

NSC111 Questions and Answers.

Question

Which of the following phrases best illustrates the panic level of anxiety?

Answer

Loss of control and rational thought

Question

You respond to an approaching examination with a rapidly beating heart and shaking hands. This is the result of what type of response?

Answer

Coping mechanism

Question

When physiologic mechanisms within the body respond to internal changes to maintain an essential balance, which of the following processes has occurred?

Answer

Homeostasis

Question

Which of the following reactions would be considered anxiety due to a psychological response?

Answer

Expressions of anger

Question

A withdrawn, and isolated patient is most likely suffering from which of the following stressors on basic human needs?

Answer

Love and belonging needs

Question

Which of the following statements concerning interactions with basic human needs is accurate?

Answer

As a person strives to meet basic human needs at each level, stress can serve as either a stimulus or barrier.

Question

A patient who responds to bad news concerning his lab reports by crying uncontrollably is handling stress by using which of the following?

Answer

Coping mechanism

Question

In which of the stages of the GAS does the body attempt to adapt to the stressor?

Answer

Resistance

Question

The primary controller of homeostatic mechanisms is which of the following systems?

Answer
Autonomic

Question

Which of the following describes the change that takes place as a result of a response to a stressor?

Answer
Adaptation

Question

Mr. Martin is an energetic 80-year-old, admitted to the hospital with complaints of difficulty urinating, bloody urine, and burning on urination. In assessing Mr. Martin, which of the following is a priority?

Answer
Focusing on altered patterns of elimination common in the elderly

Question

Which of the following sources of patient data is usually the primary and best source?

Answer
Patient

Question

During which of the following phases of the nurse-patient interview does the nurse gather all the information needed to form the subjective database?

Answer
Working phase

Question
Data that can be observed by one person and verified by another person observing the same patient are known as:

Answer
Objective data

Question
Which of the following healthcare providers is responsible for the comfort and well-being of the patient on arrival to the unit?

Answer
Nurse

Question
The factors influencing Response to Stressors include all the following EXCEPT:

Answer
The event

Question
Needs are an integral part of each person's human dimension. Which needs are met when a person feels a sense of belonging to a group or community and being loved by others?

Answer
Sociocultural needs

Question
During the recovery and rehabilitation stage of illness, the person who is ill is expected to do which of the following?

Answer
Give up the dependent role.

Question
Which of the following best describes a period of remission in a patient with a chronic illness?

Answer
Symptoms are not experienced.

Question
In which of the following stages of acute illness does the patient decide to accept the diagnosis and follow the prescribed treatment plan?

Answer
Stage 3

Question
Which of the following conditions occurs when an adult has a pulse rate of 100 to 180 beats/minute?

Answer
Tachycardia

Question

Which of the following statistics regarding blood pressure is accurate?

Answer

Blood pressure tends to be lower in a prone or supine position than in a seated or standing position.

Question

Needs are an integral part of each person's human dimension. Which needs are met when a person feels a sense of belonging to a group or community and being loved by others?

Answer

Sociocultural needs

Question

The act of discrediting the reputation of someone else i.e. an act of creating wrong or false impression of somebody is

Answer

Defamation

Question

Instances when consent may not be required include all the following EXCEPT_____

Answer

Pregnant women

Question

_____ is an embodiment of principles upon which any state is governed.

Answer

Constitution

Question

Which of the following is example of ethical illegal in Nursing practice?

Answer

Euthenasia

Question

In which year did Robb one of the early nursing leaders wrote on a breach of etiquette, but her comments reflect the sociology of the situation, including difference in role, function and status.

Answer

1900

Question

. Which of the following is benefit of bathing the patient?

Answer

All of the above.

Question

Microorganisms exist everywhere in the environment EXCEPT:

Answer
Fire

Question
Which of the following phrases best illustrates the panic level of anxiety?

Answer
Loss of control and rational thought

Question
You respond to an approaching examination with a rapidly beating heart and shaking hands. This is the result of what type of response?

Answer
Coping mechanism

Question
When physiologic mechanisms within the body respond to internal changes to maintain an essential balance, which of the following processes has occurred?

Answer
Homeostasis

Question
Which of the following reactions would be considered anxiety due to a psychological response?

Answer

Expressions of anger

Question

A withdrawn, and isolated patient is most likely suffering from which of the following stressors on basic human needs?

Answer

Love and belonging needs

Question

Which of the following statements concerning interactions with basic human needs is accurate?

Answer

As a person strives to meet basic human needs at each level, stress can serve as either a stimulus or barrier.

Question

A patient who responds to bad news concerning his lab reports by crying uncontrollably is handling stress by using which of the following?

Answer

Coping mechanism

Question

In which of the stages of the GAS does the body attempt to adapt to the stressor?

Answer

Resistance

Question

The primary controller of homeostatic mechanisms is which of the following systems?

Answer

Autonomic

Question

Which of the following describes the change that takes place as a result of a response to a stressor?

Answer

Adaptation

Question

Mr. Martin is an energetic 80-year-old, admitted to the hospital with complaints of difficulty urinating, bloody urine, and burning on urination. In assessing Mr. Martin, which of the following is a priority?

Answer

Focusing on altered patterns of elimination common in the elderly

Question

Which of the following sources of patient data is usually the primary and best source?

Answer

Patient

Question

During which of the following phases of the nurse-patient interview does the nurse gather all the information needed to form the subjective database?

Answer

Working phase

Question

Data that can be observed by one person and verified by another person observing the same patient are known as:

Answer

Objective data

Question

Which of the following healthcare providers is responsible for the comfort and well-being of the patient on arrival to the unit?

Answer

Nurse

Question

The factors influencing Response to Stressors include all the following EXCEPT:

Answer

The event

Question

Needs are an integral part of each person's human dimension. Which needs are met when a person feels a sense of belonging to a group or community and being loved by others?

Answer

Sociocultural needs

Question

During the recovery and rehabilitation stage of illness, the person who is ill is expected to do which of the following?

Answer

Give up the dependent role.

Question

Which of the following best describes a period of remission in a patient with a chronic illness?

Answer

Symptoms are not experienced.

Question

In which of the following stages of acute illness does the patient decide to accept the diagnosis and follow the prescribed treatment plan?

Answer

Stage 3

Question

Which of the following conditions occurs when an adult has a pulse rate of 100 to 180 beats/minute?

Answer
Tachycardia

Question
Which of the following statistics regarding blood pressure is accurate?

Answer
Blood pressure tends to be lower in a prone or supine position than in a seated or standing position.

Question
Needs are an integral part of each person's human dimension. Which needs are met when a person feels a sense of belonging to a group or community and being loved by others?

Answer
Sociocultural needs

Question
The act of discrediting the reputation of someone else i.e. an act of creating wrong or false impression of somebody is

Answer
Defamation

Question
Instances when consent may not be required include all the following EXCEPT_____

Answer
Pregnant women

Question
_____ is an embodiment of principles upon which any state is governed.

Answer
Constitution

Question
Which of the following is example of ethical illegal in Nursing practice?

Answer
Euthenasia

Question
In which year did Robb one of the early nursing leaders wrote on a breach of etiquette, but her comments reflect the sociology of the situation, including difference in role, function and status.

Answer
1900

Question
. Which of the following is benefit of bathing the patient?

Answer
All of the above.

Question

Microorganisms exist everywhere in the environment EXCEPT:

Answer

Fire

Question

Which of the following conditions occurs when an adult has a pulse rate of 100 to 180 beats/minute?

Answer

Tachycardia

Question

Which of the following statistics regarding blood pressure is accurate?

Answer

Blood pressure tends to be lower in a prone or supine position than in a seated or standing position.

Question

Needs are an integral part of each person's human dimension. Which needs are met when a person feels a sense of belonging to a group or community and being loved by others?

Answer

Sociocultural needs

Question

The act of discrediting the reputation of someone else i.e. an act of creating wrong or false impression of somebody is

Answer
Defamation

Question
Instances when consent may not be required include all the following EXCEPT _____

Answer
Pregnant women

Question
_____ is an embodiment of principles upon which any state is governed.

Answer
Constitution

Question
Which of the following is example of ethical illegal in Nursing practice?

Answer
Euthenasia

Question
In which year did Robb one of the early nursing leaders wrote on a breach of etiquette, but her comments reflect the sociology of the situation, including difference in role, function and status.

Answer
1900

Question

. Which of the following is benefit of bathing the patient?

Answer

All of the above.

Question

Microorganisms exist everywhere in the environment EXCEPT:

Answer

Fire

Normal respiration is otherwise known as Apnoea Eupnoea Hypopnea Hyperpnoea

_____ illness is one that for which there is no known cause.
Hereditary Congenital Idiopathic Developmental _____ heat loss can be enhanced by removing clothing or by wearing light clothing meaning that heat loss through radiation can be curtailed by covering the body with cloth especially dark, closely woven clothes. Radiation Conduction Convection Evaporation _____ increases metabolism and increased metabolism requires increase consumption of oxygen hence the increase in respiratory rate and depth to meet the body's greater oxygen needs Exercise Body Position Emotion Stress _____the need for structure, predictability, out of danger, free from harm, feel safe and secure. Physiological Safety/Security Belongings and Love Esteem _____are survival needs. They must be met to sustain life. Put differently, their absence or non_satisfaction portends great threat to human existence Primary needs Secondary needs Basic Human Needs Physiologic Needs _____is the transfer of heat from the surface of one object to the surface of another without contact between the two objects, mostly in the form of infrared rays Radiation Conduction Convection Evaporation

._____are the most pre_potent of all needs. They are required for life sustenance. Primary needs Secondary needs Basic Human Needs Physiologic Needs _____promotes full chest expansion. Stooped or slumped position impairs respiratory movement. Exercise Body Position Emotion Stress _____disorders are those that are present at birth and are products of faulty embryonic development especially during the first three month of intrauterine life otherwise referred to as period of organogenesis. Hereditary Congenital Idiopathic Developmental