INTRODUCTION

Spiritual cobwebs have become a daunting situation for people who have become victims. This book highlights intently what a spiritual cobweb is, what it can do to a person, and how it can affect the life of an individual. It has biblical contents that specifically address the spiritual and physical ways out of it practically. It talks about how spiritual cobwebs can influence an individual's life and how you can prayerfully overcome it. Consistency in reading, studying, and meditating on the word of God and praying (dwell in the place of prayer) are some of the ways out written here. You will also get to know some positive declarations to make to overcome fear and doubt used by the enemy to manipulate your mind. In the book of 2 Timothy 1:7, the Bible said, "....for God hath not given you the spirit of fear: but power, and love, and sound mind". You can only overcome this by consistently investing in prayer. Jesus was able to fulfill his ministry because he started with prayer and ended with prayer. You have been equipped as a child of God to withstand the devil. In Numbers 13:30, "....and Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, let us go up at once, and possess it, for we are well able to overcome it". Are you wondering why your money keeps disintegrating instead of multiplying? You will find out why your finances are not properly accounted for and how you can regain freedom.

CHAPTER ONE

Understanding Spiritual Cobweb

The Spiritual Influence Known as Spiritual Cobweb

In our world today, spiritual wickedness in high places, sadly, has become a part of our existence whereby innocent people are enslaved via spiritual forces, and the spiritual cobweb is one of them; in being an overcomer, there must be physical and spiritual warfare. The Bible recorded in Ephesians 2:12 ".....f*or we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places".*

God was aware of spiritual forces from inception. That was why he sent his son to die. The primary cause of his death was for our salvation, but at the same time, he war against evil spirits when he became a spirit after his death. Christ won in death over spiritual darkness. He spoilt principalities and powers. The Bible said in Colossians 2:15, "..... A*nd having spoilt principalities and powers, he made a show of him openly, triumphing over them in it".*

A spiritual cobweb is a force of darkness used by witches and wizards to influence and alter the divine timeline of God for an individual's life to particularly deter a person from being successful, receiving blessings, getting help, impede their glory, and cause all sorts of confusion in their spiritual lives.

It can be physical, and it can also be spiritual. Whereby you can see it with your physical eyes is the physical effect of it, and when you can see it in your dreams, and it begins to manifest in the physical, it is the spiritual effect of it. It varies depending on the level and the type of power involved. These forces were not created outside of God's intent for humanity, it was created by God, and he made provisions for us to overcome them because he knew there would be evil manipulation of them. In Colossians 1:16, ".....For by him were all things created, that are in heaven and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones or dominions, or principalities, or powers; all things were created by him, and for him".

Its potency differs because we have different kinds of witches and wizards. We also have different kinds of spiders creating webs as their primary place of residence, and it's being used by them according to the effect they want to produce at a particular time. They are grouped into different categories, and that determines their strength and the level or extent of the devastation they can cause a person.

Some Facts About Spiritual Cobweb

The thought of stealing, killing, and destruction was invented by envy. That became the mission of Satan after he was demoted from being an angel to a devil. He has thought about how the hell will only contain him. How was he going to suffer the wrath of the Almighty God alone? That is going to be terrible. The Bible said in Hebrew 10:31, "....it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God". How disastrous it will be to be a victim of God's wrath. The devil understood he had no remedy. The death of Christ was not meant to atone for his sins. He lost that privilege, and he wants you to lose it too. That's why he is bringing all kinds of devastating situations your way to cause you to reject God. All the promises the Lord made to you are what he keeps on tampering with. The Lord said, he will cloth you with the garment of honor. The devil alters it by giving you clothing of shame. He said that with long life, he would satisfy you. The devil keeps on filling your mind with thoughts of death. He starved so you can have enough providence. He was wretched, so you can have the riches. He said your seed is blessed. But the enemy wants them to become a trap for your destruction. Its basic mission is to render you, and all that concerns you desolate. Some of them are:

- Spiritual enslavement of an individual - your actions are being regulated from a realm you know nothing about. You're being monitored to do just as they want and how they desire.
- Destiny stagnations - nothing works out for you. There's no evident headway in all that you do.
- Prevention of helpers of destiny.
- Disappointments and bad luck.
- Undeserved hatred from people.
- Singlehood for life.
- Slow progress.
- Breakdown and losses in business.
- Division in marriages.
- Unemployment for years.

- Blockage of ministerial helpers.
- Stunt spiritual growth.
- Rendering successful interviews unsuccessful.
- Creating evil reports about you in the hearts of men.
- Spiritual growth fluctuation.
- Several miscarriages.
- Control over your physical and spiritual life.
- Spiritual bondage.
- Abnormal sicknesses.
- Renders an individual useless.
- Spiritual blindness.
- Family affliction.
- Gain control over your mind spiritually.
- Gain control over your spirit.
- Gain control over your life and destiny
- Projection of future failure into an individual's life.
- Contract and project failure.
- Satanic oppression.
- Penury.

What Does it Mean to get Attached to Spiritual Cobwebs?

The Bible recorded in the book of Jeremiah 29:11 ".....for I know the thoughts that I think towards you says the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end".

If there's no peace in your life and all you see around you is an evil manifestation of the plans of the enemy. When supposed prospering things are stagnant in your life. There may be the presence of this evil manipulation in your life when you're losing hope in God and when faith seems like hard work, and the pain refuses to cease. There is a cause. In 1 Samuel 17:29, ".....and David said, what have I done now, is there not a cause?"

Eliab was David's elder brother; he got angry because he couldn't understand why a little boy like David would go out bravely to face a philistine in battle when he, the elder, was afraid. So, he wanted him to go back and look after their father's sheep. If Eliab did that out of interest in his little brother's well-being, the Bible would not have made that a point, but he wanted to teach us how man (even siblings) can hate you because you're able and well-equipped whilst they can not.

The evil intention of men has inception (it starts from somewhere or something started it). You might be going through something right now just because someone somewhere saw something that you can do better than them and started hating.

That hate can cause them to do things. That's when they start to look for ways to block your glory, prevent you from succeeding, and engage themselves in so many kinds of evil works just to bring you to naught.

That's how you get attached to spiritual problems you know nothing about. Most times, it cannot be traced to siblings, friends, relatives, co-workers, church, or your hometown. It could be a stranger that met you somewhere. Evil manipulations can come from anywhere.

When you start to experience things that are not in line with the promise of God in "Jeremiah 29:11," please, start investing in prayer.

The devil and his followers are never tired of doing evil; one plot fails, and they try another. Why should you slumber in well doing? The Bible says in Galatians 6:9, "...let us not be weary in good doing, for in due season we shall reap if we faint not". The Bible also said that you shall reap whatever you sow in Galatians 6:7 "..... Be not deceived, God is not mocked, for whatever a man sows that shall he also reap".

Who Can Walk Into This Attack?

There's something called a generational curse. A spiritual crisis that affects an entire bloodline. In some homes, it might be the death of someone every year or decade. In some others, it is madness that is ravaging their lives and rendering them useless and the absence of progress in their lives. There's only one reason why this curse is able to manifest in the lives of people is that there is spiritual wickedness operating in high places.

Someone might be going through something because it's a generational problem that affects the bloodline. You might not need to walk into this attack. You might be suffering it because it's generational, and you became a victim because you are a part of that family.

There's no person designed to suffer a spiritual crisis. It's a raid that comes without an invite. You don't tell it to come or not. Evil operators, the enemy uses them to oppress their fellow men. Anyone can walk into this attack, provided the miscreant has summed you for destruction. They can use any force available to make sure their desires for your existence to be stripped of joy, peace, and quiet are accomplished.

I had a friend by the name of Miriam. We went to the same college, but she graduated a year before I did. She and her family were Christain. People always talk about spiritual problems and manipulations they encounter and have seen people encounter too. During that time, while we were still schooling. She came over and told me something; she was kind of seeing some tiny pores swelling up on her skin. It was scratching and giving her a lot of inconveniences. She can't bathe in cold water. She takes her bath with boiled water when the pores have been scratched open, so the water can sink into the wounds. But all the efforts proved abortive. It was later discovered it was positioned by someone for someone, but she mistakenly took a step on it and subsequently became a victim of that evil plan. It was meant to kill that person, but because it affected the wrong person (the wrong person walked into it), she couldn't be killed by it. Wicked spiritual personalities are working tirelessly to destroy people. It's important too that you tirelessly pray.

When Do You Become a Victim?

When progress becomes a thing of the past, and you no longer find favor in the eyes of men. You've lost your peace, and stability becomes unattainable. When your spiritual life is no longer what it is to be. When you've lost reasons to have faith, trusting God becomes hard to do. When spirituality is no longer what it used to be for you, something is wrong.

Deni was a friend of mine in high school. We usually attended Bible classes together; she loves God with her heart. She takes her work with God seriously, and she talks and converses with God anywhere and anytime. It didn't take time before she had a sudden change of heart toward God. It would have been said that it has been a thought she has been nurturing for a while before taking action; something birthed that reaction. When we can't trace it to be physically related, then there must be a spiritual effort against it.

This beautiful relationship Deni had with God gradually became a story that she's never ready to tell. Deni lost her faith in God, and her enthusiasm for matters of the kingdom became cold suddenly. She became burdened with spiritual exercises, which she used to do regularly without a leader or a pastor reminding her.

Spiritual growth comes when you're consistently studying, hearing, and meditating on the word of God. When these three components are absent, then the enemy is at work in your life to destroy you spiritually. Remember, when you fail or lose a battle in the spirit, then there's a real possibility you will not win physically.

Deni unexpectedly left the church and her first love (God); this significantly proves that the ultimate goal of spiritual wickedness for your life is total depravity. When you lose your spiritual essence, you've lost it all. Your being faithful in spiritual affairs is a problem for someone somewhere. They can wake up one day and decide to take that away from you.

It's time to pray. Take authority over anything and everything that is working against you right now. The Bible said, though they shall gather if it is not of God, they shall flee seven ways. This time command them to flee in a million ways. The Bible said what I hear you say is what I will do for you. The Lord has given you an open cheque as an advantage, and now you have to use it for your freedom. Jesus has made you free, so you cannot be bound.

Say this prayer now and get your freedom:

Oh Lord, make me free. Lose me from every evil chain the enemies of my life have chained me with. Lose me, LORD! I refuse to be a captive; lose me!

The enemy is never happy seeing you walk right with God because he has fallen; he's constantly looking for men to tag along with him in that fallen state, do not let it be you.

If you're a victim already, thank God you're reading this now, your prayer can save you, contend for the bible said in Jude 1:3 "....*Beloved when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that you should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints".

CHAPTER TWO

The Mystery of Evil Cobweb

Cobwebs are part of our natural existence, and they have a language of their own, which most times have a shape of an "X" wherever they are found. It can be seen in a dirty or clean environment. Their presence is never a sign of spoilage.

Why do evil men choose Cobwebs?

Psalm 10:8-10 ".....he sits in the lurking places of villages, in the secret place doth he murder the innocent, his eyes are prickly set against the poor. Verse 9 "....he lies in wait secretly as a lion in his den. He lies in wait to catch the poor. He catches the poor when he draws him into his net. Verse 10 "... He crouches and humbles himself that the poor may fall by his strong ones".

Cobwebs do not stay or build their abode in an open place. It is always in a mild and hidden space due to its tiny strands, which are sometimes invincible. That's why evil personalities are lurking about like the devil seeking whom to devour found it easy to become an instrument in their hands as an object of spiritual oppression.

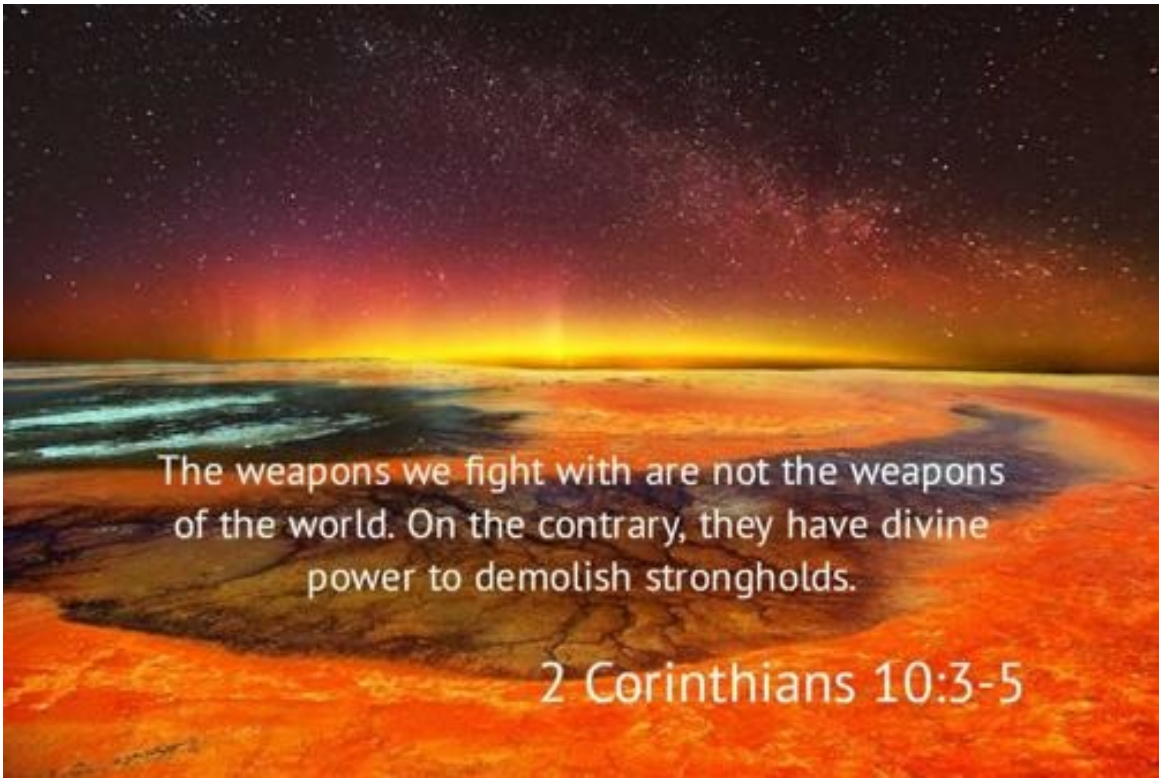

This attack becomes evident as the realm of the spirit speaks through symbols, signs, irony, and parables. When a person becomes spiritually entangled, the experience is traced to be, most times, this spiritual cobweb. It signals that a person is being monitored spiritually. He or she is on the radar of the enemy. There might be someone, spirits, or a kingdom that are monitoring your movements, using the medium to plot and work evil against you spiritually. Cobweb is a potent weapon strongly used by spiritual darkness to work against the good and perfect plan God has for his children.

What is The Mission of This Evil Spiritual Cobweb?

Its mission is simple; to rub you off your life of comfort. Prevent blessings from reaching your tent, make your life contrary to the will of God for you, but the lord is saying fear not, for I have overcome the world. He said in the book of John 16:33b, "....in the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world".

The enemy does not run after empty vessels. He doesn't chase anyone who does not have spiritual significance. Evil spiritual experiences are mostly told by fervent people or persons whose commitment to God is top tier. He uses wicked men to frustrate you so you can quickly denounce your faith. The spiritual crisis has led many astray, where they are always questioning God's sovereignty. It brings the enemy joy when he sees men turning their back on God. He uses men to bring all sorts of devastating issues, problems, and difficulties to make men denounce God. In the case of Job, a lot of devastating predicaments fell upon him at a time. The enemy wanted to use his wife to cause him to speak against God. Spiritual cobweb is what he uses to fight your spiritual stamina. He wants to reduce you to nothing. His desire is to always see you wailing and weeping. The Bible says the will of God cannot take you where his grace cannot keep you. While the devil and his followers are it, remember God is still God. He won't stop being God because of your problems. Be rest assured with prayers that he will see you through.

Fighting This Spiritual Problem with Bible Reference

2 Corinthians 2:11 talks about not being ignorant of the devices of Satan. There are many devices of Satan that Christians can unwittingly be ignorant of. One example is the use of magic and spells. Another is the belief in lucky charms or other objects as a source of protection or good luck. You should avoid any involvement in activities related to witchcraft, sorcery, and divination. Steer clear of anything that could be seen as an act of idolatry, such as venerating saints or using icons in prayer. It is important to remember that Satan is the father of lies, and he will do everything he can to lead you away from God. So, don't believe everything you hear - always test things against scripture to see if they line up with biblical truth.

If you know your enemy and you know yourself, you need not fear the result of hundred battles. If you know yourself and do not know your enemy, you might suffer a defeat for a victory gained. And, if you don't know yourself, and you don't know your stands with God. Victory will be far from you, and this can cause you to stumble in every battle. The primary cause of these problems is the unquenchable thirst the enemy has to gain control over the minds of men. He wants supremacy over our lives.

This is where you began to see the necessity of Christ's death on the cross of cavalry for our sake. We were not left unequipped by God to face these battles. He provided prayer for us to use for our warfare when he fasted for 40 days and forty nights while on earth. He lived by example, and He provided the scriptures to guide us. He provided his son as a sacrifice to make available the blood of Jesus. Jesus was made manifest, so we can pray in his name. A name we can call and knees bow. Authorities obey, sicknesses are healed, and oppressions are ceased. Because the Lord knew our battle would not be physically minded, he made available spiritual gifts: the gift of the Holy Spirit. In the book of 2 Corinthians 10:3-5, "....for though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does. Verse 4 The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. Verse 5 We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ".

There are many ways to fight spiritual weapons as a Christian. One way is to pray for protection and guidance. You can also read your Bible, sing praises to God, and fellowship with other believers. It's important to stay strong in your faith during times of attack and remember that God is always with you.

Our spiritual weapons of warfare have divine power to demolish fortifications of the enemy. You should not be deterred by the seemingly impregnable walls or get intimidated by the size or power of the enemy. The errors and the rampant sin must be pulled down. Your sin is not permitted to be a hindrance to your victory. That is why it is important to surrender to Christ without hesitation. Your mind is one tool the enemy uses to fight you when he creates and paints different philosophies of thought in your head. Ever wondered why there are different systems of thinking that differ in each country?

A spiritual cobweb is a spiritual problem that can affect you both in the physical and the spiritual. We wrestle not against flesh and blood but principalities and powers in high places. You have not been equipped to fight spiritual battles if you're yet to get invested in the word of God the Bible said In Matthew 26:41a, ".... Watch and pray". Be on alert always. Communicate with God everywhere and anywhere.

- Hang sticky notes of prophetic declarations around your home, besides your bed, and on walls around. Keep it in places where you can get a glimpse of it always. Prophetically declare them when you wake up and when you're about to sleep, and in-between your daily activities.

- Ø Speak and blast in other tongues if you've been gifted. Set the kingdom of the enemy on fire with the authoritative, powerful words of your mouth.
- Ø Condemn every tongue that says it is an abomination for you to prosper, bring all of them under the authority of Christ.
- Ø Every power shouting and fighting against the acceleration of my family, be desolate immediately.
- Ø Anoint your entire household with the capable blood of Jesus Christ.
- Ø Pray for spiritual stamina for your household.
- Ø All you workers of iniquity, you have no place in here; I command you by the name that is above every name that you leave immediately.
- Ø Tell the devil right into his face boldly: I serve you notice, vacate this body and home. Set me free because I am a vessel of the Almighty God.
- Ø Oh Lord, arise and let my enemies be scattered.

The Bible is telling you in the book of Matthew 20:26, ".....fear them not therefore: for there's nothing covered, that shall not be revealed, and hid that shall not be known". They shall be revealed and their evil works in due time, fear thou not.

In Mark 13:33, ".....take you heed, watch and pray, for you know not when the time is". Because evil perpetrators do not tell you when they are intruding on your space, there's a need to watch and pray.

2 Corinthians 2:17 says, 'for we are not of many, which corrupt the word of God, but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, speak we in Christ.' While God is watching, he should find you speaking in him. You ought to speak with sincerity of heart. Do not be found among those who corrupt the Word. You will be found spotless to attract the salvation of the Lord in your life. You will not be left by God to drown in your shame. The resurrection power will work in your case. The enemies of your life and destiny will crumble at your feet. You are a chosen generation. A favored personality. You are loved by God. He takes care of you. Fear thou not.

A Practical Ways Out of it

Prayer is a potent weapon of warfare. The Bible in James 5:16b "....The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much" This Scripture is practically revealing to you the importance of prayer being offered by a righteous man. Is your way right with God? Does your heart/spirit bear you witness that you are a child of God? The Bible recorded in the book of Proverbs 15:8-9, "....the sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord, but the prayer of the upright man is his delight". No matter the sacrifice you are willing to make for Christ's sake, if your ways are not of God, it is an abomination unto him for an unrepentant person to offer prayers to him. He went on to say in verse 9, "....the way of the wicked is an abomination unto the LORD: but he that loves him and follows after righteousness"*. You'll be stuck in this problem if you are yet to have a relationship with God. Suppose you are yet to accept the finished work of Christ on the cross if you have a grudge bottled up in your heart against someone. You need to be free from all filthiness of sin and come clean with a pure heart. In penitence, you need to seek mercy. The Bible said in Romans 3:3, "....All (no exemption) have sinned and come short of the glory of God". And he goes on to say in the book of 1 John 1:10, "....if we say that we have not sinned, we make him (God) a liar, and his word is not in us. You don't expect a good gift from someone you don't regard.

There's an old saying that goes, "A friend in need is a friend indeed." This is definitely true because a fair-weather friend is not really a friend at all.

A fair-weather friend is someone who only hangs out with you when things are going well, and they're happy. But as soon as something bad happens or they're no longer in a good mood, they disappear. They don't want to be around when things are tough or uncomfortable.

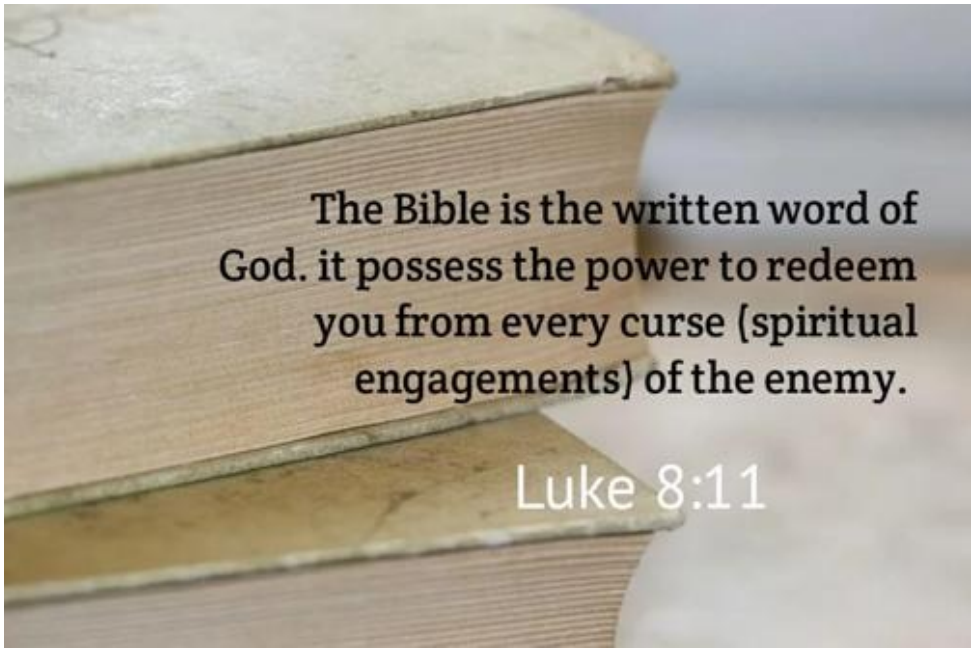

But real friends stick closer than a brother (Proverbs 19:7). They may not always be able to help you solve your problems, but they'll be there for you to offer support and listen to you vent. They'll also be happy about your successes and celebrate with you during good times. So if you want true friendship, stick to Jesus no matter what life throws your way.

God knows when you're coming to him because of the advantage. He knows when your consecration is just about what you will gain. A relationship with the basis that you will get your desires. Being in a relationship with God doesn't guarantee your breakthrough, but he said: "fear not, for I have overcome the world." That's an assurance. Don't run off when you're yet to breakthrough; depend wholly on God in the process.

CHAPTER THREE

Study and Meditate on the Word of God

It is not the word of God you have heard or know matters. It is the one you're putting into practice. However, you can not put it to work if you don't know it and what it can do. The scripture makes it easy for you to understand the precepts of God. The Bible is the principles of God. It shows you how and when to trust God. Believing in God is not simple, especially in spiritual battles. The Bible recorded in Psalm 28:22 "....because they believed not in God and trusted not his salvation". After having been saved by God from the hands of Pharoh, the children of Israel still committed the sin of unbelief; they spoke against God. God sent the pillar of cloud by the day and of fire by night to make evident his presence, yet, they believed him not for provisions. Dividing the red sea, which still makes an immense significance in today's Christianity, meant nothing to them. The word of God promises to simplify how to trust in God; all you have to do is spend time on His word.

Jesus rebuked Satan when he tempted him the third time in Matthew 4:7, "...Jesus said unto him, it is written, Thou shall not tempt the lord thy God". That's the word that proceeds out of the mouth of God that can keep and sustain a man.

The word that proceeds out of the mouth of God (through his inspiration written by men of God, which is the word) has power. The world was made manifest through the word and still proceeds by the word. You can't know his thoughts if you don't read his word. In the book of Jeremiah 29:11, "..... For I know the thoughts I think towards you, says the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end". This beautiful thought he has for you is found and can only be found in the scriptures.

Why will you allow the enemy to keep tormenting you when you know this authentic promise of God having good thoughts about you?

The chastisement of our peace was upon him, and by his stripes, we have been made whole. The penalty for sin has been paid and was paid in full. Satan has no leverage against your life. God frustrated the tokens of liars and made diviners mad (all of them that have risen to coat your glory in shame have been destroyed). No satanic oppression orchestrated by the enemy can become my reality. This should be your daily affirmation.

God is still revealing himself to men. Meditating on his word will give enough room for him to reveal himself to you. The amount of God you know will determine how he will reveal himself to you. Daniel was blessed, and he was a child of wisdom. When king Nebuchadnezzar had a dream, his spirit troubled him so much that he could not find sleep. While Joseph was in prison, waiting for God's redeeming power to set him free. The King was searching for magicians, astrologers, sorcerers, and the Chaldeans to interpret his dream for him. The people were about to be cut into pieces if they failed to interpret his dream to him, with their houses made into an ash heap.

They have concluded in their hearts that there's none else on the earth who can interpret that dream. That prompted the king to give a decree for all wise men to be manslaughter. Then, Daniel made an inquiry to know why the decree was made, and he was told. The Bible said Daniel requested to be given an opportunity to interpret that dream. Daniel went straight to his companions:

Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, that they may seek mercies from the God of heaven concerning this secret to be exempted from the destruction coming on the wise men of Babylon. Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a night vision, and he blessed the God of heaven.

Daniel's spirit was sensitive enough to know that it was God speaking. His meditation on the word of God made him conversant with the ways of God. If he doesn't know God, how do you think he will recognize it was God giving the spiritual interpretation of that dream in his sleep?

In Colossians 3:16, ".... Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom: teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your heart unto the Lord." And he goes on to say in Joshua 1:8, ".... This book of the law shall not depart out of your mouth, but thou shall meditate on it day and night, that thou may observe to do according to all that is written therein, for then thou shall make your way prosperous, and then thou shall have good success." The Lord can make latter things known unto you through visions and dreams. He will let you know the wreckage that is coming if you would let him. Keep on meditating on His word day and night.

Spiritual Cobweb and Financial struggle

Part of their agenda is to make you financially useless and incapable. To make you unfruitful and desolate. Spiritual cobwebs are anti-breakthrough powers. The primary reason for their attack is to hinder your progress, and once financial life is affected, everything else will be influenced. Finance is the basis of everything else. That is why your income is never sufficient. You cannot give a proper account of your money. Your finances are always suffering. If sickness is not taking it, burglaries are robbing it off you. Your car keeps on having issues, and you can trace it back to nothing. Your debt is adding up on a regular basis. When you think you have overcome, life hits harder. Peace of mind, body, and soul has become unaffordable for you. You have lost rest, always thinking of the way out. While at it, problems keep doubling, taking off money from your pocket. Is there not a cause?

In Matthew 11:12, ".....and from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffered violence, and the violent take it by force".

Until now, the kingdom is still suffering violence, and if you're not violent, you can't have your victory.

Pray this prayer

Almighty Father, creator of the heavens and the earth. Mediator of the whole universe. My great provider; because my provision comes from your divine store house. The devil cannot have a dime of it. My wealth will only be used to sponsor good things. I am living because I possess your breath; therefore, I will not pay to breathe the long life you have assured me in the scripture. My finance shall not be used to sponsor sickness of any kind. My sustainer; I am sustained by you, and I will never be managed by the enemy. My Anchor, my hope is built on you. My restorer, you said in Joel 2:25a, ".... and I will restore to you the years that the locust has eaten, the cankerworm, the caterpillar, and the palmerworm". Restore all that I have lost. Everything took in my absence and ignorance, without my consent, may all of it be restored back unto me this day, in Jesus' name, Amen. My healer; As an embodiment of your temple, sickness has no place in me. In Jeremiah 30:17a, "....and I will restore health unto you, and I will heal you of thine wounds, says the lord. May my health be restored this day in the name of Jesus, Amen!

Overcoming financial struggles

Seek to understand what is causing the struggle. Is it related to a spiritual problem, or could it be spiritually attached? Check the source if it is genuine enough. Consider if it is a problem you brought upon yourself ignorantly. Before you can solve any problem, you need to know the root cause of it so it can be removed from the root, never to be seen again. That's why we pray a prayer that says, "anything that the father has not planted shall be uprooted." Uprooting a problem from the root means destroying the problem and the foundation to never be found existing again. Prioritize what is within your discretion. Don't stress about it if you can't handle it. Take inventory, if possible, of how it started and where your finance is now. Try as much as possible to recall what investments you have made, how you made them, and who you made them with. Check the progress you recorded after each investment or service rendered, or goods bought. Check your spending: consider figuring out how you have or have been spending your money. Then, when you can't trace it at all. Embark on spiritual warfare to overcome the devil on how he has crawled through this spiritual cobweb into your life. Here are some of the prayer points to consider:

- Because my wealth is not ill-gotten, the enemy cannot have it.
- I operate from the resources of heaven; from this day, let my wealth cease to suffer losses.
- As a reward for my hard work, I shall peacefully eat the good of it.
- Any agent of darkness that I have had an encounter with, money-wise, that is now the cause of these losses, today, in the name of Jesus, I break that spiritual relationship. Let the power cease to work in my finance.
- Every spirit against my financial progress is eliminated right this moment in Jesus' name, Amen!
- Any place or territory that my feet have entered that is bringing me misfortune; I cause that yoke, let it be broken right now, in the name of Jesus Christ, Amen!
- Every power in covenant with my progress shall be brought to naught.

- Every man that has walked into any place for my destruction shall eat the fruit of it.
- Anybody that has sworn against my success shall be destroyed right now for a good course, in Jesus' name, Amen!
- Let everything that exalts itself above the knowledge of Christ over my life be destroyed.
- Any covenant I have entered ignorantly with the enemy, I break it right now, in Jesus' name, Amen!

Biblical Confession to Make

Confession is as important as a declaration. The four steps to salvation are acknowledgment, confession, Believe, Accept (Invite). Confession births belief; when you've yielded enough, you start to confess your belief. When you say, "I shall not die, but live to declare the goodness of God in my life." That's a powerful confession. When you say;

- Ø I am the head and not the tail.
- Ø I am a chosen generation and have a peculiar personality.
- Ø God is my refuge and my fortress; of whom shall I be afraid.
- Ø Because God is for me, none can be against me.
- Ø I am God's.
- Ø I am a child of God, and I refuse to believe otherwise.
- Ø I refuse to have or experience anything that is not of God.
- Ø My hope is only in Jesus' blood and righteousness.
- Ø My body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, the property of the enemy cannot reside in it.
- Ø I have life in abundance.
- Ø My thoughts are sanitized in the blood of Jesus.
- Ø I possess the ultimate power to move mountains.
- Ø I shall have all that I desire according to the word of God.
- Ø I am a Daniel in my generation, and I am endowed with wisdom.
- Ø I have been equipped to resist the enemy, and he will flee.
- Ø Just like David, I overcome every Goliath on my way.
- Ø Just as David, every saul on my way will be smitten.

When you make a confession and believe it, it shall be established in Jesus' name. Amen!

Isaiah 53:4a ".....surely he had borne my grief and carried my sorrows," then in verse 5 "....but he was wounded for my transgressions, he was bruised for my iniquities: the chastisement of my peace was upon him; by his stripes I, am healed".*

Psalm 91:1-16

1. ".....He that dwelleth in the secret place of the highest shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

3. Surely he shall deliver me from the snare of the fowler and the noisome pestilence.

4. He shall cover me with his feathers, and under his wings shalt I trust: his truth shall be my shield and buckler.

5. I shall not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

6. Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

7. A thousand shall fall at my side, and ten thousand at my right hand; but it shall not come to nigh me.

8. Only with my eyes shall I behold and see the reward of the wicked.

9. Because I hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the highest, my habitation;

10. There shall no evil befall me either shall any plague come to nigh my dwelling.

11. For he shall give his angels charge over me, to keep me in all my ways.

12. They shall bear me up in their hands, lest I dash my foot against a stone.

13. I shall tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shall I trample under feet.

14. Because I hath set my love upon him, therefore will you (God)

deliver me: you will set me on high because I have known your name.

15. I shall call upon you (God), and you will answer me: you will be with me in trouble; you will deliver me, and honor me.

16. With long life, you will satisfy me, and show me your salvation".

Power Prayer Points from the Scripture (Practical Way Out)

Prayer over the years has been proven to be effective once it's being made in the name of Jesus. The Bible said in Philippines 2:10 "... That at the name of Jesus, every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and of things in earth, and things under the earth".

Prayer reveals to God that you revere him. For a believer, to pray simply means you believe that God exists and he can solve your problem. If you don't pray, it shows you don't reverence him. You don't acknowledge his reality if you don't pray to him. Prayer should not be made (only) when you need something from God.

Prayer should be done regularly. This spiritual cobweb might not be tormenting your life, but there might be somebody you know who is going through it that you can pray for. You can barricade its entrance into your life by praying. Before the enemy plots evil against you, you've already obstructed it spiritually. Your prayer could be centered on Thanksgiving. Those who are victims didn't pray for it. Thank God for not allowing this spiritual crisis to be your lot. It's a blessing you should be thankful for.

In the spirit of prayer, say this with me.

I come before you, oh Lord, by the word of God in Matthew 7:7 ".... A*sk, and it shall be given; seek, ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you"*. With my hands lifted, I lift the shield of faith, which is the word of God against every fiery agenda fashioned against my life to come to naught in Jesus' name, Amen! I take in my hand the sword of the spirit, the word of God, and I use your Word against every form of evil in my life or family, and I put on the armor of faith and pray completely depending upon you, oh Lord to frustrated their token, and make their diviners mad blessed Holy Spirit. In Jesus' Name, Amen!

Psalm 35:1 ".... Plead my curse, oh Lord, with them that strive with me: fight against them that fight with me". The Lord will contend for you against the perpetrators of evil. Those who are committed to your destruction. Those who can't stand your progress, all shall be brought to naught for your sake. In Jesus' Name, Amen!

The Lord will scatter their gathering because it is not of him. Isaiah 54: 15 "....behold they shall surely gather together, but not by me: whosoever shall gather against me shall fall for my sake". Failure shall forever be their lot. In Jesus' Name, Amen!

Lamentation 3:37 ".... Who is he that says and it comes to pass when the Lord has not commanded it". Their evil plans against your life shall come to naught because the Lord your God has not commanded it. In Jesus' name, Amen!

Isaiah 44:25 - 26"....thus says the Lord, thy redeemer, and he that formed thee from the womb, I am the Lord that makes all things: that stretches forth the heavens alone; that spreads the earth abroad by myself". Verse 26 "... That frustrated the tokens of liars, and makes diviners mad, that turns wise men backward make their knowledge foolish". Because your redeemer lives, you shall live. Because he did not allow your mother to miscarry you in the womb, you were brought to live successfully? No mortal can cut your life short. He will surely and continuously frustrate their tokens because they are liars for your sake. In Jesus' name, Amen!

Psalm 59:1 - 2 "....Deliver me from my enemies, oh my God, defend me from them that rise up against me. Verse 2 "...deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from bloody men". The Lord will deliver you from your enemies. He will always defend you against your enemies. Your faith in him will work wonders for you. When they seek your face in any place for your destruction, the Lord himself will appear for your sake. Your blood shall not be used by men of darkness because you're a peculiar personality and a chosen generation.

Romans 8:31 "....w*hat shall we say then say to these things, if God is for us, who can be against us"*. For God is for you, nobody can be or work against you. You are God's, and his banner over you is love.

CHAPTER FOUR

Where does it come from?

I might have to remind you that the devil, just like the Bible said in John 10:10, ".... The thief comes not, but for to steal, and to kill, and destroy: I come so they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly". His mission to destroy you, steal from you until you're empty, and subsequently wipe out your generation is perpetual.

It's taboo for him to see you prosper even as your soul does. It brings him sadness watching you sprout in God's abundance. I want you to wake up to this reality. The devil hates it that you have a relationship with God. He doesn't want to see you smile just as the billows roll; he wants to see you tumble in it and get drowned.

Don't let him. You have work to do. Barricade his entrance. Let your door be on fire, hot enough to burn his head at an inch close to your abode. You can't let him have your children: your inheritance in Christ cannot be a seed to your destruction. Don't allow your children to become an instrument of your destruction.

Don't stand there weighing your capability and ask who will stand in the gap. Arise and intercede for your household. He wants to drown you in your anxieties; tell him you've been equipped to engage, and you will win in Jesus' name. Amen!

Where Does it Come From?

Spiritual cobwebs can come from so many places because agents of darkness exist in all corners of the earth. They are the perpetrators of evil whose work is only to bring difficulties and devastating situations into people's lives. The enemy introduced cobwebs because of their nature. Cobwebs have relatively tiny strands that are difficult for our human eye to detect its presence. You can walk into cobwebs anywhere without knowing that it is there.

It could be found in different areas in the church, home, school, place of work, and others. You can freely walk into it in this place without knowing it has been manipulated to do evil works against your life.

It might cross the eye when it has been manipulated, and you'll get rid of it as usual, but subsequently, you will start experiencing unexplainable difficulties in your life. You will start being lousy at your place of work. Something you've not been doing. A lot of inadequacies are becoming your daily lifestyle at work. You don't show up early, and you're now coming late. You don't meet up with deadlines any longer. Your attitude at work is becoming questionable.

Your fervency in the church is gradually becoming a burden to you. You skip service without feeling bad about it (it's becoming a lifestyle).

- In church

  In the body of Christ, which is the church, not everyone there is part of that body. Someone can hate you there just because your fervency is more than theirs, or they feel less blessed while you both are in the same church praying to one God.

- As spells

  This spiritual cobweb can come as spells. It might not be visible, but you'll sense tiny strands of it trying to cover your eyes. Suddenly, your eye will start paining and scratching you. When you sense something like this, it might mean you've been attacked by it.

- In homes

  As normal as it is, cobwebs are mostly found in the home because it's your primary place of abode, and you regularly clean it. You always take cognizance of its presence. It might cross your eye, and you take it for granted, but once it starts giving you a hard time, maybe in your sight, head, or anywhere, it could also mean you've been attacked.

- In your office

  In your workplace is another medium the enemy (the devil) can use to raise enemies to fight against you. A little favor you are shown there can become a problem for someone, and thus the enemy will start putting ideas in their head and attacking you with spiritual cobweb might be their fallback option because it's easy and hard to trace.

- In dreams

  It can be sent through dreams. While you are going on about your night's rest, they're somewhere regulating your dreams to get through to you. When you're not able to overcome it in your dream, it can then become your reality.

- In your retail store (if you are a vendor)

  Your place of financial advantage is one of their best places to attack. Once your finance is affected, every other aspect of your life will lose control. When things start changing drastically for you without a course, it might mean they are on it against you.

CHAPTER FIVE

How do You Pray Against it

Colossians 1:9 "....for this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that you might be filled with the knowledge of his wisdom and spiritual understanding".

As a Christian, you are equipped with prayer. There's a need for you to have spiritual understanding and be spiritually sensitive; that's why he said in that verse that you will be filled with the knowledge of his wisdom and spiritual understanding if you do not cease to pray.

Prayer does not require a special time or a special place. Prayer can be offered anywhere and anytime. Prayer is not limited to anything. Just as you are sitting there right now and going through the pages of this book, you can offer prayer.

Say this with me right now

Almighty God, I have heard your word, and I know your thoughts for me. Thank you for this timely book that is opening my eye to spiritual things that go on in our world. Every work of iniquity mounted anywhere for my or our destruction be broken right now, in Jesus' name, Amen. This body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, and everything that is not of him is dismantled this minute in the might name of Jesus Christ, Amen. I'm satisfied to know that your protection is for me. Thank you for the deeper revelation and understanding you're giving spiritually to detect the evil arrows of the enemy.

The Scriptures

The Bible, which is the word of God, is your strength and surest tool to use in fighting spiritual cobwebs. It has words of declaration that can help you boost your confidence in God. It has powerful prayer points to help you wage war against spiritual darkness.

It is the sword of the spirit the Lord provided for us to stay connected with him. It has all you need to know how God cares for you. In the scriptures is where you will find the thoughts of God for you and yours. Practical ways to avoid and overcome spiritual darkness are in the scriptures.

Everything you need for spiritual warfare is in the Bible, and as a believer in this world, you need the Bible at all times. When you're in debt, sorrow, rejoicing, expecting, and hoping on God for something, there's a scripture to keep you in line.

The Bible is the word. It's a letter to mankind. It's a manual to proper living. It is a guide to navigating the dark world. It has precepts that are able to make you wise. It has words of encouragement, words of affirmation. Words for war. Words of reproof. It has instructions, and it will show you the way to heaven.

No one has ever lost or loosed direction by reading the word of God (The Bible). Through it, many have been made wise. By reading it, many have left darkness and turned toward the light. Just by the words, yokes have been broken. The Bible is a mandatory book for everyone who wishes to overcome this world and make heaven. Many years have passed; millennium, centuries, decades, and years. Still, the scriptures are standing strong. The world has not been able to break or change it. The author has not changed either.

The Bible has the right words for every problem. No wonder a prayer made with biblical portions moves mountains. Through the Word, you will know the mind of God. It's important while you are praying, you quote the scriptures. Jesus assured that heaven and earth would pass away, but no iota of his word would return back to him void. So, every word that has proceeded out of the mouth of God has the potency to bring your desires to pass. No one can relate the scriptures for you, from Genesis to Revelation; you need your quiet time to study it. Create a time for you and your God. While you are in the presence of God, your troubles can crumble at that time. You will never know the power in communion with God personally until you try it.

Prophetic Words of Declaration

In Psalm 50:6, "...But unto the wicked God said, what has thou to do to declare my status, or that thou should take my covenant in your mouths".

Here, God is showing you the potency of declaration. The crooked went about declaring the status of God. Declarations are like commitment. You have committed your concerns to God. They were bearing it in their mouths. Declarations should be found in the mouth of the righteous.

> Psalm 96:3 "....declare his glory among the heathen, his wonders among all people".

- Ø I am favored by God.
- Ø The portion of the heathen shall not be my lot.
- Ø Faithful is my God.
- Ø I am the righteousness of God made perfect in the flesh.
- Ø I have the footprint of Christ, and I will not tread on dangerous grounds.
- Ø I am a covenant child; everything about me has been linked to Christ.
- Ø I have won the love of Christ, and I'm forever a part of his body.
- Ø In 1 John 1:5, ".... This then is the message I have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all".
- Ø Every dark thing in your life, tormenting, oppressing, and bringing you shame, today has been declared dead! In Jesus' name, Amen.
- Ø I am part of the covenant of Christ, no weapon formed against me will manifest in my life.
- Ø Any orchestration that's not of God has no business becoming my reality.
- Ø I will not suffer financially.
- Ø I rebuke every spirit of unplanned spending.
- Ø I will not use my finances to sponsor oppressions brought by the enemy.

- Ø My health will not suffer; I have a great physician.
- Ø I will not shed a tear of grief.
- Ø Misfortune shall not be my lot.
- Ø In every indication, I will not be affected by spiritual cobwebs.
- Ø Its claws shall grip its host in my stead.
- Ø I am born of God, and anything that is born of God overcomes the world.
- Ø My fate is determined by Christ, and no spirit can alter it.
- Ø I am God's, and my life is of God.
- Ø Anything that's not given by God, I cannot have.
- Ø Any tongue that shall rise against me, the lord will condemn in judgment.
- Ø My faith is pumped; I fear not what man can do.
- Ø I cannot be harmed by any force.
- Ø I move in the confidence of who I am in Christ Jesus.
- Ø I bear the mark of Christ when evil sees me; it shall pass over me.
- Ø I am an embodiment of favor and good fortune.
- Ø I'm the property of Christ; the evil orchestration of man cannot harm me.
- Ø I live in the world but not in the world.
- Ø I am satisfied with my long life, and my days are blessed.
- Ø I am set aside for God's Goodness.
- Ø I am a conqueror.

Consistent Meditation on the Word of God

It is important we think deeply about the word of God and reflect daily on our actions. There's a need for consistency because the devil, your arch enemy, will not give up until you are destroyed. Your consistency will help you stay occupied without a moment of carelessness because he can use a second to creep into your life.

Don't let him back into the battle he has lost. Let your meditation be consistent. You can just keep repeating those declarations, reminding God of the promises he made to you in the scriptures, and don't forget to rebuke the enemy whenever he shows up. You have been given the power to, and you never get victimized by him in Luke 10:19 ".... Behold, I have given you the power to tread upon serpents and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you". Nothing shall ever hurt you. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Start by picking a time frame you can work consistently with because it is easier to build a consistent habit if you do it at the same time each day. Pray. Pick a verse that will speak positive things to your heart at the time. Read the verse slowly and out. Discover the parts that stand out in each verse you read. Write it down. If possible, stick it to a corner that is always accessible. Mindlessly repeat those words.

Let's take a look at some Bible verses that you need to consistently meditate on;

The Lord promises to keep you in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on him in Isaiah 23:6 "you will keep in perfect peace, whose minds are steadfast, because they trust in you."

Let the book of the law be in your mouth day and night as recorded in Joshua 1:8 "This book of the law shall not depart out of thine mouth, but thou shall meditate on it day and night, that thou may observe to do according to all that is written therein, then thou shall make thy way prosperous and then thou shall have good success."

A personal time of prayer works wonders. Learn to pray to God about your cares in a quiet time and in a quiet place. In Matthew 6:6, "but thou, when thou prays, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret, and thy Father which sees in secret shall reward there openly."

Psalm 4:4 "stand in awe and sin not, commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still." Be still, and salvation will meet you there. The Lord cannot watch the righteous sink in distress.

In Psalm 63:2, "to see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen in his sanctuary." The Lord wrought miracles in the time old, which is evident, and it will help strengthen your faith to know that nothing is too hard for him and will come through for you.

Psalm 6:3, "because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee." Praises are a weapon of prayer. When Paul and Silas prayed and sang while in prison, the Holy Ghost came down and set them free. Praise and pray.

Psalm 104:34, "my meditation of him shall be sweet; I will be glad in the Lord." Be glad in the Lord because he is and will always be bigger than your problems.

Psalm 119:98 "...thou through thy commandments has made me wiser than my enemies for the ever with me". Your enemies never leave; they stand at the door waiting for the moment you are not watching to get back into your life, but the knowledge of the scripture you have can save you from that. The word of God helps you to be spiritually sensitive. Take time to consider the life of some believers around, those whose commitment to God is authentic.

Psalm 1: 1-6 "...Blessed is the one who does not walk in step with the wicked or stand in the way that sinners take or sit in the company of mockers,

Verse 2 but whose delight is in the law of the LORD, and who meditates on his law day and night.

Verse 3 That person is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither— whatever they do prospers.

Verse 4 Not so the wicked! They are like chaff that the wind blows away.

Verse 5 Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous. As long as you are far from the tent of the wicked, the judgment of the Lord shall be upon them for your sake. You sprout like a tree planted beside waters, and you will yield good seeds in due seasons. Anything you do shall surely prosper. The wind will blow your enemies away, and their token will forever be frustrated.

Verse 6 For the LORD watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked leads to destruction. Their ways will lead them to destruction, but the way of righteousness leads them to safety. You are safe.

Proverbs 4:20-22, My son, pay attention to what I say; turn your ear to my words.

Verse 21 Do not let them out of your sight, keep them within your heart,

Verse 22 for they are life to those who find them and health to one's whole body. Meditation helps to pay attention to the precepts of God. While you meditate, store the words you read in the tables of your heart. It is life, and it will bring health to your whole body.

Psalm 72:10-12

Verse 10 Then I thought, "To this I will appeal, the years when the Most High stretched out his right hand.

Verse 11 I will remember the deeds of the LORD; yes, I will remember your miracles of long ago.

Verse 12 I will consider all your works and meditate on all your mighty deeds".

Psalm 143:5 "...I remember the days of long ago; I meditate on all your works and consider what your hands have done. Think about the miracles God performed in the scriptures and how he chased millions of demons out of the line of a person called Legion. He made the lame walk, and he overcame the devil and made the dead rise. He raised Lazarus from the dead. A lot of things he did are written in there to show you that your case is still small for him to handle.

Biblical Affirmations to Resist the Spirit of Fear

Most of us do not understand the impact affirmations have on our lives and spiritual work as a body of Christ.

I believe that affirmations are biblical. The Bible rightly started in the book of Proverb 18:21 ".....death and life are in the power of the tongue and those who love it will eat its fruit".

Spoken words have power; they are so powerful. Ever wondered why the word was created through the words of God? Words have the potency to bring you blessings and the power to bring curses upon your life.

Let's take a look at the potency in words as recorded in Mark 11:23-24 "....for verily I say unto you, that whosoever shall say to this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea, and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that whatsoever things which he says shall come to pass, he shall have whatsoever he says".

Here, the Bible is plainly showing you the basis on which your desires shall be granted. You have to say something. Just like you can't walk into a grocery store without telling them what you want to purchase. They can't render any service when they don't know the kind of service you need. The same goes for God. You have to tell him because he wants to hear you say it in Numbers 14:28 "...say unto them, as truly as I live, says the Lord, as you have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you".

When you say to fear, "I rebuke you from oppressing my life, vacate this body right now." In Jesus' Name, Amen! That's you telling God; I don't want fear in my life; I don't want to be afraid. He will hear you, and he will answer you speedily in Jesus' name, Amen!

In Verse 24, "....therefore I say unto you, what things soever you desire when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you shall have them".

> There's a need for you to believe you will receive when you ask. Doubt, as small as it could be, can hinder your prayers from being answered.
> Isaiah 26:3 "....you will keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on you because he trusts in you".
> Affirm: As a vessel of peace, I contain grace, love, and light. I don't fear, for God keeps me at peace all the time".
> 2 Timothy 2:7 "....f*or God has not given us the spirit of fear, but power, and of love, and a sound mind".*
> Affirm: I release every negativity that alters the sound mind God has given me. I have the spirit of love and power. I surrender totally to the power of God to barricade fear out of my life.
> Philippians 4:6-7 – "Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; Verse 7 and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus."
> Affirm: I will not fear, for prayer will take its stead. My heart is guarded through Christ.
> Hebrews 4:11 – "L*et us, therefore, make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one will perish by following their example of disobedience."*
> Affirm: I make every effort to enter into the rest Christ has provided. I will not perish because of disobedience.*
> Philippians 4:8 – "Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things."

Affirm: my head will only meditate on pure, loving things that are of good report.

Psalm 138:8 – "The Lord will perfect that which concerns me: thy mercy, O Lord, endureth forever: forsake not the works of thine own hands"

Affirm: All that concerns me, the Lord will perfect. He will not forsake me, the work of his hands.

1 Peter 5:7 – "Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you."

Affirm: I cast my cares on him because he cares for me.

John 10:10 – "The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I come that they might have life and that they might have it more abundantly."

Affirm: I will not be killed, nor be destroyed, neither shall anything be stolen from me. I have life because Jesus has given me in abundance.

Jeremiah 29:11 – "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

Affirm: I am prospered because it is of God. Nothing can harm me. In Christ, I have a future and hope. I trust the plan God has for me, even when I don't know when it will be.

John 14:27 – "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

Affirm: because the prince of peace is always with me, I will not be afraid.

Psalm 23: 2-3 – "He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul..."

Affirm: The Lord will lead in the right, and he will restore my soul.

1 John 4:18 – "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love".

Affirm: The perfect love of Christ for me will cast out fear from my life. I've been made perfect in love because I fear not.

Psalm 61:2 – "From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I."

Affirm: when I'm overwhelmed, the Lord will lead me to a rock that is higher than me.

Philippians 4:7 -"...And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus".

Affirm: my heart is guarded by the peace of God through Christ Jesus.

John 16:33 – "I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world".

Affirm: I have peace in Christ because Jesus has overcome the world.

Psalm 43:5 – "Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you in turmoil within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my salvation and my God".

Affirm: I hope in God. He is my salvation, and my God, and I shall praise him.

Jeremiah 31:25 – "I will refresh the weary and satisfy the faint."

Affirm: the Lord will refresh and satisfy me.

Psalm 55:22 – "Cast your cares on the Lord and he will sustain you; he will never let the righteous be shaken".

Affirm: I will not be shaken; my cares are upon him.

Psalm 91:4 – "He shall cover you with His feathers, And under His wings, you shall take refuge; His truth shall be your shield and buckler."

Affirm: The lord is my refuge, shield, and my bulkier. Under his feathers, he will cover me.

CHAPTER SIX

How to Overcome and Stay in Victory

Ephesians 5:19 "......speaking to yourself in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the lord on your heart".

You can't give good gifts to someone who doesn't regard you. If you have ever done that? Then something must have made you do it. You have to give God a reason to save you. You don't expect God to keep you in victory if you've not made him a Lord over your life. You must accept Jesus into your life first before he can listen to you. Don't forget he rightly stated clearly in the scripture that prayer of a sinner/wicked man is an abomination unto him. The first step to salvation is, Acknowledgment - acknowledge that you're a sinner and you have come short of the glory of God. Acknowledge your imperfection of having wronged him in so many ways. It could be stealing, backbiting, lying, blasphemy, fornication, adultery, and others.

Confession - speak it out with your mouth. Honestly, with all sincerity, tell him about it by withholding nothing.

Seek Mercy (Ask for Forgiveness) - genuinely plead for mercy. Make sure your head, heart, and mouth are in agreement. Let there be no reservations in your heart. God searches the heart, and he knows your thoughts. He mustn't find your heart's content contrary to what your mouth is speaking.

Accept - In John 3:6, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten son, that whatsoever believes in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." Accept that Jesus died to save you. Personally, believe that Jesus' death was for your sake.

Say this Prayer with Me

I accept that Jesus died for me. I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sins are ever before me. I am tired of the guilt and shame of sin that I bear. Forgive me, Father, because I have wronged and despised salvation. Today, I bow in penitence to say I'm sorry. I wholeheartedly welcome your lordship over my life. From today onwards, be my savior and Lord. Show and teach your precepts that I may be an obedient and well-deserving child of the kingdom. Thank you, Father, for answering my earnest prayer, in Jesus' Name, Amen!

You are welcome into the kingdom. I welcome you into the new life of victory. You will consistently overcome.

Stay in Prayer Always

As you have received Christ and made him a Lord over your life, there's a need for you to consistently stay in prayer. As a child of God, there's an assurance of your prayers being heard and answered. You can imbibe the strategy I use called the "ACTS" of prayer.

A - Adoration. Use spiritual worship that will usher you into the atmosphere of praise.

C - Confession. Confess your transgressions and ask for forgiveness.

T -Thanksgiving. Appreciate his unending mercies upon your life. Appreciate his goodness and his faithfulness for sustenance, preservation, and provisions. For relatives, friends, neighbors, church members, colleagues, and all.

S - Supplication. In Philippians 4:6, "....be careful with nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with Thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God". Subsequently, table your concerns, and the Lord will hear you. Amen!

Prayer is one of the ways God discovers your reverence for him. Prayer reviews the true content of your heart. Prayer is an authentic way of communion with God. At the same time, by reading and meditating on the word of God, God will speak to you. He teaches you his ways while you are meditating. But in prayer, it's a two-edged sword where both parties get involved. One requests the other response. When you pray, you are requesting; when God answers, that is a response. While on earth, Jesus showed us the importance of praying and fasting when he conducted it for 40 days and nights.

What would have stopped Jesus if he had decided to embark on his journey of dying on the cross without consulting his Father? We don't know what would have been the outcome, but he found it to be important to first seek his Father's face. Jesus knew the importance/potency of prayer; that was why he used it. He understood what the presence of the Father in the storm he was about to face would do for him. He did not fail to carry it out even when he knew the intensity of the pain he was about to bear. Praying was one of the things he found relief in doing. He did it because he knew he would face it all with no exemption. The best thing that will happen is that his Father will not let him go through it alone. He will supply strength for him to be able to go through it all. Jesus conquered because the presence of his father was with him throughout.

You have to invite God to walk through it with you. There is a possibility you won't get your miracle or breakthrough as fast as you want it. But be rest assured that he will walk you through it and be with you. Remember, at a time, it became hard for Jesus, and he made a prayer saying, "O my Father if it be possible, let this cup pass over me." Jesus felt so severe that he wished to quit, but he didn't because his father stayed through to his promise. He was with him until the prophecy was fulfilled. Do not panic when you are yet to break through. God is still there, and he will be until you are completely set free from the evil claws of the enemy.

Never be Afraid

The spirit of fear is one of the greatest weapons the enemy has in his arsenal against a child of God. It's one of the best instruments he can use to destroy a person. Once you're afraid, you can be destroyed. That's why the Bible made mentioned (severally) for us to not be afraid come what may.

Fear will create problems that are not there. Imaginary, it creates a picture of attacks that might not be there. Hush every spirit of fear in your head. Don't allow it to occupy any space in your head because once it enters, it takes time to overcome it.

There was a time I was so sick and terribly weak in my bone. I felt pain trying to navigate my entire anatomy. Pain wanted to take over my system. It wanted to saturate my being and handicap me into believing in its rampage. But I know the thought God has for me. It's thought of good and not evil. He promised me an expected end, not the devil's wish for my life. And he told me in the word that my body is His temple, so nothing that does not dwell in His temple should be found in my body. The devil kept on repeating/speaking the words of death to me, and I immediately responded with the promises God made and has for me. He said, with long life, he will satisfy me and show me his salvation.

Spiritual battles and sickness are one of the many ways the enemy uses to inject you with fear. He will keep speaking the words of darkness into your ear. He is the one that brings you evil images of destruction. But never you be afraid; let the potency of the power in the word of God work for you. Speak the protection word of God you have stored in your heart into his ears. Let him hear those promises. Who will say, and it comes to pass when God has not ordained or commanded? Fight the Word in prayer, and you are sure to win with Christ.

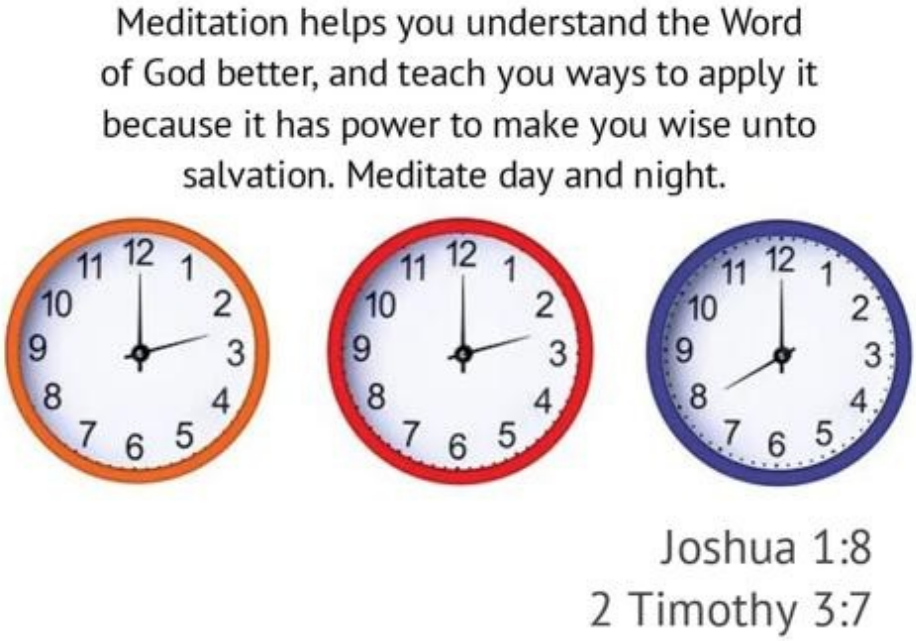

Rebuke the devourer with the word, and they will flee; this is evident when Jesus on earth and conducted his 40 days and 40 nights of prayer and fasting. As a bearer of flesh, he was expected to be hungry. The devil knew it, and he decided to use it against Jesus while he was on earth. He started first by telling him to turn a stone into bread since he is the son of God. Then again, he went on and told him to bow for him, and he will give the entire earth to him. That was not enough; he went on again and said he should throw himself down from the top where he was standing, and his angels will bear him their hands. Now the question is, did Jesus bow to his demands? What did he do? Jesus simply rebuked him with the word, "Thou shall not tempt the Lord thy God" that was the short sentence he made, but because it came from a place of authority, the devil fled.

In John 1: l, the bible says, in the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God". So you see evidently where the potency of the word came from. No wonder the world was created by the words that proceed out of the mouth of God.

The Lord is eager to perform His Word. In Jeremiah 1:12, "then said the Lord unto me, thou has well seen, for I will hasten my word to perform it." Speak the word, rebuke the fearful feeling, and the Lord will hasten and perform it in your life. I declare you free from the bondage of fear. The yoke of fear which the enemy has placed on you to always overcome you by it is broken this day, in Jesus' name, Amen!

Meditate Regularly on Those Scriptures That Are in Line With a Victory.

Joshua 1:8 ".... This book of the law shall not depart out of the mouth, but thou shall meditate therein day and night, that thou may observe to do according to all that is written there: for then thou shall make thy way prosperous and then thou shall have success.

Some scriptures are connected to victory, which you can only see if you are meditating on the word of God.

Reading and meditating on the word of God helps you to know and understand the inception of the story told, how they were able to overcome and how you can overcome too. There's great profit in constantly studying the word of God.

It will not only help you overcome the challenges you're facing, but it will sanitize your spirit, soul, and body to enable you to be sensitive to spiritual issues. You will not have to wait for a man of God to tell you what you're going through and what you need to do. You will be sensitive enough to know what every problem demands you do.

Regular meditation on the word of God will help you overcome anxiety. It will boost your faith. Meditations bring you a sense of calm. It helps you stay centered and gives you inner peace. It will lower stress and the risk it poses to your health, and it will help you boost your entire well-being. It will restore your peace and help you stay in it. It increases your concentration on Christ. Meditating on the word of God lets you know what God wants from you and what he has for you, which are all written in the scriptures. Reading his promises and his mighty works will give you comfort in times of trouble, and it will enhance your joy and increase your faith

Meditation helps you understand the word and teach ways to apply it to your life because it has the power to make you wise unto salvation through faith in Christ Jesus that the man of God (child of God) will be complete and thoroughly equipped for every good work. (2 Timothy 3:17)

Never Entertain Fearful Thoughts

Fearful thoughts are a natural part of the human experience. We all have them from time to time. They can be triggered by different things - an event, a person, or even our own thoughts. For Christians, fearful thoughts can be especially challenging because we want to trust God and His plan for our lives.

I vividly remember 15 years ago when the fear in my thoughts became too much to handle. I was lying in bed, paralyzed by the fear that I was going crazy. All of a sudden, it felt like all the thoughts in my head were swirling around, and I had no control over them. It was terrifying!

For months, I struggled with this paralyzing fear. Every time a weird thought popped into my head, I would panic and wonder if I was losing my mind. This constant worry caused me a lot of anxiety and stress.

I wasn't sure how to make the fear go away but eventually, I learned how to overcome it and if I could do it, so can you!

I realized that my thoughts were not the real me. The real me is the part of me that knows God and loves Him. Your thoughts are just like clouds in the sky- they come and go without having any control over you.

Remember that God knows your thoughts even before you think them (Psalm 139:2). He knows everything about you and loves you anyway! Don't be afraid to share your thoughts with Him; yes, He hears. Speak to Him today. He wants to hear you say it the way it bothers you!

Always try to focus on the positive things that God is doing in your life instead of worrying about your thoughts; you can equally switch on your music player and sing some Spirit-elevating songs from artists like Bethel music, Todd Galberth, etc. When you focus on the good things that God is doing, it will help you feel more secure in His love for you.

Never forget that Jesus died for your sins. He chose you so you could have eternal life through Him (John 3:16). No matter what you think or do, Jesus still loves you. He knows your imperfections, and that is why He became perfect so that you'd be made perfect. He understands how you feel, and He wants nothing more than to help you be an overcomer through His love and grace.

It's important to remember that God is always with you, and He has a good plan for you.

When you're feeling afraid, it's helpful to remind yourself of this truth and pray for strength and courage. It's also important to stay connected with other believers who can offer support and encouragement during difficult times.

It is important to remember that God loves you and has a plan for your life (Jeremiah 29:11). You can trust Him even when you don't understand what is happening around you. Pray for courage and strength during times of fear (Philippians 4:6-7). Focus on scriptures that encourage peace and hope instead of worry and doubt (Romans 8:28, 2 Timothy 1:7). When faced with fearful thoughts or situations, meditating on these verses can help you find the courage to move forward.

If you read and apply these verses to your life, it gives you the strength to overcome your fears. You should know that God is with you, guiding and protecting you every step of the way and when you put your trust in Him, He will help you overcome.

Ultimately, you need to remember that fear is not from God - it comes from the enemy himself. With Jesus on your side, you can overcome any fear that comes your way!

CONCLUSION

Consistency is the bedrock of every successful thing. You should continually remind God that he will forever be your fortress, your God whom you will trust. He is your weapon of warfare. Any blessing he didn't give, you can't have. Your entire life should be dependent on God. Your inheritance in Christ is abundant in all things.

May the good Lord answer when you call him in the day of trouble. The name of the Lord our God will defend you. He will send help for you from his sanctuary, and he will strengthen you out of Zion. The good Lord will remember all your offerings, and he will accept your burnt sacrifice. May he grant your request according to his will for your life. He will surely alter courses that are not of him. He will grant your heart desires and help you fulfill your purpose. Heaven will rejoice in your salvation. May the Lord fulfill all your petitions. The Lord saves his avoided, and he will answer you from his holy heaven with the saving strength of his right hand. Some trust in chariots, and some in horses, but you will remember the name of the Lord. You will put your trust in the Lord, for in him is your salvation made whole. Above all, do not disregard your faith in God for a breakthrough. But remember that faith determines miracles.
