Exercise 1 How are you? Did you get my email? We're staying in Cambridge for a week. It's an amazing city. We went on a boat trip yesterday. It was great fun but I got VERY wet! There are a lot of beautiful buildings and gardens here and I'm taking thousands of photos with dad's new camera. This morning, we went to the Fitzwilliam Museum – it was quite interesting but I prefer the shops. There's a really good market here. I want to go there this afternoon. See you soon! Katie

Module 2. Get Ready. Exercise 2.

I'm Mark. I live in London. My best friend is my next-door neighbour, Jack. We get on really well. He's into computers – and I am, too. But we don't stay inside all the time because we like sport, too. We often go to the swimming pool or the skateboard park. Sometimes we play football in our street. But one of our neighbours gets angry – he isn't very friendly – so we don't do it very often. Jack's got a sister called Emma. She loves school and she's very hard-working. I'm not very good at science, so she often helps me with my homework. So she's a good friend, too.

Module 3. Get Ready. Exercise 4.

May Do you remember Apollo 11 and the first man on the Moon? What was his name? Neil something.

Gran Neil Armstrong. Oh yes, I remember it very clearly. It was so exciting!

May When was it? How old were you?

Gran It was in 1969. 20th July. I was about your age. We watched it on our neighbour's black and white TV. It was fantastic. There were pictures in all the newspapers and magazines for weeks and weeks. There was one picture I specially remember. It was at school, on my classroom wall. I remember, I just stood and looked at it for ages. It was a photo of the Earth. The astronauts took it from the Moon. It really was amazing.

May How many astronauts were there? I only know about Neil Armstrong.

Gran Well, there were two others. There was Buzz Aldrin. He was the second man down the steps. And there was the pilot, Michael Collins. Michael Collins didn't leave the space ship. People often forget about him. But I always felt sorry for him, so I remember his name.

Module 3. Unit 7. Exercise 1.

One Kate and I saw a great film yesterday.

Two Then we went to a café.

Three I had a pizza.

Four We met one of Kate's friends.

Five We talked for hours.

Six It was a great day.

Module 3. Unit 9. Exercise 4.

Presenter Hello and welcome to Teen Talk. Jess and Rory won last week's competition so they are here to ask me questions about Angelina Jolie, one of the most famous actresses in the world. Hi Jess, what's your first question?

Jess Hi. My first question is: When and where was Angelina Jolie born?

Presenter Good question. She was born on the 4th June 1975 in Los Angeles in the USA. Rory, it's your turn. What's your question?

Rory Is it true her dad is famous?

Presenter Yes, it is! Her dad is Jon Voight, a successful Hollywood actor. When Angelina was two years old, he won an Oscar for his film Coming Home. So you're right, Rory, her father is famous. It's Jess's turn again. What's your next question?

Jess Was she a happy child?

Presenter Yes, she was. She lived with her mother, Marcheline Bertrand, and her brother, James. Her pets were snakes and lizards! Who wants to ask the next question?

Rory I do, please. When did Angelina make her first film?

Presenter That's easy. She made her first film when she was seven years old. Her father wrote the film and starred in it with her.

Jess Can I ask another question? Where did she go to secondary school?

Presenter In Los Angeles – she went to Beverly Hills High School. She wasn't a very happy teenager – she thought she wasn't pretty.

Rory Did she go to acting classes?

Presenter Yes, she did. When she was twelve, she started lessons at an acting school in Los Angeles.

Rory What's her most famous film?

Presenter Lara Croft! It's the film of a computer game. She made it in 2001. For the film, she spoke British English, she learned kick-boxing, street-fighting, yoga, ballet, car racing and dog-sledding. Hey, I think it's time for Jess to ask another question.

Jess When she isn't acting, what does she do?

Presenter Well, she's got six children so she's very busy. But she can find time to help refugees. She is a Good Will Ambassador for the United Nations. She travels to visit poor countries and war zones and she gives a lot of money to help people and animals all over the world. That's all of today's questions. This week's competition question is …

Module 3. Unit 9. Exercise 6.

Gran What's this music, May?

May It's Spam. I love their music.

Gran It's a bit strange, isn't it?

May Yeah, maybe. Who did you like when you were my age?

Gran How old are you? Fifteen? Sixteen? I can never remember.

May I'm fourteen. Honestly, grandma!

Gran Hmm. It was The Beatles and The Rolling Stones, mostly. My friends and I were really into The Beatles.

May Did you go to concerts?

Gran Your aunt Julia and I went to a Beatles concert once, in London.

May Did you live in London, then?

Gran No, we lived in Oxford. Then we moved to Birmingham when I was 18.

May Anyway, the concert. What was it like?

Gran It was fantastic. We danced and sang and shouted. It was amazing.

May Have you got the programme?

Gran No, I haven't. I don't know what happened to it. But I collected magazines and pictures. I've got those in a box somewhere.

May Oh, I'd love to see them. Where's the box?

Gran I don't know. I need to look for it. It's on one of my shelves. No, it isn't. I think it's in a cupboard. But I'm not sure. No, I remember now: Julia's got it … I think. Give me a day or two to find it.

May Okay. Don't forget.

Module 4. Get Ready. Exercise 2.

When I was seven I went on holiday with my parents. We went to Scotland. We stayed in a big old hotel. The building was really old. We had two rooms: one for me and one for my parents. Well, on the first night, I went to bed quite late and started to read a book. Then I looked up and I saw an old woman. She was at the end of the bed. She just stood there and looked at me. She didn't move and she didn't speak. I was really frightened and I closed my eyes. When I opened them, she was still there. I closed them again. And then, when I looked again, she wasn't there. I ran into my parents' room and shouted 'There's a ghost!' My mum and dad didn't believe me. They said it wasn't real. They said it was a dream. I stayed in their room all night and in the morning I felt better. Then, when we went down to breakfast the next day, I had a big surprise. There were some old photos on the walls. They showed the hotel years ago, in the war. The building wasn't a hotel then: it was a hospital. In one of the photos there were some doctors and nurses – and the ghost was one of them. She was one of the nurses. It was definitely the same person. I didn't sleep in the room after that. I stayed with my mum and dad. I'm fourteen now but I can still remember that night. I think it's interesting now, but at the time I was really, really scared.

Module 4. Unit 12. Exercise 3.

Harry Hi, Jenny. How are you?

Jenny Fine thanks, Harry. Hey! Did you see the horror film last night?

Harry Do you mean Ghost Story? Yes, I did. I thought it was brilliant.

Jenny Really? I thought it was stupid. I can't stand films like that.

Harry So why did you watch it?

Jenny My sister wanted to see it. She thought it was really scary.

Harry What kind of films do you like, then?

Jenny I like stories about aliens and UFOs. They're exciting. But they're not true, so I don't get scared. Close Encounters is good. It was on TV the other night. Did you see it?

Harry No, I didn't. Well I saw the first ten minutes. I don't really like that kind of film.

Jenny Why? Do you think it's stupid?

Harry No, not stupid. But it's old. The little boy in that film is probably a grandfather now. I don't like watching films when I know the story – when I know what happens. Anyway, I like horror films.

Jenny I don't. They're too scary.

Harry No, they aren't! They're so stupid, you can't really believe in them. They're just funny.

Module 4. Unit 12. Exercise 4.

One

Girl Did you watch that DVD last night?

Boy No, I went out.

Girl Did you go to the cinema?

Boy Well, I wanted to, but John didn't. So we just went back to his house and played games.

Two

Boy Did you see the film last night?

Girl Some of it. I missed the end. Did she die?

Boy No, she didn't. She went to live in Africa.

Girl Okay. She got married, right?

Boy No, she didn't.

Three

Boy Did you go out with Ben yesterday?

Girl Ben? No.

Boy So who did you go out with? The girls?

Girl I stayed at home, actually. I didn't go out.

Four

Girl I went to the Internet café on Saturday.

Boy Oh yeah? They've got some great games. What did you do there?

Girl Well, our computer's broken and I wanted to send some emails. But I didn't.

Boy Why not?

Girl I met a friend and we just sat and talked.

Five

Boy What did you watch last night?

Girl A documentary about elephants. My mum wanted to see it.

Boy Was it good?

Girl No, it was boring. I wanted to watch the film. Did you see it?

Boy No. I started to watch the football, but then my mobile rang, so I missed it.

Module 5. Get Ready. Exercise 3.

One I'm Jonathan. I don't work every day, but when I have a job I usually get up late and try to have a relaxing day, because it's very tiring. I go to the theatre about five. I put on my costume before the make-up people start on me. It takes a long time. The play starts at 7.30 and finishes three hours later. I get home at about one in the morning, but then it's difficult to sleep.

Two I'm Emma and I've got a fantastic job. I love everything about it. I love wearing the crazy clothes and crazy make-up. I love doing tricks and throwing water around. Most of all, I love making kids laugh.

Three My name's Steve and I'm a student, really. This is a weekend job. I'm a Roman soldier. I always stand in the same place. It's in a very busy street, and there are always a lot of people everywhere. I usually get quite a lot of money. One time, a little girl tried to push me off the box. But usually the kids are nicer that that.

Four My name's Marion. My job is quite unusual, really. I often go into schools. I usually work with young children, but sometimes I go into secondary schools, too. I also work in libraries, usually on Saturday mornings. Sometimes I go to children's parties. The children are usually noisy and excited at the beginning, then they get quieter and quieter and start to listen. It's wonderful.

Module 5. Unit 15. Exercise 4.

Girl Why don't we get some exercise at the weekend?

Boy Yeah, good idea. What about swimming?

Girl Okay. But when? We can't go on Friday evening.

Boy Why not?

Girl Band practices are on Fridays now.

Boy Oh, yes. Well, we can go swimming on Saturday morning.

Girl No. We've got orchestra then. And I want to go shopping on Saturday afternoon.

Boy Me too. Let's go together.

Girl Okay. And then would you like to come and watch DVDs at my house?

Boy Do you mean on Saturday evening?

Girl Yes.

Boy We can't do that. It's Dave's party then.

Girl Oh, yes – of course. His birthday.

Boy So, swimming on Sunday then?

Girl Yes. That's fine. Great! And we can relax on Sunday evening.

Boy Er – no, we can't. We've got homework – remember?

Module 5. Unit 15. Exercise 5.

This is the ABC cinema information line. ABC 1: Dust, starring Grant Hopkins and Stella Franks. Monday 13th to Saturday 18th June. 2.30 and 7.30. Module 5. Unit 15. Exercise 6.

Dust is about a murder in a small town in the USA. Dust is suitable for ages fifteen and over. It lasts two hours forty minutes. Tail Back. A family film. It's the story of a little girl and a lost dog. Funny, sad and exciting – a film for everybody. Two hours fifteen minutes long.

Module 6. Get Ready. Exercise 3.

Boy What does John look like?

Girl Hmm. Well, he's very good-looking.

Boy What colour's his hair?

Girl Fair.

Boy Is it long or short?

Girl Not long, not short. Well, short, but not very short.

Boy Hmm. Straight or curly?

Girl Straight.
Boy What colour are his eyes?
Girl Green – they're green. What does your friend Holly look like?
Boy Oh, she's pretty.
Girl Yes, but what does she look like?
Boy She's got big green eyes.
Girl And … ? What about her hair?
Boy It's dark. And short. And a bit curly.

Module 6. Unit 18. Exercise 4.

One
Girl Excuse me. How much are those trainers?
Assistant These? They're only £16.
Girl Really? Wow! Can I try them?
Assistant Yes, of course. Sit down.
Two
Assistant Can I help you?
Girl Oh, I'm just looking at these tops. Have you got any red ones like this?
Assistant Red? I'm not sure. No, sorry. But we've got blue and, um, light green, I think.
Girl I'd like to try a blue one, then. I don't like green.
Three
Boy Can I have one of those chocolate bars?
Assistant Right. Large or small?
Boy Small, please. And have you got any chewing gum?
Assistant No. Sorry.
Four
Man Have you got any old jazz CDs?
Assistant Yes, over there. Next to the folk music.
Man Oh, yes. Thanks. And what about classical music?
Assistant We don't sell it. Sorry.
Five
Boy I'm looking at these games. I can't decide.
Man Well this one is the most expensive. It's £35. But honestly, I think this one is better. And it's only £25.
Boy Hmm. What about this one?
Man Well, it's only £15. But it's not very good.

Module 7. Get Ready. Exercise 1.

And now for this week's prizes. Have you got a lucky ticket? Listen carefully: here come those lucky numbers. Ticket number 623 wins a fantastic watch phone. That's number 623, the watch phone. Ticket number 44 wins the wireless headset. Okay? That's number 44, the wireless headset.

Number 919 – that's 919 – wins the flat screen TV. The flat screen TV for number 919. Number 487 wins the handheld computer. The handheld computer: ticket number 487. The video camera goes to number 101. That's ticket 101: the video camera. And finally, who's got the MP3 player? It's number 52. Number 52 wins the MP3 player.

Module 7. Get Ready. Exercise 3.

One
Linda Ooh! This is nice. Look, it's got a little keyboard. And it sends emails, and everything.
Tony Yes, but it's so small! The screen is really tiny.
Linda I know: that's why I like it. It just goes in your pocket.
Two
Linda Wow! I want one of those.
Tony But you don't need it. You've got a phone and a watch.
Linda I know but this is better. You wear it so you can't lose it.
Tony Yeah, but do you want to wear a big, heavy thing all the time?
Three
Linda My sister's got one like this. She got it for university.
Tony I'd really like one, but they're a lot of money.
Linda Yeah. But they're much better than normal computers. I mean, you can take them anywhere you like.
Tony Yes, I know. They're great.
Four
Linda Oh, look! This is the one I want.
Tony Why?
Linda Well, it holds a lot of songs. And it's easy to use.
Tony Yeah, it looks good, too.
Linda Yes, but do you have to have a new computer to use it?
Tony I'm not sure. Probably.

Module 7. Unit 21. Exercise 4.

Good morning, ladies and gentlemen, and welcome to the London express. We hope you enjoy your journey. A selection of food and drinks is available from the buffet car in carriage number 2, near the front of the train. It's open from 9 o'clock to 12.30. Please note that carriage 6 is a quiet zone. No mobile phones in carriage 6. Thank you. This train is due to arrive in London at 1.15.

Transport in Cambridge: You can travel all round the city by bus. A single ticket usually costs about £2.00 or you can pay £3.50 for an all-day ticket. There are tourist buses, too. That's probably the best way to get a good view of the city. They cost about £13, but there are student discounts.

A lot of people cycle round Cambridge. There are thousands of students in Cambridge and they nearly all have bikes. You can rent a bike for about £10 a day. It's a brilliant way to get round the city. The river boats are called 'punts'. They are great fun and it's a very enjoyable way to go sightseeing. You can take a punt out on the river for about £14 an hour – that's for each boat – or you can pay a student to take you on a boat trip down the river. That costs about £12 for each person in the punt.

One Do something different next year. Try an activity holiday with The Activity Holiday Company. We organise low-cost activity holidays in Scotland. You stay at one of the local youth hostels and choose from a long list of activities. You can go skiing one day, and sightseeing and shopping the next. Why spend money on expensive hotels? It's much more fun with The Activity Holiday Company.
Two This year, why not go camping with Medvac Holidays? We have a fantastic campsite in one of the most beautiful parts of the south of France. Our comfortable, modern tents are ready and waiting for you. A holiday with us is much more fun than staying in a hotel – and much, much cheaper. We organise lots of great activities for the whole family: fishing, snorkelling and sailing, as well as cycling. Or you can swim in our private swimming pool, or just relax on the beach. This year, holiday with Medvac.
Three Do you usually go camping or stay in youth hostels? Would you like a really special holiday this year? Come and stay with us at Raymond's. We are a quiet, family hotel in north Wales. We can offer you comfortable rooms, wonderful food and fantastic countryside. Enjoy a game of tennis here, or borrow one of our bicycles for the day. Many of our visitors spend a day or two at Conway Castle and Anglesey. Or for a family day out there's a popular amusement park five miles away. Give us a call today.

Moira Hello, my name is Moira. How can I help you?
Visitor Hello. I'd like some information about the Tower Bridge Exhibition, please.
Moira Yes, of course. When would you like to go?
Visitor Um, some time next week. Is it open on Sundays?
Moira Yes, it's open seven days a week, from 10 a.m. to 6.30 p.m.
Visitor Oh, I see. Oh, that's fine. How much does it cost?
Moira An adult ticket is £7.00. It's £3.00 for children.
Visitor I see. And what does 'child' mean, actually?
Moira Oh, a child is under fifteen.
Visitor Ah. Good. What about students?
Moira Student tickets are £5.00 if you have a student card.
Visitor Right, thanks.
Moira If you need any more information, try the website.
Visitor Good idea! What's the address?
Moira It's www.towerbridge.org.uk.
Visitor Okay. Thanks very much.

Good morning. I'd like to tell you a little bit about this world famous bridge.

Well, the story starts in 1876. There was a big competition to design a new bridge to go across the River Thames. There were more than fifty designs, and a man called John Wolfe Barry was the winner.

It took eight years to build the bridge. It's a very complicated design. When big ships need to go under it, it opens up for them. That means that people and traffic on the bridge have to stop and wait, of course. It's very exciting to watch. It's a huge, heavy bridge but it only takes one minute to open.

Once, in 1952, a London bus was crossing the bridge when it started to open. The bus jumped across to the other side, and everybody was okay.

These days, visitors like you can take a lift to the top and enjoy the amazing views over London. And did you know, you can even use it for private parties? Imagine that! All your friends up there …
