pots in the LORD's temple will be just like the sacred bowls in front of the altar for burnt offerings. [21]Every pot in Jerusalem and Judah will be set apart to the LORD. All those who come to offer sacrifices will get some of the pots and cook in them. At that time there won't be any Canaanites in the LORD's temple. He is the LORD who rules over all.

Malachi

Malachi 1

[1]This is a prophecy. It is the LORD's message to Israel through Malachi.

Israel Doubts God's Love

[2]"Israel, I have loved you," says the LORD.
"But you ask, 'How have you loved us?'
"Wasn't Esau Jacob's brother?" says the LORD. "But I chose Jacob [3]instead of Esau. I have turned Esau's hill country into a dry and empty land. I left that land of Edom to the wild dogs in the desert."
[4]Edom might say, "We have been crushed. But we'll rebuild our cities."
The LORD who rules over all says, "They might rebuild their cities. But I will destroy them. They will be called the Evil Land. My anger will always remain on them. [5]You will see it with your own eyes. You will say, 'The LORD is great! He rules even beyond the borders of Israel!'

Give Your Best to the LORD

[6]"A son honors his father. A slave honors his master. If I am a father, where is the honor I should have? If I am a master, where is the respect you should give me?" says the LORD who rules over all.
"You priests look down on me.
"But you ask, 'How have we looked down on you?'
[7]"You sacrifice 'unclean' food on my altar.
"But you ask, 'How have we made you "unclean"?'
"You do it by looking down on my altar. [8]You sacrifice blind animals to me. Isn't that wrong? You sacrifice disabled or sick animals. Isn't that wrong? Try offering them to your governor! Would he be pleased with you? Would he accept you?" says the LORD who rules over all.
[9]"Now plead with God to be gracious to us! But as long as you give offerings like those, how can he accept you?" says the LORD.
[10]"You might as well shut the temple doors! Then you would not light useless fires on my altar. I am not pleased with you," says the LORD. "I will not accept any of the offerings you bring. [11]My name will be great among the nations. They will worship me from where the sun rises in the east to where it sets in the west. In every place, incense and pure offerings will be brought to me. That's because my name will be great among the nations," says the LORD.

12"But you treat my name as if it were not holy. You say the LORD's altar is 'unclean.' And you look down on its food. 13You say, 'What a heavy load our work is!' And you turn up your nose. You act as if you hate working for me," says the LORD who rules over all.

"You bring animals that have been hurt. Or you bring disabled or sick animals. Then you dare to offer them to me as sacrifices! Should I accept them from you?" says the LORD. 14"Suppose you have a male sheep or goat that does not have any flaws. And you promise to offer it to me. But then you sacrifice an animal that has flaws. When you do that, you cheat me. And anyone who cheats me is under my curse. After all, I am a great king," says the LORD who rules over all. "The other nations have respect for my name. So why don't you respect it?

Malachi 2

The LORD Warns the Priests

[1]“Now I am giving this warning to you priests. [2]Listen to it. Honor me with all your heart,” says the LORD who rules over all. “If you do not, I will send a curse on you. I will turn your blessings into curses. In fact, I have already done that because you have not honored me with all your heart.

[3]“Because of what you have done, I will punish your children. I will smear the waste from your sacrifices on your faces. And you will be carried off to the dump along with it. [4]You will know that I have given you this warning. I have warned you so that my covenant with Levi will continue,” says the LORD who rules over all. [5]“My covenant promised Levi life and peace. So I gave them to him. I required him to respect me. And he had great respect for my name. [6]True teaching came from his mouth. Nothing but the truth came from his lips. He walked with me in peace. He did what was right. He turned many people away from their sins.

[7]“The lips of a priest should guard knowledge. After all, he is the messenger of the LORD who rules over all. And people seek instruction from his mouth. [8]But you have turned away from the right path. Your teaching has caused many people to trip and fall. You have broken my covenant with Levi,” says the LORD who rules over all. [9]“So I have caused all the people to hate you. They have lost respect for you. You have not done what I told you to do. Instead, you have favored one person over another in matters of the law.”

Breaking the Covenant Through Divorce

[10]People of Judah, all of us have one Father. One God created us. So why do we break the covenant the LORD made with our people of long ago? We do this by being unfaithful to one another.

[11]And Judah has been unfaithful. A hateful thing has been done in Israel and Jerusalem. The LORD loves his temple. But Judah has made it impure. Their men have married women who worship other gods. [12]May the LORD punish the man who marries a woman like this. It doesn’t matter who that man is. May the LORD who rules over all remove him from the tents of Jacob’s people. May the LORD remove him even if he brings an offering to him.

[13]Here’s something else you do. You flood the LORD’s altar with your tears.

You weep and cry because your offerings don’t please him anymore. He doesn’t accept them with pleasure from your hands. 14You ask, “Why?” It’s because the LORD is holding you responsible. He watches how you treat the wife you married when you were young. You have been unfaithful to her. You did it even though she’s your partner. You promised to stay married to her. And the LORD was a witness to it.

15Hasn’t the one God made the two of you one also? Both of you belong to him in body and spirit. And why has the one God made you one? Because he wants his children to be like him. So be careful. Don’t be unfaithful to the wife you married when you were young.

16“Suppose a man hates and divorces his wife,” says the LORD God of Israel. “Then he is harming the one he should protect,” says the LORD who rules over all.

So be careful. And don’t be unfaithful.

Breaking the Covenant by Treating Others Unfairly

17You have worn out the LORD by what you keep saying.

“How have we worn him out?” you ask.

You have done it by saying, “All those who do evil things are good in the LORD’s sight. And he is pleased with them.” Or you ask, “Is God really fair?”

Malachi 3

[1]The LORD who rules over all says, “I will send my messenger. He will prepare my way for me. Then suddenly the Lord you are looking for will come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant will come. He is the one you long for.”

[2]But who can live through the day when he comes? Who will be left standing when he appears? He will be like a fire that makes things pure. He will be like soap that makes things clean. [3]He will act like one who makes silver pure. And he will purify the Levites, just as gold and silver are purified with fire. Then these men will bring proper offerings to the LORD. [4]And the offerings of Judah and Jerusalem will be acceptable to him. It will be as it was in days and years gone by.

[5]“So I will come and put you on trial. I will be quick to bring charges against all of you,” says the LORD who rules over all. “I will bring charges against you sinful people who do not have any respect for me. That includes those who practice evil magic. It includes those who commit adultery and those who tell lies in court. It includes those who cheat workers out of their pay. It includes those who treat widows badly. It also includes those who mistreat children whose fathers have died. And it includes those who take away the rights of outsiders in the courts.

Breaking the Covenant by Stealing From God

[6]“I am the LORD. I do not change. That is why I have not destroyed you members of Jacob’s family. [7]You have turned away from my rules. You have not obeyed them. You have lived that way ever since the days of your people of long ago. Return to me. Then I will return to you,” says the LORD who rules over all.

“But you ask, ‘How can we return?’

[8]“Will a mere human being dare to steal from God? But you rob me!

“You ask, ‘How are we robbing you?’

“By holding back your offerings. You also steal from me when you do not bring me a tenth of everything you produce. [9]So you are under my curse. In fact, your whole nation is under my curse. That is because you are robbing me.
[10]Bring the entire tenth to the storerooms in my temple. Then there will be plenty of food. Test me this way,” says the LORD. “Then you will see that I will throw open the windows of heaven. I will pour out so many blessings that you will not have enough room to store them. 11I will keep bugs from eating up your crops. And your grapes will not drop from the vines before they are ripe," says the LORD. 12"Then all the nations will call you blessed. Your land will be delightful," says the LORD who rules over all.

Israel Speaks With Pride Against the LORD

13"You have spoken with pride against me," says the LORD.

"But you ask, 'What have we spoken against you?'

14"You have said, 'It is useless to serve God. What do we gain by obeying his laws? And what do we get by pretending to be sad in front of the LORD? 15But now we call proud people blessed. Things go well with those who do what is evil. And God doesn't even punish those who test him.' "

Those Who Respect the LORD

16Those who had respect for the LORD talked with one another. And the LORD heard them. A list of people and what they did was written in a book in front of him. It included the names of those who respected the LORD and honored him.

17"The day is coming when I will judge," says the LORD who rules over all. "On that day they will be my special treasure. I will spare them just as a father loves and spares his son who serves him. 18Then once again you will see the difference between godly people and sinful people. And you will see the difference between those who serve me and those who do not.

Malachi 4

The Day of the LORD Is Coming

[1]“You can be sure the day of the LORD is coming. My anger will burn like a furnace. All those who are proud will be like straw. So will all those who do what is evil. The day that is coming will set them on fire,” says the LORD who rules over all. “Not even a root or a branch will be left to them. [2]But here is what will happen for you who have respect for me. The sun that brings life will rise.
Its rays will bring healing to my people. You will go out and leap for joy like calves that have just been fed. [3]Then you will stomp on sinful people. They will be like ashes under your feet. That will happen on the day I judge,” says the LORD.

[4]“Remember the law my servant Moses gave you. Remember the rules and laws I gave him at Mount Horeb. They were for the whole nation of Israel.

[5]“I will send the prophet Elijah to you. He will come before the day of the LORD arrives. It will be a great and terrifying day. [6]Elijah will bring peace between parents and their children. He will also bring peace between children and their parents. If that does not happen, I will come. And I will completely destroy the land.”

Matthew

Matthew 1

The Family Line of Jesus the Messiah

[1]This is the written story of the family line of Jesus the Messiah. He is the son of David. He is also the son of Abraham.

[2]Abraham was the father of Isaac.
Isaac was the father of Jacob.
Jacob was the father of Judah and his brothers.
[3]Judah was the father of Perez and Zerah. Tamar was their mother.
Perez was the father of Hezron.
Hezron was the father of Ram.
[4]Ram was the father of Amminadab.
Amminadab was the father of Nahshon.
Nahshon was the father of Salmon.
[5]Salmon was the father of Boaz. Rahab was Boaz's mother.
Boaz was the father of Obed. Ruth was Obed's mother.
Obed was the father of Jesse.
[6]And Jesse was the father of King David.

David was the father of Solomon. Solomon's mother had been Uriah's wife.
[7]Solomon was the father of Rehoboam.
Rehoboam was the father of Abijah.
Abijah was the father of Asa.
[8]Asa was the father of Jehoshaphat.
Jehoshaphat was the father of Jehoram.
Jehoram was the father of Uzziah.
[9]Uzziah was the father of Jotham.
Jotham was the father of Ahaz.
Ahaz was the father of Hezekiah.
[10]Hezekiah was the father of Manasseh.
Manasseh was the father of Amon.

Amon was the father of Josiah.
[11]And Josiah was the father of Jeconiah and his brothers. At that time, the Jewish people were forced to go away to Babylon.

[12]After this, the family line continued.

Jeconiah was the father of Shealtiel.
Shealtiel was the father of Zerubbabel.
[13]Zerubbabel was the father of Abihud.
Abihud was the father of Eliakim.
Eliakim was the father of Azor.
[14]Azor was the father of Zadok.
Zadok was the father of Akim.
Akim was the father of Elihud.
[15]Elihud was the father of Eleazar.
Eleazar was the father of Matthan.
Matthan was the father of Jacob.
[16]Jacob was the father of Joseph. Joseph was the husband of Mary. And Mary was the mother of Jesus, who is called the Messiah.
[17]So there were 14 generations from Abraham to David. There were 14 from David until the Jewish people were forced to go away to Babylon.
And there were 14 from that time to the Messiah.

Joseph Accepts Jesus as His Son

[18]This is how the birth of Jesus the Messiah came about. His mother Mary and Joseph had promised to get married. But before they started to live together, it became clear that she was going to have a baby. She became pregnant by the power of the Holy Spirit. [19]Her husband Joseph was faithful to the law. But he did not want to put her to shame in public. So he planned to divorce her quietly.

[20]But as Joseph was thinking about this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream. The angel said, “Joseph, son of David, don’t be afraid to take Mary home as your wife. The baby inside her is from the Holy Spirit. [21]She is going to have a son. You must give him the name Jesus. That’s because he will save his people from their sins.”

[22]All this took place to bring about what the Lord had said would happen. He had said through the prophet, [23]“The virgin is going to have a baby. She will give birth to a son. And he will be called Immanuel.” (Isaiah 7:14) The name Immanuel means “God with us.”

[24]Joseph woke up. He did what the angel of the Lord commanded him to do. He took Mary home as his wife. [25]But he did not sleep with her until she gave birth to a son. And Joseph gave him the name Jesus.

Matthew 2

The Wise Men Visit Jesus

[1]Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea. This happened while Herod was king of Judea. After Jesus' birth, Wise Men from the east came to Jerusalem. [2]They asked, "Where is the child who has been born to be king of the Jews? We saw his star when it rose. Now we have come to worship him."

[3]When King Herod heard about it, he was very upset. Everyone in Jerusalem was troubled too. [4]So Herod called together all the chief priests of the people. He also called the teachers of the law. He asked them where the Messiah was going to be born. [5]"In Bethlehem in Judea," they replied. "This is what the prophet has written. He said,

> [6]" 'But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, > are certainly not the least important among the towns of Judah.
> A ruler will come out of you.
> He will rule my people Israel like a shepherd.' " (Micah 5:2)

[7]Then Herod secretly called for the Wise Men. He found out from them exactly when the star had appeared. [8]He sent them to Bethlehem. He said, "Go and search carefully for the child. As soon as you find him, report it to me. Then I can go and worship him too."

[9]After the Wise Men had listened to the king, they went on their way. The star they had seen when it rose went ahead of them. It finally stopped over the place where the child was. [10]When they saw the star, they were filled with joy. [11]The Wise Men went to the house. There they saw the child with his mother Mary. They bowed down and worshiped him. Then they opened their treasures. They gave him gold, frankincense and myrrh. [12]But God warned them in a dream not to go back to Herod. So they returned to their country on a different road.

Jesus' Family Escapes to Egypt

[13]When the Wise Men had left, Joseph had a dream. In the dream an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph. "Get up!" the angel said. "Take the child and his mother and escape to Egypt. Stay there until I tell you to come back. Herod is going to search for the child. He wants to kill him."

14So Joseph got up. During the night, he left for Egypt with the child and his mother Mary. 15They stayed there until King Herod died. So the words the Lord had spoken through the prophet came true. He had said, “I brought my son out of Egypt.” (Hosea 11:1)

16Herod realized that the Wise Men had tricked him. So he became very angry. He gave orders about Bethlehem and the area around it. He ordered all the boys two years old and under to be killed. This agreed with the time when the Wise Men had seen the star. 17In this way, the words Jeremiah the prophet spoke came true. He had said,

> 18“A voice is heard in Ramah.
> It’s the sound of crying and deep sadness.
> Rachel is crying over her children.
> She refuses to be comforted,
> because they are gone.” (Jeremiah 31:15)

Jesus’ Family Returns to Nazareth

19After Herod died, Joseph had a dream while he was still in Egypt. In the dream an angel of the Lord appeared to him. 20The angel said, “Get up! Take the child and his mother. Go to the land of Israel. The people who were trying to kill the child are dead.”

21So Joseph got up. He took the child and his mother Mary back to the land of Israel. 22But then he heard that Archelaus was king of Judea. Archelaus was ruling in place of his father Herod. This made Joseph afraid to go there. Joseph had been warned in a dream. So he went back to the land of Galilee instead.
23There he lived in a town called Nazareth. So what the prophets had said about Jesus came true. They had said that he would be called a Nazarene.

Matthew 3

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

[1]In those days John the Baptist came and preached in the Desert of Judea. [2]He said, “Turn away from your sins! The kingdom of heaven has come near.” [3]John is the one Isaiah the prophet had spoken about. He had said,

> “A messenger is calling out in the desert,
> ‘Prepare the way for the Lord.
> Make straight paths for him.’ ” (Isaiah 40:3)

[4]John’s clothes were made out of camel’s hair. He had a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey. [5]People went out to him from Jerusalem and all Judea. They also came from the whole area around the Jordan River. [6]When they confessed their sins, John baptized them in the Jordan.

[7]John saw many Pharisees and Sadducees coming to where he was baptizing. He said to them, “You are like a nest of poisonous snakes! Who warned you to escape the coming of God’s anger? [8]Live in a way that shows you have turned away from your sins. [9]Don’t think you can say to yourselves, ‘Abraham is our father.’ I tell you, God can raise up children for Abraham even from these stones. [10]The ax is ready to cut the roots of the trees. All the trees that don’t produce good fruit will be cut down. They will be thrown into the fire.

[11]“I baptize you with water, calling you to turn away from your sins. But after me, someone is coming who is more powerful than I am. I’m not worthy to carry his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. [12]His pitchfork is in his hand to clear the straw from his threshing floor. He will gather his wheat into the storeroom. But he will burn up the husks with fire that can’t be put out.”

Jesus Is Baptized

[13]Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan River. He wanted to be baptized by John. [14]But John tried to stop him. So he told Jesus, “I need to be baptized by you. So why do you come to me?”

[15]Jesus replied, “Let it be this way for now. It is right for us to do this. It carries out God’s holy plan.” Then John agreed.

[16]As soon as Jesus was baptized, he came up out of the water. At that moment heaven was opened. Jesus saw the Spirit of God coming down on him like a dove. [17]A voice from heaven said, “This is my Son, and I love him. I am very pleased with him.”

Matthew 4

Jesus Is Tempted in the Desert

[1]The Holy Spirit led Jesus into the desert. There the devil tempted him. [2]After 40 days and 40 nights of going without eating, Jesus was hungry. [3]The tempter came to him. He said, “If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to become bread.”

[4]Jesus answered, “It is written, ‘Man must not live only on bread. He must also live on every word that comes from the mouth of God.’ ” (Deuteronomy 8:3)

[5]Then the devil took Jesus to the holy city. He had him stand on the highest point of the temple. [6]“If you are the Son of God,” he said, “throw yourself down. It is written,

> “ ‘The Lord will command his angels to take good care of you.
> They will lift you up in their hands.
> Then you won’t trip over a stone.’ ” (Psalm 91:11, 12)

[7]Jesus answered him, “It is also written, ‘Do not test the Lord your God.’ ” (Deuteronomy 6:16)

[8]Finally, the devil took Jesus to a very high mountain. He showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. [9]“If you bow down and worship me,” he said, “I will give you all this.”

[10]Jesus said to him, “Get away from me, Satan! It is written, ‘Worship the Lord your God. He is the only one you should serve.’ ” (Deuteronomy 6:13)

[11]Then the devil left Jesus. Angels came and took care of him.

Jesus Begins to Preach

[12]John had been put in prison. When Jesus heard about this, he returned to Galilee. [13]Jesus left Nazareth and went to live in the city of Capernaum. It was by the lake in the area of Zebulun and Naphtali. [14]In that way, what the prophet Isaiah had said came true. He had said, > [15]“Land of Zebulun! Land of Naphtali!

> Galilee, where Gentiles live!
> Land along the Mediterranean Sea! Territory east of the Jordan

River!
16 The people who are now living in darkness have seen a great light.
They are now living in a very dark land.
But a light has shined on them.” (Isaiah 9:1, 2)

17 From that time on Jesus began to preach. “Turn away from your sins!” he said. “The kingdom of heaven has come near.”

Jesus Chooses His First Disciples

18 One day Jesus was walking beside the Sea of Galilee. There he saw two brothers, Simon Peter and his brother Andrew. They were throwing a net into the lake, because they were fishermen. 19 “Come and follow me,” Jesus said. “I will send you out to fish for people.” 20 At once they left their nets and followed him.

21 Going on from there, he saw two other brothers. They were James, son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They were in a boat with their father Zebedee. As they were preparing their nets, Jesus called out to them. 22 Right away they left the boat and their father and followed Jesus.

Jesus Heals Sick People

23 Jesus went all over Galilee. There he taught in the synagogues. He preached the good news of God’s kingdom. He healed every illness and sickness the people had. 24 News about him spread all over Syria. People brought to him all who were ill with different kinds of sicknesses. Some were suffering great pain. Others were controlled by demons. Some were shaking wildly. Others couldn’t move at all. And Jesus healed all of them. 25 Large crowds followed him. People came from Galilee, from the area known as the Ten Cities, and from Jerusalem and Judea. Others came from the area across the Jordan River.

Matthew 5

Jesus Teaches the Disciples and Crowds

1 Jesus saw the crowds. So he went up on a mountainside and sat down. His disciples came to him. 2 Then he began to teach them.

Jesus Gives Blessings

He said,

3 "Blessed are those who are spiritually needy.
The kingdom of heaven belongs to them.
4 Blessed are those who are sad.
They will be comforted.
5 Blessed are those who are humble.
They will be given the earth.
6 Blessed are those who are hungry and thirsty for what is right.
They will be filled.
7 Blessed are those who show mercy.
They will be shown mercy.
8 Blessed are those whose hearts are pure.
They will see God.
9 Blessed are those who make peace.
They will be called children of God.
10 Blessed are those who suffer for doing what is right.
The kingdom of heaven belongs to them.

11 "Blessed are you when people make fun of you and hurt you because of me.
You are also blessed when they tell all kinds of evil lies about you because of me. 12 Be joyful and glad. Your reward in heaven is great. In the same way, people hurt the prophets who lived long ago.

Salt and Light

13 "You are the salt of the earth. But suppose the salt loses its saltiness. How can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything. It will be thrown out. People will walk all over it.

14“You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill can’t be hidden.
15Also, people do not light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead, they put it on its stand. Then it gives light to everyone in the house. 16In the same way, let your light shine so others can see it. Then they will see the good things you do. And they will bring glory to your Father who is in heaven.

Jesus Fulfills the Law

17“Do not think I have come to get rid of what is written in the Law or in the Prophets. I have not come to do this. Instead, I have come to fulfill what is written. 18What I’m about to tell you is true. Heaven and earth will disappear before the smallest letter disappears from the Law. Not even the smallest mark of a pen will disappear from the Law until everything is completed. 19Do not ignore even one of the least important commands. And do not teach others to ignore them. If you do, you will be called the least important person in the kingdom of heaven. Instead, practice and teach these commands. Then you will be called important in the kingdom of heaven. 20Here is what I tell you. You must be more godly than the Pharisees and the teachers of the law. If you are not, you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven.

Murder

21“You have heard what was said to people who lived long ago. They were told, ‘Do not commit murder. (Exodus 20:13) Anyone who murders will be judged for it.’ 22But here is what I tell you. Do not be angry with a brother or sister.
Anyone who is angry with them will be judged. Again, anyone who says to a brother or sister, ‘Raca,’ must stand trial in court. And anyone who says, ‘You fool!’ will be in danger of the fire in hell.

23“Suppose you are offering your gift at the altar. And you remember that your brother or sister has something against you. 24Leave your gift in front of the altar. First go and make peace with them. Then come back and offer your gift.

25“Suppose someone has a claim against you and is taking you to court. Settle the matter quickly. Do this while you are still together on the way. If you don’t, you may be handed over to the judge. The judge may hand you over to the officer to be thrown into prison. 26What I’m about to tell you is true. You will not get out until you have paid the very last penny!

Adultery

27“You have heard that it was said, ‘Do not commit adultery.’ (Exodus 20:14)
28But here is what I tell you. Do not even look at a woman in the wrong way.
Anyone who does has already committed adultery with her in his heart. 29If your right eye causes you to sin, poke it out and throw it away. Your eye is only one part of your body. It is better to lose an eye than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. 30If your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. Your hand is only one part of your body. It is better to lose a hand than for your whole body to go into hell.

Divorce

31“It has been said, ‘Suppose a man divorces his wife. If he does, he must give her a letter of divorce.’ (Deuteronomy 24:1) 32But here is what I tell you. Anyone who divorces his wife makes her a victim of adultery. And anyone who gets married to the divorced woman commits adultery. A man may divorce his wife only if she has not been faithful to him.

Promises

33“Again, you have heard what was said to your people long ago. They were told, ‘Do not break the promises you make to the Lord. Keep your promises to the Lord that you have made.’ 34But here is what I tell you. Do not make any promises like that at all. Do not make them in the name of heaven. That is God’s throne. 35Do not make them in the name of the earth. That is the stool for God’s feet. Do not make them in the name of Jerusalem. That is the city of the Great King. 36And do not make a promise in your own name. You can’t make even one hair of your head white or black. 37All you need to say is simply ‘Yes’ or ‘No.’
Anything more than this comes from the evil one.

Be Kind to Others

38“You have heard that it was said, ‘An eye must be put out for an eye. A tooth must be knocked out for a tooth.’ (Exodus 21:24; Leviticus 24:20; Deuteronomy 19:21) 39But here is what I tell you. Do not fight against an evil person. Suppose someone slaps you on your right cheek. Turn your other cheek to them also. 40Suppose someone takes you to court to get your shirt. Let them have your coat also.

41 Suppose someone forces you to go one mile. Go two miles with them. 42 Give to the one who asks you for something. Don’t turn away from the one who wants to borrow something from you.

Love Your Enemies

43 “You have heard that it was said, ‘Love your neighbor. (Leviticus 19:18) Hate your enemy.’ 44 But here is what I tell you. Love your enemies. Pray for those who hurt you. 45 Then you will be children of your Father who is in heaven. He causes his sun to shine on evil people and good people. He sends rain on those who do right and those who don’t. 46 If you love those who love you, what reward will you get? Even the tax collectors do that. 47 If you greet only your own people, what more are you doing than others? Even people who are ungodly do that. 48 So be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect.

Matthew 6

Giving to Needy People

1 “Be careful not to do good deeds in front of other people. Don’t do those deeds to be seen by others. If you do, your Father in heaven will not reward you.
2 “When you give to needy people, do not announce it by having trumpets blown. Do not be like those who only pretend to be holy. They announce what they do in the synagogues and on the streets. They want to be honored by other people. What I’m about to tell you is true. They have received their complete reward. 3 When you give to needy people, don’t let your left hand know what your right hand is doing. 4 Then your giving will be done secretly. Your Father will reward you, because he sees what you do secretly.

Prayer

5 “When you pray, do not be like those who only pretend to be holy. They love to stand and pray in the synagogues and on the street corners. They want to be seen by other people. What I’m about to tell you is true. They have received their complete reward. 6 When you pray, go into your room. Close the door and pray to your Father, who can’t be seen. Your Father will reward you, because he sees what you do secretly. 7 When you pray, do not keep talking on and on. That is what ungodly people do. They think they will be heard because they talk a lot.
8 Do not be like them. Your Father knows what you need even before you ask him.
9 “This is how you should pray.

“ ‘Our Father in heaven,
may your name be honored.
10 May your kingdom come.
May what you want to happen be done on earth as it is done in heaven.
11 Give us today our daily bread.
12 And forgive us our sins,
just as we also have forgiven those who sin against us.
13 Keep us from sinning when we are tempted.
Save us from the evil one.’

[14]Forgive other people when they sin against you. If you do, your Father who is in heaven will also forgive you. [15]But if you do not forgive the sins of other people, your Father will not forgive your sins.

Fasting

[16]"When you go without eating, do not look gloomy like those who only pretend to be holy. They make their faces look very sad. They want to show people they are fasting. What I'm about to tell you is true. They have received their complete reward. [17]But when you go without eating, put olive oil on your head. Wash your face. [18]Then others will not know that you are fasting. Only your Father, who can't be seen, will know it. Your Father will reward you, because he sees what you do secretly.

Gather Riches in Heaven

[19]"Do not gather for yourselves riches on earth. Moths and rats can destroy them. Thieves can break in and steal them. [20]Instead, gather for yourselves riches in heaven. There, moths and rats do not destroy them. There, thieves do not break in and steal them. [21]Your heart will be where your riches are.

[22]"The eye is like a lamp for the body. Suppose your eyes are healthy. Then your whole body will be full of light. [23]But suppose your eyes can't see well. Then your whole body will be full of darkness. If the light inside you is darkness, then it is very dark!

[24]"No one can serve two masters at the same time. You will hate one of them and love the other. Or you will be faithful to one and dislike the other. You can't serve God and money at the same time.

Do Not Worry

[25]"I tell you, do not worry. Don't worry about your life and what you will eat or drink. And don't worry about your body and what you will wear. Isn't there more to life than eating? Aren't there more important things for the body than clothes? [26]Look at the birds of the air. They don't plant or gather crops. They don't put away crops in storerooms. But your Father who is in heaven feeds them. Aren't you worth much more than they are? [27]Can you add even one hour to your life by worrying?

[28]"And why do you worry about clothes? See how the wild flowers grow.

They don’t work or make clothing. [29]But here is what I tell you. Not even Solomon in all his royal robes was dressed like one of these flowers. [30]If that is how God dresses the wild grass, won’t he dress you even better? Your faith is so small! After all, the grass is here only today. Tomorrow it is thrown into the fire. [31]So don’t worry. Don’t say, ‘What will we eat?’ Or, ‘What will we drink?’ Or, ‘What will we wear?’ [32]People who are ungodly run after all those things. Your Father who is in heaven knows that you need them. [33]But put God’s kingdom first. Do what he wants you to do. Then all those things will also be given to you. [34]So don’t worry about tomorrow. Tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

Be Fair When You Judge Other People

[1]"Do not judge other people. Then you will not be judged. [2]You will be judged in the same way you judge others. You will be measured in the same way you measure others.

[3]"You look at the bit of sawdust in your friend's eye. But you pay no attention to the piece of wood in your own eye. [4]How can you say to your friend, 'Let me take the bit of sawdust out of your eye'? How can you say this while there is a piece of wood in your own eye? [5]You pretender! First take the piece of wood out of your own eye. Then you will be able to see clearly to take the bit of sawdust out of your friend's eye.

[6]"Do not give holy things to dogs. Do not throw your pearls to pigs. If you do, they might walk all over them. They might turn around and tear you to pieces.

Ask, Search, Knock

[7]"Ask, and it will be given to you. Search, and you will find. Knock, and the door will be opened to you. [8]Everyone who asks will receive. The one who searches will find. The door will be opened to the one who knocks.

[9]"Suppose your son asks for bread. Which of you will give him a stone? [10]Or suppose he asks for a fish. Which of you will give him a snake? [11]Even though you are evil, you know how to give good gifts to your children. How much more will your Father who is in heaven give good gifts to those who ask him! [12]In everything, do to others what you would want them to do to you. This is what is written in the Law and in the Prophets.

The Large and Small Gates

[13]"Enter God's kingdom through the narrow gate. The gate is large and the road is wide that leads to ruin. Many people go that way. [14]But the gate is small and the road is narrow that leads to life. Only a few people find it.

True and False Prophets

[15]"Watch out for false prophets. They come to you pretending to be sheep. But on the inside they are hungry wolves. [16]You can tell each tree by its fruit. Do people pick grapes from bushes? Do they pick figs from thorns? [17]In the same way, every good tree bears good fruit. But a bad tree bears bad fruit. [18]A good tree can't bear bad fruit. And a bad tree can't bear good fruit. [19]Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down. It is thrown into the fire. [20]You can tell each tree by its fruit.

True and False Disciples

[21]"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven. Only those who do what my Father in heaven wants will enter. [22]Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord! Lord! Didn't we prophesy in your name? Didn't we drive out demons in your name? Didn't we do many miracles in your name?' [23]Then I will tell them clearly, 'I never knew you. Get away from me, you who do evil!'

The Wise and Foolish Builders

[24]"So then, everyone who hears my words and puts them into practice is like a wise man. He builds his house on the rock. [25]The rain comes down. The water rises. The winds blow and beat against that house. But it does not fall. It is built on the rock. [26]But everyone who hears my words and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man. He builds his house on sand. [27]The rain comes down. The water rises. The winds blow and beat against that house. And it falls with a loud crash."

[28]Jesus finished saying all these things. The crowds were amazed at his teaching. [29]That's because he taught like one who had authority. He did not speak like their teachers of the law.

Matthew 8

Jesus Heals a Man Who Had a Skin Disease

[1]Jesus came down from the mountainside. Large crowds followed him. [2]A man who had a skin disease came and got down on his knees in front of Jesus. He said, “Lord, if you are willing to make me ‘clean,’ you can do it.”

[3]Jesus reached out his hand and touched the man. “I am willing to do it,” he said. “Be ‘clean’!” Right away the man was healed of his skin disease. [4]Then Jesus said to him, “Don’t tell anyone. Go and show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift Moses commanded. It will be a witness to everyone.”

A Roman Commander Has Faith

[5]When Jesus entered Capernaum, a Roman commander came to him. He asked Jesus for help. [6]“Lord,” he said, “my servant lies at home and can’t move. He is suffering terribly.”

[7]Jesus said, “Shall I come and heal him?”

[8]The commander replied, “Lord, I am not good enough to have you come into my house. But just say the word, and my servant will be healed. [9]I myself am a man under authority. And I have soldiers who obey my orders. I tell this one, ‘Go,’ and he goes. I tell that one, ‘Come,’ and he comes. I say to my slave, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.”

[10]When Jesus heard this, he was amazed. He said to those following him, “What I’m about to tell you is true. In Israel I have not found anyone whose faith is so strong. [11]I say to you that many will come from the east and the west. They will take their places at the feast in the kingdom of heaven. They will sit with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. [12]But those who think they belong in the kingdom will be thrown outside, into the darkness. There they will weep and grind their teeth.”

[13]Then Jesus said to the Roman commander, “Go! It will be done just as you believed it would.” And his servant was healed at that moment.

Jesus Heals Many People

[14]When Jesus came into Peter’s house, he saw Peter’s mother-in-law. She was lying in bed. She had a fever. [15]Jesus touched her hand, and the fever left her.

She got up and began to serve him.

16When evening came, many people controlled by demons were brought to Jesus. He drove out the spirits with a word. He healed all who were sick. 17This happened so that what Isaiah the prophet had said would come true. He had said,

> “He suffered the things we should have suffered.
> He took on himself the sicknesses that should have been ours.”
> (Isaiah 53:4)

The Cost of Following Jesus

18Jesus saw the crowd around him. So he gave his disciples orders to go to the other side of the Sea of Galilee. 19Then a teacher of the law came to him. He said, “Teacher, I will follow you no matter where you go.”

20Jesus replied, “Foxes have dens. Birds have nests. But the Son of Man has no place to lay his head.”

21Another follower said to him, “Lord, first let me go and bury my father.”

22But Jesus told him, “Follow me. Let the dead bury their own dead.”

Jesus Calms the Storm

23Jesus got into a boat. His disciples followed him. 24Suddenly a terrible storm came up on the lake. The waves crashed over the boat. But Jesus was sleeping. 25The disciples went and woke him up. They said, “Lord! Save us! We’re going to drown!”

26He replied, “Your faith is so small! Why are you so afraid?” Then Jesus got up and ordered the winds and the waves to stop. It became completely calm.

27The disciples were amazed. They asked, “What kind of man is this? Even the winds and the waves obey him!”

Jesus Heals Two Men Controlled by Demons

28Jesus arrived at the other side of the lake in the area of the Gadarenes. Two men controlled by demons met him. They came from the tombs. The men were so wild that no one could pass that way. 29“Son of God, what do you want with us?” they shouted. “Have you come here to punish us before the time for us to be judged?”

30Not very far away, a large herd of pigs was feeding. 31The demons begged

Jesus, “If you drive us out, send us into the herd of pigs.”

32Jesus said to them, “Go!” So the demons came out of the men and went into the pigs. The whole herd rushed down the steep bank. They ran into the lake and drowned in the water. 33Those who were tending the pigs ran off. They went into the town and reported all this. They told the people what had happened to the men who had been controlled by demons. 34Then the whole town went out to meet Jesus. When they saw him, they begged him to leave their area.

Matthew 9

Jesus Forgives and Heals a Man Who Could Not Walk

[1]Jesus stepped into a boat. He went over to the other side of the lake and came to his own town. [2]Some men brought to him a man who could not walk. He was lying on a mat. Jesus saw that they had faith. So he said to the man, “Don’t lose hope, son. Your sins are forgiven.”
[3]Then some teachers of the law said to themselves, “This fellow is saying a very evil thing!”
[4]Jesus knew what they were thinking. So he said, “Why do you have evil thoughts in your hearts? [5]Is it easier to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven’? Or to say, ‘Get up and walk’? [6]But I want you to know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins.” So he spoke to the man who could not walk. “Get up,” he said. “Take your mat and go home.” [7]The man got up and went home. [8]When the crowd saw this, they were filled with wonder. They praised God for giving that kind of authority to a human being.

Jesus Chooses Matthew and Eats With Sinners

[9]As Jesus went on from there, he saw a man named Matthew. He was sitting at the tax collector’s booth. “Follow me,” Jesus told him. Matthew got up and followed him.
[10]Later Jesus was having dinner at Matthew’s house. Many tax collectors and sinners came. They ate with Jesus and his disciples. [11]The Pharisees saw this. So they asked the disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?”
[12]Jesus heard this. So he said, “Those who are healthy don’t need a doctor.
Sick people do. [13]Go and learn what this means, ‘I want mercy and not sacrifice.’ (Hosea 6:6) I have not come to get those who think they are right with God to follow me. I have come to get sinners to follow me.”

Jesus Is Asked About Fasting

[14]One day John’s disciples came. They said to Jesus, “We and the Pharisees often go without eating. Why don’t your disciples go without eating?” [15]Jesus answered, “How can the guests of the groom be sad while he is with them? The time will come when the groom will be taken away from them. Then they will fast.

16"People don't sew a patch of new cloth on old clothes. The new piece will pull away from the old. That will make the tear worse. 17People don't pour new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the skins will burst. The wine will run out, and the wineskins will be destroyed. No, people pour new wine into new wineskins. Then both are saved."

Jesus Heals a Dead Girl and a Suffering Woman

18While Jesus was saying this, a synagogue leader came. He got down on his knees in front of Jesus. He said, "My daughter has just died. But come and place your hand on her. Then she will live again." 19Jesus got up and went with him. So did his disciples.

20Just then a woman came up behind Jesus. She had a sickness that made her bleed. It had lasted for 12 years. She touched the edge of his clothes. 21She thought, "I only need to touch his clothes. Then I will be healed."

22Jesus turned and saw her. "Dear woman, don't give up hope," he said. "Your faith has healed you." The woman was healed at that moment.

23When Jesus entered the synagogue leader's house, he saw the noisy crowd and people playing flutes. 24He said, "Go away. The girl is not dead. She is sleeping." But they laughed at him. 25After the crowd had been sent outside, Jesus went in. He took the girl by the hand, and she got up. 26News about what Jesus had done spread all over that area.

Jesus Heals Two Blind Men

27As Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed him. They called out, "Have mercy on us, Son of David!"

28When Jesus went indoors, the blind men came to him. He asked them, "Do you believe that I can do this?"

"Yes, Lord," they replied.

29Then he touched their eyes. He said, "It will happen to you just as you believed." 30They could now see again. Jesus strongly warned them, "Be sure that no one knows about this." 31But they went out and spread the news. They talked about him all over that area.

32While they were going out, another man was brought to Jesus. A demon controlled him, and he could not speak. [33]When the demon was driven out, the man spoke. The crowd was amazed. They said, “Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel.”

[34]But the Pharisees said, “He drives out demons by the power of the prince of demons.”

There Are Only a Few Workers

[35]Jesus went through all the towns and villages. He taught in their synagogues. He preached the good news of the kingdom. And he healed every illness and sickness. [36]When he saw the crowds, he felt deep concern for them. They were treated badly and were helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. [37]Then Jesus said to his disciples, “The harvest is huge. But there are only a few workers. [38]So ask the Lord of the harvest to send workers out into his harvest field.”

Matthew 10

Jesus Sends Out the Twelve Disciples

1 Jesus called for his 12 disciples to come to him. He gave them authority to drive out evil spirits and to heal every illness and sickness.

2 Here are the names of the 12 apostles.

First there were Simon Peter and his brother Andrew.
Then came James, son of Zebedee, and his brother John.
3 Next were Philip and Bartholomew, and also Thomas and Matthew the tax collector.
Two more were James, son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus.
4 The last were Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot. Judas was the one who was later going to hand Jesus over to his enemies.

5 Jesus sent these 12 out with the following orders. "Do not go among the Gentiles," he said. "Do not enter any town of the Samaritans. 6 Instead, go to the people of Israel. They are like sheep that have become lost. 7 As you go, preach this message, 'The kingdom of heaven has come near.' 8 Heal those who are sick.
Bring those who are dead back to life. Make those who have skin diseases 'clean' again. Drive out demons. You have received freely, so give freely.
9 "Do not get any gold, silver or copper to take with you in your belts. 10 Do not take a bag for the journey. Do not take extra clothes or sandals or walking sticks.
A worker should be given what he needs. 11 When you enter a town or village, look for someone who is willing to welcome you. Stay at their house until you leave. 12 As you enter the home, greet those who live there. 13 If that home welcomes you, give it your blessing of peace. If it does not, don't bless it.
14 Some people may not welcome you or listen to your words. If they don't, leave that home or town, and shake the dust off your feet. 15 What I'm about to tell you is true. On judgment day it will be easier for Sodom and Gomorrah than for that town.
16 "I am sending you out like sheep among wolves. So be as wise as snakes and as harmless as doves. 17 Watch out! You will be handed over to the local courts. You will be whipped in the synagogues. 18 You will be brought to governors and kings because of me. You will be witnesses to them and to the Gentiles. [19]But when they arrest you, don't worry about what you will say or how you will say it. At that time you will be given the right words to say. [20]It will not be you speaking. The Spirit of your Father will be speaking through you.

[21]"Brothers will hand over brothers to be killed. Fathers will hand over their children. Children will rise up against their parents and have them put to death. [22]You will be hated by everyone because of me. But anyone who remains strong in the faith will be saved. [23]When people attack you in one place, escape to another. What I'm about to tell you is true. You will not finish going through the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes.

[24]"The student is not better than the teacher. A slave is not better than his master. [25]It is enough for students to be like their teachers. And it is enough for slaves to be like their masters. If the head of the house has been called Beelzebul, what can the others who live there expect?

[26]"So don't be afraid of your enemies. Everything that is secret will be brought out into the open. Everything that is hidden will be uncovered. [27]What I tell you in the dark, speak in the daylight. What is whispered in your ear, shout from the rooftops. [28]Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but can't kill the soul. Instead, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in hell. [29]Aren't two sparrows sold for only a penny? But not one of them falls to the ground outside your Father's care. [30]He even counts every hair on your head! [31]So don't be afraid. You are worth more than many sparrows.

[32]"What if someone says in front of others that they know me? I will also say in front of my Father who is in heaven that I know them. [33]But what if someone says in front of others that they don't know me? I will say in front of my Father who is in heaven that I don't know them.

[34]"Do not think that I came to bring peace to the earth. I didn't come to bring peace. I came to bring a sword. [35]I have come to turn > " 'sons against their fathers.

> Daughters will refuse to obey their mothers.
> Daughters-in-law will be against their mothers-in-law.
> [36]A man's enemies will be the members of his own family.'
> (Micah 7:6)

[37]"Anyone who loves their father or mother more than me is not worthy of me. Anyone who loves their son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

[38]Whoever does not pick up their cross and follow me is not worthy of me. [39]Whoever finds their life will lose it. Whoever loses their life because of me will find it.

[40]“Anyone who welcomes you welcomes me. And anyone who welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. [41]Suppose someone welcomes a prophet as a prophet. They will receive a prophet’s reward. And suppose someone welcomes a godly person as a godly person. They will receive a godly person’s reward. [42]Suppose someone gives even a cup of cold water to a little one who follows me. What I’m about to tell you is true. That person will certainly be rewarded.”

Matthew 11

Jesus and John the Baptist

[1]Jesus finished teaching his 12 disciples. Then he went on to teach and preach in the towns of Galilee.
[2]John the Baptist was in prison. When he heard about the actions of the Messiah, he sent his disciples to him. [3]They asked Jesus, “Are you the one who is supposed to come? Or should we look for someone else?”
[4]Jesus replied, “Go back to John. Report to him what you hear and see. [5]Blind people receive sight. Disabled people walk. Those who have skin diseases are made ‘clean.’ Deaf people hear. Those who are dead are raised to life. And the good news is preached to those who are poor. [6]Blessed is anyone who does not give up their faith because of me.”
[7]As John’s disciples were leaving, Jesus began to speak to the crowd about John. He said, “What did you go out into the desert to see? Tall grass waving in the wind? [8]If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? No.
People who wear fine clothes are in kings’ palaces. [9]Then what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. [10]He is the one written about in Scripture. It says,

> “ ‘I will send my messenger ahead of you.
> He will prepare your way for you.’ (Malachi 3:1)

[11]What I’m about to tell you is true. No one more important than John the Baptist has ever been born. But the least important person in the kingdom of heaven is more important than he is. [12]Since the days of John the Baptist, the kingdom of heaven has been under attack. And violent people are taking hold of it. [13]All the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John came. [14]If you are willing to accept it, John is the Elijah who was supposed to come. [15]Whoever has ears should listen.
[16]“What can I compare today’s people to? They are like children sitting in the markets and calling out to others. They say,

> [17]“ ‘We played the flute for you.
> But you didn’t dance.

We sang a funeral song.
But you didn’t become sad.’

18When John came, he didn’t eat or drink as you do. And people say, ‘He has a demon.’ 19But when the Son of Man came, he ate and drank as you do. And people say, ‘This fellow is always eating and drinking far too much. He’s a friend of tax collectors and “sinners.” ’ By wise actions wisdom is shown to be right.”

Towns That Do Not Turn Away From Sin

20Jesus began to speak against the towns where he had done most of his miracles. The people there had not turned away from their sins. So he said, 21“How terrible it will be for you, Chorazin! How terrible for you, Bethsaida! Suppose the miracles done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon. They would have turned away from their sins long ago. They would have put on clothes for mourning. They would have sat down in ashes. 22But I tell you this. On judgment day it will be easier for Tyre and Sidon than for you. 23And what about you, Capernaum? Will you be lifted to the heavens? No! You will go down to the place of the dead. Suppose the miracles done in you had been done in Sodom. It would still be here today. 24But I tell you this. On judgment day it will be easier for Sodom than for you.”

Rest for All Who Are Tired

25At that time Jesus said, “I praise you, Father. You are Lord of heaven and earth. You have hidden these things from wise and educated people. But you have shown them to little children. 26Yes, Father. This is what you wanted to do.

27“My Father has given all things to me. The Father is the only one who knows the Son. And the only ones who know the Father are the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to make him known.

28“Come to me, all you who are tired and are carrying heavy loads. I will give you rest. 29Become my servants and learn from me. I am gentle and free of pride. You will find rest for your souls. 30Serving me is easy, and my load is light.”

Matthew 12

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath Day

[1]One Sabbath day Jesus walked through the grainfields. His disciples were hungry. So they began to break off some heads of grain and eat them. [2]The Pharisees saw this. They said to Jesus, “Look! It is against the Law to do this on the Sabbath day. But your disciples are doing it anyway!”

[3]Jesus answered, “Haven’t you read about what David did? He and his men were hungry. [4]So he entered the house of God. He and his men ate the holy bread. Only priests were allowed to eat it. [5]Haven’t you read the Law? It tells how every Sabbath day the priests in the temple have to do their work on that day. But they are not considered guilty. [6]I tell you that something more important than the temple is here. [7]Scripture says, ‘I want mercy and not sacrifice.’ (Hosea 6:6) You don’t know what those words mean. If you did, you would not bring charges against those who are not guilty. [8]The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath day.”

[9]Going on from that place, Jesus went into their synagogue. [10]A man with a weak and twisted hand was there. The Pharisees were trying to accuse Jesus of a crime. So they asked him, “Does the Law allow us to heal on the Sabbath day?”

[11]He said to them, “What if one of your sheep falls into a pit on the Sabbath day? Won’t you take hold of it and lift it out? [12]A person is worth more than sheep! So the Law allows us to do good on the Sabbath day.”

[13]Then Jesus said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” So he stretched it out. It had been made as good as new. It was just as good as the other hand. [14]But the Pharisees went out and planned how to kill Jesus.

God’s Chosen Servant

[15]Jesus knew all about the Pharisees’ plans. So he left that place. A large crowd followed him, and he healed all who were sick. [16]But he warned them not to tell other people about him. [17]This was to make what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah come true. It says, > [18]“Here is my servant. I have chosen him.

> He is the one I love. I am very pleased with him.

I will put my Spirit on him.
He will announce to the nations that everything will be made right.
19 He will not argue or cry out.
No one will hear his voice in the streets.
20 He will not break a bent twig.
He will not put out a dimly burning flame.
He will make right win over wrong.
21 The nations will put their hope in him." (Isaiah 42:1–4)

Jesus and Beelzebul

22 A man controlled by demons was brought to Jesus. The man was blind and could not speak. Jesus healed him. Then the man could speak and see. 23 All the people were amazed. They said, "Could this be the Son of David?"

24 The Pharisees heard this. So they said, "This fellow drives out demons by the power of Beelzebul, the prince of demons."

25 Jesus knew what they were thinking. So he said to them, "Every kingdom that fights against itself will be destroyed. Every city or family that is divided against itself will not stand. 26 If Satan drives out Satan, he fights against himself. Then how can his kingdom stand? 27 You say I drive out demons by the power of Beelzebul. Then by whose power do your people drive them out? So then, they will be your judges. 28 But suppose I drive out demons by the Spirit of God. Then the kingdom of God has come to you.

29 "Or think about this. How can you enter a strong man's house and just take what the man owns? You must first tie him up. Then you can rob his house.

30 "Anyone who is not with me is against me. Anyone who does not gather sheep with me scatters them. 31 So here is what I tell you. Every kind of sin and every evil word spoken against God will be forgiven. But speaking evil things against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. 32 Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven. But anyone who speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. A person like that won't be forgiven either now or in days to come.

33 "If you make a tree good, its fruit will be good. If you make a tree bad, its fruit will be bad. You can tell a tree by its fruit. 34 You nest of poisonous snakes! How can you who are evil say anything good? Your mouths say everything that is in your hearts. 35 A good man says good things. These come from the good that is stored up inside him. An evil man says evil things. These come from the evil that is stored up inside him. [36]But here is what I tell you. On judgment day, everyone will have to account for every empty word they have spoken. [37]By your words you will be found guilty or not guilty."

The Sign of Jonah

[38]Some of the Pharisees and the teachers of the law came to Jesus. They said, "Teacher, we want to see a sign from you."

[39]He answered, "Evil and unfaithful people ask for a sign! But none will be given except the sign of the prophet Jonah. [40]Jonah was in the belly of a huge fish for three days and three nights. Something like that will happen to the Son of Man. He will spend three days and three nights in the grave. [41]The men of Nineveh will stand up on judgment day with the people now living. And the Ninevites will prove that these people are guilty. The men of Nineveh turned away from their sins when Jonah preached to them. And now something more important than Jonah is here. [42]The Queen of the South will stand up on judgment day with the people now living. And she will prove that they are guilty. She came from very far away to listen to Solomon's wisdom. And now something more important than Solomon is here.

[43]"What happens when an evil spirit comes out of a person? It goes through dry areas looking for a place to rest. But it doesn't find it. [44]Then it says, 'I will return to the house I left.' When it arrives there, it finds the house empty. The house has been swept clean and put in order. [45]Then the evil spirit goes and takes with it seven other spirits more evil than itself. They go in and live there. That person is worse off than before. That is how it will be with the evil people of today."

Jesus' Mother and Brothers

[46]While Jesus was still talking to the crowd, his mother and brothers stood outside. They wanted to speak to him. [47]Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside. They want to speak to you."

[48]Jesus replied to him, "Who is my mother? And who are my brothers?" [49]Jesus pointed to his disciples. He said, "Here is my mother! Here are my brothers! [50]Anyone who does what my Father in heaven wants is my brother or sister or mother."

Matthew 13

The Story of the Farmer

[1]That same day Jesus left the house and sat by the Sea of Galilee. [2]Large crowds gathered around him. So he got into a boat and sat down. All the people stood on the shore. [3]Then he told them many things using stories. He said, “A farmer went out to plant his seed. [4]He scattered the seed on the ground. Some fell on a path. Birds came and ate it up. [5]Some seed fell on rocky places, where there wasn’t much soil. The plants came up quickly, because the soil wasn’t deep. [6]When the sun came up, it burned the plants. They dried up because they had no roots. [7]Other seed fell among thorns. The thorns grew up and crowded out the plants. [8]Still other seed fell on good soil. It produced a crop 100, 60 or 30 times more than what was planted. [9]Whoever has ears should listen.”

[10]The disciples came to him. They asked, “Why do you use stories when you speak to the people?”

[11]He replied, “Because you have been given the knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven. It has not been given to outsiders. [12]Everyone who has this kind of knowledge will be given more knowledge. In fact, they will have very much. If anyone doesn’t have this kind of knowledge, even what little they have will be taken away from them. [13]Here is why I use stories when I speak to the people. I say,

> “They look, but they don’t really see.
> They listen, but they don’t really hear or understand.

[14]In them the words of the prophet Isaiah come true. He said,

> “ ‘You will hear but never understand.
> You will see but never know what you are seeing.
> [15]The hearts of these people have become stubborn.
> They can barely hear with their ears.
> They have closed their eyes.
> Otherwise they might see with their eyes.
> They might hear with their ears.
> They might understand with their hearts.
> They might turn to the Lord, and then he would heal them.’ (Isaiah

6:9, 10)

16But blessed are your eyes because they see. And blessed are your ears because they hear. 17What I'm about to tell you is true. Many prophets and godly people wanted to see what you see. But they didn't see it. They wanted to hear what you hear. But they didn't hear it.

18"Listen! Here is the meaning of the story of the farmer. 19People hear the message about the kingdom but do not understand it. Then the evil one comes. He steals what was planted in their hearts. Those people are like the seed planted on a path. 20The seed that fell on rocky places is like other people. They hear the message and at once receive it with joy. 21But they have no roots. So they last only a short time. They quickly fall away from the faith when trouble or suffering comes because of the message. 22The seed that fell among the thorns is like others who hear the message. But then the worries of this life and the false promises of wealth crowd it out. They keep the message from producing fruit. 23But the seed that fell on good soil is like those who hear the message and understand it. They produce a crop 100, 60 or 30 times more than the farmer planted."

The Story of the Weeds

24Jesus told the crowd another story. "Here is what the kingdom of heaven is like," he said. "A man planted good seed in his field. 25But while everyone was sleeping, his enemy came. The enemy planted weeds among the wheat and then went away. 26The wheat began to grow and form grain. At the same time, weeds appeared.

27"The owner's slaves came to him. They said, 'Sir, didn't you plant good seed in your field? Then where did the weeds come from?'

28" 'An enemy did this,' he replied.

"The slaves asked him, 'Do you want us to go and pull up the weeds?'

29" 'No,' the owner answered. 'While you are pulling up the weeds, you might pull up the wheat with them. 30Let both grow together until the harvest. At that time I will tell the workers what to do. Here is what I will say to them. First collect the weeds. Tie them in bundles to be burned. Then gather the wheat. Bring it into my storeroom.' "

The Stories of the Mustard Seed and the Yeast

31 Jesus told the crowd another story. He said, “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed. Someone took the seed and planted it in a field. 32 It is the smallest of all seeds. But when it grows, it is the largest of all garden plants. It becomes a tree. Birds come and rest in its branches.” 33 Jesus told them still another story. “The kingdom of heaven is like yeast,” he said. “A woman mixed it into 60 pounds of flour. The yeast worked its way all through the dough.”
34 Jesus spoke all these things to the crowd using stories. He did not say anything to them without telling a story. 35 So the words spoken by the prophet came true. He had said,

> “I will open my mouth and tell stories.
> I will speak about things that were hidden since the world was > made.” (Psalm 78:2)

Jesus Explains the Story of the Weeds

36 Then Jesus left the crowd and went into the house. His disciples came to him. They said, “Explain to us the story of the weeds in the field.”
37 He answered, “The one who planted the good seed is the Son of Man. 38 The field is the world. The good seed stands for the people who belong to the kingdom. The weeds are the people who belong to the evil one. 39 The enemy who plants them is the devil. The harvest is judgment day. And the workers are angels.
40 “The weeds are pulled up and burned in the fire. That is how it will be on judgment day. 41 The Son of Man will send out his angels. They will weed out of his kingdom everything that causes sin. They will also get rid of all who do evil.
42 They will throw them into the blazing furnace. There people will weep and grind their teeth. 43 Then God’s people will shine like the sun in their Father’s kingdom. Whoever has ears should listen.

The Stories of the Hidden Treasure and the Pearl

44 “The kingdom of heaven is like treasure that was hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again. He was very happy. So he went and sold everything he had. And he bought that field.
45 “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a trader who was looking for fine pearls. [46]He found one that was very valuable. So he went away and sold everything he had. And he bought that pearl.

The Story of the Net

[47]"Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net. It was let down into the lake. It caught all kinds of fish. [48]When it was full, the fishermen pulled it up on the shore. Then they sat down and gathered the good fish into baskets. But they threw the bad fish away. [49]This is how it will be on judgment day. The angels will come. They will separate the people who did what is wrong from those who did what is right. [50]They will throw the evil people into the blazing furnace. There the evil ones will weep and grind their teeth.

[51]"Do you understand all these things?" Jesus asked.

"Yes," they replied.

[52]He said to them, "Every teacher of the law who has become a disciple in the kingdom of heaven is like the owner of a house. He brings new treasures out of his storeroom as well as old ones."

A Prophet Without Honor

[53]Jesus finished telling these stories. Then he moved on from there. [54]He came to his hometown of Nazareth. There he began teaching the people in their synagogue. They were amazed. "Where did this man get this wisdom? Where did he get this power to do miracles?" they asked. [55]"Isn't this the carpenter's son? Isn't his mother's name Mary? Aren't his brothers James, Joseph, Simon and Judas? [56]Aren't all his sisters with us? Then where did this man get all these things?" [57]They were not pleased with him at all.

But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is honored everywhere except in his own town and in his own home."

[58]He did only a few miracles in Nazareth because the people there had no faith.

Matthew 14

John the Baptist's Head Is Cut Off

[1]At that time Herod, the ruler of Galilee and Perea, heard reports about Jesus.
[2]He said to his attendants, "This is John the Baptist. He has risen from the dead!
That is why he has the power to do miracles."

[3]Herod had arrested John. He had tied him up and put him in prison because of Herodias. She was the wife of Herod's brother Philip. [4]John had been saying to Herod, "It is against the Law for you to have her as your wife." [5]Herod wanted to kill John. But he was afraid of the people, because they thought John was a prophet.

[6]On Herod's birthday the daughter of Herodias danced for Herod and his guests. She pleased Herod very much. [7]So he promised to give her anything she asked for. [8]Her mother told her what to say. So the girl said to Herod, "Give me the head of John the Baptist on a big plate." [9]The king was very upset. But he thought of his promise and his dinner guests. So he told one of his men to give her what she asked for. [10]Herod had John's head cut off in the prison. [11]His head was brought in on a big plate and given to the girl. She then carried it to her mother. [12]John's disciples came and took his body and buried it. Then they went and told Jesus.

Jesus Feeds Five Thousand

[13]Jesus heard what had happened to John. He wanted to be alone. So he went in a boat to a quiet place. The crowds heard about this. They followed him on foot from the towns. [14]When Jesus came ashore, he saw a large crowd. He felt deep concern for them. He healed their sick people.

[15]When it was almost evening, the disciples came to him. "There is nothing here," they said. "It's already getting late. Send the crowds away. They can go and buy some food in the villages."

[16]Jesus replied, "They don't need to go away. You give them something to eat."

[17]"We have only five loaves of bread and two fish," they answered.

[18]"Bring them here to me," he said. [19]Then Jesus directed the people to sit down on the grass. He took the five loaves and the two fish. He looked up to heaven and gave thanks. He broke the loaves into pieces. Then he gave them to the disciples. And the disciples gave them to the people. [20]All of them ate and were satisfied. The disciples picked up 12 baskets of leftover pieces. [21]The number of men who ate was about 5,000. Women and children also ate.

Jesus Walks on the Water

[22]Right away Jesus made the disciples get into the boat. He had them go on ahead of him to the other side of the Sea of Galilee. Then he sent the crowd away. [23]After he had sent them away, he went up on a mountainside by himself to pray. Later that night, he was there alone. [24]The boat was already a long way from land. It was being pounded by the waves because the wind was blowing against it.

[25]Shortly before dawn, Jesus went out to the disciples. He walked on the lake. [26]They saw him walking on the lake and were terrified. “It’s a ghost!” they said. And they cried out in fear.

[27]Right away Jesus called out to them, “Be brave! It is I. Don’t be afraid.”

[28]“Lord, is it you?” Peter asked. “If it is, tell me to come to you on the water.”

[29]“Come,” Jesus said.

So Peter got out of the boat. He walked on the water toward Jesus. [30]But when Peter saw the wind, he was afraid. He began to sink. He cried out, “Lord! Save me!”

[31]Right away Jesus reached out his hand and caught him. “Your faith is so small!” he said. “Why did you doubt me?”

[32]When they climbed into the boat, the wind died down. [33]Then those in the boat worshiped Jesus. They said, “You really are the Son of God!”

[34]They crossed over the lake and landed at Gennesaret. [35]The men who lived there recognized Jesus. So they sent a message all over the nearby countryside. People brought all those who were sick to Jesus. [36]They begged him to let those who were sick just touch the edge of his clothes. And all who touched his clothes were healed.

Matthew 15

What Makes People "Unclean"?

[1]Some Pharisees and some teachers of the law came from Jerusalem to see Jesus. They asked, [2]"Why don't your disciples obey what the elders teach? Your disciples don't wash their hands before they eat!" [3]Jesus replied, "And why don't you obey God's command? You would rather follow your own teachings! [4]God said, 'Honor your father and mother.' (Exodus 20:12; Deuteronomy 5:16) He also said, 'Anyone who asks for bad things to happen to their father or mother must be put to death.' (Exodus 21:17; Leviticus 20:9) [5]But suppose people have something that might be used to help their parents. You allow them to say it is instead 'a gift set apart for God.' [6]So they do not need to honor their father or mother with their gift. You make the word of God useless in order to follow your own teachings. [7]You pretenders! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you. He said,

> [8]" 'These people honor me by what they say.
> But their hearts are far away from me.
> [9]Their worship doesn't mean anything to me.
> They teach nothing but human rules.' " (Isaiah 29:13)

[10]Jesus called the crowd to him. He said, "Listen and understand. [11]What goes into someone's mouth does not make them 'unclean.' It's what comes out of their mouth that makes them 'unclean.' " [12]Then the disciples came to him. They asked, "Do you know that the Pharisees were angry when they heard this?"
[13]Jesus replied, "They are plants that my Father in heaven has not planted.
They will be pulled up by the roots. [14]Leave the Pharisees. They are blind guides. If one blind person leads another blind person, both of them will fall into a pit."
[15]Peter said, "Explain this to us."
[16]"Don't you understand yet?" Jesus asked them. [17]"Don't you see?
Everything that enters the mouth goes into the stomach. Then it goes out of the body. [18]But the things that come out of a person's mouth come from the heart.
Those are the things that make someone 'unclean.' [19]Evil thoughts come out of a person’s heart. So do murder, adultery, and other sexual sins. And so do stealing, false witness, and telling lies about others. [20]Those are the things that make you ‘unclean.’ But eating without washing your hands does not make you ‘unclean.’ ”

The Faith of a Woman From Canaan

[21]Jesus left Galilee and went to the area of Tyre and Sidon. [22]A woman from Canaan lived near Tyre and Sidon. She came to him and cried out, “Lord! Son of David! Have mercy on me! A demon controls my daughter. She is suffering terribly.”

[23]Jesus did not say a word. So his disciples came to him. They begged him, “Send her away. She keeps crying out after us.”

[24]Jesus answered, “I was sent only to the people of Israel. They are like lost sheep.”

[25]Then the woman fell to her knees in front of him. “Lord! Help me!” she said.

[26]He replied, “It is not right to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.”

[27]“Yes it is, Lord,” she said. “Even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their owner’s table.”

[28]Then Jesus said to her, “Woman, you have great faith! You will be given what you are asking for.” And her daughter was healed at that moment.

Jesus Feeds Four Thousand

[29]Jesus left there. He walked along the Sea of Galilee. Then he went up on a mountainside and sat down. [30]Large crowds came to him. They brought blind people and those who could not walk. They also brought disabled people, those who could not speak, and many others. They laid them at his feet, and he healed them. [31]The people were amazed. Those who could not speak were speaking. The disabled were made well. Those not able to walk were walking. Those who were blind could see. So the people praised the God of Israel.

[32]Then Jesus called for his disciples to come to him. He said, “I feel deep concern for these people. They have already been with me three days. They don’t have anything to eat. I don’t want to send them away hungry. If I do, they will become too weak on their way home.”

[33]His disciples answered him. “There is nothing here,” they said. “Where could we get enough bread to feed this large crowd?”

[34]“How many loaves do you have?” Jesus asked.

“Seven,” they replied, “and a few small fish.”

[35]Jesus told the crowd to sit down on the ground. [36]He took the seven loaves and the fish and gave thanks. Then he broke them and gave them to the disciples. And the disciples passed them out to the people. [37]All of them ate and were satisfied. After that, the disciples picked up seven baskets of leftover pieces. [38]The number of men who ate was 4,000. Women and children also ate. [39]After Jesus had sent the crowd away, he got into the boat. He went to the area near Magadan.

Matthew 16

Jesus Is Asked for a Sign

[1]The Pharisees and Sadducees came to test Jesus. They asked him to show them a sign from heaven.
[2]He replied, “In the evening you look at the sky. You say, ‘It will be good weather. The sky is red.’ [3]And in the morning you say, ‘Today it will be stormy.
The sky is red and cloudy.’ You know the meaning of what you see in the sky.
But you can’t understand the signs of what is happening right now. [4]An evil and unfaithful people look for a sign. But none will be given to them except the sign of Jonah.” Then Jesus left them and went away.

The Yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees

[5]The disciples crossed over to the other side of the lake. They had forgotten to take bread. [6]“Be careful,” Jesus said to them. “Watch out for the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”
[7]The disciples talked about this among themselves. They said, “He must be saying this because we didn’t bring any bread.” [8]Jesus knew what they were saying. So he said, “Your faith is so small! Why are you talking to each other about having no bread? [9]Don’t you understand yet?
Don’t you remember the five loaves for the 5,000? Don’t you remember how many baskets of pieces you gathered? [10]Don’t you remember the seven loaves for the 4,000? Don’t you remember how many baskets of pieces you gathered?
[11]How can you possibly not understand? I wasn’t talking to you about bread. But watch out for the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.” [12]Then the disciples understood that Jesus was not telling them to watch out for the yeast used in bread. He was warning them against what the Pharisees and Sadducees taught.

Peter Says That Jesus Is the Messiah

[13]Jesus went to the area of Caesarea Philippi. There he asked his disciples, “Who do people say the Son of Man is?”
[14]They replied, “Some say John the Baptist. Others say Elijah. Still others say Jeremiah, or one of the prophets.”
[15]“But what about you?” he asked. “Who do you say I am?”

16 Simon Peter answered, “You are the Messiah. You are the Son of the living God.”
17 Jesus replied, “Blessed are you, Simon, son of Jonah! No mere human showed this to you. My Father in heaven showed it to you. 18 Here is what I tell you. You are Peter. On this rock I will build my church. The gates of hell will not be strong enough to destroy it. 19 I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. What you lock on earth will be locked in heaven. What you unlock on earth will be unlocked in heaven.” 20 Then Jesus ordered his disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

Jesus Speaks About His Coming Death

21 From that time on Jesus began to explain to his disciples what would happen to him. He told them he must go to Jerusalem. There he must suffer many things from the elders, the chief priests and the teachers of the law. He must be killed and on the third day rise to life again.
22 Peter took Jesus to one side and began to scold him. “Never, Lord!” he said.
“This will never happen to you!”
23 Jesus turned and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You are standing in my way. You do not have in mind the things God cares about. Instead, you only have in mind the things humans care about.” 24 Then Jesus spoke to his disciples. He said, “Whoever wants to be my disciple must say no to themselves. They must pick up their cross and follow me.
25 Whoever wants to save their life will lose it. But whoever loses their life for me will find it. 26 What good is it if someone gains the whole world but loses their soul? Or what can anyone trade for their soul? 27 The Son of Man is going to come in his Father’s glory. His angels will come with him. And he will reward everyone in keeping with what they have done.
28 “What I’m about to tell you is true. Some who are standing here will not die before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.”

Matthew 17

Jesus' Appearance Is Changed

[1]After six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John the brother of James with him. He led them up a high mountain. They were all alone. [2]There in front of them his appearance was changed. His face shone like the sun. His clothes became as white as the light. [3]Just then Moses and Elijah appeared in front of them. Moses and Elijah were talking with Jesus.

[4]Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you wish, I will put up three shelters. One will be for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

[5]While Peter was still speaking, a bright cloud covered them. A voice from the cloud said, "This is my Son, and I love him. I am very pleased with him. Listen to him!"

[6]When the disciples heard this, they were terrified. They fell with their faces to the ground. [7]But Jesus came and touched them. "Get up," he said. "Don't be afraid." [8]When they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus.

[9]They came down the mountain. On the way down, Jesus told them what to do. "Don't tell anyone what you have seen," he said. "Wait until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

[10]The disciples asked him, "Why do the teachers of the law say that Elijah has to come first?"

[11]Jesus replied, "That's right. Elijah is supposed to come and make all things new again. [12]But I tell you, Elijah has already come. People didn't recognize him. They have done to him everything they wanted to do. In the same way, they are going to make the Son of Man suffer." [13]Then the disciples understood that Jesus was talking to them about John the Baptist.

Jesus Heals a Boy Who Is Controlled by a Demon

[14]When they came near the crowd, a man approached Jesus. He got on his knees in front of him. [15]"Lord," he said, "have mercy on my son. He shakes wildly and suffers a great deal. He often falls into the fire or into the water. [16]I brought him to your disciples. But they couldn't heal him."

[17]"You unbelieving and evil people!" Jesus replied. "How long do I have to stay with you? How long do I have to put up with you? Bring the boy here to me.” [18]Jesus ordered the demon to leave the boy, and it came out of him. He was healed at that moment.

[19]Then the disciples came to Jesus in private. They asked, “Why couldn’t we drive out the demon?”

[20-21]He replied, “Because your faith is much too small. What I’m about to tell you is true. If you have faith as small as a mustard seed, it is enough. You can say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there.’ And it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you.”

Jesus Speaks a Second Time About His Coming Death

[22]They came together in Galilee. Then Jesus said to them, “The Son of Man is going to be handed over to men. [23]They will kill him. On the third day he will rise from the dead.” Then the disciples were filled with deep sadness.

Jesus Pays the Temple Tax

[24]Jesus and his disciples arrived in Capernaum. There the people who collect the temple tax came to Peter. They asked him, “Doesn’t your teacher pay the temple tax?”

[25]“Yes, he does,” he replied.

When Peter came into the house, Jesus spoke first. “What do you think, Simon?” he asked. “Who do the kings of the earth collect taxes and fees from? Do they collect them from their own children or from others?”

[26]“From others,” Peter answered.

“Then the children don’t have to pay,” Jesus said to him. [27]“But we don’t want to make them angry. So go to the lake and throw out your fishing line. Take the first fish you catch. Open its mouth. There you will find the exact coin you need. Take it and give it to them for my tax and yours.”

Matthew 18

Who Is the Most Important Person in the Kingdom?

[1]At that time the disciples came to Jesus. They asked him, “Then who is the most important person in the kingdom of heaven?”
[2]Jesus called a little child over to him. He had the child stand among them.
[3]Jesus said, “What I’m about to tell you is true. You need to change and become like little children. If you don’t, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.
[4]Anyone who takes the humble position of this child is the most important in the kingdom of heaven. [5]Anyone who welcomes a little child like this one in my name welcomes me.

Do Not Cause People to Sin

[6]“What if someone causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin? If they do, it would be better for them to have a large millstone hung around their neck and be drowned at the bottom of the sea. [7]How terrible it will be for the world because of the things that cause people to sin! Things like that must come.
But how terrible for the person who causes them! [8]If your hand or foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It would be better to enter the kingdom of heaven with only one hand than go into hell with two hands. It would be better to enter the kingdom of heaven with only one foot than go into hell with two feet. In hell the fire burns forever. [9]If your eye causes you to sin, poke it out and throw it away. It would be better to enter the kingdom of heaven with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into the fire of hell.

The Story of the Wandering Sheep

[10-11]“See that you don’t look down on one of these little ones. Here is what I tell you. Their angels in heaven are always with my Father who is in heaven.
[12]“What do you think? Suppose a man owns 100 sheep and one of them wanders away. Won’t he leave the 99 sheep on the hills? Won’t he go and look for the one that wandered off? [13]What I’m about to tell you is true. If he finds that sheep, he is happier about the one than about the 99 that didn’t wander off.
[14]It is the same with your Father in heaven. He does not want any of these little ones to die.

When Someone Sins Against You

15“If your brother or sister sins against you, go to them. Tell them what they did wrong. Keep it between the two of you. If they listen to you, you have won them back. 16But what if they won’t listen to you? Then take one or two others with you. Scripture says, ‘Every matter must be proved by the words of two or three witnesses.’ (Deuteronomy 19:15) 17But what if they also refuse to listen to the witnesses? Then tell it to the church. And what if they refuse to listen even to the church? Then don’t treat them as a brother or sister. Treat them as you would treat an ungodly person or a tax collector.

18“What I’m about to tell you is true. What you lock on earth will be locked in heaven. What you unlock on earth will be unlocked in heaven.

19“Again, here is what I tell you. Suppose two of you on earth agree about anything you ask for. My Father in heaven will do it for you. 20Where two or three people gather in my name, I am there with them.”

The Servant Who Had No Mercy

21Peter came to Jesus. He asked, “Lord, how many times should I forgive my brother or sister who sins against me? Up to seven times?”

22Jesus answered, “I tell you, not seven times, but 77 times.

23“The kingdom of heaven is like a king who wanted to collect all the money his servants owed him. 24As the king began to do it, a man who owed him 10,000 bags of gold was brought to him. 25The man was not able to pay. So his master gave an order. The man, his wife, his children, and all he owned had to be sold to pay back what he owed.

26“Then the servant fell on his knees in front of him. ‘Give me time,’ he begged. ‘I’ll pay everything back.’ 27His master felt sorry for him. He forgave him what he owed and let him go.

28“But then that servant went out and found one of the other servants who owed him 100 silver coins. He grabbed him and began to choke him. ‘Pay back what you owe me!’ he said.

29“The other servant fell on his knees. ‘Give me time,’ he begged him. ‘I’ll pay it back.’

30“But the first servant refused. Instead, he went and had the man thrown into prison. The man would be held there until he could pay back what he owed.
31The other servants saw what had happened and were very angry. They went and told their master everything that had happened.

32“Then the master called the first servant in. ‘You evil servant,’ he said. ‘I forgave all that you owed me because you begged me to. 33Shouldn’t you have had mercy on the other servant just as I had mercy on you?’ 34In anger his master handed him over to the jailers. He would be punished until he paid back everything he owed.

35“This is how my Father in heaven will treat each of you unless you forgive your brother or sister from your heart.”

Matthew 19

Jesus Teaches About Divorce

1When Jesus finished saying these things, he left Galilee. He went into the area of Judea on the other side of the Jordan River. 2Large crowds followed him.
He healed them there.

3Some Pharisees came to test Jesus. They asked, “Does the Law allow a man to divorce his wife for any reason at all?”

4Jesus replied, “Haven’t you read that in the beginning the Creator ‘made them male and female’? (Genesis 1:27) 5He said, ‘That’s why a man will leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife. The two will become one.’ (Genesis 2:24) 6They are no longer two, but one. So no one should separate what God has joined together.”

7They asked, “Then why did Moses command that a man can give his wife a letter of divorce and send her away?”

8Jesus replied, “Moses let you divorce your wives because you were stubborn.
But it was not this way from the beginning. 9Here is what I tell you. Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery. A man may divorce his wife only if she has not been faithful to him.”

10Here is what the disciples said to him. “If that’s the way it is between a husband and wife, it is better not to get married.”

11Jesus replied, “Not everyone can accept the idea of staying single. Only those who have been helped to live without getting married can accept it.
12Some men are not able to have children because they were born that way.
Some have been made that way by other people. Others have chosen to live that way in order to serve the kingdom of heaven. The one who can accept this should accept it.”

Little Children Are Brought to Jesus

13Some people brought little children to Jesus. They wanted him to place his hands on the children and pray for them. But the disciples told them not to do it.

14Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me. Don’t keep them away. The kingdom of heaven belongs to people like them.” 15Jesus placed his hands on them to bless them. Then he went on from there.

Rich People and the Kingdom of God

16 Just then, a man came up to Jesus. He asked, “Teacher, what good thing must I do to receive eternal life?”

17 “Why do you ask me about what is good?” Jesus replied. “There is only one who is good. If you want to enter the kingdom, obey the commandments.”

18 “Which ones?” the man asked.

Jesus said, “ ‘Do not murder. Do not commit adultery. Do not steal. Do not be a false witness. 19 Honor your father and mother.’ (Exodus 20:12–16; Deuteronomy 5:16–20) And ‘love your neighbor as you love yourself.’ ” (Leviticus 19:18)

20 “I have obeyed all those commandments,” the young man said. “What else do I need to do?”

21 Jesus answered, “If you want to be perfect, go and sell everything you have.
Give the money to those who are poor. You will have treasure in heaven. Then come and follow me.”

22 When the young man heard this, he went away sad. He was very rich.

23 Then Jesus said to his disciples, “What I’m about to tell you is true. It is hard for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of heaven. 24 Again I tell you, it is hard for a camel to go through the eye of a needle. But it is even harder for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.”

25 When the disciples heard this, they were really amazed. They asked, “Then who can be saved?”

26 Jesus looked at them and said, “With people, this is impossible. But with God, all things are possible.”

27 Peter answered him, “We have left everything to follow you! What reward will be given to us?”

28 “What I’m about to tell you is true,” Jesus said to them. “When all things are made new, the Son of Man will sit on his glorious throne. Then you who have followed me will also sit on 12 thrones. You will judge the 12 tribes of Israel.
29 Suppose anyone has left houses, brothers or sisters, father or mother, husband or wife, children or fields because of me. Anyone who has done that will receive 100 times as much. They will also receive eternal life. 30 But many who are first will be last. And many who are last will be first.

Matthew 20

The Story of the Workers in the Vineyard

[1]"The kingdom of heaven is like a man who owned land. He went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. [2]He agreed to give them the usual pay for a day's work. Then he sent them into his vineyard.

[3]"About nine o'clock in the morning he went out again. He saw others standing in the market doing nothing. [4]He told them, 'You also go and work in my vineyard. I'll pay you what is right.' [5]So they went.

"He went out again about noon and at three o'clock and did the same thing.
[6]About five o'clock he went out and found still others standing around. He asked them, 'Why have you been standing here all day long doing nothing?'

[7]" 'Because no one has hired us,' they answered.

"He said to them, 'You also go and work in my vineyard.'

[8]"When evening came, the owner of the vineyard spoke to the person who was in charge of the workers. He said, 'Call the workers and give them their pay.
Begin with the last ones I hired. Then go on to the first ones.'

[9]"The workers who were hired about five o'clock came. Each received the usual day's pay. [10]So when those who were hired first came, they expected to receive more. But each of them also received the usual day's pay. [11]When they received it, they began to complain about the owner. [12]'These people who were hired last worked only one hour,' they said. 'You have paid them the same as us.
We have done most of the work and have been in the hot sun all day.'

[13]"The owner answered one of them. 'Friend,' he said, 'I'm being fair to you.
Didn't you agree to work for the usual day's pay? [14]Take your money and go. I want to give the one I hired last the same pay I gave you. [15]Don't I have the right to do what I want with my own money? Do you feel cheated because I gave so freely to the others?'

[16]"So those who are last will be first. And those who are first will be last."

Jesus Speaks a Third Time About His Coming Death

[17]Jesus was going up to Jerusalem. On the way, he took his 12 disciples to one side to talk to them. [18]"We are going up to Jerusalem," he said. "The Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the teachers of the law. They will sentence him to death. [19]Then they will hand him over to the Gentiles. The people will make fun of him and whip him. They will nail him to a cross. On the third day, he will rise from the dead!”

A Mother Asks a Favor of Jesus

[20]The mother of Zebedee’s sons came to Jesus. Her sons came with her. Getting on her knees, she asked a favor of him.

[21]“What do you want?” Jesus asked.

She said, “Promise me that one of my two sons may sit at your right hand in your kingdom. Promise that the other one may sit at your left hand.”

[22]“You don’t know what you’re asking for,” Jesus said to them. “Can you drink the cup of suffering I am going to drink?”

“We can,” they answered.

[23]Jesus said to them, “You will certainly drink from my cup. But it is not for me to say who will sit at my right or left hand. These places belong to those my Father has prepared them for.”

[24]The other ten disciples heard about this. They became angry at the two brothers. [25]Jesus called them together. He said, “You know about the rulers of the Gentiles. They hold power over their people. Their high officials order them around. [26]Don’t be like that. Instead, anyone who wants to be important among you must be your servant. [27]And anyone who wants to be first must be your slave. [28]Be like the Son of Man. He did not come to be served. Instead, he came to serve others. He came to give his life as the price for setting many people free.”

Two Blind Men Receive Their Sight

[29]Jesus and his disciples were leaving Jericho. A large crowd followed him. [30]Two blind men were sitting by the side of the road. They heard that Jesus was going by. So they shouted, “Lord! Son of David! Have mercy on us!”

[31]The crowd commanded them to stop. They told them to be quiet. But the two men shouted even louder, “Lord! Son of David! Have mercy on us!”

[32]Jesus stopped and called out to them. “What do you want me to do for you?” he asked.

[33]“Lord,” they answered, “we want to be able to see.”

[34]Jesus felt deep concern for them. He touched their eyes. Right away they could see. And they followed him.

Matthew 21

Jesus Comes to Jerusalem as King

[1]As they all approached Jerusalem, they came to Bethphage. It was on the Mount of Olives. Jesus sent out two disciples. [2]He said to them, “Go to the village ahead of you. As soon as you get there, you will find a donkey tied up.
Her colt will be with her. Untie them and bring them to me. [3]If anyone says anything to you, say that the Lord needs them. The owner will send them right away.”
[4]This took place so that what was spoken through the prophet would come true. It says,

> [5]“Say to the city of Zion,
> ‘See, your king comes to you.
> He is gentle and riding on a donkey.
> He is riding on a donkey’s colt.’ ” (Zechariah 9:9)

[6]The disciples went and did what Jesus told them to do. [7]They brought the donkey and the colt. They placed their coats on them for Jesus to sit on. [8]A very large crowd spread their coats on the road. Others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. [9]Some of the people went ahead of him, and some followed. They all shouted,

> “Hosanna to the Son of David!”
>
> “Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!” (Psalm 118:26)
>
> “Hosanna in the highest heaven!”

[10]When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred up. The people asked, “Who is this?”
[11]The crowds answered, “This is Jesus. He is the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee.”

Jesus Clears Out the Temple

12 Jesus entered the temple courtyard. He began to drive out all those who were buying and selling there. He turned over the tables of the people who were exchanging money. He also turned over the benches of those who were selling doves. 13 He said to them, “It is written that the Lord said, ‘My house will be called a house where people can pray.’ (Isaiah 56:7) But you are making it ‘a den for robbers.’ ” (Jeremiah 7:11)

14 Blind people and those who were disabled came to Jesus at the temple.
There he healed them. 15 The chief priests and the teachers of the law saw the wonderful things he did. They also saw the children in the temple courtyard shouting, “Hosanna to the Son of David!” But when they saw all this, they became angry.

16 “Do you hear what these children are saying?” they asked him.

“Yes,” replied Jesus. “Haven’t you ever read about it in Scripture? It says, > “ ‘Lord, you have made sure that children and infants > praise you.’ ” (Psalm 8:2)

17 Then Jesus left the people and went out of the city to Bethany. He spent the night there.

Jesus Makes a Fig Tree Dry Up

18 Early in the morning, Jesus was on his way back to Jerusalem. He was hungry. 19 He saw a fig tree by the road. He went up to it but found nothing on it except leaves. Then he said to it, “May you never bear fruit again!” Right away the tree dried up.

20 When the disciples saw this, they were amazed. “How did the fig tree dry up so quickly?” they asked.

21 Jesus replied, “What I’m about to tell you is true. You must have faith and not doubt. Then you can do what was done to the fig tree. And you can say to this mountain, ‘Go and throw yourself into the sea.’ It will be done. 22 If you believe, you will receive what you ask for when you pray.”

The Authority of Jesus Is Questioned

23 Jesus entered the temple courtyard. While he was teaching there, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him. “By what authority are you doing these things?” they asked. “Who gave you this authority?”

[24]Jesus replied, “I will also ask you one question. If you answer me, I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. [25]Where did John’s baptism come from? Was it from heaven? Or did it come from human authority?”

They talked to one another about it. They said, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will ask, ‘Then why didn’t you believe him?’ [26]But what if we say, ‘From human authority’? We are afraid of the people. Everyone believes that John was a prophet.”

[27]So they answered Jesus, “We don’t know.”

Jesus said, “Then I won’t tell you by what authority I am doing these things either.

The Story of the Two Sons

[28]“What do you think about this? A man had two sons. He went to the first and said, ‘Son, go and work today in the vineyard.’

[29]“ ‘I will not,’ the son answered. But later he changed his mind and went.

[30]“Then the father went to the other son. He said the same thing. The son answered, ‘I will, sir.’ But he did not go.

[31]“Which of the two sons did what his father wanted?”

“The first,” they answered.

Jesus said to them, “What I’m about to tell you is true. Tax collectors and prostitutes will enter the kingdom of God ahead of you. [32]John came to show you the right way to live. And you did not believe him. But the tax collectors and the prostitutes did. You saw this. But even then you did not turn away from your sins and believe him.

The Story of the Renters

[33]“Listen to another story. A man who owned some land planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it. He dug a pit for a winepress in it. He also built a lookout tower. He rented the vineyard out to some farmers. Then he moved to another place. [34]When harvest time approached, he sent his slaves to the renters. He told the slaves to collect his share of the fruit.

[35]“But the renters grabbed his slaves. They beat one of them. They killed another. They threw stones at the third to kill him. [36]Then the man sent other slaves to the renters. He sent more than he did the first time. The renters treated them the same way. [37]Last of all, he sent his son to them. ‘They will respect my son,’ he said.

38“But the renters saw the son coming. They said to one another, ‘This is the one who will receive all the owner’s property someday. Come, let’s kill him. Then everything will be ours.’ 39So they took him and threw him out of the vineyard. Then they killed him.

40“When the owner of the vineyard comes back, what will he do to those renters?”

41“He will destroy those evil people,” they replied. “Then he will rent the vineyard out to other renters. They will give him his share of the crop at harvest time.”

42Jesus said to them, “Haven’t you ever read what the Scriptures say,

> “ ‘The stone the builders didn’t accept
> has become the most important stone of all.
> The Lord has done it.
> It is wonderful in our eyes’? (Psalm 118:22, 23)

43“So here is what I tell you. The kingdom of God will be taken away from you. It will be given to people who will produce its fruit. 44Anyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces. But the stone will crush anyone it falls on.”

45The chief priests and the Pharisees heard Jesus’ stories. They knew he was talking about them. 46So they looked for a way to arrest him. But they were afraid of the crowd. The people believed that Jesus was a prophet.

Matthew 22

The Story of the Wedding Dinner

[1]Jesus told them more stories. He said, [2]"Here is what the kingdom of heaven is like. A king prepared a wedding dinner for his son. [3]He sent his slaves to those who had been invited to the dinner. The slaves told them to come. But they refused.

[4]"Then he sent some more slaves. He said, 'Tell those who were invited that I have prepared my dinner. I have killed my oxen and my fattest cattle. Everything is ready. Come to the wedding dinner.'

[5]"But the people paid no attention. One went away to his field. Another went away to his business. [6]The rest grabbed his slaves. They treated them badly and then killed them. [7]The king became very angry. He sent his army to destroy them. They killed those murderers and burned their city.

[8]"Then the king said to his slaves, 'The wedding dinner is ready. But those I invited were not fit to come. [9]So go to the street corners. Invite to the dinner anyone you can find.' [10]So the slaves went out into the streets. They gathered all the people they could find, the bad as well as the good. Soon the wedding hall was filled with guests.

[11]"The king came in to see the guests. He noticed a man there who was not wearing wedding clothes. [12]'Friend,' he asked, 'how did you get in here without wedding clothes?' The man couldn't think of anything to say.

[13]"Then the king told his slaves, 'Tie up his hands and feet. Throw him outside into the darkness. Out there people will weep and grind their teeth.'

[14]"Many are invited, but few are chosen."

Is It Right to Pay the Royal Tax to Caesar?

[15]The Pharisees went out. They made plans to trap Jesus with his own words. [16]They sent their followers to him. They sent the Herodians with them. "Teacher," they said, "we know that you are a man of honor. You teach the way of God truthfully. You don't let others tell you what to do or say. You don't care how important they are. [17]Tell us then, what do you think? Is it right to pay the royal tax to Caesar or not?"

[18]But Jesus knew their evil plans. He said, "You pretenders! Why are you trying to trap me? [19]Show me the coin people use for paying the tax." They brought him a silver coin. [20]He asked them, "Whose picture is this? And whose words?"

[21]"Caesar's," they replied.

Then he said to them, "So give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar. And give back to God what belongs to God."

[22]When they heard this, they were amazed. So they left him and went away.

Marriage When the Dead Rise

[23]That same day the Sadducees came to Jesus with a question. They do not believe that people rise from the dead. [24]"Teacher," they said, "here is what Moses told us. If a man dies without having children, his brother must get married to the widow. He must provide children to carry on his brother's name. [25]There were seven brothers among us. The first one got married and died. Since he had no children, he left his wife to his brother. [26]The same thing happened to the second and third brothers. It happened right on down to the seventh brother. [27]Finally, the woman died. [28]Now then, when the dead rise, whose wife will she be? All seven of them were married to her."

[29]Jesus replied, "You are mistaken, because you do not know the Scriptures. And you do not know the power of God. [30]When the dead rise, they won't get married. And their parents won't give them to be married. They will be like the angels in heaven. [31]What about the dead rising? Haven't you read what God said to you? [32]He said, 'I am the God of Abraham. I am the God of Isaac. And I am the God of Jacob.' (Exodus 3:6) He is not the God of the dead. He is the God of the living."

[33]When the crowds heard this, they were amazed by what he taught.

The Most Important Commandment

[34]The Pharisees heard that the Sadducees weren't able to answer Jesus. So the Pharisees got together. [35]One of them was an authority on the law. So he tested Jesus with a question. [36]"Teacher," he asked, "which is the most important commandment in the Law?"

[37]Jesus replied, " 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. Love him with all your mind.' (Deuteronomy 6:5) [38]This is the first and most important commandment. [39]And the second is like it. 'Love your neighbor as you love yourself.’ (Leviticus 19:18) 40Everything that is written in the Law and the Prophets is based on these two commandments.”

Whose Son Is the Messiah?

41The Pharisees were gathered together. Jesus asked them, 42“What do you think about the Messiah? Whose son is he?”

“The son of David,” they replied.

43He said to them, “Then why does David call him ‘Lord’? The Holy Spirit spoke through David himself. David said, > 44“ ‘The Lord said to my Lord,

> “Sit at my right hand
> until I put your enemies
> under your control.” ’ (Psalm 110:1)

45So if David calls him ‘Lord,’ how can he be David’s son?” 46No one could give any answer to him. From that day on, no one dared to ask him any more questions.

Matthew 23

A Warning Against Doing Things for the Wrong Reasons

[1]Jesus spoke to the crowds and to his disciples. [2]"The teachers of the law and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat," he said. [3]"So you must be careful to do everything they say. But don't do what they do. They don't practice what they preach. [4]They tie up heavy loads that are hard to carry. Then they put them on other people's shoulders. But they themselves aren't willing to lift a finger to move them.

[5]"Everything they do is done for others to see. On their foreheads and arms they wear little boxes that hold Scripture verses. They make the boxes very wide. And they make the tassels on their coats very long. [6]They love to sit down in the place of honor at dinners. They also love to have the most important seats in the synagogues. [7]They love to be greeted with respect in the markets. They love it when people call them 'Rabbi.'

[8]"But you shouldn't be called 'Rabbi.' You have only one Teacher, and you are all brothers. [9]Do not call anyone on earth 'father.' You have one Father, and he is in heaven. [10]You shouldn't be called 'teacher.' You have one Teacher, and he is the Messiah. [11]The most important person among you will be your servant.
[12]People who lift themselves up will be made humble. And people who make themselves humble will be lifted up.

How Terrible for the Teachers of the Law and the Pharisees

[13-14]"How terrible it will be for you, teachers of the law and Pharisees! You pretenders! You shut the door of the kingdom of heaven in people's faces. You yourselves do not enter. And you will not let those enter who are trying to.

[15]"How terrible for you, teachers of the law and Pharisees! You pretenders!
You travel everywhere to win one person to your faith. Then you make them twice as much a child of hell as you are.

[16]"How terrible for you, blind guides! You say, 'If anyone makes a promise in the name of the temple, it means nothing. But anyone who makes a promise in the name of the gold of the temple must keep that promise.' [17]You are blind and foolish! Which is more important? Is it the gold? Or is it the temple that makes the gold holy? [18]You also say, 'If anyone makes a promise in the name of the altar, it means nothing. But anyone who makes a promise in the name of the gift on the altar must keep that promise.’ [19]You are blind! Which is more important? Is it the gift? Or is it the altar that makes the gift holy? [20]So anyone making a promise in the name of the altar makes a promise in the name of it and everything on it. [21]And anyone making a promise in the name of the temple makes a promise in the name of it and the one who lives in it. [22]And anyone making a promise in the name of heaven makes a promise in the name of God’s throne and the one who sits on it.

[23]“How terrible for you, teachers of the law and Pharisees! You pretenders! You give God a tenth of your spices, like mint, dill and cumin. But you have not practiced the more important things of the law, which are fairness, mercy and faithfulness. You should have practiced the last things without failing to do the first. [24]You blind guides! You remove the smallest insect from your food. But you swallow a whole camel!

[25]“How terrible for you, teachers of the law and Pharisees! You pretenders! You clean the outside of a cup and dish. But on the inside you are full of greed. You only want to satisfy yourselves. [26]Blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and dish. Then the outside will also be clean.

[27]“How terrible for you, teachers of the law and Pharisees! You pretenders! You are like tombs that are painted white. They look beautiful on the outside. But on the inside they are full of the bones of the dead. They are also full of other things that are not pure and ‘clean.’ [28]It is the same with you. On the outside you seem to be doing what is right. But on the inside you are full of what is wrong. You pretend to be what you are not.

[29]“How terrible for you, teachers of the law and Pharisees! You pretenders! You build tombs for the prophets. You decorate the graves of the godly. [30]And you say, ‘If we had lived in the days of those who lived before us, we wouldn’t have done what they did. We wouldn’t have helped to kill the prophets.’ [31]So you are witnesses against yourselves. You admit that you are the children of those who murdered the prophets. [32]So go ahead and finish the sins that those who lived before you started!

[33]“You nest of poisonous snakes! How will you escape from being sentenced to hell? [34]So I am sending you prophets, wise people, and teachers. You will kill some of them. You will nail some to a cross. Others you will whip in your synagogues. You will chase them from town to town. [35]So you will pay for all the godly people’s blood spilled on earth. I mean from the blood of godly Abel to the blood of Zechariah, the son of Berekiah. Zechariah was the one you murdered between the temple and the altar. [36]What I'm about to tell you is true. All this will happen to those who are now living.

[37]"Jerusalem! Jerusalem! You kill the prophets and throw stones in order to kill those who are sent to you. Many times I have wanted to gather your people together. I have wanted to be like a hen who gathers her chicks under her wings. And you would not let me! [38]Look, your house is left empty. [39]I tell you, you will not see me again until you say, 'Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.' " (Psalm 118:26)

Matthew 24

When the Temple Will Be Destroyed and the Signs of the End

1 Jesus left the temple. He was walking away when his disciples came up to him. They wanted to call his attention to the temple buildings. 2 "Do you see all these things?" Jesus asked. "What I'm about to tell you is true. Not one stone here will be left on top of another. Every stone will be thrown down."

3 Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives. There the disciples came to him in private. "Tell us," they said. "When will this happen? And what will be the sign of your coming? What will be the sign of the end?"

4 Jesus answered, "Keep watch! Be careful that no one fools you. 5 Many will come in my name. They will claim, 'I am the Messiah!' They will fool many people. 6 You will hear about wars. You will also hear people talking about future wars. Don't be alarmed. Those things must happen. But the end still isn't here.
7 Nation will fight against nation. Kingdom will fight against kingdom. People will go hungry. There will be earthquakes in many places. 8 All these are the beginning of birth pains.

9 "Then people will hand you over to be treated badly and killed. All nations will hate you because of me. 10 At that time, many will turn away from their faith. They will hate each other. They will hand each other over to their enemies.
11 Many false prophets will appear. They will fool many people. 12 Because evil will grow, most people's love will grow cold. 13 But the one who remains strong in the faith will be saved. 14 This good news of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world. It will be a witness to all nations. Then the end will come.

15 "The prophet Daniel spoke about 'the hated thing that destroys.' (Daniel 9:27; 11:31; 12:11) Someday you will see it standing in the holy place. The reader should understand this. 16 Then those who are in Judea should escape to the mountains.
17 No one on the housetop should go down into the house to take anything out.
18 No one in the field should go back to get their coat. 19 How awful it will be in those days for pregnant women! How awful for nursing mothers! 20 Pray that you will not have to escape in winter or on the Sabbath day. 21 There will be terrible suffering in those days. It will be worse than any other from the beginning of the world until now. And there will never be anything like it again.

22 "If the time had not been cut short, no one would live. But because of God's chosen people, it will be shortened. [23]At that time someone may say to you, ‘Look! Here is the Messiah!’ Or, ‘There he is!’ Do not believe it. [24]False messiahs and false prophets will appear. They will do great signs and miracles. They will try to fool God’s chosen people if possible. [25]See, I have told you ahead of time.

[26]“So if anyone tells you, ‘He is a long way out in the desert,’ do not go out there. Or if anyone says, ‘He is deep inside the house,’ do not believe it. [27]Lightning that comes from the east can be seen in the west. It will be the same when the Son of Man comes. [28]The vultures will gather wherever there is a dead body.

[29]“Right after the terrible suffering of those days,

> “ ‘The sun will be darkened.
> The moon will not shine.
> The stars will fall from the sky.
> The heavenly bodies will be shaken.’ (Isaiah 13:10; 34:4)

[30]“Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven. At that time, all the peoples of the earth will mourn. They will mourn when they see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven. He will come with power and great glory. [31]He will send his angels with a loud trumpet call. They will gather his chosen people from all four directions. They will bring them from one end of the heavens to the other.

[32]“Learn a lesson from the fig tree. As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. [33]In the same way, when you see all these things happening, you know that the end is near. It is right at the door. [34]What I’m about to tell you is true. The people living now will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened. [35]Heaven and earth will pass away. But my words will never pass away.

The Day and Hour Are Not Known

[36]“But no one knows about that day or hour. Not even the angels in heaven know. The Son does not know. Only the Father knows. [37]Remember how it was in the days of Noah. It will be the same when the Son of Man comes. [38]In the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking. They were getting married. They were giving their daughters to be married. They did all those things right up to the day Noah entered the ark. [39]They knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away. That is how it will be when the Son of Man comes. [40]Two men will be in the field. One will be taken and the other left. [41]Two women will be grinding with a hand mill. One will be taken and the other left.

[42]"So keep watch. You do not know on what day your Lord will come. [43]You must understand something. Suppose the owner of the house knew what time of night the robber was coming. Then he would have kept watch. He would not have let his house be broken into. [44]So you also must be ready. The Son of Man will come at an hour when you don't expect him.

[45]"Suppose a master puts one of his slaves in charge of the other slaves in his house. The slave's job is to give them their food at the right time. The master wants a faithful and wise slave for this. [46]It will be good for the slave if the master finds him doing his job when the master returns. [47]What I'm about to tell you is true. The master will put that slave in charge of everything he owns. [48]But suppose that slave is evil. Suppose he says to himself, 'My master is staying away a long time.' [49]Suppose he begins to beat the other slaves. And suppose he eats and drinks with those who drink too much. [50]The master of that slave will come back on a day the slave doesn't expect him. He will return at an hour the slave does not know. [51]Then the master will cut him to pieces. He will send him to the place where pretenders go. There people will weep and grind their teeth.

Matthew 25

The Story of Ten Bridesmaids

[1]“Here is what the kingdom of heaven will be like at that time. Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went out to meet the groom. [2]Five of them were foolish. Five were wise. [3]The foolish ones took their lamps but didn’t take any olive oil with them. [4]The wise ones took oil in jars along with their lamps.
[5]The groom did not come for a long time. So the bridesmaids all grew tired and fell asleep.

[6]“At midnight someone cried out, ‘Here’s the groom! Come out to meet him!’

[7]“Then all the bridesmaids woke up and got their lamps ready. [8]The foolish ones said to the wise ones, ‘Give us some of your oil. Our lamps are going out.’

[9]“ ‘No,’ they replied. ‘There may not be enough for all of us. Instead, go to those who sell oil. Buy some for yourselves.’

[10]“So they went to buy the oil. But while they were on their way, the groom arrived. The bridesmaids who were ready went in with him to the wedding dinner. Then the door was shut.

[11]“Later, the other bridesmaids also came. ‘Sir! Sir!’ they said. ‘Open the door for us!’

[12]“But he replied, ‘What I’m about to tell you is true. I don’t know you.’

[13]“So keep watch. You do not know the day or the hour that the groom will come.

The Story of Three Slaves

[14]“Again, here is what the kingdom of heaven will be like. A man was going on a journey. He sent for his slaves and put them in charge of his money. [15]He gave five bags of gold to one. He gave two bags to another. And he gave one bag to the third. The man gave each slave the amount of money he knew the slave could take care of. Then he went on his journey. [16]The slave who had received five bags of gold went at once and put his money to work. He earned five bags more. [17]The one with the two bags of gold earned two more. [18]But the man who had received one bag went and dug a hole in the ground. He hid his master’s money in it.

[19]“After a long time the master of those slaves returned. He wanted to collect all the money they had earned. [20]The man who had received five bags of gold brought the other five. ‘Master,’ he said, ‘you trusted me with five bags of gold. See, I have earned five more.’

[21]“His master replied, ‘You have done well, good and faithful slave! You have been faithful with a few things. I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master’s happiness!’

[22]“The man with two bags of gold also came. ‘Master,’ he said, ‘you trusted me with two bags of gold. See, I have earned two more.’

[24]“Then the man who had received one bag of gold came. ‘Master,’ he said, ‘I knew that you are a hard man. You harvest where you have not planted. You gather crops where you have not scattered seed. [25]So I was afraid. I went out and hid your gold in the ground. See, here is what belongs to you.’

[26]“His master replied, ‘You evil, lazy slave! So you knew that I harvest where I have not planted? You knew that I gather crops where I have not scattered seed? [27]Well then, you should have put my money in the bank. When I returned, I would have received it back with interest.’

[28]“Then his master commanded the other slaves, ‘Take the bag of gold from him. Give it to the one who has ten bags. [29]Everyone who has will be given more. They will have more than enough. And what about anyone who doesn’t have? Even what they have will be taken away from them. [30]Throw that worthless slave outside. There in the darkness, people will weep and grind their teeth.’

The Sheep and the Goats

[31]“The Son of Man will come in all his glory. All the angels will come with him. Then he will sit in glory on his throne. [32]All the nations will be gathered in front of him. He will separate the people into two groups. He will be like a shepherd who separates the sheep from the goats. [33]He will put the sheep to his right and the goats to his left.

[34]“Then the King will speak to those on his right. He will say, ‘My Father has blessed you. Come and take what is yours. It is the kingdom prepared for you since the world was created. [35]I was hungry. And you gave me something to eat. I was thirsty. And you gave me something to drink. I was a stranger. And you invited me in. [36]I needed clothes. And you gave them to me. I was sick. And you took care of me. I was in prison. And you came to visit me.’

[37]“Then the people who have done what is right will answer him. ‘Lord,’ they will ask, ‘when did we see you hungry and feed you? When did we see you thirsty and give you something to drink? [38]When did we see you as a stranger and invite you in? When did we see you needing clothes and give them to you? [39]When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?’

[40]“The King will reply, ‘What I’m about to tell you is true. Anything you did for one of the least important of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.’

[41]“Then he will say to those on his left, ‘You are cursed! Go away from me into the fire that burns forever. It has been prepared for the devil and his angels. [42]I was hungry. But you gave me nothing to eat. I was thirsty. But you gave me nothing to drink. [43]I was a stranger. But you did not invite me in. I needed clothes. But you did not give me any. I was sick and in prison. But you did not take care of me.’

[44]“They also will answer, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty and not help you? When did we see you as a stranger or needing clothes or sick or in prison and not help you?’

[45]“He will reply, ‘What I’m about to tell you is true. Anything you didn’t do for one of the least important of these, you didn’t do for me.’

[46]“Then they will go away to be punished forever. But those who have done what is right will receive eternal life.”

Matthew 26

The Plan to Kill Jesus

[1]Jesus finished saying all these things. Then he said to his disciples, [2]"As you know, the Passover Feast is two days away. The Son of Man will be handed over to be nailed to a cross."

[3]Then the chief priests met with the elders of the people. They met in the palace of Caiaphas, the high priest. [4]They made plans to arrest Jesus secretly. They wanted to kill him. [5]"But not during the feast," they said. "The people may stir up trouble."

A Woman Pours Perfume on Jesus

[6]Jesus was in Bethany. He was in the home of Simon, who had a skin disease. [7]A woman came to Jesus with a special sealed jar of very expensive perfume. She poured the perfume on his head while he was at the table.

[8]When the disciples saw this, they became angry. "Why this waste?" they asked. [9]"The perfume could have been sold at a high price. The money could have been given to poor people."

[10]Jesus was aware of this. So he said to them, "Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a beautiful thing to me. [11]You will always have poor people with you. But you will not always have me. [12]She poured the perfume on my body to prepare me to be buried. [13]What I'm about to tell you is true. What she has done will be told anywhere this good news is preached all over the world. It will be told in memory of her."

Judas Agrees to Hand Jesus Over

[14]One of the 12 disciples went to the chief priests. His name was Judas Iscariot. [15]He asked, "What will you give me if I hand Jesus over to you?" So they counted out 30 silver coins for him. [16]From then on, Judas watched for the right time to hand Jesus over to them.

The Lord's Supper

[17]It was the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread. The disciples came to Jesus. They asked, “Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover meal?”

18He replied, “Go into the city to a certain man. Tell him, ‘The Teacher says, “My time is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover at your house with my disciples.” ’ ” 19So the disciples did what Jesus had told them to do. They prepared the Passover meal.

20When evening came, Jesus was at the table with his 12 disciples. 21While they were eating, he said, “What I’m about to tell you is true. One of you will hand me over to my enemies.”

22The disciples became very sad. One after the other, they began to say to him, “Surely you don’t mean me, Lord, do you?”

23Jesus replied, “The one who has dipped his hand into the bowl with me will hand me over. 24The Son of Man will go just as it is written about him. But how terrible it will be for the one who hands over the Son of Man! It would be better for him if he had not been born.”

25Judas was the one who was going to hand him over. He said, “Surely you don’t mean me, Teacher, do you?”

Jesus answered, “You have said so.”

26While they were eating, Jesus took bread. He gave thanks and broke it. He handed it to his disciples and said, “Take this and eat it. This is my body.”

27Then he took a cup. He gave thanks and handed it to them. He said, “All of you drink from it. 28This is my blood of the covenant. It is poured out to forgive the sins of many people. 29Here is what I tell you. From now on, I won’t drink wine with you again until the day I drink it with you in my Father’s kingdom.”

30Then they sang a hymn and went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Says That the Disciples Will Turn Away

31Jesus told them, “This very night you will all turn away because of me. It is written that the Lord said,

> “ ‘I will strike the shepherd down.
> Then the sheep of the flock will be scattered.’ (Zechariah 13:7)

32But after I rise from the dead, I will go ahead of you into Galilee.”

33Peter replied, “All the others may turn away because of you. But I never will.”

34“What I’m about to tell you is true,” Jesus answered. “It will happen tonight.
Before the rooster crows, you will say three times that you don’t know me.”
35But Peter said, “I may have to die with you. But I will never say I don’t know you.” And all the other disciples said the same thing.

Jesus Prays in Gethsemane

36Then Jesus went with his disciples to a place called Gethsemane. He said to them, “Sit here while I go over there and pray.” 37He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee along with him. He began to be sad and troubled. 38Then he said to them, “My soul is very sad. I feel close to death. Stay here. Keep watch with me.”
39He went a little farther. Then he fell with his face to the ground. He prayed, “My Father, if it is possible, take this cup of suffering away from me. But let what you want be done, not what I want.”
40Then he returned to his disciples and found them sleeping. “Couldn’t you men keep watch with me for one hour?” he asked Peter. 41“Watch and pray. Then you won’t fall into sin when you are tempted. The spirit is willing, but the body is weak.”
42Jesus went away a second time. He prayed, “My Father, is it possible for this cup to be taken away? But if I must drink it, may what you want be done.” 43Then he came back. Again he found them sleeping. They couldn’t keep their eyes open. 44So he left them and went away once more. For the third time he prayed the same thing.
45Then he returned to the disciples. He said to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? Look! The hour has come. The Son of Man is about to be handed over to sinners. 46Get up! Let us go! Here comes the one who is handing me over to them!”

Jesus Is Arrested

47While Jesus was still speaking, Judas arrived. He was one of the 12 disciples. A large crowd was with him. They were carrying swords and clubs.
The chief priests and the elders of the people had sent them. 48Judas, who was going to hand Jesus over, had arranged a signal with them. “The one I kiss is the man,” he said. “Arrest him.” 49So Judas went to Jesus at once. He said, “Greetings, Rabbi!” And he kissed him.

50Jesus replied, “Friend, do what you came to do.”

Then the men stepped forward. They grabbed Jesus and arrested him. 51At that moment, one of Jesus’ companions reached for his sword. He pulled it out and struck the slave of the high priest with it. He cut off the slave’s ear.

52“Put your sword back in its place,” Jesus said to him. “All who use the sword will die by the sword. 53Do you think I can’t ask my Father for help? He would send an army of more than 70,000 angels right away. 54But then how would the Scriptures come true? They say it must happen in this way.”

55At that time Jesus spoke to the crowd. “Am I leading a band of armed men against you?” he asked. “Do you have to come out with swords and clubs to capture me? Every day I sat in the temple courtyard teaching. And you didn’t arrest me. 56But all this has happened so that the words of the prophets would come true.” Then all the disciples left him and ran away.

Jesus Is Taken to the Sanhedrin

57Those who had arrested Jesus took him to Caiaphas, the high priest. The teachers of the law and the elders had come together there. 58Not too far away, Peter followed Jesus. He went right up to the courtyard of the high priest. He entered and sat down with the guards to see what would happen.

59The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for something to use against Jesus. They wanted to put him to death. 60But they did not find any proof, even though many false witnesses came forward.

Finally, two other witnesses came forward. 61They said, “This fellow claimed, ‘I am able to destroy the temple of God. I can build it again in three days.’ ”

62Then the high priest stood up. He asked Jesus, “Aren’t you going to answer? What are these charges that these men are bringing against you?” 63But Jesus remained silent.

The high priest said to him, “I am commanding you in the name of the living God. May he judge you if you don’t tell the truth. Tell us if you are the Messiah, the Son of God.”

64“You have said so,” Jesus replied. “But here is what I say to all of you. From now on, you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Mighty One. You will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven.”

65Then the high priest tore his clothes. He said, “He has spoken a very evil thing against God! Why do we need any more witnesses? You have heard him say this evil thing. 66What do you think?”

“He must die!” they answered.

67Then they spit in his face. They hit him with their fists. Others slapped him.
68They said, “Prophesy to us, Messiah! Who hit you?”

Peter Says He Does Not Know Jesus

69Peter was sitting out in the courtyard. A female servant came to him. “You also were with Jesus of Galilee,” she said.

70But in front of all of them, Peter said he was not. “I don’t know what you’re talking about,” he said.

71Then he went out to the gate leading into the courtyard. There another servant saw him. She said to the people, “This fellow was with Jesus of Nazareth.”

72Again he said he was not. With a curse he said, “I don’t know the man!”

73After a little while, those standing there went up to Peter. “You must be one of them,” they said. “The way you talk gives you away.”

74Then Peter began to curse and said to them, “I don’t know the man!”

Right away a rooster crowed. 75Then Peter remembered what Jesus had said. “The rooster will crow,” Jesus had told him. “Before it does, you will say three times that you don’t know me.” Peter went outside. He broke down and cried.

Matthew 27

Judas Hangs Himself

[1]It was early in the morning. All the chief priests and the elders of the people planned how to put Jesus to death. [2]So they tied him up and led him away. Then they handed him over to Pilate, who was the governor.

[3]Judas, who had handed him over, saw that Jesus had been sentenced to die.
He felt deep shame and sadness for what he had done. So he returned the 30 silver coins to the chief priests and the elders. [4]"I have sinned," he said. "I handed over a man who is not guilty."

"What do we care?" they replied. "That's your problem."

[5]So Judas threw the money into the temple and left. Then he went away and hanged himself.

[6]The chief priests picked up the coins. They said, "It's against the law to put this money into the temple fund. It is blood money. It has paid for a man's death." [7]So they decided to use the money to buy a potter's field. People from other countries would be buried there. [8]That is why it has been called the Field of Blood to this day. [9]Then the words spoken by Jeremiah the prophet came true.
He had said, "They took the 30 silver coins. That price was set for him by the people of Israel. [10]They used the coins to buy a potter's field, just as the Lord commanded me." (Zechariah 11:12, 13; Jeremiah 19:1–13; 32:6–9)

Jesus Is Brought to Pilate

[11]Jesus was standing in front of the governor. The governor asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?"

"Yes. You have said so," Jesus replied.

[12]But when the chief priests and the elders brought charges against him, he did not answer. [13]Then Pilate asked him, "Don't you hear the charges they are bringing against you?" [14]But Jesus made no reply, not even to a single charge.
The governor was really amazed.

[15]It was the governor's practice at the Passover Feast to let one prisoner go free. The people could choose the one they wanted. [16]At that time they had a well-known prisoner named Jesus Barabbas. [17]So when the crowd gathered, Pilate asked them, "Which one do you want me to set free? Jesus Barabbas? Or Jesus who is called the Messiah?” [18]Pilate knew that the leaders wanted to get their own way. He knew this was why they had handed Jesus over to him.

[19]While Pilate was sitting on the judge’s seat, his wife sent him a message. It said, “Don’t have anything to do with that man. He is not guilty. I have suffered a great deal in a dream today because of him.”

[20]But the chief priests and the elders talked the crowd into asking for Barabbas and having Jesus put to death.

[21]“Which of the two do you want me to set free?” asked the governor.

“Barabbas,” they answered.

[22]“Then what should I do with Jesus who is called the Messiah?” Pilate asked.

They all answered, “Crucify him!”

[23]“Why? What wrong has he done?” asked Pilate.

But they shouted even louder, “Crucify him!”

[24]Pilate saw that he wasn’t getting anywhere. Instead, the crowd was starting to get angry. So he took water and washed his hands in front of them. “I am not guilty of this man’s death,” he said. “You are accountable for that!”

[25]All the people answered, “Put the blame for his death on us and our children!”

[26]Pilate let Barabbas go free. But he had Jesus whipped. Then he handed him over to be nailed to a cross.

The Soldiers Make Fun of Jesus

[27]The governor’s soldiers took Jesus into the palace, which was called the Praetorium. All the rest of the soldiers gathered around him. [28]They took off his clothes and put a purple robe on him. [29]Then they twisted thorns together to make a crown. They placed it on his head. They put a stick in his right hand. Then they fell on their knees in front of him and made fun of him. “We honor you, king of the Jews!” they said. [30]They spit on him. They hit him on the head with the stick again and again. [31]After they had made fun of him, they took off the robe. They put his own clothes back on him. Then they led him away to nail him to a cross.

Jesus Is Nailed to a Cross

[32]On their way out of the city, they met a man from Cyrene. His name was Simon. They forced him to carry the cross. [33]They came to a place called Golgotha. The word Golgotha means the Place of the Skull. [34]There they mixed wine with bitter spices and gave it to Jesus to drink. After tasting it, he refused to drink it. [35]When they had nailed him to the cross, they divided up his clothes by casting lots. [36]They sat down and kept watch over him there. [37]Above his head they placed the written charge against him. It read,

THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

[38]Two rebels against Rome were crucified with him. One was on his right and one was on his left. [39]Those who passed by shouted at Jesus and made fun of him. They shook their heads [40]and said, "So you are going to destroy the temple and build it again in three days? Then save yourself! Come down from the cross, if you are the Son of God!" [41]In the same way the chief priests, the teachers of the law and the elders made fun of him. [42]"He saved others," they said. "But he can't save himself! He's the king of Israel! Let him come down now from the cross! Then we will believe in him. [43]He trusts in God. Let God rescue him now if he wants him. He's the one who said, 'I am the Son of God.' " [44]In the same way the rebels who were being crucified with Jesus also made fun of him.

Jesus Dies

[45]From noon until three o'clock, the whole land was covered with darkness. [46]About three o'clock, Jesus cried out in a loud voice. He said, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" This means "My God, my God, why have you deserted me?" (Psalm 22:1)

[47]Some of those standing there heard Jesus cry out. They said, "He's calling for Elijah."

[48]Right away one of them ran and got a sponge. He filled it with wine vinegar and put it on a stick. He offered it to Jesus to drink. [49]The rest said, "Leave him alone. Let's see if Elijah comes to save him."

[50]After Jesus cried out again in a loud voice, he died.

[51]At that moment the temple curtain was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth shook. The rocks split. [52]Tombs broke open. The bodies of many holy people who had died were raised to life. [53]They came out of the tombs. After Jesus was raised from the dead, they went into the holy city. There they appeared to many people.

[54]The Roman commander and those guarding Jesus saw the earthquake and all that had happened. They were terrified. They exclaimed, “He was surely the Son of God!”

55Not very far away, many women were watching. They had followed Jesus from Galilee to take care of his needs. 56Mary Magdalene was among them. Mary, the mother of James and Joseph, was also there. So was the mother of Zebedee’s sons.

Jesus Is Buried

57As evening approached, a rich man came from the town of Arimathea. His name was Joseph. He had become a follower of Jesus. 58He went to Pilate and asked for Jesus’ body. Pilate ordered that it be given to him. 59Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth. 60He placed it in his own new tomb that he had cut out of the rock. He rolled a big stone in front of the entrance to the tomb. Then he went away. 61Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were sitting there across from the tomb.

The Guards at the Tomb

62The next day was the day after Preparation Day. The chief priests and the Pharisees went to Pilate. 63“Sir,” they said, “we remember something that liar said while he was still alive. He claimed, ‘After three days I will rise again.’ 64So give the order to make the tomb secure until the third day. If you don’t, his disciples might come and steal the body. Then they will tell the people that Jesus has been raised from the dead. This last lie will be worse than the first.”

65“Take some guards with you,” Pilate answered. “Go. Make the tomb as secure as you can.” 66So they went and made the tomb secure. They put a royal seal on the stone and placed some guards on duty.

Matthew 28

Jesus Rises From the Dead

[1]The Sabbath day was now over. It was dawn on the first day of the week.
Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb.
[2]There was a powerful earthquake. An angel of the Lord came down from heaven. The angel went to the tomb. He rolled back the stone and sat on it. [3]His body shone like lightning. His clothes were as white as snow. [4]The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men.
[5]The angel said to the women, “Don’t be afraid. I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. [6]He is not here! He has risen, just as he said he would! Come and see the place where he was lying. [7]Go quickly! Tell his disciples, ‘He has risen from the dead. He is going ahead of you into Galilee.
There you will see him.’ Now I have told you.”
[8]So the women hurried away from the tomb. They were afraid, but they were filled with joy. They ran to tell the disciples. [9]Suddenly Jesus met them.
“Greetings!” he said. They came to him, took hold of his feet and worshiped him. [10]Then Jesus said to them, “Don’t be afraid. Go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee. There they will see me.”

The Guards Report to the Chief Priests

[11]While the women were on their way, some of the guards went into the city.
They reported to the chief priests all that had happened. [12]When the chief priests met with the elders, they came up with a plan. They gave the soldiers a large amount of money. [13]They told the soldiers, “We want you to say, ‘His disciples came during the night. They stole his body while we were sleeping.’ [14]If the governor hears this report, we will pay him off. That will keep you out of trouble.” [15]So the soldiers took the money and did as they were told. This story has spread all around among the Jews to this day.

Jesus’ Final Orders to His Disciples

[16]Then the 11 disciples went to Galilee. They went to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go. [17]When they saw him, they worshiped him. But some still had their doubts. [18]Then Jesus came to them. He said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. [19]So you must go and make disciples of all nations. Baptize them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. [20]Teach them to obey everything I have commanded you. And you can be sure that I am always with you, to the very end.”

Mark

Mark 1

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

[1]This is the beginning of the good news about Jesus the Messiah, the Son of God. [2]Long ago Isaiah the prophet wrote,

> "I will send my messenger ahead of you.
> He will prepare your way." (Malachi 3:1)
> [3]"A messenger is calling out in the desert,
> 'Prepare the way for the Lord.
> Make straight paths for him.' " (Isaiah 40:3)

[4]And so John the Baptist appeared in the desert. He preached that people should be baptized and turn away from their sins. Then God would forgive them. [5]All the people from the countryside of Judea went out to him. All the people from Jerusalem went too. When they admitted they had sinned, John baptized them in the Jordan River. [6]John wore clothes made out of camel's hair. He had a leather belt around his waist. And he ate locusts and wild honey. [7]Here is what John was preaching. "After me, there is someone coming who is more powerful than I am. I'm not good enough to bend down and untie his sandals. [8]I baptize you with water. But he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

Jesus Is Baptized and Tempted

[9]At that time Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee. John baptized Jesus in the Jordan River. [10]Jesus was coming up out of the water. Just then he saw heaven being torn open. Jesus saw the Holy Spirit coming down on him like a dove. [11]A voice spoke to him from heaven. It said, "You are my Son, and I love you. I am very pleased with you."

[12]At once the Holy Spirit sent Jesus out into the desert. [13]He was in the desert 40 days. There Satan tempted him. The wild animals didn't harm Jesus. Angels took care of him.

Jesus Preaches the Good News

14 After John was put in prison, Jesus went into Galilee. He preached the good news of God. 15 "The time has come," he said. "The kingdom of God has come near. Turn away from your sins and believe the good news!"

Jesus Chooses His First Disciples

16 One day Jesus was walking beside the Sea of Galilee. There he saw Simon and his brother Andrew. They were throwing a net into the lake. They were fishermen. 17 "Come and follow me," Jesus said. "I will send you out to fish for people." 18 At once they left their nets and followed him.

19 Then Jesus walked a little farther. As he did, he saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They were in a boat preparing their nets. 20 Right away he called out to them. They left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men. Then they followed Jesus.

Jesus Drives Out an Evil Spirit

21 Jesus and those with him went to Capernaum. When the Sabbath day came, he went into the synagogue. There he began to teach. 22 The people were amazed at his teaching. That's because he taught them like one who had authority. He did not talk like the teachers of the law. 23 Just then a man in their synagogue cried out. He was controlled by an evil spirit. He said, 24 "What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are. You are the Holy One of God!"

25 "Be quiet!" said Jesus firmly. "Come out of him!" 26 The evil spirit shook the man wildly. Then it came out of him with a scream.

27 All the people were amazed. So they asked each other, "What is this? A new teaching! And with so much authority! He even gives orders to evil spirits, and they obey him." 28 News about Jesus spread quickly all over Galilee.

Jesus Heals Many People

29 Jesus and those with him left the synagogue. Right away they went with James and John to the home of Simon and Andrew. 30 Simon's mother-in-law was lying in bed with a fever. They told Jesus about her right away. 31 So he went to her. He took her hand and helped her up. The fever left her. Then she began to serve them.

32That evening after sunset, the people brought to Jesus all who were sick. They also brought all who were controlled by demons. 33All the people in town gathered at the door. 34Jesus healed many of them. They had all kinds of sicknesses. He also drove out many demons. But he would not let the demons speak, because they knew who he was.

Jesus Prays in a Quiet Place

35It was very early in the morning and still dark. Jesus got up and left the house. He went to a place where he could be alone. There he prayed. 36Simon and his friends went to look for Jesus. 37When they found him, they called out, "Everyone is looking for you!"

38Jesus replied, "Let's go somewhere else. I want to go to the nearby towns. I must preach there also. That is why I have come." 39So he traveled all around Galilee. He preached in their synagogues. He also drove out demons.

Jesus Heals a Man Who Had a Skin Disease

40A man who had a skin disease came to Jesus. On his knees he begged Jesus. He said, "If you are willing to make me 'clean,' you can do it."

41Jesus became angry. He reached out his hand and touched the man. "I am willing to do it," Jesus said. "Be 'clean'!" 42Right away the disease left the man, and he was "clean."

43Jesus sent him away at once. He gave the man a strong warning. 44"Don't tell this to anyone," he said. "Go and show yourself to the priest. Offer the sacrifices that Moses commanded. It will be a witness to the priest and the people that you are 'clean.' " 45But the man went out and started talking right away. He spread the news to everyone. So Jesus could no longer enter a town openly. He stayed outside in lonely places. But people still came to him from everywhere.

Mark 2

Jesus Forgives and Heals a Man Who Could Not Walk

[1]A few days later, Jesus entered Capernaum again. The people heard that he had come home. [2]So many people gathered that there was no room left. There was not even room outside the door. And Jesus preached the word to them. [3]Four of those who came were carrying a man who could not walk. [4]But they could not get him close to Jesus because of the crowd. So they made a hole by digging through the roof above Jesus. Then they lowered the man through it on a mat. [5]Jesus saw their faith. So he said to the man, “Son, your sins are forgiven.”

[6]Some teachers of the law were sitting there. They were thinking, [7]“Why is this fellow talking like that? He’s saying a very evil thing! Only God can forgive sins!”

[8]Right away Jesus knew what they were thinking. So he said to them, “Why are you thinking these things? [9]Is it easier to say to this man, ‘Your sins are forgiven’? Or to say, ‘Get up, take your mat and walk’? [10]But I want you to know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins.” So Jesus spoke to the man who could not walk. [11]“I tell you,” he said, “get up. Take your mat and go home.” [12]The man got up and took his mat. Then he walked away while everyone watched. All the people were amazed. They praised God and said, “We have never seen anything like this!”

Jesus Chooses Levi and Eats With Sinners

[13]Once again Jesus went out beside the Sea of Galilee. A large crowd came to him. He began to teach them. [14]As he walked along he saw Levi, the son of Alphaeus. Levi was sitting at the tax collector’s booth. “Follow me,” Jesus told him. Levi got up and followed him.

[15]Later Jesus was having dinner at Levi’s house. Many tax collectors and sinners were eating with him and his disciples. They were part of the large crowd following Jesus. [16]Some teachers of the law who were Pharisees were there. They saw Jesus eating with sinners and tax collectors. So they asked his disciples, “Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

[17]Jesus heard that. So he said to them, “Those who are healthy don’t need a doctor. Sick people do. I have not come to get those who think they are right with God to follow me. I have come to get sinners to follow me."

Jesus Is Asked About Fasting

[18]John's disciples and the Pharisees were going without eating. Some people came to Jesus. They said to him, "John's disciples are fasting. The disciples of the Pharisees are also fasting. But your disciples are not. Why aren't they?"

[19]Jesus answered, "How can the guests of the groom go without eating while he is with them? They will not fast as long as he is with them. [20]But the time will come when the groom will be taken away from them. On that day they will go without eating.

[21]"No one sews a patch of new cloth on old clothes. Otherwise, the new piece will pull away from the old. That will make the tear worse. [22]No one pours new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the wine will burst the skins. Then the wine and the wineskins will both be destroyed. No, people pour new wine into new wineskins."

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath Day

[23]One Sabbath day Jesus was walking with his disciples through the grainfields. The disciples began to break off some heads of grain. [24]The Pharisees said to Jesus, "Look! It is against the Law to do this on the Sabbath day. Why are your disciples doing it?"

[25]He answered, "Haven't you ever read about what David did? He and his men were hungry. They needed food. [26]It was when Abiathar was high priest. David entered the house of God and ate the holy bread. Only priests were allowed to eat it. David also gave some to his men."

[27]Then Jesus said to them, "The Sabbath day was made for man. Man was not made for the Sabbath day. [28]So the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath day."

Mark 3

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath Day

[1]Another time Jesus went into the synagogue. A man with a weak and twisted hand was there. [2]Some Pharisees were trying to find fault with Jesus. They watched him closely. They wanted to see if he would heal the man on the Sabbath day. [3]Jesus spoke to the man with the weak and twisted hand. “Stand up in front of everyone,” he said.

[4]Then Jesus asked them, “What does the Law say we should do on the Sabbath day? Should we do good? Or should we do evil? Should we save life?
Or should we kill?” But no one answered.

[5]Jesus looked around at them in anger. He was very upset because their hearts were stubborn. Then he said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out, and his hand had become as good as new. [6]Then the Pharisees went out and began to make plans with the Herodians. They wanted to kill Jesus.

Crowds Follow Jesus

[7]Jesus went off to the Sea of Galilee with his disciples. A large crowd from Galilee followed. [8]People heard about all that Jesus was doing. And many came to him. They came from Judea, Jerusalem and Idumea. They came from the lands east of the Jordan River. And they came from the area around Tyre and Sidon. [9]Because of the crowd, Jesus told his disciples to get a small boat ready for him. This would keep the people from crowding him. [10]Jesus had healed many people. So those who were sick were pushing forward to touch him.
[11]When people controlled by evil spirits saw him, they fell down in front of him.
The spirits shouted, “You are the Son of God!” [12]But Jesus ordered them not to tell people about him.

Jesus Appoints the Twelve Disciples

[13]Jesus went up on a mountainside. He called for certain people to come to him, and they came. [14]He appointed 12 of them so that they would be with him.
He would also send them out to preach. [15]And he gave them authority to drive out demons. [16]So Jesus appointed the 12 disciples. Simon was one of them.

Jesus gave him the name Peter. [17]There were James, son of Zebedee, and his brother John. Jesus gave them the name Boanerges. Boanerges means Sons of Thunder. [18]There were also Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, and James, son of Alphaeus. And there were Thaddaeus and Simon the Zealot. [19]Judas Iscariot was one of them too. He was the one who was later going to hand Jesus over to his enemies.

Jesus Is Accused by Teachers of the Law

[20]Jesus entered a house. Again a crowd gathered. It was so large that Jesus and his disciples were not even able to eat. [21]His family heard about this. So they went to take charge of him. They said, “He is out of his mind.”

[22]Some teachers of the law were there. They had come down from Jerusalem. They said, “He is controlled by Beelzebul! He is driving out demons by the power of the prince of demons.”

[23]So Jesus called them over to him. He began to speak to them using stories. He said, “How can Satan drive out Satan? [24]If a kingdom fights against itself, it can’t stand. [25]If a family is divided, it can’t stand. [26]And if Satan fights against himself, and his helpers are divided, he can’t stand. That is the end of him. [27]In fact, none of you can enter a strong man’s house unless you tie him up first. Then you can steal things from his house. [28]What I’m about to tell you is true. Everyone’s sins and evil words against God will be forgiven. [29]But whoever speaks evil things against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven. Their guilt will last forever.”

[30]Jesus said this because the teachers of the law were saying, “He has an evil spirit.”

Jesus’ Mother and Brothers

[31]Jesus’ mother and brothers came and stood outside. They sent someone in to get him. [32]A crowd was sitting around Jesus. They told him, “Your mother and your brothers are outside. They are looking for you.”

[33]“Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?” he asked.

[34]Then Jesus looked at the people sitting in a circle around him. He said, “Here is my mother! Here are my brothers! [35]Anyone who does what God wants is my brother or sister or mother.”

Mark 4

The Story of the Farmer

1 Again Jesus began to teach by the Sea of Galilee. The crowd that gathered around him was very large. So he got into a boat. He sat down in it out on the lake. All the people were along the shore at the water's edge. 2 He taught them many things using stories. In his teaching he said, 3 "Listen! A farmer went out to plant his seed. 4 He scattered the seed on the ground. Some fell on a path. Birds came and ate it up. 5 Some seed fell on rocky places, where there wasn't much soil. The plants came up quickly, because the soil wasn't deep. 6 When the sun came up, it burned the plants. They dried up because they had no roots. 7 Other seed fell among thorns. The thorns grew up and crowded out the plants. So the plants did not bear grain. 8 Still other seed fell on good soil. It grew up and produced a crop 30, 60, or even 100 times more than the farmer planted."

9 Then Jesus said, "Whoever has ears should listen."

10 Later Jesus was alone. The 12 disciples asked him about the stories. So did the others around him. 11 He told them, "The secret of God's kingdom has been given to you. But to outsiders everything is told using stories. 12 In that way,

> " 'They will see but never know what they are seeing.
> They will hear but never understand.
> Otherwise they might turn and be forgiven!' " (Isaiah 6:9, 10)

13 Then Jesus said to them, "Don't you understand this story? Then how will you understand any stories of this kind? 14 The seed the farmer plants is God's message. 15 What is seed scattered on a path like? The message is planted. The people hear the message. Then Satan comes. He takes away the message that was planted in them. 16 And what is seed scattered on rocky places like? The people hear the message. At once they receive it with joy. 17 But they have no roots. So they last only a short time. They quickly fall away from the faith when trouble or suffering comes because of the message. 18 And what is seed scattered among thorns like? The people hear the message. 19 But then the worries of this life come to them. Wealth comes with its false promises. The people also long for other things. All of these are the kinds of things that crowd out the message.
They keep it from producing fruit. 20 And what is seed scattered on good soil like? The people hear the message. They accept it. They produce a good crop 30, 60, or even 100 times more than the farmer planted."

A Lamp on a Stand

[21]Jesus said to them, "Do you bring in a lamp to put it under a large bowl or a bed? Don't you put it on its stand? [22]What is hidden is meant to be seen. And what is put out of sight is meant to be brought out into the open. [23]Whoever has ears should listen."

[24]"Think carefully about what you hear," he said. "As you give, so you will receive. In fact, you will receive even more. [25]Whoever has something will be given more. Whoever has nothing, even what they have will be taken away from them."

The Story of the Growing Seed

[26]Jesus also said, "Here is what God's kingdom is like. A farmer scatters seed on the ground. [27]Night and day the seed comes up and grows. It happens whether the farmer sleeps or gets up. He doesn't know how it happens. [28]All by itself the soil produces grain. First the stalk comes up. Then the head appears. Finally, the full grain appears in the head. [29]Before long the grain ripens. So the farmer cuts it down, because the harvest is ready."

The Story of the Mustard Seed

[30]Again Jesus said, "What can we say God's kingdom is like? What story can we use to explain it? [31]It is like a mustard seed, which is the smallest of all seeds on earth. [32]But when you plant the seed, it grows. It becomes the largest of all garden plants. Its branches are so big that birds can rest in its shade."

[33]Using many stories like these, Jesus spoke the word to them. He told them as much as they could understand. [34]He did not say anything to them without using a story. But when he was alone with his disciples, he explained everything.

Jesus Calms the Storm

[35]When evening came, Jesus said to his disciples, "Let's go over to the other side of the lake." [36]They left the crowd behind. And they took him along in a boat, just as he was. There were also other boats with him. [37]A wild storm came up. Waves crashed over the boat. It was about to sink. [38]Jesus was in the back, sleeping on a cushion. The disciples woke him up. They said, “Teacher! Don’t you care if we drown?”

[39]He got up and ordered the wind to stop. He said to the waves, “Quiet! Be still!” Then the wind died down. And it was completely calm.

[40]He said to his disciples, “Why are you so afraid? Don’t you have any faith at all yet?”

[41]They were terrified. They asked each other, “Who is this? Even the wind and the waves obey him!”

Mark 5

Jesus Heals a Man Controlled by Demons

[1]They went across the Sea of Galilee to the area of the Gerasenes. [2]Jesus got out of the boat. A man controlled by an evil spirit came from the tombs to meet him. [3]The man lived in the tombs. No one could keep him tied up anymore. Not even a chain could hold him. [4]His hands and feet had often been chained. But he tore the chains apart. And he broke the iron cuffs on his ankles. No one was strong enough to control him. [5]Night and day he screamed among the tombs and in the hills. He cut himself with stones.

[6]When he saw Jesus a long way off, he ran to him. He fell on his knees in front of him. [7]He shouted at the top of his voice, “Jesus, Son of the Most High God, what do you want with me? Swear to God that you won’t hurt me!” [8]This was because Jesus had said to him, “Come out of this man, you evil spirit!”

[9]Then Jesus asked the demon, “What is your name?”

“My name is Legion,” he replied. “There are many of us.” [10]And he begged Jesus again and again not to send them out of the area.

[11]A large herd of pigs was feeding on the nearby hillside. [12]The demons begged Jesus, “Send us among the pigs. Let us go into them.” [13]Jesus allowed it. The evil spirits came out of the man and went into the pigs. There were about 2,000 pigs in the herd. The whole herd rushed down the steep bank. They ran into the lake and drowned.

[14]Those who were tending the pigs ran off. They told the people in the town and countryside what had happened. The people went out to see for themselves. [15]Then they came to Jesus. They saw the man who had been controlled by many demons. He was sitting there. He was now dressed and thinking clearly. All this made the people afraid. [16]Those who had seen it told them what had happened to the man. They told about the pigs as well. [17]Then the people began to beg Jesus to leave their area.

[18]Jesus was getting into the boat. The man who had been controlled by demons begged to go with him. [19]Jesus did not let him. He said, “Go home to your own people. Tell them how much the Lord has done for you. Tell them how kind he has been to you.” [20]So the man went away. In the area known as the Ten Cities, he began to tell how much Jesus had done for him. And all the people were amazed.

Jesus Heals a Dead Girl and a Suffering Woman

[21]Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee in a boat. It landed at the other side. There a large crowd gathered around him. [22]Then a man named Jairus came. He was a synagogue leader. When he saw Jesus, he fell at his feet. [23]He begged Jesus, “Please come. My little daughter is dying. Place your hands on her to heal her. Then she will live.” [24]So Jesus went with him.

A large group of people followed. They crowded around him. [25]A woman was there who had a sickness that made her bleed. It had lasted for 12 years. [26]She had suffered a great deal, even though she had gone to many doctors. She had spent all the money she had. But she was getting worse, not better. [27]Then she heard about Jesus. She came up behind him in the crowd and touched his clothes. [28]She thought, “I just need to touch his clothes. Then I will be healed.” [29]Right away her bleeding stopped. She felt in her body that her suffering was over.

[30]At once Jesus knew that power had gone out from him. He turned around in the crowd. He asked, “Who touched my clothes?”

[31]“You see the people,” his disciples answered. “They are crowding against you. And you still ask, ‘Who touched me?’ ”

[32]But Jesus kept looking around. He wanted to see who had touched him. [33]Then the woman came and fell at his feet. She knew what had happened to her. She was shaking with fear. But she told him the whole truth. [34]He said to her, “Dear woman, your faith has healed you. Go in peace. You are free from your suffering.”

[35]While Jesus was still speaking, some people came from the house of Jairus. He was the synagogue leader. “Your daughter is dead,” they said. “Why bother the teacher anymore?”

[36]Jesus heard what they were saying. He told the synagogue leader, “Don’t be afraid. Just believe.”

[37]He let only Peter, James, and John, the brother of James, follow him. [38]They came to the home of the synagogue leader. There Jesus saw a lot of confusion. People were crying and sobbing loudly. [39]He went inside. Then he said to them, “Why all this confusion and sobbing? The child is not dead. She is only sleeping.” [40]But they laughed at him.

He made them all go outside. He took only the child’s father and mother and the disciples who were with him. And he went in where the child was. [41]He took her by the hand. Then he said to her, “Talitha koum!” This means, “Little girl, I say to you, get up!” [42]The girl was 12 years old. Right away she stood up and began to walk around. They were totally amazed at this. [43]Jesus gave strict orders not to let anyone know what had happened. And he told them to give her something to eat.

Mark 6

A Prophet Without Honor

[1]Jesus left there and went to his hometown of Nazareth. His disciples went with him. [2]When the Sabbath day came, he began to teach in the synagogue. Many who heard him were amazed.

"Where did this man get these things?" they asked. "What's this wisdom that has been given to him? What are these remarkable miracles he is doing? [3]Isn't this the carpenter? Isn't this Mary's son? Isn't this the brother of James, Joseph, Judas and Simon? Aren't his sisters here with us?" They were not pleased with him at all.

[4]Jesus said to them, "A prophet is honored everywhere except in his own town. He doesn't receive any honor among his relatives or in his own home." [5]Jesus placed his hands on a few sick people and healed them. But he could not do any other miracles there. [6]He was amazed because they had no faith.

Jesus Sends Out the Twelve Disciples

Jesus went around teaching from village to village. [7]He called the 12 disciples to him. Then he began to send them out two by two. He gave them authority to drive out evil spirits.

[8]Here is what he told them to do. "Take only a walking stick for your trip. Do not take bread or a bag. Take no money in your belts. [9]Wear sandals. But do not take extra clothes. [10]When you are invited into a house, stay there until you leave town. [11]Some places may not welcome you or listen to you. If they don't, leave that place and shake the dust off your feet. That will be a witness against the people living there."

[12]They went out. And they preached that people should turn away from their sins. [13]They drove out many demons. They poured olive oil on many sick people and healed them.

John the Baptist's Head Is Cut Off

[14]King Herod heard about this. Jesus' name had become well known. Some were saying, "John the Baptist has been raised from the dead! That is why he has the power to do miracles."

15 Others said, “He is Elijah.”

Still others claimed, “He is a prophet. He is like one of the prophets of long ago.”

16 But when Herod heard this, he said, “I had John’s head cut off. And now he has been raised from the dead!”

17 In fact, it was Herod himself who had given orders to arrest John. He had him tied up and put in prison. He did this because of Herodias. She was the wife of Herod’s brother Philip. But now Herod was married to her. 18 John had been saying to Herod, “It is against the Law for you to be married to your brother’s wife.” 19 Herodias couldn’t forgive John for saying that. She wanted to kill him. But she could not, 20 because Herod was afraid of John. So he kept John safe. Herod knew John was a holy man who did what was right. When Herod heard him, he was very puzzled. But he liked to listen to John.

21 Finally the right time came. Herod gave a banquet on his birthday. He invited his high officials and military leaders. He also invited the most important men in Galilee. 22 Then the daughter of Herodias came in and danced. She pleased Herod and his dinner guests.

The king said to the girl, “Ask me for anything you want. I’ll give it to you.” 23 And he gave her his promise. He said to her, “Anything you ask for I will give you. I’ll give you up to half my kingdom.”

24 She went out and said to her mother, “What should I ask for?”

“The head of John the Baptist,” she answered.

25 At once the girl hurried to ask the king. She said, “I want you to give me the head of John the Baptist on a big plate right now.”

26 The king was very upset. But he thought about his promise and his dinner guests. So he did not want to say no to the girl. 27 He sent a man right away to bring John’s head. The man went to the prison and cut off John’s head. 28 He brought it back on a big plate. He gave it to the girl, and she gave it to her mother. 29 John’s disciples heard about this. So they came and took his body. Then they placed it in a tomb.

Jesus Feeds Five Thousand

30 The apostles gathered around Jesus. They told him all they had done and taught. 31 But many people were coming and going. So they did not even have a chance to eat. Then Jesus said to his apostles, “Come with me by yourselves to a quiet place. You need to get some rest.”

[32]So they went away by themselves in a boat to a quiet place. [33]But many people who saw them leaving recognized them. They ran from all the towns and got there ahead of them. [34]When Jesus came ashore, he saw a large crowd. He felt deep concern for them. They were like sheep without a shepherd. So he began teaching them many things.

[35]By that time it was late in the day. His disciples came to him. “There is nothing here,” they said. “It’s already very late. [36]Send the people away. Then they can go to the nearby countryside and villages to buy something to eat.”

[37]But Jesus answered, “You give them something to eat.”

They said to him, “That would take more than half a year’s pay! Should we go and spend that much on bread? Are we supposed to feed them?”

[38]“How many loaves do you have?” Jesus asked. “Go and see.”

When they found out, they said, “Five loaves and two fish.”

[39]Then Jesus directed them to have all the people sit down in groups on the green grass. [40]So they sat down in groups of 100s and 50s. [41]Jesus took the five loaves and the two fish. He looked up to heaven and gave thanks. He broke the loaves into pieces. Then he gave them to his disciples to pass around to the people. He also divided the two fish among them all. [42]All of them ate and were satisfied. [43]The disciples picked up 12 baskets of broken pieces of bread and fish. [44]The number of men who had eaten was 5,000.

Jesus Walks on the Water

[45]Right away Jesus made his disciples get into the boat. He had them go on ahead of him to Bethsaida. Then he sent the crowd away. [46]After leaving them, he went up on a mountainside to pray.

[47]Later that night, the boat was in the middle of the Sea of Galilee. Jesus was alone on land. [48]He saw the disciples pulling hard on the oars. The wind was blowing against them. Shortly before dawn, he went out to them. He walked on the lake. When he was about to pass by them, [49]they saw him walking on the lake. They thought he was a ghost, so they cried out. [50]They all saw him and were terrified.

Right away Jesus said to them, “Be brave! It is I. Don’t be afraid.” [51]Then he climbed into the boat with them. The wind died down. And they were completely amazed. [52]They had not understood about the loaves. They were stubborn.

[53]They went across the lake and landed at Gennesaret. There they tied up the boat. [54]As soon as Jesus and his disciples got out, people recognized him. [55]They ran through that whole area to bring to him those who were sick. They carried them on mats to where they heard he was. [56]He went into the villages, the towns and the countryside. Everywhere he went, the people brought the sick to the market areas. Those who were sick begged him to let them touch just the edge of his clothes. And all who touched his clothes were healed.

Mark 7

What Makes People "Unclean"?

[1]The Pharisees gathered around Jesus. So did some of the teachers of the law. All of them had come from Jerusalem. [2]They saw some of his disciples eating food with "unclean" hands. That means they were not washed. [3]The Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash their hands to make them "clean." That's what the elders teach. [4]When they come from the market, they do not eat unless they wash. And they follow many other teachings. For example, they wash cups, pitchers, and kettles in a special way.

[5]So the Pharisees and the teachers of the law questioned Jesus. "Why don't your disciples live by what the elders teach?" they asked. "Why do they eat their food with 'unclean' hands?"

[6]He replied, "Isaiah was right. He prophesied about you people who pretend to be good. He said,

> " 'These people honor me by what they say.
> But their hearts are far away from me.
> [7]Their worship doesn't mean anything to me.
> They teach nothing but human rules.' (Isaiah 29:13)

[8]You have let go of God's commands. And you are holding on to teachings that people have made up."

[9]Jesus continued speaking, "You have a fine way of setting aside God's commands! You do this so you can follow your own teachings. [10]Moses said, 'Honor your father and mother.' (Exodus 20:12; Deuteronomy 5:16) He also said, 'Anyone who asks for bad things to happen to their father or mother must be put to death.' (Exodus 21:17; Leviticus 20:9) [11]But you allow people to say that what might have been used to help their parents is Corban. Corban means A Gift Set Apart for God. [12]So you no longer let them do anything for their parents. [13]You make the word of God useless by putting your own teachings in its place. And you do many things like this."

[14]Again Jesus called the crowd to him. He said, "Listen to me, everyone. Understand this. [15-16]Nothing outside of a person can make them 'unclean' by going into them. It is what comes out of them that makes them 'unclean.' "

17 Then he left the crowd and entered the house. His disciples asked him about this teaching. 18 "Don't you understand?" Jesus asked. "Don't you see? Nothing that enters a person from the outside can make them 'unclean.' 19 It doesn't go into their heart. It goes into their stomach. Then it goes out of the body." In saying this, Jesus was calling all foods "clean."

20 He went on to say, "What comes out of a person is what makes them 'unclean.' 21 Evil thoughts come from the inside, from a person's heart. So do sexual sins, stealing and murder. 22 Adultery, greed, hate and cheating come from a person's heart too. So do desires that are not pure, and wanting what belongs to others. And so do telling lies about others and being proud and being foolish.
23 All these evil things come from inside a person and make them 'unclean.' "

Jesus Honors a Greek Woman's Faith

24 Jesus went from there to a place near Tyre. He entered a house. He did not want anyone to know where he was. But he could not keep it a secret. 25 Soon a woman heard about him. An evil spirit controlled her little daughter. The woman came to Jesus and fell at his feet. 26 She was a Greek, born in Syrian Phoenicia.
She begged Jesus to drive the demon out of her daughter.

27 "First let the children eat all they want," he told her. "It is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."

28 "Lord," she replied, "even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs."

29 Then he told her, "That was a good reply. You may go. The demon has left your daughter."

30 So she went home and found her child lying on the bed. And the demon was gone.

Jesus Heals a Man Who Could Not Hear or Speak

31 Then Jesus left the area of Tyre and went through Sidon. He went down to the Sea of Galilee and into the area known as the Ten Cities. 32 There some people brought a man to Jesus. The man was deaf and could hardly speak. They begged Jesus to place his hand on the man.

33 Jesus took the man to one side, away from the crowd. He put his fingers into the man's ears. Then he spit and touched the man's tongue. 34 Jesus looked up to heaven. With a deep sigh, he said to the man, "Ephphatha!" That means "Be opened!” [35]The man’s ears were opened. His tongue was freed up, and he began to speak clearly.

[36]Jesus ordered the people not to tell anyone. But the more he did so, the more they kept talking about it. [37]People were really amazed. “He has done everything well,” they said. “He even makes deaf people able to hear. And he makes those who can’t speak able to talk.”

Mark 8

Jesus Feeds the Four Thousand

[1]During those days another large crowd gathered. They had nothing to eat. So Jesus called for his disciples to come to him. He said, [2]"I feel deep concern for these people. They have already been with me three days. They don't have anything to eat. [3]If I send them away hungry, they will become too weak on their way home. Some of them have come from far away."

[4]His disciples answered him. "There is nothing here," they said. "Where can anyone get enough bread to feed them?"

[5]"How many loaves do you have?" Jesus asked.

"Seven," they replied.

[6]He told the crowd to sit down on the ground. He took the seven loaves and gave thanks to God. Then he broke them and gave them to his disciples. They passed the pieces of bread around to the people. [7]The disciples also had a few small fish. Jesus gave thanks for them too. He told the disciples to pass them around. [8]The people ate and were satisfied. After that, the disciples picked up seven baskets of leftover pieces. [9]About 4,000 people were there. After Jesus sent them away, [10]he got into a boat with his disciples. He went to the area of Dalmanutha.

[11]The Pharisees came and began to ask Jesus questions. They wanted to test him. So they asked him for a sign from heaven. [12]He sighed deeply. He said, "Why do you people ask for a sign? What I'm about to tell you is true. No sign will be given to you." [13]Then he left them. He got back into the boat and crossed to the other side of the lake.

The Yeast of the Pharisees and Herod

[14]The disciples had forgotten to bring bread. They had only one loaf with them in the boat. [15]"Be careful," Jesus warned them. "Watch out for the yeast of the Pharisees. And watch out for the yeast of Herod."

[16]They talked about this with each other. They said, "He must be saying this because we don't have any bread."

[17]Jesus knew what they were saying. So he asked them, "Why are you talking about having no bread? Why can't you see or understand? Are you stubborn?

[18]Do you have eyes and still don’t see? Do you have ears and still don’t hear? And don’t you remember? [19]Earlier I broke five loaves for the 5,000. How many baskets of pieces did you pick up?”

“Twelve,” they replied.

[20]“Later I broke seven loaves for the 4,000. How many baskets of pieces did you pick up?”

“Seven,” they answered.

[21]He said to them, “Can’t you understand yet?”

Jesus Heals a Blind Man at Bethsaida

[22]Jesus and his disciples came to Bethsaida. Some people brought a blind man to him. They begged Jesus to touch him. [23]He took the blind man by the hand. Then he led him outside the village. He spit on the man’s eyes and placed his hands on him. “Do you see anything?” Jesus asked.

[24]The man looked up. He said, “I see people. They look like trees walking around.”

[25]Once more Jesus put his hands on the man’s eyes. Then his eyes were opened so that he could see again. He saw everything clearly. [26]Jesus sent him home. He told him, “Don’t even go into the village.”

Peter Says That Jesus Is the Messiah

[27]Jesus and his disciples went on to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way he asked them, “Who do people say I am?”

[28]They replied, “Some say John the Baptist. Others say Elijah. Still others say one of the prophets.”

[29]“But what about you?” he asked. “Who do you say I am?”

Peter answered, “You are the Messiah.”

[30]Jesus warned them not to tell anyone about him.

Jesus Tells About His Coming Death

[31]Jesus then began to teach his disciples. He taught them that the Son of Man must suffer many things. He taught them that the elders would not accept him. The chief priests and the teachers of the law would not accept him either. He must be killed and after three days rise again. [32]He spoke clearly about this. Peter took Jesus to one side and began to scold him.

[33]Jesus turned and looked at his disciples. He scolded Peter. “Get behind me, Satan!” he said. “You are not thinking about the things God cares about. Instead, you are thinking only about the things humans care about.”

You Must Pick Up Your Cross

[34]Jesus called the crowd to him along with his disciples. He said, “Whoever wants to be my disciple must say no to themselves. They must pick up their cross and follow me. [35]Whoever wants to save their life will lose it. But whoever loses their life for me and for the good news will save it. [36]What good is it if someone gains the whole world but loses their soul? [37]Or what can anyone trade for their soul? [38]Suppose anyone is ashamed of me and my words among these adulterous and sinful people. Then the Son of Man will be ashamed of them when he comes in his Father’s glory with the holy angels.”

Mark 9

[1]Jesus said to them, “What I’m about to tell you is true. Some who are standing here will not die before they see that God’s kingdom has come with power.”

Jesus’ Appearance Is Changed

[2]After six days Jesus took Peter, James and John with him. He led them up a high mountain. They were all alone. There in front of them his appearance was changed. [3]His clothes became so white they shone. They were whiter than anyone in the world could bleach them. [4]Elijah and Moses appeared in front of Jesus and his disciples. The two of them were talking with Jesus.

[5]Peter said to Jesus, “Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters. One will be for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” [6]Peter didn’t really know what to say, because they were so afraid.

[7]Then a cloud appeared and covered them. A voice came from the cloud. It said, “This is my Son, and I love him. Listen to him!”

[8]They looked around. Suddenly they no longer saw anyone with them except Jesus.

[9]They came down the mountain. On the way down, Jesus ordered them not to tell anyone what they had seen. He told them to wait until the Son of Man had risen from the dead. [10]So they kept the matter to themselves. But they asked each other what “rising from the dead” meant.

[11]Then they asked Jesus, “Why do the teachers of the law say that Elijah has to come first?”

[12]Jesus replied, “That’s right. Elijah does come first. He makes all things new again. So why is it written that the Son of Man must suffer much and not be accepted? [13]I tell you, Elijah has come. They have done to him everything they wanted to do. They did it just as it is written about him.”

Jesus Heals a Boy Who Is Controlled by an Evil Spirit

[14]When Jesus and those who were with him came to the other disciples, they saw a large crowd around them. The teachers of the law were arguing with them. [15]When all the people saw Jesus, they were filled with wonder. And they ran to greet him.

16"What are you arguing with them about?" Jesus asked.

17A man in the crowd answered. "Teacher," he said, "I brought you my son. He is controlled by an evil spirit. Because of this, my son can't speak anymore. 18When the spirit takes hold of him, it throws him to the ground. He foams at the mouth. He grinds his teeth. And his body becomes stiff. I asked your disciples to drive out the spirit. But they couldn't do it."

19"You unbelieving people!" Jesus replied. "How long do I have to stay with you? How long do I have to put up with you? Bring the boy to me."

20So they brought him. As soon as the spirit saw Jesus, it threw the boy into a fit. He fell to the ground. He rolled around and foamed at the mouth.

21Jesus asked the boy's father, "How long has he been like this?"

"Since he was a child," he answered. 22"The spirit has often thrown him into fire or water to kill him. But if you can do anything, take pity on us. Please help us."

23" 'If you can'?" said Jesus. "Everything is possible for the one who believes."

24Right away the boy's father cried out, "I do believe! Help me overcome my unbelief!"

25Jesus saw that a crowd was running over to see what was happening. Then he ordered the evil spirit to leave the boy. "You spirit that makes him unable to hear and speak!" he said. "I command you, come out of him. Never enter him again."

26The spirit screamed. It shook the boy wildly. Then it came out of him. The boy looked so lifeless that many people said, "He's dead." 27But Jesus took him by the hand. He lifted the boy to his feet, and the boy stood up.

28Jesus went indoors. Then his disciples asked him in private, "Why couldn't we drive out the evil spirit?"

29He replied, "This kind can come out only by prayer."

Jesus Speaks a Second Time About His Coming Death

30They left that place and passed through Galilee. Jesus did not want anyone to know where they were. 31That was because he was teaching his disciples. He said to them, "The Son of Man is going to be handed over to men. They will kill him. After three days he will rise from the dead." 32But they didn't understand what he meant. And they were afraid to ask him about it.

Who Is the Most Important Person?

[33]Jesus and his disciples came to a house in Capernaum. There he asked them, “What were you arguing about on the road?” [34]But they kept quiet. On the way, they had argued about which one of them was the most important person.

[35]Jesus sat down and called for the 12 disciples to come to him. Then he said, “Anyone who wants to be first must be the very last. They must be the servant of everyone.”

[36]Jesus took a little child and had the child stand among them. Then he took the child in his arms. He said to them, [37]“Anyone who welcomes one of these little children in my name welcomes me. And anyone who welcomes me also welcomes the one who sent me.”

Anyone Who Is Not Against Us Is for Us

[38]“Teacher,” said John, “we saw someone driving out demons in your name.
We told him to stop, because he was not one of us.”

[39]“Do not stop him,” Jesus said. “For no one who does a miracle in my name can in the next moment say anything bad about me. [40]Anyone who is not against us is for us. [41]What I’m about to tell you is true. Suppose someone gives you a cup of water in my name because you belong to the Messiah. That person will certainly not go without a reward.

Leading People to Sin

[42]“What if someone leads one of these little ones who believe in me to sin? If they do, it would be better if a large millstone were hung around their neck and they were thrown into the sea. [43-44]If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It would be better for you to enter God’s kingdom with only one hand than to go into hell with two hands. In hell the fire never goes out. [45-46]If your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It would be better to enter God’s kingdom with only one foot than to have two feet and be thrown into hell. [47]If your eye causes you to sin, poke it out. It would be better for you to enter God’s kingdom with only one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell. [48]In hell,

> “ ‘The worms that eat them do not die.
> The fire is not put out.’ (Isaiah 66:24)

[49]Everyone will be salted with fire.

[50]“Salt is good. But suppose it loses its saltiness. How can you make it salty again? Have salt among yourselves. And be at peace with each other.”

Mark 10

Jesus Teaches About Divorce

1 Jesus left that place and went into the area of Judea and across the Jordan River. Again crowds of people came to him. As usual, he taught them.
2 Some Pharisees came to test Jesus. They asked, “Does the Law allow a man to divorce his wife?”
3 “What did Moses command you?” he replied.
4 They said, “Moses allowed a man to write a letter of divorce and send her away.”
5 “You were stubborn. That’s why Moses wrote you this law,” Jesus replied.
6 “But at the beginning of creation, God ‘made them male and female.’ (Genesis 1:27)
7 ‘That’s why a man will leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife. 8 The two of them will become one.’ (Genesis 2:24) They are no longer two, but one. 9 So no one should separate what God has joined together.”
10 When they were in the house again, the disciples asked Jesus about this.
11 He answered, “What if a man divorces his wife and gets married to another woman? He commits adultery against her. 12 And what if she divorces her husband and gets married to another man? She commits adultery.”

Little Children Are Brought to Jesus

13 People were bringing little children to Jesus. They wanted him to place his hands on them to bless them. But the disciples told them to stop. 14 When Jesus saw this, he was angry. He said to his disciples, “Let the little children come to me. Don’t keep them away. God’s kingdom belongs to people like them. 15 What I’m about to tell you is true. Anyone who will not receive God’s kingdom like a little child will never enter it.” 16 Then he took the children in his arms. He placed his hands on them to bless them.

Rich People and the Kingdom of God

17 As Jesus started on his way, a man ran up to him. He fell on his knees before Jesus. “Good teacher,” he said, “what must I do to receive eternal life?”
18 “Why do you call me good?” Jesus answered. “No one is good except God.

[19]You know what the commandments say. ‘Do not murder. Do not commit adultery. Do not steal. Do not be a false witness. Do not cheat. Honor your father and mother.’ ” (Exodus 20:12–16; Deuteronomy 5:16–20)

[20]“Teacher,” he said, “I have obeyed all those commandments since I was a boy.”

[21]Jesus looked at him and loved him. “You are missing one thing,” he said. “Go and sell everything you have. Give the money to those who are poor. You will have treasure in heaven. Then come and follow me.”

[22]The man’s face fell. He went away sad, because he was very rich.

[23]Jesus looked around. He said to his disciples, “How hard it is for rich people to enter God’s kingdom!”

[24]The disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said again, “Children, how hard it is to enter God’s kingdom! [25]Is it hard for a camel to go through the eye of a needle? It is even harder for someone who is rich to enter God’s kingdom!”

[26]The disciples were even more amazed. They said to each other, “Then who can be saved?”

[27]Jesus looked at them and said, “With people, this is impossible. But not with God. All things are possible with God.”

[28]Then Peter spoke up, “We have left everything to follow you!”

[29]“What I’m about to tell you is true,” Jesus replied. “Has anyone left home or family or fields for me and the good news? [30]They will receive 100 times as much in this world. They will have homes and families and fields. But they will also be treated badly by others. In the world to come they will live forever. [31]But many who are first will be last. And the last will be first.”

Jesus Speaks a Third Time About His Coming Death

[32]They were on their way up to Jerusalem. Jesus was leading the way. The disciples were amazed. Those who followed were afraid. Again Jesus took the 12 disciples to one side. He told them what was going to happen to him. [33]“We are going up to Jerusalem,” he said. “The Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the teachers of the law. They will sentence him to death. Then they will hand him over to the Gentiles. [34]They will make fun of him and spit on him. They will whip him and kill him. Three days later he will rise from the dead!”

James and John Ask Jesus for a Favor

35James and John came to Jesus. They were the sons of Zebedee. “Teacher,” they said, “we would like to ask you for a favor.”

36“What do you want me to do for you?” he asked.

37They replied, “Let one of us sit at your right hand in your glorious kingdom. Let the other one sit at your left hand.”

38“You don’t know what you’re asking for,” Jesus said. “Can you drink the cup of suffering I drink? Or can you go through the baptism of suffering I must go through?”

39“We can,” they answered.

Jesus said to them, “You will drink the cup I drink. And you will go through the baptism I go through. 40But it is not for me to say who will sit at my right or left hand. These places belong to those they are prepared for.”

41The other ten disciples heard about it. They became angry at James and John. 42Jesus called them together. He said, “You know about those who are rulers of the Gentiles. They hold power over their people. Their high officials order them around. 43Don’t be like that. Instead, anyone who wants to be important among you must be your servant. 44And anyone who wants to be first must be the slave of everyone. 45Even the Son of Man did not come to be served. Instead, he came to serve others. He came to give his life as the price for setting many people free.”

Blind Bartimaeus Receives His Sight

46Jesus and his disciples came to Jericho. They were leaving the city. A large crowd was with them. A blind man was sitting by the side of the road begging. His name was Bartimaeus. Bartimaeus means Son of Timaeus. 47He heard that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. So he began to shout, “Jesus! Son of David! Have mercy on me!”

48Many people commanded him to stop. They told him to be quiet. But he shouted even louder, “Son of David! Have mercy on me!”

49Jesus stopped and said, “Call for him.”

So they called out to the blind man, “Cheer up! Get up on your feet! Jesus is calling for you.” 50He threw his coat to one side. Then he jumped to his feet and came to Jesus.

51“What do you want me to do for you?” Jesus asked him.

The blind man said, “Rabbi, I want to be able to see.”

52“Go,” said Jesus. “Your faith has healed you.” Right away he could see. And he followed Jesus along the road.

Mark 11

Jesus Comes to Jerusalem as King

[1]As they all approached Jerusalem, they came to Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives. Jesus sent out two of his disciples. [2]He said to them, “Go to the village ahead of you. Just as you enter it, you will find a donkey’s colt tied there. No one has ever ridden it. Untie it and bring it here. [3]Someone may ask you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ If so, say, ‘The Lord needs it. But he will send it back here soon.’ ”

[4]So they left. They found a colt out in the street. It was tied at a doorway.
They untied it. [5]Some people standing there asked, “What are you doing? Why are you untying that colt?” [6]They answered as Jesus had told them to. So the people let them go. [7]They brought the colt to Jesus. They threw their coats over it. Then he sat on it. [8]Many people spread their coats on the road. Others spread branches they had cut in the fields. [9]Those in front and those in back shouted, > “Hosanna!”

>
> “Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!” (Psalm 118:25, 26)
>
> [10]“Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!”
>
> “Hosanna in the highest heaven!”

[11]Jesus entered Jerusalem and went into the temple courtyard. He looked around at everything. But it was already late. So he went out to Bethany with the 12 disciples.

Jesus Curses a Fig Tree and Clears Out the Temple Courtyard

[12]The next day as Jesus and his disciples were leaving Bethany, they were hungry. [13]Not too far away, he saw a fig tree. It was covered with leaves. He went to find out if it had any fruit. When he reached it, he found nothing but leaves. It was not the season for figs. [14]Then Jesus said to the tree, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again!” And his disciples heard him say it.

15When Jesus reached Jerusalem, he entered the temple courtyard. He began to drive out those who were buying and selling there. He turned over the tables of the people who were exchanging money. He also turned over the benches of those who were selling doves. 16He would not allow anyone to carry items for sale through the temple courtyard. 17Then he taught them. He told them, “It is written that the Lord said, ‘My house will be called a house where people from all nations can pray.’ (Isaiah 56:7) But you have made it a ‘den for robbers.’ ”
(Jeremiah 7:11)

18The chief priests and the teachers of the law heard about this. They began looking for a way to kill Jesus. They were afraid of him, because the whole crowd was amazed at his teaching.

19When evening came, Jesus and his disciples left the city.

The Dried-Up Fig Tree

20In the morning as Jesus and his disciples walked along, they saw the fig tree.
It was dried up all the way down to the roots. 21Peter remembered. He said to Jesus, “Rabbi, look! The fig tree you put a curse on has dried up!”

22“Have faith in God,” Jesus said. 23“What I’m about to tell you is true.
Suppose someone says to this mountain, ‘Go and throw yourself into the sea.’
They must not doubt in their heart. They must believe that what they say will happen. Then it will be done for them. 24So I tell you, when you pray for something, believe that you have already received it. Then it will be yours. 25-26And when you stand praying, forgive anyone you have anything against. Then your Father in heaven will forgive your sins.”

The Authority of Jesus Is Questioned

27Jesus and his disciples arrived again in Jerusalem. He was walking in the temple courtyard. Then the chief priests came to him. The teachers of the law and the elders came too. 28“By what authority are you doing these things?” they asked. “Who gave you authority to do this?”

29Jesus replied, “I will ask you one question. Answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. 30Was John’s baptism from heaven?
Or did it come from human authority? Tell me!”

31They talked to each other about it. They said, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will ask, ‘Then why didn’t you believe him?’ 32But what if we say, ‘From human authority’?” They were afraid of the people. Everyone believed that John really was a prophet.

33So they answered Jesus, “We don’t know.”

Jesus said, “Then I won’t tell you by what authority I am doing these things either.”

Mark 12

The Story of the Renters

[1]Jesus began to speak to the people using stories. He said, “A man planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it. He dug a pit for a winepress. He also built a lookout tower. He rented the vineyard out to some farmers. Then he went to another place. [2]At harvest time he sent a servant to the renters. He told the servant to collect from them some of the fruit of the vineyard. [3]But they grabbed the servant and beat him up. Then they sent him away with nothing. [4]So the man sent another servant to the renters. They hit this one on the head and treated him badly. [5]The man sent still another servant. The renters killed him. The man sent many others. The renters beat up some of them. They killed the others.

[6]“The man had one person left to send. It was his son, and he loved him. He sent him last of all. He said, ‘They will respect my son.’

[7]“But the renters said to each other, ‘This is the one who will receive all the owner’s property someday. Come, let’s kill him. Then everything will be ours.’ [8]So they took him and killed him. They threw him out of the vineyard.

[9]“What will the owner of the vineyard do then? He will come and kill those renters. He will give the vineyard to others. [10]Haven’t you read what this part of Scripture says,

> “ ‘The stone the builders didn’t accept
> has become the most important stone of all.
> [11]The Lord has done it.
> It is wonderful in our eyes’?” (Psalm 118:22, 23)

[12]Then the chief priests, the teachers of the law and the elders looked for a way to arrest Jesus. They knew he had told the story against them. But they were afraid of the crowd. So they left him and went away.

Is It Right to Pay the Royal Tax to Caesar?

[13]Later the religious leaders sent some of the Pharisees and Herodians to Jesus. They wanted to trap him with his own words. [14]They came to him and said, “Teacher, we know that you are a man of honor. You don’t let other people tell you what to do or say. You don’t care how important they are. But you teach the way of God truthfully. Is it right to pay the royal tax to Caesar or not? [15]Should we pay or shouldn't we?"

But Jesus knew what they were trying to do. So he asked, "Why are you trying to trap me? Bring me a silver coin. Let me look at it." [16]They brought the coin. He asked them, "Whose picture is this? And whose words?"

"Caesar's," they replied.

[17]Then Jesus said to them, "Give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar. And give back to God what belongs to God."

They were amazed at him.

Marriage When the Dead Rise

[18]The Sadducees came to Jesus with a question. They do not believe that people rise from the dead. [19]"Teacher," they said, "Moses wrote for us about a man who died and didn't have any children. But he did leave a wife behind. That man's brother must get married to the widow. He must provide children to carry on his dead brother's name. [20]There were seven brothers. The first one got married. He died without leaving any children. [21]The second one got married to the widow. He also died and left no child. It was the same with the third one. [22]In fact, none of the seven left any children. Last of all, the woman died too. [23]When the dead rise, whose wife will she be? All seven of them were married to her."

[24]Jesus replied, "You are mistaken because you do not know the Scriptures. And you do not know the power of God. [25]When the dead rise, they won't get married. And their parents won't give them to be married. They will be like the angels in heaven. [26]What about the dead rising? Haven't you read in the Book of Moses the story of the burning bush? God said to Moses, 'I am the God of Abraham. I am the God of Isaac. And I am the God of Jacob.' (Exodus 3:6) [27]He is not the God of the dead. He is the God of the living. You have made a big mistake!"

The Most Important Commandment

[28]One of the teachers of the law came and heard the Sadducees arguing. He noticed that Jesus had given the Sadducees a good answer. So he asked him, "Which is the most important of all the commandments?"

[29]Jesus answered, "Here is the most important one. Moses said, 'Israel, listen to me. The Lord is our God. The Lord is one. [30]Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. Love him with all your mind and with all your strength.' (Deuteronomy 6:4, 5) [31]And here is the second one. 'Love your neighbor as you love yourself.' (Leviticus 19:18) There is no commandment more important than these."

[32]"You have spoken well, teacher," the man replied. "You are right in saying that God is one. There is no other God but him. [33]To love God with all your heart and mind and strength is very important. So is loving your neighbor as you love yourself. These things are more important than all burnt offerings and sacrifices."

[34]Jesus saw that the man had answered wisely. He said to him, "You are not far from God's kingdom." From then on, no one dared to ask Jesus any more questions.

Whose Son Is the Messiah?

[35]Jesus was teaching in the temple courtyard. He asked, "Why do the teachers of the law say that the Messiah is the son of David? [36]The Holy Spirit spoke through David himself. David said,

> " 'The Lord said to my Lord,
> "Sit at my right hand
> until I put your enemies
> under your control." ' (Psalm 110:1)

[37]David himself calls him 'Lord.' So how can he be David's son?"
The large crowd listened to Jesus with delight.

Warning Against the Teachers of the Law

[38]As he taught, he said, "Watch out for the teachers of the law. They like to walk around in long robes. They like to be greeted with respect in the market. [39]They love to have the most important seats in the synagogues. They also love to have the places of honor at dinners. [40]They take over the houses of widows. They say long prayers to show off. God will punish these men very much."

The Widow's Offering

[41]Jesus sat down across from the place where people put their temple offerings. He watched the crowd putting their money into the offering boxes. Many rich people threw large amounts into them. [42]But a poor widow came and put in two very small copper coins. They were worth only a few pennies.

[43]Jesus asked his disciples to come to him. He said, “What I’m about to tell you is true. That poor widow has put more into the offering box than all the others. [44]They all gave a lot because they are rich. But she gave even though she is poor. She put in everything she had. That was all she had to live on.”

Mark 13

When the Temple Will Be Destroyed and the Signs of the End

[1]Jesus was leaving the temple. One of his disciples said to him, “Look, Teacher! What huge stones! What wonderful buildings!”

[2]“Do you see these huge buildings?” Jesus asked. “Not one stone here will be left on top of another. Every stone will be thrown down.”

[3]Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, across from the temple. Peter, James, John and Andrew asked him a question in private. [4]“Tell us,” they said. “When will these things happen? And what will be the sign that they are all about to come true?”

[5]Jesus said to them, “Keep watch! Be careful that no one fools you. [6]Many will come in my name. They will claim, ‘I am he.’ They will fool many people. [7]You will hear about wars. You will also hear people talking about future wars. Don’t be alarmed. These things must happen. But the end still isn’t here. [8]Nation will fight against nation. Kingdom will fight against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in many places. People will go hungry. All these things are the beginning of birth pains.

[9]“Watch out! You will be handed over to the local courts. You will be whipped in the synagogues. You will stand in front of governors and kings because of me. In that way you will be witnesses to them. [10]The good news has to be preached to all nations before the end comes. [11]You will be arrested and brought to trial. But don’t worry ahead of time about what you will say. Just say what God brings to your mind at the time. It is not you speaking, but the Holy Spirit.

[12]“Brothers will hand over brothers to be killed. Fathers will hand over their children. Children will rise up against their parents and have them put to death. [13]Everyone will hate you because of me. But the one who remains strong in the faith will be saved.

[14]“You will see ‘the hated thing that destroys.’ (Daniel 9:27; 11:31; 12:11) It will stand where it does not belong. The reader should understand this. Then those who are in Judea should escape to the mountains. [15]No one on the roof should go down into the house to take anything out. [16]No one in the field should go back to get their coat. [17]How awful it will be in those days for pregnant women! How awful for nursing mothers! [18]Pray that this will not happen in winter. [19]Those days will be worse than any others from the time God created the world until now. And there will never be any like them again.

20“If the Lord had not cut the time short, no one would live. But because of God’s chosen people, he has shortened it. 21At that time someone may say to you, ‘Look! Here is the Messiah!’ Or, ‘Look! There he is!’ Do not believe it. 22False messiahs and false prophets will appear. They will do signs and miracles. They will try to fool God’s chosen people if possible. 23Keep watch! I have told you everything ahead of time.

24“So in those days there will be terrible suffering. After that, Scripture says,

> “ ‘The sun will be darkened.
> The moon will not shine.
> 25The stars will fall from the sky.
> The heavenly bodies will be shaken.’ (Isaiah 13:10; 34:4)

26“At that time people will see the Son of Man coming in clouds. He will come with great power and glory. 27He will send his angels. He will gather his chosen people from all four directions. He will bring them from the ends of the earth to the ends of the heavens.

28“Learn a lesson from the fig tree. As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. 29In the same way, when you see these things happening, you know that the end is near. It is right at the door. 30What I’m about to tell you is true. The people living now will certainly not pass away until all those things have happened. 31Heaven and earth will pass away. But my words will never pass away.

The Day and Hour Are Not Known

32“But no one knows about that day or hour. Not even the angels in heaven know. The Son does not know. Only the Father knows. 33Keep watch! Stay awake! You do not know when that time will come. 34It’s like a man going away. He leaves his house and puts his servants in charge. Each one is given a task to do. He tells the one at the door to keep watch.

35“So keep watch! You do not know when the owner of the house will come back. It may be in the evening or at midnight. It may be when the rooster crows or at dawn. 36He may come suddenly. So do not let him find you sleeping. 37What I say to you, I say to everyone. ‘Watch!’ ”

Mark 14

A Woman Pours Perfume on Jesus at Bethany

[1]The Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread were only two days away. The chief priests and the teachers of the law were plotting to arrest Jesus secretly. They wanted to kill him. [2]"But not during the feast," they said. "The people may stir up trouble."

[3]Jesus was in Bethany. He was at the table in the home of Simon, who had a skin disease. A woman came with a special sealed jar. It contained very expensive perfume made out of pure nard. She broke the jar open and poured the perfume on Jesus' head.

[4]Some of the people there became angry. They said to one another, "Why waste this perfume? [5]It could have been sold for more than a year's pay. The money could have been given to poor people." So they found fault with the woman.

[6]"Leave her alone," Jesus said. "Why are you bothering her? She has done a beautiful thing to me. [7]You will always have poor people with you. You can help them any time you want to. But you will not always have me. [8]She did what she could. She poured perfume on my body to prepare me to be buried. [9]What I'm about to tell you is true. What she has done will be told anywhere the good news is preached all over the world. It will be told in memory of her."

[10]Judas Iscariot was one of the 12 disciples. He went to the chief priests to hand Jesus over to them. [11]They were delighted to hear that he would do this. They promised to give Judas money. So he watched for the right time to hand Jesus over to them.

The Last Supper

[12]It was the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread. That was the time to sacrifice the Passover lamb. Jesus' disciples asked him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the Passover meal?"

[13]So he sent out two of his disciples. He told them, "Go into the city. A man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him. [14]He will enter a house. Say to its owner, 'The Teacher asks, "Where is my guest room? Where can I eat the Passover meal with my disciples?" ' [15]He will show you a large upstairs room. It will have furniture and will be ready. Prepare for us to eat there."

16The disciples left and went into the city. They found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover meal.

17When evening came, Jesus arrived with the 12 disciples. 18While they were at the table eating, Jesus said, "What I'm about to tell you is true. One of you who is eating with me will hand me over to my enemies."

19The disciples became sad. One by one they said to him, "Surely you don't mean me?"

20"It is one of you," Jesus replied. "It is the one who dips bread into the bowl with me. 21The Son of Man will go just as it is written about him. But how terrible it will be for the one who hands over the Son of Man! It would be better for him if he had not been born."

22While they were eating, Jesus took bread. He gave thanks and broke it. He handed it to his disciples and said, "Take it. This is my body."

23Then he took a cup. He gave thanks and handed it to them. All of them drank from it.

24"This is my blood of the covenant," he said to them. "It is poured out for many. 25What I'm about to tell you is true. I won't drink wine with you again until the day I drink it in God's kingdom."

26Then they sang a hymn and went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Says That the Disciples Will Turn Away

27"You will all turn away," Jesus told the disciples. "It is written,

> " 'I will strike the shepherd down.
> Then the sheep will be scattered.' (Zechariah 13:7)

28But after I rise from the dead, I will go ahead of you into Galilee."

29Peter said, "All the others may turn away. But I will not."

30"What I'm about to tell you is true," Jesus answered. "It will happen today, in fact tonight. Before the rooster crows twice, you yourself will say three times that you don't know me."

31But Peter would not give in. He said, "I may have to die with you. But I will never say I don't know you." And all the others said the same thing.

Jesus Prays in Gethsemane

[32]Jesus and his disciples went to a place called Gethsemane. Jesus said to them, “Sit here while I pray.” [33]He took Peter, James and John along with him. He began to be very upset and troubled. [34]“My soul is very sad. I feel close to death,” he said to them. “Stay here. Keep watch.”

[35]He went a little farther. Then he fell to the ground. He prayed that, if possible, the hour might pass by him. [36]“Abba, Father” he said, “everything is possible for you. Take this cup of suffering away from me. But let what you want be done, not what I want.”

[37]Then he returned to his disciples and found them sleeping. “Simon,” he said to Peter, “are you asleep? Couldn’t you keep watch for one hour? [38]Watch and pray. Then you won’t fall into sin when you are tempted. The spirit is willing, but the body is weak.”

[39]Once more Jesus went away and prayed the same thing. [40]Then he came back. Again he found them sleeping. They couldn’t keep their eyes open. They did not know what to say to him.

[41]Jesus returned the third time. He said to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? Enough! The hour has come. Look! The Son of Man is about to be handed over to sinners. [42]Get up! Let us go! Here comes the one who is handing me over to them!”

Jesus Is Arrested

[43]Just as Jesus was speaking, Judas appeared. He was one of the 12 disciples. A crowd was with him. They were carrying swords and clubs. The chief priests, the teachers of the law, and the elders had sent them.

[44]Judas, who was going to hand Jesus over, had arranged a signal with them. “The one I kiss is the man,” he said. “Arrest him and have the guards lead him away.” [45]So Judas went to Jesus at once. Judas said, “Rabbi!” And he kissed Jesus. [46]The men grabbed Jesus and arrested him. [47]Then one of those standing nearby pulled his sword out. He struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his ear.

[48]“Am I leading a band of armed men against you?” asked Jesus. “Do you have to come out with swords and clubs to capture me? [49]Every day I was with you. I taught in the temple courtyard, and you didn’t arrest me. But the Scriptures must come true.” [50]Then everyone left him and ran away.

[51]A young man was following Jesus. The man was wearing nothing but a piece of linen cloth. When the crowd grabbed him, [52]he ran away naked. He left his clothing behind.

Jesus Is Taken to the Sanhedrin

[53]The crowd took Jesus to the high priest. All the chief priests, the elders, and the teachers of the law came together. [54]Not too far away, Peter followed Jesus. He went right into the courtyard of the high priest. There he sat with the guards. He warmed himself at the fire.

[55]The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for something to use against Jesus. They wanted to put him to death. But they did not find any proof. [56]Many witnesses lied about him. But their stories did not agree.

[57]Then some of them stood up. Here is what those false witnesses said about him. [58]"We heard him say, 'I will destroy this temple made by human hands. In three days I will build another temple, not made by human hands.' " [59]But what they said did not agree.

[60]Then the high priest stood up in front of them. He asked Jesus, "Aren't you going to answer? What are these charges these men are bringing against you?" [61]But Jesus remained silent. He gave no answer.

Again the high priest asked him, "Are you the Messiah? Are you the Son of the Blessed One?"

[62]"I am," said Jesus. "And you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Mighty One. You will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven."

[63]The high priest tore his clothes. "Why do we need any more witnesses?" he asked. [64]"You have heard him say a very evil thing against God. What do you think?"

They all found him guilty and said he must die. [65]Then some began to spit at him. They blindfolded him. They hit him with their fists. They said, "Prophesy!" And the guards took him and beat him.

Peter Says He Does Not Know Jesus

[66]Peter was below in the courtyard. One of the high priest's female servants came by. [67]When she saw Peter warming himself, she looked closely at him.

"You also were with Jesus, that Nazarene," she said.

[68]But Peter said he had not been with him. "I don't know or understand what you’re talking about,” he said. He went out to the entrance to the courtyard.

69The servant saw him there. She said again to those standing around, “This fellow is one of them.” 70Again he said he was not.

After a little while, those standing nearby said to Peter, “You must be one of them. You are from Galilee.”

71Then Peter began to curse. He said to them, “I don’t know this man you’re talking about!”

72Right away the rooster crowed the second time. Then Peter remembered what Jesus had spoken to him. “The rooster will crow twice,” he had said. “Before it does, you will say three times that you don’t know me.” Peter broke down and cried.

Mark 15

Jesus Is Brought to Pilate

[1]It was very early in the morning. The chief priests, with the elders, the teachers of the law, and the whole Sanhedrin, made their plans. So they tied Jesus up and led him away. Then they handed him over to Pilate.

[2]"Are you the king of the Jews?" asked Pilate.

"You have said so," Jesus replied.

[3]The chief priests brought many charges against him. [4]So Pilate asked him again, "Aren't you going to answer? See how many things they charge you with."

[5]But Jesus still did not reply. Pilate was amazed.

[6]It was the usual practice at the Passover Feast to let one prisoner go free. The people could choose the one they wanted. [7]A man named Barabbas was in prison. He was there with some other people who had fought against the country's rulers. They had committed murder while they were fighting against the rulers. [8]The crowd came up and asked Pilate to do for them what he usually did.

[9]"Do you want me to let the king of the Jews go free?" asked Pilate. [10]He knew that the chief priests had handed Jesus over to him because they wanted to get their own way. [11]But the chief priests stirred up the crowd. So the crowd asked Pilate to let Barabbas go free instead.

[12]"Then what should I do with the one you call the king of the Jews?" Pilate asked them.

[13]"Crucify him!" the crowd shouted.

[14]"Why? What wrong has he done?" asked Pilate.

But they shouted even louder, "Crucify him!"

[15]Pilate wanted to satisfy the crowd. So he let Barabbas go free. He ordered that Jesus be whipped. Then he handed him over to be nailed to a cross.

The Soldiers Make Fun of Jesus

[16]The soldiers led Jesus away into the palace. It was called the Praetorium. They called together the whole company of soldiers. [17]The soldiers put a purple robe on Jesus. Then they twisted thorns together to make a crown. They placed it on his head. [18]They began to call out to him, “We honor you, king of the Jews!” [19]Again and again they hit him on the head with a stick. They spit on him. They fell on their knees and pretended to honor him. [20]After they had made fun of him, they took off the purple robe. They put his own clothes back on him. Then they led him out to nail him to a cross.

Jesus Is Nailed to a Cross

[21]A man named Simon was passing by. He was from Cyrene. He was the father of Alexander and Rufus. Simon was on his way in from the country. The soldiers forced him to carry the cross. [22]They brought Jesus to the place called Golgotha. The word Golgotha means the Place of the Skull. [23]Then they gave him wine mixed with spices. But he did not take it. [24]They nailed him to the cross. Then they divided up his clothes. They cast lots to see what each of them would get.

[25]It was nine o’clock in the morning when they crucified him. [26]They wrote out the charge against him. It read,

THE KING OF THE JEWS.

[27-28]They crucified with him two rebels against Rome. One was on his right and one was on his left. [29]Those who passed by shouted at Jesus and made fun of him. They shook their heads and said, “So you are going to destroy the temple and build it again in three days? [30]Then come down from the cross! Save yourself!” [31]In the same way the chief priests and the teachers of the law made fun of him among themselves. “He saved others,” they said. “But he can’t save himself! [32]Let this Messiah, this king of Israel, come down now from the cross! When we see that, we will believe.” Those who were being crucified with Jesus also made fun of him.

Jesus Dies

[33]At noon, darkness covered the whole land. It lasted three hours. [34]At three o’clock in the afternoon Jesus cried out in a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?” This means “My God, my God, why have you deserted me?” (Psalm 22:1)

[35]Some of those standing nearby heard Jesus cry out. They said, “Listen! He’s calling for Elijah.”

[36]Someone ran and filled a sponge with wine vinegar. He put it on a stick. He offered it to Jesus to drink. “Leave him alone,” he said. “Let’s see if Elijah comes to take him down.”

[37]With a loud cry, Jesus took his last breath.

[38]The temple curtain was torn in two from top to bottom. [39]A Roman commander was standing there in front of Jesus. He saw how Jesus died. Then he said, “This man was surely the Son of God!”

[40]Not very far away, some women were watching. Mary Magdalene was among them. Mary, the mother of the younger James and of Joseph, was also there. So was Salome. [41]In Galilee these women had followed Jesus. They had taken care of his needs. Many other women were also there. They had come up with him to Jerusalem.

Jesus Is Buried

[42]It was the day before the Sabbath. That day was called Preparation Day. As evening approached, [43]Joseph went boldly to Pilate and asked for Jesus’ body. Joseph was from the town of Arimathea. He was a leading member of the Jewish Council. He was waiting for God’s kingdom. [44]Pilate was surprised to hear that Jesus was already dead. So he called for the Roman commander. He asked him if Jesus had already died. [45]The commander said it was true. So Pilate gave the body to Joseph. [46]Then Joseph bought some linen cloth. He took down the body and wrapped it in the linen. He put it in a tomb cut out of rock. Then he rolled a stone against the entrance to the tomb. [47]Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joseph saw where Jesus’ body had been placed.

Mark 16

Jesus Rises From the Dead

[1]The Sabbath day ended. Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices. They were going to use them for Jesus' body. [2]Very early on the first day of the week, they were on their way to the tomb. It was just after sunrise. [3]They asked each other, "Who will roll the stone away from the entrance to the tomb?"

[4]Then they looked up and saw that the stone had been rolled away. The stone was very large. [5]They entered the tomb. As they did, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe. He was sitting on the right side. They were alarmed.

[6]"Don't be alarmed," he said. "You are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. But he has risen! He is not here! See the place where they had put him. [7]Go! Tell his disciples and Peter, 'He is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him. It will be just as he told you.' "

[8]The women were shaking and confused. They went out and ran away from the tomb. They said nothing to anyone, because they were afraid.

[9]Jesus rose from the dead early on the first day of the week. He appeared first to Mary Magdalene. He had driven seven demons out of her. [10]She went and told those who had been with him. She found them crying. They were very sad. [11]They heard that Jesus was alive and that she had seen him. But they did not believe it.

[12]After that, Jesus appeared in a different form to two of them. This happened while they were walking out in the country. [13]The two returned and told the others about it. But the others did not believe them either.

[14]Later Jesus appeared to the 11 disciples as they were eating. He spoke firmly to them because they had no faith. They would not believe those who had seen him after he rose from the dead.

[15]He said to them, "Go into all the world. Preach the good news to everyone. [16]Anyone who believes and is baptized will be saved. But anyone who does not believe will be punished. [17]Here are the miraculous signs that those who believe will do. In my name they will drive out demons. They will speak in languages they had not known before. [18]They will pick up snakes with their hands. And when they drink deadly poison, it will not hurt them at all. They will place their hands on sick people. And the people will get well."

[19]When the Lord Jesus finished speaking to them, he was taken up into heaven. He sat down at the right hand of God. [20]Then the disciples went out and preached everywhere. The Lord worked with them. And he backed up his word by the signs that went with it.

Luke

Luke 1

Luke Writes an Orderly Report

[1]Many people have attempted to write about the things that have taken place among us. [2]Reports of these things were handed down to us. There were people who saw these things for themselves from the beginning. They saw them and then passed the word on. [3]With this in mind, I myself have carefully looked into everything from the beginning. So I also decided to write down an orderly report of exactly what happened. I am doing this for you, most excellent Theophilus. [4]I want you to know that the things you have been taught are true.

The Coming Birth of John the Baptist

[5]Herod was king of Judea. During the time he was ruling, there was a priest named Zechariah. He belonged to a group of priests named after Abijah. His wife Elizabeth also came from the family line of Aaron. [6]Both of them did what was right in the sight of God. They obeyed all the Lord's commands and rules faithfully. [7]But they had no children, because Elizabeth was not able to have any. And they were both very old.

[8]One day Zechariah's group was on duty. He was serving as a priest in God's temple. [9]He happened to be chosen, in the usual way, to go into the temple of the Lord. There he was supposed to burn incense. [10]The time came for this to be done. All who had gathered to worship were praying outside.

[11]Then an angel of the Lord appeared to Zechariah. The angel was standing at the right side of the incense altar. [12]When Zechariah saw him, he was amazed and terrified. [13]But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah. Your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will have a child. It will be a boy, and you must call him John. [14]He will be a joy and delight to you. His birth will make many people very glad. [15]He will be important in the sight of the Lord. He must never drink wine or other such drinks. He will be filled with the Holy Spirit even before he is born. [16]He will bring back many of the people of Israel to the Lord their God. [17]And he will prepare the way for the Lord. He will have the same spirit and power that Elijah had. He will bring peace between parents and their children. He will teach people who don’t obey to be wise and do what is right. In this way, he will prepare a people who are ready for the Lord.”

18Zechariah asked the angel, “How can I be sure of this? I am an old man, and my wife is old too.”

19The angel said to him, “I am Gabriel. I serve God. I have been sent to speak to you and to tell you this good news. 20And now you will have to be silent. You will not be able to speak until after John is born. That’s because you did not believe my words. They will come true at the time God has chosen.”

21During that time, the people were waiting for Zechariah to come out of the temple. They wondered why he stayed there so long. 22When he came out, he could not speak to them. They realized he had seen a vision in the temple. They knew this because he kept gesturing to them. He still could not speak.

23When his time of service was over, he returned home. 24After that, his wife Elizabeth became pregnant. She stayed at home for five months. 25“The Lord has done this for me,” she said. “In these days, he has been kind to me. He has taken away my shame among the people.”

The Coming Birth of Jesus

26In the sixth month after Elizabeth had become pregnant, God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a town in Galilee. 27He was sent to a virgin. The girl was engaged to a man named Joseph. He came from the family line of David. The virgin’s name was Mary. 28The angel greeted her and said, “The Lord has blessed you in a special way. He is with you.”

29Mary was very upset because of his words. She wondered what kind of greeting this could be. 30But the angel said to her, “Do not be afraid, Mary. God is very pleased with you. 31You will become pregnant and give birth to a son. You must call him Jesus. 32He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High God. The Lord God will make him a king like his father David of long ago. 33The Son of the Most High God will rule forever over his people. They are from the family line of Jacob. That kingdom will never end.”

34“How can this happen?” Mary asked the angel. “I am a virgin.”

35The angel answered, “The Holy Spirit will come to you. The power of the Most High God will cover you. So the holy one that is born will be called the Son of God. 36Your relative Elizabeth will have a child even though she is old. People thought she could not have children. But she has been pregnant for six months now. [37]That's because what God says will always come true."

[38]"I serve the Lord," Mary answered. "May it happen to me just as you said it would." Then the angel left her.

Mary Visits Elizabeth

[39]At that time Mary got ready and hurried to a town in Judea's hill country. [40]There she entered Zechariah's home and greeted Elizabeth. [41]When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby inside her jumped. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. [42]In a loud voice she called out, "God has blessed you more than other women. And blessed is the child you will have! [43]But why is God so kind to me? Why has the mother of my Lord come to me? [44]As soon as I heard the sound of your voice, the baby inside me jumped for joy. [45]You are a woman God has blessed. You have believed that the Lord would keep his promises to you!"

Mary's Song

[46]Mary said,

"My soul gives glory to the Lord.
[47]My spirit delights in God my Savior.
[48]He has taken note of me
even though I am not considered important.
From now on all people will call me blessed.
[49]The Mighty One has done great things for me.
His name is holy.
[50]He shows his mercy to those who have respect for him, from parent to child down through the years.
[51]He has done mighty things with his powerful arm.
He has scattered those who are proud in their deepest thoughts.
[52]He has brought down rulers from their thrones.
But he has lifted up people who are not considered important.
[53]He has filled with good things those who are hungry.
But he has sent away empty those who are rich.
[54]He has helped the people of Israel, who serve him.
He has always remembered to be kind

55 to Abraham and his children down through the years.
He has done it just as he promised to our people of long ago.”

56 Mary stayed with Elizabeth about three months. Then she returned home.

John the Baptist Is Born

57 The time came for Elizabeth to have her baby. She gave birth to a son. 58 Her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had been very kind to her. They shared her joy.

59 On the eighth day, they came to have the child circumcised. They were going to name him Zechariah, like his father. 60 But his mother spoke up. “No!” she said. “He must be called John.”

61 They said to her, “No one among your relatives has that name.”

62 Then they motioned to his father. They wanted to find out what he would like to name the child. 63 He asked for something to write on. Then he wrote, “His name is John.” Everyone was amazed. 64 Right away Zechariah could speak again. Right away he praised God. 65 All his neighbors were filled with fear and wonder. Throughout Judea’s hill country, people were talking about all these things. 66 Everyone who heard this wondered about it. And because the Lord was with John, they asked, “What is this child going to be?”

Zechariah’s Song

67 John’s father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit. He prophesied, 68 “Give praise to the Lord, the God of Israel!

He has come to his people and purchased their freedom.
69 He has acted with great power and has saved us.
He did it for those who are from the family line of his servant
David.
70 Long ago holy prophets said he would do it.
71 He has saved us from our enemies.
We are rescued from all who hate us.
72 He has been kind to our people of long ago.
He has remembered his holy covenant.
73 He made a promise to our father Abraham.

[74]He promised to save us from our enemies.
Then we could serve him without fear.
[75]He wants us to be holy and godly as long as we live.

[76]“And you, my child, will be called a prophet of the Most High God.
You will go ahead of the Lord to prepare the way for him.
[77]You will tell his people how they can be saved.
You will tell them that their sins can be forgiven.
[78]All of that will happen because our God is tender and caring.
His kindness will bring the rising sun to us from heaven.
[79]It will shine on those living in darkness and in the shadow of death.
It will guide our feet on the path of peace.”

[80]The child grew up, and his spirit became strong. He lived in the desert until he appeared openly to Israel.

Luke 2

Jesus Is Born

[1]In those days, Caesar Augustus made a law. It required that a list be made of everyone in the whole Roman world. [2]It was the first time a list was made of the people while Quirinius was governor of Syria. [3]Everyone went to their own town to be listed.

[4]So Joseph went also. He went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea. That is where Bethlehem, the town of David, was. Joseph went there because he belonged to the family line of David. [5]He went there with Mary to be listed. Mary was engaged to him. She was expecting a baby. [6]While Joseph and Mary were there, the time came for the child to be born. [7]She gave birth to her first baby. It was a boy. She wrapped him in large strips of cloth. Then she placed him in a manger. That's because there was no guest room where they could stay.

[8]There were shepherds living out in the fields nearby. It was night, and they were taking care of their sheep. [9]An angel of the Lord appeared to them. And the glory of the Lord shone around them. They were terrified. [10]But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news. It will bring great joy for all the people. [11]Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you. He is the Messiah, the Lord. [12]Here is how you will know I am telling you the truth. You will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth and lying in a manger."

[13]Suddenly a large group of angels from heaven also appeared. They were praising God. They said, > [14]"May glory be given to God in the highest heaven!

> And may peace be given to those he is pleased with on earth!"

[15]The angels left and went into heaven. Then the shepherds said to one another, "Let's go to Bethlehem. Let's see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about."

[16]So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph and the baby. The baby was lying in the manger. [17]After the shepherds had seen him, they told everyone. They reported what the angel had said about this child. [18]All who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. [19]But Mary kept all these things like a secret treasure in her heart. She thought about them over and over. [20]The shepherds returned. They gave glory and praise to God. Everything they had seen and heard was just as they had been told.

21When the child was eight days old, he was circumcised. At the same time he was named Jesus. This was the name the angel had given him before his mother became pregnant.

Joseph and Mary Take Jesus to the Temple

22The time came for making Mary "clean" as required by the Law of Moses. So Joseph and Mary took Jesus to Jerusalem. There they presented him to the Lord. 23In the Law of the Lord it says, "The first boy born in every family must be set apart for the Lord." (Exodus 13:2, 12) 24They also offered a sacrifice. They did it in keeping with the Law, which says, "a pair of doves or two young pigeons." (Leviticus 12:8)

25In Jerusalem there was a man named Simeon. He was a good and godly man. He was waiting for God's promise to Israel to come true. The Holy Spirit was with him. 26The Spirit had told Simeon that he would not die before he had seen the Lord's Messiah. 27The Spirit led him into the temple courtyard. Then Jesus' parents brought the child in. They came to do for him what the Law required. 28Simeon took Jesus in his arms and praised God. He said, > 29"Lord, you are the King over all.

> Now let me, your servant, go in peace.
> That is what you promised.
> 30My eyes have seen your salvation.
> 31You have prepared it in the sight of all nations.
> 32It is a light to be given to the Gentiles.
> It will be the glory of your people Israel."

33The child's father and mother were amazed at what was said about him. 34Then Simeon blessed them. He said to Mary, Jesus' mother, "This child is going to cause many people in Israel to fall and to rise. God has sent him. But many will speak against him. 35The thoughts of many hearts will be known. A sword will wound your own soul too."

36There was also a prophet named Anna. She was the daughter of Penuel from the tribe of Asher. Anna was very old. After getting married, she lived with her husband seven years. 37Then she was a widow until she was 84. She never left the temple. She worshiped night and day, praying and going without food. [38]Anna came up to Jesus' family at that moment. She gave thanks to God. And she spoke about the child to all who were looking forward to the time when Jerusalem would be set free.

[39]Joseph and Mary did everything the Law of the Lord required. Then they returned to Galilee. They went to their own town of Nazareth. [40]And the child grew and became strong. He was very wise. He was blessed by God's grace.

The Boy Jesus at the Temple

[41]Every year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for the Passover Feast. [42]When Jesus was 12 years old, they went up to the feast as usual. [43]After the feast was over, his parents left to go back home. The boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. But they were not aware of it. [44]They thought he was somewhere in their group. So they traveled on for a day. Then they began to look for him among their relatives and friends. [45]They did not find him. So they went back to Jerusalem to look for him. [46]After three days they found him in the temple courtyard. He was sitting with the teachers. He was listening to them and asking them questions. [47]Everyone who heard him was amazed at how much he understood. They also were amazed at his answers. [48]When his parents saw him, they were amazed. His mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us like this? Your father and I have been worried about you. We have been looking for you everywhere."

[49]"Why were you looking for me?" he asked. "Didn't you know I had to be in my Father's house?" [50]But they did not understand what he meant by that.

[51]Then he went back to Nazareth with them, and he obeyed them. But his mother kept all these things like a secret treasure in her heart. [52]Jesus became wiser and stronger. He also became more and more pleasing to God and to people.

Luke 3

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

1 Tiberius Caesar had been ruling for 15 years. Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea. Herod was the ruler of Galilee. His brother Philip was the ruler of Iturea and Traconitis. Lysanias was ruler of Abilene. 2 Annas and Caiaphas were high priests. At that time God's word came to John, son of Zechariah, in the desert.
3 He went into all the countryside around the Jordan River. There he preached that people should be baptized and turn away from their sins. Then God would forgive them. 4 Here is what is written in the book of Isaiah the prophet. It says,

> "A messenger is calling out in the desert,
> 'Prepare the way for the Lord.
> Make straight paths for him.
> 5 Every valley will be filled in.
> Every mountain and hill will be made level.
> The crooked roads will become straight.
> The rough ways will become smooth.
> 6 And all people will see God's salvation.' " (Isaiah 40:3–5)

7 John spoke to the crowds coming to be baptized by him. He said, "You are like a nest of poisonous snakes! Who warned you to escape the coming of God's anger? 8 Live in a way that shows you have turned away from your sins. And don't start saying to yourselves, 'Abraham is our father.' I tell you, God can raise up children for Abraham even from these stones. 9 The ax is already lying at the roots of the trees. All the trees that don't produce good fruit will be cut down.
They will be thrown into the fire."

10 "Then what should we do?" the crowd asked.

11 John answered, "Anyone who has extra clothes should share with the one who has none. And anyone who has extra food should do the same."

12 Even tax collectors came to be baptized. "Teacher," they asked, "what should we do?"

13 "Don't collect any more than you are required to," John told them.

14 Then some soldiers asked him, "And what should we do?"

John replied, "Don't force people to give you money. Don't bring false charges against people. Be happy with your pay.”

15The people were waiting. They were expecting something. They were all wondering in their hearts if John might be the Messiah. 16John answered them all, “I baptize you with water. But one who is more powerful than I am will come. I’m not good enough to untie the straps of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. 17His pitchfork is in his hand to toss the straw away from his threshing floor. He will gather the wheat into his barn. But he will burn up the husks with fire that can’t be put out.” 18John said many other things to warn the people. He also announced the good news to them.

19But John found fault with Herod, the ruler of Galilee, because of his marriage to Herodias. She was the wife of Herod’s brother. John also spoke strongly to Herod about all the other evil things he had done. 20So Herod locked John up in prison. Herod added this sin to all his others.

The Baptism and Family Line of Jesus

21When all the people were being baptized, Jesus was baptized too. And as he was praying, heaven was opened. 22The Holy Spirit came to rest on him in the form of a dove. A voice came from heaven. It said, “You are my Son, and I love you. I am very pleased with you.”

Luke 4

Jesus Is Tempted in the Desert

1 Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, left the Jordan River. The Spirit led him into the desert. 2 There the devil tempted him for 40 days. Jesus ate nothing during that time. At the end of the 40 days, he was hungry.
3 The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to become bread."
4 Jesus answered, "It is written, 'Man must not live only on bread.' "
(Deuteronomy 8:3)
5 Then the devil led Jesus up to a high place. In an instant, he showed Jesus all the kingdoms of the world. 6 He said to Jesus, "I will give you all their authority and glory. It has been given to me, and I can give it to anyone I want to. 7 If you worship me, it will all be yours."
8 Jesus answered, "It is written, 'Worship the Lord your God. He is the only one you should serve.' " (Deuteronomy 6:13) 9 Then the devil led Jesus to Jerusalem. He had Jesus stand on the highest point of the temple. "If you are the Son of God," he said, "throw yourself down from here. 10 It is written,

> " 'The Lord will command his angels to take good care of you.
> 11 They will lift you up in their hands.
> Then you won't trip over a stone.' " (Psalm 91:11, 12)

12 Jesus answered, "Scripture says, 'Do not test the Lord your God.' "
(Deuteronomy 6:16)
13 When the devil finished all this tempting, he left Jesus until a better time.

Jesus Is Not Accepted in Nazareth

14 Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Holy Spirit. News about him spread through the whole countryside. 15 He was teaching in their synagogues, and everyone praised him.
16 Jesus went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. On the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue as he usually did. He stood up to read. 17 And the scroll of Isaiah the prophet was handed to him. Jesus unrolled it and found the right place. There it is written,

> [18]“The Spirit of the Lord is on me.
> He has anointed me
> to announce the good news to poor people.
> He has sent me to announce freedom for prisoners.
> He has sent me so that the blind will see again.
> He wants me to set free those who are treated badly.
> [19]And he has sent me to announce the year when he will set his > people free.” (Isaiah 61:1, 2)

[20]Then Jesus rolled up the scroll. He gave it back to the attendant and sat down. The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were staring at him. [21]He began by saying to them, “Today this passage of Scripture is coming true as you listen.”

[22]Everyone said good things about him. They were amazed at the gracious words they heard from his lips. “Isn’t this Joseph’s son?” they asked.

[23]Jesus said, “Here is a saying you will certainly apply to me. ‘Doctor, heal yourself!’ And you will tell me this. ‘Do the things here in your hometown that we heard you did in Capernaum.’ ”

[24]“What I’m about to tell you is true,” he continued. “A prophet is not accepted in his hometown. [25]I tell you for sure that there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah. And there had been no rain for three and a half years. There wasn’t enough food to eat anywhere in the land. [26]But Elijah was not sent to any of those widows. Instead, he was sent to a widow in Zarephath near Sidon. [27]And there were many in Israel who had skin diseases in the days of Elisha the prophet. But not one of them was healed except Naaman the Syrian.”

[28]All the people in the synagogue were very angry when they heard that. [29]They got up and ran Jesus out of town. They took him to the edge of the hill on which the town was built. They planned to throw him off the cliff. [30]But Jesus walked right through the crowd and went on his way.

Jesus Drives Out an Evil Spirit

[31]Then Jesus went to Capernaum, a town in Galilee. On the Sabbath day he taught the people. [32]They were amazed at his teaching, because his words had authority.

[33]In the synagogue there was a man controlled by a demon, an evil spirit. He cried out at the top of his voice. [34]"Go away!" he said. "What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are. You are the Holy One of God!"

[35]"Be quiet!" Jesus said firmly. "Come out of him!" Then the demon threw the man down in front of everybody. And it came out without hurting him.

[36]All the people were amazed. They said to each other, "What he says is amazing! With authority and power he gives orders to evil spirits. And they come out!" [37]The news about Jesus spread throughout the whole area.

Jesus Heals Many People

[38]Jesus left the synagogue and went to the home of Simon. At that time, Simon's mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever. So they asked Jesus to help her. [39]He bent over her and commanded the fever to leave, and it left her. She got up right away and began to serve them.

[40]At sunset, people brought to Jesus all who were sick. He placed his hands on each one and healed them. [41]Also, demons came out of many people. The demons shouted, "You are the Son of God!" But he commanded them to be quiet. He would not allow them to speak, because they knew he was the Messiah.

[42]At dawn, Jesus went out to a place where he could be by himself. The people went to look for him. When they found him, they tried to keep him from leaving them. [43]But he said, "I must announce the good news of God's kingdom to the other towns also. That is why I was sent." [44]And he kept on preaching in the synagogues of Judea.

Luke 5

Jesus Chooses His First Disciples

[1]One day Jesus was standing by the Sea of Galilee. The people crowded around him and listened to the word of God. [2]Jesus saw two boats at the edge of the water. They had been left there by the fishermen, who were washing their nets. [3]He got into the boat that belonged to Simon. Jesus asked him to go out a little way from shore. Then he sat down in the boat and taught the people.

[4]When he finished speaking, he turned to Simon. Jesus said, “Go out into deep water. Let down the nets so you can catch some fish.”

[5]Simon answered, “Master, we’ve worked hard all night and haven’t caught anything. But because you say so, I will let down the nets.”

[6]When they had done so, they caught a large number of fish. There were so many that their nets began to break. [7]So they motioned to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. They came and filled both boats so full that they began to sink.

[8]When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at Jesus’ knees. “Go away from me, Lord!” he said. “I am a sinful man!” [9]He and everyone with him were amazed at the number of fish they had caught. [10]So were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who worked with Simon.

Then Jesus said to Simon, “Don’t be afraid. From now on you will fish for people.” [11]So they pulled their boats up on shore. Then they left everything and followed him.

Jesus Heals a Man Who Had a Skin Disease

[12]While Jesus was in one of the towns, a man came along. He had a skin disease all over his body. When he saw Jesus, the man fell with his face to the ground. He begged him, “Lord, if you are willing to make me ‘clean,’ you can do it.”

[13]Jesus reached out his hand and touched the man. “I am willing to do it,” he said. “Be ‘clean’!” Right away the disease left him.

[14]Then Jesus ordered him, “Don’t tell anyone. Go and show yourself to the priest. Offer the sacrifices that Moses commanded. It will be a witness to the priest and the people that you are ‘clean.’ ”

15But the news about Jesus spread even more. So crowds of people came to hear him. They also came to be healed of their sicknesses. 16But Jesus often went away to be by himself and pray.

Jesus Forgives and Heals a Man Who Could Not Walk

17One day Jesus was teaching. Pharisees and teachers of the law were sitting there. They had come from every village of Galilee and from Judea and Jerusalem. They heard that the Lord had given Jesus the power to heal the sick.
18So some men came carrying a man who could not walk. He was lying on a mat. They tried to take him into the house to place him in front of Jesus. 19They could not find a way to do this because of the crowd. So they went up on the roof. Then they lowered the man on his mat through the opening in the roof tiles.
They lowered him into the middle of the crowd, right in front of Jesus.

20When Jesus saw that they had faith, he spoke to the man. He said, “Friend, your sins are forgiven.”

21The Pharisees and the teachers of the law began to think, “Who is this fellow who says such an evil thing? Who can forgive sins but God alone?”

22Jesus knew what they were thinking. So he asked, “Why are you thinking these things in your hearts? 23Is it easier to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven’? Or to say, ‘Get up and walk’? 24But I want you to know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins.” So he spoke to the man who could not walk.
“I tell you,” he said, “get up. Take your mat and go home.” 25Right away, the man stood up in front of them. He took his mat and went home praising God.
26Everyone was amazed and gave praise to God. They were filled with wonder.
They said, “We have seen unusual things today.”

Jesus Chooses Levi and Eats With Sinners

27After this, Jesus left the house. He saw a tax collector sitting at the tax booth. The man’s name was Levi. “Follow me,” Jesus said to him. 28Levi got up, left everything and followed him.

29Then Levi gave a huge banquet for Jesus at his house. A large crowd of tax collectors and others were eating with them. 30But the Pharisees and their teachers of the law complained to Jesus’ disciples. They said, “Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?”

31Jesus answered them, “Healthy people don’t need a doctor. Sick people do.

[32]I have not come to get those who think they are right with God to follow me. I have come to get sinners to turn away from their sins."

Jesus Is Asked About Fasting

[33]Some of the people who were there said to Jesus, "John's disciples often pray and go without eating. So do the disciples of the Pharisees. But yours go on eating and drinking."

[34]Jesus answered, "Can you make the friends of the groom fast while he is with them? [35]But the time will come when the groom will be taken away from them. In those days they will go without eating."

[36]Then Jesus gave them an example. He said, "No one tears a piece out of new clothes to patch old clothes. Otherwise, they will tear the new clothes. Also, the patch from the new clothes will not match the old clothes. [37]No one pours new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the new wine will burst the skins. The wine will run out, and the wineskins will be destroyed. [38]No, new wine must be poured into new wineskins. [39]After drinking old wine, no one wants the new. They say, 'The old wine is better.' "

Luke 6

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath Day

1 One Sabbath day Jesus was walking through the grainfields. His disciples began to break off some heads of grain. They rubbed them in their hands and ate them. 2 Some of the Pharisees said, “It is against the Law to do this on the Sabbath day. Why are you doing it?”

3 Jesus answered them, “Haven’t you ever read about what David did? He and his men were hungry. 4 He entered the house of God and took the holy bread. He ate the bread that only priests were allowed to eat. David also gave some to his men.” 5 Then Jesus said to them, “The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath day.”

6 On another Sabbath day, Jesus went into the synagogue and was teaching. A man whose right hand was weak and twisted was there. 7 The Pharisees and the teachers of the law were trying to find fault with Jesus. So they watched him closely. They wanted to see if he would heal on the Sabbath day. 8 But Jesus knew what they were thinking. He spoke to the man who had the weak and twisted hand. “Get up and stand in front of everyone,” he said. So the man got up and stood there.

9 Then Jesus said to them, “What does the Law say we should do on the Sabbath day? Should we do good? Or should we do evil? Should we save life?
Or should we destroy it?”

10 He looked around at all of them. Then he said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He did, and his hand had been made as good as new. 11 But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law were very angry. They began to talk to one another about what they might do to Jesus.

Jesus Chooses the Twelve Apostles

12 On one of those days, Jesus went out to a mountainside to pray. He spent the night praying to God. 13 When morning came, he called for his disciples to come to him. He chose 12 of them and made them apostles. 14 Simon was one of them.
Jesus gave him the name Peter. There were also Simon’s brother Andrew, James, John, Philip and Bartholomew. 15 And there were Matthew, Thomas, and James, son of Alphaeus. There were also Simon who was called the Zealot 16 and Judas, son of James. Judas Iscariot was one of them too. He was the one who would later hand Jesus over to his enemies.

Jesus Gives Blessings and Warnings

17 Jesus went down the mountain with them and stood on a level place. A large crowd of his disciples was there. A large number of other people were there too.
They came from all over Judea, including Jerusalem. They also came from the coastland around Tyre and Sidon. 18 They had all come to hear Jesus and to be healed of their sicknesses. People who were troubled by evil spirits were made well. 19 Everyone tried to touch Jesus. Power was coming from him and healing them all.

20 Jesus looked at his disciples. He said to them,

"Blessed are you who are needy.
God's kingdom belongs to you.
21 Blessed are you who are hungry now.
You will be satisfied.
Blessed are you who are sad now.
You will laugh.
22 Blessed are you when people hate you, when they have nothing to do with you and say bad things about you,
and when they treat your name as something evil.
They do all this because you are followers of the Son of Man.

23 "The prophets of long ago were treated the same way. When these things happen to you, be glad and jump for joy. You will receive many blessings in heaven.

24 "But how terrible it will be for you who are rich!
You have already had your easy life.
25 How terrible for you who are well fed now!
You will go hungry.
How terrible for you who laugh now!
You will cry and be sad.
26 How terrible for you when everyone says good things about you!
Their people treated the false prophets the same way long ago.

Love Your Enemies

[27]“But here is what I tell you who are listening. Love your enemies. Do good to those who hate you. [28]Bless those who call down curses on you. And pray for those who treat you badly. [29]Suppose someone slaps you on one cheek. Let them slap you on the other cheek as well. Suppose someone takes your coat. Don’t stop them from taking your shirt as well. [30]Give to everyone who asks you. And if anyone takes what belongs to you, don’t ask to get it back. [31]Do to others as you want them to do to you.

[32]“Suppose you love those who love you. Should anyone praise you for that? Even sinners love those who love them. [33]And suppose you do good to those who are good to you. Should anyone praise you for that? Even sinners do that. [34]And suppose you lend money to those who can pay you back. Should anyone praise you for that? Even a sinner lends to sinners, expecting them to pay everything back. [35]But love your enemies. Do good to them. Lend to them without expecting to get anything back. Then you will receive a lot in return. And you will be children of the Most High God. He is kind to people who are evil and are not thankful. [36]So have mercy, just as your Father has mercy.

Be Fair When You Judge Other People

[37]“If you do not judge other people, then you will not be judged. If you do not find others guilty, then you will not be found guilty. Forgive, and you will be forgiven. [38]Give, and it will be given to you. A good amount will be poured into your lap. It will be pressed down, shaken together, and running over. The same amount you give will be measured out to you.”

[39]Jesus also gave them another example. He asked, “Can a blind person lead another blind person? Won’t they both fall into a pit? [40]The student is not better than the teacher. But everyone who is completely trained will be like their teacher.

[41]“You look at the bit of sawdust in your friend’s eye. But you pay no attention to the piece of wood in your own eye. [42]How can you say to your friend, ‘Let me take the bit of sawdust out of your eye’? How can you say this while there is a piece of wood in your own eye? You pretender! First take the piece of wood out of your own eye. Then you will be able to see clearly to take the bit of sawdust out of your friend’s eye.

A Tree and Its Fruit

[43]“A good tree doesn’t bear bad fruit. And a bad tree doesn’t bear good fruit.
[44]You can tell each tree by the kind of fruit it bears. People do not pick figs from thorns. And they don’t pick grapes from bushes. [45]A good man says good things.
These come from the good that is stored up in his heart. An evil man says evil things. These come from the evil that is stored up in his heart. A person’s mouth says everything that is in their heart.

The Wise and Foolish Builders

[46]“Why do you call me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ and still don’t do what I say? [47]Some people come and listen to me and do what I say. I will show you what they are like. [48]They are like a man who builds a house. He digs down deep and sets it on solid rock. When a flood comes, the river rushes against the house. But the water can’t shake it. The house is well built. [49]But here is what happens when people listen to my words and do not obey them. They are like a man who builds a house on soft ground instead of solid rock. The moment the river rushes against that house, it falls down. It is completely destroyed.”

Luke 7

A Roman Commander Has Faith

[1]Jesus finished saying all these things to the people who were listening. Then he entered Capernaum. [2]There the servant of a Roman commander was sick and about to die. His master thought highly of him. [3]The commander heard about Jesus. So he sent some elders of the Jews to him. He told them to ask Jesus to come and heal his servant. [4]They came to Jesus and begged him, “This man deserves to have you do this. [5]He loves our nation and has built our synagogue.” [6]So Jesus went with them.

When Jesus came near the house, the Roman commander sent friends to him. He told them to say, “Lord, don’t trouble yourself. I am not good enough to have you come into my house. [7]That is why I did not even think I was fit to come to you. But just say the word, and my servant will be healed. [8]I myself am a man who is under authority. And I have soldiers who obey my orders. I tell this one, ‘Go,’ and he goes. I tell that one, ‘Come,’ and he comes. I say to my servant, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.”

[9]When Jesus heard this, he was amazed at the commander. Jesus turned to the crowd that was following him. He said, “I tell you, even in Israel I have not found anyone whose faith is so strong.” [10]Then the men who had been sent to Jesus returned to the house. They found that the servant was healed.

Jesus Raises a Widow’s Son From the Dead

[11]Some time later, Jesus went to a town called Nain. His disciples and a large crowd went along with him. [12]He approached the town gate. Just then, a dead person was being carried out. He was the only son of his mother. She was a widow. A large crowd from the town was with her. [13]When the Lord saw her, he felt sorry for her. So he said, “Don’t cry.”

[14]Then he went up and touched the coffin. Those carrying it stood still. Jesus said, “Young man, I say to you, get up!” [15]The dead man sat up and began to talk. Then Jesus gave him back to his mother.

[16]The people were all filled with wonder and praised God. “A great prophet has appeared among us,” they said. “God has come to help his people.” [17]This news about Jesus spread all through Judea and the whole country.

Jesus and John the Baptist

18John's disciples told him about all these things. So he chose two of them.
19He sent them to the Lord. John told them to ask him, "Are you the one who is supposed to come? Or should we look for someone else?"

20The men came to Jesus. They said, "John the Baptist sent us to ask you, 'Are you the one who is supposed to come? Or should we look for someone else?' "

21At that time Jesus healed many people. They had illnesses, sicknesses and evil spirits. He also gave sight to many who were blind. 22So Jesus replied to the messengers, "Go back to John. Tell him what you have seen and heard. Blind people receive sight. Disabled people walk. Those who have skin diseases are made 'clean.' Deaf people hear. Those who are dead are raised to life. And the good news is announced to those who are poor. 23Blessed is anyone who does not give up their faith because of me."

24So John's messengers left. Then Jesus began to speak to the crowd about John. He said, "What did you go out into the desert to see? Tall grass waving in the wind? 25If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes?
No. Those who wear fine clothes and have many expensive things are in palaces.
26Then what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. 27He is the one written about in Scripture. It says,

> " 'I will send my messenger ahead of you.
> He will prepare your way for you.' (Malachi 3:1)

28I tell you, no one more important than John has ever been born. But the least important person in God's kingdom is more important than John is."

29All the people who heard Jesus' words agreed that God's way was right.
Even the tax collectors agreed. These people had all been baptized by John.
30But the Pharisees and the authorities on the law did not accept for themselves God's purpose. So they had not been baptized by John.

31Jesus went on to say, "What can I compare today's people to? What are they like? 32They are like children sitting in the market and calling out to each other.
They say,

> " 'We played the flute for you.
> But you didn't dance.

We sang a funeral song.
But you didn’t cry.’

33That is how it has been with John the Baptist. When he came to you, he didn’t eat bread or drink wine. And you say, ‘He has a demon.’ 34But when the Son of Man came, he ate and drank as you do. And you say, ‘This fellow is always eating and drinking far too much. He’s a friend of tax collectors and sinners.’ 35All who follow wisdom prove that wisdom is right.”

A Sinful Woman Pours Perfume on Jesus

36One of the Pharisees invited Jesus to have dinner with him. So he went to the Pharisee’s house. He took his place at the table. 37There was a woman in that town who had lived a sinful life. She learned that Jesus was eating at the Pharisee’s house. So she came there with a special jar of perfume. 38She stood behind Jesus and cried at his feet. And she began to wet his feet with her tears. Then she wiped them with her hair. She kissed them and poured perfume on them.

39The Pharisee who had invited Jesus saw this. He said to himself, “If this man were a prophet, he would know who is touching him. He would know what kind of woman she is. She is a sinner!”

40Jesus answered him, “Simon, I have something to tell you.”

“Tell me, teacher,” he said.

41“Two people owed money to a certain lender. One owed him 500 silver coins. The other owed him 50 silver coins. 42Neither of them had the money to pay him back. So he let them go without paying. Which of them will love him more?”

43Simon replied, “I suppose the one who owed the most money.”

“You are right,” Jesus said.

44Then he turned toward the woman. He said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? I came into your house. You did not give me any water to wash my feet. But she wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. 45You did not give me a kiss. But this woman has not stopped kissing my feet since I came in. 46You did not put any olive oil on my head. But she has poured this perfume on my feet. 47So I tell you this. Her many sins have been forgiven. She has shown that she understands this by her great acts of love. But whoever has been forgiven only a little loves only a little.”

[48]Then Jesus said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.”

[49]The other guests began to talk about this among themselves. They said, “Who is this who even forgives sins?”

[50]Jesus said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you. Go in peace.”

Luke 8

The Story of the Farmer

1After this, Jesus traveled around from one town and village to another. He announced the good news of God's kingdom. His 12 disciples were with him.
2So were some women who had been healed of evil spirits and sicknesses. One was Mary Magdalene. Seven demons had come out of her. 3Another was Joanna, the wife of Chuza. He was the manager of Herod's household. Susanna and many others were there also. These women were helping to support Jesus and the 12 disciples with their own money.

4A large crowd gathered together. People came to Jesus from town after town.
As they did, he told a story. He said, 5"A farmer went out to plant his seed. He scattered the seed on the ground. Some fell on a path. People walked on it, and the birds ate it up. 6Some seed fell on rocky ground. When it grew, the plants dried up because they had no water. 7Other seed fell among thorns. The thorns grew up with it and crowded out the plants. 8Still other seed fell on good soil. It grew up and produced a crop 100 times more than the farmer planted."

When Jesus said this, he called out, "Whoever has ears should listen."

9His disciples asked him what the story meant. 10He said, "You have been given the chance to understand the secrets of God's kingdom. But to outsiders I speak by using stories. In that way,

> " 'They see, but they will not know what they are seeing.
> They hear, but they will not understand what they are hearing.'
> (Isaiah 6:9)

11"Here is what the story means. The seed is God's message. 12The seed on the path stands for God's message in the hearts of those who hear. But then the devil comes. He takes away the message from their hearts. He does it so they won't believe. Then they can't be saved. 13The seed on rocky ground stands for those who hear the message and receive it with joy. But they have no roots. They believe for a while. But when they are tested, they fall away from the faith.
14The seed that fell among thorns stands for those who hear the message. But as they go on their way, they are choked by life's worries, riches and pleasures. So they do not reach full growth. 15But the seed on good soil stands for those with an honest and good heart. Those people hear the message. They keep it in their hearts. They remain faithful and produce a good crop.

A Lamp on a Stand

16"No one lights a lamp and then hides it in a clay jar or puts it under a bed. Instead, they put it on a stand. Then those who come in can see its light. 17What is hidden will be seen. And what is out of sight will be brought into the open and made known. 18So be careful how you listen. Whoever has something will be given more. Whoever has nothing, even what they think they have will be taken away from them."

Jesus' Mother and Brothers

19Jesus' mother and brothers came to see him. But they could not get near him because of the crowd. 20Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside. They want to see you."

21He replied, "My mother and brothers are those who hear God's word and do what it says."

Jesus Calms the Storm

22One day Jesus said to his disciples, "Let's go over to the other side of the lake." So they got into a boat and left. 23As they sailed, Jesus fell asleep. A storm came down on the lake. It was so bad that the boat was about to sink. They were in great danger.

24The disciples went and woke Jesus up. They said, "Master! Master! We're going to drown!"

He got up and ordered the wind and the huge waves to stop. The storm quieted down. It was completely calm. 25"Where is your faith?" he asked his disciples.

They were amazed and full of fear. They asked one another, "Who is this? He commands even the winds and the waves, and they obey him."

Jesus Heals a Man Controlled by Demons

26Jesus and his disciples sailed to the area of the Gerasenes across the lake from Galilee. 27When Jesus stepped on shore, he was met by a man from the town. The man was controlled by demons. For a long time he had not worn clothes or lived in a house. He lived in the tombs. 28When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell at his feet. He shouted at the top of his voice, “Jesus, Son of the Most High God, what do you want with me? I beg you, don’t hurt me!” [29]This was because Jesus had commanded the evil spirit to come out of the man. Many times the spirit had taken hold of him. The man’s hands and feet were chained, and he was kept under guard. But he had broken his chains. And then the demon had forced him to go out into lonely places in the countryside.

[30]Jesus asked him, “What is your name?”

“Legion,” he replied, because many demons had gone into him. [31]And they begged Jesus again and again not to order them to go into the Abyss.

[32]A large herd of pigs was feeding there on the hillside. The demons begged Jesus to let them go into the pigs. And he allowed it. [33]When the demons came out of the man, they went into the pigs. Then the herd rushed down the steep bank. They ran into the lake and drowned.

[34]Those who were tending the pigs saw what had happened. They ran off and reported it in the town and countryside. [35]The people went out to see what had happened. Then they came to Jesus. They found the man who was now free of the demons. He was sitting at Jesus’ feet. He was dressed and thinking clearly. All this made the people afraid. [36]Those who had seen it told the others how the man who had been controlled by demons was now healed. [37]Then all the people who lived in the area of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them. They were filled with fear. So he got into the boat and left.

[38]The man who was now free of the demons begged to go with him. But Jesus sent him away. He said to him, [39]“Return home and tell how much God has done for you.” So the man went away. He told people all over town how much Jesus had done for him.

Jesus Heals a Dead Girl and a Suffering Woman

[40]When Jesus returned, a crowd welcomed him. They were all expecting him. [41]Then a man named Jairus came. He was a synagogue leader. He fell at Jesus’ feet and begged Jesus to come to his house. [42]His only daughter was dying. She was about 12 years old. As Jesus was on his way, the crowds almost crushed him.

[43]A woman was there who had a sickness that made her bleed. Her sickness had lasted for 12 years. No one could heal her. [44]She came up behind Jesus and touched the edge of his clothes. Right away her bleeding stopped.

[45]“Who touched me?” Jesus asked.

Everyone said they didn’t do it. Then Peter said, “Master, the people are crowding and pushing against you.”

46But Jesus said, “Someone touched me. I know that power has gone out from me.”

47The woman realized that people would notice her. Shaking with fear, she came and fell at his feet. In front of everyone, she told why she had touched him. She also told how she had been healed in an instant. 48Then he said to her, “Dear woman, your faith has healed you. Go in peace.”

49While Jesus was still speaking, someone came from the house of Jairus. Jairus was the synagogue leader. “Your daughter is dead,” the messenger said. “Don’t bother the teacher anymore.”

50Hearing this, Jesus said to Jairus, “Don’t be afraid. Just believe. She will be healed.”

51When he arrived at the house of Jairus, he did not let everyone go in with him. He took only Peter, John and James, and the child’s father and mother. 52During this time, all the people were crying and sobbing loudly over the child. “Stop crying!” Jesus said. “She is not dead. She is sleeping.”

53They laughed at him. They knew she was dead. 54But he took her by the hand and said, “My child, get up!” 55Her spirit returned, and right away she stood up. Then Jesus told them to give her something to eat. 56Her parents were amazed. But Jesus ordered them not to tell anyone what had happened.

Luke 9

Jesus Sends Out the Twelve Disciples

[1]Jesus called together the 12 disciples. He gave them power and authority to drive out all demons and to heal sicknesses. [2]Then he sent them out to announce God's kingdom and to heal those who were sick. [3]He told them, "Don't take anything for the journey. Do not take a walking stick or a bag. Do not take any bread, money or extra clothes. [4]When you are invited into a house, stay there until you leave town. [5]Some people may not welcome you. If they don't, leave their town and shake the dust off your feet. This will be a witness against the people living there." [6]So the 12 disciples left. They went from village to village. They announced the good news and healed people everywhere.

[7]Now Herod, the ruler of Galilee, heard about everything that was going on. He was bewildered, because some were saying that John the Baptist had been raised from the dead. [8]Others were saying that Elijah had appeared. Still others were saying that a prophet of long ago had come back to life. [9]But Herod said, "I had John's head cut off. So who is it that I hear such things about?" And he tried to see Jesus.

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

[10]The disciples returned. They told Jesus what they had done. Then he took them with him. They went off by themselves to a town called Bethsaida. [11]But the crowds learned about it and followed Jesus. He welcomed them and spoke to them about God's kingdom. He also healed those who needed to be healed.

[12]Late in the afternoon the 12 disciples came to him. They said, "Send the crowd away. They can go to the nearby villages and countryside. There they can find food and a place to stay. There is nothing here."

[13]Jesus replied, "You give them something to eat."

The disciples answered, "We have only five loaves of bread and two fish. We would have to go and buy food for all this crowd." [14]About 5,000 men were there.

But Jesus said to his disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about 50 each." [15]The disciples did so, and everyone sat down. [16]Jesus took the five loaves and the two fish. He looked up to heaven and gave thanks. He broke them into pieces. Then he gave them to the disciples to give to the people. [17]All of them ate and were satisfied. The disciples picked up 12 baskets of leftover pieces.

Peter Says That Jesus Is the Messiah

[18]One day Jesus was praying alone. Only his disciples were with him. He asked them, “Who do the crowds say I am?”

[19]They replied, “Some say John the Baptist. Others say Elijah. Still others say that one of the prophets of long ago has come back to life.”

[20]“But what about you?” he asked. “Who do you say I am?”

Peter answered, “God’s Messiah.”

Jesus Speaks About His Coming Death

[21]Jesus strongly warned them not to tell this to anyone. [22]He said, “The Son of Man must suffer many things. The elders will not accept him. The chief priests and the teachers of the law will not accept him either. He must be killed and on the third day rise from the dead.”

[23]Then he said to all of them, “Whoever wants to follow me must say no to themselves. They must pick up their cross every day and follow me. [24]Whoever wants to save their life will lose it. But whoever loses their life for me will save it. [25]What good is it if someone gains the whole world but loses or gives up their very self? [26]Suppose someone is ashamed of me and my words. The Son of Man will come in his glory and in the glory of the Father and the holy angels. Then he will be ashamed of that person.

[27]“What I’m about to tell you is true. Some who are standing here will not die before they see God’s kingdom.”

Jesus’ Appearance Is Changed

[28]About eight days after Jesus said this, he went up on a mountain to pray. He took Peter, John and James with him. [29]As he was praying, the appearance of his face changed. His clothes became as bright as a flash of lightning. [30]Two men, Moses and Elijah, appeared in shining glory. Jesus and the two of them talked together. [31]They talked about how he would be leaving them soon. This was going to happen in Jerusalem. [32]Peter and his companions had been very sleepy. But then they became completely awake. They saw Jesus’ glory and the two men standing with him. [33]As the men were leaving Jesus, Peter spoke up. “Master,” he said to him, “it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters. One will be for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” Peter didn’t really know what he was saying.

[34]While he was speaking, a cloud appeared and covered them. The disciples were afraid as they entered the cloud. [35]A voice came from the cloud. It said, “This is my Son, and I have chosen him. Listen to him.” [36]When the voice had spoken, they found that Jesus was alone. The disciples kept quiet about this. They didn’t tell anyone at that time what they had seen.

Jesus Heals a Boy Who Is Controlled by an Evil Spirit

[37]The next day Jesus and those who were with him came down from the mountain. A large crowd met Jesus. [38]A man in the crowd called out. “Teacher,” he said, “I beg you to look at my son. He is my only child. [39]A spirit takes hold of him, and he suddenly screams. It throws him into fits so that he foams at the mouth. It hardly ever leaves him. It is destroying him. [40]I begged your disciples to drive it out. But they couldn’t do it.”

[41]“You unbelieving and evil people!” Jesus replied. “How long do I have to stay with you? How long do I have to put up with you?” Then he said to the man, “Bring your son here.”

[42]Even while the boy was coming, the demon threw him into a fit. The boy fell to the ground. But Jesus ordered the evil spirit to leave the boy. Then Jesus healed him and gave him back to his father. [43]They were all amazed at God’s greatness.

Jesus Speaks a Second Time About His Coming Death

Everyone was wondering about all that Jesus did. Then Jesus said to his disciples, [44]“Listen carefully to what I am about to tell you. The Son of Man is going to be handed over to men.” [45]But they didn’t understand what this meant. That was because it was hidden from them. And they were afraid to ask Jesus about it.

Who Is the Most Important Person?

[46]The disciples began to argue about which one of them would be the most important person. [47]Jesus knew what they were thinking. So he took a little child and had the child stand beside him. [48]Then he spoke to them. “Anyone who welcomes this little child in my name welcomes me,” he said. “And anyone who welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. The one considered least important among all of you is really the most important.”

[49]“Master,” said John, “we saw someone driving out demons in your name. We tried to stop him, because he is not one of us.”

[50]“Do not stop him,” Jesus said. “Anyone who is not against you is for you.”

The Samaritans Do Not Welcome Jesus

[51]The time grew near for Jesus to be taken up to heaven. So he made up his mind to go to Jerusalem. [52]He sent messengers on ahead. They went into a Samaritan village to get things ready for him. [53]But the people there did not welcome Jesus. That was because he was heading for Jerusalem. [54]The disciples James and John saw this. They asked, “Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to destroy them?” [55]But Jesus turned and commanded them not to do it. [56]Then Jesus and his disciples went on to another village.

The Cost of Following Jesus

[57]Once Jesus and those who were with him were walking along the road. A man said to Jesus, “I will follow you no matter where you go.”

[59]He said to another man, “Follow me.”

But the man replied, “Lord, first let me go and bury my father.”

[60]Jesus said to him, “Let dead people bury their own dead. You go and tell others about God’s kingdom.”

[61]Still another person said, “I will follow you, Lord. But first let me go back and say goodbye to my family.”

[62]Jesus replied, “Suppose someone starts to plow and then looks back. That person is not fit for service in God’s kingdom.”

Luke 10

Jesus Sends Out the Seventy-Two

[1]After this the Lord appointed 72 others. He sent them out two by two ahead of him. They went to every town and place where he was about to go. [2]He told them, “The harvest is huge, but the workers are few. So ask the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest field. [3]Go! I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. [4]Do not take a purse or bag or sandals. And don’t greet anyone on the road.

[5]“When you enter a house, first say, ‘May this house be blessed with peace.’
[6]If someone there works to bring peace, your blessing of peace will rest on them.
If not, it will return to you. [7]Stay there, and eat and drink anything they give you.
Workers are worthy of their pay. Do not move around from house to house.

[8]“When you enter a town and are welcomed, eat what is given to you. [9]Heal the sick people who are there. Tell them, ‘God’s kingdom has come near to you.’
[10]But what if you enter a town and are not welcomed? Then go into its streets and say, [11]‘We wipe from our feet even the dust of your town. We do it to warn you. But here is what you can be sure of. God’s kingdom has come near.’ [12]I tell you this. On judgment day it will be easier for Sodom than for that town.

[13]“How terrible it will be for you, Chorazin! How terrible for you, Bethsaida!
Suppose the miracles done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon. They would have turned away from their sins long ago. They would have put on the rough clothing people wear when they’re sad. They would have sat down in ashes.
[14]On judgment day it will be easier for Tyre and Sidon than for you. [15]And what about you, Capernaum? Will you be lifted up to the heavens? No! You will go down to the place of the dead.

[16]“Whoever listens to you listens to me. Whoever does not accept you does not accept me. But whoever does not accept me does not accept the one who sent me.”

[17]The 72 returned with joy. They said, “Lord, even the demons obey us when we speak in your name.”

[18]Jesus replied, “I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. [19]I have given you authority to walk all over snakes and scorpions. You will be able to destroy all the power of the enemy. Nothing will harm you. [20]But do not be glad when the evil spirits obey you. Instead, be glad that your names are written in heaven.”

21 At that time Jesus was full of joy through the Holy Spirit. He said, “I praise you, Father. You are Lord of heaven and earth. You have hidden these things from wise and educated people. But you have shown them to little children. Yes, Father. This is what you wanted to do.
22 “My Father has given all things to me. The Father is the only one who knows who the Son is. And the only ones who know the Father are the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to make the Father known.” 23 Then Jesus turned to his disciples. He said to them in private, “Blessed are the eyes that see what you see. 24 I tell you, many prophets and kings wanted to see what you see. But they didn’t see it. They wanted to hear what you hear. But they didn’t hear it.”

The Story of the Good Samaritan

25 One day an authority on the law stood up to test Jesus. “Teacher,” he asked,
“what must I do to receive eternal life?”
26 “What is written in the Law?” Jesus replied. “How do you understand it?”
27 He answered, “ ‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. Love him with all your strength and with all your mind.’ (Deuteronomy 6:5) And, ‘Love your neighbor as you love yourself.’ ” (Leviticus 19:18) 28 “You have answered correctly,” Jesus replied. “Do that, and you will live.”
29 But the man wanted to make himself look good. So he asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?”
30 Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho. Robbers attacked him. They stripped off his clothes and beat him. Then they went away, leaving him almost dead. 31 A priest happened to be going down that same road.
When he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. 32 A Levite also came by.
When he saw the man, he passed by on the other side too. 33 But a Samaritan came to the place where the man was. When he saw the man, he felt sorry for him. 34 He went to him, poured olive oil and wine on his wounds and bandaged them. Then he put the man on his own donkey. He brought him to an inn and took care of him. 35 The next day he took out two silver coins. He gave them to the owner of the inn. ‘Take care of him,’ he said. ‘When I return, I will pay you back for any extra expense you may have.’
36 “Which of the three do you think was a neighbor to the man who was attacked by robbers?”
37 The authority on the law replied, “The one who felt sorry for him.”

Jesus told him, “Go and do as he did.”

Jesus at the Home of Martha and Mary 38 Jesus and his disciples went on their way. Jesus came to a village where a woman named Martha lived. She welcomed him into her home. 39 She had a sister named Mary. Mary sat at the Lord’s feet listening to what he said. 40 But Martha was busy with all the things that had to be done. She came to Jesus and said, “Lord, my sister has left me to do the work by myself. Don’t you care? Tell her to help me!”

41 “Martha, Martha,” the Lord answered. “You are worried and upset about many things. 42 But few things are needed. Really, only one thing is needed.
Mary has chosen what is better. And it will not be taken away from her.”

Luke 11

Jesus Teaches About Prayer

1 One day Jesus was praying in a certain place. When he finished, one of his disciples spoke to him. “Lord,” he said, “teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples.”
2 Jesus said to them, “When you pray, this is what you should say.

> “ ‘Father,
> may your name be honored.
> May your kingdom come.
> 3 Give us each day our daily bread.
> 4 Forgive us our sins,
> as we also forgive everyone who sins against us.
> Keep us from falling into sin when we are tempted.’ ”

5 Then Jesus said to them, “Suppose you have a friend. You go to him at midnight and say, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves of bread. 6 A friend of mine on a journey has come to stay with me. I have no food to give him.’ 7 And suppose the one inside answers, ‘Don’t bother me. The door is already locked. My children and I are in bed. I can’t get up and give you anything.’ 8 I tell you, that person will not get up. And he won’t give you bread just because he is your friend. But because you keep bothering him, he will surely get up. He will give you as much as you need.
9 “So here is what I say to you. Ask, and it will be given to you. Search, and you will find. Knock, and the door will be opened to you. 10 Everyone who asks will receive. The one who searches will find. And the door will be opened to the one who knocks.
11 “Fathers, suppose your son asks for a fish. Which of you will give him a snake instead? 12 Or suppose he asks for an egg. Which of you will give him a scorpion? 13 Even though you are evil, you know how to give good gifts to your children. How much more will your Father who is in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!”

Jesus and Beelzebul

14 Jesus was driving out a demon. The man who had the demon could not speak. When the demon left, the man began to speak. The crowd was amazed.
15 But some of them said, “Jesus is driving out demons by the power of Beelzebul, the prince of demons.” 16 Others tested Jesus by asking for a sign from heaven.

17 Jesus knew what they were thinking. So he said to them, “Any kingdom that fights against itself will be destroyed. A family that is divided against itself will fall. 18 If Satan fights against himself, how can his kingdom stand? I say this because of what you claim. You say I drive out demons by the power of Beelzebul. 19 Suppose I do drive out demons with Beelzebul’s help. With whose help do your followers drive them out? So then, they will be your judges. 20 But suppose I drive out demons with the help of God’s powerful finger. Then God’s kingdom has come upon you.

21 “When a strong man is completely armed and guards his house, what he owns is safe. 22 But when someone stronger attacks, he is overpowered. The attacker takes away the armor the man had trusted in. Then he divides up what he has stolen.

23 “Whoever is not with me is against me. And whoever does not gather with me scatters.

24 “What happens when an evil spirit comes out of a person? It goes through dry areas looking for a place to rest. But it doesn’t find it. Then it says, ‘I will return to the house I left.’ 25 When it arrives there, it finds the house swept clean and put in order. 26 Then the evil spirit goes and takes seven other spirits more evil than itself. They go in and live there. That person is worse off than before.”

27 As Jesus was saying these things, a woman in the crowd called out. She shouted, “Blessed is the mother who gave you birth and nursed you.”

28 He replied, “Instead, blessed are those who hear God’s word and obey it.”

The Sign of Jonah

29 As the crowds grew larger, Jesus spoke to them. “The people of today are evil,” he said. “They ask for a sign from God. But none will be given except the sign of Jonah. 30 He was a sign from God to the people of Nineveh. In the same way, the Son of Man will be a sign from God to the people of today. 31 The Queen of the South will stand up on judgment day with the people now living.
And she will prove that they are guilty. She came from very far away to listen to Solomon’s wisdom. And now something more important than Solomon is here.

[32]The men of Nineveh will stand up on judgment day with the people now living. And the Ninevites will prove that those people are guilty. The men of Nineveh turned away from their sins when Jonah preached to them. And now something more important than Jonah is here.

The Eye Is the Lamp of the Body

[33]"No one lights a lamp and hides it. No one puts it under a bowl. Instead, they put a lamp on its stand. Then those who come in can see the light. [34]Your eye is like a lamp for your body. Suppose your eyes are healthy. Then your whole body also is full of light. But suppose your eyes can't see well. Then your body also is full of darkness. [35]So make sure that the light inside you is not darkness. [36]Suppose your whole body is full of light. And suppose no part of it is dark. Then your body will be full of light. It will be just as when a lamp shines its light on you."

Six Warnings

[37]Jesus finished speaking. Then a Pharisee invited him to eat with him. So Jesus went in and took his place at the table. [38]But the Pharisee was surprised. He noticed that Jesus did not wash before the meal.

[39]Then the Lord spoke to him. "You Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and dish," he said. "But inside you are full of greed and evil. [40]You foolish people! Didn't the one who made the outside make the inside also? [41]Give freely to poor people to show what is inside you. Then everything will be clean for you.

[42]"How terrible it will be for you Pharisees! You give God a tenth of your garden plants, such as mint and rue. But you have forgotten to be fair and to love God. You should have practiced the last things without failing to do the first.

[43]"How terrible for you Pharisees! You love the most important seats in the synagogues. You love having people greet you with respect in the market.

[44]"How terrible for you! You are like graves that are not marked. People walk over them without knowing it."

[45]An authority on the law spoke to Jesus. He said, "Teacher, when you say things like that, you say bad things about us too."

[46]Jesus replied, "How terrible for you authorities on the law! You put such heavy loads on people that they can hardly carry them. But you yourselves will not lift one finger to help them.

47“How terrible for you! You build tombs for the prophets. It was your people of long ago who killed them. 48So you show that you agree with what your people did long ago. They killed the prophets, and now you build the prophets’ tombs. 49So God in his wisdom said, ‘I will send prophets and apostles to them.
They will kill some. And they will try to hurt others.’ 50So the people of today will be punished. They will pay for all the prophets’ blood spilled since the world began. 51I mean from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah. He was killed between the altar and the temple. Yes, I tell you, the people of today will be punished for all these things.

52“How terrible for you authorities on the law! You have taken away the key to the door of knowledge. You yourselves have not entered. And you have stood in the way of those who were entering.”

53When Jesus went outside, the Pharisees and the teachers of the law strongly opposed him. They threw a lot of questions at him. 54They set traps for him.
They wanted to catch him in something he might say.

Luke 12

Jesus Gives Words of Warning and Hope

1During that time a crowd of many thousands had gathered. There were so many people that they were stepping on one another. Jesus spoke first to his disciples. “Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees,” he said. “They just pretend to be godly. 2Everything that is secret will be brought out into the open. Everything that is hidden will be uncovered. 3What you have said in the dark will be heard in the daylight. What you have whispered to someone behind closed doors will be shouted from the rooftops.

4“My friends, listen to me. Don’t be afraid of those who kill the body but can’t do any more than that. 5I will show you whom you should be afraid of. Be afraid of the one who has the authority to throw you into hell after you have been killed. Yes, I tell you, be afraid of him. 6Aren’t five sparrows sold for two pennies? But God does not forget even one of them. 7In fact, he even counts every hair on your head! So don’t be afraid. You are worth more than many sparrows.

8“What about someone who says in front of others that he knows me? I tell you, the Son of Man will say in front of God’s angels that he knows that person.
9But what about someone who says in front of others that he doesn’t know me?
I, the Son of Man, will say in front of God’s angels that I don’t know him.
10Everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven. But anyone who speaks evil things against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

11“You will be brought before synagogues, rulers and authorities. But do not worry about how to stand up for yourselves or what to say. 12The Holy Spirit will teach you at that time what you should say.”

The Story of the Rich Fool

13Someone in the crowd spoke to Jesus. “Teacher,” he said, “tell my brother to divide the family property with me.”

14Jesus replied, “Friend, who made me a judge or umpire between you?”
15Then he said to them, “Watch out! Be on your guard against wanting to have more and more things. Life is not made up of how much a person has.”

16Then Jesus told them a story. He said, “A certain rich man’s land produced a very large crop. [17]He thought to himself, ‘What should I do? I don’t have any place to store my crops.’

[18]“Then he said, ‘This is what I’ll do. I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones. I will store my extra grain in them. [19]I’ll say to myself, “You have plenty of grain stored away for many years. Take life easy. Eat, drink and have a good time.” ’

[20]“But God said to him, ‘You foolish man! Tonight I will take your life away from you. Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?’

[21]“That is how it will be for whoever stores things away for themselves but is not rich in the sight of God.”

Do Not Worry

[22]Then Jesus spoke to his disciples. He said, “I tell you, do not worry. Don’t worry about your life and what you will eat. And don’t worry about your body and what you will wear. [23]There is more to life than eating. There are more important things for the body than clothes. [24]Think about the ravens. They don’t plant or gather crops. They don’t have any barns at all. But God feeds them. You are worth much more than birds! [25]Can you add even one hour to your life by worrying? [26]You can’t do that very little thing. So why worry about the rest?

[27]“Think about how the wild flowers grow. They don’t work or make clothing. But here is what I tell you. Not even Solomon in his royal robes was dressed like one of those flowers. [28]If that is how God dresses the wild grass, how much better will he dress you! After all, the grass is here only today. Tomorrow it is thrown into the fire. Your faith is so small! [29]Don’t spend time thinking about what you will eat or drink. Don’t worry about it. [30]People who are ungodly run after all those things. Your Father knows that you need them. [31]But put God’s kingdom first. Then those other things will also be given to you.

[32]“Little flock, do not be afraid. Your Father has been pleased to give you the kingdom. [33]Sell what you own. Give to those who are poor. Provide purses for yourselves that will not wear out. Store up riches in heaven that will never be used up. There, no thief can come near it. There, no moth can destroy it. [34]Your heart will be where your riches are.

Be Ready

[35]“Be dressed and ready to serve. Keep your lamps burning. [36]Be like servants waiting for their master to return from a wedding dinner. When he comes and knocks, they can open the door for him at once. [37]It will be good for those servants whose master finds them ready when he comes. What I'm about to tell you is true. The master will then dress himself so he can serve them. He will have them take their places at the table. And he will come and wait on them. [38]It will be good for those servants whose master finds them ready. It will even be good if he comes in the middle of the night or toward morning. [39]But here is what you must understand. Suppose the owner of the house knew at what hour the robber was coming. He would not have let his house be broken into. [40]You also must be ready. The Son of Man will come at an hour when you don't expect him."

[42]The Lord answered, "Suppose a master puts one of his servants in charge of his other servants. The servant's job is to give them the food they are to receive at the right time. The master wants a faithful and wise manager for this. [43]It will be good for the servant if the master finds him doing his job when the master returns. [44]What I'm about to tell you is true. The master will put that servant in charge of everything he owns. [45]But suppose the servant says to himself, 'My master is taking a long time to come back.' Suppose that servant begins to beat the other servants, both men and women. Suppose he feeds himself. And suppose he drinks until he gets drunk. [46]The master of that servant will come back on a day the servant doesn't expect him. The master will return at an hour the servant doesn't know. Then the master will cut him to pieces. He will send the servant to the place where unbelievers go.

[47]"Suppose a servant knows the master's wishes. But the servant doesn't get ready and doesn't do what the master wants. Then that servant will receive a heavy beating. [48]But suppose the servant does not know his master's wishes. And suppose the servant does things for which he should be punished. He will receive a lighter beating. Much will be required of everyone who has been given much. Even more will be asked of the person who is supposed to take care of much.

Jesus Will Separate People From One Another

[49]"I have come to bring fire on the earth. How I wish the fire had already started! [50]But I have a baptism of suffering to go through. And I must go through it. [51]Do you think I came to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you. I have come to separate people. [52]From now on there will be five members in a family, each one against the other. There will be three against two and two against three. [53]They will be separated. Father will turn against son and son against father. Mother will turn against daughter and daughter against mother. Mother-in-law will turn against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law."

Understanding the Meaning of What Is Happening

[54]Jesus spoke to the crowd. He said, "You see a cloud rising in the west. Right away you say, 'It's going to rain.' And it does. [55]The south wind blows. So you say, 'It's going to be hot.' And it is. [56]You pretenders! You know how to understand the appearance of the earth and the sky. Why can't you understand the meaning of what is happening right now?

[57]"Why don't you judge for yourselves what is right? [58]Suppose someone has a claim against you, and you are on your way to court. Try hard to settle the matter on the way. If you don't, that person may drag you off to the judge. The judge may turn you over to the officer. And the officer may throw you into prison. [59]I tell you, you will not get out until you have paid the very last penny!"

Luke 13

Turn Away From Sin or Die

[1]Some people who were there at that time told Jesus about certain Galileans. Pilate had mixed their blood with their sacrifices. [2]Jesus said, “These people from Galilee suffered greatly. Do you think they were worse sinners than all the other Galileans? [3]I tell you, no! But unless you turn away from your sins, you will all die too. [4]Or what about the 18 people in Siloam? They died when the tower fell on them. Do you think they were more guilty than all the others living in Jerusalem? [5]I tell you, no! But unless you turn away from your sins, you will all die too.”

[6]Then Jesus told a story. “A man had a fig tree,” he said. “It was growing in his vineyard. When he went to look for fruit on it, he didn’t find any. [7]So he went to the man who took care of the vineyard. He said, ‘For three years now I’ve been coming to look for fruit on this fig tree. But I haven’t found any. Cut it down! Why should it use up the soil?’

[8]“ ‘Sir,’ the man replied, ‘leave it alone for one more year. I’ll dig around it and feed it. [9]If it bears fruit next year, fine! If not, then cut it down.’ ”

Jesus Heals a Disabled Woman on the Sabbath Day

[10]Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues on a Sabbath day. [11]A woman there had been disabled by an evil spirit for 18 years. She was bent over and could not stand up straight. [12]Jesus saw her. He asked her to come to him. He said to her, “Woman, you will no longer be disabled. I am about to set you free.” [13]Then he put his hands on her. Right away she stood up straight and praised God.

[14]Jesus had healed the woman on the Sabbath day. This made the synagogue leader angry. He told the people, “There are six days for work. So come and be healed on those days. But do not come on the Sabbath day.”

[15]The Lord answered him, “You pretenders! Doesn’t each of you go to the barn and untie your ox or donkey on the Sabbath day? Then don’t you lead it out to give it water? [16]This woman is a member of Abraham’s family line. But Satan has kept her disabled for 18 long years. Shouldn’t she be set free on the Sabbath day from what was keeping her disabled?”

17When Jesus said this, all those who opposed him were put to shame. But the people were delighted. They loved all the wonderful things he was doing.

The Stories of the Mustard Seed and the Yeast

18Then Jesus asked, “What is God’s kingdom like? What can I compare it to? 19It is like a mustard seed. Someone took the seed and planted it in a garden. It grew and became a tree. The birds sat in its branches.”

20Again he asked, “What can I compare God’s kingdom to? 21It is like yeast that a woman used. She mixed it into 60 pounds of flour. The yeast worked its way all through the dough.”

The Narrow Door

22Then Jesus went through the towns and villages, teaching the people. He was on his way to Jerusalem. 23Someone asked him, “Lord, are only a few people going to be saved?”

He said to them, 24“Try very hard to enter through the narrow door. I tell you, many will try to enter and will not be able to. 25The owner of the house will get up and close the door. Then you will stand outside knocking and begging. You will say, ‘Sir, open the door for us.’

“But he will answer, ‘I don’t know you. And I don’t know where you come from.’

26“Then you will say, ‘We ate and drank with you. You taught in our streets.’

27“But he will reply, ‘I don’t know you. And I don’t know where you come from. Get away from me, all you who do evil!’

28“You will weep and grind your teeth together when you see those who are in God’s kingdom. You will see Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets there. But you yourselves will be thrown out. 29People will come from east and west and north and south. They will take their places at the feast in God’s kingdom. 30Then the last will be first. And the first will be last.”

Jesus’ Sadness Over Jerusalem

31At that time some Pharisees came to Jesus. They said to him, “Leave this place. Go somewhere else. Herod wants to kill you.”

32He replied, “Go and tell that fox, ‘I will keep on driving out demons. I will keep on healing people today and tomorrow. And on the third day I will reach my goal.’ [33]In any case, I must keep going today and tomorrow and the next day. Certainly no prophet can die outside Jerusalem!

[34]“Jerusalem! Jerusalem! You kill the prophets and throw stones in order to kill those who are sent to you. Many times I have wanted to gather your people together. I have wanted to be like a hen who gathers her chicks under her wings. And you would not let me. [35]Look, your house is left empty. I tell you, you will not see me again until you say, ‘Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.’ ” (Psalm 118:26)

Luke 14

Jesus Eats at a Pharisee's House

[1]One Sabbath day, Jesus went to eat in the house of a well-known Pharisee. While he was there, he was being carefully watched. [2]In front of him was a man whose body was badly swollen. [3]Jesus turned to the Pharisees and the authorities on the law. He asked them, "Is it breaking the Law to heal on the Sabbath day?" [4]But they remained silent. So Jesus took hold of the man and healed him. Then he sent him away.

[5]He asked them another question. He said, "Suppose one of you has a child or an ox that falls into a well on the Sabbath day. Wouldn't you pull it out right away?" [6]And they had nothing to say.

[7]Jesus noticed how the guests picked the places of honor at the table. So he told them a story. [8]He said, "Suppose someone invites you to a wedding feast. Do not take the place of honor. A person more important than you may have been invited. [9]If so, the host who invited both of you will come to you. He will say, 'Give this person your seat.' Then you will be filled with shame. You will have to take the least important place. [10]But when you are invited, take the lowest place. Then your host will come over to you. He will say, 'Friend, move up to a better place.' Then you will be honored in front of all the other guests. [11]All those who lift themselves up will be made humble. And those who make themselves humble will be lifted up."

[12]Then Jesus spoke to his host. "Suppose you give a lunch or a dinner," he said. "Do not invite your friends, your brothers or sisters, or your relatives, or your rich neighbors. If you do, they may invite you to eat with them. So you will be paid back. [13]But when you give a banquet, invite those who are poor. Also invite those who can't see or walk. [14]Then you will be blessed. Your guests can't pay you back. But you will be paid back when those who are right with God rise from the dead."

The Story of the Great Banquet

[15]One of the people at the table with Jesus heard him say those things. So he said to Jesus, "Blessed is the one who will eat at the feast in God's kingdom."

[16]Jesus replied, "A certain man was preparing a great banquet. He invited many guests. [17]Then the day of the banquet arrived. He sent his servant to those who had been invited. The servant told them, ‘Come. Everything is ready now.’

[18]“But they all had the same idea. They began to make excuses. The first one said, ‘I have just bought a field. I have to go and see it. Please excuse me.’

[19]“Another said, ‘I have just bought five pairs of oxen. I’m on my way to try them out. Please excuse me.’

[20]“Still another said, ‘I just got married, so I can’t come.’

[21]“The servant came back and reported this to his master. Then the owner of the house became angry. He ordered his servant, ‘Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the town. Bring in those who are poor. Also bring those who can’t see or walk.’

[22]“ ‘Sir,’ the servant said, ‘what you ordered has been done. But there is still room.’

[23]“Then the master told his servant, ‘Go out to the roads. Go out to the country lanes. Make the people come in. I want my house to be full. [24]I tell you, not one of those people who were invited will get a taste of my banquet.’ ”

The Cost of Being a Disciple

[25]Large crowds were traveling with Jesus. He turned and spoke to them. He said, [26]“Anyone who comes to me must hate their father and mother. They must hate their wife and children. They must hate their brothers and sisters. And they must hate even their own life. Unless they do this, they can’t be my disciple. [27]Whoever doesn’t carry their cross and follow me can’t be my disciple.

[28]“Suppose one of you wants to build a tower. Won’t you sit down first and figure out how much it will cost? Then you will see whether you have enough money to finish it. [29]Suppose you start building and are not able to finish. Then everyone who sees what you have done will laugh at you. [30]They will say, ‘This person started to build but wasn’t able to finish.’

[31]“Or suppose a king is about to go to war against another king. And suppose he has 10,000 men, while the other has 20,000 coming against him. Won’t he first sit down and think about whether he can win? [32]And suppose he decides he can’t win. Then he will send some men to ask how peace can be made. He will do this while the other king is still far away. [33]In the same way, you must give up everything you have. Those of you who don’t cannot be my disciple.

[34]“Salt is good. But suppose it loses its saltiness. How can it be made salty again? [35]It is not good for the soil. And it is not good for the trash pile. It will be thrown out.

"Whoever has ears should listen."

Luke 15

The Story of the Lost Sheep

[1]The tax collectors and sinners were all gathering around to hear Jesus. [2]But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law were whispering among themselves. They said, “This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.”

[3]Then Jesus told them a story. [4]He said, “Suppose one of you has 100 sheep and loses one of them. Won’t he leave the 99 in the open country? Won’t he go and look for the one lost sheep until he finds it? [5]When he finds it, he will joyfully put it on his shoulders [6]and go home. Then he will call his friends and neighbors together. He will say, ‘Be joyful with me. I have found my lost sheep.’ [7]I tell you, it will be the same in heaven. There will be great joy when one sinner turns away from sin. Yes, there will be more joy than for 99 godly people who do not need to turn away from their sins.

The Story of the Lost Coin

[8]“Or suppose a woman has ten silver coins and loses one. Won’t she light a lamp and sweep the house? Won’t she search carefully until she finds the coin? [9]And when she finds it, she will call her friends and neighbors together. She will say, ‘Be joyful with me. I have found my lost coin.’ [10]I tell you, it is the same in heaven. There is joy in heaven over one sinner who turns away from sin.”

The Story of the Lost Son

[11]Jesus continued, “There was a man who had two sons. [12]The younger son spoke to his father. He said, ‘Father, give me my share of the family property.’ So the father divided his property between his two sons.

[13]“Not long after that, the younger son packed up all he had. Then he left for a country far away. There he wasted his money on wild living. [14]He spent everything he had. Then the whole country ran low on food. So the son didn’t have what he needed. [15]He went to work for someone who lived in that country. That person sent the son to the fields to feed the pigs. [16]The son wanted to fill his stomach with the food the pigs were eating. But no one gave him anything.

[17]“Then he began to think clearly again. He said, ‘How many of my father’s hired servants have more than enough food! But here I am dying from hunger!

[18]I will get up and go back to my father. I will say to him, “Father, I have sinned against heaven. And I have sinned against you. [19]I am no longer fit to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired servants.” ’ [20]So he got up and went to his father.

“While the son was still a long way off, his father saw him. He was filled with tender love for his son. He ran to him. He threw his arms around him and kissed him.

[21]“The son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you.
I am no longer fit to be called your son.’

[22]“But the father said to his servants, ‘Quick! Bring the best robe and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. [23]Bring the fattest calf and kill it. Let’s have a feast and celebrate. [24]This son of mine was dead. And now he is alive again. He was lost. And now he is found.’ So they began to celebrate.

[25]“The older son was in the field. When he came near the house, he heard music and dancing. [26]So he called one of the servants. He asked him what was going on. [27]‘Your brother has come home,’ the servant replied. ‘Your father has killed the fattest calf. He has done this because your brother is back safe and sound.’

[28]“The older brother became angry. He refused to go in. So his father went out and begged him. [29]But he answered his father, ‘Look! All these years I’ve worked like a slave for you. I have always obeyed your orders. You never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. [30]But this son of yours wasted your money with some prostitutes. Now he comes home. And for him you kill the fattest calf!’

[31]“ ‘My son,’ the father said, ‘you are always with me. Everything I have is yours. [32]But we had to celebrate and be glad. This brother of yours was dead.
And now he is alive again. He was lost. And now he is found.’ ”

Luke 16

The Story of the Clever Manager

1Jesus told his disciples another story. He said, “There was a rich man who had a manager. Some said that the manager was wasting what the rich man owned. 2So the rich man told him to come in. He asked him, ‘What is this I hear about you? Tell me exactly how you have handled what I own. You can’t be my manager any longer.’

3“The manager said to himself, ‘What will I do now? My master is taking away my job. I’m not strong enough to dig. And I’m too ashamed to beg. 4I know what I’m going to do. I’ll do something so that when I lose my job here, people will welcome me into their houses.’

5“So he called in each person who owed his master something. He asked the first one, ‘How much do you owe my master?’

6“ ‘I owe 900 gallons of olive oil,’ he replied.

“The manager told him, ‘Take your bill. Sit down quickly and change it to 450 gallons.’

7“Then he asked the second one, ‘And how much do you owe?’

“ ‘I owe 1,000 bushels of wheat,’ he replied.

“The manager told him, ‘Take your bill and change it to 800 bushels.’

8“The manager had not been honest. But the master praised him for being clever. The people of this world are clever in dealing with those who are like themselves. They are more clever than God’s people. 9I tell you, use the riches of this world to help others. In that way, you will make friends for yourselves. Then when your riches are gone, you will be welcomed into your eternal home in heaven.

10“Suppose you can be trusted with something very little. Then you can also be trusted with something very large. But suppose you are not honest with something very little. Then you will also not be honest with something very large. 11Suppose you have not been worthy of trust in handling worldly wealth.
Then who will trust you with true riches? 12Suppose you have not been worthy of trust in handling someone else’s property. Then who will give you property of your own?

13“No one can serve two masters at the same time. Either you will hate one of them and love the other. Or you will be faithful to one and dislike the other. You can’t serve God and money at the same time.”

14The Pharisees loved money. They heard all that Jesus said and made fun of him. 15Jesus said to them, “You try to make yourselves look good in the eyes of other people. But God knows your hearts. What people think is worth a lot is hated by God.

More Teachings

16“The teachings of the Law and the Prophets were preached until John the Baptist came. Since then, the good news of God’s kingdom is being preached.
And everyone is trying very hard to enter it. 17It is easier for heaven and earth to disappear than for the smallest part of a letter to drop out of the Law.

18“Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery. Also, the man who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

The Rich Man and Lazarus

19“Once there was a rich man. He was dressed in purple cloth and fine linen.
He lived an easy life every day. 20A man named Lazarus was placed at his gate.
Lazarus was a beggar. His body was covered with sores. 21Even dogs came and licked his sores. All he wanted was to eat what fell from the rich man’s table.

22“The time came when the beggar died. The angels carried him to Abraham’s side. The rich man also died and was buried. 23In the place of the dead, the rich man was suffering terribly. He looked up and saw Abraham far away. Lazarus was by his side. 24So the rich man called out, ‘Father Abraham! Have pity on me! Send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water. Then he can cool my tongue with it. I am in terrible pain in this fire.’

25“But Abraham replied, ‘Son, remember what happened in your lifetime. You received your good things. Lazarus received bad things. Now he is comforted here, and you are in terrible pain. 26Besides, a wide space has been placed between us and you. So those who want to go from here to you can’t go. And no one can cross over from there to us.’

27“The rich man answered, ‘Then I beg you, father Abraham. Send Lazarus to my family. 28I have five brothers. Let Lazarus warn them. Then they will not come to this place of terrible suffering.’

29“Abraham replied, ‘They have the teachings of Moses and the Prophets. Let your brothers listen to them.’

30“ ‘No, father Abraham,’ he said. ‘But if someone from the dead goes to them, they will turn away from their sins.’

31“Abraham said to him, ‘They do not listen to Moses and the Prophets. So they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.’ ”

Luke 17

Sin, Faith and Duty

[1]Jesus spoke to his disciples. “Things that make people sin are sure to come,” he said. “But how terrible it will be for anyone who causes those things to come! [2]Suppose people lead one of these little ones to sin. It would be better for those people to be thrown into the sea with a millstone tied around their neck. [3]So watch what you do.

“If your brother or sister sins against you, tell them they are wrong. Then if they turn away from their sins, forgive them. [4]Suppose they sin against you seven times in one day. And suppose they come back to you each time and say, ‘I’m sorry.’ You must forgive them.”

[5]The apostles said to the Lord, “Give us more faith!”

[6]He replied, “Suppose you have faith as small as a mustard seed. Then you can say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be pulled up. Be planted in the sea.’ And it will obey you.

[7]“Suppose one of you has a servant plowing or looking after the sheep. And suppose the servant came in from the field. Will you say to him, ‘Come along now and sit down to eat’? [8]No. Instead, you will say, ‘Prepare my supper. Get yourself ready. Wait on me while I eat and drink. Then after that you can eat and drink.’ [9]Will you thank the servant because he did what he was told to do? [10]It’s the same with you. Suppose you have done everything you were told to do. Then you should say, ‘We are not worthy to serve you. We have only done our duty.’ ”

Jesus Heals Ten Men Who Have a Skin Disease

[11]Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem. He traveled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. [12]As he was going into a village, ten men met him. They had a skin disease. They were standing close by. [13]And they called out in a loud voice, “Jesus! Master! Have pity on us!”

[14]Jesus saw them and said, “Go. Show yourselves to the priests.” While they were on the way, they were healed.

[15]When one of them saw that he was healed, he came back. He praised God in a loud voice. [16]He threw himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him. The man was a Samaritan.

[17]Jesus asked, “Weren’t all ten healed? Where are the other nine? [18]Didn’t anyone else return and give praise to God except this outsider?” [19]Then Jesus said to him, “Get up and go. Your faith has healed you.”

The Coming of God’s Kingdom

[20]Once the Pharisees asked Jesus when God’s kingdom would come. He replied, “The coming of God’s kingdom is not something you can see. [21]People will not say, ‘Here it is.’ Or, ‘There it is.’ That’s because God’s kingdom is among you.”

[22]Then Jesus spoke to his disciples. “The time is coming,” he said, “when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man. But you won’t see it. [23]People will tell you, ‘There he is!’ Or, ‘Here he is!’ Don’t go running off after them. [24]When the Son of Man comes, he will be like the lightning. It flashes and lights up the sky from one end to the other. [25]But first the Son of Man must suffer many things. He will not be accepted by the people of today.

[26]“Remember how it was in the days of Noah. It will be the same when the Son of Man comes. [27]People were eating and drinking. They were getting married. They were giving their daughters to be married. They did all those things right up to the day Noah entered the ark. Then the flood came and destroyed them all.

[28]“It was the same in the days of Lot. People were eating and drinking. They were buying and selling. They were planting and building. [29]But on the day Lot left Sodom, fire and sulfur rained down from heaven. And all the people were destroyed.

[30]“It will be just like that on the day the Son of Man is shown to the world. [31]Suppose someone is on the housetop on that day. And suppose what they own is inside the house. They should not go down to get what they own. No one in the field should go back for anything either. [32]Remember Lot’s wife! [33]Whoever tries to keep their life will lose it. Whoever loses their life will keep it. [34]I tell you, on that night two people will be in one bed. One person will be taken and the other left. [35-36]Two women will be grinding grain together. One will be taken and the other left.”

[37]“Where, Lord?” his disciples asked.

He replied, “The vultures will gather where there is a dead body.”

Luke 18

The Story of the Widow Who Would Not Give Up

[1]Jesus told his disciples a story. He wanted to show them that they should always pray and not give up. [2]He said, “In a certain town there was a judge. He didn’t have any respect for God or care about what people thought. [3]A widow lived in that town. She came to the judge again and again. She kept begging him, ‘Make things right for me. Someone is treating me badly.’

[4]“For some time the judge refused. But finally he said to himself, ‘I don’t have any respect for God. I don’t care about what people think. [5]But this widow keeps bothering me. So I will see that things are made right for her. If I don’t, she will someday come and attack me!’ ”

[6]The Lord said, “Listen to what the unfair judge says. [7]God’s chosen people cry out to him day and night. Won’t he make things right for them? Will he keep putting them off? [8]I tell you, God will see that things are made right for them. He will make sure it happens quickly. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find people on earth who have faith?”

The Story of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector

[9]Jesus told a story to some people who were sure they were right with God. They looked down on everyone else. [10]He said to them, “Two men went up to the temple to pray. One was a Pharisee. The other was a tax collector. [11]The Pharisee stood by himself and prayed. ‘God, I thank you that I am not like other people,’ he said. ‘I am not like robbers or those who do other evil things. I am not like those who commit adultery. I am not even like this tax collector. [12]I fast twice a week. And I give a tenth of all I get.’

[13]“But the tax collector stood farther away than the Pharisee. He would not even look up to heaven. He brought his hand to his heart and prayed. He said, ‘God, have mercy on me. I am a sinner.’

[14]“I tell you, the tax collector went home accepted by God. But not the Pharisee. All those who lift themselves up will be made humble. And those who make themselves humble will be lifted up.”

Little Children Are Brought to Jesus

15 People were also bringing babies to Jesus. They wanted him to place his hands on the babies. When the disciples saw this, they told the people to stop.
16 But Jesus asked the children to come to him. “Let the little children come to me,” he said. “Don’t keep them away. God’s kingdom belongs to people like them. 17 What I’m about to tell you is true. Anyone who will not receive God’s kingdom like a little child will never enter it.”

Rich People and the Kingdom of God

18 A certain ruler asked Jesus a question. “Good teacher,” he said, “what must I do to receive eternal life?”

19 “Why do you call me good?” Jesus answered. “No one is good except God.
20 You know what the commandments say. ‘Do not commit adultery. Do not commit murder. Do not steal. Do not be a false witness. Honor your father and mother.’ ” (Exodus 20:12–16; Deuteronomy 5:16–20)

21 “I have obeyed all those commandments since I was a boy,” the ruler said.

22 When Jesus heard this, he said to him, “You are still missing one thing. Sell everything you have. Give the money to those who are poor. You will have treasure in heaven. Then come and follow me.”

23 When the ruler heard this, he became very sad. He was very rich. 24 Jesus looked at him. Then he said, “How hard it is for rich people to enter God’s kingdom! 25 Is it hard for a camel to go through the eye of a needle? It is even harder for someone who is rich to enter God’s kingdom!”

26 Those who heard this asked, “Then who can be saved?”

27 Jesus replied, “Things that are impossible with people are possible with God.”

28 Peter said to him, “We have left everything we had in order to follow you!”

29 “What I’m about to tell you is true,” Jesus said to them. “Has anyone left home or wife or husband or brothers or sisters or parents or children for God’s kingdom? 30 They will receive many times as much in this world. In the world to come they will receive eternal life.”

Jesus Speaks a Third Time About His Coming Death

31 Jesus took the 12 disciples to one side. He told them, “We are going up to Jerusalem. Everything that the prophets wrote about the Son of Man will come true. 32 He will be handed over to the Gentiles. They will make fun of him. They will laugh at him and spit on him. [33]They will whip him and kill him. On the third day, he will rise from the dead!”

[34]The disciples did not understand any of this. Its meaning was hidden from them. So they didn’t know what Jesus was talking about.

A Blind Beggar Receives His Sight

[35]Jesus was approaching Jericho. A blind man was sitting by the side of the road begging. [36]The blind man heard the crowd going by. He asked what was happening. [37]They told him, “Jesus of Nazareth is passing by.”

[38]So the blind man called out, “Jesus! Son of David! Have mercy on me!”

[39]Those who led the way commanded him to stop. They told him to be quiet. But he shouted even louder, “Son of David! Have mercy on me!”

[40]Jesus stopped and ordered the man to be brought to him. When the man came near, Jesus spoke to him. [41]“What do you want me to do for you?” Jesus asked.

“Lord, I want to be able to see,” the blind man replied.

[42]Jesus said to him, “Receive your sight. Your faith has healed you.” [43]Right away he could see. He followed Jesus, praising God. When all the people saw it, they also praised God.

Luke 19

Zacchaeus the Tax Collector

[1]Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through. [2]A man named Zacchaeus lived there. He was a chief tax collector and was very rich. [3]Zacchaeus wanted to see who Jesus was. But he was a short man. He could not see Jesus because of the crowd. [4]So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore-fig tree. He wanted to see Jesus, who was coming that way.

[5]Jesus reached the spot where Zacchaeus was. He looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, come down at once. I must stay at your house today." [6]So Zacchaeus came down at once and welcomed him gladly.

[7]All the people saw this. They began to whisper among themselves. They said, "Jesus has gone to be the guest of a sinner. "

[8]But Zacchaeus stood up. He said, "Look, Lord! Here and now I give half of what I own to those who are poor. And if I have cheated anybody out of anything, I will pay it back. I will pay back four times the amount I took."

[9]Jesus said to Zacchaeus, "Today salvation has come to your house. You are a member of Abraham's family line. [10]The Son of Man came to look for the lost and save them."

The Story of Three Slaves

[11]While the people were listening to these things, Jesus told them a story. He was near Jerusalem. The people thought that God's kingdom was going to appear right away. [12]Jesus said, "A man from an important family went to a country far away. He went there to be made king and then return home. [13]So he sent for ten of his slaves. He gave them each about three months' pay. 'Put this money to work until I come back,' he said.

[14]"But those he ruled over hated him. They sent some messengers after him. They were sent to say, 'We don't want this man to be our king.'

[15]"But he was made king and returned home. Then he sent for the slaves he had given the money to. He wanted to find out what they had earned with it.

[16]"The first one came to him. He said, 'Sir, your money has earned ten times as much.'

[17]" 'You have done well, my good slave!' his master replied. 'You have been faithful in a very small matter. So I will put you in charge of ten towns.’

18“The second slave came to his master. He said, ‘Sir, your money has earned five times as much.’

19“His master answered, ‘I will put you in charge of five towns.’

20“Then another slave came. He said, ‘Sir, here is your money. I have kept it hidden in a piece of cloth. 21I was afraid of you. You are a hard man. You take out what you did not put in. You harvest what you did not plant.’

22“His master replied, ‘I will judge you by your own words, you evil slave! So you knew that I am a hard man? You knew that I take out what I did not put in? You knew that I harvest what I did not plant? 23Then why didn’t you put my money in the bank? When I came back, I could have collected it with interest.’

24“Then he said to those standing by, ‘Take his money away from him. Give it to the one who has ten times as much.’

25“ ‘Sir,’ they said, ‘he already has ten times as much!’

26“He replied, ‘I tell you that everyone who has will be given more. But here is what will happen to anyone who has nothing. Even what they have will be taken away from them. 27And what about my enemies who did not want me to be king over them? Bring them here! Kill them in front of me!’ ”

Jesus Comes to Jerusalem as King

28After Jesus had said this, he went on ahead. He was going up to Jerusalem. 29He approached Bethphage and Bethany. The hill there was called the Mount of Olives. Jesus sent out two of his disciples. He said to them, 30“Go to the village ahead of you. As soon as you get there, you will find a donkey’s colt tied up. No one has ever ridden it. Untie it and bring it here. 31Someone may ask you, ‘Why are you untying it?’ If so, say, ‘The Lord needs it.’ ”

32Those who were sent ahead went and found the young donkey. It was there just as Jesus had told them. 33They were untying the colt when its owners came. The owners asked them, “Why are you untying the colt?”

34They replied, “The Lord needs it.”

35Then the disciples brought the colt to Jesus. They threw their coats on the young donkey and put Jesus on it. 36As he went along, people spread their coats on the road.

37Jesus came near the place where the road goes down the Mount of Olives. There the whole crowd of disciples began to praise God with joy. In loud voices they praised him for all the miracles they had seen. They shouted, > [38]"Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord!" (Psalm 118:26)

>
> "May there be peace and glory in the highest heaven!"

[39]Some of the Pharisees in the crowd spoke to Jesus. "Teacher," they said, "tell your disciples to stop!"

[40]"I tell you," he replied, "if they keep quiet, the stones will cry out."

[41]He approached Jerusalem. When he saw the city, he began to weep. [42]He said, "I wish you had known today what would bring you peace! But now it is hidden from your eyes. [43]The days will come when your enemies will arrive. They will build a wall of dirt up against your city. They will surround you and close you in on every side. [44]You didn't recognize the time when God came to you. So your enemies will smash you to the ground. They will destroy you and all the people inside your walls. They will not leave one stone on top of another."

Jesus Clears Out the Temple

[45]Then Jesus entered the temple courtyard. He began to drive out those who were selling there. [46]He told them, "It is written that the Lord said, 'My house will be a house where people can pray.' (Isaiah 56:7) But you have made it a 'den for robbers.' " (Jeremiah 7:11)

[47]Every day Jesus was teaching at the temple. But the chief priests and the teachers of the law were trying to kill him. So were the leaders among the people. [48]But they couldn't find any way to do it. All the people were paying close attention to his words.

Luke 20

The Authority of Jesus Is Questioned

[1]One day Jesus was teaching the people in the temple courtyard. He was announcing the good news to them. The chief priests and the teachers of the law came up to him. The elders came with them. [2]"Tell us by what authority you are doing these things," they all said. "Who gave you this authority?"

[3]Jesus replied, "I will also ask you a question. Tell me, [4]was John's baptism from heaven? Or did it come from people?"

[5]They talked to one another about it. They said, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will ask, 'Why didn't you believe him?' [6]But if we say, 'From people,' all the people will throw stones at us and kill us. They believe that John was a prophet."

[7]So they answered Jesus, "We don't know where John's baptism came from."

[8]Jesus said, "Then I won't tell you by what authority I am doing these things either."

The Story of the Renters

[9]Jesus went on to tell the people a story. "A man planted a vineyard," he said. "He rented it out to some farmers. Then he went away for a long time. [10]At harvest time he sent a slave to the renters. They were supposed to give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the renters beat the slave. Then they sent him away with nothing. [11]So the man sent another slave. They beat that one and treated him badly. They also sent him away with nothing. [12]The man sent a third slave. The renters wounded him and threw him out.

[13]"Then the owner of the vineyard said, 'What should I do? I have a son, and I love him. I will send him. Maybe they will respect him.'

[14]"But when the renters saw the son, they talked the matter over. 'This is the one who will receive all the owner's property someday,' they said. 'Let's kill him. Then everything will be ours.' [15]So they threw him out of the vineyard. And they killed him.

"What will the owner of the vineyard do to the renters? [16]He will come and kill them. He will give the vineyard to others."

When the people heard this, they said, "We hope this never happens!"

[17]Jesus looked right at them and said, "Here is something I want you to explain the meaning of. It is written,

> “ ‘The stone the builders didn’t accept > has become the most important stone of all.’ (Psalm 118:22)

18 Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces. But the stone will crush anyone it falls on.”
19 The teachers of the law and the chief priests looked for a way to arrest Jesus at once. They knew he had told that story against them. But they were afraid of the people.

Is It Right to Pay the Royal Tax to Caesar?

20 The religious leaders sent spies to keep a close watch on Jesus. The spies pretended to be sincere. They hoped they could trap Jesus with something he would say. Then they could hand him over to the power and authority of the governor. 21 So the spies questioned Jesus. “Teacher,” they said, “we know that you speak and teach what is right. We know you don’t favor one person over another. You teach the way of God truthfully. 22 Is it right for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?”
23 Jesus saw they were trying to trick him. So he said to them, 24 “Show me a silver coin. Whose picture and words are on it?”
“Caesar’s,” they replied.
25 He said to them, “Then give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar. And give back to God what belongs to God.”
26 They were not able to trap him with what he had said there in front of all the people. Amazed by his answer, they became silent.

Marriage When the Dead Rise

27 The Sadducees do not believe that people rise from the dead. Some of them came to Jesus with a question. 28 “Teacher,” they said, “Moses wrote for us about a man’s brother who dies. Suppose the brother leaves a wife but has no children. Then the man must marry the widow. He must provide children to carry on his dead brother’s name. 29 There were seven brothers. The first one married a woman. He died without leaving any children. 30 The second one married her. 31 And then the third one married her. One after another, the seven brothers married her. They all died. None left any children. 32 Finally, the woman died too.

[33]Now then, when the dead rise, whose wife will she be? All seven brothers were married to her."

[34]Jesus replied, "People in this world get married. And their parents give them to be married. [35]But it will not be like that when the dead rise. Those who are considered worthy to take part in the world to come won't get married. And their parents won't give them to be married. [36]They can't die anymore. They are like the angels. They are God's children. They will be given a new form of life when the dead rise. [37]Remember the story of Moses and the burning bush. Even Moses showed that the dead rise. The Lord said to him, 'I am the God of Abraham. I am the God of Isaac. And I am the God of Jacob.' (Exodus 3:6) [38]He is not the God of the dead. He is the God of the living. In his eyes, everyone is alive."

[39]Some of the teachers of the law replied, "You have spoken well, teacher!" [40]And no one dared to ask him any more questions.

Whose Son Is the Messiah?

[41]Jesus said to them, "Why do people say that the Messiah is the son of David? [42]David himself says in the Book of Psalms,

> " 'The Lord said to my Lord,
> "Sit at my right hand
> [43]until I put your enemies
> under your control." ' (Psalm 110:1)

[44]David calls him 'Lord.' So how can he be David's son?"

Warning Against the Teachers of the Law

[45]All the people were listening. Jesus said to his disciples, [46]"Watch out for the teachers of the law. They like to walk around in long robes. They love to be greeted with respect in the market. They love to have the most important seats in the synagogues. They also love to have the places of honor at banquets. [47]They take over the houses of widows. They say long prayers to show off. God will punish these men very much."

Luke 21

The Widow's Offering

[1]As Jesus looked up, he saw rich people putting their gifts into the temple offering boxes. [2]He also saw a poor widow put in two very small copper coins. [3]"What I'm about to tell you is true," Jesus said. "That poor widow has put in more than all the others. [4]All these other people gave a lot because they are rich. But even though she is poor, she put in everything. She had nothing left to live on."

When the Temple Will Be Destroyed and the Signs of the End

[5]Some of Jesus' disciples were talking about the temple. They spoke about how it was decorated with beautiful stones and with gifts that honored God. But Jesus asked, [6]"Do you see all this? The time will come when not one stone will be left on top of another. Every stone will be thrown down."

[7]"Teacher," they asked, "when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that they are about to take place?"

[8]Jesus replied, "Keep watch! Be careful that you are not fooled. Many will come in my name. They will claim, 'I am he!' And they will say, 'The time is near!' Do not follow them. [9]Do not be afraid when you hear about wars and about fighting against rulers. Those things must happen first. But the end will not come right away."

[10]Then Jesus said to them, "Nation will fight against nation. Kingdom will fight against kingdom. [11]In many places there will be powerful earthquakes. People will go hungry. There will be terrible sicknesses. Things will happen that will make people afraid. There will be great and miraculous signs from heaven.

[12]"But before all this, people will arrest you and treat you badly. They will hand you over to synagogues and put you in prison. You will be brought to kings and governors. All this will happen to you because of my name. [13]And so you will be witnesses about me. [14]But make up your mind not to worry ahead of time about how to stand up for yourselves. [15]I will give you words of wisdom. None of your enemies will be able to withstand them or prove them wrong. [16]Even your parents, brothers, sisters, relatives and friends will hand you over to the authorities. The authorities will put some of you to death. [17]Everyone will hate you because of me. [18]But not a hair on your head will be harmed. [19]Remain strong in the faith, and you will receive eternal life.

[20]"A time is coming when you will see armies surround Jerusalem. Then you will know that it will soon be destroyed. [21]Those who are in Judea should then escape to the mountains. Those in the city should get out. Those in the country should not enter the city. [22]This is the time when God will punish Jerusalem. Everything will come true, just as it has been written. [23]How awful it will be in those days for pregnant women! How awful for nursing mothers! There will be terrible suffering in the land. There will be great anger against those people. [24]Some will be killed by the sword. Others will be taken as prisoners to all the nations. Jerusalem will be taken over by Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles come to an end.

[25]"There will be signs in the sun, moon and stars. The nations of the earth will be in terrible pain. They will be puzzled by the roaring and tossing of the sea. [26]Terror will make people faint. They will be worried about what is happening in the world. The sun, moon and stars will be shaken from their places. [27]At that time people will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud. He will come with power and great glory. [28]When these things begin to take place, stand up. Hold your head up with joy and hope. The time when you will be set free will be very close."

[29]Jesus told them a story. "Look at the fig tree and all the trees," he said. [30]"When you see leaves appear on the branches, you know that summer is near. [31]In the same way, when you see these things happening, you will know that God's kingdom is near.

[32]"What I'm about to tell you is true. The people living now will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened. [33]Heaven and earth will pass away. But my words will never pass away.

[34]"Be careful. If you aren't, your hearts will be loaded down with wasteful living, drunkenness and the worries of life. Then the day the Son of Man returns will close on you like a trap. It will happen suddenly. [35]That day will come on every person who lives on the whole earth. [36]Always keep watching. Pray that you will be able to escape all that is about to happen. Also, pray that you will not be judged guilty when the Son of Man comes."

[37]Each day Jesus taught at the temple. And each evening he went to spend the night on the hill called the Mount of Olives. [38]All the people came to the temple early in the morning. They wanted to hear Jesus speak.

Luke 22

Judas Agrees to Hand Jesus Over

[1]The Feast of Unleavened Bread, called the Passover, was near. [2]The chief priests and the teachers of the law were looking for a way to get rid of Jesus. They were afraid of the people. [3]Then Satan entered Judas, who was called Iscariot. Judas was one of the 12 disciples. [4]He went to the chief priests and the officers of the temple guard. He talked with them about how he could hand Jesus over to them. [5]They were delighted and agreed to give him money. [6]Judas accepted their offer. He watched for the right time to hand Jesus over to them. He wanted to do it when no crowd was around.

The Last Supper

[7]Then the day of Unleavened Bread came. That was the time the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. [8]Jesus sent Peter and John on ahead. "Go," he told them. "Prepare for us to eat the Passover meal."

[9]"Where do you want us to prepare for it?" they asked.

[10]Jesus replied, "When you enter the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him to the house he enters. [11]Then say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher asks, "Where is the guest room? Where can I eat the Passover meal with my disciples?" ' [12]He will show you a large upstairs room with furniture already in it. Prepare for us to eat there."

[13]Peter and John left. They found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover meal.

[14]When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles took their places at the table. [15]He said to them, "I have really looked forward to eating this Passover meal with you. I wanted to do this before I suffer. [16]I tell you, I will not eat the Passover meal again until it is celebrated in God's kingdom."

[17]After Jesus took the cup, he gave thanks. He said, "Take this cup and share it among yourselves. [18]I tell you, I will not drink wine with you again until God's kingdom comes."

[19]Then Jesus took bread. He gave thanks and broke it. He handed it to them and said, "This is my body. It is given for you. Every time you eat it, do this in memory of me."

20 In the same way, after the supper he took the cup. He said, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood. It is poured out for you. 21 But someone here is going to hand me over to my enemies. His hand is with mine on the table. 22 The Son of Man will go to his death, just as God has already decided. But how terrible it will be for the one who hands him over!” 23 The apostles began to ask one another about this. They wondered which one of them would do it.

24 They also started to argue. They disagreed about which of them was thought to be the most important person. 25 Jesus said to them, “The kings of the Gentiles hold power over their people. And those who order them around call themselves Protectors. 26 But you must not be like that. Instead, the most important among you should be like the youngest. The one who rules should be like the one who serves. 27 Who is more important? Is it the one at the table, or the one who serves? Isn’t it the one who is at the table? But I am among you as one who serves. 28 You have stood by me during my troubles. 29 And I give you a kingdom, just as my Father gave me a kingdom. 30 Then you will eat and drink at my table in my kingdom. And you will sit on thrones, judging the 12 tribes of Israel.

31 “Simon, Simon! Satan has asked to sift all of you disciples like wheat. 32 But I have prayed for you, Simon. I have prayed that your faith will not fail. When you have turned back, help your brothers to be strong.”

33 But Simon replied, “Lord, I am ready to go with you to prison and to death.”

34 Jesus answered, “I tell you, Peter, you will say three times that you don’t know me. And you will do it before the rooster crows today.”

35 Then Jesus asked the disciples, “Did you need anything when I sent you without a purse, bag or sandals?”

“Nothing,” they answered.

36 He said to them, “But now if you have a purse, take it. And also take a bag.
If you don’t have a sword, sell your coat and buy one. 37 It is written, ‘He was counted among those who had committed crimes.’ (Isaiah 53:12) I tell you that what is written about me must come true. Yes, it is already coming true.”

38 The disciples said, “See, Lord, here are two swords.”

“Two swords are enough!” he replied.

Jesus Prays on the Mount of Olives

39 Jesus went out as usual to the Mount of Olives. His disciples followed him.

40When they reached the place, Jesus spoke. “Pray that you won’t fall into sin when you are tempted,” he said to them. 41Then he went a short distance away from them. There he got down on his knees and prayed. 42He said, “Father, if you are willing, take this cup of suffering away from me. But do what you want, not what I want.” 43An angel from heaven appeared to Jesus and gave him strength. 44Because he was very sad and troubled, he prayed even harder. His sweat was like drops of blood falling to the ground.

45After that, he got up from prayer and went back to the disciples. He found them sleeping. They were worn out because they were very sad. 46“Why are you sleeping?” he asked them. “Get up! Pray that you won’t fall into sin when you are tempted.”

Jesus Is Arrested

47While Jesus was still speaking, a crowd came up. The man named Judas was leading them. He was one of the 12 disciples. Judas approached Jesus to kiss him. 48But Jesus asked him, “Judas, are you handing over the Son of Man with a kiss?”

49Jesus’ followers saw what was going to happen. So they said, “Lord, should we use our swords against them?” 50One of them struck the slave of the high priest and cut off his right ear.

51But Jesus answered, “Stop this!” And he touched the man’s ear and healed him.

52Then Jesus spoke to the chief priests, the officers of the temple guard, and the elders. They had all come for him. “Am I leading a band of armed men against you?” he asked. “Do you have to come with swords and clubs? 53Every day I was with you in the temple courtyard. And you didn’t lay a hand on me.
But this is your hour. This is when darkness rules.”

Peter Says He Does Not Know Jesus

54Then the men arrested Jesus and led him away. They took him into the high priest’s house. Peter followed from far away. 55Some people there started a fire in the middle of the courtyard. Then they sat down together. Peter sat down with them. 56A female servant saw him sitting there in the firelight. She looked closely at him. Then she said, “This man was with Jesus.”

57But Peter said he had not been with him. “Woman, I don’t know him,” he said.

58 A little later someone else saw Peter. “You also are one of them,” he said.

“No,” Peter replied. “I’m not!”

59 About an hour later, another person spoke up. “This fellow must have been with Jesus,” he said. “He is from Galilee.”

60 Peter replied, “Man, I don’t know what you’re talking about!” Just as he was speaking, the rooster crowed. 61 The Lord turned and looked right at Peter. Then Peter remembered what the Lord had spoken to him. “The rooster will crow today,” Jesus had said. “Before it does, you will say three times that you don’t know me.” 62 Peter went outside. He broke down and cried.

The Guards Make Fun of Jesus

63 There were men guarding Jesus. They began laughing at him and beating him. 64 They blindfolded him. They said, “Prophesy! Who hit you?” 65 They also said many other things to make fun of him.

Jesus Is Brought to Pilate and Herod

66 At dawn the elders of the people met together. These included the chief priests and the teachers of the law. Jesus was led to them. 67 “If you are the Messiah,” they said, “tell us.”

Jesus answered, “If I tell you, you will not believe me. 68 And if I asked you, you would not answer. 69 But from now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the mighty God.”

70 They all asked, “Are you the Son of God then?”

He replied, “You say that I am.”

71 Then they said, “Why do we need any more witnesses? We have heard it from his own lips.”

Luke 23

[1]Then the whole group got up and led Jesus off to Pilate. [2]They began to bring charges against Jesus. They said, “We have found this man misleading our people. He is against paying taxes to Caesar. And he claims to be Messiah, a king.”

[3]So Pilate asked Jesus, “Are you the king of the Jews?”

“You have said so,” Jesus replied.

[4]Then Pilate spoke to the chief priests and the crowd. He announced, “I find no basis for a charge against this man.”

[5]But they kept it up. They said, “His teaching stirs up the people all over Judea. He started in Galilee and has come all the way here.”

[6]When Pilate heard this, he asked if the man was from Galilee. [7]He learned that Jesus was from Herod’s area of authority. So Pilate sent Jesus to Herod. At that time Herod was also in Jerusalem.

[8]When Herod saw Jesus, he was very pleased. He had been wanting to see Jesus for a long time. He had heard much about him. He hoped to see Jesus perform a sign of some kind. [9]Herod asked him many questions, but Jesus gave him no answer. [10]The chief priests and the teachers of the law were standing there. With loud shouts they brought charges against him. [11]Herod and his soldiers laughed at him and made fun of him. They dressed him in a beautiful robe. Then they sent him back to Pilate. [12]That day Herod and Pilate became friends. Before this time they had been enemies.

[13]Pilate called together the chief priests, the rulers and the people. [14]He said to them, “You brought me this man. You said he was turning the people against the authorities. I have questioned him in front of you. I have found no basis for your charges against him. [15]Herod hasn’t either. So he sent Jesus back to us. As you can see, Jesus has done nothing that is worthy of death. [16-17]So I will just have him whipped and let him go.”

[18]But the whole crowd shouted, “Kill this man! But let Barabbas go!” [19]Barabbas had been thrown into prison. He had taken part in a struggle in the city against the authorities. He had also committed murder.

[20]Pilate wanted to let Jesus go. So he made an appeal to the crowd again. [21]But they kept shouting, “Crucify him! Crucify him!”

[22]Pilate spoke to them for the third time. “Why?” he asked. “What wrong has this man done? I have found no reason to have him put to death. So I will just have him whipped and let him go."

[23]But with loud shouts they kept calling for Jesus to be crucified. The people's shouts won out. [24]So Pilate decided to give them what they wanted. [25]He set free the man they asked for. The man had been thrown in prison for murder and for fighting against the authorities. Pilate handed Jesus over to them so they could carry out their plans.

Jesus Is Nailed to a Cross

[26]As the soldiers led Jesus away, they took hold of Simon. Simon was from Cyrene. He was on his way in from the country. They put a wooden cross on his shoulders. Then they made him carry it behind Jesus. [27]A large number of people followed Jesus. Some were women whose hearts were filled with sorrow. They cried loudly because of him. [28]Jesus turned and said to them, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me. Weep for yourselves and for your children. [29]The time will come when you will say, 'Blessed are the women who can't have children! Blessed are those who never gave birth or nursed babies!' [30]It is written,

> " 'The people will say to the mountains, "Fall on us!"
> They'll say to the hills, "Cover us!" ' (Hosea 10:8)

[31]People do these things when trees are green. So what will happen when trees are dry?"

[32]Two other men were also led out with Jesus to be killed. Both of them had broken the law. [33]The soldiers brought them to the place called the Skull. There they nailed Jesus to the cross. He hung between the two criminals. One was on his right and one was on his left. [34]Jesus said, "Father, forgive them. They don't know what they are doing." The soldiers divided up his clothes by casting lots.

[35]The people stood there watching. The rulers even made fun of Jesus. They said, "He saved others. Let him save himself if he is God's Messiah, the Chosen One."

[36]The soldiers also came up and poked fun at him. They offered him wine vinegar. [37]They said, "If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself."

[38]A written sign had been placed above him. It read,

THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

[39]One of the criminals hanging there made fun of Jesus. He said, “Aren’t you the Messiah? Save yourself! Save us!”

[40]But the other criminal scolded him. “Don’t you have any respect for God?” he said. “Remember, you are under the same sentence of death. [41]We are being punished fairly. We are getting just what our actions call for. But this man hasn’t done anything wrong.”

[42]Then he said, “Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.”

[43]Jesus answered him, “What I’m about to tell you is true. Today you will be with me in paradise.”

Jesus Dies

[44]It was now about noon. Then darkness covered the whole land until three o’clock. [45]The sun had stopped shining. The temple curtain was torn in two. [46]Jesus called out in a loud voice, “Father, into your hands I commit my life.” After he said this, he took his last breath.

[47]The Roman commander saw what had happened. He praised God and said, “Jesus was surely a man who did what was right.” [48]The people had gathered to watch this sight. When they saw what happened, they felt very sad. Then they went away. [49]But all those who knew Jesus stood not very far away, watching these things. They included the women who had followed him from Galilee.

Jesus Is Buried

[50]A man named Joseph was a member of the Jewish Council. He was a good and honest man. [51]Joseph had not agreed with what the leaders had decided and done. He was from Arimathea, a town in Judea. He himself was waiting for God’s kingdom. [52]Joseph went to Pilate and asked for Jesus’ body. [53]Joseph took it down and wrapped it in linen cloth. Then he placed it in a tomb cut in the rock. No one had ever been buried there. [54]It was Preparation Day. The Sabbath day was about to begin.

[55]The women who had come with Jesus from Galilee followed Joseph. They saw the tomb and how Jesus’ body was placed in it. [56]Then they went home. There they prepared spices and perfumes. But they rested on the Sabbath day in order to obey the Law.

Luke 24

Jesus Rises From the Dead

[1]It was very early in the morning on the first day of the week. The women took the spices they had prepared. Then they went to the tomb. [2]They found the stone rolled away from it. [3]When they entered the tomb, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. [4]They were wondering about this. Suddenly two men in clothes as bright as lightning stood beside them. [5]The women were terrified. They bowed down with their faces to the ground. Then the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? [6]Jesus is not here! He has risen! Remember how he told you he would rise. It was while he was still with you in Galilee. [7]He said, 'The Son of Man must be handed over to sinful people. He must be nailed to a cross. On the third day he will rise from the dead.' " [8]Then the women remembered Jesus' words.

[9]They came back from the tomb. They told all these things to the 11 apostles and to all the others. [10]Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others with them were the ones who told the apostles. [11]But the apostles did not believe the women. Their words didn't make any sense to them. [12]But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. He bent over and saw the strips of linen lying by themselves. Then he went away, wondering what had happened.

On the Road to Emmaus

[13]That same day two of Jesus' followers were going to a village called Emmaus. It was about seven miles from Jerusalem. [14]They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. [15]As they talked about those things, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them. [16]But God kept them from recognizing him.

[17]Jesus asked them, "What are you talking about as you walk along?"

They stood still, and their faces were sad. [18]One of them was named Cleopas. He said to Jesus, "Are you the only person visiting Jerusalem who doesn't know? Don't you know about the things that have happened there in the last few days?"

[19]"What things?" Jesus asked.

"About Jesus of Nazareth," they replied. "He was a prophet. He was powerful in what he said and did in the sight of God and all the people. [20]The chief priests and our rulers handed Jesus over to be sentenced to death. They nailed him to a cross. [21]But we had hoped that he was the one who was going to set Israel free. Also, it is the third day since all this happened. [22]Some of our women amazed us too. Early this morning they went to the tomb. [23]But they didn't find his body. So they came and told us what they had seen. They saw angels, who said Jesus was alive. [24]Then some of our friends went to the tomb. They saw it was empty, just as the women had said. They didn't see Jesus' body there."

[25]Jesus said to them, "How foolish you are! How long it takes you to believe all that the prophets said! [26]Didn't the Messiah have to suffer these things and then receive his glory?" [27]Jesus explained to them what was said about himself in all the Scriptures. He began with Moses and all the Prophets.

[28]They approached the village where they were going. Jesus kept walking as if he were going farther. [29]But they tried hard to keep him from leaving. They said, "Stay with us. It is nearly evening. The day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them.

[30]He joined them at the table. Then he took bread and gave thanks. He broke it and began to give it to them. [31]Their eyes were opened, and they recognized him. But then he disappeared from their sight. [32]They said to each other, "He explained to us what the Scriptures meant. Weren't we excited as he talked with us on the road?"

[33]They got up and returned at once to Jerusalem. There they found the 11 disciples and those with them. They were all gathered together. [34]They were saying, "It's true! The Lord has risen! He has appeared to Simon!" [35]Then the two of them told what had happened to them on the way. They told how they had recognized Jesus when he broke the bread.

Jesus Appears to the Disciples

[36]The disciples were still talking about this when Jesus himself suddenly stood among them. He said, "May you have peace!"

[37]They were surprised and terrified. They thought they were seeing a ghost. [38]Jesus said to them, "Why are you troubled? Why do you have doubts in your minds? [39]Look at my hands and my feet. It's really me! Touch me and see. A ghost does not have a body or bones. But you can see that I do."

[40]After he said that, he showed them his hands and feet. [41]But they still did not believe it. They were amazed and filled with joy. So Jesus asked them, “Do you have anything here to eat?” 42They gave him a piece of cooked fish. 43He took it and ate it in front of them.

44Jesus said to them, “This is what I told you while I was still with you. Everything written about me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets and the Psalms must come true.”

45Then he opened their minds so they could understand the Scriptures. 46He told them, “This is what is written. The Messiah will suffer. He will rise from the dead on the third day. 47His followers will preach in his name. They will tell others to turn away from their sins and be forgiven. People from every nation will hear it, beginning at Jerusalem. 48You have seen these things with your own eyes. 49I am going to send you what my Father has promised. But for now, stay in the city. Stay there until you have received power from heaven.”

Jesus Is Taken Up Into Heaven

50Jesus led his disciples out to the area near Bethany. Then he lifted up his hands and blessed them. 51While he was blessing them, he left them. He was taken up into heaven. 52Then they worshiped him. With great joy, they returned to Jerusalem. 53Every day they went to the temple, praising God.

John

John 1

The Word Became a Human Being

[1]In the beginning, the Word was already there. The Word was with God, and the Word was God. [2]He was with God in the beginning. [3]All things were made through him. Nothing that has been made was made without him. [4]Life was in him, and that life was the light for all people. [5]The light shines in the darkness. But the darkness has not overcome the light.

[6]There was a man sent from God. His name was John. [7]He came to be a witness about that light. He was a witness so that all people might believe. [8]John himself was not the light. He came only as a witness to the light.

[9]The true light that gives light to everyone was coming into the world. [10]The Word was in the world. And the world was made through him. But the world did not recognize him. [11]He came to what was his own. But his own people did not accept him. [12]Some people did accept him and did believe in his name. He gave them the right to become children of God. [13]To be a child of God has nothing to do with human parents. Children of God are not born because of human choice or because a husband wants them to be born. They are born because of what God does.

[14]The Word became a human being. He made his home with us. We have seen his glory. It is the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father. And the Word was full of grace and truth.

[15]John was a witness about the Word. John cried out and said, “This was the one I was talking about. I said, ‘He who comes after me is more important than I am. He is more important because he existed before I was born.’ ” [16]God is full of grace. From him we have all received grace in place of the grace already given. [17]In the past, God gave us grace through the law of Moses. Now, grace and truth come to us through Jesus Christ. [18]No one has ever seen God. But the One and Only is God and is at the Father’s side. The one at the Father’s side has shown us what God is like.

John the Baptist Says That He Is Not the Messiah

[19]The Jewish leaders in Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to ask John who he was. John spoke the truth to them. [20]He did not try to hide the truth. He spoke to them openly. He said, “I am not the Messiah.”

[21]They asked him, “Then who are you? Are you Elijah?”

He said, “I am not.”

“Are you the Prophet we’ve been expecting?” they asked.

“No,” he answered.

[22]They asked one last time, “Who are you? Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?”

[23]John replied, using the words of Isaiah the prophet. John said, “I’m the messenger who is calling out in the desert, ‘Make the way for the Lord straight.’ ” (Isaiah 40:3)

[24]The Pharisees who had been sent [25]asked him, “If you are not the Messiah, why are you baptizing people? Why are you doing that if you aren’t Elijah or the Prophet we’ve been expecting?”

[26]“I baptize people with water,” John replied. “But someone is standing among you whom you do not know. [27]He is the one who comes after me. I am not good enough to untie his sandals.”

[28]This all happened at Bethany on the other side of the Jordan River. That was where John was baptizing.

What John Says About Jesus

[29]The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him. John said, “Look! The Lamb of God! He takes away the sin of the world! [30]This is the one I was talking about. I said, ‘A man who comes after me is more important than I am. That’s because he existed before I was born.’ [31]I did not know him. But God wants to make it clear to Israel who this person is. That’s the reason I came baptizing with water.”

[32]Then John told them, “I saw the Holy Spirit come down from heaven like a dove. The Spirit remained on Jesus. [33]I myself did not know him. But the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, ‘You will see the Spirit come down and remain on someone. He is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.’ [34]I have seen it happen. I am a witness that this is God’s Chosen One.”

John’s Disciples Follow Jesus

35The next day John was there again with two of his disciples. 36He saw Jesus walking by. John said, “Look! The Lamb of God!”

37The two disciples heard him say this. So they followed Jesus. 38Then Jesus turned around and saw them following. He asked, “What do you want?”

They said, “Rabbi, where are you staying?” Rabbi means Teacher.

39“Come,” he replied. “You will see.”

So they went and saw where he was staying. They spent the rest of the day with him. It was about four o’clock in the afternoon.

40Andrew was Simon Peter’s brother. Andrew was one of the two disciples who heard what John had said. He had also followed Jesus. 41The first thing Andrew did was to find his brother Simon. He told him, “We have found the Messiah.” Messiah means Christ. 42And he brought Simon to Jesus.

Jesus looked at him and said, “You are Simon, son of John. You will be called Cephas.” Cephas means Peter, or Rock.

Jesus Chooses Philip and Nathanael

43The next day Jesus decided to leave for Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, “Follow me.”

44Philip was from the town of Bethsaida. So were Andrew and Peter. 45Philip found Nathanael and told him, “We have found the one whom Moses wrote about in the Law. The prophets also wrote about him. He is Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.”

46“Nazareth! Can anything good come from there?” Nathanael asked.

“Come and see,” said Philip.

47Jesus saw Nathanael approaching. Here is what Jesus said about him. “He is a true Israelite. Nothing about him is false.”

48“How do you know me?” Nathanael asked.

Jesus answered, “I saw you while you were still under the fig tree. I saw you there before Philip called you.”

49Nathanael replied, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God. You are the king of Israel.”

50Jesus said, “You believe because I told you I saw you under the fig tree. You will see greater things than that.” 51Then he said to the disciples, “What I’m about to tell you is true. You will see heaven open. You will see the angels of God going up and coming down on the Son of Man.”

John 2

Jesus Changes Water Into Wine

[1]On the third day there was a wedding. It took place at Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there. [2]Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. [3]When the wine was gone, Jesus' mother said to him, "They have no more wine."

[4]"Dear woman, why are you telling me about this?" Jesus replied. "The time for me to show who I really am isn't here yet."

[5]His mother said to the servants, "Do what he tells you."

[6]Six stone water jars stood nearby. The Jews used water from that kind of jar for special washings. They did that to make themselves pure and "clean." Each jar could hold 20 to 30 gallons.

[7]Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the top.

[8]Then he told them, "Now dip some out. Take it to the person in charge of the dinner."

They did what he said. [9]The person in charge tasted the water that had been turned into wine. He didn't realize where it had come from. But the servants who had brought the water knew. Then the person in charge called the groom to one side. [10]He said to him, "Everyone brings out the best wine first. They bring out the cheaper wine after the guests have had too much to drink. But you have saved the best until now."

[11]What Jesus did here in Cana in Galilee was the first of his signs. Jesus showed his glory by doing this sign. And his disciples believed in him.

[12]After this, Jesus went down to Capernaum. His mother and brothers and disciples went with him. They all stayed there for a few days.

Jesus Clears Out the Temple Courtyard

[13]It was almost time for the Jewish Passover Feast. So Jesus went up to Jerusalem. [14]In the temple courtyard he found people selling cattle, sheep and doves. Others were sitting at tables exchanging money. [15]So Jesus made a whip out of ropes. He chased all the sheep and cattle from the temple courtyard. He scattered the coins of the people exchanging money. And he turned over their tables. [16]He told those who were selling doves, “Get these out of here! Stop turning my Father’s house into a market!” [17]His disciples remembered what had been written. It says, “My great love for your house will destroy me.” (Psalm 69:9)

[18]Then the Jewish leaders asked him, “What sign can you show us to prove your authority to do this?”

[19]Jesus answered them, “When you destroy this temple, I will raise it up again in three days.”

[20]They replied, “It has taken 46 years to build this temple. Are you going to raise it up in three days?” [21]But the temple Jesus had spoken about was his body. [22]His disciples later remembered what he had said. That was after he had been raised from the dead. Then they believed the Scripture. They also believed the words that Jesus had spoken.

[23]Meanwhile, he was in Jerusalem at the Passover Feast. Many people saw the signs he was doing. And they believed in his name. [24]But Jesus did not fully trust them. He knew what people are like. [25]He didn’t need anyone to tell him what people are like. He already knew why people do what they do.

John 3

Jesus Teaches Nicodemus

[1]There was a Pharisee named Nicodemus. He was one of the Jewish rulers.
[2]He came to Jesus at night and said, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God. We know that God is with you. If he weren’t, you couldn’t do the signs you are doing.”

[3]Jesus replied, “What I’m about to tell you is true. No one can see God’s kingdom unless they are born again.”

[4]“How can someone be born when they are old?” Nicodemus asked. “They can’t go back inside their mother! They can’t be born a second time!”

[5]Jesus answered, “What I’m about to tell you is true. No one can enter God’s kingdom unless they are born with water and the Holy Spirit. [6]People give birth to people. But the Spirit gives birth to spirit. [7]You should not be surprised when I say, ‘You must all be born again.’ [8]The wind blows where it wants to. You hear the sound it makes. But you can’t tell where it comes from or where it is going.
It is the same with everyone who is born with the Spirit.”

[9]“How can this be?” Nicodemus asked.

[10]“You are Israel’s teacher,” said Jesus. “Don’t you understand these things?
[11]What I’m about to tell you is true. We speak about what we know. We are witnesses about what we have seen. But still you people do not accept what we say. [12]I have spoken to you about earthly things, and you do not believe. So how will you believe if I speak about heavenly things? [13]No one has ever gone into heaven except the one who came from heaven. He is the Son of Man. [14]Moses lifted up the snake in the desert. In the same way, the Son of Man must also be lifted up. [15]Then everyone who believes may have eternal life in him.”

[16]God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son. Anyone who believes in him will not die but will have eternal life. [17]God did not send his Son into the world to judge the world. He sent his Son to save the world through him.
[18]Anyone who believes in him is not judged. But anyone who does not believe is judged already. They have not believed in the name of God’s one and only Son.
[19]Here is the judgment. Light has come into the world, but people loved darkness instead of light. They loved darkness because what they did was evil.
[20]Everyone who does evil deeds hates the light. They will not come into the light. They are afraid that what they do will be seen. [21]But anyone who lives by the truth comes into the light. They live by the truth with God's help. They come into the light so that it will be easy to see their good deeds.

John the Baptist Is a Witness About Jesus

[22]After this, Jesus and his disciples went out into the countryside of Judea. There he spent some time with them. And he baptized people there. [23]John was also baptizing. He was at Aenon near Salim, where there was plenty of water. People were coming and being baptized. [24]This was before John was put in prison. [25]Some of John's disciples and a certain Jew began to argue. They argued about special washings to make people "clean." [26]They came to John and here is what they said to him. "Rabbi, that man who was with you on the other side of the Jordan River is baptizing people. He is the one you told us about. Everyone is going to him."

[27]John replied, "A person can receive only what God gives them from heaven. [28]You yourselves are witnesses that I said, 'I am not the Messiah. I was sent ahead of him.' [29]The bride belongs to the groom. The friend who helps the groom waits and listens for him. He is full of joy when he hears the groom's voice. That joy is mine, and it is now complete. [30]He must become more important. I must become less important.

[31]"The one who comes from above is above everything. The one who is from the earth belongs to the earth and speaks like someone from the earth. The one who comes from heaven is above everything. [32]He is a witness to what he has seen and heard. But no one accepts what he says. [33]Anyone who has accepted it has said, 'Yes. God is truthful.' [34]The one whom God has sent speaks God's words. That's because God gives the Holy Spirit without limit. [35]The Father loves the Son and has put everything into his hands. [36]Anyone who believes in the Son has eternal life. Anyone who does not believe in the Son will not have life. God's anger remains on them."

John 4

Jesus Talks With a Woman From Samaria

1 Now Jesus learned that the Pharisees had heard about him. They had heard that he was gaining and baptizing more disciples than John. 2 But in fact Jesus was not baptizing. His disciples were. 3 So Jesus left Judea and went back again to Galilee.

4 Jesus had to go through Samaria. 5 He came to a town in Samaria called Sychar. It was near the piece of land Jacob had given his son Joseph. 6 Jacob's well was there. Jesus was tired from the journey. So he sat down by the well. It was about noon.

7 A woman from Samaria came to get some water. Jesus said to her, "Will you give me a drink?" 8 His disciples had gone into the town to buy food.

9 The Samaritan woman said to him, "You are a Jew. I am a Samaritan woman.
How can you ask me for a drink?" She said this because Jews don't have anything to do with Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered her, "You do not know what God's gift is. And you do not know who is asking you for a drink. If you did, you would have asked him. He would have given you living water."

11 "Sir," the woman said, "you don't have anything to get water with. The well is deep. Where can you get this living water? 12 Our father Jacob gave us the well. He drank from it himself. So did his sons and his livestock. Are you more important than he is?"

13 Jesus answered, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again. 14 But anyone who drinks the water I give them will never be thirsty. In fact, the water I give them will become a spring of water in them. It will flow up into eternal life."

15 The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water. Then I will never be thirsty. And I won't have to keep coming here to get water."

16 He told her, "Go. Get your husband and come back."

17 "I have no husband," she replied.

Jesus said to her, "You are right when you say you have no husband. 18 The fact is, you have had five husbands. And the man you live with now is not your husband. What you have just said is very true."

19 "Sir," the woman said, "I can see that you are a prophet. 20 Our people have always worshiped on this mountain. But you Jews claim that the place where we must worship is in Jerusalem."

21Jesus said, "Woman, believe me. A time is coming when you will not worship the Father on this mountain or in Jerusalem. 22You Samaritans worship what you do not know. We worship what we do know. Salvation comes from the Jews. 23But a new time is coming. In fact, it is already here. True worshipers will worship the Father in the Spirit and in truth. They are the kind of worshipers the Father is looking for. 24God is spirit. His worshipers must worship him in the Spirit and in truth."

25The woman said, "I know that Messiah is coming." Messiah means Christ. "When he comes, he will explain everything to us."

26Then Jesus said, "The one you're talking about is the one speaking to you. I am he."

The Disciples Join Jesus Again

27Just then Jesus' disciples returned. They were surprised to find him talking with a woman. But no one asked, "What do you want from her?" No one asked, "Why are you talking with her?"

28The woman left her water jar and went back to the town. She said to the people, 29"Come. See a man who told me everything I've ever done. Could this be the Messiah?" 30The people came out of the town and made their way toward Jesus.

31His disciples were saying to him, "Rabbi, eat something!"

32But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you know nothing about."

33Then his disciples asked each other, "Did someone bring him food?"

34Jesus said, "My food is to do what my Father sent me to do. My food is to finish his work. 35Don't you have a saying? You say, 'It's still four months until harvest time.' But I tell you, open your eyes! Look at the fields! They are ripe for harvest right now. 36Even now the one who gathers the crop is getting paid. They are already harvesting the crop for eternal life. So the one who plants and the one who gathers can now be glad together. 37Here is a true saying. 'One plants and another gathers.' 38I sent you to gather what you have not worked for. Others have done the hard work. You have gathered the benefits of their work."

Many Samaritans Believe in Jesus

[39]Many of the Samaritans from the town of Sychar believed in Jesus. They believed because of what the woman had said about him. She said, “He told me everything I’ve ever done.” [40]Then the Samaritans came to him and tried to get him to stay with them. So he stayed two days. [41]Because of what he said, many more people became believers.

[42]They said to the woman, “We no longer believe just because of what you said. We have now heard for ourselves. We know that this man really is the Savior of the world.”

Jesus Heals an Official’s Son

[43]After the two days, Jesus left for Galilee. [44]He himself had pointed out that a prophet is not respected in his own country. [45]When he arrived in Galilee, the people living there welcomed him. They had seen everything he had done in Jerusalem at the Passover Feast. That was because they had also been there.

[46]Once more, Jesus visited Cana in Galilee. Cana is where he had turned the water into wine. A royal official was there. His son was sick in bed at Capernaum. [47]The official heard that Jesus had arrived in Galilee from Judea. So he went to Jesus and begged him to come and heal his son. The boy was close to death.

[48]Jesus told him, “You people will never believe unless you see signs and wonders.”

[49]The royal official said, “Sir, come down before my child dies.”

[50]“Go,” Jesus replied. “Your son will live.”

The man believed what Jesus said, and so he left. [51]While he was still on his way home, his slaves met him. They gave him the news that his boy was living. [52]He asked what time his son got better. They said to him, “Yesterday, at one o’clock in the afternoon, the fever left him.”

[53]Then the father realized what had happened. That was the exact time Jesus had said to him, “Your son will live.” So he and his whole family became believers.

[54]This was the second sign that Jesus did after coming from Judea to Galilee.

John 5

Jesus Heals a Man at the Pool

[1]Some time later, Jesus went up to Jerusalem for one of the Jewish feasts. [2]In Jerusalem near the Sheep Gate is a pool. In the Aramaic language it is called Bethesda. It is surrounded by five rows of columns with a roof over them. [3-4]Here a great number of disabled people used to lie down. Among them were those who were blind, those who could not walk, and those who could hardly move. [5]One person was there who had not been able to walk for 38 years. [6]Jesus saw him lying there. He knew that the man had been in that condition for a long time. So he asked him, “Do you want to get well?”

[7]“Sir,” the disabled man replied, “I have no one to help me into the pool when an angel stirs up the water. I try to get in, but someone else always goes down ahead of me.”

[8]Then Jesus said to him, “Get up! Pick up your mat and walk.” [9]The man was healed right away. He picked up his mat and walked.

This happened on a Sabbath day. [10]So the Jewish leaders said to the man who had been healed, “It is the Sabbath day. The law does not allow you to carry your mat.”

[11]But he replied, “The one who made me well said to me, ‘Pick up your mat and walk.’ ”

[12]They asked him, “Who is this fellow? Who told you to pick it up and walk?”

[13]The one who was healed had no idea who it was. Jesus had slipped away into the crowd that was there.

[14]Later Jesus found him at the temple. Jesus said to him, “See, you are well again. Stop sinning, or something worse may happen to you.” [15]The man went away. He told the Jewish leaders it was Jesus who had made him well.

The Authority of the Son

[16]Jesus was doing these things on the Sabbath day. So the Jewish leaders began to oppose him. [17]Jesus defended himself. He said to them, “My Father is always doing his work. He is working right up to this day. I am working too.” [18]For this reason the Jewish leaders tried even harder to kill him. According to them, Jesus was not only breaking the law of the Sabbath day. He was even calling God his own Father. He was making himself equal with God.

19Jesus answered, “What I’m about to tell you is true. The Son can do nothing by himself. He can do only what he sees his Father doing. What the Father does, the Son also does. 20This is because the Father loves the Son. The Father shows him everything he does. Yes, and the Father will show the Son even greater works than these. And you will be amazed. 21The Father raises the dead and gives them life. In the same way, the Son gives life to anyone he wants to.
22Also, the Father does not judge anyone. He has given the Son the task of judging. 23Then all people will honor the Son just as they honor the Father.
Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father, who sent him.

24“What I’m about to tell you is true. Anyone who hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. They will not be judged. They have crossed over from death to life. 25What I’m about to tell you is true. A time is coming for me to give life. In fact, it has already begun. The dead will hear the voice of the Son of God. Those who hear it will live. 26The Father has life in himself. He has allowed the Son also to have life in himself. 27And the Father has given him the authority to judge. This is because he is the Son of Man.

28“Do not be amazed at this. A time is coming when all who are in their graves will hear his voice. 29They will all come out of their graves. People who have done what is good will rise and live again. People who have done what is evil will rise and be found guilty. 30I can do nothing by myself. I judge only as I hear. And my judging is fair. I do not try to please myself. I try to please the one who sent me.

Being a Witness About Jesus

31“If I am a witness about myself, what I say is not true. 32There is someone else who is a witness in my favor. And I know that what he says about me is true.

33“You have sent people to John the Baptist. He has been a witness to the truth. 34I do not accept what a person says. I only talk about what John says so that you can be saved. 35John was like a lamp that burned and gave light. For a while you chose to enjoy his light.

36“What I say about myself is more important than what John says about me. I am doing the works the Father gave me to finish. These works are a witness that the Father has sent me. 37The Father who sent me is himself a witness about me.
You have never heard his voice. You have never seen what he really looks like.

[38]And his word does not live in you. That’s because you do not believe the one he sent. [39]You study the Scriptures carefully. You study them because you think they will give you eternal life. The Scriptures you study are a witness about me.
[40]But you refuse to come to me and receive life.

[41]“I do not accept praise from human beings. [42]But I know you. I know that you do not have love for God in your hearts. [43]I have come in my Father’s name, and you do not accept me. But if someone else comes in his own name, you will accept him. [44]You accept praise from one another. But you do not seek the praise that comes from the only God. So how can you believe?

[45]“Do not think I will bring charges against you in front of the Father. Moses is the one who does that. And he is the one you build your hopes on. [46]Do you believe Moses? Then you should believe me. He wrote about me. [47]But you do not believe what he wrote. So how are you going to believe what I say?”

John 6

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

[1]Some time after this, Jesus crossed over to the other side of the Sea of Galilee. It is also called the Sea of Tiberias. [2]A large crowd of people followed him. They had seen the signs he had done by healing sick people. [3]Then Jesus went up on a mountainside. There he sat down with his disciples. [4]The Jewish Passover Feast was near.

[5]Jesus looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward him. So he said to Philip, “Where can we buy bread for these people to eat?” [6]He asked this only to test Philip. He already knew what he was going to do.

[7]Philip answered him, “Suppose we were able to buy enough bread for each person to have just a bite. That would take more than half a year’s pay!”

[8]Another of his disciples spoke up. It was Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother. He said, [9]“Here is a boy with five small loaves of barley bread. He also has two small fish. But how far will that go in such a large crowd?”

[10]Jesus said, “Have the people sit down.” There was plenty of grass in that place, and they sat down. About 5,000 men were there. [11]Then Jesus took the loaves and gave thanks. He handed out the bread to those who were seated. He gave them as much as they wanted. And he did the same with the fish.

[12]When all of them had enough to eat, Jesus spoke to his disciples. “Gather the leftover pieces,” he said. “Don’t waste anything.” [13]So they gathered what was left over from the five barley loaves. They filled 12 baskets with the pieces left by those who had eaten.

[14]The people saw the sign that Jesus did. Then they began to say, “This must be the Prophet who is supposed to come into the world.” [15]But Jesus knew that they planned to come and force him to be their king. So he went away again to a mountain by himself.

Jesus Walks on the Water

[16]When evening came, Jesus’ disciples went down to the Sea of Galilee. [17]There they got into a boat and headed across the lake toward Capernaum. By now it was dark. Jesus had not yet joined them. [18]A strong wind was blowing, and the water became rough. [19]They rowed about three or four miles. Then they saw Jesus coming toward the boat. He was walking on the water. They were frightened. [20]But he said to them, “It is I. Don’t be afraid.” [21]Then they agreed to take him into the boat. Right away the boat reached the shore where they were heading.

[22]The next day the crowd that had stayed on the other side of the lake realized something. They saw that only one boat had been there. They knew that Jesus had not gotten into it with his disciples. And they knew that the disciples had gone away alone. [23]Then some boats arrived from Tiberias. It was near the place where the people had eaten the bread after the Lord gave thanks. [24]The crowd realized that Jesus and his disciples were not there. So they got into boats and went to Capernaum to look for Jesus.

Jesus Is the Bread of Life

[25]They found him on the other side of the lake. They asked him, “Rabbi, when did you get here?”

[26]Jesus answered, “What I’m about to tell you is true. You are not looking for me because you saw the signs I did. You are looking for me because you ate the loaves until you were full. [27]Do not work for food that spoils. Work for food that lasts forever. That is the food the Son of Man will give you. For God the Father has put his seal of approval on him.”

[28]Then they asked him, “What does God want from us? What works does he want us to do?”

[29]Jesus answered, “God’s work is to believe in the one he has sent.”

[30]So they asked him, “What sign will you give us? What will you do so we can see it and believe you? [31]Long ago our people ate the manna in the desert. It is written in Scripture, ‘The Lord gave them bread from heaven to eat.’ ” (Exodus 16:4; Nehemiah 9:15; Psalm 78:24, 25)

[32]Jesus said to them, “What I’m about to tell you is true. It is not Moses who has given you the bread from heaven. It is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. [33]The bread of God is the bread that comes down from heaven. He gives life to the world.”

[34]“Sir,” they said, “always give us this bread.”

[35]Then Jesus said, “I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never go hungry. And whoever believes in me will never be thirsty. [36]But it is just as I told you. You have seen me, and you still do not believe. [37]Everyone the Father gives me will come to me. I will never send away anyone who comes to me. [38]I have not come down from heaven to do what I want to do. I have come to do what the one who sent me wants me to do. [39]The one who sent me doesn't want me to lose anyone he has given me. He wants me to raise them up on the last day. [40]My Father wants all who look to the Son and believe in him to have eternal life. I will raise them up on the last day."

[41]Then the Jews there began to complain about Jesus. That was because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven." [42]They said, "Isn't this Jesus, the son of Joseph? Don't we know his father and mother? How can he now say, 'I came down from heaven'?"

[43]"Stop complaining among yourselves," Jesus answered. [44]"No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me brings them. Then I will raise them up on the last day. [45]It is written in the Prophets, 'God will teach all of them.' (Isaiah 54:13) Everyone who has heard the Father and learned from him comes to me. [46]No one has seen the Father except the one who has come from God. Only he has seen the Father. [47]What I'm about to tell you is true. Everyone who believes has life forever. [48]I am the bread of life. [49]Long ago your people ate the manna in the desert, and they still died. [50]But here is the bread that comes down from heaven. A person can eat it and not die. [51]I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Everyone who eats some of this bread will live forever. This bread is my body. I will give it for the life of the world."

[52]Then the Jews began to argue sharply among themselves. They said, "How can this man give us his body to eat?"

[53]Jesus said to them, "What I'm about to tell you is true. You must eat the Son of Man's body and drink his blood. If you don't, you have no life in you. [54]Anyone who eats my body and drinks my blood has eternal life. I will raise them up on the last day. [55]My body is real food. My blood is real drink. [56]Anyone who eats my body and drinks my blood remains in me. And I remain in them. [57]The living Father sent me, and I live because of him. In the same way, those who feed on me will live because of me. [58]This is the bread that came down from heaven. Long ago your people ate manna and died. But whoever eats this bread will live forever." [59]He said this while he was teaching in the synagogue in Capernaum.

Many Disciples Leave Jesus

[60]Jesus' disciples heard this. Many of them said, "This is a hard teaching. Who can accept it?”

61Jesus was aware that his disciples were complaining about his teaching. So he said to them, “Does this upset you? 62Then what if you see the Son of Man go up to where he was before? 63The Holy Spirit gives life. The body means nothing at all. The words I have spoken to you are full of the Spirit. They give life. 64But there are some of you who do not believe.” Jesus had known from the beginning which of them did not believe. And he had known who was going to hand him over to his enemies. 65So he continued speaking. He said, “This is why I told you that no one can come to me unless the Father helps them.”

66From this time on, many of his disciples turned back. They no longer followed him.

67“You don’t want to leave also, do you?” Jesus asked the 12 disciples.

68Simon Peter answered him, “Lord, who can we go to? You have the words of eternal life. 69We have come to believe and to know that you are the Holy One of God.”

70Then Jesus replied, “Didn’t I choose you, the 12 disciples? But one of you is a devil!” 71He meant Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. Judas was one of the 12 disciples. But later he was going to hand Jesus over to his enemies.

John 7

Jesus Goes to the Feast of Booths

1 After this, Jesus went around in Galilee. He didn't want to travel around in Judea. That was because the Jewish leaders there were looking for a way to kill him. 2 The Jewish Feast of Booths was near. 3 Jesus' brothers said to him, "Leave Galilee and go to Judea. Then your disciples there will see the works that you do. 4 No one who wants to be well known does things in secret. Since you are doing these things, show yourself to the world." 5 Even Jesus' own brothers did not believe in him.

6 So Jesus told them, "The time for me to show who I really am is not here yet.
For you, any time would be the right time. 7 The people of the world can't hate you. But they hate me. This is because I am a witness that their works are evil.
8 You go to the feast. I am not going up to this feast. This is because my time has not yet fully come." 9 After he said this, he stayed in Galilee.

10 But when his brothers had left for the feast, he went also. But he went secretly, not openly. 11 At the feast the Jewish leaders were watching for Jesus.
They were asking, "Where is he?"

12 Many people in the crowd were whispering about him. Some said, "He is a good man."

Others replied, "No. He fools the people." 13 But no one would say anything about him openly. They were afraid of the leaders.

Jesus Teaches at the Feast

14 Jesus did nothing until halfway through the feast. Then he went up to the temple courtyard and began to teach. 15 The Jews there were amazed. They asked, "How did this man learn so much without being taught?"

16 Jesus answered, "What I teach is not my own. It comes from the one who sent me. 17 Here is how someone can find out whether my teaching comes from God or from me. That person must choose to do what God wants them to do.
18 Whoever speaks on their own does it to get personal honor. But someone who works for the honor of the one who sent him is truthful. Nothing about him is false. 19 Didn't Moses give you the law? But not one of you obeys the law. Why are you trying to kill me?"

[20]"You are controlled by demons," the crowd answered. "Who is trying to kill you?"

[21]Jesus said to them, "I did one miracle, and you are all amazed. [22]Moses gave you circumcision, and so you circumcise a child on the Sabbath day. But circumcision did not really come from Moses. It came from Abraham. [23]You circumcise a boy on the Sabbath day. You think that if you do, you won't break the law of Moses. Then why are you angry with me? I healed a man's entire body on the Sabbath day! [24]Stop judging only by what you see. Judge in the right way."

People Don't Agree About Who Jesus Is

[25]Then some of the people of Jerusalem began asking questions. They said, "Isn't this the man some people are trying to kill? [26]Here he is! He is speaking openly. They aren't saying a word to him. Have the authorities really decided that he is the Messiah? [27]But we know where this man is from. When the Messiah comes, no one will know where he is from."

[28]Jesus was still teaching in the temple courtyard. He cried out, "Yes, you know me. And you know where I am from. I am not here on my own authority. The one who sent me is true. You do not know him. [29]But I know him. I am from him, and he sent me."

[30]When he said this, they tried to arrest him. But no one laid a hand on him. The time for him to show who he really was had not yet come. [31]Still, many people in the crowd believed in him. They said, "How will it be when the Messiah comes? Will he do more signs than this man?"

[32]The Pharisees heard the crowd whispering things like this about him. Then the chief priests and the Pharisees sent temple guards to arrest him.

[33]Jesus said, "I am with you for only a short time. Then I will go to the one who sent me. [34]You will look for me, but you won't find me. You can't come where I am going."

[35]The Jews said to one another, "Where does this man plan to go? Does he think we can't find him? Will he go where our people live scattered among the Greeks? Will he go there to teach the Greeks? [36]What did he mean when he said, 'You will look for me, but you won't find me'? And what did he mean when he said, 'You can't come where I am going'?"

[37]It was the last and most important day of the feast. Jesus stood up and spoke in a loud voice. He said, "Let anyone who is thirsty come to me and drink.

[38]Does anyone believe in me? Then, just as Scripture says, rivers of living water will flow from inside them.” [39]When he said this, he meant the Holy Spirit. Those who believed in Jesus would receive the Spirit later. Up to that time, the Spirit had not been given. This was because Jesus had not yet received glory.

[40]The people heard his words. Some of them said, “This man must be the Prophet we’ve been expecting.”

[41]Others said, “He is the Messiah.”

Still others asked, “How can the Messiah come from Galilee? [42]Doesn’t Scripture say that the Messiah will come from the family line of David? Doesn’t it say that he will come from Bethlehem, the town where David lived?” [43]So the people did not agree about who Jesus was. [44]Some wanted to arrest him. But no one laid a hand on him.

The Jewish Leaders Do Not Believe

[45]Finally the temple guards went back to the chief priests and the Pharisees. They asked the guards, “Why didn’t you bring him in?”

[46]“No one ever spoke the way this man does,” the guards replied.

[47]“You mean he has fooled you also?” the Pharisees asked. [48]“Have any of the rulers or Pharisees believed in him? [49]No! But this mob knows nothing about the law. There is a curse on them.”

[50]Then Nicodemus, a Pharisee, spoke. He was the one who had gone to Jesus earlier. He asked, [51]“Does our law find a man guilty without hearing him first? Doesn’t it want to find out what he is doing?”

[52]They replied, “Are you from Galilee too? Look into it. You will find that a prophet does not come out of Galilee.”

John 8

53Then they all went home. 1But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

2At sunrise he arrived again in the temple courtyard. All the people gathered around him there. He sat down to teach them. 3The teachers of the law and the Pharisees brought in a woman. She had been caught committing adultery. They made her stand in front of the group. 4They said to Jesus, “Teacher, this woman was caught sleeping with a man who was not her husband. 5In the Law, Moses commanded us to kill such women by throwing stones at them. Now what do you say?” 6They were trying to trap Jesus with that question. They wanted to have a reason to bring charges against him.

But Jesus bent down and started to write on the ground with his finger. 7They kept asking him questions. So he stood up and said to them, “Has any one of you not sinned? Then you be the first to throw a stone at her.” 8He bent down again and wrote on the ground.

9Those who heard what he had said began to go away. They left one at a time, the older ones first. Soon only Jesus was left. The woman was still standing there. 10Jesus stood up and asked her, “Woman, where are they? Hasn’t anyone found you guilty?”

11“No one, sir,” she said.

“Then I don’t find you guilty either,” Jesus said. “Go now and leave your life of sin.”

Challenge to What Jesus Says About Himself

12Jesus spoke to the people again. He said, “I am the light of the world. Anyone who follows me will never walk in darkness. They will have that light. They will have life.”

13The Pharisees argued with him. “Here you are,” they said, “appearing as your own witness. But your witness does not count.”

14Jesus answered, “Even if I am a witness about myself, what I say does count. I know where I came from. And I know where I am going. But you have no idea where I come from or where I am going. 15You judge by human standards. I don’t judge anyone. 16But if I do judge, what I decide is true. This is because I am not alone. I stand with the Father, who sent me. 17Your own Law says that the witness of two people proves the truth about something. 18I am a witness about myself. The other witness about me is the Father, who sent me."

[19]Then they asked him, "Where is your father?"

"You do not know me or my Father," Jesus replied. "If you knew me, you would know my Father also." [20]He spoke these words while he was teaching in the temple courtyard. He was near the place where the offerings were put. But no one arrested him. That's because the time for him to die had not yet come.

Challenge to Who Jesus Claims to Be

[21]Once more Jesus said to them, "I am going away. You will look for me, and you will die in your sin. You can't come where I am going."

[22]This made the Jews ask, "Will he kill himself? Is that why he says, 'You can't come where I am going'?"

[23]But Jesus said, "You are from below. I am from heaven. You are from this world. I am not from this world. [24]I told you that you would die in your sins. This will happen if you don't believe that I am he. If you don't believe, you will certainly die in your sins."

[25]"Who are you?" they asked.

"Just what I have been telling you from the beginning," Jesus replied. [26]"I have a lot to say that will judge you. But the one who sent me can be trusted. And I tell the world what I have heard from him."

[27]They did not understand that Jesus was telling them about his Father. [28]So Jesus said, "You will lift up the Son of Man. Then you will know that I am he. You will also know that I do nothing on my own. I speak just what the Father has taught me. [29]The one who sent me is with me. He has not left me alone, because I always do what pleases him." [30]Even while Jesus was speaking, many people believed in him.

Challenge to the Claim to Be Children of Abraham

[31]Jesus spoke to the Jews who had believed him. "If you obey my teaching," he said, "you are really my disciples. [32]Then you will know the truth. And the truth will set you free."

[33]They answered him, "We are Abraham's children. We have never been slaves of anyone. So how can you say that we will be set free?"

[34]Jesus replied, "What I'm about to tell you is true. Everyone who sins is a slave of sin. [35]A slave has no lasting place in the family. But a son belongs to the family forever. [36]So if the Son of Man sets you free, you will really be free. [37]I know that you are Abraham's children. But you are looking for a way to kill me. You have no room for my word. [38]I am telling you what I saw when I was with my Father. You are doing what you have heard from your father. "

[39]"Abraham is our father," they answered.

Jesus said, "Are you really Abraham's children? If you are, you will do what Abraham did. [40]But you are looking for a way to kill me. I am a man who has told you the truth I heard from God. Abraham didn't do the things you want to do. [41]You are doing what your own father does."

"We have the right to claim to be God's children," they objected. "The only Father we have is God himself."

[42]Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me. I have come here from God. I have not come on my own. God sent me. [43]Why aren't my words clear to you? Because you can't really hear what I say. [44]You belong to your father, the devil. You want to obey your father's wishes. From the beginning, the devil was a murderer. He has never obeyed the truth. There is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his natural language. He does this because he is a liar. He is the father of lies. [45]But because I tell the truth, you don't believe me! [46]Can any of you prove I am guilty of sinning? Am I not telling the truth? Then why don't you believe me? [47]Whoever belongs to God hears what God says. The reason you don't hear is that you don't belong to God."

Jesus Makes Claims About Himself

[48]The Jews answered Jesus, "Aren't we right when we say you are a Samaritan? Aren't you controlled by a demon?"

[49]"I am not controlled by a demon," said Jesus. "I honor my Father. You do not honor me. [50]I am not seeking glory for myself. But there is one who brings glory to me. He is the judge. [51]What I'm about to tell you is true. Whoever obeys my word will never die."

[52]Then they cried out, "Now we know you are controlled by a demon! Abraham died. So did the prophets. But you say that whoever obeys your word will never die. [53]Are you greater than our father Abraham? He died. So did the prophets. Who do you think you are?"

[54]Jesus replied, "If I bring glory to myself, my glory means nothing. You claim that my Father is your God. He is the one who brings glory to me. [55]You do not know him. But I know him. If I said I did not, I would be a liar like you. But I do know him. And I obey his word. 56Your father Abraham was filled with joy at the thought of seeing my day. He saw it and was glad."

57"You are not even 50 years old," they said to Jesus. "And you have seen Abraham?"

58"What I'm about to tell you is true," Jesus answered. "Before Abraham was born, I am!" 59When he said this, they picked up stones to kill him. But Jesus hid himself. He slipped away from the temple area.

John 9

Jesus Makes Claims About Himself

[1]As Jesus went along, he saw a man who was blind. He had been blind since he was born. [2]Jesus' disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned? Was this man born blind because he sinned? Or did his parents sin?"

[3]"It isn't because this man sinned," said Jesus. "It isn't because his parents sinned. He was born blind so that God's power could be shown by what's going to happen. [4]While it is still day, we must do the works of the one who sent me.
Night is coming. Then no one can work. [5]While I am in the world, I am the light of the world."

[6]After he said this, he spit on the ground. He made some mud with the spit.
Then he put the mud on the man's eyes. [7]"Go," he told him. "Wash in the Pool of Siloam." Siloam means Sent. So the man went and washed. And he came home able to see.

[8]His neighbors and people who had seen him earlier begging asked questions.
"Isn't this the same man who used to sit and beg?" they asked. [9]Some claimed that he was.

Others said, "No. He only looks like him."

But the man who had been blind kept saying, "I am the man."

[10]"Then how were your eyes opened?" they asked.

[11]He replied, "The man they call Jesus made some mud and put it on my eyes.
He told me to go to Siloam and wash. So I went and washed. Then I could see."

[12]"Where is this man?" they asked him.

"I don't know," he said.

The Pharisees Want to Know How the Blind Man Was Healed

[13]They brought to the Pharisees the man who had been blind. [14]The day Jesus made the mud and opened the man's eyes was a Sabbath day. [15]So the Pharisees also asked him how he was able to see. "He put mud on my eyes," the man replied. "Then I washed. And now I can see."

[16]Some of the Pharisees said, "Jesus has not come from God. He does not keep the Sabbath day."

But others asked, "How can a sinner do such signs?" So the Pharisees did not agree with one another.

17Then they turned again to the blind man. “What do you have to say about him?” they asked. “It was your eyes he opened.”

The man replied, “He is a prophet.”

18They still did not believe that the man had been blind and now could see. So they sent for his parents. 19“Is this your son?” they asked. “Is this the one you say was born blind? How is it that now he can see?”

20“We know he is our son,” the parents answered. “And we know he was born blind. 21But we don’t know how he can now see. And we don’t know who opened his eyes. Ask him. He is an adult. He can speak for himself.” 22His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders. The leaders had already made this decision about Jesus. Anyone who said Jesus was the Messiah would be put out of the synagogue. 23That was why the man’s parents said, “He is an adult. Ask him.”

24Again the Pharisees called the man who had been blind to come to them. “Give glory to God by telling the truth!” they said. “We know that the man who healed you is a sinner.”

25He replied, “I don’t know if he is a sinner or not. I do know one thing. I was blind, but now I can see!”

26Then they asked him, “What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?”

27He answered, “I have already told you. But you didn’t listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you want to become his disciples too?”

28Then they began to attack him with their words. “You are this fellow’s disciple!” they said. “We are disciples of Moses! 29We know that God spoke to Moses. But we don’t even know where this fellow comes from.”

30The man answered, “That is really surprising! You don’t know where he comes from, and yet he opened my eyes. 31We know that God does not listen to sinners. He listens to the godly person who does what he wants them to do. 32Nobody has ever heard of anyone opening the eyes of a person born blind. 33If this man had not come from God, he could do nothing.”

34Then the Pharisees replied, “When you were born, you were already deep in sin. How dare you talk like that to us!” And they threw him out of the synagogue.

People Who Can’t See the Truth

[35]Jesus heard that the Pharisees had thrown the man out of the synagogue. When Jesus found him, he said, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?”

[36]“Who is he, sir?” the man asked. “Tell me, so I can believe in him.”

[37]Jesus said, “You have now seen him. In fact, he is the one speaking with you.”

[38]Then the man said, “Lord, I believe.” And he worshiped him.

[39]Jesus said, “I have come into this world to judge it. I have come so that people who are blind will see. I have come so that people who can see will become blind.”

[40]Some Pharisees who were with him heard him say this. They asked, “What? Are we blind too?”

[41]Jesus said, “If you were blind, you would not be guilty of sin. But since you claim you can see, you remain guilty.

John 10

The Good Shepherd and His Sheep

[1]“What I’m about to tell you Pharisees is true. What if someone does not enter the sheep pen through the gate but climbs in another way? That person is a thief and a robber. [2]The one who enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep.
[3]The gatekeeper opens the gate for him. The sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. [4]When he has brought out all his own sheep, he goes on ahead of them. His sheep follow him because they know his voice. [5]But they will never follow a stranger. In fact, they will run away from him. They don’t recognize a stranger’s voice.” [6]Jesus told this story. But the Pharisees didn’t understand what he was telling them.

[7]So Jesus said again, “What I’m about to tell you is true. I am like a gate for the sheep. [8]All who have come before me are thieves and robbers. But the sheep have not listened to them. [9]I’m like a gate. Anyone who enters through me will be saved. They will come in and go out. And they will find plenty of food. [10]A thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I have come so they may have life.
I want them to have it in the fullest possible way.

[11]“I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives his life for the sheep.
[12]The hired man is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep. So when the hired man sees the wolf coming, he leaves the sheep and runs away. Then the wolf attacks the flock and scatters it. [13]The man runs away because he is a hired man. He does not care about the sheep.

[14]“I am the good shepherd. I know my sheep, and my sheep know me. [15]They know me just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I give my life for the sheep. [16]I have other sheep that do not belong to this sheep pen. I must bring them in too. They also will listen to my voice. Then there will be one flock and one shepherd. [17]The reason my Father loves me is that I give up my life. But I will take it back again. [18]No one takes it from me. I give it up myself. I have the authority to give it up. And I have the authority to take it back again. I received this command from my Father.”

[19]The Jews who heard these words could not agree with one another. [20]Many of them said, “He is controlled by a demon. He has gone crazy! Why should we listen to him?”

[21]But others said, “A person controlled by a demon does not say things like this. Can a demon open the eyes of someone who is blind?”

Another Challenge to Jesus’ Claims

22Then came the Feast of Hanukkah at Jerusalem. It was winter. 23Jesus was in the temple courtyard walking in Solomon’s Porch. 24The Jews who were gathered there around Jesus spoke to him. They said, “How long will you keep us waiting? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly.”

25Jesus answered, “I did tell you. But you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father’s name are a witness for me. 26But you do not believe, because you are not my sheep. 27My sheep listen to my voice. I know them, and they follow me. 28I give them eternal life, and they will never die. No one will steal them out of my hand. 29My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than anyone. No one can steal them out of my Father’s hand. 30I and the Father are one.”

31Again the Jews who had challenged him picked up stones to kill him. 32But Jesus said to them, “I have shown you many good works from the Father. Which good work are you throwing stones at me for?”

33“We are not throwing stones at you for any good work,” they replied. “We are stoning you for saying a very evil thing. You are only a man. But you claim to be God.”

34Jesus answered them, “Didn’t God say in your Law, ‘I have said you are “gods” ’? (Psalm 82:6) 35We know that Scripture is always true. God spoke to some people and called them ‘gods.’ 36If that is true, what about the one the Father set apart as his very own? What about this one the Father sent into the world? Why do you charge me with saying a very evil thing? Is it because I said, ‘I am God’s Son’? 37Don’t believe me unless I do the works of my Father. 38But what if I do them? Even if you don’t believe me, believe these works. Then you will know and understand that the Father is in me and I am in the Father.” 39Again they tried to arrest him. But he escaped from them.

40Then Jesus went back across the Jordan River. He went to the place where John had been baptizing in the early days. There he stayed. 41Many people came to him. They said, “John never performed a sign. But everything he said about this man was true.” 42And in that place many believed in Jesus.

John 11

Lazarus Dies

[1]A man named Lazarus was sick. He was from Bethany, the village where Mary and her sister Martha lived. [2]Mary would later pour perfume on the Lord. She would also wipe Jesus' feet with her hair. It was her brother Lazarus who was sick in bed. [3]So the sisters sent a message to Jesus. "Lord," they told him, "the one you love is sick."

[4]When Jesus heard this, he said, "This sickness will not end in death. No, it is for God's glory. God's Son will receive glory because of it." [5]Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. [6]So after he heard Lazarus was sick, he stayed where he was for two more days. [7]And then he said to his disciples, "Let us go back to Judea."

[8]"But Rabbi," they said, "a short time ago the Jews there tried to kill you with stones. Are you still going back?"

[9]Jesus answered, "Aren't there 12 hours of daylight? Anyone who walks during the day won't trip and fall. They can see because of this world's light. [10]But when they walk at night, they'll trip and fall. They have no light."

[11]After he said this, Jesus went on speaking to them. "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep," he said. "But I am going there to wake him up."

[12]His disciples replied, "Lord, if he's sleeping, he will get better." [13]Jesus had been speaking about the death of Lazarus. But his disciples thought he meant natural sleep.

[14]So then he told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead. [15]For your benefit, I am glad I was not there. Now you will believe. But let us go to him."

[16]Then Thomas, who was also called Didymus, spoke to the rest of the disciples. "Let us go also," he said. "Then we can die with Jesus."

Jesus Comforts the Sisters of Lazarus

[17]When Jesus arrived, he found out that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. [18]Bethany was less than two miles from Jerusalem. [19]Many Jews had come to Martha and Mary. They had come to comfort them because their brother was dead. [20]When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet him. But Mary stayed at home.

21“Lord,” Martha said to Jesus, “I wish you had been here! Then my brother would not have died. 22But I know that even now God will give you anything you ask for.”

23Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.”

24Martha answered, “I know he will rise again. This will happen when people are raised from the dead on the last day.”

25Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. Anyone who believes in me will live, even if they die. 26And whoever lives by believing in me will never die. Do you believe this?”

27“Yes, Lord,” she replied. “I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God. I believe that you are the one who is supposed to come into the world.”

28After she said this, she went back home. She called her sister Mary to one side to talk to her. “The Teacher is here,” Martha said. “He is asking for you.” 29When Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to him. 30Jesus had not yet entered the village. He was still at the place where Martha had met him. 31Some Jews had been comforting Mary in the house. They noticed how quickly she got up and went out. So they followed her. They thought she was going to the tomb to mourn there.

32Mary reached the place where Jesus was. When she saw him, she fell at his feet. She said, “Lord, I wish you had been here! Then my brother would not have died.”

33Jesus saw her crying. He saw that the Jews who had come along with her were crying also. His spirit became very sad, and he was troubled. 34“Where have you put him?” he asked.

“Come and see, Lord,” they replied.

35Jesus wept.

36Then the Jews said, “See how much he loved him!”

37But some of them said, “He opened the eyes of the blind man. Couldn’t he have kept this man from dying?”

Jesus Raises Lazarus From the Dead

38Once more Jesus felt very sad. He came to the tomb. It was a cave with a stone in front of the entrance. 39“Take away the stone,” he said.

“But, Lord,” said Martha, the sister of the dead man, “by this time there is a bad smell. Lazarus has been in the tomb for four days.”

40 Then Jesus said, “Didn’t I tell you that if you believe, you will see God’s glory?”
41 So they took away the stone. Then Jesus looked up. He said, “Father, I thank you for hearing me. 42 I know that you always hear me. But I said this for the benefit of the people standing here. I said it so they will believe that you sent me.”
43 Then Jesus called in a loud voice. He said, “Lazarus, come out!” 44 The dead man came out. His hands and feet were wrapped with strips of linen. A cloth was around his face.
Jesus said to them, “Take off the clothes he was buried in and let him go.”

The Plan to Kill Jesus

45 Many of the Jews who had come to visit Mary saw what Jesus did. So they believed in him. 46 But some of them went to the Pharisees. They told the Pharisees what Jesus had done. 47 Then the chief priests and the Pharisees called a meeting of the Sanhedrin.
“What can we do?” they asked. “This man is performing many signs. 48 If we let him keep on doing this, everyone will believe in him. Then the Romans will come. They will take away our temple and our nation.”
49 One of the Jewish leaders spoke up. His name was Caiaphas. He was high priest at that time. He said, “You don’t know anything at all! 50 You don’t realize what is good for you. It is better if one man dies for the people than if the whole nation is destroyed.”
51 He did not say this on his own because he was high priest at that time. He prophesied that Jesus would die for the Jewish nation. 52 He also prophesied that Jesus would die for God’s children scattered everywhere. He would die to bring them together and make them one. 53 So from that day on, the Jewish rulers planned to kill Jesus.
54 Jesus no longer moved around openly among the people of Judea. Instead, he went away to an area near the desert. He went to a village called Ephraim.
There he stayed with his disciples.
55 It was almost time for the Jewish Passover Feast. Many people went up from the country to Jerusalem. They went there for the special washing that would make them pure before the Passover Feast. 56 They kept looking for Jesus as they stood in the temple courtyard. They asked one another, “What do you think? Isn’t he coming to the feast at all?” 57 But the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders. They had commanded anyone who found out where Jesus was staying to report it. Then they could arrest him.

John 12

Mary Pours Perfume on Jesus at Bethany

[1]It was six days before the Passover Feast. Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus lived. Lazarus was the one Jesus had raised from the dead. [2]A dinner was given at Bethany to honor Jesus. Martha served the food. Lazarus was among the people at the table with Jesus. [3]Then Mary took about a pint of pure nard. It was an expensive perfume. She poured it on Jesus' feet and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the sweet smell of the perfume.

[4]But Judas Iscariot didn't like what Mary did. He was one of Jesus' disciples. Later he was going to hand Jesus over to his enemies. Judas said, [5]"Why wasn't this perfume sold? Why wasn't the money given to poor people? It was worth a year's pay." [6]He didn't say this because he cared about the poor. He said it because he was a thief. Judas was in charge of the money bag. He used to help himself to what was in it.

[7]"Leave her alone," Jesus replied. "The perfume was meant for the day I am buried. [8]You will always have the poor among you. But you won't always have me."

[9]Meanwhile a large crowd of Jews found out that Jesus was there, so they came. But they did not come only because of Jesus. They also came to see Lazarus. After all, Jesus had raised him from the dead. [10]So the chief priests made plans to kill Lazarus too. [11]Because of Lazarus, many of the Jews were starting to follow Jesus. They were believing in him.

Jesus Comes to Jerusalem as King

[12]The next day the large crowd that had come for the feast heard that Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem. [13]So they took branches from palm trees and went out to meet him. They shouted,

> "Hosanna! "
>
> "Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!" (Psalm 118:25, 26)
>
> "Blessed is the king of Israel!"

14 Jesus found a young donkey and sat on it. This is just as it is written in Scripture. It says,

15 "City of Zion, do not be afraid.
See, your king is coming.
He is sitting on a donkey's colt." (Zechariah 9:9)

16 At first, Jesus' disciples did not understand all this. They realized it only after he had received glory. Then they realized that these things had been written about him. They realized that these things had been done to him.

17 A crowd had been with Jesus when he called Lazarus from the tomb and raised him from the dead. So they continued to tell everyone about what had happened. 18 Many people went out to meet him. They had heard that he had done this sign. 19 So the Pharisees said to one another, "This isn't getting us anywhere. Look how the whole world is following him!"

Jesus Tells About His Coming Death

20 There were some Greeks among the people who went up to worship during the feast. 21 They came to ask Philip for a favor. Philip was from Bethsaida in Galilee. "Sir," they said, "we would like to see Jesus." 22 Philip went to tell Andrew. Then Andrew and Philip told Jesus.

23 Jesus replied, "The time has come for the Son of Man to receive glory. 24 What I'm about to tell you is true. Unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only one seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds. 25 Anyone who loves their life will lose it. But anyone who hates their life in this world will keep it and have eternal life. 26 Anyone who serves me must follow me. And where I am, my servant will also be. My Father will honor the one who serves me.

27 "My soul is troubled. What should I say? 'Father, keep me from having to go through with this'? No. This is the very reason I have come to this point in my life. 28 Father, bring glory to your name!"

Then a voice came from heaven. It said, "I have brought glory to my name. I will bring glory to it again." 29 The crowd there heard the voice. Some said it was thunder. Others said an angel had spoken to Jesus.

30 Jesus said, "This voice was for your benefit, not mine. 31 Now it is time for the world to be judged. Now the prince of this world will be thrown out. 32 And I am going to be lifted up from the earth. When I am, I will bring all people to myself.” [33]He said this to show them how he was going to die.

[34]The crowd spoke up. “The Law tells us that the Messiah will remain forever,” they said. “So how can you say, ‘The Son of Man must be lifted up’? Who is this ‘Son of Man’?”

[35]Then Jesus told them, “You are going to have the light just a little while longer. Walk while you have the light. Do this before darkness catches up with you. Whoever walks in the dark does not know where they are going. [36]While you have the light, believe in it. Then you can become children of light.” When Jesus had finished speaking, he left and hid from them.

Some Jews Believe and Some Don’t

[37]Jesus had performed so many signs in front of them. But they still would not believe in him. [38]This happened as Isaiah the prophet had said it would. He had said, > “Lord, who has believed what we’ve been saying?

> Who has seen the Lord’s saving power?” (Isaiah 53:1)

[39]For this reason, they could not believe. As Isaiah says in another place, > [40]“The Lord has blinded their eyes.

> He has closed their minds.
> So they can’t see with their eyes.
> They can’t understand with their minds.
> They can’t turn to the Lord. If they could, he would heal them.”
> (Isaiah 6:10)

[41]Isaiah said this because he saw Jesus’ glory and spoke about him.

[42]At the same time that Jesus did those signs, many of the Jewish leaders believed in him. But because of the Pharisees, they would not openly admit they believed. They were afraid they would be thrown out of the synagogue. [43]They loved praise from people more than praise from God.

[44]Then Jesus cried out, “Whoever believes in me does not believe in me only. They also believe in the one who sent me. [45]The one who looks at me sees the one who sent me. [46]I have come into the world to be its light. So no one who believes in me will stay in darkness.

47 “I don’t judge a person who hears my words but does not obey them. I didn’t come to judge the world. I came to save the world. 48 But there is a judge for anyone who does not accept me and my words. These words I have spoken will judge them on the last day. 49 I did not speak on my own. The Father who sent me commanded me to say all that I have said. 50 I know that his command leads to eternal life. So everything I say is just what the Father has told me to say.”

John 13

Jesus Washes His Disciples' Feet

[1]It was just before the Passover Feast. Jesus knew that the time had come for him to leave this world. It was time for him to go to the Father. Jesus loved his disciples who were in the world. So he now loved them to the very end.
[2]They were having their evening meal. The devil had already tempted Judas, son of Simon Iscariot. He had urged Judas to hand Jesus over to his enemies.
[3]Jesus knew that the Father had put everything under his power. He also knew he had come from God and was returning to God. [4]So he got up from the meal and took off his outer clothes. He wrapped a towel around his waist. [5]After that, he poured water into a large bowl. Then he began to wash his disciples' feet. He dried them with the towel that was wrapped around him.
[6]He came to Simon Peter. "Lord," Peter said to him, "are you going to wash my feet?"
[7]Jesus replied, "You don't realize now what I am doing. But later you will understand."
[8]"No," said Peter. "You will never wash my feet."
Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you can't share life with me."
[9]"Lord," Simon Peter replied, "not just my feet! Wash my hands and my head too!"
[10]Jesus answered, "People who have had a bath need to wash only their feet.
The rest of their body is clean. And you are clean. But not all of you are."
[11]Jesus knew who was going to hand him over to his enemies. That was why he said not every one was clean.
[12]When Jesus finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes. Then he returned to his place. "Do you understand what I have done for you?" he asked them. [13]"You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord.' You are right. That is what I am. [14]I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet. So you also should wash one another's feet. [15]I have given you an example. You should do as I have done for you. [16]What I'm about to tell you is true. A slave is not more important than his master. And a messenger is not more important than the one who sends him.
[17]Now you know these things. So you will be blessed if you do them.

Jesus Tells What Judas Will Do

18“I am not talking about all of you. I know the ones I have chosen. But this will happen so that this passage of Scripture will come true. It says, ‘The one who shared my bread has turned against me.’ (Psalm 41:9) 19“I am telling you now, before it happens. When it does happen, you will believe that I am who I am. 20What I’m about to tell you is true. Anyone who accepts someone I send accepts me. And anyone who accepts me accepts the one who sent me.”
21After he had said this, Jesus’ spirit was troubled. He said, “What I’m about to tell you is true. One of you is going to hand me over to my enemies.” 22His disciples stared at one another. They had no idea which one of them he meant. 23The disciple Jesus loved was next to him at the table. 24Simon Peter motioned to that disciple. He said, “Ask Jesus which one he means.” 25The disciple was leaning back against Jesus. He asked him, “Lord, who is it?”
26Jesus answered, “It is the one I will give this piece of bread to. I will give it to him after I have dipped it in the dish.” He dipped the piece of bread. Then he gave it to Judas, son of Simon Iscariot. 27As soon as Judas took the bread, Satan entered into him.
So Jesus told him, “Do quickly what you are going to do.” 28But no one at the meal understood why Jesus said this to him. 29Judas was in charge of the money.
So some of the disciples thought Jesus was telling him to buy what was needed for the feast. Others thought Jesus was talking about giving something to poor people. 30As soon as Judas had taken the bread, he went out. And it was night.

Peter Says He Does Not Know Jesus

31After Judas was gone, Jesus spoke. He said, “Now the Son of Man receives glory. And he brings glory to God. 32If the Son brings glory to God, God himself will bring glory to the Son. God will do it at once.
33“My children, I will be with you only a little longer. You will look for me.
Just as I told the Jews, so I am telling you now. You can’t come where I am going.
34“I give you a new command. Love one another. You must love one another, just as I have loved you. 35If you love one another, everyone will know you are my disciples.”
36Simon Peter asked him, “Lord, where are you going?”
Jesus replied, “Where I am going you can’t follow now. But you will follow me later.”

37“Lord,” Peter asked, “why can’t I follow you now? I will give my life for you.”

38Then Jesus answered, “Will you really give your life for me? What I’m about to tell you is true. Before the rooster crows, you will say three times that you don’t know me!

John 14

Jesus Comforts His Disciples

[1]"Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God. Believe in me also.
[2]There are many rooms in my Father's house. If this were not true, would I have told you that I am going there? Would I have told you that I would prepare a place for you there? [3]If I go and do that, I will come back. And I will take you to be with me. Then you will also be where I am. [4]You know the way to the place where I am going."

Jesus Is the Way to the Father

[5]Thomas said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you are going. So how can we know the way?"

[6]Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. [7]If you really know me, you will know my Father also. From now on, you do know him. And you have seen him."

[8]Philip said, "Lord, show us the Father. That will be enough for us."

[9]Jesus answered, "Don't you know me, Philip? I have been among you such a long time! Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father. So how can you say, 'Show us the Father'? [10]Don't you believe that I am in the Father? Don't you believe that the Father is in me? The words I say to you I do not speak on my own authority. The Father lives in me. He is the one who is doing his work.
[11]Believe me when I say I am in the Father. Also believe that the Father is in me.
Or at least believe what the works I have been doing say about me. [12]What I'm about to tell you is true. Anyone who believes in me will do the works I have been doing. In fact, they will do even greater things. That's because I am going to the Father. [13]And I will do anything you ask in my name. Then the Father will receive glory from the Son. [14]You may ask me for anything in my name. I will do it.

Jesus Promises That the Holy Spirit Will Come

[15]"If you love me, obey my commands. [16]I will ask the Father. And he will give you another friend to help you and to be with you forever. [17]That friend is the Spirit of truth. The world can't accept him. That's because the world does not see him or know him. But you know him. He lives with you, and he will be in you. [18]I will not leave you like children who don't have parents. I will come to you. [19]Before long, the world will not see me anymore. But you will see me. Because I live, you will live also. [20]On that day you will realize that I am in my Father. You will know that you are in me, and I am in you. [21]Anyone who has my commands and obeys them loves me. My Father will love the one who loves me. I too will love them. And I will show myself to them."

[22]Then Judas spoke. "Lord," he said, "why do you plan to show yourself only to us? Why not also to the world?" The Judas who spoke those words was not Judas Iscariot.

[23]Jesus replied, "Anyone who loves me will obey my teaching. My Father will love them. We will come to them and make our home with them. [24]Anyone who does not love me will not obey my teaching. The words you hear me say are not my own. They belong to the Father who sent me.

[25]"I have spoken all these things while I am still with you. [26]But the Father will send the Friend in my name to help you. The Friend is the Holy Spirit. He will teach you all things. He will remind you of everything I have said to you. [27]I leave my peace with you. I give my peace to you. I do not give it to you as the world does. Do not let your hearts be troubled. And do not be afraid.

[28]"You heard me say, 'I am going away. And I am coming back to you.' If you loved me, you would be glad I am going to the Father. The Father is greater than I am. [29]I have told you now before it happens. Then when it does happen, you will believe. [30]I will not say much more to you. The prince of this world is coming. He has no power over me. [31]But he comes so that the world may learn that I love the Father. They must also learn that I do exactly what my Father has commanded me to do.

"Come now. Let us leave.

John 15

The Vine and the Branches

[1]“I am the true vine. My Father is the gardener. [2]He cuts off every branch joined to me that does not bear fruit. He trims every branch that does bear fruit.
Then it will bear even more fruit. [3]You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you. [4]Remain joined to me, just as I also remain joined to you.
No branch can bear fruit by itself. It must remain joined to the vine. In the same way, you can’t bear fruit unless you remain joined to me.

[5]“I am the vine. You are the branches. If you remain joined to me, and I to you, you will bear a lot of fruit. You can’t do anything without me. [6]If you don’t remain joined to me, you are like a branch that is thrown away and dries up.
Branches like those are picked up. They are thrown into the fire and burned. [7]If you remain joined to me and my words remain in you, ask for anything you wish. And it will be done for you. [8]When you bear a lot of fruit, it brings glory to my Father. It shows that you are my disciples.

[9]“Just as the Father has loved me, I have loved you. Now remain in my love.
[10]If you obey my commands, you will remain in my love. In the same way, I have obeyed my Father’s commands and remain in his love. [11]I have told you this so that you will have the same joy that I have. I also want your joy to be complete. [12]Here is my command. Love one another, just as I have loved you.
[13]No one has greater love than the one who gives their life for their friends.
[14]You are my friends if you do what I command. [15]I do not call you slaves anymore. Slaves do not know their master’s business. Instead, I have called you friends. I have told you everything I learned from my Father. [16]You did not choose me. Instead, I chose you. I appointed you so that you might go and bear fruit that will last. I also appointed you so that the Father will give you what you ask for. He will give you whatever you ask for in my name. [17]Here is my command. Love one another.

The World Hates the Disciples

[18]“My disciples, does the world hate you? Remember that it hated me first.
[19]If you belonged to the world, it would love you like one of its own. But you do not belong to the world. I have chosen you out of the world. That is why the world hates you. [20]Remember what I told you. I said, ‘A slave is not more important than his master.’ (John 13:16) If people hated me and tried to hurt me, they will do the same to you. If they obeyed my teaching, they will obey yours also. [21]They will treat you like that because of my name. They do not know the one who sent me. [22]If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not be guilty of sin. But now they have no excuse for their sin. [23]Whoever hates me hates my Father also. [24]I did works among them that no one else did. If I hadn’t, they would not be guilty of sin. But now they have seen those works. And still they have hated both me and my Father. [25]This has happened so that what is written in their Law would come true. It says, ‘They hated me without any reason.’ (Psalms 35:19; 69:4)

The Work of the Holy Spirit

[26]“I will send the Friend to you from the Father. He is the Spirit of truth, who comes out from the Father. When the Friend comes to help you, he will be a witness about me. [27]You must also be witnesses about me. That’s because you have been with me from the beginning.

John 16

[1]“I have told you all this so that you will not turn away from the truth. [2]You will be thrown out of the synagogue. In fact, the time is coming when someone may kill you. And they will think they are doing God a favor. [3]They will do things like that because they do not know the Father or me. [4]Why have I told you this? So that when their time comes, you will remember that I warned you about them. I didn’t tell you this from the beginning because I was with you. [5]But now I am going to the one who sent me. None of you asks me, ‘Where are you going?’ [6]Instead, you are filled with sadness because I have said these things.
[7]But what I’m about to tell you is true. It is for your good that I am going away.
Unless I go away, the Friend will not come to help you. But if I go, I will send him to you. [8]When he comes, he will prove that the world’s people are guilty. He will prove their guilt concerning sin and godliness and judgment. [9]The world is guilty as far as sin is concerned. That’s because people do not believe in me.
[10]The world is guilty as far as godliness is concerned. That’s because I am going to the Father, where you can’t see me anymore. [11]The world is guilty as far as judgment is concerned. That’s because the devil, the prince of this world, has already been judged.

[12]“I have much more to say to you. It is more than you can handle right now.
[13]But when the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth. He will not speak on his own. He will speak only what he hears. And he will tell you what is still going to happen. [14]He will bring me glory. That’s because what he receives from me he will show to you. [15]Everything that belongs to the Father is mine. That is why I said what the Holy Spirit receives from me he will show to you.

The Disciples’ Sadness Will Turn Into Joy

[16]Jesus continued, “In a little while, you will no longer see me. Then after a little while, you will see me.”

[17]After they heard this, some of his disciples spoke to one another. They said, “What does he mean by saying, ‘In a little while, you will no longer see me.
Then after a little while, you will see me’? And what does he mean by saying, ‘I am going to the Father’?” [18]They kept asking, “What does he mean by ‘a little while’? We don’t understand what he is saying.”

[19]Jesus saw that they wanted to ask him about these things. So he said to them, “Are you asking one another what I meant? Didn’t you understand when I said, ‘In a little while, you will no longer see me. Then after a little while, you will see me’? [20]What I’m about to tell you is true. You will weep and mourn while the world is full of joy. You will be sad, but your sadness will turn into joy. [21]A woman giving birth to a baby has pain. That’s because her time to give birth has come. But when her baby is born, she forgets the pain. She forgets because she is so happy that a baby has been born into the world. [22]That’s the way it is with you. Now it’s your time to be sad. But I will see you again. Then you will be full of joy. And no one will take away your joy. [23]When that day comes, you will no longer ask me for anything. What I’m about to tell you is true. My Father will give you anything you ask for in my name. [24]Until now you have not asked for anything in my name. Ask, and you will receive what you ask for. Then your joy will be complete.

[25]“I have not been speaking to you plainly. But a time is coming when I will speak clearly. Then I will tell you plainly about my Father. [26]When that day comes, you will ask for things in my name. I am not saying I will ask the Father instead of you asking him. [27]No, the Father himself loves you because you have loved me. He also loves you because you have believed that I came from God. [28]I came from the Father and entered the world. Now I am leaving the world and going back to the Father.”

[29]Then Jesus’ disciples said, “Now you are speaking plainly. You are using examples that are clear. [30]Now we can see that you know everything. You don’t even need anyone to ask you questions. This makes us believe that you came from God.”

[31]“Do you believe now?” Jesus replied. [32]“A time is coming when you will be scattered and go to your own homes. In fact, that time is already here. You will leave me all alone. But I am not really alone. My Father is with me.

[33]“I have told you these things, so that you can have peace because of me. In this world you will have trouble. But be encouraged! I have won the battle over the world.”

John 17

Jesus Prays for Himself

[1]After Jesus said this, he looked toward heaven and prayed. He said,

"Father, the time has come. Bring glory to your Son. Then your Son will bring glory to you. [2]You gave him authority over all people. He gives eternal life to all those you have given him. [3]And what is eternal life? It is knowing you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent. [4]I have brought you glory on earth. I have finished the work you gave me to do. [5]So now, Father, give glory to me in heaven where your throne is. Give me the glory I had with you before the world began.

Jesus Prays for His Disciples

[6]"I have shown you to the disciples you gave me out of the world.
They were yours. You gave them to me. And they have obeyed your word. [7]Now they know that everything you have given me comes from you. [8]I gave them the words you gave me. And they accepted them.
They knew for certain that I came from you. They believed that you sent me. [9]I pray for them. I am not praying for the world. I am praying for those you have given me, because they are yours. [10]All I have is yours, and all you have is mine. Glory has come to me because of my disciples. [11]I will not remain in the world any longer. But they are still in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them safe by the power of your name. It is the name you gave me. Keep them safe so they can be one, just as you and I are one. [12]While I was with them, I guarded them. I kept them safe through the name you gave me. None of them has been lost, except the one who was headed for ruin. It happened so that Scripture would come true.

[13]"I am coming to you now. But I say these things while I am still in the world. I say them so that those you gave me can have the same joy that I have. [14]I have given them your word. The world has hated them.
That's because they are not part of the world any more than I am. [15]I do not pray that you will take them out of the world. I pray that you will keep them safe from the evil one. [16]They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to it. [17]Use the truth to make them holy. Your word is truth. [18]You sent me into the world. In the same way, I have sent them into the world. [19]I make myself holy for them so that they too can be made holy by the truth.

Jesus Prays for All Believers

[20]"I do not pray only for them. I pray also for everyone who will believe in me because of their message. [21]Father, I pray they will be one, just as you are in me and I am in you. I want them also to be in us. Then the world will believe that you have sent me. [22]I have given them the glory you gave me. I did this so they would be one, just as we are one. [23]I will be in them, just as you are in me. This is so that they may be brought together perfectly as one. Then the world will know that you sent me. It will also show the world that you have loved those you gave me, just as you have loved me.

[24]"Father, I want those you have given me to be with me where I am. I want them to see my glory, the glory you have given me. You gave it to me because you loved me before the world was created.

[25]"Father, you are holy. The world does not know you, but I know you. Those you have given me know you have sent me. [26]I have shown you to them. And I will continue to show you to them. Then the love you have for me will be in them. I myself will be in them."

John 18

Jesus Is Arrested

1When Jesus had finished praying, he left with his disciples. They crossed the Kidron Valley. On the other side there was a garden. Jesus and his disciples went into it.

2Judas knew the place. He was going to hand Jesus over to his enemies. Jesus had often met in that place with his disciples. 3So Judas came to the garden. He was guiding a group of soldiers and some officials. The chief priests and the Pharisees had sent them. They were carrying torches, lanterns and weapons.

4Jesus knew everything that was going to happen to him. So he went out and asked them, "Who do you want?"

5"Jesus of Nazareth," they replied.

"I am he," Jesus said. Judas, who was going to hand Jesus over, was standing there with them. 6When Jesus said, "I am he," they moved back. Then they fell to the ground.

7He asked them again, "Who do you want?"

"Jesus of Nazareth," they said.

8Jesus answered, "I told you I am he. If you are looking for me, then let these men go." 9This happened so that the words Jesus had spoken would come true.
He had said, "I have not lost anyone God has given me." (John 6:39)

10Simon Peter had a sword and pulled it out. He struck the high priest's slave and cut off his right ear. The slave's name was Malchus.

11Jesus commanded Peter, "Put your sword away! Shouldn't I drink the cup of suffering the Father has given me?"

12Then the group of soldiers, their commander and the Jewish officials arrested Jesus. They tied him up 13and brought him first to Annas. He was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest at that time. 14Caiaphas had advised the Jewish leaders that it would be good if one man died for the people.

Peter Says He Is Not Jesus' Disciple

15Simon Peter and another disciple were following Jesus. The high priest knew the other disciple. So that disciple went with Jesus into the high priest's courtyard. 16But Peter had to wait outside by the door. The other disciple came back. He was the one the high priest knew. He spoke to the servant woman who was on duty there. Then he brought Peter in.

[17]She asked Peter, “You aren’t one of Jesus’ disciples too, are you?”

“I am not,” he replied.

[18]It was cold. The slaves and officials stood around a fire. They had made it to keep warm. Peter was also standing with them. He was warming himself.

The High Priest Questions Jesus

[19]Meanwhile, the high priest questioned Jesus. He asked him about his disciples and his teaching.

[20]“I have spoken openly to the world,” Jesus replied. “I always taught in synagogues or at the temple, where all the Jews come together. I didn’t say anything in secret. [21]Why question me? Ask the people who heard me. They certainly know what I said.”

[22]When Jesus said that, one of the officials nearby slapped him in the face. “Is this any way to answer the high priest?” he asked.

[23]“Have I said something wrong?” Jesus replied. “If I have, then tell everyone what it was. But if I spoke the truth, why did you hit me?” [24]Annas sent him, tied up, to Caiaphas, the high priest.

Peter Again Says He Is Not Jesus’ Disciple

[25]Meanwhile, Simon Peter was still standing there warming himself by the fire. So they asked him, “You aren’t one of Jesus’ disciples too, are you?”

He said, “I am not.”

[26]One of the high priest’s slaves was a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off. He said to Peter, “Didn’t I see you with Jesus in the garden?” [27]Again Peter said no. At that exact moment a rooster began to crow.

Jesus Is Brought to Pilate

[28]Then the Jewish leaders took Jesus from Caiaphas to the palace of the Roman governor. By now it was early morning. The Jewish leaders did not want to be made “unclean.” They wanted to be able to eat the Passover meal. So they did not enter the palace. [29]Pilate came out to them. He asked, “What charges are you bringing against this man?”

[30]“He has committed crimes,” they replied. “If he hadn’t, we would not have handed him over to you.”

[31]Pilate said, “Take him yourselves. Judge him by your own law.”

“But we don’t have the right to put anyone to death,” they complained. [32]This happened so that what Jesus said about how he was going to die would come true.

[33]Then Pilate went back inside the palace. He ordered Jesus to be brought to him. Pilate asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?”

[34]“Is that your own idea?” Jesus asked. “Or did others talk to you about me?”

[35]“Am I a Jew?” Pilate replied. “Your own people and chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?”

[36]Jesus said, “My kingdom is not from this world. If it were, those who serve me would fight. They would try to keep the Jewish leaders from arresting me. My kingdom is from another place.”

[37]“So you are a king, then!” said Pilate.

Jesus answered, “You say that I am a king. In fact, that’s the reason I was born. I was born and came into the world to be a witness to the truth. Everyone who is on the side of truth listens to me.”

[38]“What is truth?” Pilate replied. Then Pilate went out again to the Jews gathered there. He said, “I find no basis for any charge against him. [39]But you have a practice at Passover time. At that time, you ask me to set one prisoner free for you. Do you want me to set ‘the king of the Jews’ free?”

[40]They shouted back, “No! Not him! Give us Barabbas!” Barabbas had taken part in an armed struggle against the country’s rulers.

John 19

Jesus Is Sentenced to Be Crucified

[1]Then Pilate took Jesus and had him whipped. [2]The soldiers twisted thorns together to make a crown. They put it on Jesus' head. Then they put a purple robe on him. [3]They went up to him again and again. They kept saying, "We honor you, king of the Jews!" And they slapped him in the face.

[4]Once more Pilate came out. He said to the Jews gathered there, "Look, I am bringing Jesus out to you. I want to let you know that I find no basis for a charge against him." [5]Jesus came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Then Pilate said to them, "Here is the man!"

[6]As soon as the chief priests and their officials saw him, they shouted, "Crucify him! Crucify him!"

But Pilate answered, "You take him and crucify him. I myself find no basis for a charge against him."

[7]The Jewish leaders replied, "We have a law. That law says he must die. He claimed to be the Son of God."

[8]When Pilate heard that, he was even more afraid. [9]He went back inside the palace. "Where do you come from?" he asked Jesus. But Jesus did not answer him. [10]"Do you refuse to speak to me?" Pilate said. "Don't you understand? I have the power to set you free or to nail you to a cross."

[11]Jesus answered, "You were given power from heaven. If you weren't, you would have no power over me. So the one who handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin."

[12]From then on, Pilate tried to set Jesus free. But the Jewish leaders kept shouting, "If you let this man go, you are not Caesar's friend! Anyone who claims to be a king is against Caesar!"

[13]When Pilate heard that, he brought Jesus out. Pilate sat down on the judge's seat. It was at a place called the Stone Walkway. In the Aramaic language it was called Gabbatha. [14]It was about noon on Preparation Day in Passover Week.

"Here is your king," Pilate said to the Jews.

[15]But they shouted, "Take him away! Take him away! Crucify him!"

"Should I crucify your king?" Pilate asked.

"We have no king but Caesar," the chief priests answered.

[16]Finally, Pilate handed Jesus over to them to be nailed to a cross.

Jesus Is Nailed to a Cross

So the soldiers took charge of Jesus. [17]He had to carry his own cross. He went out to a place called the Skull. In the Aramaic language it was called Golgotha. [18]There they nailed Jesus to the cross. Two other men were crucified with him. One was on each side of him. Jesus was in the middle.

[19]Pilate had a notice prepared. It was fastened to the cross. It read, JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

[20]Many of the Jews read the sign. That's because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city. And the sign was written in the Aramaic, Latin and Greek languages. [21]The chief priests of the Jews argued with Pilate. They said, "Do not write 'The King of the Jews.' Write that this man claimed to be king of the Jews."

[22]Pilate answered, "I have written what I have written."

[23]When the soldiers crucified Jesus, they took his clothes. They divided them into four parts. Each soldier got one part. All that was left was Jesus' long, inner robe. It did not have any seams. It was made out of one piece of cloth from top to bottom.

[24]"Let's not tear it," they said to one another. "Let's cast lots to see who will get it."

This happened so that Scripture would come true. It says,

> "They divided up my clothes among them.
> They cast lots for what I was wearing." (Psalm 22:18)

So that is what the soldiers did.

[25]Jesus' mother stood near his cross. So did his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. [26]Jesus saw his mother there. He also saw the disciple he loved standing nearby. Jesus said to his mother, "Dear woman, here is your son." [27]He said to the disciple, "Here is your mother." From that time on, the disciple took her into his home.

Jesus Dies

[28]Later, Jesus knew that everything had now been finished. He also knew that what Scripture said must come true. So he said, "I am thirsty." [29]A jar of wine vinegar was there. So they soaked a sponge in it. They put the sponge on the stem of a hyssop plant. Then they lifted it up to Jesus' lips. [30]After Jesus drank he said, "It is finished." Then he bowed his head and died.

[31]It was Preparation Day. The next day would be a special Sabbath day. The Jewish leaders did not want the bodies left on the crosses during the Sabbath day. So they asked Pilate to have the legs broken and the bodies taken down. [32]The soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man who had been crucified with Jesus. Then they broke the legs of the other man. [33]But when they came to Jesus, they saw that he was already dead. So they did not break his legs. [34]Instead, one of the soldiers stuck his spear into Jesus' side. Right away, blood and water flowed out. [35]The man who saw it has been a witness about it. And what he has said is true. He knows that he tells the truth. He is a witness so that you also may believe. [36]These things happened in order that Scripture would come true. It says, "Not one of his bones will be broken." (Exodus 12:46; Numbers 9:12; Psalm 34:20) [37]Scripture also says, "They will look to the one they have pierced." (Zechariah 12:10)

Jesus Is Buried

[38]Later Joseph asked Pilate for Jesus' body. Joseph was from the town of Arimathea. He was a follower of Jesus. But he followed Jesus secretly because he was afraid of the Jewish leaders. After Pilate gave him permission, Joseph came and took the body away. [39]Nicodemus went with Joseph. He was the man who had earlier visited Jesus at night. Nicodemus brought some mixed spices that weighed about 75 pounds. [40]The two men took Jesus' body. They wrapped it in strips of linen cloth, along with the spices. That was the way the Jews buried people. [41]At the place where Jesus was crucified, there was a garden. A new tomb was there. No one had ever been put in it before. [42]That day was the Jewish Preparation Day, and the tomb was nearby. So they placed Jesus there.

John 20

The Tomb Is Empty

[1]Early on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb. It was still dark. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the entrance. [2]So she ran to Simon Peter and another disciple, the one Jesus loved. She said, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb! We don’t know where they have put him!”

[3]So Peter and the other disciple started out for the tomb. [4]Both of them were running. The other disciple ran faster than Peter. He reached the tomb first. [5]He bent over and looked in at the strips of linen lying there. But he did not go in. [6]Then Simon Peter came along behind him. He went straight into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there. [7]He also saw the funeral cloth that had been wrapped around Jesus’ head. The cloth was still lying in its place. It was separate from the linen. [8]The disciple who had reached the tomb first also went inside. He saw and believed. [9]They still did not understand from Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead. [10]Then the disciples went back to where they were staying.

Jesus Appears to Mary Magdalene

[11]But Mary stood outside the tomb crying. As she cried, she bent over to look into the tomb. [12]She saw two angels dressed in white. They were seated where Jesus’ body had been. One of them was where Jesus’ head had been laid. The other sat where his feet had been placed.

[13]They asked her, “Woman, why are you crying?”

“They have taken my Lord away,” she said. “I don’t know where they have put him.” [14]Then she turned around and saw Jesus standing there. But she didn’t realize that it was Jesus.

[15]He asked her, “Woman, why are you crying? Who are you looking for?”

She thought he was the gardener. So she said, “Sir, did you carry him away? Tell me where you put him. Then I will go and get him.”

[16]Jesus said to her, “Mary.”

She turned toward him. Then she cried out in the Aramaic language, “Rabboni!” Rabboni means Teacher.

[17]Jesus said, “Do not hold on to me. I have not yet ascended to the Father. Instead, go to those who believe in me. Tell them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’ ”

18Mary Magdalene went to the disciples with the news. She said, “I have seen the Lord!” And she told them that he had said these things to her.

Jesus Appears to His Disciples

19On the evening of that first day of the week, the disciples were together. They had locked the doors because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders. Jesus came in and stood among them. He said, “May peace be with you!” 20Then he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were very happy when they saw the Lord.

21Again Jesus said, “May peace be with you! The Father has sent me. So now I am sending you.” 22He then breathed on them. He said, “Receive the Holy Spirit. 23If you forgive anyone’s sins, their sins are forgiven. If you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven.”

Jesus Appears to Thomas

24Thomas was one of the 12 disciples. He was also called Didymus. He was not with the other disciples when Jesus came. 25So they told him, “We have seen the Lord!”

But he said to them, “First I must see the nail marks in his hands. I must put my finger where the nails were. I must put my hand into his side. Only then will I believe.”

26A week later, Jesus’ disciples were in the house again. Thomas was with them. Even though the doors were locked, Jesus came in and stood among them. He said, “May peace be with you!” 27Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here. See my hands. Reach out your hand and put it into my side. Stop doubting and believe.”

28Thomas said to him, “My Lord and my God!”

29Then Jesus told him, “Because you have seen me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen me but still have believed.”

The Purpose of John’s Gospel

30Jesus performed many other signs in front of his disciples. They are not written down in this book. 31But these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God. If you believe this, you will have life because you belong to him.

John 21

Jesus and the Miracle of Many Fish

[1]After this, Jesus appeared to his disciples again. It was by the Sea of Galilee. Here is what happened. [2]Simon Peter and Thomas, who was also called Didymus, were there together. Nathanael from Cana in Galilee and the sons of Zebedee were with them. So were two other disciples. [3]"I'm going out to fish," Simon Peter told them. They said, "We'll go with you." So they went out and got into the boat. That night they didn't catch anything.

[4]Early in the morning, Jesus stood on the shore. But the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus.

[5]He called out to them, "Friends, don't you have any fish?"

"No," they answered.

[6]He said, "Throw your net on the right side of the boat. There you will find some fish." When they did, they could not pull the net into the boat. There were too many fish in it.

[7]Then the disciple Jesus loved said to Simon Peter, "It is the Lord!" As soon as Peter heard that, he put his coat on. He had taken it off earlier. Then he jumped into the water. [8]The other disciples followed in the boat. They were towing the net full of fish. The shore was only about 100 yards away. [9]When they landed, they saw a fire of burning coals. There were fish on it. There was also some bread.

[10]Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you have just caught." [11]So Simon Peter climbed back into the boat. He dragged the net to shore. It was full of large fish. There were 153 of them. But even with that many fish the net was not torn. [12]Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." None of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" They knew it was the Lord. [13]Jesus came, took the bread and gave it to them. He did the same thing with the fish. [14]This was the third time Jesus appeared to his disciples after he was raised from the dead.

Jesus Gives Peter His Task

[15]When Jesus and the disciples had finished eating, Jesus spoke to Simon Peter. He asked, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these others do?"

“Yes, Lord,” he answered. “You know that I love you.”

Jesus said, “Feed my lambs.”

16Again Jesus asked, “Simon, son of John, do you love me?”

He answered, “Yes, Lord. You know that I love you.”

Jesus said, “Take care of my sheep.”

17Jesus spoke to him a third time. He asked, “Simon, son of John, do you love me?”

Peter felt bad because Jesus asked him the third time, “Do you love me?” He answered, “Lord, you know all things. You know that I love you.”

Jesus said, “Feed my sheep. 18What I’m about to tell you is true. When you were younger, you dressed yourself. You went wherever you wanted to go. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands. Someone else will dress you. Someone else will lead you where you do not want to go.” 19Jesus said this to point out how Peter would die. His death would bring glory to God. Then Jesus said to him, “Follow me!”

20Peter turned around. He saw that the disciple Jesus loved was following them. He was the one who had leaned back against Jesus at the supper. He had said, “Lord, who is going to hand you over to your enemies?” 21When Peter saw that disciple, he asked, “Lord, what will happen to him?”

22Jesus answered, “Suppose I want him to remain alive until I return. What does that matter to you? You must follow me.” 23Because of what Jesus said, a false report spread among the believers. The story was told that the disciple Jesus loved wouldn’t die. But Jesus did not say he would not die. He only said, “Suppose I want him to remain alive until I return. What does that matter to you?”

24This is the disciple who is a witness about these things. He also wrote them down. We know that what he says is true.

25Jesus also did many other things. What if every one of them were written down? I suppose that even the whole world would not have room for the books that would be written.

Acts

Acts 1

Jesus Is Taken Up Into Heaven

[1]Theophilus, I wrote about Jesus in my earlier book. I wrote about all he did and taught [2]until the day he was taken up to heaven. Before Jesus left, he gave orders to the apostles he had chosen. He did this through the Holy Spirit. [3]After his suffering and death, he appeared to them. In many ways he proved that he was alive. He appeared to them over a period of 40 days. During that time he spoke about God's kingdom. [4]One day Jesus was eating with them. He gave them a command. "Do not leave Jerusalem," he said. "Wait for the gift my Father promised. You have heard me talk about it. [5]John baptized with water. But in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit."

[6]Then the apostles gathered around Jesus and asked him a question. "Lord," they said, "are you going to give the kingdom back to Israel now?"

[7]He said to them, "You should not be concerned about times or dates. The Father has set them by his own authority. [8]But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you. Then you will tell people about me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria. And you will even tell other people about me from one end of the earth to the other."

[9]After Jesus said this, he was taken up to heaven. The apostles watched until a cloud hid him from their sight.

[10]While he was going up, they kept on looking at the sky. Suddenly two men dressed in white clothing stood beside them. [11]"Men of Galilee," they said, "why do you stand here looking at the sky? Jesus has been taken away from you into heaven. But he will come back in the same way you saw him go."

Matthias Is Chosen to Take the Place of Judas Iscariot

[12]The apostles returned to Jerusalem from the hill called the Mount of Olives. It is just over half a mile from the city. [13]When they arrived, they went upstairs to the room where they were staying.

Peter, John, James and Andrew were there.
Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew were there too.

So were James son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James.

14They all came together regularly to pray. The women joined them too. So did Jesus' mother Mary and his brothers.

15In those days Peter stood up among the believers. About 120 of them were there. 16Peter said, "Brothers and sisters, a long time ago the Holy Spirit spoke through David. He spoke about Judas Iscariot. What the Scripture said would happen had to come true. Judas was the guide for the men who arrested Jesus. 17But Judas was one of us. He shared with us in our work for God."

18Judas bought a field with the payment he received for the evil thing he had done. He fell down headfirst in the field. His body burst open. All his insides spilled out. 19Everyone in Jerusalem heard about this. So they called that field Akeldama. In their language, Akeldama means the Field of Blood.

20Peter said, "Here is what is written in the Book of Psalms. It says, " 'May his home be deserted.

May no one live in it.' (Psalm 69:25)

The Psalms also say,

" 'Let someone else take his place as leader.' (Psalm 109:8)

21So we need to choose someone to take his place. It will have to be a man who was with us the whole time the Lord Jesus was living among us. 22That time began when John was baptizing. It ended when Jesus was taken up from us. The one we choose must join us in telling people that Jesus rose from the dead."

23So they suggested the names of two men. One was Joseph, who was called Barsabbas. He was also called Justus. The other man was Matthias. 24Then the believers prayed. They said, "Lord, you know everyone's heart. Show us which of these two you have chosen. 25Show us who should take the place of Judas as an apostle. He gave up being an apostle to go where he belongs." 26Then they cast lots. Matthias was chosen. So he was added to the 11 apostles.

Acts 2

The Holy Spirit Comes at Pentecost

[1]When the day of Pentecost came, all the believers gathered in one place. [2]Suddenly a sound came from heaven. It was like a strong wind blowing. It filled the whole house where they were sitting. [3]They saw something that looked like fire in the shape of tongues. The flames separated and came to rest on each of them. [4]All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit. They began to speak in languages they had not known before. The Spirit gave them the ability to do this.

[5]Godly Jews from every country in the world were staying in Jerusalem. [6]A crowd came together when they heard the sound. They were bewildered because each of them heard their own language being spoken. [7]The crowd was really amazed. They asked, “Aren’t all these people who are speaking Galileans? [8]Then why do we each hear them speaking in our own native language? [9]We are Parthians, Medes and Elamites. We live in Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia. We are from Pontus, Asia, [10]Phrygia and Pamphylia. Others of us are from Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene. Still others are visitors from Rome. [11]Some of the visitors are Jews. Others have accepted the Jewish faith. Also, Cretans and Arabs are here. We hear all these people speaking about God’s wonders in our own languages!” [12]They were amazed and bewildered. They asked one another, “What does this mean?”

[13]But some people in the crowd made fun of the believers. “They’ve had too much wine!” they said.

Peter Speaks to the Crowd

[14]Then Peter stood up with the 11 apostles. In a loud voice he spoke to the crowd. “My fellow Jews,” he said, “let me explain this to you. All of you who live in Jerusalem, listen carefully to what I say. [15]You think these people are drunk. But they aren’t. It’s only nine o’clock in the morning! [16]No, here is what the prophet Joel meant. [17]He said,

> “ ‘In the last days, God says,
> I will pour out my Holy Spirit on all people.
> Your sons and daughters will prophesy.
> Your young men will see visions.

Your old men will have dreams.
[18]In those days, I will pour out my Spirit on my servants.
I will pour out my Spirit on both men and women.
When I do, they will prophesy.
[19]I will show wonders in the heavens above.
I will show signs on the earth below.
There will be blood and fire and clouds of smoke.
[20]The sun will become dark.
The moon will turn red like blood.
This will happen before the coming of the great and glorious day of the Lord.
[21]Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.' (Joel 2:28–32)

[22]"Fellow Israelites, listen to this! Jesus of Nazareth was a man who had God's approval. God did miracles, wonders and signs among you through Jesus. You yourselves know this. [23]Long ago God planned that Jesus would be handed over to you. With the help of evil people, you put Jesus to death. You nailed him to the cross. [24]But God raised him from the dead. He set him free from the suffering of death. It wasn't possible for death to keep its hold on Jesus. [25]David spoke about him. He said, " 'I know that the Lord is always with me.

Because he is at my right hand,
I will always be secure.
[26]So my heart is glad and joy is on my tongue.
My whole body will be full of hope.
[27]You will not leave me in the place of the dead.
You will not let your holy one rot away.
[28]You always show me the path that leads to life.
You will fill me with joy when I am with you.' (Psalm 16:8–11)

[29]"Fellow Israelites, you can be sure that King David died. He was buried. His tomb is still here today. [30]But David was a prophet. He knew that God had made a promise to him. God had promised that he would make someone in David's family line king after him. [31]David saw what was coming. So he spoke about the Messiah rising from the dead. He said that the Messiah would not be left in the place of the dead. His body wouldn't rot in the ground. [32]God has raised this same Jesus back to life. We are all witnesses of this. [33]Jesus has been given a place of honor at the right hand of God. He has received the Holy Spirit from the Father. This is what God had promised. It is Jesus who has poured out what you now see and hear. [34]David did not go up to heaven. But he said,

> " 'The Lord said to my Lord,
> "Sit at my right hand.
> [35]I will put your enemies
> under your control." ' (Psalm 110:1)

[36]"So be sure of this, all you people of Israel. You nailed Jesus to the cross. But God has made him both Lord and Messiah."

[37]When the people heard this, it had a deep effect on them. They said to Peter and the other apostles, "Brothers, what should we do?"

[38]Peter replied, "All of you must turn away from your sins and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then your sins will be forgiven. You will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. [39]The promise is for you and your children. It is also for all who are far away. It is for all whom the Lord our God will choose."

[40]Peter said many other things to warn them. He begged them, "Save yourselves from these evil people." [41]Those who accepted his message were baptized. About 3,000 people joined the believers that day.

The Believers Share Their Lives Together

[42]The believers studied what the apostles taught. They shared their lives together. They ate and prayed together. [43]Everyone was amazed at what God was doing. They were amazed when the apostles performed many wonders and signs. [44]All the believers were together. They shared everything they had. [45]They sold property and other things they owned. They gave to anyone who needed something. [46]Every day they met together in the temple courtyard. They ate meals together in their homes. Their hearts were glad and sincere. [47]They praised God. They were respected by all the people. Every day the Lord added to their group those who were being saved.

Acts 3

Peter Heals a Beggar Who Can't Walk

[1]One day Peter and John were going up to the temple. It was three o'clock in the afternoon. It was the time for prayer. [2]A man unable to walk was being carried to the temple gate called Beautiful. He had been that way since he was born. Every day someone put him near the gate. There he would beg from people going into the temple courtyards. [3]He saw that Peter and John were about to enter. So he asked them for money. [4]Peter looked straight at him, and so did John. Then Peter said, "Look at us!" [5]So the man watched them closely. He expected to get something from them.

[6]Peter said, "I don't have any silver or gold. But I'll give you what I do have. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, get up and walk." [7]Then Peter took him by the right hand and helped him up. At once the man's feet and ankles became strong. [8]He jumped to his feet and began to walk. He went with Peter and John into the temple courtyards. He walked and jumped and praised God. [9]All the people saw him walking and praising God. [10]They recognized him as the same man who used to sit and beg at the temple gate called Beautiful. They were filled with wonder. They were amazed at what had happened to him.

Peter Speaks to the People at the Temple

[11]The man was holding on to Peter and John. All the people were amazed. They came running to them at the place called Solomon's Porch. [12]When Peter saw this, he said, "Fellow Israelites, why does this surprise you? Why do you stare at us? It's not as if we've made this man walk by our own power or godliness. [13]The God of our fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, has done this. God has brought glory to Jesus, who serves him. But you handed Jesus over to be killed. Pilate had decided to let him go. But you spoke against Jesus when he was in Pilate's court. [14]You spoke against the Holy and Blameless One. You asked for a murderer to be set free instead. [15]You killed the one who gives life. But God raised him from the dead. We are witnesses of this. [16]This man whom you see and know was made strong because of faith in Jesus' name. Faith in Jesus has healed him completely. You can see it with your own eyes.

Neither did your leaders. [18]But God had given a promise through all the prophets. And this is how he has made his promise come true. He said that his Messiah would suffer. [19]So turn away from your sins. Turn to God. Then your sins will be wiped away. The time will come when the Lord will make everything new. [20]He will send the Messiah. Jesus has been appointed as the Messiah for you. [21]Heaven must receive him until the time when God makes everything new. He promised this long ago through his holy prophets. [22]Moses said, ‘The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me. He will be one of your own people. You must listen to everything he tells you. [23]Anyone who does not listen to him will be completely cut off from their people.’ (Deuteronomy 18:15, 18, 19)

[24]“Beginning with Samuel, all the prophets spoke about this. They said these days would come. [25]What the prophets said was meant for you. The covenant God made with your people long ago is yours also. He said to Abraham, ‘All nations on earth will be blessed through your children.’ (Genesis 22:18; 26:4) [26]God raised up Jesus, who serves him. God sent him first to you. He did it to bless you. He wanted to turn each of you from your evil ways.”

Acts 4

Peter and John Are Taken to the Sanhedrin

[1]Peter and John were speaking to the people. The priests, the captain of the temple guard, and the Sadducees came up to the apostles. [2]They were very upset by what the apostles were teaching the people. The apostles were saying that people can be raised from the dead. They said this can happen because Jesus rose from the dead. [3]So the temple authorities arrested Peter and John. It was already evening, so they put them in prison until the next day. [4]But many who heard the message believed. The number of men who believed grew to about 5,000.

[5]The next day the rulers, the elders and the teachers of the law met in Jerusalem. [6]Annas, the high priest, was there. So were Caiaphas, John, Alexander and other people in the high priest's family. [7]They had Peter and John brought to them. They wanted to question them. "By what power did you do this?" they asked. "And through whose name?"

[8]Peter was filled with the Holy Spirit. He said to them, "Rulers and elders of the people! [9]Are you asking us to explain our actions today? Do you want to know why we were kind to a man who couldn't walk? Are you asking how he was healed? [10]Then listen to this, you and all the people of Israel! You nailed Jesus Christ of Nazareth to the cross. But God raised him from the dead. It is through Jesus' name that this man stands healed in front of you. [11]Scripture says that Jesus is > " 'the stone you builders did not accept.

> But it has become the most important stone of all.' (Psalm 118:22)

[12]You can't be saved by believing in anyone else. God has given people no other name under heaven that will save them."

[13]The leaders saw how bold Peter and John were. They also realized that Peter and John were ordinary men with no training. This surprised the leaders. They realized that these men had been with Jesus. [14]The leaders could see the man who had been healed. He was standing there with them. So there was nothing they could say. [15]They ordered Peter and John to leave the Sanhedrin. Then they talked things over. [16]"What can we do with these men?" they asked. "Everyone living in Jerusalem knows they have performed an unusual miracle. We can't say it didn't happen. [17]We have to stop this thing. It must not spread any further among the people. We have to warn these men. They must never speak to anyone in Jesus' name again."

[18]Once again the leaders called in Peter and John. They commanded them not to speak or teach at all in Jesus' name. [19]But Peter and John replied, "Which is right from God's point of view? Should we listen to you? Or should we listen to God? You be the judges! [20]There's nothing else we can do. We have to speak about the things we've seen and heard."

[21]The leaders warned them again. Then they let them go. They couldn't decide how to punish Peter and John. They knew that all the people were praising God for what had happened. [22]The man who had been healed by the miracle was over 40 years old.

The Believers Pray

[23]Peter and John were allowed to leave. They went back to their own people. They reported everything the chief priests and the elders had said to them. [24]The believers heard this. Then they raised their voices together in prayer to God. "Lord and King," they said, "you made the heavens, the earth and the sea. You made everything in them. [25]Long ago you spoke by the Holy Spirit. You spoke through the mouth of our father David, who served you. You said,

> " 'Why are the nations angry?
> Why do the people make useless plans?
> [26]The kings of the earth rise up.
> The rulers of the earth gather together > against the Lord > and against his anointed king.' (Psalm 2:1, 2)

[27]In fact, Herod and Pontius Pilate met with the Gentiles in this city. They also met with the people of Israel. All of them made plans against your holy servant Jesus. He is the one you anointed. [28]They did what your power and purpose had already decided should happen. [29]Now, Lord, consider the bad things they say they are going to do. Help us to be very bold when we speak your word. [30]Stretch out your hand to heal. Do signs and wonders through the name of your holy servant Jesus."

[31]After they prayed, the place where they were meeting was shaken. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit. They were bold when they spoke God's word.

The Believers Share What They Own

[32]All the believers were agreed in heart and mind. They didn't claim that anything they had was their own. Instead, they shared everything they owned. [33]With great power the apostles continued their teaching. They were telling people that the Lord Jesus had risen from the dead. And God's grace was working powerfully in all of them. [34]So there were no needy persons among them. From time to time, those who owned land or houses sold them. They brought the money from the sales. [35]They put it down at the apostles' feet. It was then given out to anyone who needed it.

[36]Joseph was a Levite from Cyprus. The apostles called him Barnabas. The name Barnabas means Son of Help. [37]Barnabas sold a field he owned. He brought the money from the sale. He put it down at the apostles' feet.

Acts 5

Ananias and Sapphira

[1]A man named Ananias and his wife, Sapphira, also sold some land. [2]He kept part of the money for himself. Sapphira knew he had kept it. He brought the rest of it and put it down at the apostles' feet.

[3]Then Peter said, "Ananias, why did you let Satan fill your heart? He made you lie to the Holy Spirit. You have kept some of the money you received for the land. [4]Didn't the land belong to you before it was sold? After it was sold, you could have used the money as you wished. What made you think of doing such a thing? You haven't lied just to people. You've also lied to God."

[5]When Ananias heard this, he fell down and died. All who heard what had happened were filled with fear. [6]Some young men came and wrapped up his body. They carried him out and buried him.

[7]About three hours later, the wife of Ananias came in. She didn't know what had happened. [8]Peter asked her, "Tell me. Is this the price you and Ananias sold the land for?"

"Yes," she said. "That's the price."

[9]Peter asked her, "How could you agree to test the Spirit of the Lord? Listen! You can hear the steps of the men who buried your husband. They are at the door. They will carry you out also."

[10]At that moment she fell down at Peter's feet and died. Then the young men came in. They saw that Sapphira was dead. So they carried her out and buried her beside her husband. [11]The whole church and all who heard about these things were filled with fear.

The Apostles Heal Many People

[12]The apostles did many signs and wonders among the people. All the believers used to meet together at Solomon's Porch. [13]No outsider dared to join them. But the people thought highly of them. [14]More and more men and women believed in the Lord. They joined the other believers. [15]So people brought those who were sick into the streets. They placed them on beds and mats. They hoped that at least Peter's shadow might fall on some of them as he walked by. [16]Crowds even gathered from the towns around Jerusalem. They brought their sick people. They also brought those who were suffering because of evil spirits. All of them were healed.

The Apostles Are Treated Badly

17The high priest and all his companions were Sadducees. They were very jealous of the apostles. 18So they arrested them and put them in the public jail. 19But during the night an angel of the Lord came. He opened the doors of the jail and brought the apostles out. 20"Go! Stand in the temple courtyard," the angel said. "Tell the people all about this new life."

21Early the next day they did as they had been told. They entered the temple courtyard. There they began to teach the people.

The high priest and his companions arrived. They called the Sanhedrin together. The Sanhedrin was a gathering of all the elders of Israel. They sent for the apostles who were in jail. 22The officers arrived at the jail. But they didn't find the apostles there. So they went back and reported it. 23"We found the jail locked up tight," they said. "The guards were standing at the doors. But when we opened the doors, we didn't find anyone inside." 24When the captain of the temple guard and the chief priests heard this report, they were bewildered. They wondered what would happen next.

25Then someone came and said, "Look! The men you put in jail are standing in the temple courtyard. They are teaching the people." 26So the captain went with his officers and brought the apostles back. But they didn't use force. They were afraid the people would kill them by throwing stones at them.

27They brought the apostles to the Sanhedrin. The high priest questioned them. 28"We gave you clear orders not to teach in Jesus' name," he said. "But you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching. You want to make us guilty of this man's death."

29Peter and the other apostles replied, "We must obey God instead of people! 30You had Jesus killed by nailing him to a cross. But the God of our people raised Jesus from the dead. 31Now Jesus is Prince and Savior. God has proved this by giving Jesus a place of honor with him. He did it to turn Israel away from their sins and forgive them. 32We are telling people about these things. And so is the Holy Spirit. God has given the Spirit to those who obey him."

33When the leaders heard this, they became very angry. They wanted to put the apostles to death. 34But a Pharisee named Gamaliel stood up in the Sanhedrin. He was a teacher of the law. He was honored by all the people. He ordered the apostles to be taken outside for a little while. [35]Then Gamaliel spoke to the Sanhedrin. “Men of Israel,” he said, “think carefully about what you plan to do to these men. [36]Some time ago Theudas appeared. He claimed he was really somebody. About 400 people followed him. But he was killed. All his followers were scattered. So they accomplished nothing. [37]After this, Judas from Galilee came along. This was in the days when the Romans made a list of all the people. Judas led a gang of men against the Romans. He too was killed. All his followers were scattered. [38]So let me give you some advice. Leave these men alone! Let them go! If their plans and actions only come from people, they will fail. [39]But if their plans come from God, you won’t be able to stop these men. You will only find yourselves fighting against God.”

[40]His speech won the leaders over. They called the apostles in and had them whipped. The leaders ordered them not to speak in Jesus’ name. Then they let the apostles go.

[41]The apostles were full of joy as they left the Sanhedrin. They considered it an honor to suffer shame for the name of Jesus. [42]Every day they taught in the temple courtyards and from house to house. They never stopped telling people the good news that Jesus is the Messiah.

Acts 6

Seven Leaders Are Chosen

[1]In those days the number of believers was growing. The Greek Jews complained about the non-Greek Jews. They said that the widows of the Greek Jews were not being taken care of. They weren't getting their fair share of food each day. [2]So the 12 apostles gathered all the believers together. They said, "It wouldn't be right for us to give up teaching God's word. And we'd have to stop teaching to wait on tables. [3]Brothers and sisters, choose seven of your men. They must be known as men who are wise and full of the Holy Spirit. We will turn this important work over to them. [4]Then we can give our attention to prayer and to teaching God's word."

[5]This plan pleased the whole group. They chose Stephen. He was full of faith and of the Holy Spirit. Philip, Procorus, Nicanor, Timon and Parmenas were chosen too. The group also chose Nicolas from Antioch. He had accepted the Jewish faith. [6]The group brought them to the apostles. Then the apostles prayed and placed their hands on them.

[7]So God's word spread. The number of believers in Jerusalem grew quickly. Also, a large number of priests began to obey Jesus' teachings.

Stephen Is Arrested

[8]Stephen was full of God's grace and power. He did great wonders and signs among the people. [9]But members of the group called the Synagogue of the Freedmen began to oppose him. Some of them were Jews from Cyrene and Alexandria. Others were Jews from Cilicia and Asia Minor. They all began to argue with Stephen. [10]But he was too wise for them. That's because the Holy Spirit gave Stephen wisdom whenever he spoke.

[11]Then in secret they talked some men into lying about Stephen. They said, "We heard Stephen speak evil things against Moses and against God."

[12]So the people were stirred up. The elders and the teachers of the law were stirred up too. They arrested Stephen and brought him to the Sanhedrin. [13]They found witnesses who were willing to tell lies. These liars said, "This fellow never stops speaking against this holy place. He also speaks against the law. [14]We have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place. He says Jesus will change the practices that Moses handed down to us."

[15]All who were sitting in the Sanhedrin looked right at Stephen. They saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

Acts 7

Stephen Speaks to the Sanhedrin

1Then the high priest questioned Stephen. “Is what these people are saying true?” he asked.

2“Brothers and fathers, listen to me!” Stephen replied. “The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham. At that time Abraham was still in Mesopotamia. He had not yet begun living in Harran. 3‘Leave your country and your people,’ God said. ‘Go to the land I will show you.’ (Genesis 12:1)

4“So Abraham left the land of Babylonia. He settled in Harran. After his father died, God sent Abraham to this land where you are now living. 5God didn’t give him any property here. He didn’t even give him enough land to set his foot on.
But God made a promise to him and to all his family after him. He said they would possess the land. The promise was made even though at that time Abraham had no child. 6Here is what God said to him. ‘For 400 years your family after you will be strangers in a country not their own. They will be slaves and will be treated badly. 7But I will punish the nation that makes them slaves,’ God said. ‘After that, they will leave that country and worship me here.’ (Genesis 15:13, 14) 8Then God made a covenant with Abraham. God told him that circumcision would show who the members of the covenant were. Abraham became Isaac’s father. He circumcised Isaac eight days after he was born. Later, Isaac became Jacob’s father. Jacob had 12 sons. They became the founders of the 12 tribes of Israel.

9“Jacob’s sons were jealous of their brother Joseph. So they sold him as a slave. He was taken to Egypt. But God was with him. 10He saved Joseph from all his troubles. God made Joseph wise. He helped him to become the friend of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. So Pharaoh made Joseph ruler over Egypt and his whole palace.

11“There was not enough food for all Egypt and Canaan. This brought great suffering. Jacob and his sons couldn’t find food. 12But Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt. So he sent his sons on their first visit. 13On their second visit, Joseph told his brothers who he was. Pharaoh learned about Joseph’s family. 14After this, Joseph sent for his father Jacob and his whole family. The total number of people was 75. 15Then Jacob went down to Egypt. There he and his family died. 16Some of their bodies were brought back to Shechem. They were placed in a tomb Abraham had bought. He had purchased it from Hamor's sons at Shechem. He had purchased it for a certain amount of money.

17"In Egypt the number of our people grew and grew. It was nearly time for God to make his promise to Abraham come true. 18Then 'a new king came to power in Egypt. Joseph didn't mean anything to him.' (Exodus 1:8) 19The king was very evil and dishonest with our people. He treated them badly. He forced them to throw out their newborn babies to die.

20"At that time Moses was born. He was not an ordinary child. For three months he was taken care of by his family. 21Then he was placed outside. But Pharaoh's daughter took him home. She brought him up as her own son. 22Moses was taught all the knowledge of the people of Egypt. He became a powerful speaker and a man of action.

23"When Moses was 40 years old, he decided to visit the people of Israel. They were his own people. 24He saw one of them being treated badly by an Egyptian. So he went to help him. He got even by killing the man. 25Moses thought his own people would realize that God was using him to save them. But they didn't. 26The next day Moses saw two Israelites fighting. He tried to make peace between them. 'Men, you are both Israelites,' he said. 'Why do you want to hurt each other?'

27"But the man who was treating the other one badly pushed Moses to one side. He said, 'Who made you ruler and judge over us? 28Are you thinking of killing me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?' (Exodus 2:14) 29When Moses heard this, he escaped to Midian. He lived there as an outsider. He became the father of two sons there.

30"Forty years passed. Then an angel appeared to Moses in the flames of a burning bush. This happened in the desert near Mount Sinai. 31When Moses saw the bush, he was amazed. He went over for a closer look. There he heard the Lord say, 32'I am the God of your fathers. I am the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.' (Exodus 3:6) Moses shook with fear. He didn't dare to look.

33"Then the Lord said to him, 'Take off your sandals. You must do this because the place where you are standing is holy ground. 34I have seen my people beaten down in Egypt. I have heard their groans. I have come down to set them free. Now come. I will send you back to Egypt.' (Exodus 3:5, 7, 8, 10)

35"This is the same Moses the two men of Israel would not accept. They had said, 'Who made you ruler and judge?' But God himself sent Moses to rule the people of Israel and set them free. He spoke to Moses through an angel. The angel had appeared to him in the bush. [36]So Moses led them out of Egypt. He did wonders and signs in Egypt, at the Red Sea, and for 40 years in the desert.

[37]"This is the same Moses who spoke to the Israelites. 'God will send you a prophet,' he said. 'He will be like me. He will come from your own people.' (Deuteronomy 18:15) [38]Moses was with the Israelites in the desert. He was with the angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai. Moses was with our people of long ago. He received living words to pass on to us.

[39]"But our people refused to obey Moses. They would not accept him. In their hearts, they wished they were back in Egypt. [40]They told Aaron, 'Make us a god who will lead us. This fellow Moses brought us up out of Egypt. But we don't know what has happened to him!' (Exodus 32:1) [41]That was the time they made a statue to be their god. It was shaped like a calf. They brought sacrifices to it. They even enjoyed what they had made with their own hands. [42]But God turned away from them. He let them go on worshiping the sun, moon and stars. This agrees with what is written in the book of the prophets. There it says,

> " 'People of Israel, did you bring me sacrifices and offerings > for 40 years in the desert?
> [43]You have taken with you the shrine of your false god Molek.
> You have taken with you the star of your false god Rephan.
> You made statues of those gods to worship.
> So I will send you away from your country.' (Amos 5:25–27)
> God sent them to Babylon and even farther.

[44]"Long ago our people were in the desert. They had with them the holy tent. The tent was where the tablets of the covenant law were kept. Moses had made the holy tent as God had commanded him. Moses made it like the pattern he had seen. [45]Our people received the tent from God. Then they brought it with them when they took the land of Canaan. God drove out the nations that were in their way. At that time Joshua was Israel's leader. The tent remained in the land until David's time. [46]David was blessed by God. So David asked if he could build a house for the God of Jacob. [47]But it was Solomon who built the temple for God.

[48]"But the Most High God does not live in houses made by human hands. As God says through the prophet, > [49]" 'Heaven is my throne.

> The earth is under my control.

What kind of house will you build for me?
says the Lord.
Where will my resting place be?
[50]Didn’t my hand make all these things?’ (Isaiah 66:1, 2)

[51]“You stubborn people! You won’t obey! You won’t listen! You are just like your people of long ago! You always oppose the Holy Spirit! [52]Was there ever a prophet your people didn’t try to hurt? They even killed those who told about the coming of the Blameless One. And now you have handed him over to his enemies. You have murdered him. [53]The law you received was given by angels. But you haven’t obeyed it.”

Stephen Is Killed

[54]When the members of the Sanhedrin heard this, they became very angry. They were so angry they ground their teeth at Stephen. [55]But he was full of the Holy Spirit. He looked up to heaven and saw God’s glory. He saw Jesus standing at God’s right hand. [56]“Look!” he said. “I see heaven open. The Son of Man is standing at God’s right hand.”

[57]When the Sanhedrin heard this, they covered their ears. They yelled at the top of their voices. They all rushed at him. [58]They dragged him out of the city. They began to throw stones at him to kill him. The people who had brought false charges against Stephen took off their coats. They placed them at the feet of a young man named Saul.

[59]While the members of the Sanhedrin were throwing stones at Stephen, he prayed. “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit,” he said. [60]Then he fell on his knees. He cried out, “Lord! Don’t hold this sin against them!” When he had said this, he died.

Acts 8

[1]And Saul had agreed with the Sanhedrin that Stephen should die.

The Church Is Treated Badly and Scattered

On that day the church in Jerusalem began to be attacked and treated badly. All except the apostles were scattered throughout Judea and Samaria. [2]Godly Jews buried Stephen. They mourned deeply for him. [3]But Saul began to destroy the church. He went from house to house. He dragged away men and women and put them in prison.

Philip Goes to Samaria

[4]The believers who had been scattered preached the word everywhere they went. [5]Philip went down to a city in Samaria. There he preached about the Messiah. [6]The crowds listened to Philip and saw the signs he did. All of them paid close attention to what he said. [7]Evil spirits screamed and came out of many people. Many people who were disabled or who couldn't walk were healed. [8]So there was great joy in that city.

Simon the Evil Magician

[9]A man named Simon lived in the city. For quite a while he had practiced evil magic there. He amazed all the people of Samaria. He claimed to be someone great. [10]And all the people listened to him, from the least important of them to the most important. They exclaimed, "It is right to call this man the Great Power of God!" [11]He had amazed them for a long time with his evil magic. So they followed him. [12]But Philip announced the good news of God's kingdom and the name of Jesus Christ. So men and women believed and were baptized. [13]Simon himself believed and was baptized. He followed Philip everywhere. He was amazed by the great signs and miracles he saw.

[14]The apostles in Jerusalem heard that people in Samaria had accepted God's word. So they sent Peter and John to Samaria. [15]When they arrived there, they prayed for the new believers. They prayed that they would receive the Holy Spirit. [16]The Holy Spirit had not yet come on any of them. They had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. [17]Then Peter and John placed their hands on them. And they received the Holy Spirit.

[18]Simon watched as the apostles placed their hands on them. He saw that the Spirit was given to them. So he offered money to Peter and John. [19]He said, "Give me this power too. Then everyone I place my hands on will receive the Holy Spirit."

[20]Peter answered, "May your money be destroyed with you! Do you think you can buy God's gift with money? [21]You have no part or share in this holy work. Your heart is not right with God. [22]Turn away from this evil sin of yours. Pray to the Lord. Perhaps he will forgive you for having such a thought in your heart. [23]I see that you are very bitter. You are a prisoner of sin."

[24]Then Simon answered, "Pray to the Lord for me. Pray that nothing you have said will happen to me."

[25]Peter and John continued to preach the word of the Lord and tell people about Jesus. Then they returned to Jerusalem. On the way they preached the good news in many villages in Samaria.

Philip and the Man From Ethiopia

[26]An angel of the Lord spoke to Philip. "Go south to the desert road," he said. "It's the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." [27]So Philip started out. On his way he met an Ethiopian official. The man had an important position in charge of all the wealth of the kandake. Kandake means Queen of Ethiopia. This official had gone to Jerusalem to worship. [28]On his way home he was sitting in his chariot. He was reading the Book of Isaiah the prophet. [29]The Holy Spirit told Philip, "Go to that chariot. Stay near it."

[30]So Philip ran up to the chariot. He heard the man reading Isaiah the prophet. "Do you understand what you're reading?" Philip asked.

[31]"How can I?" he said. "I need someone to explain it to me." So he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.

[32]Here is the part of Scripture the official was reading. It says,

> "He was led like a sheep to be killed.
> Just as lambs are silent while their wool is being cut off,
> he did not open his mouth.
> [33]When he was treated badly, he was refused a fair trial.
> Who can say anything about his children?

His life was cut off from the earth.” (Isaiah 53:7, 8)

34The official said to Philip, “Tell me, please. Who is the prophet talking about? Himself, or someone else?” 35Then Philip began with that same part of Scripture. He told him the good news about Jesus.

36-37As they traveled along the road, they came to some water. The official said, “Look! Here is water! What can stop me from being baptized?” 38He gave orders to stop the chariot. Then both Philip and the official went down into the water. Philip baptized him. 39When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord suddenly took Philip away. The official did not see him again. He went on his way full of joy. 40Philip was seen next at Azotus. From there he traveled all around. He preached the good news in all the towns. Finally he arrived in Caesarea.

Acts 9

Saul Becomes a Believer

[1]Meanwhile, Saul continued to oppose the Lord's followers. He said they would be put to death. He went to the high priest. [2]He asked the priest for letters to the synagogues in Damascus. He wanted to find men and women who belonged to the Way of Jesus. The letters would allow him to take them as prisoners to Jerusalem. [3]On his journey, Saul approached Damascus. Suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. [4]He fell to the ground. He heard a voice speak to him, "Saul! Saul! Why are you opposing me?"

[5]"Who are you, Lord?" Saul asked.

"I am Jesus," he replied. "I am the one you are opposing. [6]Now get up and go into the city. There you will be told what you must do."

[7]The men traveling with Saul stood there. They weren't able to speak. They had heard the sound. But they didn't see anyone. [8]Saul got up from the ground. He opened his eyes, but he couldn't see. So they led him by the hand into Damascus. [9]For three days he was blind. He didn't eat or drink anything.

[10]In Damascus there was a believer named Ananias. The Lord called out to him in a vision. "Ananias!" he said.

"Yes, Lord," he answered.

[11]The Lord told him, "Go to the house of Judas on Straight Street. Ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul. He is praying. [12]In a vision Saul has seen a man come and place his hands on him. That man's name is Ananias. In the vision, Ananias placed his hands on Saul so he could see again."

[13]"Lord," Ananias answered, "I've heard many reports about this man. They say he has done great harm to your holy people in Jerusalem. [14]Now he has come here to arrest all those who worship you. The chief priests have given him authority to do this."

[15]But the Lord said to Ananias, "Go! I have chosen this man to work for me. He will announce my name to the Gentiles and to their kings. He will also announce my name to the people of Israel. [16]I will show him how much he must suffer for me."

[17]Then Ananias went to the house and entered it. He placed his hands on Saul. "Brother Saul," he said, "you saw the Lord Jesus. He appeared to you on the road as you were coming here. He has sent me so that you will be able to see again. You will be filled with the Holy Spirit.” [18]Right away something like scales fell from Saul’s eyes. And he could see again. He got up and was baptized. [19]After eating some food, he got his strength back.

Saul in Damascus and Jerusalem

Saul spent several days with the believers in Damascus. [20]Right away he began to preach in the synagogues. He taught that Jesus is the Son of God. [21]All who heard him were amazed. They asked, “Isn’t he the man who caused great trouble in Jerusalem? Didn’t he make trouble for those who worship Jesus? Hasn’t he come here to take them as prisoners to the chief priests?” [22]But Saul grew more and more powerful. The Jews living in Damascus couldn’t believe what was happening. Saul proved to them that Jesus is the Messiah.

[23]After many days, the Jews had a meeting. They planned to kill Saul. [24]But he learned about their plan. Day and night they watched the city gates closely in order to kill him. [25]But his followers helped him escape by night. They lowered him in a basket through an opening in the wall.

[26]When Saul came to Jerusalem, he tried to join the believers. But they were all afraid of him. They didn’t believe he was really one of Jesus’ followers. [27]But Barnabas took him to the apostles. He told them about Saul’s journey. He said that Saul had seen the Lord. He told how the Lord had spoken to Saul. Barnabas also said that Saul had preached without fear in Jesus’ name in Damascus. [28]So Saul stayed with the believers. He moved about freely in Jerusalem. He spoke boldly in the Lord’s name. [29]He talked and argued with the Greek Jews. But they tried to kill him. [30]The other believers heard about this. They took Saul down to Caesarea. From there they sent him off to Tarsus.

[31]Then the church throughout Judea, Galilee and Samaria enjoyed a time of peace. The church was strengthened and grew larger. That’s because they worshiped the Lord and the Holy Spirit helped them.

Peter Heals Aeneas and Dorcas

[32]Peter traveled around the country. He went to visit the Lord’s people who lived in Lydda. [33]There he found a disabled man named Aeneas. For eight years the man had spent most of his time in bed. [34]“Aeneas,” Peter said to him, “Jesus Christ heals you. Get up! Roll up your mat!” So Aeneas got up right away. [35]Everyone who lived in Lydda and Sharon saw him. They turned to the Lord.

[36]In Joppa there was a believer named Tabitha. Her name in the Greek language is Dorcas. She was always doing good and helping poor people.
[37]About that time she became sick and died. Her body was washed and placed in a room upstairs. [38]Lydda was near Joppa. The believers heard that Peter was in Lydda. So they sent two men to him. They begged him, “Please come at once!”

[39]Peter went with them. When he arrived, he was taken upstairs to the room.
All the widows stood around him crying. They showed him the robes and other clothes Dorcas had made before she died.

[40]Peter sent them all out of the room. Then he got down on his knees and prayed. He turned toward the dead woman. He said, “Tabitha, get up.” She opened her eyes. When she saw Peter, she sat up. [41]He took her by the hand and helped her to her feet. Then he called the believers and especially the widows.
He brought her to them. They saw that she was alive. [42]This became known all over Joppa. Many people believed in the Lord. [43]Peter stayed in Joppa for some time. He stayed with Simon, a man who worked with leather.

Acts 10

Cornelius Calls for Peter

[1]A man named Cornelius lived in Caesarea. He was a Roman commander in the Italian Regiment. [2]Cornelius and all his family were faithful and worshiped God. He gave freely to people who were in need. He prayed to God regularly. [3]One day about three o'clock in the afternoon he had a vision. He saw clearly an angel of God. The angel came to him and said, "Cornelius!"

[4]Cornelius was afraid. He stared at the angel. "What is it, Lord?" he asked.

The angel answered, "Your prayers and gifts to poor people are like an offering to God. So he has remembered you. [5]Now send men to Joppa. Have them bring back a man named Simon. He is also called Peter. [6]He is staying with another Simon, a man who works with leather. His house is by the sea."

[7]The angel who spoke to him left. Then Cornelius called two of his servants. He also called a godly soldier who was one of his attendants. [8]He told them everything that had happened. Then he sent them to Joppa.

Peter Has a Vision

[9]It was about noon the next day. The men were on their journey and were approaching the city. Peter went up on the roof to pray. [10]He became hungry. He wanted something to eat. While the meal was being prepared, Peter had a vision. [11]He saw heaven open up. There he saw something that looked like a large sheet. It was being let down to earth by its four corners. [12]It had all kinds of four-footed animals in it. It also had reptiles and birds in it. [13]Then a voice told him, "Get up, Peter. Kill and eat."

[14]"No, Lord! I will not!" Peter replied. "I have never eaten anything that is not pure and 'clean.' "

[15]The voice spoke to him a second time. It said, "Do not say anything is not pure that God has made 'clean.' "

[16]This happened three times. Right away the sheet was taken back up to heaven.

[17]Peter was wondering what the vision meant. At that very moment the men sent by Cornelius found Simon's house. They stopped at the gate [18]and called out. They asked if Simon Peter was staying there.

[19]Peter was still thinking about the vision. The Holy Spirit spoke to him. “Simon,” he said, “three men are looking for you. [20]Get up and go downstairs. Don’t let anything keep you from going with them. I have sent them.”

[21]Peter went down and spoke to the men. “I’m the one you’re looking for,” he said. “Why have you come?”

[22]The men replied, “We have come from Cornelius, the Roman commander. He is a good man who worships God. All the Jewish people respect him. A holy angel told him to invite you to his house. Then Cornelius can hear what you have to say.” [23]Then Peter invited the men into the house to be his guests.

Peter Goes to the House of Cornelius

The next day Peter went with the three men. Some of the believers from Joppa went along. [24]The following day he arrived in Caesarea. Cornelius was expecting them. He had called together his relatives and close friends. [25]When Peter entered the house, Cornelius met him. As a sign of respect, he fell at Peter’s feet. [26]But Peter made him get up. “Stand up,” he said. “I am only a man myself.”

[27]As he was talking with Cornelius, Peter went inside. There he found a large group of people. [28]He said to them, “You know that it is against our law for a Jew to enter a Gentile home. A Jew shouldn’t have any close contact with a Gentile. But God has shown me that I should not say anyone is not pure and ‘clean.’ [29]So when you sent for me, I came without asking any questions. May I ask why you sent for me?”

[30]Cornelius answered, “Three days ago at this very hour I was in my house praying. It was three o’clock in the afternoon. Suddenly a man in shining clothes stood in front of me. [31]He said, ‘Cornelius, God has heard your prayer. He has remembered your gifts to poor people. [32]Send someone to Joppa to get Simon Peter. He is a guest in the home of another Simon, who works with leather. He lives by the sea.’ [33]So I sent for you right away. It was good of you to come. Now we are all here. And God is here with us. We are ready to listen to everything the Lord has commanded you to tell us.”

[34]Then Peter began to speak. “I now realize how true it is that God treats everyone the same,” he said. [35]“He accepts people from every nation. He accepts anyone who has respect for him and does what is right. [36]You know the message God sent to the people of Israel. It is the good news of peace through Jesus Christ. He is Lord of all. [37]You know what has happened all through the area of Judea. It started in Galilee after John preached about baptism. [38]You know how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. Jesus went around doing good. He healed all who were under the devil's power. God was with him.

[39]"We are witnesses of everything he did in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They killed him by nailing him to a cross. [40]But on the third day God raised him from the dead. God allowed Jesus to be seen. [41]But he wasn't seen by all the people. He was seen only by us. We are witnesses whom God had already chosen. We ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. [42]He commanded us to preach to the people. He told us to tell people that he is the one appointed by God to judge the living and the dead. [43]All the prophets tell about him. They say that all who believe in him have their sins forgiven through his name."

[44]While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit came on all who heard the message. [45]Some Jewish believers had come with Peter. They were amazed because the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles. [46]They heard them speaking in languages they had not known before. They also heard them praising God.

Then Peter said, [47]"Surely no one can keep these people from being baptized with water. They have received the Holy Spirit just as we have." [48]So he ordered that they be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked Peter to stay with them for a few days.

Acts 11

Peter Explains His Actions

[1]The apostles and the believers all through Judea heard that Gentiles had also received God's word. [2]Peter went up to Jerusalem. There the Jewish believers found fault with him. [3]They said, "You went into the house of Gentiles. You ate with them."

[4]Starting from the beginning, Peter told them the whole story. [5]"I was in the city of Joppa praying," he said. "There I had a vision. I saw something that looked like a large sheet. It was being let down from heaven by its four corners. It came down to where I was. [6]I looked into it and saw four-footed animals of the earth. There were also wild animals, reptiles and birds. [7]Then I heard a voice speaking to me. 'Get up, Peter,' the voice said. 'Kill and eat.'

[8]"I replied, 'No, Lord! I will not! Nothing that is not pure and "clean" has ever entered my mouth.'

[9]"A second time the voice spoke from heaven. The voice said, 'Do not say anything is not pure that God has made "clean." ' [10]This happened three times. Then the sheet was pulled up into heaven.

[11]"Just then three men stopped at the house where I was staying. They had been sent to me from Caesarea. [12]The Holy Spirit told me not to let anything keep me from going with them. These six brothers here went with me. We entered the man's house. [13]He told us how he had seen an angel appear in his house. The angel said, 'Send to Joppa for Simon Peter. [14]He has a message to bring to you. You and your whole family will be saved through it.'

[15]"As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit came on them. He came just as he had come on us at the beginning. [16]Then I remembered the Lord's words. 'John baptized with water,' he had said. 'But you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.' [17]God gave them the same gift he gave those of us who believed in the Lord Jesus Christ. So who was I to think that I could stand in God's way?"

[18]When they heard this, they didn't object anymore. They praised God. They said, "So then, God has allowed even Gentiles to turn away from their sins. He did this so that they could live."

The Believers in Antioch

[19]Some believers had been scattered by the suffering that unbelievers had caused them. They were scattered after Stephen was killed. Those believers traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus and Antioch. But they spread the word only among Jews. [20]Some believers from Cyprus and Cyrene went to Antioch. There they began to speak to Greeks also. They told them the good news about the Lord Jesus. [21]The Lord's power was with them. Large numbers of people believed and turned to the Lord.

[22]The church in Jerusalem heard about this. So they sent Barnabas to Antioch. [23]When he arrived and saw what the grace of God had done, he was glad. He told them all to remain true to the Lord with all their hearts. [24]Barnabas was a good man. He was full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. Large numbers of people came to know the Lord.

[25]Then Barnabas went to Tarsus to look for Saul. [26]He found him there. Then he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year Barnabas and Saul met with the church. They taught large numbers of people. At Antioch the believers were called Christians for the first time.

[27]In those days some prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. [28]One of them was named Agabus. He stood up and spoke through the Spirit. He said there would not be nearly enough food anywhere in the Roman world. This happened while Claudius was the emperor. [29]The believers decided to provide help for the brothers and sisters living in Judea. All of them helped as much as they could. [30]They sent their gift to the elders through Barnabas and Saul.

Acts 12

An Angel Helps Peter Escape From Prison

[1]About this time, King Herod arrested some people who belonged to the church. He planned to make them suffer greatly. [2]He had James killed with a sword. James was John's brother. [3]Herod saw that the death of James pleased some Jews. So he arrested Peter also. This happened during the Feast of Unleavened Bread. [4]After Herod arrested Peter, he put him in prison. Peter was placed under guard. He was watched by four groups of four soldiers each. Herod planned to put Peter on public trial. It would take place after the Passover Feast.

[5]So Peter was kept in prison. But the church prayed hard to God for him.

[6]It was the night before Herod was going to bring him to trial. Peter was sleeping between two soldiers. Two chains held him there. Lookouts stood guard at the entrance. [7]Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared. A light shone in the prison cell. The angel struck Peter on his side. Peter woke up. "Quick!" the angel said. "Get up!" The chains fell off Peter's wrists.

[8]Then the angel said to him, "Put on your clothes and sandals." Peter did so. "Put on your coat," the angel told him. "Follow me." [9]Peter followed him out of the prison. But he had no idea that what the angel was doing was really happening. He thought he was seeing a vision. [10]They passed the first and second guards. Then they came to the iron gate leading to the city. It opened for them by itself. They went through it. They walked the length of one street. Suddenly the angel left Peter.

[11]Then Peter realized what had happened. He said, "Now I know for sure that the Lord has sent his angel. He set me free from Herod's power. He saved me from everything the Jewish people were hoping would happen."

[12]When Peter understood what had happened, he went to Mary's house. Mary was the mother of John Mark. Many people had gathered in her home. They were praying there. [13]Peter knocked at the outer entrance. A servant named Rhoda came to answer the door. [14]She recognized Peter's voice. She was so excited that she ran back without opening the door. "Peter is at the door!" she exclaimed.

[15]"You're out of your mind," they said to her. But she kept telling them it was true. So they said, "It must be his angel."

[16]Peter kept on knocking. When they opened the door and saw him, they were amazed. [17]Peter motioned with his hand for them to be quiet. He explained how the Lord had brought him out of prison. “Tell James and the other brothers and sisters about this,” he said. Then he went to another place.

[18]In the morning the soldiers were bewildered. They couldn’t figure out what had happened to Peter. [19]So Herod had them look everywhere for Peter. But they didn’t find him. Then Herod questioned the guards closely. He ordered that they be put to death.

Herod Dies

Then Herod went from Judea to Caesarea and stayed there. [20]He had been quarreling with the people of Tyre and Sidon. So they got together and asked for a meeting with him. This was because they depended on the king’s country to supply them with food. They gained the support of Blastus and then asked for peace. Blastus was a trusted personal servant of the king.

[21]The appointed day came. Herod was seated on his throne. He was wearing his royal robes. He made a speech to the people. [22]Then they shouted, “This is the voice of a god. It’s not the voice of a man.” [23]Right away an angel of the Lord struck Herod down. Herod had not given praise to God. So he was eaten by worms and died.

[24]But God’s word continued to spread and many people believed the message.

Barnabas and Saul Are Sent Off

[25]Barnabas and Saul finished their task. Then they returned from Jerusalem. They took John Mark with them.

Acts 13

[1]In the church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers. Among them were Barnabas, Simeon, and Lucius from Cyrene. Simeon was also called Niger. Another was Manaen. He had been brought up with Herod, the ruler of Galilee. Saul was among them too. [2]While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit spoke. “Set apart Barnabas and Saul for me,” he said. “I have appointed them to do special work.” [3]The prophets and teachers fasted and prayed. They placed their hands on Barnabas and Saul. Then they sent them off.

Events on Cyprus

[4]Barnabas and Saul were sent on their way by the Holy Spirit. They went down to Seleucia. From there they sailed to Cyprus. [5]They arrived at Salamis. There they preached God’s word in the Jewish synagogues. John was with them as their helper.

[6]They traveled all across the island until they came to Paphos. There they met a Jew named Bar-Jesus. He was an evil magician and a false prophet. [7]He was an attendant of Sergius Paulus, the governor. Paulus was a man of understanding. He sent for Barnabas and Saul. He wanted to hear God’s word. [8]But the evil magician named Elymas opposed them. The name Elymas means Magician. He tried to keep the governor from becoming a believer. [9]Saul was also known as Paul. He was filled with the Holy Spirit. He looked straight at Elymas. He said to him, [10]“You are a child of the devil! You are an enemy of everything that is right! You cheat people. You use all kinds of tricks. Won’t you ever stop twisting the right ways of the Lord? [11]Now the Lord’s hand is against you. You are going to go blind. For a while you won’t even be able to see the light of the sun.”

Right away mist and darkness came over him. He tried to feel his way around. He wanted to find someone to lead him by the hand. [12]When the governor saw what had happened, he believed. He was amazed at what Paul was teaching about the Lord.

Paul Preaches in Pisidian Antioch

[13]From Paphos, Paul and his companions sailed to Perga in Pamphylia. There John Mark left them and returned to Jerusalem. [14]From Perga they went on to Pisidian Antioch. On the Sabbath day they entered the synagogue and sat down.

15The Law and the Prophets were read aloud. Then the leaders of the synagogue sent word to Paul and his companions. They said, “Brothers, do you have any words of instruction for the people? If you do, please speak.”

16Paul stood up and motioned with his hand. Then he said, “Fellow Israelites, and you Gentiles who worship God, listen to me! 17The God of Israel chose our people who lived long ago. He blessed them greatly while they were in Egypt. With his mighty power he led them out of that country. 18He put up with their behavior for about 40 years in the desert. 19And he destroyed seven nations in Canaan. Then he gave the land to his people as their rightful share. 20All this took about 450 years.

“After this, God gave them judges until the time of Samuel the prophet. 21Then the people asked for a king. He gave them Saul, son of Kish. Saul was from the tribe of Benjamin. He ruled for 40 years. 22God removed him and made David their king. Here is God’s witness about him. ‘David, son of Jesse, is a man dear to my heart,’ he said. ‘David will do everything I want him to do.’

23“From this man’s family line God has brought to Israel the Savior Jesus. This is what he had promised. 24Before Jesus came, John preached that we should turn away from our sins and be baptized. He preached this to all Israel. 25John was coming to the end of his work. ‘Who do you suppose I am?’ he said. ‘I am not the one you are looking for. But there is someone coming after me. I am not good enough to untie his sandals.’

26“Listen, fellow children of Abraham! Listen, you Gentiles who worship God! This message of salvation has been sent to us. 27The people of Jerusalem and their rulers did not recognize Jesus. By finding him guilty, they made the prophets’ words come true. These are read every Sabbath day. 28The people and their rulers had no reason at all for sentencing Jesus to death. But they asked Pilate to have him killed. 29They did everything that had been written about Jesus. Then they took him down from the cross. They laid him in a tomb. 30But God raised him from the dead. 31For many days he was seen by those who had traveled with him from Galilee to Jerusalem. Now they are telling our people about Jesus.

32“We are telling you the good news. What God promised our people long ago 33he has done for us, their children. He has raised up Jesus. This is what is written in the second Psalm. It says,

“ ‘You are my son.

Today I have become your father.’ (Psalm 2:7)

34God raised Jesus from the dead. He will never rot in the grave. As God has said, “ ‘Holy and sure blessings were promised to David.

I will give them to you.’ (Isaiah 55:3)

35In another place it also says,

“ ‘You will not let your holy one rot away.’ (Psalm 16:10)

36“David carried out God’s purpose while he lived. Then he died. He was buried with his people. His body rotted away. 37But the one whom God raised from the dead did not rot away.

38“My friends, here is what I want you to know. I announce to you that your sins can be forgiven because of what Jesus has done. 39Through him everyone who believes is set free from every sin. Moses’ law could not make you right in God’s eyes. 40Be careful! Don’t let what the prophets spoke about happen to you. They said, 41“ ‘Look, you who make fun of the truth!

Wonder and die!
I am going to do something in your days
that you would never believe.
You wouldn’t believe it even if someone told you.’ ” (Habakkuk 1:5)

42Paul and Barnabas started to leave the synagogue. The people invited them to say more about these things on the next Sabbath day. 43The people were told they could leave the service. Many Jews followed Paul and Barnabas. Many Gentiles who faithfully worshiped the God of the Jews did the same. Paul and Barnabas talked with them. They tried to get them to keep living in God’s grace.

44On the next Sabbath day, almost the whole city gathered. They gathered to hear the word of the Lord. 45When the Jews saw the crowds, they became very jealous. They began to disagree with what Paul was saying. They said evil things against him.

46Then Paul and Barnabas answered them boldly. “We had to speak God’s word to you first," they said. "But you don't accept it. You don't think you are good enough for eternal life. So now we are turning to the Gentiles. [47]This is what the Lord has commanded us to do. He said,

> " 'I have made you a light for the Gentiles.
> You will bring salvation to the whole earth.' " (Isaiah 49:6)

[48]When the Gentiles heard this, they were glad. They honored the word of the Lord. All who were appointed for eternal life believed.

[49]The word of the Lord spread through the whole area. [50]But the Jewish leaders stirred up the important women who worshiped God. They also stirred up the men who were leaders in the city. The Jewish leaders tried to get the women and men to attack Paul and Barnabas. They threw Paul and Barnabas out of that area. [51]Paul and Barnabas shook the dust off their feet. This was a warning to the people who had opposed them. Then Paul and Barnabas went on to Iconium. [52]The believers were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

Acts 14

Paul and Barnabas Preach in Iconium

[1]At Iconium, Paul and Barnabas went into the Jewish synagogue as usual. They spoke there with great power. Large numbers of Jews and Greeks became believers. [2]But the Jews who refused to believe stirred up some of the Gentiles who were there. They turned them against the two men and the new believers. [3]So Paul and Barnabas spent a lot of time there. They spoke boldly for the Lord. He gave them the ability to do signs and wonders. In this way the Lord showed that they were telling the truth about his grace. [4]The people of the city did not agree with one another. Some were on the side of the Jews. Others were on the side of the apostles. [5]Jews and Gentiles alike planned to treat Paul and Barnabas badly. Their leaders agreed. They planned to kill them by throwing stones at them. [6]But Paul and Barnabas found out about the plan. They escaped to the Lycaonian cities of Lystra and Derbe and to the surrounding area. [7]There they continued to preach the good news.

Paul Preaches in Lystra

[8]In Lystra there sat a man who couldn't walk. He hadn't been able to use his feet since the day he was born. [9]He listened as Paul spoke. Paul looked right at him. He saw that the man had faith to be healed. [10]So he called out, "Stand up on your feet!" Then the man jumped up and began to walk.

[11]The crowd saw what Paul had done. They shouted in the Lycaonian language. "The gods have come down to us in human form!" they exclaimed. [12]They called Barnabas Zeus. Paul was the main speaker. So they called him Hermes. [13]Just outside the city was the temple of the god Zeus. The priest of Zeus brought bulls and wreaths to the city gates. He and the crowd wanted to offer sacrifices to Paul and Barnabas.

[14]But the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard about this. So they tore their clothes. They rushed out into the crowd. They shouted, [15]"Friends, why are you doing this? We are only human, just like you. We are bringing you good news. Turn away from these worthless things. Turn to the living God. He is the one who made the heavens and the earth and the sea. He made everything in them. [16]In the past, he let all nations go their own way. [17]But he has given proof of what he is like. He has shown kindness by giving you rain from heaven. He gives you crops in their seasons. He provides you with plenty of food. He fills your hearts with joy.” [18]Paul and Barnabas told them all these things. But they had trouble keeping the crowd from offering sacrifices to them.

[19]Then some Jews came from Antioch and Iconium. They won the crowd over to their side. They threw stones at Paul. They thought he was dead, so they dragged him out of the city. [20]The believers gathered around Paul. Then he got up and went back into the city. The next day he and Barnabas left for Derbe.

Paul and Barnabas Return to Antioch

[21]Paul and Barnabas preached the good news in the city of Derbe. They won large numbers of followers. Then they returned to Lystra, Iconium and Antioch. [22]There they helped the believers gain strength. They told them to remain faithful to what they had been taught. “We must go through many hard times to enter God’s kingdom,” they said. [23]Paul and Barnabas appointed elders for them in each church. The elders had trusted in the Lord. Paul and Barnabas prayed and fasted. They placed the elders in the Lord’s care. [24]After going through Pisidia, Paul and Barnabas came into Pamphylia. [25]They preached the good news in Perga. Then they went down to Attalia.

[26]From Attalia they sailed back to Antioch. In Antioch they had been put in God’s care to preach the good news. They had now completed the work God had given them to do. [27]When they arrived at Antioch, they gathered the church together. They reported all that God had done through them. They told how he had opened a way for the Gentiles to believe. [28]And they stayed there a long time with the believers.

Acts 15

Church Leaders Meet in Jerusalem

[1]Certain people came down from Judea to Antioch. Here is what they were teaching the believers. “Moses commanded you to be circumcised,” they said. “If you aren’t, you can’t be saved.” [2]But Paul and Barnabas didn’t agree with this. They argued strongly with them. So Paul and Barnabas were appointed to go up to Jerusalem. Some other believers were chosen to go with them. They were told to ask the apostles and elders about this question. [3]The church sent them on their way. They traveled through Phoenicia and Samaria. There they told how the Gentiles had turned to God. This news made all the believers very glad. [4]When they arrived in Jerusalem, the church welcomed them. The apostles and elders welcomed them too. Then Paul and Barnabas reported everything God had done through them.

[5]Some of the believers were Pharisees. They stood up and said, “The Gentiles must be circumcised. They must obey the law of Moses.”

[6]The apostles and elders met to consider this question. [7]After they had talked it over, Peter got up and spoke to them. “Brothers,” he said, “you know that some time ago God chose me. He appointed me to take the good news to the Gentiles. He wanted them to hear the good news and believe. [8]God knows the human heart. By giving the Holy Spirit to the Gentiles, he showed that he accepted them. He did the same for them as he had done for us. [9]God showed that there is no difference between us and them. That’s because he made their hearts pure because of their faith. [10]Now then, why are you trying to test God? You test him when you put a heavy load on the shoulders of Gentiles. Our people of long ago couldn’t carry that load. We can’t either. [11]No! We believe we are saved through the grace of our Lord Jesus. The Gentiles are saved in the same way.”

[12]Everyone became quiet as they listened to Barnabas and Paul. They were telling about the signs and wonders God had done through them among the Gentiles. [13]When they finished, James spoke up. “Brothers,” he said, “listen to me. [14]Simon Peter has explained to us what God has now done. He has chosen some of the Gentiles to be among his very own people. [15]The prophets’ words agree with that. They say,

16“ ‘After this I will return and set up again David’s fallen tent.
I will rebuild what was destroyed.
I will make it what it used to be.
17Then everyone else can look to the Lord.
This includes all the Gentiles who belong to me, says the Lord.
The Lord is the one who does these things.’ (Amos 9:11, 12)
18The Lord does things that have been known from long ago.

19“Now here is my decision. We should not make it hard for the Gentiles who are turning to God. 20Here is what we should write to them. They must not eat food that has been made impure by being offered to statues of gods. They must not commit sexual sins. They must not eat the meat of animals that have been choked to death. And they must not drink blood. 21These laws of Moses have been preached in every city from the earliest times. They are read out loud in the synagogues every Sabbath day.”

A Letter Is Written to Gentile Believers

22Then the apostles, the elders and the whole church decided what to do. They would choose some of their own men who were leaders among the believers. They would send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. So they chose Judas Barsabbas and Silas. They were leaders among the believers. 23Here is the letter they sent with them.

The apostles and elders, your brothers, are writing this letter.

We are sending it to the Gentile believers in Antioch, Syria and Cilicia.

Greetings.

24We have heard that some of our people came to you and caused trouble. You were upset by what they said. But we had given them no authority to go. 25So we all agreed to send our dear friends Barnabas and Paul to you. We chose some other men to go with them. 26Barnabas and Paul have put their lives in danger. They did it for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27So we are sending Judas and Silas with them. What they say will agree with this letter. 28Here is what seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us. We will not give you a load that is too heavy. So here are a few basic rules. [29]Don't eat food that has been offered to statues of gods. Don't drink blood. Don't eat the meat of animals that have been choked to death. And don't commit sexual sins. You will do well to keep away from these things.

Farewell.

[30]So the men were sent down to Antioch. There they gathered the church together. They gave the letter to them. [31]The people read it. They were glad for its message of hope. [32]Judas and Silas were prophets. They said many things to give strength and hope to the believers. [33-34]Judas and Silas stayed there for some time. Then the believers sent them away with the blessing of peace. They sent them back to those who had sent them out. [35]Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch. There they and many others taught and preached the word of the Lord.

Paul and Barnabas Do Not Agree

[36]Some time later Paul spoke to Barnabas. "Let's go back to all the towns where we preached the word of the Lord," he said. "Let's visit the believers and see how they are doing." [37]Barnabas wanted to take John Mark with them. [38]But Paul didn't think it was wise to take him. Mark had deserted them in Pamphylia. He hadn't continued with them in their work. [39]Barnabas and Paul strongly disagreed with each other. So they went their separate ways. Barnabas took Mark and sailed for Cyprus. [40]But Paul chose Silas. The believers asked the Lord to give his grace to Paul and Silas as they went. [41]Paul traveled through Syria and Cilicia. He gave strength to the churches there.

Acts 16

Timothy Joins Paul and Silas

[1]Paul came to Derbe. Then he went on to Lystra. A believer named Timothy lived there. His mother was Jewish and a believer. His father was a Greek. [2]The believers at Lystra and Iconium said good things about Timothy. [3]Paul wanted to take him along on the journey. So he circumcised Timothy because of the Jews who lived in that area. They all knew that Timothy's father was a Greek. [4]Paul and his companions traveled from town to town. They reported what the apostles and elders in Jerusalem had decided. The people were supposed to obey what was in the report. [5]So the churches were made strong in the faith. The number of believers grew every day.

Paul's Vision of the Man From Macedonia

[6]Paul and his companions traveled all through the area of Phrygia and Galatia. The Holy Spirit had kept them from preaching the word in Asia Minor. [7]They came to the border of Mysia. From there they tried to enter Bithynia. But the Spirit of Jesus would not let them. [8]So they passed by Mysia. Then they went down to Troas. [9]During the night Paul had a vision. He saw a man from Macedonia standing and begging him. "Come over to Macedonia!" the man said. "Help us!" [10]After Paul had seen the vision, we got ready at once to leave for Macedonia. We decided that God had called us to preach the good news there.

Lydia Becomes a Believer in Philippi

[11]At Troas we got into a boat. We sailed straight for Samothrace. The next day we went on to Neapolis. [12]From there we traveled to Philippi, a Roman colony. It is an important city in that part of Macedonia. We stayed there several days.

[13]On the Sabbath day we went outside the city gate. We walked down to the river. There we expected to find a place of prayer. We sat down and began to speak to the women who had gathered together. [14]One of the women listening was from the city of Thyatira. Her name was Lydia, and her business was selling purple cloth. She was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart to accept Paul's message. [15]She and her family were baptized. Then she invited us to her home. "Do you consider me a believer in the Lord?" she asked. "If you do, come and stay at my house." She succeeded in getting us to go home with her.

Paul and Silas Are Thrown Into Prison

16One day we were going to the place of prayer. On the way we were met by a female slave. She had a spirit that helped her tell people what was going to happen. She earned a lot of money for her owners by doing this. 17She followed Paul and the rest of us around. She shouted, "These men serve the Most High God. They are telling you how to be saved." 18She kept this up for many days. Finally Paul became upset. Turning around, he spoke to the spirit that was in her. "In the name of Jesus Christ," he said, "I command you to come out of her!" At that very moment the spirit left the woman.

19Her owners realized that their hope of making money was gone. So they grabbed Paul and Silas. They dragged them into the market place to face the authorities. 20They brought them to the judges. "These men are Jews," her owners said. "They are making trouble in our city. 21They are suggesting practices that are against Roman law. These are practices we can't accept or take part in."

22The crowd joined the attack against Paul and Silas. The judges ordered that Paul and Silas be stripped and beaten with rods. 23They were whipped without mercy. Then they were thrown into prison. The jailer was commanded to guard them carefully. 24When he received these orders, he put Paul and Silas deep inside the prison. He fastened their feet so they couldn't get away.

25About midnight Paul and Silas were praying. They were also singing hymns to God. The other prisoners were listening to them. 26Suddenly there was a powerful earthquake. It shook the prison from top to bottom. All at once the prison doors flew open. Everyone's chains came loose. 27The jailer woke up. He saw that the prison doors were open. He pulled out his sword and was going to kill himself. He thought the prisoners had escaped. 28"Don't harm yourself!" Paul shouted. "We are all here!"

29The jailer called out for some lights. He rushed in, shaking with fear. He fell down in front of Paul and Silas. 30Then he brought them out. He asked, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

31They replied, "Believe in the Lord Jesus. Then you and everyone living in your house will be saved." 32They spoke the word of the Lord to him. They also spoke to all the others in his house. 33At that hour of the night, the jailer took Paul and Silas and washed their wounds. Right away he and everyone who lived with him were baptized. [34]The jailer brought them into his house. He set a meal in front of them. He and everyone who lived with him were filled with joy. They had become believers in God.

[35]Early in the morning the judges sent their officers to the jailer. They ordered him, “Let those men go.” [36]The jailer told Paul, “The judges have ordered me to set you and Silas free. You can leave now. Go in peace.”

[37]But Paul replied to the officers. “They beat us in public,” he said. “We weren’t given a trial. And we are Roman citizens! They threw us into prison. And now do they want to get rid of us quietly? No! Let them come themselves and personally lead us out.”

[38]The officers reported this to the judges. When the judges heard that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens, they became afraid. [39]So they came and said they were sorry. They led them out of the prison. Then they asked them to leave the city. [40]After Paul and Silas came out of the prison, they went to Lydia’s house. There they met with the brothers and sisters. They told them to be brave. Then they left.

Acts 17

Paul and Silas Arrive in Thessalonica

[1]Paul and those traveling with him passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia. They came to Thessalonica. A Jewish synagogue was there. [2]Paul went into the synagogue as he usually did. For three Sabbath days in a row he talked with the Jews about the Scriptures. [3]He explained and proved that the Messiah had to suffer and rise from the dead. “This Jesus I am telling you about is the Messiah!” he said. [4]His words won over some of the Jews. They joined Paul and Silas. A large number of Greeks who worshiped God joined them too. So did quite a few important women.

[5]But other Jews were jealous. So they rounded up some evil people from the market place. Forming a crowd, they started all kinds of trouble in the city. The Jews rushed to Jason’s house. They were looking for Paul and Silas. They wanted to bring them out to the crowd. [6]But they couldn’t find them. So they dragged Jason and some other believers to the city officials. “These men have caused trouble all over the world,” they shouted. “Now they have come here. [7]Jason has welcomed them into his house. They are all disobeying Caesar’s commands. They say there is another king. He is called Jesus.” [8]When the crowd and the city officials heard this, they became very upset. [9]They made Jason and the others give them money. The officials did this to make sure they would return to the court. Then they let Jason and the others go.

Paul and Silas Are Sent to Berea

[10]As soon as it was night, the believers sent Paul and Silas away to Berea. When they arrived, they went to the Jewish synagogue. [11]The Berean Jews were very glad to receive Paul’s message. They studied the Scriptures carefully every day. They wanted to see if what Paul said was true. So they were more noble than the Thessalonian Jews. [12]Because of this, many of the Berean Jews believed. A number of important Greek women also became believers. And so did many Greek men.

[13]But the Jews in Thessalonica found out that Paul was preaching God’s word in Berea. So some of them went there too. They stirred up the crowds and got them all worked up. [14]Right away the believers sent Paul to the coast. But Silas and Timothy stayed in Berea. [15]The believers who went with Paul took him to Athens. Then they returned with orders that Silas and Timothy were supposed to join him as soon as they could.

Paul Preaches in Athens

[16]Paul was waiting for Silas and Timothy in Athens. He was very upset to see that the city was full of statues of gods. [17]So he went to the synagogue. There he talked both with Jews and with Greeks who worshiped God. Each day he spoke with anyone who happened to be in the market place. [18]A group of Epicurean and Stoic thinkers began to argue with him. Some of them asked, “What is this fellow chattering about?” Others said, “He seems to be telling us about gods we’ve never heard of.” They said this because Paul was preaching the good news about Jesus. He was telling them that Jesus had risen from the dead. [19]They took him to a meeting of the Areopagus. There they said to him, “What is this new teaching you’re giving us? [20]You have some strange ideas we’ve never heard before. We would like to know what they mean.” [21]All the people of Athens spent their time talking about and listening to the latest ideas. People from other lands who lived there did the same.

[22]Then Paul stood up in the meeting of the Areopagus. He said, “People of Athens! I see that you are very religious in every way. [23]As I walked around, I looked carefully at the things you worship. I even found an altar with written on it. So you don’t know what you are worshiping. Now I am going to tell you about this ‘unknown god.’

TO AN UNKNOWN GOD

[24]“He is the God who made the world. He also made everything in it. He is the Lord of heaven and earth. He doesn’t live in temples built by human hands. [25]He is not served by human hands. He doesn’t need anything. Instead, he himself gives life and breath to all people. He also gives them everything else they have. [26]From one man he made all the people of the world. Now they live all over the earth. He decided exactly when they should live. And he decided exactly where they should live. [27]God did this so that people would seek him. And perhaps they would reach out for him and find him. They would find him even though he is not far from any of us. [28]‘In him we live and move and exist.’ As some of your own poets have also said, ‘We are his children.’

[29]“Yes, we are God’s children. So we shouldn’t think that God is made out of gold or silver or stone. He isn’t a statue planned and made by clever people. [30]In the past, God didn’t judge people for what they didn’t know. But now he commands all people everywhere to turn away from their sins. [31]He has set a day when he will judge the world fairly. He has appointed a man to be its judge. God has proved this to everyone by raising that man from the dead.”

[32]They heard Paul talk about the dead being raised. Some of them made fun of this idea. But others said, “We want to hear you speak about this again.” [33]So Paul left the meeting of the Areopagus. [34]Some of the people became followers of Paul and believed in Jesus. Dionysius was one of them. He was a member of the Areopagus. A woman named Damaris also became a believer. And so did some others.

Acts 18

Paul Goes to Corinth

[1]After this, Paul left Athens and went to Corinth. [2]There he met a Jew named Aquila, who was a native of Pontus. Aquila had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla. The emperor Claudius had ordered all Jews to leave Rome. Paul went to see Aquila and Priscilla. [3]They were tentmakers, just as he was. So he stayed and worked with them. [4]Every Sabbath day he went to the synagogue. He was trying to get both Jews and Greeks to believe in the Lord.

[5]Silas and Timothy came from Macedonia. Then Paul spent all his time preaching. He was a witness to the Jews that Jesus was the Messiah. [6]But they opposed Paul. They treated him badly. So he shook out his clothes in protest. Then he said to them, “God’s judgment against you will be your own fault! Don’t blame me for it! From now on I will go to the Gentiles.”

[7]Then Paul left the synagogue and went to the house next door. It was the house of Titius Justus, a man who worshiped God. [8]Crispus was the synagogue leader. He and everyone living in his house came to believe in the Lord. Many others who lived in Corinth heard Paul. They too believed and were baptized.

[9]One night the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision. “Don’t be afraid,” he said. “Keep on speaking. Don’t be silent. [10]I am with you. No one will attack you and harm you. I have many people in this city.” [11]So Paul stayed in Corinth for a year and a half. He taught them God’s word.

[12]At that time Gallio was governor of Achaia. The Jews of Corinth got together and attacked Paul. They brought him into court. [13]They made a charge against Paul. They said, “This man is talking people into worshiping God in wrong ways. Those ways are against the law.”

[14]Paul was about to give reasons for his actions. But just then Gallio spoke to them. He said, “You Jews don’t claim that Paul has committed a great or small crime. If you did, it would make sense for me to listen to you. [15]But this is about your own law. It is a question of words and names. Settle the matter yourselves. I will not be a judge of such things.” [16]So he made them leave. [17]Then the crowd there turned against Sosthenes, the synagogue leader. They beat him up in front of the governor. But Gallio didn’t care at all.

Priscilla and Aquila Teach Apollos

[18]Paul stayed in Corinth for some time. Then he left the brothers and sisters and sailed for Syria. Priscilla and Aquila went with him. Before he sailed, he had his hair cut off at Cenchreae. He did this because he had made a promise to God. [19]They arrived at Ephesus. There Paul said goodbye to Priscilla and Aquila. He himself went into the synagogue and talked with the Jews. [20]The Jews asked him to spend more time with them. But he said no. [21]As he left, he made them a promise. “If God wants me to,” he said, “I will come back.” Then he sailed from Ephesus. [22]When he landed at Caesarea, he went up to Jerusalem. There he greeted the church. He then went down to Antioch.

[23]Paul spent some time in Antioch. Then he left and traveled all over Galatia and Phrygia. He gave strength to all the believers there.

[24]At that time a Jew named Apollos came to Ephesus. He was an educated man from Alexandria. He knew the Scriptures very well. [25]Apollos had been taught the way of the Lord. He spoke with great power. He taught the truth about Jesus. But he only knew about John’s baptism. [26]He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. Priscilla and Aquila heard him. So they invited him to their home. There they gave him a better understanding of the way of God.

[27]Apollos wanted to go to Achaia. The brothers and sisters agreed with him. They wrote to the believers there. They asked them to welcome him. When he arrived, he was a great help to those who had become believers by God’s grace. [28]In public meetings, he argued strongly against Jews who disagreed with him. He proved from the Scriptures that Jesus was the Messiah.

Acts 19

Paul Goes to Ephesus

[1]While Apollos was at Corinth, Paul took the road to Ephesus. When he arrived, he found some believers there. [2]He asked them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you became believers?”

“No,” they answered. “We haven’t even heard that there is a Holy Spirit.”

[3]So Paul asked, “Then what baptism did you receive?”

“John’s baptism,” they replied.

[4]Paul said, “John baptized people, calling them to turn away from their sins. He told them to believe in the one who was coming after him. Jesus is that one.” [5]After hearing this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. [6]Paul placed his hands on them. Then the Holy Spirit came on them. They spoke in languages they had not known before. They also prophesied. [7]There were about 12 men in all.

[8]Paul entered the synagogue. There he spoke boldly for three months. He gave good reasons for believing the truth about God’s kingdom. [9]But some of them wouldn’t listen. They refused to believe. In public they said evil things about the Way of Jesus. So Paul left them. He took the believers with him. Each day he talked with people in the lecture hall of Tyrannus. [10]This went on for two years. So all the Jews and Greeks who lived in Asia Minor heard the word of the Lord.

[11]God did amazing miracles through Paul. [12]Even handkerchiefs and aprons that had touched him were taken to those who were sick. When this happened, their sicknesses were healed and evil spirits left them.

[13]Some Jews went around driving out evil spirits. They tried to use the name of the Lord Jesus to set free those who were controlled by demons. They said, “In Jesus’ name I command you to come out. He is the Jesus that Paul is preaching about.” [14]Seven sons of Sceva were doing this. Sceva was a Jewish chief priest. [15]One day the evil spirit answered them, “I know Jesus. And I know about Paul. But who are you?” [16]Then the man who had the evil spirit jumped on Sceva’s sons. He overpowered them all. He gave them a terrible beating. They ran out of the house naked and bleeding.

[17]The Jews and Greeks living in Ephesus heard about this. They were all overcome with fear. They held the name of the Lord Jesus in high honor. [18]Many who believed now came and openly admitted what they had done. [19]A number of those who had practiced evil magic brought their scrolls together. They set them on fire out in the open. They added up the value of the scrolls. The scrolls were worth more than someone could earn in two lifetimes. [20]The word of the Lord spread everywhere. It became more and more powerful.

[21]After all this had happened, Paul decided to go to Jerusalem. He went through Macedonia and Achaia. “After I have been to Jerusalem,” he said, “I must visit Rome also.” [22]He sent Timothy and Erastus, two of his helpers, to Macedonia. But he stayed a little longer in Asia Minor.

Trouble in Ephesus

[23]At that time many people became very upset about the Way of Jesus. [24]There was a man named Demetrius who made things out of silver. He made silver models of the temple of the goddess Artemis. He brought in a lot of business for the other skilled workers there. [25]One day he called them together. He also called others who were in the same kind of business. “My friends,” he said, “you know that we make good money from our work. [26]You have seen and heard what this fellow Paul is doing. He has talked to large numbers of people here in Ephesus. Almost everywhere in Asia Minor he has led people away from our gods. He says that the gods made by human hands are not gods at all. [27]Our work is in danger of losing its good name. People’s faith in the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be weakened. Now she is worshiped all over Asia Minor and the whole world. But soon she will be robbed of her greatness.”

[28]When they heard this, they became very angry. They began shouting, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!” [29]Soon people were making trouble in the whole city. They all rushed into the theater. They dragged Gaius and Aristarchus along with them. These two men had come with Paul from Macedonia. [30]Paul wanted to appear in front of the crowd. But the believers wouldn’t let him. [31]Some of the officials in Asia Minor were friends of Paul. They sent him a message, begging him not to go into the theater.

[32]The crowd didn’t know what was going on. Some were shouting one thing and some another. Most of the people didn’t even know why they were there. [33]The Jews in the crowd pushed Alexander to the front. They tried to tell him what to say. But he motioned for them to be quiet. He was about to give the people reasons for his actions. [34]But then they realized that he was a Jew. So they all shouted the same thing for about two hours. “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!” they yelled.

[35]The city clerk quieted the crowd down. “People of Ephesus!” he said. “The city of Ephesus guards the temple of the great Artemis. The whole world knows this. They know that Ephesus guards her statue, which fell from heaven. [36]These facts can’t be questioned. So calm down. Don’t do anything foolish. [37]These men haven’t robbed any temples. They haven’t said evil things against our female god. But you have brought them here anyhow. [38]Demetrius and the other skilled workers may feel they have been wronged by someone. Let them bring charges. The courts are open. We have our governors. [39]Is there anything else you want to bring up? Settle it in a court of law. [40]As it is, we are in danger of being charged with a crime. We could be charged with causing all this trouble today. There is no reason for it. So we wouldn’t be able to explain what has happened.” [41]After he said this, he sent the people away.

Acts 20

Paul Travels Through Macedonia and Greece

[1]All the trouble came to an end. Then Paul sent for the believers. After encouraging them, he said goodbye. He then left for Macedonia. [2]He traveled through that area, speaking many words of hope to the people. Finally he arrived in Greece. [3]There he stayed for three months. He was just about to sail for Syria. But some Jews were making plans against him. So he decided to go back through Macedonia. [4]Sopater, son of Pyrrhus, from Berea went with him. Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, Gaius from Derbe, and Timothy went too. Tychicus and Trophimus from Asia Minor also went with him. [5]These men went on ahead. They waited for us at Troas. [6]But we sailed from Philippi after the Feast of Unleavened Bread. Five days later we joined the others at Troas. We stayed there for seven days.

Eutychus Is Raised From the Dead at Troas

[7]On the first day of the week we met to break bread and eat together. Paul spoke to the people. He kept on talking until midnight because he planned to leave the next day. [8]There were many lamps in the room upstairs where we were meeting. [9]A young man named Eutychus was sitting in a window. He sank into a deep sleep as Paul talked on and on. Sound asleep, Eutychus fell from the third floor. When they picked him up from the ground, he was dead. [10]Paul went down and threw himself on the young man. He put his arms around him. “Don’t be alarmed,” he told them. “He’s alive!” [11]Then Paul went upstairs again. He broke bread and ate with them. He kept on talking until daylight. Then he left. [12]The people took the young man home. They were greatly comforted because he was alive.

Paul Says Goodbye to the Ephesian Elders

[13]We went on ahead to the ship. We sailed for Assos. There we were going to take Paul on board. He had planned it this way because he wanted to go to Assos by land. [14]So he met us there. We took him on board and went on to Mitylene. [15]The next day we sailed from there. We arrived near Chios. The day after that we crossed over to Samos. We arrived at Miletus the next day. [16]Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus. He didn't want to spend time in Asia Minor. He was in a hurry to get to Jerusalem. If he could, he wanted to be there by the day of Pentecost.

17From Miletus, Paul sent for the elders of the church at Ephesus. 18When they arrived, he spoke to them. "You know how I lived the whole time I was with you," he said. "From the first day I came into Asia Minor, 19I served the Lord with tears and without pride. I served him when I was greatly tested. I was tested by the evil plans of the Jews who disagreed with me. 20You know that nothing has kept me from preaching whatever would help you. I have taught you in public and from house to house. 21I have told both Jews and Greeks that they must turn away from their sins to God. They must have faith in our Lord Jesus.

22"Now I am going to Jerusalem. The Holy Spirit compels me. I don't know what will happen to me there. 23I only know that in every city the Spirit warns me. He tells me that I will face prison and suffering. 24But my life means nothing to me. My only goal is to finish the race. I want to complete the work the Lord Jesus has given me. He wants me to tell others about the good news of God's grace.

25"I have spent time with you preaching about the kingdom. I know that none of you will ever see me again. 26So I tell you today that I am not guilty if any of you don't believe. 27I haven't let anyone keep me from telling you everything God wants you to do. 28Keep watch over yourselves. Keep watch over all the believers. The Holy Spirit has made you leaders over them. Be shepherds of God's church. He bought it with his own blood. 29I know that after I leave, wild wolves will come in among you. They won't spare any of the sheep. 30Even men from your own people will rise up and twist the truth. They want to get the believers to follow them. 31So be on your guard! Remember that for three years I never stopped warning you. Night and day I warned each of you with tears.

32"Now I trust God to take care of you. I commit you to the message about his grace. It can build you up. Then you will share in what God plans to give all his people. 33I haven't longed for anyone's silver or gold or clothing. 34You yourselves know that I have used my own hands to meet my needs. I have also met the needs of my companions. 35In everything I did, I showed you that we must work hard and help the weak. We must remember the words of the Lord Jesus. He said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.' "

36Paul finished speaking. Then he got down on his knees with all of them and prayed. 37They all wept as they hugged and kissed him. 38Paul had said that they would never see him again. That’s what hurt them the most. Then they went with him to the ship.

Acts 21

Paul Continues His Journey to Jerusalem

[1]After we had torn ourselves away from the Ephesian elders, we headed out to sea. We sailed straight to Kos. The next day we went to Rhodes. From there we continued on to Patara. [2]We found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia. So we went on board and headed out to sea. [3]We came near Cyprus and passed to the south of it. Then we sailed on to Syria. We landed at Tyre. There our ship was supposed to unload. [4]We looked for the believers there and stayed with them for seven days. The believers tried to keep Paul from going on to Jerusalem. They were led by the Holy Spirit to do this. [5]When it was time to leave, we continued on our way. All the believers, including their whole families, went with us out of the city. There on the beach we got down on our knees to pray. [6]We said goodbye to each other. Then we went on board the ship. And they returned home.

[7]Continuing on from Tyre, we landed at Ptolemais. There we greeted the brothers and sisters. We stayed with them for a day. [8]The next day we left and arrived at Caesarea. We stayed at the house of Philip the evangelist. He was one of the seven deacons. [9]He had four unmarried daughters who prophesied.

[10]We stayed there several days. Then a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. [11]He came over to us. Then he took Paul's belt and tied his own hands and feet with it. He said, "The Holy Spirit says, 'This is how the Jewish leaders in Jerusalem will tie up the owner of this belt. They will hand him over to the Gentiles.' "

[12]When we heard this, we all begged Paul not to go up to Jerusalem. [13]He asked, "Why are you crying? Why are you breaking my heart? I'm ready to be put in prison. In fact, I'm ready to die in Jerusalem for the Lord Jesus." [14]We couldn't change his mind. So we gave up. We said, "May what the Lord wants to happen be done."

[15]After this, we started on our way to Jerusalem. [16]Some of the believers from Caesarea went with us. They brought us to Mnason's home. We were supposed to stay there. Mnason was from Cyprus. He was one of the first believers.

Paul Arrives in Jerusalem

[17]When we arrived in Jerusalem, the brothers and sisters gave us a warm welcome. [18]The next day Paul and the rest of us went to see James. All the elders were there. [19]Paul greeted them. Then he reported everything God had done among the Gentiles through his work.

[20]When they heard this, they praised God. Then they spoke to Paul. “Brother,” they said, “you see that thousands of Jews have become believers. All of them try very hard to obey the law. [21]They have been told that you teach Jews to turn away from the Law of Moses. You teach this to the Jews who live among the Gentiles. They think that you teach those Jews not to circumcise their children. They think that you teach them to give up our Jewish ways. [22]What should we do? They will certainly hear that you have come. [23]So do what we tell you. There are four men with us who have made a promise to God. [24]Take them with you. Join them in the Jewish practice that makes people pure and ‘clean.’ Pay their expenses so they can have their heads shaved. Then everyone will know that these reports about you are not true in any way. They will know that you yourself obey the law. [25]We have already given written directions to the believers who are not Jews. They must not eat food that has been offered to statues of gods. They must not drink blood. They must not eat the meat of animals that have been choked to death. And they must not commit sexual sins.”

[26]The next day Paul took the men with him. They all made themselves pure and “clean” in the usual way. Then Paul went to the temple. There he reported the date when the days of cleansing would end. At that time the proper offering would be made for each of them.

Paul Is Arrested

[27]The seven days of cleansing were almost over. Some Jews from Asia Minor saw Paul at the temple. They stirred up the whole crowd and grabbed Paul. [28]“Fellow Israelites, help us!” they shouted. “This is the man who teaches everyone in all places against our people. He speaks against our law and against this holy place. Besides, he has brought Greeks into the temple. He has made this holy place ‘unclean.’ ” [29]They said this because they had seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with Paul. They thought Paul had brought him into the temple.

[30]The whole city was stirred up. People came running from all directions. They grabbed Paul and dragged him out of the temple. Right away the temple gates were shut. [31]The people were trying to kill Paul. But news reached the commander of the Roman troops. He heard that people were making trouble in the whole city of Jerusalem. [32]Right away he took some officers and soldiers with him. They ran down to the crowd. The people causing the trouble saw the commander and his soldiers. So they stopped beating Paul.

[33]The commander came up and arrested Paul. He ordered him to be held with two chains. Then he asked who Paul was and what he had done. [34]Some in the crowd shouted one thing, some another. But the commander couldn't get the facts because of all the noise. So he ordered that Paul be taken into the fort. [35]Paul reached the steps. But then the mob became so wild that he had to be carried by the soldiers. [36]The crowd that followed kept shouting, "Get rid of him!"

Paul Speaks to the Crowd

[37]The soldiers were about to take Paul into the fort. Then he asked the commander, "May I say something to you?"

"Do you speak Greek?" he replied. [38]"Aren't you the Egyptian who turned some of our people against their leaders? Didn't you lead 4,000 terrorists out into the desert some time ago?"

[39]Paul answered, "I am a Jew from Tarsus in Cilicia. I am a citizen of an important city. Please let me speak to the people."

[40]The commander told him he could. So Paul stood on the steps and motioned to the crowd. When all of them were quiet, he spoke to them in the Aramaic language.

Acts 22

[1]“Brothers and fathers,” Paul began, “listen to me now. I want to give you reasons for my actions.”

[2]When they heard that he was speaking to them in Aramaic, they became very quiet.

Then Paul said, [3]“I am a Jew. I was born in Tarsus in Cilicia, but I grew up here in Jerusalem. I studied with Gamaliel. I was well trained by him in the law given to our people long ago. I wanted to serve God as much as any of you do today. [4]I hurt the followers of the Way of Jesus. I sent many of them to their death. I arrested men and women. I threw them into prison. [5]The high priest and the whole Council can be witnesses of this themselves. I even had some official letters they had written to their friends in Damascus. So I went there to bring these people as prisoners to Jerusalem to be punished.

[6]“I had almost reached Damascus. About noon a bright light from heaven suddenly flashed around me. [7]I fell to the ground and heard a voice speak to me. ‘Saul! Saul!’ it said. ‘Why are you opposing me?’

[8]“ ‘Who are you, Lord?’ I asked.

“ ‘I am Jesus of Nazareth,’ he replied. ‘I am the one you are opposing.’ [9]The light was seen by my companions. But they didn’t understand the voice of the one speaking to me.

[10]“ ‘What should I do, Lord?’ I asked.

“ ‘Get up,’ the Lord said. ‘Go into Damascus. There you will be told everything you have been given to do.’ [11]The brightness of the light had blinded me. So my companions led me by the hand into Damascus.

[12]“A man named Ananias came to see me. He was a godly Jew who obeyed the law. All the Jews living there respected him very much. [13]He stood beside me and said, ‘Brother Saul, receive your sight!’ At that very moment I was able to see him.

[14]“Then he said, ‘The God of our people has chosen you. He wanted to tell you his plans for you. You have seen the Blameless One. You have heard words from his mouth. [15]Now you will tell everyone about what you have seen and heard. [16]So what are you waiting for? Get up and call on his name. Be baptized. Have your sins washed away.’

[17]“I returned to Jerusalem and was praying at the temple. Then it seemed to me that I was dreaming. [18]I saw the Lord speaking to me. ‘Quick!’ he said. ‘Leave Jerusalem at once. The people here will not accept what you tell them about me.’

[19]“ ‘Lord,’ I replied, ‘these people know what I used to do. I went from one synagogue to another and put believers in prison. I also beat them. [20]Stephen was a man who told other people about you. I stood there when he was killed. I had agreed that he should die. I even guarded the coats of those who were killing him.’

[21]“Then the Lord said to me, ‘Go. I will send you far away to people who are not Jews.’ ”

Paul the Roman Citizen

[22]The crowd listened to Paul until he said this. Then they shouted, “Kill him! He isn’t fit to live!”

[23]They shouted and threw off their coats. They threw dust into the air. [24]So the commanding officer ordered that Paul be taken into the fort. He gave orders for Paul to be whipped and questioned. He wanted to find out why the people were shouting at him like this. [25]A commander was standing there as they stretched Paul out to be whipped. Paul said to him, “Does the law allow you to whip a Roman citizen who hasn’t even been found guilty?”

[26]When the commander heard this, he went to the commanding officer and reported it. “What are you going to do?” the commander asked. “This man is a Roman citizen.”

[27]So the commanding officer went to Paul. “Tell me,” he asked. “Are you a Roman citizen?”

“Yes, I am,” Paul answered.

[28]Then the officer said, “I had to pay a lot of money to become a citizen.”

“But I was born a citizen,” Paul replied.

[29]Right away those who were about to question him left. Even the officer was alarmed. He realized that he had put Paul, a Roman citizen, in chains.

Paul Is Taken to the Sanhedrin

[30]The commanding officer wanted to find out exactly what the Jews had against Paul. So the next day he let Paul out of prison. He ordered a meeting of the chief priests and all the members of the Sanhedrin. Then he brought Paul and had him stand in front of them.

Acts 23

[1]Paul looked straight at the Sanhedrin. “My brothers,” he said, “I have always done my duty to God. To this day I feel that I have done nothing wrong.”
[2]Ananias the high priest heard this. So he ordered the men standing near Paul to hit him on the mouth. [3]Then Paul said to him, “You pretender! God will hit you!
You sit there and judge me by the law. But you yourself broke the law when you commanded them to hit me!”

[4]Those who were standing near Paul spoke to him. They said, “How dare you talk like that to God’s high priest!”

[5]Paul replied, “Brothers, I didn’t realize he was the high priest. It is written,
‘Do not speak evil about the ruler of your people.’ ” (Exodus 22:28)

[6]Paul knew that some of them were Sadducees and the others were Pharisees.
So he called out to the members of the Sanhedrin. “My brothers,” he said, “I am a Pharisee. I come from a family of Pharisees. I believe that people will rise from the dead. That’s why I am on trial.” [7]When he said this, the Pharisees and the Sadducees started to argue. They began to take sides. [8]The Sadducees say that people will not rise from the dead. They don’t believe there are angels or spirits either. But the Pharisees believe all these things.

[9]People were causing trouble and making a lot of noise. Some of the teachers of the law who were Pharisees stood up. They argued strongly. “We find nothing wrong with this man,” they said. “What if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?” [10]The people arguing were getting out of control. The commanding officer was afraid that Paul would be torn to pieces by them. So he ordered the soldiers to go down and take him away from them by force. The officer had told them to bring Paul into the fort.

[11]The next night the Lord stood near Paul. He said, “Be brave! You have told people about me in Jerusalem. You must do the same in Rome.”

The Plan to Kill Paul

[12]The next morning some Jews gathered secretly to make plans against Paul.
They made a promise to themselves. They promised that they would not eat or drink anything until they killed him. [13]More than 40 men took part in this plan.
[14]They went to the chief priests and the elders. They said, “We have made a special promise to God. We will not eat anything until we have killed Paul.

15 Now then, you and the Sanhedrin must make an appeal to the commanding officer. Ask him to bring Paul to you. Pretend you want more facts about his case. We are ready to kill him before he gets here."

16 But Paul's nephew heard about this plan. So he went into the fort and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the commanders. He said to him, "Take this young man to the commanding officer. He has something to tell him." 18 So the commander took Paul's nephew to the officer.

The commander said, "Paul, the prisoner, sent for me. He asked me to bring this young man to you. The young man has something to tell you."

19 The commanding officer took the young man by the hand. He spoke to him in private. "What do you want to tell me?" the officer asked.

20 He said, "Some Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul to the Sanhedrin tomorrow. They will pretend they want more facts about him. 21 Don't give in to them. More than 40 of them are waiting in hiding to attack him. They have promised that they will not eat or drink anything until they have killed him. They are ready now. All they need is for you to bring Paul to the Sanhedrin."

22 The commanding officer let the young man go. But he gave him a warning. "Don't tell anyone you have reported this to me," he said.

Paul Is Taken to Caesarea

23 Then the commanding officer called for two of his commanders. He ordered them, "Gather a company of 200 soldiers, 70 horsemen and 200 men armed with spears. Get them ready to go to Caesarea at nine o'clock tonight. 24 Provide horses for Paul so that he may be taken safely to Governor Felix."

25 Here is the letter the officer wrote.

> 26 I, Claudius Lysias, am writing this letter.
>
> I am sending it to His Excellency, Governor Felix.
>
> Greetings.
> 27 The Jews grabbed Paul. They were about to kill him. But I came with my soldiers and saved him. I had learned that he is a Roman citizen. 28 I wanted to know why they were bringing charges against him. So I brought him to their Sanhedrin. [29]I found out that the charge against him was based on questions about their law. But there was no charge against him worthy of death or prison. [30]Then I was told about a plan against the man. So I sent him to you at once. I also ordered those bringing charges against him to present their case to you.

[31]The soldiers followed their orders. During the night they took Paul with them. They brought him as far as Antipatris. [32]The next day they let the horsemen go on with him. The soldiers returned to the fort. [33]The horsemen arrived in Caesarea. They gave the letter to the governor. Then they handed Paul over to him. [34]The governor read the letter. He asked Paul where he was from. He learned that Paul was from Cilicia. [35]So he said, “I will hear your case when those bringing charges against you get here.” Then he ordered that Paul be kept under guard in Herod’s palace.

Acts 24

Paul's Trial in Front of Felix

[1]Five days later Ananias the high priest went down to Caesarea. Some elders and a lawyer named Tertullus went with him. They brought their charges against Paul to the governor. [2]So Paul was called in. Tertullus began to bring the charges against Paul. He said to Felix, "We have enjoyed a long time of peace while you have been ruling. You are a wise leader. You have made this a better nation. [3]Most excellent Felix, we gladly admit this everywhere and in every way. And we are very thankful. [4]I don't want to bother you. But would you be kind enough to listen to us for a short time?

[5]"We have found that Paul is a troublemaker. This man stirs up trouble among Jews all over the world. He is a leader of those who follow Jesus of Nazareth. [6-7]He even tried to make our temple impure. So we arrested him. [8]Question him yourself. Then you will learn the truth about all these charges we are bringing against him."

[9]The other Jews said the same thing. They agreed that the charges were true.

[10]The governor motioned for Paul to speak. Paul said, "I know that you have been a judge over this nation for quite a few years. So I am glad to explain my actions to you. [11]About 12 days ago I went up to Jerusalem to worship. You can easily check on this. [12]Those bringing charges against me did not find me arguing with anyone at the temple. I wasn't stirring up a crowd in the synagogues or anywhere else in the city. [13]They can't prove to you any of the charges they are making against me. [14]It is true that I worship the God of our people. I am a follower of the Way of Jesus. Those bringing charges against me call it a cult. I believe everything that is in keeping with the Law. I believe everything that is in keeping with what is written in the Prophets. [15]I have the same hope in God that these men themselves have. I believe that both the godly and the ungodly will rise from the dead. [16]So I always try not to do anything wrong in the eyes of God or in the eyes of people.

[17]"I was away for several years. Then I came to Jerusalem to bring my people gifts for those who were poor. I also came to offer sacrifices. [18]They found me doing this in the temple courtyard. I had already been made pure and 'clean' in the usual way. There was no crowd with me. I didn't stir up any trouble. [19]But there are some other Jews who should be here in front of you. They are from Asia Minor. They should bring charges if they have anything against me. [20]Let the Jews who are here tell you what crime I am guilty of. After all, I was put on trial by the Sanhedrin. [21]Perhaps they blame me for what I said when I was on trial. I shouted, ‘I believe that people will rise from the dead. That is why I am on trial here today.’ ”

[22]Felix knew all about the Way of Jesus. So he put off the trial for the time being. “Lysias the commanding officer will come,” he said. “Then I will decide your case.” [23]He ordered the commander to keep Paul under guard. He told him to give Paul some freedom. He also told him to allow Paul’s friends to take care of his needs.

[24]Several days later Felix came with his wife Drusilla. She was a Jew. Felix sent for Paul and listened to him speak about faith in Christ Jesus. [25]Paul talked about how to live a godly life. He talked about how people should control themselves. He also talked about the time when God will judge everyone. Then Felix became afraid. “That’s enough for now!” he said. “You may leave. When I find the time, I will send for you.” [26]He was hoping that Paul would offer him some money to let him go. So he often sent for Paul and talked with him.

[27]Two years passed. Porcius Festus took the place of Felix. But Felix wanted to do the Jews a favor. So he left Paul in prison.

Acts 25

Paul's Trial in Front of Festus

[1]Three days after Festus arrived, he went up from Caesarea to Jerusalem. [2]There the chief priests and the Jewish leaders came to Festus. They brought their charges against Paul. [3]They tried very hard to get Festus to have Paul taken to Jerusalem. They asked for this as a favor. They were planning to hide and attack Paul along the way. They wanted to kill him. [4]Festus answered, "Paul is being held at Caesarea. Soon I'll be going there myself. [5]Let some of your leaders come with me. If the man has done anything wrong, they can bring charges against him there."

[6]Festus spent eight or ten days in Jerusalem with them. Then he went down to Caesarea. The next day he called the court together. He ordered Paul to be brought to him. [7]When Paul arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him. They brought many strong charges against him. But they couldn't prove that these charges were true.

[8]Then Paul spoke up for himself. He said, "I've done nothing wrong against the law of the Jews or against the temple. I've done nothing wrong against Caesar."

[9]But Festus wanted to do the Jews a favor. So he said to Paul, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem? Are you willing to go on trial there? Are you willing to face these charges in my court?"

[10]Paul answered, "I'm already standing in Caesar's court. This is where I should go on trial. I haven't done anything wrong to the Jews. You yourself know that very well. [11]If I am guilty of anything worthy of death, I'm willing to die. But the charges brought against me by these Jews are not true. No one has the right to hand me over to them. I make my appeal to Caesar!"

[12]Festus talked it over with the members of his court. Then he said, "You have made an appeal to Caesar. To Caesar you will go!"

Festus Talks With King Agrippa

[13]A few days later King Agrippa and Bernice arrived in Caesarea. They came to pay a visit to Festus. [14]They were spending many days there. So Festus talked with the king about Paul's case. He said, "There's a man here that Felix left as a prisoner. [15]When I went to Jerusalem, the Jewish chief priests and the elders brought charges against the man. They wanted him to be found guilty.

[16]"I told them that this is not the way Romans do things. We don't judge people before they have faced those bringing charges against them. They must have a chance to argue against the charges for themselves. [17]When the Jewish leaders came back with me, I didn't waste any time. I called the court together the next day. I ordered the man to be brought in. [18]Those bringing charges against him got up to speak. But they didn't charge him with any of the crimes I had expected. [19]Instead, they argued with him about their own beliefs. They didn't agree about a man named Jesus. They said Jesus was dead, but Paul claimed Jesus was alive. [20]I had no idea how to look into such matters. So I asked Paul if he would be willing to go to Jerusalem. There he could be tried on these charges. [21]But Paul made an appeal to have the Emperor decide his case. So I ordered him to be held until I could send him to Caesar."

[22]Then Agrippa said to Festus, "I would like to hear this man myself."

Festus replied, "Tomorrow you will hear him."

Paul in Front of Agrippa

[23]The next day Agrippa and Bernice arrived. They were treated like very important people. They entered the courtroom. The most important military officers and the leading men of the city came with them. When Festus gave the command, Paul was brought in. [24]Festus said, "King Agrippa, and everyone else here, take a good look at this man! A large number of Jews have come to me about him. They came to me in Jerusalem and also here in Caesarea. They keep shouting that he shouldn't live any longer. [25]I have found that he hasn't done anything worthy of death. But he made his appeal to the Emperor. So I decided to send him to Rome. [26]I don't have anything certain to write about him to His Majesty. So I have brought him here today. Now all of you will be able to hear him. King Agrippa, it will also be very good for you to hear him. As a result of this hearing, I will have something to write. [27]It doesn't make sense to send a prisoner on to Rome without listing the charges against him."

Acts 26

[1]Agrippa said to Paul, “You may now present your case.”

So Paul motioned with his hand. Then he began to present his case. [2]“King Agrippa,” he said, “I am happy to be able to stand here today. I will answer all the charges brought against me by the Jews. [3]I am very pleased that you are familiar with Jewish ways. You know the kinds of things they argue about. So I beg you to be patient as you listen to me.

[4]“The Jewish people all know how I have lived ever since I was a child. They know all about me from the beginning of my life. They know how I lived in my own country and in Jerusalem. [5]They have known me for a long time. So if they wanted to, they could tell you how I have lived. I have lived by the rules of the Pharisees. Those rules are harder to obey than those of any other Jewish group. [6]Today I am on trial because of the hope I have. I believe in what God promised our people of long ago. [7]It is the promise that our 12 tribes are hoping to see come true. Because of this hope they serve God with faithful and honest hearts day and night. King Agrippa, it is also because of this hope that these Jews are bringing charges against me. [8]Why should any of you think it is impossible for God to raise the dead?

[9]“I believed that I should oppose the name of Jesus of Nazareth. So I did everything I could to oppose his name. [10]That’s just what I was doing in Jerusalem. On the authority of the chief priests, I put many of the Lord’s people in prison. I agreed that they should die. [11]I often went from one synagogue to another to have them punished. I tried to force them to speak evil things against Jesus. All I wanted to do was hurt them. I even went looking for them in the cities of other lands.

[12]“On one of these journeys I was on my way to Damascus. I had the authority and commission of the chief priests. [13]About noon, King Agrippa, I was on the road. I saw a light coming from heaven. It was brighter than the sun. It was shining around me and my companions. [14]We all fell to the ground. I heard a voice speak to me in the Aramaic language. ‘Saul! Saul!’ it said. ‘Why are you opposing me? It is hard for you to go against what you know is right.’

[15]“Then I asked, ‘Who are you, Lord?’

“ ‘I am Jesus,’ the Lord replied. ‘I am the one you are opposing. [16]Now get up. Stand on your feet. I have appeared to you to appoint you to serve me. And you must tell other people about me. You must tell others that you have seen me today. You must also tell them that I will show myself to you again. [17]I will save you from your own people and from the Gentiles. I am sending you to them [18]to open their eyes. I want you to turn them from darkness to light. I want you to turn them from Satan's power to God. I want their sins to be forgiven. They will be forgiven when they believe in me. They will have their place among God's people.'

[19]"So then, King Agrippa, I obeyed the vision that appeared from heaven. [20]First I preached to people in Damascus. Then I preached in Jerusalem and in all Judea. And then I preached to the Gentiles. I told them to turn away from their sins to God. The way they live must show that they have turned away from their sins. [21]That's why some Jews grabbed me in the temple courtyard and tried to kill me. [22]But God has helped me to this day. So I stand here and tell you what is true. I tell it to everyone, both small and great. I have been saying nothing different from what the prophets and Moses said would happen. [23]They said the Messiah would suffer. He would be the first to rise from the dead. He would bring the message of God's light. He would bring it to his own people and to the Gentiles."

[24]While Paul was still presenting his case, Festus interrupted. "You are out of your mind, Paul!" he shouted. "Your great learning is driving you crazy!"

[25]"I am not crazy, most excellent Festus," Paul replied. "What I am saying is true and reasonable. [26]The king is familiar with these things. So I can speak openly to him. I am certain he knows everything that has been going on. After all, it was not done in secret. [27]King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know you do."

[28]Then Agrippa spoke to Paul. "Are you trying to talk me into becoming a Christian?" he said. "Do you think you can do that in such a short time?"

[29]Paul replied, "I don't care if it takes a short time or a long time. I pray to God for you and all who are listening to me today. I pray that you may become like me, except for these chains."

[30]The king stood up. The governor and Bernice and those sitting with them stood up too. [31]They left the room and began to talk with one another. "Why should this man die or be put in prison?" they said. "He has done nothing worthy of that!"

[32]Agrippa said to Festus, "This man could have been set free. But he has made an appeal to Caesar."

Acts 27

Paul Sails for Rome

[1]It was decided that we would sail for Italy. Paul and some other prisoners were handed over to a Roman commander named Julius. He belonged to the Imperial Guard. [2]We boarded a ship from Adramyttium. It was about to sail for ports along the coast of Asia Minor. We headed out to sea. Aristarchus was with us. He was a Macedonian from Thessalonica.

[3]The next day we landed at Sidon. There Julius was kind to Paul. He let Paul visit his friends so they could give him what he needed. [4]From there we headed out to sea again. We passed the calmer side of Cyprus because the winds were against us. [5]We sailed across the open sea off the coast of Cilicia and Pamphylia. Then we landed at Myra in Lycia. [6]There the commander found a ship from Alexandria sailing for Italy. He put us on board. [7]We moved along slowly for many days. We had trouble getting to Cnidus. The wind did not let us stay on course. So we passed the calmer side of Crete, opposite Salmone. [8]It was not easy to sail along the coast. Then we came to a place called Fair Havens. It was near the town of Lasea.

[9]A lot of time had passed. Sailing had already become dangerous. By now it was after the Day of Atonement, a day of fasting. So Paul gave them a warning. [10]"Men," he said, "I can see that our trip is going to be dangerous. The ship and everything in it will be lost. Our own lives will be in danger also." [11]But the commander didn't listen to what Paul said. Instead, he followed the advice of the pilot and the ship's owner. [12]The harbor wasn't a good place for ships to stay during winter. So most of the people decided we should sail on. They hoped we would reach Phoenix. They wanted to spend the winter there. Phoenix was a harbor in Crete. It faced both southwest and northwest.

The Storm

[13]A gentle south wind began to blow. The ship's crew thought they saw their chance to leave safely. So they pulled up the anchor and sailed along the shore of Crete. [14]Before very long, a wind blew down from the island. It had the force of a hurricane. It was called the Northeaster. [15]The ship was caught by the storm. We could not keep it sailing into the wind. So we gave up and were driven along by the wind. [16]We passed the calmer side of a small island called Cauda. We almost lost the lifeboat that was tied to the side of the ship. [17]So the men lifted the lifeboat on board. Then they tied ropes under the ship itself to hold it together. They were afraid it would get stuck on the sandbars of Syrtis. So they lowered the sea anchor and let the ship be driven along. [18]We took a very bad beating from the storm. The next day the crew began to throw the ship's contents overboard. [19]On the third day, they even threw the ship's tools and supplies overboard with their own hands. [20]The sun and stars didn't appear for many days. The storm was terrible. So we gave up all hope of being saved.

[21]The men had not eaten for a long time. Paul stood up in front of them. "Men," he said, "you should have taken my advice not to sail from Crete. Then you would have avoided this harm and loss. [22]Now I beg you to be brave. Not one of you will die. Only the ship will be destroyed. [23]I belong to God and serve him. Last night his angel stood beside me. [24]The angel said, 'Do not be afraid, Paul. You must go on trial in front of Caesar. God has shown his grace by sparing the lives of all those sailing with you.' [25]Men, continue to be brave. I have faith in God. It will happen just as he told me. [26]But we must run the ship onto the beach of some island."

The Ship Is Destroyed

[27]On the 14th night the wind was still pushing us across the Adriatic Sea. About midnight the sailors had a feeling that they were approaching land. [28]They measured how deep the water was. They found that it was 120 feet deep. A short time later they measured the water again. This time it was 90 feet deep. [29]They were afraid we would crash against the rocks. So they dropped four anchors from the back of the ship. They prayed that daylight would come. [30]The sailors wanted to escape from the ship. So they let the lifeboat down into the sea. They pretended they were going to lower some anchors from the front of the ship. [31]But Paul spoke to the commander and the soldiers. "These men must stay with the ship," he said. "If they don't, you can't be saved." [32]So the soldiers cut the ropes that held the lifeboat. They let it drift away.

[33]Just before dawn Paul tried to get them all to eat. "For the last 14 days," he said, "you have wondered what would happen. You have gone without food. You haven't eaten anything. [34]Now I am asking you to eat some food. You need it to live. Not one of you will lose a single hair from your head." [35]After Paul said this, he took some bread and gave thanks to God. He did this where they all could see him. Then he broke it and began to eat. [36]All of them were filled with hope. So they ate some food. [37]There were 276 of us on board. [38]They ate as much as they wanted. They needed to make the ship lighter. So they threw the rest of the grain into the sea.

[39]When daylight came, they saw a bay with a sandy beach. They didn't recognize the place. But they decided to run the ship onto the beach if they could. [40]So they cut the anchors loose and left them in the sea. At the same time, they untied the ropes that held the rudders. They lifted the sail at the front of the ship to the wind. Then they headed for the beach. [41]But the ship hit a sandbar. So the front of it got stuck and wouldn't move. The back of the ship was broken to pieces by the pounding of the waves.

[42]The soldiers planned to kill the prisoners. They wanted to keep them from swimming away and escaping. [43]But the commander wanted to save Paul's life. So he kept the soldiers from carrying out their plan. He ordered those who could swim to jump overboard first and swim to land. [44]The rest were supposed to get there on boards or other pieces of the ship. That is how everyone reached land safely.

Acts 28

On Shore at Malta

[1]When we were safe on shore, we found out that the island was called Malta.
[2]The people of the island were unusually kind. It was raining and cold. So they built a fire and welcomed all of us. [3]Paul gathered some sticks and put them on the fire. A poisonous snake was driven out by the heat. It fastened itself on Paul's hand. [4]The people of the island saw the snake hanging from his hand.
They said to one another, "This man must be a murderer. He escaped from the sea. But the female god Justice won't let him live." [5]Paul shook the snake off into the fire. He was not harmed. [6]The people expected him to swell up. They thought he would suddenly fall dead. They waited for a long time. But they didn't see anything unusual happen to him. So they changed their minds. They said he was a god.

[7]Publius owned property nearby. He was the chief official on the island. He welcomed us to his home. For three days he took care of us. He treated us with kindness. [8]His father was sick in bed. The man suffered from fever and dysentery. So Paul went in to see him. Paul prayed for him. He placed his hands on him and healed him. [9]Then the rest of the sick people on the island came.
They too were healed. [10]The people of the island honored us in many ways.
When we were ready to sail, they gave us the supplies we needed.

Paul Arrives in Rome

[11]After three months we headed out to sea. We sailed in a ship from Alexandria that had stayed at the island during the winter. On the front of the ship the figures of twin gods were carved. Their names were Castor and Pollux.
[12]We landed at Syracuse and stayed there for three days. [13]From there we sailed to Rhegium. The next day the south wind came up. The day after that, we reached Puteoli. [14]There we found some believers. They invited us to spend a week with them. At last we came to Rome. [15]The believers there had heard we were coming. They traveled as far as the Forum of Appius and the Three Taverns to meet us. When Paul saw these people, he thanked God for them and was encouraged by them. [16]When we got to Rome, Paul was allowed to live by himself. But a soldier guarded him.

Paul Preaches in Rome

17Three days later Paul called a meeting of the local Jewish leaders. When they came, Paul spoke to them. He said, “My brothers, I have done nothing against our people. I have also done nothing against what our people of long ago practiced. But I was arrested in Jerusalem. I was handed over to the Romans.
18They questioned me. And they wanted to let me go. They saw I wasn’t guilty of any crime worthy of death. 19But the Jews objected, so I had to make an appeal to Caesar. I certainly did not mean to bring any charge against my own people. 20I share Israel’s hope. That is why I am held with this chain. So I have asked to see you and talk with you.”

21They replied, “We have not received any letters from Judea about you. None of our people here from Judea has reported or said anything bad about you. 22But we want to hear what your ideas are. We know that people everywhere are talking against those who believe as you do.”

23They decided to meet Paul on a certain day. At that time even more people came to the place where he was staying. From morning until evening, he told them about God’s kingdom. Using the Law of Moses and the Prophets, he tried to get them to believe in Jesus. 24Some believed what he said, and others did not.
25They didn’t agree with one another. They began to leave after Paul had made a final statement. He said, “The Holy Spirit was right when he spoke to your people long ago. Through Isaiah the prophet the Spirit said, > 26“ ‘Go to your people. Say to them,

> “You will hear but never understand.
> You will see but never know what you are seeing.”
> 27These people’s hearts have become stubborn.
> They can barely hear with their ears.
> They have closed their eyes.
> Otherwise they might see with their eyes.
> They might hear with their ears.
> They might understand with their hearts.
> They might turn, and then I would heal them.’ (Isaiah 6:9, 10)

28-29“Here is what I want you to know. God has sent his salvation to the Gentiles. And they will listen!”

30For two whole years Paul stayed there in a house he rented. He welcomed all who came to see him. [31]He preached boldly about God’s kingdom. He taught people about the Lord Jesus Christ. And no one could keep him from teaching and preaching about these things.

Romans

Romans 1

[1]I, Paul, am writing this letter. I serve Christ Jesus. I have been appointed to be an apostle. God set me apart to tell others his good news. [2]He promised the good news long ago. He announced it through his prophets in the Holy Scriptures. [3]The good news is about God's Son. He was born into the family line of King David. [4]By the Holy Spirit, he was appointed to be the mighty Son of God. God did this by raising him from the dead. He is Jesus Christ our Lord. [5]We received grace because of what Jesus did. He made us apostles to the Gentiles. We must invite all of them to obey God by trusting in Jesus. We do this to bring glory to him. [6]You also are among those Gentiles who are appointed to belong to Jesus Christ.

[7]I am sending this letter to all of you in Rome. You are loved by God and appointed to be his holy people.

May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Paul Longs to Visit Rome

[8]First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you. People all over the world are talking about your faith. [9]I serve God with my whole heart. I preach the good news about his Son. God knows that I always remember you [10]in my prayers. I pray that now at last it may be God's plan to open the way for me to visit you.

[11]I long to see you. I want to make you strong by giving you a gift from the Holy Spirit. [12]I want us to encourage one another in the faith we share. [13]Brothers and sisters, I want you to know that I planned many times to visit you. But until now I have been kept from coming. My work has produced results among the other Gentiles. In the same way, I want to see results among you.

[14]I have a duty both to Greeks and to non-Greeks. I have a duty both to wise people and to foolish people. [15]So I really want to preach the good news also to you who live in Rome.

[16]I want to preach it because I'm not ashamed of the good news. It is God's power to save everyone who believes. It is meant first for the Jews. It is meant also for the Gentiles. [17]The good news shows God's power to make people right with himself. God's power to be made right with him is given to the person who has faith. It happens by faith from beginning to end. It is written, "The one who is right with God will live by faith." (Habakkuk 2:4)

God's Anger Against Sinners

[18]God shows his anger from heaven. It is against all the godless and evil things people do. They are so evil that they say no to the truth. [19]The truth about God is plain to them. God has made it plain. [20]Ever since the world was created it has been possible to see the qualities of God that are not seen. I'm talking about his eternal power and about the fact that he is God. Those things can be seen in what he has made. So people have no excuse for what they do.

[21]They knew God. But they didn't honor him as God. They didn't thank him. Their thinking became worthless. Their foolish hearts became dark. [22]They claimed to be wise. But they made fools of themselves. [23]They would rather have statues of gods than the glorious God who lives forever. Their statues of gods are made to look like people, birds, animals and reptiles.

[24]So God let them go. He allowed them to do what their sinful hearts wanted to. He let them commit sexual sins. They made one another's bodies impure by what they did. [25]They chose a lie instead of the truth about God. They worshiped and served created things. They didn't worship the Creator. But he is praised forever. Amen.

[26]So God let them continue to have their shameful desires. Their women committed sexual acts that were not natural. [27]In the same way, the men turned away from their natural love for women. They burned with sexual desire for each other. Men did shameful things with other men. They suffered in their bodies for all the wrong things they did.

[28]They didn't think it was important to know God. So God let them continue to have evil thoughts. They did things they shouldn't do. [29]They are full of every kind of sin, evil and ungodliness. They want more than they need. They commit murder. They want what belongs to other people. They fight and cheat. They hate others. They say mean things about other people. [30]They tell lies about them. They hate God. They are rude and proud. They brag. They think of new ways to do evil. They don't obey their parents. [31]They do not understand. They can't be trusted. They are not loving and kind. [32]They know that God's commands are right. They know that those who do evil things should die. But they continue to do those very things. They also approve of others who do them.

Romans 2

God Judges Fairly

[1]If you judge someone else, you have no excuse for it. When you judge another person, you are judging yourself. You do the same things you blame others for doing. [2]We know that when God judges those who do evil things, he judges fairly. [3]Though you are only a human being, you judge others. But you yourself do the same things. So how do you think you will escape when God judges you? [4]Do you disrespect God's great kindness and favor? Do you disrespect God when he is patient with you? Don't you realize that God's kindness is meant to turn you away from your sins?

[5]But you are stubborn. In your heart you are not sorry for your sins. You are storing up anger against yourself. The day of God's anger is coming. Then his way of judging fairly will be shown. [6]God "will pay back each person in keeping with what they have done." (Psalm 62:12; Proverbs 24:12) [7]God will give eternal life to those who keep on doing good. They want glory, honor, and life that never ends. [8]But there are others who only look out for themselves. They don't accept the truth. They go astray. God will pour out his great anger on them. [9]There will be trouble and suffering for everyone who does evil. That is meant first for the Jews. It is also meant for the Gentiles. [10]But there will be glory, honor and peace for everyone who does good. That is meant first for the Jews. It is also meant for the Gentiles. [11]God treats everyone the same.

[12]Some people do not know God's law when they sin. They will not be judged by the law when they die. Others do know God's law when they sin. They will be judged by the law. [13]Hearing the law does not make a person right with God. People are considered to be right with God only when they obey the law. [14]Gentiles do not have the law. Sometimes they just naturally do what the law requires. They are a law for themselves. This is true even though they don't have the law. [15]They show that what the law requires is written on their hearts. The way their minds judge them proves this fact. Sometimes their thoughts find them guilty. At other times their thoughts find them not guilty. [16]This will happen on the day God appoints Jesus Christ to judge people's secret thoughts. That's part of my good news.

The Jews and the Law

[17]Suppose you call yourself a Jew. You trust in the law. You brag that you know God. [18]You know what God wants. You agree with what is best because the law teaches you. [19]You think you know so much more than the people you teach. You think you're helping blind people. You think you are a light for those in the dark. [20]You think you can make foolish people wise. You act like you're teaching little children. You think that the law gives you all knowledge and truth. [21]You claim to teach others, but you don't even teach yourself! You preach against stealing. But you steal! [22]You say that people should not commit adultery. But you commit adultery! You hate statues of gods. But you rob temples! [23]You brag about the law. But when you break it, you rob God of his honor! [24]It is written, "The Gentiles say evil things against God's name because of you." (Isaiah 52:5; Ezekiel 36:22)

[25]Circumcision has value if you obey the law. But if you break the law, it is just as if you hadn't been circumcised. [26]And sometimes those who aren't circumcised do what the law requires. Won't God accept them as if they had been circumcised? [27]Many are not circumcised physically, but they obey the law. They will prove that you are guilty. You are breaking the law, even though you have the written law and are circumcised.

[28]A person is not a Jew if they are a Jew only on the outside. And circumcision is more than just something done to the outside of a man's body. [29]No, a person is a Jew only if they are a Jew on the inside. And true circumcision means that the heart has been circumcised by the Holy Spirit. The person whose heart has been circumcised does more than obey the written law. The praise that matters for that kind of person does not come from other people. It comes from God.

Romans 3

God Is Faithful

[1]Is there any advantage in being a Jew? Is there any value in being circumcised? [2]There is great value in every way! First of all, the Jews have been given the very words of God.
[3]What if some Jews were not faithful? Will the fact that they weren't faithful keep God from being faithful? [4]Not at all! God is true, even if every human being is a liar. It is written,

> "You are right when you sentence me.
> You are fair when you judge me." (Psalm 51:4)

[5]Doesn't the fact that we are wrong prove more clearly that God is right?
Then what can we say? Can we say that God is not fair when he brings his anger down on us? As you can tell, I am just using human ways of thinking. [6]God is certainly fair! If he weren't, how could he judge the world? [7]Someone might argue, "When I lie, it becomes clearer that God is truthful. It makes his glory shine more brightly. Why then does he find me guilty of sin?" [8]Why not say,
"Let's do evil things so that good things will happen"? Some people actually lie by reporting that this is what we say. They are the ones who will rightly be found guilty.

No One Is Right With God

[9]What should we say then? Do we Jews have any advantage? Not at all! We have already claimed that Jews and Gentiles are sinners. Everyone is under the power of sin. [10]It is written,

> "No one is right with God, no one at all.
> [11]No one understands.
> No one trusts in God.
> [12]All of them have turned away.
> They have all become worthless.
> No one does anything good,
> no one at all."

(Psalms 14:1–3; 53:1–3; Ecclesiastes 7:20)

13 “Their throats are like open graves.
With their tongues they tell lies.” (Psalm 5:9)
“The words from their lips are like the poison of a snake.” (Psalm 140:3)
14 “Their mouths are full of curses and bitterness.” (Psalm 10:7)
15 “They run quickly to commit murder.
16 They leave a trail of harmful actions.
17 They do not know how to live in peace.” (Isaiah 59:7, 8)
18 “They don’t have any respect for God.” (Psalm 36:1)

19 What the law says, it says to those who are ruled by the law. Its purpose is to shut every mouth and make the whole world accountable to God. 20 So no one will be considered right with God by obeying the law. Instead, the law makes us more aware of our sin.

Becoming Right With God by Faith

21 But now God has shown us his saving power without the help of the law. But the Law and the Prophets tell us about this. 22 We are made right with God by putting our faith in Jesus Christ. This happens to all who believe. It is no different for the Jews than for the Gentiles. 23 Everyone has sinned. No one measures up to God’s glory. 24 The free gift of God’s grace makes us right with him. Christ Jesus paid the price to set us free. 25 God gave Christ as a sacrifice to pay for sins through the spilling of his blood. So God forgives the sins of those who have faith. God did all this to prove that he does what is right. He is a God of mercy. So he did not punish for their sins the people who lived before Jesus lived. 26 God did all this to prove in our own time that he does what is right. He also makes right with himself those who believe in Jesus.

27 So who can brag? No one! Are people saved by the law that requires them to obey? Not at all! They are saved because of the law that requires faith. 28 We firmly believe that a person is made right with God because of their faith. They are not saved by obeying the law. 29 Or is God the God of Jews only? Isn’t he also the God of Gentiles? Yes, he is their God too. 30 There is only one God. When those who are circumcised believe in him, he makes them right with himself. Suppose those who are not circumcised believe in him. Then God also will make them right with himself. 31 Does faith make the law useless? Not at all!

We agree with the law.

Romans 4

Abraham's Faith Made Him Right With God

[1]What should we say about these things? What did Abraham, the father of our people, discover about being right with God? [2]Did he become right with God because of something he did? If so, he could brag about it. But he couldn't brag to God. [3]What do we find in Scripture? It says, "Abraham believed God. God accepted Abraham's faith, and so his faith made him right with God." (Genesis 15:6)

[4]When a person works, their pay is not considered a gift. It is owed to them. [5]But things are different with God. He makes ungodly people right with himself. If people trust in him, their faith is accepted even though they do not work. Their faith makes them right with God. [6]King David says the same thing. He tells us how blessed people are when God makes them right with himself. They are blessed because they don't have to do anything in return. David says,

> [7]"Blessed are those > whose lawless acts are forgiven.
> Blessed are those > whose sins are taken away.
> [8]Blessed is the person > whose sin the Lord never counts against them." (Psalm 32:1, 2)

[9]Is that blessing only for those who are circumcised? Or is it also for those who are not circumcised? We have been saying that God accepted Abraham's faith. So his faith made him right with God. [10]When did it happen? Was it after Abraham was circumcised, or before? It was before he was circumcised, not after! [11]He was circumcised as a sign of the covenant God had made with him. It showed that his faith had made him right with God before he was circumcised. So Abraham is the father of all believers who have not been circumcised. God accepts their faith. So their faith makes them right with him. [12]And Abraham is also the father of those who are circumcised and believe. So just being circumcised is not enough. Those who are circumcised must also follow the steps of our father Abraham. He had faith before he was circumcised.

[13]Abraham and his family received a promise. God promised that Abraham would receive the world. It would not come to him because he obeyed the law. It would come because of his faith, which made him right with God. [14]Do those who depend on the law receive the promise? If they do, faith would mean nothing. God's promise would be worthless. [15]The law brings God's anger. Where there is no law, the law can't be broken.

[16]The promise is based on God's grace. The promise comes by faith. All of Abraham's children will certainly receive the promise. And it is not only for those who are ruled by the law. Those who have the same faith that Abraham had are also included. He is the father of us all. [17]It is written, "I have made you a father of many nations." (Genesis 17:5) God considers Abraham to be our father. The God that Abraham believed in gives life to the dead. Abraham's God also creates things that did not exist before.

[18]When there was no reason for hope, Abraham believed because he had hope. He became the father of many nations, exactly as God had promised. God said, "That is how many children you will have." (Genesis 15:5) [19]Abraham did not become weak in his faith. He accepted the fact that he was past the time when he could have children. At that time Abraham was about 100 years old. He also realized that Sarah was too old to have children. [20]But Abraham kept believing in God's promise. He became strong in his faith. He gave glory to God. [21]He was absolutely sure that God had the power to do what he had promised. [22]That's why "God accepted Abraham because he believed. So his faith made him right with God." (Genesis 15:6) [23]The words "God accepted Abraham's faith" were written not only for Abraham. [24]They were written also for us. We believe in the God who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead. So God will accept our faith and make us right with himself. [25]Jesus was handed over to die for our sins. He was raised to life in order to make us right with God.

Romans 5

Peace and Hope

[1]We have been made right with God because of our faith. Now we have peace with him because of our Lord Jesus Christ. [2]Through faith in Jesus we have received God's grace. In that grace we stand. We are full of joy because we expect to share in God's glory. [3]And that's not all. We are full of joy even when we suffer. We know that our suffering gives us the strength to go on. [4]The strength to go on produces character. Character produces hope. [5]And hope will never bring us shame. That's because God's love has been poured into our hearts. This happened through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us.

[6]At just the right time Christ died for ungodly people. He died for us when we had no power of our own. [7]It is unusual for anyone to die for a godly person. Maybe someone would be willing to die for a good person. [8]But here is how God has shown his love for us. While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

[9]The blood of Christ has made us right with God. So we are even more sure that Jesus will save us from God's anger. [10]Once we were God's enemies. But we have been brought back to him because his Son has died for us. Now that God has brought us back, we are even more secure. We know that we will be saved because Christ lives. [11]And that is not all. We are full of joy in God because of our Lord Jesus Christ. Because of him, God has brought us back to himself.

Death Through Adam, Life Through Christ

[12]Sin entered the world because one man sinned. And death came because of sin. Everyone sinned, so death came to all people.

[13]Before the law was given, sin was in the world. This is certainly true. But people are not judged for sin when there is no law. [14]Death ruled from the time of Adam to the time of Moses. Death ruled even over those who did not sin as Adam did. He broke God's command. But Adam also became a pattern of the Messiah. The Messiah was the one who was going to come.

[15]God's gift can't be compared with Adam's sin. Many people died because of the sin of that one man. But it was even more sure that God's grace would also come through one man. That man is Jesus Christ. God's gift of grace was more than enough for the whole world. [16]The result of God's gift is different from the result of Adam's sin. That one sin brought God's judgment. But after many sins, God's gift made people right with him. [17]One man sinned, and death ruled over all people because of his sin. What will happen is even more sure than this. Those who receive the rich supply of God's grace will rule with Christ. They will rule in his kingdom. They have received God's gift and have been made right with him. This will happen because of what the one man, Jesus Christ, has done.

[18]So one man's sin brought guilt to all people. In the same way, one right act made people right with God. That one right act gave life to all people. [19]Many people were made sinners because one man did not obey. But one man did obey. That is why many people will be made right with God.

[20]The law was given so that sin would increase. But where sin increased, God's grace increased even more. [21]Sin ruled and brought death. But grace rules in the lives of those who are right with God. The grace of God brings eternal life. That's because of what Jesus Christ our Lord has done.

Romans 6

Living a New Life in Christ

[1]What should we say then? Should we keep on sinning so that God's grace can increase? [2]Not at all! As far as sin is concerned, we are dead. So how can we keep on sinning? [3]All of us were baptized into Christ Jesus. Don't you know that we were baptized into his death? [4]By being baptized, we were buried with Christ into his death. Christ has been raised from the dead by the Father's glory. And like Christ we also can live a new life.

[5]By being baptized, we have been joined with him in a death like his. So we will certainly also be joined with him in a resurrection like his. [6]We know that what we used to be was nailed to the cross with him. That happened so our bodies that were ruled by sin would lose their power. So we are no longer slaves of sin. [7]That's because those who have died have been set free from sin.

[8]We died with Christ. So we believe that we will also live with him. [9]We know that Christ was raised from the dead and will never die again. Death doesn't control him anymore. [10]When he died, he died once and for all time. He did this to break the power of sin. Now that he lives, he lives in the power of God.

[11]In the same way, consider yourselves to be dead as far as sin is concerned.
Now you believe in Christ Jesus. So consider yourselves to be alive as far as God is concerned. [12]So don't let sin rule your body, which is going to die. Don't obey its evil desires. [13]Don't give any part of yourself to serve sin. Don't let any part of yourself be used to do evil. Instead, give yourselves to God. You have been brought from death to life. So give every part of yourself to God to do what is right. [14]Sin will no longer control you like a master. That's because the law does not rule you. God's grace has set you free.

Slaves to Right Living

[15]What should we say then? Should we sin because we are not ruled by the law but by God's grace? Not at all! [16]Don't you know that when you give yourselves to obey someone you become that person's slave? If you are slaves of sin, then you will die. But if you are slaves who obey God, then you will live a godly life. [17]You used to be slaves of sin. But thank God that with your whole heart you obeyed the teachings you were given! [18]You have been set free from sin. You have become slaves to right living.

[19]Because you are human, you find this hard to understand. So I am using an everyday example to help you understand. You used to give yourselves to be slaves to unclean living. You were becoming more and more evil. Now give yourselves to be slaves to right living. Then you will become holy. [20]Once you were slaves of sin. At that time right living did not control you. [21]What benefit did you gain from doing the things you are now ashamed of? Those things lead to death! [22]You have been set free from sin. God has made you his slaves. The benefit you gain leads to holy living. And the end result is eternal life. [23]When you sin, the pay you get is death. But God gives you the gift of eternal life. That’s because of what Christ Jesus our Lord has done.

Romans 7

An Example From Marriage

[1]Brothers and sisters, I am speaking to you who know the law. Don't you know that the law has authority over someone only as long as they live? [2]For example, by law a married woman remains married as long as her husband lives. But suppose her husband dies. Then the law that joins her to him no longer applies. [3]But suppose that married woman sleeps with another man while her husband is still alive. Then she is called a woman who commits adultery. But suppose her husband dies. Then she is free from that law. She is not guilty of adultery if she marries another man.

[4]My brothers and sisters, when Christ died you also died as far as the law is concerned. Then it became possible for you to belong to him. He was raised from the dead. Now our lives can be useful to God. [5]The power of sin used to control us. The law stirred up sinful desires in us. So the things we did resulted in death. [6]But now we have died to what used to control us. We have been set free from the law. Now we serve in the new way of the Holy Spirit. We no longer serve in the old way of the written law.

The Law and Sin

[7]What should we say then? That the law is sinful? Not at all! Yet I wouldn't have known what sin was unless the law had told me. The law says, "Do not want what belongs to other people." (Exodus 20:17; Deuteronomy 5:21) If the law hadn't said that, I would not have known what it was like to want what belongs to others. [8]But the commandment gave sin an opportunity. Sin caused me to want all kinds of things that belong to others. A person can't sin by breaking a law if that law doesn't exist. [9]Before I knew about the law, I was alive. But then the commandment came. Sin came to life, and I died. [10]I found that the commandment that was supposed to bring life actually brought death. [11]When the commandment gave sin the opportunity, sin tricked me. It used the commandment to put me to death. [12]So the law is holy. The commandment also is holy and right and good.

[13]Did what is good cause me to die? Not at all! Sin had to be recognized for what it really is. So it used what is good to bring about my death. Because of the commandment, sin became totally sinful.

[14]We know that the law is holy. But I am not. I have been sold to be a slave of sin. [15]I don’t understand what I do. I don’t do what I want to do. Instead, I do what I hate to do. [16]I do what I don’t want to do. So I agree that the law is good. [17]As it is, I am no longer the one who does these things. It is sin living in me that does them. [18]I know there is nothing good in my desires controlled by sin. I want to do what is good, but I can’t. [19]I don’t do the good things I want to do. I keep on doing the evil things I don’t want to do. [20]I do what I don’t want to do. But I am not really the one who is doing it. It is sin living in me that does it.

[21]Here is the law I find working in me. When I want to do good, evil is right there with me. [22]Deep inside me I find joy in God’s law. [23]But I see another law working in me. It fights against the law of my mind. It makes me a prisoner of the law of sin. That law controls me. [24]What a terrible failure I am! Who will save me from this sin that brings death to my body? [25]I give thanks to God who saves me. He saves me through Jesus Christ our Lord.

So in my mind I am a slave to God’s law. But sin controls my desires. So I am a slave to the law of sin.

Romans 8

The Holy Spirit Gives Life

[1]Those who belong to Christ Jesus are no longer under God's judgment. [2]Because of what Christ Jesus has done, you are free. You are now controlled by the law of the Holy Spirit who gives you life. The law of the Spirit frees you from the law of sin that brings death. [3]The written law was made weak by the power of sin. But God did what the written law could not do. He made his Son to be like those who live under the power of sin. God sent him to be an offering for sin. Jesus suffered God's judgment against our sin. [4]Jesus does for us everything the holy law requires. The power of sin should no longer control the way we live. The Holy Spirit should control the way we live.

[5]So don't live under the control of sin. If you do, you will think about what sin wants. Live under the control of the Holy Spirit. If you do, you will think about what the Spirit wants. [6]The thoughts of a person ruled by sin bring death. But the mind ruled by the Spirit brings life and peace. [7]The mind ruled by the power of sin is at war with God. It does not obey God's law. It can't. [8]Those who are under the power of sin can't please God.

[9]But you are not ruled by the power of sin. Instead, the Holy Spirit rules over you. This is true if the Spirit of God lives in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to Christ. [10]If Christ lives in you, you will live. Though your body will die because of sin, the Spirit gives you life. The Spirit does this because you have been made right with God. [11]The Spirit of the God who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you. So the God who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your bodies. He will do this because of his Spirit who lives in you.

[12]Brothers and sisters, we have a duty. Our duty is not to live under the power of sin. [13]If you live under the power of sin, you will die. But by the Spirit's power you can put to death the sins you commit. Then you will live.

[14]Those who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. [15]The Spirit you received doesn't make you slaves. Otherwise you would live in fear again. Instead, the Holy Spirit you received made you God's adopted child. By the Spirit's power we call God Abba. Abba means Father. [16]The Spirit himself joins with our spirits. Together they tell us that we are God's children. [17]As his children, we will receive all that he has for us. We will share what Christ receives. But we must share in his sufferings if we want to share in his glory.

Suffering Now and Glory in the Future

18 What we are suffering now is nothing compared with our future glory.
19 Everything God created looks forward to the future. That will be the time when his children appear in their full and final glory. 20 The created world was held back from fulfilling its purpose. But this was not the result of its own choice. It was planned that way by the one who held it back. God planned 21 to set the created world free. He didn't want it to rot away. Instead, God wanted it to have the same freedom and glory that his children have.

22 We know that all that God created has been groaning. It is in pain as if it were giving birth to a child. The created world continues to groan even now.
23 And that's not all. We have the Holy Spirit as the promise of future blessing.
But we also groan inside ourselves. We do this as we look forward to the time when God adopts us as full members of his family. Then he will give us everything he has for us. He will raise our bodies and give glory to them.
24 That's the hope we had when we were saved. But hope that can be seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what they already have? 25 We hope for what we don't have yet. So we are patient as we wait for it.

26 In the same way, the Holy Spirit helps us when we are weak. We don't know what we should pray for. But the Spirit himself prays for us. He prays through groans too deep for words. 27 God, who looks into our hearts, knows the mind of the Spirit. And the Spirit prays for God's people just as God wants him to pray.

28 We know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him.
He appointed them to be saved in keeping with his purpose. 29 God planned that those he had chosen would become like his Son. In that way, Christ will be the first and most honored among many brothers and sisters. 30 And those God has planned for, he has also appointed to be saved. Those he has appointed, he has made right with himself. To those he has made right with himself, he has given his glory.

We Are More Than Winners

31 What should we say then? Since God is on our side, who can be against us?
32 God did not spare his own Son. He gave him up for us all. Then won't he also freely give us everything else? 33 Who can bring any charge against God's chosen ones? God makes us right with himself. [34]Then who can sentence us to death? No one. Christ Jesus is at the right hand of God and is also praying for us. He died. More than that, he was raised to life. [35]Who can separate us from Christ's love? Can trouble or hard times or harm or hunger? Can nakedness or danger or war? [36]It is written,

> "Because of you, we face death all day long.
> We are considered as sheep to be killed." (Psalm 44:22)

[37]No! In all these things we are more than winners! We owe it all to Christ, who has loved us. [38]I am absolutely sure that not even death or life can separate us from God's love. Not even angels or demons, the present or the future, or any powers can separate us. [39]Not even the highest places or the lowest, or anything else in all creation can separate us. Nothing at all can ever separate us from God's love. That's because of what Christ Jesus our Lord has done.

Romans 9

Paul Mourns for Israel

[1]I speak the truth in Christ. I am not lying. My mind tells me that what I say is true. It is guided by the Holy Spirit. [2]My heart is full of sorrow. My sadness never ends. [3]I am so concerned about my people, who are members of my own race. I am ready to be cursed, if that would help them. I am even willing to be separated from Christ. [4]They are the people of Israel. They have been adopted as God's children. God's glory belongs to them. So do the covenants. They received the law. They were taught to worship in the temple. They were given the promises. [5]The founders of our nation belong to them. The Messiah comes from their family line. He is God over all. May he always be praised! Amen.

God's Free Choice

[6]I do not mean that God's word has failed. Not everyone in the family line of Israel really belongs to Israel. [7]Not everyone in Abraham's family line is really his child. Not at all! Scripture says, "Your family line will continue through Isaac." (Genesis 21:12) [8]In other words, God's children are not just in the family line of Abraham. Instead, they are the children God promised to him. They are the ones considered to be Abraham's children. [9]God promised, "I will return at the appointed time. Sarah will have a son." (Genesis 18:10, 14)

[10]And that's not all. Rebekah's children were born at the same time by the same father. He was our father Isaac. [11]Here is what happened. Rebekah's twins had not even been born. They hadn't done anything good or bad yet. So they show that God's purpose is based firmly on his free choice. [12]It was not because of anything they did but because of God's choice. So Rebekah was told, "The older son will serve the younger one." (Genesis 25:23) [13]It is written, "I chose Jacob instead of Esau." (Malachi 1:2, 3)

[14]What should we say then? Is God unfair? Not at all! [15]He said to Moses,

> "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy.
> I will show love to those I love." (Exodus 33:19)

[16]So it doesn't depend on what people want or what they do. It depends on God's mercy. [17]In Scripture, God says to Pharaoh, "I had a special reason for making you king. I decided to use you to show my power. I wanted my name to become known everywhere on earth.” (Exodus 9:16) [18]So God does what he wants to do. He shows mercy to one person and makes another stubborn.

[19]One of you will say to me, “Then why does God still blame us? Who can oppose what he wants to do?” [20]But you are a mere human being. So who are you to talk back to God? Scripture says, “Can what is made say to the one who made it, ‘Why did you make me like this?’ ” (Isaiah 29:16; 45:9) [21]Isn’t the potter free to make different kinds of pots out of the same lump of clay? Some are for special purposes. Others are for ordinary use.

[22]What if God chose to show his great anger? What if he chose to make his power known? But he put up with the people he was angry with. They were made to be destroyed. [23]What if he put up with them to show the riches of his glory to other people? Those other people are the ones he shows his mercy to. He made them to receive his glory. [24]We are those people. He has chosen us. We do not come only from the Jewish race. Many of us are not Jews. [25]God says in Hosea,

> “I will call those who are not my people ‘my people.’
> I will call the one who is not my loved one ‘my loved one.’ ”
> (Hosea 2:23)

[26]He also says,

> “Once it was said to them,
> ‘You are not my people.’
> In that very place they will be called ‘children of the living > God.’ ” (Hosea 1:10)

[27]Isaiah cries out concerning Israel. He says,

> “The number of people from Israel may be like the sand by the sea.
> But only a few of them will be saved.
> [28]The Lord will carry out his sentence.
> He will be quick to carry it out on earth, once and for all.” (Isaiah 10:22, 23)

[29]Earlier Isaiah had said,

“The Lord who rules over all left us children and grandchildren.
If he hadn’t, we would have become like Sodom.
We would have been like Gomorrah.” (Isaiah 1:9)

Israel Does Not Believe

30What should we say then? Gentiles did not look for a way to be right with God. But they found it by having faith. 31The people of Israel tried to obey the law to make themselves right with God. But they didn’t reach their goal of being right with God. 32Why not? Because they tried to do it without faith. They tried to be right with God by what they did. They tripped over the stone that causes people to trip and fall. 33It is written, “Look! In Zion I am laying a stone that causes people to trip.

It is a rock that makes them fall.
The one who believes in him will never be put to shame.” (Isaiah 8:14; 28:16)

Romans 10

[1]Brothers and sisters, with all my heart I long for the people of Israel to be saved. I pray to God for them. [2]I can tell you for certain that they really want to serve God. But how they are trying to do it is not based on knowledge. [3]They didn't know that God's power makes people right with himself. They tried to get right with God in their own way. They didn't do it in God's way. [4]Christ has fulfilled everything the law was meant to do. So now everyone who believes can be right with God.

[5]Moses writes about how the law could help a person do what God requires. He writes, "The person who does these things will live by them." (Leviticus 18:5) [6]But the way to do what God requires must begin by having faith in him. Scripture says, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will go up into heaven?' " (Deuteronomy 30:12) That means to go up into heaven and bring Christ down. [7]"And do not say, 'Who will go down into the grave?' " (Deuteronomy 30:13) That means to bring Christ up from the dead. [8]But what does it say? "The message is near you. It's in your mouth and in your heart." (Deuteronomy 30:14) This means the message about faith that we are preaching. [9]Say with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord." Believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead. Then you will be saved. [10]With your heart you believe and are made right with God. With your mouth you say what you believe. And so you are saved. [11]Scripture says, "The one who believes in him will never be put to shame." (Isaiah 28:16) [12]There is no difference between those who are Jews and those who are not. The same Lord is Lord of all. He richly blesses everyone who calls on him. [13]Scripture says, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved." (Joel 2:32)

[14]How can they call on him unless they believe in him? How can they believe in him unless they hear about him? How can they hear about him unless someone preaches to them? [15]And how can anyone preach without being sent? It is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!" (Isaiah 52:7)

[16]But not all the people of Israel accepted the good news. Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our message?" (Isaiah 53:1) [17]So faith comes from hearing the message. And the message that is heard is the message about Christ. [18]But I ask, "Didn't the people of Israel hear?" Of course they did. It is written,

> "Their voice has gone out into the whole earth.
> Their words have gone out from one end of the world to the other.” (Psalm 19:4)

19 Again I ask, “Didn’t Israel understand?” First, Moses says,

> “I will use people who are not a nation to make you jealous.
> I will use a nation that has no understanding to make you > angry.” (Deuteronomy 32:21)

20 Then Isaiah boldly speaks about what God says. God said,

> “I was found by those who were not trying to find me.
> I made myself known to those who were not asking for me.”
> (Isaiah 65:1)

21 But Isaiah also speaks about what God says concerning Israel. God said,

> “All day long I have held out my hands.
> I have held them out to a stubborn people who do not obey me.”
> (Isaiah 65:2)

Romans 11

The Israelites Who Are Faithful

[1]So here is what I ask. Did God turn his back on his people? Not at all! I myself belong to Israel. I am one of Abraham's children. I am from the tribe of Benjamin. [2]God didn't turn his back on his people. After all, he chose them. Don't you know what Scripture says about Elijah? He complained to God about Israel. [3]He said, "Lord, they have killed your prophets. They have torn down your altars. I'm the only one left. And they are trying to kill me." (1 Kings 19:10, 14)
[4]How did God answer him? God said, "I have kept 7,000 people for myself. They have not bowed down to Baal." (1 Kings 19:18) [5]Some are also faithful today. They have been chosen by God's grace. [6]And if they are chosen by grace, then they can't work for it. If that were true, grace wouldn't be grace anymore.

[7]What should we say then? The people of Israel did not receive what they wanted so badly. Those Israelites who were chosen did receive it. But the rest of the people were made stubborn. [8]It is written,

> "God made it hard for them to understand.
> He gave them eyes that could not see.
> He gave them ears that could not hear.
> And they are still like that today." (Deuteronomy 29:4; Isaiah 29:10)

[9]David says,

> "Let their feast be a trap and a snare.
> Let them trip and fall. Let them get what's coming to them.
> [10]Let their eyes grow dark so they can't see.
> Let their backs be bent forever." (Psalm 69:22, 23)

Two Kinds of Olive Branches

[11]Again, here is what I ask. The Israelites didn't trip and fall once and for all time, did they? Not at all! Because Israel sinned, the Gentiles can be saved. That will make Israel jealous of them. [12]Israel's sin brought riches to the world. Their loss brings riches to the Gentiles. So then what greater riches will come when all Israel turns to God!

13 I am talking to you who are not Jews. I am the apostle to the Gentiles. So I take pride in the work I do for God and others. 14 I hope somehow to stir up my own people to want what you have. Perhaps I can save some of them. 15 When they were not accepted, it became possible for the whole world to be brought back to God. So what will happen when they are accepted? It will be like life from the dead. 16 The first handful of dough that is offered is holy. This makes all of the dough holy. If the root is holy, so are the branches.

17 Some of the natural branches have been broken off. You are a wild olive branch. But you have been joined to the tree with the other branches. Now you enjoy the life-giving sap of the olive tree root. 18 So don't think you are better than the other branches. Remember, you don't give life to the root. The root gives life to you. 19 You will say, "Some branches were broken off so that I could be joined to the tree." 20 That's true. But they were broken off because they didn't believe. You stand only because you do believe. So don't be proud, but tremble.
21 God didn't spare the natural branches. He won't spare you either.

22 Think about how kind God is! Also think about how firm he is! He was hard on those who stopped following him. But he is kind to you. So you must continue to live in his kindness. If you don't, you also will be cut off. 23 If the people of Israel do not continue in their unbelief, they will again be joined to the tree. God is able to join them to the tree again. 24 After all, weren't you cut from a wild olive tree? Weren't you joined to an olive tree that was taken care of? And wasn't that the opposite of how things should be done? How much more easily will the natural branches be joined to their own olive tree!

All Israel Will Be Saved

25 Brothers and sisters, here is a mystery I want you to understand. It will keep you from being proud. Part of Israel has refused to obey God. That will continue until the full number of Gentiles has entered God's kingdom. 26 In this way all Israel will be saved. It is written,

> "The God who saves will come from Mount Zion.
> He will remove sin from Jacob's family.
> 27 Here is my covenant with them.
> I will take away their sins."
> (Isaiah 59:20, 21; 27:9; Jeremiah 31:33, 34)

[28]As far as the good news is concerned, the people of Israel are enemies. This is for your good. But as far as God's choice is concerned, the people of Israel are loved. This is because of God's promises to the founders of our nation. [29]God does not take back his gifts. He does not change his mind about those he has chosen. [30]At one time you did not obey God. But now you have received mercy because Israel did not obey. [31]In the same way, Israel has not been obeying God. But now they receive mercy because of God's mercy to you. [32]God has found everyone guilty of not obeying him. So now he can have mercy on everyone.

Praise to God

[33]How very rich are God's wisdom and knowledge!
How he judges is more than we can understand!
The way he deals with people is more than we can know!
[34]"Who can ever know what the Lord is thinking?
Or who can ever give him advice?" (Isaiah 40:13)
[35]"Has anyone ever given anything to God, so that God has to pay them back?" (Job 41:11)
[36]All things come from him.
All things are directed by him.
All things are for his praise.
May God be given the glory forever! Amen.

Romans 12

Living as a Holy Sacrifice to God

[1]Brothers and sisters, God has shown you his mercy. So I am asking you to offer up your bodies to him while you are still alive. Your bodies are a holy sacrifice that is pleasing to God. When you offer your bodies to God, you are worshiping him in the right way. [2]Don’t live the way this world lives. Let your way of thinking be completely changed. Then you will be able to test what God wants for you. And you will agree that what he wants is right. His plan is good and pleasing and perfect.

Serving One Another in the Body of Christ

[3]God’s grace has been given to me. So here is what I say to every one of you. Don’t think of yourself more highly than you should. Be reasonable when you think about yourself. Keep in mind the faith God has given to each of you. [4]Each of us has one body with many parts. And the parts do not all have the same purpose. [5]So also we are many persons. But in Christ we are one body. And each part of the body belongs to all the other parts. [6]We all have gifts. They differ according to the grace God has given to each of us. Do you have the gift of prophecy? Then use it according to the faith you have. [7]If your gift is serving, then serve. If it is teaching, then teach. [8]Is it encouraging others? Then encourage them. Is it giving to others? Then give freely. Is it being a leader? Then work hard at it. Is it showing mercy? Then do it cheerfully.

Love in Action

[9]Love must be honest and true. Hate what is evil. Hold on to what is good. [10]Love one another deeply. Honor others more than yourselves. [11]Stay excited about your faith as you serve the Lord. [12]When you hope, be joyful. When you suffer, be patient. When you pray, be faithful. [13]Share with the Lord’s people who are in need. Welcome others into your homes.

[14]Bless those who hurt you. Bless them, and do not curse them. [15]Be joyful with those who are joyful. Be sad with those who are sad. [16]Agree with one another. Don’t be proud. Be willing to be a friend of people who aren’t considered important. Don’t think that you are better than others.

[17]Don’t pay back evil with evil. Be careful to do what everyone thinks is right.
[18]If possible, live in peace with everyone. Do that as much as you can. [19]My dear friends, don’t try to get even. Leave room for God to show his anger. It is written, “I am the God who judges people. I will pay them back,” (Deuteronomy 32:35) says the Lord. [20]Do just the opposite. Scripture says, > “If your enemies are hungry, give them food to eat.

> If they are thirsty, give them something to drink.
> By doing those things, you will pile up burning coals on their > heads.” (Proverbs 25:21, 22)

[21]Don’t let evil overcome you. Overcome evil by doing good.

Romans 13

Obey Those in Authority

[1]All of you must obey those who rule over you. There are no authorities except the ones God has chosen. Those who now rule have been chosen by God.
[2]So whoever opposes the authorities opposes leaders whom God has appointed.
Those who do that will be judged. [3]If you do what is right, you won't need to be afraid of your rulers. But watch out if you do what is wrong! You don't want to be afraid of those in authority, do you? Then do what is right, and you will be praised. [4]The one in authority serves God for your good. But if you do wrong, watch out! Rulers don't carry a sword for no reason at all. They serve God. And God is carrying out his anger through them. The ruler punishes anyone who does wrong. [5]You must obey the authorities. Then you will not be punished. You must also obey them because you know it is right.

[6]That's also why you pay taxes. The authorities serve God. Ruling takes up all their time. [7]Give to everyone what you owe them. Do you owe taxes? Then pay them. Do you owe anything else to the government? Then pay it. Do you owe respect? Then give it. Do you owe honor? Then show it.

Love Fulfills the Law

[8]Pay everything you owe. But you can never pay back all the love you owe one another. Whoever loves other people has done everything the law requires.
[9]Here are some commandments to think about. "Do not commit adultery." "Do not commit murder." "Do not steal." "Do not want what belongs to others."
(Exodus 20:13–15, 17; Deuteronomy 5:17–19, 21) These and all other commands are included in one command. Here's what it is. "Love your neighbor as you love yourself." (Leviticus 19:18) [10]Love does not harm its neighbor. So love does everything the law requires.

The Day Is Near

[11]When you do these things, keep in mind the times we are living in. The hour has already come for you to wake up from your sleep. The full effects of our salvation are closer now than when we first believed in Christ. [12]The dark night of evil is nearly over. The day of Christ's return is almost here. So let us get rid of the works of darkness that harm us. Let us do the works of light that protect us. [13]Let us act as we should, like people living in the daytime. Have nothing to do with wild parties, and don’t get drunk. Don’t take part in sexual sins or evil conduct. Don’t fight with each other or be jealous of anyone. [14]Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ as if he were your clothing. Don’t think about how to satisfy sinful desires.

Romans 14

The Weak and the Strong

[1]Accept the person whose faith is weak. Don’t argue with them where you have differences of opinion. [2]One person’s faith allows them to eat anything. But another person eats only vegetables because their faith is weak. [3]The person who eats everything must not look down on the one who does not. And the one who doesn’t eat everything must not judge the person who does. That’s because God has accepted them. [4]Who are you to judge someone else’s servant? Whether they are faithful or not is their own master’s concern. And they will be faithful, because the Lord has the power to make them faithful.

[5]One person considers one day to be more holy than another. Another person thinks all days are the same. Each of them should be absolutely sure in their own mind. [6]Whoever thinks that one day is special does so to honor the Lord.
Whoever eats meat does so to honor the Lord. They give thanks to God. And whoever doesn’t eat meat does so to honor the Lord. They also give thanks to God. [7]We don’t live for ourselves only. And we don’t die for ourselves only. [8]If we live, we live to honor the Lord. If we die, we die to honor the Lord. So whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. [9]Christ died and came back to life. He did this to become the Lord of both the dead and the living.

[10]Now then, who are you to judge your brother or sister? Why do you act like you’re better than they are? We will all stand in God’s courtroom to be judged.
[11]It is written,

> “ ‘You can be sure that I live,’ says the Lord.
> ‘And you can be just as sure that everyone will kneel down down > in front of me.
> Every tongue will have to tell the truth about God.’ ” (Isaiah 45:23)

[12]So we will all have to explain to God the things we have done.

[13]Let us stop judging one another. Instead, decide not to put anything in the way of a brother or sister. Don’t put anything in their way that would make them trip and fall. [14]I am absolutely sure that nothing is “unclean” in itself. The Lord Jesus has convinced me of this. But someone may consider a thing to be “unclean.” If they do, it is “unclean” for them. [15]Your brother or sister may be upset by what you eat. If they are, you are no longer acting as though you love them. So don’t destroy them by what you eat. Remember that Christ died for them. [16]So suppose you know something is good. Then don’t let it be spoken of as if it were evil. [17]God’s kingdom is not about eating or drinking. It is about doing what is right and having peace and joy. All this comes through the Holy Spirit. [18]Those who serve Christ in this way are pleasing to God. They are pleasing to people too.

[19]So let us do all we can to live in peace. And let us work hard to build up one another. [20]Don’t destroy the work of God because of food. All food is “clean.” But it’s wrong to eat anything that might cause problems for someone else’s faith. [21]Don’t eat meat if it causes your brother or sister to sin. Don’t drink wine or do anything else that will make them sin.

[22]Whatever you believe about these things, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the person who doesn’t feel guilty for what they do. [23]But whoever has doubts about what they eat is guilty if they eat. That’s because their eating is not based on faith. Everything that is not based on faith is sin.

Romans 15

[1]We who have strong faith should help the weak with their problems. We should not please only ourselves. [2]Each of us should please our neighbors. Let us do what is good for them in order to build them up. [3]Even Christ did not please himself. It is written, “The bad things people have said about you have been aimed at me also.” (Psalm 69:9) [4]Everything written in the past was written to teach us. The Scriptures give us strength to go on. They encourage us and give us hope.

[5]Our God is a God who strengthens and encourages you. May he give you the same attitude toward one another that Christ Jesus had. [6]Then you can give glory to God with one mind and voice. He is the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

[7]Christ has accepted you. So accept one another in order to bring praise to God. [8]I tell you that Christ has become a servant of the Jews. He teaches us that God is true. He shows us that God will keep the promises he made to the founders of our nation. [9]Jesus became a servant of the Jews. He did this so that the Gentiles might give glory to God for his mercy. It is written,

> “I will praise you among the Gentiles.
> I will sing the praises of your name.”
> (2 Samuel 22:50; Psalm 18:49)

[10]Again it says,

> “You Gentiles, be full of joy.
> Be joyful together with God’s people.” (Deuteronomy 32:43)

[11]And again it says,

> “All you Gentiles, praise the Lord.
> Let all the nations sing praises to him.” (Psalm 117:1)

[12]And Isaiah says,

> “The Root of Jesse will grow up quickly.
> He will rule over the nations.

The Gentiles will put their hope in him.” (Isaiah 11:10)

13May the God who gives hope fill you with great joy. May you have perfect peace as you trust in him. May the power of the Holy Spirit fill you with hope.

Paul Serves the Gentiles

14My brothers and sisters, I am sure that you are full of goodness. You are filled with knowledge and able to teach one another. 15But I have written to you very boldly about some things. I wanted to remind you of them again. The grace of God has allowed me 16to serve Christ Jesus among the Gentiles. I have the duty of a priest to preach God’s good news. Then the Gentiles will become an offering that pleases God. The Holy Spirit will make the offering holy.

17Because I belong to Christ Jesus, I can take pride in my work for God. 18I will speak about what Christ has done through me. I won’t try to speak about anything else. He has been leading the Gentiles to obey God. He has been doing this by what I have said and done. 19He has given me power to do signs and wonders. I can do these things by the power of the Spirit of God. From Jerusalem all the way around to Illyricum I have finished preaching. In those places, I preached the good news about Christ. 20I have always wanted to preach the good news where Christ was not known. I don’t want to build on what someone else has started. 21It is written,

> “Those who were not told about him will understand.
> Those who have not heard will know what it all means.” (Isaiah 52:15)

22That’s why I have often been kept from coming to you.

Paul Plans to Visit Rome

23Now there is no more place for me to work in those areas. For many years I have wanted to visit you. 24So I plan to see you when I go to Spain. I hope to visit you while I am passing through. And I hope you will help me on my journey there. But first I want to enjoy being with you for a while. 25Now I am on my way to Jerusalem to serve the Lord’s people there. 26The believers in Macedonia and Achaia were pleased to take an offering. It was for those who were poor among the Lord’s people in Jerusalem. 27They were happy to do it.

And of course they owe it to them. The Gentiles have shared in the Jews' spiritual blessings. So the Gentiles should share their earthly blessings with the Jews. [28]I want to finish my task. I want to make sure that the poor in Jerusalem have received this offering. Then I will go to Spain. On my way I will visit you. [29]I know that when I come to you, I will come with the full blessing of Christ.

[30]Brothers and sisters, I ask you to join me in my struggle. Join me by praying to God for me. I ask this through the authority of our Lord Jesus Christ. Pray for me with the love the Holy Spirit provides. [31]Pray that I will be kept safe from those in Judea who do not believe. I am taking the offering to Jerusalem. Pray that it will be welcomed by the Lord's people there. [32]Then I will come to you with joy just as God has planned. We will be renewed by being together. [33]May the God who gives peace be with you all. Amen.

Romans 16

Personal Greetings

[1]I would like you to welcome our sister Phoebe. She is a deacon of the church in Cenchreae. [2]I ask you to receive her as one who belongs to the Lord. Receive her in the way God's people should. Give her any help she may need from you.
She has been a great help to many people, including me.

[3]Greet Priscilla and Aquila. They work together with me in serving Christ Jesus. [4]They have put their lives in danger for me. I am thankful for them. So are all the Gentile churches.

[5]Greet also the church that meets in the house of Priscilla and Aquila.

Greet my dear friend Epenetus. He was the first person in Asia Minor to become a believer in Christ.

[6]Greet Mary. She worked very hard for you.

[7]Greet Andronicus and Junia, my fellow Jews. They have been in prison with me. They are leaders among the apostles. They became believers in Christ before I did.

[8]Greet Ampliatus, my dear friend in the Lord.

[9]Greet Urbanus. He works together with me in serving Christ. And greet my dear friend Stachys.

[10]Greet Apelles. He remained faithful to Christ even when he was tested.

Greet those who live in the house of Aristobulus.

[11]Greet Herodion, my fellow Jew.

Greet the believers who live in the house of Narcissus.

[12]Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa. Those women work hard for the Lord.

Greet my dear friend Persis. She is another woman who has worked very hard for the Lord.

[13]Greet Rufus. He is a chosen believer in the Lord. And greet his mother. She has been like a mother to me too.

[14]Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon and Hermes. Greet Patrobas, Hermas and the other brothers and sisters with them.

[15]Greet Philologus, Julia, Nereus and his sister. Greet Olympas and all of the Lord's people who are with them.

[16]Greet one another with a holy kiss.

All the churches of Christ send their greetings.

17 I am warning you, brothers and sisters, to watch out for those who try to keep you from staying together. They want to trip you up. They teach you things opposite to what you have learned. Stay away from them. 18 People like that are not serving Christ our Lord. They are serving only themselves. With smooth talk and with words they don't mean they fool people who don't know any better. 19 Everyone has heard that you obey God. So you have filled me with joy. I want you to be wise about what is good. And I want you to have nothing to do with what is evil.

20 The God who gives peace will soon crush Satan under your feet.

May the grace of our Lord Jesus be with you.

21 Timothy works together with me. He sends his greetings to you. So do Lucius, Jason and Sosipater, my fellow Jews.
22 I, Tertius, wrote down this letter. I greet you as a believer in the Lord.
23-24 Gaius sends you his greetings. He has welcomed me and the whole church here into his house.
Erastus is the director of public works here in the city. He sends you his greetings. Our brother Quartus also greets you.

25 May God receive glory. He is able to strengthen your faith. He does this in keeping with the good news and the message I preach. It is the message about Jesus Christ. This message is in keeping with the mystery hidden for a very long time. 26 The mystery has now been made known through the writings of the prophets. The eternal God commanded that it be made known. God wanted all the Gentiles to obey him by trusting in him. 27 May the only wise God receive glory forever through Jesus Christ. Amen.

1 Corinthians

1 Corinthians 1

[1]I, Paul, am writing this letter. I have been chosen to be an apostle of Christ Jesus just as God planned. Our brother Sosthenes joins me in writing.

[2]We are sending this letter to you, the members of God's church in Corinth.
You have been made holy because you belong to Christ Jesus. God has chosen you to be his holy people. He has done the same for all people everywhere who pray to our Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus is their Lord and ours.

[3]May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Paul Gives Thanks

[4]I always thank my God for you. I thank him because of the grace he has given to you who belong to Christ Jesus. [5]You have been blessed in every way because of him. You have been blessed in all your speech and knowledge. [6]God has shown that what we have spoken to you about Christ is true. [7]There is no gift of the Holy Spirit that you don't have. You are full of hope as you wait for our Lord Jesus Christ to come again. [8]God will also keep you strong in faith to the very end. Then you will be without blame on the day our Lord Jesus Christ returns. [9]God is faithful. He has chosen you to share life with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Taking Sides in the Church

[10]Brothers and sisters, I make my appeal to you. I do this in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. I ask that all of you agree with one another in what you say. I ask that you don't take sides. I ask that you are in complete agreement in all that you think. [11]My brothers and sisters, I have been told you are arguing with one another. Some people from Chloe's house have told me this. [12]Here is what I mean. One of you says, "I follow Paul." Another says, "I follow Apollos."
Another says, "I follow Peter." And still another says, "I follow Christ."

[13]Does Christ take sides? Did Paul die on the cross for you? Were you baptized in the name of Paul? [14]I thank God that I didn't baptize any of you except Crispus and Gaius. [15]No one can say that you were baptized in my name. [16]It's true that I also baptized those who live in the house of Stephanas. Besides that, I don't remember if I baptized anyone else. [17]Christ did not send me to baptize. He sent me to preach the good news. He commanded me not to preach with wisdom and fancy words. That would take all the power away from the cross of Christ.

Christ Is God's Power and Wisdom

[18]The message of the cross seems foolish to those who are lost and dying. But it is God's power to us who are being saved. [19]It is written,

> "I will destroy the wisdom of those who are wise.
> I will do away with the cleverness of those who think they are > so smart." (Isaiah 29:14)

[20]Where is the wise person? Where is the teacher of the law? Where are the great thinkers of our time? Hasn't God made the wisdom of the world foolish? [21]God wisely planned that the world would not know him through its own wisdom. It pleased God to use the foolish things we preach to save those who believe. [22]Jews require signs. Greeks look for wisdom. [23]But we preach about Christ and his death on the cross. That is very hard for Jews to accept. And everyone else thinks it's foolish. [24]But there are those God has chosen, both Jews and Greeks. To them Christ is God's power and God's wisdom. [25]The foolish things of God are wiser than human wisdom. The weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

[26]Brothers and sisters, think of what you were when God chose you. Not many of you were considered wise by human standards. Not many of you were powerful. Not many of you belonged to important families. [27]But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise. God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. [28]God chose the things of this world that are common and looked down on. God chose things considered unimportant to do away with things considered important. [29]So no one can boast to God. [30]Because of what God has done, you belong to Christ Jesus. He has become God's wisdom for us. He makes us right with God. He makes us holy and sets us free. [31]It is written, "The one who boasts should boast about what the Lord has done." (Jeremiah 9:24)

1 Corinthians 2

[1]And this was the way it was with me, brothers and sisters. When I came to you, I didn't come with fancy words or human wisdom. I preached to you the truth about God's love. [2]My goal while I was with you was to talk about only one thing. And that was Jesus Christ and his death on the cross. [3]When I came to you, I was weak and very afraid and trembling all over. [4]I didn't preach my message with clever and compelling words. Instead, my preaching showed the Holy Spirit's power. [5]This was so that your faith would be based on God's power. Your faith would not be based on human wisdom.

God's Wisdom Through the Holy Spirit

[6]The words we speak to those who have grown in the faith are wise. Our words are different from the wisdom of this world. Our words are different from those of the rulers of this world. These rulers are becoming less and less powerful. [7]No, we announce God's wisdom. His wisdom is a mystery that has been hidden. But before time began, God planned that his wisdom would bring us heavenly glory. [8]None of the rulers of this world understood God's wisdom. If they had, they would not have nailed the Lord of glory to the cross. [9]It is written that

> "no eye has seen,
> no ear has heard,
> and no human mind has known." (Isaiah 64:4)
> God has prepared these things for those who love him.

[10]God has shown these things to us through his Spirit.
The Spirit understands all things. He understands even the deep things of God.
[11]Who can know the thoughts of another person? Only a person's own spirit can know them. In the same way, only the Spirit of God knows God's thoughts.
[12]What we have received is not the spirit of the world. We have received the Spirit who is from God. The Spirit helps us understand what God has freely given us. [13]That is what we speak about. We don't use words taught to us by people. We use words taught to us by the Holy Spirit. We use the words taught by the Spirit to explain spiritual truths. [14]The person without the Spirit doesn't accept the things that come from the Spirit of God. These things are foolish to them. They can’t understand them. In fact, such things can’t be understood without the Spirit’s help. 15The person who has the Spirit can judge all things. But no human being can judge those who have the Spirit. It is written, > 16“Who can ever know what is in the Lord’s mind?

> Can anyone ever teach him?” (Isaiah 40:13)

But we have the mind of Christ.

1 Corinthians 3

The Church and Its Leaders

[1]Brothers and sisters, I couldn’t speak to you as people who live by the Holy Spirit. I had to speak to you as people who were still following the ways of the world. You aren’t growing as Christ wants you to. You are still like babies. [2]The words I spoke to you were like milk, not like solid food. You weren’t ready for solid food yet. And you still aren’t ready for it. [3]You are still following the ways of the world. Some of you are jealous. Some of you argue. So aren’t you following the ways of the world? Aren’t you acting like ordinary human beings?
[4]One of you says, “I follow Paul.” Another says, “I follow Apollos.” Aren’t you acting like ordinary human beings?

[5]After all, what is Apollos? And what is Paul? We are only people who serve.
We helped you to believe. The Lord has given each of us our own work to do. [6]I planted the seed. Apollos watered it. But God has been making it grow. [7]So the one who plants is not important. The one who waters is not important. It is God who makes things grow. He is the important one. [8]The one who plants and the one who waters have the same purpose. The Lord will give each of them a reward for their work. [9]We work together to serve God. You are like God’s field.
You are like his building.

[10]God has given me the grace to lay a foundation as a wise builder. Now someone else is building on it. But each one should build carefully. [11]No one can lay any other foundation than what has already been laid. That foundation is Jesus Christ. [12]A person may build on it using gold, silver, jewels, wood, hay or straw. [13]But each person’s work will be shown for what it is. On judgment day it will be brought to light. It will be put through fire. The fire will test how good each person’s work is. [14]If the building doesn’t burn up, God will give the builder a reward for the work. [15]If the building burns up, the builder will lose everything. The builder will be saved, but only like one escaping through the flames.

[16]Don’t you know that you yourselves are God’s temple? Don’t you know that God’s Spirit lives among you? [17]If anyone destroys God’s temple, God will destroy that person. God’s temple is holy. And you all together are that temple.

[18]Don’t fool yourselves. Suppose some of you think you are wise by the standards of the world. Then you should become “fools” so that you can become wise. [19]The wisdom of this world is foolish in God's eyes. It is written, "God catches wise people in their own evil plans." (Job 5:13) [20]It is also written, "The Lord knows that the thoughts of wise people don't amount to anything." (Psalm 94:11) [21]So no more bragging about human leaders! All things are yours. [22]That means Paul or Apollos or Peter or the world or life or death or the present or the future. All are yours. [23]You are joined to Christ and belong to him. And Christ is joined to God.

1 Corinthians 4

True Apostles of Christ

[1]So here is how you should think of us. We serve Christ. We are trusted with the mysteries God has shown us. [2]Those who have been given a trust must prove that they are faithful. [3]I care very little if I am judged by you or by any human court. I don't even judge myself. [4]I don't feel I have done anything wrong. But that doesn't mean I'm not guilty. The Lord judges me. [5]So don't judge anything before the appointed time. Wait until the Lord returns. He will bring to light what is hidden in the dark. He will show the real reasons why people do what they do. At that time each person will receive their praise from God.

[6]Brothers and sisters, I have used myself and Apollos as examples to help you.
You can learn from us the meaning of the saying, "Don't go beyond what is written." Then you won't be proud that you follow one of us instead of the other.
[7]Who makes you different from anyone else? What do you have that you did not receive? And if you did receive it, why do you brag as though you did not?

[8]You already have everything you want, don't you? Have you already become rich? Have you already begun to rule? And did you do that without us? I wish that you really had begun to rule. Then we could also rule with you! [9]It seems to me that God has put us apostles on display at the end of a parade. We are like people sentenced to die in front of a crowd. We have been made a show for the whole creation to see. Angels and people are staring at us. [10]We are fools for Christ. But you are so wise in Christ! We are weak. But you are so strong! You are honored. But we are looked down on! [11]Up to this very hour we are hungry and thirsty. We are dressed in rags. We are being treated badly. We have no homes. [12]We work hard with our own hands. When others curse us, we bless them. When we are attacked, we put up with it. [13]When others say bad things about us, we answer with kind words. We have become the world's garbage. We are everybody's trash, right up to this moment.

Paul Warns Against Pride

[14]I am not writing this to shame you. You are my dear children, and I want to warn you. [15]Suppose you had 10,000 believers in Christ watching over you. You still wouldn't have many fathers. I became your father by serving Christ Jesus and telling you the good news. [16]So I’m asking you to follow my example. [17]That’s the reason I have sent Timothy to you. He is like a son to me, and I love him. He is faithful in serving the Lord. He will remind you of my way of life in serving Christ Jesus. And that agrees with what I teach everywhere in every church.

[18]Some of you have become proud. You act as if I weren’t coming to you. [19]But I will come very soon, if that’s what the Lord wants. Then I will find out how those proud people are talking. I will also find out what power they have. [20]The kingdom of God is not a matter of talk. It is a matter of power. [21]Which do you want? Should I come to you to correct and punish you? Or should I come in love and with a gentle spirit?

1 Corinthians 5

Throw Out the Evil Person!

[1]It is actually reported that there is sexual sin among you. I'm told that a man is sleeping with his father's wife. Even people who don't know God don't let that kind of sin continue. [2]And you are proud! Shouldn't you be very sad instead? Shouldn't you have thrown out of your church the man doing this? [3]Even though I am not right there with you, I am with you in spirit. And because I am with you in spirit, I have already judged the man doing this. I have judged him in the name of our Lord Jesus. [4]So when you come together, I will be with you in spirit. The power of our Lord Jesus will also be with you. [5]When you come together like this, hand this man over to Satan. Then the power of sin in his life will be destroyed. His spirit will be saved on the day the Lord returns.

[6]Your bragging is not good. It is like yeast. Don't you know that just a little yeast makes the whole batch of dough rise? [7]Get rid of the old yeast. Then you can be like a new batch of dough without yeast. That is what you really are. That's because Christ, our Passover Lamb, has been offered up for us. [8]So let us keep the Feast, but not with the old bread made with yeast. The yeast I'm talking about is hatred and evil. Let us keep the Feast with bread made without yeast. Let us keep it with bread that is honesty and truth.

[9]I wrote a letter to you to tell you to stay away from people who commit sexual sins. [10]I didn't mean the people of this world who sin in this way. I didn't mean those who always want more and more. I didn't mean those who cheat or who worship statues of gods. In that case you would have to leave this world! [11]But here is what I am writing to you now. You must stay away from anyone who claims to be a believer but does evil things. Stay away from anyone who commits sexual sins. Stay away from anyone who always wants more and more things. Stay away from anyone who worships statues of gods. Stay away from anyone who tells lies about others. Stay away from anyone who gets drunk or who cheats. Don't even eat with people like these.

[12]Is it my business to judge those outside the church? Aren't you supposed to judge those inside the church? [13]God will judge those outside. Scripture says, "Get rid of that evil person!" (Deuteronomy 17:7; 19:19; 21:21; 22:21, 24; 24:7)

1 Corinthians 6

Do Not Take Believers to Court

[1]Suppose one of you wants to bring a charge against another believer. Should you take it to ungodly people to be judged? Why not take it to the Lord's people? [2]Or don't you know that the Lord's people will judge the world? Since this is true, aren't you able to judge small cases? [3]Don't you know that we will judge angels? Then we should be able to judge the things of this life even more! [4]So suppose you disagree with one another in matters like this. Who do you ask to decide which of you is right? Do you ask people who live in a way the church disapproves of? Of course not! [5]I say this to shame you. Is it possible that no one among you is wise enough to judge matters between believers? [6]Instead, one believer goes to court against another. And this happens in front of unbelievers!

[7]When you take another believer to court, you have lost the battle already. Why not be treated wrongly? Why not be cheated? [8]Instead, you yourselves cheat and do wrong. And you do it to your brothers and sisters. [9]Don't you know that people who do wrong will not receive God's kingdom? Don't be fooled. Those who commit sexual sins will not receive the kingdom. Neither will those who worship statues of gods or commit adultery. Neither will men who sleep with other men. [10]Neither will thieves or those who always want more and more. Neither will those who are often drunk or tell lies or cheat. People who live like that will not receive God's kingdom. [11]Some of you used to do those things. But your sins were washed away. You were made holy. You were made right with God. All of this was done in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. It was also done by the Spirit of our God.

Sexual Sins

[12]Some of you say, "I have the right to do anything." But not everything is helpful. Again some of you say, "I have the right to do anything." But I will not be controlled by anything. [13]Some of you say, "Food is for the stomach, and the stomach is for food. And God will destroy both of them." But the body is not meant for sexual sins. The body is meant for the Lord. And the Lord is meant for the body. [14]By his power God raised the Lord from the dead. He will also raise us up. [15]Don't you know that your bodies belong to the body of Christ? Should I take what belongs to Christ and join it to a prostitute? Never! [16]When you join yourself to a prostitute, you become one with her in body. Don’t you know this? Scripture says, “The two will become one.” (Genesis 2:24) [17]But whoever is joined to the Lord becomes one with him in spirit.

[18]Keep far away from sexual sins. All the other sins a person commits are outside the body. But sexual sins are sins against their own body. [19]Don’t you know that your bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit? The Spirit is in you, and you have received the Spirit from God. You do not belong to yourselves. [20]Christ has paid the price for you. So use your bodies in a way that honors God.

1 Corinthians 7

Advice for Those Who Are Married

[1]Now I want to deal with the things you wrote me about. Some of you say, “It is good for a man not to sleep with a woman.” [2]But since sexual sin is happening, each man should sleep with his own wife. And each woman should sleep with her own husband. [3]A husband should satisfy his wife’s needs. And a wife should satisfy her husband’s needs. [4]The wife’s body does not belong only to her. It also belongs to her husband. In the same way, the husband’s body does not belong only to him. It also belongs to his wife. [5]You shouldn’t stop giving yourselves to each other. You might possibly do this when you both agree to it. And you should only agree to it to give yourselves time to pray. Then you should come together again. In that way, Satan will not tempt you when you can’t control yourselves. [6]I say those things to you as my advice, not as a command. [7]I wish all of you were single like me. But you each have your own gift from God. One has this gift, and another has that one.

[8]I speak now to those who are not married. I also speak to widows. It is good for you to stay single like me. [9]But if you can’t control yourselves, you should get married. It is better to get married than to burn with desire.

[10]I give a command to those who are married. It is a direct command from the Lord, not from me. A wife must not leave her husband. [11]But if she does, she must not get married again. Or she can go back to her husband. And a husband must not divorce his wife.

[12]I also have something to say to everyone else. It is from me, not a direct command from the Lord. Suppose a brother has a wife who is not a believer. If she is willing to live with him, he must not divorce her. [13]And suppose a woman has a husband who is not a believer. If he is willing to live with her, she must not divorce him. [14]The unbelieving husband has been made holy through his wife. The unbelieving wife has been made holy through her believing husband. If that were not the case, your children would not be pure and “clean.” But as it is, they are holy.

[15]But if the unbeliever leaves, let that person go. In that case, the believer does not have to stay married to the unbeliever. God wants us to live in peace. [16]Wife, how do you know if you will save your husband? Husband, how do you know if you will save your wife?

Stay as You Were When God Chose You

17 But each believer should live in whatever situation the Lord has given them.
Stay as you were when God chose you. That's the rule all the churches must follow. 18 Was a man already circumcised when God chose him? Then he should not become uncircumcised. Was he uncircumcised when God chose him? Then he should not be circumcised. 19 Being circumcised means nothing. Being uncircumcised means nothing. Doing what God commands is what counts.
20 Each of you should stay as you were when God chose you.

21 Were you a slave when God chose you? Don't let it trouble you. But if you can get your master to set you free, do it. 22 The person who was a slave when the Lord chose them is now the Lord's free person. The one who was free when God chose them is now a slave of Christ. 23 Christ has paid the price for you. Don't become slaves of human beings. 24 Brothers and sisters, each person is accountable to God. So each person should stay as they were when God chose them.

Advice for Those Who Are Not Married

25 Now I want to say something about virgins. I have no direct command from the Lord. But I give my opinion. Because of the Lord's mercy, I give it as one who can be trusted. 26 Times are hard for you right now. So I think it's good for a man to stay as he is. 27 Are you engaged to a woman? Then don't try to get out of it. Are you free from such a promise? Then don't look for a wife. 28 But if you do marry someone, you have not sinned. And if a virgin marries someone, she has not sinned. But those who marry someone will have many troubles in this life. I want to save you from this.

29 Brothers and sisters, what I mean is that the time is short. From now on, those who have a husband or wife should live as if they did not. 30 Those who mourn should live as if they did not. Those who are happy should live as if they were not. Those who buy something should live as if it were not theirs to keep.
31 Those who use the things of the world should not become all wrapped up in them. The world as it now exists is passing away.

32 I don't want you to have anything to worry about. A single man is concerned about the Lord's matters. He wants to know how he can please the Lord. 33 But a married man is concerned about the matters of this world. He wants to know how he can please his wife. 34 His concerns pull him in two directions. A single woman or a virgin is concerned about the Lord's matters. She wants to serve the Lord with both body and spirit. But a married woman is concerned about the matters of this world. She wants to know how she can please her husband. [35]I'm saying those things for your own good. I'm not trying to hold you back. I want you to be free to live in a way that is right. I want you to give yourselves completely to the Lord.

[36]Suppose someone is worried that he is not acting with honor toward the virgin he has promised to marry. Suppose his desires are too strong, and he feels that he should marry her. He should do as he wants. He is not sinning. They should get married. [37]But suppose the man has decided not to marry the virgin. And suppose he has no compelling need to get married and can control himself. If he has made up his mind not to get married, he also does the right thing. [38]So then, the man who marries the virgin does the right thing. But the man who doesn't marry her does a better thing.

[39]A woman has to stay married to her husband as long as he lives. If he dies, she is free to marry anyone she wants to. But the one she marries must belong to the Lord. [40]In my opinion, she is happier if she stays single. And I also think that I am led by the Spirit of God in saying this.

1 Corinthians 8

Food Sacrificed to Statues of Gods

[1]Now I want to deal with food sacrificed to statues of gods. We know that “We all have knowledge.” But knowledge makes people proud, while love builds them up. [2]Those who think they know something still don’t know as they should.
[3]But whoever loves God is known by God.

[4]So then, here is what I say about eating food sacrificed to statues of gods. We know that “a god made by human hands is really nothing at all in the world.” We know that “there is only one God.” [5]There may be so-called gods either in heaven or on earth. In fact, there are many “gods” and many “lords.” [6]But for us there is only one God. He is the Father. All things came from him, and we live for him. And there is only one Lord. He is Jesus Christ. All things came because of him, and we live because of him.

[7]But not everyone knows this. Some people still think that statues of gods are real gods. They might eat food sacrificed to statues of gods. When they do, they think of it as food sacrificed to real gods. And because those people have a weak sense of what is right and wrong, they feel guilty. [8]But food doesn’t bring us close to God. We are no worse if we don’t eat. We are no better if we do eat.

[9]But be careful how you use your rights. Be sure you don’t cause someone weaker than you to fall into sin. [10]Suppose you, with all your knowledge, are eating in a temple of one of those gods. And suppose someone who has a weak sense of what is right and wrong sees you. Won’t that person become bold and eat what is sacrificed to statues of gods? [11]If so, then your knowledge destroys that weak brother or sister for whom Christ died. [12]Suppose you sin against them in this way. Then you harm their weak sense of what is right and wrong. By doing this, you sin against Christ. [13]So suppose what I eat causes my brother or sister to fall into sin. Then what should I do? I will never eat meat again. In that way, I will not cause them to fall.

1 Corinthians 9

Paul's Rights as an Apostle

[1]Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Haven't I seen Jesus our Lord? Aren't you the result of my work for the Lord? [2]Others may not think of me as an apostle. But I am certainly one to you! You are the proof that I am the Lord's apostle.

[3]That is what I say to stand up for myself when people judge me. [4]Don't we have the right to eat and drink? [5]Don't we have the right to take a believing wife with us when we travel? The other apostles do. The Lord's brothers do. Peter does. [6]Or are Barnabas and I the only ones who have to do other work for a living? Are we the only ones who can't just do the work of apostles all the time?

[7]Who serves as a soldier but doesn't get paid? Who plants a vineyard but doesn't eat any of its grapes? Who takes care of a flock but doesn't drink any of the milk? [8]Do I say this only on human authority? The Law says the same thing. [9]Here is what is written in the Law of Moses. "Do not stop an ox from eating while it helps separate the grain from the straw." (Deuteronomy 25:4) Is it oxen that God is concerned about? [10]Doesn't he say that for us? Yes, it was written for us. Whoever plows and separates the grain hopes to share the harvest. And it is right for them to hope for this. [11]We have planted spiritual seed among you. Is it too much to ask that we receive from you some things we need? [12]Others have the right to receive help from you. Don't we have even more right to do so?

But we didn't use that right. No, we have put up with everything. We didn't want to keep the good news of Christ from spreading.

[13]People who serve in the temple get their food from the temple. Don't you know this? People who serve at the altar eat from what is offered on the altar. Don't you know this? [14]So those who preach the good news should also receive their living from their work. That is what the Lord has commanded.

[15]But I haven't used any of those rights. And I'm not writing because I hope you will do things like that for me. I would rather die than allow anyone to take away my pride in my work. [16]But when I preach the good news, I can't brag. I have to preach it. How terrible it will be for me if I do not preach the good news! [17]If I preach because I want to, I get a reward. If I preach because I have to, I'm only doing my duty. [18]Then what reward do I get? Here is what it is. I am able to preach the good news free of charge. And I can do this without using all my rights as a person who preaches the good news.

Paul Uses His Freedom to Share the Good News

19 I am free and don't belong to anyone. But I have made myself a slave to everyone. I do it to win as many as I can to Christ. 20 To the Jews I became like a Jew. That was to win the Jews. To those under the law I became like one who was under the law. I did this even though I myself am not under the law. That was to win those under the law. 21 To those who don't have the law I became like one who doesn't have the law. I did this even though I am not free from God's law. I am under Christ's law. Now I can win those who don't have the law. 22 To those who are weak I became weak. That was to win the weak. I have become all things to all people. I have done this so that in all possible ways I might save some. 23 I do all this because of the good news. And I want to share in its blessings.

Training to Win the Prize

24 In a race all the runners run. But only one gets the prize. You know that, don't you? So run in a way that will get you the prize. 25 All who take part in the games train hard. They do it to get a crown that will not last. But we do it to get a crown that will last forever. 26 So I do not run like someone who doesn't run toward the finish line. I do not fight like a boxer who hits nothing but air. 27 No, I train my body and bring it under control. Then after I have preached to others, I myself will not break the rules. If I did break them, I would fail to win the prize.

1 Corinthians 10

Warnings From Israel's History

[1]Brothers and sisters, I want you to know something about our people who lived long ago. They were all led by the cloud. They all walked through the Red Sea. [2]They were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea. [3]They all ate the same spiritual food. [4]They all drank the same spiritual water. They drank from the spiritual rock that went with them. That rock was Christ. [5]But God was not pleased with most of them. Their bodies were scattered in the desert.

[6]Now those things happened as examples for us. They are supposed to keep us from wanting evil things. The people of Israel wanted these evil things. [7]So don't worship statues of gods, as some of them did. It is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink. Then they got up to dance wildly in front of their god." (Exodus 32:6) [8]We should not commit sexual sins, as some of them did. In one day 23,000 of them died. [9]We should not test the Messiah, as some of them did. They were killed by snakes. [10]Don't speak against God. That's what some of the people of Israel did. And they were killed by the destroying angel.

[11]Those things happened to them as examples for us. They were written down to warn us. That's because we are living at the time when God's work is being completed. [12]So be careful. When you think you are standing firm, you might fall. [13]You are tempted in the same way all other human beings are. God is faithful. He will not let you be tempted any more than you can take. But when you are tempted, God will give you a way out. Then you will be able to deal with it.

Sharing in the Lord's Supper

[14]My dear friends, run away from statues of gods. Don't worship them. [15]I'm talking to people who are reasonable. Judge for yourselves what I say. [16]We give thanks for the cup at the Lord's Supper. When we do, aren't we sharing in the blood of Christ? When we break the bread, aren't we sharing in the body of Christ? [17]Just as there is one loaf, so we who are many are one body. We all share the one loaf.

[18]Think about the people of Israel. Don't those who eat the offerings share in the altar? [19]Do I mean that food sacrificed to a statue of a god is anything? Do I mean that a statue of a god is anything? [20]No! But what is sacrificed by those who worship statues of gods is really sacrificed to demons. It is not sacrificed to God. I don't want you to be sharing with demons. [21]You can't drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons too. You can't have a part in both the Lord's table and the table of demons. [22]Are we trying to make the Lord jealous? Are we stronger than he is?

The Believer's Freedom

[23]You say, "I have the right to do anything." But not everything is helpful. Again you say, "I have the right to do anything." But not everything builds us up. [24]No one should look out for their own interests. Instead, they should look out for the interests of others.

[25]Eat anything sold in the meat market. Don't ask if it's right or wrong. [26]Scripture says, "The earth belongs to the Lord. And so does everything in it." (Psalm 24:1)

[27]Suppose an unbeliever invites you to a meal and you want to go. Then eat anything that is put in front of you. Don't ask if it's right or wrong. [28]But suppose someone says to you, "This food has been sacrificed to a statue of a god." Then don't eat it. Keep in mind the good of the person who told you. And don't eat because of a sense of what is right and wrong. [29]I'm talking about the other person's sense of what is right and wrong, not yours. Why is my freedom being judged by what someone else thinks? [30]Suppose I give thanks when I eat. Then why should I be blamed for eating food I thank God for?

[31]So eat and drink and do everything else for the glory of God. [32]Don't do anything that causes another person to trip and fall. It doesn't matter if that person is a Jew or a Greek or a member of God's church. [33]Follow my example. I try to please everyone in every way. I'm not looking out for what is good for me. I'm looking out for the interests of others. I do it so that they might be saved.

1 Corinthians 11

[1]Follow my example, just as I follow the example of Christ.

Proper Worship

[2]I praise you for being faithful in remembering me. I also praise you for staying true to the teachings of the past. You have stayed true to them, just as I gave them to you. [3]But I want you to know that the head of every man is Christ. The head of the woman is the man. And the head of Christ is God. [4]Every man who prays or prophesies with his head covered brings shame on his head. [5]But every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered brings shame on her head. It is the same as having her head shaved. [6]What if a woman does not cover her head? She might as well have her hair cut off. But it is shameful for her to cut her hair or shave her head. So she should cover her head.

[7]A man should not cover his head. He is the likeness and glory of God. But woman is the glory of man. [8]Man did not come from woman. Woman came from man. [9]Also, man was not created for woman. Woman was created for man. [10]That's why a woman should have authority over her own head. She should have this because of the angels. [11]But here is how things are for those who belong to the Lord. Woman is not independent of man. And man is not independent of woman. [12]Woman came from man, and man is born from woman. But everything comes from God.

[13]You be the judge. Is it proper for a woman to pray to God without covering her head? [14]Suppose a man has long hair. Doesn't the very nature of things teach you that it is shameful? [15]And suppose a woman has long hair. Doesn't the very nature of things teach you that it is her glory? Long hair is given to her as a covering. [16]If anyone wants to argue about this, we don't have any other practice. And God's churches don't either.

Celebrating the Lord's Supper in the Right Way

[17]In the following matters, I don't praise you. Your meetings do more harm than good. [18]First, here is what people are telling me. When you come together as a church, you take sides. And in some ways I believe it. [19]Do you really think you need to take sides? You probably think God favors one side over the other!

[20]So when you come together, it is not the Lord’s Supper you eat. [21]As you eat, some of you go ahead and eat your own private meals. Because of this, one person stays hungry and another gets drunk. [22]Don’t you have homes to eat and drink in? You are shaming those in the church who have nothing. Do you think so little of God’s church that you do this? What should I say to you? Should I praise you? Certainly not about the Lord’s Supper!

[23]I passed on to you what I received from the Lord. On the night the Lord Jesus was handed over to his enemies, he took bread. [24]When he had given thanks, he broke it. He said, “This is my body. It is given for you. Every time you eat it, do it in memory of me.” [25]In the same way, after supper he took the cup. He said, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Every time you drink it, do it in memory of me.” [26]You eat the bread and drink the cup. When you do this, you are announcing the Lord’s death until he comes again.

[27]Eat the bread or drink the cup of the Lord in the right way. Don’t do it in a way that isn’t worthy of him. If you do, you will be guilty. You’ll be guilty of sinning against the body and blood of the Lord. [28]Everyone should take a careful look at themselves before they eat the bread and drink from the cup. [29]Whoever eats and drinks must recognize the body of Christ. If they don’t, judgment will come upon them. [30]That is why many of you are weak and sick. That is why a number of you have died. [31]We should think more carefully about what we are doing. Then we would not be found guilty for this. [32]When the Lord judges us in this way, he corrects us. Then in the end we will not be judged along with the rest of the world.

[33]My brothers and sisters, when you come together to eat, you should all eat together. [34]Anyone who is hungry should eat something at home. Then when you come together, you will not be judged.

When I come, I will give you more directions.

1 Corinthians 12

Gifts of the Holy Spirit

[1]Brothers and sisters, I want you to know about the gifts of the Holy Spirit.
[2]You know that at one time you were unbelievers. You were somehow drawn away to worship statues of gods that couldn't even speak. [3]So I want you to know that no one who is speaking with the help of God's Spirit says, "May Jesus be cursed." And without the help of the Holy Spirit no one can say, "Jesus is Lord."

[4]There are different kinds of gifts. But they are all given to believers by the same Spirit. [5]There are different ways to serve. But they all come from the same Lord. [6]There are different ways the Spirit works. But the same God is working in all these ways and in all people.

[7]The Holy Spirit is given to each of us in a special way. That is for the good of all. [8]To some people the Spirit gives a message of wisdom. To others the same Spirit gives a message of knowledge. [9]To others the same Spirit gives faith. To others that one Spirit gives gifts of healing. [10]To others he gives the power to do miracles. To others he gives the ability to prophesy. To others he gives the ability to tell the spirits apart. To others he gives the ability to speak in different kinds of languages they had not known before. And to still others he gives the ability to explain what was said in those languages. [11]All the gifts are produced by one and the same Spirit. He gives gifts to each person, just as he decides.

One Body but Many Parts

[12]There is one body, but it has many parts. But all its many parts make up one body. It is the same with Christ. [13]We were all baptized by one Holy Spirit. And so we are formed into one body. It didn't matter whether we were Jews or Gentiles, slaves or free people. We were all given the same Spirit to drink. [14]So the body is not made up of just one part. It has many parts.

[15]Suppose the foot says, "I am not a hand. So I don't belong to the body." By saying this, it cannot stop being part of the body. [16]And suppose the ear says, "I am not an eye. So I don't belong to the body." By saying this, it cannot stop being part of the body. [17]If the whole body were an eye, how could it hear? If the whole body were an ear, how could it smell? [18]God has placed each part in the body just as he wanted it to be. [19]If all the parts were the same, how could there be a body? [20]As it is, there are many parts. But there is only one body.

[21]The eye can't say to the hand, "I don't need you!" The head can't say to the feet, "I don't need you!" [22]In fact, it is just the opposite. The parts of the body that seem to be weaker are the ones we can't do without. [23]The parts that we think are less important we treat with special honor. The private parts aren't shown. But they are treated with special care. [24]The parts that can be shown don't need special care. But God has put together all the parts of the body. And he has given more honor to the parts that didn't have any. [25]In that way, the parts of the body will not take sides. All of them will take care of one another. [26]If one part suffers, every part suffers with it. If one part is honored, every part shares in its joy.

[27]You are the body of Christ. Each one of you is a part of it. [28]First, God has placed apostles in the church. Second, he has placed prophets in the church. Third, he has placed teachers in the church. Then he has given to the church miracles and gifts of healing. He also has given the gift of helping others and the gift of guiding the church. God also has given the gift of speaking in different kinds of languages. [29]Is everyone an apostle? Is everyone a prophet? Is everyone a teacher? Do all work miracles? [30]Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak in languages they had not known before? Do all explain what is said in those languages? [31]But above all, you should want the more important gifts.

Love Is Necessary

But now I will show you the best way of all.

1 Corinthians 13

[1]Suppose I speak in the languages of human beings or of angels. If I don’t have love, I am only a loud gong or a noisy cymbal. [2]Suppose I have the gift of prophecy. Suppose I can understand all the secret things of God and know everything about him. And suppose I have enough faith to move mountains. If I don’t have love, I am nothing at all. [3]Suppose I give everything I have to poor people. And suppose I give myself over to a difficult life so I can brag. If I don’t have love, I get nothing at all.

[4]Love is patient. Love is kind. It does not want what belongs to others. It does not brag. It is not proud. [5]It does not dishonor other people. It does not look out for its own interests. It does not easily become angry. It does not keep track of other people’s wrongs. [6]Love is not happy with evil. But it is full of joy when the truth is spoken. [7]It always protects. It always trusts. It always hopes. It never gives up.

[8]Love never fails. But prophecy will pass away. Speaking in languages that had not been known before will end. And knowledge will pass away. [9]What we know now is not complete. What we prophesy now is not perfect. [10]But when what is complete comes, the things that are not complete will pass away. [11]When I was a child, I talked like a child. I thought like a child. I had the understanding of a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me. [12]Now we see only a dim likeness of things. It is as if we were seeing them in a foggy mirror. But someday we will see clearly. We will see face to face. What I know now is not complete. But someday I will know completely, just as God knows me completely.

[13]The three most important things to have are faith, hope and love. But the greatest of them is love.

1 Corinthians 14

Worship in a Way That Helps People Understand

[1]Follow the way of love. You should also want the gifts the Holy Spirit gives. Most of all, you should want the gift of prophecy. [2]Anyone who speaks in a language they had not known before doesn't speak to people. They speak only to God. In fact, no one understands them. What they say by the Spirit remains a mystery. [3]But the person who prophesies speaks to people. That person prophesies to make people stronger, to give them hope, and to comfort them. [4]Anyone who speaks in other languages builds up only themselves. But the person who prophesies builds up the church. [5]I would like all of you to speak in other languages. But I would rather have you prophesy. The person who prophesies is more helpful than those who speak in other languages. But that is not the case if someone explains what was said in the other languages. Then the whole church can be built up.

[6]Brothers and sisters, suppose I were to come to you and speak in other languages. What good would I be to you? None! I would need to come with new truth or knowledge. Or I would need to come with a prophecy or a teaching. [7]Here are some examples. Certain objects make sounds. Take a flute or a harp. No one will know what the tune is unless different notes are played. [8]Also, if the trumpet call isn't clear, who will get ready for battle? [9]It's the same with you. You must speak words that people understand. If you don't, no one will know what you are saying. You will just be speaking into the air. [10]It is true that there are all kinds of languages in the world. And they all have meaning. [11]But if I don't understand what someone is saying, I am a stranger to the person speaking. And that person is a stranger to me. [12]It's the same with you. You want the gifts of the Spirit. So try to do your best in using gifts that build up the church.

[13]So here is what the person who speaks in languages they had not known before should do. They should pray that they can explain what they say. [14]If I pray in another language, my spirit prays. But my mind does not pray. [15]So what should I do? I will pray with my spirit. But I will also pray with my understanding. I will sing with my spirit. But I will also sing with my understanding. [16]Suppose you are praising God in the Spirit. And suppose there are visitors among you who want to know what's going on. How can they say "Amen" when you give thanks? They don't know what you are saying. [17]You are certainly giving thanks. But no one else is being built up.

18I thank God that I speak in other languages more than all of you do. 19In the church, I wouldn't want to speak 10,000 words in an unfamiliar language. I'd rather speak five words in a language people could understand. Then I would be teaching others.

20Brothers and sisters, stop thinking like children. Be like babies as far as evil is concerned. But be grown up in your thinking. 21In the law it is written,

> "With unfamiliar languages > and through the lips of outsiders
> I will speak to these people.
> But even then they will not listen to me." (Isaiah 28:11, 12)
> That is what the Lord says.

22So speaking in other languages is a sign for those who don't believe. It is not a sign for those who do believe. But prophecy is not for those who don't believe. It is for those who believe. 23Suppose the whole church comes together and everyone speaks in other languages. And suppose visitors or unbelievers come in. Won't they say you are out of your minds? 24But suppose unbelievers or visitors come in while everyone is prophesying. Then they will feel guilty about their sin. They will be judged by all. 25The secrets of their hearts will be brought out into the open. They will fall down and worship God. They will exclaim, "God is really here among you!"

Proper Worship

26Brothers and sisters, what should we say then? When you come together, each of you brings something. You bring a hymn or a teaching or a message from God. You bring a message in another language or explain what was said in that language. Everything must be done to build up the church. 27No more than two or three people should speak in another language. And they should speak one at a time. Then someone must explain what was said. 28If there is no one to explain, the person speaking should keep quiet in the church. They can speak to themselves and to God.

29Only two or three prophets are supposed to speak. Others should decide if what is being said is true. 30What if a message from God comes to someone else who is sitting there? Then the one who is speaking should stop. 31Those who prophesy can all take turns. In that way, everyone can be taught and be given hope. [32]Those who prophesy should control their speaking. [33]God is not a God of disorder. He is a God of peace, just as in all the churches of the Lord's people.

[34]Women should remain silent in church meetings. They are not allowed to speak. They must follow the lead of those who are in authority, as the law says. [35]If they have a question about something, they should ask their own husbands at home. It is shameful for women to speak in church meetings.

[36]Or did the word of God begin with you? Or are you the only people it has reached? [37]Suppose anyone thinks they are a prophet. Or suppose they think they have other gifts given by the Holy Spirit. They should agree that what I am writing to you is the Lord's command. [38]But anyone who does not recognize this will not be recognized.

[39]Brothers and sisters, you should want to prophesy. And don't stop people from speaking in languages they had not known before. [40]But everything should be done in a proper and orderly way.

1 Corinthians 15

Christ Rose From the Dead

[1]Brothers and sisters, I want to remind you of the good news I preached to you. You received it and have put your faith in it. [2]Because you believed the good news, you are saved. But you must hold firmly to the message I preached to you. If you don't, you have believed it for nothing.

[3]What I received I passed on to you. And it is the most important of all. Here is what it is. Christ died for our sins, just as Scripture said he would. [4]He was buried. He was raised from the dead on the third day, just as Scripture said he would be. [5]He appeared to Peter. Then he appeared to the 12 apostles. [6]After that, he appeared to more than 500 brothers and sisters at the same time. Most of them are still living. But some have died. [7]He appeared to James. Then he appeared to all the apostles. [8]Last of all, he also appeared to me. I was like someone who wasn't born at the right time.

[9]I am the least important of the apostles. I'm not even fit to be called an apostle. I tried to destroy God's church. [10]But because of God's grace I am what I am. And his grace was not wasted on me. No, I have worked harder than all the other apostles. But I didn't do the work. God's grace was with me. [11]So this is what we preach, whether I or the other apostles who preached to you. And that is what you believed.

Believers Will Rise From the Dead

[12]We have preached that Christ has been raised from the dead. So how can some of you say that no one rises from the dead? [13]If no one rises from the dead, then not even Christ has been raised. [14]And if Christ has not been raised, what we preach doesn't mean anything. Your faith doesn't mean anything either. [15]More than that, we would be lying about God. We are witnesses that God raised Christ from the dead. But he did not raise him if the dead are not raised. [16]If the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised either. [17]And if Christ has not been raised, your faith doesn't mean anything. Your sins have not been forgiven. [18]Those who have died believing in Christ are also lost. [19]Do we have hope in Christ only for this life? Then people should pity us more than anyone else.

[20]But Christ really has been raised from the dead. He is the first of all those who will rise from the dead. [21]Death came because of what a man did. Rising from the dead also comes because of what a man did. [22]Because of Adam, all people die. So because of Christ, all will be made alive. [23]But here is the order of events. Christ is the first of those who rise from the dead. When he comes back, those who belong to him will be raised. [24]Then the end will come after Christ destroys all rule, authority and power. Then he will hand over the kingdom to God the Father. [25]Christ must rule until he has put all his enemies under his control. [26]The last enemy that will be destroyed is death. [27]Scripture says that God "has put everything under his control." (Psalm 8:6) It says that "everything" has been put under him. But it is clear that this does not include God himself. That's because God put everything under Christ. [28]When he has done that, the Son also will be under God's rule. God put everything under the Son. In that way, God will be all in all.

[29]Suppose no one rises from the dead. Then what will people do who are baptized for the dead? Suppose the dead are not raised at all. Then why are people baptized for them? [30]And why would we put ourselves in danger every hour? [31]I face death every day. That's the truth. And here is something you can be just as sure of. I take pride in what Christ Jesus our Lord has done for you through my work. [32]Did I fight wild animals in Ephesus with nothing more than human hopes? Then what have I gotten for it? If the dead are not raised,

> "Let us eat and drink, > because tomorrow we will die." (Isaiah 22:13)

[33]Don't let anyone fool you. "Bad companions make a good person bad." [34]You should come back to your senses and stop sinning. Some of you don't know anything about God. I say this to make you ashamed.

The Body That Rises From the Dead

[35]But someone will ask, "How are the dead raised? What kind of body will they have?" [36]How foolish! What you plant doesn't come to life unless it dies. [37]When you plant something, it isn't a completely grown plant that you put in the ground. You only plant a seed. Maybe it's wheat or something else. [38]But God gives the seed a body just as he has planned. And to each kind of seed he gives its own body. [39]Not all earthly creatures are the same. People have one kind of body. Animals have another. Birds have another kind. Fish have still another. [40]There are also heavenly bodies as well as earthly bodies. Heavenly bodies have one kind of glory. Earthly bodies have another. [41]The sun has one kind of glory. The moon has another kind. The stars have still another. And one star's glory is different from that of another star.

[42]It will be like that with bodies that are raised from the dead. The body that is planted does not last forever. The body that is raised from the dead lasts forever. [43]It is planted without honor. But it is raised in glory. It is planted in weakness. But it is raised in power. [44]It is planted as an earthly body. But it is raised as a spiritual body.

Just as there is an earthly body, there is also a spiritual body. [45]It is written, "The first man Adam became a living person." (Genesis 2:7) The last Adam became a spirit that gives life. [46]What is spiritual did not come first. What is earthly came first. What is spiritual came after that. [47]The first man came from the dust of the earth. The second man came from heaven. [48]Those who belong to the earth are like the one who came from the earth. And those who are spiritual are like the heavenly man. [49]We are like the earthly man. And we will be like the heavenly man.

[50]Brothers and sisters, here is what I'm telling you. Bodies made of flesh and blood can't share in the kingdom of God. And what dies can't share in what never dies. [51]Listen! I am telling you a mystery. We will not all die. But we will all be changed. [52]That will happen in a flash, as quickly as you can wink an eye. It will happen at the blast of the last trumpet. Then the dead will be raised to live forever. And we will be changed. [53]Our natural bodies don't last forever. They must be dressed with what does last forever. What dies must be dressed with what does not die. [54]In fact, that is going to happen. What does not last will be dressed with what lasts forever. What dies will be dressed with what does not die. Then what is written will come true. It says, "Death has been swallowed up. It has lost the battle." (Isaiah 25:8)

> [55]"Death, where is the victory you thought you had?
> Death, where is your sting?" (Hosea 13:14)

[56]The sting of death is sin. And the power of sin is the law. [57]But let us give thanks to God! He gives us the victory because of what our Lord Jesus Christ has done.

[58]My dear brothers and sisters, remain strong in the faith. Don't let anything move you. Always give yourselves completely to the work of the Lord. Because you belong to the Lord, you know that your work is not worthless.

1 Corinthians 16

The Offering for the Lord's People

[1]Now I want to deal with the offering of money for the Lord's people. Do what I told the churches in Galatia to do. [2]On the first day of every week, each of you should put some money away. The amount should be in keeping with how much money you make. Save the money so that you won't have to take up an offering when I come. [3]When I arrive, I will send some people with your gift to Jerusalem. They will be people you consider to be good. And I will give them letters that explain who they are. [4]If it seems good for me to go also, they will go with me.

What Paul Asks for Himself

[5]After I go through Macedonia, I will come to you. I will only be passing through Macedonia. [6]But I might stay with you for a while. I might even spend the winter. Then you can help me on my journey everywhere I go. [7]I don't want to see you now while I am just passing through. Instead, I hope to spend some time with you, if the Lord allows it. [8]But I will stay at Ephesus until the day of Pentecost. [9]A door has opened wide for me to do some good work here. There are many people who oppose me.

[10]Timothy will visit you. Make sure he has nothing to worry about while he is with you. He is doing the work of the Lord, just as I am. [11]No one should treat him badly. Send him safely on his way so he can return to me. I'm expecting him to come back along with the others.

[12]I want to say something about our brother Apollos. I tried my best to get him to go to you with the others. But he didn't want to go right now. He will go when he can.

[13]Be on your guard. Remain strong in the faith. Be brave. [14]Be loving in everything you do.

[15]You know that the first believers in Achaia were from the family of Stephanas. They have spent all their time serving the Lord's people. Brothers and sisters, I am asking you [16]to follow the lead of people like them. Follow everyone who joins in the task and works hard at it. [17]I was glad when Stephanas, Fortunatus and Achaicus arrived. They have supplied me with what you couldn’t give me. [18]They renewed my spirit, and yours also. People like them are worthy of honor.

Final Greetings

[19]The churches in Asia Minor send you greetings.
Aquila and Priscilla greet you warmly because of the Lord’s love. So does the church that meets in their house.
[20]All the brothers and sisters here send you greetings.
Greet one another with a holy kiss.

[21]I, Paul, am writing this greeting with my own hand.

[22]If anyone does not love the Lord, let a curse be on that person! Come, Lord!

[23]May the grace of the Lord Jesus be with you.

[24]I give my love to all of you who belong to Christ Jesus. Amen.

2 Corinthians

2 Corinthians 1

[1]I, Paul, am writing this letter. I am an apostle of Christ Jesus just as God planned. Timothy our brother joins me in writing.

We are sending this letter to you, the members of God's church in Corinth. It is also for all God's holy people everywhere in Achaia.

[2]May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Praise to the God Who Gives Comfort

[3]Give praise to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! He is the Father who gives tender love. All comfort comes from him. [4]He comforts us in all our troubles. Now we can comfort others when they are in trouble. We ourselves receive comfort from God. [5]We share very much in the sufferings of Christ. So we also share very much in his comfort. [6]If we are having trouble, it is so that you will be comforted and renewed. If we are comforted, it is so that you will be comforted. Then you will be able to put up with the same suffering we have gone through. [7]Our hope for you remains firm. We know that you suffer just as we do. In the same way, God comforts you just as he comforts us.

[8]Brothers and sisters, we want you to know about the hard times we had in Asia Minor. We were having a lot of trouble. It was far more than we could stand. We even thought we were going to die. [9]In fact, we felt as if we were under the sentence of death. But that happened so that we would not depend on ourselves but on God. He raises the dead to life. [10]God has saved us from deadly dangers. And he will continue to do it. We have put our hope in him. He will continue to save us. [11]You must help us by praying for us. Then many people will give thanks because of what will happen to us. They will thank God for his kindness to us in answer to the prayers of many.

Paul Changes His Plans

[12]Here is what we take pride in. Our sense of what is right and wrong tells us how we have acted. We have lived with honor and godly honesty. We have depended on God's grace and not on the world's wisdom. We lived that way most of all when we were dealing with you. [13]We are writing only what you can read and understand. And here is what I hope. [14]Up to this point you have understood some of the things we have said. But now here is what I hope for when the Lord Jesus returns. I hope that your pride in us will be the same as our pride in you. When this happens, you will understand us completely.

[15]Because I was sure of this, I wanted to visit you first. Here is how I thought you would be helped twice. [16]I planned to visit you on my way to Macedonia. I would have come back to you from there. Then you would have sent me on my way to Judea. [17]When I planned all this, was I ready to change my mind for no good reason? No. I don't make my plans the way the world makes theirs. In the same breath the world says both, "Yes! Yes!" and "No! No!"

[18]But just as sure as God is faithful, our message to you is not "Yes" and "No." [19]Silas, Timothy and I preached to you about the Son of God, Jesus Christ. Our message did not say "Yes" and "No" at the same time. The message of Christ has always been "Yes." [20]God has made a great many promises. They are all "Yes" because of what Christ has done. So through Christ we say "Amen." We want God to receive glory. [21]He makes both us and you remain strong in the faith because we belong to Christ. He anointed us. [22]He put his Spirit in our hearts and marked us as his own. We can now be sure that he will give us everything he promised us.

[23]I call God to be my witness. May he take my life if I'm lying. I wanted to spare you, so I didn't return to Corinth. [24]Your faith is not under our control. You remain strong in your own faith. But we work together with you for your joy.

2 Corinthians 2

[1]So I made up my mind that I would not make another painful visit to you. [2]If I make you sad, who is going to make me glad? Only you, the people I made sad. [3]What I wrote to you I wrote for a special reason. When I came, I didn't want to be troubled by those who should make me glad. I was sure that all of you would share my joy. [4]I was very troubled when I wrote to you. My heart was sad. My eyes were full of tears. I didn't want to make you sad. I wanted to let you know that I love you very deeply.

Forgive Those Who Make You Sad

[5]Suppose someone has made us sad. In some ways, he hasn't made me sad so much as he has made all of you sad. But I don't want to put this too strongly. [6]He has been punished because most of you decided he should be. This punishment is enough. [7]Now you should forgive him and comfort him. Then he won't be sad more than he can stand. [8]So I'm asking you to tell him again that you still love him. [9]I wrote to you for another special reason. I wanted to see if you could stand the test. I wanted to see if you could obey everything asked of you.
[10]Anyone you forgive I also forgive. Was there anything to forgive? If so, I have forgiven it for your benefit, knowing that Christ is watching. [11]We don't want Satan to outsmart us. We know how he does his evil work.

Serving Under the New Covenant

[12]I went to Troas to preach the good news about Christ. There I found that the Lord had opened a door of opportunity for me. [13]But I still had no peace of mind. I couldn't find my brother Titus there. So I said goodbye to the believers at Troas and went on to Macedonia.

[14]Give thanks to God! He always leads us as if we were prisoners in Christ's victory parade. Through us, God spreads the knowledge of Christ everywhere like perfume. [15]God considers us to be the pleasing smell that Christ is spreading. He is spreading it among people who are being saved and people who are dying. [16]To those who are dying, we are the smell of death. To those who are being saved, we are the perfume of life. Who is able to do this work? [17]Unlike many people, we aren't selling God's word to make money. In fact, it is just the opposite. Because of Christ we speak honestly before God. We speak like people God has sent.

2 Corinthians 3

[1]Are we beginning to praise ourselves again? Some people need letters that speak well of them. Do we need those kinds of letters, either to you or from you?
[2]You yourselves are our letter. You are written on our hearts. Everyone knows you and reads you. [3]You make it clear that you are a letter from Christ. You are the result of our work for God. You are a letter written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God. You are a letter written not on tablets made out of stone but on human hearts.

[4]Through Christ, we can be sure of this before God. [5]In ourselves we are not able to claim anything for ourselves. The power to do what we do comes from God. [6]He has given us the power to serve under a new covenant. The covenant is not based on the written Law of Moses. It comes from the Holy Spirit. The written Law kills, but the Spirit gives life.

The Greater Glory of the New Covenant

[7]The Law was written in letters on stone. Even though it was a way of serving God, it led to death. But even that way of serving God came with glory. The glory lasted for only a short time. Even so, the people of Israel couldn't look at Moses' face very long. [8]Since all this is true, won't the work of the Holy Spirit be even more glorious? [9]The law that condemns people to death had glory. How much more glory does the work of the Spirit have! His work makes people right with God. [10]The glory of the old covenant is nothing compared with the far greater glory of the new. [11]The glory of the old lasts for only a short time. How much greater is the glory of the new! It will last forever.

[12]Since we have that kind of hope, we are very bold. [13]We are not like Moses.
He used to cover his face with a veil. That was to keep the people of Israel from seeing the end of what was passing away. [14]But their minds were made stubborn.
To this day, the same veil remains when the old covenant is read. The veil has not been removed. Only faith in Christ can take it away. [15]To this day, when the Law of Moses is read, a veil covers the minds of those who hear it. [16]But when anyone turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. [17]Now the Lord is the Holy Spirit. And where the Spirit of the Lord is, freedom is also there. [18]None of our faces are covered with a veil. All of us can see the Lord's glory and think deeply about it. So we are being changed to become more like him so that we have more and more glory. And this glory comes from the Lord, who is the Holy Spirit.

2 Corinthians 4

A Treasure in Clay Jars

[1]So because of God's mercy, we have work to do. He has given it to us. And we don't give up. [2]Instead, we have given up doing secret and shameful things.
We don't twist God's word. In fact, we do just the opposite. We present the truth plainly. In the sight of God, we make our appeal to everyone's sense of what is right and wrong. [3]Suppose our good news is covered with a veil. Then it is veiled to those who are dying. [4]The god of this world has blinded the minds of those who don't believe. They can't see the light of the good news that makes Christ's glory clear. Christ is the likeness of God. [5]The message we preach is not about ourselves. Our message is about Jesus Christ. We say that he is Lord. And we say that we serve you because of Jesus. [6]God said, "Let light shine out of darkness." (Genesis 1:3) He made his light shine in our hearts. His light gives us the light to know God's glory. His glory is shown in the face of Christ.

[7]Treasure is kept in clay jars. In the same way, we have the treasure of the good news in these earthly bodies of ours. That shows that the mighty power of the good news comes from God. It doesn't come from us. [8]We are pushed hard from all sides. But we are not beaten down. We are bewildered. But that doesn't make us lose hope. [9]Others make us suffer. But God does not desert us. We are knocked down. But we are not knocked out. [10]We always carry around the death of Jesus in our bodies. In that way, the life of Jesus can be shown in our bodies.
[11]We who are alive are always in danger of death because we are serving Jesus.
This happens so that his life can also be shown in our earthly bodies. [12]Death is at work in us. But life is at work in you.

[13]It is written, "I believed, and so I have spoken." (Psalm 116:10) We have that same spirit of faith. So we also believe and speak. [14]We know that God raised the Lord Jesus from the dead. And he will also raise us up with Jesus. And he will present both you and us to himself. [15]All this is for your benefit. God's grace is reaching more and more people. So they will become more and more thankful. They will give glory to God.

[16]We don't give up. Our bodies are becoming weaker and weaker. But our spirits are being renewed day by day. [17]Our troubles are small. They last only for a short time. But they are earning for us a glory that will last forever. It is greater than all our troubles. [18]So we don't spend all our time looking at what we can see. Instead, we look at what we can’t see. That’s because what can be seen lasts only a short time. But what can’t be seen will last forever.

2 Corinthians 5

Waiting for Our New Bodies

[1]We know that the earthly tent we live in will be destroyed. But we have a building made by God. It is a house in heaven that lasts forever. Human hands did not build it. [2]During our time on earth we groan. We long to put on our house in heaven as if it were clothing. [3]Then we will not be naked. [4]While we live in this tent of ours, we groan under our heavy load. We don't want to be naked.
Instead, we want to be fully dressed with our house in heaven. What must die will be swallowed up by life. [5]God has formed us for that very purpose. He has given us the Holy Spirit as a down payment. The Spirit makes us sure of what is still to come.

[6]So here is what we can always be certain about. As long as we are at home in our bodies, we are away from the Lord. [7]We live by believing, not by seeing.
[8]We are certain about that. We would rather be away from our bodies and at home with the Lord. [9]So we try our best to please him. We want to please him whether we are at home in our bodies or away from them. [10]We must all stand in front of Christ to be judged. Each one of us will be judged for what we do while in our bodies. We'll be judged for the good things and the bad things. Then each of us will receive what we are supposed to get.

Christ Brings Us Back to God

[11]We know what it means to have respect for the Lord. So we try to help other people to understand it. What we are is plain to God. I hope it is also plain to your way of thinking. [12]We are not trying to make an appeal to you again. But we are giving you a chance to take pride in us. Some people take pride in their looks rather than what's in their hearts. If you take pride in us, you will be able to answer them. [13]Are we "out of our minds," as some people say? If so, it is because we want to serve God. Does what we say make sense? If so, it is because we want to serve you. [14]Christ's love controls us. We are sure that one person died for everyone. And so everyone died. [15]Christ died for everyone. He died so that those who live should not live for themselves anymore. They should live for Christ. He died for them and was raised again.

[16]So from now on we don't look at anyone the way the world does. At one time we looked at Christ in that way. But we don’t anymore. [17]When anyone lives in Christ, the new creation has come. The old is gone! The new is here! [18]All this is from God. He brought us back to himself through Christ’s death on the cross. And he has given us the task of bringing others back to him through Christ. [19]God was bringing the world back to himself through Christ. He did not hold people’s sins against them. God has trusted us with the message that people may be brought back to him. [20]So we are Christ’s official messengers. It is as if God were making his appeal through us. Here is what Christ wants us to beg you to do. Come back to God! [21]Christ didn’t have any sin. But God made him become sin for us. So we can be made right with God because of what Christ has done for us.

2 Corinthians 6

[1]We work together with God. So we are asking you not to receive God's grace and then do nothing with it. [2]He says,

> "When I had mercy on you, I heard you.
> On the day I saved you, I helped you." (Isaiah 49:8)

I tell you, now is the time God has mercy. Now is the day he saves.

Paul's Sufferings

[3]We don't put anything in anyone's way. So no one can find fault with our work for God. [4]Instead, we make it clear that we serve God in every way. We serve him by standing firm in troubles, hard times and suffering. [5]We don't give up when we are beaten or put in prison. When people stir up trouble in the streets, we continue to serve God. We work hard for him. We go without sleep and food. [6]We remain pure. We understand completely what it means to serve God. We are patient and kind. We serve him in the power of the Holy Spirit. We serve him with true love. [7]We speak the truth. We serve in the power of God. We hold the weapons of godliness in the right hand and in the left. [8]We serve God in times of glory and shame. We serve him whether the news about us is bad or good. We are true to our calling. But people treat us as if we were pretenders.
[9]We are known, but people treat us as if we were unknown. We are dying, but we continue to live. We are beaten, but we are not killed. [10]We are sad, but we are always full of joy. We are poor, but we make many people rich. We have nothing, but we own everything.

[11]Believers at Corinth, we have spoken freely to you. We have opened our hearts wide to you. [12]We are not holding back our love from you. But you are holding back your love from us. [13]I speak to you as if you were my children. It is only fair that you open your hearts wide to us also.

Paul Warns Against Worshiping False Gods

[14]Do not be joined to unbelievers. What do right and wrong have in common?
Can light and darkness be friends? [15]How can Christ and Satan agree? Or what does a believer have in common with an unbeliever? [16]How can the temple of the true God and the statues of other gods agree? We are the temple of the living God. God has said,

> “I will live with them.
> I will walk among them.
> I will be their God.
> And they will be my people.”
> (Leviticus 26:12; Jeremiah 32:38; Ezekiel 37:27)

17 So,

> “Come out from among them > and be separate,
> says the Lord.
> Do not touch anything that is not pure and ‘clean.’
> Then I will receive you.” (Isaiah 52:11; Ezekiel 20:34, 41)

18 And,

> “I will be your Father.
> You will be my sons and daughters,
> says the Lord who rules over all.”
> (2 Samuel 7:14; 7:8)

2 Corinthians 7

[1]Dear friends, we have these promises from God. So let us make ourselves pure from everything that makes our bodies and spirits impure. Let us be completely holy. We want to honor God.

Paul Has Joy When the Church Turns Away From Sin

[2]Make room for us in your hearts. We haven't done anything wrong to anyone. We haven't caused anyone to sin. We haven't taken advantage of anyone. [3]I don't say this to judge you. I have told you before that you have an important place in our hearts. We would live or die with you. [4]I have spoken to you very honestly. I am very proud of you. I am very happy. Even with all our troubles, my joy has no limit.

[5]When we came to Macedonia, we weren't able to rest. We were attacked no matter where we went. We had battles on the outside and fears on the inside. [6]But God comforts those who are sad. He comforted us when Titus came. [7]We were comforted not only when he came but also by the comfort you had given him. He told us how much you longed for me. He told us about your deep sadness and concern for me. That made my joy greater than ever.

[8]Even if my letter made you sad, I'm not sorry I sent it. At first I was sorry. I see that my letter hurt you, but only for a little while. [9]Now I am happy. I'm not happy because you were made sad. I'm happy because your sadness led you to turn away from your sins. You became sad just as God wanted you to. So you were not hurt in any way by us. [10]Godly sadness causes us to turn away from our sins and be saved. And we are certainly not sorry about that! But worldly sadness brings death. [11]Look at what that godly sadness has produced in you. You are working hard to clear yourselves. You are angry and alarmed. You are longing to see me. You are concerned. You are ready to make sure that the right thing is done. In every way you have proved that you are not guilty in that matter. [12]So even though I wrote to you, it wasn't because of the one who did the wrong. It wasn't because of the one who was hurt either. Instead, I wrote you so that in the sight of God you could see for yourselves how faithful you are to us. [13]All this encourages us.

We were also very glad to see how happy Titus was. You have all renewed his spirit. [14]I had bragged about you to him. And you have not let me down.

Everything we said to you was true. In the same way, our bragging about you to Titus has also turned out to be true. [15]His love for you is even greater when he remembers that you all obeyed his teaching. You received him with fear and trembling. [16]I am glad I can have complete faith in you.

2 Corinthians 8

Giving Freely to the Lord's People

[1]Brothers and sisters, we want you to know about the grace that God has given to the churches in Macedonia. [2]They have suffered a great deal. But in their suffering, their joy was more than full. Even though they were very poor, they gave very freely. [3]I tell you that they gave as much as they could. In fact, they gave even more than they could. Completely on their own, [4]they begged us for the chance to share in serving the Lord's people in that way. [5]They did more than we expected. First they gave themselves to the Lord. Then they gave themselves to us because that was what God wanted. [6]Titus had already started collecting money from you. So we asked him to help you finish making your kind gift.
[7]You do well in everything else. You do well in faith and in speaking. You do well in knowledge and in complete commitment. And you do well in the love we have helped to start in you. So make sure that you also do well in the grace of giving to others.

[8]I am not commanding you to do it. But I want to test you. I want to find out if you really love God. I want to compare your love with that of others. [9]You know the grace shown by our Lord Jesus Christ. Even though he was rich, he became poor to help you. Because he became poor, you can become rich.

[10]Here is my opinion about what is best for you in that matter. Last year you were the first to give. You were also the first to want to give. [11]So finish the work. Then your desire to do it will be matched by your finishing it. Give on the basis of what you have. [12]Do you really want to give? Then the gift is measured by what someone has. It is not measured by what they don't have.

[13]We don't want others to have it easy at your expense. We want things to be equal. [14]Right now you have plenty in order to take care of what they need. Then they will have plenty to take care of what you need. The goal is to even things out. [15]It is written, "The one who gathered a lot didn't have too much. And the one who gathered a little had enough." (Exodus 16:18)

Paul Sends Titus to Corinth to Receive the Offering

[16]God put into the heart of Titus the same concern I have for you. Thanks should be given to God for this. [17]Titus welcomed our appeal. He is also excited about coming to you. It was his own idea. [18]Along with Titus, we are sending another brother. All the churches praise him for his service in telling the good news. [19]He was also chosen by the churches to go with us as we bring the offering. We are in charge of it. We want to honor the Lord himself. We want to show how ready we are to help. [20]We want to keep anyone from blaming us for how we take care of that large gift. [21]We are trying hard to do what both the Lord and people think is right.

[22]We are also sending another one of our brothers with them. He has often proved to us in many ways that he is very committed. He is now even more committed because he has great faith in you. [23]Titus is my helper. He and I work together among you. Our brothers are messengers from the churches. They honor Christ. [24]So show them that you really love them. Show them why we are proud of you. Then the churches can see it.

2 Corinthians 9

[1]I don't need to write to you about giving to the Lord's people. [2]I know how much you want to help. I have been bragging about it to the people in Macedonia. I have been telling them that since last year you who live in Achaia were ready to give. You are so excited that it has stirred up most of them to take action. [3]But I am sending the brothers. Then our bragging about you in this matter will have a good reason. You will be ready, just as I said you would be. [4]Suppose people from Macedonia come with me and find out that you are not prepared. Then we, as well as you, would be ashamed of being so certain. [5]So I thought I should try to get the brothers to visit you ahead of time. They will finish the plans for the large gift you had promised. Then it will be ready as a gift freely given. It will not be given by force.

Paul's Advice to Give Freely

[6]Here is something to remember. The one who plants only a little will gather only a little. And the one who plants a lot will gather a lot. [7]Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give. You shouldn't give if you don't want to. You shouldn't give because you are forced to. God loves a cheerful giver. [8]And God is able to shower all kinds of blessings on you. So in all things and at all times you will have everything you need. You will do more and more good works. [9]It is written,

> "They have spread their gifts around to poor people.
> Their good works continue forever." (Psalm 112:9)

[10]God supplies seed for the person who plants. He supplies bread for food. God will also supply and increase the amount of your seed. He will increase the results of your good works. [11]You will be made rich in every way. Then you can always give freely. We will take your many gifts to the people who need them. And they will give thanks to God.

[12]Your gifts meet the needs of the Lord's people. And that's not all. Your gifts also cause many people to thank God. [13]You have shown yourselves to be worthy by what you have given. So other people will praise God because you obey him. That proves that you really believe the good news about Christ. They will also praise God because you share freely with them and with everyone else.

[14]Their hearts will be filled with love for you when they pray for you. God has given you grace that is better than anything. [15]Let us give thanks to God for his gift. It is so great that no one can tell how wonderful it really is!

2 Corinthians 10

Paul Speaks Up for His Service to the Church

[1]Christ is humble and free of pride. Because of this, I make my appeal to you. I, Paul, am the one you call “shy” when I am face to face with you. But when I am away from you, you think I am “bold” toward you. [2]I am coming to see you. Please don’t make me be as bold as I expect to be toward some people. They think that I live the way the people of this world live. [3]I do live in the world. But I don’t fight my battles the way the people of the world do. [4]The weapons I fight with are not the weapons the world uses. In fact, it is just the opposite. My weapons have the power of God to destroy the camps of the enemy. [5]I destroy every claim and every reason that keeps people from knowing God. I keep every thought under control in order to make it obey Christ. [6]Until you have obeyed completely, I will be ready to punish you every time you don’t obey.

[7]You are judging only by how things look on the surface. Suppose someone is sure they belong to Christ. Then they should consider again that we belong to Christ just as much as they do. [8]Do I brag too much about the authority the Lord gave me? If I do, it’s because I want to build you up, not tear you down. And I’m not ashamed of that kind of bragging. [9]Don’t think that I’m trying to scare you with my letters. [10]Some say, “His letters sound important. They are powerful. But in person he doesn’t seem like much. And what he says doesn’t amount to anything.” [11]People like that have a lot to learn. What I say in my letters when I’m away from you, I will do in my actions when I’m with you.

[12]I don’t dare to compare myself with those who praise themselves. I’m not that kind of person. They measure themselves by themselves. They compare themselves with themselves. When they do that, they are not wise. [13]But I won’t brag more than I should. God himself has given me an opportunity for serving. I will only brag about what I have done with that opportunity. This opportunity for serving also includes you. [14]I am not going too far in my bragging. I would be going too far if I hadn’t come to where you live. But I did get there with the good news about Christ. [15]And I won’t brag about work done by others. If I did, I would be bragging more than I should. As your faith continues to grow, I hope that my work among you will greatly increase. [16]Then I will be able to preach the good news in the areas beyond you. I don’t want to brag about work already done in someone else’s territory. [17]But, “The one who brags should brag about what the Lord has done.” (Jeremiah 9:24) [18]Those who praise themselves are not accepted. Those the Lord praises are accepted.

2 Corinthians 11

Paul and Those Who Pretend to Be Apostles

[1]I hope you will put up with me in a little foolish bragging. Yes, please put up with me! [2]My jealousy for you comes from God himself. I promised to give you to only one husband. That husband is Christ. I wanted to be able to give you to him as if you were a pure virgin. [3]But Eve's mind was tricked by the snake's clever lies. And here's what I'm afraid of. Your minds will also somehow be led astray. They will be led away from your true and pure love for Christ. [4]Suppose someone comes to you and preaches about a Jesus different from the Jesus we preached about. Or suppose you receive a spirit different from the Spirit you received before. Or suppose you receive a different message of good news.
Suppose it was different from the one you accepted earlier. You put up with those kinds of things easily enough.

[5]I don't think I'm in any way less important than those "super-apostles." [6]It's true that I haven't been trained as a speaker. But I do have knowledge. I've made that very clear to you in every way. [7]I preached God's good news to you free of charge. When I did that, I was putting myself down in order to lift you up. Was this a sin? [8]I received help from other churches so I could serve you. This was almost like robbing them. [9]When I was with you and needed something, I didn't cause you any expense. The believers who came from Macedonia gave me what I needed. I haven't caused you any expense at all. And I won't ever do it. [10]I'm sure that the truth of Christ is in me. And I'm just as sure that nobody in Achaia will keep me from bragging. [11]Why? Because I don't love you? No! God knows I do!

[12]And I will keep on doing what I'm doing. That will stop those who claim they have things to brag about. They think they have a chance to be considered equal with us. [13]People like that are false apostles. They are workers who tell lies. They only pretend to be apostles of Christ. [14]That comes as no surprise.
Even Satan himself pretends to be an angel of light. [15]So it doesn't surprise us that Satan's servants also pretend to be serving God. They will finally get exactly what they deserve.

Paul Brags About His Sufferings

[16]I will say it again. Don’t let anyone think I’m a fool. But if you do, put up with me just as you would put up with a fool. Then I can do a little bragging. [17]When I brag about myself like this, I’m not talking the way the Lord would. I’m talking like a fool. [18]Many are bragging the way the people of the world do. So I will brag like that too. [19]You are so wise! You gladly put up with fools! [20]In fact, you even put up with anyone who makes you a slave or uses you. You put up with those who take advantage of you. You put up with those who claim to be better than you. You put up with those who slap you in the face. [21]I’m ashamed to have to say that I was too weak for that!

Whatever anyone else dares to brag about, I also dare to brag about. I’m speaking like a fool! [22]Are they Hebrews? So am I. Do they belong to the people of Israel? So do I. Are they Abraham’s children? So am I. [23]Are they serving Christ? I am serving him even more. I’m out of my mind to talk like this! I have worked much harder. I have been in prison more often. I have suffered terrible beatings. Again and again I almost died. [24]Five times the Jews gave me 39 strokes with a whip. [25]Three times I was beaten with sticks. Once they tried to kill me by throwing stones at me. Three times I was shipwrecked. I spent a night and a day in the open sea. [26]I have had to keep on the move. I have been in danger from rivers. I have been in danger from robbers. I have been in danger from my fellow Jews and in danger from Gentiles. I have been in danger in the city, in the country, and at sea. I have been in danger from people who pretended they were believers. [27]I have worked very hard. Often I have gone without sleep. I have been hungry and thirsty. Often I have gone without food. I have been cold and naked. [28]Besides everything else, every day I am concerned about all the churches. It is a very heavy load. [29]If anyone is weak, I feel weak. If anyone is led into sin, I burn on the inside.

[30]If I have to brag, I will brag about the things that show how weak I am. [31]I am not lying. The God and Father of the Lord Jesus knows this. May God be praised forever. [32]In Damascus the governor who served under King Aretas had their city guarded. He wanted to arrest me. [33]But I was lowered in a basket from a window in the wall. So I escaped from the governor.

2 Corinthians 12

Paul's Vision and His Painful Problem

[1]We can't gain anything by bragging. But I have to do it anyway. I am going to tell you what I've seen. I want to talk about what the Lord has shown me. [2]I know a believer in Christ who was taken up to the third heaven 14 years ago. I don't know if his body was taken up or not. Only God knows. [3]I don't know if that man was in his body or out of it. Only God knows. But I do know that [4]he was taken up to paradise. He heard things there that couldn't be put into words. They were things that no one is allowed to talk about. [5]I will brag about a man like that. But I won't brag about myself. I will brag only about how weak I am. [6]Suppose I decide to brag. That would not make me a fool, because I would be telling the truth. But I don't brag, so that no one will think more of me than they should. People should judge me by what I do and say. [7]God has shown me amazing and wonderful things. People should not think more of me because of it. So I wouldn't become proud of myself, I was given a problem. This problem caused pain in my body. It is a messenger from Satan to make me suffer. [8]Three times I begged the Lord to take it away from me. [9]But he said to me, "My grace is all you need. My power is strongest when you are weak." So I am very happy to brag about how weak I am. Then Christ's power can rest on me. [10]Because of how I suffered for Christ, I'm glad that I am weak. I am glad in hard times. I am glad when people say mean things about me. I am glad when things are difficult. And I am glad when people make me suffer. When I am weak, I am strong.

Paul's Concern for the People of Corinth

[11]I have made a fool of myself. But you made me do it. You should have praised me. Even though I am nothing, I am in no way less important than the "super-apostles." [12]While I was with you, I kept on showing you the actions of a true apostle. These actions include signs, wonders and miracles. [13]How were you less important than the other churches? The only difference was that I didn't cause you any expense. Forgive me for that wrong!

[14]Now I am ready to visit you for the third time. I won't cause you any expense. I don't want what you have. What I really want is you. After all, children shouldn't have to save up for their parents. Parents should save up for their children. [15]So I will be very happy to spend everything I have for you. I will even spend myself. If I love you more, will you love me less? [16]In any case, I haven't caused you any expense. But I'm so tricky! I have caught you by tricking you! Or so you think! [17]Did I take advantage of you through any of the men I sent to you? [18]I asked Titus to go to you. And I sent our brother with him. Titus didn't take advantage of you, did he? Didn't we walk in the same footsteps by the same Spirit?

[19]All this time, have you been thinking that I've been speaking up for myself? No, I've been speaking with God as my witness. I've been speaking like a believer in Christ. Dear friends, everything I do is to help you become stronger. [20]I'm afraid that when I come I won't find you as I want you to be. I'm afraid that you won't find me as you want me to be. I'm afraid there will be arguing, jealousy and fits of anger. I'm afraid each of you will focus only on getting ahead. Then you will tell lies about each other. You will talk about each other. I'm afraid you will be proud and cause trouble. [21]I'm afraid that when I come again my God will put me to shame in front of you. Then I will be sad about many who sinned earlier and have not turned away from it. They have not turned away from uncleanness, sexual sins and wild living. They have done all those things.

2 Corinthians 13

Final Warnings

[1]This will be my third visit to you. Scripture says, “Every matter must be proved by the words of two or three witnesses.” (Deuteronomy 19:15) [2]I already warned you during my second visit. I now say it again while I’m away. When I return, I won’t spare those who sinned earlier. I won’t spare any of the others either. [3]You are asking me to prove that Christ is speaking through me. He is not weak in dealing with you. He is powerful among you. [4]It is true that Christ was nailed to the cross because he was weak. But Christ lives by God’s power. In the same way, we share his weakness. But by God’s power we will live with Christ as we serve you.

[5]Take a good look at yourselves to see if you are really believers. Test yourselves. Don’t you realize that Christ Jesus is in you? Unless, of course, you fail the test! [6]I hope you will discover that I haven’t failed the test. [7]I pray to God that you won’t do anything wrong. I don’t pray so that people will see that I have passed the test. Instead, I pray this so that you will do what is right, even if it seems I have failed. [8]I can’t do anything to stop the truth. I can only work for the truth. [9]I’m glad when I am weak but you are strong. I pray that there will be no more problems among you. [10]That’s why I write these things before I come to you. Then when I do come, I won’t have to be hard on you when I use my authority. The Lord gave me the authority to build you up. He didn’t give it to me to tear you down.

Final Greetings

[11]Finally, brothers and sisters, be joyful! Work to make things right with one another. Help one another and agree with one another. Live in peace. And the God who gives love and peace will be with you.

[12]Greet one another with a holy kiss.
[13]All God’s people here send their greetings.

[14]May the grace shown by the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. May the love that God has given us be with you. And may the sharing of life brought about by the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Galatians

Galatians 1

[1]I, Paul, am writing this letter. I am an apostle. People have not sent me. No human authority has sent me. I have been sent by Jesus Christ and by God the Father. God raised Jesus from the dead. [2]All the brothers and sisters who are with me join me in writing.

We are sending this letter to you, the members of the churches in Galatia.

[3]May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace. [4]Jesus gave his life for our sins. He set us free from this evil world. That was what our God and Father wanted. [5]Give glory to God for ever and ever. Amen.

There Is No Other Good News

[6]I am amazed. You are so quickly deserting the one who chose you. He chose you to live in the grace that Christ has provided. You are turning to a different "good news." [7]What you are accepting is really not the good news at all. It seems that some people have gotten you all mixed up. They are trying to twist the good news about Christ. [8]But suppose even we should preach a different "good news." Suppose even an angel from heaven should preach it. Suppose it is different from the good news we gave you. Then let anyone who does that be cursed by God. [9]I have already said it. Now I will say it again. Suppose someone preaches a "good news" that is different from what you accepted. That person should be cursed by God.

[10]Am I now trying to get people to think well of me? Or do I want God to think well of me? Am I trying to please people? If I were, I would not be serving Christ.

Paul Was Appointed by God

[11]Brothers and sisters, here is what I want you to know. The good news I preached does not come from human beings. [12]No one gave it to me. No one taught it to me. Instead, I received it from Jesus Christ. He showed it to me.

[13]You have heard how I lived earlier in my Jewish way of life. With all my strength I attacked the church of God. I tried to destroy it. [14]I was moving ahead in my Jewish way of life. I went beyond many of my people who were my own age. I held firmly to the teachings passed down by my people. [15]But God set me apart from before the time I was born. He showed me his grace by appointing me. He was pleased [16]to show his Son in my life. He wanted me to preach about Jesus among the Gentiles. When God appointed me, I decided right away not to ask anyone for advice. [17]I didn't go up to Jerusalem to see those who were apostles before I was. Instead, I went into Arabia. Later I returned to Damascus.

[18]Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem. I went there to get to know Peter. I stayed with him for 15 days. [19]I didn't see any of the other apostles. I only saw James, the Lord's brother. [20]Here is what you can be sure of. And God is even a witness to it. What I am writing you is not a lie.

[21]Then I went to Syria and Cilicia. [22]The members of Christ's churches in Judea did not know me in a personal way. [23]They only heard others say, "The man who used to attack us has changed. He is now preaching the faith he once tried to destroy." [24]And they praised God because of me.

Galatians 2

Paul Is Accepted by the Apostles

[1]Then after fourteen years, I went up again to Jerusalem. This time I went with Barnabas. I took Titus along also. [2]I went because God showed me what he wanted me to do. I spoke in private to those who are respected as leaders. I told them the good news that I preach among the Gentiles. I wanted to be sure I wasn't running my race for no purpose. And I wanted to know that I had not been running my race for no purpose. [3]Titus was with me. He was a Greek. But even he was not forced to be circumcised. [4]This matter came up because some people had slipped in among us. They had pretended to be believers. They wanted to find out about the freedom we have because we belong to Christ Jesus. They wanted to make us slaves again. [5]We didn't give in to them for a moment. We did this so that the truth of the good news would be kept safe for you.

[6]Some people in Jerusalem were thought to be important. But it makes no difference to me what they were. God does not treat people differently. Those people added nothing to my message. [7]In fact, it was just the opposite. They recognized the task I had been trusted with. It was the task of preaching the good news to the Gentiles. My task was like Peter's task. He had been trusted with the task of preaching to the Jews. [8]God was working in Peter as an apostle to the Jews. God was also working in me as an apostle to the Gentiles. [9]James, Peter and John are respected as pillars in the church. They recognized the special grace given to me. So they shook my hand and the hand of Barnabas. They wanted to show they accepted us. They agreed that we should go to the Gentiles. They would go to the Jews. [10]They asked only one thing. They wanted us to continue to remember poor people. That was what I had wanted to do all along.

Paul Opposes Peter

[11]When Peter came to Antioch, I told him to his face that I was against what he was doing. He was clearly wrong. [12]He used to eat with the Gentiles. But certain men came from a group sent by James. When they arrived, Peter began to draw back. He separated himself from the Gentiles. That's because he was afraid of the circumcision group sent by James. [13]Peter's actions were not honest, and other Jews in Antioch joined him. Even Barnabas was led astray.

[14]I saw what they were doing. It was not in line with the truth of the good news. So I spoke to Peter in front of them all. “You are a Jew,” I said. “But you live like one who is not. So why do you force Gentiles to follow Jewish ways?”

[15]We are Jews by birth. We are not sinful Gentiles. [16]Here is what we know. No one is made right with God by obeying the law. It is by believing in Jesus Christ. So we too have put our faith in Christ Jesus. This is so we can be made right with God by believing in Christ. We are not made right by obeying the law. That’s because no one can be made right with God by obeying the law.

[17]We are seeking to be made right with God through Christ. As we do, what if we find that we who are Jews are also sinners? Does that mean that Christ causes us to sin? Certainly not! [18]Suppose I build again what I had destroyed. Then I would really be breaking the law.

[19]By the law, I died as far as the law is concerned. I died so that I might live for God. [20]I have been crucified with Christ. I don’t live any longer, but Christ lives in me. Now I live my life in my body by faith in the Son of God. He loved me and gave himself for me. [21]I do not get rid of the grace of God. What if a person could become right with God by obeying the law? Then Christ died for nothing!

Galatians 3

Faith or Obeying the Law

[1]You foolish people of Galatia! Who has put you under an evil spell? When I preached, I clearly showed you that Jesus Christ had been nailed to the cross. [2]I would like to learn just one thing from you. Did you receive the Holy Spirit by obeying the law? Or did you receive the Spirit by believing what you heard? [3]Are you so foolish? You began by the Holy Spirit. Are you now trying to finish God's work in you by your own strength? [4]Have you experienced so much for nothing? And was it really for nothing? [5]So I ask you again, how does God give you his Spirit? How does he work miracles among you? Is it by doing what the law says? Or is it by believing what you have heard? [6]In the same way, Abraham "believed God. God was pleased with Abraham because he believed. So his faith made him right with God." (Genesis 15:6)

[7]So you see, those who have faith are children of Abraham. [8]Long ago, Scripture knew that God would make the Gentiles right with himself. He would do this by their faith in him. He announced the good news ahead of time to Abraham. God said, "All nations will be blessed because of you." (Genesis 12:3; 18:18; 22:18) [9]So those who depend on faith are blessed along with Abraham. He was the man of faith.

[10]All who depend on obeying the law are under a curse. It is written, "May everyone who doesn't continue to do everything written in the Book of the Law be under God's curse." (Deuteronomy 27:26) [11]We know that no one who depends on the law is made right with God. This is because "the one who is right with God will live by faith." (Habakkuk 2:4) [12]The law is not based on faith. In fact, it is just the opposite. It teaches that "the person who does these things will live by them." (Leviticus 18:5) [13]Christ set us free from the curse of the law. He did it by becoming a curse for us. It is written, "Everyone who is hung on a pole is under God's curse." (Deuteronomy 21:23) [14]Christ Jesus set us free so that the blessing given to Abraham would come to the Gentiles through Christ. He did it so that we might receive the promise of the Holy Spirit. The promised Spirit comes by believing in Christ.

The Law and the Promise

[15]Brothers and sisters, let me give you an example from everyday life. No one can get rid of an official agreement between people. No one can add to it. It can't be changed after it has been made. It is the same with God's covenant agreement. [16]The promises were given to Abraham. They were also given to his seed. Scripture does not say, "and to seeds." That means many people. It says, "and to your seed." (Genesis 12:7; 13:15; 24:7) That means one person. And that one person is Christ. [17]Here is what I mean. The law came 430 years after the promise. But the law does not get rid of God's covenant and promise. The covenant had already been made by God. So the law does not do away with the promise. [18]The great gift that God has for us does not depend on the law. If it did, it would no longer depend on the promise. But God gave it to Abraham as a free gift through a promise.

[19]Then why was the law given at all? It was added because of human sin. And it was supposed to control us until the promised Seed had come. The law was given through angels, and a go-between was put in charge of it. [20]A go-between means that there is more than one side to an agreement. But God didn't use a go-between when he made his promise to Abraham.

[21]So is the law opposed to God's promises? Certainly not! What if a law had been given that could give life? Then people could become right with God by obeying the law. [22]But Scripture has locked up everything under the control of sin. It does so in order that what was promised might be given to those who believe. The promise comes through faith in Jesus Christ.

Children of God

[23]Before faith in Christ came, we were guarded by the law. We were locked up until this faith was made known. [24]So the law was put in charge of us until Christ came. He came so that we might be made right with God by believing in Christ. [25]But now faith in Christ has come. So the law is no longer in charge of us.

[26]So in Christ Jesus you are all children of God by believing in Christ. [27]This is because all of you who were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. You have put him on as if he were your clothes. [28]There is no Jew or Gentile. There is no slave or free person. There is no male or female. That's because you are all one in Christ Jesus. [29]You who belong to Christ are Abraham's seed. So you will receive what God has promised.

Galatians 4

[1]Here is what I have been saying. As long as your own children are young, they are no different from slaves in your house. They are no different, even though they will own all the property. [2]People are in charge of the property. And other people are in charge of the children. The children remain under their care until they become adults. At that time their fathers give them the property. [3]It is the same with us. When we were children, we were slaves to the basic spiritual powers of the world. [4]But then the chosen time came. God sent his Son. A woman gave birth to him. He was born under the authority of the law. [5]He came to set free those who were under the authority of the law. He wanted us to be adopted as children with all the rights children have. [6]Because you are his children, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts. He is the Holy Spirit. By his power we call God Abba. Abba means Father. [7]So you aren't a slave any longer. You are God's child. Because you are his child, God gives you the rights of those who are his children.

Paul's Concern for the Believers in Galatia

[8]At one time you didn't know God. You were slaves to gods that are really not gods at all. [9]But now you know God. Even better, God knows you. So why are you turning back to those weak and worthless powers? Do you want to be slaves to them all over again? [10]You are observing special days and months and seasons and years! [11]I am afraid for you. I am afraid that somehow I have wasted my efforts on you.

[12]I make my appeal to you, brothers and sisters. I'm asking you to become like me. After all, I became like you. You didn't do anything wrong to me. [13]Remember when I first preached the good news to you? Remember I did that because I was sick. [14]And my sickness was hard on you. But you weren't mean to me. You didn't make fun of me. Instead, you welcomed me as if I were an angel of God. You welcomed me as if I were Christ Jesus himself. [15]So why aren't you treating me the same way now? Suppose you could have torn out your own eyes and given them to me. Then you would have done it. I am a witness to this. [16]Have I become your enemy now by telling you the truth?

[17]Those people are trying hard to win you over. But it is not for your good. They want to take you away from us. They want you to commit yourselves to them. [18]It is fine to be committed to something, if the purpose is good. And you shouldn't be committed only when I am with you. You should always be committed. [19]My dear children, I am in pain for you like I was when we first met. I have pain like a woman giving birth. And my pain will continue until Christ makes you like himself. [20]I wish I could be with you now. I wish I could change my tone of voice. As it is, I don't understand you.

Hagar and Sarah

[21]You who want to be under the authority of the law, tell me something. Don't you know what the law says? [22]It is written that Abraham had two sons. The slave woman gave birth to one of them. The free woman gave birth to the other one. [23]Abraham's son by the slave woman was born in the usual way. But his son by the free woman was born because of God's promise.

[24]These things are examples. The two women stand for two covenants. One covenant comes from Mount Sinai. It gives birth to children who are going to be slaves. It is Hagar. [25]Hagar stands for Mount Sinai in Arabia. She stands for the present city of Jerusalem. That's because she and her children are slaves. [26]But the Jerusalem that is above is free. She is our mother. [27]It is written,

> "Be glad, woman,
> you who have never had children.
> Shout for joy and cry out loud,
> you who have never had labor pains.
> The woman who is all alone has more children > than the woman who has a husband." (Isaiah 54:1)

[28]Brothers and sisters, you are children because of God's promise just as Isaac was. [29]At that time, the son born in the usual way tried to hurt the other son. The other son was born by the power of the Holy Spirit. It is the same now. [30]But what does Scripture say? "Get rid of the slave woman. Get rid of her son. The slave woman's son will never have a share of the family's property. He'll never share it with the free woman's son." (Genesis 21:10) [31]Brothers and sisters, we are not the slave woman's children. We are the free woman's children.

Galatians 5

Christ Sets Us Free

[1]Christ has set us free to enjoy our freedom. So remain strong in the faith.
Don't let the chains of slavery hold you again.

[2]Here is what I, Paul, say to you. Don't let yourselves be circumcised. If you do, Christ won't be of any value to you. [3]I say it again. Every man who lets himself be circumcised must obey the whole law. [4]Some of you are trying to be made right with God by obeying the law. You have been separated from Christ.
You have fallen away from God's grace. [5]But we long to be made completely holy because of our faith in Christ. Through the Holy Spirit we wait for this in hope. [6]Circumcision and uncircumcision aren't worth anything to those who believe in Christ Jesus. The only thing that really counts is faith that shows itself through love.

[7]You were running a good race. Who has kept you from obeying the truth?
[8]The God who chooses you does not keep you from obeying the truth. [9]You should know that "just a little yeast works its way through the whole batch of dough." [10]The Lord makes me certain that you will see the truth of this. The one who has gotten you all mixed up will have to pay the price. This will happen no matter who has done it. [11]Brothers and sisters, I no longer preach that people must be circumcised. If I did, why am I still being opposed? If I preached that, then the cross wouldn't upset anyone. [12]So then, what about troublemakers who try to get others to be circumcised? I wish they would go the whole way! I wish they would cut off everything that marks them as men!

Living by the Holy Spirit's Power

[13]My brothers and sisters, you were chosen to be free. But don't use your freedom as an excuse to live under the power of sin. Instead, serve one another in love. [14]The whole law is fulfilled by obeying this one command. "Love your neighbor as you love yourself." (Leviticus 19:18) [15]If you say or do things that harm one another, watch out! You could end up destroying one another.

[16]So I say, live by the Holy Spirit's power. Then you will not do what your desires controlled by sin want you to do. [17]The desires controlled by sin do not want what the Spirit delights in. And the Spirit does not want what the desires controlled by sin delight in. The two are at war with each other. That's why you are not supposed to do whatever you want. [18]But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the authority of the law.

[19]The result of sin's control in our lives is clear. It includes sexual sins, impure acts and wild living. [20]It includes worshiping statues of gods and worshiping evil powers. It also includes hatred and fighting, jealousy and fits of anger. Sinful desire is interested only in getting ahead. It stirs up trouble. It separates people into their own little groups. [21]It wants what others have. It gets drunk and takes part in wild parties. It does many things of that kind. I warn you now as I did before. People who live like this will not receive God's kingdom.

[22]But the fruit the Holy Spirit produces is love, joy and peace. It is being patient, kind and good. It is being faithful [23]and gentle and having control of oneself. There is no law against things of that kind. [24]Those who belong to Christ Jesus have nailed their sinful desires to his cross. They don't want these things anymore. [25]Since we live by the Spirit, let us keep in step with the Spirit. [26]Let us not become proud. Let us not make each other angry. Let us not want what belongs to others.

Galatians 6

Do Good to Everyone

[1]Brothers and sisters, what if someone is caught in a sin? Then you who live by the Spirit should correct that person. Do it in a gentle way. But be careful.
You could be tempted too. [2]Carry one another's heavy loads. If you do, you will fulfill the law of Christ. [3]If anyone thinks they are somebody when they are nobody, they are fooling themselves. [4]Each person should test their own actions.
Then they can take pride in themselves. They won't be comparing themselves to someone else. [5]Each person should carry their own load. [6]But those who are taught the word should share all good things with their teacher.

[7]Don't be fooled. You can't outsmart God. A man gathers a crop from what he plants. [8]Some people plant to please their desires controlled by sin. From these desires they will harvest death. Others plant to please the Holy Spirit. From the Spirit they will harvest eternal life. [9]Let us not become tired of doing good. At the right time we will gather a crop if we don't give up. [10]So when we can do good to everyone, let us do it. Let's try even harder to do good to the family of believers.

Not Circumcision but the New Creation

[11]Look at the big letters I'm using as I write to you with my own hand!

[12]Some people are worried about how things look on the outside. They are trying to force you to be circumcised. They do it for only one reason. They don't want to suffer by being connected with the cross of Christ. [13]Even those who are circumcised don't obey the law. But they want you to be circumcised. Then they can brag about what has been done to your body. [14]I never want to brag about anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Through that cross the ways of the world have been crucified as far as I am concerned. And I have been crucified as far as the ways of the world are concerned. [15]Circumcision and uncircumcision don't mean anything. What really counts is that the new creation has come. [16]May peace and mercy be given to all who follow this rule. May peace and mercy be given to the Israel that belongs to God.

[17]From now on, let no one cause trouble for me. My body has marks that show I belong to Jesus.

[18]Brothers and sisters, may the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Ephesians

Ephesians 1

[1]I, Paul, am writing this letter. I am an apostle of Christ Jesus just as God planned.

I am sending this letter to you, God's holy people in Ephesus. Because you belong to Christ Jesus, you are faithful.

[2]May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Praise God for His Spiritual Blessings in Christ

[3]Give praise to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. He has blessed us with every spiritual blessing. Those blessings come from the heavenly world. They belong to us because we belong to Christ. [4]God chose us to belong to Christ before the world was created. He chose us to be holy and without blame in his eyes. He loved us. [5]So he decided long ago to adopt us. He adopted us as his children with all the rights children have. He did it because of what Jesus Christ has done. It pleased God to do it. [6]All those things bring praise to his glorious grace. God freely gave us his grace because of the One he loves. [7]We have been set free because of what Christ has done. Because he bled and died our sins have been forgiven. We have been set free because God's grace is so rich. [8]He poured his grace on us. By giving us great wisdom and understanding, [9]he showed us the mystery of his plan. It was in keeping with what he wanted to do. It was what he had planned through Christ. [10]It will all come about when history has been completed. God will then bring together all things in heaven and on earth under Christ.

[11]We were also chosen to belong to him. God decided to choose us long ago in keeping with his plan. He works out everything to fit his plan and purpose. [12]We were the first to put our hope in Christ. We were chosen to bring praise to his glory. [13]You also became believers in Christ. That happened when you heard the message of truth. It was the good news about how you could be saved. When you believed, he stamped you with an official mark. That official mark is the Holy Spirit that he promised. [14]The Spirit marks us as God's own. We can now be sure that someday we will receive all that God has promised. That will happen after God sets all his people completely free. All these things will bring praise to his glory.

Paul Prays and Gives Thanks

15 I have heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus. I have also heard about your love for all God's people. That is why 16 I have not stopped thanking God for you. I always remember you in my prayers. 17 I pray to the God of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is the glorious Father. I keep asking him to give you the wisdom and understanding that come from the Holy Spirit. I want you to know God better.
18 I pray that you may understand more clearly. Then you will know the hope God has chosen you to receive. You will know that what God will give his holy people is rich and glorious. 19 And you will know God's great power. It can't be compared with anything else. His power works for us who believe. It is the same mighty strength 20 God showed. He showed this when he raised Christ from the dead. God seated him at his right hand in his heavenly kingdom. 21 There Christ sits far above all who rule and have authority. He also sits far above all powers and kings. He is above every name that is appealed to in this world and in the world to come. 22 God placed all things under Christ's rule. He appointed him to be ruler over everything for the church. 23 The church is Christ's body and is filled by Christ. He fills everything in every way.

Ephesians 2

God Has Given Us New Life Through Christ

[1]You were living in your sins and lawless ways. But in fact you were dead.
[2]You used to live as sinners when you followed the ways of this world. You served the one who rules over the spiritual forces of evil. He is the spirit who is now at work in those who don't obey God. [3]At one time we all lived among them. Our desires were controlled by sin. We tried to satisfy what they wanted us to do. We followed our desires and thoughts. God was angry with us like he was with everyone else. That's because of the kind of people we all were. [4]But God loves us deeply. He is full of mercy. [5]So he gave us new life because of what Christ has done. He gave us life even when we were dead in sin. God's grace has saved you. [6]God raised us up with Christ. He has seated us with him in his heavenly kingdom. That's because we belong to Christ Jesus. [7]He has done it to show the riches of his grace for all time to come. His grace can't be compared with anything else. He has shown it by being kind to us. He was kind to us because of what Christ Jesus has done. [8]God's grace has saved you because of your faith in Christ. Your salvation doesn't come from anything you do. It is God's gift. [9]It is not based on anything you have done. No one can brag about earning it. [10]We are God's creation. He created us to belong to Christ Jesus. Now we can do good works. Long ago God prepared these works for us to do.

God's New Family of Jews and Gentiles

[11]You who are not Jews by birth, here is what I want you to remember. You are called "uncircumcised" by those who call themselves "circumcised." But they have only been circumcised in their bodies by human hands. [12]Before you believed in Christ, you were separated from him. You were not considered to be citizens of Israel. You were not included in what the covenants promised. You were without hope and without God in the world. [13]At one time you were far away from God. But now you belong to Christ Jesus. He spilled his blood for you. This has brought you near to God.

[14]Christ himself is our peace. He has made Jews and Gentiles into one group of people. He has destroyed the hatred that was like a wall between us.
[15]Through his body on the cross, Christ set aside the law with all its commands and rules. He planned to create one new people out of Jews and Gentiles. He wanted to make peace between them. [16]He planned to bring both Jews and Gentiles back to God as one body. He planned to do this through the cross. On that cross, Christ put to death their hatred toward one another. [17]He came and preached peace to you who were far away. He also preached peace to those who were near. [18]Through Christ we both come to the Father by the power of one Holy Spirit.

[19]So you are no longer outsiders and strangers. You are citizens together with God's people. You are also members of God's family. [20]You are a building that is built on the apostles and prophets. They are the foundation. Christ Jesus himself is the most important stone in the building. [21]The whole building is held together by him. It rises to become a holy temple because it belongs to the Lord. [22]And because you belong to him, you too are being built together. You are being made into a house where God lives through his Spirit.

Ephesians 3

God's Wonderful Plan for the Gentiles

[1]I, Paul, am a prisoner because of Christ Jesus. I am in prison because of my work among you who are Gentiles.

[2]I am sure you have heard that God appointed me to share his grace with you. [3]I'm talking about the mystery God showed me. I have already written a little about it. [4]By reading about this mystery, you will be able to understand what I know. You will know about the mystery of Christ. [5]The mystery was not made known to people of other times. But now the Holy Spirit has made this mystery known to God's holy apostles and prophets. [6]Here is the mystery. Because of the good news, God's promises are for Gentiles as well as for Jews. Both groups are parts of one body. They share in the promise. It belongs to them because they belong to Christ Jesus.

[7]I now serve the good news because God gave me his grace. His power is at work in me. [8]I am by far the least important of all the Lord's holy people. But he gave me the grace to preach to the Gentiles about the unlimited riches that Christ gives. [9]God told me to make clear to everyone how the mystery came about. In times past it was kept hidden in the mind of God, who created all things. [10]He wanted the rulers and authorities in the heavenly world to come to know his great wisdom. The church would make it known to them. [11]That was God's plan from the beginning. He has fulfilled his plan through Christ Jesus our Lord. [12]Through him and through faith in him we can approach God. We can come to him freely. We can come without fear. [13]So here is what I'm asking you to do. Don't lose hope because I am suffering for you. It will lead to the time when God will give you his glory.

Paul Prays for the Ephesians

[14]I bow in prayer to the Father because of my work among you. [15]From the Father every family in heaven and on earth gets its name. [16]I pray that he will use his glorious riches to make you strong. May his Holy Spirit give you his power deep down inside you. [17]Then Christ will live in your hearts because you believe in him. And I pray that your love will have deep roots. I pray that it will have a strong foundation. [18]May you have power together with all the Lord's holy people to understand Christ’s love. May you know how wide and long and high and deep it is. [19]And may you know his love, even though it can’t be known completely. Then you will be filled with everything God has for you.

[20]God is able to do far more than we could ever ask for or imagine. He does everything by his power that is working in us. [21]Give him glory in the church and in Christ Jesus. Give him glory through all time and for ever and ever. Amen.

Ephesians 4

Growing Up Together in the Body of Christ

[1]I am a prisoner because of the Lord. So I am asking you to live a life worthy of what God chose you for. [2]Don't be proud at all. Be completely gentle. Be patient. Put up with one another in love. [3]The Holy Spirit makes you one in every way. So try your best to remain as one. Let peace keep you together.
[4]There is one body and one Spirit. You were appointed to one hope when you were chosen. [5]There is one Lord, one faith and one baptism. [6]There is one God and Father of all. He is over everything. He is through everything. He is in everything.

[7]But each one of us has received a gift of grace. These gifts are given to us by Christ. [8]That is why Scripture says,

> "When he went up to his place on high,
> he took many prisoners.
> He gave gifts to his people." (Psalm 68:18)

[9]What does "he went up" mean? It can only mean that he also came down to the lower, earthly places. [10]The one who came down is the same one who went up. He went up higher than all the heavens. He did it in order to fill all creation. [11]So Christ himself gave the gift of the apostles to the church. He gave the prophets and those who preach the good news. And he also gave the pastors and teachers as a gift to the church. [12]He gave all these people so that they might prepare God's people to serve. Then the body of Christ will be built up. [13]That will continue until we all become one in the faith. We will also become one in the knowledge of God's Son. Then we will be grown up in the faith. We will receive everything that Christ has for us.

[14]We will no longer be babies in the faith. We won't be like ships tossed around by the waves. We won't be blown here and there by every new teaching.
We won't be blown around by cleverness and tricks. Certain people use them to hide their evil plans. [15]Instead, we will speak the truth in love. So we will grow up in every way to become the body of Christ. Christ is the head of the body.
[16]He makes the whole body grow and build itself up in love. Under the control of Christ, each part of the body does its work. It supports the other parts. In that way, the body is joined and held together.

Teachings for Living as Christians

17Here is what I'm telling you. I am speaking for the Lord as I warn you. You must no longer live as the Gentiles do. Their thoughts don't have any purpose.
18They can't understand the truth. They are separated from the life of God.
That's because they don't know him. And they don't know him because their hearts are stubborn. 19They have lost all feeling for what is right. So they have given themselves over to all kinds of evil pleasures. They take part in every kind of unclean act. And they are full of greed.

20But that is not the way of life in Christ that you learned about. 21You heard about Christ and were taught about life in him. What you learned was the truth about Jesus. 22You were taught not to live the way you used to. You must get rid of your old way of life. That's because it has been made impure by the desire for things that lead you astray. 23You were taught to be made new in your thinking.
24You were taught to start living a new life. It is created to be truly good and holy, just as God is.

25So each of you must get rid of your lying. Speak the truth to your neighbor.
We are all parts of one body. 26Scripture says, "When you are angry, do not sin."
(Psalm 4:4) Do not let the sun go down while you are still angry. 27Don't give the devil a chance. 28Anyone who has been stealing must never steal again. Instead, they must work. They must do something useful with their own hands. Then they will have something to give to people in need.

29Don't let any evil talk come out of your mouths. Say only what will help to build others up and meet their needs. Then what you say will help those who listen. 30Do not make God's Holy Spirit mourn. The Holy Spirit is the proof that you belong to God. And the Spirit is the proof that God will set you completely free. 31Get rid of all hard feelings, anger and rage. Stop all fighting and lying.
Don't have anything to do with any kind of hatred. 32Be kind and tender to one another. Forgive one another, just as God forgave you because of what Christ has done.

Ephesians 5

[1]You are the children that God dearly loves. So follow his example. [2]Lead a life of love, just as Christ did. He loved us. He gave himself up for us. He was a sweet-smelling offering and sacrifice to God.

[3]There should not be even a hint of sexual sin among you. Don't do anything impure. And do not always want more and more. These are not the things God's holy people should do. [4]There must not be any bad language or foolish talk or dirty jokes. They are out of place. Instead, you should give thanks. [5]Here is what you can be sure of. Those who give themselves over to sexual sins are lost. So are people whose lives are impure. The same is true of those who always want more and more. People who do these things might as well worship statues of gods. No one who does them will receive a share in the kingdom of Christ and of God. [6]Don't let anyone fool you with worthless words. People who say things like that aren't obeying God. He is angry with them. [7]So don't go along with people like that.

[8]At one time you were in the dark. But now you are in the light because of what the Lord has done. Live like children of the light. [9]The light produces what is completely good, right and true. [10]Find out what pleases the Lord. [11]Have nothing to do with the acts of darkness. They don't produce anything good. Show what they are really like. [12]It is shameful even to talk about what people who don't obey do in secret. [13]But everything the light shines on can be seen. And everything that the light shines on becomes a light. [14]That is why it is said,

> "Wake up, sleeper.
> Rise from the dead.
> Then Christ will shine on you."

[15]So be very careful how you live. Do not live like people who aren't wise. Live like people who are wise. [16]Make the most of every opportunity. The days are evil. [17]So don't be foolish. Instead, understand what the Lord wants. [18]Don't fill yourself up with wine. Getting drunk will lead to wild living. Instead, be filled with the Holy Spirit. [19]Speak to one another with psalms, hymns and songs from the Spirit. Sing and make music from your heart to the Lord. [20]Always give thanks to God the Father for everything. Give thanks to him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Teachings for Christian Families

21 Follow the lead of one another because of your respect for Christ.

22 Wives, follow the lead of your own husbands as you follow the Lord. 23 The husband is the head of the wife, just as Christ is the head of the church. The church is Christ's body. He is its Savior. 24 The church follows the lead of Christ. In the same way, wives should follow the lead of their husbands in everything.

25 Husbands, love your wives. Love them just as Christ loved the church. He gave himself up for her. 26 He did it to make her holy. He made her clean by washing her with water and the word. 27 He did it to bring her to himself as a brightly shining church. He wants a church that has no stain or wrinkle or any other flaw. He wants a church that is holy and without blame. 28 In the same way, husbands should love their wives. They should love them as they love their own bodies. Any man who loves his wife loves himself. 29 After all, no one ever hated their own body. Instead, they feed and care for their body. And this is what Christ does for the church. 30 We are parts of his body. 31 Scripture says, "That's why a man will leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife. The two will become one." (Genesis 2:24) 32 That is a deep mystery. But I'm talking about Christ and the church. 33 A husband also must love his wife. He must love her just as he loves himself. And a wife must respect her husband.

Ephesians 6

[1]Children, obey your parents as believers in the Lord. Obey them because it's the right thing to do. [2]Scripture says, "Honor your father and mother." That is the first commandment that has a promise. [3]"Then things will go well with you. You will live a long time on the earth." (Deuteronomy 5:16)

[4]Fathers, don't make your children angry. Instead, instruct them and teach them the ways of the Lord as you raise them.

[5]Slaves, obey your masters here on earth. Respect them and honor them with a heart that is true. Obey them just as you would obey Christ. [6]Don't obey them only to please them when they are watching. Do it because you are slaves of Christ. Be sure your heart does what God wants. [7]Serve your masters with all your heart. Work as serving the Lord and not as serving people. [8]You know that the Lord will give each person a reward. He will give to them in keeping with the good they do. It doesn't matter whether they are a slave or not.

[9]Masters, treat your slaves in the same way. When you warn them, don't be too hard on them. You know that the God who is their Master and yours is in heaven. And he treats everyone the same.

God's Armor for Believers

[10]Finally, let the Lord make you strong. Depend on his mighty power. [11]Put on all of God's armor. Then you can remain strong against the devil's evil plans.
[12]Our fight is not against human beings. It is against the rulers, the authorities and the powers of this dark world. It is against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly world. [13]So put on all of God's armor. Evil days will come. But you will be able to stand up to anything. And after you have done everything you can, you will still be standing. [14]So remain strong in the faith. Put the belt of truth around your waist. Put the armor of godliness on your chest. [15]Wear on your feet what will prepare you to tell the good news of peace. [16]Also, pick up the shield of faith. With it you can put out all the flaming arrows of the evil one.
[17]Put on the helmet of salvation. And take the sword of the Holy Spirit. The sword is God's word.

[18]At all times, pray by the power of the Spirit. Pray all kinds of prayers. Be watchful, so that you can pray. Always keep on praying for all the Lord's people.
[19]Pray also for me. Pray that whenever I speak, the right words will be given to me. Then I can be bold as I tell the mystery of the good news. [20]Because of the good news, I am being held by chains as the Lord's messenger. So pray that I will be bold as I preach the good news. That's what I should do.

Final Greetings

[21]Tychicus is a dear brother. He is faithful in serving the Lord. He will tell you everything about me. Then you will know how I am and what I am doing. [22]That's why I am sending him to you. I want you to know how we are. And I want him to encourage you.

[23]May God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give peace to the brothers and sisters. May they also give the believers love and faith.

[24]May grace be given to everyone who loves our Lord Jesus Christ with a love that will never die.

Philippians

Philippians 1

[1]We, Paul and Timothy, are writing this letter. We serve Christ Jesus.

We are sending this letter to you, all God's holy people in Philippi. You belong to Christ Jesus. We are also sending this letter to your leaders and deacons.

[2]May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Paul Prays and Gives Thanks

[3]I thank my God every time I remember you. [4]In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy. [5]I am happy because you have joined me in spreading the good news. You have done so from the first day until now. [6]God began a good work in you. And I am sure that he will carry it on until it is completed. That will be on the day Christ Jesus returns.

[7]It is right for me to feel this way about all of you. I love you with all my heart. I may be held by chains, or I may be standing up for the truth of the good news. Either way, all of you share in God's grace together with me. [8]God is my witness that I long for all of you. I love you with the love that Christ Jesus gives.

[9]I pray that your love will grow more and more. And let it be based on knowledge and understanding. [10]Then you will be able to know what is best. Then you will be pure and without blame for the day that Christ returns. [11]You will be filled with the fruit of right living produced by Jesus Christ. All these things bring glory and praise to God.

Paul Spreads the Good News While in Prison

[12]Brothers and sisters, here is what I want you to know. What has happened to me has actually helped to spread the good news. [13]One thing has become clear. I am being held by chains because I am a witness for Christ. All the palace guards and everyone else know it. [14]And because I am a prisoner, most of the believers have become bolder in the Lord. They now dare even more to preach the good news without fear.

15It's true that some preach about Christ because they are jealous. But others preach about Christ to help me in my work. 16The last group acts out of love.
They know I have been put here to be a witness for the good news. 17But the others preach about Christ only to get ahead. They preach Christ for the wrong reasons. They think they can stir up trouble for me while I am being held by chains. 18But what does it matter? Here is the important thing. Whether for right or wrong reasons, Christ is being preached about. That makes me very glad.

And I will continue to be glad. 19I know that you are praying for me. I also know that God will give me the Spirit of Jesus Christ to help me. So no matter what happens, I'm sure I will still be set free. 20I completely expect and hope that I won't be ashamed in any way. I'm sure I will be brave enough. Now as always Christ will receive glory because of what happens to me. He will receive glory whether I live or die. 21For me, life finds all its meaning in Christ. Death also has its benefits. 22Suppose I go on living in my body. Then I will be able to carry on my work. It will bear a lot of fruit. But what should I choose? I don't know! 23I can't decide between the two. I long to leave this world and be with Christ. That is better by far. 24But it is more important for you that I stay alive.
25I'm sure of this. So I know I will remain with you. And I will continue with all of you to help you grow in your faith. I will also continue to help you be joyful in what you have been taught. 26I'm sure I will be with you again. Then you will be able to boast in Christ Jesus even more because of me.

Living to Honor the Good News

27No matter what happens, live in a way that brings honor to the good news about Christ. Then I will know that you remain strong together in the one Spirit.
I will know this if I come and see you or only hear about you. I will know that you work together as one person. I will know that you work to spread the teachings about the good news. 28So don't be afraid in any way of those who oppose you. This will show them that they will be destroyed and that you will be saved. That's what God will do. 29Here is what he has given you to do for Christ.
You must not only believe in him. You must also suffer for him. 30You are going through the same struggle you saw me go through. As you have heard, I am still struggling.

Philippians 2

Being Humble Like Christ

[1]So does belonging to Christ help you in any way? Does his love comfort you at all? Do you share anything in common because of the Holy Spirit? Has Christ ever been gentle and loving toward you? [2]If any of these things has happened to you, then agree with one another. Have the same love. Be one in spirit and in the way you think and act. By doing this, you will make my joy complete. [3]Don't do anything only to get ahead. Don't do it because you are proud. Instead, be humble. Value others more than yourselves. [4]None of you should look out just for your own good. Each of you should also look out for the good of others.
[5]As you deal with one another, you should think and act as Jesus did.

[6]In his very nature he was God.
Jesus was equal with God. But Jesus didn't take advantage of that fact.
[7]Instead, he made himself nothing.
He did this by taking on the nature of a servant.
He was made just like human beings.
[8]He appeared as a man.
He was humble and obeyed God completely.
He did this even though it led to his death.
Even worse, he died on a cross!

[9]So God lifted him up to the highest place.
God gave him the name that is above every name.
[10]When the name of Jesus is spoken, everyone will kneel down to worship him.
Everyone in heaven and on earth and under the earth will kneel down to worship him.
[11]Everyone's mouth will say that Jesus Christ is Lord.
And God the Father will receive the glory.

Live Without Complaining

[12]My dear friends, you have always obeyed God. You obeyed while I was with you. And you have obeyed even more while I am not with you. So continue to work out your own salvation. Do it with fear and trembling. [13]God is working in you. He wants your plans and your acts to fulfill his good purpose.

[14]Do everything without complaining or arguing. [15]Then you will be pure and without blame. You will be children of God without fault among sinful and evil people. Then you will shine among them like stars in the sky. [16]You will shine as you hold on tight to the word of life. Then I will be able to boast about you on the day Christ returns. I can be happy that I didn't run or work for nothing. [17]But my life might even be poured out like a drink offering on your sacrifices. I'm talking about the way you serve because you believe. Even so, I am glad. I am joyful with all of you. [18]So you too should be glad and joyful with me.

Timothy and Epaphroditus

[19]I hope to send Timothy to you soon if the Lord Jesus allows it. Then I will be encouraged when I receive news about you. [20]I have no one else like Timothy. He will truly care about how you are doing. [21]All the others are looking out for their own interests. They are not looking out for the interests of Jesus Christ. [22]But you know that Timothy has proved himself. He has served with me like a son with his father in spreading the good news. [23]So I hope to send him as soon as I see how things go with me. [24]And I'm sure I myself will come soon if the Lord allows it.

[25]But I think it's necessary to send Epaphroditus back to you. He is my brother in the Lord. He is a worker and a soldier of Christ together with me. He is also your messenger. You sent him to take care of my needs. [26]He longs for all of you. He is troubled because you heard he was sick. [27]He was very sick. In fact, he almost died. But God had mercy on him. He also had mercy on me. God spared me sadness after sadness. [28]So I want even more to send him to you. Then when you see him again, you will be glad. And I won't worry so much. [29]So then, welcome him as a brother in the Lord with great joy. Honor people like him. [30]He almost died for the work of Christ. He put his life in danger to make up for the help you yourselves couldn't give me.

Philippians 3

Do Not Trust in Who You Are or What You Can Do

[1]Further, my brothers and sisters, be joyful because you belong to the Lord! It is no trouble for me to write about some important matters to you again. If you know about them, you will have a safe path to follow. [2]Watch out for those dogs.
They are people who do evil things. When they circumcise, it is nothing more than a useless cutting of the body. [3]But we have been truly circumcised. We serve God by the power of his Spirit. We boast about what Christ Jesus has done.
We don't put our trust in who we are or what we can do. [4]I have many reasons to trust in who I am and what I have done. Someone else may think they have reasons to trust in these things. But I have even more.

[5]I was circumcised on the eighth day. I am part of the people of Israel. I am from the tribe of Benjamin. I am a pure Hebrew. As far as the law is concerned, I am a Pharisee. [6]As far as being committed is concerned, I opposed and attacked the church. As far as keeping the law is concerned, I kept it perfectly.

[7]I thought things like that were really something great. But now I consider them to be nothing because of Christ. [8]Even more, I consider everything to be nothing compared to knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. To know him is worth much more than anything else. Because of him I have lost everything. But I consider all of it to be garbage so I can know Christ better. [9]I want to be joined to him. Being right with God does not come from my obeying the law. It comes because I believe in Christ. It comes from God because of faith. [10]I want to know Christ better. Yes, I want to know the power that raised him from the dead.
I want to join him in his sufferings. I want to become like him by sharing in his death. [11]Then by God's grace I will rise from the dead.

[12]I have not yet received all these things. I have not yet reached my goal.
Christ Jesus took hold of me so that I could reach that goal. So I keep pushing myself forward to reach it. [13]Brothers and sisters, I don't consider that I have taken hold of it yet. But here is the one thing I do. I forget what is behind me. I push hard toward what is ahead of me. [14]I push myself forward toward the goal to win the prize. God has appointed me to win it. The heavenly prize is Christ Jesus himself.

Following Paul's Example

[15]So all of us who are grown up in the faith should see things this way. Maybe you think differently about something. But God will make it clear to you. [16]Only let us live up to what we have already reached.

[17]Brothers and sisters, join together in following my example. You have us as a model. So pay close attention to those who live as we do. [18]I have told you these things many times before. Now I tell you again with tears in my eyes. Many people live like enemies of the cross of Christ. [19]The only thing they have coming to them is death. Their stomach is their god. They brag about what they should be ashamed of. They think only about earthly things. [20]But we are citizens of heaven. And we can hardly wait for a Savior from there. He is the Lord Jesus Christ. [21]He has the power to bring everything under his control. By his power he will change our earthly bodies. They will become like his glorious body.

Philippians 4

Remain Strong in the Lord

[1]My brothers and sisters, in this way remain strong in the Lord. I love you and long for you. Dear friends, you are my joy and my crown.

[2]Here is what I'm asking Euodia and Syntyche to do. I'm asking them to work together in the Lord. That's because they both belong to the Lord. [3]My true companion, here is what I ask you to do. Help these women, because they have served at my side. They have worked with me to spread the good news. So have Clement and the rest of those who have worked together with me. Their names are all written in the book of life.

Final Commands

[4]Always be joyful because you belong to the Lord. I will say it again. Be joyful! [5]Let everyone know how gentle you are. The Lord is coming soon. [6]Don't worry about anything. No matter what happens, tell God about everything. Ask and pray, and give thanks to him. [7]Then God's peace will watch over your hearts and your minds. He will do this because you belong to Christ Jesus. God's peace can never be completely understood.

[8]Finally, my brothers and sisters, always think about what is true. Think about what is noble, right and pure. Think about what is lovely and worthy of respect. If anything is excellent or worthy of praise, think about those kinds of things. [9]Do what you have learned or received or heard from me. Follow my example. The God who gives peace will be with you.

Paul Gives Thanks for the Philippians' Gifts

[10]At last you are concerned about me again. That makes me very happy. We belong to the Lord. I know that you were concerned. But you had no chance to show it. [11]I'm not saying this because I need anything. I have learned to be content no matter what happens to me. [12]I know what it's like not to have what I need. I also know what it's like to have more than I need. I have learned the secret of being content no matter what happens. I am content whether I am well fed or hungry. I am content whether I have more than enough or not enough. [13]I can do all this by the power of Christ. He gives me strength.

[14]But it was good of you to share in my troubles. [15]And you believers at Philippi know what happened when I left Macedonia. Not one church helped me in the matter of giving and receiving. You were the only one that did. That was in the early days when you first heard the good news. [16]Even when I was in Thessalonica, you sent me help when I needed it. And you did it more than once. [17]It is not that I want your gifts. What I really want is what is best for you. [18]I have received my full pay and have more than enough. I have everything I need. That's because Epaphroditus brought me the gifts you sent. They are a sweet-smelling offering. They are a gift that God accepts. He is pleased with it. [19]My God will meet all your needs. He will meet them in keeping with his wonderful riches. These riches come to you because you belong to Christ Jesus.

[20]Give glory to our God and Father for ever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

[21]Greet all God's people. They belong to Christ Jesus.

The brothers and sisters who are with me send greetings.

[22]All God's people here send you greetings. Most of all, those who live in the palace of Caesar send you greetings.

[23]May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Colossians

Colossians 1

[1]I, Paul, am writing this letter. I am an apostle of Christ Jesus just as God planned. Our brother Timothy joins me in writing.

[2]We are sending this letter to you, our brothers and sisters in Colossae. You belong to Christ. You are holy and faithful.

May God our Father give you grace and peace.

Paul Prays and Gives Thanks

[3]We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you. [4]We thank him because we have heard about your faith in Christ Jesus. We have also heard that you love all God's people. [5]Your faith and love are based on the hope you have. What you hope for is stored up for you in heaven. You have already heard about it. You were told about it when the true message was given to you. I'm talking about the good news [6]that has come to you. In the same way, the good news is bearing fruit. It is bearing fruit and growing all over the world. It has been doing that among you since the day you heard it. That is when you really understood God's grace. [7]You learned the good news from Epaphras. He is dear to us. He serves Christ together with us. He faithfully works for Christ and for us among you. [8]He also told us about your love that comes from the Holy Spirit.

[9]That's why we have not stopped praying for you. We have been praying for you since the day we heard about you. We keep asking God to fill you with the knowledge of what he wants. We pray he will give you the wisdom and understanding that the Spirit gives. [10]Then you will be able to lead a life that is worthy of the Lord. We pray that you will please him in every way. So we want you to bear fruit in every good thing you do. We pray that you will grow to know God better. [11]We want you to be very strong, in keeping with his glorious power. We want you to be patient. We pray that you will never give up. [12]We want you to give thanks with joy to the Father. He has made you fit to have what he will give to all his holy people. You will all receive a share in the kingdom of light.

[13]He has saved us from the kingdom of darkness. He has brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves. [14]Because of what the Son has done, we have been set free. Because of him, all our sins have been forgiven.

The Son of God Is Better Than Everything Else

[15]The Son is the exact likeness of God, who can't be seen. The Son is first, and he is over all creation. [16]All things were created in him. He created everything in heaven and on earth. He created everything that can be seen and everything that can't be seen. He created kings, powers, rulers and authorities. All things have been created by him and for him. [17]Before anything was created, he was already there. He holds everything together. [18]And he is the head of the body, which is the church. He is the beginning. He is the first to be raised from the dead. That happened so that he would be far above everything. [19]God was pleased to have his whole nature living in Christ. [20]God was pleased to bring all things back to himself. That's because of what Christ has done. These things include everything on earth and in heaven. God made peace through Christ's blood, by his death on the cross.

[21]At one time you were separated from God. You were enemies in your minds because of your evil ways. [22]But because Christ died, God has brought you back to himself. Christ's death has made you holy in God's sight. So now you don't have any flaw. You are free from blame. [23]But you must keep your faith steady and firm. You must not move away from the hope the good news holds out to you. This is the good news that you heard. It has been preached to every creature under heaven. I, Paul, now serve the good news.

Paul's Work for the Church

[24]I am happy because of what I am suffering for you. My suffering joins with and continues the sufferings of Christ. I suffer for his body, which is the church. [25]I serve the church. God appointed me to bring the complete word of God to you. [26]That word contains the mystery that has been hidden for many ages. But now it has been made known to the Lord's people. [27]God has chosen to make known to them the glorious riches of that mystery. He has made it known among the Gentiles. And here is what it is. Christ is in you. He is your hope of glory.

[28]Christ is the one we preach about. With all the wisdom we have, we warn and teach everyone. When we bring them to God, we want them to be like Christ. We want them to be grown up as people who belong to Christ. [29]That's what I'm working for. I work hard with all the strength of Christ. His strength works powerfully in me.

Colossians 2

[1]I want you to know how hard I am working for you. I'm concerned for those who are in Laodicea. I'm also concerned for everyone who has not met me in person. [2]My goal is that their hearts may be encouraged and strengthened. I want them to be joined together in love. Then their understanding will be rich and complete. They will know the mystery of God. That mystery is Christ. [3]All the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden in him. [4]But I don't want anyone to fool you with words that only sound good. [5]So even though I am away from you in body, I am with you in spirit. And I am glad to see that you are controlling yourselves. I am happy that your faith in Christ is so strong.

Having All Things in Christ

[6]You received Christ Jesus as Lord. So keep on living your lives in him. [7]Have your roots in him. Build yourselves up in him. Grow strong in what you believe, just as you were taught. Be more thankful than ever before.

[8]Make sure no one controls you. They will try to control you by using false reasoning that has no meaning. Their ideas depend on human teachings. They also depend on the basic spiritual powers of this world. They don't depend on Christ.

[9]God's whole nature is living in Christ in human form. [10]Because you belong to Christ, you have been made complete. He is the ruler over every power and authority. [11]When you received Christ, your circumcision was not done by human hands. Instead, your circumcision was done by Christ. He put away the person you used to be. At that time, sin's power ruled over you. [12]When you were baptized, you were buried together with Christ. And you were raised to life together with him when you were baptized. You were raised to life by believing in God's work. God himself raised Jesus from the dead.

[13]At one time you were dead in your sins. Your desires controlled by sin were not circumcised. But God gave you new life together with Christ. He forgave us all our sins. [14]He wiped out what the law said that we owed. The law stood against us. It judged us. But he has taken it away and nailed it to the cross. [15]He took away the weapons of the powers and authorities. He made a public show of them. He won the battle over them by dying on the cross.

Freedom From Human Rules

16So don’t let anyone judge you because of what you eat or drink. Don’t let anyone judge you about holy days. I’m talking about special feasts and New Moons and Sabbath days. 17They are only a shadow of the things to come. But what is real is found in Christ. 18Some people enjoy pretending they aren’t proud. They worship angels. But don’t let people like that judge you. These people tell you every little thing about what they have seen. They are proud of their useless ideas. That’s because their minds are not guided by the Holy Spirit.
19They aren’t connected anymore to the head, who is Christ. But the whole body grows from the head. The muscles and tendons hold the body together. And God causes it to grow.

20Some people still follow the basic spiritual powers of the world. But you died with Christ as far as these powers are concerned. So why do you act as if you still belong to the world? Here are the rules you follow. 21“Do not handle!
Do not taste! Do not touch!” 22Rules like these are about things that will pass away soon. They are based on merely human rules and teachings. 23It is true that these rules seem wise. Because of them, people give themselves over to their own kind of worship. They pretend they are humble. They treat their bodies very badly. But rules like these don’t help. They don’t stop people from chasing after sinful pleasures.

Colossians 3

Teachings About Holy Living

[1]You have been raised up with Christ. So think about things that are in heaven. That is where Christ is. He is sitting at God's right hand. [2]Think about things that are in heaven. Don't think about things that are only on earth. [3]You died. Now your life is hidden with Christ in God. [4]Christ is your life. When he appears again, you also will appear with him in heaven's glory.

[5]So put to death anything that comes from sinful desires. Get rid of sexual sins and impure acts. Don't let your feelings get out of control. Remove from your life all evil desires. Stop always wanting more and more. You might as well be worshiping statues of gods. [6]God's anger is going to come because of these things. [7]That's the way you lived at one time in your life. [8]But now here are the kinds of things you must also get rid of. You must get rid of anger, rage, hate and lies. Let no dirty words come out of your mouths. [9]Don't lie to one another. You have gotten rid of your old way of life and its habits. [10]You have started living a new life. Your knowledge of how that life should have the Creator's likeness is being made new. [11]Here there is no Gentile or Jew. There is no difference between those who are circumcised and those who are not. There is no rude outsider, or even a Scythian. There is no slave or free person. But Christ is everything. And he is in everything.

[12]You are God's chosen people. You are holy and dearly loved. So put on tender mercy and kindness as if they were your clothes. Don't be proud. Be gentle and patient. [13]Put up with one another. Forgive one another if you are holding something against someone. Forgive, just as the Lord forgave you. [14]And over all these good things put on love. Love holds them all together perfectly as if they were one.

[15]Let the peace that Christ gives rule in your hearts. As parts of one body, you were appointed to live in peace. And be thankful. [16]Let the message about Christ live among you like a rich treasure. Teach and correct one another wisely. Teach one another by singing psalms and hymns and songs from the Spirit. Sing to God with thanks in your hearts. [17]Do everything you say or do in the name of the Lord Jesus. Always give thanks to God the Father through Christ.

Teachings About Christian Families

[18]Wives, follow the lead of your husbands. That’s what the Lord wants you to do.

[19]Husbands, love your wives. Don’t be mean to them.

[20]Children, obey your parents in everything. That pleases the Lord.

[21]Fathers, don’t make your children bitter. If you do, they will lose hope.

[22]Slaves, obey your earthly masters in everything. Don’t do it just to please them when they are watching you. Obey them with an honest heart. Do it out of respect for the Lord. [23]Work at everything you do with all your heart. Work as if you were working for the Lord, not for human masters. [24]Work because you know that you will finally receive as a reward what the Lord wants you to have. You are slaves of the Lord Christ. [25]Anyone who does wrong will be paid back for what they do. God treats everyone the same.

Colossians 4

[1]Masters, give your slaves what is right and fair. Do it because you know that you also have a Master in heaven.

More Teachings

[2]Give a lot of time and effort to prayer. Always be watchful and thankful. [3]Pray for us too. Pray that God will give us an opportunity to preach our message. Then we can preach the mystery of Christ. Because I preached it, I am being held by chains. [4]Pray that I will preach it clearly, as I should. [5]Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders. Make the most of every opportunity. [6]Let the words you speak always be full of grace. Learn how to make your words what people want to hear. Then you will know how to answer everyone.

Final Greetings

[7]Tychicus will tell you all the news about me. He is a dear brother. He is a faithful worker. He serves the Lord together with us. [8]I am sending him to you for one reason. I want you to know what is happening here. I want him to encourage you and make your hearts strong. [9]He is coming with Onesimus, our faithful and dear brother. He is one of you. They will tell you everything that is happening here.

[10]Aristarchus is in prison with me. He sends you his greetings. So does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas. You have been given directions about him. If he comes to you, welcome him.

[11]Jesus, who is called Justus, also sends greetings. They are the only Jews who have worked together with me for God’s kingdom. They have been a comfort to me.

[12]Epaphras sends greetings. He is one of you. He serves Christ Jesus. He is always praying hard for you. He prays that you will hold on tightly to all that God has in mind for us. He prays that you will keep growing in your knowledge of what God wants. He also prays that you will be completely sure about it. [13]I am happy to tell you that he is working very hard for you. He is also working hard for everyone in Laodicea and Hierapolis.

[14]Our dear friend Luke, the doctor, sends greetings. So does Demas.

[15]Give my greetings to the brothers and sisters in Laodicea. Also give my greetings to Nympha and the church that meets in her house.

[16]After this letter has been read to you, send it on. Be sure that it is also read to the church in Laodicea. And be sure that you read the letter from Laodicea.

[17]Tell Archippus, “Be sure that you complete the work the Lord gave you to do.”

[18]I, Paul, am writing this greeting with my own hand. Remember that I am being held by chains. May grace be with you.

1 Thessalonians

1 Thessalonians 1

[1]I, Paul, am writing this letter. Silas and Timothy join me in writing.

We are sending this letter to you, the members of the church in Thessalonica. You belong to God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

May grace and peace be given to you.

Paul Gives Thanks for the Thessalonians' Faith

[2]We always thank God for all of you. We keep on praying for you. [3]We remember you when we pray to our God and Father. Your work is produced by your faith. Your service is the result of your love. Your strength to continue comes from your hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

[4]Brothers and sisters, you are loved by God. We know that he has chosen you. [5]Our good news didn't come to you only in words. It came with power. It came with the Holy Spirit's help. He gave us complete faith in what we were preaching. You know how we lived among you for your good. [6]We and the Lord were your examples. You followed us. You welcomed our message even when you were suffering terribly. You welcomed it with the joy the Holy Spirit gives. [7]So you became a model to all the believers in the lands of Macedonia and Achaia. [8]The Lord's message rang out from you. That was true not only in Macedonia and Achaia. Your faith in God has also become known everywhere. So we don't have to say anything about it. [9]The believers themselves report the kind of welcome you gave us. They tell about how you turned away from statues of gods. And you turned to serve the living and true God. [10]They tell about how you are waiting for his Son to come from heaven. God raised him from the dead. He is Jesus. He saves us from God's anger, and his anger is sure to come.

1 Thessalonians 2

Paul's Work for God in Thessalonica

[1]Brothers and sisters, you know that our visit to you produced results. [2]You know what happened earlier in the city of Philippi. We suffered, and people treated us very badly there. But God gave us the boldness to tell you his good news. We preached to you even when people strongly opposed us. [3]The appeal we make is based on truth. It comes from a pure heart. We are not trying to trick you. [4]In fact, it is just the opposite. God has approved us to preach. He has trusted us with the good news. We aren't trying to please people. We want to please God. He tests our hearts. [5]As you know, we never praised you if we didn't mean it. We didn't put on a mask to cover up any sinful desire. God is our witness that this is true. [6]We were not expecting people to praise us. We were not looking for praise from you or anyone else. Yet as Christ's apostles, we could have used our authority over you. [7]Instead, we were like young children when we were with you.

As a mother feeds and cares for her little children, [8]we cared for you. We loved you so much. So we were happy to share with you God's good news. We were also happy to share our lives with you. [9]Brothers and sisters, I am sure you remember how hard we worked. We labored night and day while we preached to you God's good news. We didn't want to cause you any expense. [10]You are witnesses of how we lived among you believers. God is also a witness that we were holy and godly and without blame. [11]You know that we treated each of you as a father treats his own children. [12]We gave you hope and strength. We comforted you. We really wanted you to live in a way that is worthy of God. He chooses you to enter his glorious kingdom.

[13]We never stop thanking God for the way you received his word. You heard it from us. But you didn't accept it as a human word. You accepted it for what it really is. It is God's word. It is really at work in you who believe. [14]Brothers and sisters, you became like the members of God's churches in Judea. They are believers in Christ Jesus, just as you are. Your own people made you suffer. You went through the same things the church members in Judea suffered from the Jews. [15]The Jews who killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets also forced us to leave. They do not please God. They are enemies of everyone. [16]They try to keep us from speaking to the Gentiles. These Jews don't want the Gentiles to be saved. In this way, these Jews always increase their sins to the limit. God’s anger has come on them at last.

Paul Wants to See the Believers in Thessalonica

17 Brothers and sisters, we were separated from you for a short time. Apart from you, we were like children without parents. We were no longer with you in person. But we kept you in our thoughts. We really wanted to see you. So we tried very hard to do so. 18 We wanted to come to you. Again and again I, Paul, wanted to come. But Satan blocked our way. 19 What is our hope? What is our joy? When our Lord Jesus returns, what is the crown we will delight in? Isn’t it you? 20 Yes, you are our glory and our joy.

1 Thessalonians 3

[1]We couldn’t wait any longer. So we thought it was best to be left by ourselves in Athens. [2]We sent our brother Timothy to give you strength and hope in your faith. He works together with us in God’s service to spread the good news about Christ. [3]We sent him so that no one would be upset by times of testing. You know very well that we have to go through times of testing. [4]In fact, when we were with you, here is what we kept telling you. We were telling you that our enemies would make us suffer. As you know very well, it has turned out that way. [5]That’s the reason I sent someone to find out about your faith. I couldn’t wait any longer. I was afraid that Satan had tempted you in some way. Then our work among you would have been useless.

Timothy Brings a Good Report

[6]But Timothy has come to us from you just now. He has brought good news about your faith and love. He has told us that you always have happy memories of us. He has also said that you desire to see us, just as we desire to see you.
[7]Brothers and sisters, in all our trouble and suffering your faith encouraged us.
[8]Now we really live, because you are standing firm in the Lord. [9]How can we thank God enough for you? We thank God because of all the joy we have in his presence. We have this joy because of you. [10]Night and day we pray very hard that we will see you again. We want to give you what is missing in your faith.

[11]Now may a way be opened up for us to come to you. May our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus do this. [12]May the Lord make your love grow.
May it be like a rising flood. May your love for one another increase. May it also increase for everyone else. May it be just like our love for you. [13]May the Lord give you strength in your hearts. Then you will be holy and without blame in the sight of our God and Father. May that be true when our Lord Jesus comes with all his holy ones.

1 Thessalonians 4

Living in a Way That Pleases God

[1]Now I want to talk about some other matters, brothers and sisters. We taught you how to live in a way that pleases God. In fact, that is how you are living. In the name of the Lord Jesus we ask and beg you to do it more and more. [2]You know the directions we gave you. They were given by the authority of the Lord Jesus.

[3]God wants you to be made holy. He wants you to stay away from sexual sins.
[4]He wants all of you to learn to control your own bodies. You must live in a way that is holy. You must live with honor. [5]Don't desire to commit sexual sins like people who don't know God. [6]None of you should sin against your brother or sister by doing that. You should not take advantage of your brother or sister. The Lord will punish everyone who commits these kinds of sins. We have already told you and warned you about this. [7]That's because God chose us to live pure lives. He wants us to be holy. [8]Suppose someone refuses to accept our teaching.
They are not turning their back on us. They are turning their back on God. This same God gives you his Holy Spirit.

[9]We don't need to write to you about your love for one another. God himself has taught you to love one another. [10]In fact, you do love all God's family all around Macedonia. Brothers and sisters, we are asking you to love one another more and more. [11]And do everything you can to live a quiet life. You should mind your own business. And work with your hands, just as we told you to.
[12]Then unbelievers will have respect for your everyday life. And you won't have to depend on anyone.

What Happens to Believers Who Have Died

[13]Brothers and sisters, we want you to know what happens to those who die.
We don't want you to mourn, as other people do. They mourn because they don't have any hope. [14]We believe that Jesus died and rose again. When he returns, many who believe in him will have died already. We believe that God will bring them back with Jesus. [15]This agrees with what the Lord has said. When the Lord comes, many of us will still be alive. We tell you that we will certainly not go up before those who have died. [16]The Lord himself will come down from heaven.

We will hear a loud command. We will hear the voice of the leader of the angels. We will hear a blast from God's trumpet. Many who believe in Christ will have died already. They will rise first. [17]After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them. We will be taken up in the clouds. We will meet the Lord in the air. And we will be with him forever. [18]So encourage one another with these words of comfort.

1 Thessalonians 5

The Day of the Lord Is Coming

[1]Brothers and sisters, we don’t have to write to you about times and dates.
[2]You know very well how the day of the Lord will come. It will come like a thief in the night. [3]People will be saying that everything is peaceful and safe. Then suddenly they will be destroyed. It will happen like birth pains coming on a pregnant woman. None of the people will escape.

[4]Brothers and sisters, you are not in darkness. So that day should not surprise you as a thief would. [5]All of you are children of the light. You are children of the day. We don’t belong to the night. We don’t belong to the darkness. [6]So let us not be like the others. They are asleep. Instead, let us be wide awake and in full control of ourselves. [7]Those who sleep, sleep at night. Those who get drunk, get drunk at night. [8]But we belong to the day. So let us control ourselves. Let us put on our chest the armor of faith and love. Let us put on the hope of salvation like a helmet. [9]God didn’t choose us to receive his anger. He chose us to receive salvation because of what our Lord Jesus Christ has done. [10]Jesus died for us.
Some will be alive when he comes. Others will be dead. Either way, we will live together with him. [11]So encourage one another with the hope you have. Build each other up. In fact, that’s what you are doing.

Final Teachings

[12]Brothers and sisters, we ask you to accept the godly leaders who work hard among you. They care for you in the Lord. They correct you. [13]Have a lot of respect for them. Love them because of what they do. Live in peace with one another. [14]Brothers and sisters, we are asking you to warn certain people. These people don’t want to work. Instead, they make trouble. We are also asking you to encourage those who have lost hope. Help those who are weak. Be patient with everyone. [15]Make sure that no one pays back one wrong act with another.
Instead, always try to do what is good for each other and for everyone else.

[16]Always be joyful. [17]Never stop praying. [18]Give thanks no matter what happens. God wants you to thank him because you believe in Christ Jesus.

[19]Don’t try to stop what the Holy Spirit is doing. [20]Don’t treat prophecies as if they weren’t important. [21]But test all prophecies. Hold on to what is good. [22]Say no to every kind of evil.

[23]God is the God who gives peace. May he make you holy through and through. May your whole spirit, soul and body be kept free from blame. May you be without blame from now until our Lord Jesus Christ comes. [24]The God who has chosen you is faithful. He will do all these things.

[25]Brothers and sisters, pray for us.

[26]Greet all God’s people with a holy kiss.

[27]While the Lord is watching, here is what I command you. Have this letter read to all the brothers and sisters.

[28]May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

2 Thessalonians

2 Thessalonians 1

[1]I, Paul, am writing this letter. Silas and Timothy join me in writing.

We are sending this letter to you, the members of the church in Thessalonica. You belong to God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

[2]May God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Paul Prays and Gives Thanks

[3]Brothers and sisters, we should always thank God for you. That is only right, because your faith is growing more and more. We also thank God that the love you all have for one another is increasing. [4]So among God's churches we brag about the fact that you don't give up easily. We brag about your faith in all the suffering and testing you are going through.

[5]All of this proves that when God judges, he is fair. So you will be considered worthy to enter God's kingdom. You are suffering for his kingdom. [6]God is fair. He will pay back trouble to those who give you trouble. [7]He will help you who are troubled. And he will also help us. All these things will happen when the Lord Jesus appears from heaven. He will come in blazing fire. He will come with his powerful angels. [8]He will punish those who don't know God. He will punish those who don't obey the good news about our Lord Jesus. [9]They will be destroyed forever. They will be shut out of heaven. They will never see the glory of the Lord's strength. [10]All these things will happen when he comes. On that day his glory will be seen in his holy people. Everyone who has believed will be amazed when they see him. This includes you, because you believed the witness we gave you.

[11]Keeping this in mind, we never stop praying for you. Our God has chosen you. We pray that he will make you worthy of his choice. We pray he will make every good thing you want to do come true. We pray that he will do this by his power. We pray that he will make perfect all that you have done by faith. [12]We pray this so that the name of our Lord Jesus will receive glory through what you have done. We also pray that you will receive glory through what he has done. We pray all these things in keeping with the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 2

The Man of Sin

[1]Brothers and sisters, we want to ask you something. It has to do with the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. It concerns the time when we will go to be with him. [2]What if you receive a message that is supposed to have come from us? What if it says that the day of the Lord has already come? If it does, we ask you not to become easily upset or alarmed. Don't be upset whether that message is spoken or written or prophesied. [3]Don't let anyone trick you in any way. That day will not come until people rise up against God. It will not come until the man of sin appears. He is a marked man. He is headed for ruin. [4]He will oppose everything that is called God. He will oppose everything that is worshiped. He will give himself power over everything. He will set himself up in God's temple. He will announce that he himself is God.

[5]Don't you remember? When I was with you, I used to tell you these things. [6]Now you know what is holding back the man of sin. He is held back so that he can make his appearance at the right time. [7]The secret power of sin is already at work. But the one who now holds back that power will keep doing it until he is taken out of the way. [8]Then the man of sin will appear. The Lord Jesus will overthrow him with the breath of his mouth. The glorious brightness of Jesus' coming will destroy the man of sin. [9]The coming of the man of sin will fit how Satan works. The man of sin will show his power through all kinds of signs and wonders. These signs and wonders will lead people astray. [10]So people who are dying will be fooled by this evil. These people are dying because they refuse to love the truth. The truth would save them. [11]So God will fool them completely. Then they will believe the lie. [12]Many will not believe the truth. They will take pleasure in evil. They will be judged.

Remain Strong in the Faith

[13]Brothers and sisters, we should always thank God for you. The Lord loves you. That's because God chose you as the first to be saved. Salvation comes through the Holy Spirit's work. He makes people holy. It also comes through believing the truth. [14]He chose you to be saved by accepting the good news that we preach. And you will share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

[15]Brothers and sisters, remain strong in the faith. Hold on to what we taught you. We passed our teachings on to you by what we preached and wrote.

[16]Our Lord Jesus Christ and God our Father loved us. By his grace God gave us comfort that will last forever. The hope he gave us is good. May our Lord Jesus Christ and God our Father [17]comfort your hearts. May they make you strong in every good thing you do and say.

2 Thessalonians 3

Paul Asks for Prayer

[1]Now I want to talk about some other matters. Brothers and sisters, pray for us. Pray that the Lord's message will spread quickly. Pray that others will honor it just as you did. [2]And pray that we will be saved from sinful and evil people. Not everyone is a believer. [3]But the Lord is faithful. He will strengthen you. He will guard you from the evil one. [4]We trust in the Lord. So we are sure that you are doing the things we tell you to do. And we are sure that you will keep on doing them. [5]May the Lord fill your hearts with God's love. May Christ give you the strength to go on.

Paul Warns Those Who Do Not Want to Work

[6]Brothers and sisters, here is a command we give you. We give it in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Keep away from every believer who doesn't want to work and makes trouble. Keep away from any believer who doesn't live up to the teaching you received from us. [7]You know how you should follow our example. We worked when we were with you. [8]We didn't eat anyone's food without paying for it. In fact, it was just the opposite. We worked night and day. We worked very hard so that we wouldn't cause any expense to any of you. [9]We worked, even though we have the right to receive help from you. We did it in order to be a model for you to follow. [10]Even when we were with you, we gave you a rule. We said, "Anyone who won't work shouldn't be allowed to eat."

[11]We hear that some people among you don't want to work and are making trouble. They aren't really busy. Instead, they are bothering others. [12]We belong to the Lord Jesus Christ. So we strongly command people like that to settle down. They have to earn the food they eat. [13]Brothers and sisters, don't ever get tired of doing what is good.

[14]Keep an eye on anyone who doesn't obey the teachings in our letter. Don't have anything to do with that person. Then they will feel ashamed. [15]But don't think of them as an enemy. Instead, warn them as you would warn another believer.

Final Greetings

16 May the Lord who gives peace give you peace at all times and in every way.
May the Lord be with all of you.

17 I, Paul, write this greeting in my own handwriting. That's how I prove that I am the author of all my letters. I always do it that way.

18 May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

1 Timothy

1 Timothy 1

[1]I, Paul, am writing this letter. I am an apostle of Christ Jesus, just as God our Savior commanded. Christ Jesus also commanded it. We have put our hope in him.

[2]Timothy, I am sending you this letter. You are my true son in the faith.

May God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord give you grace, mercy and peace.

Paul Warns Timothy to Oppose False Teachers

[3]Timothy, stay there in Ephesus. That is what I told you to do when I went into Macedonia. I want you to command certain people not to teach things that aren't true. [4]And command them not to spend their time on stories that are made up. They must not waste time on family histories that never end. These things only lead to fights about ideas. They don't help God's work move forward. His work is done by faith. [5]Love is the purpose of my command. Love comes from a pure heart. It comes from a good sense of what is right and wrong. It comes from faith that is honest and true. [6]Some have turned from these teachings. They would rather talk about things that have no meaning. [7]They want to be teachers of the law. And they are very sure about that law. But they don't know what they are talking about.

[8]We know that the law is good if it is used properly. [9]We also know that the law isn't made for godly people. It is made for those who break the law. It is for those who refuse to obey. It is for ungodly and sinful people. It is for those who aren't holy and who don't believe. It is for those who kill their fathers or mothers. It is for murderers. [10]It is for those who commit sexual sins. It is for those who commit homosexual acts. It is for people who buy and sell slaves. It is for liars. It is for people who tell lies in court. It is for those who are a witness to things that aren't true. And it is for anything else that is the opposite of true teaching. [11]True teaching agrees with the good news about the glory of the blessed God. He trusted me with that good news.

The Lord Pours Out His Grace on Paul

[12]I am thankful to Christ Jesus our Lord. He has given me strength. I thank him that he considered me faithful. I thank him for appointing me to serve him. [13]I used to speak evil things against Jesus. I tried to hurt his followers. I really pushed them around. But God showed me mercy anyway. I did those things without knowing any better. I wasn't a believer. [14]Our Lord poured out more and more of his grace on me. Along with it came faith and love from Christ Jesus.

[15]Here is a saying that you can trust. It should be accepted completely. Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. And I am the worst sinner of all. [16]But for that very reason, God showed me mercy. And I am the worst of sinners. He showed me mercy so that Christ Jesus could show that he is very patient. I was an example for those who would come to believe in him. Then they would receive eternal life. [17]The eternal King will never die. He can't be seen. He is the only God. Give him honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Paul Commands Timothy

[18]My son Timothy, I am giving you this command. It is in keeping with the prophecies once made about you. By remembering them, you can fight the battle well. [19]Then you will hold on to faith. You will hold on to a good sense of what is right and wrong. Some have not accepted this knowledge of right and wrong. So they have destroyed their faith. They are like a ship that has sunk. [20]Hymenaeus and Alexander are among them. I have handed them over to Satan. That will teach them not to speak evil things against God.

1 Timothy 2

Teachings About Worship

[1]First, I want you to pray for all people. Ask God to help and bless them. Give thanks for them. [2]Pray for kings. Pray for everyone who is in authority. Pray that we can live peaceful and quiet lives. And pray that we will be godly and holy. [3]This is good, and it pleases God our Savior. [4]He wants all people to be saved. He wants them to come to know the truth. [5]There is only one God. And there is only one go-between for God and human beings. He is the man Christ Jesus. [6]He gave himself to pay for the sins of all people. We have been told this message at just the right time. [7]I was appointed to be a messenger and an apostle to preach the good news. I am telling the truth. I'm not lying. God appointed me to be a true and faithful teacher of the Gentiles.

[8]So I want the men in every place to pray. I want them to lift up holy hands. I don't want them to be angry when they pray. I don't want them to argue. [9]In the same way, I want the women to be careful how they dress. They should wear clothes that are right and proper. They shouldn't wear their hair in very fancy styles. They shouldn't wear gold or pearls. They shouldn't wear clothes that cost a lot of money. [10]Instead, they should put on good works as if good works were their clothes. This is proper for women who claim to worship God.

[11]When a woman is learning, she should be quiet. She should follow her leaders in every way. [12]I do not let women teach or take authority over a man. They must be quiet. [13]That's because Adam was made first. Then Eve was made. [14]Adam was not the one who was tricked. The woman was tricked and became a sinner. [15]Will women be saved by having children? Only if they keep on believing, loving, and leading a holy life in a proper way.

1 Timothy 3

Rules for Choosing Leaders and Deacons

[1]Here is a saying you can trust. If anyone wants to be a leader in the church, they want to do a good work for God and people. [2]A leader must be free from blame. He must be faithful to his wife. In anything he does, he must not go too far. He must control himself. He must be worthy of respect. He must welcome people into his home. He must be able to teach. [3]He must not get drunk. He must not push people around. He must be gentle. He must not be a person who likes to argue. He must not love money. [4]He must manage his own family well. He must make sure that his children obey him. And he must do this in a way that gains him respect. [5]Suppose someone doesn't know how to manage his own family. Then how can he take care of God's church? [6]The leader must not be a new believer. If he is, he might become proud. Then he would be judged just like the devil. [7]The leader must also be respected by those who are outside the church. Then he will not be put to shame. He will not fall into the devil's trap.

[8]In the same way, deacons must be worthy of respect. They must be honest and true. They must not drink too much wine. They must not try to get money by cheating people. [9]They must hold on to the deep truths of the faith. Even their own minds tell them to do that. [10]First they must be tested. Then let them serve as deacons if there is nothing against them.

[11]In the same way, the women must be worthy of respect. They must not say things that harm others. In anything they do, they must not go too far. They must be worthy of trust in everything.

[12]A deacon must be faithful to his wife. He must manage his children and family well. [13]Those who have served well earn the full respect of others. They also become more sure of their faith in Christ Jesus.

Paul's Reasons for Giving Instructions to Timothy

[14]I hope I can come to you soon. But now I am writing these instructions to you. [15]Then if I have to put off my visit, you will know how people should act in God's family. The family of God is the church of the living God. It is the pillar and foundation of the truth. [16]There is no doubt that true godliness comes from this great mystery.

Jesus came as a human being.
The Holy Spirit proved that he was the Son of God.
He was seen by angels.
He was preached among the nations.
People in the world believed in him.
He was taken up to heaven in glory.

1 Timothy 4

[1]The Holy Spirit clearly says that in the last days some people will leave the faith. They will follow spirits that will fool them. They will believe things that demons will teach them. [2]Teachings like those come from liars who pretend to be what they are not. Their sense of what is right and wrong has been destroyed. It's as though it has been burned with a hot iron. [3]They do not allow people to get married. They order them not to eat certain foods. But God created those foods. So people who believe and know the truth should receive them and give thanks for them. [4]Everything God created is good. You shouldn't turn anything down. Instead, you should thank God for it. [5]The word of God and prayer make it holy.

[6]Point out these things to the brothers and sisters. Then you will serve Christ Jesus well. You will show that you've grown in the truths of the faith. You will show that you've been trained by the good teaching you've obeyed. [7]Don't have anything to do with godless stories and silly tales. Instead, train yourself to be godly. [8]Training the body has some value. But being godly has value in every way. It promises help for the life you are now living and the life to come. [9]This is the truth you can trust and accept completely. [10]This is why we work and try so hard. It's because we have put our hope in the living God. He is the Savior of all people. Most of all, he is the Savior of those who believe.

[11]Command and teach these things. [12]Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young. Set an example for the believers in what you say and in how you live. Also set an example in how you love and in what you believe. Show the believers how to be pure. [13]Until I come, spend your time reading Scripture out loud to one another. Spend your time preaching and teaching. [14]Don't fail to use the gift the Holy Spirit gave you. He gave it to you through a prophecy from God. It was given when the elders placed their hands on you.

[15]Keep on doing these things. Give them your complete attention. Then everyone will see how you are coming along. [16]Be careful of how you live and what you believe. Never give up. Then you will save yourself and those who hear you.

1 Timothy 5

Instructions About Widows, Elders and Slaves

[1]Correct an older man in a way that shows respect. Make an appeal to him as if he were your father. Treat younger men as if they were your brothers. [2]Treat older women as if they were your mothers. Treat younger women as if they were your sisters. Be completely pure in the way you treat them.

[3]Take care of the widows who really need help. [4]But suppose a widow has children or grandchildren. They should first learn to put their faith into practice.
They should care for their own family. In that way they will pay back their parents and grandparents. That pleases God. [5]A widow who really needs help and is left all alone puts her hope in God. Night and day she keeps on praying.
Night and day she asks God for help. [6]But a widow who lives for pleasure is dead even while she is still living. [7]Give these instructions to the people. Then no one can be blamed. [8]Everyone should provide for their own relatives. Most of all, everyone should take care of their own family. If they don't, they have left the faith. They are worse than someone who doesn't believe.

[9]No widow should be put on the list of widows unless she is more than 60 years old. She must also have been faithful to her husband. [10]She must be well known for the good things she does. That includes bringing up children. It includes inviting guests into her home. It includes washing the feet of the Lord's people. It includes helping those who are in trouble. A widow should spend her time doing all kinds of good things.

[11]Don't put younger widows on that kind of list. They might want pleasure more than they want Christ. Then they would want to get married again. [12]If they do that, they will be judged. They have broken their first promise.
[13]Besides, they get into the habit of having nothing to do. They go around from house to house. They waste their time. They also bother other people and say things that make no sense. They shouldn't say those things. [14]So here is the advice I give to younger widows. Get married. Have children. Take care of your own homes. Don't give the enemy the chance to tell lies about you. [15]In fact, some have already turned away to follow Satan.

[16]Suppose a woman is a believer and takes care of widows. She should continue to help them. She shouldn't let the church pay the expenses. Then the church can help the widows who really need it.

[17]The elders who do the church's work well are worth twice as much honor. That is true in a special way of elders who preach and teach. [18]Scripture says, "Do not stop an ox from eating while it helps separate the grain from the straw." (Deuteronomy 25:4) Scripture also says, "Workers are worthy of their pay." (Luke 10:7)
[19]Don't believe a charge against an elder unless two or three witnesses bring it.
[20]But those elders who are sinning should be corrected in front of everyone. This will be a warning to the others. [21]I command you to follow these instructions. I command you in the sight of God and Christ Jesus and the chosen angels. Treat everyone the same. Don't favor one person over another.

[22]Don't be too quick to place your hands on others to set them apart to serve God. Don't take part in the sins of others. Keep yourself pure.

[23]Stop drinking only water. If your stomach is upset, drink a little wine. It can also help the other sicknesses you often have.

[24]The sins of some people are easy to see. They are already being judged. Others will be judged later. [25]In the same way, good works are easy to see. But even good works that are hard to see can't stay hidden forever.

1 Timothy 6

[1]All who are forced to serve as slaves should consider their masters worthy of full respect. Then people will not speak evil things against God's name and against what we teach. [2]Some slaves have masters who are believers. They shouldn't show their masters disrespect just because they are also believers. Instead, they should serve them even better. That's because their masters are loved by them as believers. These masters are committed to caring for their slaves.

People Who Teach Lies or Love Money

These are the things you are to teach. Try hard to get the believers to do them. [3]Suppose someone teaches something different than I have taught. Suppose that person doesn't agree with the true teaching of our Lord Jesus Christ. Suppose they don't agree with godly teaching. [4]Then that person is proud and doesn't understand anything. They like to argue more than they should. They can't agree about what words mean. All of this results in wanting what others have. It causes fighting, harmful talk, and evil distrust. [5]It stirs up trouble all the time among people whose minds are twisted by sin. The truth they once had has been taken away from them. They think they can get rich by being godly.

[6]You gain a lot when you live a godly life. But you must be happy with what you have. [7]We didn't bring anything into the world. We can't take anything out of it. [8]If we have food and clothing, we will be happy with that. [9]People who want to get rich are tempted. They fall into a trap. They are tripped up by wanting many foolish and harmful things. Those who live like that are dragged down by what they do. They are destroyed and die. [10]Love for money causes all kinds of evil. Some people want to get rich. They have wandered away from the faith. They have wounded themselves with many sorrows.

Paul Gives a Final Command to Timothy

[11]But you are a man of God. Run away from all these things. Try hard to do what is right and godly. Have faith, love and gentleness. Hold on to what you believe. [12]Fight the good fight along with all other believers. Take hold of eternal life. You were chosen for it when you openly told others what you believe. Many witnesses heard you. [13]God gives life to everything. Christ Jesus told the truth when he was a witness in front of Pontius Pilate. In the sight of God and Christ, I give you a command. [14]Obey it until our Lord Jesus Christ appears. Obey it completely. Then no one can find fault with it or you. [15]God will bring Jesus back at a time that pleases him. God is the blessed and only Ruler. He is the greatest King of all. He is the most powerful Lord of all. [16]God is the only one who can't die. He lives in light that no one can get close to. No one has seen him. No one can see him. Honor and power belong to him forever. Amen.

[17]Command people who are rich in this world not to be proud. Tell them not to put their hope in riches. Wealth is so uncertain. Command those who are rich to put their hope in God. He richly provides us with everything to enjoy. [18]Command the rich to do what is good. Tell them to be rich in doing good things. They must give freely. They must be willing to share. [19]In this way, they will store up true riches for themselves. It will provide a firm basis for the next life. Then they will take hold of the life that really is life.

[20]Timothy, guard what God has trusted you with. Turn away from godless chatter. Stay away from opposing ideas that are falsely called knowledge. [21]Some people believe them. By doing that they have turned away from the faith.

May God's grace be with you all.

2 Timothy

2 Timothy 1

[1]I, Paul, am writing this letter. I am an apostle of Christ Jesus just as God planned. He sent me to tell about the promise of life found in Christ Jesus.

[2]Timothy, I am sending you this letter. You are my dear son.

May God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord give you grace, mercy and peace.

Paul Gives Thanks

[3]I thank God, whom I serve as did our people of long ago. I serve God, knowing that what I have done is right. Night and day I thank God for you. Night and day I always remember you in my prayers. [4]I remember your tears. I long to see you so that I can be filled with joy. [5]I remember your honest and true faith. It was alive first in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice. And I am certain that it is now alive in you also.

Paul Encourages Timothy to Be Faithful

[6]This is why I remind you to help God's gift grow, just as a small spark grows into a fire. God put his gift in you when I placed my hands on you. [7]God gave us his Spirit. And the Spirit doesn't make us weak and fearful. Instead, the Spirit gives us power and love. He helps us control ourselves. [8]So don't be ashamed of the message about our Lord. And don't be ashamed of me, his prisoner. Instead, join with me as I suffer for the good news. God's power will help us do that. [9]God has saved us. He has chosen us to live a holy life. It wasn't because of anything we have done. It was because of his own purpose and grace. Through Christ Jesus, God gave us this grace even before time began. [10]It has now been made known through the coming of our Savior, Christ Jesus. He has broken the power of death. Because of the good news, he has brought life out into the light. That life never dies. [11]I was appointed to announce the good news. I was appointed to be an apostle and a teacher. [12]That's why I'm suffering the way I am. But this gives me no reason to be ashamed. That's because I know who I have believed in. I am sure he is able to take care of what I have given him. I can trust him with it until the day he returns as judge.

13Follow what you heard from me as the pattern of true teaching. Follow it with faith and love because you belong to Christ Jesus. 14Guard the truth of the good news that you were trusted with. Guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

Examples of Faithful and Unfaithful People

15You know that all the believers in Asia Minor have deserted me. They include Phygelus and Hermogenes.

16May the Lord show mercy to all who live in the house of Onesiphorus. He often encouraged me. He was not ashamed that I was being held by chains. 17In fact, it was just the opposite. When he was in Rome, he looked everywhere for me. At last he found me. 18May Onesiphorus find mercy from the Lord on the day Jesus returns as judge! You know very well how many ways Onesiphorus helped me in Ephesus.

2 Timothy 2

Paul Again Encourages Timothy to Be Faithful

[1]My son, be strong in the grace that is yours in Christ Jesus. [2]You have heard me teach in front of many witnesses. Pass on to people you can trust the things you've heard me say. Then they will be able to teach others also. [3]Like a good soldier of Christ Jesus, join with me in suffering. [4]A soldier does not take part in things that don't have anything to do with the army. Instead, he tries to please his commanding officer. [5]It is the same for anyone who takes part in a sport. They don't receive the winner's crown unless they play by the rules. [6]The farmer who works hard should be the first to receive a share of the crops. [7]Think about what I'm saying. The Lord will help you understand what all of it means.

[8]Remember Jesus Christ. He came from David's family line. He was raised from the dead. That is my good news. [9]I am suffering for it. I have even been put in chains like someone who has committed a crime. But God's word is not held back by chains. [10]So I put up with everything for the good of God's chosen people. Then they also can be saved. Christ Jesus saves them. He gives them glory that will last forever.

[11]Here is a saying you can trust.

If we died with him,
we will also live with him.
[12]If we don't give up,
we will also rule with him.
If we say we don't know him,
he will also say he doesn't know us.
[13]Even if we are not faithful,
he remains faithful.
He must be true to himself.

What to Do About False Teachers

[14]Keep reminding God's people of these things. While God is watching, warn them not to argue about words. That doesn't have any value. It only destroys those who listen. [15]Do your best to please God. Be a worker who doesn't need to be ashamed. Teach the message of truth correctly. [16]Stay away from godless chatter. Those who take part in it will become more and more ungodly. [17]Their teaching will spread like a deadly sickness. Hymenaeus and Philetus are two of those teachers. [18]They have turned away from the truth. They say that the time when people will rise from the dead has already come. They destroy the faith of some people. [19]But God's solid foundation stands firm. Here is the message written on it. "The Lord knows who his own people are." (Numbers 16:5) Also, "All who say they believe in the Lord must turn away from evil."

[20]In a large house there are things made out of gold and silver. But there are also things made out of wood and clay. Some have special purposes. Others have common purposes. [21]Suppose someone stays away from what is common. Then the Master will be able to use them for special purposes. They will be made holy. They will be ready to do any good work.

[22]Run away from the evil things that young people long for. Try hard to do what is right. Have faith, love and peace. Do these things together with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart. [23]Don't have anything to do with arguing. It is dumb and foolish. You know it only leads to fights. [24]Anyone who serves the Lord must not be hard to get along with. Instead, they must be kind to everyone. They must be able to teach. The one who serves must not hold anything against anyone. [25]They must gently teach those who are against them. Maybe God will give a change of heart to those who are against you. That will lead them to know the truth. [26]Maybe they will come to their senses. Maybe they will escape the devil's trap. He has taken them as prisoners to do what he wanted.

2 Timothy 3

[1]Here is what I want you to know. There will be terrible times in the last days.
[2]People will love themselves. They will love money. They will brag and be proud. They will tear others down. They will not obey their parents. They won't be thankful or holy. [3]They won't love others. They won't forgive others. They will tell lies about people. They will be out of control. They will be wild. They will hate what is good. [4]They will turn against their friends. They will act without thinking. They will think they are better than others. They will love what pleases them instead of loving God. [5]They will act as if they were serving God.
But what they do will show that they have turned their backs on God's power.
Have nothing to do with these people.

[6]They are the kind who trick their way into the homes of some women. These women are ready to believe anything. And they take control over these women.
These women are loaded down with sins. They give in to all kinds of evil desires. [7]They are always learning. But they are never able to come to know the truth. [8]Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses. In the same way, the teachers I'm talking about oppose the truth. Their minds are twisted. As far as the faith is concerned, God doesn't accept them. [9]They won't get very far. Just like Jannes and Jambres, their foolish ways will be clear to everyone.

Paul Gives a Final Command to Timothy

[10]But you know all about my teaching. You know how I live and what I live for. You know about my faith and love. You know how patient I am. You know I haven't given up. [11]You know that I was treated badly. You know that I suffered greatly. You know what kinds of things happened to me in Antioch, Iconium and Lystra. You know how badly I have been treated. But the Lord saved me from all my troubles. [12]In fact, everyone who wants to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be treated badly. [13]Evil people and pretenders will go from bad to worse.
They will fool others, and others will fool them. [14]But I want you to continue to follow what you have learned and are sure about. You know the people you learned it from. [15]You have known the Holy Scriptures ever since you were a little child. They are able to teach you how to be saved by believing in Christ Jesus. [16]God has breathed life into all Scripture. It is useful for teaching us what is true. It is useful for correcting our mistakes. It is useful for making our lives whole again. It is useful for training us to do what is right. [17]By using Scripture, the servant of God can be completely prepared to do every good thing.

2 Timothy 4

[1]I give you a command in the sight of God and Christ Jesus. Christ will judge the living and the dead. Because he and his kingdom are coming, here is the command I give you. [2]Preach the word. Be ready to serve God in good times and bad. Correct people's mistakes. Warn them. Encourage them with words of hope.
Be very patient as you do these things. Teach them carefully. [3]The time will come when people won't put up with true teaching. Instead, they will try to satisfy their own desires. They will gather a large number of teachers around them. The teachers will say what the people want to hear. [4]The people will turn their ears away from the truth. They will turn to stories that aren't true. [5]But I want you to keep your head no matter what happens. Don't give up when times are hard. Work to spread the good news. Do everything God has given you to do.

[6]I am already being poured out like a drink offering. The time when I will leave is near. [7]I have fought the good fight. I have finished the race. I have kept the faith. [8]Now there is a crown waiting for me. It is given to those who are right with God. The Lord, who judges fairly, will give it to me on the day he returns.
He will not give it only to me. He will also give it to all those who are longing for him to return.

Personal Words

[9]Do your best to come to me quickly. [10]Demas has deserted me. He has gone to Thessalonica. He left me because he loved this world. Crescens has gone to Galatia. Titus has gone to Dalmatia. [11]Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you. He helps me in my work for the Lord. [12]I sent Tychicus to Ephesus. [13]When you come, bring my coat. I left it with Carpus at Troas. Also bring my books. Most of all, bring the ones made out of animal skins.

[14]Remember Alexander, the one who works with metal. He did me a great deal of harm. The Lord will pay him back for what he has done. [15]You too should watch out for him. He strongly opposed our message.

[16]The first time I was put on trial, no one came to help me. Everyone deserted me. I hope they will be forgiven for it. [17]The Lord stood at my side. He gave me the strength to preach the whole message. Then all the Gentiles heard it. I was saved from the lion's mouth. [18]The Lord will save me from every evil attack. He will bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. Give him glory for ever and ever.

Amen.

Final Greetings

[19]Greet Priscilla and Aquila. Greet those who live in the house of Onesiphorus.

Eubulus greets you. So do Pudens, Linus, Claudia and all the brothers and sisters.

[22]May the Lord be with your spirit. May God’s grace be with you all.

Titus

Titus 1

[1]I, Paul, am writing this letter. I serve God, and I am an apostle of Jesus Christ. God sent me to help his chosen people believe in Christ more and more. God sent me to help them understand even more the truth that leads to godly living. [2]That belief and understanding lead to the hope of eternal life. Before time began, God promised to give that life. And he does not lie. [3]Now, at just the right time, he has made his promise clear. He did this through the preaching that he trusted me with. God our Savior has commanded all these things.

[4]Titus, I am sending you this letter. You are my true son in the faith we share.

May God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior give you grace and peace.

Choosing Elders Who Love What Is Good

[5]I left you on the island of Crete. I did this because there were some things that hadn't been finished. I wanted you to put them in order. I also wanted you to appoint elders in every town. I told you how to do it. [6]An elder must be without blame. He must be faithful to his wife. His children must be believers. They must not give anyone a reason to say that they are wild and don't obey. [7]A church leader takes care of God's family. That's why he must be without blame. He must not look after only his own interests. He must not get angry easily. He must not get drunk. He must not push people around. He must not try to get money by cheating people. [8]Instead, a church leader must welcome people into his home. He must love what is good. He must control his mind and feelings. He must do what is right. He must be holy. He must control the desires of his body. [9]The message as it has been taught can be trusted. He must hold firmly to it. Then he will be able to use true teaching to comfort others and build them up. He will be able to prove that people who oppose it are wrong.

Warning People Who Fail to Do Good

[10]Many people refuse to obey God. All they do is talk about things that mean nothing. They try to fool others. No one does these things more than the circumcision group. [11]They must be stopped. They are making trouble for entire families. They do this by teaching things they shouldn't. They do these things to cheat people. [12]One of Crete's own prophets has a saying. He says, "People from Crete are always liars. They are evil beasts. They don't want to work. They live only to eat." [13]This saying is true. So give a strong warning to people who refuse to obey God. Then they will understand the faith correctly. [14]Then they will pay no attention to Jewish stories that aren't true. They won't listen to the mere human commands of people who turn away from the truth. [15]To people who are pure, all things are pure. But to those who have twisted minds and don't believe, nothing is pure. In fact, their minds and their sense of what is right and wrong are twisted. [16]They claim to know God. But their actions show they don't know him. They are hated by God. They refuse to obey him. They aren't fit to do anything good.

Titus 2

Doing Good Because of the Good News

[1]But what you teach must agree with true teaching. [2]Tell the older men that in anything they do, they must not go too far. They must be worthy of respect. They must control themselves. They must have true faith. They must love others. They must not give up.

[3]In the same way, teach the older women to lead a holy life. They must not tell lies about others. They must not let wine control them. Instead, they must teach what is good. [4]Then they can advise the younger women to love their husbands and children. [5]The younger women must control themselves and be pure. They must take good care of their homes. They must be kind. They must follow the lead of their husbands. Then no one will be able to speak evil things against God's word.

[6]In the same way, help the young men to control themselves. [7]Do what is good. Set an example for them in everything. When you teach, be honest and serious. [8]No one can question the truth. So teach what is true. Then those who oppose you will be ashamed. That's because they will have nothing bad to say about us.

[9]Teach slaves to obey their masters in everything they do. Tell them to try to please their masters. They must not talk back to them. [10]They must not steal from them. Instead, they must show that they can be trusted completely. Then they will make the teaching about God our Savior appealing in every way.

[11]God's grace has now appeared. By his grace, God offers to save all people. [12]His grace teaches us to say no to godless ways and sinful desires. We must control ourselves. We must do what is right. We must lead godly lives in today's world. [13]That's how we should live as we wait for the blessed hope God has given us. We are waiting for Jesus Christ to appear in his glory. He is our great God and Savior. [14]He gave himself for us. By doing that, he set us free from all evil. He wanted to make us pure. He wanted us to be his very own people. He wanted us to desire to do what is good.

[15]These are the things you should teach. Encourage people and give them hope. Correct them with full authority. Don't let anyone look down on you.

Titus 3

Do What Is Good Because You Are Saved

[1]Remind God's people to obey rulers and authorities. Remind them to be ready to do what is good. [2]Tell them not to speak evil things against anyone.
Remind them to live in peace. They must consider the needs of others. They must always be gentle toward everyone.

[3]At one time we too acted like fools. We didn't obey God. We were tricked.
We were controlled by all kinds of desires and pleasures. We were full of evil.
We wanted what belongs to others. People hated us, and we hated one another.
[4]But the kindness and love of God our Savior appeared. [5]He saved us. It wasn't because of the good things we had done. It was because of his mercy. He saved us by washing away our sins. We were born again. The Holy Spirit gave us new life. [6]God poured out the Spirit on us freely. That's because of what Jesus Christ our Savior has done. [7]His grace made us right with God. So now we have received the hope of eternal life as God's children. [8]You can trust this saying.
These things are important. Treat them that way. Then those who trust in God will be careful to commit themselves to doing good. These things are excellent.
They are for the good of everyone.

[9]But keep away from foolish disagreements. Don't argue about family histories. Don't make trouble. Don't fight about what the law teaches. Don't argue about things like that. It doesn't do any good. It doesn't help anyone.
[10]Warn anyone who tries to get believers to separate from one another. Warn that person more than once. After that, have nothing to do with them. [11]You can be sure that people like this are twisted and sinful. Their own actions judge them.

Final Words

[12]I will send Artemas or Tychicus to you. Then do your best to come to me at Nicopolis. I've decided to spend the winter there. [13]Do everything you can to help Zenas the lawyer and Apollos. Send them on their way. See that they have everything they need.

[14]Our people must learn to commit themselves to doing what is good. Then they can provide for people when they are in great need. If they do that, their lives won't turn out to be useless.

[15]Everyone who is with me sends you greetings.
Greet those who love us in the faith.

May God’s grace be with you all.

Philemon

Philemon 1

[1]I, Paul, am writing this letter. I am a prisoner because of Christ Jesus. Our brother Timothy joins me in writing.

Philemon, we are sending you this letter. You are our dear friend. You work together with us. [2]We are also sending it to our sister Apphia and to Archippus. He is a soldier of Christ together with us. And we are sending it to the church that meets in your home.

[3]May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Paul Prays and Gives Thanks

[4]I always thank my God when I remember you in my prayers. [5]That's because I hear about your love for all God's people. I also hear about your faith in the Lord Jesus. [6]I pray that what we share by believing will help you understand even more. Then you will completely understand every good thing we share by believing in Christ. [7]Your love has given me great joy. It has encouraged me. My brother, you have renewed the hearts of the Lord's people.

Paul Makes an Appeal for Onesimus

[8]Because of the authority Christ has given me, I could be bold. I could order you to do what you should do anyway. [9]But we love each other. And I would rather appeal to you on the basis of that love. I, Paul, am an old man. I am now also a prisoner because of Christ Jesus. [10]I am an old man, and I'm in prison. This is how I make my appeal to you for my son Onesimus. He became a son to me while I was being held in chains. [11]Before that, he was useless to you. But now he has become useful to you and to me.

[12]I'm sending Onesimus back to you. All my love for him goes with him. [13]I'm being held in chains because of the good news. So I would have liked to keep Onesimus with me. And he could take your place in helping me. [14]But I didn't want to do anything unless you agreed. Any favor you do must be done because you want to do it, not because you have to. [15]Onesimus was separated from you for a little while. Maybe that was so you could have him back forever. [16]You could have him back not as a slave. Instead, he would be better than a slave. He would be a dear brother. He is very dear to me but even more dear to you. He is dear to you not only as another human being. He is also dear to you as a brother in the Lord.

[17]Do you think of me as a believer who works together with you? Then welcome Onesimus as you would welcome me. [18]Has he done anything wrong to you? Does he owe you anything? Then charge it to me. [19]I'll pay it back. I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand. I won't even mention that you owe me your life. [20]My brother, we both belong to the Lord. So I wish I could receive some benefit from you. Renew my heart. We know that Christ is the one who really renews it. [21]I'm sure you will obey. So I'm writing to you. I know you will do even more than I ask.

[22]There is one more thing. Have a guest room ready for me. I hope I can return to all of you in answer to your prayers.

[23]Epaphras sends you greetings. Together with me, he is a prisoner because of Christ Jesus.

[24]Mark, Aristarchus, Demas and Luke work together with me. They also send you greetings.

[25]May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

Hebrews

Hebrews 1

God Speaks His Final Word Through His Son

[1]In the past, God spoke to our people through the prophets. He spoke at many times. He spoke in different ways. [2]But in these last days, he has spoken to us through his Son. He is the one whom God appointed to receive all things. God also made everything through him. [3]The Son is the shining brightness of God's glory. He is the exact likeness of God's being. He uses his powerful word to hold all things together. He provided the way for people to be made pure from sin. Then he sat down at the right hand of the King, the Majesty in heaven. [4]So he became higher than the angels. The name he received is more excellent than theirs.

The Son Is Greater Than the Angels

[5]God never said to any of the angels,

> "You are my Son.
> Today I have become your Father." (Psalm 2:7)

Or,

> "I will be his Father.
> And he will be my Son." (2 Samuel 7:14; 1 Chronicles 17:13)

[6]God's first and only Son is over all things. When God brings him into the world, he says,

> "Let all God's angels worship him." (Deuteronomy 32:43)

[7]Here is something else God says about the angels.

> "God makes his angels to be like spirits.
> He makes those who serve him to be like flashes of lightning."
> (Psalm 104:4)

[8]But here is what he says about the Son.

> “You are God. Your throne will last for ever and ever.
> Your kingdom will be ruled by justice.
> [9]You have loved what is right and hated what is evil.
> So your God has placed you above your companions.
> He has filled you with joy by pouring the sacred oil on your > head.” (Psalm 45:6, 7)

[10]He also says,

> “Lord, in the beginning you made the earth secure. You placed it > on its foundations.
> The heavens are the work of your hands.
> [11]They will pass away. But you remain.
> They will all wear out like a piece of clothing.
> [12]You will roll them up like a robe.
> They will be changed as a person changes clothes.
> But you remain the same.
> Your years will never end.” (Psalm 102:25–27)

[13]God never said to an angel,

> “Sit at my right hand
> until I put your enemies
> under your control.” (Psalm 110:1)

[14]All angels are spirits who serve. God sends them to serve those who will receive salvation.

Hebrews 2

A Warning to Pay Attention

[1]So we must pay the most careful attention to what we have heard. Then we will not drift away from it. [2]Even the message God spoke through angels had to be obeyed. Every time people broke the Law, they were punished. Every time they didn't obey, they were punished. [3]Then how will we escape if we don't pay attention to God's great salvation? The Lord first announced this salvation. Those who heard him gave us the message about it. [4]God showed that this message is true by signs and wonders. He showed that it's true by different kinds of miracles. God also showed that this message is true by the gifts of the Holy Spirit. God gave them out as it pleased him.

Jesus Was Made Fully Human

[5]God has not put angels in charge of the world that is going to come. We are talking about that world. [6]There is a place where someone has spoken about this. He said,

> "What are human beings that you think about them?
> What is a son of man that you take care of him?
> [7]You made them a little lower than the angels.
> You placed on them a crown of glory and honor.
> [8]You have put everything under their control." (Psalm 8:4–6)

So God has put everything under his Son. Everything is under his control. We do not now see everything under his control. [9]But we do see Jesus already given a crown of glory and honor. He was made lower than the angels for a little while. He suffered death. By the grace of God, he tasted death for everyone. That is why he was given his crown.

[10]God has made everything. He is now bringing his many sons and daughters to share in his glory. It is only right that Jesus is the one to lead them into their salvation. That's because God made him perfect by his sufferings. [11]And Jesus, who makes people holy, and the people he makes holy belong to the same family. So Jesus is not ashamed to call them his brothers and sisters. [12]He says,

“I will announce your name to my brothers and sisters.
I will sing your praises among those who worship you.” (Psalm 22:22)

13Again he says,

“I will put my trust in him.” (Isaiah 8:17)

And again he says,

“Here I am. Here are the children God has given me.” (Isaiah 8:18)

14Those children have bodies made out of flesh and blood. So Jesus became human like them in order to die for them. By doing this, he could break the power of the devil. The devil is the one who rules over the kingdom of death. 15Jesus could set people free who were afraid of death. All their lives they were held as slaves by that fear. 16It is certainly Abraham’s children that he helps. He doesn’t help angels. 17So he had to be made like people, fully human in every way. Then he could serve God as a kind and faithful high priest. And then he could pay for the sins of the people by dying for them. 18He himself suffered when he was tempted. Now he is able to help others who are being tempted.

Hebrews 3

Jesus Is Greater Than Moses

[1]Holy brothers and sisters, God chose you to be his people. So keep thinking about Jesus. We embrace him as our apostle and our high priest. [2]Moses was faithful in everything he did in the house of God. In the same way, Jesus was faithful to the God who appointed him. [3]The person who builds a house has greater honor than the house itself. In the same way, Jesus has been found worthy of greater honor than Moses. [4]Every house is built by someone. But God is the builder of everything. [5]"Moses was faithful as one who serves in the house of God." (Numbers 12:7) He was a witness to what God would say in days to come. [6]But Christ is faithful as the Son over the house of God. And we are his house if we hold tightly to what we are certain about. We must also hold tightly to the hope we boast in.

A Warning Against Unbelief

[7]The Holy Spirit says,

> "Listen to his voice today.
> [8]If you hear it, don't be stubborn.
> You were stubborn when you opposed me.
> You did that when you were tested in the desert.
> [9]There your people of long ago tested me.
> Yet for 40 years they saw what I did.
> [10]That is why I was angry with them.
> I said, 'Their hearts are always going astray.
> They have not known my ways.'
> [11]So when I was angry, I made a promise.
> I said, 'They will never enjoy the rest I planned for them.' "
> (Psalm 95:7–11)

[12]Brothers and sisters, make sure that none of you has a sinful heart. Do not let an unbelieving heart turn you away from the living God. [13]But build one another up every day. Do it as long as there is still time. Then none of you will become stubborn. You won't be fooled by sin's tricks. [14]We belong to Christ if we hold tightly to the faith we had at first. But we must hold it tightly until the end. [15]It has just been said, > “Listen to his voice today.

> If you hear it, don’t be stubborn.
> You were stubborn when you opposed me.” (Psalm 95:7, 8)

[16]Who were those who heard and refused to obey? Weren’t they all the people Moses led out of Egypt? [17]Who was God angry with for 40 years? Wasn’t it with those who sinned? They died in the desert. [18]God promised that those people would never enjoy the rest he planned for them. God gave his word when he made that promise. Didn’t he make that promise to those who didn’t obey? [19]So we see that they weren’t able to enter. That’s because they didn’t believe.

Hebrews 4

God's People Enter His Sabbath Rest

[1]God's promise of enjoying his rest still stands. So be careful that none of you fails to receive it. [2]The good news was announced to our people of long ago. It has also been preached to us. The message they heard didn't have any value for them. That's because they didn't share the faith of those who obeyed. [3]Now we who have believed enjoy that rest. God said,

> "When I was angry, I made a promise.
> I said, 'They will never enjoy the rest I planned for them.' "
> (Psalm 95:11)

Ever since God created the world, his works have been finished. [4]Somewhere he spoke about the seventh day. He said, "On the seventh day God rested from all his works." (Genesis 2:2) [5]In the part of Scripture I talked about earlier God spoke. He said, "They will never enjoy the rest I planned for them."
(Psalm 95:11)

[6]It is still true that some people will enjoy this rest. But those who had the good news announced to them earlier didn't go in. That's because they didn't obey. [7]So God again chose a certain day. He named it Today. He did this when he spoke through David a long time later. Here is what was written in the Scripture already given.

> "Listen to his voice today.
> If you hear it, don't be stubborn." (Psalm 95:7, 8)

[8]Suppose Joshua had given them rest. If he had, God would not have spoken later about another day. [9]So there is still a Sabbath rest for God's people.
[10]God rested from his work. Those who enjoy God's rest also rest from their works. [11]So let us make every effort to enjoy that rest. Then no one will die by disobeying as they did.

[12]The word of God is alive and active. It is sharper than any sword that has two edges. It cuts deep enough to separate soul from spirit. It can separate bones from joints. It judges the thoughts and purposes of the heart. [13]Nothing God created is hidden from him. His eyes see everything. He will hold us responsible for everything we do.

Jesus Is the Great High Priest

14We have a great high priest. He has gone up into heaven. He is Jesus the Son of God. So let us hold firmly to what we say we believe. 15We have a high priest who can feel it when we are weak and hurting. We have a high priest who has been tempted in every way, just as we are. But he did not sin. 16So let us boldly approach God's throne of grace. Then we will receive mercy. We will find grace to help us when we need it.

Hebrews 5

[1]Every high priest is chosen from among the people. He is appointed to act for the people. He acts for them in whatever has to do with God. He offers gifts and sacrifices for their sins. [2]Some people have gone astray without knowing it. He is able to deal gently with them. He can do that because he himself is weak.
[3]That's why he has to offer sacrifices for his own sins. He must also do it for the sins of the people. [4]And no one can take this honor for himself. Instead, he receives it when he is appointed by God. That is just how it was for Aaron.

[5]It was the same for Christ. He did not take for himself the glory of becoming a high priest. But God said to him,

> "You are my Son.
> Today I have become your Father." (Psalm 2:7)

[6]In another place God said,

> "You are a priest forever,
> just like Melchizedek." (Psalm 110:4)

[7]Jesus prayed while he lived on earth. He made his appeal with sincere cries and tears. He prayed to the God who could save him from death. God answered Jesus because he truly honored God. [8]Jesus was God's Son. But by suffering he learned what it means to obey. [9]In this way he was made perfect. Eternal salvation comes from him. He saves all those who obey him. [10]God appointed him to be the high priest, just like Melchizedek.

A Warning Against Falling Away

[11]We have a lot to say about this. But it is hard to make it clear to you. That's because you are no longer trying to understand. [12]By this time you should be teachers. But in fact, you need someone to teach you all over again. You need even the simple truths of God's word. You need milk, not solid food. [13]Anyone who lives on milk is still a baby. That person does not want to learn about living a godly life. [14]Solid food is for those who are grown up. They have trained themselves to tell the difference between good and evil. That shows they have grown up.

Hebrews 6

[1]So let us move beyond the simple teachings about Christ. Let us grow up as believers. Let us not start all over again with the basic teachings. They taught us that we need to turn away from doing things that lead to death. They taught us that we must have faith in God. [2]These basic teachings taught us about different ways of becoming "clean." They taught us about placing hands of blessing on people. They taught us that people will rise from the dead. They taught us that God will judge everyone. And they taught us that what he decides will last forever. [3]If God permits, we will go beyond those teachings and grow up.

[4]What if some people fall away from the faith? It won't be possible to bring them back. It is true that they have seen the light. They have tasted the heavenly gift. They have shared in the Holy Spirit. [5]They have tasted the good things of God's word. They have tasted the powers of the age to come. [6]But they have fallen away from the faith. So it won't be possible to bring them back. They won't be able to turn away from their sins. They are losing everything. That's because they are nailing the Son of God to the cross all over again. They are bringing shame on him in front of everyone. [7]Some land drinks the rain that falls on it. It produces a crop that is useful to those who farm the land. That land receives God's blessing. [8]But other land produces only thorns and weeds. That land isn't worth anything. It is in danger of coming under God's curse. In the end, it will be burned.

[9]Dear friends, we have to say these things. But we are sure of better things in your case. We are talking about the things that have to do with being saved.
[10]God is fair. He will not forget what you have done. He will remember the love you have shown him. You showed it when you helped his people. And you show it when you keep on helping them. [11]We want each of you to be faithful to the very end. If you are, then what you hope for will fully happen. [12]We don't want you to slow down. Instead, be like those who have faith and are patient. They will receive what God promised.

God Keeps His Promise

[13]When God made his promise to Abraham, God gave his word. There was no one greater than himself to promise by. So he promised by making an appeal to himself. [14]He said, "I will certainly bless you. I will give you many children."

(Genesis 22:17) [15]Abraham was patient while he waited. Then he received what God promised him.

[16]People promise things by someone greater than themselves. Giving your word makes a promise certain. It puts an end to all arguing. [17]So God gave his word when he made his promise. He wanted to make it very clear that his purpose does not change. He wanted those who would receive what was promised to know this. [18]When God made his promise, he gave his word. He did this so we would have good reason not to give up. Instead, we have run to take hold of the hope set before us. This hope is set before us in God's promise. So God made his promise and gave his word. These two things can't change. He couldn't lie about them. [19]Our hope is certain. It is something for the soul to hold on to. It is strong and secure. It goes all the way into the Most Holy Room behind the curtain. [20]That is where Jesus has gone. He went there to open the way ahead of us. He has become a high priest forever, just like Melchizedek.

Hebrews 7

Melchizedek the Priest

[1]Melchizedek was the king of Salem. He was the priest of God Most High. He met Abraham, who was returning from winning a battle over some kings. Melchizedek blessed him. [2]Abraham gave him a tenth of everything. First, the name Melchizedek means “king of what is right.” Also, “king of Salem” means “king of peace.” [3]Melchizedek has no father or mother. He has no family line. His days have no beginning. His life has no end. He remains a priest forever. In this way, he is like the Son of God.

[4]Think how great Melchizedek was! Even our father Abraham gave him a tenth of what he had captured. [5]Now the law lays down a rule for the sons of Levi who become priests. They must collect a tenth from the people. They must collect it from the other Israelites. They must do this, even though all of them belong to the family line of Abraham. [6]Melchizedek did not trace his family line from Levi. But he collected a tenth from Abraham. Melchizedek blessed the one who had received the promises. [7]Without a doubt, the more important person blesses the less important one. [8]In the one case, the tenth is collected by people who die. But in the other case, it is collected by the one who is said to be living. [9]Levi collects the tenth. But we might say that Levi paid the tenth through Abraham. [10]That’s because when Melchizedek met Abraham, Levi was still in Abraham’s body.

Jesus Is Like Melchizedek

[11]The law that was given to the people called for the priestly system. That system began with Levi. Suppose the priestly system could have made people perfect. Then why was there still a need for another priest to come? And why did he need to be like Melchizedek? Why wasn’t he from Aaron’s family line? [12]A change of the priestly system requires a change of law. [13]We are talking about a priest who is from a different tribe. No one from that tribe has ever served at the altar. [14]It is clear that our Lord came from the family line of Judah. Moses said nothing about priests who were from the tribe of Judah. [15]But suppose another priest like Melchizedek appears. Then what we have said is even more clear. [16]He has not become a priest because of a rule about his family line. He has become a priest because of his powerful life. His life can never be destroyed. [17]Scripture says,

> "You are a priest forever,
> just like Melchizedek." (Psalm 110:4)

[18]The old rule is set aside. It was weak and useless. [19]The law didn't make anything perfect. Now a better hope has been given to us. That hope brings us near to God.

[20]The change of priestly system was made with a promise. Others became priests without any promise. [21]But Jesus became a priest with a promise. God said to him,

> "The Lord has given his word and made a promise.
> He will not change his mind. He has said,
> 'You are a priest forever.' " (Psalm 110:4)

[22]Because God gave his word, Jesus makes certain the promise of a better covenant.

[23]There were many priests in Levi's family line. Death kept them from continuing in office. [24]But Jesus lives forever. So he always holds the office of priest. [25]People now come to God through him. And he is able to save them completely and for all time. Jesus lives forever. He prays for them.

[26]A high priest like that really meets our need. He is holy, pure and without blame. He isn't like other people. He does not sin. He is lifted high above the heavens. [27]He isn't like the other high priests. They need to offer sacrifices day after day. First they bring offerings for their own sins. Then they do it for the sins of the people. But Jesus gave one sacrifice for the sins of the people. He gave it once and for all time. He did it by offering himself. [28]The law appoints as high priests men who are weak. But God's promise came after the law. By his promise the Son was appointed. The Son has been made perfect forever.

Hebrews 8

The High Priest of a New Covenant

[1]Here is the main point of what we are saying. We have a high priest like that. He sat down at the right hand of the throne of the King, the Majesty in heaven. [2]He serves in the sacred tent. The Lord set up the true holy tent. A mere human being did not set it up.

[3]Every high priest is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices. So this priest also had to have something to offer. [4]What if he were on earth? Then he would not be a priest. There are already priests who offer the gifts required by the law. [5]They serve at a sacred tent. But it is only a copy and shadow of what is in heaven. That's why God warned Moses when he was about to build the holy tent. God said, "Be sure to make everything just like the pattern I showed you on the mountain." (Exodus 25:40) [6]But Jesus has been given a greater work to do for God. He is the go-between for the new covenant. This covenant is better than the old one. The new covenant is based on better promises.

[7]Suppose nothing had been wrong with that first covenant. Then no one would have looked for another covenant. [8]But God found fault with the people. He said,

> "The days are coming, announces the Lord.
> I will make a new covenant
> with the people of Israel.
> I will also make it with the people of Judah.
> [9]It will not be like the covenant
> I made with their people of long ago.
> That was when I took them by the hand.
> I led them out of Egypt.
> My new covenant will be different because they didn't remain > faithful to my old covenant.
> So I turned away from them,
> announces the Lord.
> [10]This is the covenant I will establish with the people of Israel
> after that time, says the Lord.
> I will put my laws in their minds.
> I will write them on their hearts.

I will be their God.
And they will be my people.
11 People will not teach their neighbor anymore.
They will not say to one another, ‘Know the Lord.’
That’s because everyone will know me.
From the least important to the most important,
all of them will know me.
12 I will forgive their evil ways.
I will not remember their sins anymore.” (Jeremiah 31:31–34)

13 God called this covenant “new.” So he has done away with the first one. And what is out of date and has been done away with will soon disappear.

Hebrews 9

Worship in the Holy Tent on Earth

[1]The first covenant had rules for worship. It also had a sacred tent on earth. [2]A holy tent was set up. The lampstand was in the first room. So was the table with its holy bread. That was called the Holy Room. [3]Behind the second curtain was a room called the Most Holy Room. [4]It had the golden altar for incense. It also had the wooden chest called the ark of the covenant. The ark was covered with gold. It held the gold jar of manna. It held Aaron's walking stick that had budded. It also held the stone tablets. The words of the covenant were written on them. [5]The cherubim were above the ark. God showed his glory there. The cherubim spread their wings over the place where sin was paid for. But we can't say everything about these things now.

[6]That's how everything was arranged in the holy tent. The priests entered it at regular times. They went into the outer room to do their work for God and others. [7]But only the high priest went into the inner room. He went in only once a year. He never entered without taking blood with him. He offered the blood for himself. He also offered it for the sins the people had committed because they didn't know any better. [8]Here is what the Holy Spirit was showing us. He was telling us that God had not yet clearly shown the way into the Most Holy Room. It would not be clearly shown as long as the first holy tent was still being used. [9]That's an example for the present time. It shows us that the gifts and sacrifices people offered were not enough. They were not able to remove the worshiper's feelings of guilt. [10]They deal only with food and drink and different kinds of special washings. They are rules people had to obey only until the new covenant came.

The Blood of Christ

[11]But Christ came to be the high priest of the good things already here now. When he came, he went through the greater and more perfect holy tent. This tent was not made with human hands. In other words, it is not a part of this creation. [12]He did not enter by spilling the blood of goats and calves. He entered the Most Holy Room by spilling his own blood. He did it once and for all time. In this way, he paid the price to set us free from sin forever. [13]The blood of goats and bulls is sprinkled on people. So are the ashes of a young cow. They are sprinkled on people the law called “unclean.” The people are sprinkled to make them holy. That makes them “clean” on the outside. 14But Christ offered himself to God without any flaw. He did this through the power of the eternal Holy Spirit. So how much cleaner will the blood of Christ make us! It washes away our feelings of guilt for committing sin. Sin always leads to death. But now we can serve the living God.

15That’s why Christ is the go-between of a new covenant. Now those God calls to himself will receive the eternal gift he promised. They will receive it now that Christ has died to save them. He died to set them free from the sins they committed under the first covenant.

16What happens when someone leaves a will? It is necessary to prove that the person who made the will has died. 17A will is in effect only when somebody has died. It never takes effect while the one who made it is still living. 18That’s why even the first covenant was not put into effect without the spilling of blood. 19Moses first announced every command of the law to all the people. Then he took the blood of calves. He also took water, bright red wool and branches of a hyssop plant. He sprinkled the Book of the Covenant. He also sprinkled all the people. 20He said, “This is the blood of the covenant God has commanded you to keep.” (Exodus 24:8) 21In the same way, he sprinkled the holy tent with blood. He also sprinkled everything that was used in worship there. 22In fact, the law requires that nearly everything be made “clean” with blood. Without the spilling of blood, no one can be forgiven.

23So the copies of the heavenly things had to be made pure with these sacrifices. But the heavenly things themselves had to be made pure with better sacrifices. 24Christ did not enter a sacred tent made with human hands. That tent was only a copy of the true one. He entered heaven itself. He did it to stand in front of God for us. He is there right now. 25The high priest enters the Most Holy Room every year. He enters with blood that is not his own. But Christ did not enter heaven to offer himself again and again. 26If he had, he would have had to suffer many times since the world was created. But he has appeared once and for all time. He has come at the time when God’s work is being completed. He has come to do away with sin by offering himself. 27People have to die once. After that, God will judge them. 28In the same way, Christ was offered up once. He took away the sins of many people. He will also come a second time. At that time he will not suffer for sin. Instead, he will come to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.

Hebrews 10

Christ's Sacrifice Is Once and for All Time

[1]The law is only a shadow of the good things that are coming. It is not the real things themselves. The same sacrifices have to be offered over and over again.
They must be offered year after year. That's why the law can never make perfect those who come near to worship. [2]If the law could, wouldn't the sacrifices have stopped being offered? The worshipers would have been made "clean" once and for all time. They would not have felt guilty for their sins anymore. [3]But those offerings remind people of their sins every year. [4]It isn't possible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

[5]So when Christ came into the world, he said,

> "You didn't want sacrifices and offerings.
> Instead, you prepared a body for me.
> [6]You weren't pleased > with burnt offerings and sin offerings.
> [7]Then I said, 'Here I am. It is written about me in the book.
> I have come to do what you want, my God.' " (Psalm 40:6–8)

[8]First Christ said, "You didn't want sacrifices and offerings. You didn't want burnt offerings and sin offerings. You weren't pleased with them." He said this even though they were offered in keeping with the law. [9]Then he said, "Here I am. I have come to do what you want." He did away with the shadow of the good things that were coming. He did it to put in place the good things themselves. [10]We have been made holy by what God wanted. We have been made holy because Jesus Christ offered his body once and for all time.

[11]Day after day every priest stands and does his special duties. He offers the same sacrifices again and again. But they can never take away sins. [12]Jesus our priest offered one sacrifice for sins for all time. Then he sat down at the right hand of God. [13]And since that time, he waits for his enemies to be put under his control. [14]By that one sacrifice he has made perfect forever those who are being made holy.

[15]The Holy Spirit also speaks to us about this. First he says, [16]“This is the covenant I will make with them

after that time, says the Lord.
I will put my laws in their hearts.
I will write my laws on their minds.” (Jeremiah 31:33)

[17]Then he adds,

“I will not remember their sins anymore.
I will not remember the evil things they have done.” (Jeremiah 31:34)

[18]Where these sins have been forgiven, an offering for sin is no longer necessary.

An Appeal and Warning to Remain Faithful

[19]Brothers and sisters, we are not afraid to enter the Most Holy Room. We enter boldly because of the blood of Jesus. [20]His way is new because he lives. It has been opened for us through the curtain. I’m talking about his body. [21]We also have a great priest over the house of God. [22]So let us come near to God with a sincere heart. Let us come near boldly because of our faith. Our hearts have been sprinkled. Our minds have been cleansed from a sense of guilt. Our bodies have been washed with pure water. [23]Let us hold firmly to the hope we claim to have. The God who promised is faithful. [24]Let us consider how we can stir up one another to love. Let us help one another to do good works. [25]And let us not give up meeting together. Some are in the habit of doing this. Instead, let us encourage one another with words of hope. Let us do this even more as you see Christ’s return approaching.

[26]What if we keep sinning on purpose? What if we do it even after we know the truth? Then there is no offering for our sins. [27]All we can do is to wait in fear for God to judge. His blazing fire will burn up his enemies. [28]Suppose someone did not obey the law of Moses. And suppose two or three witnesses made charges against them. That person would die without mercy. [29]People who deserve even more punishment include those who have hated the Son of God. They include people who have said no to him. They include people who have treated as unholy the blood of the covenant that makes them holy. They also include people who have disrespected the Holy Spirit who brings God’s grace. Don’t you think people like this should be punished more than anyone else?

30We know the God who said, “I am the God who judges people. I will pay them back.” (Deuteronomy 32:35) Scripture also says, “The Lord will judge his people.” (Deuteronomy 32:36; Psalm 135:14) 31It is a terrible thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32Remember those earlier days after you received the light. You remained strong in a great battle that was full of suffering. 33Sometimes people spoke badly about you in front of others. Sometimes you were treated badly. At other times you stood side by side with people being treated like this. 34You suffered along with people in prison. When your property was taken from you, you accepted it with joy. You knew that God had given you better and more lasting things. 35So don’t throw away your bold faith. It will bring you rich rewards.

36You need to be faithful. Then you will do what God wants. You will receive what he has promised.

> 37“In just a little while,
> he who is coming will come.
> He will not wait any longer.”

38And,

> “The one who is right with God will live by faith.
> And I am not pleased with > the one who pulls back.” (Habakkuk 2:3, 4)

39But we don’t belong to the people who pull back and are destroyed. We belong to the people who believe and are saved.

Hebrews 11

Faith That Produces Action

[1]Faith is being sure of what we hope for. It is being sure of what we do not see. [2]That is what the people of long ago were praised for.

[3]We have faith. So we understand that everything was made when God commanded it. That's why we believe that what we see was not made out of what could be seen.

[4]Abel had faith. So he brought to God a better offering than Cain did. Because of his faith Abel was praised as a godly man. God said good things about his offerings. Because of his faith Abel still speaks. He speaks even though he is dead.

[5]Enoch had faith. So he was taken from this life. He didn't die. "He couldn't be found, because God had taken him away." (Genesis 5:24) Before God took him, Enoch was praised as one who pleased God. [6]Without faith it is impossible to please God. Those who come to God must believe that he exists. And they must believe that he rewards those who look to him.

[7]Noah had faith. So he built an ark to save his family. He built it because of his great respect for God. God had warned him about things that could not yet be seen. Because of his faith Noah showed the world that it was guilty. Because of his faith he was considered right with God.

[8]Abraham had faith. So he obeyed God. God called him to go to a place he would later receive as his own. So he went. He did it even though he didn't know where he was going. [9]Because of his faith he made his home in the land God had promised him. Abraham was like an outsider in a strange country. He lived there in tents. So did Isaac and Jacob. They received the same promise he did. [10]Abraham was looking forward to the city that has foundations. He was waiting for the city that God planned and built. [11]And Sarah had faith. So God made it possible for her to become a mother. She became a mother even though she was too old to have children. But Sarah believed that the God who made the promise was faithful. [12]Abraham was past the time when he could have children.
But many children came from that one man. They were as many as the stars in the sky. They were as many as the grains of sand on the seashore. No one could count them.

[13]All these people were still living by faith when they died. They didn't receive the things God had promised. They only saw them and welcomed them from a long way off. They openly said that they were outsiders and strangers on earth. [14]People who say things like that show that they are looking for a country of their own. [15]What if they had been thinking of the country they had left? Then they could have returned to it. [16]Instead, they longed for a better country. They wanted a heavenly one. So God is pleased when they call him their God. In fact, he has prepared a city for them.

[17]Abraham had faith. So when God tested him, Abraham offered Isaac as a sacrifice. Abraham had held on tightly to the promises. But he was about to offer his one and only son. [18]God had said to him, "Your family line will continue through Isaac." (Genesis 21:12) Even so, Abraham was going to offer him up. [19]Abraham did this, because he believed that God could even raise the dead. In a way, he did receive Isaac back from death.

[20]Isaac had faith. So he blessed Jacob and Esau. He told them what was ahead for them.

[21]Jacob had faith. So he blessed each of Joseph's sons. He blessed them when he was dying. Because of his faith he worshiped God. Jacob worshiped as he leaned on the top of his walking stick.

[22]Joseph had faith. So he spoke to the people of Israel about how they would leave Egypt someday. When his death was near, he spoke about where to bury his bones.

[23]Moses' parents had faith. So they hid him for three months after he was born. They saw he was a special child. They were not afraid of the king's command.

[24]Moses had faith. So he refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter. That happened after he had grown up. [25]He chose to be treated badly together with the people of God. He chose not to enjoy sin's pleasures. They only last for a short time. [26]He suffered shame because of Christ. He thought it had great value. Moses considered it better than the riches of Egypt. He was looking ahead to his reward. [27]Because of his faith, Moses left Egypt. It wasn't because he was afraid of the king's anger. He didn't let anything stop him. That's because he saw the God who can't be seen. [28]Because of his faith, Moses was the first to keep the Passover Feast. He commanded the people of Israel to sprinkle blood on their doorways. He did it so that the destroying angel would not touch their oldest sons.

[29]The people of Israel had faith. So they passed through the Red Sea. They went through it as if it were dry land. The Egyptians tried to do it also. But they drowned.

30Israel’s army had faith. So the walls of Jericho fell down. It happened after they had marched around the city for seven days.

31Rahab, the prostitute, had faith. So she welcomed the spies. That’s why she wasn’t killed with those who didn’t obey God.

32What more can I say? I don’t have time to tell about all the others. I don’t have time to talk about Gideon, Barak, Samson and Jephthah. I don’t have time to tell about David and Samuel and the prophets. 33Because of their faith they took over kingdoms. They ruled fairly. They received the blessings God had promised. They shut the mouths of lions. 34They put out great fires. They escaped being killed by swords. Their weakness was turned to strength. They became powerful in battle. They beat back armies from other countries.
35Women received back their dead. The dead were raised to life again. There were others who were made to suffer greatly. But they refused to be set free.
They did this so that after death they would be raised to an even better life.
36Some were made fun of and even whipped. Some were held by chains. Some were put in prison. 37Some were killed with stones. Some were sawed in two.
Some were killed by swords. They went around wearing the skins of sheep and goats. They were poor. They were attacked. They were treated badly. 38The world was not worthy of them. They wandered in deserts and mountains. They lived in caves. They lived in holes in the ground.

39All these people were praised because they had faith. But none of them received what God had promised. 40That’s because God had planned something better for us. So they would only be made perfect together with us.

Hebrews 12

[1]A huge cloud of witnesses is all around us. So let us throw off everything that stands in our way. Let us throw off any sin that holds on to us so tightly. And let us keep on running the race marked out for us. [2]Let us keep looking to Jesus. He is the one who started this journey of faith. And he is the one who completes the journey of faith. He paid no attention to the shame of the cross. He suffered there because of the joy he was looking forward to. Then he sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. [3]He made it through these attacks by sinners. So think about him. Then you won't get tired. You won't lose hope.

God Trains His Children

[4]You struggle against sin. But you have not yet fought to the point of spilling your blood. [5]Have you completely forgotten this word of hope? It speaks to you as a father to his children. It says,

> "My son, think of the Lord's training as important.
> Do not lose hope when he corrects you.
> [6]The Lord trains the one he loves.
> He corrects everyone he accepts as his son." (Proverbs 3:11, 12)

[7]Put up with hard times. God uses them to train you. He is treating you as his children. What children are not trained by their parents? [8]God trains all his children. But what if he doesn't train you? Then you are not really his children.
You are not God's true sons and daughters at all. [9]Besides, we have all had human fathers who trained us. We respected them for it. How much more should we be trained by the Father of spirits and live! [10]Our parents trained us for a little while. They did what they thought was best. But God trains us for our good. He does this so we may share in his holiness. [11]No training seems pleasant at the time. In fact, it seems painful. But later on it produces a harvest of godliness and peace. It does this for those who have been trained by it.

[12]So put your hands to work. Strengthen your legs for the journey. [13]"Make level paths for your feet to walk on." (Proverbs 4:26) Then those who have trouble walking won't be disabled. Instead, they will be healed.

A Warning and an Appeal

[14]Try your best to live in peace with everyone. Try hard to be holy. Without holiness no one will see the Lord. [15]Be sure that no one misses out on God's grace. See to it that a bitter plant doesn't grow up. If it does, it will cause trouble. And it will make many people impure. [16]See to it that no one commits sexual sins. See to it that no one is godless like Esau. He sold the rights to what he would receive as the oldest son. He sold them for a single meal. [17]As you know, after that he wanted to receive his father's blessing. But he was turned away. With tears he tried to get the blessing. But he couldn't change what he had done.

The Mountain of Fear and the Mountain of Joy

[18]You haven't come to a mountain that can be touched. You haven't come to a mountain burning with fire. You haven't come to darkness, gloom and storm. [19]You haven't come to a blast from God's trumpet. You haven't come to a voice speaking to you. When people heard that voice long ago, they begged it not to say anything more to them. [20]What God commanded was too much for them. He said, "If even an animal touches the mountain, it must be killed with stones." (Exodus 19:12, 13) [21]The sight was terrifying. Moses said, "I am trembling with fear." (Deuteronomy 9:19)

[22]But you have come to Mount Zion. You have come to the city of the living God. This is the heavenly Jerusalem. You have come to a joyful gathering of angels. There are thousands and thousands of them. [23]You have come to the church of God's people. God's first and only Son is over all things. God's people share in what belongs to his Son. Their names are written in heaven. You have come to God, who is the Judge of all people. You have come to the spirits of godly people who have been made perfect. [24]You have come to Jesus. He is the go-between of a new covenant. You have come to the sprinkled blood. It promises better things than the blood of Abel.

[25]Be sure that you don't say no to the one who speaks. People did not escape when they said no to the one who warned them on earth. And what if we turn away from the one who warns us from heaven? How much less will we escape! [26]At that time his voice shook the earth. But now he has promised, "Once more I will shake the earth. I will also shake the heavens." (Haggai 2:6) [27]The words "once more" point out that what can be shaken can be taken away. I'm talking about created things. Then what can't be shaken will remain.

[28]We are receiving a kingdom that can't be shaken. So let us be thankful. Then we can worship God in a way that pleases him. Let us worship him with deep respect and wonder. [29]Our “God is like a fire that burns everything up.” (Deuteronomy 4:24)

Hebrews 13

Final Appeals

[1]Keep on loving one another as brothers and sisters. [2]Don't forget to welcome outsiders. By doing that, some people have welcomed angels without knowing it. [3]Keep on remembering those in prison. Do this as if you were together with them in prison. And remember those who are treated badly as if you yourselves were suffering.

[4]All of you should honor marriage. You should keep the marriage bed pure. God will judge the person who commits adultery. He will judge everyone who commits sexual sins. [5]Don't be controlled by love for money. Be happy with what you have. God has said,

> "I will never leave you.
> I will never desert you." (Deuteronomy 31:6)

[6]So we can say boldly,

> "The Lord helps me. I will not be afraid.
> What can mere human beings do to me?" (Psalm 118:6, 7)

[7]Remember your leaders. They spoke God's word to you. Think about the results of their way of life. Copy their faith. [8]Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

[9]Don't let all kinds of strange teachings lead you astray. It is good that God's grace makes our hearts strong. Don't try to grow strong by eating foods that the law requires. They have no value for the people who eat them. [10]The priests, who are Levites, worship at the holy tent. But we have an altar that they have no right to eat from.

[11]The high priest carries the blood of animals into the Most Holy Room. He brings their blood as a sin offering. But the bodies are burned outside the camp. [12]Jesus also suffered outside the city gate. He suffered to make the people holy by spilling his own blood. [13]So let us go to him outside the camp. Let us be willing to suffer the shame he suffered. [14]Here we do not have a city that lasts. But we are looking for the city that is going to come.

[15]So let us never stop offering to God our praise through Jesus. Let us talk openly about our faith in him. Then our words will be like an offering to God.

16 Don’t forget to do good. Don’t forget to share with others. God is pleased with those kinds of offerings.

17 Trust in your leaders. Put yourselves under their authority. Do this, because they keep watch over you. They know they are accountable to God for everything they do. Do this, so that their work will be a joy. If you make their work a heavy load, it won’t do you any good.

18 Pray for us. We feel sure we have done what is right. We desire to live as we should in every way. 19 I beg you to pray that I may return to you soon.

Final Blessing and Greetings

20 Our Lord Jesus is the great Shepherd of the sheep. The God who gives peace brought him back from the dead. He did it because of the blood of the eternal covenant. Now may God 21 supply you with everything good. Then you can do what he wants. May he do in us what is pleasing to him. We can do it only with the help of Jesus Christ. Give him glory for ever and ever. Amen.

22 Brothers and sisters, I beg you to accept my word. It tells you to be faithful. Accept my word because I have written to you only a short letter.

23 I want you to know that our brother Timothy has been set free. If he arrives soon, I will come with him to see you.

24 Greet all your leaders. Greet all the Lord’s people.
The believers from Italy send you their greetings.

25 May grace be with you all.

James

James 1

[1]I, James, am writing this letter. I serve God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

I am sending this letter to you, the 12 tribes scattered among the nations.

Greetings.

Facing All Kinds of Trouble

[2]My brothers and sisters, you will face all kinds of trouble. When you do, think of it as pure joy. [3]Your faith will be tested. You know that when this happens it will produce in you the strength to continue. [4]And you must allow this strength to finish its work. Then you will be all you should be. You will have everything you need. [5]If any of you needs wisdom, you should ask God for it. He will give it to you. God gives freely to everyone and doesn't find fault. [6]But when you ask, you must believe. You must not doubt. That's because a person who doubts is like a wave of the sea. The wind blows and tosses them around. [7]They shouldn't expect to receive anything from the Lord. [8]This kind of person can't make up their mind. They can never decide what to do.

[9]Here's what believers who are in low positions in life should be proud of. They should be proud that God has given them a high position in the kingdom. [10]But rich people should take pride in their low positions. That's because they will fade away like wild flowers. [11]The sun rises. Its burning heat dries up the plants. Their blossoms fall. Their beauty is destroyed. In the same way, rich people will fade away. They fade away even as they go about their business.

[12]Blessed is the person who keeps on going when times are hard. After they have come through hard times, this person will receive a crown. The crown is life itself. The Lord has promised it to those who love him.

[13]When a person is tempted, they shouldn't say, "God is tempting me." God can't be tempted by evil. And he doesn't tempt anyone. [14]But each person is tempted by their own evil desires. These desires lead them on and drag them away. [15]When these desires are allowed to remain, they lead to sin. And when sin is allowed to remain and grow, it leads to death.

[16]My dear brothers and sisters, don’t let anyone fool you. [17]Every good and perfect gift is from God. This kind of gift comes down from the Father who created the heavenly lights. These lights create shadows that move. But the Father does not change like these shadows. [18]God chose to give us new birth through the message of truth. He wanted us to be the first harvest of his new creation.

Listen to the Word and Do What It Says

[19]My dear brothers and sisters, pay attention to what I say. Everyone should be quick to listen. But they should be slow to speak. They should be slow to get angry. [20]Human anger doesn’t produce the holy life God wants. [21]So get rid of everything that is sinful. Get rid of the evil that is all around us. Don’t be too proud to accept the word that is planted in you. It can save you.

[22]Don’t just listen to the word. You fool yourselves if you do that. You must do what it says. [23]Suppose someone listens to the word but doesn’t do what it says. Then they are like a person who looks at their face in a mirror. [24]After looking at themselves, they leave. And right away they forget what they look like. [25]But suppose someone takes a good look at the perfect law that gives freedom. And they keep looking at it. Suppose they don’t forget what they’ve heard, but they do what the law says. Then this person will be blessed in what they do.

[26]Suppose people think their beliefs and how they live are both right. But they don’t control what they say. Then they are fooling themselves. Their beliefs and way of life are not worth anything at all. [27]Here are the beliefs and way of life that God our Father accepts as pure and without fault. When widows are in trouble, take care of them. Do the same for children who have no parents. And don’t let the world make you impure.

James 2

Treat Everyone the Same

[1]My brothers and sisters, you are believers in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ.
So treat everyone the same. [2]Suppose a man comes into your meeting wearing a gold ring and fine clothes. And suppose a poor man in dirty old clothes also comes in. [3]Would you show special attention to the man wearing fine clothes?
Would you say, “Here’s a good seat for you”? Would you say to the poor man, “You stand there”? Or “Sit on the floor by my feet”? [4]If you would, aren’t you treating some people better than others? Aren’t you like judges who have evil thoughts?

[5]My dear brothers and sisters, listen to me. Hasn’t God chosen those who are poor in the world’s eyes to be rich in faith? Hasn’t he chosen them to receive the kingdom? Hasn’t he promised it to those who love him? [6]But you have disrespected poor people. Aren’t rich people taking advantage of you? Aren’t they dragging you into court? [7]Aren’t they speaking evil things against the worthy name of Jesus? Remember, you belong to him.

[8]The royal law is found in Scripture. It says, “Love your neighbor as you love yourself.” (Leviticus 19:18) If you really keep this law, you are doing what is right.
[9]But you sin if you don’t treat everyone the same. The law judges you because you have broken it. [10]Suppose you keep the whole law but trip over just one part of it. Then you are guilty of breaking all of it. [11]God said, “Do not commit adultery.” (Exodus 20:14; Deuteronomy 5:18) He also said, “Do not commit murder.”
(Exodus 20:13; Deuteronomy 5:17) Suppose you don’t commit adultery but do commit murder. Then you have broken the law.

[12]Speak and act like people who are going to be judged by the law that gives freedom. [13]Those who have not shown mercy will not receive mercy when they are judged. To show mercy is better than to judge.

Show Your Faith by What You Do

[14]Suppose a person claims to have faith but doesn’t act on their faith. My brothers and sisters, can this kind of faith save them? [15]Suppose a brother or a sister has no clothes or food. [16]Suppose one of you says to them, “Go. I hope everything turns out fine for you. Keep warm. Eat well.” And suppose you do nothing about what they really need. Then what good have you done? [17]It is the same with faith. If it doesn't cause us to do something, it's dead.

[18]But someone will say, "You have faith. I do good deeds."

Show me your faith that doesn't cause you to do good deeds. And I will show you my faith by the goods deeds I do. [19]You believe there is one God. Good! Even the demons believe that. And they tremble!

[20]You foolish person! Do you want proof that faith without good deeds is useless? [21]Our father Abraham offered his son Isaac on the altar. Wasn't he considered to be right with God because of what he did? [22]So you see that what he believed and what he did were working together. What he did made his faith complete. [23]That is what Scripture means where it says, "Abraham believed God. God accepted Abraham because he believed. So his faith made him right with God." (Genesis 15:6) And that's not all. God called Abraham his friend. [24]So you see that a person is considered right with God by what they do. It doesn't happen only because they believe.

[25]Didn't God consider even Rahab the prostitute to be right with him? That's because of what she did for the spies. She gave them a place to stay. Then she sent them off in a different direction. [26]A person's body without their spirit is dead. In the same way, faith without good deeds is dead.

James 3

Control What You Say

[1]My brothers and sisters, most of you shouldn't become teachers. That's because you know that those of us who teach will be held more accountable. [2]All of us get tripped up in many ways. Suppose someone is never wrong in what they say. Then they are perfect. They are able to keep their whole body under control.

[3]We put a small piece of metal in the mouth of a horse to make it obey us. We can control the whole animal with it. [4]And how about ships? They are very big. They are driven along by strong winds. But they are steered by a very small rudder. It makes them go where the captain wants to go. [5]In the same way, the tongue is a small part of a person's body. But it talks big. Think about how a small spark can set a big forest on fire. [6]The tongue is also a fire. The tongue is the most evil part of the body. It makes the whole body impure. It sets a person's whole way of life on fire. And the tongue itself is set on fire by hell.

[7]People have tamed all kinds of wild animals, birds, reptiles and sea creatures. And they still tame them. [8]But no one can tame the tongue. It is an evil thing that never rests. It is full of deadly poison.

[9]With our tongues we praise our Lord and Father. With our tongues we curse people. We do it even though people have been created to be like God. [10]Praise and cursing come out of the same mouth. My brothers and sisters, it shouldn't be this way. [11]Can fresh water and salt water flow out of the same spring? [12]My brothers and sisters, can a fig tree produce olives? Can a grapevine produce figs? Of course not. And a saltwater spring can't produce fresh water either.

Two Kinds of Wisdom

[13]Is anyone among you wise and understanding? That person should show it by living a good life. A wise person isn't proud when they do good deeds. [14]But suppose your hearts are jealous and bitter. Suppose you are concerned only about getting ahead. Then don't brag about it. And don't say no to the truth. [15]Wisdom like this doesn't come down from heaven. It belongs to the earth. It doesn't come from the Holy Spirit. It comes from the devil. [16]Are you jealous? Are you concerned only about getting ahead? Then your life will be a mess. You will be doing all kinds of evil things.

17But the wisdom that comes from heaven is pure. That's the most important thing about it. And that's not all. It also loves peace. It thinks about others. It obeys. It is full of mercy and good fruit. It is fair. It doesn't pretend to be what it is not. 18Those who make peace plant it like a seed. They will harvest a crop of right living.

James 4

Obey God

[1]Why do you fight and argue among yourselves? Isn't it because of your sinful desires? They fight within you. [2]You want something, but you don't have it. So you kill. You want what others have, but you can't get what you want. So you argue and fight. You don't have what you want, because you don't ask God.
[3]When you do ask for something, you don't receive it. That's because you ask for the wrong reason. You want to spend your money on your sinful pleasures.
[4]You are not faithful to God. Don't you know that to be a friend of the world is to hate God? So anyone who chooses to be the world's friend becomes God's enemy. [5]Don't you know what Scripture says? God wants the spirit in us to belong only to him. God caused this spirit to live in us. Don't you think Scripture has a reason for saying this? [6]But God continues to give us more grace. That's why Scripture says,

> "God opposes those who are proud.
> But he gives grace to those who are humble." (Proverbs 3:34)

[7]So obey God. Stand up to the devil. He will run away from you. [8]Come near to God, and he will come near to you. Wash your hands, you sinners. Make your hearts pure, you who can't make up your minds. [9]Be full of sorrow. Cry and weep. Change your laughter to mourning. Change your joy to sadness. [10]Be humble in front of the Lord. And he will lift you up.
[11]My brothers and sisters, don't speak against one another. Anyone who speaks against a brother or sister speaks against the law. And anyone who judges another believer judges the law. When you judge the law, you are not keeping it.
Instead, you are acting as if you were its judge. [12]There is only one Lawgiver and Judge. He is the God who is able to save life or destroy it. But who are you to judge your neighbor?

Bragging About Tomorrow

[13]Now listen, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city.
We will spend a year there. We will buy and sell and make money." [14]You don't even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? It is a mist that appears for a little while. Then it disappears. [15]Instead, you should say, “If it pleases the Lord, we will live and do this or that.” [16]As it is, you brag. You brag about the evil plans your pride produces. This kind of bragging is evil. [17]So suppose someone knows the good deeds they should do. But suppose they don’t do them. By not doing these good deeds, they sin.

James 5

A Warning to Rich People

[1]You rich people, listen to me. Cry and weep, because you will soon be suffering. [2]Your riches have rotted. Moths have eaten your clothes. [3]Your gold and silver have lost their brightness. Their dullness will be a witness against you. Your wanting more and more will eat your body like fire. You have stored up riches in these last days. [4]You have even failed to pay the workers who mowed your fields. Their pay is crying out against you. The cries of those who gathered the harvest have reached the ears of the Lord. He rules over all. [5]You have lived an easy life on earth. You have given yourselves everything you wanted. You have made yourselves fat like cattle that will soon be butchered. [6]You have judged and murdered people who aren't guilty. And they weren't even opposing you.

Be Patient When You Suffer

[7]Brothers and sisters, be patient until the Lord comes. See how the farmer waits for the land to produce its rich crop. See how patient the farmer is for the fall and spring rains. [8]You too must be patient. You must remain strong. The Lord will soon come back. [9]Brothers and sisters, don't find fault with one another. If you do, you will be judged. And the Judge is standing at the door!

[10]Brothers and sisters, think about the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. They are an example of how to be patient when you suffer. [11]As you know, we think that people who don't give up are blessed. You have heard that Job was patient. And you have seen what the Lord finally did for him. The Lord is full of tender mercy and loving concern.

[12]My brothers and sisters, here is what is most important. Don't make a promise by giving your word. Don't promise by heaven or earth. And don't promise by anything else to back up what you say. All you need to say is a simple "Yes" or "No." If you do more than this, you will be judged.

The Prayer of Faith

[13]Is anyone among you in trouble? Then that person should pray. Is anyone among you happy? Then that person should sing songs of praise. [14]Is anyone among you sick? Then that person should send for the elders of the church to pray over them. They should ask the elders to anoint them with olive oil in the name of the Lord. [15]The prayer offered by those who have faith will make the sick person well. The Lord will heal them. If they have sinned, they will be forgiven. [16]So confess your sins to one another. Pray for one another so that you might be healed. The prayer of a godly person is powerful. Things happen because of it.

[17]Elijah was a human being, just as we are. He prayed hard that it wouldn't rain. And it didn't rain on the land for three and a half years. [18]Then he prayed again. That time it rained. And the earth produced its crops.

[19]My brothers and sisters, suppose one of you wanders away from the truth. And suppose someone brings that person back. [20]Then here is what I want you to remember. Anyone who keeps a sinner from going astray will save them from death. God will erase many sins by forgiving them.

1 Peter

1 Peter 1

[1]I, Peter, am writing this letter. I am an apostle of Jesus Christ.

I am sending this letter to you, God's chosen people. You are people who have had to wander in the world. You are scattered all over the areas of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia. [2]You have been chosen in keeping with what God the Father had planned. That happened through the Spirit's work to make you pure and holy. God chose you so that you might obey Jesus Christ. God wanted you to be in a covenant relationship with him. He established this relationship by the blood of Christ.

May more and more grace and peace be given to you.

Peter Praises God for a Living Hope

[3]Give praise to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. In his great mercy he has given us a new birth and a living hope. This hope is living because Jesus Christ rose from the dead. [4]He has given us new birth so that we might share in what belongs to him. This is a gift that can never be destroyed. It can never spoil or even fade away. It is kept in heaven for you. [5]Through faith you are kept safe by God's power. Your salvation is going to be completed. It is ready to be shown to you in the last days. [6]Because you know all this, you have great joy. You have joy even though you may have had to suffer for a little while. You may have had to suffer sadness in all kinds of trouble. [7]Your troubles have come in order to prove that your faith is real. Your faith is worth more than gold. That's because gold can pass away even when fire has made it pure. Your faith is meant to bring praise, honor and glory to God. This will happen when Jesus Christ returns. [8]Even though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not see him now, you believe in him. You are filled with a glorious joy that can't be put into words. [9]You are receiving the salvation of your souls. This salvation is the final result of your faith.

[10]The prophets searched very hard and with great care to find out about this salvation. They spoke about the grace that was going to come to you. [11]They wanted to find out when and how this salvation would come. The Spirit of Christ in them was telling them about the sufferings of the Messiah. These were his sufferings that were going to come. The Spirit of Christ was also telling them about the glory that would follow. 12It was made known to the prophets that they were not serving themselves. Instead, they were serving you when they spoke about the things that you have now heard. Those who have preached the good news to you have told you these things. They have done it with the help of the Holy Spirit sent from heaven. Even angels long to look into these things.

Be Holy

13So be watchful, and control yourselves completely. In this way, put your hope in the grace that lies ahead. This grace will be brought to you when Jesus Christ returns. 14You should obey your Father. You shouldn't give in to evil desires. They controlled your life when you didn't know any better. 15The God who chose you is holy. So you should be holy in all that you do. 16It is written, "Be holy, because I am holy." (Leviticus 11:44, 45; 19:2)

17You call on a Father who judges each person's work without favoring one over another. So live as outsiders during your time here. Live with the highest respect for God. 18You were set free from an empty way of life. This way of life was handed down to you by your own people of long ago. You know that you were not bought with things that can pass away, like silver or gold. 19Instead, you were bought with the priceless blood of Christ. He is a perfect lamb. He doesn't have any flaws at all. 20He was chosen before God created the world. But he came into the world for your sake in these last days. 21Because of what Christ has done, you believe in God. It was God who raised him from the dead. And it was God who gave him glory. So your faith and hope are in God.

22You have made yourselves pure by obeying the truth. So you have an honest and true love for each other. So love one another deeply, from your hearts. 23You have been born again by means of the living word of God. His word lasts forever. You were not born again from a seed that will die. You were born from a seed that can't die. 24It is written,

> "All people are like grass.
> All their glory is like the flowers in the field.
> The grass dries up. The flowers fall to the ground.
> 25But the word of the Lord lasts forever." (Isaiah 40:6–8)

And this is the word that was preached to you.

1 Peter 2

[1]So get rid of every kind of evil, and stop telling lies. Don’t pretend to be something you are not. Stop wanting what others have, and don’t speak against one another. [2]Like newborn babies, you should long for the pure milk of God’s word. It will help you grow up as believers. [3]You can do this now that you have tasted how good the Lord is.

The Living Stone and a Chosen People

[4]Christ is the living Stone. People did not accept him, but God chose him. God places the highest value on him. [5]You also are like living stones. As you come to Christ, you are being built into a house for worship. There you will be holy priests. You will offer spiritual sacrifices. God will accept them because of what Jesus Christ has done. [6]In Scripture it says, > “Look! I am placing a stone in Zion.

> It is a chosen and very valuable stone.
> It is the most important stone in the building.
> The one who trusts in him > will never be put to shame.” (Isaiah 28:16)

[7]This stone is very valuable to you who believe. But to people who do not believe,

> “The stone the builders did not accept > has become the most important stone of all.” (Psalm 118:22)

[8]And,

> “It is a stone that causes people to trip.
> It is a rock that makes them fall.” (Isaiah 8:14)

They trip and fall because they do not obey the message. That is also what God planned for them.

[9]But God chose you to be his people. You are royal priests. You are a holy nation. You are God’s special treasure. You are all these things so that you can give him praise. God brought you out of darkness into his wonderful light.

10 Once you were not a people. But now you are the people of God. Once you had not received mercy. But now you have received mercy.

Living Godly Lives Among People Who Don't Believe

11 Dear friends, you are outsiders and those who wander in this world. So I'm asking you not to give in to your sinful desires. They fight against your soul. 12 People who don't believe might say you are doing wrong. But lead good lives among them. Then they will see your good deeds. And they will give glory to God on the day he comes to judge.

13 Follow the lead of every human authority. Do this for the Lord's sake. Obey the emperor. He is the highest authority. 14 Obey the governors. The emperor sends them to punish those who do wrong. He also sends them to praise those who do right. 15 By doing good you will put a stop to the talk of foolish people. They don't know what they are saying. 16 Live as free people. But don't use your freedom to cover up evil. Live as people who are God's slaves. 17 Show proper respect to everyone. Love the family of believers. Have respect for God. Honor the emperor.

18 Slaves, obey your masters out of deep respect for God. Obey not only those who are good and kind. Obey also those who are not kind. 19 Suppose a person suffers pain unfairly because they want to obey God. This is worthy of praise. 20 But suppose you receive a beating for doing wrong, and you put up with it. Will anyone honor you for this? Of course not. But suppose you suffer for doing good, and you put up with it. God will praise you for this. 21 You were chosen to do good even if you suffer. That's because Christ suffered for you. He left you an example that he expects you to follow. 22 Scripture says,

> "He didn't commit any sin.
> No lies ever came out of his mouth." (Isaiah 53:9)

23 People shouted at him and made fun of him. But he didn't do the same thing back to them. When he suffered, he didn't say he would make them suffer. Instead, he trusted in the God who judges fairly. 24 "He himself carried our sins" in his body on the cross. (Isaiah 53:5) He did it so that we would die as far as sins are concerned. Then we would lead godly lives. "His wounds have healed you." (Isaiah 53:5) 25 "You were like sheep wandering away." (Isaiah 53:6) But now you have returned to the Shepherd. He is the one who watches over your souls.

1 Peter 3

[1]Wives, follow the lead of your own husbands. Suppose some of them don't believe God's word. Then let them be won to Christ without words by seeing how their wives behave. [2]Let them see how pure you are. Let them see that your lives are full of respect for God. [3]Fancy hairstyles don't make you beautiful.
Wearing gold jewelry or fine clothes doesn't make you beautiful. [4]Instead, your beauty comes from inside you. It is the beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit.
Beauty like this doesn't fade away. God places great value on it. [5]This is how the holy women of the past used to make themselves beautiful. They put their hope in God. And they followed the lead of their own husbands. [6]Sarah was like that.
She obeyed Abraham. She called him her master. Do you want to be like her?
Then do what is right. And don't give in to fear.

[7]Husbands, consider the needs of your wives. They are weaker than you. So treat them with respect. Honor them as those who will share with you the gracious gift of life. Then nothing will stand in the way of your prayers.

Suffering for Doing Good

[8]Finally, I want all of you to agree with one another. Be understanding. Love one another. Be kind and tender. Be humble. [9]Don't pay back evil with evil.
Don't pay back unkind words with unkind words. Instead, pay back evil with kind words. This is what you have been chosen to do. You will receive a blessing by doing this. [10]Scripture says,

> "Suppose someone wants to love life
> and see good days.
> Then they must keep their tongues from speaking evil.
> They must keep their lips from telling lies.
> [11]They must turn away from evil and do good.
> They must look for peace and go after it.
> [12]The Lord's eyes look on godly people, and he blesses them.
> His ears are open to their prayers.
> But the Lord doesn't bless those who do evil." (Psalm 34:12–16)

[13]Who is going to hurt you if you really want to do good? [14]But suppose you do suffer for doing what is right. Even then you will be blessed. Scripture says, “Don’t fear what others say they will do to hurt you. Don’t be afraid.” (Isaiah 8:12)

15But make sure that in your hearts you honor Christ as Lord. Always be ready to give an answer to anyone who asks you about the hope you have. Be ready to give the reason for it. But do it gently and with respect. 16Live so that you don’t have to feel you’ve done anything wrong. Some people may say evil things about your good conduct as believers in Christ. If they do, they will be put to shame for speaking like this about you. 17God may want you to suffer for doing good. That’s better than suffering for doing evil. 18Christ also suffered once for sins. The one who did what is right suffered for those who don’t do right. He suffered to bring you to God. His body was put to death. But the Holy Spirit brought him back to life. 19After that, Christ went and made an announcement to the spirits in prison. 20Long ago these spirits did not obey. That was when God was patient while Noah was building the ark. And only a few people went into the ark. In fact, there were only eight. Those eight people were saved through water. 21The water of the flood is a picture. It is a picture of the baptism that now saves you too. This baptism has nothing to do with removing dirt from your body. Instead, it promises God that you will keep a clear sense of right and wrong. This baptism saves you by the same power that raised Jesus Christ from the dead. 22He has gone into heaven. He is at God’s right hand. Angels, authorities and powers are under his control.

1 Peter 4

Living for God

[1]Christ suffered in his body. So prepare yourselves to think in the same way Christ did. Do this because whoever suffers in their body is finished with sin.
[2]As a result, they don't live the rest of their earthly life for evil human desires.
Instead, they live to do what God wants. [3]You have spent enough time in the past doing what ungodly people choose to do. You lived a wild life. You longed for evil things. You got drunk. You went to wild parties. You worshiped statues of gods, which the Lord hates. [4]Ungodly people are surprised that you no longer join them in what they do. They want you to join them in their wild and wasteful living. So they say bad things about you. [5]But they will have to explain their actions to God. He is ready to judge those who are alive and those who are dead.
[6]That's why the good news was preached even to people who are now dead. It was preached to them for two reasons. It was preached so that their bodies might be judged. This judgment is made by human standards. But the good news was also preached so that their spirits might live. This life comes by means of God's power.

[7]The end of all things is near. So be watchful and control yourselves. Then you may pray. [8]Most of all, love one another deeply. Love erases many sins by forgiving them. [9]Welcome others into your homes without complaining. [10]God's gifts of grace come in many forms. Each of you has received a gift in order to serve others. You should use it faithfully. [11]If anyone speaks, they should do it as one speaking God's words. If anyone serves, they should do it with the strength God provides. Then in all things God will be praised through Jesus Christ. Glory and power belong to him for ever and ever. Amen.

Suffering for Being a Christian [12]Dear friends, don't be surprised by the terrible things happening to you. The trouble you are having has come to test you. So don't feel as if something strange were happening to you. [13]Instead, be joyful that you are taking part in Christ's sufferings. Then you will have even more joy when Christ returns in glory. [14]Suppose people say bad things about you because you believe in Christ.

Then you are blessed, because God's Spirit rests on you. He is the Spirit of glory.
[15]If you suffer, it shouldn't be because you are a murderer. It shouldn't be because you are a thief or someone who does evil things. It shouldn’t be because you interfere with other people’s business. [16]But suppose you suffer for being a Christian. Then don’t be ashamed. Instead, praise God because you are known by the name of Christ. [17]It is time for judgment to begin with the household of God. And since it begins with us, what will happen to people who don’t obey God’s good news? [18]Scripture says, > “Suppose it is hard for godly people to be saved.

> Then what will happen to ungodly people and sinners?” (Proverbs 11:31)

[19]Here is what people who suffer because of God’s plan should do. They should commit themselves to their faithful Creator. And they should continue to do good.

1 Peter 5

To Older and Younger Believers

[1]I'm speaking to the elders among you. I was a witness of Christ's sufferings. And I will also share in the glory that is going to come. I'm making my appeal to you as one who is an elder together with you. [2]Be shepherds of God's flock, the believers under your care. Watch over them, though not because you have to. Instead, do it because you want to. That's what God wants you to do. Don't do it because you want to get money in dishonest ways. Do it because you really want to serve. [3]Don't act as if you were a ruler over those under your care. Instead, be examples to the flock. [4]The Chief Shepherd will come again. Then you will receive the crown of glory. It is a crown that will never fade away.

[5]In the same way, I'm speaking to you who are younger. Follow the lead of those who are older. All of you, put on a spirit free of pride toward one another. Put it on as if it were your clothes. Do this because Scripture says,

> "God opposes those who are proud.
> But he gives grace to those who are humble." (Proverbs 3:34)

[6]So make yourselves humble. Put yourselves under God's mighty hand. Then he will honor you at the right time. [7]Turn all your worries over to him. He cares about you.

[8]Be watchful and control yourselves. Your enemy the devil is like a roaring lion. He prowls around looking for someone to swallow up. [9]Stand up to him. Remain strong in what you believe. You know that you are not alone in your suffering. The family of believers throughout the world is going through the same thing.

[10]God always gives you all the grace you need. So you will only have to suffer for a little while. Then God himself will build you up again. He will make you strong and steady. And he has chosen you to share in his eternal glory because you belong to Christ. [11]Give him the power for ever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

[12]I consider Silas to be a faithful brother. With his help I have written you this short letter. I have written it to encourage you. And I have written to speak the truth about the true grace of God. Remain strong in it.

[13]The members of the church in Babylon send you their greetings. They were chosen together with you. Mark, my son in the faith, also sends you his greetings.
[14]Greet each other with a kiss of friendship.

May God give peace to all of you who believe in Christ.

2 Peter

2 Peter 1

[1]I, Simon Peter, am writing this letter. I serve Jesus Christ. I am his apostle.

I am sending this letter to you. You are those who have received a faith as valuable as ours. You received it because our God and Savior Jesus Christ does what is right.

[2]May more and more grace and peace be given to you. May they come to you as you learn more about God and about Jesus our Lord.

Showing That God Has Chosen You

[3]God's power has given us everything we need to lead a godly life. All of this has come to us because we know the God who chose us. He chose us because of his own glory and goodness. [4]He has also given us his very great and valuable promises. He did it so you could share in his nature. You can share in it because you've escaped from the evil in the world. This evil is caused by sinful desires.

[5]So you should try very hard to add goodness to your faith. To goodness, add knowledge. [6]To knowledge, add the ability to control yourselves. To the ability to control yourselves, add the strength to keep going. To the strength to keep going, add godliness. [7]To godliness, add kindness for one another. And to kindness for one another, add love. [8]All these things should describe you more and more. They will make you useful and fruitful as you know our Lord Jesus Christ better. [9]But what if these things don't describe someone at all? Then that person can't see very well. In fact, they are blind. They have forgotten that their past sins have been washed away.

[10]My brothers and sisters, try very hard to show that God has appointed you to be saved. Try hard to show that he has chosen you. If you do everything I have just said, you will never trip and fall. [11]You will receive a rich welcome into the kingdom that lasts forever. It is the kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Prophecy of Scripture Comes From God

[12]So I will always remind you of these things. I'll do it even though you know them. I'll do it even though you now have deep roots in the truth. [13]I think it is right for me to remind you. It is right as long as I live in this tent. I'm talking about my body. [14]I know my tent will soon be removed. Our Lord Jesus Christ has made that clear to me. [15]I hope that you will always be able to remember these things after I'm gone. I will try very hard to see that you do.

[16]We told you about the time our Lord Jesus Christ came with power. But we didn't make up clever stories when we told you about it. With our own eyes we saw him in all his majesty. [17]God the Father gave him honor and glory. The voice of the Majestic Glory came to him. It said, "This is my Son, and I love him. I am very pleased with him." (Matthew 17:5; Mark 9:7; Luke 9:35) [18]We ourselves heard this voice that came from heaven. We were with him on the sacred mountain.

[19]We also have the message of the prophets. This message can be trusted completely. You must pay attention to it. The message is like a light shining in a dark place. It will shine until the day Jesus comes. Then the Morning Star will rise in your hearts. [20]Above all, here is what you must understand. No prophecy in Scripture ever came from a prophet's own understanding of things. [21]Prophecy never came simply because a prophet wanted it to. Instead, the Holy Spirit guided the prophets as they spoke. So, although prophets are human, prophecy comes from God.

2 Peter 2

False Teachers Will Be Destroyed

[1]But there were also false prophets among the people. In the same way there will be false teachers among you. In secret they will bring in teachings that will destroy you. They will even turn against the Lord and Master who died to pay for their sins. So they will quickly destroy themselves. [2]Many people will follow their lead. These people will do the same evil things the false teachers do. They will cause people to think badly about the way of truth. [3]These teachers are never satisfied. They want to get something out of you. So they make up stories to take advantage of you. They have been under a sentence of death for a long time. The God who will destroy them has not been sleeping.

[4]God did not spare angels when they sinned. Instead, he sent them to hell. He chained them up in dark prisons. He will keep them there until he judges them. [5]God did not spare the world's ungodly people long ago. He brought the flood on them. But Noah preached about the right way to live. God kept him safe. He also saved seven others. [6]God judged the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah. He burned them to ashes. He made them an example of what is going to happen to ungodly people. [7]God saved Lot, a man who did what was right. Lot was shocked by the evil conduct of people who didn't obey God's laws. [8]That good man lived among them day after day. He saw and heard the evil things they were doing. They were breaking God's laws. And the godly spirit of Lot was deeply troubled. [9]Since all this is true, then the Lord knows how to save godly people. He knows how to keep them safe in times of testing. The Lord also knows how to keep ungodly people under guard. He will do so until the day they will be judged and punished. [10]Most of all, this is true of people who follow desires that come from sin's power. These people hate to be under authority.

They are bold and proud. So they aren't even afraid to speak evil things against heavenly beings. [11]Now angels are stronger and more powerful than these people. But even angels don't speak evil things against heavenly beings. They don't do this when they bring judgment on them from the Lord. [12]These people speak evil about things they don't understand. They are like wild animals who can't think. Instead, they do what comes naturally to them. They are born only to be caught and destroyed. Just like animals, these people too will die.

[13]They will be paid back with harm for the harm they have done. Their idea of pleasure is to have wild parties in the middle of the day. They are like dirty spots and stains. They enjoy their sinful pleasures while they eat with you. [14]They stare at women who are not their wives. They want to sleep with them. They never stop sinning. They trap those who are not firm in their faith. They have mastered the art of getting what they want. God has placed them under his judgment. [15]They have left God's way. They have wandered off. They follow the way of Balaam, son of Beor. He loved to get paid for doing his evil work. [16]But a donkey corrected him for the wrong he did. Animals don't speak. But the donkey spoke with a human voice. It tried to stop the prophet from doing a very dumb thing.

[17]These people are like springs without water. They are like mists driven by a storm. The blackest darkness is reserved for them. [18]They speak empty, bragging words. They make their appeal to the evil desires that come from sin's power. They tempt new believers who are just escaping from the company of sinful people. [19]They promise to give freedom to these new believers. But they themselves are slaves to sinful living. That's because "people are slaves to anything that controls them." [20]They may have escaped the sin of the world. They may have come to know our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. But what if they are once again caught up in sin? And what if it has become their master? Then they are worse off at the end than they were at the beginning. [21]Suppose they had not known the way of godliness. This would have been better than to know godliness and then turn away from it. The way of godliness is the sacred command passed on to them. [22]What the proverbs say about them is true. "A dog returns to where it has thrown up." (Proverbs 26:11) And, "A pig that is washed goes back to rolling in the mud."

2 Peter 3

The Day of the Lord

[1]Dear friends, this is now my second letter to you. I have written both of them as reminders. I want to encourage you to think in a way that is pure. [2]I want you to remember the words the holy prophets spoke in the past. Remember the command our Lord and Savior gave through your apostles.

[3]Most of all, here is what you must understand. In the last days people will make fun of the truth. They will laugh at it. They will follow their own evil desires. [4]They will say, "Where is this 'return' he promised? Everything goes on in the same way it has since our people of long ago died. In fact, it has continued this way since God first created everything." [5]Long ago, God's word brought the heavens into being. His word separated the earth from the waters. And the waters surrounded it. But these people forget things like that on purpose. [6]The waters also flooded the world of that time. And so they destroyed the world. [7]By God's word the heavens and earth of today are being reserved for fire. They are being kept for the day when God will judge. Then ungodly people will be destroyed.

[8]Dear friends, here is one thing you must not forget. With the Lord a day is like a thousand years. And a thousand years are like a day. [9]The Lord is not slow to keep his promise. He is not slow in the way some people understand it. Instead, he is patient with you. He doesn't want anyone to be destroyed. Instead, he wants all people to turn away from their sins.

[10]But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar. Fire will destroy everything in them. God will judge the earth and everything done in it.

[11]So everything will be destroyed in this way. And what kind of people should you be? You should lead holy and godly lives. [12]Live like this as you look forward to the day of God. Living like this will make the day come more quickly. On that day fire will destroy the heavens. Its heat will melt everything in them. [13]But we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth. Godliness will live there. All this is in keeping with God's promise.

[14]Dear friends, I know you are looking forward to this. So try your best to be found pure and without blame. Be at peace with God. [15]Remember that while our Lord is waiting patiently to return, people are being saved. Our dear brother

Paul also wrote to you about this. God made him wise to write as he did. [16]Paul writes the same way in all his letters. He speaks about what I have just told you. His letters include some things that are hard to understand. People who don’t know better and aren’t firm in the faith twist what he says. They twist the other Scriptures too. So they will be destroyed.

[17]Dear friends, you have already been warned about this. So be on your guard. Then you won’t be led astray by people who don’t obey the law. Instead, you will remain safe. [18]Grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Glory belongs to him both now and forever. Amen.

1 John

1 John 1

The Word of Life Became a Human Being

[1]Here is what we announce to everyone about the Word of life. The Word was already here from the beginning. We have heard him. We have seen him with our eyes. We have looked at him. Our hands have touched him. [2]This life has appeared. We have seen him. We are witnesses about him. And we announce to you this same eternal life. He was already with the Father. He has appeared to us. [3]We announce to you what we have seen and heard. We do it so you can share life together with us. And we share life with the Father and with his Son, Jesus Christ. [4]We are writing this to make our joy complete.

Walking in the Light

[5]Here is the message we have heard from him and announce to you. God is light. There is no darkness in him at all. [6]Suppose we say that we share life with God but still walk in the darkness. Then we are lying. We are not living out the truth. [7]But suppose we walk in the light, just as he is in the light. Then we share life with one another. And the blood of Jesus, his Son, makes us pure from all sin.

[8]Suppose we claim we are without sin. Then we are fooling ourselves. The truth is not in us. [9]But God is faithful and fair. If we confess our sins, he will forgive our sins. He will forgive every wrong thing we have done. He will make us pure. [10]If we claim we have not sinned, we are calling God a liar. His word is not in us.

1 John 2

[1]My dear children, I'm writing this to you so that you will not sin. But suppose someone does sin. Then we have a friend who speaks to the Father for us. He is Jesus Christ, the Blameless One. [2]He gave his life to pay for our sins.
But he not only paid for our sins. He also paid for the sins of the whole world.

Instructions About Loving and Hating Other Believers

[3]We know that we have come to know God if we obey his commands.
[4]Suppose someone says, "I know him." But suppose this person does not do what God commands. Then this person is a liar and is not telling the truth. [5]But if anyone obeys God's word, then that person truly loves God. Here is how we know we belong to him. [6]Those who claim to belong to him must live just as Jesus did.

[7]Dear friends, I'm not writing you a new command. Instead, I'm writing one you have heard before. You have had it since the beginning. [8]But I am writing what amounts to a new command. Its truth was shown in how Jesus lived. It is also shown in how you live. That's because the darkness is passing away. And the true light is already shining.

[9]Suppose someone claims to be in the light but hates a brother or sister. Then they are still in the darkness. [10]Anyone who loves their brother and sister lives in the light. There is nothing in them to make them fall into sin. [11]But anyone who hates a brother or sister is in the darkness. They walk around in the darkness.
They don't know where they are going. The darkness has made them blind.

Reasons for Writing

[12]Dear children, I'm writing to you because your sins have been forgiven.
They have been forgiven because of what Jesus has done.
[13]Fathers, I'm writing to you
because you know the one who is from the beginning.
Young men, I'm writing to you because you have won the battle over the evil one.

[14]Dear children, I’m writing to you because you know the Father.
Fathers, I’m writing to you
because you know the one who is from the beginning.
Young men, I’m writing to you because you are strong.
God’s word lives in you.
You have won the battle over the evil one.

Do Not Love the World

[15]Do not love the world or anything in it. If anyone loves the world, love for the Father is not in them. [16]Here is what people who belong to this world do. They try to satisfy what their sinful desires want to do. They long for what their sinful eyes look at. They take pride in what they have and what they do. All of this comes from the world. None of it comes from the Father. [17]The world and its evil desires are passing away. But whoever does what God wants them to do lives forever.

Warnings About Saying No to the Son

[18]Dear children, we are living in the last days. You have heard that the great enemy of Christ is coming. But even now many enemies of Christ have already come. That’s how we know that these are the last days. [19]These enemies left our community of believers. They didn’t really belong to us. If they had belonged to us, they would have remained with us. But by leaving they showed that none of them belonged to us.

[20]You have received the Spirit from the Holy One. And all of you know the truth. [21]I’m not writing to you because you don’t know the truth. I’m writing because you do know it. I’m writing to you because no lie comes from the truth. [22]Who is the liar? It is anyone who says that Jesus is not the Christ. The person who says this is the great enemy of Christ. They say no to the Father and the Son. [23]The person who says no to the Son doesn’t belong to the Father. But anyone who says yes to the Son belongs to the Father also.

[24]Make sure that you don’t forget what you have heard from the beginning. Then you will remain joined to the Son and to the Father. [25]And here is what God has promised us. He has promised us eternal life.

[26]I’m writing these things to warn you. I am warning you about people trying to lead you astray. [27]But you have received the Holy Spirit from God. He continues to live in you. So you don’t need anyone to teach you. God’s Spirit teaches you about everything. What he says is true. He doesn’t lie. Remain joined to Christ, just as you have been taught by the Spirit.

God’s Children and Sin

[28]Dear children, remain joined to Christ. Then when he comes, we can be bold. We will not be ashamed to meet him when he comes.

[29]You know that God is right and always does what is right. And you know that everyone who does what is right is God’s child.

1 John 3

[1]See what amazing love the Father has given us! Because of it, we are called children of God. And that's what we really are! The world doesn't know us because it didn't know him. [2]Dear friends, now we are children of God. He still hasn't let us know what we will be. But we know that when Christ appears, we will be like him. That's because we will see him as he really is. [3]Christ is pure. All who hope to be like him make themselves pure.

[4]Everyone who sins breaks the law. In fact, breaking the law is sin. [5]But you know that Christ came to take our sins away. And there is no sin in him. [6]No one who remains joined to him keeps on sinning. No one who keeps on sinning has seen him or known him.

[7]Dear children, don't let anyone lead you astray. The person who does what is right is holy, just as Christ is holy. [8]The person who does what is sinful belongs to the devil. That's because the devil has been sinning from the beginning. But the Son of God came to destroy the devil's work. [9]Those who are God's children will not keep on sinning. God's very nature remains in them. They can't go on sinning. That's because they are God's children. [10]Here is how you can tell the difference between God's children and the devil's children. Anyone who doesn't do what is right isn't God's child. And anyone who doesn't love their brother or sister isn't God's child either.

More Instructions About Loving and Hating One Another

[11]From the beginning we have heard that we should love one another. [12]Don't be like Cain. He belonged to the evil one. He murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because the things Cain had done were wrong. But the things his brother had done were right. [13]My brothers and sisters, don't be surprised if the world hates you. [14]We know that we have left our old dead way of life. And we have entered into new life. We know this because we love one another. Anyone who doesn't love still lives in their old condition. [15]Anyone who hates their brother or sister is a murderer. And you know that no murderer has eternal life.

[16]We know what love is because Jesus Christ gave his life for us. So we should give our lives for our brothers and sisters. [17]Suppose someone sees a brother or sister in need and is able to help them. And suppose that person doesn’t take pity on these needy people. Then how can the love of God be in that person? [18]Dear children, don’t just talk about love. Put your love into action. Then it will truly be love.

[19]Here’s how we know that we hold to the truth. And here’s how we put our hearts at rest, knowing that God is watching. [20]If our hearts judge us, we know that God is greater than our hearts. And he knows everything. [21]Dear friends, if our hearts do not judge us, we can be bold with God. [22]And he will give us anything we ask. That’s because we obey his commands. We do what pleases him. [23]God has commanded us to believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ. He has also commanded us to love one another. [24]The one who obeys God’s commands remains joined to him. And he remains joined to them. Here is how we know that God lives in us. We know it because of the Holy Spirit he gave us.

1 John 4

Jesus Came as a Human Being

[1]Dear friends, do not believe every spirit. Test the spirits to see if they belong to God. Many false prophets have gone out into the world. [2]Here is how you can recognize the Spirit of God. Every spirit agreeing that Jesus Christ came in a human body belongs to God. [3]But every spirit that doesn't agree with this does not belong to God. You have heard that the spirit of the great enemy of Christ is coming. Even now it is already in the world.

[4]Dear children, you belong to God. You have not accepted the teachings of the false prophets. That's because the one who is in you is powerful. He is more powerful than the one who is in the world. [5]False prophets belong to the world.
So they speak from the world's point of view. And the world listens to them.
[6]We belong to God. And those who know God listen to us. But those who don't belong to God don't listen to us. That's how we can tell the difference between the Spirit of truth and the spirit of lies.

We Love Because God Loved Us

[7]Dear friends, let us love one another, because love comes from God.
Everyone who loves has become a child of God and knows God. [8]Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. [9]Here is how God showed his love among us. He sent his one and only Son into the world. He sent him so we could receive life through him. [10]Here is what love is. It is not that we loved God. It is that he loved us and sent his Son to give his life to pay for our sins. [11]Dear friends, since God loved us this much, we should also love one another. [12]No one has ever seen God. But if we love one another, God lives in us. His love is made complete in us.

[13]Here's how we know that we are joined to him and he to us. He has given us his Holy Spirit. [14]The Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. We have seen it and are witnesses to it. [15]God lives in anyone who agrees that Jesus is the Son of God. This kind of person remains joined to God. [16]So we know that God loves us. We depend on it.

God is love. Anyone who leads a life of love is joined to God. And God is joined to them. [17]Suppose love is fulfilled among us. Then we can be without fear on the day God judges the world. Love is fulfilled among us when in this world we are like Jesus. [18]There is no fear in love. Instead, perfect love drives away fear. That’s because fear has to do with being punished. The one who fears does not have perfect love.

[19]We love because he loved us first. [20]Suppose someone claims to love God but hates a brother or sister. Then they are a liar. They don’t love their brother or sister, whom they have seen. So they can’t love God, whom they haven’t seen. [21]Here is the command God has given us. Anyone who loves God must also love their brother and sister.

1 John 5

Faith in God's Son Who Became a Human Being

[1]Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is a child of God. And everyone who loves the Father loves his children as well. [2]Here is how we know that we love God's children. We know it when we love God and obey his commands. [3]In fact, here is what it means to love God. We love him by obeying his commands. And his commands are not hard to obey. [4]That's because everyone who is a child of God has won the battle over the world. Our faith has won the battle for us. [5]Who is it that has won the battle over the world? Only the person who believes that Jesus is the Son of God.

[6]Jesus Christ was born as we are, and he died on the cross. He wasn't just born as we are. He also died on the cross. The Holy Spirit is a truthful witness about him. That's because the Spirit is the truth. [7]There are three that are witnesses about Jesus. [8]They are the Holy Spirit, the birth of Jesus, and the death of Jesus. And the three of them agree. [9]We accept what people say when they are witnesses. But it's more important when God is a witness. That's because it is what God says about his Son. [10]Whoever believes in the Son of God accepts what God says about him. Whoever does not believe God is calling him a liar.
That's because they have not believed what God said about his Son. [11]Here is what God says about the Son. God has given us eternal life. And this life is found in his Son. [12]Whoever belongs to the Son has life. Whoever doesn't belong to the Son of God doesn't have life.

Final Words

[13]I'm writing these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God.
I'm writing so you will know that you have eternal life. [14]Here is what we can be sure of when we come to God in prayer. If we ask anything in keeping with what he wants, he hears us. [15]If we know that God hears what we ask for, we know that we have it.

[16]Suppose you see any brother or sister commit a sin. But this sin is not the kind that leads to death. Then you should pray, and God will give them life. I'm talking about someone whose sin does not lead to death. But there is a sin that does lead to death. I'm not saying you should pray about that sin. [17]Every wrong thing we do is sin. But there are sins that do not lead to death.

18We know that those who are children of God do not keep on sinning. The Son of God keeps them safe. The evil one can’t harm them. 19We know that we are children of God. We know that the whole world is under the control of the evil one. 20We also know that the Son of God has come. He has given us understanding. So we can know the God who is true. And we belong to the true God by belonging to his Son, Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.

21Dear children, keep away from statues of gods.

2 John

2 John 1

[1]I, the elder, am writing this letter.

I am sending it to the lady chosen by God and to her children. I love all of you because of the truth. I'm not the only one who loves you. So does everyone who knows the truth. [2]I love you because of the truth that is alive in us. This truth will be with us forever.

[3]God the Father and Jesus Christ his Son will give you grace, mercy and peace. These blessings will be with us because we love the truth.

[4]It has given me great joy to find some of your children living by the truth. That's just what the Father commanded us to do. [5]Dear lady, I'm not writing you a new command. I'm writing a command we've had from the beginning. I'm asking that we love one another. [6]The way we show our love is to obey God's commands. He commands you to lead a life of love. That's what you have heard from the beginning.

[7]I say this because many people have tried to fool others. These people have gone out into the world. They don't agree that Jesus Christ came in a human body. People like this try to trick others. These people are like the great enemy of Christ. [8]Watch out that you don't lose what we have worked for. Make sure that you get your full reward. [9]Suppose someone thinks they know more than we do. So they don't follow Christ's teaching. Then that person doesn't belong to God. But whoever follows Christ's teaching belongs to the Father and the Son. [10]Suppose someone comes to you and doesn't teach these truths. Then don't take them into your house or welcome them. [11]Anyone who welcomes them shares in their evil work.

[12]I have a lot to write to you. But I don't want to use paper and ink. I hope I can visit you instead. Then I can talk with you face to face. That will make our joy complete.

[13]The children of your sister, who is chosen by God, send their greetings.

3 John

3 John 1

[1]I, the elder, am writing this letter.

I am sending it to you, my dear friend Gaius. I love you because of the truth.

[2]Dear friend, I know that your spiritual life is going well. I pray that you also may enjoy good health. And I pray that everything else may go well with you. [3]Some believers came to me and told me that you are faithful to the truth. They told me that you continue to live by it. This news gave me great joy. [4]I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are living by the truth.

[5]Dear friend, you are faithful in what you are doing for the brothers and sisters. You are faithful even though they are strangers to you. [6]They have told the church about your love. Please help them by sending them on their way in a manner that honors God. [7]They started on their journey to serve Jesus Christ. They didn't receive any help from those who aren't believers. [8]So we should welcome people like them. We should work together with them for the truth.

[9]I wrote to the church. But Diotrephes will not welcome us. He loves to be the first in everything. [10]So when I come, I will point out what he is doing. He is saying evil things that aren't true about us. Even this doesn't satisfy him. So he refuses to welcome other believers. He also keeps others from welcoming them. In fact, he throws them out of the church.

[11]Dear friend, don't be like those who do evil. Be like those who do good. Anyone who does what is good belongs to God. Anyone who does what is evil hasn't really seen or known God. [12]Everyone says good things about Demetrius. He lives in keeping with the truth. We also say good things about him. And you know that what we say is true.

[13]I have a lot to write to you. But I don't want to write with pen and ink. [14]I hope I can see you soon. Then we can talk face to face.

May you have peace.

The friends here send their greetings.
Greet each one of the friends there.

Jude

Jude 1

[1]I, Jude, am writing this letter. I serve Jesus Christ. I am a brother of James.

I am sending this letter to you who have been chosen by God. You are loved by God the Father. You are kept safe for Jesus Christ.

[2]May more and more mercy, peace and love be given to you.

A Warning Against the Sin of Ungodly People

[3]Dear friends, I really wanted to write to you about the salvation we share. But now I feel I should write and ask you to stand up for the faith. God's holy people were trusted with it once and for all time. [4]Certain people have secretly slipped in among you. Long ago it was written that they would be judged. They are ungodly people. They misuse the grace of our God as an excuse for sexual sins. They say no to Jesus Christ, our only Lord and King.

[5]I want to remind you about some things you already know. The Lord saved his people. At one time he brought them out of Egypt. But later he destroyed those who did not believe. [6]Some of the angels didn't stay where they belonged. They didn't keep their positions of authority. The Lord has kept those angels in darkness. They are held by chains that last forever. On judgment day, God will judge them. [7]The people of Sodom and Gomorrah and the towns around them also did evil things. They freely committed sexual sins. They committed sins of the worst possible kind. There is a fire that never goes out. Those people are an example of those who are punished with it.

[8]In the very same way, these ungodly people act on their evil dreams. So they make their own bodies impure. They don't accept authority. And they say evil things against heavenly beings. [9]But even Michael, the leader of the angels, didn't dare to say these things. He didn't even say these things when he argued with the devil about the body of Moses. Michael didn't dare to judge the devil. He didn't say the devil was guilty of saying evil things. Instead, Michael said, "May the Lord judge you!" [10]But these people say evil things against whatever they don't understand. And the very things they do understand will destroy them. That's because they are like wild animals that can't think for themselves.

Instead, they do what comes naturally to them.

[11]How terrible it will be for them! They have followed the way of Cain. They have rushed into the same mistake Balaam made. They did it because they loved money. They are like Korah. He turned against his leaders. These people will certainly be destroyed, just as Korah was.

[12]These ungodly people are like stains at the meals you share. They have no shame. They are shepherds who feed only themselves. They are like clouds without rain. They are blown along by the wind. They are like trees in the fall. Since they have no fruit, they are pulled out of the ground. So they die twice. [13]They are like wild waves of the sea. Their shame rises up like foam. They are like falling stars. God has reserved a place of very black darkness for them forever.

[14]Enoch was the seventh man in the family line of Adam. He gave a prophecy about these people. He said, “Look! The Lord is coming with thousands and thousands of his holy ones. [15]He is coming to judge everyone. He is coming to sentence all of them. He will judge them for all the ungodly acts they have done. They have done them in ungodly ways. He will sentence ungodly sinners for all the things they have said to oppose him.” [16]These people complain and find fault with others. They follow their own evil desires. They brag about themselves. They praise others to get what they want.

Remain in God’s Love

[17]Dear friends, remember what the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ said would happen. [18]They told you, “In the last days, some people will make fun of the truth. They will follow their own ungodly desires.” [19]They are the people who separate you from one another. They do only what comes naturally. They are not led by the Holy Spirit.

[20]But you, dear friends, build yourselves up in your most holy faith. Let the Holy Spirit guide and help you when you pray. [21]And by doing these things, remain in God’s love as you wait. You are waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to bring you eternal life.

[22]Show mercy to those who doubt. [23]Save others by pulling them out of the fire. To others, show mercy mixed with fear of sin. Hate even the clothes that are stained by the sins of those who wear them.

Praise to God

[24]Give praise to the God who is able to keep you from falling into sin. He will bring you into his heavenly glory without any fault. He will bring you there with great joy. [25]Give praise to the only God our Savior. Glory, majesty, power and authority belong to him. Give praise to him through Jesus Christ our Lord. His praise was before all time, continues now, and will last forever. Amen.

Revelation

Revelation 1

The Revelation Is Given

[1]This is the revelation from Jesus Christ. God gave it to him to show those who serve God what will happen soon. God made it known by sending his angel to his servant John. [2]John is a witness to everything he saw. What he saw is God's word and what Jesus Christ has said. [3]Blessed is the one who reads out loud the words of this prophecy. Blessed are those who hear it and think everything it says is important. The time when these things will come true is near.

Greetings and Praise to God

[4]I, John, am writing this letter.

I am sending it to the seven churches in Asia Minor.

May grace and peace come to you from God. He is the one who is, and who was, and who will come. May grace and peace come to you from the seven spirits. These spirits are in front of God's throne. [5]May grace and peace come to you from Jesus Christ. He is the faithful witness, so what he has shown can be trusted. He was the first to rise from the dead. He rules over the kings of the earth.

Glory and power belong to Jesus Christ who loves us! He has set us free from our sins by pouring out his blood for us. [6]He has made us members of his royal family. He has made us priests who serve his God and Father. Glory and power belong to Jesus Christ for ever and ever! Amen.

[7]"Look! He is coming with the clouds!" (Daniel 7:13)
"Every eye will see him.
Even those who pierced him will see him."
All the nations of the earth "will mourn because of him."
(Zechariah 12:10)
This will really happen! Amen.

[8]“I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End,” says the Lord God. “I am the God who is, and who was, and who will come. I am the Mighty One.”

John’s Vision of Christ

[9]I, John, am a believer like you. I am a friend who suffers like you. As members of Jesus’ royal family, we can put up with anything that happens to us. I was on the island of Patmos because I taught God’s word and what Jesus said. [10]The Holy Spirit gave me a vision on the Lord’s Day. I heard a loud voice behind me that sounded like a trumpet. [11]The voice said, “Write on a scroll what you see. Send it to the seven churches in Asia Minor. They are Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia and Laodicea.”

[12]I turned around to see who was speaking to me. When I turned, I saw seven golden lampstands. [13]In the middle of them was someone who looked “like a son of man.” (Daniel 7:13) He was dressed in a long robe with a gold strip of cloth around his chest. [14]The hair on his head was white like wool, as white as snow. His eyes were like a blazing fire. [15]His feet were like bronze metal glowing in a furnace. His voice sounded like rushing waters. [16]He held seven stars in his right hand. Coming out of his mouth was a sharp sword with two edges. His face was like the sun shining in all its brightness.

[17]When I saw him, I fell at his feet as if I were dead. Then he put his right hand on me and said, “Do not be afraid. I am the First and the Last. [18]I am the Living One. I was dead. But now look! I am alive for ever and ever! And I hold the keys to Death and Hell.

[19]“So write down what you have seen. Write about what is happening now and what will happen later. [20]Here is the meaning of the mystery of the seven stars you saw in my right hand. They are the angels of the seven churches. And the seven golden lampstands you saw stand for the seven churches.

Revelation 2

The Letter to the Church in Ephesus

[1]"Here is what I command you to write to the church in Ephesus.

Here are the words of Jesus, who holds the seven stars in his right hand.
He also walks among the seven golden lampstands. He says, [2]'I know what you are doing. You work long and hard. I know you can't put up with evil people. You have tested those who claim to be apostles but are not. You have found out that they are liars. [3]You have been faithful and have put up with a lot of trouble because of me. You have not given up.
[4]'But here is something I hold against you. You have turned away from the love you had at first. [5]Think about how far you have fallen!
Turn away from your sins. Do the things you did at first. If you don't, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place. [6]But you do have this in your favor. You hate the way the Nicolaitans act. I hate it too.
[7]'Whoever has ears should listen to what the Holy Spirit says to the churches. Here is what I will do for anyone who has victory over sin. I will let that person eat from the tree of life in God's paradise.'

The Letter to the Church in Smyrna

[8]"Here is what I command you to write to the church in Smyrna.

Here are the words of Jesus, who is the First and the Last. He is the one who died and came to life again. He says, [9]'I know that you suffer and are poor. But you are rich! Some people say they are Jews but are not. I know that their words are evil. Their worship comes from Satan.
[10]Don't be afraid of what you are going to suffer. I tell you, the devil will put some of you in prison to test you. You will be treated badly for ten days. Be faithful, even if it means you must die. Then I will give you life as your crown of victory.
[11]'Whoever has ears should listen to what the Holy Spirit says to the churches. Here is what I will do for anyone who has victory over sin. I will not let that person be hurt at all by the second death.'

The Letter to the Church in Pergamum

12“Here is what I command you to write to the church in Pergamum.

Here are the words of Jesus, who has the sharp sword with two edges. He says, 13‘I know that you live where Satan has his throne. But you remain faithful to me. You did not give up your faith in me. You didn’t give it up even in the days of Antipas. Antipas, my faithful witness, was put to death in your city, where Satan lives.

14‘But I have a few things against you. Some of your people follow the teaching of Balaam. He taught Balak to lead the people of Israel into sin. So they ate food that had been offered to statues of gods. And they committed sexual sins. 15You also have people who follow the teaching of the Nicolaitans. 16So turn away from your sins! If you don’t, I will come to you soon. I will fight against those people with the sword that comes out of my mouth.

17‘Whoever has ears should listen to what the Holy Spirit says to the churches. Here is what I will do for anyone who has victory over sin. I will give that person hidden manna to eat. I will also give each of them a white stone with a new name written on it. Only the one who receives this name will know what it is.’

The Letter to the Church in Thyatira

18“Here is what I command you to write to the church in Thyatira.

Here are the words of the Son of God. He is Jesus, whose eyes are like blazing fire. His feet are like polished bronze. He says, 19‘I know what you are doing. I know your love and your faith. I know how well you have served. I know you don’t give up easily. In fact, you are doing more now than you did at first.

20‘But here is what I have against you. You put up with that woman Jezebel. She calls herself a prophet. With her teaching, she has led my servants into sexual sin. She has tricked them into eating food offered to statues of gods. 21I’ve given her time to turn away from her sinful ways. But she doesn’t want to. 22She lay down to commit her sin so I will make her lie down in suffering. Those who commit adultery with her will suffer greatly too. Their only way out is to turn away from what she taught them to do. [23]I will strike her children dead. Then all the churches will know that I search hearts and minds. I will pay each of you back for what you have done.

[24]‘I won’t ask the rest of you in Thyatira to do anything else. You don’t follow the teaching of Jezebel. You haven’t learned what some people call Satan’s deep secrets. [25]Just hold on to what you have until I come.

[26]‘Here is what I will do for anyone who has victory over sin. I will do it for anyone who carries out my plans to the end. I will give that person authority over the nations. [27]It is written, “They will rule them with an iron scepter. They will break them to pieces like clay pots.” (Psalm 2:9) Their authority is like the authority I’ve received from my Father. [28]I will also give the morning star to all who have victory. [29]Whoever has ears should listen to what the Holy Spirit says to the churches.’

Revelation 3

The Letter to the Church in Sardis

[1]"Here is what I command you to write to the church in Sardis.

Here are the words of Jesus, who holds the seven spirits of God. He has the seven stars in his hand. He says, 'I know what you are doing. People think you are alive, but you are dead. [2]Wake up! Strengthen what is left, or it will die. You have not done all that my God wants you to do. [3]So remember what you have been taught and have heard. Hold firmly to it. Turn away from your sins. If you don't wake up, I will come like a thief. You won't know when I will come to you.

[4]'But you have a few people in Sardis who are pure. They aren't covered with evil like dirty clothes. They will walk with me, dressed in white, because they are worthy. [5]Here is what I will do for anyone who has victory over sin. I will dress that person in white like those worthy people. I will never erase their names from the book of life. I will speak of them by name to my Father and his angels. [6]Whoever has ears should listen to what the Holy Spirit says to the churches.'

The Letter to the Church in Philadelphia

[7]"Here is what I command you to write to the church in Philadelphia.

Here are the words of Jesus, who is holy and true. He holds the key of David. No one can shut what he opens. And no one can open what he shuts. He says, [8]'I know what you are doing. Look! I have put an open door in front of you. No one can shut it. I know that you don't have much strength. But you have obeyed my word. You have not said no to me. [9]Some people claim they are Jews but are not. They are liars. Their worship comes from Satan. I will make them come and fall down at your feet. I will make them say in public that I have loved you. [10]You have kept my command to remain strong in the faith no matter what happens. So I will keep you from the time of suffering. That time is going to come to the whole world. It will test those who live on the earth.

11‘I am coming soon. Hold on to what you have. Then no one will take away your crown. 12Here is what I will do for anyone who has victory over sin. I will make that person a pillar in the temple of my God. They will never leave it again. I will write the name of my God on them. I will write the name of the city of my God on them. This is the new Jerusalem, which is coming down out of heaven from my God. I will also write my new name on them. 13Whoever has ears should listen to what the Holy Spirit says to the churches.’

The Letter to the Church in Laodicea

14“Here is what I command you to write to the church in Laodicea.

Here are the words of Jesus, who is the Amen. What he speaks is faithful and true. He rules over what God has created. He says, 15‘I know what you are doing. I know you aren’t cold or hot. I wish you were either one or the other! 16But you are lukewarm. You aren’t hot or cold. So I am going to spit you out of my mouth. 17You say, “I am rich.
I’ve become wealthy and don’t need anything.” But you don’t realize how pitiful and miserable you have become. You are poor, blind and naked. 18So here’s my advice. Buy from me gold made pure by fire.
Then you will become rich. Buy from me white clothes to wear. Then you will be able to cover the shame of your naked bodies. And buy from me healing lotion to put on your eyes. Then you will be able to see.

19‘I warn and correct those I love. So be sincere, and turn away from your sins. 20Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in. I will eat with that person, and they will eat with me.

21‘Here is what I will do for anyone who has victory over sin. I will give that person the right to sit with me on my throne. In the same way, I had victory. Then I sat down with my Father on his throne. 22Whoever has ears should listen to what the Holy Spirit says to the churches.’ ”

Revelation 4

The Throne in Heaven

[1]After this I looked, and there in front of me was a door standing open in heaven. I heard the voice I had heard before. It sounded like a trumpet. The voice said, “Come up here. I will show you what must happen after this.” [2]At once the Holy Spirit gave me a vision. There in front of me was a throne in heaven with someone sitting on it. [3]The one who sat there shone like jasper and ruby. Around the throne was a rainbow shining like an emerald. [4]Twenty-four other thrones surrounded that throne. Twenty-four elders were sitting on them. The elders were dressed in white. They had gold crowns on their heads. [5]From the throne came flashes of lightning, rumblings and thunder. Seven lamps were blazing in front of the throne. These stand for the seven spirits of God. [6]There was something that looked like a sea of glass in front of the throne. It was as clear as crystal.

In the inner circle, around the throne, were four living creatures. They were covered with eyes, in front and in back. [7]The first creature looked like a lion. The second looked like an ox. The third had a man’s face. The fourth looked like a flying eagle. [8]Each of the four living creatures had six wings. Each creature was covered all over with eyes. It had eyes even under its wings. Day and night, they never stop saying,

“ ‘Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God who rules over all.’ (Isaiah 6:3)
He was, and he is, and he will come.”

[9]The living creatures give glory, honor and thanks to the one who sits on the throne. He lives for ever and ever. [10]At the same time, the 24 elders fall down and worship the one who sits on the throne. He lives for ever and ever. They lay their crowns in front of the throne. They say, [11]“You are worthy, our Lord and God!

You are worthy to receive glory and honor and power.
You are worthy because you created all things.
They were created and they exist.
This is the way you planned it.”

Revelation 5

The Scroll and the Lamb

[1]Then I saw a scroll in the right hand of the one sitting on the throne. The scroll had writing on both sides. It was sealed with seven seals. [2]I saw a mighty angel calling out in a loud voice. He said, “Who is worthy to break the seals and open the scroll?” [3]But no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth could open the scroll. No one could even look inside it. [4]I cried and cried. That’s because no one was found who was worthy to open the scroll or look inside. [5]Then one of the elders said to me, “Do not cry! The Lion of the tribe of Judah has won the battle. He is the Root of David. He is able to break the seven seals and open the scroll.”

[6]Then I saw a Lamb that looked as if he had been put to death. He stood at the center of the area around the throne. The Lamb was surrounded by the four living creatures and the elders. He had seven horns and seven eyes. The eyes stand for the seven spirits of God, which are sent out into all the earth. [7]The Lamb went and took the scroll. He took it from the right hand of the one sitting on the throne. [8]Then the four living creatures and the 24 elders fell down in front of the Lamb. Each one had a harp. They were holding golden bowls full of incense. They stand for the prayers of God’s people. [9]Here is the new song they sang.

> “You are worthy to take the scroll > and break open its seals.
> You are worthy because you were put to death.
> With your blood you bought people for God.
> They come from every tribe, people and nation,
> no matter what language they speak.
> [10]You have made them members of a royal family.
> You have made them priests to serve our God.
> They will rule on the earth.”

[11]Then I looked and heard the voice of millions and millions of angels. They surrounded the throne. They surrounded the living creatures and the elders. [12]In a loud voice they were saying,

"The Lamb, who was put to death, is worthy!
He is worthy to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength!
He is worthy to receive honor and glory and praise!"

13 All creatures in heaven, on earth, under the earth, and on the sea were speaking. The whole creation was speaking. I heard all of them say,

"Praise and honor belong to the one who sits on the throne and to the Lamb!
Glory and power belong to God for ever and ever!"

14 The four living creatures said, "Amen." And the elders fell down and worshiped.

Revelation 6

The Seals of the Scroll Are Broken

[1]I watched as the Lamb broke open the first of the seven seals. Then I heard one of the four living creatures say in a voice that sounded like thunder, “Come!” [2]I looked, and there in front of me was a white horse! Its rider held a bow in his hands. He was given a crown. He rode out like a hero on his way to victory.

[3]The Lamb broke open the second seal. Then I heard the second living creature say, “Come!” [4]Another horse came out. It was red like fire. Its rider was given power to take peace from the earth. He was given power to make people kill each other. He was given a large sword.

[5]The Lamb broke open the third seal. Then I heard the third living creature say, “Come!” I looked, and there in front of me was a black horse! Its rider was holding a pair of scales in his hand. [6]Next, I heard what sounded like a voice coming from among the four living creatures. It said, “Two pounds of wheat for a day’s pay. And six pounds of barley for a day’s pay. And leave the olive oil and the wine alone!”

[7]The Lamb broke open the fourth seal. Then I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, “Come!” [8]I looked, and there in front of me was a pale horse!
Its rider’s name was Death. Following close behind him was Hell. They were given power over a fourth of the earth. They were given power to kill people by swords. They could also use hunger, sickness and the earth’s wild animals to kill.

[9]The Lamb broke open the fifth seal. I saw souls under the altar. They were the souls of people who had been killed. They had been killed because of God’s word and their faithful witness. [10]They called out in a loud voice. “How long, Lord and King, holy and true?” they asked. “How long will you wait to judge those who live on the earth? How long will it be until you pay them back for killing us?” [11]Then each of them was given a white robe. “Wait a little longer,” they were told. “There are still more of your believing brothers and sisters who will be killed. They will be killed just as you were.”

[12]I watched as the Lamb broke open the sixth seal. There was a powerful earthquake. The sun turned black like the clothes people wear when they’re sad.
Those clothes are made out of goat’s hair. The whole moon turned as red as blood. [13]The stars in the sky fell to earth. They dropped like figs from a tree shaken by a strong wind. [14]The sky rolled back like a scroll. Every mountain and island was moved out of its place.

[15]Everyone hid in caves and among the rocks of the mountains. This included the kings of the earth, the princes and the generals. It included rich people and powerful people. It also included everyone else, both slaves and people who were free. [16]They called out to the mountains and rocks, “Fall on us! Hide us from the face of the one who sits on the throne! Hide us from the anger of the Lamb! [17]The great day of their anger has come. Who can live through it?”

Revelation 7

144,000 People Are Marked With the Seal of the Living God

[1]After this I saw four angels. They were standing at the four corners of the earth. They were holding back the four winds of the earth. This kept the winds from blowing on the land or the sea or on any tree. [2]Then I saw another angel coming up from the east. He brought the official seal of the living God. He called out in a loud voice to the four angels. They had been allowed to harm the land and the sea. [3]"Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees," he said. "Wait until we mark with this seal the foreheads of those who serve our God." [4]Then I heard how many people were marked with the seal. There were 144,000 from all the tribes of Israel.

[5]From the tribe of Judah, 12,000 were marked with the seal.
From the tribe of Reuben, 12,000.
From the tribe of Gad, 12,000.
[6]From the tribe of Asher, 12,000.
From the tribe of Naphtali, 12,000.
From the tribe of Manasseh, 12,000.
[7]From the tribe of Simeon, 12,000.
From the tribe of Levi, 12,000.
From the tribe of Issachar, 12,000.
[8]From the tribe of Zebulun, 12,000.
From the tribe of Joseph, 12,000.
From the tribe of Benjamin, 12,000.

The Huge Crowd Wearing White Robes

[9]After this I looked, and there in front of me was a huge crowd of people. They stood in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb. There were so many that no one could count them. They came from every nation, tribe and people. That's true no matter what language they spoke. They were wearing white robes. In their hands they were holding palm branches. [10]They cried out in a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God, who sits on the throne.

Salvation also belongs to the Lamb.”

11 All the angels were standing around the throne. They were standing around the elders and the four living creatures. They fell down on their faces in front of the throne and worshiped God. 12 They said,

“Amen!
May praise and glory
and wisdom be given to our God for ever and ever.
Give him thanks and honor and power and strength.
Amen!”

13 Then one of the elders spoke to me. “Who are these people dressed in white robes?” he asked. “Where did they come from?”

14 I answered, “Sir, you know.”

He said, “They are the ones who have come out of the time of terrible suffering. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. 15 So “they are in front of the throne of God.

They serve him day and night in his temple.
The one who sits on the throne will be with them to keep them safe.
16 ‘Never again will they be hungry.
Never again will they be thirsty.
The sun will not beat down on them.’ (Isaiah 49:10)
The heat of the desert will not harm them.
17 The Lamb, who is at the center of the area around the throne, will be their shepherd.
‘He will lead them to springs of living water.’ (Isaiah 49:10)
‘And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.’ ” (Isaiah 25:8)

Revelation 8

The Seventh Seal and the Gold Cup

[1]The Lamb opened the seventh seal. Then there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.
[2]I saw the seven angels who stand in front of God. Seven trumpets were given to them.
[3]Another angel came and stood at the altar. He had a shallow gold cup for burning incense. He was given a lot of incense to offer on the golden altar. The altar was in front of the throne. With the incense he offered the prayers of all God's people. [4]The smoke of the incense rose up from the angel's hand. The prayers of God's people rose up together with it. The smoke and the prayers went up in front of God. [5]Then the angel took the gold cup and filled it with fire from the altar. He threw it down on the earth. There were rumblings and thunder, flashes of lightning, and an earthquake.

The Trumpets

[6]Then the seven angels who had the seven trumpets got ready to blow them.
[7]The first angel blew his trumpet. Hail and fire mixed with blood were thrown down on the earth. A third of the earth was burned up. A third of the trees were burned up. All the green grass was burned up.
[8]The second angel blew his trumpet. Something that looked like a huge mountain on fire was thrown into the sea. A third of the sea turned into blood. [9]A third of the living creatures in the sea died. A third of the ships were destroyed.
[10]The third angel blew his trumpet. Then a great star fell from the sky. It looked like a blazing torch. It fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. [11]The name of the star is Wormwood. A third of the water turned bitter.
Many people died from it.
[12]The fourth angel blew his trumpet. Then a third of the sun was struck. A third of the moon was struck. A third of the stars were struck. So a third of each of them turned dark. Then a third of the day had no light. The same thing happened to a third of the night.
[13]As I watched, I heard an eagle that was flying high in the air. It called out in a loud voice, "How terrible! How terrible it will be for those living on the earth!
How terrible! They will suffer as soon as the next three angels blow their trumpets!”

Revelation 9

[1]The fifth angel blew his trumpet. Then I saw a star that had fallen from the sky to the earth. The star was given the key to the tunnel leading down into a bottomless pit. The pit was called the Abyss. [2]The star opened the Abyss. Then smoke rose up from it like the smoke from a huge furnace. The sun and sky were darkened by the smoke from the Abyss. [3]Out of the smoke came locusts. They came down on the earth. They were given power like the power of scorpions of the earth. [4]They were told not to harm the grass of the earth or any plant or tree.
They were supposed to harm only the people without God's official seal on their foreheads. [5]The locusts were not allowed to kill these people. But the locusts could hurt them over and over for five months. The pain the people suffered was like the sting of a scorpion when it strikes. [6]In those days, people will look for a way to die but won't find it. They will want to die, but death will escape them.

[7]The locusts looked like horses ready for battle. On their heads they wore something like crowns of gold. Their faces looked like human faces. [8]Their hair was like women's hair. Their teeth were like lions' teeth. [9]Their chests were covered with something that looked like armor made out of iron. The sound of their wings was like the thundering of many horses and chariots rushing into battle. [10]They had tails that could sting people like scorpions do. And in their tails they had power to hurt people over and over for five months. [11]Their king was the angel of the Abyss. In the Hebrew language his name is Abaddon. In Greek it is Apollyon. His name means Destroyer.

[12]The first terrible judgment is past. Two others are still coming.

[13]The sixth angel blew his trumpet. Then I heard a voice coming from the four corners of the golden altar. The altar stands in front of God. [14]The voice spoke to the sixth angel who had the trumpet. The voice said, "Set the four angels free who are held at the great river Euphrates." [15]The four angels had been ready for this very hour and day and month and year. They were set free to kill a third of all people. [16]The number of troops on horseback was 200,000,000. I heard how many there were.

[17]The horses and riders I saw in my vision had armor on their chests. It was red like fire, dark blue, and yellow like sulfur. The heads of the horses looked like lions' heads. Out of their mouths came fire, smoke and sulfur. [18]A third of all people were killed by the three plagues of fire, smoke and sulfur that came out of the horses' mouths. [19]The power of the horses was in their mouths and in their tails. The tails were like snakes whose heads could bite.

[20]There were people who were not killed by these plagues. But they still didn't turn away from what they had been doing. They did not stop worshiping demons. They kept worshiping statues of gods made out of gold, silver, bronze, stone and wood. These statues can't see or hear or walk. [21]The people also did not turn away from their murders, witchcraft, sexual sins and stealing.

Revelation 10

The Angel and the Little Scroll

[1]Then I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven. He was wearing a cloud like a robe. There was a rainbow above his head. His face was like the sun. His legs were like pillars of fire. [2]He was holding a little scroll. It was lying open in his hand. The angel put his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land. [3]Then he gave a loud shout like the roar of a lion. When he shouted, the voices of the seven thunders spoke. [4]When they had spoken, I was getting ready to write. But I heard a voice from heaven say, “Seal up what the seven thunders have said. Do not write it down.”

[5]I had seen an angel standing on the sea and on the land. This angel raised his right hand to heaven. [6]He made a promise in the name of the God who lives for ever and ever. This is the God who created the sky, earth and sea and all that is in them. The angel said, “There will be no more waiting! [7]God’s plan will be carried out. This will happen when the seventh angel is ready to blow his trumpet. God told all this to the prophets who served him long ago.”

[8]Then the voice I had heard from heaven spoke to me again. It said, “The angel is standing on the sea and on the land. Go and take the scroll from him. It is lying open in his hand.”

[9]So I went to the angel and asked him to give me the little scroll. He said to me, “Take it and eat it. It will become sour in your stomach. But ‘in your mouth it will taste as sweet as honey.’ ” (Ezekiel 3:3) [10]I took the little scroll from the angel’s hand and ate it. In my mouth it tasted as sweet as honey. But when I had eaten it, it became sour in my stomach. [11]Then I was told, “You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, languages and kings.”

Revelation 11

The Two Witnesses

[1]I was given a long stick that looked like a measuring rod. I was told, “Go and measure the temple of God. And measure the altar where the people are worshiping. [2]But do not measure the outer courtyard. That’s because it has been given to the Gentiles. They will take over the holy city for 42 months. [3]I will appoint my two witnesses. And they will prophesy for 1,260 days. They will be dressed in the rough clothes people wear when they’re sad.” [4]The witnesses are “the two olive trees” and the two lampstands. And “they stand in front of the Lord of the earth.” (Zechariah 4:3, 11, 14) [5]If anyone tries to harm them, fire comes from their mouths and eats up their enemies. This is how anyone who wants to harm them must die. [6]These witnesses have power to close up the sky. Then it will not rain while they are prophesying. They also have power to turn the waters into blood. And they can strike the earth with every kind of plague. They can do this as often as they want to.

[7]When they have finished speaking, the beast that comes up from the Abyss will attack them. He will overpower them and kill them. [8]Their bodies will lie in the main street of the great city. It is also the city where their Lord was nailed to a cross. The city is sometimes compared to Sodom or Egypt. [9]For three and a half days, people will stare at their bodies. These people will be from every tribe and nation, no matter what language they speak. They will refuse to bury them. [10]Those who live on the earth will be happy about this. That’s because those two prophets had made them suffer. The people will celebrate by sending one another gifts.

[11]But after the three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered the witnesses. They both stood up. Terror struck those who saw them. [12]Then the two witnesses heard a loud voice from heaven. It said to them, “Come up here.” They went up to heaven in a cloud. Their enemies watched it happen.

[13]At that same time there was a powerful earthquake. A tenth of the city crumbled and fell. In the earthquake, 7,000 people were killed. Those who lived through it were terrified. They gave glory to the God of heaven.

[14]The second terrible judgment has passed. The third is coming soon.

The Seventh Trumpet

15 The seventh angel blew his trumpet. There were loud voices in heaven.
They said,

"The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Messiah.
He will rule for ever and ever."

16 The 24 elders were sitting on their thrones in front of God. They fell on their faces and worshiped God. 17 They said,

"Lord God who rules over all, we give thanks to you.
You are the God who is and who was.
We give you thanks.
That's because you have begun to rule with your great power.
18 The nations were angry,
and the time for your anger has come.
The time has come to judge the dead.
It is time to reward your servants the prophets and your people who honor you.
There is a reward for all your people,
both great and small.
It is time to destroy those who destroy the earth."

19 Then God's temple in heaven was opened. Inside it the wooden chest called the ark of his covenant could be seen. There were flashes of lightning, rumblings and thunder, an earthquake and a severe hailstorm.

Revelation 12

The Woman and the Dragon

[1]A great sign appeared in heaven. It was a woman wearing the sun like clothes. The moon was under her feet. On her head she wore a crown of 12 stars. [2]She was pregnant. She cried out in pain because she was about to have a baby. [3]Then another sign appeared in heaven. It was a huge red dragon. It had seven heads and ten horns. On its seven heads it wore seven crowns. [4]The dragon's tail swept a third of the stars out of the sky. It threw the stars down to earth. The dragon stood in front of the woman who was about to have a baby. The dragon wanted to eat her child the moment he was born. [5]She gave birth to a son. He "will rule all the nations with an iron scepter." (Psalm 2:9) And her child was taken up to God and to his throne. [6]The woman escaped into the desert where God had a place prepared for her. There she would be taken care of for 1,260 days.

[7]Then a war began in heaven. Michael and his angels fought against the dragon. And the dragon and his angels fought back. [8]But the dragon wasn't strong enough. Both he and his angels lost their place in heaven. [9]The great dragon was thrown down to the earth, and his angels with him. The dragon is that old serpent called the devil, or Satan. He leads the whole world astray.

[10]Then I heard a loud voice in heaven. It said,

"Now the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God have come.
The authority of his Messiah has come.
Satan, who brings charges against our brothers and sisters,
has been thrown down.
He brings charges against them in front of our God day and night.
[11]They had victory over him
by the blood the Lamb spilled for them.
They had victory over him
by speaking the truth about Jesus to others.
They were willing to risk their lives,
even if it led to death.
[12]So be joyful, you heavens!
Be glad, all you who live there!

But how terrible it will be for the earth and the sea!
The devil has come down to you.
He is very angry.
He knows his time is short.”

13 The dragon saw that he had been thrown down to the earth. So he chased the woman who had given birth to the boy. 14 The woman was given the two wings of a great eagle. She was given these wings so that she could fly away. She could fly to the place prepared for her in the desert. There she would be taken care of for three and a half years. She would be out of the serpent’s reach. 15 Then out of his mouth the serpent spit water like a river. He wanted to catch the woman and sweep her away in the flood. 16 But the earth helped the woman. It opened its mouth and swallowed the river that the dragon had spit out. 17 The dragon was very angry with the woman. He went off to make war against the rest of her children. They obey God’s commands. And they hold firmly to the truth they have said about Jesus.

Revelation 13

The Beast Who Comes Out of the Sea

[1]The dragon stood on the seashore. I saw a beast coming out of the sea. It had ten horns and seven heads. There were ten crowns on its horns. On each head was an evil name that brought shame to God. [2]The beast I saw looked like a leopard. But it had feet like a bear and a mouth like a lion. The dragon gave the beast his power, his throne, and great authority. [3]One of the beast's heads seemed to have had a deadly wound. But the wound had been healed. The whole world was amazed and followed the beast. [4]People worshiped the dragon, because he had given authority to the beast. They also worshiped the beast. They asked, "Who is like the beast? Who can make war against it?"

[5]The beast was given a mouth to brag and speak evil things against God. The beast was allowed to use its authority for 42 months. [6]The beast opened its mouth to speak evil things against God. It told lies about God and about the place where God lives. And it told lies about those who live in heaven with him. [7]The beast was allowed to make war against God's holy people and to overcome them. It was given authority over every tribe, people and nation, no matter what language they spoke. [8]Many people who live on the earth will worship the beast. They are the ones whose names are not written in the Lamb's book of life. The Lamb is the one whose death was planned before the world was created.

[9]Whoever has ears should listen.

> [10]"Everyone who is supposed to be captured > will be captured.
> Everyone who is supposed to be killed by a sword > will be killed by a sword." (Jeremiah 15:2)

So God's people must be patient and faithful.

The Beast Who Comes Out of the Earth

[11]Then I saw a second beast. This one came out of the earth. It had two horns like a lamb. But it spoke like a dragon. [12]This beast had all the authority of the first beast. It did what the first beast wanted. It made the earth and all who live on it worship the first beast. The first beast was the one whose deadly wound had been healed. [13]The second beast performed great signs. It even made fire come from heaven to the earth. And the fire was seen by everyone. [14]The first beast had given the second beast the power to perform these signs. By these signs, the second beast tricked those who live on the earth. The second beast ordered people to set up a statue to honor the first beast. The first beast was the one who had been wounded by a sword and still lived. [15]The second beast was allowed to give breath to this statue so it could speak. The statue could kill all who refused to worship it. [16]It also forced everyone to receive a mark on their right hand or on their forehead. People great or small, rich or poor, free or slave had to receive the mark. [17]They could not buy or sell anything unless they had the mark. The mark is the name of the beast or the number of its name.

[18]This problem requires wisdom. Anyone who is wise should figure out what the beast's number means. It is the number of a man. And that number is 666.

Revelation 14

The Lamb and the 144,000

[1]I looked, and there in front of me was the Lamb. He was standing on Mount Zion. With him were 144,000 people. Written on their foreheads were his name and his Father's name. [2]I heard a sound from heaven. It was like the roar of rushing waters and loud thunder. The sound I heard was like the music of harps being played. [3]Then everyone sang a new song in front of the throne. They sang it in front of the four living creatures and the elders. No one could learn the song except the 144,000. They had been set free from the evil of the earth. [4]They had not committed sexual sins with women. They had kept themselves pure. They follow the Lamb wherever he goes. They were purchased from among human beings as a first offering to God and the Lamb. [5]They told no lies. They are without blame.

The Three Angels

[6]I saw another angel. He was flying high in the air. He came to tell everyone on earth the good news that will always be true. He told it to every nation, tribe and people, no matter what language they spoke. [7]In a loud voice he said, "Have respect for God. Give him glory. The hour has come for God to judge. Worship him who made the heavens and the earth. Worship him who made the sea and the springs of water."

[8]A second angel followed him. He said, " 'Fallen! Babylon the Great has fallen!' (Isaiah 21:9) The city of Babylon made all the nations drink the strong wine of her terrible sins."

[9]A third angel followed them. He said in a loud voice, "There will be trouble for anyone who worships the beast and its statue! There will be trouble for anyone who has its mark on their forehead or their hand! [10]They, too, will drink the wine of God's great anger. His wine has been poured full strength into the cup of his anger. They will be burned with flaming sulfur. The holy angels and the Lamb will see it happen. [11]The smoke of their terrible suffering will rise for ever and ever. Day and night, there will be no rest for anyone who worships the beast and its statue. There will be no rest for anyone who receives the mark of its name." [12]God's people need to be very patient. They are the ones who obey God's commands. And they remain faithful to Jesus.

13Then I heard a voice from heaven. “Write this,” it said. “Blessed are the dead who die as believers in the Lord from now on.”

“Yes,” says the Holy Spirit. “They will rest from their labor. What they have done will not be forgotten.”

The Harvest of the Earth

14I looked, and there in front of me was a white cloud. Sitting on the cloud was one who looked “like a son of man.” (Daniel 7:13) He wore a gold crown on his head. In his hand was a sharp, curved blade for cutting grain. 15Then another angel came out of the temple. He called in a loud voice to the one sitting on the cloud. “Take your blade,” he said. “Cut the grain. The time has come. The earth is ready to be harvested.” 16So the one sitting on the cloud swung his blade over the earth. And the earth was harvested.

17Another angel came out of the temple in heaven. He too had a sharp, curved blade. 18Still another angel came from the altar. He was in charge of the fire on the altar. He called out in a loud voice to the angel who had the sharp blade. “Take your blade,” he said, “and gather the bunches of grapes from the earth’s vine. Its grapes are ripe.” 19So the angel swung his blade over the earth. He gathered its grapes. Then he threw them into a huge winepress. The winepress stands for God’s anger. 20In the winepress outside the city, the grapes were stomped on. Blood flowed out of the winepress. It spread over the land for about 180 miles. It rose as high as the horses’ heads.

Revelation 15

Seven Angels With Seven Plagues

[1]I saw in heaven another great and wonderful sign. Seven angels were about to bring the seven last plagues. The plagues would complete God's anger. [2]Then I saw something that looked like a sea of glass glowing with fire. Standing beside the sea were those who had won the battle over the beast. They had also overcome its statue and the number of its name. They held harps given to them by God. [3]They sang the song of God's servant Moses and of the Lamb. They sang,

"Lord God who rules over all,
everything you do is great and wonderful.
King of the nations,
your ways are true and fair.
[4]Lord, who will not have respect for you?
Who will not bring glory to your name?
You alone are holy.
All nations will come and worship you.
They see that the things you do are right."

[5]After this I looked, and I saw the temple in heaven. And it was opened. The temple is the holy tent where the tablets of the covenant law were kept. [6]Out of the temple came the seven angels who were bringing the seven plagues. They were dressed in clean, shining linen. They wore gold strips of cloth around their chests. [7]Then one of the four living creatures gave seven golden bowls to the seven angels. The bowls were filled with the anger of God, who lives for ever and ever. [8]The temple was filled with smoke that came from the glory and power of God. No one could enter the temple at that time. They had to wait until the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

Revelation 16

The Seven Bowls of God's Great Anger

[1]Then I heard a loud voice from the temple speaking to the seven angels. "Go," it said. "Pour out the seven bowls of God's great anger on the earth."

[2]The first angel went and poured out his bowl on the land. Ugly and painful sores broke out on people. Those people had the mark of the beast and worshiped its statue.

[3]The second angel poured out his bowl on the sea. It turned into blood like the blood of a dead person. Every living thing in the sea died.

[4]The third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and springs of water. They became blood. [5]Then I heard the angel who was in charge of the waters. He said,

"Holy One, the way you judge is fair.
You are the God who is and who was.
[6]Those who worship the beast have poured out blood.
They have poured out the life's blood of your holy people and your prophets.
So you have given blood to drink to those who worship the beast.
That's exactly what they should get."

[7]Then I heard the altar reply. It said,

"Lord God who rules over all,
the way you judge is true and fair."

[8]The fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun. The sun was allowed to burn people with fire. [9]They were burned by the blazing heat. So they spoke evil things against the name of God, who controlled these plagues. But they refused to turn away from their sins. They did not give glory to God.

[10]The fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast. The kingdom of the beast became very dark. People chewed on their tongues because they were suffering so much. [11]They spoke evil things against the God of heaven. They did this because of their pains and their sores. But they refused to turn away from the sins they had committed.

[12]The sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates. Its water dried up to prepare the way for the kings from the East. [13]Then I saw three evil spirits that looked like frogs. They came out of the mouths of the dragon, the beast and the false prophet. [14]They are spirits of demons that perform signs. They go out to gather the kings of the whole world for battle. This battle will take place on the great day of the God who rules over all.

> [15]"Look! I am coming like a thief! Blessed is anyone who stays awake and keeps their clothes on. Then they will be ready. They will not be caught naked and so be put to shame."

[16]Then the evil spirits gathered the kings together. In the Hebrew language, the place where the kings met is called Armageddon.

[17]The seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air. Out of the temple came a loud voice from the throne. It said, "It is done!" [18]Then there came flashes of lightning, rumblings, thunder and a powerful earthquake. There has never been an earthquake as terrible as this. One like this hasn't happened while human beings have lived on earth. [19]The great city split into three parts. The cities of the nations crumbled and fell. God remembered Babylon the Great. He gave Babylon the cup filled with the wine of his terrible anger. [20]Every island ran away. The mountains could not be found. [21]Huge hailstones weighing about 100 pounds each fell from the sky. The hail crushed people. And they spoke evil things against God because of the plague. That's because the plague of hail was so terrible.

Revelation 17

Babylon the Great Prostitute Sits on the Beast

[1]One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came to me. He said, “Come. I will show you how the great prostitute will be punished. She is the one who sits by many waters. [2]The kings of the earth took part in her evil ways. The people living on earth were drunk with the wine of her terrible sins.”

[3]Then in a vision the angel carried me away to a desert. There the Holy Spirit showed me a woman sitting on a bright red beast. It was covered with names that say evil things about God. It had seven heads and ten horns. [4]The woman was dressed in purple and bright red. She was gleaming with gold, jewels and pearls. In her hand she held a golden cup filled with things that God hates. It was filled with her terrible, dirty sins. [5]The name written on her forehead was a mystery. Here is what it said.

THE GREAT CITY OF BABYLON
THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES
THE MOTHER OF EVERYTHING ON EARTH THAT GOD HATES

[6]I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of God’s holy people. They are the ones who are witnesses about Jesus.

When I saw her, I was very amazed. [7]Then the angel said to me, “Why are you amazed? I will explain to you the mystery of the woman. And I will explain the mystery of the beast she rides on. The beast is the one who has the seven heads and ten horns. [8]The beast that you saw used to exist and now does not. Yet it will come up out of the Abyss and be destroyed. Some people on the earth will be amazed when they see the beast. Their names have not been written in the book of life from the time the world was created. They will be amazed at the beast. That’s because it will come again even though it used to exist and now does not.

[9]“Here is a problem that you have to be wise to understand. The seven heads are seven hills that the woman sits on. [10]They are also seven kings. Five have fallen, one is ruling, and the other has still not come. When he does come, he must remain for only a little while. [11]The beast who used to exist, and now does not, is an eighth king. He belongs to the other seven. He will be destroyed.

[12]“The ten horns you saw are ten kings. They have not yet received a kingdom. But for one hour they will receive authority to rule together with the beast. [13]They have only one purpose. So they will give their power and authority to the beast. [14]They will make war against the Lamb. But the Lamb will have victory over them. That's because he is the most powerful Lord of all and the greatest King of all. His appointed, chosen and faithful followers will be with him."

[15]Then the angel spoke to me. "You saw the waters the prostitute sits on," he said. "They stand for all the nations of the world, no matter what their race or language is. [16]The beast and the ten horns you saw will hate the prostitute. They will destroy her and leave her naked. They will eat her flesh and burn her with fire. [17]God has put it into their hearts to carry out his purpose. So they agreed to give the beast their royal authority. They will give him this authority until God's words come true. [18]The woman you saw stands for the great city of Babylon. That city rules over the kings of the earth."

Revelation 18

Weeping When Babylon Falls

[1]After these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven. He had great authority. His glory filled the earth with light. [2]With a mighty voice he shouted,

" 'Fallen! Babylon the Great has fallen!' (Isaiah 21:9)
She has become a place where demons live.
She has become a den for every evil spirit.
She has become a place where every 'unclean' bird is found.
She has become a place where every 'unclean' and hated animal is found.
[3]All the nations have drunk
the strong wine of her terrible sins.
The kings of the earth took part in her evil ways.
The traders of the world grew rich from her great wealth."

Warning to Run from Babylon's Judgment

[4]Then I heard another voice from heaven. It said,

" 'Come out of her, my people.' (Jeremiah 51:45)
Then you will not take part in her sins.
You will not suffer from any of her plagues.
[5]Her sins are piled up to heaven.
God has remembered her crimes.
[6]Do to her as she has done to others.
Pay her back double for what she has done.
Pour her a double dose of what she has poured for others.
[7]Give her as much pain and suffering
as the glory and wealth she gave herself.
She brags to herself,
'I rule on a throne like a queen.
I am not a widow.
I will never mourn.' (Isaiah 47:7, 8)
[8]But she will be plagued by death, sadness and hunger.

In a single day she will suffer all these plagues.
She will be burned up by fire.
That's because the Lord God who judges her is mighty.

How Terrible When Babylon Falls!

9"The kings of the earth who committed terrible sins with her will weep. They will mourn because they used to share her riches. They will see the smoke rising as she burns. 10They will be terrified by her suffering. They will stand far away from her. And they will cry out,

" 'How terrible! How terrible it is for you, great city!
How terrible for you, mighty city of Babylon!
In just one hour you have been destroyed!'

11"The traders of the world will weep and mourn over her. No one buys what they sell anymore. 12Here is what they had for sale.

Gold, silver, jewels, pearls.
Fine linen, purple, silk, bright red cloth.
Every kind of citron wood.
All sorts of things made out of ivory, valuable wood, bronze, iron, marble.
13Cinnamon, spice, incense, myrrh, frankincense.
Wine, olive oil, fine flour, wheat.
Cattle, sheep, horses, carriages, and human beings sold as slaves.

14"The merchants will say, 'The pleasure you longed for has left you. All your riches and glory have disappeared forever.' 15The traders who sold these things became rich because of Babylon. When she suffers, they will stand far away. Her suffering will terrify them. They will weep and mourn. 16They will cry out,

" 'How terrible! How terrible it is for you, great city, dressed in fine linen, purple and bright red!
How terrible for you, great city, gleaming with gold, jewels and pearls!
17In just one hour your great wealth has been destroyed!'

"Every sea captain and all who travel by ship will stand far away. So will the sailors and all who earn their living from the sea. [18]They will see the smoke rising as Babylon burns. They will ask, ‘Was there ever a city like this great city?’ [19]They will throw dust on their heads. They will weep and mourn. They will cry out, “ ‘How terrible! How terrible it is for you, great city!

All who had ships on the sea became rich because of her wealth!
In just one hour she has been destroyed!’

[20]“You heavens, be glad for this!
You people of God, be glad!
You apostles and prophets, be glad!
God has judged her with the judgment she gave to you.”

Babylon’s Judgment Is Final

[21]Then a mighty angel picked up a huge rock. It was the size of a large millstone. He threw it into the sea. Then he said,

“That is how the great city of Babylon will be thrown down.
Never again will it be found.
[22]The songs of musicians will never be heard in you again.
Gone will be the music of harps, flutes and trumpets.
No worker of any kind will ever be found in you again.
The sound of a millstone
will never be heard in you again.
[23]The light of a lamp will never shine in you again.
The voices of brides and grooms
will never be heard in you again.
Your traders were among the world’s most important people.
By your magic spell all the nations were led astray.
[24]You were guilty of the murder of prophets and God’s holy people.

You were guilty of the blood of all who have been killed on the earth.”

Revelation 19

Three Hallelujahs for the Fall of Babylon!

[1]After these things I heard a roar in heaven. It sounded like a huge crowd shouting, > “Hallelujah!

> Salvation and glory and power belong to our God.
> [2]The way he judges is true and fair.
> He has judged the great prostitute.
> She made the earth impure with her terrible sins.
> God has paid her back for killing those who served him.”

[3]Again they shouted,

> “Hallelujah!
> The smoke from her fire goes up for ever and ever.”

[4]The 24 elders and the four living creatures bowed down. They worshiped God, who was sitting on the throne. They cried out,

> “Amen! Hallelujah!”

[5]Then a voice came from the throne. It said,

> “Praise our God,
> all you who serve him!
> Praise God, all you who have respect for him,
> both great and small!”

[6]Then I heard the noise of a huge crowd. It sounded like the roar of rushing waters and like loud thunder. The people were shouting, > “Hallelujah!

> Our Lord God is the King who rules over all.
> [7]Let us be joyful and glad!
> Let us give him glory!

It is time for the Lamb's wedding.
His bride has made herself ready.
[8]Fine linen, bright and clean, was given to her to wear."

Fine linen stands for the right things that God's holy people do.

[9]Here is what the angel told me to write. "Blessed are those invited to the wedding supper of the Lamb!" Then he added, "These are the true words of God."

[10]When I heard this, I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said to me, "Don't do that! I serve God, just as you do. I am God's servant, just like believers who hold firmly to what Jesus has taught. Worship God! The Spirit of prophecy tells the truth about Jesus."

The Heavenly Warrior Has Victory Over the Beast

[11]I saw heaven standing open. There in front of me was a white horse. Its rider is called Faithful and True. When he judges or makes war, he is always fair. [12]His eyes are like blazing fire. On his head are many crowns. A name is written on him that only he knows. [13]He is dressed in a robe dipped in blood. His name is the Word of God. [14]The armies of heaven were following him, riding on white horses. They were dressed in fine linen, white and clean. [15]Coming out of the rider's mouth is a sharp sword. He will strike down the nations with the sword. Scripture says, "He will rule them with an iron scepter." (Psalm 2:9) He stomps on the grapes of God's winepress. The winepress stands for the terrible anger of the God who rules over all. [16]Here is the name that is written on the rider's robe and on his thigh.

THE GREATEST KING OF ALL AND THE MOST POWERFUL LORD OF ALL

[17]I saw an angel standing in the sun. He shouted to all the birds flying high in the air, "Come! Gather together for the great supper of God. [18]Come and eat the dead bodies of kings, generals, and other mighty people. Eat the bodies of horses and their riders. Eat the bodies of all people, free and slave, great and small."

[19]Then I saw the beast and the kings of the earth with their armies. They had gathered together to make war against the rider on the horse and his army. [20]But the beast and the false prophet were captured. The false prophet had done signs for the beast. In this way the false prophet had tricked some people. Those people had received the mark of the beast and had worshiped its statue. The beast and the false prophet were thrown alive into the lake of fire. The lake of fire burns with sulfur. [21]The rest were killed by the sword that came out of the rider’s mouth. All the birds stuffed themselves with the dead bodies.

Revelation 20

The Thousand Years

[1]I saw an angel coming down out of heaven. He had the key to the Abyss. In his hand he held a heavy chain. [2]He grabbed the dragon, that old serpent. The serpent is also called the devil, or Satan. The angel put him in chains for 1,000 years. [3]Then he threw him into the Abyss. He locked it and sealed him in. This was to keep Satan from causing the nations to believe his lies anymore. Satan will be locked away until the 1,000 years are ended. After that, he must be set free for a short time.

[4]I saw thrones. Those who had been given authority to judge were sitting on them. I also saw the souls of those whose heads had been cut off. They had been killed because they had spoken what was true about Jesus. They had also been killed because of the word of God. They had not worshiped the beast or its statue. They had not received its mark on their foreheads or hands. They came to life and ruled with Christ for 1,000 years. [5]This is the first resurrection. The rest of the dead did not come to life until the 1,000 years were ended. [6]Blessed and holy are those who share in the first resurrection. The second death has no power over them. They will be priests of God and of Christ. They will rule with him for 1,000 years.

Satan Is Judged

[7]When the 1,000 years are over, Satan will be set free from his prison. [8]He will go out to cause the nations to believe lies. He will gather them from the four corners of the earth. He will bring Gog and Magog together for battle. Their troops are as many as the grains of sand on the seashore. [9]They marched across the whole earth. They surrounded the place where God’s holy people were camped. It was the city he loves. But fire came down from heaven and burned them up. [10]The devil had caused them to believe lies. He was thrown into the lake of burning sulfur. That is where the beast and the false prophet had been thrown. They will all suffer day and night for ever and ever.

The Dead Are Judged

[11]I saw a great white throne. And I saw God sitting on it. When the earth and sky saw his face, they ran away. There was no place for them. [12]I saw the dead, great and small, standing in front of the throne. Books were opened. Then another book was opened. It was the book of life. The dead were judged by what they had done. The things they had done were written in the books. [13]The sea gave up the dead that were in it. And Death and Hell gave up their dead. Each person was judged by what they had done. [14]Then Death and Hell were thrown into the lake of fire. The lake of fire is the second death. [15]Anyone whose name was not written in the book of life was thrown into the lake of fire.

Revelation 21

A New Heaven and a New Earth

1 I saw “a new heaven and a new earth.” (Isaiah 65:17) The first heaven and the first earth were completely gone. There was no longer any sea. 2 I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem. It was coming down out of heaven from God. It was prepared like a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. 3 I heard a loud voice from the throne. It said, “Look! God now makes his home with the people. He will live with them. They will be his people. And God himself will be with them and be their God. 4 ‘He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death.’ (Isaiah 25:8) And there will be no more sadness. There will be no more crying or pain. Things are no longer the way they used to be.”

5 He who was sitting on the throne said, “I am making everything new!” Then he said, “Write this down. You can trust these words. They are true.”

6 He said to me, “It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give water to anyone who is thirsty. The water will come from the spring of the water of life. It doesn’t cost anything! 7 Those who have victory will receive all this from me. I will be their God, and they will be my children. 8 But others will be thrown into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur. Those who are afraid and those who do not believe will be there. Murderers and those who make themselves impure will join them. Those who commit sexual sins and those who practice witchcraft will go there. Those who worship statues of gods and all who tell lies will be there too. The lake of fire is the second death.”

The New Jerusalem is the Bride of the Lamb

9 One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke to me. The bowls were filled with the seven last plagues. The angel said, “Come. I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb.” 10 Then he carried me away in a vision. The Spirit took me to a huge, high mountain. He showed me Jerusalem, the Holy City. It was coming down out of heaven from God. 11 It shone with the glory of God. It gleamed like a very valuable jewel. It was like a jasper, as clear as crystal. 12 The city had a huge, high wall with 12 gates. Twelve angels were at the gates, one at each of them. On the gates were written the names of the 12 tribes of Israel. 13 There were three gates on the east and three on the north. There were three gates on the south and three on the west. 14 The wall of the city had 12 foundations. Written on them were the names of the 12 apostles of the Lamb.

15The angel who talked with me had a gold measuring rod. He used it to measure the city, its gates and its walls. 16The city was laid out like a square. It was as long as it was wide. The angel measured the city with the rod. It was 1,400 miles long. It was as wide and high as it was long. 17The angel measured the wall as human beings measure things. It was 200 feet thick. 18The wall was made out of jasper. The city was made out of pure gold, as pure as glass. 19The foundations of the city walls were decorated with every kind of jewel. The first foundation was made out of jasper. The second was made out of sapphire. The third was made out of agate. The fourth was made out of emerald. 20The fifth was made out of onyx. The sixth was made out of ruby. The seventh was made out of chrysolite. The eighth was made out of beryl. The ninth was made out of topaz. The tenth was made out of turquoise. The eleventh was made out of jacinth. The twelfth was made out of amethyst. 21The 12 gates were made from 12 pearls. Each gate was made out of a single pearl. The main street of the city was made out of gold. It was gold as pure as glass that people can see through clearly.

22I didn’t see a temple in the city. That’s because the Lamb and the Lord God who rules over all are its temple. 23The city does not need the sun or moon to shine on it. God’s glory is its light, and the Lamb is its lamp. 24The nations will walk by the light of the city. The kings of the world will bring their glory into it. 25Its gates will never be shut, because there will be no night there. 26The glory and honor of the nations will be brought into it. 27Only what is pure will enter the city. No one who causes people to believe lies will enter it. No one who does shameful things will enter it either. Only those whose names are written in the Lamb’s book of life will enter the city.

Revelation 22

The Earth Is Made Like New Again

[1]Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life. It was as clear as crystal. It flowed from the throne of God and of the Lamb. [2]It flowed down the middle of the city's main street. On each side of the river stood the tree of life, bearing 12 crops of fruit. Its fruit was ripe every month. The leaves of the tree bring healing to the nations. [3]There will no longer be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city. God's servants will serve him. [4]They will see his face. His name will be on their foreheads. [5]There will be no more night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun. The Lord God will give them light. They will rule for ever and ever.

John and the Angel

[6]The angel said to me, "You can trust these words. They are true. The Lord is the God who gives messages to the prophets. He sent his angel to show his servants the things that must soon take place."

[7]"Look! I am coming soon! Words of prophecy are written in this book. Blessed is the person who obeys them."

[8]I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. After that, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel. He is the one who had been showing me these things. [9]But he said to me, "Don't do that! I serve God, just as you do. I am God's servant, just like the other prophets. And I serve God along with all who obey the words of this book. Worship God!"

[10]Then he told me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy in this book. These things are about to happen. [11]Let the person who does wrong keep on doing wrong. Let the evil person continue to be evil. Let the person who does right keep on doing what is right. And let the holy person continue to be holy."

The Revelation Ends With Warnings and Blessings

[12]"Look! I am coming soon! I bring my rewards with me. I will reward each person for what they have done. [13]I am the Alpha and the Omega. I am the First and the Last. I am the Beginning and the End.

14“Blessed are those who wash their robes. They will have the right to come to the tree of life. They will be allowed to go through the gates into the city. 15Outside the city are those who are impure. These people include those who practice witchcraft. Outside are also those who commit sexual sins and murder. Outside are those who worship statues of gods. And outside is everyone who loves and does what is false.

16“I, Jesus, have sent my angel to give you this witness for the churches. I am the Root and the Son of David. I am the bright Morning Star.”

17The Holy Spirit and the bride say, “Come!” And the person who hears should say, “Come!” Anyone who is thirsty should come. Anyone who wants to take the free gift of the water of life should do so.

18I am warning everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book. Suppose someone adds anything to them. Then God will add to that person the plagues told about in this book. 19Suppose someone takes away any words from this book of prophecy. Then God will take away from that person the blessings told about in this book. God will take away their share in the tree of life. God will also take away their place in the Holy City.

20Jesus is a witness about these things. He says, “Yes. I am coming soon.”
Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!

21May the grace of the Lord Jesus be with God’s people. Amen.
